STEVE BISIOTTI

OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY

BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 11/11

The Ravens, who have earned the playoffs three of the last four years, are trying to make the NFL's postseason for the third consecutive season for the first time in team history. "It's an accomplishment that would be nice. You have to make the playoffs to have the chance to compete for championships," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti says.

When Bisciotti, now in his 11th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired John Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in the first two seasons with Harbaugh.

"I think leadership is difficult to define, but you can recognize leadership when you see it," Bisciotti says. "We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success. There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

The 2008 Ravens earned an 11-5 regular-season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers. In 2009, the Ravens completed a 9-7 regular-season campaign and became the first team to win a playoff game at New England (33-14) since 1978.

The passionate Bisciotti, who is 50 and the second-youngest owner in the NFL (to Washington's Daniel Snyder - 46), bought a minority interest in the Ravens in 2000 from Art Modell and completed the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV championship team. Steve's influence in the NFL continues to rise – he currently is a member of two important ownership committees: Broadcasting and Digital Media.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children alone.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State with a degree in liberal arts in 1982, Bisciotti worked in

A young Steve Bisciotti with the late Johnny Unitas at Colts training camp.

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts' players if I could wear their helmets."

GAME DAY

STEVE BISCIOTTI

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED RECENTLY NAMED STEVE BISCIOTTI ONE OF THE FIVE BEST OWNERS IN THE NFL:

"Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field." May, 2009 the temporary help industry. In 1983 (he was 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees. Starting with two employees and two clients, Bisciotti and Davis produced $1.5 million in sales in the first year.

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest privately-held staffing firm (revenue-wise) in the United States. The company, which is based just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe, has over 8,000 internal employees and 90,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group, which, like Steve, does little self promotion or publicity, places employees in positions from engineers to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Until he bought the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level. In fact, it wasn't even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm okay if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, quietly is dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Bisciotti recently (2007) purchased a collection of Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas memorabilia, which he immediately loaned to Baltimore's Sports Legends Museum. "It was important to keep those memories in Baltimore and for fans to get a chance to see them," Bisciotti explains.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing, boating and is devoted to University of Maryland athletics, especially the men's basketball team. He and his wife Renée (Foote) are the parents of two sons, Jason, who is pursuing a master's in business, and Jack, a senior in college. Renée helped design the interior and selected the furnishings at the Ravens' training complex. The family lives in Millersville, MD.

Bisciotti is pronounced Bih-SHAH-tee.

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area that we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to, or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

— Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

ART MODELL

MINORITY OWNER

COLLEGE: AIR FORCE

BORN: 6/23/25, BROOKLYN, NY

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 45/15

Art Modell – much like Steve Bisciotti – embodies the spirit of a true American success story. Both men have been described as bold, competitive, compassionate and highly-approachable entrepreneurs – generally, a rare combination of qualities for men who have risen to their level of accomplishment.

In April of 2004, Art finalized the sale of the World Champion Baltimore Ravens to Bisciotti. Also in 2004, Art was a semifinalist for that year's Hall of Fame class. He was one of 15 finalists for the Canton NFL Hall of Fame in 2001 and a semifinalist for the classes of 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009 and 2010.

Modell purchased the Cleveland Browns for what was an unprecedented price of $4 million in 1961, and three decades later, in February of 1996, he brought an NFL franchise back to Baltimore. For Art and his club, the move was not an easy one to make – and it was not easy for the team's fans to see their team go. Knowing this, Modell did not hesitate to leave the fans of Cleveland a legacy. He announced that he would give the name "Browns" to Cleveland for a future team. He also left the team's colors (orange and brown) and the rich and storied 49-year history (1946-1995).

In his 43 seasons of full ownership of the Browns and the Ravens, more than half of Art's teams were in the playoffs. Modell won two NFL championships, 1964: 27-0 (over the Colts); and in 2000, 34-7 (vs. the NY Giants). Three other teams (1965, 1968 and 1969) played in NFL title games, and three more teams (1986, 1987 and 1989) lost memorable AFC Championship battles – all against John Elway and the Denver Broncos. Ten other teams earned playoff berths, while six more entered the season's final week with a chance to make the postseason.

Modell was the only elected NFL president in league history, serving a term from 1967-69. He chaired the negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement with the players in 1968, leading a committee that included Vince Lombardi and Jim Finks, both NFL Hall of Famers. Modell may be most noted for his tenure as the NFL's broadcast chairman. The contracts he negotiated over a 31-year period (1962-93) set the standard for sports television.

Art's key career highlights include:

- Chairman of the Owners Labor Committee (1968), which successfully negotiated the NFL's first players' collective bargaining agreement.
- Served on the NFL-AFL Merger Committee, breaking the impasse for realignment of the two leagues by moving the Browns to the AFC.
- Worked closely with then-Commissioner Pete Rozelle to establish NFL Films and became its first chairman.
- In 1970, Art was an important negotiator with ABC to launch Monday Night Football and volunteered to host the first game in Cleveland. (The Browns won, 31-21, over the NY Jets.)

PERSONAL: In 1943, Modell joined the Air Force ...Attended New Utrecht (Brooklyn, NY) HS... He and his wife, Patricia, are the parents of John and David and have six grandchildren... Art is the CEO of Modell Ventures...The Modells, residents of Cockeysville, MD, are active in our Baltimore community...The couple has donated millions of dollars to a variety of charities, most notably, the SEED School, a boarding school being developed in Baltimore for disadvantaged youth, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Kennedy Krieger Institute, St. Vincent's Center, a home for abused children, and the House Of Ruth...Modell has received numerous awards and honors, including the Generous Heart Award from the Dr. Ben Carson Scholarship Foundation, given annually for excellence in the community.

"I believe Art belongs in the Hall of Fame. I don't think I know a person who has done more for the league than Modell, especially through television."

CASS
PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: PRINCETON / YALE LAW SCHOOL

BORN: 1/13/46, WASHINGTON, D.C.

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 7/7

Dick Cass is in his seventh year as president of the Ravens. Cass oversees every area of the organization, including player and staff personnel, the coaching team, corporate sales, communications and business ventures. In addition to his time with the Ravens, Cass has served as counsel to a number of NFL owners, including both the Washington Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys, as well as the NFL's league office.

"Dick has had involvement with every aspect of an NFL team," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said. "His legal expertise, his working knowledge of the business, his relationships at the league office, and the respect he has earned around the league are significant assets for the franchise."

2004-10: (with Baltimore) 2009: A regional business group awarded Cass its Regional Visionary Award for setting a high standard for community service in the Baltimore region. 2008: Among all NFL clubs, the Ravens ranked in the top tier in sponsorship revenue, new sponsorship deals and ticket renewal rate following the '08 season...Helped guide a committee of eight to interview and select head coach John Harbaugh. 2007: Even though Baltimore is the country's 27th-largest television market, the Ravens ranked in the NFL's top tier in total revenue...Forbes Magazine recognized the Ravens as having the NFL's second-fastest growing brand over the past three years (Aug. issue)...Cass keyed fundraising efforts for the $100,000 renovation of Collington Square School's playground. 2006: Saluted by former NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue for Dick's input to the revenue-sharing plan of the current NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement...Initiated fundraising after Hurricane Katrina that resulted in $1.2 million donated from the Ravens...Though dismissed by Cass, was mentioned prominently by media as a possible successor to Tagliabue...Instrumental in raising $1.2 million to refurbish Baltimore Polytechnic Institute's football stadium...The new field allows all 18 Baltimore City public high schools to play at least two games per season at the venue. 2004: Cass was named president of the club in April and was Steve Bisciotti's first hire as new owner of the Ravens...Cass brought a wealth of business knowledge, plus legal and negotiating expertise to the club...Orchestrated a midseason move to the team's new facility in Owings Mills, coupling football operations and corporate into one complex.

1972-2003: (with Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering) A partner of the D.C.-based law firm of WCP for 31 years...Was chairman of the firm's Business Transactions Section and a member of its Management Committee...Had a general corporate and securities practice, representing companies and entrepreneurs in complex corporate partnership and securities transactions. 2003: Counsel to the Independent Commission of the US Olympics Committee. 2002: Was counsel to the owner of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets in the team's relocation to New Orleans. 2000: Represented Steve Bisciotti in the purchase of the Ravens from the Modell family. 1999: Represented the estate of Jack Kent Cooke in the sale of the Redskins to Daniel Snyder. 1992-93: Retained by the NFL as an advisor pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement with players. 1980s: Represented Cowboys owner Jerry Jones in the acquisition of the team and Texas Stadium...Advised Jones on a variety of matters, including sponsorship contracts, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and salary cap, NFL broadcast arrangements, NFL Internet policies, stadium financing, estate planning, local broadcast partnerships, and the NFL substance abuse programs. 1979: Promoted to partner of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering law firm. 1972: Served his first year as a member of WCP.

COLLEGE: Graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton in 1968...A knee injury, coupled with surgery, kept him from athletics his first two years...Played rugby as a junior and senior...Graduated from Yale Law School in 1971.

PERSONAL: Clerked for a federal judge in Connecticut for a year before joining WCP, a firm with global offices...Father was in the Coast Guard...As a child, Dick moved around the country with his parents, making stops in Virginia, Maryland, Michigan, California, Washington, D.C., Florida and Massachusetts...Graduated from Mercersburg (PA) Academy, where he was student body president and captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams...He serves on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute, Maryland Science Center, Baltimore Community Foundation and Bert Bell NFL Players Pension Plan...He has served on the boards of trustees for both Princeton and Mercersburg Academy...He continues as chairman of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation...Dick's wife, Heather, owns an architecture firm, Cass and Associates...She is also a graduate of Yale (School of Architecture) and is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects...Their daughter, Courtney, is a Columbia graduate who taught in New York City public schools for three years and has since earned a law degree from the University of Virginia...She is currently executive director of Teach for America Baltimore...Their son, Willy, is a graduate of St. Albans HS in Washington, D.C. and a 2008 Yale University graduate (biomedical engineering)...After graduating, he worked in medical labs at Yale and Case Western Reserve and is applying to medical school.

GAME DAY

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen.

Though he has flourished at every point of his football career, it's unfair to say that Newsome has followed a successful path. That's because, in all reality, he blazed the trail – one on which success has actually followed him. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV championship team and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped on the gridiron with the hope of playing for the University of Alabama. That dream turned into a reality when he went on to star for the Crimson Tide under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall.

"He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a tight end until Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since broken those records).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 22 Pro Bowls since then, each player is considered a likely Hall of Famer. Ogden, who retired in June of 2008, could become the first Raven ever elected to Canton. Fittingly, he would join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

"I'm not so sure I wouldn't start my franchise with Ozzie Newsome, the personnel whiz of the Ravens. In a salary-cap world, where rosters are overhauled every offseason, the guy in charge of finding the players may be the most important guy in any NFL building. The good talent evaluators allow you to compete. The real ones win you championships."

— Rick Gosselin,
Dallas Morning News

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 14 drafts (1996-2009), Baltimore selected 16 first-rounders who have earned a total of 42 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Of the seven players chosen in the top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, LB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis and LB Terrell Suggs) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis has twice been named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap, chosen 31st, has been to two Pro Bowls; S Ed Reed, the 24th pick, has been tabbed an All-Star six times and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 13 players who have earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, who signed as a rookie free agent in 2002, Baltimore has produced 14 homegrown Pro Bowl players in just 14 NFL seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. The "process" includes 16 full-time members of the personnel department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Most of Ozzie's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," which is a group that includes members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

The Ravens do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a log of reports on players eligible for the draft. Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. "We do a lot of cross-checking," says Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome's "20/20 Club."

"A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

Newsome encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things," Newsome affirms. "And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's not Ozzie. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels: Jack Del Rio (Jaguars), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Rex Ryan (Jets), Jim Schwartz (Lions), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals).

"[Ravens] players believe, and that's the beauty of it," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we've always talked about is we don't want to coach effort. And that's the thing – we don't. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

Newsome's motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie's not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens' weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

"By being around the coaches and players out at practice," Newsome states, "and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I'd like the makeup of our football team."

Here is a year-by-year look at Newsome's football career:

2009: After posting a 9-7 record, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indy (nine) and New England (seven)... Behind an offense that ranked ninth in NFL scoring (24.4 ppg) and a defense that finished third in total yards and points allowed (300.5 ypg/16.3 ppg), the Ravens upended the Patriots (33-14) in the Wild Card round, becoming the first road team to win a playoff game at New England since 1978...For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season...Five Ravens were voted into the Pro Bowl, including LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and Rice (first)...Rookie T Michael Oher, who started all 16 games, finished second for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote) and earned All-Rookie team honors.

2008: Along with owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and several other front office executives, Newsome headed the search committee that hired first-year head coach John Harbaugh...Ravens posted an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they fell to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers...Led by Newsome and Harbaugh, Baltimore produced 13 total victories, which set an NFL record for most wins by a first-year head coach (Harbaugh) and rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco)...Baltimore's stifling defense – ranked No. 2 in the NFL – set several franchise records, while the Ravens also had five players earn Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, ST Brendon Ayanbadejo, LB Terrell Suggs and FB Le'Ron McClain...Flacco, who became the first rookie QB ever to win two playoff games, was named the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote).

2007: Despite finishing 5-11 in an injury-marred season (Baltimore lost 77 games to starters), the Ravens sent four players to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed and RB Willis McGahee...Former free agent acquisition WR Derrick Mason (2005) set a Ravens' single-season record with 103 receptions...Ravens had six different rookies start a game, tying for the second most in the NFL.

2006: Baltimore produced the best record in franchise history with a 13-3 mark before falling to Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoff, 15-6... Thanks to key offseason free agent additions like 2003 NFL co-MVP QB Steve McNair, four-time Pro Bowl DT Trevor Pryce and Pro Bowl special teamer Gary Stills, the Ravens improved in all three phases of the game...Additionally, the Ravens had five rookie draft picks start at least one contest, including first-rounder DT Haloti Ngata (16 games) and fifth-round pick S Dawan Landry (14 games)...Both Ngata and Landry earned PFV/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and were integral pieces of Baltimore's No. 1-ranked defense...Ravens produced eight Pro Bowl players, including McNair...After the Ravens' 27-26 win at Tennessee, keyed by McNair's 376-yard, three-TD effort and Pryce's game-clinching FG block, Newsome was awarded the game ball for his efforts in building the 2006 team.

2005: A disappointing season ended with a 6-10 record...The Ravens lost 67 games to starting players with injuries, which were third most in the NFL...Pro Bowlers WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle were added for the 2005 campaign...T Jonathan Ogden made his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance...First-round draft choice WR Mark Clayton set rookie records with single-season franchise highs in catches (44) and yards (471).

2004: Baltimore, with key starters missing a total of 53 games, fell one game short of the playoffs, finishing with a 9-7 mark...S Ed Reed, the Ravens' first pick in 2002, was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year...Reed, LB Ray Lewis, CB Chris McAlister, T Jonathan Ogden and OLB Terrell Suggs all made the Pro Bowl...In June 2004, the Pro Football Writers Association honored Newsome with the Jack Horrigan Award for his cooperation and understanding of the media.

2003: The Ravens won their first division title with a 10-6 record...Baltimore hosted the Titans in the Wild Card game, but fell 20-17...Ravens sent an NFL-best (tied with Kansas City) eight players to the Pro Bowl, all of whom were originally drafted by Baltimore...In the '03 draft, Newsome and his staff picked LB Terrell Suggs (first round, 10th overall), who posted a Ravens' rookie-record 12 sacks and earned the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year...RB Jamal Lewis was named the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year for posting the second-most rushing yards in league history (2,066)...LB Ray Lewis earned his second (2000)

NFL Defensive Player of the Year honor.

2002: Newsome and his staff assembled the youngest team in NFL history...Most observers predicted the Ravens would win very few games, but Baltimore entered Week 15 with a 7-7 mark and a chance to be the AFC's top Wild Card playoff team...Two last-minute losses to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) gave Baltimore a 7-9 mark...That year's draft produced two immediate starters (S Ed Reed and DE Anthony Weaver) and standout returner Lamont Brightful...Reed led the Ravens with five INTs and made every NFL All-Rookie team.

2001: Picking late in each round after winning Super Bowl XXXV, Newsome and his staff continued to draft well by selecting TE Todd Heap (first round, 31st overall), who entering 2010 is the team's all-time leading receiver in receptions (427) and TDs (36)...Ravens finished the season with a 10-6 record and won at Miami (21-3) in the Wild Card game before falling in the Divisional Playoff at Pittsburgh (27-10)...Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors.

2000: Newsome was voted the NFL's Executive of the Year...Finishing 12-4, the Ravens earned a Wild Card berth and won Super Bowl XXXV, 34-7, over the New York Giants...Baltimore's bruising defense, considered one of the best in league history, permitted just 970 rushing yards and 165 points – both NFL records in a 16-game season...The architects of the Ravens' Super Bowl championship team, Newsome and his staff hit gold with the selection of RB Jamal Lewis (the team's all-time leading rusher) with the fifth pick in the first round...As a rookie, Lewis set a then-Ravens' team record with 1,364 rushing yards...The Ravens sent five players to the Pro Bowl, including key free agents DT Sam Adams and S Rod Woodson, whom Newsome signed to the team.

1999: The Ravens finished 8-8 in Brian Billick's first season as head coach and had five players named to the Pro Bowl...Newsome continued a hot hand at drafting by tabbing Arizona CB Chris McAlister (10th-overall pick), who earned three Pro Bowls (2003-04 and 2006) in Baltimore.

1998: Coordinated the selection of CB Duane Starks with the Ravens' first pick (10th overall)... Starks tied for the NFL's INT lead among rookies that year (equaling Charles Woodson's 5)... Starks then added five more thefts in his second season and led the Ravens with six picks in 2000, including a 49-yard INT for a TD against the Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

1997: In his second draft, Newsome picked eventual four-time Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware, LB Jamie Sharper, S Kim Herring and C Jeff Mitchell – all four of whom became starters against the Giants in the Super Bowl XXXV victory...Boulware, the Ravens' all-time sacks leader (70), was the consensus choice for NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and also led the AFC in sacks (15) in 2001.

1996: Art Modell invited Newsome to join him as the Ravens' vice president of player personnel when the team moved from Cleveland to Baltimore...Under Newsome's direction, the '96 draft produced two perennial Pro Bowlers in T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis, who was MVP in Super Bowl XXXV and the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and 2003... Also earning the Pro Bowl as a returner was Jermaine Lewis (1998 and 2001), a fifth-rounder in that draft, who still holds many franchise career return records, including combined TDs (six) and combined yards (5,883).

1991-95: (with Cleveland) First position in the Browns' front office was as a special assignment scout...Two years later (1993), Newsome was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach (Bill Belichick)/ offense/pro personnel...In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel... Although he continued to help on the field, Newsome provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire.

NFL PLAYER: 1978-90: (with Cleveland) Newsome retired after 13 years as a premier NFL tight end...Entering 2010, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards are the third most ever by a TE and the most in Browns history...Newsome ended his career as the fourth-leading NFL receiver of all time...He earned three Pro Bowls (1981, 1984-85) and was a four-time winner of the Cleveland Touchdown Club's Offensive Player of the Year award (1978, 1981 and 1983-84)...His streak of 150 consecutive games with a catch is the second longest in NFL history...Winner of the 1990 Byron "Whizzer" White Award as the NFL's top community volunteer...Newsome, who was named to the All-NFL team of the 1980's (second team), consistently received All-AFC and All-NFL honors throughout his career... He was a 1978 No. 1 draft choice (23rd overall), along with LB Clay Matthews (12th overall), and the two are among an elite group of Browns to have played for three decades...The others are Gene Hickerson (1958-60, 62-73), Dick Schafrath (1959-71) and Don Cockroft (1968-80)...Until former Raven Shannon Sharpe broke his records in 2001, Newsome's pro career was the most productive of any TE in NFL history...Newsome was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999...Calvin Hill (RB - Dallas, Washington, Cleveland), a close friend of his, introduced Newsome at the induction ceremony.

COLLEGE: Newsome graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in recreation administration...During his four-year collegiate career with the Crimson Tide, he posted 102 receptions for 2,070 yards and 16 TDs... Newsome also helped Alabama capture three SEC Championships...As a senior in 1977, he was named team captain and the SEC Lineman of the Year...Newsome also earned All-America honors at WR...Was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (South Bend, IN) in 1994.

PERSONAL: Attended Colbert County (Leighton, AL) HS...Winner of the 1990 Byron "Whizzer" White Award as the NFL's top community volunteer, he is widely known for his willingness to help those in need...In 2008, Newsome was honored by Little League Baseball – a sport he competed in as a child – for his lifetime athletic achievements by being inducted into its Hall of Fame...In 2007, along with Tony Dungy, Herm Edwards and Lovie Smith, Newsome received the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Johnnie Cochran Salute to Excellence Award, which honors African Americans in the NFL who make the biggest impact on the field and in the front office... JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)

BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 13/3

Two seasons for John Harbaugh as the Ravens' head coach and two seasons in the playoffs. (The Ravens have never made the postseason three consecutive years.)

Harbaugh and Joe Flacco set an NFL record when they became the first rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback to earn the playoffs in their initial two seasons together. In 2008, Harbaugh led Baltimore to an 11-5 regular-season mark after taking over a team that finished 5-11 in 2007. A year ago (2009), the Ravens went back to the playoffs as a Wild Card entrant with a 9-7 record.

In both seasons under Harbaugh, the Ravens enjoyed playoff success. In his rookie season, the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game after winning at Miami (27-9) and at top-seeded Tennessee, 13-10. Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens, 23-14, in the AFC title matchup. In 2009, Baltimore dominated at New England, 33-14, in the Wild Card game before dropping a 20-3 contest at Super Bowl-bound Indianapolis in the Divisional Round.

Harbaugh's first Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team. The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record following the '08 campaign established a new league standard in this same category. With the 13 total victories, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach playing a rookie quarterback (Flacco).

(The Ravens did all this despite placing 19 players on Injured Reserve, the second most in the league. Baltimore lost 64 games to starters in 2008,

"I'm a football coach. That's what I wanted to be, and that's what I am. I'm excited to be the head coach of the Ravens. It's a big job that provides the opportunity to work with some outstanding people. I grew up as a coach's son, and I understand the core and fundamental principles that define a great football team. At the heart of football are three foundations: first is the team, second is the team and third is the team. We'll stick with that from beginning to end. We will take care of one another. We will stand shoulder to shoulder. We will push each other to the highest levels. We will lift each other up. Our style of play will be tough, fast, physical and smart."

– John Harbaugh

according to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, 14 more than any other '08 playoff team.)

Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he states. "We want to become something. We seek the highest levels, and we want to stay there." His teams are balanced, disciplined and hard-nosed. "We want to be the most physical team, but we also want to be the cleanest. Hard-hitting and playing with physicality does not mean dirty," he adds. In 2009, the Ravens' defense was the NFL's third best, while the offense, which tied a franchise mark for most points in a season (391, 2003), was ninth in scoring in the NFL, and the special teams were solid in every phase.

Despite his early head-coaching success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's not about me, it's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It's about the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best," Harbaugh says.

At 23-14 (including playoffs) in his first two seasons, Coach Harbaugh's teams have tied (Ari. & Min.) for the third-most wins behind Indianapolis (28-8), New Orleans (24-11) and Pittsburgh (24-11). In the important turnover category, Baltimore was +13 in '08 when it ranked third in the league and +10 in '09 (fourth-best mark).

Harbaugh, who established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches, is the third head coach in team history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007). Coach Harbaugh arrived in Baltimore with 24 years of pro and college coaching experience, including the previous 10 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the Eagles' special teams coach from 1998 through 2006 and headed Philly's secondary in 2007. He was originally hired by then-head coach Ray Rhodes and, subsequently, was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring him, the Ravens talked with over 30 people about the energetic Harbaugh, who had never been a head coach nor an NFL offensive or defensive coordinator. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We're totally confident we picked the right person."

Harbaugh's Philadelphia special teams were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, Philly's units finished in the top 10 in five of those seasons in the comprehensive special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, the Eagles ranked No. 1 according to the Rick Gosselin composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories). Following the 2001 season, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four years (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams units from 29th to first in the league.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the top two net punting averages (38.4 in '05 and 37.4 in '04) in Eagles history. Under coach Harbaugh, 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

Harbaugh, a graduate of Miami (Ohio) – where he played defensive back – is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His brother Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and is the current head coach at Stanford. (Their sister Joani is married to Indiana basketball coach Tom Crean.)

Among John's 24 years of coaching is a two-year stint as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1995-96). (The Bearcats finished 6-5 both seasons.) John coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the college level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the TEs at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried.

While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs and was also the recruiting coordinator. Over eight years, he recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats, and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR avg. in '95) and the second-ranked returner (Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR avg. in '93). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the DBs coach/special teams coordinator under Cam Cameron, the Ravens' current offensive coordinator, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the DBs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award. He then earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan. John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, his wife, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Reisterstown, MD.

GAME DAY

Jerry Rosburg joined the Ravens in 2008 as their special teams coordinator and added the assistant head coach role in Jan. 2009. The 32-year coaching veteran has guided a strong special teams group. In 2009, his unit ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.2), also setting a franchise record. In 2008, special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl, and exceptional punter Sam Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg had built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. In his year in Atlanta, the Rosburg-led Falcons' special teams units held a number of top 10 rankings. Also, under his leadership, the Browns' special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL team in average ranking in the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) In their first year with Rosburg as their mentor, Koch (2008), Atlanta's Michael Koenen (2007) and Cleveland's Dave Zastudil (2006) each tallied their career-best gross and net punting averages.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) Ravens special teams units have been solid under Rosburg's direction... Special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl in 2008, but an injured thigh placed him on IR after only four games in 2009. 2009: Set a franchise record, ranking second in the NFL, by posting a 26.2-yard average on kickoff returns... Also ranked fifth in the league in average starting field position (31.8)...Coverage units ranked fourth in opponent kickoff return average (20.3) and limited foes to an average starting line of 26.9 (second best in NFL). 2008: P Sam Koch set a Ravens' single-season record with the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9)...Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second with 34 punts inside the 20...He was ninth in gross punting average (45.0), which is also a franchise-season record.

2007: (with Atlanta) Under Rosburg, the kickoff team finished second in the NFL in opponents average starting field position (25.5)...Falcons KOR team was sixth in the league in KOR average (24.4)...Michael Koenen finished sixth in net punting avg. (38.8)...Special teams allowed opponents an average of 7.5 yards per PR, ranking eighth in NFL.

2001-06: (with Cleveland) In six years with the Browns, special teams units ranked fourth in punt return average (10.3) and sixth in opponent kickoff return avg. (20.8)...Was instrumental in developing the successful career of WR/RS Dennis Northcutt, helping him set team records for career punt returns (174) and career punt return yardage (1,837)...Phil Dawson became one of the NFL's most accurate kickers. 2006: Browns ranked fifth in the NFL in Gosselin's poll, up a notch from previous two years...Rosburg guided Northcutt, who finished fourth with an 11.1 punt return average...Kickoff returner Joshua Cribbs set a team record for most KOR yards in

In his two years as the Ravens' offensive coordinator, Cam Cameron's impact has been significant. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's ninth best in scoring (24.4 ppg), up from 24th in 2007, also setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22). Among other notable stats in 2009, Baltimore produced the top three offensive total yards games in team history. In his first season in Baltimore (2008), he built a creative offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg). Cameron brought his unique offensive mind to Baltimore after one year as the Miami Dolphins' head coach. His successful stints with the NFL's Chargers and Redskins and the NCAA's Indiana Hoosiers and Michigan Wolverines have been celebrated. While in San Diego, Cam was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl QBs Drew Brees and Philip Rivers, RB LaDainian Tomlinson, and TE Antonio Gates. During Cam's tenure (1984-93) as an assistant under Michigan's legendary head coach Bo Schembechler, the Wolverines won six Big Ten titles and played in 10 bowl games.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: The Ravens produced the top three offensive games in team history: 548 yards vs. Det., 501 vs. KC and 479 vs. Cle....For the first time in history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco, 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice, 1,339) and 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason 1,028) in the same season... The 391 points scored tied 2003 as the most in franchise history...Led by Flacco, Baltimore QBs

Cameron was named as the NFL's top offensive coordinator by The Sporting News:

"Being innovative is only part of the job. Putting your best players in a position to be successful is another. Cameron is a great coach who took a Division I-AA quarterback (Joe Flacco) and turned him into a productive NFL starter as a rookie."

whose only win (22-16 OT) came against the Ravens on Dec. 16...Depleted by injuries, including QB Trent Green, Miami was at or near the bottom of almost all of the significant statistical categories, including 28th overall on offense and 23rd overall on defense, with a run defense ranking 32nd in the league... Miami did finish fourth against the pass behind Tampa, Indianapolis and Pittsburgh...K Jay Feeley (21-of-23) ranked second in the NFL in field goal percentage...Contributing significantly to the Dolphins' difficulties were a spate of injuries on both sides of the ball, a very young group of players, and rotating QBs...Green was lost for the season when placed on injured reserve on Oct. 20 with a concussion...Cleo Lemon, who subbed for Green and quarterbacked the game against the Ravens, earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his 23-of-39 for 315-yard performance and a 64-yard TD pass in overtime to WR Greg Camarillo...Miami's second-round pick and current Raven, QB John Beck, started four games and played five overall, completing 60 of 107 passes for 559 yards, one TD and 3 INTs in his rookie campaign...Beck became the sixth Dolphins' rookie QB to start a game, in the company of Bob Griese (1967) and Dan Marino (1983), among others.

2002-06: (with San Diego) As SD's offensive coordinator, Cameron launched his aggressive attack on opponents. 2006: Led the NFL in scoring with a team-record 492 points...It was the third straight season the team scored more than 400 points...Over those three seasons, the Chargers amassed 1,356 points, a figure surpassed only by Indianapolis (1,388 points)...Also, it was the 10th-highest scoring total since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978...Chargers were the only team in the league to rush for 2,500 yards and pass for 3,400 yards, and they led the NFL in red zone TDs – 42 TDs in 62 trips (67.7%)...SD also set a team record by rushing for more than 100 yards in 14 of its 16 games and scored 20 or more points in all but one of those contests...Rivers posted a 14-2 record in his first season as a starter, tied for the second-best record by a QB in his first 16 starts...His play-calling helped Tomlinson become the 2006 Associated Press MVP when L.T. led the league in rushing with a team-record 1,815 yards and set single-season NFL records for most total TDs (31) and most rushing TDs (28)...Six members of Cameron's offensive squad were named to the Pro Bowl. 2005: Chargers were fifth in scoring...Oversaw an offense that produced a 3,500-yard passer (Brees), a 1,000-yard rusher (Tomlinson), and a 1,000-yard receiver (Gates)...Was the second time in team history it occurred...Chargers were one of only six NFL teams to feature such a trifecta...Brees, Tomlinson and Gates were one of only four trios in the NFL to combine for 20 TD passes and 10 TD catches...Was the second-consecutive year that the trio achieved the feat and the fifth time in team history. 2004: SD finished third in scoring with 446 points (third-highest total in the NFL behind Indy and KC)...Brees, Tomlinson and Gates were selected to the Pro Bowl...Cameron was named NFL Offensive Assistant Coach of the Year by Sports Illustrated...Brees finished with 27 TD passes and 3,159 passing yards...His 104.8 passer rating ranked third in the NFL... Other Brees' awards that season included Comeback Player of the Year and Most Improved Player of the Year honors. 2003: With Cam at the helm, Tomlinson became the first player in league history to rush for more than 1,000 yards and catch 100 passes...L.T. racked up 2,370 yards from scrimmage, second most in NFL history, and rushed for 1,645 yards, third most in team history. 2002: In Cam's first season as offensive coordinator, Tomlinson rushed for a then-team record 1,683 yards...Brees made his first-career start, finishing the season with 3,284 passing yards and 17 TDs.

1997-2001: (with Indiana) As the head coach, Cameron was responsible for the creative utilization of QB Antwaan Randle El, arguably one of the most versatile athletes in college football history...Randle El finished his career as the NCAA Division I-A rushing leader among QBs and was the only player in major college football history to both rush for 40 TDs and pass for 40 TDs in a career...He ranked fifth on the NCAA Division I-A career total yardage list with 11,366 yards, one spot ahead of Doug Flutie...Antwaan had four of the top five seasons in offensive production in Indiana history. 2001: Hoosiers ranked third in the Big Ten and 19th nationally in total offense (435.3 ypg)...Also fourth in the country in rushing offense (269 ypg)...RB Levrone Williams led the country in all-purpose yardage with more than 200 yards per game, and all five of the team's O-line garnered All-Big Ten accolades, with four of them earning NFL contracts. 2000: Team ranked 13th nationally in total offense...Hoosiers averaged 266.4 rushing ypg, which led the Big Ten and was seventh in the nation...Team's average of 5.8 yards per catch ranked second nationally behind Nebraska. 1999: Was 34th nationally in total offense and 19th in rushing...During his tenure at Indiana, the school was one of only 13 universities in the country that was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for graduation rates of 70 percent or better for three consecutive years (1999-2001). 1997: Named head coach of the Hoosiers.

1994-96: (with Washington) Launched first NFL coaching assignment as QBs coach. 1995-96:

CAM CAMERON

Trent Green, who served as the Redskins' third QB, became a two-time Pro Bowl QB for Kansas City later in his career and then joined Cam in Miami (2007). 1994: Oversaw development of QB Gus Frerotte, who would later advance to the Pro Bowl.

1984-93: (with Michigan) 1992: Elvis Grbac ended his Wolverine career as one of the most prolific passers in school history, holding school records in eight different career-passing categories...Was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas and Davey O'Brien Awards. 1991: The Grbac/Desmond Howard duo set an NCAA record for most TDs by the same QB/WR tandem in a career (31)...Tied NCAA single-season record for TDs by the same passer and receiver (19). 1990: Added WRs to his QBs duties, coaching Howard (Heisman Trophy winner)...Also was the position coach for future NFL players such as QBs Grbac and Todd Collins, in addition to WRs Derrick Alexander (former Raven) and Amani Toomer, among others. 1986: Named WRs coach. 1984: Launched coaching career as an assistant under the late Bo Schembechler...Developed several premier QBs, including former Raven and Pro Bowler Jim Harbaugh (John's younger brother), who was drafted by Chicago in the first round of 1987 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE: Played football and basketball for the Hoosiers...Cam earned two letters as a QB for Lee Corso (1982) and Sam Wyche (1983), and two playing basketball for Bob Knight...Suffered a knee injury (football) in his senior year that ended his playing career...Graduated in 1983 with a degree in business.

PERSONAL: Cameron was a two-sport prep standout for South Vigo (Terre Haute, IN) HS...His stepfather, Tom Harp, coached at Indiana State...Cameron and Harp each have the distinction of coaching a Heisman Trophy winner...Cam coached Howard at Michigan, while Harp was an assistant coach at Army when RB Pete Dawkins won the award in 1958...Was an All-America selection at QB as a senior and earned All-State honors twice and All-County honors three times...Named Vigo County's Athlete of the Year twice (1978-79)...Also led his team to three consecutive state basketball finals...Was named the winner of the state's prestigious Trester Award for mental attitude in 1979...Was named National Athlete of the Year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes that same year...Cam and his wife, Missy, have four children: sons Tommy, Danny, and Christopher, and daughter Elizabeth.

2009 OFFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS/ RAVENS RECORDS

- In 2009, the Ravens tied the franchise record for points (391 in 2003) and also set a record for most TDs scored (47, breaking the 1996 mark of 45). Additionally, Baltimore registered a team-record 22 rushing TDs.
- The Ravens produced the top three offensive games in team history: 548 yards vs. Detroit, 501 vs. Kansas City and 479 vs. Cleveland.
- For the first time in franchise history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco, 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice, 1,339) and 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason, 1,028) in the same season.

TOP THREE GAMES IN TEAM HISTORY

Baltimore's offense averaged 351.2 yards per game in 2009, (ranking 13th). The Ravens produced over 400 yards of total offense in four contests and over 350 yards in seven games. Amazingly, the Ravens' top three outputs in team history occurred in 2009.

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 3/3

Greg Mattison was named the Ravens' defensive coordinator prior to the 2009 season, after originally joining John Harbaugh's staff as linebackers coach in 2008, his first year in the NFL. Ravens continued their staunch reputation as one of the NFL's best defenses again in 2009, finishing as the No. 3 overall unit. It was Baltimore's seventh-straight top six finish. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's stingiest in average yards per rush allowed (3.4), third in points allowed per game (16.3) and were fourth-best in turnover ratio (+10). Mattison's stout resume includes 39 years of total coaching experience, including many years at some of the most productive big-name college football programs. Mattison has 12 years of defensive coordinator experience at the collegiate level. In that span, he coached 18 eventual NFL players, including seven players drafted in the first three rounds and two in the first round – DEs Jarvis Moss and Derrick Harvey at Florida.

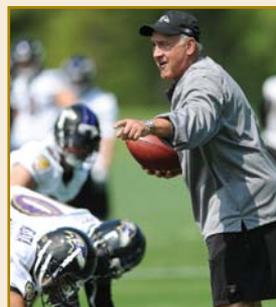

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: Named the fourth defensive coordinator in Ravens history... NFL's No. 3-ranked unit finished in the top six for seventh-consecutive season, allowing 300.5 yards per game... Baltimore was second in the NFL for fewest TDs allowed (27), including four games when the "D" allowed no TDs... Was also the fourth-best red zone defense, allowing opponents to score TDs 41.9% of the time... Defensive leader and future Hall of Famer Ray Lewis earned his 11th Pro Bowl, while another future Hall of Famer Ed Reed earned his sixth trip... First-time Pro Bowler DT Haloti Ngata rounded out the defensive trio in South Florida.

2008: Led the stellar group of Ravens linebackers, who were a big part of the team's No. 2-ranked defense (261.1 ypg)... Lewis earned his 10th Pro Bowl nod, while DLB Terrell Suggs made his third trip to Hawaii... Defense extended its streak to 35 straight games without allowing a 100-yard rusher and ranked third in rush defense (81.4 ypg)... Lewis tallied 3 INTs, while Suggs returned both of his (44 and 42 yards) for TDs... Lewis led the team in tackles (160) for the 11th time in his career.

2005-07: (with Florida) 2007: As co-defensive coordinator/D-line coach, Mattison helped install an aggressive attacking scheme... Gators led the SEC and ranked 10th nationally in rushing defense. 2006: Helped Florida win the SEC title and National Championship... Gators defense held Ohio State to 82 total yards, winning the collegiate title, 41-14... Topped the SEC in rushing defense at 72.5 yards per game (second-lowest total in school history)... Finished second in the SEC in total defense, allowing an average of 255.4 yards per contest... Gators run defense ranked fifth in the nation, and total defense ranked sixth. 2005: Named co-defensive coordinator/defensive line coach... Unit improved in 14 statistical categories... Ranked ninth in the nation in total defense (299.8 ypg) and 10th nationally in rushing defense (94.9 ypg)... Also forced 31 turnovers (resulting in 114 points), tops in the SEC and the ninth most nationally... Defense recorded 33 sacks, the 25th-best total nationally... The 337 yards on TFL were tops in school history (since records kept in 1983)... Gators were third in the SEC in three-and-outs.

Clarence Brooks was one of six assistant coaches retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. "C.B." is in his sixth year with the team guiding the Ravens' tough defensive line. The Brooks-led defensive front produced a first Pro Bowl for standout DT Haloti Ngata in 2009. Baltimore's vaunted defense – having finished sixth or better in total defense for seven consecutive seasons – turned in another strong performance, ranking third overall in 2009 (300.5 ypg). The Ravens were the NFL's stingiest, allowing 3.4 yards per rush. The unit also finished as the NFL's fifth-best against the run (93.3) and allowed the league's third-fewest points per game (16.3). Led by strong play from the D-line, the Ravens' defense has ranked in the top five in the NFL in rush defense for four consecutive years (2006-09). In Brooks' second year in Baltimore (2006), the defense ranked No. 1 (264.1 ypg), while finishing second overall in 2008 (261.1 ypg). Prior to his 2005 arrival in Baltimore, Brooks coached successful NFL D-line units in Miami, Cleveland and Chicago. He was also instrumental in the notable "Desert Swarm" defense at the University of Arizona, which led the nation in scoring defense in 1992.

2005-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: Led another strong group of D-linemen, including DT Haloti Ngata, who made his first Pro Bowl...Defense ranked No. 3 overall (300.5 ypg) and fifth against the run (93.3 ypg)...Ravens allowed an NFL-best 3.4 yards per rush and the third-fewest points per game (16.3)...Veteran DE Trevor Pryce led team with 6.5 sacks. 2008: Defense ranked second overall and third against the run, all without the team's second all-time tackler and starting NT Kelly Gregg, who missed the entire season due to a knee injury...Ngata was a second-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl first alternate...Top reserve DT Dwan Edwards also spent the year on IR (back)...DT Justin Bannan filled in admirably for Gregg, posting a career-high 56 tackles and his first-career INT...Team did not allow a 100-yard rusher, extending the streak to 35 straight games. 2007: Defense ranked second against the rush and sixth overall in total defense...The dynamic duo of Gregg (111) and Ngata (94) notched 205 tackles, surpassing DEs Michael McCrary (103) and Rob Burnett's (97) team-record 200 by a D-line tandem in 2000...D-line recorded 11 of the 32 sacks posted by the Ravens...Gregg made a career-high 111 tackles, adding three sacks, while earning his second-straight USA Today All-Joe honor... Ngata, in his second year, produced another stellar season with career highs in tackles (94) and sacks (3), also making the All-Joe Team... Pryce started two of five games and was placed on IR with wrist/chest injuries after posting 19 tackles and 2 sacks...Edwards saw action in all 16 games, starting 14, replacing the injured Pryce, and posted a career-high 58 tackles, while adding 1 sack and 1 INT. 2006: The defense ranked first in points allowed per game (12.6)... Baltimore was also first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first inside the 20 (33.3% TDs allowed); allowed the fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs (236); first in take-away/giveaway ratio (+17); and second in

JOHN "MOTHER" DUNN

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: PENN STATE

BORN: 7/22/56, GREAT BARRINGTON, MA

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 27/3

John "Mother" Dunn was named assistant strength and conditioning coach by head coach John Harbaugh in February of 2008. Having built a reputation for producing some of the strongest and best-conditioned players in the NFL, John was voted by his peers as the NFL's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 1994, while with San Diego. Dunn has 23 years of professional coaching experience and an uncanny knack for getting players to buy in to his programs. Dunn's energetic, open-minded approach to conditioning keeps him receptive to and researching for new training protocols.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) Assisted Bob Rogucki in instituting the Baltimore Ravens Competition Day, an offseason event where players participate in different strength-related competitions...Over 50 players take part each year in the voluntary offseason training program.

2007: (with Army) Dunn served a brief stint at West Point, after being recruited in December, but signed on with Harbaugh and the Ravens (2/12/08).

2004-05: (with Washington) Tabbed by head coach Joe Gibbs for a second time (1984-86) as head strength and conditioning coach.

1997-2003: (with NY Giants) Spent seven years as the Giants' head strength and conditioning coach... Players experienced minimal injuries under Dunn's guidance and were well prepared to stay healthy throughout the season. 2001: Introduced mandatory yoga classes to the team to provide flexibility, breathing, concentration exercises and diversity. 2000: Highlights included winning the NFC Championship and advancing to Super Bowl XXXV against the Ravens. 1999: Offered martial arts as part of the players' training regimen.

1990-96: (with San Diego) Three of Dunn's assistants from the Chargers went on to become head strength coaches in the NFL: Chris Clawson (L.A. Rams), former Raven Chip Morton (Bengals) and John Hastings (Redskins).

1994: Was part of their championship run, as the Chargers advanced to play San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIX...Voted by his peers as the NFL's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year.

1987-89: (with L.A. Raiders) 1987: Hired and posted a three-year stint to lead the Raiders' strength and conditioning program.

1984-86: (with Washington) 1984: Hired and served as assistant strength and conditioning coach under Joe Gibbs in Dunn's first NFL position.

COLLEGE: Played defensive line at Penn State for two seasons before switching to the O-line for his junior and senior years...Named one of the Nittany Lions' co-captains as a senior...Graduated with a degree in health and physical education... Signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978.

PERSONAL: A three-sport star at Taconic Hills (Philmont, NY) HS...Lettered in football, basketball, and track and field...Was nationally ranked in the shot put as a senior...Served as a graduate assistant O-line coach at his alma mater in 1979...Dunn founded his own gym - "Mother" Dunn Nautilus - which had locations in PA and NY in 1980...Nicknamed "Mother" by PSU teammates as a freshman...Named after former Nittany Lions' first All-American at Penn State William Thomas Dunn (1906)...John and his wife, Julia, have two daughters: Jessica, who is a junior at Virginia Tech, and Taylor, who is a freshman at Virginia.

Now in his 12th season as the Ravens' tight ends coach, Wade Harman is the only remaining coach from Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV-winning team. He was one of six assistants retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. Under Harman's guidance, Pro Bowl TE Todd Heap became the all-time franchise leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs in 2005. From 2002-09, Heap caught the fifth-most receptions (411) and receiving yards (4,687) and the fourth-most TDs (35) among NFL TEs. Earlier in his NFL coaching career, Harman assisted in coaching the Ravens' O-line, and prior to arriving in Baltimore, he spent two years in Minnesota as a Vikings' coaching assistant.

1999-2009: (with Baltimore) 2009: Veteran TE Todd Heap turned in another solid season, finishing as the team's third-leading receiver (53-593) and second in receiving TDs (6)...Against Denver (11/1), Heap became the 23rd TE in NFL history to record 400 catches in a career (he's one of five active TEs with at least 400)...Ravens were NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4 ppg). 2008: Heap started all 16 games and finished third on team in receiving (35-403)...Ravens led NFL in time of possession (33:10) and were second in average margin of victory (18.1). 2007: The injury-depleted offense ranked 22nd overall in the league and started three different QBs – also because of injuries...Heap (thigh) missed six games...By Week 17, there were five TEs listed on the roster...Quinn Sypniewski, who started nine of 15 games subbing for Heap and Dan Wilcox, ranked fourth on the team in receptions (34-246). 2006: Heap completed a Pro Bowl-deserving season, ranking first on the team (73-765) and posting a team-best 6 TDs...Wilcox started six of 14 games (20-166) and caught a career-high three TDs...Sypniewski was instrumental in pass protection, with the Ravens allowing just 17 sacks all season (second-lowest total in the NFL). 2005: Heap became the Ravens' all-time receiving leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs...Voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, Heap was third among active NFL TEs in catches and yards from 2002-05 (behind Tony Gonzalez and Jeremy Shockey)...He ranked second in the AFC in third-down receptions, behind WR Derrick Mason's 30...The tremendous tandem of Mason and Heap formed the hottest WR/TE combination in the NFL with 161 receptions, leading all duos in that category...Finished third in the NFL among TEs (75-855), posting 7 TDs (behind Antonio Gates and Gonzalez). 2004: The Ravens struggled all season with injuries to key Pro Bowl-type players, especially on offense...Heap missed 10 games and most of two others, but still managed to lead Ravens TEs (27-303 and 3 TDs)...LT Jonathan Ogden missed four games...C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games of the season, but returned to start four games at RG and one at center. 2003: Heap led the team in receptions for the second consecutive season (57-693)...He also made second-straight trip to the Pro Bowl. 2002: Ravens were the only team in the NFL to have a TE (Heap) lead his team in receptions (68-836)...The Arizona native also tied for the team lead with 6 TDs...He posted two dual-TD games (vs. Jax. and Den.) and 2 go-ahead TDs (at Pit. and at Cin.)...His game-winning TD at Cincinnati (27-23) occurred

Jim Hostler is in his third year as the team's wide receivers coach. Hostler, a former NFL offensive coordinator, guides a veteran group of receivers. The unit is led by longtime NFL WR Derrick Mason, who, in 2009, became the 16th player in NFL history to post 850 receptions. Mason (the Ravens' all-time receiving yards leader - 4,975) also became the 23rd NFL player to reach 11,000 receiving yards. In 2008, Hostler came to Baltimore after a three-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers, serving as offensive coordinator in his final year (2007) with the NFC West club. As WRs coach for the New York Jets (2004) and assistant WRs coach for the Saints (2001-02), the gifted former college cornerback helped develop players like Santana Moss, Wayne Chrebet, Justin McCareins and Donte' Stallworth.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: In his 200th career game, WR Derrick Mason became the 16th player in NFL history to post 850 receptions... Mason led the team with 7 receiving TDs, while recording his eighth 1,000-yard receiving season and 10th-straight 60-catch season...The go-to wideout also tallied the fourth-most yards on third down (347) in the NFL. 2008: Mason turned in another stellar season, leading the team with 80 catches for 1,037 yards and 5 TDs...He also surpassed 10,000 career receiving yards and extended his consecutive games played mark to 106...Versatile WR Mark Clayton caught 3 TDs, including a 70-yarder, and threw a 32-yard pass to Mason.

2005-07: (with San Francisco) 2007: Hostler was promoted to offensive coordinator after extensive work on offense and strong tutoring of 2005 No. 1 overall pick QB Alex Smith...Smith battled through injuries and started seven games before being placed on IR (shoulder). 2006: Smith became the franchise's first QB to take every snap in the regular season...In the season opener vs. Arizona (9/10) on MNF, he completed 15 of 31 passes for 126 yards, while also rushing for 36 yards on three carries...Led team on game-winning drive, completing 6 of 10 passes for 60 yards to go along with a 25-yard rush on fourth down...Engineered a fourth-quarter comeback with 2 TD passes and an 18-yard TD run at Seattle (12/14) in a nationally-televised 24-14 win...Finished with single-season career highs in every category: attempts (442), completions (257), yards (2,890) and TDs (16). 2005: Hostler was hired as QBs coach by Mike Nolan, then-49ers head coach and former Ravens defensive coordinator...Smith amassed 875 yards (84-of-165) in his seven starts (nine games played) as a rookie.

2003-04: (with NY Jets) 2004: Coached both QBs and WRs...WR Justin McCareins had his best season under Hostler, starting 16 games and finishing with a career-high 56 receptions and 770 receiving yards...Santana Moss finished the season as a starter in 14 of 15 games, posting 45 catches for 838 yards and 5 TDs...His 838 receiving yards were a team high...Under Hostler's guidance, Moss also recorded a game-high 157 receiving yards against Detroit (11/7), which remains the fourth-highest total in his career. 2003: Named quarterbacks coach.

MARWAN MAALOUF

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: BALDWIN-WALLACE
BORN: 11/26/76, STRONGSVILLE, OH
EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 6/3

Marwan Maalouf is in his third season as the Ravens' assistant special teams coach. In 2008, Maalouf rejoined special teams coordinator/assistant head coach Jerry Rosburg, for whom he worked in Cleveland for three years. The Ravens' special teams units have been solid under the duo's guidance. In 2009, Baltimore was second in the NFL both in kickoff return average (26.3) and in opponents' average starting position (26.9). Maalouf is also an experienced personnel evaluator and teacher whose expertise assists Rosburg in creating special teams schemes.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: Ravens were second in the NFL in kickoff return average (26.2), while holding opponents to a 20.3 avg....Coverage units also limited foes to an average starting yard line of 26.9 (second-best in NFL). 2008: Special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo earned his third Pro Bowl, and P Sam Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9), setting a Ravens' record...Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and second with 34 inside the 20...He was ninth in gross punting average (45.0), also a franchise record.

2007: Worked for Scouts Inc., writing weekly scouting reports and game previews that appeared on ESPN.com...Marwan also served as a volunteer coach for Baldwin-Wallace, working primarily with the O-line.

2004-06: (with Cleveland) 2006: Special teams finished with a No. 5-overall rating in The Dallas Morning News' annual special teams poll, a comprehensive evaluation compiled by the newspaper's revered NFL reporter Rick Gosselin...Spent his third season with the Browns, including his third as quality control coach with an emphasis on special teams...RS

Joshua Cribbs finished third in NFL with 1,545 total return yards...Browns boasted a 10.3-yard punt return average, seventh in the NFL. 2005: Cleveland's punt return unit ranked fourth in the league with a 10.1 average...Team earned a No. 6-overall ranking in Gosselin's report. 2004: Joined the Browns as a scouting administrator and was responsible for film breakdown and game-planning, as well as college and pro scouting.

2002-03: (with Rutgers) Spent two seasons at Rutgers as an assistant offensive line coach and assisted in all phases of special teams...Under Craig Ver Steeg, the Scarlet Knights' offensive coordinator and current Ravens offensive assistant, Maalouf coached the unit with current Florida International head coach Mario Cristobal.

2002: (with Eastern Michigan University) Held a graduate assistant post, but left after the spring to join the Rutgers' coaching staff.

2001: (with Fordham University) Asst. O-line coach.

2000: (with Baldwin-Wallace College) Started coaching career at his alma mater...Was the Yellow Jackets' assistant O-line coach.

COLLEGE: Earned three letters while playing guard (1997-99)...A two-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference selection...Named Baldwin-Wallace's Outstanding Offensive Lineman and was elected team captain his senior season...Earned a degree in history from Baldwin-Wallace.

PERSONAL: Marwan is a graduate of Strongsville (OH) HS, where he lettered in football and track and field for the Mustangs...Born and raised in Ohio, Marwan keeps close ties with his family and friends in the greater Cleveland area where he met his wife, Dana.

JOHN MATSKO

OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: KENT STATE

BORN: 2/2/51, CLEVELAND, OH

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 19/3

John Matsko, a 37-year coaching veteran, is in his third year leading the Ravens' offensive line. He guided a youthful group of O-linemen, who were joined by a veteran center (Matt Birk) in 2009, to a No. 5-overall team rushing ranking (137.5 ypg). Baltimore was also the NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4 ppg). In 2008, the young line blocked for rookie QB Joe Flacco, allowing only 33 sacks, the second-lowest single-season total in team history. At the forefront of teaching offensive linemen, Matsko has a tremendous track record, and his forte has always been developing players. Matsko presided over the blocking unit of one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history - the St. Louis Rams. He has tutored a number of Pro Bowl linemen and was a coach on the high-powered St. Louis offense for seven years (1999-2005). From 1999-2001, St. Louis became the only NFL team to amass at least 500 points in three consecutive seasons (526 in '99, 540 in '00 and 503 in '01). Matsko had stints at Kansas City, the NY Giants, New Orleans and the Phoenix Cardinals.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: O-line helped Ravens total the top three offensive total yards games (548 vs. Det., 501 vs. KC and 479 vs. Cle.) in franchise history...Ravens set team marks with 47 total TDs and 22 rushing TDs...Rookie T Michael Oher made the All-Rookie Team. 2008: Matsko's solid unit helped the Ravens' running game rank fourth (148.5 ypg) in the NFL...Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Ray Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (Le'Ron McClain) rushing yards...Team permitted only 33 sacks, second fewest in team history...Provided leadership for the NFL's youngest starting O-line to begin the season and dealt with injuries that eventually broke up the opening day lineup.

2006-07: (with Kansas City) 2007: Spent his second season as offensive line coach. 2006: The O-line helped pave the way for a KC rushing attack that ranked fifth in the AFC, averaging 133.9 rushing yards per game...Injuries forced the Chiefs to utilize five different starting combinations on the offensive front, but Chiefs linemen still opened plenty of holes for Pro Bowl RB Larry Johnson... Johnson established a franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards and set an NFL single-season record with 416 carries...Also established a team record with 11 100-yard rushing performances...Under Matsko, G Will Shields earned his 12th Pro Bowl berth, while G Brian Waters was named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad for a third-consecutive year.

1999-2005: (with St. Louis) St. Louis led the NFL in total offense for the first three seasons of Matsko's tenure with the club, while producing three NFL MVPs in the process – QB Kurt Warner (1999, 2001) and RB Marshall Faulk (2000)...John was instrumental in the development of seven-time Pro Bowl T Orlando Pace and two-time Pro Bowl honoree G Adam Timmerman. 2004: Rams made a run for the postseason, despite injuries that ravaged the O-line...Offense lost starting T Kyle Turley prior to the season and starting C Dave Wohlabaugh in the opening game...St. Louis was forced to start nine different players along the line that season...Rams still reached the postseason

ANDY MOELLER
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
BORN: 6/15/64, GRAND RAPIDS, MI
EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 3/3

Andy Moeller is in his third season as the Ravens' assistant offensive line coach. Moeller, who has 23 years of coaching experience, joined the NFL ranks for the first time when he arrived in Baltimore in 2008. With Moeller's assistance, the youthful O-line has made great strides in two seasons. In 2009, the Ravens set a team record with 22 rushing TDs and also tallied Baltimore's three best offensive total yards games. In 2008, Baltimore was the NFL's fourth-ranked rushing team (148.5). During his six years coaching Michigan's offensive line, Moeller coached two All-Americans: C David Baas (2004) and T Jake Long (2006-07), the first-overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by Miami. Under Moeller, Michigan dominated the All-Big Ten selections list for O-linemen, and many of his pupils moved on to successful NFL careers. In four out of five seasons, Moeller's offensive line helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher, twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Chris Perry (2002-03) and a pair of Michigan's top 10 season rushing performances from Mike Hart (2004, 2006). In 2004, the Wolverines' line was anchored by Baas, the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy (the nation's outstanding center). Baas was joined by teammates RG Matt Lenz and LT Adam Stenavich on the first-team All-Big Ten squad.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: Baltimore was the NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4 ppg)...O-line protected QB Joe Flacco, whose 88.9 QB rating was a Ravens' single-season record...Standout T Michael Oher was named to the All-Rookie Team. 2008: Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Ray Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (Le'Ron McClain) rushing yards...Team permitted only 33 sacks, second fewest in team history...Helped guide the NFL's youngest starting O-line and dealt with injuries that eventually broke up the opening day lineup.

2000-07: (with Michigan) 2007: From 2004-07, 11 of 25 All-Big Ten first-team selections along the O-line were Wolverines...Michigan was the only team to have multiple first-team All-Conference selections during that five-year stretch. 2004: O-line was anchored by C David Baas, the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy as the nation's outstanding center...Baas earned consensus All-America honors and was named the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year after switching from guard to center...RG Matt Lenz and LT Adam Stenavich received All-Big Ten first-team honors, with RT Jake Long collecting second-team accolades. 2003: O-line was among the nation's best, balancing a strong running game led by All-America tailback Chris Perry and the passing arm of All-Big Ten first-team QB John Navarre...Offense set school records for total offensive plays (1,014) and yards (5,807)... Moeller's O-line helped pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in five out of six years: twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Perry (2002-03) and three times by Michigan's all-time leading rusher Mike Hart (2004, 2006-07). 2002: Named offensive line coach. 2001: As Wolverines OTs/TEs coach, Moeller led another strong group...TEs unit caught 52 passes for 471 yards and 3 TDs. 2000:

Wilbert Montgomery is in his third year as the Ravens' running backs coach. Montgomery has 23 years of NFL experience (nine as a player) and has built an impressive track record in his 14 years of coaching. In 2009, the Ravens' run game set a team record with 22 rushing TDs, while earning a No. 5 NFL ranking (137.5 ypg). In his first two years, Montgomery guided a superb group of rushers, including Ray Rice ('09) and Le'Ron McClain ('08-09) to Pro Bowl seasons. Rice was one of two NFL players to record 2,000 yards from scrimmage (2,041), ranking second in the NFL with 127.6 net yards per game. His scrimmage yards also ranked second in Ravens single-season history. Another Ravens Pro Bowler, Willis McGahee, scored a team-high 12 rushing TDs (14 overall) in 2009. Montgomery's rushing unit ranked No. 4 overall in 2008, producing 148.5 rushing yards per game. The former Eagles' star rusher joined the Ravens in 2008 after two seasons with the Detroit Lions (preceded by nine stellar seasons with the St. Louis Rams). Montgomery helped construct one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, when the Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense on the road to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV (1999). From 1999-2001, St. Louis became the only NFL team to amass at least 500 points in three-consecutive seasons (526 in '99, 540 in '00 and 503 in '01).

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: Ravens were NFL's fifth-ranked run team (137.5 ypg), and the 22 rushing TDs bested 2008's 20 as the most in team history...RB Ray Rice earned his first Pro

Bowl after tallying 2,041 yards from scrimmage (second in NFL and second in Ravens single-season history)...Rice became one of only eight players in NFL history to produce 1,000 rushing yards and 700 receiving yards in a season...FB Le'Ron McClain's steady season secured a second-straight Pro Bowl berth...RB Willis McGahee scored a team-high 12 rushing TDs (14 overall, tying a franchise record). 2008: Guided a Ravens' run game that improved from a No. 16 NFL ranking in 2007 to a No. 4 ranking in 2008... McClain earned his first Pro Bowl after a 902-yard, 10-TD season...McClain also was honored as an Associated Press All-Pro...He teamed with McGahee (671 rush yards) and the rookie Rice (454 yards) to become the only NFL team with a trio of RBs with over 450, 600 and 900 yards... Run game was a key factor in the team leading the NFL in time of possession (33:10)...Team's 592 rushing attempts were an NFL season high, while Baltimore's 132 rushing first downs were also the league's second most.

2006-07: (with Detroit) Injuries forced Montgomery to work with a total of five different starting RBs, including three in 2007. 2007: RBs Kevin Jones and T.J. Duckett each recorded 100-yard games. 2006: Helped Jones evolve into one of the NFL's best dual-threat RBs...He was fourth among RBs with 61 receptions before being placed on Injured Reserve in Week 13...Was also sixth in the NFC with 1,209 yards from scrimmage (689 rushing, 520 receiving).

GAME DAY

Chuck Pagano, who is in his third season as the Ravens' secondary coach, leads a veteran group that was hampered by injuries in 2009. Pro Bowl S Ed Reed missed four games, and two starting CBs (Fabian Washington and rookie Lardarius Webb) ended the season on Injured Reserve. Even still, Baltimore's stout defense finished the season ranked third in the NFL (300.5 ypg), the team's seventh-straight top six finish. Led by the secondary's 16 picks, the defense produced the NFL's fifth-most INTs (22, tied with Car.). Baltimore's turnover ratio (+10) was also fourth best in the NFL in 2009. In Pagano's first season with the Ravens (2008), the team led the NFL with 26 INTs, including Reed's NFL-high 9 picks. Reed, the league's only unanimous (50 votes) All-Pro in 2008, was also coached by Pagano at the University of Miami. Reed grabbed a Miami career-record 21 INTs and blocked four punts in his four-year career under Pagano. Chuck coached the No. 1 pass defense at Oakland in 2006 and mentored outstanding secondaries in Cleveland and Miami, prior to joining the Ravens.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: Guided an injury-depleted secondary to a No. 8-overall ranking (tied) against the pass (207.3 ypg)...Defense ranked No. 3 overall (300.5 ypg), the seventh-straight top six finish...S Ed Reed earned his sixth Pro Bowl and added to his 13 career TDs by scoring on a 52-yard INT return vs. Cin. (10/11)...Defensive backs tallied 16 of the team's 22 INTs and Baltimore's turnover ratio (+10) was fourth best in the NFL. 2008: Secondary ranked

No. 2 against the pass (175.5 ypg), improving dramatically from a No. 20 finish in 2007...Unit allowed only 179.7 yards per game...Reed was the NFL's only unanimous All-Pro selection... He led the NFL with 9 INTs and scored three defensive TDs, plus another (64-yard INT-TD) in the Wild Card victory at Miami (1/4/09)...Defense finished No. 2 overall (261.1 ypg).

2007: (with North Carolina) Posted a one-year stint as the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach, where Pagano rejoined Butch Davis (Browns and Hurricanes)...Under Pagano, the defense improved from 92nd in 2006 to 35th in 2007.

2005-06: (with Oakland) Spent two seasons as the Raiders' defensive backs coach. 2006: Raiders led the NFL in pass defense, allowing just 150.8 yards per game, and ranked third in total defense, surrendering only 284.8 yards per contest...CB Nnamdi Asomugha was third in the NFL with 8 INTs.

2001-04: (with Cleveland) Coached the Browns' secondary under then-head coach Butch Davis...Spent four years coaching alongside Ravens current assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg. 2003: DBs helped Cleveland tie the franchise record for allowing the fewest passing TDs (13). 2001: Under Pagano's guidance, the Browns' secondary accounted for 28 of the team's NFL-leading and team-record 33 INTs, which set a new mark... Rookie CB Anthony Henry led NFL with 10 picks.

GAME DAY

Dean Pees was named the team's linebackers coach in January, 2010. Pees came to Baltimore after a six-year stint with the New England Patriots, serving as defensive coordinator for the past four seasons (2006-09). During his tenure guiding the defense, the Patriots were the only NFL team to finish in the top 10 in scoring defense in four consecutive seasons. New England's unit also allowed less than 20 points per game in every season under Pees' guidance. His coaching credentials include six years (1998-2003) as head coach at Kent State and 15 seasons as a defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, including the 1983 season when he coached Ravens head coach John Harbaugh at Miami (OH).

2004-09: (with New England) 2009: Pees led the Patriots' defense that ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense (320.2 ypg) and fifth in scoring defense (17.8 points per game). 2008: New England's defensive unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing just 309.9 yards per contest... Patriots surrendered 19.3 points per game and earned an 11-5 record despite using 22 different starters on defense. 2007: New England's defense contributed to the first 16-0 regular season in NFL history... As a unit, the defense allowed 274 points (17.4 ppg) and ranked fourth in the NFL in yards per game (288.3), which were the fewest permitted by a Patriots' defense in 28 years... New England finished second in the league with 47 sacks and sent three starters to the Pro Bowl (LB Mike Vrabel, NT Vince Wilfork and CB Asante Samuel). 2006: In his first season as defensive coordinator, Pees' defense set a franchise record for points allowed per game (14.8), which was second in the NFL...Patriots defense also tied for fourth in the NFL in takeaways (+8). 2005: Tutored a linebackers' unit that featured three of the defense's top five tacklers and accounted for 22 of the team's 33 sacks...Vrabel paced the team with a career-high 114 tackles (80 solo). 2004: In his first NFL season, Pees mentored a linebacker group that produced three of the team's top four tacklers...Patriots defense ranked sixth in the NFL against the run, while the linebackers recorded 27.5 sacks...Tedy Bruschi finished second on the team with 128 tackles and earned his first Pro Bowl selection, while Willie McGinest paced the defense with 9.5 sacks.

1998-2003: (with Kent State) Named head coach in 1998. 2002: QB Joshua Cribbs – current standout for the Cleveland Browns – became only the second player in NCAA history with two "double" (passing/rushing) 1,000-yard seasons and would later go on to hold 13 different school records. 2001: Pees led KSU to a 6-5 record, the school's best mark in 14 years and only its second winning season in 25 years...LB James Harrison – current Pittsburgh Steelers Pro Bowler – finished second in school history with 12 sacks and 20 tackles for loss.

1995-97: (with Michigan State) Was the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach on Nick Saban's staff...Spartans qualified for a postseason bowl game in each of Pees' three seasons and finished with the 13th-ranked defense in his final season.

Bob Rogucki (pronounced row-GUS-key) is in his third year as the Ravens' head strength and conditioning coach. Rogucki is a 36-year coaching veteran, who has 20 years experience as a strength and conditioning coach in the NFL. His philosophy is to direct a training regimen specific to the game of football involving protocols that build both muscular strength and endurance. Rogucki works with every player and believes strength and conditioning is the basis of success for a team. Old school philosophies and hard work prevail in the weight room, but Rogucki makes the program competitive, challenging and fun for the players. His track record shows that he has a reputation for getting players to buy in to his programs.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) Joined the Ravens coaching staff as the team's head strength and conditioning coach in 2008...Instituted the Baltimore Ravens Competitor Day, an offseason event where players participate in different strength-related competitions...Over 50 players annually take part in the team's voluntary offseason strength and conditioning program.

2006-07: (with Philadelphia) Spent two seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with Ravens head coach John Harbaugh, who coached the special teams and secondary.

2005: Was the director of fitness at Sports & Field, one of the premier athletic performance training facilities, based in Wesley Chapel, FL.

2004: (with Jacksonville) Posted a one-year stint as the assistant strength coach for the Jaguars.

1990-2003: (with Arizona) Spent 14 years as strength and conditioning coach...Enhanced the team's weight room to include a wide variety of equipment and implemented a strength and conditioning program that trains the entire body. 1990: Launched his NFL coaching career with the Cardinals.

1983-1989: (with Army) Managed the strength and conditioning and the speed development programs for all varsity sports, under stringent guidelines mandated by service academy regulations.

1982: (with Weber State) Strength coach.

1981: (with Penn State) Launched his collegiate coaching career as an assistant strength coach.

1975-81: Rogucki coached high school football, basketball and baseball in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia for six years until he entered the NCAA ranks at Penn State...The three schools were Sebring (OH) HS, Grafton (WV) HS and State College (PA) HS.

AL SAUNDERS

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: SAN JOSE STATE
BORN: 2/1/47, LONDON, ENGLAND
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 28/2

Al Saunders was named the Ravens' senior offensive assistant in March 2010 after originally joining the team as an offensive consultant during to the 2009 campaign. In his 28th year of NFL coaching, including three seasons as a head coach, he assists the Ravens' offensive staff with game-plan preparation and strategy. Prior to joining the Ravens, Saunders most recently served as the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams (2008), a team to which he returned nearly a decade after helping them to a Super Bowl title in 1999 as the associate head coach/WRs (1999-2000). Between stints with the Rams, Saunders led the Washington Redskins' offense for two seasons as the associate head coach/offense (2006-07) and served as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs (2001-05). The latter was also his second stay in KC, where he had worked as assistant head coach/WRs for 10 seasons (1989-98). Saunders' first NFL head-coaching job came with the San Diego Chargers when Don Coryell resigned during the 1986 season, and he was named interim head coach. He went on to spend two full seasons at the helm for the Chargers after previously filling the roles of assistant head coach (1985-86) and WRs coach (1983-1984) in San Diego. Throughout his NFL coaching career, Saunders has experienced 14 playoff seasons, five division titles and one Super Bowl championship. In 2005, while with the Chiefs, Saunders was named USA Today's Offensive Coach of the Year.

2009: (with Baltimore) Joined the Ravens as an offensive consultant in his first year with the team...Assisted the offensive coaching staff with game-plan prep and strategy.

2008: (with St. Louis) In his second stint with the Rams, Saunders spent the season as the team's offensive coordinator...Coached RB Steven Jackson to his fourth-consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season...Jackson's 118.4 scrimmage yards per contest ranked first in the NFL.

2006-07: (with Washington) 2007: Working with Hall of Fame coach Joe Gibbs, Saunders' rushing attack had a strong campaign, tying for seventh in the NFL with 15 rushing TDs, fifth in attempts (498) and 12th in yards per game (116.9). 2006: Saunders' offense finished fourth in the league in rushing yards per game (138.5) and also posted a league-high 75 carries for 10-plus yards...QB Mark Brunell set an NFL single-game record for consecutive completions with 22 and broke QB Sammy Baugh's 66-year-old franchise record for completion percentage with an 88.9 mark.

2001-05: (with Kansas City) Reunited with Dick Vermeil during this span with the Chiefs, Saunders' offense exploded with 2,157 points, 262 TDs, and 30,470 net yards, more than any other NFL team across those five seasons. 2005: Saunders was named Offensive Coach of the Year by USA Today after leading the Chiefs to the league's best offense (387 ypg) for the second-consecutive season...The most explosive offense in the NFL produced 70 total plays over 20 yards and included a league-high 15 TDs...The unit also led the league in eight other offensive categories. 2004: The Chiefs led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, accumulating a franchise-record 6,695 yards (418.4 ypg)...Also finished second in scoring (30.2 ppg) and broke or tied 18 different single-season records...Among Under Saunders' tutelage, QB Trent Green finished the season with a QB rating over 90 for the fourth-consecutive season and produced his third-straight 4,000-yard passing season... TE Tony Gonzalez also shattered the NFL single-season receiving mark among tight ends with 102 receptions. 2003: Former Ravens RB Priest Holmes registered a then-NFL-record 27 rushing TDs under Saunders... The Chiefs also led the NFL in scoring for the second-consecutive season (with a franchise-record 484 points), a feat last accomplished by an AFC team (also coached by Saunders) when San Diego did it from 1981-82. 2002: Saunders' offense led the league in scoring with its 467 total points... The dynamic offense also broke or tied 22 single-season team records, including the longest-standing NFL record for fewest fumbles (2)... Holmes had one of his finest seasons, finishing with 2,287 yards from scrimmage, including 1,615 rushing yards and nine 100-yard rushing performances, all of which set team single-season records. 2001: Holmes led the NFL in rushing with 1,555 yards, and Kansas City's offense ranked in the top 10 in rushing, passing, scoring and total offense for just the second time since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger.

1999-2000: (with St. Louis) 2000: Part of a Rams' coaching staff that created "The Greatest Show on Turf" and helped St. Louis finish with an NFL-record 442.2 total yards of offense per game and score 540 points (33.8 ppg), the third-highest single-season total in NFL history... The Rams finished with 7,075 yards of total offense and 5,232 passing yards to break the previous single-season marks established by the 1984 Miami Dolphins. 1999: While serving as the associate head coach/WRs for Dick Vermeil, the Rams finished atop the NFL with 6,412 yards of total offense, 272.1 passing yards per game and 32.9 points per game... St. Louis rolled to a 13-3 regular season finish, an NFC West division championship and a Super Bowl XXXIV title.

1989-98: (with Kansas City) In his first stint with the Chiefs, Saunders served as the assistant head coach/WRs for 10 seasons under Marty Schottenheimer... During that span, Saunders helped to lead the Chiefs to three AFC West division crowns and seven playoff berths.

1983-88: (with San Diego) 1987: In his first full season as an NFL head coach, Saunders led the Chargers to an 8-7 regular season finish... It marked the first winning campaign for the Chargers in five seasons... Also won eight straight games in '87, in what was then the team's longest winning streak in 26 years. 1986: Replaced Don Coryell as the interim head coach of the Chargers during the middle of the season. 1985: Served as the assistant head coach/WRs for "Air Coryell," one of the most exciting and prolific offenses in NFL history... With Hall of Fame QB Dan Fouts and a receiving corps led by TE Kellen Winslow and WR Charlie Joiner, the Chargers led the NFL in passing and total offense for the fifth time in the past six seasons.

1982: (with Tennessee) Named the Volunteers' offensive coordinator/QBs coach under head coach Johnny Majors... Directed the explosive, record-breaking pass offense that featured future NFL receiving stars Willie Gault, Clyde Duncan, Mike Miller and Darral Wilson.

1976-81: (with California) Served as assistant head coach/QBs/offensive coordinator for a program that set 32 national, conference and school records... Finished each season as a national top 10 passing team, led by consensus All-American QBs Joe Roth and Rich Campbell and future NFL QBs Gale Gilbert and Fred Besana.

1973-75: (with Utah State) Play-caller and coach of the offensive backfield for the Aggies... Dynamic rushing offense that featured the nation's two-time all-purpose yardage and rushing leader, RB Louie Giammona.

1972: (with Missouri) Joined the Tigers' offensive staff as the WRs coach... Fiesta Bowl team that featured future NFL star receiver, Harry Marshall.

1970-71: (with Southern California) Began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Trojans under legendary head coach John McKay.

COLLEGE: Played defensive back at San Jose State... Saunders was a three-year starter, team captain and named Academic All-America for the Spartans (1966-68)... Saunders, who is a member of the school's Hall of Fame, also spent time playing wide receiver... A recipient of California's State Graduate Fellowship, he earned a Master's degree in education from Stanford and was also a doctoral candidate in athletic administration and sports management at Southern California.

PERSONAL: Born in London, England, Saunders became a U.S. citizen in 1960 and subsequently served as one of only four foreign-born head coaches in NFL history... He was recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award in 1989, given for community leadership and service... Saunders is a former All-American swimmer and national record holder in the sport... He is also an accomplished distance runner... Was crowned the Road Runners Club of America's Master 5K National Champion in 1996... Saunders and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Robert and Joseph, and a daughter, Korrin.

COLLEGE: USC

BORN: 9/11/60, REDONDO BEACH, CA

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 5/3

Craig Ver Steeg (pronounced ver-STEgg) is in his third year with the Ravens as the team's offensive assistant. Ver Steeg, who has 27 years of coaching experience, has established himself as an elite coach of quarterbacks, receivers and running backs. He works closely with offensive coordinator Cam Cameron and the offensive staff to help make sure players are fully prepped both for fast-paced practices and on game days. Baltimore's offense has made significant strides since the Cameron-led offensive coaching staff joined the team. A longtime collegiate coach, Ver Steeg guided two current NFL players who benefited under his tutelage on the college level: RB Ray Rice (Ravens) and QB Alex Smith (49ers). Ver Steeg's knowledge and experience are invaluable assets to the continued development of the Ravens' offense.

2008-09: (with Baltimore) 2009: Assisted Cam Cameron's offense with game preparation for a unit that was the NFL's ninth-best in scoring (24.4 ppg), also setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22)...Baltimore also produced the top three offensive games in team history: 548 yards vs. Det., 501 vs. KC and 479 vs. Cle. and ranked fifth overall in rushing yardage (137.5 ypg). 2008: Baltimore finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (148.5 ypg) and 11th in points per game (24.1)...Ravens led the NFL in time of possession (33:10 avg.) and their 18.1 margin of victory ranked second.

2003-07: (with Rutgers) Ver Steeg tutored some of the most productive players in school history. 2007: Served as RBs coach and guided Ravens 2008 second-round draft pick, All-American RB

Ray Rice, who rushed for a school-record 2,012 yards and 24 TDs on 380 carries (154.8 ypg)... Part of an offensive unit that produced 456.3 net yards per game...Scarlet Knights averaged 198.0 rushing yards per game...Rice finished his career holding several Rutgers records, including career yards rushing (4,926), career rushing TDs (49) and single-game rushing yards (280)...He became the 13th player in NCAA history to gain more than 2,000 rushing yards in a season...Was also a Doak Walker Award finalist (nation's top running back) and earned team MVP honors for the second straight year. 2006: Rutgers rushing attack ranked 15th in the country, averaging 180.2 yards per game...The Scarlet Knights also produced 29.8 points per game, ranking 22nd among Division I teams. 2005: Rutgers was second in the Big East in both total offense (406.3 ypg) and passing (234.6 ypg). 2004: Scarlet Knights boasted the nation's No. 6 overall and Big East's top-ranked passing attack (310.5 ypg)...Rutgers also finished third in the Big East in total offense (407.7 ypg). 2003: As offensive coordinator (2003-06), oversaw a unit that scored 329 points, the fifth-highest point total in school history...Scarlet Knights produced 4,423 total yards of offense, fifth-most in Rutgers annals... Also coached Rutgers QBs (2003-06)...In dual roles, he tutored QB Ryan Hart, who established nearly every school passing mark in three starting seasons...Hart's career records include: passing yards (8,482), attempts (1,217), completions (735) and TDs (52).

2001-02: (with Utah) Served as offensive coordinator and QBs coach for two seasons... Helped recruit the first pick in the 2005 NFL draft, QB Alex Smith (49ers), to Utah and coached the Jim Zorn was named the team's quarterbacks coach in Jan. 2010. Zorn joined the Ravens with 13 years of NFL coaching experience, including 11 as a quarterbacks coach. He also spent 11 seasons as an NFL QB with the Seattle Seahawks, Green Bay Packers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Ravens, Zorn served two seasons (2008-09) as head coach of the Washington Redskins. As a coach with Seattle (2001-07), Zorn tutored Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck, who set several franchise marks and earned three Pro Bowl nods (under Zorn's direction). He also opened the 2002 season in Seattle with Ravens Super Bowl-winning QB Trent Dilfer starting under center. While with the Detroit Lions (1998-00), Zorn was instrumental in the development of rookie QB Charlie Batch, whose 88.3 passer rating in 1998 ranks as the fourth-highest rookie mark in NFL history.

2008-09: (with Washington) 2009: Served in his second season as head coach of the Redskins en route to a 4-12 finish. 2008: Guided the Redskins to an 8-8 record in his first year as an NFL head coach...Originally hired as the team's offensive coordinator before being re-hired to head coach two weeks later...Zorn's defensive unit finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL in overall defense, limiting opponents to 288.8 yards per game...Four of his starters (RB Clinton Portis, TE Chris Cooley, T Chris Samuels and FB Mike Sellers) earned Pro Bowl honors with the implementation of Zorn's new offense...Became the first team in NFL history to not record an offensive turnover in its first five games...Helped fifth-year QB Jason Campbell set then-career highs in completions, passing attempts, passing yards, TD passes, and passer rating in 2008.

2001-07: (with Seattle) 2007: Under Zorn's guidance, Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck set Seattle single-season highs for attempts (562), completions (352) and passing yards (3,966). He also threw for a career-high 28 TDs while earning his third Pro Bowl nod. 2006: With Hasselbeck lost to injury mid-season, Zorn helped develop QB Seneca Wallace, who threw 8 TDs and posted a 76.2 passer rating with a 2-2 record. 2005: Hasselbeck earned his second Pro Bowl under the tutelage of Zorn, and while leading his team to a franchise-record 11 consecutive wins, posted the NFC's top passer rating (98.2) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XL against Pittsburgh. 2003: Hasselbeck set a then-franchise record with 3,841 passing yards and became the franchise's most efficient passer (85.1 rating) under Zorn...He joined Zorn as the only Seahawks QBs to pass for 3,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. 2002: Opened the season with Ravens Super Bowl-winning QB Trent Dilfer as the starter before Hasselbeck took the helm. The duo combined for the NFL's third-ranked passing attack (254.9 ypg)...Hasselbeck and Zorn became the Seahawks' only QBs to pass for 300 yards in back-to-back contests. 2001: Re-joined the Seahawks as the team's QBs coach after having served as an offensive assistant in 1997.

1998-2000: (with Detroit) 1998: Zorn was vital in the development of rookie QB Charlie Batch, whose 88.3 passer rating in '98 ranks fourth-highest among rookies in NFL history.

1997: (with Seattle) Entered the NFL coaching ranks as an offensive assistant after spending

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

"This team wins because it drafts well. Steve Bisciotti is a great owner because he lets his guys do their job. It's a great organization." - Mel Kiper, ESPN (April, 2010)

"If I ever get a chance to come back and coach, I'm going to call Ozzie Newsome to make all of my picks." - Jon Gruden, ESPN (April, 2010)

"The Ravens are successful, because they ignore needs to take the best player available. There's a reason the Ravens are always picking in the bottom half of the draft. They win and are in the playoffs each year." - Todd McShay, ESPN (April, 2010)

"If I had to pick one guy to draft a team, I'd take Ozzie Newsome. He's the best I've seen since Ron Wolf. No matter where the Ravens draft, a good player seems to fall to them." - Rick Gosselin, The Dallas Morning News (September, 2008)

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time." - Don Banks, SI.com

"Newsome and owner Steve Bisciotti have an excellent relationship, and Newsome figures to be running the Ravens' drafts for years to come. The Ravens' track record of draft success is no secret, and it's the envy of many clubs that are low on blue-chip players." - ProFootballWeekly.com (January, 2008)

"With an organizational philosophy that heavily emphasizes successful drafts and a scouting structure and process that facilitates that goal, Baltimore has established the model for maintaining a successful team during the salary cap era." - Rich Campbell, The Washington Post (April, 2007)

MICHELLE ANDRES

VICE PRESIDENT OF DIGITAL MEDIA

Michelle Andres, who joined the Ravens in 2006, leads the team's digital media strategy with a primary focus on the continued development of BaltimoreRavens.com. She is responsible for the team's social media presence, online video, mobile marketing, online sales, email and database marketing, market research and photography.

After successfully launching a major re-design of BaltimoreRavens.com in early 2008, Andres and her team continue to evolve the platform with fans in mind, taking a more news-oriented approach and focus to content. The result has increased fan engagement, higher site traffic and impressive sponsor participation.

Prior to working for the Ravens, she spent nine seasons with the NBA's Orlando Magic – seven in public relations overseeing corporate communications and government relations and two leading the newly-formed interactive marketing department.

A native of Gainesville, FL, Andres earned her master's degree in political campaign management from the University of Florida and her bachelor's degree in political science from Furman University.

ED BURCHELL

VICE PRESIDENT OF REGIONAL PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Ed Burchell has been with the Ravens' corporate sales team since 2002. A Baltimore native, he is charged with driving the Ravens' regional partnerships and sales to build team revenue, brand awareness and brand growth.

In addition to the naming rights relationship with Smyth Jewelers (Ring of Honor) and Geppi Entertainment (Club Level), both at M&T Bank Stadium, Burchell's regional partnerships include companies such as Merritt Properties, McCormick & Co., Constellation/BGE, Maryland Lottery, and Advance Business Systems.

He is the co-founder of the Ravens All Community Team and NFL Football Challenge, both programs that unite corporate business leaders from the community with the Ravens and individual player foundations.

Prior to the Ravens, Burchell was a vice president for Genesis Health Ventures. While there, he was responsible for building and implementing revenue-generating strategies nationally for its consulting practice and regionally for its Chesapeake network.

Burchell is a member of a number of charity boards: the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, Better Business Bureau and Catholic Charities. He is also a member of the Loyola-Blakefield Development Committee and chair of its newly-formed Marketing Committee.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Ed and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown and have two sons, Edward (12) and Alexander (8).

GABRIELLE DOW

VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING

Gabrielle Dow joined the Ravens prior to the 2006 season. She oversees the team's marketing, promotions, advertising, branding, events, game entertainment, trademark and licensing and fan affinity areas.

The San Francisco native drives aggressive promotion and advertising for the Ravens. Under her direction in 2007, Dow launched the first-ever professional team female fan club called Purple, which has over 13,000 members and remains the only club of its kind. Also in 2007, Dow launched the Ravens' Purple Friday campaign. On several Fridays during the season, her team travels throughout Baltimore with a day-long caravan of cheerleaders, staff and band members to "paint the town purple."

During the 2008 offseason, her marketing team coordinated the Ravens' first cheerleader swimsuit calendar photo shoot in Punta Cana, Dominican Republic. The second and third annual calendars were produced in May of 2009 and 2010 in the Bahamas.

Dow has experience working with three major sports leagues: the NFL, the NHL and the NBA. Prior to joining the Ravens, she spent two years with the NHL's Florida Panthers, managing the marketing of hockey, concerts and family entertainment, and four years with AEG, marketing the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, as well as the Staples Center, Kodak Theatre, and The Forum. After earning both an M.B.A. and law degree from Oregon, Dow began her sports career as a public relations intern for the Portland Trail Blazers.

Gabrielle and her husband, Jeff, have a daughter, Danielle (5), and a son, Jackson (1).

BOB ELLER

VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Bob Eller is in his 24th season with the franchise and his 27th in the NFL. Eller directs the day-to-day operations of the team, including the training facility in Owings Mills, summer training camp at McDaniel College and minicamps, team travel and catering for the players, coaches and staff. The Baltimore native has been with the franchise since 1987, serving in both the public relations and operations departments.

In 2004, Eller directed the team's move to the new facility. In his history with the team, he also wrote and edited media guides and other PR-related materials, as well as coordinating the operations of the game day stats crew.

Eller's career began as an intern for the Baltimore

Colts in 1983, while a senior at Towson University (business administration). A year later, the team's first in Indianapolis, he joined the club and was quickly promoted to director of public relations. Eller then moved to Cleveland in 1987 to become the Browns' assistant director of public relations. He was promoted to director of operations and information in 1991. Bob was then invited to join the team in the move to Baltimore in 1996, helping to facilitate many of the start-up functions for the new Ravens.

Eller has worked eight Super Bowls for the NFL and served as the Browns' primary league office liaison when the NFL launched the player assistance and development programs.

An active supporter of the St. Vincent's Center for abused children, Bob and his wife, Sheila, have a daughter, Erin (17) and a son, Joey (14).

JEFF GOERING

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jeff Goering, who joined the club in 1999, oversees all functions of the Ravens' finance department, including the organization's financial reporting and budgeting processes. He is also the chief financial liaison with the club's audit/tax advisors and various stadium partners.

Goering was named senior director of finance in 2004 after spending his first five years with the Ravens as the team's controller.

As a senior consultant for PricewaterhouseCoopers in Dallas, Goering worked with many sports entities, preparing financial feasibility studies, market assessments and economic impact analyses for proposed new or expanded sports venues.

He received his master's of science in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. During that time, he also served as a consultant in the evaluation and preparation of Boston Red Sox salary arbitration cases.

Goering spent a year in the Philippines as a community development volunteer for the Presbyterian Church, USA, in 1995-96. He received a B.S. in business administration from Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) University.

Jeff, who serves as the treasurer on the board of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, earned his CPA certificate in 1992. He and his wife, Sheryl, have two daughters, Olivia (9) and Caroline (7), and a son, Daniel (4).

BILL JANKOWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Bill Jankowski has been with the franchise in a full-time role since 1986. He was one of 28 to join Art Modell in the move to Baltimore with the team in 1996. Jankowski guides the Ravens' information technology department to support many technological functions for the organization, including business, coaching, stadium, scouting, public relations and training operations. He helped the team through the transition of moving to Baltimore and has kept the organization on par with today's ever-changing technology world.

The Cleveland native works with director of I.T., Nick Fusee, to support both the coaching and scouting staffs, assisting with their unique software programming. The software assists the coaches in game-planning and game analysis, combining with the football video department.

They also help manage the scouting player personnel database, integrating the system with the NFL Management Council.

Jankowski spent two years as the chair of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee and was a member of the committee to help design the NFL's Game Statistics & Information System (GSIS) in 1996.

Bill, who attended St. Ignatius HS and John Carroll University, (Cleveland, OH), lives in Reisterstown, MD.

FRONT OFFICE

BAKER KOPPELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES & OPERATIONS

Baker Koppelman has been with the Ravens since their first year in Baltimore (1996).

Koppelman oversees the team's PSL, season ticket and hospitality sales, ticket operations, ticket distribution, customer service, club level service and retail sales.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Koppelman has worked in professional sports ticketing operations since 1987, selling Baltimore Orioles tickets at Memorial Stadium during the summer while earning his sports management and economics degrees at Guilford College (Greensboro, NC).

He worked his way to a full-time position with the Orioles in 1991, helping manage the stadium box office and contributing with the seating relocation from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992. He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens.

Koppelman serves on the advisory board of the Michael A. Fiorelli Foundation for Esophageal Cancer Awareness. Fiorelli, who passed away from cancer in 2007, was Koppelman's colleague at both the Orioles and Ravens. Baker is also a member of the St. Paul's School (Baltimore) Alumni Board.

Baker's wife, Reba, is a senior accountant in the Ravens' finance department.

KEVIN ROCHLITZ

VICE PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Kevin Rochlitz, who joined the Ravens in 2003, oversees all national partnerships and promotions for the team. He is the primary contact for the team's MedStar Health partnership and works with national partners – such as Visa, AirTran Airways, Coca-Cola, Ticketmaster, MillerCoors and Anheuser-Busch – on promotions and brand visibility. Rochlitz also created and sold the Bacardi Bar and Talon Pub at M&T Bank Stadium as well as the club level bars at M&T Bank Stadium.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Rochlitz spent five years as senior vice president of sales for Mandalay Sports and Entertainment/Mandalay Pictures, owners of the Dayton Dragons and Frisco Rough Riders (minor league baseball). He oversaw new stadium construction, selling the naming rights for each venue (Fifth Third Field in Dayton, OH, and Dr Pepper Ballpark in Frisco, TX).

From 1996-97, Rochlitz was one of the youngest assistant athletic directors in NCAA Division I-A for the University of Miami. He crossed paths with secondary coach Chuck Pagano and former Ravens CB Duane Starks.

Rochlitz serves on the boards of Union Memorial Hospital Foundation and the Matt Katula Foundation. He has served on the National Sports Forum Steering Committee since 2001.

Kevin graduated from Wyoming with a degree in marketing. He and his wife, Melissa, have a daughter, Riley (7).

LARRY ROSEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF BROADCASTING

Larry Rosen enters his 11th year with the Ravens after joining the club prior to the team's Super Bowl season in 2000. In that time, his broadcasting team has earned 19 regional Emmy Awards for its excellence in producing original television shows such as Wired, Ravens Report, Game Plan, Ravens Kickoff and preseason football coverage. Larry also produces "Game Day" for the RavensVision high definition video boards at M&T Bank Stadium during Ravens home games.

Rosen won his first Emmy while with the Ravens for his feature reporting on the team's 2001 visit to Ground Zero in New York City.

Prior to his Ravens tenure, Rosen was the play-by-play voice and executive producer of both Philadelphia Phillies baseball and Atlantic 10 basketball games for PRISM-TV. Inducted into Temple University's Hall of Fame in 2005, Rosen won multiple Emmys in his 16 years at PRISM.

Rosen began his career as a news reporter for KYW Newsradio Philadelphia. He was honored several times as National Reporter of the Year by multiple organizations, including the Associated Press and the Columbia School of Journalism, for his coverage of the Three Mile Island nuclear accident, the MOVE shootout and Pope John Paul II's visit to Philadelphia in 1979.

Larry has two daughters, Sunni (17) and Inde (15), who are die-hard Ravens fans. They celebrated the team's Super Bowl XXXV victory in Tampa by gazing up at the falling purple confetti.

ROY SOMMERHOF

VICE PRESIDENT OF STADIUM OPERATIONS

Roy Sommerhof joined the Ravens during their inaugural season in Baltimore (1996). He manages all aspects of M&T Bank Stadium, including game day parking, security, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

Since the stadium opened in 1998, Sommerhof has spearheaded the team's efforts to make it one of the best in the NFL, supervising improvements to both the suite and club levels, the installation of the spectacular new high definition scoreboards in 2010, the addition of 15 new suites, and the design and installation of the M&T Bank Stadium signage.

Prior to joining the Ravens, the Baltimore native spent 16 years working in both ticket sales and stadium operations for the Orioles. He played a significant role in the planning, development and execution of the opening of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992.

During his career, he has been involved with numerous special events, including hosting both Pope John Paul II at Oriole Park (1995) and the Queen of England at Memorial Stadium (1991), and the MLB All-Star Game at Oriole Park (1993).

He is also the president of the Gridiron Stadium Network, a consortium of 10 NFL facilities and one MLS facility that creates awareness and promotes the assets of its member stadiums. The GSN works to optimize opportunities to expand the use of the state-of-the-art facilities for new sports, entertainment, public and private events.

Through Roy's efforts and those of GSN, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens hosted a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, hosted an international soccer match between Chelsea and AC Milan in 2009, and another international soccer match in 2010 between Manchester City and Inter Milan.

Sommerhof graduated from St. Thomas (Miami, FL) University in 1979 with a degree in sports administration. Roy, and his wife, Lina, have two sons, Drew (16) and Cole (8).

M&T BANK STADIUM: THE 'OTHER' FOOTBALL

In July 2010, the Baltimore Ravens hosted an international soccer match at M&T Bank Stadium, with Manchester City Football Club meeting Internazionale Milano (commonly known as Inter Milan). Manchester City is a member of England's elite Barclays Premier League, while Inter Milan competes in Italy's top league, Italian Serie A. This marked the second-consecutive year that M&T Bank Stadium hosted teams from two of Europe's top soccer leagues. Last year's A.C. Milan vs. Chelsea battle produced a sellout crowd, with over 70,000 fans in attendance for the match.

The high-profile matches bolster Baltimore's status among the international sports world. As the U.S. considers its bid for the World Cup in 2018 or 2022, M&T Bank Stadium and Baltimore are positioned on the forefront of potential host cities.

"I think that as we demonstrate that Baltimore and M&T Bank Stadium are good venues for soccer, we hope to bring more soccer events to the stadium," Ravens president Dick Cass stated. "We also hope that this will help our World Cup bid for the United States."

OWINGS MILLS TRAINING FACILITY

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

The facility includes a full-service kitchen, cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

Approximately 200 Ravens are housed at the headquarters in Owings Mills. The ticket office and stadium operations remain at M&T Bank Stadium.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us," executive vice president/general manager Ozzie Newsome stated. "Steve [Bisciotti] has delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."

The Ravens have three grass practice fields – one Kentucky Bluegrass and two Bermuda Grass – at their Owings Mills training facility.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field with the same surface (Shaw Sportex "Momentum 51" turf) used at M&T Bank Stadium.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS ACT FOUNDATION

The Baltimore Ravens All Community Team Foundation is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in the Baltimore area, as well as other parts of the state of Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth, and in some cases their families, with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring.

Recent projects include:

- * Financial support to St. Vincent's Center, Boys Hope Girls Hope and United Way
- * The Plan in Motion project, which supports nonprofits that are fighting childhood obesity through physical fitness and nutrition education programs, with grants of up to $5,000

The team's charitable arm also partners with Ravens player foundations (see below) and the many staff members who volunteer with other nonprofit organizations, working to improve the quality of life for youth in our community.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The Ravens All Community Team (ACT) is a partnership among the Ravens organization, the players and the members of the corporate community who make a positive impact in Maryland. Title sponsor, M&T Bank, joins additional Baltimore corporations to provide financial and volunteer support for many Ravens community service projects, including Habitat for Humanity and the Ravens' Family Food Drive. In 2009, more than $400,000 was raised for these causes. (ACT Auction Party, right)

RAVENS FAMILY FOOD DRIVE

For the 14th year, the Ravens hosted the annual Family Food & Funds Drive at M&T Bank Stadium. Shoppers Food & Pharmacy stores accepted donations of canned goods and other non-perishables during the month of November, while the stadium collection, sponsored by Von Paris and Snapple, accumulated monetary donations and more food items before the Nov. 22 game vs. the Colts. Together, more than 24,000 pounds of food was collected and over $34,000 was raised in 2009 for the Maryland Food Bank.

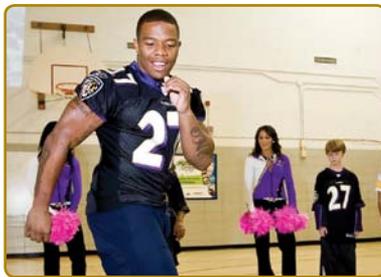

GRIDIRON HALLOWEEN PARTY

Mark Clayton and Todd Heap, along with Michael Oher, co-hosted the 10th annual Gridiron Halloween Party benefiting Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake on Oct. 26. More than 500 people attended the annual fundraiser, and close to $100,000 was raised for Goodwill programs in 2009. Hosts Clayton (Jarvus Jarvus), Heap (Fred from 'Scooby Doo') and Oher (as himself) were joined by fellow costumed Ravens players Chris Carr (gorilla) and Joe Reitz (iPod dancer), among others (pictured at right). Over the last 10 years, the partnership between Goodwill and the Baltimore Ravens has raised over $1 million.

PLAY 60

The NFL Play 60 Challenge encourages children to get active for 60 minutes daily and record their activity for a total of four weeks. Kickoff assemblies were held at four schools to introduce students to the program. Mark Clayton, Davon Drew, Ray Rice (right) and Lardarius Webb spoke to the students about the importance of eating healthy foods and staying active and demonstrated easy ways to get moving.

HOLIDAY HELPERS

Derrick Mason (right) and Samari Rolle donated $10,000 for their 5th Annual Holiday Helpers event in December of 2009. They provided 60 Baltimore-area youth with Target gift cards and joined close to 20 Ravens teammates – including Ed Reed, Joe Flacco and Trevor Pryce – and cheerleaders as personal shoppers for the children.

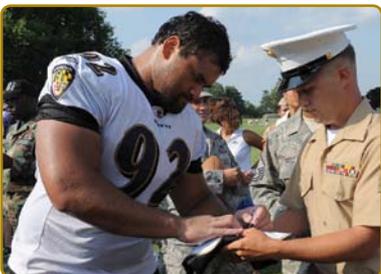

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

To celebrate Nickelodeon's Worldwide Day of Play and Hispanic Heritage Month, the Ravens, with the help of Brendon Ayanbadejo (right), Antwan Barnes and Ray Rice, hosted a football clinic for 100 Hispanic Youth on Sept. 22, 2009. Clinic participants got a taste of running, passing and catching and still had time to get autographs from some of their favorite Ravens. One lucky youngster was also selected via raffle to be the tee kid at the Ravens' designated Hispanic Heritage game on Sept. 27, 2009.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

The Baltimore Ravens celebrated members of the U.S. Military and honored their work during the 2009 season through hospital visits to the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, ticket donations and special recognition at Ravens' games and other events. Military Appreciation Day was a highlight of Ravens training camp, where service men and women in uniform were recognized and brought onto the field post-practice for pictures and autographs from the team (Haloti Ngata, right).

TAKE A PLAYER TO SCHOOL

Travis Justice, a fifth-grader at Elkridge Elementary, won the chance to bring Todd Heap (right) to school with him on Nov. 11, 2009 as part of the NFL's Take a Player to School program. After arriving in a limo, Heap and Justice talked about the importance of good health and smart food choices at a school-wide assembly and later designed the ultimate gym class for Justice's classmates – a spirited game of flag football, in which the Ravens' TE served as the quarterback for both teams.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

An NFL-wide day of hands-on activity, the Ravens elected to get active (and go wild) with students from Cecil Elementary and Hampstead Hill Academy for the 2009 NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle on Oct. 6. "The Amazing Race – Ravens Style" was based on the popular CBS reality series, with 114 fourth graders joining the Ravens as they navigated through The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore. Ravens players Matt Katula, Dawan Landry (right), Matt Lawrence, Jameel McClain, Jalen Parmele and Stefan Rodgers participated alongside the students.

RAVENS SCHOLARS

GIVING BACK ON THANKSGIVING

Ravens players provided Thanksgiving meals to over 2,000 Maryland families this past season. Annually, the Ravens make an effort to aid those in our community who rely on community feeding programs to avoid going hungry. Over 20 players went out on the Monday and Tuesday of Thanksgiving week to participate in the food give-aways. From distributing turkeys and gift baskets to serving food at a homeless shelter, Ray Lewis (below, top left), Ed Reed (below, bottom left), Joe Flacco (below, bottom right), Ray Rice (below, top right), Edgar Jones (below, top right), Willis McGahee, Jared Gaither, Ben Grubbs and others made a difference in many lives in the holiday season.

GP/GS (PLAYOFFS): 32/32 (5/5)

TRANSACTIONS

Joe Flacco was selected by the Ravens in the first round (18th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft... Flacco became just the second NCAA Division I FCS (formerly I-AA) QB ever selected in the first round and the first since QB Steve McNair (Alcorn State) was the third-overall pick by Houston in 1995.

HONORS

- Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team (players who are critical to their team, but don't receive Pro Bowl nods) in 2009
- Named the 2008 Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote)
- NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month (November, 2008)
- AFC Rookie of the Week (Week 17, 2008)

CAREER

- His 37 NFL starts (including playoffs) are the most in the first two seasons by a QB in NFL history
- Flacco is just the fourth starting QB since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons... Joined Ben Roethlisberger, Bernie Kosar and Dan Marino in the elite group
- Became the first rookie QB in NFL history to win two playoff games in the 2008 Divisional Playoff win at Ten. (1/10/09)
- The tandem of John Harbaugh and Flacco, which in 2008 set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB, own the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first two seasons
- Ranks third all-time in Ravens history in the following categories: attempts (927), completions (572), yards (6,584) and TDs (35)
- Set career highs in attempts (499), completions (315), completion percentage (63.1), yards (3,613), TDs (21) and QB rating (88.9) in 2009, leading the Ravens to the playoffs for the second-consecutive season
- Set the Ravens' single-season record for completion percentage (63.1) and QB rating (88.9), while his 21 passing TDs and 3,613 passing yards in 2009 rank as the second-most in Ravens single-season history
- Threw for a career-high 4 TDs in a 31-7 win vs. Chi. (12/20/09)... 4 TDs tied for the second-most TDs in Ravens history
- Produced a career-high 135.6 passer rating vs. Chi. (12/20/09), completing 21 of 29 passes for 234 yards and 4 TDs... The rating ranked second best in team history (Kyle Boller, 136.8 on 12/19/05 vs. GB)
- His 14 straight pass completions vs. Den. (11/1/09) set a franchise record, breaking the previous streak of 12, which he also set (at Ind. 10/5/08)
- Ravens were the NFL's ninth-best scoring team in 2009 (24.4 ppg), racking up a franchise-record 47 TDs

2009: (16/16, 2/2) Is just the fourth starting QB since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons (Ben Roethlisberger, Bernie Kosar and Dan Marino)... Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team (players who are critical to their team, but don't receive Pro Bowl nods)... Set career highs in attempts (499), completions (315), completion percentage (63.1), yards (3,613), TDs (21) and QB rating (88.9), leading the Ravens to the playoffs for the second-consecutive season... Flacco's 63.1 completion percentage and 88.9 QB rating are both Ravens' single-season franchise records... His 3,613 passing yards, 499 pass attempts and 21 passing TDs are all the second most in a single season in franchise history... Also tallied three 300-yard passing games (second most in Ravens single-season history) and rushed 35 times for 56 yards... Posted career highs in TDs (4) and QB rating (135.6), completing 72.4% of his passes

TOP DT TACKLERS

Since 2002, only one interior lineman has registered more tackles than Kelly Gregg's 661 (Ryan Pickett, 665). What makes this feat even more impressive is that Gregg missed the entire '08 campaign. Here is a look at the top NFL DT tacklers from 2002-09:

Most Tackles by Interior Linemen (Since 2002)

Rk.	Player	Tackles
1.	Ryan Pickett	665
2.	Kelly Gregg	661
3.	Pat Williams	596
4.	John Henderson	565
5.	Marcus Stroud	541

reception (becoming the sixth-fastest TE to the mark) with his 4 receptions for 33 yards in the 20-10 victory in game 13 at KC (12/10)...Started and tied for the team lead with 4 receptions for a team-high 60 yards and the game-winning TD in the 16-13 win in game 4 vs. SD (10/1)...Heap pulled in a 10-yard strike from QB Steve McNair with 34 seconds remaining in the game for the Ravens' second come-from-behind win in as many weeks against the Chargers.

2005: (16/16) Finished second on the team with 75 receptions for 855 yards and 7 TDs, all career highs, and was responsible for 43 first downs in 2005...Also finished second in the AFC (behind Derrick Mason with 30) and tied for sixth in the NFL with 26 receptions for 261 yards and 3 TDs on third down...Hauled in 4 receptions for 30 yards and set a new career high with his 7th TD reception in game 15 vs. Min. (12/25)...Became the Ravens' all-time receiving yards leader with 9 receptions (tied a career high) for 110 yards (third-career 100-yard game) and a career-high tying 2 TDs in the 48-3 victory in game 14 vs. GB (12/19)...Also established a new single-season career high with his 69th reception of the season against the Packers...Pulled in the 205th catch of his career, becoming the franchise's all-time receptions leader, while grabbing 4 receptions for 28 yards in game 8 vs. Cin. (11/6)...Pulled in 2 receptions for 54 yards, with a career-long 48-yarder and his first TD of the season in game 4 at Det. (10/9).

2004: (6/6) Managed to finish fourth on the team with 27 receptions and 303 receiving yards in only 6 games played...Missed a total of 10 games (and most of two others) after suffering an ankle injury in the Week 2 victory vs. Pit. (9/19)... Was second on the team with 3 TD receptions... Pulled in a career-high-tying 2 TD receptions vs. NYG (12/12)...Had a career-high 9 receptions for 86 yards in the season opener at Cle. (9/12).

2003: (16/16, 1/1) Earned his second-consecutive Pro Bowl and second-team All-Pro honors in 2003...Led the Ravens in receptions for the second-consecutive year (57 for 693 yards and 3 TDs), and his blocking was instrumental in helping Jamal Lewis rush for 2,066 yards...Started and posted his second-career 100-yard receiving game, as he hauled in 7 receptions for 129 yards in game 6 at Cin. (10/19)...Heap also caught a pair of two-point conversions, and 4 of his 7 receptions accounted for first downs against the Bengals...Along with Travis Taylor (138), he became half of the first pair of Ravens to record 100 yards receiving in the same game since Michael Jackson (128) and Derrick Alexander (123) did it vs. NE on 10/6/96... Started and pulled in a postseason-career-high 6 receptions for 80 yards and 1 TD in the Wild Card Game vs. Ten. (1/3/04).

2002: (16/16) Earned his first-career Pro Bowl berth...One of only three offensive players (T Jonathan Ogden and G Bennie Anderson) to start all 16 games in 2002...Led the team with a then-career-high 68 receptions for 836 yards and 6 TDs...Started and led the team with a then-career-high 7 receptions for a career-high 146 yards (20.9 avg.) and 1 TD in game 16 at Pit. (12/29)...Started and posted 5 receptions for a then-career-high 84 yards and established a career high with 2 TD receptions in game 3 vs. Den. (9/30).

2001: (12/6, 2/1) Slowed for the majority of the season after suffering a high-ankle sprain in game 3 at Cin. (9/23)...Posted 16 receptions for 206 yards and 1 TD during the regular season and had 1 reception for 11 yards in the playoffs... Made 5 catches for 57 yards in his NFL debut in game 1 vs. Chi. (9/9)...First-career catch was a 3-yard reception in the first quarter.

COLLEGE: Ended his Sun Devils career with the record for TEs with 115 receptions, topping the previous mark of 88 catches by Ken Dyer (1965-67)...His 1,685 yards broke Dyer's all-time record

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARDS

The Ed Block Courage Award annually honors a player from each of the 32 NFL teams who exemplifies a commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The winners are selected for courageous effort, as well as individual performance. Voting is conducted by each team's players. The Ed Block Courage Award recipient also symbolizes professionalism, great strength and dedication. The award is named after the late Baltimore Colts' trainer Ed Block.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2009, for the 14th consecutive season, five or more teams qualified for the playoffs that were not in the postseason the year before. Cincinnati, Dallas, Green Bay, New England, New Orleans (Super Bowl winner) and the NY Jets did not make the playoffs in 2008, but did so during the 2009 campaign.

The Ravens produced their second-straight playoff appearance in 2009, and in 2010 will look to earn three-consecutive postseason appearances for the first time in franchise history.

In May 2010, Ray Lewis was given the distinct honor of having a section of North Avenue in Baltimore City re-named after him. Joined by his mother, Sunseria Smith, and his six children, Lewis said, "If Ray Lewis Way does nothing else, just look up, instead of looking down. Looking up in life, and say, 'He did it differently'... Let that be the goal." Also in May 2010, Lewis and his mom were honored by The Children's Guild, a nonprofit organization dedicated to serving children and adolescents who are traumatized, autistic and have multiple disabilities, at its annual Cabaret for Kids event. Ray and Sunseria received the 2010 Sadie Award at the organization's black-tie gala.

2006: (with Buffalo - 14/14) Finished the season with 259 carries for 990 yards (3.8 avg.) and 6 TDs despite missing two games with a rib injury... Also pulled in 18 receptions for 156 yards... Rumbled for a game-high 125 yards on 16 carries and a then-career-long 57-yard TD in game 13 at NYJ (12/10)...That performance marked the fifth-consecutive 100-yard rushing game against Jets, the first time in Bills history a rusher posted 100-yard games in back-to-back season series against one opponent...Carried the ball 26 times and averaged 5.7 yards per attempt while establishing a then-career high with 150 yards on the ground in game 3 vs. NYJ (9/24).

2005: (with Buffalo - 16/15) Posted a career-high 1,247 rushing yards on 325 carries (fifth highest in Buffalo history)...McGahee also became the fifth player in club history to post consecutive 1,000-yard seasons and was the quickest player in team history to reach the 2,000-yard rushing mark, accomplishing the feat in 26 games.

2004: (with Buffalo - 16/11) Led the team with 1,128 rushing yards (second most in Bills history for a first-year RB)...Posted seven 100-yard games in 11 starts, setting a new record for first-year Bills RBs (old record: three by Joe Cribbs and Greg Bell)...In addition, his 13 rushing TDs tied him for second in team history behind O.J. Simpson's 16 in 1975...His five multi-TD games ranked as the second most by a Bill in a single season (Simpson, 6 in 1975)...Eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the first time in his career in game 15 at SF (12/26) on a 20-yard run in the third quarter to finish with 102 yards and 2 TDs on 15 carries, averaging a then-career-high 6.8 yards per carry...Registered his second-career start in game 7 vs. Ari. (10/31) and carried the ball 30 times for 102 yards and 2 TDs...His 2 rushing TDs were the first scores of his career...He also had 2 rushes of over 20 yards (23 & 24) on the team's first drive, marking the fourth-straight game McGahee registered runs of 15-plus yards... Started his first-career NFL game and averaged 4.3 yards per carry as he rushed for 111 yards on 26 carries in game 5 vs. Mia. (10/17).

2003: (with Buffalo - 0/0) Spent the first eight games of the season on the NFL (Non-Football Injury) list while recovering from a serious knee injury suffered in the final game of his college career and was elevated to the 53-man roster prior to game 9 at Dal. (11/9)...Was inactive for the rest of the season.

COLLEGE: Played just 21 games at Miami but established himself as one of the top scoring backs in the history of college football...Gained 2,067 career yards on 349 carries (5.9 avg.) with 31 TDs...Also caught 25 passes for 355 yards (13.1 avg.)...His 2,067 career rushing yards and 31 scores ranked fifth on the school's all-time record lists...His 186 career points scored ranked sixth in Hurricane annals when he left Miami... Was a consensus first-team All-America and All-Big East Conference selection as a sophomore in 2002...Was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and finished fourth in the voting (660 points)... Shattered school season records, rushing 282 times for 1,753 yards (6.2 avg.) and 28 TDs, breaking the previous marks of 1,416 yards and 17 scores by Edgerrin James in 1998...In Division I-A history, only Nebraska's Mike Rozier (29 in 1983) and Oklahoma State's Barry Sanders (37 in 1988) ran for more TDs in a season...His 10 100-yard performances broke the old Hurricane season record of eight (Ottis Anderson, 1978)...Added 350 yards on 24 receptions (14.6 avg.)...Gained 2,108 all-purpose yards, breaking the old Miami season record of 1,708 by Anderson in 1978...With his 204 yards on 24 attempts against Florida (joined Lorenzo Roan - 249 vs. East Carolina in 1980; and Edgerrin James - 271 vs. Boston College in 1977 and 299 vs. UCLA in 1998), making him only the third player in school history to rush for over 200 yards in a game...With his 205-yard effort and 6 TDs vs. Virginia Tech, he became the first player in school history to rush for over 200 yards twice in the same season...Those 6 TDs broke the old school game record of 5, set by Bill L'Italien vs. Piedmont in 1933...Redshirted in 2000...Majored in criminology.

HIGH SCHOOL, PERSONAL: Regarded as one of the top RBs in the nation and the best in Florida at Central (Miami, FL) HS...Rushed for 771 yards and scored 14 TDs on 77 carries in just eight games his senior year...Was listed as the sixth-best RB on PrepStar's 1999 Top 100 Dream Team and the 10th-best overall prospect in the Southeast Region...Named the best RB in Florida on the Florida Times-Union Super 75 list...Full name: Willis Andrew McGahee III.

COMMUNITY: The Willis McGahee Foundation was established in 2009 to help underprivileged children in Howard County, MD, by providing them with the tools, resources and encouragement

HISTORY

GAME DAY

DOMINANT FORCE

One of the NFL's most disruptive forces, DT Haloti Ngata was named to his first Pro Bowl as a starter in 2009. Though he missed Weeks 9 and 10 with an ankle injury – snapping his streak of consecutive games played/started at 55 – Ngata posted 41 tackles (23 solo), 1.5 sacks, 1 FF and 1 FR in 2009. A key cog in Baltimore's rush defense, from 12/17/06 to 10/4/09, he helped the Ravens produce a 39-game streak without allowing a 100-yard rusher.

CAREER

- Posted an NFL-record 107-yard return TD (vs. Phi. 11/23/08), breaking the previous long of 106, which he set vs. Cle. (11/7/04)
- Reed's career INT return yard average of 27.3 yards ranks first in NFL history (among players with at least 30 INTs)
- Has scored 13 TDs in his career (including playoffs) and is the only player in NFL history to score return TDs off a punt return, blocked punt, INT and fumble recovery
- Ravens franchise leader with 46 career INTs - the most in the NFL since he entered the league in 2002... His 1,255 INT return yards are also tops during that span
- Has 512 tackles (441 solo), 5 sacks, 46 INTs (returned for 1,255 yards and 6 TDs), 111 PD, 10 FFs and 7 FRs
- Recorded a career-high 92 tackles (77 solo), 1 sack, 7 INTs (one of which he returned for a TD), a career-high 19 PD and 1 FF in 2003
- Has blocked four punts in his career, returning three for TDs (tied for an NFL record)

GAME DAY

2009: (12/12, 2/2) Despite missing four games with injuries, Reed earned his sixth-career Pro Bowl nod (fourth in a row) and Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors... Totaled 54 tackles (50 solo), 6 PD, 3 INTs (returned for 111 yards), 3 FFs and 1 FR for a squad that finished second in the AFC and third in the NFL in overall defense... It marked the seventh straight year the Ravens' defense has earned a top six ranking... Netted 5 solo tackles, 1 PD and an INT (which led to a Ravens' FG) for a defense that forced 3 turnovers in game 10 vs. Ind. (11/22)... Started and recorded 5 solo tackles in game 8 at Cin. (11/8)... Reed also had a FF and FR, stripping WR Chad Ochocinco, then picking up the ball and returning it 13 yards to the Bengals' 47-yard line... Started and posted 4 solo tackles, 1 PD and a FF, which the Ravens recovered, for a defense that held the Broncos to 200 total yards and 3 of 13 on third down in game 7 vs. Den. (11/1)... Netted 6 tackles, 3 PD and a team-leading 2 INTs for a defense that allowed just 106 rushing yards and 2.5 yards per rush in the postseason... Netted 4 tackles, 2 PD and an INT for a defense that held QB Tom Brady to a 49.1 QB rating, while forcing 4 turnovers, including 3 INTs, in the Wild Card Game at NE (1/10/10)... Defense allowed only 64 rushing yards against the Patriots... Also intercepted Peyton Manning in the Divisional Playoff at Ind. (1/16/10).

2008: (16/16, 3/3) Named to his fifth Pro Bowl and was the NFL's only unanimous All-Pro (Associated Press) selection... He was also named All-AFC and All-NFL (PFW/PFWA) after posting an NFL-high, career-high-tying and franchise-record-tying 9 INTs, which he returned for 264 yards and 2 TDs, including an NFL-record 107-yard return for a TD... Also finished the year with 40 tackles, 1 sack, 15 PD, 1 FF and 2 FRs (one of which he returned for a TD) as part of the NFL's second-ranked defense... Earned NFL Defensive Player of the Month for December after recording 16 tackles (11 solo), 1 sack (-9 yards), 1 FF, 1 FR (returned for a TD) and 6 INTs in four December games... Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after a dominant performance, netting 2 tackles, 2 INTs (first of which led to a Ravens' TD 5 plays later) in game 13 vs. Was. (12/7)... Also had a FF and FR, which he returned 22 yards for his 11th-career TD in the 24-10 win over the Redskins... Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after starting his 100th-career game and posting 2 solo tackles, 2 PD and tied a career high with 2 INTs in game 11 vs. Phi. (11/23)... Also set a single-game franchise record with 151 INT return yards, including an NFL record 107-yard INT return for a TD, which was part of 5 turnovers forced by the Ravens' defense in the 36-7 win... Posted 7 tackles (6 solo), 2 INTs (1 of which he returned for a TD) and 3 PD in three postseason games... Started and posted 2 tackles, 2 PD and tied a postseason career high with 2 INTs, 1 of which he returned 64 yards for a TD in the Wild Card victory at Mia. (1/4/09)... Was part of a defense that held the Dolphins to 52 rushing yards (2.5 avg.) and tied a postseason franchise record by forcing 5 turnovers (4 INTs) in the 27-9 win.

2007: (16/16) Named to his fourth Pro Bowl and third All-Pro team after finishing the season with 45 tackles (36 solo), 13 PD and a team-leading 7 INTs (T-third in the NFL)... Also recorded a career-long 63-yard PR for a TD (first-career PR for a TD)... Had 4 solo tackles, 1 PD and an INT (part of a then-franchise-single-game record 5 INTs) in the 22-3 win in game 6 vs. STL (10/14)... Had 2 solo tackles, 1 PD, 1 FR and returned a game-changing fourth-quarter punt a career-long 63 yards for his first-career punt return TD in game 1 at Cin. (9/10).

2006: (16/16, 1/1) Named to his third Pro Bowl as a starter, along with earning Associated Press first-team All-Pro and PFW/PFWA All-NFL honors... Finished the season with 66 tackles, 16 PD, 1 FF, 1 FR and 5 INTs, which he returned for 70 yards... Also scored a TD after Samari Rolle handed off an INT and raced 25 yards to the end zone... Posted 2 tackles, tied for the team lead with 3 PD and tied a franchise record with a postseason career-high 2 INTs, helping hold Peyton Manning to a 39.6 QB rating in the Divisional Playoff vs. Ind. (1/13/07).

2005: (10/10) Recorded 40 tackles (36 solo), 12 PD and 1 INT despite missing six games with a severe ankle injury.

2004: (16/16) A record-breaking season led to winning Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year, the second-consecutive year a Raven won the award (Ray Lewis in 2003)... Also earned his second-consecutive Pro Bowl nod and was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, C&PFW, Football Digest and All-Conference and All-NFL by PFW... Led the NFL with a franchise-record 9 INTs (former record of 7 set by Rod Woodson in 1999 and Reed in 2003)... Reed also took over sole possession of Baltimore's all-time INT record... Broke the NFL single-season record with 358 INT return yards (which was broken by Darren Sharper in 2009), surpassing San Diego's Charlie McNeil (349) in 1961... Broke another NFL record with his 106-yard INT return, the then-longest INT return in NFL history, to seal the victory vs. Cle. (11/7), earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors (Week 9) for his efforts... Led secondary and tied for fourth on the team (Kelly Gregg) with 89 tackles (80 solo) and led the team with 17 PD... On the season, Reed had 2 TDs, including 1 FR for a TD (against Was. - 10/10), 3 FFs, 2 FRs and 2 sacks (-28 yards)... Recorded 2 solo tackles, including 1 TFL, 3 PD and his league-leading 9th INT, which he returned 41 yards in 30-23 victory in the season finale vs. Mia. (1/2/05)... Gave him a then-NFL record 358

INT return yards, breaking a 43-year-old record (349 by Charlie McNeil, SD in 1961) against the Dolphins...Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month award for November...Recorded 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 PD and posted his 4th INT of the season with 45 seconds remaining in the game, which he returned a then-NFL-record 106 yards for a TD to seal the 27-13 victory in game 8 vs. Cle. (11/7).

2003: (16/15, 1/1) Earned his first-career Pro Bowl, Associated Press second-team All-Pro, Sports Illustrated All-Pro, Pro Football Weekly All-AFC team, Football Digest second-team All-Pro and The Sporting News All-Pro honors...Led the team with 19 PD and tied a then-franchise record with 7 INTs, 1 of which he returned for a TD...Also blocked 2 punts, both of which he returned for TDs, the second and third of his career...Finished fifth on the team with a career-high 92 tackles (77 solo), 1 sack and 1 FF...Had 10 tackles (7 solo) and produced the biggest play of the game when he blocked a Tom Rouen punt, recovered the ball and returned it 16 yards for a TD, to cut the deficit to 10 with just 6:41 remaining in game 11 vs. Sea. (11/23)...Ravens went on to tie the game and eventually win in OT...With that blocked punt return for a TD, Reed tied DB Tom Flynn for the most blocked PRs for TDs in a career in NFL history (since the merger in 1970)...Started at SS and had 6 solo tackles and his 4th INT of the season in game 5 at Ari. (10/12)...Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after he blocked a punt (third of his career) and returned it 22 yards for a TD (second time in his career) against the Cardinals...His only missed start (at Oak., 12/14) was because the defense's first play was on the goal line.

2002: (16/16) Started all 16 games as a rookie and finished fourth on the team with 86 tackles (69 solo)...Also posted 1 sack (3 yards), 13 PD and a Ravens' rookie record-tying 5 INTs (Ravens best in 2002)...Also blocked the first 2 punts in franchise history, one of which he returned for a TD, and had 8 special teams tackles...Started at SS and amassed 4 solo tackles in game 3 vs. Den. (9/30)...Intercepted Brian Griese for his first-career INT and blocked the first punt in Ravens history against the Broncos.

COLLEGE: A consensus first-team All-America selection as a senior at Miami...Football News National Player of the Year...Unanimous All-Big East Conference first-team selection and Co-defensive Player of the Year...Was the team leader on the Hurricanes' National Championship team at safety as a senior, when he was co-captain...Led team and was second in school history with 9 INTs (Bennie Blades, 10 in 1986) for a school-record 209 yards and 3 TDs...Consensus first-team All-America and consensus first-team All-Big East selection as a junior...Led Big East with school-record 23 PD...Was third in the nation with 8 INTs for 92 yards, including 2 TDs...Earned All-Big East second-team honors as a sophomore...Was fifth on team with 74 tackles (48 solo) and was fourth on team with 4 sacks...Named Freshman All-America by both Football

REED'S 13 TDs

(Regular Season and Postseason)

Including postseason, Ed Reed has scored 13 TDs in his career. Amazingly, Reed is the only player in NFL history to score return TDs off a punt return, blocked punt, INT and fumble recovery. Reed's 9 defensive TDs (7 INTs and 2 FRs) are the most in Ravens franchise history:

SCORING THREAT

In 2009, six-time Pro Bowler Ed Reed returned one of his 46-career INTs for a TD in Week 6's game against Cincinnati. The performance marked his sixth-career (regular season) INT-TD and the 13th TD of his career. Since entering the league in 2002, Reed has the third-most INTs returned for TDs in the NFL, including an NFL-record 107-yard return TD vs. the Eagles (11/23/08). The 107-yarder broke the previous long of 106, which Reed set on 11/7/04 vs. Cleveland.

Sergio Kindle was selected in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft. ...Was the Ravens' first-overall pick and the first of two second-round selections (DT Terrence Cody - 57th overall).

"Sergio is a hungry guy," said Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta. "He comes from a very successful football program. They've been in a lot of big games, and I think he's confident in his ability. And he's a competitor, and those are the kind of guys that we want. He's not a wallflower. He's got some personality. He's as tough as they come, and he's a Ravens' type of guy."

COLLEGE: OREGON

HS: BELLFLOWER (CA)

BORN: 7/25/87, INGLEWOOD, CA

EXP: ROOKIE

TRANSACTIONS

Ed Dickson was selected in the third round (70th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

"He's very athletic," Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta said. "He ran a sub-4.6 [40-yard dash] at the Combine, which is very good for a tight end. He can stretch the field. He's got very good hands and catching range. He's a big target. We think he's got loads of promise as a receiving tight end, and we think he's a pretty good blocker, too. He's going to develop in that regard. He's often detached from the line of scrimmage, but we think this is a guy who's going to be a three-down tight end for us."

COLLEGE HONORS

- Consensus first-team All-Pac-10 (2009)
- Second-team All-Pac-10 (2008)
- John Mackey Award semifinalist (2009)

TRANSACTIONS

Dennis Pitta was selected in the fourth round (114th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

"Dennis is a real instinctive player," described Ravens director of college scouting Joe Hortiz. "He lines up in the slot and at traditional tight end. He's got outstanding hands. In the five or six games I've watched him, he dropped one ball. He's a real savvy route runner and just knows how to get open versus a zone. He's quick and sudden enough to be a mismatch versus linebackers, and he just brings that flexibility to an offense where you can line him up on the line or put him in the slot."

COLLEGE HONORS

- First-team All-America by the American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Foundation and Pro Football Weekly (2009)
- Second-team All-America by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CBSSports.com (2009)

DAVID REED

WIDE RECEIVER | 6-0 | 190

COLLEGE: UTAH

HS: NEW LONDON (CT)

BORN: 3/22/87, DUBUQUE, IA

EXP: ROOKIE

TRANSACTIONS

David Reed was selected in the fifth round (156th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft...Was the first of two Ravens fifth-round selections (DT Arthur Jones - 157th overall).

"He's a crafty route runner," said Ravens director of college scouting Joe Hortiz. "I'm being honest - he was one of my favorite guys in the Draft. He's got really good hands, really good body control and excellent toughness. He's 6-foot, 190 pounds, and you'll see him go over the middle of the field like he's 6-2, 220 [pounds], and he gets hit like he's 6-foot, 190. He'll get knocked back and snapped, but he jumps right back up, and the next play he's catching the ball over the middle of the field. So, he's just a really tough, aggressive wide receiver with some playmaking ability."

COLLEGE: MOREHOUSE

HS: QUEEN'S COLLEGE (BARBADOS)

BORN: 2/3/87, ST. MICHAEL, BARBADOS

EXP: ROOKIE

TRANSACTIONS

Ramon Harewood was selected in the sixth round (194th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

"Ramon Harewood is a huge man," said Ravens director of college scouting Joe Hortiz. "He's a giant. He can knock down his side of the line of scrimmage. He's raw, and he needs a lot of developmental work with technique, but he's got foot speed — he ran a 5.08 [40-yard dash] at his pro day. He's got a lot

2009 PLAYER HONORS/MILESTONES

LB BRENDON AYANBADEJO

AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 3)

Ayanbadejo had a career day in the 34-3 victory over Cleveland, tallying 6 tackles (3 solo), an INT, a sack and a PD en route to his first-ever Defensive Player of the Week award.

QB JOE FLACCO

USA Today's All-Joe Team

Flacco completed a franchise-record 63.1% of his passes for a career-high 3,613 yards, 21 TDs and 12 INTs. He produced the second-most yards and TDs in Ravens single-season history, also setting the team record for passer rating (88.9). The Ravens were the NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4 ppg), tallying a franchise-record 47 TDs.

In 2009, Flacco became just the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons. Flacco joined Pittsburgh's Ben Roethlisberger, Cleveland's Bernie Kosar and Miami's Dan Marino in the elite postseason group.

CB DOMONIQUE FOXWORTH

AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 15)

In the win against Chicago, Foxworth snagged a career-high 2 INTs and added 3 tackles and 5 PD, helping the Ravens to a 31-7 victory. Chicago's QB Jay Cutler was held to a Ravens' team-record-low 7.9 QB rating.

G BEN GRUBBS

Pro Bowl (1st Alternate)

Pro Football Weekly Mid-Season All-Pro Team

Grubbs helped solidify a young offensive line, starting all 16 games at LG. The Ravens set a new franchise record with 22 rushing TDs and tied (1996) a single-season record with 391 points.

LB RAY LEWIS

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 11th Appearance / 1st-Team All-Pro (AP) Peter King's Sports Illustrated All-Pro

For the 12th time in his career, Lewis led the third-ranked Ravens' defense with 164 tackles (100 solo). He also had 3 sacks and 3 FFs in 2009. Baltimore's defense finished in the top six in the NFL for the seventh-consecutive season.

WR DERRICK MASON

In 2009, Mason became the 16th player in NFL history to post 850 receptions. Since earning his first Pro Bowl in 2000, Mason has the fourth-most catches (816) and the fourth-most receiving yards (10,481) of all active players. Mason, who has produced at least 60 catches in 10 straight seasons, is the Ravens' all-time leader in receiving yards (4,975).

FB Le'RON McCLAIN

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 2nd Appearance

2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

Baltimore's lead blocker earned a trip to the Pro Bowl for a second-straight season. The Ravens finished fifth in the NFL in rushing yards (2,200 for 137.5 ypg).

RB WILLIS MCGAHEE

AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 17)

McGhee exploded for a career-high 167 rushing yards and 3 TDs on 16 carries in the season finale at Oakland (1/3/10). His 77-yard TD run in that contest tied himself (12/20/08 at Dal.) for the second-longest run in Ravens history. He has 2,422 rushing yards in his Ravens career, good for second on Baltimore's all-time rushing chart.

DT HALOTI NGATA

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 1st Appearance

2nd-Team All-Pro (AP) / PF/W/PFWA All-NFL Team

Pro Football Weekly Mid-Season All-Pro

Ngata, the anchor of the Ravens' defensive line, earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2009. He posted 41 tackles (23 solo), 1.5 sacks, 1 FF and 1 FR. Since Ngata entered the league in 2006, the Ravens have allowed a league-low 26 rushing TDs and the NFL's second-fewest rushing first downs (268).

PF/W/PFWA All-Rookie Team / SI Mid-Season All-Pro

NFL Rookie of the Month (December)

USA Today's All-Joe Team

Oher, the Ravens' first-round pick (23rd overall) in 2009, started all 16 games (11 at RT and 5 at LT) in his powerful rookie season. Baltimore's offense posted 5,619 total yards (second-most in team history), finishing as the NFL's 13th-ranked offense (best ranking since 1997 - 9th).

S ED REED

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 6th Appearance

2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

Despite missing four games, Reed earned his sixth Pro Bowl appearance in 2009. He is the Ravens' all-time leader in INTs (46) and holds the two longest INT returns in NFL history (107 - vs. Phi. 11/23/08 and 106 - vs. Cle. 11/7/04).

RB RAY RICE (below)

Pro Bowl - 1st Appearance / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 15)

In his second NFL season, Rice led the team with 1,339 rushing yards and 78 receptions. He was one of two NFL players (Tennessee's Chris Johnson) to tally 2,000 yards from scrimmage (2,041), ranking second in the NFL with an average of 127.6 net yards per game. His scrimmage yards also ranked second in Ravens history (Jamal Lewis had 2,271 in 2003).

Rice also became one of only eight players in NFL history to produce 1,000 rushing yards and 700 receiving yards in a season. The rare feat has been done 11 different times, four by Marshall Faulk alone.

2009 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 • RAVENS 38, CHIEFS 24

Kansas City (0-1) Baltimore (1-0)

Sunday, September 13, 2009 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 76°, Sunny, Wind N 5 mph • Attendance 71,099 • Time 3:18

The Ravens' offense set a team record (which was later broken against Detroit on 12/13/09) with 501 yards of offense – while Baltimore's defense allowed just 188 – in the season-opening 38-24 victory over the visiting Chiefs. The Ravens took a 10-0 first-quarter lead after a K Steve Hauschka 44-yard FG and a QB Joe Flacco-to-RB Willis McGahee 3-yard TD toss. But, Kansas City blocked a P Sam Koch punt and recovered it in the end zone to cut the Ravens' lead to 10-7 in the second. Baltimore was driving in the third as Flacco went no-huddle, but was then thwarted by LB Derrick Johnson's 70-yard INT. KC then scored on a 2-yard TD pass to WR Dwayne Bowe giving the Chiefs a 14-10, third-quarter advantage. After falling behind again, KC came back to tie the game at 24 with 5:21 left in the contest. Flacco threw for a career-best 307 yards (current career high is 385 at Min. on 10/18/09) on 26 of 43 attempts and 3 TDs, which was another high mark before throwing for 4 TDs vs. Chi. on 12/20/09. RB Ray Rice added 108 rushing yards (19 carries), while TE Todd Heap and WR Mark Clayton each caught 5 passes, including a TD apiece. Clayton's 31-yard TD reception from Flacco at 2:06 in the fourth quarter was the game-winner. The Ravens added another TD (McGahee's second on the day) with :31 remaining to seal the victory. WR Derrick Mason and McGahee each grabbed 4 receptions in the win.

2009 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 2 • RAVENS 31, CHARGERS 26

Baltimore (2-0) San Diego (1-1)

Sunday, September 20, 2009 • 1:15 PM PT • Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego

Weather: 83°, Sunny, Wind W 8 mph • Attendance 66,882 • Time 3:14

The Ravens' first road trip of the season proved to be successful as they won, 31-26, at San Diego. RB Willis McGahee, who rushed for 79 yards, totaled 2 TDs, while QB Joe Flacco threw a pair of TD passes, one to WR Kelley Washington (27 yards) and the other to TE Todd Heap (9 yards). Baltimore was 3-of-4 for TDs in the red zone (also earning 1 FG), while the Chargers were 0-for-5, including Nate Kaeding field goals of 29, 22, 23 and 25 yards. After Steve Hauschka's clutch 33-yard FG gave the Ravens a 31-26 lead with 2:54 left in the game, the Chargers drove to Baltimore's 15-yard line. There, with 37 seconds remaining and facing a fourth-and-two situation, San Diego gave the ball to RB Darren Sproles, who was tackled for a 5-yard loss by ILB Ray Lewis. Lewis called the tackle "one of the greatest plays of my career." Helping the Ravens' defense were interceptions by S Dawan Landry and OLB Antwan Barnes. Flacco completed 17 of 26 passes for 190 yards, while San Diego QB Philip Rivers was spectacular at times, hitting 25 of 45 passes for 436 yards, including 7 to Sproles for 124 yards. Sproles also added 128 yards on 4 kickoff returns. The Ravens produced 130 yards rushing on 32 attempts and P Sam Koch placed 3 punts inside the 10-yard line.

GAME 3 • RAVENS 34, BROWNS 3

Baltimore (3-0) Cleveland (0-3)

Sunday, September 27, 2009 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 72°, Partly Sunny, Wind WSW 6 mph • Attendance 70,950 • Time 2:46

The Ravens followed 3 INTs with TD drives in a 34-3 stomping of the Browns at M&T Bank Stadium. Baltimore CB Dominique Foxworth ended Cleveland's first series with an INT return to the Browns' 31. The Ravens quickly took advantage, taking a 7-0 lead on a 7-yard RB Willis McGahee TD run. McGahee came back with a 15-yard second-quarter TD. Those scores, plus 2 K Steve Hauschka FGs, gave the Ravens a 20-0 halftime lead. Browns head coach Eric Mangini replaced QB Brady Quinn with Derek Anderson for the start of the second half. Baltimore's defense then stole 3 Anderson passes in the final two quarters, two of which led to Ravens TDs. The initial score came on RB Ray Rice's first NFL TD (9-yard run), and the second saw WR Derrick Mason catch a 72-yard Joe Flacco TD pass. Mason earlier caught the 800th pass of his 15-year NFL career, and Flacco's 342 passing yards were a career high until he broke it a few weeks later with 385 at Min. on 10/18/09. Baltimore produced 479 yards (tied for third most in team history), while the defense held the Browns to 186 net yards and pitched a shutout into the fourth quarter. Baltimore extended its streak of not allowing a 100-yard rusher to an NFL-high 38 games, and the Ravens improved to 47-0 (since 2000) when producing a turnover margin of +2 or above.

GAME 4 • PATRIOTS 27, RAVENS 21

Baltimore (3-1) New England (3-1)

Sunday, October 4, 2009 • 1:02 PM ET • Gillette Stadium • Foxborough

Weather: 64°, Cloudy, Wind NW 2 mph • Attendance 68,756 • Time 3:26

An impressive final drive in the fourth quarter fell short when the Ravens dropped a 27-21 decision at the Patriots. Baltimore drove to New England's 14 and faced a fourth-and-four before QB Joe Flacco's pass to WR Mark Clayton fell incomplete. The Ravens took a 7-3, first-quarter lead on a Flacco-to-WR Derrick Mason 20-yard TD pass. After the Patriots took a 17-7 halftime lead, OLB Terrell Suggs sacked QB Tom Brady, causing a fumble that DE Dwan Edwards recovered in the end zone to bring the Ravens within three points (17-14). The 14-yard sack for Suggs made him the franchise's all-time leader in sack yardage (437), passing Peter Boulware (428). A Brady-to-WR Randy Moss 14-yard TD gave NE a 2-17 advantage. Flacco then found RB Willis McGahee on a 13-yard TD to make it 24-21 in the fourth quarter. The TD was McGahee's 7th on the season, which gave him a league-high 42 points. A Stephen Gostkowski 33-yard FG provided the final margin. In the loss, RB Ray Rice collected his third-career 100-yard game (103 yards), and the Ravens' defense extended its streak of not allowing a 100-yard rusher to an NFL-high 39 games.

GAME 5 • BENGALS 17, RAVENS 14

Baltimore (3-2) Cincinnati (4-1)

Sunday, October 11, 2009 • 1:02 PM EDT • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 64°, Clear, Sunny, Wind WNW 3 mph • Attendance 71,161 • Time 2:58

A 20-yard QB Carson Palmer-to-WR Andre Caldwell TD pass with 22 seconds left in the game gave the visiting Bengals a 17-14 victory over the Ravens. That score trumped Baltimore's go-ahead, fourth-quarter 48-yard TD pass from QB Joe Flacco to RB Ray Rice that gave the Ravens a 14-10 lead. The score was Rice's first-career receiving TD. NT Kelly Gregg blocked a Shayne Graham FGA to halt the Bengals' first drive. After a scoreless first quarter, S Ed Reed gave the Ravens a 7-0 lead when he intercepted Palmer and raced 52 yards for a TD. The INT-TD was Reed's 12th-career return TD (13th including postseason), and it was his 6th INT-TD (a franchise record) of his eight-year career (7th including postseason). A 32-yard Graham FG made the score 7-3 at the half. Cincy RB Cedric Benson's 28-yard TD sprint in the third quarter gave the Bengals a 10-7 advantage. Benson became the first back to rush for 100 yards (27 carries for 120 yards) against Baltimore in 40 games. Rice rushed for 69 yards and added 74 more on 7 catches, giving him 143 all-purpose yards. The Bengals outgained the Ravens 403 to 257 yards.

GAME 6 • VIKINGS 33, RAVENS 31

Baltimore (3-3) Minnesota (6-0)

Sun., Oct. 18, 2009 • 12:05 PM CDT • Mall of America Field at HHF Metrodome • Minneapolis

Weather: Indoors • Attendance 63,689 • Time 3:15

Despite a heroic fourth-quarter comeback that featured 21 points by Baltimore, the Ravens lost, 33-31, at undefeated Minnesota. K Steve Hauschka's 44-yard field goal attempt that ended the game sailed wide left, dashing the Ravens' opportunity for victory. The Vikings took a 14-0 lead in the game's first nine minutes on QB Brett Favre's 2 TD tosses. A 29-yard Hauschka FG made the margin 14-3 at the half. Two K Ryan Longwell FGs and a third Favre TD throw gave the Vikings a 27-10 margin with 10 minutes left in the contest. Then Ravens QB Joe Flacco threw TD passes to WRs Mark Clayton (32 yards) and Derrick Mason (12 yards) on back-to-back Baltimore possessions, bringing the Ravens within six at 30-24. After the Ravens' defense produced a three-and-out, Baltimore's offense came right back with a 33-yard RB Ray Rice TD run, giving the Ravens a 31-30 lead with 3:37 left in the game. Favre then directed a Vikings' drive that ended with a Longwell 31-yard FG at the 1:56 mark. Flacco drove Baltimore to the Vikings' 26, where Hauschka's miss came. Flacco finished the game with 28 completions on 43 attempts for a career-high 385 yards (second most in team history). Rice, who scored 2 TDs, caught 10 passes for 117 yards and added 77 yards on the ground.

2009 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 7 • RAVENS 30, BRONCOS 7

Denver (6-1) Baltimore (4-3)

Sunday, November 1, 2009 • 1:02 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 56°, Showers, Partly Cloudy, Wind ENE 8 mph • Attendance 71,132 • Time 2:59

Baltimore's defense held the previously undefeated Broncos to 200 yards and 1 TD, while QB Joe Flacco completed 80 percent of his passes, and the special teams scored a TD in the Ravens' 30-7 victory. Baltimore took a 6-0 halftime lead on 2 K Steve Hauschka FGs (43 and 35 yards). Rookie CB/RS Lardarius Webb opened the second half with a 95-yard KOR for a TD, giving the Ravens a 13-0 advantage. RB Knowshon Moreno's 1-yard TD brought the Broncos within six at 13-7 in the third quarter, but the Ravens scored the game's remaining points on another Hauschka FG (31 yards) and 2 fourth-quarter TDs (WR Derrick Mason on a 20-yard pass from Flacco and RB Ray Rice's 7-yard run). Flacco, who ended the game with a franchise-best 14 straight completions, was 20-of-25 for 175 yards. Flacco's 80 percent completion percentage, which tied a franchise record, was the first since Elvis Grbac completed 80 percent at Cleveland on 10/21/01. Rice caught 5 passes for 24 yards and rushed for 84 more. It was the fourth-consecutive game that Rice produced over 100 yards from scrimmage. TE Todd Heap also caught the 400th reception of his nine-year career in the first quarter.

GAME 8 • BENGALS 17, RAVENS 7

Baltimore (4-4) Cincinnati (6-2)

Sunday, November 8, 2009 • 1:02 PM EST • Paul Brown Stadium • Cincinnati

Weather: 67°, Sunny, Wind S 7 mph • Attendance 64,313 • Time 3:10

The Bengals scored on each of their opening three possessions to take a 17-0, second-quarter lead and held on for a 17-7 victory at Paul Brown Stadium. Cincinnati opened the game with 12- and 10-play TD drives, taking a 7-0 lead on a QB Carson Palmer-to-WR Andre Caldwell 6-yard TD pass and a 14-0 advantage on RB Cedric Benson's 1-yard plunge. K Shayne Graham's 23-yard, second-quarter FG gave the Bengals a 17-0 halftime lead. RB Ray Rice's 2-yard TD run brought the Ravens within 10 at 17-7 early in the fourth quarter. After S Ed Reed forced and recovered a WR Chad Ochocinco fumble, K Steve Hauschka missed a 38-yard FG attempt (wide left) with 6:17 left, which slowed a late Baltimore rally. The Ravens managed just 215 yards and converted just 1 of 10 third downs. Benson became the first back to run for over 100 yards twice (120 and 117 yards) in the same season against Baltimore since Pittsburgh's Jerome Bettis (116 and 105) did the same in 1996. Palmer improved to 8-3 against the Ravens in his career, while the Bengals swept the Ravens for the third time in five years (2005, 2007).

GAME 9 • RAVENS 16, BROWNS 0

Baltimore (5-4) Cleveland (1-8)

Monday, Nov. 16, 2009 • 8:40 PM EST • Cleveland Browns Stadium • Cleveland

Weather: 46°, Dry Cold, Wind NE 16 mph • Attendance 69,023 • Time 2:59

The Ravens recorded their first shutout in three seasons when they stopped the host Browns, 16-0, on Monday Night Football at Cleveland Browns Stadium. The AFC North rivals played to a 0-0 halftime deadlock before Baltimore exploded for 13 points in the opening three minutes of the third quarter. The Ravens' first score came on a 13-yard RB Ray Rice touchdown, which was set up by a 41-yard Joe Flacco-to-WR Derrick Mason completion. On the next play from scrimmage, SS Dawan Landry intercepted a QB Brady Quinn pass and raced 48 yards for a TD. It was Landry's team-leading 3rd INT of the season. K Steve Hauschka, who added a 44-yard field goal later in the quarter, had his extra point attempt blocked by DT Shaun Rogers. (Hauschka also missed a 36-yard FG attempt in the first quarter.) The Ravens limited Cleveland to just 160 yards, holding Quinn to 13 completions on 31 attempts for 99 yards, while sacking him 4 times. Rice rushed 20 times for 89 yards, while Flacco completed 13 of 18 for 155. Rice added 15 receiving yards giving him 104 yards from scrimmage, his sixth-straight game of 100-plus scrimmage yards. Baltimore's last shutout was a 27-0 victory vs. Pittsburgh on 11/26/06.

GAME 10 • COLTS 17, RAVENS 15

Indianapolis (10-0) Baltimore (5-5)

Sunday, November 22, 2009 • 1:02 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 56°, Sunny, Wind NE 7 mph • Attendance 71,320 • Time 3:04

Former Ravens kicker Matt Stover kicked the winning FG (25 yards) with 7:02 left in the game in the Colts' 17-15 victory over Baltimore. Ravens K Billy Cundiff scored all of Baltimore's points with 5 FGs, which tied Stover's single-game team record. (Cundiff did miss a 30-yard attempt in the third quarter.) The Colts took a 7-0 lead on the game's opening drive, which ended with a 3-yard QB Peyton Manning-to-TE Dallas Clark TD (Clark's only catch of the day). The Ravens grabbed a 9-7, second-quarter lead before RB Joseph Addai's 5-yard TD run put Indianapolis on top, 14-9. Cundiff connected from 36 yards to make it 14-12 at the half. Baltimore had a first down on the Colts' 1-yard line in the fourth quarter, but could not punch the ball into the end zone on three runs. Cundiff then kicked his fifth FG to give the Ravens a 15-14 lead. QB Joe Flacco's INT at the Colts' 13-yard line with 2:49 remaining in the contest stopped the Ravens' comeback. Flacco completed 23 of 35 for 256 yards, including 9 for 142 to WR Derrick Mason and 7 to RB Ray Rice for 64 more. The 142 receiving yards for Mason were the third most of his 13-year NFL career. Rice's 135 yards from scrimmage gave him eight games with 100 or more yards from scrimmage in 2009, tying him (Steven Jackson) for the league lead. Also, the Ravens' offensive line did not allow a sack for the first time in 2009.

GAME 11 • RAVENS 20, STEELERS 17 (OT)

Pittsburgh (6-5) Baltimore (6-5)

Sunday, November 29, 2009 • 8:30 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 58°, Partly Cloudy, Wind S 5 mph • Attendance 71,314 • Time 3:17

K Billy Cundiff booted the tying (17-17) field goal (24 yards) with 1:51 left in the game and then hit the game-winner (29 yards) with 6:42 remaining in overtime in the Ravens' 20-17 victory against the Steelers. (Cundiff joined the Ravens two weeks prior to the game.) The final FG was set up when rookie LB/DE Paul Kruger intercepted QB Dennis Dixon's pass at the Baltimore 46 and raced 26 yards to the Steelers' 28. Cundiff's game-tying FG came after a crucial fourth-and-five QB Joe Flacco-to-RB Ray Rice catch and run (44 yards). The Ravens scored on their first drive of the game, ending with RB Willis McGahee's 2-yard touchdown (eighth total TD of the season) for a 7-0 lead. Pittsburgh responded with a second-quarter Dixon-to-WR Santonio Holmes 33-yard TD. Flacco's 10-yard TD toss to WR Derrick Mason gave Baltimore a 14-7 halftime lead. A Jeff Reed FG (44 yards) and a 24-yard Dixon TD run gave the Steelers a 17-14, fourth-quarter lead. Flacco was 23-of-35 for 289 yards, including 7 each to WR Mark Clayton (129 yards) and Mason (62 yards). Rice ran for 88 yards and caught 5 passes for 67 more. His 155 yards from scrimmage gave him nine games with 100 or more yards from scrimmage in 2009, tying (Steven Jackson) for the league lead.

GAME 12 • PACKERS 27, RAVENS 14

Baltimore (6-6) Green Bay (8-4)

Monday, December 7, 2009 • 7:40 PM CST • Lambeau Field • Green Bay
Weather: 21°, Mostly Clear, Wind W 4 mph • Attendance 70,286 • Time 3:23

The Ravens turned the ball over four times, including 3 interceptions from QB Joe Flacco – one from the Packers' 3-yard line in the fourth quarter – in the Monday night 27-14 loss at Green Bay. The Packers took a 17-0 halftime lead on 2 QB Aaron Rodgers touchdown passes (TE Jermichael Finley and WR Donald Driver) and a Mason Crosby field goal. Baltimore came back with 2 third-quarter TDs (Flacco to WR Kelley Washington [12 yards] and a RB Willis McGahee 1-yard run) to make the score 17-14. Rodgers threw his third TD pass (a second to Finley), and Crosby added another FG in the fourth quarter. A total of 23 penalties, 12 on the Ravens and 11 on the Packers, for 310 yards (the second-most in NFL history) were called in the game. Green Bay's NFL-leading defense limited the Ravens to 185 yards, just 66 on the ground. Baltimore, which played without Pro Bowl defenders Ed Reed (hip) and Terrell Suggs (knee), did create 3 turnovers, including interceptions by S Tom Zbikowski and OLB Jarret Johnson. The game temperature was 21 degrees with a wind chill of 15. Rookie LB/DE Paul Kruger and second-year pro S Tom Zbikowski each made their first-career NFL starts. Zbikowski, who started in place of Reed, also recorded his first-career interception.

GAME 13 • RAVENS 48, LIONS 3

Detroit (2-11) Baltimore (7-6)

Sunday, December 13, 2009 • 1:02 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 36°, Rain, Wind NE 3 mph • Attendance 70,673 • Time 3:13

It was a record-setting day for the Ravens when they beat the Lions, 48-3, in a cold rain. Baltimore established a team record with 548 yards of total offense (308 rushing - second best in Ravens history - and 240 passing). QB Joe Flacco, who threw a 62-yard touchdown pass to WR Derrick Mason, produced a career-high QB rating (120.8). RB Ray Rice, who combined for 219 yards, rushed for a career-best 166 yards (13 carries for a team-record 12.8-yard average). And, the defense wasn't too shabby either, limiting Detroit to 229 yards and no TDs. The Ravens took a 20-3 halftime lead on Mason's TD, a Rice 59-yard TD run and 2 K Billy Cundiff FGs. (The Ravens tallied 315 total yards in the first half - a team record.) Baltimore then exploded for 21 unanswered points in the third quarter: a 3-yard FB LeRon McClain score and 2 RB Willis McGahee TD sprints (8 and 19 yards). Backup QB Troy Smith finished the scoring with a 15-yard TD run in the fourth quarter. Rice totaled 204 of his 219 scrimmage yards in the first half, but then left the game with a chest injury and did not return. The 48 points tied a team record (the Ravens defeated Green Bay in Baltimore by the same score, 48-3, on 12/19/05). The victory was the Ravens' 12th of 13 vs. the NFC at home.

Sunday, December 20, 2009 • 4:15 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 32°, Clear, Wind WNW 19 mph • Attendance 71,011 • Time 2:52

The Ravens took the ball away 6 times from the Bears (tying a team record) in the 31-7 victory at M&T Bank Stadium. Baltimore scored 24 points after the Chicago turnovers, which included a career-high 2 INTs by Ravens CB Dominique Foxworth. The Ravens took a 14-0 first-quarter lead on 2 QB Joe Flacco TD passes (14 and 7 yards) to TE Todd Heap. The Bears' lone score came on WR Earl Bennett's 49-yard punt return in the second quarter. Flacco threw 2 more TD passes in the third quarter, the first to WR Demetrius Williams for 32 yards and the second to WR Derrick Mason for 18 yards. (Flacco's 4 TD passes set a career high.) Mason recorded the 850th catch of his career on his first reception of the game, becoming the 16th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat. K Billy Cundiff's 40-yard FG finished the scoring. Flacco, who completed 21 of 29 for 234 yards, produced his best-ever QB rating (135.6). The 135.6 rating was the second-best mark in Ravens history (Kyle Boller's 136.8 vs. GB on 12/19/05 is No. 1). On the other side of the ball, Baltimore's defense held Chicago QB Jay Cutler to a Ravens' team-record-low 7.9 QB rating. The victory gave the Ravens a 13-1 record vs. the NFC at home since 2003.

GAME 15 • STEELERS 23, RAVENS 20

Baltimore (8-7) Pittsburgh (8-7)

Sunday, December 27, 2009 • 1:02 PM EST • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: Mostly Cloudy, 39°, Wind SW 9 mph • Attendance 64,068 • Time 3:07

With 2 Ravens touchdowns nullified because of penalties and a third potential TD dropped in the end zone, Baltimore lost a gut-wrenching 23-20 decision at Heinz Field in Pittsburgh. The Ravens rallied from a 20-10 halftime deficit to tie the game at 20 after three quarters. Steelers K Jeff Reed's 38-yard field goal with 5:25 left in the contest provided the winning margin. With Pittsburgh leading 20-17, CB Domonique Foxworth stole a QB Ben Roethlisberger pass and raced 46 yards for what would have been the go-ahead score. An illegal block penalty (LB Terrell Suggs) on the return put the ball at the Steelers' 37. Six plays later, K Billy Cundiff's 35-yard FG tied the game. On the Ravens' next possession, RB Willis McGahee ran for a 32-yard TD that was eliminated by a holding call (WR Kelley Washington). Two plays after that, WR Derrick Mason dropped a QB Joe Flacco pass in the end zone. TE Todd Heap scored both of the Ravens' TDs (30 and 7 yards) on throws from Flacco. RB Ray Rice rushed for 141 yards against the NFL's No. 1 rush defense, becoming the first back to gain over 100 yards on the Steelers' "D" in 33 games, which at the time was the longest current streak in the NFL. Mason also reached the 11,000-yard receiving mark for his career, pulling in 7 catches for 77 yards on the day.

GAME 16 • RAVENS 21, RAIDERS 13

Baltimore (9-7) Oakland (5-11)

Sunday, January 3, 2010 • 1:15 PM PST • Oakland Coliseum • Oakland

Weather: 54°, Sunny, Wind WNW 6 mph • Attendance 38,400 • Time 2:53

RB Willis McGahee scored all 3 of the Ravens' touchdowns in Baltimore's 21-13 playoff-clinching victory at Oakland in the regular season finale. McGahee, who shared time with RB Ray Rice (70 yards), ran 16 times for a career-high 167 yards (10.4 avg.). McGahee's first TD (2-yard rush) gave the Ravens a 7-0 lead. His second score, a spectacular 77-yard run that included a devastating downfield stiff arm, provided the Ravens a 14-3 lead. The 77-yard run tied his previous record for the second-longest TD run in Ravens history. The Raiders made the score 14-10 at the half after QB Charlie Frye hit TE Zach Miller with a 12-yard TD throw. K Sebastian Janikowski's 39-yard field goal brought Oakland within one (14-13) after three quarters. McGahee's last TD (another 2-yard rush in the fourth quarter) provided the final margin. Rookie ILB Dannell Ellerbe set up McGahee's score with an interception off Raiders' QB JaMarcus Russell, who had entered the game after Frye left with an injury. Ellerbe also recovered a Russell fumble in the fourth quarter. Baltimore out-rushed the Raiders 240 yards to 51. QB Joe Flacco completed 11 of 19 passes for 102 yards, including 4 to Rice, with no INTs.

WILD CARD • RAVENS 33, PATRIOTS 14

Baltimore (10-7) New England (10-7)

RB Ray Rice ran 83 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage, and the Ravens never looked back in their 33-14 Wild Card victory at New England. And that wasn't all that Baltimore did in the first quarter of its one-sided thumping of the Patriots. Three QB Tom Brady turnovers helped the Ravens push to a 24-0, first-period lead. Brady's first miscue came when OLB Terrell Suggs stripped the Pats' QB of the ball and recovered the fumble, which led to a FB LeRon McClain 1-yard TD. CB Chris Carr then intercepted Brady, setting up Rice's second TD (1-yard rush). S Ed Reed intercepted another Brady pass that was followed by a 27-yard Billy Cundiff field goal. A misplayed punt in the second quarter gave the Patriots the start of their lone first-half TD (Brady to WR Julian Edelman, 6 yards). Another Brady INT set up a third-quarter Cundiff FG (23 yards). A second Brady-to-Edelman TD (1 yard) made the score 27-14 after three quarters. RB Willis McGahee finished the scoring with a 3-yard TD in the final period. The Ravens rushed 52 times for 234 yards, including 159 (22 carries) by Rice. QB Joe Flacco threw just 10 passes, completing 4. Brady, who was sacked 3 times, was 23-of-42 for 154 yards with a lost fumble and 3 INTs. The Ravens' victory over New England was the Pats' first postseason loss at home since 1978, snapping a streak of 11 consecutive playoff wins at home.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF • COLTS 20, RAVENS 3

Baltimore (10-8) Indianapolis (15-2)

Saturday, January 16, 2010 • 8:15 PM EST • Lucas Oil Stadium • Indianapolis

Weather: Indoors • Attendance 67,535 • Time 2:57

The Ravens' playoff run came to a halt at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis with a 20-3 defeat by the Colts. Baltimore turned the ball over four times, including 2 INTs by Joe Flacco and 2 costly fumbles. The game was tied at three until late in the second quarter, but future Hall of Fame QB Peyton Manning drove the Colts and scored on a 10-yard TD pass to rookie WR Austin Collie just before the two-minute warning. The Ravens went three-and-out in the next series, which gave Manning enough time to maneuver 64 yards on eight plays for another seven points. That score came on a second TD toss, this time to WR Reggie Wayne (3 yards) with three seconds remaining, giving the Colts a 17-3 halftime lead. After the Colts opened the game on an opening-drive FG by former Ravens K Matt Stover (44 yards), Ravens K Billy Cundiff connected on his only FGA (25 yards) on Baltimore's first possession of the game, tying the contest at three. Neither team could score on their next few drives, until the Manning-to-Collie TD near the end of the second quarter. In the second half, the Ravens were unable to move the ball well against a formidable Colts' defense. A fourth-quarter RB Ray Rice fumble and 2 Flacco INTs in Baltimore's final two possessions sealed the Ravens' fate. Baltimore's fifth-ranked rush defense held the Colts to 42 rushing yards in the loss, while S Ed Reed recorded his seventh INT in seven career postseason games when he picked off Manning in the third quarter.

RAVENS  2K10

HISTORY

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the NY Giants, 34-7.

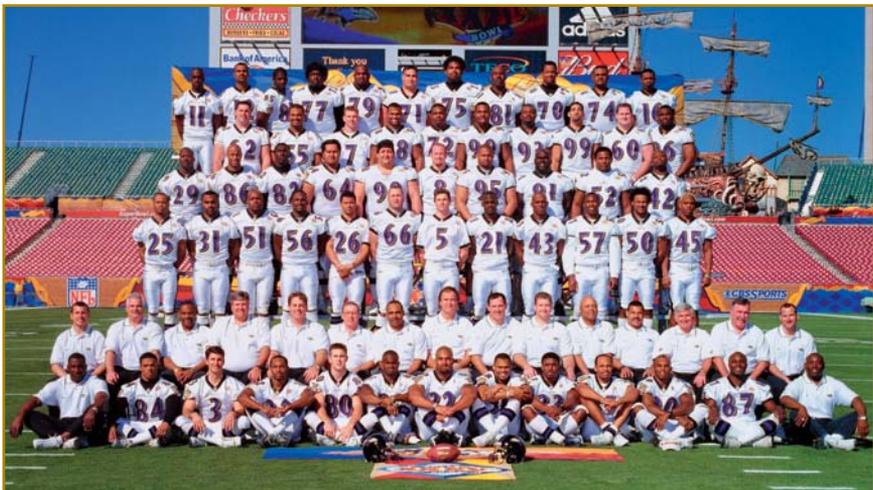

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday presented phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Kevin Byrne and Francine Lubera of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season (above), published in July of 2001.

BALTIMORE FOOTBALL HISTORY

COLTS HISTORY

12/28/46 - Baltimore awarded bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. Re-named Colts via a fan contest.

12/8/49 - AAFC/NFL reached merger agreement. Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

12/19/50 - Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

1/18/51 - Franchise withdrew from league and received $50,000 for players by the NFL.

1951-52 - No Colts team existed.

12/3/52 - Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks, three days.

10/1/53 - Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texans' franchise.

12/28/58 - Colts defeated NYG, 23-17, at Yankee Stadium for World Championship. That game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant.

12/27/59 - Colts won their second straight World Championship over Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

1/8/63 - Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach.

12/27/64 - Browns beat Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for NFL title. Art Modell wins first title.

6/8/66 - NFL and AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. Colts, Browns and Steelers later joined AFC in NFL's realignment.

1/12/69 - Jets defeated Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at Orange Bowl after Joe Namath guaranteed a New York victory.

3/3/70 - Don Shula resigned to become head coach of Miami Dolphins.

1/17/71 - Jim O'Brien kicked 32-yard FG with five seconds left as Colts won Super Bowl V vs. Dallas, 16-13, in first AFC-NFC Super Bowl.

7/26/72 - Robert Irsay traded the L.A. Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colts.

1/15/75 - Ted Marchibroda named head coach.

4/26/83 - Colts selected John Elway with No. 1 pick in NFL draft, but traded him to Denver for T Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.

12/18/83 - In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium (until 1996), the Colts beat the Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD on 12-yard pass from QB Mike Pagel.

3/28/84 - Colts franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

RAVENS HISTORY

1995

11/6 - Cleveland Browns announced intention to move to Baltimore for 1996 season.

1996

2/9 - NFL approved franchise move.

2/15 - Ted Marchibroda was named the Ravens' first head coach 21 years and one month to the day he was hired by the Baltimore Colts in 1975.

3/29 - Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named "Ravens" after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name.

4/1 - Ravens opened Owings Mills training facility with start of offseason program.

6/5 - The new Ravens' logo, colors and uniforms were unveiled in a fashion show at Harborplace in downtown Baltimore.

6/14 - Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

9/1 - The Ravens' first-ever regular season game was played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Raiders.

12/22 - The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home, and 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the two preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only two. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TDs.

3/18 - The Ravens and Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) entered into a five-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD campus.

12/14 - Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Of the 16 regular season games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium, 13 were televised and all were sold out.

12/21 - Baltimore dropped a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. T Jonathan Ogden was named consensus All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210 and was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, then selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

2/14 - The Ravens traded for QB Jim Harbaugh (from Ind.), the first of several key offseason acquisitions, including RB Errict Rhett (2/17), FB Roosevelt Potts (2/24) and CB Rod Woodson (2/25).

9/5 - The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards (later named PSINet Stadium) was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder - Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

9/6 - The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium in downtown Baltimore before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

1/19 - Brian Billick became the second head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a six-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's single-season scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

1/26 - PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet provider, announced a 20-year partnership to develop a global network for the Ravens. Under the agreement, the new facility was named PSINet Stadium.

1/30 - Ravens executive vice president of player personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading tight end in pass receptions until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed the record in 2001.

9/12 - Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the regular season opener, as St. Louis defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

12/26 - The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high eight victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished second in the NFL, and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 324-277.

2/22 - The Ravens signed seven-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who had starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

3/27 - NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens to Anne Arundel County (MD) business executive Steve Bisciotti. In it, Bisciotti had an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

SEPT. - The Ravens opened the 2000 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on 9/3. They won three of their first four games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

OCT. - Baltimore finished October at 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on 10/29 vs Pittsburgh.

NOV./DEC. - Baltimore won its final seven regular season games with a combined score of 193-63. On 11/26, Earnest Byner was the first inductee to the Ravens' Ring of Honor (Ravens won 44-7 vs. Cleveland). On 12/10, Art Modell was honored in pre-game ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership. That day, the Ravens earned their first playoff berth, defeating San Diego, 24-3.

12/24 - The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the New York Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team-record 1,364 yards in 2000.

12/31 - The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff Game at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive MVP honors from The Associated Press.

1/7 - The Ravens scored 14 fourth quarter points to defeat Tennessee, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return by Anthony Mitchell off a blocked FG; then Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

1/14 - The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. TE Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason-record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.

RAVENS HISTORY

1/28 - The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV, played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout against the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when three TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

1/30 - Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' Victory Parade.

LB Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP after the Ravens' win (34-7) over the New York Giants.

JULY/AUG. - The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions with the entire nation watching, as HBO's Hard Knocks: Training Camp With the Baltimore Ravens debuted with the Ravens as the featured team.

9/9 - The Ravens won their 12th consecutive game and second consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSINet Stadium. On 9/11, the World Trade Center collapsed and the Pentagon was hit, following terrorist attacks.

10/21 - Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a FG, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31, when he booted two three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a missed FGA on 12/16 vs. Pittsburgh.

11/18 - TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ravens executive VP and GM Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the fifth play of the game vs. the Cleveland Browns. He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INT-TDs).

12/23 - Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles had a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/2 - Six Ravens from the 2001 season were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

1/7 - The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game had been scheduled for Monday, 9/17, but was re-scheduled because of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter Boulware set a team record with four sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to win its first five playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first six playoff games, surpassed Brian Billick's mark of five (tied with Tom Flores).

1/20 - After five consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set an NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11.

9/30 - Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nailbiter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, and the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and first-timer TE Todd Heap.

2003

JAN./FEB. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The Executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as LBs coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd (and final) year in the NFL as a franchise owner.

5/6 - Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium. The 15-year, $75-million agreement included naming rights, as well as, jointly administered community-based programs. The then-147-year-old M&T Bank was headquartered in Buffalo, NY.

9/2 - The average age of the Ravens was only 25.8 years at roster cutdown. Baltimore had 11 first- and second-year players on the roster; seven rookies and 11 second-year veterans. The average years of experience was just four. The Ravens were the third-youngest team in the NFL

(Cleveland, 24.8 and Chicago, 25.3).

9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and two TDs. In the game at Cleveland (12/21), Lewis rushed for 205 yards, setting the NFL mark for rushing yards in a season versus the same team – 500 yards.

12/18 - A team-record eight players were voted to the Pro Bowl (most in NFL, tied with the Chiefs): LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, LB Peter Boulware, T Jonathan Ogden, TE Todd Heap, RB Jamal Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and LB/Special Teamer Adalious Thomas.

12/26 - Art Modell was inducted into the Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium at the final game of the season, a 13-10 OT win over Pittsburgh. Baltimore finished 10-6, winning a first-ever AFC North Division title.

12/31 - Jamal Lewis and Ray Lewis were named The Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively, while LB Terrell Suggs was named AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

1/3 - The Ravens lost, 20-17, to the Titans in the AFC Wild Card game at M&T Bank Stadium on Gary Anderson's game-winning kick (46-yard FG), with 29 seconds remaining.

2/4 - Jim Fassel, former head coach of the NY Giants, was named senior consultant/offense for the Baltimore Ravens. It marked the first time two Super Bowl head coaches (Brian Billicke the other) were on the same team.

4/9 - The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club.

4/13 - Ravens and McDaniel College extended their partnership six years to keep training camp in Westminster through 2010. The deal includes installation of Sportex Momentum Turf on the college's main athletic field with both parties sharing costs.

10/4 - Former Ravens Pro Bowler DE Michael McCrary, who retired in 2002, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at halftime of the Ravens' Monday Night ABC contest vs. KC. The Chiefs won, 27-24.

10/15 - Ravens moved into their new 200,000-sq.-ft. training facility in Owings Mills, MD during the bye week. The new state-of-the-art headquarters is home to over 200 Ravens employees.

12/22 - Five Ravens were named to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden (eighth), LB Ray Lewis (seventh), S Ed Reed (second), CB Chris McAlister (second) and LB Terrell Suggs (first).

1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

1/7 - S Ed Reed was named the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press, becoming the second Raven in as many years to win the award. LB Ray Lewis won the award twice (2000, 2003).

1/12 - Jim Fassel and Rex Ryan (1/20) were promoted to offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. Clarence Brooks (formerly with Miami) replaced Rex Ryan as D-line coach. Chris Foerster (former Miami offensive coordinator) was named offensive line/assistant head coach. Rick Neuheisel was named QBs coach. Fassel's son, John, was hired as an offensive assistant.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two national games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. One of the victories was a 16-13 OT win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. T Jonathan Ogden was selected to his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance.

6/8 - Three-time Pro Bowler and 2003 co-MVP

QB Steve McNair joined the Ravens in a trade with Tennessee in exchange for a 2007 Baltimore draft pick. McNair would go on to start at QB for the Ravens in 2006, and he became just the third player in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career passing yards and 3,500 rushing yards. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

9/10 - Baltimore shut out Tampa Bay (27-0) in the opener at Raymond James Stadium and posted a second shutout versus Pittsburgh (also 27-0) on Nov. 26.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware, who retired in 2006, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell. Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the Smartvision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier shutout on Nov. 26, 27-0, at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' defense dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a bye week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks (60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks of QB Ben Roethlisberger.

the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed was a franchise record and second in the NFL to the Colts' 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

1/17 - Head coach Brian Billick signed a new four-year contract with the Ravens. Defensive coordinator Rex Ryan signed a new two-year deal with the team.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final gun, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first – and just the third head coach in Ravens history – John Harbaugh – former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

1/23 - Cam Cameron, head coach of the Dolphins in 2007, was hired to be the Ravens' new offensive coordinator by John Harbaugh.

1/28 - Rex Ryan was retained as defensive coordinator and also named the team's assistant head coach by John Harbaugh.

4/17 - QB Steve McNair retired from football after a 13-year NFL career.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' bye week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18 consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens' Symth Jewelers Ring of Honor just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie standard.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' four INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only seven during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history. According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), they set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (four) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high nine INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

1/21 - Rex Ryan, Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2005-08 and a member of the coaching staff since 1999, was hired by the New York Jets as their head coach.

1/26 - Having served as LBs coach in 2008, Greg Mattison was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator. Also, special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg earned the title of assistant head coach.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' defense finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-consecutive season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (three INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its four turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

Ray Rice ran for a playoff franchise-record 159 yards and two TDs on 22 carries (7.2 avg.), spurring the Ravens' 234-yard rushing output (most in team playoff history).

1/16 - Baltimore fell at Indianapolis in the Divisional game, 20-3. The Ravens held the Colts to 275 net yards (including just 42 rushing), but Baltimore's four turnovers proved too costly.

1/31 - Five Ravens players were voted into the Pro Bowl in South Florida for the 2009 season, including LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and RB Ray Rice (first).

The all-time alphabetical roster (above) lists the last-known jersey number worn by a player. The above roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR, PUP list, et al. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears on this list.

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who has worn both 73 and 97 jerseys.

ABBREVIATION CHART

To the media: In an effort to make the Baltimore Ravens Fan and Media Guide reader friendly, to “green” the book, to lessen the total weight of the book and reduce the number of pages, we adopted some non-traditional methods. We abbreviated certain football terms and used numbers for statistics in our player bios and charts instead of spelling out numerical words, including numbers 1-9.

10 LARGEST RAVENS CROWDS

The Ravens played in Memorial Stadium from 1996-1997 and PSINet Stadium from 1998-2001. In 2002, the facility was known as Ravens Stadium. In 2003, the Ravens entered a partnership, and the stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium. (Capacity was increased in 2007 to 71,008 from previous listings of 70,107 and 69,084.)

Note: Tackles are not an official statistic recognized by the National Football League. Ravens tackles are determined by the coaching staff after reviewing game video.

LB Ray Lewis, a two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year (2000 & 2003), holds every major Ravens tackle record. An 11-time Pro Bowler, Lewis has 2,346 tackles during his 14-year career and also ranks first in team history with 15 FRs.

SHUTOUT SUCCESS

Since 2000, Baltimore's defense has registered the most shutouts in the NFL -- including last season's Week 10 16-0 win at Cleveland (11/16). The Ravens blanked opponents nine times this past decade, two more than New England and Seattle, which each own seven shutouts.

MOST NFL SHUTOUTS

(Since 2000 Season and Entering 2010)

RK. TEAM	SHUTOUTS
1. Baltimore Ravens	9
2. New England Patriots	7
Seattle Seahawks	7

Quick Hit:

In their all-time history, the Ravens have produced 10 shutouts (dating back to 1999), with five occurring on the road and five happening in Baltimore.

GAME DAY

RAVENS GAME DAY

M– is where NFL excitement begins on any given Sunday. Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since winning the Super Bowl in 2000, the Ravens have presented a daunting home record for opponents, 58-22, the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.725) entering 2010.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as the crowning jewel of NFL sports facilities. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including the stunning new-in-2010 high definition RavensVision video screens. Combined with exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure is the home of the Ravens and draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park and the Ravens' home at Camden Yards. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, and the Ravens.

M&T BANK STADIUM HIGHLIGHTS

VIDEO SCREENS:

- Each new RavensVision high definition screen measures 24 feet high and 100 feet wide. Those dimensions would equal a 1,234-inch diagonal TV screen. It would take 600 37-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) boards. Nearly 2.5 million individual LEDs provide the image on the two screens, allowing the highest quality pictures in the brightest sunlight and at night events.

- The high definition views allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.

- Each of the two giant screens is made up of modular LED panels – 12.6 inches by 15.1 inches. These panels were then assembled into larger sections measuring 8 by 9 feet. Each section weighs 900 pounds, and there are 33 sections on each board.

- A new control room that can allow the high def boards to work at peak quality was designed by VPC and installed at M&T Bank Stadium by Diversified Systems, the U.S. industry leader in the construction and installation of control rooms.

- The Ravens and the Maryland Stadium Authority shared the costs of the new boards.

- Also new in 2010 are the more than 500 Sony flat screen, high definition televisions, which were installed throughout M&T Bank Stadium to enhance the fans' game day experience.

- Providing even more information to fans are LED boards (800 linear feet) surrounding the field.

SIGHTLINES:

- Front row seating in the lower level is six feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.

- The distinctive upper seating area includes open notches in each corner of the stadium, allowing scenic views of Baltimore.

SEATING:

- With a seating capacity of 71,008, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball ballpark to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park's size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.

- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.

- Each of the 128 suites at M&T Bank Stadium hold between 20-24 people and features three televisions, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal waitstaff service. Many other amenities are available to suite holders.

AMENITIES:

- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic.

- There are 55 concession stands in the upper, lower and club levels with delicious game day fare, including some of Baltimore's signature favorites.

- Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE:

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

- Fans can easily access M&T Bank Stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside of Gate B.

- Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but downtown parking garages are also available for game-day parking, just a short walk away.

- Tailgating fans are welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in all of the lots in the complex. For complete Tailgate Lot parking information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-RAVE (7283).

- In October of 2002, following the passing of legendary Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, the Ravens named the area near Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every home game.

- Unitas Plaza is a great picture-taking area for Baltimoreans and vacationers. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens' football fans who have supported the team that brought Baltimore and the State of Maryland the NFL World Championship with Super Bowl XXXV.

MASCOT POE

The game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' mischievous mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly into your next function, please visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/mascots.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Over 230 musicians and flagline performers comprise Baltimore's Marching Ravens. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens' musical performers. BMR is deeply involved in charitable causes and raises funds to help support the Baltimore community. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/band.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' cheerleading squad has 21 members on the dance team and 39 members on the stunt team. The cheerleading squad is the only NFL team with both a dance and co-ed stunt team. Ravens cheerleaders are in our community helping raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. Scheduling an appearance for your next event is easy: visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/cheerleaders.

LIVE RAVENS

Ravens live mascots Rise and Conquer, live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/mascots.

M&T BANK STADIUM HISTORY

On May 6, 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced their partnership, which included a 15-year, $75 million agreement with naming rights to the Ravens' home field, M&T Bank Stadium, as well as several important community-based programs that are jointly administered.

At the announcement, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said: "We knew from the onset that we did not want a company that wasn't established and without a great track record. There were other banks that we were calling about naming rights, because that was the category we wanted to fill, but the timing was perfect [with M&T] because they were coming in to a new market [Maryland]."

M&T Bank's long history began in western New York, but the company has expanded throughout the East Coast. There are more than 700 branches in the Mid-Atlantic, including Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. The bank was founded 153 years ago and is one of the 20 largest commercial bank corporations in the nation.

The partnership is deeply rooted in the idea of community service. M&T Bank became the lead sponsor of the Ravens All Community Team, which unites the Ravens with Baltimore's business leaders to support our community in meaningful ways. This support includes fundraising, volunteerism and involvement in projects that meet some of its most pressing needs.

"M&T Bank's relationship with the Ravens goes far beyond our name on the stadium," said Mark Czarnecki, president of M&T Bank. "M&T and the Ravens have become community partners, working together to strengthen communities through a variety of initiatives. Employees from the two organizations work side-by-side as volunteers renovating homes, distributing food to the hungry and building neighborhood playgrounds. M&T Bank is proud to be the official bank of the Ravens, and we're proud to be part of the fabric of the community."

M&T Bank also sponsors Honor Rows, a program that salutes those who provide outstanding service and the nationally-renowned Baltimore's Marching Ravens. For more information about this community service, log on to www.baltimore Ravens.com.

TRAINING CAMP

The Ravens training camp is located at McDaniel College in Westminster, MD. This is the Ravens' 15th summer-training session at the campus.

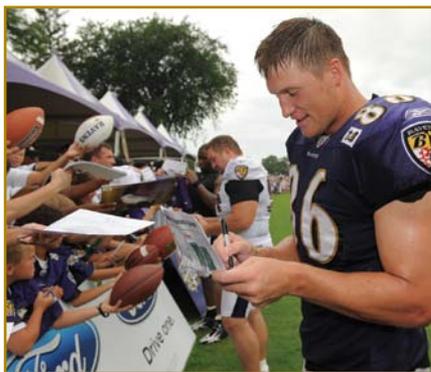

McDaniel College is a private liberal arts and sciences college with an enrollment of 1,600 students. MDC is located 30 minutes from the Ravens' Owings Mills practice facility and 50 minutes from downtown Baltimore. Training camp practice information is updated daily via recorded message at (410) 261-RAVE (7283) and on the team's Web site: www.baltimoreravens.com, where fans may get both the latest practice schedule and the weather. Practice dates and times are subject to change.

"The Ravens have partnered with McDaniel College since 1996, and we truly enjoy our relationship with the Westminster community. Our plan is to keep our training camp at McDaniel."

— Steve Bisciotti,
Ravens Owner

Note to Media: A workroom with wireless capability is available at the Best Western Hotel in Westminster (410) 751-7900. Players and coaches are available for interviews after morning practices, usually at 11:00 am. Contact Chad Steele at Chad.Steele@Ravens.nfl.net for 2010 training camp credentials.

Practices are free and open to the public with times and conditions subject to change. All fans and media are reminded to check the latest practice information by calling (410) 261-RAVE or by logging on to www.baltimoreravens.com.

Todd Heap (above) and Ray Lewis (below) are two of the many players and coaches who have spent countless hours throughout their careers signing autographs for fans at training camp. Even though there are new autograph guidelines in 2010, players will still sign for children ages 6 through 15 in the autograph zone.

Haloti Ngata signs autographs for members of the military on "Military Appreciation Day," held each training camp in August.

DIRECTIONS FROM BALTIMORE VIA I-695:

Take Exit 19 to I-795 N. Follow the signs to Westminster via Route 140 W.

FOR FANS: Follow 140 West to Rte. 31 South; at the flashing traffic light turn left; then at the first traffic light, take another left on to Main St. Proceed up the hill; enter the Visitor Parking Lot on the left.

Ravens games can be heard on 98 Rock WIYY (97.9 FM) and WBAL 1090 AM and on 12 regional affiliates (listed below). This network broadcasts each Ravens game and reaches from York, PA to Washington, D.C. Gerry Sandusky, WBAL-TV 11 sports director, gives the play-by-play and serves as the executive producer for the broadcast team that includes Qadry Ismail and Stan White. Ismail, a member of the Ravens' 2000 Super Bowl XXXV team, provides on-field experience and knowledgeable insight on players and situations. White, a former NFL standout for the Baltimore Colts and Detroit Lions, is regarded as one of the top NFL analysts.
