JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS FOUNDATION

MISSION STATEMENT

Believing that youth represent the community's future, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation is committed to serving the greater Jacksonville area through strategic financial, networking and volunteer support benefitting economically and socially disadvantaged youth and families. By building upon our city's strengths, we seek to realize the positive potential of our young people in need. In doing so, we aim to serve as a model to other sports franchises.

PROGRAMS:

The Jaguars Foundation's innovative programs have been nationally recognized, including stories in the New York Times, Forbes, Grantmanship Center Magazine, St. Anthony Messenger and the syndicated "Osgood File" radio program.

GRANTMAKING: From March 1995 through 1999, the Jaguars Foundation has allocated more than $3 million dollars in grants, with more than $1 million committed in 1999 alone. This level of giving is among the top few in professional sports. More important, there is a fair, objective and coherent evaluation process to determine support. Grants have been allocated to serve such needs and opportunities as the establishment of a mobile vision-screening van; an after-school tennis and mentoring program; and a series of child-abuse prevention services.

HONOR ROWS: This unique program, now in its sixth year, uses seats at Jaguars home games as incentives for agencies, young people and volunteer mentors to set and achieve ambitious but realistic goals. It provides for flexibility and creativity by allowing agencies to determine how best to use seats as motivational goals. All applications are reviewed by a diverse volunteer committee. Goal setting involves academic achievement, behavioral improvement, and providing public service. In 2000, about 3,100 seats have been awarded to more than 40 agencies for regular-season home games. In addition to seats, Honor Rows participants receive a free meal, a special T-shirt, hat, pledge card, certificate and recognition at the stadium during the game. All Honor Rows youth earning a seat fulfilled a pledge to remain alcohol, tobacco and drug free. The Jaguars Foundation partners with Nike, ALLTEL and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation in support of this program and with the United Way to mobilize volunteers to ensure the overall safety and enjoyment of Honor Rows participants. The Jaguars Foundation received the 1996 Governor's Community Investment Award for this program.

GENERAL CHARITABLE USE SEATS: Honor Rows is the largest of several Jaguars Foundation programs using Jaguars game seats for charitable purposes. Other programs include Sailors Aweigh (for youth whose parents are on deployment with the Navy), youth football, the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation, Nike Let Us Play Camp volunteers, and others. During the 1999 season, the Jaguars Foundation allocated 12,000 seats for charitable purposes to home games, with a total value exceeding $400,000.

NIKE/JAGUARS FOUNDATION COMMUNITY SCHOLARS PROGRAM: Nike and the Jaguars Foundation established what is now a $500,000 scholarship fund. In partnership with the University of North Florida, the Nike/Jaguars Foundation Community Scholars program is a novel scholarship program that involves UNF Honors students in mentoring incoming inner-city students who have participated in the Honor Rows program or the Let Us Play Sports Camp. Student candidates also must be nominated by their youth-agency and have demonstrated a commitment to public service. Scholarship recipients receive full tuition for four years as well as mentorship support before and during their college experience, increasing their chances for lasting academic, volunteer, and professional success.

IN-KIND SUPPORT NETWORK: Having substantial fan, business and media attention allows the Jaguars and its Foundation to act as an intermediary between people and business that have resources with which to assist others and those in need. Examples of acting as a conduit to assist others include free distribution of such things as used computers from a corporation to assist inner-city schools, wheelchairs for needy youth, food products from corporations to local nonprofits and boxes of clothing items to agencies serving the homeless. On a larger scale, this conduit function has also involved significant participation of the team's player and coach spouses. With the help of the Jaguars' Special Events Department, Second Harvest Food Bank and Winn-Dixie partnered with the Jaguars spouses to establish a food drop-off at the stadium and supermarkets prior to Thanksgiving, yielding about 30 tons of food over four years for allocation to families and soup kitchens (players' spouses recognized donors by giving out autographed photos of their husbands). Also, the Jaguars Foundation has partnered with Nike on its Re-Use-A-Shoe Program, the first such effort in the NFL. The Jaguars Foundation collected thousands of shoes that were turned into recreational court surfaces through Nike's reprocessing of shoe materials. This collaboration saved a local youth agency about $50,000 in construction costs.

PLAYBOOKS READING INITIATIVE: PLAYBOOKS involves development and distribution to public libraries of 30,000 colorful 24-page booklets in which Jaguars players and coaches list and describe books that they found particularly motivating as youth, thereby encouraging young people to read and better utilize local public libraries. Youth receive PLAYBOOKS by obtaining or showing their public library card. Players, cheerleaders and team mascot Jason de Vile have visited dozens of libraries encouraging youth and parental reading. The Foundation received WTLV Channel 12's "Top of the Class" Award for PLAYBOOKS. Sponsored by Nike, PLAYBOOKS now features its own website (www.playbooks.org).

STRAIGHT TALK: Under the leadership of Foundation Chair and CEO Deloris Barr Weaver, an unprecedented effort called "Straight Talk" involved every local television station in simulcasting live town hall forums on teen pregnancy and AIDS in 1995 and 2000. The Foundation has established a website in partnership with the Florida Times-Union addressing the facts of teen sexuality, produced by Jaguars broadcasting, including an interactive question-and-answer section with Jaguars players and cheerleaders; a teen pregnancy prevention videotape titled "Teen Sex ... In Their Own Words" was featured on all stations and distributed to local agencies and schools. Finally, an allocation process was established for $500,000 in multi-year grants in partnership with the Weaver Family Foundation for programs specifically dealing with teenage pregnancy and STD prevention.

ANTI-TOBACCO INITIATIVE: The team and the Foundation have taken a nationally recognized leadership position in the local and professional-sports community against youth tobacco use. The stadium is smoke-free and has never engaged in tobacco advertising or product sales. Additionally, the Jaguars Foundation has partnered with the nation's largest private health supporter, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, to reduce youth tobacco use, sending a clear message that smoking is neither "cool" nor conducive to athletic performance. This novel effort involves "Jaguars Don't Smoke" scoreboard and concourse signage at ALLTEL Stadium, showing a vibrant full-color Jaguar squashing a pack of cigarettes under its paw. This signage is also used on autograph cards used by athletes, coaches and cheerleaders. Further, this initiative involves public address announcements during games as well as television public service announcements. Also, the Jaguars set an exceptional precedent as the first team in the NFL to have tobacco advertising removed from the back cover of the Jaguars game program. Since then the entire league has followed the Jaguars' lead and removed that ad.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION: Governor's Community Investment Award (1995), WTLV-12 Top of the Class Award (1996), Bridge Builder Award (1997), Grantmakers in Health (1995 and '96), Osgood File/CBS Radio (November 1996), New York Times (January 23, 1997), Forbes (December 28, 1995), Robert Wood Johnson Foundation: Cover of 1998 Annual Report, Grantmanship Center Magazine (Summer 1999), St. Anthony's Messenger (October 1999).

DELORES BARR

WEAVER

CHAIR/CEO, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Delores Barr Weaver, a native of Columbus, Ga. and co-owner/partner of the Jaguars, is a woman possessed by the opportunity to make a difference in her adopted hometown of Jacksonville. Delores has a sincere interest in many areas of need, and through the Weaver Family Foundation, she and her husband, Wayne, have supported the work of many local agencies. The Weavers have been married 45 years and have two children, Brad and Leigh, and a 10-year-old granddaughter, Morgan. Leigh is the artist of TOUCHDOWN, the 16-foot-long and six-foot-high bronze jaguar that stands outside the West Touchdown Club at ALLTEL Stadium.

Delores is committed to helping families and young people in the Jacksonville community lead self-sufficient, meaningful lives. Under her leadership, 17 seven Jacksonville television stations and their affiliates, as well as the local newspaper, have joined in partnership to address the problem of teen pregnancy, AIDS and increased male responsibility. Teen pregnancy is a major personal concern for Delores and is being addressed by the Foundation and local media in the effort to develop a quality prevention program for teens and heighten awareness of adults in Jacksonville.

When asked about being a member of the public speaking circuit, Delores laughs and says, "It is interesting to note that until November 30, 1993, no one seemed to care what I was interested in, what good work I might be doing or what I had to say." Then she gives the credit to the Jaguars, who "open the doors, and I must walk through as many as I can." As to accomplishments, Delores is most proud of the Jaguars Foundation and the impact it has already made on behalf of economically and socially disadvantaged children in the greater Jacksonville area. For Delores, the Foundation was a dream come true in September 1994. In March 1995, six months before the Jaguars played their first game, the first grants to eight local agencies in the amount of $140,000 were made, and through December 1999 the Foundation had allocated approximately $2.7 million in grants. When talking about the Foundation, she is quick to credit the Jaguars' partners for their generous financial support and the staff for their commitment to supporting programs that will have a long-term impact.

In addition to her concerns for Jacksonville's children, Delores has set a personal goal to help level the playing field of life for women and minorities. She is dedicated to eliminating sexism, racism and classism from the hearts, minds and vocabulary of our society.

Locally, Delores serves on the City of Jacksonville Juvenile Justice Comprehensive Strategy Board, and the Governing Boards of the Jacksonville Community Foundation, LaVilla Cultural and Heritage Association, USO Council and WJCT Public Broadcasting, and she serves as a Trustee of Fresh Ministries and the United Way of Northeast Florida.

She is serving as Advisory Board Chair 2000 for Ronald McDonald House and is a staunch supporter of the three local domestic violence shelters: Betty Griffin House, Hubbard House and Quigley House. She is Co-Chair of the Sam Kouvaros/Delores Barr Weaver HabuJax Golf Tournament, which, in five years will build 18 houses for deserving families who have earned a "hand up." The 2000 tournament raised in excess of $225,000 with a net profit of more than $200,000. The 18 houses represent a total contribution of almost $575,000 since the first tournament in 1996, Delores says. "We can build houses for children, but then we must pray they will have a family to make it a home."

Nationally, Delores is a member of the Governing Boards of Martha Graham Dance Company and NFL Charities, both of New York, and the Dana-Farber Marathon Challenge and the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute of Boston, where Delores and Wayne have created the Claudia Adams Barr Program in Basic Cancer Research in memory and honor of her mother who lost her battle with cancer in 1957. Delores refers to cancer as her only known enemy and believes the answer to cure and the eventual elimination of that dreaded disease will be found at the workbench of research. The Weavers were instrumental in creating the Marathon Challenge, which provides an opportunity for participants in the Boston Marathon to raise funds for the work of the Barr Program. Since its inception in 1990, the Challenge has raised $10 million.

And, yes, Delores was a football fan long before the Jaguars. She attends every game and is as excited and nervous as Wayne on game day.

GREGORY

PRESIDENT, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Dr. Gregory Gross was named president of the Jaguars Foundation after serving as a consultant to Wayne and Debra Weaver on charitable giving. A native of Chicago, he earned a B.A. from the University of Wisconsin, where he received four letters in soccer. He then coordinated a National Science Foundation project at Yale University and co-founded and directed an international education organization in Washington D.C., which was connected to the International Pugwash Conference on Science and World Affairs, the group that won the 1965 Nobel Peace Prize.

Dr. Gross received his master's degree at Harvard and later consulted for Digital Equipment Corporation. After working for several years in the Boston medical complex, he returned to complete his Doctorate at the Harvard Graduate School of Education while consulting in nonprofit management. Having received a research award from the Aspen Institute, he wrote a dissertation on how groundbreaking foundations served the disadvantaged. He serves on the 12 Who Care Council (WTLV-TV), University of North Florida Deaf's Advisory Board, Board of Communities in Schools-Jacksonville, Local Initiatives Support Corporation Advisory Board, Editorial Advisory Board of Foundation News, and Community and Public Policy Task Force of the Council on Foundations. He co-founded the Dana-Farber Marathon Challenge and has run numerous Boston Marathons raising funds for cancer research. Dr. Gross and his wife, Wendy, have a daughter, Jamie.

CHARLES

DIRECTOR OF PROGRAMS

Charlie Lemley joined the Jaguars Foundation on April 1, 1998, first as program officer and more recently as director of programs. He oversees Honor Rows and Playbooks programs and monitors Foundation legal affairs. He also reviews grant proposals and provides technical assistance to local agencies and other sports franchises.

Before joining the Foundation, Charlie was a litigation attorney for Arnold and Porter in Washington D.C. and for Foley and Lardner in Jacksonville. Prior to law school, he was an air traffic controller for the Federal Aviation Administration. He donates much time to serving the legal needs of disadvantaged children, and he chairs the Jacksonville Bar's Special Needs of Children Committee. He is an adjunct professor at the University of North Florida and serves on UNF's Pre-Law Program Advisory Board and the Board of Family Counseling Services. He has run the Boston Marathon the past five years, raising money for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. Charlie earned his bachelor's degree from UNF and his juris doctor degree from Georgetown University. He and his wife, Charlotte, have two daughters, Genevieve and Christa.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2000

- The Jaguars to win their 50th game as a franchise in the regular season. They are 49-31 in five years.
- The three remaining Jaguars who have played in all 88 of the team's games — Bryan Barker, Mike Hollis and Jimmy Smith — to keep their streaks intact.
- If Fred Taylor scores a touchdown in each of the first two games he will break his own team record with six consecutive games with a touchdown. He set the current record of five straight games in 1998. Taylor can also go over 2,000 career yards rushing. He has 1,955 yards entering his third season.
- Mike Hollis to regain the No. 1 ranking in all-time field goal accuracy. Currently Hollis ranks second with a 81.60 percentage, just behind John Carney's 81.67. In addition, Hollis can move back into first place on the postseason field-goal accuracy list (he's 16 of 18 for 88.9 percent). Hollis could score 100 points for the fifth straight season.
- Mark Brunell to throw his 100th touchdown pass. He has 86 entering the 2000 season. Brunell will also increase his Jaguars totals of 15,477 passing yards, 2,133 attempts and 1,285 completions.
- Tony Boselli to be voted to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl.
- Reggie Barlow to move into first place on the NFL's all-time list for punt return average. Barlow enters the 2000 season in ninth place, with a 11.8-yard average on 117 punts. Also, with a touchdown on either a punt or a kickoff return, Barlow will have scored on a kick return for the fourth straight year, extending his NFL-best streak.
- Bryan Barker to move into the top 20 all-time in number of punts. Currently Barker has 718 punts, 28th on the career list. Barker can also average 40.0-yards-plus in gross punting and 35.0-yards-plus in net punting for the 10th consecutive season.
- If Kevin Hardy starts all 16 games in 2000, he will break the team record with 49 consecutive games started (current record is 48 by Ben Coleman from 1996-98). In addition, Hardy can lead the team in tackles for the third consecutive season.
- Jimmy Smith to lead the NFL in receiving for the second straight season. He can also stay on top of the NFL in receiving yards since 1996 (he leads the league with 5,386 yards the last four years, 517 more than Oakland's Tim Brown). In addition, Smith can surpass the 400-reception mark with 19 catches.
- Hardy Nickerson to be named to his fifth straight Pro Bowl and sixth of his career. He can also continue a personal streak of leading his team in tackles for the sixth time in eight years.
- Keenan McCardell to reach the 400-reception mark in his ninth season. He enters 2000 with 392 catches (312 in four years with the Jaguars).
- Tony Brackens to continue as the Jaguars' all-time sack leader. Going into the season, he has 29.5 sacks, 1.5 more than Joel Smeenge.
- Kyle Brady to set a career high for receptions for the third straight season. He had 32 last year.
- Camell Lake to start every game for the fourth consecutive season and ninth time in his career.
- Leon Searcy to continue his streak of having made the playoffs every season of his career (eight straight so far).
- Aaron Beasley to make at least one interception, which would give him one in five straight seasons, a team record. He can also maintain his team career record (he has 11).

WAYNE

WEAVER

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

In five years under Wayne Weaver's guidance, the Jaguars have grown from an expansion franchise into one of the most successful teams in the National Football League.

In May 2000, Sports Business Daily wrote, "The Jaguars' rocket-like rise to elite status — no team in pro sports history has soared higher faster — is well documented."

In 1993, Weaver won an NFL expansion franchise for the city of Jacksonville. In 1994, he hired a winning coach in Tom Coughlin. In 1995 he presided over the building of one of the NFL's showpiece stadiums and four victories for his inaugural team. In 1996 he watched his second-year dream team win two playoff games — the victory over the Denver Broncos is one of pro football's biggest upsets ever — and reach within one game of pro football's pinnacle, the Super Bowl. In 1997 Weaver saw his Jaguars win 11 games, more than any third-year NFL team has ever won, while advancing to the playoffs for a second time. In 1998 he presided over a division championship and the franchise's first-ever home playoff game. And, in 1999, the Jaguars finished with the NFL's best record, a 14-2 mark that is tied for the fourth-most victories ever in league history, as the Jaguars hosted the AFC Championship game, though falling short of going to the Super Bowl.

Now, as the Jaguars head into their sixth season, they are the most successful expansion franchise in National Football League history. They are one of only two teams that have qualified for the playoffs each of the last four seasons. They are the two-time defending AFC Central Division champions.

Those milestones are the result of Weaver's commitment to winning. Every year a new mountain to climb. Every year a new success. Every year even higher dreams. Only one goal remains: a Super Bowl championship.

One of the nation's most successful entrepreneurs, Weaver brought his enthusiasm and business acumen to Jacksonville, a city that was yearning for professional football. He wanted a model franchise and a team that would contend for the playoffs in a short time. He also wanted success both on and off the field, with a Foundation that is the envy of the league and players whose character is the pride of the city.

Weaver serves as the Jaguars' chairman and chief executive officer, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the team while allowing his hand-picked staff the autonomy to do its jobs. That's the Weaver way, and it has long proven to be a winning way.

"I think we're going to be a better football team in 2000. Do I believe that 30 other clubs have improved their football team? Absolutely. That's what you have to do in this business," said Weaver. "But we have an opportunity to compete again this year at the very highest level. And I would be disappointed if we're not right back in the same place with the AFC Championship game here. Anything less than that is unacceptable at this point in terms of our expectations."

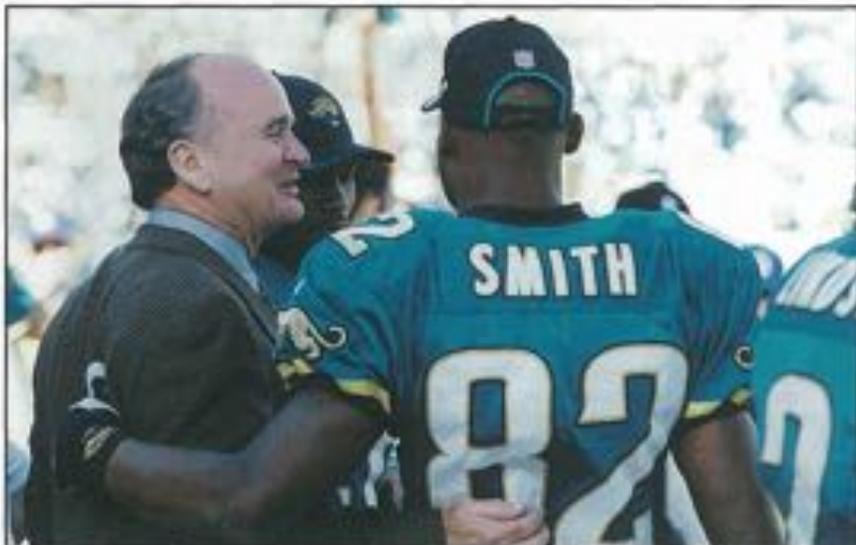

On March 18, 1993, J. Wayne Weaver was introduced as the managing general partner of Touchdown Jacksonville!, the group that was trying to win an expansion franchise for the city. Fewer than nine months later, the Jacksonville Jaguars were born.

Weaver has been called a dreamer. He is. But he also makes dreams happen. In winning the NFL's 30th franchise on November 30, 1993, Weaver led Jacksonville to what has been called one of the greatest upsets in sports history and the fulfillment of Jacksonville's more than 15-year dream of an NFL franchise. Since that time, he has been named chairman of the NFL Properties executive committee, and he is a member of the league's stadium committee and the special committee on opportunities & challenges.

"One thing I've learned in the five years that we've been competing in the NFL is that it's very hard to get to the point where we were at in last year's AFC Championship game. It was ours to win and you can only say it one way — we blew the opportunity. But our players learned something, and I think that game is going to serve us well in the future. Our players learned some real character lessons in that game. I'm sure if we get to that point again, we'll see a different outcome."

— Wayne Weaver

But Weaver also takes pride and joy in his other businesses. He is the acknowledged leader in the women's shoe industry.

He is chairman and the Weaver family is majority owner of Shoe Carnival, Inc., one of the nation's fastest-growing shoe retailers. Based in Evansville, Ind., Shoe Carnival, Inc., is a retail family shoe company with $370 million in annual revenue. Weaver has nurtured Shoe Carnival from modest beginnings of four stores in 1985 to a current portfolio of 147 stores.

In July 1995, as the Jaguars went to their first training camp, Weaver became the majority owner, chairman and chief executive of LC Footwear, LLC with the acquisition of the company from Liz Claiborne, Inc. LC Footwear is a wholesale distributor to upscale department stores across the country. Headquartered in Jacksonville, the company is opening Liz Claiborne retail shoe stores nationwide and should have 55 stores open by the end of 2000. In fewer than five years under Weaver, it already has annual revenue in excess of $100 million. Previously, Weaver was co-owner, president and chief executive officer of Nine West Group, Inc., the leading designer and marketer of women's footwear, from 1978 to its initial public offering in February 1993. Nine West is credited with revolutionizing the women's shoe market, as sales grew under Weaver's leadership from $9 million in 1978 to more than $550 million in 1993.

Throughout his business career, Weaver has maintained a commitment to philanthropic endeavors. Since the awarding of the Jaguars franchise, Wayne and Delores have focused their charitable efforts through the Weaver Family Foundation and the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation, in addition to their long-standing commitment to the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute at Harvard Medical School. Wayne and Delores serve on the Institute's Board of Directors, and through the Claudia Adams Barr Program, founded in memory of Delores' mother, they have raised $10 million for Dana-Farber.

Weaver is past chairman of the Fashion Footwear Association of New York. He has also been active as director and executive committee member of the Two/Ten International Footwear Foundation and currently serves as a director of First Union National Bank of Florida. He is also a member of the board of directors of the Jacksonville Symphony Association, the Cummer Museum of Arts and Gardens, and the Alliance for World Class Education.

Weaver was born on January 14, 1935 in Columbus, Ga. A high-school graduate, he rose through the ranks of Brown Group, Inc., a major St. Louis-based shoe company. After serving as senior vice president, he departed in 1978 to become president and CEO of Nine West.

Wayne and Delores live in Jacksonville. They have been married for 45 years and have a son, Bradley, a daughter, Leigh, and a nine-year-old granddaughter. An avid sportsman and skier, Weaver ran the Boston Marathon in 1991 to support the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.

MICHAEL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

One of the brightest young executives in professional sports, Michael Huyghue has directed the Jaguars' football operations from start-up in 1994 through the franchise's first five seasons. He was recently selected as one of the Top Under 40 Sports Executives by Sports Business Daily.

In each of the Jaguars' six seasons, Huyghue has set the pace for all of the league's teams when it comes to signing players. In fact, in 1995 the team's first rookie class was signed collectively on June 1 — a first in the NFL.

Huyghue (pronounced "hewg") was one of the first people Wayne Weaver sought after gaining the franchise in November 1993. Huyghue joined the Jaguars in March 1994 as vice president of football operations, and he was promoted to senior vice president in 1996. He is also a member of the team's executive committee.

Huyghue oversees all football operations for the Jaguars, with primary responsibility for negotiating player contracts and administering the salary cap, as well as overall team budget and administration. He also plays an active role in league-wide administrative affairs, serving on the Management Council's working committee and the college relations advisory committee, and he is a trustee of the NFL Players Insurance Trust.

Huyghue was previously the Detroit Lions' vice president of administration and general counsel. He oversaw the day-to-day administrative responsibilities, negotiated player contracts and was instrumental in guiding the Lions to the NFC Central Division championship in 1993. In 1992 Huyghue served as vice president/administration and general counsel for the World League. During the 1991 season he was the general manager of the Birmingham Fire, which he directed to the North American West Division Championship.

From 1987 to '90, Huyghue was labor relations counsel to the NFL's Management Council, where he advised the then-28 member clubs on interpretation and enforcement of Collective Bargaining Agreement provisions between the league and the NFL Players Association. Rounding out his labor experience, Huyghue also served briefly in the legal department of the NFL Players' Association in 1987.

Huyghue earned a bachelor's degree in communication arts from Cornell University, where he excelled in baseball and was a three-year starter at wide receiver on the football team. He went on to earn a juris doctor degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1987 and is a member of the State Bar in New York, New Jersey, Michigan and Florida. Huyghue was also elected to serve as a member of the Board of Trustees at Cornell and locally at Edward Waters College. He is very active in the Jacksonville community and is a board member of the Urban League, the YMCA, Communities in Schools and several others.

Huyghue was born September 21, 1961, in Windsor, Conn. He and his wife, Kimberly, have two daughters, Kristen Nicole and Kathryn Leigh, and a son, Tyler Jacob.

DAN

MARKETING

Dan Connell oversees all team marketing efforts, including sponsorships, communications, broadcasting and ticket sales, as well as interaction with the NFL office on marketing issues and city public relations. He is also a member of the team's executive committee.

Connell and the Jaguars' marketing department were featured in a May, 2000 issue of Sports Business Daily. "The integrated marketing approach the Jaguars have wielded is a textbook description that any professional sports entity would be wise to emulate."

Connell joined the Jaguars on March 16, 1994, but his involvement with the team predated his hiring. As executive vice president of First Union Bank of Jacksonville, he was instrumental in rallying the Jacksonville business community in support of the city's expansion bid. His creativity and effort were instrumental in making possible Jacksonville's club seat drive in which NFL NOW! sold more than 10,000 premium seats in just 10 days in August 1993, a $75 million show of community support that the NFL expansion committee was not able to overlook.

During his 30 years as a resident of Jacksonville, Connell has been deeply involved in the community, serving on various boards. In 1997 he was chairman of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce and a commissioner on the Jacksonville Economic Development Commission. He presently serves on the board of trustees for The Bolles School, is a member of the First Union National Bank Advisory Board and is a trustee of Longleaf Partners Fund Trust. He is director emeritus and past president of the University of North Florida Foundation, Inc.

Connell received a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Florida in 1970. He was born October 7, 1948 in Orlando. He and his wife, Mary, have two sons, Andrew and Russell.

BILL

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bill Prescott is the vice president/chief financial officer for the Jaguars. He oversees the finance department, ticket operations, special events, creative services, facilities, concessions and information technologies. He is also responsible for team financial and tax matters and interaction with the NFL and city of Jacksonville on financial matters. He is also a member of the team's executive committee.

Prescott also oversees the financial operations of other Wayne Weaver-related entities, such as Liz Claiborne Shoes, the DAR Group, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation and the Weaver Family Foundation.

Prescott has been involved with the Jaguars since their inception and has also handled the Weavers' finances since 1980. Prescott met Weaver while he worked as a tax manager for Deloitte & Touche. In 1989, Prescott joined Grill, Gilhuly, Prescott & Co. CPAs as a partner, where he continued to work with Wayne and Delores Weaver.

A native of the Bronx, N.Y., Prescott is a graduate of Pace University with a degree in accounting and a master's degree in taxation. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Connecticut Society of CPAs, the Financial Executive Institute and the financial advisory committee at Edward Waters College. He holds CPA licenses in both Connecticut and Florida. His hobbies include tennis, sailing and skiing. Prescott was born May 7, 1956. He lives in Ponte Vedra Beach, and has two sons, Christopher and Michael.

PAUL

VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION/ GENERAL COUNSEL

Paul Vance is responsible for all Jaguars legal matters, including business contracts, licensing and litigation. He also oversees the team's employee and human resource issues and policies, and he serves on the team's executive committee.

Vance has been with the Jaguars since July 1994, following 21 years with a large Stamford, Conn., law firm. While there, he represented Wayne Weaver and Touchdown Jacksonville during the expansion process. Vance is also of counsel with the Jacksonville office of Foley & Lardner, which serves as the primary law firm of the Jaguars. In private practice, Vance emphasized corporate and transactional work.

Vance did his undergraduate studies at the University of Rochester, where he received a bachelor's degree in economics in 1969. While at Rochester, he played varsity baseball and was captain of the varsity basketball team. He received his juris doctor degree in 1973 from Columbia, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.

He serves on the board and executive committee of Jacksonville's Museum of Science and History and the board of the National Conference for Community and Justice. He is also a member of the steering committee of Downtown Visions, Inc. Vance is admitted to practice law in Connecticut and Florida, and is a member of the Connecticut, Florida and Jacksonville Bar Associations. Vance was born November 12, 1947 in Buffalo, N.Y. He and his wife, Jane, live in Jacksonville. They have four children: daughters Kerry and Jamie and sons Jordan and Derek.

DAN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Dan Edwards is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the team's internal and external communications, from the Jaguars' media relations to the team's publications and content for its award-winning Internet site (www.jaguars.com).

Now in his 17th season in the NFL and his seventh year with the Jaguars, Edwards was named executive director of communications on May 4, 1994. Formerly the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1985-93), he brought to the Jaguars 10 years of National Football League experience working with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Miami Dolphins and the league office.

After receiving a scholarship from NFL Charities and serving as a public relations intern in the NFL's New York office in 1984, Edwards spent the 1984 football season working in publicity for the Miami Dolphins, who played in Super Bowl XIX that year. In 1985 Edwards joined the Steelers as assistant public relations director, and in January 1987 he was named director of public relations.

In 1991, the Steelers' public relations department received the coveted Pete Rozelle Award, which is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the NFL's top PR staff. Edwards' Jaguars staff in both 1996 and '98 was voted one of three finalists for the award. He has also worked for the NFL Super Bowl staff at 13 of the last 15 Super Bowls in addition to the 1990 Pro Bowl.

Prior to entering the NFL, Edwards worked in professional baseball, spending one season as an administrative assistant with the Eugene Emeralds, a single-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. He played football and baseball for Montgomery College (Md.) before transferring to the University of Oregon. Edwards received his undergraduate degree in business administration/management from Oregon in 1981 and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University in 1984.

Edwards is a member of the board of directors for the Florida Sports Awards. He was born January 15, 1959 in Denver, and he grew up in the Washington, D.C. area. He and his wife Tricia have two sons, Christian and Preston, and two daughters, Danielle and Victoria.

TIM

BISHKO

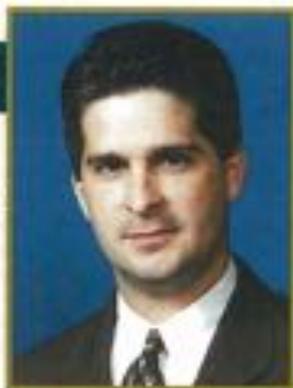

DIRECTOR, TICKET OPERATIONS

Timothy Bishko was named director of ticket operations for the Jaguars on April 24, 2000.

He is responsible for the overall operation of the ticket office, including customer service, ticket distribution and ticket policy implementation.

Bishko joined the Jaguars in September 1994 as a ticket specialist, and he worked his way up the ranks to his current position. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he was an intern in the athletic department at Jacksonville University.

Bishko received an associates degree in sports administration from Becker College in 1991 and a bachelor's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1994. He was born November 3, 1971 in Hadley, Mass. Bishko is single and lives in Jacksonville.

JENNIFER

DIRECTOR, BROADCASTING

Jennifer Candelino was named director of broadcasting on January 31, 1997. She is responsible for the production of all Jaguars television programming and video projects, as well as Jaguars radio broadcasts. In addition to overseeing creative and production aspects of all programming, Candelino also serves as host for Jaguars television and radio projects.

Jaguars Broadcasting has received two Emmy Awards, in 1996 for "A Day in the Life of Tom Coughlin," and in 1997 for "On the Road With the Jaguars.*

Prior to joining the Jaguars in 1994, Candelino worked as a reporter for Jaguars flagship station WTLV-12 for one year. Before her arrival in Jacksonville, she served as weekend anchor for WCJB-TV in Gainesville for three years after graduating from the University of Florida in 1990 with a degree in telecommunications.

An avid runner, Candelino competes in local road races and triathlons. Candelino was born September 25, 1968 in Youngstown, Ohio. She and her husband, Anthony, live in Jacksonville.

JEFF

DIRECTOR, FACILITIES

Jeff Cannon is in charge of all of the Jaguars' day-to-day operations of ALLTEL Stadium, in addition to managing the team's daily administrative functions. He joined the Jaguars in February 1995 and spent much of the year working with contractors during the construction of the stadium, as well as with SMG, the management company that operates it. Additionally, Cannon oversees stadium maintenance and groundskeeping on the stadium field as well as Ferrell Fields, the three practice fields adjacent to ALLTEL stadium.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Cannon had a long history of involvement with stadiums and convention centers in other cities. He was director of operations for Spectacor Management Group in Jacksonville, supervising the old Gator Bowl, the Coliseum, Wolfson Park, the Civic Auditorium and the Prime F. Osborn Convention Center. In Pittsburgh, he was the director of operations and building superintendent for Three Rivers Stadium and building superintendent for the David L. Lawrence Convention and Expo Center. He is a member of the Building Owners and Managers Association.

Cannon was born March 2, 1958 in Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Mary Ann, have two daughters, Sara and Deana.

KIM

DIRECTOR, FINANCE

Kim Dodson was named director of finance for the Jaguars on August 1, 1995.

She oversees the team's financial department and is responsible for budgeting, financial audited statements, tax returns, collective bargaining agreement statements and special reports to the NFL. She also oversees finance responsibilities for Liz Claiborne Shoes, as well as helping oversee all investments for the Weavers' DAR Group, the Weaver Family Foundation and the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation.

Dodson has been involved with the franchise since its inception while working as tax manager for Grill, Gilhuely, Prescott & Co.

Dodson was born February 9, 1962 in Cleveland. She has a degree in accounting from Western Connecticut State University. A native of Vail, Colo., she figure skated competitively for 10 years. She has a daughter, Nicole, who was born on April 15 (Tax Day), 1992.

SKIP

RICHARDSONDIRECTOR, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

After serving four years as director of security for the Jaguars, Skip Richardson was named director of football administration in May 1999. Working under Michael Huyghue, he oversees all administrative matters for the football operations department, including player programs, team travel and security.

In May 2000, the Jaguars were honored with the "Most Outstanding Player Development Program" award at NFL meetings in San Diego.

A veteran of 23 years in law enforcement, Richardson joined the Jaguars on July 21, 1995. He still directs every phase of security for the team, as well as handling security matters involving the NFL office. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies.

Richardson was previously a police S.W.A.T. team supervisor for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and planned security for all special events held in Jacksonville, such as the annual Florida-Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and the Jazz Festival. Richardson retired as a supervisor from the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1995.

He received a degree in criminology from Florida State. A native of Jacksonville, Richardson is active in the Police Athletic League, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and the Jacksonville Symphony Guild. He is a member of the American Society for Industrial Security and the Florida Association of Licensed Investigators.

Richardson was born December 31, 1953. He and his wife, Ann, have a son, Brett, and a daughter, Kristen.

STEVE

SWETOHADIRECTOR, TICKET SALES

Steve Swetoha was named director of ticket sales for the Jaguars on March 10, 2000. He oversees the sales and marketing of season and group tickets, club seats and suite sales.

Bringing more than 15 years of ticket sales and operations experience, Swetoha most recently served as the director of ticket sales for RDV Sports entities, including the Orlando Magic, Orlando Solar Bears and Orlando Miracle in 1998 and '99. Prior to that, he was vice president of ticket sales and operations for the International Hockey League's Cleveland Lumberjacks from 1994 to '98. He also was the director of telemarketing and a sales and marketing executive for the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1985 to '94.

The Pittsburgh native graduated from Robert Morris College with a bachelor of science degree in sport management and marketing in 1986. Swetoha serves on the steering committee of the National Sports Forum and in recent years has acted as a sales training consultant for several professional hockey organizations.

He was born on April 7, 1964 in Pittsburgh. He and his wife Michelle, have one son, Matthew.

BRUCE

DIRECTOR, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

As director of information technology, Bruce Swindell is responsible for the development, procurement, implementation and management of computer-related technology and training within the Jaguars organization. This support extends to all facets of the organization, and includes database and application development and support, network administration, help desk support and hardware maintenance. Additionally, Swindell has guided the development of the team's award-winning website (www.jaguars.com) since it went online in August 1996.

Swindell joined the Jaguars on November 29, 1994, following 21 years of service in the U.S. Navy. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he managed a software development and maintenance facility and served as a database administrator in Charleston, S.C. During his Naval career, he served in various locations throughout the United States and the world, including Iceland, Puerto Rico and the British Indian Ocean Territories.

He is currently on the board of directors for Daniel Memorial, Inc. and serves at the league level as a member of the NFL Management Council's technology committee.

Swindell was born December 1, 1954 in Woodbury, N.J., and received a degree in business administration from Limestone College in Gaffney, S.C. He and his wife, Jane, have a son, Wade, and a daughter, Erica.

MACKY

DIRECTOR, CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Macky Weaver serves as the Jaguars' director of corporate sponsorship. He was named to his current position in December 1997 and is responsible for the development of new sponsor relationships, as well as service of existing partnerships for the team.

Weaver originally joined the Jaguars on May 15, 1994 as an account executive in corporate sponsorship.

Previously, Weaver was a field underwriter for Mutual of New York from 1991 to '94 and a sales representative for Mac Papers in West Palm Beach and Atlanta from 1988 to '91.

Weaver was born May 21, 1965 in Atlanta and has lived in Jacksonville since 1976. He received a degree in economics from the University of Georgia in 1987. He and his wife, Reppard, have two sons, Jimmy and Evans.

RODDYWHITE*DIRECTOR, BRAND DEVELOPMENT

As the director of brand development, Roddy White is in charge of the generation and execution of new revenue opportunities. He also oversees all special events, promotions and creative services and is responsible for all Jaguars game enhancement, including game entertainment, stadium Jumbotron, audio and matrix board operations, team mascot, cheerleading program and fan interactive areas and corporate hospitality, as well as all non-game events and youth development activities.

White was named director of special events and promotions on January 29, 1998 before moving to his current position. He previously served as a game day consultant during the 1995 season before joining the team as special events coordinator on February 16, 1995.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, White worked freelance in various capacities for Super Bowls XXVIII, XXIX and XXX, as well as for the 1994 World Cup Opening Ceremonies in Washington D.C., the Montreux/Atlanta Jazz Festival and the Atlanta Falcons. He has continued to be involved with the production of the pregame and postgame ceremonies for the last five Super Bowls. White received a degree in music education from the University of Georgia in 1990. He was born August 15, 1965 in Manhattan, Kan.

QUENTIN*WILLIAMS*DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/STAFF COUNSEL

Quentin Williams was named director of player development and staff counsel for the Jaguars on February 9, 1998. In May 2000, the Jaguars were honored with the "Most Outstanding Player Development Program" award at NFL meetings in San Diego.

Williams is responsible for guiding the team's players and spouses on issues related to their daily life management and for the development of programs to assist the players, as well as the team's community affairs program. He also serves as a player liaison to management on personal and professional issues. As a staff counsel, Williams handles administrative and legal functions of various football operations activities, including salary cap and player contract administration and negotiations.

He graduated from Boston College and was a defensive back, playing in three bowl games (Liberty in 1983, Cotton in 1985 and Hall of Fame in 1987). He also lettered in track as a 55-meter sprinter. Williams worked as a law clerk for Bivona & Cohen in New York City before attending St. John's School of Law, from which he graduated in 1991. He then worked for the law firm of Martin, Clearwater & Bell in New York City, as a special agent with the FBI and as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Connecticut. He is licensed to practice law in New York and Connecticut. Before joining the Jaguars, Williams joined the NFL as a player liaison in the security department in 1995 and was responsible for the prevention of off-field misconduct by NFL players.

M. Quentin Williams was born November 8, 1965 in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. He moved to New York at a young age and attended Gorton High School, where he was an All-State football player and an All-City sprinter in track.

TOM

HEAD COACH

In five years as head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars, Tom Coughlin has etched a record as impressive as anyone who has ever coached in the National Football League.

With 49 regular-season victories and 53 total wins in the franchise's short history, Coughlin has quickly moved into the elite of NFL head coaches — past and present.

■ His 49 victories rank ninth among current NFL head coaches (the eight above him have all coached at least two more seasons).

■ His winning percentage of .613 is higher than all but three active coaches (George Seifert, Mike Holmgren and Dennis Green).

■ He's more than halfway to joining an impressive list of the 27 coaches who have at least 100 career victories in the NFL.

■ He averages 10.6 wins per season, more than all but three of the 27 coaches who have 100 career wins (Seifert, Joe Gibbs and John Madden).

■ Noted pro football historian Jim Campbell ranked the 25 best NFL coaches of all time in a 2000 issue of Pro Football Weekly, writing that Coughlin is closing "in on greatness ... he sits on the cusp of the top 25" coaches in NFL history.

And Coughlin won those 53 games while building the Jaguars from nothing into the winningest expansion franchise in NFL history and a team that has played in the AFC Championship game twice in the last four years.

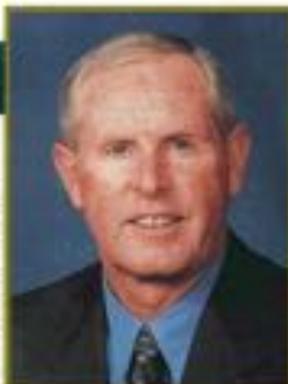

In each of the Jacksonville Jaguars' five seasons, the team has made steady improvement from the previous year. The Jaguars enter the 2000 season once again as a strong Super Bowl contender.

The guiding force behind the success of the team is Coughlin. His quest for success permeates the organization, and his drive is embedded in his players. His standards are high; his goals are even higher.

"I've never seen somebody who wants to win so badly as coach Coughlin," said All-Pro wide receiver Jimmy Smith, "but it carries over to us. And that's what you need to get to the ultimate plateau." And Pro Bowl offensive tackle Leon Searcy added, "His expectations are always higher than you expect of yourself. We have won here the way he has said we would."

In 1995, the Jaguars won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. In 1996, they went to the playoffs and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship game. In 1997, they won a then-team-record 11 games. In 1998 they won 11 more games, including their first division championship in addition to their first home playoff game. And in 1999 the Jaguars had the NFL's best record, 14-2, and advanced to the AFC Championship game again.

Coughlin's Jaguars have led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In fact, in 1999, the Jaguars not only were No. 1 in rushing, but they had the league's leading receiver, a feat that has only been accomplished by one other team in NFL history (1954 San Francisco 49ers).

"We won 13 games during the 1999 season and we lost only three games, so there are many positive things to accentuate. But all three losses were to one team, and until we prove that we can beat Tennessee in a big game, questions will linger. Out of the disappointment comes the burning fire of motivation to accomplish our goals. In our five years of existence, we have been in the AFC Championship game twice but we have not advanced to the Super Bowl. Our goals are to win the division, gain home-field advantage throughout the playoffs, get in the AFC Championship game and win it, and then go forth to win the Super Bowl."

— Tom Coughlin

Known as an offensive mastermind, Coughlin laid the foundation for a winning team in Jacksonville by preaching discipline and hard work, and his tenacity and determination quickly turned a new franchise into the most successful expansion team in NFL history.

Firm, fair, honest and demanding are the four words that describe Coughlin best. "I have very high levels of expectations, and I think players need that," he says. "Players want discipline; they want organization. We emphasize responsibility and accountability, and all the little things that help you win in the long run."

The proof is in the team's myriad of successes. In five seasons, comparisons can be made against the elite teams of the NFL: The Jaguars are one of only two NFL teams to qualify for the playoffs each of the last four seasons (joining Minnesota). Since November 24, 1996, when the Jaguars began their first run to the playoffs, they have the best record in the NFL, a 41-12 mark. In that time, the Jaguars also have the best record at home (28-4, tied with Green Bay) and the best record on the road (17-9). Of active NFL coaches, Coughlin has the second-best record in division games and the third-best mark in home games.

With 14 victories during the 1999 season, the Jaguars tied for the fourth-most victories in NFL history, as they won their second straight AFC Central Division championship. They won seven of eight games both at home and on the road, and eight of 10 division games.

Three years earlier, in 1996, Coughlin's Jaguars won seven straight games and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship game, just one victory short of the Super Bowl in only the 35th game in the franchise's history. Jacksonville's 30-27 victory over Denver in that season's playoffs is widely acknowledged as one of the biggest upsets in pro football history. Coughlin was named the 1996 AFC Coach of the Year by United Press International.

Coughlin was named head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars on February 21, 1994, the hand-picked choice of owner Wayne Weaver. "One of the things I was tremendously impressed with was Tom's discipline, attitude and decisiveness of how he would build this franchise," Weaver said. "It was apparent to me that Tom was not only a brilliant football coach, but he's also an extraordinarily bright man who understands the organization, administration and detail that are needed to build something from the beginning."

A veteran of 31 years in the coaching profession, Coughlin had 25 years of coaching experience before he took over the Jaguars, including seven years as a college head coach and seven seasons as an NFL assistant coach.

He spent the 1984 and '85 seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, and he was with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and '87 as the receivers coach. He served with the New York Giants from 1988 to '90 as the receivers coach, contributing to the Super Bowl XXV victory over Buffalo in his last season with the Giants. In 1993, Coughlin was offered the opportunity to return to the Giants as their head coach, but he declined the job so he could continue building the Boston College football program.

Coughlin's arrival in Jacksonville followed three seasons (1991-93) as head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling football program into a Top 20 team. Posting a 21-13-1 record in three seasons, Coughlin capped his Boston College tenure with a 9-3 record in 1993 which included eight consecutive wins, a 41-39 defeat of No. 1-ranked Notre Dame and a victory over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. His last Boston College team was ranked 13th in the Associated Press poll and 12th in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll, despite beginning the season with an 0-2 start. He led Boston College to an 8-2-1 record in 1992, including a Hall of Fame Bowl berth, after posting a 4-7 mark in his first season.

It was at Boston College where Coughlin met Jay McGillis, a special young player who died of leukemia at the age of 21. In 1996 Coughlin started the Jay Fund Foundation in honor of McGillis, and in the last five years the annual Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic has awarded a total of $606,000 to Jacksonville-area pediatric leukemia patients and their families.

"It's hard enough to undergo a family crisis of health. But on top of that to have the questions of whether or not the family can function as a unit because of impending bills, that has to be catastrophic," said Coughlin. "So I think whatever we can do along those lines is a great thing — and in Jay's name."

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. The next season he began a four-year stint at Rochester Institute of Technology, where he served as head coach from 1970 to '73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse under Frank Maloney in 1974 and held the position of offensive coordinator from 1977 to '80, directing an offense that led the Orangemen to a berth and victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, Syracuse's first postseason appearance in 13 years.

In 1981 Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl bid in 40 years while coaching Doug Flutie, the 1984 Heisman Trophy winner. In 1983, Coughlin's last season as a Boston College assistant coach, the team earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, the first won by the Eagles since 1942.

Coughlin's playing career began as a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School in his hometown. He attended Syracuse University, where he was a three-year letterman for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965 to '67. A wingback for the Orangemen, Coughlin played alongside All-America backs Larry Coonka and Floyd Little. He played in the 1966 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville against Tennessee. As a senior in 1967, he broke the Syracuse single-season pass receiving record, which had stood since the 1950s. An excellent student, Coughlin also won Syracuse's Orange Key Award that year as the university's outstanding scholar athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education, and in 1969 he received his master's degree in education.

The oldest of seven children, Thomas Richard Coughlin was born August 31, 1946 in Waterloo, N.Y. He and his wife, Judy, have two daughters, Kelli and Katie, and two sons, Tim and Brian.

The Jaguars' success in Coughlin's first five seasons as head coach have raised the level of expectations as the team prepares for Year Six and another run at the Super Bowl.

"As a football team, we have to be as motivated and as committed as we've ever been to reach our goal of being the Super Bowl champions," says Coughlin. "We cannot focus on beating just one team to the extent of forgetting our goals. This team has shown a lot of character and strength, and I think that will prevail over the long haul of the 16-game regular season, then the new season in the playoffs and our quest for the world title. Our team will need a very unique commitment to overcome those obstacles. It's not going to be easy, but that is our challenge."

COUGHLIN RANKED AMONG NFL'S TOP COACHES

With every victory, Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin moves up on two lists when compared to other elite active NFL head coaches. In 1999, Coughlin had eight victories in 10 games vs. AFC Central teams and seven wins in eight home games. Coughlin has the second-best record of all current NFL coaches in division games and the third-best record in home games (minimum of 16 home games). Records include all teams coached by an individual during the regular season.

JOHN

BONAMEGO

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

NFL: 2ND SEASON

JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

John Bonamego enters his second season as the Jaguars' assistant special teams coach. He assists the team's new special teams coordinator, Frank Gansz, and he is directly involved in all areas of special teams, including the preparation of game plans and sideline coaching.

In his first season with the Jaguars, Bonamego coached units that improved in several categories, especially kickoff coverage, in which the Jaguars led the league in touchbacks (22) and improved their opponent drive start by nearly three yards per kickoff. Punt return coverage also improved, going from ninth in the NFL in 1998 to sixth in '99.

Bonamego, 36, joined the Jaguars from the U.S. Military Academy, where he was an assistant coach for six years. At Army, Bonamego was the special teams coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994 to '98 after serving as an assistant outside linebackers coach in 1993. He was the running backs and special teams coach at Lehigh in 1992, and he served at Maine from 1988 to '91, two years as a graduate assistant and two years in charge of wide receivers and special teams. He was the head coach at Mt. Pleasant (Mich.) High School in 1987, and he began his career as a player-coach with the Verona (Italy) Redskins in 1986.

Bonamego was born August 14, 1963 in Waynesboro, Pa. He received a degree in health fitness in 1987 at Central Michigan, where he lettered twice at wide receiver and quarterback. He earned a master's degree in physical education from Maine in 1992. A native of Paw Paw, Mich., he and his wife, Paulette, live in Neptune Beach with her son, Javier (2/28/97).

DOM

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 15TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

Rarely does an assistant coach make more of an immediate impact than Dom Capers did with the Jaguars in 1999, his first season as the team's defensive coordinator. The Jaguars improved from 25th in total defense in 1998 to fourth in '99, and they also allowed the fewest points in the NFL, allowing only 217, an average of 13.6 points per game. In fact, since the advent of the 16-game schedule in 1978, only 11 teams have yielded fewer points in a season than the Jaguars did in 1999.

Widely acknowledged as one of the top defensive coaches in pro football, Capers presided over a Jaguars defense that led the league in total yardage for 10 straight weeks in the middle of the 1999 season. At the end of the year, three Jaguars defenders were named to the Pro Bowl squad (Tony Brackens, Kevin Hardy and Camell Lake), marking the first time any Jaguars defensive player has gone to the all-star game. Numerous defensive records were set in 1999: Aaron Beasley set a single-season record for interceptions (six), Brackens set the record for sacks (12.0), three Jaguars had 10 or more sacks, and the team set records for sacks (57) and interceptions (19) and tied its record for takeaways (30). Capers was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Writers of America/Pro Football Weekly and USA Today.

Capers joined the Jaguars on January 26, 1999 following four years as head coach of the Carolina Panthers, where he compiled a 30-34 record and led the Panthers to the NFC Championship game in 1996. In January 1995, he was named the first coach of the expansion Panthers. In the team's first season, the Panthers opened with five straight losses, but they rebounded to win seven of the last 11 games, giving them a 7-9 record that set an NFL record for most victories by an expansion team. Included in that season were several other expansion firsts: a four-game winning streak, a victory over a defending Super Bowl champion (San Francisco), and a winning home record (5-3).

In 1996, Capers' Panthers started off 5-4, then won their last seven games to claim the NFC Western Division championship. They defeated defending Super Bowl champion Dallas before losing to eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay in the NFC Championship game. En route, the Panthers' defense finished second in the NFL in points allowed, ranked second in the league in scoring and did not lose a home game while compiling a 9-0 record at Ericsson Stadium. Capers was named Coach of the Year by Associated Press. In 1997, the Panthers finished 7-9, and they were 4-12 in '98.

Working with Tom Coughlin adds another prominent name to Capers' coaching background. In 28 years of coaching college and pro football, Capers has worked with successful coaches such as Jim Mora, Bill Cowher, Johnny Majors, Don James and Earle Bruce.

He began his coaching career in 1972 at Kent State, where he was a graduate assistant for three seasons while earning a master's degree in administration (1974). In 1975 he was a graduate assistant at the University of Washington. Capers became a full-time coach the following year, and he had a series of stops that included Hawaii, San Jose State, California, Tennessee and Ohio State.

Capers moved into pro football in 1984 when he joined Mora's staff with the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, who won league titles both seasons. In 1986, Capers moved on with Mora to the New Orleans Saints, where he was defensive backs coach through 1991. In '92, he was lured to the Pittsburgh Steelers by Cowher as the team's defensive coordinator. In Capers' three seasons with the Steelers, no NFL defense gave up fewer points.

Capers was born August 7, 1950 in Cambridge, Ohio, and he was raised in nearby Buffalo, Ohio. He was a star athlete at Meadowbrook High School. He graduated with a degree in physical education and psychology from Mount Union College in 1972, where he played a combination of safety-linebacker on the football team.

Capers hosts an annual charity golf tournament in the Buffalo, Ohio area which has raised thousands of dollars for the American Heart Association. He and his wife, Karen, live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

PERRY

SECONDARY COACH

NFL: 3RD SEASON

JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Perry Fewell has coached the Jaguars' secondary for two seasons in which time his unit has broken several team records and garnered leaguewide recognition.

In 1999, cornerback Aaron Beasley set an individual record with six interceptions, the defense set a team record with 19 interceptions (15 by defensive backs) and safety Carnell Lake was named to the Pro Bowl, a first for a Jaguars defensive back.

In his first season with the Jaguars in 1998, Fewell coached safety Donovan Darius, who was named to several All-Rookie teams, and last year cornerback Fernando Bryant was named to virtually every All-Rookie team.

In Fewell's two seasons with the Jaguars, the team's pass defense ranking has improved from 24th in 1997 to 23rd in '98 and third in '99, and the number of passing touchdowns allowed by the defense have declined from 24 in 1997 to 23 in '98 and 18 in '99.

Fewell was named the Jaguars' secondary coach on February 16, 1998. Now in his 16th year in coaching, the 37-year-old Fewell joined the Jaguars from Vanderbilt, where he served as secondary coach from 1995 to '97 and also as assistant head coach in 1997. That year, Vanderbilt had its best overall defense in school history and led the Southeastern Conference for the first time ever. Fewell was largely responsible for the development of Corey Chavous, who was selected by Arizona with the 33rd pick in the 1998 draft.

Fewell attended South Point High in Belmont, N.C., where he played football and participated in track. He went to Lenoir-Rhyne College, graduating with a degree in business administration in 1985. He lettered four years in football and was named the team's Most Improved Player in 1983. Following his playing career he spent one year as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Fewell was a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina in 1985 and '86. He was the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987, then coached wide receivers at Kent State for four years before returning to Army as the defensive line coach from 1992 to '94. He was born September 7, 1962 in Gastonia, N.C. He and his wife, Kathleen, live in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1985-86 North Carolina, 1987 Army, 1988-91 Kent State, 1992-94 Army, 1995-97 Vanderbilt, 1998-2000 Jacksonville Jaguars

GREG

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

NFL: 3RD SEASON

JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Greg Finnegan was named assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Jaguars on February 10, 1998. He serves as the assistant to Jerry Palmieri in the development and implementation of the Jaguars' strength and conditioning program.

Finnegan, 31, previously was the director of strength and conditioning at Boston College, a position he took over in January 1995 when Palmieri left BC to join the Jaguars. Finnegan worked as a graduate assistant with Palmieri at Kansas State in 1992 and '93, then rejoined Palmieri in 1994 as an assistant strength coach at Boston College.

Finnegan was born February 21, 1969 in Toledo, Ohio. He earned a degree in nutritional science in 1992 from Cornell University, where he was an All-Ivy League center on the football team. He earned a master's degree in exercise physiology in 1994 from Kansas State. Finnegan is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, as well as the American College of Sports Medicine. He has written several articles focusing on topics such as nutritional supplements and football training.

He and his wife, Lyn, live in Jacksonville and have a daughter, Abigail (2/22/95) and two sons, Benjamin (10/5/96) and William (2/29/00).

FRANK

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL: 23RD SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Considered perhaps the top special teams coach in professional football, Frank Gansz was named special teams coordinator of the Jaguars on February 24, 2000, joining the organization from the Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams, where he spent the last three seasons. He left the Rams shortly after helping the team to its victory in Super Bowl XXXIV and joined the Jaguars a few weeks later so he could work with Tom Coughlin, with whom he coached on the Philadelphia Eagles staff in the 1980s.

Gansz was named the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year in 1999, an honor he also received in 1989. A former head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs, Gansz enters his 23rd season of coaching in the NFL and 38th season in all.

In 1999, the Rams' special teams units scored three touchdowns and led the NFL in kickoff returns, and Tony Horne led the league with a 29.7-yard average. St. Louis ranked 14th in punt return average (9.6) and was fifth in punt coverage (6.7). In addition, placekicker Jeff Wilkins set an NFL record for most extra points in a season without a miss (64).

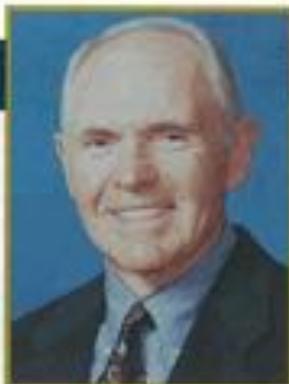

In 1985, when Gansz was assistant head coach/special teams for Kansas City, the Chiefs blocked or deflected an NFL-record 10 kicks and scored five touchdowns. The special teams helped Kansas City claim its first playoff berth in 15 years by scoring all 24 points in a 24-19 victory over Pittsburgh in the season finale.

Gansz was the Chiefs' head coach in 1987 and '88. He was the special teams coach of the Detroit Lions from 1989 to '90, a period in which Mel Gray developed into the NFL's all-time leader in combined kick return yardage. In 1989, he was named Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was the assistant head coach/special teams for the Atlanta Falcons from 1994 to '96.

Gansz's NFL career began in 1978 as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers. He coached special teams and tight ends for Cincinnati in 1979 and '80, Kansas City in 1981 and '82 and Philadelphia from 1983 to '85.

After serving as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force for nearly seven years, Gansz began his coaching career at the Air Force Academy, before moving on to stints at Colgate, Navy, Oklahoma State, Army and UCLA.

Born in Altoona, Pa., Gansz attended Taylor-Alderice High in Pittsburgh. He was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. He played center and linebacker for the Naval Academy in 1960. Gansz and his wife, Barbara, have two children, Frank Jr. and Jennifer, and three grandsons, John, Jeff and James Pearson.

TIGHT ENDS COACH

JAGUARS: 4TH SEASON

One reason that the Jaguars led the NFL in rushing in 1999 was their success running in two-tight end sets, behind the blocking of Kyle Brady and Damon Jones. Both are big players, and both have had their blocking skills honed by their position coach, Fred Hoaglin, who was one of the NFL's best offensive line coaches before joining the Jaguars in 1997 as tight ends coach.

Hoaglin has been around the NFL longer than any member of the Jaguars' coaching staff — 34 years dating back to 1966 when he was a rookie center with the Cleveland Browns. He joined the Jaguars' staff from the New England Patriots on February 11, 1997. Now in his 23rd season as an NFL assistant coach, Hoaglin has been a member of three Super Bowl staffs, winning twice as the offensive line coach for the New York Giants in Super Bowls XXI and XXV.

In 1997, Hoaglin's first year in Jacksonville, he coached tight ends for the first time in his career after serving as an offensive line coach for the previous 19 years. That year, Jaguars tight ends combined for seven touchdowns, the third most of any NFL team's group of tight ends. In '98, Jaguars tight ends accounted for 46 receptions and six more touchdowns, and in '99, they totalled 51 catches — with both Brady and Jones setting career highs — and five scores.

Hoaglin was drafted in the sixth round by the Cleveland Browns in 1966, and he broke into the starting lineup as a rookie. A versatile player, he spent the majority of his 11-year career at center. In 1969, his peers elected him to the Pro Bowl, and he put together a string of 69 consecutive starts in the late 1960s. He played seven years in Cleveland before being traded to Baltimore in 1973. He spent the following two seasons (1974-75) with the Houston Oilers before finishing his career in 1976 with the expansion Seattle Seahawks.

After retiring as a player in 1976, Hoaglin was hired by the Detroit Lions in 1978, coaching there through 1984. In 1985, he was hired by Bill Parcells in New York and a year later the Giants won their first Super Bowl. Hoaglin remained with the Giants through 1992, coaching on a second Super Bowl championship team in 1990, along with Tom Coughlin, who was then the Giants' receivers coach. Hoaglin re-joined Parcells in New England in 1993, coaching the Patriots' offensive line for four seasons. The Patriots allowed only 102 sacks in Hoaglin's four seasons.

Hoaglin was a starter at both center and linebacker at the University of Pittsburgh and was selected to play in the North-South All-Star game his senior year. He also earned two varsity letters in golf while in college. He received a degree in industrial engineering in 1968. He was born January 28, 1944 in Alliance, Ohio. He and his wife, Janet, have two children: Patricia Compton (3/5/68) and George III "Rick" (9/23/70); a daughter-in-law, Jocelyn Hoaglin; a son-in-law, Derek Compton, and two grandchildren: Andrew (5/28/87) and Kristina Compton (4/11/89).

JERALDINGRAM*RUNNING BACKS COACH*NFL: 6TH SEASON*JAGUARS: 6TH SEASON

Once known primarily as a passing team, the Jaguars led the NFL in rushing in 1999, totalling 2,091 yards behind the tandem of Fred Taylor and James Stewart. A year earlier, the Jaguars ran for a team-record 2,102 yards and finished fifth in the league behind Taylor, who set 29 team records on his way to the greatest season ever by a Jaguars running back. And, in the last three years, they have rushed for the most touchdowns in the NFL (59).

Since the franchise's inception, the running backs have been coached by Jerald Ingram, their soft-spoken tutor who is quickly becoming regarded as one of the best in the business at his position.

Now, with Stewart gone as a free agent, Ingram's backfield will be led by Taylor — who is one of the top breakout threats in the NFL — and two youngsters who will compete for the backup role in Chris Howard and Stacey Mack. His fullback for the third season will be Daimon Shelton, one of the best blockers in the league. Therefore, there's no reason the Jaguars won't be among the NFL's elite running teams again in 2000.

Ingram was named to the Jaguars' coaching staff on March 3, 1994 after three seasons as running backs coach at Boston College under Tom Coughlin. Ingram, 39, is in his 17th year of coaching.

Following his college days as a running back at the University of Michigan, Ingram was a graduate assistant at Michigan in 1984. In 1985 he joined the Ball State coaching staff as tight ends coach, followed by five seasons as running backs coach. In Ingram's last three seasons at Ball State, the team posted a 22-10-2 record, the best among the nine Mid-American Conference schools. In 1991, Ingram joined Tom Coughlin's Boston College staff.

Ingram earned three letters and was a member of five bowl teams as a fullback for Michigan from 1979 to '84. He played for the Wolverines' two Big Ten champion squads that advanced to the Rose Bowl, in addition to playing in the Sugar, Gator and Bluebonnet Bowls. Ingram graduated from Michigan in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born December 24, 1960 at Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio and grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian (7/27/97), and they live in Jacksonville.

LANE

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

One of the youngest full-time assistant coaches in the NFL, Lane Kiffin joined the Jaguars as the defensive quality control coach on February 22, 2000. He assists the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, opponent breakdown and writing the play-book. He also assists in coaching the secondary.

Kiffin joined the Jaguars from Colorado State University, where he was a graduate assistant coach in 1999, working with the offensive line. In 1997 and '98, he was an assistant coach at his alma mater Fresno State University, where he worked with quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs and evaluated film of high school athletes.

Kiffin played quarterback at Fresno State from 1994 to '96, playing in a pro-style system that never ranked lower than 20th in the nation. He earned a bachelor's degree from Fresno State in leisure service management and attended graduate school in business at Colorado State. Born on May 9, 1975 in Bloomington, Minn., he is the son of Monte Kiffin, the defensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and a longtime NFL assistant coach and former head coach at North Carolina State. He and his wife, Layla, live in Jacksonville.

MIKE

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

JAGUARS: 6TH SEASON

The 1999 season was another one of milestones for the Jaguars' offensive line and position coach Mike Maser. The line paved the way for the NFL's top-ranked rushing unit as the Jaguars ran for 2,091 yards, the blockers allowed fewer sacks than the year before for the fourth straight season, and for the first time two linemen — Tony Boselli and Leon Searcy — were voted to the Pro Bowl.

Maser's line is anchored by bookend tackles Boselli, who is widely considered the best offensive tackle in the game, and Searcy, who made his first Pro Bowl after having been an alternate the previous three years. At center is third-year pro John Wade, who started all 16 games in 1999. Right guard is expected to be veteran Zach Wiegert, who started 14 games there in 1999, and left guard is open to competition among several candidates.

Maser joined the Jaguars' staff on March 3, 1994 following 13 seasons at Boston College, the last three under Tom Coughlin. Maser, 53, is a veteran of 31 seasons in coaching.

A guard in college, Maser began his coaching career in 1969 as a student assistant at the University of Buffalo. In 1970, he coached for one year at Darien High School in Darien, Conn. A service veteran, Maser coached at the U.S. Military Academy Prep School at Fort Belvoir, Va. in 1971 and '72. In 1973, he was the assistant offensive line coach at Marshall, and then he spent five years as offensive coordinator and head of recruiting for Bluefield State College in West Virginia.

In 1979 and '80, Maser was an assistant under Jack Bicknell at Maine, and in 1981 he joined Bicknell's staff at Boston College. When Coughlin was named head coach at Boston College in 1991 he retained Maser as offensive line coach. During Maser's tenure at Boston College, the team played in six bowl games.

Maser attended the University of Buffalo, where he was a three-year starter at guard. He graduated in 1970 with a bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation. In 1974 he received a master's degree in physical education from Marshall University.

Maser was born March 2, 1947 in Clayton, N.Y. He and his wife, Barbara, have three grown children, daughter Brigitte and sons Greg and Brian.

GARRICK

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Garrick McGee was named the Jaguars' offensive quality control coach on March 1, 2000. He replaced John McNulty, who was promoted to receivers coach after Pete Carmichael was named offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns.

McGee, 27, assists the offensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, opponent breakdown and writing the playbook.

McGee spent the 1999 season as the wide receivers coach at the University of Northern Iowa, coaching players who set several school and conference records for total offense, yards passing and touchdown passes. He coached at Langston University from 1996 to '98, serving as defensive backs coach, quarterbacks coach and then special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach.

McGee played quarterback at the University of Oklahoma, where he was the Big Eight Offensive Newcomer of the Year in 1994, when he set school single-season records for pass attempts and completions and finished second in passing yards and total offense. He ranked fourth in the Big Eight and 43rd nationally in total offense. McGee played at Northeast Oklahoma A&M in 1993, where he was honorable mention JUCO All-America. He was redshirted at Arizona State in 1991 and he started two of four games played in '92 under Bruce Snyder and then-ASU quarterbacks coach Bob Petrino, who is now the Jaguars' quarterbacks coach. He earned a bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in 1996.

He was All-City and All-State as a junior and senior at Booker T. Washington High in Tulsa, Okla., where he played for his father. McGee was born on April 6, 1973 in Kansas City, Mo. He lives in Jacksonville.

JOHN

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

NFL: 3RD SEASON

JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

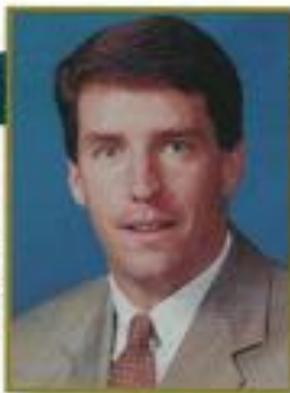

After two seasons as the Jaguars' quality control coach, John McNulty was promoted to wide receivers coach on February 11, 2000. He replaced Pete Carmichael, the team's wide receivers coach for the first five seasons who is now the offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns.

McNulty, 32, works with two Pro Bowlers — Jimmy Smith, who led the NFL in receiving in 1999 and has been to the last three Pro Bowls — and Keenan McCardell — the team's first Pro Bowler in 1996. Also, McNulty will be the primary tutor for R. Jay Soward, the team's first-round draft choice this year, as well as backups Reggie Barlow and Alvis Whitted.

McNulty began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan in 1991, and he worked with the team's defensive line in 1993 and the wide receivers in 1994. In 1994, he coached the Big Ten's leading receiving duo of Amani Toomer (New York Giants) and Mercury Hayes (former Atlanta Falcon). While at Michigan, the team won two Big Ten titles, earning trips to the Rose Bowl against Washington both years. In the 1991 game, the Wolverines were defeated by Mark Brunell's Huskies, while in 1992 Michigan earned the victory. McNulty also coached in the Holiday Bowl (1994) and the Hall of Fame Bowl (1993). In 1995 he joined the staff at the University of Connecticut working with wide receivers and special teams. He coached 1,000-yard receivers in 1996 and '97 and an All-American in 1997.

McNulty was born May 29, 1968 in Scranton, Pa. and was a high school standout at Abington Heights High in Clarks Summit, Pa. He graduated from Penn State in 1990 with a degree in business management and business law. He played four years as a safety at Penn State under Joe Paterno, playing in bowl games each of his four seasons. McNulty and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Jacksonville.

JERRY

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

NFL: 6TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 6TH SEASON

Jerry Palmieri has been the strength and conditioning coach of the Jaguars since they began play in 1996.

Under Palmieri's guidance, the Jaguars have had nearly 100 percent attendance for their four-day-a-week offseason conditioning program over the last five years. That has helped the team reap the benefits of his program, in which players have annually set personal bests for strength, speed and other conditioning aspects. In this year's offseason conditioning program, the team's average body fat decreased by 1.25 percent, vertical jump increased 1.35 inches, and the average player's bench squat and incline increased by 28 pounds. The Jaguars have 28 veteran players who can squat more than 600 pounds and 33 veterans who can power clean more than 300 pounds.

Palmieri's philosophy is two-fold. Intangibly, he uses a scriptural verse: "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might ..." (Ecclesiastes 9:10). Each athlete is challenged to work hard and reach his fullest potential — tangibly, its strength and power. Palmieri's goal is to help each athlete increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," says Palmieri. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri joined the Jaguars on January 11, 1995 after having served as director of strength and conditioning operations at Boston College since 1993, where he was hired by Tom Coughlin. Prior to his stint at Boston College, Palmieri spent six years overseeing the strength and conditioning program at Kansas State. He began his career as a strength coach in 1982 at North Carolina, followed by three years at Oklahoma State.

In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught college physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications. He has also produced videos on strength and speed training and is active with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

A 1980 graduate of Montclair State, Palmieri received a master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of North Carolina in 1984. He is a three-time Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competition as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams. He was born October 30, 1958 in Englewood, N.J. Jerry and his wife, Ellen, have a son, Tony (12/18/85), and a daughter, Annamarie (10/2/87).

JOHN

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

JAGUARS: 6TH SEASON

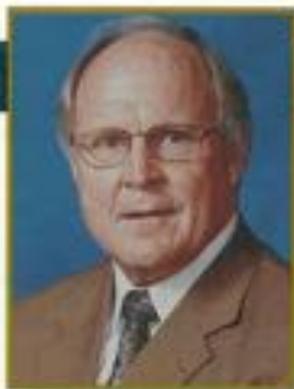

Tom Coughlin says it always starts up front, and for the Jacksonville defense in 1999, the defensive front had never been better. Under the guidance of John Pease, the 1999 defensive line led the NFL with 57 sacks and ranked fourth against the run. Three players had 10 or more sacks, and Tony Brackens set a team single-season record with 12 sacks and became the Jaguars' first defensive lineman voted to the Pro Bowl.

In 1999, the Jaguars allowed only six rushing touchdowns, tied for the fewest in the AFC and the second fewest in the NFL. And in the last four years, only four other teams have allowed fewer than the 36 rushing scores given up by Jacksonville.

Pease rotates seven or eight players throughout every game at both tackle and end, and the Jaguars' defensive statistics have made huge strides since the 1995 inaugural season, going from 17 sacks in 1995 (last in the NFL) to 37 sacks in '96, 48 sacks in '97 and 57 last year. Among the other team records set in 1999 was fewest rushing yards allowed (1,444, breaking the old mark by 290 yards).

Pease, 56, was named defensive line coach on January 12, 1995 following nine seasons as defensive line coach for the New Orleans Saints. He is a veteran of 30 years in coaching, a career that also includes 13 years at the college level and three in the USFL.

Pease began his fulltime coaching career at Fullerton College in 1970, as linebackers coach (1970-72) and defensive line coach (1973). He also had stints at Long Beach State, Utah and Washington. From 1983 to '85, he was on the coaching staff of the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL along with Dorn Capers under head coach Jim Mora. The Stars won the USFL championship in 1984 and '85. When Mora was named head coach of the Saints, Pease joined him in New Orleans, where he was from 1986 until joining the Jaguars in 1995. The Saints were a playoff team three of Pease's last five seasons.

A graduate of the University of Utah, Pease began college at Fullerton Junior College, where he was a two-time Junior College All-America selection. He was inducted into the California Community College Football Coaches Hall of Fame in 1999. He transferred to Utah and was named All-Western Athletic Conference as a senior wingback. From 1965 to '67, he served in the military in Puerto Rico and coached at Antilles High School. In 1968 and '69, he was a graduate assistant at Utah prior to moving to Fullerton the next year.

Pease was born October 14, 1943 in Pittsburgh. He was on the training camp roster of the Los Angeles Rams after his final collegiate season. He has two daughters, Tracy and Kristen, and he lives in Jacksonville with his wife, Chris.

BOB

QUARTERBACKS COACH

JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

In Bob Petrino's first season as the Jaguars' quarterbacks coach in 1999, Mark Brunell finished fourth in the AFC in passing and backup Jay Fiedler had the first 300-yard passing game by a Jacksonville quarterback other than Brunell. Overall, the Jaguars ranked fourth in the AFC in passer rating.

This year, Petrino, 39, will again tutor Brunell and backups Jonathan Quinn and Jamie Martin, both of whom led the Jaguars to victories in 1998.

Petrino joined the Jaguars on February 10, 1999 following 16 years coaching in college football. In 1998, he was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Louisville, where he coached quarterback Chris Redman, a rookie this year with the Baltimore Ravens. Petrino has been involved in teams that led the nation in total offense at three collegiate levels: NAIA, Division I-AA and Division I.

He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Utah State from 1995 to '97, and the latter two seasons the team's offense ranked ninth in the nation. In 1994, Petrino spent one season as the offensive coordinator at the University of Nevada, where his offense ranked second in the nation in yards and third in scoring. In 1994, Nevada became, at that time, only the third team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver.

He began his coaching career in 1983 as a graduate assistant at Carroll College (Mont.), and he spent one season as quarterbacks coach at Weber State in 1984. He returned to Carroll College as offensive coordinator and produced the NAIA's top-ranked offense in both 1985 and '86. In 1987 Petrino returned to Weber State, coaching tight ends and wide receivers for two years. He then spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at the University of Idaho and two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at Arizona State.

Petrino attended Carroll College in Helena, Mont., where he was a NAIA All-America quarterback and led the team to three consecutive Frontier Conference championships and was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1981 and '82. He received a degree in mathematics and physical education from Carroll College in 1983.

Petrino comes from a coaching family. His father, Bob Petrino, is a member of the NAIA Coaches Hall of Fame after having served for 29 years as head coach at Carroll College.

Bob's brother, Paul, is in his third season as the quarterbacks coach at Southern Mississippi.

Petrino was born March 10, 1961 in Lewiston, Mont. He and his wife, Becky, have four children: Kelsey (11/27/88), Dominic (5/5/88), Bobby (3/24/90) and Katie (10/3/91). They live in Jacksonville.

LUCIOUS

SELMON

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

JAGUARS: 6TH SEASON

Lucious Selmon, a former All-America defensive lineman for Oklahoma, was named outside linebackers coach on January 17, 1995. Selmon, 49, joined the Jaguars after serving as outside linebackers coach at Oklahoma, where he coached the previous 19 years.

He is primarily responsible for coaching the team's strongside linebackers, which this year includes starter Lonnie Marts, who moves over from middle linebacker, where he was the team's third-leading tackler last year. In 1996 and '97, Selmon coached Kevin Hardy, the 1996 No. 1 draft choice and the team's highest-selected defensive player ever (Hardy moved to weakside linebacker in 1998). As a rookie, Hardy exceeded expectations by making 130 tackles (second on the team), as well as 5.5 sacks and two interceptions, and he was named to the NFL All-Rookie team.

The oldest of the three famed Selmon brothers who were all consensus All-Americans at Oklahoma, Selmon graduated in 1974 with a degree in special education. He was a letterman from 1971 to '73 and was a teammate with his younger brothers, Dewey and Leo Roy, for one season. As a senior in 1973, Selmon served as team captain and was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, runner-up for the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award, Defensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference and Chevrolet Player of the Year.

After his college career, Selmon played in the World Football League for the Memphis Southmen in 1974 and '75. He returned to Oklahoma in 1976 to begin his coaching career as an assistant on Barry Switzer's staff. From 1976 to '83 Selmon was the defensive line coach before serving as outside linebackers/defensive ends coach from 1984 to '94. Selmon coached under Switzer for 13 seasons and was retained on head coach Gary Gibbs' Oklahoma staff in '89. In 1989 and '90, Selmon spent training camps working with the coaching staff of the Denver Broncos. During that time he helped coach the Broncos' linebackers and defensive ends.

Selmon was born March 15, 1951 in Muskogee, Okla. He and his wife, Clarice, have a son, Lucious III, and two daughters, Raeshawn and Tiffanie.

STEVE

INSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

JAGUARS: 6TH SEASON

Under the tutelage of Steve Szabo, Kevin Hardy has developed into one of the top defensive players in the NFL. In 1999, his fourth season, Hardy led the team in tackles, set a personal record (and team best for the position) with 10 sacks and was named All-Pro and to the Pro Bowl. In addition, last year Szabo tutored Lonnie Marts at middle linebacker, and Marts was the team's third-leading tackler.

This year, because Marts has moved to strongside linebacker, Szabo will coach Hardy Nickerson, the team's key offseason free agent acquisition.

Because the Jaguars employ a 4-3 "under" defense, Szabo coaches the team's inside linebackers — Hardy at weakside linebacker and Nickerson at middle linebacker. In all five Jaguars seasons, Szabo has coached the Jaguars' leading tackler.

Szabo joined the Jaguars' coaching staff on March 3, 1994 after three seasons as defensive coordinator at Boston College. Now in his 32nd year of coaching, Szabo spent 25 seasons at the college level, including three years as a college head coach.

A former college running back and defensive back, Szabo began his coaching career in 1969 at Johns Hopkins followed by stops at Toledo, Iowa, Syracuse, Iowa State, Ohio State, Western Michigan, Northern Iowa and Colorado State. From 1985 to '87 Szabo was head coach at Edinboro (Pa.) University.

After serving two seasons as defensive coordinator under Earl Bruce at Colorado State, Szabo joined Tom Couchlin's Boston College staff in 1991. In all, Szabo coached in a total of nine bowl games representing five different colleges.

As a halfback and defensive back at the U.S. Naval Academy from 1961 to '64, Szabo was a teammate of Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach. As a junior in 1963, Szabo played on the Navy team that ranked second and played for the national championship in the Cotton Bowl. He also played lacrosse for three national championship teams at the Naval Academy. Szabo graduated in 1965 with a bachelor's degree in naval science. After graduation he was stationed at Quantico from 1965 to '69, where he continued playing football for the Marines.

Szabo was born September 11, 1943 in Evergreen Park, Ill. He has two children from a previous marriage, Christine (5/12/72) and Mike (1/26/75), and he and his wife, Patti, have a son, Zack (7/28/88).

RICKREIPRISH*DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Rick Reiprish has been instrumental in the Jaguars' success both in the draft since the team's inception and in veteran player procurement since he was promoted to director of player personnel on May 12, 1998.

Now in his 22nd year in the NFL, Reiprish has overseen the six drafts that built the nucleus of a team that has been to the playoffs each of the last four seasons and that won the AFC Central Division championship the last two years.

Since overseeing all player personnel matters the last two years, Reiprish has guided the signing of players such as Hardy Nickerson, Camell Lake, Gary Walker, Kyle Brady, Zack Wiegert and Lonnie Marts.

Reiprish was hired as the Jaguars' director of college scouting on May 15, 1994. He has been responsible for drafts that have brought to the Jaguars players such as Tony Boselli and Rob Johnson in 1995; defensive stars Kevin Hardy, Tony Brackens and Aaron Beasley in 1996; defensive linemen Renaldo Wynn and Seth Payne and starting fullback Daimon Shelton in 1997; All-Rookie team members Fred Taylor and Donovan Darius in 1998; and cornerback Fernando Bryant, another All-Rookie choice, last year. Seven of the eight 1999 draft choices made the team.

Of the Jaguars' 46 draft choices in the first five years, 37 made the team (four others played on other teams) and 21 of them started games in Jacksonville. Of the team's seven first-round draft choices from 1995 to '99, every one became a starter (more than any other NFL team in that time) and all but one remain with the club (running back James Stewart was lost as a free agent this year).

Working under head coach Tom Coughlin, Reiprish has direct responsibility for the pro and college scouting departments, which are headed by Fran Foley and Gene Smith, respectively. Reiprish continues to direct the scouting of college players and the annual draft, as well as trades and the evaluation and procurement of veteran free agents.

He joined the Jaguars after serving 10 years with the Seattle Seahawks from 1984 to '93. Reiprish began his scouting career as a Southeast area scout with BLESTO from 1979 to '82. From 1982 to '84 he was a personnel scout for the Kansas City Chiefs before going to Seattle as an area scout. He was named the Seahawks' Eastern scout supervisor in 1989. Reiprish coached receivers and running backs at Austin Peay State University from 1973 to '76 before going to East Tennessee in 1977, where he coached the offensive backfield and quarterbacks. In 1976 he was the assistant offensive line coach at North Alabama.

Reiprish received a degree in education from Villanova University in 1972 and earned a master's degree in education-administration and supervision from Austin Peay State University in 1974. He was born Sept. 14, 1950 in Shamokin, Pennsylvania. He and his wife Janet live in Jacksonville and have a son, Andrew.

FRAN

DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Fran Foley was named director of pro scouting on May 12, 1998 following four years as the assistant director of pro personnel. He is responsible for the scouting and evaluation of the players on every NFL team, advance scouting of Jaguars opponents and player procurement during the NFL free-agent signing period and the regular season. Foley's offseason duties include the scouting of NFL players, as well as those in the Arena League and the CFL.

He joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994 from Boston College and was one of Tom Coughlin's earliest staff hires. During his three years at BC, Foley coordinated the Eagles' recruiting efforts, one of the top ranked in the nation.

Foley began his stint at Boston College in 1991, serving as tight ends and kickers coach in addition to handling recruiting duties. He was the position coach for the New York Giants' Pete Mitchell. His last two years were focused on personnel recruiting and team logistics. Prior to joining the coaching staff at Boston College, Foley had stints at Rutgers University as tight ends/specialists coach in 1986 and operations director from 1987 to '90. He also worked at The Citadel, coaching defensive ends in 1985 and at Colgate University as defensive line coach in 1984, when he began his college coaching career.

Foley attended Framingham (Mass.) State College, where he played offensive tackle from 1980 to '83. He graduated in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in English literature.

Foley is also director and treasurer of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation, which, in the last five years, has raised $906,000 for Jacksonville-area pediatric leukemia patients and their families. He was born April 18, 1961 in Worcester, Mass. He and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Paige Madison and a son, Sean Michael.

GENE

DIRECTOR, COLLEGE SCOUTING

After six years as a college scout for the Jaguars, Gene Smith was promoted to director of college scouting on May 8, 2000. His responsibilities include the scouting and evaluation of hundreds of college players on an annual basis, as well as directing a staff of six college scouts.

Smith was previously the team's college scout responsible for the southeast United States. He joined the Jaguars on May 1, 1994 and was originally the team's scouting representative for the northeast with the BLESTO scouting combine, which he joined in February 1994. He was the southeast regional scout for BLESTO in 1995 before becoming college scout for the Jaguars. Smith had previously been an assistant coach at the college level for eight years. He worked at Edinboro University from 1989 to January 1994, serving as an assistant coach, recruiting coordinator, and strength and conditioning coordinator. From 1986 to '88 Smith worked at Ohio University, where he began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant and later served as an assistant coach.

Smith graduated from Heidelberg University, serving as captain of the football team while playing as a defensive end. He graduated in 1986 with a degree in education and in 1987 received his master's degree in athletic administration from Ohio University. He has completed post-graduate work as well.

Born December 31, 1963, Smith is a native of Monroeville, Ohio. He and his wife, Debbie, have a daughter Alana Rose (7/6/99). They live in Orange Park, Fla.

SCOTT

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Scott Cohen was named assistant director of pro scouting for the Jaguars on August 2, 1999. His responsibilities include scouting NFL teams the Jaguars do not play over the course of a season, some advance scouting, and working with and hosting unrestricted free agents each spring.

Before joining the Jaguars, Cohen spent seven years working in both college and pro scouting with the Washington Redskins, as well as scouting players in the NFL, Europe League, the CFL and Arena Football.

He was a college scout in 1997 and '98, the team's BLESTO representative in 1995 and '96, and the scouting administrator from 1992 to '94. He also served as training camp director from 1992 to '95.

Cohen was a four-year letterman at Dickinson College, where he played wide receiver in football and pitcher in baseball. He earned a degree in economics at Dickinson in 1991 and a master's degree in sports management at the University of Massachusetts in 1992. He was an intern with the Redskins for four summers while in college.

He was born January 28, 1969 in Philadelphia. He and his wife, Linda, have a daughter, Hannah.

LOUIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Louis Clark was hired as a college scout on June 10, 1997. A former wide receiver for the Seattle Seahawks and Green Bay Packers, Clark is the only former NFL player scouting for the Jaguars. He covers the northeast United States from his home in Alpharetta, Ga.

Clark attended Mississippi State, where he played tight end from 1983 to '85. He graduated with a degree in educational psychology in 1994. Clark was selected in the 10th round of the 1987 college draft by the Seahawks. He played six seasons in Seattle, making 67 receptions for 798 yards and five touchdowns while starting 15 of 55 games played. In 1993, Clark signed with Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent and spent his final season with the Packers.

Following his playing career, he spent four years in private business. Clark was born July 3, 1964 in Tupelo, Miss. He and his wife, Carla, have a son, Antonio, and a daughter, Antoneca.

RUSH DEFENSE RANKS FOURTH IN TDS ALLOWED

In the last four seasons, the Jaguars have allowed only 36 rushing TDs, the NFL's fourth-best mark.

Previously, he was an assistant head coach, offensive line coach and defensive backfield coach at St. Joseph's College (Ind.) from 1992 to '95; offensive coordinator, interim head coach and offensive line coach at Tiffin University from 1990 to '92; a graduate assistant at Bowling Green (1988 to '90); and an assistant high school coach in Circleville, Ohio.

He received a degree in history at Heidelberg College and a master's in secondary education at Bowling Green. Dengler was born September 9, 1963 in Berea, Ohio. He and his wife, April, live in Boise, Idaho, with their daughter, Emily Mae.

CHRIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Chris Driggers was promoted to college scout on May 8, 2000 following two years with the Jaguars as a scouting assistant and four years in football operations. He scouts the southwest U.S. for the Jaguars.

Driggers joined the Jaguars in 1995 as the salary cap administrator, assisting in preparing player contract proposals, salary cap administration and contract negotiations. He became a scouting assistant in 1998, assisting in the evaluation of free agents and college and pro players.

Driggers graduated from the University of Alabama. He and his wife, Alyson, live in Jacksonville.

MATT

COLLEGE SCOUT

Matt Mikula covers the southeast as one of the Jaguars' college scouts, evaluating and preparing reports on draft-eligible college players. He was a regional scout for the BLESTO scouting organization in 1996 and '97 before assuming his new responsibilities in June 1998.

Mikula started with the Jaguars in the pro scouting department on January 1, 1995 and was promoted to pro scout three months later. Initially, he assisted in evaluating free agents and World League players.

A wide receiver in college, Mikula graduated with a degree in communications from Central Connecticut in 1988, and he received a master's in sports administration at Eastern Kentucky in 1994. Mikula played on an All-New England all-star team that traveled to England and Scotland in 1987, and he had a tryout with the New England Patriots in 1988. He was an assistant coach in charge of wide receivers at New Mexico Highlands in 1991 and '92 and at Eastern Kentucky in 1993 and '94.

Mikula was born September 3, 1965 in Dayton, Ohio. He is single and lives in Cincinnati, Ohio.

TIM

COLLEGE SCOUT

Tim Minge is the Jaguars' college scout who covers the southern midwest of the United States. He joined the team on May 12, 1994 after serving as administrative assistant and recruiting coordinator at the United States Military Academy.

After an 11-year career as a college assistant coach, Minge began his 10 years as a recruiting coordinator in 1984 at the United States Military Academy. He served there from 1984 to '87 and spent 1988 to '90 as recruiting coordinator at Tennessee. In 1991, Minge returned for three more years at the U.S. Military Academy.

Minge's college coaching career began in 1973 as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at St. Joseph College, where he had been a three-year varsity letterman as a defensive back. He was a graduate assistant at Western Michigan from 1974 to '75, then served as defensive coordinator at Loyola Academy in 1976 before returning to Western Michigan as an assistant coach from 1977 to '81. In 1982, Minge was coach of the secondary at East Carolina, and in 1983 he coached at Miami (Ohio) University as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

Minge received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from St. Joseph College in 1972 and a master of arts in physical education in 1976 from Western Michigan University. Minge was born January 1, 1950 in Chicago.

JOHN

COLLEGE SCOUT

John Wojciechowski was named a college scout by the Jaguars on June 1, 1998. He is the southeast region scout for the BLESTO scouting organization.

Previously he was a player personnel assistant for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1996 until joining the Jaguars. In Pittsburgh, he evaluated both college and pro talent and did quality control work for special teams.

Wojciechowski played football at Duquesne from 1992 to '95 and was on teams that won a conference championship and a bowl game. He was an All-Conference defensive end and a first-team All-America in non-scholarship Division I-AA. He also played baseball at Duquesne.

Wojciechowski received a degree in business administration at Duquesne. He was born January 4, 1974 in Pittsburgh and lives in Pittsburgh.

SCOUTING ASSISTANT

Matt Littlefield was hired as the Jaguars' scouting assistant on May 15, 2000. His responsibilities include assisting in the day-to-day operations of pro personnel and college scouting, including the evaluation of players in the NFL Europe League, Arena Football and the CFL, as well as some advance scouting of NFL teams and their practice squads.

Littlefield joined the Jaguars from the St. Louis Rams, where he was a football operations assistant for the 1997 through '99 seasons, including the team's championship in Super Bowl XXXIV. He started with the Rams as a defensive intern in February 1997. He began his career in the NFL as a public relations intern with the Kansas City Chiefs during the 1995 season, before becoming an intern in the scouting and marketing departments. He worked in public relations for Super Bowls XXX and XXXI. A graduate of Gettysburg College, Littlefield was born on October 15, 1973. He lives in Jacksonville.

RUNNING BACK

Height: 5-10

Weight: 200

College: Iowa

Birthdate: February 17, 1974

Birthplace: Davenport, Iowa

How Acquired: Fourth Round of 1998 Draft

NFL Experience: 3rd Year

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1998 (8/1, 1/1), 1999 (8/1, IR)

PRO: Exciting playmaker who is attempting a comeback after a serious knee injury suffered in 1999 ... Versatile backup running back has the ability to go all the way every time he touches the ball ... Speedy runner can play halfback, split wide as a receiver, line up in the slot and return kicks ... Was drafted along with Fred Taylor on choices obtained from Buffalo in a 1998 trade for QB Rob Johnson ... Had the best vertical jump on the Jaguars at 35 1/2 inches before his injury ... 1999: Talented second-year back had developed in a key role in offense before suffering a serious knee injury on Nov. 7 at Atlanta in which all three ligaments were torn (anterior cruciate, medial collateral and posterior cruciate), as well as a torn hamstring and some nerve damage ... By the time of the injury, opponents had been using substitution defenses whenever he entered a game ... Played in season's first eight games, making one start ... Rushed 23 times for 82 yards (3.5 average) to finish fourth on the team, and caught 14 passes for 137 yards (9.8 average) ... On special teams returned five kickoffs for 78 yards (15.6 average) and made three tackles ... Shared running back duties with James Stewart following first-quarter injury to Fred Taylor on Sept. 10 at Carolina, gaining 43 yards on eight carries (long 21) and catching one pass for six yards ... Gained 40 total yards in a reserve role Oct. 11 at New York Jets, rushing three times for 14 yards and catching three passes for 26 yards ... Had career-high five receptions for 40 yards on Oct. 17 vs. Cleveland ... Started in two-back offense along with Fred Taylor on Oct. 31 at Cincinnati and had a career-best 50 receiving yards on two catches (long 38). Added 12 rushing yards on six carries for 62 total yards, a season high and second best of his career ... On Nov. 7 at Atlanta, rushed once for 12 yards and caught one pass for five yards on a late fourth-quarter play in which he was injured when tackled by Ray Buchanan ... Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 9 and underwent surgery on Nov. 22 on his left knee ... 1998: Played in the first six games before suffering a severely sprained foot in his first start, then did not play again until the second round of the playoffs ... Finished fourth on the team with 140 yards rushing on 26 carries (5.4-yard average), including a 51-yard run and one TD ... Also caught four passes for 20 yards and returned five kickoffs for 133 yards (26.6 average) ... Made one reception in his first NFL game Sept. 6 at Chicago but fumbled on the play ... Had a 65-yard kickoff return to open the second half Sept. 13 vs. Kansas City, setting up a 31-yard TD drive for 21-6 lead ... Took over for an injured Fred Taylor in the second quarter of a "Monday Night Football" game vs. Miami on October 12 and ran nine times for 75 yards, including a 51-yarder which is the fifth-longest run in team history. Added one reception for six yards and two kickoff returns for 35 yards to finish with 116 all-purpose yards ... Made his first NFL start Oct. 18 at Buffalo and scored the first TD of his career, but suffered a sprained right foot on the first series and did not play in the second half. Finished with 30 yards on eight carries, including a one-yard TD run to cap the first series of the game ... Inactive for the remaining 10 regular-season games but was not placed on injured reserve ... Returned to practice prior to the season finale, then was a Sunday inactive for the Jan. 3 Wild-Card playoff game after being shaken up in an auto accident the night before ... Started in the backfield alongside Fred Taylor for the Jan. 10 Divisional Playoff at the New York Jets, seeing his first action in

NOTABLE

- Tore all three ligaments (ACL, MCL and PCL) in his left knee in a midseason 1999 game at Atlanta
- Had a 51-yard run vs. Miami in 1998 (team's fifth-longest ever), and scored a touchdown in his first NFL start in '98 game at Buffalo
- Started in the backfield alongside Fred Taylor vs. New York Jets in a 1998 divisional playoff game

12 weeks. Had one reception for seven yards and three kickoff returns for 40 yards in the first post-season game of his career ... Had a great preseason, posting a 6.4-yard rushing average (22 carries for 140 yards), tops on the team, and scoring four rushing TDs to share the team scoring lead ... Selected in fourth round of the draft, 101st choice overall ... Second running back drafted by Jaguars in 1998 (after Fred Taylor) and 12th running back chosen overall.

COLLEGE: Set school record of 36 touchdowns, and his 33 rushing TDs tied the record set by current Cincinnati Bengal Sedrick Shaw ... Ranked second on school's all-time rushing list with 2,773 yards, surpassed only by Shaw (4,156) ... Played in two Sun Bowls and the Alamo Bowl ... All-America second-team selection in 1997 by Football News and third-team by Associated Press ... Also All-Big Ten Conference first team and Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year as a senior ... Added Big Ten Player of the Week honors, ESPN Player of the Game accolades and ABC Sports/Chevrolet Player of the Game recognition in three different contests ... Set an NCAA Division I-A record by reaching 1,000 yards on his 125th carry, the quickest any player had ever reached that mark ... Led team with 246 carries, as he set school single-season records with 1,639 yards (5.7-yard average), including 17 touchdowns, breaking the previous marks of 1,477 yards and 15 scores by Shaw in 1995 ... Ranked fourth in the nation in rushing and seventh in scoring ... Also caught 18 passes for 200 yards (11.1 average) and two scores ... Became first player in school history with back-to-back 200-yard rushing games (to open the season) ... WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT TAVIAN BANKS

"When I look at Tavian, I see someone who works hard, who's diligent, who takes his career very seriously and wants to get better. I see someone who wants to help this football team. That's what I look for, and that's what I see."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin.

"Speed kills in this game. When Tavian hits that corner, he's going full tilt. It's kind of surprising the power he has in that small body. If you take the wrong angle on him, he's going to take it for six."

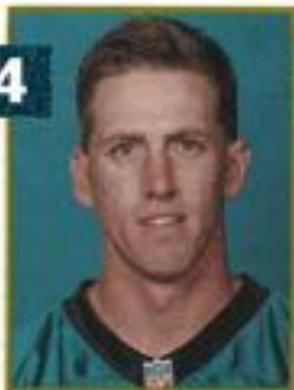

— Jaguars offensive tackle Leon Searcy

PRO: Only punter in Jaguars history ... Has handed all of the Jaguars' punting chores over the franchise's first five seasons ... Veteran punter who was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1997 ... Finished 1999 season ranked ninth in the AFC in gross punting (41.8 yards) and fifth in net punting (36.9 yards), but he set a personal best with 32 punts inside the 20 (three shy of the previous NFL record) ... Tied an NFL single-game record in 1999 with eight punts inside the 20 in contest at Baltimore ... Led the entire league in 1995 with a 38.6 net average, becoming the first Jaguar to top the NFL in a statistical category ... In five seasons with the Jaguars, has ranked fourth, ninth, seventh, sixth and ninth in the NFL in gross average, and first, 10th, third, third and fifth in the league in net average ... In last three seasons, is second in the NFL with 87 punts downed inside the 20-yard line (the Giants' Brad Maynard has 97 in-20s but has 72 more punts)

... Has four of the six longest kicks of his career as a Jaguar, including a career-best 83-yarder in 1999 ... Signed by the Jaguars March 7, 1995 as an unrestricted free agent from the Philadelphia Eagles ... Was the first punter on the Jaguars' roster and 73rd player overall ... Entering his 11th NFL season, including his first four with Kansas City and one with Philadelphia ... Is the oldest player on Jaguars' roster in terms of age (but not experience) ... One of three players to play in all 88 Jaguars games, including postseason (joining PK Mike Hollis and WR Jimmy Smith) ... Has played in 151 regular-season games, booting 718 punts for a 42.6-yard gross average and 36.6-yard net ... As a Jaguar, has punted 380 times for a 43.8-yard gross average and 37.7-yard net ... Has had only two punts blocked among his 718 career kicks, and he has placed 205 inside the 20-yard line with only 73 touchbacks ... Has never had a kick blocked as a Jaguar and none since 1993, a streak of 464 consecutive kicks without a block ... His 718 career punts is the 28th most in NFL history, and his 42.6 average is tied for 23rd all time ... In addition to the regular season, he has punted in 15 postseason games, averaging 41.6 yards on 72 punts, with a net average of 34.9, 16 inside the 20 and only six touchbacks ... Doubles as Jaguars' holder for placekicks ... Was originally signed by the Denver Broncos in 1988 and was in the Seattle Seahawks' training camp in 1989 ... Played semi-pro football for the Auburn Panthers in 1987 ... 1999: Had what he considers the finest season of his career ... Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week three times during the season (giving him five for his career) ... Ranked eighth in the NFL and fifth in the AFC in net punting with a 36.9-yard average, and tied for 15th in the NFL and ninth in the AFC in gross punting with a 41.8 average ... Tied for fourth in the NFL with a team-record and personal-best 32 kicks downed inside the 20 (just three shy of the NFL record that was broken in 1999) ... Often punted from midfield and even inside the 40, as team prided itself on field position (41 percent of his kicks were inside the 20,

NOTABLE

■ Only punter in Jaguars history was named All-Pro and voted to the Pro Bowl for the first time following the 1997 season

■ In 1995, placed 41 percent of his punts (22 of 78) inside the 20-yard line, the highest mark in the NFL. He tied the NFL single-game record with eight inside-the-20s vs. Baltimore and had an 83-yarder at the Jets, the NFL's longest since 1992.

■ Led the NFL with a 38.6-yard net average in 1995, the first Jaguar to lead the league in a statistical category the highest of any NFL punter) ... Made the first run of his career for six yards on Sept. 26 vs. Tennessee but was forced out of bounds at the 2-yard line, on a fake field goal with 15 seconds left in the first half ... Had exceptional game Oct. 3 at Pittsburgh with six punts (of eight) downed inside the 15-yard line, including three at the 1-, 1- and 2-yard lines. Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week and received the special teams game ball ... In Monday night game Oct. 11 at New York Jets, punted seven times for 45.9-yard gross average and 37.4 net, including a career-best 63-yarder (longest in the NFL since 1992) from the endzone to earn AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the second straight game (first player since Minnesota's Mitch Berger in 1996 to do so). Also received another special teams game ball. Had two touchbacks, but both kicks landed inside 10-yard line and were mishandled by the coverage unit. Also handed two high snaps from center to get the ball placed for successful field goals ... Broke his own team mark with an NFL record-tying eight punts inside the 20 on a team-record-tying nine punts on Nov. 14 vs. Baltimore (had punts downed or out of bounds at Ravens' 2-, 7-, 18-, 15-, 14-, 46-, 11-, 10- and 12-yard lines). Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors (became first AFC player to be named three times in one season since Kansas City KR Tamarick Vanover in 1995 and '97) and received a special teams game ball. Nine punts tied his team record set 10/29/95 at Pittsburgh ... Received special teams game ball Dec. 13 vs. Denver when he broke his team record of 28 inside-the-20 kicks, and another a week later at Cleveland ... 1998: Ranked third in the NFL in net punting average (38.5) and sixth in gross punting average (45.0); figures ranked second and fourth in AFC, respectively ... Punted 85 times for 3,824 yards, both career highs ... Had a then-personal-best 28 punts downed inside the 20 for the third-best mark in the AFC and seventh in the NFL (breaking his previous high of 27 set in 1997) ... Had 11 touchbacks, the second most of his career in one season ... Had seven punts of 60 or more yards, including twice in two different games, and 25 punts of 50-yards plus ... Season-long of 65 yards (Oct. 18 at Buffalo) tied for the then-second longest of his career and marked his longest as a Jaguar. Averaged 52.4 yards on five punts in that game for second-best single-game average in team history ... Had 64-yarder on Nov. 22 at Pittsburgh for then-second longest as a Jaguar ... Received two special teams game balls (Sept. 20 vs. Baltimore and Dec. 28 vs. Pittsburgh) ... Had four punts inside the 20 in two different games (Oct. 12 vs. Miami and Dec. 20 at Minnesota), one shy of the then-team record ... Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for Dec. 28 performance vs. Pittsburgh, in which he punted seven times for a 42.4-yard gross average, 41.9 net with no touchbacks and three inside-the-20s ... In two postseason games, punted nine times for 42.2-yard average (36.6 net), with one touchback and two inside the 20 ... His 60-yarder on Jan. 3 vs. New England set team playoff record (topping a 59-yarder on Dec. 28, 1996 at Buffalo) and was a personal postseason best ... 1997: Led the NFL in both gross and net punting most of the season before finishing third in net punting and seventh in gross punting ... Named to All-Pro teams by Associated Press, Pro Football Writers of America/Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest ... Set then-career highs and team records with averages of 44.9 yards per punt and 38.8-yard net average ... Also had 27 kicks inside the 20 to rank third in the AFC ... Kicked 66 times for 2,964 yards and only eight touchbacks ... Had 29 punts returned for only 241 yards, his fewest ever as a Jaguar ... Had three punts of 60 yards or longer and 24 punts of 50-yards plus ... Named AFC Punter of the Year by NFL Players Association ... Earned special teams game balls Aug. 31 at Baltimore, Sept. 7 vs. New York Giants, Nov. 2 at Tennessee and Nov. 9 vs. Kansas City ... Completed the first pass attempt of his NFL career Sept. 22 vs. Pittsburgh for 22 yards to Dana Hall to convert a fake punt on a 4th-and-15 play to extend a 17-play drive ... Set a team single-game record with a 53.8-yard gross average on five punts Oct. 19 at Dallas, when he had four punts of 50-plus ... Had five punts inside the 20 — then his best as a Jaguar — and no touchbacks on seven punts on Nov. 9 vs. Kansas City ... Joined placekicker Mike Hollis as just the fourth kicking tandem ever to be voted to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Punted four times for a 29.5-yard average (26.0 net) in the Wild-Card playoff at Denver on Dec. 27 ... 1996: Ranked ninth in the AFC in gross punting with a 43.7-yard average and 10th in net punting with a 35.6 average ... Had 25 punts of 50-plus yards with 16 inside the 20 and eight touchbacks ... Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the first time in his career for his Nov. 24 performance vs. Baltimore (50.8 average on four kicks, including two inside the 20) ... Had two other games with 50-plus averages ... Had stellar game Sept. 29 vs. Carolina with 51.7-yard gross average and 42.3-yard net on six kicks, five of which were 50-plus yards (51, 55, 57, 57, 37, 53), one inside the 20 and no touchbacks ... Booted season-long 62-yarder Oct. 6 at New Orleans ... Did not punt Oct. 20 at St. Louis, a team first, entering the game only to hold for two extra points ... Made TD-saving tackle of Baltimore's Jermaine Lewis on Nov. 10, suffering broken ribs but remained in the game. Had a 46.8-yard gross punting average the remainder of the regular season ... Punted 13 times for 42.6-yard average (37.0 net) in three playoff games ... 1995: Had an NFL-best 38.634 net average, topping the 38.632 net of Cincinnati's Lee Johnson ... Tied for third in AFC and fourth in the NFL in gross average at 43.8 yards, posting 19 punts inside the 20 with just five touchbacks ... His 82 punts were the eighth most in the NFL and then the most of his career ... Kicked season-long 63-yarder in third game at New York Jets (Sept. 17) ... Kicked half of his punts (41) in the season's first six games, and he booted 21 kicks of 50-plus yards on the season ... Had only one touchback in the final 12 games ... Voted first alternate for AFC Pro Bowl team, behind San Diego's Darren Bennett ... 1994: Signed with Minnesota as a free agent May 18 ... Released by the Vikings Aug. 30 when P Mike Saxon was signed ... Signed with Philadelphia Oct. 11, replacing ineffective rookie P Mitch Berger ... Punted in the last 11 games for the Eagles and led the NFC with a 36.3-yard net average while the team posted an NFL-best 4.2-yard punt return average allowed ... Had 20 kicks inside the 20, with only seven touchbacks and a then-personal-best 67-yard effort at Atlanta on Nov. 27 ... 1993: Kicked 76 times for a 42.6-yard average and 35.4 net ... Had 19 inside the 20s, eight touchbacks and one blocked punt ... Punted six times for 40.8-yard average vs. Buffalo in AFC Championship game Jan. 23 ... 1992: Ranked fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL with a 43.3-yard gross average ... That figure was the best by a Chiefs punter since Jim Arnold's 44.9 in 1984 ... Had 16 inside the 20s for the second time, but he suffered a career-high 13 touchbacks in addition to the first blocked punt of his career ... Had a season-long punt of 65 yards vs. Denver (Dec. 27) ... Missed a game vs. New England on Dec. 13 with a shoulder injury which occurred on a blocked punt vs. the Los Angeles Raiders (Dec. 6) ... 1991: Posted a 35.0-yard net average, the best by a Chiefs punter since 1984 ... Punted 57 times for a 40.4-yard gross average ... Had only 27 punts returned, the third-fewest in the AFC and fourth-fewest in the league ... Had eight punts of 50-plus yards vs. Miami on Oct. 13 ... 1990: Signed by the Kansas City Chiefs on May 1 and competed with Kelly Goodbum in training camp and was waived following the third preseason game ... WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT BRYAN BARKER

"He puts us in great field position each time we take the field. It makes a big difference when an opposing offense has to start inside the 10 or inside the 20-yard line and has 60 or 90 yards to drive. Barker is probably our MVP."

— Jaguars LB Kevin Hardy

"He's a very underrated punter, not only in our division, but in the NFL. It's time he got recognized."

— Jaguars placekicker Mike Hollis

"Bryan is a detailed player in that he tries to improve every phase of everything he's asked to do. Underneath everything, Bryan is a fierce competitor. That's his greatest asset as a player. He's never satisfied."

— St. Louis Rams special teams coach Larry Pasquale

PRO: One of the NFL's top kick return specialists ...

A threat to go all the way on both kickoff and punt returns ... Fifth-year pro is tied for ninth in NFL history with 11.80-yard average on punt returns ... Has scored a touchdown on a kick return each of the last three seasons, the only player in the NFL to do so (one kickoff return, two punt returns) ... Selected as the first alternate kick returner for the Pro Bowl following the 1998 season ... Holds Jaguars career records for most punt returns (117), most punt return yards (1,381) and average per return (11.8), as well as single-season records for most punt returns (43 in 1998), most punt return yards (555 in 1998) and average per return (12.9 in 1998) ... Scored on a 92-yard kickoff return for his first NFL touchdown in 1997, then ran back a punt 85 yards for a TD in '98 and 74 yards for a TD in '99 ... Led the AFC in punt returns and ranked seventh in kickoff returns in 1998, and was fourth in the AFC in punt returns in 1999 and was one kickoff return short of qualifying among the leaders ... Also served as team's No. 3 wide receiver in 1998 and '99 as the main backup to Pro Bowlers Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell, and will compete with No. 1 draft choice R. Jay Soward for that role in 2000 ... Prior to Soward, was team's highest-drafted wide receiver ever, being selected in the fourth round of the 1996 draft ... 1999: Appeared in 14 games with two starts, primarily as third wide receiver and top return specialist ... AFC's fourth-leading punt returner and NFL's eighth with a 10.9-yard average (38 for 414 yards) ... Named second-team All-Pro as the kick returner by College & Pro Football Newsweekly ... Team's sixth-leading receiver with 16 catches for 202 yards (12.6 average), both career highs ... Also returned 19 kickoffs for 396 yards (20.8 average), just one return shy of qualifying for the leaders' list ... Had season-high 41 yards receiving and 31-yard catch (equalling his career best) in the season opener vs. San Francisco ... Turned in 56-yard kickoff return and 29-yard punt return Oct. 3 at Pittsburgh ... Had another 31-yard reception Oct. 11 at N.Y. Jets ... On Nov. 21 vs. New Orleans, scored game's first TD on a 74-yard punt return for a 7-0 lead and also made his first start of the season as the third wide receiver. Had two receptions for 30 yards, three kickoff returns for 68 yards and two punt returns for 80 yards for total of 178 all-purpose yards. Suffered a concussion in the third quarter and did not return, but still earned a special teams game ball ... Started for second straight game in three-WR set Nov. 28 at Baltimore ... Equaled career-best Dec. 2 vs. Pittsburgh with four receptions for 31 yards ... Suffered right knee injury (torn meniscus) in practice on Dec. 13 and missed next two games. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on Dec. 17 ... Returned to action in season finale as third wide receiver and primary punt returner ... Played on special teams in both postseason games, with eight punt returns for 46 yards (5.8 average) and three kickoff returns for 58 yards (19.3 average) ... 1998: Had stellar season and voted first alternate kick returner for the Pro Bowl (behind Baltimore's Jermaine Lewis) ... Led the AFC and ranked fourth in the NFL in punt returns with a 12.9-yard average (43 for 555 yards), and ranked seventh in the AFC on kickoff returns with

NOTABLE

■ Only NFL player with a touchdown on a kick return (punt or kickoff) each of the last three seasons

■ NFL's sixth-leading punt returner of all time with a 11.80-yard average

■ Named a Pro Bowl alternate in 1998, after leading the AFC in punt returns and ranking seventh on kickoff returns

■ Holds all Jaguars career and single-season records for punt returns

a 24.9-yard average (30 for 747 yards) ... As a receiver finished fifth on the team with 11 catches for 168 yards (15.3-yard average) ... Played in all 16 games, making two starts when Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell were injured ... His 555 yards on punt returns is tied for the 25th-highest total in a season in NFL history ... Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for first time of his career and received special teams game ball for performance Sept. 13 vs. Kansas City. Set team record with 134 yards on 3 punt returns (44.7-yard average), highlighted by an 85-yard TD on the Chiefs' first punt for a 7-0 lead. Marked his second career TD and the longest punt return in team history, as well as the first punt return TD in team history ... Following week vs. Baltimore had six punt returns for 81 yards, including a 48-yarder to set up a field goal ... Led team in receiving for first time with a career-high four receptions for 50 yards on Oct. 12 vs. Miami in "Monday Night Football" game. WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT TONY BOSELLI

"I think he is the best right now and not just because he's a USC guy. His work ethic is unbelievable. If anybody likes watching offensive linemen, he's the one to watch. He has it all — strength, quickness, size, and technique. He moves a lot lighter than his size. As well as he moves, as technically sound as he is, as dominating as he is, there's no question he could end up being one of the best of all time."

— Pro Football Hall of Famer and current ESPN analyst Anthony Munoz

"He's right on target, the way we expected him to be — a dominating left tackle. It's a challenge every week for him because every team has a pass rusher. That's why Tony Boselli is here."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's the No. 1 offensive tackle in the league. I can't compliment him enough. He's going to be a wonderful player for a long time. The guy has all the talent in the world."

— Washington Redskins DE Bruce Smith

"Tony is very intense and very aggressive, and we feed off that. He's an enforcer. He's not going to let guys cheapshot us or take advantage of us. He doesn't back down from anybody."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"He was ready-made when he walked in the door in 1995. I've always said he's a 323-pound ballerina. He moves his feet well. He's got good strength and he plays with a mean streak. How good can he be? That's up to him. I've been coaching the offensive line for 30 years, and he's without a doubt the best football player I've ever seen at his position."

— Jaguars offensive line coach Mike Maser

"I'd say he's the measure right now. He's the best around."

— Miami Dolphins DE Jason Taylor

"Physically, he's the best left tackle in the game. As he matures and settles down in the next couple of years, it's going to be virtually impossible to get by him. His rookie year, he was cocky with ability. Now, he's a confident guy who's the best at his position."

— San Diego Chargers offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"I wasn't surprised by what he did against Bruce Smith (in the 1996 AFC playoffs). I was telling everybody here what was going to happen."

— Patriots defensive end Willie McGinest (a former college teammate)

"When Tony Boselli gets his arms extended, a defensive end or a pass rusher has no chance."

— CBS broadcaster Phil Simms

"You've got to be 100 percent against him. You've got to be strong. You've got to roll up like a snake into him."

— Baltimore Ravens defensive end Michael McCrary

"I think Tony Boselli is a Hall of Famer. He is an outstanding, outstanding football player. When you see a guy go out and play as hard as he does and to be the person that he is, you say to yourself, 'Hey, there's justice in the world.' He's super."

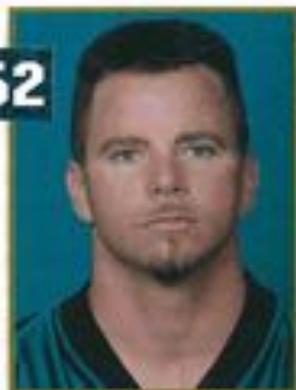

— Cleveland Browns head coach Chris Palmer

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT BRANT BOYER

"The guy is what football is all about. He's feisty. He's by far the toughest guy that I've had here. He'll hit you, I don't care what size you are."

— Jaguars inside linebackers coach Steve Szabo

"He has a nasty attitude. It takes a certain mentality to run down there as fast as you can and make a play, especially if you've been targeted as the special teams guy to stop — and that's Brant."

— Jaguars punter Bryan Barker

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT TONY BRACKENS

"You have to be aware of where he's at. If he's not rushing and causing fumbles in the air, he's picking off balls. He has a great feel for the game. You've just got to be aware and make sure you don't put him in position to make plays — and that's not always easy to do when he's at the center of attack."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"I see Tony breaking a lot of records. This is a guy that has all the ability in the world. He's going to make a lot of heads turn as his career goes on. He just needs to decide when he wants to be great. Once he decides, people are going to realize how talented this young man is."

— Chicago Bears defensive end Clyde Simmons

"You don't see many guys like him come into the league. He has some real gifts. He's like a race horse. He's got those wild eyes and he's chomping at the bit."

— Jaguars defensive line coach John Pease

"He's got it all and he's smart — extremely smart. He's more gifted than anybody I ever played with. The strange thing about what Tony Brackens has done is he still doesn't have any moves. He gets a lot of sacks on just his speed alone. A Clyde Simmons or myself, we have moves. Tony Brackens is just plain gifted."

— Former Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman

"He's probably the best athlete I'll face all year. He's such a good speed rusher that he helps me work on that part of my game. Once he learns this game, he'll be able to dominate and take over a game like Bruce Smith."

"Tony Brackens is a great player. He creates big-time matchup problems for you."

— New York Giants head coach Jim Fassel

"He's so explosive off the ball. Having him out there changes the game."

— Jaguars defensive tackle Renaldo Wynn

"Tony Brackens is one of the premier rushers in the league because he is so relentless."

— Former Raiders head coach Joe Bugel

"He makes a lot of plays other guys wouldn't have a chance to make. He adds another dimension to our defense."

— Jaguars defensive tackle Seth Payne

"Brackens is one of the toughest blocks an offensive tackle has because he has so much speed, so much change of direction. You throw out your natural orthodox way of blocking linemen with him."

— San Diego Chargers offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"Brack has unbelievable ability. I believe he can put up some unbelievable numbers."

— Jaguars defensive tackle Gary Walker

"Tony Brackens is an outstanding, skilled pass rusher who, because of his great quickness and strength, is also effective against the run."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Tony has the kind of ability that can change the pace of the game instantly because he not only is quick off the ball, but he can beat tackles. A lot of times, when he gets a sack, he forces turnovers — he has a knack for stripping the ball out. A healthy T-Brack makes a huge difference for us."

— Jaguars linebacker Kevin Hardy

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT KYLE BRADY

"He is probably the second-fastest tight end in the NFL. A player who can block and be a vertical part of your offense is important. Brady can do that. He's just going to get better and better. I think his best football is yet to come."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT MARK BRUNELL

"There's definite leadership there with Mark. There's physical toughness the other players can rally around. There isn't any question in my mind that he's going to improve. He's a great athlete. He's got size, speed, he's strong and courageous. You never want to take away his instincts and ability to make plays."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"I generally reserve the word 'brilliant' for just a few people. I think Mark is a brilliant quarterback. I think he is an outstanding player. I think he is the next great young quarterback in the NFL."

— Former Kansas City Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer

"He's the man. Mark is getting better all the time. He's young. He has no limitations. Who knows how good he can be?"

— Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith

"He is a great kid with a great family, the kind of guy you pull for."

— Green Bay Packers general manager Ron Wolf

"I have a tremendous amount of respect for Mark Brunell. He doesn't care about the odds; just give him the football and he will make something happen. I consider him to be one of the top young quarterbacks in the league."

— Washington Redskins defensive coordinator coach Ray Rhodes

"He's left-handed, so he can see the rush coming, and he can get out of the way. He can scramble and throw on the run."

— Washington Redskins defensive end Bruce Smith

"I was very impressed with Mark even before what he did to Buffalo and to us (in 1996). He's just a very talented guy that will be one of the great quarterbacks ever to play the game, in my opinion, in years to come. He's the reason they're having the success that they are."

— Denver Broncos head coach Mike Shanahan

"Once he learns to balance the run and pass a bit more, he will be something. You may be looking at the next Steve Young."

— Former Atlanta Falcons safety Eugene Robinson

"I call them twins. Same number [eight]. Same throwing arm [left]. Same ability to scramble. Every time I look at him, I think, 'That's Steve Young's twin.'"

— Buffalo Bills linebacker Sam Rogers

"There are definite similarities (between Brunell and Steve Young) — the way the players carry themselves, their movement abilities, how they throw the ball, their abilities to be spontaneous and make big plays. One player has taken his team to the Super Bowl and the other player is working to do that."

— Carolina Panthers head coach George Seifert

"There are some similarities (between Brunell and Young) because they are both left-handed, they're both very fast, they're both very mobile and creative. They are both strong, tough guys. They're like clones."

— San Francisco 49ers head coach Steve Mariucci

"Mark is a great football player. He's efficient, he's accurate and he throws the deep ball well. Those are the things you need to be successful in the NFL. He's a great playmaker, I enjoy watching him."

— Former San Francisco 49ers quarterback Steve Young

"Mark has his own style. He's always going to keep you in the game with his arm or his feet. He is just a defensive back's nightmare, because you don't know if he's going to run or throw, and he may do both."

— Green Bay Packers safety LeRoy Butler

"Brunell is kind of like Brett Favre — only thing is, Brunell is faster than Favre. We've never faced a guy who could do the things that he did to us."

— Denver Broncos defensive end Alfred Williams

"Mark's the man who puts food on my table. He's the breadwinner. Without him, the family's not complete."

— Jaguars offensive tackle Leon Searcy

"You have to try to keep Brunell in the pocket. This is tough. He can really frustrate defensive players. Just when they think they have him for a loss, he gets away and makes a big play. When he pulls the ball down, he's not looking to run out of bounds. And at the same time, he's pretty effective throwing it."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"I have no idea where he is (when I'm blocking). I just try to stay with my man as long as I can — and then I look up and he's running 20 yards downfield."

— Jaguars offensive tackle Tony Boselli

"I studied players throughout the 1994 season, and I was excited about Mark's athleticism, his leadership, his toughness, his ability to move in the pocket and his arm strength. I just felt like this

BRUNELL ON CENTRAL TIME

Jaguars QB Mark Brunell has the NFL's best division record as a starter among quarterbacks who were active at the end of the 1999 season. Since joining the Jaguars in 1995, Brunell has compiled a 25-9 (.737) record as a starter against the AFC Central. Following are the top five active quarterbacks in career division win percentage (minimum 25 starts).

| QUARTERBACK | RECORD | PCT. |
| Mark Brunell | 25-9-0 | .737 |
| Steve Young | 43-19-0 | .694 |
| Brett Favre | 42-21-0 | .667 |
| Randal Cunningham | 41-23-1 | .638 |
| Mike Tomczak | 21-15-0 | .583 |

would be the guy that we would want to lead our team."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's only 6-1. You're supposed to be 6-4 or 6-5 today to get it done. Mark Brunell is short by NFL standards, but who can argue with the results?"

— CBS broadcaster Dan Dierdorf

"He's our heart. It's as simple as that. He's the piece of the puzzle that can get us to the Super Bowl. Just seeing No. 8 trotting into the huddle gives this offense confidence. It makes you think everything is going to be all right."

— Jaguars wide receiver Keenan McCardell

"You have to be disciplined on your defensive line against Brunell. You have to be careful that you don't get three rushers on one side of the ball. You have to pick and choose the extent to which you're going to play man-to-man defense, because guys like Mark, when they recognize man-to-man and defenders' backs are turned, they're going to take off and run and make big plays."

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

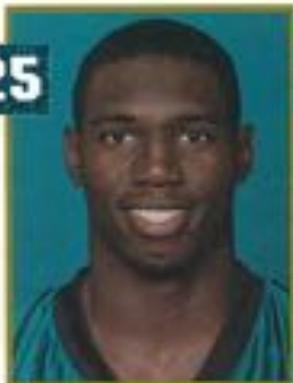

"He's a threat as a passer and a runner. One of the main reasons why we structured the defense that we have is to try to be able to defend guys like Mark Brunell, who we have to face twice a year."

— Baltimore Ravens VP of player personnel Ozzie Newsome

"Outside of Brett Favre, Mark's the best in the game."

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT DONOVIN DARRUS

"He's like a Ronnie Lott - he's aggressive and he'll pound up in there. He's a very hard worker. He takes his job seriously, and that's critical. That's all he wants. He's going to be one of the best."

— Jaguars safety Carnell Lake

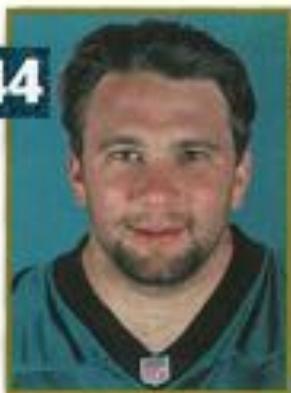

"Donovin is a big hitter. When you see the punch he delivers, those are violent hits. He is a special player. He's very talented. He's a leader on the field, and he's a smart player. He wasn't intimidated by being a rookie in 1998."

— Jaguars secondary coach Perry Fewell

"He does add a physical presence. He makes a running back realize, 'Hey, there's somebody back there looking for me.' He's going to lay a lick on him."

— Former Cleveland Browns defensive tackle John Jurkovic

WHY JAGUARS?

Finalists in the contest to name the NFL's expansion team in Jacksonville included Sharks, Stingrays and even Panthers, but it was "Jaguars" that was ultimately selected and announced on December 6, 1991. Utilizing the services of the marketing experts from NFL Properties' Creative Services division and with the partners of Touchdown Jacksonville, the enthusiastic fans of Jacksonville finally had a name to call what just less than two years later would become the 30th franchise to join the NFL.

Although thousands of entries were received when a contest was held to name the team, a majority of hundreds agreed with the name "Jacksonville Jaguars." Of those who submitted the name Jaguars, Jacksonville resident Ray Potts was randomly selected as the contest winner and for his contribution was provided a trip to the Super Bowl that year.

Considered the most aggressive and feared big cats in North America, the Jacksonville Jaguars look to pay tribute to their namesake in championship form.

KEVIN HARDY'S SINGLE-GAME CAREER HIGHS

REGULAR SEASON

Tackles: 20 (11/1/98 at Baltimore)

Sacks: 2.0 (11/7/99 at Atlanta)

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT KEVIN HARDY

"Kevin is a complete linebacker. He is the player we expected him to be when we drafted him in the first round. He has a knack for being in the right place at the right time. He's a real key to our defense."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"His progress has been steadily upward. Every game he makes more plays. He's by far our most productive player on defense. His peers are recognizing him, but he has yet to realize his full potential as a player."

— Jaguars inside linebackers coach Steve Szabo

"Kevin has the opportunity to be one of the best linebackers in the league. He possesses the qualities. He's real smart and he doesn't make mistakes. He's a heckuva football player."

— Jaguars defensive end Tony Brackens

"Kevin Hardy shows up all over the film when you coach against him. No. 51 is everywhere, and he plays very, very good defense."

— Former New Orleans Saints head coach Mike Ditka

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT MIKE HOLLIS

"From the start it was obvious he had the leg, the work ethic and the mentality to be an NFL kicker. In a game, Tom (Coughlin) will ask how long a field goal will be, and then he says, '53 yards? He can make it. Let's go for the field goal.'"

— Jaguars punter Bryan Barker

"He is an offensive weapon, no question about it. Mike Hollis stepped up and converted for us. He's very consistent and we're very thankful for that. I really like Mike's mental attitude, his approach to the game."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Mike Hollis is a legitimate tough guy. He steps right in there, so I give Mike a lot of credit."

— San Diego Chargers offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"He's done a great job for us. He's as big a part of this team as anyone on this team, and he just comes through in some of the clutch times and handles the pressure really well."

— Jaguars tight end Rich Griffith

"He can take criticism and bounce back. He can move on — that's the thing you need to do at that position. There's a certain inner strength you need to have. Mike's progress has been obvious to everybody. He had talent, but that talent had to be learned and applied. He's improved continually, to the point that when he goes into the game there's a feeling that he's going to make every kick."

— Former Jaguars special teams coordinator Larry Pasquale

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT CARNELL LAKE

"He's a real force on defense and a quiet leader. He's an excellent blitzer who's in great physical condition, and he's a great hitter. He's very good for our football team."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's really an amazing athlete. To be as big as he is and as fast as he is and to have the foot-work skill that he does, it's amazing to see."

— Pittsburgh Steelers defensive coordinator Tim Lewis

"He's Mr. Everything."

— Tennessee Titans running back Eddie George

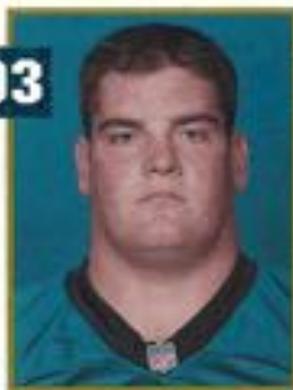

"I consider him to be one of the best that ever played. He doesn't say anything — he just dominates the game."

— Green Bay Packers safety LeRoy Butler

"You see some guys get to a point that they're not as willing to compete. Carnell is always trying to get better. He's always working on techniques, as if he just came in to the league."

— Jaguars strong safety Donovan Darius

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT STACEY MACK

"When we go to the 9-on-7 drill, he's running over people, and they don't like it."

— Jaguars offensive tackle Leon Searcy

"If he gets some carries, he'll be productive. There isn't a player on this team that has a question in his mind that Stacey Mack can't go out there and carry the ball. He's a bruising running back who falls forward. He'll be all right."

— Jaguars defensive tackle Gary Walker

"He's tough. Last year, playing fullback probably made him a better player. It made him a more physical player, but he's definitely a featured runner. This guy just needs reps. I think, in time, he can be as good as the top 10 to 15 backs in the league."

— Jaguars running backs coach Jerald Ingram

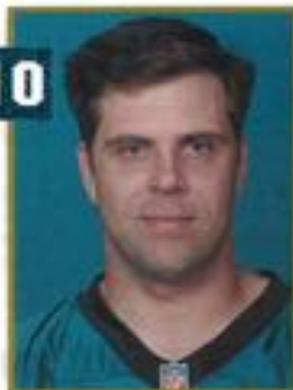

THE FIRST FIVE SEASONS

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT JONATHAN QUINN

"Jon Quinn is a guy who's growing and developing with tremendous talent. I have a lot of faith in his ability. He showed a lot of poise (in 1998), and he had the competitiveness in the arena that we are looking for."

— Jaguars head coach coach Tom Coughlin

"He has a tremendous grasp of the offense. Mark Brunell told me he felt Quinn learned the offense over the course of the (1998) season better than anyone else. I think that's a tribute to the kid."

— Cleveland Browns head coach Chris Palmer

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT LEON SEARCY

"I think Leon finally getting to the Pro Bowl was well-deserved and long overdue. In my mind, Leon is the best right tackle in the game."

— Jaguars offensive tackle Tony Boselli

"Leon Searcy is definitely the key for them because he blocks the quarterback's blind side. He is the strongside tackle for them and he's really not getting his credit."

— Denver Broncos defensive end Neil Smith

"With a left-handed quarterback, you've got to have a right tackle. You can ask Steve Young that. Leon is a strong-willed, hard-playing guy. He'll block two guys every now and then. He is never on the ground."

— Atlanta Falcons vice president of player personnel Ron Hill

"With Tony Boselli on one side and Leon Searcy on the other, I don't worry much about the pressure on the quarterback."

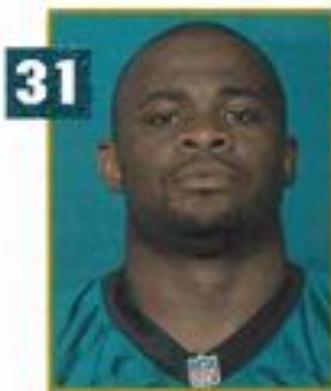

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"Leon is aggressive and he has a little nastiness in him. He's fun to watch play. He's one of those guys you'd put on defense if you had an injury."

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

"He's always been a good, physical player who plays hard, and he's definitely become a better pass blocker. His strength is his punch. If he catches you with it, your play is basically over. By the time you regroup, the ball is gone and their running back is gone."

— Baltimore Ravens defensive end Rob Burnett

NFL TOTALS: 43 games, 17 starts

POSTSEASON TOTALS: 4 games, 2 starts

PRO: Young bruising blocking fullback who can also run with the ball and is a fine pass receiver... Starting fullback was the lead blocker for Fred Taylor in Taylor's record-setting year in 1998, and paved the way for James Stewart's near-1,000-yard season in '99 ... Cleared away would-be tacklers for most of team's NFL-leading 39 rushing touchdowns the last two seasons ... Took over the starting job in his second season in 1998 and has started 17 of 30 games played the last two years ... Has career statistics of 37 carries for 101 yards (2.7-yard average) and one touchdown. Also caught 22 passes for 166 yards (7.5 average) ... Sixth-round draft choice was a backup fullback and special teams player as a rookie in 1997 ... Second fullback ever drafted

NOTABLE

■ Was the starting job in 1998 and has been the lead blocker for team's NFL-high 39 rushing touchdowns the last two years

■ Team's No. 1 fullback has started 18 of 30 games played the last two years, missing starts only when team opens without a fullback

■ Carried 30 times for 95 yards in 1998, the most by a Jaguars fullback since 1995

by the Jaguars, following Ryan Christopherson (1995), and the only one to last more than one season ... Fine special teams player, with 20 tackles in his three seasons ... 1999: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career ... Made nine starts, the most of his career ... Only non-starts were games in which team opened in two-tight end sets or three-wide receiver offenses ... Carried the ball only one time for two yards, but caught 12 passes for 87 yards (7.3-yard average, long 13) ... Also played on special teams, making 10 tackles, seventh on the team ... Had his only regular-season carry on Oct. 17 vs. Cleveland ... Received an offensive game ball along with the offensive line after a 152-yard rushing output on Nov. 7 at Atlanta ... Had a career-high three receptions for nine yards in Thursday night game on Dec. 2 vs. Pittsburgh ... Started at fullback in Jan. 15 Divisional Playoff vs. Miami and had one carry for no yards, fumbling on his only rushing attempt. Also caught a 12-yard pass and made two tackles on special teams ... Did not start in two-tight end set in Jan. 23 AFC Championship game but played as blocking back and on special teams ... 1998: Won the starting job at fullback and played in 14 games, making eight starts (team opened in different formations in other games) ... Inactive for Games 14 and 15 because of a sprained ankle ... For the season, rushed 30 times for 95 yards (3.2 average) with a long of 16 and one touchdown ... Thirty carries was the most by a Jaguars fullback since Le'Shai Mason ran 41 times in 1995 ... Also caught 10 passes (sixth on the team) for 79 yards (long 19) ... Made four tackles on special teams ... Made his first NFL start in the season opener Sept. 6 at Chicago, and got his first NFL reception for eight yards ... Showed he can also run the ball in the Oct. 18 game at Buffalo after injuries sidelined Fred Taylor, Tavian Banks and Chris Howard. WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT JOEL SMEENGE

"He's a versatile player, one of the most talented guys on the team as far as speed and strength. He's big enough to play defensive end and he's fast enough to play linebacker. People talk about Tony Brackens having speed, but Joel's right up there. He's a smoker."

— Former Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman

"He is an exceptional athlete with speed and power. He gives us a nice balance on the defensive line and is a good contributor."

— Jaguars defensive line coach John Pease

Had breakout Sunday night game on Nov. 21 vs. New Orleans with a career-high 220 yards and one TD on nine receptions to earn an offensive game ball. Caught passes of 57, 46 and 43 yards. His yardage figure was the second best in team history (record: 232 by Keenan McCardell on 10/20/96 at St. Louis) and the second best in the NFL in 1999 ... Led team with 10 receptions on Nov. 28 at Baltimore, marking his third 10-catch game of the season, to move into a tie for NFL lead with 75 catches through 12 weeks. Gained 132 yards, including an eight-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell in 4th quarter. Received an offensive game ball along with Brunell and Keenan McCardell. Topped 1,000 yards for the season, marking his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard campaign. Also caught a two-point conversion pass. With McCardell's 102 yards, marked the sixth time two Jaguars wide receivers had 100 yards in the same game and the fifth time by Smith and McCardell ... On Dec. 2 vs. Pittsburgh, tied team records for single-season receptions (85) and consecutive 100-yard games (three, for the fifth time) while turning in his fourth 10-catch game of season. Finished with 10 receptions for 124 yards and one TD (27-yarder from Mark Brunell in third quarter for 30th career TD). Along with McCardell (5-113), marked the sixth time the two players both had 100 yards in same game, tying for the second most in NFL history. Took over the NFL receiving lead for the first time ... Broke team's single-season receiving record on Dec. 13 at Denver with his 86th reception of season, finished with team-leading five catches to reach 90 for the season (previous: 85 by McCardell in 1996 and '97) ... Shared team lead with eight receptions for 134 yards on Dec. 19 at Cleveland. Broke team records for single-season receiving yards with 1,367 (topping his own 1,324 in 1997), and 100-yard receiving games in a season with seven (breaking his six in 1997) ... tory to do so. Finished with four catches for 104 yards, including a season-best 62-yarder (third longest of his career). Marked his eighth 100-yard game of the season, but he fell nine catches behind Indianapolis' Marvin Harrison in receptions ... In Jan. 2 season finale vs. Cincinnati, capped his best season with a career-high 14 receptions for 165 yards to finish as the NFL reception leader with 116. Total of 116 was the sixth-best in NFL history, and the single-game figure of 14 topped his previous best of 10 set five times and was the second best in team history to McCardell's 16. His yardage total of 165 was the third most in team history and his second best of the season. Earned a game ball along with quarterback Jay Fiedler and McCardell, as both wide receivers tied the NFL record (set by N.Y. Jets' Don Maynard and George Sauer) with their seventh game in which both had 100 receiving yards. Marked his ninth 100-yard game of the season and 24th of his career ... Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December (four 100-yard games, 41 receptions for 582 yards and one TD in the final five games) ... Started both playoff games ... WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT JIMMY SMITH

"In our opinion, he's the best receiver in football. His numbers speak for themselves."
 — Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

"He has the ability to hit the other gear and make it happen. Jimmy has the size and speed and is difficult to tackle. His improvement has been consistent. I think his best football is in front of him."
 — Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"He's a special player. His strength and speed make him a difficult matchup for most people in this league."
 — Pittsburgh Steelers offensive coordinator Kevin Gilbride

"Jimmy's incredible. He's a great athlete who makes great catches. If a team leaves him one-on-one outside, Jimmy is going to win those nine out of 10 times."
 — Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"Jimmy's a lot like (Wikings All-Pro) Cris Carter because he can do so much. He has very deceptive speed, and he has learned how to use his body and set up defensive backs."
 — Washington Redskins cornerback Mark McMillian

"In my opinion, Jimmy's the best and should be considered the best in this league. There's guys who are very fast, and that's all they are. But Jimmy's fast, and he's stronger than people think he is — he's incredibly strong. He's smart and he's a big-play maker. He does things on the field that I think, 'Wow! I've never seen him do that.' He's incredible. A lot of times, honestly, I'll just throw the ball up in the air, sometimes a lot farther than I think it should go, and Jimmy has the incredible ability to run under that thing every time. It's like he sees that the ball is a little farther downfield than it should be, and he just hits that extra gear that very few people have and he goes and gets it. He can adjust his body to where that ball lands perfect."
 — Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

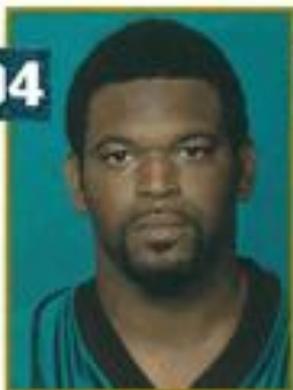

JAGUARS ARE SECOND-WINNINGEST SPORTS TEAM

The Jacksonville Jaguars are the second-winningest franchise of all of the current teams in the four major professional sports. The Jaguars currently have a lifetime record of 49-31 for a .613 winning percentage, just below that of the Los Angeles Lakers. Here's how the Jaguars compare to the winningest teams in basketball, baseball and hockey.

(Regular-season games only through 1999-2000 seasons)

NOTABLE

- Ran the three longest runs and longest pass reception in Jaguars' history, and the longest postseason run in NFL history

- Ran five of the top six rushing performances in Jaguars history (183, 136, 128, 128 and 128 yards)

- Scored 17 touchdowns in 1998, tied for the third most ever by a rookie in NFL history

- The highest-drafted skill-position player in Jaguars history (ninth choice overall), set 29 team records as a rookie in 1998 at Cincinnati and erupted for 128 yards on 15 carries (8.5 average), including 128 yards in the first half to earn the offensive game ball. Scampered 35 yards on his first carry of the game and capped that drive with a one-yard TD plunge for his first score of the year. Later had a season-long 52-yard run to set up a TD. Ran just once for two yards in the third quarter before leaving the game with cramps. Marked the seventh 100-yard game of his career. Total of 128 yards were just one less than his season total entering the game ... Turned in his second-straight 100-yard game Nov. 7 at Atlanta, rushing for 124 yards on a season-high 27 carries. Also gained 54 yards on two receptions for 178 combined yards, the fourth-best total of his career ... Started Nov. 14 vs. Baltimore and ran seven times for 12 yards and caught one pass for three yards before aggravating his left hamstring strain late in the first quarter. Did not return ... Inactive for next three games (10/21 vs. New Orleans, 11/28 at Baltimore and 12/2 vs. Pittsburgh) ... Returned to action for the first time in a month in Dec. 13 Monday night game vs. Denver as the backup and set up the game-winning field goal after scoring the go-ahead TD on a 38-yard run with 2:35 left in the game. Then, after Denver led the game, had three carries for 22 yards on the game-winning drive to move the ball to Broncos' five-yard line, setting up the winning field goal on the game's final play. Had nine carries for 74 yards, all in the second half after starter James Stewart was injured. ... Made his seventh start of the season and first in five weeks and sparked a Dec. 19 win at Cleveland with a game-clinching 41-yard TD run in the fourth quarter. Ran 26 times for 136 yards and one TD, and added 13 yards on two receptions as Stewart was inactive. Total of 136 rushing yards was third best in team history and his second best ... Started and rushed for 44 yards on 16 carries on Dec. 26 at Tennessee, including a two-yard TD plunge ... Rushed for 85 yards and scored two TDs on 22 carries in the Jan. 2 season finale vs. Cincinnati ... Started both postseason games ... Rushed for 135 yards and one TD on 18 carries (7.5 average) and scored on his only reception in the Jan. 15 Divisional Playoff vs. Miami. Scored on NFL postseason-record 90-yard run in the first quarter, then scored on a 39-yard reception after taking a short pass from Mark Brunell. Did not play in the second half after Jaguars took a 41-0 lead ... Posted his third 100-yard outing in four postseason games in the Jan. 23 AFC Championship game vs. Tennessee. Rushed for 110 yards on just 19 carries (5.8 average). Had a 31-yard run on the second play from scrimmage, and added 16 yards on two receptions. Became the second Jaguar to have back-to-back 100-yard rushing games in the postseason, joining Natrone Means (1996) ... 1998: Had the best season ever by a running back in Jaguars history, setting 29 team records ... Rushed 264 times for 1,223 yards (4.6-yard average) and 14 touchdowns and caught 44 passes (third on team) for 421 yards (9.6 average) and three TDs ... Led all NFL rookies with 1,223 rushing yards and 1,644 total yards despite having fewer than seven carries in a game five times ... Finished his rookie campaign as the sixth-leading rusher in the AFC and 10th in the NFL ... Led all rookie rushers despite starting only 12 games ... Posted a team-record six 100-yard rushing games, the most by an NFL rookie since 1995 (Curtis Martin, nine) ... Was the only player in the NFL with TDs of more than 75 yards both running and receiving ... Scored 17 total touchdowns (led for second in the NFL) and 14 rushing TDs, team single-season records ... Tied for the second-most TDs in the NFL in 1998 behind Terrell Davis ... Finished fourth in the AFC with 1,644 total yards from scrimmage ... Had a 4.6-yard rushing average, fifth in the NFL ... Finished third in voting for Rookie of the Year by Associated Press, despite having 327 more total yards, two more 100-yard games and as many touchdowns as Minnesota's Randy Moss ... Selected as the second alternate running back for the Pro Bowl ... In his first three games as the main ballcarrier, had runs of 52, 49 and 77 yards, making him only the 11th player in the NFL since 1950 to have runs of 40 or more yards in three consecutive games. The other 10 players were: Lenny Moore (1956), Jim Brown (1956), Clarence Peaks (1960), Curtis McClinton (1962), Gale Sayers (1965), Franco Harris (1972), O.J. Simpson (1976), Otis Anderson (1980), Bo Jackson (1990) and Barry Sanders (1997) ... Only player in the NFL with more than 1,200 yards rushing, 12 rushing TDs, a 4.5-yard average per carry, 40 or more receptions and 1,600 yards total offense ... Started the season as the backup to James Stewart, who rushed for more than 100 yards in the first two games before being injured early in Game 3 ... Missed approximately 10 quarters of action because of injuries (did not start the first two games while playing sparingly; missed the fourth quarter Oct. 12 vs. Miami with a shoulder injury; did not play Oct. 18 at Buffalo because of a shoulder injury; missed more than a quarter on Oct. 25 at Denver with a mild concussion; and missed three quarters on Nov. 29 at Cincinnati after re-aggravating his shoulder injury) ... Named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month in both September and December, becoming the first player to win the award twice, and was the Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week for his November 15 performance vs. Tampa Bay ... Saw limited action in the Sept. 6 season opener at Chicago, running once for two yards ... Rushed six times for 44 yards the next week vs. Kansas City, including four for 36 yards in the second half ... Replaced the injured Stewart on Sept. 20 vs. Baltimore and responded with a then-team-record 128 yards rushing and 85 receiving for 213 combined yards to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in addition to receiving the offensive game ball. Ran 23 times for a 5.6-yard average, including a 52-yard TD run on his first carry for the then-longest rushing TD in team history. Also led the team with nine receptions for 85 yards (41 long) ... Made his first NFL start Week 4 at Tennessee and turned in his second straight 100-yard outing, finishing with 116 yards and one TD on 25 carries (4.6 average) to earn the offensive game ball for the second straight week. Broke loose on a 49-yard run on the first play of the second half to spark a TD drive to give the Jaguars a 21-19 lead, scoring on one-yard run ... Ran for 89 yards on only 12 carries (7.4 average) and scored two TDs in Monday night game Oct. 12 vs. Miami before suffering a sprained left shoulder in the third quarter and leaving the game (still earned an offensive game ball). On the first play from scrimmage, broke free for a 77-yard TD run that is longest run from scrimmage in team history. Added a two-yard TD run in the second quarter to break the team record for TDs by a rookie, eclipsing Stewart's previous mark (three) and rookie rushing TD mark (two) set in 1995 ... Inactive for Oct. 18 game at Buffalo ... Returned to the lineup Oct. 25 at Denver but was sidelined early after taking a blow to the head on team's second possession. Returned to game later and scored his fifth TD and first receiving TD on a four-yard pass. Finished with 27 yards on six carries (long 25) and five receptions for 50 yards ... Scored two TDs for the second time with a franchise-best 78-yard receiving TD and a one-yard run, earning his fourth offensive game ball Nov. 1 at Baltimore. Turned in 165 combined yards with 87 rushing on 22 carries and 78 receiving on his reception. The 78-yard catch topped the previous record 75-yard non-scoring catch by Jimmy Smith on 11/9/97 vs. Kansas City ... Posted his third 100-yard game Nov. 8 vs. Cincinnati, with 118 yards on 27 carries and his sixth rushing TD. Became the first player in Jaguars history to have three 100-yard rushing games in a season. Total of 27 carries tied the second most in team history. Marked the sixth straight game in which he played that he scored a TD ... Broke free for a 70-yard game-winning TD run with 2:40 left to clinch a 29-24 comeback win vs. Tampa Bay on Nov. 15, earning his fifth offensive game ball. Finished with 128 rushing yards (fourth 100-yard game) to tie his own team record for rushing yardage and scored three TDs for the first time in his career (also scored on runs of six and three yards). Finished with 196 combined yards (128 rush, 68 receiving) for the second most of his career and third most in team history. Broke two team records: total TDs scored in a season (11, topping Stewart's 10 in 1995) and single-season rushing attempts by a rookie (142, topping Stewart's 137 in 1995). Tied two team records: rushing TDs in a season (nine, matching Natrone Means' in 1997) and consecutive games scoring a TD (four, matching Means in 1997). Marked the seventh straight game in which he played that he scored at least one TD ... On Nov. 22 at Pittsburgh, scored a team-record 10th rushing TD of the season on a two-yard run, breaking Means' record. Also broke Means' team mark for consecutive games scoring a TD, with five. Finished with 67 yards on 20 carries and 21 yards on four receptions. Marked the eighth straight game in which he played that he scored a TD ... Started Nov. 29 at Cincinnati but had just six carries for 16 yards before suffering a left shoulder contusion with 1:28 left in the first quarter. Did not return ... Had a breakout game Dec. 6 vs. Detroit with a franchise-record 183 rushing yards on a record 32 carries and scored two TDs, becoming the first 1,000-yard rusher in team history with 1,005 yards. Turned in his fifth 100-yard rushing game to earn another offensive game ball. Finished with 206 combined yards, including 23 on three receptions. Had a 31-yard run for his eighth play of 30-plus yards on the season. On his first carry broke Means' team record for single-season rushing yards (823 in 1997), and later broke Jimmy Smith's record for combined yards from scrimmage in a season (1,324 in 1997). Eclipsed his own previous team record of 128 rushing yards, as well as the rushing attempt record of 29 by James Stewart. Marked his fourth game with two or more TDs ... Scored his 15th TD Dec. 13 vs. Tennessee, but was held to 42 yards on 20 carries (long 18). Led team with seven receptions for 32 yards ... Got his sixth 100-yard game of the season Dec. 20 at Minnesota, rushing for 105 yards on 23 carries. Also led the team with four receptions for 25 yards to finish with 130 combined yards. With 42 receptions on the season broke the team's rookie record, topping Pete Mitchell's 41 catches in 1995. Was team's leading rusher as well as leader in receptions for the third time ... Scored two TDs in the Dec. 28 season finale vs. Pittsburgh and finished his rookie season with 17 total TDs to tie for third among rookies in NFL history, both for rushing TDs and total TDs. Rushed for 71 yards on 21 carries, with a 12-yard TD run, and caught two

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR?

Even though Minnesota's Randy Moss was voted NFL Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press, a comparison of statistics between Fred Taylor and Moss shows that Taylor actually outperformed the Vikings' receiver in 1998. Here's a quick look:

| PLAYER | RUSHING | | | | | RECEIVING | | | | | TOTALS | | |

passes for 21 yards and a nine-yard TD. His 17 TDs tied Randy Moss for second in the NFL behind Terrell Davis (23). Received his seventh offensive game ball. ... Started both playoff games ... Posted the third-best game by a rookie running back in NFL postseason history on Jan. 3 vs. New England with 162 yards on a career-high 33 carries. Also scored one touchdown and earned another offensive game ball. Scored on 13-yard run in the second quarter for a 12-0 lead and had 46-yard run in the first quarter, which was the second-longest run in team's postseason history. Also turned in the third 100-yard rushing game by a Jaguar in postseason (Means had two), and his 162 yards were the second most in team postseason history to Means' 175 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo. His rushing total of 162 ranks third in NFL postseason history for a rookie, trailing only 204 by Washington's Timmy Smith (1/31/88 vs. Denver) and 165 by L.A. Chargers' Paul Lowe (1/1/61 vs. Houston). With 33 carries broke Means' team postseason record of 31 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo and topped Taylor's regular-season mark of 32 carries on 12/6/96 vs. Detroit. Named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Wild-Card weekend, becoming the first rookie to win in the three-year history of the award ... Limited by New York Jets defense to 86 yards on 20 carries in the Jan. 10 Divisional Playoff game ... His 248 rushing yards in two postseason games moved him to fifth in NFL history for rushing yards by a rookie in postseason behind Washington's Timmy Smith (342 in 1987), Dallas' Duane Thomas (313 in 1970), Cincinnati's Ikey Woods (307 in 1968) and Houston's Earl Campbell (264 in 1978) ... Ninth choice overall and second running back picked after Curtis Enis ... Selected with a choice obtained from Buffalo (along with a fourth-round pick) in exchange for quarterback Rob Johnson.

COLLEGE: Ranks fourth on school's all-time rushing list with 3,075 yards ... Carried 537 times for a 5.7-yard average and 31 touchdowns ... Played in three bowl games in four years ... Team was 14-0 in games in which he rushed for 100 yards ... Third-team All-America selection by Associated Press and The Sporting News as a senior in 1997 ... Consensus All-Southeastern Conference first-team pick ... Team captain ... Team's leading rusher with 1,292 yards on 214 carries (6.0-yard average) and 13 touchdowns ... Ranked second in the conference and 12th in the nation, averaging 117.5 yards per game ... Yardage total ranked fourth on school's single-season list, and only Emmitt Smith (14 in 1989) and Buford Long (14 in 1952) scored more rushing touchdowns in a season ... Joined Smith (1988) as the only players in school history to begin the season with five straight 100-yard rushing performances ... Caught 24 passes (tops for running backs and tied for third on the team) for 238 yards (9.9 average) ... Closed out his career with 234 yards on 43 carries vs. Penn State in the Citrus Bowl, setting a school bowl-game record for rushing yardage ... Appeared in nine games with two starts in 1995 ... Rushed for 629 yards and five touchdowns on 104 carries (6.0-yard average) ... Caught eight passes for 120 yards (15.0 average) ... Ran for two touchdowns in a victory over Florida State in the Sugar Bowl for the national championship ... Played in six games in 1995, rushing for 281 yards and five TDs on 48 carries (5.9 average) ... Caught six passes for 88 yards (14.7 average) ... WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT FRED TAYLOR

"Not even Terrell Davis has the breakaway speed Fred has. Fred's one of those guys who can take it all the way at any time. He's an explosive back. He can do a lot of things from a lot of different places on the field. He does things that not a lot of backs in this league can do. We all know he can go all the way at any time. If we sustain our blocks and give him a little crease, he's going to make something big happen. He has the speed to go the distance. He can make people miss, and he has power, too."

— Jaguars offensive tackle Tony Boselli

"There's not a lot of guys that can do what he does. He can change the course of a game on one play. He has the ability to score from anywhere on any given play. He knows he's going to make a difference on this football team."

— Jaguars' quarterback Mark Brunell

"I honestly think he is going to be the next 2,000-yard back. He's unbelievable. Right now, I put Fred and Terrell Davis right up there together. The next couple of years, they'll be the guys going after the league rushing record. Fred Taylor is as good as anybody in this league. He has speed, he has power, he has a mixture of things that makes him successful."

— New York Jets cornerback Aaron Glenn

"Anything from Fred Taylor does from here on out, it shouldn't surprise anybody. It doesn't surprise his teammates. Ask him. He says, 'I need a crack, just give me a crack.' He has the type of ability to turn a 30-yard run into a 60-, 70-yard run."

— San Diego Chargers offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"He hits holes quicker than anybody I've ever seen."

— Miami Dolphins defensive end Trace Armstrong

"Once he gets into the crease, Fred's looking to get to the sidelines. He has outstanding speed. I've been very impressed with Fred Taylor, what I have seen of him so far. He has outstanding speed. You see defenders on video having good angles, suddenly disappearing. He's a very dangerous runner."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"This guy looks special to me. He really does. And I'm not just saying that because we're playing him. I'll say it after the game, and I'll probably be saying that next year, unfortunately, and the year after that."

— Former New York Jets head coach Bill Parcells

"He has very rare gifts. Without a doubt, his best football is yet to come."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Taylor is a very elusive back. He's almost like Barry (Sanders). He makes people miss."

— Detroit Lions wide receiver Herman Moore

"Fred's like a silent assassin — he's very soft spoken but he carries a big stick. There's nothing like blocking your man and looking up and seeing Fred 50 yards down the field. That creates a spark in an offense like nothing else can. At any given moment, he has game-breaking ability. You keep him in the game long enough, he's going to make something happen."

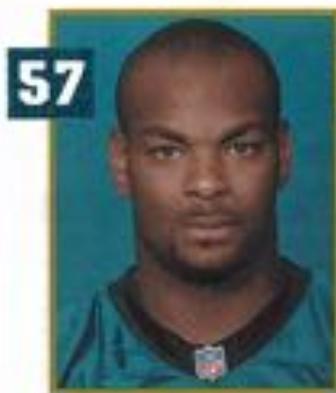

— Jaguars offensive tackle Leon Searcy

"Taylor came in and proved that he is a great running back. He's got a lot of speed and a burst that you wouldn't believe."

— Denver Broncos linebacker Bill Romanowski

"I know what kind of player Fred is. He's the complete package. He's a great player."

— Denver Broncos head coach Mike Shanahan

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT GARY WALKER

"He's the whole deal. He has always found a way to get into position. It seems like he always makes some kind of momentum-changing play on defense, and that always helps."

— Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin

"Gary Walker is a guy who creates some problems in there. He's a big guy."

— Former New Orleans Saints head coach Mike Ditka

"Gary has size, strength and he has a good motor. You put that together with the attitude of someone who's trying to make it happen, and you get someone who can make some plays."

— San Diego Chargers offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"He's like a stiff drink with no chaser. He's straight-forward. He's cut and dry. You can appreciate a man like that. He's going to bring it to you straight, and he's not going to bend or break."

— Jaguars offensive tackle Leon Searcy

DID YOU KNOW?

The Jacksonville Jaguars are the only team in the NFL that has its training camp and practices and plays all of its home games at one facility — ALLTEL Stadium. In other words, the only time Mark Brunell ever leaves his locker is for the 10 road games each season. The rest of the year (even for the offseason conditioning program), Brunell never has to leave his locker.

The Jaguars hold their training camp and all in-season practice sessions at Ferrell Fields, which is adjacent to ALLTEL Stadium (and practically underneath the south endzone scoreboard).

Every other NFL team either holds training camp at another site or plays its home games at a stadium separate from its practice facilities.

JAGUARS 41, 49ERS 3

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|----|----|---|----|
| SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS (0-1) | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | — | 3 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-0) | 3 | 3 | 18 | 17 | — | 41 |

The Jaguars won their season opener for the fourth straight year. The 38-point margin of victory was the biggest in Jaguars history and the 41 points were the second most in team history, while the loss for the 49ers was their worst since 1980 and their worst opening game defeat ever. In a steady rain in the first half, the 49ers scored first with a 42-yard field goal. The Jaguars tied the game with a 41-yard field goal by Mike Hollis. The Jaguars went into the half with a 6-3 lead after a 32-yard field goal by Hollis, and went ahead 9-3 after Hollis' third field goal early in the third quarter. After the field goal, rookie Jason Craft returned a fumble 23 yards for his first NFL touchdown, then the offense clicked for 17 points. Late in the game, Aaron Beasley returned an interception 93 yards for a touchdown and a 41-3 final score. It marked the longest defensive score in team history. The Jaguars held the 49ers to 203 yards on offense and kept them out of the end zone, marking two straight games (season finale vs. Pittsburgh in 1998) that the Jaguars did not allow a touchdown. The Jaguars forced five turnovers and held the 49ers to just 1 of 14 on third downs. Jimmy Smith caught six passes for 139 yards, marking the 16th 100-yard game of his career and also extending his team record of 57 straight games with a reception.

GAME NOTES

■ Mike Hollis was 4 of 4 on field goal attempts, extending his streak to 17 straight field goals and breaking his previous team record of 16 consecutive field goals.

■ Mark Brunell passed for 265 yards and one touchdown, while Steve Young was held to nine completions in 26 attempts for 96 yards, with two interceptions.

■ CB Fernando Bryant made his first NFL start, becoming only the sixth Jaguars rookie to start on opening day. He held Jerry Rice to two catches for 17 yards.

JAGUARS 22, PANTHERS 20

ERICSSON STADIUM, CHARLOTTE, N.C.

|----------------------------|---|----|---|----|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-0) | 3 | 3 | 6 | 10 | — | 22 |
| CAROLINA PANTHERS (0-2) | 0 | 14 | 0 | 6 | — | 20 |

The Jaguars improved to 2-0 for the third straight season after stopping a two-point conversion try with 31 seconds remaining. On the Jaguars' first possession, Fred Taylor left the game with a strained hamstring and James Stewart took over at running back. After two field goals by the Jaguars, the Panthers scored two touchdowns to take a 14-6 lead into halftime. The Jaguars opened the second half with a one-yard run by Stewart, making it 14-12 after a failed two-point conversion. On the Panthers' only possession of the third quarter, the Jaguars defense allowed only three plays before Fernando Bryant picked off Steve Beuerlein for his first NFL interception. Mike Hollis kicked his third field goal of the game for a 15-14 lead, then he missed a 49-yarder, ending his streak of 20 straight field goals dating back to October 25, 1998. After the Panthers were stopped on their next drive, James Stewart ran for a 44-yard touchdown to give the Jaguars a 22-14 lead with 1:48 remaining in the game. The Panthers fought back and scored a touchdown on a nine-play, 70-yard march. However Lonnie Maris broke up the two-point conversion attempt to preserve the 22-20 win for the Jaguars. Statistically, the Jaguars dominated the game, out-gaining the Panthers 414 yards to 283 and holding the ball for 38:09 while rushing for 214 yards.

GAME NOTES

- RB James Stewart rushed for a career-high 124 yards, including a career-long 44 yard touchdown, in his first extensive action since suffering a torn ACL in the third game of the 1998 season.
- The Jaguars' 12 rushing first downs tied the team record, the 80 offensive plays were the most since 87 on 10/22/96 at St. Louis, and the 414 total yards were the most since 426 on 12/6/98 vs. Detroit.
- The Jaguars' starting lineup was the same for the second straight game, something that did not happen in 1998.

GAME 3 TITANS 20, JAGUARS 19

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|----|----|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-1) | 3 | 0 | 14 | 2 | — | 19 |

The Jaguars suffered their first loss of the season and only their fourth loss at home in four years. The Jaguars scored first with a 42-yard field goal by Mike Hollis in the first quarter. The Jaguars attempted a fake field goal on 4th-and-goal from the eight-yard line with 15 seconds remaining in the first half, but Bryan Baker was pushed out of bounds at the two. The Jaguars fumbled on their first drive of the second half, and the Titans took a 7-3 lead three plays later on an eight-yard reception by Eddie George. Aaron Beasley intercepted Neil O'Donnell and returned the ball 35 yards for a touchdown and a 17-7 Jaguars lead. In the fourth quarter, Tennessee came back with 44- and 48-yard field goals to cut the lead to 17-13. O'Donnell's second scoring pass gave Tennessee a 20-17 lead with 3:26 remaining in the game. The Jaguars drove to the Titans' three-yard line with 57 seconds remaining, but Brunell was intercepted in the end zone by Samari Rolle to end the Jacksonville comeback. The Jaguars held the Titans to 51 yards rushing on 26 carries but lost four turnovers. For Tennessee, the win was their ninth consecutive against AFC Central teams.

GAME NOTES

■ CB Aaron Beasley had his third interception of the season, equalling his career high and tying Chris Hudson for the team's career record of eight. His 35-yard touchdown return gave him two defensive scores in 1999 and three in his career.

■ WR Jimmy Smith had 10 catches for 129 yards, marking the fourth time in his career he had three straight 100-yard games and the second time he had done so in the first three games of the season (also in 1997).

■ The Jaguars' offensive line did not give up a sack for the first time in regular-season team history.

JAGUARS 17, STEELERS 3

OCTOBER 3, 1999

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-1) | 0 | 7 | 3 | 7 | — | 17 |
| PITTSBURGH STEELERS (2-2) | 0 | 3 | 0 | 0 | — | 3 |

The Jaguars won for the first time in Pittsburgh, handing the Steelers a 17-3 defeat, as the Jacksonville defense scored two safeties and kept the Steelers out of the end zone. Field position was critical, as Bryan Barker turned in a career-best six punts downed inside the Pittsburgh 15-yard line. In the second quarter, Mark Brunell found Keenan McCardell in the end zone for a seven-yard touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Fred Taylor, starting the game after sitting out the previous week, left the game in the second quarter after re aggravating his hamstring. Late in the second quarter the Steelers kicked a field goal as time expired in the half with Jacksonville leading 7-3. In the third quarter, the Jaguars turned a Pittsburgh turnover into three points with a 27-yard field goal by Hollis. After a Barker punt to the Steelers' one-yard line, the Steelers drove 60 yards, only to be stopped on 4th-and-1 with an incomplete pass. The Jaguars responded with a 41-yard field goal by Hollis to take a 13-3 lead in the fourth quarter. The Steelers' final two possessions ended on safeties. Tony Brackens had two-and-a-half sacks and forced three fumbles with one recovery to lead the defense, as the Jacksonville defense outscored the Pittsburgh offense 4-3. After getting no safeties in the team's first 72 games, the Jaguars had three in two games.

GAME NOTES

■ The Jaguars' offense gained 204 yards, including 85 yards on 10-of-25 passing from Mark Brunell, his lowest total ever in a full game as a starter. The 85 gross passing yards were the fewest since the team's inaugural game (69 vs. Houston on 9/3/95).

■ Bryan Barker punted eight times, with a team-record six inside the 20. Of the six inside the 20, two were downed at the one-yard line and another at the two-yard line, and the others at the five-, 11- and 12-yard lines.

■ The Jaguars' win was the first on the road in October since the 1995 season.

GAME 5 JAGUARS 16, JETS 6

OCTOBER 11, 1999

GIANTS STADIUM, EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.

| | | | | | | |

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-1) | 7 | 3 | 3 | 3 | — | 16 |
| NEW YORK JETS (1-4) | 0 | 3 | 0 | 3 | — | 6 |

In their first-ever road appearance on Monday Night Football, the Jaguars defeated the New York Jets 16-6 to go to 3-0 on the road for the season. James Stewart scored a touchdown and Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, which provided enough offense, as the defense kept the Jets out of the end zone and allowed just two field goals. After forcing the Jets to go three-and-out on the opening drive, the Jaguars drove 61 yards to score a touchdown on a three-yard run by Stewart. It marked the first time the Jaguars scored a touchdown on their opening possession in 1999. After the next Jacksonville drive stalled, Bryan Barker kicked a team-record 83-yard punt to pin the Jets deep. The Jaguars capitalized on a Rick Mirer interception with a 32-yard Hollis field goal to take a 10-0 lead, though the Jets cut the lead to 10-3 before the half. Hollis kicked a 21-yard field goal with 1:46 remaining in the game to give the Jaguars a 16-6 lead. The victory was sealed with a Donovan Darius interception of Mirer as time expired. Kyle Brady, facing his former team for the first time, led the Jaguars with five receptions for 42 yards. Tom Coughlin defeated Bill Parcells for the first time in four tries. For the second straight week and only the third time ever, the Jaguars scored just one touchdown and won the game, while the defense built a streak of eight consecutive quarters without allowing a touchdown.

GAME NOTES

- The Jaguars improved their Monday Night Football record to 4-0, the best mark in the league.
- Bryan Barker continued to excel, as he punted seven times for a 45.9 average, with one inside the 20 and two touchbacks. His 83-yard punt broke his previous team record of 65 yards set 10/18/98 at Buffalo and set a new personal best, topping his previous long of 67 yards when he was with the Philadelphia Eagles.
- The Jaguars' defense did not allow a touchdown in three of the first five games of the season, and it had eight interceptions and 18 sacks. Following the game, the defense ranked first in the NFL for the first time ever and for the first of 10 consecutive weeks.

GAME 6

JAGUARS 24, BROWNS 7

OCTOBER 17, 1999

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|----|---|----|
| CLEVELAND BROWNS (0-6) | 0 | 7 | 0 | 0 | — | 7 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-1) | 3 | 3 | 8 | 10 | — | 24 |

Jacksonville defeated the Cleveland Browns behind backup quarterback Jay Fiedler, who replaced an injured Mark Brunell in the third quarter and completed 12 of 14 passes. Mike Hollis kicked a 20-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead on the Jaguars' first possession. Chris Palmer, who spent the previous two seasons as the Jaguars' offensive coordinator, returned to Jacksonville as the Browns' head coach and orchestrated a 70-yard drive capped by a Tim Couch touchdown pass to take a 7-3 lead in the second quarter. It marked the first touchdown scored on the Jacksonville defense in nine quarters. Hollis kicked another field goal in the second quarter, but Cleveland led 7-6. In the second half, Brunell left the game with a muscle pull under his ribs at the end of the first series and was replaced by Fiedler, who, in his first lengthy action in the NFL, led the Jaguars to 18 second-half points. First, Fiedler found Kyle Brady in the end zone for a touchdown, Brady's first as a Jaguar and Fiedler's first in the NFL. The two-point conversion was good, as Fiedler again found Brady, to take a 14-7 lead. The Jaguars' defense forced Cleveland three-and-out, and Hollis kicked his third field goal of the day to give the Jaguars a 24-7 lead with less than a minute remaining in the game. The Jacksonville offense held the ball for 10:37 in the fourth quarter and the defense allowed only 82 total yards in the second half. The Jaguars entered the bye week at 5-1 for the third straight season.

GAME NOTES

■ Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, and with his 10 points he topped the 500-point mark in his career.

■ The Jaguars recorded four sacks (one each by Kevin Hardy, James Robinson, Joel Smeengo and Gary Walker) for the fifth time in six games to lead the NFL, with 22 on the season. The defense did not have an interception for the first game in 1999.

■ Jay Fiedler finished 12 of 14 for 113 yards and one touchdown. Going into the game, Fiedler was 3 for 8 for 41 yards and one interception in his four NFL seasons.

GAME 7 JAGUARS 41, BENGALS 10

OCTOBER 31, 1999
CINERGY FIELD, CINCINNATI, OH.

|----------------------------|----|----|---|---|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-1) | 14 | 13 | 7 | 7 | — | 41 |
| CINCINNATI BENGALS (1-7) | 0 | 0 | 3 | 7 | — | 10 |

Returning to the field on Halloween following the bye week, the Jaguars moved to 6-1 for the first time with a 41-10 win over the Bengals in Cincinnati, improving to 4-0 on the road. The game marked the return of Fred Taylor, who ran for 128 yards on 15 carries with one touchdown, including 126 yards in the first half. The Jacksonville offense scored on its first five possessions, with a one-yard run by Taylor and a 23-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Keenan McCardell in the first quarter, then a three-yard pass to Jimmy Smith and two Mike Hollis field goals in the second quarter. Jacksonville led 27-0 at the break. The Bengals opened the second half with a field goal after controlling the ball for more than seven minutes. Jay Fiedler played in the second half for Brunell and hit on six of nine passes. Stewart scored twice on one-yard runs in the second half to increase the lead to 41-3. The Bengals scored their lone touchdown on the final play of the game to avoid the team's worst-ever loss. The Jacksonville defense held opponent to 10 points or fewer in six of its last eight games. The defense also recorded four sacks for the sixth time, and it was the sixth game with at least one interception for the NFL's top-ranked defense.

GAME NOTES

■ Aaron Beasley's interception was his fourth of the season and ninth of his career, breaking the team record of eight set by Chris Hudson (1995-96).

■ Fred Taylor returned after missing three games with a hamstring injury and rushed for 128 yards on 15 carries. His 8.5 yards per carry average was a team record, topping his mark of 7.4 on 10/12/98 vs. Miami.

■ The offense scored in a team-record 15 straight quarters, and had scored in 26 of 28 quarters on the season to date.

GAME 8 JAGUARS 30, FALCONS 7

NOVEMBER 7, 1999
GEORGIA DOME, ATLANTA, GA.

|----------------------------|---|----|----|---|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (7-1) | 7 | 10 | 10 | 3 | — | 30 |
| ATLANTA FALCONS (2-7) | 0 | 7 | 0 | 0 | — | 7 |

The Jaguars won their fifth straight game of the year 30-7 over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome, improving to a best-ever 7-1 record. Mark Brunell threw for three touchdowns and Fred Taylor rushed for 124 yards, but the defense was the story. The NFL's top-ranked unit recorded a team-record nine sacks and caused four turnovers, as they held an opponent to single-digits for the fifth time of the season. The Jaguars struck quickly on their second possession of the game with a 44-yard bomb from Brunell to Jimmy Smith to take a 7-0 lead. The Jaguars scored again on a nine-yard pass from Brunell to Damon Jones. Chris Chandler was intercepted for the second time in the half, and the Jaguars capitalized with a 27-yard field goal by Mike Hollis to take a 17-0 lead. The Falcons responded scoring on a 17-yard pass to Tim Dwight late in the first half. In the third quarter the Jaguars scored on a 24-yard field goal by Hollis and a two-yard pass from Brunell to Keenan McCardell to take a 27-7 lead, while the Jaguars defense held the Falcons to only six yards on 10 plays in the quarter. In the fourth quarter, the defense sacked Chandler three more times and backup quarterback Tony Graziani once, and Tony Brackens intercepted Graziani with two minutes remaining in the game. The offense added a third field goal by Hollis for the 30-7 final margin. It marked the Jaguars' fifth straight win on the road, breaking the team record of four road wins in both 1997 and 1998.

GAME NOTES

■ Through eight games, the Jaguars' defense had given up just eight touchdowns, with no rushing touchdowns allowed. The NFL-leading 35 sacks by the defense topped the total of 30 sacks made in the 1998 season.

■ Fred Taylor had his second consecutive 100-yard game, carrying the ball 27 times for 124 yards. It marked the eighth 100-yard game of his career.

■ The Falcons' 42 rushing yards was the lowest by a Jacksonville opponent in 1999 and the fourth-lowest in team history (record: 36, 10/6/96 at New Orleans).

GAME 9

JAGUARS 6, RAVENS 3

NOVEMBER 14, 1999

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| BALTIMORE RAVENS (3-6) | 0 | 3 | 0 | 0 | — | 3 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (8-1) | 0 | 3 | 3 | 0 | — | 6 |

In a battle between the league's top two defenses, the Jaguars won their sixth consecutive game and improved to 8-1 with a 6-3 home victory over Baltimore. Mike Hollis kicked two field goals and the Jaguars held Baltimore to a single field goal, as Jacksonville won its first game ever without scoring a touchdown. Fred Taylor saw action in the first quarter before re-aggravating his left hamstring and missing the remainder of the game. The Jaguars' special teams came up big with a blocked punt by Dave Thomas to give Jacksonville the ball at the Raven's 14-yard line early in the second quarter. However the Ravens' defense forced the Jaguars to settle for a 28-yard field goal. On Baltimore's ensuing drive, Fernando Bryant recovered a fumble forced by Lonnie Marts, but the offense was not able to convert the game's only turnover into points. The Ravens tied the game with a 23-yard field goal to end the first half. On the Jaguars' second possession of the second half, they drove to the Ravens' four-yard line and took a 6-3 lead on another 28-yard field goal. In the fourth quarter, Hollis missed a 41-yard field goal after making two attempts which were negated by penalties on the previous plays. The Ravens drove to the Jaguars' 34-yard line late in the game, but Tony Banks was sacked by Gary Walker on fourth down to end the game and preserve the 6-3 victory. Field position was a key in the game, as Bryan Barker placed a team-record eight of his nine punts inside the 20-yard line. In addition, two of Steve Lindsey's three kickoffs were touchbacks, as the Raven's average starting field position was the 19-yard line, compared with the Jaguars' 44-yard line starting position. The Jaguars were held to 132 yards of total offense, the lowest in franchise history (previous low: 146 on 9/3/95 vs. Houston in the team's inaugural game), but they held their sixth straight opponent to 10 points or fewer.

GAME NOTES

- The Jaguars' streak of 19 consecutive quarters with a score was snapped when they failed to score in the first period.
- The defense recorded four sacks for the seventh time in 1999, giving the Jaguars a league-high 39 for the season, but the offense allowed a season-high six sacks.
- At 8-1 the Jaguars owned the NFL's best record, with the defense yielding just 79 points through nine games, best ever by any NFL team in a 16-game season.

GAME 10

JAGUARS 41, SAINTS 23

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (9-1) | 14 | 3 | 14 | 10 | - | 41 |

The Jaguars improved to 9-1 with a Sunday night victory over the New Orleans Saints for their seventh straight win. The Jacksonville offense totaled 494 yards, led by Mark Brunell's 351 passing yards and Jimmy Smith's 220 receiving yards on nine catches. The Jaguars forced the Saints to punt on the first possession of the game, and Reggie Barlow returned the kick 74 yards for a touchdown. It was the second punt return for a touchdown in his career and the second longest in team history. The Saints responded with a one-yard scoring run by Billy Joe Tolleriver — the first rushing touchdown scored by a Jaguars' opponent. Following a Brunell TD pass to Damon Jones, Ricky Williams scored his first NFL touchdown, tying the game 14-14. The Saints took the lead on a 52-yard field goal, then Mike Hollis matched it with a 45-yarder as the half ended. The second half was all Jaguars, as they scored touchdowns on their first two possessions. Hollis added a 32-yard field goal for a 34-17 lead, then Fernando Bryant intercepted Billy Joe Hobert and the Jaguars converted the turnover into a one-yard TD run by James Stewart. The defense allowed its most points (23), most touchdowns (3) and most yards (339) of the season to date.

GAME NOTES

- Jimmy Smith's 220 yards on nine catches were a career high, surpassing his previous best of 164 (9/22/97 vs. Pittsburgh). It marked the second-best receiving performance in the NFL in 1999.
- With two touchdowns, James Stewart scored nine rushing touchdowns on the season, a career high. His 140 combined yards were the second most in his career.
- The Jaguars' big plays returned, with four plays of 30-plus yards, the most since October 12, 1998.

GAME 11

JAGUARS 30, RAVENS 23

NOVEMBER 28, 1999
PSINET STADIUM, BALTIMORE, MD.

|-----------------------------|----|---|---|----|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (10-1) | 0 | 7 | 0 | 23 | - | 30 |
| BALTIMORE RAVENS (4-7) | 10 | 3 | 3 | 7 | - | 23 |

Scoring 23 points in the fourth quarter against the league's No. 2 defense, the Jaguars overcame a 16-7 deficit to defeat the Ravens 30-23 and improve to an NFL-best 10-1 record. The win gave Jacksonville its eighth consecutive victory and marked the eighth straight win over the Ravens. The Ravens scored a touchdown on their first possession of the game, marking the first score by a Jacksonville opponent on its opening drive, and they took an early 10-0 lead. In the second quarter, Tony Brackens sacked Tony Banks and forced a fumble, which was recovered by Lonnie Marts. The Jaguars then drove 85 yards and scored on an eight-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith to cut the lead to 10-7. The Ravens took a 13-7 halftime lead on a 31-yard field goal. The Jaguars began their fourth quarter comeback with a one-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Keenan McCardell. Brackens intercepted Banks on the next play and returned it 16 yards for a touchdown and, after the two-point conversion, the Jaguars held a 22-16 lead. After both teams traded punts, the Ravens took a 23-22 lead on a three-yard touchdown pass. The Jaguars responded by going 78 yards in 12 plays, and James Stewart ran in for a four-yard touchdown to take a 30-23 lead after the two-point conversion. The Ravens took over with 1:32 remaining in the game, but Kevin Hardy sacked Banks, who fumbled with the ball recovered by Brackens.

GAME NOTES

- With 132 yards on 10 catches, Jimmy Smith passed the 1,000-yard mark for the fourth consecutive season.
- Tony Brackens had his ninth sack of the year, topping the team's single-season record held by Clyde Simmons (8.5 in 1997). His interception was the team's 15th, also breaking the club's single-season mark.
- Mark Brunell matched his career best with his 10th win as a starter.

GAME 12

JAGUARS 20, STEELERS 6

DECEMBER 2, 1999

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| PITTSBURGH STEELERS (5-7) | 3 | 0 | 3 | 0 | — | 6 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-1) | 0 | 6 | 7 | 7 | — | 20 |

The Jaguars defeated the Steelers on "Thursday Night Football" for the first sweep of the series. The Jacksonville offense had a 300-yard passer, two 100-yard receivers and a 100-yard rusher for the first time, and the defense held the Steelers to only 63 rushing yards. The Steelers took an early lead on a 40-yard field goal to cap their first possession. On the following possession, the Jaguars' punt by Bryan Barker was partially blocked and traveled only 11 yards, but the Steelers could not take advantage of the field position, as the Jaguars' defense forced Pittsburgh three-and-out. The Jaguars got on the scoreboard with two minutes left in the first half with a 25-yard field goal by Mike Hollis, then they took a 6-3 lead on a 32-yard Hollis field goal as time expired. The Steelers tied the game 6-6 with a 39-yard field goal. The Jaguars' offense responded with a 27-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith to take a 13-6 lead. After forcing Pittsburgh to punt, the Jaguars scored in the fourth quarter with a 10-play, 80-yard drive, capped by a one-yard run by James Stewart to take a 20-6 lead. On the Steelers' final two possessions, they failed on a 4th-and-14 play and then ran out of time. Brunell's 308 yards passing marked the first time he had thrown for over 300 yards in three consecutive games, and it marked the sixth time that both Smith and Keenan McCardell had 100 yards in the same game. Stewart's 145 rushing yards were the second most in team history, as he topped his previous best for rushing yards, attempts, combined yards and touchdowns in a season.

GAME NOTES

■ Jimmy Smith's 10 catches gave him 85 for the season, breaking his career high of 63 and tying the team record of 85 set by Keenan McCardell in 1996 and 1997.

■ With one sack, Tony Brackens became the Jaguars' first double-digit sacker (10). It gave him 27.5 in his career, breaking the team record of 27.0 held by Joel Smeenge.

■ James Stewart set a career high with 145 yards rushing on a career-high 30 attempts. His previous best was 124 yards on 9/19/99 at Carolina. He scored his 11th touchdown on the season, which was also a career high.

GAME 13

| DENVER BRONCOS (4-9) | 7 | 7 | 3 | 7 | — | 24 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-1) | 0 | 17 | 0 | 10 | — | 27 |

Jacksonville improved to a league-best 12-1 with a 10-game winning streak and qualified for the playoffs for the fourth time in the team's five-year history. The Jaguars gained 161 yards on the ground as James Stewart rushed for 79 yards and two touchdowns and Fred Taylor returned to action for the first time in a month to run for 74 yards and one TD. Denver took an early lead, scoring two touchdowns on its first two possessions. Jacksonville responded by scoring on its next three drives. After Stewart's first TD run of five yards, Mike Hollis kicked a 49-yard field goal to cut the Broncos' lead to 14-10. The Jaguars converted an Aaron Beasley interception into points, as Stewart scored his second touchdown of the night on a one-yard run. In the third quarter, a steady rain began which would continue throughout the second half. The Broncos tied the game at 17-17 with a 40-yard field goal. With 2:35 remaining, Taylor scored a touchdown on a 38-yard run. The Broncos responded by driving 80 yards in five plays, scoring on a 57-yard reception to tie the score at 24-24 with 1:43 left. The Jaguars took over at their 27-yard line and moved to the Denver 27-yard line after a pass interference call on the Broncos. Taylor moved the ball to the Denver 5 with three seconds left, and Hollis made his 23-yard attempt to cap the comeback.

GAME NOTES

■ With five catches, Jimmy Smith reached an NFL-leading 90 receptions on the season, a Jaguars single-season record.

■ Tony Brackens had one sack, giving the team 48 for the season and tying the club record set in 1997. It was Brackens' 11th sack of the season, and he also forced his ninth fumble of the year.

■ With the win, the Jaguars registered the highest winning percentage of the current 31 teams in the NFL. The Jaguars improved to 47-30 with a winning percentage of .610, three-tenths of a point higher than the Miami Dolphins' .507 percentage.

GAME 14

JAGUARS 24, BROWNS 14

DECEMBER 19, 1999

CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM, CLEVELAND, OHIO

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|----|---|---|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (13-1) | 0 | 14 | 3 | 7 | — | 24 |
| CLEVELAND BROWNS (2-13) | 0 | 7 | 7 | 0 | — | 14 |

The Jaguars defeated the Browns for their 11th straight victory and seventh straight on the road. Mark Brunell passed for 267 yards and one touchdown and also scored a rushing touchdown. Starting for the first time in five weeks, Fred Taylor rushed for a season-high 136 yards and scored on a 41-yard run in the fourth quarter, which clinched the win. In the first quarter, the Jaguars turned the ball over twice, on a fumble by Jimmy Smith and an interception by Brunell, but neither turnover resulted in points for the Browns. On the Jaguars' second defensive series, Kevin Hardy was hit by Tony Brackens while making a tackle, and he did not return to the game due to a neck burner. Early in the second quarter, Brunell connected with Damon Jones on a three-yard pass to take a 7-0 lead. Later in the second quarter, the Jaguars scored on a nine-yard run by Brunell, his first rushing touchdown since December 14, 1997 at Buffalo, for a 14-0 lead. The Browns cut the lead to 14-7 following an 11-play, 68-yard drive. On the first series of the second half, Hollis kicked a 41-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. The Browns scored late in the third quarter to cut the Jaguars' lead to 17-14. Taylor then gave the Jaguars a 10-point lead by running for a 41-yard TD, his longest of the season, early in the fourth quarter. The Jacksonville defense then kept the Browns out of the end zone on their final two drives, as the Jaguars improved to 13-1, the best record in the NFL. It also marked the second time the Jaguars had swept the series with the Browns.

GAME NOTES

- With eight catches for 134 yards, Jimmy Smith broke his own single-season receiving record with 1,367 yards. The previous record was 1,324 in 1997.
- With six sacks against Cleveland, the Jaguars reached 54 on the season, breaking the team record of 48 in 1997.
- Tony Brackens had a sack in his fourth consecutive game, tying his own team record set in 1997. It was his 12th sack of the season, extending his single-season team record.

GAME 15
TITANS 41, JAGUARS 14
 DECEMBER 26, 1999
 ADELPHI COLISEUM, NASHVILLE, TENN.

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|----|----|---|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (13-2) | 0 | 7 | 7 | 0 | — | 14 |
| TENNESSEE TITANS (12-3) | 7 | 17 | 14 | 3 | — | 41 |

With a chance to win their second consecutive AFC Central Division title, the Jaguars suffered their second loss of the season to the Titans at Adelphi Coliseum. It marked the most points allowed by the Jaguars all year, as well as the most yards allowed both passing and rushing. The Titans controlled the game from the start, as they took the opening kickoff and drove 78 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. After another touchdown on a long pass, Tennessee took a 17-0 lead on a 30-yard field goal. The Jaguars cut the lead to 17-7 with a one-yard touchdown run by Fred Taylor. Mark Brunell suffered a sprained left MCL on the play prior to the touchdown and did not return to the game. In the second half, the Titans struck with a 65-yard scoring pass to take a 31-7 lead. On the following play, Jay Fiedler was intercepted, and then Tennessee extend the lead to 38-7 on Steve McNair's fifth touchdown pass of the day. On the ensuing kickoff, Alvis Whitted raced 98 yards for a touchdown, the longest kickoff return in team history, to cut the lead to 38-14. The loss was the only one on the road for the Jaguars in 1999, as they finished the season 7-1 away from home. The 27-point margin of victory was the first time in the 10-game series in which the game was decided by more than eight points, and the home team won for just the second time in the series. The game also marked the first time all season that the Jaguars allowed a 100-yard rusher, as Eddie George ran for 102 yards on 26 carries. Jacksonville's 21:30 time of possession was a record low in the team's first 79 games.

GAME NOTES

- The 27-point loss was the third worst in franchise history, and all three came in Week 15 on the road (44-0 at Detroit Dec. 17, 1995 and 50-10 at Minnesota on Dec. 20, 1998).
- The defense failed to register a sack for the first time since November 22, 1998 at Pittsburgh, a span of 20 games.
- Jimmy Smith reached 104 catches on the season, becoming one of only 19 players in NFL history to record 100 or more catches in a season.

GAME 16

JAGUARS 24, BENGALS 7

JANUARY 2, 2000

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|----|---|---|---|----|
| CINCINNATI BENGALS (4-12) | 7 | 0 | 0 | 0 | - | 7 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (14-2) | 7 | 10 | 0 | 7 | - | 24 |

The 14-2 Jaguars won their second straight AFC Central title and claimed the No. 1 seed in the AFC playoffs with a 24-7 win over the Bengals. Jay Fiedler made his first NFL start in place of the injured Mark Brunell and passed for 317 yards with one touchdown, becoming the first Jaguars quarterback other than Brunell to have a 300-yard game. Jimmy Smith caught a personal-best 14 passes for 165 yards and Fred Taylor rushed for 85 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Jaguars. The Bengals converted a James Stewart fumble into a touchdown to take a 7-0 lead, then the Jaguars responded with a 13-yard touchdown run by Taylor. Fiedler, who completed 28 of his 39 passes, found McCardell with a 25-yard touchdown pass to take a 14-7 lead. After forcing a three-and-out, the Jaguars moved to the Bengals' nine-yard line and Mike Hollis kicked a 27-yard field goal to take a 17-7 lead at the half. At the end of the third quarter, Dave Thomas intercepted a deep pass by Blake at the one-yard line and returned it 36 yards. The Jaguars scored in the fourth quarter on a one-yard run by Taylor to take a 24-7 lead. After forcing the Bengals to turn the ball over on downs with 5:52 remaining in the game, the Jaguars were able to hold onto the ball and run out the clock for the win. In the second half, the Jaguars' offense held the ball for more than 19 minutes, while the defense held the Bengals to just 65 total yards. With 14 catches, Smith finished the season with 116, highest in the NFL and a Jaguars record. The Jaguars improved to 5-0 in regular-season finales, and they finished 7-1 at home for the fourth year in a row.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-2) | 24 | 17 | 14 | 7 | - | 62 |

Scoring on their first five possessions, the Jaguars advanced to their second AFC Championship game in four seasons with a record-setting defeat of the Miami Dolphins, in what would be Dan Marino's final NFL game. The 62 points scored were the second most in NFL postseason history and the most scored in an AFC playoff game, and the 55-point margin of victory was the second-largest in NFL postseason history. Mark Brunell returned to action after missing the season finale with a knee injury. Fred Taylor ran 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest in NFL postseason history. The 41 points in the first half tied the NFL postseason record. The Dolphins were forced three-and-out on the opening drive of the second half and Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown to take a 48-7 lead. The Jaguars scored twice more in the game, on a touchdown reception by Ahvis Whitted, and a five-yard run by Chris Howard. The 62 points scored were the most ever by the Jaguars in regular season or postseason.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-3) | 7 | 7 | 0 | 0 | — | 14 |

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end, as the Titans defeated the Jaguars for the third time in the season and the fourth straight time overall. A record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start, with the offense scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Kyle Brady. The Titans responded with a nine-yard touchdown catch by Yancey Thigpen. After forcing a Titans' three-and-out, the Jaguars took a 14-7 lead on a 33-yard touchdown run by James Stewart. But Reggie Barlow fumbled a Titans' punt that was recovered by the Titans at the 19-yard line. Tennessee kicked a field goal to cut the lead to 14-10 at the half. The second half was all Tennessee, as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans took a 17-14 lead on a one-yard run by Steve McNair. Kevin Hardy forced a fumble at the Jaguars' one-yard line, but Brunell was sacked for the first safety of the season to give Tennessee a 19-14 lead. On the free kick, Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover, as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score. The Jaguars suffered six turnovers in the game (their most since October 1996), they had 100 yards on nine penalties (their most since November 1997) and they were shut out in the second half for the first time since 1996. The Jaguars allowed 91 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns by McNair, the most ever by an opposing quarterback. On each of the Jaguars' four takeaways, they turned the ball back over to the Titans.

HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1989

Aug. 17 — Touchdown Jacksonville, a partnership to lead the community effort to win an NFL franchise is formed. The group, led by Tom Petway, includes Jeb Bush, Hamilton Jordan, and Arthur "Chick" Sherner.

1990

April 4 — National Football League commissioner Paul Tagliabue announces that the League will expand by two teams no later than the 1993 season.

July 26 — The NFL Realignment and Expansion Committee recommends that the League expand by two teams for the 1993 season.

Feb. 12 — In a unanimous vote, the Jacksonville City Council votes to commit $60 million to renovate the Gator Bowl contingent upon the City being awarded an expansion football team.

May 15 — The NFL Realignment and Expansion Committee recommends that the League expand by two teams for the 1994 season, contrary to the July 26, 1990 vote.

May 22 — At the owners' meeting in Minneapolis, a plan is approved that will add two expansion teams to the League for the 1994 season.

May 30 — Florida Governor Lawton Chiles signs into law the Professional Sports Facilities Program, a state statute that provides state funding of up to $2 million for 30 years for funding new sports facilities that operate in the state of Florida.

June 25 — The lease that includes the recently approved $60 million package to renovate the Gator Bowl is approved by City Council.

July 17 — The NFL announces that it will accept applications for expansion teams.

Sept. 14 — The City of Jacksonville files an expansion application with the League, one of 11 cities to apply.

Oct. 1 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. submits its ownership application to the League. The nine-member partnership includes local businessman and Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. general partner Tom Petway. J. Wayne Weaver is one of the eight limited partners, along with Jeb Bush, Lawrence DuBow, Earl Hadlow, Preston Haskell, Sandy McArthur, Charles Towers and Ron Weaver.

Oct. 24 — David Seldin is named president and chief operating officer of Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd.

Dec. 6 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. announces that the team name will be the Jacksonville Jaguars if an expansion team is awarded.

Dec. 10 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. and City officials make the group's first presentation to commissioner Tagliabue and other NFL officials in New York.

March 17 — At the League's annual winter meeting in Phoenix, the list of expansion candidate cities is cut from 11 to seven. Jacksonville is one of the seven; Nashville, San Antonio, Raleigh-Durham, and Honolulu are eliminated.

May 19 — The five finalists in the expansion race are named: Jacksonville, Charlotte, Baltimore, Memphis, St. Louis. Sacramento and Oakland are eliminated.

Oct. 20 — Citing complications surrounding the ongoing labor situation, the NFL votes to delay the expansion announcement to its 1993 fall meeting in Chicago and for expansion teams to begin play in 1995.

Jan. 6 — A seven-year Collective Bargaining Agreement is reached between the League and its players. With the labor situation resolved, a new expansion timetable is expected in March.

March 18 — J. Wayne Weaver is introduced as managing general partner of Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd.

March 23 — The expansion race is officially resumed by the NFL.

April 12 — After a tour with Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. representatives, NFL officials indicate that additional renovations beyond those already planned would be necessary to renovate the Gator Bowl to NFL standards.

June 25 — Negotiations for a new lease between Jacksonville Mayor Ed Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. break down.

July 1 — Mayor Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. resume negotiations and agree on a plan that caps stadium renovation costs at $112 million and protects the city from cost overruns. Mayor Austin sends the lease to City Council for approval.

July 21 — The Jacksonville City Council fails to approve the newly negotiated $112 million stadium proposal. As a result, Weaver announces that Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. is ending its bid for an NFL expansion franchise.

July 22 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. closes offices and club seat and executive suite deposits are returned.

Aug. 20 — The Florida Times-Union reports that negotiations between Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. and the City have resumed, encouraged by the NFL and at the request of Times-Union publisher Carl Cannon and Chamber of Commerce chairman Adam Herbert.

Aug. 21 — Mayor Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville reach an agreement on a new stadium lease capping stadium renovation costs at $121 million, $53 million to come from City funds and $68 million from team and team related sources. As project manager, Touchdown Jacksonville assumes responsibility for any cost overruns.

Aug. 22 — Facing the challenge of selling 9,000 club seats, a committee of civic and business leaders is formed called NFL Now!, headed by Carl Cannon and Adam Herbert.

Aug. 23 — The City Council votes 14-4 to approve the new lease.

Aug. 24 — With the new public/private partnership, Weaver and Mayor Austin meet with commissioner Tagliabue, who welcomes Jacksonville back into the expansion race.

Aug. 25 — NFL Now! begins a 10-day drive to sell the required club seats.

Aug. 26 — Former Kansas City Chiefs defensive back Deron Cherry joins Touchdown Jacksonville as the ninth member of the ownership group.

Sept. 3 — Carl Cannon of NFL Now! announces that 9,737 club seats have been sold, a number that rises to 10,112 once all the applications are processed.

Sept. 21 — Weaver and other Touchdown Jacksonville officials make their presentation to the NFL finance and expansion committees.

Oct. 28 — In Chicago, League owners select the Carolina Panthers for an expansion team but delay the announcement of the second expansion city.

Nov. 30 (4:12 p.m. ET) — In Chicago, Jacksonville is awarded the 30th franchise in the National Football League.

Dec. 1 — A victory celebration in the Gator Bowl, as 25,000 Jaguars fans battle cold and rain to welcome Wayne Weaver, Jaguars officials, city officials and community leaders upon their return from Chicago.

Wayne Weaver was all smiles on November 30, 1993 when Jacksonville was awarded the 30th franchise in the National Football League

- Jan. 3 — Demolition of the Gator Bowl begins.
- Jan. 6 — The Jaguars announce a season ticket sellout for their first three seasons. Over 56,000 season tickets are sold through Dec. 31, just one month after the awarding of the team.
- Feb. 21 — Tom Coughlin is hired as head coach of the Jaguars. The former Boston College head coach and assistant with the New York Giants brings six of his assistants with him.
- Aug. 24 — The Jaguars announce that they will hold their first training camp in 1995 at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.
- Sept. 14 — The Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation, Inc. is established, under the direction of Delores Barr Weaver and Dr. Gregory S. Gross.
- Sept. 28 — The NFL announces specific plans to stock the expansion teams.
- Nov. 1 — The Jaguars hold their first official workout at Bishop Kenny High School. Thirteen offensive linemen work out in front of 1,500 fans.
- Nov. 2 — The NFL announces its plans for division alignment, putting the Jaguars in the AFC Central Division along with the Cincinnati Bengals, Cleveland Browns, Houston Oilers and Pittsburgh Steelers. The Carolina Panthers will join the NFC West Division.
- Dec. 15 — The Jaguars sign the first 10 players in team history: WR Shannon Baker, LB Hillary Butler, DE Ferric Collons, OL Greg Huntington, RB Randy Jordan, DE Ernie Logan, OT Rickie Shaw, DE Jason Simmons, DE Ricky Sutton, DE Chris Williams.

- Jan. 12 — Dick Jauron is hired as defensive coordinator. Jauron had spent nine years with the Green Bay Packers as an assistant coach in charge of defensive backs.
- Jan. 14 — Kevin Gilbride is introduced as the Jaguars' offensive coordinator. He had previously been the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator of the Houston Oilers.
- Jan. 20 — The Jaguars unveil their new logo and team uniform.
- Jan. 21 — Larry Pasquale is hired as the team's special teams coordinator.
- Feb. 14 — The Jaguars draft 31 players in the expansion draft. The first player selected is Arizona quarterback Steve Beuerlein. During the draft, the Jaguars acquire such veteran players as Desmond Howard, Keith Gogianous, Damen Carrington, Reggie Cobb, Eugene Chung and Derek Brown.
- Feb. 28 — The Jaguars sign their first unrestricted free agents: guard Shawn Bouwens and defensive linemen Joel Smeenge and Don Davey. Within 15 days, six more unrestricted free-agents are signed: cornerback Vinnie Clark, punter Bryan Barker, cornerback Mickey Washington, defensive tackle Kelvin Pritchett, defensive end Jeff Lageman and center Dave Widell.
- March 23 — The Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation awards its first grants to eight local organizations totaling $139,850.
- April 21 — The first trade in Jaguars history: Jacksonville acquires quarterback Mark Brunell from the Green Bay Packers in exchange for draft picks in the third and fifth rounds of the 1995 draft.
- April 22 — Southern California offensive tackle Tony Boselli becomes the Jaguars' first-ever selection in the college draft, the second overall pick. Later in the first round, running back James Stewart is chosen 19th overall after the Jaguars trade up in the round. The Jaguars select a total of 10 players during the two-day draft.
- April 28-30 — The first minicamp is held on the practice fields adjacent to the new stadium.
- June 1 — The Jaguars sign their entire first class of draft choices at the same time, an event unprecedented in NFL history.
- June 2-8 — The second minicamp is held, with one practice session being conducted in front of 2,500 fans at Bishop Kenny High School.
- June 10 — "The Roar of the Jaguars," the team's cheerleaders squad, is introduced at The Landing in downtown Jacksonville. The squad includes 36 cheerleaders.
- July 6 — The Jaguars' first-ever training camp opens at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.
- July 29 — The Jaguars play their first preseason contest in the Pro Football Hall of Fame game in Canton, Ohio, but lose to the Carolina Panthers 20-14 when a last-minute drive ends at the Panthers' two-yard line.
- Aug. 18 — Jacksonville Municipal Stadium opens, as the Jaguars host their first home preseason game. However, they lose to the St. Louis Rams 27-10.
- Sept. 3 — The Jaguars play their inaugural game in front of 72,363 fans but lose to the Houston Oilers 10-3.
- Oct. 1 — The Jaguars get their first win 17-16 at Houston in the fifth week of the regular season — the third-fastest first victory in NFL expansion history and the fastest to earn a win on the road.
- Oct. 8 — The Jaguars defeat AFC Central rival Pittsburgh Steelers 20-16 for their first home victory, the only time in NFL history an expansion team has ever defeated a team that would go on to play in the Super Bowl the same season.

A missed field goal by Atlanta's Morten Andersen on December 22, 1996 propelled the Jaguars into the playoffs for the first time ever.

- Oct. 22 — The Jaguars record their third win of the season at Cleveland with a 23-15 victory.
Dec. 3 — Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith scores a team-record three touchdowns three different ways at Denver — on a blocked punt, off a lateral on a kickoff return and on a pass reception — an extreme rarity in NFL history.
Dec. 24 — The Jaguars break the previous record for victories by an expansion team with a last-second 24-21 win over Cleveland in the Browns' final game before a three-year absence.

- Feb. 18 — Pittsburgh Steelers offensive tackle Leon Searcy becomes the first unrestricted free agent to sign with the Jaguars in 1996.
March 1 — Free agent Eddie Robinson signs from Houston, bolstering a young linebacker corps.
March 2 — Keenan McCardell, Cleveland's leading wide receiver in 1995, signs a free agent contract with the Jaguars.
April 20 — Illinois outside linebacker Kevin Hardy is selected with the Jaguars' first pick in the 1996 college draft, the second overall player chosen. By the early third round, the Jaguars also draft defensive end Tony Brackens, center Michael Cheever and defensive back Aaron Bessley.
July 19 — The Jaguars open their second training camp, their first at Ferrell Fields at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium. The practice fields were named in memory of Roger Ernest Ferrell Sr. in a morning dedication.
Sept. 1 — The Jaguars open their second season with a 24-9 victory over the defending AFC champion Pittsburgh Steelers. It marks the first game the Jacksonville defense does not allow a touchdown.
Sept. 22 — Mark Brunell throws for a team-record 432 yards and three touchdowns, but the Jaguars lose their first-ever overtime game 28-25 at New England.
Sept. 29 — In the first regular-season game between the two 1995 expansion teams, Jacksonville beats Carolina 24-14 as James Stewart runs for two TDs and the Jaguars rush for a team-record 179 yards.
Oct. 20 — Keenan McCardell catches 16 passes — tied for the third-highest total in pro football history — for a team-record 232 yards. However, despite breaking or tying 28 team records for single-game performances, the Jaguars lose at St. Louis 17-14.
Nov. 24 — The Jaguars win at Baltimore 30-27 for their first overtime victory on a 34-yard field goal by Mike Hollis.
Dec. 12 — Keenan McCardell becomes the first Jaguar voted to the Pro Bowl. Mark Brunell and Tony Boselli are later added as replacements, and Brunell goes on to win MVP honors in the Feb. 2 game in Honolulu.
Dec. 22 — The Jaguars clinch their first playoff berth in franchise history with a 19-17 victory over the Atlanta Falcons, as Morten Andersen's 30-yard field goal attempt goes wide left.

Dec. 28 — The first second-year expansion franchise in NFL history to play a postseason game, the Jaguars become the first team to defeat the Buffalo Bills in a playoff game in Rich Stadium. Natrone Means leads the way in the 30-27 victory by running for 175 yards.

1997

Jan. 4 — The Jaguars post the biggest upset in the NFL since Joe Namath led the Jets to victory in Super Bowl III, as they stun the football world and the Denver Broncos with a 30-27 victory. After flying back to Jacksonville, the team finds 40,000 fans waiting for them at 1:30 a.m. in Jacksonville Municipal Stadium.

Jan. 12 — The Jaguars' Cinderella season ends short of the Super Bowl, as Jacksonville is defeated by the New England Patriots 20-6 in the AFC Championship game. Jaguars turnovers led to 17 of the Patriots' 20 points in a game played in a wind chill of 0 degrees.

Jan. 23 — David Seidin resigns as Jaguars president but remains as a partner.

Feb. 5 — Chris Palmer is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kevin Gilbride who had become head coach of the San Diego Chargers.

March 5 — The Jaguars sign their only 1997 unrestricted free agent, Pittsburgh cornerback Deon Figures.

April 18 — ALLTEL Stadium becomes the new name for Jacksonville Municipal Stadium in a sponsorship agreement with the information technology and communications provider.

April 19 — Jacksonville selects defensive tackle Renaldo Wynn of Notre Dame with the 21st pick of the first round of the NFL draft. In all, the Jaguars draft seven players.

Aug. 9 — Quarterback Mark Brunell suffers a knee injury in a preseason game against the New York Giants and misses the next four games, including the first two of the regular season.

Aug. 31 — In his first NFL start, Rob Johnson leads the Jaguars to a 28-27 victory at Baltimore in the season opener. Johnson displayed incredible courage in returning twice from a severe ankle sprain, setting a team record with 20 completions in 24 attempts (83.3 percent), 2 TD passes and a 25-yard TD rushing.

Sept. 7 — The Jaguars win their home opener 40-13 over the New York Giants as Steve Matthews makes his first NFL start for an injured Rob Johnson. The Jaguars started 2-0 for the first time in team history and set a franchise record with 40 points. It marked the first time in 30 years that a team won twice with two different quarterbacks making their first start in consecutive games.

Sept. 22 — Mark Brunell returns and leads the Jaguars to a 30-21 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in their first appearance on "Monday Night Football." Brunell threw for 306 yards, but the victory wasn't clinched until the final play, when Clyde Simmons blocked a 40-yard game-winning field goal attempt and Chris Hudson returned the ball 58 yards for a touchdown as time expired.

Oct. 12 — James Stewart rushes for five touchdowns in the Jaguars' 38-21 victory over the visiting Philadelphia Eagles. It marks only the fourth time in NFL history that a player scored five TDs rushing in a game and the first time since 1963, and Stewart became one of only 12 NFL players with five or more touchdowns in one game.

Dec. 11 — Five Jaguars are named to the AFC squad for the Pro Bowl: Tony Boselli, Bryan Barker and Mike Hollis as starters, and Mark Brunell and Jimmy Smith as backups.

Dec. 14 — The Jaguars clinch a playoff berth for the second straight year after defeating the Bills 20-14 in Buffalo one week before the end of the regular season. Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith both went over the 1,000-yard mark, becoming the eighth tandem in NFL history to have back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Dec. 21 — The Jaguars win their team-record 11th game of the season by defeating the Oakland Raiders. The victory gave the team a 4-4 mark on the road for the first time ever, and matched division-winner Pittsburgh's 11-5 record. It takes five tie-breaker steps to determine that the Steelers were the division champion.

Dec. 27 — The Jaguars' third season comes to an end in Denver, with the eventual Super Bowl-champion Broncos winning the Wild-Card playoff 42-17.

Feb. 13 — Quarterback Rob Johnson is traded to the Buffalo Bills for the ninth pick in the first round and a fourth-round choice in the 1998 NFL draft.

Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign Buffalo Bills linebacker Bryce Paup, an unrestricted free agent.

April 18-19 — The Jaguars draft 11 players, their most ever, in the NFL draft. Two players are selected in the first round: running back Fred Taylor from the University of Florida with the ninth pick; and safety Donovan Darius, a safety from Syracuse, with the 25th choice.

May 12 — Rick Reiprish, who had been responsible for the Jaguars' first four successful drafts, is promoted to director of player personnel. Fran Foley is named director of pro scouting, and Rick Mueller is named director of college scouting.

- Sept. 20 — Running back James Stewart is injured on the Jaguars' second play of the game and lost for the season. But first-round draft choice Fred Taylor takes over and runs 52 yards for a touchdown on his first carry. The Jaguars defeat the Baltimore Ravens 24-10 for their third win of the season.
- Oct. 12 — The Jaguars post a franchise-best 5-0 start, beating the visiting Miami Dolphins 29-21 on "Monday Night Football" when Mark Brunell and Keenan McCardell hook up for two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter. Fred Taylor ran for a 77-yard TD on the game's first play from scrimmage.
- Nov. 1 — The Jaguars explode for a team-record number of points in a 45-19 victory at Baltimore. Jacksonville scored six TDs in the first half — the seventh most ever in a half in NFL history — as they jumped out to a 42-7 lead. Fred Taylor's 78-yard TD reception becomes the longest play from scrimmage in team history.
- Dec. 13 — Mike Hollis becomes the most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history by making two attempts, giving him an 81.45 percentage in four seasons (101 of 124), dethroning Philadelphia's Chris Boniol.
- Dec. 20 — The Jaguars clinch their first-ever AFC Central Division championship prior to kickoff of a Sunday night game at Minnesota, dethroning the Pittsburgh Steelers after a four-year run.
- Dec. 28 — With a 21-3 victory over the Steelers on "Monday Night Football," the Jaguars win their 11th game for the second straight year and becomes the NFL's first expansion team to qualify for the playoffs three times in its first four seasons. Fred Taylor finishes the year with 17 touchdowns, tied for the third-most ever by a rookie in NFL history.

- Jan. 3 — In their first-ever home playoff game, the Jaguars defeat the New England Patriots 25-10. Mark Brunell returns after missing three games with an ankle injury to throw a TD pass and Mike Hollis kicks four field goals, as Jacksonville claims its first postseason win in two years.
- Jan. 10 — The Jaguars' fourth season ends with a 34-24 loss to the New York Jets in the divisional playoffs.
- Jan. 13 — Head coach Tom Coughlin is rewarded with a contract extension through the 2003 season.
- Jan. 26 — Dom Capers, the former head coach of the Carolina Panthers, is named defensive coordinator, replacing Dick Jauron, who became head coach of the Chicago Bears.
- Feb. 12 — On the first day of free agency, the Jaguars sign two unrestricted free agents: DT Gary Walker of the Tennessee Titans and S Camell Lake of the Pittsburgh Steelers.
- Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign TE Kyle Brady, a transition free agent from the New York Jets, to an offer sheet. The next day, the Jets decline to match the offer, making Brady a Jaguar.
- April 24-25 — The Jaguars draft eight players in the NFL draft, including Fernando Bryant, a cornerback selected in the first round from Alabama.
- Sept. 12 — The Jaguars open their fifth season with a 41-3 victory over the San Francisco 49ers at ALLTEL Stadium.
- Nov. 7 — Jacksonville makes a team-record nine sacks and forces four turnovers in a 30-7 win at Atlanta.
- Nov. 28 — The Jaguars score 23 points (three touchdowns, two two-point conversions) in the fourth quarter at Baltimore and leave with a 30-23 victory.
- Dec. 11 — The Jaguars win their 11th consecutive game, setting a team record, as they defeat the Cleveland Browns 24-14.

- Jan. 2 — The Jaguars conclude the regular season with a 14-2 mark — the best record in the NFL — and head into the playoffs as the No. 1 seed in the AFC. Jimmy Smith catches 14 passes to finish the year with 116 receptions, the most in the league and the sixth-highest total in NFL history. The defense allows only 217 points, the 12th-least allowed since the 16-game schedule began in 1978.
- Jan. 15 — The Jaguars trounce the Miami Dolphins 62-7 in the Divisional Playoffs in what would be the last game for Dan Marino and Jimmy Johnson. Jacksonville's 62 points and 55-point margin are the second most ever in NFL postseason history, and Fred Taylor's 90-yard run is the longest ever in an NFL playoff game.
- Jan. 23 — Tennessee claims its third win of the season over the Jaguars in the AFC Championship game. Jacksonville led 14-10 at halftime before losing 33-14.
- Feb. 10 — Tony Brackens is designated as a franchise player before the start of free agency.
- Feb. 22 — Jacksonville signs middle linebacker Hardy Nickerson, an unrestricted free agent from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
- April 15-16 — The Jaguars select wide receiver R. Jay Soward from Southern California in the first round of the draft. Altogether, 11 players are drafted by Jacksonville.
- July 21 — The Jaguars open their sixth training camp at ALLTEL Stadium.

September 22, 1996 — at New England 28, Jacksonville 25

After spotting New England a 22-0 lead, the Jaguars rallied in the second half, scoring three touchdowns on 51-, 41- and 61-yard receptions from Mark Brunell and a Mike Hollis field goal, to tie the score at 25-25. The Patriots had the only possession in overtime and won on a 40-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

November 24, 1996 — Jacksonville 28, at Baltimore 25

The Ravens led at the end of the first half 16-10, and built a 25-10 lead going into the fourth quarter. After a touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Pete Mitchell, the defense recovered a fumble at the Raven's 19-yard line. Brunell found Willie Jackson six plays later and Brunell ran in for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 25-25 with 1:24 remaining. The Jaguars won the toss, but were forced to punt. The Ravens fumbled, and Jacksonville drove down the field, with Mike Hollis winning the game with a 34-yard field goal.

October 26, 1997 — at Pittsburgh 23, Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars took a 10-0 lead into the second half, but Pittsburgh came back to take a 14-10 lead in the fourth-quarter. After a Brunell TD pass to Pete Mitchell, the Jaguars took a 17-14 lead. The Steelers scored a 19-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to tie the game 17-17. The Steelers won the toss and scored on a 17-yard shovel pass from Kordell Stewart to Jerome Bettis.

September 24, 1995 — Green Bay 24, at Jacksonville 14 — Sunday night (TNT)

The Jaguars lost their fourth straight game at the beginning of their inaugural season. They fell behind 17-0 before getting on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter with two touchdown passes from Mark Brunell to Willie Jackson. It was Brunell's second start at quarterback and the first time he had played against his former team.

December 15, 1996 — at Jacksonville 20, Seattle 13 — Sunday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars battled back from a 13-7 deficit by scoring on three consecutive fourth-quarter possessions to win their eighth game of the season. Jimmy Smith scored his second touchdown of the game on a pass from Mark Brunell, and Mike Hollis kicked two field goals. Tony Brackens starred with 12 tackles, a sack, an interception, three tipped passes and his fourth takeaway of the season.

September 22, 1997 — at Jacksonville 30, Pittsburgh 21 — Monday night (ABC)

In the Jaguars' first appearance on "Monday Night Football," Mark Brunell returned from a pre-season knee injury to lead the Jaguars to the win. The Jaguars held a 17-7 lead at the half. After a Steelers touchdown and a Mike Hollis field goal, the Jaguars led on to a 20-14 lead. The Steelers scored in the fourth quarter to take a 21-20 lead, but the Jaguars regained the lead with a Hollis field goal with 4:14 left. With six-seconds remaining in the game, the Steelers 40-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Clyde Simmons and returned by Chris Hudson 58 yards for a touchdown to end the game.

October 12, 1998 — at Jacksonville 28, Miami 21 — Monday night (ABC)

The Jaguars took a 14-0 lead on two Fred Taylor touchdowns — including a 77-yard run on the game's first play from scrimmage. Miami scored the game's next three touchdowns before Mark Brunell and Keenan McCardell hooked up for two TD passes in the fourth quarter. With just under 2:00 remaining and Miami driving, Tony Brackens stripped Dan Marino of the ball and fell on it to give Jacksonville its fifth victory to start the season.

December 20, 1998 — at Minnesota 50, Jacksonville 10 — Sunday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars clinched their first AFC Central Division title earlier in the day when the Oilers lost, but they were unable to celebrate after getting trounced by the Vikings. Rookie Jonathan Quinn made his first NFL start in the Metrodome, and the Jaguars played a solid first half, trailing only 12-3 at the break. But Minnesota scored 38 straight points in the second half before a late Jaguars touchdown. The 50 points was the most ever allowed by Jacksonville in a game.

December 28, 1998 — at Jacksonville 21, Pittsburgh 3 — Monday night (ABC)

The Jaguars closed out the 1998 regular season with a convincing win over Pittsburgh in front of a record crowd of 74,143. Rookie quarterback Jonathan Quinn got his first NFL victory and scored the game's first touchdown on a 15-yard run. Fred Taylor added two TDs (his 16th and 17th of the season), as the Jaguars held the Steelers to three points, the fewest ever allowed by Jacksonville in a game.

October 11, 1999 — Jacksonville 16, at New York Jets 6 — Monday night (ABC)

In their first-ever road appearance on "Monday Night Football," the Jaguars defeated the Jets behind three field goals by Mike Hollis and a touchdown and 96 yards rushing by James Stewart. The Jacksonville defense kept the Jets out of the end zone and held them to 230 total yards.

November 21, 1999 — at Jacksonville 41, New Orleans 23 — Sunday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars rolled up 494 yards and 41 points and pulled away in the second half with 24 consecutive points after a 17-17 tie. James Stewart scored twice, Mark Brunell threw two TD passes, Jimmy Smith caught nine passes for 220 yards and Reggie Barlow returned a punt for a score.

December 2, 1999 — at Jacksonville 26, Pittsburgh 6 — Thursday night (ESPN)

The Jaguars swept the Steelers for the first time behind Mark Brunell's 308 yards passing, James Stewart's career-high 145 yards rushing and 100-yard receiving games by Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. Pittsburgh managed just 235 total yards (63 on the ground).

December 13, 1999 — at Jacksonville 27, Denver 24 — Monday night (ABC)

Mike Hollis kicked a 23-yard field goal on the final play of the game as the Jaguars came from behind to beat the Broncos for their 10th consecutive win of the season. Denver jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, before James Stewart and Fred Taylor combined for 153 yards and three TDs to lead the comeback.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-5) | 6 | 6 | 0 | 13 | - | 25 |

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high ankle sprain, but for the Patriots, Scott Zolak started for the injured Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

| NEW YORK JETS (13-4) | 7 | 10 | 14 | 3 | - | 34 |

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first half score was a 52-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a Donovan Darius interception of Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

JAGUARS

RADIO BROADCASTERS

The Jaguars' radio team: Brian Sexton and Matt Robinson

Returning for their sixth year of broadcasting Jacksonville Jaguars football on the Jaguars Radio Network are Brian Sexton and Matt Robinson. Sexton again handles the play-by-play, while Robinson adds analysis.

Sexton, 31, is the voice of the Jaguars. He is the co-host, along with Robinson, of the "Monday Evening Quarterback" which airs at 6 p.m. on WOKV and "Jaguars this Week", which airs on Wednesdays at 6 p.m. on WBWL. Sexton also is the host of the "Countdown to Kickoff Show," which airs on Fridays at 6 p.m. on WBWL. He is also the host of "The Tom Coughlin Show," which airs on WOKV at 6 p.m. on Thursday nights. Formerly sports director at WOKV, he came to Jacksonville from Wichita, Kan., where he served as assistant sports director at KNSS in 1993 and hosted various pregame and postgame shows in addition to handling play-by-play for the Wichita State University Radio Network. Last April, Sexton was a participant on the highly rated ABC-TV show "Who Wants to be a Millionaire?," walking away with $32,000. He and his wife, Jennifer, live in Atlantic Beach.

Robinson, 45, a former NFL and USFL quarterback, has expertise on the other side of the microphone. A former University of Georgia star, he played six seasons in the NFL for the New York Jets, Denver Broncos and Buffalo Bills. Robinson came to Jacksonville in 1984 as captain and quarterback for the Bulls of the USFL. After his retirement in 1986, he remained in Jacksonville with several business interests in the area. Robinson is the co-host of "Monday Night Live," which airs at 7 p.m. and "The Tom Coughlin Show," which airs at 6:30 p.m. on Saturdays. Both shows can be seen on WTLY Channel 12. He is also a co-host of "Jaguars this Week" with Sexton and Vic Ketchman. In 1997, he broadcast two World League games for Fox Sports. Robinson sits on the board of trustees of the North Florida Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, the St. Johns County United Way and Men for the Moment Ministry and is a member of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Sports Council. Robinson is a single father with four-year-old daughter Mattison.

Joining Sexton and Robinson on Jaguars radio broadcasts are Jennifer Candelino, Cole Pepper and Vic Ketchman on the pregame show, and Pepper joins former Oakland Raiders star Pete Banaszak on the postgame show.

JAGUARS RADIO NETWORK

The Jaguars' flagship stations are WOKV (690 AM), WKQL (96.9 FM) and WBWL (600 AM). The Jaguars Radio Network extends to 18 affiliates in Florida, Georgia and South Carolina.

ALLTEL STADIUM

They said it couldn't be done. They said it wouldn't be ready. But, on August 18, 1995, when the Jacksonville Jaguars played their first game in their new stadium, it marked the first time in sports history that an expansion team had played its first home game in its first season in a new stadium or arena. Not only that, but it was built faster than any major-league stadium has ever been built in North America.

Two years later, on April 18, 1997, Jacksonville Municipal Stadium was re-named ALLTEL Stadium after the Little Rock, Ark.-based wireless telecommunications and information services company that is listed in Forbes 500 and Fortune 500. ALLTEL also has a regional office in Jacksonville that employs more than 1,000 employees. Revenue from the 10-year grant of naming rights — a total of $6.2 million — is shared equally between the Jaguars and the city of Jacksonville.

In the short period of 19 1/2 months, the old Gator Bowl was demolished and a new spectacle arose on the shores of the St. Johns River. And, very quickly, it was called the best stadium in the country. Just seconds before the Jaguars kicked off their first regular-season game on September 3, 1995, NBC broadcaster Don Criqui said, "There isn't a better football facility in America." Now in its sixth year of operation, ALLTEL Stadium is still drawing raves.

The stadium features two unique "signature" features, both of them state-of-the-art. The first are the two Touchdown Clubs, which are located on both sides, and the enormous twin 60-by-156-foot scoreboards with 24 by 32-foot Sony JumboTron screens.

The Touchdown Clubs and all 10,000 Club Seats are located at midfield, rather than being spread out horizontally through the stadium. Each Club — with entrances that are glass-enclosed, 100-foot-high atriums — provides more than 65,000 square feet of air-conditioned comfort with a variety of food and beverage selections. In all, 75 percent of the seats in ALLTEL Stadium are located on the sides, with just 25 percent behind the end zones.

ALLTEL Stadium seats 73,000, but additional temporary seats are added behind the South End Zone — expanding the capacity from 73,000 to well over 80,000 — for the annual Florida-Georgia game ... and perhaps someday a Super Bowl.

In addition to hosting at least a dozen football games every year, ALLTEL Stadium is quickly developing into a top venue for some of the world's top concerts. In the past few years, U2, Shania Twain and George Strait have performed at the stadium, and the Billy Graham Crusade will spend four days at ALLTEL in November 2000.

The construction of ALLTEL Stadium in the record 19 1/2 months was unprecedented. As with a football team, 12 different consulting companies shaped the construction. Demolition began on the old Gator Bowl on January 3, 1994, with approximately 90 percent of the old stadium torn down. In fact, the only portion salvaged was the west upper deck, which had been added in 1982.

A total of 121 subcontractors had a hand in the job ... all in all, thousands of people worked on the stadium from start to finish. And on Friday, August 18, 1995, ALLTEL Stadium opened its doors to more than 70,000 Jaguars faithful.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT ALLTEL STADIUM:

"(Jacksonville is) the most enthusiastic place I've ever seen. (The stadium has) been an impetus to the community like you've never seen. You could say that's money well spent."

— Pittsburgh Steelers owner Dan Rooney

"I think we've raised the bar on how stadiums are going to be built in the future. The two magnificent Touchdown Clubs are unique in any stadium. This stadium is a strong candidate to host a Super Bowl game."

— Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver

"There are a lot of things to impress us about this stadium. The club seat arrangement, the sight lines — really everything about it."

— Cincinnati Bengals general manager Mike Brown

"The (stadium) is a visually stunning structure that reflects the NFL's collective best thinking on how to build a stadium that maximizes a team's revenue-generating potential while also enhancing fan enjoyment."

— Cincinnati Post

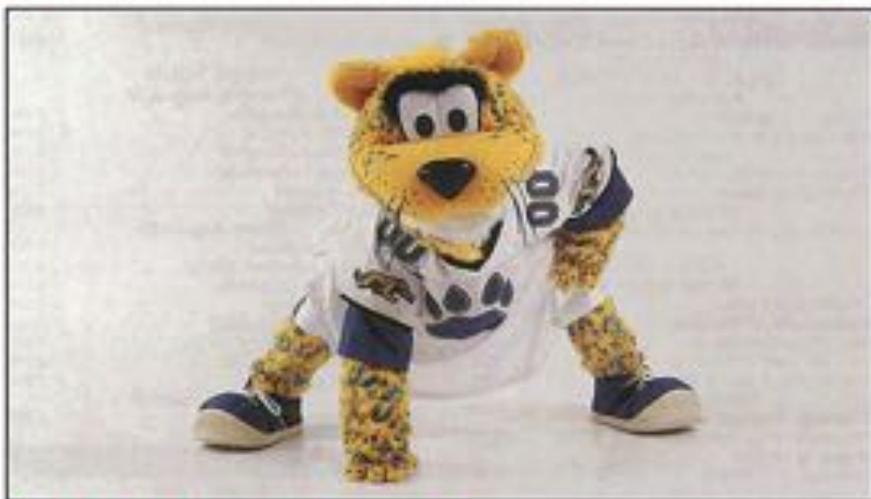

THE ROAR

"The Roar" of the Jaguars was developed in 1995 and has been an integral part of the Jaguars' entertainment package during all home games. Under the direction of Robin Valetutto and Donna Parado, these professional cheerleaders captivate Jaguars fans with their explosive, high-energy routines and cheerful personalities. When not on the playing field, members of The Roar serve as goodwill ambassadors for the Jaguars by participating in various corporate, community and charitable events throughout Florida and even around the world.

JAXSON DE VILLE

JAXSON DE VILLE MASCOT

Height: 8.5 paws (about 7 feet)

Weight: 403

College: Denied admission due to size, but is working on his MBA, just in case Wayne Weaver needs any business advice

Birthdate: Not sure, but he celebrates it the second week of the pre-season every year

Birthplace: Jacksonville (where else would a cat have teal spots?)

First Appearance: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

How Acquired: He was a stray cat found during the building of ALLTEL Stadium

NFL Experience: 5th year

SEASON: Has never seen action in an actual game ... Holds the distinction of riding more pine than a lumberjack in a saw mill ... Almost played against the Dolphins last year, but he pulled his hamstring getting off the bench when coach Coughlin called him into the game ... Still plays on the practice squad at his All-Pro position, "Left Out"

STATS: Still holds the self-proclaimed title of "NFL's Top Mascot" ... Led the league last year in numerous stats, none of which are official stats of the league. They include such feats as: most pizzas consumed in one sitting and highest rapell off a scoreboard before a game (175 feet) ... Never been tackled, sacked, intercepted or blocked, mostly because he never plays ... Has soaked more than 15,000 people with his "Super Soakers" ... Shot enough silly string to cover the road from Jacksonville to the Super Bowl in Tampa ... Has made entrances on his Harley-Davidson motorcycle, a four-wheeler and via parachute ... Hugged and kissed more than 25,000 people last year during his 400-plus appearances.

OFFSEASON: Jaxson de Ville does not have an "offseason," as he does appearances in the community year-round ... He will appear at any event you want, just give him a call and find out why everyone loves JAXSON!

For Appearances call: (904) 633-6544

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Credential requests are honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials are not issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Dan Edwards, Executive Director of Communications, Jacksonville Jaguars, One ALLTEL Stadium Place, Jacksonville FL 32202, or by fax to (904) 633-6055. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Parking in lots surrounding the stadium is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game days. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked adjacent to Gate 1, and a parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL-CALL: The media entrance at the stadium is Gate 1, at the Southwest corner of the stadium. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission to the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the media will-call window at Gate 1. The media will-call window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the will-call window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. The photographers check-in location is near the media entrance on the service hallway.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKERROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Jaguars' interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting lockerrooms. Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin conducts his postgame news conference in the team meeting room. The visiting head coach will be available in a room off the visitors lockerroom.

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom in the stadium is located just inside the media entrance. This room is available to working media during business hours throughout the week. Phones, Jaguars updates and NFL news releases, and other information is available. The phone number in the media workroom is (904) 633-6312.

TOM COUGHLIN INTERVIEWS: Head coach Tom Coughlin conducts his weekly news conference at 12:15 on Mondays in the media workroom. He is not available on Tuesdays, but is available to the media from 12:15 to 12:30 on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Jaguars lockerroom is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. On Mondays, players are available from 11:45 to 12:15, and on Tuesdays there is no availability, as this is the players' off day. The lockerroom is open to the media on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 11:45 to 12:15 and on Fridays at 1:15. All interviews should be arranged through the Jaguars communications department. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone, but please call in advance to schedule.

NEWS RELEASES ON THE INTERNET: The Jaguars' weekly news releases can be accessed on Jaguars Official Web Site on the Internet at: www.jaguars.com and on the NFL's Web Site at: www.nfl.com. Daily updates, injury reports and other news is posted as well.
