ARTHUR BLANK

Owner & Chairman

Perhaps best known as a co-founder of The Home Depot, Arthur M. Blank is now widely recognized for his diverse businesses and philanthropy. Distinguished by Forbes as one of the World's 100 Greatest Living Business Minds 2017 and Sports Business Journal's Sports Executive of the Year in 2018, Blank's Family of Businesses portfolio currently includes the Atlanta Falcons; reigning Major League Soccer champion, Atlanta United; PGA TOUR Superstore; The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation; Mountain Sky Guest Ranch; West Creek Ranch; and AMB Group, the parent company of his for-profit businesses. Blank and the Falcons, in partnership with the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia, are the private funders of Mercedes-Benz Stadium, named the 2019 Sports Business Journal Sports Facility of the Year. The stadium is operated by the Atlanta Falcons Stadium Company, a company also owned by AMB Group and is home to the Falcons and Atlanta United.

The 2019 season will mark the 18th for Blank as Owner & Chairman of the Falcons. In his tenure as steward of the NFL and MLS franchises in Atlanta, Blank has established himself as a respected leader and model owner whose vision and accomplishments in building two winners have been profiled across the globe.

The determination of Blank to build a consistent winner for Atlanta and provide the fan base with a team it can be proud of and call their own is unmatched in sports. Atlanta's impressive six-year run from 2008-2012 included two number one seeds in the NFC playoffs (2010, 2012), a team-record three consecutive playoffs berths (2010-12), four double-digit winning seasons (2008, 2010-12), two 13-win seasons (2010, 2012), two NFC South Division championships (2010, 2012) and an NFC Championship (2016). Eight of the club's 14 playoff appearances have come since Blank purchased the team. Blank's expectations are to surpass that run and bring a championship to the city and the franchise.

Blank has put several pieces into place for his franchises and business to continue to reach the pinnacle of success. With Blank's careful guidance and the continued success of the state-of-the-art, Mercedes-Benz Stadium, the Blank Family of Businesses are poised to reach and stay on top of the business and sports world.

IT TAKES A TEAM

Since Blank acquired the Falcons in 2002, the team has made the playoffs eight times in 17 seasons and has achieved unprecedented success off the field as well. Three years before Blank purchased the Falcons, the club averaged about 37,000 season ticket holders per year. Since 2002, the Falcons have never sold fewer than 50,000 season tickets in any year. Additionally, during the same period, the club has sold out 126 of 128 regular season games, including closing out the Georgia Dome with a streak of eight consecutive sellout seasons.

"I have been blessed here with a great team of people," Blank said. "I have always believed in bringing the best people together, creating the right environment, giving them the resources they need, being a cheerleader for them and making sure the culture is set in place before getting out of the way and allowing them to do what they need to do."

Blank is also a key contributor to many of the NFL's major committees. He currently chairs the NFL Audit Committee and is a member of the league's Finance, Legislative, Workplace Diversity, and Social Justice committees.

The increasing relevance of the Falcons has provided numerous opportunities for the franchise and city of Atlanta to be showcased on nationally-televised games. The Falcons have two primetime games in 2019 and in one of those games, the Falcons will host the Thursday night game on Thanksgiving in Mercedes-Benz Stadium for the first time. The Falcons have gone 8-4 in primetime games since 2015. Additionally, MBS became the first stadium ever selected to serve as the stage for NBC's iconic introduction to the top-rated show on television, Sunday Night Football.

"Our exposure through prime-time games over the years speaks directly to the outstanding performances of our players and coaches," Blank said. "Make no mistake, however, that our larger goal remains to play under the worldwide spotlight of the Super Bowl. There are 31 other teams out there that want the Lombardi Trophy just as much as we do, so we have to be focused and diligent to remain a marquee team in this league."

MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM

In May 2014, Blank and the Falcons broke ground on Mercedes-Benz Stadium, which opened in 2017 and was named the Sports Business Journal Sports Facility of the Year in 2019. In addition to being the home for the Falcons, the stadium is also home to Atlanta United FC, the Major League Soccer team that was awarded to Blank in April 2014, began play in 2017 and captured the MLS Cup in only its second in 2018. The facility also hosts other premier sports and entertainment events throughout the year.

"Our goal all along has been for Mercedes-Benz Stadium to become a destination site for sports and entertainment guests from all over the world," Blank stated. "We not only want Mercedes-Benz Stadium to become a landmark for the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia, we want it to be a game changer when it comes to stadium design and the guest experience inside the building where friends and families can come together and create special memories."

Mercedes-Benz Stadium and the city of Atlanta hosted Super Bowl LIII in February of 2019. This was the first time the city of Atlanta hosted a Super Bowl since 2000.

NFL commissioner Roger Goodell praised the city of Atlanta for their effort in making sure everything went well during the week of the Super Bowl.

"The enthusiasm, the hospitality and the desire to make sure that they put Atlanta on the big stage in a way that will show incredibly well, Goodell said. "As it related to when we are going to come back, as you know they've become more competitive for cities to host the Super Bowl, which we think that is great."

On top of Super Bowl LIII, Mercedes-Benz Stadium has attracted several marquee events to the city of Atlanta, such as the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship, the 2020 NCAA Final Four and many other events, including the CFP National Semifinal of the College Football Playoff, Chick-Fil-A Kickoff Games, SEC Championship Game and the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl.

"The Super Bowl 19 years ago not only didn't have our stadium, but it didn't have the National Center for Human Rights Museum, didn't have the Aquarium, didn't have the College Football Hall of Fame, didn't have the Children's Museum, didn't have the World of Coke," Blank said. "Those all speak to what Atlanta has done to earn every national event we've had. So it's not just about the Super Bowl. It's about the college national championship game we had last year, Super Bowl this year, Final Four next year. That has nothing to do with me. It has to do with Atlanta, and it has to do with the commitments that many people have made to this city."

The Falcons officially opened Mercedes-Benz Stadium with a 34-23 win over the Green Bay Packers on NBC's Sunday Night Football in Week 2 of the 2017 season. The club would go on to post a 5-3 record at home in its first season at MBS, setting a franchise record for attendance with 554,119 fans passing through the building during its inaugural season.

Blank's imaginative approach to the stadium experience has truly created the finest sports and entertainment facility in the world. Using the core values his businesses are founded on as guiding principles, Blank listened to what fans desired most and responded with a fan first, world-class experience in the heart of downtown Atlanta.

In 2018, Sports Business Journal named the Mercedes-Benz Stadium Food & Beverage Experience the Sports Breakthrough of the Year. The innovative approach to pricing, quality, value, and selection helped move the Falcons from 18th in the league in 2016 to 1st in the NFL in 2017 for food and beverage. MBS also ranked 1st in Major League Soccer over the same period.

Although Blank's original vision to create a fan first pricing menu was originally seen as a crazy idea, the results have been tremendous and a game-changer in the sports and entertainment industry. In 2019, Blank and his staff continued to listen to fans feedback and cut the prices on stadium food down even further to become even more affordable.

"Arthur Blank repeatedly challenges us to find innovative ways to further improve operations across our businesses," said AMB Group CEO Steve Cannon. "As we've always said, it is incumbent on us to listen and respond to our fans and we've heard that value, quality, and speed of service are incredibly important; therefore, we've again made operational adjustments that address each of these areas."

The innovation continues in 2019 as Mercedes-Benz Stadium became the first NFL or MLS stadium to go cashless, speeding up transactions and shortening waits at concession stands and merchandise shops.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE & IMPROVING LIVES

Starting with The Home Depot and continuing with his current businesses - the Falcons, PGA TOUR Superstore, Mountain Sky Guest Ranch, West Creek Ranch, Atlanta United and The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation - Blank's business and personal values underscore the importance of giving back and becoming part of the community.

During his 23 years with The Home Depot, the company donated more than $113 million to communities, and Home Depot associates provided hundreds of thousands of hours of personal volunteer time.

Since its inception in 1995, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation has granted more than $400 million to charitable organizations, with approximately two-thirds of the total focused on metro Atlanta, including the Historic Westside neighborhoods of Vine City, English Avenue, and Castleberry Hill.

In 2013, Blank publicly committed to making further significant investments in these communities by creating the Westside Neighborhood Prosperity Fund, which invests in catalytic projects that ignite positive change and improve the quality of life in the neighborhoods surrounding Mercedes-Benz Stadium. The foundation has pledged $30 million to contribute to large-scale transformational projects that result in lasting impact for community residents.

In 2014, Blank's foundation launched its first major project, Westside Works, a long-term neighborhood-based program focused on creating job training and employment opportunities for residents. Westside Works placed nearly 200 men and women in living wage jobs in construction, health care, culinary arts and auto technician sectors during its first 12 months of operation.

"We've been committed to the Westside neighborhoods for many years," Blank noted. "Building a new stadium is the relatively easy part of our overall project in that area; the larger challenge is in having a positive and meaningful impact on the surrounding communities in the process. My family, along with the Falcons, feels a sense of responsibility to be part of that positive change."

Community engagement is a priority for the Falcons, as well. The Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation invests in innovative approaches to increase time kids spend in physical activity and to give more children access to healthy foods. Since 2002, the foundation has awarded more than $20 million in grants to nonprofit organizations serving children across Georgia. In partnership with Good Sports, the foundation also has donated over $1,380,000 worth of sports equipment to 325 organizations across 110 counties in Georgia, expanding opportunities for 114,000 youth to be physically active.

As a leader in the Georgia Shape initiative, the youth foundation is helping Georgia's physical educators assess over 1 million students annually with the Cooper Institute's Fitnessgram assessment. We are working hard to close the physical fitness (aerobic capacity) gender gap across the state by identifying and creating innovative physical activity programming before, during and after school. To date, we have reached over 800,000 students and are looking forward to reaching many more in the 2019-20 school year.

In addition, Atlanta Falcons players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and their spouses remain among the most active community citizens in the NFL, contributing an average of 3,000 hours of their collective time each season. Much of this time is spent participating in Atlanta Falcons community relations programs and initiatives that support a variety of issues and activities, including health and fitness, breast cancer awareness, combating hunger, the development of youth/prep football, Salute to Service and outreach in underserved communities.

With Blank part of a select group of owners that lead the NFL's Social Justice Initiative working group, the Atlanta Falcons have strived to be among the league's leaders in social justice action. Beginning in the spring of 2018, a player-led Social Justice Committee developed a plan for reform at the local level and took immediate action, creating a calendar of events that made an impact on the local community. The group identified three pillars for making a difference in the community: Criminal Justice Reform, Police/Community Relations and Education and Economic Advancement.

In addition to a number of events throughout the community the following year, the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation approved $500,000 for grants to match player contributions that support social justice work in 2019.

"It's important that everyone in our family of businesses understands our collective responsibility to contribute to the communities in which we all live and work," Blank stressed.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

A native of Sunnyside, N.Y., Blank attended Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, where he competed on the football, baseball and track teams. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration with distinction from Babson College, where he was active in a variety of extracurricular activities. Blank co-founded The Home Depot in 1978 and retired from the company as co-chairman in 2001. At the time of his retirement, The Home Depot was a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average and one of Fortune Magazine's "Global Most Admired Companies." During Blank's last year as CEO of the company, The Home Depot ranked first in social responsibility in an annual survey conducted by Harris Interactive, Inc.

Blank is recognized throughout the country for his personal and professional achievements. In 2012, he received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from the University of Georgia. In 2011, he was the recipient of the Freeing Voices, Changing Lives Award from the American Institute for Stuttering, and in 2010, he was recognized by the Council for Quality Growth for his philanthropic endeavors as well as his significant contributions to economic development and quality of life. In 2006, he was named a Distinguished American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, which annually recognizes an individual who has utilized his or her talents to attain great success in business, private life or public service.

Also, in 2006, Blank was inducted into the Junior Achievement U.S. Business Hall of Fame and was awarded an honorary doctor of humanities degree from Furman University. In 2005, he was named National Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young. In 2003, for the second time in three years, Blank was named Georgia's Most Respected CEO by Georgia Trend Magazine, and in 2002, he was inducted into Georgia State University's Business Hall of Fame. The Georgia Army National Guard Infantry Regiment appointed Blank as an honorary commander in July 2016. Individuals are selected as honorary commanders because of their position or influence in the community, and their ability to foster awareness and public support for the military and its service members. In 2016, 2017 and 2018, the NFL's Salute to Service winners were all members of the Atlanta Falcons, reflective of the owner and team's commitment to giving back to America's armed forces and their families.

Blank serves on the board of trustees of The Carter Center, Inc., and The Cooper Institute.

Arthur is the father of six children and has six grandchildren. A strong believer in work-life balance, Blank makes time daily for physical activity and spending time with family.

STEVE CANNON

CEO AMBSE

Steve Cannon was named chief executive officer of AMB Sports & Entertainment in December of 2015, assuming the day-to-day leadership of the company's for-profit businesses. Cannon leads all business operations of the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons, Atlanta United of Major League Soccer, Mercedes-Benz Stadium, PGA TOUR Superstore and Mountain Sky Guest Ranch. He is also on the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation's board of directors.

Since his start with the AMB Group, Cannon's leadership has played a part in Mercedes-Benz Stadium being named the Sports Business Journal Sports Facility of the Year in 2019. In addition to being the home for the Falcons, the stadium is also home to Atlanta United FC, the Major League Soccer team that was awarded to Blank in April 2014 and began play in 2017, winning the MLS Cup in only its second season and being named the 2019 Sports Business Journal Sports Team of the Year. The facility also hosts other premier sports and entertainment events throughout the year.

Mercedes-Benz Stadium and the city of Atlanta hosted Super Bowl LIII in February of 2019. This was the first time the city of Atlanta hosted a Super Bowl since 2000.

On top of Super Bowl LIII, Mercedes-Benz Stadium has attracted several marquee events to the city of Atlanta, such as the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship, the 2020 NCAA Final Four and many others events, including the National Semifinals of the College Football Playoff, Chick-Fil-A Kickoff Game, SEC Championship Game and the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl.

Earlier in 2018, Sports Business Journal named the Mercedes-Benz Stadium Food & Beverage Experience the Sports Breakthrough of the Year. The innovative approach to pricing, quality, value, and selection helped move the Falcons from 18th in the league in 2016 to 1st in the NFL in 2017 for food and beverage. MBS also ranked 1st in Major League Soccer over the same period.

The innovation continues in 2019 as Mercedes-Benz Stadium became the first NFL or MLS stadium to go cashless, speeding up transactions and shortening waits at concession stands and merchandise shops, while responding to fans' feedback and cutting prices on stadium food down even further to become even more affordable.

Prior to joining AMB Group, Cannon served as president and chief executive officer of Mercedes-Benz USA (MBUSA) and was responsible for leading operations that generated record sales with annual revenues exceeding $20 billion. During his tenure, MBUSA achieved a first-ever No. 1 ranking on the American Customer Satisfaction Index and was also lauded as one of the best places to work by Fortune Magazine five years in a row. Cannon oversaw MBUSA's successful headquarters relocation from New Jersey to the metro Atlanta area, in addition to crafting a sports sponsorship strategy that closely aligned the premium brand with properties reflective of its category leadership and brand position.

Cannon began his automotive career in 1991 as executive assistant to the president and CEO of Mercedes-Benz of North America (predecessor to MBUSA). From there, he moved to Stuttgart, Germany and joined a small team tasked with the development, manufacturing and launch of the M-Class, the first Mercedes-Benz SUV ever made in, and for this market. Following his time in Germany, Cannon served as director of marketing for Debis Financial Services (later Daimler Financial Services). He also served as principal for The Richards Group, one of the largest independent full-service advertising agencies in the U.S. before re-joining MBUSA in 2007 where he served as the vice president of marketing for MBUSA from June 2007 until he was promoted to president and CEO in 2012.

The National Wrestling Hall of Fame honored Cannon as the organization's Outstanding American for 2019. The Hall of Fame's Outstanding American award is presented to those individuals who have used the disciplines of wrestling to launch notable careers in other walks of life, such as science and technology, business and industry, government and the military, and the arts and humanities.

Cannon graduated with honors from the United States Military Academy at West Point (B.S., Economics). He is Airborne Ranger qualified and served as 1st Lieutenant in West Germany during the fall of the Iron Curtain. During his time in the Army he also served five years as an artillery officer.

Cannon and his wife, Ann, reside in Atlanta and are the parents of nine children.

RICH MCKAY

President & CEO

Falcons President and CEO, Rich McKay, has been a fixture in the National Football League for more than 30 years. One of the League's most influential executives, McKay is entering his 17th season with the Atlanta Falcons. During McKay's tenure, the Falcons have been to the playoffs seven times, been to three NFC Championship games and participated in Super Bowl LI. McKay was hired by Owner and Chairman Arthur M. Blank in 2004 and served his first four years as the team's general manager. He was promoted to president and chief executive officer in 2011. That same year, national columnist and creator of Monday Morning Quarterback (MMQB), Peter King, named McKay number 10 out of the 100 most influential people in the NFL. In 2019, The Athletic put McKay in The NFL's 100 most influential business people of all-time.

In recent years, McKay played a central role in the development, opening, and operation of Mercedes-Benz Stadium in addition to his Falcons duties. With the stadium now built and operating with a best-in-class leadership team, led by AMBSE CEO, Steve Cannon, McKay now returns focus to a larger role in the operation of the Falcons with Dan Quinn and Thomas Dimitroff now reporting to him.

McKay was the point person in the negotiation, development, and building of Mercedes-Benz Stadium, a process that began in earnest in 2008. Working closely with Blank, the city of Atlanta, the state of Georgia, and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority, McKay helped to secure approval and financing for Mercedes-Benz Stadium and created a true public-private partnership. The club broke ground on Mercedes-Benz Stadium on May 19, 2014, and it was completed in August of 2017 and serves as the home of the Atlanta Falcons and Atlanta United. He is the only executive to have led two successful stadium negotiations (Atlanta and Tampa Bay). In April of 2014, McKay was named President of AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) which oversees the Falcons, Atlanta United and Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

McKay has served as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee for the past 26 years, which is longer than any member has ever served. He has been co-chairman and then chairman for the past 22 years (co-chairman 1998-2011 and chairman 2011-current). The eight-member committee is comprised of NFL head coaches and League executives who study the game and recommend rule changes and modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness. The Competition Committee has recommended and passed over fifty (50) player safety rules changes since 2002. In addition to his commitment to advancing the game, McKay has been involved in the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements with the National Football League Players Association and was highly involved in the negotiations that led to the ten year collective bargaining agreement signed in 2011 and the newest ten year agreement that was executed this past March.

Prior to joining the Falcons, McKay spent 10 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving as general manager. While serving as general manager for Tampa Bay (1994-2003) and Atlanta (2004-2008), McKay was the architect of a Super Bowl winning team (Super Bowl XXXVII) as well as six teams that reached the playoffs and three that advanced to the NFC Championship game. During his 15 seasons in the General Manager role, his teams compiled an overall record of 112-96 with a playoff record of 6-5. As a GM, McKay worked with three different NFL head coaches who have guided their respective teams to NFC Championship games - Tony Dungy in 1999 with Tampa Bay, Jon Gruden in 2002 with Tampa Bay and Jim Mora in 2004 with Atlanta.

McKay's personnel scouting acumen was a successful formula which produced 59 players that played in the Pro Bowl during his time as an NFL General Manager. McKay showed his eye for talent when he drafted eight players in the 1997 draft class that went on to play a combined 1,175 games, with 772 starts over their careers. Those players helped contribute to Tampa Bay's 41 Pro Bowl selections between 1997 through 2002, which were the most in the NFL. To put it into perspective, the Buccaneers only had 19 Pro Bowl selections in the first 21 years of their history leading up to 1997. Additionally, 11 of McKay's former lieutenants have risen through the ranks to sit in the general manager's chair at other NFL franchises.

While many of the players McKay drafted developed into Pro Bowl performers on the field, several have been stars in their community. Atlanta Falcons Limited Partner Warrick Dunn, whom McKay drafted in 1997 with Tampa Bay, was the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award. This award is presented annually to the NFL's most philanthropic player. Derrick Brooks, who was also a draft selection of McKay's, was also a co-recipient of the award in 2000.

The McKay family is one of the most successful football families with substantial roots in both the collegiate and professional game. Rich's late father, the legendary John McKay, led the University of Southern California Trojans to four national championships in 16 seasons. ESPN recently ran a list of the 150 greatest teams in college football's 150-year history and McKay had four of the top 70 teams and the 3rd ranked team of all time.

Rich's older brother J.K. McKay, was a starting wide receiver for the Trojans and part of two national championship teams (1972 & 1974) in addition to playing in three Rose Bowl games while playing for his father. Between the three McKay's, they have won six national championships, participated as a player or coach in 12 Rose Bowls, participated as a coach, player or team executive in six NFL conference championship games, won two National Collegiate Coach of the Year Awards, won one XFL Championship as a general manager, and won one Super Bowl as a general manager. The McKay football roots are continuing to grow, as Rich's son John reached Super Bowl LIII in Atlanta working as a Pro Scout for the Los Angeles Rams.

Both Coach McKay and Rich saw their first draft picks selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Lee Roy Selmon was the first pick for John McKay as a head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976 while Warren Sapp was the first pick for Rich McKay in 1995. After the enshrinement of Sapp and Derrick Brooks, Rich McKay became the first and only general manager in NFL history to have his first two draft picks go on to be first-ballot members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

McKay earned his bachelor's degree in Economics in 1981 from Princeton University, graduated from Stetson's College of Law in 1984, clerked for two years for Tampa's U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges, and was inducted into the Stetson Law Hall of Fame on November 2014. McKay worked at the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, P.A., from 1986-1992 where he served as General Counsel for the Buccaneers. Born March 16, 1959, in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School.

As an avid long-distance runner, Rich has participated in and finished six marathons including two New York City Marathons, an Atlanta Marathon, and the Los Angeles in Marathon in 2013 and in 2016, and the 2019 San Diego marathon.

McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons; Hunter, a 2012 graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama who is now employed in the Sports Information Office at Kennesaw State University in Kennesaw, Ga., and John, a 2015 graduate of the University of Southern California is the assistant director of pro scouting with the Los Angeles Rams.

THOMAS DIMITROFF

General Manager

One of the longest-tenured general managers in the NFL, Thomas Dimitroff has held his post since 2008. A two-time Executive of the Year honoree by Sporting News (2008 & 2010), Dimitroff has been the architect of the most successful run in franchise history. During his tenure, the Falcons have posted a 109-83 regular-season record and the seventh-best winning percentage in the NFL over that span. Atlanta was one of seven teams in the league to post 100-or-more wins between 2008-2018.

Over the last five seasons, Dimitroff and Head Coach Dan Quinn have crafted a roster focused on fast, physical, and urgent athletes. This team-building approach spurred the Falcons to playoff wins in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history, including an NFC title and Super Bowl appearance for the second time in club annals in 2016.

During his time in Atlanta, the Falcons posted five consecutive winning seasons from 2008-2012 and three straight playoff berths (2010-12) - a first in franchise history. The club has made six postseason appearances and has added cornerstone players; Matt Ryan, Julio Jones, Grady Jarrett, Jake Matthews, Keanu Neal, Deion Jones, Ricardo Allen, and Calvin Ridley in the draft.

The finished the 2019 season with a record of 7-9 but the team made a dramatic midseason turnaround after a tumultuous start. Although the Falcons started 1-7, the team was able to reset after the bye going 6-2 and finishing second in the NFC South. The Falcons closed out the season with four consecutive wins and played a league-high seven opponents that qualified for the postseason. They were also one of two teams (Baltimore) that defeated three division champions in the regular season.

The Falcons had three players selected to the Pro Bowl in Julio Jones, Grady Jarrett, and Austin Hooper. Jones and Jarrett were also named second-team All-Pros by the Associated Press.

Following the 2019 season, Dimitroff and his staff began preparations for an important offseason. Despite the limitations imposed by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, the Falcons took an aggressive approach in free agency to bring in key contributors on both sides of the ball. Atlanta's 2020 free-agent class was headlined by defensive end Dante Fowler Jr., and running back Todd Gurley both joining Atlanta after stints with the Los Angeles Rams.

One of Dimitroff's teambuilding strategies throughout his tenure has been supplementing the roster in free agency, occasionally making high profile signing like adding Fowler and Gurley, or Alex Mack before them. That strategy has also included targeting important veteran players to shore up depth and versatility across the roster. Atlanta added wide receiver Laquon Treadwell, offensive lineman Justin McCray, tight end Khari Lee, linebackers Edmond Robinson, Deone Bucannon, and LaRoy Reynolds. Dimitroff was also able to retain several of the Falcons own free agents including defensive end Stephen Means, cornerback Bliid Wreh-Wilson, safety Sharron Neasman, defensive tackle Tyeler Davison, fullback Keith Smith, and kicker Youghoe Koo.

With the first phase of offseason roster construction complete, Dimitroff turned his attention to the centerpiece of his teambuilding philosophy, the NFL Draft.

Dimitroff's ardent belief in building through the draft has been a hallmark of his time in Atlanta. When he joined the Falcons in 2008, he brought a team-building philosophy centered around building the core of the roster through the draft and supplementing with key additions in free agency. He wasted little time putting that plan into place as his first draft pick would go on to reshape the franchise. With the third overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft, Dimitroff and the Falcons selected Ryan, who has been the face of the club for the last decade.

Ryan owns every significant passing record in club history and has been among the best quarterbacks in the NFL during his career. He was named the NFL MVP and selected as an All-Pro in 2016 and is the 10th player in league history to reach 50,000 passing yards.

Ryan finished the season with 4,466 yards, including 11 300-yard games, a new franchise record and tied for the third-most games in a single season in NFL history. Dimitroff will always be tied to his first draft pick and Ryan has continuously proved the longtime personnel man right. In 2018, the duo became the sixth GM-QB pair to reach 100 wins together.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, Dimitroff stood firm at No. 16 and selected Clemson cornerback A.J. Terrell. The battle-tested Tiger faced some of the most prolific offenses in college football during his career and adds a winning pedigree to his prototypical NFL speed and size. In the second round, Dimitroff again stayed close to home, selecting Auburn defensive lineman Marlon Davidson with the 47th overall pick. Davidson brings an unbridled passion for football and an unwavering desire to be his best in Atlanta.

In the third round, Dimitroff made a pick for both the present and the future by selecting Temple center Matt Hennessy. An athletic offensive lineman that exemplifies the traits the team looks for in its zone-blocking scheme, Hennessy will compete for the left guard spot early on with eyes on center in the future.

With a pair of fourth-round picks, Dimitroff targeted versatile players for the back end of the defense in Fresno State linebacker Mykal Walker (119th overall) and California safety Jaylenn Hawkins (134th overall). Walker is an explosive athlete that can play either inside or outside linebacker and will play a role on special teams early on. Hawkins is billed as a fast and physical player with the flexibility to play against the run and in coverage. Dimitroff used the final pick of the 2020 draft (228th overall) to select Sterling Hofrichter, a punter out of Syracuse. Hofrichter will have an opportunity to replace Matt Bosher who left the team during free agency. He led the NCAA in hangtime on his punts and can handle kickoffs as well.

For the first time in 13 years, Dimitroff did not execute a draft-day trade. However, that does not mean that he changed his aggressive approach to teambuilding. As free agency was getting underway, Dimitroff set a plan in motion to replace tight end Austin Hooper, who signed a lucrative contract with the Cleveland Browns at the start of the new league year. Knowing the impact that Hooper had on the Falcons offense, Dimitroff sent the second-round pick he acquired from New England in exchange for Mohamed Sanu to the Baltimore Ravens for tight end Hayden Hurst.

The Falcons had an eye on Hurst in the 2018 Draft, which saw him taken with the 25th overall pick, one selection ahead of Calvin Ridley. Hurst brings athleticism and impressive after the catch skills to Atlanta and should fit into the offense seamlessly.

Dimitroff has made several trades during his time in Atlanta, but without question, his landmark acquisition came during the 2011 Draft. Feeling like the Falcons needed to get more explosive, Dimitroff orchestrated a trade with the Cleveland Browns and selected University of Alabama wide receiver Julio Jones sixth overall. Jones has gone on to become one of the top receivers in the NFL, earning two first-team All-Pro selections and seven Pro Bowl selections (six consecutive).

Jones continued to play at an elite level in 2019, totaling 99 receptions for 1,394 yards and six touchdowns. It marked the nine-year pro's sixth-consecutive season with at least 80 receptions and 1,300 yards, the only NFL player to accomplish the streak. In Week 16, Jones surpassed 12,000 career receiving yards, becoming the fastest player to do so by accomplishing the feat in 125 games.

In addition to the blockbuster trade that landed Jones, Dimitroff made aggressive moves to procure Deion Jones, DE Takk McKinley, and NT Grady Jarrett all of whom have become crucial pieces for the Falcons.

Dimitroff's first major trade came in 2009 when he sent the team's 2010 second-round draft choice to the Kansas City Chiefs in exchange for TE Tony Gonzalez. The future Hall of Famer spent five seasons in Atlanta where his veteran leadership and tireless work ethic helped set the tone for a team that made three straight trips to the playoffs.

While the core of his team-building philosophy is centered on drafting well, Dimitroff has supplemented his draft picks by targeting specific needs through free agency. In total, five of the free agents Dimitroff has signed have earned Pro Bowl nods. One of his most successful moves was the first move he made at the helm, signing RB Michael Turner from the San Diego Chargers.

Turner burst on the scene finishing his first season as a starter with 1,699 rushing yards and 17 touchdowns – a franchise record – on his way to his first Pro Bowl selection. He also finished second in MVP voting and along with Ryan helped take the Falcons from the league's cellar to the postseason.

After turning the franchise around in 2008, Dimitroff saw Atlanta post back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in team history in 2009. Atlanta would go on to win 36 games from 2010-12, which included three straight playoff berths and one trip to the NFC Championship Game. There has never been a more successful three-year stretch in franchise history, and Dimitroff was the architect of those teams.

Dimitroff is responsible for all aspects of football operations with the Falcons and working with Quinn when constructing the roster. He has final authority over the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the draft, and trades. Dimitroff also handles coordinating other football-related activities with Coach Quinn.

Dimitroff began his scouting career as the Canadian Scouting Coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 1990. In 1992, he moved on to the World League of American Football, where he scouted all NFL, CFL and World League rosters while tracking player transactions for the NFL's developmental league.

After his international experience, Dimitroff moved onto the Detroit Lions as a college scout in 1994. From there, Dimitroff made his way back to Cleveland in 1998 as a college scout for the Browns for four years before landing with the Patriots in 2002.

During his five years as the director of college scouting in New England (2003-07), he was responsible for overseeing area scouts who evaluated all the nation's college prospects while scouting and tracking the development and availability of drafted players. The Patriots had a 77-17 overall record in Dimitroff's tenure and they won back to back Super Bowls in 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX) while making a historic march on a perfect 2007 regular season.

His father was a big influence on his life. Tom Dimitroff was a high school, college, and pro coach turned NFL scout – and a former NFL quarterback for the old Boston Patriots. Other key influences that have helped shape Dimitroff's philosophy today include former Falcons Assistant General Manager Scott Pioli and New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

Dimitroff captained his college team as a defensive back at the University of Guelph (Canada) from 1987-1989. He was born in Barberton, Ohio, in 1966. Thomas has one son, Mason, and one daughter, Aja Neve.

Dan Quinn was named the 16th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history in February of 2015. Quinn has built his program on a three-pillar foundation; Ball, Battle and Brotherhood. He believes these three pillars are the keys to the club's success.

The Ball is everything in Quinn's program. The offense must have regard for it and protect it together while the defense must strive to take it together. It is drilled into the team every day. It's not just a practice or game objective. It is a mindset.

Battle; how we do anything is how we do everything. Quinn instills this through competition at every opportunity and challenges his players to obsess the details in everything together. How something is done in practice or meetings is how it will be done in the heat of the moment, so the Falcons will battle every day to be prepared for the moment together.

Brotherhood is the connection to one another that separates us from others. Quinn strives to build the best culture in sports and the bond that is created between brothers is what makes that possible.

In five seasons, he has compiled a 43-37 regular season record with two postseason appearances, while leading the club to an NFC title and its second Super Bowl appearance in 2016. Entering 2020, Quinn ranks second in the organization's history among coaches with at least four seasons with a winning percentage of .538 and fourth in franchise history with 43 regular-season wins.

The 2019 season finished with a record of 7-9 but saw the Falcons make a dramatic midseason turnaround. Although the Falcons started off 1-7, the team was able to reset after the bye going 6-2 and finishing second in the NFC South. The Falcons closed out the season with four consecutive wins and played a league-high seven opponents that qualified for the postseason. They were also one of two teams (Baltimore) that defeated three division champions in the regular season.

The Falcons had three players selected to the Pro Bowl in Julio Jones, Grady Jarrett, and Austin Hooper. Jones and Jarrett were also named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

The offense finished in the top five in total yards (5th), passing yards (3rd) and fourth-down conversion percentage (4th). QB Matt Ryan finished the season with 4,466 yards, including 11 300-yard games, a new franchise record and tied for the third-most games in a single season in NFL history. In Week 14, the 12-year pro surpassed 50,000 career passing yards, becoming the 10th NFL player to achieve the feat. Jones continued to play at an elite level, totaling 99 receptions for 1,394 yards and six touchdowns. It marked the nine-year pro's sixth-consecutive season with at least 80 receptions and 1,300 yards, the only NFL player to accomplish the streak. In Week 16, Jones surpassed 12,000 career receiving yards, becoming the fastest player to do so by accomplishing the feat in 125 games.

Although the defense struggled early, the Falcons showed vast improvement when Quinn moved Raheem Morris to the defensive side of the ball in Week 10. In the first eight games, the defense had the fewest takeaways in the NFL (4) but finished tied for the second-most in the NFL (16) over the final eight games. Notable standouts on the defensive side included Jarrett, who finished the season with career-highs 7.5 sacks and 69 tackles while leading the NFL in run stuffs.

Linebacker Deion Jones also had a great year after coming back from an injury in 2018 as the four-year vet finished with 110 tackles, marking his third season of 100+ tackles, four QB hits, five passes defended and a pick-six on the final play of 2019. Atlanta's defense also finished the second half of the season with the best third-down percentage (25.8) in the NFL and the eighth-best scoring defense (18.6 ppg).

The Falcons finished their 2018 campaign with a 7-9 record. Although the Falcons had a rocky season, Quinn rallied the squad to win the last three games of the season to finish second in the NFC South and complete the season sweep against the Carolina Panthers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Under Quinn's leadership, the team sent three players to the Pro Bowl in 2018, Alex Mack, Jones and Hooper. Jones added another impressive season to his resume after the Alabama native led the league in receiving yards with 1,677 - second-highest of his career - while also hauling in 113 receptions and eight touchdowns. Jones recorded 10, 100-receiving yard games this season, breaking his previous franchise record of nine games (2015).

In 2018, the focus and dependence shifted to the veteran leadership of Ryan among others. Ryan remained one of the positive constants for the team throughout 2018. The 11-year veteran finished the season with 4,924 passing yards, 35 touchdowns, and a 108.1 passer rating, all of which were the second-best in his career. Quinn's trust in Ryan also paid off in the offense finishing in the top-10 in total yards (sixth), passing yards (fourth), and third-down conversion percentage (fourth).

The season saw the emergence of 5 Damontae Kazee, who tied for the league lead in interceptions with seven, while LB DeVondre Campbell led the team in tackles for the first time in his career. Jarrett continued to grow into one of the premier defensive linemen in the league after posting career highs in sacks (six), hits on the quarterback (16) and forced fumbles (three).

The Falcons battled their way through the 2017 season, finishing with a 10-6 record, marking the third time that the club has posted back-to-back seasons of 10-or-more wins. The Birds came out of the gate hot, winning their first three games, including the inaugural game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium with a 34-23 win over the Green Bay Packers. Following the quick start, Atlanta would struggle through the next month dropping four of its next five games. Despite this stumble, the resilient mindset that Quinn instilled in his team helped the club rattle off five wins over its next seven games leading to a win-and-in scenario in Week 17.

The battle-hardened Falcons turned in an impressive performance in the season finale, coming away with a 22-10 win over the Panthers to lock up a second-straight postseason berth. Atlanta went into its Wild-Card matchup as an underdog as they faced the Los Angeles Rams and the NFL's top-scoring offense. Bolstered by tone-setting special-teams play, Quinn's veteran offense found its footing while the young defense shined in a 26-13 win. The Falcons ultimately fell short in the NFC divisional game, losing to the eventual Super Bowl champion Philadelphia Eagles, 15-10, in a tightly contested game.

This team produced four Pro Bowlers in 2017: Julio Jones, Mack, Deion Jones, and Neal. Julio Jones and Mack were each named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth time in their careers. The pair also each earned second-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Meanwhile, Deion Jones and Neal were named to their first Pro Bowl squads in only their second seasons.

While the young defense improved over the course of the 2016 season, Quinn knew that the unit possessed the necessary pieces for a sizable jump in 2017. Quinn's faith was rewarded as the combination of veteran leaders and emergent young talent allowed 52.8 fewer yards per game ('16 - 371.2; '17 - 318.4) and surrendered 166 fewer offensive points last season.

Atlanta's defense jumped from 25th in 2016 to ninth in 2017 in yards per game and went from 27th to eighth in points per game. One of the major points of emphasis going into the 2017 season was red zone defense. In 2016, Atlanta ranked last in the NFL allowing touchdowns on 72.7 percent of its opponents' possessions. The work the defensive unit did in red-zone situations serves as a prime example of Quinn's focus on the details. The Falcons made a radical improvement in red-zone defense last season, vaulting up to fifth in the NFL with opponents finding the end zone on just 45.8 percent of possessions inside the 20.

The 2016 season saw Quinn in his first playoff appearance as a head coach. He dispatched his former team, the Seattle Seahawks, in the divisional round before closing the Georgia Dome with a 44-21 defeat of the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship game. Despite falling to the New England Patriots, 34-28, in the NFL's first Super Bowl decided by overtime, Quinn built a brotherhood poised to challenge the NFC's top echelon teams for years to come. That season, Quinn's leadership helped produce six Pro Bowlers, including Ryan, running back Devonta Freeman, wide receiver Julio Jones, Mack, outside linebacker Vic Beasley Jr. and placekicker Matt Bryant. Ryan became the first player in franchise history to be named NFL MVP and joined Jones and Beasley as Associated Press first-team All-Pros. Additionally, Quinn earned the NFL's Salute to Service award for his commitment to honoring and supporting the armed services and the military community.

Quinn's influence on Atlanta's young defense was clearly seen in 2016 as several first and second-year players filled key roles on the unit. His impact was perhaps clearest on Beasley, who took the NFL's sack crown with 15.5 in his second year in the league – the second-most by a Falcon in a single season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Quinn's defensive line pedigree also helped lead to the emergence of Jarrett who tied a Super Bowl record by sacking Tom Brady three times in the Super Bowl. While second-year players like Beasley and Jarrett emerged as playmakers, last season's rookie class also made an instant impact. First-round pick Neal and second-rounder Deion Jones were both strong candidates for defensive rookie of the year after finishing as the top two tacklers among first-year players.

Atlanta's young and improving defense was buoyed by the NFL's top-scoring offense in 2016. The Falcons captured their fourth NFC South title and secured the NFC's second seed in the playoffs following an 11-5 season. While the offense fired on all cylinders, Quinn's defense showed great strides over the final month of the season. Atlanta allowed 25.7 points per game for its first 11 games last season. Over the final five games of the regular season, that number dropped to just 20.8 points per game. In playoffs, the defense held the Seahawks and Packers to 20 and 21 points on the way to winning the NFC title.

Quinn earned his head coaching opportunity after becoming one of the NFL's top defensive coordinators. His philosophy centers around players that possess speed and physicality. The focus on these two traits has helped Atlanta revamp its defense and strengthen its offense. Quinn's willingness to put his young defensive players on the field has seen young talent develop into some of the top players in the NFL today.

In his first season at the helm, Quinn led the team to a 5-0 start, becoming the first coach in franchise history to begin his career with five straight wins. Despite a mid-season slump, Quinn rallied the Falcons to wins in two of their final three games to close out the season with an 8-8 record. His defensive background was crucial in helping Atlanta improve from 32nd in total defense to 16th over one year.

Quinn took over the club after serving as the Seattle Seahawks defensive coordinator for two seasons (2013-14), helping guide them to consecutive Super Bowl appearances. During that span, Quinn oversaw the NFL's top defensive unit as Seattle led the League allowing 270.4 yards per game, 15.2 points per game and 178.8 passing yards per game while holding opponents to 91.6 rushing yards per game.

In 2014, Quinn's defense led the NFL in scoring defense (15.9), total defense (267.1), and passing yards (185.6), while ranking third in rushing yards (81.5). The Seahawks also boasted the League's top defensive unit in 2013, en route to a win over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII.

Quinn originally joined the Seahawks in 2009, after spending the previous six years coaching the defensive lines for the San Francisco 49ers (2003-04), Miami Dolphins (2005-06) and the New York Jets (2007-08). He previously served as the Seahawks assistant head coach/defensive line coach in 2009 under Jim Mora.

Quinn left Seattle in 2011 to become the defensive coordinator at the University of Florida where his defenses ranked in the top-10 in the country. In his first season with the Gators, his defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (299.5), seventh in passing defense (166.8), and second in third-down defense (27.12 percent).

Prior to joining Seattle, Quinn coached the defensive line for the New York Jets from 2007-2008. In 2008 the Jets defense ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per carry (3.7), seventh in sacks (41) and ninth in rushing yards per game (94.9). The Jets were also sixth in the AFC in yards per play (5.2) and third-down defense (38.6).

He held the same position for the Miami Dolphins for two seasons (2005-06), where Quinn helped the Dolphins rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 49 sacks. Miami also finished third in the AFC in yards per play (4.7) and fourth in yards per carry (3.7).

He began his NFL coaching career in San Francisco as its defensive assistant in 2001 before moving on to coach the 49ers defensive line from 2003-2004. Quinn got his start coaching the defensive line at William and Mary in 1994, followed by a season at Virginia Military Institute. He held the same position with Hofstra for four seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000.

Quinn was a four-year letter winner and two-time co-captain at Division III Salisbury (Md.) State as a defensive lineman, where he recorded 139 tackles and eight tackles for loss. He also lettered in track and held the school record in the hammer throw. He was inducted into the Salisbury State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

Quinn's charitable foundation, Quinn's Corps, which he and his wife, Stacey, started in 2005, serves members of the military both at home and abroad. Quinn's foundation provides military families that are stateside with tickets to games while sending special care packages to soldiers that are deployed overseas.

Quinn was born in Morristown, New Jersey. He and his wife, Stacey, reside in Suwanee, Ga.

Dirk Koetter is entering his 14th year coaching in the NFL - 38th year in coaching overall - while going into his fifth year with the Atlanta Falcons as the offensive coordinator.

In 2019, Koetter returned to the Atlanta Falcons as the offensive coordinator after spending the previous four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His offense finished in the top five in total yards (5th), passing yards (3rd) and fourth-down conversion percentage (4th). QB Matt Ryan finished the season with 4,466 yards, including 11 300-yard games, a new franchise record, and tied for the third-most 300-yard games in a single season in NFL history.

During Koetter's first year with the Bucs in 2015, he oversaw the NFL's fifth-best offense and rushing attack, while also coaching the league's second-leading rusher in Doug Martin, who rushed for 1,402 yards and six touchdowns. Koetter also had a chance to begin molding then-rookie quarterback Jameis Winston in 2015. During his rookie season, Winston accounted for 28 total touchdowns (22 passing, six rushing) and threw for 4,042 yards, which were the second-most in a single season in team history and the third-most by a rookie in NFL history.

In 2016, Koetter became the 11th head coach for the Buccaneers and in his first season, he led Tampa Bay to a 9-7 record, the team's most wins since 2010 and the second-most wins by any coach in their first season with the Buccaneers. Over three seasons as head coach, Koetter still guided the offense, leading them to the NFL's best passing attack - 294.4 yards per game - and the sixth-best total offense - 375.1 - over that period.

Koetter's first stop in Atlanta came in 2012 when he was tasked to call plays for the offense for the next three seasons. In Koetter's first two years, he helped a younger Matt Ryan take the next step in his evolution. Ryan posted several single-season career and franchise records including passing yards, touchdowns, and completion percentage. The combination of Koetter and Ryan over three seasons guided the Falcons offense to the fourth-ranked passing attack (292.0 ypg) and the 10th ranked scoring offense (24.0 ppg) in the NFL from 2012-14. Wide receiver Julio Jones also experienced a breakout year in 2012 under Koetter, setting career-bests - at the time - in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,198) and touchdowns (10) in only his second season.

Before his time in Atlanta, Koetter was the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-11). During the 2010 campaign, Koetter led an offense that saw RB Maurice Jones-Drew lead the NFL in rushing with 1,606 yards on 343 carries. In five seasons in Jacksonville, he coached four different players to six Pro Bowl selections, including Jones-Drew who earned three trips to the Pro Bowl.

Koetter became the head coach of the Arizona State Sun Devils in 2001, spending six years in the position. He led Arizona State to four bowl games in his six seasons and finished with a 40-34 record. While also serving as offensive coordinator, Koetter helped the Sun Devils average nearly 30 points per game over six seasons and the team was ranked in the top-20 in the nation in passing offense in five of his six seasons.

Prior to taking over at ASU, Koetter spent three seasons as head coach at Boise State where he compiled a 26-10 mark and two consecutive bowl victories. He was a two-time Big West Coach of the Year honoree and two-time conference champion.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Koetter played four seasons at Idaho State (1978-81) as the team won a Division I-AA national championship. Following his graduation, he became head coach at age 23 at Highland High School, where he compiled a career record of 19-4 and won the 1984 state championship.

Koetter spent the 1985 season as offensive coordinator at San Francisco State and from 1986-88 as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Texas El-Paso. Prior to taking over at Boise State, Koetter served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri from 1989-93 and offensive coordinator at Boston College (1994-95) and Oregon (1996-97).

Koetter, 61, and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kaylee and Kendra, and two sons, Derek and Davis.

Raheem Morris is entering his sixth year with the Atlanta Falcons and his first as the defensive coordinator. Morris is a veteran coach with 18 years of NFL coaching experience on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball.

Morris began the 2019 season focused on the receiving corps but turned his attention to the secondary after the bye week following a tumultuous start. Over the final eight games, the team went 6-2 and the defense went from having the lowest amount of takeaways in the first half of the season (4) to finishing with the second-most in the NFL (16) after Week 9. The defense also vaulted from the bottom of the league rankings to the top 10 in sacks (32nd to 10th), scoring efficiency (32nd to 9th), and red zone efficiency (31st to 6th) over the final eight weeks of the season.

In 2018, Morris' coaching played a part in helping the offensive average 290.8 passing yards per game, the fourth-best average in the league. The passing attack continued to improve from 2017 to 2018, with the offense averaging 50 more passing yards per game and totaling 15 more passing touchdowns in the year span.

Under Morris' guidance first-round draft pick Calvin Ridley led all rookies in receiving yards (821) and touchdowns (10). He also saw Mohamed Sanu reach a career-high in receiving yards as well. Sanu's 838 receiving yards was the first time in his career the New Jersey native topped 800+ receiving yards.

He also oversaw another great year from six-time Pro Bowler, Julio Jones. Jones recorded 1,677 receiving yards, which was the second-highest total in his career. Jones hauled in 113 passes, which was the third time in his career that he's posted 100+ receptions in a season.

During Morris' second year as the wide receivers coach in 2017, his receivers pulled in 214 receptions for 2,848 yards and 13 touchdowns. Morris' coaching played a hand in Sanu topping his then career-high for receptions, a mark he set the previous year under Morris' teaching. Sanu finished the year with 67 receptions for 703 yards and tied a career-high with five touchdown receptions. Morris also oversaw another impressive year from Jones, who was selected to go to his fourth straight Pro Bowl after hauling in 88 receptions for 1,444 yards and three touchdowns.

After spending his first season with the team as assistant head coach/defensive passing game coordinator, Morris transitioned to the offensive side of the ball in 2016 and was named the assistant head coach/wide receivers coach. In his first season coaching the wide receivers, Morris worked with one of the best receivers in the game in Jones. Jones recorded 1,409 receiving yards, which was second in the NFL that season. His entire receiving group teamed up for 223 catches for 3,226 yards and 22 touchdowns. The unit included Taylor Gabriel, who recorded a career-high six receiving touchdowns and Mohamed Sanu who tallied a then career-high 59 receptions.

During Morris' first year in Atlanta, he was named the assistant head coach/defensive passing game coordinator, where he helped out with the secondary and how to stop the passing attacks of the opposing teams. The defense only allowed 19 passing touchdowns, which was tied for the third-lowest total in the NFL that season. The defense also forced 15 interceptions the year, which ranked within the top 10 in the league. These numbers gave the defense a 1.27 touchdown to interception ratio, which was the seventh-best TD/int ratio in the NFL in 2015.

Morris joined the Falcons after spending three seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Washington Football Team. In 2012, he helped Washington's defense finish tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways. Washington scored four defensive touchdowns in 2012, including two from the secondary. Morris oversaw a unit that tied a league-high with 94 passes defended and ranked fifth in the NFC with a 3.3 interception rate.

Prior to arriving in Washington, Morris spent three seasons as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2009-2011. He was the league's youngest head coach in 2009 and in 2010, his team finished with a 10-6 record. The Buccaneers made their best turnaround in franchise history in 2010 after going 3-13 in 2009.

Morris served in multiple capacities with the Buccaneers during two different stints with the team before he was promoted to head coach. He spent two seasons as the team's defensive backs coach from 2007-08, during which time the Buccaneers allowed only ranked second in the NFL allowing 170.5 passing yards per game. During that span, the Buccaneers ranked among the league leaders with 22 interceptions.

He spent one year as the defensive coordinator at Kansas State in 2006, where he helped seven Wildcat conference honors. Morris' unit featured two first-team All-Big 12 selections and one second-team honoree.

Morris made his NFL coaching debut with Tampa Bay as a defensive quality control coach in 2002, when the club won Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers defense allowed an NFL-low 12.3 points per game, the third-best scoring defense since 2000. He served as a defensive assistant with the Bucs in 2003 and as assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-05.

In 10 seasons in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers finished fifth in total defense five times, while leading the League in 2002 and 2005. He also helped the team finish as the top-rated pass defense three times (2002, 2004 & 2007).

Morris began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports, and video breakdown. He moved on to Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season. Morris served as defensive backs coach at Hofstra from 2000 to 2001 before joining the Buccaneers. He also held a defensive minority internship position with the New York Jets in the fall of 2001. Morris played safety at Hofstra from 1994-97 and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. He is an Irvington, N.J. native.

Ben Kotwica is entering his second season with the Falcons after spending the previous five seasons with the Washington Redskins. Kotwica brings 12 years of NFL coaching experience and special teams knowledge to Atlanta.

In 2019, the Falcons special teams units led the NFL with five fumble recoveries and marked the most by a team in a single season since 2012 (NYG; 5). Four of the five fumble recoveries led to a Falcons touchdown, including a fumble recovery for a touchdown on a kickoff against the 49ers in Week 15. This marked the first time this occurred in franchise history since Nov. 13, 1994. The team signed kicker Younghoe Koo in Week 10, he connected on 23-of-26 field goals and totaled 84 points over the final eight weeks of the season. During that span, the Falcons led the league in the most made field goals and scored the most points.

In his last season with Washington in 2018, his special teams units lead the league in kickoff touchback percentage (81.2-percent). Kotwica also oversaw kicker Dustin Hopkins, who converted 89.7-percent of his field goals, which ranked ninth in the NFL in 2018. In 2017, Kotwica led a kickoff unit that only allowed at 18.7 yards per return, which was the second-lowest average that season.

Since 2014, Kotwica's kickoff return squads have been at the top of the league, returning two kickoffs for touchdowns, which is tied for the second-most over the six-year time span. His players have been responsible for five special teams touchdowns since 2014, which is tied for the fifth-most in the NFL over the last six seasons.

During his lone season as the Jets special teams coordinator in 2013, Kotwica's special teams allowed 22.3 yards per kickoff return, which was 12th in the NFL. That season, he coached Nick Folk who made 91.7-percent of his field goal attempts, which was tied for the 10th highest field goal percentage. Kotwica was promoted to special teams coordinator after spending four seasons (2009-12) as the Jets assistant special teams coach. The Jets accounted for 10 combined kick and punt return touchdowns during his time as an assistant in New York, tied for most in the AFC and tied for second-most in the NFL.

Kotwica got his NFL coaching start in 2007 when he joined the Jets staff as a defense/special teams quality control coach. Before moving his way up to the NFL, Kotwica was a defensive coordinator at USMA Prep School from 2005 to 2006.

Kotwica's background includes his time as a decorated officer who spent eight years in the United States Army after graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point. His military career included operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Korea, and Iraq. Kotwica was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Aviation Branch of the Army and was selected to fly the AH-64 Apache Longbow, the world's best attack helicopter. He was an Attack Helicopter Platoon Leader in support of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1998-2001, where he was responsible for the health and welfare of 20 soldiers.

JEFF ULBRICH

Assistant Head Coach/Linebackers

ULBRICH'S COACHING BACKGROUND

2020	Asst. Head Coach/Linebackers Atlanta Falcons
2015-19	Linebackers Coach Atlanta Falcons
2014	Defensive Coordinator UCLA
2012-13	Asst. HC/Linebackers/Special Teams Coach UCLA
2010-11	Special Teams Assistant Seattle Seahawks

Jeff Ulbrich is entering his sixth year as the Falcons linebackers coach and his first as Assistant Head Coach. Following a tumultuous start to the 2019 season, Head Coach Dan Quinn leaned heavily on Ulbrich and Raheem Morris to get the club's defense turned around. With Ulbrich's assistance, Atlanta's defense vaulted from the bottom of the league rankings to the top 10 in sacks (32nd to 10th), scoring efficiency (32nd to 9th), and red zone efficiency (31st to 6th) over the final eight weeks of the season. The Falcons defensive turnaround helped the club closeout 2019 with a 6-2 record.

Ulbrich once again guided Pro Bowl linebacker Deion Jones to a standout season. The LSU product notched his third season with 100+ tackles (110) while adding eight tackles for loss and four quarterback hits. Jones earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in Week 17 after he sealed Atlanta's 28-22 overtime win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers with a walk-off, 27-yard pick-six.

After Jones was sidelined due to injury early in the 2018 season, Ulbrich coached and helped expedite the growth of rookie linebacker Foye Oluokun, who was thrown into a larger role. Ulbrich helped guide the Yale alumni to a total of 89 tackles, the fourth-most by a Falcons rookie in a single season. Ulbrich also saw more growth from third-year linebacker De'Vondre Campbell, who led the team with 94 tackles and recorded 1.5 sacks.

In 2017, Ulbrich oversaw the growth of his second-year linebackers Jones and Campbell. The tandem teamed up for 230 total tackles, three sacks, 14 passes defended and three interceptions. Ulbrich's coaching played a part in Jones receiving his first Pro Bowl selection, after finishing tied for fourth in total tackles (138), and tying for first in interceptions among linebackers (3).

During his second year with the Falcons, Ulbrich coached Jones during his rookie year, who made an immediate impact on the defense. Jones led the team and all rookies in total tackles with 106. Also under Ulbrich's guidance, Jones recorded three interceptions, which was a team-high and ranked in the top three among all linebackers in the NFL in 2016.

In his first season with the Falcons, Ulbrich coached LB Paul Worrilow who recorded a team-high 95 total tackles, a career-high two interceptions, and one forced fumble.

Ulbrich joined the Falcons after spending three seasons at UCLA. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2014 after serving as the assistant head coach, linebackers coach, and special teams coordinator during his first two years with the Bruins. Last season, Ulbrich's defensive unit was ranked third in the Pac-12 in total defense. Under his guidance, LB Eric Kendricks won the Butkus Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy after topping the nation in solo tackles per game and finishing sixth in the country in total tackles. Kendricks also finished his career as UCLA's all-time tackles leader, breaking LB Jerry Robinson's record set between 1975 and 1978. Seven of Ulbrich's defenders earned first or second team all-conference honors and the Bruins held four opponents to less than 80 yards rushing during the 2014 campaign.

Ulbrich spent two seasons as a special teams assistant with the Seattle Seahawks (2010-11) before arriving in Westwood. Ulbrich was selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round (86th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft out of the University of Hawaii. He earned a starting role with the 49ers in 2001 and spent 10 seasons with the club before retiring in 2009.

Ulbrich was a two-year starter at Hawaii, where he earned All-WAC first-team selection at middle linebacker and was a team co-captain during his senior season.

Dave Brock is entering his fourth season with the Falcons, returning to the wide receiver position in 2020. During his time in Atlanta, Brock has served in a variety of roles, including offensive assistant, wide receivers coach, and running backs coach. He began the 2019 season with the running backs but switched meeting rooms to take over as the wide receivers coach for the final eight weeks when Raheem Morris moved to the defensive side of the ball.

Atlanta's backfield featured several running back with varied skillsets in 2019. Brock helped foster the development of Brian Hill who has continued to show the promise Atlanta saw when they selected him in the fifth round of the 2017 draft. Hill logged a career-high 323 yards on 78 carries with two touchdowns, averaged 4.1 yards per carry in 12 games.

In addition to Hill, Brock also worked with rookie Qadree Ollison. The 6-foot-1, 232-pound power back was selected in the fifth round of the 2019 NFL Draft to give Atlanta a bigger body in short-yardage situations. Ollison logged 50 yards on 22 carries and posted four touchdowns during his rookie campaign. His four touchdowns all came on carries inside the five-yard line with two of them coming at or inside the two.

After making the switch to the wide receivers, Brock once again took over a room with perennial Pro Bowler Julio Jones and second-year standout Calvin Ridley. While Jones and Ridley served as the team's main receiving targets, Brock helped oversee the development of 2018 sixth-round pick Russell Gage who was able to replace some of the production lost after Mohamed Sanu was traded and Austin Hooper suffered an injury. In the final eight weeks of the season, Gage caught 38 passes for 344 yards and one touchdown after managing just 11 catches for 102 yards in the first eight games.

In 2018, Brock saw Julio Jones, Mohamed Sanu, and Calvin Ridley each post 800+ receiving yards. Only one other NFL team had a trio of receivers record 800+ receiving yards in a single season in 2018 - Tampa Bay.

Brock oversaw a Pro Bowl season from Jones, who led the NFL with 1,677 receiving yards and caught eight touchdown passes, marking his second-best single-season statistics in both categories. Brock's work with Ridley before and during the season helped the rookie have an impressive first year. Ridley led all rookies in receiving yards (821) and touchdowns (10). Brock also oversaw a career year from Sanu, who recorded a career-high 838 receiving yards.

Under Brock, the receiving corps totaled 273 receptions for 3,725 yards and 25 receiving touchdowns in 2018.

In his first year in Atlanta, Brock assisted Raheem Morris with the wide receivers. Their receiving group pulled in 214 receptions for 2,848 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Brock joined the Falcons after a four-year stint as the head coach for the University of Delaware. Before joining the Blue Hens, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Rutgers. Brock has been a collegiate coach for 29 years, with stops at Kansas State (2007-08), North Carolina (2005-06), Temple (2002-04), Hofstra (1995-02), Salisbury (1988-90, 1994), and West Connecticut State (1991-93). He is a native of Moorestown, N.J.

Under Knapp's guidance, Ryan completed 69.4-percent of his passes, which was the fourth-highest completion percentage in 2018. Ryan protected the ball extremely well, setting a personal best low of 2.1 interception percentage in Knapp's first year as quarterbacks coach.

Knapp was most recently with the Denver Broncos where he spent he spent four seasons (2013-16). He was hired as the Broncos quarterbacks coach in 2013, but was then promoted to passing game coordinator in 2014. Under Knapp's tutelage, future Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning threw for a career-high 5,477 yards and 55 touchdowns - both are NFL records.

Knapp got his first crack in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers in 1995. He crossed paths with Head Coach Dan Quinn in San Francisco in 2001-03, when Quinn was getting his first job in the NFL and Knapp had worked his way up to becoming the offensive coordinator for the Niners. During his time as offensive coordinator, he helped develop Garcia, who made it to three Pro Bowls in 2000-02 under Knapp's leadership. He also coached Hall of Fame quarterback Young and prolific wide receiver Terrell Owens, who made it to three Pro Bowls when he was the offensive coordinator. Owens posted the highest three-year receiving yardage total of his career (3,814) while combining for 290 receptions and 39 total touchdowns for the 49ers in Knapp's offense.

The California native then moved on to Atlanta where he was the offensive coordinator from 2004-06. During his time here in the mid-2000s, Knapp coached three Pro Bowlers: TE Alge Crumpler, RB Warrick Dunn, and QB Michael Vick. Atlanta boasted the NFL's top-ranked rushing unit in all three years with Knapp overseeing the offense, including a team-record 183.7 yards per game on the ground during the 2006 campaign as Vick became the first quarterback in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Knapp went on to become the offensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders (2007-08, 2012) and the Seattle Seahawks (2009) where he linked back up with Quinn. He also spent time as the quarterbacks coach with the Houston Texans (2010-11), where he helped coach current Falcons backup quarterback Schaub. CHRIS MORGAN

Offensive Line

MORGAN'S COACHING BACKGROUND

2019-20	Offensive Line Coach	Atlanta Falcons
2018	Run Game Coordinator/O-Line	Atlanta Falcons
2015-17	Offensive Line Coach	Atlanta Falcons
2014	Assistant Offensive Line	Seattle Seahawks
2011-13	Assistant Offensive Line	Washington Redskins
2009-10	Assistant Offensive Line	Oakland Raiders

Chris Morgan is entering his sixth season with the Atlanta Falcons as the offensive line coach.

In 2019, Morgan coached an offensive line who's production allowed the offense to average 379.7 yards per game, the fifth-most yards in the NFL, and average 294.6 passing yards per game, the third-highest average in the league.

The Falcons selected two offensive linemen in the first round of the 2019 Draft, G Chris Lindstrom (16th) and T Kaleb McGary (31st). Under Morgan's guidance, both players earned starting roles coming out of training camp. Lindstrom was unfortunately sidelined after suffering an injury in Week 1 but he would return and the duo started the last four games of the season, showing the growth and potential that should solidify the right side of the offensive line for years to come.

In 2018, Morgan coached an offensive line that blocked for an offense that averaged 389.1 yards per game, the sixth-most yards per game in the league. The offensive line's blocking was also a major part in the offense averaging 290.8 passing yards per game, which was the fourth-highest average in the NFL.

Under Morgan's guidance, the offensive line was able to keep QB Matt Ryan upright and able to throw for 4,294 yards and 35 touchdowns. The offensive line's production made it possible for the Falcons to average 6.16 yards per play in 2018, which was the fifth-most in the NFL and the second-highest yards per play average in franchise history.

Morgan continued to oversee the growth of C Alex Mack, who was selected to his sixth Pro Bowl - his fourth straight selection. T Jake Matthews was also selected to his first Pro Bowl under Morgan's guidance in 2018 as well.

In 2017, Morgan coached an offensive line that only allowed 24 sacks, that number was tied for the third-lowest amount in the NFL. Morgan's offensive line was also a catalyst for the eighth-best offense in the league. The Falcons offense averaged 364.8 yards per game and blocked for QB Matt Ryan who averaged 249.4 passing yards per game, which was also the eighth highest in the league. Their blocking also helped the 10-year veteran reach his seventh straight 4,000 passing yard season.

Morgan coached Mack who was selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after anchoring the offensive line for the second year in Atlanta. In 2017, Morgan's offense line showed their ability to sustain blocks by springing the offense for 230 big plays (plays that are 10+ yards) and allowing Ryan to average 7.8 yards per pass attempt, both of which were the fifth in their categories.

Morgan's teaching was essential in helping the offensive line block for the Falcons running backs, who averaged 4.3 yards per carry, which was eighth in the NFL in 2017. The offensive line also blocked for an offensive that was third in the NFL in explosive runs (12+ yards-or-more).

During his second season with the Falcons, Morgan's offensive line blocked for Ryan who was awarded the NFL MVP award at the end of the 2016 season. The offensive line was a major reason why the team averaged a league-high and franchise-high 33.8 points per game. The Falcons broke the franchise record for most points scored in a season in Week 15, with the help of the offensive, when they scored 540 total points on the season, which tied them with the 2000 St. Louis Rams for the eighth-most points scored in a season.

The offensive line blocked for Ryan who threw for a career and franchise-high 4,944 yards and 38 touchdowns. Ryan also had a career-high 117.1 passer rating, which was the fifth-best all-time passer rating. Morgan also helped coach Mack who was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl.

Morgan's offensive line also helped pave the way for a rushing attack that racked up 1,928 yards on the season, which was fifth in the league in 2016. Under his guidance, the offensive line blocked for Devonta Freeman, who finished in the top 10 in rushing for the second year in a row and made it to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

During his first year in 2015, his offensive line helped produce the Falcons first 1,000-yard rusher since 2011, while giving up the eighth-fewest sacks in the league last year. The offensive line also helped block for an offense that recorded 374.1 yards per game, which was seventh in the NFL.

Morgan spent the 2014 season as assistant offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. In 2014, Seattle used eight different starting combinations on the offensive line, including playoffs, and still led the NFL in rushing yards, recording a franchise-high 2,762 yards. In addition to leading the league in rushing last season, the Seahawks offensive line also assisted in helping Seattle lead the NFL in explosive plays (135) and explosive running plays (61) while paving the way to Super Bowl XLIX.

Prior to arriving in Seattle, Morgan served as an assistant offensive line coach with the Washington Redskins (2011-13) and Oakland Raiders (2009-10). In 2012, Morgan helped direct a unit that rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933 and their club's first NFC East title since 1999. Also during his time with the Redskins, tackle Trent Williams was selected to two consecutive Pro Bowls under Morgan's guidance in 2012 and 2013.

In 2010, Oakland ranked 10th in the NFL in yards per game (356.6) and sixth in points per game (25.6). Prior to Oakland, Morgan spent the previous five seasons coaching at the high school level in his native Texas, serving as offensive line coach, special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Westfield High School in Houston.

Morgan served as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Idaho after two years as an assistant coach at Copperas Cove (Texas) High. He played offensive line at the University of Colorado from 1995-1999 and earned his master's degree in educational leadership at Idaho.

TEAM HISTORY

2020 ATLANTA FALCONS MEDIA GUIDE

RANKIN M. SMITH - TEAM FOUNDER

"He was a pioneer and a quiet leader. He was a person of great integrity and had a lot of respect from me and my predecessor, Pete Rozelle, and from all of the other owners. He was such a high quality person. He was a person on whose work you could rely on. In the 1960s he was a pioneer in bringing the NFL to Georgia, and particularly in the Southeast."

– Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue

Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons October 26, 1997 game at Carolina. Some of the largest footprints on professional, college and high school sports in Atlanta belong to Smith, who founded the Atlanta Falcons in 1966.

Over three decades ago in the early 1960s, Smith began planting the seeds that saw professional sports finally blossom in Atlanta.

Smith was part of a group that formed "Major Sports, Inc.," with goals of pro sports franchises for Atlanta. That group helped get Atlanta Stadium built by 1965. Major Sports, Inc., later became the Stadium Authority that operated Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Smith paid the highest price in NFL history at the time in 1965 for an NFL franchise. Former commissioner Pete Rozelle and Smith made the deal in about five minutes and the Atlanta Falcons brought the largest and most popular sport to the city of Atlanta.

Smith worked with the city, county and state to build one of the largest facilities for conventions, trade shows and other major events in the world. The spectacular Georgia Dome opened its doors in 1992, giving the Falcons one of the best fan-friendly stadiums in America. Having the Georgia Dome helped bring the Olympic games to Atlanta in 1992.

He was the catalyst and driving force in bringing the most prestigious of all sporting events, the Super Bowl, to Atlanta in 1994. The week-long fanfare and the most-watched TV sport in the world, added a huge economic value to the city and tons of free publicity to lure other events, conventions and meetings to the city. He lobbied hard to bring back the game to Atlanta in 2000.

The date June 30, 1965, will always be remembered as both a termination and a commencement in the history of Atlanta sports. For on that day the end came to the many and disparate struggles to place a professional football team in the Southeast's key metropolis. At the same time the Atlanta Falcons were born and began a storied tenure in the National Football League.

All that had gone before — the successes (an $18 million stadium to play in) and the near-misses (aborted attempts to place other franchises in the city) — was set aside for the immediate business of fielding a team in little over a year's time.

Prime mover in this task was Rankin Smith, a young insurance executive who had controlling ownership of the Falcons.

Virtually unknown to the general public before that June day, Smith immediately endeared himself to aficionados of the sport by asking a choice rhetorical question at a press conference following his acquisition of the franchise: "Doesn't every adult male in America want to own his own football team?" Not every adult male American has the wherewithal to swing such a deal, but it was comforting to hear that a man is capable of dreams like those of any other guy.

The day's proceedings threw the city into a happy delirium unequalled in the history of football. By the time Smith got back to his insurance office 24 hours later, there had been over 1,000 phone calls for tickets. He had to push his way through stacks of mail. By August, when a contest was completed which resulted in the nickname Falcons, a few of the avid fans even had come to blows in defense of what they believed their adopted team should be called. Several persons suggested the name "Falcons" in a contest, but a school teacher from nearby Griffin, Miss Julia Elliott, was selected winner because of her reasons: "the falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition."

By the middle of December, Smith had signed the most coveted college football player in the nation, Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. By Christmas Eve, when the Falcons cut off a brief 54-day ticket sale requiring almost no promotion, an NFL record had been established for season tickets sold by a new club (45,000).

And in January, Smith surprised the entire athletic fraternity by naming a head coach who never had been mentioned in the perpetual stream of journalistic speculation about the job. But Green Bay Packer assistant Norb Hecker assumed his new post with vigor and immediately embraced the gigantic job of sifting — along with Director of Player Personnel Gene Cronin — a huge list of NFL players made available to the Atlanta expansion team by other teams in the league.

Finally, three men were chosen from each club and these 42 formed the nucleus of the roster Hecker had to work with when he took the team to summer training camp in Black Mountain, North Carolina in early July. Added to this group were the drafted rookies, scores of free agents and a few miscellaneous players obtained in trades. In all, Hecker and his staff were faced with evaluating over 130 men from July to September.

Then, on August 27, in Columbia, South Carolina, the Falcons recorded their first victory, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 24–17, in a preseason game.

Once the stadium, Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was built, Atlantans felt the time was ripe to start pursuing professional football. One independent group which had been active in NFL preseason promotions in Atlanta applied for franchises in both the AFL and the NFL, acting entirely on its own with no guarantee of stadium rights. Another group reported it had deposited earnest money for a team in the AFL.

With everyone running in different directions, some local businessmen worked out a deal and were awarded an AFL franchise on June 7, 1965, contingent upon acquiring exclusive stadium rights from city officials. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who had been moving deliberately in Atlanta matters, headed on the next plane down to Atlanta to protect his league's claim on the city of Atlanta. He forced the city to make a choice between the two leagues. Of course, on that memorable June 30, Rankin Smith and the NFL were the choice.

The huge void which had been the Southeast without an NFL team was beginning to close. Fans were looking now toward Atlanta. The Falcons expect to be filling that void for a long time.

A new chapter in the history of the Atlanta Falcons began on December 6, 2001. On that day, Arthur M. Blank, the co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, reached a preliminary agreement with the Falcons' Taylor Smith to purchase the team. In a special meeting prior to Super Bowl XXXVI in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners voted unanimously to approve the purchase.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

Rankin M. Smith was awarded, by the National Football League, a franchise for the city of Atlanta for $8.5 million. At the time there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, eight AFL clubs. Officially, Atlanta became the 23rd professional football club in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger. An average of 56,526 people filled Atlanta Stadium to watch the Falcons finish their inaugural season at 3-11. The Falcons claimed their first victory on November 20, defeating the New York Giants, 27-16, at storied Yankee Stadium. Head Coach Norb Hecker's team, at the time, became the only expansion team in history not to finish in last place. The Falcons finished in seventh place in a field of eight teams in the NFL's Eastern Conference. The Falcons' first pick in the draft, LB Tommy Nobis, was voted to the Pro Bowl and named Rookie of the Year.

A disappointing second year saw the Falcons finish the season at 1-12-1. While the broad picture looked bleak, there were cameos of excellence that led to a promising future. LB Tommy Nobis was named to his second Pro Bowl and RB Junior Coffey ended the year with 722 yards to finish as the eighth leading rusher in the league and the Falcons' Most Valuable Player.

Norm Van Brocklin was named to replace Norb Hecker as head coach after three games in the season. The 2-12 Falcons won twice after Brocklin's arrival and finished short by a touchdown or less in three other games. DE Claude Humphrey, the Falcons first-round draft choice, was voted NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year for his play at left end. Billy Lothridge, despite having to start at safety, won his second consecutive NFL punting championship. LB Tommy Nobis was also named to his third-straight Pro Bowl.

The Falcons doubled their best victory total ending the season at 6-8. Atlanta started the season with its first victory in a season opener, a 24-12 decision, vs. San Francisco at Fulton County Stadium. Backup QB Randy Johnson was named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for his four-touchdown effort in the Falcons' 48-31 victory over the Chicago Bears on November 16. RB Harmon Wages scored three touchdowns vs. New Orleans on December 7, as he threw, caught and ran for a touchdown in a 45-17 win. The club would finish the season in its highest place yet in the Coastal Division at third. Seven Falcons were named to the Pro Bowl: RB Jim Butler, QB Bob Berry, LB Greg Brezina, K Bob Etter, T George Kunz, TE Jim Mitchell and DB Ken Reeves.

The Falcons completed their fifth season at 4-8-2, but were not far away from having their first winning season as four times Atlanta led deep in the fourth quarter (vs. San Francisco, Green Bay, Los Angeles and Philadelphia) only to lose or be tied in the final moments. Quarterback Bob Berry had the franchise's first 300-yard passing game vs. the Packers on September 27 and RB Jim Butler set a new club record in rushing with 127 yards on 17 carries in the home opener vs. the 49ers on October 4. Over 30 million viewers saw the Falcons face the Dolphins in Atlanta's first game nationally on Monday Night Football with Miami prevailing, 20-7. Defensive end Claude Humphrey, T George Kunz and LB Tommy Nobis represented the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

For the first time in team history, ticket prices are raised. Most seats increase in price from $6 to $7.50. Head coach Norm Van Brocklin was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, becomes the third home of the Falcons' training camp. The Falcon uniform is also changed as the team switches to red jerseys. On November 22, Atlanta wins its first nationally-televised game with a 28-21 victory over Green Bay at home on Monday Night Football. The Falcons post their first winning season in history at 7-6-1, after WR Ken Burrow pulls in a winning touchdown pass from QB Bob Berry with 40 seconds remaining in a 24-20 victory over New Orleans on December 19 in the regular-season finale, but still do not qualify for the postseason. DE Claude Humphrey is named to his second-straight Pro Bowl.

Draft rights for Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn are obtained as the Falcons make four deals involving six veterans. RB Dave Hampton scores two touchdowns and rushes for a club record of 161 yards as the Falcons stop Los Angeles, 31-3, on October 1 for the team's first victory ever, in 11 games, over the Rams. Fellow RB Art Malone rushes for 103 yards, marking the first time in Atlanta's seven-year history that two backs Smashing 35 team records, the Falcons defeat New Orleans in the season opener, 62-7. In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the club's history, Atlanta rebounds to defeat the previously unbeaten Minnesota Vikings, 20-14, before a capacity crowd and national-television audience at Atlanta Stadium. The Falcons finish the season at 9-5 for their most wins and best record ever, but lose out to the playoffs by just one game. Rookie kicking specialist Nick Mike-Mayer, DE Claude Humphrey, DE John Zook and T George Kunz were named to the National Football Conference Pro Bowl team on December 18.

Norm Van Brocklin is fired as head coach-general manager after eight games into the season on November 5. Marion Campbell, the Falcons' defensive coordinator since 1969, is named head coach the following day. A record low of 40,202 "no shows" is recorded at Atlanta Stadium as Los Angeles defeats the Falcons, 30–7, in sub-freezing weather on December 1. Rookie QB Kim McQuilken, making his second start of the year, leads the Falcons to a season-closing 10–3 victory over Green Bay to finish the team's record for the year at 3–11. DE Claude Humphrey and C Jeff Van Note are selected to represent Atlanta at the Pro Bowl.

The Falcons trade veteran T George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore for the No. 1 pick in the 1975 NFL draft. Atlanta also got the Colts' sixth round choice. QB Steve Bartkowski of California, a consensus All-America, is selected by the Falcons as the No. 1 draft choice on January 28. On February 26, Pat Peppler, instrumental in the construction of two Super Bowl championships at Green Bay (1967 and 1968) and Miami (1973 and 1974), is named the Falcons' new general manager. RB Dave Hampton finally cracked the elusive 1,000-yard Club, by gaining 61 yards in the final game of the season against the Green Bay Packers. Those yards pushed his total to 1,002, making him the first back in Falcons history to gain 1,000 or more yards rushing. Atlanta ended the season at 4–10. The Falcons had two players selected to the Pro Bowl following the season: C Jeff Van Note and P John James.

After the club's fourth loss in five starts, Marion Campbell is fired as head coach. Chairman of the Board Rankin M. Smith Sr. names Pat Peppler interim head coach on October 11. Atlanta exploded for 17 points in the fourth quarter to upset playoff-bound Dallas, 17–10, on Nov. 21, before 54,992 fans at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. Under Peppler, the Falcons finish the season 4–10. P John James is selected to his second straight Pro Bowl.

The Falcons begin a complete revamping of the front office. On February 1, former Washington Redskin and Dallas Cowboy QB Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager and Rankin M. Smith, Jr. is named President of the team. Leeman Bennett, an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Rams for four years, is named the Falcons' head coach on February 3. During the season, the Falcons defense established a modern-day NFL record of 129 points allowed in a 14-game season, as the club finishes 7–7. The defense gains the popular nickname "The Gritz Blitz": P John James, DE Claude Humphrey and DB Roland Lawrence are named to the Pro Bowl.

On March 30, the Falcons announce plans for a new year-round training site and team headquarters to be constructed in Suwanee, Georgia. The team unveiled new uniforms, which featured silver-gray pants on August 19. The Falcons record their first ever shutout in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on October 15, with a 14–0 defeat of Detroit. K Tim Mazzetti kicks five field goals to give Atlanta a 15–7 Monday Night victory over the Los Angeles Rams on October 30. On December 16, the Falcons clinch their first ever playoff berth when Chicago defeats Washington as the Falcons close out the season with a 9–7 record. QB Steve Bartowski throws two touchdown passes in the final eight minutes to spark a 14–13 Atlanta win vs. Philadelphia in the NFC Wild card Playoff Game on December 24 for the Falcons first-ever playoff victory. The Falcons lose the next week in the Divisional Playoff Game 27–20 at Dallas after squandering a 20–13 halftime lead.

Rookie RB William Andrews establishes a new club single game rushing record with a 167-yard performance at New Orleans on September 2, in his NFL debut. On September 16, QB Steve Bartowski sets a new franchise record for single game passing with 326 yards on 20 of 29 passing against Denver. Running back Lynn Cain becomes the first Falcon player to ever score three touchdowns in a single game as he catches two and rushes for another against Oakland on October 14. In a 31–21 victory over San Francisco on December 16, records were broken for the season by Andrews with 1,023 yards rushing, WR Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Bartowski with 2,502 passing yards (203–379). The Falcons finish the year at 6–10 and C Jeff Van Note is selected to play in the Pro Bowl.

The Falcons go on a nine-game winning streak, starting with a 41–14 rout of New Orleans, to finish with a 12–4 record to capture the team's first-ever NFC Western Division title. The Falcons nine straight wins and 12 wins on the season are both club bests. In a battle of 12–4 teams in Atlanta, the Falcons build a 27–17 lead over Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff game, but are defeated by the Cowboys 30–27 in front of the largest crowd in stadium history (60,022). The year features club records in passing from QB Steve Bartowski (3,544 yards and 31 TDs), rushing by RB William Andrews (1,308 yards) and receiving by WR Alfred Jenkins (1,025 yards) plus LB Al Richardson got a takeaway in nine consecutive games as the team garnered a total of 42 takeaways. A record six Falcons are selected to play in the Pro Bowl: Andrews, Bartowski, Jenkins, C Jeff Van Note, T Mike Kenn and TE Junior Miller.

Trailing Green Bay 17–0 after three quarters on the road, the Falcons erupt for an NFL record tying 31 fourth quarter points in a 31–17 win. The team finishes the year at 7–9 and has a club-record seven members selected to the Pro Bowl: T Mike Kenn, QB Steve Bartowski, C Jeff Van Note, WR Alfred Jenkins, RB William Andrews, TE Junior Miller and G R.C. Thieleman. The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they finished with the 7–9 record. The defeats were by 1,2,2,3,3,3 and 5 points.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

Season ticket sales are halted after reaching a club record 55,144 as Atlanta finishes the strike-shortened season at 5–4. For the third time in five seasons, the Falcons go to the playoffs with a playoff–clinching 17–7 victory on national-television at San Francisco on December 19. In the opening round of the playoffs at Minnesota, the Falcons special teams score touchdowns on a blocked punt and a fake field goal to help build a 21–13 lead in the second half. But the Vikings rally for 14 points in the 4th quarter to win 30–24. T Mike Kenn, G R.C. Thielemann, C Jeff Van Note and RB William Andrews are selected to the Pro Bowl.

The Falcons end the year with a 7–9 record as new head coach Dan Henning takes over the team. DE Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two touchdowns in the same game on interception returns as Atlanta defeats Green Bay 41–34 in overtime. Running back William Andrews sets a new club record with 331 rushing attempts for 1,567 yards. QB Steve Bartkowski has his third 3,000-yard season and set a team mark with a 63.4% completion rate and just a 1.1% interception rate (5 interceptions in 432 passing attempts), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon on December 18.

RB Gerald Riggs takes over for the Falcons' all time leading rusher William Andrews who is out for the season after knee surgery. On opening day at New Orleans, Riggs sets a new club record with 35 attempts for 202 yards in a 36–28 win. This begins the first of three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for Riggs who carries 483 times over 18 games without fumbling. The Falcons finish the year at 4–12.

PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson became the NFL's all-time leading punt returner as he gains 58 yards in the season opener versus Detroit on September 8. On the final game of the season, RB Gerald Riggs runs for 158 yards, his 9th 100-yard game of the year, in a 16–10 win at New Orleans to finish the season with 1,719 yards and leads the NFC in rushing, while being named to the Pro Bowl. The team ends their second straight season at 4–12. Eddie LeBaron, Vice President and CEO, is dismissed, while former Falcon head coach Marion Campbell is hired as defensive coordinator.

The Falcons soared to four straight wins by beating New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. On December 14, Atlanta Fulton-County Stadium played host to C Jeff Van Note day as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, Van Note was presented gifts including a vintage 1957

Chevy (symbolic of his jersey #57 and being a classic). K Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PATs, as the team lost seven of their last nine contests to end the year at 7–8–1. G Bill Fralic and RB Gerald Riggs were selected to represent the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

For the second time in his career, Marion Campbell is named head coach of the team. After being defeated 48–10 at Tampa Bay in the season opener the Falcons rebound claiming victory over the eventual World Champion Washington Redskins 21–20 in front of over 50,000 fans at Fulton-County Stadium on September 20. Also on that day, PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson added another milestone to his brilliant career by becoming the NFL's all-time leading punt returner by recording his 259th lifetime return. On September 22, the NFL Players Association walk off the job for the second time in five years, but only one game is cancelled. The League's owners decide to continue with replacement players. RB Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher with 5,987 yards, surpassing William Andrews on December 6. P Rick Donnelly and WR Sylvester Stamps claim a pair of NFL individual titles as they finish the season with the league's punting title with a 44.03 average and a league-best 27.5 kickoff return average, respectively. The Falcons end the year with a 3–12 record, while G Bill Fralic and Riggs are named to the Pro Bowl.

An improving Falcons defense was among the best in the NFL during the second half of the season as Atlanta finishes the '88 campaign at 5–11. Atlanta's "baby boomers" (average age of 25) allowed only six touchdowns over the final seven games. CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case picked off 10 passes on the season to finish atop the league charts and set a Falcons record for interceptions in a season. Running back John Settle put his name in the league record book by becoming the first free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season with 1,024 yards. G Bill Fralic joined Case and Settle in the Pro Bowl following the season.

CB Deion "Prime Time" Sanders, who after a lengthy holdout, reports to camp and takes part in practice on Friday and a Saturday walk-through before the season opener versus the Los Angeles Rams. In the first quarter, Sanders returns a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier in the week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a homerun and score a touchdown in the same week. G Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, the only guard in the NFL to do so, and is named to the 2nd team of the All-NFL team of the 80's. Rookie WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie defensive backs with five interceptions and gaining over 1,000 yards in return yardage. Head coach Marion Campbell announces his resignation after 12 games (3–9); leaving assistant head coach Jim Hanifan to take over for the final four games. The team ends the season with a 3–13 mark.

Former Falcons defensive coordinator and Houston Oilers head coach Jerry Glanville accepts the offer to become the Falcons 9th head coach in franchise history. The team announces plans for their 25th Anniversary season that includes going back to the original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the anniversary logo patches for the uniforms. With the number one pick in the draft, Atlanta trades with Indianapolis for six-time Pro Bowl lineman T Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison and the following year's #1 pick. The Falcons close their first-ever undefeated preseason at 4–0 with a 45–14 win over New England. On September 9, Houston comes to town to face Atlanta and their former coach, but the Falcons prevail scoring three defensive touchdowns en route to a 47–27 victory. The Falcons led the NFL with a 3.3 per carry rush defense as the team moved up in over 20 statistical categories from the previous season to finish the year at 5–11. LB Jessie Tuggle led the NFL in tackles with 201 and Rison sets a club mark with 82 pass receptions on his way to a Pro Bowl berth.

The Falcons proved to be one of the most exciting and entertaining teams of the NFL in '91, winning six straight games down the stretch and eight of their last 11 contests, to earn a playoff berth at 10–6. Atlanta had the second most wins in club history with 11 and captured their first road playoff victory at New Orleans. The Falcons also made team history by sweeping through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Saints, Rams, and 49ers, giving San Francisco their only home loss on the season. A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons final home game of the 1991 season, as well as Atlanta's final game in Fulton-County Stadium. The Falcons defeated Seattle, 26–13, to run their home win streak to five straight. CBs Deion Sanders and Tim McKyer both co-led the NFC in interceptions with six apiece. Sanders was joined at the Pro Bowl by teammates WR Andre Rison, QB Chris Miller and T Chris Hinton.

On August 23, a sold-out crowd and a national TV audience saw the Falcons win the first-ever football game in the new Georgia Dome, 20–10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. In the regular season opener in the Dome, Atlanta scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20–17 win over the New York Jets before another sellout crowd. The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33-touchdown passes and became the only team to have 30 or more touchdowns in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. WR Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the league. The Rison-WR Michael Haynes tandem netted 21 touchdowns to lead the NFL for the second straight year (23 in '91). The team finished the season with a 6–10 record as Rison, DB Deion Sanders, LB Jessie Tuggle and special teams standout Elbert Shelley were named to the Pro Bowl.

Led by Pro Bowlers WR Andre Rison, QB Bobby Hebert, S Elbert Shelley and PK Norm Johnson, Atlanta's offense scored over 300 points for the fourth consecutive season. Rison scored a club record 15 TDs and set a new standard for the most receptions in his first five seasons with 394. Hebert finished third in the NFL with a career-high 24 touchdown passes and had the NFL's longest play of the year, a 98-yard strike to WR Michael Haynes. Johnson nearly had a perfect season, connecting on 26-of-27 field goals (.963), while stretching his consecutive FG streak to 26 in-a-row, the second best mark in NFL history. Pro Bowler CB Deion Sanders continued to be an impact player, picking off seven passes while shutting down the league's top receivers. Third-year RB Erric Pegram made a name for himself, rushing for 1,185 yards, the fourth highest total in '93 as the team ended the year for a second straight season at 6–10.

June Jones was named the Falcons' 10th head coach on January 24 replacing Jerry Glanville who resigned following the 1993 season. The '94 season was trademarked by the way the team started and ended each game. The Falcons came out ready to play in the first quarters, rolling up a combined 93–61 advantage in those first 15 minutes of play. Atlanta also had the lead in 14 of the 16 games they played in and led 12 of those 16 games, heading into the fourth quarter only to finish the year with a 7–9 record. In 11 of the 16 games, the Falcons had the lead at the two-minute warning only to falter in the end. Wide receiver Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season with a club record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks second on the Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to the '95 Pro Bowl along with teammates LB Jessie Tuggle and S Elbert Shelley.

In what would be Atlanta's first playoff season since 1991, the Falcons ended the regular season with a 9–7 mark, while establishing some club and league records along the way. K Morten Andersen, who was signed as a free agent from New Orleans before training camp, sets an NFL- mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game. Shots from 55, 55 and 51 capped a 19–14 victory over Andersen's former Saints teammates to give Atlanta their first sweep of New Orleans since 1985. Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the defending World Champion 49ers, 28–27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas Eve. Quarterback Bobby Herbert connects with WR Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner, as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone with 1:45 remaining. Atlanta establishes an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including WRs Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039) and RB Craig Heyward (1,083). Quarterback Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th quarterback in league history to have over 4,000 yards passing in a season by finishing with 4,143 yards. LB Jessie Tuggle, S Elbert Shelley, DE Chris Doleman, Andersen and Hayward were named to the Pro Bowl.

Only one season after earning a wild-card berth, Atlanta tied a club-mark for most losses and finished with the third-poorest winning percentage (.188) in team history with a 3–13 mark. A 31–15 victory over the Saints on December 8 snapped a 10-game road losing streak and provided the team with its first NFC West win outside the Georgia Dome since an overtime win in New Orleans on September 17, 1995. In a lone bright spot, RB Jamal Anderson became the seventh Falcons player in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,055 on the year. With Anderson's accomplishment, the Falcons were the only NFL team to have three different players in the past four years to gain 1,000 yards. On December 23, head coach June Jones was dismissed from the team.

On January 3, Dan Reeves is named the 11th head coach in franchise history as he comes to Atlanta as Executive Vice President of Football Operations/Head Coach. After a difficult 1–7 start, the Falcons went 6–2 in their final eight games to finish 7–9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) on his way to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate LB Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. DE Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and DT Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge. Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away on October 26 from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally televised game at Carolina. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions, to his beloved city of Atlanta.

The Falcons, who jumped from a 7–9 finish in 1997 to a franchise record 14–2 in 1998, specialized in quick turnovers. In one of the more heart felt stories of the year, head coach Dan Reeves underwent quadruple bypass surgery and a mere five weeks later coached his team to a 30–27 overtime victory against Minnesota to capture the NFC Championship that matched the Falcons against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXIII in Miami. The team accomplished many firsts in 1998 with the first-ever 8–0 home mark, best overall record at 14–2, most points in a season with 442 that included a best 53 touchdowns and a league-high 44 takeaways. Atlanta was paced by RB Jamal Anderson, who set a team record with 1,846 yards rushing, including an NFL high 12 100-yard games. The Falcons dubbed themselves the "Dirty Birds" and Anderson created a touchdown dance to fit the name. The dance, which even consisted of flapping arms to act like wings, was introduced when TE O.J. Santiago celebrated his two-touchdown effort following a 41–10 victory at New England in early November. The fever it generated captivated a national audience as well as brought the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene. Dan Reeves joining Anderson on stage for a rendition of the "Dirty Bird" following the NFC Championship trophy presentation was a lasting highlight of the team's journey to the Super Bowl. Reeves, who was named NFL Coach of the Year, guided his Falcons to just the second NFC West title in the 33-year history of the franchise. QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle and T Bob Whitfield joined Anderson in representing the Falcons in the Pro Bowl.

The Atlanta Falcons entered the 1999 season with the hopes of defending their 1998 NFC Championship crown and becoming the first NFL team ever to reach the Super Bowl in its own stadium. The Georgia Dome was the site of Super Bowl XXXIV. Unfortunately the setbacks of an 0–4 start led the Falcons to a disappointing 5–11 finish. In Week 2 against the Dallas Cowboys in a Monday Night Football matchup at Texas Stadium, RB Jamal Anderson was lost for the season with a knee injury. The Falcons did reach some milestones through the season. WR Terance Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receptions with a 12-catch, 166-yard performance in a Monday Night Football game at Pittsburgh. LB Jessie Tuggle had his 12th-straight 100-tackle season after finishing with a team-leading 122 total tackles.

After a 2–1 start that included victories over two key NFC West opponents, the Falcons season took a turn for the worse with a 4–12 final record. The Falcons suffered several key injuries including a season-ending foot injury to LB Keith Brooking after five games and LB Jessie Tuggle in the eighth game of the season. RB Jamal Anderson returned to action following a 1999 season-ending knee injury, starting all 16 games and finishing with his fourth 1,000-yard season with 1,024 yards. K Morten Andersen began the season with a five-field goal game vs. San Francisco and then ended the year with five field goals in the season-finale vs. Kansas City. In the process he became the Falcons all-time leader in both field goals and points. Wide receiver Terance Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receiving yards to pass WR Alfred Jenkins in that category. Rookie CB Darrick Vaughn, the Falcons seventh round draft choice, led the NFL with a 27.7 average and three kickoff returns for a touchdown. That average and the three touchdowns are both Falcons single-season high marks.

The 2001 Atlanta Falcons entered Week 15 with a matchup at Miami with a 7-7 record and still alive in the NFC playoff race. Three controversial calls by the officials and two goal line stands by the Dolphins defense ended the Falcons post-season hopes with a 21-14 defeat. The next week the Falcons traveled to St. Louis and lost 31-13 to finish the year with a disappointing 7-9 record. Even with two overtime losses to San Francisco when the Falcons squandered fourth quarter leads, Atlanta jumped to a 6-4 record before winning just one of their remaining six games. Included in the wins was a big 23-20 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field, highlighted by a 352-passing effort by QB Chris Chandler. Long after memories of the disappointing 2001 season end, the year will be remembered for the nucleus of young players that emerged and will hopefully lead the Falcons to a successful future. Among the group of young players that stood out were Pro Bowl LB Keith Brooking, who had 10 or more tackles in 11 of the team's 16 games, and first-round draft pick QB Michael Vick. Vick had the normal growing pains of any rookie quarterback, but in the Miami game Vick, who played following an elbow injury to Chandler, showed flashes of his potential, completing 11 of 20 passes for 214 yards with a touchdown and gaining 63 yards rushing on five carries. Among his highlights were a 52-yard pass to WR Brian Finneran and a 23-yard scramble for a first down on the 4th and 15 play. A renewed Chandler led the team to a 6-4 record in games where he started and finished, and DE Patrick Kerney had a breakout year with a team-leading 12.0 sacks. The day before the draft, the Falcons obtained the first pick in a trade with San Diego and used the pick on Vick, who is expected to be the quarterback of the future. In another historical move, team President Taylor Smith agreed to sell the team to local businessman Arthur Blank, who was approved by the NFL owners the day before the Super Bowl. A week before the final preseason game the end of an era came upon the Falcons when LB Jesse Tuggle retired following 14 seasons in Atlanta. The example he set helped his replacement Brooking, who was moved from the weakside linebacker spot to the middle, spring to the top of the middle linebacker lists in the NFL with a career-high 167 tackles.

The Atlanta Falcons began the Arthur Blank era with a 9-6-1 record and a berth in the playoffs as a Wild Card participant. Blank helped resurrect the excitement in the Georgia Dome with added value to the fans with increased tailgating, parking and entertainment. The fans responded with every game being sold out. After beginning the year with a 1-3 record, head coach Dan Reeves and QB Michael Vick led the Falcons to an NFL-best eight-game unbeaten streak (7-0-1). The Falcons set records and showcased numerous highlights during that stretch. In a game at Pittsburgh, the Falcons rallied from a 34-17 deficit with just over eight minutes to play to tie the game at 34-34. The Falcons also shutout Carolina two times with a 30-0 victory at the Dome and a 41-0 win in Charlotte. The Falcons finished the season with a team-record 23 rushing touchdowns and a franchise-best eight games with 30 or more points. After finishing 30th in rushing in 1999, 28th in 2000 and 16th in 2001, the Falcons improved to 4th in the NFL in 2002. On the defensive side of the ball, new defensive coordinator Wade Phillips made a switch to a 3-4 defensive alignment that helped the team finish third in interceptions with 24, second in takeaways with 39 and fourth in sacks with 47. In his first season as a starter, Vick earned a Pro Bowl berth to become just the sixth quarterback to be voted to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a starter. Vick rushed for 173 yards in an overtime win at Minnesota, the highest single-game rushing total for an NFL quarterback ever. Vick also had the longest run ever by a Falcons quarterback with a 46-yard game-winning touchdown in overtime against the Vikings. LB Keith Brooking earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth after setting a career-high with 212 total tackles. In the postseason, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in the postseason at Lambeau Field with a 27-7 win to advance to the second round of the NFC playoffs. The Falcons season came to an end the next week with a 20-6 loss against the Philadelphia Eagles at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Divisional playoff game.

One season removed from a playoff berth and a historical win over Green Bay in the playoffs, the 2003 Falcons fell to 5-11. Injuries and a lack of consistency punctuated the Falcons 2003 season. QB Michael Vick, who played a large role in the Falcons' push for the playoffs in 2002, suffered a broken right leg in the second preseason game against Baltimore and did not return until the 11th game of the regular season in a relief appearance at Houston. Strong first half efforts would give way to second half heartbreak as the Falcons went 2-6 in the eight games which they led at the half. The Falcons defeated the Dallas Cowboys in the regular season opener, 27-13, before losing their next seven contests. They did not win again until the ninth game of the season when they went on the road and defeated the New York Giants 27-7. The victory gave Falcons head coach Dan Reeves the 200th win of his career. One year after setting the NFL single-game record for most yards rushing by a quarterback, Vick went out and rushed for a 141 yards in his first start of the season against the Panthers. His rushing performance marked the third-highest single game rushing total by a quarterback in NFL history. Three days after the victory against the Panthers, Reeves, who coached the Falcons for seven seasons, was released from his contract on December 10. Defensive coordinator Wade Phillips took over as interim coach for the final three games. In the days leading up to the Buccaneers game in Week 16, Rich McKay, who for the previous eight seasons was general manager of the Buccaneers, was named president and general manager of the Falcons on December 15. Less than two weeks after the conclusion of the season, Jim Mora was named head coach on January 9, 2004. LB Keith Brooking and TE Alge Crumpler were named to the Pro Bowl, with Crumpler earning a starting nod on the NFC squad.

First year Head Coach Jim Mora's fiery, motivating style of coaching becomes contagious and resonates with his team as the Falcons match the best start ever in team history at 4-0 on their way to a 6-2 halfway record. The aggressive approach on both offense and defense pays off and masks the potential growing pains of new offensive and defensive systems being implemented. The birds clinch just their third division title in team history in high fashion in a 35-10 rout of the Oakland Raiders in Week 14 as RB T.J. Duckett establishes a new team record with four rushing touchdowns. The club finishes the regular season with an 11-5 record, a first round playoff bye, and sets numerous milestones, including leading the NFL in rushing for the first time ever with a team record 2,672 yards and a club-best 5.1 per carry average, as well as a League-high 48 sacks, which also is the first time that feat has been accomplished. The Falcons defense soars 18 spots from the last in the League in 2003 to 14th in total defense and scoring defense under new architect Ed Donatell. Atlanta blasts St. Louis 47-17 in the Divisional Playoff game at the Georgia Dome in one of the most dominant rushing performances in postseason history, racking up 327 yards rushing, the fourth-highest total ever. The Falcons' dream of a Super Bowl trip is ended the following week in a 27-10 defeat at Philadelphia in the NFC Championship Game, the second NFC Title appearance in team history. Mora garners votes for NFL Coach of the Year and becomes just the 11th head coach in NFL history to capture a Division title in his first season. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season.

The Falcons soar to a 6-2 first half record despite numerous injuries on defense that force rookies into the starting lineup and a shuffling of linebacker positions after five games. Atlanta records a perfect 3-0 mark on Monday Night Football (and 4-1 record in nationally-televised games). The growing pains catch up to the Falcons in the second half of the season though and the team finishes 8-8. Atlanta's offense again leads the NFL in rushing yards with 2,546 yards and average at 4.8. RB Warrick Dunn enjoys a career year with a career-high 1,416 rushing yards en route to earning his Pro Bowl since 2000. TE Alge Crumpler leads the team in receptions with a career-best 65 catches for a career-high 877 receiving yards. QB Michael Vick passes for 2,412 yards with 15 touchdowns and rushes for 597 yards and six scores. LB Keith Brooking leads the club again in tackles with 150 as he moves over to MLB after a season-ending Achilles injury to Edgerton Hartwell in Week 5 forces a chain reaction of wholesale changes in the linebacker department. Rookies such as LB Michael Boley and DL Jonathon Babineaux, Chauncey Davis and Darrell Shropshire are pressed into major duty due to injuries. DT Rod Coleman leads all interior linemen with 10.5 sacks. Dunn, Crumpler, Vick, Brooking, Coleman and CB DeAngelo Hall are voted to the Pro Bowl by their peers and are the most Pro Bowlers since the 1998 Super Bowl season.

Similar to the second half of 2005, the Falcons start out 5-2 in first half of play only to limp to 2-7 down the stretch. Head Coach Jim Mora is dismissed from his contract after three years following the 7-9 season. The Falcons lead the NFL in rushing again for the third straight year with a franchise record 2,939 yards, which is the ninth-highest total in NFL history. Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in League history to rush for over 1,000 yards with 1,039. With RB Warrick Dunn's 1,140 rushing yards, Vick and Dunn become only the fourth set of backfield teammates to both eclipse the century mark in the same season in NFL history. Vick also adds a career-high 20 touchdown passes. TE Alge Crumpler is named to his fourth straight Pro Bowl as he leads the team in receiving and adds a career-high eight touchdowns. CB DeAngelo Hall also is voted to the Pro Bowl but first year as a starter. K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in career field goals.

The Falcons placed a franchise record 16 players on injured reserve which included seven starters over the course of the season. Atlanta also witnessed its starting quarterback be suspended by the NFL prior to the start of the year while its Head Coach Bobby Petrino left the team following Week 14. With a 4-12 record, the Falcons did see some positive results however. Wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first 1,000-yard receiver since 1999 and running back Warrick Dunn became the 22nd player in league history to amass 10,000 career rushing yards. Kicker Morten Andersen and quarterback Chris Redman each received NFC Player of the Week accolades.

In just one season, the Atlanta Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The '08 campaign was a year of firsts as first year Head Coach Mike Smith and first year quarterback Matt Ryan became the first rookie head coach and quarterback duo to compete in a playoff contest since 1945 when the Cleveland Rams accomplished the feat. In Smith's stellar first season, he also became only the fourth Head Coach in franchise history to record 11 or more victories in a single year en route to Associated Press Coach of the Year honors. The distinction marked only the second occasion a Falcons coach earned the award in franchise history. The Falcons witnessed an entire team effort in the turnaround as an organization with a fresh look that took the NFL by storm, winning five of their last six games on the way to a second place finish in the NFC South Division. Atlanta garnered two Pro Bowl selections in running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White who also made their first visits to the league's all-star game. Quarterback Matt Ryan earned Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and was named NFC Rookie of the Month (October), a first in both categories in team history. The Falcons also finished the regular season with five NFC Player of the Week accolades. Turner earned the honor on three occasions, while Ryan was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Oakland Raiders in Week 9 and wide receiver Harry Douglas was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 61 yards against Carolina in Week 12. In his first season with the Falcons, Turner was tied for second in the final NFL MVP voting as he finished second in the league in rushing (1,699 yards) while topping the 1,000-yard plateau for the first time in his career. Turner also posted 17 rushing touchdowns, which set a new franchise record. White also logged a career year as he set a new franchise record with 1,382 receiving yards in a single-season while becoming the first wide receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-yard campaigns. Defensively, John Abraham set a new team record and a personal best with 16.5 sacks, topping the old record of 16.0 held by Joel Williams, which was set in 1980. At the conclusion of the year, Coach Smith (Coach of the Year), Matt Ryan (Rookie of the Year) and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff (Executive of the Year) all earned honors from Sporting News Magazine, becoming the first trio in the publication's 132-year history to sweep the awards.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

The Falcons concluded the 2009 campaign with a 9-7 record and back to back winning seasons for the first time in the franchise's 44-year history, which includes an 11-5 record in 2008. Atlanta ended the season with three consecutive victories and a series sweep over NFC South Division rival Tampa Bay. After two seasons, Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith compiled a coaching record of 20-12 (.625), which is the second-best winning percentage for an Atlanta head coach in their first two seasons with the team. He sits behind Dan Reeves who totaled a 21-11 mark

(.656) from 1997-98. As a starter, quarterback Matt Ryan finished the 2009 campaign with a 6-0 home record and after two seasons is 13-1 starting under center. The 2009 season featured many team and individual accomplishments, but none as impressive as wide receiver Roddy White who finished the season with 85 receptions for 1,153 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to register three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Tight end Tony Gonzalez, who led all tight ends in NFL history at seasons end in receptions (999), yards (11,807) and touchdowns (82), became the 21st player in NFL history to surpass 11,000 career receiving yards. Among other accomplishments, Gonzalez set the Falcons single-season reception record for tight ends with 83. Defensively, Jonathan Babineaux led the team with a career-high six sacks. Cornerback Brent Grimes finished the year with a team-leading six interceptions and safety Thomas DeCoud was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (6) for his performance against the Chicago Bears.

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2010 regular season with a 13-3 record, marking the team's second highest win total in franchise history. The Falcons also claimed the NFC South title and earned the top seed as well as home field advantage in the NFC Playoffs. Combined with an 11-5 record in 2008 and a 9-7 record in 2009, Atlanta has now posted three consecutive winning seasons for the first time in club history and has earned two playoff berths in the last three seasons. In 2010, the Falcons sent a franchise record and NFL-best nine players to the Pro Bowl with DE John Abraham, TE Tony Gonzalez, FB Ovie Mughelli, QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner, WR/ST Eric Weems, and WR Roddy White all voted in, while T Tyson Clabo and CB Brent Grimes were added as alternates at the end of the season. The Birds went 7-1 at the Georgia Dome this season, which was tied for the second-best home record in a single-season in franchise history. This is the fifth time in club history that the team has posted a 7-1 home record, including twice under Head Coach Mike Smith. Only the 1998 team posted a better record, going 8-0 at home. Additionally, Atlanta posted a 5-1 record against NFC South opponents. Since 2008, the Falcons are 11-7 against division foes. Ryan had a breakout season in his third year under center, throwing for a career-high 3,705 yards, 28 touchdown passes and a 91.0 passer rating. Meanwhile, White set new franchise records with 115 catches and 1,389 receiving yards. White also posted his fourth straight 1,000-yard season and earned All-Pro honors. For the second time since 2008, the Falcons had a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver, and a 1,000-yard rusher, as Turner led the NFC with 1,371 yards and a team-high 12 touchdowns on the ground. Gonzalez continued his climb in the NFL record books, becoming the first tight end in League history to record 1,000 career receptions and his 1,069 catches ranks sixth all-time and second among all active players. His six touchdown catches in 2010 tied him with WR Don Maynard for 10th on the NFL's all-time touchdown receptions list with 88 career TDs and his 12,463 receiving yards are 15th all-time. Defensively, Abraham regained his 2008 form posting 13.0 sacks and two forced fumbles, while Grimes and S William Moore shared the team lead with five interceptions each and Grimes posted a franchise record 23 passes defended. LB Curtis Lofton led the team in tackles for the second consecutive season with 142 total tackles (101 solo). Atlanta captured the NFC South title for the second time since the NFL's realignment in 2002 and it was the fourth time in team history that the Falcons won their division (1980, 1998, 2004, 2010).

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

The Atlanta Falcons concluded the 2011 season with a 10-6 record, marking the first time in franchise history that the team has recorded back-to-back seasons with at least 10 wins and third time in the last four seasons. The Falcons captured the fifth seed in the NFC, notching consecutive playoff berths for the first time in franchise history.

The Falcons also clinched a playoff berth for the third time in the last four seasons. Under Head Coach Mike Smith, the Falcons are the only NFC team to post winning records in each of the last four seasons (2008-11).

Smith has posted a four-year record of 43-21, which is not only the best four-year mark in team history, but ranks among the best records in NFL history for first-time head coaches. Smith is tied with Bill Cowher (Pittsburgh - '92-95), Mike Martz (St. Louis - '00-03), Mike Sherman (Green Bay - '00-03), and Mike Tomlin (Pittsburgh - '07-10) for the fourth-best four-year record among first-time head coaches.

The Birds wrapped up the 2011 campaign in record setting fashion, as QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White all established new franchise bests. Ryan broke the franchise record for passing yards in a single season after eclipsing QB Jeff George's club record of 4,143 yards set in 1995. Ryan finished the 2011 season with 4,177 passing yards, 29 touchdown passes and a 92.9 quarterback rating, all career highs. White became the Falcons all-time leading receiver with 7,364 career receiving yards, breaking Terance Mathis' franchise record of 7,349 yards set between 1994 and 2001. The seventh year receiver out of UAB also finished the season with 100 receptions and became the first player in team history to record multiple 100-catch seasons. Turner also got in on the action, breaking Gerald Riggs' franchise record of 48 rushing touchdowns set between 1982 and 1988. "The Burner" led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,340 yards and added 11 touchdowns on the season.

In addition, TE Tony Gonzalez continued his ascension in the NFL record books, becoming the NFL's second all-time leading receiver with his 1,149 career receptions and climbed to 11th in League annals with his 13,338 career receiving yards and was named to his 12th Pro Bowl.

Defensively, the Falcons enjoyed a breakout season from LB Sean Weatherspoon, who finished the season with a career-high 127 tackles (86 solo) and four sacks. LB Curtis Lofton led the team in tackles for the third consecutive year with 167 tackles (101 solo) and added two interceptions. DE John Abraham continued to wreak havoc on opposing quarterbacks, notching 9.5 sacks and four forced fumbles.

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2012 season with a 14-4 overall record and hosted the NFC Championship Game for the first time in franchise history. In five seasons under Head Coach Mike Smith, the Falcons have posted five consecutive winning seasons and earned four trips to the playoffs. Under Smith, the Falcons have posted a 56-24 record and their 56 wins are the second most in the NFL during that time and Atlanta's .700 winning percentage is the second-best mark in the NFL over the last five seasons trailing only the New England Patriots (60-20, .750).

Smith earned NFL Coach of the Year honors from the Sporting News for the third time in the last five seasons after guiding the Falcons to an NFC best 13-3 record in 2012. He also set a franchise record for most career coaching wins (56).

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2013 season with a 4-12 overall record, marking the club's first losing season since 2007. Despite their struggles in 2013, the Falcons have compiled a 60-36 regular season record (.625) which is tied for the sixth best record in the NFL over the last six seasons.

WR Julio Jones returned from a foot injury that sidelined him the previous season and recorded career numbers. Jones led the team in receptions and yards with 104 catches and 1,593 receiving yards, which also ranked him third in the NFL in both categories. Jones' 1,593 receiving yards also broke White's previous franchise single season receiving mark, and helped earn him his second Pro Bowl selection. Jones had a record breaking performance against the Green Bay Packers on Monday Night Football when he tallied 259 receiving yards on 11 catches, which was a franchise record for receiving yards in a game.

LB Paul Worrilow lead the team in tackles for the second straight season with 142 total tackles (84 solo). Dan Quinn became the 16th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history, taking over the club after serving as the Seattle Seahawks defensive coordinator for the last two seasons (2013-14). Quinn was the first rookie head coach in Falcons history to start 5-0. He was also the first head coach in NFL history to start 5-0 after his team trailed in the fourth quarter of four of its first five games.

In Quinn's first season as head coach, the Atlanta Falcons finished with an 8-8 record, including wins in two of their last three games. QB Matt Ryan finished the season 407-of-614 for 4,591 yards with 21 touchdowns, 16 interceptions, and an 89.0 passer rating. WR Julio Jones had a historic season as he passed Antonio Brown's 2014 mark on the single season receptions list (129). His 136 receptions, tied him for second on the NFL's single-season receptions list. Jones became one of three players in NFL history to have more than 130+ catches in a single season. He is also one of two players in NFL history to record 130+ catches and 1,800+ receiving yards in the same season, joining Brown who finished the year with 136 catches and 1,834 yards.

Additional, Jones also passed Jerry Rice for second all-time on the single-season receiving yardage list (1,848). Jones is now one of three players all-time to record 1,800+ receiving yards in a single season, and he became one of five Falcons players to record 1,800+ yards from scrimmage in a single season (1,871).

Second year running back, Devonta Freeman burst onto the scene early on during 2015. After only rushing for 248 yards all last season, Freeman more than tripled that amount and rushed for 1,056 yards, which was the seventh-best mark in the League. In Week 15 against the Jaguars, Freeman became the sixth running back in franchise history to score 10-or-more rushing touchdowns in a single season. His 11 rushing touchdowns was tied for the lead in the NFL this season. Freeman also had 68 rushing first downs, which was the second highest amongst running backs.

Allen recorded 68 total tackles, which was third on the team. He also lead the team in interceptions this season with three. CB Desmond Trufant was only targeted 56 times this season, which was an NFL low among cornerbacks who played at least 75-percent of their team's defensive snaps. Trufant also only gave up 32 receptions, which was the third lowest total among cornerbacks who played at least 75-percent of their team's defensive snaps.

In Dan Quinn's second season at the helm, he led the Falcons to their second Super Bowl appearance in franchise history. The team went 11-5 during the regular season and won the NFC South title for the first time since 2012.

QB Matt Ryan also became the first Falcon to win the MVP award after a stellar career and franchise setting season. Ryan had career and franchise highs in the regular season in passing yards (4,944), passing touchdowns (38), completion percentage (69.9), and passer rating (117.1). This season, Ryan also became the first person to pass for 200+ yards in 50 consecutive games, his streak currently stands at 55 games.

WR Julio Jones continued to build off his historic 2015 season by putting up 1,409 receiving yards - second in the league - in only 14 games. Jones also passed the 100-yard mark seven times this season, knocking his career 100-yard game total to 35 - four off the franchise record.

In Week 4, Jones put up 300 yards receiving against the Carolina Panthers, which is the fourth most receiving yards recorded in a game in the Super Bowl era. In Week 10, Jones played his 75th career game and recorded his 475th career reception, which became the most in NFL history in a player's first 75 games. A few weeks later, the former Alabama standout passed former Falcons receiver Terance Mathis and moved to second on the franchise's all-time receiving yards list on the first play of the game in Week 13.

The Falcons defense saw the emergence of several young stars, including OLB Vic Beasley Jr, S Keanu Neal and LB Deion Jones. The 2015 first round pick found his niche as he led all players with 15.5 sacks, and finished second on the franchise's single-season sack list, one away from former Falcon John Abraham. Beasley Jr. also lead the league in forced fumbles - six. His six forced fumbles on the season were tied for the most in franchise history.

Neal, the team's first round pick in 2016, made an immediate impact for the defense, as he forced five fumbles and was second on the team in total tackles. Jones, the second round pick out of LSU, led the team and all rookies in total tackles. He also recorded three interceptions, which led the team.

The team also got quality play from rookies LB De'Vondre Campbell and TE Austin Hooper.

In the team's third season under Dan Quinn, the Falcons finished 10-6, while making a trip to the divisional round of the playoffs. The Falcons were the only NFC team who made the playoffs in 2016 to be back in the playoffs this season. This was also the first time since 2011-12 that the team has recorded back-to-back 10+ win seasons (third time in franchise history posting back-to-back 10+ win seasons).

This season the Falcons saw a major improvement from the defensive side of the ball. In one year, the defense allowed 52.8 fewer yards per game ('16 - 371.2; '17 - 318.4) and gave up 166 fewer offensive points. The team only allowed 49 plays of 20+ yards the entire season, which was fifth in the NFL this season.

This team also produced four Pro Bowlers this season: WR Julio Jones, C Alex Mack, LB Deion Jones (first Pro Bowl), and S Keanu Neal (first Pro Bowl). This season, the defense also made a huge leap in improvement by only allowing 52.8 fewer yards per game ('16 - 371.2; '17 - 318.4) and giving up 166 fewer offensive points.

Jones recorded his third career game with 250+ receiving yards, which is the most in NFL history. No other player in league history has more than one 250+ yard receiving game. He finished the season with 88 receptions for 1,444 yards and three touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in NFL history to have four straight seasons with 80+ receptions and 1,400+ yards - Marvin Harrison is the other receiver.

Quarterback Matt Ryan kept up his stellar play in 2017 as well. In 2017, he became the fastest player to 40,000 passing yards - 151 games. He also extended his 200+ yards passing game streak to 64 games, which is a new NFL record. Also, for the seventh straight season, Ryan threw for 4,000 passing yards, which is tied for the third longest streak in NFL history.

LB Deion Jones showed growth from his first to second season in the league. The second year linebacker earned his first Pro Bowl selection after leading the team with 138 total tackles and three interceptions.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

The Atlanta Falcons finished their 2018 campaign with a 7-9 record. Although the Falcons had a rocky season, the team finished second in the NFC South and swept the season series between the Carolina Panthers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The Falcons also had four players selected to go to the Pro Bowl, Alex Mack, Julio Jones, Austin Hooper and Jake Matthews.

Head Coach Dan Quinn took it upon himself to try and right the ship after an unsuccessful season for the franchise. Quinn hired Dirk Koetter, who will take over play calling for the offense and Ben Kotwica, who will oversee special teams. Along with those changes, Quinn will also take over the defensive play calling responsibilities in 2019.

Although the offense struggled at times, the Falcons still finished in the top 10 in total yards (6th), passing yards (4th), and third down conversion percentage (4th). QB Matt Ryan remained as one of the positive constants for the team throughout 2018. Ryan finished the season with 4,924 passing yards, 35 touchdowns, and a 108.1 passer rating, all of which were the second-best in his career. The 11-year veteran also surpassed Carson Palmer for 12th-most touchdown passes in NFL history (295).

Jones added another impressive season to his resume after the Alabama native led the league in receiving yards with 1,677 - second highest of his career - while also hauling in 113 receptions and eight touchdowns. Jones recorded 10 100-receiving yard games this season, breaking his previous franchise record of nine games (2015).

The Falcons defense only allowed 46 completions on passes that went 20+ yards, tying them for the ninth-lowest total among defenses in the NFL. The defense's 19 sacks on third down were also tied for the 10th most in the NFL.

During this season, we saw the emergence of S Damontae Kazee, who tied for the league lead in interceptions with seven. LB De'Vondre Campbell also stepped up when his name was called. Campbell led the team in tackles this season and continued to prove why he is one of the most underrated linebackers in the NFL. DT Grady Jarrett continued to grow into one of the premier defensive linemen in the league after posting six sacks on the season.

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2019 campaign with a 7-9 record. Although the Falcons started off 1-7, the team turned it around after the bye going 6-2 and finishing second in the NFC South. The Falcons also had three players selected to go to the Pro Bowl in Julio Jones, Grady Jarrett and Austin Hooper.

Jones and Jarrett were also named second-team All-Pros by the Associated Press.

The Falcons closed out the season with four consecutive wins and played a league-high seven opponents that qualified for the postseason. They were also one of two teams (Baltimore) that defeated three divisional champions in the regular season.

The offense finished in the top five in total yards (5th), passing yards (3rd) and fourth down conversion percentage (4th). QB Matt Ryan finished the season with 4,466 yards, including 11 300-yard games, a new franchise record and tied for the third-most games in a single season in NFL history. In Week 14, the 12-year pro surpassed 50,000 career passing yards, becoming the 10th NFL player to achieve the feat.

Jones continues to play at an elite level, totaling 99 receptions for 1,394 yards and six touchdowns. This marked the nine-year pro's sixth-consecutive season with at least 80 receptions and 1,300 yards, the longest-active streak and only NFL player to do so. In Week 16, Jones surpassed 12,000 career receiving yards, becoming the fastest player to do so by accomplishing the feat in 125 games. Hall of Famer Jerry Rice previously held the record doing it in 142 career games.

Although the defense struggled at times, the Falcons showed vast improvement when Raheem Morris switched to the defensive side of the ball in Week 10. In the first eight games, the defense had the fewest takeaways in the NFL (4), but finished tied for the second-most in the NFL (16) over the final eight games.

Some notable players on the defensive side include Jarrett who finished the season with career-highs 75 sacks and 69 tackles. According to Next Gen Stats, the Clemson alum had the most run stuffs (tackles made on run plays resulting in no gain or loss) in the NFL in 2019. LB Deion Jones also had a great year after coming back from an injury in 2018. The four-year vet finished with 110 tackles, marking his third season of 100+ tackles, four QB hits, five passes defended and a pick-six on the final play of 2019.

Atlanta's defense also finished the second half of the season with the best third-down percentage (25.8) in the NFL and the eighth-best scoring defense (18.6 ppg).

UNIFORM HISTORY

Black Jersey's with white numbers and red trim at home with a white Falcon crest on the sleeves. The away jersey was white with black numbers trimmed in red and a black Falcon crest on the sleeves. The Falcons had white pants with a red strip bordered by two black stripes for both home and away games. The helmet was red with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in white, and there was a black strip trimmed in white down the middle of the helmet.

In 1968, the Falcons removed the Falcon crest logo from the sleeves and replaced it with red and white stripes. Also, a red-black-red stripe combination was added to the sleeves.

In 1971, the Falcons switched to red jerseys for the first time and wore them all the way up to the 1989 season. The only other significant change to this uniform was the addition of silver-gray pants in 1978. Also in 1984, the Falcons switched to a black face mask. The home jersey was red with white numbers and black trim with white-black-white sleeve stripes. The away jersey was white with red numbers and black trim with red and black stripes on the sleeves. In 1979 the Falcon crest logo was added to the sleeves.

In 1990, the Falcons once again wore black jerseys as they did in their inaugural years. The 1990 season marked Atlanta's 25th anniversary season in the NFL, and the team wore a commemorative patch on their left shoulder. In addition, the Falcons switched to a black helmet with a black face mask and a white Falcon crest logo. From 1990-2002, the home jersey was black with white numbers trimmed in red with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in red on the sleeves. The away jersey was white with red numbers trimmed in black with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in red on the sleeves. The pants were Falcon silver with a black stripe down the middle trimmed in white and red.

The year 2003 continued to bring about many new changes for the Atlanta Falcons. Perhaps the biggest changes came with the introduction of the team's new logo and uniforms unveiled over the course of a two-month period.

On March 19, 2003, before a large gathering of media and the entire Falcons organization, the Falcons presented their new logo.

"The new Atlanta Falcons logo is fresh, strong and dynamic, and yet appreciates the tradition and history of this franchise," said Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank. "The new logo depicts a more powerful, aggressive Falcon - one of fast movement. It is also representative of the evolution and direction of our team."

The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

The home uniforms consisted of black jerseys and white pants, while the road attire featured white jerseys and white pants. The team also introduced modified versions of the uniforms, which included wearing black jerseys with black pants at home and white jerseys with black pants on the road.

The jerseys and pants included red piping down the side, which expand at the knee for a fast, streamlined look. They also have "Falcons" stitched at the neckline in a newly developed font and include a number font that was designed specifically for the Falcons, consisting of a drop shadow for more depth. The black jerseys contained white numbers with red trim, while the white jerseys contained red numbers with black trim. The new Falcons logo appeared on the sleeve of both jerseys on a red background. The helmet remained black, however it also featured a metallic flack compared to the previous flat black-colored helmet.

In 2004, the Falcons announced they would wear red jerseys at home and use the black jerseys as their alternate third jersey. Declared the team's alternate third jersey in 2003, red jerseys were worn twice in 2003, against the Tennessee Titans on November 23 and again in the Falcons nationally-televised 20-14 overtime win against the Carolina Panthers on December 7.

The Falcons unveiled throwback uniforms in a Week 2 meeting against the Carolina Panthers to honor the inaugural 1966 team as part of "Alumni Weekend." Atlanta again donned the retro uniforms in a Week 12 meeting against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Georgia Dome. Atlanta won both games with the throwback uniforms.

The team took the field in a blended 1966 replica uniform against the San Diego Chargers and San Francisco 49ers, as they paid homage to the athletes and teams that paved the way before them. As a special tribute, Falcons players throughout history were recognized in honor of the team's annual Alumni Game.

The Falcons throwback design aesthetic stayed true to 1966 with exception of the helmet. The original uniform featured a red helmet with a similar bold stripe pattern down the center to match the pants and socks. This year, due to NFL helmet safety rules, the team punctuated the throwback uniform with their current black helmet. It showcased the original Falcon crest used by the team from 1966 to 2003 - the same black on black design worn in the team's 1998 Super Bowl appearance.

First introduced in 2016, the NFL Color Rush program, in partnership with Nike, was started as a way to give NFL teams the opportunity to honor each franchise and engage spirited fans and cities while adding yet another reason to watch on Thursday nights.

Featuring a full-color head-to-toe look, each club's Color Rush uniform takes inspiration from both its current and historic uniform colors and designs, combined with progressive innovation that will set the tone for the future of the game and light up Thursday Night Football, the fastest growing NFL primetime night.

Color Rush Uniforms

The Falcons selected a bold all-red head-to-toe uniform aesthetic, however due to a color conflict in their Thursday Night matchup against Tampa Bay on November 3, 2016 Atlanta wore their white uniform as the away team.

One hundred percent of the NFL's proceeds from the sale of Color Rush jerseys will go directly to the NFL Foundation to fund health, safety and wellness programs for youth around the country. The NFL Foundation is the league's non-profit organization, representing all 32 clubs, and funds grants to support athletes, youth football and the communities that support the game. The first $500,000 raised from this initiative was earmarked to replace youth and high school football equipment and fields lost in last month's devastating floods in Louisiana.

The Atlanta Falcons will usher in the 2020 season with new uniforms as part of a comprehensive redesign for the first time in 17 years. The entire new array of uniform options includes elements of the Falcons' past while updating the brand to match the modern progression of Atlanta.

The new official Falcons home look will feature black jerseys and black pants with the away look going white on white. The uniform closet will now offer up to eight different color combinations, including the current throwback version paying homage to the 1966 team and a new "Rise Up" alternate uniform. The collection includes four jerseys (black home, white away, gradient alternate and the '66 throwbacks), four pants (black, white, red and throwbacks) and one helmet (satin black).

UNIFORM HISTORY

Using nearly two decades of fan research collected from focus groups, online and through different social media platforms, as well as input by current and former Falcons players, the overwhelming plea was consistent: 1) Own red, but bring on the black, 2) reflect the modern progression of the city, and 3) keep it simple and stay true to our roots.

Throughout continued conversations with fans and players, it was clear that the designs needed to reflect elements of the past and the present, the pride of Atlanta as well as the state-of-the-art design of Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

2020 UNIFORM

Conversations started inside the organization back in 2016 with the official process kicking off in January 2018. The Falcons embedded their internal design team together with the NFL and Nike to determine how best to bring the uniform and identity to life, and the result is clean, simple and intentional.

"We took a fan-first approach in gathering feedback and design input and have modernized the look of our team and our brand" said Falcons President, Rich McKay. "Black has been a part of our organization since we took the field in 1966 so we've stayed true to our roots and have given our fans and players what they've been asking for over many years."

"This process has been a true reflection of Arthur Blank's core values -- listening and responding to our fans" said Morgan Shaw Parker, the Falcons chief marketing officer. "The city has evolved, our stadium has evolved and we knew it was time to do the same with our brand."

Like the city of Atlanta, black evokes strength, power, grit ... and a little bit of swagger. Black jerseys have been a part of Falcons history since they first took the field in 1966, during the original Dirty Bird era in the late 1990's, from 2003-08 and more recently as alternates or throwbacks, amplified by personalities like Deion Sanders, Jerry Glanville and Michael Vick to Matt Ryan and Julio Jones.

The color red reflects a shared sense of community in Atlanta as most of the major sports teams and many iconic home-grown brands share the color. Several signature elements across the new uniforms are highlighted in red including the familiar Falcons bird logo, the new ATL mark across the chest and the new stripe or "stoop", down the side of the uniform. Red is also featured as a primary jersey color in the new gradient "Rise Up" alternate uniform.

Silver and gray have also been a part of the Falcons color palette for decades but will now play a more prominent role, incorporated into the helmet decal and the new silver facemask.

Atlanta is known as much for diversity and culture as it is for innovation and creativity. From music and design to business and technology, the city of Atlanta influences everything. The Falcons have a proud tradition of bringing people together from all walks of life, so the new ATL mark is placed proudly and prominently across the chest of the new uniforms as a reflection of a city constantly on the rise. A three-letter combination recognized around the world; it is only fitting the Falcons represent the ATL on a global stage.

The Falcons helmet has evolved from a traditional glossy look to a more modern all-black satin finish. The Falcon bird logo is nearly 30 percent larger than before with a chrome outline to complement the new face mask.

The "Rise Up" alternate uniform pays homage to our next generation of Falcons fans. The gradient pattern rising from black to red offers a fresh representation of a city constantly on the rise through a visual pattern made from the eye in the Falcon logo.

2020 AWAY UNIFORM

UNIFORM HISTORY

The familiar, identifiable Atlanta Falcons wordmark has been tightened and sharpened for ease of use, while the new numbers boast a more modern typeface, a drop shadow and sharp terminals to match the angles of the current wordmark and primary Falcon bird logo.

The Atlanta Falcons primary logo was updated in 2003 and remains the same in 2020. It was derived from the original team logo dating back to the club's debut in 1966. We've stayed true to our roots by keeping our colors and the Falcon bird intact – making it even more prominent than ever before but delivering a more modern design that reflects our team, our fans and this great city.

The stripe or “stoop” down the side of the uniform is a graphic extension taken directly from the wing on the Falcon logo, and the gradient pattern in the “Rise Up” Alternate uniform pattern is taken directly from the eye of the bird.

The 1966 throwback uniform has become an icon to both players and fans alike, and one that will remain a staple in the Falcons closet. The throwback decal adorns the helmet and the iconic red and black stripe pattern has been a consistent staple through several historical uniform designs.

Mercedes-Benz Stadium

[2017-PRESENT]

Falcons Home Record (5-3)

The Georgia World Congress Center Authority and Atlanta Falcons completed an agreement for a new retractable roof stadium to be built on the Georgia World Congress Center campus. Scheduled to open during the summer of 2017, the Mercedes-Benz Stadium will serve as the home of the Atlanta Falcons in addition to Atlanta United, as well as conventions, and entertainment events, such as the College Football National Championship in 2018, Super Bowl LIII in 2019, and the NCAA Men's Final Four in 2020.

The Authority and Falcons have created a long-term solution for the region, state and Falcons by agreeing to a new stadium on the Georgia World Congress Center campus. The new facility will allow the Falcons to provide a league-competitive game day experience for fans and ensure the city and state are able to retain major events currently held at the Georgia Dome as well as attract new marquee events to the region.

The Falcons opened up Mercedes-Benz stadium against the Green Bay Packers on September 17, 2017. During that game, Atlanta jumped out on the Packers early and held onto a lead late, as they gained their first win in Mercedes-Benz Stadium, 34-23.

Falcons Home Record (116-83-0)

In 1992, the Atlanta Falcons and the state of Georgia unveiled to the rest of the world the latest crown jewel in an ever-shining southern skyline with the opening of the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome is the culmination of efforts which began in earnest in June of 1984 as business, civic and governmental leaders gathered to discuss a new stadium in Atlanta. The project continued to gain steam in January of 1988 as a "consensus" of leaders agreed on using a hotel/motel tax increase to finance the local portion of construction.

In January of 1989, Rankin Smith and then-governor Joe Frank Harris signed a "memorandum of understanding" for the Falcons to play in the Dome under a 20-year lease.

The project came to fruition in the spring of 1989 when the state, the Atlanta City Council, and Fulton County Commission approved the construction of the $210 million Dome. Ground-breaking ceremonies took place on November 22, 1989, with construction getting underway on March 27, 1990.

As soon as the project was passed, the Dome became a major 'player' in the sporting community. Rankin Smith was determined to introduce the south's latest showpiece to the football world and he succeeded. With the determined backing of the Smith family, the Georgia Dome played host to the most significant sporting events in the world as global attention was focused on Atlanta for Super Bowl XXVIII played on January 31, 1994 between the Dallas Cowboys and the Buffalo Bills. The Georgia Dome hosted its second Super Bowl on January 30, 2000 between the St. Louis Rams and the Tennessee Titans.

The Falcons played their last regular season game in the Georgia Dome against the New Orleans Saints on January 1, 2017. The team clinched the NFC South on a 38-32 victory, as they locked up the number two seed in the playoffs with the victory. The Falcons' regular season record in the Georgia Dome was 116-83.

The Falcons officially closed the Georgia Dome with a 44-21 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship game to send the franchise to its second Super Bowl in team history.

Falcons Record (85-106-2)

Twenty-six years of NFL football in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium came to an end on December 15, 1991 when the Falcons met the Seattle Seahawks for their final game in their very first home.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was built in 51 weeks and gave the city the foundation to support big-league baseball and pro football. Less than a year after construction, the stadium was primed for a cameo appearance by the baseball Braves, who were still playing in Milwaukee at the time, on April 9, 1965. On August 14 of that same year, the Minnesota Vikings defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first football game ever played at the stadium. Some local people deemed the Stadium "The Miracle on Capital Avenue."

RING OF HONOR

Roddy White was added to the Ring of Honor in 2019.

The Atlanta Falcons organization doesn't officially retire jersey numbers, but considers certain player's jerseys worthy of being honored. Currently, the Falcons do not use any of the jersey numbers honored below. The Falcons Ring of Honor which is featured in the rafters of the Georgia Dome honors individual players and not jerseys.

[1966-76]

The first-ever player drafted by the Atlanta Falcons for the inaugural 1966 season, Nobis quickly became the first-ever Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl after being selected as a rookie. The stellar middle linebacker was named the NFL Rookie of the Year for his efforts. "Mr. Falcon" led the team in tackles in nine of his 11 seasons, while earning five trips to the Pro Bowl. In a poll conducted in 1970 by ABC to pick the best athlete of the decade of the 1960s, running back O.J. Simpson was number one and Tommy Nobis was number two in the entire country. He had an astronomical 294 total combined tackles as a rookie, still the team's club record. Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two for touchdowns. His uniform #60 has been worn by only him during the team's existence. He retired in 1976.

[1968-74, 76-78]

Humphrey is currently the team's all-time sack leader with 94.5. He was selected as the 1968 Defensive Rookie of the Year and earned six Pro Bowl honors throughout his career, tying Jeff Van Note for the most in team history. Humphrey's five consecutive Pro Bowl nods from 1970-74 is also tied with current Falcons linebacker Keith Brooking and fellow inductee Mike Kenn for the most consecutive Pro Bowl appearances in team history. Humphrey was also voted the Falcons Player of the Year in 1976 after leading the team with 15.0 sacks, the second-highest total in a season in Falcons annals. In 127 career games, the Tennessee State alum recovered 11 fumbles, which ranks sixth in team history and also returned one fumble recovery for his only touchdown against the Minnesota Vikings on December 21, 1969.

[1969-86]

Holds Falcons team marks for most seasons played (18) and most consecutive games played (155). He is second in the team record books with 246 games played and 225 games started. Van Note originally came to the Falcons as a linebacker from Kentucky, but was moved to center by head coach Norm Van Brocklin and eventually earned the starting job at center in 1970. He earned the first of his six Pro Bowl berths in 1974. Van Note is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcons player with six. He retired in 1986.

[1975-85]

The No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975, he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. He set every team record in passing, which included 23,468 career yards and 154 touchdown passes in 123 games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes. Bartkowski collected over 50 victories as a starting quarterback for the Falcons and guided the team to their first playoff victory in franchise history over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978.

[1978-94]

Kenn was the 13th overall selection in the 1978 NFL Draft by Atlanta and spent his entire 17-year career in a Falcons uniform. He started every game he played in, setting a franchise record for the most career games played and the most career starts with 251. Kenn only missed nine games during his Atlanta tenure after beginning his career with 90 consecutive starts. The Michigan alum participated in six playoff games and was a member of an offensive line that allowed the lowest sack total (25) in a single season (1982) in team history. The Falcons amassed 30,455 total rushing yards and 188 rushing touchdowns during Kenn's career with the team.

RING OF HONOR

[1979–86]

A third-round pick, Andrews was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended his career. He became just the second running back in NFL history to have two 2,000-yard (combined yards) seasons (the only other player prior to Williams was O.J. Simpson). When he had his first 2,000-yard year, he joined just four other backs who had done so (Jim Brown, Walter Payton, Wilbert Montgomery and Simpson). In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979–83), Andrews outgained every other back in the entire NFL. The bullish Andrews had 8,382 total yards in those five years (an average of 1,677 per year) to lead all NFL runners. Andrews set 19 Falcons club records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards in a game at New Orleans where he totaled 189 yards. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1983 and made the NFL All-Rookie team in 1979. He retired in 1987.

[1982–88]

Riggs was selected by the Falcons as the ninth overall pick in the 1982 NFL Draft out of Arizona State. He was a three-time Pro Bowler in his seven seasons in Atlanta and finished his Falcons career as the franchise's all-time rushing leader with 6,631 rushing yards. Riggs tallied 48 career touchdowns, which puts him second in team history in terms of rushing touchdowns and fifth in overall touchdowns. Riggs' name litters the Falcons record books as he was one of the most prolific rushers of his time.

[1987–2000]

Jessie came to the Falcons as an undrafted free agent in 1987 and retired in August of 2001 as one of the all-time greatest players in franchise history. Nicknamed, "The Hammer," for his bone-jarring tackles, Tuggle is the club's all-time leader in total tackles with 2,065 and enjoyed 12 straight 100-tackle seasons. He led the team in tackles in a season 10 times and amassed 20 or more tackles in a single-game on four occasions with a personal-best of 24 stops. His 14 seasons played, 189 career starts and 209 total games played are third-most ever in Falcons history. Tuggle's five Pro Bowl appearances (1992, 1995, 1995, 1997, 1998) stand tied for the third-most ever by a Falcons player. The Falcons honored #58 with "Jessie Tuggle Day" during halftime of the Falcons game vs. the Detroit Lions on December 22, 2002.

[1989–1993]

Sanders was a three-time Pro Bowl starter during his Falcons career after being selected as the fifth overall player in the 1989 draft out of Florida State. Considered one of the best pure cornerbacks ever to lace up a pair of cleats, Sanders also doubled as a dangerous return man. He was recently tabbed the 34th best player in the history of the League by a new NFL Films-produced series, The Top 100: NFL's Greatest Players.

[2002–07]

In 2002, Dunn was signed by the Atlanta Falcons where he spent the next six years of his career. Dunn posted 5,981 rushing yards – fourth on the franchise's all-time list – in 90 games for the Birds. Dunn was also a dynamic receiver out of the backfield, his 204 receptions are second on the franchise's all-time list among running backs and his 1,635 receiving yards ranks third on that list. In 2005, Dunn was selected to his third career Pro Bowl – first with the Falcons – after posting his second consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season (1,416 yards) and catching 29 passes for 220 yards and tallying four total touchdowns. In 2006, Dunn had his third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season (1,140) with the team and joined his teammate QB Michael Vick, who also had 1,000 yards rushing (1,039) that year as well. They became the fourth duo in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards – only two other pairs of teammates have done it since 2006. It also marked the first time in NFL history that a quarterback and running back from the same team each rushed for over 1,000 yards.

[2005–15]

Selected with the 27th overall pick in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft, White spent his entire 11-year career in Atlanta. The dynamic playmaker was one of the top receivers in the NFL during his era earning four straight trips to the Pro Bowl from 2008 to 2011. He set club records for receptions, receiving yards, receiving touchdowns, overall touchdowns, and 100-yard receiving games. White had a breakout season in 2007, catching 83 passes and notching 1,202 receiving yards. The next season he would team up with QB Matt Ryan to usher in one of the most successful runs in franchise history. White rattled off six straight seasons with more than 80 receptions and 1,000 yards as he helped lead Atlanta to the playoffs four times. During his All-Pro campaign in 2010, he set franchise records with 115 receptions and 1,389 yards. White finished his career with 808 receptions and was the 42nd player in NFL history to eclipse 10,000 receiving yards.
