SOUNDERS FC 2 WEEKLY NOTES

WEEKLY AWARDS

Giuliano Frano netted the game-winner for Sounders FC 2 in the 2-1 victory over Timbers 2 on April 11, 2015 earning him USL Team of the Week Honors. It is the second time Frano has earned the honor this season, as an S2 player has appeared on the list each week the team has played (S2 did not play in Week 3).

ENERGY NOTABLES

In its last game, Energy FC defeated Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC in dramatic fashion with a stoppage-time goal from Danish forward Danni König. It was the team's first victory of the season, and König scored a brace, which earned him USL Team of the Week honors for Week 3.

The 10-year professional also scored 72 goals in a span of five years playing in Denmark. Being the home-opener for OKC Energy FC, König, as well as the rest of the OKC team, will look to get an extra boost of energy from the fans.

Oklahoma City is an affiliate of Sporting Kansas City, and is coached by former Sporting goalkeeper, Jimmy Nielsen. Nielsen has a long history with Sounders FC having defeated the Sounders in the 2012 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final in a penalty shootout.

GOALS BY COMMITTEE

Sounders FC 2 has now scored the most goals in the USL (13), with strikes coming from seven different players in only four games, featuring a hat trick from Darwin Jones and a brace from Qudus Lawal in Thursday's match against Tulsa Roughnecks.

The team has scored 11 of its 13 goals from the run of play, one from a penalty and one from a set piece. Only in the match against Portland Timbers 2 has S2 been held to less than three goals this season, scoring four against both Sacramento Republic FC and Whitecaps FC 2, and three against Tulsa Roughnecks.

Jones, Pablo Rossi and Andy Craven did not start against Tulsa, likely being rested to get the start against Oklahoma City tonight.

SURE-UP THE BACKLINE

For a team that has impressed with its goal-scoring prowess, prior to Thursday night's match against Tulsa, Sounders FC 2 hadn't allowed many goals on the other end of the pitch. However, against the Roughnecks, S2 allowed four goals, which is one more than they had in all three games leading up to the match.

S2 Head Coach Ezra Hendrickson focuses on defending as a team, and that showed through in the match against Whitecaps FC 2 where the 'Caps were only able to get one shot on goal, and a majority of the match was played in the WFC 2 half. Thursday night saw a lapse in defense on multiple occasions. Tulsa's first goal came from a miscommunication from defender Jimmy Ockford and goalkeeper Charlie Lyon, uncharacteristic of how the team had played in its three-game homestand.

Seattle will need to watch out for an Oklahoma team coming off a bye week that will want to pounce on the Rave Green team that will be playing its second match in only three days.
