Eddie Ridgely

1928-2006

A friend, colleague, and member of the Orioles' front office team for over 35 years, former Orioles mail room manager Eddie Ridgely passed away on November 17, 2006 at the age of 78. Known by friends and family as "Mr. Orioles," Eddie's knowledge about the organization extended far beyond his job duties. He followed the progress of the team on the field closely, and he knew every employee in the front office by name. His cheerful manner brightened the spirits of those around him. Eddie worked for the Orioles until illness caused him to retire in December 2003.

A native of Baltimore and a veteran of the United States Marine Corps, Eddie is survived by his wife of forty-four years, Louise; two children, Larry Ridgely and Arden Mister; a grandson, Ivan Mister; four sisters and two brothers.

Eddie is greatly missed by everyone in the Orioles family.

PETER ANGELOS—MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

Under his 13-year stewardship, the Orioles have reached the American League Championship Series twice, led the league in attendance five times – the first times in franchise history – and hosted such historic occasions as the first games between a major league baseball team and Cuba in nearly 40 years and Cal Ripken's 2131st consecutive game.

The Orioles' ownership has committed to building a winner by rebuilding the farm system with young talent that is now beginning to pay dividends. Under Mr. Angelos, the Orioles have dramatically increased their stake in scouting and player development; in 2007, they will be one of only four teams to field seven classified minor league teams, with the addition of a Rookie-level team in the Gulf Coast League. The addition of various key veteran players via trade and free agency has led to a team that is creating excitement on and off the field. These developments are paving the way for a new era of Orioles baseball.

In addition, Mr. Angelos' vision in creating the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network not only provides an outlet for the Orioles to televise their games and other baseball and sports programming, but is designed to provide the funding mechanism necessary to compete over the long haul with the other teams that have established regional sports networks. The MASN channel has been showing Washington Nationals games for the last two seasons; this spring, it will add Orioles' games as part of its 24-hour programming schedule.

Mr. Angelos has had a dramatic effect on baseball beyond Camden Yards, Baltimore and the mid-Atlantic region as well, as the only owner to serve on the negotiating committee that worked out the historic 2002 labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association – the first such agreement without a strike in the 30-plus years of labor negotiations between the groups. His involvement in those labor negotiations was hailed by both sides. Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969, setting the stage for last fall's second such agreement.

The Orioles owner also has taken the lead in helping utilize baseball as a bridge among people. He spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in an historic 2-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He also helped to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort is being done in compliance with Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos also has taken constructive steps off the field. Over the years, he has improved 10,000 of Camden Yards' seats to address fan comfort. More than 6,000 seats had cushions installed provided prior to the 2004 season. In earlier seasons, he responded to complaints by having adjustments made to 3,300 seats along the left and right field lines that had been angled improperly toward center field. When he became principal owner, he rectified injustices that had been done to those season ticket holders who had their seats unfairly relocated when the club first moved into Camden Yards.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Senior Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Brain Gala. Also among recipients of Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including for the 12th straight year being sponsors of the Baltimore Symphony Gala.

On a personal level, Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, became the first ever $1 million donors to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter. The chapter, which covers Baltimore City and Baltimore, Harford, Carroll, Anne Arundel and Howard counties, had never received an individual donation greater than $250,000 prior to Mr. and Mrs. Angelos' contribution.

The son of Greek immigrants, Mr. Angelos was born July 4, 1929 in Pittsburgh, PA. The family moved to Baltimore when he was an infant, and he was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products.

Mr. Angelos, who was elected to and served on the Baltimore City Council from 1959 to 1963, has long been active in civic and community endeavors. He currently is Chairman of WestSide Renaissance, Inc., the non-profit organization of civic leaders that is spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's west side. He also is a board member and major benefactor of Charles Street Development Corp., which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain its presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

Mr. Angelos serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals, and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College of Maryland and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Peter Angelos presently serves as a Member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: Johns Hopkins University; University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Meany Center- National Labor College; Loyola College in Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is also a member of: the Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law; and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the citizens of Greater Baltimore. He also has been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, the Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year.

Mr. Angelos and his wife have two sons, John and Louis. John is an Executive Vice President with the Orioles, while Louis is an attorney with the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli. S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

TOM CLANCY—VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance agent with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October--the story of a Russian submarine captain who defects to the United States--sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as the undisputed king of the techno-thriller, a literary genre he's credited with inventing, and a master at building realistic scenarios by "turning up the volume" on current events and political reality. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, Rainbow Six, The Bear and The Dragon and, most recently, Red Rabbit.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons, and government produced maps, all tribute to his lifelong fascination with technology and the military. Although severe myopia limited his personal involvement as a member of the armed forces to a brief stint in Loyola's ROTC program, the success of his books has resulted in his "adoption" by the military. He is regularly welcomed aboard jets, submarines, and destroyers, and permitted to ride in tanks to his heart's content. Admirals and generals give him access, Pentagon officials debrief him, and many of his books are required reading at our nation's war colleges.

His non-fiction works include Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.), and Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine and Airborne.

JOE FOSS—VICE CHAIRMAN/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Now in his 14th season as the Orioles' Vice Chairman, Joe Foss oversees all of the club's day-to-day operations. These include all of the business, financial, and administrative operations, as well as working with the Baseball Operations Department on budgets and player contracts. He also was instrumental in working with Major League Baseball and the Washington Nationals in laying the groundwork for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, the new regional television network that is owned jointly by the Orioles, the Nationals and MLB.

Foss is a trustee of the Major League Baseball Players Benefit Plan. He is a member of the MLB Scheduling Committee, the MLB Disaster Plan Committee, and the Joint Committee for International Play. On June 1, 1993, Foss joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and supervised the transition between ownership groups. Mr. Angelos appointed him to Vice Chairman on December 9, 1993.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul, MN in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First American Bank, N.A., of Washington in December '89. In April 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Community involvement is very important to Foss. He is an active board member of the Kennedy-Krieger Institute, the Maryland Special Olympics, the Babe Ruth Museum, and the Johns Hopkins Center for ALS Research. He is a former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association, former treasurer and trustee of The Green Door (Washington, DC), and former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis and the National Aquarium in Baltimore.

Joe was born December 27, 1948 in Minneapolis. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children: Katie (25), Annie (21), and Michael (19). They reside in Hunt Valley, MD.

JOHN P. ANGELOS—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 14th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the club. In January 1999, he was named to the position of Executive Vice President. In his current capacity, John oversees the Corporate Sales and Sponsorships, Financial Operations, Sales and Ticket Services, Concessions, Ballpark Operations, Communications and Public Relations divisions of the ballclub.

John joined the Orioles organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman. John oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations and Customer Service Departments of the company to provide more personal service to fans when they call, write or visit Camden Yards.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Maryland, John received a B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science from Duke University and a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore.

John resides in downtown Baltimore.

ROBERT AMES—VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames is in his 14th year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in April 1994 after an eight-year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore. He was promoted to vice president in January 1999.

With the Orioles, Bob is responsible for general administration, accounting, management information systems, human resources, insurance and special projects. He also serves as a trustee for the Major League Baseball Minor League Health and Welfare Plan.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable, credit and collections and the cash management departments.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received Bachelor of Science degrees in Microbiology and Journalism/Public Relations (magna cum laude) from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Bob is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs and the American Institute of CPAs.

Bob resides in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily, Lyndsay and Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is active in his church, Grace Assembly of God, and currently serves on the church board. In his free time, Bob's passions include gardening and motorcycle riding with his son, Ben.

LOU KOUSOURIS—VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994. Now in his 14th season with the team, he was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Lou has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Lou coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community, serving as chairman of the Boys & Girls Clubs of The Salvation Army and sitting on the Board of Directors for Camp Puh'tok, a camp for underprivileged children located in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of the The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command. and has helped raise over $400,000 annually for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fund-raising support to the organization.

In November 1998, Lou was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Lou resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. Kousouris has two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who currently lives in Baltimore and owns his own business; and Alexandra, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law, who is a clerk for a district court judge in Baltimore County.

MIKE FLANAGAN—EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Since being promoted to Executive Vice President of Baseball on October 11, 2005, Mike Flanagan has moved swiftly to assemble a team in the front office and on the field that is capable of leading the Orioles back to their winning ways of the past.

Within two weeks of being named to head the Baseball Operations department, Flanagan removed the interim tag from Sam Perlozzo as manager, then added Jim Duquette as Vice President and Scott Proefrock to handle the day-to-day administrator duties of the department. He then turned his attention to the team on the field, making two trades and signing three free agents over the winter months, then signing Jay Gibbons and Melvin Mora to contract extensions that will keep the popular players in an Orioles uniform through 2009.

Last fall, he and Duquette continued to remake the team on the field, moving swiftly to remodel the Orioles' bullpen, strengthen the everyday lineup, and add depth to the starting pitching and bench. Of the 65 players reporting to Fort Lauderdale for spring training this year, only 25 were in the Orioles' major league camp in 2006.

Prior to being named Executive VP, Flanagan served as Vice President for Baseball Operations for three years, sharing departmental duties with Jim Beattie starting on December 4, 2002. His move to the front office came after he had poured a quarter-century into the Baltimore Orioles organization as player, coach, instructor and broadcaster. Professionals in the game have long been impressed with his insight and skills as an evaluator of talent and of people.

An Orioles Hall of Famer and the first former Cy Young Award winner ever to assume a general manager-level position in baseball, Flanagan has been involved with the Orioles organization for all but five years since being selected in the 7th round of the 1973 draft.

"Flanny" compiled a 167-143 record and a 3.90 ERA in 18 major league seasons with the Orioles and Toronto Blue Jays, including a 141-116 mark over 15 seasons with the O's. He won the American League Cy Young Award in 1979, when he went 23-9 with a 3.08 ERA and 5 shutouts. He was a member of two American League championship teams with the Orioles, in 1979 and 1983, as well as their 1983 World Championship team.

Flanagan was drafted and signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe in 1973 and made his major league debut in 1975. In 1983, when the Orioles won their last World Series Championship, he went 12-4 during the regular season despite missing nearly three months with ligament damage in his left knee. From 1977 through 1983 he made more starts (223) than any pitcher in the American League and was third in wins (109) over that time.

In 1987, he was traded to Toronto and pitched for the Blue Jays for 3 1/2 years, helping them win the American League East in 1989. A starter his entire career, he returned to the Orioles as a free agent in 1991, this time as a reliever, and made 63 appearances out of the bullpen. On October 6, 1991, in the last game played at Memorial Stadium, Flanny entered in relief with one out in the 9th inning and, to the overwhelming delight of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out Detroit's Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch at the 33rd Street ballpark. He finished his career in 1992, pitching for the Orioles in their first season at Camden Yards.

Flanagan was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994 in his first year of eligibility. He ranks 3rd in club history in games pitched (450), innings pitched (2317.2) and starts (328), 4th in strikeouts (1297) and complete games (98), 5th in victories (141) and 7th in shutouts (17).

Mike served as Orioles pitching coach in 1995, then spent two years as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He returned to the field in 1998 as pitching coach before heading back to the broadcast booth, where he remained for four seasons before being named Vice President for Baseball Operations. In addition to his broadcasting duties, Flanagan worked as a winter and spring pitching instructor with the club and also served in an advisory capacity to Orioles' Chairman and CEO Peter Angelos after stepping down as pitching coach for the second time following the 1998 season.

Flanagan, born December 16, 1951, is a native of Manchester, NH, and is a third-generation pro baseball player. Both his grandfather, Ed Sr., and his father, Ed Jr., played in the Boston Red Sox organization. Mike attended the University of Massachusetts, where he played baseball and freshman basketball. While at UMass, he faced Julius "Dr. J" Erving and Rick Pitino in a frosh-varsity basketball game.

Mike and his wife, Alex, reside in Sparks, MD. He has three daughters: Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall.

JIM DUQUETTE—VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

After serving in virtually every capacity of the baseball front office for the New York Mets for 14 of the previous 15 years, Jim Duquette brought his vast experience to the Orioles when he was named Vice President for Baseball Operations on October 20, 2005.

Duquette, 40, immediately set about working with Executive Vice President Mike Flanagan to put together a productive team in the front office and on the field, using the expertise he gained working his way up through the scouting and minor league ranks before being running the Mets' baseball operations himself for a year and a half.

Jim began his pro baseball career as an assistant in the Mets' scouting and minor league departments in 1991, getting his start under a pair of former Orioles executives, Frank Cashen and Al Harazin. He eventually was named Assistant Director/Scouting and Minor Leagues in 1995 and served in that role for two seasons before joining the Houston Astros as Director of Player Development on September 26, 1996. He spent 54 weeks with the Astros, the only time he has been outside the Mets organization until coming to the Orioles.

Duquette rejoined the Mets as Director of Player Personnel on October 10, 1997, and 13 months later was named Assistant General Manager. His duties included assisting the GM in the day-to-day operations of the big league club, including contract negotiations, salary arbitration cases, player personnel and staff decisions and media consideration. He was promoted to Senior Assistant General Manager on December 26, 2000.

On June 12, 2003, he was named the Mets' interim General Manager. The Mets removed the interim tag on October 28 of that year, making him the 10th GM in the club's history. At the time of his appointment, he was the 4th-youngest general manager in the majors at age 37, behind only the Red Sox' Theo Epstein, the Dodgers' Paul DePodesta and the Yankees' Brian Cashman.

He served as Mets' General Manager for a year, then was named Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations, serving under Omar Minaya.

Jim was a high school teammate of former major leaguer Turk Wendell at Wahconah Regional HS in Dalton, MA. He was a 2-time All-New England selection as an outfielder at Williams College in Williamston, MA. After graduating, he worked with the Puma athletic footwear company before joining the Mets.

Duquette's brother, Pat, is an assistant basketball coach at Boston College, and his cousin, Dan Duquette, is a former Executive VP and General Manager of the Boston Red Sox.

Jim (born 5/4/66) and his wife, Pam, have 3 children. They live in Sparks, MD.

SCOTT PROEFROCK—ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

Scott Proefrock joined the Orioles on October 25, 2005, as Assistant General Manager/Director of Baseball Administration. In addition to interpreting the Major League Rules and Basic Agreement with the MLB Players Association, Scott coordinates the team's baseball data system and prepares the Baseball Operations budget. He also assists Mike Flanagan and Jim Duquette with trades, free agent acquisitions, arbitration and contract negotiations, and player development and scouting.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Proefrock spent 10 1/2 seasons in a similar capacity with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. He joined Tampa Bay as director of Baseball Administration on July 27, 1995, only four months after the franchise was awarded and 2 1/2 years before the organization would field a major league team. He was promoted to Assistant General Manager in January 1997.

Proefrock began his baseball career as a marketing intern with the Pittsburgh Pirates in August 1987. He was hired by the Pirates as Director of Marketing Informaton Systems in November 1987 and moved over to scouting and player development assistant in December 1989. A year later, he moved to the Atlanta Braves and spent five years there in scouting and player development capacities, the last as Assistant Director for Scouting and Player Development, before joining the Devil Rays.

Proefrock was born in Dayton, OH, and raised in Norwood, MA and Rochester, NY. He graduated from The College of William & Mary before earning a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts. He is also a certified public accountant.

Scott and his wife, K.K., a native of Wilmington, DE, and graduate of Baltimore's Loyola College, live in Phoenix, MD, with their four children, Casey (10), Megan (8), John (6) and Kate (4).

JOHN STOCKSTILL—ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL, MAJOR LEAGUE & INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

John Stockstill begins his 2nd year as Assistant General Manager and Director of Professional, Major League and International Scouting. He was named to the newly created position in January 2006 after spending his entire professional baseball career – as minor league player, scout and front office executive – with the Chicago Cubs.

With the Orioles, John coordinates the team's scouting of the other 29 major league organizations at both the major and minor league levels, as well as scouting professional leagues in Latin America and the Far East. He had been Director of Scouting for the Cubs since September 1, 2000, after serving as Chicago's coordinator of scouting and national crosschecker since October 1998.

Stockstill was a 10th round pick in the 1978 draft and played four seasons in the Cubs' farm system, finishing with Class A Davenport in the Midwest League in 1981. He returned to college and received his B.S. degree in communications at Drury University in Springfield, MO, and served as an assistant basketball coach there before moving to Benedictine College in Kansas as an assistant basketball coach. He became Benedictine's baseball coach in 1986 and also rejoined the Cubs as an associate scout a year later. He became a part-time scout for the Cubs in 1989 before becoming a full-time area scout in 1989 and Midwest scouting supervisor four years later. He held that position for four years before being named scouting coordinator in 1998.

With the Orioles, John joins his brother, David, who serves as the organization's Director of Minor League Operations. David also was a product of the Cubs minor league system.

John and his wife, Ann, have one son, Jackson, (5). They reside in White Hall, MD.

DAVID STOCKSTILL—ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

David Stockstill, a member of the Orioles' minor league staff for the past 12 years, was named as the club's Director of Minor League Operations on November 3, 2004. He added the title of Assistant General Manager in January 2006.

Stockstill, 49, served as a roving hitting instructor, manager, field coordinator and hitting coordinator for the Orioles' minor league department since 1994 before being elevated to the top farm system post. In his final two years before being named to his current position, he held the dual role as the organization's Minor League Field and Hitting Coordinator, overseeing on-field instruction throughout the Orioles' farm system.

Stockstill played professionally for 16 years after signing with the Chicago Cubs as a free agent in 1978. He played eight seasons between the Cubs, Rangers, Giants and Expos farm systems, including three seasons at AAA Oklahoma City, before moving to the Mexican League in 1986. He hit .283 with 27 homers and a league-leading 101 RBI with Class A Geneva in 1979, capturing Midwest League MVP honors. He finished his career by playing eight seasons in Mexico, including the last 1 1/2 years as a player-manager for Union Laguna, and finished with a .342 career batting average, third on the Mexican League's all-time list.

In 1994, Stockstill joined the Orioles' organization as a roving hitting instructor, a position he held through 2001. The next year, he was named Minor League Field Coordinator before taking over as manager at AA Bowie for the second half of the 2002 season and leading the Baysox to a 26-26 record.

Stockstill was born and still resides in Hurley, MO, outside of Springfield. He was an all-state baseball and basketball player at Hurley HS and is a graduate of John Brown University in Arkansas, where he was a two-time NAIA All-America. At John Brown, he played for former major league outfielder and former O's minor league hitting coordinator Wally Moon.

David's brother, John, is in his second season as the Orioles' Assistant General Manager/Director, Professional, Major League & International Scouting.

JOE JORDAN—DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Joe Jordan is in his third season as the Orioles' Director of Scouting. His first two drafts have been widely praised in baseball circles, helping provide the Orioles' farm system with deep and highly rated classes of both pitching and position talent.

Jordan, 45, was named to his current position on November 16, 2004, joining the Orioles after eight seasons with the Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. He spent the 2003-04 seasons as National Crosschecker for the Marlins before coming to the Orioles. He began his scouting career in 1997 as an area scout for the Expos before being named Midwest Supervisor in 2001. He moved into the same capacity with Florida when most of Montreal's front office staff moved to the Florida organization in 2002, and was named National Crosschecker a year later.

Selected as a catcher in the 19th round of the 1985 draft by San Francisco, Joe batted .213 in 33 games for Everett, the Giants' Class A team in the short-season Northwest League, in 1985. He was injured the following spring and was released at the end of spring training. He returned to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, received his degree in 1987 and spent three years as an assistant baseball coach for the Sooners, 1988-90.

Jordan spent seven years in the financial investment business before returning to baseball as a scout for the Expos in 1997.

Jordan and his wife of 22 years, Kim, live in Blanchard, OK, with their daughter, Alexandra, 13.

Shannon Obaker
1977-2007

For nine seasons, Shannon Obaker was a part of the Orioles' communications department. She started as a part-time employee while she was still in college, and ultimately advanced to become the club's Director of Community Outreach before cancer took her life on January 19, 2007, at the age of 29.

Shannon's work with the Orioles included coordinating charitable donation requests, scheduling player appearances in the community, and arranging special visits for sick children who wanted to meet their baseball heroes. Her favorite event was the annual Kids' Holiday Party for underprivileged children in Baltimore city.

No matter what the project, Shannon was efficient in everything she did. Her positive attitude and infectious laugh made it impossible to be in a bad mood around her. The Orioles family was blessed to have had her as a part of our lives, and we all miss her very much.

ORIOLES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Orioles recognize the value of support from the community and believe it is important for the organization to give back by being involved in local programs and initiatives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and organizations, the Orioles have also created several initiatives of their own under the current ownership group. Below is a brief summary of some of those efforts undertaken at the ballpark and in the community in the past year.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES, INC. Limited Partnership

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. Since the ownership group headed by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated $x.x million (need update) to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

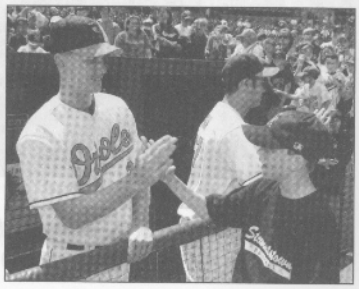

AT THE BALLPARK

EXHIBITION GAME BENEFIT FOR BALTIMORE FEEDING PROGRAMS

The Orioles and the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation teamed up to raise $300,000 for five Baltimore-area feeding programs in April 2006. The funds were collected from the proceeds of the Orioles exhibition game against the Washington Nationals at Camden Yards in late March. The Orioles agreed to donate 100% of general admission ticket sales and concessions proceeds from the game, with a dollar-for-dollar match made by The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation. The money was divided between the Franciscan Center, Helping Up Mission, Knox Presbyterian Church, Moveable Feast, and Sharp Street Memorial.

ORIOLES FOOD DRIVE

Non-perishable food and personal items and a record-setting amount of money were collected for the Maryland Food Bank during the Orioles' 20th annual food drive, held last June at Camden Yards. The Orioles, Orioles Wives, WJZ-TV employees and Oriole Advocates collected almost 10,000 pounds of food and a record setting $28,555 in cash from fans attending games during the three days. Food and non-perishable items were distributed to soup kitchens, food pantries and shelters throughout Maryland, and cash donations were used to purchase turkeys for Thanksgiving.

LATINO NIGHT AND CARDBOARD TO LEATHER EQUIPMENT COLLECTION

Last season, the Oriole Advocates held their annual Cardboard to Leather baseball equipment collection in conjunction with the Orioles' annual Latino Night on July 29. Cardboard to Leather provides new and gently used baseball gloves and bats collected from Orioles fans for children in developing countries in the Caribbean. Latino Night is a celebration of the influence of Hispanics on professional baseball. Latino Night also featured a bullpen picnic area party prior to the game with appearances by Hispanic Orioles; a silent auction of Orioles memorabilia; and ballpark décor, music and video suited to the theme. Cash donations collected at the gate and for the silent auction raised $3,500 for the Cardboard to Leather program. Pitcher Rodrigo Lopez also donated $1,000 to bring disadvantaged Hispanic children to the Latino Night game.

ORIOLES WEEK OF SILENT AUCTIONS

The Orioles and Orioles Wives partnered with several non-profit organizations and charities to host silent auctions during the Orioles homestand, September 8-14, to benefit the Belanger-Federico-Pitterich Foundation, St. Vincent's Home for neglected and abused children, The Family Crisis Center, The Ronald McDonald House, the USO, and the JW Fund. Proceeds totaled nearly $80,000.

ORIOLES REACH

Over 10,000 children from disadvantaged areas in the region were able to attend an Orioles game for free last season thanks to Orioles Reach. Orioles Reach is a program that provides a game ticket, transportation to and from the game, a hot dog and soda and an Orioles hat and t-shirt to underprivileged children. Several Orioles players, including Miguel Tejada, Kevin Millar, Ramon Hernandez and Bruce Chen, helped these children enjoy a game in 2006.

HIGH SCHOOL ALL STAR GAME

The best of Maryland's High School baseball players get the recognition their talents deserve through the High School All-Star Game. The Orioles have hosted the big event each year since 1980, giving young amateurs a chance to showcase their talents in a major league ballpark.

K's FOR KIDS

Each time an Orioles pitcher recorded a strikeout last season, CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield donated $25 to the American Cancer Society's "Healthy Kids" program. A total of $25,400 was raised for the program in 2006.

SAVES FOR SHOCK TRAUMA

Every time an Orioles pitcher recorded a save last season, MBNA made a donation to the University of Maryland Medical System's Shock Trauma center. A total of $70,000 was raised for the center in 2006.

DAY AT THE BALLPARK

The Orioles hosted over 42,000 youth through their annual Safety Patrol Day (10,000), Day Camper Day (8,000), and Little League Days (15,000) last season. Little Leaguers had the opportunity to participate in a pre-game parade around the field at Camden Yards.

PRE-GAME VISITS

At nearly every home game, the Orioles host a variety of special need groups by bringing them on the field to observe batting practice. Guests include those with the Believe in Tomorrow and Make-A-Wish programs. Players meet and sign autographs for the guests.

HIGH FIVE FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

The Orioles High Five Fundraising program gives organizations the opportunity to sell Orioles tickets to generate funds for special programs such as school clubs or civic organizations. It allows groups to not only raise money for themselves, but also provides an opportunity for the group to participate in an activity together. The organization receives $5 for every ticket sold, and a variety of price categories and seat locations are available to fit any budget. In 2006, the Orioles helped raise $175,000 for hundreds of non-profit organizations.

JUNIOR ORIOLES DUGOUT CLUB

The Junior Orioles Dugout Club presented by Chick-fil-A offers an affordable way for kids and their families to attend Orioles games and receive special rewards available only to members. The Club is essentially a mini-season ticket package for kids 6-14 years old. In 2006, in partnership with Chick-fil-A, the Orioles donated $5 for every kit sold at a Chick-fil-A restaurant to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Over $27,000 was raised for JDRF through this program.

IN THE COMMUNITY

CLINIC AT CARROLL PARK

On June 3, 300 children from the Orioles-sponsored RBI program and city-wide Little Leagues participated in a clinic held at Carroll Park. Orioles players LaTroy Hawkins and Corey Patterson, coach Tom Trebelhorn and several former Orioles instructed the participants in hitting, pitching, fielding and base running.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI) PROGRAM

The Reviving Baseball in the Inner City program encourages young adults ages 13-18 to stay in school and helps them to develop self-esteem while learning the skills and enjoyment of baseball. The program is a national Major League Baseball initiative administered and co-sponsored locally by the Orioles and Coca-Cola. Approximately 150 teenagers in Baltimore participated in the league last year.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

The Orioles Summer Reading Program presented by Bank of America provided incentives to over 1,000 children who participated in the program. Children were encouraged to read for twenty minute sessions each day in July to receive two complimentary tickets to a game and a Reading All-Stars T-shirt. Select participants were also chosen to read with Orioles second baseman Brian Roberts prior to a game in August.

BRIAN'S BASEBALL BASH

On August 20, second baseman Brian Roberts hosted Brian's Baseball Bash at the ESPN Zone in the Inner Harbor to benefit the University of Maryland Hospital for Children. Over $100,000 was raised for the hospital through ticket sales, live and silent auctions, sponsorships and donations. Many Orioles players attended the event, signing autographs and taking photos with fans. The Orioles donated $10,000 to provide tickets to patients and their families for the event.

KID'S CHRISTMAS PARTY AT ESPN ZONE

In December 2006, Orioles second baseman Brian Roberts, outfielder Jay Gibbons, third baseman Melvin Mora and former players Rick Dempsey, Scott McGregor and Dave Johnson hosted 90 first through third graders from The Barclay School as part of the Orioles' Annual Children's Christmas Party. The event was held at ESPN Zone at the Inner Harbor. Players served lunch, played games with and signed autographs for the students, and Dempsey will played Santa Claus, delivering gifts from the organization to each child. The 2006 event marked the 28th year the Orioles have held a holiday party for children from economically disadvantaged areas in Baltimore. Different schools are selected each year.

SALVATION ARMY FOOD BASKET AND ANGEL TREE

Each year, Orioles front office employees donate non-perishable food items for donation to the Salvation Army Food Basket at Thanksgiving. During the Christmas season, employees purchase gifts for underprivileged children as part of the Salvation Army's Angel Tree program.

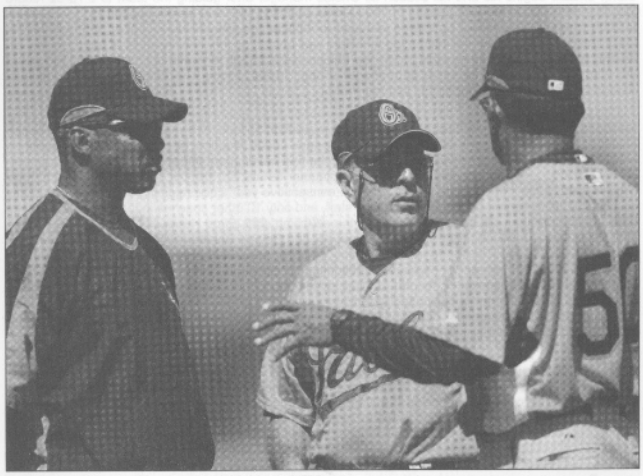

PLAYER AND BIRD APPEARANCES

Orioles players made nearly 50 appearances in the region and the Orioles Bird "flew" to over 200 destinations in the community in 2006. Orioles fans had the opportunity to meet their favorite players at locations throughout the region, including the Sports Legends Museum, ESPN Zone, Baltimore Visitor's Center and local malls.

DONATIONS

The Orioles donate memorabilia items to charitable, non-profit organizations for fundraising activities. Through 2006, the Orioles have helped raise over $25,000 for these organizations through proceeds from Orioles-donated items.

Birthplace/Residence: Born in Keyser, WV...Resides in Atlanta, GA
Contract Status: Signed through 2008
M.L. Service: Begins his 18th season as a major league pitching coach, his 2nd with the Orioles...Spent 18 years as a minor league player, coach and manager starting in 1967.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Begins his 2nd season as Orioles pitching coach…Joined the Orioles last season after spending the previous 15 1/2 years as pitching coach of the Atlanta Braves...The Braves pitching staff finished 1st or 2nd in the National League in ERA in 12 of the last 14 seasons, and Braves hurlers posted an ERA under 4.00 in 13 of his 15 full seasons as coach...He has guided six Cy Young Award winners and nine 20-game winners, and had 10 different pitchers named to the NL All-Star team during his tenure...An ESPN.com story in September 2005 named him the best "assistant coach" in team sports history...The 1998 Braves starting rotation of Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, John Smoltz, Denny Neagle and Kevin Millwood became only the 3rd Major League staff ever with five 16-game winners...In addition to his role in nurturing Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz – the mainstays of the Braves pitching staff throughout most of his tenure – Mazzone achieved renown for helping numerous rookies and veteran pitchers reach career achievements after arriving in Atlanta...Jorge Sosa in 2005, Jaret Wright and John Thomson in 2004, and Russ Ortiz in 2003 all achieved career highs in victories in their first season under Mazzone's tutelage...In 2002, Chris Hammond, out of baseball the previous 2 years, posted a 0.95 ERA, only the 3rd pitcher since 1900 to post a sub-1.00 ERA (minimum 70.0 IP)...Atlanta's team ERA of 3.13 in 2002 remains the lowest by a team since 1991 (Dodgers, 3.06)...From his first full season in 1991 through 2005, Atlanta's cumulative team ERA of 3.53 was lowest in the majors; the Dodgers were 2nd at 3.77.

Was named Braves pitching coach on June 22, 1990, the same day Bobby Cox took over as manager...Atlanta had a 5.25 ERA as a staff when he took over; Braves hurlers pitched to a 4.14 ERA the remainder of the year...Worked as a coach and instructor in the Braves farm system beginning in 1979, including one year – 1985 – when he served as co-pitching coach of the major league team with the legendary Johnny Sain...Began his post-playing career in 1976 as manager with the independent Corpus Christi team in the Class A Lone Star League...Managed Class A Kinston in the Carolina League in 1978 before joining the Braves organization as a minor league pitching instructor in 1979...Served as pitching coach at AA Durham from 1983 until July 21, 1984, when he was named manager at Class A Greenville...After serving on the Braves' major league staff in 1985, returned to the minors to coach at Class A Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, then served as pitching coach at AAA Richmond from 1988 until being named Braves pitching coach in June 1990.

PLAYING CAREER

Spent 9 years as a pitcher in the minor leagues, compiling a 53-56 record and 3.77 ERA...Signed out of high school with the San Francisco Giants in 1967...Spent most of his career at the AA level...Had his best year at Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, going 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA...In 1972 at AA Amarillo, compiled a 2.62 ERA, but came 4.0 innings shy of qualifying for the Texas League ERA title...Finished his career with AAA Tucson in 1975.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Married the former Rebecca Polson on November 16, 2006…They make their off-season home in Roswell, GA…A native of Keyser, WV, Mazzone was raised near Cumberland, MD...Graduated from Bruce HS in Westernport, MD (the school no longer exists)...Played with and against Sam Perlozzo on school and amateur teams in the Cumberland area...Has three adult sons, Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas...Co-authored a book with writer Jim Rosenthal entitled "Pitch Like a Pro" and has also produced an instructional video, "Four Aces".

BEHIND THE SCENES

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, ATC—HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955

Richie is in his 20th season as the Orioles' head Athletic Trainer, his 24th year with the big league club and his 31st in the Orioles organization. He is only the third head trainer in the 53 seasons since the Orioles moved from St. Louis in 1954. He has served longer on the Orioles training staff and as a trainer in the organization than anyone, and this year will equal the tenure of his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, as head trainer for the major league team.

Richie joined the Orioles organization in 1977 as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head Athletic Trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to AAA Rochester in 1980. He served four years as the Red Wings' Athletic Trainer/Road Secretary (1980-83). During that time, he also assisted Salvon during the Orioles' spring training camp in Miami, FL. He became Ralph's assistant trainer in 1984, serving four years before becoming head trainer in 1988, as Salvon took over the assistant title before his untimely passing in July of that year.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by EKU as a distinguished alumnus (along with Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebel) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and served from 1994 through 1999 as treasurer for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians.

He currently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee, serves as Secretary on the PBATS Executive Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Bancells has also been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games – in 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park, and in 1993 at Camden Yards. In November 2002, Richie served as Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan.

In 2005, the Orioles created the Ralph Salvon-Richie Bancells Award for Excellence in the Field of Emergency Medical Service, to be given to local area medical professionals who think and act quickly and demonstrate excellence in the wake of an emergency medical situation. Richie was honored as the first recipient for his actions in diagnosing and promptly treating a stroke suffered by Orioles coach Elrod Hendricks, minutes before the team was to board a flight home from Tampa Bay earlier in the 2005 season.

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have three children: Christopher (7/8/80), Andrea (8/19/85) and Timothy (2/8/92). Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

BRIAN EBEL—ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: December 26, 1965

Brian is in his 11th season as the Orioles Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 23rd season as part of the Oriole organization's training staff.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his athletic training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head athletic trainer for the Orioles rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as Athletic Trainer of the Orioles' then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles' spring training camp for four seasons and was also the Athletic Trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994 and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He served on the board of PBATS from 1999-2005 as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative. Ebel received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells) by EKU as a distinguished alumnus.

In May 2003, Brian was appointed to Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Board. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland (UCP).

Ebel holds an MBA degree in Medical Services Management from The Johns Hopkins University. In the winter of 2004, he served as an Administrative Resident in the Department of Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in addition to his Orioles duties.

The Wilmington, OH native grew up in Versailles, IN. He and his wife, the former Nancy Swanson, were married on October 26, 1991. The have two sons, Brady (10/4/93) and Brett (8/9/96), and live in Towson, MD. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and model railroading.

JAY SHINER—STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Born: July 16, 1968

Jay begins his first season as the Orioles' major league strength and conditioning coach after 6 1/2 seasons working in the club's minor league system. He spent the past three seasons as the Orioles' Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, where he worked closely with his predecessor with the Orioles, Tim Bishop, in implementing a uniform method of conditioning throughout the organization. He assisted the Orioles in spring training and worked closely with the rehab camp during the season in Sarasota, FL.

Prior to overseeing the organization's minor leaguers, Jay spent 3 1/2 years as strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles' AAA affiliates at Rochester and Ottawa. He joined the organization in 2000 from University Sports Medicine in Rochester, NY, where he was the Director of Sports Performance, providing services for athletes, teams and school systems in the Rochester area.

In 1997, he served as a health promotion specialist for Yagami Company, LTD, which included strength and conditioning services for professional baseball and soccer teams in Japan.

A native of Rochester, NY, Jay is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, with bachelor's degrees in both biology (with an emphasis on kinesiology) and organizational management from Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester. He competed as a professional kickboxer before retiring with a record of 23-2.

Jay is single and lives in Columbia, MD.

SAM SNIDER—BULLPEN CATCHER & BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER

Born: May 24, 1959
Sam is in his 21st season as the Orioles full-time Bullpen Catcher and his 28th season with the club overall. He served in the role on a part-time basis from 1980-86 before becoming the full-time catcher in the pen in 1987. The left-handed thrower also serves as a batting practice pitcher.

Sam attended Hagerstown (MD) Junior College for two years, where he was honored as a scholar-athlete, and Saint Leo's College in Florida for two years. He played baseball at both schools as an outfielder and pitcher and was scouted by the late Orioles scout Dick Bowie.

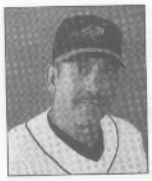

Snider was raised in Chambersburg, PA, home of former major leaguers Nellie Fox and Tom Brookens. He attended Chambersburg High School, where he played baseball and football and was named to the All-County football team as a place-kicker.

Snider lists his biggest professional thrills as being present at Cal Ripken, Jr.'s record-setting 2,131st consecutive game, the All-Star Game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1993 and being a part of the 1996 and 1997 Orioles teams that advanced to the ALCS.

For 14 years, until 2004, Sam spent his winters serving as a Deputy Sheriff for the Franklin County (PA) Sheriff's Department. He also assists with the Orioles' off-season workouts in January each year at Camden Yards. His hobbies include golf and hunting.

Sam and his wife, the former Kristy Higgins, were married on December 27, 1997. They have two children, Samantha Mary (6/2/98) and Jeffrey Michael (8/4/01).

RUDY ARIAS—BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER & BULLPEN CATCHER

Born: June 22, 1956
Rudy begins his 11th season with the Orioles. In addition to pitching batting practice, the former minor league catcher began serving as a bullpen catcher during games in 2005. Before joining the Orioles, Rudy served as bullpen catcher for the New York Yankees from 1993 to 1996.

A native of Santa Clara, Cuba, Arias grew up in Miami. He graduated from Miami Senior High School in 1975 and attended Miami Dade South Community College from 1976-1977, where he earned All-State and honorable mention All-American honors in baseball. He was drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 1st round (secondary phase) in 1977 and spent four years in their farm system. In his first pro season, with Rookie level Bellingham (WA), he was named catcher on the Northwest League All-Star team. He spent the next two seasons in the Class A California League, with Stockton and San Jose. His career stalled when he was hit by a ball and suffered a broken jaw in 1980, and the Mariners assigned his contract to Vera Cruz of the AAA Mexican League, where he played in 1981-82. He later played in both Colombia and Mexico, including a two-year stint as manager of the Monteria club in the Colombian Winter League.

His father, Rudy Arias Sr., pitched professionally for 17 years and went 2-0 in 34 games for the American League champion Chicago White Sox in 1959.

Rudy and his wife, Hilda, were married on December 6, 1982. They have two sons, Luis (9/27/83) and Alex (8/30/88). They have made the Baltimore area their year-round residence for the past six years and live in Ellicott City, MD. In the off-season, Rudy provides private baseball lessons to high school players and assists in the Orioles' Fall Instructional League program in Sarasota and off-season workouts beginning each January at Camden Yards.

JIM TYLER—ORIOLES CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: July 4, 1948
Jim Tyler begins his 46th year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also has worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse straight, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (26) and Joshua (25). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Glen Arm, MD.

FRED TYLER—VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960
Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, his single drove in the winning run to beat an Aberdeen High School pitcher named Cal Ripken Jr. Fred was named All-Harford County shortstop; Ripken was All-Harford County pitcher.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 19.

ERNIE TYLER—UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Born: April 30, 1924
Cal Ripken has nothing on Ernie Tyler. The Orioles' longtime umpires attendant and ball man has not missed a home game at Memorial Stadium or Oriole Park since taking over his position on Opening Day, 1960 - a string of 3,723 consecutive regular season games. Overall, he heads into the 2007 season with a string of 3,768 straight home games - 3,723 regular season, 35 post-season and 9 exhibition games, as well as the 1993 All-Star Game.

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Orioles and Mets General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954. He became a full-time usher in 1958 before moving into his current position in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after games. Ernie retired from the state's Department of Health and Mental Hygiene in March 1988.

In 2004, Ernie was named winner of the Herb Armstrong Award, presented by the Oriole Advocates' Hall of Fame Committee to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in service to the Orioles.

Ernie and his wife, Juliane, have been married 60 years and live in Forest Hill, MD. They have raised 11 children - Theresa, Regina, twins Phil and Jim, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Ernie, Juliane and seven of the children, have worked for the club at one time or another. Sons Jim and Fred serve as the home and visiting clubhouse managers, respectively.

PHIL ITZOE—TRAVELING SECRETARY

Born: August 26, 1937

Planes, trains and automobiles – not to mention buses, hotels and all the other accoutrements of the Orioles' team travel – have been the domain of Phil Itzoe for the past 39 years – the longest tenure of any traveling secretary in any of the four major sports leagues. In that time, he has booked and traveled in excess of 1.25 million air miles for the Orioles during regular season play (and that does not count spring training and post-season play, two post-season trips to Japan, as well as numerous bus and train trips).

Phil joined the Orioles in 1964 as assistant to the public relations director. In 1968, he took over the traveling secretary duties from Bob Brown, who became the Orioles' PR director. (Cleveland's Mike Seghi has the second longest tenure among current traveling secretaries, having started with the Indians in 1975.) In 1990, Itzoe was honored with the first Donald Davidson Memorial Award, given in honor of the late former Braves and Astros executive to the top traveling secretary in the majors.

A native of York, PA, Phil grew up in nearby New Freedom, PA. He played baseball and football at Susquehannock High School before transferring to York Catholic HS, where he played football. He attended York Junior College for two years before transferring to Millersville (PA) State College, earning three baseball letters while in college. After graduating from Millersville in 1960, he spent three years as a reporter for the York Dispatch before joining the Orioles. In January 2006, Itzoe was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

Phil and his wife, TyLisa, live in Towson, MD, with their daughter, MariaLisa (16). Phil also has a son, Josh (32), who played a season in the San Diego Padres organization. Josh and his wife, Jessica, made Phil a proud grandfather last year with the birth of their son, Caleb.

NICOLE SHERRY—HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Born: October 29, 1977

Nicole Sherry returns to the Orioles organization after a three-year absence, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as Head Groundskeeper with a major league team. She replaces Dave Nehila, who resigned last fall after three years in the position to enter private business.

Nicole joins Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, as the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association, there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

Sherry, who was the Orioles' assistant head groundskeeper from 2001 through 2003, spent the last three seasons as the head groundskeeper for the Eastern League's Trenton Thunder, AA affiliate of the New York Yankees. She was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the EL's top groundskeeping award. Last year, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, showing her riding a tractor.

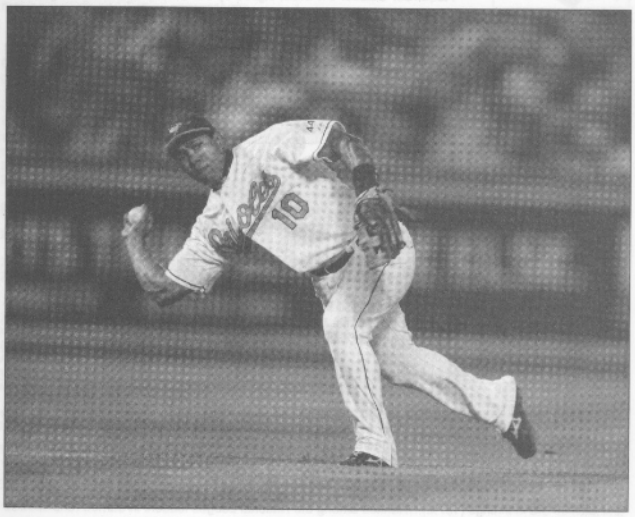

A native of Wilmington, DE, Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as assistant head groundskeeper. Nicole is single and resides in Baltimore.

•Set career highs and led Orioles pitchers in wins (15), innings pitched (196.1), starts (33) and strikeouts (171).
•Finished 9th in the American League with a 3.76 ERA...Was tied for 5th in the league with 20 "Quality Starts" (6 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER allowed).
•Ranked among AL pitching leaders in starts (T6th), strikeouts per 9IP (10th, 7.84), home runs allowed per 9IP (4th, 0.73), opponents' slugging pct. (4th, .370) and groundball-to-flyball ratio (5th, 1.70).
•Also finished among the league leaders in walks (9th, 69) and walks per 9IP (7th, 3.16).
•More than doubled his previous career high of 6 wins, set in both 2004 and 2005.
•Became the first Orioles pitcher to win his first 4 starts of the year since Rodrigo Lopez in 2002...Was 6th in the AL with a 2.77 ERA through April 25.

•Over his next 10 starts, through June 11, lost 6 of 7 decisions, pitching to a 7.26 ERA (48.1IP, 39ER)...After allowing one run on 2 hits in 7.0 IP to beat Boston on May 17, went 0-4 with a 9.13 ERA (22.2IP, 35H, 23ER) over 5 straight starts through June 11.
•Went 10-5 in his last 19 starts beginning June 16 and was 2nd in the majors behind Roger Clemens (2.30) with a 2.58 ERA (122.0IP, 103H, 35ER) and 6th with a .226 opponents batting average over the span.
•Won 7 straight starts, June 16-July 23, during which he pitched to a 1.29 ERA (49.0IP, 7ER) and had 7 "Quality Starts"...Each win followed an Orioles loss.
•The 7-game winning streak was the longest by an Oriole since 1997, when Jimmy Key won his first 8 decisions...It was the first time an Orioles pitcher won 7 straight starts since Jim Palmer won 9 consecutive starts, 6/7-9/4/82.
•Lowered his ERA from 5.69 to 3.94 during the 7-game winning streak...Had a span of 17 consecutive scoreless innings pitched over 3 of those starts, June 21-July 3.
•Began his personal 7-game winning streak by snapping the New York Mets' 8-game winning streak on June 16...Stopped the Florida Marlins' 9-game winning streak in his next start on June 21, pitching 8.0 shutout innings.
•According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first pitcher to halt a pair winning streaks of at least 8 games in consecutive starts since Pittsburgh's Earl Hamilton in 1918.
•Bedard and Kris Benson became the first Orioles teammates to have at least 9 wins each in the first half since Jimmy Key (12), Scott Erickson (11) and Mike Mussina (10) did it in 1997.
•Went 8 consecutive games allowing 2 runs or less, June 21-August 2, posting a 1.30 ERA (55.1IP, 8ER) in that time.
•From June 21-July 15, became the first pitcher in Orioles history to win 5 straight starts while pitching at least 6.0 innings and allowing one run or less in each start.
•Stretch of winning starts ended on July 28 vs. Chicago...After allowing 2 runs in 7.0 innings, the Orioles bullpen failed to hold the lead as the White Sox won, 6-4, on Ross Gload's 9th inning grand slam off Chris Ray.
•Went 0-3 over a span of 7 starts, July 28-September 1, despite allowing 2 runs or less in 4 of the starts and pitching to a 3.95 ERA...The 3 losses came over a stretch of 4 starts, August 2-20.
•Won 3 straight starts, September 8-18, allowing 2 earned runs in 20.0 innings, before losing his last 2 starts.
•Went 9-4 with a 3.03 ERA in 18 starts at Camden Yards but just 6-7 with a 4.69 ERA in 15 starts on the road...Was 4th in the league in home ERA and tied for 4th in wins at home.
•Pitched to a 1.59 ERA (102.0IP, 18ER) in his 15 wins, an 8.42 ERA (51.1IP, 48ER) in his 11 losses and a 3.35 ERA (43.0IP, 16ER) in his 7 no-decisions.
•Made 6 starts against Tampa Bay, taking the mound in each series between the teams...It marked only the 5th time since the 1977 expansion that an O's pitcher made 6 starts against one team: Mike Flanagan (vs. Toronto) and Dennis Martinez (vs. Boston) in 1978, and Sidney Ponson (vs. New York) in both 2002 and 2004.
•Topped 100 pitches in 23 of his 33 starts and had the 3rd highest pitches per inning ratio in the league (16.8).
•In his career, is 21-15 with a 3.75 ERA in the first four months of the season but only 5-13 with a 4.86 ERA (157.1IP, 85ER) over the final two months.
•Went 10-6 with a 4.28 ERA in 19 starts before the All-Star break but only 5-5 despite a 3.10 ERA in 14 starts after the break.
•Had 2 of the Orioles' 3 wins on the season vs. Boston...Won both games vs. Boston at Camden Yards, allowing one run in 14.0 IP.
•Pitched 4.0 scoreless innings, allowing 2 hits, but did not get the decision in Canada's 11-8 win over South Africa on March 7 in his only appearance in the World Baseball Classic.
•Was selected for the MLB All-Star Team that toured Japan in November for the Japan All-Star Series...Pitched 5.2 innings, allowing three earned runs, in a start against the Nippon Professional Baseball All-Star team in the third game of the series, which the U.S. swept, 5 games to none.

PRO CAREER

2005: Experienced an inconsistent season, split by an 8-week stay on the disabled list...Went 5-1 with a 2.08 ERA in 9 starts before going on the disabled list on 5/26 with a sprained medial collateral ligament in his left knee...At the time, he ranked among the American League leaders in ERA (2nd, 2.08), strikeouts (T3rd, 52), wins (T4th, 5), opponents batting average (5th, .224), K/9IP (6th, 7.71) and K/BB ratio (7th, 3.71)...After being activated from the disabled list on 7/18, made 15 starts and went 1-6 with a 5.01 ERA (79.0IP, 85H, 44ER)...Allowed 3 earned runs or less in 19 of his 24 starts...Also pitched 5.0 or more innings in 20 of 24 outings...Struck out at least 7 batters in a game 7 times...Recorded a career-high 12 strikeouts on 5/4 vs. Toronto...Allowed 2 runs in 12.0 innings in his first 2 starts but did not have a decision...Earned his first win of the season 4/23 at Toronto, pitching for the first time as a professional in his native country of Canada...Won a career-high 5 straight decisions over 7 starts, 4/23-7/18, pitching to a

1.15 ERA (55.0IP, 7ER)...Pitched a career-high 8.0 innings in consecutive starts, 4/29 vs. Tampa Bay and 5/4 vs. Toronto…Pitched 22.1 consecutive scoreless innings over 3 starts, 4/23-5/4, before allowing a run in the 8th inning on 5/4 vs. Toronto…Pitched 7.0 shutout innings on 5/21 vs. Philadelphia in a 7-0 win in his last start before going on the DL...It was his 6th straight start pitching 7.0 or more innings and 7th in his last 9 starts before being sidelined…After returning from the disabled list following the All-Star break, he pitched into the 7th inning in only 3 of 15 starts…Made 2 minor league starts while on rehabilitation assignment...Worked 2.0 innings for AA Bowie on 7/6 vs. Harrisburg, losing 4-2, and pitched 5.0 shutout innings with Class A Delmarva on 7/12 vs. Lexington, winning 7-1…Was activated on 7/18 and started that night at Minnesota...Pitched 6.0 shutout innings but did not get a decision in the Orioles' eventual 3-2 win in 11 innings…His lone win after coming off the DL came on 8/9 vs. Tampa Bay, when he allowed 3 runs in 7.0 innings in a 5-2 victory...Lost his final four decisions from 8/24 to 9/29, a career high…Lasted just 2.0 innings, allowing 8 of 13 batters to reach, in his final start on 9/29 vs. New York, his shortest outing of the season.

2004: Earned a spot in the starting rotation in spring training despite missing most of the 2003 season following ligament replacement surgery...Finished the season among the top rookie pitchers in the majors...Led all ML rookies with 121 strikeouts…His 7.93 K/9IP would have been 7th among all American League pitchers if he had enough innings to qualify (162.0IP)...Ranked 2nd to teammate Daniel Cabrera among ML rookies in starts (26), was 3rd in innings pitched (137.1) and tied for 7th in wins (6)...Averaged 19.4 pitches per innings, which would have topped the AL if he had enough innings to qualify…Cleveland's Cliff Lee led the league with 17.7 pitches per inning...Allowed 2 runs or less in 15 of his 26 starts and allowed more than 3 runs in an outing only 7 times…Had 7 "Quality Starts" (6 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER) and 6 other starts of at least 5.0 innings in which he allowed 2 runs or fewer...Pitched 6.0 or more innings in only 10 of his 26 starts…Left starts with a lead on 3 occasions in which the bullpen was unable to hold on for the win...The Orioles went into extra innings in 5 of his starts…He also had 3 starts interrupted by rain delays and 2 other starts postponed by rain...Was named as the 5th starter in the Orioles rotation during the final week of spring training at the same time he was optioned to AAA Ottawa because of off-days in the O's opening week schedule…Was recalled for the 6th game of the season on 4/10 and made his first major league start that night, going 3.0 innings without receiving a decision in the Orioles' 11-3 win at Tampa Bay...Returned to Ottawa several days after that start when more off-days and rainouts in the schedule caused no need for a 5th starter for two weeks...Made 2 starts for the Lynx before being recalled again on 4/24 to start against Toronto…Went 0-1 with a 5.64 ERA in his first 5 starts through 5/13...Earned his first major league victory on 5/19 at Seattle, beginning an 8-start stretch in which he went 3-1 with a 2.63 ERA (41.0IP, 12ER) through the month of June...Struck out a career-high 10 batters in 7.0 innings in a no-decision outing on 7/3 at Philadelphia...The 10 strikeouts were the most by an Oriole during the 2004 season and most by an O's rookie since Rocky Coppinger struck out 11 on 9/8/96 vs. Detroit...From July through September, he went 3-8 with a 5.65 ERA in 13 starts and allowed 4 or more runs in 8 starts…His best outing came on 9/2 at Tampa Bay, when he allowed one run in 7.0 innings to beat Tampa Bay, 13-2, for his final victory...Remained in the rotation until being shut down in mid-September...Lasted just 2.0 innings and allowed 7 runs (one earned) in his last start on 9/8 vs. Minnesota...Did not pitch again until working 4.0 innings of 2-hit relief, allowing one unearned run, in the nightcap of a doubleheader vs. Boston on 10/2.

2003: Spent the season on the 60-day disabled list rehabbing after undergoing ligament replacement surgery in his left elbow in September 2002...Worked out at the Orioles' minor league complex in Sarasota before making 6 starts in August on strict pitch counts but did not pitch long enough to earn a win in any outing...Made 3 rehab starts for the Gulf Coast Orioles before moving to Class A Aberdeen for 2 starts and Frederick for one...Combined to go 0-1 with a 2.79 ERA in his 6 starts (19.1IP, 16H, 6R/ER, 4BB, 26K)...Lost his final start, 8/31 for Frederick vs. Winston-Salem, allowing 3 earned runs in 3.2 IP...Was rated by Baseball America as the 7th-best prospect in the Orioles organization...Batters hit a combined .229 (16-70) off him.

2002: Underwent successful ligament replacement ("Tommy John") surgery on his left elbow on 9/10...Surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL…Left his last start, 6/26 for AA Bowie, in the 8th inning with pain in his left elbow, and went on the minor league disabled list on 7/1…Became the 200th Canadian native to play in the majors when he made his big league debut on 4/17 at New York...Pitched 2/3 inning, allowing a hit and a walk and was charged with a run while striking out one batter…Surrendered a hit to the only batter he faced on 4/21 at Tampa Bay, allowing the go-ahead run in the 8th inning…Was recalled from AA Bowie on 4/16 and made two relief appearances before being optioned back to Bowie on 4/23…Went 6-3 with a 1.97 ERA and struck out 66 batters in 68.2 innings at Bowie...Right-handers batted .198 (41-207) off him and lefties just .054 (2-37)…Held opponents to a .176 average (43-244), the lowest in his 4-year career and 3rd time under .200…Did not allow a run in 4 of 12 starts or in his lone relief appearance…Was 3-1 with a 1.39 ERA (32.2IP, 5ER) in 5 starts in June and was selected as the Organizational Pitcher of the Month…Had season-highs with 9 strikeouts and 5 walks in 5.0 innings in a no-decision start vs. Erie on 5/1…Before his recall, he went 1-0 with a 2.79 ERA (9.2IP, 5H, 3R/ER, 4BB, 10K) in two starts for the Baysox…Went 4-0 and did not allow an earned run over 4 straight games, 5/30-6/15, spanning 23.2 IP…Was named the Eastern League's Best Pitching Prospect in Baseball America's annual "Tools of the Trade" poll...Was ranked as the Orioles' 2nd best prospect by the same publication…Attended his first major league spring training camp.

2001: Led Orioles farmhands with a 2.15 ERA for Class A Frederick…His 137 strikeouts ranked 4th in the farm system despite missing 1 1/2 months…Led Carolina League starters with 12.15 K/9 IP (130 in 96.1 IP) and held opposing hitters to a league-low .198 batting average...Allowed only 9.62 baserunners per 9 IP, 3rd-best in the league…Did not walk more than 2 batters in any start…Allowed one earned run or less in 13 of 17 starts at Frederick…Did not allow a run in 6 outings…Struck out 10 or more batters 5 times, including 3 consecutive starts 5/13-5/24…Had a season-high 13 strikeouts vs. Salem on 5/13 and twice struck out 12 batters…Was sidelined with left shoulder stiffness after a start on 6/10 vs. Lynchburg in which he pitched 6 scoreless innings, allowing 3 hits while striking out 9…Made 2 rehab outings with Gulf Coast Orioles before returning to Frederick on 8/6 and hurled 5.0 innings of 2-hit shutout ball, again striking out 9, at Myrtle Beach…Allowed 13 runs in 4.1 innings over 2 starts, 5/2 vs. Kinston and 5/8 at Wilmington…Beside those outings, pitched to a 0.98 ERA with Frederick…Was ranked as the Orioles' second best prospect by Baseball America.

2000: Was 8th among all minor league starting pitchers with 10.73 K/9.0 IP…Struck out 14 batters in a 4-hit shutout vs. Hickory on 5/26…Allowed 11 earned runs in 2.1 innings at Hickory on 7/3…Minus that outing, he had a 2.73 ERA for the season…Went 1-0 with a 2.70 ERA in two starts in the SAL playoffs…Also made 2 relief appearances during the season, recording 2 saves.

1999: Spent his first professional season at Gulf Coast, appearing in 8 games, including 6 starts...Had an 0.44 ERA (20.1IP/1ER) in August, 4th-best among all minor league pitchers...Did not allow a run in his last 3 starts (16.0IP)...In his final start of the season, he pitched 7.0 scoreless innings and struck out 12...Held opponents to a .192 average (20-194).

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former Orioles are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final plate big league appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat in the majors.

2006

•Reached double figures in wins for the 4th time in 8 big league seasons…Was one win shy of matching his career high of 12 victories set in 2004 with the Pirates and Mets.
•Finished 2nd on Orioles staff behind Erik Bedard in wins and starts and was 3rd in innings pitched…Also had the 3rd lowest ERA among starters, but had the 10th highest ERA in the league (4.82) among qualifying starters.
•Tied for 3rd in the American League with a career-high 3 complete games, but was on the losing end of two of them.
•Had 18 "Quality Starts" (6 or more innings pitched, 3 or fewer earned runs allowed)…Had 11 in 19 starts before the All-Star break and 7 in 11 starts after the break.
•Allowed 3 runs or less in 19 of his 30 starts and 2 earned runs or fewer in 14 outings…Allowed 2 runs or less while pitching at least 7.0 innings on 12 occasions but went just 6-3 with 3 no-decisions in those outings.
•Was 4th in the AL in home runs allowed (33) and 2nd in HR/9IP (1.62), and opponents had a .486 slugging percentage, 5th highest in the league.
•Allowed the most sacrifice bunts (9) and sacrifice flies (13) among AL pitchers.
•Lost in his Orioles debut, 2-0 on April 6 vs. Tampa Bay, despite allowing only 2 runs in 7.0 innings…Earned his first win in his next start on April 11 at Tampa Bay, again allowing 2 runs in 7.0 innings.
•Allowed a career-high 9 runs in 4.1 innings and took the loss on May 7 at Boston...Failed to last 5.0 innings in 5 starts and allowed at least 6 runs in each of those games, but allowed as many as 5 runs in only one other start all year.
•Won the first-ever regular season meeting between the Orioles and the Washington Nationals…Hurled a 5-hit complete game victory on May 19 at Washington, winning 5-1.
•Allowed 11 runs (10 earned) over 7.1 innings in his next 2 starts, May 24 at Seattle and May 28 at Los Angeles…Worked only 2.0 innings at Seattle, the 2nd shortest start of his career.
•Had a pair of 3 game winning streaks in the first half…Lost a season-high 4 straight games July 2-19, the losses coming in consecutive starts.
•Had 9 victories at the All-Star break and, with Erik Bedard, became the first pair of Orioles pitchers with at least 9 wins in the first half since Jimmy Key (12), Scott Erickson (11) and Mike Mussina (10) did it in 1997.
•Was 9-5 with a 4.21 ERA after beating Philadelphia on June 28…Won 3 games and pitched at least 31.0 innings in each of the first three months of the season.
•From July through September, won only two more games and did not pitch more than 29.0 innings in a single month.
•Lost 4 straight starts and was winless in 6 outings between June 28 and his win vs. Toronto on August 18…Won only one of 6 starts after that.
•Opened the second half with his second complete game on July 14 vs. Texas, but lost, 2-1.
•Was placed on the disabled list on August 4, retroactive to July 26, with tendinitis in his right elbow…Went 0-4 with a 6.52 ERA (29.0IP, 40H, 21ER) in his last 5 starts before going on the DL.

•Was scratched from his scheduled start on September 11 vs. New York with strep throat…The illness came in the midst of 3 straight starts, August 30-September 16, in which he allowed 2 runs in each start but went 0-1.
•Capped that stretch with an 8-inning complete game, losing 2-0 on September 16 at Detroit.
•Allowed 8 runs in 2.2 innings in his last start of the season on September 27 at New York, raising his ERA from 4.49 to a season-ending 4.82…Prior to his final start, he pitched at least 8.0 innings in 3 straight starts.
•Pitched 7.0 innings or more in 5 of 6 outings prior to his last start, allowing 3 runs or less…However, he went only 2-2 over that time despite a 3.67 ERA (41.2IP, 17ER).
•Pitched on 3 days rest twice, May 28 at Los Angeles and July 2 at Atlanta, the first time in his career he had done so…Went 0-1 with a 6.97 ERA in the 2 outings, getting a no-decision at Los Angeles but losing at Atlanta.
•Hit his first career home run on June 17 at Shea Stadium while beating his former team, the New York Mets…Was the first homer by an Orioles pitcher since Roric Harrison did it in the final game of the 1972 season, the last year before the AL adopted the designated hitter.

OH, WHAT A RELIEF

Dave McNally holds the all-time Orioles record for most consecutive victories by a pitcher, winning 17 straight without a loss from Sept. 22, 1968 through Aug. 3, 1969, all of them coming as a starter. The club record for consecutive wins by a reliever is shared by Wes Stock, who won 10 straight decisions between Sept. 10, 1962 and April 28, 1964 (including a perfect 7-0 in 1963), and Sammy Stewart, who won 10 straight games in relief over a two-year span, July 20, 1983-April 30, 1984. Stewart also won a game in that stretch as a starter, giving him an overall 11-game winning streak.

GAME HIGHS & STREAKS

LOW HITTER: 1, September 28, 2006 at New York (AL)...LONGEST RELIEF OUTING: 1.0 inning, July 2, 2004 at Philadelphia...STRIKEOUT HIGH: 11, May 9, 2005 vs. Minnesota...WALK HIGH: 9, April 12, 2006 at Tampa Bay...HR ALLOWED: 3, June 20, 2006 vs. Florida...WINNING STREAK: 5 games, June 25—July 20, 2004...LOSING STREAK: 5 games, June 15—July 13, 2006

2006

•Was 3rd on the team with 9 victories, but the fewest in his three major league seasons…Also spent 25 days with AAA Ottawa, his first trip to the minors since he was recalled for a spot start on 5/13/04.
•Despite missing a combined 6 1/2 weeks on the disabled list and in the minors, led the American league with 104 walks allowed.
•Also had 2 complete games, one of 16 AL pitchers with more than one, and was tied for 15th in the league with 157 strikeouts.
•Would have led the AL and finished 2nd in the majors in strikeouts/9IP with 9.55 if he had pitched enough innings to qualify (needed 14.0 more)…Minnesota's Johan Santana (9.44) topped the AL while San Diego's Jake Peavy (9.56) led the NL.
•Also would have led the majors in walks/9IP with 6.32 if he had qualified, ahead of AL leader Gil Meche (4.05) of Seattle and the Chicago Cubs' Carlos Zambrano (4.84), the NL leader...If he had enough innings to qualify, would have been the highest ratio in the majors since Oakland's Todd Van Poppel (6.87) in 1994.
•Led the majors with 17 wild pitches, including a club-record 4 on June 25 vs. Washington.
•In his final start of the season on September 28 at New York, took a no-hitter into the 9th inning before the Yankees' Robinson Cano's one-out single ended his no-hit bid…Settled for a one-hit, 7-1 victory, allowing 2 walks with 5 strikeouts.
•Was two outs shy of becoming the first individual pitcher to throw a no-hitter against the Yankees since the Orioles' Hoyt Wilhelm did it on September 20, 1958...Became the 21st pitcher to throw a complete-game one-hitter against the Yanks since Wilhelm's 1958 no-hitter.
•Walked 50 batters over his first 10 starts, the most since Tim Wakefield had 51 through 10 starts in 1993, and the most in so few innings (52.1) over 10 starts since Bobby Witt walked 53 in 50.0 IP in 1986, according to Elias Sports Bureau.
•Issued 7 bases on balls in his first start of the season on April 7 vs. Boston, setting a club record with 6 walks in the first inning.
•Walked a career-high 9 batters and struck out 10 in 5.0 IP in his 2nd outing on April 12 at Tampa Bay…Became the first pitcher with 9 or more walks and strikeouts in the same game since Pittsburgh's Tim Wakefield accomplished the feat in 10 innings on Opening Day 1993.
•Joined Steve Barber as the only Orioles pitchers to have 9 walks and strikeouts in the same outing…Barber had 11 walks and strikeouts in 11 innings on 8/13/61 vs. Boston.
•According to Elias, he is the only pitcher in the last 40 years to pitch 5.0 ininngs or less and have at least 9 walks and strikeouts in the same game.
•Walked 7 batters in back-to-back outings, May 9 vs. Detroit and May 14 vs. Kansas City, getting no-decisions in both starts…Was placed on the disabled list with right shoulder inflamation after his start on May 14.
•After being activated from the DL on June 5, won his first two starts, pitching 11.0 scoreless innings while striking out 14 and walking 11.
•Went 0-5 with a 7.02 ERA (33.1IP, 26ER) over his next 6 starts, June 15-July 13.
•Walked at least 5 batters in 11 of his first 16 starts, including 5 walks in 5.1 innings in a 15-1 loss on July 13 vs. Texas to open the 2nd half…Was optioned to AAA Ottawa the next day.

•At the time, was 4-7 with a 5.25 ERA (85.2IP, 50ER) in 16 starts, with 75 walks and 90 strikeouts.
•Won the last 3 of his 4 starts at Ottawa…Pitched 6.0 scoreless innings in his last start on August 3 vs. Scranton-Wilkes Barre, walking one and striking out 8 batters.
•Was recalled from Ottawa on August 8 and went 5-3 with a 4.04 ERA in his last 10 starts (62.1IP, 28ER)…Struck out 67 batters and walked 29.
•Pitched his second career shutout on August 19 vs. Toronto…Matched his season-high with 10 strikeouts and walked only one batter.
•Followed the shutout with 7.0 scoreless innings for a win in his next start on August 25 vs. Tampa Bay, running his scoreless innings streak to 16.0.
•Was winless in his next 4 starts, however, going 0-2 with a 7.78 ERA (19.2IP, 17ER) and pitching into the 6th inning only once.
•Walked 3 batters or less in 5 of 16 starts before being sent to Ottawa but walked 3 or less in 7 of 10 starts after returning from the minors.
•Represented his native Dominican Republic in the World Baseball Classic in March, going 1-0 with a 1.23 ERA (7.1IP, 3H, 1ER) in 2 starts…After earning the win vs. Australia on March 10, pitched 4.0 hitless innings and struck out 7 vs. Venezuela on March 14 as his team advanced to the WBC semifinals.

PRO CAREER

2005: Lowered his ERA nearly 1/2 run per game from his rookie season, from 5.00 to 4.52…Finished 0.2 innings shy of qualifying among American League leaders, pitching 161.1 innings...Would have been 2nd in K/9IP (8.76) and 4th in batting average allowed (.235), but also would have had the highest walks/9IP ratio (4.85)…Was 2nd in the league with 74 walks before going on the disabled list on 8/17...Issued a then-career-high 7 walks in his start vs. Texas on 7/25…Held right-handed hitters to a .174 batting average (48-276), lowest among American League hurlers, while lefties batted .285 (96-337) and had 12 of the 13 home runs hit off him…Became the first Orioles pitcher to win at least 10 games in each of his first two full seasons since Mike Boddicker in 1983 and 1984…Surrendered 5 or more earned runs in a game in 6 starts, 5 of those coming in his first 12 starts through 6/11...Allowed a season-high 8 runs on 8/6 at Texas…Allowed 2 earned runs or less in 15 starts...Allowed 3 earned runs or less 21 times, including 16 of his last 17 starts…Struck out at least 7 batters in 11 of his last 26 starts…Established a new career high for strikeouts in 3 straight games, 4/22-5/9, with a high of 11 while pitching 8.0 scoreless innings on 5/9 vs. Minnesota…Did not post his first win until his 3rd start on 4/17, allowing 3 runs in 6.0 innings to beat New York...Allowed at least 4 earned runs in 3 of his first 4 starts and completed 6.0 innings only once in that span…Worked 8.0 innings and allowed only one run but dropped a 1-0 decision on 5/3 vs. Toronto...Followed that outing with 8.0 shutout innings in a 3-0 win vs. Minnesota on 5/9…Lost 3 straight starts, 6/11-6/22...After working 5.2 innings to earn a no-decision on 6/27 vs. New York, he won a season-high 3 straight games in consecutive starts 7/2-7/14, allowing 3 earned runs in 20.0 IP…Lost his next 4 decisions over a span of 6 starts, 7/19-8/12, pitching to a 6.23 ERA (26.0IP, 18ER)...Started twice in a span of 3 days in a series vs. Chicago, 7/30 and 8/1...Left the game on 7/30 after getting hit on the right hand in the 2nd inning after facing only 8 batters...Came back 2 days later to start the series finale and pitched into the 7th inning but suffered the loss…Was placed on the 15-day disabled list 8/23, retroactive to 8/17, with a strained middle back...He suffered the injury while warming up in the bullpen prior to his scheduled start at Oakland on 8/17…Made one rehab start for AA Bowie on 8/31 vs. Erie, pitching 6.0 innings for the win, before being activated on 9/2…Went 2-2 with a 2.40 ERA (30.0IP, 8ER) in 5 starts after coming off the DL…Allowed 3 earned runs in only one of the 5 outings, taking a no-decision in that start on 9/18 vs. Tampa Bay…Struck out 10 batters and pitched 7.0 innings of 4-hit, shutout ball to earn the victory in his first start off the DL on 9/6 vs. Toronto...Also earned the win in his next start, 9/12 at Texas, allowing 2 runs in 5.2 innings, but went 0-2 over his last 3 starts despite pitching to a 3.12 ERA (17.1IP, 6ER).
2004: Finished third in American League Rookie of the Year voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America after leading Major League rookies in wins (12), starts (27) and innings pitched (147.2) and finishing 7th in strikeouts (76)...Was named to Topps and Baseball Digest Major League All-Star Rookie teams...Was recalled from AA Bowie for a spot start in mid-May and remained in the starting rotation for the rest of the season…Was 9-5 with a 3.71 ERA through 8/10, but went 3-3 with a 9.00 ERA (36.0IP, 36ER) in his last 9 starts after that...Tied for 3rd among AL pitchers with 89 walks…Averaged 5.42 BB/9IP, nearly one more than Jose Contreras (4.44), the league's highest qualifier (162.0IP)...Would have ranked 14th in the AL with only 8.84 hits/9IP, but fell 14.1 innings shy of qualifying...Had 12 "Quality Starts" (6.0 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER allowed) and allowed 2 earned runs or fewer in 15 of his 27 starts...Allowed only 4 homers in his first 11 outings, spanning 64.0 innings, but gave up 10 homers in his last 17 starts (83.2IP) beginning 7/5...Began the season at Bowie before being recalled by the Orioles for a spot start in the first game of a doubleheader on 5/13 at Chicago...Allowed 2 hits in 6.0 scoreless innings to earn the victory as the Orioles beat the White Sox, 1-0...Became the first O's pitcher to win his major league debut since Rocky Coppinger on 6/11/96...Remained in the rotation and won 3 of his first 4 major league decisions...Won his 2nd start on 5/18 at Seattle, working 6.2 innings to defeat the Mariners, 7-2, to join Coppinger (1996) and Scott Klingenbeck (1994-1995) as the only Orioles to win their first two big league starts...String ended when he lost his 3rd start at Anaheim on 5/23...Had a perfect game through 6.0 innings on 6/10 vs. Arizona before yielding a walk, homer and 3 singles in the 7th inning and losing, 3-0...In his next start on 6/15 at Los Angeles, pitched 5.0 shutout innings before surrendering 5 runs in the 6th inning and taking the loss...Did not get a decision in his next start on 6/20 at Colorado, but it began a string in which the Orioles won 8 straight games in which he pitched through 7/20...He went 5-0 with a 1.90 ERA (47.1IP, 10ER) over that stretch...Tossed a 4-hitter vs. Atlanta on 6/25 to beat the Braves 5-0 for his first career shutout and complete game...Became the first Orioles' rookie to throw a shutout since Josh Towers blanked the Montreal Expos on 6/8/01...Received 13 runs of offensive support on 6/30 at Kansas City after the Orioles had scored just 12 runs in his previous 5 starts...At one point during the stretch, the O's did not score a run for 21.1 consecutive innings while he was in the game...Made his only relief appearance on 7/2 at Philadelphia, pitching the 16th inning to earn his first career save in the Orioles' 7-6 win over the Phillies...Endured a month-long stretch, 7/25-8/26, in which he went 1-4 with a 10.23 ERA (31.2IP, 36ER)...Allowed a season-high 8 runs twice and 7 runs once in that stretch...Went 3-0 with a 2.11 ERA (21.1IP, 5ER) in his first 4 starts in September before failing to finish the 5th inning in his last 2 starts, both against Boston...Had his shortest start of the year in his last game on 10/2 vs. the Red Sox, allowing 6 runs in only 1.1 innings...The Orioles went 17-10 in his starts and 18-10 overall in games he pitched...Before his recall from Bowie, held Eastern League opponents to a .121 batting average (11-91)...Struck out 11 batters in each of his last two starts with the Baysox and was tied for the EL lead with 35 strikeouts when he was promoted...Issued 10 walks in his first two starts (9.0IP) for Bowie, then walked only 2 batters in his last 3 outings.

2003: Was 5th among Orioles minor leaguers with 120 strikeouts for Class A Delmarva...Struck out a season-high 9 batters on 3 occasions, and also struck out 8 batters 3 times...Led South Atlantic League pitchers with 78 walks, tied for 5th among all minor league pitchers...Opponents batted just .225 off him (105-467)...Lost his first 7 decisions and was winless until 7/12 at Lakewood, his 17th start of the year...Allowed 3 earned runs or fewer over 13 straight starts, 6/13-8/20, going 4-2 with a 3.07 ERA (67.1IP, 23ER)...Allowed 2 runs or fewer over his last 5 starts in that stretch...Allowed one earned run in 17.0 innings over 3 consecutive starts, 8/8-20, going 2-0...Pitched 6.0 scoreless innings, allowing 3 hits and one walk, in a 9-0 win over Capital City on 8/8, striking out 9 batters, including 4 in a row, to begin a string in which he retired 12 straight batters...Won his 2nd consecutive start on 8/15 vs. Charleston-WV, allowing a run and 4 hits over 6.0 innings in a 3-2 win...Did not get a decision on 8/20 vs. Lexington despite allowing only 2 unearned runs on 3 hits.

2002: Led Rookie-level Bluefield staff with 69 strikeouts in 60.1 innings and tied for the team lead with 5 wins and 12 starts...Ranked 11th in the Appalachian League with a 3.28 ERA...Had a ratio of 10.29 K/9 IP, 4th among Appy League starters...Opponents batted .234 (52-222) off him...Struck out 5 or more batters in 9 of his 12 starts...Allowed 2 earned runs or fewer in 9 of his 12 starts...Did not allow more than 2 earned runs in his last 6 starts beginning 7/28, going 2-1 with a 2.54 ERA (28.1IP, 8ER)...Pitched 5.0 shutout innings in his season debut on 6/20, beating Princeton, 9-2...Allowed one unearned run in 7.0 innings to earn the win on 7/10 at Johnson City, allowing 5 hits and no walks with 6 strikeouts...Also pitched 7.0 innings on 8/19 at Danville, striking out a season-high 10 batters while allowing 2 hits and 3 walks.

2001: Led the Gulf Coast Orioles with 39 walks allowed, including at least 4 walks in each of his 7 starts...Lost his first 3 starts of the year, but did not lose over his final 9 outings...Earned the win in his final outing of the year, pitching 2.0 scoreless innings.

2000: Played for the San Pedro Orioles of the Dominican Summer League and went 8-1 with a 2.52 ERA (71.1IP, 20ER)...Held opponents to a .167 average.

1999: Went 0-2 with a 5.11 ERA (12.1IP/7ER) for the San Pedro Orioles...Appeared in 6 games, starting 3, and struck out 13 batters in 12.1 innings.

1—The Orioles set what is believed to be a major league record when they hosted not one, but two incumbent presidents, each from a different part of the world - President George Bush and Hosni Mubarak of Egypt.
2—President and Mrs. Bush hosted Queen Elizabeth II of England and her husband, Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh.
3—President Bush and his grandson, George P. Bush, threw ceremonial first balls on Opening Day, 1992, which marked the first regular season game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.
4—President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore attended Cal Ripken's "2,131" game, the first time both a president and vice president attended a game outside of Washington.

ONE-TIME ORIOLES, ONE-TIME MAJOR LEAGUERS

Jim Johnson's 3-inning starting appearance on July 29, 2006 put him – at least temporarily – in the company of six other players whose one and only major league appearance came with the Orioles. He was the first of the seven one-time O's to start a game:

Roger Marquis, OF Sept. 25, 1956 (0-for-1)
Gordon Sundin, RP Sept. 19, 1956 (0.0IP, 2BB, 1R/ER)
George Werley, RP Sept. 29, 1956 (1.0IP, 1H, 1R/ER, 2BB)
Tom Patton, C Apr. 30, 1957 (0-for-2, 2Ks; 1-2 opp. SB)
Jeff Rineer, RP Sept. 30, 1979 (1.0IP; retired both batters faced)
Radhames Dykhoff, RP June 7, 1998 (1.0IP, 2H, 1BB, 1K, 2R/ER)

2006

•Batted .291 in 147 games in his first major league season and set an Orioles rookie record for highest batting average (among qualifiers with 502 plate appearances).
•Finished 6th in American League Rookie of the Year voting and was named as an outfielder on the Baseball Digest and Topps All-Rookie teams.
•Hit .324 in 127 games in right field, the 2nd highest batting average among all major league rightfielders…Hit 15 of his 16 home runs while playing right field.
•Led all major league players with a .366 combined batting average in the months of June, July and August…Hit 12 of his 16 home runs during the 3-month span as well.
•Started 34 of the first 49 games of the season, batting .223 with 2 home runs and 10 RBI…Started 23 games in left field, 7 games in center field and 4 games in right while entering as a defensive replacement 10 times.

•Beginning on May 27 when he replaced the injured Jay Gibbons, started 98 of the final 103 games, including 96 starts in right field…Batted .314 from May 27 through the end of the season.
•Was named American League Rookie of the Month for August…Hit safely in 22 of 26 games, batting .354 (34-96) with 7 doubles, 10 home runs, 26 RBI, 22 runs scored and a .740 slugging percentage.
•His 10 home runs in August set an Orioles record for a rookie in a calendar month…The previous record of 8 was set 3 times in 1960 – twice by Jim Gentile (June & August) and once by Ron Hansen (August).
•Became the 11th major league rookie in the last 50 years to hit at least 10 homers in a calendar month.
•Batted .354 in August, his 3rd consecutive month with an average over .335…Batting average reached a season-high .312 on the final day of August before he hit .224 in September.
•Made his major league debut in the season opener on April 3 vs. Tampa Bay, entering defensively in right field in the 9th inning.
•Went 1-for-3 with 3 walks in his first start on April 5 vs. Tampa Bay, homering off Devil Rays' Dan Miceli for his first major league hit.
•Became 3rd player in the last 47 seasons to draw walks in each of his first 3 major league plate appearances and first since Arizona's Danny Klassen, 7/4/98…The last player before that was former Oriole Bob "Rocky" Johnson, then with the Kansas City Athletics in 1960.
•Hit safely in his first 5 games with an at-bat before going hitless on April 12 at Tampa Bay…His first 2-hit game came on May 5 at Boston.
•Batted 2nd in the order 5 times in the first 19 games of the season…Aside from 3 games in which he hit 7th, batted exclusively in the 8th and 9th spots in the order until August 16, when he hit second…Batted 2nd over his next 12 games and 3rd in the order over his final 30 games of the year.
•Matched an Orioles record by hitting 3 home runs on August 22 vs. Minnesota…Marked 18th time in club history a player hit 3 home runs…Became the 21st rookie in major league history to hit 3 homers in a game and the first Orioles rookie to do so.
•Had 6 homers over a 6-game span, August 16-22, becoming only the 8th rookie in major league history to hit 6 home runs over a span of 6 of his teams' games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau…The last to accomplish the feat was Atlanta's David Justice in 1990.
•Had 4 hits in a game 3 times…Collected 11 hits over a 4-game span, June 28-July 1…Had a pair of 4-RBI games in August.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum opened Sports Legends at Camden Yards in May, 2005 in Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station features many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on children learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum continues to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites. See page xxx for more information about the Sports Legends at Camden Yards.

For Museum hours, upcoming exhibits and other information, call the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum at 410-727-1539, or visit the Museum's web site at www.baberuthmuseum.com.

2004: Finished 2nd in the American League to teammate B.J. Ryan in relief innings pitched by left-handers with 75.2…Also had the 7th-best ERA (3.45) and 8th-lowest opponents' batting average (.233) among AL lefty relievers…Appeared in a career-high 56 games in his first full season in the majors…Had a 5.65 ERA in 8 games in April (14.1IP, 9ER)…Pitched to a 2.93 ERA (61.1IP, 20ER) over his last 47 relief outings beginning in May…Beginning 6/28, allowed runs in only 6 of 27 relief outings and allowed more than one run just twice…Pitched to a 2.41 ERA (33.2IP, 9ER) in relief over that span…Allowed only one earned run in 11 relief outings (15.2IP) from 6/28 until 8/14…Made one spot start on 7/7 vs. Tampa Bay and allowed 3 runs (one earned) in 2.1 innings to take the loss…It was his first start since 7/25/01 at Texas…The start was also his only loss at Camden Yards, as he went 6-0 with a 2.41 ERA (41.0IP, 11ER) in 28 relief appearances at home…On the road, he was 0-2 with a 4.67 ERA (34.2IP, 18ER)…Recorded his first career save on 5/29 at Detroit, pitching the final 4.0 innings and allowing one run in an 8-4 victory…Pitched 2.0 perfect innings on 4/22 vs. Tampa Bay to earn his first win of the season…Pitched 3.0 hitless innings to earn his second win on 4/28 vs. Seattle and got his 3rd win with 2.1 innings of one-hit relief on 5/8 vs. Cleveland…Pitched in all 3 games of a series vs. New York, 5/25-27, his first consecutive outings of the season…Worked back-to-back games on 7 other occasions, including both ends of a day-night doubleheader 6/12 vs. San Francisco…Earned the win in the second game with 2.0 scoreless innings after working 1.1 perfect innings in the opener…Had a 2.42 ERA (44.2IP, 12ER) in 32 relief appearances working on at least 2 days rest and a 4.94 ERA (31.0IP, 17ER) in 23 outings working on one day's rest or less…Took the loss on 6/3 at New York, allowing 2 baserunners in 0.1 inning, both of whom scored after he left the game…Earned the win with 0.1 inning of work on 6/9 vs. Arizona…Retired all 4 batters he faced in the 2nd game of a doubleheader on 7/22 at Boston, striking out the side in the 9th inning…Pitched 9/17-18 at Minnesota, his first consecutive outings since 8/16-17…Struck out the last batter he faced at Minnesota on 9/18, then struck out all 4 batters faced in his next outing on 9/23 at Boston…Earned the win in the Orioles' 9/24 comeback vs. Detroit with a perfect 9th inning, striking out the first 2 batters to run his string to 7 straight strikeouts over 3 games…The 7 straight strikeouts were two shy of Armando Benitez' club record of 9 set in 1998 and tied with Sammy Stewart, who struck out 7 straight batters in 1978.
2003: Returned to action after missing the 2002 season because of knee surgery…Pitched for AA Bowie before his contract was purchased by the Orioles on 8/15 when Rick Helling was designated for assignment…Did not allow a run in 10 of 14 relief outings with the O's…American League opponents batted just .205 against him (17-83)…Pitched 1/3 inning with a strikeout and walk on 8/15 vs. the Yankees, his first big league appearance since 9/26/01…Took the loss on 8/26 at Oakland, allowing a hit and 2 intentional walks…After that appearance, worked 10.0 scoreless innings over 5 outings, allowing 4 hits and 3 walks…Twice worked 3.0 scoreless innings, pitching hitless ball with 4 strikeouts on 8/28 at Oakland and allowing one hit on 9/5 vs. Seattle…Was charged with a blown save on 9/20 vs. Toronto, allowing one earned run in 2.2 innings…Finished 2nd on the Baysox with 85 strikeouts despite pitching in relief and spending the final month of the season with the Orioles…Allowed one run in his first 16 outings at Bowie, spanning 25.0 innings…In his last 12 appearances starting 7/12, pitched to a 2.37 ERA (19.0IP, 5ER)…Earned a save in 3 straight appearances, 6/1 through 6/8, yielding one hit and striking out 7 batters in 3.2 innings…Opponents hit .214 off him at Bowie…He allowed more than one earned run only 4 times in 49 outings.
2002: Missed the entire season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in his right knee in an exhibition game against the Minnesota Twins in Ft. Myers on 3/5…Spent most of the summer in Baltimore rehabbing the knee.
2001: Was up with the Orioles for 3 separate stints, pitching primarily out of the bullpen…He worked as both a starter and reliever for AAA Rochester most of the season…Was first recalled by the Orioles on

6/1 and made 9 relief appearances before being optioned back to the Red Wings on 6/25…Went 0-0 with a 6.75 ERA (9.1IP, 7ER) and appeared in 7 of the O's last 11 games before he was sent back…Allowed a home run to Olmedo Saenz, the first batter he faced after his first recall, on 6/3 at Oakland…Retired 8 of the next 11 first batters he faced after that before allowing a first-batter hit in his last 3 relief outings…Was recalled to make a spot start in the opener of a 7/25 doubleheader at Texas…Allowed 6 runs (4 earned) in 6.0 innings and suffered the loss and was returned to Rochester between games of the doubleheader…Struck out Jose Cruz Jr. with 2 out and 2 runners on in the 6th inning on 9/20 at Toronto, then earned the win when the O's came back with a 6-run 7th inning to take the lead…Took the loss on 9/23 vs. New York, walking Bernie Williams with the bases loaded for the eventual game-winning run in the 10th inning…Opened the season in Rochester's starting rotation and went 2-3 with a 4.30 ERA (37.2IP, 42H, 18ER) in 7 starts…Moved to the bullpen in mid-May and went 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA (10.1IP, 2H) in 6 appearances, retiring 31 of 33 batters faced, before being recalled by the Orioles on 6/1…As a starter for Rochester, he went 5-7 with a 3.92 ERA in 18 starts…Overall, he made 7 relief appearances, going 1-0 with an 0.87 ERA, allowing a home run to the only batter he faced in his last relief outing…Finished 5th in the International League with 126 strikeouts…His 8.44 K/9 IP was 4th-best among IL starters…Worked 7.0 or more innings in 9 of his last 10 starts at Rochester, going 3-3 with a 2.60 ERA (72.2IP, 57H, 32R/21ER)…Opponents batted only .241 off him, tied for 5th-best in the league.

2000: Made 8 appearances, all as a starter, in 2 stints with the Orioles...His contract was purchased from AAA Rochester on 7/19 when reliever Darren Holmes was released, and he stayed with the Orioles for all but 6 days the rest of the season…Made his major league debut on 7/24 at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees...He struck out 9 batters in 7.0 innings, matching Sammy Stewart's 1978 club record for most strikeouts in a major league debut…In his debut, Parrish struck out the side in the first inning, retiring the Yankees' Chuck Knoblauch, Derek Jeter and Bernie Williams...He was the first pitcher to strike out the first 3 major league batters he faced since Oakland's Blake Stein did it 5/10/98, fanning Chicago's Ray Durham, Magglio Ordonez and Frank Thomas…Began the season at AA Bowie, going 2-0 with a 1.69 ERA in 3 starts before being promoted to Rochester on 4/23…Through his first 10 starts at Rochester, was 2-4 with a 5.20 ERA (53.2IP, 31ER)...Over his next 7 starts, beginning 6/16, he went 4-2 with a 3.09 ERA (43.2IP, 17R/15ER) before joining the Orioles…Struck out a career-high 12 batters over 7 innings in a 7-2 win over Richmond on 6/26…At the time he joined the Orioles, Parrish was 4th in the International League with 82 strikeouts, despite not joining the Red Wings until the third week of the season…He finished 4th in the IL in strikeouts per 9.0 IP (7.48) and 5th in batting average against (.235)…He pitched at least 5.1 innings in each of his first 5 starts for the Orioles, going 2-1 with a 4.40 ERA (30.2IP, 16R/15ER)...Over his final 3 starts, however, he pitched a combined 5.2 innings, allowing 16 runs (14ER)…He was optioned to Rochester on 8/31 to make one start for the Red Wings before being recalled on 9/5...Made one start, 9/12 at Texas, lasting 1.2 innings…Averaged 18.6 baserunners per 9.0IP (40H, 35BB, 36.1IP), which would have been highest in the AL if he had enough innings to qualify...He left games with a lead in 4 of his 8 outings with the Orioles...His first 2 major league starts came against New York's Roger Clemens and Cleveland's Chuck Finley, who had combined for 412 career victories entering the 2000 season…Parrish's debut vs. New York on 7/24 marked the first start by an Orioles lefthander since Doug Johns started the next-to-last game of the 1999 season, 10/2 vs. Boston.

1999: Pitched at Delmarva, Frederick and Bowie, striking out 96 batters in 102.1 IP...Made 4 relief appearances at Delmarva before joining Frederick and going into the rotation...Won his final two starts with the Keys, striking out 17 in 13.2 IP...Transferred to Bowie and had a 2.81 ERA (32.0IP, 10ER) through his first 6 starts, but did not receive a decision...Had a 6.15 ERA (21.2IP, 15ER) over his next four starts.

1998: From 5/1 on, went 4-3 with a 2.26 ERA (63.2IP, 16ER) in 12 starts, with 66 Ks...Lefties hit .191 (9-47) off him on the season...Was a spring training invitee to major league camp and started for the Orioles in the Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown, NY vs. Toronto on 7/27, allowing 1 run in 4.0 innings.

1997: Combined to go 5-6 with a 4.23 ERA in 29 games (100.0IP, 95H, 47ER, 50BB, 96K) for Delmarva, Frederick and Bowie...Called up for a spot start for Bowie on 6/17 at Norwich and won, 5-1, allowing a first inning run...Went 2-3 with a 5.06 ERA in 10 games for Maui in the Hawaiian Winter League following the season.

1996: Combined to go 4-1 with 3 saves and a 2.20 ERA between Gulf Coast and Bluefield (32.2IP, 8ER)...Allowed 24 hits, walked 20 and struck out 51...Led Gulf Coast relievers in strikeouts per 9.0IP (15.36)...Opposing hitters in the two leagues batted only .200 (24-120) against him.

•Led Oakland in batting (.296), at-bats (557), hits (165) and doubles (32)…Also stole a career-high 8 bases and matched his career best in doubles.
•Started a team-leading 136 games in the outfield, but did not lead the A's in starts at any position…Made 51 starts in left field, 44 in center field and 41 in right field.
•Since 1957, the earliest year data is available, is the only outfielder in the majors to start at least 40 games at all 3 outfield positions in one season, according to Elias Sports Bureau...Is one of just 3 players since 1957 to start 40 games at any 3 positions in one season, along with Joe Carter for Toronto in 1997 (64 at DH, 42 at 1B, 41 in LF) and Richie Zisk for Texas in 1978 (49 at DH, 47 in LF, 42 in RF).

•Eight of his 10 home runs either tied the game or put Oakland ahead…A's went 8-2 in games he homered and were 19-4 (.826) in his home run games since he joined the club at the 2005 All-Star break.
•Went 3-for-12 with 12 RBI with the bases loaded…Now is a .204 (20-98) career hitter with the bases loaded but has 116 RBI with 3 grand slams.
•Averaged 11.3 plate appearances per strikeout, 4th best in the American League…Saw an average of 3.12 pitches per PA, the lowest mark in the majors (LAA's Vladimir Guerrero was 2nd, 3.16).
•Committed a career-high 7 errors in 137 games in the outfield…Broke a career-high 132-game errorless streak, dating to 9/30/04, with his first error of the season on April 19 at Detroit.
•Batted just .215 (14-65) in April…Is a career .251 hitter in April, his lowest average in any month of the season.
•Hit .282 or better in every month after April…His .354 average in June was 10th best in the AL for the month.
•Was ejected from the game on April 16 vs. Texas by home plate umpire Ed Rapuano.
•Drove in 2 runs on April 26 at Texas after starting the season with 13 games without an RBI….Hit his first home run of the season on May 14 at New York, snapping a career-long 54-game, 213-at bat homerless streak.
•Had his first of 3 four-hit games on May 16 vs. Seattle, matching his career high…Also had 3 hits on June 25 at San Francisco and September 26 at Seattle, giving him 13 career 4-hit games.
•Was batting .247 (46-186) with 2 homers and 13 RBI in 47 games through June 9…Batted .321 (119-371) with 8 HR and 46 RRBI over his final 95 games.
•Hit his 100th career homer on July 3 vs. Detroit off Nate Robertson…Had a game-winning single in the bottom of the 10th inning the next night to beat the Tigers, 2-1.
•Stole home in the 6th inning on July 17 at Camden Yards as part of a double steal against the Orioles.
•Had a season-high 12-game hitting streak, July 27-August 8, batting .404 (19-47)…Was the first of 3 hitting streaks of at least 10 games.
•Hit safely in 26 of 28 games, August 19-September 20, batting .357 (40-112).
•Had a career-high 2 outfield assists on September 22 vs. Los Angeles.
•Batted .308 (8-26) while playing in all 7 of Oakland's post-season games vs. Minnesota in the AL Division Series and vs. Detroit in the AL Championship Series…His solo home run in ALCS Game 4 vs. Detroit gave the A's a 3-0 lead before the Tigers came back to complete their sweep.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates celebrated their 45th anniversary in 2005. Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

Now in their 28th year, the Orioles Designated Hitters are a group of volunteers from throughout the community that help the Orioles increase their season ticket sales base. Through their efforts, the Orioles were able to raise their season ticket sales from 1,800 in 1979 to more than 27,500 in 1992 when Camden Yards opened. The current role of the Orioles DHs includes helping the ballclub with ticket sales to businesses and organizations throughout the Orioles region.

Members of the 2007 Designated Hitters Advisory Committee include Steve Attman, Glenn Babcock, John Church, Hal Hackerman, Bill Jones, Bill Michael, Jody Palmisano, Robert Parker, and Reginald Warren.

•Went winless in 6 major league starts in September after going 7-4 with a 2.26 ERA in 14 starts for AAA Ottawa.
•Season was interrupted by an emergency appendectomy on May 23, causing him to miss nearly 7 weeks of the season…Had been recalled to start for the Orioles that night at Seattle, but instead was placed on the disabled list.
•Was recalled again in September and made it through the 4th inning in only one of his 6 starts…Allowed 7 or more runs in 4 outings.
•With Ottawa, had the 2nd highest win total among International League pitchers with 14 or fewer appearances…Indianapolis' Brandon Duckworth won 8 games in 12 starts.
•His 2.26 ERA would have been the 2nd lowest in the IL if he had enough innings to qualify…Held opposing AAA batters to a .221 batting average.

•Allowed 2 earned runs or less in 10 of his 14 starts, including 5 scoreless outings…Pitched at least 7.0 innings in 6 starts, including 4 of his last 5.
•Began the season at Ottawa, going 2-2 with a 1.48 ERA in 5 starts before joining the Orioles in Seattle.
•After recuperating from surgery at home in California, he spent a month rehabbing at the Orioles' minor league facility in Sarasota, FL.
•Started for AA Bowie in a rehab start on July 9 vs. Harrisburg, working 2.0 innings before returning to Ottawa.
•After working up to 6.0 innings in 2 of his 4 starts for the Lynx in July, was named the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Month for August after going 4-1 with a 1.98 ERA (36.1IP, 8ER)…Walked 8 and struck out 39 in his 5 starts.
•Was the International League Pitcher of the Week for August 21-27, going 2-0 and allowing one earned run in 13.2 innings…Pitched 8.0 shutout innings, with a season-high 10 strikeouts, in his final start on August 26 vs. Syracuse.
•Was recalled by the Orioles on September 3 and made his first start that day at Oakland…Retired only 2 batters, allowing a career-high 8 runs, before being relieved.
•Pitched into the 4th inning in his next 2 starts, both losses, before working 6.2 innings on September 20 at Tampa Bay without receiving a decision.
•Did not get a decision in his next start on September 26 at New York, leaving in the 4th inning with a lower back strain.
•Started the Orioles' season finale at Boston on October 1 and allowed 7 runs in 2.2 innings, absorbing his 4th defeat in a 9-0 rain-shortened 5-inning loss in which the Orioles did not get a hit.

PRO CAREER

2005: Spent most of the season at AA Bowie and made 8 starts in two stints with the Orioles…Became the 29th player in Orioles history to make his major league debut before the age of 21 when he started on 5/28 vs. Detroit…Was only the 3rd pitcher to do so since 1967, joining Storm Davis and Matt Riley…His contract was purchased from AA Bowie on 5/28 when Erik Bedard was placed on the disabled list with a sprained left medial collateral ligament...That night, he became the first pitcher who was not in the Orioles' Opening Day 5-man rotation to start a game…Did not get a decision in his debut, pitching 4.2 innings vs. Detroit...Left trailing, 3-2, but the Orioles tied the game before going on to lose, 5-3, to the Tigers...Had 2 more no-decisions before earning his first major league victory on 6/13 vs. Houston, despite allowing 5 runs in 5.2 IP...Won his next start vs. Colorado 6 days later, allowing 2 runs over 6.2 innings…Went 2-0 with a 4.23 ERA (27.2IP, 13ER) in his first 5 starts before surrendering 12 runs in 5.2 innings over his final 2 outings...Was optioned back to Bowie following his start on 6/30...Was recalled on 9/1 to make a fill-in start at Toronto and worked 5.0 innings to earn his 3rd win, 5-3...Was optioned back to Bowie following the game…Went 3-3 with a 3.12 ERA in his first 9 starts for Bowie before joining the Orioles in late May...Was 3rd in the Eastern League with 58 strikeouts and had held opponents to a .253 batting average at the time of his first recall…Was named Organizational Pitcher of the Month for April, going 2-1 with a 1.55 ERA (29.0IP, 21H, 5ER) in 5 starts while holding opponents to a .204 batting average…Pitched 6.0 no-hit innings and struck out 9 batters on 4/17 vs. Akron but was removed from the game because of a high pitch count…Two starts later, 4/29 vs. Reading, he struck out 10 batters and allowed one run in 7.0 innings to earn the win…After returning to the Baysox on 7/1, he went 4-3 with a 4.40 ERA in 11 games...Went 1-2 with a 7.06 ERA in his first 6 starts after rejoining Bowie, then went 3-1 with a 1.97 ERA over his final 5 outings before being recalled by the Orioles on 9/1…At Bowie, struck out 10 or more batters in a game 3 times, including a season-high 12 batters in 7.0 scoreless innings on 8/5 vs. Erie…Had 44 strikeouts in 32.0 IP in his final 5 starts for Bowie...Struck out 88 batters with only 13 walks in 10 games in April and August, but 36 strikeouts with 24 walks in 10 games between June and July with Bowie.
2004: Earned the Jim Palmer Prize as the Orioles' Minor League Pitcher of the Year...Combined to go 13-6 with a 3.81 ERA at Class A Delmarva and Frederick and AA Bowie...Was 3rd in the organization with 122 strikeouts and 10th with a 3.81 ERA...Combined to hold opposing batters to a .226 average (111-491)...At Delmarva, South Atlantic League opponents hit only .201 (30-149) off him...Began the season in Delmarva's bullpen...Made 7 relief appearances, going 2-0 with a 3.86 ERA (11.2IP, 5ER)...Moved into the starting rotation in late April and started the rest of the year...Went 2-1 with a 3.13 ERA in 6 starts for the Shorebirds...Was promoted to Frederick after beating Hickory on 5/31 and won 5 of his first 6 decisions (over 7 starts) for the Keys, pitching to a 3.05 ERA...Had a 3.02 ERA through July 22, but went 1-3 with a 5.56 ERA (22.2IP, 14ER) in his last 4 starts at Frederick...Earned another promotion to AA Bowie and made his final 4 starts of the season there...In his last 2 starts, combined to work 10.2 innings and allowed 9 hits and only 3 earned runs, posting a pair of wins...Worked a season-high 7.0 innings twice, both with Frederick, to match his career best set in 2003.
2003: Began the season at Rookie League Gulf Coast before being transferred to Rookie League Bluefield on 6/25…Posted a 2.45 ERA in August, striking out 27 batters in 25.2 innings, while holding opponents to a .245 average…Established season-highs with 7.0 innings pitched and 10 strikeouts on 8/20 vs. Bristol…Pitched 6.0 scoreless innings, allowing one hit and striking out 7, in his final start of the season on 8/25 at Pulaski.

2002: Reported to Rookie League Bluefield after signing in August, but did not appear in a game.

2006

•Tied for the 7th highest single-season save total in Orioles history in his first season as closer, notching 33 saves in 38 opportunities.
•Became the 7th different pitcher to earn 30 or more saves in a season for the Orioles.
•Held opposing batters to a .193 average (45-233), the 5th lowest among American League relievers...Lefties hit .184 off him, 3rd lowest in the AL.
•Was 2nd on the Orioles staff with 61 appearances, one behind team leader Todd Williams, and led the team's relievers with 66.0 innings pitched.
•Was 10th in the AL in saves, tied for 8th in save opportunities and 7th in save percentage (.868)...Also was tied for 7th in games finished (56).
•Recorded his first major league save with a perfect 9th inning in the season opener on April 3 vs. Tampa Bay.
•Worked 2.0 innings to earn the save 3 times and worked more than 1.0 inning for a save 9 times...Allowed runs in 14 of 61 appearances.
•Was successful on his first 18 save opportunities before suffering a blown save vs. Florida on June 22...Entered with a 5-1 lead with one out in the 9th inning and allowed 2 inherited runners and back-to-back pinch-hit home runs to tie the score.
•Was the only AL pitcher with 3 or more saves and no blown saves before his appearance on June 22.
•Suffered his 2nd blown save and 3rd loss on July 28 vs. Chicago, allowing a season-high 4 runs on a one-out 9th inning grand slam by Ross Gload...Entered with a 4-2 lead and allowed 2 hits and an intentional walk before Gload's homer gave the White Sox a 6-4 win.
•Allowed more than one run in an inning on 5 occasions, but only once after June 22.
•Was credited with the win under Rule 10.19 c (4) on April 13 at Tampa Bay, holding a 6-5 Orioles lead in the 9th inning...Official scorer ruled Jim Brower's outing to have been "brief and ineffective" while ending the previous inning before the O's took the lead.
•Did not record another win until the O's 3-2 sudden-death victory on August 26 vs. Tampa Bay, then won twice in the season's final two weeks.
•Earned 2 saves and a win on the Orioles' 4-game road trip to Tampa Bay, April 10-13, and 2 saves in a series against Los Angeles, April 14-17.
•Allowed 3 runs in the 9th inning on April 27 at Toronto in a non-save situation, the only runs he allowed in his first 16 appearances before May 17.
•Earned saves in 5 straight outings, May 17-30...Earned his 13th save on May 28 at Los Angeles, pitching 2.0 innings for first time...Pitched more than 1.0 inning in 3 straight outings, May 23-28.
•Took losses in back-to-back games, June 2-3, vs. New York...Lost on an unearned 9th inning run on June 2 and allowed a 10th inning tie-breaking home run to Johnny Damon on June 3 as the O's lost both games, 6-5.
•Recorded his 20th save on June 28 vs. Philadelphia...Did not have another opportunity until earning a save on July 8 at Cleveland, then recorded his 22nd save in 23 opportunities at Cleveland on July 9.
•Was 27-for-29 in saves through August 1, but had only 9 more opportunities over the Orioles' final 53 games...Was 13-for-17 in save opportunities after the All-Star break.

•Allowed a one-out, tie-breaking solo home run to Jorge Posada on August 4 vs. New York and was charged with his 4th loss of the season.
•Earned his 30th save on August 25 vs. Tampa Bay with 1.2 perfect innings…Suffered his 3rd blown save on August 30 at Texas, striking out Mark Teixeira for the 2nd out in the 8th with the tie run on 3rd base before Carlos Lee hit a game-tying double.
•Had his final 2 blown saves in consecutive appearances September 14 vs. Boston and September 17 at Detroit…Was the only time he had blown saves in back-to-back outings.
•Earned the win after suffering a blown save on September 17 at Detroit, pitching a season-high 2.1 innings…Pitched 20 perfect innings after allowing Sean Casey's game-tying homer in the 8th.
•Earned his 32nd save on September 18 at Tampa Bay, his first opportunity since September 2 at Oakland…Earned his 33rd save and had his final save opportunity of the season on September 21 vs. Detroit.
•Earned the 5-4 win in the Orioles' final victory of the season on September 30 at Boston with 2.0 innings of one-hit shutout relief when the O's scored 2 runs in the 9th.

- Has not pitched since making one appearance at AA Akron in April 2005…Missed most of the 2004 season because of hip and thumb injuries.
- Retired on April 27, 2005, due to recurring hip problems…Underwent surgery following his retirement, which improved the condition of his hip.
- Made 12 trips to the disabled list during his career, going on the DL at least once in 8 straight seasons, from 1997 through 2004.
- Worked out for Orioles officials in January 2007 and was signed to a minor league contract on February 2, with an invitation to spring training.

PRO CAREER

2005: Signed a free agent minor league contract with Cleveland, the team that originally drafted him, with an invitation to major league spring training camp…Was assigned to AA Akron and pitched in one game, working 2.0 innings and allowing one run…Announced his retirement on 4/27 due to recurring hip problems.

2004: Did not appear in a game for the Los Angeles, as he ruptured a tendon in his right thumb during a spring training fielding drill...The injury came about when he fell due to soreness in his right hip…Had made 8 spring training appearances for the Dodgers…Rehabbed at Short-A Ogden on 6/21 and 6/23 before moving to AAA Las Vegas on 6/27…Was shut down after continued soreness following an outing on 7/3 vs. Fresno (1.0IP, 4H, 4R/ER)…Had that surgery on 7/28 in Pittsburgh, performed by Dr. Marc Philipon, ending his season.

2003: Spent his only full season in the National League and with Los Angeles…Became one of just 16 big league relievers to appear in 40 or more games in each of 8 seasons from 1996-2003...Despite missing more than 3 weeks with a sprained right knee, appeared in 62 games and logged 69.0 innings...Limited opponents to a .207 batting average (50-242), the 11th lowest mark in the NL...Right-handers hit just .193 (26-135) off him...Was 2-1 with a 0.68 ERA in 10 April appearances (13.1IP, 1ER)...In June, went 1-0 with a 1.29 ERA in 12 outings, striking out 15 in 14.0 innings...When he appeared in his 60th game, he joined Paul Quantrill (89), Tom Martin (80), Eric Gagné (77) and Guillermo Mota (76) to form the first quintet of pitchers in Dodger history to pitch 60 or more games in the same season...Allowed a run in his first appearance of the regular season on 4/1 at Arizona, but did not surrender a run in his next 12 outings, a span of 16.0 IP...Pitched 2.0 shutout innings on 4/24 at Cincinnati, but suffered a sprained right knee during the contest and was subsequently placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day...Made one rehabilitation appearance at AAA Las Vegas before being activated on 5/17...Struck out a season-high 4 batters in 2.0 shutout innings to pick up the win on 6/10 at Detroit...Entered 7/24 contest vs. Colorado with Jay Payton at the plate, one on, two outs and the game tied in the 9th inning...With Payton batting, baserunner Todd Helton was thrown out attempting to advance to second on a pitch that got away at the plate...The Dodgers scored in the bottom of the 9th and Shuey earned the victory despite not officially facing a batter…Earned the win on 9/24 at San Diego…It represents his last major league win.

2002: Began the season with Cleveland before being traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers on July 31…Combined to go 8-2 with one save and a 3.31 ERA in 67 games between the Indians and Dodgers (68.0IP, 29R/25ER)…Was the 2nd highest total appearances and IP in his career…Made 28 appearances out of the bullpen for LA after being acquired from Cleveland on 7/28 for pitchers Francisco Cruceta, Terry Mulholland and Ricardo Rodriguez…Struggled in his first 9 appearances with the Dodgers, going 1-2 with a 10.80 ERA (6.2IP, 12H, 8R/ER)...In his final 19 outings, was 4-0 with a 2.63 ERA in 24.0 IP...Did not allow a run in his first 15 appearances with Cleveland, 4/3-5/6, giving up just 6 hits and 5 walks with 11 strikeouts in 14.0 IP...Made his Dodger debut on 7/30 at Cincinnati...On 8/22 vs. Florida, pitched 2.0 shutout innings to collect his only save as a Dodger and his first since 5/4/01 at Tampa Bay while with Cleveland...Struck out a season-high 5 batters in 2.0 IP on 9/18 vs. SF...Was placed on the disabled list on 6/12 with a strained left groin and activated on 6/25...Did not allow a run in 8 straight outings from 7/5-21.

2001: Was again plagued by injuries as a strained right elbow shelved him twice beginning in June for much of the remainder of the season…When healthy he limited league hitters to a .251 (53-211) average with just one homer allowed in 54.1 IP…Fanned 11.6 batters per 9.0IP (70K, 54.1IP), the 2nd best mark among American League relievers…Was originally injured on 6/12, an injury he believed was due to a round of pitchers' batting practice that afternoon…Pitched that night against Milwaukee (1.2IP, 4H, 2R), taking his 3rd loss of the year, and was placed on the disabled list on 6/13 with a strain of the flexor tendon in his right elbow…Was activated from the DL on 6/29 after a 1.0 inning rehab at AA Akron…Appeared in 10 games after his first activation, going 0-0 with a 1.59 ERA (11.1IP, 8H, 2ER) from 6/30-7/21 before going on the DL again on 7/23 with a strain of the ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow…Marked his 9th & 10th career trips to the disabled list and the 5th straight year in which he was disabled…Began a throwing program on 9/1 and made a few simulated game appearances before being activated from the 15-day disabled list on 9/18…Appeared in 9 games the rest of the season, going 0-0 with a 5.40 ERA (8.1IP, 13H, 5ER) as batters hit .382 (13-34) off him and blew 2 saves…Allowed runs in 3 of his last 4 outings (3.1IP, 9H, 3ER)…His 2.2 IP on 4/21 vs. Detroit was his longest outing since September 1998…Equaled his career-high with 4 straight wins, 4/26-5/29…Over his last 40 appearances his ERA was 2.47 (47.1IP, 45H, 13ER, 58SO)…Made 4 errors in 9 total chances (.556) and his 4E were tied for 3rd among AL pitchers…Batters hit just .212 (18-85) off him with RISP, only .114 (4-35) w/2 outs and RISP and .083 (1-12) with the bases loaded.

2000: Spent his 4th full season in the big leagues despite spending 5 weeks on the disabled list after having hip surgery…Led the AL with 28 holds and his .219 (51-233) average against was the 7th lowest mark among AL relievers…His first batter-faced average of .203 (10-49) was the 7th lowest mark among league relievers…Was bothered by right hip problems that forced him onto the 15-day disabled list on 5/21 and had arthroscopic surgery on his right hip on 5/30 in San Francisco, CA by Dr. James Glick…Glick repaired a torn labrum in Shuey's hip…Was activated off the 15-day DL on 6/27 and went 1-1 with a 3.61 ERA in 40 games (42.1IP, 32H, 17ER) through the end of the season…Did not allow a run in 42 of his 57 outings…Batters hit .233 (17-73) with runners in scoring position and .179 (7-39) with RISP and 2 outs…Allowed 16 of 40 inherited runners to score (40%)…The Indians picked up his 2001 club option on 11/13 and signed him to an extension through 2004 in the spring of 2001.

1999: Was a reliable set-up man in Cleveland's bullpen…Was healthy the entire season except for a 15-day trip to the DL in late April/early May...Finished the year tied for 7th among AL relievers in appearances with 72...Recorded career-highs in appearances (72), wins (8), innings (81.2) and strikeouts (103)…Became the first Indians reliever to fan more than 100 batters since Sid Monge (108K) in 1979...Allowed 15 of 31 inherited runners to score (48.4%), tied for the 3rd worst percentage in the league...His .223 (68-305) relief average against was the 9th lowest mark among AL relievers...Tied for the club lead with Steve Karsay with 8 relief wins, which also tied for 4th in the AL…Also tied for 8th among league relievers with 19 holds...Was the Tribe's best reliever after the All-Star break, going 3-1 with a 2.87 ERA in 32 games (37.2IP, 24H, 1ER) and limiting hitters to a .179 (24-134) average…Was on the disabled list from 4/26-5/10 with a strained left hamstring…Struck out 51 batters over his last 35.2 IP and on the year fanned 11.4 per 9.0IP...Had 6 saves in 12 opportunities and his 6 blown saves were tied for 8th among AL relievers...Appeared in 3 games of the AL Division Series against Boston…Won his first career post-season game with Game One's 3-2 win over Boston…Was the losing pitcher in Game 5 after allowing a 3-run HR to Troy O'Leary that broke an 8-8 tie in the 7th inning.

1998: Returned to his 1996 form sandwiched around a 2-month stay on the disabled list in April and May and was sensational in the post-season…Began the season on the major league roster but was sidelined after his 2nd appearance of the season with a pulled right groin…Pulled the groin on 4/10 vs. Anaheim and was placed on the 15-day DL the next day...Began a 30-day rehab assignment on 4/24 at AA Akron, but aggravated the injury in his first outing that night...Began a 2nd 30-day rehab assignment in AAA Buffalo on 5/23, appearing in 11 games for the Bison before being activated from the DL on 6/15…Struggled in August (4.40ERA, 14.1IP, 17H, 7ER) before enjoying a solid final month...Went 1-3 in 11 September outings with a 3.00 ERA (12.0IP, 8H, 4ER)…Carried his September momentum into the post-season, allowing no runs while appearing in 8 of Cleveland's 10 playoff games (9.1IP, 7H, 0R, 8BB, 11SO), most by a Tribe reliever...His 5 appearances in the ALCS vs. New York tied the single-series record shared by Mike Jackson and Paul Assenmacher in 1997…During the season was 2-for-5 in save situations...Held batters to a .132 (7-53) average with runners in scoring position, the best mark in the American League among relievers...Overall major league hitters hit .229 (44-192) with 4 HR off him.

1997: Opened the season as the Tribe's closer in place of Jose Mesa after a solid spring but was plagued by inconsistency and injuries throughout the season…Notched a save in his first appearance, Opening Night, on 4/2 at Oakland…Signed a 3-year contract extension through the 2000 campaign (with a club option for 2001) on 4/4 and that night at Anaheim he allowed a grand slam to Tim Salmon in the 11th inning, giving Anaheim an 8-6 win – his first and only blown save of the season…Tossed a then career-high 3.0 IP on 4/18 vs. Milwaukee and strained the medial collateral ligament in his right knee as he warmed up for his 4th inning of work…Was placed on the 15-day DL on 5/4 (retro to 4/25)...Made rehab stints at AAA Buffalo and AA Akron before being activated from the DL on 5/18…Strained his right hamstring and was forced to leave the game on 6/18 vs. Cincinnati...Was placed on the 15-day DL for the 2nd time on 6/19 and was activated on 7/4...Re-aggravated the hamstring injury in his first appearance back on 7/11 at Minnesota and was placed on the DL for the 3rd time on 7/12....Was activated on 8/1 and spent the remainder of the season on the active roster…From August through the end of the season, he went 2-1 with a 7.36 ERA in 26 games (22.0IP, 23H,18ER)...Tossed a career-high 4.0 innings with a season-high 5 strikeouts on 8/16 vs. Toronto...Was eligible for post-season play but was not on any of Cleveland's 3 playoff series rosters.

1996: Led Cleveland relievers with 5 wins after beginning the season at AAA Buffalo…Was one of the final cuts in spring training...Was involved in a one-car automobile accident on 4/3 while with Buffalo when his car spun off an icy road, but was not seriously injured…Was recalled from Buffalo on 4/12 after pitching 2 scoreless outings (2.0IP) at AAA...Allowed 7 earned runs over 3 games (2.1IP, 6BB, 27.00ERA) in his first stint with the Indians and suffered his first loss on 4/17 at Minnesota (2.1IP, 2H, 4R, 3BB, 2HR) ...Was optioned back to AAA on 4/21...Later discovered he was suffering from a post-traumatic disorder from his traffic accident in early April during his first Indians stint…Went back to AAA and held hitters to a .126 average (14-111) while striking out 15.4 SO/9.0IP...RH hitters hit .127 (9-71) off him while lefties hit .125 (5-40)...Was recalled from AAA on 6/10 and spent the remainder of the season with Cleveland…Over his 2nd stint with the Indians he went 5-1 with a 1.75 ERA and 4 saves in 39 games (51.1IP, 39H, 10ER, 18BB, 40SO)…Collected first Major League win on 6/20 vs. Boston...Struck out a career-high 6 Orioles on 8/4 in 2.1IP...Overall, held AL hitters to a .231 (45-195) average…First batters hit just .189 off him (7-37), the 8th lowest mark in the AL...Limited opponents to a .185 average with runners on base (17-92), the 4th lowest mark among AL relievers...His 2.85 ERA was 8th lowest among AL relievers…Went 0-0 with a 9.00 ERA in 3 Division Series outings vs. the Orioles...Allowed a grand slam to Bobby Bonilla in Game One at Camden Yards (1.1IP, 3H, 2ER, 2SO, 2HR).

1995: Began the season at the big league level following spring training...Appeared in 3 games before suffering a strained right hamstring in the 9th inning on 5/3 at Detroit…Went on the 15-day disabled list on 5/4, was activated on 5/22 and optioned to AAA Buffalo…Made only one appearance, a save vs. Oklahoma City on 5/25, before being placed on the minor league DL with a sore right shoulder on 6/8...Was activated from on 7/10 and spent the remainder of the season at Buffalo…Was recalled by the Indians on 9/17 when Eric Plunk's shoulder tendinitis flared up...Played winter ball in Puerto Rico for the San Juan Senators...Was 0-0 with a 2.30 ERA and 9 saves in his 15 winter ball appearances (15.2IP, 13H, 15K).

1994: Started the season at Class A Kinston and made 13 relief appearances before making the jump to the majors on 5/6 when Cleveland purchased his contract…Became the first Indians pitcher to jump from Class A ball to the majors since Greg Swindell in 1986…Made his big league debut on 5/8 at Baltimore, tossing 1.0 shutout inning…On 5/14 vs. Detroit, he recorded 4 strikeouts in one inning after a batter reached on a wild pitch...He was the 10th American League pitcher to accomplish the feat and the first rookie, and the first Indian pitcher to record 4 strikeouts in an inning since Mike Paxton on 7/21/78…Was 5-for-5 converting save chances for the Indians…Was placed on the 15-day DL on 6/27 with a strained groin...On 7/5 he was sent to AAA Charlotte on a rehabilitation assignment and on 7/21 he was activated from the DL and optioned to Charlotte, spending the rest of the year as the Knights' closer.

1993: Started the season in the rotation at AA Canton-Akron before being sent to the bullpen after 7 starts...Was assigned to Class A Kinston on 7/24, where he remained for the rest of the season…Played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League and was 1-1 with three saves and a 3.79 ERA.

1992: Started his professional career with Class A Columbus in the South Atlantic League after being Cleveland's first round pick in the First Year Player Draft…Was used strictly as a starter after serving as a closer in college…Played for Tucson in the Arizona Fall League following the season and in 10 relief outings was 0-0 with a 3.38 ERA (16IP, 10H, 6ER).

•Was named "Most Valuable Oriole" for the 2nd time in 3 seasons after leading the team with a .330 average, 24 home runs and 100 RBI.
•Set a club record and tied for 3rd in the American League with a career-high 214 hits, surpassing Cal Ripken's 211 hits in 1983…Was the 3rd time he has collected at least 200 hits in a season.
•His .330 batting average ranked 4th in the AL and was the 2nd highest mark in club history, behind Melvin Mora's .340 in 2004…Led the league with a .357 average at home and tied for 7th with 323 total bases.
•Finished 7th in the league with 56 multi-hit games, but was tied with Seattle's Ichiro Suzuki for the most 3-hit (22) and 4-hit (6) games in the majors.
•Had the 4th highest total of at-bats (648) and 6th most plate appearances (709) in the AL…Led the league with 28 GIDPs, but also came to the plate with the most GIDP situations (178) in the majors.
•Hit .329 vs. right-handers, 5th in the AL, and .335 vs. lefties, ranked 10th in league…Was the only player to finish in the top 10 in both categories.
•Played in all 162 games for the 6th straight season, extending his consecutive games streak to 1,080, longest active and the 7th longest streak of all-time…Was one of only 6 players to play in all 162 of his team's games in 2006.
•Last missed a game on 5/31/00 with Oakland…Since reaching the majors for good on 5/30/98, has started 1,374 of his team's 1,406 games at shortstop (97.7%) and has missed just 10 games total.
•Was named to the American League All-Star team for the 4th time in his career and 3rd straight season with the Orioles…Played the final 4 innings of the game and went 0-for-1.
•Had 21 home runs as a shortstop and 3 as designated hitter…Became the 3rd shortstop to hit at least 20 homers in 8 or more straight seasons, joining Cal Ripken (9, '83-'91) & Alex Rodriguez (8, '96-'03).
•Has 237 career homers as a shortstop, 4th all-time behind Ripken (345), Rodriguez (344) and Ernie Banks (277).
•Is the Orioles' all-time leader with a .315 batting average (minimum 1,200 at-bats)…Has a .516 slugging percentage in his 3 seasons with the Birds, the 3rd highest mark in club history.
•Is 3rd among all major league players with 1,330 hits over the last 7 seasons, starting in 2000, and 4th with 813 RBI.
•Had 43 hits in April, breaking Roberto Alomar's club record for hits in the opening month…Had a season-high 14-game hitting streak, April 15-29, batting .527 (29-55).
•Named American League Player of the Week, April 17-23…Hit .536 (15-28) with 3 home runs, 10 RBI and 24 total bases during the week.
•Collected all 4 of the Orioles' hits on April 23 at New York…Was the first player to have at least 4 hits in a game while the rest of his team went hitless since the Cubs' Billy Williams on September 6, 1969.
•Had multi-hit games in 9 of 10 games, April 19-29, and drove in at least one run in 12 of 15 games, April 17-May 2…Went 1-for-4 on April 26 at Toronto, snapping string of 6 straight multi-hit and RBI games.
•Led the American League with a .422 batting average in April before hitting .224 in May…Tied for 5th in the league with 8 home runs in May…Batted over .300 in every month of the season except May.
•Hit 16 home runs in his first 66 games of the year through June 13…Hit 8 home runs over the final 96 games of the season…Snapped a career-long stretch of 120 consecutive at-bats without a home run by homering in consecutive plate appearances on September 24 vs. Minnesota.
•All 24 of his home runs came with zero or one man on base…According to the Elias Sports Bureau, no other player in the majors had as many homers, all with zero or one man on.
•Had 3 doubles on July 6 at Chicago, matching his career high for the 5th time…Had 34 doubles over his final 123 games after hitting 3 in the first 39 games.
•Hit safely in 130 of 162 games on the year…In addition to the season-high 14-game hitting streak in April, also hit safely in 13, 12, 11 and 9 consecutive games, and had a pair of 8-game streaks.

2006

•Began the season with the Chicago Cubs before being traded to San Diego in July...Combined to go 2-4 with a 5.72 ERA in 42 games.
•Was his most appearances and highest innings total in the last 3 seasons, despite spending 50 days in two stints on the disabled list.
•Gave up a run on a hit and 2 walks without retiring a batter in his first appearance of the season on April 3 at Cincinnati...Did not allow an earned run in his next 7 appearances, earning 2 wins in relief.
•Was 2-2 with a 3.10 ERA (20.1IP, 7ER) in 21 appearances through May 23...Allowed 3 runs in brief appearances June 2 and 3 at St. Louis before going on the 15-day disabled list on June 4 with right lateral epicondylitis.
•After a rehab stint with Class A Peoria, was activated on June 27...Made 8 appearances for the Cubs, allowing 6 runs in 7.0 IP, before being traded to the Padres on July 27 for minor league pitchers Fabian Jimenez and Joel Santo.
•Pitched 1.1 scoreless innings in his Padres debut on July 24, and allowed 3 runs in 6.0 IP in his first 8 outings following the trade.
•Yielded 3 runs in two of his last 3 outings, August 17 vs. San Francisco (1.2IP) and August 25 at Colorado (1.1IP) before going on the disabled list for the 2nd time during the season...Was diagnosed with bone chips in his right elbow and was on the DL from August 26 to September 22.
•Did not pitch after being activated...Was released by San Diego on October 11.

PRO CAREER

2005: Signed with the Chicago Cubs despite being sidelined until August after undergoing elbow reconstruction surgery following the 2004 season...Was not scored upon in 12 of his 17 appearances...Struck out 23 batters in 14.1 innings, a ratio of 14.4 strikeouts per 9.0 innings...Opened the year on the 60-day disabled list and was activated and made his Cubs debut on 8/5 in New York, working 1.0 scoreless inning...Had two rehab stints before being activated...Appeared in 4 games for Rookie-level Mesa and in 6 games for AAA Iowa...With Iowa, held batters to a .154 batting average and struck out 10 batters in 7.0 IP.
2004: Struggled through injuries, but managed to compile a 1.26 ERA in 28 relief appearances for Boston...Held opponents to a .115 average, the lowest of his career...Allowed 3 of 9 inherited runners to score...Had two different stints on the disabled list, 5/21 through 6/11 with right elbow inflammation and 7/2 through 9/9 with a strained right forearm...Appeared in 4 rehab games for AAA Pawtucket...Allowed just one earned run on 5 hits over his final 14 outings with the Red Sox, spanning 12.2 innings...Earned his only save of the year on 4/25 at New York, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings in Boston's 2-0 win over the Yankees...Did not allow a homer in 28.2 innings.
2003: Combined to go 5-4 with a 4.16 ERA and 21 saves in 66 games for Cincinnati and Boston...Was dealt at the July trading deadline to the Red Sox for LHP Phil Dumatrait, a player to be named later and cash...With Cincinnati, he converted 21 of 26 save opportunities...Had a pair of bad outings with Boston, allowing 9 earned runs in 1.0 inning pitched...Allowed 4 earned runs while getting one out on 8/8 vs. Baltimore and surrendered 5 earned runs over 0.2 innings on 9/20 at Cleveland...Without those outings, his ERA was 2.92 on the year…Saw postseason action for the first time in his career, appearing in 8 games for Boston, going 2-0 with 3 saves and a 1.13 ERA.

2002: Made a then-career-high 63 relief appearances while continuing his recovery from "Tommy John" surgery, which he had during the 2001 season…Struck out 10.21 batters per 9 innings pitched (84 Ks in 74.0 IP)…Had 10 straight scoreless outings, 4/19 to 5/18, during which his ERA dropped from 11.25 to 2.65…Earned saves in 5 consecutive outings 9/9-9/16, tossing 4.2 scoreless innings.

2001: Spent most of the season on the disabled list with a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow…Pitched just 0.1 inning in each of Cincinnati's first two games before going on the disabled list for the remainder of the season…Underwent "Tommy John" surgery that was performed jointly by Dr. James Andrews and Dr. Timothy Kremchek on 4/12.

2000: Went 3-3 with a 2.93 ERA in his 10 starts, the only starts of his major league career…Established season career-highs in innings pitched (112.0) and strikeouts (136)…Lasted 7.0 innings in 3 consecutive starts, 8/12-8/23, allowing 3 runs over the span…Picked up his only win in those starts, however, and was the victim of blown saves in the other 2 starts…Earned the save in 3 consecutive outings, 4/30-5/7, tossing 6.1 scoreless innings…Was on the disabled list from 8/24 through 9/8 with a lower back strain.

1999: Earned National League Rookie of the Year honors after going 12-7 with 19 saves in 26 chances and a 2.41 ERA in 62 relief appearances…Held opponents to a .171 average and stuck out 10.33 batters per 9IP…Was selected to National League All-Star team as a replacement for injured Robb Nen, becoming just the 14th rookie pitcher to be selected to the Midsummer Classic…His 2.41 ERA was best in the NL among pitchers with at least 17 decisions…Had a 14-game scoreless streak, 5/3-6/8, spanning 22.2 IP…Did not allow a run in 9 outings during the month of May…Struck out a season-high 6 batters in back-to-back outings 5/23 and 5/27…Tossed 5.0 hitless innings while striking out 12 batters.

1998: Combined to go 4-5 with a 3.73 ERA in 23 starts between AA Chattanooga and AAA Indianapolis…Made 18 starts for Chattanooga before being promoted to Indianapolis on 7/29…Was on the disabled list part of April and May after a line drive grazed his forehead…Made his last appearance of the year on 8/24 vs. Columbus…Left the game with a strained tendon in his right middle finger and did not pitch the rest of the season.

1997: Spent his first professional season at Rookie-level Billings…Was named to the Pioneer League All-Star team and to Baseball America's short-season All-Star squad…Struck out 10.57 batters per 9.0IP.

•Rebounded from an injury-plagued 2005 season to finish fourth on the New York Yankees staff in wins (11), starts (27), innings pitched (140.1) and ERA as a starter (4.42).
•Went 11-6 as a starter and the Yankees were 16-11 in games he started...Pitched into the 6th inning in 17 of his 27 starts, with 10 "Quality Starts."
•New York scored 2 runs or fewer while he was on the mound in 12 of his starts, including 5 games in which the Yankees failed to score a run...He left with a lead 3 times and failed to get a win and twice left games with the score tied 2-2 without getting a decision.
•Went 7-2 over his final 14 starts beginning July 7...Went 5-1 with a 3.93 ERA (52.2IP, 23ER) in his final 10 starts of the season beginning August 1.

•Made his first appearance of the season in relief on April 5 at Oakland and allowed 4 runs (1ER) in 2.0 IP to record the loss...Was his first relief appearance since 9/28/03 with Atlanta at Philadelphia.
•Earned his first win on May 13 vs. Oakland, working 5.1 innings in a 4-2 Yankees' win.
•Made his 200th big league appearance on May 23 at Boston, earning the victory in a 7-5 win...Left the game after 5.0 IP with tightness in his right groin.
•Combined with 4 relievers on a 5-0 shutout to earn the win on June 21 at Philadelphia...Recorded his first RBI since 9/1/04 (also at Citizens Bank Park) with a 5th inning sacrifice fly.
•Combined with 3 relievers on a 1-0 shutout on July 7 at Tampa Bay, tying his single-game career-high with 10 strikeouts...Also struck out 10 batters on 9/6/98 with Cleveland at Detroit.
•Went 7 years, 304 days between 10-strikeout games, the longest such streak since Tim Wakefield went 8 years, 63 days (6/5/97–8/7/05).
•According to the Elias Sports Bureau, was only the 4th time in the last 80 years a pitcher worked 6.0 innings without starting the 7th inning of a game and recorded at least 10 strikeouts without issuing a walk, joining Ben Sheets in 2004, Matt Perisho in 1999 and Sid Fernandez in 1995.
•Topped 100 pitches for the first time in 21 starts on August 1 vs. Toronto...Last time he did it came on 9/13/05 at Tampa Bay, when he threw 106 pitches.
•Allowed a first-inning leadoff home run to Brian Roberts on 8/17 vs. the Orioles, snapping a career-high streak of 10 consecutive starts without surrendering a homer...Had not allowed a home run to his previous 223 batters faced.
•Opponents batted .283 (157-555) off him...Lefties hit .314 (82-261) and right-handers batted .255 (75-294).

2004: Set career high with 15 wins and led Atlanta staff with 3.28 ERA and 159 strikeouts...Tied for 3rd in the National League with a 2.59 night ERA and ranked 6th in the league with a 2.56 ERA at home...Led the Braves with 22 "Quality Starts"...Team went 20-12 in his starts...Limited opponents to a .242 average, which ranked 10th in the NL...Went 4-1 with a 3.86 ERA in August after going 4-0, 1.42 in July...Posted a career-high 9-game winning streak from 5/27-8/12...Earned his first win as a starter since 9/4/02 on 4/16 vs. Florida, allowing four runs (one earned) in 6.0 IP, in a 5-4 Braves win...Broke a 4-game losing streak with 7.1 solid innings at Philadelphia on 5/27, his longest outing since 5/11/00 (7.2IP)...Improved to 5-5 in perhaps his best game of the year with 7.0 shutout innings at Chicago (AL) on 6/11, allowing just 2 hits while striking out 8 batters...Posted 5th straight win with 7.0 shutout innings vs. Montreal on 7/15, allowing just 3 hits in the 8-0 win...Tossed 7.0 scoreless innings of 3-hit ball on 7/31 vs. NY Mets in an 8-0 victory, retiring the last 11 batters he faced and 15 of the last 16...Allowed 7 hits in 6.1 IP and hit his first career homer with a third-inning shot off Brandon Webb in his 10th win at Arizona on 8/6...Won his 9th straight game and 11th of the season with a 4-2 win vs. Milwaukee on 8/6…Saw his career-high 9-game winning streak come to an end on 8/17 at San Diego, when he allowed five runs in 0.2 IP…It matched the shortest outing of his career (8/30/02 vs. Boston)…Established a career high with his 13th win on 8/27 vs. San Francisco…Pitched a season-high 8.1 innings at Florida on 9/18, allowing no runs and just one hit through 8.0 innings before allowing 2 runs in the 9th…It marked his longest outing in 100 games, since his last complete game on 4/12/00…Left the game on 9/28 in the third inning after being struck on the right foot by a Wilson Delgado line drive…Made 2 starts in the Division Series vs. Houston, losing both games.

2003: Was 2-4 with a 7.62 ERA in 50 relief appearances with San Diego and Atlanta…Began the season with the Padres, going 1-4 with a 8.74 ERA in 39 relief appearances…Was optioned to AAA Portland on 6/6 and recalled by Padres on 6/18…Was claimed off waivers by Atlanta on 8/29…Made his Braves debut on 8/30 at Pittsburgh (1.0IP, 1H)…Was scored on in only one of his 11 regular season games as a Brave (9/12 at Florida)…Made 4 scoreless appearances in Division Series vs. the Cubs…Struck out the side in the 7th inning of Game One.

2002: Began the season on the disabled list with Cleveland for a third straight season due to right-shoulder related ailments…Pitched in three spring training games before being shut down due to weakness in his right shoulder and was placed on the 15-day DL on 3/31…Began a rehab assignment with AAA Buffalo on 6/17…Allowed one run or less in 4 of his 6 rehab starts and yielded just one run in 13.1 IP during his final 2 starts for the Bison…Was activated from the 60-day DL on 7/20 and made his big league season debut that night in the opener of a twinbill at Kansas City, his first start in the Major Leagues since 6/21/01…Took the loss, allowing 5 runs in 4.0 innings…Matched his career-high with 7 walks in his next start on 7/29 at Oakland…Was optioned to Buffalo on 8/6…Tossed 9.0-inning complete game 2-hitter on 8/20 at Ottawa, striking out 12…Was recalled by Indians on 8/28…Lasted only 0.2 innings in his shortest career start on 8/30 vs. Boston…Notched first win of the season on 9/4 at Detroit and first in the big leagues since 6/5/01…Made his first career regular-season relief appearance on 9/12 vs. Minnesota…Earned first relief win of his career on 9/29 vs. Kansas City…Gave up 16 runs in the first inning of his 6 starting assignments…Cleveland declined to exercise his 2003 option on 10/16 and he became a free agent after refusing an outright assignment to Buffalo.

2001: Struggled with right-shoulder ailments for a third straight season, forcing season-ending shoulder surgery for a second straight year…Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 3/31 and stayed in Florida, making 6 extended spring starts in April…Made his big league season debut on 5/19 in Anaheim and did not receive a decision (5.0IP, 2ER)…His victory on 5/30 at Detroit was his first since 5/11/00…Allowed only 3 hits in 6.0 scoreless innings to earn his 2nd consecutive victory on 6/5 at Minnesota…Was optioned to AAA Buffalo on 6/22 after going 0-2 with a 16.20 ERA in his previous 3 starts…After 2 starts at AAA, was placed on the DL with a sprained A/C joint in his right shoulder…Was activated on 8/9 and made 3 starts, but his season ended due to continued soreness in the joint…Had surgery on 9/7 in Los Angeles to remove unhealthy tissue and part of clavicle in the A/C joint…Surgery again was performed by Dr. Lewis Yokum…Was placed on the 60-day DL on 9/1 for the 6th time in three years due to right-shoulder complications.

2000: Made just 9 starts and had August surgery after again being hindered by right shoulder problems…Won his first 2 starts of the season, including his 2nd career complete-game shutout on 4/12 at Oakland…Took a no-hitter into the 7th inning on 4/26 at Seattle, but Stan Javier singled to lead off the inning and end the bid…Left his 5/11 start vs. Kansas City after 7.2 scoreless innings and 100 pitches due to right-shoulder tightness…Was placed on the 15-day Disabled List on 5/18 with a strained muscle in his right shoulder…Was activated for his 5/27 start at Chicago (AL), but lasted just 1.1 innings in what was then the shortest regular-season start of his Major League career…Made his final start of the season on 6/2 at St. Louis, but again went on the 15-day DL on 6/7 with inflammation in his pitching shoulder and fraying of the labrum…Ranked 7th in the American League with a .235 batting average against at the time of the injury…Opposing batters went 0-for-15 with runners in scoring position and 2 outs…Rehabbed the right shoulder region and made 3 minor league starts, but was removed from his rehab assignment with Akron on 8/6 with more discomfort in the shoulder…Had surgery performed on the shoulder on 8/17 by Dr. Lewis Yokum in Los Angeles, during which Yokum repaired the labrum as well as fraying in the rotator cuff…Spent 136 days on the DL in 2000.

1999: Had 7 of his 8 wins before the All-Star break as he suffered an assortment of injuries…A strain of the sub scapularis muscle behind his right shoulder forced a pair of 15-day Disabled List stints after the All-Star break…They were the first trips to the DL of his big league career…Received the first Opening Day starting assignment of his career on 4/6 in his hometown of Anaheim, allowing 5 runs in 6.1 innings with no decision…At 23, was the youngest Indians Opening Day starter since 22-year-old Dennis Eckersley on 4/10/76 at Detroit…Won his first 4 decisions of the season…Served a 5-game suspension from 5/10-5/15 after hitting Darren Lewis with a curve ball on 4/23 at Boston…Was fined an undisclosed amount by the American League for actions in a 5/22 brawl vs. Detroit…His win on 9/22 at Detroit was his first since 7/7…Appeared in 3 games as a reliever in the Division Series vs. Boston and was the losing pitcher in Game 3, a 9-3 Red Sox win…Entered that game when Dave Burba left in the 5th inning with a strained forearm.

1998: Posted a career-high 12 wins in first full big league season…Combined with Bartolo Colon to become the first Tribe pitchers 24 or younger to win 10 or more games in the same season since Sam McDowell and Luis Tiant turned the trick in 1964…Tied for 6th in the American League with 11 hit batters…Started slowly, going 1-3 with a 5.86 ERA in his first 8 starts, but went 11-7 with a 4.27 ERA for the remainder of the season…Won his first start on 4/1 at Seattle, but did not win again until 5/21 at Kansas City…Struck out a career-high 10 on 9/6 at Detroit…Blanked Detroit, 2-0, in his first Major League complete-game shutout on 6/1 at Tiger Stadium…Made one start in the Division Series vs. Boston, allowing 7H and 6ER in 4.1IP to suffer the loss in Game One…Lasted just 0.2 IP (5H, 5ER) in his second playoff start in Game One of the ALCS vs. New York…Rebounded with a solid effort in long relief in Game 5 (6.0IP, 2H, 1R, 1ER), equaling the 2nd longest relief outing in ALCS history.

1997: Began the season at AA Akron and advanced to AAA Buffalo before joining Cleveland in late June…Tied for 4th among American League rookies with 8 wins and finished 5th in AL Rookie of the Year voting by the BBWAA with 7 points…Indians went 12-4 in his 16 starts…Also ranked among AL rookies in starts (6th with 16) and innings pitched (9th, 90.1)…Made 8 starts at Akron before being promoted to Buffalo, where he went 4-1 with a 1.70 ERA in 7 starts…Averaged 10.1 strikeouts per 9 innings at the two minor league levels…Had his contract purchased by Cleveland on 6/24 and debuted that night vs. Minnesota, earning his first major league win despite allowing 5 R in 5.2IP in the Indians' 10-5 victory)…Left his second start early with a bruised and lacerated right finger, suffered during a bunt attempt on 7/1 at Houston…Cleveland went 4-1 in his 5 post-season starts and as limited opposing batters to a .238 mark…Became the 6th rookie pitcher to win 3 or more games in the post-season and the first since Tim Belcher in 1988…Became the youngest pitcher to start a Division Series game (21 years, 9 months, 4 days) when he won Game 2 vs. New York (6.0IP, 3H, 3ER, 4BB, 5K)…Came back to eliminate the defending champs by winning Game 5 of the Division Series (5.1IP, 8H, 2ER, 3BB, 5K)…Started and won Game 4 of the World Series vs. Florida, allowing 3ER in 6.0 IP…Started Game 7 at Florida and did not receive a decision in the Marlins' 3-2 win (6.1IP, 2H, 1ER, 5BB, 7K)…Became the second youngest pitcher ever to start a deciding game of a World Series and the 7th rookie to start a World Series Game 7…Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen was the youngest in 1985 vs. the Cardinals (21 years, 6 mos., 16 days) and St. Louis' Joe Magrane in 1987 at Minnesota was the last rookie to start a 7th Game before Wright.

1996: Struck out 9.7 batters per 9.0 innings en route for Class A Kinston…Missed two months of the season after suffering a broken jaw when hit by a Ron Wright batting practice swing at the California-Carolina League All-Star Game in Rancho Cucamonga on 6/18…Was 4-4 with a 2.53 ERA at the All-Star break…Finished the season by going 3-0 with a 2.43 ERA in his last 6 starts…Struck out a season-high 12 in 5.0 IP on 4/16 vs. Durham…Allowed only one homer in 19 starts (101.0 IP).

1995: Advanced to Cleveland's Class A Columbus affiliate and ranked 6th among Indians minor league pitchers with a 3.00 ERA…Ranked 7th among all Class A pitchers by limiting opposing batters to a .205 average.

1994: Made four starts for Cleveland's Rookie-level Burlington affiliate in his pro debut…Struck out 16 in 13.1 innings.

2006 YEAR IN REVIEW

2007pg248-249

YEAR IN REVIEW—THE ORIOLES IN 2006

The Orioles went 70-92 in 2006, finishing in fourth place in the American League East Division, 27.0 games out of first. It was the Birds' 9th straight losing season, the longest stretch in club history. They are one of three teams with a record below .500 each of the last 9 years, along with Tampa Bay (9) and Pittsburgh (14).

The Orioles have finished in 4th place in 8 of the last 9 seasons. This marked the 9th time in club history they have lost 90 games in season and the 4th time in the last 6 years.

GETTING STARTED: Last year marked the 6th straight season the Orioles won the season opener and 9th time in the last 11 years…The current 6-game winning streak on Opening Day is the longest in the majors and is the 2nd longest such streak in club history…They also won the first two games of the season, marking their first 2-0 start since 1997…The Birds went 13-13 in April, the 4th straight year they finished .500 or above in the first month.

VS. THE COMPETITION: The Orioles went 34-28 against teams with losing records and 36-64 vs. opponents with winning records…They won a season-high 4 straight games, August 16-19…They were the last team in the majors to win 4 in a row and one of 5 teams to fail to win 5 consecutive games on the year.

EIGHT WAS ENOUGH: The O's season-high 4-game winning streak came immediately after they dropped 5 straight games, August 9-15…That matched their longest losing streak of the season, when they also dropped 5 straight, May 3-7…Last year marked the first time since 1997 the Orioles did not suffer a losing streak of at least 8 games in a season.

ROAD WORRIERS: The Orioles went 30-51 on the road in 2006, the 3rd worst road record in the American League…It also tied for the 3rd worst record away from home in club history…They won only 6 of their 26 road series last year, going 6-19-1.

FEAST OR FAMINE: Over the final three months of the season, the Orioles allowed 9 or more runs in a game 20 times, including a total of 27 runs in consecutive games, July 21-22…They also surrendered 3 runs or less in 25 games over that same period of time, including 6 shutouts.

CLOSE CALLS: The Orioles went 22-20 in one-run games in 2006, surpassing their total from the previous season, when they had the fewest one-run wins and the worst record (14-25) in one-run games in the American League…The Orioles had only 10 one-run victories after June 24, however, and lost 14 of their final 24 one-run games.

FEELING LEFT OUT: The Orioles were 16-33 in games started by a left-handed pitcher last season and 54-59 against right-handed starters…The Birds ranked 4th in the AL with a .284 batting average versus right-handers but were last in the league with a .258 batting average against lefties.

PITCHING PROBLEMS: The Orioles had a 5.35 ERA last year, which was 2nd highest in the major leagues…It was also the 2nd highest ERA in club history, trailing only the record 5.37 ERA in 2000…The Birds struck out 1,016 batters, however, the 3rd straight season and 10th time in club history they eclipsed the 1,000-strikeout mark.

ROUGH STARTS: O's starters were 13th in the American League with a 5.40 ERA…They pitched more than 6.0 innings 54 times on the year and had 62 "Quality Starts" (6.0 IP or more, 3 ER or less), with 38 coming from Kris Benson and Erik Bedard…Orioles starters pitched 1419.0 innings, the fewest in the AL.

BULLPEN BULLETINS: The Orioles bullpen was 19-25 with a 5.25 ERA and 35 saves in 56 opportunities…They were 13th in the American League in bullpen ERA…After reaching a season-high 6.47 ERA on May 1, the bullpen pitched to a 5.02 ERA the remainder of the season…In the second half, however, they posted a 5.94 ERA…The Orioles used 19 different pitchers out of the bullpen on the year.

STAY IN CONTROL: In the Orioles' 70 wins last season, they allowed a total of 219 walks and posted a 3.04 ERA (634.0IP, 214ER)…In their 92 losses, the Birds walked 394 batters and pitched to a 7.21 ERA (785.0IP, 629ER).

WALKS AWAY: The Orioles led the major leagues with 377 walks allowed in their first 95 games through July 17…From that point on, they walked a total of 236 batters over their final 67 games, which was the 10th fewest in the majors over that time.

GIVING IT UP: The Orioles allowed a major-league high 216 home runs in 2006…It was the 2nd highest single-season total in club history…They allowed 6 homers vs. Texas on July 13 and surrendered 4 homers in a game 6 times, including consecutive games April 13-14.

NOT SO GRAND: The Orioles surrendered a major league-leading 12 grand slams last season, which is a franchise record…Eleven of the 12 grand slams came on the road, including consecutive games July 6 & 7…O's batters hit one grand slam on the year and were 12th in the American League with a .262 average (37-141) with the bases loaded.

FOUR SCORE AND…: The Orioles allowed 4 or more runs in an inning 56 times on the year, most in the major leagues…They also surrendered 7 or more runs in an inning on 6 occasions, including a season-high 10 runs on July 22 at Tampa Bay.

LUMBER NUMBERS: The Orioles reached double figures in hits 75 times last year, including a season-high 22 hits on July 22 at Tampa Bay…They had 5 hits or fewer in 15 games and were held hitless in the season finale at Boston before the game was cancelled after 5.0 innings…The Birds were 7th in the American League in batting (.277) and 10th in runs scored (768)…They scored 4 or more runs in an inning 41 times…They scored a season-high 18 runs on 21 hits on April 19 vs. Cleveland, as all 9 starters collected at least 2 hits…The O's scored 9 runs in the 7th inning on July 22 at Tampa Bay and 9 runs in the 9th inning on May 23 at Seattle, with all 9 players in the lineup crossing the plate in the inning against the Mariners.

POWER OUTAGE: The Orioles hit 57 home runs in their first 41 games of the season, which tied for 2nd most in the major leagues through May 17…They hit only 107 homers over their final 121 games of the year, which was 3rd lowest in the majors over that time…Miguel Tejada led the Birds with 24 home runs, the fewest to lead the team since two players paced the club with 15 homers each in 2001.

SMALL BALL: Despite being 7th in the American League in batting average (.277) and 11th in home runs (164), the Orioles ranked among the league leaders in several other offensive categories…They led the AL in hit batsmen (73) and bunt hits (30) and were 4th in sac bunts (40) and stolen bases (121).

CATCH US IF YOU CAN: The Orioles were 4th in the American League with 121 stolen bases last season, the 6th highest total in club history…They were successful on 79.1% (121-153) of their stolen base attempts, the 2nd best percentage in the league…The O's were successful on their first 20 stolen base attempts of the season, the major league record for most stolen base attempts to begin a year without being caught, according to the Elias Sports Bureau…Corey Patterson (45) and Brian Roberts (36) each established career highs and ranked in the top 6 in the league in steals.

VERY EFFICIENT: In addition to beginning the year with 20 consecutive stolen base attempts, the Orioles also stole 21 straight bases without being caught, May 23-June 5…According to Elias, the last time a team had two streaks of 20 or more successful stolen base attempts in a season was St. Louis in 1985 (27 and 33)…The last time an American League team accomplished the feat was Kansas City in 1980 (20 and 21).

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: Miguel Tejada was named the 2006 winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award, in a vote by media who regularly cover the team…Tejada set an Orioles record with 214 hits and his .330 batting average was 2nd highest in club history…He appeared in every game of the season and extended his consecutive games streak to 1,080, the 7th longest streak of all time…This year marked the 2nd time in 3 seasons Tejada earned Most Valuable Oriole honors and he is the 8th player in club history to win the award more than once…Tejada was also the Orioles' lone representative to the All-Star Game.

AGAINST THE SENIOR CIRCUIT: The Orioles went 9-9 against the National League last season, facing Washington (3-3), New York (2-1), Florida (1-2), Philadelphia (2-1) and Atlanta (1-2)…The Birds have posted a winning record in only 2 of the 10 seasons of interleague play, which began in 1997…They are 73-102 all-time in interleague play, the 2nd worst record in the majors…They are 42-47 at home and 31-55 on the road.

THE SPRING CLASSIC: The Orioles had a major league-high 11 players participate in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in March, including 8 players on the Opening Day roster…The 5 position players batted a combined .289 with 2 home runs and 9 RBI…Aside from minor leaguer John Stephens' one start for Australia, the 5 pitchers on the Birds' 40-man roster that participated in the WBC combined to go 2-2 with a 2.00 ERA in 7 games.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and 8 others between '56 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:59 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:59 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect...Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-2, Milwaukee-1, Oakland-1, and Texas-1.

Legend: 1-includes Los Angeles ('61-'65, '05-), California ('66-'95) and Anaheim ('97-'04)

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pregame ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Carlos Delgado, John Smoltz, Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

LOSING GROUND

The Orioles have lost the season series to the New York Yankees each of the last 9 years. That is the longest stretch of consecutive losing seasons to any opponent in franchise history. The Birds have also dropped the season series against Oakland the last 8 years, the 2nd longest streak in club history. They lost the season series to Boston 7 years in a row (1984-1990) as well as their current streak against the Chicago White Sox (2000-2006). The club record for most consecutive winning seasons against an opponent is 9, coming against the Yankees from 1964 to 1972.

ORIOLES 2006 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

OTTAWA (AAA)

The Lynx finished the year with a 74-69 record, tied for 3rd place in the Northern Division of the International League, 10.5 games behind Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. It was their first winning season since 2003. Luis Terrero led the Lynx with a .318 batting average and was 2nd on the team with 16 home runs and 18 stolen bases. Ed Rogers spent most of the season at Ottawa and also appeared in 17 major league games over three stints with the Orioles. He batted .298 with the Lynx while splitting his time between second base, shortstop and outfield. Fernando Tatis batted .325 over a 66-game stretch from the end of April to the All-Star break before joining the Orioles on July 21. Keith Reed was 2nd in the IL with 35 doubles. Brian Bowles was 8th in the International League with a 3.23 ERA. He and Brian Burres led the team with 10 victories. Julio Manon tied for the league lead with 30 saves despite appearing in 22 games for the Orioles. Eddy Rodriguez did not allow a run in 37 of his 42 appearances with the Lynx and surrendered more than one run only once. Winston Abreu earned 9 wins out of the bullpen while posting a 2.48 ERA in 46 relief appearances. Hayden Penn spent the second half of the season at Ottawa and went 7-4 with a 2.26 ERA in 14 starts. He went 4-1 with a 1.98 ERA in August and earned Organizational Pitcher of the Month honors.

BOWIE (AA)

The Baysox finished the season with a 67-74 record and in 4th place of the Southern Division of the Eastern League, 19.5 games behind Akron. Cory Keylor was named the 2006 Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year. He led the Baysox with 131 hits and 68 RBI and finished 5th in the Eastern League with a .294 batting average. Lee Daigle led the team with 15 home runs. Noah Hall led the Baysox with 18 stolen bases and was named to the Eastern League All-Star team. Jeff Fiorentino hit .340 over the final two months of the year, including a .376 average with 22 RBI in 30 games in August. Eric DuBose split his season between Bowie and Ottawa after spending the first week of the year with the Orioles. He went 5-1 with a 1.70 ERA in his first 8 starts after returning to Bowie in June. Jim Johnson won his last 4 starts of the year to finish tied for 3rd in the EL with 13 victories. He was named to the Eastern League All-Star team and made a spot start for the Orioles in July. Despite being tied for 4th in the Eastern League with 12 losses, Brian Finch was 9th in the league with a 3.65 ERA. Marino Salas posted a 2.92 ERA in 44 relief appearances and led the club with 19 saves.

FREDERICK (A)

The Keys went 61-77 on the season. After finishing 26-43 and in last place in the first half, they went 35-34 in the second half to earn a berth in the Carolina League playoffs. They defeated the Blue Rocks in a 3-game series before being swept by Kinston in the Carolina League Championship. Frederick hit a league-leading 112 home runs, including 37 in August. The Keys' pitching staff allowed a league-high 125 home runs, however. Nolan Reimold finished 3rd in the Carolina League with 19 home runs and 73 runs scored and was 5th in the league with a .379 on-base percentage and 75 RBI. He was named to the Carolina League All-Star team and also participated in the MLB Futures Game. Jason Fransz led the league with 24 home runs and was 2nd with 84 RBI. Paco Figueroa finished 5th in the league with a .284 batting average and was selected to the Carolina League All-Star team. After spending the first month of the year at Bowie, Pete Maestrales was transferred to Frederick in early May and finished was 2nd in the CL with a .401 on-base percentage and 4th with a .285 batting average. Radhames Liz spent the first half of the season at Frederick and held opponents to a .196 average while striking out 95 batters in 83.0 innings. He was named to the CL All-Star team and appeared in the MLB Futures Game. Garrett Olson also began the season with the Keys before joining Bowie in June. After allowing 15 earned runs in 23.0 innings over his first 4 starts with the Baysox, Olson pitched to a 2.49 ERA over his final 10 starts. Manny Basilio split the season between Frederick and Delmarva and combined to go 9-5 with a 2.25 ERA (112.0IP, 28ER) in 41 games. He struck out 91 batters and walked 30. After missing the entire 2005 season, Rommie Lewis returned to the Keys and led the team with a 2.09 ERA.

DELMARVA (A)

The Shorebirds finished the season with a 64-73 record. They went 37-31 in the first half before posting a 27-42 record in the second half. Shorebirds hitters were last in the league with a .236 batting average. Ryan Finan led the team in home runs (17), hits (112), doubles (31), walks (85), total bases (198), runs (80) and RBI (78). Mark Fleisher hit .330 with 8 home runs and 30 RBI in August to earn Organizational Player of the Month honors. Lorenzo Scott led all Oriole farmhands with 29 stolen bases in 2006. He was 2nd on the team with 66 runs scored but also led the team with 140 strikeouts. Brandon Erbe did not allow a run in 13 of his 27 starts on the season. He struck out 10.4 batters per 9.0 innings and held opponents to a .217 average. Jim Hoey began the season at Delmarva and led the South Atlantic League with 18 saves when he was transferred to Frederick in June. He went 2-1 with a 2.28 ERA between three minor league teams before earning a late-season promotion to the Orioles. Hoey, who ranked 4th among all minor leaguers with 33 saves, was named the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year. Chorye Spoone went 5-3 with a 2.20 ERA in the first 3 months of the year and was selected to the South Atlantic League All-Star team. He went 2-6 with a 4.95 ERA over the final 2 months, however. Blake Owen led Shorebirds relievers with 6 victories and was 2nd to Hoey with 10 saves.

ABERDEEN (A)

The IronBirds went 41-34, the best record in the 5-year history of the team. They finished in 3rd place in the McNamara Division of the New York-Penn League, 4.5 games behind Staten Island. Aberdeen missed a spot in the playoffs by losing to Lowell in the final game of the season. The IronBirds staff led the league with 617 strikeouts and was 4th with a 3.08 ERA. Chris Vinyard led the New York-Penn League with 26 doubles and 36 extra-base hits. He finished tied for league lead with 8 home runs and was 2nd with 47 RBI. Miguel Abreu was 2nd on the team with 12 doubles, 26 RBI and 12 stolen bases and was named to the NYPL All-Star team. The IronBirds batted .231 as a team while only 4 players with more than 50 at-bats hit over .250. Luis Lebron led the league with 20 saves and 32 appearances. He pitched to a 1.17 ERA and held opponents to a .163 average. Jeffery Moore ranked 8th in the league with a 2.29 ERA and allowed 2 runs or less in 11 of his 13 starts. The IronBirds had 7 pitchers that made at least 10 relief appearances and posted an ERA below 3.00. Brett Bordes did not allow a run in 23 of his 28 appearances on the season, including each of his last 17 games of the year. Pedro Beato made 4 relief appearances with the IronBirds before joining the rotation and going 3-2 with a 2.79 ERA in 10 starts.

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2007 First Year Player Draft will be held June 5-6. The Orioles will have the 5th pick in the first round of the draft. The First Year Player Draft began in 1965. The first player selected by the Orioles who played for the parent club was their 8th round pick in that draft, RHP Bill Dillman, out of Wake Forest University. The most dazzling 1-2 picks in O's history came out of the '67 June draft: No. 1 Bobby Grich and No. 2 Don Baylor. The Orioles selected a record 4 players in the first round of the 1969 draft as compensation for free agents lost the previous year.

ABERDEEN WINS BOB FRIETAS AWARD

The Aberdeen IronBirds were named winner of the Baseball America 2006 Bob Freitas Award for the Short Season level. The award recognizes one club on each minor league level that is "on a path of long-term excellence and are true parts of their communities." The IronBirds, who won the award in their first season of eligibility, are one of two minor league teams who have sold out every home game through their first five years of existence. During the 2006 season, Aberdeen topped the one-million mark in franchise attendance and also hosted the New York-Penn League All-Star Game.

RIPKEN SR. AND RUSSO AWARDS PRESENTED

Minor League Camp Coordinator Len Johnston was named winner of the 2006 Cal Ripken Sr. Player Development Award, presented to a minor league staff member who exemplifies the qualities of the late Oriole who is regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way." Johnston began his career with the Orioles in 1976 as manager for Class A Miami before serving as a scout, field coordinator, cross-checker and scouting supervisor. For the past 18 years he has been camp coordinator for the Orioles' minor league spring training facility in Sarasota, FL, as well a coach at Rookie-level Bluefield.

Amateur scout Nick Presto was presented the 2006 Jim Russo Scout of the Year Award, named for the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. Presto spent 7 seasons as an amateur area scout, covering the state of Florida, before being promoted to East Coast Supervisor in the offseason. Among the players he has signed are Orioles outfielder Jeff Fiorentino and prospects Paco Figueroa and Pedro Beato.

HAMBLET WINS ELROD HENDRICKS AWARD

Delmarva outfielder Reid Hamblet was named winner of the 2006 Elrod Hendricks Minor League Community Service Award, named for the Orioles' longtime player and coach. Hamblet volunteered for numerous community appearances in the Salisbury area last season. He spoke at Dorchester and Wicomico county libraries as part of the Shorebirds' "Summer Reading Program" and took part in career days, charity golf outings and youth baseball clinics on Maryland's Eastern Shore. The Orioles' 5th round pick in the 2005 First Year Player Draft, Hamblet went 5-12 with one save in 31 games for Delmarva last season.

TENS ARE WILD

The Orioles became only the second team to score 10 or more runs in an inning in consecutive games in 2000. They had a 10-run 4th inning on September 28 vs. Toronto and followed it up the next night, September 29, with a 10-run 2nd inning vs. the New York Yankees. The Houston Astros had an 11-run inning and a 10-run inning in a doubleheader vs. the New York Mets on July 30, 1969.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 211-171, in their 53-year history (including post-season)...They have a 120-72 advantage in Baltimore, including a 39-31 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. ORIOLES AMONG MAJORS LEADERS SINCE 1980: The Orioles have belted 124 grand slams starting in 1980, 4th in the majors over the last 27 years behind Boston (135), Seattle (133) and the New York Yankees (130). THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record 3 grand slams on Aug. 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit 4th inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the 5th time in history one club has hit 2 grand slams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam. Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987. TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit 2 grand slams in the same game and three times it has been done by an Oriole. Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on Aug. 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the 3rd and 8th innings. Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among 4 players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the 1st and 2nd innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the 5th and 6th innings at Washington on June 26, 1970. GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit 5 bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with 6 grand slams in '87 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched that record in 2006. POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only 2 major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history. OPPONENTS: The 2006 Orioles allowed a major-league leading and club record 12 grand slams...The previous club record was 9 allowed in 2000...The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The '78 O's allowed slams in 3 straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit...Edgar Martinez is the only player with 3 grand slams against the O's...12 players have hit 2, including 5 active players (Ken Griffey Jr., Manny Ramirez, Alex Rodriguez, Gary Sheffield and Jim Thome)...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up 2 grand slams against the Orioles and the 3rd to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1956). GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up 6 bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up 9 overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss ('969-90) and Ned Garver ('948-61) for 2nd highest career grand slams allowed in major league history behind Mike Jackson, who allowed 10...Dave McNally, Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, and Jesse Orosco are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing 4 apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed 4 grand slams, including one in post-season play)...Among current Orioles, Daniel Cabrera has given up 3 grand slams...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

On July 21, 2004, David Newhan hit an inside-the-park home run off Boston's Pedro Martinez at Fenway Park. It was the first by an Oriole since Phil Bradley accomplished the feat on June 8, 1990 at Memorial Stadium against the New York Yankees.

When Bradley circled the bases, it was the Orioles' first inside-the-park home run since Al Bumbry did it against the Chicago White Sox on August 21, 1976 at Comiskey Park.

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat on May 6 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen. Hentgen was victimized again on September 13 at Toronto, giving up an inside-the-park homer to Blue Jays catcher Greg Myers.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 22 seasons, Oriole pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons in the past 39 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (14), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Red Sox (11), and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24 -first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24 -2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67), was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Yankees Hall of Famer Whitey Ford, who retired in 1967, has beaten the Orioles more than any other pitcher. He was 30-16 against the Birds and is one of 14 pitchers to have posted 20 or more wins lifetime against the O's. The others: Jim "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Roger Clemens (22-12), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Frank Tanana (21-17), Jim Kaat (21-21), Andy Pettitte (20-5), Earl Wilson (20-9), Bert Blyleven (20-14), Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (both 20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23). Among active hurlers, Clemens has the most wins against the Orioles (22-12), followed by Pettitte (20-5), Jamie Moyer (18-4), David Wells (17-12), Roy Halladay (14-4), Tim Wakefield (13-13), Kelvim Escobar (12-4), Randy Johnson (10-7) and Kenny Rogers (10-9).

LOSERS: "Catfish" Hunter, the 2nd biggest lifetime winner vs. Baltimore, also is the biggest lifetime loser (24 losses)...At one time, Hunter had a 23-16 mark vs. the O's but lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79 to finish 26-24...There have been 4 other 20-game losers vs. the Orioles: Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (both 10-22), Jim Kaat (21-21) and Fritz Peterson (14-21)...Three pitchers lost 19 games to the O's: Mickey Lolich (25-19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...Nolan Ryan finished 10-17 vs. Baltimore...Among active pitchers, Tim Wakefield (13-13) has the most losses to the Orioles, followed by Roger Clemens (22-12), David Wells (17-12) and Aaron Sele (9-11).

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and hit into 16 in 53 seasons.

The Orioles pulled off their first triple play in eight seasons on September 1, 2000 at Cleveland...With Indians runners on first and second and none out in the 2nd inning, O's SS Melvin Mora allowed a short fly to left by Sandy Alomar to drop in front of him. The Cleveland runners – Travis Fryman at first and Wil Cordero at second – apparently thought the infield fly rule had been called: it wasn't. Mora quickly picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who stepped on second base to force Cordero and tagged Fryman for the second out. Pitcher Sidney Ponson then took the ball from Hairston and, after a slight delay, flipped the ball to first baseman Jeff Conine for the third out on Alomar, who had began to retreat to the dugout when the ball was hit into the air. After some discussion among the umpires and the ejection of Indians manager Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles' previous triple play, and their last one at home, came August 25, 1992 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against California...With Tim Salmon on 3rd and Chad Curtis on 1st, Gary Gaetti lined out to O's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

On the other hand, the O's have hit into 2 triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent triple play involving the Orioles came April 3, '96, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at 3rd and Rafael Palmeiro at 1st, Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Bip Roberts for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from 3rd. Hamelin's throw to CA Sal Fasano was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

The Orioles have won a total of 58 Gold Gloves, more than any American League team since the awards were created.

Totals for each team: Cardinals 78; ORIOLES 58; Yankees 54, Reds 48, Pirates 43; Braves 43; Red Sox 37; Tigers 38; Giants 37; Cubs, Phillies, Rangers/Senators & Twins 36; Dodgers & White Sox 33; Mariners 30; Indians 29; Angels 28; Blue Jays 23; Expos/Nationals 21; A's 20; Astros 19; Royals 17; Padres 16; Mets 15; Brewers, Marlins & Rockies 9; Diamondbacks 3.

Multiple Winners: A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson, whose 16 awards are matched only by pitchers Jim Kaat and Greg Maddux for the most won by an individual...Other Oriole multiple winners: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich & Mike Mussina (4 each); Davey Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro & Cal Ripken (2 each)...Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio 9. Mussina has won 6 and Palmeiro 3.

ALL-STAR NOTES

Shortstop Miguel Tejada was named to his 3rd straight All-Star team in 2006, becoming the 12th player in club history to make the team in at least 3 straight seasons…He joined Cal Ripken (1983-2001), Brooks Robinson (1960-74), Eddie Murray (1981-86), Boog Powell (1968-71), Frank Robinson (1969-72), Gus Triandos (1957-59), Jim Gentile (1960-62), Davey Johnson (1968-70), Jim Palmer (1970-72), Mike Mussina (1992-94) and Roberto Alomar (1996-98).

In 2005, Tejada became the fifth different Oriole to earn All-Star MVP honors with a home run, 2 RBI, and a hand in 2 double plays to lead the American League to a 7-5 win over the National League in Detroit. Tejada joined Brooks Robinson ('66), Frank Robinson ('71), Cal Ripken ('91 & '01) and Roberto Alomar ('98) in winning the MVP, which was created in 1962. With six overall All-Star MVP Awards, the Orioles have won more than any other team (the Giants and Dodgers have won five each). ddi-tionally, the Birds' Billy O'Dell pitched 3.0 scoreless innings in the 1958 All-Star Game at Memorial Stadium and was named the game's "unofficial" MVP.

In 2005, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada beame the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken each started in 1998. This was the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

FINAL CAL: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the 3rd inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez "pushed" him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: With the 2005 selections of 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada, 12 different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts and Miguel Tejada (1 each).

ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had five different players who have earned All-Star MVP honors...In 2001, Cal Ripken became only the fourth player and the first American Leaguer to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards when he took the honors in Seattle…He joined Willie Mays, Steve Garvey and Gary Carter as the only 2-time winners…Cal also won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL...Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983...Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver's Coors Field with a 3-for-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win...Alomar, Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for 6 hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1978... Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored...Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

HOME RUN DERBY: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991...Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after deciing to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the 7th overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...Cal Ripken also hit two home runs in All-Star games, in 1991 (7/9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (7/10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, none on)...The others were by Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on); and Roberto Alomar (7/7/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the only time they've made back-to-back post season appearances since 1973-74...For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series...In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in two Division Series, winning both...They are 6-2 overall (.750)...The O's are 3-1 at home and 3-1 on the road.

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 9 LCS, going 5-4...They are 21-16 (.568)...The O's are 10-9 at home and 11-6 on the road...Only the New York Yankees (39 wins), Atlanta Braves (27 wins), Oakland A's (23 wins), and St. Louis Cardinals (22 wins) have won more games in League Championship Series play...The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in championship games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POST SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the post season in 10 different seasons and are 46-32 (.590)...They are 23-17 at home and 23-15 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the 2nd best postseason record of any team...They also have a 2.69 ERA in postseason play, the 2nd lowest of any team.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post-season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 10 post season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96 & '97, the Orioles drew 488,079 fans (average 48,808)...The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79.

DID YOU KNOW...????

•Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now pitching coach for Class AA Bowie, is one of only 15 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (12th pick overall), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980.

•In addition to McGregor, first-round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their career include Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, Doc Gooden, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Rick Sutcliffe, Bob Welch and Barry Zito.

•Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the 5th inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

•Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, the only reliever to fan more than 9 batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix holds the Orioles regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever in a game, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.

•The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured 4 players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384), Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).

•Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit 3 triples in one game. He did it Sept. 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.

•Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that 3 straight seasons since 1951.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Two sets of brothers and five father-son combinations have played for the Orioles. The brother combos are the Ripkens, Cal (1981-2001) and Bill (1987-92 & 1996); and catcher Dick Brown ('53-'55) and his brother Larry ('73), an infielder. The father-son duos are third baseman Bob Kennedy ('54-'55) and his son, catcher Terry ('87-'88); outfielders Don Buford ('68-'72) and his son Damon ('93-'95); pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. ('58) and John Jr. ('93); outfielders Dave May ('67-'70) and his son, Derrick (1999); and outfielders Tim Raines Sr. and his son Tim Jr. (2001).

Raines Sr. and Jr. were only the second father-son teammates in major league history. Ken Griffey Sr. and Jr. played together for Seattle in 1990-1991.

THE HISTORY OF THE ORIOLES

What do Black Sox, Elite Giants, Marylands, Monumentals, Orioles and Terrapins all have in common? They're all nicknames for professional baseball teams that have played in the city of Baltimore, dating back to the game's 19th century roots.

Baltimore first experienced professional baseball in 1872, when the Lord Baltimores played their inaugural games in the old National Association. Ten years later, another incarnation of the Lord Baltimores made its debut in the American Association; one year after that, the franchise adopted the name "Orioles," honoring Maryland's state bird. It was the first time the nickname would become affiliated with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

In 1884, the Orioles encountered some intra-city competition when the Baltimore Monumentals became one of the charter franchises in the new Union Association. By mid-season, the Monumentals had transferred to Lancaster; and by the end of one year, the new league was done.

Although both the American and National Associations have come to be regarded as major league by baseball historians, Baltimore stepped up a notch further when it joined the National League in 1892. Spearheaded by the skilled batting of Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley and Willie Keeler, and the scrappy play of Hughie Jennings and John McGraw, the Orioles of the 1890s played an aggressive, fire-breathing kind of baseball never seen before. Under the direction of the innovative Ned Hanlon, the Orioles won three consecutive National League pennants from 1894 to 1896.

Despite their success, Baltimore's National League franchise lasted for only eight seasons, folding after the 1899 campaign. Within two years, Baltimore baseball found a new home -in the upstart American League. Once again adopting the nickname Orioles, the franchise played for two seasons before relocating to New York. First playing as the Highlanders, the former Baltimore club eventually became the New York Yankees.

The transfer of the franchise to New York left Baltimore without a major league team until 1914. The Baltimore Terrapins, named for the varieties of edible turtles common to the state of Maryland, entered the newly formed Federal League that season. Alas, the league, and its franchises, lasted just the one year. Baltimore would not enjoy major league baseball for another four decades. Yet, professional baseball did not completely abandon Baltimore. Minor league entries, still playing under the popular name of Orioles, thrived in the Eastern League (1903-11) and the International League (1912-53). During the early years of Baltimore's existence in the International League, a young left-handed pitcher named Babe Ruth starred for the team. Ruth split the 1914 season between Baltimore and Providence, winning a combined 22 games and losing only nine.

From the 1920s through the 1940s, area baseball fans also enjoyed the exploits of the city's two Negro League teams, the Black Sox and Elite Giants. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

In September of 1953, Bill Veeck's financial problems helped Baltimore land another major league team. Veeck sold his American League franchise, the St. Louis Browns, to a Baltimore-based syndicate headed by Mayor Tommy D'Alesandro and attorney Clarence Miles. Playing in the renovated Memorial Stadium, the new Orioles made their return to the American League in 1954.

In the late 1950s, the Orioles' farm system began to produce a bevy of talent, led by future Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson. With a young nucleus in place, the Orioles sought veteran assistance to complete their championship puzzle. After the 1965 season, the Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds. Led by Robinson's Triple Crown season, the slugging of young first baseman Boog Powell, and the terrific bullpen combination of Moe Drabowsky, Eddie Fisher and Stu Miller, the 1966 Orioles won the first World Series in the franchise's history.

The Orioles returned to American League dominance three years later, with Hall of Fame manager Earl Weaver now leading the charge. Pitching, three-run homers, and outstanding defensive play stamped Weaver's Orioles as winners. From 1969 to 1971, the O's captured three American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series, where Brooks Robinson compiled a highlight reel's worth of defensive brilliance. After some lean years in the middle of the decade, the Orioles returned to glory in 1979, when they extended the Pittsburgh Pirates to seven games before losing the World Series. Four years later, with a new generation of stars headed up by Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken, Jr., the Orioles won their third world championship four games to one against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The endurance and excellence of Ripken served as a hallmark for much of the 1980s and 90s, culminating in the breaking of a baseball legend's record. On the night of September 6, 1995, Ripken played in his 2,131st consecutive game, eclipsing the mark of Hall of Famer Lou Gehrig. The 1990s also saw the Orioles move into a new era, as they departed Memorial Stadium for a ballpark considered a state-of-the-art model for all new stadium projects - Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In January, Cal Ripken Jr. became the 12th modern Oriole to be elected to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and the 6th whose official plaque shows him wearing an Orioles hat. He joined the last Orioles' inductee, Eddie Murray, elected in 2003, along with Jim Palmer, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson and Earl Weaver. All except Weaver – selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee – were elected in their first year of eligibility. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for biographies and statistics.)

Ripken received 98.53% of the vote total (537 of 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. His total of 98.53 percent was the third highest in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79%, 1999). Also elected along with Ripken was former San Diego Padres outfielder Tony Gwynn, with 97.6 percent of the votes. They are the 42nd and 43rd players elected in their first year of eligibility and the 46th and 47th electees to spend their entire career with one team.

Ripken and Gwynn will be formally inducted into the Hall of Fame in ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY, on Sunday, July 29, starting at 1:30 p.m.

The 12 modern Orioles in the Hall of Fame include nine players, a manager and an executive:

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)	George Kell ('83, VCS+)	Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)	Lee MacPhail ('98, VCS+)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)	Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)	Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)	Eddie Murray ('03, 85%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)	Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)	Earl Weaver ('96, VCS+)	Cal Ripken Jr. ('07, 98%)

+Veterans' Committee Selection

In addition to Ripken, Robinsons, Palmer, Murray and Jackson also were elected in their first year of eligibility.

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Along with the 12 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)	William Candy Cummings (rhp)	Hughie Jennings (ss)	Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)	Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp)	Wee Willie Keeler (of)	John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Roger Bresnahan (c)	Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr)	Joe Kelley (of-if)	Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)	Rogers Hornsby (2b)	Rube Marquard (lhp)	George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 through 1971.

Media Members, Too: The Hall of Fame has also honored two members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993, beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

Native Marylanders in the Hall: Ripken, born in Havre de Grace and raised in Aberdeen, MD, is one of eight native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame and one of four who once played for the Orioles...The other former Orioles – all of whom played for the International League O's – were Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore)...The four native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles who are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).

NOTABLE ORIOLES ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

Among the Oriole items on display in the Hall of Fame's Museum are: the glove from Mike Bordick's major league-record consecutive errorless games streak in 2002; the jersey worn by Cal Ripken Jr. in his final major league game, Oct. 6, 2001; a jersey worn by Scott Erickson in Cuba, the first major leaguer to pitch on Cuban soil in 40 years on March 28, 1999; a base used by Roberto Alomar in the 1998 All-Star Game, when he was named MVP; the Lineup card from Ripken's 2,130th consecutive game (Sept. 5, 1995) to tie Lou Gehrig's record; the bat used by Eddie Murray to hit 2 home runs in Game 5 of the 1983 World Series; a Frank Robinson jersey; a glove used by Brooks Robinson in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP; the unique short-billed batting helmet worn by Brooks; and balls from no-hitters pitched by Hoyt Wilhelm (Sept. 2, 1958) and Jim Palmer (Aug. 13, 1969).

IT'S THE ORIOLES' YEAR IN COOPERSTOWN

Not only will be Cal Ripken Jr. be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame this summer, but the Orioles and one of their farm clubs, the Aberdeen IronBirds, will be featured in games played as part of the summer-long festivities this year.

The Orioles will play the Toronto Blue Jays in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field on Monday, May 14. It will be the 6th scheduled appearance for the Orioles at Cooperstown and their first since 1998, when they beat the Blue Jays, 7-1 at Doubleday Field. The Orioles are 2-2 in Hall of Fame Games. The previous results:

1961	Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2	1990	Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967	Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998	Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983	St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1

As part of Hall of Fame Weekend, the Aberdeen IronBirds, the Orioles' short-season Class A affiliate in the New York-Penn League, will play at Doubleday Field on Saturday, July 28 against the Oneonta Tigers. The game begins at 2 p.m. and is free and open to the public. The IronBirds are owned by Cal Ripken Jr.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last year, former third baseman Doug DeCinces and ex-catcher Chris Hoiles were elected, bringing membership in the Orioles Hall of Fame to 43 former players, coaches and managers.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2006, the Herb Armstrong Award was presented to a pair of beloved former trainers, the late Eddie Weidner and the late Ralph Salvon. Weidner began his career as a batboy with the International League Orioles before being named trainer in 1922. He oversaw the minor league Orioles for 32 years and was the first trainer for the major league Orioles starting in 1954. He held that position until retiring in 1967, when his assistant, Salvon, took over and ran the training room for the next 21 years. They were innovative and integral parts of the Orioles staff.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

For the 2nd time in three years, Miguel Tejada was named the winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award in 2006. Tejada, who also won the award in 2004, captured the honor after leading the team with a .330 batting average, 24 home runs, 100 RBI and a club-record 214 hits. He is one of only eight players to win the award more than once in the 53 years it has been given. Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3) and Boog Powell (2) are the only other players to win the award more than once.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. A decade ago it was renamed in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl ranks 20th in victories among 20th century managers. His .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 5th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons exclusively in the 20th century.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 AL East titles, 4 AL pennants and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Pembroke Pines, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage, as well as a stepdaughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and shares the record (with former pitcher Jim Kaat and current pitcher Greg Maddux) for most Gold Gloves with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 12th on the all-time list of games played, 4th in the AL and 5th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 6th on the all-time list.He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians ('75-'77), he managed the San Francisco Giants ('81-'84), the Orioles ('88-'89) and the Montreal Expos—Washington Nationals ('02-'06).

Frank was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 14th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL. He has two daughters. Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, and Rafael Palmeiro are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks 8th all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to 8 All-Star teams, 7 as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" 5 times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, tied with Cal Ripken for second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians and Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons before joining the Indians staff in 2002 as batting coach. After spending 3 1/2 seasons in Cleveland, Eddie was named hitting coach for the Dodgers in 2006. He lives with his wife, Janice, and their daughters, Jordan and Jessica, in his hometown of Los Angeles.

THE CALL FROM THE HALL

- Elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on January 9, 2007, in his first year on the ballot....Will be formally inducted in ceremonies on July 29 in Cooperstown, NY.
- Received the most votes, 537 of 545 votes cast by eligible members of the Baseball Writers Association of America, of any Hall of Famer.
- His 98.53 percent total was the 3rd highest in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79%, 1999).
- Was elected along with former San Diego Padres OF Tony Gwynn...They are the 42nd and 43rd players elected in their first year of eligibility and the 46th and 47th players to spend their entire career with one team.
- Ripken is the 6th player elected to the Hall whose official plaque will show him in an Orioles uniform, joining Frank Robinson (elected in 1982), Brooks Robinson ('83), Jim Palmer ('90), Earl Weaver ('96) and Eddie Murray ('03).
- Ripken, who was born in Havre de Grace and raised in Aberdeen, MD, becomes the eighth native Marylander elected to the Hall. He joins Home Run Baker (Trappe), Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), Babe Ruth (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his career with 3,184 career hits, still 13th on the all-time list, and with 431 career homers, then 31st all-time, now 37th.
- Is one of only eight players in history to reach 400HR/3,000H plateaus, joining Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Dave Winfield & Carl Yastrzemski, and only the 2nd - with Yastrzemski - to do it exclusively in the American League.
- In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star berth, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star, previously held by Brooks Robinson (18 games over 15 seasons, 1960-74)....He started the game at shortstop, breaking Ozzie Smith's record for most All-Star games at that position, when Alex Rodriguez moved him there and took third base.
- Finished his career with 3,001 games played, 10th most in baseball history and 4th in games with one club behind Carl Yastrzemski (3,308), Hank Aaron (3,076) and Stan Musial (3,026).
- Played 20 years and 57 days in the majors, all with the Orioles...Was originally drafted in the 2nd round of the 1978 First Year Player Draft.
- In addition to 7 Major League or American League fielding records that he holds or shares, Ripken holds Major League records for most home runs by a shortstop (345), most years playing all of his club's games (15) and most years leading his league in games played (9).

STAYING HEALTHY

Cal Ripken went on the disabled list on April 20, 1999, for the first time in his career. From the start of Cal's record 2,632 consecutive games played streak, which began on May 30, 1982, until he went on the DL nearly 17 years later, Major League players made 5,045 trips to the DL.

THE 3,000 HIT/400 HOMER CLUB

Through the 2006 season, only 26 players in major league history had accumulated 3,000 hits and only 42 players had hit at least 400 home runs. Cal is one of only 8 players to collect both 3,000 hits and 400 homers, and only the second to do it exclusively in the American League, joining Boston's Carl Yastrzemski.

RETIRING #8

The Orioles retired No. 8 in Cal Ripken's honor prior to the final game of his career on October 6, 2001, becoming the 7th and latest uniform number retired by the ballclub (including No. 42, retired throughout Major League Baseball to honor Jackie Robinson). Only 14 players wore the No. 8 in the Orioles history: Dick Kryhoski and Ray Murray (1954), Kal Segrist (1955), Jim Pyburn (1955-57), Buddy Peterson (1957), Foster Castleman (1958), Jerry Adair and Bobby Avila (1959), Gene Stephens (1960-1961), Marv Thoneberry (1961-1962), Andy Etchebarren (1962, 1965-1972), Tim Nordbrook (1975-1976), Dave Skaggs (1977-1980) and Cal Ripken (1981-2001).

MOST HOME RUNS EVER BY A SHORTSTOP

All-time Leader: Hit 345 of his 402 homers as a shortstop, most in major league history ahead of Alex Rodgiruez, who hit 344 home runs as a shortstop before moving to third base in 2004. Cal passed Chicago Cubs legend Ernie Banks on 7/15/93 at Oriole Park when he homered off Minnesota's Scott Erickson, the 278th home runs of his career as a shortstop. Banks' mark had stood since he moved to first base from shortstop in '62. The seat in left field where the ball landed is now painted orange to commemorate the achievement.

30 Homers: Is one of only 11 shortstops in major league history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, along with Ernie Banks, Vern Stephens, Rico Petrocelli, Alex Rodriguez, Nomar Garciaparra, Rich Aurilia, Miguel Tejada, Barry Larkin, Tony Batista and Jose Valentin.

FIELDING

FIELDING RECORDS: Cal still holds or shares seven Major League or American League fielding records:

1. AL record (tied) for leading shortstops in assists seven years (last time was '93) with Luis Aparicio and Luke Appling.
2. ML record for fewest errors (3) in a season by a shortstop, 1990
3. ML record for most consecutive games played one position (2,216), 7/9/82-7/15/96 (shortstop)
4. ML record for most years leading league in double plays by a shortstop - 8 ('83-'85, '89, '91, '92, '94, '95)
5. ML record (tied) for most years leading the league in putouts by a shortstop- 6 ('84,'85,'88,'89,'91,'92) with Rabbit Maranville
6. AL record for most assists in a season by a shortstop with 583, set in 1984
7. AL record for most double plays by a shortstop, career (1565)

GOLD GLOVES: Two, 1991 and 1992.

ERRORS PER CHANCE: During his career at shortstop he averaged one error for every 48.2 chances. Mark Belanger had the previous best by an Oriole shortstop, one every 43 chances.

1990, SET MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS: Cal established eight ML fielding records in '90 including an all-time mark for highest fielding percentage and fewest errors by a shortstop...Made only three errors in 161 games (680 total chances), a .996 percentage...Set major league marks for consecutive errorless games (95), and consecutive chances without error (428)...(Both marks were broken in 2002 by Cal's successor as Orioles shortstop, Mike Bordicki, with 110 consecutive errorless games and 544 consecutive errorless chances)...After fumbling a ground ball on 4/13 in the third game of the season Cal went 95 games and 431 chances before committing his second miscue 3 1/2 months later on 7/28 at KC...Cal broke the AL marks by Detroit's Eddie Brinkman (72 straight errorless games and 331 straight errorless chances in '72)...The major league marks were held by NY Giants' Buddy Kerr (383 consecutive errorless chances in '46-'47) and the Mets' Kevin Elster, whose 88 games in a row without error in '88 and '89 were downgraded from a major league to an NL record.

1984, ASSISTS RECORD: Set AL record with 583 assists, breaking Roy Smalley's '79 mark of 572...Also led ML shortstops in total chances (906)...His 880 successful chances in '84 were the most by an AL shortstop since the Twins' Leo Cardenas handled the same number in '69.

CYCLE: Is one of only 2 Orioles to hit for the cycle. On 5/6/84, was 4-for-5 with two RBI at Texas...Homered off Dave Tobik in his final at bat...Brooks Robinson hit for the cycle at Chicago, 7/15/60...Opponents have hit for the cycle six times against the Orioles.

FIRST STEAL WAS A STEAL OF HOME: Stole home for his first major league steal on the front end of a double steal, 5/31/82 at home vs. Texas off Jon Matlack, to give the O's a 4-3 lead in an eventual 8-7 win...Lenn Sakata stole second on the play, Jim Sundberg was the catcher and Al Bumbry was at bat.

AS A PINCH HITTER: Pinch hit 8 times, including going 2-for-3 in his final season in 2001...Singled as a pinch-hitter on 6/8/99 his first PH appearance since 1981, his first major league season, when he batted three times for Mark Belanger and once for Eddie Murray.

AS A PINCH RUNNER: Pinch ran seven times, six in '81, once in '82...Ran twice for Ken Singleton, Terry Crowley, and Doug DeCinces, and once for Benny Ayala...The last time was 4/18/82 for Crowley...Only in his first pinch running experience, in his major league debut 8/10/81, did he score (see major league debut below).

JAPAN TRIPS: Had a cumulative .358 average (29-81) on three trips to Japan...1984: Was on O's 14-game post-season trip and batted .315 (17-54) with four homers and nine RBI as the O's went 8-5-1...1986: Was part of US Major League All-Star team that went 6-1 against All-Stars from Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues...Cal led that team in batting (.500, 7-14, 2B-2, HR-2, RBI-6) while splitting shortstop duties with the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith...1996: Was on tour of Japan with a group of Major League All-Stars in the off-season...Batted .385 (5-13) with 4 RS, a 2B, a HR and 3 RBI.

2131: PASSING A LEGEND

•On 8/17/33, New York Yankees first baseman Lou Gehrig played in his 1,308th straight game to surpass Everett Scott's major league record for consecutive games played. The Iron Horse went on to play in 2,130 straight games before the crippling effects of ALS (amyotrophic lateral sclerosis) ended his once-thought impossible streak. Just over two years later, ALS ended his life.

•Ripken's streak began on 5/30/82 when manager Earl Weaver started Cal as the third baseman against Toronto at Memorial Stadium. The day before, Floyd Rayford started in Cal's place at third base in the second game of a DH.

•Gehrig's longest streak at first base was 885 straight games. He played left field for one game in '30 while Babe Ruth pitched, and he played right field for one game in '31 while Ruth played first base.

•Gehrig played every inning of every game one time in his career ('31). Ripken holds what is believed to be the major league record with a streak of 8,243 straight innings, spanning 904 games from '82-'87.

•Gehrig missed just two starts during his streak, both in the first year: '25 (7/5, the 33rd game of the streak and 7/19, the 48th game). Both times, Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at first base. Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.

•Twice during his streak, Gehrig was ailing and was listed as the shortstop, batting in the lead-off position. Both times, he singled and was immediately replaced by a pinch runner.

•Three times by Ejection: The earliest Cal has left were the two games from which he was ejected in the first inning: 9/25/87 by Tim Welke (vs. Yankees) and 8/7/89 by Drew Coble (vs. Minnesota). In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call. He was ejected a third time on 7/20/97 in the 2nd inning by Al Clark (vs. Chicago) also for arguing a third strike call.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: Orioles shortstop Miguel Tejada will enter the 2007 season having played 1,080 consecutive games, the 7th longest streak of all-time, including every game (486) of his three seasons with the Orioles. It is the 2nd longest streak in club history behind's Ripken's 2,632 games. The three longest Orioles streaks before Cal's were:

Brooks Robinson	463
Billy Gardner	361

EVERY GAME OF THE YEAR: Cal is one of eight Orioles to have played every game in a season, but he has done it nearly as much as everyone else combined: Cal Ripken, 15 times, '83 through '97; Brooks Robinson, 4 times, '61, '62, '64, '68; Eddie Murray, 4 times, '78, '79, '84, '88; Miguel Tejada, 3 times, '04 through '06; B.J. Surhoff, twice, '98, '99; Billy Gardner, once, '57; Bobby Grich, once, '73; Rafael Palmeiro, once '98.

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK, '82-'87: His streak of 8,243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history. The post-season innings he played in '83 are not included in these figures. Lou Gehrig, incidentally, played every inning of every game only one season ('31) during his streak. The start: Cal's innings streak began 6/5/82; six days and five games after the start of his consecutive games string 5/30. The finish: The innings streak ended 9/14/87 in Toronto when Orioles manager Cal Ripken Sr. inserted Ron Washington at shortstop in the bottom of the eighth of an 18-3 Toronto victory. Ripken, whose innings streak covered some five seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least two straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41. In addition to Cal, only Buck Freeman (534 games, July 28, 1901-June 5, 1905) and Mickey Vernon ('42, '47 & '53) have played every inning in at least three seasons. The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

ALL-STAR GAMES

19-YEAR ALL-STAR: Ripken was elected as the American League's starting third baseman for the 5th time in a row and his 19th consecutive All-Star berth in his final season in 2001. He passed Brooks Robinson's AL mark of 18 games (over 15 years, 1960-74). Cal technically started the game his final game at shortstop when Alex Rodriguez pushed him to short and took third for the first inning. With the start, he tied Ozzie Smith for the most All-Star starts at shortstop with 15. The only year Ripken did not make the team was his rookie (of the year) season in 1982.

ELECTED: 17 times, 13 consecutive starting in '89. With his election in 2000, he broke the record he shared with Rod Carew for most All-Star selections with 15. Cal was also elected '84 through '87. Alan Trammell was elected in '88 but withdrew due to injury so Cal, who finished second in the voting, started in his place. Since balloting returned to the fans in '70, ten different Orioles have been elected to start 32 times in the 31 years.

STARTER: 16 straight years, 1984 through 1999, including 13 as shortstop. Cal's 15th straight start in 1998 set an All-Star Game record, breaking Willie Mays' mark of 14 straight ASG starts...He was elected to start at third base in 2000 but was unable to play because of injury.

FAN BALLOTING: Led the majors in votes four times: '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806), '92 (2,699,773), and '95 (1,698,524)...Cal led the AL in balloting in 1986 (1,486,806).

2001: Earned his 2nd All-Star MVP Award after homering on the first pitch he saw off Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park...Became the oldest All-Star MVP at age 41 and broke the AL record for most times as an All-Star, previously held by Brooks Robinson...Was elected to start at third base but was pushed to shortstop by Alex Rodriguez and played the first inning there.

2000: Elected to start but was unable to attend after injuring his back and being placed on the disabled list on June 28...Cleveland's Travis Fryman started in his place.

1999: Matched Rod Carew's record with his 15th All-Star selection...Went 1-for-1 with a run, RBI and HBP at Fenway Park in Boston.

1998: Set an All-Star Game record with his 15th consecutive starts surpassing Willie Mays' 14 starts in a row...Was his 2nd start at 3B...Went 1-for-4 with a 2-run double at Coors Field in Colorado.

1997: Started his 14th straight All-Star Game, 1st as a third baseman...Went 1-for-2 in an AL victory at Jacobs Field.

1995: At the Mid-Summer Classic in Arlington, TX, Cal went 2-for-3 with singles off Philadelphia's Tommy Greene and Montreal's Carlos Perez.

1994: Played the entire 10-inning game at Pittsburgh, going 1-for-5. In the bottom of the 10th, relayed Albert Belle's throw to Ivan Rodriguez beautifully, just barely later than Tony Gwynn's arrival at home with the "sudden death" winning run.

1993: In the classic at Camden Yards, Cal was 0-for-3 with two groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop by Chuck Thompson.

1992: Had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in three trips at San Diego to help the AL win, 13-6.

1991: Became the third of five Orioles to win the All-Star Game MVP Award when, on 7/9 at Toronto's SkyDome, he hit a three-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and singled off the eventual Cy Young Award winner, Tom Glavine, to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Other Orioles All-Star MVP's: Brooks ('66), Frank ('71) and Roberto Alomar ('98)...Cal became only the third AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game home run, joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting contest the day before, hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to lead the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

1990: Made his 7th consecutive start at shortstop, an AL record...Joe Cronin also made 7 starts at shortstop, not consecutive...Went 0-for-2 in his only appearance ever at venerable Wrigley Field, and was only 3-for-20 in 6 All-Star appearances at this point.

1989: Made a club-record 6th straight All-Star Game start, going 1-for-3 with a double off Montreal's Tim Burke in the game at Anaheim...Brooks Robinson started 5 straight All-Star contests at 3B, 1964-68.

1988: Finished 2nd in All-Star voting to Alan Trammell but took the injured Tiger's place in the starting lineup, his 5th straight start...Went 0-for-3 at Cincinnati.

1987: Started at shortstop and had the 2nd highest vote total among AL All-Stars behind 3B Wade Boggs...Went 1-for-2, getting his 2nd All-Star hit on a single off the Cubs' Rick Sutcliffe in the game at Oakland.

1986: Received more votes than any AL All-Star for the 2nd straight year and was exceeded only by the Mets' Darryl Strawberry...Went 0-for-4 and struck out twice - his first All-Star K's - at the Astrodome.

1985: Was the top vote-getter among AL All-Stars and earned his 2nd start at shortstop...Singled off Nolan Ryan for his first All-Star hit, finishing 1-for-3 at Minnesota.

1984: Earned his 1st All-Star start and became the first Oriole to start for the AL since 1981...With his father, Cal Sr., selected as a bullpen coach for the AL, they were believed to be the first father-son duo ever on the same All-Star squad...He went 0-for-3 in the game at San Francisco's Candlestick Park.

1983: Selected as a reserve for his first All-Star Game, he played the final 4 innings at shortstop and walked in his only plate appearance at Chicago's old Comiskey Park.

YEAR-BY-YEAR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2001: Concluded his 21st and final season with the Orioles by batting .239 with 14 home runs and 68 RBI in 128 games...Earned his 2nd All-Star Game MVP Award at Seattle, homering in his first at-bat...Became the oldest All-Star MVP and oldest to homer...On 7/14 at Atlanta, had his 19th career two-home run game and 20th multi-home run game...Hit his 431st and final home run on 9/23 vs. New York at Camden Yards...Batted .316 with runners in scoring position...Played in 46 of the Orioles' final 48 games, including each of the last 24 games...Finished the season with 2 hits in his final 48 at-bats, dropping his average from .261 to .239...Was hitless in 33 straight at-bats, 9/25 – 10/4, the longest hitless streak of his career...Previous mark was 29 at-bats, set 4/10-4/17/88...Went 2-for-3 as a pinch-hitter to finish 3-for-8 in his career...Extended his hitting streak on 7/13 at Atlanta with a pinch-hit double, his first pinch appearance since 6/8/99 and second pinch-hit appearance since his first season in 1981...Passed Brooks Robinson (2,896) on May 6, 2001 for most games played as an Oriole...Singled on 4/13 vs. Tampa Bay to become 15th player in major league history to reach 5,000 total bases...Grounded into 15 double plays, extending his major league-record to 350 GIDPs in his career...Was sidelined until 3/24 after suffering hairline rib fracture a week before spring training began.

2000: On 4/15 at Minnesota, singled off Hector Carrasco in 7th inning to become the 24th player to reach 3,000-hit milestone...Later in the season, Cal passed Roberto Clemente, Al Kaline, Wade Boggs, Lou Brock, Cap Anson and Rod Carew and finished the year 18th all-time with 3,070 hits...Became only the 7th player in major league history to reach 3,000 hits and 400 home run plateaus, joining Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Dave Winfield & Carl Yastrzemski...Ripken joined Yastrzemski as the only American Leaguers to accomplish the feat and along with Yastrzemski and Musial, the only players to do it with one team...Played in 83 games, the fewest of any complete season in his major league career...Missed 59 games while on the disabled list from 6/28 to 8/31 with inflammation of his lower back...Aggravated the injury hitting a ground ball in the 9th inning on June 27 at Boston...Hit safely in 13 of 20 games after being activated from DL on 9/1, hitting .307 (23-75) with 7 2B, 2 HR and 13 RBI...Homered in 2 of the final 3 games of the season, his first home runs since June 10 vs. Philadelphia...Had a season-high 4 hits at Texas 9/13, his first game batting in the 4th spot in the order since 8/19/97...Batted cleanup 8 times in an 11-game stretch, 9/13-23...Was elected as the starting third baseman for AL All-Star team, his 18th consecutive All-Star nomination and his 16th election, breaking Rod Carew's record...Was unable to play due to his back injury, however, marking the first Mid-Summer Classic he missed in his career...Served as designated hitter 10 times on the season, the first DH appearances of his career...His first two appearances ever as DH came May 9-10 at Toronto...Hit 2-run sudden-death, game-winning HR in the 9th inning on May 23 off Seattle's Jose Mesa...Was his 2nd game-winning home run of season and 4th of his career...Led off 9th inning on April 19 to beat Tampa Bay, his first sudden-death, game-winning home run since 7/27/84 vs. the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium...Grounded into the 329th double play of his career on May 17 at Anaheim, passing Hank Aaron for most in ML history.

1999: Appeared in just 86 games while making the first two trips to the disabled list in his career, but established career-highs in batting average (.340) and slugging percentage (.584)...Missed 22 games on his first trip to the DL, 4/20-5/13...Went on the DL a 2nd time, 8/3-31, and missed 28 games... also played on the winning team in both the ALCS and World Series...Led majors in hits with a club record 211 and doubles (47); was second with 76 extra-base hits to the Expos' Andre Dawson (78) and was runner-up to major league leader Jim Rice (344) in total bases (343)...Led the AL with 121 runs, just one off Frank Robinson's club record set in '66...No Hall of Fame shortstop has ever had 211 hits in a season...Hughie Jennings and Dave Bancroft are the leaders, each with 209...Batted a combined .273 (9-33) in nine post-season games...Drove in O's only run in ninth inning of ALCS Game 1, won by LaMarr Hoyt, 2-1...Made final putout of WS when he caught Garry Maddox's line drive in bottom of ninth, Game 5.

1982: Led all major league rookies in doubles, homers, RBI, total bases (284), games (160), and runs...Missed only three games all year, none after 5/29 (his games streak began the following day)...Played 44 straight errorless games at third base from 4/24 -6/14...After a glittering Opening Day on which he went 3-for-5 with his first big league double, homer (off KC's Dennis Leonard) and RBI, he plunged into a 4-for-55 slide...Was batting only .117 (7-60) on 5/1 after 18 games and his career big league average over two seasons was at that point .121 (12-99) in 41 games...The next day, 5/2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits and was beaned by fellow rookie Mike Moore...Missed only one game after the beaning, however, and batted .281(151-538) from 5/2 to the end of the season.

1981: Was recalled from AAA Rochester on 8/8 after the major league player strike was settled...Made big league debut in the first game after the strike, vs. KC in Baltimore on 8/10 as pinch runner after Ken Singleton led off the 12th with a double...Scored winning run in "sudden death" when, after an intentional walk to Eddie Murray, John Lowenstein singled off RHP Renie Martin to drive him in...His first hit was a single off Chicago's Dennis Lamp on 8/16, also at Memorial Stadium...Played in 12 games at shortstop (9 starts) and six at third base...Despite his early recall from Rochester, was voted "Rookie of the Year" in the International League, and was named to the loop's All-Star team at third base...In survey of IL's managers and coaches, was picked as top major league prospect in the league...Played in 85 games at third base for Red Wings and 35 at shortstop (primarily when Bob Bonner was injured).

MINOR LEAGUES: Played mostly shortstop in '78 in Bluefield...Played in Florida Instructional League after both '78 and '79 seasons...Was Southern League's All-Star third baseman in '80 and tied for league lead in games...One of two Charlotte players that year to break club's home run record: Ripken had 25 and Drungo Hazewood had 28...Cal had homered only 8 times in his 2 previous pro seasons combined...He also led SL third basemen in fielding (.933, TC-415, E-28)...Helped Caguas win Puerto Rican title after the 1980 season (the first of his two seasons in Caribbean winter ball)...In '79, he was picked as shortstop on Topps' Class A All-Star team, though he played more games at third (58) than at shortstop (52)...Led Florida State League in doubles that year...Was signed by the late Dick Bowie 6/13/78 after the club drafted him 6/4.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND: Pitched and played short at Aberdeen (MD) High and graduated from there in '78...Was 7-2 with an 0.70 ERA as a senior with 100 strikeouts in 60 innings...He also won Harford County batting title (.492) and had 29 RBI in 20 games...Pitched a two-hitter and fanned 17 to win 1978 Maryland Class A Baseball championship game...Was voted American Amateur Baseball Congress (AABC) "Graduate of the Year" in '86...Also earned two letters in soccer...Was soccer team captain and both an All-County and All-Metro selection. Played Little League, Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle League baseball...Led Putty Hill, MD team to Mickey Mantle World Series in Sherman, TX (lost in a best-of-3 competition).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Married to the former Kelly Geer (11/13/87)...Kelly, from Cockeysville, MD, is a graduate of Dulaney High School and the University of Maryland...Two children: Rachel Marie (11/22/89) and Ryan Calvin (7/26/93), born on an Orioles off day.

THE RIPKEN FAMILY: Cal played with his brother Bill at second base for 5-1/2 seasons (7/11/87 through '92), and Bill was with the Orioles in a utility role in 1996...Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager...All three were together in '87, when Cal Sr. became the first father ever to manage two sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season)...In addition to younger brother Bill, Cal has another brother, Fred, and a sister, Ellen Leigh...Cal's mother is named Vi.

FATHER: Cal Ripken Sr. passed away March 25, 1999 from cancer. He spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff starting in 1976, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach...Managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization...His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history...During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league...Earned the reputation as perhaps the best teacher of young players in Orioles history...Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the seventh non-interim manager in the club's history...Was replaced by Frank Robinson on 4/12/88 after the O's lost the first six games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended)...Rip was a catcher in the O's organization, although he also played some third base and outfield and even pitched...He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60...He became a player-manager the following year...In '96 he was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame...Following Ripken's death during spring training in 1999, the Orioles players and field staff wore a "7" on their uniform sleeve in his honor for the entire 1999 season...The number also was painted in orange in the third base coach's box at Camden Yards, where it remained throughout the '99 season as well...In ceremonies prior to Cal Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Sr.

OH, BROTHER

Only 11 errors combined: In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying (each playing 2/3 of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination. Next lowest total is 13 in '90 by Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee...On 6/15/89, vs. New York, the two Ripkens teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years.

Both homered: On 9/15/90 at Toronto, Cal and Bill each homered...They matched the feat on 5/28/96 at Seattle and Cal homered three times in that game...They were the first brothers to homer in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it 9/14/74.

IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2001, the Ripken family established the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation in memory of the family's patriarch. The foundation's mission is to teach life lessons to disadvantaged youth through baseball. To date, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation has provided life experiences to thousands of kids nationwide. In addition, the foundation has helped communities start baseball and softball programs through equipment grants and refurbished fields through cash grants.

Cal and Kelly Ripken have always been dedicated to giving back to the community. In the past, the Kelly and Cal Ripken, Jr. Foundation supported community adult and family literacy, youth recreational and health-related programs in the greater Baltimore area. In 1998, the Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center was launched through a financial contribution by the Ripkens. It is a full-service learning program focusing on preparing adults for the world of work. The Ripken Learning Center annually serves approximately 325 adults during day, evening and weekend programming. Since its inception, the Ripkens have contributed or helped raise over one million dollars for the Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center. During Cal's playing career, he took part in the Reading, Runs and Ripken Program. It began in 1991 in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc. Baltimore Reads benefacted from the program, in which individuals and businesses made pledges based on the number of RBI Cal collected during the season.

A GRASSROOTS APPROACH: Today Cal Ripken focuses much of his attention on growing the game of baseball at the grassroots level. His company, Ripken Baseball, owns and operates two minor league teams (the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles affiliate, and the Augusta GreenJackets, a Giants farm team) as well as youth baseball and softball academies in the Ripken hometown of Aberdeen, MD, and Myrtle Beach, SC. In July 1999, Babe Ruth Baseball, Inc. changed the name of its largest division from "Bambino" to "Cal Ripken Baseball," embracing Cal's goal to bring the element of fun back to youth baseball for the kids, the coaches and the parents. Currently over 700,000 kids, ages 5-12, play Cal Ripken Baseball worldwide.

CAL RIPKEN, AUTHOR: Cal Ripken has authored three books thus far and has two more on the way. In 1997 he penned the best-selling autobiography, "The Only Way I Know." In 2004, he and his brother, Bill, authored "Play Baseball the Ripken Way." In April, 2007 he makes his first foray into the world of business, "Get in the Game," published by Penguin, as well as a children's book, "The Long Season."

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,290 and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The field's system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand rootzone mix, sod and drainage. The drainage system was modernized by utilizing an inlaid piping system topped by a fabric mesh and gravel to better protect both the pipes and the playing surface. Following the 2005 season, the entire field was re-sodded with an improved four way blend of Kentucky bluegrass that was grown on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. In conjunction with the re-sodding project, all new irrigation heads were installed. This past off-season, the warning track around the field was replaced.

DIMENSIONS

For Camden Yards' first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to 7 feet larger than those used since Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Babe's Irish Pub) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, and the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

SCOREBOARDS

There are two major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD), which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the two boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports two weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time, posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker, the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally three auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the two big boards in center field.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veteran's Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street warehouse for a memorial wall to honor residents of Maryland who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier in the year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from the Memorial Stadium facade, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night.

SPORTS LEGENDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

In May 2005, the Babe Ruth Museum opened its expansion project, Sports Legends at Camden Yards, in the historic Camden Station building at the north end of the warehouse. Covering 22,000 square feet and showcasing more than 10,000 artifacts, Sports Legends is an interactive, innovative tour of Maryland's sports heritage. The space includes exhibits on the Orioles, Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. Other exhibits include Maryland college sports, the Baltimore Ravens, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980's prior to the renovations. In its heyday, the station was the grand passenger terminus of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the country's first commercial railroad. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station on several occasions, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, Illinois, for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room will be restored to its Civil War splendor and will interpret Lincoln's passages through Camden Station, the Civil War, and Camden Station's role in America's transportation history.

FOUL POLES

When the Orioles moved to Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Camden Yards left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the lower, club and upper deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

Three public facilities - a souvenir shop (The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), and a bar/lounge (Babe's Irish Pub) - are located on the ground floor of the warehouse, and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes there are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 47'.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 72 luxury suites, each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites are leased on a yearly basis. There are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several of which hold 10-18 people, and three larger party suites that can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1,850 Eutaw Street Reserve seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also standing room only tickets that go on sale two hours before game time. The SRO areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

Total seating in the ballpark is 48,290. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Camden Yards is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, a number of exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"...

- Seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 with chairs with higher backs and padding. Cupholders were also installed to the 6,200 new seats.
- Two rows of seats were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, a total of 72 seats. Also, ten seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.
- Also prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with the Camden Yards aesthetic. Two 7.5' rotational signs were also added to the wall.
- Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Homeplate Elevator Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.
- The first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- The fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- Expanding on improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
- In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
- Homestead Gardens, based in Davidsonville, MD, entered into a partnership with the Orioles starting in 1998 to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.
- Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
- Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.
- The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos and records of each Oriole team beginning in 1954 adorn the corridors. Orioles Hall of Fame banners have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.
- Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993.

•Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.

•Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

•Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row FF, Seat 10) with a red seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.

•Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row D, Seat 23).

•Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.

•Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring three individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; and Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years.

•In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "Right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons..."

•Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999 to pass Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in their bullpen.

•In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2006, over 35,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Fans touring the facility visit the suite level, media levels and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between mid-February and mid-December. For ticket and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234.

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds sometimes interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

TELEVISION

Announcers: Gary Thorne, Jim Hunter, Jim Palmer, Buck Martinez, Rick Dempsey, and Amber Theoharis

The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network is the television home of the Baltimore Orioles, and will produce 162 games in 2007. The network is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and can therefore give fans unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

In 2007 MASN began carrying a 30-minute pre-game and post-game show, O's Xtra, for every Orioles game. The network also carries managers, coaches and magazine shows about the Orioles.

When both the Nationals and Orioles play simultaneously, MASN offers a second channel, MASN2, to provide the live telecast of the other game. All of MASN's cable and satellite distributors provide a MASN2 channel position, which remains consistent throughout the entire season. (Visit www.masnsports.com for local listings.)

MASN will also produce selected Orioles games for broadcast over-the-air on WJZ-TV, Channel 13 in Baltimore.

MASN is the Official Cable Network of the Baltimore Ravens and carries exclusive, primetime Ravens programming throughout football season.

MASN is also the Official Cable Network of Georgetown Hoyas basketball, and offers one of the biggest college basketball packages in the country with over 150 NCAA matchups. MASN carries NCAA football and NCAA lacrosse, as well as feature programming including the Caribbean World Series.

MASN's television territory stretches from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina and covers all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region.

GARY THORNE

Gary Thorne is one of the most recognizable voices in sports broadcasting, having covered Major League Baseball, the National Hockey League, the Olympics, NCAA basketball and NCAA hockey during his illustrious 30-year broadcasting career.

Thorne spent seven years at ABC Sports as a play-by-play commentator for the network's coverage of the National Hockey League. Since 1992, he has provided commentary for ESPN's "National Hockey Night" telecasts. In 1998, Thorne worked for CBS as a reporter during the Olympic Winter Games in Nagano, Japan.

Thorne's first appearance on ESPN was in July 1988 for the inaugural Triple-A All-Star Game. He served as the original host and moderator in 1988 for "The Sports Reporters," the network's Sunday morning roundtable program.

From 1985-1988, Thorne covered the New York Mets as a radio broadcaster and returned to the Mets television booth in 1994.

In 1989, Thorne served as the voice of the Chicago White Sox on WFLD-TV and was a back up play-by-play announcer (behind Al Michaels) on ABC's Thursday night MLB telecasts. From 1990 to 1993 he called two primary MLB games per week. Thorne also served as an on-the-field reporter for the World Series and covered the World Series Trophy presentation for ABC.

Thorne has also done play-by-play on SportsChannel America's National Hockey League telecasts (1988-92) and New Jersey Devils telecasts on SportsChannel New York (1987-92). Prior to that, he was the play-by-play commentator and director of broadcasting for the Maine Guides (1984), a Triple-A ball club which he co-owned from 1984-88. He also covered University of Maine hockey games for WBGW-AM and WABI-TV and radio from 1977-86.

Thorne is a 1970 graduate of the University of Maine with a bachelor of science degree in business. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1973 and received a doctorate in law in 1976 from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a former assistant district attorney in Bangor, Maine, and was admitted to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in March 1977.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 11th year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. This season Jim will work exclusively on Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. He will host "O's Xtra," MASN's new pre-game and post game shows, sharing the studio with Orioles Hall of Famer Rick Dempsey. Jim will also call games on MASN with Buck Martinez or Jim Palmer. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 29 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 48, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Hall of Famer Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In 1996, he called the National League Division Series in which the Atlanta Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals in a thrilling 7-game series. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim makes several appearances in the community on behalf of the ballclub as well as helping various charities. He is an active part of the Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology Friends Committee, which annually raises money for cancer research for children.

When Jim began his career at CBS in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sportsbreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

A native of New Jersey, Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ. He was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ with a BA in Communication Arts.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

Hunter resides in Fallston, MD with his wife Bonnie. They have three children. Jimmy (22) and Jeff (20) are students at York College of Pennsylvania, and Allie (16) is a sophomore at Fallston High School. They also have a faithful 2 year old Springer Spaniel named "Bobby".

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 15th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 434.

BUCK MARTINEZ

Buck Martinez returns for his fifth season as an Orioles television analyst, bringing a wealth of baseball experience to the broadcast booth. He will team with Gary Thorne or Jim Hunter to provide color commentary for Orioles games.

In addition to his Orioles duties, Martinez is in his third year as a co-host on "MLB This Morning," a news-magazine style baseball show that airs weekday mornings on XM Satellite Radio, and will continue his work as an analyst on ESPN's Wednesday night national MLB telecasts in 2007.

Martinez' extensive resume includes over 30 years as a player and manager in the American League and over 22 years of experience in baseball broadcasting on television and radio. Beginning in 1967 when he was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies, Martinez spent 23 years as a catcher in professional baseball with the Kansas City Royals, Milwaukee Brewers and Toronto Blue Jays organizations. He appeared in the postseason with Kansas City in 1976, batting .333 in the 5-game ALCS against the New York Yankees, and wrote two books about his experiences with the Blue Jays, "From Worst to First" (1985) and "The Last Out" (1986).

Martinez, 58, also served as manager for Toronto in 2001 and part of the 2002 season, compiling a 100-115 record. Last spring, he managed the United States team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic, a 16-team international tournament that featured some of the best players in the world competing for their home countries.

Martinez' first experience with broadcasting came in 1982, when he covered the American League Championship Series, the World Series and the All-Star Game for the Telemedia Radio Network. His television broadcast career began in 1987 as a color commentator for the Toronto Blue Jays on The Sports Network. He began working with ESPN radio and television in 1992, a position he held through the 2002 season. In 1995, Martinez was awarded a Sports EMMY Award for his work on ESPN's coverage of Cal Ripken's 2,131st consecutive game.

A California native, Martinez attended Sacramento City College, Sacramento State University, and Central Missouri State University. He and his wife, Arlene, reside in Clearwater, FL. They have one son, Casey, a 47th round pick by Toronto in the 2000 First Year Player Draft.

RICK DEMPSEY

Former Orioles catcher and 1983 World Series MVP Rick Dempsey joins the Orioles broadcast team this season after five years on the club's coaching staff. He will team with Jim Hunter to host the "O's Xtra" pre- and post-game shows on MASN, and will also serve as an analyst on a selection of game broadcasts.

This season marks Dempsey's 40th year working in professional baseball. He played for 24 major league seasons with six teams, including 11 1/2 with the Orioles. Dempsey is tied for 8th all-time in seasons played and is one of only three catchers, along with Tim McCarver and Carlton Fisk, to play in four decades. He played on three World Series teams and won two championships, including 1983 when he was named the World Series MVP in the Orioles' 4-games-to-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Rick batted .233 with 96 home runs and 471 RBI in his career, which began with the Minnesota Twins in 1969. He was traded to the New York Yankees in 1973 and, in 1976, to the Orioles as part of a 10-player swap that also brought the O's Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor. He became the Orioles' regular catcher in 1977 and for 10 years was the Orioles' primary backstop, catching a club-record 1,222 games. After leaving the Orioles, Dempsey played for Cleveland (1987), Los Angeles (1988-90) and Milwaukee (1991) before returning to the Orioles for his final season in '92. He ranks 14th all-time with 1,633 games caught and had a .988 career fielding percentage.

Dempsey began his post-playing career as a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers and New York Mets' farm systems, compiling a winning record in three of five seasons. He was a member of the Dodgers' major league coaching staff from 1999-2000 before returning to the Orioles as an analyst for Comcast SportsNet in 2001. He spent the past five seasons as a first base coach, third base coach and bullpen coach on the Orioles coaching staff.

Rick and his wife, Joani, live in Westlake Village, a suburb of Los Angeles. They have two sons, John, who was a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system, and Christian. Rick's younger brother Pat was a minor league catcher for several teams, including the Orioles. His nephew, Gregg Zaun, is a former Orioles catcher now with Toronto. The son of an actor, Rick entertained crowds as a player during rain delays with his impersonations of Babe Ruth. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1997.

AMBER THEOHARIS

Amber Theoharis joins the Orioles' broadcast team on MASN this season as a Sideline Reporter, providing live in-game coverage and reports for O's Xtra, the team's pre and post-game shows. In addition to her television duties with MASN, Amber is the sports talk radio host of The A List with Amber Theoharis on the Orioles' flagship radio station, WHFS-FM, and is also a columnist for the Baltimore-based newspaper Press Box, where her weekly editorial The Broadside gives a female's view on sports.

This fall, the Baltimore area native will enter her 4th season covering the Baltimore Ravens as host of MASN's post-game show Ravens Xtra. She also co-hosts MASN's 3-hour weekly call-in show Playmakers during the football season.

Prior to joining MASN, Amber was the weekend sports anchor and reporter at FOX45 in Baltimore, and also hosted Ravens Wired, a weekly NFL magazine show. Throughout her career Amber, has held on-air positions at WSYX-TV in Columbus, OH; WNBC-TV in New York City; New 12 Long Island and WBOC-TV in Salisbury MD. She began her career behind the scenes at WJLA-TV in Washington, D.C.

An Emmy-award-winning sports journalist who was recently named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, Amber is a proud graduate of the University of Maryland, College Park and is a life-long Orioles fan. She says it's a, "dream come true" to cover her beloved Birds and work with Oriole greats like Jim Palmer and Rick Dempsey.

RADIO

Announcers: Joe Angel, Fred Manfra, Tom Davis, Dave Johnson, and Steve Melewski

CBS Radio's WHFS-FM 105.7 becomes the flagship station for the Orioles in 2007, airing all 162 regular season games and 12 spring training games. The move marks the first time the Orioles will be heard throughout the Baltimore DMA in FM stereo. In addition to game broadcasts, WHFS and WJFK-AM 1300 programming for the upcoming year includes a weekly Hot Stove Show during the off-season, daily All-Access Pre- and Post-Game shows, and weekly Insider Roundtable and Manager's shows throughout the season.

This is the 7th year of the Orioles' partnership with Clear Channel Communications to broadcast all Orioles games in the Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia metropolitan area. The majority of the games will air on WTEM (980 AM). This is the first year of the Orioles' partnership with WOYK-AM ESPN 1350 in York, PA. In all, there are 20 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering four states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel returns for his 4th straight season as the "Voice of the Orioles" on radio. He will work exclusively on radio, teaming with Fred Manfra.

A native of Colombia, South America, Joe has broadcast major league baseball for 29 years, including six seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90, 1992 and 2004-06. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins and New York Yankees and was the original voice of the Florida Marlins. Joe also broadcast games on ESPN national telecasts during the 2001 season.

Joe, 59, was born in Bogotá, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago seven years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and football and was the quarterback of a team that featured O.J. Simpson as running back.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball.

Angel got his start in major league baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio. He also spent two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio, 1984-86, and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. Joe spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television for two seasons, where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

In his nearly 30 years of radio work with major league baseball, Joe has broadcast two World Series, 30 postseason games and five no-hitters. His signature calls of "In the WIN Column," "Wave it bye bye" and "Hasta La Vista Pelota" are well-known to Orioles fans.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in Weston, FL, and have three grown children, Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 15th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network. Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Orioles broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL Radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002) and Eclipse Award-winning broadcasts of horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982 through 2006.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984), Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work. Fred is on the advisory board of the Salvation Army of Baltimore and the board of the Albert Close Foundation in Harford County, and Marlene is president of the board of the National Kidney Foundation of Maryland and is also involved with Stella Maris. They have two adult daughters -- Michelle, who works in Los Angeles, CA, and Stephanie, who resides in Cocoanut Grove, FL.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis enters his 36th year as a local sportscaster and will rejoin the Orioles broadcast team this year as host of Orioles pre- and post-game shows on WHFS-FM. He will also do some work on television as a co-host of "O's Xtra," MASN's pre- and post-game shows. Davis previously spent 17 seasons as a host on Orioles telecasts on Home Team Sports (HTS) from 1984-2000.

A five-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Davis began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early '70s. He also worked at WBAL Radio, had two stints at WCBM-AM and spent 17 years as a sportscaster for the "Rouse & Company Show" on WQSR-FM.

Tom's national sports broadcasting experience includes work with NBC-TV and NBC Radio, where he covered the NFL, 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1988 Summer Olympics. He also did play-by-play for a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84. Davis served as play-by-play announcer for the first game played at M&T Bank Stadium on August 8, 1998, an exhibition game between the Baltimore Ravens and Chicago Bears. He lists one of his greatest thrills as calling Cal Ripken's 400th career home run in 1999.

In addition to his work on Orioles broadcasts, Davis serves as a sports update anchor on Baltimore's ESPN Radio 1300 AM on weekday mornings and co-hosts a sports talk show each Saturday afternoon on the station. He also produces and hosts "Touchdown Baltimore" and "Take Me Out To The Ballgame," shows that profile the Baltimore Ravens and Orioles and air on MASN weekly during the teams' respective seasons.

A graduate of Calvert Hall College High School, Davis received a BS degree in Marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He lives in Baltimore County with his wife Bonnie and is the father of two adult children, Malinda and Tad. He also has a stepdaughter, Mandi, and a grandson, Hunter.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'56), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('60-'61) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.
