S2 WEEKLY NOTES

LAST MATCH RECAP

Sounders FC 2 (3-12-2, 11 points) on Saturday night dropped a 2-0 decision at league-leading Real Monarchs SLC (13-4-2, 41 points). Felix Chenkam made his first start for S2 since May 12 after being called up to the club's MLS side, but the team was without captain Ray Saari due to injury. The victory keeps Real Monarchs unbeaten at home this season, and they remain three points ahead of FC Cincinnati at the top of the league standings.

Charlie Adams scored the first goal of the match in the 27th minute off a rebound to put the home club ahead, 1-0. In the 70th minute, Sebastian Velasquez received the ball inside the area and finished past S2 goalkeeper Calle Brown to make it a 2-0 advantage.

Seattle saw appearances from four First Team players in Tony Alfaro, Henry Wingo, Brown and Chenkam, and three Academy players in Khai Brisco, Cam Martin and Gio Miglietti.

ESTRADA IN RACE FOR GOLDEN BOOT

S2 forward David Estrada ranks tied for 10th in the USL with eight goals scored this season, two markers behind the league leaders (through games of 7/17). Estrada scored his eighth goal of the season on July 8 against Reno 1868 FC.

The 30-year-old has recorded a brace in two games this season, and has four goals in his last six matches. He has accounted for 47.1% of the total goals scored by S2 in 2018 (8 of 17).

CHENKAM ENTERS USL LOAN AGREEMENT

Ahead of S2's match on July 8 vs. Reno 1868 FC, MLS entered into a Standard USL Loan Agreement for forward Felix Chenkam. This agreement contains a right of recall for MLS, which enables Chenkam to play for a USL side and MLS club throughout the duration of the loan period, subject to MLS roster compliance guidelines.

Chenkam signed a First Team contract with Sounders FC on May 25 after scoring four goals in 19 appearances for S2 in 2018, and this USL Loan Agreement now makes the Cameroonian forward eligible once again for selection by Head Coach John Hutchinson.

NARBON UNDERGOES SUCCESSFUL SURGERY

Following an injury suffered on July 5 in Tacoma versus Swope Park Rangers, S2 midfielder Francisco Narbón underwent surgery at Virginia Mason Medical Center in downtown Seattle on July 6 to repair fractures to his right tibia and fibula. The procedure was performed by Dr. David J. Belfie of Virginia Mason Orthopedics and Sports Medicine.

Narbon, 23, is in his second season with S2 and has made 11 appearances with the club in 2018, including 10 starts. He has played 35 games over the last two seasons for S2 and recorded one goal and one assist. A native of Panama City, Narbon has made two appearances for Panama's national team.

S2 SOUNDBYTES

S2 HEAD COACH JOHN HUTCHINSON

On the team's mentality going into last Saturday's game at Real Monarchs SLC:

"Before this game, we had 13 goals conceded in the last three games on the road, so we wanted to come in and be a bit more secure in the back and not give up so many easy chances. When we did have the ball, we kept it, we moved it well. We do need to clean up our connection pass and our product a bit, but overall defensively, I was pretty happy. We gave them four shots on target and they scored two. That kind of hurts, but we stayed in the game for a long time. Overall, performance was okay, we have a lot to work on but it's not a ranting and raving game, it's a game where we can learn and improve. We have a big road trip to Phoenix next, another really good team that is going to challenge us so we need to be defensively sound and go from there."

On moving forward towards the end of the season:

"We're going to start getting some more players back. I know they're going to be young, but they're going to start joining our squad now. Our U-17s won the National Championship, which is an incredible feat and some of these boys are going to start getting some minutes for us. They've got the winning mentality and they are going to help us a lot when they come up and start playing for our team and getting some more numbers. I don't want people to think that we are here just to develop football, which is a goal of ours, but to develop football you need to develop a winning mentality. Somewhere along the line we need to start transferring these okay performances and at least get a point out of it."

S2 MOVES TO TACOMA

Seattle Sounders FC and the Tacoma Rainiers announced on November 1, 2017 that beginning in 2018, Sounders FC 2's previously-announced transition to Tacoma is accelerating, allowing S2 to play its home matches at Cheney Stadium, while progress continues toward a new soccer-specific facility. Earlier in 2017, the two clubs reached a historic agreement to build a 5,000-seat facility in Central Tacoma on the footprint of Cheney Stadium. While that process moves forward, South Sound soccer fans are now able to see their USL side play in Tacoma several seasons ahead of schedule.

"Our organization was already thrilled to be moving ahead with the Rainiers and the City of Tacoma on the new stadium project, but when we learned of the opportunity to begin playing USL games as soon as 2018 in a facility like Cheney Stadium, we embraced the chance," said Sounders FC Owner Adrian Hanauer. "From Rainiers leadership to the many civic officials in Tacoma that are working hard to deliver professional soccer to their city, we're humbled to have such willing partners in this effort. As soon as next season, fans can enjoy a first-class experience at Cheney, allowing the club to make a tangible connection to the City of Tacoma earlier than expected."

Originally announced in May of 2017, the partnership brings together two of the Northwest's premier professional sports organizations to reach a first-of-its-kind relationship in USL within the same regional market. The Tacoma Rainiers are an award-winning franchise that has been a staple of the South Sound community for over 50 years, operating as the top affiliate of Major League Baseball's Seattle Mariners. They will operate the business side of the new era of the USL club, taking advantage of the decades of experience operating a professional organization in the Tacoma market, while Sounders FC is set to maintain leadership over soccer operations and sporting infrastructure. With key details coming together - including a name for the organization that is representative of its new home - it was announced today that much like the naming of the Sounders FC First Team, Tacoma fans will have influence over the identity of their new club. Details for that process are forthcoming, with the team to play under the S2 brand in the near-term during this transition.
