LA Galaxy to celebrate Pediatric Cancer Awareness Night after month-long support of Childhood Cancer Awareness Month

The LA Galaxy will celebrate Pediatric Cancer Awareness Night tonight at StubHub Center when the team hosts Real Salt Lake, honoring the Make-A-Wish® Greater Los Angeles as the official Community Partner of the Match. The match, presented by Dannon, during Pediatric Cancer Awareness Night will culminate a month of support from the LA Galaxy, in conjunction with MLS WORKS, of the 4th annual Kick Childhood Cancer Campaign, which encourages fans to "Go Gold" to raise awareness and funds during Childhood Cancer Awareness Month.

In honor of the Community Partner of the Match, the LA Galaxy Foundation will host 100 children and families at StubHub Center for the match. Specialty Make-A-Wish® t-shirts will also be sold at the LA Galaxy Foundation booths.

The Galaxy will also auction off the Kick Childhood Cancer warm-ups that players have been wearing throughout the month of September. All warm-ups will be autographed and available through text to bid platform and link. Fans can text GALAXY to 52182 or go to <http://www.galaxy.gesture.com> to register and start bidding.

In advance of Pediatric Cancer Awareness Night, the LA Galaxy Girls' Academy visited Children's Hospital Los Angeles this Thursday, Sept. 28. This visit allowed LA Galaxy Girls' Academy athletes, who are in their inaugural month of play, to tour the hospital and volunteer with the Literally Healing Program, using books to lift the spirits of CHLA patients and their families.

As part of Pediatric Cancer Awareness Night tonight at StubHub Center, the LA Galaxy match will also include the following initiatives to support:

- Commemorative gold adidas Nativo 2017 Official Match Ball will be used
- The LA Galaxy team captain will wear a Kick Childhood Cancer gold captain's armband
- All Players and PRO referees will wear special edition Kick Childhood Cancer t-shirts during pre-game activities
- Players will wear a commemorative gold ribbon jersey patch
- Coaches and training staff will be provided with club specific Kick Childhood Cancer scarves
- Gold corner flags and goal nets will be featured throughout the month

In addition to Saturday's Pediatric Cancer Awareness Night, the Galaxy implemented multiple initiatives in support of the effort of fighting childhood cancer during Galaxy games and dedicated community programming throughout this month.

Earlier this month, Galaxy supporters group Angel City Brigade held a blood drive at StubHub Center on Sept. 12 in support of Children's Hospital Los Angeles, encouraging fans and Galaxy staff to donate blood for CHLA.

In conjunction with Childhood Cancer Awareness Month, the LA Galaxy visited Children's Hospital Los Angeles, with various players from LA Galaxy and LA Galaxy II spending time with patients. LA Galaxy players Brian Rowe, Daniel Steres, Jose Villarreal, Jon Kempin, Emmanuel Boateng, Nathan Smith and LA Galaxy II players Justin Dhillon, Bennett Sneddon, Ethan Zubak and Miguel Aguilar were on hand at CHLA to meet with patients as a part of the visit. Additionally, Alcatel, the LA Galaxy's Official Smartphone and Tablet partner, donated 50 tablets and 25 smartphones to CHLA as Galaxy players delivered the gifts during the visit. Photo and video of the visit to CHLA can be downloaded here.

Additionally, LA Galaxy II and the LA Galaxy Foundation hosted Pediatric Cancer Night in support of the Jessie Rees Foundation and all those battling pediatric cancer during the team's match against Reno 1868 FC. At the game, the club, LA Galaxy Foundation and Jessie Rees Foundation honored Fredy, a young local boy battling leukemia, currently in remission since being diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic leukemia in August 2016. Those in attendance at the match were encouraged to "Go Gold," wearing gold clothing and accessories to the match. Additionally, the game was played with gold soccer nets and gold corner flags.

LA Galaxy launch new mobile app to enhance fan experience in collaboration with GlobalLogic

The LA Galaxy, in conjunction with official digital technology partner GlobalLogic, has announced the launch of the LA Galaxy App, a mobile platform that will offer fans access to the latest team news, stats and highlights in addition to several easy and accessible features to improve fan experiences – ticketing, concessions and merchandise – for fans at StubHub Center and abroad. The app, free of charge, is available to download now on mobile devices at the iOS store and for Android users.

"We are thrilled to launch the LA Galaxy App with GlobalLogic," said LA Galaxy President Chris Klein. "Fan experience continues to be one of our primary objectives and we are excited to launch a comprehensive platform to offer our fans easier access, information and experiences at our stadium and abroad.

We are proud to have worked alongside GlobalLogic to create this innovative digital app for our fans."

As part of the club's investment in the digital experience, the LA Galaxy have also partnered with Flash Seats® to improve fans' access to tickets through the new app, which is now also integrated and enabled with the team's and venue's official ticket resale partner, StubHub.

With the LA Galaxy App, Flash Seats® will be fully accessible as a method of ticket delivery. Fans can conveniently scan in with a mobile device upon entry to the stadium without paper tickets, ensuring that tickets cannot be lost or stolen. Also within the app, fans will be able to manage their LA Galaxy Season Ticket Membership inventory, post tickets directly to the team's official resale marketplace, StubHub, and easily transfer tickets to others until the start time of each event.

Additionally, concessions access at StubHub Center will be improved through the LA Galaxy App through a new partnership with Tapin2, which offers fans a new and convenient way to order with a push of a button. Fans utilizing the LA Galaxy App can order food and beverages for delivery directly to their seats in certain sections of the stadium. Additionally, fans are now able to pre-order food and beverages for express pickup at the Rock &

Brews stand on the Southeast corner of the concourse.

The LA Galaxy App will also offer fans new ways to receive merchandise from the LA Galaxy Team Store or to bid on exclusive memorabilia. Through the app, fans can order merchandise for delivery directly to their seats at StubHub Center. LA Galaxy Foundation auctions will also be available, giving fans the chance to win once-in-a-lifetime experiences or exclusive autographed memorabilia and prizes, with proceeds benefiting the LA Galaxy Foundation.

For each LA Galaxy match, fans can also be a part of selecting the LA Galaxy Man of the Match, sponsored by Allstate, by voting exclusively through the app. The LA Galaxy app will incorporate additional features in the coming months.

Last year, GlobalLogic and the LA Galaxy announced that the club selected GlobalLogic, a leader in digital product development services, as the official digital technology partner of the LA Galaxy. As part of this partnership, GlobalLogic and the LA Galaxy have worked together to design and build a next-generation digital platform and mobile application for enhanced fan engagement.

Download the LA Galaxy App from the App Store on iOS and Android devices today!

Shared Plates, an L.A. Kitchen initiative, is a city-wide weekend of dinner parties from Oct. 6-8, 2017 to rally Angelenos in the fight against hunger, food waste, and unemployment. Sigi Schmid praises Gyasi Zardes' adaptability in first-ever start at right back

By: Adam Serrano

Given the conditions, the Gyasi Zardes right back experiment was a relative success for LA Galaxy head coach Sigi Schmid.

Zardes made his first-ever appearance at outside back in last Sunday's 2-1 defeat to Sporting Kansas City, going 90 minutes in the loss. The 26-year-old forward turned outside back made the appearance with only limited practice time over the last few weeks.

With the Galaxy conceding an astounding eight goals in their last two matches, Schmid felt the time was now to give Zardes a run out in defense.

"We needed a right back. We had nobody and I think Gyasi's strength is wide whether it's wide midfield or in the back," Schmid explained. "Gyasi for his first game at right back had an excellent game. There are obviously things he can pick up on, but overall, he handled a difficult situation very well."

Zardes' showing was an up-and-down affair as it was clear that he was still adapting to his new defensive responsibilities. His natural speed and impressive work rate seemed well-suited to the position, however, as was repeatedly able to help the Galaxy spark attacks while also chase down Sporting's speedy attackers.

The appearance was not without its foibles, however, as Sporting targeted the Galaxy right side early and often, ultimately scoring the game-winner with a well-timed run down the flank. Statistics-wise, Zardes showed his versatility, co-leading the team in tackles with three on the evening, while completing 90 percent of his passes.

"For a first game, I think it was good. The first half was difficult for us because the team played with three players on the right side to focus us to defend. The second half was better for him. We'll see if he keeps Gyasi at this post."

Defender Dave Romney was quick to agree that Zardes adapted well to the position, "It's tough and you've got to get used to the position especially if you're on a team where the outside backs move up a lot and you have to have a lot of communication. [He was] in unfamiliar territory, I thought he did a good job."

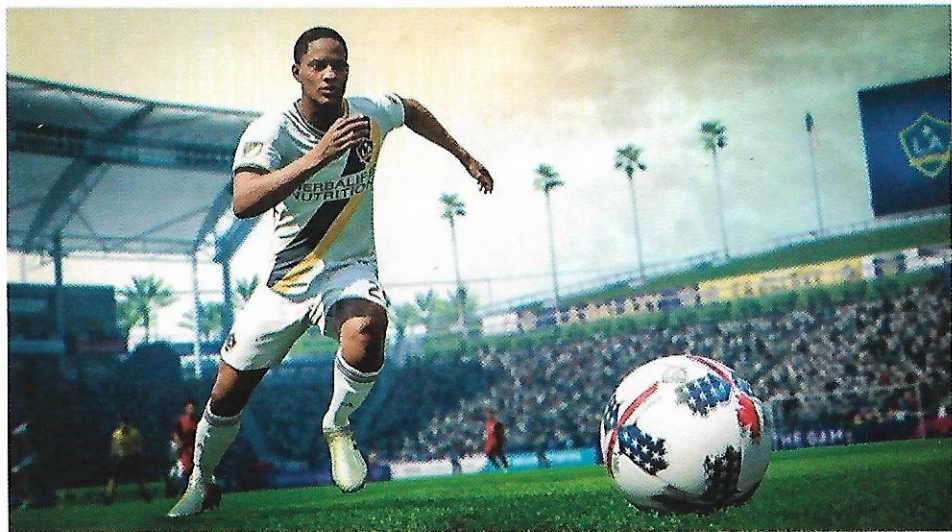

Schmid remains uncertain whether Zardes will remain to finish the season, but if he is called upon again, the Galaxy's boss is confident in the Hawthorne native.

"If that's where he ends up playing, he's got to play more games there. It'll come," Schmid said. "But he's an intelligent guy, he's got the engine to play there. Today, he was helping me out as much as anything else."

It's here! EA SPORTS™ FIFA 18 has dropped and you can play at StubHub Center

The time has finally come.

The hit game dropped on Sept. 29 and features the home of the LA Galaxy as one of the unique playable stadiums for PlayStation®4, Xbox One and PC systems. StubHub Center is the first soccer-specific venue in Major League Soccer history to be included.

"We are very excited that EA SPORTS chose to make our home the first soccer-specific stadium in MLS to be featured in EA SPORTS FIFA," said LA Galaxy President

Chris Klein. "The game is incredibly popular and we are excited that our fans locally and across the world will be able to play FIFA 18 matches at StubHub Center."

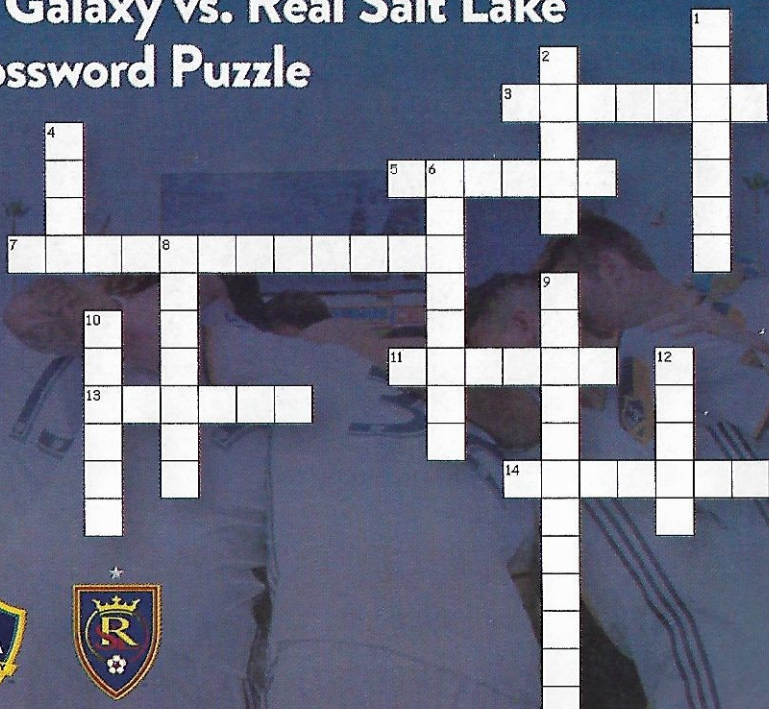

All facets of the venue from its iconic palm trees to its towering video board are included in the game in stunning detail.

"StubHub Center's inclusion in FIFA 18 is a testament to the hard work and investment from AEG, StubHub Center and the LA Galaxy to make this one of North America's most prominent soccer stadiums," said StubHub Center General Manager Katie Pandolfo. "With our venue now a part of EA SPORTS FIFA, we look forward to showing off that hard work and investment to FIFA 18 players worldwide."

As part of the new game, Alex Hunter will join the LA Galaxy and play at StubHub Center in FIFA 18 The Journey, which will feature LA Galaxy Homegrown forward Gyasi Zardes in a speaking role. Hunter, the talented young English forward, joins the Galaxy in Los Angeles after a breakout year in the Premier League last season during FIFA 17 The Journey, one of the most heralded additions to the EA SPORTS™ FIFA franchise.

FALL & WINTER CAMPS

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN

LAGALAXY.COM/CAMPS

LA Galaxy 2017 Fall and Winter Camps are now open for registration at www.youth.lagalaxy.com. LA Galaxy Camps offer youth players exclusive opportunities to develop their skills in an elite training environment under dedicated Galaxy coaches and staff.

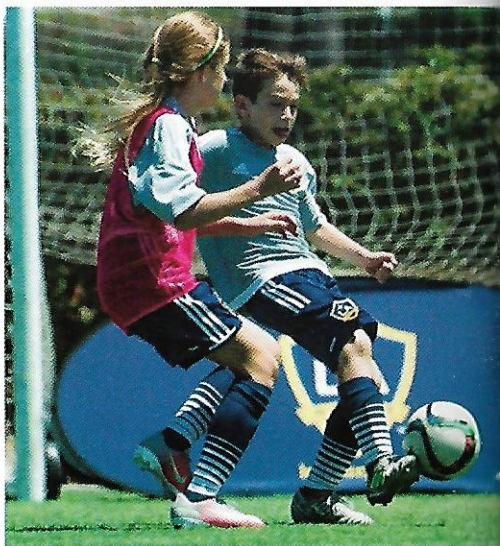

The Galaxy feature numerous camps for youth players, including Attacking and Defending Principles Camp, Goalkeeper Camp, Elite Camp, Full Day Camp, Female Soccer Camp, among others. For full descriptions, dates, and locations of each camp, visit www.youth.lagalaxy.com. The LA Galaxy have different camp locations throughout the South Bay, Orange County, Glendale, and Thousand Oaks areas.

Each camp includes professional training, an LA Galaxy sack pack and water bottle, an LA Galaxy camp shirt, an LA Galaxy player appearance and autograph sessions (select locations only), and a ticket to an LA Galaxy home game. Elite and Fantasy camp registrations include two tickets per participant.

LA Galaxy camps are designed to provide a better understanding of the game's overall tactics in a safe and fun environment. The Galaxy staff teaches age-appropriate technical and tactical exercises designed by LA Galaxy Academy coaches with the player in mind. Players are put in an exciting soccer environment consisting of modern camp games, unique fitness learning, challenging skills demonstrations, and small-sided competitions. The Galaxy strive to identify and develop key players in the community that could advance to play for the LA Galaxy one day.
