he day has finally come! The LA Galaxy unveiled a statue of legendary midfielder David Beckham before today's game as Beckham is inducted into the club's Ring of Honor. The #BeckhamStatue was unveiled in the new Legends Plaza at Dignity Health Sports Park, where statues of other Galaxy stars will eventually accompany Beckham.

"The LA Galaxy are a very special club to me, so to receive this honour is incredible and very humbling," said David Beckham. "Personally, I will always be eternally grateful for the amazing welcome the club, the fans and the city of Los Angeles gave me and my family from the minute we first arrived. My time playing and the friends we made during that period are so important to me - and Los Angeles, in so many ways, will always feel like a home to us.

The LA Galaxy is a club whose leaders and fans have done so much for soccer in the USA, so to be part of this club's great history is a privilege and something that makes me and my family very proud."

Beckham's statue marks the first of its kind in Major League Soccer. Beckham joined the LA Galaxy in 2007 as the biggest signing in Major League Soccer history. He remained with the club through 2012, making 98 appearances and adding 18 goals and 40 assists while winning two MLS Cup trophies. Throughout his career, Beckham played at the biggest clubs in the world, including Manchester United, Real Madrid, A.C. Milan and Paris Saint-Germain in addition to the LA Galaxy.

"We greatly look forward to honoring one of the most influential players in LA Galaxy and Major League Soccer history," said LA Galaxy President Chris Klein. "David helped transform this league and the sport in the United States. He has played an important role in making the LA Galaxy the league's most iconic brand and most successful club. This honor is well deserved. David will forever be a part of the fabric of Major League Soccer and the LA Galaxy."

Additionally, as part of David Beckham's lasting impact on the city of Los Angeles and the sport of soccer, the LA Galaxy, David Beckham and Herbalife Nutrition unveiled a refurbished turf field and David Beckham mural in downtown Los Angeles yesterday, at The Salvation Army Red Shield Youth and Community Center.

As part of Beckham's commitment to local Los Angeles youth, this field will provide a safe soccer environment to over 2,000 youths monthly in an underserved neighborhood in Downtown LA. The field was built with generous donations from Herbalife Nutrition, AEG, the LA Galaxy Foundation and David Beckham.

"This is my promise to LA Galaxy fans. We will strive to make you proud each day. We will fight for every ball. We will never stop competing. We will turn our home into a fortress once again. We will always remember that we play for Los Angeles. This is my promise to you." – Head Coach Guillermo Barros Schelotto here's two new men at the reins of the five-time MLS Cup Champions, both with an impressive pedigree who are poised to lead the LA Galaxy back to MLS glory.

Their names are Guillermo Barros Schelotto and Dennis te Kloese. Te Kloese, named General Manager last December, brought in Schleotto as the new head coach in January. Since, the two have shaped the team and the roster into one fit for the high expectations of the 2019 campaign.

This offseason, the Te Kloese re-signed many key players to the LA Galaxy roster, highlighted by the new designated player contract of Zlatan Ibrahimovic. New exciting additions include Uruguayan center back Diego Polenta and Mexican winger Uriel Antuna, both of whom arm the Galaxy with crucial defensive and attacking options.

Te Kloese joined the LA Galaxy after serving as the director of national teams for the Mexican Football Federation and will oversee all aspects of LA Galaxy soccer operations, including first-team, LA Galaxy II and LA Galaxy Academy decisions. Te Kloese will be responsible for any player acquisition and scouting, managing the coaching staff, technical staff and youth development programs.

Te Kloese had worked for the Mexican Football Federation (FMF) since 2011, most recently as the director of national teams, where he oversaw men's and women's youth and senior-level programs. Prior to his time as director, Te Kloese served as the director of FMF youth national teams, where he was influential in helping lead the program to notable accomplishments during his time there, including capturing the 2012 Summer Olympics Gold Medal for the men's soccer, defeating Brazil in the final.

Head Coach Guillermo Barros Schelotto joined the LA Galaxy in 2019 after completing his third season with Boca Juniors, where he led the historic club to two Argentine Primera División championships.

As a player, Schelotto won six league titles and four Copa Libertadores in 10 seasons with Boca Juniors before signing with Columbus Crew in 2007, where he won one MLS Cup, two Supporters' Shields, and was named 2008 Landon Donovan MLS MVP and 2008 MLS Cup MVP.

Schelotto began his managerial career with Club Atlético Lanús of Argentina's Primera División in 2012. He won the Copa Sudamericana in 2013 with the club.

After four seasons with Lanús, Schelotto was named manager of Boca Juniors in March 2016. In his first full season, Boca won the Argentine Primera División, a feat they would repeat in the 2017-18 campaign.

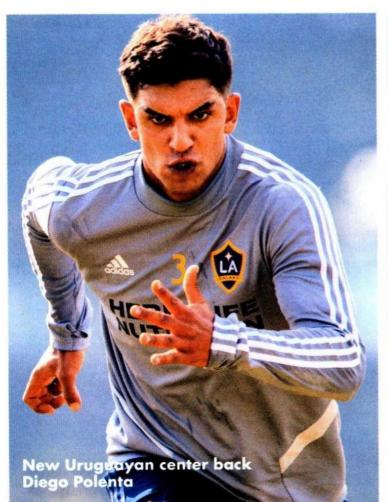

Born in La Plata, Argentina, Schelotto's career as a player began with his boyhood club, Gimnasia y Esgrima La Plata in 1991. He spent five seasons with Gimnasia before being signed by the Argentinian powerhouse Boca Juniors, where he would record 300 appearances and over 80 goals as a forward.

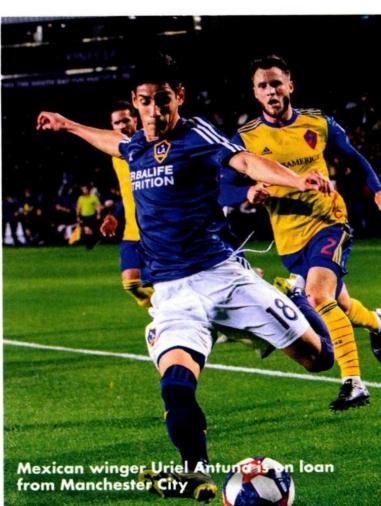

In 2007, Schelotto left Argentina to sign with Columbus Crew. Schelotto became the Crew's first-ever designated player in 2008. That season, he tallied seven goals and 19 assists and was named 2008 Landon Donovan MLS MVP. He led the Crew to a Supporters' Shield and their first MLS Cup win in that same season. He was named 2008 MLS Cup MVP for his three assists in the Crew's

3-1 win over New York Red Bulls at Dignity Health Sports Park. He won the Supporters' Shield again for the Crew in 2009.

In 2011, Schelotto returned to his first club, Gimnasia y Esgrima, and retired there as a player in that same season.

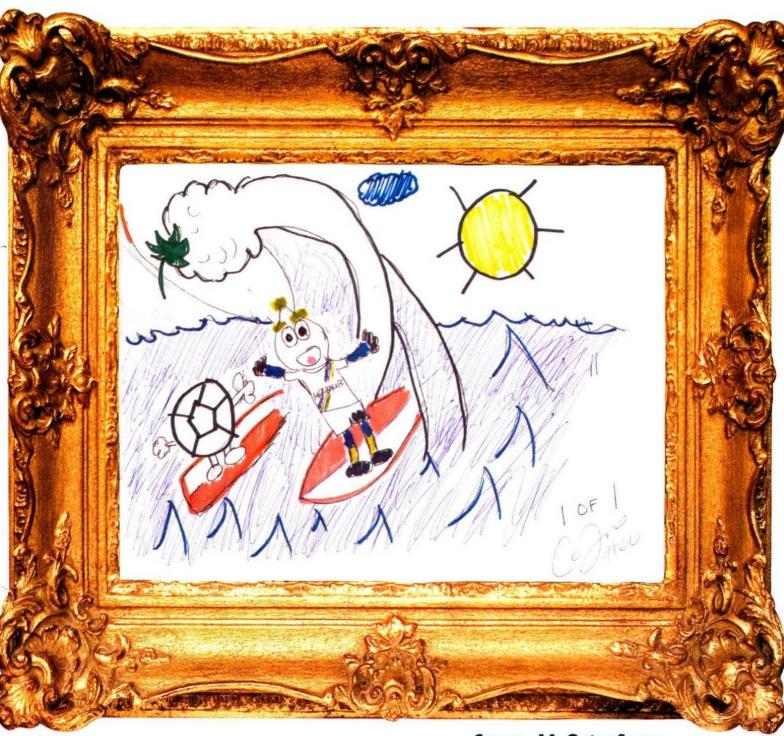

COZMO'S CRAZY COLORING CORNER

ant to have you or your kiddo's favorite drawing of the LA Galaxy featured in the LA Galaxy Gameday Program for home matches at Dignity Health Sports Park? You're in luck.

"Cozmo's Crazy Coloring Corner" is back to feature a different fan's LA Galaxy artwork – color pencil, painting, water color, chalk and more – in a page of each of the LA Galaxy Gameday Programs for all 2019 MLS matches at Dignity Health Sports Park. Selected winners will be awarded four (4) tickets to the game in which the winner's artwork will appear. Copies of the Gameday Program will be sent to the fan whose artwork is selected.

To have your artwork featured in the LA Galaxy Gameday Program, send a scanned image of the artwork to Chris Glidden at cglidden@lagalaxy. com along with the artist's name, age and city of residence.

alea Emma, the 7-year-old anthem singer who shocked the world with her performance at an LA Galaxy game last September, returns to Dignity Health Sports Park today.

Malea Emma initially went viral after her national anthem performance on the LA Galaxy's nationally televised match on Sept. 23, 2018 vs. Seattle Sounders FC. Malea Emma earned the chance to sing the national anthem after winning a social media contest run by the LA Galaxy in the week leading up to the match, with Galaxy fans voting for Malea Emma to perform from a group of finalists.

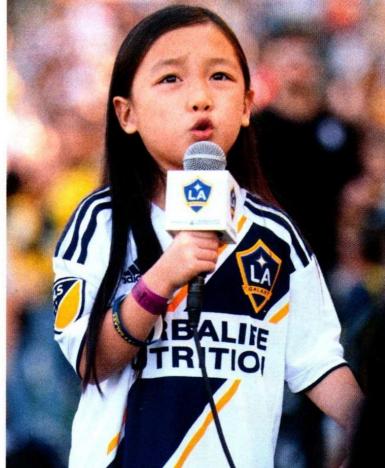

Malea Emma went viral almost immediately after her performance, and in the days following, was featured in over 600 TV clips and 1,500 online news stories. She was featured on ABC World News Tonight, NBC's The Today Show, CNN's New Day, ABC's Good Morning America, On Air with Ryan Seacrest, LIVE with Kelly and Ryan, America can Idol, Google's Year in Review and many more.

In the time since she sang at the Galaxy game last September, Malea Emma has performed the national anthem for MLS Cup, the Los Angeles Lakers, Golden State Warriors, Los Angeles Clippers, LA Kings, UCLA Men's Basketball and more.

Malea Emma's performance will complement a historic day in LA Galaxy history. Ahead of the game, the Galaxy will unveil a David Beckham statue before inducting him into the club's Ring of Honor at halftime.

SEASON TICKET MEMBER OF THE MATCH

LA Galaxy Season Ticket Member of the Match: The Lyman Family

When did you become a Season Ticket Member?

We became LA Galaxy Season Ticket Members in 2014 but we spent a few years before that buying individual tickets to almost every game.

Who is your favorite LA Galaxy player of all-time?

It's a three-way tie between Jaime Penedo, Robbie Keane, and Zlatan Ibrahimovic.

What is your favorite LA Galaxy moment?

March 31, 2018. We still get chills when we talk about it.

What do the LA Galaxy mean to you?

Everything! We love this team with all of our hearts.

What is your favorite thing about being an LA Galaxy Season Ticket Member?

We love that we have made great friends with other LA Galaxy Season Ticket Members. They have become our Galaxy family.

Do you have a special game day routine?

We always arrive early so we can watch warm-ups on the field.
