OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli. S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCL. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

PETER ANGELOS Managing Partner

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August of 1993.

Oriole fans who have filled Oriole Park at Camden Yards since its opening have longed for the club to reward their loyalty by acquiring and developing top quality talent on the field. Over the last two years, Mr. Angelos has put together one of the most respected baseball operations teams in the game today with General Manager Pat Gillick, Assistant General Manager Kevin Malone, Director of Player Development Syd Thrift and Manager Davey Johnson. Those additions last season led to the Orioles first post-season appearance in 13 years and an Orioles victory over the defending American League champion Cleveland Indians in the Division Series.

Mr. Angelos has also taken constructive steps off the field. Fans who were seated in box seats down the left and right field lines had complained since the park's opening because their seats were improperly angled toward center field. More than 3,300 seats in question have been adjusted to improve their angle. Fans who felt uncomfortable when being approached near the ballpark by aggressive ticket scalpers received support from the Baltimore City Council in '94 after Mr. Angelos sponsored a bill to banish the practice from the areas within 10 blocks of Camden Yards. In 1995 a "scalp free zone" was created at the ballpark for fans wishing to purchase tickets or sell tickets to others for face value. In addition, many fans whose season tickets were unfairly relocated when the club moved from Memorial Stadium had these injustices rectified at the insistence of Mr. Angelos.

Beyond correcting inherited problems and building a club fans can be proud of, the Orioles, through Mr. Angelos' leadership continue to make substantial contributions to the Maryland community, particularly for children. This past year, the Orioles Charitable Foundation contributed over $300,000 to organizations such as the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Boy Scouts of America, Parks and People Foundation, The Baltimore Urban League, Sports Boosters, Grant-A-Wish, The Ed Block Courage Awards Foundation, The National Aquarium, The Learning Bank, The National Multiple Sclerosis Society, The Arthritis Foundation, American Heart Association, The Baltimore Zoo, The Walters Art Gallery, Greater Washington Boys & Girls Clubs, AFRAM and for the third year the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

In 1996, Mr. Angelos made a 1 million dollar contribution to the Babe Ruth Museum Camden Station project that, in 1998, will be the home of a fabulous state of the art Baltimore baseball museum and learning center. The project, which is being guided by the Orioles and the Babe Ruth Museum, will include a turn of the century-style restaurant consistent with the Oriole Park architecture and a museum that will include tributes to the Negro Leagues, Baltimore's 13 professional ballparks, the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame and much more.

Peter Angelos was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he is the President and managing partner of the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C. He is a member of the American Trial Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, Maryland State Bar Association, District of Columbia Bar Association, Tennessee Bar Association and the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

Mr. Angelos, known nationally for his success as a plaintiff's attorney, is admitted to practice before the courts of Maryland, Federal Courts, District of Columbia, Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, the United States Supreme Court, and the United States Supreme Tax Court. In addition, Mr. Angelos has practiced in New York, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, and before the courts of numerous jurisdictions in the country.

Mr. Angelos has served the community as a member of the Baltimore City Council. He presently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of Loyola College, The Johns Hopkins University, Western Maryland College, and the University of Baltimore where he also serves on the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law. He also serves on the boards of the University of Maryland Foundation, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Saint Joseph's Hospital and the Grant-A-Wish Foundation.

He has received Honorary Doctorate Degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the American Academy of Achievement and the Breath of Life Lung Association. Mr. Angelos is the recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, the Pillar of Sports Advertising Club award, and the AFL-CIO Social Justice award. He was also named Sportsman of the Year in 1995 by the New York Daily News.

He and his wife, the former Georgia Kousouris, reside in Baltimore. They have two sons, John and Louis.

Celebrate Baltimore's Bicentennial Anniversary in 1997

The Baltimore Orioles, along with Mayor Kurt Schmoke and the city of Baltimore, will help celebrate the bicentennial this year by spotlighting Baltimore in Orioles Magazine, the Orioles official publication. In addition, Orioles team members will wear commemorative patches on their uniforms during the 1997 regular season.

TOM CLANCY VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Tom Clancy's story is a publishing fairy tale come true. His first novel, The Hunt For Red October, published by the Naval Institute Press in hardcover in 1984 sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted onto The New York Times bestseller list. The Hunt for Red October ended up selling over 500,000 copies in hardcover and eight million paperbacks (Berkley Books, 1985). The book has been translated into a number of foreign languages, including French, German, Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Chinese, and now Russian.

Mr. Clancy has also written Red Storm Rising, Patriot Games, The Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, and Debt of Honor. Mr. Clancy is presently working on a new Jack Ryan novel. Ryan is a hero of Mr. Clancy. All of Mr. Clancy's books have sold millions and ranked No. 1 on The New York Times bestseller list for both paperback and hardcover novels.

Prior to writing The Hunt for Red October, Clancy's only literary effort was an article on the MX missile published in the Naval Journal Proceedings. Although he had dreamed of writing a novel since college, Clancy, who majored in English at Baltimore's Loyola College, had always made his living as an insurance agent.

Clancy's The Hunt for Red October, Patriot Games, and Clear and Present Danger were made into movies and were blockbuster box office smashes.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons and government-produced maps, all a tribute to the author's lifelong fascination with technology. Although he devoured military books since childhood, severe myopia prevented Clancy from joining the service, although he did serve in the Army ROTC at Loyola.

Clancy's interest in writing fiction resurfaced in 1976 when he read of the attempt of a Soviet frigate's crew to defect to Sweden. The idea, he says, rattled around his head for years. Finally, he imagined the frigate as a submarine and a novel based on the incident began to take shape. The fledgling author completed his first draft in just over three months.

Although Clancy had never been on a submarine in his life, he boned up on technical knowledge with such books as Combat Fleets of the World and Guide to the Soviet Navy. His grasp of the material was such that everyone from critics to military and intelligence experts hailed The Hunt For Red October for its uncanny verisimilitude.

Despite the astounding publicity surrounding all of his novels, Clancy insists the cocktail party circuit is not for him and that his life hasn't changed all that much. At age 49, Clancy is the father of four.

JOE CODD: THE ONE AND ONLY

In this, the Orioles 44th Anniversary Season in Baltimore, one person has been with the organization since the beginning. He is Joe Codd, a member of the ticket office staff.

SENIOR EXECUTIVES

JOE FOSS

Vice Chairman of Business and Finance

Now in his fourth season as the Orioles Vice Chairman of Business and Finance, Joe Foss oversees all of the club's business, financial, and administrative operations. In addition, he works closely with the baseball operations department on free agent contracts and budgets.

Foss is a member of the Major League Management Committee on the player pension plan. He also is a member of the American League Player Personnel Development Committee.

On June 1, 1993, Foss joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and then supervised the transition between ownerships. Mr. Angelos appointed him to his current position on December 9, 1993.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul, MN in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First American Bank, N.A., of Washington in December, '89. In April, 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Community involvement is very important to Foss, as evidenced by his active membership as treasurer and trustee of The Green Door, an organization located in Washington, D.C., that is dedicated to working with the mentally ill, helping them to obtain housing and job training. He is also a board member of the National Aquarium.

He is a former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis and former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association. In 1989, he served as president during the 50th anniversary of the Aquatennial, a 10-day summer festival which features water and land sports, attractions and parades, attracting millions of people.

In addition to his involvement in the community, Foss is a member of several professional and civic organizations including the Economic Club of Washington and the Metropolitan Washington Board of Trade.

Born December 27, 1948 in Minneapolis, Foss and his wife Dawn have three children, Katie (15), Annie (11), and Michael (9). They reside in Cockeysville, MD.

Robert Ames Chief Financial Officer

Bob Ames is in his third year as the Orioles Chief Financial Officer. He was named to his current position in April, 1994 after an eight year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore.

With the Orioles, Bob is responsible for accounting, management information systems, human resources and special projects.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable, credit and collections and the cash management departments.

Ames received Bachelor of Science degrees in Microbiology and Journalism/Public Relations from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987 he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore.

Bob is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs and the American Institute of CPAs.

Bob resides in Bel Air, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily, Lindsay and Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin.

Michael Lehr Executive Director, Marketing & Broadcasting

Mike Lehr is in his second season with the Orioles and first full season in Baltimore. He was named to his current position on May 13, 1996. He came to the Orioles from the Cleveland Indians where he had served as Director of Broadcasting since December, 1993.

His responsibilities for the Orioles include broadcasting, marketing, advertising, promotions, corporate partnerships and ballpark entertainment.

Prior to the beginning of his baseball career with the Indians, Mike was a television executive in Ohio and Illinois. From February, 1991 until he joined the Indians, Mike served as the Regional Director of Programming and Network Operations for SportsChannel Ohio in Cleveland and Cincinnati.

Mike's vast television experience includes Director of Programming and Production for Prime Cable of Chicago and Manager of Programming Operations and Facilities for Westinghouse Broadcasting, Inc., Group W Cable and Videoproductions.

Some of the honors that Lehr has received for his work include a pair of ACE Awards for Cable Excellence. In addition, he has received 10 nominations, including two for Overall Excellence, Live Sports Coverage, Variety and Public Affairs Programming.

In 1994 he was the winner of the Cleveland chapter Emmy Award for "Indians Baseball" on SportsChannel as the Outstanding Live Sports Program. He has also been nominated for 55 Emmy Awards by the Cleveland and Chicago chapters of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

The Chicago native is a 1984 graduate of the University of Wisconsin with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications and Political Science.

Mike resides in Ellicott City, MD, with his wife Theresa and their two children, Maggie and Michael.

PAT GILICK GENERAL MANAGER

Pat Gillick, 59, was named Orioles General Manager on November 27, 1995. He is in the 2nd year of a three-year contract. The two-time Major League "Executive of the Year" put together an Oriole team that made it to the post-season for the first time in 13 years and dethroned the defending American League champion Cleveland Indians in the 1996 Division Series.

This past off-season he improved the club yet again with the free agent signings of pitcher Jimmy Key, a proven winner over the last 13 years and a member of two World Championship clubs and Mike Bordick, regarded by many as the best defensive shortstop in the game today.

Gillick, born on August 22, 1937 in Chico, California, had been with the Toronto Blue Jays since the beginning of their existence, joining them on August 16, 1976 as the Vice-President of Player Personnel, just prior to their inaugural season. He was responsible for all baseball related activities including, scouting, the farm system and the major league team. Gillick was named Vice-President of Baseball Operations for the Jays on November 24, 1977, and was appointed Executive Vice-President, Baseball on September 24, 1984.

He was voted Canada's "Baseball Man of the Year" by the Toronto and Montreal chapters of the BBWAA in 1983 and 1991, and was honored as UPI's Major League Baseball "Executive of the Year" in 1985 and American League "Executive of the Year" in 1993. Also in '93, Pat was co-winner of The Sporting News "Sportsman of the Year" along with Toronto Manager Cito Gaston. Pat was honored by the Harvard School of Business in the fall of 1994.

Upon retirement as a player at the age of 26, Pat accepted a job as Assistant Farm Director of the Houston Astros under Eddie Robinson and spent 10 years with Houston, working his way to Regional Scouting Coordinator and then the Director of Scouting. He joined the Yankees in September of 1974 as Coordinator of Player Development and Scouting under Tal Smith.

He graduated in 1954 at the age of 16 from Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, CA where he played baseball and football. He enrolled at the University of Southern California in the fall and graduated in 1958 at the age of 20 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business. Pat pitched at USC under coach Rod Dedeaux and was a member of the NCAA College World Series championship team in '58. He pitched semi-pro ball for Edmonton of the Western Canada League in the summer of 1958.

The left-handed pitcher signed his first professional contract with the Orioles' Mike Catron. He made his pro debut in 1959 at Stockton (C), going 9-5 with a 3.78 ERA. He advanced to Fox Cities (B) in 1960 where he was 11-2 with a 1.91 ERA and he completed that season at AAA Vancouver. Pat spent the next three seasons between Little Rock (AA), Elmira (A) and Rochester (AAA) and compiled 10 wins at Little Rock in 1961. In five seasons in the Orioles organization he compiled a 45-32 record with a 3.42 ERA.

Gillick played under Orioles legendary manager Earl Weaver for three seasons at Fox Cities (1960) and Elmira (1962-63) and in '63 was a teammate of Orioles manager Davey Johnson. He retired in 1963 due to arm problems.

Pat married the former Doris Sander in November of 1968. He and Doris have a daughter, Kimberly (11/24/72). Pat's father, Larry Gillick, was a former star pitcher with Sacramento of the Pacific Coast League and a former sheriff of Butte County, California.

KEVIN MALONE ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Malone, 39, was named Assistant General Manager of the Orioles by Pat Gillick on December 22, 1995. He is in his 2nd season as the Orioles Assistant GM. He was with the Montreal Expos the previous four seasons.

Malone held the position of General Manager of the Montreal Expos the previous two years (1994-95).

Prior to '94, Kevin was Montreal's Director of Scouting, a position he held since November 2, 1991 when he returned to the Expos' organization after a three-year stint as the Minnesota Twins' East Coast Scouting Supervisor (1989-91). In 1991, he served as the Advance Scout assigned to the Braves when Minnesota defeated Atlanta for the World Championship.

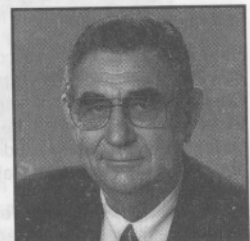

In 1988 he was the Expos' scout in Southern California and a coach/hitting instructor at Class A Jamestown in the New York-Penn League. Kevin began his scouting career in 1985 with the California Angels and served as their Southern California scout for three years (1985-87) and he also coached and instructed at the short season level.

Malone was born on August 6, 1957 in San Diego, CA, and he grew up in Louisville, KY. He graduated from Bishop David High School and from the University of Louisville in 1980. In '80 he was drafted as a second baseman by the Cleveland organization.

Kevin and his wife, the former Marilyn Perry, have two children, Shannon (9) and Shawn (6).

SYD THRIFT DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Syd Thrift is in his 3rd year as the Orioles Director of Player Development and his 40th year in professional baseball. Thrift was appointed to his current position on October 31, 1994. This past season, under Syd's direction, the Orioles farm system had a 33-game improvement as well as a league championship at Bluefield and playoff berths at Rochester and High Desert.

Syd was the Founding Director of the innovative Kansas City Royals Baseball Academy. As Director of the Academy from 1970-1972, Syd implemented a system of player procurement and development which was unique in scope and design. In 1988 with the Pirates, Thrift was honored as "General Manager of the Year" after taking Pittsburgh from last place in '85 to a contender. He gave respected manager Jim Leyland his start as a major league manager in '85. In 1990 the Pirates team that Thrift assembled received a series of honors: Leyland was "Manager of the Year"; Barry Bonds was National League MVP; and Doug Drabek captured Cy Young honors.

Thrift also had served the Oakland Athletics as Director of Player Personnel, the New York Yankees as Senior Vice-President of Baseball Operations and the Chicago Cubs as Assistant General Manager.

Though Thrift had an eight-year hiatus from baseball (1977-84), he was an entrepreneur and remained close to the game. In 1976, Thrift entered the real estate business in Fairfax, VA. In 1982 he opened Syd Thrift and Associates, Inc. Realtors. While serving that company as president and chief executive officer, he remained active in baseball.

A native of Locust Hill, VA, Thrift graduated from high school at the age of 16, then attended Randolph-Macon College where he graduated at the age of 20. While there he played baseball, earning all-state honors. Thrift received an honorary doctorate degree from Randolph-Macon in 1990. The left-handed pitcher, who also played first base, signed with the Yankees on June 13, 1949.

In 1990, he wrote, "The Game According to Syd," published by Simon and Shuster and co-written by Barry Shapiro. In 1988 he received the Dapper Dan "Man of the Year" award, the first non-player to be so honored. He was honored in 1987 by the Arthritis Foundation and was Vectors' Man of the Year in Sports.

In 1995, Syd was awarded the Edwin Rommel Award for years of contribution to the game. In addition, in 1996 he was elected to the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame.

Syd and his wife Dolly reside in Baltimore and have two sons, Jim (34) and Mark (31). Jim is a coach at Class AAA Indianapolis, the Cincinnati Reds top affiliate. He has three grandchildren: Ryan (5), Audrey (3), and Brandon (2).

GARY NICKELS DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Gary Nickels, 50, begins his seventh year as the Director of Scouting for the Orioles. His responsibilities include overseeing the scouting department in addition to hiring and evaluating scouts. Gary is entering his 26th year in professional baseball, his eighth with the Orioles. As scouting director, Gary has made his mark with his quality draft choices. Twelve of the players on the Orioles 40-man roster were either drafted or signed as amateur free agents since Gary became scouting director: RHP Rocky Coppinger, RHP Julio Moreno, RHP Nerio Rodriguez, INF Wady Almonte, OF Eugene Kingsale, OF Danny Clyburn, LHP Rick Krivda, OF Jeffrey Hammonds, INF Juan Bautista, RHP Jimmy Haynes, RHP Armando Benitez, and CA B.J. Waszgis

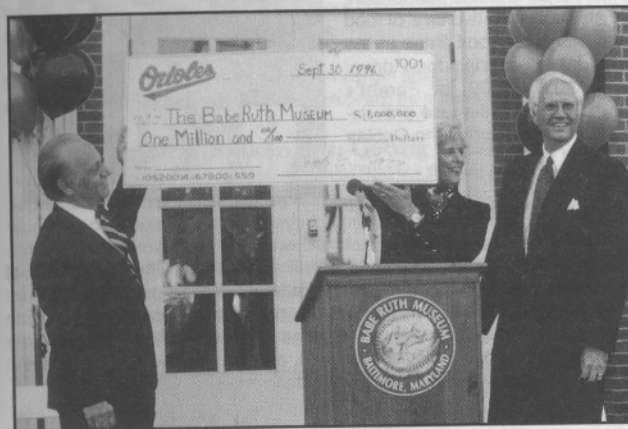

Nickels started with the Orioles in 1989 as the Midwest Scouting Supervisor and National Cross-Checker. He handled major league and advance scouting duties for the club, and also aided in the first round selections of Oriole hurlers Ben McDonald in 1989 and Mike Mussina in 1990.

He started his career as a scouting administrative assistant with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1972. After spending 10 years with the Phils, Gary went to the Chicago Cubs for seven years, as an area scout and central region scouting supervisor. With the Cubs, he participated in the drafting and signing of several current major leaguers including Shawon Dunston, Mark Grace, Mike Harkey, and current Oriole Rafael Palmeiro.

A 1968 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University, Nickels was the captain of the baseball team as a left-handed pitcher. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration in 1975 from Ohio University, where he was a graduate assistant for the Bobcats' baseball team.

A resident of Naperville, Illinois, Gary and his wife Margie have one daughter, Lora (10/13/79).

ORIOLES IN THE COMMUNITY

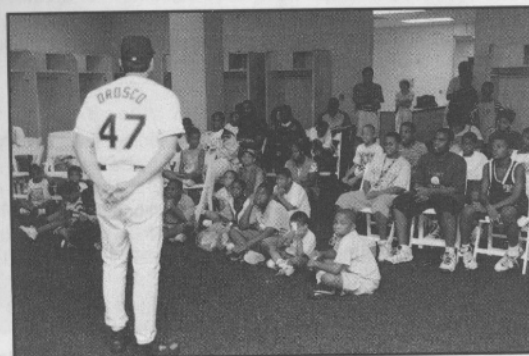

EFFORTS TOUCHED THE COMMUNITY

1996 was an exciting season on and off the field for the Orioles. The Orioles community relations effort touched all the bases through the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation, involvement by Orioles players and the Orioles wives, community programs for children, hundreds of community appearances and thousands of donations to community groups.

The Orioles Charitable Foundation

Under the guidance of Peter and Georgia Angelos, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation has been a major financial contributor to civic and charitable organizations throughout the Orioles community. Last year the foundation donated over $1,300,000. This included a $1 million contribution to the Babe Ruth Museum Camden Station expansion and donations to other groups including Afram, The Baltimore Symphony and the Maryland Science Center.

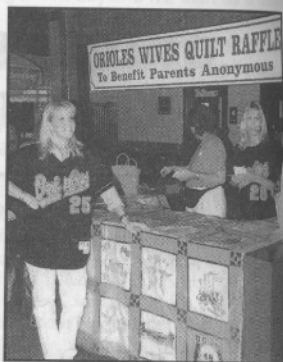

Orioles Players

Throughout the summer underprivileged children attended baseball games courtesy of Jesse Orosco's Jesse's Kids, Mike Mussina's Mooseketeers and Cal Ripken's Because We Care programs. During the 1996 season, Orioles players participated in the community by giving their time, lending their names and financial support to community groups.

Orioles Wives

The Orioles wives were busy in 1996. Working with the Oriole Advocates, they orchestrated the first Orioles Golf Outing and raised $34,000 for the Johns Hopkins Children's Center and the Oriole Advocate Foundation. They also collected two tons of food for the Maryland Food Bank at the Orioles Wives canned food drive, and raised $40,000 for Parent's Anonymous, a child-abuse prevention organization, during the Orioles Wives quilt raffle.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner City (RBI)

In 1996, the Orioles in conjunction with the Baltimore City Department of Recreation initiated eight RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City) teams for children 13-15 years of age. The goal of this program is to give inner-city youth the opportunity to learn and enjoy the game of baseball while motivating the children to go to school, build self esteem, provide positive role models and facilitate and further develop the ideas of teamwork.

Fixin' Up Fields

The Orioles launched a new effort to improve baseball fields throughout the Orioles region in 1996. Corporate partners Saturn and True Value teamed up with the Orioles to improve Little League fields in Baltimore City, Baltimore County, Montgomery County and Prince George's County.

Baltimore Baseball League (BBL)

The Baltimore Baseball League for 4th and 5th grade students continued to thrive in 1996. The program provides 1000 students with an incentive to improve school attendance, academic performance, citizenship, and physical fitness through participation in the baseball league programs. In addition, each child must read 10 books and write a book report on each.

Reading, Reading, Reading

Two of the Orioles educational programs focus on reading. The "Buck A Book" and "Reading Makes Cents" programs in York, PA and Baltimore County, MD encouraged children to read. These programs asked children to raise money for adult literacy programs by getting pledges for each book they read. The top readers were recognized at an Orioles game. The Orioles Summer Reading Program, in conjunction with local libraries, encouraged children to read during the summer. Over 40,000 children participated in 1996.

Bird Watch

In addition to the over 220 appearances by Orioles players, the Orioles Bird appeared over 450 times at community events in 1996.

Donations

In 1996, the Orioles also donated signed and collectible items to over 2,800 charity events throughout the Orioles region.

BUILD Program

The Orioles continued to build upon their organizational philosophy of giving back to the Baltimore community when the team made a $500,000 donation to the BUILD/CHILD FIRST initiative.

BUILD is a church-based community group formally known as Baltimoreans United in Leadership Development. BUILD's aggressive program plans to turn ten city schools into pre-and after school community centers where children can learn a number of varied activities.

BUILD co-chairman, Reverend Grady Yeargin said, "Mr. Angelos has always expressed his support and seen this program as a potential national model."

Cal Ripken/Lou Gehrig Fund

In 1995, Mr. Angelos had the vision to add 260 V.I.P. field seats for the historic September 6 game when Cal Ripken surpassed Lou Gehrig's major league record for consecutive games played. The seats were offered for $5,000 each with the funds providing the endowment for the creation of the Cal Ripken/Lou Gehrig Fund for Neuromuscular Research at John Hopkins University. The sale of the seats raised $1.3 million and the Orioles pledged an additional $700,000 to bring the total donation to $2 million to help the fight against the disease that claimed the life of the former Yankee great.

THE BABE RUTH MUSEUM— EXPANDING INTO CAMDEN STATION

On February 6, 1995, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore row house located "just a long fly ball from Oriole Park at Camden Yards." His house is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles.

The Museum showcases the Orioles in two exciting exhibits this year. The first exhibit, "Birds in the Coop," opens on Babe's birthday, February 6, and will feature the 25 Orioles enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. Video highlights, audio interviews, graphic displays and artifacts will be combined to tell the exciting stories of the "Birds in the Coop." The grand opening of the "500 Home Run Club" will take place on May 7, and will feature an exciting array of memorabilia including the famous Eddie Murray 500th home run ball. Both exhibits will be on display at the Museum throughout the 1997 season.

Striving to exhibit its growing collections, the Museum plans to expand into a second facility: Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos has donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station will feature many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits, and hands-on children's learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum will continue to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites. The new Babe Ruth Baseball Center at Camden Station is slated to open in 1998.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Richie Bancells Head Trainer

Born: November 11, 1955

This is Richie's 10th season as the O's head trainer, his 14th with the big league club and his 21st in the Orioles organization. Before coming to Baltimore, he served four years (1980-83) at Rochester as the Red Wings' trainer/road secretary. During that time, he also assisted his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, during the Orioles spring training camp in Miami.

Richie joined the Baltimore organization in 1977 as assistant trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League)...He served as head trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to Rochester in 1980.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978 and earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981...He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and currently serves as treasurer for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. This past off-season, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese trainers and physicians.

He and his wife, Carol, were married June 10, 1978...They have 3 children: Christopher (7/8/80), Andrea (8/19/85) and Timothy (2/8/92)...Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College...In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing...The Bancells live in Bel Air, MD.

Brian Ebel Assistant Trainer

Born: December 26, 1965

Brian is in his first season as the Orioles Assistant trainer, replacing Jamie Reed who was named head trainer for the expansion Tampa Bay Devil Rays...Brian was named to his current position on October 30, 1996.

This is Brian's 13th season as a member of the Orioles system's training staff. The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head trainer for the Orioles rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college.

He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as trainer of the Orioles then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator where he served since 1992.

In addition, Ebel had assisted the Orioles major league spring training camp in each of the previous four seasons and also was the trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994 and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

The Wilmington, OH native grew up in Versailles, IN. He and his wife Nancy have two sons, Brady and Brett.

TIM BISHOP Strength and Conditioning Coach

Born: November 9, 1964

Tim is in his fifth year with the Orioles and his seventh in the organization. Prior to joining the Orioles in 1993, he was an on-field coach and conditioning coach with Frederick (Class A, Carolina League) in 1991 and the O's minor league conditioning coordinator in 1992. He also assisted the Orioles in spring training those two years.

Tim graduated from East Stroudsburg (PA) University in 1986 with a BS degree in exercise physiology. He earned a master's degree from West Chester (PA) University. He played four years of football and baseball at ESU and after graduating, signed a professional football contract with the St. Louis Cardinals as a wide receiver. He was released by the Cardinals but signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Yankees and played two seasons in their minor league system. In 1987-88, he played outfield at Oneonta, Prince William and Ft. Lauderdale. While at Prince William, he was a teammate of Orioles pitcher Alan Mills. His playing career ended when he was hit by a pitch and broke his arm.

Tim is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and was elected a member of the Maryland Council on Physical Fitness. He has been a fitness consultant and personal trainer for the past six off-seasons.

A native of Sellersville, PA, Tim is single and resides in Baltimore.

REX BARNEY Public Address Announcer

The one-time Brooklyn Dodger righthander has been saying "Thank Youuu" to Oriole fans as public address announcer since the early 1970's and has worked for the club in a variety of media and public relations capacities in parts of 4 decades.

Rex pitched for the Dodgers for 6 seasons (1943 and 1946-50) and was inducted into the Brooklyn Dodgers Hall of Fame in June, 1989. Shortly after he made his major league debut in '43, he was called into the Army and spent much of his time in the European theatre during World War II. Following the war, he returned to the National League and went on to compile a 35-31 record.

His best season was 1948, when he went 15-13 with a 3.10 ERA in 44 games. He completed 12 of 34 starts, pitched 246.2 innings, yielded only 193 hits, walked 122 and fanned 138. The highlight of his season came when he pitched a no-hitter against the hated NY Giants at the Polo Grounds on Sept. 9.

Rex began his broadcasting career in 1952 in New York. He was a play-by-play announcer for Mutual Radio's Game of the Week from 1955-57 and also did games in the New York area for WOR-TV. He was part of the 1st cable team to do Orioles games in the early '80s and moved over to the Home Team Sports crew when the station began in 1984, remaining with the cable station until 1990.

During the season, Rex is heard on WBAL radio, doing "Orioles Talk," the daily Rex Barney Baseball Report, and filling in on the station's "Sportsline" talk show in the off-season.

A native of Omaha, NE, Rex has lived in the Baltimore area since 1964.

PAUL ZWASKA Head Groundskeeper

Born: August 12, 1960

Paul is in his 6th season as the Orioles Head Groundskeeper. He was named to the position in February of 1991 when Pat Santarone retired.

He has been in the groundskeeping industry since 1978 and has gained experience in athletic field, golf, and institutional groundskeeping. He served as an intern under the late Head Groundskeeper Harry Gill of the Milwaukee Brewers in the summer of 1983.

His career with the Orioles began in January of 1985 as the Assistant Head Groundskeeper to Santarone. After being promoted to his current position, Paul became involved in the design and construction of the playing field at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

Instead of planting tomatoes at Camden Yards, a legendary annual contest between Santarone and Hall of Fame Manager Earl Weaver, Paul grew ivy on the batters eye wall in centerfield. The ivy is strikingly similar to that of Chicago's Wrigley Field which served as Zwaska's boyhood inspiration in his desire to become a Major League groundskeeper.

Upon graduation from West High School in Madison, WI in 1978, Paul attended the University of Wisconsin. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Wisconsin in May of 1984 in Soil Science with a specialty in Turf and Grounds Management.

Paul married the former Patricia A. Curd in March of 1988. They reside in Timonium with their daughter Melissa and son Eric. His hobbies include meteorology, music from the 60's and playing the drums.

SAM SNIDER Bullpen Catcher

Born: May 24, 1959

Sam is in his 11th full season as the Orioles Bullpen Catcher and his 17th season overall. He served in the role on a part-time basis from 1980-86 before becoming the full-time catcher in the pen in 1987.

Sam attended Hagerstown (MD) Junior College for two years, where he was honored as a scholar-athlete, and Saint Leo's College in Florida for two years. He played baseball at both schools and was both an outfielder and a left-handed pitcher. While there he was scouted by the late Orioles scout Dick Bowie.

Snider was raised in Chambersburg, PA, home of former major leaguers Nellie Fox and Tom Brookens. Sam attended Chambersburg High School where he played baseball and football and was named to the All-County football team as a placekicker.

Snider lists his biggest professional thrills as being present at Cal Ripken, Jr.'s record-setting 2,131st consecutive game, the All-Star Game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1993 and being a part of the 1996 Orioles team that advanced to the A.L.C.S.

For the last six years Snider has spent the off-season serving as a Deputy Sheriff for the Franklin County (PA) Sheriff's Department. His hobbies include golf and hunting with Orioles catcher Chris Hoiles in the off-season.

JIM TYLER Orioles Clubhouse Manager

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 36th year working for the Orioles. He became the team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving 7 years as a visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College high school, located across the street from Memorial Stadium. Jim is one of five children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also has worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse straight, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (18) and Joshua (17). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Baltimore near Camden Yards.

FRED TYLER Visiting Clubhouse Manager

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, working under his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson State University. As a senior at Bel Air, his single drove in the winning run to beat an Aberdeen High School pitcher named Cal Ripken Jr. Fred was named All-Harford County shortstop; Ripken was All-Harford County pitcher.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 10.

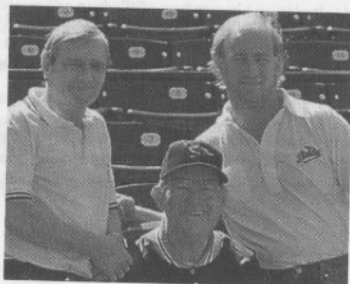

ERNIE TYLER Umpires Attendant

Born: April 30, 1924

Cal Ripken has nothing on Ernie Tyler. The Orioles' longtime umpires attendant and ball man has not missed a home game at Memorial Stadium or Oriole Park since taking his stool on the field next to the backstop on Opening Day, 1960 — a string of 2,914 consecutive regular season games heading into the '97 season.

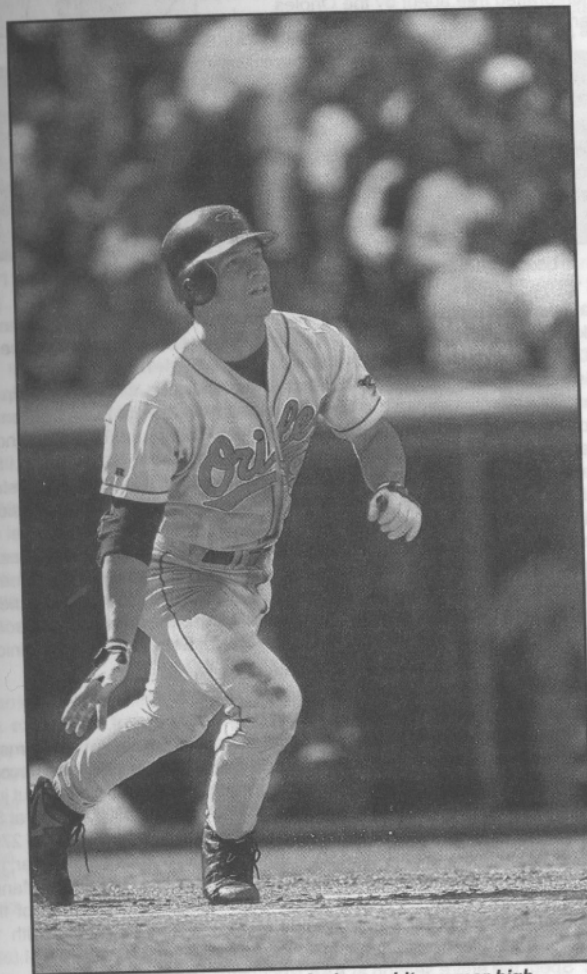

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Oriole and Met General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954. He became a full-time usher in 1958 before moving into his current position in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after the games.

Ernie retired from the state's Department of Health and Mental Hygiene in March, 1988. He and his wife, Julianne, who have been married 51 years, live in Forest Hill, MD. They have raised 11 children — Theresa, Regina, twins Phil and Jimmy, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Julianne and seven of the children, have worked for the club at one time or another.

HITS: 4, 17 times, most recently August 15, 1996 at Oakland...DOUBLES: 3, May 9, 1990 vs St. Louis...WALKS: 4, April 10, 1996 vs Cleveland...HR: 2, five times, most recently August 14, 1996 vs Milwaukee...RBI: 5, three times, most recently October 23, 1993 at Baltimore...SB: 4, June 8, 1991 at Baltimore...HITTING STREAK: 22 games, May 12-June 8, 1996...GRAND SLAMS: 1, August 29, 1993 vs Seattle off Eric Hanson

- Got off to a torrid start for the Orioles...Established new team record for hits in April with 39, breaking old mark of 32 held by Frank Robinson, Paul Blair (both in '69) and Cal Ripken ('94)...Had 40 hits in May, 2nd-most by an Oriole behind Brooks Robinson's 49 in 1961.
- Average peaked at .410 on June 9...Became 5th player this decade to be hitting .400 or better after June 1, joining Dykstra in 1990 (June 10), Andres Galarraga (July 5) and John Olerud (July 27) in 1993 and Paul O'Neill (June 16) in 1994.
- Set a new club record and a career-high with 132 runs scored...Previous career-high was 109 in 1993 and former club record was 122 set by Frank Robinson in 1966.

- Robbie reached the 100-hit mark in his 67th game on June 19, fastest in career...Previous earliest date was 80th game on July 8, 1990.
- His .328 batting average was 77th best in the American League and was 1000th percentage point behind Ken Singleton for highest ever by an Oriole. Singleton batted .3283 in 1977 as opposed to Alomar's .3282.
- Was A.L. All-Star starter at second base...It was his 7th straight All-Star appearance...Along with Ripken and Anderson, Orioles had three starters the first time since 1972 (Grich, Palmer, Brooks Robinson).
- On July 25 against the Indians, Alomar homered from both sides of the plate for the second time in his career...He also did it on May 10, 1991 vs the White Sox in Toronto...Also had two homers on August 14 vs Milwaukee, the 5th game of his career...Alomar tied an American League record by homering on both sides of the plate twice...The feat was also accomplished twice this year by Detroit's Melvin Nieves.
- Compiled career-high 22-game hitting streak, May 12-June 8, tied for 2nd longest in team history...During the streak he batted .396 (40-101).
- Had 6 4-hit games on the year, matching his career-high...Had 11 4-hit games in his career entering '96.
- His 12 sacrifice flies were 2nd most in the American League behind Tony Bonilla's club record; 17.
- Collected 9 bunt hits on the year...Batted clean-up on July 21 at Boston, first time in the #4 slot since four games with the Padres in July of 1990.
- Captured 6th straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award for defensive excellence...He was the first Orioles second baseman to win a Gold Glove Award since Bob Grich in 1976...Was named to the Louisville Slugger "Silver Slugger" Team as the league's best offensive second baseman.
- On October 5 in Game 4 of the American League Division Series, Robbie singled off Cleveland's Jose Mesa to tie the game with two outs and two strikes against him in the top of the 9th inning...In the top of the 12th inning he smacked the series winning home run, a solo shot off Mesa, to defeat the Indians 4-3 and dethrone the defending A.L. champs, three games to one.
- In the annual Baseball America "Tools of the Trade" poll, Robbie was named "Best Defensive 2B", "Best Baserunner", "Best Bunter" and 2nd "Best Hitter" behind only Chicago's Frank Thomas among all American League players.
- Robbie showed his patience at the plate as his 2953 Pitches Seen was the second highest total in baseball behind only Chicago's Tony Phillips (3051)...Also he saw 4.22 pitches per plate appearance, 5th best in the loop.
- Will serve a 5-game suspension at the beginning of the 1997 season for an altercation with an umpire John Hirschbeck on September 27, 1996 at Toronto Skydome.
- Following the season, Robbie played for San Juan and was managed by his father, Sandy, Sr. in the Puerto Rican Winter League...For the second straight season he captured the batting title with a .347 average...In addition, he tied for the league lead with 36 runs scored and compiled a league-best .597 slugging percentage and .478 on-base percentage.

- Enjoyed the best year of his career as he established career-highs in Runs Scored, HR and RBI...It was the first 100-RBI season of his career. 50 home runs were the most ever in a season by an Oriole, surpassing Robinson's 49 in 1966...He hit his 50th on the last day of the season, September 29 at Toronto off Pat Hentgen to lead off the game...He became the 14th player in history to hit 50 or more homers in a season...The 50 homers were 2nd-most in the league to McGwire's 52.
- Established career-high in home runs when he hit his 22nd of the year on July 14 at Kansas City...On July 1 at Toronto he hit his 100th career home run...shot came off Hentgen.
- Hit his 10th homer of the year in his 88th at-bat...Tied the major league record with 11 home runs in April, also accomplished this year by Barry Bonds and Gary Sheffield, joining Willie Stargell ('71), Graig Nettles ('74) and Tom Schmidt ('76)...Broke club mark of 10 held by Frank Robinson in '69...Hit 15th home run on May 4, earliest date by anyone in history.
- Was American League All-Star starter in right field...It was his 2nd All-Star appearance and 1st start...Finished 4th in the balloting...Griffey was unable to play due to injury and Brady was named as his replacement in the starting lineup by Manager Mike Hargrove.
- Sidelined four days from July 19-22 with abdominal pain that was diagnosed as appendicitis...Also missed handful of games in early May with strained quadriceps and in mid-August with strained right calf.
- Is the first two-time member of the Orioles "20/20 Club" as he collected 20 stolen bases to go with his 50 home runs...Brady first joined the club in 1991 (21 HR, 53 SB)...He became only the third player in history, joining Barry Bonds and Ryne Sandberg, to have both a 40-HR season and a 50-SB season...Collected career-high 3 steals on June 11 at Detroit.
- Was hit by a pitch a league-leading 22 times, setting a new Orioles record...The previous mark was 20 by Grich in 1974...Brady also set the record for most HBP by a left-handed hitter, surpassing Washington's Hank Gessler, who was hit 20 times in 1911.
- On September 20 he doubled, giving him his 86th Extra Base Hit of the year, a new Orioles club record...The previous mark of 85 was shared by Frank Robinson ('66) and C. Ripken ('91), who each won the MVP in those respective years...Concluded the year with 92 Extra Base Hits.
- On the year he led off 12 games with a home run, a new Major League record, passing Bobby Bonds' 11 with San Francisco in 1973...He has 23 career lead-off home runs (4 in '92, 2 in '93, 2 in '94, 3 in '95 and 12 in '96)...34 of his home runs this season came while batting leadoff, topping Henderson's A.L. record of 28 set in 1986.
- Set a major league record by leading off four straight games with a home run April 18-21...The previous mark was two straight games, done 33 times.
- On September 2 at California, Brady had his 7th 2-HR game of the year and the 12th of his career...Homered in 4 straight games once and 3 straight games three times.
- His increase of 34 home runs over his 1995 total marked the biggest increase from one season to the next in club history, surpassing Jim Gentile (1960-61 +25, from 21 to 46).
- In the annual Baseball America "Tools of the Trade" poll, Brady was named as the league's 3rd best "Defensive Outfielder" behind only Seattle's Ken Griffey and Cleveland's Kenny Lofton.
- Anderson's .686 Slugging Pct. against right-handed pitchers was 3rd best in the American League behind only Oakland's McGwire (.713) and Cleveland's Thome (.696)...In addition, he averaged 11.6 at-bats per home run, 4th best in the league trailing McGwire (8.1), Seattle's Griffey (11.1) and Texas' Gonzalez (11.5).

• Following the season, Brady toured Japan with a team of Major League All-Stars, November 1-10...During the eight-game tour he batted .263 (5-19) in seven games with 4 RS, 1 HR and 1 RBI.

PRO CAREER

1995: Established career-high in Runs (108) and matched career-best with 10 Triples...Was among the A.L. leaders in Runs (T6th), Triples (3rd), Doubles (33, T8th), Walks (87, 9th), At-Bats (554, T9th), Hit by Pitch (10, T6th) and Games (143, T8th)...Brady set the American League record with 34 consecutive stolen bases without being caught on June 12 at Cleveland...Ran string to 36 straight before being caught on July 3 when he was tossed out by the Twins' Matt Walbeck...It was the first time he was nabbed since 5/13/94 when he was thrown out by Walbeck...His record was eclipsed by Chicago's Raines later in the year and matched by Toronto's Molitor...Brady was the hardest to double up in the American League, grounding into three double plays on the year and only once every 184.7 at-bats...Put together a pair of 11-game hitting streaks during the season; April 28-May 10 and August 13-August 23...Had the fifth 2 HR game of his career on September 5, the night Cal Ripken tied Lou Gehrig's consecutive games played record...The homers came off of Brian Anderson and Mike Harkey...Led off the first inning with a HR three times in '95 and 11 times in his career...Had only 38 walks through his first 75 games of the year, however, over his last 68 games he collected 49 walks.

1994: Led the club in at-bats (453), triples (5), stolen bases (31) and hit by pitch (10)...Led A.L. left fielders with a 1.000 fielding percentage...Hampered by a sore knee in '93, rebounded to steal 31 bases in 32 attempts (.969), a major league record for 25 or more steals...The record was held by Max Carey of the '22 Pirates with a .962 percentage (51 of 53)...The previous record for those caught once was by Ken Griffey, Sr. who stole 23 of 24 (.958) for the '80 Reds...Over first 71 games batted .231 with 7 HR and 21 RBI...After that, batted .317 with 5 HR and 27 RBI...In final 33 games, hit .307 with 25 runs, 23 RBI and 12 steals...Had a pair of 13-game hitting streaks...Led off two games with home runs, April 14 at Detroit and June 20 vs. Milwaukee...Had 525 plate appearances, third in the majors behind Detroit's Tony Phillips (538) and Travis Fryman (528)...Had a team-high 12 total bases, April 26 vs. Oakland.

1993: Despite missing 15 games with the chicken pox, June 23-July 7, and sore knees that plagued him throughout the first half, led AL leadoff hitters in extra base hits (56) and RBI (62)...Made 139 starts, all but 4 as the O's leadoff hitter and 123 in LF, 13 in CF and 3 in RF...In '93, ranked 4th among AL outfielders in fielding pct. (TC-305, E-2)...Led the Orioles in 8 offensive categories...Led the Orioles in runs (87, tied with Cal Ripken), stolen bases (24), hit by pitches (10), walks (82) and triples (8, tied for 6th in the AL)...Tied for the club lead in extra base hits with Chris Hoiles (57)...Batted .571 (8-14) with the bases loaded, 4th highest in the AL (was 1-for-13 with the sacks full in '92)...Was batting a season-low .211 (47-223) on June 7, but hit .297 (100-337) the final 88 games of the season...Batted .313 (52-166) in his last 42 games starting Aug. 16...Got off to a quick start hitting .355 (22-62) after 15 games...Then between April 25 and June 7, he batted .155 (25-161)...Got hot again and went 18-for-53 (.340) over the next 13 games including a then career-high 11-game hitting streak...Raised his average from .211 to .236 on June 22, but the next day was stricken with chicken pox...Returned July 8 and batted only .236 the rest of the month, but hit .307 (65-212) the last 2 months of the season...During the O's 9-1 surge, Aug. 29-Sept. 8, that brought them from 5th place and 6 GB to 1/2 GB, Brady was 15-for-38 (.395) with 7 walks, 6 RBI and 4 stolen bases...Hit 11 of his 13 home runs on the road, as many road homers as he had hit in his ML career prior to '93...Saw 2816 pitches, 2nd in the AL behind Detroit's Tony Phillips (2938).

1992: Became the first player in AL history to reach 20 homers, 50 steals and 75 RBI in one season, the 7th in major league history...Is only one of 8 in major league history with 50 steals and 20 homers:

Had one of the most productive seasons in major league history for a leadoff hitter...His 80 RBI were tied for 7th most all-time by a leadoff hitter accumulated only in the leadoff spot)...Was 5 off the all-time mark set by Harvey Kuenn in 1956 with Detroit...Became the 17th player in major league history to hit 20 or more home runs as a leadoff hitter...Only 12 players ever hit more from the leadoff spot...All 158 starts were in the leadoff spot...he reached safely in 138 of them...Led the ML with 743 appearances...Became the 6th player in Oriole history to score 100 runs in a season joining Cal Ripken (3 times, 1983-84-85); Eddie Murray (3 times, 1983-85); Frank Robinson (2 times, 1966-69); Paul Blair (1969) and Al Bumbry (1980)...Reached base 28 straight games, Apr-9-May 9, longest streak in Oriole since Cal Ripken reached in 29 straight games in 1988...Was the first Oriole outfielder to make the All-Star team since Ken Singleton in '81...Was 1-for-3 in the All-Star Game at San Diego, but played 6 innings in left field...increase of 19 home runs from '91 matched Paul Blair ('68-'69, 7 to 26)...2nd biggest increase from one season to another in club history behind Gentle ('60-'61, +25, 21 to 46).

1991: Was batting .191 (204-39) thru Aug. 20 when he was optioned to Rochester...Recalled Sept. 1 and was 12-for-22 (.545) in his first 8 games back...Went on to become the O's leading hitter from that point on (.366, 52)...Was on the disabled list with a pulled left hamstring, May 28-June 1, 1990: Shoulder and ankle injuries limited him to 55 starts (LF-1, CF-13, 35)...Had AL's best stolen base success rate (min. 15 steals) converting 15 pct (15 of 17)...Was successful in his final 13 attempts of the year, led the string by an Oriole since Al Bumbry swiped 15 straight without being caught between Aug. 7, '79 and April 22, '80...Was 3rd in the AL in batting among leadoff hitters with 20 or more plate appearances (.333, 6-18)...Sprained his left knee on June 8 during batting practice; was on the disabled list until July 20...Placed in the final 9 games of July and went 15-for-30 with 3 doubles, 2 triples, 3 homers and 9 RBI...However, batted only .174 (27-155) in his final 50 games, dropping his average from .342 to final .231.

1989: Began the season as the O's leadoff hitter, but struggled in mid-May after starting 45 of the first 49 games, cracked the starting lineup only 20 times the remainder of the season...Set club record for most stolen bases in a season (8)...Through May 2, was leading the AL in doubles (10), was 5th in runs, hits and extra-base hits (13)...However, from that point on, he reached base only 58 times and had only 2 doubles in 69 games...Had 25 hits in April, only 30 for the rest of the season...Batted .143 after May 17.

1988: Chosen in the spring as the AL East's top prospect by Baseball America...Started the season with Boston after batting .326 (86-28) in spring training...Was Boston's starting center fielder in April while Ellis Burks was recovering from an ankle injury...Was the regular right fielder for most of May...Played in 41 of the Sox' first 49 games (all starts)...Went 3-for-3 in Opening Day against Jack Morris (then with Detroit), in his ML debut...Batted .277 (31-112) on May 22 after 31 games, then went 3-for-36 (including 0-for-his-last-20) and was assigned to Pawtucket on June 4...Pawtucket: Went 0-for-13 after reporting to AAA (extending his hitless string to 0-for-33), then batted .312 (154-48) the rest of the way...Orioles: Started 43 of 58 games after trade on July 30, all in CF...Hit safely in 4 of first 5 games with O's, but batted .195 (30-154) the remainder of season...Hit his first ML homer at Baltimore on Milwaukee's Tom Filer on Aug 6...Had 11 sacrifice bunts; only 5 others in the AL had more...Also had 6 bunt singles.

1987: Limited to 75 games because of a severely sprained right arm sustained in a clubhouse accident on June 5...Was batting .304 for New Britain (AA) at the time...Missed 49 games...Promoted to Pawtucket on Aug 8...Hit safely in 18 of 23 games with PawSox...Added to big league roster on November...Batted .350 in the Mexican League for Tijuana, but didn't have enough plate appearances to qualify for the batting title.

1986: With Winter Haven in '86, was named to post-season Florida State League All-Star team...Led FSL with 107 walks and .459 on-base pct...Was tied for 3rd in homers (12) and 7th in batting (.319).

1985: In '85, at Elmira, led the New York-Penn League in walks (67 in 100 games) and in triples (tied, 6)...Played for the Red Sox in Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown, July 29, '85.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...Originally signed by Joe Stephenson of the Red Sox...Graduated from Carlsbad (CA) High School in '82...Named team MVP in '79 and '80, and all-league and all-North County in '81 and '82...Also lettered 3 times as a guard on the basketball team...Attended University of California at Irvine '82-'85...

a sophomore in '84, he hit 8 triples, tied for 3rd in the nation with Oddibe McDowell, then of Arizona State...Played OF and first base in college...On January 11 of this year in Los Angeles he played in the annual MTV "Rock 'n' Jock" softball game and was named Most Valuable Player as he smacked a pair of home runs, including a grand slam...Born in Silver Spring, MD, but family moved to California when he was an infant...His father, Jerry, ran track at University of California-Santa Barbara...An uncle played on several world class fast-pitch softball teams...Studied economics at UC-Irvine...The last two off-seasons Brady has returned to Baltimore to participate in Pam Shriver's charity tennis outing.

GAME HIGHS & STREAKS

LONGEST OUTING: 3.2 innings, twice, August 8, 1994 at New York and July 31, 1994 vs Toronto...STRIKEOUTS: 6, July 31, 1994 vs Toronto...WALKS: 4, May 25, 1995 at Oakland...HR ALLOWED: 1, nine times, most recently September 2, 1996 at California...WINNING STREAK: 1 game, twice, July 2, 1995 at Toronto and April 12, 1996 vs Minnesota...LOSING STREAK: 3 games, April 28-May 25, 1995

1996

- Started the season on the Orioles major league roster...In his first 3G struck out five batters and did not allow a run in 4.0 innings...In his 4th appearance, April 19 at Texas, he was touched up for 3ER without retiring a batter...Was placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day with a strained elbow.
- On May 18 he pitched in one game on rehab assignment at Class AA Bowie and two days later was recalled from rehabilitation and sent to Birmingham, AL to see Dr. James Andrews...The injury was diagnosed as a strained ulnar collateral ligament and Benitez was transferred to the 60-day disabled list.
- Pitched in seven games on rehab at Gulf Coast League, AA Bowie and AA Rochester, going 0-1 with a 3.00 ERA (12IP, 11H, 4ER, 1BB, 18K)...Was activated from the D.L. on August 26.
- After return from the D.L., Armando appeared in 13 games and was 0-0 with three saves in four chances with a 2.70 ERA (10.0IP, 5H, 3ER, 3BB, 14K).
- Struck out at least one batter in 12 of 16 games on the year...His only blown save came on September 28 at Toronto, when he allowed a HR to Sprague in the 9th...The blown save cost Mussina his 20th win.
- Following the season he pitched for Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League.

PRO CAREER

1995: Made the Orioles staff out of spring training...Was up with the Orioles on three different occasions during the 1995 season...On May 17 vs the Tigers, Benitez tossed 1.0 shutout inning in the Orioles 7-4 victory to earn his first major league save...On the year he converted 2 of 5 save opportunities...Appeared in a league high 19 games through June 7 when he was optioned to AAA Rochester on June 8...In his final three outings before the demotion he allowed 6ER in 4.0IP...Earned first major league victory on July 2 at Toronto when he pitched 1.0 shutout inning, striking out all three batters he faced, in the Orioles dramatic 9-7 come from behind win...With the Orioles he limited right-handed batters to a .196 (21-107) batting average and lefties hit just .239 (16-67) against him...Overall opponents hit .213 (37-174) against him...Was with the Red Wings until June 23 when he was called back to the Orioles...After his return, Armando did not yield a run through his first six appearances (5IP, 3H, 4BB, 8K)...Touched up for 5ER in his last 4.0 innings of work before being optioned back to Rochester on July 16...Remained with the Red Wings until being recalled against by Baltimore on August 4...After his final recall from AAA until the end of the season, Armando appeared in 15 games, allowing 12 hits and 12 ER in 18.0 innings of work...He did not pitch after September 10...His longest outing of the year came on August 3 in Seattle when he tossed 3.0 shutout innings in the Orioles 7-1 win for his 2nd major league save...With the Orioles he retired 31 of 44 first batters faced...Benitez inherited 45 baserunners, 23 of which were in scoring position, and allowed 16 to score...In addition, he surrendered 8 HR, including grand slams to Oakland's Terry Steinbach and Seattle's Edgar Martinez...At Rochester he limited opposing batters to a .153 batting average which would have led the league, however, he fell 8.1 innings short of qualifying...Struck out at least one batter in every appearance he made for Rochester and averaged 2.2 strikeouts per outing despite the fact that his average appearance was less than 1.1 innings...Following the season, Benitez played for Estrellas of the Dominican Winter League.

1994: Named top prospect in both the Eastern League and in the Orioles minor league system...In a mid-season poll of E.L. managers he was voted as having the best fastball in the league...Started the year at AA Bowie before being called up to the majors on July 27...Pitched 9.1 consecutive scoreless innings at the start of his big league career, spread over his three appearances during two weeks with the big club... Was finally scored upon on August 8 when he left the game in the 10th inning against the Yankees and Eichhorn allowed the inherited runner to score...Made major league debut on July 28 in the first game of a doubleheader in Baltimore vs Cleveland...Relieved Mike Mussina with two on and two out and struck out his first major league batter faced, Albert Belle...In his second outing, July 31 vs Toronto, he fanned six batters in 3.2 innings...The Orioles optioned him back to Bowie August 11 just prior to the player's strike so he would not be frozen on the roster and would be able to continue to pitch...On the farm, he led the Baysox with 16 saves and limited opposing batters to a .160 (41-256) average, best among Double A relievers and 6th among all minor league pitchers on full season clubs...Recorded five saves in eight appearances, July 7-25, prior to call-up by the O's...Ratio of 13.31 K's per 9IP was tops among AA relief pitchers...Recorded at least one strikeout in 46 of 53 appearances, including 30 of his last 32...Was honored as E.L. "Pitcher of the Week" for June 6-12 after striking out 14 batters in 6.0 innings.

1993: Enjoyed a breakthrough season, splitting the year between Class A Albany and Frederick...Overall he was 8-1 with a 1.34 ERA with 18 saves and 112 strikeouts in 67 innings...Led all minor leaguers in K's per 9IP (15.04)...Topped all O's prospects in ERA and was 2nd in saves...Along with Garrett Stephenson, was co-winner of the Palmer Prize award presented annually to the organization's top pitcher(s) of the year...Started the season at Class A Albany...Led the club with 14 saves and 34 games finished...Didn't allow a run in 32 of his 40 appearances and fanned at least one batter in 35 of 40 outings...Didn't earn a save until May 1, then recorded 9 in his next 14 games...On August 4 was elevated to Frederick...Averaged 19.1 strikeouts per 9IP for the Keys...Didn't allow a run in his first nine appearances (10.1IP)...Promoted a third time, this time to AA Bowie, on September 8 during Eastern League post-season and pitched in two playoff games for the Baysox, one at Memorial Stadium, against the Canton-Akron Indians.

1992: His 25 appearances for Bluefield ranked 4th in the Appalachian League...Struck out 10.7 batters per 9IP...Worked 1.0 inning or less in 18 of his 25 outings.

1991: Made three starts for the Gulf Coast League Orioles at the start of the season...Following the starting assignments he moved to the bullpen for the remainder of the year.

- Was the Oakland Athletics' everyday shortstop for the 4th straight season...Led American League shortstops with 474 assists and was 2nd in the league with 121 double plays turned...His 1,338 innings played was the 4th most in the Junior Circuit.
- Had a season best 26-game errorless streak, June 9-July 7 and followed that up with a string of 21 straight errorless games...Was leading A.L. shortstops in fielding as late as August 31 but then made six errors in 23 games in September...Finished the year with 16 errors.
- Had a career-high 54 RBI, the most by an Oakland shortstop since Alfredo Griffin had 60 in 1987...On May 2 he was leading the league with a .500 (13-26) average with runners in scoring position but went 23-for-120 in that situation the rest of the way to finish at .274.
- Missed consecutive starts on June 21 and 22, the first time he had done so without being on the disabled list since July 20-21, 1991.
- Batted .329 (25-76) in September...Compiled an 11-game hitting streak during the month, going 18-for-40 (.450)...The streak was one game shy of matching his career-high.
- On the year he batted .381 (8-21) with the bases loaded...Hit .298 (14-47) against the Orioles, including two HR and five RBI.

PRO CAREER

1995: Mike led the league's shortstops in fielding for part of the season until four errors in his last seven games placed him 4th in the league...Finished with a career-best .983 fielding mark (10 errors in 593 total chances)...Had a streak of 37 consecutive errorless games, June 7-July 15...For the first season of his pro career he played exclusively at shortstop...Five of his eight career-high home runs either tied the game or put the A's ahead...Hit his first homer of the year at Camden Yards on June 4 and three of his eight home runs came off Orioles pitching...Was on the disabled list for the first time in his career, May 8-27 with a sprained right ankle...Ended a string of 148 consecutive starts dating back to September 11, 1993...Missed 17 games but came back to start 113 of the A's final 116 games...Had 4 RBI at Baltimore on June 4 to set a career-high later matched vs. Seattle...On August 5 at the Oakland Coliseum he smacked his first career grand slam...It came off Mariners pitcher Salomon Torres and brought the Athletics back from a 4-0 deficit...Spent most of the season batting out of the number eight and nine positions (101 starts) but batted leadoff for the first time in his career (7 starts) and hit out of the number three position (8 starts).

1994: For the third straight season he led the A's in games played and was the only Oakland player to start every game of the year...That included 110 starts at shortstop and four starts at second base...Was the first Athletic to start every

LOW HIT: 3, three times, most recently September 8, 1996 vs Detroit...STRIKEOUT HIGH: 11, September 8, 1996 vs Detroit...WALK HIGH: 5, August 4, 1996 at Cleveland...HR ALLOWED: 2, 13 times, most recently September 15, 1996 at Detroit...WIN STREAK: 5 games, June 11-July 17, 1996...LOSING STREAK: 2 games, twice, July 20-July 25, 1996 and August 17-August 22, 1996

1996

- The Orioles top pitching prospect started the season at AAA Rochester...With the Red Wings he was 6-4 with a 4.19 ERA...His contract was purchased from AAA on June 6...He struck out 10 or more batters in four of his last seven starts and over his last seven AAA outings he went 4-2 with a 3.20 ERA and 61 K in 50.2IP.
- Made his major league debut on June 11 at Tiger Stadium and was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' 12-9 victory (5IP, 7H, 5R/4ER, 2BB, 5K).
- On July 6 he defeated Clemens, a boyhood idol, and the Red Sox to improve to 4-0...He became the first Oriole to win his first four major league decisions since Bill Dillman in 1967.
- On July 17 he made his only relief appearance, tossing 1.1 hitless innings and earned the win in Baltimore's 11-10 victory over Toronto...The victory improved him to 5-0 on the year.
- Rocky won his first two starts and his first five big league decisions...With his fifth straight win he joined Jerry Walker as the only two Orioles to win their first five major league decisions...Walker won his only decision in 1957 then his first four when he came up again in 1959.
- His 10 wins were the most by an Orioles rookie since Bob Milacki won 14 games in 1989.
- On September 8 at Oriole Park against the Tigers he recorded a career-high 11 strikeouts...The 11 K's tied him for the 3rd most ever by an Orioles rookie.

• Rocky tied for 4th in the BBWAA balloting for American League "Rookie of the Year" honors.

PRO CAREER

1995: As a result of his outstanding season, Rocky was the recipient of the Jim Palmer Prize, given annually to the top pitcher in the Orioles farm system...In addition, Coppinger was named to Baseball America's 1995 Minor League All-Star Team...Won the organization's triple crown for pitchers, leading the system in wins (16), ERA (1.97) and strikeouts (172)...Spent time at three levels in '95...Started the year at Class A Frederick before being promoted to AA Bowie and he finished the year at AAA Rochester...Combined at the three stops for a 16-3 record and he picked up another win in the International League playoffs...The 16 regular season wins was the fourth most in the minor leagues...Was also among minor league leaders in batting average against (2nd, .191), ERA (5th, 1.97), innings pitched (5th, 187.0) and strikeouts (6th, 172)...Started the year at Frederick where he was 7-1 with a 1.57 ERA in 11 starts...He limited opposing hitters to a .189 average...In his final Class A start he fanned 15 batters against Winston-Salem on May 29 before being promoted to AA Bowie on May 31...That effort earned him Carolina League "Pitcher of the Week" honors...With the Baysox he was 6-2 with a 2.69 ERA in 13 starts, including a pair of complete game shutouts...Held opposing batters to a .188 batting average...Tossed a three-hit shutout at Reading in winning his AA debut and a two-hit shutout vs Reading on June 24...On July 4 he made a spot start for AAA Rochester in Scranton...Allowed an unearned run on three hits over eight innings and left with the lead but settled for a no-decision...Promoted to Rochester from AA for a second time on August 14.

1994: Signed with O's just hours before the midnight deadline (May 25) for '93 June draftees...At Bluefield, he ranked seventh in the Appalachian League in ERA (2.45) and his 88 strikeouts (in 73.1 IP) were second to league leader and teammate Carlos Chavez (92)...Was rated seventh best prospect in Appalachian League in Baseball America's end-of-season poll of managers...Averaged 11 strikeouts, six hits allowed and five walks every nine innings...Earned first pro victory on June 24 at Princeton in his second start...Struck out nine three other times...His only "relief" effort was really a start...It was a game suspended after one inning on July 20, and he picked up in the second when play resumed the following evening (he took the loss).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...Nicknamed "Rocky" at birth after Rocky Marciano by his dad who said "he looked all beat up and ugly" right after coming into the world, and it stuck...Was originally drafted out of Coronado High School, but opted to pitch a year for Hillsboro Junior College where he was 11-1 with a 2.90 ERA while striking out 120 in 99.0 innings, earning All-America honors...Was named to the National Junior College All-Star Team and was also tapped as an All-Region V pitcher...Was drafted late in 1993 probably because of left knee surgery his junior year in high school and an arm problem that developed while pitching at Hillsboro JC...However, he had been projected as a second round selection in the 1994 draft after showing no effects from the knee or arm injuries, had the Orioles not beaten the deadline to sign him...Hobbies include golf, hunting and fishing...This past off-season Rocky returned to Baltimore to take part in the annual Winter Caravan.

STREAK: 12 games, April 21-June 24, 1991...LOSING STREAK: 5 games, July 10-August 4, 1994

• Surpassed 200 innings pitched for the 4th time in his career and did it for the first time since 1993...Finished the season with a career-high 222.1 innings pitched.

• He turned in 14 Quality Starts (6 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER) in his last 22 outings...He pitched 6.0 or more innings in 25 of his 34 starts and 7.0 or more frames 12 times...In his career, Scott has pitched 6.0 or more innings in 144 of his 203 big league starts (70.9%).

- Continued his dominance in the final month of the season, going 4-1 with no decision in September and a 3.19 ERA (42.1IP, 42H, 15ER)...In his last game he is 21-8 in September/October with a 2.70 ERA (257IP, 229H, 77ER)...In the two Septembers with the Orioles he is 8-1 with a 2.32 ERA in 11 starts (74H, 22ER).

- On April 22 at Cleveland he reached the 1,000 career innings pitched plateau.
- Finished the year T4th in the league with 6 complete games...Tossed his first straight CG, June 17-27...The game on the 17th was a six-inning lead against Texas.

- On September 18 at Yankee Stadium, Scott faced the Yankees and Pettitte in the first game of a 3-game series with the Orioles trailing New York by 3.0 games...Scott outdueled Pettitte and left after 7.0 innings, leading by a game the Orioles eventually lost, 3-2, in 10 innings (7IP, 7H, 1ER, 0BB).
- Scott continued his career-long pattern of being a ground ball pitcher...the A.L. with 1.5 GIDP induced per 9 IP...In addition, his 2.76 Ground Ball Fly Ball Ratio was the best in the league.

- Erickson threw only 3.50 pitches per batter in 1996, second lowest in the league behind only Cleveland's Hershiser (3.36)...His run support of 6.11 per 9 IP was 10th best in the A.L. (222.1IP, 151 R).

PRO CAREER

1995: Began the season with the Minnesota Twins before being acquired by the Orioles in a July 7 trade...Finished the season tied for second in the league with seven complete games and tied for third with two shutouts...All seven complete games and both shutouts came with the Orioles...Furthermore, run support of 6.78 runs per nine innings pitched was the third best in the league...Of his seven complete games, Scott tossed two shutouts...Error induced 1.2 GIDPs per nine innings pitched, the third best ratio in the A.L. averaged 3.58 pitches per batter, the fifth fewest in the league...On the year Scott made 24 starts on natural grass and was 11-5 with six complete games and a 4.44 ERA (150IP, 161H, 74ER)...On artificial turf he was 2-5 with a 4.44 ERA in eight games, seven starts (46.1IP, 52H, 31ER)...On the year he pitched 6+ innings in 71% (22 of 31) starts...On August 21 at Seattle, Erickson made his first relief appearance since 1990 as he allowed one earned run on two hits in one inning of work...Ended the year strongly, winning his last five decisions...September he made five starts and was 4-0 with four complete games and a 1.47 ERA (43IP, 32H, 7ER)...Tossed a pair of three-hit shutouts...The first came on September 5, the night Ripken tied Gehrig's consecutive game played streak...On that night, Scott blanked the Angels 8-0 at Oriole Park...The other was in his last start of the year, September 27 at Toronto, defeating the Jays 7-0.

1994: Tossed first career no-hitter, April 27 against the Brewers (see below)...American League "Player of the Week" for April 25-May 1...Season's first CG of the year came on May 8 at Texas...Won consecutive games for the first time since September 13 & 18, 1992 (span of 44 starts), May 8 and 14...Recorded career-high 10 strikeouts on May 14 against the Orioles...Was on the disabled list May 15-31 with strained right oblique muscles...Dropped his first five decisions with a 6.93 ERA over that stretch...Pitched 6+ innings in 15 of 23 starts with eight quality starts...Tied for league lead in hit batsmen (9), T3 in losses, tied for T5th in wild pitches (10), was 8th in hits allowed.

1993: Was on disabled list April 3-18 with strained left oblique muscles...Pitched his first complete game of the season, snapping major league record of 12 consecutive starts without one, but was a 5-4 loser on August 4 vs the Red Sox...Pitched 6+ innings in 25 of 34 starts and had 12 quality starts...Led the league in losses while recording the second most losses in franchise history (Pedro Ramos lost 20 in 1961)...Allowed most hits and runs in majors...T3 in the league with 10 hit batsmen and T6th in games started.

1992: Made first Opening Day start and received a no-decision April 6 at Milwaukee...Won six of eight decisions, May 3-June 28...Pitched a one-hitter July 24 at Boston, allowing just a second inning single to Brunansky...Tossed his fifth career shutout on August 2 vs Milwaukee...Allowed just four singles...Sixth career shutout, August 23 vs Toronto...Had five-game winning streak August 23-September 18...Pitched 6+ innings in 21 of 32 starts...Paced the Twins in shutouts and hit batsmen (8).

1991: In his finest season, Scott was runner-up to Roger Clemens in the Cy Young Award balloting, notching three of seven first place votes that did not go to Clemens and notching 56 points (Clemens-119)...Lost first two starts of the season as Twins were blanked at Oakland on April 11 and again on April 16 at Seattle...Won first of a career-best 12 straight, April 21 at California...Tossed first big league shutout April 26 against the Mariners...Second straight shutout came in the form of a two-hitter, May 1 vs Boston...Pitched 8.1 scoreless innings on May 7 before a Brunansky homer snapped his scoreless innings streak at 30.1 (tied Frank Viola club record set in '88)...Beat Texas 3-0 on May 28, snapping the Rangers 14-game winning streak...Was American League "Pitcher of the Month" for May, posting a 5-0 record with a 1.36 ERA...Won major league high 12th consecutive game, pitching fourth complete game (2-hitter) and third shutout of the season, June 24 at New York...Was on disabled list June 30-July 15 with a strained right elbow...Tied for most wins in majors and was 2nd in the league in winning percentage (.714) and T2nd with three shutouts...Left Game 6 of the World Series with a 3-2 lead in the seventh inning but received a no decision in the Twins 4-3, 11-inning win...Rated second best pitcher in the league behind Roger Clemens and pitcher with the second best slider in a mid-season poll by Baseball America...Voted Best pitching prospect in the American League by Baseball Digest and a Toronto Star managers poll. 1990: Twins Minor League "Player of the Week" for June 10-16...Twins Minor League "Pitcher of the Month" for June, going 3-0 with a 1.88 ERA...At Orlando he led league's starting pitchers in fewest baserunners per game (9.27) and was 2nd in batting average against (.205)...Named league's Best Pitching Prospect in manager's poll and was the right-handed pitcher on the All-Star Team...Contract purchased by Minnesota on June 21...Made major league debut on June 25 vs Texas and won a 9-1 decision...First complete game came on September 8 vs Cleveland...Won five of last six starts...Was 5-0 with a 1.35 ERA in September.

ERICKSON'S NO-HITTER

On April 27, 1994, Scott became the third Twins hurler to pitch a nine-inning no-hitter and just the second (Jack Kralick 8/26/62) to throw a scoreless nine-inning game with no hits (Dean Chance no-hit the Indians on 8/25/67 but won 2-1), when he beat Milwaukee 6-0 in Minnesota. He faced 31 batters retiring 15 on ground balls (1 GIDP), five on fly balls, five on strikeouts and one on a lineout, including four walks and one hit batter. He threw 129 pitches, 71 for strikes. It was the second of three no-hitters during the '94 season: Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers on April 8 while with Atlanta and Texas' Kenny Rogers tossed a perfect game vs California on July 28. It was the first no-hitter in the 13-year history of the Metrodome and just the second time a pitcher carried a no-hitter into the ninth inning in the Metrodome (Baltimore's Eric Bell went eight innings plus a batter in the 9th on 5/5/87). It was the 11th no-hitter in a domed stadium and just the fourth indoor no-hitter in the AL (two at Seattle Kingdome and one at Toronto Skydome).

- Opened the season as the Orioles starting left fielder...Got off to a hot start with two home runs and four multi-hit games in his first eight games of the year.
- In June was batting .200 (7-35) with 1 RBI and on June 17 he was optioned to AAA Rochester...Played in 34G for the Red Wings and batted .272 (34-125) with 24 RS, 4 2B, 3 3B, 3 HR and 19 RBI, including 19 BB and 19K.
- On July 31 he was recalled by the Orioles when Haynes was optioned...Upon his return he established a career-high with four hits on August 5 at Cleveland and matched his career-high with four RBI on August 7 at Milwaukee...Overall after his return to the Orioles, Hammonds batted .185 (10-54) with 11 RS, 3 2B, 3 HR and 8 RBI in 15G.
- On August 15 at Oakland he strained his left knee while trying to make a sliding catch and was placed on the disabled list the next day...Was activated on September 22 but did not appear in a game after his return.
- Following the season, Jeffrey played winter ball in Puerto Rico.

PRO CAREER

1995: Suffered through an injury plagued '95 season...Made a fast return from off-season knee surgery, starting the year on the active roster and was the Opening Day right fielder...First hit of the year was a HR off future teammate Scott Erickson, then of the Twins, on April 30 at the Metrodome...Had four stolen bases in six attempts and in his career has been successful in 13 of 15 theft attempts...Having played only seven games through May 9 due to soreness of the surgically repaired right knee, he was optioned to AA Bowie on May 14...In his first game with the Baysox on May 17 at Harrisburg he went 3-for-4 with a double, a home run and two stolen bases...Was recalled by the Orioles on May 26...In nine games with Bowie, Jeffrey batted .387 (12-31)...He batted safely in 10 of first 12 games after return to O's...During that stint he hit .333 (15-45) with three home runs and eight RBI...On June 20 vs the Yankees, Hammonds went 2-for-4 with a pair of doubles and a career-high four RBI...Went into a slide in July, batting just .150 (6-40) through July 17...On July 18 he was placed on the 15-day disabled list with a strained right trapezius muscle...Was activated from the DL on September 3...Appeared in six games after his return, all off the bench, and went 1-for-3 with a double...Batted .326 (14-43) with runners in scoring position with three doubles, a triple and two home runs.

1994: In only his second professional season, had the third-best batting average (.296) on the club behind Rafael Palmeiro (.319) and Cal Ripken (.315)...Played right field in 57 games and led AL regular right fielders in total chances per nine innings (2.45)...Hit better vs right handers (.316, 59-187) than he did against southpaws (.238, 15-63)...Batted .317 (33-104) when behind in the count, 2nd best in the AL (Tex J. Frye, .321) and 4th best in the majors...As the ninth batter in the lineup batted .303 (27-89), 4th best in the majors for a #9 hitter...Had 21 multi-hit games...Had a career-high 10-game

BALLPARK TOURS SET RECORD IN '96

A record 61,466 fans took a tour of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1996, topping the previous best annual total of 57,975 set in 1994. Since the ballpark's opening in 1992, more than 215,000 people have toured the nation's most talked about ballpark. Public tours of Oriole Park and grounds are given daily except when the Orioles play an afternoon home game. Tickets are sold in advance or on the day of the tours and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Tour tickets are available at the Orioles Box Office at the north end of the Warehouse. For schedule, prices and private group information, call (410) 547-6234.

hitting streak July 24 thru August 2 (.366, 15-41)...Had his first 2-homer July 1 vs. California (solo off Joe Magrane in 3rd and solo off Craig Lefter the 7th)...Delivered the club's lone "sudden death" win July 9 vs. Oakland at Oriole Park with a game-winning, ninth inning homer off Bob Welch to give O's an 8-7 win...That homer came two years to the day (Saturday before Star Break) that he signed with the Birds and was introduced to the fans at the game...Cut his face and sustained a mild concussion in a home run collision with the Mariners' Bill Haselman on April 30 in Seattle...Sat out next night (May 1) and after an off day committed an error in his first game (May 3), when he missed a fly ball because of dizziness...While sitting out to the effects of his concussion, he strained his right knee in batting practice and was put on the DL (May 10 retroactive to May 4)...Was batting .326 (28-86) with four home runs and 14 RBI in 23 games before being put on the DL...Activated June 16 and batted .280 (46-164) with four home runs and 17 RBI the rest of the way (his last 45 games)...On October 11, had successful reconstructive surgery on his anterior cruciate ligament (right knee) by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL (an injury incurred during his high school football playing days).

1993: Had the second highest batting average among AL rookies with .305 more at bats with a .305 mark behind Minnesota's Chip Hale (.333)...Made starts with O's: left field-13, right field-nine, DH-five...Despite getting 32 and 11 multi-hit games was still considered a rookie for '94...Became the player from the '92 June Amateur Draft to make the ML...Began the season at Camden Yards in the first inning that night and made his ML debut as a pinch hitter in the sixth inning vs. the Yankees...Had RBI single off Jim Abbott in his first ML plate appearance, then added another single and an intentional walk that game to go 2-for-2 as he helped the O's rally from a 6-0 deficit to a 7-4 win in 10 innings...The next night (June 26) in his first major league start he hit a double and two-run homer to help the O's rally from a 5-2 deficit to a 12-3 win...Batted .337 (29-86) with 19 RBI and 11 multi-hit games in his first month in the majors, June 25-July 25 (24 games)...Was hitting .352 (31-88) on July 30 in his first 26 games, then was struck with muscle spasms in his neck...Further testing revealed the injury as a herniated disk in his neck...Went on the DL August 8...Returned September 1, but played in only two games before going back on the DL September 28...Was declared physically fit on November 1 without needing surgery...Became the first O's rookie to get two hits in each of his first three ML games since Rich Coggins had multi-hit games in his first three starts in '72...Hammonds had five 2-hit games in his first nine games in the majors...Had a hit in each of his first six ML games (9-for-23, .391), tying Martinez's club record ('91) for the longest streak at the start of a ML career...His average did not drop below .300 until his 16th game in the ML (.438 (14-32) with runners in scoring position).

1992: Orioles selected him in the first round of the June '92 draft (4th pick overall)...Played in one game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards during the Olympic US tour on July 11 (2-for-4, 2 stolen bases vs. Korea), and immediately after that game, during the O's-Twins game that night, signed with the Orioles...Was introduced to the crowd of 45,717 during the game...Did not play with O's organization because of commitment to US Olympic Team.

OLYMPICS: Member of the '92 US Olympic Team as the team's starting center fielder...Led the US in average (.414) and slugging percentage (.586) during the round-robin play in Barcelona...Also drove in six runs and stole three bases...Was 3-for-7 during the medal round.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...In college at Stanford (CA) University earned All-Pac 10 honorable mention in 1991 as a sophomore, hitting .327...Also socked 14 homers after moving from the leadoff spot to the cleanup spot...Fanned just 12 times in 265 plate appearances...Hit .405 (79-32) over his final 19 games...Member of the '91 US Baseball Team which captured the Bronze Medal in the Pan American Games...Hit .262 in 34 games with five homers and 23 RBI...Finished second on the team in stolen bases (13)...Despite an early season wrist injury, still hit .380 his final season at Stanford, earning 1st team All-America honors from Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball...Led Stanford with 33 stolen bases in 47 games...Struck out just six times in 184 at bats...Tied for team lead with 50 RBI...Finished his career at Stanford with .353 average, 27 home runs and 102 stolen bases (G-174, AB-708, R-193, H-250, 2B-36, 3B-12, RBI-151)...In 1990 he was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in the ninth round of June, '88

PRO CAREER

1995: Was third on the Orioles in home runs (19) and walks (67) and RBI (58)...The 67 bases on balls marked the third straight year he registered over 60 and was two short of his career-high...Led all American League catchers with a .996 fielding percentage...Overall, Orioles had a 4.31 ERA, second best in the league...With Chris behind the plate, Orioles had a 3.93 ERA (871.2IP, 776H, 381ER)...Had five home runs in his first 22 games of the year but hit just three homers over next 32 games...the All-Star break he was batting .208 in 57 games with nine home runs and 31 RBI...Had 27 walks in the season's first half and 40 in the second half...Against left-handed pitchers Chris owned a .300 (30-100) batting average with 12 HR and 27 RBI...His .720 slugging percentage vs left-handed pitchers was the third best in the league behind Thomas and McGwire...In the first half he hit .230 (58-252) with seven home runs and 31 RBI...Was on the disabled list from July 17 to July 31 with a strained left hamstring...Returned on July 15 vs Kansas City...Finished the year strong, batting .339 (37-110) in his last 34 games with four doubles, a triple, six home runs and 20 RBI...Collected 15 walks in the last 14 games of the season...On August 24 at California, homered twice off Chuck Finley...It was the fifth two home run game of his career and his first since July of '93...Made three starts as the Orioles' designated hitter...It was the first time he has been a DH since July 21, 1994: Led American League in innings caught (838.2), one more than Rodriguez and second in the majors to Mike Piazza (860.2)...Led the Orioles with 63 walks and was second to Palmeiro with 19 home runs...His batting average reached a season high .251 on the next to last day of the season...Batted .294 (20-68) with runners in scoring position...Batted .289 (22-76) vs left-handed pitchers and .234 (60-256) against righties...Went 5-for-9 with the bases loaded...Batted .333 (61-183) with men on base...Was beamed by the Angels' Scott Lewis on April 27 at Anaheim immediately after Ripken homered...Chris, who had earlier hit one of the Orioles' five homers that night, left the game, but missed only one game and was back in the lineup two days later...Umpire Tim Timmons ejected Lewis after the beating...Hit eight of his 19 home runs in a 18-game span, June 15 thru July 4.

UNIFORM RETIRED: In January '94 his uniform was retired by Eastern Michigan University (see Amateur Career).

1993: The '93 winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award...voted by the writers and broadcasters who cover the team on a regular basis...Received 11 of a possible 14 first place votes...Increased his batting average, home runs, and RBI for the fifth straight season...Just missed becoming the first AL catcher ever to hit .300 or better with 30 homers...Hit .300 on the last day, but singled and flied out in his last two at bats...He and Mike Stanley became the fourth and fifth catchers in AL history to hit .300 or better with 25 or more homers...The others to have done it: Boston's Carlton Fisk ('77), and the Yanks' Yogi Berra ('50) and Bill Dickey ('37-'38)...Led Orioles in batting average, runs, homers, RBI (tied with Stanley), slugging percentage, and on-base percentage, and was second in hits to Minnesota's Eric Harper...His 29 homers are the second highest ever for an Orioles catcher behind Gus Triandos who hit 30 in 1958...Set the Orioles record for most home runs in a season by a catcher with 82, surpassing the old mark of 78 set by Triandos in '58, despite missing 21 games, Aug 3-24, while on the disabled list with a strained lower left back muscle...Was 5th in the AL in both slugging percentage (.585) and on-base percentage (.416)...Averaged an RBI every 5.1 at bats, eighth best ratio in the AL...Averaged one home run every 14.4 at bats, the sixth best ratio in the majors trailing only Texas' Juan Gonzalez (1 per 11.6); SF's Barry Bonds (1 per 11.7); Seattle's Ken Griffey (1 per 12.3); Chicago's Frank Thomas (1 per 13.4) and San Diego's Phil Plantier (1 per 13.6)...His .310 average was 11th in the AL and the highest by an AL catcher with a qualifying number of plate appearances since California's Brian Downing hit .326 in 1979...Became the 15th Oriole to hit .300 in a season, first Oriole catcher...Was hitting .218 (HR-3, RBI-6) in first 26 games thru May 11 but batted .334 (111-332) the rest of the season with 26 homers and 76 RBI in 100 games...Batted .571 (4-7) with the bases loaded, fifth best in the AL...Batted .333 (61-183) with men on base...Was 25-for-65 (.385) with seven home runs, 16 RBI during the O's 19-3 run, June 2-26...Batted .320 (115-358) on grass...Named AL "Player of the Month" for September...He batted a club-high .364 (32-88) with eight homers and 22 RBI, both tied for the most in the AL...Also won AL "Player of the Week" twice, June 26 and July 11...Selected to UPI's post-season AL All-Star team.

1992: Had the AL's fourth best home runs-per-at-bats ratio with a 15.1 mark behind Oakland's Mark McGwire (11.1), Detroit's Rob Deer (12.3) and Texas

Juan Gonzalez (13.6)...Finished 4th in homers among ML catchers behind Philadelphia's Darren Daulton (27), Detroit's Mickey Tettleton (23, he hit 9 others as a DH) and New York's Matt Nokes (22)...Finished with the fewest RBI (40) in ML history for a player with 20 or more homers...That distinction previously belonged to Kevin Maas of the Yankees in '90 (RBI-41, HR-21)...Was 6th in the AL in home runs (14 in 62 games), and 5th in slugging (.539) and on base percentage (.403) when he was struck by a pitch from NY's Tim Lincecum on June 21 and suffered a fractured right wrist (ulna bone)...Spent the next two months on the disabled list missing 51 games...Returned to the Orioles on August 18 and appeared in 34 games batting .265 (31-117) with six home runs and 12 RBI...Did not play after September 26 due to soreness in right wrist...Underwent surgery on October 6...Hit 2nd career grand slam May 4 off Texas' Todd Burns...Hit seven homers in 16 games, April 15-May 4...An 11-for-19 stretch, April 15-21, pushed him into the AL lead in hitting with .390 average...First Oriole other than Cal Ripken to be leading the league in hitting at any point of the season since Ray Knight in April '87.

1991: Started 91 games behind the plate and led AL catchers in fielding percentage (.998, TC-477, E-1)...Was the O's leading hitter in July with a .319 average, but batted .224 (268-60) the rest of the season...Beginning June 23, with his first career grand slam, a clutch, game-tying blow in the ninth inning off KC closer Jeff Montgomery, he went 38-for-111 (.342) over 31 games...Raised his average from .198 to season-high .272 on August 6...Batted .194 (24-124) the rest of the season including a season-ending 1-for-25 slump...Caught the O's four-man no-hitter on July 13 at Oakland and drove in the game-winning run in the O's 2-0 triumph with a fifth inning single.

1990: Recalled by the Orioles from Rochester on three occasions during the season...Started in AAA and was leading the International League in batting (.394, 50-127, G-32, HR-10, RBI-31) when the first recall came, June 3...He appeared in 10 games between June 5-July 5, then was optioned to the Red Wings, July 13...Spent a month at Rochester, then was recalled, August 12...This time he appeared in eight games prior to being sent back to AAA, August 28...When Rochester concluded post-season play, he was called up yet again, September 15...After third recall, started behind the plate in five straight games, but in the top of the first inning, September 23 vs. Milwaukee, he injured his right shoulder trying to throw out Paul Molitor at second base...Suffered a tear in the muscle behind the shoulder...Hit his first ML home run June 27 vs Cleveland in the bottom of the 10th inning, a game-winning, three-run shot off Sergio Valdez, giving the O's a 6-3 victory...Rochester: His 348 average at Rochester was bettered by only one other AAA player with 250 or more plate appearances: Albuquerque's Luis Lopez (.353)...Hit 18 homers in only 247 at bats, one every 13.7 at bats, third best home run frequency in AAA behind Pawtucket's Phil Plantier (1/13.0), and Las Vegas' Jerald Clark (1/13.4)...Added two more homers in post-season, including game-winning, three-run shot against Omaha in the opening game of the Triple A Alliance Championship...In 27 games at Rochester, between May 15-July 25, he hit 11 homers (26 RBI) in 27 games...On May 19 he was hit in the face by a pitch from Indianapolis' Jim Davins and took 15 stitches above his left eye...Returned May 27...In three games before he was hit, and two games after, he went 13-for-18 with four homers and eight RBI...Named the DH on Baseball America's AAA All-Star team.

1989: Began season with Rochester, but recalled April 22 when Bob Melvin went on the disabled list...Made his ML debut April 25 at California in a pinch-hitting role (grounded out against Bob McClure)...Returned to Rochester May 7, but rejoined the Orioles in September...Started behind the plate in the season finale, October 1 at Toronto, and picked up his first ML hit, a run-scoring double, off Mauro Gozzo.

1988: Acquired Aug 31 from the Detroit organization along with pitchers Cesar Mejia and Robinson Garces for Fred Lynn...Began the season at Toledo, but was reassigned to Glens Falls on May 17 and remained there the rest of the season...Topped all Tiger farmhands with 19 homers, including 17 at Glens Falls, tied for the most in the Eastern League...Also led the league in slugging (.500)...Threw out 38 of 105 attempted base stealers (36.2).

1987: Moved from first base back to catcher and threw out a league-high 53 attempted base stealers (53 of 140, 37.9; league average was 35.3)...Tied for the club lead in homers (13)...Played in Eastern League All-Star game.

1986: Named to the Appalachian League All-Star team as a first baseman...Led the league in RBI (57), GWRBI (10), total bases (143), doubles (19) and games (68)...Also, second in homers (13) and tied for third in batting (.320)...Led league's first basemen in fielding (.996)...Caught in six games.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Five families have each provided two players to the Orioles, including two sets of brothers and three father-son combinations. In addition to the Ripken brothers, catcher Dick Brown ('63-'65) and his brother Larry ('73), an infielder, also played for the O's. Father-son duos to play for the O's are third baseman Bob Kennedy ('54-'55) and his son, catcher Terry ('87-'88); outfielders Don Buford ('68-'72) and his son Damon ('93-'95); and pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. ('68) and John Jr. ('93).

1996

- Suffered through an injury plagued season with the Yankees...Following '95 campaign he underwent surgery to remove bone chips in his right elbow and began the year on the disabled list.
- Was activated on April 24 and appeared in seven games for New York starts, before being optioned to AAA Columbus on May 26.
- Did not pitch at the major league level again in '96 as he made five starts AAA Columbus and three outings at A Tampa.

PRO CAREER

1995: In a season plagued by injury he made 16 starts and a 16-11 record...Only CG of the year came in a 6-1 win at Toronto on September 30 when the Yanks clinched the A.L. Wild Card...Was his first CG since a 1 loss at Toronto on June 12, 1994...In September went 3-1 with a 2.48 ERA in five starts...On May 5 he left his second start of the year after 14 pitches was placed on the DL the next day with a strained right elbow...Did not pitch for the Yankees again until July 15 when he was activated...Made a couple rehab starts at A Tampa and AAA Columbus...Won three straight starts...25-August 4, his longest winning streak of the season...Made only one appearance on September 5 vs. Seattle...Made six "Quality Starts."

1994: Went 8-6 with a career-best 3.76 ERA...Best month was May when he was 2-0 with a 1.82 ERA in three starts...Opened the season with a 4-game winning streak, tying his career-high...Began the season in the bullpen before his first start on April 27...Made his last relief appearance of the year on May 21 against the Orioles...Started the season 4-0 with a 2.53 ERA through four appearances, four starts and finished the year going 4-6 with a 4.46 ERA in 12 outings, all starts...Threw his only CG of the season in a 3-1 loss at Toronto June 12...Yanks went 9-7 in his 16 starts...Twice made consecutive starts which he allowed 1ER over 8IP...As a reliever he stranded 7 of 11 inherited runners.

1993: In his second full season in the majors he went 10-7 with a 4.11 ERA...Began the season with two straight starts before making 10 straight relief appearances...Optioned to AAA Columbus on June 2...Made one appearance for the Clippers, June 9 vs. Pawtucket, and earned a 3-0 victory...Recalled by the Yanks on June 13 and finished the season as a starter, going 10-6 with a 3.86 ERA in his final 18 games...On June 19 he defeated the Twins with his first career CG victory...On August 15 he earned the win in a 1-0 victory against Baltimore in which a 16-year old fan, (yes he is true), reached over the fence and caught Mattingly's 8th inning HR...think you see the irony)...Extended his Yankee Stadium win streak to 10 games on August 21 and the streak was snapped on September 16...Gibson and Wickman are the only pitchers in the last 26 years to win 10 straight at Yankee Stadium...Pitched into the 7th inning in 15 of 20 starts.

1992: Started the season in the minors, rehabing from off-season neck surgery...Made three starts in the minors before being activated on April 28...Earned first win on May 15 and after that had string of nine winless starts...His 28 starts and 188 innings marked professional bests...Had four CG, all losses, and a 3.03 ERA in those efforts...Did not make a fielding error in 34 chances.

1991: Had contract purchased from AAA Columbus on June 17...At time of recall was 6-3 with a 2.38 ERA in 11 starts...Made ML debut on June 18 at Toronto, notching the victory...Placed on the disabled list on August 5 with a pulled muscle in his left upper back...Underwent successful cervical disk surgery on October 10 to repair disk on left side of his neck...Surgery was performed by Dr. Michael Schafer at Northwestern University Hospital in Chicago.

1990: Spent the season at AA Albany and allowed just 113 hits in 132 innings...Led the club in walks (61) and strikeouts (99)...In final six starts of the year he was 3-2 with a 1.70 ERA...Suffered the loss in his only post-season appearance.

1989: Spent the season at AA Albany...T3rd on the club with 6 CG, 2nd with 3 SHO...Led Eastern League with 140 strikeouts...Averaged 8K per 9IP, 2nd best ratio in the league.

1988: Split the year between Class A Prince William and Ft. Lauderdale...Tied for Carolina League lead with seven CG and was the league leader among starting pitchers with a .200 BA against.

1987: Split his first professional season between Class A Prince William and AA Albany...Started the year at Albany and finished the year in Prince William...Named to Carolina League All-Star Team.

GAME HIGHS & STREAKS

LOW-HIT GAME: 1, twice, April 27, 1993 at Cleveland and May 22, 1986 vs. Chicago...STRIKEOUT HIGH: 10, 3 times, most recently September 18, 1993 vs. Boston...WALK HIGH: 6, twice, August 16, 1996 vs. Seattle and July 17, 1986 at California...HOME RUN HIGH: 4, May 6, 1986 vs. Oakland...WINNING STREAK: 11 games, April 14, 1994-June 27, 1994...LOSING STREAK: 7 games, June 25, 1989-August 3, 1989

- After undergoing rotator cuff surgery in '95, Jimmy started the season as a member of the Yankees' starting rotation.
- In his first appearance since May 15, 1995, he took the loss at Texas on April 6 and had his string of 11 consecutive road wins snapped.
- On April 11 vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium he earned his first victory since April 26, 1995...He left the game after warming up for the sixth inning with slight stiffness in his shoulder.
- On May 17 he was placed on the 15-day disabled list with stiffness in his left shoulder...Was reinstated from the D.L. on May 31 after making two starts in the Florida State League...From June 11-26 was back on the disabled list with a strained left calf muscle.
- On May 31, the night he was first activated, he defeated the Athletics in Oakland, to snap a string of six straight starts without a victory...It marked his first road win since August 5, 1995 at Minnesota.
- Had a streak of 20 consecutive scoreless innings snapped in the second inning of a July 11 start at Camden Yards...Since 1958 only 10 other Yankee starters have put together longer scoreless consecutive innings strings, led by Whitey Ford's 28 in 1958...Key also tossed 23 straight scoreless frames in 1993...His 20-inning scoreless string was tied for the second longest in the league in '96 (NY's Rivera went 26.2 and Gooden went 20).
- In 2300 career innings pitched he has never allowed a grand slam home run...It is the longest streak among active pitchers.
- During the last three months of the season, Jimmy went 9-5...On the year he limited left-handed hitters to a .168 (16-95) batting average and from the 7th inning on, opponents batted only .190 (8-42) against him.
- Key's .612 (164-104) winning percentage is 7th best among active major leaguers...He and Mussina (1st, .687) are the only two pitchers in the top nine to not have won a Cy Young Award...His 164 wins are 9th best among active major leaguers.
- Jimmy allowed only 25% (2 SB, 6 CS) of would be base stealers to be successful...It was the best among A.L. pitchers...The Orioles had two starters in the top five in that category as Mussina was 5th at 42.9% (6 SB, 8 CS).
- Was the winning pitcher in Game 3 of the A.L.C.S., defeating Mussina at Oriole Park, 5-2...Won Game 6 of the World Series in New York against the Braves to give the Yankees their first World Series title since 1978...Was also the winning pitcher in the decisive Game 6 of the 1992 World Series for Toronto, in relief, at Atlanta.

PRO CAREER

1995: Went 1-2 in five starts before his season was ended due to a rotator cuff injury in his left shoulder...Made the fewest appearances of his pro career...Was placed on the disabled list on May 20, retroactive to May 17 and on July 7 he was transferred to the 60-day DL...On July 5, Dr. James Andrews performed arthroscopic surgery in Birmingham, AL to repair a small tear of the left rotator cuff...It was the 4th time that arthroscopic surgery had been performed on his left shoulder: 10/19/94, removed a bone spur to relieve inflammation...10/24/89, repaired a partial tear of the rotator cuff...5/4/88, removed floating bone chips...On April 26 vs Texas he defeated the Rangers to improve his career Opening Day mark to 6-0 with a 3.05 ERA in six starts...Became first Yankee pitcher to make three straight Opening Day starts since Ron Guidry, 1982-84...Became first Yankee to win three straight openers since Mel Stottlemyre, 1967-69...Made his last four starts without a win for the first time since May 17-June 5, 1992...Hasn't gone five straight starts without a victory since 1991 when he went seven straight starts without recording a win...On May 16 vs Cleveland, his last start of the year, Key was tagged for seven runs in the Yankees 10-5 loss...It was the first time he allowed seven runs in a game since Aug 7, 1993 at Detroit and the loss snapped an 11-game winning streak that New York had over Cleveland.

1994: Was named American League "Pitcher of the Year" by The Sporting News after going 17-4 with a 3.27 ERA...His 17 wins led the majors and he put together an 11-game winning streak, April 14-June 27...Was the first Yankee to lead the loop in wins since Ron Guidry with 22 in 1985...Was named the left-handed pitcher on the Associated Press Post-Season All-Star Team...Received a Players Choice Award as the league's best pitcher in a vote of his peers...Finished 2nd in the Cy Young balloting behind Kansas City's Cone in the 5th closest vote in history (108-96)...Placed 4th in '95 and 2nd in '87...Finished 6th in the Most Valuable Player voting...Did not lose consecutive decisions all season...On April 9 vs Detroit he suffered a 5-3 loss...It was his first April defeat since 1990, a span of 14 starts...On April 20 vs Seattle was hit in the ribs by a Tino Martinez line drive and left the game with stiffness...Did not start...In the 3-1 victory over Boston on May 6 he threw his only CG of the season...On June 6 at Texas was the winning pitcher in the Yankees' first game at The Ballpark in Arlington...Made 300th career start on June 21, a win over Minnesota...Suffered a 12-6 defeat on July 2 vs. Seattle, snapping his career best 11-game winning streak (April 14 - June 27)...On July 26 vs. Boston suffered a 12-7 loss after being handed a 5-0 first inning lead...It was the first time in his career that he lost after having a five run lead...Made 18 "Quality Starts"...The Yanks averaged 7.45 runs per 9 innings when Jimmy was in the mound, the best run support in the majors...Became the first major league pitcher to have 16 wins by the end of July since Atlanta's Glavine in 1992, the first since A.L. since Minnesota's Viola in 1988 and the first Yankee since Fred Luma in 1963...Was the starting pitcher for the American League at the All-Star Game in Pittsburgh...First Yankee to start an All-Star Game since Mel Stottlemyre in '69...Following the season (Oct. 19) underwent arthroscopic surgery to move a bone spur in his left shoulder.

1993: Was among the American League leaders in nine pitching categories and established career highs in wins and strikeouts...Finished 4th in the Cy Young balloting behind McDowell, Johnson and Appier...Was the A.L. "Pitcher of the Month" in April, going 3-0 with a 0.93 ERA...On April 21 at Oakland Rickey Henderson led off the 4th inning with a home run, snapping Key's 11-inning scoreless streak that began on April 5...It was the longest such streak of his career...Previous longest was 21 innings in 1991 with Toronto...Was the Yanks 9th consecutive different Opening Day starter...On April 27 at California, Key tossed his second career 1-hitter...Recorded his second shutout in the second complete game of the year on May 28 vs. the White Sox...Was named the left-hander on The Sporting News All-Star Team...His 18 victories were the second most in the A.L. behind Seattle's Johnson (19)...Yanks went 24-11 with his 34 starts...Was 11-3 in 22 starts after Yankee losses...Made 27 "Quality Starts"...Matched his career-high with 10K in 4-3 win over Boston on September 18...Led the A.L. in fewest walks per 9IP (1.6)...Became the 5th Yankee pitcher to win at least 17 games in his first season with the team...Began the year 11-2 to earn his 3rd All-Star Game appearance...Pitched one inning in the Mid-Summer Classic at Camden Yards...Walked just six left-handed hitters in 133 AB.

1992: Was one of four Blue Jays starters to post double figures in wins...Two of the 24 homers allowed were by lefties (Griffey and Baines)...Posted a 5-1 record with a 2.22 ERA during Toronto's September stretch run...Tossing three scoreless relief innings in A.L.C.S. vs. Oakland...Made one start and one relief appearance vs. Atlanta in the World Series and was 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA...Including a win in the sixth and decisive game at Atlanta in relief...His 13 wins were third most among A.L. left-handers...Finished his career in Toronto as the winningest lefty in Jays' history...Third on the Blue Jays all-time roster in wins (116), innings pitched (1695.2), strikeouts (944), starts (250), shutouts (8) and ERA (3.42).

1991: Tossed a 2-hit shutout over the Brewers on April 14, leading to a 4-0 win with a 1.86 ERA...From May 12-June 13 won six straight decisions...Made 200th career start on June 29 vs. Seattle...On June 16 vs. Cleveland he tossed another 2-hit shutout...From June 13-30 he had a string of 33.1 walk-free innings...In June went 3-1 with a 1.65 ERA, earning Blue Jays "Pitcher of the Month" honors...Named to his 2nd American League All-Star Team...Was the winning pitcher in the All-Star Game played July 9 at Toronto's Skydome...Earned his 100th career victory on August 26 at Baltimore.

1995: Had season cut short due to injury in '95...Left spring training as member of the Orioles bullpen...Started the year slowly...In April he appeared in four games and had a 31.50 ERA...12 of the first 17 batters he faced reached base...Rebounded in May...In the season's second month, Alan appeared in 11 games and was 3-0 with a 2.30 ERA (15.2IP, 11H, 4ER)...Through May he had all three of the Orioles bullpen's victories...His longest outing of the year was 3.0 innings which he reached twice: May 9 at Boston (3IP, 0H, 0R, 1BB, 3K) and June 18 at Detroit (3IP, 2H, 1R/0ER, 1BB, 3K)...Alan inherited 23 baserunners, 13 in scoring position, and allowed 12 of them to score...He retired 11 of 21 first batters faced...Over his last four appearances, Alan allowed 6ER on 8H over 6.1IP...On June 20 he was optioned to AAA Rochester...At AAA he made just one appearance, a start, and took a 7-5 loss in the first game of a June 26 doubleheader in Columbus...Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder on August 30...The surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL.

1994: Pitched in a career-high 47 games, all in relief, to lead the club and tie for 6th most appearances in the league...Thru May 8 he appeared in 14G and was 0-2 with a 16.00 ERA (9IP, 15H, 16ER)...From May 14 until the end of the season, Alan was 3-1 in 33G with a 2.48 ERA (36.1IP, 28H, 10ER)...His 14 holds tied Chicago's Assenmacher for the A.L. lead (a hold is credited when a reliever enters a game in a save situation, protects the lead, records at least one out, but is removed before getting the save)...Led the Orioles staff by stranding 82.6% of his inherited runners (38 of 46), the 4th best percentage in the A.L. and 5th best in the majors...Allowed just 2 HR in his last 36 appearances...Gave up fewer hits than innings for the 7th straight professional season...Held right-handed hitters to a .226 batting average...Although lefties batted .292 against him, none hit a home run.

1993: Set personal ML highs with 45 appearances, 4 saves and 68 strikeouts. Finished 3rd in the AL in relief innings pitched, 100.1...For the 2nd consecutive season, led the AL with highest innings pitched per relief appearance (min. 20 appearances): 2.2 in 1992 and 2.1 in 1993...Had season highs of 5.2 innings pitched, June 25 vs. New York and of 5 strikeouts in a game 3 times: June 25 vs. New York, Aug. 12 at Detroit and Aug. 21 vs. Texas...Held opponents to AL-low .187 average with runners on base (min. 150 plate appearances)...Overall, opponents batted .225, 7th lowest among relief pitchers...With runners in scoring position, foes hit .184, also 7th lowest among relief pitchers...Suspended for fighting in June 6 game against Seattle; served his suspension June 26. 1992: Tied for 2nd in the AL with 9 relief wins behind KC's Rusty Meacham...Oakland's Jeff Parrett and Cleveland's Eric Plunk also had 9 wins...Tied for 6th in the AL in win pct (.714) among pitchers with 10 or more wins...Although he didn't join the Orioles from AAA Rochester until April 17 and pitched only twice in the last 3 weeks of the season due to a sore right elbow, he still finished 8th in the AL in relief innings pitched (90)...Averaged 2.2 innings per relief appearance, highest average among AL relievers with at least 10 appearances...Worked 4 or more relief innings 11 times...As a reliever, he held opponents to a .198 average, 6th lowest batting average in the AL...Overall, opponents hit .215, including .198 with men on base, 3rd best among all AL pitchers...Held righties to a .191 batting average...Made 3 starts, one of which resulted in an 8-hit shutout in which he combined with Todd Frohwirth and Gregg Olson to beat Jack Morris at Toronto on Aug 11...Was co-winner with Rick Sutcliffe of the Favorite New Oriole Award given by the Oriole Advocates. 1991: Began the season with AAA Columbus, but was recalled by the Yankees on May 17...Was tied for the International League lead in saves at the time of his recall (6 saves, 1.47 ERA)...Was up with the Yankees for only 3 days and made 2 scoreless appearances against Seattle before returning to Columbus...Upon his return, became primarily a starter for the Clippers...Returned to the Yankees following the Triple A playoffs on September 16...Made his first 2 ML starts, both against Cleveland...Lost his first start on September 29, 5-2 at Cleveland and didn't get the decision in his 2nd start at home on October 4. 1990: Became the first Yankee since Jose Rijo in '84 to jump from Class A to the majors when he made the big league roster out of spring training...Earned the James P. Dawson Award that spring given annually by the NY beat writers to the outstanding rookie in Yankee spring training...Made his ML debut April 14 vs Texas with 2.2 scoreless innings...Earned first big league win on June 21 at Toronto, despite allowing first ML homer to John Olerud...Lost twice to the Orioles, both in the 10th inning in relief...Fell 5-4 to Brian Holton on June 8 at Baltimore and 6-3 on September 24 to Jose Bautista at NY. 1989: Spent first 4 full seasons at Class A level...Was 12-29 in first 3 1/2 pro seasons, but on June 22, went from Ft. Lauderdale to Prince William (both Class A), and went 6-1...Held opponents to a .164 average and averaged 9.88 strikeouts per 9 innings, 2nd best ratio among Carolina League relievers.

Orioles

1988: Spent the year at Class A Prince William...Appeared in then career-high 42 games, 5 as a starter, and went 3-8 with 4 saves and a 4.13 ERA.
 1987: After being acquired by the Yankees from the Angels, Alan spent the season at Class A Prince William and suffered a career-high 11 losses... compiled a 6.09 ERA and yielded 102 hits in 85.2 innings.
 1986: Spent his first professional season at Salem in the California Angels organization...Used solely as a starter...In 14 starts, went 6-6 with a CG and a 4.63 ERA.

- Matched his career-high by winning 19 games for the second straight season...Established career-highs with 243.1 innings pitched and 204 strikeouts...The 204 K's set an Orioles single season record, topping Dave McNally's 202 in 1968.
- Mussina made four attempts in his effort to become the Orioles first 20-game winner since Mike Boddicker in 1984...He owns the highest winning percentage in baseball among active major leaguers with 50 or more decisions (90-41, .687).
- Finished the year 8th on the Orioles all-time list in wins (90), 10th in innings pitched (1,137.2) and 10th in strikeouts (760).
- 18 of his 36 starts this year resulted in Quality Starts (6.0 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER)...Over his final 12 starts of the year he went 8-3 with a 4.06 ERA (88.2IP, 81H, 40ER).

- Compiled a season-best 6-game winning streak, July 31-August 24. On the year he tossed four complete games: April 12 vs. Minnesota, June 14 at Kansas City, July 31 at Minnesota and September 7 vs. the Tigers.
- On September 7 vs the Tigers he threw his 11th career shutout and the Orioles only shutout of the season...In that game he recorded a season-high 11 strikeouts...His CG on April 12 over the Twins came in the form of his 2nd career 2-hitter.
- After the All-Star break he pitched 7.0 or more innings in 13 of his 17 starts; however, in the season's second half he went 8-6 with a 4.74 ERA (114IP, 114H, 60ER)...On the year he pitched 6.0 or more innings 31 times in 38 starts.
- He allowed a career-high 9 earned runs twice this year, April 23 in Cleveland and June 9 vs. Chicago at Oriole Park...On May 9 vs. Seattle he yielded a career-high 13 hits...On July 26 he lost a third straight decision (4 starts) to the first time in his career.
- On the year, opponents stole five bases with Mike on the mound and have been caught five times...In his career, 67 runners have attempted to steal while he is pitching, but only 32 have been successful (47.8%).
- Captured first career Rawlings Gold Glove award for defensive excellence...With Roberto Alomar, marked the first time the Orioles have had more than one recipient in a year since 1978 (Belanger, Palmer) and Mike is the first Orioles pitcher to win the award since Palmer won it four straight years, 1976-79.
- In the annual Baseball America "Tools of the Trade" poll, Mike was tabbed as having baseball's "Best Changeup", "Best Control" and was the overall "Best Pitcher".
- Mussina placed 5th in the BBWAA Cy Young Award balloting with one second place and two third place votes for a total of five points...He finished behind Pat Hentgen, Andy Pettitte, Mariano Rivera and Charles Nagy.
- The 19-game winner received the second best Run Support Per 9IP in the American League at 6.84 (243.1IP, 185R), trailing only Boston's Tom Gordon at 7.34.

PRO CAREER

1995: The Orioles ace tied Greg Maddux for the major league lead with a career-high 19 victories...He was also among the A.L. Top 5 in Shutouts (1st, 4), Fewest Baserunners Per 9IP (T1st, 9.66), Innings Pitched (2nd, 221.2), Opponents Batting Average Against (3rd, .226), Starts (T2nd, 32), Complete Games (T2nd, 7) and ERA (4th, 3.29)...Left-handed hitters batted just .210 (102-486) against Mussina, the best average against left-handers in the league...In addition, he averaged 3.16 strikeouts for every walk allowed, the 2nd best K/BB ratio in the league, second only to Seattle's Johnson and his Cy Base Percentage Allowed was .270, second lowest to Johnson's .266...On the year, opposing baserunners stole four bases with Mussina on the hill but were caught stealing six times...The 40% success rate was the third lowest among A.L. pitchers...Through his first 11 starts of the year he was 5-5 with a 5.13 ERA (66.2IP, 61H, 38ER) and 15 HR allowed...Over his final 21 starts he was 14-4 with a 2.50 ERA (155IP, 126H, 43ER) and 9 HR allowed...Compiled a career-best 8-game winning streak over 9 starts, June 23 through August 2...During that stretch he had a 3.06 ERA (61.2IP, 53H, 21ER, 16BB, 47K)...In the midst of the streak he suffered the shortest outing of his career but did not receive the decision in the Orioles 9-8 loss vs Kansas City on July 13 when he allowed 6ER on 6H in 2/3 of an inning...Had a string of 24.0 consecutive innings without a walk spanning from the last two innings of his April 26 start through the first three frames of his May 18 start...Mussina pitched at least 5.0 innings in 28 of 32 starts in '95 (88%)...He tossed 6.0 or more innings in 26 of 32 starts (81%) and 7.0 or more frames in 22 of 32 assignments (69%)...On the road he went 8-6 in 15 starts with a 3.18 ERA (104.2IP, 86H, 37ER)...From the 7th inning on, opponents batted just .226 (38-168) against Mike...With runners in scoring position in '95 he held opponents to a .212 average (31-146) and with runners in scoring position and two out he limited batters to a .208 average (16-77)...With runners on base, his .230 (62-270) average against was 7th best in baseball...Put together a string of 26.0 consecutive scoreless innings, September 21 through October 1 as he ended the season with three straight CG victories...It was the second longest consecutive scoreless innings string in the league behind Kenny Rogers' 39.0...Named at the right-handed pitcher on The Sporting News A.L. All-Star Team and the right-hander on the USA Today Baseball Weekly American League "Best of '95"...Finished 5th in the American League Cy Young balloting behind Randy Johnson, Jose Mesa, Tim Lincecum and David Cone.

1994: Finished in a four way, second place tie for most wins in the majors (16), behind the Yankees' Jimmy Key (17), along with David Cone, Ken Hill and Greg Maddux...He and McDonald combined for 30 wins in the abbreviated season, most by a pair of major league teammates...Tied the Orioles record for most wins at the All-Star break with 13...Jim Palmer, Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar each did it twice...Palmer was the last to accomplish the feat at the break in '75...Steve Stone, who holds the club record for most wins in a season (25), had 12 at the break that season...Went 7-1 to start the season and 7-1 at the end...Nine of his 16 victories followed Orioles losses...Ranked 4th in the A.L. in ERA (3.06), 5th in innings pitched (176.1) and had the league's 4th lowest baserunner per 9IP ratio (10.51)...Threw five home run balls on July 1 vs California to join Jim Palmer in the Orioles record books...On the road, Mike was 8-1 with a league best 2.04 ERA...Held batters to a .221 (28-127) average from the 7th inning on...Only 7 of 13 baserunners attempting to steal were successful against him...Became the first Oriole ever to be chosen for the All-Star team in each of his first three full seasons...Prior to '94 selection, Mussina and O's coach Andy Etchebarren held the distinction of being the only O's ever chosen in their first two full seasons.

1993: Reached 36 major league wins in 69 games; only 2 pitchers have reached 36 wins with the Orioles in less time and neither were original Orioles...Mike Cuellar had 36 wins in his first 63 games with the Birds in '69-'70 after coming over to the Orioles from Houston prior to the '69 season...Steve Stone earned 36 wins in 68 games with the Orioles in '79-'80 after coming over to the Orioles from the White Sox prior to the '79 season...Only 6 other active pitchers had a better record than Mussina at this point in their career (69 starts)...They are: Dwight Gooden (43-13); Juan Guzman (33-10); Roger Clemens (40-14); David Cone (34-14); Orel Hershiser (33-14) and Ramon Martinez (37-16)...Was one of only 3 active pitchers to go 8 games over .500 in each of his first 2 full seasons in the majors joining Dwight Gooden and Mike Boddicker...Worked 5 or more innings 48 out of his first 50 major league starts...No one in Orioles history had ever done that...And in fact, the last pitcher we can find in the major leagues who started his career in such a consistent fashion is Fernando Valenzuela, who over '81 and '82 worked 5 or more innings in his first 60 major league starts...Finished with the 7th best winning percentage in the AL (14-6, .700)...Missed 6 weeks during the season with a sore right shoulder and lower back pain...Was on the disabled list, June 22-Aug 19, with the shoulder injury...Still led the club in wins for the 2nd straight year...Returned from DL August 20 and was 3-2 (IP-40.1, H-38, ER-20) in 6 starts before the return of soreness in his shoulder and back sidelined him in mid-September...On May 16 at Detroit, he tied a club record with 14 strikeouts, a mark that was last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, Sep 2, '57 vs. NY)...Bob Turley (April 21, 1954 vs. Cle.) and Mike Boddicker (October 6, 1983 vs. Cws in the ALCS) also have a share of the record...In his 8-2 win at California on Aug 31 he struck out 6 straight batters in the 4th and 5th innings, one shy of the club record of 7 by Sammy Stewart in '78.

1992: Finished 4th in the AL Cy Young voting with 26 points (2 first place votes) behind Dennis Eckersley (107), fellow Stanford alum Jack McDowell (51), and Roger Clemens (48) and just ahead of Jack Morris (10)...It was the most points by an Oriole in the Cy Young voting since Mike Boddicker in '84 (41)...His .783 winning percentage led the majors and was 4th best in club history behind Dave McNally (.808, 21-5 in 1971); Jim Palmer (.800, 16-4, in 1969) and Wally Bunker (.792, 19-5 in 1964)...At 23, became the O's youngest 18-game winner since 19-year-old Wally Bunker won 19 games in 1964...The only other Orioles to win that many games at a younger age are Steve Barber and Chuck Estrada, who both won 18 games as 22-year-olds in 1961 and 1960 respectively...His 2.54 ERA was 3rd best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since Jim Palmer in 1978 (2.46)...The last time an AL pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in 1976 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23 respectively...Led the O's in innings pitched (241.0) and was 8th in the AL...His inning total was more than any Oriole since Mike Boddicker's 261 in '84, despite missing a couple of starts, May 21-June 1, with a flu-like stomach ailment...Pitched into the 7th inning or later in 26 of 31 starts and into the 8th or later 21 times...Allowed 2 runs or less in 20 of 32 starts and one run or less 14 times...Averaged 7.2 innings per start, 4th best in the AL...Began the season 5-0 and finished the year with a 7-game win streak over his last 9 starts (1.88, IP-72, H-60, ER-15)...In his first start after the All-Star break, July 17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts over 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the 5th, a ball that landed 6 inches inside the right field foul line...At 23 years-8 months became the youngest Oriole pitcher to make the All-Star team since Chuck Estrada (22) in '60.

1991: Joined the Orioles on July 31 and became the O's most effective starter over the last 2 months...Finished with the lowest ERA (2.87) among the major league rookies with 10 or more starts...Posted the AL's 2nd best ERA after September 1 (1.66), 2nd only to Oakland's Mike Moore (1.46)...After September 1, Mussina allowed 2 runs or less in all 6 starts (1.66, IP-48.2, H-36, ER-9), but was only 2-1...Fanned 10 batters in his first ML win, 10-2, at home over Texas on August 14...On September 16, he beat the Red Sox, 3-2, the O's only CG at Boston since Mike Boddicker in '86...Lost 1-0 in his ML debut at Chicago on August 4 (IP-7.2, H-4, ER-1, BB-4, SO-1) on a homer by Frank Thomas...On September 22 at Cleveland, he took a 1-0 lead into the 6th inning, but lost 2-1 (IP-8.1, H-7, R/ER-2, BB-0, SO-3)...When promoted from AAA Rochester on July 31, was tied for the International League lead in wins (10), 2nd in ERA (2.87) and 2nd in strikeouts (107)...Was the winner of the Palmer Prize as the top pitcher in the O's minor league system.

1990: Signed with the Orioles July 2, '90 after he was taken in the first round in the June 4 draft...Made his official debut July 19 for AA Hagerstown vs. Canton-Akron (Indians) at Canton's Thurman Munson Memorial Stadium before 6,752...Worked 4.0 scoreless innings pitching against Cleveland's John Farrell, who was on a rehab assignment...Hagerstown-Rochester: In 11 pro starts that season, including 2 in post-season for Rochester, he allowed more than 2 earned runs only once...Walked only 8 batters in his last 63.1 innings, none in 14.2 post-season innings for Rochester...Earned his first pro win on July 31, when he beat New Britain, 7-0, with 7 shutout innings while pitching for Hagerstown...In his last 5 regular season starts (3 at Hagerstown and 2 at Rochester), he allowed only 3 earned runs in 36.2 innings.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...Coached defensive backs, kickers and punters for the varsity football team this past off-season at his alma mater, Montoursville (PA) High School...Earned degree in economics from Stanford in December '90...Finished in only 3 years...Enjoys Stephen King novels...Signed a national letter of intent to attend Stanford, but O's picked him in the 11th round of the June '87 draft anyway...He did not sign...COLLEGE: In '90, was 14-5 with a 3.35 ERA (G/GS-20, IP-149, SO-111, BB-35), as a junior at Stanford...Tied the school record for most wins in a season, shared with former Oriole Jeff Ballant (won 14 in '85)...Tied for 7th in the nation in wins and 6th in innings pitched...Helped the Cardinal to a 59-12 record and a No. 3 ranking...Finished with a 25-12 career record, tied for the 6th most wins in Stanford history...Worked 328.1 career innings, 5th in school history...Strained tendon in right elbow limited him to only 45.2 innings in '89...Was 9-4 as a freshman in '88 on Stanford's national championship team...All 9 of his wins came against nationally ranked teams...Attended Montoursville (PA) High School and was named the '86 and '87 Pennsylvania Baseball Player of the Year, where he compiled a 24-4 career record with a 0.87 ERA...He was 7-0 and batted .416 as a senior and was 8-1 with a .373 batting mark as a junior...Also offered scholarships in football to Penn State after kicking 60-yard field goal in football camp at PSU...Played wide receiver, defensive back and placekicker at Montoursville...Set county career records for field goals (18), extra points (84) and touchdown receptions (14)...Was All-Conference in football as a defensive back, kicker, and punter...Averaged 24 points per game during 3-year career as a point guard...Purchases game tickets for local youth charity organizations; he calls his group the "Mooseketeers"...Serves as spokesman for the College Bound Foundation and Lycoming County (PA) Chapter for the American Red Cross...Returned to Baltimore this past off-season to participate in the annual Tops in Sports Banquet and Orioles Family FunFest.

Rolands standings...In three seasons with the Cubs he earned 112 saves in 129 opportunities...He was one of only three Cubs relievers to notch 100+ saves (Lee Smith-180 and Bruce Sutter-133) and Myers reached the century mark in his 148th Cubs appearance while it took Smith until his 305th outing and Sutter until his 224th appearance in a Cubs uniform...Was selected to the National League All-Star team for the third time during his career (1990, 1994)...In the Mid-Summer Classic, played July 11 at the Ballpark in Arlington (TX), he earned the save in the N.L.'s 3-2 win by pitching a scoreless 9th inning...He allowed 10 of 37 inherited runners to score and he retired 40 of 57 first batters faced...His longest outing of the year was 2.0 innings which he reached three times in '95.

1994: Was 21-for-26 in save situations...Tied for 5th in the N.L. in saves and was 9th with 34 games finished...Was successful in converting his first two save chances to extend his club record conversion streak to 20 games...On June 27 he became the 16th pitcher in major league history to record 200 or more saves...Pitched a season-high 3.0 innings on July 4 vs Colorado...Named to the All-Star team for the second time in his career and worked 1.0 inning in the game at Pittsburgh, allowing 1H and recording 1K.

1993: Led the major leagues with a National League record 53 saves enroute to winning the Rolands Relief Man of the Year award...It marked the second highest single season saves total in history (White Sox Bobby Thigpen, 57, 1990)...Named to the Associated Press Major League All-Star team...Was the first Cubs hurler to lead the major leagues in saves since Bruce Sutter in 1979...Converted 53 of 59 save chances...Ranked second in the league with a Cubs record 69 games finished and tied for 5th in appearances...Set Chicago team records for saves before the all-star break (27) and saves after the all-star break (26)...Converted his final 18 saves of the year...Was 14-for-14 in September save opportunities and won the Rolands Relief award for the month...Recorded 47th save on September 18 vs Florida, matching the N.L. record set by Lee Smith in '91.

1992: Ranked 2nd in the N.L. with 38 saves for the Padres...Was 3rd in the league with 57 games finished...Was 38-for-46 in converting save opportunities...After the all-star break, Randy converted 23 saves and compiled a 2.82 ERA...Had just one save chance June 6 - July 8...Was 16-for-16 in converting saves from July 9 thru August 26.

1991: Appeared in 58 games in his final year with the Reds, 46 in relief and 12 starts...Had a 2.35 ERA through his first 25 relief appearances...After 293 consecutive relief outings he made his first M.L. start on July 23 vs the Cubs at Wrigley Field...Took the loss, allowing 2ER in 5.0IP...Earned first win as a starter, August 2 vs San Francisco...Threw a CG, September 19 against the Giants but lost a 4-1 decision...As a starter he was 2-6 with a 3.45 ERA.

1990: Was 2nd in the league with 31 saves in his first year with the Reds...Allowed only 3 of 32 inherited runners to score...Held opponents to a .193 batting average...Named to the National League All-Star team for the first time...Was N.L. "Player of the Week" for July 9-15, retiring 13 of 14 batters faced...Struck out the first six batters he faced on September 8 at Los Angeles, tying a league single-game record for consecutive strikeouts by a reliever.

POST SEASON: Pitched in seven post-season games, earning four saves and allowing no runs for the World Champion Reds...Tied the N.L.C.S. record with three saves against the Pirates...Named co-MVP of the series along with teammate Rob Dibble...Saved the final game of the Reds World Series sweep of Oakland.

1989: Recorded 24 saves in his final year with the Mets...His 24 saves were the 8th most in the National League...From April 11-June 10 he was 5-0 with eight saves...Pitched 22.0 consecutive scoreless innings, April 13-May 23.

1988: Was 26-for-29 in save situations in his first year as a stopper...His 87% save percentage was 2nd best in the league...Finished 3rd among NL relievers with a 1.72 ERA (min. 50IP)...Struck out 69 batters in 68.0 innings, 3rd best ratio in the N.L....In three N.L.C.S. games against Los Angeles he was 2-0.

1987: Began the season with the Mets before being optioned to AAA Tidewater on May 14...Recalled again on May 24...Made 54 appearances for the Mets, recording his first six big league saves...Averaged 11 strikeouts per 9IP, 2nd best among major league relievers...On June 7 vs Pittsburgh he struck out 7 batters in 4.0 innings and collected his first major league hit, a single off Don Taylor...Earned first M.L. win on July 1 vs Cincinnati...Six days later he earned his first save over Atlanta.

1986: Had two stints with the Mets, appearing in 10 games...At AAA Tidewater he picked up a then career-best 12 saves...Tied for 2nd in the International League in saves and games finished (35)...Was named to the league's post-season All-Star team.

1985: Appeared in just one game for New York, pitching two scoreless innings in his major league debut, October 6 vs Montreal...At AA Jackson and AAA Tidewater he combined to strikeout 141 batters in 164.1 innings...Was 4-8 with a 3.96 ERA at Jackson prior to promotion to Tidewater on July 27.

1984: Was the Carolina League "Pitcher of the Year" after going 13-5 with a league best 2.06 ERA at Lynchburg...Named to league's mid-season and post-season All-Star teams...Also selected to National Association's Class A All-Star squad...Struck out at least 10 batters in 9 of 22 starts...Tied for 2nd in the league and wins and was 2nd in strikeouts (171)...Tied for 1st with seven complete games...Promoted to AA Jackson on August 8 where he made five starts.

PRO CAREER

1995: The veteran reliever led the American League with 65 appearances...Yielded runs in only 14 of 65 outings this year...On the year he retired 44 of 65 first batters faced...He inherited 66 baserunners, 34 in scoring position and allowed only 17 to score...Allowed inherited runners to score in 10 of the 41 games he entered with men on base...Converted 3 saves in 6 opportunities, including three of the last four...First save of the year was on September 5 vs California, the night Ripken tied Gehrig's consecutive games played record...It was his first save since 9/21/93...Recorded a season-high five strikeouts on August 11 at Boston in just 1.2 innings...It was his most strikeouts since he K'd 5 batters on 8/27/93...Opponents batted .169 (28-166) against Orosco...Left-handed hitters batted just .143 (11-77) and right-handers hit .191 (17-89) against him...With runners in scoring position and two outs the opposition hit .063 (2-32) against him.

1994: For only the 2nd time since his rookie season in '79, failed to record a save...Was 0-for-3 in save situations...Longest outing was 2.2 innings on April 22, with 13 of his 40 appearances lasting less than 1 inning...Allowed only 7 of 33 inherited runners to score (21 percent)...Did not allow any of 9 IRs to score after All-Star break...Went 2-0 with a 3.00 ERA in 9 games after the All-Star break (6 IP, 3 H, 2 R-ER, 3 BB, 5 SO, 0 HR)...From June 28 thru August 2, had a 9-game stretch in which only 1 of 9 inherited runners scored (5.2 IP, 3 H, 2 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 5 SO, 1 HR)...Opponents hit only .222 off him...That ranked 10th among 51 AL relievers who pitched at least as many innings (39)...Was winning pitcher in Brewers last game before the strike, pitching 1 inning of 10-5 victory at Detroit...For 3rd year in a row, held righthanded batters in check better than lefties...Righthanders hit only .195 (87-17) off him, while lefties batted .263 (57-15).

1993: Began season as a set-up man and finished as the Brewers closer (57 G, 3-5, 3.18 ERA, 8 Saves)...His 8 saves were the most he had since 1988 when he had 9 for the Dodgers...Topped the club in appearances (57) and opponents batting average (.224) and ranked 2nd in saves...Had a 26% (11-40) success rate for inherited runners...Averaged 1.0 inning per appearance with his longest outing being 3.0 innings vs Oakland on August 24 (game 2)...Pitched more than 1.0 inning 15 times (26%) and less than 1.0 inning 24 times (42%)...Did an outstanding job on the road (28 G, 3-0, 1.65 ERA, 3 SV)...Had a 1.29 ERA in 10 August games and a 2.51 ERA in 11 September appearances...After going 0-2 with a 5.18 ERA and 1 save in 32 games before the break, went 3-3 with a 1.67 ERA with 7 saves in 25 games after...Was 0-2 with a season high 7.50 ERA in his first 10 games through May 5...Completed a 1.69 ERA (3 ER in 16 IP) in 17 games from May 8 through June 24...Went 1-0 and did not allow an earned run in 8.0 innings over 7 games from July 11 through August 6...Tied his career high with 5 strikeouts in a game twice in the same week, August 24 vs. Oakland and August 27 vs. California, both in 2nd games of doubleheaders...Had a 20-inning scoreless streak from August 18 thru September 24 to reach a season low 2.68 ERA through 54 games...Went 2-3 with a 2.16 ERA and 6 saves in 9 chances over his final 19 games after August 11.

1992: A key member of the Brewers league-leading bullpen (59 G, 3-1, 3.22 ERA, 1 SV)...Ranked 2nd on club in appearances (59) and inherited runners ratio (22%, 14-64) and 3rd in games finished (14)...Earned his only save on May 23 at New York, his 1st save since May 6, 1990 vs Texas.

1991: Ranked 3rd on the Cleveland staff in appearances (47), but fell three games shy of becoming only the 3rd reliever in history with 50 appearances in 10 consecutive seasons, after Ron Perranoski (1961-1970) and Lee Smith (1982-1991)...Had his lowest season totals since making the big leagues for good in 1982...Held foes to a .130 batting average after two strikes.

1990: Ranked 2nd on the team in saves, games and games finished...5th consecutive season with 50-or-more appearances...Matched his career high for strikeouts in a game (5) on September 21 at Toronto, reaching it for the first time since May 15, 1985.

1989: Led Cleveland with a career high 69 appearances, 6th in the AL...Topped Tribe relievers with a .198 opponents average and a 2.08 ERA, lowest ERA by an Indians reliever since Vicente Romo (1.62) in 1968...Fanned 79 in 78.0 IP, including 33 in his last 26 innings...Earned his 1st AL save on May 22 at Detroit...First AL victory came on July 14 vs Detroit.

1988: Had lowest save total since 1982 as he shared a stopper role on the World Champion Dodgers with Jay Howell and Alejandro Pena...Signed as a free agent with the Indians on December 6.

1987: Saved his 100th game on May 26, becoming the 1st Met in history to reach that figure...Had 6th highest Rolands Relief Man point total in 5-year stretch from 1983-1987.

1986: Became Mets all-time save leader, passing Tug McGraw...Both he and Roger McDowell posted 20-plus save seasons, marking 1st time in Mets history the club produced two 20-save pitchers in the same year...Tied for 5th in NL with 21 saves...In July 22 game vs Cincinnati, he flip-flopped with McDowell during the last 5.0 innings, pitching and playing left and right field the 1st time a Mets pitcher took a defensive position in the field...Had 1 putout in the game...Was 3-0 with 2 saves and a 1.98 ERA in 8 post-season games...Became the 1st pitcher in LCS history to post 3 wins in a single series, including the pennant clincher in Game 6 at Houston...Also saved Game 7 of World Series.

1985: Tied Roger McDowell for club lead with 17 saves, tied for 9th in the NL...Only teammates in majors to have 15 or more each...Had string of 6 consecutive strikeouts in back-to-back outings April 16-17 at Pittsburgh...Tied career best with 5 strikeouts, May 15 at Houston.

1984: Established Mets record with career high 31 saves in 38 opportunities, finishing 3rd in NL...Tied for 2nd in NL with 10 relief wins...Named to NL All-Star squad for the 2nd straight year...Had a major league high 85 strikeouts in relief.

1983: Set career highs in innings (110.0), wins (13), and ERA (1.47)...Named to the All-Star Team...NL "Player of the Month" for August...Finished 3rd in NL Cy Young Award balloting and Rolands Relief Man of the Year competition...Led NL with 13 relief wins...Tossed career high 27.2 consecutive scoreless innings July 22-August 24...Had a career-high 9-game winning streak July 22 thru September 5, 1 short of Tom Seaver's 1969 club record.

1982: Led Mets staff in games (54) and ERA (2.72 ERA)...Made final two ML starts of his career.

1981: Joined the Mets on September 11...Recorded 1st major league save on September 18 vs. St. Louis...Went to the bullpen the final 36 games at AAA Tidewater, going 5-3 with 8 saves and a 0.81 ERA.

1980: In 1980 struck out 85 batters in 71 innings at Jackson of the Texas League (AA).

1979: Made the jump from rookie ball to the Mets by not allowing a run in 6 spring exhibitions...Gained 1st big league win April 22 at Philadelphia, beating Steve Carlton...Assigned to Tidewater of International League on June 17.

1978: Signed with Twins and led Appalachian League in games finished and was 4th in saves...Traded after season to Mets with pitcher Greg Field for pitcher Jerry Koosman.

PRO CAREER

1995: Spent most of the season at Class A High Desert of the California League...Was 7-6 in 21 appearances (20 starts) despite a 3.23 ERA, 6th best in the league...Promoted to AA Bowie on August 13 and made his Double-A debut that night against New Haven...Worked 7.0 innings in the Baysox 5-0 victory...Allowed three hits, walked five and struck out four...In his second start for Bowie he pitched 7.0 more shutout innings at Canton-Akron but did not receive the decision...In his 14.0 innings in the Eastern League, Billy allowed only one runner to reach third base and that came as a result of a pair of errors...Season ended prematurely when he was placed on the disabled list on August 21 with soreness in his right elbow...On September 19 in Baltimore he underwent surgery to remove bone spurs.

1994: In his first full professional season, Billy led Class A Albany in wins (13), starts (28), complete games (3), shutouts (2), innings pitched (169.1) and strikeouts (132)...Averaged better than six innings per start...Pitched 7.0 or more innings 11 times...Hurled two 3-hitters, one of which was a 9-inning 3-hitter on June 12 vs Macon...Recorded 10 strikeouts and 7 walks, both season highs, vs Capital City on April 18...Averaged nearly 5 walks and just over 7 strikeouts per 9IP...Following the season he pitched for Escogido in the Dominican winter league.

1993: Despite going 1-0 in his first three starts for Bluefield, he made three solid efforts...His first start came on June 21 vs Martinsville and he struck out 11 batters in 5 innings...His second outing came on June 26 vs Johnson City and he pitched 1-hit ball for 7 innings...His third start was on July 1 against Danville and he struck out 13 batters in a 4-hit complete game victory...Won three straight starts, July 11-22.

1992: Began his professional career with the Gulf Coast League Orioles...In eight games in July he compiled a 2.77 ERA (13.0IP, 4ER).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Played Babe Ruth league baseball as a youth in San Pedro de Macoris, DR...Credits his brother Dioni as the person who inspired him the most in his pursuit of a professional baseball career...Prior to embarking on his pitching career, Billy was an outfielder and catcher in the amateur ranks...Hobbies include music.

1996

- Was brought along slowly in spring training after undergoing season-ending surgery on his left shoulder last September 8 to repair torn cartilage.
- Won in his first outing of the year, April 4 vs. Kansas City, and in his 2nd outing, April 11 vs. Cleveland, he recorded the first save of his professional career, pitching the final 3.0 innings of the O's 14-4 win.
- Won his first nine decisions...His 9-0 start was the second best in club history behind Dave McNally's 15-0 start in 1969...Was 8-0 out of the bullpen, 2nd best streak by an O's reliever behind Sammy Stewart ('83-'84) and Wes Stock ('62-'64) who won 10 straight in relief.
- Used primarily as a reliever...Out of the pen he was 8-1 with a 3.50 ERA (43.2IP, 33H, 17ER), including 38 Ks...Made two starts on the year, April 25 and April 30, going 1-0 with a 6.75 ERA (9.1IP, 15H, 7ER).
- Had at least one strikeout in 24 of his 28 appearances...Struck out a season-high 8 batters in his April 30 vs. New York...Most K's in relief was five on May 19 vs. the Mariners in 2.0 innings.
- On the year, Arthur was 1-for-1 in save opportunities...Out of the pen, he retired 17 of 26 first batters faced...He inherited 19 baserunners, 12 of whom were in scoring position, and allowed 7 of them to score.
- Was first placed on the disabled list on July 22 due to inflammation in his left shoulder...He was activated on August 2, appeared in two games, allowing 4ER in 1.1 innings before returning to the D.L. on August 6 with recurrence of the inflammation... Was activated again on September 27 and retired both batters faced on the final day of the season, September 29 at Toronto.

PRO CAREER

1995: Started the season in the Orioles rotation and was the winner in the O's first victory of the season, April 30 at Minnesota...Struck out a then career-high 9 batters...Over his next four starts he was 0-2 with a 9.42 ERA and on May 26 was optioned to AAA Rochester...Made four starts for the Red Wings and was 2-1 with a 2.70 ERA...On May 31 vs Charlotte he fanned 11 batters in seven innings...At AAA he struck out six or more in all four starts before being recalled by the Orioles on June 20...As a starter he went 2-3 with a 7.16 ERA in 9 starts (44IP, 45H, 35ER) before being moved to the bullpen...As a relief pitcher, Arthur was 0-2 in 10 games with a 4.88 ERA (31.1IP, 23H, 17ER)...On July 13 vs Kansas City he made his first major league relief appearance after 59 big league starts...In that game he did not receive the decision in the Orioles 9-8 loss but recorded a career-high 10 strikeouts in 7.0IP...He became the second A.L. reliever to strikeout 10 or more in a game in '95...Minnesota's Mark Guthrie struck out 12...On August 20 at Oakland he recorded 10 strikeouts in only 4.2 innings of relief in Baltimore's 6-3 defeat...Out of the bullpen, Rhodes inherited 17 baserunners, 10 in scoring position, and 6 of them scored. He retired 6 of 10 first batters faced and was 0-for-1 in converting save chances. On August 24 at California, he left the game with a shoulder strain and was placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day. On September 8 he underwent surgery on his left shoulder to repair a tear of the labrum (cartilage in the shoulder joint). The surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Alabama.

1997

1994: Had three stints with the O's in '94, splitting time between Baltimore and AAA Rochester. Started in a total of 25 games, 10 with the O's (3-5, 5.81 ERA) and 15 with the Red Wings (7-5, 2.79 ERA). He tossed 6 complete games (3 with Baltimore and 3 with Rochester), most in the O's system in '94. Started the season with the Orioles going 1-5 with a 7.62 ERA in his first 5 starts before being placed on the 15-day DL with tendinitis in his left knee. Was reinstated from the DL on May 21 and made a start vs the Yankees at NY, lasting just 1.1 inning before being optioned to Rochester on May 22. Was recalled from the Red Wings on June 27 and made 2 starts, both no-decisions. Was optioned to Rochester on July 4. Recalled July 31 to start the next day in Cal Ripken's 2000th consecutive game in Minnesota. Came up big for the occasion tossing a 7-hit shutout (the O's first of the season and first in 139 games). Threw a 5-hit shutout in his next start, August 6 at Milwaukee, thus becoming the first Oriole hurler to record back-to-back shutouts since Mike Mussina blanked the Twins in consecutive starts in '93, (before that, Jim Palmer was the last to accomplish the feat in '82). For his efforts, he was honored as the A.L. "Pitcher of the Week" for August 1-7. Surrendered two earned runs or less in 10 of his 15 Red Wing starts, including 9 of his last 12. Allowed more than 3 ER only twice in '94 (but not once in his last 12 starts). Struck out 8 or more in a game 6 times. Matched Rick Krivda's team season-high by striking out 11 in 7.2 innings of work in a 3-2 loss to Toledo, August 23. In his 5 losses, the Wings managed a total of 8 runs.

1993: Began the season as the Orioles No. 4 starter but on May 18 after 6 starts (1-2, 9.36) went on the disabled list. Underwent arthroscopic surgery the same day on his left knee to remove a loose fragment. Did his rehab at AAA Rochester in July and returned to the Orioles at the end of the month. Was 4-4 with a 5.34 ERA in 11 starts for the O's after coming off the DL. Entered '93 with a streak of 53 consecutive homer-less innings, but allowed 16 in 65.2 innings, 1.68 per 9 innings, the 3rd highest ratio in the AL (min 10 homers behind Texas' Craig Lefferts (1.84) and California's John Farrell (1.79)). Allowed 12 home runs in 36.2 innings at Camden Yards. Completed 7 innings only twice in 17 starts. His best game was a 4-1 masterpiece at Detroit, Aug. 9 (IP-8, H-3, ER-1, BB-3, SO-8). On September 7, in a 3-2 loss at home to Seattle, he had a no-hitter with 2 out in the 7th. A 2-run homer by Mike Blowers broke up the gem and a scoreless game. The only other hit he allowed that game was a solo homer to Dave Valle.

1992: Although he wasn't recalled from AAA Rochester until July 8, finished 3rd among AL rookies with 77 strikeouts behind California's Julio Valera (110) and Seattle's Dave Fleming (112). Averaged 7.3 strikeouts per 9 innings, 2nd among AL rookies trailing only Chicago reliever Roberto Hernandez (8.6). Went 4-0 in his first 5 starts (2.19), then lost 4 straight starts (9.00). Finished up strong, going 3-1 in his last 6 starts, while the O's went 5-1 (2.35, IP-38.1, H-30, ER-10). In his first start after being recalled from Rochester, he defeated the Twins and Scott Erickson, 4-2, July 9 at Baltimore, the first win by an Oriole left starter in almost a year (Jeff Ballard, July 15, 1991 over California). In his 2nd start on July 19 at Texas, he took a no-hitter into the 6th, but left trailing 2-0 after 7.0. In his 3rd start, he pitched the first complete game of his career, a rain-shortened, 8-inning win over Texas on July 24 at home. It was the first complete game by an Oriole since August 21, 1989, when Jeff Ballard beat Milwaukee. Threw a 5-hit shutout at New York on July 29, the O's first shutout in Yankee Stadium since Scott McGregor beat Tommy John, 1-0, on September 25, 1981. Was 2nd in the International League in strikeouts (115) at the time of his recall. Averaged 10.2 strikeouts per 9 innings. Struck out 14 batters in 8 innings in his last start before recall, an 8-4 win over Pawtucket on July 13.

1991: Was the youngest Oriole on the roster in '91 (21). His contract was purchased from AA Hagerstown on August 21. Made his ML debut August 21 against the Rangers at Arlington. He was not the pitcher of record in a 4-3 O's victory, allowing 3ER in 4IP. At Hagerstown was named Eastern League "Pitcher of the Year". Ranked 3rd in the EL with a 2.70 ERA and with 115 strikeouts. Averaged 9.7 strikeouts per 9 innings pitched (IP-106.2, SO-115). Opposing batters were held to a .194 average (73-for-377).

1990: Spent the first half of the season at A Frederick where he had the Carolina League's best strikeouts-to-walks ratio (103 to 21). Went from Frederick to AA Hagerstown in late July. Allowed one run or less 10 times combined in Class A and AA, but won only 4 of those games. Twice fanned 16 batters in a game: May 8 (9.0 IP) vs. Kinston and May 30 (7.0 IP, faced 28 batters) vs. Salem, but didn't win either game. In his first start of the season, he hurled a 7-inning 1-hitter with 10 strikeouts over Lynchburg. While with Frederick, he made his Memorial Stadium debut, June 10, in a game against Peninsula as part of a major league/minor league doubleheader. Won, 8-1, with 9 strikeouts over 7 innings.

1989: Was leading the NY-Penn League in strikeouts (45 in 31.0 IP) and was 2nd in ERA (1.16) when promoted to the Carolina League. Struck out 14 in a 2-hitter over Elmira. In the Florida Instructional League, he fanned 46 in 32 innings and was 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA.

1988: Made his professional debut June 24 at Bluefield (Rookie) and worked the final 2.0 innings of the Orioles 3-2, 27-inning victory over Burlington. He struck out Mark Lewis, the 3rd player selected in that year's draft, for the final out of the game. That same season, he pitched 2.0 innings for the Orioles in an exhibition at Rochester on July 25.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Married to the former Kerry Garrett. Two children: Trey (11/15/88) and Jade Ashlee (12/2/93). Played baseball and football at LaVega High School in Waco, TX. As a sophomore, he and older brother, Ricky, a senior right-hander, formed 2/3 of the team's pitching staff. Ricky was the Yankees' 35th round draft pick in '88. In 5 minor league seasons ('88-'92), he had a 20-26 record. Serves as Cystic Fibrosis 65 Roses Honorary Chairman.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES, '54-'96

For the second straight season in 1996, first baseman Rafael Palmeiro was voted winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc. Palmeiro became the sixth player to earn the award in consecutive seasons, joining Frank Robinson, Boog Powell, Jim Palmer and Cal Ripken as the only back-to-back winners and Eddie Murray, who was honored with five straight MVO awards, 1981-85.

In 1995 Palmeiro became the 26th different player to win the award, which has been given annually since 1954. He is the fifth different first baseman, joining Murray, Powell, Jim Gentile and Lee May.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO award when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years.

The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994.

Winners by position: outfielders-14; first basemen-13; pitchers-8; third basemen-4; shortstops-2; catchers-2; and second basemen-1.

- Baseball's all-time "Iron Man" played in all 163 Orioles games this season and kept his consecutive games streak intact at 2,316 games at the end of the '96 campaign.
- On July 15 he started at third base for the first time since 6/30/82...Had made two other appearances at third, his last coming on 7/8/82...Had made 2,216 consecutive starts at shortstop, a major league record for any position, until starting six games at third base, July 15-21.
- On April 6 he made his first error since 7/18/95 as he saw a string of 74 consecutive errorless games snapped...On the year he made 14 errors, but just three after June 28.
- On May 13 vs the Twins, Cal collected his 819th extra base hit, moving past Brooks Robinson into 1st place on the Orioles all-time list...The hit came in the form of his 450th double.
- On April 19 at Texas he became just the 3rd player with 100 or more career RBI against the Texas Rangers, joining George Brett and Reggie Jackson.
- Batted 7th in the batting order on May 14 at Oakland...It was the first time he batted that low in the order since his first year in the majors, 1982.
- On May 28 at the Kingdome, Cal enjoyed his first career 3 HR game and collected a career-high 8 RBI...It was the 15th time that an Oriole homered three times in a game and the first since Randy Milligan in 1990...In the 9th inning of that game he homered as did brother Bill...The 2nd time they have homered in the same inning and the 6th time that brothers have accomplished the feat...On June 3 he was named A.L. "Player of the Week" for the 9th time in his career.
- On May 29, also in Seattle, he hit his 334th career home run, moving past Eddie Murray for first place on the Orioles all-time list...Finished the year with 351 homers, Murray has 343 as an Oriole.
- On June 11 he homered in his third straight game, matching a career-best.
- Played in consecutive game 2,216 on June 14 at Kansas City setting a new consecutive games world record...The previous mark of 2,215 was held by third baseman Sachio Kinugasa who played with the Hiroshima Carp in Japan's Central League.
- On September 15 at Detroit, Cal hit a pair of home runs marking his 2nd 2 HR game of the year and the 17th multi-homer game of his career...His first homer that day was the team's 240th, tying the 1961 Yankees for the most by a team in a season...His second home run that day was hit immediately after Bonilla's marking the 16th time that the O's have hit back-to-back home runs this year, tying the big league mark held by the '77 Red Sox and '82 Brewers.

- Named as a starter on the American League All-Star team for the 13th consecutive season.
- Surpassed 100 RBI in a season for the 4th time in his career, giving the Orioles four 100 RBI men (Anderson, Bonilla, Palmeiro)...It was the first Orioles team to have four players with 100 RBI.
- On September 19 at New York, in the 2nd game of the doubleheader he smacked his 483rd career double, passing Brooks Robinson for the most in Orioles history.
- On August 9 at Comiskey Park he collected his 2,500th career hit, a single off Bill Simas.
- Left 15 games early in 1996, 81 times during the streak...Earliest exit this year was on the season's last day, September 29 at Toronto, when he was removed after playing two innings.
- Broke Lou Gehrig's record for most consecutive years playing all of club's games (14) and most years leading the league in games played (8). Both represent major league marks.
- Following the season, Cal toured Japan with a team of Major League All-Stars...In eight games against the Japanese All-Stars he batted .385 (5-13) with 4 RS, 1 2B, 1 HR and 3 RBI.
- This was Ripken's 16th season with the Orioles, the most seasons with the same club among active major leaguers, one year more than San Diego's Tony Gwynn.

MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS

- Extended his major league record for home runs by a shortstop to 345
- Holds the major league record for most years leading league in games by a shortstop, 11.
- Extended his major league record for most consecutive games by a shortstop, 2216.
- Established the major league record for most years playing all of club's games (14) and most years leading league in games (8).

MOST HOME RUNS EVER BY A SHORTSTOP

All-time Leader: Has hit 345 of his 353 homers as a shortstop, most in major league history ahead of Ernie Banks (277) and Vern Stephens (213). Passed Banks July 15, '93 at Oriole Park when he homered off Minnesota's Scott Erickson. Banks' mark had stood since he moved to first base from shortstop in 1962. The seat in left field where the ball landed is now painted orange to commemorate the achievement.

30 Homers: Is one of five shortstops in major league history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, along with Ernie Banks, Vern Stephens, Rico Petrocelli and Alex Rodriguez.

EXTRA-BASE HITS BY A SHORTSTOP

Passing Honus and Joe: 855 of his 883 extra-base hits have come as a shortstop, the highest total in baseball history, as near as we can tell. Honus Wagner had 737 in the years he was primarily a shortstop ('01, '03-'16 with Pittsburgh), and Joe Cronin had 765 in the years he was primarily a shortstop, ('28-'41 with Washington and Boston). A precise statistical breakout is not available, however.

Recalling 1991: His ML-high 85 extra-base hits in '91 have been exceeded by only two other shortstops in history, Robin Yount with 87 in '82 and Alex Rodriguez with 91 in '96...Cal's 368 total bases were the most in one season by an AL shortstop until 1996 when Seattle's Rodriguez matched Banks' all-time mark of 379...Also Cal is one of three shortstops (joining Banks in '58 and '59 and Rodriguez in '96) to hit .300+ with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI.

RUNS BATTED IN

- Ranks third to Eddie Murray and Andre Dawson among active major leaguers.
- Has averaged 91 RBI per season in his 15 seasons
- Has the most in Orioles history as he surpassed Brooks Robinson in 1996.

HITS

- Ranks sixth among active major leaguers, 11 behind Tony Gwynn.
- Ranks second in Orioles history, 299 behind Brooks Robinson (2848).
- His 2500th hit came August 9, 1996 at Chicago off the White Sox' Bill Simas.

BASES LOADED

Batted .357 (4-15) in 1996 to raise his lifetime average to .282 (51-181).

STEALS

FIRST STEAL WAS A STEAL OF HOME: Stole home for his first major league steal on the front end of a double steal May 31, 1982 at home vs. Texas off Jon Matlack. Lenn Sakata stole second on the play. Jim Sundberg was the catcher. Al Bumby was at bat. Gave the O's 4-3 lead in eventual 8-7 win.

CAL IN A PINCH

AS A PINCH HITTER: Has pinch hit four times, all in 1981, three times for Mark Belanger (August 19, 20, 22) and once for Eddie Murray (August 30).

AS A PINCH RUNNER: Has pinch run seven times, six in 1981, once in 1982. Ran twice for Ken Singleton, Terry Crowley, and Doug DeCinces, and once for Benny Ayala. The last time was April 18 1982 for Crowley. Only in his first pinch running experience, in his major league debut August 10, '81, did he score (see major league debut below).

THEY PINCH HIT FOR CAL: Has been replaced by pinch hitters 16 times, most recently July 27, 1996 by Manny Alexander, the 7th time during the consecutive games streak (also Jim Dwyer, June 4 1982, Tim Lulett April 14 1991, Alexander, June 13, 1995, and Bret Barberie, July 5, 1995). The rankings: Terry Crowley-six times, Jim Dwyer-four, Bret Barberie-two, Manny Alexander-two, Tim Lulett-one, Damon Buford-one.

THEY PINCH RAN FOR CAL: Cal has been pinch-run for seven times. The first was Floyd Rayford, May 3, 1982 after Cal was hit in the back of the head by a Mike Moore pitch. The next six times were during the consecutive games streak: Tim Lulett August 6, 1991, Steve Scarsone September 22, 1992, Bret Barberie, June 25, 1995, Jeff Huson did it twice, August 10, 1995 and April 8, 1996 and Manny Alexander, May 1, 1996.

DEFENSIVE REPLACEMENTS: During the consecutive games streak, has been replaced by 11 different players 74 times. The replacements:

CYCLE: One of only two Orioles to ever hit for the cycle. On May 6, 1984, was 4-for-5 with two RBI. Homered off Dave Tobik in his final at bat. Brooks Robinson hit for the cycle at Chicago, July 15, 1960. Opponents have hit for the cycle five times against the Orioles.

JAPAN TRIPS: Has a cumulative .358 average (29-81) on three trips to Japan...1984: Was on O's 14-game post-season trip and batted .315 (17-54) with four homers and nine RBI as the O's went 8-5-1...1986: Was part of US Major League All-Star team that went 6-1 against All-Stars from Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues...Cal led that team in batting (.500, 7-14, 2B-2, HR-2, RBI-6) while splitting shortstop duties with the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith...1996: Was on latest tour of Japan with a group of Major League All-Stars in the off-season...Batted .385 (5-13) with 4 RS, a 2B, a HR and 3 RBI.

ALL-STAR GAMES

14-YEAR ALL-STAR: Ripken's 14 games (all consecutive) extend his AL record for shortstops. Ozzie Smith, named in '96 for the 15th time, is the major league leader. The previous AL mark (10) belonged to former Oriole Luis Aparicio. Only Brooks Robinson (AL record 18 games in 15 straight years, '66-'74) has represented the Orioles at more All-Star Games. The only year Ripken did not make the team was his rookie (of the year) season, 1982.

ELECTED: 12 times, eight consecutive starting in 1989. Was also elected 1984 thru '87. Alan Trammell was elected in 1988 (but withdrew due to injury so Cal, who finished second in the voting, started in his place). Fellow shortstop Ozzie Smith was elected in '95 for the 12th time and finished 2nd in '96 to Larkin...Since balloting returned to the fans in 1970, nine different Orioles have been elected to start 25 times in 19 of the 27 years. In 1996 the Orioles had three starters in the game played in Philadelphia with Cal, 2B Roberto Alomar and RF Brady Anderson, an All-Star starter for the first time. Anderson finished 4th in the balloting among outfielders and was named the starting RF when Griffey withdrew due to injury.

STARTER: 13 straight years (starting '84), a major league record for shortstops. Ozzie Smith, not elected in 1993 and 1996, is second to Cal with 12 starts at shortstop. Smith held the previous record, 10, '83 thru '92.

CLUB RECORD: Cal's 13 straight starts is a club record. Brooks Robinson is second with five straight. Cal's 13 starts breaks Brooks' club record (10 years, 11 games, 2 in 1961). Cal is the only major league player to start the past 13 All-Star Games.

FAN BALLOTING: Has led the majors in votes four times: '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806), '92 (2,699,773), and '95 (1,698,524).

THE GAMES

1995: At the Mid-Summer Classic in Arlington, TX, Cal went 2-for-3 with singles off Philadelphia's Tommy Greene and Montreal's Carlos Perez.

1994: Played the entire 10-inning game at Pittsburgh, going 1-for-5. In the bottom of the 10th, relayed Albert Belle's throw to Ivan Rodriguez beautifully, just barely later than Tony Gwynn's arrival at home with the "sudden death" winning run.

1993: In the classic at Camden Yards, Cal was 0-for-3 with two groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop by Chuck Thompson.

1992: Had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in three trips at San Diego to help the AL win, 13-6.

MVP 1991: Became the fourth Oriole to win the All-Star Game MVP Award when, on July 9 at Toronto's SkyDome, he hit a three-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and singled off the ultimate Cy Young Award winner, Tom Glavine, to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Other Orioles All-Star MVP's: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks ('66) and Frank ('71)...Cal became only the third AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game home run, joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting contest the day before, hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to lead the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

THE RIPKEN FAMILY: Cal played with his brother Bill at second base for 1 1/2 seasons (July 11, '87 thru '92), and Bill was with the Orioles in a utility role in 1996...Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager...All three were together in '87, when Cal Sr. became the first father ever to manage two sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season)...In addition to younger brother Bill (30), Cal has another brother, Fred, and a sister, Ellen Leigh...Cal's mother is named V. FATHER: Cal Sr. spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach. He joined the staff in '76. Managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization. His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history. During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league. Earned the reputation as perhaps the best teacher of young players in Orioles history...Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the seventh non-interim manager in the club's history. Was replaced by Frank Robinson on April 12, '88 after the O's lost the first six games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended). His overall record as manager was 68-101, .402...Rip was a catcher in the O's organization, although he also played some third base and outfield and even pitched...He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60...He became a player-manager the following year...In 1996 he was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame.

Only 11 errors combined: In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying (each playing 2/3 of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination. Next lowest total is 13 in 1990 by Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee...On June 15, 1989, vs. New York, the two Ripkens teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years.

Both homered: On September 15, 1990 at Toronto, Cal and Bill each homered...They matched the feat on May 28, 1996 at Seattle and Cal homered three times in that game...They were the first brothers to homer in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it September 14, 1974.

2131: PASSING A LEGEND

Basic Facts & Figures About Lou Gehrig's and Cal Ripken's Streaks

• On August 17, 1933, New York Yankees first baseman Lou Gehrig played in his 1,308th straight game to surpass Everett Scott's major league record for consecutive games played. The Iron Horse went on to play in 2,130 straight games before the crippling effects of ALS (amyotrophic lateral sclerosis) ended his once-thought impossible streak. Just over two years later, ALS ended his life.

• Ripken's streak began on May 30, 1982 when manager Earl Weaver started Cal as the third baseman against Toronto at Memorial Stadium...The day before, Floyd Rayford started in Cal's place at third base in the second game of a DH.

• Gehrig holds the major league record for most home runs by a first baseman (493). Ripken holds the record for most home runs by a shortstop (353).

• Gehrig's longest streak at first base was 885 straight games. He played left field for one game in 1930 while Babe Ruth pitched, and he played right field for one game in 1931 while Ruth played first base.

• Gehrig played every inning of every game one time in his career (1931). Ripken holds what is believed to be the major league record with a streak of 8,243 straight innings, spanning 904 games from 1982 to 1987.

• Gehrig missed just two starts during his streak, both in the first year: 1925 (July 5, the 33rd game of the streak and July 19, the 48th game). Both times, Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at first base. Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.

• Gehrig came out early 69 times during his streak. Ripken has exited early 81 times during his streak. Twice during his streak, Gehrig was ailing and listed as the shortstop in the lead-off position. Both times, he singled and was immediately replaced by a pinch runner.

• In the last 100 games of his streak, Gehrig batted .287 (106-369) with 67 runs, 15 doubles, four triples, 16 homers and 82 RBI. In his last 25 games, Gehrig batted .350 (36-103) with 23 runs, eight doubles, three triples, eight homers and 34 RBI.

Selected Records of Lou Gehrig

- Most consecutive years scoring 100 runs (13, tied with Hank Aaron)
- First player in modern era to hit four homers in game (6/3/32, consecutive)
- Most career grand slams (23)
- Most consecutive years with 100 RBI's (13, tied with Jimmie Foxx)
- Most years with 150 RBI's (7)
- Most RBI's in season (184), AL record, 155 games in 1931
- Most years with 400 or more total bases (5)

EARLY EXITS: Has exited early 58 times during the streak:

1982...1	1989...4	1992...9	1995...8
1987...2	1990...11	1993...8	1996...15
1988...2	1991...15	1994...6

Twice by Ejection: The earliest Cal has left were the two games from which he was ejected- both in the first inning: September 25, '87 by Tim Welke (vs. Yankees) and August 7, '89 by Drew Coble (vs. Minnesota)...In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: The three longest Orioles streaks before Cal were:

Brooks Robinson	463
Eddie Murray	444
Billy Gardner	361

EVERY GAME OF THE YEAR: Cal is one of five Orioles to have played every game in a season.

Cal Ripken	14 Times	'83 thru '96
Brooks Robinson	4 Times	'61, '62, '64, '68
Eddie Murray	4 Times	'78, '79, '84, '88
Billy Gardner	Once	'57
Bobby Grich	Once	'73

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK, '82-'87: His streak of 8,243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history. The post-season innings he played in '83 and '86 are not included in these figures. Lou Gehrig, incidentally, played every inning of every game only one season ('31) during his streak.

The start: Cal's innings streak began June 5, '82 (6 days and five games after the start of his consecutive games string May 30) at Minnesota. The day before (June 4), Jim Dwyer had pinch-hit for him in the ninth inning, also at Minnesota.

The finish: The innings streak ended September 14, '87 in Toronto when Orioles manager Cal Ripken Sr. inserted Ron Washington at shortstop in the bottom of the eighth of an 18-3 Toronto walkover. That was the game in which the Blue Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs...Rip, whose innings streak covered some five seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least two straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...in addition to Cal & Freeman, only one other major leaguer has played every inning at least three years (not necessarily consecutive), Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

CLOSE CALLS

April 10, 1985...Game 444...Sprained left ankle at shortstop during a pickoff play in the third inning vs. Texas (did not come out of the game)...X-rays taken after the game at Greater Baltimore Medical Center were negative...Didn't play the next day in the club's exhibition game at the US Naval Academy, but was in the lineup the next night vs. Toronto.

September 11, 1992...Game 1713...Suffered a twisted right ankle running out a double against the Brewers (did not come out of the game), and as a precaution the Orioles recalled shortstop Manny Alexander from AAA Rochester...Cal didn't miss so much as an inning for another week.

June 6, 1993...Game 1790...Suffered a twisted right knee when his spikes caught in the infield grass during O's-Mariners melee...Though he didn't come out of the game, the knee was swollen and painful the next day...Still, he didn't even miss infield practice...He said later, "It was the closest I've come to not playing."

- After being acquired from the Expos, Tony was on the Orioles Opening Day roster and was the Birds' Opening Day right fielder.
- On May 12 he was optioned to AAA Rochester after batting .238 in 29 games for the Orioles...Was used by Rochester exclusively as the designated hitter.
- May 16-June 11, due to a strained right shoulder.
- On June 16 he was placed on the disabled list with a strained right shoulder and underwent arthroscopic surgery...After the surgery he went through a 6-game rehab assignment at Class A Frederick.
- On September 13 he was recalled by the Orioles...Appeared in two more games for the Orioles, including one start in right field.
- Following the season he played winter ball for Ponce in Puerto Rico and hit .310 in 11 games.

PRO CAREER

1995: Completed his first season at the major league level as an every-day player...Collected 438 at-bats after accumulating only 167 ABs in 111 games the previous two seasons with the Braves...Started the season in left field (11 starts) but moved to right field on May 13 as Moises Alou was shifted to left...Started 102 games in RF...Batted .395 as a left fielder and .233 in right...Started the season with a career high 11-game hitting streak (20-for-45, .444) from April 26-May 9...Streak was snapped on May 10, but he did reach base via a walk...First career four-hit game came on June 9 at San Francisco, including a solo homer in the ninth inning...Led off 41 times and batted .286 in that role...Led off two consecutive games with a home run, May 8-May 9...Did not lead-off for 49 games between July 7-September 1...Led off the game on September 3 with his third lead-off homer of the season...Led the NL as the toughest player to double-up (once every 219.0 at-bats) as he hit into only two twin-killings the entire season...Finished fourth in the NL with Jeff Bagwell with 12 intentional walks.

1994: Started 18 games, nine in left field and nine in right field...Batted .286 (18-for-67, 2 HRs, 11 RBIs) in that role...Hit his first major league home run off the Dodgers' Gary Wayne on April 12...Hit the third of three consecutive Atlanta homers in the first inning on April 15 vs the Cubs...Led the club with 10 pinch-hits...Had a pinch-hit home-run on April 22 vs Pittsburgh...Put together a six-game hitting streak, April 15-23 (7-for-16, .438)...Hit .324 with 3 HRs and 4 RBIs in April...Had three bunt singles to lead the team.

1993: Selected as the no. 6 prospect in the International League by Baseball America...Named to the IL All-Star team...Finished second in the IL with a .330 batting average...Played with the Braves from April 29 to May 19, batting .267 over that period...Recalled from AAA-Richmond again on August 24 to replace the disabled Deion Sanders on the roster...Went 4-for-20 in his second stint with the Braves...Had his first major league extra-base hit on September 2 vs San Francisco, a double...Hitless in his first NLCS at-bat...At Richmond, was given the John M. Zwach III Award for being the most community minded player...Named IL "Player of the Week" for July 4-10 (.542, 2 HRs, 5 RBIs)...Hit for the cycle (5-6, two doubles) on August 21 at Charlotte...Had 33 multi-hit games...Won the Hank Aaron Award as the organization's top minor league position player.

1992: Finished third at Greenville in stolen bases with 33 and eighth in the Southern League in batting (.236)...Strung together a league-high 24-game hitting streak from June 23-July 21...Had 15 homers and 54 RBIs while batting leadoff for Greenville...Led the club with three homers during playoffs.

1991: At Durham, hit .250 in 78 games with 12 homers and 38 RBIs while stealing 11 bases.

1990: Hit .265 at Sumter with nine stolen bases and three homers in 355 plate appearances.

1989: Began professional career at Pulaski, hitting .392 in July with 18 RBIs...Battered Bluefield pitching at a .579 clip...His .340 average would have been fourth in Appalachian League but just missed qualifying.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...Attended Santa Monica (CA) High School where he was the baseball MVP...Originally signed by Herb Hippauff of the Braves...Appeared in the film 'Talent for the Game'...Involved in various community service projects...Was nominated on behalf of the Expos for the Roberto Clemente Award for outstanding community involvement...Enjoys rap and jazz music.

1996

- Was on the Opening Day roster of the '96 National League champion Atlanta Braves...Was batting a lofty .340 in 37 games when suffered a right groin injury...Aside from a pair of brief rehabilitation assignments, he missed the rest of the season.
- On rehab, he played three games at AA Greenville and six games at AAA Richmond...In those two stints, he went a combined 9-for-23 (.391).
- Best game of the injury abbreviated year came on April 29 at St. Louis when he went 3-for-4 with a pair of doubles.
- Jerome played 23 games in left field, one game in center field and five games in right field...He was used as a pinch-hitter in 12 games and a pinch-runner twice.

PRO CAREER

1995: Used as a utility player with the Reds, starting at all three outfield positions...Belted a career-high eight home runs...Hit a game winning homer in the bottom of the 9th on May 6 vs. the Mets...Had Cincinnati's only pinch homer of the season, May 16 vs. Montreal...Batted .438 (14-32) when leading off a game...Hit .313 after the All-Star break...Went 0-for-3 in the Division Series and 0-for-7 in the N.L.C.S.

1994: Made the Reds' Opening Day roster after a strong spring...Saw action at all three outfield positions and played seven games at first base...Played first base for the first time in his professional career on May 1 at Florida...His only home run of the year was a game-winning three-run shot vs. New York in the 10th inning on June 5...It was his first big league homer since 9/10/91...Was on the disabled list July 1-22 with inflamed bunions on his right foot...Returned to action on July 23...Went back on the DL on the 27th with the bunions and remained there for the rest of the season.

1993: Started the year with the Angels and played in five games before being sent to AAA Vancouver on April 24...Batted .313 in 54 AAA games but was released on August 20...Signed with Indianapolis, the Reds' AAA team, on November 14.

GAME HIGHS & STREAKS

LOW HITTER: 4, June 22, 1996 vs. Minnesota...STRIKEOUT HIGH: 9, September 25, 1995 at San Francisco...WALK HIGH: 6, July 11, 1996 vs. Boston...HR ALLOWED: 4, August 6, 1992 at San Diego...WINNING STREAK: 4 games, May 28, 1994-June 14, 1994...LOSING STREAK: 5 games, October 1, 1995-June 22, 1996...LONGEST OUTING: 9 innings, twice, most recently August 1, 1996 vs. California

1996

- Split the campaign between the starting rotation and the bullpen in addition to a brief AAA stint at Toledo.
- Was designated as the club's closer out of spring training, however, had just four save opportunities and two saves in his first 15 relief outings.
- Moved to the starting rotation on May 16 where he remained for 17 consecutive starting assignments...Tossed his first career complete game and shutout on June 22 in Detroit, a 6-0, 4-hitter over the Twins...The win was his first of the season.
- Had a 17-inning scoreless streak snapped in the third inning of a June 28 start at Boston...It was the longest such streak for a Tiger since Paul Gibson from May 5-June 8, 1990 (18.1IP) and the longest for a Detroit starter since Jeff Robinson from July 18-August 7, 1988 (22.2IP).
- Defeated the Brewers on July 3 and after the victory his ERA was a season-best 5.45 (72.2IP, 44ER)...From that point until the end of the season he posted an 8.75 ERA (48.1IP, 47ER).
- Optioned to AAA Toledo on August 19 after his record for Detroit fell to 3-10 with a 6.93 ERA...Made three starts for the Mud Hens before being recalled on September 3 and inserted into the Tigers' bullpen.

PRO CAREER

1995: Appeared in 43 games, six as a starter...Used exclusively out of the bullpen in his first 30 appearances...May 10-29 he pitched 11.0 innings and gave up just one run on 11H with 12 K...Was 0-3 before earning his lone win in relief with a perfect 9th inning on June 11 vs. New York...Made first start of the season on July 25, a 5.0 inning, one run performance at Cincinnati and earned the victory, snapping a 4-game losing streak...Made three more starts before returning to the bullpen...Final start of the year was September 25 at San Francisco and he earned the 7-4 victory and struck out a career-high 9 batters...Was 2-2 with a 7.92 ERA as a starter and 1-8 with a 4.98 ERA out of the pen...Gave up just two homers in 38 relief appearances...Was 1-for-14 with a double at the plate.

1994: Won the 5th starter's spot out of spring training but split the season between the rotation and the bullpen...His first two outings were in relief...First start came on April 16, losing to New York 9-1...Following three relief appearances, he lost his second start on April 26 vs. Pittsburgh...Was optioned to AAA Tucson on May 9...Recalled on May 27 and responded with his best run of the season, winning first four starts...The winning streak was the best of his career...Worked a season-high 8.0 innings in victory on June 8 vs. Montreal...Placed on the disabled list on August 2 due to back spasms.

1993: Spent first full season in the majors...Saw action as a reliever for the first time as a pro in addition to making five starts for the Astros...First win came April 13 in Montreal, working 3.0 shutout innings of relief...First relief outing in 59 professional appearances...Earned first save on April 27 vs. St. Louis...Placed on the disabled list on August 9 with right shoulder tendinitis...Returned to action on August 20...Was 3-1 with a 4.40 ERA in five starts and 1-3 with a 5.08 ERA in 37 games out of the bullpen.

1992: Began the year at AAA Tucson before being promoted to Houston on June 15 for the rest of the season...Won his first three starts, including his first major league victory, June 16 vs. San Diego, 11-0...Went 0-3 in six starts between July 8 and August 6...Skid ended August 11 with a win at San Francisco...Tied an Astros club record by allowing four home runs at San Diego on August 6, two each to Sheffield and McGriff...After a 1-0 loss to Greg Maddux at Chicago on August 16, bounced back to reel off three straight wins...Season ended September 15 when he suffered a sprained left ankle while pinch-running.

1991: Made four stops during the year, jumping from Class A to the majors in his first full professional season...Made big league debut on September 16 at

Orioles

San Diego after contract was purchased two days earlier...Hurled 6.0 scoreless innings, but gave up a 3R homer to Thomas Howard in the 7th and lost the 3-0 loss...Only other start came September 24 vs. the Giants and he was ejected from the game for hitting Matt Williams with a pitch...Injured a toe while running in the outfield before his next scheduled start and did not make another appearance.

1990: Made three starts for Auburn of the NY-Penn League after being selected by the Astros as the compensation pick between the first and second rounds of the June Draft.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Single...Was selected in the 3rd round of the 1987 June Draft as a shortstop by the Pirates...Elected to attend the University of South Carolina where he played every position except second base and catcher...Compiled a record of 18-8 with 277 strikeouts in 223.2 innings as a pitcher and hit .309 with 17 homers in three years at South Carolina...Was a member of Team USA as an outfielder in 1989 and batted .303 with three homers and 26 RBI while touring Cuba and Latin America that summer.

Notes:

YEAR IN REVIEW

The Orioles in 1996

The 1996 season for the Baltimore Orioles was one that consisted of a very fast start, a disappointing middle and a flurry at the end that landed the Orioles in the post-season for the first time since they captured the World Championship in 1983.

The Orioles began the year by winning 11 of the first 13 games, the second best start in club history after 1966's 12-1 start...On April 17, the Orioles were 11-2 and owned a 4 1/2 game lead in the A.L. East...From that point through July 29, Baltimore compiled a 40-50 record and fell 2 games behind the Yankees in the pennant race.

From July 30 thru September 15, the Orioles went 31-15 and moved to within 3.0 games of the Yankees and had been as close as 2 1/2 games as they headed to New York for a 3-game series. The Orioles were leading game one of the series, 2-1, in the 9th inning but wound up losing 3-2, in 10 innings and split a doubleheader the next day.

From July 30 through the end of the season, the Orioles went 37-22. On September 27, with a victory in Toronto and a Seattle loss in Oakland, the Orioles clinched the A.L. Wild Card and their first post-season berth in 13 years!

The season was one filled with individual accomplishment as well. CAL RIPKEN continued to play every day and broke Japan's Sachio Kinugasa's world record of 2,215 straight games...Cal ended the season with 2,316 consecutive games played...EDDIE MURRAY made a triumphant return to Baltimore and for the second straight year he helped lead a club to the post-season...On September 6, one year after Ripken broke Gehrig's consecutive games played streak, Eddie took Detroit's Felipe Lira deep for his 500th career home run...BRADY ANDERSON hit 50 home runs, topping Frank Robinson's club record of 49 set in 1966...12 of those were leading off a game, setting a new major league record...BRADY also became the first player in history to leadoff 4 straight games with a home run and tied the major league record with 11 homers in April...RAFAEL PALMEIRO set a new Orioles record with 142 RBI, passing Jim Gentile's previous club record of 141 set in 1961...MIKE MUSSINA won 19 games for the second year in a row.

Below are notes and numbers that help put the exciting 1996 Oriole season in perspective:

BACK FOR MORE... 4 former Oriole players returned to the club in '96...IF BILL RIPKEN and OF MIKE DEVEREAUX signed as free agents during the off-season, and CA MARK PARENT signed as a free agent Aug. 24 after being waived by Detroit...DH EDDIE MURRAY was re-acquired in a trade with Cleveland on July 21.

HALL OF FAME NUMBERS... With EARL WEAVER's election to baseball's Hall of Fame in '96, only EDDIE MURRAY's No. 33 is among the Orioles retired numbers who is not in the Hall...Weaver (4), BROOKS ROBINSON (5), FRANK ROBINSON (20) and JIM PALMER (22) are all enshrined in Cooperstown (as Eddie one day will be)...With Murray's return, only BROOKS ROBINSON has not had his number "unretired" by the O's...Weaver returned as manager, Frank Robinson returned as a coach and manager, and Palmer made an aborted spring training comeback try in 1990 as a non-roster invite.

1996 In Review

GAME'S GREATEST FANS...USA Today Baseball Weekly polled 249 major league players during the summer as to which team had the best fans in baseball and Orioles fans took the top prize in a walk...80.9% of the players polled named O's fans as the American League's best...All 131 A.L. players polled rated Orioles fans as either very good or good.

HITTING UP A STREAK...BOBBY BONILLA, who finished the '95 season with a 20-game hitting streak, hit safely in his first 2 games of the '96 campaign, extending his streak to 22 games, tied for 2nd longest in club history...ROBERTO ALOMAR later matched that with a career-best 22-game hitting streak, May 12-June 8.

DRAWING BLANKS...The Orioles tied an American League record by pitching only 1 shutout all season...That came in the club's 142nd game, when MIKE MUSSINA blanked the Tigers 6-0 at Camden Yards on September 7...The O's became the fourth A.L. team to throw only one shutout in a season, matching Chicago (1924), Washington (1956) and Seattle (1977)...The previous club record for fewest shutouts in a season was 4, in 1994...The Orioles threw 10 in 1995, including a major league record-tying 5 straight to end the season.

PLAYERS BUY TICKETS...In '96, several Orioles players purchased tickets for children to attend games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...JESSE OROSCO has "Jesse's Kids" to benefit the Baltimore City Dept. of Recreation...MIKE MUSSINA's "Mooseketeers" and RAFAEL PALMEIRO's "Raffy's Rascals" benefit various organizations throughout the Mid-Atlantic region.

THE TIE THAT BINDS...When rain halted the Orioles game against Texas on June 17 at Camden Yards with a 1-1 score, it marked the 10th tie game in franchise history and the first since June 16, 1982.

RIP PASSES GEHRIG...AGAIN...On April 4, CAL RIPKEN started his 2,165th straight game, including the 1983 ALCS and World Series—passing the 2,164th consecutive regular and post-season starts made by Lou Gehrig during his career...On June 14 in Kansas City, Ripken set the world record for consecutive games played by passing Sachio Kinugasa's Japanese record of 2,215 consecutive games played...Kinugasa was in KC to help honor Cal when he broke the record...Cal finished the year, streak intact at 2,316 consecutive games played, all starts.

NEW FACES...The Orioles used 45 players during the season, including 22 who made their debut in a Baltimore uniform...In addition, 4 players (Devereaux, Murray, Parent and B. Ripken) returned after a year or more absence...Only 12 players appeared in Orioles games in each of the '94, '95 and '96 seasons.

THE BIG FOUR...For the first time in club history the Orioles had four players with 100 or more RBI...RAFAEL PALMEIRO, who set a new team record, surpassing Gentile's 141 in 1961, BRADY ANDERSON, BOBBY BONILLA and CAL RIPKEN...The previous mark was three players in the 1966 version of the Orioles (B. Robinson, F. Robinson and Powell).

AND ALL THOSE HOMERS...

O'S SET M.L. MARK...The Orioles 257 homers this season set a major league record, beating the 240 hit by the 1961 New York Yankees...MARK PARENT smacked the record setting homer on September 15 at Tiger Stadium...Seattle (245) and Oakland (243) also topped the old record.

20 GETS YOU SEVEN...7 players hit at least 20 home runs in an Oriole uniform this season, a major league record...BRADY ANDERSON (50), RAFAEL PALMEIRO (39), BOBBY BONILLA (28), CAL RIPKEN (26), CHRIS HOILES (25), ROBERTO ALOMAR (22) and B.J. SURHOFF (21) were the Magnificent Seven...The previous best was 6, by the '61 NY Yankees, '64 Minnesota Twins, '86 Detroit Tigers and, in the N.L., the '65 Milwaukee Braves...In addition, the Orioles added two players during the season—EDDIE MURRAY (22) and TODD ZIELE (25)—who hit at least 20 homers with the Orioles and their previous team, the Indians and Phillies, respectively.

LEAD-OFF POWER...CF BRADY ANDERSON led off 12 games with homers in '96, topping both the A.L. record held by Rickey Henderson (9) and the M.L. mark held by Bobby Bonds (11) with San Francisco in 1973...Anderson did it despite batting lead-off in only 101 games...He batted 2nd in 43 games...Brady's 34 HR from the lead-off position also broke Henderson's mark of 28...Anderson broke the Orioles record in both categories, held previously by current Assistant Director of Player Development DON BUFORD.

TAKING IT TO THE STREET...In Camden Yards' first 4 seasons, five home runs were hit onto Eutaw Street (pronounced like the state)—only one of them by an Oriole...Last year, seven balls—4 of them by Orioles—cleared the Flag Court in right field and landed on Eutaw Street.

SUDDEN DEATH HOMERS...Entering 1996, the Orioles had only one game-winning, sudden-death home run at Oriole Park...In 1996, the Orioles had 4—2 by CHRIS HOILES (May 17 vs. Seattle and July 9 vs. Toronto) and 1 each by BRADY ANDERSON (April 13 vs. Minnesota) and MARK SMITH (June 22 vs. KC)...Hoiles' May 17th blast was a grand slam that beat the Mariners, 14-13, and was only the 12th 2-out sudden-death grand slam to win a game by one run in major league history.

SUDDEN IMPACT...On August 30 at Seattle, OF PETE INCAVIGLIA became the first Oriole ever to hit a grand slam homer in his first game in an O's uniform...Inky's slam was the 165th in club history.

SLAMMIN' IT AROUND...The Orioles and the Seattle Mariners broke the major league record for grand slams in a season with 11 each...The previous record was 10...The Orioles club record was 8, accomplished 6 times...Since 1980, the Orioles have belted 84 grand slams, more than any other major league team...Boston and Seattle are next with 73.

OH, BROTHERS!On May 28, at Seattle, BILL and CAL RIPKEN homered in the 9th inning, marking the 6th time in major league history that brothers have homered in the same inning...The Ripleys were also the last duo to do it, Sept. 15, 1990 at Toronto...Other brothers to do it were Paul and Lloyd Waner, who also did it twice, Hank and Tommie Aaron and Wes and Rick Farrell...Brothers have homered in the same game 16 times with the Waners and Aarons doing it 3 times each.

* Tie Games: The Orioles have played 9 tie games, all in Baltimore (one in '96 and '82 and 8 others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:59 pm 6 days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:59 pm on Saturdays, are no longer in effect.

The ties were played against Chicago-4, Kansas City A's-2; Milwaukee-1, New York-1, Oakland-1, and Texas-1

Legend: 1-includes Los Angeles, '61-'65; and California '66-'96

1996 HIGHLIGHTS: In a 7 game homestand (7/22-7/28) in which the Orioles went 1-6, the Twins picked up a 3 game sweep. Following the homestand, the Orioles headed to Minnesota, 12 games back from the Yankees. The Orioles swept the 3 game series against the Twins, 7/30-8/1, which started a stretch in which the Orioles won 28 and lost 14 to move into first place in the Wild Card and 2.5 games behind the Yankees. The Orioles had lost 2 straight season series to the Twins and 6 of the last 9 before winning the series in 1996. ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: On 7/15/93, Cal Ripken hit his 278th home run as a shortstop, breaking Ernie Bank's record of home runs by a shortstop. He hit it off Minnesota's Scott Erickson at Camden Yards. Bob Milacki faced only 27 batters against the Twins on 4/23/89 in a 3-0 complete game. He gave up 3 hits and 2 walks. One runner was caught stealing and the other 4 were retired via double plays. Jim Gentile collected 2 RBI on 2 grand slams against Minnesota on 5/9/61. The grand slams tied a major league record.

1996 HIGHLIGHTS: The Yankees swept all 6 games at Oriole Park in '96, including 4 games following the All-Star Break that pushed the Orioles 10 games behind in the AL East race. After being behind by as many as 12 games the Orioles fought back to move within 3 games heading into a 3-game series in New York. The Yankees took 2 of 3 and eventually won the division title. The two teams squared off in the ALCS and after splitting the first 2 in New York, the Yankees swept the next three in Baltimore. In the first game of the series, the Yankees tied the game on a controversial home run by Derek Jeter in which a 12-year old fan reached over the fence with his glove preventing OF Tony Tarasco from making a play on it. The Yankees eventually won the game in extra-innings. The Yankees have won 9 straight at Camden Yards including the ALCS. The two teams played the longest 9-inning game in baseball history on April 30 at Camden Yards. The game lasted 4 hours, 21 minutes with the Yankees winning, 13-10.

ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: Danny Tartabull knocked in 8 runs against the O's on 9/8/92. On 6/8/86, the two teams combined to post 27 runs, with the O's winning 18-9. The O's won 100 games in 1980 but were edged out in the division by the Yankees who won 103 games. Ross Grimsley pitched 14 innings against the Yanks on 9/11/74, the 3rd longest outing by an Oriole. It resulted in a no-decision for Grimsley. Jim Palmer faced the minimum number of batters on his way to a 1-hitter against the Yanks, 5/12/67 (single, double-play in the 7th). Roger Maris hit his 60th HR of the season off Jack Fisher on 9/26/61, tying Babe Ruth's record for HR in a season. Hoyt Wilhelm pitched a no-hitter vs. the Yanks, 9/20/58 in Memorial. Connie Johnson struck out 14 Yanks on 9/2/57, tying a club record.

1996 HIGHLIGHTS: The O's scored 15 times in the last 3 innings in a victory over the A's on 8/15 (6 in the 7th, 3 in the 8th, and 6 in the 9th)...On 8/26, the Orioles rallied from behind in both the 9th and 10th innings to beat Oakland. Both times, the rally was sparked by a Brady Anderson triple...on 5/25, Pedro Munoz hit the longest home run at Camden Yards when he slammed a ball that landed 463 feet away from home plate.
ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: The A's and the O's have faced off 3 times in the ALCS. In 1971, Baltimore swept the A's in 3 straight, 5-3, 5-1 and 5-3. In 1973, the A's took the series, 3 games to 2 (6-0, 3-6, 1-2, 3-4 and 0-3). The A's took the series again in a rematch in the 1974 LCS. It took only 4 games that time (6-3, 5-0, 0-1, and 1-2)...Bob Milacki, Mike Flanagan, Mark Williamson and Greg Olson combined to no-hit the A's on 7/13/91, tying a major league record for most pitchers used in a no-hitter...On 8/28/86, the O's Don Aase hit both ends of a doubleheader against Oakland, tying a major league record...On 5/18/86, Eddie Murray drove in 7 runs against Oakland, tying an O's record...Jim Palmer pitched the only no-hitter of his career against Oakland on 8/13/69 at Memorial.

1996 HIGHLIGHTS: The Rangers scored 26 runs on the night of 4/19 against the Orioles, including 18 runs in the 8th inning which set an O's record for most runs allowed in a game and inning...In that 3 game series, the Orioles were swept by a combined score of 43-16. Brady Anderson led all three games with a HR to make it 4 straight games with a lead-off HR, a major league record...The O's broke their longest losing streak (7) against Texas with their win on 4/28. The streak dated back to 7/27/95...On 6/17, the O's and Rangers played to a 1-1 tie when rain forced play to stop in the 6th inning...It was only the second time in the last 10 years the Orioles lost the season series.

ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: Phil Bradley reached base 3 times on Texas errors on 8/4/89, tying a major league record...Cal Ripken Jr. hit for the cycle against Texas on 5/6/84, making him only the second Oriole to do so (Brooks Robinson was the other, 7/15/60 vs Chicago)...On 5/14/83, Texas and Baltimore combined for 41 hits (Texas:22, Baltimore:19) in 11 innings...On 6/16/73, Jim Palmer carried a perfect game into the 8th inning before Ken Suarez singled with 1 out. Palmer finished with a 2-hitter.

1996 HIGHLIGHTS: The Orioles clinched their Wild Card berth at Toronto, 9/28 on a 10th inning home run by Roberto Alomar...On 7/15 Cal Ripken played 3rd base for the first time since 6/30/82 against Toronto, snapping a streak of 2,216 consecutive games at shortstop...On 9/21, Eddie Murray hit his 19th career grand slam against Toronto as the Orioles won 6-3 on only 2 hits. The slam put him all alone in 2nd place behind Lou Gehrig (21) in career grand slams.

ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: In 1989, the Orioles went into SkyDome for the final series of the season, 9/29-10/1/89, 1 game behind the Jays. The Jays took the first game in 11 innings and then took the title the next night by coming back from a 3-1 deficit in the 8th...On 9/14/87, Toronto hit a major league record 10 home runs off the Orioles. It gave Toronto an 18-3 lead in the bottom of the eighth inning, prompting Cal Ripken Sr. to insert Ron Washington at shortstop and ending Cal Ripken Jr.'s consecutive inning streak at 8,243, believed to be a major league record.

ORIOLES 1996 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

Four of the Orioles' six minor league affiliates posted winning records in 1996, highlighted by the farm system's first league title — Bluefield winning the Appalachian League championship — since 1992. Two other teams, Rochester and High Desert, advanced to post-season play. Overall, Orioles farm teams finished with a 347-343 record (.503), the fifth time in the last seven years they've finished with a winning record. Oriole farm clubs finished 12th among the 30 major league teams' affiliates.

In all, 13 players were promoted from the minors to the major league roster during the 1996 season, and 15 players were named to mid-season or year-end league All-Star teams. The strongest performances were turned in at the Class A and Rookie levels. Bluefield 1B Calvin Pickering was named the organization's Player of the Year after leading the Appalachian League in HR (18) and RBI (66) and finishing 4th in the league in batting (.326). Other strong performances were turned in by High Desert's corner infielders, 1B Chris Kirgan, who led the California League in HR (35) and RBI (131), and 3B Mike Berry, who posted a league-leading .361 batting average and was 3rd in RBI (113). The organization's Pitcher of the Year was RHP Nerio Rodriguez, who leapt from Class A Frederick to the majors in his 1st full-season on the mound. The converted catcher was 9-7 with a 2.21 ERA and held opponents to a .198 batting average in 26 minor league outings and twice was recalled by the Orioles.

ROCHESTER (AAA)

The Red Wings made their final season at Silver Stadium an exciting one, advancing to the Governors Cup final before being swept by Columbus for the International League championship. Rochester finished 2nd in the IL's Eastern Division in the regular season before defeating Pawtucket, 3 games to 1, for the East crown. It marked the Red Wings' 7th play-off appearance since the IL adopted the divisional format 11 years ago, most by any team in the league. Rochester finished 6th in the league in attendance, drawing 375,781 fans.

BOWIE (AA)

The Baysox took a page out of the parent club's manual in 1996, hitting a club-record 114 homers. But Bowie's pitchers also gave up an Eastern League-high 146 homers. The Baysox's 54-88 record was the 3rd-worst in the EL in the '90s. Poor weather contributed to a drop in attendance, as the Baysox finished 3rd in the league with 396,086 fans — nearly 68,000 fewer than the Eastern League record total that attended Bowie games in '95. A franchise-record 14,008 fans attended the Baysox's Aug. 17 game against New Haven.

FREDERICK (A)

The Keys were in the hunt for a Carolina League playoff spot until falling short in the final week of the season. After going 34-36 in the first half of the season, the Keys went 33-36 in the second half, finishing 2nd and 3rd, respectively, in the league's Northern Division. The Keys drew 258,427 fans, 3rd highest total in the league but the 1st time since 1990 the club hasn't drawn at least 300,000. A franchise-record 8 rainouts hurt the final attendance figure. Still, Frederick drew a franchise-record 10,319 fans for an Aug. 15 game against Wilmington.

HIGH DESERT (A)

After finishing tied for 3rd in the first half of the season with a .500 (35-35) mark, the Mavericks won the second half title of the California League's Southern Division with a 41-29 (.586) record. After drawing a bye in the first round of the playoffs for posting the best-record in the Southern Division, High Desert was swept, 3 games to 0, by Lake Elsinore for the Southern Division title. The Mavericks finished 6th in the league in attendance, drawing 143,852 fans. The Orioles left High Desert after last season and have affiliated with the low-A Delmarva Shorebirds of the South Atlantic League for the 1997 season.

BLUEFIELD (Rookie)

After posting the league's best record in 1995 but coming up short against Kingsport in the championship series, the Orioles returned the favor to the Mets farm club in '96. Bluefield won the North Division with the league's 2nd-best record, then beat Kingsport, 2 games to 1, in the championship series. It was the 1st league championship by an Orioles farm club since Bluefield won the 1992 Appy title. The baby Orioles drew 38,840 fans, 5th in the league.

GULF COAST (Rookie)

The Orioles had the 4th best record in the Gulf Coast League (36-24), but fell one game short of making the playoffs as they finished 1 GB the Rangers in the Northwest Division standings. Two players, 1B Frankie Figueroa and 2B Dean Robertson, were named to the league's post-season all-star team.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE

The Orioles entry in the seven-team league finished 6th with a 27-42-1 record. Juan Guzman (.225, 2 HR, 19 RBI) was named the league's All-Star catcher. Norberto Perez finished 5th in the league with 75 strikeouts, while Eddy Garabito tied for 3rd with 6 triples.

AMATEUR FREE AGENT DRAFT

The amateur free agent draft began in 1965. The first player selected by the Orioles to play for the parent club was their 6th round pick in that draft, RHP Bill Dillman, out of Wake Forest University.

The most dazzling 1-2 picks in O's history came out of the '71 June draft: No. 1 Bobby Grich and No. 2 Don Baylor.

This year's amateur draft will be held June 3-4-5.

ORIOLES EXPANSION LOSSES

With the addition of the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays for the 1998 season, Major League Baseball will undergo its fifth expansion draft following this season. Below is a breakdown of players lost by the Orioles in previous expansion drafts:

December 1960 — The Los Angeles Angels selected RHP Dean Chance, RHP Ron Moeller and IF Don Ross, each for $75,000. OF Albie Pearson was selected from the Rochester roster for $25,000. The Washington Senators selected C Gene Green, IF Billy Klaus, OF Chuck Hinton and OF Gene Woodling, each for $75,000. IF Leo Burke was selected from the Rochester roster for $25,000.

October 1968 — The Kansas City Royals selected RHP Roger Nelson (first pick in the draft), RHP Wally Bunker, RHP Moe Drabowsky and 1B Mike Fiore, each for $175,000. The Seattle Pilots selected C Larry Haney and LHP John Morris, each for $175,000.

November 1976 — The Toronto Blue Jays selected IF Bob Bailor (2nd overall pick behind Ruppert Jones), RHP Mike Darr and IF Mike Willis, each for $175,000. The Seattle Mariners selected RHPs Dave Pagan and Bob Galasso, each for $175,000.

November 1992 — The Florida Marlins selected RHP Kip Vaughn in the 1st round and RHP Richie Lewis in the 2nd round. The Colorado Rockies did not select any Orioles in the 3-round draft.

BLUEFIELD WINS FREITAS AWARD

Bluefield, the Orioles' Rookie League affiliate in the Appalachian League, was honored by Baseball America as the winner of the Bob Freitas Award for short-season ballclubs. The awards honor clubs at each minor league level for franchise excellence. This is the 8th year the awards have been presented and Bluefield is the first Orioles affiliate and first Appy League team to earn a Freitas.

LONGEST AFFILIATIONS

Bluefield celebrates its 40th season as an Orioles affiliate this season, the longest continuing relationship in baseball. The O's Appalachian League team since 1958, Bluefield is one of only 3 minor league teams that have been affiliated with the same parent club continuously since 1961. The others are Lakeland (Class A, Florida State League), with Detroit since 1960, and Rochester, the Orioles AAA team in the International League starting in 1961.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O'S TIE M.L. RECORD: The Orioles and the Seattle Mariners broke the major league record for grand slams in a season in '96 with 11 each...The previous record was 10, held by four teams—Detroit ('38), New York ('87) and Milwaukee and Seattle (both in '95)...The Orioles club record was 8, accomplished 6 times...The Orioles actually hit 12 grand slams last year, including one by Bobby Bonilla in the Division Series against Cleveland.

ORIOLES LEAD MAJORS SINCE '80: The O's have belted 84 grand slams starting in 1980, more than any other team...Boston and Seattle are next with 73.

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have "out-slammed" their opponents, 169-113, over the last 43 years (including post-season)...They have a 94-53 advantage in Baltimore, 19-12 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record 3 grand slams on Aug 6, '86 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit 4th inning grand slams for the O's, only the 5th time in history one club has hit 2 grand slams in an inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grand slams in one game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' slam. Houston and Chicago tied the record on June 3, '87.

TWO IN ONE GAME: Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson are among 8 players who have hit 2 grand slams in one game, and they are among 4 players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the 1st and 2nd innings at Minnesota on May 9, '61. Robinson did it in the 5th and 6th innings at Washington on June 26, '70.

GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit 5 bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with 6 grand slams in '87.

POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only 2 major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history.

OPPONENTS: The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The '78 O's allowed slams in 3 straight games, Apr 7-9, at Milwaukee...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit...Eight opponents have hit two career grand slams against the Orioles...Nobody has hit more...Three hit both of theirs at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Wash.), Moose Skowron (NY) and Mike Epstein (Wash)...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in '96 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up two grand slams against the Orioles and the third to throw them both in the same season, joining Chicago's Terry Forster ('76) and Jack Harshman ('55).

GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up 6 bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler. Pappas gave up 9 overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for most career grand slams allowed...Dave McNally and Scott McGregor are next among Orioles pitchers, allowing 4 apiece...Among current O's hurlers, Mike Mussina and Armando Benitez have allowed 3 each, with one of Benitez's coming in last year's Division Series to Cleveland's Albert Belle...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On Aug 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

The Orioles haven't had an inside-the-park homer to call their own since June 8, '90 when outfielder Phil Bradley did it at Memorial Stadium...He victimized the Yankees' Greg Cadaret.

Bradley's homer was the 11th and final inside-the-park job at Memorial Stadium (10th by an Oriole) and the first for the O's at home since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, Apr 19, '74.

Bradley's blast remains the only Oriole inside-the-park homer, home or away, since Bumbry did it against Jesse Jefferson of the White Sox at old Comiskey Park, Aug 21, '76.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Though he has been retired since 1967, Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else. He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford was one of 13 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 43 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-22), Jim Perry (20-22), Camilo Pascual (20-23), Bert Blyleven (20-14) and Frank Tanana (21-17).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore (26), is also the biggest lifetime loser (24)...At one time, "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Jim Kaat (21)...Other big losers were Mickey Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Goeff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Nolan Ryan finished with a 10-17 lifetime record against the Orioles.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 13 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-game winners in the past 29 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (14), Yankees and White Sox (11 each) and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67), was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

¹The Orioles set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted, not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world—President George Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.

²President and Mrs. Bush brought with them Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh.

³President Bush and his grandson, George P. Bush, threw ceremonial first balls on Opening Day, 1992, which was the first regular season game ever played at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

⁴President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore attended Cal Ripken's "2131" game, the first time both a president and vice president attended a game together outside of Washington.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 11 triple plays and hit into 16 in 43 seasons.

The last triple play pulled by the Orioles came August 25, '92 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against California...With Tim Salmon on 3rd and Chad Curtis on 1st, Gary Gaetti lined out to O's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

On the other hand, the O's have hit into 2 triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent TP involving the Orioles came April 3, '96, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at 3rd and Rafael Palmeiro at 1st, Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Bip Roberts for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from 3rd. Hamelin's throw to CA Sal Fasano was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in '57 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

Although they consistently rank near the top of the league in team fielding, two Orioles earned Gold Glove Awards last year for the 1st time since '78...The awards won by Roberto Alomar and Mike Mussina give the Orioles a total of 52 Gold Gloves, most among AL teams since the award was created in 1957...Only one ML team, St. Louis, has won more Gold Gloves than the O's.

Cardinals 57 1/2, ORIOLES 52, Yankees 46, Pirates 44, Reds 43, Red Sox & Tigers 34, White Sox 33, Phillies 32, Cubs 31, Dodgers 29, Braves 28, Twins & Giants 27, Angels 24, Expos 20, Rangers 19, Indians 18, Blue Jays 17, Royals & Padres 16, Astros 15, A's & Mariners 14, Mets 9 1/2, Brewers 9, Marlins 2, Rockies 0.

Multiple Winners: A total of 9 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson, whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each; Ozzie Smith won 11)...Other Oriole multiple winners: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer & Bobby Grich (4 each); Davey Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each); Cal Ripken & Luis Aparicio (2 each, although Aparicio won a total of 9 in his ML career...Roberto Alomar's was his 1st with the O's but 6th of his career.

ALL-STAR NOTES

THREE STARTERS: The Orioles had 3 All-Star starters last year for the 1st time since '72...Roberto Alomar and Cal Ripken were elected by the fans, and Brady Anderson was named to start in RF when Ken Griffey Jr. couldn't start because of injury.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: Nine different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken has started the last 13 years, 12 of those by fan election (he started in '88 because of an injury to elected starter Alan Trammell)...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy and Roberto Alomar (1 each).

ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had 4 All-Star MVPs, the most recent being Cal Ripken in 1991...In that game, played at Toronto's SkyDome, Cal was 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL. Other Oriole All-Star MVPs:

Billy O'Dell huled 3 perfect inning to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the 1st player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's 1st All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: In '91, Cal became the 4th and most recent Oriole to homer in All-Star play, joining Brooks (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on) and Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th mid-season classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993.

On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game.

In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever "All-Star Week," including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game.

FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration. Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout. Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

ORIOLES POST-SEASON NOTES

The Orioles advanced to post-season play in '96 for the 1st time in 13 seasons, the longest stretch in club history...The Orioles beat the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series, before losing to the eventual World Series champs, the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the American League Championship Series.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in one Division Series and are 3-1 (.750)...The O's are 2-0 at home and 1-1 on the road.

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 8 LCS and are 19-12 (.613)...The O's are 9-7 at home and 10-5 on the road...The O's won the 1st 10 ALCS games they played (including the 1st ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the 1st 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POST-SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to post-season in 9 different seasons and are 41-27 (.603)...They are 21-14 at home and 20-13 on the road.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post-season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 5 post-season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96, the Orioles drew 242,941 fans (average 48,588)...The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for an Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79...The largest crowd for any game at Camden Yards was the 48,974 for ALCS Game 4 vs. the Yankees in '96.

1997 POSTSEASON

The 1997 American League Division Series will feature the winners of each of the three divisions and a wild card team squaring off in a best-of-five series. This year, the home-field advantage of games 3, 4 and 5 will be held at the site of the Central and East Division winners. The wild card team will be the second place team with the best record and will play the division winner with the best record, unless that team also is scheduled to host games 1 and 2, or is from the same division as the wild card.

The two winners from each of the Division Series will advance to the best-of-seven League Championship Series, with the winner advancing to the World Series. The East Division winner or its opponent in the Division Series will have the home-field advantage (games 1, 2, 6 and 7) for the LCS. However, if the opponent of the East Division winner is the wild card, and the wild card wins the Division Series, the Central or its opponent will host games 1, 2, 6 and 7 of the LCS. (Note: The wild card will never have the home-field advantage for the Division or the League Championship Series).

The American League is scheduled to host Games 3, 4 and 5 of the 1997 World Series.

Earl Weaver's election to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the veteran's committee in 1996 brought to nine the number of modern Orioles who have been enshrined at Cooperstown. In addition to Weaver, old-time Orioles manager Ned Hanlon also was inducted, the sixth member of the 1890's Orioles juggernaut to be immortalized.

Weaver joins Jim Palmer, Brooks and Frank Robinson as the only Hall of Famers wearing modern Orioles uniforms in their official busts/portraits. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for their biographies and statistics.)

Palmer, the Robinsons and Reggie Jackson all were selected in their first year of eligibility for the Hall. They are 4 of only 25 first-ballot electees among the 228 Hall of Fame members. Palmer polled 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) in '90, the highest percentage ever by an Oriole and 4th among Hall of Fame pitchers behind Tom Seaver (98.8%), Steve Carlton (95.8%) and Bob Feller (93.75%). Seaver's percentage was the highest ever recorded in a Baseball Hall of Fame election.

Another beloved Oriole was honored by the Hall of Fame in 1993 when veteran O's broadcaster Chuck Thompson was the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%) Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%) Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%) Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)
George Kell ('83, VCS+) Earl Weaver ('96, VCS+)
Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)
+ Veterans' Committee Selection

Sixteen others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown:

Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr) Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Rogers Hornsby (2b) George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers to have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles general manager; the late Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox coached one year under Birds' Manager Billy Hitchcock; and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, scouted for the Orioles from '60 thru '71.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager. The same is true of his buddy, Wilbert Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in '27.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr in '14, and made his professional debut with the IL Orioles that year as a pitcher. Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice. He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (G-18, W-6 L-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (W-4, L-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include "Home Run Baker" (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and 4 others who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), and Vic Willis (Elkton), who was elected in 1995.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in '77 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of 2 former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections, this year under the direction of Hall of Fame Committee chairman Bruce Birkhead.

There are 2 ways a candidate can enter the Orioles Hall of Fame: the regular Orioles Hall of Fame vote, by a constituency of some 80 people comprising sports writers and announcers, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; and by vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, the Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office. To be eligible for veteran committee selection, the candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 20 years.

The veterans committee was formed in '89 in an effort to offset any injustices inflicted on those who might have been passed over unfairly by younger voters not familiar with the extent of their contributions to the Orioles. Six Orioles have gained admission to the O's Hall of Fame by veterans vote: Stu Miller, Jim Gentile, Hank Bauer, Hal (Skinny) Brown, Gene Woodling and Don Buford.

The procedures in both elections are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. Candidates to be eligible for either selection process, must have served a minimum of 3 full years with the Orioles.

To be eligible for the regular election, a player manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year.

JACKIE ROBINSON COMMEMORATIVE LOGO

The logo above will be used throughout the 1997 season by Major League Baseball and its clubs to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Jackie Robinson breaking baseball's race barrier. Major League Baseball has unveiled a "Breaking Barriers" program that will feature celebrations of the historic event throughout the year.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl ranks 17th in victories among 20th century managers. His .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 5th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons exclusively in this century.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as 1st base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 A.L. East titles, 4 A.L. pennants and 1 World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended 1-game shy of another A.L. East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his year 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Hialeah, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage as well as a step daughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the A.L. Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and shares the record (with former pitcher Jim Kaat) for most Gold Gloves with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (his 1st year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games and is the Orioles' all-time leader in games, at bats, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI and extra base hits. In addition to his A.L. MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an A.L. player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 8th on the all-time list of games played, 3rd in the A.L. and 4th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 4th on the all-time list.

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the A.L. and World Series MVP in his 1st season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the 1st to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was N.L. Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 N.L., '66 A.L.). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. He later managed the San Francisco Giants and the Orioles. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

Elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the 1st year he was eligible in 1982, Frank lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won 3 Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season 8 times, one of only 6 who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to do that. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' 1st 4 pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a 6-time All-Star and was the A.L.'s starting pitcher 4 times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the 1st ballot in January, 1990. He is in his 5th season as an analyst and play-by-play broadcaster for Home Team Sports, the Orioles' cable broadcast partner, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim and his wife, Joni, live in the northern Baltimore County suburb of Brooklandville. He has 2 daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie completed his 20th major league season in 1996 by returning to the Orioles, helping lead them to the post-season and becoming the 15th player to reach the 500 home run plateau. He joined Hank Aaron and Willie Mays as the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits. Eddie spent the first 12 years of his Hall-of-Fame career with the O's and ranks 2nd, 3rd, or 4th in virtually every Orioles career offensive category. Following the '96 campaign, he signed as a free agent with Anaheim.

A model of consistency, he has driven in at least 75 RBI in each of his 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched, and has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history. He is one of only 20 players with 3,000 hits and ranks 13th in RBI. He has been named to 8 All-Star teams, 7 as an Oriole, and has batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" 5 times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI in the same season.

Eddie broke in as the A.L. Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a 1st baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets and Indians before returning to the Orioles. He lives with his wife, Janice, and their daughter, Jordan Alexandra, in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 37th anniversary this summer.

Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (low cost tickets for kids) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

1997 Officers: President—Blaine Baer...First Vice President—Ray Weinstein...Second Vice President—Charles Bragg...Treasurer—Joseph N. Karey...Secretary—Allan Blumberg...Immediate Past President—Robert Blatchley...Board Members—Diane Foster, Mike Yobbagy, and Ann Serio

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, '89 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Poca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,876 (including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rain storm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

The park's deepest point is left of dead center (410') just as Fenway Park's (420') is to the right of the center line. Though it is 15 feet shorter from home plate to the right field corner than down the left field line, that difference is compensated by a 25' high wall which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 432 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Three public facilities- a souvenir shop (The Orioles Baseball Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes) and a bar/lounge (Bambino's)- are located on the ground floor of the warehouse and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw St.

SCOREBOARDS

There are 2 major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an equally innovative incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD) which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the 2 boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports 2 weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-ole-days feature missing from most current major league ballparks- continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally 3 auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the 2 big boards in center field.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and 3rd bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 57'.

The Mezzanine or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas plus many other amenities including the Diamond Club restaurant.

At Club Level also are 72 luxury suites each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites can be leased on a yearly basis from $65,000 to $125,000. In addition, there are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several which hold 10-18 people, and 3 larger party suites which can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1850 bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also 275 standing room only locations that go on sale 2 hours before game time. These areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) which are located in all price categories throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

It is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots in walking distance to the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, a number of exciting improvements have been made to help enhance our fans' experience at the ballpark...

- On Eutaw Street, brass baseball plates were embedded into the sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- The Orioles Hall of Fame, located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard. The wall holds plaques, similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. The plaques feature the Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
- An auxiliary scoreboard was added on the facade of the club level near 3rd base to allow more fans access to baseball information.
- Orioles retired numbers...erected at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows. These 4-foot monuments honor Frank Robinson, Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, and Brooks Robinson.
- Also noteworthy, 1993 marked the first time smoking at Orioles home games was designated to specific areas. Smoking was banned from the seating bowl, but permitted on the concourses on all levels.
- The Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, located at the south end of Eutaw Street...This display honors native Marylanders representing 27 different sports. Plaques have been mounted on Eutaw Street in honor of these selected athletes. The selection committee is comprised of 12 Marylanders with extensive sports backgrounds.
- As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame plaques were mounted on Eutaw Street.
- In honor of Cal's historic homer...On July 15, 1993 at Oriole Park, Cal Ripken hit his 278th homer, most ever hit by a major league shortstop, surpassing Ernie Banks's previous major league record of 277. Cal's home run was hit off then Minnesota's Scott Erickson in the 6th inning of the Orioles 5-3 win. The home run landed in the lower box seats in left field and the point at which it landed is marked with a red seat.
- In honor of Eddie Murray's 500th career home run, the Orioles have marked where the ball landed...On September 6, 1996 Eddie went deep off Detroit's Felipe Lira to become the 15th member of the 500 HR Club...The ball landed in the right field bleachers and a special seat marks the spot.

ATTENDANCE NOTES

RECORD NUMBERS: The 1996 Orioles drew a club-record 3,646,950 fans for 81 home dates, leading the American League for the second straight year. The previous club record was 3,644,965 for 80 dates in 1993. The Orioles total is the 8th highest by a team in major league history:

LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the A.L. in attendance until 1995, and now they've done it two straight seasons. The O's were one of only two A.L. and four major league teams to top the 3 million mark in 1996, finishing second in the majors to the Colorado Rockies (3,891,014) for the second straight season. The Orioles average of 45,024 also was second in the majors to the Rockies (48,037).

MORE THAN 16 MILLION SOLD: In five seasons at Oriole Park, the O's have drawn 16,493,568 fans for 367 home dates (an average of 44,942 per game). It took until their 18th season and 1,098 dates for the Orioles to draw as many fans to their former home, Memorial Stadium, topping the Camden Yards total on April 18, 1971. Total attendance in 38 seasons (2,716 dates) at Memorial Stadium was 49,845,588.

SELLOUTS: The Orioles recorded 42 sellouts in 1996, bringing the total number of sellouts to 257 in 367 dates at Camden Yards (70%). The O's sold out a then-major league-record 65 consecutive dates from May 23, 1992 through April 20, 1993. The Cleveland Indians broke that mark last season.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES:

3 million	66 home dates ('93)
2 million	43 home dates ('94)
1 million	22 home dates ('94)

LARGEST CROWDS: The largest crowd ever to see a game at Camden Yards came on October 12, 1996 when 48,974 watched the Orioles and Yankees in Game 4 of the American League Championship Series. That was 4 more than attended Game 1 of the Division Series vs. Cleveland on October 2. Four of the five post-season games held last year topped the previous Camden Yards high of 48,147 for the 1993 All-Star Game. The Orioles have drawn 80 regular season crowds of 47,000 or more, all of them in the last three seasons (including 33 in 1996). The Orioles have drawn more than 40,000 fans on 346 of 367 regular season dates at Oriole Park (94.3%).

SMALLEST CROWDS: A weekday make-up game against the Texas Rangers on June 20, 1996 drew the smallest crowd ever to attend a game at Oriole Park—21,748. The make-up was supposed to have been played as part of a doubleheader the previous night, but rain caused the second game to be postponed. The doubleheader was necessitated when the June 17 game between the two clubs ended in a 1-1 tie when rain forced its postponement. The previous smallest crowd to see a game at Camden Yards was 22,564, also for a make-up game, on April 22, 1993 against Chicago. Those are the only two dates since the park opened that the Orioles have drawn fewer than 30,000 for a game. There have been only 6 occasions when the Orioles have drawn fewer than 35,000, two of them coming in 1996—June 20 vs. Texas and an April 11 make-up game vs. Cleveland that drew 32,187.

LET'S NOT REPEAT THIS RECORD...

The 1995 Orioles became only the second franchise to draw more than 3 million fans while finishing with a losing record (71-73). The Los Angeles Dodgers are the only other franchise to draw 3 million fans and finish below .500, doing it twice in a full 162-game season. The 1984 Dodgers (79-83) drew 3,134,824 fans and the '86 Dodgers (73-89) drew 3,023,208 fans. The Orioles drew 3,098,475 in only 72 home dates, nine fewer than the LA teams.

ORIOLES RADIO & TELEVISION

RADIO

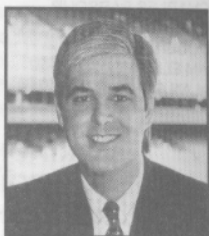

Announcers: Jim Hunter, Fred Manfra and Chuck Thompson

WBAL (1090 AM) begins its 10th consecutive season as the flagship station for the Orioles radio network. The 1997 season also marks the 32nd time since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 44 years ago that WBAL has originated Orioles broadcasts. The station first carried Oriole games in 1957, the club's fourth season.

Orioles games are heard on the region's two most powerful 50,000-watt AM stations. In addition to WBAL in Baltimore, WTOP (1500 AM) in Washington, D.C., will once again carry Orioles games this season, meaning O's fans in the mid-Atlantic area will never be out of radio range. In all, there are 25 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering seven states and the District of Columbia.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 1st year as a member of the Orioles and WBAL Radio broadcast team. He was named to the post on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 19 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games. The fans of Baltimore would already be familiar with Jim's work due to his MLB "Game of the Week" broadcasts.

Hunter, 38, comes to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports where he had been since 1982. He has been a member of the network's "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the N.L.C.S., teaming with Jerry Coleman. Last year, he called the American League Division Series in which the Orioles downed the Cleveland Indians, three games to one, and the N.L.C.S. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

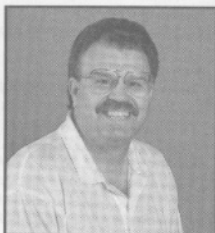

When Jim began his career at CBS in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sportsbreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. In 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 11 Super Bowls, including the last 10. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ and he was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) year-book it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 5th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City and WBAL Radio in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network.

Manfra continues to do his ABC shows, working them around his baseball schedule, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Oriole broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the 1st time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

But baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), the 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991) and horse racing's Triple Crown (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982-92.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984), Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also has done voice work for Madison Square Garden (1987-present) and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-present). Along the way, he's received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD. They have two daughters, Michelle (18), a sophomore at Goucher College, and Stephanie (15), a varsity basketball player in her sophomore year at Fallston High School.

CHUCK THOMPSON

On Feb. 9, 1993, the long-overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor Orioles fans knew years before. His place was secured when he was named the winner of the 1993 Ford C. Frick Award. With that distinction, he took residence in the broadcaster wing alongside the likes of Harry Caray, Vin Scully, Jack Buck and former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, among others. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1993.

A longtime legend in our town, Chuck was coaxed out of a 3-year retirement and returned to the radio booth in 1991 on a part-time basis. This year, he will work the Orioles 81-game home schedule with Fred Manfra and Jim Hunter. Chuck's voice has evoked memories for Baltimore sports fans for nearly half a century, beginning with the International League Orioles in 1949.

He was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in 1939 at WRAW in Reading, Pa. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to do Temple University football. He served in the Army during World War II and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war, he returned to Philadelphia, doing radio for the Phillies and Athletics in baseball, the Warriors in basketball, Eagles in football and Rockets in ice hockey.

He came to Baltimore in 1949 and became the voice of the International League Orioles and also did the All-America Conference Colts and Navy football as well as Bullets basketball. In 1955, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, did American League Orioles games in 1955-56 and again from 1962-87. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington Senators ('57-'61). In 1959 and 1960, he was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week, including the 1960 World Series call of Bill Mazerowski's famous game-winning, 9th-inning home run which won the 7th and deciding game for Pittsburgh. He later did Orioles World Series games on national television in '66, '69, '70 and '71.

Equally acclaimed as the announcer for Baltimore Colts football, he called the "Greatest Game Ever Played," the classic overtime contest for the 1958 NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants. He also worked the Colts-Packers overtime contest for the NFL's Western Division title in 1965 for CBS-TV.

He has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association on numerous occasions. And in 1995, he was the first non-uniformed inductee into the Orioles Hall of Fame, receiving the Herbert Armstrong Award.

Chuck is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. He has 4 children, 11 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. The Thompsons split their time between homes in Timonium, MD, and Bradenton, FL.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('60-'61) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.

TELEVISION

Announcers: Mike Flanagan, Jim Palmer

For the 4th season, Group W Broadcasting, which owns and operates Home Team Sports (HTS) cable and Baltimore's WJZ-TV, will have exclusive rights to produce, televise and sell advertising for all Orioles games, excluding those carried nationally or regionally through Fox Television or ESPN. HTS, which has telecast Orioles games since 1984, will carry 85 regular season and 5 exhibition games. WJZ-TV will telecast 37 regular season games and its broadcast partner, WNUV-TV in Baltimore, will air 28 games.

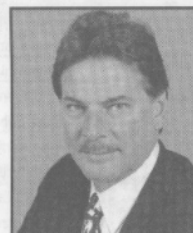

This unique arrangement allows Orioles fans to receive the same highly-acclaimed, award-winning quality telecasts on each outlet, using the same production and broadcast team on cable and on-air. 160 of the team's regular season contests will be televised in 1997, including 149 games scheduled for local broadcast. In addition, eight Orioles games are slated for broadcast on Fox Television and three on ESPN.

Home Team Sports (HTS) is available to cable systems in the 6-state Capital Region, which includes all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and Washington, D.C., and parts of North Carolina, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

WJZ-TV (Channel 13, CBS) and WNUV-TV (Channel 54, Paramount) will split the over-the-air broadcasts again this season. In addition, WBDC-TV (Channel 50), formerly WFTY, will serve as the Orioles television outlet in Washington, D.C., carrying 64 regular season games that WJZ and WNUV will carry.

MIKE FLANAGAN

Mike Flanagan will bring his knowledge and wit to the broadcast booth for a 2nd season as the regular analyst on HTS and O's TV games. He is no stranger to the airwaves, having filled in on HTS broadcasts at times after finishing his playing career in 1992.

The 4th winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Mike retired after 18 big league seasons. He spent all but 3 of them in the Orioles organization, compiling a 141-116 record for the Orioles and a 26-27 record in 3 1/2 seasons with Toronto. In 1979, he went 23-9 and won the A.L. Cy Young Award. He ranks 3rd on the Orioles all-time list in games pitched with 450.

Mike was a starter throughout his career until returning to the Orioles for the 1991-92 seasons, when he moved to the bullpen. In '91, he had the distinction of being the last Oriole to throw a pitch at Memorial Stadium, striking out two batters to end the 9th inning in the last game there on Oct. 6.

Mike was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994.

A basketball and baseball player at the University of Massachusetts, where he once played against Julius Erving in a frosh-varsity game, Mike has three daughters, Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall. He and his wife, Alex, live in Cockeysville, MD, north of Baltimore.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 5th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts and will increase his workload this season. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 342.

Tough choice. Which do you go for? The Yards? Or the Man? Well, don't sweat over it. Either way, you win.

Each is a No-Annual-Fee MasterCard, issued by MBNA® America Bank. The Orioles card shows a press box view of Camden Yards. The Cal Ripken, Jr. card commemorates the moment Cal got a standing ovation for his record-breaking streak. No matter which you choose, every time you use it, you'll be showing your pride in a great team, a great man, and a great game.

So go ahead. Apply now. The sooner you call, the sooner you can show off one of these great new Orioles cards to your baseball buds.

Now...uh...which one?
