BALTIMORE
RAVENS

STEVE BISCIOTTI OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY
BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 13/13

Baltimore is the only NFL team to earn the playoffs each of the last four seasons (2008-11), and the Ravens won at least one postseason game each of those years. Under Steve Bisciotti's leadership, the Ravens, who have made the playoffs five of the last six years, advanced twice to the AFC Championship game – last season and after the 2008 campaign – during this successful stretch.

Baltimore's current four-consecutive playoff berths are a franchise record. "We're proud of what we're giving to Baltimore," Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal."

The passionate Bisciotti, who is 52 and the second-youngest owner in the NFL (to Washington's Daniel Snyder - 47), bought a minority interest in the Ravens in 2000 from Art Modell and completed the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV championship team. Today, Steve's influence in the NFL continues to rise – he currently is a member of two important ownership committees: Broadcasting and Digital Media.

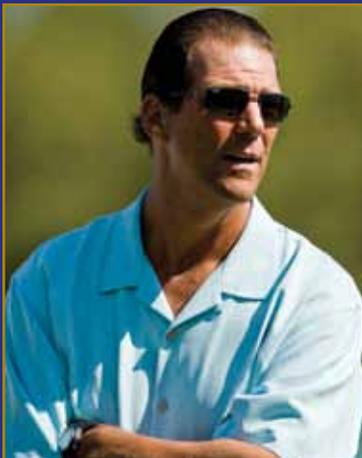

When Bisciotti, now in his 13th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired John Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first four years with Harbaugh, who is the only modern day (since 1970) head coach to go to and win a playoff game in each of his first four seasons.

TOP 10

Business Review USA magazine recently ranked all U.S. professional sports franchise owners, placing Steve Bisciotti at No. 10. Three other NFL owners made the Top 10: 1) Stanley Kroenke, Rams (Kroenke also owns the Denver Nuggets and Colorado Avalanche); 3) Robert Kraft, Patriots and 6) Jeffrey Lurie, Eagles. (February, 2012)

"I think leadership is difficult to define, but you can recognize leadership when you see it," Bisciotti says. "We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success. There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

In 2011, Baltimore (12-4) won the AFC North, sweeping the division and going undefeated at home for the first time in team history. The Ravens, who were the second seed with a first-round bye, defeated Houston 20-13 in the Divisional Playoff at home, but lost a heartbreaker in the AFC Championship game at New England (23-20). In 2010, the Ravens tied Pittsburgh with a 12-4 record, the best mark in the AFC North. Baltimore then dominated the Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium with a 30-7 victory in the Wild Card round. In 2009, the Ravens completed a 9-7 regular season campaign and became the first team to win a playoff game at New England (33-14) since 1978. The 2008 Ravens earned an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area that we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to, or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

– Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

– Former Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams on Steve Bisciotti

STEVE BISCIOTTI

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED NAMED STEVE BISCIOTTI ONE OF THE FIVE BEST OWNERS IN THE NFL:

"Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field." (May, 2009)

(Since taking over as the Ravens' owner, Bisciotti's teams have earned the playoffs a total of five times, including the AFC's second seed in 2006 with a 13-3 mark. His 2004 team finished with a 9-7 record, missing the playoffs by one game.)

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens' fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State University with a degree in liberal arts in 1982, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (he was 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees. Starting with two employees and two clients, Bisciotti and Davis produced $1.5 million in sales in the first year.

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest privately-held staffing firm in the United States. The company, which is based just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe, has over 8,000 internal employees and 90,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group, which, like Steve, does little self promotion or publicity, places employees in positions from engineers to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Until he bought the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level. In fact, it wasn't even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm okay if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, quietly is dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing, boating and is devoted to University of Maryland athletics, especially the men's basketball team. He and his wife, Renée (Foote), are the parents of two sons, Jason, who owns a master's in business, and Jack, who earned a degree in sports and entertainment management. Renée helped design the interior and selected the furnishings at the Ravens' training complex. The family lives in Millersville, MD.

Bisciotti is pronounced Bih-SHAH-tee.

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts' players if I could wear their helmets."

BALTIMORE

ART MODELL MINORITY OWNER

BORN: 6/23/25, BROOKLYN, NY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 47/17

Art Modell – much like Steve Bisciotti – embodies the spirit of a true American success story. Both men have been described as bold, competitive, compassionate and highly-approachable entrepreneurs – generally, a rare combination of qualities for men who have risen to their level of accomplishment.

In April of 2004, Art finalized the sale of the World Champion Baltimore Ravens to Bisciotti. Also in 2004, Art was a semifinalist for that year’s Hall of Fame class. He was one of 15 finalists for the Canton NFL Hall of Fame in 2001 and a semifinalist for the classes of 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Modell purchased the Cleveland Browns for what was an unprecedented price of $4 million in 1961, and three decades later, in February of 1996, he brought an NFL franchise back to Baltimore. For Art and his club, the move was not an easy one to make – and it was not easy for the team’s fans to see their team go. Knowing this, Modell did not hesitate to leave the fans of Cleveland a legacy. He announced that he would give the name “Browns” to Cleveland for a future team. He also left the team’s colors (orange and brown) and the rich and storied 49-year history (1946-1995).

In his 43 seasons of full ownership of the Browns and the Ravens, more than half of Art’s teams were in the playoffs. Modell won two NFL championships, 1964: 27-0 (over the Colts); and in 2000, 34-7 (vs. the NY Giants). Three other teams (1965, 1968 and 1969) played in NFL title games, and three more teams (1986, 1987 and 1989) lost memorable AFC Championship battles – all against John Elway and the Denver Broncos. Ten other teams earned playoff berths, while six more entered the season’s final week with a chance to make the postseason.

Art Modell and his late wife Pat at a Ravens’ event in 2005.

“I believe Art belongs in the Hall of Fame. I don’t think I know a person who has done more for the league than Modell, especially through television.”

*– Wellington Mara
former owner, NY Giants, 2002, deceased*

Modell was the only elected NFL president in league history, serving a term from 1967-69. He chaired the negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement with the players in 1968, leading a committee that included Vince Lombardi and Jim Finks, both NFL Hall of Famers. Modell may be most noted for his tenure as the NFL’s broadcast chairman. The contracts he negotiated over a 31-year period (1962-93) set the standard for sports television.

Art’s key career highlights include:

- Chairman of the Owners Labor Committee (1968), which successfully negotiated the NFL’s first players’ collective bargaining agreement.
- Served on the NFL-AFL Merger Committee, breaking the impasse for realignment of the two leagues by moving the Browns to the AFC.
- Worked closely with then-Commissioner Pete Rozelle to establish NFL Films and became its first chairman.
- In 1970, Art was an important negotiator with ABC to launch Monday Night Football and volunteered to host the first game in Cleveland. (The Browns won, 31-21, over the NY Jets.)

PERSONAL: In 1943, Modell joined the Air Force...Attended New Utrecht (Brooklyn, NY) HS...His wife of 42 years, Patricia, passed away in 2011...He is the father of John and David and has six grandchildren...Modell has been active in the Baltimore community since he brought the franchise to Maryland...Over the years, Art has donated millions of dollars to a variety of charities, most notably, The SEED School of Maryland, a boarding school in Baltimore for disadvantaged youth, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Kennedy Krieger Institute, St. Vincent’s Center, a home for abused children, and the House Of Ruth...One of the largest donations to a Baltimore cultural institution, the Modells recently gave $3.5 million to The Lyric, which was re-named The Patricia & Arthur Modell Performing Arts Center at The Lyric...Modell has received numerous awards and honors, including the Generous Heart Award from the Dr. Ben Carson Scholarship Foundation, given annually for excellence in the community.

DICK CASS PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: PRINCETON / YALE LAW SCHOOL

BORN: 1/13/46, WASHINGTON, D.C.

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 9/9

Dick Cass is in his ninth year as president of the Ravens. Cass oversees every area of the organization, including player and staff personnel, the coaching team, corporate sales, communications and business ventures. In addition to his time with the Ravens, Cass has served as counsel to a number of NFL owners, including both the Washington Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys, as well as the NFL's league office.

"Dick has had involvement with every aspect of an NFL team," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said. "His legal expertise, his working knowledge of the business, his relationships at the league office, and the respect he has earned around the league are significant assets for the franchise."

2004-12: (with Baltimore) 2009: A regional business group awarded Cass its Regional Visionary Award for setting a high standard for community service in the Baltimore region. 2008: Among all NFL clubs, the Ravens ranked in the top tier in sponsorship revenue, new sponsorship deals and ticket renewal rate following the '08 season...Helped guide a committee of eight to interview and select head coach John Harbaugh. 2007: Even though Baltimore is the country's 27th-largest television market, the Ravens ranked in the NFL's top tier in total revenue...Forbes Magazine recognized the Ravens as having the NFL's second-fastest growing brand over the past three years (Aug. issue)...Cass keyed fundraising efforts for the $100,000 renovation of Collington Square School's playground. 2006: Saluted by former NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue for Dick's input to the revenue-sharing plan of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement... Initiated fundraising after Hurricane Katrina that resulted in $1.2 million donated from the Ravens...Though dismissed by Cass, was mentioned prominently by media as a possible successor to Tagliabue...Instrumental in raising $1.2 million to refurbish Baltimore Polytechnic Institute's football stadium...The new field allows all 18 Baltimore City public high schools to play at least two games per season at the venue. 2004: Cass was named president of the club in April and was Steve Bisciotti's first hire as new owner of the Ravens...Cass brought a wealth of business knowledge, plus legal and negotiating expertise to the club...Orchestrated a midseason move to the team's new facility in Owings Mills, coupling football operations and corporate into one complex.

1972-2003: (with Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering) A partner of the D.C.-based law firm of WCP for 31 years...Was chairman of the firm's Business Transactions Section and a member of its Management Committee...Had a general corporate and securities practice, representing companies and entrepreneurs in complex corporate partnership and securities transactions. 2003: Counsel to the Independent Commission of the US Olympics Committee. 2002: Was counsel to the owner of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets in the team's relocation to New Orleans. 2000: Represented Steve Bisciotti in the purchase of the Ravens from the Modell family. 1999: Represented the estate of Jack Kent Cooke in the sale of the Redskins to Daniel Snyder. 1992-93: Retained by the NFL as an advisor pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement with players. 1980s: Represented Cowboys owner Jerry Jones in the acquisition of the team and Texas Stadium...Advised Jones on a variety of matters, including sponsorship contracts, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and salary cap, NFL broadcast arrangements, NFL Internet policies, stadium financing, estate planning, local broadcast partnerships and the NFL substance abuse programs. 1979: Promoted to partner of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering law firm. 1972: Served his first year as a member of WCP.

COLLEGE: Graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton in 1968...A knee injury, coupled with surgery, kept him from athletics his first two years...Played rugby as a junior and senior...Graduated from Yale Law School in 1971.

PERSONAL: Clerked for a federal judge in Connecticut for a year before joining WCP, a firm with global offices...Father was in the Coast Guard...As a child, Dick moved around the country with his parents, making stops in Virginia, Maryland, Michigan, California, Washington, D.C., Florida and Massachusetts...Graduated from Mercersburg (PA) Academy, where he was student body president and captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams...He serves on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute, Maryland Science Center, Baltimore Community Foundation and Bert Bell NFL Players Pension Plan...He has served on the boards of trustees for both Princeton and Mercersburg Academy...He continues as chairman of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation...Dick's wife, Heather, owns an architecture firm, Cass and Associates... She is also a graduate of Yale (School of Architecture) and is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects...Their daughter, Courtney, is a Columbia graduate who taught in New York City public schools for three years and has since earned a law degree from the University of Virginia...She is currently the executive director of Teach for America Baltimore...Their son, Willy, is a graduate of St. Albans School in Washington, D.C., and a 2008 Yale University graduate (biomedical engineering)...He is currently enrolled at the University of Maryland Medical School.

OZZIE NEWSOME

GENERAL MANAGER & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: ALABAMA

BORN: 3/16/56, MUSCLE SHOALS, AL

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 35/17 (13 PLAYING / 22 FRONT OFFICE)

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen.

Though he has flourished at every point of his football career, it's unfair to say that Newsome has followed a successful path. That's because, in all reality, he blazed the trail – one on which success has actually followed him. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV championship team and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped on the gridiron with the hope of playing for the University of Alabama. That dream turned into a reality when he went on to star for the Crimson Tide under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a tight end until Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since broken those records).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 24 Pro Bowls since then, each player is considered a likely Hall of Famer. Ogden, who retired in June of 2008, could become the first Raven ever elected to Canton. Fittingly, he would join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 16 drafts (1996-2011), Baltimore selected 17 first-rounders who have earned a total of 51 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Of the seven players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, LB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis and LB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis has twice been named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap, chosen 31st, went to two Pro Bowls as a Raven; S Ed Reed, the 24th pick, has been tabbed an All-Star eight times and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 15 players who have earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, who signed as a rookie free agent in 2002, Baltimore has produced 16 homegrown Pro Bowl players in just 16 NFL seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. The "process" includes 18 full-time members of the personnel department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Most of Ozzie's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," which is a group that includes members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

The Ravens do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a log of reports on players eligible for the draft. Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. "We do a lot of cross-checking," says Ravens assistant general manager Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome's "20/20 Club." "A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

Newsome encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things," Newsome affirms. "And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's not Ozzie. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels: Jack Del Rio (Jaguars), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Chuck Pagano (Colts), Rex Ryan (Jets), Jim Schwartz (Lions), David Shaw (Stanford), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals).

"[Ravens] players believe, and that's the beauty of it," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we've always talked about is we don't want to coach effort. And that's the thing – we don't. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

Newsome's motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie's not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens' weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

"By being around the coaches and players out at practice," Newsome states, "and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I'd like the makeup of our football team."

A year-by-year look at Newsome's career:

2011: The Ravens became the only NFL team to earn the playoffs the past four seasons (2008-11), also winning the AFC North by sweeping the division for the first time in franchise history...Producing a second-straight 12-4 campaign, Baltimore also went 6-0 against playoff teams during the regular season...Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over Houston at home, but the Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a last-second, 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game... QB Joe Flacco, who has started every game since his rookie campaign, produced his 44th regular season win as a starter, marking the most ever by an NFL QB in his initial four seasons (2008-11)...The Ravens' defense, which finished No. 3 in the 2002: Newsome and his staff assembled the youngest team in NFL history...Most observers predicted the Ravens would win very few games, but Baltimore entered Week 15 with a 7-7 mark and a chance to be the AFC's top Wild Card playoff team...Two last-minute losses to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) gave Baltimore a 7-9 mark...

That year's draft produced two immediate starters (S Ed Reed and DE Anthony Weaver) and standout returner Lamont Brightful...Reed led the Ravens with five INTs and made every NFL All-Rookie team.

2001: Picking late in each round after winning Super Bowl XXXV, Newsome and his staff continued to draft well by selecting TE Todd Heap (first round, 31st overall), who finished his Ravens career in 2010 as the franchise's all-time leader in TD catches (36)...Ravens concluded the season with a 10-6 record and won at Miami (21-3) in the Wild Card game before falling in the Divisional Playoff at Pittsburgh (27-10)...Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors.

2000: Newsome was voted the NFL's Executive of the Year...Finishing

12-4, the Ravens earned a Wild Card berth and won Super Bowl XXXV, 34-7, over the New York Giants...Baltimore's bruising defense, considered one of the best in league history, permitted just 970 rushing yards and 165 points – both NFL records in a 16-game season...The architects of the Ravens' Super Bowl championship team, Newsome and his staff hit gold with the selection of RB Jamal Lewis (the team's all-time leading rusher) with the fifth pick in the first round... As a rookie, Lewis set a then-Ravens' team record with 1,364 rushing yards...The Ravens had five Pro Bowlers, including key free agents DT Sam Adams and S Rod Woodson, whom Newsome signed to the team.

1999: The Ravens finished 8-8 in Brian Billick's first season as head coach and had five players named to the Pro Bowl... Newsome continued a hot hand at drafting by tabbing Arizona CB Chris McAlister (10th overall), who earned three Pro Bowls (2003-04 and 2006) in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)
BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 15/5

John Harbaugh, unlike other NFL head coaches, took the road less traveled. NFL field bosses graduate from pro jobs that include the word coordinator after offensive or defensive, or they came from heading big-time college programs. John was the secondary coach of the Eagles (2007) – and before that Philadelphia’s special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and a collegiate coach for 14 years – before becoming the Ravens’ head coach in 2008. (Harbaugh also grew up learning about the game from his father, Jack, a longtime college coach.)

That unusual hiring has turned out spectacularly well for the Ravens. John Harbaugh has become historically good.

“Harbs” is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four years. In fact, Baltimore is the only NFL team to win a playoff game in each of the past four seasons, while also being the only club to make the postseason in each of those four years (2008-11).

John has led the Ravens to 49 total victories during this span, tying (New Orleans) for the league’s third-most wins (one behind New England and Pittsburgh – both with 50). Baltimore’s 44 regular season victories under Harbaugh rank fourth most in the NFL since 2008, and he has also guided the Ravens to two AFC Championship games (2008 and 2011).

Among active head coaches with at least two full seasons of NFL tenure, Harbaugh ties (Mike Tomlin) for the league’s best regular season winning percentage, owning a .688 mark in four years (44-20). In postseason play, the Ravens are 5-4.

Producing a second-straight 12-4 record (13-5 overall) in 2011, Baltimore won the AFC North, sweeping the division for the first time in team history. The Ravens were 6-0 against playoff teams (7-1 including postseason), matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers during the regular season. In what was a franchise first, the Ravens also went unbeaten at home (9-0 with a playoff victory over Houston). Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over the Texans, and then fell, 23-20, in a heartbreaking AFC Championship thriller at New England.

HARBS SAYS

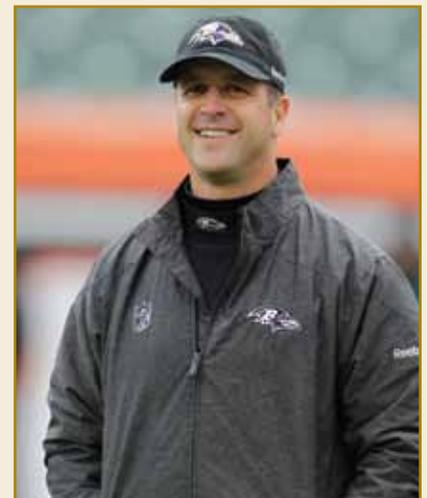

“I’m a football coach. That’s what I wanted to be, and that’s what I am. I’m excited to be the head coach of the Ravens. It’s a big job that provides the opportunity to work with some outstanding people. I grew up as a coach’s son, and I understand the core and fundamental principles that define a great football team. At the heart of football are three foundations: first is the team, second is the team, and third is the team. We’ll stick with that from beginning to end. We will take care of one another. We will stand shoulder to shoulder. We will push each other to the highest levels. We will lift each other up. Our style of play will be tough, fast, physical and smart.”

In Coach Harbaugh’s initial season (’08) in Baltimore, the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game after winning at Miami (27-9) and at the AFC’s top-seeded Tennessee Titans, 13-10. Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens, 23-14, in the AFC title matchup at Heinz Field. In 2009, Baltimore dominated at New England, 33-14, in the Wild Card game before dropping a 20-3 contest at Super Bowl-bound Indianapolis in the Divisional Round. (The victory at New England was the Patriots' first playoff loss at home since 1978.) After earning a 12-4 mark in 2010, the Ravens won at Kansas City (30-7) in the Wild Card playoff. Baltimore then dropped a 31-24 Divisional Round contest at Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Super Bowl.

That first Harbaugh/Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team. The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record following that campaign established a new league standard in this same category. With the 13 total victories in '08, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco). In 2011, Harbaugh and Flacco once again set an NFL record when they became the first quarterback-head coach duo to start their NFL careers at the same time and lead a team to the postseason in each of their first four seasons.

Maintaining their strong defensive tradition, the Ravens have finished the past four seasons as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) – tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons ranking in the Top 3. Additionally, Baltimore has also ranked in the Top 10 in total defense for nine straight seasons, producing second-, third-, 10th- and third-overall rankings, respectively, from 2008-11.

The Ravens' offense has also experienced successes during the Harbaugh Era. In 2011, QB Joe Flacco produced his third-straight 3,500-yard/20-touchdown passing season – a Baltimore football record – while Pro Bowl RB Ray Rice led the NFL with 2,068 yards from scrimmage. During the 2010 campaign, Baltimore was one of five teams to produce a 3,500-yard passer (Flacco - 3,622) and a 1,200-yard rusher (Rice - 1,220). (The other teams to accomplish this feat were Atlanta, Houston, NY Giants and St. Louis.) In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's ninth best in scoring (24.4 ppg), up from 24th in 2007, while setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22). In 2008, Baltimore ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg).

Coach Harbaugh congratulated QB Joe Flacco following the Ravens' 35-7 opening-day victory over their AFC North rival Pittsburgh Steelers (9/11/11).

Since John's Baltimore arrival, the Ravens have rushed for 131.3 yards per game, fourth most in the NFL. Baltimore has committed only 87 turnovers during this span, the NFL's fourth fewest, and averaged 23.6 points per game – ranking ninth in the league.

Impressively, the Ravens' top three records for fewest turnovers in a season have all occurred during Harbaugh's tenure. In 2010, the Ravens set a franchise single-season record for fewest turnovers (20), breaking the previous mark of 21 from John's first season in 2008. Constantly stressing attention to detail, Harbaugh's 2010 and 2011 teams combined to produce the fewest penalties (182) over a two-year stretch in franchise history.

John Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he states. "We want to become something. We seek the highest levels." His teams are balanced, disciplined and hard-nosed. "We want to be the most physical team, but we also want to be the cleanest. Hard-hitting and playing with physicality does not mean dirty," he adds.

John and his daughter, Alison, joined John's brother, 49ers head coach Jim Harbaugh, and John's parents, Jackie and Jack Harbaugh prior to the Ravens-49ers Thanksgiving night game won by the Ravens, 16-6 (11/24/11).

JOHN HARBAUGH

Despite his early head-coaching success, “Harbs” diffuses accolades: “It’s about us. It’s about the team. It’s about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It’s about Dick [Cass] and the support staff. It’s about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best,” Harbaugh says.

Harbaugh, who established a reputation as one of the NFL’s top special teams’ coaches, is the third head coach in team history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007). Coach Harbaugh arrived in Baltimore with 24 years of pro and college coaching experience, including the previous 10 seasons with the Eagles.

He was originally hired (1998) by then-head coach Ray Rhodes and, subsequently, was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999. Prior to hiring him, the Ravens talked with over 30 people about the energetic Harbaugh, who had never been a head coach or an NFL offensive or defensive coordinator.

“Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don’t, or you’ll never separate yourself from the masses,” stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. “We’ve obviously picked the right person.”

Harbaugh’s Philadelphia special teams were consistently ranked among the NFL’s best. From 2000-05, Philly’s units finished in the Top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News’ comprehensive special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, the Eagles ranked No. 1, according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin’s composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL’s Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four seasons (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles’ special teams units from 29th to first in the league.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh’s help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another “street” free agent, helping him record the top two net punting averages (38.4 in ‘05 and 37.4 in ‘04) in Eagles history. Under “Harbs,” 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

Harbaugh, a graduate of Miami (OH) – where he played defensive back – is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His brother Jim, who was the Ravens’ starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was named the San Francisco 49ers’ head coach in January 2011. In a showdown that featured the first-ever NFL game between head coaches who are brothers, John’s Ravens bested Jim’s 49ers, 16-6, in a 2011 Thanksgiving Night (Nov. 24) primetime special. (The brothers’ sister Joani is married to Indiana basketball coach Tom Crean.)

Among John’s 28 years of coaching is a two-year stint as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1995-96). (The Bearcats finished 6-5 both seasons.) John coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the college level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the TEs at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried.

JOHN HARBAUGH

While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs and was also the recruiting coordinator. Over eight years, he recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR avg. in '95) and the second-ranked returner (current Ravens assistant special teams coach Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR avg. in '93). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the DBs coach/special teams coordinator under Cam Cameron, the Ravens' current offensive coordinator, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the DBs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

Devoted to his family and his Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He's a board member for the Port Discovery Children's Museum and a significant contributor to All Pro Dads, along with numerous Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to both the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House.

Similarly, Harbaugh has been an advocate of the U.S. Military. In 2011, he was selected as one of two finalists (Titans owner Bud Adams) for the inaugural NFL Salute to Service award for exceptional efforts to honor and support the military community. In 2012, Harbaugh was presented an Outstanding Civilian Service Award (below) by General Raymond Odierno, Chief of Staff of the Army. His passion for assisting the troops was felt immediately by the Ravens in 2008 when he helped institute Military Appreciation Day, an annual event that takes place during training camp. Since then, an estimated 2,000 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet with Ravens players and coaches each summer. Away from the field, "Harbs" often recruits players and coaches to join him during base visits. He has also spent significant time and funds putting together care packages for soldiers overseas, in addition to school supplies for military families.

Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award. He then earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan. John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Reisterstown, MD.

JERRY ROSBURG

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: NORTH DAKOTA STATE
BORN: 11/24/55, FAIRMONT, MN
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 12/5

Jerry Rosburg, a 34-year coaching veteran, has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Last season, the Ravens' special teams units were led by 2010 Pro Bowl K Billy Cundiff and P Sam Koch. Cundiff scored a career-high 122 points in 2011, despite missing a game with a calf injury. Koch, one of the league's most accurate and consistent punters, produced a career-best and franchise-record 46.5 gross average. In 2010, Rosburg's units excelled: Cundiff tied an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line), and Koch, a 2010 Pro Bowl first alternate, was second in the NFL with 39 punts inside the 20, just three short of the all-time NFL record. Rookie KOR David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr) in 2010, and the team ranked third in the league in opponent average starting field position (27.2-yard line). In the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, the 2010 Ravens were ranked eighth in the NFL, up from 18th the year before. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) In 2009, Rosburg's unit ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.2), also setting a franchise record. In 2008, special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl, and Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. In his year in Atlanta, the Rosburg-led Falcons' special teams units held a number of Top 10 rankings. Also, under his leadership, the Browns' special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL team in Gosselin's report.

2008-11: (with Baltimore) Ravens special teams units have been impressive under Rosburg's direction...K Billy Cundiff earned his first Pro Bowl in 2010, and special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl in 2008. 2011: Cundiff recorded a career-high 122 points, and P Sam Koch had a career-high and franchise-record 46.5 gross average. 2010: Cundiff tied an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line)...P Sam Koch was the Pro Bowl first alternate, ranking second in the AFC with a 39.2 net punting average...Koch also tied a team mark with 39 punts inside the 20...Rookie KOR David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr). 2009: Set a franchise record, ranking second in the NFL, by posting a 26.2-yard average on KORs... Also ranked fifth in the league in average starting field position (31.8)...Coverage units ranked fourth in opponent kickoff return average (20.3) and limited foes to an average starting line of 26.9 (second best in NFL)...Promoted to assistant head coach/special teams coordinator. 2008: Koch set a Ravens' single-season record with the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9)...Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second with 34 punts inside the 20...He was ninth in gross punting average (45.0), which is also a franchise-season record.

2007: (with Atlanta) Under Rosburg, the kickoff team finished second in the NFL in opponents average starting field position (25.5)...Falcons KOR team was sixth in the league in KOR average (24.4)...P Michael Koenen finished sixth in net punting avg. (38.8)...Special teams allowed opponents an average of 7.5 yards per PR, ranking eighth in NFL.

RAVENS

CAM CAMERON OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

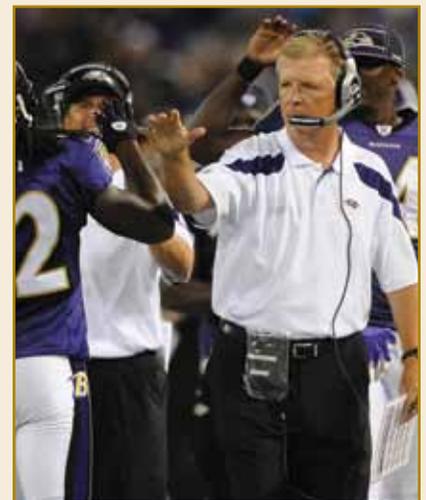

COLLEGE: INDIANA
BORN: 2/6/61, CHAPEL HILL, NC
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 14/5

Cam Cameron, among the most respected and highly-regarded coordinators in the NFL, is in his fifth season leading the Ravens' offense. He has guided a unit that has made significant improvements during the John Harbaugh Era (2008-11). Over that span, the Ravens have rushed for 131.3 yards per game (fourth in NFL) and scored 68 rushing TDs (tied for fourth best). In addition, Baltimore, which set a team record with only 22 turnovers in 2010, has committed only 87 turnovers, the NFL's fourth-fewest since 2008. The team's 2008 first-round draft pick, QB Joe Flacco, has started every game the last four seasons, becoming the first starting QB in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first four seasons. Among starting QBs, Flacco is tied (Drew Brees) for most wins in the NFL (49, including playoffs) since 2008. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's ninth best in scoring (24.4 ppg), up from 24th in 2007, also setting franchise records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22). In his first season in Baltimore (2008), Cameron built a creative offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg). Cameron brought his unique offensive mind to Baltimore after one year as the Miami Dolphins' head coach. His successful stints with the NFL's Chargers and Redskins and the NCAA's Indiana Hoosiers and Michigan Wolverines have been celebrated. While in San Diego, Cam was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl QBs Drew Brees and Philip Rivers, RB LaDainian Tomlinson and TE Antonio Gates. During Cameron's tenure (1984-93) as an assistant under Michigan's legendary head coach Bo Schembechler, the Wolverines won six Big Ten titles and played in 10 bowl games.

2008-11: (with Baltimore) 2011: Offense was 10th in NFL in rushing (124.8 ypg), 11th in time of possession (30:35), seventh in third-down percentage (42.4%) and 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg)...QB Joe Flacco had his third-straight 3,500-yard/20-TD season and Pro Bowl RB Ray Rice led the NFL with 2,068 yards from scrimmage...Ravens produced the top offensive game in team history: 553 yards at STL (9/25). 2010: Flacco became the team's all-time passing leader and set career season highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs, while only tossing 10 INTs...Ravens set a team record with only 22 turnovers...After finishing second in '09, Rice produced the NFL's third-most yards from scrimmage (1,776), averaging 111.0 per game. 2009: Ravens produced the then-top three offensive games in team history: 548 yards vs. Det., 501 vs. KC and 479 vs. Cle...For the first time in history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Flacco, 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice, 1,339) and 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason 1,028) in the same season...The 391 points scored tied 2003 as the most in franchise history...Led by Flacco, Baltimore QBs set the team record for completion percentage (62.9)...Rice and FB Le'Ron McClain represented the Ravens' offense at the Pro Bowl. 2008: Offensive unit was a significant contributor to the team being first in time of possession (33:10 avg.)... Helped guide rookie Flacco to a highly-acclaimed inaugural season...Flacco won the Diet Pepsi (fan vote) Rookie of the Year award...Ravens' 18.1 average margin of victory ranked second in the NFL...Baltimore's 24.1 points per game were second most in team history...Created an inventive offense that included WRs throwing TD passes, QBs catching passes and NTs lining up on offense in goal-line situations...Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (McClain) rushing yards... Baltimore finished with the fourth-overall rushing attack (148.5 ypg)...McClain earned his first Pro Bowl.

2007: (with Miami) Named head coach of the Miami Dolphins...With a 22-16 OT victory over the Ravens, Cam's lone season (1-15) as an NFL head coach was harsh... Depleted by injuries, including QB Trent Green, Miami was 28th overall on offense and 23rd on defense, with a run defense ranking 32nd in the league...Miami did finish fourth against the pass behind Tampa, Indianapolis and Pittsburgh...K Jay Feely (21-of-23) ranked second in the NFL in field goal percentage...Contributing significantly to the Dolphins' difficulties were a spate of injuries on both sides of the ball, a very young group of players, and rotating QBs... Green was lost for the season when placed on I.R. (10/20) with a concussion...QB Cleo Lemon, who subbed for Green and quarterbacked the game against the Ravens, earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his 23-of-39 for 315-yard-performance and a 64-yard TD pass in overtime to WR Greg Camarillo...Miami's second-round pick and former Raven, QB John Beck, started four games and played five overall, completing 60 of 107 passes for 559 yards, 1 TD and 3 INTs in his rookie campaign...Beck became the sixth Dolphins' rookie QB to start a game, in the company of Bob Griese (1967) and Dan Marino (1983), among others.

2002-06: (with San Diego) 2006: Led the NFL in scoring with a team-record 492 points...It was the third straight season the team scored more than 400 points...Over those three seasons, the Chargers amassed 1,356 points, a figure surpassed only by Indianapolis (1,388 points)...Also, it was the 10th-highest scoring total since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978...Chargers were the only team in the league to rush for 2,500 yards and pass for 3,400 yards, and they led the NFL in red zone TDs – 42 TDs in 62 trips (67.7%)...SD also set a team record by rushing for more than 100 yards in 14 of its 16 games and scored 20 or more points in all but one of those contests...QB Philip Rivers posted a 14-2 record in his first season as a starter and tied for the second-best record by a QB in his first 16 starts... Cam's play-calling helped RB LaDainian Tomlinson become the 2006 Associated Press MVP when L.T. led the league in rushing with a team-record 1,815 yards and set single-season NFL records for most total TDs (31) and most rushing TDs (28)...Six members of Cameron's offensive squad were named to the Pro Bowl. 2005: Chargers were fifth in scoring... Oversaw an offense that produced a 3,500-yard passer (Drew Brees), a 1,000-yard rusher (Tomlinson), and a 1,000-yard receiver (TE Antonio Gates)...Was the second time in team history it occurred...Chargers were one of only six NFL teams to feature such a trifecta...Brees, Tomlinson and Gates were one of only four trios in the NFL to combine for 20 TD passes and 10 TD catches...Was the second-consecutive year that the trio achieved the feat and the fifth time in team history.

2004: SD finished third in scoring with 446 points (behind Indy and KC)...Brees, Tomlinson and Gates were selected to the Pro Bowl...Cameron was named NFL Offensive Assistant Coach of the Year by Sports Illustrated.com...Brees finished with 27 TDs and 3,159 passing yards...His 104.8 passer rating ranked third in the NFL...Other Brees' awards that season included Comeback Player of the Year and Most Improved Player of the Year. 2003: Tomlinson became the first player in league history to rush for more than 1,000 yards and catch 100 passes...L.T. racked up 2,370 yards from scrimmage, second most in NFL history, and rushed for 1,645 yards, third most in team history. 2002: In his first season as offensive coordinator, Tomlinson rushed for a then-team record 1,683 yards...Brees made his first-career start, finishing with 3,284 passing yards and 17 TDs.

1997-2001: (with Indiana) As the head coach, Cameron was responsible for the creative utilization of QB Antwaan Randle El, arguably one of the most versatile athletes in college football history...Randle El finished his career as the NCAA Division I-A rushing leader among QBs and was the only player in major college football history to both rush for 40 TDs and pass for 40 TDs in a career...He ranked fifth on the NCAA Division I-A career total yardage list with 11,366 yards, one spot ahead of Doug Flutie...Antwaan had four of the top five seasons in offensive production in Indiana history. 2001: Hoosiers ranked third in the Big Ten and 19th nationally in total offense (435.3 ypg), also fourth in the country in rushing offense (269.0 ypg)...RB Levron Williams led the nation in all-purpose yardage with more than 200 yards per game, and all five of the team's O-linemen garnered All-Big Ten accolades, with four of them earning NFL contracts. 2000: Team ranked 13th nationally in total offense...Hoosiers averaged 266.4 rushing ypg, which led the Big Ten and was seventh in the nation...Team's average of 5.8 yards per catch ranked second nationally behind Nebraska. 1999: Was 34th in the country in total offense and 19th in rushing...During his tenure at Indiana, the school was one of only 13 universities in the U.S. that was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for graduation rates of 70 percent or better for three consecutive years (1999-2001). 1997: Named head coach of the Hoosiers.

1994-96: (with Washington) Launched first NFL coaching assignment as QBs coach. 1995-96: Trent Green, who served as the Redskins' third QB, became a two-time Pro Bowl QB for Kansas City later in his career and then joined Cam in Miami (2007). 1994: Oversaw development of QB Gus Frerrote, who later in his career earned a Pro Bowl.

1984-93: (with Michigan) 1992: QB Elvis Grbac ended his Wolverine career as one of the most prolific passers in school history, holding school records in eight different career-passing categories...Was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas and Davey O'Brien Awards. 1991: The Grbac/Desmond Howard duo set an NCAA record for most TDs by the same QB/WR tandem in a career (31)...Tied NCAA single-season record for TDs by the same passer and receiver (19). 1990: Added WRs to his QBs duties, coaching Howard (Heisman Trophy winner)...Also was the position coach for future NFL players such as QBs Grbac and Todd Collins, in addition to WRs Derrick Alexander (former Raven) and Amani Toomer, among others. 1986: Named WRs coach. 1984: Launched coaching career as an assistant under the late Bo Schembechler...Developed several premier QBs, including John Harbaugh's younger brother (and 49ers head coach), Jim Harbaugh, who was drafted by Chicago in the first round of 1987 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE: Played football and basketball for the Hoosiers... Cam earned two letters as a QB for Lee Corso (1982) and Sam Wyche (1983), and two playing basketball for the legendary Bob Knight...Suffered a knee injury (football) in his senior year that ended his playing career...Graduated in 1983 with a degree in business.

PERSONAL: Cameron was a two-sport prep standout for South Vigo (Terre Haute, IN) HS...His basketball jersey (No.

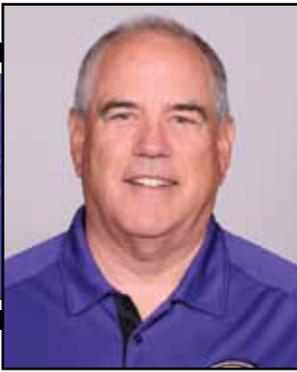

10) was retired at South Vigo in 2010...Cameron's stepfather, Tom Harp, coached at Indiana State...The two each have the distinction of coaching a Heisman Trophy winner...Cam coached Desmond Howard at Michigan, while Harp was an assistant coach at Army when RB Pete Dawkins won the award in 1958...Was an All-America selection at QB as a senior and earned All-State honors twice and All-County honors three times...Named Vigo County's Athlete of the Year twice (1978-79)...Also led his team to three consecutive state basketball finals...Was named the winner of the state's prestigious Trester Award for mental attitude in 1979...Was named National Athlete of the Year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes that same year...Cam and his wife, Missy, have four children: sons Tommy, Danny, and Christopher, and daughter Elizabeth.

CAM CAMERON QUICK HITS

DEAN PEES DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: BOWLING GREEN
BORN: 9/4/49, DUNKIRK, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 9/3

Dean Pees was promoted to defensive coordinator in January 2012, after guiding the team's linebackers for two seasons. He is the sixth defensive coordinator in Ravens history. Pees, who was New England's defensive coordinator from 2006-09, leads the vaunted Baltimore unit, which has finished as the third-best scoring defense (points allowed per game) four-consecutive years (16.6 ppg in 2011). The four-straight years tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed. The No. 3-overall defense (288.9 yards per game) features four Pro Bowlers from 2011: LB Ray Lewis (13 Pro Bowls), S Ed Reed (8), OLB Terrell Suggs (5) and DT Haloti Ngata (3). Baltimore's "D" was also second both in rush defense (92.6 ypg) and third-down defense (32.1%) in 2011. Pees arrived in Baltimore following a six-year stint with the New England Patriots (2004-09). During his tenure guiding the defense, the Patriots were the only NFL team to finish in the Top 10 in scoring (points allowed) in four straight seasons. New England's unit also allowed less than 20 points per game in every season under Pees' guidance, the best run of any coordinator in the Bill Belichick tenure. His coaching credentials include six years (1998-2003) as head coach at Kent State and 15 seasons as a defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, including the 1983 season when he coached Ravens head coach John Harbaugh at Miami (OH).

2010-11: (with Baltimore) 2011: Defense allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-consecutive season...Two of his LBs, Ray Lewis (13th) and Terrell Suggs (fifth), earned a trip to the Pro Bowl... Despite missing four games due to a toe injury, Lewis led the team with 90 tackles, and Suggs, the 2011 Defensive Player of the Year, posted a team-leading and career-high 14 sacks, while also forcing an NFL-high 7 FFs. 2010: Ravens allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (16.9 ppg) for the third-consecutive season. Lewis led the team with 145 tackles and became the only player in NFL history with at least 35 sacks and 30 INTs...Joined Baltimore as the team's linebackers coach.

2004-09: (with New England) 2009: Pees led the Patriots' defense that ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense (320.2 ypg) and fifth in scoring defense (17.8 points per game). 2008: New England's defensive unit ranked 10th in the NFL, allowing just 309.0 yards per contest...Patriots surrendered 19.3 points per game and earned an 11-5 record despite using 22 different starters on defense. 2007: NE's defense contributed to the first 16-0 regular season in NFL history...Defense allowed 274 points (17.4 ppg) and ranked fourth in the NFL in yards per game (288.3), which were the fewest permitted by a Patriots' defense in 28 years...NE finished second in the league with 47 sacks and sent three starters to the Pro Bowl (LB Mike Vrabel, NT Vince Wilfork and CB Asante Samuel). 2006: In his first season as defensive coordinator, Pees' defense set a franchise record for points allowed per game (14.8), which was second in the NFL...Defense was fourth in the NFL in takeaways (35). 2005: Tutored a linebackers' unit that featured three of the defense's top five tacklers and accounted for 22 of the team's 33 sacks. 2004: In his first NFL season, Pees mentored a linebacker group that produced three of the team's top four tacklers...Defense ranked sixth in the NFL against the run, while the linebackers recorded 27.5 sacks... Tedy Bruschi finished second on the team with 128 tackles and earned his first Pro Bowl selection, while Willie McGinest paced the defense with 9.5 sacks.

TERYL AUSTIN SECONDARY COACH

COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
BORN: 3/3/65, SHARON, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 9/2

Teryl Austin is in his second year as the Ravens' secondary coach. A 21-year coaching veteran, including seven seasons as a defensive backs coach in the NFL with Arizona and Seattle, Austin had a one-year stint as the University of Florida's defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach in 2010. Austin, who has mentored some of the NFL's top defensive backs with the Cardinals and Seahawks, helped guide both teams to recent Super Bowl appearances (Seattle in 2005 and Arizona in 2008). He has been successful coaching the secondary both at top collegiate programs and at the NFL level. While Austin was a senior (1987) safety at the University of Pittsburgh, Ravens head coach John Harbaugh was early in his coaching career, tutoring the Panthers' TEs.

2011: (with Baltimore) In Austin's first year guiding the secondary, the Ravens allowed the NFL's fewest passing TDs with 11 (Jets were second at 15)...Defense allowed the third-fewest points (16.6 ppg) in the NFL for the fourth-consecutive season, tying an NFL record of being in the Top 3.

2010: (with Florida) With Austin at the helm of Florida's defense, the Gators recorded 22 INTs, fourth most in the nation. Returning four of those thefts for TDs, Florida also produced the most INT return yards (538), while S Ahmad Black ranked No. 1 individually with 171 yards...In conference games, the Gators led the SEC in total defense, yielding just 310.8 yards per game, including 175.5 through the air.

2007-09: (with Arizona) 2009: Three DBs earned the Pro Bowl: CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, S Antrel Rolle and S Adrian Wilson. 2008: Mentored 2008 first-round pick Rodgers-Cromartie, who led the Cardinals with 4 INTs in the regular season and added 2 more in the playoffs during Arizona's run to Super Bowl XLIII. 2007: Austin's secondary helped the Cardinals lead the NFL in INT-TDs (6) and in return yardage (551).

2003-06: (with Seattle) Played a key role in the development of the Seahawks' young secondary, which was comprised mostly of draft choices...Mentoring CB Marcus Trufant (first round, 2003), S Ken Hamlin (second round, 2003), S Michael Boulware (second round, 2004) and CB Kelly Jennings (first round, 2006), Seattle produced 67 INTs during Austin's four seasons, tying for the NFL's 10th most in that span.

1999-2002: (with Michigan) Defensive backs coach for the Wolverines...Mentored NFL talents Marlin Jackson and Cato June.

1996-98: (with Syracuse) Coached defensive backs...Guided a number of future NFL defenders including Will Allen, Keith Bulluck, Donovan Darius and Tebucky Jones.

1993-95: (with Wake Forest) Tutored defensive backs.

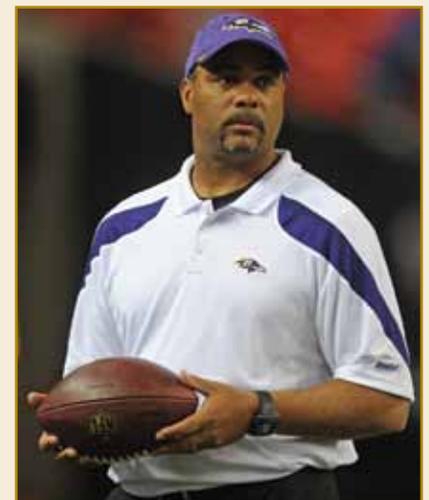

1991-92: (with Penn State) Entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter and four-year letterman at Pittsburgh (1984-87), Austin earned his bachelor's degree in communications ('88).

PERSONAL: Austin attended training camps of the Washington Redskins and Hamilton Tiger-Cats (CFL) before playing for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991...Attended Sharon (PA) HS... Austin and his wife, April, have five children: sons Tyler, Trey and Torin, and daughters Alexa and Alivia.

CLARENCE BROOKS

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
BORN: 5/20/51, NEW YORK CITY, NY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 20/8

Clarence Brooks was one of six assistant coaches retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. "C.B." is in his eighth year with the team guiding the Ravens' tough and stingy defensive line. The Brooks-led defensive front produced a third-straight Pro Bowl for standout DT Haloti Ngata in 2011. Led by Ngata and the D-line, the 2011 Ravens were the No. 2 rush defense, marking the sixth-consecutive campaign that the Ravens have ranked in the Top 5 in rushing defense (2006-11). Baltimore has held opponents to under 4.0 yards per rush in each year of the team's existence (16 years, 1996-2011), ranking as the longest streak in NFL history. In 2010, the Ravens allowed only five rushing TDs, tying (Pittsburgh) for fewest in the NFL. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's stingiest defense against the run, allowing 3.4 yards per rush. The defense has been ranked in the Top 10 in total yards allowed in each of Brooks' seven full seasons in Baltimore (2005-11). In his second year (2006), the defense ranked No. 1 (264.1 ypg), while finishing second overall in 2008 (261.1 ypg). Prior to his 2005 arrival in Baltimore, Brooks coached successful NFL D-line units in Miami, Cleveland and Chicago. He was also instrumental in the notable "Desert Swarm" defense at the University of Arizona, which led the nation in scoring defense in 1992.

2005-11: (with Baltimore) 2011: Led by DT Haloti Ngata, who earned his third-straight Pro Bowl, the D-line helped the team allow the third-fewest points (16.6 ppg) in the NFL for the fourth-consecutive year, tying a league mark for ranking in the Top 3...Unit was No. 3 overall, including second against the rush. 2010: Defense allowed only 16.9 points per game, the NFL's third-best mark...Five rushing TDs permitted tied

(Pittsburgh) for NFL's fewest. 2009: Defense ranked No. 3 overall (300.5 ypg) and fifth against the run (93.3 ypg)...Ravens allowed an NFL-best 3.4 yards per rush and the third-fewest points per game (16.3). 2008: Defense ranked second overall and third against the run, all without the team's second all-time tackler and starting NT Kelly Gregg, who missed the entire season due to a knee injury...Ngata was a second-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl first alternate...Top reserve DE Dwan Edwards also spent the year on IR (back)...DT Justin Bannan filled in admirably for Gregg, posting a career-high 56 tackles and his first-career INT...Team did not allow a 100-yard rusher, extending the streak to 35-straight games. 2007: Defense ranked second against the rush and sixth overall in total defense...The dynamic duo of Gregg (111) and Ngata (94) notched 205 tackles, surpassing DEs Michael McCrary (103) and Rob Burnett's (97) team-record 200 by a D-line tandem in 2000...Gregg made a career-high 111 tackles, adding three sacks, while earning his second-straight USA Today All-Joe honor...Ngata, in his second year, produced another stellar season with career highs in tackles (94) and sacks (3), also making the All-Joe Team. 2006: Defense ranked first in points allowed per game (12.6)...Baltimore was also first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first inside the 20 (33.3% TDs allowed); allowed the fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs (236); first in take-away/give-away ratio (+17); and second in sacks (60 to SD's 61)...DE Trevor Pryce registered 13 sacks to lead the Ravens' strong pass rush...Gregg led the D-line with 101 tackles and returned a fumble vs. Oak. a career- and franchise-long 59 yards...Ngata, who was named to the NFL's All-Rookie Team, started all 16 games, snagging

Jim Caldwell, a 35-year coaching veteran, joined the Ravens as the team's quarterbacks coach in February 2012. Caldwell arrived in Baltimore after coaching the last 10 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, including the previous three as head coach. In his first year at the helm (2009), he led the Colts to the AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XLIV. Caldwell, who earned a Super Bowl ring (2006) with Indy, spent six seasons tutoring one of the NFL's all-time great QBs, Peyton Manning. During the course of Caldwell's time in Indianapolis, the Colts achieved much success, tying an NFL record with nine-consecutive playoff appearances and winning six AFC South division titles. The Colts annually had one of the NFL's most prolific offenses, finishing in the Top 3 in scoring offense for five-straight seasons (2003-07). Caldwell, who also has an extensive background on the collegiate level, spent eight years as Wake Forest's head coach.

2002-11: (with Indianapolis) Guided perennial Pro Bowl QB Peyton Manning, serving as his QBs coach during a six-season span (2002-07) when Manning produced NFL highs in completions (2,482), completion percentage (66.5), passing yards (29,210), passing TDs (222) and passer rating (100.5)... Guided Manning to three of his four NFL MVP awards, including in 2004, when he threw for a career-high 49 TDs (only 10 INTs) and set a single-season personal-best 121.1 QB rating (second-best mark in NFL history)...During Caldwell's time in Indianapolis, the Colts earned a trip to the postseason nine-straight seasons. 2006: Colts won Super Bowl XLI, and Manning earned the game's MVP. 2004: Manning set team mark with 49 TDs en route to his second NFL MVP award. 2002: Joined Colts as the team's quarterbacks coach.

2001: (with Tampa Bay) Joined the Buccaneers to coach their quarterbacks in his first NFL stint...QB Brad Johnson set a then-team single-season mark with 340 pass completions.

1993-2000: (with Wake Forest) His first head-coaching assignment was with the Demon Deacons...During his tenure, Wake Forest's passing offense ranked in the NCAA's Top 25 four times, including 10th in 1995. 1999: Led team to its first winning season and bowl game (Aloha) since '92.

1986-92 (with Penn State) Tutored QB Kerry Collins as quarterbacks coach/passing game coordinator. 1986: Joined the Nittany Lions as wide receivers coach, helping PSU earn a National Championship.

1985: (with Louisville) Coached the defensive backs.

RAVENS

WADE HARMAN TIGHT ENDS COACH

COLLEGE: DRAKE
BORN: 10/1/63, CORYDON, IA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 16/14

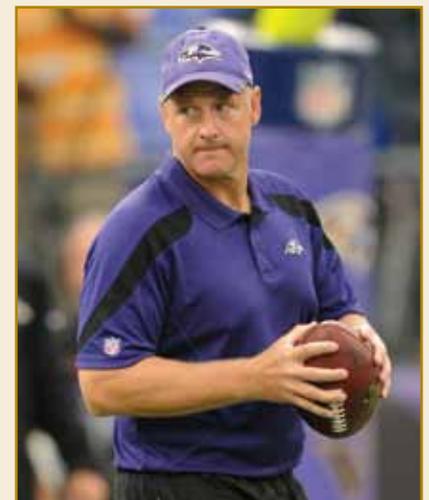

Now in his 14th season as the Ravens' tight ends coach, Wade Harman is the only remaining coach from Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV-winning team. He was one of six assistants retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. Under Harman's guidance, Pro Bowl TE Todd Heap became the team's all-time leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs in 2005 (Derrick Mason is current leader in receptions and yards). From 2002-10, Heap caught the fifth-most receptions (451) and receiving yards (5,286) and the fourth-most TDs (40) among NFL tight ends. Historically, Heap is 11th on the NFL's all-time receptions list for TEs. Soon after joining the Ravens in 1999, Harman coached Hall of Fame TE Shannon Sharpe (2000-01), who signed with Baltimore as a free agent and helped the team win the Super Bowl. The Ravens' longest-tenured coach has also tutored a number of young players, including Baltimore's 2010 draft picks Ed Dickson (third round) and Dennis Pitta (fourth round). Harman entered the NFL ranks in 1997 as a coaching assistant for the Minnesota Vikings.

1999-2011: (with Baltimore) 2011: Second-year TEs Ed Dickson (54-528-5) and Dennis Pitta (40-405-3) were outstanding, combining for 94 catches, 933 receiving yards and 8 TDs... Only one other TE duo in the NFL (New England) finished the year with 40 receptions each. 2010: Veteran TE Todd Heap continued to steadily climb the NFL's all-time receptions chart among TEs. 2009: Heap turned in another solid season, finishing as the team's third-leading receiver (53-593) and second in receiving TDs (6)...Against Denver (11/1), Heap became the 23rd TE in NFL history to record 400 catches in a career...Ravens were NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4 ppg). 2008: Heap started all 16 games and finished third on team in receiving (35-403)...Ravens led NFL in time of possession (33:10) and were second in average margin of victory (18.1). 2007: The injury-depleted offense ranked 22nd overall in the league and started three different QBs – also because of injuries...Heap (thigh) missed six games...By Week 17, there were five TEs listed on the roster...Quinn Sypniewski, who started nine of 15 games subbing for Heap and Dan Wilcox, ranked fourth on the team in receptions (34-246). 2006: Heap completed a Pro Bowl-deserving season, ranking first on the team (73-765) and posting a team-best 6 TDs...Wilcox started six of 14 games (20-166) and caught a career-high three TDs...Sypniewski was instrumental in pass protection, with the Ravens allowing just 17 sacks all season (second-lowest total in the NFL). 2005: Heap became the Ravens' all-time receiving leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs... Voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, Heap was third among active NFL TEs in catches and yards from 2002-05 (behind Tony Gonzalez and Jeremy Shockey)...He ranked second in the AFC in third-down receptions, behind WR Derrick Mason's 30...The tandem of Mason and Heap formed the hottest WR/TE combination in the NFL with 161 receptions, leading all duos in that category...Finished third in the NFL among TEs (75-855), posting 7 TDs (behind Antonio Gates and Gonzalez). 2004: The Ravens struggled all season with injuries to key Pro Bowl-type players, especially on offense...Heap missed 10 games and most of two others, but still managed to lead Ravens TEs (27-303 and 3 TDs)...LT Jonathan Ogden missed four games...C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games of the season, but returned to start four games at RG and one at center. 2003: Heap led the team in receptions for the second consecutive season (57-693), also making his

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

COLLEGE: INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA
BORN: 11/7/66, PITTSBURGH, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 13/5

Jim Hostler is in his fifth year as the team's wide receivers coach. Hostler, a former NFL offensive coordinator, guides a unit led by veteran Anquan Boldin and second-year standout Torrey Smith. Added to the mix after a trade with the Arizona Cardinals in '10, Boldin, now in his third year with Baltimore, made an immediate impact. He became the fastest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions (98 games) in 2010. Smith set Ravens first-year standards in receptions (50), receiving yards (841) and TDs (7) in 2011. His 841 receptions were third in the NFL among rookies. Smith also became the first rookie in NFL history to record 3 TD receptions in a first quarter. Hostler arrived in Baltimore in 2008 after a three-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers, serving as offensive coordinator in his final year (2007). Under Hostler's guidance, WR Derrick Mason became the Ravens' all-time leading receiver in catches (471) and receiving yards (5,777). As WRs coach for the New York Jets (2004) and assistant WRs coach for the Saints (2001-02), the gifted former college cornerback helped develop players like Santana Moss, Wayne Chrebet, Justin McCareins and Donte' Stallworth.

2008-11: (with Baltimore) 2011: Anquan Boldin led a young receiving corps that included Torrey Smith, who set Ravens first-year standards in receptions (50), receiving yards (841) and TDs (7)...His 841 receptions were third in the NFL among rookies. 2010: Boldin became the fastest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions (98 games) in the Week 3 game against Cleveland...After his performance, Boldin won the AFC Player of the Week award, the first Ravens WR to earn the honor since 1999...WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL history to record at least 60 catches in 11-consecutive seasons, joining Hall of Famer Jerry Rice and Falcons TE Tony Gonzalez. 2009: In his 200th career game, Mason became the 16th player in NFL history to post 850 receptions...He led the team with 7 receiving TDs, while recording his eighth 1,000-yard receiving season...The go-to wideout also tallied the fourth-most yards on third down (347) in the NFL and also became the 23rd NFL player to reach 11,000 receiving yards. 2008: Mason turned in another stellar season, leading the team with 80 catches for 1,037 yards and 5 TDs...He also surpassed 10,000 career receiving yards and extended his consecutive games played mark to 106...Versatile WR Mark Clayton caught 3 TDs, including a 70-yarder, and threw a 32-yard pass to Mason.

2005-07: (with San Francisco) 2007: Hostler was promoted to offensive coordinator after extensive work on offense and strong tutoring of 2005 No. 1 overall pick QB Alex Smith... Smith battled through injuries and started seven games before being placed on IR (shoulder). 2006: Smith became the franchise's first QB to take every snap in the regular season...Engineered a fourth-quarter comeback with 2 TD passes and an 18-yard TD run at Seattle (12/14) in a nationally-televised 24-14 win...Finished with single-season career highs in three categories: attempts (442), completions (257) and yards (2,890). 2005: Hostler was hired as QBs coach by Mike Nolan, then-49ers head coach and former Ravens defensive coordinator... Smith amassed 875 yards (84-of-165 passing) in his seven starts (nine games played) as a rookie.

2003-04: (with NY Jets) 2004: Coached both QBs and WRs... WR Justin McCareins had his best season under Hostler, starting 16 games and finishing with a career-high 56

ANDY MOELLER OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
BORN: 6/15/64, GRAND RAPIDS, MI
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 5/5

Andy Moeller is in his second year guiding the Ravens' offensive linemen. He spent his first three seasons as the team's assistant offensive line coach. Led by veteran C Matt Birk, a six-time Pro Bowler, the 2011 offensive line produced two first-time Pro Bowlers: G Marshal Yanda and G Ben Grubbs. Baltimore's offense was 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg). Also in 2011, RB Ray Rice led the league in yards from scrimmage (2,068). In 2009, the Ravens set a team record with 22 rushing TDs and also tallied three of Baltimore's four best offensive total yards games. In 2008, Baltimore was the NFL's fourth-ranked rushing team (148.5). Moeller entered the NFL ranks in 2008 after coaching Michigan's offensive line the previous six years, where he tutored two All-Americans: C David Baas (2004) and T Jake Long (2006-07), the first-overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by Miami. Under Moeller, Michigan dominated the All-Big Ten selections list for O-linemen, and many of his pupils moved on to successful NFL careers. In four out of five seasons, Moeller's offensive line helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher, twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Chris Perry (2002-03) and a pair of Michigan's top-10 season rushing performances from Mike Hart (2004, 2006).

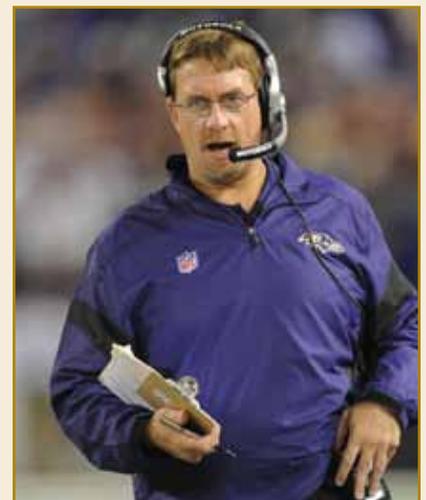

2008-11: (with Baltimore) 2011: G Marshal Yanda and G Ben Grubbs each earned their first Pro Bowl nod...Offense was 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg)...RB Ray Rice led the league in yards from scrimmage (2,068). 2010: Hampered by injuries, the re-shuffled O-line protected QB Joe Flacco, who set career highs in passing yards (3,622) and TDs (25) and a single-season team record for passer rating (93.6). 2009: Baltimore was the NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4 ppg)...Standout T Michael Oher was named to the All-Rookie Team. 2008: Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Ray Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (Le'Ron McClain) rushing yards...Team permitted only 33 sacks, second fewest in team history...Helped guide the NFL's youngest starting O-line and dealt with injuries that eventually broke up the opening day lineup.

2000-07: (with Michigan) 2007: From 2004-07, 11 of 25 All-Big Ten first-team selections along the O-line were Wolverines... Michigan was the only team to have multiple first-team All-Conference selections during that five-year stretch. 2004: O-line was anchored by C David Baas, the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy as the nation's outstanding center...Baas earned consensus All-America honors and was named the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year after switching from guard to center...RG Matt Lentz and LT Adam Stenavich received All-Big Ten first-team honors, with RT Jake Long collecting second-team accolades. 2003: O-line was among the nation's best, balancing a strong running game led by All-America tailback Chris Perry and the passing arm of All-Big Ten first-team QB John Navarre...Offense set school records for total offensive plays (1,014) and yards (5,807)... Moeller's O-line helped pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in five out of six years: twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Perry (2002-03) and three times by Michigan's all-time leading rusher Mike Hart (2004, 2006-07). 2002: Named offensive line coach. 2001: As Wolverines OTs/TEs coach, Moeller led another strong group...TEs unit caught 52

TED MONACHINO LINEBACKERS COACH

COLLEGE: MISSOURI
BORN: 10/15/66, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 7/3

Ted Monachino (mah-nah-KEY-no) joined the Ravens as the team's outside linebackers coach in 2010 and was promoted to linebackers coach in February 2012. Monachino, who excels as a pass-rushing instructor, helped lead five-time Pro Bowl OLB Terrell Suggs to the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year award in 2011. He also helped guide the Ravens to an AFC-high 48 sacks (tied for third in the NFL) in 2011, the third most in team history. The Ravens' defense has ranked third in points allowed for four-straight seasons and finished in the Top 5 in rushing defense the past two seasons (2010-11). Monachino arrived in Baltimore after four years coaching Jacksonville's defensive line, his first NFL coaching stint. Before entering the NFL, Monachino coached in the collegiate ranks, including at Arizona State, helping guide Suggs, the former Sun Devil, during his All-American career.

2010-11: (with Baltimore) Coached outside linebackers for two seasons after joining the staff in 2010. 2011: The Ravens' defense allowed the league's third-fewest points (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year (tying an NFL record for finishing in the Top 3) and finished with the league's second-fewest rushing yards allowed (92.6 ypg)...Guided the outside linebackers, helping OLB Terrell Suggs earn the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award and his fifth Pro Bowl nod...Suggs was named first-team All-Pro after leading the AFC with a career-high 14 sacks and an NFL-best 7 forced fumbles. 2010: Ravens defense allowed the league's third-fewest points (16.9 ppg) for the third-straight year... Suggs led the team with 11 sacks, earning Pro Bowl honors.

2006-09: (with Jacksonville) Debuted as a professional coach with the Jaguars...Played a major role in developing DEs Derrick Harvey and Quentin Groves. 2008: Was promoted to defensive line coach. 2006: Hired to the Jaguars' coaching staff as assistant defensive line coach/defensive assistant... Jacksonville tied for fourth in NFL rushing defense that season, allowing 91.3 yards per game.

2001-05: (with Arizona State) Coached the Sun Devils' defensive line under Dirk Koetter, now Atlanta's offensive coordinator...Guided Ravens 2003 first-round draft choice LB Terrell Suggs during his All-American collegiate career.

2002: Suggs set the NCAA single-season record for sacks (24) and tackles for loss (31.5) en route to winning the Bronco Nagurski Award, given to the best defensive player in the nation, the Rotary Lombardi Award for the country's top lineman and the Morris Trophy for the Pac-10's top lineman. 2001: Suggs finished second in the Pac-10 in sacks (10) and third in tackles for loss (18).

2000: (with Boise State) Worked with the Broncos' D-line... Aided Boise State in leading the Big West in total defense (367.6 ypg), rushing defense (139.2 ypg), scoring defense (22.8 ppg) and sacks (31).

1999: (with Southwest Missouri State) Coached the outside linebackers...Was also responsible for recruiting Missouri high school and Texas junior college prospects.

1998: (with James Madison) Was the defensive line coach... Coached DE Chris Morant, who tied the Dukes' then-single-season sacks record (11).

1996-97: (with Texas Christian) 1997: Worked as a graduate assistant coaching safeties. 1996: Was a graduate assistant coach for the defensive line.

WILBERT MONTGOMERY RUNNING BACKS COACH

COLLEGE: ABILENE CHRISTIAN
BORN: 9/16/54, GREENVILLE, MS
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 25/5 (9 PLAYING / 16 COACHING)

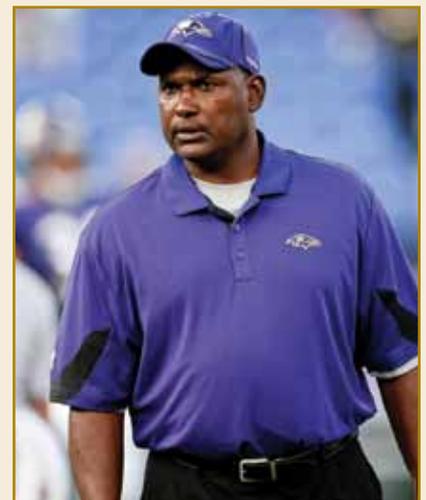

Wilbert Montgomery is in his fifth year as the Ravens' running backs coach. Montgomery has 25 years of NFL experience (nine as a player) and has built an impressive track record in his 16 years of coaching. Led by Pro Bowler Ray Rice, Baltimore's backs have been stellar over the last few years under Montgomery's guidance. Rice led the NFL with 2,068 yards from scrimmage in 2011 and was second in the league with 1,364 rushing yards. Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). In 2010, Rice posted the NFL's third-most yards from scrimmage (1,776). In 2009, the Ravens' run game set a team record with 22 rushing TDs, while earning a No. 5 NFL ranking (137.5 ypg). In his first two years, Montgomery guided a superb group of rushers, including Rice ('09) and Le'Ron McClain ('08-09) to Pro Bowl seasons. Rice was one of two NFL players to record 2,000 yards from scrimmage (2,041), ranking second in the NFL with 127.6 net yards per game (2009). Another Ravens Pro Bowler, Willis McGahee, scored a team-high 12 rushing TDs (14 overall) in 2009. Montgomery's rushing unit ranked No. 4 in the NFL in 2008, producing 148.5 rushing yards per game. The former Eagles' star rusher joined the Ravens in 2008 after two seasons with the Detroit Lions (preceded by nine stellar seasons with the St. Louis Rams). Montgomery helped construct one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, when the Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense on the road to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV (1999). From 1999-2001, St. Louis became the only NFL team to amass at least 500 points in three-consecutive seasons (526 in '99, 540 in '00 and 503 in '01).

2008-11: (with Baltimore) 2011: Pro Bowl RB Ray Rice led the NFL with 2,068 yards from scrimmage (second in Ravens history) and was second in the league with 1,364 rushing yards...Rice also set a team mark with 15 TDs (12 rushing) and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). 2010: Rice compiled the NFL's third-most scrimmage yards (1,776)...Rice (63) was one of three Ravens to catch over 60 passes. 2009: Ravens were NFL's fifth-ranked run team (137.5 ypg), and the 22 rushing TDs bested 2008's 20 as the most in team history... Rice earned his first Pro Bowl after tallying 2,041 yards from scrimmage (second in NFL)...Rice became one of only eight players in NFL history to produce 1,000 rushing yards and 700 receiving yards in a season...FB Le'Ron McClain's steady season secured a second-straight Pro Bowl berth... RB Willis McGahee scored a team-high 12 rushing TDs (14 overall, tying a franchise record). 2008: Guided a Ravens' run game that improved from a No. 16 NFL ranking in 2007 to a No. 4 ranking in 2008...McClain earned his first Pro Bowl after a 902-yard, 10-TD season...McClain also was honored as an Associated Press All-Pro...He teamed with McGahee (671 rush yards) and the rookie Rice (454 yards) to become the only NFL team with a trio of RBs with over 450, 600 and 900 yards...Run game was a key factor in the team leading the NFL in time of possession (33:10)...Team's 592 rushing attempts were an NFL season high, while Baltimore's 132 rushing first downs were also the league's second most.

2006-07: (with Detroit) Injuries to running backs forced Montgomery to work with a total of five different starters, including three in 2007. 2006: Helped RB Kevin Jones evolve

1997-2005: (with St. Louis) During his tenure, Wilbert helped cultivate two of the league's elite RBs: Marshall Faulk and Steven Jackson. 2005: Coached Jackson to his first 1,000-yard season...Jackson finished with 1,046 yards and 8 TDs on 254 attempts (4.1 avg.) while emerging as one of the bright young stars in the NFL under Montgomery's tutelage. 2004: Wilbert teamed Jackson, in his rookie year, with Faulk, to form a dynamic RB tandem, combining for nearly 1,500 rushing yards...Jackson finished third among NFL rookies with 673 rushing yards and 4 TDs on 134 attempts (5.0 avg.). 2003: Switched back to coaching RBs. 2000-02: Coached the Rams' TEs. 1999: Rams acquired a Pro Bowler in Faulk, who posted his first 1,000-yard receiving season...Also compiled an NFL-record 2,429 yards from scrimmage and was named NFL Offensive Player of the Year...Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense (fifth in rushing) on the way to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV. 1997: Hired as RBs coach.

NFL PLAYER (1977-85): Montgomery was one of the NFL's premier running backs in his nine-year professional career...In eight seasons with Philadelphia, he virtually rewrote the Eagles' record books...Montgomery was an inaugural inductee of the Eagles' Honor Roll in 1987. 1985: (with Det.) Played his final season with the Detroit Lions. 1977-1984: (with Phi.) Holds the Eagles' franchise record in six rushing categories: career rushing yards (6,538), career rushing attempts (1,465), yards in a season (1,512 in 1979), career 100-yard rushing games (26), 100-yard rushing games in a season (8 in 1981) and rushing TDs in a game (3, tied with many players). 1981: Recorded 1,402 yards on the season (nearly 5.0 yards per carry). 1980: Earned All-Pro honors, but was hampered by injuries and was questionable for the NFC Championship game, but did play...On the Eagles' second offensive play – a hand-off by QB Ron Jaworski – Wilbert sped 42 yards to the end zone for a TD...Gained a total of 194 yards in that game, leading the Eagles to their first Super Bowl (XV). 1979: Led the NFL in combined yards from scrimmage with 2,012, garnering his second-consecutive Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. 1978: Gained 1,220 yards on 259 attempts, scoring 9 TDs...Earned first Pro Bowl. 1977: Spent rookie season returning kickoffs, leading the NFC (26.9-yard avg.)...Notched a 99-yard TD...Selected by the Eagles in the sixth round (154th overall).

COLLEGE: A four-year starting RB for Abilene Christian who set the NAIA record for career TDs with 76...Set the record for TDs by a freshman (37, 1973), leading the Wildcats to the NAIA Division I National Championship...Lettered in track as a sprinter...Inducted into College Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

PERSONAL: Attended Greenville (MS) HS...One of four brothers with NFL experience: Cleotha (Cin., Cle. and Oak./LA), Tyrone (Oak.) and Fred (KC and Phi.)...Wilbert and his wife, Patti, have three children: twins, Brendan and Briana, and a son, Tavian...Montgomery also has a daughter, Sherrita, and a son, Derron.

RICE RANKS NO. 1

Two-time Pro Bowl RB Ray Rice posted a career-best and an NFL-high 2,068 yards from scrimmage in 2011, also adding a Ravens-record 15 total TDs (12 rushing and 3 receiving). Rice's 1,364 rushing yards ranked second in the NFL, while his 2,068 total yards marked the second time (2009: 2,041) that he's surpassed the 2K scrimmage yards milestone during his career.

CRAIG VER STEEG

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: USC
BORN: 9/11/60, REDONDO BEACH, CA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 7/5

Craig Ver Steeg (pronounced ver-STEgg) is in his fifth year working with the Ravens' offense. Ver Steeg, who has 29 years of coaching experience, has established himself as an elite coach of quarterbacks, receivers and running backs. During the past four years, the offense has made strides under offensive coordinator Cam Cameron with whom Ver Steeg works closely. Ver Steeg assists the Cameron-led offensive coaching staff to help make sure players are fully prepped both for fast-paced practices and on game days. In 2011, Baltimore's offense was 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), and Pro Bowl RB Ray Rice led the NFL with 2,068 yards from scrimmage. A longtime collegiate coach, Ver Steeg guided two current NFL players who benefited under his tutelage on the college level: Rice (Ravens) and QB Alex Smith (49ers). Ver Steeg's knowledge and experience are invaluable assets to the continued development of the Ravens' offense.

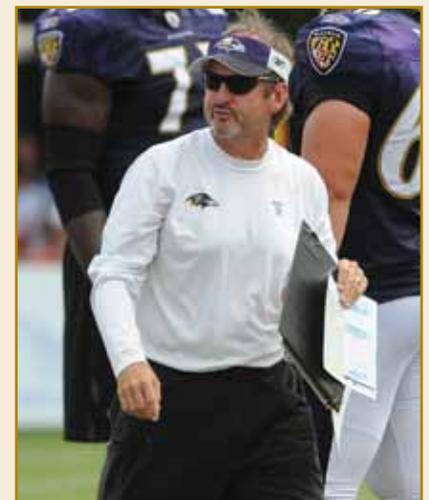

2008-11: (with Baltimore) 2011: Helped guide Ravens QBs... QB Joe Flacco became the first starting QB in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first four seasons... Pro Bowl RB Ray Rice led the NFL in yards from scrimmage (2,068), second-highest total in Ravens history. 2010: Worked closely with Cam Cameron in helping progress a balanced offense... QB Joe Flacco set career highs with 3,622 yards, 25 TDs and a 93.6 passer rating. 2009: Assisted the offense with game preparation for a unit that was the NFL's ninth-best in scoring (24.4 ppg), also setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22)... Baltimore also produced the then-top three offensive games in team history: 548 yards vs. Det., 501 vs. KC and 479 vs. Cle. and ranked fifth overall in rushing yardage (137.5

ypg). 2008: Baltimore finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (148.5 ypg) and 11th in points per game (24.1)... Ravens led the NFL in time of possession (33:10 avg.) and their 18.1 margin of victory ranked second.

2003-07: (with Rutgers) Ver Steeg tutored some of the most productive players in school history. 2007: Served as RBs coach and guided Ravens 2008 second-round draft pick, All-American RB Ray Rice, who rushed for a school-record 2,012 yards and 24 TDs on 380 carries (154.8 ypg)... Part of an offensive unit that produced 456.3 net yards per game... Scarlet Knights averaged 198.0 rushing yards per game... Rice finished his career holding several Rutgers records, including career yards rushing (4,926), career rushing TDs (49) and single-game rushing yards (280); became the 13th player in NCAA history to gain more than 2,000 rushing yards in a season... Was also a Doak Walker Award finalist (nation's top running back) and earned team MVP honors for the second straight year. 2006: Rutgers rushing attack ranked 15th in the country, averaging 180.2 yards per game... Scarlet Knights also produced 29.8 points per game, ranking 22nd among Division I teams. 2005: Rutgers was second in the Big East in both total offense (406.3 ypg) and passing (234.6 ypg). 2004: Scarlet Knights boasted the nation's No. 6 overall and Big East's top-ranked passing attack (310.5 ypg)... Rutgers also finished third in the Big East in total offense (407.7 ypg). 2003: As offensive coordinator (2003-06), oversaw a unit that scored 329 points, the fifth-highest point total in school history... Scarlet Knights produced 4,423 total yards of offense, fifth-most in Rutgers annals... Also coached Rutgers QBs (2003-06)... In dual roles, he tutored

ERIC DeCOSTA ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: COLBY
BORN: 4/10/71, TAUNTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 17/17

Eric DeCosta has been a part of the Ravens organization since the beginning. A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club" (includes members of the team's personnel staff who started with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input), DeCosta joined the franchise in an entry-level position in 1996. He moved up the personnel ranks, first as an area scout, then as director of college scouting (six years) and director of player personnel (three years) before his most recent promotion to assistant general manager (2012). DeCosta assists GM Ozzie Newsome in overseeing both the college scouting and pro personnel departments. The Taunton, MA, native was honored in 2005 by The Sporting News as one of the top young stars in sports and was selected to both the 2008 Baltimore Business Journal and Baltimore Magazine "40 under 40" group. He also served on the eight-member committee to interview and select Ravens head coach John Harbaugh in 2008.

During DeCosta's tenure as scouting director, the Ravens drafted Pro Bowlers LB Terrell Suggs ('03), DT Haloti Ngata ('06), G Ben Grubbs ('07), FB Le'Ron McClain ('07), G Marshal Yanda ('07) and RB Ray Rice ('08) and a number of other key contributors, including OLB Jarret Johnson ('03), C Jason Brown ('05), T Jared Gaither ('07 Supplemental Draft) and QB Joe Flacco ('08).

1996-2012: (with Baltimore) 2012: Promoted to assistant general manager following the draft. 2011: Baltimore signed key free agents FB Vonta Leach, who earned his second Pro Bowl in '11, and S Bernard Pollard, who started 13 games... Team selected CB Jimmy Smith (Colorado) with the 27th-overall pick in the draft. 2010: Ravens traded for Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, added quality veteran free agent DE Cory Redding and strengthened team depth through the draft. 2009: Promoted to director of player personnel, following six successful seasons as scouting director...Ravens drafted All-Rookie team honoree T Michael Oher and signed free agent K Billy Cundiff, who earned his first Pro Bowl in 2010. 2008: Led the Ravens during the NFL Draft, selecting QB Joe Flacco (18th overall), who became the Diet Pepsi (fan vote) Rookie of the Year, and RB Ray Rice, a two-time Pro Bowler. 2007: The Ravens drafted 2011 Pro Bowl guards Ben Grubbs (Auburn), the team's first-round pick (29th overall), and Marshal Yanda (Iowa) in the third round. 2006: Drafted All-Rookie Team standouts DT Haloti Ngata (12th overall), who is a three-time Pro Bowler, and S Dawan Landry (fifth round)... Baltimore also selected top-notch P Sam Koch (sixth round). 2005: Selected All-Rookie Team honoree WR Mark Clayton (22nd overall), who had a record-breaking first year, and

"While Eric continues to grow in the personnel department, he is becoming a vital part of the decision-making process."

-Ozzie Newsome, General Manager

C/G Jason Brown (fourth round). 2003: Was named director of college scouting...Drafted 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and 2003 Defensive Rookie of the Year LB Terrell Suggs. 1998-2002: Was the Ravens' Midwest area scout... Spent time researching and analyzing draft-day trades and helped evaluate free agent prospects for the pro personnel department...Worked with both the college and pro scouting staffs on the draft and free agency. 1998: Was promoted to area scout after spending time in the fall of 1997 scouting the Midwest.

1995: (with Washington) Earliest NFL experience came with a training camp internship in the Redskins' player personnel department.

1993-95: (with Trinity College) 1994-95: In a graduate fellowship, Eric coached the D-Line and LBs while earning his master's degree in English. 1993: Was an intern coach for Trinity's WRs.

COLLEGE: Earned degrees in English and the classics from Colby, receiving dean's list honors (1990-92)...Was a three-year football letterman and captain at LB...As a senior, he was selected as the Millett Award recipient for outstanding athletic contributions over his four years.

PERSONAL: Attended Taunton (MA) HS, where he played FB and LB, earned three varsity letters, and as a senior, was voted team captain...Is active with a number of charities, including the Sports Boosters of Maryland and the Boys and Girls Club...Has assisted with countless fundraisers and other charitable events for each organization...Eric has been asked by the Ravens All Community Team Foundation to review scholarship applications and interview candidates for the Ravens Scholars program since its inception in 2010...The $5,000 renewable scholarship (up to $20,000 per scholar) is awarded to five local high school students each year...Eric and his wife, Lacie, are actively involved with The Family Tree, a nonprofit organization in Maryland dedicated to preventing child abuse and providing families with solutions...An avid runner, Eric, Lacie, their daughter, Jane Elizabeth (9), and two sons, Michael Litz (5) and Jackson James (1), reside in Baltimore.

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

COLLEGE: GEORGIA TECH
BORN: 5/19/55, CLEVELAND, OHIO
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 20/17 (1 PLAYING / 19 FRONT OFFICE)

Pat Moriarty, the team's vice president of football administration, has been a key part of the franchise since 1994. A longtime member of the Ravens' personnel staff, Moriarty was one of the NFL's original "capologists." He is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Ravens' salary cap. Moriarty's NFL career began as a rookie free agent RB for the Browns in 1979. The Cleveland native negotiates all of the Ravens' player contracts, oversees salary cap administration, roster management and the day-to-day operations of the player personnel department. Moriarty is the key liaison with the NFL Management Council and Players Association. Over the course of 19 years, Moriarty has negotiated player contracts totaling over $1 billion. He has negotiated contracts for 19 Ravens first-round draft choices, as well as numerous free agents. He also analyzes draft-day trades during the NFL selection process each spring. Moriarty works closely with GM Ozzie Newsome in many areas, including helping to coordinate the budgets of the scouting, coaching, equipment, football video, training, and strength and conditioning departments. In 2008, Moriarty was part of an eight-member committee to select head coach John Harbaugh.

1996-2012: (with Baltimore) 2012: Extended the contracts of defensive starters S Bernard Pollard and CB Lardarius Webb. 2011: Negotiated long-term deals for P Sam Koch and K Billy Cundiff (a '10 Pro Bowler). 2010: Ravens traded for and then signed Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin and signed quality free agent DE Cory Redding. 2008-09: In 2009, team re-signed LB Ray Lewis to finish his career in Baltimore and added quality free agent veterans, including six-time Pro Bowl C Matt Birk, Cundiff, CB Domonique Foxworth and CB/RS Chris Carr, to improve the roster...Ravens signed Pro Bowl special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo in 2008 to bolster the roster. 2005-07: Ravens traded for QB Steve McNair in 2006, and in 2007, for RB Willis McGahee, who earned his first Pro Bowl with Baltimore...Moriarty also re-negotiated the contracts of two key Ravens defensive players: NT Kelly Gregg and Pro Bowl S Ed Reed...Also re-signed OLB Jarret Johnson and Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott...In free agency, Moriarty negotiated the contracts for key additions DE Trevor Pryce, WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle...Named VP of football administration in '05. 1997-2004: Re-negotiated the contracts of several other pivotal players, including Pro Bowlers TE Todd Heap, LB Ray Lewis and T Jonathan Ogden, allowing the team to remain competitive while staying within the confines of the salary cap. 1996: When the franchise moved to Baltimore, Moriarty was named the organization's chief financial officer.

1994-95: (with Cleveland) Joined the Browns' front office in 1994 as the director of business operations.

1982-93: Was involved in commercial banking in the Cleveland area. 1988-93: Worked for Key Bank in Cleveland in the corporate lending division.

1980-81: Spent NFL training camps with the Cleveland Browns and Miami Dolphins.

NFL PLAYER (1979): Signed as a rookie free agent RB with Cleveland...Scored 2 TDs and also played on special teams.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Earned a bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech, where he was a three-year starter at RB...Later earned his master's degree (1993) in business administration from John Carroll University...Earned All-State honors in both football and track at Benedictine (Cleveland, OH) HS and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 2002...Brother, Tom, played five years in the NFL as a DB, four with Atlanta and one with Pittsburgh...Moriarty, who is on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee for the ninth-straight year, is a graduate of the University of Baltimore School of Law...Has been a guest speaker at numerous events, including Loyola College, Univ. of Maryland Law School, Univ. of Maryland Business School and the Univ. of Baltimore School of Law, where he spoke on sports and entertainment law...Moriarty is also on the Board of Advisors for the University of Baltimore School of Law...Has participated in the annual Ravens' event, A Purple Evening (football sessions for women), speaking on the NFL's salary cap...He and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of son, Kevin (24), who recently, as a long-stick midfielder for Baltimore's Loyola University, won the NCAA Men's Lacrosse National Championship, and daughters, Laura (21), a senior at UNC-Wilmington, and Katherine (18), a senior at Roland Park County School.

"Pat is an 'impact player' in our organization. He is thorough and sound, plus creative in the structure of contracts. He has a working knowledge of every team's salary cap structure and knows the ins and outs of working with the league office. His management of our cap helped us win the Super Bowl in 2000."

JOE HORTIZ DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

COLLEGE: AUBURN
BORN: 11/8/75, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 15/15

Joe Hortiz is in his fourth year as the Ravens' director of college scouting, after being promoted in January 2009. He directs the Ravens' college scouting process, coordinating the schedules and cross-checking duties of the area scouts. Hortiz also manages the team's draft preparation and the evaluation and ranking process of hundreds of NFL draft-eligible prospects. Hortiz spent eight years as a scout for Baltimore, covering the Northeast and Southeast regions before becoming a national scout for three seasons (2006-08). In 2007, Baltimore selected Auburn G Ben Grubbs (29th overall), who was scouted by the fellow Auburn alum Hortiz. A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club," (see below), Hortiz originally joined Baltimore as a personnel assistant in 1998.

1998-2012: (with Baltimore) 2012: Ravens drafted Alabama LB Courtney Upshaw (second round) with the team's first pick. 2011: Selected CB Jimmy Smith (Colorado) and WR Torrey Smith (Maryland) in the first two rounds...Torrey set a team rookie receiving records in catches (50), yards (841) and TDs (7). 2010: Ravens drafted contributors DT Terrence Cody, TE Ed Dickson and WR/RS David Reed, who had the NFL's longest KOR (103 yards) and set a franchise record in 2010. 2009: Promoted to director of college scouting after eight years as a college scout...In Hortiz's first draft as head of college scouting, Baltimore selected All-Rookie team performer T Michael Oher (Mississippi) with the 23rd-overall selection and key contributor CB/RS Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State). 2008: Scouted players across the country, with a primary focus on the eastern half, where seven of 10 Ravens draft picks were selected in the '08 NFL Draft... Was invited to introduce Grubbs at the Ravens Roost No. 7's annual Extra Effort Award banquet in April. 2007: Team's first-round draft pick Grubbs was selected from Joe's focus area and attended his alma mater. 2006: Promoted to national scout...Was tasked with covering the eastern half of the country, including the Big East, Big Ten, MAC, ACC, SEC and Conference USA. 2003-05: Served as Ravens Southeast area scout and covered the SEC, ACC and C-USA. 2001-02: Scouted the Northeast. 1998-2000: Worked both with the pro and college scouting staffs as a football personnel assistant... Responsibilities included assisting GM Ozzie Newsome and vice president of football administration Pat Moriarty, who manages the salary cap, and performing "the box" workout at schools across the country for three spring seasons.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: While earning his B.S. in accounting from Auburn, Joe was an undergraduate assistant coach for Terry Bowden and the Tigers' football team from 1995-97...Worked with both the QBs and WRs and also coached the scout team LBs and secondary...Also coordinated Auburn's summer football camps...Son of Joe and Marlene Hortiz, Joe attended Salesianum (Wilmington, DE) HS...He and his wife, Jennifer, have three sons, Joey (5), Jack (4) and Jameson (1).

THE "20/20 CLUB"

The Ravens' "20/20 Club" includes members of the team's personnel staff who started with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. The term "20/20" refers to hiring 20-year-olds for $20,000. According to GM Ozzie Newsome: "The guys actually started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them."

2003-07: (with Arizona) Cross-checked player evaluations for the western half of the country...Was also responsible for scouting additional Midwestern states, including Michigan and Indiana. 2003-04: Re-joined the Cardinals, spending two years as the team's national scout.

2002: (with New York Jets) Started his scouting career as a Midwest scout for the last team for which he played.

NFL PLAYER (1985-96): Was originally drafted (12th round) by the Cardinals in the 1985 NFL Draft and appeared in 150 career games as a DB for the Cardinals (1985-90), Jets (1991-93, 95-96) and Chargers (1994), earning an AFC Championship ring, along with Ravens assistant director of player development Harry Swayne, while with San Diego...Tallied 720 tackles (540 solo), 11 INTs, 14 FRs, 9 FFs, 44 PD and 2 sacks...In 1985, Young earned All-Rookie honors after leading the Cardinals' secondary with 3 INTs...He received an honorable mention All-Pro honor in 1988...His Jets teammates selected him as their 1993 Ed Block Courage Award recipient after he returned from a career-threatening knee injury...Also received the Jets' Dennis Byrd Award for being the most inspirational player on the team (Byrd suffered a career-ending spinal injury in 1992).

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Was a two-year starting CB at Michigan State, earning a degree in communications...Was a two-sport athlete for the Spartans, also lettering in track and field...Attended Beecher (Flint, MI) HS and was inducted into the Flint Hall of Fame in 2004...Was a childhood friend and teammate of former Giants LB Carl Banks...Both high school jerseys were retired in the same ceremony.

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

Adam Schein, FoxSports.com: "Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, assistant general manager Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead."

Mel Kiper, ESPN (April, 2010): "This team wins because it drafts well. Steve Bisciotti is a great owner because he lets his guys do their job. It's a great organization."

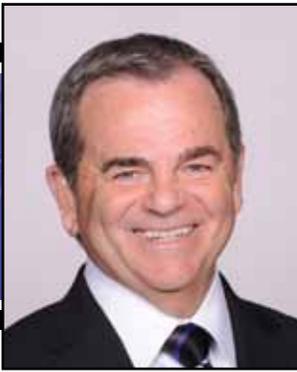

Jon Gruden, ESPN (April, 2010): "If I ever get a chance to come back and coach, I'm going to call Ozzie Newsome to make all of my picks."

Todd McShay, ESPN (April, 2010): "The Ravens are successful, because they ignore needs to take the best player available. There's a reason the Ravens are always picking in the bottom half of the draft. They win and are in the playoffs each year."

Rick Gosselin, The Dallas Morning News (September, 2008): "If I had to pick one guy to draft a team, I'd take Ozzie Newsome. He's the best I've seen since Ron Wolf. No matter where the Ravens draft, a good player seems to fall to them."

Don Banks, SI.com: "The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

ProFootballWeekly.com (January, 2008): "[Ozzie] Newsome and owner Steve Bisciotti have an excellent relationship, and Newsome figures to be running the Ravens' drafts for years to come. The Ravens' track record of draft success is no secret, and it's the envy of many clubs that are low on blue-chip players."

FRONT OFFICE

MICHELLE ANDRES
VICE PRESIDENT OF DIGITAL MEDIA

Michelle Andres, who joined the Ravens in 2006, leads the franchise's digital media strategy. She is responsible for the team's social media presence, BaltimoreRavens.com, mobile marketing, online sales, email and database marketing, market research and photography.

Serving and engaging fans is a supreme priority for the Ravens, and thus, producing content that brings fans closer to the team and its players is the driving force behind each digital channel. Those modes also provide the organization's sponsors a powerful vehicle to reach their respective and vast fan bases.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Andres spent nine seasons with the NBA's Orlando Magic – seven in public relations overseeing corporate communications and government relations and two leading the franchise's newly-formed interactive marketing department.

A native of Gainesville, FL, Andres earned her master's degree in political campaign management from the University of Florida and her bachelor's degree in political science from Furman University.

ED BURCHELL
VICE PRESIDENT OF REGIONAL PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Ed Burchell has been with the Ravens since 2002. The Baltimore native is charged with driving the organization's regional partnerships and sales to build team revenue, brand awareness and brand growth.

In addition to the naming rights relationship with Smyth Jewelers (Ring of Honor) and Geppi Entertainment (Club Level), both at M&T Bank Stadium, Burchell's regional partnerships include companies such as Giant Food, Merritt Properties, McCormick & Co., Exelon/Constellation/BGE, Maryland Lottery, The Baltimore Sun, Comcast SportsNet and Advance Business Systems. Additionally, Burchell helps lead a corporate sales team that has sold out the Ravens' suite holder community at M&T Bank Stadium for nine-consecutive seasons.

Burchell is also the co-founder of the Ravens All Community Team and NFL Football Challenge, both programs that unite corporate business leaders from the community with the Ravens and individual player foundations.

Prior to the Ravens, Burchell was a vice president for Genesis Health Ventures. While there, he was responsible for building and implementing revenue-generating strategies nationally for its consulting practice and regionally for its Chesapeake network.

Burchell is a member of a number of charity boards: the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, Catholic Charities, Loyola – Blakefield Development Committee (chairing its Marketing Committee), and a 2011 graduate of the Greater Baltimore Committee Leadership Program, where he was selected a class captain and to its board of directors in 2012. He is also a new member of the Brigance Brigade, working with O.J. and Chanda Brigance in their mission to combat ALS/Lou Gehrig's Disease.

A University of Virginia graduate, Ed and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown and have two sons, Edward (14) and Alexander (10).

GABRIELLE DOW
VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING

Gabrielle Dow joined the Ravens prior to the 2006 season. She oversees the team's marketing, promotions, advertising, branding, events, game entertainment, trademark and licensing, sponsor activation and fan affinity areas. The San Francisco native drives aggressive promotion and advertising for the Ravens.

Under her direction in 2007, Dow launched the first-ever professional team female fan club called Purple, which has over 20,000 members. Also in 2007, Dow launched the Ravens' Purple Friday campaign. On several Fridays during the season, her team travels throughout Baltimore with a day-long caravan of cheerleaders, staff and band members to "paint the town purple."

During the 2012 offseason, her marketing team coordinated the Ravens' inaugural Beach Bash in Ocean City, MD, a fun-filled fan weekend in conjunction with two of the Ravens' largest fan clubs. The event included current players and coaches, alumni players, cheerleaders, mascots and about 4,000 Ravens fans.

Dow has experience working with three major sports leagues: the NFL, the NHL and the NBA. Prior to joining the Ravens, she spent two years with the NHL's Florida Panthers, managing the marketing of hockey, concerts and family entertainment, and four years with AEG, marketing the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, as well as the Staples Center, Kodak Theatre and The Forum. After earning both an M.B.A. and law degree from Oregon, Dow began her sports career as a public relations intern for the Portland Trail Blazers.

Gabrielle and her husband, Jeff, have a daughter, Danielle (7), and a son, Jackson (3).

FRONT OFFICE

BOB ELLER
VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Bob Eller is in his 26th season with the franchise and his 29th in the NFL. Eller directs the day-to-day operations of the team, including the training facility in Owings Mills, summer training camp and minicamps, team travel and catering for the players, coaches and staff. The Baltimore native has been with the franchise since 1987, serving in both the public relations and operations departments.

In 2004, Eller directed the team's move to the new facility. In his history with the team, he also wrote and edited media guides and other PR-related materials, as well as coordinating the operations of the game day stats crew.

Eller's career began as an intern for the Baltimore Colts in 1983, while a senior at Towson University (business administration). A year later, the team's first in Indianapolis, he joined the club and was quickly promoted to director of public relations. Eller then moved to Cleveland in 1987 to become the Browns' assistant director of public relations. He was promoted to director of operations and information in 1991. Bob was then invited to join the team in the move to Baltimore in 1996, helping to facilitate many of the start-up functions for the new Ravens.

Eller has worked eight Super Bowls for the NFL and served as the Browns' primary league office liaison when the NFL launched the player assistance and development programs.

An active supporter of the St. Vincent's Center for abused children, Bob and his wife, Sheila, have a daughter, Erin (19) and a son, Joey (16).

JEFF GOERING
VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jeff Goering, who joined the club in 1999, oversees all functions of the Ravens' finance department, including the organization's strategic planning, budgeting, financial reporting, tax, audit and risk management processes. He is also the chief financial liaison with various governmental agencies, stadium contractors and event promoters.

Goering was named senior director of finance in 2004 after spending his first five years with the Ravens as the organization's controller.

As a senior consultant for PricewaterhouseCoopers in Dallas, Goering worked with many sports entities, preparing financial feasibility studies, market assessments and economic impact analyses for proposed new or expanded sports venues.

He received his master's of science in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. During that time, he also served as a consultant in the evaluation and preparation of Boston Red Sox salary arbitration cases.

Goering spent a year in the Philippines as a community development volunteer for the Presbyterian Church, USA, in 1995-96. He received a B.S. in business administration from Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) University.

Jeff, who serves on the board of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, earned his CPA certificate in 1992. He and his wife, Sheryl, have two daughters, Olivia (11) and Carly (9), and a son, Daniel (6).

BILL JANKOWSKI
VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Bill Jankowski has been with the franchise in a full-time role since 1986. He was one of 28 to join Art Modell in the move to Baltimore with the team in 1996. Jankowski guides the Ravens' information technology department to support many technological functions for the organization, including business, coaching, stadium, scouting, public relations and training operations.

He helped the team through the transition of moving to Baltimore and has kept the organization on par with today's ever-changing technology world.

The Cleveland native works with director of information technology, Nick Fusee, to support both the coaching and scouting staffs, assisting with their unique software programming. The software assists the coaches in game-planning and game analysis, combining with the football video department.

They also help manage the scouting player personnel database, integrating the system with the NFL Management Council.

Jankowski spent two years as the chair of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee and was a member of the committee to help design the NFL's Game Statistics & Information System (GSIS) in 1996.

Bill, who attended St. Ignatius HS and John Carroll University, (Cleveland, OH), lives in Reisterstown, MD.

FRONT OFFICE

BAKER KOPPELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES & OPERATIONS

Baker Koppelman has been with the Ravens since their first year in Baltimore (1996). Koppelman oversees the team's PSL, season ticket and hospitality sales, ticket operations, ticket distribution, customer service, club level service, retail sales and assists with attracting events to M&T Bank Stadium.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Koppelman has worked in professional sports ticketing operations since 1987, selling Baltimore Orioles tickets at Memorial Stadium during the summer while earning his sports management and economics degrees at Guilford College (Greensboro, NC), graduating in 1990.

He worked his way to a full-time position with the Orioles in 1991, helping manage the stadium box office and contributing with the seating relocation from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992. He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens prior to their inaugural season in Baltimore.

Koppelman serves on the advisory board of the Michael A. Fiorelli Foundation for Esophageal Cancer Awareness. Fiorelli, who passed away from cancer in 2007, was Koppelman's colleague at both the Orioles and Ravens. Baker is also a past member of the St. Paul's School (Baltimore) Alumni Board.

Baker's wife, Reba, is the assistant controller in the Ravens' finance department.

KEVIN ROCHLITZ

VICE PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Kevin Rochlitz, who joined the Ravens in 2003, oversees all national partnerships and promotions for the team. He is the primary contact for the team's MedStar Health partnership and works with national partners – such as AAA, Visa, Dietz & Watson, Southwest Airlines, Coca-Cola, Ticketmaster, MillerCoors and Anheuser-Busch – on promotions and brand visibility.

Rochlitz also created and sold the Bacardi Bar and Talon Pub, as well as the club level bars, at M&T Bank Stadium. Additionally, in 2012, he led the team in its new partnership with Under Armour and the naming of the Ravens' training facility to the Under Armour Performance Center.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Rochlitz spent five years as senior vice president of sales for Mandalay Sports and Entertainment/Mandalay Pictures, owners of the Dayton Dragons and Frisco Rough Riders (minor league baseball). He oversaw new stadium construction, selling the naming rights for each venue (Fifth Third Field in Dayton, OH, and Dr Pepper Ballpark in Frisco, TX). From 1996-97, Rochlitz was one of the youngest assistant athletic directors in NCAA Division I-A for the University of Miami.

Rochlitz serves on the board of the Union Memorial Hospital Foundation, as well as the National Sports Forum Steering Committee, a post he has held since 2001. He also serves on the NFL Club Business Development Committee for the sponsorship and marketing conference.

In May of 2011, Rochlitz was selected by the Department of Defense and Secretary Robert Gates to be involved in the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference to better understand U.S. military. He attended with 39 other top business leaders from the United States.

Kevin graduated from Wyoming with a degree in marketing. He and his wife, Melissa, have a daughter, Riley (9).

LARRY ROSEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF BROADCASTING

Larry Rosen enters his 13th year with the Ravens after joining the club prior to the team's Super Bowl season in 2000. In that time, his broadcasting team has earned 20 regional Emmy Awards for its excellence in producing original television shows such as Wired, Ravens Report, Game Plan, Ravens Kickoff and preseason football coverage. Larry also produces "Game Day" for the RavensVision high definition video boards at M&T Bank Stadium during Ravens home games.

Rosen won his first Emmy while with the Ravens for his feature reporting on the team's 2001 visit to Ground Zero in New York City. Prior to his Ravens tenure, Rosen was the play-by-play voice and executive producer of both Philadelphia Phillies baseball and Atlantic 10 basketball games for PRISM-TV. Inducted into Temple University's Hall of Fame in 2005, Rosen won multiple Emmys in his 16 years at PRISM.

Rosen began his career as a news reporter for KYW Newsradio Philadelphia. He was honored several times as National Reporter of the Year by multiple organizations, including the Associated Press and the Columbia School of Journalism, for his coverage of the Three Mile Island nuclear accident, the MOVE shootout and Pope John Paul II's visit to Philadelphia in 1979.

Larry and his wife, Yael, have three children: Sunni (19), a junior at Delaware, Inde (17), who has worked on the RavensVision control room game day staff for four seasons, and son, Yshai (11).

FRONT OFFICE

ROY SOMMERHOF
VICE PRESIDENT OF STADIUM OPERATIONS

Roy Sommerhof joined the Ravens during their inaugural season in Baltimore (1996). He manages all aspects of M&T Bank Stadium, including game day parking, security, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

Since the stadium opened in 1998, Sommerhof has spearheaded the team's efforts to make it one of the best in the NFL, supervising improvements to both the suite and club levels, the installation of the spectacular new high definition video boards in 2010, the addition of 15 new suites, and the design and installation of the M&T Bank Stadium signage.

Prior to joining the Ravens, the Baltimore native spent 16 years working in both ticket sales and stadium operations for the Orioles. He played a significant role in the planning, development and execution of the opening of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992.

During his career, he has been involved with numerous special events, including hosting both Pope John Paul II at Oriole Park (1995) and the Queen of England at Memorial Stadium (1991), and the MLB All-Star Game at Oriole Park (1993).

He is also the former chairman of the Gridiron Stadium Network, a consortium of 10 NFL facilities and one MLS facility that creates awareness and promotes the assets of its member stadiums. The GSN works to optimize opportunities to expand the use of the state-of-the-art facilities for new sports, entertainment, public and private events.

Through Roy's efforts and those of GSN, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens hosted a U2 concert in June of 2011, Monster Jam in June of 2011 and 2012, a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, and international soccer matches between Chelsea and AC Milan (2009), Manchester City and Inter Milan (2010), and Tottenham and Liverpool (2012).

Sommerhof graduated from St. Thomas (Miami, FL) University in 1979 with a degree in sports administration. Roy, and his wife, Lina, have two sons, Drew (18) and Cole (10).

M&T BANK STADIUM EVENTS

On July 28, 2012, M&T Bank Stadium will host the Tottenham Hotspur Football Club vs. the Liverpool Football Club. Two of the most popular teams in the Barclays Premier League, the clubs had never played in United States' Mid-Atlantic region.

"This match will be another fantastic, special event that we bring to our city, and as these events continue to succeed, we will continue to bring them to the fans of Baltimore," Ravens president Dick Cass stated. The game marks the third international soccer "friendly" M&T Bank Stadium has hosted, with the first taking place in 2009 between Chelsea and AC Milan and the second between Manchester City and Inter Milan in 2010.

In June of 2012, M&T Bank Stadium hosted Monster Jam for the second-consecutive summer. A live motorsport event tour, the main attraction to Monster Jam is the racing and freestyle competitions by monster trucks.

M&T Bank Stadium is also no stranger to world-renowned concert acts either. On June 22, 2011, the legendary rock group U2 played to a full-capacity crowd of 75,000. Fans throughout the Mid-Atlantic Region were treated to a show that was dubbed as the "Tour of the Year" when the legendary Irish band rocked Charm City with its 360° World Tour.

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

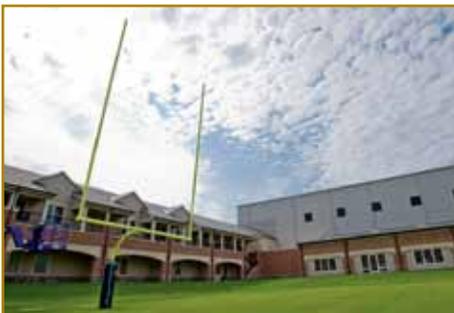

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building, which was named the Under Armour Performance Center in June of 2012, features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

The facility includes a full-service kitchen, cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

Approximately 200 Ravens are housed at the headquarters in Owings Mills. The ticket office and stadium operations remain at M&T Bank Stadium.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us," executive vice president/general manager Ozzie Newsome stated. "Steve [Bisciotti] has delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."

The Ravens have three grass practice fields – all Bermuda Grass – at the Under Armour Performance Center in Owings Mills, MD.

The Under Armour Performance Center contains a radio and TV studio that the team and WBAL Radio utilize for their in-house broadcasting purposes.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field with the same surface (Shaw Sportex "Momentum 51" turf) used at M&T Bank Stadium.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Baltimore Ravens All Community Team Foundation (RACTF) is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in the Baltimore area, as well as other parts of the state of Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth, and in some cases their families, with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring. Please visit www.BaltimoreRavens.com/community for more information.

Among our current charitable partners:

Boys Hope Girls Hope – The nonprofit helps academically-capable and motivated children in need to meet their full potential and become men and women by providing value-centered, family-like homes, opportunities and education through college.

Bridges at St. Paul’s School – An enrichment institute that offers Baltimore City youth access to a nine-year support network of summer, weekend and after-school programs that set them on a path to become future civic and professional leaders.

My Sister’s Circle – A comprehensive, relationship-based program designed to mentor disadvantaged girls in Baltimore during their challenging transition to middle school, throughout high school and into college.

Paul’s Place Outreach Center – A full-service facility that serves the residents of Pigtown in Southwest Baltimore. Programs and services include a hot lunch program, women’s and men’s support groups, an afterschool program and a clothing bank.

St. Vincent’s Villa – A residential group home for children with serious behavioral, psychiatric and/or emotional problems. The majority of children referred to St. Vincent’s have suffered trauma related to child abuse and neglect.

PLAYER FOUNDATIONS

Many Ravens players have taken their passion for giving to a higher level by establishing their own charitable foundations. To learn more about their foundations and how they impact hundreds of lives each year, please visit the players’ respective websites or www.BaltimoreRavens.com/community.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The mission of the All Community Team (ACT) is to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, player foundations and associated local charitable organizations. Title sponsor, M&T Bank, joins additional Baltimore corporations as the ACT provides financial and volunteer support to many Ravens community service projects. In 2011, ACT members and players, including QB Tyrod Taylor (right), came together to assemble 15 bicycles for the Police Athletic League youth. ACT volunteers also participated in the KaBOOM! Playground Build in Reservoir Hill and the Ravens Family Food & Funds Drive.

SALUTE TO SERVICE

Annually, the Ravens salute members of the armed forces through several initiatives, including hosting military at games and practices, visiting military installations and showing support through care packages and letters. For the 10th anniversary of the tragic events of 9/11/01, the Ravens hosted close to 200 military and first responders for the season opener against the Steelers (9/11/11). Guests took part in the presentation of a 100-yard American flag (right) on the field during pre-game ceremonies. Also, for his exceptional efforts to support the military community, head coach John Harbaugh was named one of two 2011 finalists (Titans owner Bud Adams) for the NFL's inaugural Salute to Service Award.

GRIDIRON HALLOWEEN PARTY

Co-hosted by K Billy Cundiff and T Michael Oher (right), the 12th annual Gridiron Halloween Party benefited Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, Inc. Several players, including LS Morgan Cox, CB Danny Gorrer and CB Lardarius Webb joined the co-hosts for the fundraiser. TE Ed Dickson and DT Arthur Jones also attended the celebration dressed as characters from the popular horror films Nightmare on Elm Street and Texas Chainsaw Massacre. Over the past 12 years, the partnership between Goodwill and the Ravens has raised over $1 million for training and employment programs to help the disabled and underprivileged find work and maintain jobs.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

Annually, the Ravens host a football clinic aligned with Hispanic Heritage Month (9/15-10/15) and Nickelodeon's Worldwide Day of Play. In 2011, Ravens players demonstrated the fundamentals of football to nearly 150 predominantly-Hispanic children. TE Ed Dickson (right) guided participants through a series of running, passing and catching drills aimed at introducing football as an option for staying active. The Ravens also honored a Hispanic leader (Luis Borunda) in the community with the inaugural Hispanic Heritage Leadership Award. In addition to receiving tickets to a home game, Borunda received a $2,000 grant from the NFL and Bud Light to support his work in the Hispanic community.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

CHEERLEADERS AND RMH CHARITIES

Ravens cheerleaders support the team, entertain fans at home games and serve as community ambassadors. Throughout the season, the cheerleaders make more than 160 appearances at community events, fundraising activities, schools and hospitals. In 2011, they continued their season-long community relationship with Ronald McDonald House, an organization that offers a loving home-away-from-home to families needing to be near their seriously ill or injured children while they're being treated at one of Baltimore's world renowned hospitals. The cheerleaders hosted monthly activities for the residents, including game night, arts and crafts and a holiday celebration (right).

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

The Ravens recognized Breast Cancer Awareness Month (October) during the 2011 Sunday Night Football game vs. the Jets. Ravens players and coaches wore pink gear throughout the game, and volunteers distributed 40,000 pink ribbons to fans. Country music superstar Martina McBride (right) sang the national anthem, alongside 50 breast cancer survivors. In addition, close to 20,000 fans in the stadium bowl took part in a card stunt, showcasing the team's and the NFL's support of breast cancer awareness and prevention. Additionally, the Ravens fielded a team that raised more than $10,000 for the 2011 American Cancer Society Making Strides Against Breast Cancer event.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

During the holiday season, Ravens players, cheerleaders and staff support close to 3,000 children and families through a variety of events. From the defensive line collecting funds for a holiday shopping spree to adopt-a-family programs and food distributions, virtually every player is in our community at a crucial time. Veterans, including LB Ray Lewis (right), LB Jameel McClain and S Ed Reed, hosted their annual Thanksgiving distributions at local churches, homeless shelters and Boys and Girls Clubs. Also, several players hosted and supported holiday events in December, including clothing drives, hospital visits and special gift-giving celebrations for families in need.

PLAY 60

The NFL's campaign designed to promote healthy and active lifestyles among today's youth, Play 60 is brought to life and implemented by the Ravens at the local level through Fuel Up to Play 60 kits, player-led assemblies, contests and sports clinics. Special partnerships with the Mid-Atlantic Dairy Association and the Partnership for a Healthier Carroll County allowed the Ravens to deliver the Play 60 message to more than 900 schools. At right, RB Ray Rice joins fellow teammates to host a kickoff assembly at a local school to announce the program. Each year, the Ravens' Play 60 efforts reach more than 20,000 youth. To join the movement, visit www.fueluptoplay60.com.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

NFL/UNITED WAY HOMETOWN HUDDLE

Hometown Huddle is a league-wide day of service designed to bring awareness and impact to the issue of youth health and fitness. At the first-ever TriRavens Tournament, nearly 100 Baltimore youth joined Ravens players and close to 75 volunteers to complete various tasks loosely based on the TriWizard Tournament from the popular children's series Harry Potter. At right, WR Torrey Smith leads students through challenges that integrate programming and physical activity in conjunction with the NFL movement for an active generation. Participants received shoes donated by Under Armour, a TriRavens Tournament water bottle and backpack filled with healthy snacks.

FOOD COLLECTION EFFORTS

Annually, the Ravens provide financial support to the Maryland Food Bank through the team's November food collection efforts. In 2011, the Ravens, in conjunction with Giant Food and the Maryland Food Bank, hosted a virtual food drive and an in-store collection at more than 50 Baltimore-area Giant Food stores. Additionally, they hosted the 16th annual Ravens Family Food & Funds Drive (right) at M&T Bank Stadium. The efforts produced $88,000 (almost triple the amount raised in 2010) and more than 27,000 lbs. of food, which the Maryland Food Bank distributed to soup kitchens, food pantries and emergency shelters throughout the holiday season.

CONCUSSION AWARENESS

The Ravens joined efforts with MedStar SportsHealth and the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and Prevention in a public safety campaign to address concussion awareness and prevention. The Ravens and MedStar SportsHealth co-branded established CDC materials (fact sheets and coaches clipboards) and distributed packets to more than 150 youth and high school football coaches and athletic directors across the Baltimore Ravens' footprint. The team also entered into a formal multi-year partnership with the MedStar SportsHealth Concussion Program and will provide a $25,000 grant to MedStar SportsHealth each year for five-consecutive years.

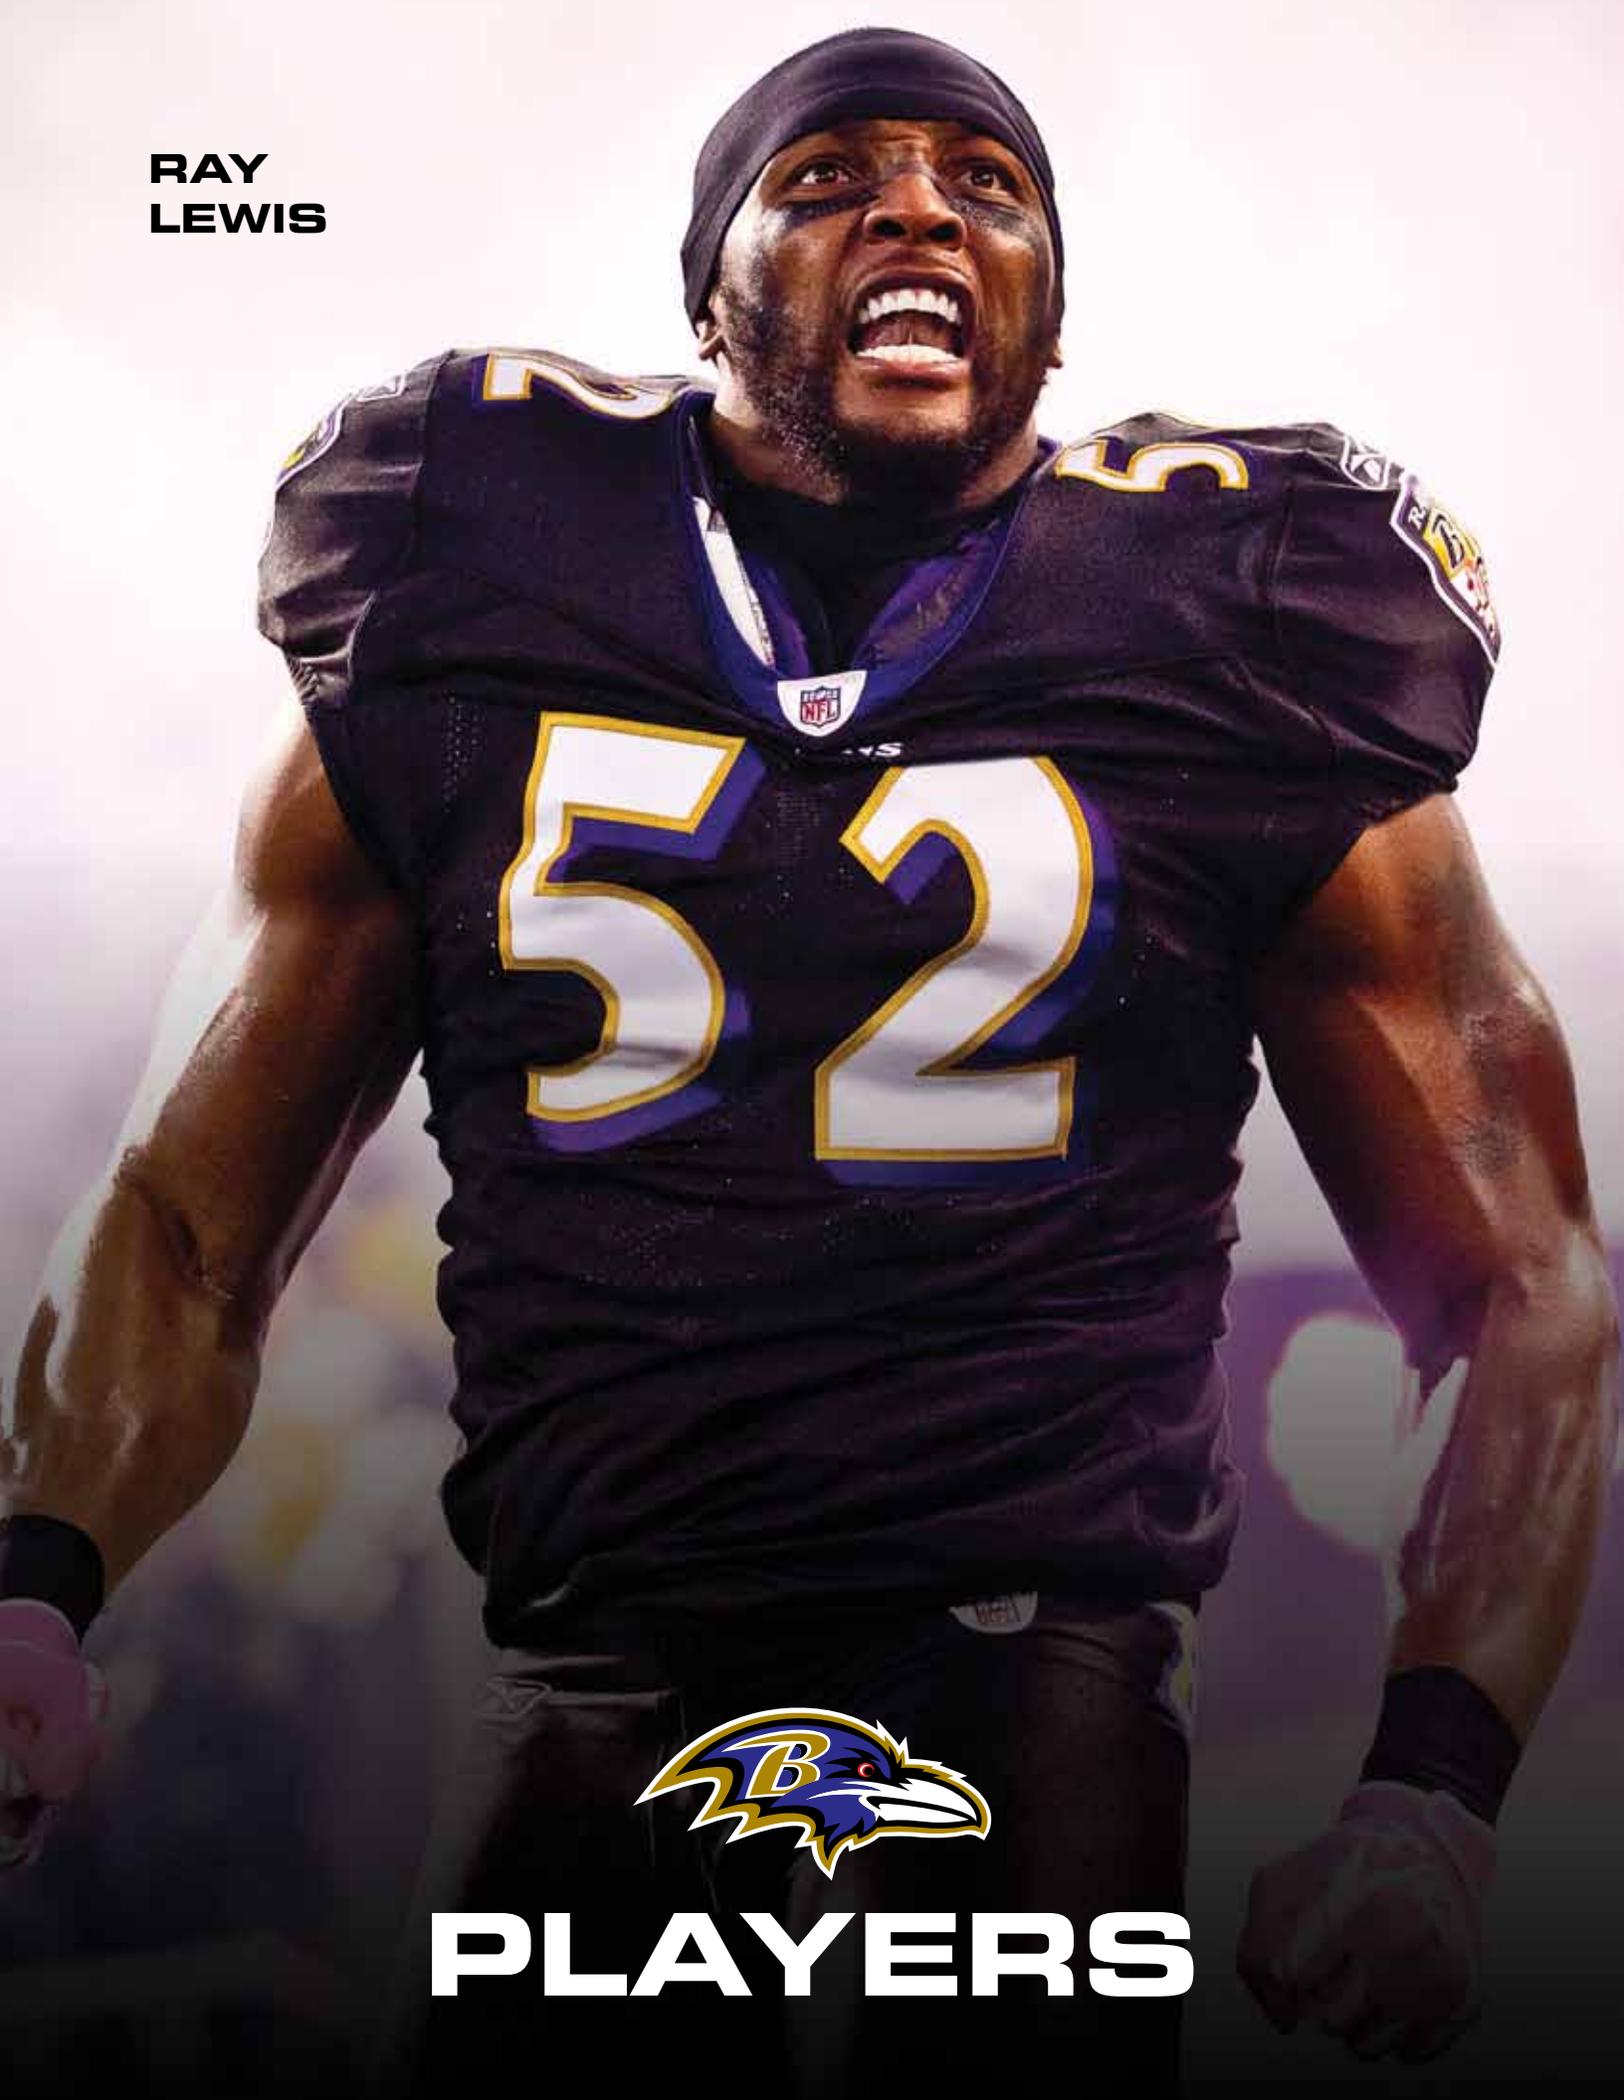

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Ravens and the NFL are committed to encouraging and supporting youth football and sponsor several programs throughout the year to promote the sport. Such initiatives include a flag football clinic, 7-on-7 football tournaments and the NFL Punt, Pass and Kick competition. The Ravens donated more than 3,600 preseason tickets to Maryland youth football teams around the state. Eight youth football teams (right) were also selected to play on the M&T Bank Stadium field during halftime of those games. Additionally, each year, the Ravens All Community Team Foundation provides youth football grants (apparel and equipment) to 14 deserving teams in Baltimore.

TOP 10 STREAK

Baltimore has finished in the Top 10 in total defense (yards allowed) nine-straight seasons. Since the 1970 merger, only six teams have produced at least eight-consecutive seasons with a Top 10 defense. Baltimore (9) and Pittsburgh (12) boast the NFL's longest active streaks of ranking in the Top 10.

TRANSACTIONS

Joe Flacco was selected by the Ravens in the first round (18th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft...Flacco became just the second NCAA Division I FCS (formerly I-AA) QB ever selected in the first round and the first since QB Steve McNair (Alcorn State) was the third-overall pick by Houston in 1995.

HONORS

- Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote) in 2008
- NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month (November, 2008)
- USA Today's All-Joe Team (players who are critical to their team, but don't receive Pro Bowl nods) in 2009
- AFC Rookie of the Week (Week 17, 2008)
- FedEx Air NFL Player of the Week (Week 3, 2011)
- GMC "Never Say Never" Moment of the Week with a last-second win at Pit. (Week 9, 2011)

CAREER

- Is the Ravens' all-time leading passer in yards (13,816), TD passes (80), completions (1,190) and attempts (1,958) and is second in completion percentage (60.8)
- Flacco's 44 regular season wins are the most ever by a starting quarterback in his first four years in the NFL
- His 73 NFL starts (including playoffs) are the most to begin a career by a QB in NFL history...Flacco has produced 49 total wins in these contests
- Flacco is the only starting quarterback in NFL history (since the 1970 merger) to reach the playoffs in each of his first four seasons
- Became the first rookie QB in NFL history to win two playoff games in the 2008 Divisional Playoff win at Ten. (1/10/09)
- The tandem of John Harbaugh and Flacco, which in 2008 set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB, now own the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first four seasons
- Owns (tied with Vinny Testaverde) a franchise-record 8 300-yard passing games (last: 300 yards, 11/6/11 at Pit.)
- Set career highs in completions (315) and completion percentage (63.1) in 2009 and in yards (3,622), TDs (25) and QB rating (93.6) in 2010
- Set the Ravens' single-season record for completion percentage (63.1) in 2009 and QB rating (93.6) in 2010, while his 25 passing TDs and 3,622 passing yards in 2010 rank as the second-most in Ravens single-season history
- Flacco and Drew Brees are tied for the most total wins by a starting quarterback since 2008 (49 victories)
- Flacco led the Ravens to 27 career regular season wins at home, the most among NFL starting quarterbacks from 2008-11
- In each of the past three seasons (2009-11), Flacco and Aaron Rodgers are the only NFL quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,600 yards and 20 TDs while posting 12 INTs or less
- Among all NFL starting quarterbacks since 2008, Flacco and Eli Manning have produced a league-best 21 total road wins (including playoffs)

THE M&T ADVANTAGE

Going 27-5 at M&T Bank Stadium in four seasons, John Harbaugh's Ravens have continued to uphold Baltimore's strong tradition of homefield advantage over the past decade. From 2000-11, the Ravens own the NFL's second-best regular season home record, producing a 73-23 mark during that span.

52 RAY LEWIS

- In 2000, led a defense that established a 16-game single-season record for fewest points allowed (165), and fewest rushing yards allowed (970), recorded 4 shutouts (1 shy of the post-1970 merger record), and finished first league-wide in six key defensive categories
- Was the second player in NFL history to win both NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl MVP awards (2000)... DT Harvey Martin of Dallas won Defensive Player of the Year in 1977 and was co-MVP of Super Bowl XXII with DT Randy White
- Is the only player in NFL history with at least 40 career sacks and 30 career INTs
- Posted a franchise-record 225 tackles in 2003
- Has led the Ravens in tackles in 14 of his 16 seasons, registering at least 150 stops 11 times
- Has returned 3 of his 31 INTs for TDs
- Posted a franchise-record and career-high 25 tackles at NYG (9/14/97)
- Has 7 career 20-tackle games
- In his 17th season (1996-2012) in Baltimore, Lewis is the longest-tenured NFL defensive player with his original team
- Is second only to Jack Ham (53) in take-aways by a LB in NFL history with 49 total (31 INTs and 18 FRs)

2011: (12/12, 2/2) Earned his 13th Pro Bowl invite after leading the Ravens with 95 tackles, despite missing four games with a foot injury...Also produced 2 sacks (-16 yards), 1 INT, 7 PD and 2 FFs for the NFL's third-ranked defense (288.9 ypg)... Baltimore was also second against the run (92.5 ypg) and the league's top red zone defense

- Led the team with 12 tackles (8 solo) and a sack (becoming the first player in NFL history with 40 sacks and 30 INTs) for a defense that held the Texans to 4.4 yards per play in the 29-14 victory in game 5 vs. Hou. (10/16)
- Netted 5 tackles (4 solo) and a PD for a defense that forced 4 turnovers and tied an NFL record with 3 defensive TDs in the 34-17 victory in game 4 vs. NYJ (10/2)
- Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after leading the team with 10 solo tackles, 1 sack (-9 yards) and a FF (which was recovered by DT Haloti Ngata and returned for a TD), for a defense that recorded 5 sacks and held the Rams to 244 total yards in the 37-7 victory in game 3 at STL (9/25)
- Posted 8 tackles and 1 PD in game 2 at Ten. (9/18), surpassing the 2,500-tackle milestone for his career (2,506)
- Netted 7 tackles (6 solo), 1 INT, 1 FF (recovered by the Ravens) and 1 PD for a defense that posted a franchise-record 7 turnovers (4 FRs and 3 INTs) in the 35-7 victory in the season opener vs. Pit. (9/11)
- Led the Ravens with 20 tackles and 1 PD for a team that forced 7 turnovers in two playoff games
- Tied for the team lead (Bernard Pollard) with 12 tackles and a PD for a defense that picked off QB Tom Brady twice, not allowing him to throw a TD and holding him to a 57.5 QB rating in the AFC Championship at NE (1/22/12)

2010: (16/16, 2/2) Earned his 12th Pro Bowl invite after leading the team with 145 tackles, 4 PD, 3 FRs, 2 FFs and 2 INTs (one of which he returned for a TD)

- Led the team with 11 tackles (9 solo) and tied a career high with 2 FRs in the 13-7 victory in game 16 vs. Cin. (1/2/11)
- Tied for the team lead with 7 tackles for a defense that held the Saints to 27 yards rushing (fifth-fewest allowed in franchise history) in the 30-24 victory in game 14 vs. NO (12/19)
- Led the team with 10 tackles (8 solo), had 1 PD and recorded his 30th-career INT, which he returned for his third-career INT-TD...Defense forced 2 fourth-quarter INTs, both returned for TDs, to seal the 37-13 win in game 10 at Car. (11/21)
- Started his 200th-career game and led the team with 14 tackles (11 solo), a sack, 1 PD (that led to an INT), a FF and a FR - which came in overtime, leading to the Ravens' game-winning FG four plays later, in the 37-34 victory in game 7 vs. Buf. (10/24)
- Led the team with 13 tackles (10 solo), 1 PD and a game-clinching INT (the 29th of his career and first since 11/16/08) to seal the 17-14 victory in game 4 at Pit. (10/3)
- Finished with 13 tackles (9 solo), 1 sack (-10 yards) and 1 FF for a defense that forced 7 turnovers in two postseason contests

2009: (16/16, 2/2) Named to the NFL All-Decade (2000s) team, chosen every 10 years by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee...Earned his 11th Pro Bowl nod...Led the team with 164 tackles (11th season with at least 150 tackles), 6 PD, 3 sacks (-16 yards), 3 FFs and 1 FR for a squad that finished second in the AFC and third in the NFL in overall defense...It marked the seventh-straight year the Ravens' defense earned a Top 6 ranking

AN ELITE CLUB

In 2011's Week 6 win over Houston, LB Ray Lewis became the only player in NFL history to record 40 sacks and 30 INTs in a career. Below is a list of players with at least 30 sacks and 25 INTs.

NFL PLAYERS WITH 30+ SACKS & 25+ INTS (NFL History)

Player	Games	Sacks	INTs
Ray Lewis (1996-2011)	222	40.5	31
Rodney Harrison (1994-2008)	186	30.5	34
William Thomas (1991-2001)	172	37.0	27

- Led the team with 14 tackles, a sack (-1 yard) and a FF as part of a defense that tied a franchise record, forcing 6 turnovers and holding QB Jay Cutler to a Ravens' franchise-record-low 7.9 QB rating in the 31-7 victory in game 14 vs. Chi. (12/20)
 - Led the Ravens with 11 tackles (9 solo) and 1 FF in the 31-26 win in game 2 at SD (9/20)...Lewis made a monster tackle (Darren Sproles) on fourth-and-2 on the Ravens' 15-yard line, for a 5-yard loss with 15 seconds remaining in the game, to seal the victory...Led a defense that held the Chargers to 53 rushing yards and a 2.5 rushing average in the win
 - Led the team with 21 tackles and a sack (-7 yards) for a defense that allowed just 106 rushing yards and 2.5 yards per rush in the postseason
 - Lewis led the team with 13 tackles and his first-career postseason sack (-7 yards) for a defense that allowed just 64 yards rushing in the 33-14 victory in the Wild Card Game at NE (1/10/10)...Ravens held QB Tom Brady to a 49.1 QB rating, while forcing 4 turnovers, including 3 INTs
- 2008: (16/16, 3/3) Earned his 10th Pro Bowl berth after starting all 16 games, leading the team with 160 tackles (10th season with at least 150)...Lewis also had 3.5 sacks (-32.5 yards), 3 INTs, 1 FF, 2 FRs and 12 PD (second-highest total of career) as the heart and soul of the NFL's second-ranked defense... Ravens finished 2008 not allowing a 100-yard rusher in 35 consecutive games
- Led the team with 13 tackles and recorded a career-high 2 FRs in the 27-7 victory in game 16 vs. Jax. (12/28)
 - Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors as a dominating, disruptive force, leading the team with 9 tackles (6 solo), 2 PD and 2 INTs (1 of which led to a Ravens' TD) in game 9 at Hou. (11/9)
 - Also started all three postseason games, leading the team with 29 tackles (23 solo), 1 PD and 2 FFs (both recovered by the Ravens)
 - Led the team with 9 tackles as part of a defense that held the Dolphins to 52 rushing yards (2.5 avg.) and tied a postseason franchise record by forcing 5 turnovers (4 INTs) in the Wild Card Game at Mia. (1/4/09)
- 2007: (14/14) Named to his ninth Pro Bowl after starting all 14 games he played (missing the final two with a finger injury)... Led the team in tackles for the 10th time in his career with 184 stops, 10 PD, 2 sacks (-7 yards), 2 INTs, 2 FFs and 1 FR
- Surpassed the 2,000-career tackle mark with his 13-tackle performance in game 12 vs. NE (12/3)
 - Led the team with 14 tackles (7 solo), tied a career high with 3 PD (1 of which led to an INT and a Ravens' FG) and helped force the Rams into a Ravens' single-game-record 5 INTs in the 22-3 win in game 6 vs. STL (10/14)
- 2006: (14/14, 1/1) Earned his eighth Pro Bowl invite after an injury to Broncos LB Al Wilson, but Lewis could not play due to a hand injury, giving way to teammate Bart Scott, who earned his first-career Pro Bowl...Started 14 games (missing two with a back injury) and led the team for the ninth time in his career with 164 tackles (ninth 100-tackle season), 9 PD, 5 sacks (-36.5 yards), 2 INTs, 1 FF and 1 FR...Led the NFL's No.1-rated defense in tackles in nine games

COMMUNITY: Established the Ray Lewis Family Foundation to provide personal and economic assistance to disadvantaged youth in Maryland, Florida and beyond...Hosts the annual Ray's Summer Days, with funds benefiting his foundation... The weekend of festivities includes a kickoff celebration, 5K run/walk, community festival, celebrity paintball tournament, youth football camp and receptions... Through his foundation, Lewis hosts an annual Back-to-School Kickoff Event each August... Provides 1,200 Baltimore City students with a free book bag, school supplies and snacks...Each November, Lewis donates a tractor-trailer load of food and personal care/hygiene items for Thanksgiving to more than 800 families in Baltimore...Every December, Lewis hosts the Ray Lewis Holiday Gift Marketplace in which more than 150 Baltimore youth enjoy holiday festivities, including a holiday meal and an opportunity to choose gifts for themselves and loved ones...A recent addition to the foundation programs includes the Jan. 2011 distribution of warm winter gear (coats, gloves, blankets, hats) to 300 youth and seniors in Baltimore...Supports the Ravens' community initiatives, including the annual ACT Auction Party benefiting the Ravens All Community Team Foundation and players foundations, the Countdown to Kickoff BBQ, the Ravens' annual women's event A Purple Evening and the Two Rings For O.J. Fundraiser...His commitment to philanthropy has been honored numerous times throughout his career, including being named a finalist for the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award, given to an NFL player who exemplifies dedication to team, community and country... Also received the "Act of Kindness" Award at the annual JB Awards (named in honor of CBS broadcaster James Brown) banquet in 2006...More information on the Ray Lewis Family Foundation is available at www.raylewisfoundation.org.

LINEBACKER THEFTS

Entering 2012, LB Ray Lewis is the NFL's active INT leader among linebackers, posting 31 picks during his career, including a theft in 2011's Week 1 win against the Steelers. (The pick was part of the Ravens' 7-takeaway performance, which set a franchise record.) Lewis ranks sixth all time in INTs by a linebacker, passing Sam Huff (30) in the 2011 season opener.

FOUR STRAIGHT

The Ravens are the only NFL team to win a playoff game in each of the past four seasons – and the only NFL club to earn a postseason berth in each of those years (2008-11).

MOST NFL PLAYOFF BERTHS / 2008-11

Berths	Team
4	Baltimore Ravens
3	Atlanta, Green Bay, Indianapolis, New England, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh

- The Ravens' five playoff wins over the past four seasons tie Pittsburgh for most in the NFL. Four of the Ravens' victories have come on the road, tying the Jets for the NFL's most.

- Led the team with a career-high 5 PD and posted a tackle in the 17-10 victory in game 11 vs. TB (11/28)
- Recorded his 50th-career INT (which he lateralled to Dawan Landry, who raced the final 23 yards for a TD) and totaled 2 tackles and 1 PD for a defense that forced 2 fourth-quarter INTs, both returned for TDs, sealing the 37-13 win in game 10 at Car. (11/21)
- Started and posted 3 solo tackles, 1 FF, 2 PD and a career-high-tying 2 INTs (9th-career multi-INT game), one of which led to a Ravens TD on the next play in the 37-34 overtime victory in game 7 vs. Buf. (10/24)
- Was activated off of the PUP list (hip) on 10/23
- Recorded 7 tackles (6 solo) and 1 FR in two postseason contests

2009: (12/12, 2/2) Despite missing four games with injuries, Reed earned his sixth-career Pro Bowl nod (fourth in a row) after totalling 54 tackles (50 solo), 6 PD, 3 INTs (returned for 111 yards), 3 FFs and 1 FR for a squad that finished second in the AFC and third in the NFL in overall defense...It marked the seventh straight year the Ravens' defense has earned a Top 6 ranking

REED'S 13 TDS

Including postseason, Ed Reed has scored 13 TDs in his career. Amazingly, Reed is the only player in NFL history to score TDs off a punt return, blocked punt, INT and fumble recovery. Reed's 9 defensive TDs (7 INTs and 2 FRs) are the most in Ravens franchise history:

RAVENS ALL-TIME INT LEADERS

Entering 2012, Ed Reed is the Ravens' all-time INTs leader with 57. Reed also has the most INT return yards in franchise history (1,463). He led the NFL with 8 INTs in 2010, despite playing in just 10 games due to a hip injury. He also led the league with 9 INTs in 2008, returning the picks for 264 yards, including a 107-yard return for a TD, the longest INT return in NFL history. Reed led the league with 9 INTs in 2004, returning those for an NFL-record 358 yards.

20 ED REED

then-longest INT return in NFL history, to seal the victory vs. Cle. (11/7), earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors (Week 9) for his efforts...Led secondary and tied for fourth on the team (Kelly Gregg) with 89 tackles (80 solo) and led the team with 17 PD...Had 2 TDs, including 1 FR for a TD (against Was. - 10/10), 3 FFs, 2 FRs and 2 sacks (-28 yards)

- Recorded 2 solo tackles, including 1 TFL, 3 PD and his league-leading 9th INT, which he returned 41 yards in a 30-23 victory in the season finale vs. Mia. (1/2/05)...Gave him a then-NFL record 358 INT return yards, breaking a 43-year-old record (349 by Charlie McNeil, SD in 1961) against the Dolphins...Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month award for November
- Recorded 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 PD and posted his 4th INT of the season with 45 seconds remaining in the game, which he returned a then-NFL-record 106 yards for a TD to seal the 27-13 victory in game 8 vs. Cle. (11/7)

2003: (16/15, 1/1) Earned his first-career Pro Bowl after leading the team with 19 PD and tied a then-franchise record with 7 INTs, 1 of which he returned for a TD...Also blocked 2 punts, both of which he returned for TDs, the second and third of his career...Finished fifth on the team with a career-high 92 tackles (77 solo), 1 sack and 1 FF

- Had 10 tackles (7 solo) and produced the biggest play of the game when he blocked a Tom Rouen punt, recovered the ball and returned it 16 yards for a TD, to cut the deficit to 10 with just 6:41 remaining in game 11 vs. Sea. (11/23)... Ravens went on to tie the game and eventually win in OT... With that blocked punt return for a TD, Reed tied DB Tom Flynn for the most blocked PRs for TDs in a career in NFL history (since the merger in 1970)
- Started and had 6 solo tackles and his 4th INT of the season in game 5 at Ari. (10/12)...Earned AFC Special

Teams Player of the Week honors after he blocked a punt (third of his career) and returned it 22 yards for a TD (second time in his career) against the Cardinals...His only missed start (at Oak., 12/14) was because the defense's first play was on the goal line

2002: (16/16) Started all 16 games as a rookie and finished fourth on the team with 86 tackles (69 solo)...Also posted 1 sack (3 yards), 13 PD and a Ravens' rookie record-tying 5 INTs (Ravens best in 2002)...Also blocked the first 2 punts in franchise history, one of which he returned for a TD, and had 8 special teams tackles

- Amassed 4 solo tackles in game 3 vs. Den. (9/30)... Intercepted Brian Griese for his first-career INT and blocked the first punt in Ravens history

COLLEGE: A consensus first-team All-America selection as a senior at Miami...Football News National Player of the Year... Unanimous All-Big East Conference first-team selection and Co-defensive Player of the Year...Was the team leader on the Hurricanes' National Championship team at safety as a senior, when he was co-captain...Led team and was second in school history with 9 INTs (Bennie Blades, 10 in 1986) for a school-record 209 yards and 3 TDs...Consensus first-team All-America and consensus first-team All-Big East selection as a junior...Led Big East with school-record 23 PD...Was third in the nation with 8 INTs for 92 yards, including 2 TDs...Earned All-Big East second-team honors as a sophomore...Was fifth on team with 74 tackles (48 solo) and was fourth on team with 4 sacks...Named Freshman All-America by both Football News and The Sporting News... RAVENS ROOST EXTRA EFFORT AWARD

The award is given each year by the Ravens Roost #7 (Hagerstown, MD) to a Ravens player who worked hard all season, providing an "extra effort" on the field. The recipients have stepped up in the clutch and performed when a teammate was hurt and have always exerted full effort when on the field.

Winners accept their award at the Roost's annual banquet in Hagerstown each spring. The Roost also honors the All-Washington County football team and Washington County Coach of the Year at the banquet.

2003: (16/1, 1/1) Finished fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL with a franchise rookie-record 12 sacks (-97 yards)... Totaled 33 tackles, 6 FFs, 4 FRs, 3 PD and 1 INT in 2003... Became just the second Raven (Peter Boulware – 1997) to earn Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year honors... Also earned Defensive Rookie of the Month (September)

- Posted 5 tackles (3 solo), including 2 sacks (-9 yards), which established a new franchise rookie record with 12 sacks (Peter Boulware – 11.5 in 1997) in game 15 at Cle. (12/21)

- Tied an NFL record (Santana Dotson – 1992) with a sack in each of the first four games of his career in game 4 vs. KC (9/28)

- Was used mainly in passing situations at DE and recorded his third sack in as many games in the 24-10 win in game 3 at SD (9/21)...Pulled in his first-career INT against the Chargers, leading to a Jamal Lewis TD two plays later

- Subbed and recorded his first NFL sack (-7 yards) in his first NFL game in the season opener at Pit. (9/7)

COLLEGE: Shattered school, conference and NCAA single-season records with 24 sacks in 2002...One of the most dominant pass rushers in the history of college football, Suggs entered the draft after his junior season...His career totals of 44 sacks and 65.5 TFL set school records...Started 34 of 36

2011 NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Five-time Pro Bowl OLB Terrell Suggs, who was named the 2011 Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted three 3-sack games in 2011, finishing with a career-high 14 sacks. Suggs also forced an NFL-high 7 fumbles, setting a career high and a Ravens' single-season record. Suggs' 14 sacks in 2011 ranked third in Ravens history and first in the AFC (also tying Aldon Smith for fifth in the NFL). Only DE Michael McCrary (14.5 in 1998) and LB Peter Boulware (15 in 2001) had more in a Ravens' season.

2011 OFFENSIVE FAST FACTS

- Baltimore was one of two teams to have a 3,500-yard passer (Joe Flacco), a 1,300-yard rusher (Ray Rice) and two 800-yard receivers (Anquan Boldin/Torrey Smith). Atlanta was the other team to achieve this feat.
- The Ravens were the only team with a 3,500-yard passer, 1,300-yard rusher and five 400-yard receivers.
- Baltimore was the only team in the NFL to produce 35 offensive touchdowns while allowing less than 25.
- Baltimore was the only team to record at least 15 rushing TDs, 20 passing TDs and 5 return TDs.
- The Ravens were one of four teams to boast five different players who recorded at least 40 receptions for 400 yards. New Orleans, San Diego and Tennessee also achieved the mark.
- The Ravens ranked third in the NFL with 26 10-play scoring drives (the most in Joe Flacco's career). Baltimore also produced 10 "quick-strike" scoring drives (four plays or fewer), which tied for the NFL's third most and tied for the top spot in Flacco's career (2008).

DOMINANT AT HOME

For the first time in team history, the Ravens went undefeated at home (8-0) in 2011 and became just one of three NFL teams (GB and NO) to accomplish the feat last season. Under head coach John Harbaugh (2008-11), the Ravens were 27-5 in games played in Baltimore, winning 18 of their last 19 home games.

29 CARY WILLIAMS

DID YOU KNOW?

The Ravens' "D" has been stout at home for many seasons. Since the 2003 campaign, Baltimore ranks first in fewest points (14.8) and yards allowed per game (275.1) among NFL home teams. The Ravens also have the most INTs (109) and have posted the second-most sacks (202).

DIVISION SWEEP IN 2011

For the first time in franchise history, the Ravens swept the AFC North division. Only Baltimore and Green Bay went undefeated in division play in 2011, becoming just the sixth and seventh teams to accomplish such a feat since 2008:

TEAMS UNDEFEATED IN DIVISION PLAY (2008-11)

Team	Division	Year
Baltimore Ravens	AFC North	2011
Green Bay Packers	NFC North	2011
Oakland Raiders	AFC West	2010
Indianapolis Colts	AFC South	2009
Cincinnati Bengals	AFC North	2009
Arizona Cardinals	NFC West	2008
Pittsburgh Steelers	AFC North	2008

AFC North is NFL's Best:

- In 2011, the AFC North was the only division to produce three teams with winning records (Baltimore: 12-4, Pittsburgh: 12-4 and Cincinnati: 9-7), all clubs that made the 2011 playoffs.

2011 PLAYER HONORS

C MATT BIRK

Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year

Birk, the six-time Pro Bowler, won the prestigious Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, which honors a player's volunteer and charity work as well as his excellence on the field. Birk is very active with his H.I.K.E. Foundation (Hope, Inspiration, Knowledge, Education) both in Baltimore and in Minneapolis.

QB JOE FLACCO

FedEx Air NFL Player of the Week (Week 3)

GMC "Never Say Never Moment" (Week 9)

Flacco, the Ravens' all-time leading passer, earned the FedEx Air NFL Player of the Week award following a 3-TD and 300-yard passing performance in the 37-7 victory at St. Louis. Flacco also engineered a 13-play, 92-yard drive in the Week 9 win at Pittsburgh, hitting WR Torrey Smith with a 26-yard TD pass with 8 seconds left to seal the 23-20 victory. That effort was voted as the GMC "Never Say Never Moment" of the week.

G BEN GRUBBS

Pro Bowl - 1st Invite

Despite missing six games with a toe injury, Grubbs earned his first Pro Bowl invite. He was one of the key members of a solid O-line that helped Ray Rice lead the league with 2,068 yards from scrimmage and protected Joe Flacco, the team's all-time leading passer.

OLB JARRET JOHNSON

AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 4)

The durable Johnson, who played in 129 consecutive games as a Raven, earned his first-career AFC Defensive Player of the Week award for his Week 4 performance vs. NYJ when he posted 3 tackles, 2 QB hits and a 26-yard FR-TD.

FB VONTA LEACH

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 2nd Invite / All-Pro (AP)

Sports Illustrated 1st-Team All-Pro (Peter King)

The lead blocker for Ray Rice, Leach earned his second Pro Bowl invite in his first year in Baltimore. Thanks in large part to Leach, Rice was the NFL's leader in yards from scrimmage (2,068) and was second with 1,364 rushing yards in 2011.

LB RAY LEWIS

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 13th Invite

AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 3)

Lewis earned his 13th Pro Bowl invite after leading the team with 95 tackles, 2 sacks, 1 INT and 2 FFs, despite missing games 10-13 with a foot injury. Baltimore's defense finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed.

OLB TERRELL SUGGS

RB RAY RICE

DT HALOTI NGATA

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 3rd Invite / All-Pro (AP) PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team / Sporting News All-Pro Sports Illustrated 1st-Team All-Pro (Peter King)

One of the NFL's most disruptive forces, Ngata was voted to his third-straight trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2011, the athletic DT had 64 tackles, 5 sacks (-21 yards), 3 FRs (1 returned for TD) and 2 FFs.

S ED REED

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 8th Invite / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

Reed earned his eighth Pro Bowl nod in 2011. His 3 INTs brought his career total to 57, the most in Ravens history and the NFL since he entered the league in 2002. Among active players, Reed's career INTs also rank first, as do his 1,463 INT return yards (which rank second in NFL history).

RB RAY RICE

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 2nd Invite / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

GMC "Never Say Never Moment" (Week 8) FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week (Week 13, 17) AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 13, 17)

Rice, who earned his second Pro Bowl in 2011, posted a career-best and an NFL-high 2,068 yards from scrimmage, also adding a Ravens-record 15 total TDs (12 rushing and 3 receiving). His 1,364 rushing yards ranked second in the NFL. He also became just the second player in NFL history to post multiple 1,000-yard rushing/700-yard receiving seasons (also in 2009), joining Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk (1998-2001).

WR TORREY SMITH

AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 11) Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week - NFL.com vote (Week 11)

Smith turned in an impressive rookie year, setting team rookie records with 841 receiving yards and 7 touchdowns. He also set an NFL mark with 3 TD catches in his first 3 NFL receptions in Week 3 at St. Louis.

OLB TERRELL SUGGS

NFL Defensive Player of the Year (AP, PFW, K.C. NFL 101) Pro Bowl (Starter) - 5th Invite / All-Pro (AP) PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team / Sporting News All-Pro Butkus Award (co-winner, DeMarcus Ware) AFC Defensive Player of the Month (December/January) AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 1, 12, 14)

Terrell Suggs was dominant, earning the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year award, joining Ray Lewis (2000 & 2003) and Ed Reed (2004), the other Ravens to win the coveted honor. Suggs had a career-high 14 sacks and an NFL-high 7 FRs in 2011.

G MARSHAL YANDA

Pro Bowl - 1st Invite / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP) Sports Illustrated 1st-Team All-Pro (Peter King)

The Ravens' unsung hero, Yanda earned his first Pro Bowl nod following a strong season at right guard.

The host Titans compiled an impressive 432 yards of offense and outscored the Ravens, 16-3, in the second half to earn a 26-13 victory. Tennessee QB Matt Hasselbeck completed 30 of 42 passes for 358 yards, including 9 to WR Kenny Britt for 135. Baltimore struggled to convert third downs (3 of 10) and had trouble stopping the Titans' offense on third down (7 of 17), as Tennessee held the ball for almost 36 minutes of the game. The teams were tied at 10 at the half after trading touchdowns (a QB Joe Flacco-to-RB Ray Rice 31-yard TD and a 4-yard Hasselbeck-to-Britt score), and a pair of field goals (Titans' K Rob Bironas for 25 yards and K Billy Cundiff from 41 yards). RB Javon Ringer gave the Titans a 17-10 lead after he ran 10 yards to the end zone on a fourth-and-1 in the third quarter. Tennessee extended the margin to 23-10 early in the fourth quarter on a pair of Bironas FGs (43 and 39 yards). Cundiff's fourth-quarter 29-yard FG cut the difference to 10 (23-13), but Bironas' 33-yarder was the game's final score. Flacco completed 15 of 32 passes for 197 yards with 2 INTs. Rice had 5 catches for 53 yards and rushed 13 times for 43 more. The Ravens were without starting LG Ben Grubbs, who was out with a toe injury.

Baltimore (1-0) Pittsburgh (0-1)
 Sunday, September 11, 2011 • 1:05 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
 Weather: 75° • Partly Cloudy, Wind NE 2 mph • Attendance 71,434 • Time 3:02

Setting a team record with 7 take-aways, the Ravens dumped the visiting Steelers, 35-7. Baltimore opened the game with a 3-play, 66-yard TD drive that ended with a QB Joe Flacco 27-yard scoring toss to WR Anquan Boldin. The Ravens grabbed a 14-0 first-quarter lead after OLB Terrell Suggs, who had 3 sacks - becoming the Ravens' all-time sacks leader (71.5) - took down QB Ben Roethlisberger and stripped him of the ball. Four plays later, RB Ray Rice scored the first of his 2 TDs of the game. The Steelers came back in the second quarter with their lone score of a TD on a Roethlisberger-to-WR Emmanuel Sanders 11-yard TD. A Flacco-to-Rice 11-yard TD made the score 21-7 at the half. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, DT Haloti Ngata forced and recovered a RB Rashard Mendenhall fumble at the Steelers' 18. Flacco then hit TE Ed Dickson with an 18-yard TD throw. P/H Sam Koch ran in a 2-point conversion to give Baltimore a 29-7 lead. Two second-half FGs (29 and 30 yards) by K Billy Cundiff gave the Ravens the final 28-point victory margin. Flacco completed 17 of 29 for 224 yards and 3 TDs (117.6 rating), while Rice rushed for 107 yards on 19 carries. Roethlisberger completed 22 of 41 for 280 yards, tossing 3 INTs - S Ed Reed stole 2 Big Ben passes - and was sacked 4 times. WR Mike Wallace caught 8 passes for 107 yards.

GAME 4 • RAVENS 34, JETS 17

Baltimore (3-1) New York (2-2)
 Sunday, October 2, 2011 • 8:30 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
 Weather: 51° Cloudy, Wind WSW 6 mph • Attendance 71,247 • Time 3:23

For the first time in team history, the Ravens' defense scored 3 TDs when Baltimore stopped the visiting Jets. 34-17. LBs Jameel McClain and Jarret Johnson and CB Lardarius Webb each scored TDs for Baltimore. McClain gave the Ravens a 7-0, first-quarter lead when he raced 6 yards after a QB Mark Sanchez fumble caused by S Ed Reed on the Jets' first play from scrimmage. New York immediately tied the game on Joe McKnight's 107-yard RB Ray Rice TD dive gave the Ravens a 17-7, first-quarter advantage. Baltimore extended the lead to 27-7 on another Cundiff 38-yarder and Johnson's 26-yard FR-TD (Sanchez fumble forced by DT Haloti Ngata). The Jets' LB David Harris made the score 27-14 at the half when he grabbed a QB Joe Flacco INT and sprinted 35 yards to the end zone. Webb made the final margin 17 with his 73-yard INT-TD at the 8:49 mark of the third quarter. The Ravens and Jets' 5 combined return touchdowns are the most in NFL single-game history. Baltimore's defense limited the Jets to 150 total yards – including just 38 rushing – both low marks for New York under Rex Ryan. Rice combined for 130 yards, 66 rushing and 64 receiving. The two defenses made it rough nights for QBs; Flacco was 10-of-31 for 163 yards, while Sanchez completed 11 of 35 passes for 119.

GAME 3 • RAVENS 37, RAMS 7

Baltimore (2-1) St. Louis (0-3)
 Sunday, September 25, 2011 • 3:05 PM CT • Edward Jones Dome • St. Louis
 Weather: Indoors; Outdoors: 65° Cloudy • Attendance 56,289 • Time 3:03

The Ravens set a team record with 553 total yards on offense; QB Joe Flacco threw for a career-high 389 yards, but the player who stole the show in Baltimore's 37-7 victory at St. Louis was rookie WR Torrey Smith. Smith, the team's second-round selection, scored 3 touchdowns in the first quarter on his initial trio of NFL receptions. Smith, who finished with 5 catches for 152 yards, caught TDs of 74, 41 and 18 yards in the first 13 minutes and 12 seconds of the game. (He became the first rookie in NFL history to catch 3 TDs in the first quarter of a game.) A pair of K Billy Cundiff field goals (21 and 31 yards) gave the Ravens a 27-0 halftime lead. Baltimore's 406 first-half yards also set a team mark. A 38-yard Cundiff FG and DT Haloti Ngata's 28-yard TD sprint after recovering a QB Sam Bradford fumble completed the Ravens' scoring. It was Ngata's first-career TD. The Rams' lone score came on a Bradford-to-WR Brandon Gibson throw (34 yards). Baltimore's defense held host St. Louis to 244 yards and sacked Bradford 5 times. Flacco completed 27 of 48 passes, including 7 balls to WR Anquan Boldin (74 yards). RB Ray Rice caught 5 for 83 more and rushed 9 times for 81 yards. It was Rice's 25th 100-yard scrimmage game of his four-year career. The Ravens have scored a D-TD in each year of their existence (47 all time).

GAME 6 • JAGUARS 12, RAVENS 7

Baltimore (4-2), Jacksonville (2-5)
 Monday, October 24, 2011 • 8:40 PM ET • EverBank Field • Jacksonville
 Weather: 60° Clear, Wind 0 mph • Attendance 62,976 • Time 3:21

The host Jaguars held the Ravens scoreless for nearly the first 56 minutes of the game when they defeated Baltimore, 12-7, at EverBank Field. Jacksonville held the Ravens to a record-low 16 yards in the first half when Baltimore did not manage a first down. The Jaguars, who gained only 85 yards in the first two quarters, took a 6-0 halftime lead on dual 54-yard Josh Scobee field goals. Scobee added a 22-yard FG in the third quarter, giving Jacksonville a 9-0 lead. The Ravens' offense came alive in the fourth quarter, producing a 13-play, 90-yard drive that ended with a QB Joe Flacco 5-yard touchdown throw to WR Anquan Boldin. With the score 9-7 and 2:02 left in the game, Baltimore's onside kick failed to travel 10 yards, and the Jaguars took over. Scobee added a 51-yard FG with 1:43 remaining. The Ravens produced just 146 yards in the game and converted on only 2 of 12 third downs. Baltimore's defense almost matched the Jaguars, allowing 205 yards and 2 of 16 third-down conversions. Jaguars RB Maurice Jones-Drew became the first RB in 2011 to gain 100 yards (30 carries for 105) against the Ravens.

GAME 5 • RAVENS 29, TEXANS 14

Baltimore (4-1), Houston (3-3)
 Sunday, October 16, 2011 • 4:06 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
 Weather: 72° Partly Cloudy, Wind SSW 10 mph • Attendance 71,154 • Time 3:05

After trailing 14-13 in the third quarter, the Ravens scored the game's final 15 points to win, 29-14, over the Texans at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens became the first team in 2011 to stop Houston from scoring in the first quarter, taking a 7-0 lead on a QB Joe Flacco 1-yard drive that completed a 16-play, 97-yard drive. Baltimore took a 10-7 halftime lead on a K Billy Cundiff 43-yard field goal that followed Texans G Wade Smith's TD. (Smith jumped on a RB Ben Tate fumble in the end zone.) After Cundiff added another FG (48 yards) in the third quarter, Houston took the 14-13 lead on a QB Matt Schaub 32-yard TD strike to WR Jacoby Jones. Cundiff gave the Ravens a 19-14 lead after 2 more FGs (25 and 33 yards). Baltimore sealed the game on RB Ricky Williams' 4-yard TD run, which made the score 26-14 with four minutes left in the game. Cundiff, who produced 7 touchdowns, added a 40-yard FG to make the final score (29-14). RB Ray Rice, who rushed for just 16 yards in the first half, finished the game with 101 while adding 60 yards on 5 receptions. WR Anquan Boldin led all receivers with 8 catches for 132 yards. Flacco completed 20 of 33 passes for 305 yards. Baltimore's defense limited the explosive Texans to 293 yards. Schaub was 21-of-37 for 220 yards. LB Ray Lewis became the first player in NFL history to record at least 40 sacks and 30 INTs in a career.

GAME 8 • RAVENS 23, STEELERS 20

Baltimore (6-2) Pittsburgh (6-3)
 Sunday, November 6, 2011 • 8:30 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh
 Weather: 50°; Party Cloudy, Wind SE 2 mph • Attendance 64,851 • Time 3:20

QB Joe Flacco's 26-yard touchdown pass to rookie WR Torrey Smith with 8 seconds left in the game gave the Ravens a 23-20 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field. The TD completed a 13-play, 92-yard drive that started at the Ravens' 8-yard line with 2:24 remaining. Flacco was 7-of-13 for 92 yards on the drive. In a battle that featured the NFL's No. 1 (Baltimore) and 2- (Pittsburgh) ranked defenses, only field goals were scored in the first half when the Ravens owned a 9-6 lead. K. Billy Cundiff made FGs of 18, 43 and 51 yards in the initial quarters, while K. Shaun Suisham connected from 36 and 30 yards. The Ravens took a 16-6, third-quarter lead on a 4-yard RB Ray Rice TD. The Steelers then rallied in the fourth quarter with 2 TDs, the first on a RB Rashard Mendenhall 1-yard blast and the second on QB Ben Roethlisberger's 25-yard dart to WR Mike Wallace, giving the hosts a 20-16 advantage with 4:59 remaining. The Ravens converted a franchise-record 14 of 21 third downs. Flacco completed 28 of 47 passes for 300 yards, including 7 to WR Anquan Boldin (88 yards) and 5 each to Smith (71), TE Dennis Pitta (46) and Rice (43). Flacco became the second Ravens QB ever (Vinny Testaverde in inaugural 1996 season) to post back-to-back 300-yard passing games, also producing his ninth-career (including playoffs) game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime.

In the biggest comeback in team history, the Ravens stopped the Cardinals, 30-27. Baltimore trailed by 21 at 24-3 in the second quarter. The Cardinals' 3 TDs all came without much movement against the Ravens' defense. Arizona's first TD followed a QB Joe Flacco fumble that put the ball on the Ravens' 2-yard line. RB Beanie Wells scored from the 1-yard line to give the Cards a 10-3 lead. CB Patrick Peterson then took a Sam Koch punt 82 yards for another TD (and a 17-3 lead). On the next play from scrimmage in the second quarter, Flacco's pass popped off WR Torrey Smith's hands and was intercepted (Richard Marshall) at the Baltimore 25. WR Early Doucet then quickly scored on a 10-yard throw from QB Kevin Kolb. The Ravens brought the score to 24-6 at halftime after 2 K Billy Cundiff field goals (26 and 47 yards). Baltimore's comeback started with a TD (RB Ray Rice, 1 yard) on the first series of the third quarter. Rice followed with another 1-yard and a 3-yard TD to give the Ravens an early 27-24, fourth-quarter lead. K. Jay Feely's 45-yard FG tied the game at 27 with 8:55 left in the contest. The Ravens got the ball back at the Arizona 44 with 52 seconds remaining. After a 36-yard Flacco-to-Smith completion to the Cardinals' 5, Cundiff kicked the 25-yard winner. While the Ravens held the Cards to 207 yards, Baltimore gained 405, with 298 coming in the air (Flacco was 31-of-51 for 336 yards). WR Anquan Boldin, a former Cardinal, was dominant, catching 7 for 145 yards. Rice also caught 7, while TE Ed Dickson (46 yards) and Dennis Pitta (44) caught 6 passes each. The Ravens' defense sacked Kolb 6 times.

GAME 10 • RAVENS 31, BENGALS 24

Baltimore (7-3) Cincinnati (6-4)
 Sunday, November 20, 2011 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
 Weather: 67°; Partly Cloudy, Wind SW 7 mph • Attendance 71,320 • Time 3:19

In a wild game that was not decided until rookie DE Pernell McPhee sacked Bengals QB Andy Dalton at the Ravens' 22-yard line with 33 seconds left in the game, host Baltimore stopped Cincinnati, 31-24. The turning point in the game came late in the third quarter and at the beginning of the fourth when the Ravens scored on back-to-back possessions with one-play drives following interceptions of Dalton. CB Jimmy Smith grabbed the first INT of his career in a play that ended on the Bengals' 2, where RB Ray Rice sprinted in for the TD. On Cincinnati's next possession, CB Lardarius Webb stole the Dalton pass, and on the next play, QB Joe Flacco hit WR Torrey Smith for a 38-yard TD. That gave the Ravens a 31-14, fourth-quarter advantage. Earlier, the Bengals took a 7-0, first-quarter lead on a 7-yard RB Cedric Benson run. The Ravens scored the game's next 17 points on a Flacco-to-WR Anquan Boldin 35-yard TD, a 1-yard Rice dive and a 22-yard K Billy Cundiff field goal (that followed a 59-yard Rice run). Cincy added a fourth quarter TD (Dalton to WR Andre Caldwell for 49 yards) and a K Mike Nugent 27-yard FG. Smith set a Ravens' rookie receiving record (yards) with 165 on 6 catches. (Smith's 590 yards for the season are also a Baltimore rookie mark.) Rice totaled 147 yards, 104 on the ground and 43 on 5 catches. Flacco produced a 105.5 QB rating after completing 17 of 27 passes for 270 yards. Dalton was 24-of-45 for 373 yards with 1 TD and 3 INT's. Bengals WR Jerome Simpson caught 8 for 152 yards.

GAME 9 • SEAHAWKS 22, RAVENS 17

Baltimore (6-3) Seattle (3-6)
 Sunday, November 13, 2011 • 1:06 PM PT • CenturyLink Field • Seattle
 Weather: 50°; Cloudy, Wind SSW 10 mph • Attendance 66,522 • Time 3:19

For the third time this season, the Ravens lost on the road to a team entering the game with a losing record, dropping a 22-17 decision at Seattle. Baltimore fell behind 10-0 in the first quarter after Seattle RB Marshawn Lynch scored on a 1-yard run. K Steve Hauschka hit the first of his 5 field goals (22, 38, 39, 35 and 30) after WR/RS David Reed fumbled a kickoff return at the Ravens' 19. Baltimore came within a kickoff return at the Ravens' 19. Baltimore came within 3 after a RB Ray Rice 1-yard TD pass to TE Ed Dickson. Hauschka added 3 more FGs in the second quarter, the last coming after Reed fumbled another KOR at the Ravens' 18. Seattle increased a 19-7 halftime lead to 22-7 early in the third quarter on Hauschka's 5th FG, which was set up by LB David Hawthorne's interception of QB Joe Flacco. Hawthorne took the theft to the Ravens' 8-yard line. Ravens K Billy Cundiff narrowed the margin to 22-10 with a 35-yard FG in the third quarter. Flacco threw an 11-yard TD pass to Dickson with 5:52 left in the game to bring Baltimore within 5 (22-17). But the Seahawks then kept the ball the remainder of the game. Lynch finished with 109 yards rushing, adding 58 more on 5 catches. Flacco threw a career-high 52 passes, completing 29 for 255 yards, including 10 (79 yards) to Dickson (the most catches in a game by a Ravens' tight end).

GAME 14 • CHARGERS 34, RAVENS 14

Baltimore (10-4) San Diego (7-7)
 Sunday, December 18, 2011 • 5:30 PM PT • Snapdragon Stadium • San Diego
 Weather: 58° Cloudy, Wind SW 7 mph • Attendance 67,242 • Time 2:42

The Ravens had a four-game winning streak stopped in San Diego when the red-hot Chargers (three wins in a row) won, 34-14. The Chargers, who gained 415 yards against the highly-ranked Ravens' defense, scored on their first five possessions of the game, including four touchdowns. San Diego RB Mike Tolbert opened the game's scoring with a 2-yard TD run that completed a 12-play, 74-yard drive. Baltimore tied the game at 7 when QB Joe Flacco hit TE Ed Dickson with a 15-yard TD throw early in the second quarter. A 45-yard Nick Novak field goal and a 1-yard TD run by RB Ryan Mathews gave the Chargers a 17-7 half-time advantage. A 28-yard TD pass from QB Philip Rivers to WR Malcolm Floyd on the opening drive of the second half made the margin 24-7. Mathews added a second TD (3 yards), and Novak made a 28-yard FG to complete the Chargers' scoring. The Ravens' final TD came with 1:55 left in the game on a Flacco-to-WR Torrey Smith 36-yard completion. Flacco was 23-of-34 for 226 yards with 2 INTs, while Rivers completed 17 of 23 passes for 270 yards and a 1271 QB rating. Baltimore's 21-game streak of not allowing an opening-drive TD was snapped. Despite the loss, Baltimore earned a playoff berth for a franchise-record fourth straight season.

The Ravens grabbed a 17-0, second-quarter lead and limited the Colts' offense to just 167 yards in their 24-10 victory at M&T Bank Stadium. Baltimore jumped to a 10-0, first-quarter advantage on QB Joe Flacco's 8-yard TD pass to WR Torrey Smith and K Billy Cundiff's 36-yard FG. A 6-yard RB Ray Rice TD run gave the Ravens the 17-0 gap before Indianapolis K Adam Vinatieri's 22-yard FG made the score 17-3 at the half. Flacco found TE Dennis Pitta with a 7-yard TD pass to make the margin 24-3 after three quarters. The Colts scored their lone TD on the last play of the game on a QB Dan Orlovsky-to-TE Jacob Tamme 13-yard play. Until that last Colts' drive, the Indy offense had been held to 91 yards. OLB Terrell Suggs led the Ravens' defense with 3 sacks, giving him a career-high 13 for the season. Suggs also set a single-game team record by forcing 3 fumbles in the contest. Rice continued to be one of the NFL's top weapons, rushing for 103 yards (26 carries) and catching a game-high 6 passes for 46 yards. Flacco completed 23 of 31 game-high 6 passes for 46 yards. WR Anquan Boldin for 227 yards, posting a 102.5 QB rating. WR Anquan Boldin and Smith each caught 5 for 57 and 48 yards, respectively. Orlovsky was 17-of-37 for 136 yards (with 76 coming on the game's final drive). The Ravens won their ninth consecutive game at home and improved to 7-0 in 2011. Baltimore's nine-game home winning streak set a franchise record, while the Ravens improved to 10-3 overall, their best start under John Harbaugh and tying for the best start in franchise history (2006).

2011 GAME SUMMARIES

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP • PATRIOTS 23, RAVENS 20

Baltimore (13-5) New England (15-3)
 Sunday, January 22, 2012 • 3:05 PM ET • Gillette Stadium • Foxborough
 Weather: 29°, Cloudy and Cold, Wind ENE 6 mph • Attendance 68,756 • Time 3:06

The Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game. It came down to Baltimore's final drive in the fourth quarter, when the Ravens had a chance to win or tie the game. But a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Lee Evans pass fell incomplete, and K Billy Cundiff's last-second 32-yard FG attempt sailed wide left, sealing the victory for New England. The Patriots opened the scoring with a 29-yard K Stephen Gostkowski FG on their second drive of the first quarter. On New England's next possession, CB Lardarius Webb intercepted QB Tom Brady, and the Ravens tied the game early in the second quarter with a 20-yard FG. The Pats answered with a 7-yard RB BenJarvis Green-Ellis TD run, but on their next possession, the Ravens tied the game again with a 6-yard Flacco-to-TE Dennis Pitta TD. The Patriots led 13-10 at the half after the Ravens held them to another Gostkowski FG (35). The Patriots settled again for a 24-yard FG on New England's opening drive of the third quarter, making the score 16-10. Baltimore took the lead (17-16) for the first time in the game when WR Torrey Smith caught a Flacco pass and raced 29 yards down the sideline and dove for the pylon. Baltimore forced a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and capitalized with a 39-yard FG, making the score 20-16. But, Brady, who was intercepted twice, dove on a fourth-and-inches play at the goal-line in the fourth quarter making the score 23-20, which ended up being the final margin. Flacco completed 22 of 36 passes for a franchise-playoff-record 306 yards and 2 TDs. The Ravens set a playoff franchise record with 398 yards of total offense, with Baltimore's 282 net passing yards also ranking as a Ravens' postseason record.

DIVISIONAL • RAVENS 20, TEXANS 13

Baltimore (13-4) Houston (11-7)
 Sunday, January 15, 2012 • 1:05 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
 Weather: 31°, Sunny, Cold, Wind NNW 7 mph • Attendance 71,547 • Time 3:06

The Ravens forced 4 Texans turnovers, jumped to a 17-3 first-quarter lead and won, 20-13, at M&T Bank Stadium in a Divisional Round showdown. Baltimore, winners of the AFC North, turned 2 first-quarter Houston turnovers into touchdowns on its way to topping the AFC South champions. After the Texans took a 3-0 lead on a 40-yard K Neil Rackers' field goal - set up by S Danieal Manning's game-opening 60-yard kickoff return - the Ravens scored 17 consecutive points. CB Jimmy Smith's fumble recovery of WR Jacoby Jones attempted punt return gave the Ravens the ball at the Texans' 2. QB Joe Flacco then hit TE Kris Wilson with a 1-yard TD toss. After a 48-yard K Billy Cundiff FG, CB Lardarius Webb stole a QB T.J. Yates pass at the Houston 34. Flacco followed with a 10-yard TD to WR Anquan Boldin for the 17-3 lead. The Texans made it 17-13 at the half after scoring twice in the second quarter: Rackers' 33-yard FG and a 1-yard RB Arian Foster TD run. Cundiff's 44-yard FG provided the final margin in the fourth quarter. A Texans comeback was stopped with 1:51 left in the game on S Ed Reed's interception. Webb grabbed 2 INTs as the Ravens held Yates to a 28.8 QB rating (17 of 35 for 184 yards with 3 INTs.). Flacco was 14 of 27 for 176 (97.1 rating). Foster was impressive, rushing 27 times for 132 yards, while Texans WR Andre Johnson caught 8 for 111. Foster became the first player to rush for over 100 yards against the Ravens in the postseason.

A LOOK BACK SUPER BOWL XXXV

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown.

Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air, and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the New York Giants, 34-7.

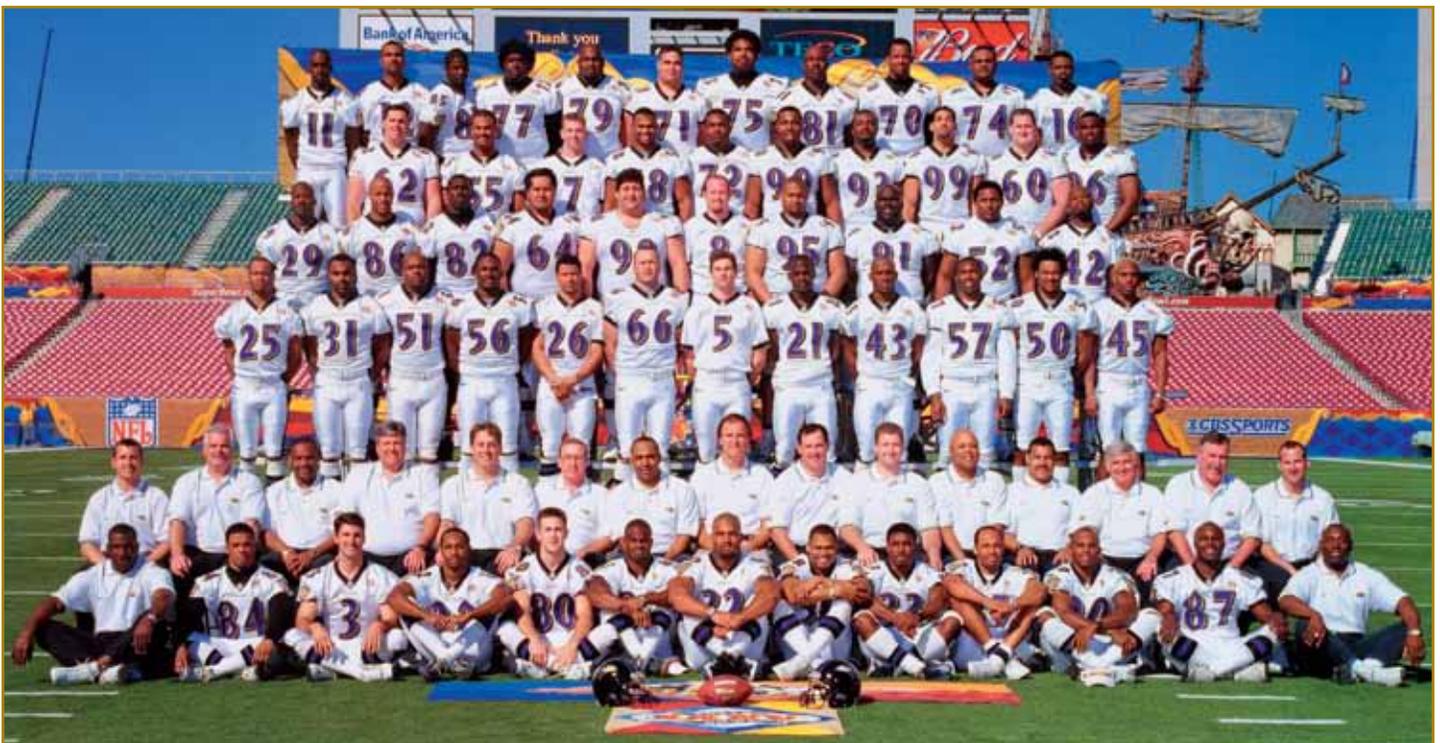

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday presented phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Kevin Byrne and Francine Lubera of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book "Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season" (above left), published in July of 2001.

BALTIMORE FOOTBALL HISTORY

COLTS HISTORY

12/28/46 - Baltimore awarded bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. Re-named Colts via a fan contest.

12/8/49 - AAFC/NFL reached merger agreement. Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

12/19/50 - Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

1/18/51 - Franchise withdrew from league and received $50,000 for players by the NFL.

1951-52 - No Colts team existed.

12/3/52 - Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks, three days.

10/1/53 - Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texans' franchise.

12/28/58 - Colts defeated NYG, 23-17, at Yankee Stadium for World Championship. That game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant.

12/27/59 - The Colts won their second-straight World Championship over Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

1/8/63 - Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach.

12/27/64 - Browns beat Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for NFL title. Art Modell wins first title.

6/8/66 - NFL and AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. Colts, Browns and Steelers later joined AFC in NFL's realignment.

1/12/69 - Jets defeated Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at Orange Bowl after Joe Namath guaranteed a New York victory.

3/3/70 - Don Shula resigned to become head coach of Miami Dolphins.

1/17/71 - Jim O'Brien kicked 32-yard FG with five seconds left as Colts won Super Bowl V vs. Dallas, 16-13, in first AFC-NFC Super Bowl.

7/26/72 - Robert Irsay traded the L.A. Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colts.

1/15/75 - Ted Marchibroda named head coach.

4/26/83 - Colts selected John Elway with No. 1 pick in NFL draft, but traded him to Denver for T Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.

12/18/83 - In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium (until 1996), the Colts beat the Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD on 12-yard pass from QB Mike Pagel.

3/28/84 - Colts franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

RAVENS HISTORY

1995

11/6 - Cleveland Browns announced intention to move to Baltimore for 1996 season.

1996

2/9 - NFL approved franchise move.

2/15 - Ted Marchibroda was named the Ravens' first head coach 21 years and one month to the day he was hired by the Baltimore Colts in 1975.

3/29 - Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named "Ravens" after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name.

4/1 - The Ravens opened their Owings Mills training facility with start of offseason program.

6/5 - The new Ravens' logo, colors and uniforms were unveiled in a fashion show at Harborplace in downtown Baltimore.

6/14 - Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

9/1 - The Ravens' first-ever regular season game was played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Raiders.

12/22 - The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home, and 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the two preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only two. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TDs.

3/18 - The Ravens and Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) entered into a five-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD campus.

12/14 - Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Of the 16 regular season games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium, 13 were televised and all were sold out.

12/21 - Baltimore dropped a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. T Jonathan Ogden was named consensus All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210 and was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, then selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

1998

2/14 - The Ravens traded for QB Jim Harbaugh (from Ind.), the first of several key offseason acquisitions, including

RAVENS HISTORY

RB Errict Rhett (2/17), FB Roosevelt Potts (2/24) and CB Rod Woodson (2/25).

9/5 - The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards (later named PSINet Stadium) was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder - Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

9/6 - The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium in downtown Baltimore before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

1/19 - Brian Billick became the second head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a six-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's single-season scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

1/26 - PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet provider, announced a 20-year partnership to develop a global network for the Ravens. Under the agreement, the new facility was named PSINet Stadium.

1/30 - Ravens executive vice president of player personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading tight end in pass receptions until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed the record in 2001.

9/12 - Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the regular season opener, as St. Louis defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

12/26 - The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high eight victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished second in the NFL, and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 324-277.

2/22 - The Ravens signed seven-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who had starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

3/27 - NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens to Anne Arundel County (MD) business executive Steve Bisciotti. In it, Bisciotti had an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

SEPT. - The Ravens opened the 2000 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on 9/3. They won three of their first four games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

OCT. - Baltimore finished October at 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on 10/29 vs Pittsburgh.

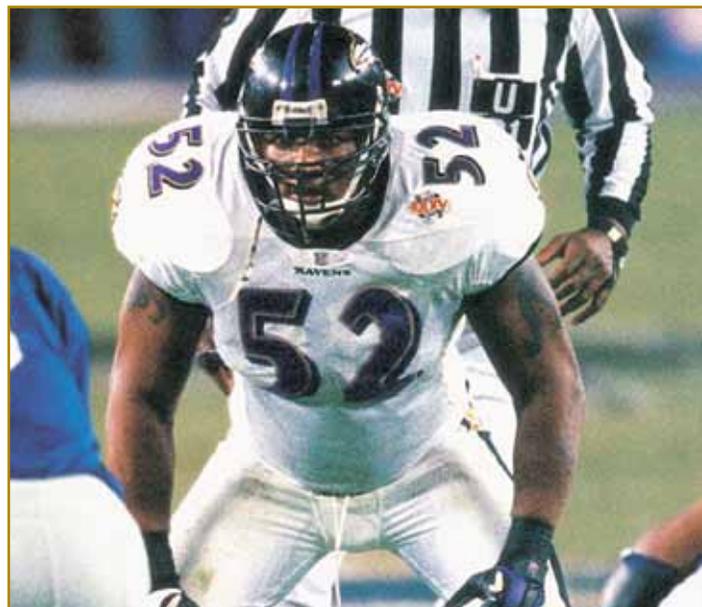

NOV./DEC. - Baltimore won its final seven regular season games by a combined score of 193-63. On 11/26, Earnest Byner was the first inductee to the Ravens' Ring of Honor (Ravens won 44-7 vs. Cleveland). On 12/10, Art Modell was honored in pre-game ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership. That day, the Ravens earned their first playoff berth, defeating San Diego, 24-3.

12/24 - The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the New York Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team-record 1,364 yards in 2000.

12/31 - The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff Game at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive MVP honors from The Associated Press.

LB Ray Lewis was named the 2000 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl XXXV MVP after the Ravens' win (34-7) over the New York Giants.

RAVENS HISTORY

1/7 - The Ravens scored 14 fourth quarter points to defeat Tennessee, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return by Anthony Mitchell off a blocked FG; then Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

1/14 - The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. TE Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason-record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.

1/28 - The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV, played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout against the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when three TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

1/30 - Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' Victory Parade.

JULY/AUG. - The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions with the entire nation watching, as HBO's Hard Knocks: Training Camp With the Baltimore Ravens debuted with the Ravens as the featured team.

9/9 - The Ravens won their 12th consecutive game and second consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSINet Stadium. On 9/11, the World Trade Center collapsed and the Pentagon was hit, following terrorist attacks.

10/21 - Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a FG, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31, when he booted two three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a missed FGA on 12/16 vs. Pittsburgh.

11/18 - TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ravens executive VP and GM Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the fifth play of the game vs. the Cleveland Browns. He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INT-TDs).

12/23 - Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles had a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/2 - Six Ravens from the 2001 season were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

1/7 - The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game had been scheduled for Monday, 9/17, but was re-scheduled because of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter Boulware set a team record with four sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to win its first five playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first six playoff games, surpassed Brian Billick's mark of five (tied with Tom Flores).

1/20 - After five consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set an NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11.

9/30 - Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT

Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nailbiter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, and the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl, including T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and first-timer TE Todd Heap.

JAN./FEB. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The Executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as the team's LBs coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd (and final) year in the NFL as a franchise owner.

5/6 - Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium. The 15-year, $75-million agreement included naming rights, as well as, jointly administered community-based programs. The then-147-year-old M&T Bank was headquartered in Buffalo, NY.

9/2 - The average age of the Ravens was only 25.8 years at roster cutdown. Baltimore had 11 first- and second-year players on the roster; seven rookies and 11 second-year veterans. The average years of experience was just four. The Ravens were the third-youngest team in the NFL (Cleveland, 24.8 and Chicago, 25.3).

9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and 2 TDs. In the game at Cleveland (12/21), Lewis rushed for 205 yards, setting the NFL mark for rushing yards in a season versus the same team – 500 yards.

12/18 - A team-record eight players were voted to the Pro Bowl (most in NFL, tied with the Chiefs): LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, LB Peter Boulware, T Jonathan Ogden, TE Todd Heap, RB Jamal Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and LB/Special Teamer Adalious Thomas.

12/26 - Art Modell was inducted into the Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in the final game of the season, a 13-10 OT win over Pittsburgh. Baltimore finished 10-6, winning its first-ever AFC North Division title.

12/31 - Jamal Lewis and Ray Lewis were named The Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively, while LB Terrell Suggs was named AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

1/3 - The Ravens lost, 20-17, to the Titans in the AFC Wild Card game at M&T Bank Stadium on Gary Anderson's game-winning kick (46-yard FG), with 29 seconds remaining.

2/4 - Jim Fassel, former head coach of the NY Giants, was named senior consultant/offense for the Baltimore Ravens. It marked the first time two Super Bowl head coaches (Brian Billick the other) were on the same team.

4/9 - The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club.

The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club in April of 2004.

4/13 - The Ravens and McDaniel College extended their partnership six years to keep training camp in Westminster through 2010. The deal includes installation of Sportex Momentum Turf on the college's main athletic field with both parties sharing costs.

10/4 - Former Ravens Pro Bowler DE Michael McCrary, who retired in 2002, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at halftime of the Ravens' Monday Night ABC contest vs. KC. The Chiefs won, 27-24.

10/15 - Ravens moved into their new 200,000-sq.ft. training facility in Owings Mills, MD during the bye week. The new state-of-the-art headquarters is home to over 200 Ravens employees.

12/22 - Five Ravens were named to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden (eighth), LB Ray Lewis (seventh), S Ed Reed (second), CB Chris McAlister (second) and LB Terrell Suggs (first).

2005

1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd

RAVENS HISTORY

Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

1/7 - S Ed Reed was named the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, becoming the second Raven in as many years to win the award. LB Ray Lewis won the award twice (2000, 2003).

1/12 - Jim Fassel and Rex Ryan (1/20) were promoted to offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. Clarence Brooks (formerly with Miami) replaced Rex Ryan as D-line coach. Chris Foerster (former Miami offensive coordinator) was named offensive line/assistant head coach. Rick Neuheisel was named QBs coach. Fassel's son, John, was hired as an offensive assistant.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two national games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. One of the victories was a 16-13 OT win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. T Jonathan Ogden was selected to his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance.

6/8 - Three-time Pro Bowler and 2003 co-MVP QB Steve McNair joined the Ravens in a trade with Tennessee in exchange for a 2007 Baltimore draft pick. McNair would go on to start at QB for the Ravens in 2006, and he became just the third player in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career passing yards and 3,500 rushing yards. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

9/10 - Baltimore shut out Tampa Bay (27-0) in the opener at Raymond James Stadium and posted a second shutout versus Pittsburgh (also 27-0) on Nov. 26.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware, who retired in 2006, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell. Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the Smartvision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro

Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks of QB Ben Roethlisberger.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier shutout on Nov. 26, 27-0, at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' defense dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a bye week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for the season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks (60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed was a franchise record and second in the NFL to Indy's 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

1/17 - Head coach Brian Billick signed a new four-year contract with the Ravens. Defensive coordinator Rex Ryan signed a new two-year deal with the team.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final gun, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first head coach – and just the third in Ravens history – John Harbaugh – former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the Top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

John Harbaugh became the third head coach in franchise history in 2008.

1/23 - Cam Cameron, head coach of the Dolphins in 2007, was hired to be the Ravens' new offensive coordinator by John Harbaugh.

1/28 - Rex Ryan was retained as defensive coordinator and also named the team's assistant head coach by John Harbaugh.

4/17 - QB Steve McNair retired from football after a 13-year NFL career.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' bye week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18 consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens' Symth Jewelers Ring of Honor just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie standard.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' 4 INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only 7 during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. S Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history. According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (four) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high 9 INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

1/21 - Rex Ryan, Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2005-08 and a member of the coaching staff since 1999, was hired by the New York Jets as their head coach.

1/26 - Having served as LBs coach in 2008, Greg Mattison was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator. Also, special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg earned the title of assistant head coach.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' defense finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-consecutive season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (3 INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its four turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

RB Ray Rice bolted for an 83-yard TD run on the first play from scrimmage in the Ravens' Wild Card win over New England during the 2009 playoffs.

Ray Rice ran for a playoff franchise-record 159 yards and 2 TDs on 22 carries (7.2 avg.), spurring the Ravens' 234-yard rushing output (most in team playoff history).

1/16 - Baltimore fell at Indianapolis in the Divisional game, 20-3. The Ravens held the Colts to 275 net yards (including just 42 rushing), but Baltimore's four turnovers proved too costly.

1/31 - The NFL held its annual Pro Bowl in South Florida, an honor five Ravens earned: LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and RB Ray Rice (first).

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10.

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row.

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco set a Ravens' season mark with his 93.6 QB rating and established career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice posted 1,776 yards from scrimmage, third most in the NFL, while WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL annals to post 11 consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches (Jerry Rice and Tony Gonzalez).

1/9 - In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons. Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons.

In the victory, the Ravens set franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

Flacco set Ravens playoff game records with 25 completions, 265 yards passing and 2 TDs (on 34 attempts), also producing a franchise postseason-record 115.4 QB rating. He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three seasons.

1/15 - After holding a 21-7 halftime lead, the Ravens fell at Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoff, 31-24. OLB Terrell Suggs (10) became the Ravens' career postseason sacks leader with his 3-sack performance, and Baltimore's 6 total sacks on the night also set a team playoff record.

1/30 - Played in Hawaii to honor the NFL's 2010 Pro Bowlers, five Ravens earned All-Star honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth).

1/19 - Becoming the team's fifth defensive coordinator, Chuck Pagano was promoted from secondary coach after Greg Mattison left to coach at the University of Michigan.

2/14 - Harbaugh and the Ravens agreed to a contract extension (with terms undisclosed).

3/4 - The NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement between the clubs and NFL Players Association, which was signed in March of 2006, expired.

3/11 - The NFL Players Association decertified, declaring itself out of the business of representing players. In exchange for giving up rights under union labor law, the players were able to take their chances in court under antitrust law.

3/12 - NFL owners lock out the players – creating the NFL's first work stoppage since 1987.

7/25 - Following an offseason that contained no minicamps, OTAs or workout programs due to the lockout, the NFL Players Association and the league's owners reached an agreement in principle on their 10-year labor deal, creating a new CBA. After a 31-0 vote by the owners to approve the deal on July 21 (the Oakland Raiders abstained), the NFLPA would later ratify the CBA on Aug. 5.

9/11 - Marking the 10th Anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, the Ravens honored all military and those whose lives have been lost in the home opener against Pittsburgh. Baltimore prevails, 35-7, in a contest that sees the Ravens force a franchise-record 7 take-aways.

11/20 - K Matt Stover, the franchise's all-time leading scorer, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the Ravens' 31-24 win over Cincinnati.

12/24 - With a 20-14 win over Cleveland, the Ravens went undefeated at M&T Bank Stadium, matching the Packers and Saints as the only teams to go undefeated at home in 2011. Following the victory, head coach John Harbaugh dedicated the "game ball" to the team's fans for their remarkable support during the undefeated home campaign, which marked a franchise first.

1/1 - After a 24-16 victory at Cincinnati, the Ravens became the only NFL team to earn the playoffs the past four seasons (2008-11), also winning the AFC North by sweeping the division for the first time in franchise history.

The Ravens, producing a second-straight 12-4 campaign, went 6-0 against playoff teams during the regular season, matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers.

QB Joe Flacco, who has started every game under head coach John Harbaugh, produced his 44th regular season win as a starter, marking the most ever by an NFL QB in his initial four seasons (2008-11).

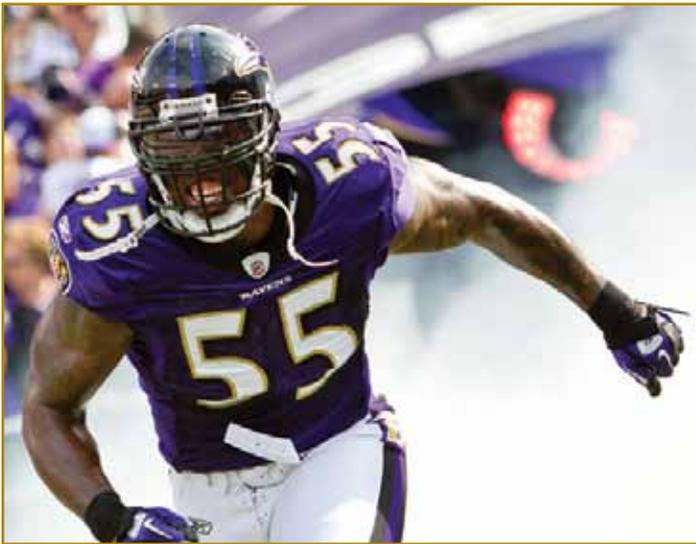

The Ravens, who finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed. Overall, Baltimore's "D" ranked third in both yards allowed (288.9 ypg) and sacks (48, behind the Vikings and Eagles – 50 each).

Despite playing eight games against defenses ranked in the NFL's Top 8, the Ravens were 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg). RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in the league in rushing. Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). Flacco produced his third-consecutive 3,500-yard/20-TD season and was 13 yards shy of his career high with 3,610 passing yards (3,622). WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards.

1/15 - Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over Houston at home, helping John Harbaugh become the first head coach in NFL history (since the 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four seasons (2008-11). The Ravens forced 4 turnovers against the Texans, and for the first time in team history (regular season or playoffs), Baltimore did not commit a single penalty.

1/22 - The Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game. It came down to Baltimore's final drive in the fourth quarter, when the Ravens had a chance to win or tie the game. But, a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Lee Evans pass fell incomplete, and K Billy Cundiff's last-second 32-yard FG attempt sailed wide left, sealing the victory for New England.

RAVENS HISTORY

OLB Terrell Suggs was named the 2011 AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

1/27 - Dean Pees was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator after Chuck Pagano left to become head coach of the Indianapolis Colts.

1/29 - Played in Hawaii to honor the NFL's 2011 Pro Bowlers, eight Ravens earned All-Star honors: LB Ray Lewis (13th), S Ed Reed (eighth), OLB Terrell Suggs (fifth), DT Haloti Ngata (third), FB Vonta Leach (second), RB Ray Rice (second), G Ben Grubbs (first) and G Marshal Yanda (first).

2/4 - OLB Terrell Suggs was named the 2011 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year. It marked the fourth time in 12 seasons that a Raven has earned the prestigious honor: Suggs (2011), S Ed Reed (2004) and LB Ray Lewis (2003 & 2000). Additionally, C Matt Birk was named the 2011 NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year. The award recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence.

The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who has worn both 73 and 97 jerseys.

Note: Baltimore has played in Houston's Reliant Stadium twice (2-0), Indy's Lucas Oil Field once (0-1) and Dallas' Texas Stadium once (1-0), all games considered "outdoors" due to the open roofs. Only one of the Ravens' games at Reliant Stadium (12/13/10) came when the roof was closed, meaning the game was "indoors."

10 LARGEST RAVENS CROWDS

The Ravens played in Memorial Stadium from 1996-97 and PSINet Stadium from 1998-2001. In 2002, the facility was known as Ravens Stadium. In 2003, the Ravens entered a partnership, and the stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium. (Capacity was increased in 2007 to 71,008 from previous listings of 70,107 and 69,084.)

The Ravens hosted their first playoff game at M&T Bank Stadium since 2006, defeating the Houston Texans, 20-13, in the Divisional Round on Jan. 15, 2012.

Baltimore traveled to Kansas City for a Wild Card matchup on Jan. 9, 2011, defeating the Chiefs 30-7. LB Ray Lewis netted 4 tackles, including 1 sack, for a defense that forced 5 turnovers.

In the Wild Card round at New England (1/10/10), RB Ray Rice ran 83 yards for a touchdown on the opening play from scrimmage, the second-longest rush in NFL postseason history. Rice finished the day with a Ravens' postseason-franchise record 159 yards, adding 2 TDs, en route to a 33-14 victory.

GAME DAY

M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T Bank Stadium – without a doubt – is where NFL excitement begins on any given Sunday. Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since winning the Super Bowl in 2000, the Ravens have presented a daunting home record for opponents, 73-23, the NFL's second-best winning percentage (.760) entering 2012.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as the crowning jewel of NFL sports facilities. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including the stunning new-in-2010 high definition RavensVision video screens. Combined with exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure is the home of the Ravens and draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park and the Ravens' home at Camden Yards. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, and the Ravens.

VIDEO SCREENS:

- Each RavensVision high definition screen, which were added in 2010, measures 24 feet high and 100 feet wide. Those dimensions would equal a 1,234-inch diagonal TV screen. It would take 600 37-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) boards. Nearly 2.5 million individual LEDs provide the image on the two screens, allowing the highest quality pictures in the brightest sunlight and at night events.
- The high definition views allow for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.
- Each of the two giant screens is made up of modular LED panels – 12.6 inches by 15.1 inches. These panels were then assembled into larger sections measuring 8 by 9 feet. Each section weighs 900 pounds, and there are 33 sections on each board.
- A control room that allows the high-def boards to work at peak quality was designed by VPC and installed at M&T Bank Stadium by Diversified Systems, the U.S. industry leader in the construction and installation of control rooms.
- The Ravens and the Maryland Stadium Authority shared the costs of the boards.
- Added in 2010 were the more than 500 Sony flat screen, high definition televisions, which were installed throughout M&T Bank Stadium to enhance the fans' game-day experience.
- Providing even more information to fans are LED boards (800 linear feet) surrounding the field.

SIGHTLINES:

- Front row seating in the lower level is six feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.
- The distinctive upper seating area includes open notches in each corner of the stadium, allowing spectacular, scenic views of Baltimore.

SEATING:

- With a seating capacity of 71,008, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball ballpark to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park at Camden Yard's size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.
- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.
- Each of the 128 suites at M&T Bank Stadium hold between 20-24 people and features three televisions, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal waitstaff service. Many other amenities are available to suite holders.

AMENITIES:

- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic.
- There are 44 concession stands in the upper, lower and club levels with delicious game day fare, including some of Baltimore's signature favorites.

M&T BANK STADIUM

- Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE:

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

- Fans can easily access M&T Bank Stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside of Gate B.

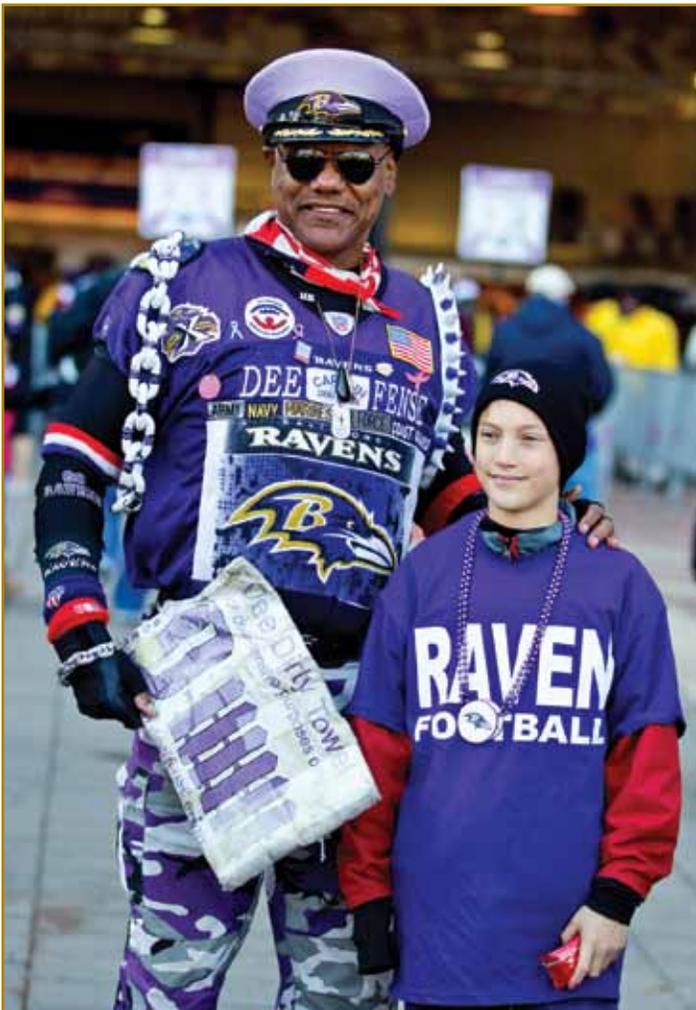

- Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but downtown parking garages are also available for game-day parking, just a short walk away.

- Tailgating fans are welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in all of the lots in the complex. For complete Tailgate Lot parking information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-RAVE (7283).

- In October of 2002, following the passing of legendary Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, the Ravens named the area near Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue (shown below) sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every home game.

- Unitas Plaza is a great picture-taking area for Baltimoreans and vacationers. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens football fans who have supported the team that brought Baltimore and the State of Maryland the NFL World Championship with Super Bowl XXXV.

IN-GAME ENTERTAINMENT

 M&T Bank

MASCOT POE

The game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' mischievous mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly into your next function, please visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Over 200 musicians and flagline performers comprise Baltimore's Marching Ravens. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens' musical performers. BMR is deeply involved in charitable causes and raises funds to help support the Baltimore community. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/band.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' cheerleading squad has 20 members on the dance team and 39 members on the stunt team. The cheerleading squad is the only NFL team with both a dance and co-ed stunt team. Ravens cheerleaders are in our community helping raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. Scheduling an appearance for your next event is easy: visit www.baltimoreravens.com/cheerleaders.

LIVE RAVENS

The Ravens' live mascots, Rise and Conquer, live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

M&T BANK STADIUM HISTORY

On May 6, 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced their partnership, which included a 15-year, $75 million agreement with naming rights to the Ravens' home field, M&T Bank Stadium, as well as several important community-based programs that are jointly administered.

At the announcement, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said: "We knew from the onset that we did not want a company that wasn't established and without a great track record. There were other banks that we were calling about naming rights, because that was the category we wanted to fill, but the timing was perfect [with M&T] because they were coming in to a new market [Maryland]."

M&T Bank's long history began in western New York, but the company has expanded throughout the East Coast. There are more than 700 branches in the Mid-Atlantic, including Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. The bank was founded 156 years ago and is one of the 20 largest commercial bank corporations in the nation.

The partnership is deeply rooted in the idea of community service. M&T Bank became the lead sponsor of the Ravens All Community Team, which unites the Ravens with Baltimore's business leaders to support our community in meaningful ways. This support includes fundraising, volunteerism and involvement in projects that meet some of its most pressing needs.

"M&T Bank's relationship with the Ravens goes far beyond our name on the stadium," said Mark Czarnecki, president of M&T Bank. "M&T and the Ravens have become community partners, working together to strengthen communities through a variety of initiatives. Employees from the two organizations work side-by-side as volunteers renovating homes, distributing food to the hungry and building neighborhood playgrounds. M&T Bank is proud to be the official bank of the Ravens, and we're proud to be part of the fabric of the community."

M&T Bank also sponsors Honor Rows, a program that salutes those who provide outstanding service and the nationally-renowned Baltimore's Marching Ravens. For more information about this community service, log on to www.baltimoreravens.com.
