LAST TIME OUT

Seattle Sounders FC 2 (12-10-3, 39 points) fell 2-1 on the road to Real Monarchs SLC (4-13-8, 20 points) after conceding two first-half goals. Pablo Rossi scored his eighth tally of the season in the 72nd minute, but the Rave Green were unable to find the net again before fulltime.

The Monarchs opened scoring in the 22nd minute via Ricardo Velasco. Emery Welshman was put through on goal, but goalkeeper Charlie Lyon denied the initial effort. The rebound from Welshman's shot fell to Velasco, who placed his shot into the empty net to make it 1-0 for the home side.

Following an S2 corner-kick in first-half added time, the Monarchs replied with a counterattack, as Eti Tavares beat the S2 backline at midfield and ran one-on-one toward goal with just Lyon to beat. Tavares made no mistake, beating Lyon to the keeper's right to double his club's lead before the halftime whistle.

Rossi scored his team-high eighth goal in the 72nd minute, picking up a deflected pass 30 yards from goal. Rossi picked his head up and took aim from distance, deflecting a shot off the left post to beat goalkeeper Lalo Fernandez.

SLC – Ricardo Velasco 22', Eti Tavares 45'+

BRIEF

Needing only two points to clinch a postseason berth, Sounders FC 2 travels to face Austin Aztex, a team hanging on results from around the league which will determine its fate. Although S2 remains in the top six in the USL Western Conference, the Rave Green have dropped four of their last five, including its last two matches on the road by a one-goal margin. With a draw and a Timbers 2 loss, S2 can also secure a postseason position, though the club is looking for a top two finish which would secure a first-round bye and home-field advantage in the playoffs.

SOUNDERS FC 2 WEEKLY NOTES

ABOUT AUSTIN AZTEX

Austin Aztex currently sits second to last in the USL Western Conference, though not mathematically eliminated from the postseason if they are able to win out the rest of the season and both S2 and T2 are unable to win or draw the rest of the season.

The Aztex are 5-5-3 at home (8-13-3 overall) and have dropped four of their last five matches. The club is managed by Head Coach and Technical Director Paul Daghli, who was the 2013 USL Premier Development League Coach of the Year with the Aztex in their inaugural season.

RIGHT THE SHIP

With the season winding down, S2 is currently enduring its worst run of form of the season, dropping four of its last five matches. Despite the results, the club has improved its odds of making the postseason cut with results from around the league. S2 sits two points away from clinching a spot, but a draw and a Portland loss would also help the club into the playoffs.

The Rave Green still have a shot at a top two finish, but will need to win out in order to have a chance.

“We are focused on making the postseason, but would like to win games for our fans who have supported us,” said Head Coach Ezra Hendrickson. “We are focused on winning the games in front of us right now to carry some momentum into the playoffs if we make it that far.”

NOTABLE AZTEX

Both Kris Tyrpak and Trevin Caesar are tied for the team lead in goals with eight apiece. Only five other players have scored this season for the Aztex. Tyrpak and Caesar have accounted for more than half the goals scored for their team this season.

Goalkeeper Devin Perales has played 16 matches this season and has recorded five shutouts, though Cody Laurendi has started the most recent two matches for the Aztex. He has two shutouts in nine appearances in 2015.

BY THE NUMBERS

1 S2 still has a shot at a first-place finish, but will need results from around the league to secure the first-round bye and home-field advantage.

4 S2 is currently enduring its worst run of form of the season, dropping four matches of its last five, three of which were on the road. The Rave Green will need to win out the rest of their games in order to continue hope for a top-two finish in the conference, but have two matches at home to try to get the job done while wrapping up the season

8 Pablo Rossi leads Sounders FC 2 with eight goals this season, including a 25-yard strike against Real Monarchs last week. Rossi continues to lead the charge up front for the Rave Green who are missing both Oalex Anderson (international duty) and Myron Samuel (injury) up top.
