CONTENTS

The official 1970 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is divided generally into two sections for quick reference. The first half deals for the most part with 1970 and contains information on team officials, coaches, and players. Part Two begins shortly beyond the center spread roster. It traces the 1969 season and recaps the Dolphins' past, emphasizing key records and statistics. Suggestions and comments should be directed to Doug Lang, editor and compiler.

OFFICIALS

JOSEPH ROBBIE
Managing General Partner

A man of diverse interests is Joseph Robbie, the person who heads the Miami Dolphins organization.

He is the Dolphins' perpetual "man in motion," the one who is always on the go in his quest to produce a winner for Miami fans.

A championship team is, and has been, Robbie's goal ever since he succeeded in obtaining the first American Football League expansion franchise for Miami in the summer of 1965. In the span since, he has made all the team's major administrative decisions in his role as managing general partner.

Not coincidentally, the Dolphins in their first three seasons became the winningest expansion team in modern professional football history, overcoming early hardships to win 12 games in that period.

While Robbie was pleased with the progress of the Dolphins, he was far from content. He wanted nothing less than a winner, and he, in his own inimitable fashion, pulled out all the stops to get it.

Never was that more clear than on February 18, 1970, when Robbie announced to the press that he had secured the services of Don Shula as head coach, vice president, and part owner of the Dolphins.

The impact of Joseph Robbie on professional football has been felt just as dramatically in other areas, even though he is a relative newcomer to the sport. For example, his was a strong voice in the realignment of teams within the American and National conferences of the "new" NFL of 1970. He also has served as chairman of the AFL Players' Relations Committee which represented the owners in negotiations with the league's players' association and as a member of the Chicago Tribune All-Star Game Committee.

Robbie, a native of Sisseton, S.D., was a national debate champion as a student at the University of South Dakota. Furthermore, he has many years of experience as a trial lawyer.

The Dolphins' chief executive began his collegiate studies at Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D., before transferring to the University of South Dakota. He was president of the student government at both schools, as well as of the South Dakota Student Federation and the statewide Collegiate Press Association.

He enlisted in the Navy the day after Pearl Harbor and served with distinction until late 1945, taking part in five South Pacific theater invasions. He is a recipient of the Bronze Star.

Robbie served on the faculties of the College of St. Catherine and Dakota Wesleyan University.

He began a law practice in Mitchell, S.D., and then moved to Minneapolis in 1951 to become four-state regional director of the Office of Price Stabilization.

He was elected in 1948 as a State Representative in the South Dakota Legislature and was minority leader of the Democratic Caucus. He served as Democratic State Chairman in South Dakota from 1948-50 and was the Democratic candidate for governor in 1950.

Robbie was author of the law which created the Minnesota Municipal Commission and served as the first chairman of that body from 1959-65 under the appointment of three governors of both political parties. He was a charter member of the Twin Cities Metropolitan Planning Commission and served as legal counsel for Minnesota Legislative Committees and for the United States Senate hearings on the Urban Affairs Bill under President John F. Kennedy.

In 1965, Robbie served as personal representative of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the Inaugural Committee in connection with the inauguration of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

In 1966 he was the first to be presented the J. Ernest O'Brien Award as the outstanding state trade association executive in the country by the National Association of Tobacco Distributors.

In civic work in Miami, Robbie has been active on the Board of Directors of the Crippled Children's Society and as general chairman of the annual Easter Seal Campaign. Another of his interests away from football is Biscayne College, which he serves as a member of the Board of Trustees and as past chairman of its fund-raising drive. Biscayne College recently conferred on him an honorary Doctor of Laws Degree to supplement his academic Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctor degrees.

He also is on the Board of Directors of Boystown of South Florida, a member of the Advisory Board of Florida Memorial College and the Board of Governors of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, Tenn. In another of his multifaceted civic ventures, he was co-chairman for Greater Miami of the SUMMA Campaign for the University of Notre Dame.

Robbie is a member of the Downtown Miami Kiwanis Club, La Gorce Country Club, the Palm Bay Club, and the Jockey Club.

Befitting the owner of a football team, Robbie and his wife Elizabeth are the parents of 11 children. The family resides in Miami Shores.

JOSEPH THOMAS
Executive Assistant,
Director of Player Personnel

At the head of the Dolphins' scouting setup which has been so successful in coming up with players both from the draft and as free agents is Joe Thomas, a man with a wide background in football on all levels.

His duties have been expanded this year to include representing the Dolphins in the scouting organization called BLESTO-V. It is a combine made up of the Bears, Lions, Eagles, Steelers, Vikings, Bills and Colts, as well as the Dolphins.

Thomas holds the unique distinction of having been the first employee acquired by two pro expansion teams—first the Minnesota Vikings in 1960 and later Miami.

As the person in charge of building and upgrading the Dolphin squad, Thomas in Miami has followed the basic drafting plan he employed at Minnesota. As any football fan knows, that plan paid off in the Twin Cities last year as the Vikings romped to the NFL crown.

Thomas is convinced the same thing can happen soon in Miami. "All it really takes is getting over the 'experience hump,'" Thomas explains. "Our players stayed healthy in Minnesota and we eventually got over it. Down here, everyone got hurt, and we haven't yet. So while we're taking a longer road, perhaps, we're working it the same way with Miami as we did with Minnesota."

If anyone could spot such a parallel between the two clubs, it is Thomas.

He draws from years of experience as an assistant coach at Baltimore and Los Angeles of the NFL, Toronto of the Canadian League, Indiana University, and DePauw. He started his coaching career at New Albany and Rensselaer high schools in Indiana following a Navy tour.

Thomas, an outstanding end at Ohio Northern University, is a native of Cortland, Ohio. After graduating from Ohio Northern, he earned a master's degree and studied toward a doctorate at Indiana University. He was awarded a special alumni citation by Ohio Northern in 1969.

He and his wife, Judi, became parents for the first time this past June.

TRUAX

OFFICE STAFF

WILLIAM L. JACKSON, Comptroller, is in his second season with the Dolphins. From Parkesburg, Pa., he holds a degree in business administration from Waynesburg (Pa.) College. Before moving to Miami, he worked three years for Price Waterhouse and Co. in Pittsburgh.

EARL R. TRUAX JR., Promotion Director, joined the Dolphins in 1968 after having served the Miami Herald in a similar capacity for seven years. He is a past president of the National Newspaper Promotion Association and a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

JOHN J. McGOWAN, Ticket Director, got his start at Madison Square Garden where he worked for 12 years before becoming ticket director for the Orange Bowl Committee. He served in that post for eight years before joining the Dolphins in their maiden season, 1966.

CHARLES M. CALLAHAN, Publicity Director, learned the ropes as publicist of two early New York pro grid teams, the Americans and the Yankees. A native of Lexington, Mass., he was director of sports publicity at Notre Dame, his Alma Mater, for 20 years through 1966.

CHARLES R. GESINO, Sales Director, is an alumnus of New York University. He had been a minor league baseball executive for five years when he joined the Dolphins in 1966. He also has worked for Hialeah Race Course, the Orange Bowl Festival, and TV Guide.

DOUGLAS A. LANG, Administrative Aide, holds a master's degree in professional sports administration from Ohio University. Before joining the Dolphins early this year, he worked as sports information director at Central Washington College and as a UPI sportswriter.

COACHES

DON SHULA

Vice President—Head Coach

The Miami Dolphins entered a new phase in their brief history on Feb. 18, 1970, when Don Shula became head coach, vice president and part owner of the team.

Shula, 40, who guided the Baltimore Colts the past seven seasons, replaced George Wilson, the Dolphins' first and only head coach.

In his seven years at Baltimore, Shula became the NFL's winningest active coach by amassing 71 victories, four ties, and but 23 defeats. That is a .755 percentage, a mark approximated only by Cleveland's Blanton Collier who stood 69-27-2 in a like number of seasons.

The only sub-par percentage connected with Shula—if it indeed could be called that—is the .429 he posted in connection with Coach-of-the-Year honors in the NFL. That is to say in seven seasons he was so cited on three occasions.

Coach-of-the-Year recognition first came to Shula in 1964, his second season, as the Colts parlayed an 11-game winning streak into a Western Division championship.

His Baltimore team made valiant runs at the title again in 1965 and 1966, winning Playoff Bowl victories both years.

After guiding his 1967 club through 13 straight wins, Shula saw his championship hopes frustrated by a single loss in the season finale, a 34-10 licking from Los Angeles. As it was, the Colts finished with the same record as the Rams, 11-1-2, but they were forced to concede the Coastal Division title because LA scored more points than the Colts in their two meetings.

For the Colts' tremendous performance that season,

Shula shared 1967 Coach-of-the-Year honors with the Rams' George Allen.

Coaching honors came Shula's way a third time in 1968 after Baltimore swept through its regular season schedule with 13 wins and added the Western Conference and NFL titles. That the campaign ended in heartbreak, with a Super Bowl loss to the New York Jets, takes little gloss off the outstanding job Shula did.

A native of Painesville, Ohio, Shula was a tough defensive back in the NFL for seven years, including four seasons (1953-56) with Baltimore. When he hung up

Shula's Head Coaching Record

Year (Team)	W-L-T	Pct.
1963 (Baltimore)	8-6-0	.571
1964 (Baltimore)	12-2-0	.857
1965 (Baltimore)	10-3-1	.769
1966 (Baltimore)	9-5-0	.643
1967 (Baltimore)	11-1-2	.917
1968 (Baltimore)	13-1-0	.929
1969 (Baltimore)	8-5-1	.615
Totals	71-23-4	.755

his cleats, he spent two campaigns as an assistant college coach, at Virginia and at Kentucky, before joining the Detroit Lions in 1960, ironically as a defensive aide to Wilson.

As for the future, Shula said he considered it "a great opportunity to become part of a young football team in an exciting and enthusiastic city with ownership intent on going all out to produce a winner."

Still, he expressed some regrets about assuming the new position. Not the least was attached to the man he succeeded, Wilson. "I'm thankful for the years I had to work with him," Shula said. "Any success of the Dolphins in the future will be partly attributed to the groundwork laid by George and his assistants."

The new Dolphin coach also said he would miss "the great fans of Baltimore and the sensation of kickoff time at the outdoor asylum on 33rd Street. These are memories I'll always cherish," he added, "but hopefully the future can have the same type of thrills and excitement for football fans in Miami."

Shula, an offensive halfback at John Carroll University in Cleveland, considers the Super Bowl loss to New York in the Orange Bowl to be "the low point of my coaching career."

However, he is not one to dwell on disappointing setbacks. "Worrying about last year," he says, "is for losers."

Shula and his wife, Dorothy, are the parents of five children—David, Donna, Sharon Lee, Ann Marie, and Michael. They make their home in Miami Lakes.

BILL ARNSPARGER

Head Defensive Coach, Linebackers

The first aide hired by Coach Don Shula was Bill Arnsparger, a hard-working Kentuckian whose job is mapping out the overall defensive strategy. He also handles the linebacking corps.

Arnsparger, Shula's defensive line coach at Baltimore since 1964, resigned from the Colt staff in January and then joined the Dolphins about a month later.

Thus, Arnsparger and Shula now are teamed up for the third time. The first was in 1959 when both were assistant coaches at the University of Kentucky.

Arnsparger was born in Paris, Ky., on Dec. 16, 1926, and played football at Paris High School before serving in the Marines in World War II. Following service, he matriculated at Miami (Ohio) University where he was a tackle. He stayed at Miami one year after graduation to work as offensive line coach.

Then came coaching assignments at Ohio State (1951-53), Kentucky (1954-61), and Tulane (1962-63) before his entry into the pro ranks at Baltimore.

Arnsparger and his wife, Betty Jane, have two children: David and Mary Susan. The family lives in Miami Lakes.

HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER

Head Offensive Coach, Receivers

The Dolphins' chief offensive tactician is Howard Schnellenberger, a strong, silent type whose assignment the past four years was coaching the Los Angeles Rams' offensive ends.

In addition to directing the Dolphins' overall offense, Schnellenberger will continue his work with receivers.

A native of Louisville, Ky., where he was born on March 16, 1934, Schnellenberger began his coaching career in 1959 at Kentucky, his Alma Mater. Also on the staff there that year were Don Shula and Bill Arnsparger.

Schnellenberger moved to Alabama in 1961, and in 1964 and 1965 he was offensive coach of Bear Bryant's national championship teams. He joined George Allen's staff in Los Angeles the following year.

As a player, Schnellenberger got his start at Louisville's Flaget High. Next came four years at Kentucky where he was an All-American end his senior year, 1955. He played with Hamilton of the Canadian League in 1956 and, after a year in the Army, with the British Columbia Lions in 1958.

Schnellenberger and his wife, Beverlee Ann, live in Miami Lakes. They have three sons: Stephen, Stuart, and Tim.

MONTE CLARK

Offensive Line

Monte Clark, a veteran of 11 NFL seasons as a player, gets his initial taste of pro coaching this year as architect-in-charge of Miami's interior offensive line.

Clark, most recently a mainstay at right tackle for the Cleveland Browns, began his pro career as a defensive lineman with San Francisco after being drafted fourth by the 49ers in 1959. He was traded to Dallas just before the 1962 campaign and was converted to offense that season. He moved to Cleveland the following year in trade he terms "the greatest thing to happen to me" and went on to play in four NFL championship games with the Browns.

Clark was born in Fillmore, Calif., on Jan. 24, 1937, and he went to high school at Kingsburg, Calif. He played his collegiate ball at Southern Cal and was captain of the Trojans in 1958.

On the lighter side, he reveals an impish sense of humor when reminiscing about his small hometown. He fondly recalls the No. 1 activity there as "taking bottles back to the store," with "watching haircuts at the barbershop" a close second.

Has a serious side too. Acknowledged by Cleveland newsmen to be a pretty fair country journalist himself. For example, it was Clark who brought to the attention of the press a particularly inspiring pre-game lockerroom talk by Tommy McDonald which led to Dallas' downfall in the 1968 Eastern Conference Championship.

He was married to the former Charlotte Palm in 1957. They and their three sons—Bryan, Randy, and Eric—make their home in Southwest Miami.

TOM KEANE Defensive Backfield

Tom Keane, the only assistant coach who is not new to the Dolphins this season, continues the defensive backfield job that has been his responsibility the past four years.

His start in coaching was prompted by a pre-season knee injury which ended his career prematurely in 1956. The St. Louis Cardinals were his first stop, and he went from there to Calgary in 1960. From 1961-64, Keane was head coach and general manager of the Wheeling Ironmen of the United League. He moved to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1965 as an aide to Mike Nixon and then to the Dolphins in 1966 when the team was formed.

Keane as a freshman quarterback at Ohio State in 1944 guided the Buckeyes to a national championship. He finished college at West Virginia, playing there in 1946 and 1947 after a tour of Navy service.

As a pro player, he spent nine years as a defensive back in the NFL, starting with Los Angeles in 1948. He was also with the Dallas Texans in 1952 and Baltimore, where he won All-Pro honors in 1953, through 1955 when he was traded to Chicago. There his playing days ended abruptly.

Keane was born September 7, 1926 at Bellaire, Ohio. He and his wife, Mary, live in Southwest Miami with their four children: Candi, Tom, Tim, and Mary.

KEANE

TASEFF

MIKE SCARRY Defensive Line

With 22 years of coaching behind him, Mike Scarry—or Mo, as he is known to many—is the elder statesman of the Dolphin coaching staff. He also can tell of playing in the first football game ever televised — a 1939 meeting between Waynesburg College and Fordham.

Scarry, whose coaching career began in 1948 when he became head coach at Western Reserve, holds the unique distinction of having captained two pro championship teams in two different leagues in two consecutive years. That was with the Cleveland Rams of the NFL in 1945 (where he was a second team All-Pro) and with the Cleveland Browns of the All-America Conference in 1946 (where he was all-AAC).

Scarry's coaching background also includes stops at Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras (Iowa) College (1953), Washington State (1954-55), Cincinnati (1956-62), and Waynesburg (1963-65). He was the Washington Redskins' defensive line coach from 1966-68 and last season worked as a scout for the Rams, 49ers, and Cowboys.

Originally from Duquesne, Pa., where he was born Feb. 1, 1920, Scarry was a star center and linebacker at Waynesburg where he later served as football coach and athletic director. He and his wife, Elizabeth, have eight children.

CARL TASEFF Offensive Backfield

Carl Taseff, coach of the Dolphins' offensive backs, has a colorful football background which includes stints as player and coach in both the AFL and the NFL. He also played (1951, 1959, 1960) and coached (1968) in the College All-Star Game at Chicago.

His pro playing career was launched with the NFL Cleveland entry in 1951 and continued with the Baltimore Colts from 1953-61. In 1962, he moved to the AFL, closing out his playing career at Buffalo.

Taseff was out of football in 1963 when he worked as a life insurance broker. He reentered the game the following year, however, as an assistant coach for the Boston Patriots. He switched leagues again the next year, joining the staff of the Detroit Lions.

Taseff, a long-time friend and teammate of Head Coach Don Shula, spent the past two years working for a professional scouting combine, CEPO. His association with Shula dates back to their college days at John Carroll University in Cleveland, Taseff's birthplace on Sept.

BINGAMAN

DOWE

28, 1928. It continued after graduation in 1951 as the two became pro teammates, first with the Browns and then from 1953-56 with the Colts.

Taschff, whose duties also include scouting the Dolphins' upcoming opponent each week, lives on Key Biscayne. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan Alice, living in Baltimore.

LES BINGAMAN
Special Assistant

Les Bingaman, a big man whose exploits on the playing field helped to revolutionize pro football defenses, now looks for big men himself in his new role as special assistant to Head Coach Don Shula and Player Personnel Director Joe Thomas.

Bingaman, one of the first big but quick defenders, was a three-time All-Pro performer with the Detroit Lions in the late 40's and early 50's. In that span, Detroit won three Western Conference titles and two league crowns, and the 300-pound Bingaman won acclaim as the most devastating middle guard in the history of the game.

Born in MacKenzie, Tenn., on Feb. 3, 1926, "Bing" attended Lew Wallace High School in Gary, Ind., and later the University of Illinois. He broke into the NFL in 1948 as the Lions No. 3 draft pick.

Bingaman, who has slimmed down considerably below his playing weight, for the past four seasons served as Miami's defensive line coach, a position he also held for five years at Detroit from 1960-64. Sandwiched between was a one-year stint as an NFL talent sleuth.

He and his wife, Betty, own a home in South Miami. They have one son, Lester III.

BOB LUNDY
Trainer

Bob Lundy is starting his fifth season as the Dolphins' athletic trainer and his eleventh in major professional football.

Already a veteran at the age of 34, Lundy spent six years as assistant trainer for the Detroit Lions.

He began his training career at Boston University, and later became assistant trainer at Indiana. He also spent four years as head trainer for all sports at the University of Detroit.

A native of Wollaston, Mass., Lundy attended North Quincy High School and Boston U., earning a degree in physical education in 1955. He also has done advance work in training at Indiana University.

Lundy, who also has studied real estate, resides in South Miami with his wife, Alice, and three sons: Bobby, Billy and David.

DAN DOWE Equipment Manager

Dan Dowe, a member of the original Dolphin cast of 1966, stepped into the equipment manager's job in 1968, after serving two years as assistant.

A native of Brighton, Mass., where he played all sports at Brighton High School, Dowe has worked in industrial electronics for Raytheon, as an aerospace lab technician for Martin Co., and with the police department in Bal Harbour, a small community near Miami Beach. In the off season, he works in the pro shop at exclusive Indian Creek Country Club.

Dowe is a Navy veteran, having served four years on a destroyer during World War II. His ship was hit by a suicide plane off Okinawa in May, 1944, after having been involved in the invasions of Normandy and North Africa.

Dowe, his wife Virginia, and their infant son, Darin, live in North Miami.

FUTURE DOLPHIN OPPONENTS

As a member of the Eastern Division of the American Football Conference, Miami is scheduled to play eight games each year with the four other teams in its conference—Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo, and the New York Jets. These games are on home-and-home basis.

In addition, the Dolphins annually will meet six clubs from outside the AFC East at sites to be determined. Here is the lineup of future Miami foes:

- 1971—Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Denver, Chicago, Green Bay, Los Angeles
- 1972—Houston, Kansas City, San Diego, Minnesota, New York Giants, St. Louis
- 1973—Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Oakland, Detroit, Dallas, San Francisco
- 1974—Cincinnati, Kansas City, San Diego, Washington, Atlanta, New Orleans
- 1975—Houston, Denver, Oakland, Chicago, Green Bay, Philadelphia
- 1976—Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, Minnesota, New York Giants, Los Angeles
- 1977—Cincinnati, Houston, San Diego, Dallas, St. Louis, San Francisco
- 1978—Pittsburgh, Denver, Oakland, Detroit, Washington, New Orleans

FAME GAME

Miami is scheduled to make its first appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Canton, Ohio, in 1978. The Dolphins will face the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Conference.

SEASON OUTLOOK

WARFIELD

A revitalized coaching structure, a blockbuster of a trade, a draft which veteran observers regard as possibly the team's best ever, and the law of averages combine to make 1970 the most promising year yet for the Miami Dolphins.

Perhaps the most striking turn of off season events — the hiring of Coach Don Shula excluded—was the trade which brought All-Pro wide receiver Paul Warfield to the Miami camp from Cleveland. It would be exaggerated understatement to say Warfield looms large in Dolphin plans. In six previous NFL campaigns, the ex-Brown jackrabbit grabbed 215 passes covering 4,346 yards and scored 44 touchdowns. He is among the league's best blocking wide men to boot.

Another source of optimism is the acquisition of many high-grade rookie prospects through the draft. Much is expected, in particular, of tight end Jim Mandich and two young secondary men, Tim Foley and Curtis Johnson. The importance of Foley and Johnson in the overall scheme of things was underscored in a pair of separate transactions in which the Dolphins parted with two veteran defenders, Dick Westmoreland and Tom Beier.

As for the law of averages, suffice to say no one believes the injury hex could hit so hard again, although things got off to a shaky start when Foley fractured an ankle in June, virtually assuring him of a late start. Certainly though, anything would be an improvement over last year when 20 different Dolphin players missed roughly half a season apiece with assorted injuries.

It is a poorly kept secret that the Dolphins are hoping the trade for Warfield turns out to be a repeat of their 1969 deal for linebacker Nick Buoniconti, the team's MVP. Respectability on defense coincided with the arrival of Buoniconti from Boston, and Warfield is apt to affect the offense similarly.

Especially if some of the Shula philosophy of football takes root quickly in the Dolphin camp. At the heart of his approach to the game is the belief that "a coach should have a philosophy about how the game should be played and then make small allowances within that philosophy to suit the talent at hand.

"For instance," Shula says, "I will want Bob Griese to stay in the pocket as long as he can—to the last possible moment. That's the way I like my quarterbacks to throw in order to establish the dropback pass. But, since he is an extraordinary athlete, we'll also have plays off the roll-out to take advantage of this ability."

Togetherness is another byword in Shula's vocabulary. "The idea is to work together," he says. "To work together as units, and to work together as a team."

Pointing to the defense for illustrative purposes, Shula said, "Linebackers have to coordinate their actions with both the backs and the line, if we're to have the best possible defense. Then, on a larger scale, the whole idea of defense is to get the ball back for our offense."

Another of Shula's strong philosophical suits falls in the area of human relations. At no time was this more evident than when the Dolphins announced the acquisition of Marv Fleming, a fine blocking tight end. When injuries struck in 1969, Larry Seiple, the team's all-around handyman, fell heir to the job at the tight end position, and he manned it well.

Commented Shula at the time of the Fleming announcement, "I know how Larry must feel, because he was the regular tight end. But Larry is a winner, a great clutch receiver, as well as a fine punter and good runner. We might have him at running back from time to time, but I'm sure we'll use him at tight end on passing situations."

Translation: Larry Seiple needn't worry about a job. Nor will anyone else who proves himself.

Coming off a disappointing 3-10-1 season after a happier 5-8-1 showing in 1968, the Dolphins have nowhere to go but up. Thus, almost every position shapes up as a battle, and it is significant that the Dolphins head into the new "Shula Era" without any semblance of a depth roster. When the team does get one, it should be noted, it will bear the names of those players who are in the right position, who avoid the big mistake, and who hit physically.

Shula quite frankly believes the Dolphins have many young players with promise, and he sees some irony between his assignment this fall and his first head coaching job at Baltimore eight years ago. "At Baltimore," he said, "they had more of a mature team, and I was in my first year. Now I've got experience, but I'm working with a younger team.

"I can't say which is the greater opportunity," he added, "but I do know this: if we work, we'll improve. And we're going to work!"

RADIO

Miami radio WIOD (610) is the originating station for a Florida-wide network which will carry broadcasts of all Dolphin games, both home and away. Joe Croghan will handle the play-by-play, with Larry King and Henry Barrow supplying the color commentary. Among the stations in the network are WINK, Fort Myers; WVFM, Lakeland; WNOG, Naples; WXVI, West Palm Beach; WEZY, Cocoa Beach; WTRL, Bradenton; and WWBA, Tampa-St. Petersburg.

TELEVISION

All but one of the Dolphin regular season games on the road will be carried by NBC and seen in Miami on station WCKT-TV (7). The single exception is a Monday night game at Atlanta Nov. 30 which will be televised nationally by AEC and aired on WPLG-TV (10) in Miami. In addition, Channel 10 will telecast the Dolphin-Steeler pre-season game in Jacksonville Aug. 8, while the Washington game at Tampa Sept. 5 will be carried by Channel 7.

LATECOMERS TO ROSTER

Two last-minute additions to the veteran roster are center Joe Wondryhoski and placekicker Garo Yepremian, both of whom signed as free agents.

WENDRYHOSKI born March 1, 1938, at West Frankfort, Ill., begins sixth pro season. Drafted 13th by New York Titans in 1960, played at Vancouver instead. Then, after Army stint, signed with Bears in 1964. Traded to Rams next season. Joined New Orleans in '67 expansion draft. Saints' offensive captain in '68. Waived before start of last season. As collegian at Illinois, won All-Big Ten acclaim. Married, has PE degree, works in public relations and real estate in New Orleans.

YEPREMIAN, born on Cypress on June 2, 1944, was on Detroit cab squad past two years. Made 13 of 22 field goal attempts in 1966, including record six in one game vs. Minnesota. Four in one quarter also set NFL mark. Leading Detroit scorer in '66 with 50 tallies. Made two FG in six tries in 1967. Came to U.S. from England in 1966 and wrote for tryout. Lions gave it to him, and he played in first pro game four days later. Never graduated from high school, speaks four languages. Lives in Southfield, Mich.

GRIESE, BOBQuarterback

Purdue

Born: February 3, 1945

Yr.: 4th (D-1, 1967)

PRO: Gives the Dolphins fine leadership on the field. Has tremendous poise and self-confidence and all the matching physical attributes. That was shown in 1968 when he passed for a club record 2473 yards and 21 touchdowns. Comparative figures as rookie were 2005 yards and 15 TD's. Must shake injury jinx, however, if he is to become the catalyst in the Dolphins' drive to "put it all together." Had what-for-him was a sub-par year in '69, as knee injury kept him out of five final games. Threw for 1695 yards and 10 TD's in the nine games he played. Enjoyed great days against Cincinnati, passing for a team record 327 yards, and against New York, hitting on 18 of 27 attempts for four TD's. Sports a lofty 50.4 lifetime completion percentage. Attempted a league record 122 passes without interception in 1967, and had another string of 99 snapped in the '69 opener at Cincy. Has been intercepted at the rate of only 5.3 per 100 attempts. Nimble, quick on his feet, Griese averaged 4.9 yards on 100 carries in his three years with Miami. Lost only three fumbles in doing so. Holds virtually all the Dolphins' passing marks. Completed 10 in a row against San Diego and nine straight against Jets in '69. Rewrote AFL single game accuracy record with 17 completions in 21 tries (81 per cent) against New York on Oct. 22, 1967. He was exceptional in the last eight games of 1968, firing 17 scoring passes with only five interceptions. Only Dolphin to win club MVP honors twice. Was so cited in 1967 and 1968 when he also played in AFL All-Star contests.

KIICK, JIM

Running Back

Ht.: 5-11 Wt.: 220 Wyoming
 Born: August 9, 1946 Yr.: 3rd (D-5, 1968)

PRO: Led Dolphins in rushing for second straight year with 575 yards to move into top spot on Miami lifetime rushing charts. His nine TD's rushing was tops in the league. He added one more score via a 53-yard pass from Bob Griese against Buffalo. Great year led to his being picked to play in his second AFL All-Star Game. A real workhorse, Kiick also broke his previous season record (165) by carrying the ball 180 times. In addition, caught 29 passes for 443 yards to rank as second-leading Dolphin receiver in '69. He led Miami past Buffalo with three receptions for 109 yards (one his 53-yard TD) and scored once on the ground. Best day as runner in '69 was 106-yard outburst against Jets, his third 100-plus game as a pro. Scored twice in the 20-20 tie with Oakland. Among best blocking backs in league. Also one of the most sure-handed. Lost the ball only once all season long on a fumble—a remarkable feat, considering he carried the ball in every game for the second straight year. As a rookie, fumbled the ball away only twice in 210 chances. He was only player in league in 1968 to finish in top 10 in rushing and receiving. Was seventh and tenth, respectively. Gained 111 yards on 23 carries at Buffalo that season, third-best single-game mark in Miami history. Holds Dolphin season mark of 621 yards on ground.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Sayre, Pa. At Sayre High School, starred in football and basketball.

NOONAN, KARL

Wide Receiver

Ht.: 6-3 Wt.: 205 Iowa
Born: February 17, 1944 Yr.: 5th (FA, 1966)

PRO: Noonan's is a real rags-to-riches story. Passed over in the 1966 draft after a distinguished career at Iowa, he caught on with the Dolphins as a free agent and has done a yeoman job ever since. Among the many team receiving records he holds are most catches, most yards, most TD's, and catches in consecutive games, 17. In that streak, he caught at least one pass in every 1968 game, finishing third in AFL receiving and tied for league leadership in TD catches, 11. Also caught a pass in every pre-season game in '68, so string actually was at 22 when Houston blanked him in third game of 1969. Best single-game effort came in 1968 opener against Houston when he grabbed seven passes for 104 yards and a TD. Played in '68 AFL All-Star game, holding for extra points and field goals. Dolphins' leading career scorer with 96 points.

NORTON, RICK

Quarterback

Ht.: 6-2 Wt.: 190 Kentucky
Born: November 16, 1943 Yr.: 5th (D-1, 1966)

PRO: Enjoyed his most active season of four with the Dolphins in 1969. Played in seven games, starting five of them. Sixty-five completions and 709 yards marked his best as a pro. Also logged his best day ever, hitting on 20 of 41 passes against Buffalo for 281 yards. Two TD passes sparked victory over Denver in next-to-last game of season. In all, has played in 20 games for Dolphins and ranks second in career passing. Credited with first Miami TD toss, a six-yarder to Rick Casares in the 1966 season opener against Oakland. Suffered fractured jaw later that year, causing him to miss final half of season.

PERSONAL: Prepped at South Milwaukee (Wis.) High School. Pronounces name "Sob-o-CHIN-ski." Lists reading as main hobby.

STANFILL, BILL

Defensive End

Ht.: 6-5 Wt.: 250 Georgia
Born: January 13, 1947 Yr.: 2nd (D-1, 1969)

PRO: Twice in a span of three games in 1969, Stanfill intercepted passes and returned them for TD's. The first, a 15-yard runback, figured in Miami's 17-16 victory at Boston. The second spanned 17 yards and came against Houston. Stanfill, the Dolphins' top draft choice for 1969, lived up to advance billing by finishing as the team's sixth-leading tackler with 59 tackles and 14 assists. He also spearheaded the Dolphins' pass rush, nailing the opposing QB eight times. The performance earned him recognition as Miami's Rookie of the Year and gained him some support for that honor at the league level.

Interceptions	No.	Yds.	Avg.	TD	Long
1969	2	32	16.0	2	17+

COLLEGE: Received All-American recognition three consecutive years. Starter in 33 straight games for Bulldogs, including three bowl appearances. Recipient of Outland Trophy awarded by Football Writers' Association to outstanding collegiate lineman in 1968. Helped Georgia lead Southeastern Conference in total defense last two seasons there and lead nation in scoring defense in '68. Elected team captain following senior season.

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Cairo, Ga. Won four letters in football and basketball and three in track at Cairo High. Grid captain. Established state prep record with discus toss of 180-6. Off-season athletic activity is golf and jogging. Part-owner of a sandwich shop and works as automobile salesman in Athens, Ga., where he now lives with his wife, Sharon, and two sons.

JOHN STOFA

Quarterback

Ht.: 6-3 Wt.: 210 Buffalo
Born: May 29, 1942 Yr.: 5th (FA, 1966 & 1969)

PRO: The Dolphins "Cinderella Man." He keeps coming back. John is now on his third tour with Miami and the team has only been in existence five seasons. Was cut in training camp in 1966, but returned from minor league ball to throw four TD passes as Dolphins won final game that season, 29-28, over Houston in the Orange Bowl. Was No. 1 QB as 1967 season began, but fractured ankle in first game sidelined him for year. Between seasons was traded to the new Cincinnati team for first and second-round draft choices. Was one of three quarterbacks used by Cincy in 1968 and perhaps his best game was when he passed the Bengals to a 38-21 victory over Miami. He was on the Cincinnati taxi squad most of last year but rejoined the Dolphins late in the season and played in the last half of the final game, hitting on 14 of 23 passes.

COLLEGE: Has physical education degree from University of Buffalo. Still holds many of the school's passing records, and he also lettered in basketball and baseball. After college, before reaching majors, had brilliant three-year minor league grid career (102 TD passes) with Daytona Beach and Lakeland.

PERSONAL: From Johnstown, Pa., where he attended Bishop McCort High. Resided in Cincinnati the past off season. Has two dry cleaning stores and is in real estate sales in Cincinnati. In previous off seasons had been a high school teacher in Daytona Beach, Fla. Married, he has one girl and one boy.

TUCK, ED

Guard

Ht.: 6-3 Wt.: 240 Notre Dame
Born: September 25, 1945 Yr.: 1st (D-6, 1969)

PRO: Missed entire 1969 season when knee injury cut him down, but had considerable experience in pre-season games and was twice a starter.

COLLEGE: Played regularly as guard in 1968 after previous seasons as linebacker, tight end, and fullback. Labeled an excellent pass blocker by Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian. Business management major.

PERSONAL: From Harrison, N.J., now lives in Miami Springs. All-State and team captain in football, basketball, and baseball at Harrison High. As senior fullback, scored a school record 136 points. Born in Jersey City.

TUCKER, GARY

Running Back

Ht.: 5-11 Wt.: 195 Chattanooga
Born: February 19, 1945 Yr.: 2nd (D-5, 1967)

PRO: Out of football in 1969 after having played in all 14 games the year before. Used sparingly as ball carrier, but performed creditably on special teams and as return man. Made four tackles on special units and recovered a fumble.

TUCKER

TWILLEY, HOWARD

Wide Receiver

Ht.: 5-10 Wt.: 180 Tulsa
Born: December 25, 1943 Yr.: 5th (D-12, 1966)

PRO: Caught 10 passes for 158 yards in first four games of 1969, but an injury to his left elbow put him on the shelf for the rest of the season. Elbow was placed in a cast and operation later was deemed unnecessary. Ranks third among all-time Dolphin receivers with 83 grabs for 1,204 yards. Best year was 1968 when he registered 39 catches for 604 yards and was cited as team's Most Courageous Player. Struck down by injuries rookie season, missing last eight games with fractured jaw.

COLLEGE: Set 10 NCAA pass receiving marks as a consensus All-American at Tulsa, shattering four of the five major reception records. Voted "Lineman of the Year" in 1965 as he caught 134 passes for 1779 yards and 16 TD's. Paced all scorers, too, with 127 points. Football captain. Played in Bluebonnet Bowl twice, and in 1965 Senior Bowl and North-South Shrine games. Named outstanding player in Senior Bowl. Has degree in electrical engineering.

PERSONAL: Considers football to be a year-round occupation. He divides his time in the off season between working to keep in shape and attending classes at the University of Miami where he is enrolled in a master's program in business administration. Born in Houston, Tex., and attended Galena Park (Tex.) High. Married.

URBANER, JIM

Defensive Tackle

Ht.: 6-4 Wt.: 270 Mississippi
Born: April 8, 1945 Yr.: 2nd (D-3, 1968)

PRO: Was bothered by injuries, but was active for seven games as a rookie in 1968. Last year suffered a training camp knee injury, and with the subsequent operation was sidelined for the season.

WARREN

COLLEGE: Three-year regular, first three-time all-Southeastern Conference defensive tackle at Mississippi. On some all-America picks. Made 218 tackles, 97 assists as he played in 29 of 30 games. Also won two letters in track. Made 17 tackles, four assists against Florida in 1965. Intercepted pass, ran 15 yards for touchdown against Mississippi State in final game. Received business administration degree.

PERSONAL: Born in Oxford, Miss., and lives in University, Miss., in off season. Football captain and track star at University High. Set conference and district records in shot put. A cattle-raising rancher in the off season. Married with one daughter.

WARFIELD, PAUL

Wide Receiver

Ht.: 6-0 Wt.: 190 Ohio State
 Born: Nov. 28, 1942 Yr.: 7th (Trade, Cleveland, 1970)

PRO: A fluid, mobile receiver who was Cleveland's favorite passing target in recent seasons. His 50 catches in 1968 resulted in 1067 yards, the most by any Browns receiver since the club entered the NFL in 1950. Has an average gain of 20.2 yards on 215 career grabs, also best in the books for a Cleveland player. Last season, on his 42 catches covering 886 yards, he had an average gain of 21.1 yards. The longest, good for one of his 10 TD's, spanned 82 yards. Says Browns' Head Coach Blanton Collier of Warfield: "Paul runs the best, most precise, most detailed patterns of anyone I know." Warfield, a veteran of four NFL championship games in 1964, 1965, 1968 and 1969, thrice has won NFL all-star honors—in 1964, 1968, and 1969. He scored a touchdown in the 1968 Pro Bowl Game. Credits Ray Renfro with his rapid development as a pro. Drafted in first round for 1964, Warfield was an immediate success, playing an instrumental role in Cleveland's march to conference and league crowns. Suffered a broken collarbone in All-Star Game the summer of 1965 and missed most of season. He came back all the way a year later. Moved from Cleveland to Miami last January in a deal for the Dolphins' No. 1 draft pick, a selection used by the Browns to land quarterback Mike Phipps.

COLLEGE: Starred on both offense and defense at Ohio State for three years. Selected to Time Magazine's All-American eleven in 1963 and made All-Big Ten in 1962 and 1963. Did not miss a game in three years and led the Buckeyes in playing time with 373 minutes as a junior and 386 as a senior. Played in 1964 East-West, Hula Bowl, and College All-Star Games. Also won two letters as sprinter and long jumper in track, placing second in both NCAA and NAAU broad jumps. Best leap was 26-2. Earned degree in physical education.

PERSONAL: At Warren (Ohio) Harding High School, he won letters in football, basketball, baseball, and track. Set school records of :09.7 for 100-yard dash and 23.9 in broad jump, in addition to state mark of :18.9 in 180-yard low hurdles. Offered substantial bonuses by several major league baseball teams but rejected them to go to Ohio State. Married Beverly Ann Keys of Warren in 1964. First child, Sonja, born last October. Owns home in Cleveland suburb of Beachwood and spent past off season working in management at Cleveland bank.

WARREN, JIMMY

Cornerback

Ht.: 5-11 Wt.: 175 Illinois
 Born: July 20, 1939 Yr.: 7th (AFL Expansion Pool, 1966)

PRO: One of the Dolphins' steadiest defenders the past four seasons. Has played in all but one Miami game, 46 in succession. String ended when groin injury kept him out of second game of '69 season. Played every down in 1967. Of 18 career interceptions, 11 have been in the Dolphins' behalf. Started pro career as free agent at San Diego, and played in two AFL title games there. Signed by Chuck Noll after being bypassed in draft because of small stature. Joined Dolphins in expansion draft and promptly led AFL in interception return yardage in 1966. Earned a spot on the All-Star team that year. Also named the team's Best Defensive Back in 1967, an honor he repeated in '68. Shut out in the interception department last season but broke up 17 passes and was in on 36 tackles.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

JULY 2—In a trade involving two native Miamians, the Dolphins sent defensive back Mack Lamb to San Diego for guard Larry Little.

JULY 10—Six players—quarterbacks and middle linebackers—met with five coaches at Boca Raton training site for pre-camp strategy sessions. The bulk of the squad reported three days later to prepare for Miami's fourth campaign.

JULY 23—Morris S. Burk announced as a limited partner in the ownership structure.

SEPTEMBER 8—Dolphins concluded their pre-season schedule by registering their first shutout ever in conquering Boston, 13-0. The win snapped a five-game losing streak.

SEPTEMBER 11—Cornerback Lloyd Mumphord was recognized as the first winner of the Thomas Fitzgerald Memorial Award presented annually to the outstanding rookie in training camp.

SEPTEMBER 14—Cincinnati spoiled regular season debut, 27-21, despite spectacular 105-yard scoring jaunt by Mercury Morris on kick-off return.

OCTOBER 4—With President Nixon watching from the grandstand, the Dolphins turned in what Coach Wilson termed "our greatest performance since the inception of the team" to gain a 20-20 tie with defending Western Division champion Oakland.

OCTOBER 26—Dolphins celebrated "Victory Sunday" by hammering Buffalo, 24-6. The effort marked the first time in club history that the opposing team was held without a touchdown.

NOVEMBER 2—With Bob Griese throwing four TD passes, Dolphins extended New York to the limit before bowing, 34-31, before crowd of 61,761 in Shea Stadium.

NOVEMBER 9—In game played under abominable weather conditions, Larry Csonka enjoyed his greatest day as a pro, rushing for 121 yards as Miami nipped Boston, 17-16. A knee injury forced Bob Griese to the sideline for remainder of season.

NOVEMBER 30—Dolphins played first regular season home game outside of Miami, losing to Boston at Tampa, 38-23.

DECEMBER 8—Nick Buoniconti named Dolphins' Most Valuable Player.

JANUARY 17—Western All-Stars crushed an Eastern unit coached by Miami's George Wilson, 26-3, in AFL All-Star finale. Other Dolphin participants were Jim Kiick, Larry Little, Tom Goode, Bill Stanfill, and Nick Buoniconti.

JANUARY 27—Dolphins' traded first-round draft choice to Cleveland in exchange for Paul Warfield, star wide receiver of the Browns. Miami, selecting third among the 26 clubs, subsequently made Michigan tight end Jim Mandich its second-round pick.

FEBRUARY 1—The American and National Football Leagues officially merged in accordance with terms of a 1966 agreement, the Dolphins thereby becoming a member of the Eastern Division of the American Conference of the National Football League.

FEBRUARY 18—Joseph Robbie announced appointment of Don Shula as head coach, succeeding George Wilson. Shula, with additional title of vice president and with ownership in the team, promptly proclaimed intentions of hiring "a competent staff that will be the foundation for building a winning football team in Miami."

FEBRUARY 25—Announcement made by Shula that Bill Arnsparger had been hired as linebacking and head defensive coach. At same time, defensive line coach Les Bingaman was retained for work on special assignments. Howard Schnellenberger named receivers' and head offensive coach.

MARCH 2—Carl Taseff joined coaching staff as assistant and was assigned to offensive backs and scouting.

MARCH 9—Announcement made that Tom Keane would continue as defensive backfield coach under Shula.

APRIL 2—Plans for new permanent training facility at Biscayne College, commencing with 1970 season, unveiled by Managing General Partner Joseph Robbie.

APRIL 8—Monte Clark named offensive line coach.

APRIL 11—Dolphins announced plans for enlarging their scouting system through affiliation with BLESTO-V, a highly computerized scouting combine.

APRIL 13—Commissioner Pete Rozelle awarded Dolphins' No. 1 draft selection for 1971 to Baltimore as compensation for the Colts' loss of Shula.

APRIL 20—Shula announced completion of his coaching staff with the naming of Mike Scarry as defensive line coach.

APRIL 25—Forty-seven players, most of them veterans, underwent a special one-day indoctrination session at the University of Miami. The orientation program was repeated one week later for a contingent of rookies.

MAY 1—Shortly before expiration of inter-conference trading period, Dolphins completed two deals: Tom Beier to San Francisco for Lance Olssen and Dick Westmoreland to Minnesota for Bookie Bolin.

MAY 18—Marv Fleming signed Dolphin contract after playing out his option with Green Bay. By agreement with the Packers, Jack Clancy was sent to Green Bay as compensation for Fleming.

ORANGE BOWL

The Orange Bowl is the home of the Dolphins, the University of Miami Hurricanes, the Orange Bowl Game on New Year's Night, and periodically the Super Bowl. Dedicated in 1938, the municipally owned bowl has been enlarged and modernized to where it now sports new synthetic turf and seats 75,385 fans. All-time attendance record at the Orange Bowl is 77,265 set at the University of Miami-Notre Dame game on November 25, 1967. A 1968 pre-season engagement with Baltimore attracted the Dolphins' largest home crowd, 68,125.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Certified newspaper, radio, and television representatives should address requests for working press tickets and for radio and TV broadcast installation to Charles Callahan, Publicity Director, Miami Dolphins, 330 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, Florida 33132. Call 305-379-1851 (office) or 305-274-0563 (home).

PRESS BOX

The press box is accessible by elevator from the press entrance between Gates 9 and 10.

WESTERN UNION

Requests for Western Union circuits should be filed directly with the Miami office, 230 N. Miami Ave., Miami, Florida 33130 (Telephone 305-379-5373).

SERVICES

Complete statistics will be furnished including lineups, game summary, play-by-play, halftime statistics, and final team and individual statistics. A press box public address system will provide a steady flow of information throughout the game. Spotters will be provided visiting media when requests are made in advance.
