THE COACHING STAFF

DON SHULA, Head Coach

Coach - of - the - Year honors came Don Shula's way for the third time last year after the Baltimore Colts swept through their regular season schedule with 13 victories in 14 games, and added the Western Conference championship and the National Football League championship. That the campaign ended in heart-break, with the Super Bowl loss to the New York Jets, takes little gloss off the outstanding job Shula did.

Heart-breaking defeats have been frequent invaders to the outstanding coaching career of Shula, who owns a six-year record of 63 victories, 18 losses and three ties.

In 1964, the favored Colts lost the NFL title to Cleveland after an outstanding season. They lost a sudden-death tie playoff at Green Bay for the Western Conference championship in 1965. In 1967, they were unbeaten until the final contest when they were stopped by the Los Angeles Rams to lose a chance for post-season money.

In addition to the brilliant regular season record posted by the 39-year-old Shula, the Colts won successive Playoff Bowl victories in 1965 and 1966. Don coached the Western Conference All-Stars to victories in the Pro Bowl Game in 1965 and 1968.

Shula was a tough, aggressive defensive back in the NFL for seven years, including four seasons (1953-56) with the Colts. When he hung up his cleats, Don spent two campaigns as an assistant college coach, at Virginia and Kentucky, then became defensive coach of the Detroit Lions in 1960.

A native of Painesville, Ohio, Shula starred as an offensive back for John Carroll University.

He now lives in Timonium, Md., with wife Dorothy and children David, Donna, Sharon Lee, Ann Marie and Michael.

DON McCAFFERTY, Offensive Backfield Coach

Don joined the Colts in 1959 as offensive end coach, and scout, assuming the offensive backfield directorship in 1963 when Don Shula became head coach. He also serves as press box observer during games, relaying information to his fellow coaches on the field. A product of Ohio State, Don spent one season with the New York Giants. After one year with the Cleveland Recreation Department, he served as an assistant coach at Kent State University for ten years before moving to the Colts. He lives in Timonium, Md., with wife June and four children, Jaclyn, Donnie, Billy and Lisa.

JOHN SANDUSKY, Offensive Line Coach

Hired as defensive line coach in 1959, John switched to offense in 1963 and has played an important part in the development of a front wall that ranked with pro football's best in 1969. A standout tackle on both offense and defense for seven pro seasons with the Cleveland Browns and Green Bay Packers, John retired as an active player in 1956 and served two years as an assistant at Villanova University, where he had earlier earned All-American honors as a four-year star at the Philadelphia college. John also served overseas in the Army for three years during World War II. John and wife Ruth reside in Baltimore with children Jack, Jim, Joe, Gerry and Ruth Ann.

BILL ARNSPARGER, Defensive Line Coach

Definitely one of the strong suits of the Colts in recent years has been the play of the defensive line and the man behind the scenes is this quiet, hard-working Kentuckian. Bill is a former tackle and offensive line coach (1950) at Miami (Ohio) University, a school famed for producing college and pro coaches. Immediately prior to joining the Colts in 1964, Bill was chief assistant to Tulane head coach Tommy O'Boyle. He also coached at Ohio State (where one of his outstanding pupils was Jim Parker, who became an All-Pro with the Colts) and Kentucky, (where he worked with Don Shula, then an assistant there). Bill and wife Betty Jane live in Timonium with son David and daughter Mary Susan.

DICK BIELSKI, Offensive End Coach

A Baltimore lad who made it to the pros with his hometown team both as a player and coach, Dick starts his sixth season as tutor of the Colts' receivers. A former Patterson Park High star, Bielski spent nine years in the National Football League as a pass-catcher and kicker after starring at fullback for the University of Maryland. The first-round draft choice of Philadelphia in 1955, Dick played for five years with the Eagles, two with the Dallas Cowboys and two with Baltimore. As a pro, Bielski caught 107 passes for 1,305 yards and 12 touchdowns while kicking 58 extra points and 26 field goals. Dick and wife Jody live in Timonium with children Debby, Rickey, Randy and Jody.

BOB BOYD, Defensive Backfield Coach

After nine outstanding seasons as a defensive back with the Colts, Bob has retired as a player to fill the coaching vacancy caused when Chuck Noll became head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers. He had a big year in 1968, intercepting eight passes to boost his career total to 57 steals, more than any other active player and placing him third on the list of all-time interceptors. Joining the Colts as a tenth round draft choice from Oklahoma, where he starred as a split T quarterback, Bob stepped immediately into a starting assignment in the secondary. Last year, he was named All-Pro for the fourth time and played in his second Pro Bowl. Bob and wife Wanda live in Cockeysville with their two children, Darin Leslie, 5, and Bradley Dean, 2.

ED RUTLEDGE, Game Scout and Assistant Coach

Beginning his fourth season with the Colts, Ed scouts the opponents, assists in the search for college talent and helps the coaching staff during training camp. A former high school and college coach, this native of Ironton, Ohio, worked with the pro football group, CEPO, before joining the Colts.

THE SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

UPTON BELL, Personnel Director

The gigantic task of sorting out pro prospects from the college ranks belongs to the Personnel Department, supervised by Upton Bell. Charged with scouting players and coordinating the reports compiled on the hundreds of college players scouted, Bell travels thousands of miles each year searching campuses for talent. Joining the Colts in 1961 as an aide in the ticket office, Bell soon was appointed as an assistant to Keith Molesworth in the personnel department and took charge when Molesworth died early in 1966. Son of Bert Bell, former commissioner of the National Football League, the 31-year-old Upton is a native of Philadelphia.

GEORGE YOUNG, Personnel Assistant

After establishing a brilliant high school coaching record at Calvert Hall and City College in Baltimore, George moved to the Colts in February, 1968, and quickly made evident his ability to appraise football talent. A former Little All-American at Bucknell, defensive tackle Young had a tryout with the Dallas Texans in 1952.

DICK SZYMANSKI, Personnel Assistant

Sizzy changes uniforms, but will still be giving his all for the Colts as he moves into a scouting position after 13 seasons as a player. The 36-year-old Szymanski won Pro Bowl honors three times as a center and spent several seasons as a standout linebacker during his service for the Colts. A No. 2 draft choice out of Notre Dame in 1955, Dick now resides in Lutherville with wife Patricia Anne, and children Debra Ann and Michael Patrick.

MILT DAVIS, Personnel Assistant

Another former player and newcomer to the Personnel Department, Milt intercepted 27 passes during four seasons as a regular defensive halfback for the Colts. An All-Pro choice in 1957, Milt twice tied for the NFL lead in the interceptions department. He will patrol the West Coast for the Colts. He resides in Los Angeles with wife Yvonne and children Allison, Brian and Hilary.

THE MEDICAL CORPS

ED BLOCK, Head Trainer

Dr. Edward Block, B.S., M.A., Ed. D., R.P.T., F.A.C.S.M., prefers to be known as "Ed Block of the Colts." Starting his 16th year as head trainer for the Hosses, Ed brings more to his job than bandages and liniment—he's knowledgeable in sciences as diverse as physics and endocrinology and there's nobody more dedicated to the team. Previously a trainer and instructor in physical education at Washington University (St. Louis), his alma mater and coach, physical education and social studies teacher at a St. Louis high school, he spent five years in the Army, serving as a tank officer during World War

Block

II until he was wounded and later became chief of physical training and corrective exercises at Army convalescent hospitals in France and Germany. He later taught at Brooklyn College and rehabilitation work at York hospitals.

DICK SPASSOFF, Trainer

Beginning his 13th campaign with the Colts, Dick is a dedicated training room personality who keeps the squad loose with his humor. An Olympic fencer and gymnast for Bulgaria in 1928, Dick came to the United States in 1930. He obtained a B. S. degree in education and a M. A. degree in psychology while studying at George Williams (Chicago), Wittenberg college and Columbia University. He served in the Army Medical Corps and later studied metaphysics and served as physical director for a hotel chain. He operates a health club, featuring the Sauna which he introduced to the Colts, in Palm Beach, Fla., during the off-season.

JOHN SPASSOFF, Trainer

Son of Dick Spassoff, John is in his third season fulltime with the Colts. A graduate of Southern Illinois, where he specialized in athletic training, he was an outstanding gymnast who was runnerup in the 1964 Olympic trials and also played tennis. During the season, John lives in Washington, D.C., while in the off-season he is a tennis instructor in Palm Beach, Fla.

FRED SCHUBACH, Equipment Manager

Of all the Colts' employees, none has been on the job as long as Fred, who took over as equipment manager in 1953, after many years of working with his father who was with the Philadelphia Eagles. Fred spent some time in baseball, too, playing in the Philadelphia Athletics' farm system as a catcher and later serving as batting practice and bullpen catcher for the A's. He served in the Army Medical Corps during the Korean War and was stationed at the Osaka Army Hospital. A tireless worker and master improviser of equipment, uniforms and protective gear, Fred in off-season assists in the Personnel Department, also coaches and manages the Colts' basketball team.

Colts' Band welcomes its heroes to the field of battle for another Memorial Stadium encounter.

THE BAND PLAYS ON

Accompaniment for the Colts' 1968 National Football League championship was provided by the Colts' Marching Band, which traveled to Cleveland for the title game after adding to the color and excitement for every home game of the season. A volunteer organization which remained intact even when the football team left the city in 1951 and 1952, the band has grown to 160 members, including musicians, majorettes, cheerleaders, Pom Pom Girls, Colorguard and other personnel. Rehearsals are held the year-round on the parking lot of Western Electric at Cockeysville, Md., and the band often appears at parades and other events during the off-season. The band will appear at Colt Nite and Family Day this year.

TWO TRAINING SITES IN '69

Western Maryland College in Westminster, Md., will be training headquarters for the 17th straight summer, except for two weeks the Colts will spend at California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo while playing pre-season games on the West Coast. Rookies are due to report to Westminster, which is 30 miles from Baltimore, on July 13, followed by the veterans on July 19. On July 31, the squad will depart for their opening pre-season tilt (against San Diego), and remain at San Luis Obispo, a scenic valley town between Los Angeles and San Francisco. After games with Oakland and Houston, the Hosses will return to Westminster on August 18. Western Maryland College officials who spare no efforts in making the Colts welcome, are Dr. Lowell S. Ensor, President; Dick Clower, Director of Athletics; Ronnie Jones, Head Football Coach, and Byron Rice, Commissary Chief.

THE COLTS ASSOCIATES

Formed in 1947, the Associates have served the Colts in many ways. A group whose membership is limited to 25 active football enthusiasts, the Associates have aided players in obtaining homes and jobs and generally make their services available to the Colts' organization. Pet projects include the annual Family Day outing and Colt Nite, a benefit game at Memorial Stadium (this year's game on July 19 will pit Colts' rookies against first-year men of Washington Redskins) which benefits Police Boys' Clubs of Baltimore. Associates' officers for 1969 are: Bob Bolin, Chairman; Jim Mutscheller, Vice-Chairman; Larry Beck, Secretary-Treasurer; Harry Schneider, Colt Nite Chairman.

THE COLTS' CORRALS

Just as rabid now as they were when the very first unit was organized a dozen years ago, the number of Colts' Corrals has swelled to 20. These super fan clubs staged their third annual convention in Ocean City, Md., in July with more than 600 members attending and they continued other energetic activities like making road trips, honoring players, raising money for charity and otherwise promoting pro football in a wide area. Robert Lins heads the Council of Colts' Corrals, governing body for the group. Presidents of the respective Corrals for 1969 are: No. 1, Phil Rink; No. 2, Gordon Stone; No. 4, Dan Terzie; No. 5, Bill Christ; No. 6, Tom Pavis; No. 7, Bob Nichols; No. 8, Joe White; No. 9, Frank Olszewski; No. 10, Ray Shewbridge; No. 11, Wayne Price; No. 12, Jake Stitely; No. 13, Lowell Glazer; No. 14, Jim Gambacorta; No. 15, Harry Deitz; No. 16, Doctor "Skip" Amaas; No. 17, John Gipprich; No. 18, John Diehl; No. 19, John Gloss; No. 20, Harry Bechtol; No. 954, Dominic Sichette.

Colts' defense was tough unit to deal with in 1968, as NFL rushing king Leroy Kelly learned in league title game when Dennis Gaubatz (53), Lenny Lyles (43), Rick Volk (21) and Fred Miller (76) stacked up on Browns' ace.

Season of Thrills – And A Spill

In the Colts' final game of the year 1968, they smeared the Cleveland Browns, 34-0, for the National Football League championship.

It was the crowning victory of a historic season. The Colts had galloped to fifteen victories—more wins in a single season than any other team in the history of professional football had been able to muster.

In January, 1969, the Hosses lost a game. It was a most important one—for the World's Championship. In that one, the Colts failed to maintain the high style of play they had set for themselves and bowed to the New York Jets.

In 1968, they had experienced a season of glory. In 1969, a day of defeat. It was 1967 revisited, a second straight campaign when a final game loss tarnished all that had gone before.

But 1968 won't soon fade from the memories of Baltimore fans. They realize the Colts of '68 will go down in pro football annals as one of the greatest teams ever.

During one four-game stretch, the Hosses didn't allow a touchdown—the first team to accomplish that feat since the New York Giants of 1937. Their yield of only 144 points tied the 1963 Chicago Bears for the 14-game NFL record of least points scored against a team in one season.

Quarterback Earl Morrall, standing in for injured John Unitas, sparked a well-balanced attack that featured running back Tom Matte and receiver John Mackey.

Reviewing the 1968-69 season, game by game:

Sunday, Sept. 15 Colts 27, 49ers 10 56,864 Home

Earl Morrall's first series of downs as quarterback for the Colts was hardly awe-inspiring. His second pass of the game was batted into the hands of the 49ers' Stan Hindman, who roared 33 yards to a touchdown. But well-traveled Earl refused to panic and responded with a pair of touchdown passes, to Tom Mitchell and Jimmy Orr. A diving catch by Ray Perkins set up a one-yard scoring plunge by Tom Matte to bring the Hosses back to 7-7 before the first quarter was over. Then Morrall hit Mitchell, an NFL rookie, on an eight-yard toss and the Colts took a 14-10 lead into intermission. Rick Volk's interception gave Morrall the ball again at the outset of the second half and he quickly passed to Orr for a 21-10 lead. Lou Michaels sealed the victory with field goals of 27 and 32 yards.

Sunday, Sept. 22 Colts 28, Falcons 20 50,428 Away

A work of art by the Colts it wasn't, but a victory nonetheless. Interceptions, fumbles and penalties balled up the gears throughout the game and it took a "flea-flicker" pass-play plus an 84-yard Morrall to Orr aerial to turn the tide. Morrall hit Perkins on a nine-yard TD pass and followed with a 13-yarder to John Mackey for paydirt to start off the afternoon smoothly enough. But then Atlanta's Randy Johnson connected with Bob Long on a 71-yard touchdown pass and Bob Etter followed with a 14-yard field goal to close the gap. After the Falcons stymied two Colt drives with interceptions, coach Don Shula unveiled the "flea-flicker," which started as a handoff to Matte. The halfback sprinted to his right, lateraled the ball back to Morrall, who unleashed a 46-yard pass to Jimmy Orr, waiting at the goal line. That was actually all the Colts needed, since the Falcons could muster but a 24-yard Etter FG and a one-yard dive by quarterback Johnson in the second half. But Morrall's 84-yard shot to Orr in the final quarter set up a two-yard run by Matte for a cushion.

Sunday, Sept. 29 Colts 41, Steelers 7 44,480 Away

In an almost complete reversal of form from the previous week, the Colts put everything together in wrecking the Steelers for victory No. 3. The Colts tied an NFL record by returning three interceptions for touchdowns and it wasn't until the final minutes of the game that the Steelers managed to get on the scoreboard on a pass from Dick Shiner to Earl Gros. The Colts rolled up 24 first-half points on Michaels' 38-yard field goal, a four-yard pass from Morrall to Mitchell, Timmy Brown's two-yard run and Bobby Boyd's 25-yard return of an interception. Michaels added a 19-yard field goal after halftime and Charlie Stukes, who sped 60 yards, and Roy Hilton, with a 13-yard return, turned in hijacking efforts.

Sunday, Oct. 5 Colts 28, Bears 7 60,238 Home

The Colts spotted the Bears a 59-yard TD scamper by Gale Sayers, then rocketed to a 28-7 triumph on four scoring passes by Morrall. Rolling up 22 first downs to the Bears' 7, the Colts actually buried the Bears with a 21-point second period onslaught following Sayers' run at the beginning of the quarter. A 50-yard heave by Morrall to Willie Richardson opened the gates. Then Earl hit John Mackey, who tallied on a patented power run that left tacklers spewed all over Memorial Stadium. Jimmy Orr caught a Morrall pass in the end zone to cap the second quarter scoring, then stiff-armed his way to a 66-yard TD in the third period.

Sunday, Oct. 13 Colts 42, 49ers 14 32,822 Away

A 96-yard return of the opening kickoff by Preston Pearson provided the impetus for an easy decision over the 49ers for the Colts' fifth straight triumph. The game also marked the first appearance of the season by John Unitas, who passed to John Mackey for one score and engineered another touchdown during a fourth quarter stint to test his ailing elbow. Morrall and Co. already had assured the Colts' victory, however, as Earl passed for two touchdowns to spark a 28-7 lead. Mackey scored twice and Matte and Brown each turned in short-yardage touchdowns. The defense was led by the hard-tackling of linebackers Dennis Gaubatz and Ron Porter, cornerback Bob Boyd and safetyman Jerry Logan.

Sunday, Oct. 20 Browns 30, Colts 20 60,238 Home

Four interceptions and a fumble recovery, plus a superb performance by Leroy Kelly, paved the way for the Browns as they handed the Colts their first defeat of the season. The Browns drew first blood when a blitzed Morrall fumbled and Jim Houston recovered. Kelly capped a 37-yard drive by taking a swing pass to paydirt. The Colts came back on Tom Matte's 23-yard scoring run, but before the first half ended the Browns got on the scoreboard again on Bill Nelsen's 24-yard toss to Paul Warfield. Unitas came on for the second half, but his first pass was batted and intercepted by Mike Howell, setting up Nelson's two-yard scoring pitch to Eppie Barney. Unitas was able to complete only one of 11 passes before giving way to Morrall, but by then the Browns had scored another touchdown, by Kelly on a four-yard run, and a field goal by Don Cockroft, while the Colts were managing only a pair of three-pointers by Michaels. Morrall drove the Colts to a touchdown, passing to Richardson for the score, but it was too late.

Sunday, Oct. 27 Colts 27, Rams 10 60,238 Home

Rebounding from their first defeat, the Colts turned back top Coastal Division challenger Los Angeles, 27-10, with a devastating blend of offense and defense. Morrall passed for two touchdowns and ran one in himself while a fired-up defense was sacking Rams' quarterback Roman Gabriel for losses five times. Stealing the thunder from the Rams' Fear-some Foursome, the Colt quartet of Bubba Smith, Billy Ray Smith, Fred Miller and Ordele Braase, along with linebacker Mike Curtis, led the Hosses to one of the hardest-hitting defensive performances in the team's history. Bruce Gossett led off the scoring with a 19-yard field goal for the Rams, but Jerry Hill countered with a one-yard TD and Morrall did the same before the first period had ended. Morrall passed to Orr 44 yards for a touchdown to provide a 20-3 halftime margin. Earl hit Tom Mitchell on a 44-yarder to widen the gap and Gabriel's one-yard pass to Bernie Casey made no difference.

Sunday, Nov. 3 Colts 26, Giants 0 62,973 Away

Still fired up from their performance the week before, the Colts defensive heroes threw a shutout at the Giants to help Morrall haunt the team that had traded him to the Colts only a few months before. Given fine protection, Earl tossed TD passes to Richardson and Orr, while Michaels added two field goals and Matte scored on a two-yard run. Michaels opened the scoring with a 10-yard FG and the Colts increased it to 10-0 when Morrall hit Richardson on a 13-yarder to cap a 64-yard march. Boyd's interception set up Morrall's 15-yard strike to Orr for a 16-0 halftime lead. Matte's TD ended an 84-yard march during which Morrall clicked on third-and-19, third-and-10 and third-and-nine. Michaels wrapped it up with a 26-yard FG.

Sunday, Nov. 10 Colts 27, Lions 10 55,170 Away

For the second time during the season, Preston Pearson launched the Colts' victory efforts with a scoring kickoff return, this time zig-zagging through Lion tacklers 102 yards. The Baltimore offense was slow to get rolling as its only other first half score was a 16-yard Michaels field goal. But Michaels booted another three-pointer and Matte and rookie Terry Cole, filling in for injured Jerry Hill, each scored as the Lions could manage only a first period field goal by Jerry DePoyster and a fourth quarter touchdown pass from Bill Munson to Billy Gambrell.

Sunday, Nov. 17 Colts 27, Cardinals 0 60,238 Home

Rock 'em, sock 'em shutout defense and three touchdown passes by Morrall jetted the Colts past the Cardinals, who brought the league's third leading offense into Baltimore. The closest the Cards could get to paydirt was the 35 yard stripe and even then a 15-yard penalty wiped out their chance to try a field goal. Five interceptions, two each by Boyd and Lenny Lyles, victimized the Cards, who showered 48 passes into the Colts' secondary. Only 17 were completed and none for touchdowns. Meanwhile, Morrall fired two TD passes to Richardson, one a 79-yard bomb, another to Matte and Michaels booted two field goals.

Sunday, Nov. 24 Colts 21, Vikings 9 60,238 Home

Jumping off to a 21-3 halftime lead, the Colts found themselves in a real knock-down, drag-out battle before the final gong as the Vikings refused to give up. For the third time this season, the Colts did not yield a touchdown, but it took a valiant goal line stand in the first quarter to salvage the victory. Terry Cole's one-yard touchdown in the first quarter and two Morrall passes, to Richardson for 39 yards and to Michell for 18 yards, in the second stanza, sent the Colts in front, but three Fred Cox field goals got the Vikes back in the ball game. Morrall's fumble gave the Vikings the pig-skin midway in the last quarter and they moved quickly to within inches of the goal line. But the Hoss defense piled up Bill Brown twice in a row to halt the comeback effort.

Sunday, Dec. 1 Colts 44, Falcons 0 60,238 Home

Chalking up their third shutout of the season, Baltimore's defensive heroes intercepted four times, dumped Falcon quarterbacks four times for losses and recovered a pair of enemy fumbles. Meanwhile, Matte scored twice and Morrall passed for two scores to spark a well-oiled attack. Morrall hit 17 of 23 pass attempts for 239 yards, using Matte (six catches) and Richardson (five) as his favorite receivers. Unitas took the controls midway in the third quarter and connected on five of 10 tosses for 54 yards. The Colts leaped off to a 28-0 half-time lead on the two Matte touchdowns and Morrall pitches to Richardson, 34 yards, and Mackey, 41 yards.

Saturday, Dec. 7 Colts 16, Packers 3 50,861 Away

Richardson outleaped Herb Adderley in the end zone just five minutes after the opening kickoff for the only touchdown of the game and it was enough to subdue the stubborn Packers in sub-freezing Green Bay temps. Three Michaels field goals more than offset Mike Mercer's 45-yard three-pointer in the first period. The Colts struck paydirt early when Bob Boyd pounced on Donny Anderson's fumble on the Green Bay 28. Cole gained two yards, then Morrall threw high to Richardson who won the battle for the ball. Mercer retaliated with his long field goal, but Michaels clicked twice, from 37 and 15 yards away, to give the Hosses a 13-3 halftime margin.

Sunday, Dec. 15 Colts 28, Rams 24 69,397 Away

First on the scoreboard were the Rams, on Roman Gabriel's 19-yard pass to Jack Snow, but the Colts were to outlast the home club in a tough struggle. Preston Pearson took a new route to scoring territory, hitting paydirt on his first two pass receptions of the season and Unitas showed good form in playing the final half. Just minutes after the Rams' TD, Mike Curtis swiped a Gabriel pass and sprinted 38 yards to a touchdown, then Pearson scampered 61 yards with a Morrall aerial. But Willie Ellison's two-yard rush gave the Rams a 14-14 tie at halftime. The teams went scoreless in the third period. On the first play of the second quarter, Unitas flipped nine yards to Pearson for a touchdown, but the Rams tied it again on Ellison's 52-yard romp. The Rams went ahead on Bruce Gossett's 25-yard three-pointer, but Matte's four-yard end run provided the Hosses with their winning points.

Sunday, Dec. 22 Colts 24, Vikings 14 60,238 Home

It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Morrall's pass to Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. Mackey's touchdown reception and Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Billy Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him.

Sunday, Dec. 27 Colts 34, Browns 0 80,628 Away

At stake was the National Football League championship and the Colts, denied this title since the glory days of 1958-59 unleashed a near-perfect performance to smash the Browns, only team to stop Baltimore during the season. The defense again sparkled, but had to share the spotlight with Matte, who tied a title game record with three touchdowns. The Colts' line was never better, blowing in on the Browns' quarterbacks (Bill Nelsen and Frank Ryan totaled 13 completions on 32 attempts and were dumped four times) and yielded only 28 yards to rushing king Leroy Kelly. Meanwhile, Matte was averaging better than five yards on 17 carries.

Sunday, January 12 Jets 16, Colts 7 75,377 Away

The Jets nailed down the World's Championship in Miami as the Colts were unable to put together a scoring drive until too late in the game. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though offensive mistakes cost the Colts several golden opportunities, and the Jets nabbed a 7-0 halftime lead on Matt Snell's four-yard run to cap an 80-yard march featuring Snell's running and Joe Namath's passing. Jim Turner's 32 and 30-yard field goals made it 13-0 after three quarters and Turner booted a nine-yarder at the outset of the final period for a 16-0 gap before John Unitas relieved Earl Morrall and started a drive that ended with Jerry Hill scoring from the one. Matte rolled up 116 yards rushing for the Colts, but the Jets' Snell accumulated 121, while Namath was completing 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and the Jets' secondary was intercepting four passes.

Colts Show Good Blend For a Big Year

The changing of the guard continues gradually as three more veterans who made their marks in the National Football League as Colts move over to make way for new faces.

Center Dick Szymanski (13 years), defensive end Ordell Braase (12 years) and defensive back Bob Boyd (9 years) have retired and these players, all in a big way responsible for bringing Baltimore more victories than defeats, will be missed.

But the names which are rapidly shouldering more and more of the burden of keeping the Colts a winner are youthful ones—like Mike Curtis, Bubba Smith, and Rick Volk.

A hard core of "young vets," like John Mackey, Bob Vogel, Fred Miller and Willie Richardson form a connecting link between the kids and dependable older heads like Billy Ray Smith, Jimmy Orr, Don Shinnick and Lenny Lyles.

Not to mention Johnny Unitas and Earl Morrall, who bring to the quarterback position a situation unlike any team has before experienced—Unitas was the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1967 before injuries forced him to turn the job over to Morrall, who copped the league's MVP crown in 1968.

The defense will miss pass demolishers Boyd, the interceptor, and Braase, the rusher. Coach Don Shula is counting on Charlie Stukes or Ocie Austin to fill the bill at the cornerback spot, while fifth-year man Roy Hilton or sophomore John Williams, shifted from offense, are possibilities at end.

The rest of the defensive line is set with Bubba Smith coming off an outstanding season to team with Billy Ray Smith and Fred Miller. All-Pro Curtis joins veterans Dennis Gaubatz and Don Shinnick on the linebacking corps while Volk, Jerry Logan and Lyles are solid backfield performers.

Offensively, Bill Curry centers a line that is both youthful and consistent with Sam Ball and All Pro Vogel at tackles and Dan Sullivan and Glenn Ressler at guards.

Tight end Mackey is the class of the league, heading a receiving corps that includes top pass-catchers like Willie Richardson and Jimmy Orr, along with comers like Ray Perkins and Tom Mitchell.

In the backfield, youngsters Terry Cole and Preston Pearson provide excellent depth behind Tom Matte, who scored 10 touchdowns last year, and tough Jerry Hill.

DON ALLEY (29) Wide Receiver 6'2" 200 Adams State

Though he never quite made the active squad last season, Don toiled hard on the band squad the entire year and coaches give the speedy, sure-handed receiver a fine chance to land a berth in 1969. The year before, as a rookie, Don played nine games, mostly as a teams specialist and he exhibited fine tackling ability. A sixteenth round draft choice of the Hosses for 1967, Alley was pass catching king of the Rocky Mountain Conference for three seasons, compiling more than 1,500 yards with 12 TDs on 101 receptions. Also an outstanding baseball player, Don was drafted by the New York Yankees, but decided on a football career. Born: April 21, 1945, in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Attended Wheat Ridge (Colo.) High School.

OCIE AUSTIN (37) Defensive Back 6'3" 200 Utah State

Off promise shown as a rookie last year, Ocie will be battling for the starting cornerback job vacated by Bob Boyd. A fierce competitor on the special teams, he frequently was the first man downfield to make tackles. As a collegian, Ocie was converted to the backfield in his senior season after two years as a defensive end, where he once earned Lineman of the Week honors in the intermountain area. Majored in sociology. Born January 8, 1947, in Norfolk, Virginia. Attended Berkeley (Calif.) High School.

SAM BALL (73) Tackle 6'4" 250 Kentucky

Gaining league-wide respect as a tough man to penetrate last year, Sam starts his fourth pro season as a key man on the Colts' offensive line. He came up with big games against football's top defensive ends. The Colts' No. 1 draft choice in 1966, Sam moved into a starting job when all-time great Jim Parker suffered an injury and the youngster doggedly battled to keep it despite many frustrations. An All-American at Kentucky, Sam also performed in the North-South Game, the Senior Bowl and the College All-Star game. Active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Wife: Jennie Lou. Children: twins Shannon Leigh and Shelly Ann, 1. Born: June 7, 1944 in Henderson, Kentucky. Attended Henderson County High School.

GAIL COGDILL (80) Wide Receiver 6'2" 200 Wash. State

Rookie of the Year in the NFL in 1960, Cogdill established himself as the No. 1 receiver in Detroit Lions' history in nine years before being dropped in November last year and signed by the Colts as an insurance receiver. He didn't catch a pass for the Colts, but anticipates more work in 1969. Stands ninth on list of active NFL receivers with 325 catches for 5,221 yards. He didn't play football until senior year in high school, but won All-American honors at Washington State, where he caught, 62 passes for 1,174 yards. Wife: Diane. Children: Gail Eric, 3; Kristen Diane, 5. Born: April 7, 1937, in Worland, Wyoming. Now resides: Detroit.

TERRY COLE (34) Running Back 6'1" 220 Indiana

Runnerup for league rookie-of-the-year honors last season, Terry turned in a remarkable job at fullback after Jerry Hill was sidelined by an injury. A tough runner who surprised even the Colts with his acceleration and open field speed, Terry was the team's second leading rusher with 418 yards on 104 carries for a four-yard average and three touchdowns. He also nabbed 13 passes for 75 yards. One of the most highly scholastic scoring record with 411 points during four years of play. He played two seasons at halfback for Indiana, then switched to fullback and averaged 4.7 yards a carry as a senior. Wife: Jill. Born: July 7, 1945, in Dallas, Texas. Attended Mitchell High School in Indiana.

BILL CURRY (50) Center 6'2" 235 Georgia Tech

Tabbed by coach Don Shula as a potential all-pro, Bill turned in a solid performance in his first season as a starting center. Just two years ago, he was bidding for a job as a linebacker at training camp until injuries sidelined him and his action in 1967 was limited to relief roles and specialty teams. The Colts traded two players to New Orleans for Curry and two draft choices early in 1967 after Bill had been claimed by the Saints from the Green Bay Packers,

"Reading psychology, and novels—fiction and non-fiction, appeal to me; I'm fascinated by human behavior."—Bill Curry in the expansion draft. A 20th round draft choice of the Packers, Curry saw some duty as their starting center in 1966. He played in the Coaches' All-Star Game in Buffalo, N. Y., and for the College All-Stars vs. Cleveland in the summer of 1965. Active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Off-season: Real Estate. Wife: Carolyn. Children: Kristin, 2. Born: October 21, 1942 in College Park, Georgia. Attended College Park High School. Now resides: Atlanta, Ga.

Rebounding from a knee operation that knocked him out of virtually all the 1967 season, Mike made a giant step toward superstar status last year with a performance that earned him All-Pro honors in his first complete year at his position. During the regular season, Iron Mike intercepted two passes, returning one 38 yards for a touchdown against the Rams, and recovered three fumbles in addition to a season-long exhibition of bone-jarring tackling. He scored on another interception return against the Browns in the NFL title game. No. 1 draft choice of the Colts in 1965, Mike started as a fullback, the position he played at Duke, then shifted to defense the following year. Off-season: Real estate sales. Born: March 27, 1944, in Rockville, Md. Attended Richard Montgomery High School. Now resides: Rockville, Md. PRO BOWL—1968. ALL-PRO—1968.

DENNIS GAUBATZ (53) Linebacker 6'2" 232 L.S.U.

The Colts' defensive signal-caller and hard-hitting middle linebacker, Dennis turned in perhaps his best season in pro football last year. Obtained in a trade with Detroit in 1965, he moved immediately into a starting job. He picked up a lot of knowledge in a short time to provide fine coverage in passing zones and proved especially tough against the run. Last year, he contributed two interceptions. Before coming to Baltimore, Dennis was a part-time starter for two seasons with the Lions after being drafted on the ninth round for 1963. He starred at Louisiana State on teams that won the Orange Bowl (1962) and Cotton Bowl (1963). Off-season: Service Station operator. Wife: Carolyn. Children: Dennis, Jr., 8; Tynia Lee, 6; James David, 4; Michelle, infant. Born: February 11, 1940, in Needville, Texas. Attended West Columbia (Texas) High School. Now resides: Glen Arm, Md.

BOB GRANT (51) Linebacker 6'2" 225 Wake Forest

The Colts' number two draft choice for 1968, Bob played in seven games last season, displaying a quick-hitting competitiveness that indicated he can have a fine future in pro football. He developed his size and strength by lifting weights and improved his quickness by learning Karate. In last year's rookie game against the New York Jets, Bob intercepted two passes, returning one of them 66 yards for a touchdown and was named the game's most valuable player. Played in the East-West Shrine Game and was voted top player in the Piedmont Bowl game in 1965. He was North Carolina's high school shot-put champ in 1964. One of eight children in his family. Off-season: Insurance sales—Metropolitan. Wife: Pamela Ann Born: October 14, 1946, in Jacksonville, N. C. Attended Georgetown (N.C.) High School.

DAN GRIMM (67) Guard 6'3" 245 Colorado

Obtained from Atlanta Falcons during the winter, Dan is a versatile offensive lineman who was the fifth draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1963. A strong blocker with the speed to lead wide plays, he's a former All-Big Eight player at Colorado who performed in the 1962 Orange Bowl, Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray games. He came to Atlanta in the expansion draft. A former Iowa state heavyweight wrestling champion in high school. Off-season: Insurance sales. Wife: Sallie. Children: Kevin. Born: February 2, 1941, in Perry, Iowa.

JERRY HILL (45) Running Back 5'11" 217 Wyoming

An injury held Jerry to nine regular season games last year, but he resumed speed during the post-season title games. Whenever he played, Jerry did what, for him, comes naturally . . . ramming his lowered head against the enemy or leveling himself parallel to the ground and sailing over, under or through defenders is typical of his unsophisticated style of running. He averaged just under four yards a carry on 91 hauls, his best performance coming against the Rams when he picked up 90 yards on 18 attempts and added

31 yards on a pair of receptions. The injury bug is no stranger to Jerry. As a rookie, he suffered, in rapid succession, a twisted knee, broken arm and broken leg. Widely respected as a blocker. Off-season: Phillipson Fishing Rod Co. Wife: Suzanne. Children: Jamie Elizabeth, 7. Born: October 12, 1939, in Torrington, Wyoming. Attended Lingle (Wyoming) High School. Now resides: Denver, Colo.

ROY HILTON (85) Defensive End 6'6" 245 Jackson State

Two years ago, in his third pro season, Roy worked himself into a starting job at left defensive end. He had to make room for Bubba Smith and served as a utility man last year, but now he has a chance to be a starter again, this time at right end, the spot vacated by the retired Ordell Braase. Known as "Killer," when he was a standout two-way end at Jackson State, Roy lacked bulk when he reported to the Colts as their tenth draft choice in 1965. But he has matured into a strong, mobile pass rusher and sure tackler. Off-season: Insurance sales. Wife: Marie. Children: Angela Marie, 3; Desiree Michelle, 2. Born: March 23, 1943, in Hazelhurst, Miss. Attended Parrish High School. Now resides: Baltimore.

CHARLIE JOHNSON (68) Def. Tackle 6'1" 273 Louisville

After serving two seasons as a backup tackle on defense for the San Francisco 49ers, who drafted him sixth in 1966, Charlie spent most of last year on the Colts' band squad. He was named "Best All-Around Lineman" at the University of Louisville, where he lettered three years. Off-season: District of Columbia Recreation Department. Born: September 29, 1944, in Columbus, Georgia. Attended Spencer High School in Columbus. Now resides: Washington, D.C. ...

CORNELIUS JOHNSON (61) Guard 6'2" 235 Virginia Union

An eighth round draft choice for 1967, Cornelius made the squad last year after a season on the band unit and playing with the Harrisburg Caps. Strong and agile, he is the fastest lineman on the team. Saw action primarily on the special teams last year. He played nearly every offensive and defensive line position in college and was a member of Virginia Union's 440-yard relay team. A Marine veteran, Cornelius is known as "C.O." to his teammates. Wife: Clara. Born: June 12, 1943, in Richmond.

For the first time in his three seasons as the Colts' regular punter, David's average dropped below 40 yards (39.4), but he continued to get good height on the ball and opponents

"Sometimes you can kick too much in practice. That's when you develop bad habits, when you're tired at the end of a day."—David Lee returned only 19 kicks for an average of 3.3 yards, lowest in the league. As a rookie, Dave led National Football League punters with 45.6 yards per boot. The following year, he finished fourth with a 42.4 mean. Dave originally signed with the Browns as a free agent and came to the Colts in a trade after a year on the Cleveland band squad. He won letters in football (as a punter and pass receiver), baseball, basketball and track in college. Wife: Sandra. Children: Whitney, 4. Born: November 8, 1943, in Shreveport, La. Attended Minden High School. Now resides: Rusten, La.

JERRY LOGAN (20) Safety 6'1" 190 West Texas State

Despite his fearless tackling, Jerry isn't stopped by injuries and often plays taped like a mummy. One of the most respected safeties in the league, he added three 1968 interceptions to boost his career total to 19 and swiped another in the Western Conference title game to help turn back the Vikings. Very steady and a strong contact player, this lean, tough Texan became a regular for the Colts late in his rookie season after leading the nation's colleges in scoring in 1962. He intercepted six passes in 1964. A fourth-round draft choice, Logan also can handle punt and kickoff returns when needed. Off-season: Ranching. Wife: Fannie Lou. LENNY LYLES (43) Cornerback 6'2" 204 Louisville Named defensive captain at the beginning of the season, Lenny went on to a fine performance, including five interceptions. A rough handler of pass receivers and a jarring tackler on sweeps, Lyles begins his 11th campaign in pro football. No. 1 draft choice of the Colts in 1958, Lenny returned kickoffs that year, then was traded to the 49ers where he also returned kicks, once victimizing his old teammates, the Colts, with a 78-yard runback to set up a score, then a 97-yarder for a touchdown. He returned to Baltimore in 1961 and shortly thereafter earned a job in the secondary. He was a record-breaker in both football and track at Louisville, where as a senior he was national scoring champion on the gridiron. JOHN MACKEY (88) Tight End 6'2" 224 Syracuse

All-Pro for the third year in a row in 1968, John was named to the Pro Bowl squad for the fifth time. He caught 45 passes last year to lead the Colts and scored six times, several on patented Mackey runs that left tacklers sprawled all over the gridiron. In successive games last year, John grabbed seven passes for 107 yards and a touchdown against the Bears and six for 76 yards and two TDs versus the 49ers. He topped the 100-yard mark in another game—vs. St. Louis—with five for 105 yards. In addition to being big and strong, John is fast (40 yards in 4.7 seconds) and several times last year outran defensive backs to the goal. Additionally, he averaged 10.3 yards per carry on ten end-arounds. A second round draft pick of the Colts in 1963, John

The versatile, highly-charged former Ohio State quarterback first emerged as a bonafide star in 1963 when he rushed for 541 yards (a 4.1 ave.) and caught 48 passes. In 1965 he hit the national limelight as "Instant Quarterback," when injuries claimed the Colts' regular signal-callers. Tom turned in a courageous performance, leading his team to a 20-17 victory over the Los Angeles Rams to tie Green Bay for first place in the Western Conference and starred in a near-upset of the Packers in a playoff. Then he threw two touchdown passes in the Colts' 35-3 triumph over the Dallas Cowboys in the Miami Playoff Bowl. In 1967, he was handed the running job he had been sharing with Lenny Moore and he responded with 12 touchdowns. Last year he hit paydirt ten times during the regular season and starred in the 34-0 victory over the Cleveland Browns for the National Football League title with three touchdowns. Hitting on 18 of 28 field goal attempts and 48 of 50 conversion tries, Lou finished eighth among the league's scorers last year with 102 points, the fifth time in his career he has topped the century mark in points. Still one of the outstanding long-distance field goal booters in the league, Lou twice booted three in a game last year. The No. 1 draft choice of the Rams in 1958 after winning All-America honors at Kentucky, Lou was traded to Pittsburgh in 1961 and was a starter for six years before joining the Colts in a trade in

FRED MILLER (76) Defensive Tackle 6'3" 250 L.S.U.

A Pro Bowl selection for the second straight season, Fred has been a starter ever since arriving with the Colts six years ago after being drafted seventh as a future in 1961. An aggressive sort who isn't big as pro football's defensive linemen go, Fred is strong and quick, and often draws two blockers because of his swift penetration on the pass rush.

"Hitting is the name of the game, that's true. But you have to know how to hit and when."—Fred Miller

As a collegian, Fred captained the famed Chinese Bandits at L.S.U. and played in three all-star games—the Senior Bowl, All-American Bowl and Chicago All-Star contest. Loves to hunt and fish. TOM MITCHELL (84) Tight End 6'2" 235 Bucknell Making the most of his limited receptions in his first year with the Colts, Tom scored four times on seven catches during the regular season and added a touchdown (in the Western Conference playoff game) on three grabs in post-season title games. The first ex-American Football League player to join the Colts, Tom served a season on the Baltimore band squad after a year with the Oakland Raiders, where he caught 23 passes for 301 yards and one touchdown. Employed often by the Colts as a second tight end on key plays in scoring territory. As the East's leading receiver during all three varsity seasons at Bucknell, Tom totaled 173 receptions for 2,358 yards and 18 touchdowns. Named first team Little All-America, two years. Wife: Ella. PRESTON PEARSON (26) Running Back 6'1" 190 Illinois

Though he didn't play the game in college, Preston has played a lot of football since joining the Colts two years ago as a 12th round draft choice. Last year, he led the National Football League in kickoff returns with a 35.1 average on 15 runbacks. He also recorded the league's longest return of the season with a touchdown scamper of 102 yards and had another scoring runback of 96 yards. A basketball starter at Illinois, Preston was drafted for a trial as a defensive back and impressed Colts' coaches with his desire and hitting ability, enough so that he was activated from the band squad for the last half of 1967 for special teams duty. Last year, he was switched to offense and averaged more than four yards a carry and scored on two pass receptions. He won three letters each in football, basketball and track in high school. Off-season: Public relations for Institute of Computer Management. Wife: Linda Kay. Born: Freeport, Ill. January 17, 1945. Attended Freeport (Ill.) High School. Now resides: Baltimore.

RAY PERKINS (27) Wide Receiver 6'0" 185 Alabama

A great comeback by veteran Jimmy Orr detoured Ray's bid for a starting spot last year, but he came up with 15 catches for 227 yards and a touchdown seeing spot duty. His most important reception of the season was most sensational, a diving, fingertip grab one-yard from paydirt to set up the Colts' first touchdown in the opening game after the 49ers had taken a 7-0 lead. Ray caught 16 passes for 302 yards and two touchdowns in a rookie season cut short by a knee injury that surgery. As a senior All-American at Alabama, he nabbed 33 passes for 490 yards and seven TDs and sparked the Tide's Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska in January of 1967 with required surgery. A utility lineman on both offense and defense his first two seasons after being drafted third by the Colts for 1965, Glenn now turns in fine performances against the league's top defensive tackles. Winner of the Maxwell Award as college player of the year at Penn State, the versatile Ressler earned All-America acclaim variously as a guard, linebacker, center and defensive tackle. Wife: Sandra. After four years as a backup man for all-time great pass receivers Raymond Berry and Jimmy Orr, Willie Richardson finally got his chance to sparkle in 1967 and he's been a red-hot ball-snagger ever since. At his best when the chips are down, Richardson has caught eight touchdown passes in each of the past two seasons while helping the Colts to a scintillating National Football League regular season record of 24 victories and two ties in 28 games. Since his emergence as a starter, Willie has twice been named All-Pro and has played in the Pro Bowl both years. Last year,

Don's a funny guy to everyone except enemy passers, who have been victimized by his 37 career interceptions, an all-time high for linebackers. Actually, Don's top thrills include playing in the 1958 sudden death overtime championship victory and starting for the Colts as a rookie. A pulled hamstring put the live-wire Shinnick on the sidelines for four games during the regular season last year, but he was on the job for the post-season title games. A deeply

BILLY RAY SMITH (74) Defensive End 6'4" 250 Arkansas

A key man on the Colts' Gibraltar defense in '68, Billy Ray seems to get better with each passing year. He is embarking on his dozenth campaign after leading a rush that dropped opposing passers 45 times and forced 29 interceptions last year. An All-Southwest Conference tackle for Arkansas in 1956, he also was a member of the famed "24 Little Pigs" squad that gave Arkansas a conference title in 1954. Also a promising boxer, the "Rabbit," as he is affectionately known, won many state AAU and Golden Gloves titles and reached the national quarter-finals in Chicago where he lost to Pete Rademacher who later fought Floyd Patterson for the world heavyweight title. Drafted by the Rams on the third round in 1957, he was traded to Pittsburgh the following season and developed into one of the best defensive ends in the league. He came to Baltimore in 1961 via a trade, moved to tackle and has played there ever since except for a one season hiatus to devote time to a business enterprise. Off-season: Stockbroker. Wife: Carol. BUBBA SMITH (78) Defensive End 6'7" 285 Michigan State

Maturing into a bona fide star in his sophomore year after spending his rookie campaign hobbled with injuries, Bubba is looking for an even more satisfying performance in 1969. The Colts' No. 1 draft choice for 1967, Bubba had landed a starting job during training camp when a severely sprained knee put him on the sidelines. He saw limited action the rest of his rookie year. But last season, the huge man from Beaumont,

"When hearing tales of Bubba Smith, you wonder is he man or myth."—Ogden Nash

Texas, became a menace to enemy quarterbacks and his play was largely responsible for the Colts' record of 15 victories in 17 games. As a collegian, backed by the chant, "Kill, Bubba, Kill," the big man helped Michigan State to two straight unbeaten seasons and was a unanimous All-America selection. Bubba's high school coach was his father, a long-time mentor in Beaumont. Born: February 28, 1945, in Orange, Texas. Attended Pollard High School in Beaumont, Texas. Now resides: Baltimore.

CHARLIE STUKES (47) Cornerback 6'3" 210 Maryland State

Against Pittsburgh last year, Charlie intercepted a pass and sprinted 60 yards for a touchdown. More of same is expected as the former Maryland State star quarterback

"I stay 'in the game' all the time, even when I'm on the bench, trying to soak up all I can about playing my position."—Charlie Stukes vies for a starting job to fill the vacancy created by Bob Boyd's retirement. As a rookie, Charlie intercepted two passes in limited appearances, though he did start one game. In addition to starring in football as a collegian, he was a double figures scorer in basketball and a pro baseball prospect. Drafted fourth by Colts. Wife: Gloria. Born: September 13, 1943, in Chesapeake, Va. Attended Crestwood High School.

DAN SULLIVAN (71) Guard 6'3" 250 Boston College

At 30, Dan is the elder statesman of the Colts' offensive line after a thorough internship that saw him rise from a utility man who alternated at two positions on both sides of the line to a solid guard who is adept both at creating running room for his backs and protecting the passer. Dan joined the Colts as a third draft choice for 1962 and prepared for his regular status with four seasons of work at guard and tackle on both left and right sides of the front line. In 1966, he nailed down a regular job at left guard., then shifted to the right side in '67. Off-season: Mrs. Filbert's Margarine. Wife: Lorraine. Children: Elizabeth Ann, 5; Julie Ann, 3. Born: September 1, 1939, in Boston, Mass. Attended Boston Tech High School.

BOB VOGEL (72) Tackle 6'5" 250 Ohio State

Continuing his stellar play at left tackle, Bob was selected to the All-Pro team and the Pro Bowl squad for the fourth time in his six-year career. Size, speed, toughness and intelligence have enabled this former Buckeye to step into a starting job for the Colts right away and establish himself as one of the league's best. A first-round draft choice, Vogel is a hard worker who hasn't let up despite his rapid rise to the top. Relies on technique rather than pure strength for success in blocking. He doesn't hesitate to impart his savvy to young linemen who may be bent on taking his job. Active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Off-season: Real estate. Wife: Andrea. Children: Heidi, 3; Lori, 1. Born: September 23, 1941, Columbus, Ohio. Attended Massillon (Ohio) High School. Now resides: Havre de Grace, Md.

JOHN UNITAS (19) Quarterback 6'1" 196 Louisville

Unitas

"Mr. Quarterback" didn't get much of a chance to ply his trade last year due to an ailing elbow, which reduced his playing appearances to five games, plus the Super Bowl. A grueling regimen of therapy and throwing during the off-season, however, has the 13-year veteran optimistic about returning to form in 1969. He completed 61 of 105 passes (58%) for 832 yards in the pre-season games last summer, but tore a muscle in the elbow and was unable to open the season and threw only 32 passes all year. In the Super Bowl game, he engineered the Colts to their only touchdown in the 16-7 loss. Despite his lean year, Johnny U. still holds a number of all-time National Football League passing records, including most attempts, 4,129; most completions, 2,272; most yardage gained passing, 33,160, and most touchdowns, 254. He also holds the league mark for title game yardage with 349 against the Giants in 1958 and his record for throwing TD passes in 47 consecutive league games may never be eclipsed. He holds club standards for most passes completed in one season, 255; most passes attempted for one season, 436; most yards gained passing in one game, 401; best passing efficiency, 58.5 per cent; and yards passing for a season, 3,481. One of the most prominent figures in all of sport, Unitas is famed for his ability to produce in pressure situations. He has been selected to the Pro Bowl squad ten times and named All-Pro six times. As a high school senior, he was quarterback on the All-Catholic team and received honorable mention on the All-America prep team, later starring as a passer at the University of Louisville. He was drafted ninth by the Pittsburgh Steelers, but was dropped from the squad and played for the semi-pro Bloomfield Rams in Pittsburgh before signing as a free agent with the Colts in 1956. RICK VOLK (21) Safety 6'3" 195 Michigan

The Colts have placed their last line of defense in the hands of a young man who looks more like the kid next door than a professional football player. But enemy runners and pass receivers have become quickly aware that this fresh-faced countenance is all too deceiving. For in just two seasons, Rick, a second round draft pick, has proved himself to be in the elite when it comes to listing the league's top safetymen. Rick received All-Pro acclaim last year after intercepting six passes for the second year in a row. Although he didn't score last year, he turned in a 90-yard pickoff return against the 49ers. As a rookie, he set a new Colt record with a 94-yard romp versus the Bears. Rick went to Michigan as a quarterback, but shifted to the secondary and helped the Wolverines to a Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship. As a senior, he was All-Big Ten and Sporting News All-America. Wife: Charlene. Children: Eric Richard, 1. Born: March 15, 1945 in Toledo, Ohio. Attended Wauseon (Ohio) High School. PRO BOWL—1967. ALL-PRO—1968.

JIM WARD (16) Quarterback 6'2" 195 Gettysburg

A year of bitter frustration behind him, Jim Ward is looking for better things in 1969. Groomed for two seasons as heir-apparent to Johnny Unitas, a knee sprain during the pre-season knocked him out of action. By the time he was ready to go again, Earl Morrall had stepped into the signal-calling breach and was in full charge. This turn of events limited Jim to mop-up action and he threw only nine passes, completing three for 46 yards. The Colts drafted Ward on the 14th round for 1966 and he spent a year on the band squad before getting his first taste of action in 1967, when he completed nine of his 16 passes for 115 yards and tossed two touchdowns. At Gettysburg, Jim hit on 97 of 198 passes for 1,420 yards and 11 touchdown aeriels, adding 10 TDs rushing. Injuries reduced his senior action. Wife: Pam. Born: July 16, 1944, in Gaithersburg, Md. Attended Gaithersburg High School.

JOHN WILLIAMS (75) Defensive End 6'3" 256 Minnesota

Because the men on the Colts' youthful offensive line played so well last year, No. 1 draft choice John Williams didn't see much action except on the suicide squads where he quickly proved that he had come to play football, no matter what duties were given him. With the retirement of defensive end Ordell Braase, John will move from offense to defense and battle for the right side job. He started building a reputation for versatility at Minnesota where he put in a season at fullback, then one at defensive end and served as a senior on the offensive line, making the all-Big Ten team as a tackle. Attitude is one of John's big pluses and he has the strength, speed and agility to go with it. Picked for the All-Star games in Chicago and Atlanta in 1968. Born: October 27, 1945, in Jackson, Mississippi.

SIDNEY WILLIAMS (64) Linebacker 6'2" 235 Southern U.

Drafted 16th in 1964 by the Cleveland Browns, with whom he played three seasons, Sidney was traded to the New York Giants then the Washington Redskins before joining the Colts last year when Don Shinnick was injured. Off-season: Negro Economic and Industrial Union. Born: March 3, 1942, in Shreveport, La. Now resides: Cleveland.
