GAME 5 - QUICK HITTERS

- Riverhounds SC (1-1-2 overall, 0-0-0 home) returns to Pittsburgh for its home opener at Highmark Stadium. The club will battle Hartford Athletic (0-5-0 overall, 0-5-0 away) for the first time in club history.
- This game will mark a special anniversary for the Hounds. The team played its first-ever match at Highmark Stadium on April 13, 2013 – a 2-1 defeat to the Harrisburg City Islanders (now branded as Penn FC). Their 2019 home opener will be played on this six-year anniversary.
- In the first-ever match at Highmark Stadium, former Hound José Angulo scored the first-ever goal (70th minute) at the venue. Angulo will return to Highmark Stadium this weekend as a member of the Athletic.
- The Hounds currently have a streak of two draws in their home openers. The club tied Penn FC, 0-0, in 2018 and tied New York Red Bulls II, 3-3, in 2017.
- Pittsburgh has won or tied all of its first-ever meetings against USL Championship squads since the 2018 season (2-0-3).
- In three straight matches, the Black and Gold have been awarded a penalty kick. The club has converted two of these three chances from the penalty spot. Last week, Neco Brett scored on his penalty kick to provide the club with a 1-0 win against two-time defending champion Louisville City FC.
- Brett, the Hounds' leading goalscorer in 2018 with 15 tallies, has fared well in his home confines. The striker is tied for ninth all-time with Gary DePalma and Justin Evans on the club's leaderboard for career home tallies (11 total home goals).
- Christian Volesky is another striker who has had past success at Highmark Stadium. As a member of the opposition, the forward has three career goals at the venue (two for the Rochester Rhinos and one for Saint Louis FC). Volesky will now suit up for the Hounds.
- Last time out in the team's shutout victory against two-time defending champion Louisville City FC, the Hounds out-touched their opposition 18-6 inside of the attacking penalty area.
- Kenardo Forbes has been at the center of the Hounds' attack this season. The midfielder leads the team with two assists and ranks tied for sixth in the USL Eastern Conference with nine chances created.
