LA Galaxy name Sigi Schmid Head Coach

Sigi Schmid has been named LA Galaxy Head Coach, the club announced Thursday. Curt Onalfo was relieved of his duties, effective immediately. Schmid, a two-time MLS Coach of the Year and two-time MLS Cup winner from his previous time with the Galaxy, Columbus Crew SC and Seattle Sounders FC, will coach his first game for the LA Galaxy today since 2004.

Schmid is the winningest-coach in MLS history with 254 wins across MLS Regular and Post Season play. Throughout his career, he has captured two MLS Cups (2002, 2008), a record five U.S. Open Cups (2001, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2014), three MLS Supporters' Shields (2002, 2008, 2014) and coached one of just two teams ever to capture a CONCACAF Champions Cup (2000). Additionally, he reached the MLS Cup Playoffs in 13 seasons, while recording 28 MLS Cup Playoff wins, the second most in MLS history. Schmid is one of two coaches in MLS history to guide two different teams to MLS Cup titles and he is one of three to coach in four total MLS Cup Finals.

"In the city of Los Angeles and throughout North America, the LA Galaxy are the iconic standard of success and innovation within soccer," said Schmid. "I am very proud to return to the Galaxy and I know the expectations here are to win championships each year, beginning with a sixth MLS Cup. I am thankful to AEG President and CEO Dan Beckerman, Galaxy President Chris Klein and Galaxy General Manager Pete Vagenas for the opportunity to lead this team. I will work tirelessly to again win trophies for the club, its players, our fans and the city of Los Angeles."

Throughout his professional coaching career, which began in 1999 as the LA Galaxy Head Coach, Schmid has spent time with the Galaxy (1999-2004), Columbus Crew SC (2006-2008) and Seattle Sounders FC (2009-2016). During his time in MLS, Schmid has compiled a 228-165-113 record during the MLS Regular Season.

"After a great deal of communication with Chris Klein, Dan Beckerman and Mr. Anschutz we felt this was the best decision for our club going forward," said LA Galaxy General Manager Pete Vagenas. "There are a lot of games left in the second half of the MLS season and we believe Sigi can help guide this team while competing for a playoff position and our sixth MLS Cup. We will provide Sigi the necessary support and resources for this club to be successful."

Schmid's coaching career began in 1980 when he became head coach of the UCLA Men's Soccer Program after serving as an assistant in previous years. He remained with UCLA, his alma mater, for nearly 20 years, leading the team to a 322-63-33 record, 16-consecutive playoff appearances and three NCAA championships (1985, 1990, 1997) while becoming one of the most successful soccer college coaches of all time. Following the 1997 season, Schmid was named NCAA Coach of the Year.

His time with UCLA led him to his first professional coaching job when he took over the LA Galaxy in 1999. In his first season with the club, he led the team to a 17-9-0 record and was voted the MLS Coach of the Year. From 1999-2004, Schmid led the LA Galaxy to four major trophies: the 2002 MLS Cup and Supporters' Shield, the 2001 U.S. Open Cup and the 2000 CONCACAF Champions' Cup. Altogether, his Galaxy teams recorded a 79-53-32 record and reached the MLS Cup final four times, winning three division crowns.

LA Galaxy Sign Mexican Midfielder Jonathan dos Santos as Designated Player

The LA Galaxy have signed Mexican midfielder Jonathan dos Santos from Spain's Villarreal CF as the team's third Designated Player, the club announced Thursday. Dos Santos, a regular starter for the Mexican National Team, joins the Galaxy after playing for Barcelona and Villarreal in Spain's top-flight division, La Liga.

"Jonathan is a quality player that we think instantly becomes a top midfielder in Major League Soccer," said LA Galaxy General Manager Pete Vagenas. "His signing will significantly improve our team as we continue to push for the playoffs and, ultimately, a sixth MLS Cup. We believe Jonathan will be a leader during the second half of this season and for years to come. We look forward to him joining our squad."

Dos Santos joins the Galaxy after most recently representing Mexico in the 2017 FIFA Confederations Cup, where he was named to the tournament's Best XI after starting in four games and helping his country reach the semifinals. The midfielder began his career with F.C. Barcelona in 2009 before joining Villarreal, where he has made nearly 90 league appearances and scored four goals since 2014.

"Jonathan is an excellent midfielder with a wide range of technical abilities," said LA Galaxy Head Coach Sigi Schmid. "He can fit into our lineup at a number of different positions and improve our team in multiple ways. He still has his best years of playing in front of him and we are excited to add him to our team."

Born in Mexico City, Mexico, Dos Santos joined Barcelona's famed academy system, La Masia, where he developed before making his eventual debut with the first team as a 19-year-old on Oct. 28, 2009, during a match in Spain's Copa del Rey. He remained with Barcelona through 2014, making 29 appearances in all competitions, including matches played in the UEFA Champions' League, La Liga SuperCopa and the Copa del Rey.

In 2014, Dos Santos moved to Villarreal CF in La Liga, where he developed into one of Spain's standout midfielders. During his time with the club, the Mexican international has made over 120 appearances in all competitions, while scoring seven times and adding eight assists.

Internationally, Dos Santos has made 29 appearances across all competitions as a member of the Mexican National Team, including matches in FIFA World Cup Qualifying and the FIFA Confederations Cup. The midfielder made his debut for his country in 2009 at the age of 19.

Dos Santos will join the LA Galaxy as the team's third Designated Player, alongside Frenchman Romain Alessandrini and his brother, Giovanni dos Santos.

LA Galaxy forward Jose Conde and defender Giovanni Martinez named to Special Olympics Unified Sports All-Star Match

Forward Jose Conde and Defender Giovanni Martinez have been selected to participate in the 4th Annual Special Olympics Unified Sports All-Star Soccer Match, presented by MLS WORKS and ESPN, the league announced today. The All-Star Soccer Match will take place at 2:45 p.m. PT on Tuesday, Aug. 1 at Toyota Park in Bridgeview, Ill. The match will be streamed live on MLS' Facebook and YouTube pages.

Conde and Martinez are members of the LA Galaxy SOSC Unified Soccer Team Exchange program, a partnership between the LA Galaxy and Special Olympics Southern California that brings individuals with and without intellectual disabilities, ages 16-25, together as teammates to participate in unique training, competition and social experiences.

For the fourth year in a row, MLS WORKS and ESPN will host 44 delegates as part of the Special Olympics Unified Sports All-Star Experience, which this year will feature participants representing all 22 MLS clubs. The Unified Sports All-Star soccer teams are comprised of players with and without intellectual disabilities, and will play an 11 v. 11 match consisting of two 25-minute halves.

The game will showcase the Special Olympics Unified

Sports exchange program, the cornerstone of the ongoing partnership between MLS, ESPN and Special Olympics North America. Through the Unified Sports soccer exchange program, Unified teams from MLS cities travel to other MLS markets to compete in exhibition matches with their Special Olympics counterparts.

The match is part of the one-year countdown to Special Olympics' 50th anniversary celebration which will take place in Chicago July 17-22, 2018. Included in next year's events will be the first ever Unified Football (Soccer) Cup which will showcase 24 Unified teams from around the world.

The best in MLS will face Spanish giants Real Madrid, the newly minted back-to-back reigning UEFA Champions League winners, in the 2017 MLS All-Star Game presented by Target on August 2 at Soldier Field in Chicago. The summer showcase will air at 5:30 p.m. PT on FS1, Univision, TSN and TVA Sports domestically as well as more than 170 countries globally.

LA Galaxy fans can see Conde, Martinez and the rest of LA Galaxy Special Olympics Unified when they are next in action, on Sunday, Aug. 27 after the LA Galaxy's match against San Jose Earthquakes at 4 p.m. PT.

Children's Hospital Los Angeles is hosting its inaugural Play LA event on the field at the iconic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum on Saturday, August 5, 2017. The event will unite the robust Los Angeles sports community for the ultimate "Play Day", while promoting healthy and active lifestyles. The day will be comprised of a family festival, exclusive clinic stations and a special musical performance. All funds that are raised through sponsorships and ticket sales will help ensure that critical, lifesaving care is available to all patients who need it.

More children receive care from CHLA than any other hospital in the region—and often CHLA comes to the rescue for children when other hospitals run out of medical options for their care. By joining the All-Stars for Kids, you will be supporting the only hospital dedicated solely to the health of children in Los Angeles. We look forward to having you join the TEAM!

JUNE – AUGUST
REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN
LAGALAXY.COM/CAMPS

LA Galaxy 2017 Soccer Camps are now open for registration at www.youth.lagalaxy.com. LA Galaxy Camps offer youth players exclusive opportunities to develop their skills in an elite training environment under dedicated Galaxy coaches and staff.

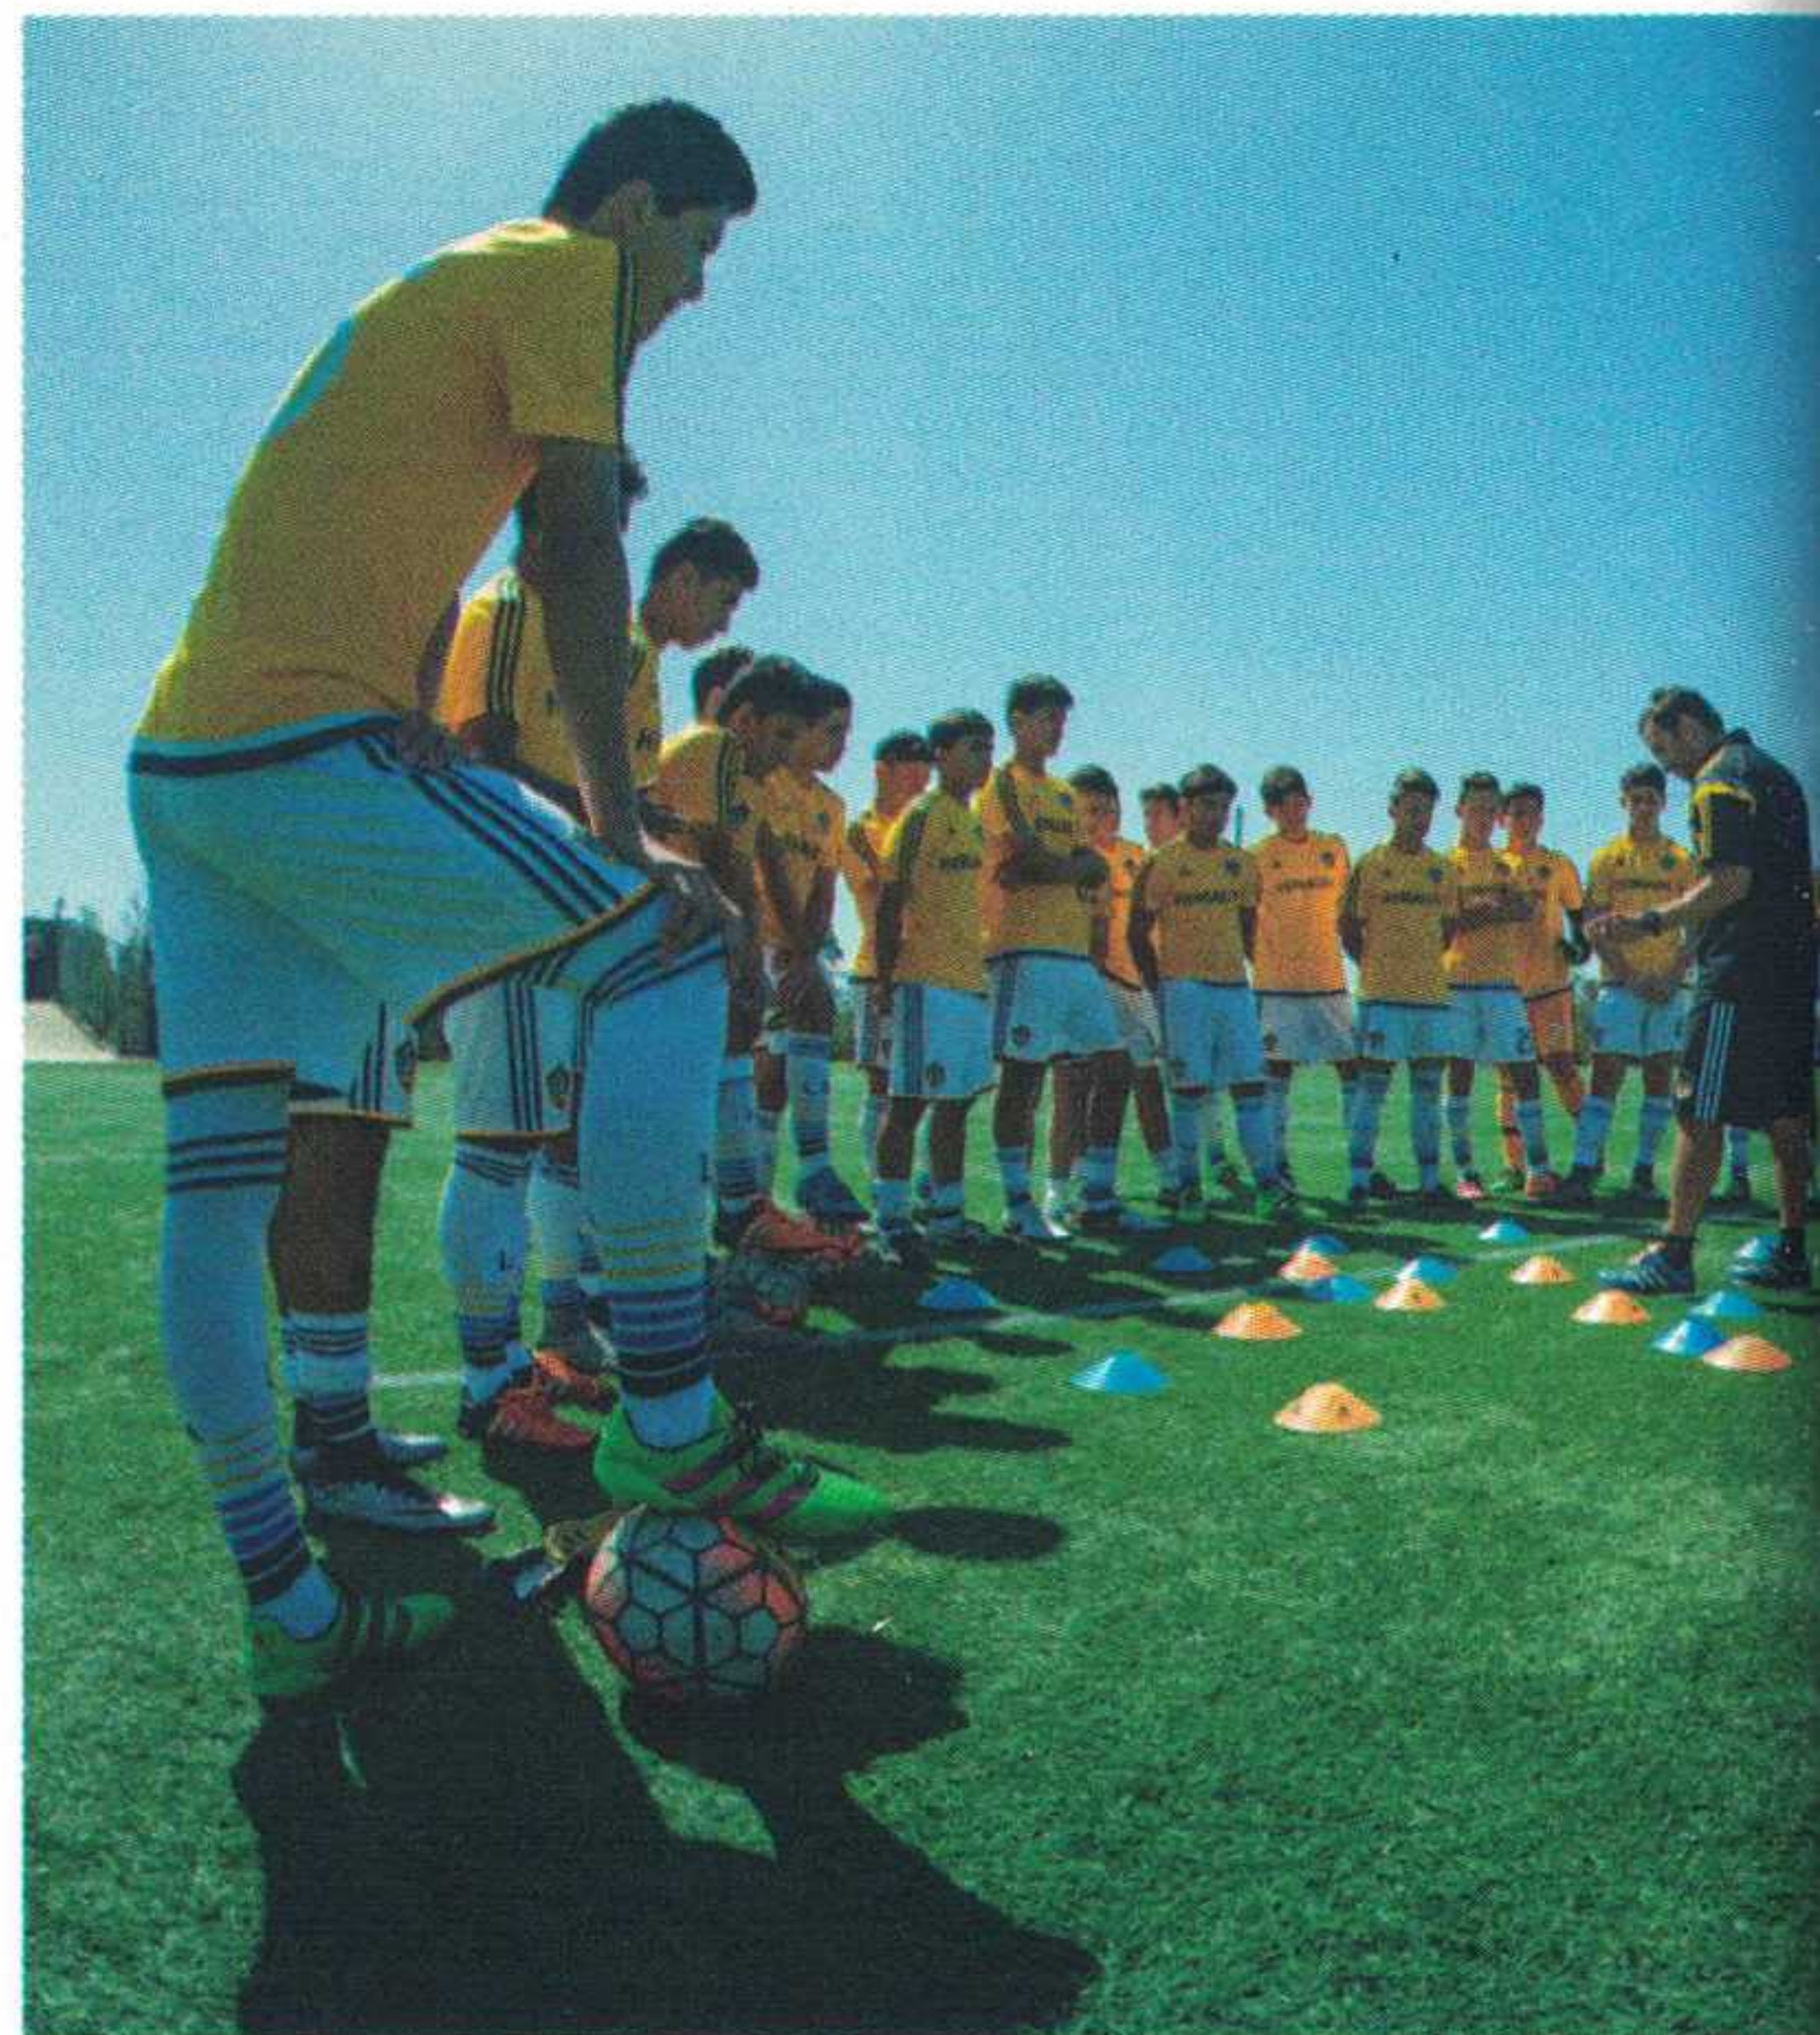

The Galaxy feature numerous camps for youth players, including Attacking and Defending Principles Camp, Goalkeeper Camp, Elite Camp, Full Day Camp, Female Soccer Camp, among others. For full descriptions, dates, and locations of each camp, visit www.youth.lagalaxy.com. The LA Galaxy have different camp locations throughout the South Bay, Orange County, Glendale, and Santa Barbara areas.

Each camp includes professional training, an LA Galaxy sack pack and water bottle, an LA Galaxy camp shirt, an LA Galaxy player appearance and autograph sessions, and a ticket to an LA Galaxy home game. Elite and Fantasy camp registrations include two tickets per participant.

LA Galaxy camps are designed to provide a better understanding of the game's overall tactics in a safe and fun environment. The Galaxy staff teaches using age-appropriate technical and tactical exercises designed by LA Galaxy Academy coaches with the player in mind. Players are put in an exciting soccer environment consisting of modern camp games, unique fitness learning, challenging skills demonstrations, and small-sided competitions. The Galaxy strive to identify and develop key players in the community that could advance to play for the LA Galaxy one day.
