Looking for a second straight weekend of three points last week, the LA Galaxy travelled to the brand new Orlando City Stadium looking to blemish OCSC's perfect record at home. The Galaxy had the match tied 1-1 up until the 90th minute, but the purple team scored in extra-time for the 2-1 win.

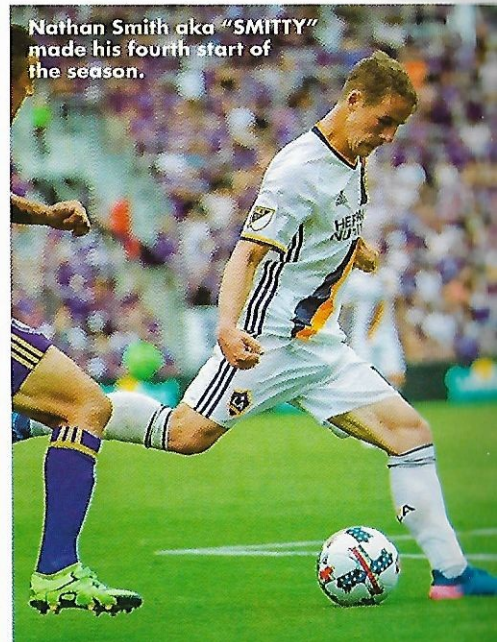

There was a lot of purple.

LA Galaxy, adidas and MLS partner in conjunction with Protect the Pitch Day

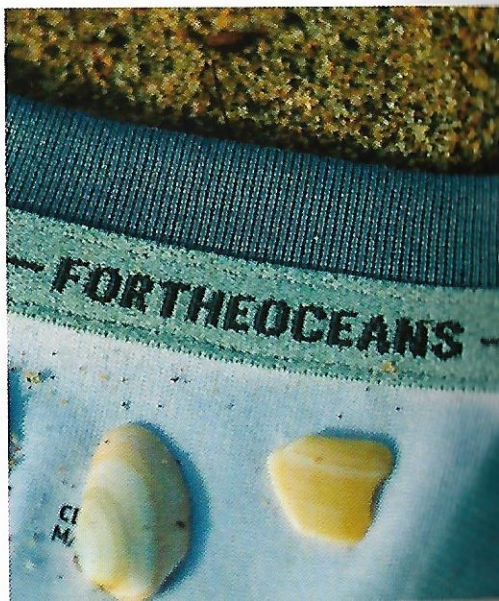

The LA Galaxy, adidas, Major League Soccer and Parley for the Oceans have united today to raise awareness around the harmful impact of marine plastic pollution with the unveiling of adidas MLS Parley club jerseys. The kits—each made from technical yarns containing Parley Ocean Plastic™—will be worn by both teams Sunday, April 23rd when the LA Galaxy host Seattle Sounders FC at StubHub Center.

The Galaxy will don the Parley jerseys on Sunday in conjunction with Protect the Pitch Day, an initiative by the LA Galaxy and StubHub Center to showcase the two organizations' committed effort to build a more sustainable and environmentally-friendly stadium.

Protect the Pitch is a program launched by the LA Galaxy and StubHub Center last year that focuses on reducing the environmental impact of LA Galaxy games and practices at StubHub Center, supporting environmental projects in our community, and inspiring fans to help create healthier, more sustainable communities. As part of Protect the Pitch, the Galaxy and StubHub Center will continue to implement various efforts designed to engage the community, save water, conserve energy, and reduce waste while involving and encouraging the Galaxy fan base to support these efforts.

In addition to donning the Parley jerseys Sunday, the LA Galaxy and StubHub Center will work to celebrate and highlight the various initiatives implemented to conserve energy, increase sustainability and reduce carbon footprint during the match. The LA Galaxy will sell Relan Tote Bags, which are made from recycled materials from the club's 2014 MLS Cup Championship banner previously hung inside StubHub Center. Fans will be able to purchase the LA Galaxy Relan Tote Bags at StubHub Center on Sunday and online by visiting squareup.com/market/la-galaxy-foundation/. Additionally, the live music featured at Pitch & Pale will be powered by energy created from bicycle-powering station.

Jack McInerney signing a “no-brainer” for the LA Galaxy | INSIDER

LA Galaxy head coach Curt Onalfo billed new forward Jack McInerney as a “no-brainer” addition to his squad’s attacking corps.

The Galaxy announced the acquisition of the 24-year-old striker off waivers on Tuesday. Most recently with the Portland Timbers, the forward boasts eight years’ experience in Major League Soccer and has notched 43 goals across 167 matches for four teams.

“He gives us depth at the forward position. A proven goal scorer in our league,” Curt Onalfo said. “He’s got a lot of experience and having said that, he’s still young at 24-years-old. He’s a no-brainer pickup to add depth to our offense.

“I just look at him as another attacking option that brings competition. That competition brings the most out of players. We know that he’s proven and he can do it. We’re going to have stretches in the year where Gio is not here and with the national team, same with [Gyasi Zardes]. It’s important that we always have enough firepower to be able to score goals.”

Drafted by the Philadelphia Union in the 2010 MLS SuperDraft, McInerney has made stops with Philadelphia, Columbus Crew SC, Montreal Impact, and Portland. McInerney was waived by Portland in the preseason after scoring five goals in 28 appearances for the Timbers.

“It’s a good opportunity to come to a club with a history of winning,” McInerney told reporters after his first session. “I’m coming here to get a chance to train and play, so I’m excited for the opportunity.”

LA Galaxy announce tailgate partnership with Jim Beam, Hornitos

Jim Beam and Hornitos have partnered with the LA Galaxy to host in-stadium tailgates at StubHub Center for the majority of remaining LA Galaxy home games in the 2017 season, the club announce today. Providing fans with early entry, live music, food trucks and drink specials, the LA Galaxy x Jim Beam and LA Galaxy x Hornitos Tailgates are the perfect way to start a gameday at StubHub Center. Fans first opportunity to experience this will be on Sunday ahead of the Galaxy's 1:00 p.m. PT kick off against Seattle

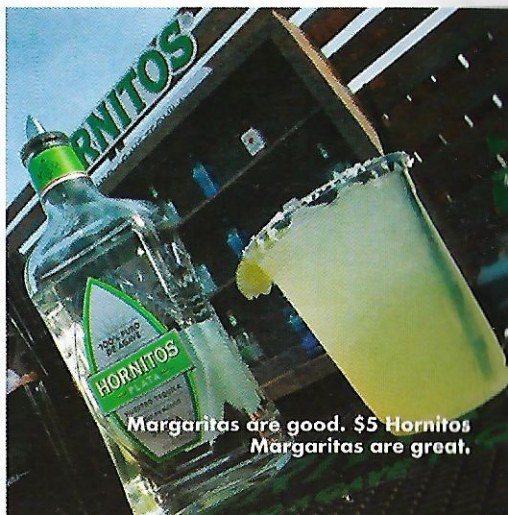

Sounders FC.

As part of the tailgates, California pop band Will Makar and The Red Line will serve as tailgates' house band, while fans will be treated to $5 Hornitos margaritas and $5 Jim Beam cocktails up until the halftime whistle.

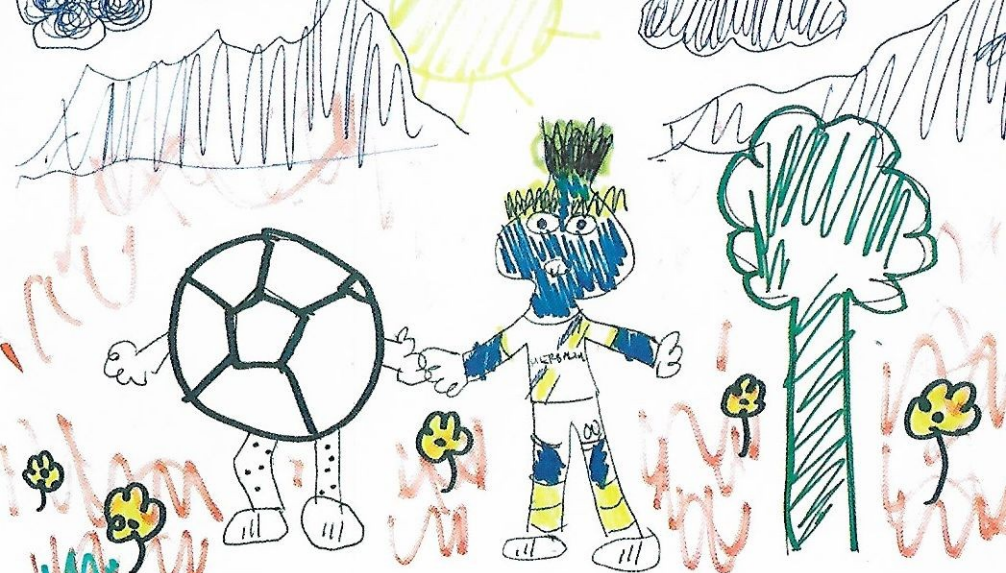

The tailgates will take place in StubHub Center's Pitch & Pale, located in the southeast corner of the stadium. Gates to the tailgate will open one hour prior to general gates on gameday, allowing tailgate patrons to be the first fans inside StubHub Center on gamedays.

The sweet-sounding Will Makar has signed on as the official house artist.

Margaritas are good. $5 Hornitos Margaritas are great.

LA Galaxy II looking to turn things around after rough start

After opening the 2017 season with an impressive 2-0 shutout win at home against Vancouver Whitecaps FC 2 nearly a month ago, Los Dos have lost three straight games in the regular season early going.

With a dedicated effort to increase the inclusion of the organization's younger and Academy talent, LA Galaxy II have plenty of adversity to conquer on gamedays for the results to turn their way. In their most recent match against Seattle Sounders FC 2 at home, Los Dos' starting lineup averaged the age of 20.5 years old.

Leading the way so far has been 19-year-old forward Ethan Zubak, who has bagged two goals in four starts so far this season. In 2016, Zubak scored two goals in 22 appearances.

On Saturday, April 22, Los Dos (1-3-0, 3 points) will take on Southern Californian rival Orange County Soccer Club (2-1-0, 6 points) at StubHub Center Track & Field Stadium. The two will face off in consecutive matches, when LA Galaxy II travel to Orange County SC on Saturday, May 6.

19-year-old Ethan Zubak is off to a hot start for Los Dos.

LA Galaxy name former goalkeeper Kevin Hartman Director of Girls' Academy

The LA Galaxy announced today that former goalkeeper Kevin Hartman has been named the Director of the LA Galaxy Girls' Academy, which is set to begin competition this fall. Hartman, 42, is one of the Galaxy's and Major League Soccer's most decorated players of all-time, representing LA from 1997-2006 and making 243 appearances while helping lead the club to two MLS Cup trophies (2002, 2005).

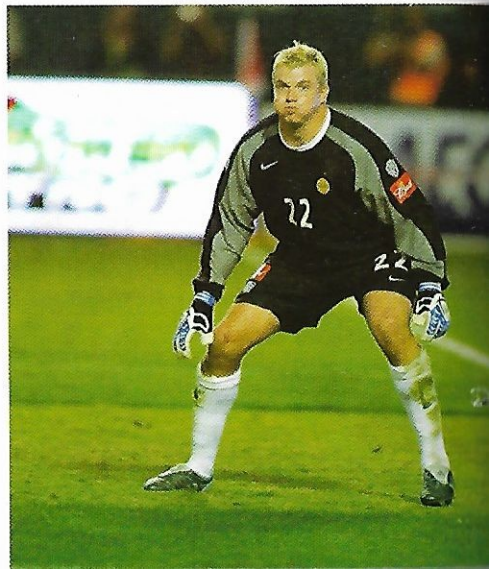

"It is an incredible honor for me to be named the Director of the LA Galaxy Girls' Academy program," said Hartman. "This club has meant so much to me throughout my career and I am deeply humbled to be able to lead this unique, innovative and monumental initiative from the LA Galaxy. Development among youth soccer players is critical, and providing the appropriate resources and platforms to facilitate that development is an important step. I am thrilled to be a part of implementing a structure for girls throughout Southern California to develop to grow and develop in a professional environment free of charge."

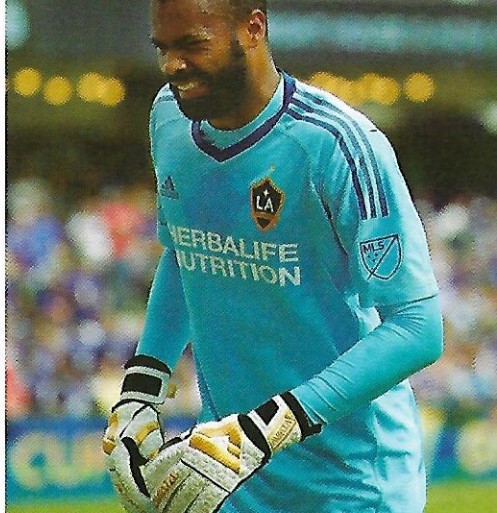

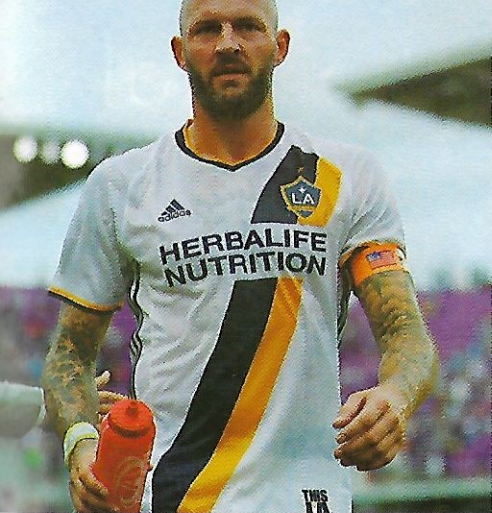

Founded last year, the LA Galaxy Girls' Academy is the first and only Girls' Academy program to be fully-funded by a Major League Soccer side, allowing talented local athletes to join free of charge. It will consist of U-14, U-15, U-16/17 and U-18/19 teams that will compete in the U.S. Soccer Girls' Development Academy League.

Hartman made 416 appearances with 411 starts across his career, including 243 appearances with the Galaxy, while recording a 1.21 GAA and 112 shutouts, a Major League Soccer record. He helped lead the LA Galaxy to two MLS Cups (2003, 2005), two Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups (2001, 2005) and two MLS Supporters'

Shields (1998, 2002). He is second all-time for the LA Galaxy in starts (238) and minutes (21,735).

Each team will consist of up to 23 players from within a 75-mile radius of StubHub Center, home of the LA Galaxy. With their inclusion, the LA Galaxy now have created multiple possibilities for girls across Southern California to compete in the U.S. Soccer Girls' Development Academy League, by complementing their alliance youth club, LA Galaxy San Diego, who have already been admitted to the Development Academy program. StubHub Center and the LA Galaxy will now house the LA Galaxy, LA Galaxy II, LA Galaxy Academy boys and girls teams and the LA Galaxy Blended Learning Program, which will all operate within the stadium facilities.

Jelle Van Damme says LA Galaxy must rebound after Orlando City defeat: "Let's do it" | INSIDER

The LA Galaxy dropped points during their recent trip to face Orlando City SC, but captain Jelle Van Damme believes the team to rebound heading into this weekend's match against Seattle Sounders FC.

Cyle Larin's stoppage time goal gave Orlando City SC a 2-1 win over Los Angeles last Saturday to resign the Galaxy to a 2-4-0 record on the year. Despite Larin's late tally, the Galaxy showed fight across wide stretches battling back from an early deficit on Romain Alessandrini's fourth goal in three matches.

Although the Galaxy were disappointed with the heartbreaking defeat, Van Damme believes his team needs to show more fortitude as they approach their first of three straight home games.

"Yes, we did very well on the goal. We dominated the second half," Van Damme said. "If we could get away with a point, we would of had something to build on. Now, it's a shame we leave with nothing. We have a new week and three home games coming up, so let's do it."

Curt Onalfo provides an update on goalkeeper Clement Diop | INSIDER

Goalkeeper Clement Diop's status for the LA Galaxy's clash with Seattle Sounders FC is up in the air after the 23-year-old suffered a hip injury last week.

Diop went down after making a daring stop of a Giles Barnes run in the penalty area in the 67th minute. As the Orlando City attacker rushed forward, Diop ran off his line to meet the threat and collided with the attacker to stop the chance.

The Parisian goalkeeper remained down for several minutes before continuing for the remainder of the match.

On Tuesday, Onalfo gave an update on Diop's status after the collision.

"He's struggling. He was a warrior, and he fought through the injury. It swelled up on him pretty bad. It was his hip. He was barely able to board the plane," Onalfo told reporters on Monday. "It was touch and go whether he'd be able to fly home. He was able to board the flight, but he's struggling. We have to look at him day to day and see how he progresses. He's in a tough spot right now physically."

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN
LAGALAXY.COM/CAMPS

LA Galaxy 2017 Soccer Camps are now open for registration at www.youth.lagalaxy.com. LA Galaxy Camps offer youth players exclusive opportunities to develop their skills in an elite training environment under dedicated Galaxy coaches and staff.

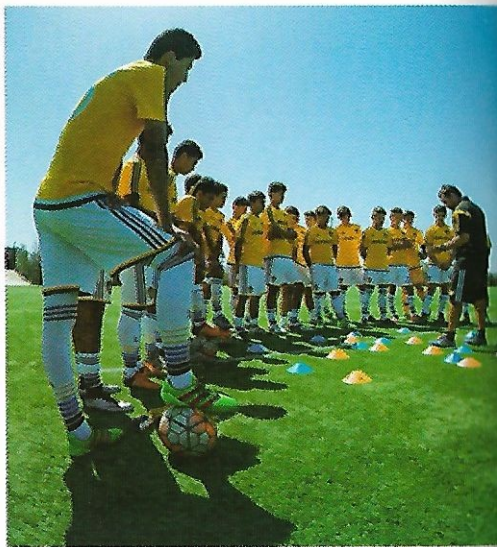

The Galaxy feature numerous camps for youth players, including Attacking and Defending Principles Camp, Goalkeeper Camp, Elite Camp, Full Day Camp, Female Soccer Camp, among others. For full descriptions, dates, and locations of each camp, visit www.youth.lagalaxy.com. The LA Galaxy have different camp locations throughout the South Bay, Orange County, Glendale, and Santa Barbara areas.

Each camp includes professional training, an LA Galaxy sack pack and water bottle, an LA Galaxy camp shirt, an LA Galaxy player appearance and autograph sessions, and a ticket to an LA Galaxy home game. Elite and Fantasy camp registrations include two tickets per participant.

LA Galaxy camps are designed to provide a better understanding of the game's overall tactics in a safe and fun environment. The Galaxy staff teaches using age-appropriate technical and tactical exercises designed by LA Galaxy Academy coaches with the player in mind. Players are put in an exciting soccer environment consisting of modern camp games, unique fitness learning, challenging skills demonstrations, and small-sided competitions. The Galaxy strive to identify and develop key players in the community that could advance to play for the LA Galaxy one day.
