S2 WEEKLY NOTES

LAST MATCH RECAP

Sounders FC 2 (5-20-5, 20 points) on Saturday dropped a 3-1 decision to San Antonio FC at Toyota Field in Texas. Azriel Gonzalez scored his second goal of the season just before halftime on a feed from Shandon Hopeau for S2's lone tally of the evening. The teams split the season series, as Seattle earned a 3-2 home victory in the first meeting on August 11.

Gonzalez's goal in the 45th minute pulled S2 to within a goal just before the break, 2-1. He took a pass from Hopeau on the left side, cut it back and dribbled to his right, then fired a shot from outside of the area that found the bottom right corner of the goal. The assist was Hopeau's first of the season. San Antonio got on the board first in the 19th minute when Lance Laing finished a pass from Ever Guzman. Laing added an assist just seven minutes later when he sent a cross into the area that was finished by Ethan Bryant for his first professional goal. In second-half stoppage time, Maxi Rodriguez made it 3-1 when he put home a rebound off S2 goalkeeper Jacob Castro.

USL UNVEILS NEW STRUCTURE

The United Soccer League last Tuesday unveiled a new structure and brand identity for each of its top three leagues ahead of the 2019 season.

"Today's announcement comes at the dawn of an exciting new era for our sport," said USL CEO Alec Papadakis. "The USL has spent the past eight years transforming our league to meet the evolving needs of our team owners, players, coaches, fans and partners. We have established our place in the U.S. soccer landscape while blazing the trail for professional soccer's future by introducing a new third division, completing the nation's professional soccer structure.

"We are bringing three leagues under one central brand that will uniquely represent the USL's vision for the future and give rise to local passion in new cities currently without professional soccer. The new brand and logos are inspiring and convey a new direction. They are innovative and modern and tell a story but more importantly, refuse to let others define us. The USL will now be modeled after a tried and respected international structure. One central brand, three leagues: USL Championship – the pinnacle of competition; USL League One– the foundation of professional soccer; and, USL League Two – the Path to Pro.

S2 SOUNDBYTES

HEAD COACH JOHN HUTCHINSON

On Shandon Hopeau being named captain for recent matches:

"Shandon has taken huge steps forward this season for us. Probably at the start of the season, we didn't see him in that role. There's two types of leaders: There's a leader that barks and shouts, and there's a leader that leads by example. He's the second one, that leads by example. For me, Shandon can possibly be one of the best players we have this season. We're just trying to get that end product happening for him. With Ray Saari leaving, and Sam Rogers stepping up to be the full-time captain, and he's still coming back from injury and not ready to play 90 minutes. Shandon has taken over that role and he's done a good job. The boys like him. He works hard. He's changed his attitude and mentality to where we want him to be."
