Gyasi Zardes returns to LA Galaxy full of confidence after successful stint with U.S. National Team

Zardes played a key role in the USMNT's shock wins over Germany and the Netherlands

Gyasi Zardes returned to the LA Galaxy last week fresh off a brilliant showing with the U.S. National Team last week, rejoining after two consecutive starts with the USMNT in their wins against top-ranked sides the Netherlands and Germany. During the USMNT's 4-3 win over the Dutch, Zardes tallied his first career international goal.

After his performances overseas, Zardes admitted that he returned from across the pond with a boat load of confidence.

"I feel like I did a great job at the [USMNT] camp. It feels great being back with my club after going to Europe and playing for my country," Zardes told LA Galaxy Insider. "It's an amazing level there and I just hope to bring that pace back to MLS. I simply want to improve as a player.

The dynamic forward was at his best during the match against the Netherlands as his first international goal came off an off-balance left-footed shot that helped kick start a rally that ended with the USMNT's first-ever win over the Dutch. Days later, Zardes could not find the score sheet but was incredibly active and dangerous as the Americans defeated 2014 World Cup champion Germany 2-1 on their home soil.

Quite simply, this past week with the U.S. was a dream come true for Zardes.

"It was amazing to score at Amsterdam Arena, I grew up watching legends play there, and to score my first international goal there was wonderful," Zardes said. "The atmosphere [this week] was amazing, beating both of those teams was a highlight of my career and I just hope that I can continue to grow as a player and work extremely hard... Even though we were in Europe, we felt that America was right behind us."

LA Galaxy advance in U.S. Open Cup with 6-1 win over PSA Elite

Robbie Keane scored a hat trick as the Galaxy progressed to the fifth round of the Open Cup

The LA Galaxy advanced to the fifth round of the U.S. Open Cup with a 6-1 victory over U.S. Adult Soccer Association side PSA Elite at StubHub Center last week. The LA Galaxy will travel to face the San Jose Earthquakes on Wednesday, July 1 in the 2015 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 with kickoff set for 7:30 p.m. PT.

Robbie Keane notched a hat trick while Sebastian Lletget, Gyasi Zardes and Baggio Husidic each scored for the Galaxy in the victory. Michael Salazar scored the lone goal for the amateur side. The Galaxy's six goals are a club record for goals in a U.S. Open Cup match.

PSA Elite jumped out to a surprise early lead in the ninth minute when a turnover deep in the Galaxy's end resulted in a run up the right side by Jose Carrera-Garcia. The UC Berkeley midfielder then found Salazar streaking down the center for the finish past Galaxy goalkeeper Brian Rowe.

The lead did not last long however as LA found their equalizer in the 15th minute when Lletget capitalized on a scramble off a Galaxy corner and punched it into the PSA Elite net. The goal is Lletget's second in two games across all competitions. With the score level, the Galaxy began to control the tempo and started to pull away from the visitors.

The Galaxy took the lead for good in the 19th minute when Ignacio Maganto flicked the ball behind the PSA defense to Keane who played it across the Zardes for the easy tap in. LA doubled their advantage 10 minutes later when Lletget dished the ball over the top to Maganto who knocked it down to Keane for the easy finish.

It was more of the same in the second half as the Galaxy needed just eight minutes to add to their lead when second-half substitute Jose Villarreal fired a pinpoint free kick to a leaping Keane who nodded in his second of the evening.

Keane got his hat trick in the 70th minute when nice interplay between Lletget and Raul Mendiola resulted in an easy header for the Irishman. The Galaxy rounded out the scoring in the 77th minute when Oscar Sorto fired a cross down the right side to Husidic who was waiting at the far post for the easy close-range finish.

The Galaxy will find out their opponents for the fifth round on Thursday when U.S. Soccer conducts a draw for the next two stages of the Open Cup. LA could potentially face San Jose Earthquakes, Real Salt Lake or the Portland Timbers in the fifth round.

LA Galaxy vs. Portland Timbers Scarf of the Match unveiled

The limited-edition scarf is available at the TEAM LA Store at StubHub Center

The LA Galaxy vs. Portland Timbers Scarf of the Match is here! The Scarf of the Match is a new initiative that will see a limited number of exclusive scarves for sale at 20 of the LA Galaxy's home matches in 2015. The design for each scarf will be based off of one of the Galaxy's jerseys during the course of their 20-year history.

This week's scarf pays homage to the LA Galaxy's 2009 home jersey. Recent scarves from previous Galaxy jerseys will also be available at TEAM LA Store.

Fans will be able to purchase the Scarf of the Match each home game at the TEAM LA Store for $29.99. Only 500 scarves will be available for purchase.

Third annual LA Galaxy 5k and Cozmo Family Fun Run Presented by Herbalife

Check out photos from the LA Galaxy 5k and Cozmo Family Fun Run at StubHub Center

The LA Galaxy hosted the third Annual LA Galaxy 5k and Cozmo Family Fun Run presented by Herbalife at StubHub Center with over 600 participants at the event, raising $18,000 in charity.

The LA Galaxy 5k and Cozmo Family run was attended by various LA Galaxy players including Dan Gargan, Baggio Husidic, Brian Rowe, Leonardo and Andrew Wolverton in addition to Galaxy President Chris Klein and legend Mauricio Cienfuegos.

This year's LA Galaxy 5k and Cozmo Family Fun

Run presented by Herbalife took place on a new course design at StubHub Center and saw participants finish in the main stadium, with runners able to view themselves on Galaxy TV, the largest video board in Major League Soccer.

Former Olympic athlete, personal trainer, and director of worldwide fitness and education for Herbalife Samantha Clayton was also on hand to help participants warm up before the race, with an hour-long instructional session given just before the start of race.

Alan Gordon “pleasantly surprised” to be named to U.S. Men’s National Team provisional Gold Cup roster

Galaxy forward Alan Gordon says he’s excited to be on the USMNT’s provisional Gold Cup roster

Alan Gordon has been enjoying a career renaissance since rejoining the LA Galaxy last year, and his improved performances have not gone unnoticed.

The 33-year-old was among three Galaxy players named to Jurgen Klinsmann’s provisional roster for the 2015 CONCACAF Gold Cup. Joining Gordon are USMNT regulars Omar Gonzalez and Gyasi Zardes.

Compared to his teammates, Gordon is a relative newcomer to the national team having made just a single appearance in a World Cup qualifier against Antigua back in 2012. His last USMNT call-up came in 2013 for a friendly against Mexico but the then San Jose Earthquakes striker did not make an appearance.

“It was great. I was pleasantly surprised. We’ll see what happens,” Gordon told LAGalaxy.com. “It’s just a preliminary roster right now but if they call me up then I’ll be excited. [U.S. head coach Jurgen Klinsmann] sent me a text and once I got it, I was happy.”

Since returning to the Galaxy from the San Jose Earthquakes, Gordon’s career has been revitalized by head coach Bruce Arena. In 2015, Gordon is currently the club’s leading goal scorer with four goals to date.

Gordon has been particularly effective this season off the bench with three of his four goals coming as a substitute. Throughout his career, Gordon has made goal scoring off the bench into an art as his tally of 20 goals in reserve duty trail only Jeff Cunningham’s mark of 28 for the most goals as a substitute in Major League Soccer history.

“Good for Alan to be recognized [by the national team] for what he’s doing here with the Galaxy,” Bruce Arena said.

Zardes, who has become a regular with Klinsmann’s squad in 2015, was quick to echo Arena’s sentiments.

“It’s a wonderful thing for him to be added to the roster,” Zardes said. “He’s a goal scorer. He comes into games late and excels at scoring goals. That’s an amazing quality.”

If Gordon does get the call for the Gold Cup, the Galaxy striker is determined to bring this club success to the international level.

“I’m excited,” Gordon said. “I hope things continue and if I do get that call up then I’ll be very hungry to get my first goal for the U.S.”

LA Galaxy unveil commemorative match poster for Portland Timbers match

The poster are available for sale at StubHub Center to benefit the Galaxy Foundation

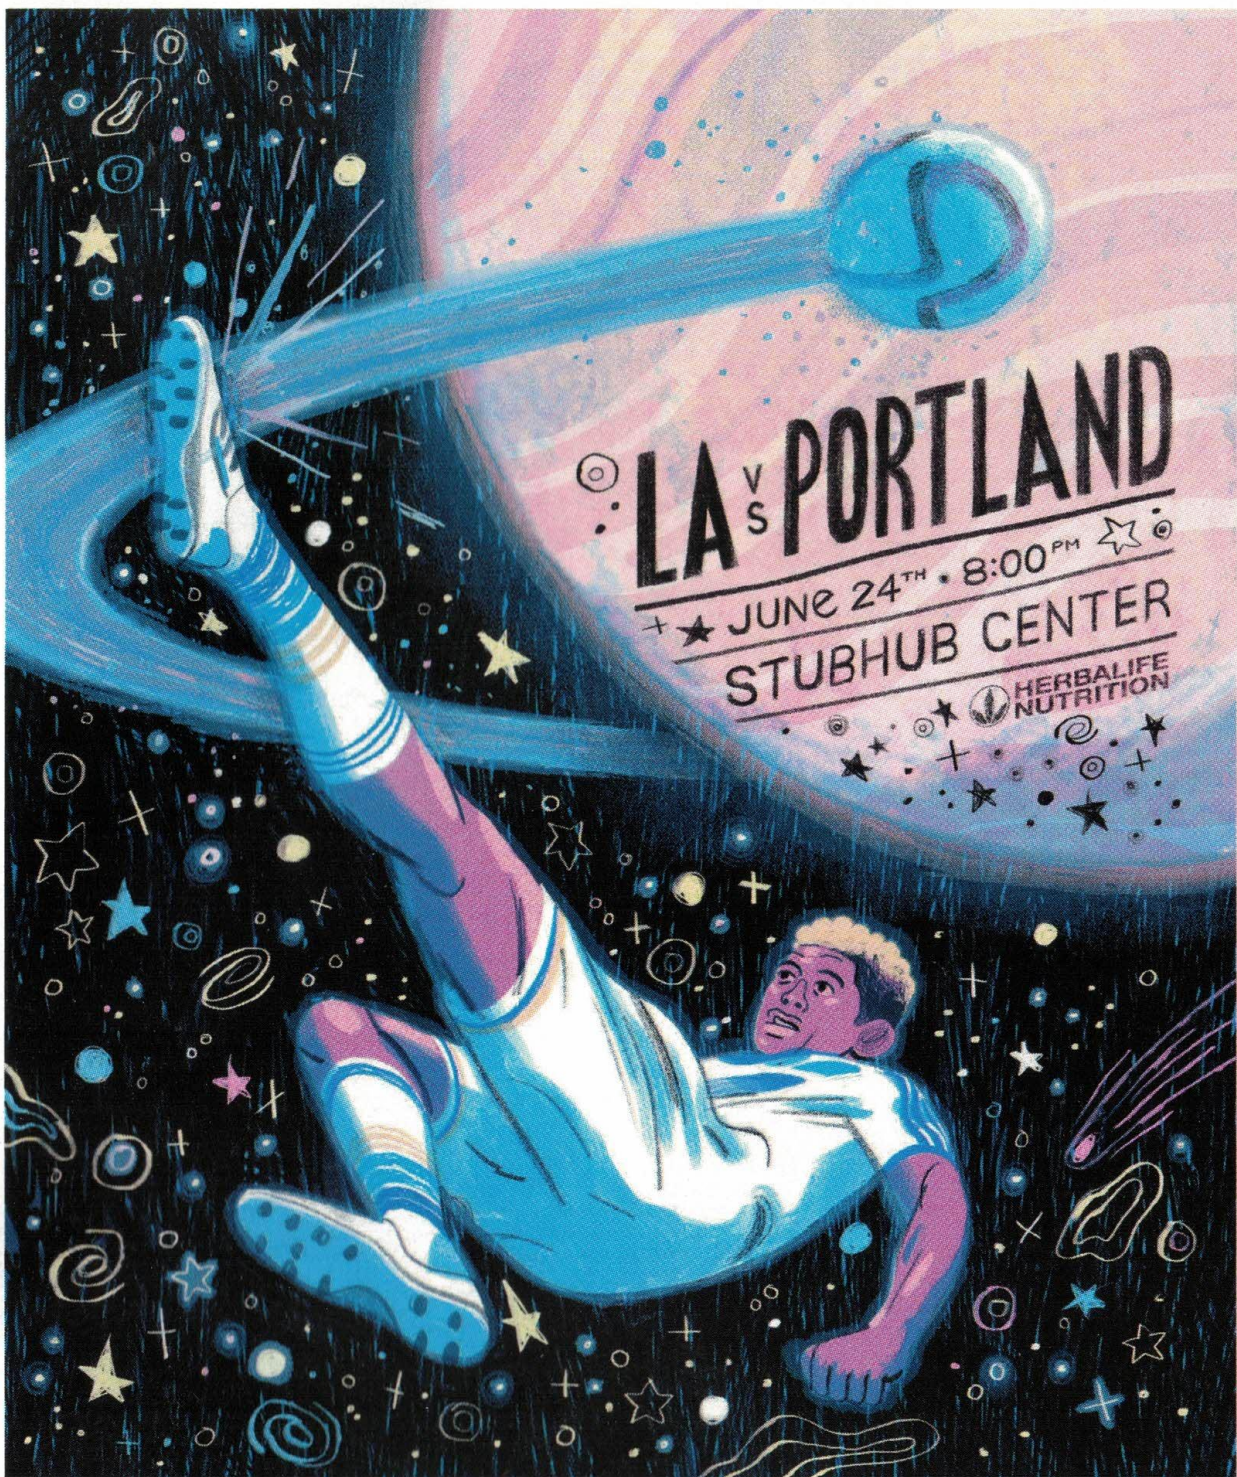

The LA Galaxy have unveiled the commemorative match poster for the LA Galaxy vs. Portland Timbers. This is the second season of the Galaxy's commemorative match poster series, an initiative in which the Galaxy work with local, national and international artists to design unique posters for each home match, with a limited supply available to benefit the LA Galaxy Foundation.

Designed by illustrator Richie Pope, the poster features Galaxy striker Gyasi Zardes performing a bicycle kick in space.

All of the proceeds from poster sales will go to the LA Galaxy Foundation. All commemorative match posters for the 2015 season will be available for purchase at <http://www.lagalaxy.com/posters>.

Fans can now also text "GALAXY" to 52182 during the match for the chance to win game-worn jerseys and other signed Galaxy memorabilia to benefit the LA Galaxy Foundation.
