ELROD HENDRICKS

2005 was a particularly difficult year for the Orioles family. Longtime broadcaster Chuck Thompson, team photographer Jerry Wachter, former general manager Harry Dalton and former outfielder Pat Kelly, who served as a beacon for the Orioles and the Baltimore community – were among those who passed away last year. And before we could turn the calendar page, we lost perhaps the brightest light of all.

No person spent more time in an Orioles uniform as a player and coach than Elrod Hendricks, and none served as many hours off the field as an ambassador for the ballclub, the community and the game of baseball. His sudden and untimely passing on December 21, 2005 – one day short of his 65th birthday -- leaves an immense void.

For 37 years, Hendricks served the Orioles as a player and coach, including the last 28 years as bullpen coach. He spent 10 1/2 of his 12 years as a major league catcher with the Orioles, and his coaching tenure (including two years as a player-coach) is the longest by any coach in club history. Since joining the Orioles as a player in 1968, he had been with the ballclub for all but 1 1/2 of the past 38 years.

In 2001, he was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame as a coach, the first person still active in his position with the team to be enshrined. Never has a .220 career hitter been more revered. It was said that anyone who didn't have his autograph simply never tried. He was a fixture at club and community events year round, making appearances at schools, recreation councils, churches, senior centers and elsewhere – often on behalf of the Orioles, but sometimes on his own. He earned numerous awards for his community service, and in 1992 the Orioles created an organizational award in his name for players whose level of community involvement is worthy of special recognition.

As with Brooks, Boog, Eddie and Cal, you didn't need a last name to identify him. He was Elrod to one and all.

PETER ANGELOS—MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

The Orioles have finished in the top five in the American League in average attendance in each of the last 12 seasons, leading the league five straight years from 1995-99. The team also reached the American League Championship series twice since Mr. Angelos and his group purchased the ball club; the Orioles had not been to the playoffs in the previous 10 seasons. In recent years, Orioles ownership has committed to building a winner by adding to the scouting department and rebuilding the farm system with young talent that is now beginning to pay dividends. The addition of various key veteran players via trade and free agency has led to a team that is creating excitement on and off the field. These developments are paving the way for a new era of Orioles baseball.

Mr. Angelos has had a dramatic effect on baseball beyond the Orioles as well. In 2002, he was the only owner to serve on the negotiating committee that worked out a historic labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association. The two sides were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969.

Peter Angelos has also taken the lead in helping utilize baseball as a bridge among people. He spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in a historic 2-game series in the two countries in 1999, a matchup viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. The games also served as a pre-cursor to Cuba's inclusion in this year's World Baseball Classic. He also assisted in the development of the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort has been done in compliance with Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos has also taken constructive steps off the field. Over the years, he has improved more than 10,000 of Camden Yards' seats to address fan comfort. Beginning with the 2004 season, cushions were added to more than 6,000 seats. Previously, he responded to complaints by having adjustments made to 3,300 seats along the left and right field lines that had been angled improperly toward center field. And when he became principal owner, he rectified injustices that had been done to those season ticket holders who had their seats unfairly relocated when the club first moved into Camden Yards.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Senior Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Brain Gala. Also among recipients of the Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including sponsoring the Baltimore Symphony Gala for the 11th straight year.

On a personal level, Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, were the first-ever $1 million donors to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter. The chapter, which covers Baltimore City and Baltimore, Harford, Carroll, Anne Arundel and Howard counties, had never received an individual donation greater than $250,000 prior to Mr. and Mrs. Angelos' contribution.

Mr. Angelos was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products.

Peter Angelos, who was elected to the Baltimore City Council and served from 1959 to 1963, has been involved in the community in numerous ways. He is presently Chairman of Westside Renaissance, Inc., the non-profit organization of civic leaders spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's westside. He is also on the board and a major benefactor of the Charles Street Development Corporation, which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain their presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

Mr. Angelos serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals, and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. Mr. Angelos has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College in Maryland and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Peter Angelos currently serves as a Member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: Johns Hopkins University; University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Meany Center-National Labor College; Loyola College in Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is also a member of the Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the Citizens of Greater Baltimore. He also has been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, the Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year.

Peter Angelos and his wife, Georgia, have two sons, John and Louis. John serves as Executive Vice President of the ballclub, while Louis is an attorney with The Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli. S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

BIRDS BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December, 1954 the Orioles and New York Yankees engineered a 17-player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter and outfielders Ted del Guercio and Jim Fridley. The Orioles acquired pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

TOM CLANCY—VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance agent with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October--the story of a Russian submarine captain who defects to the United States--sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as the undisputed king of the techno-thriller, a literary genre he's credited with inventing, and a master at building realistic scenarios by "turning up the volume" on current events and political reality. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, Rainbow Six, The Bear and The Dragon and, most recently, Red Rabbit.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons, and government produced maps, all tribute to his lifelong fascination with technology and the military. Although severe myopia limited his personal involvement as a member of the armed forces to a brief stint in Loyola's ROTC program, the success of his books has resulted in his "adoption" by the military. He is regularly welcomed aboard jets, submarines, and destroyers, and permitted to ride in tanks to his heart's content. Admirals and generals give him access, Pentagon officials debrief him, and many of his books are required reading at our nation's war colleges.

His non-fiction works include Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.), and Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine and Airborne.

JOE FOSS—VICE CHAIRMAN/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Now in his 13th season as the Orioles' Vice Chairman, Joe Foss oversees all of the club's day-to-day operations. These include all of the business, financial, and administrative operations, as well as working with the Baseball Operations Department on budgets and player contracts. He also has been instrumental within the last year in working with Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, the new regional television network that is owned by the Orioles, the Washington Nationals and Major League Baseball.

Foss is a trustee of the Major League Baseball Players Benefit Plan. He is a member of the MLB Scheduling Committee, the MLB Disaster Plan Committee, and the Joint Committee for International Play. On June 1, 1993, Foss joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and supervised the transition between ownership groups. Mr. Angelos appointed him to Vice Chairman on December 9, 1993.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul, MN in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First American Bank, N.A., of Washington in December '89. In April 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Community involvement is very important to Foss. He is an active board member of the Kennedy-Krieger Institute, the Maryland Special Olympics, the Babe Ruth Museum, and the Johns Hopkins Center for ALS Research. He is a former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association, former treasurer and trustee of The Green Door (Washington, DC), and former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis and the National Aquarium in Baltimore.

Joe was born December 27, 1948 in Minneapolis. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children: Katie (24), Annie (20), and Michael (18). They reside in Hunt Valley, MD.

JOHN P. ANGELOS—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 13th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the club. In January 1999, he was named to the position of Executive Vice President. In his current capacity, John oversees the Corporate Sales and Sponsorships, Financial Operations, Sales and Ticket Services, Concessions, Ballpark Operations, Communications and Public Relations divisions of the ballclub.

John joined the Orioles organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman. John oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations and Customer Service Departments of the company to provide more personal service to fans when they call, write or visit Camden Yards.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Maryland, John received a B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science from Duke University and a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore.

John resides in downtown Baltimore.

ROBERT AMES—VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames is in his 13th year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in April 1994 after an eight-year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore. He was promoted to vice president in January 1999.

With the Orioles, Bob is responsible for general administration, accounting, management information systems, human resources, insurance and special projects. He also serves as a trustee for the Major League Baseball Minor League Health and Welfare Plan.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable, credit and collections and the cash management departments.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received Bachelor of Science degrees in Microbiology and Journalism/Public Relations (magna cum laude) from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Bob is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs and the American Institute of CPAs.

Bob resides in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily, Lyndsay and Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is active in his church, Grace Assembly of God, and currently serves on the church board. In his free time, Bob's passions include gardening and motorcycle riding with his son, Ben.

LOU KOUSOURIS—VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994. Now in his 13th season with the team, he was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Lou has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

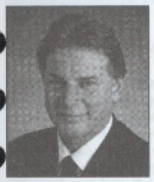
After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Lou coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community, serving as chairman of the Boys & Girls Clubs of The Salvation Army and sitting on the Board of Directors for Camp Puh'tok, a camp for underprivileged children located in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of the The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command. and has helped raise over $400,000 annually for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fund-raising support to the organization.

In November 1998, Lou was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Lou resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. Kousouris has two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who currently lives in Baltimore and owns his own business; and Alexandra, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law, who is a clerk for a district court judge in Baltimore County.

MIKE FLANAGAN—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS



Since being promoted to Executive Vice President of Baseball on October 11, 2005, Mike Flanagan has moved swiftly to assemble a team in the front office and on the field that is capable of leading the Orioles back to their winning ways of the past.

He removed the interim tag from Sam Perlozzo as manager, then added Jim Duquette as Vice President and Scott Proefrock to handle the day-to-day administrator duties, all within two weeks of being named to head the Baseball Operations department. He then set about remaking the team on the field, making two trades and signing three free agents over the winter months. The Orioles also signed Jay Gibbons through 2009, avoiding possible free agency after the coming season.

Prior to being named Executive VP, Flanagan served as Vice President for Baseball Operations for three years, sharing departmental duties with Jim Beattie starting on December 4, 2002. His move to the front office came after he had poured a quarter-century into the Baltimore Orioles organization as player, coach, instructor and broadcaster. Professionals in the game have long been impressed with his insight and skills as an evaluator of talent and of people.

An Orioles Hall of Famer and the first former Cy Young Award winner ever to assume a general manager-level position in baseball, Flanagan has been involved with the Orioles organization for all but five years since being selected in the 7th round of the 1973 draft.

"Flanny" compiled a 167-143 record and a 3.90 ERA in 18 major league seasons with the Orioles and Toronto Blue Jays, including a 141-116 mark over 15 seasons with the O's. He won the American League Cy Young Award in 1979, when he went 23-9 with a 3.08 ERA and 5 shutouts. He was a member of two American League championship teams with the Orioles, in 1979 and 1983, as well as their 1983 World Championship team.

Flanagan was drafted and signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe in 1973 and made his major league debut in 1975. In 1983, when the Orioles won their last World Series Championship, he went 12-4 during the regular season despite missing nearly three months with ligament damage in his left knee. Despite the injury, from 1977 through 1983 he made more starts (223) than any pitcher in the American League and was third in wins (109) over that time.

In 1987, he was traded to Toronto and pitched for the Blue Jays for 3 1/2 years, helping them win the American League East in 1989. A starter his entire career, he returned to the Orioles as a free agent in 1991, this time as a reliever, and made 63 appearances out of the bullpen. On October 6, 1991, in the last game played at Memorial Stadium, Flanny entered in relief with one out in the 9th inning and, to the overwhelming delight of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out Detroit's Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch at the 33rd Street ballpark. He finished his career in 1992, pitching for the Orioles in their first season at Camden Yards.

Flanagan was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994 in his first year of eligibility. He ranks 3rd in club history in games pitched (450), innings pitched (2317.2) and starts (328), 4th in strikeouts (1297) and complete games (98), 5th in victories (141) and 7th in shutouts (17).

Mike served as Orioles pitching coach in 1995, then spent two years as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He returned to the field in 1998 as pitching coach before heading back to the broadcast booth, where he remained for four seasons before being named Vice President for Baseball Operations. In addition to his broadcasting duties, Flanagan worked as a winter and spring pitching instructor with the club and also served in an advisory capacity to Orioles' Chairman and CEO Peter Angelos after stepping down as pitching coach for the second time following the 1998 season.

Flanagan, born December 16, 1951, is a native of Manchester, NH, and is a third-generation pro baseball player. Both his grandfather, Ed Sr., and his father, Ed Jr., played in the Boston Red Sox organization. Mike attended the University of Massachusetts, where he played baseball and freshman basketball. While at UMass, he faced Julius "Dr. J" Erving and Rick Pitino in a frosh-varsity basketball game.

Mike and his wife, Alex, reside in Sparks, MD. He has three daughters: Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall.

JIM DUQUETTE—VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

After serving in virtually every capacity of the baseball front office for the New York Mets for 14 of the last 15 years, Jim Duquette brought his vast experience to the Orioles last fall when he was named Vice President for Baseball Operations on October 20, 2005.

Duquette, 39, immediately set about working with Executive Vice President Mike Flanagan to put together a productive team in the front office and on the field, using the expertise he gained working his way up through the scouting and minor league ranks before being running the Mets' baseball operations himself for a year and a half.

Jim began his pro baseball career as an assistant in the Mets' scouting and minor league departments in 1991, getting his start under a pair of former Orioles executives, Frank Cashen and Al Harazin. He eventually was named Assistant Director/Scouting and Minor Leagues in 1995 and served in that role for two seasons before joining the Houston Astros as Director of Player Development on September 26, 1996. He spent 54 weeks with the Astros, the only time he has been outside the Mets organization until last fall.

Duquette rejoined the Mets as Director of Player Personnel on October 10, 1997, and 13 months later was named Assistant General Manager. His duties included assisting the GM in the day-to-day operations of the big league club, including contract negotiations, salary arbitration cases, player personnel and staff decisions and media consideration. He was promoted to Senior Assistant General Manager on December 26, 2000.

On June 12, 2003, he was named the Mets' interim General Manager. The Mets removed the interim tag on October 28 of that year, making him the 10th GM in the club's history. At the time of his appointment, he was the 4th-youngest general manager in the majors at age 37, behind only the Red Sox' Theo Epstein, the Dodgers' Paul DePodesta and the Yankees' Brian Cashman.

He served as Mets' General Manager for a year, then was named Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations, serving under Omar Minaya.

Jim was a high school teammate of former major leaguer Turk Wendell at Wahconah Regional HS in Dalton, MA. He was a 2-time All-New England selection as an outfielder at Williams College in Williamston, MA. After graduating, he worked with the Puma athletic footwear company before joining the Mets.

Duquette's brother, Pat, is an assistant basketball coach at Boston College, and his cousin, Dan Duquette, is a former Executive VP and General Manager of the Boston Red Sox.

Jim (born 5/4/66) and his wife, Pam, have 3 children. They are relocating to the Baltimore area after living in Connecticut in recent years.

SCOTT PROEFROCK—ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

Scott Proefrock joined the Orioles on October 25, 2005, as Assistant General Manager/Director of Baseball Administration. In his new position, he will interpret the Major League Rules and Basic Agreement with the MLB Players Association, coordinate the baseball data system and prepare the Baseball Operations budget. He also will assist Mike Flanagan and Jim Duquette with trades, free agent acquisitions, arbitration and contract negotiations, and player development and scouting.

Scott spent the last 10 1/2 seasons in a similar capacity with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. He joined Tampa Bay as director of Baseball Administration on July 27, 1995, only four months after the franchise was awarded and 2 1/2 years before the organization would field a major league team. He was promoted to Assistant General Manager in January 1997.

Proefrock began his baseball career as a marketing intern with the Pittsburgh Pirates in August 1987. He was hired by the Pirates as Director of Marketing Informaton Systems in November 1987 and moved over to scouting and player development assistant in December 1989. A year later, he moved to the Atlanta Braves and spent five years there in scouting and player development capacities, the last as Assistant Director for Scouting and Player Development, before joining the Devil Rays.

Proefrock was born in Dayton, OH, and raised in Norwood, MA and Rochester, NY. He graduated from The College of William & Mary before earning a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts. He is also a certified public accountant.

Scott and his wife, K.K., a native of Wilmington, DE, and graduate of Baltimore's Loyola College, will make their home in Phoenix, MD, with their four children, Casey (9), Megan (7), John (5) and Kate (3).

JOHN STOCKSTILL—ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL, MAJOR LEAGUE & INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

John Stockstill was named to the newly created position of Assistant General Manager and Director of Professional, Major League and International Scouting in January 2006 after spending his entire professional baseball career – as minor league player, scout and front office executive – with the Chicago Cubs.

With the Orioles, John will oversee the team's scouting of the other 29 major league organizations at both the major and minor league levels, as well as scouting professional leagues in Latin America and the Far East. He had been Director of Scouting for the Cubs since September 1, 2000, after serving as Chicago's coordinator of scouting and national crosschecker since October 1998.

Stockstill was a 10th round pick in the 1978 draft and played four seasons in the Cubs' farm system, finishing with Class A Davenport in the Midwest League in 1981. He returned to college and received his B.S. degree in communications at Drury University in Springfield, MO, and served as an assistant basketball coach there before moving to Benedictine College in Kansas as an assistant basketball coach. He became Benedictine's baseball coach in 1986 and also rejoined the Cubs as an associate scout a year later. He became a part-time scout for the Cubs in 1989 before becoming a full-time area scout in 1989 and Midwest scouting supervisor four years later. He held that position for four years before being named scouting coordinator in 1998.

With the Orioles, John joins his brother, David, who serves as the organization's Director of Minor League Operations. David also was a product of the Cubs minor league system.

John and his wife, Ann, have one son, Jackson, (4). After residing in Lee's Summit, MO, in recent years, the Stockstills are relocating to White Hall, MD.

DAVID STOCKSTILL—ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

David Stockstill, a member of the Orioles' minor league staff for the past 11 years, was named as the club's Director of Minor League Operations on November 3, 2004. He added the title of Assistant General Manager in January 2006.

Stockstill, 48, served as a roving hitting instructor, manager, field coordinator and hitting coordinator for the Orioles' minor league department since 1994 before being elevated to the top farm system post. In his final two years before being named to his current position, he held the dual role as the organization's Minor League Field and Hitting Coordinator, overseeing on-field instruction throughout the Orioles' farm system.

Stockstill played professionally for 16 years after signing with the Chicago Cubs as a free agent in 1978. He played eight seasons between the Cubs, Rangers, Giants and Expos farm systems, including three seasons at AAA Oklahoma City, before moving to the Mexican League in 1986. He hit .283 with 27 homers and a league-leading 101 RBI with Class A Geneva in 1979, capturing Midwest League MVP honors. He finished his career by playing eight seasons in Mexico, including the last 1 1/2 years as a player-manager for Union Laguna, and finished with a .342 career batting average, third on the Mexican League's all-time list.

In 1994, Stockstill joined the Orioles' organization as a roving hitting instructor, a position he held through 2001. The next year, he was named Minor League Field Coordinator before taking over as manager at AA Bowie for the second half of the 2002 season and leading the Baysox to a 26-26 record.

A native of Springfield, MO, Stockstill resides in Crane, MO. He was an all-state baseball and basketball player at Hurley (MO) H.S. He is a graduate of John Brown University in Arkansas, where he was a two-time NAIA All-America and played for former major league outfielder and former O's minor league hitting coordinator Wally Moon.

David's brother, John, was hired by the Orioles in January 2006 as the Assistant General Manager/Director, Professional, Major League & International Scouting.

JOE JORDAN—DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Joe Jordan is in his second season as the Orioles' Director of Scouting. He was named to the position on November 16, 2004, joining the Orioles after eight seasons with the Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins.

Jordan, 44, spent the 2003-04 seasons as National Crosschecker for the Marlins before coming to the Orioles. He began his scouting career in 1997 as an area scout for the Expos before being named Midwest Supervisor in 2001. He moved into the same capacity with Florida when most of Montreal's front office staff moved to the Florida organization in 2002, and was named National Crosschecker a year later.

Selected as a catcher in the 19th round of the 1985 draft by San Francisco, Joe batted .213 in 33 games for Everett, the Giants' Class A team in the short-season Northwest League, in 1985. He was injured the following spring and was released at the end of spring training. He returned to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, received his degree in 1987 and spent three years as an assistant baseball coach for the Sooners, 1988-90.

Jordan spent seven years in the financial investment business before returning to baseball as a scout for the Expos in 1997.

Jordan and his wife of 21 years, Kim, live in Blanchard, OK, with their daughter, Alexandra, 12.

ORIOLES IN THE COMMUNITY: BEYOND THE YARD

The Orioles recognize the value of support from the community and believe it is important for the organization to give back by being involved in local programs and initiatives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and organizations, the Orioles have also created several initiatives of their own under the current ownership group. Below is a brief summary of some of those efforts undertaken in the past year.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES, INC.

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. Since the ownership group headed by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated $7.75 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

ORIOLES FOOD DRIVE

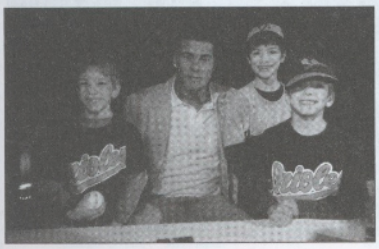
Non-perishable food, and personal items and a record-setting amount of money were collected for the Maryland Food Bank during the Orioles' 18th annual food drive, held last July at Camden Yards. The Orioles, Orioles Wives, WJZ-TV employees and Oriole Advocates collected over 10,000 pounds of food and $20,500 in cash from fans attending games during the three days. Food and non-perishable items were distributed to soup kitchens, food pantries and shelters throughout Maryland, and cash donations were used to purchase turkeys for Thanksgiving.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

The Orioles Summer Reading Program presented by Bank of America provided incentives to over 150 libraries in participating Maryland counties that sponsored summer reading for children. Second baseman Brian Roberts read to children at the Northwood branch of the Enoch Pratt Free Library to kick off the program in June. Each child received a bookmark featuring Roberts, and those who completed a series of reading and writing activities earned a ticket to an Orioles game. In August, the top reader from each participating county was recognized in an on-field ceremony. In total, over 125,000 children in Maryland participated in summer reading programs in 2005.

LATINO NIGHT AND CARDBOARD TO LEATHER EQUIPMENT COLLECTION

In mid-August, the Oriole Advocates held their annual Cardboard to Leather baseball equipment collection in conjunction with the Orioles' annual Latino Night. Cardboard to Leather provides new and gently used baseball gloves and bats collected from Orioles fans for children in developing countries in the Caribbean. Latino Night is a celebration of the influence of Hispanics on professional baseball. Sponsored by CoverGirl, Latino Night also featured a party in the bullpen picnic area prior to the game with appearances by Latino Orioles players and CoverGirl model Amelia Vega; a silent auction of memorabilia signed by Hispanic Orioles players; and ballpark décor, music and video suited to the theme. Cash donations collected at the gate and from the silent auction raised $6,800 for the Cardboard to Leather program. Pitcher Rodrigo Lopez also donated $1,000 to bring disadvantaged Hispanic children from the area to the Latino Night game.



ORIOLES/AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

The Orioles teamed with the University of Maryland Medical Center and the American Red Cross to host a two-day blood drive at Camden Yards in late August. A total of 184 units of blood were collected, making it the Orioles' most successful blood drive ever. Right fielder Jay Gibbons visited the blood drive to sign autographs for donors, and each participant received two tickets to an Orioles game.

YOUTH DAYS AT THE BALLPARK

The Orioles hosted over 37,000 youth through their annual Safety Patrol Day (10,000), Day Camper Day (8,000), Little League Days (15,000), and Kids Run the Bases Days (4,000) last season.

PLAYER AND BIRD APPEARANCES

Orioles players made nearly 50 appearances in the region and the Orioles Bird "flew" to over 200 destinations in the community in 2005. Orioles fans had the opportunity to meet their favorite players at locations that included the Sports Legends Museum, ESPNZone, Baltimore Visitor's Center and local malls. The team also held their annual Winter FanFest in Baltimore in January.

JUNIOR ORIOLES DUGOUT CLUB

The Chick-Fil-A Junior Orioles Dugout Club offers an affordable way for kids and their families to attend Orioles games and receive special rewards available only to members. The Club is essentially a mini-season ticket package for kids 6-14 years old. In 2005, in partnership with Chick-Fil-A, the Orioles donated $5 for every kit sold at a Chick-Fil-A restaurant to the University of Maryland Medical Hospital for Children, raising over $15,000.

HIGH FIVE FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

The Orioles High Five Fundraising program gives organizations the opportunity to sell Orioles tickets to generate funds for special programs such as school clubs or civic organizations. It allows groups to not only raise money for themselves, but also provides an opportunity for the group to participate in an activity together. The organization receives $5 for every ticket sold, and a variety of price categories and seat locations are available to fit any budget. In 2005, the Orioles helped raise almost $250,000 for hundreds of non-profit organizations.

ORIOLES REACH

Over 10,000 children from disadvantaged areas in the region were able to attend an Orioles game for free last season thanks to Orioles Reach. Orioles Reach is a program that provides a game ticket, transportation to and from the game, a hot dog and soda and an Orioles hat to underprivileged children.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI) PROGRAM

The Reviving Baseball in the Inner City program encourages young adults ages 13-18 to stay in school and helps them to develop self-esteem while learning the skills and enjoyment of baseball. The program is a national Major League Baseball initiative administered and co-sponsored locally by the Orioles. Approximately 150 teenagers in Baltimore participated in the league last year.

K's FOR KIDS

Each time an Orioles pitcher recorded a strikeout last season, CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield donated $25 to the American Cancer Society's "Healthy Kids" program. A total of $25,000 was raised for the program.

SAVES FOR SHOCK TRAUMA

Every time an Orioles pitcher recorded a save last season, MBNA made a donation to the University of Maryland Medical System's Shock Trauma center. A total of $38,000 was raised for the center.

KID'S CHRISTMAS PARTY AT ESPNZONE

In December, the Orioles hosted 100 children from Harriet Tubman Elementary School and City Springs Elementary School for their annual Children's Christmas Party. Held at ESPNZone in the Inner Harbor, students enjoyed lunch and played games in the restaurant's Sports Arena. Orioles players Brian Roberts, Jay Gibbons and Bruce Chen and former players Elrod Hendricks, Dave Johnson and Scott McGregor signed autographs and ate lunch with the children. Hendricks dressed as Santa Claus and delivered gifts from the organization to each student in his last appearance for the club before his death on December 21.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 38 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Camden Yards opened in 1992, 15 of them have been hit by Orioles, including five by Rafael Palmeiro and three by Brady Anderson.

Height: 5'10" Weight: 220
Bats: R Throws: R
Birthplace/Residence: Born in Keyser, WV...Resides in Atlanta, GA
Contract Status: Signed through 2008
M.L. Service: Begins his 17th season as a major league pitching coach, his first with the Orioles...Spent 18 years as a minor league player, coach and manager starting in 1967.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Joins the Orioles this season after spending the last 15 1/2 years as pitching coach of the Atlanta Braves...The Braves pitching staff finished 1st or 2nd in the National League in ERA in 12 of the last 14 seasons, and Braves hurlers posted an ERA under 4.00 in 13 of his 15 full seasons as coach...He has guided six Cy Young Award winners and nine 20-game winners, and had ten different pitchers named to the NL All-Star team during his tenure...An ESPN.com story in September 2005 named him the best "assistant coach" in team sports history...The 1998 Braves starting rotation of Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, John Smoltz, Denny Neagle and Kevin Millwood became only the 3rd Major League staff ever with five 16-game winners...In addition to his role in nurturing Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz – the mainstays of the Braves pitching staff throughout most of his tenure – Mazzone achieved renown for helping numerous rookies and veteran pitchers reach career achievements after arriving in Atlanta....Jorge Sosa in 2005, Jaret Wright and John Thomson in 2004, and Russ Ortiz in 2003 all achieved career highs in victories in their first season under Mazzone's tutelage...In 2002, Chris Hammond, out of baseball the previous 2 years, posted a 0.95 ERA, only the 3rd pitcher since 1900 to post a sub-1.00 ERA (minimum 70.0 IP)...Atlanta's team ERA of 3.13 in 2002 remains the lowest by a team since 1991 (Dodgers, 3.06)...From his first full season in 1991 through 2005, Atlanta's cumulative team ERA of 3.53 was lowest in the majors; the Dodgers were 2nd at 3.77.

Was named Braves pitching coach on June 22, 1990, the same day Bobby Cox took over as manager...Atlanta had a 5.25 ERA as a staff when he took over; Braves hurlers pitched to a 4.14 ERA the remainder of the year...Worked as a coach and instructor in the Braves farm system beginning in 1979, including one year – 1985 – when he served as co-pitching coach of the major league team with the legendary Johnny Sain...Began his post-playing career in 1976 as manager with the independent Corpus Christi team in the Class A Lone Star League...Managed Class A Kinston in the Carolina League in 1978 before joining the Braves organization as a minor league pitching instructor in 1979...Served as pitching coach at AA Durham from 1983 until July 21, 1984, when he was named manager at Class A Greenville...After serving on the Braves' major league staff in 1985, returned to the minors to coach at Class A Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, then served as pitching coach at AAA Richmond from 1988 until being named Braves pitching coach in June 1990.

PLAYING CAREER

Spent 9 years as a pitcher in the minor leagues, compiling a 53-56 record and 3.77 ERA...Signed out of high school with the San Francisco Giants in 1967...Spent most of his career at the AA level...Had his best year at Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, going 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA...In 1972 at AA Amarillo, compiled a 2.62 ERA, but came 4.0 innings shy of qualifying for the Texas League ERA title...Finished his career with AAA Tucson in 1975.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

A native of Keyser, WV, Mazzone was raised near Cumberland, MD...Graduated from Bruce HS in Westernport, MD (the school no longer exists)...Played with and against Sam Perlozzo on school and amateur teams in the Cumberland area...Has three adult sons, Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas...Co-authored a book with writer Jim Rosenthal entitled "Pitch Like a Pro" and has also produced an instructional video, "Four Aces."

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, ATC—HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955
This is Richie's 19th season as the Orioles' head Athletic Trainer, his 23rd with the big league club and his 30th in the Orioles organization. Before coming to Baltimore, he served four years (1980-83) at Rochester as the Red Wings' Athletic Trainer/Road Secretary. During that time, he also assisted his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, during the Orioles' spring training camp in Miami.

Richie joined the Baltimore organization in 1977 as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head Athletic Trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to Rochester in 1980.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by EKU as a distinguished alumnus (along with Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebel) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and served from 1994 through 1999 as treasurer for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians.

He currently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee, serves as Secretary on the PBATS Executive Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Bancells has also been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games – in 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park, and in 1993 at Camden Yards. In November 2002, Richie served as Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan.

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have three children: Christopher (7/8/80), Andrea (8/19/85) and Timothy (2/8/92). Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

BRIAN EBEL—ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: December 26, 1965
Brian is in his 10th season as the Orioles Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 22nd season as part of the Oriole organization's training staff.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his athletic training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head athletic trainer for the Orioles rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as Athletic Trainer of the Orioles' then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles spring training camp for four seasons and was also the Athletic Trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994, and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He served on the board of PBATS from 1999-2005 as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative. Ebel received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with head athletic trainer Richie Bancells) by EKU as a distinguished alumnus.

In May 2003, Brian was appointed to Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Board. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland (UCP).

Ebel holds an MBA degree in Medical Services Management from The Johns Hopkins University. In the winter of 2004, he served as an Administrative Resident in the Department of Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in addition to his Orioles duties.

The Wilmington, OH native grew up in Versailles, IN. He and his wife, the former Nancy Swanson, were married on October 26, 1991. The have two sons, Brady (10/4/93) and Brett (8/9/96), and live in Towson, MD. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and model railroading.

TIM BISHOP—STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

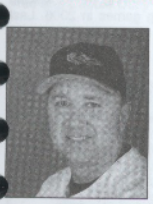
Born: November 9, 1964
Tim is in his 14th year with the Orioles and his 16th in the organization. Prior to joining the Orioles in 1993, he was an on-field coach and conditioning coach with Frederick (Class A, Carolina League) in 1991 and the O's minor league conditioning coordinator in 1992. He also assisted the Orioles in spring training those two years.

Tim graduated from East Stroudsburg (PA) University in 1986 with a BS degree in Exercise Physiology. He earned a master's degree from West Chester (PA) University. He played four years of football and baseball at ESU and after graduating, signed a professional football contract with the St. Louis Cardinals as a wide receiver. He was released by the Cardinals but signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Yankees and played two seasons in their minor league system. In 1987-88, he played outfield at Oneonta, Prince William and Ft. Lauderdale. While at Prince William, he was a teammate of future major leaguers Alan Mills, Scott Kamieniecki, Bernie Williams, Gerald Williams and Kevin Maas. His playing career ended when he was hit by a pitch and broke his arm.

Tim is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and was elected a member of the Maryland Council on Physical Fitness.

A native of Souderton, PA, Tim and his wife, Amy, were married on December 5, 1998. They have two sons, Justin (11/16/00) and Casey Dale (11/22/02), and reside in Parkton, MD.

SAM SNIDER—BULLPEN CATCHER & BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER



Born: May 24, 1959
Sam is in his 20th season as the Orioles full-time Bullpen Catcher and his 27th season with the club overall. He served in the role on a part-time basis from 1980-86 before becoming the full-time catcher in the pen in 1987. The left-handed thrower also serves as a batting practice pitcher.

Sam attended Hagerstown (MD) Junior College for two years, where he was honored as a scholar-athlete, and Saint Leo's College in Florida for two years. He played baseball at both schools as an outfielder and pitcher and was scouted by the late Orioles scout Dick Bowie.

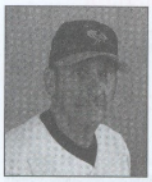
Snider was raised in Chambersburg, PA, home of former major leaguers Nellie Fox and Tom Brookens. He attended Chambersburg High School, where he played baseball and football and was named to the All-County football team as a place-kicker.

Snider lists his biggest professional thrills as being present at Cal Ripken, Jr.'s record-setting 2,131st consecutive game, the All-Star Game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1993 and being a part of the 1996 and 1997 Orioles teams that advanced to the ALCS.

For 14 years, until 2004, Sam spent his winters serving as a Deputy Sheriff for the Franklin County (PA) Sheriff's Department. He also assists with the Orioles' off-season workouts in January each year at Camden Yards. His hobbies include golf and hunting.

Sam and his wife, the former Kristy Higgins, were married on December 27, 1997. They have two children, Samantha Mary (6/2/98) and Jeffrey Michael (8/4/01).

RUDY ARIAS—BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER & BULLPEN CATCHER



Born: June 22, 1956

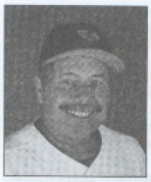
Rudy begins his 10th season with the Orioles. In addition to pitching batting practice, the former minor league catcher began serving as a bullpen catcher during games in 2005. Before joining the Orioles, Rudy served as bullpen catcher for the New York Yankees from 1993 to 1996.

A native of Santa Clara, Cuba, Arias grew up in Miami. He graduated from Miami Senior High School in 1975 and attended Miami Dade South Community College from 1976-1977, where he earned All-State and honorable mention All-American honors in baseball. He was drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 1st round (secondary phase) in 1977 and spent four years in their farm system. In his first pro season, with Rookie level Bellingham (WA), he was named catcher on the Northwest League All-Star team. He spent the next two seasons in the Class A California League, with Stockton and San Jose. His career stalled when he was hit by a ball and suffered a broken jaw in 1980, and the Mariners assigned his contract to Vera Cruz of the AAA Mexican League, where he played in 1981-82. He later played in both Colombia and Mexico, including a two-year stint as manager of the Monteria club in the Colombian Winter League.

His father, Rudy Arias Sr., pitched professionally for 17 years and went 2-0 in 34 games for the American League champion Chicago White Sox in 1959.

Rudy and his wife, Hilda, were married on December 6, 1982. They have two sons, Luis (9/27/83) and Alex (8/30/88). They have made the Baltimore area their year-round residence for the past five years and live in Ellicott City, MD. In the off-season, Rudy provides private baseball lessons to high school players and assists in the Orioles' Fall Instructional League program in Sarasota and off-season workouts beginning each January at Camden Yards.

ORLANDO GOMEZ—BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER & BULLPEN CATCHER



Born: June 24, 1946

Gomez begins his second season as batting practice pitcher for the Orioles, and his 43rd year in professional baseball. In addition to throwing BP for batting practice, Gomez will serve as a bullpen catcher during games in 2006. Last year, he charted pitches and operated the radar gun that gives fans the type and speed of each pitch during home games.

A graduate of Felipe Diaz High School in Puerto Rico, Gomez began his professional career in 1964. He batted .220 in 667 minor league games over 13 seasons as a catcher in the New York Yankees (1964-66) and Oakland A's (1967-76) systems. After his playing career ended, Gomez was named manager at Class A Medicine Hat in 1977. He managed the next two years in the Puerto Rican Amateur League before spending the following six seasons with the Texas Rangers. As a scout for Texas from 1980-1981, Gomez signed Ruben Sierra and Jose Guzman, among others. He coached at AA Tulsa in 1982, managed at Class A Burlington in 1983, then returned to Tulsa as manager from 1984-1985.

Gomez joined the Indians' organization as manager for AA Waterbury in 1986 and split the 1987 season between AAA Buffalo and AA Williamsport. He then returned to the Rangers' system as manager for Class A Gastonia, 1988-1990, and was named South Atlantic League Manager of the Year in 1989 after leading the club to the championship series. Gomez joined Texas' major league staff as bullpen coach in 1991 and was first base coach in 1992.

Gomez moved to the Seattle Mariners organization in 1993, serving as field coach for Class A Bellingham from 1993-1994 and managing Class A Everett in 1995 and 1997 and AA Port City in 1996. He spent two years as bullpen coach for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, 1998-2000, before returning to the Seattle organization. After coaching for AA San Antonio (2001) and AAA Tacoma (2002), Gomez spent two years on the Mariners' major league staff as bullpen coach prior to joining the Orioles.

Gomez and his wife, Nylsa, reside in Juan Diaz, Puerto Rico. They have six children: Jimmie, John, Orlando, Juan, Rieny and Melanie. His son-in-law is Pittsburgh Pirates infielder Jose Hernandez.

JIM TYLER—ORIOLES CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 45th year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also has worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse straight, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (25) and Joshua (24). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Glen Arm, MD.

FRED TYLER—VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, his single drove in the winning run to beat an Aberdeen High School pitcher named Cal Ripken Jr. Fred was named All-Harford County shortstop; Ripken was All-Harford County pitcher.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 18.

ERNIE TYLER—UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Born: April 30, 1924

Cal Ripken has nothing on Ernie Tyler. The Orioles' longtime umpires attendant and ball man has not missed a home game at Memorial Stadium or Oriole Park since taking his stool on the field next to the backstop on Opening Day, 1960 - a string of 3,642 consecutive regular season games. Overall, he heads into the 2006 season with a string of 3,686 straight home games - 3,642 regular season, 35 post-season and 8 exhibition games, as well as the 1993 All-Star Game.

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Orioles and Mets General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954. He became a full-time usher in 1958 before moving into his current position in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after games. Ernie retired from the state's Department of Health and Mental Hygiene in March 1988.

In 2004, Ernie was named winner of the Herb Armstrong Award, presented by the Oriole Advocates' Hall of Fame Committee to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in service to the Orioles.

Ernie and his wife, Juliane, have been married 59 years and live in Forest Hill, MD. They have raised 11 children - Theresa, Regina, twins Phil and Jim, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Ernie, Juliane and seven of the children, have worked for the club at one time or another. Sons Jim and Fred serve as the home and visiting clubhouse managers, respectively.

PHIL ITZOE—TRAVELING SECRETARY

Born: August 26, 1937

Planes, trains and automobiles – not to mention buses, hotels and all the other accoutrements of the Orioles' team travel – have been the domain of Phil Itzoe for the past 38 years – the longest tenure of any traveling secretary in any of the four major sports leagues. In that time, he has booked and traveled in excess of 1.2 million air miles for the Orioles during regular season play (and that does not count spring training and post-season play, two post-season trips to Japan, as well as numerous bus and train trips).

Phil joined the Orioles in 1964 as assistant to the public relations director. In 1968, he took over the traveling secretary duties from Bob Brown, who became the Orioles' PR director. (Cleveland's Mike Seghi has the second longest tenure among current traveling secretaries, having started with the Indians in 1975.) In 1990, Itzoe was honored with the first Donald Davidson Memorial Award, given in honor of the late former Braves and Astros executive to the top traveling secretary in the majors.

A native of York, PA, Phil grew up in nearby New Freedom, PA. He played baseball and football at Susquehannock High School before transferring to York Catholic HS, where he played football. He attended York Junior College for two years before transferring to Millersville (PA) State College, earning three baseball letters while in college. After graduating from Millersville in 1960, he spent three years as a reporter for the York Dispatch before joining the Orioles. In January 2006, Itzoe was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Phil and his wife, TyLisa, live in Towson, MD, with their daughter, MariaLisa (15). Phil also has a son, Josh (31), who played a season in the San Diego Padres organization.

DAVE NEHILA—HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Born: May 10, 1966

Dave is in his 3rd season as the Orioles Head Groundskeeper. Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as a manager for Growing Solutions, Inc. a White Marsh based company that provides specialized products and services to the sports turf and golf course industries. He has been in golf course and sports turf management since 1989, notably serving as Golf Course Superintendent at Country Club of Maryland and Hunt Valley Golf Club and Assistant Superintendent at Caves Valley Golf Club.

Dave graduated from Towson University (formerly Towson State University) in 1989 with a B.S. degree in Psychology. He immediately began working in the golf course management business and enrolled in the Institute of Applied Agriculture at the University of Maryland, College Park. He graduated with a Certificate in Turfgrass Management from the University of Maryland and has since been managing turfgrass as a career.

Although he played both baseball and soccer in high school, it was soccer that Dave took seriously. He played for the Maryland State Select Under 16 and Under 17 soccer teams, which at that time were part of the US Olympic Developmental Program. He cites playing Division I soccer at Towson State as a great time in his life. He was inducted into his high school's (C. Milton Wright) athletic Hall of Fame in 2004 for his accomplishments in soccer.

Dave is a member of the Sports Turf Managers Association, Maryland Turfgrass Council, and Golf Course Superintendents Association of America. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Mid Atlantic GCS and Maryland Turfgrass Council.

The Philipsburg, NJ native grew up in Bel Air, MD. He and his wife, Jennifer, were married on September 19, 1998. They have two children, Zachary (9/6/2000) and Madeline (8/16/2003), and reside in Harford County. Dave's hobbies include golf, fishing and landscaping.

•At the time he went on the DL, ranked among the American League leaders in ERA (2nd, 2.08), strikeouts (T3rd, 52), wins (T4th, 5), opponents batting average (5th, .224), K/9IP (6th, 7.71) and K/BB ratio (7th, 3.71).
•After being activated from the disabled list on July 18, made 15 starts and went 1-6 with a 5.01 ERA (79.0IP, 85H, 44ER).
•Allowed 3 earned runs or less in 19 of his 24 starts...Also pitched 5.0 or more innings in 20 of 24 outings.
•Struck out at least 7 batters in a game 7 times...Recorded a career-high 12 strikeouts on May 4 vs Toronto.
•Allowed 2 runs in 12.0 innings in his first 2 starts but did not have a decision...Earned his first win of the season on April 23 at Toronto, pitching for the first time as a professional in his native country of Canada.
•Won a career-high 5 straight decisions over 7 starts, April 23-July 18, pitching to a 1.15 ERA (55.0IP, 7ER)...Pitched a career-high 7.0 innings on April 23 at Toronto, then surpassed that by pitching 8.0 innings in each of his next 2 starts, April 29 vs. Tampa Bay and May 4 vs. Toronto.
•Pitched 22.1 consecutive scoreless innings over those 3 starts before allowing a run in the 8th inning on May 4 vs. Toronto.
•Pitched 7.0 shutout innings on May 21 vs. Philadelphia in a 7-0 win in his last start before going on the DL...It was his 6th straight start pitching 7.0 or more innings and 7th in his last 9 starts before being sidelined.
•After returning from the disabled list following the All-Star break, he pitched into the 7th inning in only 3 of 15 starts.
•Made 2 minor league starts while on rehabilitation assignment...Worked 2.0 innings for AA Bowie on July 6 vs. Harrisburg, losing 4-2, and pitched 5.0 shutout innings with Class A Delmarva on July 12 vs. Lexington, winning 7-1.
•Was activated on July 18 and started that night at Minnesota...Pitched 6.0 shutout innings but did not get a decision in the Orioles' eventual 3-2 win in 11 innings.
•His lone win after coming off the DL came on August 9 vs. Tampa Bay, when he allowed 3 runs in 7.0 innings in a 5-2 victory...Lost his final four decisions from August 24 to September 29, a career high.
•Lasted just 2.0 innings, allowing 8 of 13 batters to reach, in his final start on September 29 vs. New York, his shortest outing of the season.

PRO CAREER

2004: Earned a spot in the starting rotation in spring training despite missing most of the 2003 season following ligament replacement surgery...Finished the season among the top rookie pitchers in the majors...Led all ML rookies with 121 strikeouts...His 7.93 K/9IP would have been 7th among all American League pitchers if he had enough innings to qualify (162.0IP)...Ranked 2nd to teammate Daniel Cabrera among ML rookies in starts (26), was 3rd in innings pitched (137.1) and tied for 7th in wins (6)...Averaged 19.4 pitches per innings, which would have topped the AL if he had enough innings to qualify...Cleveland's Cliff Lee led the league with 17.7 pitches per inning...Allowed 2 runs or less in 15 of his 26 starts and allowed more than 3 runs in an outing only 7 times...Had 7 "Quality Starts" (6 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER) and 6 other starts of at least 5.0 innings in which he allowed 2 runs or fewer...Pitched 6.0 or more innings in only 10 of his 26 starts...Left starts with a lead on 3 occasions in which the bullpen was unable to hold on for the win...The Orioles went into extra innings in 5 of his starts...He also had 3 starts interrupted by rain delays and 2 other starts postponed by rain...Was named as the 5th starter in the Orioles rotation during the final week of spring training at the same time he was optioned to AAA Ottawa because of off-days in the O's opening week schedule...Was recalled for the 6th game of the season on 4/10 and made his first major league start that night, going 3.0 innings without receiving a decision in the Orioles' 11-3 win at Tampa Bay...Returned to Ottawa several days after that start when more off-days and rainouts in the schedule caused no need for a 5th starter for two weeks...Made 2 starts for the Lynx before being recalled again on 4/24 to start against Toronto...Went 0-1 with a 5.64 ERA in his first 5 starts through 5/13...Earned his first major league victory on 5/19 at Seattle, beginning an 8-start stretch in which he went 3-1 with a 2.63 ERA (41.0IP, 12ER) through the month of June...Struck out a career-high 10 batters in 7.0 innings in a no-decision outing on 7/3 at Philadelphia...The 10 strikeouts were the most by an Oriole during the 2004 season and most by an O's rookie since Rocky Coppinger struck out 11 on 9/8/96 vs. Detroit...From July through September, he went 3-8 with a 5.65 ERA in 13 starts and allowed 4 or more runs in 8 starts...His best outing came on 9/2 at Tampa Bay, when he allowed one run in 7.0 innings to beat Tampa Bay, 13-2, for his final victory...Remained in the rotation until being shut down in mid-September...Lasted just 2.0 innings and allowed 7 runs (one earned) in his last start on 9/8 vs. Minnesota...Did not pitch again until working 4.0 innings of 2-hit relief, allowing one unearned run, in the nightcap of a doubleheader vs. Boston on 10/2.

2003: Spent the season on the 60-day disabled list rehabbing after undergoing ligament replacement surgery in his left elbow in September 2002...Worked out at the Orioles' minor league complex in Sarasota before making 6 starts in August on strict pitch counts but did not pitch long enough to earn a win in any outing...Made 3 rehab starts for the Gulf Coast Orioles before moving to Class A Aberdeen for 2 starts and Frederick for one...Combined to go 0-1 with a 2.79 ERA in his 6 starts (19.1IP, 16H, 6R/ER, 4BB, 26K)...Lost his final start, 8/31 for Frederick vs. Winston-Salem, allowing 3 earned runs in 3.2 IP...Was rated by Baseball America as the 7th-best prospect in the Orioles organization...Batters hit a combined .229 (16-70) off him.

2002: Underwent successful ligament replacement ("Tommy John") surgery on his left elbow on 9/10...Surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL...Left his last start, 6/26 for AA Bowie, in the 8th inning with pain in his left elbow, and went on the minor league disabled list on 7/1...Became the 200th Canadian native to play in the majors when he made his big league debut on 4/17 at New York...Pitched 2/3 inning, allowing a hit and a walk and was charged with a run while striking out one batter...Surrendered a hit to the only batter he faced on 4/21 at Tampa Bay, allowing the go-ahead run in the 8th inning...Was recalled from AA Bowie on 4/16 and made two relief appearances before being optioned back to Bowie on 4/23...Went 6-3 with a 1.97 ERA and struck out 66 batters in 68.2 innings at Bowie...Right-handers batted .198 (41-207) off him and lefties just .054 (2-37)...Held opponents to a .176 average (43-244), the lowest in his 4-year career and 3rd time under .200...Did not allow a run in 4 of 12 starts or in his lone relief appearance...Was 3-1 with a 1.39 ERA (32.2IP, 5ER) in 5 starts in June and was selected as the Organizational Pitcher of the Month...Had season-highs with 9 strikeouts and 5 walks in 5.0 innings in a no-decision start vs. Erie on 5/1...Before his recall, he went 1-0 with a 2.79 ERA (9.2IP, 5H, 3R/ER, 4BB, 10K) in two starts for the Baysox...Went 4-0 and did not allow an earned run over 4 straight games, 5/30-6/15, spanning 23.2 IP...Was named the Eastern League's Best Pitching Prospect in Baseball America's annual "Tools of the Trade" poll...Was ranked as the Orioles' 2nd-best prospect by the same publication...Attended his first major league spring training camp.

2001: Led Orioles farmhands with a 2.15 ERA for Class A Frederick...His 137 strikeouts ranked 4th in the farm system despite missing 1 1/2 months...Led Carolina League starters with 12.15 K/9 IP (130 in 96.1 IP) and held opposing hitters to a league-low .198 batting average...Allowed only 9.62 baserunners per 9 IP, 3rd-best in the league...Did not walk more than 2 batters in any start...Allowed one earned run or less in 13 of 17 starts at Frederick...Did not allow a run in 6 outings...Struck out 10 or more batters 5 times, including 3 consecutive starts 5/13-5/24...Had a season-high 13 strikeouts vs. Salem on 5/13 and twice struck out 12 batters...Was sidelined with left shoulder stiffness after a start on 6/10 vs. Lynchburg in which he pitched 6 scoreless innings, allowing 3 hits while striking out 9...Made 2 rehab outings with Gulf Coast Orioles before returning to Frederick on 8/6 and hurled 5.0 innings of 2-hit shutout ball, again striking out 9, at Myrtle Beach...Allowed 13 runs in 4.1 innings over 2 starts, 5/2 vs. Kinston and 5/8 at Wilmington...Beside those outings, pitched to a 0.98 ERA with Frederick...Was ranked as the Orioles' second best prospect by Baseball America.

2000: Was 8th among all minor league starting pitchers with 10.73 K/9.0 IP...Struck out 14 batters in a 4-hit shutout vs. Hickory on 5/26...Allowed 11 earned runs in 2.1 innings at Hickory on 7/3...Minus that outing, he had a 2.73 ERA for the season...Went 1-0 with a 2.70 ERA in two starts in the SAL playoffs...Also made 2 relief appearances during the season, recording 2 saves.

1999: Spent his first professional season at Gulf Coast, appearing in 8 games, including 6 starts...Had an 0.44 ERA (20.1IP/1ER) in August, 4th-best among all minor league pitchers...Did not allow a run in his last 3 starts (16.0IP)...In his final start of the season, he pitched 7.0 scoreless innings and struck out 12...Held opponents to a .192 average (20-194).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

A native of Canada, he attended Norwalk (CT) Community Tech College as a walk-on and played in the NJCAA World Series...His high school in Navan, Ontario, did not have a baseball team...Was signed by Orioles scout Jim Howard...Became the 200th Canadian to play in the majors when he debuted for the Orioles on April 17, 2002 at New York.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former Orioles are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managerd the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final plate big league appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat in the majors.

PRO CAREER

2004: Led the majors and tied the Giants franchise record with a career-high 89 appearances, matching Julian Tavarez' 1997 total...It tied the 8th-highest number of appearances by a major league pitcher, as only 3 hurlers (Mike Marshall and Kent Tekulve 3 times each and Wayne Granger once) have ever worked more than 89 games in a season...Also tossed 93.0 relief innings, 3rd-most in the NL and the highest total by a Giants reliever since Craig Lefferts worked 107.0 innings and Jeff Brantley pitched 93.0 frames in 1989...Tied for 4th among NL relievers with 7 wins and a career-best 3.29 ERA...Also ranked 2nd in the majors with 73 inherited runners, stranding 55 (75.3%)...Was used in nearly every bullpen role during the season, and earned a save on 4/19 vs. San Diego...Held right-handed hitters to a .209 average (45-215)...Matched the SF record for appearances before the All-Star Break with 49, equaling Mike Jackson's 1993 output and Tavarez' 1997 total...During a 25-game span, 4/14-5/31, posted a 1.86 ERA (29.0IP, 6ER)...Allowed an earned run in just 3 of his final 31 appearances, after 8/5, with a 1.23 ERA (29.1IP, 4ER)...Recorded 12 of his 24 holds over that stretch, while limiting opponents to .218 average (22-101)...Tossed 11.1 scoreless innings and yielded just 3 hits in 31 at-bats (.097) over his final 12 outings.

2003: Was acquired by San Francisco late in spring training and went on to establish career bests in victories and ERA, going 8-5 with a 3.96 mark in 51 games, including 5 starts...Made all 5 starts in July when San Francisco's Jason Schmidt and Kirk Rueter were injured and Damian Moss was plagued by ineffectiveness...Went 3-2 with a 4.07 ERA (24.1IP, 11ER) in his starting assignments...His start on 7/1 at St. Louis was his first since 9/20/01 for Cincinnati vs. Chicago...He defeated the Cardinals, 5-1, allowing one run on 5 hits over 6.0 innings...Tossed 6.0 scoreless innings in consecutive starts to defeat Colorado on 7/18 and Arizona on 7/23, allowing just 7 hits in 41 at-bats (.171) between the outings...Went 5-3 with 2 saves and a 3.93 ERA (75.1IP, 33ER) in 46 relief outings...Stranded 79.3% of his inherited runners (23-of-29)...After being acquired on 3/24 from Montreal, was originally slated for AAA Fresno, but was recalled prior to the season opener on 3/31 in San Diego, replacing disabled Robb Nen...Earned the victory in his Giants debut on 4/4 at Milwaukee...Entered the season with just one career save, but posted 2 saves on the season...Closed out Giants victories on 4/6 at Milwaukee and 5/9 at Atlanta, both 3.0 inning efforts...Made 2 appearances in the NL Division Series vs. Florida...Tossed 1.0 scoreless frame of relief in Game 2 before allowing 3 runs (2 earned) over 2.0 innings in the decisive Game 4.

2002: Began the season with Cincinnati, but was dealt to Montreal in exchange for LHP Bruce Chen on 6/14...Worked exclusively out of the bullpen, setting a then-career high with 52 appearances...Began the season with a 2-0 mark and 3.89 ERA (39.1IP, 17ER) in 22 outings with the Reds...Logged 30 appearances with the Expos, going 1-2 with 4.83 ERA (41.0IP, 22ER)...Tied his career relief high by tossing 5.1 innings on 5/24 at Atlanta...Made his Expos debut on 6/16 vs. Toronto and earned his first victory with Montreal on 6/27 at Pittsburgh, tossing 4.0 scoreless innings in a 7-2 Montreal win.

2001: Was acquired by Cincinnati with RHP Robert Pugmire in exchange for C Eddie Taubensee on 11/16/00...Spent the majority of the season with the Reds, establishing career highs in innings pitched (129.1) and strikeouts (94)...Was inserted into the Reds' starting rotation on 5 different occasions...Went 4-3 with 6.02 ERA in 10 starts and 3-7 with a 2.70 ERA in 36 relief appearances...Began the season at AAA Louisville, going 1-0 with 4.09 ERA in 2 starts before being recalled on 4/15 when Scott Winchester was placed on the DL...Was optioned back to Louisville on 5/5, but returned to the big leagues on 5/28 without making an appearance for the RiverBats...Started 4 of his first 7 major league outings, including his Reds debut on 4/15 at Shea Stadium vs. New York...Earned a 3-1 victory over the Mets while collecting his first big league hit, a 4th-inning bunt single off Kevin Appier...Earned his first career save on 4/20, pitching the final 3.0 innings of 9-5 victory over the Mets in Cincinnati...Made 17 consecutive relief appearances spanning from 5/17 to the All-Star break...Began the 2nd half in the starting rotation and posted a 2-1 mark with a 3.95 ERA in 5 starts, from 7/14 through 8/3...Beginning on 8/8, made 16 of his last 17 appearances in relief...Had 12 relief outings of at least 3.0 innings, including a career relief-high 5.1 IP on 5/6 vs. San Diego.

2000: Split the season between Cleveland and AAA Buffalo...Began the season at Buffalo and was recalled by Cleveland on 5/18 when Jaret Wright was put on the disabled list...Made his first 3 appearances in relief, including a 4.0 inning stint on 5/24 at Detroit that was the longest by an Indians reliever all season...Made his first Cleveland start on 5/29 vs. Anaheim and worked a career-high 7.2 innings, but did not get a decision...Spent most of June in the Tribe's starting rotation...Was optioned back to Buffalo on 7/23, going 4-2 with 2.43 ERA in 8 games (7 starts) before being recalled on 9/1.

1999: Spent the majority of the season with Buffalo...Led the Bisons in wins (11), starts (27) and innings pitched (160.0), the 2nd-highest mark among all Indians minor league pitchers...Made his major league debut on 9/5 against the Orioles at Camden Yards and earned the victory in relief...Entered the game in the 4th inning and retired 13 of 16 batters faced (4.1IP, 2H, 1BB, 4K)...Did not allow a run through his first 4 big league games (9.2IP) before allowing a pair of solo HRs on 9/15 vs. Boston...Made his first ML start on 9/19 vs. the Yankees, working 3.1 innings, but did not receive a decision...Made his 2nd start on 9/24 at Toronto and, despite allowing a career-high 4 homers in 6.0 innings, earned the victory.

1998: Signed with Cleveland as a free agent on 4/18 following his release by Texas and spent the season at AA Akron...Tied for 3rd in the Eastern League in victories (13) and ERA (3.01)...Led the club in wins and innings pitched (155.2).

1997: Combined to go 7-13 with a 5.45 ERA in 27 games (26 starts) for AA Tulsa and AAA Oklahoma City in the Texas organization...Ranked 2nd on the Tulsa staff with 140.0 innings pitched and 103 strikeouts...Was promoted to Oklahoma City on 8/19.

1996: Split the season between Class A Charlotte and AA Tulsa, combining for a 12-10 mark and 3.79 ERA in 28 games (26 starts)...Led Charlotte in starts (21) and innings pitched (145.0).

1995: Ranked 2nd in the Florida State League with 173.2 innings pitched and tied for 2nd with 27 starts...Led Class A Charlotte with 110 strikeouts while posting a 3.89 ERA.

1994: In his first professional season, combined to go 9-4 with a 2.01 ERA in 16 total starts between Texas' Class A affiliates in Hudson Valley and Charleston...Recorded 16 strikeouts on 7/19 vs. Capital City, the highest single-game total by a Rangers minor leaguer that season...Tossed a 9-inning no-hitter with 8 strikeouts on 8/3 vs. Columbia.

OH, WHAT A RELIEF

Dave McNally holds the all-time Orioles record for most consecutive victories by a pitcher, winning 17 straight without a loss from Sept. 22, 1968 through Aug. 3, 1969, all of them coming as a starter. The club record for consecutive wins by a reliever is shared by Wes Stock, who won 10 straight decisions between Sept. 10, 1962 and April 29, 1964 (including a perfect 7-0 in 1963), and Sammy Stewart, who won 10 straight games in relief over a two-year span, July 20, 1983-April 30, 1984. Stewart also won a game in that stretch as a starter, giving him an overall 11-game winning streak.

WINNING STREAK: 5 games, June 25—July 20, 2004...LOSING STREAK: 4 games, July 25—August 12, 2005

•Lowered his ERA nearly 1/2 run per game from his rookie season, from 5.00 to 4.52.
•Finished 0.2 innings shy of qualifying among American League leaders, pitching 161.1 innings...Would have been 2nd in K/9IP (8.76) and 4th in batting average allowed (.235), but also would have had the highest walks/9IP ratio (4.85).
•Was 2nd in the league with 74 walks before going on the disabled list on August 17...Issued a career-high 7 walks in his start against Texas on July 25.
•Held right-handed hitters to a .174 batting average (48-276), lowest among American League hurlers, while lefties batted .285 (96-337) and had 12 of the 13 home runs hit off him.
•Became the first Orioles pitcher to win at least 10 games in each of his first two full seasons since Mike Boddicker in 1983 and 1984.
•Surrendered 5 or more earned runs in a game in 6 starts, 5 of those coming in his first 12 starts through June 11...Allowed a season-high 8 runs on August 6 at Texas.
•Allowed 2 earned runs or less in 15 starts...Allowed 3 earned runs or less 21 times, including 16 of his last 17 starts.
•Struck out at least 7 batters in 11 of his last 26 starts…Established a new career high for strikeouts in 3 straight games, April 22-May 9, with a high of 11 while pitching 8.0 scoreless innings on May 9 vs. Minnesota.
•Did not post his first win until his 3rd start on April 17, when he allowed 3 runs in 6.0 innings to beat New York...He allowed at least 4 earned runs in 3 of his first 4 starts and completed 6.0 innings only once in that span.
•Worked 8.0 innings and allowed only one run but dropped a 1-0 decision on May 3 vs. Toronto...Followed that outing with 8.0 shutout innings in a 3-0 win vs. Minnesota on May 9.
•Lost 3 straight starts, June 11-22...After working 5.2 innings to earn a no-decision on June 27 vs. New York, he won a season-high 3 straight games in consecutive starts July 2-14, allowing 3 earned runs in 20.0 IP.
•Lost his next 4 decisions, a career-high, over a span of 6 starts, July 19-August 12, pitching to a 6.23 ERA (26.0IP, 18ER).
•Started twice in a span of 3 days in a series vs. Chicago, July 30 and August 1...Left the game on July 30 after getting hit on the right hand in the 2nd inning after facing only 8 batters...Came back 2 days later to start the series finale and pitched into the 7th inning but suffered the loss.
•Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on August 23, retroactive to August 17, with a strained middle back...He suffered the injury while warming up in the bullpen prior to his scheduled start at Oakland on August 17.
•Made one rehab start for AA Bowie on August 31 vs. Erie, pitching 6.0 innings for the win, before being activated on September 2.
•Went 2-2 with a 2.40 ERA (30.0IP, 8ER) in 5 starts after coming off the DL…Allowed 3 earned runs in only one of the 5 outings, taking a no-decision in that start on September 18 vs. Tampa Bay.
•Struck out 10 batters and pitched 7.0 innings of 4-hit, shutout ball to earn the victory in his first start back on September 6 vs. Toronto...Also earned the win in his next start on September 12 at Texas, allowing 2 runs in 5.2 innings, but went 0-2 over his last 3 starts despite pitching to a 3.12 ERA (17.1IP, 6ER).

PRO CAREER

2004: Finished third in American League Rookie of the Year voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America after leading Major League rookies in wins (12), starts (27) and innings pitched (147.2) and finishing 7th in strikeouts (76)...Was named to Topps and Baseball Digest Major League All-Star Rookie teams...Was recalled from AA Bowie for a spot start in mid-May and remained in the starting rotation for the rest of the season...Was 9-5 with a 3.71 ERA through 8/10, but went 3-3 with a 9.00 ERA (36.0IP, 36ER) in his last 9 starts after that...Tied for 3rd among AL pitchers with 89 walks…Averaged 5.42 BB/9IP, nearly one more than Jose Contreras (4.44), the league's highest qualifier (162.0IP)...Would have ranked 14th in the AL with only 8.84 hits/9IP, but fell 14.1 innings shy of qualifying...Had 12 "Quality Starts" (6.0 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER allowed) and allowed 2 earned runs or fewer in 15 of his 27 starts...Allowed only 4 homers in his first 11 outings, spanning 64.0 innings, but gave up 10 homers in his last 17 starts (83.2IP) beginning 7/5...Began the season at Bowie before being recalled by the Orioles for a spot start in the first game of a doubleheader on 5/13 at Chicago...Allowed 2 hits in 6.0 scoreless innings to earn the victory as the Orioles beat the White Sox, 1-0...Became the first O's pitcher to win his major league debut since Rocky Coppinger on 6/11/96...Remained in the rotation and won 3 of his first 4 major league decisions...Won his 2nd start on 5/18 at Seattle, working 6.2 innings to defeat the Mariners, 7-2, to join Coppinger (1996) and Scott Klingenbeck (1994-1995) as the only Orioles to win their first two big league starts...String ended when he lost his 3rd start at Anaheim on 5/23...Had a perfect game through 6.0 innings on 6/10 vs. Arizona before yielding a walk, homer and 3 singles in the 7th inning and losing, 3-0…In his next start on 6/15 at Los Angeles, pitched 5.0 shutout innings before surrendering 5 runs in the 6th inning and taking the loss...Did not get a decision in his next start on 6/20 at Colorado, but it began a string in which the Orioles won 8 straight games in which he pitched through 7/20…He went 5-0 with a 1.90 ERA (47.1IP, 10ER) over that stretch...Tossed a 4-hitter vs. Atlanta on 6/25 to beat the Braves 5-0 for his first career shutout and complete game…Became the first Orioles' rookie to throw a shutout since Josh Towers blanked the Montreal Expos on 6/8/01...Received 13 runs of offensive support on 6/30 at Kansas City after the Orioles had scored just 12 runs in his previous 5 starts…At one point during the stretch, the O's did not score a run for 21.1 consecutive innings while he was in the game...Made his only relief appearance on 7/2 at Philadelphia, pitching the 16th inning to earn his first career save in the Orioles' 7-6 win over the Phillies...Endured a month-long stretch, 7/25-8/26, in which he went 1-4 with a 10.23 ERA (31.2IP, 36ER)…Allowed a season-high 8 runs twice and 7 runs once in that stretch...Went 3-0 with a 2.11 ERA (21.1IP, 5ER) in his first 4 starts in September before failing to finish the 5th inning in his last 2 starts, both against Boston…Had his shortest start of the year in his last game on 10/2 vs. the Red Sox, allowing 6 runs in only 1.1 innings...The Orioles went 17-10 in his starts and 18-10 overall in games he pitched…Before his recall from Bowie, held Eastern League opponents to a .121 batting average (11-91)…Struck out 11 batters in each of his last two starts with the Baysox and was tied for the EL lead with 35 strikeouts when he was promoted...Issued 10 walks in his first two starts (9.0IP) for Bowie, then walked only 2 batters in his last 3 outings.

2003: Was 5th among Orioles minor leaguers with 120 strikeouts for Class A Delmarva...Struck out a season-high 9 batters on 3 occasions, and also struck out 8 batters 3 times...Led South Atlantic League pitchers with 78 walks, tied for 5th among all minor league pitchers...Opponents batted just .225 off him (105-467)...Lost his first 7 decisions and was winless until 7/12 at Lakewood, his 17th start of the year...Allowed 3 earned runs or fewer over 13 straight starts, 6/13-8/20, going 4-2 with a 3.07 ERA (67.1IP, 23ER)...Allowed 2 runs or fewer over his last 5 starts in that stretch...Allowed one earned run in 17.0 innings over 3 consecutive starts, 8/8-20, going 2-0...Pitched 6.0 scoreless innings, allowing 3 hits and one walk, in a 9-0 win over Capital City on 8/8, striking out 9 batters, including 4 in a row, to begin a string in which he retired 12 straight batters...Won his 2nd consecutive start on 8/15 vs. Charleston-WV, allowing a run and 4 hits over 6.0 innings in a 3-2 win...Did not get a decision on 8/20 vs. Lexington despite allowing only 2 unearned runs on 3 hits.

2002: Led Rookie-level Bluefield staff with 69 strikeouts in 60.1 innings and tied for the team lead with 5 wins and 12 starts…Ranked 11th in the Appalachian League with a 3.28 ERA…Had a ratio of 10.29 K/9 IP, 4th among Appy League starters…Opponents batted .234 (52-222) off him…Struck out 5 or more batters in 9 of his 12 starts…Allowed 2 earned runs or fewer in 9 of his 12 starts…Did not allow more than 2 earned runs in his last 6 starts beginning 7/28, going 2-1 with a 2.54 ERA (28.1IP, 8ER)…Pitched 5.0 shutout innings in his season debut on 6/20, beating Princeton, 9-2…Allowed one unearned run in 7.0 innings to earn the win on 7/10 at Johnson City, allowing 5 hits and no walks with 6 strikeouts…Also pitched 7.0 innings on 8/19 at Danville, striking out a season-high 10 batters while allowing 2 hits and 3 walks.

2001: Led the Gulf Coast Orioles with 39 walks allowed, including at least 4 walks in each of his 7 starts…Lost his first 3 starts of the year, but did not lose over his final 9 outings…Earned the win in his final outing of the year, pitching 2.0 scoreless innings.

2000: Played for the San Pedro Orioles of the Dominican Summer League and went 8-1 with a 2.52 ERA (71.1IP, 20ER)…Held opponents to a .167 average.

1999: Went 0-2 with a 5.11 ERA (12.1IP/7ER) for the San Pedro Orioles...Appeared in 6 games, starting 3, and struck out 13 batters in 12.1 innings.

•Set career highs for wins (13), starts (32) and innings pitched (197.1) and was 2nd on the Orioles staff to Rodrigo Lopez in all 3 categories.
•Also made 2 relief appearances and his total of 34 outings was the 2nd-highest of his career, behind the 55 games he pitched between the Mets, Expos and Reds in 2002.
•Held opposing hitters to a .248 batting average, 7th-lowest among qualifying American League pitchers (162.0IP)...Led Orioles starters with a 3.83 ERA.
•Allowed 8.53 hits/9IP, 9th-lowest in the league...Held right-handed hitters to a .224 (128-572) average, 7th-lowest in the AL, but lefties batted .324 (59-182) off him, 9th highest in the league.
•Held right-handers to a .280 on-base pct., 9th-lowest in the AL, but allowed lefties a .406 OBP, 4th-highest in the league.
•Went 6-3 with a 3.40 ERA at Camden Yards...Was 7-7 with a 4.24 ERA on the road.
•Tied for 8th in the AL with 21 "Quality Starts" (6 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER)...Allowed more than 3 earned runs only 8 times, 6 of those coming in his last 19 starts.
•Pitched at least 6.0 innings in 12 of his first 13 starts, but worked more than 5.0 innings only 12 times in his last 19 starts.
•Tied for 2nd in the league with Minnesota's Brad Radke with 33 home runs allowed, two fewer than AL leader Tim Wakefield of Boston...Surrendered at least one home run in 21 of his 34 outings.
•Picked off 4 base runners, tied for 5th among AL pitchers.
•Went 6-4 with a 3.31 ERA (84.1IP, 31ER) in his first 13 starts of the year through June 14, and 7-6 with a 4.22 ERA (113.0IP, 53ER) in his last 21 games…That stretch began when he went winless in 3 straight starts, June 20-July 4, allowing 20 hits and 12 runs in 11.0 innings.
•Made his first two starts of the season against the New York Yankees, allowing 3 earned runs in 15.0 IP...After receiving a no-decision in his first outing against them, tossed his 2nd career complete game against the Yankees on April 15, allowing only 4 hits in an 8-1 win.
•Won a season-high 3 straight starts, April 25 through May 7.
•Was a member of the starting rotation all season but also made a pair of emergency relief appearances July 30-31 vs. Chicago when Orioles starters combined to pitch just 3.0 innings in those two games...Allowed 2 runs in 1.1 IP on July 30 but followed with 3.2 scoreless innings the next day.
•Went 4-2 with a 2.04 ERA in August, the 5th-best ERA in the AL during the month…His 4 August wins doubled his combined total from June and July.
•Went 5-3 with a 1.84 ERA (58.2IP, 37H, 12ER) over 9 starts from the beginning of August through September 17…It was the 3rd-best ERA in the majors over that time, trailing only Florida's Dontrelle Willis (1.34) and Minnesota's Johan Santana (1.63).
•Since his contract was purchased from AAA Ottawa on August 25, 2004, he is 15-11 with a 3.67 ERA (245.0IP, 100ER) in 42 games…It is the 11th-best ERA among American League pitchers over that span.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates celebrated their 45th anniversary last summer. Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

Now in their 27th year, the Orioles Designated Hitters are a group of volunteers from throughout the community that help the Orioles increase their season ticket sales base. Through their efforts, the Orioles were able to raise their season ticket sales from 1,600 in 1979 to more than 27,500 in 1992 when Camden Yards opened. The current role of the Orioles DHs includes helping the ballclub with ticket sales to businesses and organizations throughout the Orioles region.

Members of the 2006 Designated Hitters Advisory Committee include Glenn Babcock, Harry Baumohl, John Church, Hal Hackerman, Jack Hughes, Bill Jones, Bill Michael, Jody Palmisano, Reginald Warren, and Scott Zimmerman.

MEXICAN CATCHERS

The Orioles' Geronimo Gil has caught more games (268) than all but one Mexican-born catcher in big league history. Frank Estrada was the first Mexican-born catcher, appearing in one game for the New York Mets in 1971, followed by Sergio Robles, who played two seasons for the Orioles in 1972-73.

1—The Orioles set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world - President George Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.
2—President and Mrs. Bush hosted Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh.
3—President Bush and his grandson, George P. Bush, threw ceremonial first balls on Opening Day, 1992, which marked the first regular season game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.
4—President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore attended Cal Ripken's "2,131" game, the first time both a president and vice president attended a game outside of Washington.

1999: Ranked among the league leaders with 15 outfield assists before being placed on the disabled list on 8/9 due to an injury to his left knee...Was on the DL for the remainder of the season...Underwent surgery on 8/26 to repair the bipartite patella in his left knee...Houston team physician Dr. David Lintner performed the surgery, removing a loose fragment in the kneecap...Before his injury, was 2nd on the team with 15 homers, his last coming on 7/25 vs. San Diego...Hit his 14th homer on 7/6 at Arizona and had all 3 RBI in a 3-1 Astros win...His first 3 homers of 1999 were all part of back-to-back homer situations...His first home run on 4/6 vs. Chicago (NL) was followed by a solo shot by Carl Everett.

1998: Began the season with Houston and started 30 of the club's first 53 games before an injury sidelined him for nearly 7 weeks...In the 8th inning of a game on 5/29 at Colorado, he crashed into the centerfield wall at Coors Field attempting to make an over-the-fence grab of a home run and separated his right shoulder...Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/30 and was not activated until 7/16...Batted .306 (15-49) over 18 games in August with 3 home runs and 10 RBI...Had the first 2-homer game of his career on 8/30 vs. Pittsburgh...On 9/20, hit solo home runs in the first and 3rd innings at Pittsburgh to provide all the offense in a 2-0 win...His 11th inning sacrifice fly on the final day of the regular season scored Carl Everett for a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs, sending Chicago and San Francisco into a one-game playoff for the final postseason berth.

1997: Spent most of the year at AAA New Orleans before being recalled by Houston on 8/31 in time to be placed on the postseason roster for the National League Division Series against Atlanta...Was an American Association All-Star…Led the Association with 37 doubles and also ranked among league leaders in hits (4th, 147), RBI (5th) and extra-base hits (T5th, 53)...Made his first start for Houston on 9/1 vs. Milwaukee, playing centerfield…After flying out to right in his first big league plate appearance, singled to left off Joel Adamson for his first major league hit...Hit safely in 13 of his first 17 major league games, batting .333 (19-57)...First major league home run came on 9/17 at Pittsburgh off Clint Sodowsky...On 10/8, underwent surgery in Houston to repair a hernia, 6 days after Houston's exit from the playoffs...Dr. Wade Rosenberg performed the surgery...While playing winter baseball in Venezuela, was hospitalized in Valencia with a hemmorrhagic dengue fever, a potentially deadly tropical disease that lowers the level of human blood platelets and is transmitted by the native "white legs" mosquito...Was rated the No. 1 prospect in the Houston minor league system by Baseball America following the season.

1996: Played in both the Texas League and Double-A All-Star games and batted .294 with 14 home runs and 78 RBI for Jackson...Finished among league leaders in hits (2nd, 151), doubles (3rd, 34) and at-bats (T4th, 513)...Led the Texas League with 39 hits in April and batted .358…Named MVP of the Venezuelan League championship series, leading Magallanes to a berth in the Caribbean World Series

1995: Hit 14 home runs for AA Jackson, which ranked 5th among Astros minor league players...Led the Generals with 6 triples, while his double (28), home run and RBI (59) totals ranked 2nd...His 48 extra-base hits were tops among Jackson players and he had a .434 slugging percentage...Named Texas League Player of the Week for 6/26-7/2 after batting .519 (14-27) with 4 doubles, 2 triples, 2 home runs and 8 RBI...That stretch raised his season batting average from .248 to .274.

1994: Set a Midwest League record with 47 doubles and paced the circuit with 65 extra-base hits for Class A Quad City to earn mid- and post-season All-Star honors...Led the River Bandits with 76 RBI in 124 games...Had 23 outfield assists, including 3 on Opening Night.

1993: Earned mid-season All-Star honors for Asheville...Was one of 4 Tourists to steal 20 or more bases (21) as the club swiped 176 for the season.

1992: Finished 7th in the Gulf Coast League batting race with a .310 average in his first season as a pro.

•Tied with Oakland's Barry Zito for the American League lead with 35 starts, the first Orioles pitcher to lead the league since Scott Erickson topped the AL with 36 starts in 1998.
•Matched his career high and tied for 8th in the AL with 15 wins despite having the 7th-highest ERA (4.90) among the league's qualifying starters...Was tied for 2nd in the AL in runs allowed, 5th in earned runs, 6th in hits and 10th in home runs yielded.
•Allowed 12.98 baserunners per 9 IP, 10th-highest in the league among qualifying starters.
•Went 9-7 on the road and was tied for 6th in the AL in road wins despite having the 9th-highest road ERA (5.53)...Went 6-5 with a 4.15 ERA at Camden Yards.
•In his career, his ERA at home is nearly 3/4 of a run lower than on the road (4.23 to 4.92).
•Pitched 6.0 or more innings in 22 of his 35 starts and allowed one earned run or less 11 times...Had 7 "Quality Starts" in his first 11 outings but only 10 in his last 24 starts.
•Posted a 2.10 ERA (102.2IP, 85H, 24ER) in his 15 wins and a 7.59 ERA (106.2IP, 147H, 90ER) in his other 20 starts.
•The Orioles scored a total of 22 runs in his 12 losses, scoring 2 runs or less 8 times.
•Made his 2nd career Opening Day start on April 4 vs. Oakland, pitching 6.0 innings and combining with 3 relievers for the Orioles' first shutout in a season opener since 1992...He also started the 2003 season opener vs. Cleveland.
•Did not allow a run through his first 10.0 innings of the year before giving up one run in his 2nd start on a double play grounder on April 10 at New York.
•After winning his first 2 starts and allowing one run in 14.0 innings, went winless in 7 straight outings, pitching to a 6.31 ERA (41.1IP, 29ER) from April 16 through May 19...Was 4-2 with a 3.91 ERA (71.1IP, 31ER) in 11 starts through May.
•Put together a season-best 5-game winning streak, May 25-June 21, pitching to a 3.62 ERA (37.1IP, 31H, 15ER) over 6 starts...Worked 8.0 innings in back-to-back wins, May 25 vs. Seattle and May 30 at Boston, the first time he had gone that far in consecutive outings since June 7-12, 2002.
•Following his 5-game winning streak, lost his next 3 starts, June 26-July 5, as the Orioles scored a total of 5 runs in those games.
•Pitched 8.0 innings, allowing one run on 3 hits, to beat Boston, 4-1, in the final game before the All-Star break...Was the 6th time he went 8.0 innings before the break.
•Came within one out of a complete game win on August 10 vs. Tampa Bay, going 8.2 innings to beat the Devil Rays 9-5...Was the only time he pitched at least 8.0 innings after the All-Star break.
•Beginning with his last start before the All-Star break on July 10, went 8-7 with a 5.10 ERA (100.2IP, 57ER) in his last 17 starts...In one of his losses in that span, he surrendered 8 runs in 1.1 innings on July 31 vs. Chicago.
•Won 3 straight starts, August 4-15, working to a 3.54 ERA (20.1IP, 8ER)...After that stretch, however, went 3-6 with a 5.57 ERA (51.2IP, 32ER) over his final 9 starts, as the Orioles scored a total of 20 runs over that span.
•Went 2-2 vs. Boston and is 10-5 with a 3.78 ERA in his 4 seasons vs. the Red Sox, 4 more wins than any other hurler has against them in that time...Toronto's Roy Halladay is 6-5.

PRO CAREER

2004: Began the season as the Orioles' most effective pitcher out of the bullpen before moving into the starting rotation in late May…Led the club in wins (14) and ERA (3.59) and was 2nd in innings pitched (170.2)...Finished 6th in the American League in ERA, the first Orioles pitcher to rank in the top 10 since Mike Mussina finished 3rd in 2000...Also ranked 8th in the AL in fewest baserunners per 9.0IP (11.60) and opponents' slugging pct. (.392) and was 11th in opponents' batting average (.252)...Went 11-7 with a 3.95 ERA in 23 starts (139.0IP, 144H, 61ER) and 3-2 with a 1.99 ERA in 14 relief apparances (31.2IP, 20H, 7ER)...Pitched 1.1 scoreless innings to hold the lead in the Orioles' win on Opening Day against Boston...Entered in the 6th inning with 2 runners on base and got Johnny Damon to ground out to escape the jam...It was his first relief appearance since 4/19/02 at Tampa Bay, having made 54 starts for the Orioles between bullpen outings…Four days later on 4/8, he worked the final 1.1 innings to earn the win in the O's 3-2 victory over Boston in 13 innings...Made his longest relief outing on 4/21 vs. Tampa Bay, pitching 4.2 innings…Worked 4.0 innings of one-hit shutout relief to earn the win on 5/4 vs. Chicago...Was credited with the win on 5/9 vs. Cleveland, allowing only one inherited run to score after entering with the bases loaded and none out in the 7th inning to preserve the lead...Was charged with the loss on 4/27 vs. Seattle, despite allowing just one hit and one walk in 3.2 innings…Left the game with 2 outs, a runner on first and a tie score in the 7th inning, but ensuing relievers allowed the run to score and left him the loser...Made his first 12 appearances in relief before getting his first start of the season on 5/20 at Seattle…Prior to his start, led AL relievers with a 0.33 ERA (27.1IP, 14H, 1ER) and held opposing hitters to a .152 batting average...Made 5 starts, 5/20-6/12, and went 2-1 despite a 6.41 ERA, before returning to the bullpen…Allowed 6 runs in 4.1 innings in 2 relief outings before going back into the starting rotation for good on 6/26...Went 10-5 with a 3.36 ERA (112.1IP, 42ER) in 18 starts after returning to the rotation on 6/26…Had 12 "Quality Starts" in that time (6 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER allowed)...Went 4-0 with a 2.57 ERA in 5 starts in September, including back-to-back wins over New York on 9/3 and 9/10...Pitched his only complete game of the season and his 2nd career shutout on 9/26 vs. Detroit, allowing 3 hits and no walks to beat the Tigers 5-0…In the first 3 innings of his 22 starts, Lopez pitched to a 3.00 ERA (69.0IP, 69H, 23ER)...In innings 4-9, he had a 4.89 ERA (70.0IP, 73H, 38ER)...Tied for first in the AL with a 1.000 fielding pct…Handled 37 chances without an error, one of 11 pitchers in the league to field at least 30 chances cleanly...Made 4 starts and 7 total appearances vs. Boston, going 3-1 with a 1.78 ERA.

2003: Orioles' Opening Day starter experienced an up-and-down year, plagued by injury and inconsistency...After losing 3 straight starts in April, had only one 2-game winning and one 2-game losing streak the rest of the season...Missed 6 weeks with a strained left oblique muscle…Was 0-3 with a 7.31 ERA in 5 starts before the injury and 7-7 with a 5.43 ERA in 20 starts after returning from the disabled list...Pitched to a 1.94 ERA (51.0IP, 50H, 11ER) in his 7 wins…Had a 9.18 ERA (51.0IP, 71H, 52ER) in his 10 losses and a 6.31 ERA (45.2IP, 67H, 32ER) in his 9 no-decisions...After winning his first 5 decisions in 2002, began the season 0-3, going winless in his first six starts and 8 straight dating back to 2002...Missed 6 weeks after being placed on the DL on 5/3 with a strained oblique muscle in his left side…Suffered the injury in the 2nd inning of his start on 5/1 at Detroit...Made 3 rehab starts before being activated, striking out 13 batters in 6.0 innings in his final rehab start with AA Bowie on 6/9 vs. Reading...Was activated on 6/15 and started that day vs. Milwaukee, earning his first win of the season...Pitched 6.0 or more innings in 12 outings and allowed 3 earned runs or less 11 times...Allowed just 28 walks in his last 17 starts, 4 of them intentional passes...Six of his 7 wins came at Camden Yards…Went 1-6 on the road with an ERA (6.40) nearly one run higher than at home (5.49)...His lone road win came on 8/23 at New York, when he struck out a career-high 10 batters and earned his first career complete-game win as the Orioles beat the Yankees, 7-2...Pitched his first career shutout on 9/3 vs. Oakland in a 9-0 win…Had 2 complete games in his last 7 starts...Allowed a career-high 8 runs on 4 different occasions, twice vs. Boston (4/6 & 9/8) and twice at Toronto (6/26 & 7/27)…Allowed 6 or more runs a total of 7 times...Best stretch came in a 4-start span, 7/1-17, when he pitched into the 7th inning each outing, allowed 5 runs and had a 1.41 ERA while going 2-1…Became the 7th native Mexican to start on Opening Day on 3/31…One night earlier, Texas' Ismael Valdes became the 6th pitcher to accomplish the feat...Pitched for Culiacan in the Mexican Winter League after taking the previous winter off…Went 1-5 with a 4.69 ERA in 8 starts during the regular season…Made 2 playoff starts, going 0-0 but pitching to a 2.45 ERA.

2002: Led the Orioles with 15 victories, tops among American League rookies…Finished 2nd to Toronto's Eric Hinske in American League Rookie of the Year voting and one spot ahead of teammate Jorge Julio...In addition to leading AL rookies in wins, he also led in ERA (3.57), strikeouts (136) and innings pitched (196.2)…Had the most wins by an Orioles rookie since Mike Boddicker won 16 games in 1983...Only Oriole rookie pitchers to win more games were Wally Bunker (19 in 1964), Chuck Estrada (18 in 1960) and Boddicker…Tied former Milwaukee Brewers pitcher Teddy Higuera for most wins by a Mexican-born rookie (1985)…Opponents batted .234 off him, 8th-lowest average in the AL, and had a .382 slugging percentage, 9th-lowest in the league...Allowed only 7.87 hits per 9.0 IP, 7th-best mark in the AL…Had 13 wins in night games, 3rd-most in the AL...Also led the Orioles and was tied for 6th in the AL with 4 pickoffs…In his 28 starts, he went 14-9 with a 3.72 ERA (181.2IP, 75ER)...Won 7 of his first 8 decisions following an Orioles loss and finished 8-5 after an O's setback…Pitched 5.0 or more innings in all but one start and allowed 3 earned runs or less in 19 of 28 outings…Worked 7.0 innings or more in 12 of his last 21 starts and at least 6.0 innings in 18 of his last 21 starts…Had the 9th best run support in the American League, 6.22 runs per game...The Orioles scored 93 runs in his 14 wins as a starter, 20 runs in his 9 losses and 23 runs in his 5 non-decision starts…Went 6-0 with a 2.57 ERA in 6 starts in July and was named American League Rookie of the Month…Became the first Orioles pitcher to win 6 games in a calendar month since Mike Boddicker went 6-1 in May 1984 and the first O's pitcher to go 6-0 in a month since Dennis Martinez in May 1979…Had 8 wins at the All-Star break, tied for 2nd-most ever by an Orioles rookie behind Estrada's 9 wins in 1960 and the most since Dennis Martinez had 8 wins at the break in 1977…Made the Orioles roster out of spring training and made his first 5 appearances in relief, going 1-0 with a 1.80 ERA (15.0IP, 9H, 3R/ER, 5BB, 13K)…Had 3 relief outings in which he pitched 4.0 scoreless innings of relief...Retired 18 consecutive batters between 3 outings, 4/7-14…Earned his first major league win in relief on 4/11 vs. Tampa Bay...Did not allow a baserunner while striking out 4 as the Orioles rallied for a 15-6 win over the Devil Rays…Moved into the starting rotation on 4/24 and won his first 4 starts…Became the 3rd Orioles rookie to start a season 5-0, after Ben McDonald (1990) and Rocky Coppinger (1996)...Fellow rookie Travis Driskill later started 5-0 to join the list…Pitched his first career complete game on 6/12 vs. San Diego, his former team, but lost 2-0...Pitched 8.2 innings in his previous start, a 4-2 win vs. Los Angeles on 6/7…Struck out 8 batters in two straight starts, 7/19 vs. Chicago and 7/26 at Boston, before topping that with a then career-high 9 strikeouts on 8/16 vs. Detroit…Was 12-3 with a 2.94 ERA through July...Went 3-6 with a 4.94 ERA over the final 2 months of the season…During the Orioles' 4-32 season-ending swoon beginning 8/24, he went 1-4 with a 5.50 ERA (36.0IP, 22ER) in 6 starts…Went 4-0 with a 2.48 ERA vs. Boston and 4-0 with a 1.61 ERA vs. Tampa Bay...Did not beat any other team more than once...Was the first Orioles pitcher to defeat an opponent four times in a season since Mike Mussina went 4-0 against Detroit in 1998…Catcher Geronimo Gil was behind the plate in 22 of his 28 starts, marking first Mexican-born battery since 1987 when Los Angeles' Alex Trevino caught 5 of Fernando Valenzuela's starts…Was named "Most Valuable Oriole" in a poll of media who cover the team, the only player named on all 28 ballots...Also was named "Favorite New Oriole" by the Oriole Advocates…Represented the Orioles on a Major League Baseball All-Star team that played an exhibition series vs. Japanese teams in Japan in November following the season…Was the only pitcher to earn 2 wins on the trip…Did not play winter ball after the season for the first time.

2001: Went 10-2 with a 2.49 ERA for Culiacan Tomato Growers in the Mexican Winter League…Won all 5 decisions in post-season playoffs, including a complete game 4-hit shutout to clinch the Caribbean Series title over Puerto Rico…Combined to go 2-3 with a 2.89 ERA in 20 games between Class A Lake Elsinore and AAA Portland in the San Diego organization…Pitched exclusively in relief for Lake Elsinore while making 8 starts in 11 appearances at Portland…Missed the first 2 months of season with a shoulder injury…Returned and allowed 7 runs but only one earned in his 9 relief outings for Lake Elsinore, spanning 13.0 IP…Promoted to AAA Portland on 7/15...Made one start before being sent to the bullpen, where he made 3 relief appearances…Returned to the starting rotation in August…Yielded 2 runs or fewer in 5 of his last 6 starts.

2000: Became the 10th Mexican to play for the Padres, making his major league debut with 6 starts during 2 stints with San Diego (4/28-5/13 and 5/30-6/18)...Went 0-3 with an 8.76 ERA in the 6 outings before being outrighted to AAA Las Vegas for the remainder of the season on 6/19...Limited Atlanta to one run on 4 hits and 2 walks while striking out 5 over 7.0 innings in his major league debut, on 4/29 at San Diego...Left with a 4-1 lead but ended with a no-decision...Picked up his first career hit with a leadoff single off St. Louis' Darryl Kile in the 2nd inning on 6/13 at San Diego...Scored his first run on a RBI fielder's choice by Tony Gwynn later in the same inning...Posted an 8-7 record with one complete game and a 4.69 ERA (109.1IP, 57ER) in 20 starts for Las Vegas...In his 8 wins, posted a 1.66 ERA (48.2IP, 9ER) and gave up more than 2 earned runs just once (6/30 vs. Salt Lake)…Threw his lone complete game in a 3-0 loss on 5/26 at Edmonton...Won back-to-back starts by not allowing a run in 12.0 consecutive innings 7/16-21...Sparked the streak by fanning a season-high 8 batters in the first game of a 7/16 doubleheader at Tucson...Did not allow a home run over his final 4 starts, a span of 22.0 innings.

•In his third year in Boston, batted .237 through May before hitting .293 the remainder of the season.
•His .272 batting average and .355 on-base percentage were both the second-lowest totals of his major league career, although his OBP would have finished 2nd on the Orioles in 2005.
•Hit just 4 homers over his first 107 games, then went deep 5 times in his last 26 contests.
•Endured the two longest homerless droughts of his career, going 121 at-bats (dating to 9/28/04) before hitting his first homer in Boston's 32nd game of the season on May 9 vs. Oakland, then went 182 homerless at-bats between June 4 and August 24.
•Homered 5 times in a 13-game stretch, August 24-September 7.
•Hit his 2nd career game-winning home run on May 10 vs. Oakland, a 2-run shot off Octavio Dotel to give the Red Sox a 3-2 win...His first game-winning homer came on 9/29/01 with Florida vs. Philadelphia.
•Had a pair of 2-homer games, June 4 vs. Los Angeles/Anaheim and August 31 vs. Tampa Bay.
•Has 5 career multi-home run games, including 4 with two homers.
•Batted .429 (21-49) over a 15-game span, May 26-June 15, to raise his average from .231 to .278.
•Hit .377 in June and .292 in July...Combined to hit just .247 before and after those months, and did not hit over .267 in any other month.
•Had a season-high 13-game hitting streak, August 30-Septemer 16, in which he hit .356 (16-45) with 7 doubles, 4 homers and 8 RBI, to raise his average from .270 to .279.
•Hit .283 (87-307) off right-handers and .246 (35-142) off lefties.
•Tripled on April 29 vs. Texas, his first in 2 years and 2nd since hitting five for Florida in 2001.
•Hit .412 (14-34) in interleague play...Has batted .320 (114-356) with 10 HR and 60 RBI in 112 career interleague games with Florida and Boston.
•In his career, has hit .302 (238-789) with 21 homers with runners in scoring position and .378 (34-90) with 12 doubles, 3 triples, 3 homers and 98 RBI with the bases loaded.

DID YOU KNOW...????

•Orioles infielder Wayne Gross became the first player in major league history to hit at least 10 homers and drive in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1985. He hit 11 homers and had 18 RBI that season. The Los Angeles Dodgers David Ross hit 10 home runs and had 18 RBI in 2003. Orioles catcher Chris Hoiles holds the record for fewest RBI (40) for a player with 20 home runs, set in 1992.

•The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was in 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25 wins) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.

•Orioles Hall of Fame hurler Jim Palmer is the only pitcher to win a World Series game in 3 different decades.

1-Selected by the Orioles in the 15th round of the 2001 First Year Player Draft

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum opened Sports Legends at Camden Yards in May, 2005 in Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station features many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on children learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum continues to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites. See page 439 for more information about the Sports Legends at Camden Yards.

For Museum hours, upcoming exhibits and other information, call the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum at 410-727-1539, or visit the Museum's web site at www.baberuthmuseum.com.

WINNING STREAK: 2 games, June 13-19, 2005...LOSING STREAK: 2 games, June 24-30, 2005

•Spent most of the season at AA Bowie and made 8 starts in two stints with the Orioles.
•Became the 29th player in Orioles history to make his major league debut before the age of 21 when he started on May 28 vs. Detroit…Was only the 3rd pitcher to do so since 1967, joining Storm Davis and Matt Riley.
•His contract was purchased from AA Bowie on May 28 when Erik Bedard was placed on the disabled list with a sprained left medial collateral ligament...That night, he became the first pitcher who was not in the Orioles' Opening Day 5-man rotation to start a game.
•Did not get a decision in his debut, pitching 4.2 innings vs. Detroit...Left trailing, 3-2, but the Orioles tied the game before going on to lose, 5-3, to the Tigers.
•Had 2 more no-decisions before earning his first major league victory on June 13 vs. Houston, despite allowing 5 runs in 5.2 IP...Won his next start vs. Colorado 6 days later, allowing 2 runs over 6.2 innings.
•Went 2-0 with a 4.23 ERA (27.2IP, 13ER) in his first 5 starts before surrendering 12 runs in 5.2 innings over his final 2 outings...Was optioned back to Bowie following his start on June 30.
•Was recalled on September 1 to make a fill-in start at Toronto and worked 5.0 innings to earn his 3rd win, 5-3...Was optioned back to Bowie following the game.

•Went 3-3 with a 3.12 ERA in his first 9 starts for Bowie before joining the Orioles in late May...Was 3rd in the Eastern League with 58 strikeouts and had held opponents to a .253 batting average at the time of his first recall.
•Was named Organizational Pitcher of the Month for April, going 2-1 with a 1.55 ERA (29.0IP, 21H, 5ER) in 5 starts while holding opponents to a .204 batting average.
•Pitched 6.0 no-hit innings and struck out 9 batters on April 17 vs. Akron but was removed from the game because of a high pitch count…Two starts later, on April 29 vs. Reading, he struck out 10 batters and allowed one run in 7.0 innings to earn the win.
•After returning to the Baysox on July 1, he went 4-3 with a 4.40 ERA in 11 games...Went 1-2 with a 7.06 ERA in his first 6 starts after rejoining Bowie, then went 3-1 with a 1.97 ERA over his final 5 outings before being recalled by the Orioles on September 1.
•At Bowie, struck out 10 or more batters in a game 3 times, including a season-high 12 batters in 7.0 scoreless innings on August 5 vs. Erie.
•Had 44 strikeouts in 32.0 IP in his final 5 starts for Bowie...Struck out 88 batters with only 13 walks in 10 games in April and August, but 36 strikeouts with 24 walks in 10 games between June and July with Bowie.

PRO CAREER

2004: Earned the Jim Palmer Prize as the Orioles' Minor League Pitcher of the Year...Combined to go 13-6 with a 3.81 ERA at Class A Delmarva and Frederick and AA Bowie...Was 3rd in the organization with 122 strikeouts and 10th with a 3.81 ERA...Combined to hold opposing batters to a .226 average (111-491)...At Delmarva, South Atlantic League opponents hit only .201 (30-149) off him...Began the season in Delmarva's bullpen...Made 7 relief appearances, going 2-0 with a 3.86 ERA (11.2IP, 5ER)...Moved into the starting rotation in late April and started the rest of the year...Went 2-1 with a 3.13 ERA in 6 starts for the Shorebirds...Was promoted to Frederick after beating Hickory on 5/31 and won 5 of his first 6 decisions (over 7 starts) for the Keys, pitching to a 3.05 ERA...Had a 3.02 ERA through July 22, but went 1-3 with a 5.56 ERA (22.2IP, 14ER) in his last 4 starts at Frederick...Earned another promotion to AA Bowie and made his final 4 starts of the season there...In his last 2 starts, combined to work 10.2 innings and allowed 9 hits and only 3 earned runs, posting a pair of wins...Worked a season-high 7.0 innings twice, both with Frederick, to match his career best set in 2003.
2003: Began the season at Rookie League Gulf Coast before being transferred to Rookie League Bluefield on 6/25…Posted a 2.45 ERA in August, striking out 27 batters in 25.2 innings, while holding opponents to a .245 average…Established season-highs with 7.0 innings pitched and 10 strikeouts on 8/20 vs. Bristol…Pitched 6.0 scoreless innings, allowing one hit and striking out 7, in his final start of the season on 8/25 at Pulaski.
2002: Reported to Rookie League Bluefield after signing in August, but did not appear in a game.

•Was named "Most Valuable Oriole" after ranking among American League leaders in doubles (T2nd, 45), batting average (5th, .314), stolen bases (T7th, 27) and on-base percentage (8th, .347).
•Was named to his first American League All-Star team and was named as second baseman on The Sporting News post-season AL All-Star team.
•Was 10th in the league with a .902 OPS (on-base and slugging pct. combined), best among AL second basemen.
•Became the only switch-hitter ever to amass 45 doubles, 15 homers and 20 stolen bases in a season; San Francisco's Randy Winn fell one steal short in 2005.
•Hit safely in his first 14 games of the season, batting .421 (24-57) with 6 home runs and 17 RBI…The 6 home runs surpassed his previous career high of 5 in 2003.
•Was named AL Player of the Week, April 11-17, after hitting .500 (12-24) with 9 runs, 2 home runs, 8 RBI and 6 stolen bases.
•Was named AL Player of the Month for April…Led the league in slugging pct. (.726), runs (21) and total bases (69); tied for 2nd in hits (36), triples (3), home runs (8), extra-base hits (14) and stolen bases (10); was 3rd in batting average (.379) and RBI (26) and 4th in on-base pct. (.459).
•Set a club record with 10 stolen bases in April…Had 12 steals in 24 games through May 1 but only 15 stolen bases in his last 119 games of the year.
•Became the first player since Orlando Cepeda in 1974 with at least 30 hits, 20 RBI and 10 stolen bases in the month of April, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
•Hit safely in all but one game in May and hit in 46 of 50 games over the first two months of the season…Reached base safely in 34 consecutive games, April 23-May 31, the 5th-longest streak in club history.

•Finished May with a career-high 20-game hitting streak, in which he batted .378 (31-82)…Missed 6 games with strained right rotator cuff, June 1-6, and had his hitting streak snapped with a pinch-hit appearance on June 7.
•Hit safely in 69 of 80 games in the first half and 115 of 143 on the season…Had hitting streaks of 8, 9, 12, 14 and 20 games.
•Went consecutive games without a hit only four times on the season…Was hitless in three straight games on three occasions.
•Hit a game-winning home run in the 10th inning to beat New York on June 28…Hit a game-winning 3-run homer in the 8th inning on April 30 versus Tampa Bay…His 3-run home run in the 7th inning on April 16 vs. New York gave the Orioles the lead and an eventual 7-6 win.
•Became the only player in club history to hit 45 or more doubles twice…Leads all major league players with 95 doubles over the last two seasons.
•Had 4 doubles over the first 35 games of the year, but beginning on May 14 when he had a career-high 3 doubles at Chicago, led the majors with 41 doubles in 108 games the remainder of the year.
•Was named to his first All-Star team, starting at second base for the American League…Went 1-for-2 with a double and scored a run in the game.
•Batted .365 through the end of June before hitting .264 over the final three months of the season…Batted over .320 in every month except July (.226) and August (.264).

2005

•Earned his second straight Silver Slugger Award as the top offensive shortstop in the American League after recording 26 home runs and 98 RBI.
•Led the American League with 50 doubles, matching Brian Roberts' club record set in 2004…Also finished 4th in the AL with 199 hits and 10th with a .304 batting average.
•Played in all 162 games for the 5th straight season, running his consecutive games streak to 918, which is the 7th-longest streak of all time…It is also the longest active streak and the longest in the majors since Cal Ripken's 2,632-game streak began in 1982.
•Last missed a game on 5/31/00 with Oakland...Since reaching the majors for good on 5/30/98, has started 1,224 of his team's 1,244 games at shortstop (98.4%) and has missed just 10 games.
•Started 160 games at shortstop and made 2 starts as designated hitter, his first career appearances there…Started at DH on August 21 at Cleveland and September 14 at Texas, going a combined 1-for-9.
•Was named the All-Star Game Most Valuable Player, going 1-for-3 with a home run and 2 RBI…Was his first start and 3rd All-Star selection.
•Marked the 6th time an Oriole has won the All-Star MVP award, the most by any club since it was first given in 1962…The Giants and Dodgers have won it 5 times each.
•Set a club record with 31 RBI in April, topping Mike Bordick's 2000 record of 29…Led the majors in RBI at the end of the month but then had 67 RBI in 139 games the remainder of the season…Had only 4 multi-RBI games after June 23.
•Drove in at least one run in 9 straight games, April 8-17, one shy of the Orioles club record held by Doug DeCinces (9/22-10/1, 1978) and Reggie Jackson (7/11-7/23, 1976).
•Homered in a career-high 4 straight games, April 26-May 1…Had homered in 3 straight games six previous times in his career.
•Hit his 200th career home run on May 9 vs. Minnesota to become only the 5th player to hit 200 or more home runs as a shortstop…Has 216 career home runs, all at shortstop, to rank 4th all-time at the position.
•Hit 19 home runs in 67 games through June 18…Hit 3 home runs over his next 56 games and only 7 homers the rest of the season.
•Had a season-high 12-game hitting streak, June 21-July 3, batting .362 (17-47)…Also had an 11-game hitting streak, May 7-18.
•Went 5-for-5 with 2 doubles and a triple on July 9 vs. Boston, his 2nd career 5-hit game…Had 4 other games with 4 hits each, including June 1 at Boston, when he homered and matched his career high with 3 doubles.
•Hit safely in 69 of 87 games in the first half, leading the AL with a .604 slugging percentage, and was 5th with a .329 batting average at the break…Batted .276 in the second half and hit safely in 124 of 162 games on the season.

•Hit 2 home runs and had a season-high 5 RBI on August 23 against Los Angeles…Hit his 9th career grand slam off Francisco Rodriguez in the game…Also connected on a grand slam on April 17 off New York's Kevin Brown.
•Went just 4-for-19 with the bases loaded but had 2 grand slams and 14 RBI...Has batted .279 (41-147) with 9 homers and 132 RBI with the bases loaded in his career.
•Went consecutive games without a hit only 5 times during the year…Went hitless in a season-high 3 straight games, September 11-13.
•Had 98 RBI, two short of his 6th straight 100-RBI season…Is 3rd among all major league players with 713 RBI since the start of the 2000 season…Is also 4th in the major leagues with 1116 hits over the same period of time.

NOTES

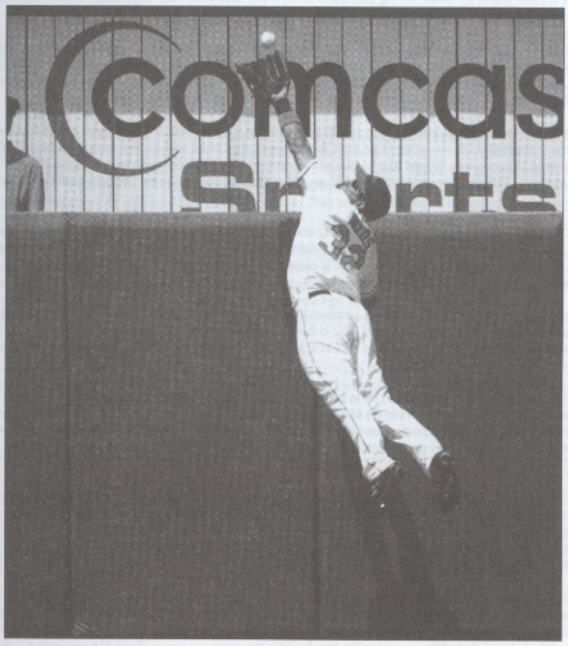
YEAR IN REVIEW



YEAR IN REVIEW—THE ORIOLES IN 2005

The Orioles went 74-88 in 2005, finishing in fourth place in the American League East Division, 21.0 games out of first. It was the Birds' 8th straight losing season, the longest stretch in club history. The Orioles are one of four teams with a record below .500 each of the last 8 years, along with Tampa Bay (8), Detroit (12) and Pittsburgh (13).

FAST START: After dropping 3 of their first 5 games of the season, the Orioles won 15 of their next 19 games, culminating in a season-high 8-game winning streak, April 22-May 1…They took over sole possession of first place in the American League East on April 23 and spent 62 days there until June 23…The O's had a season-high 4.5 game lead on May 26…Their division lead and stay in first place were each their greatest marks since the 1997 season, when they went wire-to-wire in first place.

A TALE OF TWO SEASONS: The Orioles reached a season-high 14 games over .500 for the third time of the year on June 21 with a record of 42-28…It was the 3rd best record in the major leagues to that point…The Orioles then went 32-60 the remainder of the season, which was the 2nd worst record in the majors over that span…Over the final 92 games of the season, the O's also posted the lowest winning percentage (.348) of any team since 1900 that played .600 ball over the first 70 games of the year.

CHANGING DIRECTIONS: The Orioles went 13-7-2 in their first 22 series of the year through June 19, sweeping 6 series and being swept twice…The Birds then went 7-20-2 over their last 29 series of the season, sweeping 3 series and being swept 8 times…They lost consecutive series only once before the middle of June but won back-to-back series just one time the remainder of the season…The Orioles' 27-48 record was the 2nd worst in the majors in the second half.

OVER/UNDER: The Orioles fell below .500 on July 30 and dropped to a season-high 17 games under and 23.0 games out of first place on September 29…According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Orioles were the first team since the 1978 Oakland Athletics to be 14 games over .500 and then fall to at least 14 games under .500 in the same season…It was also the first time in club history the Birds had been at least 14 games over .500 and later dropped below the break-even point in the same season.

EIGHT IS ENOUGH: The Orioles had an 8-game losing streak, July 27-August 3, and a season-high 9-game skid, September 18-26…It marked the 8th straight year the Birds had a losing streak of 8 or more games…When the Orioles were swept by Detroit, May 27-29, it marked the only time in the first 70 games they had lost 3 straight…The O's then suffered 6 losing streaks of at least 5 games over their last 92 games of the season.

ROAD RAGE: After winning 18 of their first 26 games on the road through June 6, the Birds went 20-35 in games away from Camden Yards the rest of the year…They went 6-0-2 in their first 8 road series to start the season, but then lost 12 of 18 road series with one split…The Orioles were winless in 10 straight series on the road over a span of two months before sweeping a 3-game series at Oakland, August 15-17.

LUMBER NUMBERS: The Orioles finished 7th in the American League with a .269 batting average…They led the AL in average from April 24 to June 24 and went into the All-Star break 2nd in the league with a .278 average, .469 slugging percentage and 121 home runs…The Birds scored a season-high 17 runs on September 27 vs. New York and had a season-high 20 hits on April 26 at Boston…They hit 6 grand slams on the season, including 2 on June 4 at Detroit, and hit 4 homers in a game 4 times.

NO OFFENSE, BUT…: In the second half, the Orioles were 12th in the American League with a .259 batting average, 13th with 298 runs scored and tied for 9th with 68 home runs…They were 7th in the major leagues with a .337 on-base percentage through the first 3 months of the season but were 26th in the majors with a .319 on-base percentage beginning July 1…The O's scored 4 runs or less in 30 of their last 50 games, for a total of 205 runs over that time…They reached double-figures in hits only 15 times and batted .253 with 41 home runs over the last 50 games.

HOMER UNHAPPY: The Orioles went consecutive games without a home run only 9 times last season, but 7 of those droughts came after the final week of July…They went 5 straight games without a home run twice in the last 2 months (September 14-19 & August 12-16), their longest homerless stretch since the final 5 games of the 2003 season…Orioles pitchers allowed 45 home runs in April and May, which was tied for the third fewest in the American League…They then surrendered 135 homers over the final four months, tied for second most in the AL.

LEAVING THEM OUT THERE: The Orioles were 19th in the majors with a .255 batting average with runners in scoring position after the All-Star break and had 17 games in which they left 10 or more runners on base…The Birds were 8th in the majors with a .278 batting average with RISP in the first half.

RED LIGHT DISTRICT: The Orioles were successful on 27 of their first 31 stolen base attempts of the season, leading the American League in steals through 24 games on May 1…They had only 56 stolen bases and were caught 33 times over the final 5 months of the season, however, finishing 7th in the AL with 83 stolen bases.

PITCHING IN: Orioles pitchers finished 10th in the American League with a 4.56 ERA…They were 3rd in the league with 1,052 strikeouts, the second straight year they eclipsed the 1,000-strikeout mark…O's starters went 57-61 and were 9th in the AL with a 4.82 ERA…They went 18 straight games without a win, July 16-August 3…It was the Birds' longest streak without a win from a starter since going 20 games, 2002-2003, and the longest in a single season since beginning the year 0-21 in 1988.

BULLPEN BULLETINS: Orioles relievers went 17-27 with 38 saves in 57 opportunities and were 9th in the American League with a 4.10 ERA…They led the league with 27 losses and were tied for the 2nd most home runs allowed (64), but ranked 3rd in strikeouts (411)…The O's bullpen pitched to a 1.36 ERA (191.2IP, 119H, 29ER) in their 74 wins on the season and had a 5.77 ERA (319.2IP, 372H, 204ER) in their 88 losses.

WHOOPS!!!: The Orioles were 3rd in the American League with a .986 fielding percentage in the first half…They committed only 11 errors in their last 35 games of the first half, leading the majors with a .991 fielding percentage over that time…The Birds had a .978 fielding percentage in the second half, however, which was the 3rd lowest in the AL.

JUST A LITTLE SHORT: The Orioles had the fewest one-run wins (14) in the American League and the 2nd worst record (14-25) in one-run games in the league.

STAR GAZING: The Orioles had four players named to the 2005 American League All-Star team—SS Miguel Tejada, 2B Brian Roberts, 3B Melvin Mora and LHP B.J. Ryan…It was the most players they've had named to the squad since also sending four players in 1999…Roberts and Tejada were the first O's teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken each started in 1998…Tejada was named MVP of the game, becoming the 6th player in Orioles history to win All-Star Game MVP honors.

AGAINST THE SENIOR CIRCUIT: The Orioles went 8-10 in interleague play against Philadelphia (1-2), Pittsburgh (1-2), Cincinnati (1-2), Houston (3-0), Colorado (2-1) and Atlanta (0-3)…The Birds swept the Astros in a 3-game series, June 13-15, their 5th sweep against an NL team and first since July 15-17, 1999 against Montreal…Prior to their series against the Astros, the Orioles had lost 11 straight and 15 of their last 16 series against NL teams…The O's are 64-93 vs. the National League since interleague play began in 1997, the 3rd worst mark in the majors…They are 37-43 at home and 27-50 on the road and have posted a winning interleague record only twice.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: Brian Roberts was named the 2005 winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, in a vote by media who regularly cover the team…Roberts, who started at second base for the American League in the All-Star Game, tied for 2nd in the league in doubles (45), was 5th in batting average (.314) and 8th in on-base percentage (.387)…He hit safely in his first 14 games of the season and later added a career-high 20-game hitting streak…He was named AL Player of the Week for April 11-17 and later was named the league's Player of the Month for April, when he batted .379 with 8 home runs, 26 RBI, 21 runs and 10 stolen bases.

PLAY IT AGAIN, SAM: On August 4, the Orioles named Sam Perlozzo interim manager for the remainder of the season…He replaced Lee Mazzilli, who went 129-140 in 1 1/2 seasons with the club…Perlozzo went 23-32 over the final two months of the season and was named manager with a 3-year contract on October 12.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and 8 others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:59 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:59 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect...Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-2, Milwaukee-1, Oakland-1, and Texas-1.

Legend: 1-Includes Los Angeles ('61-'65, '05-), California ('66-'96) and Anaheim ('97-'04)

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pregame ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include John Smoltz, Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

ORIOLES 2005 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

OTTAWA (AAA)

The Lynx finished the season with a 69-75 record, tied for 5th place in the Northern Division of the International League, 13.0 games behind Buffalo. Bernie Castro set a new club record with 158 hits and finished 3rd in the International League with a .315 batting average and 41 stolen bases. Bobby Danula was 5th in the IL with a .306 batting average and led the Lynx with 25 doubles. Walter Young led the team in both doubles (29) and RBI (81). Alejandro Freire hit safely in 73 of his 106 games with Ottawa, batting .299 (117-391) and leading the team with 19 home runs and 69 RBI. Midre Cummings missed the first 2 months of the season with a broken finger. He was 2nd on the team with 12 home runs despite playing in only 74 games. He had 12 home runs in his first 36 games with Ottawa, but did not hit a home run in his final 36 games. Napoleon Calzado was tied for 8th in the IL with a .306 average. Dave Borkowski led the Lynx with 10 wins. He led the IL and was 4th in the minor leagues with 182.2 innings pitched. Borkowski was 6-0 with a 3.46 ERA from June 6 to August 10. Aaron Rakers led Ottawa with 34 games finished and opponents batted .235 against him. He was 2nd among IL relievers with 52 strikeouts and 11th in the IL with 57 relief appearances. Tony Fiore was 6th in the IL in ERA (3.63) and 4th in innings pitched (166.1). Tim Byrdak led Ottawa in saves (11) and ERA (2.09), despite spending only the first 3 months of the season with the Lynx. He was 2-0 with 7 saves and a 1.12 ERA (24.0IP, 3ER) over the first two months of the year.

BOWIE (AA)

The Baysox finished the season with a 74-68 record and in 3rd place in the Eastern League, 8.0 games behind Akron. Nick Markakis spent the first 4 months of the season with Frederick before being transferred to Bowie on August 1. He batted .339 in 33 games with Bowie and led the club in both on-base percentage (.420) and slugging percentage (.573). Simon Pond led the team with 19 home runs and 75 RBI in 110 games. Peter Bergeron was 7th in the Eastern League with a .296 batting average. Brandon Fahey tied for 9th in the EL with a .291 batting average and finished tied for first among all minor leaguers with 22 sacrifice hits. In only his 2nd start with the Baysox on August 14 vs. Erie, Matt Bailie became the first Baysox pitcher in franchise history to pitch a 9-inning no-hitter. Hayden Penn went 7-6 with a 3.83 ERA and 120 strikeouts in 20 games for the Baysox. Penn was 3-1 with a 1.97 ERA and 44 strikeouts in August. Chris Ray split time between Bowie and Baltimore, going 1-2 with an 0.96 ERA and team-high 18 saves with the Baysox. Ray did not allow a run in his last 17 games with Bowie (20.1IP). Sandy Rleal posted a 2.04 ERA and was 2nd on the team with 16 saves. Cory Morris was 2nd in the EL with 159 strikeouts and 4th with a 3.03 ERA. Richard Stahl started the season with Frederick before being transferred to Bowie on May 28. He went winless in his first 8 starts with the Baysox before going 3-1 with a 2.59 ERA in his final 6 starts of the season. Chris Piersoll was 11-1 with 3 saves in 53 games between Ottawa, Frederick and Bowie. He was 5-1 with one save and a 1.61 ERA after joining the Baysox at the end of May. Scott Rice was tied for 2nd in the EL with 57 appearances. He went 4-1 with a 1.74 ERA through the first 3 months of the season.

FREDERICK (A)

The Keys won the Carolina League Championship last year, beating Kinston 2-0 in Game 5 of a best-of-five series. Frederick went 79-61, the best record in franchise history, and finished the regular season in first place in the Northern Division of the Carolina League. It was the Keys' first title since 1990 and the first by an Orioles' full-season affiliate since 2000. Jeff Fiorentino spent the majority of the season with Frederick and led the Keys with 22 home runs and 70 runs scored. He was named Carolina League Player of the Month in August, batting .347 with 8 doubles, a triple, 12 home runs and 33 RBI. Nate Spears hit safely in 83 of his 111 regular season games with the Keys, including hitting streaks of 15 and 12 games. He led the team with 30 doubles and tied for 2nd in the CL with 6 triples. RIPKEN SR. AND RUSSO AWARDS PRESENTED

The 2005 winners:

Bowie pitching coach Larry McCall was named winner of the 2005 Cal Ripken Sr. Player Development Award, presented to a minor league staff member who exemplifies the qualities of the late Oriole who is regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way." Under McCall's guidance, the Baysox staff led the Eastern League in strikeouts (1,167) and were 2nd in ERA (3.54). Over the past two seasons as Bowie's pitching coach, he has been instrumental in the development of current Orioles pitchers Daniel Cabrera, Hayden Penn and Chris Ray. McCall has spent 16 years in the Orioles organization and was named pitching coach for AAA Ottawa this season.

Major League scout Bruce Kison was presented the 2005 Jim Russo Scout of the Year Award, named for the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. Kison completed his 6th season as a scout, covering 6 major league clubs and their AAA and AA affiliates as well as special scouting assignments related to prospective trades and free agent signings. He spent 15 years in the major leagues as a pitcher before serving as a pitching coach and instructor for the Royals, Pirates and Orioles.

THE ORIOLES "20-20" CLUB

Four different Orioles have had at least 20 homers and 20 stolen bases in the same season. Brady Anderson is the only player to do it more than once:

1969 - Paul Blair (HR-26, SB-20)
1975 - Don Baylor (HR-25, SB-32)
1976 - Reggie Jackson (HR-27, SB-28)
1992 - Brady Anderson (HR-21, SB-53)
1996 - Brady Anderson (HR-50, SB-21)
1999 - Brady Anderson (HR-24, SB-36)

TENS ARE WILD

The Orioles became only the second team to score 10 or more runs in an inning in consecutive games in 2000. They had a 10-run 4th inning on September 28 vs. Toronto and followed it up the next night, September 29, with a 10-run 2nd inning vs. the New York Yankees. The Houston Astros had an 11-run inning and a 10-run inning in a doubleheader vs. the New York Mets on July 30, 1969.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 210-159, in their 52-year history (including post-season)...They have a 120-71 advantage in Baltimore, including a 39-30 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. ORIOLES AMONG MAJORS LEADERS SINCE 1980: The Orioles have belted 123 grand slams starting in 1980, 4th in the majors over the last 26 years behind Boston (131), Seattle (126) and the New York Yankees (124). THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record 3 grand slams on Aug. 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit 4th inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the 5th time in history one club has hit 2 grand slams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam. Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987. TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit 2 grand slams in the same game and three times it has been done by an Oriole. Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on Aug. 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the 3rd and 8th innings. Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among 4 players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the 1st and 2nd innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the 5th and 6th innings at Washington on June 26, 1970. GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit 5 bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with 6 grand slams in '87. POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only 2 major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar 's slam was the first in LCS history. OPPONENTS: The 2000 Orioles allowed a club-record 9 grand slams...The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The '78 O's allowed slams in 3 straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit...Edgar Martinez is the only player with 3 grand slams against the O's...12 players have his 2, including 4 active players (Ken Griffey Jr., Manny Ramirez, Alex Rodriguez, and Gary Sheffield)...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up 2 grand slams against the Orioles and the 3rd to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago 's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1956). GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up 6 bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up 9 overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for 2nd highest career grand slams allowed in major league history behind Mike Jackson, who allowed 10...Dave McNally, Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, and Jesse Orosco are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing 4 apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed 4 grand slams, including one in post-season play)...Among current O's hurlers, Bruce Chen has allowed 6 career grand slams...He and Daniel Cabrera have given up 2 slams as Orioles, all of them coming last year...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

On July 21, 2004, David Newhan hit an inside-the-park home run off Boston's Pedro Martinez at Fenway Park. It was the first by an Oriole since Phil Bradley accomplished the feat on June 8, 1990 at Memorial Stadium against the New York Yankees.

When Bradley circled the bases, it was the Orioles' first inside-the-park home run since Al Bumbry did it against the Chicago White Sox on August 21, 1976 at Comiskey Park.

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat on May 6 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen. Hentgen was victimized again on September 13 at Toronto, giving up an inside-the-park homer to Blue Jays catcher Greg Myers.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 21 seasons, Oriole pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons in the past 37 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (14), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Red Sox (11), and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24 -first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24 -2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67), was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Yankees Hall of Famer Whitey Ford, who retired in 1967, has beaten the Orioles more than any other pitcher. He was 30-16 against the Birds and is one of 14 pitchers to have posted 20 or more wins lifetime against the O's. The others: Jim "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Roger Clemens (22-12), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Frank Tanana (21-17), Jim Kaat (21-21), Andy Pettitte (20-5), Earl Wilson (20-9), Bert Blyleven (20-14), Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (both 20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23). Among active hurlers, Clemens has the most wins against the Orioles (22-12), followed by Pettitte (20-5), Jamie Moyer (16-3), David Wells (16-12), Kelvim Escobar (12-3), Roy Halladay (11-4), Tim Wakefield (11-11) and Kenny Rogers (10-9).

LOSERS: "Catfish" Hunter, the 2nd biggest lifetime winner vs. Baltimore, also is the biggest lifetime loser (24 losses)...At one time, Hunter had a 23-16 mark vs. the O's but lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79 to finish 26-24...There have been 4 other 20-game losers vs. the Orioles: Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (both 10-22), Jim Kaat (21-21) and Fritz Peterson (14-21)...Three pitchers lost 19 games to the O's: Mickey Lolich (25-19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...Nolan Ryan finished 10-17 vs. Baltimore...Among active pitchers, Roger Clemens (22-12) and David Wells (16-12) have the most losses, followed by Aaron Sele (8-11) and Tim Wakefield (11-11)...Randy Johnson went 3-0 against the Orioles in 2005 to raise his record to 8-7 lifetime vs. the O's.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and hit into 16 in 52 seasons.

The Orioles pulled off their first triple play in eight seasons on September 1, 2000 at Cleveland...With Indians runners on first and second and none out in the 2nd inning, O's SS Melvin Mora allowed a short fly to left by Sandy Alomar to drop in front of him. The Cleveland runners – Travis Fryman at first and Will Cordero at second -- apparently thought the infield fly rule had been called; it wasn't. Mora quickly picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who stepped on second base to force Cordero and tagged Fryman for the second out. Pitcher Sidney Ponson then took the ball from Hairston and, after a slight delay, flipped the ball to first baseman Jeff Conine for the third out on Alomar, who had began to retreat to the dugout when the ball was hit into the air. After some discussion among the umpires and the ejection of Indians manager Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles' previous triple play, and their last one at home, came August 25, 1992 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against California...With Tim Salmon on 3rd and Chad Curtis on 1st, Gary Gaetti lined out to O's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

On the other hand, the O's have hit into 2 triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent triple play involving the Orioles came April 3, '96, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at 3rd and Rafael Palmeiro at 1st, Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Bip Roberts for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from 3rd. Hamelin's throw to CA Sal Fasano was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

The Orioles have won a total of 58 Gold Gloves, more than any American League team since the awards were created.

Totals for each team: Cardinals 76; ORIOLES 58; Yankees 53, Reds 48; Pirates 43; Braves 42; Red Sox 37; Giants, Phillies & Tigers 36; Cubs, Twins & Rangers/Senators 35; White Sox 33; Dodgers 32; Mariners & Indians 29; Angels 28; Blue Jays 22; Expos/Nationals 21; A's 19; Astros 18; Royals 16; Padres 15; Mets 14; Brewers, Marlins & Rockies 9; Diamondbacks 2.

Multiple Winners: A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson, whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (Chicago Cubs pitcher Greg Maddux has won 15 Gold Gloves)...Other Oriole multiple winners: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich & Mike Mussina (4 each); Davey Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro & Cal Ripken (2 each)...Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio 9, Mussina has won 6 and Palmeiro 3.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Two sets of brothers and five father-son combinations have played for the Orioles. The brother combos are the Ripkens, Cal (1981-2001) and Bill (1987-92 & 1996); and catcher Dick Brown ('63-'65) and his brother Larry ('73), an infielder. The father-son duos are third baseman Bob Kennedy ('54-'55) and his son, catcher Terry ('87-'88); outfielders Don Buford ('68-'72) and his son Damon ('93-'95); pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. ('68) and John Jr. ('93); outfielders Dave May ('67-'70) and his son, Derrick (1999); and outfielders Tim Raines Sr. and his son Tim Jr. (2001).

Raines Sr. and Jr. were only the second father-son teammates in major league history. Ken Griffey Sr. and Jr. played together for Seattle in 1990-1991.

ORIOLES SILVER SLUGGER AWARD WINNERS

In 2005, Miguel Tejada earned his 2nd consecutive Silver Slugger Award as the top offensive shortstop in the American League. The Silver Slugger, initiated in 1980, was created by Hillerich & Bradsby, makers of Louisville Slugger bats, to honor the best offensive player at each position in both leagues. The awards are voted on by managers and coaches in each league. Tejada is one of only 7 different Orioles to win the award and is the third Oriole to earn more than one award, joining Cal Ripken Jr. (8 awards) and Eddie Murrey (2).

RECORDS & HISTORY

ALL-STAR NOTES

Shortstop Miguel Tejada became the fifth different Oriole to earn All-Star MVP honors with a home run, 2 RBI and a hand in 2 double plays to lead the American League to a 7-5 win over the National League in the 2005 game played in Detroit. Tejada joined Brooks Robinson ('66), Frank Robinson ('71), Cal Ripken ('91 & '01) and Roberto Alomar ('98) in winning the MVP, which was created in 1962. With six overall All-Star MVP Awards, the Orioles have won more than any other team (the Giants and Dodgers have won five each).

In 2005, for the first time in six years, the Orioles were represented by four players on the American League All-Star squad, including two starters, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada. They were the first O's teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken each started in 1998, and they were just the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 and Alomar and Ripken in 1996. In addition, Melvin Mora made his second straight All-Star appearance and reliever B.J. Ryan made his first.

FINAL CAL: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the 3rd inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez "pushed" him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 200 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: With the 2005 selections of 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada, 12 different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts and Miguel Tejada (1 each).

ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had five different players who have earned All-Star MVP honors...In 2001, Cal Ripken became only the fourth player and the first American Leaguer to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards when he took the honors in Seattle...He joined Willie Mays, Steve Garvey and Gary Carter as the only 2-time winners...Cal also won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL...Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983...Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver's Coors Field with a 3-for-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win...Alomar, Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for 6 hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976... Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored...Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

HOME RUN DERBY: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991...Tejada declined to participate in the 2005 contest, bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the 7th overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...Cal Ripken also hit two home runs in All-Star games, in 1991 (7/9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (7/10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, none on)...The others were by Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on); and Roberto Alomar (7/7/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the only time they've made back-to-back post season appearances since 1973-74...For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series...In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in two Division Series, winning both...They are 6-2 overall (.750)...The O's are 3-1 at home and 3-1 on the road.

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 9 LCS, going 5-4...They are 21-16 (.568)...The O's are 10-9 at home and 11-6 on the road...Only the New York Yankees (39 wins), Atlanta Braves (27 wins), Oakland A's (23 wins), and St. Louis Cardinals (22 wins) have won more games in League Championship Series play...The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in championship games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POST SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the post season in 10 different seasons and are 46-32 (.590)...They are 23-17 at home and 23-15 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the 2nd best postseason record of any team...They also have a 2.69 ERA in postseason play, the 2nd lowest of any team.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post-season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 10 post season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96 & '97, the Orioles drew 488,079 fans (average 48,808)...The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79.

DID YOU KNOW...????

- Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now pitching coach for Class AA Bowie, is one of only 15 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (12th pick overall), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980.
- In addition to McGregor, first-round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their career include Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, Doc Gooden, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Rick Sutcliffe, Bob Welch and Barry Zito.
- Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the 5th inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.
- Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, the only reliever to fan more than 9 batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix holds the Orioles regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever in a game, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.
- The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured 4 players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384). Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).
- Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit 3 triples in one game. He did it Sept. 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.
- Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that 3 straight seasons since 1951.

THE HISTORY OF THE ORIOLES

What do Black Sox, Elite Giants, Marylands, Monumentals, Orioles and Terrapins all have in common? They're all nicknames for professional baseball teams that have played in the city of Baltimore, dating back to the game's 19th century roots.

Baltimore first experienced professional baseball in 1872, when the Lord Baltimores played their inaugural games in the old National Association. Ten years later, another incarnation of the Lord Baltimores made its debut in the American Association; one year after that, the franchise adopted the name "Orioles," honoring Maryland's state bird. It was the first time the nickname would become affiliated with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

In 1884, the Orioles encountered some intra-city competition when the Baltimore Monumentals became one of the charter franchises in the new Union Association. By mid-season, the Monumentals had transferred to Lancaster; and by the end of one year, the new league was done.

Although both the American and National Associations have come to be regarded as major league by baseball historians, Baltimore stepped up a notch further when it joined the National League in 1892. Spearheaded by the skilled batting of Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley and Willie Keeler, and the scrappy play of Hughie Jennings and John McGraw, the Orioles of the 1890s played an aggressive, fire-breathing kind of baseball never seen before. Under the direction of the innovative Ned Hanlon, the Orioles won three consecutive National League pennants from 1894 to 1896.

Despite their success, Baltimore's National League franchise lasted for only eight seasons, folding after the 1899 campaign. Within two years, Baltimore baseball found a new home -in the upstart American League. Once again adopting the nickname Orioles, the franchise played for two seasons before relocating to New York. First playing as the Highlanders, the former Baltimore club eventually became the New York Yankees.

The transfer of the franchise to New York left Baltimore without a major league team until 1914. The Baltimore Terrapins, named for the varieties of edible turtles common to the state of Maryland, entered the newly formed Federal League that season. Alas, the league, and its franchises, lasted just the one year. Baltimore would not enjoy major league baseball for another four decades. Yet, professional baseball did not completely abandon Baltimore. Minor league entries, still playing under the popular name of Orioles, thrived in the Eastern League (1903-11) and the International League (1912-53). During the early years of Baltimore's existence in the International League, a young left-handed pitcher named Babe Ruth starred for the team. Ruth split the 1914 season between Baltimore and Providence, winning a combined 22 games and losing only nine.

From the 1920s through the 1940s, area baseball fans also enjoyed the exploits of the city's two Negro League teams, the Black Sox and Elite Giants. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

In September of 1953, Bill Veeck's financial problems helped Baltimore land another major league team. Veeck sold his American League franchise, the St. Louis Browns, to a Baltimore-based syndicate headed by Mayor Tommy D'Alesandro and attorney Clarence Miles. Playing in the renovated Memorial Stadium, the new Orioles made their return to the American League in 1954.

In the late 1950s, the Orioles' farm system began to produce a bevy of talent, led by future Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson. With a young nucleus in place, the Orioles sought veteran assistance to complete their championship puzzle. After the 1965 season, the Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds. Led by Robinson's Triple Crown season, the slugging of young first baseman Boog Powell, and the terrific bullpen combination of Moe Drabowsky, Eddie Fisher and Stu Miller, the 1966 Orioles won the first World Series in the franchise's history.

The Orioles returned to American League dominance three years later, with Hall of Fame manager Earl Weaver now leading the charge. Pitching, three-run homers, and outstanding defensive play stamped Weaver's Orioles as winners. From 1969 to 1971, the O's captured three American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series, where Brooks Robinson compiled a highlight reel's worth of defensive brilliance. After some lean years in the middle of the decade, the Orioles returned to glory in 1979, when they extended the Pittsburgh Pirates to seven games before losing the World Series. Four years later, with a new generation of stars headed up by Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken, Jr., the Orioles won their third world championship four games to one against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The endurance and excellence of Ripken served as a hallmark for much of the 1980s and 90s, culminating in the breaking of a baseball legend's record. On the night of September 6, 1995, Ripken played in his 2,131st consecutive game, eclipsing the mark of Hall of Famer Lou Gehrig. The 1990s also saw the Orioles move into a new era, as they departed Memorial Stadium for a ballpark considered a state-of-the-art model for all new stadium projects - Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2003, Eddie Murray became the 11th modern Oriole to be elected to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. He is one of five players whose official plaque shows him wearing an Orioles hat, joining two of his teammates, Jim Palmer and Brooks Robinson, and two of his former managers, Earl Weaver and Frank Robinson. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for biographies and statistics.)

Jim Palmer garnered 92.6% of the total vote (411 of 444 ballots cast) among the Baseball Writers Association of America members eligible to be elected in his first year of eligibility. In addition to Palmer and Murray, other former Orioles elected in their first year of eligibility were Brooks and Frank Robinson and Reggie Jackson.

The 11 modern Orioles in the Hall of Fame include nine players, a manager and an executive:

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)
George Kell ('83, VCS+)
Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)
Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)
Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)
Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)
Earl Weaver ('96, VCS+)
Lee MacPhail ('98, VCS+)
Eddie Murray ('03, 85%)

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In addition to the 11 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioloes during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)
Roger Bresnahan (c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)
William Candy Cummings (rhp)
Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp)
Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr)
Rogers Hornsby (2b)
Hughie Jennings (ss)
Wee Willie Keeler (of)
Joe Kelley (of-lf)
Rube Marquard (lhp)
Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 through 1971.
Media Members, Too: The Hall of Fame has also honored two members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993, beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."
Native Marylanders in the Hall: In addition to Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore), four other native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).
A Look Ahead: Cal Ripken becomes eligible for the Hall of Fame in 2007.

NOTABLE ORIOLES ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2006, the Herb Armstrong Award will be presented to a pair of beloved former trainers, the late Eddie Weidner and the late Ralph Salvon. Weidner began his career as a batboy with the International League Orioles before being named trainer in 1922. He oversaw the minor league Orioles for 32 years and was the first trainer for the major league Orioles starting in 1954. He held that position until retiring in 1967, when his assistant, Salvon, took over and ran the training room for the next 21 years. They were innovative and integral parts of the Orioles staff.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

Brian Roberts was named the 2005 winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award. Roberts captured the honor after leading the team with a .314 batting average and being named to his first American League All-Star team. Roberts became the 34th different player to win the award in the club's 52 seasons. Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3) and Boog Powell (2) are the only players to win the award more than once.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO award when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years.The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl ranks 20th in victories among 20th century managers. His .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 5th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons exclusively in the 20th century.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 AL East titles, 4 AL pennants and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Pembroke Pines, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage, as well as a stepdaughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and shares the record (with former pitcher Jim Kaat) for most Gold Gloves with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 12th on the all-time list of games played, 4th in the AL and 5th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 5th on the all-time list.

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. He later managed the San Francisco Giants and the Orioles. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

Frank was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982. This year, he will begin his 5th season as manager of the Washington Nationals organization, serving the first three years with the Montreal Expos. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 13th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL. He has two daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, and Rafael Palmeiro are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks 7th all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to 8 All-Star teams, 7 as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" 5 times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, tied with Cal Ripken for second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians and Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons before joining the Indians staff in 2002 as batting coach. After spending 3 1/2 seasons in Cleveland, Eddie was named hitting coach for the Dodgers in 2006. He lives with his wife, Janice, and their daughters, Jordan and Jessica, in his hometown of Los Angeles.

CAL RIPKEN JR.—8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and retired as one of only seven players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, joining Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Dave Winfield & Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star berth, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), an MVP (1983) and AL Rookie of the Year (1982) honors, two Gold Gloves and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop. And he still owns five Major League or American League fielding records for shortstops. Cal was named Most Valuable Oriole four times, twice sharing the award with Eddie Murray.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Cal went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award among many other honors.

Cal and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown, MD with their children, Rachel and Ryan. He is active in youth baseball projects and is co-owner of the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles minor league affiliate, in addition to raising funds for the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation to benefit youth programs.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,290 and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The field's system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand rootzone mix, sod and drainage. The drainage system was modernized by utilizing an inlaid piping system topped by a fabric mesh and gravel to better protect both the pipes and the playing surface. Following the 2005 season, the entire field was re-sodded with an improved four way blend of Kentucky bluegrass that was grown on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. In conjunction with the re-sodding project, all new irrigation heads were installed.

DIMENSIONS

For Camden Yards' first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to 7 feet larger than those used since Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

The shorter distance to the right field corner than down the left field line is compensated by a 25' high wall, which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Babe's Irish Pub) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, and the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

SCOREBOARDS

There are two major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD), which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the two boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports two weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time, posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker, the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally three auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the two big boards in center field.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veteran's Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street warehouse for a memorial wall to honor residents of Maryland who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier in the year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from the Memorial Stadium facade, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night.

SPORTS LEGENDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

In May 2005, the Babe Ruth Museum opened its expansion project, Sports Legends at Camden Yards, in the historic Camden Station building at the north end of the warehouse. Covering 22,000 square feet and showcasing more than 10,000 artifacts, Sports Legends is an interactive, innovative tour of Maryland's sports heritage. The space includes exhibits on the Orioles, Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. Other exhibits include Maryland college sports, the Baltimore Ravens, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980's prior to the renovations. In its heyday, the station was the grand passenger terminus of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the country's first commercial railroad. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station on several occasions, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, Illinois, for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room will be restored to its Civil War splendor and will interpret Lincoln's passages through Camden Station, the Civil War, and Camden Station's role in America's transportation history.

FOUL POLES

When the Orioles moved to Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Camden Yards left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the lower, club and upper deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes there are some 6,800 ter race box seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 47'.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 72 luxury suites, each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites are leased on a yearly basis. There are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several of which hold 10-18 people, and three larger party suites that can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1,850 Eutaw Street Reserve seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also standing room only tickets that go on sale two hours before game time. The SRO areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

Total seating in the ballpark is 48,290. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Camden Yards is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, a number of exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"...

- Seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 with chairs with higher backs and padding. Cupholders were also installed to the 6,200 new seats.
- Two rows of seats were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, a total of 72 seats. Also, ten seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.
- Prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with the Camden Yards aesthetic. Two 7.5' rotational signs were also added to the wall.
- Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Homeplate Elevator Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.
- The first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- The fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- Expanding on improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
- In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
- Homestead Gardens, based in Davidsonville, MD, entered into a partnership with the Orioles starting in 1998 to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.
- Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
- Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.

- The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos and records of each Oriole team beginning in 1954 adorn the corridors. Orioles Hall of Fame banners have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.
- Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993.

Plaques and other displays around the ballpark honor various athletic accomplishments...

- Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
- Orioles' Retired Numbers: 4-foot monuments, located at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22) and Eddie Murray (33).
- Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.
- Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row FF, Seat 10) with a red seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.
- Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row D, Seat 23).
- Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring three individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; and Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years.
- In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons..."
- Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999 to pass Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in their bullpen.
- In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds sometimes interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2005, over 47,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Fans touring the facility visit the suite level, media levels and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between mid-February and mid-December. For ticket and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234.

ATTENDANCE

The Orioles have drawn five of the 20 highest single season attendance totals in major league history, more than any other team:

3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)
2 million—43 home dates ('94)
1 million—22 home dates ('94)

LARGEST CROWDS, LARGEST SERIES: The Orioles had 14 sellouts in 2005, their most since 2000, when they had 17 sell-outs. Included in the totals were the largest crowd in Camden Yards history and the largest four-game series in franchise history. The Orioles drew 49,828 fans for their game on July 10 vs. the Boston Red Sox, topping the previous record of 49,696 on June 22, 2004 vs. the New York Yankees. The Orioles' four-game series against the Red Sox, July 7-10, drew a club record 195,722 fans to Camden Yards.

Four of the top ten largest regular season crowds in Camden Yards history were recorded in 2005.

The Orioles have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 727 of 1,093 regular season dates at Oriole Park (66.5%), including 24 of 81 home dates in 2005.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 16,301 on April 18, 2005 against the Detroit Tigers. The previous smallest crowd at Oriole Park was on April 7, 2005, for a game against the Oakland A's.

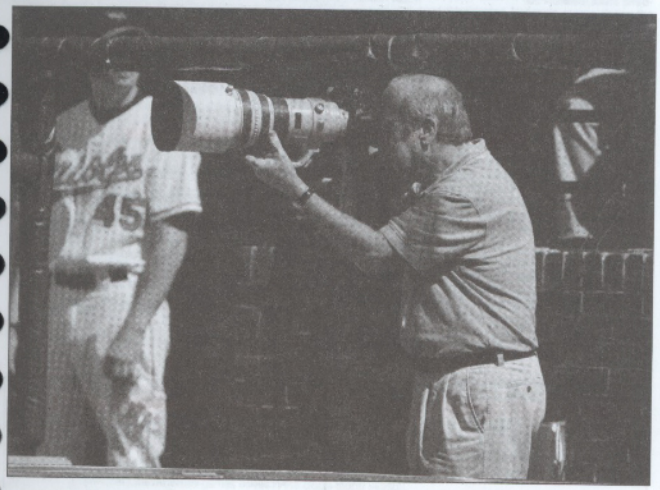
MEDIA



JERRY WACHTER
1944-2005

For 36 seasons, Jerry Wachter chronicled the Orioles activities on and off the field with his camera. Whether he was shooting an Orioles-Yankees game at Camden Yards, an Orioles Fantasy Camp gathering in Florida, or a pre-game ceremonial first pitch, Jerry got the most from his subjects – and they from him.

Adept at action and portrait shots, Jerry served as the Orioles team photographer beginning in 1970 and continued to work despite his battle with cancer throughout the 2005 season. In addition, his photos graced the covers of Sports Illustrated and Topps baseball cards. He was only 61 when he passed away on November 11, 2005, from Merkel cell carcinoma.

From a fish-eye lens look (shot from the dugout) of the 1979 starting lineup racing from the dugout to take the field on Opening Day to an intimate chronicling of Cal Ripken's pursuit of Lou Gehrig's consecutive game record on September 6, 1995, Jerry's photos were unique. But they also were only part of his legacy as a photographer. Baseball was not the only sport he shot; he covered the NBA, NHL, NFL, PGA Tour events and numerous Olympics. His coverage of Bullets basketball and Capitals ice hockey games as well as concerts and other events at the Capital Centre (later known as US Air Arena) in Landover, MD, was noted for his use of strobe lighting in the arena; most sports arenas now have multiple sets of strobes for use not only by team photographers but newspapers, magazines and wire services as well.

The Orioles photo library is enriched by his portrait and action shots, which spanned decades and eras. We are enriched by having known and worked with him. His work will endure.

TELEVISION

Announcers: Jim Hunter, Fred Manfra, Buck Martinez and Jim Palmer

The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), Comcast SportsNet, ESPN and Fox Sports will combine to telecast 153 regular season and four spring training games during the 2006 season.

MASN was originally established in 2002 under the name Orioles Television Network as a separate media company to produce, sell and market games to television stations through the region, from southern Pennsylvania to North Carolina, from West Virginia to Delaware and throughout Maryland and Washington, DC. In 2005, the company became known as the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. In addition to Orioles games, last year MASN produced and aired Washington Nationals games during the team's inaugural season.

WJZ (Channel 13) and WNUV (Channel 54) will serve as the MASN flagship stations for Orioles baseball again this season. The network will produce 65 regular season games and one exhibition game for over-air telecast, 40 games on WNUV, and 25 contests on WJZ. In addition to the stations in Baltimore, seven affiliate stations in Maryland, southern Pennsylvania, Virginia and North Carolina also will air MASN games this year.

Comcast SportsNet will produce 87 regular season and three spring training games in 2006. Comcast has televised Orioles games on cable since 1984, originally under the Home Team Sports (HTS) logo. Comcast SportsNet serves more than 4.5 million households through its cable system and satellite services in the Capital Region, which includes all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and Washington, DC and part of West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

In addition to game broadcasts, Comcast SportsNet will produce a weekly, half-hour program on Orioles baseball featuring highlights and interviews.

Buck Martinez and Jim Palmer return to call the action for both MASN and Comcast SportsNet, while Jim Hunter and Fred Manfra will continue to split their time between radio and television broadcasts this season, with each doing play-by-play work on approximately half of the team's televised games.

In total, 153 of the Orioles' regular season games will be televised on local, regional or national television this season, with Fox Television carrying two games.

WBAL (1090 AM) is in its 19th consecutive season as the flagship station for the Orioles radio network. The 2006 season also marks the 41st time since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 52 seasons ago that WBAL has originated Orioles broadcasts. The station first carried Orioles games in 1957, the club's fourth season.

This is the 6th year of the Orioles' partnership with Clear Channel Communication to broadcast all Orioles games in the Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia metropolitan area. The majority of the games will air on WTEM (980 AM). In all, there are 13 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering three states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel returns for his 3rd straight season to do play-by-play for all Orioles games on radio. He will work exclusively on radio, teaming with Jim Hunter and Fred Manfra, who will split their time between the Orioles' radio and television broadcasts.

A native of Colombia, South America, Joe has broadcast major league baseball for 26 years, including six seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90, 1992 and 2004-05. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins and New York Yankees and was the original voice of the Florida Marlins. Joe also broadcast games on ESPN national telecasts during the 2001 season.

Joe, 58, was born in Bogotá, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago 10 years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and football and was the quarterback of a team that featured O.J. Simpson as running back. Joe later attended City College of San Francisco.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball.

Angel got his start in major league baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio. He also spent two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio, 1984-86, and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. Joe spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television for two seasons, where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in Weston, FL, and have three grown children, Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 10th year as a member of the Orioles and WBAL Radio broadcast team and his 3rd season in the TV booth on Comcast Sports Net and the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. He will split his time equally between television and radio, teaming with Buck Martinez or Jim Palmer to do TV broadcasts and with Joe Angel on WBAL Radio. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 28 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 47, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Hall of Famer Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In 1996, he called the National League Division Series in which the Atlanta Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals in a thrilling 7-game series. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim makes several appearances in the community on behalf of the ballclub as well as helping various charities. He was involved with the Annie's Playground Foundation in Harford County, which built a playground in memory of a 6-year old child who was hit and killed by a drunk driver. He also is part of the Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology Friends Committee, which annually raises money for cancer research for children.

When Jim began his career at CBS in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sportsbreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

A native of New Jersey, Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ. He was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ with a BA in Communication Arts.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

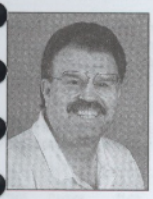
FRED MANFRA



It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 14th season as radio voice of the Orioles and will continue to work as a television play-by-play announcer this year. For the third straight year, Manfra will split his time equally between television and radio, teaming with Buck Martinez or Jim Palmer for TV broadcasts and with Joe Angel on WBAL Radio.

The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City and WBAL Radio in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network. Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Orioles broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002) and Eclipse Award-winning broadcasts of horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982 to the present.

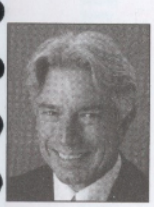
His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984), Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work with the Kidney Foundation of Maryland, the Salvation Army and the Albert Close Foundation. They have two daughters -- Michelle, who works in Beverly Hills, CA, and Stephanie, who resides in Miami, FL.

BUCK MARTINEZ



Buck Martinez returns for his fourth season as an Orioles television analyst, bringing a wealth of baseball experience to the broadcast booth. He will team with Jim Hunter or Fred Manfra to provide color commentary for Orioles games.

In addition to his Orioles duties, this spring Martinez will serve as manager for the United States team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic, a 16-team international tournament featuring some of the best players in the world competing for their home countries. Games will be played from March 3-20 in Japan, the United States and Puerto Rico. He also enters his second year as a co-host on "MLB This Morning," a news-magazine style baseball show that airs weekday mornings on XM Satellite Radio, and will continue his work as an analyst on ESPN's Wednesday night national MLB telecasts in 2006.

Martinez' extensive resume includes over 30 years as a player and manager in the American League and over 21 years of experience in baseball broadcasting on television and radio. Beginning in 1967 when he was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies, Martinez spent 23 years as a catcher in professional baseball with the Kansas City Royals, Milwaukee Brewers and Toronto Blue Jays organizations. He appeared in the postseason with Kansas City in 1976, batting .333 in the 5-game ALCS against the New York Yankees, and wrote two books about his experiences with the Blue Jays, "From Worst to First" (1985) and "The Last Out" (1986).

Martinez, 57, also served as manager for Toronto in 2001 and part of the 2002 season, compiling a 100-115 record.

His first experience with broadcasting came in 1982, when he covered the American League Championship Series, the World Series and the All-Star Game for the Telemedia Radio Network. Martinez' television broadcast career began in 1987 as a color commentator for the Toronto Blue Jays on The Sports Network. He began working with ESPN radio and television in 1992, a position he held through the 2002 season. In 1995, Martinez was awarded a Sports EMMY Award for his work on ESPN's coverage of Cal Ripken's 2,131st consecutive game.

A California native, Martinez attended Sacramento City College, Sacramento State University, and Central Missouri State University. He and his wife, Arlene, reside in Clearwater, FL. They have one son, Casey, a 47th round pick by Toronto in the 2000 First Year Player Draft who currently works in the front office of the New York Mets.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 14th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 434.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('60-'61) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.
