PETER ANGELOS—MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

The Orioles have led the American League in average attendance in five of the last nine seasons and have reached the American League Championship series twice since Mr. Angelos and his group purchased the ball club; the team had not been to the playoffs in the previous 10 seasons. In recent years, Orioles ownership has committed to building a winner by rebuilding the farm system with young talent that is now beginning to pay dividends. The addition of various key veteran players via trade and free agency, as well as selection of a new manager, has led to a team that is creating excitement on and off the field. These developments are paving the way for a new era of Orioles baseball.

Mr. Angelos has had a dramatic effect on baseball beyond the Orioles as well. In 2002, he was the only owner to serve on the negotiating committee that worked out a historic labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association. The two sides were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969.

He also has taken the lead in helping utilize baseball as a bridge among people. Mr. Angelos spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in an historic 2-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He has also been helping to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort is being done in compliance with Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos has also taken constructive steps off the field. Over the years, he has improved 10,000 of Camden Yards' seats to address fan comfort. For the 2004 season, cushions have been added to more than 6,000 seats. Early in his ownership, he responded to complaints by having adjustments made to 3,300 seats along the left and right field lines that had been angled improperly toward center field. And when he became principal owner, Mr.Angelos rectified injustices that had been done to those season ticket holders who had their seats unfairly relocated when the club first moved into Camden Yards.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Brain Gala. Also among recipients of Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including sponsoring the Baltimore Symphony Gala for the tenth straight year in 2003.

On a personal level, Peter Angelos and his wife, Georgia, became the first ever $1 million donors to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter. The chapter, which covers Baltimore City and Baltimore, Harford, Carroll, Anne Arundel and Howard counties, had never received an individual donation greater than $250,000 prior to Mr. and Mrs. Angelos' contribution.

Mr. Angelos was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products.

Mr. Angelos, who was elected to the Baltimore City Council and served from 1959 to 1963, has been involved in the community in numerous ways. He is presently Chairman of WestSide Renaissance, Inc. the non-profit organization of civic leaders spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's westside. He is also on the board and a major benefactor of Charles Street Development Corporation, which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain their presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

He serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals, and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. Mr. Angelos has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College of Maryland and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Mr. Angelos presently serves a as member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: The Johns Hopkins University; University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Meany Center–National Labor College; Loyola College of Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He also is a member of the Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law, and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the Citizens of Greater Baltimore. He has also been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, the Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year.

Peter Angelos and his wife have two sons, John and Louis.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

TOM CLANCY—VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance agent with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October--the story of a Russian submarine captain who defects to the United States--sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as the undisputed king of the techno-thriller, a literary genre he's credited with inventing, and a master at building realistic scenarios by "turning up the volume" on current events and political reality. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, Rainbow Six, The Bear and The Dragon and, most recently, Red Rabbit.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons, and government produced maps, all tribute to his lifelong fascination with technology and the military. Although severe myopia limited his personal involvement as a member of the armed forces to a brief stint in Loyola's ROTC program, the success of his books has resulted in his "adoption" by the military. He is regularly welcomed aboard jets, submarines, and destroyers, and permitted to ride in tanks to his heart's content. Admirals and generals give him access, Pentagon officials debrief him, and many of his books are required reading at our nation's war colleges.

His non-fiction works include Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.) and Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine, and Airborne. He is the co-creator of the Op-Center, Power Plays, and Net Force series.

JOE FOSS—VICE CHAIRMAN/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Now in his 11th season as the Orioles' Vice Chairman, Joe Foss oversees all of the club's day-to-day operations. These include all of the business, financial, and administrative operations, as well as working with the Baseball Operations Department on budgets and player contracts.

Foss is a trustee of the Major League Baseball Players Benefit Plan. He is a member of the MLB Scheduling Committee, the MLB Disaster Plan Committee, and the Joint Committee for International Play. On June 1, 1993, Foss joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and then supervised the transition between ownership groups. Mr. Angelos appointed him to Vice Chairman on December 9, 1993.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul, MN in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis, where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First American Bank, N.A., of Washington in December '89. In April 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Community involvement is very important to Foss. He is an active board member of the Kennedy-Krieger Institute, the Maryland Special Olympics, the Babe Ruth Museum, and the Johns Hopkins Center for ALS Research. He is a former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association, former treasurer and trustee of The Green Door (Washington, DC), and former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis and the National Aquarium in Baltimore.

Joe was born December 27, 1948 in Minneapolis. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children: Katie (22), Annie (18), and Michael (16). They reside in Hunt Valley, MD.

JOHN P. ANGELOS—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 11th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the club. In January 1999, he was named to the position of Executive Vice President. In his current capacity, John oversees the Corporate Sales and Sponsorships, Financial Operations, Sales and Ticket Services, Concessions, Ballpark Operations, Communications and Public Relations divisions of the ballclub.

John joined the Orioles organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman. John oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations and Customer Service Departments of the company to provide more personal service to fans when they call, write or visit Camden Yards.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Maryland, John received a B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science from Duke University and a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore.

John resides in downtown Baltimore.

ROBERT AMES—VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames is in his 11th year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in April 1994 after an eight-year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore. He was promoted to vice president in January 1999.

With the Orioles, Bob is responsible for general administration, accounting, management information systems, human resources, insurance and special projects. He also serves as a trustee for the Major League Baseball Minor League Health and Welfare Plan.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable, credit and collections and the cash management departments.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received Bachelor of Science degrees in Microbiology and Journalism/Public Relations (magna cum laude) from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Bob is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs and the American Institute of CPAs.

Bob resides in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily, Lyndsay and Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is active in his church, Grace Assembly of God, and currently serves on the church board. In his free time, Bob's passions include gardening and motorcycle riding with his son, Ben.

LOU KOUSOURIS—VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994. Now in his 11th season with the team, he was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Lou has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Lou coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community, serving as chairman of the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Salvation Army and sitting on the Board of Directors for Camp Puh'tok, a camp for underprivileged children located in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of the Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command of the Salvation Army. In November 1998, Lou was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Lou currently resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. Kousouris has two children, Louis III, a West Point graduate currently teaching geometry and algebra at Gilman School in Baltimore and Alexandra, a graduate of the University of Georgia who currently is a third-year student at the University of Baltimore School of Law.

A NEW LOOK FOR ORIOLES BASEBALL

On December 4, 2002, the Orioles named Jim Beattie as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations, with Mike Flanagan taking over as Vice President of Baseball Operations.

Beattie, who served as general manager of the Montreal Expos for six seasons, oversees and guides all of the Orioles' baseball operations, including the major league, minor league, scouting and player development areas. Flanagan, a former Cy Young Award winner and member of the Orioles Hall of Fame, works closely and in conjunction with Beattie and supervise the day-to-day operations within the department.

Both Beattie and Flanagan are former major league pitchers who bring more than 50 combined years of professional baseball experience on and off the field to the Orioles front office.

"I am pleased that the Orioles will have the benefit of two highly respected baseball professionals to guide our destiny," said Peter Angelos, the Orioles' Chairman and CEO. "I know that Jim and Mike are eagerly looking forward to this partnership, drawing on each other's strengths and experience to better the organization. It is clear that this is a unique team with a wealth of what it takes to win."

JIM BEATTIE—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

In his first season as the Orioles' Executive Vice President for Baseball Operations, Jim Beattie took a measured approach to making changes to the team's personnel and character. He has combined the on-field experience he gained in nine years as a big league pitcher with an Ivy League background, an MBA degree and 12 previous years in major league front offices to bring knowledge, experience and an understated manner to his post.

Jim was named on December 4, 2002 to team with Mike Flanagan in overseeing all aspects of the Orioles' major league, scouting and player development areas. Beattie brings experience in each area to the Orioles front office.

Beattie, 49, served as vice president and general manager of the Montreal Expos for six seasons, from 1995 through 2001. In that role, he supervised the team's baseball operations, including the major league, player development and scouting departments. Prior to joining the Expos, he served as director of player development with the Seattle Mariners for six years beginning in 1989, where he was in charge of the minor league system and played a role in major league player acquisitions, contracts and scouting.

Beattie was drafted and signed with the New York Yankees in 1975 and went on to pitch nine seasons in the majors with the Yankees (1978-79) and Mariners (1980-86). In 203 games, he compiled a 52-87 record with a 4.17 ERA. As a rookie in 1978, he beat the Kansas City Royals in the American League Championship Series and pitched a complete game victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. He also yielded Carl Yastrzemski's 3,000th career hit in 1979. Beattie ranks among Seattle's all-time leaders in wins (9th, 43), innings pitched (7th, 944.2), complete games (4th, 30), shutouts (5th, 6), strikeouts (9th, 563) and starts (6th, 147).

As a player, he served on the MLB Players' Association Executive Board from 1983 through 1986.

A graduate of Dartmouth College, Beattie earned a Master's in Business Administration from the University of Washington in 1989 before rejoining the Mariners in the front office. Among the players drafted and developed in the Mariners farm system during his tenure there were Alex Rodriguez, Shawn Estes, Jason Varitek and Derek Lowe.

Beattie was named the Expos' general manager on October 27, 1995, and over the next six seasons guided an organization that had the lowest revenues and payroll in major league baseball. Under Beattie, the Expos developed and brought to the majors such players as Vladimir Guerrero, Jose Vidro, Javier Vazquez and Michael Barrett. He had the second longest tenure among Montreal's 10 general managers, after original GM Jim Fanning. Beattie resigned following the 2001 season, but returned to the Expos in 2002 as a special assistant to Expos GM Omar Minaya, serving primarily in a scouting capacity.

Beattie was born in Hampton, VA, but grew up in South Portland, ME, graduating from South Portland High School. He and his wife, Martha, have three teenage children, son Sam and daughters Nell and Sarah. They live in the Roland Park section of Baltimore.

MIKE FLANAGAN—VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

After pouring a quarter-century into the Baltimore Orioles as a player, coach, instructor and broadcaster, Mike Flanagan took on a new role last year when he was named Vice President of Baseball Operations for the organization. Professionals in the game have long been impressed with his insight and skills as an evaluator of talent and of people, and his move into the front office was as smooth as his pitching delivery.

The Orioles Hall of Famer became the first former Cy Young Award winner ever to assume a general manager-level position in baseball when he was named to his post on December 4, 2002. He has been involved with the Orioles for most of the last 11 years since he retired as a player in 1992. In addition to his coaching and broadcasting roles, he also served in an advisory capacity to Orioles' Chairman and CEO Peter Angelos after stepping down as pitching coach for the second time in 1998.

"Flanny" compiled a 167-143 record and a 3.90 ERA in 18 major league seasons with the Orioles and Blue Jays, including a 141-116 mark over 15 seasons with the Orioles. He won the American League Cy Young Award in 1979, when he went 23-9 with a 3.08 ERA. He was a member of two American League championship teams with the Orioles, in 1979 and 1983, as well their 1983 World Championship team.

Flanagan was drafted and signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe in 1973 and made his major league debut in 1975. In 1979, he led the league with 23 wins and 5 shutouts and was the AL Cy Young Award winner as the Orioles won the AL title and advanced to the World Series before losing to the Pittsburgh Pirates. In 1983, when the Orioles won their last World Championship, Flanagan went 12-4 during the regular season despite missing nearly three months with ligament damage in his left knee. From 1977 through 1983, he made more starts (223) than any other pitcher in the American League and was third in wins (109) over that time.

In 1987, he was traded to Toronto and pitched for the Blue Jays for 3 1/2 years, helping them win the American League East in 1989. A starter his entire career, he returned to the Orioles in 1991, this time as a reliever and made 63 appearances out of the bullpen. On October 6, 1991, in the last game played at Memorial Stadium, Flanagan entered in relief with one out in the 9th inning and to the overwhelming delight of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out Detroit's Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch on 33rd Street. He finished his career with the Orioles in 1992 when they moved to Camden Yards.

Flanagan was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994, his first year of eligibility. He ranks 3rd in club history in games pitched (450), innings pitched (2,317.2) and starts (328), 4th in strikeouts (1,297) and complete games (98), 5th in victories (141) and 7th in shutouts (17).

Mike served as Orioles pitching coach in 1995, then spent two years as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He returned to the field in 1998 as pitching coach before returning again to the broadcast booth, where he spent four seasons. In addition to his broadcasting duties, he served as an instructor during the Orioles winter workouts at Camden Yards and during spring training in Fort Lauderdale, FL.

Flanagan, a native of Manchester, NH, is a third-generation pro baseball player. Both his grandfather and father, Ed Sr. and Ed Jr., played in the Boston Red Sox organization. Mike attended the University of Massachusetts, where he played baseball and freshman basketball. While at UMass, he faced Julius Erving and Rick Pitino in a frosh-varsity basketball game.

Mike and his wife, Alex, reside in Sparks, MD. He has three daughters, Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall.

EDWARD P. KENNEY—DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

Ed Kenney is in his fourth season in the Orioles front office. In February 2002 he was named Director of Baseball Administration, assisting in the day-to-day business of the baseball operations department.

Kenney, 47, joined the Orioles in October 2000 as Special Assistant to the Vice President for Baseball Operations after 17 years working in the front office of the Boston Red Sox, where he followed in the footsteps of his father and grandfather.

Following his graduation from Boston College in 1978, Ed spent five years working in the Red Sox minor league system, beginning in October 1978 as business manager for AA Bristol in the Eastern League. In 1982, he was named general manager at Bristol and continued in that capacity when the franchise moved to New Britain in 1983.

In November 1983, he joined the Boston Red Sox as administrative assistant for minor league operations. Four years later, he was named director of minor league operations and continued overseeing the Red Sox farm system until August 1999, when he was named Assistant General Manager.

Ed's father, Edward F. Kenney, retired as Vice President for Player Development in 1992 after 46 years with the Red Sox. Ed's grandfather, Tom Kenney, also worked for the Red Sox for many years, beginning in the late 1930s.

Ed and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Patrick, 15, and Matthew, 13. They live in Ellicott City, MD.

DARRELL "DOC" RODGERS—DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

It took less than a year to see the impact that Doc Rodgers has had on the Orioles' farm system. He was named Director of Minor League Operations on January 14, 2003, and oversaw a systematic change that emphasized fundamentals and discipline to bring out the best in individual players as well as staff.

In the process, the organization experienced a dramatic turnaround in the farm system's on-field performance as well. After finishing last in 2002 among all major league organizations with a combined 332-434 record (.433), the Orioles jumped 10 places to 20th this season with their 368-389 (.486) mark. The 81-game difference in win-loss record was the 2nd biggest improvement among all major league organizations, behind Arizona's 85-game jump (from 322-388 to 365-346).

Rodgers joined the Orioles from the Cincinnati Reds, where he served for six seasons as assistant general manager under Jim Bowden. In that role, he oversaw both player development and scouting and played a pivotal role in increasing the Reds' presence in the international scouting arena. Under his direction, the Reds established baseball academies in both the Dominican Republic and Venezuela. He also assisted the GM in all areas of the major league operations, including the day-to-day operation of the big league club, player trades and acquisitions, contract negotiations and arbitration.

Doc began his front office career in 1993 as the Reds' assistant for baseball operations, a position he held through 1995. He joined the Detroit Tigers in 1996 as director of baseball administration before returning to the Reds in 1997 as assistant to the general manager.

Before joining the Reds' front office, he spent the 1991 and 1992 seasons as pitching coach for the organization's Appalachian League affiliate in Princeton, WV. That followed a six-year career as a pitcher in the minor leagues.

Rodgers was drafted three times ('81, '84, '85) before signing with the San Francisco Giants in 1985. He was traded to Cincinnati in 1988 and advanced to Class AA Chattanooga in 1989 before finishing his playing career in the Mexican League with Nuevo Laredo in 1990. He played on two Class A minor league championship teams, in 1987 with Fresno (California League) and in 1988 with Cedar Rapids (Midwest). He was named the Northwest League's Topps Player of the Month for July 1985 and was the league's Topps Player of the Year that season as well. He also was named to the Midwest League All-Star team in 1988.

Rodgers, 41, earned a degree in journalism from the University of Oklahoma in 1985. He received his master's degree in sports management from Oklahoma in 1994. Doc and his wife, Dorothy, have a daughter, Jazmine Nicole, and a son, Kobe Matthew.

TONY DEMACIO—DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Beginning his sixth season as the Orioles' Director of Scouting, Tony DeMacio continues to leave his mark on the organization's future. Under DeMacio, the Orioles have added to their domestic and international scouting staffs to allow for better coverage areas, making a dramatic effect on the quality and number of players the Orioles have drafted and signed.

In the 1999 First Year Player Draft, DeMacio oversaw the Orioles' selection of seven of the first 50 picks, including four first round and three "sandwich" selections and was instrumental in the getting the organization's first 13 picks signed. The draft was widely hailed in baseball circles not just for the quantity of early picks, but for the quality of the selections. Three of that year's selections - Larry Bigbie, Brian Roberts and Erik Bedard - currently are on the Orioles' 40-man roster. Another 1999 draft pick, Willie Harris (24th round), saw major league time with the Orioles, before being traded to the Chicago White Sox.

In subsequent drafts, the Orioles have further strengthened their farm system. In addition to highly-regarded first-round selections in 2B Mike Fontenot (2001), LHP Adam Loewen (2002) and OF Nick Markakis (2003), DeMacio's drafts have included other highly-regarded prospects from lower rounds, including LHP Brian Forystek (14th round, 2000), RHP David Crouthers (3rd round, 2001) and RHP John Maine (6th round, 2002). In addition to drafting the right players, he has been instrumental in getting players to sign with the organization: 32 of the Orioles' first 35 picks from the 2002 draft were signed, followed by 27 of the first 34 picks in last year's draft.

DeMacio, 59, was named to his current position on December 4, 1998, after spending four seasons (1995-98) as East Coast Scouting Supervisor with the Chicago Cubs. He began his baseball career with the Atlanta Braves and was with them for seven years, from 1983-90. Tom Glavine, a two-time Cy Young Award winner, was the first player that Tony signed for the Braves. The last player he signed before leaving Atlanta was Chipper Jones.

Tony joined the Cleveland Indians organization in 1991 as the National Crosschecker and was involved in drafts that brought future major leaguers Manny Ramirez, Chad Ogea, Albie Lopez, Jon Nunnally, Paul Shuey, Pep Harris, Paul Byrd and Herbert Perry to the Indians farm system. In 1994 he served as a major league scout for Cleveland. Following the 1994 season, he joined the Cubs.

A native of McKees Rocks, PA, a suburb of Pittsburgh, DeMacio attended Parsons College in Fairfield, IA where he played four years of baseball. As captain of the team in his final season, DeMacio helped Parsons finish second nationally in NCAA Division II. The Division II winner, Grambling University, was led by Ralph Garr, whose son Ralph Jr. is currently an Orioles scout.

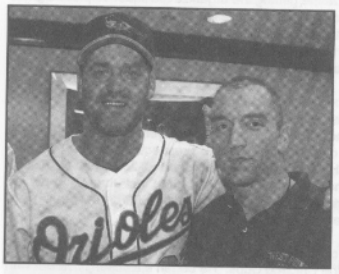

Tony and his wife, Diane, reside in Virginia Beach, VA. He has a daughter, Heather, who resides in Owings Mills, MD, and a son, Robert, who is a student at West Virginia University.

ORIOLES IN THE COMMUNITY: BEYOND THE YARD

The Orioles recognize the value of support from the community and believe it is important for the organization to give back by being involved in local programs and initiatives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and organizations, the Orioles have also created several initiatives of their own under the current ownership group. Below is a brief summary of some of those efforts undertaken in the past year.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES, INC.

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. Since the ownership group headed by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated $7.3 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

This past year, the Orioles made donations to the Maryland Lupus Foundation, Maryland Science Center, Parks & People Foundation and House with a Heart, among others. In addition, the Orioles have sponsored the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra gala for the past ten years.

VISIT TO SOLDIERS INJURED IN OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM

In April, a group of Orioles players, coaches and front office personnel traveled to Walter Reed Army Medical Center and the National Naval Medical Center in Bethesda to visit servicemen and women injured in Operation Iraqi Freedom. The Orioles also hosted a group of injured soldiers from Walter Reed in a luxury suite for a game later in the month. Orioles players visited the group prior to the game.

ORIOLES WIVES FUNDRAISING FOR PATHFINDERS FOR AUTISM AND FOOD DRIVE

Each season, the Orioles Wives select a charity to benefit from their fundraising efforts. In 2003, the Wives chose Pathfinders for Autism, a parent-sponsored non-profit organization that seeks to generate funding for research, services and education directed toward improving the lives of individuals with autism and their families. The Wives held their annual golf outing at Hunt Valley Golf Club and sponsored two "Ultimate Auctions" of unique sports memorabilia and experiences during games in August that helped raise over $50,000 for Pathfinders.

The Wives also hold a food drive each season during a weekend the team is at home, collecting non-perishable items from Orioles fans for donation to the Maryland Food Bank. In 2003, the Wives collected over 3,600 pounds of food and $7,550 in cash donations that was used to purchase turkeys for needy families during the Thanksgiving holiday.

FIRST GRADERS LET'S GO READ

In May, the Orioles provided two books for each of the 16,500 first graders in the Baltimore City and Prince George's County public school systems as part of the team's program to promote summer reading. Orioles players appeared at Bernard Harris, Sr. Elementary School in Baltimore City and Cora Rice Elementary School in Landover to discuss the importance of reading and education and distribute books to the students. With assistance from a Garth Brooks Teammates for Kids Foundation grant, the Orioles distributed 33,000 Scholastic books from the schools' approved summer reading lists.

FEDERAL HILL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE CHALLENGE

In November 2002, the Orioles presented a challenge to students at Federal Hill Elementary School: achieve a 94 percent attendance rate for the remainder of the school year and the entire school would earn a trip to Camden Yards for an Orioles game during the 2003 season. The students reached their goal, and in June the Orioles hosted the student body for a game, courtesy of David Segui's youth tickets program.

1983 WORLD SERIES REUNION WEEKEND

The Orioles celebrated the 20th anniversary of their 1983 World Series championship the weekend the Philadelphia Phillies played in Baltimore in June. Silent and online auctions of Orioles and Phillies memorabilia held throughout the weekend raised over $55,000 for the following charities: the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation; the Babe Ruth Museum; the Eddie Murray Fund of the Baltimore Community Foundation for the treatment of kidney disease; the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center and Research Institute in Tampa, FL in honor of Tug McGraw; and Mike Schmidt's Winner's Circle, benefiting the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Palm Beach County, FL.

ORIOLES / AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

Early in 2002, Orioles catcher Brook Fordyce experienced a life-threatening medical emergency and was saved by blood transfusions. As a result of his experience and in response to a critical need for blood, Fordyce teamed with the American Red Cross for the second straight year and helped sponsor a blood drive at Camden Yards in September. 205 units of blood were collected at the event. Each blood donor received a pair of tickets to an Orioles game and Fordyce greeted donors and signed autographs at the drive.

REACHING OUT IN THE COMMUNITY

ORIOLES APPEARANCES

Orioles players and coaches past and present make more than 250 appearances annually throughout the Orioles region. Clinics, schools, the Babe Ruth Museum, libraries and Little League organizations benefit from these visits. The Orioles Bird mascot also "flies" to events all over the region throughout the year. He makes more than 400 appearances in communities from Virginia to Pennsylvania.

TICKET DONATIONS

Each year, Orioles players purchase tickets to give children from charitable, non-profit youth organizations the opportunity to enjoy an Orioles game. More than 17,500 children benefited from the player ticket program in 2003. Players who established or continued programs last season included Jeff Conine, Marty Cordova, Omar Daal, Scott Erickson, Pat Hentgen, Sidney Ponson and David Segui.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI) PROGRAM

The Reviving Baseball in the Inner City program encourages young adults ages 13-18 to stay in school and helps them to develop self-esteem while learning the skills and enjoyment of baseball. The program is a national Major League Baseball initiative administered and co-sponsored locally by the Orioles and Coca-Cola. Approximately 200 teenagers in Baltimore take part in this league each year.

BALTIMORE BASEBALL LEAGUE

Baltimore Baseball League provides over 350 fourth and fifth graders from 26 elementary schools the opportunity to play baseball for the first time. Each child must have a weekly academic score card filled out by his or her teacher in order to participate.

ORIOLES / COCA-COLA PITCH AND HIT CLINICS

The Orioles and Coca-Cola team up to provide children ages 6-12 the opportunity to learn pitching and hitting skills through regional clinics. Children can get hands-on instruction from Orioles players and coaches.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS BOOTH

During each game, the Orioles provide a community booth on the lower concourse for charitable, non-profit organizations to give out information, sell raffle tickets, register participants or do health care screenings for Orioles fans.

CARDBOARD TO LEATHER

The Oriole Advocates' Cardboard to Leather baseball equipment collection program provides new and gently used baseball gloves, bats and other items collected from Orioles fans for children in developing countries in the Caribbean.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

The Orioles Summer Reading incentive program is sponsored by the Orioles and the Baltimore Sun. The team sends bookmarks, posters and t-shirts to libraries in each of the 23 Maryland counties that participate.

44 ELROD (ELLIE) HENDRICKS — BULLPEN COACH

Full Name: Elrod Jerome Hendricks
Born: December 22, 1940
Opening Day Age: 63
Height: 6'1" Weight: 200
Bats: L Throws: R
Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, V.I...Resides in Randallstown, MD
Contract Status: Signed through 2004
M.L. Service: This will be his 44th season in professional baseball, including 20 years as a player and 26 years as a coach (includes 2 years as player/coach)

ORIOLES LONGEVITY

Ellie will open the season in an Orioles uniform for a club record 36th time this year (Brooks Robinson and Cal Ripken, Jr. had 21)...This is his 27th season as bullpen coach, another O's record...Since 1968 when he first joined the club as a catcher, Ellie has been with the Orioles for all but about 1 1/2 of 36 seasons...He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (dealt for Tommy Davis) before returning to Baltimore over the winter...He then logged 1 1/2 years in the Yankees organization, from June '76 through the '77 season, before rejoining the O's.

COACHING CAREER

Hendricks was initially named as bullpen coach after the 1977 season during Earl Weaver's first tour of duty...He served as player/coach twice...In '78 he was activated to replace Gary Roenicke and batted .333 in 13 games...He also made his sole career pitching appearance (6/26) during a 24-10 pasting by the Blue Jays in Toronto...He pitched 2.1 scoreless innings and allowed no runs, one hit and one walk...In '79 he was activated when rosters expanded to 40...Made one appearance, his last in the majors, at Detroit (9/19), and went 0-for-1...He twice substituted as manager for Frank Robinson (back problems) in '88 and compiled a 4-11 mark...Lee Mazzilli is the 10th manager he has served under as an Orioles coach.

PLAYING CAREER

Elrod spent 12 seasons in the major leagues, including 10 1/2 with the Orioles...He played in more than 100 games in each of the O's AL pennant-winning seasons of '69-'70-'71...He platooned at catcher with right-handed hitting Andy Etchebarren from '68-'71...Hendricks batted .364 (4-11) against the Reds with a home run and a double to contribute significantly to O's wins at Cincinnati in Games 1 and 2 of the 1970 World Series (the Orioles went on to win the Series in 5 games)...He compiled a .273 (18-66) average in 24 post-season games for the Orioles and Yankees (comprising five League Championship Series and four World Series)...His career fielding percentage was .990 with 41 percent of baserunners thrown out...The Orioles drafted him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in '67 (he had played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously)...He played 8 seasons in the minors, including four years at Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA), where he hit 109 homers in four seasons and became known as the Babe Ruth of Mexico...He had his best minor league season there in '67, when he led the league in homers (41) and was second in RBI (112).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Elrod and his wife, Merle, were married January 14, 1970 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76)...Ryan played in the Orioles farm system, 1994-1997...They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since '70...Ellie has four children by a previous marriage: Abegail (7/13/62), Elrod Jr. (4/7/64), Elroy (10/1/65) and Berecia (8/25/67)...He is one of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform...In 2001, he was voted into the Orioles Hall of Fame as a coach by the veteran's committee of the Oriole Advocates, becoming the first person still active in his position with the team to be enshrined...Has operated two 3-week baseball camps for youngsters the past 20 summers at McDonogh School in Owings Mills...In 2002, he was named Most Proactive Coach by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame for his contributions to the Baltimore community...He was also honored by the Sports Boosters of Maryland in November 2002 for his service in the Orioles organization...In '92, the Orioles created an organizational award in his name for players whose level of community involvement was worthy of special recognition...Chosen Man of the Year by the Oriole Advocates in '89...Received the first Jack Dunn Memorial Service Award, named after the late Orioles executive, in January '88...Received the Humanitarian Award from the Fuel Fund of Central Maryland in 1998...Selected Special Olympics Man of the Year in '87 and Man of the Year by the Baltimore Chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in '83...Is on the board of directors of the Grant-A-Wish Foundation...Serves as the Orioles primary public speaker and community representative each off-season...Ellie has funded youth league baseball camps for over 20 years offering instruction to children (former Orioles' minor leaguer Calvin Pickering is a graduate of these camps)...He annually takes part in a winter cruise with Orioles fans and in the Orioles' Fantasy Camp.

BEHIND THE SCENES

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, ATC—HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955

This is Richie's 17th season as the Orioles' head athletic trainer, his 21st with the big league club and his 28th in the Orioles organization. Before coming to Baltimore, he served four years (1980-83) at Rochester as the Red Wings' trainer/road secretary. During that time, he also assisted his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, during the Orioles spring training camp in Miami.

Richie joined the Baltimore organization in 1977 as an assistant trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to Rochester in 1980.

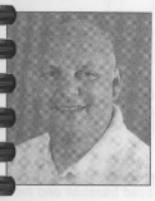

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by EKU as a distinguished alumnus (along with assistant athletic trainer Brian Ebel) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and served from 1994 through 1999 as treasurer for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese trainers and physicians.

He presently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee.

In November 2002, Richie served as trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan.

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have 3 children: Christopher (7/8/80), Andrea (8/19/85) and Timothy (2/8/92). Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

BRIAN EBEL—ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Brian is in his 8th season as the Orioles Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 20th season as part of the Oriole organization's training staff.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head trainer for the Orioles rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as trainer of the Orioles' then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles spring training camp for four seasons and was also the trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994 and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers. In 1999, he was named to the PBATS executive board as AL Assistant Trainer Representative and still serves on the board. He received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with head athletic trainer Richie Bancells) by EKU as a distinguished alumnus.

In May 2003, Brian was appointed to Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Board.

He holds an MBA degree in medical services management from The Johns Hopkins University, and this past winter served as an administrative resident in the Department of Medicine at The Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center, in addition to his Orioles duties.

The Wilmington, OH native grew up in Versailles, IN. He and his wife, the former Nancy Swanson, were married on October 26, 1991. The have two sons, Brady (10/4/93) and Brett (8/9/96), and live in Owings Mills, MD. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and model railroading.

TIM BISHOP—STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Born: November 9, 1964

Tim is in his 12th year with the Orioles and his 14th in the organization. Prior to joining the Orioles in 1993, he was an on-field coach and conditioning coach with Frederick (Class A, Carolina League) in 1991 and the O's minor league conditioning coordinator in 1992. He also assisted the Orioles in spring training those two years.

Tim graduated from East Stroudsburg (PA) University in 1986 with a BS degree in exercise physiology. He earned a master's degree from West Chester (PA) University. He played four years of football and baseball at ESU and after graduating, signed a professional football contract with the St. Louis Cardinals as a wide receiver. He was released by the Cardinals but signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Yankees and played two seasons in their minor league system. In 1987-88, he played outfield at Oneonta, Prince William and Ft. Lauderdale. While at Prince William, he was a teammate of future major leaguers Alan Mills, Scott Kamieniecki, Bernie Williams, Gerald Williams and Kevin Maas. His playing career ended when he was hit by a pitch and broke his arm.

Tim is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and was elected a member of the Maryland Council on Physical Fitness.

A native of Souderton, PA, Tim and his wife, Amy, were married on December 5, 1998. They have two sons, Justin (11/16/00) and Casey Dale (11/22/02), and reside in Parkton.

SAM SNIDER—BULLPEN CATCHER

Born: May 24, 1959

Sam is in his 18th season as the Orioles full-time Bullpen Catcher and his 25th season with the club overall. He served in the role on a part-time basis from 1980-86 before becoming the full-time catcher in the pen in 1987. The left-handed thrower also serves as a batting practice pitcher.

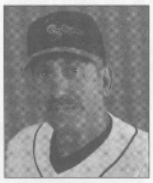

Sam attended Hagerstown (MD) Junior College for two years, where he was honored as a scholar-athlete, and Saint Leo's College in Florida for two years. He played baseball at both schools as an outfielder and pitcher and was scouted by the late Orioles scout Dick Bowie.

Snider was raised in Chambersburg, PA, home of former major leaguers Nellie Fox and Tom Brookens. He attended Chambersburg High School, where he played baseball and football and was named to the All-County football team as a place-kicker.

Snider lists his biggest professional thrills as being present at Cal Ripken, Jr.'s record-setting 2,131st consecutive game, the All-Star Game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1993 and being a part of the 1996 and 1997 Orioles teams that advanced to the ALCS.

For the last 13 years, Sam has spent the off-season serving as a Deputy Sheriff for the Franklin County (PA) Sheriff's Department. He also assists with the Orioles' off-season workouts in January each year at Camden Yards. His hobbies include golf and hunting. Sam and his wife, the former Kristy Higgins, were married on December 27, 1997. They have two children, Samantha Mary (6/2/98) and Jeffrey Michael (8/4/01).

RUDY ARIAS—BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER

Born: June 22, 1956

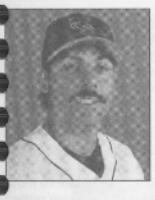

Rudy begins his 8th season with the Orioles. In addition to pitching batting practice, the former minor league catcher also charts pitches during home games and operates the radar gun that gives fans the type and speed of each pitch. Before joining the Orioles, Rudy served as bullpen catcher for the New York Yankees from 1993 to 1996.

A native of Santa Clara, Cuba, Arias grew up in Miami. He graduated from Miami Senior High School in 1975 and attended Miami Dade South Community College from 1976-1977, where he earned All-State and honorable mention All-American honors in baseball. He was drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 1st round (secondary phase) in 1977 and spent four years in their farm system. In his first pro season, with Rookie level Bellingham (WA), he was named catcher on the Northwest League All-Star team. He spent the next two seasons in the Class A California League, with Stockton and San Jose. His career stalled when he was hit by a ball and suffered a broken jaw in 1980, and the Mariners assigned his contract to Vera Cruz of the AAA Mexican League, where he played in 1981-82. He later played in both Colombia and Mexico, including a two-year stint as manager of the Monteria club in the Colombian Winter League.

His father, Rudy Arias Sr., pitched professionally for 17 years and went 2-0 in 34 games for the American League champion Chicago White Sox in 1959.

Rudy and his wife, Hilda, were married on December 6, 1982. They have two sons, Luis (9/27/83) and Alex (8/30/88). They have made the Baltimore area their year-round residence for the past 4 years and live in Ellicott City, MD. In the off-season, Rudy provides private baseball lessons to high school players and assists in the Orioles' off-season workouts beginning each January at Camden Yards.

VINCE HORSMAN—BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER

Born: March 9, 1967

Vince begins his 7th season on the Orioles staff. In addition to pitching batting practice, he helps with pitch charting and videotaping of Orioles batters and pitchers. He joined the Orioles in May 1998 following his release by AAA Rochester.

A native of Halifax, Nova Scotia, Horsman pitched all or part of five seasons in the majors with Toronto, Oakland and Minnesota, going 4-2 with a 4.07 ERA in 141 games. He was originally signed by Toronto as a free agent and began his pro career in 1985. He made his major league debut with the Blue Jays in 1991. Vince was claimed on waivers by Oakland during spring training in 1992 and spent his only full big league season with the A's that year, going 2-1 with a 2.49 ERA in 58 games. He pitched parts of the next two seasons with the A's, then signed in 1995 with Minnesota and spent three weeks with the Twins. He played at AAA Syracuse in 1996 and in Taiwan in 1997 before returning stateside and signing with the Orioles in 1998. He pitched briefly that season for Rochester before his release.

Vince and his wife, Tiffany, have three children and make their home in Dunedin, FL.

JIM TYLER—ORIOLES CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 43rd year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving 7 years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also has worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse straight, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (23) and Joshua (22). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Glen Arm, MD.

FRED TYLER—VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, his single drove in the winning run to beat an Aberdeen High School pitcher named Cal Ripken Jr. Fred was named All-Harford County shortstop; Ripken was All-Harford County pitcher.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 16.

ERNIE TYLER—UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Born: April 30, 1924

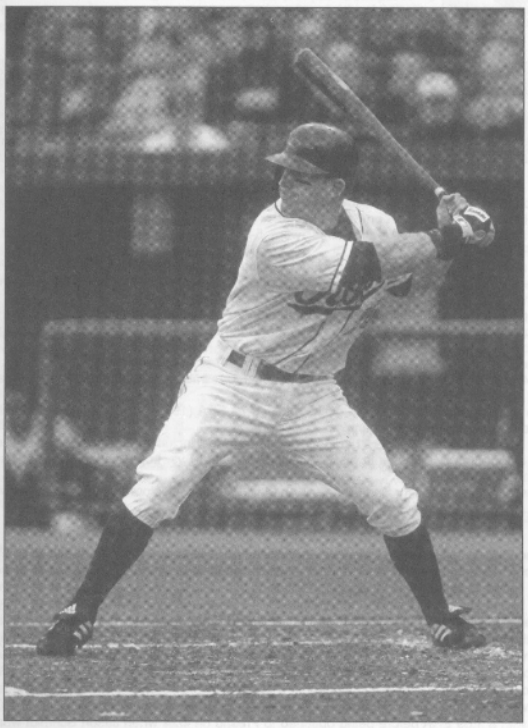

Cal Ripken has nothing on Ernie Tyler. The Orioles' longtime umpires attendant and ball man has not missed a home game at Memorial Stadium or Oriole Park since taking his stool on the field next to the backstop on Opening Day, 1960 - a string of 3,480 consecutive regular season games. Overall, he heads into the 2004 season with a string of 3,524 straight home games - 3,480 regular season, 35 post-season and 8 exhibition games, as well as the 1993 All-Star Game.

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Orioles and Mets General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954. He became a full-time usher in 1958 before moving into his current position in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after games. Ernie retired from the state's Department of Health and Mental Hygiene in March 1988.

This year, Ernie was named winner of the Herb Armstrong Award, presented by the Oriole Advocates Hall of Fame Committee to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in service to the Orioles.

Ernie and his wife, Juliane, who have been married 57 years, live in Forest Hill, MD. They have raised 11 children - Theresa, Regina, twins Phil and Jim, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Ernie, Juliane and seven of the children, have worked for the club at one time or another. Sons Jim and Fred serve as the home and visiting clubhouse managers, respectively.

1—The Orioles set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world - President George Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.
2—President and Mrs. Bush hosted Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh.
3—President Bush and his grandson, George P. Bush, threw ceremonial first balls on Opening Day, 1992, which marked the first regular season game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.
4—President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore attended Cal Ripken's "2,131" game, the first time both a president and vice president attended a game outside of Washington.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former Orioles are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managerd the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final plate big league appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat in the majors.

•Began and ended the season in the starting rotation, but spent more than 2 months on the disabled list and was in the bullpen for a stretch as well.
•Was placed on the DL on July 3, retro to June 28, with tendinitis in his left rotator cuff…Was not activated until September 10.
•Became the first left-hander to open the season as a regular member of the Orioles' starting rotation since Jimmy Key in 1998.
•His start on April 2 vs. Cleveland was the first by an Orioles' lefty since John Parrish started on 7/25/01 at Texas.
•Earned his first win of the season on April 20 vs. Tampa Bay…It was the first win by an Orioles left-handed starter since 4/28/01, when Chuck McElroy defeated Minnesota.
•Prior to beating Tampa Bay, he was 0-2 in his first 3 starts, extending his winless streak to 8 straight starts dating back to the 2002 season, when he was 0-3 in five September outings for Los Angeles.
•Went 3 straight starts without issuing a walk, May 18-30, spanning 21.0 innings.
•Lost each of his five outings in June, pitching to a 10.80 ERA.
•Was the first Oriole with at least 10 losses before the All-Star break since Mike Boddicker lost 11 in the first half of 1988.
•Allowed a season-high 10 hits and 9 runs (8ER) in 2.1 IP in his start on June 23 at Toronto before being moved to the bullpen, with Pat Hentgen joining the starting rotation.
•Took the loss in his first relief outing on June 27 vs. Philadelphia, pitching the final 3.0 innings of a 17-inning game…Last relief outing came on 8/2/02 with Los Angeles.
•Went on the 15-day DL on July 3, retroactive to June 28, with tendinitis in his left rotator cuff.
•Allowed 4 runs in 3.0 innings in a rehab start at AA Bowie on September 1 vs. Reading before being activated.
•Allowed a run in 2.0 innings in relief on September 14 at Toronto in his first appearance after being activated.
•Finished the season with 2 starts…Took the loss in his final outing, September 25 at Boston, allowing 7 runs on 7 hits in 1.2 innings.
•Pitched 6.0 or more innings in 9 of his first 14 starts through June 18, going 4-8 with a 5.21 ERA (77.2IP, 45ER).
•In his 15 starts before going on the DL, he pitched to a 4.78 ERA (43.1IP, 50H, 23ER) in innings 1-3 and a 6.81 ERA (39.2IP, 62H, 30ER) from the 4th inning on.
•In same span as a starter, opposing batters hit .256 (31-121) the first time through the lineup…After that, they batted .368 (81-220).
•Led qualifying American League pitchers with 2.40 assists per 9 IP…Ranked 2nd in the AL with 3.27 fielding chances per 9 IP, behind KC's Jason Grimsley (3.84).

PRO CAREER

2002: Began the season in the Dodgers' bullpen following an off-season trade with Philadelphia…Moved into starting rotation for good in May and finished 5th on staff with 23 starts…Went 9-8 with a 4.45 ERA as a starter (131.1IP, 65ER) and 2-1 with a 1.50 ERA (30.0IP, 5ER) in 16 relief appearances…Held opponents to 2 earned runs or fewer in 14 of his 23 starts…Walked two batters or less in 16 of his 23 starts…His 24 wins in 2001 and 2002 tied him for 4th among National League left-handers with Al Leiter, behind Randy Johnson (45), Tom Glavine (34) and Kirk Reuter (28)…Made 3 relief appearances before getting his first start in place of injured Kevin Brown on 4/18 vs. San Diego…Allowed 2 unearned runs and struck out 8 batters in 6.1 innings in a 5-2 win…Ran his record to 3-0 on 4/24 at Pittsburgh, allowing one run in 6.0 innings of 5-1 victory…Returned to bullpen following that start with Brown's return to active roster…Pitched in relief, 5/2-5/26, allowing one earned run in 19.1 IP, before returning to starting rotation for good…Lost 3 straight starts, 5/31-6/11, allowing 21 runs in 16.1 IP…Allowed season-high 9 runs in 4.1 innings on 6/11 at Tampa Bay…Won 3 straight starts, 6/22-7/2, allowing 3 runs in 17.0 innings, to improve his record to 7-3…Had no-hitter for 5.0 innings in a 5-1 win on 7/27 at San Francisco…Made his final relief appearance on 8/1 at Cincinnati, taking the loss in the 13th inning…Started on 8/4 at Philadelphia and beat the Phillies, 4-3, pitching 6.1 innings and hitting a solo home run for a 1-0 lead…In 6 starts, 8/4-8/31, went 3-0 with a 1.80 ERA (40.0IP, 8ER)…Struggled in September, going 0-3 with a 6.65 ERA (23.0 IP, 17 ER) in 5 starts…In final start of season, 9/27 vs. San Diego, allowed just two singles in 8.0 innings but didn't receive a decision in Dodgers' 1-0 win in 10 innings…Did not commit an error in 43 chances…Had 6th highest total chances without an error among National League pitchers.

2001: Had the 5th most wins among National League left-handers behind Randy Johnson (21-6), Tom Glavine (16-7), Mike Hampton (14-12) and Kirk Rueter (14-12)…Of those, he had the 3rd-best winning percentage behind only Johnson (.778) and Glavine (.696) with a .650 mark, highest of his career…Served as Philadelphia's Opening Day starter, the first of his career…Was first Phillies pitcher to begin season 6-0 since Mike Grace in 1996 and first Phillies left-hander since Al Holland in 1983…Had a career-high 6-game winning streak, 4/14-5/23…Did not lose a game until 6/3 at Montreal…Threw 8.0 shutout innings on 5/18 vs. St. Louis allowing just 2 hits…Had a 14-inning scoreless streak, 5/18-5/23…Struck out a season-high 10 batters on 9/21 vs. Florida…Had a 0.90 ERA in his final 3 starts (20.0IP, 2ER)…Held left-handed opponents to a .214 average…Was 9-2 with a 4.69 ERA during the first half f the season…Went 6-1 with a 3.99 ERA on grass…Had 2 hits and scored twice in one inning on 5/6 vs. San Francisco…Had 3 hits on 5/12 at Arizona…Overall, hit .236 with 5 RBI.

2000: Began the season with Arizona…Tied a career-high with 9.0 IP on 4/11 at San Diego and had a no-decision in a 3-2, 13-inning loss…Threw 1.1 innings in relief on 6/18 at Colorado, his first relief appearance since 5/10/98 at Philadelphia…Was traded to Philadelphia on 7/26 with Travis Lee, Vicente Padilla and Nelson Figueroa for Curt Schilling…Made his Phillies debut on 7/28 vs. Los Angeles, a 2-0 loss (5.0IP, 2ER)…Struck out a season-high 9 on 8/19 at St. Louis…Twice lost a career-high 7 straight games, 5/30-8/2 and 8/13-9/16…In his 2 wins with Philadelphia, the club scored a combined 20 runs; in the other 10 games (0-9), they scored only 25 runs (2.5 average)…Led the majors with 19 losses, most since Scott Erickson lost 19 in 1993 with Minnesota and most in the NL since St. Louis' Jose DeLeon in 1991…7 of his 9 losses with the Phillies were decided by 3 runs or less…Went 1-3 with a 3.00 ERA (30.0IP, 10ER) in five September games…Did not make final start due to sore quad muscles…Played winter ball for Caracas (Venezuela) and went 2-2 with a 3.70 ERA in six starts.

1999: Spent the entire season with Arizona, reaching career-highs in wins (16), starts (32), innings (214.2) and strikeouts (148)…Ranked 10th among NL leaders in ERA (3.65) and 4th in opponents average (.236)…Held lefties to a .200 (28-140) average…Won 4 straight, 5/22-6/19, with a 2.62 ERA in 6 starts…Began that stretch with a complete-game win at Colorado, 8-3…Struck out a season-high 11 on 6/8 vs. Chicago…Led staff with .232 batting average (16-for-69), including a 5-game hit streak that was snapped on 8/27…Of his 16 hits, 5 were bunt singles, ranking 2nd on club to Tony Womack…Pitched in the Division Series vs. the Mets and lost his only start, Game 3 at New York, 9-2 (4.0IP, 3ER, 4K)…Due to flood and weather in Venezuela, was able to pitch just one inning of winter ball.

1998: Began season in Arizona bullpen, but finished in starting rotation…Finished 5th in NL in ERA (2.88), qualifying by 2/3 of an inning…Made 23 starts, nearly doubling his career total of 12 entering season…His 8-12 record was the only sub-.500 mark among the top 9 qualifiers in the NL ERA race…Diamondbacks scored only 73 runs in his 23 starts (3.2 average)…Lost 5 shutouts over the final 2 months, not surrendering more than 2 earned runs in any of those losses, including a pair of 1-0 defeats…Was on disabled list, 6/22-7/11, with a strained left hamstring…Threw first complete-game shutout in Arizona franchise history, a 4-0 win on 7/30 vs. Chicago…Struck out a career-high and then-club record 12 batters on 9/1 at Pittsburgh (8.0IP).

1997: Made 27 relief appearances for the Montreal Expos before being optioned to AAA Ottawa in June…Made 2 starts at Triple-A before his return to Montreal…Made 6 more relief appearances for the Expos in July, then was placed on waivers…Was claimed by Toronto on 7/25…Appeared in 4 games for the Blue Jays before being optioned to AAA Syracuse on 8/6…Recalled by the Blue Jays in September, twice working in relief before making starts in his final 3 outings of the season…Earned first American League win on 9/19 at New York, throwing 6.0 innings and allowing just 6 hits…Selected by Arizona in 2nd round of the expansion draft on 11/18 following the season.

1996: Began the season in the bullpen as Montreal's only lefty…Ended up making 6 starts…Made his first major league start on 8/31 vs. San Diego, snapping a streak of 156 consecutive big league relief appearances, and won, throwing 5.0 shutout innings with one hit (single) and 8 strikeouts…Pitched for Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League, going 9-1 with a 1.49 ERA in 12 starts…Named to Baseball America's All-Winter League team.

1995: Split year between Los Angeles and AAA Albuquerque…Pitched strictly in relief for the Dodgers, going 4-0 in 28 games…Spent two months at Triple-A…Excelled in Venezuela during the winter, going

10-2 with a 1.68 ERA in 13 starts...Traded to Montreal on 12/14 for minor league pitcher Rick Clelland.
1994: Began season at Albuquerque, but was recalled to Los Angeles on 4/20...Pitched for Dodgers fo a month before being optioned to Albuquerque on 5/23...Returned to Los Angeles on 6/23.
1993: Began season at Albuquerque, where he made 6 appearances before his contract was purchase by Los Angeles on 4/23...Made his major league debut in relief on 4/23 at Philadelphia (1.0 IP)...First hit allowed was a single to Dave Hollins on 4/30 vs. Philadelphia, followed by a Darren Daulton home run to give him his first ML loss...Earned first major league win on 6/12 at San Diego.
1992: Split the year between AA San Antonio and Albuquerque, combining for a 2-8 mark in 47 games but just 5 starts.
1991: Spent 2nd season in Dominican Summer League...Went 7-2 with a 1.16 ERA in 13 games, all starts.
1990: Signed by Los Angeles as a non-drafted free agent on 8/24...Began pro career with Dodgers in Dominican Summer League...Went 3-6 with 2 saves and a 1.18 ERA in 17 games (13 starts) at Santo Domingo.

OH, WHAT A RELIEF

Dave McNally holds the all-time Orioles record for most consecutive victories by a pitcher, winning 17 straight without a loss from Sept. 22, 1968 through Aug. 3, 1969, all of them coming as a starter. The club record for consecutive wins by a reliever is shared by Wes Stock, who won 10 straight decisions between Sept. 10, 1962 and April 29, 1964 (including a perfect 7-0 in 1963), and Sammy Stewart, who won 10 straight games in relief over a two-year span, July 20, 1983-April 30, 1984. Stewart also won a game in that stretch as a starter, giving him an overall 11-game winning streak.

2001: Led the Orioles in both saves (11) and appearances (70)…Had 5 "tough saves" -- earned when entering with the tying run on base -- to tie Anaheim's Troy Percival for American League lead in that category, as Orioles' bullpen led majors with 8 tough saves…Appeared in his 70th game on the final day of season, October 6, to join Arizona's Mike Myers as the only pitchers ever to appear in 70 or more games in 6 straight seasons, and Groom is the only one to do it exclusively in one league…Held the lead 40 times in 42 opportunities…Stranded 41 of 50 inherited runners, 7th best percentage in the AL…Led AL relievers with 1.23 BB/9 IP (9 in 66.0IP)…Was 10th among AL relievers with 10.1 Runners/9 IP (74 in 66.0IP) and tied for 8th in appearances (70)…Had 16 "holds," tied for 13th best among AL relievers…Had a 0.98 ERA in 19 day games (18.1IP, 2ER)…Lefties batted .194 (20-103) off him vs. .291 (44-151) by right-handed hitters…Earned his team-leading 11th save on 8/8 at Kansas City with 1.1 scoreless innings, one shy of his career total entering the season…Set a new career high with his 5th save on 6/22 vs. Chicago…Did not allow a run in 9 of his last 10 and 14 of his last 17 outings…Allowed earned runs in just 7 of his last 46 appearances (46.0IP, 15ER), and was scored on in only 16 of 70 outings all season…Allowed runs in back-to-back outings twice, the first time coming 8/22-8/23 at Tampa Bay…Also was scored on in consecutive appearances, 9/20 at Toronto and 9/23 vs. New York…Suffered the loss and a blown save 7/8 on a 3-run HR to Philadelphia's Travis Lee with 2 out in the 9th, the first earned runs he allowed in 12 outings starting 6/14…Struck out the only batter he faced 6/14 vs. New York Mets for the final out and his 3rd save…Was charged with the loss the night before, his second loss in 3 outings…Lost 6/6 at New York, his first loss since 5/31/00, a span of 67 outings…Recorded the final out 4/11 at Boston with the bases loaded to earn his first save since 6/28/00, also at Boston.
2000: Was 2nd among Orioles pitchers in appearances to Mike Trombley (75) and became the 10th Orioles reliever ever to appear in at least 70 games...Only one other time have the Orioles had 2 relievers appear in 70+ games in a single season, when Armando Benitez and Jesse Orosco each had 71 outings in 1997…Became the first American Leaguer and 2nd major leaguer to appear in 70 or more games in 5 straight seasons with his appearance on the final day of the season, 10/1 vs. New York...Arizona's Mike Myers made his 70th appearance on 9/12 at San Diego to become first in majors to do it 5 straight years; ironically, the 2 relievers were traded for each other on 8/8/95, the year before their streaks began, with Detroit sending Groom to Florida for Myers...Was 2nd among American League relievers with 27 holds, one behind Cleveland's Paul Shuey...Led O's bullpen and finished tied for 10th in the AL with 6 relief wins…Finished 7th in AL allowing only 22.0% of inherited runners to score (13 of 59)...Allowed only 6 of 33 inherited runners to score from 6/8 through the end of the year…Allowed 4 earned runs in consecutive outings 9/15 & 9/18 vs. Seattle and Oakland, respectively...Also allowed 4 earned runs on 6/22 at Seattle...Minus those 3 outings, his ERA for season was 3.18 (56.2IP, 20ER)…Yielded runs in 20 of 70 games but more than one run in a game only 9 times…Struck out all 3 batters faced 7/20 vs. Boston and recorded saves 6/27 & 6/28 at Boston...Had 7 blown saves on season, tied for most on the team with Trombley and tied for 8th highest in AL…Earned Orioles' first save of season on 4/6 vs. Cleveland with 3 innings of scoreless, one-hit relief...Was his first save since 7/27/97.

1999: Tied with Minnesota's Bob Wells for AL lead with 76 games pitched, becoming only the 7th pitcher in ML history to appear in 70 or more games in 4 consecutive seasons and one of four with an active streak…Tied the 2nd highest total in Oakland history behind his own club record of 78 games in 1997…Finished Oakland career with 301 games pitched in 4 seasons, 5th on Oakland career list…Pitched an average of 0.61 innings per outing, lowest ratio in Oakland history...Faced just one batter in 28 outings and tossed 1.0 inning or fewer in 68 of 76 games...Allowed 20 of 69 (29.0%) inherited runners to score and first hitters faced hit .268 (19-71) with 4 walks and a hit by pitch…Did not allow a run over first 8 outings (6.0 IP) and allowed 2 of his first 9 inherited runners to score...Struggled over his next 29 outings, 4/23 through 7/2, yielding at least one run 13 times (14.1IP, 20ER) while allowing 12 of 26 (46.2%) inherited runners to score...His ERA peaked at 7.97 on 7/2…Rebounded to post a 2.81 ERA (8 ER in 25.2 IP) over final 39 appearances...Allowed only 6 of last 34 (17.6%) inherited runners to score…Tied Oakland record by pitching in 6 consecutive games, 7/11-19…Only home run allowed came 7/30 vs. Tampa Bay's Terrell Lowery, snapping streak of 41.0 innings and 181 batters dating back to 8/17/98…Appeared in 17 of A's 26 games in July, then did not allow a run in his first 12 outings in August…Opponents batted .274 off him but only .227 (5-22) with runners in scoring position and two outs.

1998: Ranked 7th in the American League in games pitched and became 2nd pitcher in Athletics history to pitch in 70 games in 3 consecutive seasons, appearing in 75 games after pitching in an Oakland record 78 games in 1997 and 72 games in 1996...His 225 games pitched over a three-year span were the most ever by an A's pitcher, topping Rollie Fingers' 221 from 1974-1976...He also tied for 5th in the league with 6 blown saves...Pitched mostly in short relief, tossing 1.0 inning or fewer in 63 of his 75 outings...Tossed 3.1 scoreless innings on 4/14 at Boston, matching his personal best with the A's (fourth time)...Finished April with a 1.42 ERA and had a 9-game scoreless streak (6.0IP) through 5/4, which had his season ERA at 1.26 before allowing 4 runs on 5/6 vs. Detroit, getting charged with his first loss and 2nd blown save of the season...That began a 23-game stretch through the end of June that saw him allow 19 runs in 19.0 innings...Worked in each game of series vs. Anaheim right before the break, 7/3-5, and did not allow a run, starting a stretch in which he posted a 2.25 ERA (24.0IP, 6ER) over his final 37 games...First batters faced hit .235 (8-34) over that span with a sacrifice fly and 2 walks...Appeared in his 300th career game on 7/9 vs. Texas and posted a 1.80 ERA in July...For the season, first batters hit .288 (19-66) with 7 walks and 2 sacrifice flies...Three of the 4 home runs he allowed came against the first hitter he faced...Allowed 24 of his 74 (32.4%) inherited runners to score after leading the league with a mark of 20.8% in 1997...Allowed a .274 (62-226) opponents batting average, .243 (27-111) against left-handers and .304 (35-115) against right-handers.

1997: Set an Oakland record by pitching in 78 games, breaking Rollie Fingers' record of 76 set in 1974...Was 2nd in the American League to Detroit's Mike Myers (88)...Used mostly in short relief to start the season, with 29 of his first 32 outings lasting one inning or less...Faced two batters or fewer in 18 of those 32 outings...Made his 200th career appearance on 5/15 vs. Milwaukee...Allowed 20.8% (15 of 72) of his inherited runners to score, tied for the AL lead with New York's Jeff Nelson...Picked up his first save on 6/18 at San Diego and recorded all of his career-high three saves in seven outings starting 6/18 through 7/2...Finished season with a 5.15 ERA, fourth highest among AL relievers...Was 3 for 5 in save opportunities and first batters hit .257 (18-70) with six walks...Opponents hit .292, including .231 (28-121) by left-handers and .346 (47-136) by right-handers...Opponents average dropped to .208 (16-77) with runners in scoring position, including .111 (4-36) with RISP and two outs.

1996: Made the A's as a non-roster invitee and spent his first full season in the major leagues...Used exclusively in relief except for a start on 5/23 at New York...Tied Mohler for team lead with 72 games pitched and struck out a career-high 57...Had an A's season-long 17.2 innings scoreless streak 6/2-7/4...Allowed just one of 19 inherited runners to score over that span and first batters faced were 2-for-15 with a walk...Recorded all 5 wins and both saves on the road, pitching to a 2.27 ERA away from Oakland (39.2IP, 10ER)...Opponents hit .281 overall (85-302) but only .247 (37-150) on the road.

1995: Began the season with Detroit but was traded to the Florida Marlins on 8/8 for a player to be named later (LHP Mike Myers)...Was 1-3 with a save and a 7.52 ERA in 23 games at the time of the trade...Struck out a career-high 5 batters 5/26 vs. Chicago...Needed 77 appearances to pick up his first major league win (5/12 at Texas) but won his first National League outing in his first appearance on 8/8 vs. Colorado after tossing a scoreless 13th inning...Was tagged with the loss in both games of a doubleheader at Pittsburgh on 8/18...Combined at both Detroit and Florida he was 1-1 with a 6.62 ERA (17.2IP, 13ER) in 4 starts and 1-4 with a 7.82 ERA (38.0IP, 33ER) in 32 relief outings...Appeared in 6 games including 5 starts at AAA Toledo between his 2 stints in Detroit, going 2-3 with a 1.91 ERA.

1994: Started the season at Toledo but was recalled by Detroit on 4/19 after 5 relief appearances and finished the season with the Tigers...Pitched in 40 games which was 2nd on the club to Joe Boever...Except for a stint of 4.0 innings on July 17 at Kansas City, did not make an appearance longer than 2.0 innings...Picked up his only save on 8/2 at Cleveland with one scoreless inning...Stranded 21 of 27 inherited runners...Was unscored upon in 31 of his 40 appearances.

1993: Had 3 separate stints with the Tigers...Was up from 5/24 to 7/19, 8/8-8/13, and 9/3 through the end of the season...Made 19 appearances, including 3 starts…Was 0-2, losing once in relief and once as a starter...Spent most of the season pitching to only a couple of batters...Longest outing was 4.0 innings on June 28 at New York...Was 9-3 with a 2.74 ERA at Toledo in 16 games, 15 starts.

1992: Began the season at Toledo but earned a call-up to Detroit after posting a 6-4 mark and a 2.16 ERA in 12 starts...Made his major league debut at Chicago vs. Kirk McCaskill on 6/20...Pitched 6.2 innings but lost, 3-1...Was 0-5 with a 5.82 ERA in 7 starts and 0-0 with a save and a 5.40 ERA in 5 relief appearances...Lone save came 7/18 at Oakland as he struck out Randy Ready with the bases loaded to end the game...Optioned back to Toledo on 8/11 and finished the season with the Mud Hens...Walked just 23 in 109.1 innings at Toledo.

1991: Selected by the Detroit Tigers organization in the Rule 5 Minor League draft and opened the season at AA London...Posted a 7-1 mark and a 3.48 ERA in 11 games, including 7 starts, and was promoted to AAA Toledo...Still finished 2nd on the London club in wins...Was used mostly in relief with the Mud Hens, going 2-5 with a save and a 4.32 ERA in 24 games, 6 starts..Was a combined 9-6 with a 3.98 ERA in 35 games, 13 starts.

1990: Spent his 2nd consecutive season at AA Birmingham...Was 6-8 with a 5.07 ERA in 20 games, all starts.

1989: Promoted to AA Birmingham and posted his 2nd consecutive 13-win season...Led the Southern League Champion Barons in wins and tossed one of 3 Birmingham shutouts.

1988: Spent the entire season at Class A Tampa and led the Florida State League with 195.0 innings pitched...Was 10th with a 2.54 ERA...Led the club in strikeouts with 118 and was 2nd with 13 wins and 8 complete games...Was 7-3 with a 1.35 ERA over his last 11 starts.

1987: Began his career with Rookie level Sarasota but was promoted to Class A Daytona Beach after compiling a 0.75 ERA in 4 games with a win and a save...Used mostly as a starter at Daytona Beach and posted 2 complete games...Combined at both levels to go 8-2 with a save and a 3.16 ERA in 15 games, 11 starts.

GOING, GOING, GONE

In 1986, Orioles pitchers Scott McGregor, Ken Dixon and Mike Boddicker became the first trio of teammates to give up at least 30 home runs in a season. McGregor allowed 35, Dixon 33 and Boddicker 30. It has been done 4 times since, including last season by Seattle's Ryan Franklin, Freddy Garcia and Gil Meche.

•Earned a career-high 36 saves, 11 more than 2002…It matches the 3rd highest single-season total in club history, behind Randy Myers' 45 saves in 1997 and Gregg Olson's 37 saves in 1990.
•Is the 2nd pitcher in club history to save 25 games or more in each of his first 2 full seasons, joining Olson in 1989 (27) and 1990 (37).
•In just 3 seasons, ranks 6th all-time for the Orioles with 61 saves.
•His 8 blown saves was 3rd in the American League behind Cleveland's Danys Baez and Texas' Francisco Cordero, both with 10…It was one shy of the club record of 9, shared by Don Aase (1986) and Mike Timlin (1999).
•Went 0-7, the most losses without earning a victory in a season ever by an Oriole…Jack Harshman went 0-6 for the O's in 1959.
•Appeared in more games (64) and had more losses (7) without a win than any AL pitcher.
•Finished 6th in the AL with 51 games finished…Allowed 13 steals, most among AL relievers.
•Had a blown save in his first 2 opportunities on the season, April 5 vs. Boston and April 8 at Tampa Bay.
•Pitched a scoreless inning and struck out 2 on April 10 at Tampa Bay for his first save since 8/15/02 and the team's first since 8/23/02.
•Earned a career-high 10 straight saves over a span of 13 outings, April 10-May 17, including saves in 6 straight outings, April 10-24.
•Earned saves 3 straight days, April 16-18, two vs. Cleveland and one vs. Tampa Bay.
•Appeared in 5 straight games, May 17-22, collecting 3 saves and 2 losses...Earned a save in both games of a May 1 doubleheader at Detroit.
•Took the loss in consecutive games, May 18 vs. Tampa Bay and May 20 at Anaheim, allowing a combined 8 hits and 3 ER in 1.2 IP.
•Earned back-to-back saves July 3-4 vs. Toronto before allowing a pair of solo home runs in the 9th inning on July 6 vs. the Jays for his 6th blown save.
•Allowed 9 runs (6ER) including 7 hits, 2 BB and 4 HR in consecutive outings August 15 vs. New York and August 19 vs. Tampa Bay.
•Charged with his 5th loss and his 7th blown save on August 15 vs. New York, allowing 4 runs on a pair of 9th inning home runs.
•Lost consecutive outings on August 29 at Seattle and September 2 vs. Oakland.
•Earned his 30th save, the first of 3 straight, on September 4 vs. Oakland...Was his first save since August 10.
•Converted 7 of 8 save opportunities in September…Only blown save came on September 27 at Boston, yielding Todd Walker's 3-run game-tying home run with 2 out and a 3-2 count in the 9th.
•Worked 1.2 innings on September 27 at Boston, matching his longest outing since working 2.0 IP on Opening Day.
•Went 1-0 with 4 saves and a 1.93 ERA in 9 games for La Guaira Tiburones in Venezuelan Winter League.

PRO CAREER

2002: Led major league rookies with 25 saves...Was 2 shy of the club-rookie record of 27 saves held by Gregg Olson, set in 1989, despite not having a save opportunity after 8/15…His 27 saves was the 7th highest total ever by a major league rookie…Finished 3rd in the American League Rookie of the Year voting, behind Toronto's Eric Hinske and teammate Rodrigo Lopez…Became the first American League pitcher 23 or younger with more than 20 saves in a season since Olson did it in back-to-back years in 1989 and 1990…Pitched with a lead or tie in all but 11 outings...Held lead or tie in 47 of 56 situations given to him, including 41 of 47 leads…His 1.99 ERA ranked 4th among AL relievers...Also finished 4th in the league with 61 games finished…Opposing batters hit only .213 (55-218) off him, 10th best in AL…Tied Rick Bauer for team lead and for 5th in AL with 6 relief losses…Went 2-0 with 7 saves in 8 opportunities and had a 0.96 ERA in his first 16 games through 5/10…Over his next 9 outings, 5/11-6/2, went 0-4 with 2 saves in 4 chances and a 11.57 ERA (7.0IP, 9ER)…From 6/3 to the end of the season, he appeared in 42 games and registered 16 saves in 19 opportunities, going 3-2 with an 0.85 ERA (42.1IP, 4ER)…Went 22 straight games without allowing an earned run, 6/3-7/30, going 2-1 with 10 saves in 11 attempts (22.2IP, 13H) over that time…Earned his first major league save on 4/16 at New York with 1.2 innings of perfect relief…Suffered his first blown save on 4/19 at Tampa Bay, allowing a game-tying home run by Bobby Smith in the 13th inning, but earned the win when the O's scored in the 14th…Registered saves in back-to-back wins vs. Boston, 4/23-4/24...Was first of 6 times he earned saves in consecutive games…Suffered 2nd blown save and lost on 5/11 at Tampa Bay on a game-winning, 9th inning 3-run home run by Randy Winn…Suffered his 3rd blown save and loss on 5/14 at Cleveland, allowing a game-winning home run to Matt Lawton after a 2-out error extended the 9th inning…Was tagged with the loss in both of the Orioles' setbacks in Seattle series, 5/30 and 6/2…Over his next 35 appearances, 6/3-8/30, he allowed one earned run in 36.0 IP…Earned the win on 6/3 at NY with 1.2 scoreless innings, then earned save on 6/5 at NY, his first save since 5/21...Earned the save in 3 straight outings, 6/5-6/10, and earned the win on 6/11 vs. San Diego after entering with score tied in the 10th…Earned the save in 3 straight games, closing 6/22-6/23 wins at San Francisco & 6/25 vs. New York…Suffered a blown save and a loss on 7/5 at Texas, allowing 2 unearned runs in 1.2 innings...Snapped streaks of 14 scoreless outings and 8 straight saves…Earned his 24th save on 8/10 at Detroit, the 2nd time he earned the save by getting one out...Also got a one-out save on 6/7 vs. LA…Suffered his 6th blown save on an unearned run on 8/14 at Minnesota, pitching 2 innings...Got final 2 outs for his 25th and final save on 8/15 at Minnesota…Entered with a 2-2 tie in 10th on 8/22 vs. Tampa Bay and pitched 2.0 scoreless innings for a 3-2 win…Entered with a 2-2 tie in the 10th on 9/7 vs. Anaheim and took the loss, allowing 2 runs on 2 hits in 10th inning…Did not allow a run over his last 5 outings (4.1IP)...Struck out all 3 batters he faced in the season's final inning on 9/29 vs. New York…Went 0-1 with a 1.35 ERA and converted 10 of 12 save opportunities for La Guaira in the Venezuelan Winter League.

2001: Worked out of bullpen from start of season and, in his first year in Orioles organization and first season above Class A, advanced to major leagues...Had 3 stints with the Orioles after starting the season at AA Bowie…Allowed runs in each of his first 2 big league appearances following the purchase of his contract on 4/24…Did not allow an earned run in 13 of his last 16 outings for the Orioles, pitching to a 1.80 ERA (20.0IP, 7R/4ER)…Allowed 2 earned runs over his last 9 relief outings (12.1IP), both coming in his final 2 appearances of the season 10/5 & 10/6 vs. Boston…Had worked 11.2 consecutive scoreless innings over 7 outings from 9/2-10/3…Earned his first major league win 8/23 at Tampa Bay, preserving a tie with 0.2 inning pitched…Became the 6th Orioles pitcher to earn his first big league victory during 2001, setting a new club record…Took the loss 9/18 at Toronto, allowing a 3-run home run to Alex Gonzalez in 8th inning that broke a 5-5 tie…All 3 runs were unearned…His contract was first purchased on 4/24 from AA Bowie and he pitched in 2 games before being optioned to Bowie on 5/3…In his major league debut 4/26 at Detroit, he allowed 3 runs (2ER) on 2 hits in 0.1 inning…Gave up 3 runs in his second appearance, 5/2 vs. Tampa Bay…Was promoted from Bowie to AAA Rochester on 5/16 before being promoted to the O's a second time on 7/18…He made one relief appearance before being optioned back to Rochester on 7/24…Was recalled on 8/18 from Rochester and remained with the Orioles for remainder of the season…Combined to go 1-2 with 19 saves and a 3.07 ERA in 46 games at the minor league level (55.2IP, 44H, 28R/19ER, 21BB, 62K)…Had 7 saves and a 0.73 ERA in 12 games at AA Bowie and was 1-2 with 12 saves and a 3.74 ERA in 34 games for Rochester…Converted 12 of 15 saves for Rochester and led team in saves…Pitched for La Guaira in the Venezuelan Winter League following the season.

2000: Spent his second season with Class A Jupiter in the Montreal Expos organization…Started in 15 of his first 16 appearances through June…Went 2-9 with a 5.90 ERA in his starts (71.2IP, 83H, 54R/47ER) through June…In his only relief outing during that stretch, he earned his lone save with a 3-inning outing on 5/1 vs. Clearwater…Made his last start on 6/29 before going on the disabled list on 7/14 with a right rotator cuff strain…Returned from DL on 8/25 and pitched out of the bullpen, making 5 relief appearances over the final 8 days of the season…Pitched 4.2 innings and allowed 4 earned runs, but allowed 2 hits and no runs over his final 3 outings…Pitched in Venezuelan Winter League, going 0-2 with 6 saves and a 2.57 ERA with 27 strikeouts in 21 innings for La Guaira.

1999: Led Class A Jupiter in strikeouts (80) and losses (8) and was second starts (22) and innings pitched (115)…Averaged respectable 1.3 baserunners per 9 innings pitched…Went 3-1 with a 2.40 ERA in his first 5 starts but won just once after that.

1998: Spent season in Class A, splitting season between Cape Fear in the South Atlantic League and Vermont in the New York-Penn loop…Combined to go 5-3 with a 3.91 ERA in 13 games, all starts…First win came on June 22 with 6 innings of shutout ball vs. Lowell…Struck out a career-high 11 batters to win his second game, July 2 vs. St. Catharines, also with 6 shutout innings.

1997: Spent most of season with the Expos team in Gulf Coast League…Earned first win on June 30 vs. GCL Braves with 5 IP, 5 H, 1 ER.

1996: Played for Expos' team in the Dominican Summer League…Went 1-1 with a 6.06 ERA in 10 relief appearances, striking out 21 batters in 16.1 IP.

- Orioles' Opening Day starter experienced an up-and-down year, plagued by injury and inconsistency.
- After losing 3 straight starts in April, had only one 2-game winning and one 2-game losing streak the rest of the season.
- Missed 6 weeks with a strained left oblique muscle...Was 0-3 with a 7.31 ERA in 5 starts before the injury and 7-7 with a 5.43 ERA in 20 starts after returning from the disabled list.

•Pitched to a 1.94 ERA (51.0IP, 50H, 11ER) in his 7 wins…Had a 9.18 ERA (51.0IP, 71H, 52ER) in his 10 losses and a 6.31 ERA (45.2IP, 67H, 32ER) in his 9 no-decisions.
•After winning his first 5 decisions in 2002, began the season 0-3, going winless in his first six starts and 8 straight dating back to 2002.
•Missed 6 weeks after being placed on the DL on May 3 with a strained oblique muscle in his left side…Suffered the injury in the 2nd inning of his start on May 1 at Detroit.
•Made 3 rehab starts before being activated, with 2 starts in extended spring training games at the Orioles' minor league complex in Sarasota, FL and one at AA Bowie…Struck out 13 batters in 6.0 IP in his final rehab start with the Baysox on June 9 vs. Reading.
•Was activated on June 15 and started that day vs. Milwaukee, earning his first win of the season.
•Pitched 6.0 or more innings in 12 outings and allowed 3 earned runs or less 11 times.
•Allowed just 28 walks in his last 17 starts, 4 of them intentional passes.
•Six of his 7 wins came at Camden Yards…Went 1-6 on the road with an ERA (6.40) nearly one run higher than at home (5.49).
•Lone road win came on August 23 at New York…Struck out a career-high 10 batters and earned his first career complete-game win as the Orioles defeated the Yankees, 7-2.
•Pitched his first career shutout on September 3 vs. Oakland in a 9-0 win…Had 2 complete games in his last 7 starts.
•Allowed a career-high 8 runs on 4 different occasions, twice vs. Boston (April 6 & September 8) and twice at Toronto (June 26 & July 27)…Allowed 6 or more runs a total of 7 times.
•Best stretch came in a 4-start span, July 1-July 17, when he allowed 5 runs and pitched to a 1.41 ERA while going 2-1…Pitched into the 7th inning in each start.
•Became the Orioles' 4th different Opening Day starter in the last 4 seasons, joining Scott Erickson (2002), Pat Hentgen (2001) and Mike Mussina (1998-2000)…At 27, was the O's youngest Opening Day starting pitcher since Mussina in 1996.
•Became the 7th native Mexican to start on Opening Day on March 31…One night earlier, the Texas Rangers' Ismael Valdes became the 6th pitcher to accomplish the feat.
•Pitched for Culiacan in Mexican Winter League after taking last winter off…Went 1-5 with a 4.69 ERA in 8 starts during regular season…Made 2 playoff starts, going 0-0 but pitching to a 2.45 ERA.

PRO CAREER

2002: Led the Orioles with 15 victories, tops among American League rookies…Finished 2nd to Toronto's Eric Hinske in the American League Rookie of the Year voting and one spot ahead of teammate Jorge Julio...In addition to leading AL rookies in wins, he also led in ERA (3.57), strikeouts (136) and innings pitched (196.2)…Had the most wins by an Orioles rookie since Mike Boddicker won 16 games in 1983...Only Oriole rookie pitchers to win more games were Wally Bunker (19 in 1964), Chuck Estrada (18 in 1960) and Boddicker…Tied former Milwaukee Brewers pitcher Teddy Higuera for most wins by a Mexican-born rookie (1985)…Opponents batted .234 off him, 8th lowest average in AL, and had a .382 slugging percentage, 9th lowest in league...Allowed only 7.87 hits per 9.0 IP, 7th best mark in the AL…Had 13 wins in night games, 3rd most in the AL...Also led the Orioles and was tied for 6th in the AL with 4 pick-offs…In his 28 starts, he went 14-9 with a 3.72 ERA (181.2IP, 75ER)...Won 7 of his first 8 decisions following an Orioles loss and finished 8-5 after an O's setback…Pitched 5.0 or more innings in all but one start and allowed 3 earned runs or less in 19 of 28 outings…Worked 7.0 innings or more in 12 of his last 21 starts and at least 6.0 innings in 18 of his last 21 starts…Had the 9th best run support in American League, 6.22 runs per game...The Orioles scored 93 runs in his 14 wins as a starter, 20 runs in his 9 losses and 23 runs in his 5 non-decision starts…Went 6-0 with a 2.57 ERA in 6 starts in July and was named American League Rookie of the Month…Became the first Orioles pitcher to win 6 games in a calendar month since Mike Boddicker went 6-1 in May 1984 and the first O's pitcher to go 6-0 in a month since Dennis Martinez in May 1979…Had 8 wins at the All-Star break, tied for 2nd most ever by an Orioles rookie behind Estrada's 9 wins in 1960 and the most since Dennis Martinez had 8 wins at the break in 1977…Made the Orioles roster out of spring training and made his first 5 appearances in relief, going 1-0 with a 1.80 ERA (15.0IP, 9H, 3R/ER, 5BB, 13K)…Had 3 relief outings in which he pitched 4.0 scoreless innings of relief...Retired 18 consecutive batters between 3 outings, 4/7-4/14…Earned his first major league win in relief on 4/11 vs. Tampa Bay...Did not allow a baserunner while striking out 4 as the Orioles rallied for a 15-6 win over the Devil Rays…Moved into the starting rotation on 4/24 and won his first 4 starts…Became the 3rd Orioles rookie to start a season 5-0, after Ben McDonald (1990) and Rocky Coppinger (1996)...Fellow rookie Travis Driskill later started 5-0 to join the list…Pitched his first career complete game on 6/12 vs. San Diego, his former team, but lost 2-0...Pitched 8.2 innings in his previous start, a 4-2 win vs. Los Angeles on 6/7…Struck out 8 batters in two straight starts, 7/19 vs. Chicago and 7/26 at Boston, before topping that with a then career-high 9 strikeouts on 8/16 vs. Detroit…Was 12-3 with a 2.94 ERA through July...Went 3-6 with a 4.94 ERA over the final 2 months of the season…During the Orioles' 4-32 season-ending swoon beginning 8/24, he went 1-4 with a 5.50 ERA (36.0IP, 22ER) in 6 starts…Went 4-0 with a 2.48 ERA vs. Boston and 4-0 with a 1.61 ERA vs. Tampa Bay...Did not beat any other team more than once...Was the first Orioles pitcher to defeat an opponent four times in a season since Mike Mussina went 4-0 against Detroit in 1998…Catcher Geronimo Gil was behind the plate in 22 of his 28 starts, marking first Mexican-born battery since 1987 when Los Angeles' Alex Trevino caught 5 of Fernando Valenzuela's starts…Was named "Most Valuable Oriole" in a poll of media who cover the team, the only player named on all 28 ballots...Also was named "Favorite New Oriole" by the Oriole Advocates…Represented the Orioles on Major League Baseball All-Star team that played exhibition series vs. Japanese teams in Japan in November following the season…Was only pitcher to earn 2 wins on trip…Did not play winter ball after the season for the first time.

2001: Went 10-2 with a 2.49 ERA for Culiacan Tomato Growers in the Mexican Winter League…Won all 5 decisions in post-season playoffs, including a complete game 4-hit shutout to clinch Caribbean Series title over Puerto Rico…Combined to go 2-3 with a 2.89 in 20 games between Class A Lake Elsinore and AAA Portland in the San Diego organization…Pitched exclusively in relief for Lake Elsinore while making 8 starts in 11 appearances at Portland…Missed first 2 months of season with a shoulder injury…Returned and allowed 7 runs but only one earned in his 9 relief outings for Lake Elsinore, spanning 13.0 IP…Promoted to AAA Portland on 7/15…Made one start before being sent to bullpen, where he made 3 relief appearances…Returned to starting rotation in August…Yielded 2 runs or fewer in 5 of his last 6 starts.

2000: Became 10th Mexican to play for the Padres, making his major league debut with 6 starts during 2 stints with San Diego (4/28-5/13 and 5/30-6/18)...Went 0-3 with an 8.76 ERA in the 6 outings before being outrighted to AAA Las Vegas for the remainder of the season on 6/19...Limited Atlanta to one run on 4 hits and 2 walks while striking out 5 over 7.0 innings in his major league debut, on 4/29 at San Diego...Left with a 4-1 lead but ended with a no-decision...Picked up his first career hit with a leadoff single off St. Louis' Darryl Kile in the 2nd inning 6/13 at San Diego...Scored his first run on a RBI fielder's choice by Tony Gwynn later in the same inning...Posted an 8-7 record with one complete game and a 4.69 ERA (109.1IP, 57ER) in 20 starts for Las Vegas...In his 8 wins, posted a 1.66 ERA (48.2IP, 9ER) and gave up more than 2 earned runs just once (6/30 vs. Salt Lake)…Threw his lone complete game in a 3-0 loss 5/26 at Edmonton...Won back-to-back starts by not allowing a run in 12.0 consecutive innings 7/16-7/21...Sparked the streak by fanning a season-high 8 batters in the first game of a 7/16 doubleheader at Tucson...Did not allow a home run over his final 4 starts, a span of 22.0 innings.

1999: Made a career-high and team-leading 28 starts at AA Mobile…Tied for the club lead with 10 wins and paced the staff with 169.1 innings pitched and 138 strikeouts...Ranked 4th in the organization in strikeouts and 5th with a 4.41 ERA...Allowed 3 earned runs or fewer in 17 of his 28 starts and worked at least 6.0 innings in 17, including each of his final 6...Walked 3 or fewer in 25 of his 28 starts, including his first 22 in a row and 25 of his first 26...Never walked more than 4 in a game...Won his first 2 starts of the season, allowing only 2 runs on 8 hits in 11.0 innings for a 1.64 ERA...Fanned a season-best 9, on 4/16 vs. Birmingham...Went 5-0 with a 3.83 ERA (56.1IP, 24ER) in 9 starts, 5/24-7/7...On 6/10 at Orlando, fired a rain-shortened 5.1 inning shutout, allowing 4 hits and 2 walks, while striking out 6.

1998: Began season by going 10-6 with a 3.35 ERA with the Mexico City Red Devils of the Mexican Summer League...At conclusion of the Mexican League season, was assigned to AA Mobile, where he helped the BayBears to the Southern League championship....Joined Mobile on 8/21 and went 3-0 with a pair of complete games and a 1.40 ERA in 4 starts...Opponents batted only .219 (21-96) with one home run...In his 2nd start for Orlando, threw a 4-hit shutout, walking one and fanning 7 on 8/27 at Birmingham...Went the distance in a 7-inning victory in first game of a doubleheader on 9/2 vs. Knoxville in his next start, allowing 4 runs (2 earned) on 6 hits...Walked 2 and fanned 6...Closed out the regular season with 6.0 innings of 3-hit shutout ball to beat West Tennessee on 9/7...Walked none and struck out 6...Made one post-season start and was the winning pitcher in Mobile's Southern League championship-clinching win vs. Jacksonville on 9/18…Allowed 2 hits and one run over 8.0 innings, walking 2 and striking out 5…Went 2-5 with a 2.93 ERA in 13 games (12 starts) for Culiacan of the Mexican Pacific League...Opponents hit .193, with only 51 hits in 76.2 innings...Walked 30 and struck out 52...Following the playoffs, was added to the roster of league champion Mexicali to participate in the Caribbean Series.

•Began the season at Delmarva and combined with 2 relievers to come within one strike of hurling the first Opening Day perfect game in South Atlantic League history on April 3 vs. Charleston-WV...Hurled 5.0 perfect frames with 7 strikeouts but did not get the decision in the Shorebirds' 5-0 win.
•Was 0-1 in his first 3 starts of the year at Delmarva despite pitching to a 1.29 ERA (14.0IP, 2ER).
•Went 5-0 over his next 6 starts with a 1.34 ERA (33.2IP, 18H, 5R/ER).
•Allowed 4 earned runs in a start on June 1 at Hagerstown, the only time he allowed more than 2 earned runs for Delmarva...Allowed one earned run or less in 11 of 14 outings.
•Aside from his start on June 1, in which he surrendered 4 runs, he allowed 3 runs (one earned) in only one other outing.
•Walked 2 batters or less in 13 of 14 starts at Delmarva...Had a K/BB ratio of 6/1 with the Shorebirds (108/18).
•Started the SAL All-Star Game on June 24 and retired all 6 batters faced, including 3 strikeouts...Was promoted to Frederick the next day and was leading the SAL in ERA and strikeouts at the time.
•Appeared in the All-Star Futures Game at U.S. Cellular Field in Chicago, retiring both batters he faced.
•Threw a 7-inning no-hitter in his 2nd start for Frederick in Game 2 of a July 3 doubleheader at Winston-Salem, winning 3-0 with 8 strikeouts and facing one batter over the minimum and throwing just 84 pitches...A first-inning error by 1B Mike Huggins prevented a perfect game.
•It was the only no-hitter in the Carolina League during the year and 3rd in Frederick's 15-year history, first since Erik Schullstrom's on 7/3/91.
•Allowed 8 runs on 8 hits in 4.1 IP in his only loss for Frederick, on July 30 at Salem...Otherwise, pitched to a 2.18 ERA for Keys.
•Allowed 2 runs or fewer in 4 straight starts, August 4-20, going 2.0 with a 2.66 ERA (23.2IP, 17H, 7 R/ER, 5BB, 29K).
•Won his final 3 starts of the year, pitching to a 1.74 ERA during that span (20.2 IP, 4 ER).
•With Delmarva, struck out career-high 12 batters in 6.0 IP on June 6 vs. Lakewood...Also struck out 11 batters twice and 10 batters once for the Shorebirds.
•Had a Frederick season-high 10 Ks on 8/20 vs. Lynchburg.

PRO CAREER

2002: Reported to Class A Aberdeen after signing in July and did not allow a run in 3 of his 4 appearances…Earned the win in his last outing with the IronBirds on 7/27 vs. Tri-City, pitching 5.0 scoreless innings and striking out 8…Transferred to Class A Delmarva and did not allow an earned run over his first 8 games (16.0 IP)…In his 4th outing on 8/18, allowed one run in 6.0 innings while striking out 11 to earn the win at Columbus…Struck out a combined 60 batters in 43.1 IP while holding opponents to a .172 batting average…Following the season, was ranked as the Orioles' 8th best prospect by Baseball America.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 44th anniversary this summer. Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

Now in their 25th year, the Orioles Designated Hitters are a group of volunteers from throughout the community that help the Orioles increase their season ticket sales base. Through their efforts, the Orioles were able to raise their season ticket sales from 1,600 in 1979 to more than 27,500 in 1992 when Camden Yards opened. The current role of the Orioles DHs includes helping the ballclub with ticket sales to businesses and organizations throughout the Orioles region.

Members of the 2004 Designated Hitters Advisory Committee include Glenn Babcock, Harry Baumohl, John Church, Hal Hackerman, Jack Hughes, Bill Jones, Bill Michael, Jody Palmisano, Reginald Warren, and Scott Zimmerman.

DID YOU KNOW...????

•Orioles Infielder Wayne Gross became the only player in major league history to hit at least 10 homers and drive in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1985. He hit 11 homers and had 18 RBI that season. Orioles catcher Chris Hoiles holds the record for fewest RBI (40) for a player with 20 home runs, set in 1992.

•The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was in 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25 wins) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.

•Orioles Hall of Fame hurler Jim Palmer is the only pitcher to win a World Series game in 3 different decades.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. Among this year's highlights are exhibits on: Babe Ruth, the Orioles 50th anniversary and the history of the Baltimore Colts.

This season, the Museum's popular Summer Saturdays program will feature guest speakers on such topics as the Negro Leagues, memorabilia collecting, ballpark mascots, and sports writing, as well as several directly related to the Orioles' 50th anniversary. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum plans to expand into a second facility: Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos has donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station will feature many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on children learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum will continue to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites.

For Museum hours, upcoming exhibits and other information, call the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum at 410-727-1539, or visit the Museum's web site at www.baberuthmuseum.com.

IRONMAN: His 154 games in 2003 were his fewest in a full season since 1990…Over the last 13 seasons (1991-2003) has played in 98% (1999 of 2039) of his team's games…Has never played in fewer than 152 games in any of 14 full big league seasons…Has played in 160 or more games 4 times, last in 2001…Appeared in all 162 Orioles' games in 1998, starting 161...Did not start on 9/18/98 vs. New York but appeared as a pinch-hitter...With teammate B.J. Surhoff, became the 6th and 7th – and last – different Orioles to ever accomplish that feat.

•Tied for 5th in the American League in homers (38), was 7th in RBI (112), and tied for 9th in walks (84)…Ranked 2nd on the Rangers in all 3 departments, placed 3rd in games and runs and was 4th in at-bats, hits, and total bases.
•Became just the 19th player in major league history to hit 500 home runs and extended his own big league record with his 9th consecutive season of at least 38 homers.
•Produced 35+ homers and 100+ RBI for the 9th consecutive season, matching Jimmie Foxx (1932-40) and Sammy Sosa (1995-2003) for the longest such streak in major league history.
•His 38 or more homers in each of last the 9 years is 2 more than any player ever (Babe Ruth, 1926-32)…Was his 10th career 30-homer season, the 9th straight to tie the 3rd longest streak in history.
•Homered at least 20 times for the 13th consecutive year (starting 1991), tying the 7th-longest span ever…Homered once every 14.8 at-bats, 6th best in the AL.
•Drove in 100+ runs for the 10th time and the 9th consecutive year…Had an RBI every 5.0 trips, 5th in the league.
•Had a career-high 7 RBI on July 28 at Seattle and drove in 4 runs on 3 occasions…Had 33 RBI in a 27 game span, July 27-August 26, including 19 in the first 11 contests of that stretch.
•No. 500: Connected for the 500th home run of his career off Cleveland's David Elder on May 11 at Texas…Was the 19th player to reach that milestone, just the 2nd born outside the United States (Sammy Sosa was the first)…Homer came age of 38 years, 230 days, the 5th oldest to accomplish that feat, in his 9116th at-bat, 4th highest total…Was the 2nd player to hit #500 on Mother's Day (Mickey Mantle on May 14, 1967) and the first to do so without a career 3-home run game.
•Had 2 homers in a game twice, June 25 vs. Oakland and July 28 at Seattle…Had 24 solo homers, 5 with one on, 8 with 2 aboard and his 11th career grand slam on July 28 at Seattle.
•Seven of his 11 career slams came as a Ranger, tying Juan Gonzalez' club mark.
•Homered in 3 straight games twice, April 8-11 and August 1-3…Homered 15 times off left-handers, 3rd most in AL and matching his career high (1997 and 1998).
•Became the 6th player in major league history to appear in at least 150 games in as many as 14 seasons…Joined former Orioles Eddie Murray (16 years), Cal Ripken (15) and Brooks Robinson (14), along with all-time leader Pete Rose (17) and Hank Aaron (14).
•Started 95 games at designated hitter and 55 at first base…Made 54 of final 56 starts as DH, including the final 25 beginning September 1.
•Was just the 3rd time, and 2nd straight year, since 1989 he had played fewer than 100 games at first base.
•His .260 average was the 2nd lowest of his career…Hit .254 with the Orioles in 1997.
•Hit .231 (15-65) in first 19 games through April 23…Had a .316 (31-98) mark in next 27 games, improving to .282 on May 25…Overall, compiled a .295 (46-156) mark over 44 games, April 24-June 17, giving him a .276 average.
•Batted just .171 (21-123) in next 34 games, dropping to .238 on July 26…Went on a .353 (36-102) tear in the next 27 contests and was at .265 through August 26 before hitting .243 (28-115) in his last 30 games.
•Had a pair of 10-game hitting streaks, August 13-23 and Sept. 9-18…Had a season-best 3 hits on 7 occasions.
•Hit .313 (46-147) with runners in scoring position and .356 (16-45) with men on base…Was 5-for-11 (.455) with the bases loaded.
•Reached base safely via hit or walk in 53 of his last 57 games…Grounded into just 7 double plays in 561 at-bats, an average of one every 80.1 AB that was the 10th best ratio in the AL.
•Triple on August 10 at Toronto was his first since 9/17/00 vs. Kansas City.
•Fielded .996 (496 TC/2 E) in 55 games at first base…Has a career percentage of .99432 (17,434 TC/99 E) in 1916 games, which ranks 14th all-time among first basemen with 7,000 or more chances.
•Was honored by appearing on the front of Wheaties cereal boxes…Unveiling took place on September 16 in Texas.

PRO CAREER

2002: Missed the entire season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in his right knee in an exhibition game against the Minnesota Twins in Ft. Myers on 3/5…Spent most of the summer in Baltimore rehabbing the knee.
2001: Was up with the Orioles for 3 separate stints, pitching primarily out of the bullpen…He worked as both a starter and reliever for AAA Rochester most of the season…Was first recalled by the Orioles on 6/1 and made 9 relief appearances before being optioned back to the Red Wings on 6/25…Went 0-0 with a 6.75 ERA (9.1IP, 7ER) and appeared in 7 of the O's last 11 games before he was sent back…Allowed a home run to Olmedo Saenz, the first batter he faced after his first recall, on 6/3 at Oakland…Retired 8 of the next 11 first batters he faced after that before allowing a first-batter hit in his last 3 relief outings…Was recalled to make a spot start in the opener of a 7/25 doubleheader at Texas…Allowed 6 runs (4 earned) in 6.0 innings and suffered the loss and was returned to Rochester between games of the doubleheader…Struck out Jose Cruz Jr. with 2 out and 2 runners on in the 6th inning on 9/20 at Toronto, then earned the win when the O's came back with a 6-run 7th inning to take the lead…Took the loss on 9/23 vs. New York, walking Bernie Williams with the bases loaded for the eventual game-winning run in the 10th inning…Opened the season in Rochester's starting rotation and went 2-3 with a 4.30 ERA (37.2IP, 42H, 18ER) in 7 starts…Moved to the bullpen in mid-May and went 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA (10.1IP, 2H) in 6 appearances, retiring 31 of 33 batters faced, before being recalled by the Orioles on 6/1…As a starter for Rochester, he went 5-7 with a 3.92 ERA in 18 starts…Overall, he made 7 relief appearances, going 1-0 with a 0.87 ERA, allowing a home run to the only batter he faced in his last relief outing…Finished 5th in the International League with 126 strikeouts…His 8.44 K/9 IP was 4th best among IL starters…Worked 7.0 or more innings in 9 of his last 10 starts at Rochester, going 3-3 with a 2.60 ERA (72.2 IP, 57 H, 32 R/21 ER)…Opponents batted only .241 off him, tied for 5th best in the league.
2000: Made 8 appearances, all as a starter, in 2 stints with the Orioles…His contract was purchased from AAA Rochester on 7/19 when reliever Darren Holmes was released, and he stayed with the Orioles for all but 6 days the rest of the season…Made his major league debut on 7/24 at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees…He struck out 9 batters in 7.0 innings, matching Sammy Stewart's 1978 club record for most strikeouts in a major league debut…In his debut, Parrish struck out the side in the first inning, retiring the Yankees' Chuck Knoblauch, Derek Jeter and Bernie Williams…He was the first pitcher to strike out the first 3 major league batters he faced since Oakland's Blake Stein did it on 5/10/98, fanning Chicago's Ray Durham, Magglio Ordonez and Frank Thomas…Began season at AA Bowie, going 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA in 3 starts before being promoted to Rochester on 4/23…Through his first 10 starts at Rochester, was 2-4 with a 5.20 ERA (53.2IP, 31ER)…Over his next 7 starts, beginning 6/16, he went 4-2 with a 3.09 ERA (43.2IP, 17R/15ER) before joining the Orioles…Struck out a career-high 12 batters over 7 innings in 7-2 win over Richmond on 6/26…At the time he joined the Orioles, Parrish was 4th in the International League with 82 strikeouts, despite not joining the Red Wings until the third week of the season…He finished 4th in the IL in strikeouts per 9 IP (7.48) and 5th in batting average against (.235)…He pitched at least 5.1 innings in each of his first 5 starts for the Orioles, going 2-1 with a 4.40 ERA (30.2IP, 16R/15ER)…Over his final 3 starts, however, he pitched a combined 5.2 innings, allowing 16 runs (14 ER)…He was optioned to Rochester on 8/31 to make one start for the Red Wings, taking the loss 9/3 at Buffalo (6.2IP, 3ER)…He was recalled on 9/5 and made one start, 9/12 at Texas, lasting 1.2 innings…Averaged 18.6 baserunners per 9.0IP (40H, 35BB, 36.1IP), which would have been highest in the AL if he had enough innings to qualify…Teammate Pat Rapp led the league, averaging 15.1 baserunners per 9.0 IP…He left games with a lead in 4 of his 8 outings with the Orioles…His first 2 major league starts came against New York's Roger Clemens and Cleveland's Chuck Finley, who had combined for 412 career victories entering the 2000 season…Parrish's debut vs. New York on 7/24 marked the first start by an Orioles lefthander since Doug Johns started the next to last game of the 1999 season, 10/2 vs. Boston.
1999: Pitched at Delmarva, Frederick and Bowie, striking out 96 batters in 102.1 IP…Made 4 relief appearances at Delmarva before joining Frederick and going into the rotation…Won his final two starts with the Keys, striking out 17 in 13.2 IP…Transferred to Bowie and had a 2.81 ERA (32.0IP/10ER) through his first 6 starts, but did not receive a decision…Had a 6.15 ERA (21.2IP/15ER) over his next four starts…In 15 games with Bowie, opposing batters had a .525 on-base percentage to lead off innings.
1998: From 5/1 on, went 4-3 with a 2.26 ERA (63.2IP, 16ER) in 12 starts, with 66 Ks…Lefties hit .191 (9-47) off him on the season…Was a spring training invitee to major league camp and started for the Orioles in the Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown, NY vs. Toronto on 7/27, allowing 1 run in 4.0 IP.
1997: Combined to go 5-6 with a 4.23 ERA in 29 games (100.0IP, 95H, 47ER, 50BB, 96K) for Delmarva, Frederick and Bowie…Called up for spot start for Bowie on 6/17 at Norwich and won, 5-1, allowing first inning run...Went 2-3 with a 5.06 ERA in 10 games for Maui in the Hawaiian Winter League following the season.

1996: Combined to go 4-1 with 3 saves and a 2.20 ERA between Gulf Coast and Bluefield (32.2IP, 8ER)...Allowed 24 hits, walked 20 and struck out 51...Led Gulf Coast relievers in strikeouts/9IP (15.36)...Opposing hitters in the 2 leagues batted only .200 (24-120) against him.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Two sets of brothers and five father-son combinations have played for the Orioles. The brother combos are the Ripkens, Cal (1981-2001) and Bill (1987-92 & 1996); and catcher Dick Brown ('63-'65) and his brother Larry ('73), an infielder. The father-son duos are third baseman Boo Kennedy ('54-'55) and his son, catcher Terry ('87-'88); outfielders Don Buford ('68-'72) and his son Damon ('93-'95); pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. ('68) and John Jr. ('93); outfielders Dave May ('67-'70) and his son, Derrick (1999); and outfielders Tim Raines Sr. and his son Tim Jr. (2001).

Raines Sr. and Jr. were only the second father-son teammates in major league history. Ken Griffey Sr. and Jr. played together for Seattle in 1990-1991.

•Suffered through a 3rd straight injury-plagued season…Played in only 67 games, with 3 trips to the disabled list.
•Went on the DL for the 3rd and final time on July 27, and on September 8 underwent surgery to repair a tendon in his left wrist.
•Began the season on the DL, missing 4 games with a non-displaced right thumb fracture suffered while fielding grounders on March 12 at Ft. Myers.
•Went 1-for-4 on April 4 on a rehab assignment at Class A Frederick, playing in the Keys' season opener as a DH vs. Lynchburg before being activated.
•Hit safely in 9 of his first 10 games through April 17, batting .441 (15-34)…Only game in which he did not hit safely came on April 9 at Tampa Bay, when he was ejected by home plate umpire Joe West for arguing a check-swing strikeout in the first inning.
•Had a 6-game hitting streak, April 10-17, batting .500 (11-22) with 4 straight multi-hit games, including 2 hits on April 17 at Cleveland, before leaving with a strained right hamstring.
•Went on the DL on April 23, retro to April 18, with the hamstring injury…Was activated on May 3.
•Had 3 hits on May 13 at Chicago, his 2nd consecutive 3-hit game and 4th of the season…Had 3 hits with a home run on May 11 at Kansas City.
•Also had 3 hits on April 13 at Boston and on May 7 vs. Detroit.
•Was batting .387 (29-75) through May 13, but hit only .201 (30-149) the rest of the season.
•Drew a career-high 4 walks on May 31 vs. Texas.
•Started 5 games at 1B...First appearance there came on June 5 at Houston, his first since April 18, 2002.
•Hit his 7th career grand slam off Anaheim's Francisco Rodriguez on July 20 after entering in the 3rd inning when Melvin Mora left the game after being hit by a pitch.
•Had 4 RBI in 28 games starting May 31 before the grand slam on July 20 vs. Anaheim.
•Had 2 hits each on July 20 vs. Anaheim and July 21 vs. Texas, his first back-to-back multi-hit games since May 27-28 vs. Anaheim.
•Has played more games (1,438) than any active player without appearing in the post-season.
•Did not commit an error in 58 chances at 1st base...His .99536 pct. (9269 TC, 43 E) ranks 4th all-time among first basemen behind Steve Garvey (.99594), Don Mattingly (.99582), Wes Parker (.99567) and J.T. Snow (.99546).
•Has played only 175 of 486 games since re-signing with the Orioles before the 2001 season…Orioles were 73-92 (.442) in games he started and 128-192 (.400) in games he didn't start.

DID YOU KNOW...????

- Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the 5th inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.
- Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, the only reliever to fan more than 9 batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix holds the Orioles regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever in a game, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.
- The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured 4 players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384), Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).
- Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit 3 triples in one game. He did it Sept. 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.
- Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that 3 straight seasons since 1951.

•Overcame a slow start to finish with a .278 batting average, 27 home runs and 106 RBI in his final season with Oakland.
•Tied for 10th in the American League in RBI and drove in 100 runs for the 4th consecutive season...Became the 5th player in A's history with at least four straight 100 RBI seasons, joining Al Simmons (1924-32), Bob Johnson (1935-41), Jimmie Foxx (1929-35) and Jason Giambi (1998-01).
•Tied for 8th in the AL with a career-high 42 doubles, the 3rd best total in Oakland history behind Giambi (47 in 2001) and Eric Chavez (43 in 2001).
•Led the A's in games (162), at-bats (636), runs (98), hits (177), doubles (42) and RBI and tied for the team lead in stolen bases (10).
•Batted just .176 (23-131) over his first 32 games but then hit .305 (154-505) over his final 130 games starting on May 7...His final .278 average was highest it was all season and was the 2nd best mark of his career.
•Has 156 career home runs, tied for 9th with Joe Cronin on baseball's all-time list for home runs as a shortstop…Ranked 2nd among major league shortstops in RBI (Alex Rodriguez, 116) and 4th in home runs.
•Appeared in all 162 games for the 3rd straight season, running his consecutive games streak to 594...It's the longest active streak in the majors and 20th longest streak in major league history.
•Last missed a game on 5/31/00...Has missed total of 82 innings over the last 3 seasons...Since reaching majors for good on 5/30/98, started 902 of the A's 920 games at shortstop and has missed just 10 games.
•Played in his 500th consecutive game on June 17 vs. Texas to become the 32nd player (34th time) in major league history to reach 500 (Alex Rodriguez later became the 33rd).
•Since the start of Cal Ripken's record 2,632-game streak in 1982, only Dale Murphy (740) has played in more consecutive games.
•Struck out a career-low 65 times and averaged one strikeout per 10.8 plate appearances, the 6th best mark in the AL…Had averaged one strikeout per 6.8 plate appearances in his career entering the 2003 season.
•Tied for 8th in the AL with 636 at-bats, the 4th highest season total in Oakland history…On Oakland's career lists, ranks 7th in home runs (156) and RBI (604), 8th in extra-base hits (358), 9th in doubles (191) and slugging percentage (.460) and 10th in runs scored (574).
•Among AL shortstops, he and Alex Rodriguez were only two ranked in top 3 in hits, doubles, HR, RBI, runs, walks and slugging.
•Swung at 10.2 percent of first pitches faced (72 of 703), the 6th lowest percentage in the majors last season.
•Finished 2nd among major league shortstops with 751 total chances behind Kansas City's Angel Berroa (760)...Had 4.64 total chances per game, 5th best among major league shortstops with 100 games played.
•Topped the majors with 490 assists…Committed 21 errors, equaling the 2nd highest total of his career and 3rd most in the majors behind Atlanta's Rafael Furcal (31) and Berroa (24).
•Had a career-high 32-game errorless streak, May 8 to June 13…Made 10 errors in his first 33 games, 3 over his next 80 and 8 in his final 49 games.
•Was 5-for-17 (.294) with the bases loaded with 2 grand slams and has batted .315 (35-111) with 7 grand slams in his career with the bags full.

2003 YEAR IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW—THE ORIOLES IN 2003

The Orioles went 71-91 in 2003, marking their 6th straight losing season and 4th place finish in the American League East...It was the third straight year and the 8th time in club history they lost 90 or more games in a season…The Birds' 71 wins in 2003 were their highest total since winning 74 games in 2000.

BATTING: After finishing last in the American League in batting the previous two years, the Orioles were 8th in the AL with a .268 average in 2003…The 22-point improvement over 2002 (.246) was the highest in the league.

THREE SEASONS: The Orioles batted .251 (359-1428) and scored 4.5 runs per game (191 total) over their first 43 games of the season, going 20-23…Between May 18 and August 10, they went 38-36 and were 2nd in the majors with a .292 average (767-2626) while scoring 5.4 runs per game (396 total)…Over their last 47 games of the year, the Birds went 14-32 (including one tie) and batted .242 (390-1611) while averaging 3.3 runs per game (156 total).

LUMBER NUMBERS: The Orioles had 10 or more hits in 77 games on the season, including 9 straight, May 18-28…They had a season-high 21 hits in a 13-inning game on September 5 vs. Seattle and scored a season-high 15 runs in the first game of a doubleheader on May 9 at Kansas City…The Birds scored at least 10 runs in 3 straight games, May 24-27, the 3rd time in club history they've accomplished that feat…They also did it in 1983 and 1996.

PITCHING: The Orioles were 10th in the American League with a 4.76 ERA…After having a 5.05 ERA through the end of June, the Birds rebounded to post a 4.48 ERA over the final three months of the season.

THAT'S QUALITY: Orioles starters went 54-62 and were 10th in the American League with a 4.86 ERA…Starters had a "Quality Start" in 73 of 163 games last season…Orioles starters pitched 41 "Quality Starts" over their final 83 games over the year, going 27-29 with a 4.54 ERA (511.0IP, 258ER)…Prior to that, they had earned 14 "Quality Starts" in their previous 48 games…In the first three months of the season, Orioles starters had 32 "Quality Starts" in 80 games and a 5.20 ERA…Starters had a streak of 10 consecutive "Quality Starts", July 9-21, during which they went 6-1 with a 2.14 ERA.

RELIEVERS: Orioles relievers were 17-29 and 9th in the American League with a 4.57 ERA…They converted 41 of 62 save opportunities for the season (66.1%)…Their 29 losses were tied for 2nd most in the league…Buddy Groom led the league by stranding 85.4% of his inherited runners…B.J. Ryan was 2nd among AL relievers with 11.26 strikeouts per 9.0 innings and Jorge Julio was 4th in the league with 36 saves.

ANOTHER THREE SEASONS: Orioles relievers had a 3.30 ERA through their first 29 games of the season (95.1IP, 35ER)…Over their next 96 games, concluding with a stretch in which they allowed a run in 12 straight appearances, the bullpen pitched to a 5.41 ERA (269.1IP, 162ER)…Over their final 38 games, however, O's relievers posted a 3.64 ERA (113.2IP, 46ER).

BEHIND THE NUMBERS: The Orioles pitched to a 2.93 ERA (648.0IP, 592H, 211ER) in their 71 wins last season, allowing 10 or more hits 20 times…In their 91 losses, they posted a 6.26 ERA (796.2IP, 982H, 555ER) and allowed 10 or more hits 54 times.

BEHIND THE NUMBERS II: In games the Orioles won last year, the bullpen pitched to a 2.45 ERA (183.2IP, 50ER)…They allowed 3 or more runs in only 7 games and 37 times they did not allow a run…In the Orioles' losses last year, relievers had a 5.89 ERA (294.1IP, 193ER)…They allowed 3 runs or more 37 times and they did not surrender a single run in 17 games.

EARLY AND OFTEN: The Orioles scored 5 or more runs in the first inning six times in 2003 and outscored their opponents 183-144 in the first two innings on the season…In outscoring their opponents by 39 runs in the first two frames, it was the 3rd largest positive run differential in the American League and the 6th largest in the majors.

CLOSE CALLS: The Orioles had 79 games decided by one or two runs in 2003, tied with Oakland for second most in the American League behind Tampa Bay (90)…Forty-three (43) of the Orioles' final 73 games were decided by 2 runs or less and 26 of their 45 losses in that stretch came by one or two runs.

HOME SWEET HOME: The Orioles went 40-40 at Camden Yards, the first time in three seasons they did not have a losing record at home…They batted .275 at home, had a 4.22 ERA and held opponents to a .264 average…On the road, the Birds batted .260 and posted a 5.34 ERA, while opponents hit .292…Luis Matos finished 3rd in the American League with a .350 batting average at home.

ON THE FAKE STUFF: The Orioles went 7-15 on artificial turf last season, going 2-7 at Tampa Bay, 4-6 at Toronto and 1-2 at Minnesota…They had a 5.85 ERA, while their opponents batted .319.

FEELING LEFT OUT: The Orioles went 17-30 against left-handed starters last season, the second-worst winning percentage in the American League…They went 16-28 against lefties in 2002, which was the 3rd lowest percentage in the league.

RUNNING IN THE WRONG DIRECTION: The Orioles were 8th in the American League with 89 stolen bases, marking the first time since 1998 they did not reach the 100 stolen-base plateau…The Birds were 4th in the AL with 73 stolen bases in 98 attempts (74.4%) through August 2, including 14 games with two or more stolen bases…Over their final 56 games, however, they had just 16 stolen bases in 27 attempts (59.3%), with no games with more than one stolen base.

LATE FADE: After winning 3 of 4 games against the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park, the Orioles had a 57-59 record on August 10…The Birds then suffered an 8-game losing streak to begin a stretch in which they went 14-32 for the remainder of the year…The Orioles went 78-144 (.351) in the second half over the last three seasons, the second worst record in the major leagues behind the Detroit Tigers' 72-152 (.321) mark.

STREAKING: In a 21-game stretch from August 11 to September 2, the Orioles had losing streaks of 8 and 9 games sandwiched around a 4-game winning streak…It marked the 6th straight year the Orioles have had a losing streak of 9 or more games (8 total over that time)…The O's won the first 6 games of the second half, marking their longest winning streak since June 2000.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: Jay Gibbons was voted the winner of the 2003 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland…Gibbons led the team in runs (80), RBI (100), hits (173) and doubles (39) and was second in home runs (23) while playing in all but 3 games on the season…He received 22 of 26 first place votes...At 26 years old, Gibbons became the youngest Oriole to win the award since Gregg Olson (22) in 1989.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games, all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '66, '62, and 8 others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:59 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:59 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect...Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, Kansas City A's-2, New York Yankees-3, Milwaukee-1, Oakland-1, and Texas-1.

Legend: 1-includes Los Angeles, '61-'65; and California, '61-'96.

ALL-TIME SERIES NOTES: In 2001, the Phillies won the season series for the first time, 4-2, taking 2 of 3 games in series at Philadelphia and Baltimore...The Phillies combined for 36 runs, 45 hits and 20 extra-base hits in the first series at Veterans Stadium in June...On 7/9/00, Will Clark delivered a game-winning, two-run single in the 9th inning as the O's defeated the Phillies, 5-4...On 6/5/99, Mike Bordick's single in the 10th inning gave the Orioles a 7-6 win...On 7/10/99, Mike Mussina struck out 12 batters in the Orioles' 8-4 win...The Orioles won 2 of 3 games against the Phillies at Veterans Stadium in 1998...In the series opener, Doug Johns went 2-for-2, becoming the first Oriole pitcher to have two hits in a game since Dave McNally in '72...Brady Anderson went 5-for-10 with a double and triple in the series and the Orioles bullpen combined to go 2-0 with an 0.93 ERA...The Orioles swept the Phillies in a three-game series at Camden Yards in '97...In the series opener, Mike Mussina won his 100th career game and Cal Ripken broke the game open with a grand slam in the third inning...The following night, Randy Myers struck out the side in the ninth for his 300th career save...President Bill Clinton threw out the first pitch in the series finale...The Orioles won, 10-6, when they rallied for six runs in the final two innings, keyed by a three-run double by Jeff Reboulet...The only other time the teams have played was in 1983, when the Orioles defeated the Phillies 4 games to 1 in the World Series.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer; Jim Thome; Curt Schilling; Al Leiter; Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

John Hancock Financial Services, a company that has long recognized its obligation to the community, is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the Roberto Clemente Award.

ORIOLES 2003 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

OTTAWA (AAA)

The Lynx finished their first season as the Orioles' AAA Affiliate with a 79-65 record and in 2nd place of the North Division of the International League, 4.0 games behind Pawtucket. The Lynx concluded the season by winning 12 of their last 14 games, which included a 10-game winning streak. Ottawa made the playoffs and lost their best-of-five series against Pawtucket, 3 games to 2. Pedro Swann was named Ottawa's Player of the Year after batting .280 and leading the team with 10 home runs. After batting just .190 with 2 home runs and 7 RBI in his first 26 games of the season, Jack Cust hit .317 with 7 home runs and 51 RBI over his final 71 games. He led the team in RBI (58), walks (80) and strikeouts (94) and was leading the IL with a .422 on-base percentage at the time of his 3rd and final recall to the Orioles on August 5. Carlos Mendez led the Lynx with a .347 average in 61 games and spent three months of the season with the Orioles. Eddy Garabito led the team in hits (129), total bases (176), doubles (28) and at-bats (459). John Stephens finished 4th in the league in strikeouts (132) and innings pitched (156.2). Eric DuBose finished 7th in the IL with a 3.39 ERA and was 2nd on the Lynx with 9 wins despite being recalled by the Orioles on July 22 and spending the rest of the season with the big league club. Matt Riley joined Ottawa in late June and went 4-2 with a 3.58 ERA in 13 starts. Darwin Cubillan led the league with 65 appearances and led the team with 20 saves. The Lynx finished tied for the league lead with a .281 batting average and were 2nd in the league with a 3.66 ERA.

BOWIE (AA)

The Baysox went 69-72 and finished in 4th place in the Southern Division of the Eastern League, 19.0 games behind Akron. It was the Baysox' best record since 1999. ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2004 First Year Player Draft will be held June 7-9. The Orioles will have the 8th pick in the first round of the draft, the 4th straight year they will have a top ten selection. The First Year Player Draft began in 1965. The first player selected by the Orioles who played for the parent club was their 8th round pick in that draft, RHP Bill Dillman, out of Wake Forest University. The most dazzling 1-2 picks in O's history came out of the '67 June draft: No. 1 Bobby Grich and No. 2 Don Baylor. The Orioles selected a record 4 players in the first round of the 1999 draft as compensation for free agents lost the previous year.

RIPKEN SR. AND RUSSO AWARDS PRESENTED

The Orioles instituted two new awards in 2003 to honor an outstanding members of the player development and scouting staffs.

AA Bowie manager Dave Trembley was named winner of the first Cal Ripken Sr. Player Development Award, presented to a minor league staff member who exemplifies the qualities of the late Oriole who is regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way." Trembley guided the Baysox to a 69-72 record in his first year in the Orioles organization, which was a 13 1/2 game improvement over the previous season. He also joined the Orioles major league coaching staff in September.

The first Jim Russo Scout of the Year Award was presented to area scout Lamar North. The award was named for the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. North has scouted Georgia, Tennessee and other southern states for the Orioles since 1977. Among his signees is current Oriole Brian Roberts.

TENS ARE WILD

The Orioles became only the second team to score 10 or more runs in an inning in consecutive games in 2000. They had a 10-run 4th inning on September 28 vs. Toronto and followed it up the next night, September 29, with a 10-run 2nd inning vs. the New York Yankees. The Houston Astros had an 11-run inning and a 10-run inning in a doubleheader vs. the New York Mets on July 30, 1969.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 201-151, over the last 50 years (including post-season)...They have a 110-67 advantage in Baltimore, including a 35-26 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. ORIOLES AMONG MAJORS LEADERS SINCE 1980: The Orioles have belted 114 grand slams starting in 1980, tied with Boston for second place...Seattle has hit 118 grand slams in that time period, the most in the majors. THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record 3 grand slams on Aug. 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit 4th inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the 5th time in history one club has hit 2 grand slams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam. Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987. TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit 2 grand slams in the same game and three times it has been done by an Oriole. Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on Aug. 14, 1996 at Cleveland, connecting in the 3rd and 8th innings. Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among 4 players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the 1st and 2nd innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the 5th and 8th innings at Washington on June 26, 1970. GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit 5 bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with 6 grand slams in '87. POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only 2 major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar 's slam was the first in LCS history. OPPONENTS: The 2000 Orioles allowed a club-record 9 grand slams...The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The '78 O's allowed slams in 3 straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit...Seattle's Edgar Martinez is the only active player with 3 grand slams against the Orioles...Ken Griffey Jr., with 2, is the only other active player with more than one...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up 2 grand slams against the Orioles and the 3rd to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago 's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1955). GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up 6 bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up 9 overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for most career grand slams allowed...Dave McNally and Scott McGregor are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing 4 apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed 4 grand slams, including one in post-season play)...Among current O's hurlers, Sidney Ponson has given up 3 slams as an Oriole...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

The Orioles haven't had an inside-the-park homer to call their own since June 8, '90 when outfielder Phil Bradley did it at Memorial Stadium...He victimized the Yankees' Greg Cadaret. Bradley's homer was the 11th and final inside-the-park job at Memorial Stadium (10th by an Oriole) and the first for the O's at home since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, April 19, '74.

Bradley's blast remains the only Oriole inside-the-park homer, home or away, since Bumbry did it against Jesse Jefferson of the White Sox at old Comiskey Park, August 21, '76.

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat on May 8 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen. Hentgen was victimized again on September 13 at Toronto, giving up an inside-the-park homer to Blue Jays catcher Greg Myers.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 19 seasons, Oriole pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons in the past 36 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (14), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Dodgers (10) and Red Sox (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24 -first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24 -2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67), was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Yankees Hall of Famer Whitey Ford, who retired in 1967, has beaten the Orioles more than any other pitcher. He was 30-16 against the Birds and is one of 14 pitchers to have posted 20 or more wins lifetime against the O's. The others: Jim "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Roger Clemens (22-12), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Frank Tanana (21-17), Jim Kaat (21-21), Andy Pettitte (20-4), Earl Wilson (20-9), Bert Blyleven (20-14), Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (both 20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23). Among active hurlers, Clemens has the most wins against the Orioles, followed by Pettitte, Jamie Moyer (14-2), David Wells (13-10), Kelvim Escobar (10-2) and Kenny Rogers (10-8).

LOSERS: "Catfish" Hunter, the 2nd biggest lifetime winner vs. Baltimore, also is the biggest lifetime loser (24 losses)...At one time, Hunter had a 23-16 mark vs. the O's but lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79 to finish 26-24...There have been 4 other 20-game losers vs. the Orioles: Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (both 10-22), Jim Kaat (21-21) and Fritz Peterson (14-21)...Three pitchers lost 19 games to the O's: Mickey Lolich (25-19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...Nolan Ryan finished 10-17 vs. Baltimore...Among active pitchers, Roger Clemens (22-12) has the most losses, followed by Kevin Appier (6-11), David Wells (13-10), Mike Morgan (5-10), Aaron Sele (7-9) and John Burkett (3-9)...Randy Johnson is 4-7 vs. the Orioles.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and hit into 16 in 50 seasons.

The Orioles pulled off their first triple play in eight seasons in 2000 on September 1 at Cleveland...With Indians runners on first and second and none out in the 2nd inning, O's SS Melvin Mora allowed a short fly to left by Sandy Alomar to drop in front of him. The Cleveland runners – Travis Fryman at first and Wil Cordero at second – apparently thought the infield fly rule had been called; it wasn't. So Mora quickly picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who stepped on second base to force Cordero and tagged Fryman for the second out. Pitcher Sidney Ponson then took the ball from Hairston and, after a slight delay, flipped the ball to first baseman Jeff Conine for the third out on Alomar, who had begun to retreat to the dugout when the ball was hit into the air. After some discussion among the umpires and the ejection of Indians manager Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles' previous triple play, and their last one at home, came August 25, 1992 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against California...With Tim Salmon on 3rd and Chad Curtis on 1st, Gary Gaetti lined out to O's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

On the other hand, the O's have hit into 2 triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent triple play involving the Orioles came April 3, '96, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at 3rd and Rafael Palmeiro at 1st, Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Bip Roberts for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from 3rd. Hamelin's throw to CA Sal Fasano was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

The Orioles have won a total of 58 Gold Gloves, more than any American League team since the awards were created.

Totals for each team: Cardinals 68; ORIOLES 58; Yankees 53, Reds 46; Pirates 43; Braves 41; Phillies 36; Red Sox 34; Tigers & Giants 35; Twins 33; White Sox, Cubs & Dodgers 31; Mariners 30; Rangers & Angels 29; Indians 28; Expos 21; Astros & Blue Jays 18; Royals, A's & Padres 17; Mets 14; Brewers 9; Rockies 8; Marlins 5; Diamondbacks 2.

Multiple Winners: A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson, whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (chicago's Greg Maddux leads all active players with 13 Gold Gloves)...Other Oriole multiple winners: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich & Mike Mussina (4 each); Davey Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro & Cal Ripken (2 each, although Aparicio won a total of 9 in his ML career and Alomar has won 10).

ALL-STAR NOTES

FINAL CAL: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the 3rd inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez "pushed" him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: Ten different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy and Brady Anderson (1 each).

ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had five different players who have earned All-Star MVP honors...In 2001, Cal Ripken became only the 4th player and the first American Leaguer to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards when he took the honors in Seattle...Joined Willie Mays, Steve Garvey and Gary Carter as the only 2-time winners...Cal also won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL...Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983...Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver's Coors Field with a 3-for-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win...Alomar, Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for 6 hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976... Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored...Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Cal Ripken's home run in 2001 was the 2nd of his career in an All-Star game and the 6th overall by an Oriole...The others were by Roberto Alomar (7/7/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on); Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); and Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th mid-season classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post-season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the only time they've made back-to-back post-season appearances since 1973-74...For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series...In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1 in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in two Division Series, winning both...They are 6-2 overall (.750)...The O 's are 3-1 at home and 3-1 on the road.

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 9 LCS, going 5-4...They are 21-16 (.568)...The O's are 10-9 at home and 11-6 on the road...Only the New York Yankees (32 wins) and Oakland A's (23 wins) have won more games in League Championship Series play...The Los Angeles Dodgers are third with 19 wins...The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69- '70) and the A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POST-SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the post-season in 10 different seasons and are 46-32 (.590)...They are 23-17 at home and 23-15 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the 3rd best postseason record of any team...They also have a 2.69 ERA in postseason play, the second lowest of any team.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post-season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 10 post-season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96 & '97, the Orioles drew 488,079 fans (average 48,808)...The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79...The four largest crowds for any games at Camden Yards came in the 1997 post-season, topped by the 49,137 who attended Division Series Game 3 vs. Seattle on October 4.

THE HISTORY OF THE ORIOLES

What do Black Sox, Elite Giants, Marylands, Monumentals, Orioles and Terrapins all have in common? They're all nicknames for professional baseball teams that have played in the city of Baltimore, dating back to the game's 19th century roots.

Baltimore first experienced professional baseball in 1872, when the Lord Baltimores played their inaugural games in the old National Association. Ten years later, another incarnation of the Lord Baltimores made its debut in the American Association; one year after that, the franchise adopted the name "Orioles," honoring Maryland's state bird. It was the first time the nickname would become affiliated with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

In 1884, the Orioles encountered some intra-city competition when the Baltimore Monumentals became one of the charter franchises in the new Union Association. By mid-season, the Monumentals had transferred to Lancaster; and by the end of one year, the new league was done.

Although both the American and National Associations have come to be regarded as major league by baseball historians, Baltimore stepped up a notch further when it joined the National League in 1892. Spearheaded by the skilled batting of Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley and Willie Keeler, and the scrappy play of Hughie Jennings and John McGraw, the Orioles of the 1890s played an aggressive, fire-breathing kind of baseball never seen before. Under the direction of the innovative Ned Hanlon, the Orioles won three consecutive National League pennants from 1894 to 1896.

Despite their success, Baltimore's National League franchise lasted for only eight seasons, folding after the 1899 campaign. Within two years, Baltimore baseball found a new home -in the upstart American League. Once again adopting the nickname Orioles, the franchise played for two seasons before relocating to New York. First playing as the Highlanders, the former Baltimore club eventually became the New York Yankees.

The transfer of the franchise to New York left Baltimore without a major league team until 1914. The Baltimore Terrapins, named for the varieties of edible turtles common to the state of Maryland, entered the newly formed Federal League that season. Alas, the league, and its franchises, lasted just the one year. Baltimore would not enjoy major league baseball for another four decades. Yet, professional baseball did not completely abandon Baltimore. Minor league entries, still playing under the popular name of Orioles, thrived in the Eastern League (1903-11) and the International League (1912-53). During the early years of Baltimore's existence in the International League, a young left-handed pitcher named Babe Ruth starred for the team. Ruth split the 1914 season between Baltimore and Providence, winning a combined 22 games and losing only nine.

From the 1920s through the 1940s, area baseball fans also enjoyed the exploits of the city's two Negro League teams, the Black Sox and Elite Giants. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

In September of 1953, Bill Veeck's financial problems helped Baltimore land another major league team. Veeck sold his American League franchise, the St. Louis Browns, to a Baltimore-based syndicate headed by Mayor Tommy D'Alesandro and attorney Clarence Miles. Playing in the renovated Memorial Stadium, the new Orioles made their return to the American League in 1954.

In the late 1950s, the Orioles' farm system began to produce a bevy of talent, led by future Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson. With a young nucleus in place, the Orioles sought veteran assistance to complete their championship puzzle. After the 1965 season, the Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds. Led by Robinson's Triple Crown season, the slugging of young first baseman Boog Powell, and the terrific bullpen combination of Moe Drabowsky, Eddie Fisher and Stu Miller, the 1966 Orioles won the first World Series in the franchise's history.

The Orioles returned to American League dominance three years later, with Hall of Fame manager Earl Weaver now leading the charge. Pitching, three-run homers, and outstanding defensive play stamped Weaver's Orioles as winners. From 1969 to 1971, the O's captured three American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series, where Brooks Robinson compiled a highlight reel's worth of defensive brilliance. After some lean years in the middle of the decade, the Orioles returned to glory in 1979, when they extended the Pittsburgh Pirates to seven games before losing the World Series. Four years later, with a new generation of stars headed up by Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken, Jr., the Orioles won their third world championship four games to one against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The endurance and excellence of Ripken served as a hallmark for much of the 1980s and 90s, culminating in the breaking of a baseball legend's record. On the night of September 6, 1995, Ripken played in his 2,131st consecutive game, eclipsing the mark of Hall of Famer Lou Gehrig. The 1990s also saw the Orioles move into a new era, as they departed Memorial Stadium for a ballpark considered a state-of-the-art model for all new stadium projects - Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2003, Eddie Murray became the 11th modern Oriole to be elected to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. He is one of five players whose official plaque shows him wearing an Orioles hat, joining two of his teammates, Jim Palmer and Brooks Robinson, and two of his former managers, Earl Weaver and Frank Robinson. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for biographies and statistics.)

Jim Palmer garnered 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) among the Baseball Writers Association of America members eligible to be elected in his first year of eligibility. In addition to Palmer and Murray, other former Orioles elected in their first year of eligibility were Brooks and Frank Robinson and Reggie Jackson.

The 11 modern Orioles in the Hall of Fame include nine players, a manager and an executive:

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)	George Kell ('83, VCS+)	Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)	Lee MacPhail ('98, VCS+)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)	Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)	Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)	Eddie Murray ('03, 85%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)	Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)	Earl Weaver ('96, VCS+)

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In addition to the 11 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioloes during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)	William Candy Cummings (rhp)	Hughie Jennings (ss)	Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)	Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp)	Wee Willie Keeler (of)	John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Roger Bresnahan (c)	Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr)	Joe Kelley (of-if)	Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)	Rogers Hornsby (2b)	Rube Marquard (lhp)	George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 thru 1971.

Media Members, Too: The Hall of Fame has also honored two members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993 beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

Native Marylanders in the Hall: In addition to Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore), four other native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).

A Look Ahead: Cal Ripken becomes eligible for the Hall of Fame in 2007.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles and must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

ANDERSON EARNS 2004 INDUCTION TO ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

Brady Anderson will become the newest member of the Orioles Hall of Fame in 2004 through a vote of the Hall committee and its 80 electors. Anderson's election makes him the 41st member of the O's hall. He spent 13 1/2 of his 15-year major league career in an Oriole uniform from 1988 through 2001. He is the Orioles all-time leader with 307 stolen bases and set the club's single-season record with 50 home runs in 1996, becoming one of two players in baseball history to have separate 50 steal and 50 homer seasons. A 3-time American League All-Star with the Orioles, Anderson is 2nd on baseball's all-time list with 44 leadoff homers and ranks among the Orioles leaders in virtually every offensive category.

ERNIE TYLER NAMED HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2004, the Herb Armstrong Award will be presented Ernie Tyler, the Orioles' longtime umpires' attendant and "ballboy." Ernie has not missed a game since taking his position on a stool behind home plate on Opening Day at Memorial Stadium in 1960, entering the 2004 season with a string of 3,480 straight regular season home games. He is a well-known ambassador of baseball and is revered not only by Orioles fans but by the umpires whom he has served for more than 40 years.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

The Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc. In 2003, Jay Gibbons captured the honors after batting .277 with 23 homers and a team-leading 100 RBI. Gibbons became the 32nd different player to win the award in the club's 50 seasons. Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3) and Boog Powell (2) are the only players to win the award more than once.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO award when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years.

The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl ranks 19th in victories among 20th century managers. His .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 5th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons exclusively in the 20th century.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 AL East titles, 4 AL pennants and 1 World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended 1-game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Hialeah, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage as well as a stepdaughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and shares the record (with former pitcher Jim Kaat) for most Gold Gloves with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 12th on the all-time list of games played, 4th in the AL and 5th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 5th on the all-time list.

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. He later managed the San Francisco Giants and the Orioles. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

Elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982, Frank is in his third season as manager of the Montreal Expos. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 12th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL. He has two daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and ranks 2nd, 3rd or 4th in virtually every club offensive category. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, helping lead the club to the post-season and becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron and Willie Mays are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks 7th all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to 8 All-Star teams, 7 as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" 5 times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, tied with Cal Ripken for second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians and Angels. After 4 seasons as a coach for the Orioles, he joined the Indians staff in 2002 as batting coach. He lives with his wife, Janice, and their daughters, Jordan and Jessica, in his hometown of Los Angeles.

Hit into 324th career GIDP on 9/9 at Minnesota, passing Yastrzemski for most in AL history...On 8/8 at Florida, had pinch-hit single in Game 2 of doubleheader, his 5th career pinch-hit appearance and first since 8/30/81, when he batted for Eddie Murray...Went 4-for-4 on 9/10 vs. Seattle, the 26th 4-hit game of his career...Sat out games 4/7 & 4/8 vs. Tampa Bay, first time he missed back-to-back games since sitting 5 consecutive games in a 7-day span, 9/12-18/81, which was 5 weeks after his recall from minors...Following season, was named to Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and expert panel...Was one of two shortstops picked, along with Ernie Banks.

CAL RIPKEN JR. AWARD TO HONOR "GAMERS"

During pre-game ceremonies on the night of Cal Ripken's final game, October 6, 2001, MLB Commissioner Allen H. "Bud" Selig announced the creation of a new award in honor of the baseball's Iron Man. Beginning in 2002, The Cal Ripken Jr. Award is given to each major leaguer who plays in each of his team's scheduled games. Last year six players won the award. In breaking Lou Gehrig's record for consecutive games played with 2,632, Cal also set the major league record for playing each of the Orioles' scheduled games for 15 seasons – and he did it consecutively.

1998: END OF THE STREAK: On 9/20 vs. New York, before the Orioles final home game of the year, baseball's all-time "Iron Man" asked manager Ray Miller to remove him from the starting lineup 30 minutes before game time to end his world-record consecutive games streak at 2,632 games...Ryan Minor replaced him in the starting lineup...Was first time he did not start or play since 5/29/82...Played in 501 straight games after breaking Lou Gehrig's record on 9/6/95...After sitting out 9/20, he played in each of the remaining 7 games of the season....Was batting .242 on 5/19, but hit .282 from that point on to raise his final average to .271...Set AL records for Most Seasons with 150 or more games played (15) and Most Seasons with 600 or more At-Bats (13)...Led AL third basemen with a .979 fielding percentage...Was elected as the starting third baseman on the American League All-Star team, his 16th consecutive All-Star Game and 15th straight start...Set All-Star Game record for most consecutive starts, surpassing Willie Mays' 14 starts in a row...Singled on 8/21 vs. Cleveland to pass Brooks Robinson for most hits in Orioles history with 2,849...Batted 7th in order 36 times...Hit twice in No. 7 spot, only other times since '82...On 8/5 vs. Detroit, laid down his 5th career sacrifice bunt and first since 9/10/90.
1997: Was Orioles every day third baseman...Drew 3rd career ejection 7/20 when HP umpire Al Clark tossed him in 2nd inning after arguing strikeout call...Other ejections came in '87 and '89, both in 1st inning of games at Memorial Stadium after strikeouts...Elected to 15th All-Star Game, all consecutive, and first at third base...Went 1-2 in Mid-Summer Classic played at Cleveland's Jacobs Field...Cal's 10 sacrifice flies were T7th in the American League and he grounded into 19 double plays, T7th most in the league...Hit 500th career 2B in 1st inning 6/22 at Toronto...His HR on 5/31 vs. Cleveland gave him Orioles all-time total base lead with 4,274, snapping tie with Brooks Robinson...Drew 1,000th career walk 8/30 vs. Mets...Made three appearances at shortstop: 6/15 at Atlanta (2 inn.), 8/31 vs. Mets (1 inn.) and the last on 9/1 at Florida (2 inn.).
1996: Baseball's all-time "Iron Man" played in all 163 Orioles games...On 7/15 he started at third base for the first time since 6/30/82...Had made two other appearances at third, his last coming on 7/8/82...Had made 2,216 consecutive starts at shortstop, a major league record for any position, until starting six games at third base, 7/15-21...On 4/6 he made his first error since 7/18/95, snapping a string of 74 consecutive errorless games...Collected his 819th extra base hit on 4/13 vs. Minnesota, passing Brooks Robinson for first place on the Orioles all-time list...The hit came on his 450th career double...Batted 7th in the batting order on 5/14 at Oakland, the first time he batted that low in the order since his first year in the majors, '82...On 5/28 at the Kingdome, Cal enjoyed his first career 3-HR game and collected a career-high 8 RBI...It was the 15th time that an Oriole homered three times in a game and the first since Randy Milligan in '90...In the 9th inning of that game he and brother Bill both homered, the 2nd time they homered in the same inning and the 6th time that brothers had accomplished the feat...On 6/3 he was named AL "Player of the Week" for the 9th time in his career...On 5/29, also in Seattle, he hit his 334th career home run, moving past Eddie Murray for first place on the Orioles all-time list...On 6/11 he homered in his third straight game, matching a career-best...Played in consecutive game 2,216 on 6/14 at Kansas City setting a new consecutive games world record...The previous mark of 2,215 was held by third baseman Sachio Kinugasa who played with the Hiroshima Carp in Japan's Central League...Kinugasa attended the game at Kauffman Stadium in KC when Cal tied and broke his record...On 9/15 at Detroit, his first homer that day was the team's 240th, tying the '61 Yankees for the most by a team in a season...His second home run that followed Bobby Bonilla's, marking the 16th time that the O's hit back-to-back home runs during the season to tie the big league mark held by the '77 Red Sox and '82 Brewers...Named as a starter on the American League All-Star team for the 13th consecutive season...Surpassed 100 RBI in a season for the 4th time in his career, giving the Orioles four 100 RBI men (Anderson, Bonilla, Palmeiro)...It was the first Orioles team to have four players with 100 RBI...In Game 2 of a doubleheader at New York on 9/19, he smacked his 483rd career double, passing Brooks Robinson for the most in Orioles history...On 8/9 at Comiskey Park he collected his 2,500th career hit, a single off Bill Simas...Broke Lou Gehrig's record for most consecutive years playing all of club's games (14) and most years leading the league in games played (8), both major league marks...Following the season, Cal toured Japan with a team of Major League All-Stars.
1995: On 9/5 and 9/6 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against the California Angels, Cal became baseball's all-time "Iron Man", tying and breaking Lou Gehrig's consecutive games played record of 2,130...In the record-tying and record-setting games he went a combined 5-for-9 and hit home runs in each of the games...Homered in three straight games, 9/4-6, matching career-best...A specially designed baseball emblazoned with the "Streak Week" logo was used in the games of 9/5 & 9/6, marking the first time ever that a special ball was used to honor an individual...Honors that Ripken received after the '95 season included: Associated Press and United Press International "Male Athlete of the Year"; Associated Press "Sports Moment of the Year"; Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News "Sportsman of the Year"; one of People magazine's "25 Most Intriguing People"; one of Newsweek magazine's "Newsmakers of '95"; and the "Toast of the Town" by the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America...It marked the first time that a non-New York athlete received the award...Won Espy Awards for "Male Athlete of the Year" and "Showstopper of the Year"...Cal led all AL shortstops with a .989 fielding percentage, 144 games played and 100 double plays turned...Scored two runs on the 4th of July to become the Orioles all-time leader in runs scored, tying and passing Brooks Robinson...On 9/3 drew his 890th career base on balls, surpassing Boog Powell to become the Orioles all-time leader...Went 2-for-3 with pair of singles in All-Star Game on 7/11 at Arlington, TX, in his 13th consecutive All-Star appearance.
1994: Led major league shortstops with a .985 fielding percentage...Led the AL with 46 multi-hit games, second in the majors to San Diego's Tony Gwynn (54)...Batted .364 (44-122) with runners in scoring position, 8th best in the league...Was one of five major leaguers to play in every game in '94...Batted .340 in April, his third best April average, surpassed by .352 in '84 and .341 in '87...Hit his 300th career home run on 5/24 at Milwaukee...Led AL shortstops with 13 home runs and major league shortstops with 75 RBI...Played in his 2000th consecutive game, 8/1 at Minnesota.
1993: Led major league shortstops in homers for the 9th time in last 11 years and in RBI for the 8th time...Led AL shortstops in assists (495) for 7th time in his career, tying AL record...Led AL shortstops in total chances (738) for the 5th time...Led the majors in at-bats (641) even though he received a career-high 19 intentional walks, 6th in the AL...Had twice as many homers as any other AL shortstop...Won his 7th Silver Slugger Award.
1992: Went from career-highs in homers, RBI and extra-base hits in '91 to career lows in those categories in '92...Failed to become only the 6th player in ML history to hit 20+ homers in each of his first 11 full ML seasons...Became the O's all-time right-handed home run leader when he hit two at Milwaukee 6/23, nos. 268 and 269, topping Brooks Robinson's mark (268)...Following that game, went a career-high 73 games (291 at bats) without a home run, 6/24-9/13...Was named AL "Player of the Week", 9/13-20 (12-for-24)...It was the 7th time he received the honor...July was his first homerless month since the first two months of his career (August-September of '81)...Had a 16-game (.355, 22-62) and a 17-game (.414, 29-70) hitting streak just four days apart 5/20-6/29...1,000th career RBI came at Oakland on 8/31 on a two-run single off Kelly Downs.

1991: Became second player in major league history to win a league MVP, Major League Player of the Year (The Sporting News, AP and Baseball Digest), All-Star Game MVP, and a Gold Glove in the same season...The only other was Dodgers' shortstop Maury Wills in '62...Finished third in the AL in homers (34), most by a shortstop in 22 years (Boston's Rico Petrocelli hit 40 in 1969)...Became only the 10th player in AL history to hit more than 30 homers and strike out fewer than 50 times...The others: Don Mattingly (1985-86); Ted Williams (1941-46-47-49-57) Joe DiMaggio (1937-38-40-48-50); Lou Gehrig (1932-33-34-36-37); Earl Averill (1931-32-34); Hal Trosky ('34); Al Rosen ('53); Al Simmons (1929-30) and Ken Williams ('22)...Led the major leagues and tied a club mark with 85 extra-base hits...Led the major leagues with a then-club record 368 total bases...Led majors with career-high 73 multi-hit games...Second in the majors with 210 hits, one shy of his own club mark, set in '83...Was also second in doubles with 46, one shy of his own club record, also set in '83...Was second in slugging percentage (.566, 47 points higher than his previous high, .519 in '83)...Became one of only five in Orioles history to hit .300, with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI joining Jim Gentile, Frank Robinson, Boog Powell, and Eddie Murray and later joined by Rafael Palmeiro in '95...Was AL "Player of the Month" in September (.349, HR-8, RBI-27)....Also shared AL "Player of the Week", 9/23-30, with Rickey Henderson...Was the last player to bat in Memorial Stadium history when he bounced into a 5-4-3 double play off Detroit's Frank Tanana at 5:07 p.m. on 10/6/91...Led AL shortstops in fielding percentage (.986) for the second straight year, in putouts (267) for the fourth time, in assists (529) for the sixth time, total chances (807) for the fourth time, and double plays (114) for the fifth time.

1990: Set ML record at shortstop by committing only three errors in 161 games (681 tc) for a.996 percentage...Also had streaks of 95 errorless games and 428 errorless chances, both setting all-time marks for a shortstop that since have been topped by Mike Bordick...Led O's in 9 offensive categories despite hitting for his lowest average for a full season in the AL...Played his 1308th consecutive game on 6/12 to move into second place on the all-time list ahead of Everett Scott (Yankees-Red Sox, '18-'25).

1989: Led club in hits (166), doubles (30) and RBI (93) and was second to Mickey Tettleton in homers (26 to 21)...Combined with brother Bill for seven hits (Cal-3 and Bill-4) on 8/2...The only brother combo to surpass that combined total were the Waners (Paul and Lloyd) who had three and five respectively for the Bucs on 6/25/32.

1988: Shared Most Valuable Oriole honors with Eddie Murray for the second time...Ranked third in AL with a career-high 102 walks...Was 0-for-29 in April, the longest hitless streak of his career until his final season.

1987: Became the first Oriole other than Eddie Murray to lead the club in RBI during the '80s...Ken Singleton was the last in '79...Concluded consecutive innings streak, which began in '82.

1986: Led AL shortstops for fourth straight year in homers, RBI, runs and slugging (.461)...Was second in fielding percentage to Tony Fernandez at shortstop, .982 to .983...Led club in runs, hits, doubles, homers and total bases (289).

1985: Was second in the AL to Rickey Henderson in runs scored (146 to 116), his third straight year with over 100 runs...Hit .321 (53-165) with men in scoring position...Was first or second on the club in 12 offensive categories.

1984: Batted over .300 for second straight year...Set AL record for assists by a shortstop (583)...Batted .311 (46-148) with runners in scoring position to lead club.

1983: Was AL MVP and "The Sporting News" Player of the Year and played in his lone World Series as Orikoles beat the Phillies for title...Played every inning of every game for the first of four straight seasons...Shared Most Valuable Oriole laurels with Eddie Murray...Played on AL's first winning All-Star Team since 1971...Led majors in hits with a club record 211 and doubles (47); was second with 76 extra-base hits to the Expos' Andre Dawson (78) and was runner-up to major league leader Jim Rice (344) in total bases (343)...Led the AL with 121 runs, just one off Frank Robinson's club record set in '66...No Hall of Fame shortstop has ever had 211 hits in a season...Hughie Jennings and Dave Bancroft are the leaders, each with 209...Batted a combined .273 (9-33) in nine post-season games...Made final putout of WS when he caught Garry Maddox's line drive in bottom of ninth, Game 5.

1982: Led all major league rookies in doubles, homers, RBI, total bases (284), games (160), and runs...Missed only three games all year, none after 5/29 (his games streak began the following day)...Played 44 straight errorless games at third base from 4/24-6/14...After a glittering Opening Day on which he went 3-for-5 with his first big league double, homer (off KC's Dennis Leonard) and RBI, he plunged into a 4-for-55 slide...Was batting only .117 (7-60) on 5/1 after 18 games and his career big league average over two seasons was at that point .121 (12-99) in 41 games...The next day, 5/2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits and was beaned by fellow rookie Mike Moore...Missed only one game after the beaning, however, and batted .281(151-538) from 5/2 to the end of the season.

1981: Was recalled from AAA Rochester on 8/8 after the major league player strike was settled...Made big league debut in the first game after the strike, vs. KC in Baltimore on 8/10 as pinch runner after Ken Singleton led off the 12th with a double...Scored winning run in "sudden death" when, after an intentional walk to Eddie Murray, John Lowenstein singled off RHP Renie Martin to drive him in...His first hit was a single off Chicago's Dennis Lamp on 8/16, also at Memorial Stadium...Played in 12 games at shortstop (9 starts) and six at third base...Despite his early recall from Rochester, was voted "Rookie of the Year" in the International League, and was named to the loop's All-Star team at third base...In survey of IL's managers and coaches, was picked as top major league prospect in the league.

MINOR LEAGUES: Played mostly shortstop in '78 in Bluefield...Played in Florida Instructional League after both '78 and '79 seasons...Was Southern League's All-Star third baseman in '80 and tied for league lead in games...One of two Charlotte players that year to break club's home run record: Ripken had 25 and Drungo Hazewood had 28...Cal had homered only 8 times in his 2 previous pro seasons combined...He also led SL third basemen in fielding (.933, TC-415, E-28)...Helped Caguas win Puerto Rican title after the 1980 season (the first of his two seasons in Caribbean winter ball)...In '79, he was picked as shortstop on Topps' Class A All-Star team, though he played more games at third (58) than at shortstop (52)...Led Florida State League in doubles that year...Was signed by the late Dick Bowie 6/13/78 after the club drafted him 6/4.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND: Pitched and played short at Aberdeen (MD) High and graduated from there in '78...Was 7-2 with an 0.70 ERA as a senior with 100 strikeouts in 60 innings...He also won Harford County batting title (.492) and had 29 RBI in 20 games...Pitched a two-hitter and fanned 17 to win 1978 Maryland Class A Baseball championship game...Was voted American Amateur Baseball Congress (AABC) "Graduate of the Year" in '86...Also earned two letters in soccer...Was soccer team captain and both an All-County and All-Metro selection. Played Little League, Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle League baseball...Led Putty Hill, MD team to Mickey Mantle World Series in Sherman, TX (lost in a best-of-3 competition).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Married to the former Kelly Geer (11/13/87)...They have two children: Rachel Marie (11/22/89) and Ryan Calvin (7/26/93), born on an Orioles off day...Cal played with his brother Bill at second base for 5-1/2 seasons (7/11/87 through '92), and Bill was with the Orioles in a utility role in 1996...In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying (each playing 2/3 of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination....Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father Cal Sr., in an O's uniform as a coach and manager...All three were together in '87, when Cal Sr. became the first father ever to manage two sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season)...Cal and Bill are owners of the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles minor league affiliate in the short-season Class A New York-Penn League...The IronBirds play in the 6,000-seat Ripken Stadium, a state-of-the-art ballpark opened in 2002 in the Ripkens' hometown...It is also the site of the Ripken Youth Baseball Academy, where the Ripken Baseball staff, led by Bill, provides youth baseball programming and instruction throughout the summer.

CAL SR.: Cal Ripken Sr. passed away March 25, 1999 from cancer...He spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff starting in 1976, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach...Managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization...His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history...During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league...Earned the reputation as perhaps the best teacher of young players in Orioles history...Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the seventh non-interim manager in the club's history...Was replaced by Frank Robinson on 4/12/88 after the O's lost the first six games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended)...Rip was a catcher in the O's organization, although he also played some third base and outfield and even pitched...In '96 he was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame...Following Ripken's death during spring training in 1999, the Orioles players and field staff wore a "7" on their uniform sleeve in his honor for the entire 1999 season...The number also was painted in orange in the third base coach's box at Camden Yards, where it remained throughout the '99 season as well...In ceremonies prior to Cal Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Sr...It is inscribed:

Cal Ripken, Sr
Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the games greatest teachers.
Coach, manager, and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached.
He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "right way" and playing to the best of one's abitlity every inning of every game.
We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, His love of the game, and his many lessons...

CAL IN THE COMMUNITY

For 37 years, Cal Ripken Sr. was considered "the consummate baseball teacher" as a player, coach, scout and manager in the Orioles organization. Today, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation carries on his legacy, with a mission "to use baseball as a tool for helping young people develop positive character traits such as leadership, teamwork and good sportsmanship, as well as a healthy lifestyle."

Through the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the Ripken family, led by Cal and Bill, is developing baseball-themed programs and educational lesson plans, constructing a youth baseball facility to host disadvantaged and at-risk kids, and supplying equipment and other support for organizations and communities to operate youth baseball facilities, and providing training for youth coaches consistent with "the Ripken Way."

The Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation is the latest extension of Cal Jr.'s community support through the years. For many years, the Kelly and Cal Ripken, Jr. Foundation has supported community adult and family literacy, youth recreational and health-related programs in the greater Baltimore area.

AWARDS

MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS

* Holds major league record for home runs by a shortstop with 345
* Holds the major league record for most years leading league in games by a shortstop with 12
* Holds major league record for most consecutive games by a shortstop, 2216
* Holds major league record for most years playing all of clubs games (15) and most years leading league in games (9)

ONLY 10 EVER

At the time of Cal's retirement in 2001, only 10 players hit 20 or more home runs in their first 10 full seasons. Seven are in the Hall of Fame:

1. Eddie Mathews	14	5. Fred McGriff	11	8. Willie Mays	10
2. Billy Williams	13	6. Joe DiMaggio	10	9. Rocky Colavito	10
3. Reggie Jackson	13	7. Ted Williams	10	10. Cal Ripken	10
4. Frank Robinson	12

CYCLE: Is one of only 2 Orioles to hit for the cycle. On 5/6/84, was 4-for-5 with two RBI at Texas. Homered off Dave Tobik in his final at-bat. Brooks Robinson hit for the cycle at Chicago, 7/15/60.

ALL-STAR GAMES

19-YEAR ALL-STAR: Ripken was elected as the American League's starting third baseman for the 5th time in a row and his 19th consecutive All-Star berth in his final season in 2001. He passed Brooks Robinson's AL mark of 18 games (over 15 years, 1960-74). Cal technically started the game his final game at shortstop when Alex Rodriguez pushed him to short and took third for the first inning. By switching positions, he tied Ozzie Smith with 15 All-Star Games at shortstop. Smith holds the record of 15 starts, while Cal started 14 times at shortstop. The only year Ripken did not make the team was his rookie season in 1982.
ELECTED: 17 times, 13 consecutive starting in '89. With his election in 2000, he broke the record he shared with Rod Carew for most All-Star selections with 15. Cal was also elected '84 thru '87. Alan Trammell was elected in '88 but withdrew due to injury so Cal, who finished second in the voting, started in his place. Since balloting returned to the fans in '70, ten different Orioles have been elected to start 32 times in the 31 years.
STARTER: 17 times, including 16 straight years from 1984 through 1999, including 13 as shortstop. Cal's 15th straight start in 1998 set an All-Star Game record, breaking Willie Mays' mark of 14 straight ASG starts. He was elected to start at third base in 2000 but was unable to play because of injury.
FAN BALLOTING: Led the majors in votes four times: '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806), '92 (2,699,773), and '95 (1,698,524)...Cal led the AL in balloting in 1986 (1,486,806).
MVP AWARDS: Earned his second All-Star MVP Award after homering on the first pitch he saw off Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park leading off the 3rd inning in his final All-Star appearance in 2001 at Seattle...Became oldest All-Star MVP at age 40 and broke AL record for most times as an All-Star, previously held by Brooks Robinson...Earned his first MVP in 1991 in the game at Toronto when he hit a three-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and singled off the eventual Cy Young Award winner, Tom Glavine, to lead the AL to a 4-2 win at Skydome...Joined Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks Robinson ('66), Frank Robinson ('71) and Roberto Alomar ('98) as Orioles to win All-Star MVP honors...In the home run hitting contest the day before the game at Toronto, hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to lead the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

THE 3,000 HIT/400 HOMER CLUB

Through the 2001 season, only 25 players in major league history had accumulated 3,000 hits and only 33 players had hit at least 400 home runs. Cal is one of only 7 players to collect both 3,000 hits and 400 homers and only the second to do it exclusively in the American League, joining Carl Yastrzemski:

STAYING HEALTHY

Cal Ripken went on the Disabled List on April 20, 1999, for the first time in his career. From the start of Cal's record 2,632 consecutive games played, which began on May 30, 1982, until he went on the DL nearly 17 years later, Major League players made 5,045 trips to the DL.

FIELDING

11 FIELDING RECORDS: When Cal retired, he held or shared 11 Major League or American League fielding records...The Orioles' Mike Bordick broke 5 of his records during the 2002 season. Below are the records Ripken has or originally set:

1. AL record (tied) for leading shortstops in assists seven years (last time was '93) with Luis Aparicio and Luke Appling
2. ML record for highest fielding percentage in a season, by a shortstop (.996),1990
3. ML record for fewest errors (3) in a season by a shortstop, 1990
4. AL record for most consecutive errorless games by a shortstop, one season (95), 1990
5. ML record for most consecutive chances without an error by a shortstop, one or more seasons (428), 1990
6. ML record for most consecutive chances without an error by a shortstop, one season (428), 1990
7. ML record for most consecutive games played one position (2,216), 7/9/82-7/15/96 (shortstop)
8. ML record for most years leading league in double plays by a shortstop - 8 ('83-'85, '89, '91, '92, '94, '95)
9. ML record (tied) for most years leading the league in putouts by a shortstop - 6 ('84,'85,'88,'89,'91,'92)
10. AL record for most assists in a season by a shortstop with 583, set in 1984
11. AL record for most double plays by a shortstop, career (1565)

2131: PASSING A LEGEND

Cal holds the major league record with 2,632 consecutive games played. The streak started on 5/30/82 and ended on 9/20/98. On 9/5/95 and 9/6/95 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against the California Angels, Cal tied and broke Lou Gehrig's consecutive game record of 2,130. The following season he broke the world record of 2,215 consecutive games, previously held by Sachio Kinugasa of the Japanese Central League. After breaking Gehrig's record, Ripken played 501 more games before sitting out the final home game of the 1998 season.

2)	2,130	Lou Gehrig	6) 1,103	Joe Sewell	10) 798	Nellie Fox
3)	1,307	Everett Scott	7) 895	Stan Musial
4)	1,207	Steve Garvey	8) 829	Eddie Yost

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK, '82-'87: His streak of 8,243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history. The post-season innings he played in '83 are not included in these figures. Lou Gehrig, incidentally, played every inning of every game only one season ('31) during his streak.

The start: Cal's innings streak began 6/5/82; six days and five games after the start of his consecutive games string on 5/30.

The finish: The innings streak ended 9/14/87 in Toronto when Orioles manager Cal Ripken Sr. inserted Ron Washington at shortstop in the bottom of the eighth of an 18-3 Toronto walkover...That was the game in which the Blue Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs...Rip, whose innings streak covered some five seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least two straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman, only one other major leaguer has played every inning at least three years (not necessarily consecutive), Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

* On 8/17/33, New York Yankees first baseman Lou Gehrig played in his 1,308th straight game to surpass Everett Scott's major league record for consecutive games played. The Iron Horse went on to play in 2,130 straight games before the crippling effects of ALS (amyotrophic lateral sclerosis) ended his once-thought impossible streak. Just over two years later, ALS ended his life.
* Ripken's streak began on 5/30/82 when manager Earl Weaver started Cal as the third baseman against Toronto at Memorial Stadium. The day before, Floyd Rayford started in Cal's place at third base in the second game of a DH.
* Gehrig's longest streak at first base was 885 straight games. He played left field for one game in '30 while Babe Ruth pitched, and he played right field for one game in '31 while Ruth played first base.
* Gehrig played every inning of every game one time in his career ('31). Ripken holds what is believed to be the major league record with a streak of 8,243 straight innings, spanning 904 games from '82-'87.
* Gehrig missed just two starts during his streak, both in the first year: '25 (7/5, the 33rd game of the streak and 7/19, the 48th game). Both times, Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at first base. Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.
* Twice during his streak, Gehrig was ailing and was listed as the shortstop, batting in the lead-off position. Both times, he singled and was immediately replaced by a pinch runner.

Ejected three times: The earliest Cal left were the two games from which he was ejected in the first inning: 9/25/87 by Tim Welke (vs. Yankees) and 8/7/89 by Drew Coble (vs. Minnesota). In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call. He was ejected a third time on 7/20/97 in the 2nd inning by Al Clark (vs. Chicago) also for arguing a third strike call.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,190 (including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, with about 5 tons of turf, sand and dirt removed from the playing surface. The drainage system was replaced with a more modern method that utilizes an inlaid piping system topped by meshing and rocks to better protect both the pipes themselves and the playing surface.

DIMENSIONS

For Camden Yards' first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to 7 feet larger than those used since Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

The shorter distance to the right field corner than down the left field line is compensated by a 25' high wall, which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Bambino's) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

SCOREBOARDS

There are two major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD), which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the two boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports two weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-ole-days feature missing from many current major league ballparks - continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time, posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker, the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally three auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the two big boards in center field.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veteran's Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street warehouse for a memorial wall to honor residents of Maryland who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier in the year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from Memorial Stadium, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night.

CAMDEN STATION

Renovations on one of Baltimore's most historic landmarks began this off-season. Camden Station, the former train station located at the north end of the warehouse, will become a repository of Maryland sports history. An expansion of the Babe Ruth Museum, the 22,000 square foot space will include exhibits on the Orioles, Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. The space will also house the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame and feature displays on Maryland college athletics, including the University of Maryland and the United States Naval Academy.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980's. In its heyday, the station was a central location for travel from Baltimore to the rest of the country. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station twice, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, Illinois for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room will be restored to its Civil War splendor and will interpret Lincoln's passages through Camden Station.

FOUL POLES

When the Orioles moved to Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Camden Yards left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the lower, club and upper deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes there are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 47'.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 72 luxury suites, each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites are leased on a yearly basis. There are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several of which hold 10-18 people, and three larger party suites that can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1,850 Eutaw Street Reserve seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also standing room only tickets that go on sale two hours before game time. The SRO areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

Total seating capacity in the ballpark is 48,286. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Camden Yards is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds sometimes interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, a number of exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the Oriole Park Experience"...

- Prior to the 2004 season, 6,250 seats in sections 16-58 were replaced and reinstalled with padded seats and higher backs.
- Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Homeplate Elevator Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.
- The first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- The fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- Expanding on improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
- In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
- Homestead Gardens, based in Davidsonville, MD, entered into a partnership with the Orioles starting in 1998 to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.
- Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
- Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.
- The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos and records of each Oriole team beginning in 1954 adorn the corridors. Orioles Hall of Fame banners have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.
- Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993.

Plaques and other displays around the ballpark honor various athletic accomplishments...

- Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
- Orioles' Retired Numbers: 4-foot monuments, located at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22) and Eddie Murray (33).
- The Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame: Located on the wall of Sections 1-3 on Eutaw Street, these plaques honor native Marylanders representing more than 30 different sports. The selection committee is comprised of 12 Marylanders with extensive sports backgrounds.
- Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.
- Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row FF, Seat 10) with a red seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.
- Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row D, Seat 23).
- Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring three individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; and Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years.

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did it for five consecutive years. Last season, the Orioles failed to draw at least 3 million fans for the second time in Camden Yards history (excluding the strike-shortened 1994 season), but still finished 5th in the American League and 11th in the majors in total and average attendance.

READY TO HIT 40 MILLION: The Orioles will surpass the 40 million mark in all-time regular season attendance at Oriole Park at Camden Yards during the 2004 season. In 12 seasons at Camden Yards, the O's have drawn 38,850,048 fans for 932 home dates, an average of 41,685 per game. It took until their 34th season and 2,453 dates for the Orioles to draw their 40 millionth fan to their former home, Memorial Stadium, reaching 40 million on July 25, 1987. Total attendance in 38 seasons (2,716 dates) at Memorial Stadium was 49,845,588.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES

3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98) 2 million—43 home dates ('94) 1 million—22 home dates ('94)

LARGEST CROWDS, LARGEST SERIES: The Orioles had six sellouts in 2003, including the two largest crowds in Camden Yards history. The Orioles drew 49,549 fans for their game on June 28, 2003 vs. Philadelphia. Five weeks later, on August 2, the O's drew 49,334 fans for a game against Boston. Those topped the previous largest crowd, when the Orioles drew 49,137 for an AL Division Series game against Seattle on Oct. 4, 1997. The regular season attendance record had been set July 7, 2001 when the Orioles drew 49,072 fans for their game against the Phillies. The Orioles have now drawn more than 49,000 fans for four regular season games, the first occurring July 15, 2000 when they drew 49,013 vs. Atlanta. The Orioles also drew more than 49,000 fans for four games during the 1997 post-season: Game 3 of the Division Series vs. Seattle on Oct. 4, as well as all three games of the AL Championship Series vs. Cleveland.

It was not until 1999 that the Orioles drew more than 48,500 for a regular season game, a feat they have now accomplished on 15 occasions, including four times in 2003: the two dates above, as well as Aug. 16 (48,499) and Aug. 17 (48,700), both vs. New York.

In 1998, the Orioles drew both the largest three-date and four-date series in Camden Yards history. The Aug. 21-23, 1998 series vs. Cleveland drew the largest three-date total in park history, 144,784. The top four-date series was 192,494 for the July 9-12, 1998 set with Boston.

The Orioles have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 675 of 932 regular season dates at Oriole Park (72%). They have drawn 47,000 or more for 227 dates, including five in 2003.

SMALLEST CROWDS: For the first time in Oriole Park history, the Orioles drew crowds under 20,000 last season. The smallest crowd was 17,267 for a May 5 game vs. Detroit. The previous smallest crowd to see a game at Oriole Park was 20,279, on September 16, 2002 vs. Toronto.

Comcast SportsNet, the Orioles Television Network, ESPN and Fox Sports will combine to telecast 157 regular season and 5 spring training games during the 2004 season.

The Orioles Television Network was established in 2002 as a separate media company to produce, sell and market games to television stations through the region, from southern Pennsylvania to North Carolina, from West Virginia to Delaware and throughout Maryland and Washington, DC. WJZ (Channel 13) and WNUV (Channel 54) in Baltimore, along with WDCA-TV (Channel 20) in Washington, DC, will serve as the network's flagship stations this season. Orioles Television will produce 65 regular season games for over-air telecast. In addition to the stations in Baltimore and Washington, five affiliate stations in Maryland, southern Pennsylvania and Virginia also will air Orioles Television Network games this season.

Comcast SportsNet will produce 87 regular season and 3 spring training games this year. Comcast has televised Orioles games on cable since 1984, originally under the Home Team Sports (HTS) logo. Comcast SportsNet serves more than 4.4 million households through its cable system and satellite services in the Capital Region, which includes all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and Washington, DC and part of West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

In addition to game broadcasts, Comcast SportsNet will produce a weekly, half-hour program on Orioles baseball featuring highlights and interviews.

Buck Martinez and Jim Palmer return to call the action for both the Orioles Television Network and Comcast SportsNet, while Jim Hunter and Fred Manfra will add television work to their Orioles responsibilities this season, with each doing play-by-play work on approximately half of the team's televised games.

In total, 157 of the Orioles' regular season games will be televised on local, regional or national television this season, with Fox Television carrying three Saturday games and ESPN broadcasting two Sunday night home games, including the Orioles' season opener against Boston on April 4.

RADIO

Announcers: Joe Angel, Jim Hunter and Fred Manfra

WBAL (1090 AM) is in its 17th consecutive season as the flagship station for the Orioles radio network. The 2004 season also marks the 39th time since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 50 seasons ago that WBAL has originated Orioles broadcasts. The station first carried Orioles games in 1957, the club's fourth season.

This is the fourth year of the Orioles' partnership with Clear Channel Communication to broadcast all Orioles games in the Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia metropolitan area. The majority of the games will air on WTEM (980 AM). In all, there are 19 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering four states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel returns to the WBAL microphone this season to do play-by-play for all Orioles games on radio. He will work exclusively on radio, teaming with Jim Hunter and Fred Manfra, who will split their time between the Orioles' radio and television broadcasts.

A native of Colombia, South America, Joe has broadcast major league baseball for 24 years, including four seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90 and 1992. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins, New York Yankees and Florida Marlins.

Joe, 56, was born in Bogata, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago 10 years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he was quarterback on the same team with O.J. Simpson as running back. Joe later attended City College of San Francisco.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball. He also filled in on San Francisco 49ers radio broadcasts.

Angel got his start in major league baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio. He also did two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio, 1984-86 and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. He spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season, then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television the past two seasons where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in Weston, FL, and have three grown children, Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 8th year as a member of the Orioles and WBAL Radio broadcast team and this season will add television play-by-play work to his duties. He will split his time equally between television and radio, teaming with Buck Martinez or Jim Palmer to do TV broadcasts and with Joe Angel on WBAL Radio. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 26 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 45, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In 1996, he called the National League Division Series in which the Atlanta Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals in a thrilling 7-game series. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim hosts the weekly Orioles "Hot Stove" show on WBAL, live from the Orioles Grille in the Sheraton Inner Harbor Hotel. The past five offseasons, Jim announced college basketball for Comcast Cable Network in addition to his many appearances in the community on behalf of the baliclub as well as helping various charities.

When Jim began his career at CBS in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sportsbreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

A 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ, Hunter was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

Jim resides in Fallston, MD with his wife, Bonnie. They have three children: Jimmy (19), Jeffrey (17), and Allie (13) and a faithful dog named Garth.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 12th season as radio voice of the Orioles and this season will add television play-by-play work to his duties. He will split his time equally between television and radio, teaming with Buck Martinez or Jim Palmer to TV broadcasts and with Joe Angel on WBAL Radio.

The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City and WBAL Radio in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network.

Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Orioles broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002) and horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982-2002.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984), Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work with the Kidney Foundation of Maryland, the Mercy society and the Salvation Army. They have two daughters, Michelle, a graduate of Towson University who is in business in Southern California, and Stephanie, a former All-Harford County basketball player who is a graduate of the University of Florida and now works in Arlington, Virginia.

BUCK MARTINEZ

Buck Martinez returns for his second season as an Orioles television analyst, bringing a wealth of baseball experience to the broadcast booth. He will team with Jim Hunter or Fred Manfra to provide color commentary for Orioles games. Martinez' extensive resume includes over 30 years as a player and manager in the American League and over 20 years of experience in baseball broadcasting on television and radio.

Beginning in 1967 when he was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies, Martinez spent 23 years as a catcher in professional baseball with the Kansas City Royals, Milwaukee Brewers and Toronto Blue Jays organizations. He appeared in the postseason with Kansas City in 1976, batting .333 in the 5-game ALCS against the New York Yankees and wrote two books about his experiences with the Blue Jays, "From Worst to First" (1985) and "The Last Out" (1986).

Martinez, 55, also served as manager for Toronto in 2001 and part of the 2002 season, compiling a 100-115 record.

His first experience with broadcasting came in 1982, when he covered the American League Championship Series, the World Series and the All-Star Game for the Telemedia Radio Network. Martinez' television broadcast career began in 1987 as a color commentator for the Toronto Blue Jays on The Sports Network. He began working with ESPN radio and television in 1992, a position he held through the 2002 season.

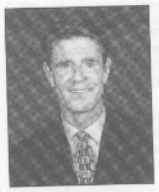

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('60-'61) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.

A California native, Martinez attended Sacramento City College, Sacramento State University, and Southwestern Missouri State University. He and his wife, Arlene, reside in Clearwater, Florida. They have one son, Casey, a 47th round pick by Toronto in the 2000 First Year Player Draft who currently works in the front office of the MetroStars, a Major League Soccer team.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 12th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 398.

CHUCK THOMPSON

On February 9, 1993, the long-overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor Orioles fans knew years before. His place was secured when he was named the winner of the 1993 Ford C. Frick Award. With that distinction he took residence in the broadcaster wing alongside the likes of Harry Caray, Vin Scully, Jack Buck and former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, among others. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1993.

A longtime legend in our town, Chuck was coaxed out of a 3-year retirement and returned to the radio booth in 1991 on a part-time basis. Chuck's voice has evoked memories for Baltimore sports fans for over half a century, beginning with the International League Orioles in 1949.

He was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in 1939 at WRAW in Reading, Pa. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to call Temple University football. He served in the Army during World War II and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war, he returned to Philadelphia, doing radio for the Phillies and Athletics in baseball, the Warriors in basketball, Eagles in football and Rockets in ice hockey.

Chuck came to Baltimore in 1949 and became the voice of the International League Orioles and also did the All-American Conference Colts and Navy football, as well as Bullets basketball. In 1955, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, did American League Orioles games in 1955-56 and again from 1962-87. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington Senators ('57-'61).

In 1959 and 1960, Chuck was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week, including the 1960 World Series call of Bill Mazeroski's famous game-winning, 9th-inning home run which won the 7th and deciding game for Pittsburgh. He later did Orioles World Series games on national television in '66, '69, '70 and '71.

Equally acclaimed as the announcer for Baltimore Colts football, Chuck called the "Greatest Game Ever Played," the classic overtime contest for the 1958 NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants. He also worked the Colts-Packers overtime contest for the NFL's Western Division title in 1965 for CBS-TV.

Chuck has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association on numerous occasions. In 1995, he was the first non-uniformed inductee into the Orioles Hall of Fame, receiving the Herbert Armstrong Award.

In a testament to his legendary status among Baltimore sports fans, the Orioles immortalized Chuck's likeness in a bobblehead doll giveaway in August 2002. The "talking" doll featured Thompson's call of Frank Robinson's 500th career home run and two of his most well-known on-air expressions, "Go to war, Miss Agnes!" and "Ain't the beer cold?"

Chuck is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. He has 4 children, 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. The Thompsons split their time between homes in Timonium, MD, and Bradenton, FL.
