CARROLL ROSENBLOOM, President

One of the highlights of Carroll Rosenbloom's 17 distinguished years of ownership was his role in the NFL-AFL merger, which becomes a full realization this season. Rosenbloom was on the executive committee of the merger and made a significant contribution to its effective conclusion.

Rosenbloom, of course, changed the athletic history of Baltimore and Maryland in 1953 by bringing the Colts back into the NFL. After an unfortunate National Football League debut in 1950, the Baltimore franchise was dissolved. But three years later Rosenbloom acquired a club that had floundered in New York and Dallas and gave Baltimore fans the opportunity to establish themselves among the most devoted in professional football.

With Rosenbloom in command the Colts began an exciting era. A surprising total of 15,755 season tickets were purchased the first season and the figure grew until the present, frozen total of 50,246. On the field he built the legendary championship teams of 1958 and 1959 and a club that has had the best winning percentage in pro football since 1958.

His efforts have resulted in the Colts enjoying a national reputation as a "class organization."

Despite the press of other business, Rosenbloom is a familiar figure on the Colts' scene during football season. He visits training camp and many regular season practice sessions and seldom misses a pre-season or regular season home or away game.

Rosenbloom, a Baltimorean who played football at City College, was an outstanding halfback at the University of Pennsylvania.

STEVE ROSENBLOOM, Assistant to the President

Steve Rosenbloom, one of pro football's new breed of young, dynamic executives, begins his second season as Assistant to the President of the Colts Carroll Rosenbloom. The 26-year-old graduate of Georgetown University has worked in nearly every phase of the Baltimore Colts' operation. As a youngster on vacation from school he helped equipment manager Fred Schubach in the Colts' locker room. Later, during his high school years, Steve had various duties which included assisting in the club's summer publicity office at training camp in Westminster, Md.

During his Georgetown days his responsibilities increased and he worked closely with then general manager of the Colts Don Kellett. When he graduated from Georgetown in 1966, Steve moved in the Colts' office on a full time basis. He was the club's business manager in 1967 and 1968, arranging road trips, transportation schedules and hotel accommodations.

Prior to the 1969 season Steve was elevated to his present position as the top day-to-day working executive in the Colts' organization.

DON KLOSTERMAN, General Manager

The Colts begin the 1970s and the American Football Conference era with a new general manager, Don Klosterman. Klosterman was associated with the American Football League since its inception in 1960 and came to the Colts from the Houston Oilers, where he was also general manager.

The native of Los Angeles, Calif., was an outstanding quarterback at Loyola (Calif.), where he led the nation in passing and set NCAA records that stood for over 10 years.

He was the No. 1 draft choice of the Cleveland Browns and also played with the old Dallas Texans, the Los Angeles Rams and the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

A serious skiing accident ended his playing career in 1957. It took eight operations and 18 months of recuperating before he was released from the hospital and, even then, doctors doubted that he would ever walk again. But it is difficult to detect signs of his accident now. He is an excellent swimmer and plays some golf.

Klosterman and his wife Clare have two children—Kurt (eight) and Katie (seven).

TWO TRAINING CAMPS IN '70

Western Maryland College in Westminster, Md., will be training headquarters for the 18th straight summer, except for three weeks the Colts will spend at Colorado School of Mines in Golden, Colo., a suburb of Denver. The rookies are due to report to Westminster, which is 30 miles from Baltimore, on July 19, followed by the veterans on July 22. On Aug. 7 the Colts will break camp and fly to Oakland for the opening pre-season game with the Raiders. Following the contest the squad will set up a training base at Colorado Mines to prepare for western games at Kansas City and Denver and remain there until Aug. 28. The Colts will return to Baltimore and prepare for the final two pre-season contests and the early regular season games at the Baltimore University athletic facility on Rogers Ave. The club will practice at Memorial Stadium when the baseball season is concluded.

THE COLTS' COACHING STAFF

DON McCafferty, Head Coach

When Don McCafferty moved up to head coach of the Baltimore Colts last April 6, he traded a seat high above the 50-yard line for what is generally regarded as the worst seat in the stadium.

In his 11 years as a Colts' assistant coach, Don viewed games from a strategic position in the press box as offensive coordinator, relaying information to coaches on the field.

He won't be doing this any more. As the leader, the 49-year-old McCafferty will be in the middle of things trying to mold and inspire the Colts to a championship.

A believer in the "Paul Brown System", a man for whom McCafferty played at Ohio State, the new Colt coach feels "we have a sound football team with the solid nucleus of a championship club."

McCafferty's players have similar respect for him.

"Don has a great knowledge of football," says John Unitas. "He's a calm, collected individual. He doesn't shout and scream and this is what you need to do—be able to look at football objectively without getting carried away emotionally. I think he'll do just fine."

Don Shinnick, now an assistant coach with the Chicago Bears and a man who played 11 years under McCafferty, said of him: "I know he can motivate men."

At 6-feet-5, the distinguished looking McCafferty is the tallest head coach in professional football.

He joined the Colts in 1959 as offensive end coach and scout, assuming the offensive backfield directorship in 1963 when Don Shula became head coach. McCafferty played end under Francis Schmidt and Brown at Ohio State and in the 1945 and 1946 College All-Star Games.

Mac also played for an Army team at Fort Bragg, N.C., and for the New York Giants in 1946.

After one year with the Cleveland (O.) Recreation Department, he served as an assistant coach at Kent State University for 10 years before joining Weeb Ewbank's staff in Baltimore.

Asked about his coaching methods, McCafferty said:

"I'll talk to the quarterback on the sidelines and suggest things we might not be exploiting, but 99 percent of the time I won't be sending anybody out there to tell him what play to run."

McCafferty and his wife June live in Timonium with four children—Jaclyn, Donnie, Billy and Lisa.

JOHN SANDUSKY, Defensive Line Coach

Hired as defensive line coach in 1959, John switched to offense in 1963 and played an important part in developing a front wall that ranked with pro football's best in 1969. He returns to defensive responsibilities this year. A standout tackle on both offense and defense for seven seasons with the Green Bay Packers and the Cleveland Browns, John retired as an active player in 1956 and served two years as assistant coach at Villanova University where he had earlier earned All-American honors as a four year star. John also served overseas in the Army for three years during World War II. He and his wife Ruth reside in Baltimore with children Jack, Jim, Joe, Gerry and Ruth Ann.

DICK BIELSKI, Offensive End Coach

A Baltimore native who made it to the pros with his hometown team both as a player and coach, Dick starts his seventh season as tutor of the Colts' receivers. A former Patterson Park High star, Bielski spent nine years in the National Football League as a pass catcher and kicker after starring at fullback for the University of Maryland. The first-round draft choice of Philadelphia in 1955, Dick played for five years with the Eagles, two with the Dallas Cowboys and two with Baltimore. As a pro, Bielski caught 107 passes for 1,305 yards and 12 touchdowns while kicking 58 extra points and 26 field goals. Dick and wife Jody live in Timonium with children Debby, Rickey, Randy and Jody.

BOB BOYD, Defensive Backfield Coach

After nine outstanding seasons as a defensive back with the Colts, Bob retired following the 1968 season to become defensive backfield coach. He had a big year in 1968, intercepting eight passes to boost his career total to 57 steals, more than any other active player and placing him third on the list of all-time interceptors. Joining the Colts as a tenth round draft choice from Oklahoma, where he starred as a split T quarterback, Bob stepped immediately into a starting assignment in the secondary. In 1968 he was named All-Pro for the fourth time and played in his second Pro Bowl. Bob and wife Wanda live in Cockeysville with their two children, Darin Leslie and Bradley Dean.

HANK BULLOUGH, Linebacker Coach

Hank Bullough begins his first year with the Colts after an 11-year career as an assistant coach at Michigan State. Bullough's last role with the Spartans was as their defensive coordinator. The 36-year-old native of Scranton, Pa., was a linebacker and defensive tackle at Michigan State from 1952 to 1954. He played in the 1954 Rose Bowl and on the '55 College All Star team that defeated the Cleveland Browns. Bullough also played offensive guard for the Green Bay Packers in 1955 (when he was coached by Colt assistant Lou Rymkus) and 1959 around two years of military service. He joined Duffy Daugherty's staff at Michigan State in 1959. Bullough and his wife Lou Ann have three children — Cheryl (seven), Shane (five) and Charles (two).

JOHN IDZIK, Offensive Backfield Coach

John Idzik, an assistant coach with the Miami Dolphins since their inception four years ago, is another new member of Don McCafferty's coaching staff. Idzik, 41, joined the Dolphins in 1966 after 11 years in college coaching, three of them as the last head coach at the University of Detroit. A native of Philadelphia, he played at the University of Maryland under Jim Tatum and served as an assistant coach with the Terps from 1956 to 1959. Idzik is married to the former Joyce Hoppensteadt of Baltimore. They have three children, Cynthia (11), John (nine) and Joyce (six).

LOU RYMKUS, Offensive Line Coach

Lou Rymkus, who coached the Houston Oilers to the American Football League's first championship in 1960, is the third coach to join the Baltimore Colt staff this season. Including the head coaching job with the Oilers, Rymkus spent nine years as a coach in the American and National Football Leagues. He was a head coach in the Continental Football League for two years and at Many (La.) High School for one season. The 50-year-old former All-American tackle at Notre Dame played on Frank Leahy's first unbeaten Fighting Irish team in 1941. He played professionally with the Washington Redskins as a rookie and later became an All-Pro tackle with the Cleveland Browns, playing in six straight championship games. The Browns won five of those titles—four in the All America Conference and one in the NFL. Rymkus is a native of Royalton, Ill. He and his wife Betty are the parents of twin, 26-year-old boys who played football at Texas A & M.

THE SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

UPTON BELL, Personnel Director

Upton Bell supervises what one major Eastern newspaper has called "the best scouting operation in professional football." It's the awesome responsibility of Bell and his staff to sort out professional prospects from the nation's colleges. This is accomplished by traveling thousands of miles each year combing campuses for talent. Bell joined the Colts in 1961 as an aide in the ticket office. He quickly was appointed as an assistant to Keith Molesworth in the personnel department and became the director when Molesworth died early in 1966. Son of Bert Bell, former Commissioner of the National Football League, the 32-year-old Upton is a native of Philadelphia.

GEORGE YOUNG, Personnel Assistant

After establishing a brilliant high school coaching record at Calvert Hall and City College in Baltimore, George moved to the Colts in February, 1968, and quickly made evident his ability to appraise football talent. A former Little All-American at Bucknell, defensive tackle Young had a tryout with the Dallas Texans in 1952.

DICK SZYMANSKI, Personnel Assistant

Sizzy begins his second year in the scouting position after 13 seasons as a player. The 37-year-old Szymanski earned Pro Bowl honors three times as a center and spent several seasons as a stand-out linebacker during his Colt playing career. A No. 2 draft choice from Notre Dame in 1955, Dick now resides in Lutherville with his wife Patricia Ann and children Debra Ann and Michael Patrick.

MILT DAVIS, Personnel Assistant

Another former player entering his second year as a personnel assistant is former All-Pro defensive halfback Milt Davis. Milt intercepted 27 passes during four seasons as a regular for the Colts and twice tied for the NFL lead in that department. He will patrol the West Coast for the Colts while residing in Los Angeles with his wife Yvonne and children Allison, Brian and Hilary.

FRED SCHUBACH, Equipment Manager

Of all the Colts' employees, none has been on the job as long as Fred, who took over as equipment manager in 1953, after many years of working with his father who was with the Philadelphia Eagles. Fred spent some time in baseball, too, playing in the Philadelphia Athletics' farm system as a catcher and later serving as batting practice and bullpen catcher for the A's. He served in the Army Medical Corps during the Korean War and was stationed at the Osaka Army Hospital. A tireless worker and master improviser of equipment, uniforms and protective gear, Fred in off-season assists in the Personnel Department, also coaches and manages the Colts' basketball team.

THE MEDICAL CORPS

ED BLOCK, Head Trainer

Dr. Edward Block, B.S., M.A., Ed.D., R.P.T., F.A.C.S.M., prefers to be known as "Ed Block of the Colts." Starting his 17th year as head trainer for the Colts, Ed brings more to his job than bandages and liniment—he's knowledgeable in sciences as diverse as physics and endocrinology and there's nobody more dedicated to the team. Previously a trainer and instructor in physical education at Washington University (St. Louis), his alma mater and coach, physical education and social studies teacher at a St. Louis high school, he spent five years in the Army, serving as a tank officer during World War II until he was wounded and later became chief of physical training and corrective exercises at Army convalescent hospitals in France and Germany. He later taught at Brooklyn College and rehabilitation work at York hospitals.

DICK SPASSOFF, Trainer

Beginning his 14th campaign with the Colts, Dick is a dedicated training room personality who keeps the squad loose with his humor. An Olympic fencer and gymnast for Bulgaria in 1928, Dick came to the United States in 1930. He obtained a B.S. degree in education and a M.A. degree in psychology while studying at George Williams (Chicago), Wittenberg College and Columbia University. He served in the Army Medical Corps and later studied metaphysics and served as physical director for a hotel chain. He operates a health club, featuring the Sauna which he introduced to the Colts, in Palm Beach, Fla., during the off-season.

JOHN SPASSOFF, Trainer

Son of Dick Spassoff, John is in his fourth season fulltime with the Colts. A graduate of Southern Illinois, where he specialized in athletic training, he was an outstanding gymnast who was runnerup in the 1964 Olympic trials. During the season, John lives in Washington, D.C. In the off-season he is a tennis instructor in Palm Beach, Fla.

UNITAS NAMED PLAYER OF DECADE

John Unitas was selected as Pro Football Player of the Decade by the Associated Press to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the National Football League. John was also named the greatest professional quarterback of all time.

THE COLTS' MARCHING BAND

Organized in 1947 for the All-America Conference team in Baltimore, the Colts' Band typifies the unquenchable spirit of football-loving Baltimoreans. A strictly volunteer outfit which now numbers more than 160 personnel, the band stayed together even when Baltimore had no team in 1951 and 1952. In addition to performing at all Colt home games and numerous road contests, the Colts Band has appeared at four National Football League championship games—in 1958, 1959, 1964 and 1968. In 1966, Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin designated December 4 as Baltimore Colts' Band Day in Baltimore in recognition of the fact that the first bass drum of the band was, on that day, presented to the National Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Under the direction of Art Schmersal, the band drills one night a week throughout the year and often appears at parades and other events during the off-season.

THE COLTS' ASSOCIATES

Another organization born in 1947 is The Colts' Associates, a 25-member group of ever-active boosters who have aided players in obtaining homes and jobs and otherwise making their services available to the Colts' organization. Most notable among their endeavors have been the annual Family Day outing at training camp and Colt Nite, a benefit game at Memorial Stadium which has raised thousands of dollars for the Police Boys' Clubs of Baltimore. Serving as the Associates officers for 1970 are: Jim Mutscheller, Chairman; Larry Beck, Vice-Chairman; Art DeCarlo, Secretary-Treasurer.

THE COLTS' CORRALS

Just as rabid now as they were when the very first unit was organized a dozen years ago, the number of Colts' Corrals has swelled to 20. These super fan clubs staged their fourth annual convention in Ocean City, Md., in June with more than 600 members attending and they continued other energetic activities like making road trips, honoring players, raising money for charity and otherwise promoting pro football in a wide area. Gilbert Durkan heads the Council of Colts' Corrals, governing body for the group. He is assisted by Don Louey, Bill Christ, Wayne Price and Loudy Laudenslager. Presidents of the respective Corrals for 1970 are: No. 1, Bob Lins; No. 2, Tom Harris; No. 4, Dan Terzie; No. 5, Lou Welk; No. 6, Ray Stemler; No. 7, Bob Nichols; No. 8, Danny Bendetti; No. 9, Frank Olszewski; No. 10, Ray Shrewbridge; No. 11, Norman C. Niblett; No. 12, Jake Stitely; No. 13, Larry Robinson; No. 14, Jim Gambacorta; No. 15, Harry Katz; No. 16, Jack Gambetese; No. 17, John Gipprich; No. 18, Ed Czaplicki; No. 19, G. G. Cockran; No. 20, Harry Bechtol; No. 954, Robert Webster.

THE QUARTERBACK CLUB

The Quarterback Club of Baltimore meets the Monday evening following each Baltimore Colt home game for dinner and a film showing of the game. The club, founded in 1960, awards a $2000 scholarship each season to Maryland's Scholar-Athlete of the Year. It also co-sponsors with the National Football Foundation, the annual Baltimore Scholar-Athlete Dinner. Officers of the Quarterback Club are: president — Kirk McWilliams; vice president — Robert Clark; treasurer — Richard Colonell; secretary — Roger Goss.

COLTS' RADIO TEAM

Ted Moore, Neal Eskridge and former defensive end Ordell Braase will comprise the Baltimore Colts radio announcing team for the 1970 season. Moore, the radio voice of the Green Bay Packers the past 12 years, will handle the play-by-play; Eskridge will do the color, and Braase will provide reports from the sidelines. The originating station for the Colts' radio network is WCBM in Baltimore.

1969 — WE WON ... BUT NOT ENOUGH

The Colts were a winner in 1969—8-5-1 with victories over Los Angeles and Green Bay—but following 11-1-2 and 13-1 seasons, it wasn't enough.

The critical games came in the beginning against the Rams and Minnesota. After they were lost to eventual division champions, there was some improvement, particularly on defense, but Baltimore never got it rolling.

In the seventh game of the season the Colts introduced a new look defense. Bob Grant and Ted Hendricks became starting outside linebackers and Mike Curtis was moved into the middle.

Baltimore won four of its next five games, including two games (Green Bay and Atlanta) in which the opponent was held without a touchdown.

The season concluded with another effective defensive performance—a 13-7 victory over the Rams in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Colts' Ted Hendricks (83) and Mike Curtis (32) pile up Green Bay's Travis Williams in Baltimore 14-6 victory.

1969 GAME BY GAME SUMMARIES

Rams 27 Colts 20

56,864

BALTIMORE, MD., Sept. 21—It was quite early for a crucial game but quarterback Roman Gabriel got the Los Angeles Rams ripping today by directing a 27-20 victory over Baltimore. Gabriel hit 20 of 33 passes for 252 yards and three touchdowns as Los Angeles surged back from 7-3 and 17-10 Colt advantages. Bruce Gossett put the Rams on the board first with a 29-yard field goal. John Unitas, who passed for 283 yards, and Gabriel traded TD passes (John's a 13-yarder to Tom Mitchell and Gabriel's to Billy Truax for four yards) for a 10-7 Los Angeles lead. Lou Michaels tied it before halftime with a 15-yard kick and Baltimore grabbed the lead when Unitas hit Jimmy Orr on the LA 23 and the little receiver survived a solid jolt to score the touchdown and complete a 41-yard play. It was, however, to be Baltimore's final touchdown on this day. Gabriel threw touchdown passes to Willie Ellison (12 yards) and Wendell Tucker (16 yards) around a 15-yard field goal by Gossett and the Rams had a big road victory. Michaels' 41-yard kick completed the scoring. The Rams intercepted three passes, recovered a Colt fumble and held Tom Matte, who was to rush for 909 yards in 1969, to 11.

Vikings 52 Colts 14

47,644

BLOOMINGTON, Minn., Sept. 28—Baltimore was the first team to feel Minnesota's championship sting as the Vikings buried the Colts 52-14 today with Joe Kapp's seven touchdown passes and 449 aerial yards. The Colts, who had not lost to the Vikings in five years and had won 11 of the 14 previous games between the clubs, were out of this one early. Kapp connected for touchdown passes to Dave Osborn (18 yards), Gene Washington (83), Bob Grim (21) and Kent Kramer (18) and the Vikings had a massive 31-7 halftime lead. In the second half Kapp threw another touchdown pass to Washington (42 yards) and threw two more to John Beasley and Jim Lindsey. Tom Matte scored both Baltimore touchdowns—the first on a 42-yard pass from Earl Morrall and the other one on a four-yard run.

Colts 21 Falcons 14

57,806

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 5—The Colts cracked into the victory column for the first time this season today at Georgia Tech's Grant Field when they defeated the Atlanta Falcons 21-14, essentially because Jim Duncan ran back a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown. Atlanta had just taken an alarming 14-7 lead with 24 seconds left in the first half when Junior Coffey went off the left side for three yards. Duncan then raced the distance to get Baltimore even before the half and the Colts achieved the win on a six-yard John Unitas to John Mackey touchdown pass in the fourth period. Unitas threw well, hitting 18 of 24 passes, but Baltimore gave the ball away six times—one interception and five fumbles.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 13—Baltimore defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 24-20 on this foggy Monday night in a game as sluggish as the weather. The contest had to be switched from the previous Sunday afternoon because of a Baltimore Orioles-New York Mets World Series game. The Eagles hung in the game, in fact, led it 20-17 in the fourth quarter and might have had it out of reach by that time if Norman Snead's receivers had held onto a few more than six of his 17 passes. Jim Duncan helped erase that Philadelphia advantage by returning a kickoff to the Colts 42. Nine plays later Tom Matte crashed in from the one and Baltimore had its second consecutive victory.

Colts 30 Saints 10

80,636

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 19—The Baltimore Colts executed sharply today for the first time this season, flattening the New Orleans Saints 30-10 before 80,636 in the Sugar Bowl. John Unitas, who completed 20 of 28 passes for 319 yards, blitzed the Colts to a 13-0 first quarter lead with touchdown passes to Willie Richardson and Tom Mitchell. The scores concluded drives of 54 and 75 yards. Baltimore put it away in the third period when Tom Matte, who had a 99-yard rushing day, went in from the three to climax an 80-yard march. Ray Perkins completed the scoring by grabbing a 47-yard touchdown pass from Unitas in the fourth period. Jimmy Orr caught five passes for 113 yards.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 26—The San Francisco 49ers, quarterbacked by Steve Spurrier, defeated Baltimore for the first time in their last 14 meetings today as the game concluded with the Colts nine yards away from victory. John Unitas, who passed for 300 yards, attempted desperately to salvage the game as Baltimore snubbed an almost certain game-tying field goal. Unitas' final pass, intended for Jimmy Orr, was broken up as the game ended. San Francisco had won the game earlier by running up a 24-7 lead on touchdowns by Ken Willard (five yard run), Dick Witcher (17 yard pass from Spurrier) and Johnny Woitt (57-yard interception return) and an 18-yard field goal by Tommy Davis. Baltimore surged in the second half on touchdowns by Orr and Tom Matte but fate deprived them of a 14th straight victory over the 49ers.

Bubba Smith (78), Roy Hilton (85) and Billy Ray Smith (74) pressure Redskins' quarterback Sonny Jurgensen into a quick pass.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 2—The Baltimore Colts unwrapped a "new look" defense at Memorial Stadium today and it contributed to a 41-17 Colt victory over the Washington Redskins. The "new look" consisted of Mike Curtis moving from left linebacker to the middle; Bob Grant becoming the left linebacker; rookie Ted Hendricks taking injured Don Shinnick's place at right linebacker, and another rookie Tom Maxwell replacing Lenny Lyles at cornerback. Grant grabbed two interceptions, Maxwell one and Tom Matte scored three touchdowns as the Colts raced to a 34-10 lead in the fourth period. Rookie Sam Havrilak scored his first professional touchdown on a driving 10-yard dash.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 9—The Colts, inspired by their new defensive alignment, won a bitter 14-6 victory from Green Bay today, but they paid a painful price for their triumph. The offense was severely crippled when Jimmy Orr and Tom Mitchell both suffered season-disabling injuries. Injuries also affected the Packers as Bart Starr was prevented from playing and Don Horn's 13 for 28 passing day was simply not enough. For Mitchell, the misfortune erased the pleasant memory of an electrifying 51-yard pass from John Unitas that gave Baltimore a 7-3 lead. Ray Perkins scored the other touchdown of the game on a three-yard flip from Unitas while the Colts limited Green Bay to a pair of Mike Mercer field goals.

49ers 20 Colts 17

38,472

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Nov. 16—San Francisco rallied in the fourth quarter for a 20-17 victory over the Colts at Kezar Stadium and swept a season series from Baltimore for the first time in nine years. John Brodie was the surgeon this time, connecting with a game-winning touchdown pass to Jim Thomas from the 18-yard line. Baltimore had just stopped a previous Brodie attempt to salt the game away when Charlie Stukes intercepted a pass on the Colt six. Ninety-eight yards later Baltimore led 17-13 when Ray Perkins took an 11-yard scoring pass from John Unitas. Earl Morrall directed the first 50 yards of that drive before an injury forced him out of the game. But after Roland Smith's kickoff return to the SF 43 gave the 49ers good field position, it took Brodie five plays to find Thomas loose for the game winner.

Colts 24 Bears 21

45,455

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 23—In a game started by Earl Morrall and finished by John Unitas, Baltimore survived a less than crisp performance to pull out a 24-21 win over the Chicago Bears. Morrall racked up the first points of the game with a 28-yard TD flip to Willie Richardson. In the second period, however, Chicago's George Youngblood picked off a Morrall pass and returned it the other way for a touchdown to tie it. The exchanges continued in the second half when, after Morrall connected again (this time for 38 yards), Gayle Sayers concluded a time consuming drive by diving into the end zone to make it 14-14. After another interception led to a 21-14 Chicago advantage in the fourth quarter, Unitas came into the game with a hot hand, hit three straight passes and led Baltimore to a touchdown. Terry Cole got the points with a 16-yard dash. Colt defensive back Jerry Logan then enabled Baltimore to win by intercepting a pass that set up Lou Michaels' deciding 17-yard field goal.

60,238

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 30—The Baltimore Colts, shutting off an opponent without a touchdown for the second time this season, nudged Atlanta 14-6 today for their fourth victory in their last five games. Larry Conjar cleared the way to Baltimore's only touchdown when he got a hand on Billy Lothridge's fourth quarter punt to give the Colts possession at midfield. Seven plays later Tom Matte put it away by cracking in from the two. All the previous scoring was provided by Lou Michaels and Bob Etter field goals.

Colts 17 Lions 17

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 7—On a bitter December day filled with controversy and frustration, Baltimore and Detroit played a 17-17 tie. Baltimore fans voiced their disapproval with an official's correct ruling by delaying play with a historic, 14-minute exhibition of booing. The controversy exploded in the third quarter when a punt by the Colts' David Lee hit Detroit's Larry Walton on the back, was touched by Baltimore's Cornelius Johnson, squirted into the end zone and was recovered for an apparent Colt touchdown by Preston Pearson. It wasn't a touchdown at all, it was a touchback because a Baltimore player (Johnson) actually provided the impetus for the ball to reach the end zone. It still appeared, however, that Earl Morrall, who played the entire game at quarterback, would direct Baltimore to a comeback victory when the Colts rallied from a 14-3 deficit to take a 17-14 fourth quarter edge. But the Lions recovered Sam Havrilak's fumbled punt and, after two Baltimore holding penalties, concluded the frustrating day with Errol Mann's 12-yard field goal. Eddie Hinton emerged as a promising young receiver by grabbing five passes from Morrall (one for a 32-yard touchdown) for a 134 yards. And he did it essentially against veteran defensive back Dick LeBeau.

Cowboys 27 Colts 10 63,191

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 13 — Dallas defeated the Colts today for the first time ever in a league game, 27-10, before 63,191 in the Cotton Bowl. Baltimore played a decent first half, although only tied 10-10 at intermission. Lou Michaels' 24-yard shot gave them three of the points and they got the other seven when John Unitas hit Willie Richardson for 22 yards before he lofted a 52-yard touchdown pass to John Mackey. Mackey caught another pass for 14 yards and Tom Matte made four catches.

Colts 13 Rams 7 73,336

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Dec. 21 — The Baltimore Colts won one for their pride today in the Coliseum, defeating Los Angeles 13-7 on a grinding 16-play, third quarter drive climaxed by Tom Matte's touchdown dive. John Unitas, who compiled 249 yards on a 19 for 33 passing day, hit Eddie Hinton with a couple of clutch tosses in the winning march. Baltimore trailed 7-6 at halftime when all they could manage were a pair of field goals. The Rams scored on a Roman Gabriel to Jack Snow pass. But the Colts won the game in the third period and played some pressure defense of their own to hang on to the victory. Matte accounted for 114 yards—63 on pass receptions; 51 on the ground.

PROSPECTS FOR 1970

A new conference . . . a new general manager . . . a new coach . . . but hopefully the same old Colts' winning tradition — this is what Baltimore would like to blend into an exciting season.

The Colts, led by general manager Don Klosterman and head coach Don McCafferty, will be competing in the Eastern Division of the American Football Conference along with the Boston Patriots, Buffalo Bills, Miami Dolphins and the New York Jets.

Besides two games with each divisional opponent, Baltimore will face three other AFC teams—San Diego, Kansas City and Houston—and three National Football Conference teams—Green Bay, Chicago and Philadelphia.

The Colts, after achieving a 24-2-2 record in two years, were 8-5-1 in 1969. It was a solid winning season but didn't live up to the legend Baltimore has established for itself in 18 years in the National Football League.

McCafferty is faced with the demanding challenge of directing the Colts back into the championship picture. He believes it's a realistic challenge.

"We have a sound football team with the solid nucleus of a championship club," he said.

The position-by-position picture:

QUARTERBACK

"We have two of the best quarterbacks in professional football in John Unitas and Earl Morrall," McCafferty says . . . Unitas completed 178 of 327 passes (54.4 percent) for 2,342 yards and 12 touchdowns last year, but threw 20 interceptions . . . Morrall, used sparingly after winning the NFL passing championship in 1968, hit 46 of 99 aeriels (46.5) for 755 yards and five touchdowns . . . he was intercepted seven times . . . the third quarterback will be selected from Jim Ward (missed most of the past two seasons because of a knee injury), Sam Havrilak (who was used as a running back, wide receiver and defensive back last season), Jeff Beaver (taxi squad the past two years) and rookie Gordon Slade of Davidson (seventh round draft choice) . . . Baltimore's quarterback of the future could come from this list of young backup men or from next year's draft when the Colts will have two first round choices (their's and Miami's).

RUNNING BACKS

Tom Matte, the third best rusher in the NFL with 909 yards and 11 TDs, had the greatest year of his career . . . he added two more touchdowns on passing to tie Lance Rentzel of Dallas for the league leadership with 13 . . . as a team, however, Baltimore was 14th in the league in rushing . . . Terry Cole was second in the department for the Colts with 204 yards on 72 carries and he missed some of the season because of injuries . . . Jerry Hill, also injury riddled, accumulated only 143 yards in 49 carries . . . Baltimore expects a big boost from its No. 1 draft choice, Norm Bulaich of Texas Christian . . . other running back contenders are Roland Moss, who was shifted to tight end last year in camp in an emergency and never got a good trial at running back, and Larry Conjar, who has been with Cleveland and Philadelphia . . . the Colts also have Perry Lee Dunn and rookies Jack Stewart, Jack Maitland, Dave Bennett and George Edwards . . . it's a department that was staggered by injuries last year but has depth and should be one of the most improved phases of the Baltimore attack.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Should be a solid department despite the fact that Tom Matte, a running back, tied for the leadership in receptions last year with 43 . . . Willie Richardson also made 43 catches for 646 yards and three touchdowns and the other starter, Jimmy Orr, caught 25 for 474 yards despite injuries . . . behind Richardson and Orr are a corps of exciting young pass catchers—Ray Perkins (28 catches for 391 yards), Eddie Hinton (13 catches for 269 yards), and rookies Jim McMillan, Jim O'Brien and Alvin Pearman . . . Tom Mitchell, an outstanding tight end playing behind John Mackey, and Morgan State rookie Ara Person may also get trials at wide spots.

TIGHT END

The Colts have "the premier tight end in professional football" in John Mackey, according to McCafferty . . . Mackey, also hurt much of the season, caught 34 passes for 443 yards . . . he is backed up capably by Tom Mitchell and Ara Person.

OFFENSIVE LINE

"The most solid position on the team," says McCafferty . . . the Colts have seasoned starters in guards Glen Ressler and Dan Sullivan; tackles Sam Ball and Bob Vogel, and possible All-Pro Bill Curry . . . behind them are people who could start for a lot of clubs—guards John Williams and Cornelius Johnson . . . Curry is supported by a promising young lineman in Carl Mauck . . . Baltimore also has rookie Dennis Nelson.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Billy Ray Smith and Fred Miller are the starting tackles and Roy Hilton and Bubba Smith the regular ends . . . Baltimore's front four did not have a tremendous season in '69 but was a team strength in 1968 and could develop again into a powerful factor . . . Colts traded for Washington Redskins' Frank Bosch (6-4, 246) in off-season and have former Green Bay star Ron Kostelnik . . . two fine tackle prospects are 6-3, 260-pound George Wright (injured reserve list last year) and No. 2 draft choice Jim Bailey of Kansas (6-4, 245) . . . Lou Michaels and rookies Billy Newsome and Phillip Gary provide depth.

LINEBACKERS

Mike Curtis (middle) and outside men Bob Grant and Ted Hendricks were the starters the second half of last season and rallied Colts to four wins in five games . . . linebacking situation was strengthened by the spring trade for Ray May (6-1, 230), a starter at middle linebacker for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1968 and '69 . . . John Campbell, also obtained from the Steelers last season, is an outside linebacking candidate along with rookies Dave Polak, Robbie Nichols and Dick Palmer . . . Butch Riley is listed behind Curtis and May in the middle.

DEFENSIVE SECONDARY

The Colts have a pair of the finest safeties in the league in Rick Volk (four interceptions), who made the Pro Bowl, and Jerry Logan . . . behind them are rookies Barney Harris, Don Burrell and Michigan's Tom Curtis, who is college football's second ranked all-time pass interceptor with 26 . . . cornerback starters are Charlie Stukes and Tom Maxwell, both young and players who improved during last season . . . they are backed up on the pre-camp depth chart by Jim Duncan and rookie Ron Gardin.

KICKING GAME

Baltimore has the leading punter in the National Football League in David Lee (45.3 average) . . . placekicking has been handled by Lou Michaels (14 for 31 in field goals), who faces a challenge from rookie Jim O'Brien of Cincinnati.

PLAYER SKETCHES

The Colts' Veterans . . . 1970

FRANK BOSCH (64)

Defensive Tackle 6-4, 246

Colorado

PRO: Acquired along with fourth round draft choice from Washington Redskins for linebacker Dennis Gaubatz . . . deal was announced day of draft last January . . . Bosch was a sometimes-starter for Washington last season . . . Redskins selected him 17th in the 1968 draft.

COLLEGE: Was a standout two-way tackle at Colorado . . . three-year starter . . . honorable mention All-American his senior year . . . was All-Big 8 in 1966 and 1967 . . . majored in education.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 24, 1945 in Bremerton, Wash. . . lives in Boulder, Colo., with wife Eve Suzanne Schafroth of Enid, Okla.

SAM BALL (73)

Offensive Tackle 6-4, 240

Kentucky

PRO: Ball is one of the reasons why Don McCafferty calls the offensive line the most solid position on the team . . . "He has improved every year," says the Colt head coach, "and gives us a great effort each week" . . . plays his best games against the league's top defensive ends, particularly Deacon Jones of the Rams . . . The Colts' No. 1 draft choice in 1966, Ball became a starter when the great Jim Parker suffered an injury and battled to keep it despite many frustrations.

COLLEGE: An All-America selection at the University of Kentucky . . . played in the North-South game, the Senior Bowl and College All-Star classic in Chicago.

PERSONAL: Sam and his wife Jennie Lou have two-year-old twin girls, Shannon Leigh and Shelly Ann . . . Ball was born June 7, 1944 in Henderson, Ky., where he graduated from Henderson High School . . . he is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

JOHN CAMPBELL (55)

Linebacker 6-3, 225

Minnesota

PRO: Picked up from the Pittsburgh Steelers during '69 season . . . was with the Colts in 1965 but Baltimore traded him to Pittsburgh for Buzz Nutter when Dick Szymanski was injured . . . Campbell was drafted by the Vikings in 1963 and played two seasons for them before he was traded to Baltimore for Larry Kramer in 1965 . . . was named to the Sporting News NFL Eastern Conference All Star team in 1966 . . . activated for Redskin game after half a season on band squad.

COLLEGE: Played at Minnesota . . . was a member of Gopher Rose Bowl squad.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 7, 1938 in Wadena, Minn., which is still his home town . . . father of infant twin boys, Andrew and Matthew . . . in the off-season, Campbell works in mutual fund field. Wife — Sue.

TERRY COLE (34)

Running Back

6-1, 220

Indiana

PRO: Injured his knee late in training camp last year and missed first five games . . . was still Colts' second leading ground-gainer with 204 yards in 72 attempts . . . his longest gain went for 27 yards . . . he scored twice on the ground and another on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Earl Morrall against Detroit . . . listed at a No. 1 running back position along side Tom Matte in pre-season depth chart . . . Cole was a shrewd 1968 draft selection by the Colts' personnel and coaching staffs . . . selected on the ninth round Terry was the team's second leading rusher his rookie season with 418 yards on 104 carries for a four-yard average and three touchdowns . . . he also grabbed 13 passes for 75 yards.

COLLEGE: Played at Indiana where he was a halfback for two seasons then switched to fullback and averaged 4.7 yards a carry as a senior . . . played in the Jan. 1, 1968 Rose Bowl against Southern Cal.

PERSONAL: Born July 7, 1945 in Dallas, Tex. . . graduated from Mitchell (Ind.) High School . . . one of the most highly publicized high school players in Indiana history, he set a scholastic scoring record with 411 points in four years of play . . . Terry and his wife Jill had their first child, a son, last March 30th.

FRED MILLER (76)

Defensive Tackle

6-3, 250

LSU

PRO: Selected for the Pro Bowl last January for the third straight year but didn't play because of an eye injury . . . he's been a starter ever since arriving with the Colts six years ago after being drafted seventh as a future in 1961 . . . an aggressive guy who isn't as big as some pro tackles and doesn't get the glamor, but has the respect of other players and coaches . . . "Hitting is the name of the game, that's true," he says. "But you have to know how to hit and when" . . . he played much of last season bothered by badly bruised shoulders.

COLLEGE: Captained the famed Chinese Bandits at LSU and played in three all-star games—the Senior Bowl, All-American Bowl and Chicago All-Star contest.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 8, 1940 in Homer, La., where he went to high school . . . now lives in Timonium with his wife Charlene and children David (6), Danny (4), Jake (2) and son Luke Patrick, who was born last February . . . works for Honeywell Corporation in data processing sales during the off-season.

Receiver

6-2, 215

Bucknell

PRO: Caught nine passes for 199 yards and three touchdowns last season and did it all in four games . . . in his final game of the season, the Packer contest (Nov. 9), Tom grabbed a 51-yard scoring strike then suffered a season-disabling injury and missed the last six games . . . he has also made the most of his receptions . . . he grabbed seven in 1968 and four of them went for touchdowns . . . he spent his rookie year with the Oakland Raiders and caught 23 passes for 301 yards and one TD but was then waived out of the American Football League . . . employed often as a second tight end with John Mackey but may get a look as a wide receiver this season.

COLLEGE: Was the East's leading receiver during all three varsity seasons at Bucknell . . . Tom compiled 2,358 yards on 173 receptions and scored 18 touchdowns . . . was ECAC College Division Player of the Year in 1965 . . . Bucknell's all-time leading receiver . . . first team Little All-American his junior and senior years.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 22, 1944 in Newport, R.I. . . . went to Plymouth-Whitemarsh High School in suburban Philadelphia . . . Wife — Ella. Daughter — Christina — 2.

EARL MORRALL (15)

Quarterback

6-2, 206

Michigan State

PRO: Last season was as unpleasant for Earl Morrall as 1968 was pleasant . . . in '68 he had the greatest year of his career with 26 touchdown passes; 182 of 317 passes for a 57.4 average and 2,909 yards, and an NFL championship . . . in '69 Earl only threw the ball 99 times, completed 46 for 755 yards and five TD passes . . . Earl got the shot in '68 when John Unitas' elbow injury kept him out of early season action . . . he won the NFL passing championship and was the league's Most Valuable Player . . . Morrall has played for four other teams — San Francisco (1956), Pittsburgh (1957), Detroit (1958-64) and New York (1965-67) . . . he came to the Colts in an August 1968 trade . . . "We are blessed," says Coach McCafferty, "with two of the best quarterbacks in the business", referring to Unitas and Morrall . . . lost his regular job last year when Unitas reported to camp in good physical condition . . . Earl's best '69 performance was a 209-yard day on 13 of 24 passes and two touchdowns in a 24-21 win over the Chicago Bears.

COLLEGE: An All-American quarterback at Michigan State . . . he was a star in the 1955 Rose Bowl game and 1956 College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: Born May 17, 1934 in Muskegon, Mich. . . . went to Muskegon High School . . . he and his wife Jane have four children — Matt (13), Mardie (12), Mindi (8) and Mitchell (3).

ROLAND MOSS (44)

Running Back

6-3, 215

Toledo

PRO: Went to camp last year as a Colt seventh round draft choice and a shot at making the club as a running back . . . because of injuries to John Mackey at camp he was switched to tight end, never got an opportunity to run the ball and spent first eight games on the taxi squad and playing for Harrisburg Caps . . . "Through necessity we had to switch him to tight end last year," says McCafferty, "but he's a promising player and he'll get a full shot as a running back this year" . . . he has clocked 9.8 for 100 yards.

COLLEGE: He was Toledo's all-time top rusher with 2,421 yards . . . his 218 points and one season log of 1,145 yards rushing are also Toledo records.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 20, 1946 in Passaic, N.J., where he was a legendary high school athlete . . . he was three times all-state in football, twice all-state in basketball and held state records in both the high and low hurdles . . . he lettered three times in all three sports and as a senior was MVP in all three sports . . . wife's name is Connie.

"My primary concern in training camp is to establish the timing of pass patterns. It's easy to forget in a year's time how a play was executed the previous season." — Jimmy Orr

JIMMY ORR (28)

Wide Receiver

5-11, 185

Georgia

PRO: Was injured in the Green Bay game last year and missed the rest of the season . . . it appeared Orr might return for the final three games but on his first day back in practice he suffered a severe muscle pull and his '69 season was over . . . before he was sidelined he caught 25 passes for 474 yards and a pair of touchdowns . . . caught eight passes for 146 yards in first 49er game . . . in '68 his 743 yards on 29 catches led the club after injuries also hampered him in 1967 . . . he has now scored 64 touchdowns in a 12-year professional career . . . he was with Pittsburgh from 1958-60 and came to Baltimore in the Big Daddy Lipscomb trade.

COLLEGE: Starred at the University of Georgia.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 4, 1935 in Seneca, S.C. . . . went to Seneca High School . . . operates a restaurant in Atlanta, Ga. . . . wife's name is Eleanor . . . children — Julie (8), Jay (7).

GLENN RESSLER (62)

Guard 6-3, 250

Penn State

PRO: Just when he seemed to be reaching star status as an offensive guard last season, Glenn suffered a knee injury . . . he played with the injury for awhile but missed the last several games . . . very quiet and mild mannered, but a great competitor . . . drafted third by the Colts in 1965 . . . served as a utility lineman on offense and defense his first two seasons with Baltimore before he became a fixture in 1967.

COLLEGE: A consensus All-American at Penn State, Glenn won the Maxwell Trophy as college player of the year in 1964 . . . played an incredible game in Penn State's monumental upset of No. 1 ranked Ohio State in 1964.

PERSONAL: Born May 21, 1943 in Dornsife, Pa. . . . went to Mahanoy (Pa.) Joint High School . . . he and his wife Sandra celebrated the birth of a son last February, their first child . . . BILLY RAY SMITH (74)

Defensive Tackle

6-4, 250

Arkansas

PRO: Despite playing on a knee which required heavy taping, Billy Ray didn't miss a game in 1969 . . . Colts got him in 1961 from Pittsburgh and he has been a regular defensive tackle since, except for a one-season retirement . . . this will be his 13th season in the NFL . . . drafted on the third round by the Los Angeles Rams in 1957 he was traded to Pittsburgh the following season and developed into one of the best defensive ends in the league until his trade to Baltimore and the switch to tackle . . . "We always play for a shutout," Billy Ray says, "nothing fancy, nothing sensational" . . . had a big year in '68 when the Colts dropped opposing passers 45 times and forced 29 interceptions.

COLLEGE: All-Southwest Conference tackle for Arkansas in 1956 . . . member of the famed "24 Little Pigs" squad that gave the Razorbacks a conference title in 1954.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 27, 1935 in Augusta, Ark. . . . went to Laura Connor (Ark.) High School . . . now lives in Westminster, Md., with his wife Carol and children—Bruce (14), Shelly (11), Shannon Carol (5) . . . was a promising boxer as a youngster and won state AAU and Golden Gloves championships . . . reached Golden Glove national quarter-finals in Chicago where he lost to Pete Rademacher, a later opponent of Floyd Patterson for the world heavyweight title.

BUBBA SMITH (78)

Defensive End

6-7, 295

Michigan State

PRO: Bubba displayed spurts of all-star play last season but lacked the consistency of 1968 when he was one of the stars of the Colts granite defense . . . after playing against Bubba in last year's opener, the Rams' famed offensive lineman Bob Brown predicted Smith "would become a great star in the league" . . . he recovered two fumbles last year and two in '68, an example of his quickness . . . he was Baltimore's No. 1 draft choice in 1967 and had landed a starting job during training camp that season when a severely sprained knee sidelined him . . . he saw only limited activity the rest of his rookie season.

COLLEGE: Unanimous All-American at Michigan State . . . he led the Spartans to two straight unbeaten seasons and was a star in the legendary 10-10 tie with Notre Dame in 1966.

PERSONAL: Born Feb. 28, 1945 in Orange, Texas . . . played for his father, Willie Ray, at Pollard High School in Beaumont, Texas . . . Bubba now lives in Baltimore.

CHARLIE STUKES (47)

Cornerback

6-3, 212

Maryland State

PRO: Fought off Ocie Austin to win the cornerback job vacated by Bobby Boyd last season . . . intercepted only one pass but made considerable improvement . . . "Charlie got his feet wet last year," said Coach McCafferty, "and did a commendable job. He has great speed and quickness. I think he will be even better this year" . . . drafted fourth by the Colts in '67 . . . intercepted two passes in '67 and another in '68, which he returned 60 yards for a TD . . . "I stay in the game all the time," he says, "even when I'm on the bench, trying to soak up all I can about playing my position."

COLLEGE: Starred in football, was a double-figure scorer in basketball and attracted professional baseball scouts while at Maryland State . . . he was a quarterback in college.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 13, 1943 in Chesapeake, Va. . . went to Crestwood (Va.) High School . . . he and his wife Gloria had their first child last September, a girl named Syretha . . . Charlie taught school during the off season for two years, but entered business in Chesapeake this past winter.

DAN SULLIVAN (71)

Guard

6-3, 250

Boston College

PRO: The dean of the Colts' offensive interior line, Dan's career has been a story of determination . . . he was drafted third in 1962 but was temporarily cut, then brought back and placed on the band squad . . . before the '62 season was over he was placed on the active roster . . . since he became a starter in 1966, Sullivan has been one of the steady guards in the league . . . offers the Colts great freedom because he can also give them a very capable tackle performance . . . injured early last season and missed the opener against Los Angeles . . . played the left side until 1967 when he was moved to the right when Alex Sandusky retired . . . "Temperament has a lot to do with the way any one plays," he says. "For defense, they like a little extra aggressiveness. They like steadiness on offense."

COLLEGE: Starred at Boston College.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 1, 1939 in Boston Mass. . . . went to Boston Tech High School . . . Dan and his wife Lorraine have two children — Elizabeth Ann (6), Julie Ann (4).

JOHN UNITAS (19)

Quarterback

6-1, 196

Louisville

PRO: John Unitas has completed more passes for more yardage and more touchdowns than any player in National Football League history . . . in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the NFL he was selected as the greatest quarterback of all time . . . he was also named Player of the Decade by the Associated Press, out-polling second place Bart Starr by over 100 votes . . . he is the leading active passer based on the NFL point system with credentials like 2,450 completions in 4,456 attempts (54.90 percent) for 35,502 yards and 266 touchdowns . . . one of his most incredible accomplishments is the streak of 47 straight games throwing a touchdown pass, recorded from 1956-60 . . . Unitas holds NFL records for most passes attempted in a career, most passes completed in a career, most pass yards in a career, most games passed for 300 yards or more (25), most touchdown passes in a career and most consecutive games throwing a TD pass . . . he also holds the league record for passing yardage in a championship game with 349 against the Giants in 1958 . . . he holds club records for most passes completed in one season (255), most passes attempted for one season (436), most yards gained passing in one game (401), best passing efficiency (58.5 percent), yards passing in one season (3,481) and naturally every career club passing mark . . . it was in the famed sudden death thriller in Yankee Stadium in 1958 that Unitas' performance caused widespread agreement that it was the "Greatest Game Ever Played" . . . "Quarterbacks can't permit themselves to think of injuries," Unitas has said, "or they'll leave their game in the locker room" . . . and yet Unitas' entire, brilliant career has been sprinkled with disabling injuries . . . the last big one was in 1968 when he missed most of the season . . . last year John completed 178 of 327 passes for 2,342 yards and 12 touchdowns, but for one of the rare times in his pro career he threw more interceptions (20) than TD passes . . . he is a three-time NFL Most Valuable Player (1957, 64, 67) . . . he has been All-Pro six times and selected to the Pro Bowl 10 times . . . he was a ninth round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1955, cut and picked up as a free agent by the Colts in 1956 after playing a year of sandlot ball with the Bloomfield (Pa.) Rams . . . in 1956 Colt quarterback George Shaw got hurt; Unitas took over, and similar to the Wally Pipp-Lou Gehrig Legend, got his chance and simply became the greatest quarterback who ever played the game. Pro Bowl — 1957, 58, 59, 61, 62, 63, 64, 67. All Pro — 1957, 58, 59, 64, 65, 67.

COLLEGE: Had an outstanding career as a quarterback at the University of Louisville . . . Passed for over 3,000 yards and 27 TDs.

PERSONAL: Born May 7, 1933 in Pittsburgh, where he went to St. Justin's High School . . . now lives in Lutherville, Md., with his wife Dorothy and children—Janice (14), John (13), Bob (11), Chris (10), Kenneth (2) . . . owns a restaurant in Towson.

BOB VOGEL (72)

Tackle

6-5, 250

Ohio State

PRO: "He's a dedicated, methodical technician," McCafferty says of Vogel. "He has great pride in his work" . . . selected to play in the Pro Bowl four times in his seven-year career . . . size, speed and toughness, but particularly intelligence and technique have accelerated his progress to the top of his profession . . . he was a first round draft choice in 1963 . . . "Line play is really a physical match," Vogel says. "It's all too difficult to be called fun, but when you pop your man right, you get a very warm feeling" . . . likes to help younger players and spends a lot of time dishing out tips.

COLLEGE: Great line career at Ohio State . . . three-year regular . . . second team UPI All-American . . . played 292 minutes as Buckeye captain his senior year . . . played in East-West and Hula Bowl Games.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 23, 1941 in Columbus, O. . . went to Massillon (Ohio) High School, a perennial football power where he won 13 letters . . . he and his wife Andrea have two children — Heidi (4) and Lori (2) . . . active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . lives on a farm in Havre de Grace, Md. . . partner of Fred Miller in a hog raising enterprise which is growing into one of the largest in the country . . . Bob also was active with the Bon-Lon Corporation, a fast-food business, this past winter.

"One of the very few things an offensive lineman gets out of this game is satisfaction from doing his job well. A lot of that satisfaction comes when you break out of the huddle and line up and see that look of uncertainty in the defenseman's eyes." — Bob Vogel

RICK VOLK (21)

Safety

6-3, 195

Michigan

PRO: Played in the Pro Bowl last January after leading the Colts in interceptions with four . . . in three years he has picked off 16 passes . . . drafted in the second round in '67, Volk tore into the starting lineup his rookie season and in his three pro seasons has made All-Pro once and been selected to play in the Pro Bowl twice . . . Rick also led the Colts in punt returns with 10 for 58 yards . . . he has returned interceptions for 90 (1968) and 94 (1967) yards, the latter a Colt record . . . his longest return last season was 23 yards . . . "Rick plays like a 10-year man," says Colt Head Coach Don McCafferty. "He has a lot of savvy and he's very aggressive" . . . "At safety," Volk says, "you've got to be on your toes and running on every play. You've got a chance to turn a game around by intercepting a pass and getting a long runback."

COLLEGE: Played on a Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship Michigan team . . . he was All-Big Ten as a senior and made the Sporting News All-American team . . . Rick went to Michigan as a quarterback but didn't have a major college arm and became one of the finest defensive backs in Wolverine history.

PERSONAL: Born March 15, 1945 in Toledo, O. . . . went to Wauseon (Ohio) High School . . . he and his wife Charlene have one child, Eric Richard (2) . . . the Volk family spends off-season in the Detroit area where Rick works as a manufacturer's representative in the automotive trade.

JIM WARD (16)

Quarterback

6-2, 195

Gettysburg

PRO: Injuries kept Jim Ward from throwing a pass last year in league competition and at this year's camp he will have to fight off Jeff Beaver, Sam Havrilak and Gordon Slade for the No. 3 quarterback spot behind John Unitas and Earl Morrall . . . 1969, however, was an ironic replay of '68 for Jim when he first suffered the knee sprain in pre-season play and threw only nine passes, completing three for 46 yards . . . the Colts drafted Ward on the 14th round in 1966 and he spent a year on the band squad before playing in '67 . . . he hit nine of 16 passes that season for 115 yards and two touchdowns.

COLLEGE: One of Gettysburg all-time great players, he hit 97 of 198 passes for 1,420 yards and 11 touchdowns . . . ran for 10 more TDs . . . all this despite an injury-riddled senior year.
