DEDICATION

The 1992 Miami Dolphin media guide is dedicated to Mrs. Elizabeth Robbie, who passed away last November. She was the wife of Dolphin founder Joe Robbie, and in addition to her association with the team, Mrs. Robbie was strongly committed to the South Florida community and was actively involved in a wide range of charitable and civic activities. Her enthusiasm and support will be missed.

ON THE COVER

In their tenth season together, the "Marks Brothers," Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, continue to be two of the most dangerous wide receivers in the National Football League. The duo have set numerous NFL and Dolphin receiving records and have combined for eight Pro Bowl appearances. In 1991, they each surpassed 1,000 yards in receptions and they both broke the team's all-time individual receiving yardage record.

TIMOTHY J. ROBBIE

President, Miami Dolphins
 Chairman of the Board, JRS

College: Tulane
 NFL: Sixth Season
 Dolphins: Sixth Season
 Born: August 24, 1955

Tim Robbie, a veteran of 14 years of professional sports administration, was named President of the Miami Dolphins on January 12, 1990, and shortly thereafter was also selected as Chairman of the Board of Joe Robbie Stadium. Before assuming these roles, he had served three years (1987-89) as the club's Vice President for Public Affairs.

During the first few months in these new positions, Robbie, along with sister Janet and brother Dan, quickly established their leadership abilities by signing Don Shula and John Offerdahl to new contracts and by spearheading a partial sale of the team and Joe Robbie Stadium in order to pave the way for Major League Baseball's emergence on the South Florida sports scene. Since then, Tim, Dan, and Janet have worked tirelessly to help improve the Dolphins by such key behind-the-scenes decisions as their signing of Dan Marino to a long-term contract and their successful effort to finalize the construction of a state-of-the-art training facility at Nova University in Davie. On the stadium side, they supervised the conversion of Joe Robbie Stadium into a modern baseball facility, which proved to be a key factor in the decision to award South Florida a National League expansion franchise beginning in 1993, the Florida Marlins. In addition, they have attracted a number of major events to JRS, including Super Bowl XXIX, college football bowl games, and well-known concert attractions. They also have purchased land adjacent to the stadium in order to upgrade parking facilities for JRS patrons.

Prior to joining the Dolphins in 1987, Robbie was involved in professional soccer in a number of different capacities. His soccer roots extend back to the Ft. Lauderdale Strikers' membership in the North American Soccer League, when Robbie first joined that club as Director of Public Relations in 1978. He was named the team's General Manager in 1980, becoming the youngest GM in the NASL. During his tenure with the Strikers, the club was one of the model franchises in the league, advancing to the Soccer Bowl championship game in 1980. With the imminent demise of the NASL, Robbie orchestrated the Strikers' move to Minnesota in 1983 and their entrance into the Major Indoor Soccer League the following season while serving as the club's GM and Executive Vice President through 1988.

Apart from his responsibilities with the Dolphins, Robbie has become extremely active in the South Florida community, with an involvement in a variety of charitable activities and fund-raisers. He was honored as the 1991-92 "Man of the Year" by the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Greater Miami, and he also shared the 1991 "Businessman of the Year" award from the North Miami Chamber of Commerce with Florida Marlins owner H. Wayne Huizenga. Robbie also serves on several National Football League committees, including NFL Charities, the Bert Bell Retirement Board and the NFL Employee Benefit Committee.

Robbie, 37, is a 1977 graduate (English) of Tulane University. He and his wife Ann reside in Coral Gables.

DON SHULA

Head Coach

College: John Carroll
NFL: 30th Season
Dolphins: 23rd Season
Born: January 4, 1930

"Don Shula can take his'n and beat you'n, and he could take you'n and beat his'n."

— "BUM" PHILLIPS

For almost three decades, Don Shula has taken "his'n" and amassed over 300 victories during a coaching career unparalleled in National Football League annals. And he is fast approaching one of the most significant records in the history of the NFL, George Halas' all-time total of 325 career victories. But while others may look back at his unprecedented accomplishments in the sport, Shula is always looking ahead, constantly working to build the Dolphins once again into winners, an effort that resulted in a 12-4 record and a return to the playoffs two years ago and a playoff drive last year that was not derailed until the season's final play. But the Dolphins' turnaround is just the latest of Shula's many achievements, and his refusal to rest on his laurels is an important reason why he has been one of the most successful coaches ever in the NFL.

"My goals are the same every year — to win the Super Bowl," said Shula, "and we will do everything we can to do just that. We worked hard to get back into the playoffs two years ago and just missed making a return trip last season. We want to win it all again, and we are making strides in that direction."

But there is more to Shula than just his victories, as impressive as that total might be. While he has gained widespread respect for his success, beyond that he has earned universal admiration for his integrity, an intangible that can't be measured by a won-loss record. Without question, Don Shula has made an impression in football, both on and off the field, that may never be duplicated.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," said Shula, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

And Shula's teams are an extension of that philosophy. It's no coincidence that the Dolphins have been the least penalized team in the NFL during his seasons in Miami. Shula represents everything that's right about his profession, and certainly his coaching accomplishments will almost be impossible to match. Beginning his 30th year as an NFL head coach and his 23rd season with the Dolphins, he is travelling down a road whose final destination will be Canton, Ohio, and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Some of the stops along that journey have established yardsticks for victories and championships virtually unmatched in NFL history:

- Shula is pro football's winningest active coach with a 306-145-6 overall mark (.676 winning percentage)
- Shula is second only to the immortal George Halas (325) on the all-time NFL coaching win list, and on September 22, 1991 in a 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers he became only the second coach in the history of the NFL to record 300 career wins

- Shula is the only coach to guide a team through an undefeated season (17-0 in 1972)
- Shula has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any coach
- Shula is the only coach to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73)
- Since 1970, Shula has led the Dolphins to the best regular season winning percentage (.676) of any team in professional sports.
- Shula and Halas are the only coaches in NFL history to make playoff appearances in four different decades
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 100 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 200 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 300 games
- Shula's career winning percentage (.676) is the best among the NFL's all-time top-10 coaches
- Shula owns the second best regular-season winning percentage (.685) among all active NFL coaches
- Since joining the Dolphins in 1970, Shula has a 58-15 (.795) record against the NFC, including a 31-4 record at home (23-4 in the Orange Bowl and 8-0 at Joe Robbie Stadium). That also is the best inter-conference record by any NFL team since the 1970 merger
- Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made three overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990)

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphins are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all others are measured. He was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins reached the playoffs five more times in the 1980s.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's first unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972 in only the third season of Shula's transformation of the Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFL power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2, including Super Bowl conquests in 1972 and 1973, probably never will be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossible, the feat became a reality.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built six unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His .661 winning mark in 22 seasons in Miami (233-119-2) parallels his .728 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

The Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the AFC East 13 times in the 22 years under Shula, and have reached the playoffs 13 times. His Dolphins were almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 111-26-1 record (.808), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 19 times in 29 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 62, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions (including the use of the "no-huddle" offense as far back as 1984, culminating with Super Bowl XIX that season), and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is what we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is — the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 27-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which reads 98-43-4 (.690), including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 66-39-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged almost 30 points per game offensively.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Orange Bowl field where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships — a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972 the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April of 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss, and in 1991 he became only the second coach in NFL history (along with George Halas) to win 300 games, reaching that total in his 29th season.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC Championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Shula led the Dolphins to yet another Super Bowl, his fifth with Miami and his sixth overall, following the 1984 season when the Dolphins went 14-2, but they fell to San Francisco 38-16 in Super Bowl XIX.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930, in Grand River, Ohio, and was raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at mid-season). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under coach George Wilson — a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 29 seasons which have followed he has reached the NFL's championship game seven times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

Shula has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to several area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. The Don Shula Scholarship was created in 1978 and has awarded scholarships to needy scholar-athletes at several Florida colleges. He also funds scholarships in the sports administration program at St. Thomas University, the location of the Dolphins' training complex. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, United Way (currently serving as the Dolphins' spokesman for that charity's national fund-raising efforts) and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps to sponsor an academic chair of studies in his name at his alma mater. The chair, funded at $1 million through major private gifts added to Shula's own commitment, is in the University's Department of Philosophy.

Shula has drawn rave reviews for his work for three years as a studio analyst during the AFC playoffs for NBC's NFL Live. He also has provided color commentary on the Super Bowl in 1987, 1988, and 1990 for British TV, and he was a member of the NBC broadcast team for Super Bowl XXIII in 1989. On Jan. 17, 1987, Shula and his Dolphin staff (including son David, the team's assistant head coach) coached the winning South squad in the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala. One of his quarterbacks in that game was son Mike, then a QB from the University of Alabama.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He was married to the former Dorothy Bartish for over 32 years before she passed away in 1991, and she was as visible as her husband in the South Florida community by her involvement in so many civic and charitable activities. They raised five children — two boys and three girls.

Oldest son David, 33, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David joined the Dolphin coaching staff late in the 1982 season, and in 1989 was named assistant head coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He spent two years in Dallas before joining the Cincinnati Bengals as receivers coach prior to the 1991 season and in 1992 was named as the Bengals' head coach. He starred collegiately at Dartmouth, where he set all of the pass receiving records for the Big Green. After earning his degree in history, David played for a season with the Baltimore Colts.

Mike, 27, a former all-state quarterback at Columbus High School in Miami, enjoyed an outstanding career as signal caller for the Crimson Tide of Alabama. Mike, who graduated with a degree in labor management, went to play one season with the Tampa Bay Bucs and spent three years on that team's coaching staff, including quarterback coach in 1990 before joining the Dolphins as a coaches assistant in 1991.

The Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has two children, Alex and Lindsey. Another daughter, Sharon, graduated from the University of Miami and Florida State's College of Law. Youngest daughter, Annie, graduated from St. Thomas University and is a teacher at Sabal Palm Elementary School in North Miami Beach.

DOLPHIN FACT

Don Shula is one of only four coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula enters his 23rd season with the Dolphins in 1992. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) and Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) both coached 23 years.

SHULA VS. NFL COACHES

Over the course of Don Shula's 29-year career as a head coach in the National Football League, he has coached against 120 different NFL head coaches in regular season action and also coached against co-coaches Hank Bullough and Ron Earhardt of the New England Patriots in 1978. Shula has recorded at least one win in his battles against 111 of the 121 coaches he has coached against. In addition, Shula either leads or is tied in the lifetime regular season series with 105 of the 121 coaches he has faced.

CURRENT NFL HEAD COACHES IN 1963

Don Shula has been a head coach in the National Football League since 1963 when he was named as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In 1963, one of the NFL's 28 current head coaches was four years old and yet to enter school (Cincinnati's David Shula), one was in second grade (Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher), one was in sixth grade (Cleveland's Bill Belichick) and four were in high school (N.Y. Jets' Bruce Colset, Minnesota's Dennis Green, Green Bay's Mike Holmgren and the L.A. Raiders' Art Shell). Below is a chart of the NFL's current head coaches in 1963.

- Bill Belichick (Browns) – 6th grader at Phillips Academy in Andover, MA
Joe Bugel (Cardinals) – Senior guard at Western Kentucky Univ.
Bruce Coslet (Jets) – High school sophomore at Joint H.S. in Oakdale, CA
Bill Cowher (Steelers) – Second grader at Orange Wood School in Beechwood, PA
Mike Ditka (Bears) – Tight end with the NFL's Chicago Bears
Tom Flores (Seahawks) – Quarterback with the AFL's Oakland Raiders
Wayne Fontes (Lions) – Defensive back with AFL's New York Jets
Joe Gibbs (Redskins) – Senior quarterback at San Diego State Univ.
Jerry Glanville (Falcons) – Senior linebacker at Northern Michigan Univ.
Dennis Green (Vikings) – High school freshman at John Harris H.S. in Harrisburg, PA
Ray Handley (Giants) – Junior halfback at Stanford Univ.
Mike Holmgren (Packers) – High school sophomore at Lincoln H.S. in San Francisco, CA
Jimmy Johnson (Cowboys) – Junior defensive lineman at Univ. of Arkansas
Chuck Knox (Rams) – Assistant coach with the AFL's N.Y. Jets
Rich Kotite (Eagles) – Freshman boxer at the Univ. of Miami
Marv Levy (Bills) – Head Coach at Univ. of California
Dick MacPherson (Patriots) – Assistant coach at Univ. of Cincinnati
Ted Marchibroda (Colts) – Assistant coach with the NFL's Washington Redskins
Jim Mora (Saints) – Assistant coach at Occidental College
Jack Pardee (Oilers) – Linebacker with the NFL's L.A. Rams
Dan Reeves (Broncos) – Junior quarterback at Univ. of South Carolina
Bobby Ross (Chargers) – Head coach at Colonial Hights H.S. in Colonial Hights, VA
M. Schottenheimer (Chiefs) – Junior linebacker at Univ. of Pittsburgh
George Seifert (49ers) – Serving six month tour of duty with the U.S. Army
Art Shell (Raiders) – High school sophomore at Bonds-Wilson H.S. in North Charleston, SC
David Shula (Bengals) – Four years old and living in Baltimore, MD
Sam Wyche (Buccaneers) – Sophomore quarterback at Furman Univ.

SHULA IS COACH TO COACHES

Over the course of Don Shula's 29 years as a head coach in the National Football League, nine of his assistant coaches have gone on to earn opportunities as NFL head coaches.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Don Shula has 11 of his former players enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In the Hall are four Dolphin players (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield) and six Colts (Raymond Berry, Ted Hendricks, John Mackey, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker and Johnny Unitas) who played under Shula. Shula's total of 11 Hall of Fame enshrinees is the most by any active NFL head coach. The L.A. Rams' Chuck Knox and Seattle's Tom Flores are second among active coaches with three former players enshrined in Canton, Ohio.

In addition, Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Hall in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987), and has made three overall presentations (Bob Griese, 1990).

SHULA'S RECORD VS. THAT OF THE NFL

Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has individually amassed more victories (306) in his 29-year career as an NFL head coach than have 16 of the current 28 NFL teams in their history – including the Miami Dolphins who have recorded 248 wins since the club gained entrance into the American Football League in 1966. Also, his .676 career winning percentage is better than any of the 28 NFL clubs' all-time winning percentages.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula, the NFL's winningest active coach, surpassed the 300-win plateau as a head coach in the National Football League. Shula comes into the 1992 season with a career record of 306-145-6 (.676) and in 1991 joined George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joins Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins under Don Shula are the winningest team in professional football. The Dolphins have the best regular-season and overall winning percentage of any NFL team during that span. Miami is also the only team in either the AFC or NFC to win three straight conference championships (1971-73).

DOLPHIN FACT

For the second consecutive season, the Dolphins will be among the top teams in the NFL in terms of total round-trip miles accumulated during the preseason and regular season. During the 1992 season, the Dolphins will travel 35,044 round trip miles. Miami's mileage total is the third highest in the NFL and second-most in the AFC. Only San Francisco (40,606 round-trip miles) and Houston (35,406) will travel more round trip miles in '92. During 1991, the Dolphins travelled more miles than any other team in the NFL with a round-trip total of 39,294 air miles.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

DANIEL T. ROBBIE

Executive Vice President,
Miami Dolphins
President, JRS

College: St. Thomas
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: August 31, 1961

Dan Robbie was named as Executive Vice President of the Dolphins on January 12, 1990, and as President of Joe Robbie Stadium later that year, after previously serving as director of Sales and Promotions for the club and the stadium. In his current capacity, Robbie has become more involved in the day-to-day operation of the Dolphins while continuing to oversee sales, marketing, and ticket office activities of both the team and the stadium, including the sale of club seats and executive suites.

The 31-year-old Robbie, now in his eighth season with the club, began working in stadium sales for the Dolphins in June of 1985 after spending two years with the Minnesota Strikers soccer team, where he was the ticket manager.

Robbie has supervised the Dolphins' annual awards banquet each of the past six years and has been a team representative at numerous NFL Public Relations/Marketing Meetings. He is an Associate Director of the North Dade Chamber of Commerce and recently was honored by the chamber for his involvement in their activities. He also serves on the advisory board of Memorial Hospital in Hollywood.

Robbie, who was appointed to the executive council of the South Florida Boy Scouts in 1988 and served as the scout show chairman each of the last three years, attended both the University of South Florida and St. Thomas University. An avid soccer fan and player, Dan and his wife Rhonda reside in North Miami.

JANET L. ROBBIE

College: Creighton University
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: January 13, 1947

Janet Robbie, who begins her third season in a management capacity with the Dolphins, was named as Executive Vice President of the club on January 12, 1990, and shortly thereafter assumed additional responsibilities as Executive Vice President of Joe Robbie Stadium. In that capacity, Janet is one of the highest-ranking female executives in the NFL and is involved in the ongoing administrative responsibilities of the team and the stadium, particularly within the finance, accounting, and legal departments. Her responsibilities also include maintaining appropriate political, civic, and business contacts in the South Florida community and establishing outreach programs within the organization. Under her guidance, the Dolphins have significantly increased their community relations program. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, Women in Distress of Broward County, South Florida Food Recovery, and the Greater Miami Convention and Visitor's Bureau.

Before embarking on her professional career, Robbie attended Creighton University and graduated with a B.S. degree in 1969. She lives in Miami and has three children, John (currently the Director of Club Level Services for the Dolphins), Michele, and Lisa Glode.

EDDIE J. JONES

Executive Vice President/General Manager

College: Louisiana State
NFL: 21st Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: June 18, 1938

Eddie J. Jones, who has spent two decades in the NFL, was named as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Dolphins on January 12, 1990. Jones had served the previous two seasons as the Dolphins' Vice President of Administration and Finance. In his current capacity, Jones oversees all financial functions of the Dolphins and directs the administrative operation of the team's front office. Following the conclusion of the 1991 season, Jones assumed the additional responsibility for overall contract negotiations with all Dolphin players and he also spearheaded the successful effort to finalize construction of a new training facility at Nova University.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. While with the Saints, he represented the team on the league's Executive Committee and was a member of the executive committee of NFL Properties. Jones currently serves on the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and the Pete Rozelle NFL Player Retirement Plan Committee.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff.

JANN M. ILIFF

General Counsel/Corporate Secretary

College: Carleton
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: November 19, 1952

Jann M. Iliff assumed her duties as General Counsel for the Dolphins in July of 1985 with responsibility for the legal affairs of the club and stadium, and recently has increased her involvement in the area of player contract negotiations. Prior to joining the Dolphins, she was in private law practice in Minneapolis with experience in civil and commercial litigation.

Iliff received her J.D. degree in 1980 from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minn. While at Mitchell, she was a staff member of the school's Law Review. Iliff earned her undergraduate degree from Carleton College in Northfield, Minn. She is admitted to the Bars of Minnesota and Florida.

A native of Minneapolis, Iliff is married to Jonathan D. Fisher and they reside in Coral Gables with their son, Jonathan, Jr.

BRYAN J. WIEDMEIER

Assistant General Manager

College: Carroll
NFL: 12th Season
Dolphins: 12th Season
Born: October 19, 1959

Now in his 12th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named as the club's Assistant General Manager on February 2, 1990, after holding a variety of positions with the team since 1981.

Wiedmeier works closely with Eddie Jones in managing the team's day to day administrative responsibilities. A member of the Florida and Federal Bars, Wiedmeier is involved in club and stadium legal affairs along with General Counsel Jann Iliff, and also is involved in handling player contract negotiations with Jones and Iliff.

Wiedmeier earned his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1989. He received his BA degree in business from Carroll College where he was a co-captain and three year starter at center for the nationally ranked (NAIA) Fighting Saints football team.

A resident of Miami Lakes, he and his wife Mary K. have four children, Lauren, Tori, John and Dani.

JILL R. STRAFACI

Treasurer

College: Florida
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: September 4, 1957

Beginning her fourth season with the Dolphins, Jill R. Strafacci assumed her current role as Treasurer in 1990 after serving as Assistant Chief Financial Officer of the team since October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club and also is involved in financial matters pertaining to Robbie Stadium Corporation.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafacci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price, Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafacci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Miami Beach with her husband, Frank.

WILLIAM T. DUFFY

Treasurer, JRS

College: Princeton
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: February 28, 1956

William T. Duffy, who joined the Dolphins' front office as Director of Finance in March of 1988, was named Treasurer of Robbie Stadium Corporation in June, 1990. In his current position, Duffy, a CPA, oversees the financial aspects of the operation of Joe Robbie Stadium and continues to be involved with financial matters relating to the Dolphins as well.

A 1978 graduate of Princeton (B.A. in economics), he earned a master's in accounting from N.Y.U. in 1980. From 1979-82, Duffy worked in public accounting at Coopers & Lybrand in Newark, N.J. In 1982 he moved on to Johnson & Johnson, where he served as an internal auditor for a year.

The Ho-Ho-Kus, N.J., native became a financial analyst for AT&T information systems in Morristown, N.J., in 1983. After two years there, he moved on to the JVC Corp. of America, where he was assistant controller, until joining the Dolphins.

Married to the former Cathryn Yag (6/27/81), Bill and his wife are the parents of Erin (8/22/82) and Caitlin (9/5/85). They reside in Plantation.

GLENN MON

Stadium Manager

College: Southern California
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: April 10, 1951

Glenn Mon, who handled stadium management for such major events as the Super Bowl, the 1984 Summer Olympic Games, and the Mass of Pope John Paul II, is in his fifth season as Stadium Manager of Joe Robbie Stadium after serving for 13 years in various capacities in management of the Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena.

Before joining the Dolphins, the 41-year-old Mon spent the previous two seasons as the senior assistant general manager and acting general manager for the Coliseum, where he was responsible for all event administration. From 1984 to September of '86, he was the assistant manager and director of public relations for the L.A. Coliseum Commission with primary responsibility for the operation of the Sports Arena. For nine years, Mon was the public relations director for the Coliseum and Sports Arena.

Locally, Mon serves on the Community Advisory Board of the Junior League of Fort Lauderdale, he is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Memorial Hospital Foundation, and is a member of Leadership Broward. A graduate of the University of Southern California (political science), he resides in Plantation with his wife, Ashley.

LAMAR VERNON

Ticket Director

College: Georgia
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: December 9, 1943

Lamar Vernon, who brings 25 years of ticketing experience to his position, enters his fifth season as ticket director for the Dolphins and Joe Robbie Stadium. He coordinates all ticket operations for the Miami Dolphins and Joe Robbie Stadium Corp.

Vernon, who came to the Dolphins in August of 1988, spent 23 years in major league baseball with the Atlanta Braves, Seattle Mariners and, most recently, the Chicago Cubs. Throughout his years in sports, Vernon has handled ticketing operations in practically every professional sport, including tennis and soccer.

Married to Patricia, the Vernons have four children, Kelly, Kim, Geri and Gerod and they reside in Plantation.

PAT KELLY

Director of Stadium Events

College: John Jay
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: February 13, 1928

Pat Kelly, who supervised stadium operations at famed Yankee Stadium for 20 years, moves into his sixth season as Director of Stadium Events for Joe Robbie Stadium.

Kelly, who began his career at Yankee Stadium in 1967, served as stadium manager and then vice president of stadium operations before joining the Dolphins. His main responsibility was the efficient operation and maintenance of all of Yankee Stadium's facilities.

While at Yankee Stadium, he supervised the Pope's Mass, numerous American League playoff and World Series games, the All-Star game, championship boxing events and New York Giants football (1967-73).

Kelly served in the United States Navy before spending 24 years with the New York City Police Department. Married to the former Catherine Conway, they are the parents of two children. The couple resides in Lauderhill.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN SANDUSKY

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

College: Villanova
NFL: 34th Season
Dolphins: 17th Season
Born: December 28, 1925

Like many of the men who played for him, John Sandusky is regarded as "one of the best in the business." Sandusky and his offensive line just keep getting better. A veteran of three decades of NFL coaching (he begins his 34th season in '92), Sandusky starts his 17th year with the Dolphins looking for continued success. In addition to his offensive line responsibilities, Sandusky was named Miami's Assistant Head Coach on March 1, 1989, and as a result has become more involved in the overall football operations and has taken on additional administrative duties.

The Dolphin offensive line under Sandusky has been among the most proficient in NFL history. His offensive line led the league in fewest sacks allowed for a league record nine consecutive seasons (1982-90). In addition, the Dolphin offensive line went 19 straight games over the 1988-89 seasons without allowing a QB sack, shattering the old NFL record of five straight games, done on many previous occasions.

In 1988, Sandusky's offensive line allowed only seven sacks, the fewest in a season in NFL history, despite throwing the ball a league-high 621 times.

Sandusky also was instrumental in the development of the Dolphins' young offensive line and under his tutelage Richmond Webb became the first rookie tackle ever named to the Pro Bowl in 1990 and repeated the honor with a second Pro Bowl selection in 1991.

Despite his offensive assistant coaching title, Sandusky is also quite knowledgeable about defense, having spent seven of his 33 seasons coaching the other side of the line of scrimmage. In seven of the past eight campaigns, 13 Dolphin offensive linemen have been singled out for some type of post-season honor.

The 66-year-old Sandusky joined the Dolphins in 1976 after spending three seasons (1973-75) as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to that, he was a coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1959-72, including the 1963-69 seasons under then-Colt head coach Don Shula. When Shula moved to Miami in 1970, he attempted, but was unable, to bring Sandusky with him. Sandusky was on the Colt staff for their two Super Bowl appearances in games III and V.

When Don McCafferty was fired as Baltimore's head coach after winning only one of the first five games in 1972, Sandusky became the Colt boss and led his charges to four victories in their final nine games. Two of Sandusky's losses that season were to Shula's undefeated Dolphin team.

Sandusky was an All-America tackle at Villanova University (1946-49) before joining the NFL's Cleveland Browns in 1950. He played both offensive and defensive tackle in six seasons in Cleveland as the Browns made it to the NFL title game in all six of those campaigns (three wins). Sandusky then played one year (1956) with the Green Bay Packers before beginning his coaching career at Villanova (1957-58).

John and his wife, Shirley, reside in Hollywood with their daughters Gina (a teacher) and Jennifer and son Jason. Jason attends St. Thomas University. John has three sons (Gerry, Jack and James) living in Baltimore, and a daughter (Ruth) who resides in Silver Spring, Md. Gerry is a sportscaster for WBAL-TV in Baltimore who formerly covered the Dolphins for WSVN-TV in Miami. Another son, Joe, died in '78 of complications from pneumonia while a sophomore at Tulsa University. John was married to his first wife, Ruth, for 34 years before her death in December, 1985. John has six grandchildren.

TOM OLIVADOTTI

Defense

College: Upsala
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: September 22, 1945

Tom Olivadotti begins his sixth season as the man responsible for the Dolphins' overall defense. Olivadotti came to the Dolphins after spending two seasons (1985-86) with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant.

Under his direction, the Dolphin defense has made significant progress each of his five years with the team. In 1991, Miami held seven opponents to 14 points or less and finished third in the AFC (and tied for fourth in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.18). In 1990, the Dolphins finished seventh in the NFL (fourth in the AFC) in overall team defense and led the league in that category for most of the first half of the season. In 1989, the Dolphin defense finished fifth in the AFC in sack production with 39 sacks after finishing 13th in the conference the year before with 24 sacks. The Dolphin defense did not allow a touchdown in four of the team's 16 games in 1988. In 1987, Olivadotti's first year with Miami, the number of big plays allowed by the Dolphins decreased dramatically, as Miami was first in the AFC (and third in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.63), after ranking 12th in the AFC and 22nd in the NFL the previous season.

The Long Branch, N.J., native made an impressive NFL coaching debut six years ago when he handled the Browns' outstanding linebacking corps. In 1986 he was in charge of Cleveland's defensive backs - one of the main reasons the Browns came within one game of the Super Bowl. Cleveland had the best record (12-4) in the AFC that season.

Olivadotti is familiar with Miami - he spent four seasons as a defensive coach at the University of Miami, serving the last three years as defensive coordinator. The Hurricanes captured the national championship in Olivadotti's last season (1983). He then followed head coach Howard Schnellenberger (a former Dolphin assistant) to Louisville with the understanding that he could leave if a pro coaching job arose, which it did with the Browns.

Olivadotti played defensive back, linebacker, and receiver in four years as a starter at Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., and also participated in baseball and track. While coaching at New Jersey high schools Pope Pius (1967-68), Long Branch (1968-71) and Red Bank Catholic (1971-72), he also played semi-pro ball for five seasons.

He then moved on to Salesianum Prep School in Wilmington, Del., as head coach (1972-75) before moving up to the college ranks beginning at Princeton (1975-77) as tutor for linebackers and the offensive line. Later (1978-79) he coached linebackers at Boston College and also organized the entire defense.

Olivadotti, who has a business degree, resides in Cooper City with his wife, Karen (married 6/15/68), and their two children, Kari Anne (9/30/70) and Kirk (1/1/74).

JOE GREENE

Defensive Line

College: North Texas State
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: September 24, 1946

Joe Greene enters his first season with the Dolphins as defensive line coach. Greene joins the Dolphins after having served five seasons (1987-91) as defensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Greene, 45, joined the Steelers' coaching ranks following a successful playing career with Pittsburgh from 1969-81. With Greene in charge of the defensive line, the Steelers led the NFL in both total defense and pass defense in 1990 and were the AFC's top rated team in terms of giveaway/takeaway ratio between 1987-91. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five teams in the AFC in run defense during four of his five seasons with the Steelers.

With the Dolphins, Greene will work Pro Bowl defensive end Jeff Cross as well as veterans Shawn Lee, Alfred Oglesby, T.J. Turner and Chuck Klingbeil and draft choices Eddie Blake and Larry Webster.

A 1987 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Greene was considered to be the heart of the Pittsburgh's famous "Steel Curtain" defense that enabled the Steelers win four Super Bowl championships. A perennial All-Pro defensive tackle for Pittsburgh for 13 seasons, he was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight straight from 1970-77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s". His career total of 66 quarterback sacks ranks second in Pittsburgh's all-time record book.

In addition to his numerous awards for his attributes on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area, before re-joining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 draft. He went on to earn NFL defensive rookie of the year honors. Greene has served on the North Texas State board of trustees. Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three children, sons Major (7/29/68) and Delon (10/13/69), who both attend and play football at North Texas State, and daughter JoQuel (10/13/73). Greene, whose full name is Charles Edward, was born September 24, 1946, in Temple, Texas.

GEORGE HILL

Linebackers

College: Denison
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill, who is beginning his fourth season with the Dolphins, has more than a decade of coaching experience in the NFL. Before coming to Miami on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts and spent six seasons before that (1979-84) as the linebacker coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

With the Dolphins, Hill not only works with the team's linebackers but is also responsible for Miami's run defense. Hill coaches a blend of young performers such as All-Pro John Offerdahl, All-Rookie Bryan Cox, David Griggs, Ned Bolcar and Louis Cooper along with seasoned veterans E.J. Junior, Cliff Odom, and John Grimsley and draft choices Marco Coleman, Dwight Hollier, Roosevelt Collins and Andre Powell.

While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987 the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was a part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as an assistant coach at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findley (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, he was a four-year letterman at Denison (1954-57).

Hill was born in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64), and Tammy (2/26/69).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins drafted 15 players in the 1992 draft which is the most players selected by Miami in a draft since 1982 when the team picked 17 college players. In addition, the '92 draft saw the Dolphins select eight defensive players which is also the most since 1982 when Miami picked eight players for the team's defense.

TONY NATHAN

Coaches' Assistant

College: Alabama
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: December 14, 1956

Former Dolphins running back Tony Nathan enters his fifth season with Miami as a coaches' assistant. In his coaching role, Nathan charts plays both in practice and on game days and assists in the breakdown of game film. Known as an outstanding receiver as a player, Nathan works with Miami's young running backs on their receiving skills.

A nine-year veteran with the Dolphins (1979-87), Nathan ended his NFL career ranked high among the Dolphins all-time rushing and receiving leaders. His career rushing totals of 732 attempts for 3,543 yards are fourth best on Miami's all-time chart, while his 383 catches also rank fourth. In 1981, Nathan was named the team's most valuable player as he led Miami in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and an NFL-leading 5.3 yards per carry.

Collegiately, Nathan had an outstanding career as a running back at the University of Alabama. During Nathan's final two seasons with the Tide, the school posted records of 11-1 and won the national championship his senior year. He finished his career with rushing totals of 1,997 yards on 310 carries and 29 touchdowns. As a senior, Nathan ran for a regular-season total of 770 yards and added 127 yards in Alabama's 14-7 Sugar Bowl edging of Penn State to win the national championship. He was a college teammate of current Dolphin linebacker E.J. Junior.

Nathan and his wife, Johnnie (married 6/16/79), live in Miami Lakes with daughters Nichole (7/8/80), Natalie (8/9/83) and Nadia Inez (5/27/87). He was born on December 14, 1956, in Birmingham, Alabama.

MEL PHILLIPS

Defensive Backs

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 13th Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips moves into his eighth season as defensive backs coach for the Dolphins. Under Phillips' guidance, young safeties Louis Oliver and Jarvis Williams developed into one of the NFL's most intimidating pair of safeties, while J.B. Brown, emerged from a 12th round draft pick in 1989 to become one of the best young cornerbacks in the league.

Before coming to Miami, the 50-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips coached under then-head coach (and former Dolphins' assistant) Monte Clark.

Known for his outstanding rapport with the players, Phillips works with a defensive backfield that features quality veterans Vestee Jackson and Liffort Hogley, as well as young players such as Williams, Oliver, Brown, Michael McGruder, Kerry Glenn, Bruce Alexander, Mike Iaquaniello, and Bobby Harden and top draft choice Troy Vincent.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include 10 interceptions for 106 return yards (35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, Phillips rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia (married 1/23/65), live in Miami Lakes with their daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73). He was born on Jan. 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

LARRY SEIPLE

Receivers

College: Kentucky
NFL: 12th Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: February 14, 1945

Beginning his fifth season on the Dolphin coaching staff, Larry Seiple is well-known to Dolphin fans. He spent 11 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receiver coach after spending a year as a sales representative for a manufacturing company in the automotive industry in Birmingham, Michigan.

With the Dolphins, Seiple works with Pro Bowl wide receiver Mark Clayton and Mark Duper as well as all purpose player Jir Jensen. He also coaches young talent such as Ferrell Edmunds, Greg Baty, Fred Banks, Tony Martin, Robert Clark, Mike Williams, and Scott Miller.

Last year, under Seiple's direction, Clayton made his fifth Pro Bowl appearance, while Duper regained the form that made him one of the league's outstanding receivers.

In 1990, despite numerous injuries to the receiving corps, the Dolphins finished fourth in the NFL in pass offense, while Edmunds was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

In 1989, Dolphin receivers had their fair share of success as Edmunds became the first Dolphin tight end to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest and rookie wide receiver Andre Brown, who joined the Dolphins as an undrafted free agent, set the team rookie record with five touchdown receptions.

In Seiple's first season as receivers coach, Clayton set a new Dolphin record for receptions with 86 (finishing tied for second in the NFL in that category) while Jensen developed into one of the most dependable receivers in the league.

The Allentown, Pa., native brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84), working under former Dolphins' assistant Monte Clark. He then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff that also included current Miami defensive backs coach Mel Phillips.

The 47-year-old Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphin assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular-season games for Miami (ninth-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five TDs. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins' record for most career punts (633), and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is second only to the 43.4-yard average of current punter Reggie Roby. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his daring 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy (married 6/4/66), live in Pembroke Pines and have three children, Kerri Lynn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71).

MIKE SHULA

Coaches' Assistant

College: Alabama
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: June 3, 1965

Mike Shula enters his second season with Miami as a coaches' assistant. In his role, Shula assists the coaching staff in football operations and along with Tony Nathan assists Director of Player Personnel Tom Heckert in pro scouting.

Shula, 27, joined the Dolphins after serving three seasons as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 1990, Shula coached the Bucs' quarterbacks after spending two seasons as an offensive assistant. In that role, he worked with the coaches in scouting NFL teams' personnel and tendencies and also assisted in coaching the quarterbacks.

Shula, who was a 12th-round draft choice of Tampa Bay in 1987, was a three-year starter and an All-Southeastern Conference quarterback at Alabama. He became just the second quarterback in Alabama history to pass for 2,000 yards (2,009 in 1985) in a season. He led Alabama to wins in the Aloha Bowl as a junior and Sun Bowl as a senior, when he served as a co-captain of the Crimson Tide. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in labor relations.

Shula, who was born in Baltimore, Md., is single and resides in Miami.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

Assistant Offensive Line

College: Alabama
NFL: First Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: November 20, 1957

Entering his first season with the Dolphin coaching staff, Dwight Stephenson ranks among the greatest players in Dolphins history. The former All-Pro center rejoined the team as Assistant Offensive Line coach on January 31, 1992. In his coaching role, Stephenson will assist John Sandusky, the Dolphins' Assistant Head Coach.

A nine-year veteran with the Dolphins (1980-88), Stephenson was considered by many to be the "best at his position" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87) and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His five Pro Bowl selections and four starts are tied for the second-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records.

Stephenson's greatest honor came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects. He is the only Dolphin to win the award since its inception in 1970.

A three-time All-Southeastern Conference selection at Alabama, he was called by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant as the "greatest center I have ever coached." Stephenson helped the Crimson Tide to consecutive national championships (1978 and 1979), three straight Sugar Bowl victories (1977-79) and a 21-game winning streak during his junior and senior seasons. As a senior, he was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, given annually to the nation's top college lineman.

Stephenson, 34, joins the Dolphins after working the last three years in the construction and real estate business with Dwight Stephenson Construction and Triangle Properties in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Stephenson continues to serve as president of Dwight Stephenson Construction. He also served with former Dolphin offensive lineman Bob Kuechenberg as co-chairman of the team selection committee for the Blockbuster Bowl.

Stephenson and his wife Dinah (married 2/27/82) live in Miami Lakes with their sons Dwight, Jr. (9/11/84) and Dwayne (1/22/87). He was born November 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, N.C.

GARY STEVENS

Offense, Quarterbacks

College: John Carroll
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: March 19, 1943

Gary Stevens begins his fourth season as quarterback coach, and he certainly is familiar to Dolphin coaches and fans alike. He spent the previous nine years (1980-88) as an assistant coach at the University of Miami, including the last six as offensive coordinator where he was the architect of Miami's explosive offense that was centered around the passing game. During his tenure at UM, the Hurricanes won two national championships and he helped guide the careers of quarterbacks Jim Kelly, Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde, and Steve Walsh as well as wideout Eddie Brown. In his six seasons as offensive coordinator, Miami averaged over 30 points per game and over 400 yards per game in total offense.

The Hurricanes' receivers coach from 1980 to 1984, Stevens switched to coaching the quarterbacks in '84, while also adding the duties of assistant head coach during that same year. Prior to his arrival at Miami, Stevens held assistant coaching positions at West Virginia (1975-79), Kent State (1974-75), and Louisville (1971-74). A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he began his coaching career in the high school ranks in the late 1960s at Benedictine High School and Chanel High School in Ohio.

A three-year letterman at running back for John Carroll University, he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1965. Stevens lives in Kendall with his wife, Rosemarie, and they have five children - Cindy, Maria, Cheryl, Kelly Ann, and Gary Ben.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs

College: John Carroll
NFL: 26th Season
Dolphins: 23rd Season
Born: September 28, 1928

When Don Shula arrived in Miami in 1970, so too did Carl Taseff. Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad in Cleveland. They were also roommates in the NFL while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56).

Taseff has coached the Dolphin offensive backs since coming to South Florida, and he's done it with great success. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions. More important, Taseff has been able to change with the times. During the 1970s, the Dolphins employed a grind-it-out style that featured powerful fullback Larry Csonka. Since Dan Marino's emergence as Miami's air-oriented quarterback, Taseff's charges have become more a part of the passing game.

Taseff came to Miami after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

As a player, Taseff was a star running back at John Carroll University, scoring 22 touchdowns in 1950. He began his pro career in 1951 with his hometown Cleveland Browns before beginning a nine-year term (1953-61) with the Baltimore Colts. A cornerback for the Colts, Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown against Green Bay (10/14/56). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field goal attempt against the Rams (12/12/59).

After the Colts, Taseff played the latter part of the '61 season for Philadelphia before winding up his playing career with Buffalo in 1962. Overall, Taseff's career stats show 112 punt returns for 826 yards and no fumbles.

Carl and his wife, Lucy (married 11/18/78), live in Miami. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan (both married), by a previous marriage. He also has four grandchildren.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Conditioning

College: South Carolina State

NFL: 18th Season

Dolphins: 18th Season

Born: February 2, 1947

One of the key figures in the Dolphin program is veteran strength and conditioning coach Junior Wade.

In his tenth season as the Dolphins' strength and conditioning coach, Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with Miami's special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he long had held the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Appointed to his present position on Feb. 15, 1983, Wade first joined the Dolphins as training camp assistant for the 1973-74 preseasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, S.C.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education. Following his graduation from SCSU in 1969, he worked as head trainer at the school for three years.

Junior, a native of Bath, S.C., lives in Miami with his wife, Constance (married 12/13/70), and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams

College: Wichita State

NFL: Tenth Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his seventh year as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, concentrating on special teams.

Under Westhoff's direction, the Dolphin special teams made a significant impact in 1991. Pete Stoyanovich recorded AFC-leading and Dolphin record totals of 121 points and 31 field goals, while Reggie Roby maintained his position as one of the best punters in the NFL by becoming the first Miami player to lead the league in punting average and also set the team's all-time single-season record with a 45.7 punting average.

Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year in the United States Football League with the Arizona Outlaws, where he was the offensive line coach for Frank Kush.

Before his one-year stint in the USFL, Westhoff spent three seasons under Kush with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84). While with the Colts, his responsibilities included tight ends, special teams and weight training.

The 44-year-old Westhoff began his collegiate playing career at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history. He was the team's MVP as a junior and served as captain during his senior campaign.

Westhoff started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in '75 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Westhoff then took over as coach of the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. He then coached at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981), working with the offensive line.

In 1989, the Dolphin players honored Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him special recognition with the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his recent battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins. For his courage, the Dolphin players felt Westhoff deserved to be recognized with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Born in Pittsburgh, he was raised in Bethel Park, Pa. Mike and his wife, Marilyn (married 1/25/70), reside in Plantation with their son John Thomas (4/27/81).

FOOTBALL STAFF

TOM HECKERT

Director of Player Personnel

College: Youngstown State

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: September 18, 1938

Beginning his fourth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert was named as the club's Director of Player Personnel on June 4, 1992, after spending his first three years with the team as Director of College Scouting. In his new capacity, Heckert's main responsibility is in the area of pro scouting, but he also will continue to oversee the club's college scouting program.

During Heckert's three years as Director of College Scouting, the Dolphins added such players as Richmond Webb, Keith Sims, Alfred Oglesby, Scott Mitchell and Bryan Cox to their roster along with current rookies such as Troy Vincent and Marco Coleman.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 54, joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers, with his primary concentration being the major conferences in the Southeast, Southwest, Northeast, and Midwest. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns, an area that included all Big Ten and Big Eight schools together with a total of 62 colleges in 12 states. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns and was part of the turnaround in Cleveland that saw the Browns go from a 5-11 team in 1984 to a playoff participant in his final two seasons there.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/28/62), have two children, Kim (28) and Tom, Jr. (25), and one grandchild, Amelia (2). Tom, Jr. is a Personnel Assistant with the Dolphins.

TOM BRAATZ

Director of College Scouting

College: Marquette

NFL: 28th Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: May 12, 1933

Tom Braatz was named as the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on June 12, 1992, replacing Tom Heckert, who earlier was elevated to the position as the team's Director of Player Personnel. In his new capacity with the Dolphins, Braatz will be responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft. In that role, he will work closely with Heckert, Dolphin Head Coach Don Shula, and the rest of the team's football staff.

Braatz joins the Dolphins with a wealth of NFL experience and is regarded as one of the leading personnel experts in professional football. He is a veteran of 27 years in the NFL as a front office executive, personnel director, and talent scout with the Atlanta Falcons and the Green Bay Packers.

For the last five years, Braatz served as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Packers, where his duties included the hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft, handling trades and waivers, and conducting contract negotiations with players.

Before joining the Packers on January 31, 1987, Braatz was a member of the Atlanta Falcons front office since the club's inception in 1965. He joined the team as an area scout, and went on to hold a number of positions with the Falcons, including Director of Player Personnel, Director of Scouting, and General Manager. While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, where he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons including William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic, and Steve Bartkowski. He also handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure with the Falcons.

Before beginning his executive career in the NFL, Braatz played with the Washington Redskins as a linebacker and closed out his pro career under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season. He played collegiately at Marquette University, where he captained the school's football team as a senior.

Braatz, 59, and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 29, and Jon, 25.

DOLPHIN FACT

In regular season action, the Dolphins were 7-4 last year on natural grass (5-3 at home and 2-1 on the road) and 1-4 on artificial turf (all on the road). Since 1980 (regular season games only), the Dolphins are 83-36-1 (.696) on grass - 65-25-1 (.720) at home and 18-11 (.621) on the road. On turf over the same period of time, the Dolphins are 31-33 (.484).

JOE BUSHOFSKY

College Scout

College: North Carolina State
NFL: 23rd Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: January 24, 1939

One of the NFL's most respected talent scouts, Joe Bushofsky enters his third season as a college scout with the Dolphins. Bushofsky is responsible for college scouting in the eastern states.

Bushofsky, 53, joined the Dolphins after serving 16 seasons with the Detroit Lions, including the last five years as Director of Player Personnel. He originally scouted the eastern colleges for the Lions before expanding his areas to parts of the midwest. In his early years with the club, he was responsible for scouting approximately one half of the colleges in the country. Bushofsky was promoted to the Lions' Director of Player Personnel in June, 1985.

With the Lions, Bushofsky worked from 1978-84 under former Dolphins Director of Pro Personnel Monte Clark (then the Lions' head coach). Also on the Lions' football staff were current Dolphin assistant coaches Larry Seiple and Mel Phillips.

A native of Pittsburgh, Bushofsky's NFL experience dates back to 1970 when he began working for the Pittsburgh Steelers on a part-time basis doing film evaluation. He worked with the BLESTO scouting combine from 1973 to '75 before joining the Lions.

Bushofsky was an All-ACC guard as a senior at North Carolina State and was named to the state of North Carolina's college all-star football team in 1961 and '62.

Following graduation, Bushofsky returned to the Pittsburgh area where he was a successful high school coach for 11 years. As head coach of his alma mater, North Catholic High School, he compiled an undefeated record in 1970 and won the Catholic championship of western Pennsylvania.

Bushofsky and his wife, Rose, have four children, Ted, Tracy, Tricia and Terry, and they reside in Troy, Mich.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

College: Wyoming
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his tenth Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyo., for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

RON LABADIE

College Scout

College: Adrian
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his third year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the mid-eastern states.

Labadie, 43, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (17), Brad (14) and Ben (10).

JERE STRIPLING

College Scout

College: Murray State
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his fifth season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his third season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include the scouting of the mid-western states.

Stripling, 57, joined the Dolphins after serving the previous two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain and was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (32) and Susan (30).

RYAN VERMILLION

Head Trainer

College: Miami
NFL: First Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: May 24, 1963

Ryan Vermillion was named as Head Trainer for the Miami

Dolphins on April 10, 1992, becoming only the third person to hold that position in the club's history. Along with his two assistants, Britt Brown and Troy Maurer, Vermillion is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with the club's physicians. In conjunction with assistant coach Junior Wade, Vermillion also oversees the team's off-season conditioning program.

Vermillion is no stranger to the Dolphins, having served as the club's Physical Therapist last year, where he helped supervise the rehabilitation program for many of the team's injured players along with the Dolphins' medical staff and Wade. Vermillion also spent the last six seasons (1986-91) as the Physical Therapist for the University of Miami and was based at Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables. Before that, he spent three seasons as a volunteer trainer for the Hurricanes.

Vermillion, 29, received his degree in Physical Therapy from Miami in 1986 and has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Margaret (7/27/91) live in South Miami.

BOB MONICA

Equipment Manager

College: St. Thomas
NFL: 12th Season
Dolphins: 12th Season
Born: May 6, 1957

Bob Monica begins his eighth year as Dolphin equipment manager after four seasons as assistant equipment manager. Monica, a visible and popular figure around the Dolphins' training camp, is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team. In addition, Monica, along with Joe Malinconico and Eugene Davis, coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site, including such distant locations as London in 1988, Tokyo in 1991 and Berlin this year.

The 35-year-old Monica earned a B.S. in sports administration from Miami's St. Thomas University. He transferred to St. Thomas from Furman University in Greenville, S.C., where he had been attending college on a football and golf scholarship. A native of Madison, N.J., Monica captained Madison High School's 1976 football state champions. In addition, he was New Jersey state wrestling champion in the 188 lb. division (1976). In 1975, Monica traveled with the USA Junior Olympic Wrestling team to Germany and Bulgaria.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Monica was a production manager for Electric Factory Concerts in Philadelphia. He is married to the former Donna Beets (4/23/88). The couple resides in Pembroke Pines with their son Gino Anthony (12/9/91). One of Bob's personal highlights came when he appeared as a bartender in the Jan. 10, 1986, episode of "Miami Vice," one of the highest rated shows in the series' history.

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM

Joe Robbie Stadium, "South Florida's Major League Facility," will again serve as home of the Miami Dolphins for the 1992 season. Now in its sixth year of operation, the 73,000 seat, 115 million dollar, state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. Plans for the stadium were first announced on March 5, 1984. The clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985 and ground breaking ceremonies were held on December 1, 1985, just 20-1/2 months prior to the first game.

Originally named Dolphin Stadium, the facility was renamed by the Robbie children on April 30, 1987, for the man who had been the driving force behind its construction. "We have seen our father lay everything he owns and everything he has accomplished on the line to build the stadium, putting himself in a real bind," said Tim Robbie. "If he had flunked the marketing test or the private financing test, the project would have been Joe Robbie's folly. So why not 'Joe Robbie Stadium?' Stadiums have been named in other places after people who have done a lot less to deserve it."

Financing for Joe Robbie Stadium was based largely upon the licensing of executive suites and club seats on a 10-year basis. Executive suites which seat 10, 12 or 16 people per box range in price from $30,000-$58,000 per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, two TV monitors and telephone service, along with catered food and beverage service. Suite patrons also receive two complimentary parking passes as well as four guest passes.

Club Seats, which are priced from $800-$1,800 per year on a 10-year license, are 21" wide with chairbacks and arm rests. Club Seat patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow circulating air down on them. They are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck.

Suite and Club Seat patrons have access to JR's in the Stadium. Located in the east end of the stadium, it commands a panoramic view of the playing area with casual snacks and beverages available in the sports lounge.

The home of first class events, JRS hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. The stadium will host its second NFL Championship game, when Super Bowl XXIX comes to JRS on January 29, 1995.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty (50) percent of Robbie Stadium Corporation (the parent company of Joe Robbie Stadium) and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to JRS. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise.

As the seasons change, so do the sporting events at Joe Robbie Stadium. Major League Baseball returned this spring for the fifth straight year as JRS hosted spring training games in preparation for South Florida's new Major League Baseball team, the Florida Marlins, who will call JRS their home for their 1993 inaugural season in the National League. The thirteen spring training games played at JRS the past five springs, attracted over 370,000 fans.

The facility displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events and 1991 was no exception. Along with Miami Dolphins football, college football took the field with the second annual Blockbuster Bowl, the Orange Blossom Classic and the Alamo Heritage Bowl. JRS also hosted high school football with the return of the Soul Bowl. The rock group Guns N' Roses played a New Years Eve concert and numerous trade shows were held throughout the stadium as well as international soccer featuring the United States World Cup Team.

The concert tradition continued in 1992 with Genesis putting on a spectacular night of entertainment. They join the stellar list of musical talents that include Hall & Oates, Chicago, Rod Stewart, The Who, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block and Guns N' Roses, who have performed at JRS.

Behind the scenes, JRS is currently undergoing renovation to accommodate Major League Baseball. The conversion has included the installation of retractable seating on the north-side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the south west corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of an electric disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. The only other facility to feature this type of track is Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation will also include the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities.

The stadium was designed with the spectator in mind. The general seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field and there are no obstructed seats in the stadium. Access to seats is easily gained by the two ramps or the escalators located at each of the four entrance gates.

JRS offers the utmost in comfort and convenience. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands, each featuring a TV monitor, so as not to miss a minute of the action. Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men and 40 women). Inside the stadium, there are two giant scoreboards on both ends of the facility, each comprised of a Sony JumboTRON video screen.

Joe Robbie Stadium is located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line and sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 18 miles south of Fort Lauderdale.

There are a total of 14,970 parking spaces for cars and 254 parking spaces for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad on the premises.

JRS prides itself on the Prescription Athletic Turf (natural grass) making up its playing surface. It was designed with mechanical drainage capability and provides a firm playing surface within 30 minutes of a 1" per hour of rain.

Joe Robbie Stadium is truly "South Florida's Major League Facility."

MARK CLAYTON

 Wide Receiver
 Born: 4/8/61
 College: Louisville '83
 Acquired: D8, 1983
 NFL: Tenth Season
 Dolphins: Tenth Season

PRO: 1991 - Outstanding receiver with a 35-inch vertical jump . . . Finished tied for seventh in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL in receptions with 70, was sixth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL with 1,053 reception yards, was tied for first (with Buffalo's Thurman Thomas) in the AFC and tied for fourth (along with Thomas and Atlanta's Andre Rison) in the NFL in touchdowns with 12 TDs (behind Detroit's Barry Sanders, San Francisco's Jerry Rice, and Dallas' Emmitt Smith), and was first in the AFC and tied for second (with Rison) in the NFL in receiving touchdowns with 12 TDs (behind Rice) . . . Was tied with Mark Duper for the team lead in receptions with 70 catches and was second in reception yardage with 1,053 reception yards . . . It was the fourth season in his career that he led the team (or tied for the team lead) in receptions . . . His 70 catches was tied for the third highest single season total of his career, while his 1,053 reception yards was fourth highest single season total of his career . . . Tied or led the Dolphins in receptions seven times and tied or led the team in reception yards five times . . . Was one of two receivers (Mark Duper was the other) to catch at least one pass in every game . . . Finished the season by making five touchdown catches in his final three games . . . Suffered a cervical disc (neck) injury before the Bears game on July 26th and missed three of the five preseason games, including the last two . . .

RECEPTIONS: Clayton's 70 catches in 1991 tied him with Mark Duper for the club lead in receptions . . . He now has led the Dolphins in receiving three times during his career and has tied for the team lead one other time . . . His 70 catches was tied for the third highest single season reception total of his career and was his best total since 1988 . . . He holds four of the top seven positions and five of the top ten spots in the club's all-time single season listing of receptions:

DOLPHIN SINGLE SEASON RECEPTION LEADERS

With his 70 catches in 1991, Clayton has caught 70 or more passes four times in his career . . . He also has caught 50 or more passes in a season six times in his career (1984-86, 1988-89, 1991), becoming the 22nd player in NFL history to record six or more 50-plus reception seasons . . . If he catches 50 or more passes in 1992, he would become the 12th player in NFL history to record seven or more 50-reception seasons, joining Steve Largent (ten years), Art Monk (nine), James Lofton (eight), Ray Berry (seven), Art Powell (seven), Lance Alworth (seven), Charley Taylor (seven), Charlie Joiner (seven), Wes Chandler (seven), Dwight Clark (seven), and

Kellen Winslow (seven) . . . Drew Hill, Andre Reed, Al Toon, Ernie Givins, Bill Brooks, Jerry Rice and Henry Ellard also could join that list with 50 receptions in 1992 . . . Beginning on October 12, 1986 vs. Buffalo, has a current streak of at least one catch in his last 79 straight regular season games played (81, including playoff contests), breaking Nat Moore's team record (36) for most consecutive games with at least one reception . . . He broke that record on December 12, 1988 vs. Cleveland, when he caught a pass in his 37th straight game . . . In fact has caught at least two passes in the first 40 of those games and 71 of those 79 games overall (71 of 81 including postseason games), being limited to one reception that span only on Oct. 1, 1989 at Houston, Nov. 5, 1989 vs. Indianapolis, Nov. 19, 1989 at Dallas, Dec. 17, 1989 at Indianapolis, Oct. 7, 1990 vs. N.Y. Jets, Nov. 11, 1990 at N.Y. Jets, Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis, and Sept. 8, 1991 vs. Indianapolis . . . The last time he was held without a catch was on Oct. 5, 1986 at New England . . . Made his 500th career reception Dec. 15th at San Diego, becoming only the second Dolphin in history to make 500 catches, joining Nat Moore . . . His 507 career receptions ranks second on the Dolphins' all-time reception list, trailing only Moore's team mark of 510 career catches . . . He needs only four more catches to break Moore's all-time Dolphin record for receptions . . . With 507 career receptions, he is one of 27 players in NFL history with 500 or more career catches and he ranks 25th among the NFL's all-time reception leaders:

YARDAGE: Clayton finished second on the Dolphins with 1,053 reception yards in 1991, behind Duper's team leading total of 1,085 yards . . . It was Clayton's fifth season of 1,000 reception yards, and he became the tenth player in NFL history to have five or more seasons of 1,000 reception yards, joining Steve Largent (eight seasons), Lance Alworth (7), Jerry Rice (6), James Lofton (6), Al Powell (5), Don Maynard (5), Gary Clark (5), Drew Hill (5) and Art Monk (5) . . . His five 1,000-yard seasons also is a Dolphin team record . . . Clayton holds three of the top five positions and six of the top ten spots in the club's all-time single season listing of reception yardage leaders:

			996	Paul Warfield	1971

With 8,024 career reception yards, Clayton joined Mark Duper as the only Dolphins to reach 8,000 career receiving yards and ranks second among the teams' all-time reception yardage leaders, behind Duper's club record of 8,107 career yards . . . Clayton went over the 7,000-yard milestone on Dec. 22, 1991 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . He became the third Dolphin in history to crack 7,000 yards in receptions (Nat Moore and Mark Duper were the first and second, respectively), going over the 7,000-yard mark on September 1, 1991 at Buffalo . . . Among active NFL receivers, Clayton ranks eighth in reception yardage:

Clayton had two 100-yard games in 1991 (138 yards on Sept. 1st at Buffalo and 100 yards on Sept. 29th at N.Y. Jets) and now has 22 career 100-yard games (all in the regular season), second in team history only to Duper's club record of 27 career regular season 100-yard contests (30 career 100-yard games, including playoffs) . . .

TOUCHDOWN CATCHES: Clayton's 12 touchdown catches in 1991 was tied for the third highest single season touchdown reception total in Dolphin history along with Nat Moore's 12 TD catches in 1977, behind Clayton's team mark of 18 TD receptions in 1984 and his 14 TD receptions in 1988 . . . Clayton cracked the NFL's all-time Top Twenty for career touchdown receptions in 1990 and with a current total of 78 touchdown catches is in 11th place on the all-time TD reception list . . . He needs one more TD catch to tie Harold Charnichael and Charley Taylor for 9th place on the all-time list:

Clayton had four games in 1991 with two touchdown receptions and now has 17 career games with two or more receiving touchdowns . . . Clayton has caught a touchdown pass in 62 career games (65, including playoffs), and in those games the Dolphins have a 35-2 record (38-27, including postseason play) . . . Clayton also has caught a touchdown pass in 26 of his last 49 games (27 of 51, including playoffs), with 36 TDs total in those 49 games (37 TDs in 51 overall games) . . . Over the course of their nine-year careers, Clayton and Dan Marino have combined for 76 touchdown passes, the highest scoring combination in NFL history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), Seattle's Jim Zorn to Steve Largent (43 touchdowns), Buffalo's Jim Kelly to Andre Reed (43 touchdowns), and the Jets' Joe Namath to Don Maynard (41 touchdowns) . . . Clayton has caught 76 of his 78 career regular season touchdowns from Marino; the only other quarterbacks to throw a touchdown pass to Clayton were Scott Secules (with a 77-yard TD pass on September 29, 1991 at N.Y. Jets) and Roy Jaworski (with a 13-yard TD pass on December 18, 1988 at Pittsburgh) . . . Should Clayton lead the NFL in touchdown receptions in 1992, he would join Don Hudson (nine times, 1935-38 and 1940-44), Jerry Rice (four times, 1986-87 and 1989-90), and Lance Alworth (three times, 1964-66) as the only receivers to have led the league in that category three or more times . . .

DOLPHIN ALL-TIME LEADERS: With 8,024 career receiving yards Clayton currently stands second on the Dolphin all-time list behind Mark Duper's team record of 8,107 yards . . . He had passed Duper to move into first place on the all-time list on Nov. 24th at Chicago, but was passed by Duper on Dec. 9th . . . Duper broke Nat Moore's team record for career receiving yards earlier this season and then was passed by Clayton before regaining the lead . . . With his 73 yards in receptions on Nov. 10, 1991 vs. New England Clayton passed Nat Moore's former team record of 7,547 reception yards and moved into second place on the Dolphins' all-time reception yardage list, surpassed at the time only by Duper, who broke Moore's record earlier in that Patriot contest . . . Clayton and Duper are the only Dolphins to have gone over 8,000 receiving yards . . . With 474 career points, Clayton is third on the Dolphins' all-time scoring list (Uwe von Schamann is second with 540 points) . . . He also holds the Dolphin team records for most career touchdowns (79) and most career touchdown receptions (78) . . . On Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, Clayton caught two touchdown passes to give him 71 total career touchdowns, breaking Nat Moore's club record of 75 TDs . . . His two touchdown receptions in that contest also gave him 75 career receiving TDs, breaking Moore's team record of 74 receiving touchdowns . . . With 8,657 combined yards (108 rushing, 8,024 receiving, and 525 returns), he is in third place on the Dolphins' all-time combined yardage chart . . . He trails Tony Nathan, who is in second place on that list with 8,752 combined yards, and Moore, who holds the club record with 8,950 combined yards . . . With 8,132 rushing and receiving yards, he is in first place on the all-time Dolphin rushing/receiving list, having broken Moore's former club record of 7,795 career rushing/receiving yards on Nov. 24th at Chicago . . . Mark Duper is second with 8,097 total yards while Moore is third . . .

AS A REGULAR: In his career he has caught at least one pass in 126 of 137 games (including seven of eight post-season contests), but since becoming a regular in 1984 (his second season in the NFL), Clayton has caught at least one pass in 121 of his 122 games played (including all seven post-season games), with his on game without a catch in that span coming on Oct. 5, 1986 at New England . . . In his eight years as a starter, he ranks among the NFL regular season league leaders in all three major statistical receiving categories:

WITH MARK DUPER: Clayton and fellow receiver Mark Duper form duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . The duo have had 100 or more yards receiving in the same game four times (October 23, 1988 vs. New York Jets; October 19, 1986 vs. Los Angeles Raiders; September 21, 1986 at New York Jets; September 30, 1984 at St. Louis Cardinals), with the Dolphins going 1-3 in those games . . . When either Clayton or Duper go over 100 yards receiving in a game, Miami is 27-22 (regular season) . . . The Dolphins are 10-12 when Clayton tops 100 yards and 17-10 when Duper tops 100 yards . . . Starting with 1983, Clayton's first season in the league, the duo have combined for 974 catches, the second highest total by a pair of receivers on the same team in that span, and have a combined 16,131 yards in receptions, the second highest total by a duo with the same club over the past nine years:

When Clayton had 1,053 reception yards in 1991 while Duper had 1,085 yards in receptions as well, it marked the third time in their careers that Clayton and Duper recorded 1,000-plus yard in the same year, having also had matching 1,000 yard seasons in 1986 and 1984 . . . Their three simultaneous 1,000 yard seasons ties them with Washington's Art Monk and Gary Clark for the most 1,000 yard seasons by a pair of receivers; Monk and Clark combined for seasons with 1,000 or more yards apiece in 1991, 1989, and 1986:

HONORS: Was named as a reserve wide receiver on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his fifth Pro Bowl selection (others were from 1984-86 and 1989) . . . His five Pro Bowl selections is tied for the second most in team history with fullback Larry Csonka (1970-74), wide receiver Paul Warfield (1970-74), safety Jake Scott (1971-75), nose tackle Bob Baumhower (1979, 1981-84), center Dwight Stephenson (1983-87), and linebacker John Offerdahl (1986-90) . . . He also received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award in 1991 for the sixth time overall . . . That award has gone to either Clayton or Duper each of the last nine years, with Clayton also winning in 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, and 1989, while Duper won it in 1983, 1986, and 1990 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 22): Tied for team lead with seven receptions for 94 yards and one touchdown . . . His seven catches matched his season high, while his 94 yards was his third highest single game reception yardage total of the year . . . He went over the 1,000-yard mark in receptions, becoming the 10th player in NFL history to reach that milestone in five different seasons . . .

AT SAN DIEGO (DEC. 15): Had four catches for 50 yards and two touchdowns on Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . His final reception in that contest was the 500th catch of his career . . . It was his fourth game of the year and the 17th game of his career with two (or more) touchdown catches . . . His two touchdown catches gave him 77 TD catches for his career and moved him into a tie with Fred Biletnikoff and Harold Jackson for 11th place on the NFL all-time touchdown reception list . . .

VS. CINCINNATI (DEC. 9): Caught six passes for 69 yards and two touchdowns Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati . . . His two touchdown catches gave Clayton 75 touchdown catches in his career, breaking Nat Moore's team record of 74 career receiving touchdowns and he also passed Moore and moved into sole possession of 13th place on the NFL's all-time TD reception list . . . In addition, with 76 total career touchdowns, Clayton broke Moore's team record of 75 total TD catches . . . It was his third game of the year with two (or more) TD catches . . .

AT CHICAGO (NOV. 24): Led the Dolphins in both receptions and receiving yards Nov. 24th at Chicago with six catches for 92 yards . . . His 31-yard reception made while lying on his back on the ground early in overtime gave the Dolphins a first down on the Bears' five yard line, setting up Pete Stoyanovich's game-winning 27-yard field goal two plays later . . . He went over the 50-catch mark in that contest, marking the sixth time in his career he went over 50 receptions in a season, becoming the 22nd player in NFL history to record six or more 50-plus reception seasons . . . His second reception of the game broke Nat Moore's Dolphin career record of 7,795 total yards from scrimmage . . .

VS. BUFFALO (NOV. 18): Led the Dolphins in receptions with six catches for 90 yards Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 10): Had three catches for 73 yards and two touchdowns on Nov. 10th vs. New England . . . His touchdown catches were 31 yards and 32 yards from Dan Marino with his second TD reception coming with 1:47 left in the game to break a 20-20 tie and give the Dolphins a 27-20 lead en route to their final 30-20 victory . . . In that contest, he passed Nat Moore's former Dolphin record of 7,547 reception yards and moved ahead of Moore into second place on the all-time Dolphin reception yardage list surpassed only by Mark Duper, who broke Moore's team record earlier in that contest . . . His two touchdown receptions in that game gave him 73 career receiving scores, moving him past Stanley Morgan and into 14th place on the NFL's all-time touchdown reception list . . .

VS. HOUSTON (OCT. 20): Had two catches for 33 yards and one touchdown, a 19-yard TD pass from Dan Marino on Oct. 20th vs. Houston . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 6): Led Miami with six catches for 87 yards and one touchdown on Oct. 6th at New England . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 29): Led Dolphins with a season high seven catches for 100 yards and one touchdown Sept. 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . It was his second 100-yard game of the season and the 22nd game of his career (all in the regular season), a total that ranks second on the Dolphins' all-time list behind Mark Duper's club record of 27 100-yard career games (30, including playoffs) . . . His touchdown catch in that game came on a ten-yard pass from Scott Secules, only the second TD pass in Clayton's career that was thrown by a quarterback other than Dan Marino . . .

AT DETROIT (SEPT. 15): Led Dolphins in receptions and receiving yardage with four catches for 56 yards on September 15th at Detroit . . .

AT BUFFALO (SEPT. 1): Led the Dolphins in both receptions and receiving yardage on September 1st at Buffalo, catching six passes for 138 yards and two touchdowns, including a 43-yard TD on a flea-flicker play from Dan Marino . . . It was his 21st career 100-yard game and the seventh highest single game reception yardage total of his career . . . On that 43-yard TD catch he went over 7,000 career receiving yards, becoming only the third Dolphin to amass 7,000 or more yards in receptions, joining Nat Moore and Mark Duper . . . He also moved into third place on the Dolphins' all-time total yards from scrimmage list, passing Tony Nathan.

1990 - Played and started in just 10 games (the fewest in his career) and finished with 32 catches for 406 yards and three touchdowns . . . Finished fourth on the Dolphins in receptions and was third in reception yardage . . . His 32 catches, 406 yards in receptions, and three touchdowns all were the lowest totals since his rookie season of 1983, when he had just six catches for 114 yards and one touchdown . . . Missed six games due to injury, including five straight while on Injured Reserve . . . Had been placed on the Injured List on November 13th with a partial tear of the medial collateral ligament of his right knee that did not require surgery . . . The injury occurred on Nov. 11th vs. the Jets and he missed the next five games before his activation . . . Was activated from the Injured List Dec. 22nd and he played at Buffalo the following day . . . It was the first time in his career he was on IR and had never missed more than two games in any one season due to injury prior to 1990 . . . Earlier in the season, on Sept. 9th at New England, was one of two players on inactive list because of a hamstring injury sustained during training camp . . . Before 1990 had missed only three games since becoming a regular at the start of the 1984 season . . . Was hampered most of training camp with a pulled hamstring that forced him to miss the first two preseason games and suffered a slight recurrence of that injury in the preseason finale August 31st vs. Minnesota . . . His single game high in 1990 was on Dec. 23rd at Buffalo, leading the Dolphins in both catches and reception yards with seven catches for 89 yards and one touchdown . . . Led team in receptions in postseason with nine catches for 148 yards (second on team), an average of 16.4 yards per catch, and had one touchdown . . . Also had one punt return (along with a fair catch) for three yards . . . Tied for team lead with four receptions for 82 yards on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, including a long reception of 29 yards . . . His 82 yards in receptions was the third highest single game total of his playoff career . . . Had five receptions for 66 yards and one touchdown in playoff game on January 5th vs. Kansas City . . . His five receptions were tied for the team lead and his 66 yards in receptions led the Dolphins . . . His touchdown catch, a 12-yard reception from Dan Marino with 3:28 left in the game, gave the Dolphins their winning (and final) points in their 17-16 win over the Chiefs.

1989 - Finished the season with 64 catches for 1,011 yards (an average of 15.8 yards per reception) and nine touchdowns . . . Led the Dolphins in receptions, reception yardage, touchdowns, and touchdown catches . . . Also had three rushing attempts for nine yards (an average of 3.0 yards per carry), with a long gain of 11 yards . . . Played and started in 15 of the team's 16 games in 1989, missing only the first game of the season in a contract dispute . . . Reported to camp on September 12th after holding out through all of training camp and the first regular season game . . . Was placed on the active roster on September 16th and started the following day against New England, the Dolphins' second game of the season . . . Until his activation he had been on Miami's Reserve/Did not report list, where he was placed on July 28th . . . Finished ninth in the AFC and 21st in the NFL in receptions (64), eighth in the AFC and 20th in the NFL in reception yardage (1,011), tied for fifth in the AFC and tied for 15th in the NFL in touchdowns (9), and tied for second in the AFC (behind Anthony Miller of San Diego, with ten TD catches) and tied for sixth in the NFL in touchdown receptions (9) . . . His 64 receptions is the fifth highest single season total of his career and it was the third time he has led the Dolphins in receptions . . . It also is the tenth best single season reception total in Dolphin history . . . His first reception on December 3, 1989 at Kansas City gave him 384 career receptions as a Dolphin to move him past Tony Nathan into sole possession of second place on Miami's all-time reception list . . . Had nine catches on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, the most receptions by a Dolphin in a game in 1989 and it matched the tenth highest single game reception total in Dolphin history, accomplished six other times (the last time in 1987) . . . It also tied Clayton's second best single game reception total of his career (he also had nine catches on December 2, 1984 vs. the L.A. Raiders and on December 9, 1984 at Indianapolis), surpassed only by his ten catches vs. N.Y. Jets on October 23, 1988 . . . His 1,011 yards in receptions in 1989 is the fourth 1,000-yard season of his career, setting a new Dolphin record (he had been tied with Mark Duper for the club record of three 1,000 yard reception seasons) . . . At that time it was only the seventh time in Dolphin history a receiver reached the 1,000 yard mark . . . It now is the eighth best single season reception yardage total in Dolphin history . . . Clayton had five 100-yard games in 1989 (including three of the four Dolphin games in December) . . . Clayton's 78-yard TD reception Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets was the longest play from scrimmage by the Dolphins in 1989, the longest reception in Clayton's career, and the eighth longest completion in Dolphin history . . . When Clayton was held without a touchdown reception on Oct. 1st at Houston, that put an end to his streak of six consecutive games with a touchdown catch (his first two games in 1989 and each of his final four games of the 1988 season) and left him tied with Paul Warfield for the Dolphin club record for most consecutive games with a receiving touchdown (6) . . . Warfield set the record in six consecutive games (his 4th through 9th games) in 1971 . . . Clayton also caught one touchdown pass in each of four straight games (Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay, Oct. 29th at Buffalo, Nov. 5th vs. Indianapolis, and Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets), matching Andre Brown for the Dolphins' longest consecutive game streak with a TD catch in 1989 . . . Clayton caught a TD pass in nine of his 15 games in 1989 . . . Received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award in 1989 for the third consecutive year and the fifth time overall.

1988 - Set Miami team record in 1988 with 86 receptions, eclipsing the previous club record of 73 catches which he set in 1984 . . . Finished with 1,129 receiving yards (an average of 13.1 yards per catch) and 14 touchdowns . . . Had three 100-yard receiving games . . . Caught a touchdown pass in nine games . . . Picked up four yards in his one rushing attempt of the season, on November 20th vs. New England . . . Started all 16 games . . . Was named to his fourth Pro Bowl . . . Was named United Press International All-AFC (second team) . . . Received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award for the second consecutive year and the fourth time overall . . . His 86 catches ranked tied for second in the NFL (along with the Rams' Henry Ellard) behind the Jets' Al Toon's 93 receptions . . . His 1,129 reception yards was third in the AFC behind Cincinnati's Eddie Brown (1,273 yards) and Houston's Drew Hill (1,141 yards) and ranked seventh in the NFL . . . Coupled with his one rushing attempt for four yards, his 1,133 total yards from scrimmage ranked 14th in the AFC . . . His 14 touchdowns for 84 points ranked tied for fourth in scoring (along with Cincinnati's James Brooks and Buffalo's Rob Riddick) among non-kickers in the NFL (behind Indianapolis' Eric Dickerson and Cincinnati's Ickey Woods, who had 90 points apiece, and Greg Bell of the Rams, who had 108 points), and was tied for third in the AFC . . . His 14 receiving touchdowns led the NFL (Rickey Sanders of Washington was second with 12) . . . His 1,129 receiving yards was the fifth best single season total in club history . . . His 14 receiving touchdowns is the second highest total in Miami history, behind his then-NFL record of 18 reception TDs in 1984, and his 14 overall touchdowns also is the second highest total in club history behind his club record of 18 TDs overall in 1984 . . . Tied a then-Dolphins team record with ten receptions (for 153 yards, the third highest single game yardage total of his career, and two touchdowns) on October 23rd vs. New York Jets (record was later broken by Jim Jensen, who had 12 catches on November 6, 1988 at New England) . . . The ten catches remains Clayton's single game best, and is tied for the second highest Dolphin single game reception total, along with Tony Nathan (three times), Duriel Harris and Ron Davenport, behind Jensen's record of 12 catches . . . His longest reception of the season was on a 45-yard touchdown pass on October 23rd vs. the Jets . . . On October 30th at Tampa Bay made his 300th career reception and became third Dolphin to go over 5,000 career receiving yards.

MARK DUPER

5-9 192 #85
Wide Receiver
Born: 1/25/59
College: Northwestern (La.) St. '82
Acquired: D2, 1982
NFL: 11th Season
Dolphins: 11th Season

PRO: 1991 - Started all 16 games in 1991 and finished with 70 catches for 1,085 yards (an average of 15.5 yards per catch) and five touchdowns . . . It was the fifth time in his career he played in every regular season game . . . His 70 receptions was tied for seventh in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL, and he was tied with Mark Clayton for the Dolphin team lead . . . His 1,085 reception yards was fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL and he led the Dolphins in that category . . . His five touchdown catches ranked second on the Dolphins and he finished third on the team with 30 points . . . Tied or led the Dolphins in receptions six times in 1991 and led the team in receiving yards six times . . . Over his final six games of the season, Duper had 34 catches for 504 yards (14.8 yards per catch) . . . In his final three games he caught 22 passes for 327 yards and one touchdown . . . Has career totals of 467 receptions for 8,107 yards (17.4 yards per catch) and 52 touchdowns . . .

RECEPTIONS: With his 70 receptions in 1991, it marked the third time Duper either led the team or tied for the team lead in receptions (he also led the Dolphins in catches in 1986 and 1990) . . . His 70 catches is the second highest single season total of his career, surpassed only by his single season best of 71 receptions in 1984 . . . It also is tied for the fifth best single season reception total in Dolphin history, and Duper owns three of the club's top ten single reception totals:

Was one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Clayton) to catch at least one pass in every game in 1991 and caught at least two passes in each of those games . . . Has caught at least one pass in each of his last 33 games (35 games, including playoffs) and caught two or more passes in 31 of those games (33 including playoffs) . . . His last game without a reception was on Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England . . . Has caught at least one pass in 125 of 138 career games (90.6%), including seven of eight playoff games . . . Had a season high eight receptions at San Diego on Dec. 15th, a total that matched his third highest single game career best and tied the 1991 single game high by a Dolphin (Tony Paige had eight receptions vs. New England on Nov. 10th) . . . On September 1st at Buffalo became the third receiver in Dolphin history to record 400 career catches, joining Nat Moore and Mark Clayton) . . . Now has 467 career receptions . . .

YARDAGE: Had two 100-yard games in 1991, 106 yards in receptions on Dec. 15th at San Diego and 134 yards in receptions on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati . . . Now has 27 games of 100 or more yards in receptions (30 including playoffs), extending his own team record of 100-yard reception games . . . His 1,085 reception yards in 1991 was his third highest single season total and it was the fourth time in his career he led the Dolphins in reception yards . . . It also marked the fourth time in his career he went over the 1,000-yard milestone, one shy of Mark Clayton's team record of five 1,000-yard seasons . . . No other Dolphin receiver has ever reached the 1,000-yard mark in receptions . . . His 1,085 yards is the sixth best single season total in Dolphin history and Duper has three of the top six and four of top nine Dolphin single season reception yardage marks:

Duper has improved his receiving yardage each of the past four seasons from 597 yards in 1987 to 626 in 1988 to 717 in 1989 to 810 in 1990 to 1,085 yards in 1991 . . . Duper joins New England's Irving Fryar (467-490-537-856-1,014 from 1987-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Mark Ingram (32-158-290-499-824 from 1987-91) as the only NFL players to have an active streak of four straight seasons of improving receiving yardage totals . . . The only other active players to have a streak of four straight years of increasing receiving yardage totals are Minnesota's Steve Jordan (42-212-414-795-859 from 1982-86), New Orleans' Eric Martin (522-675-778-1083-1090 from 1985-89), and Buffalo's Andre Reed (637-739-968-1312 from 1985-89) . . . Went over 6,000 yards in receptions in 1989 and over 7,000 yards in receptions on Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis, becoming the second Dolphin (after Nat Moore) to reach 7,000 career yards . . . Went over 8,000 yards on Dec. 15th at San Diego, becoming the first Dolphin to reach 8,000 receiving yards . . . Now has 8,107 career yards in receptions and ranks first on the Dolphin all-time career yardage list, just ahead of Mark Clayton, who has the second highest total of 8,024 yards . . . Duper broke Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career reception yards on Nov. 10th vs. New England . . . Clayton also broke Moore's former record later in that Patriot contest and then moved ahead of Duper to take over the leadership for most career reception yards on Nov. 24th at Chicago before being passed again by Duper on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati . . . Duper's average of 17.4 yards per catch is the second highest career yards per catch average in team history, behind only the 21.5 average of Paul Warfield, and he ranks sixth among the active career league leaders in average yards per catch:

TOUCHDOWNS: Had five touchdown catches in 1991, coming in five different games . . . Coupled with his five touchdown catches in 1990, Duper has totaled ten touchdown catches over the past two years (1991 and 1990), a five-time increase from his total (2) from the previous two seasons (1989 and 1988) combined . . . Had a total of 40 TD catches in his previous five seasons (1983-87), the first five seasons he was a starter . . . Registered his 50th career touchdown catch on Nov. 3rd at Indianapolis and now has 52 touchdown catches in his career . . .

AMONG DOLPHIN LEADERS: With 467 catches, Duper ranks third on the Dolphin all-time reception list, behind Nat Moore (510) and Mark Clayton (507) . . . He moved past Tony Nathan (383) into third place with his third reception on Dec. 9, 1990 vs. Philadelphia . . . His 8,107 reception yards ranks first on the Dolphins' all-time receiving yardage list, having broken Nat Moore's club record of 7,547 career receiving yards on Nov. 10th vs. New England . . . Mark Clayton also broke Moore's record later in that game and currently is second with 8,024 yards, moving past Duper on Nov. 24th at Chicago before being passed by Duper on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati . . . His 52 receiving touchdowns is third on the club's receiving TD list, behind Clayton (78) and Moore (74) . . . His 52 touchdowns also ranks fourth on the Dolphins' overall touchdown list, behind Clayton (79), Moore (75), and Larry Csonka (57) . . . Among all scorers, his 312 career points ranks seventh on the club's all-time points list (Fuad Reveiz is sixth with 320 points) . . . Has 27 100-yard games for his career (30 including playoffs), extending his own team record (Clayton is second with 22 100-yard games) . . . With 8,097 total yards (rushing and receiving) from scrimmage, he passed Nat Moore (7,795 total yards) on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati to move into second place in total yards from scrimmage (Mark Clayton is first with 8,132 yards) . . . Has teamed with Dan Marino for three of Dolphins' six longest pass plays: 85 yards vs. Baltimore on November 20, 1983; 85 yards vs. Houston on November 2, 1986; and 80 yards vs. Indianapolis on September 23, 1984 . . . Only longer pass play in club history is 86-yard Bob Griese-Warfield connection in 1971 . . . Also has three of top five single-game receiving yardage totals, including club record of 217 yards set on November 10, 1985 vs. Jets . . .

WITH MARK CLAYTON: Duper and fellow receiver Mark Clayton form duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . Starting with 1983, Clayton's first season in the league, the duo have combined for 16,131 yards on 974 catches . . . The pair have had 100 or more yards receiving in the same game four times (October 23, 1988 vs. New York Jets; October 19, 1986 vs. Los Angeles Raiders; September 21, 1986 at New York Jets; September 30, 1984 at St. Louis Cardinals), with the Dolphins going 1-3 in those games . . . When either Clayton or Duper go over 100 yards receiving in a game, Miami is 27-22 (regular season) . . . The Dolphins are 17-10 when Duper tops 100 yards and 10-12 when Clayton tops 100 yards . . . With Duper having 1,085 yards in 1991 and Clayton with 1,053 yards, it marked the third time in Dolphin history that the team had two 1,000-yard receivers in the same year, and in all three instances it was Duper and Clayton who had those twin 1,000 yard seasons (Duper with 1306 and Clayton with 1389 yards in 1984 and Duper with 1313 and Clayton with 1150 yards in 1986) . . . Only one other duo in NFL history, Art Monk and Gary Clark of the Washington Redskins, have combined for three 1,000 yard seasons together, but Clayton and Duper are the only ones to do so with the same quarterback each of those three seasons (Dan Marino) . . . Clark and Monk had two different quarterbacks (Jay Schroeder and Mark Rypien) . . . See Clayton's biography for additional Duper/Clayton information . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 22): Tied for the team lead with seven catches for 87 yards . . . His first catch of the game put him over the 1,000-yard mark in receptions for the fourth time in his career . . .

AT SAN DIEGO (DEC. 15) On Dec. 15th at San Diego, he caught eight passes for 106 yards to lead the Dolphins in both receptions and reception yardage . . . His eight receptions matched his third highest single game career high and was one shy of his single game high of nine catches, which he accomplished twice in his career . . . It also was his 1991 single game high and it matched the most passes caught by a Dolphin in 1991 . . . His 106 yards marked the second straight game he went over 100 yards in receiving . . . It also extended his club record for most 100-yard contests to 27 games in the regular season (and his 30th 100-yard game including playoffs) . . .

VS. CINCINNATI (DEC. 9): On Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, he had his best game of the season, leading the team in receptions and reception yardage with seven catches for 134 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 43-yard pass from Dan Marino, his longest reception of the season . . . His seven catches was his second best effort of the season and his 134 yards was his 1991 season high . . . In addition, his 134 receiving yards in that contest were his highest total since December 20, 1987 against the Washington Redskins when he had 170 yards in receptions . . .

VS. TAMPA BAY (DEC. 1): On Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay he tied for the team lead in receptions with five catches for 47 yards and one touchdown, a six-yard TD pass from Dan Marino . . .

VS. BUFFALO (NOV. 18): On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he had five catches for a team-leading 96 yards, including a long reception of 41 yards . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 10): On Nov. 10th vs. New England, had three catches for 56 yards . . . His 56 yards in that game gave him 7,603 career reception yards, and his first catch in that contest broke Nat Moore's Dolphin career reception yardage record of 7,547 receiving yards, making Duper at that time the team's all-time career reception yardage leader . . . Duper had been tied with Moore heading into that Patriot contest . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 3): Finished tied for second on Dolphins with three catches, including a 12-yard TD catch from Dan Marino to account for the Dolphins' only touchdown of the game, and led team with 64 reception yards . . . His 64 reception yards in that contest gave him 7,547 career receiving yards and tied Moore's Dolphin career record for most career yards . . .

VS. HOUSTON (OCT. 20): Tied for team lead in receptions with four catches and led team with 79 receiving yards Oct. 20th vs. Houston . . .

AT KANSAS CITY (OCT. 13): Led Dolphins in receptions with five catches for 58 yards on Oct. 13th at Kansas City . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 29): Had four catches for 58 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 30-yard pass from Dan Marino, on Sept. 29th at N.Y. Jets . . .

VS. GREEN BAY (SEPT. 22): Had four catches for 80 yards on September 22nd vs. Green Bay . . .

AT BUFFALO (SEPT. 1): Finished second on the Dolphins with five catches for 67 yards and one touchdown on September 1st at Buffalo . . . His third catch in that contest gave him 400 receptions for his career, joining Nat Moore and Mark Clayton as the only Dolphins to reach 400 career receptions . . .

1990 - Finished 1990 as the Dolphin leader in both receptions and reception yardage with 52 catches for 810 yards (an average of 15.6 yards per catch) and had five touchdowns . . . Played in all 16 games, making 15 starts . . . His one appearance off the bench came on Sept. 23rd at the N.Y. Giants . . . His 52 catches is the fourth best total of his career and his 810 yards is the fifth best single season figure of his career . . . Duper ranked tied for 18th in the AFC in receptions and 14th in the AFC in reception yardage . . . His five touchdown receptions were more than double his total of TD catches in 1988 and 1989 combined (2) . . . In the five contests Mark Clayton missed due to injury (Nov. 19 - Dec. 16) Duper recorded 19 catches for 306 yards and two touchdowns . . . With 52 receptions, it was the second time in his career Duper led the Dolphins in receiving . . . Caught at least one pass in each of his 16 games in 1990 (including 4 games of two or more receptions) . . . Had a season high eight receptions Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia, which was tied for the most catches by a Dolphin in 1990 along with Tony Paige's eight receptions on Oct. 28th at Indianapolis, and Duper's eight catches was tied for the third highest single game reception total of his career . . . Duper's third catch in that Eagle contest moved him into third place on the Dolphin all-time receiving list, passing Tony Nathan, who had 383 career receptions . . . His 810 yards in receptions marked the third time in his career he led the Dolphins in reception yardage . . . Went over 7,000 career yards in receptions on Dec. 30th vs. Indianapolis, becoming the second Dolphin (after Nat Moore) to reach 7,000 career yards . . . On Oct. 7th vs. N.Y. Jets Duper had five catches for 125 yards and two touchdowns . . . It was the only 100-yard regular season game by a Dolphin receiver in 1990 and it was Duper's first 100-yard game since Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati . . . His 69-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino in that Jets' game was the Dolphins' longest pass completion of the season . . . It also was his first TD reception since October 8, 1989 against the Cleveland Browns, going 16 games in between those contests without a touchdown catch . . . His other TD catch in that contest was a 13-yard grab from Marino with 1:03 left in the game to give the Dolphins a 20-16 comeback win . . . It was the first time he caught two or more TD passes in a game since December 20, 1987, when he caught three scores in a 23-21 win over the Washington Redskins at Joe Robbie Stadium and it remains his only game of two or more TD catches since that Redskin contest . . . In addition, his two TD catches matched his output over his previous 32 games, covering all of his games in 1988 (13 games) and 1989 (15 games) and his first four games of 1990, when he had a total of two TD catches (one each in 1988 and 1989) . . . Finished tied for second on the Dolphins during the playoffs with six catches, he led the team in reception yardage with 149 yards (24.8 yards per catch), and had one touchdown . . . Had one of the best games of his postseason career in playoff contest at Buffalo on Jan. 12, 1991 . . . Caught three passes for 113 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 64-yard TD catch from Dan Marino . . . It was Duper's second 100-yard game of the season and his third career 100-yard game in the playoffs . . . In addition, his 64-yard TD catch from Marino was his longest reception in a post-season game . . . Had three catches for 36 yards and lost one fumble in first playoff game, on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City . . . Received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award, as voted by the South Florida media, for the third time . . . That award has gone to either Duper or Clayton each of the last nine years, with Duper also winning it in 1983 and 1986, while Clayton won in 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, and 1991 . . . Has been named to three Pro Bowl teams (1983, 1984, 1986).

of his 15 games played in 1989 . . . Was hampered through most of the 1989 season by various injuries . . . Had one reception on Nov. 5th vs. Indianapolis before missing the entire second half with a twisted right ankle . . . Appeared for just one play off bench on Nov. 12th at Jets but left game for good because of an injury to his right ankle . . . Was bothered by a sore calf muscle that he injured on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, forcing him to leave that game permanently in the second half . . . Saw limited action in Dec. 10th game vs. Patriots because of a groin injury sustained in that game and did not have a catch . . . Was one of two Dolphin inactive players on December 17th at Indianapolis because of that groin injury, the only full game he missed all season . . . Had a season-high seven receptions twice, on Nov. 19th at Dallas for 90 yards, and on December 24th vs. Kansas City for 85 yards . . . His seven catches in those two contests matched the seventh highest single game total of his career and matched the third highest single game reception total by a Dolphin in 1989 . . . His second catch at New England on Sept. 17th was his 300th career reception, becoming the fourth Miami receiver to record 300 career catches . . . On Oct. 15th at Cincinnati had five catches for 129 yards (25.8 yards per catch), the most reception yards by a Dolphin in 1989, with a long catch of 41 yards . . . It was Duper's second game of the season with 100-or-more reception yards . . . His other 100-yard game came on Sept. 24th vs. N.Y. Jets, when he had six catches for 113 yards in receptions . . . On Nov. 19th at Dallas he had 90 yards in receptions, his third highest single game receiving yardage total in 1989, and it put him over 6,000 yards in receptions for his career, becoming the third player in Dolphin history (after Nat Moore and Mark Clayton) to surpass 6,000 career reception yards . . . On Oct. 8th vs. Cleveland had five catches for 83 yards and one touchdown, a 35-yard TD grab from Dan Marino, Duper's only touchdown catch of the season.

1988 - Had an up-and-down season that was cut short after 13 games . . . Received a 30-day suspension on November 29th by the NFL for violation of the league's substance abuse policy, which caused him to miss the final three games of the season . . . Was reinstated to the Dolphins' roster on April 18, 1989 . . . In his 13 games, he caught 39 passes for 626 yards (a 16.1 yards per reception average) and one touchdown . . . Finished fourth on the team in receptions and third in yardage . . . His 39 catches ranked tied for 25th in the AFC, his 626 reception yards ranked 22nd, and his 16.1 yards per catch average ranked tied for 12th among AFC receivers with 30 or more catches . . . His one touchdown came vs. San Diego on October 16th . . . Became the second player in Dolphin history (after Nat Moore) to surpass 5,000 career reception yards, reaching that plateau on September 25th at Indianapolis (they were later joined in that group by Clayton) . . . Caught at least one pass in 11 of his 13 games . . . Had one game of seven receptions (on October 16th vs. San Diego) and two games of six receptions (October 2nd vs. Minnesota and October 23rd vs. New York Jets) . . . Had two games of 100 or more yards receiving, a season high 132 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 118 yards vs. San Diego on October 16th . . . His longest reception of the season was a 56-yard catch on October 23rd vs. the Jets, the second longest Dolphin reception of the season (surpassed only by Ferrell Edmunds' 80-yard reception on November 27th at the Jets) . . . Also had a 51-yard catch vs. San Diego on October 16th, the club's fourth longest pass reception of the season.

1987 - Started 11 non-strike games . . . Sat out second Colts game after suffering rib injury week before at Cincinnati (November 8th) . . . His 33 receptions were his lowest since his rookie season in 1982 . . . Finished third on team with 33 catches for 597 yards (18.1 average) and a team-high eight TDs . . . Was sixth in AFC in scoring (non-kickers) with 48 points . . . Ranked 20th in conference in receiving yards . . . Made career-high nine receptions (for 123 yards, two TDs) in '87 opener vs. New England (September 13th) . . . Tied career high with three touchdowns versus Washington (December 20th), making six receptions for a season-high 170 yards, including game-winning six-yard TD pass with 1:07 remaining to give Dolphins 23-21 win . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts in that game . . . Had third 100-yard receiving game of year in 35-24 victory over Pittsburgh (November 1st), making five catches for 100 yards, including 50-yard TD pass.

1986 - Started all 16 games . . . For first time in career led team in receiving with 67 catches for 1,313 yards and 11 TDs . . . Finished ninth in AFC in receiving and third in league in receiving yardage . . . Went over 1,000 yards in receiving for third time in career . . . His 1,313 reception yards is the second highest total in club history . . . Set Dolphin single season mark with eight 100-yard performances . . . His 11 receiving TDs is tied for the fifth highest total in club history . . . Caught 20-yard TD pass from Marino in overtime win at Rams (December 14th), one of career-high three touchdowns in game . . . Had season-high seven catches against Jets (September 21st), 49ers (September 28th), and Bills (November 16th) . . . Named honorable mention All-NFL by AP . . . Also named to Pro Bowl but did not play because of arthroscopic left knee surgery on January 5, 1987 (was replaced by Clayton) . . . Tabbed by South Florida media as Miami's Outstanding Receiver.

1985 - Early-season thigh injury sidelined him for eight weeks (games 2-9) . . . In first game back, against Jets on November 10th, he set Dolphin record with 217 yards on eight receptions . . . In his first half back in that game, he caught 60-yard TD toss from Marino . . . With :49 left to play he hauled in one-handed, 50-yard TD pass to lead Dolphins to 21-17 victory over Jets . . . Including Jets game, Duper compiled 555 yards on 31 receptions over last six games as Dolphins closed regular season without a loss in that span . . . Started eight of nine contests (came off bench vs. Jets) . . . Suffered his injury against Houston in season's first game, but left lineup next week versus Indianapolis . . . Finished as team's fifth leading receiver with 35 catches for 650 yards and three touchdowns.

1984 - Started all 16 games and had 71 catches for 1,306 yards and eight touchdowns . . . Both receptions and yards would have eclipsed prior Dolphin records if not for even better figures compiled by Clayton . . . His 1,306 yards remains the third highest single season total in Dolphin history and his 71 receptions is the fourth best total in club history . . . In 1984 AFC Championship Game (Jan. 6, 1985) at Miami, caught five passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns from Dan Marino in Miami's 45-28 win over Pittsburgh . . . His 148 yards receiving is a Dolphin single game playoff record, and coupled with Tony Nathan's 114 yards in receptions, it was only the second time in Dolphin playoff history that two receivers each had over 100 yards in reception yardage . . . In Super Bowl XIX (Jan. 20, 1985 at Stanford), he had one reception for 11 yards in San Francisco's 38-16 victory over Miami . . . Was voted by peers to start for AFC in Pro Bowl and was also first team All-AFC choice by UPI . . . Along with Clayton became first teammates in league history to each go over 1,300-yard reception mark in a single season.

1983 - Became first Miami receiver ever to go over 1,000 yard mark with 1,003 yards on 51 receptions (Warfield's 996 yards in 1971 had been the club's previous high) . . . Caught 10 touchdown passes and 19.7 per-catch average was tops in AFC . . . Was second-team All-AFC selection by UPI and was member of AFC's Pro Bowl team . . . In 1983 AFC Playoff Game (Dec. 31, 1983) in Miami, caught nine passes for 117 yards, including a 32-yard TD pass from Dan Marino, in Seattle's 27-20 win . . . His nine catches remains tied for his single game career high . . . In first NFL start in 38-35 OT loss to Buffalo (October 9th), had then-second best receiving day in Dolphin history with 202 yards on seven catches and two touchdowns.

1982 - Saw action in only two games in rookie campaign and did not catch a pass . . . Was slowed by ankle and hamstring injuries . . . Dolphins had surprised many by drafting him so high, but Duper impressed coach Don Shula at BLESTO workout in Detroit with acrobatic, over-the-shoulder catch . . . Second-round draft choice (52nd overall) of Miami in 1982.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Saw first action of '91 season by starting at tight end vs. Indianapolis (9/8) and had one catch for nine yards . . . Caught two passes for 12 yards at Detroit (9/15), before suffering thigh injury in contest . . . Placed on Injured Reserve on September 21 with a severe thigh bruise suffered at Detroit . . . Missed seven games due to injury . . . Was activated from IR on November 18 . . . Saw first action in return from injury against the Buffalo Bills (11/18) in a reserve role off bench . . . Came off bench at Chicago (11/24) to make one reception, but it was a big catch, a two-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino with 1:57 left in regulation to give Dolphins 13-13 tie in eventual 16-13 overtime win . . . Made return to starting lineup vs. Tampa Bay (12/1) and had season highs in both receptions and reception yardage with three catches for 47 yards . . . Recorded two catches for 23 yards and a touchdown in season-finale vs. the Jets (12/22) . . . One of his catches against the Jets was a one-yard touchdown catch from Dan Marino on a fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line with :44 seconds left in regulation to give the Dolphins a 20-17 lead, before Jets tied contest on the last play in regulation and won it in overtime . . . Edmunds' other catch in that Jets' contest was a 22-yard reception, his longest catch of the season.

1990 - Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests . . . Finished season with 31 catches for 446 yards and one touchdown . . . Also rushed once for a loss of seven yards . . . Earned second straight selection to AFC Pro Bowl team as backup . . . Finished fifth on the Dolphins in receptions and third in receiving yardage . . . Caught two or more passes in nine of 16 regular season games and three or more passes in five games . . . Edmunds' 31 catches and 446 receiving yards were among the best numbers put up by NFL tight ends in 1990 . . . His 31 catches ranked sixth in the AFC among tight ends and tied for 12th in the NFL . . . His 446 receiving yards ranked third in the AFC among tight ends and ninth in the NFL . . . Opened season with three catches for 31 yards at New England (9/9) . . . Registered 31-yard catch from Jim Jensen on a fake punt at Pittsburgh (9/30) . . . Had three receptions for 24 yards vs. New England (10/18) . . . Caught two passes for 58 yards, including season-long 35-yard catch, vs. Phoenix (11/4) . . . Recorded best game of season vs. Seattle (12/6) by leading Miami with five receptions for 76 yards and a touchdown . . . His reception and yardage figures both represented his '90 single game highs . . . Closed regular season with three catches for 26 yards vs. Indianapolis (12/30) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both of Miami's playoff contests . . . Caught five passes for 70 yards . . . Recorded two receptions for 49 yards, including a long catch of 37 yards, in playoff opener vs. Kansas City (1/5) . . . Caught three passes for 21 yards in playoff contest at Buffalo (1/12) . . .

PRO BOWL: Selected to AFC Pro Bowl team as the backup tight end for second consecutive season . . . Out of the 102 Dolphin selections to the Pro Bowl since the merger of the two leagues in 1970, Edmunds' two selections represent the only times a Dolphin tight end ever has been named to the Pro Bowl team . . . Caught one pass for 32 yards in Pro Bowl contest.

1989 - Started all 16 games in 1989 . . . Caught 32 passes for 382 yards (an average of 11.9 yards per catch) and three touchdowns . . . Finished fourth on the Dolphins in receptions and touchdown catches, and sixth in reception yardage . . . His total of 32 catches was one less than his reception total as a rookie in 1988 . . . His three TD receptions in 1989 matched his rookie year total . . . Caught at least one pass in 15 of his 16 games in 1989, and had two or more receptions in eight of those contests . . . Edmunds started 1989 strongly, catching 13 passes for 175 yards (an average of 13.5 yards per catch) and two touchdowns in his first three games . . . Matched his single game career high of five receptions twice, vs. Buffalo on September 10th, and vs. the New York Jets on Sept. 24th . . . In that Jets game, his five receptions were for 60 yards and two touchdowns . . . His 60 yards in receptions was his 1989 single game high and his two touchdown catches was his single game career best . . . His second TD reception in that game was a 19-yard TD pass from Jim Jensen on an option play . . . His other touchdown reception of the season came on Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City . . . Was forced from game permanently due to an elbow injury on Nov. 12th at Jets . . . On Oct. 29th at Buffalo had one catch for 30 yards, his longest reception of the season . . . On Sept. 14th at New England had three catches for 57 yards (19.0 yards per catch) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named to the Pro Bowl as the backup tight end for the AFC team . . . It was his first Pro Bowl selection . . . Edmunds was the first Dolphin tight end ever named to the team . . . Caught a five-yard touchdown pass from Dave Krieg, becoming the first Dolphin to score a touchdown in the Pro Bowl since Paul Warfield caught a 32-yard TD pass from Bob Griese in 1975 Pro Bowl.

1988 - Had an outstanding rookie season with the Dolphins . . . Caught 33 passes for 575 yards (an average of 17.4 yards per catch) and three touchdowns . . . Finished fifth on the Dolphins in receptions and fourth in yardage, while his average yards per catch was second on the team among receivers with ten or more receptions, behind Fred Banks' 18.7 yards per catch average . . . Finished the season strongly, making 11 receptions for 271 yards and one touchdown in his last four games . . . Caught at least one pass in 15 of his 16 games, being shut out only in his debut in the season opener on September 4th at Chicago . . . Started at tight end in 14 of 16 games . . . After coming off the bench his first two games, Edmunds made his first NFL start on September 18th vs. Green Bay in place of Bruce Hardy (who tore ligaments in his ankle the previous week in Buffalo) and remained as the starter at tight end the rest of the season . . .

ROOKIE AND TE RECORDS: Edmunds' 33 receptions set a club record for most receptions by a rookie tight end (the previous record was 13 catches by Joe Rose in 1980) while his 575 yards was only two yards shy of Larry Seiple's team record for most receiving yards (577) in a season by a Dolphin tight end, set in 1969 . . . In addition, Edmunds' 575 yards was the third-highest single season total by any rookie in team history, surpassed only by Nat Moore's 605 yards in 1974 and Jack Clancy's club record of 868 yards in 1967 . . . Edmunds also tied a then-Dolphin record for most receiving touchdowns by a rookie with three, which had been set previously by Jack Harper in 1967 and Jimmy Cefalo in 1978 (that record was broken in 1989 when Andre Brown caught five TD passes as a rookie) . . .

RECORD SETTING PERFORMANCE VS. JETS: On November 27, 1988 vs. the Jets in New York, in the third quarter Edmunds broke an 80-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino, the longest scoring play in Miami's history involving a tight end . . . It was the Dolphins' longest pass completion of 1988 and was tied for the fourth longest pass completion in Dolphin history . . . It also was the longest pass play in the NFL involving a tight end since September 16, 1984, when M.L. Harris of Cincinnati caught an 80-yarder from Ken Anderson, also at the Jets . . . Edmunds' 117 yards receiving against the Jets in that game (on two receptions) set a new single game Dolphin record for a tight end (breaking Larry Seiple's record of 106 yards set on November 16, 1969, at Buffalo) and also was the third-highest single game receiving total by any rookie in Miami's history, behind the 121 yards by Mel Baker (December 15, 1974 vs. New England) and 126 yards by Jack Clancy (December 3, 1967 at Houston) . . . It remains his only career game of 100 or more yards . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Had a personal best of five catches (for 98 yards) on December 4th vs. Indianapolis . . . Made his first NFL catch on September 11th at Buffalo . . . Had four catches for 34 yards and one touchdown in his first NFL start on Sept. 18th vs. Green Bay . . . Also had 80-yard touchdown reception at the Jets on November 27th and a TD catch on November 6th at New England . . . Made an initial impression in preseason game vs. Washington on August 13th, taking a short pass over the middle from Ron Jaworski in the second quarter and outrunning Redskin defenders for a 71-yard scoring play . . . His one rushing attempt of the year came on October 16th vs. San Diego when he lost four yards on his only carry . . . Third-round draft choice (73rd overall) of Miami in 1988.

MARK HIGGS

Running Back #21
Born: 4/11/66
College: Kentucky '88
Acquired: PB (Phil.), 1990
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Third Season

PRO: 1991 - Small, quick running back . . . Had the best season of his career, leading the Dolphins in rushing with a career-high 905 yards and four touchdowns on 231 carries (3.9 yards per carry) and also added 11 receptions for 80 yards . . . Played in 14 games and made ten starts . . . Finished fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in rushing, the first time a Dolphin runner finished in the league's Top Ten in rushing since Andra Franklin finished third in the NFL with 701 yards rushing in 1982:

1991 NFL INDIVIDUAL RUSHING LEADERS

5. Earnest Byner, Wash.	1,048	10. Marion Butts, S.D.	834

Higgs' total of 905 yards rushing is the highest total by a Dolphin running back since Delvin Williams rushed for 1,258 yards in 1978 and is the seventh highest single season total in Dolphin history:

SINGLE SEASON DOLPHIN RUSHING LEADERS

PLAYER	YARDS	YEAR	PLAYER	YARDS	YEAR
1. Delvin Williams	1,258	1978	6. Mercury Morris	954	1973
2. Larry Csonka	1,117	1972	7. MARK HIGGS	905	1991

5. Mercury Morris	1,000	1972	10. Larry Csonka	837	1979

In addition, his 231 carries is the second highest single season figure in Dolphin history, surpassed only by Delvin Williams' 272 carries in 1978 . . . Started at running back in place of the injured Sammie Smith the first six games of the season, and in those six games gained 459 yards (3.8 yards per carry) and made 122 of the Dolphins' 150 rushing attempts (81.3%) . . . In his ten starts he rushed for 778 yards on 200 carries (3.9 yards per carry), an average of 77.8 yards per game . . . If those figures were extrapolated over a full 16-game season, Higgs would have finished the year with 1,245 yards rushing . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing each of the Dolphins' first seven games in 1991 and 12 times overall . . .

A "MARKED" IMPROVEMENT: Higgs gained only 67 yards rushing in 1990 compared to his 905 yards on the ground in 1991, an improvement of 838 yards from one season to the next . . . That is the largest single season rushing improvement in Dolphin history, it is the largest improvement by any NFL running back in 1991 from his 1990 total, and it is the seventh best single season improvement ever by any active NFL running back:

100-YARD GAMES: Higgs had three 100-yard games in 1991, which tied him for third place (with nine others) on Miami's all-time single season 100-yard rushing list . . . Delvin Williams had five 100-yard games in 1978 and Larry Csonka had four 100-yard games in 1972 . . . Had back-to-back 100-yard rushing games the first two contests of the season in his first NFL starts . . . They were his first career 100-yard games . . . Rushed for 146 yards and one touchdown on 30 carries in the season opener on September 1st at Buffalo and followed that with 111 yards on 27 carries on September 8th vs. Indianapolis . . . His two-game total of 257 rushing yards (on 57 attempts) was more than his three-year career total of 251 yards (on 59 carries) he had entering the 1991 season . . . With his back-to-back 100-yard rushing efforts, he became the first Dolphin runner to accomplish that feat since Andra Franklin in 1982 and the sixth overall . . . Franklin ran for 129 yards vs. Minnesota on December 5, 1982, and for 107 yards vs. New England on December 12th . . . No Dolphin has ever rushed for 100 or more yards in three straight games:

Higgs' rushing total of 257 yards in those two back-to-back games is the second highest consecutive game rushing total in Dolphin history, surpassed (by only one yard) by Mercury Morris' total of 258 yards rushing in consecutive games, accomplished with 197 yards vs. New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the N.Y. Jets on October 7, 1973 . . . In addition, Higgs' 146 yards in the Buffalo contest is his single game career high and ranks eighth in team history for rushing yards in a game . . . It also was the third best rushing total in team history on an opening day, surpassed only by Sammie Smith's 159 yards against the New England Patriots on September 9, 1990 and Abner Haynes' 151 yards vs. the Denver Broncos on September 17, 1967 . . . In that Bills' contest, Higgs was the only Dolphin runner to carry the ball and his 30 carries in that game tied him for the second highest single game total in Dolphin history (tied for third highest, including playoff games) with Troy Stadford's 30 carries on December 7, 1987 vs. the New York Jets . . . Higgs' three-yard touchdown run in that game was his second career NFL touchdown and his first rushing TD (his first NFL TD came on a 19-yard return after blocking a punt in 1990) . . . On Dec. 1, 1991 at Tampa Bay, when Higgs made his seventh start of the season (and his first since a start on Oct. 6th at New England, with Sammie Smith starting the six games in that interval), he had his third 100-yard game of the year, rushing for a team-leading 131 yards on 25 carries, including a 19-yard touchdown run, his third rushing touchdown of the season . . . It was the second highest single game rushing total in Higgs' career and by a Dolphin runner in 1991, surpassed only by Higgs' 146 yards on Sept. 1, 1991 at Buffalo . . . In that Bucs game, Higgs rushed 13 times for 103 yards in the first half . . . He became the first Dolphin runner to amass 100 or more yards rushing in a half since Sammie Smith rushed for 105 first-half yards at New England on September 9, 1990, and was only the second Dolphin to rush for 100 yards in a half since Delvin Williams had 104 first-half yards on November 12, 1978 at Buffalo . . .

GENERAL: Led Dolphins in rushing Dec. 15th at San Diego with 63 yards on 17 carries and had one catch for seven yards . . . Led Dolphins in rushing with 88 yards on 21 carries with one touchdown on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati . . . Came off bench in place of Sammie Smith for most of second half on Nov. 24th in Chicago and gained 52 yards on 13 carries . . . Did not play in previous two games, on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo and on Nov. 10th vs. New England, his only two DNPs of the season . . . Came off bench for first time in 1991 on Oct. 13th at Kansas City and led the Dolphins in rushing with 38 yards on five carries . . . Had 48 yards rushing on 17 carries and added four receptions for 28 yards Oct. 6th at New England . . . His four receptions is the highest single game total of his career . . . Had 40 yards rushing on 11 carries and added two catches for 13 yards September 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . Gained 43 yards on 18 carries and had one reception for three yards September 22nd vs.

Green Bay . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with 71 yards on 19 carries September 15th at Detroit . . . Despite not making a start, Higgs led Dolphins in rushing in preseason with 155 yards on 36 carries (4.3 yards per carry) and one touchdown . . . Had best rushing game of any Dolphin in preseason on August 24th vs. New Orleans, rushing for 78 yards and one TD on 11 carries.

1990 - Acquired off unprotected list of Philadelphia on March 21, 1990 . . . Played in 12 regular season games for Miami . . . Finished season with 10 carries for 67 yards with a long run of 27 yards . . . Added 10 kickoff returns for 210 yards (21.0 average) and three special teams tackles . . . Also blocked a punt and returned the ball for a score . . . Missed final two preseason games due to an ankle injury suffered vs. Denver (8/25) . . . Scored his first NFL touchdown vs. New England (10/18) by blocking a Brian Hanson punt in the second quarter and returning the ball 19 yards for a touchdown . . . He became the first Dolphin to return a blocked punt for a score since Sept. 10, 1989, vs. Buffalo, when Marc Logan recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a touchdown . . . Had best game of season at Indianapolis (10/28) by rushing for 52 yards on six carries, including a long gain of 27 yards . . . Played but did not have a carry or a reception in next five games . . . Suffered season-ending hamstring injury in practice on Dec. 4 . . . Placed on injured reserve on Dec. 7 . . . Missed last four regular season games and playoffs due to injury.

1989 - Played in 15 regular season games with one start for Eagles in '89 . . . Also played in playoff contest . . . Finished fourth on team with 49 carries for 184 yards and added three receptions for nine yards . . . Returned 16 kickoffs for 293 yards (18.3 avg.) . . . Added five special teams tackles . . . Led Eagles in rushing in season-opener vs. Seattle (9/10) with 13 carries for 44 yards . . . Made first career start in place of injured Keith Byars at Phoenix (10/15) . . . Missed contest vs. Minnesota (11/19) . . . Returned to play at Dallas (11/26) and rushed three times for 18 yards . . . Joined Eagles as unprotected free agent from Dallas.

1988 - Played in five games with no starts in '88 . . . Did not record a carry or reception . . . Returned two kickoffs for 31 yards . . . Also registered one special teams tackle . . . Eighth-round draft choice (205th overall) of Dallas in 1988.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman at Kentucky . . . Finished career with 532 carries for 2,892 yards and 25 TDs . . . Added 58 receptions for 483 yards . . . Established school record for career yards per carry (5.4 average) . . . Set single-season Wildcat rushing record with 1,278 yards as senior . . . As junior started alongside former Dolphin teammate Marc Logan in Wildcat backfield . . . Named Academic All-Southeastern Conference as junior . . . Holds B.S. in industrial education.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Lexington, Ky . . . Has daughter Jeanna (9/22/83) . . . Two-time high school All-America at Owensboro (Ky.) High School . . . Amassed 2,858 rushing yards and 32 TDs as prep senior . . . Set NFL combine record with 43-inch vertical leap . . . Enjoys fishing and biking . . . Brother, Ken Higgs, played three seasons in NBA with Cleveland and Denver . . . Lists favorite movie as "Purple Rain," favorite television show as "A Different World" and favorite recording artist as Rick James . . . Full name is Mark Deyon Higgs, born on April 11, 1966, in Chicago.

Reception and touchdown totals were career highs . . . Added eight carries for 50 yards and threw a 19-yard touchdown pass in his only pass attempt of season . . . Led Dolphins with 18 special teams tackles and had one blocked punt . . . Finished second on Dolphins in receptions (behind only Mark Clayton's 64 catches) and third in receiving yards . . . Ranked 12th in the AFC and 26th in the NFL in receptions and had highest reception total for any non-starter in the league . . . Finished second on team in TD receptions, behind Mark Clayton's nine TD catches . . . Had at least one reception in 14 of his 16 games (with two or more catches in each of those 14 contests) . . . Led the team in receiving twice and was tied for the team lead in three other contests . . .

SCORING VERSATILITY: Was part of touchdowns three different ways in 1989 as he caught six touchdown receptions, threw one touchdown pass and blocked a punt that was recovered by teammate Marc Logan in endzone for TD . . . Opened season against Buffalo (9/10) by blocking the Bills' John Kidd's punt with Logan recovering in end zone to give Dolphins a score for a 17-10 lead in contest . . . It was Miami's first return of a blocked punt for a TD since November 11, 1973, when Miami scored on a pair of blocked punt returns by safety Tim Foley . . . Threw his only touchdown pass of season with a 19-yard scoring pass to Ferrell Edmunds, the second TD pass of his career, vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Caught three passes for 34 yards and a pair of scores (including Dan Marino's 200th career TD pass) at New England (9/17) . . . Recorded seven catches for season-high 66 yards and threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds, the second TD pass of his career, vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) . . . Led Dolphins in receiving at Houston (10/1) with four receptions for 40 yards and also added one rush for 11 yards . . . Had four catches, including a TD reception, for 30 yards vs. Green Bay (10/22) . . . Rushed three times for 13 yards, including a five-yard gain from his own 12-yard line on third-and-five with 1:25 left in the game to give Miami a critical first down and the ability to run out the clock to protect a 19-13 lead, vs. Indianapolis (11/5) . . . Recorded 20 catches in final three games of season . . . Tied for team lead with six receptions for 45 yards and added one rush for three yards vs. New England (12/10) . . . Recorded back-to-back games with seven catches in final two games of season, at Indianapolis (seven for 62 yards) and vs. Kansas City (seven for 65 yards and a score).

1988 - Finished the season with 58 receptions for 652 yards (11.2 yards per catch) with five touchdowns, and gained 68 yards on ten carries (6.8 yards per carry) . . . Was second on the Dolphins in receiving (behind Mark Clayton's 86 catches) . . . His 58 catches was tied for tenth in the AFC and was tied for 26th overall in the NFL . . . That total was more than double his 1987 figure of 26 catches and was 13 more than his career total of 45 catches entering the 1988 campaign . . . His five touchdown catches ranked second on the Dolphins (behind Clayton's 14 TD catches) and equalled his career total coming into the 1988 season . . . Had at least one reception in 15 of his 16 games, going without a catch only in November 27th game at the Jets . . . Tied Bob Brudzinski, Brian Kinchen, and Reyna Thompson for team lead in special team tackles with nine . . . Forced one fumble . . . Played in all 16 games with four starts - two at fullback (October 16th vs. San Diego and November 14th vs. Buffalo) and two at tight end (November 6th at New England and November 20th vs. New England) . . . Played in his 100th game on September 11th at Buffalo . . .

NEW DOLPHIN RECORD: Set a single-game Dolphin record for receptions with 12 (for a career-high 110 yards, his only career 100-yard game) at New England on November 6th, breaking the team record of ten catches, formerly held by Tony Nathan (five times), Duriel Harris, Ron Davenport, and Mark Clayton . . . His 12 receptions that game also tied the Jets' Mickey Shuler (October 2nd vs. Kansas City) for the third highest single game reception total in the NFL in 1988, behind the Jets' Al Toon's 14 receptions vs. the Dolphins on November 27th and Toon's 13 catches November 6th at Indianapolis . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: On October 23rd vs. the Jets he had six receptions for 96 yards and one touchdown, and his 31-yard reception in that game is the longest reception of his career . . . Also had six catches for 76 yards and one touchdown December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Caught his 100th career pass at Pittsburgh on December 18th . . . Went over the 1,000 yard mark in career reception yardage on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . His 23-yard run in his only carry in season opener at Chicago on September 4th was more than his career rushing total (18 yards) up to that point . . . His 23 yards vs. Bears also was his single game career rushing best.

1987 - Took on a new role as team's third down running back, in addition to duties as backup wide receiver and quarterback . . . Played in all 12 non-strike games with no starts . . . Made 26 receptions, seven more than he had in career entering year (13 in '84, 1 in '85, 5 in '86) . . . His 26 receptions (221 yards, 1 TD) was seventh on team . . . Had at least one reception in every non-strike game except second meetings with Colts and Jets . . . Set then-career high six catches (for 34 yards) at Buffalo on November 29th . . . Had four receptions in season opener at New England . . . Caught three passes in first meeting vs. Colts and Bills . . . Only receiving TD came at Indianapolis on September 20th . . . Had first four NFL carries of career, with three going for first downs . . . First carry was against Pittsburgh on November 1st.

1986 - Saw action in all 16 regular season games . . . Caught five passes for 50 yards and one TD as backup receiver . . . Saw additional time vs. Atlanta on November 30th when Mark Clayton was out with an injury and responded with best game of year, two catches for 32 yards and 20-yard TD . . . Beat out 10th round draft pick Jeff Wickersham for No. 3 QB spot.

1985 - Had only one reception, a four-yard TD grab against Tampa Bay on October 20th.

1984 - Achieved national publicity by playing quarterback, wide receiver, tight end, punt snapper and on special teams at various times . . . During early part of season was subject of feature stories in Sports Illustrated, Sporting News, and graced cover of PRO! . . . Despite being listed officially as wide receiver, beat out fifth-round draft pick Dean May for third-string QB job . . . As a receiver, finished eighth on team with 13 receptions for 139 yards and two touchdowns . . . Best overall game came in Miami's 35-17 season-opening win at Washington . . . Started that game (first NFL start) and caught five passes for 40 yards and a pair of touchdowns . . . Those TDs were first of NFL career . . . Was moved from quarterback to wide receiver early in the season due to good hands plus QB trio of Dan Marino, David Woodley, and Don Strock that promised to limit playing time . . . Threw 35-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper vs. New England on September 9th.

1983 - Made first appearance as receiver versus Jets on October 16th.

1982 - Threw one pass, an incomplete attempt, against the Colts in Baltimore on January 2 (1983).

1981 - Notched 14 special team tackles in rookie campaign . . . Beat out Brad Wright, team's fourth-round draft choice in 1981, for third QB spot on roster . . . Eleventh-round draft choice (293rd overall) of Miami in '81.

COLLEGE: Had outstanding career at Boston University . . . Helped lead Terriers to two-year mark of 17-3-1 (1979-80), which was best in school's history . . . Career totals show 217 completions on 433 attempts (50.1%) for 2,740 yards and 17 touchdowns . . . Also rushed for 569 yards on 258 carries with 13 TDs . . . As senior, broke 30-year-old school record with 119 completions on 215 passes (55.3%) for 1,544 yards and 11 TDs, plus 254 yards rushing (five TDs) for total offense figure of 1,798 yards . . . With 3,970 yards passing in 1991, Marino missed by 30 yards passing to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark for the fifth time in his career, which would have extended his own NFL record for most 4,000-yard seasons . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have four 4,000-yard seasons, coming in 1984 (5,084 yards), 1985 (4,137), 1986 (4,746), and 1988 (4,434) . . . Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81) and Warren Moon (two, 1990-91) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . His 4,000-yard seasons account for four of the 13 leading single season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

NFL SINGLE SEASON PASSING YARDAGE LEADERS

On Dec. 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, his eighth 3,000-yard season (1984-91) in only nine years, and became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight seasons . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . In addition, Marino is the only quarterback to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight consecutive seasons:

NFL LEADERS, MOST 3,000 YARD PASSING SEASONS

Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1991 . . . He has ten career 400-yard games, one of his many other NFL records, and the Dolphins are 6-4 in those ten games . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards three times in 1991: on Oct. 6th at New England (321 yards), on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo (326 yards), and on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay (307 yards) . . . Marino has 41 career, regular season 300-yard games (44, including playoffs), trailing only Dan Fouts' career total of 51 300-yard games, and the Dolphins are 27-14 in those 41 career 300-yard games (28-16 overall, including playoffs) . . . Owns nine of top ten and 35 of top 40 passing yardage games in Dolphin history as well as 44 of the 52 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino cracked the NFL's all-time Top Twenty for career TD passes in 1988 and with 266 touchdowns passes is in third place on the all-time TD list . . . He trails only Johnny Unitas (290) and Fran Tarkenton (342) on the all-time list:

Through his first nine seasons, Marino has averaged 29.56 touchdown passes per season and 1.97 TD passes per game . . . If he should reach his season average in 1992, Marino would move past Unitas and into second place among the all-time career touchdown passing leaders . . . At his current pace, Marino would become the NFL's all-time TD pass leader with 343 TD passes in the seventh game of the 1994 season, just ahead of all-time leader Fran Tarkenton (342) . . . Of all the quarterbacks in the Top 20, Marino has played the fewest number of years . . . Over the course of Marino's career, he has combined with Mark Clayton for 76 touchdown passes, the highest scoring combination in NFL history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations in NFL history such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), Seattle's Jim Zorn to Steve Largent (43 touchdowns), Buffalo's Jim Kelly to Andre Reed (43 touchdowns), and the Jets' Joe Namath to Don Maynard (42 touchdowns) . . .

NOTE: Dan Marino has thrown at least one regular season touchdown pass in every current NFL stadium which he has visited . . . Marino has not played a regular-season game at Fulton County Stadium, the Metrodome, Sun Devil Stadium, or the Kingdome . . . In addition, in post-season play, he has 12 TD passes in the Orange Bowl, three at Rich Stadium, two at Joe Robbie Stadium, and one TD pass at Stanford Stadium.

Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1991 and now has thrown at least one TD in 118 of his 135 regular-season games (126 of 143 overall) and 86 of his last 99, as well as in each of his eight playoff games:

Overall in Marino's career the Dolphins won only four of the 14 regular season games in which he failed to throw a touchdown pass, with one victory coming in 1991 (September 22nd vs. Green Bay), one in 1990 (Oct. 18th vs. Patriots), and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December 10th vs. Patriots). The three games in 1991 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 42-7 loss at Kansas City on Oct. 13th, a 16-13 win vs. Green Bay on September 22nd and in a 17-14 loss at Detroit on September 15th. . . . The games against Green Bay and Detroit were only the second time in his career he failed to throw a touchdown pass in back-to-back games, with the other time coming on December 10, 1989 vs. New England and December 17, 1989 at Indianapolis. . . . Those back-to-back touchdown-less games against the Packers and Lions comprised the bulk of a streak of nine consecutive quarters that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass the longest such stretch of his career. . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third, before ending when Marino threw a TD pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter on Sept. 29th at N.Y. Jets. . . . Marino has 16 four-TD games, leaving him only one shy of Unitas' NFL record of 17 four-touchdown pass games, and he is 12-4 in those 16 contests. . . . He holds the NFL record for most consecutive games with four or more touchdowns passes (four in 1984). . . . Marino threw for three touchdowns passes in four games in 1991: On Sept. 1st at Buffalo, Nov. 10th vs. New England, Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, and Dec. 15th at San Diego. . . . In his career he has thrown three or more touchdowns in 46 games (49, including playoffs) and he is 30-16 in those contests (32-17 including post-season games). . . . On Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, marking the ninth time in his nine-year career he has thrown for 20 or more touchdowns passes in a season. . . . He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times. . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL. . . . Trailing Marino and Unitas in that category are Fran Tarkenton (18 seasons), Sonny Jurgensen (17 seasons), and John Hadl (16 seasons), all with seven seasons of 20 or more TD passes apiece:

NFL LEADERS, MOST SEASONS OF 20 OR MORE TOUCHDOWN PASSES

NAME	YEARS WITH SEASONS WITH		NFL SEASONS	CAREER TOUCHDOWNS
	20-PLUS TDs	20-PLUS TDs
DAN MARINO	9	1983-91	9	266
Johnny Unitas	8	1957, 59-60, 62-63, 65-67	18	290
John Hadl	7	1965-68, 70-71, 74	16	244
Fran Tarkenton	7	1962, 64, 67-69, 75, 78	18	342
Sonny Jurgensen	7	1961-62, 64, 66-67, 69-70	17	255

Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first nine NFL seasons and in nine consecutive seasons. . . . Marino is the only quarterback to pass for 30-plus touchdowns in three different seasons, and he did it in three straight years (1984-86). . . . He is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986). . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Marino threw 13 interceptions in 1991, tied for the third lowest total of his career. . . . His three interceptions Oct. 20th at Houston was his 1991 single game high, and it was the first time he threw three or more interceptions since he had three INTs on September 9, 1990 at New England. . . . Had seven games in 1991 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 4-3 in those contests. . . . In his career, he has not thrown an interception in 47 games, and the Dolphins are 35-12 in those 47 games in which he was not intercepted. . . .

SACKS: Marino was sacked 27 times for 182 yards in losses in 1991, a career high, surpassing his previous high of 18 sacks in 1985. . . . Overall in 1991, Marino and Scott Secules (one sack), were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest quarterback sacks allowed. . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career. . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego he was sacked by the Chargers' Leslie O'Neal in the fourth quarter, forcing Marino to fumble and the Chargers recovered on the Dolphins' 13-yard line. . . . San Diego went in to score a touchdown to give them a 24-23 lead that they did not relinquish. . . . On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he was sacked for a nine-yard loss by Cornelius Bennett, forcing Marino to fumble. . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown. . . .

DURABILITY: Beginning with the start of the 1984 season (he missed the last two games of the 1983 campaign, his rookie year), Marino has started 124 of the Dolphins' last 127 regular season games (only three games he missed were the replacement games of 1987). . . . Marino, the Rams' Jim Everett, Denver's John Elway, and the Jets' Ken O'Brien are the only NFL quarterbacks to have started every game in each of the last two seasons. . . . Marino is the only NFL quarterback to have started every game since the replacement games in 1987. . . . If those replacement games are not counted, he has started each of the last 124 Dolphin contests. . . . With his start on Nov. 3, 1991 at Indianapolis, he passed Ron Jaworski and has the longest consecutive game streak of any quarterback since the 1970 merger (not counting replacement games), and he is one of only five NFL quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight games since then:

CONSECUTIVE GAMES STARTED, NFL QUARTERBACKS

* Does not count replacement games of 1987

The last time Marino left a game because of an injury was on November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder), forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter. . . . It was the first time he had to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983, an injury which also forced him to miss the following two games, the only full games he missed due to an injury in his career. . . .

RUSHING: Had one touchdown rushing in 1991, coming on a 10-yard scramble on Dec. 15th at San Diego. . . . It was the longest touchdown run of his career. . . . Marino has rushed for a touchdown six times in his regular season career (the others were: Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England, one yard; Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati, one yard; Dec. 7, 1987 vs. N.Y. Jets, five yards; Nov. 20, 1983 vs. Baltimore, one yard; and Oct. 30, 1983 vs. L.A. Rams, two yards), and the Dolphins are 5-1 in those games, winning the first five games when Marino rushed for a TD before losing at San Diego last year . . . Marino also had a two-yard rushing touchdown in post-season play, on Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo, in a game the Dolphins also lost . . .

NFL RECORDS: In addition to above records for yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, and 1988, should he lead the league in attempts in 1992, he would join only three others (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who have led the NFL in that category four times . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86 and 1988, if he did so again he would join Sammy Baugh as the only players to have led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years (Houston's Warren Moon would join that group this year if he leads the NFL in completions) . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86 and 1988, should he lead the league in that category this year, he would join Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Having led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, if he does so again, he would join only two others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHIN RECORDS: Marino broke all of Bob Griese's team records in passing yardage, attempts, completions and TD passes, yet remains 23 interceptions shy of Griese's team record in that category:

MARINO'S MIAMI DOLPHINS CAREER RECORDS

TD	PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS

192	Griese	25,092	Griese	3,429	Griese	1,926	Griese	149	Marino

Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino completed his ninth year in the league (1983-91) . . . Marino also holds team career records for highest passer rating, highest completion percentage, and most 300-yard and 400-yard games . . .

COMEBACKS: In 1991, Marino led the Dolphins to two fourth quarter comebacks, vs. Green Bay on September 22nd (from 6-13 to 16-13), and at Chicago on November 24th (from 3-13 to 16-13 in overtime) . . . Over the course of Marino's nine-year career with the Dolphins, he has brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 18 times, with 11 fourth quarter triumphs at home and seven on the road . . . Included in that total are two playoff games in which Marino has led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . In Marino's 18 career fourth quarter comebacks, he has completed 116 of 187 passes (62.0%) for 1,598 yards with 15 touchdowns and five INTs:

PRO BOWL: Was named as a reserve quarterback on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his sixth career Pro Bowl selection (1983-87, 1991), but he was unable to play in the game due to his recovery from arthroscopic knee surgery . . . His selection broke a three-year streak (1988-90) in which he did not make the Pro Bowl . . . He had been named to the Pro Bowl in each of his first five seasons in the league (four as a starter), but played in only one (after 1984 season) . . . His six Pro Bowl selections tied the Dolphin team record with quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78) and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . He remains tied with center Dwight Stephenson and linebacker John Offerdahl for second-most Pro Bowl starts (four) by a Dolphin; Langer is first with five . . . His six Pro Bowl selections also is second among active quarterbacks behind Joe Montana's seven selections (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) . . .

HONORS: Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for December 1-2 after going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in Dolphins' 33-14 victory over Tampa Bay . . . In that game Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . It was the 12th time in the regular season (and the 13th time overall, having been named NFL Player of the Week for the first round of the playoff games on January 5-6, 1991) that Marino has won the AFC weekly award in his nine-year NFL career, the most times any player has won AFC Player of the Week honors since the award was instituted in 1984 (Boomer Esiason is second with seven AFC awards, John Elway is third with six, while Jim Kelly and Warren Moon have five AFC awards apiece) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 in balloting of South Florida media for the ninth straight year . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977), and no Dolphin besides Marino has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . He did not win the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award in 1991, breaking his eight-year streak of winning that honor . . . However, his eight years (1983-90) winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 22): Was 27-45 for 282 yards, two touchdowns, and one interception vs. Jets on Dec. 22nd . . . Was sacked three times . . . Threw a touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds on fourth-and-goal on the Jets' one-yard line with 44 seconds left in regulation to give the Dolphins a 20-17 lead, only to see the Jets tie the game in regulation and win the contest 23-20 in overtime to knock the Dolphins out of a playoff berth . . .

AT SAN DIEGO (DEC. 15): On Dec. 15th at San Diego, he was 26-41 for 286 yards, three touchdowns, and one interception, and rushed for a touchdown . . . He went over 35,000 career yards passing in that contest and also passed Joe Montana and moved into fourth place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list . . . His three touchdown passes matched his 1991 single game high, accomplished three other times . . . It also was the 46th time in his career he passed for three or more touchdowns in a game and the Dolphins are 30-16 in those contests . . . His touchdown run came on a 10-yard scramble, the longest touchdown run of his career . . . It also was the sixth time in the regular season he rushed for a touchdown, and it was the first time the Dolphins lost, having gone 5-0 in those previous five contests . . . He also had a two-yard rushing touchdown in post-season play, on Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo, in a game the Dolphins also lost . . .

VS. CINCINNATI (DEC. 9): Had one of his best games of the season Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati . . . Was 24-33 for 281 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions . . . His completion percentage of 72.7% was his best percentage in 1991 . . . His three touchdown passes matched his 1991 single game high . . . His three TD passes also gave him 20 TD passes for the season, and he set an NFL record with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes, breaking the record he shared with Johnny Unitas of eight seasons of 20 or more touchdown passes . . . He also moved past Jim Hart into fifth place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage list . . . It was the 47th time in his career that he did not throw an interception and the Dolphins are 35-12 in those games . . .

VS. TAMPA BAY (DEC. 1): Had one of his best games of the season Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay, going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions . . . It was the third time in 1991 and the 41st time in his career he threw for 300 or more yards and the Dolphins are 27-14 in those games . . . In that game Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . It was the 46th time in his career he did not throw an interception . . . For his performance in that game, Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for the weekend of December 1-2 . . .

AT CHICAGO (NOV. 24): Was 16-30 for 183 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions and three sacks on Nov. 24th at Chicago . . . His one touchdown pass, a two-yard TD toss to Ferrell Edmunds, came with 1:57 left in regulation to give the Dolphins a 13-13 tie in their eventual 16-13 comeback overtime win . . . It was the second time in 1991 and the 18th time in his career (including playoffs) that he has brought the Dolphins back from a fourth quarter deficit to win . . .

VS. BUFFALO (NOV. 18): Was 23-42 for 326 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and one sack on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo . . . His 326 yards passing was his 1991 single game high . . . It was the second time in 1991 and the 40th time in his career he threw for 300 or more yards . . . His two touchdown passes gave him 255 TD passes for his career, moving him past Dan Fouts and into a third-place tie with Sonny Jurgensen among the NFL's all-time leaders in TD passes . . . His one sack came at the hands of Cornelius Bennett, who tackled Marino for a nine-yard loss forcing Marino to fumble . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown to break a 10-10 tie and give the Bills a 17-10 lead they never relinquished . . . It was the second time in 1991 that a Dolphin fumble was returned for a touchdown . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 10): Was 19-29 for 263 yards, three touchdowns, one interception and one sack Nov. 10th vs. New England . . . It was the 44th time in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in a game . . . Went 4-4 for 80 yards to lead Dolphins on game-winning 73-yard drive in 1:55, culminating in 32-yard touchdown pass to Mark Clayton with 1:54 left in contest to break 20-20 tie and give Dolphins 27-20 lead in eventual 30-20 victory . . . In that contest Marino passed John Hadl and moved into sixth place among the NFL's all-time passing yardage leaders . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 3): Was 21-37 for 231 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 3rd at Indianapolis . . . It was the 45th time in his career he did not throw an interception . . . It was his 117th straight start (not counting the three replacement games he missed), breaking his tie with Ron Jaworski and making his consecutive games played streak the longest by any quarterback since the 1970 merger . . . He improved his career mark to 14-4 against the Colts, including a 7-2 mark at home and a 7-2 mark on the road . . . He has a better touchdown to interception differential against the Colts than any other opponent at +23 (30 TDs to seven INTs) . . .

VS. HOUSTON (OCT. 20): On Oct. 20th vs. Houston was 19-40 for 229 yards, one touchdown, three interceptions, and one sack . . . It was just the 16th sub-50 percent completion percentage game of his career, and the Dolphins are 5-11 in those contests . . . His three interceptions were the most he has thrown since September 9, 1990 when he threw three INTs at New England . . . One of those three interceptions was returned 33 yards for a touchdown by Houston's Darryll Lewis, the second time in 1991 a Marino interception was returned for a touchdown . . . It was his 116th straight non-replacement game and tied Ron Jaworski's NFL high of 116 straight starts since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger . . .

AT KANSAS CITY (OCT. 13): On Oct. 13th at Kansas City Marino was 15-29 for 216 yards, no touchdowns and no interceptions . . . It was the 17th time in his career he did not throw a touchdown pass and the Dolphins are 4-13 in those games . . . It also was the 44th time he did not throw an interception . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 6): On Oct. 6, 1991 at New England, Marino was 25-38 for 321 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions . . . It was his first 300-yard game of the season and his 39th career 300-yard game . . . It also was his 43rd game without throwing an interception . . . In the second quarter alone of the Patriots contest, he was 14-20 for 224 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions . . . It was his best performance in a quarter since he was 15-18 for 239 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in the third quarter on October 23, 1988 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 29): Was 17-34 for 245 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and four sacks on Sept. 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . His interception was by Erik McMillan who returned it 83 yards for a touchdown, the first opponent INT that went for a touchdown since Kirby Jackson returned an INT 40 yards for a TD at Buffalo on Oct. 29, 1989 . . . It was the fourth time Marino was sacked four times in a game, matching his single game career high . . . When Marino threw a touchdown pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter, it broke a string of nine consecutive quarters Marino went without throwing a touchdown pass, the longest of his career . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on Sept. 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third . . .

VS. GREEN BAY (SEPT. 22): Was 19-32 for 212 yards, no touchdowns, one interception, and three sacks vs. Green Bay in 16-13 win that was Don Shula's 300th career victory . . . It was the 16th time Marino was held without a touchdown pass . . . Coupled with his game on September 15th at Detroit, when he also failed to throw a touchdown pass, Marino went back-to-back games without throwing a touchdown pass for only the second time in his career . . . The other time he failed to throw a TD pass in consecutive games was on December 10, 1989 vs. New England and December 17, 1989 at Indianapolis . . . He has never gone three straight games without throwing a touchdown pass . . . It was Marino's 17th time in his career he brought the Dolphins back from a fourth quarter deficit

AT DETROIT (SEPT. 15): On September 15th at Detroit, his 30th birthday, Marino was 16-34 for 174 yards, no touchdowns and no interceptions . . . It was the 15th regular season game in his career that he completed less than half his passes and the Dolphins are 5-10 in those contests . . . It was the 15th time in his career that he failed to throw a touchdown pass . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 8): Was 14-25 for 147 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and two sacks September 8th vs. Indianapolis in the Dolphins' 17-6 win . . . When he was sacked by Sam Clancy in that contest, it was the first time he had been sacked by a Colt player in a game played in Miami (nine games) . . . His one touchdown pass in that game, a nine-yard toss to Jim Jensen, was the 245th TD pass of Marino's career, passing John Hadl and moving into sole possession of fifth place on the NFL's all-time touchdown list . . .

AT BUFFALO (SEPT. 1): Had an outstanding game in season opener at September 1st at Buffalo . . . Was 17-28 for 267 yards, three touchdowns (including a 43-yard flea-flicker TD pass to Mark Clayton) and no interceptions . . . It was only the tenth time the Dolphins lost in the 41 regular season games in which he did not throw an interception . . . In that game he passed John Brodie and moved into ninth place on the NFL's all-time passing yardage chart and also passed Joe Montana to move into a tie for fifth with John Hadl on the NFL's all-time career touchdown pass list . . . Was sacked twice in that contest . . .

PRESEASON: In his four preseason games he was 22-58 (37.9%) for 235 yards, no touchdowns and three interceptions (all coming on his first three series on August 24th vs. New Orleans) for a rating of 29.0 . . . In fact in his four preseason games he failed to produce an offensive touchdown while in the game . . . Threw ten straight incompletions August 19th at Denver . . . Did not play on August 10th at Tampa Bay . . . It was the first Dolphin game he missed (preseason, regular season, and postseason) since he did not play in a preseason game on August 18, 1990 in Philadelphia.

1990 - Was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes was the second fewest of his career (behind only his 20 TD passes as a rookie in 1983), but his 11 interceptions also was the second fewest of his career (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain was the second lowest among the top twenty quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . Marino finished fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in passing with a rating of 82.6 . . . His 531 attempts were second in the AFC and third in the NFL, his 306 completions were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 3,563 passing yards were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 21 touchdown passes were fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL, and his 2.1 interception percentage was second lowest in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990 at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts . . . Marino joined San Francisco's Joe Montana as the only active quarterbacks with 30,000-plus passing yards, while Steve DeBerg joined that group in 1991:

Did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1990, but did have two 300-yard efforts, on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 31 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 191 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses . . . Overall Dolphin quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league (a streak that ended in 1991), including each of Marino's first eight years with the club . . . Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing Nov. 19, 1990 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12, 1991 . . . In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-38) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . He extended his Dolphin career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, yet remains tied with Bob Griese for most interceptions . . . Marino played in eight playoff games while Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests . . .

Marino has thrown one or more touchdown passes in each of his eight career playoff games . . . His streak of eight consecutive playoff games with at least one TD pass is tied for the third longest string in NFL history with Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw (1977-82) and San Francisco's Joe Montana (1981-84 and 1988-91) . . . Marino and Montana share the league's longest active streak, and Marino trails only Oakland's Ken Stabler (10 games) and Denver's John Elway (nine):

In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs in AFC First Round Playoff Game on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in next game, in AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incomplection . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the third-longest streak in team history:

* - playoff game

Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the first round playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year.

1989 - In 1989 was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . It remains the last time Marino has thrown for 400 yards . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Rypien for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England was the 200th career TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . He reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in but his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When the Bills' NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphin team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts both are the lowest single game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 - Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions (23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the high yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphin single game record, but it also is the third highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. N.Y. Jets	10/23/88
Phil Simms, Giants	62-40	513	1 TD	Lost vs. Cin.	10/13/85
Vince Ferragamo, Rams	46-30	509	3 TDs	Lost vs. Chi.	12/26/82

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried ball 20 times for -17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time . . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphin history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had then-career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 - Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passing rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 - Led AFC in passing (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC offensive player of the week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's player of the month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta (11/30).

1985 - Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 - Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . His completions record was later broken by Warren Moon in 1991 . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21/84), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship Game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 - Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18/83), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9/83) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18/83) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2/83) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4/83) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Is also school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Dolphins) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton) . . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5) for 2,876 yards, 37 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was MVP at Sugar Bowl that year for second-ranked Panthers, completing 26 passes for 261 yards and three TDs in 24-20 edging of Georgia . . . Led Pitt to Gator Bowl in 1980, completing 116 of 224 throws (51.8) for 1,609 yards, 15 TDs and 14 interceptions . . . Became starter midway through freshman season of '79 hitting on 130 of 222 passes (58.6) for 1,680 yards, 10 scores and nine pick-offs . . . Suffered knee injury versus West Virginia that season, missing three games and later requiring off-season surgery . . . Has B.A. in communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Claire (1/30/85), Marino and his wife have four children, Daniel Charles (9/4/86), Michael Joseph (5/18/88), Joseph Donald (7/26/89) and Alexandra Claire (5/13/92) and reside in Fort Lauderdale . . . REGGIE ROBY

Punter #4
Born: 7/30/61
College: Iowa '83
Acquired: D6, 1983
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season

PRO: 1991 – Veteran punter ranks among best in NFL history . . . Finished season as NFL leader in overall punting with an average of 45.7 yards per kick (2,466 yards on 54 punts), his single season career best . . . He also set a new Dolphin team record for the highest season punting average, surpassing his former team mark of 44.7 yards per punt (set in 1984) . . . Became first Dolphin punter to lead NFL in punting average . . . Had a net average of 36.4 yards per punt . . . Averaged 52.3 yards on four kicks at Detroit (9/15) and had a long kick of 56 yards . . . Had seven punts for an average of 52.7 yards per punt vs. Green Bay (9/22), including a 58-yard kick, with six of his seven punts going 50 yards or longer . . . His punting yardage total of 369 yards in that game was a career high and his average yards per punt was the third best single game average of his career . . . Helped set-up tying touchdown against Green Bay with 54-yard punt which went out of bounds on the Packer two-yard line, and two plays later Chuck Klingbeil recovered a Don Majkowski fumble in the end zone to give the Dolphins their only touchdown and a 13-13 tie en route to their eventual 16-13 win . . . Had an average of 45.3 yards per kick on four punts at N.Y. Jets (9/29), but also had one of his punts blocked and returned 11 yards for a touchdown by the Jets' Chris Burkett just prior to halftime . . . It was the first time a blocked punt was returned for a touchdown against the Dolphins since Jewerl Thomas of the L.A. Rams recovered a blocked punt in the end zone on November 19, 1980 . . . It was only the third time in Roby's career (fourth, including playoff games) that he had a punt blocked and it was the first time one of his blocked punts was returned for a touchdown . . . After his first blocked punt as a rookie in 1983, Roby went 117 regular season games and suffered only one other blocked punt (in 1989) before Burkett's block in 1991 . . . Had one of his best career games vs. Houston (10/20) by averaging 53.8 yards per punt (215 total yards) on four kicks, which was his 1991 single game best as well as the second-highest single game average (minimum four punts) in Dolphin history and in his career (surpassed only by his average of 58.5 yards per punt on Sept. 28, 1986 vs. San Francisco), and he had a season-long kick of 64 yards . . . Had one punt for 62 yards (his second longest punt of the season) vs. Buffalo (11/18) . . . However, on his only punt vs. the N.Y. Jets (12/22), he suffered a torn Achilles tendon in his left leg that sidelined him the rest of the game . . . Underwent surgery on Dec. 23 by Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato to repair the tendon and a full recovery is expected . . . His injury in that Jets game forced Pete Stoyanovich to punt twice in that contest, his first-ever NFL punts . . . It also was the first time since 1987 that someone other than Roby punted for the Dolphins . . .

1991 NFL PUNTING CHAMPION: Roby led the entire NFL in punting average in 1991 . . . Finished season with an average of 45.7 yards per kick (2,466 yards on 54 punts), his single season career best . . . Also set new Dolphin team record for the highest season punting average, surpassing his former team mark of 44.7

yards per punt (set in 1984) . . . Became first Dolphin to lead NFL in punting average:

Averaged 48.8 yards in six kicks at Washington (12/2) . . . Had a 45.8 yards per punt average on five kicks vs. Seattle (12/16), including a season-long punt of 62 yards that was fumbled by Seattle's Chris Warren and recovered by Stevon Moore to set up Miami's first touchdown of the game.

PLAYOFFS: In two playoff games, he booted four punts for 199 yards for an average of 49.8 yards per kick . . . Had two punts for 119 yards, an average of 59.5 yards per kick in playoff opener vs. Kansas City (1/5) . . . Also had a punt blocked by the Chiefs' Charles Washington in contest, his third career (first in playoffs) blocked punt . . . Had two punts for 80 yards, an average of 40.0 yards per kick at Buffalo (1/12) . . . Also recovered a fumble by Al Edwards late in first half that resulted in touchdown.

1989 – Earned second Pro Bowl selection in 1989, having been named to the AFC Pro Bowl team following 1984 season . . . Finished season with 58 punts for 2,458 yards, 42.4 avg. and a net average of 35.3 yards per kick . . . Ranked third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in punting average . . . Finished third in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL in net average . . . Had 18 punts inside the 20-yard line which ranked fifth in the AFC and tied for tenth in the NFL . . . Booted three kicks for 140 yards (46.7 avg.) at New England on Sept. 17 . . . Knocked ball out of end zone for safety after Brian Kinchen's center snap sailed over Roby's head vs. N.Y. Jets (9/24) . . . Forced to take a safety for second straight week when he failed to handle Kinchen's high snap and knocked the ball out of end zone at Houston (10/1) . . . Punted four times for 183 yards for a 45.7 avg. (long of 51 yards) vs. Cleveland (10/8) . . . Placed four of five kicks inside twenty-yard line, including two inside the five yard line, while also booting his season-high kick of 58 yards at Dallas (11/19) . . . Charged with fumble (loss of 19 yards) and a rush (for no yardage) when he failed to handle a bad snap vs. Pittsburgh (11/26) . . . Suffered blocked punt at Indianapolis (12/17) when his punt was blocked by the Colts' Chris Goode and recovered by Goode at Miami's one-yard line . . . Blocked punt was only the second regular season one of Roby's career, with his first blocked punt coming in his rookie season on Oct. 16, 1983, against the Jets (by Darrol Ray).

1988 - Finished fifth in NFL with 43.0 average in '88, which was sixth best in Dolphins history . . . Dressed for all 16 games in 1988, punting in 15 contests . . . Punted 64 times for 2,754 yards with nine touchbacks 18 inside the 20 and no blocks in '88 . . . Handled kick off duties in second half of San Diego game (10/16) after regular kicker Fuad Reveiz suffered thigh injury in contest . . . Had 1988 single-game high with 52.0 average (on four punts) at Indianapolis (9/25) . . . Was not called upon to punt in Cleveland contest (12/12) for third time in his career (and fourth time in Miami history).

1987 - Played in 10 games in '87, punting in nine . . . Only game he did not kick in was '87 opener at New England (9/13) . . . Suffered severely sprained right ankle and mild groin pull in that contest when tackled by Patriots' Rod McSwain after bad center snap . . . Was placed on injured reserve on 9/16 and activated on 10/31 . . . For second straight year had longest punt in NFL; booted 77-yarder versus Buffalo (11/29), tying Steve Cox of Washington for that honor in '87 . . . That 77-yarder marked longest punt in Dolphin history, breaking previous record of 73 yards done twice by Roby and once by Seiple . . . Punted 32 times for 1,371 yards with three touchbacks, eight inside the 20 and no blocks in '87 . . . Handled kick off chores versus Jets (12/7) after Fuad Reveiz was injured . . . For second straight year (and third time of career, also 1984) had best net average in AFC (38.3) . . . His 42.8-yard average was just behind AFC leader Ralf Mojsiejenko (San Diego, 42.9) but Roby (32 punts) did not have necessary 2.5 punts per game (38 total) to qualify among league leaders because of games missed due to his injuries . . . Named All-AFC in '87 by Pro Football Weekly.

1986 - Finished second in AFC in 1986 with 44.2 average (behind Colts' Rohn Stark at 45.2) . . . Punted fewest times of any regular in AFC (56) . . . Saw action in 15 games in '86 with rare non-appearance (first time in career) versus Buffalo (10/12/86) as Dolphins did not have to punt all afternoon . . . Was only second time in team history that Dolphins did not punt at least once in a game . . . His game average (58.5, 4-234) vs. San Francisco shattered Miami record of 52.0, set by Seiple vs. Jets in '73 . . . Following '86 campaign, was named honorable mention All-NFL by AP and second-team All-NFL by UPI.

1985 - Played in all 16 regular-season games along with two playoff contests in 1985 . . . Finished second in league in punting . . . Quarterback #9
Born: 11/8/64
College: Virginia '88
Acquired: T (Dall.), 1989
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season

PRO: 1991 - Young player saw action in 14 games with four appearances as a quarterback . . . Held for PATs and field goal attempts . . . Finished season hitting on eight of 13 passes (61.5%) for 90 yards with one touchdown and an interception for a rating of 75.8 . . . Also rushed four times for 30 yards and a score . . . Was inactive player for first two regular season games as Scott Mitchell was used as holder for PAT and field goal attempts . . . Made first appearance at quarterback in 1991 at N.Y. Jets (9/29), relieving Dan Marino late in that contest and completed five of six attempts for 53 yards with one touchdown (to Mark Clayton) and no interceptions . . . His second appearance of 1991 at quarterback came in third quarter at Kansas City (10/13) and hit on three of seven passes for 37 yards with no touchdowns and an interception . . . Also rushed three times for 18 yards, including a four-yard touchdown run . . . Secules' TD run accounted for the Dolphins' only score of the games and was his first career rushing touchdown . . . Made his third and fourth appearances at quarterback vs. Tampa Bay (12/1) and vs. Cincinnati (12/9) after relieving Marino late in both contests but did not attempt a pass.

1990 - Played in all 16 regular season games with five appearances as a quarterback . . . Used as holder for PATs and field goal attempts . . . Finished season hitting on three of seven attempts (42.9 percent) for 17 yards, with no touchdowns, one interception and one sack for a 10.7 rating . . . Saw action in fourth quarter vs. Buffalo (9/16), at Pittsburgh (9/30) and at Indianapolis (10/28), but did not attempt a pass in any of those games . . . Appeared in fourth quarter at Giants (9/23) and completed two of three passes for 11 yards . . . Also led Dolphins in rushing with one carry for 16 yards . . . He became the first Dolphin non-replacement quarterback to lead the team in rushing in a game since quarterback David Woodley rushed for a team-leading 52 yards on 15 carries in a 16-6 win over the Buffalo Bills on Dec. 19, 1981, in the Orange Bowl . . . Threw an incomplete pass on a PAT attempt following a bad snap vs. N.Y. Jets (10/7) . . . Appeared in fourth quarter at Washington (12/2) and completed one of four passes for six yards with one interception and one sack . . . Also had one rush for 17 yards, matching the longest run of his career, and led the Dolphins in rushing for the second time in 1990 and the third time by a Dolphin quarterback, with Dan Marino leading the team in rushing vs. the L.A. Raiders (11/19) . . . Saw extensive action in preseason . . . Played in all four preseason games . . . Completed 20 of 41 passes (48.8 percent) for 267 yards, one touchdown and one interception for a rating of 67.8.

1989 - Acquired by Miami from Dallas Cowboys on Aug. 6, 1989, in exchange for 5th round draft choice in 1990 . . . Participated in 15 of 16 Dolphin games in '89 . . . Saw action at QB position in four games . . . Held for PATs and field goal attempts . . . Finished season hitting on 22 of 50 attempts (44.0 percent) for 286 yards, with one touchdown and three interceptions for a rating of 44.3 . . . Made Dolphin and NFL debut on Sept. 10 vs. Buffalo as holder . . .

First NFL appearance at quarterback came at Houston (10/1) in relief role late in the fourth quarter . . . Completed one of three pass attempts with only completion being a 14-yard pass to Andre Brown on last play of the game . . . Added one carry for three yards . . . Saw relief role at Buffalo (10/29) in the fourth quarter, completing six of 11 attempts for 109 yards and a 44-yard TD pass to Andre Brown for Secules' first NFL TD pass . . . Added a 17-yard run in contest . . . Saw most extensive work at QB on Nov. 26 vs. Pittsburgh, replacing Dan Marino early in third quarter after Marino left contest with injured right shoulder . . . Completed seven of 19 attempts for 94 yards with no touchdowns and two INTs . . . Rushed 17 yards as holder on third-quarter fake FG attempt to set up touchdown at Kansas City (12/3) . . . Played in fourth quarter in relief of Marino at Colts (12/17) and hit on eight of 17 for 69 yards with no touchdowns and one interception . . . Also had one rush for two yards . . . Saw extensive action in preseason playing in all four preseason games and completing 26 of 48 attempts (54.2 percent) for 269 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions.

1988 - As rookie for Cowboys in 1988, spent 13 weeks on active roster . . . Did not play in a regular season or a preseason contest as the Cowboys kept four quarterbacks on active roster (Secules, Danny White, Steve Pelluer and Kevin Sweeney) . . . In '88 training camp scrimmage against the L.A. Raiders, completed nine of 12 passes for 83 yards . . . Third quarterback taken in 1988 draft behind only Chris Chandler (Indianapolis) and Don MacPherson (Philadelphia) . . . Sixth-round draft choice (151st overall) of Dallas in 1988.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and one-year starter at Virginia . . . Redshirted during freshman year . . . Spent next three years backing up current Green Bay Packers' QB Don Majkowski . . . In senior season, hit on 174 of 296 attempts (58.8 percent) for 2,311 yards with 12 touchdowns and eight interceptions . . . Set 14 school records as senior including completions in a season (174), passing yards in a game (328 vs. North Carolina) and season (2,311), completion percentage in a game (80%, on 20 of 25 passing vs. Wake Forest), a season (58.8%, 174 of 296) and career (56%, 260 of 464) . . . Led Atlantic Coast Conference in passing efficiency as senior . . . Became first Virginia quarterback to be named All-ACC since Bob Davis in 1966 . . . Kicker #10

College: Indiana '89

Acquired: D8, 1989

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

PRO: 1991 - Scored 121 points, going 31-37 (83.8%) on field goals and 28-29 on extra points, playing in only 14 games . . . His 121 points ranked first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind the Redskins' Chip Lohmiller's 149 points) in scoring and he led the Dolphins in that category . . . Also ranked first in the AFC and tied for first the NFL (with Lohmiller) in field goals made with 31 FGs . . . He became only the second Dolphin in club history to lead the AFC in scoring (Garó Yepremian led the NFL in scoring with 117 points in 1971) and he became only the second Dolphin to lead the AFC in field goals (Yepremian led the NFL in field goals with 28 in 1971) . . . Stoyanovich's 121 points set a new Dolphin individual single season scoring record, breaking Garó Yepremian's former team record of 117 points in a season . . . It marked the second time in Stoyanovich's three-year career that he scored 100 or more points, having scored 100 points in 1990 . . . It also was the eighth time that a Dolphin player scored 100 points in a season . . . With those two seasons of 100 or more points, Stoyanovich holds two of the top eight single season scoring totals in Dolphin history after just three years in the NFL:

5. Garó Yepremian (1973).....113	Uwe von Schamann (1983).....99

Stoyanovich's 31 field goals set a new Dolphin single season record for most field goals, breaking the former team record which was set when Garó Yepremian kicked 28 field goals in 1971 . . . Over the course of his three-year NFL career, Stoyanovich ranks fourth in field goals made (71), sixth in points (316), and second in field goal percentage (80.7%) among kickers in the regular season over that three-year span, and has kicked more field goals of 50 or more yards (six) in the regular season than any kicker in the league:

* - Minimum 80 attempts

Stoyanovich made his first nine field goals of 1991 before missing on a 58-yard attempt on the last play of the first half on October 6th at New England . . . Scored 73 points in his last seven games, going 18-21 in field goals and 19-20 in extra points . . . As an unsigned veteran he missed the first regular season game at Buffalo on Sept. 1st as well as all of training camp, including all five preseason games . . . After signing a contract on September 6th was granted a two-week roster exemption and was not activated for game vs. Indianapolis on September 8th, missing his second regular season game . . . Was activated on September 14th and made his season debut on September 15th at Detroit . . .

LONG FIELD GOALS: On September 29th at the N.Y. Jets, Stoyanovich kicked a 53-yard field goal, his sixth career field goal (including playoff games) of 50 or more yards, breaking the team record (previously held by Garó Yepremian) for the most career field goals of 50 or more yards . . . Stoyanovich accomplished the feat in just his third season, while Yepremian's Dolphin career lasted nine years (1970-78) . . . He now has kicked seven field goals in his career of 50 or more yards:

* Playoffs

Stoyanovich has booted the two longest field goals in team history with a 59-yarder on November 12, 1989 against the N.Y. Jets at Giants Stadium and a 58-yarder in an AFC Playoff game against the Kansas City Chiefs on Jan. 5, 1991 at Joe Robbie Stadium . . . His 59-yard effort against the Jets set an NFL record for the longest field goal by a rookie and broke Garo Yepremian's team record for the longest field goal in Dolphin history . . . Yepremian had booted a 54-yard field goal on Oct. 22, 1972 vs. Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 59-yard field goal is tied for the fourth longest field goal in NFL history, and his 58-yard FG against the Chiefs in the 1990 playoffs is tied for the sixth longest field goal, giving Stoyanovich two of the six longest field goals in NFL history:

LONGEST FIELD GOALS, NFL HISTORY

58	Nick Lowery, K.C.	vs. Washington	Sept. 18, 1983
58	Dan Miller, Baltimore	vs. San Diego	Dec. 26, 1982

His 58-yard field goal in the AFC First Round playoff game vs. Kansas City on Jan. 5, 1991 is the longest field goal ever kicked in NFL post-season history, breaking the previous record of 54 yards set by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 31, 1983, against San Francisco:

LONGEST FIELD GOALS, NFL PLAYOFFS

LENGTH	KICKER	OPPONENT	DATE

52	Matt Bahr, Clev.	at L.A. Raiders	Jan. 8, 1983
51	Fuad Reveiz, Mia.	vs. Cleveland	Jan. 4, 1986

It also broke the Dolphin playoff record for the longest field goal, which was 51 yards by Fuad Reveiz on January 4, 1986 against Cleveland . . .

CLUTCH KICKS: Twice in 1991, Stoyanovich won games by kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter or in overtime . . . On Nov. 24th in Chicago, his 27-yard field goal with 4:11 gone in overtime provided the winning points in the Dolphins' 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . On September 22nd in Miami's 16-13 win over Green Bay, Stoyanovich booted a 31-yard field goal with 8:21 remaining in the game to provide the winning points for the Dolphins . . . Five times in his career Stoyanovich has kicked a field goal that has won a game in either overtime or the fourth quarter or tied a contest in the final period that the Dolphins would later win in overtime:

11/24/91	at Chicago	Tied at 13-13 in OT	27 yds.	16-13 (OT)

ACCURACY: Stoyanovich has booted 71 of 88 field goal attempts in his career for a percentage of 80.7%, the best career accuracy mark in Dolphin history . . . In addition, he was 31-37 in field goal attempts in 1991, an accuracy mark of 83.8%, which is the Dolphins' second best single-season accuracy mark, surpassed only by his team mark of 84.0% (21-25) which he set in 1990:

SINGLE SEASON DOLPHIN FG LEADERS

(minimum 15 attempts)

G. Yepremian	1975	13	16	81.3

His 83.8% accuracy percentage in 1991 ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, behind the Rams' Tony Zendejas (who was 17-17 for 100%), the Raiders' Jeff Jaeger (29-34 for 85.3%), and Philadelphia's Roger Ruzek (28-33 for 84.8%) . . . In his career Stoyanovich is 65-77 (84.4%) of field goals of under 50 yards . . . After missing a 49-yard field goal vs. New England on Nov. 10th he made 14 straight field goals covering five-plus games (his last kick in that Patriot game followed by all of his kicks in each of the next five games, through Dec. 15th at San Diego) before missing from 53 yards out in his first field goal attempt on Dec. 22nd vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . That streak matched his previous career high for most consecutive field goals, which he set by making his last field goal in 1989 and his first 13 field goals in 1990, and was two field goals short of Garo Yepremian's team record of 16 consecutive field goals, which he set during the eighth through 16th weeks in 1978 . . . Has missed two extra points in his career, on Dec. 15th at San Diego (a critical PAT miss in the Dolphins' 38-30 loss to the Chargers) and on Sept. 24, 1989 vs. the Jets . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 2-4 in field goals on Dec. 22nd vs. N.Y. Jets . . . It was only the fourth time in career that he missed two field goals in a contest . . . His first miss in that game, from 53 yards out, broke his streak of 14 straight field goal conversions, stretching from his last kick vs. New England on Nov. 10th through his only kick at San Diego on Dec. 15th, covering five-plus games . . . Also was forced into punting duties in that Jets contest following Achilles heel injury to Reggie Roby . . . Stoyanovich became the first Dolphin to punt in a contest other than Roby since 1987 . . . Stoyanovich punted twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) in that contest, the first two punts of his NFL career, and had a long kick of 49 yards . . . Scored 13 points on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, going 3-3 in field goals (hitting from 50, 22, and 36 yards out) and 4-4 in extra points . . .

Was blocked hard by Bengals' special team player Alex Gordon following a kickoff that precipitated an altercation along the Bengal sideline, and while shaken up was not seriously injured . . . Scored a career-high 15 points on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay, going 4-4 in field goals and 3-3 in extra points . . . His four field goals surpassed his previous single game high of three field goals (accomplished eight times previously) and was tied for the second highest number of field goals made in a game by a Dolphin, behind Yepremian's club record of five field goals made, set on September 26, 1971 at Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 15 points vs. the Bucs eclipsed his former single game high of 12 points, set Nov. 10, 1991 vs. New England . . . Scored ten points on Nov. 24th at Chicago, going 3-3 in field goals and converting on an extra point attempt . . . His final field goal, from 27 yards out with 4:11 elapsed in overtime, provided the winning points in Miami's 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . It was the fifth time in his career that a Stoyanovich field goal has won a game in either overtime or the fourth quarter or tied a contest in the final period that the Dolphins would later win in overtime . . . Had 12 points on Nov. 10th vs. New England, going 3-3 in extra points and 3-4 in field goals . . . Missed a 37-yard field goal Nov. 3rd at Indianapolis, his first miss from under 40 yards since Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis, hitting on six in a row since then before that miss . . . Was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, including a 53-yard field goal that was his sixth career FG of 50 or more yards, setting a new Dolphin record . . . Also was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 22 vs. Green Bay, including a 52-yard field goal . . . Made his season debut on September 15th after being activated the previous day and was 2-2 in field goal attempts.

1990 - Finished sixth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in scoring among kickers with 100 points, and led the Dolphins in scoring . . . Hit on 21 of 25 field goal attempts (84.0%) and all 37 PATs . . . His 21 field goals were the most by a Dolphin player since Fuad Reveiz kicked 22 field goals in 1985 . . . His 100 points exceeded his rookie total of 95 points in 1989 . . . He became the first Dolphin to score 100 or more points since Fuad Reveiz's 116 points in 1985 and his 100 points is the eighth best single season scoring total in Dolphin history . . . His 84.0% accuracy mark is the best single season accuracy mark in Dolphins history and was fourth best in the AFC in 1990 behind Kansas City's Nick Lowery (34 of 37 for 91.9%), San Diego's John Carney (19 of 21 for 90.5%), and the N.Y. Jets' Pat Leahy (23 of 26 for 88.5%) . . . Stoyanovich made his first 13 attempts in 1990 before missing a 53-yard FG on Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets and was the last kicker in the NFL to miss a field goal in 1990 . . . Dating back to his last kick in 1989, he connected on 14 consecutive field goals over two seasons before missing against the Jets . . . His 14 straight field goals broke his former single season best of eight consecutive FG, which he accomplished earlier in 1989 and fell two short of Yepremian's club record of 16 consecutive field goals made . . . His last miss before the Nov. 11th Jet game was a 56-yard attempt on Dec. 24, 1989 vs. Kansas City, his second-to-last FG attempt that season (he then hit a 22-yard FG vs. the Chiefs in that game to begin his two-season streak of 14 straight field goals) . . . Converted 18 straight field goal attempts under 40 yards before missing a 28-yard FG attempt Dec. 23rd at Buffalo . . . That miss also was his first career miss of a field goal attempt under 30 yards . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished as the Dolphins' leading scorer in the postseason with 15 points, going 3-4 (75%) in field goal attempts and 6-6 in point after touchdown kicks . . . Hit on field goals of 58, 49, and 22 yards while missing from 57 yards out . . . Was 1-2 in field goal attempts in playoff game on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, hitting his record 58-yard field goal and missing on a 57-yard attempt . . . In playoff game at Buffalo on Jan. 12th was 2-2 in field goal attempts, connecting from 49 and 22 yards out . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 3-3 in field goals Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia, including two clutch kicks . . . His 34-yard field goal with :03 seconds left in the fourth quarter gave the Dolphins a 20-20 tie with the Eagles, sending the game into overtime, and his 39-yard FG with 2:28 left in OT provided the game-winner in the Dolphins'

23-20 comeback victory . . . It was the second time in his career he won a game with a field goal in overtime . . . On Oct. 28th at Indianapolis he kicked a 53-yard field goal, the third longest of his career, tied for the fourth longest in Dolphin history, and the longest FG ever kicked against the Colts . . . Connected on his only field goal attempt on Sept. 23rd vs. the Giants in Giants Stadium, hitting a 51-yard field goal . . . It was the only points the Dolphins scored in their 20-3 loss to the Giants.

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 105 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (16 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only five occasions (Norm Evans, twice; Richmond Webb, twice; and Wayne Moore).

DOLPHIN FACT

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, the Dolphins became the only team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins have never lost to an NFC East team at home. Miami is a perfect 10-0 in home games with NFC East foes since the merger of the National and American Football Leagues in 1970. The Dolphins are 4-0 vs. Philadelphia, 2-0 vs. Dallas, 3-0 vs. Phoenix and 1-0 vs. Washington. Miami has never faced the N.Y. Giants at home. The two teams were scheduled to play at Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987, but the game was cancelled due to the players' strike.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 - 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

GAME 1

BUFFALO 35, DOLPHINS 31
 September 1, 1991

Rich Stadium
 Orchard Park, NY

Although Dolphins running back Mark Higgs rushed for a career-high 146 yards, Buffalo running back Thurman Thomas accounted for 268 total yards from scrimmage (165 rushing and 103 receiving) and the Bills posted 583 yards of total offense to defeat the Miami Dolphins 35-31 in the season opener at Rich Stadium before a crowd of 80,252. It was Miami's sixth straight loss at the Bills with the team's last win in Buffalo coming on November 16, 1986, with a 34-24 triumph. Thomas led the Bills' offense with 25 carries for 165 yards and a touchdown and added eight catches for 103 yards and a score. The Bills' offense was also led by receiver Andre Reed who had 11 catches for 154 yards and a touchdown and quarterbacks Jim Kelly (29 of 39 attempts for 381 yards with two TDs and an INT) and Frank Reich (2-2-16-1-0). The Dolphins led 7-0 after the first period on Dan Marino's 43-yard touchdown pass to Mark Clayton off a flea-flicker play as Marino handed off to Higgs who pitched the ball back to Marino. Miami increased its lead to 14-0 on a three-yard run by Higgs. However, Buffalo rebounded to score the final points of the half on a 54-yard touchdown pass from Kelly to Andre Reed. Dolphins kicker Charlie Baumann booted a 21-yard field goal to open up the third period scoring and increase Miami's lead to 17-7. However, the Bills rebounded for a pair of TDs in the period to take a 21-17 lead entering the final quarter. Following an injury to Kelly, Buffalo back-up QB Reich entered the game for two plays and connected with TE Butch Rolle for a three-yard touchdown pass. Buffalo scored again in the period as Kelly returned to connect with Thomas for a 50-yard touchdown pass. Miami took its final lead of the game at 24-21 early in the fourth period as Marino again connected with Clayton from five yards out for a touchdown. Buffalo regained the lead on their next possession as fullback Carwell Gardner rushed for a one-yard score. On Miami's next series, Higgs fumbled on Buffalo's 45-yard line and safety Mark Kelso recovered for Buffalo. Thomas capped off the scoring drive with a seven-yard touchdown run to increase the Bills' lead to 35-24. Miami scored the final points of the game and narrowed the margin to 35-31 when Marino hit Mark Duper with a three-yard scoring pass with 2:32 remaining in the game before the Bills ran out the clock to preserve the win.

DOLPHINS 17, INDIANAPOLIS 6
 September 8, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

Dolphins running back Mark Higgs rushed for 111 yards and the Miami defense held the Colts to a pair of field goals and defeated Indianapolis, 17-6, before a home-opening crowd of 51,155 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Higgs led the Dolphin ground attack as he rushed 27 times for 111 yards and coupled with his 146 rushing yards in the season opener at Buffalo, he became the first Dolphin runner to rush for 100 yards in consecutive games since Andra Franklin in 1982. Franklin ran for 129 yards vs. Minnesota on December 5, 1982, and for 107 yards vs. New England on December 12. The Dolphins defense shut down the Colts by allowing only two field goals, 11 total first downs (four rushing and seven passing) and 150 total net yards (69 rushing and 81 passing). It was the first time Miami held an opponent without a touchdown since November 11, 1990, when the Dolphins earned a 17-3 win at the N.Y. Jets. The Dolphins evened their record at 1-1 and since Don Shula became head coach of Miami in 1970, the Dolphins are 9-1 in games following a season opening loss. They also upped their record to 20-5-1 in home openers, including a 19-3 mark under Shula. The score was tied at the half as the teams exchanged 48-yard field goals from Miami's Charlie Baumann (first quarter) and Indianapolis' Dean Biasucci (second quarter). Biasucci's kick came with just three seconds remaining in the half. Miami took the lead for good midway through the third period as rookie running back Aaron Craver scored his first career NFL touchdown on a seven-yard run. Higgs keyed the seven-play, 60-yard drive with four carries for 33 yards. On the Colts' next possession, they drove the ball to a first-and-goal at Miami's one-yard field line before the Dolphin defense tightened to hold the Colts to a 21-yard field goal by Biasucci. Miami scored the final points of the game later in the period as Dan Marino connected with Jim Jensen on a nine-yard scoring reception. In the contest, Marino hit on 14 of 25 passes for 147 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Higgs and Craver (11 rushes for 37 yards and a TD) were the only Dolphins to rush in the game, while fullback Tony Paige led the team in receiving with five catches for 53 yards.

GAME 3

DETROIT 17, DOLPHINS 13
 September 15, 1991

Silverdome
 Pontiac, MI

Detroit running back Barry Sanders rushed for 143 yards to lead the Lions to a 17-13 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 56,896 at the Silverdome. The loss denied Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula on his first attempt to join the immortal George Halas (325 career wins) as the only coaches in NFL history to record 300 or more career wins. Sanders led a balanced Lions attack as he rushed 32 times for 143 yards and quarterback Rodney Peete hit on 13 of 24 passes for 173 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Detroit's defense held the Dolphins to 226 total net yards and Miami quarterback Dan Marino to 16 of 34 for 174 yards and no touchdowns or interceptions. The Dolphins dropped to 3-12 when Marino is held without a touchdown pass. The score was tied at 3-3 at the end of the first period as Detroit opened the scoring on their first drive on Eddie Murray's 46-yard field goal, before Miami answered on an 18-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. The Dolphins took a 10-3 lead early in the second quarter on a four-yard run by Mark Higgs. The key play in the drive was a 35-yard pass interference call on a third-and-12 by Detroit cornerback Sheldon White on Mark Duper to give the Dolphins a first down. However, the Lions came back and answered the score when Peete hit on a 26-yard touchdown pass to Willie Green. Once again, a penalty was the key play in a scoring drive as Miami nose tackle Shawn Lee was called for roughing the passer following an incomplete pass on a third-and-20 play which gave Detroit a first down and kept the drive going. Detroit took the lead for good in the third quarter on a six-yard run by Peete to go ahead by a 17-10 score. Miami cut the lead to 17-13 early in the final period on a 47-yard field goal by Stoyanovich that hit the crossbar and bounced through. The Dolphins had a chance to take the lead late in the game when, following an interception by Shawn Lee with 4:42 remaining on a pass deflected by cornerback Vestee Jackson, Miami had a first-and goal on Detroit's three-yard line. However, the Dolphins failed to score as Marino threw an incomplete pass which was intended for Aaron Craver on first down, fullback Tony Paige rushed for one yard on second down, Higgs lost three yards on a rush on third down, and Marino threw an incomplete pass which was intended for Tony Martin on fourth down. The Lions then ran out final 2:58 on the game clock to preserve the win.

GAME 4

DOLPHINS 16, GREEN BAY 13
September 22, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula won the 300th game of his coaching career as the Dolphins earned a come-from-behind 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers before a crowd of 56,583 at Joe Robbie Stadium. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joined the immortal George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games. Remarkably, Shula achieved the coaching milestone in just his 29th year as an NFL coach - as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish the feat. Both teams' offenses struggled in the contest as Miami (37 yards) and Green Bay (44 yards) rushed for a combined total of 81 yards on the ground which is the fewest combined rushing yards in Dolphins history. The old record was 99 combined rushing yards between the Dolphins (50 yards) and New England Patriots (49 yards) on October 18, 1990 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, the teams combined for five fumbles (three by Green Bay and two by Miami), two lost fumbles (both by Green Bay), two interceptions (one by each team) and allowed eight sacks (three by Miami and five by Green Bay). The win improved Miami's record to 7-0 against the Packers. The only other team the Dolphins are undefeated against is the Phoenix Cardinals (6-0). Miami also improved to 7-0 against teams from the NFC at home since the team moved into Joe Robbie Stadium for the 1987 season. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino hit on 19 of 32 passes for 212 yards with no touchdowns and one interception. The win upped Miami's record to 4-12 when Marino has been held without a touchdown toss. Also, coupled with the previous week's game in Detroit, Marino went back-to-back games without a throwing a touchdown pass. The only other time Marino has gone consecutive games without a touchdown pass was December 10, 1989, vs. New England and December 17, 1989, at Indianapolis. Miami jumped out to a 6-0 first quarter lead on a pair of field goals by Pete Stoyanovich from 48 and 52 yards. However, the Packers came back to take a 13-6 halftime lead on a pair of field goals by Chris Jacke - from 28 and 34 yards - and a 14-yard scoring pass from Don Majkowski to Ed West with :48 seconds left in the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, the Dolphins rebounded to score the winning points in the fourth quarter. Miami tied the game at 13-13 early in the final period when, following a Reggie Roby punt which was downed on the Packer's two-yard line, Majkowski fumbled the ball in the endzone and Miami nose tackle Chuck Klingbeil recovered the ball for his first career NFL touchdown. The Dolphins scored the winning points of the game when Stoyanovich booted his third field goal of the game from 31 yards out with 8:21 remaining in the game. Miami's defense forced the Packers to punt on their next possession and forced a fumble by Majkowski (forced by Dolphins S Mike Iaquaniello and recovered by CB Vestee Jackson) to end the Packers final drive with 1:47 remaining in the game.

GAME 5

N.Y. JETS 41, DOLPHINS 23
September 29, 1991

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

The New York Jets used a balanced offense and an opportunistic defense to defeat the Miami Dolphins 41-23 before a crowd of 71,170 at Giants Stadium. It was the most points scored against Miami since December 2, 1990, when the Dolphins dropped a 42-20 decision to the Washington Redskins. The Jets opened the scoring on their first possession as Ken O'Brien connected on a 17-yard scoring play to WR Rob Moore. Miami responded on their next drive as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 33-yard field goal to close the first quarter scoring at 7-3. The Dolphins took their only lead of the game (10-7) early in the second period as Dan Marino hit Mark Duper with a 30-yard score. The touchdown strike ended a career-high streak of nine consecutive quarters in which Marino did not throw a touchdown pass. The Jets took a 14-10 lead in the quarter as Brad Baxter scored on a two-yard run. With just 12 seconds left in the half, New York increased their lead to 21-10 when wide receiver Chris Burkett blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball 11 yards for a touchdown. It was the first time a blocked punt had been returned for a score against the Dolphins since November 19, 1980, when the L.A. Rams' Jewell Thomas recovered Miami punter George Roberts' blocked punt in the endzone. However, the Dolphins rebounded to close the first half scoring when, starting on their own 39-yard line with just nine seconds left in the half, Marino hit Clayton with a 25-yard strike to get to the Jets' 36-yard line and called time out with one second remaining. Pete Stoyanovich booted a 53-yard field goal to close the scoring. In the third period, the two teams exchanged field goals with Jets kicker Pat Leahy booting a 25-yarder and Stoyanovich answering with a 33-yarder as the period ended with the Jets holding a 24-16 lead. The Jets dominated the final period by scoring 17 early points to put the game away and take a 41-16 lead early in the final period as Baxter scored his second touchdown of the game from three yards out. Leahy hit on a 27-yard field goal and safety Erik McMillan intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned the ball 83 yards for the score. It was the first time an interception had been returned for a score against Miami since October 29, 1989, when Buffalo's Kirby Jackson returned a Marino interception 40 yards for a score at Rich Stadium. Miami scored the final points of the game when reserve quarterback Scott Secules entered the game and hit on a ten-yard touchdown pass with Mark Clayton to close the scoring at 41-23.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 20, NEW ENGLAND 10
 October 6, 1991

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

Dan Marino threw for 321 yards and two touchdowns and linebacker E.J. Junior registered four sacks to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 20-10 win over the New England Patriots before 49,749 at Foxboro Stadium. The win snapped Miami's six-game (including playoffs) road losing streak - tied for the second longest such streak in team history and the longest since Don Shula joined Miami in 1970. The only time Miami lost six or more straight road games was a six-game road losing streak from December 1, 1968, to November 2, 1966, and a team-record streak of ten straight road losses from November 13, 1966, through December 3, 1967. Junior recorded a career-high four sacks. His previous career-high for single-game sacks was three QB hits on December 4, 1983, when his St. Louis Cardinals posted a 10-6 win over the New York Giants. Junior's four sacks in the Pats game are the most by a Dolphin player since Doug Betters also recorded four sacks in a game on September 4, 1983, at the Buffalo Bills. The win, coupled with Miami having swept the season series in 1989 and '90, enabled the Dolphins to win their fifth straight game over the Patriots for the first time in team history. The win also marked the first time that Miami has won three straight games against New England on the road. The Patriots scored the only points of the first quarter on their first possession as John Stephens ran up the middle from the one-yard line. Miami dominated the second quarter by outscoring the Patriots by a 17-0 margin. Pete Stoyanovich opened the scoring for Miami on a 47-yard field goal. The Dolphins then took the lead by scoring a pair of touchdowns in the final two minutes of the half. First, following a New England punt, the Dolphins received the ball on their own 30-yard line with 1:50 remaining and drove 70 yards on four plays and scored on a 24-yard hookup from Marino to Mark Clayton. After the score, Miami's defense forced the Pats to punt and Shawn McCarthy's 27-yard punt gave Miami the ball on the Patriots' 42-yard line with just :47 seconds left in the half. Miami then moved 42 yards on three plays in just :25 seconds and capped the drive on Marino's touchdown pass to Jim Jensen from the five-yard line. In the second quarter, Marino completed 14 of 20 attempts for 224 yards and a pair of scores. It was the most yards Marino has passed for in a quarter since October 23, 1988, when he hit on 15 of 18 attempts for 239 yards and two touchdowns in the third quarter against the New York Jets. In addition, the 17 points Miami scored in the second period was the most the team scored in a quarter since October 12, 1989, when the Dolphins recorded 21 points in the third period at the N.Y. Jets. Following a scoreless third quarter, the teams exchanged field goals in the final period. First, Stoyanovich hit on a 25-yarder to increase the Dolphins lead to 20-7, before New England's Jason Staurovsky connected on a 37-yarder to close the scoring.

GAME 7

KANSAS CITY 42, DOLPHINS 7
 October 13, 1991

Arrowhead Stadium
Kansas City, MO

Kansas City running back Christian Okoye rushed for 153 yards and a pair of scores as the Chiefs earned a 42-7 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 76,021 at Arrowhead Stadium. Miami's 35-point loss was tied for the third-worst margin of defeat in Dolphins history with a 35-0 decision at the Baltimore Colts on November 1, 1970. Kansas City opened the scoring on their first possession as they capped a five-play, 68-yard drive as Okoye broke open on a 38-yard run up the middle for the score. Okoye was the workhorse on the drive as he carried the ball all the way down the field for the score. Miami had a chance to tie the score on their next possession, however after driving from their own 22-yard line to the Chiefs' one, running back Sammie Smith fumbled the ball on the goal-line and Kansas City linebacker Chris Martin returned the ball 100 yards for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead for Kansas City at the end of the first quarter. Martin's fumble return was the second-longest in NFL history (behind only Jack Tatum of the Oakland Raiders who returned a fumble 104 yards for a score on September 24, 1972, against the Green Bay Packers). In addition, it was the longest fumble return for a score against Miami - besting the L.A. Raiders' Greg Townsend's previous long of a 66-yard return of a David Woodley fumble for a score on September 19, 1983 - and was the first fumble returned for a score against the Dolphins since Indianapolis' Chris Goode returned a Tony Paige fumble 54 yards for a touchdown on October 28, 1990. The Chiefs increased their lead to 28-0 at the half on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Tim Barnett and a one-yard scoring plunge by Okoye. Miami had a chance to score late in the half when, with just one second remaining, Dan Marino threw a 54-yard "Hail Mary" pass which was deflected by wide receiver James Pruitt into the hands of fellow WR Tony Martin. However, Martin was pushed out of bounds on the Chiefs' one-yard line by Deron Cherry to end the first half. Okoye led the way for the Chiefs in the first half as he rushed for 116 yards on 18 carries and a pair of scores. It was the second time in his last three games against Miami that Okoye rushed for more than 100 yards in the first half in a game against the Dolphins. On December 3, 1989, he had rumbled for 101 yards on 22 carries in the first half at Arrowhead Stadium in the Chiefs' 26-21 win. Kansas City added a pair of third quarter scores to increase their lead to 42-0 as DeBerg hit on a pair of touchdown passes. First, he connected with Todd McNair on a 14-yard score and he later added a 41-yard hook-up with Barnett. Scott Secules replaced Dan Marino (15 of 29 for 216 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions) at quarterback late in the third quarter and led the Dolphins to their only score of the game with a four-yard run early in the final period. Secules finished the game with stats of three of seven for 37 yards and an interception.

GAME 8

HOUSTON 17, DOLPHINS 13
October 20, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers and dropped a hard-fought 17-13 decision to the Houston Oilers before a crowd of 60,705 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's five turnovers in the game were the most by the team in a game since October 18, 1990, when the Dolphins turned the ball over five times (four fumbles and an interception) in a 17-10 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Dan Marino (19 of 40 attempts for 229 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions) threw three INTs in a game for the first time since Sept. 9, 1990, when he also threw three interceptions at New England. The Dolphin defense played a solid game by holding Houston's run-and-shoot offense, which entered the game as the league's top-ranked passing attack with an average of 306.8 passing yards per game, to only 177 yards through the air. Also, Miami recorded three interceptions (two by Louis Oliver and one by Bobby Harden). The loss dropped Miami's mid-season record to 3-5 and marked just the third time that the team has produced a losing record at the midway point of a season since Don Shula was named head coach of the Dolphins in 1970. In 1976, Miami was 3-4 at the midpoint and went on to post a 6-8 mark. In 1986, the Dolphins were at 3-5 midway through the year and rebounded to finish at 8-8. Miami scored the only points of the opening quarter on a 34-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich. Houston rebounded to take a 7-3 lead when Oilers cornerback Darryl Lewis intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned the ball 33 yards for a touchdown. However, Miami scored the final points of the half - and took a 10-7 halftime lead - when Marino connected with Mark Clayton on a 19-yard touchdown pass. The Oilers tied the score midway through the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Ian Howfield. However, the Dolphins came back and took their final lead of the game at 13-10 on a 46-yarder by Stoyanovich later in the period. Houston scored the final points of the game on their first possession of the fourth quarter as Warren Moon hit Curtis Duncan with a one-yard scoring pass to take the 17-13 lead. Miami had a chance to take the lead late in the game when, starting at their own 24-yard line, the Dolphins drove down to the Oilers' one-yard line, but running back Sammie Smith fumbled into the endzone (forced by Houston linebacker Lamar Lathon) and the ball was recovered by the Oilers' Cris Dishman with just 3:10 remaining in the game. Houston received the ball back at its 20-yard line and was able to run out the clock from there.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 10, INDIANAPOLIS 6
November 3, 1991

Hoosier Dome
Indianapolis, IN

The Miami Dolphins scored 10 points in the first quarter and used a staunch defense to earn a 10-6 win over the Indianapolis Colts before a crowd of 55,899 at the Hoosier Dome. The game was the lowest scoring in terms of combined points since November 20, 1988, when the Dolphins and New England combined for nine points in the Patriots' 6-3 win at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's defense held the Colts to just 11 drives which ended in five punts, two field goals, a missed field goal, a fumble, an interception and a loss on downs. The game marked the third time in Miami's last four games against Indianapolis that the Dolphins have held the Colts without an offensive touchdown. On October 6, 1991, the Colts managed just a pair of field goals in the Dolphins' 17-6 win at JRS and on October 28, 1991, the Colts' only score came on a fumble return as Miami earned a 27-7 win at the Hoosier Dome. In the game, wide receiver Mark Duper caught three passes for 64 yards and a score and tied Nat Moore's team record for career receiving yardage. Moore, who played 13 seasons with Miami from 1974-86, held the record by amassing career totals of 7,547 yards on 510 catches and 74 TDs. Duper, in his 10th season with the Dolphins, finished the game with career totals of 7,547 yards on 430 receptions and 50 scores. Miami scored the only points they would need on their first two possessions of the game. First, Miami took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays and capped the drive off when Dan Marino hit Duper with a 12-yard touchdown pass. Duper's touchdown catch was his 50th career receiving touchdown and he joined only Nat Moore (74 TD catches) and Mark Clayton (71 scores) as the only Dolphin receivers to catch 50 or more touchdowns passes. The Dolphins added to their lead later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 35-yard field goal to increase Miami's lead to 10-0 at the end of the first quarter. Miami had a chance to increase their lead in the second quarter, however Stoyanovich's 35-yard field goal was nullified by a holding penalty and the penalty forced him to attempt a 47-yarder which was wide to the left. The Colts scored the only points of the second quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Dean Biasucci with just six seconds remaining in the half. Indianapolis closed the scoring on a 25-yard field goal by Biasucci early in the third quarter, ending the game.

GAME 10

DOLPHINS 30, NEW ENGLAND 20
 November 10, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw for three touchdowns to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 30-20 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium before a crowd of 56,065 and a prime-time national television audience on Sunday night. Miami won its sixth straight game over the Patriots by sweeping the season series in 1989, 1990, and 1991. Miami's six-game win streak over New England is the longest in team history over the Pats. In addition, the game marked the first time that the Dolphins have swept a season series over the Pats for three straight seasons. New England opened the scoring on their first drive as former Dolphin kicker Charlie Baumann booted a 44-yard field goal. The Dolphins came right back on the next drive as Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 31-yard touchdown to take a 7-3 first quarter lead. Miami linebacker Mike Reichenbach intercepted a Hugh Millen pass on the Patriots' next possession to give the Dolphins the ball on the 50-yard line. It was just the second interception of Reichenbach's eight-year NFL career. His only other career INT came on December 8, 1985, while Reichenbach was with the Philadelphia Eagles against the Washington Redskins. Miami converted the takeaway into a score as Marino combined with Fred Banks on a five-yard scoring play. On New England's next possession, the Patriots were forced to punt on their own 27-yard line and Dolphin running back Marc Logan blocked the Shawn McCarthy punt - with Jim Jensen recovering the ball - and Miami took over on the Pats' seven-yard line. It was Logan's first career blocked punt and the first time Miami recorded a blocked punt since October 18, 1990, when Mark Higgs blocked a Brian Hanson punt against the Patriots. However, the Dolphins were forced to settle for a 21-yard field goal and a 17-3 lead. New England closed out the first half scoring on a 37-yard field goal by Baumann with just 26 seconds left in the half. Miami opened the scoring on their first drive of the third quarter with a 42-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. New England countered to close the score to 20-13 when Millen and wide receiver Irving Fryar hooked-up on a 40-yard touchdown pass. New England tied the score early in the fourth quarter as Millen threw his second touchdown pass of the evening with a five-yard scoring toss to tight end Marv Cook. Miami took the lead for good later in the period as Marino and Clayton combined on their second touchdown of the game with a 32-yard strike with just 1:54 left in the contest. Miami held the Patriots on their next possession and scored the final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Stoyanovich with 35 seconds remaining.

GAME 11

BUFFALO 41, DOLPHINS 27
 November 18, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

Buffalo running back Thurman Thomas rushed for 135 yards and a touchdown as the Bills amassed 262 yards on the ground and defeated the Miami Dolphins, 41-27, before a national television audience on Monday Night football and 71,062 fans, the largest crowd to watch a Dolphin game at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Bills had a total of 433 yards of total offense (262 rush and 171 pass) and Thomas accounted for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Thomas rushed 23 times for 135 yards and a score and added three catches for 40 yards and a TD. Kenneth Davis chipped in with 25 carries for 98 yards and Andre Reed caught eight passes for 80 yards and a touchdown. Buffalo's defense was equally effective as it forced four fumbles - recovering three - and also recorded two interceptions. Buffalo turned its five takeaways into 24 points. With the win, the Bills have now won ten of the last 11 meetings (including a playoff game) in the series between the two teams and own a 4-1 lead in games played in Miami since the Dolphins moved into Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 33-yard field goal. The Bills rebounded to score on their next possession as Jim Kelly hit Thomas with a 10-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-3 lead. Buffalo closed out the first quarter scoring on a 42-yard field goal by Scott Norwood. The Dolphins tied the game at 10-10 on their next possession as Sammie Smith rushed over left tackle for a one-yard touchdown run. The Bills recovered for a quick touchdown as three plays after the Dolphins forced a Buffalo punt, Marino was sacked for a nine-yard loss on his own 15-yard line and fumbled the ball which was recovered by Cornelius Bennett and returned for a nine-yard touchdown. Miami suffered its second straight turnover as on the first play from scrimmage following the Buffalo kickoff, Marino's pass was intercepted by Kirby Jackson and returned to the Dolphins' 24-yard line. However, Miami's defense tightened and held the Bills to a 21-yard field goal by Norwood. The Dolphins closed out the first half scoring on a 28-yard field goal by Stoyanovich to narrow the margin to 20-13. Buffalo scored two touchdowns in the third quarter to take a 34-13 lead on Kelly's three-yard touchdown pass to Reed and Thomas' one-yard touchdown run. Miami scored the final points of the period as Marino connected with tight end Greg Baty on a one-yard touchdown. The teams exchanged touchdowns in the final period as Kelly hit Reed with a 23-yard touchdown and Marino answered with an eight-yard TD pass to Tony Martin to close the scoring at 41-27.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 16, CHICAGO 13 (OT)
 November 24, 1991

Soldier Field
 Chicago, IL

Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 27-yard field goal in overtime as the Dolphins staged a dramatic come-from-behind 16-13 win over the Chicago Bears in a snowy Soldier Field in front of 58,288 fans. Miami trailed in the game by a 13-3 score entering the final quarter before rallying for the victory. Dan Marino helped lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 fourth quarter deficit to the 16-13 win in overtime. Marino hit on a combined total of five of 11 passes for 62 yards with a touchdown and an interception in the fourth quarter and overtime periods. Marino has now helped bring the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 18 times. The game was played in 27-degree weather - the seventh coldest game in Dolphin history - and the win improved Miami's record to 2-5 in games in which the game time temperature was 27 degrees or colder. Chicago opened the scoring midway through the first quarter as fullback Brad Muster scored on a three-yard run. The teams exchanged field goals as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yarder and Chicago's Kevin Butler hit on a 32-yarder. The Bears increased their lead to 13-3 in the third quarter. Following the opening kickoff, Chicago marched 77 yards on 20 plays in a drive that took 11:07 off the game clock. Miami's defense tightened around the goal line and the Bears scored on Butler's 19-yard field goal to lead 13-3. In the drive, Chicago was able to convert on five third-down situations to keep the drive alive. The Dolphins narrowed the Bears' lead to 13-6 early in the final period as Stoyanovich hit on a 22-yard field goal. Miami punted on its next possession, and the Bears took over on their own 34-yard line with 2:49 remaining in the ball game. Miami's defense forced the Bears into a punting situation and punt center Jerry Fontenot's snap was high and wide which forced punter Maury Buford to chase the ball back to the Bears' 12-yard line. Buford was able to recover the ball, but his punt attempt was blocked by Marc Logan and recovered by Paul Lankford on Chicago's four-yard line with 2:01 left in regulation. Miami was able to capitalize on the blocked punt when Marino hit tight end Ferrell Edmunds on a two-yard touchdown pass with just 1:57 remaining. The Bears had a chance to win the game as they drove to Miami's 32-yard line, however Butler's 50-yard field goal attempt was short as time ran out in regulation. Miami won the overtime coin toss and chose to receive and fullback Tony Paige returned the kickoff to Miami's 35-yard line. Marino dominated the overtime period and hit on all three of his pass attempts for 53 yards to lead Miami in for the score. Marino and wide receiver Mark Clayton combined to hit on two key completions in overtime. First, the duo hooked up for 11 yards on a third-and-six play from the Bears' 47-yard line and on the next play combined again for 31 yards to Chicago's five-yard line to set up Stoyanovich's game-winning 27-yard field goal.

GAME 13

DOLPHINS 33, TAMPA BAY 14
 December 1, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded a rare "triple-triple" (100-yard rusher, 100-yard receiver, and 300-yard passer) and earned a 33-14 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before a crowd of 51,036 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins were led by the triple threat of running back Mark Higgs (25 rushes for 131 yards and score), wide receiver Tony Martin (five catches for 106 yards and a TD) and quarterback Dan Marino (20 of 32 passes for 307 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions). It was Miami's first "triple-triple" since November 1, 1987, against the Pittsburgh Steelers when Troy Stradford rushed for 110 yards, Mark Duper caught five passes for 100 yards and Dan Marino threw for 332 yards. In the contest, Marino moved past the 3,000-yard mark for the season and set an NFL record with his eighth career season of 3,000 or more passing yards. Marino entered the year with seven such seasons and was tied with San Francisco's Joe Montana (injured reserve) for the top spot. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 7-0 lead and scored the only points of the first quarter as Reggie Cobb rushed the ball in from two yards out on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's two-yard line. The Dolphins rebounded from the early score to dominate the second quarter and score 24 unanswered points. Miami's 24 second quarter points tied for second (with four other games) in the team's record book for most points scored in a quarter. The Dolphins' high for scoring in a quarter is 28 points in the second quarter on December 17, 1967, against the Boston Patriots. Miami tied the score early in the second period as Marino and Duper hooked-up on a six-yard touchdown pass. Miami took the lead for good on their next possession as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 41-yard field goal. Higgs increased Miami's lead to 17-7 later in the period with a 19-yard scoring run, before Marino combined with Martin for a 26-yard touchdown with :25 seconds remaining in the half scoring and increase Miami's lead to 24-7. Higgs rushed 13 times for 103 yards and a score in the first half and joined Sammie Smith (with a halftime total of 105 yards at New England on September 9, 1990) as the only Dolphin runners to gain 100 or more yards in first half since the 1978 season. In that season, Delvin Williams rushed for 104 yards at the half on November 12, 1978, at the Buffalo Bills. Miami increased its lead to 27-7 midway through the third quarter as Stoyanovich booted a field goal from 24 yards. Miami upped its lead to 30-7 as they capped off a takeaway with a 19-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Stoyanovich kicked his single-game career-high fourth field goal of the game from 30 yards out to increase the Dolphin lead to 33-7. Tampa Bay closed the scoring later in the period on a 17-yard pass from Vinny Testaverde to Lawrence Dawsey.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 37, CINCINNATI 13
December 9, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Mark Clayton broke Miami's team record for career touchdowns and touchdown receptions as the Dolphins earned a 37-13 win over the Cincinnati Bengals before a crowd of 60,616 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Clayton caught two touchdown passes and scored his 76th career touchdown (75 pass, one punt return) and 75th scoring reception, while Nat Moore posted career totals of 75 touchdowns (74 pass and one rush) and 74 receiving scores. Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes in the game, including his 20th of the 1991 season, and set an NFL record for most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes in a career. It was Marino's ninth such season - he has accomplished the feat all nine of his NFL seasons - and moved past Hall of Fame quarterback Johnny Unitas who had eight such seasons. Miami's 37 points in the game was the most scored by the team since December 12, 1988, when the Dolphins won a 38-31 decision over the Cleveland Browns at JRS. The Dolphins took the opening kickoff and scored as Marino completed a nine-play, 80-yard drive with a 43-yard scoring strike to Mark Duper and the first quarter ended with Miami in front by a 7-0 score. Miami increased its lead to 10-3 on its first possession of the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 50-yard field goal. The Bengals answered the field goal with a 27-yarder by Jim Breech to close the score to 10-3. Marino found the endzone again on his next drive as he connected with Clayton on an 18-yard touchdown pass to increase the lead to 17-3. Cincinnati closed the first half scoring on a 50-yard field goal by Breech with no time left in the half. Miami scored the only points of the third quarter on a 22-yard field goal by Stoyanovich. Cincinnati closed the score to within a touchdown at 20-13 on their next possession as fullback Ikey Woods scored from one-yard out. The Dolphins rebounded from the touchdown to put the game away. On Miami's next possession, Mark Higgs rushed three yards for a touchdown to give the Dolphins a 27-13 lead. On their next possession, Bengals' running back Harold Green fumbled and Dolphin safety Louis Oliver recovered the ball on Cincinnati's 17-yard line. Two plays later, Marino and Clayton combined on their record-setting touchdown from 16 yards out to give Miami a 34-13 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, Bengals returner Shane Garrett fumbled (forced by Dolphin receiver Mike Williams) and Aaron Craver recovered for the Dolphins on Cincinnati's 24. Miami scored the final points of the game on Stoyanovich's third field goal from 36 yards.

GAME 15

SAN DIEGO 38, DOLPHINS 30
December 15, 1991

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, CA

The San Diego Chargers scored 28 fourth-quarter points to earn a 38-30 win over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 47,331 at Jack Murphy Stadium to prevent the Dolphins from clinching a playoff berth. San Diego's 28 fourth-quarter points are tied for the most points allowed by Miami in a quarter. The Dolphins also allowed 28 points in the second quarter at the N.Y. Jets on September 21, 1986, and in the fourth quarter at San Diego on October 2, 1966. San Diego running back Rod Bernstine paced the Charger offense as he rushed 13 times for 104 yards and three touchdowns. His three rushing scores are tied for the second-most by an opposing rusher (with five others) against Miami in a contest, trailing Earl Campbell who rushed for four scores on November 20, 1978 at the Astrodome. The last opponent to score three TDs on the ground against Miami was Washington's Earnest Byner on December 2, 1990, at RFK Stadium. The Dolphins opened the scoring on their first drive as Pete Stoyanovich hit on a 34-yard field to give Miami a 3-0 lead at the end of first quarter. San Diego tied the game in the second period as John Carney booted a 35-yard field goal. The Dolphins came right back and took a 10-3 lead as Dan Marino scored on a 10-yard touchdown run. However, San Diego tied the game at 10-10 just before halftime as John Friesz hooked-up with Craig McEwan on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Miami took a 16-10 lead in the third quarter as Marino threw a nine-yard TD pass to Tony Paige. However, Stoyanovich missed the extra point wide to the right. Miami increased its lead to 23-10 as Marino teamed with Mark Clayton on a 10-yard scoring pass. The Chargers scored 28 straight points to open the fourth quarter. First, Friesz connected with Ronnie Harmon on a 25-yard touchdown to close within 23-17. On the first play of Miami's next possession, Marino fumbled the ball as he was sacked by Charger defensive end Leslie O'Neal and nose tackle John Phillips recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 13-yard line. Three plays later, Bernstine scored on a five-yard run and the Chargers took a 24-23 lead. San Diego safety Stanley Richard intercepted a Marino pass on his next possession to give the Chargers the ball on Miami's 43-yard line. Bernstine capped-off the drive as he scored on a one-yard run. Miami closed the score to 31-30 as Marino hit Clayton in the endzone for an eight-yard touchdown. However, San Diego came back to score the final points of the game and increase its lead to 38-30 as Bernstine scored his third touchdown of the game on a 63-yard run.

GAME 16

N.Y. JETS 23, DOLPHINS 20 (OT)
 December 22, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins closed the 1991 regular season by dropping a 23-20 overtime loss to the New York Jets before a crowd of 69,636 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was a winner-take-all match-up for the AFC's final wild card playoff spot. The Jets (8-8) earned the trip to post-season action over the Dolphins (8-8) due to New York's two wins over Miami in 1991. It was the first time that the Jets had swept the season series against the Dolphins since 1988. After Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich missed a 53-yard field goal attempt earlier in the period, the Jets scored the only points of the opening quarter as Brad Baxter rushed in from one-yard out. The Dolphins tied the game late in the second period. Jets' quarterback Ken O'Brien's pass attempt from his own 36-yard line was tipped by Dolphins LB Mike Reichenbach and intercepted by fellow linebacker Cliff Odom at the Jets' 48 with just :41 left in the half. Marino drove the Dolphins down to the Jets' 18 with just :07 seconds remaining. From there, Marino combined with Mark Clayton with a 18-yard scoring strike. The key play of the drive was a Marino-to-Clayton hook-up for 15 yards on a third-and-12 play on the 50-yard line. Miami scored first in the third quarter as Stoyanovich connected on a 23-yard field goal. But the Jets answered and took a 14-10 lead when Baxter scored his second touchdown of the game from one-yard out. The Dolphins closed the score to a one-point game at 14-13 as Stoyanovich hit on a 33-yard FG early in the final stanza. Miami had a chance to take the lead midway through the quarter. Following a 21-yard punt by the Jets' Luis Aguiar from his endzone, the Dolphins got the ball on New York's 29-yard line. However, Marino was intercepted by Jets' LB Joe Kelly on New York's three-yard line to end the drive. After the interception, the Jets drove from their own nine-yard-line to the Miami eight before settling for a 25-yard field goal by Raul Allegre and a 17-13 lead. The key play in the drive was a 47-yard run by Hector. Miami received the ball following the score and drove from their own 30 to the Jets' one-yard line where they faced a fourth-and-go situation with just :48 seconds left in the game. Marino gave Miami the lead as he hit tight end Ferrell Edmunds with a TD pass to give the Dolphins a 20-17 lead. New York received the kickoff and possession on their own 30-yard line where Allegre tied the game at 20-20 with a 44-yarder with just :02 left. Miami won the overtime coin toss and was forced to punt. New York received the ball on their own 23 and drove 65 yards to set-up Allegre's game-winning 30-yard field goal.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark at the OB in all games. Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed. The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHINS 13-0 VS. 2 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 13-0 regular-season record against two clubs in the National Football League through the 1991 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami are Green Bay (0-7), and Phoenix (0-6).

Ten other NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-4), Chicago (1-5), Dallas (1-5), L.A. Rams (1-4), Minnesota (1-4), New Orleans (1-4), New York Giants (1-1), San Francisco (1-4), Seattle (1-3), and Tampa Bay (1-4). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Falcons, Rams, Saints, 49ers and Seahawks in 1992.

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979.

1991 DOLPHINS PRESEASON GAME SUMMARIES

PRESEASON GAME 1

CHICAGO 6, DOLPHINS 0
July 26, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their preseason opener by a 6-0 score to the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 49,939 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, the Dolphin defense held the Bears to a pair of field goals. It was the first time Miami has held a preseason opponent without a touchdown since a 35-3 win over Philadelphia on August 29, 1987. Also, it was the first time Miami was shut out in a preseason game since September 11, 1971, when the club dropped a 24-0 decision at Minnesota — a span of 92 consecutive games without being shut out in preseason action. Miami had not been shut out at home in a preseason, regular season or post-season game since October 25, 1970, against the Cleveland Browns (28-0). The loss extended Miami's preseason losing streak to NFC opponents to 10 games. The Dolphins' last preseason win against an NFC opponent was a 27-21 triumph over the San Francisco 49ers on July 31, 1988, in American Bowl '88 in London. In addition, it was also the sixth time in the last seven seasons that the Dolphins have lost their preseason opener. The only win during that stretch was a 27-21 triumph over San Francisco on July 31, 1988, in American Bowl '88 in London. Chicago dominated the clock by holding the ball for 40:26 to Miami's 19:34 and rushing for 113 yards to the Dolphins' total of 25 rushing yards. In addition, the Bears' defense recorded four sacks, two fumble recoveries, an interception and only allowed Miami to cross midfield once. Following a scoreless first period, Chicago opened the scoring on a 25-yard field goal by Chris Gardocki. The Bears held a 21:15 to 8:45 advantage in time of possession at the half. Chicago closed out the scoring in the final period when Gardocki hit his second field goal of the game with a 25-yarder. Miami had a chance to win the game late in the fourth quarter when reserve quarterback Scott Mitchell (six of 18 for 70 yards) drove to Chicago's 15-yard line. However, Miami was called for a false start and holding on consecutive plays to bring the ball back to the 30-yard line. From the 30-yard line, Mitchell threw three straight incompletions and the Bears held the ball for the final :57 seconds to run out the clock.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 19, L.A. RAIDERS 17
August 4, 1991

Tokyo Dome
Tokyo, Japan

The Miami Dolphins made the longest road trip in team history (14,912 round-trip miles) to Tokyo to play the Los Angeles Raiders in American Bowl '91 and came away with a 19-17 triumph before a sold-out Tokyo Dome crowd of 51,122. The win improved Miami's record to 2-0 in American Bowls with the Dolphins also having earned a 20-16 win over the San Francisco 49ers on July 31, 1988, in London in American Bowl '88. Dan Marino (five of nine for 81 yards) started the game and led Miami to the Raiders' one-yard line on the team's initial drive with the key play being a 33-yard completion to Mark Duper on a third-and-five play on Los Angeles' 34-yard-line. However, the Raiders' defense stiffened and Miami was held to a 22-yard field goal by Charlie Baumann to take a 3-0 lead. Miami scored the only points of the second period as reserve QB Scott Mitchell (3-7-27-0-1) led the Dolphins and Baumann hit on a 48-yard field goal with just :24 seconds remaining in the half. The Raiders scored the only points of the third quarter as reserve quarterback Vince Evans entered the game and hit wide receiver Sam Graddy with a 31-yard touchdown pass to give Los Angeles a 7-6 lead in the game. In the fourth period, Los Angeles increased its lead to 10-6 on Jeff Jaeger's 25-yard field goal. However the Dolphins came back to take a 13-10 lead when back-up quarterback Scott Secules (3-3-68-1-0) connected with Scott Miller for a 19-yard touchdown. Miami increased its lead to 19-10 when linebacker E.J. Junior intercepted a Steve Beuerlein pass and returned the ball 38 yards for touchdown. Baumann's extra point attempt was wide. The Raiders came back to close the score to 19-17 when Beuerlein connected with Andrew Glover from one-yard out. Los Angeles had a chance to win the contest but Jaeger's 55-yard field goal attempt with :22 seconds remaining was wide to the left.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 29, TAMPA BAY 13
August 10, 1991

Tampa Stadium
Tampa, FL

Miami Dolphins wide receiver Fred Banks caught a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown passes and the Dolphin defense recorded three sacks and six turnovers (two interceptions and four fumble recoveries) which led to 20 points to pace Miami to a 29-13 come-from-behind win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before a crowd of 51,387 at Tampa Stadium. In the contest, Banks caught eight passes for 92 yards and a pair of scores and reserve quarterback Scott Mitchell hit on 13 of 21 passes for 127 yards and two TDs to lead Miami's second-half comeback as the team trailed by a 13-7 deficit at the half and outscored the Bucs by a 22-0 margin in the second half. Scott Secules (6-10-38-0-1) started the game at quarterback for Miami in place of the rested Dan Marino. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 10-0 in the first quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Steve Christie and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Vinny Testaverde to Bruce Hill. Miami closed the score to 10-7 in the second quarter as Dolphins cornerback Michael McGruder intercepted a Testaverde pass and rookie running back Aaron Craver capped the ensuing drive off with a one-yard scoring run. The key play in the scoring drive was a 34-yard pass interference call on Tampa Bay's Glenn Rogers on Miami rookie wide receiver Randal Hill at the Bucs' three-yard line. However, the Bucs came back to increase the lead to 13-7 on Christie's 27-yard field goal with no time left in the first half. The Dolphins scored the only points of the third period on a 30-yard field goal by Charlie Baumann. Bucs RB John Harvey fumbled on Tampa's next possession as Dolphin DE Joe Brunson forced the fumble and LB Barry Krauss recovered the ball on Miami's 39-yard line to set up Baumann's 25-yard field goal which tied the game at 13-13 early in the final period. The key play in the drive was a 35-yard pass interference call on Darryl Reed as a second Buc defensive back was called for the penalty on Randal Hill at the Bucs' three-yard line. Tampa fumbled again on their next possession (by Robert Wilson) and safety Mike laquaniello recovered the ball to set up a 30-yard scoring hook-up from Mitchell to Banks to give Miami a 20-13 lead in the game. Miami increased its lead to 27-13 on Banks' second touchdown pass of the game from Mitchell from five yards out. The Dolphins closed the scoring when punt center Scott Dill's snap went out of the endzone for a safety.

PRESEASON GAME 4

DENVER 21, DOLPHINS 13
August 19, 1991

Mile High Stadium
Denver, CO

The Miami Dolphins dropped a 21-13 decision to the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 72,555 at Mile High Stadium. The loss snapped Miami's two-game preseason winning streak and dropped the team's preseason record to 2-2. Dan Marino (nine of 27 attempts for 61 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions) started the contest and played until midway through the third period. He led the Dolphins to a 3-0 lead at the end of the first quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Charlie Baumann. The scoring drive was set up by an interception by S Jarvis Williams. Denver came back to take a 7-3 lead in the second period on a three-yard scoring run by Greg Lewis. Miami's final score of the first half followed a blocked punt by CB Michael McGruder off Mike Horan to give the Dolphins the ball on Denver's 19-yard line. Miami scored three plays later on 41-yard field goal by Baumann to close the score to 7-6 at the half. Denver extended its lead to 21-6 midway through the third period on a 62-yard touchdown pass from John Elway to Ricky Nattiel and a 25-yard scoring run by Lewis. Miami closed the margin to the final score of 21-13 late in the third period on an six-yard scoring toss from Scott Secules (5-10-69-1-0) to WR Scott Miller. Scott Mitchell (3-5-45-0-0) finished the game at QB for Miami. Rookie running back Aaron Craver led the team in rushing with 14 carries for 36 yards and tied for the team lead in receptions (three for 31 yards) with Mark Duper (3-47) and Andre Brown (3-32). The Dolphin defense recorded six sacks, an interception, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a blocked punt. Rookie linebacker Mark Sander had an excellent performance in a relief role with four tackles (three solo), two sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Also recording sacks were E.J. Junior, Jeff Cross, T.J. Turner and Alfred Oglesby. Jarvis Williams recorded the team's lone interception and Michael McGruder blocked a punt.

ALL-TIME PRESEASON RESULTS

3-2 — the team's first winning mark in preseason since 1984 when Miami posted a 3-1 mark. In the contest, Miami's defense and special teams contributed 14 points. The defense recorded a fumble recovery and three interceptions, including returning one for a touchdown. The special teams blocked a punt which was recovered in the endzone for a score. Dan Marino (5 of 18 for 68 yards with no touchdowns and three interceptions) started the contest and the offense struggled as he threw interceptions which ended each of his first three series. The Saints jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter lead when, following a Vince Buck interception which was returned to Miami's 12-yard line, Dalton Hilliard cut through the Dolphin defense for a nine-yard score. The Saints increased their lead to 14-10 when defensive end Frank Warren intercepted a Marino pass and rumbled ten yards for a touchdown. However, Miami answered the score with an interception return of its own as Michael McGruder picked off a Bobby Hebert pass and raced 72 yards for the score to narrow the margin to 14-7. New Orleans scored the final points of the half on Morten Anderson's 22-yard field goal which was set-up by Dolphin punt returner Scott Miller's fumble on Miami's 16-yard-line. Reserve quarterback Scott Mitchell (8-10-74-1-0) played the second half and narrowed the score to 17-14 in the third quarter when he hit tight end Greg Baty with a five-yard scoring toss. On New Orleans' next possession, safety Mike Iaquaniello forced Gill Fenerty's fumble which was recovered by Cliff Odom on the Saints' 25-yard-line. Two plays later, Mark Higgs ran ten yards up the middle for a touchdown to give the Dolphins a 21-17 lead. New Orleans took a 24-21 lead in the final period on a two-yard run by Fred McAfee. However, the Dolphins scored the final points of the game when rookie linebacker Bryan Cox blocked a punt by Tommy Barnhardt of the Saints and cornerback Paul Lankford recovered in the endzone for the winning score.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while four other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season opening winning streak on one occasion - Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins) and Washington (11 wins) in 1991.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins have not lost a regular season game to an NFC opponent at home since the team moved into Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. Over that time, the Dolphins have accumulated a 6-0 record at home against the NFC which include wins over Washington (23-21) in 1987; Green Bay (24-14) and Minnesota (24-7) in 1988; Green Bay (23-20) in 1989; Phoenix (23-3) and Philadelphia (23-20 in OT) in 1990 and Green Bay (16-13) and Tampa Bay (33-14) in 1991.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins enter the 1992 season having won six straight games against the New England Patriots. The Dolphins swept the season series against the Pats during the 1989, '90 and '91 seasons. It marked the first time that the Dolphins have swept the season series three consecutive years against New England.

OPPONENTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

The following individual records relate solely to service against the Miami Dolphins. They include National Football League regular-season statistics only -- with the exception of those single-game records marked by "*" or ""

The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21, 1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.
- Jan. 23 - Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.
- Jan. 25 - Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.
- Feb. 27 - David Shula, the Dolphins' assistant head coach and passing game coordinator, and Dave Wannstedt, the team's linebackers coach, resign their position to accept new posts with the Dallas Cowboys.
- March 1 - George Hill is named the new linebackers coach for the Dolphins, while John Sandusky, the Dolphins' offensive line coach, is promoted to assistant head coach.
- March 6 - Gary Stevens, formerly of the University of Miami, is named quarterbacks/pass offense coach for the Dolphins.
- May 15 - Chuck Connor, the Dolphins director of player personnel for 11 seasons, announces his resignation to join the Atlanta Falcons as director of pro scouting.
- June 12 - Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- Sept. 10 - Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home opener winning streak.
- Sept. 17 - In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Oct. 8 - In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.
- Nov. 5 - Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.
- Nov. 12 - Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.
- Nov. 19 - Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.
- Dec. 3 - Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

- Dec. 24 - The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-2 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40 degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.
- Jan. 7 - Joseph Robbie, founder and owner of the Dolphins and the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium dies of respiratory failure at age 73.
- Jan. 12 - The Miami Dolphins and Robbie Stadium Corporation undergo an organization realignment to ensure continued administration of both entities by the Robbie family. Tim Robbie becomes President of the Dolphins, Dan and Janet Robbie are named Executive Vice Presidents of the team, while Eddie Jones is named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the club. In addition, J. Michael Robbie is named Executive Vice President of Robbie Stadium Corporation.
- Jan. 19 - Dolphin President Tim Robbie announces that the Dolphins have signed Don Shula to a three-year contract to remain as head coach.
- Jan. 27 - Former Dolphin great Bob Griese is among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Dolphin quarterback becomes the fourth player in Miami history to earn the honor with induction scheduled for August 4.
- Feb. 7 - Monte Clark, former San Francisco and Detroit Head Coach and Dolphin Assistant Coach, is named Miami's Director of Pro Personnel, while Charley Winner is given expanded duties and is named the club's Director of Player Personnel.
- March 7 - H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video, purchases fifty percent of the Robbie Stadium Corporation (the parent company of Joe Robbie Stadium) as well as a fifteen percent limited partnership in the Miami Dolphins.
- Sept. 9 - Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season opener with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.
- Sept. 16 - Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, the Dolphins end a six-game losing streak to the Buffalo Bills and move into undisputed first place in the AFC East for the first time since Week 15 of the 1985 season with a 30-7 triumph. It is also Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as head coach of the Dolphins.
- Oct. 18 - In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.
- Nov. 19 - During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."
- Nov. 25 - Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Dec. 9 - The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.
- Dec. 16 - In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.
- Dec. 19 - Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle - and second rookie offensive lineman overall - to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest. He joins Miami teammates Jeff Cross, Ferrell Edmunds and John Offerdahl in the all star contest.
- Dec. 23 - Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

- Jan. 5 - The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.
- Jan. 12 - Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The two teams combine for 78 points - the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff contest was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.
- Jan. 24 - Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.
- Jan. 27 - Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.

- March 8 - Mike Shula joins Dolphins as a Coaches' Assistant.
- March 26 - The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.
- May 23 - At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).
- Aug. 3 - The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to take on the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.
- Aug. 20 - Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
- Sept. 22 - Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.
- Nov. 10 - In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.
- Nov. 18 - During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. The game is witness by 71,062 fans which is the largest crowd to watch a Dolphin game at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 24 - The Dolphins record a 16-13 overtime win in Chicago in 27-degree snowy weather, only the second win ever for the Dolphins in their nine games in which the temperature has been 27 degrees or colder.
- Dec. 1 - Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.
- Dec. 9 - Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins' coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino set an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.
- Dec. 15 - Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with

- Dec. 22 - Washington's Chip Lohmiller.
 The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just :44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

1992

- Feb. 1 - Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
 Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

 December 25, 1971

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
 Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0
 January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards for a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3
 January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
 New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a tumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14
 December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews, put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
 December 31, 1972
 Three Rivers Stadium
 Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
 January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
 Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yeapremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16
 December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yeapremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards - the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff - to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were entangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14
December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Durriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT)
January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked - a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13
January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13
January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards - 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards - their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0
 January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season - two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season - but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17
 January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
 Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl - 103,667 fans - the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play - fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play - Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20
 December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

417

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28
January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
 January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
 Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play - Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play - 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21
 January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown punt return 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
January 12, 1986

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mose Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, KANSAS CITY 16
January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback, including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts - third longest in team history - to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The win raised Miami's playoff record to 15-10 (all under Don Shula). Shula's overall playoff record improved to 17-13. Miami increased their record to 11-4 at home in playoff contests. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, the Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal.

422

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 44 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34
January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals - from 24 and 22 yards - to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby 55 recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second TD of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard TD pass.

DOLPHINS HALL OF FAME

LARRY CSONKA

#39

Fullback
Born: 12/25/46
College: Syracuse '68
NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79
Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979
Year Inducted: 1987

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 14th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

BOB GRIESE

#12

Quarterback
Born: 2/3/45
College: Purdue '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1967-80
Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made a team-record six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990, joining the three other Dolphin players who hold a place in Canton.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER

Center #62
Born: 5/16/48
College: South Dakota St.
 '70
NFL: 1970-81
Dolphins: 1970-79
Year Inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter), a Dolphin record. He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royaltown, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

PAUL WARFIELD

Wide Receiver #42
Born: 11/28/42
College: Ohio State '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
Year Inducted: 1983

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs - good enough to place him eleventh on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, the only Dolphin in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs, and his 85 touchdown catches is tied for the fifth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1992 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990, joining former Dolphins Larry Csonka, Jim Langer, and Paul Warfield in Canton.

DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns - none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame - it ended in a scoreless tie.

- Miami leads the all-time series against Cleveland by a 6-4 margin, including a 2-1 mark in games played on Monday Night Football.
- The Dolphins have a number of coaches and football staff with Cleveland connections: Head Coach Don Shula, offensive backs coach Carl Taseff and quarterbacks coach Gary Stevens are all graduates of Cleveland's John Carroll Univ., with Shula and Taseff eventually playing for the Browns from 1951-52 and offensive line/assistant head coach John Sandusky played with Cleveland from 1950-55. Also, Taseff and Stevens were born in Cleveland, while defense coach Tom Olivadotti was an assistant coach with the Browns during 1985-86 and Tom Heckert, Miami's Director of Player Personnel, spent five seasons (1982-86) as a scout for the Browns.
- The Dolphins' Monday Night contest at Cleveland on September 14 marks Miami's first road appearance on Monday Night since November 10, 1986, when the Dolphins dropped a 26-16 decision at Cleveland.

- Miami's contest against Denver in Berlin's Olympic Stadium marks the second consecutive year and third time overall that the Dolphins will have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest. Miami is 2-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami defeated the L.A. Raiders, 19-17, on August 4, 1991, in American Bowl '91 in the Tokyo Dome. On July 31, 1988, the Dolphins defeated the San Francisco 49ers by a 27-21 score in American Bowl '88 before 70,535 football fans in London's Wembley Stadium.
- The Dolphins join the Broncos, Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers as the only NFL teams to have played in each of the three cities (London, Tokyo and Berlin) which currently play host to American Bowls.
- The all-time preseason series between the Dolphins and Broncos is tied at 4-4.

- Miami trails in the all-time series against Houston by a 12-10 margin. The Oilers are one of only four teams with a winning all-time edge in the series against the Dolphins. The other teams are Kansas City (8-10), the L.A. Raiders (4-16-1) and San Diego (6-10).
- Dan Marino threw the longest pass completion of his career with an 85-yard TD bomb to WR Mark Duper against the Oilers on November 2, 1986. He also threw an 85-yarder to Duper vs. Baltimore on November 11, 1983.
- The Dolphins own a 17-7 record at home in regular-season games against teams which play their home games in a domed stadium. Included in this stat are the Houston Oilers (Astrodome, 5-5), Minnesota Vikings (Metrodome, 1-0), New Orleans Saints (Superdome, 2-0), Indianapolis Colts (Hoosier Dome, 6-2) and Seattle Seahawks (Kingdome, 3-0). Miami has not played a home regular season game against Detroit since the team moved into the Silverdome.

- The Dolphins open the 1992 season at home against the New England Patriots on September 6 and close the regular season at the Pats on December 27. The games will mark just the fourth time in team history that the Dolphins will open and close the regular season by playing the same opponent. The only other seasons this occurred were 1987 against New England, 1977 against Buffalo and 1974 against New England.
- Miami's season opener at home against New England on September 6 will mark just the second time during the last 16 seasons and only the seventh time in team's 27-year history that the Dolphins will open up the regular season with a home contest. The only other seasons that the Dolphins have hosted a season opener were 1989 against Buffalo, 1975 against Oakland, 1973 against San Francisco, 1968 against Houston, 1967 against Denver, and 1966 against Oakland.

- Miami leads in the all-time series against New England by a 31-21 margin. The Dolphins enter the '92 season having won six straight games over the Pats, however New England had won six consecutive regular season games before Miami's current streak.

FIRST REGULAR SEASON MEETING
FIRST REGULAR SEASON MEETING

This will mark the first time that the Dolphins will play in Seattle's Kingdome in a non-replacement game since the Seahawks were founded in 1976. Miami's replacement team dropped a 24-20 decision to Seattle's replacement squad on October 4, 1987, in the Kingdome.

Prior to this season's game between Miami and Seattle, the two teams have only faced each other four times in regular-season action. Entering the '92 season, that is tied for the second-lowest regular-season meeting total between Miami and an opponent, trailing the N.Y. Giants (two games) and tied with the Detroit Lions (four games). When the Dolphins play in the Kingdome, it will be Dan Marino's first career game in that stadium. The only other NFL stadiums he has not played in during his career are Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, Minnesota's Metrodome and Phoenix's Sun Devil Stadium.

- The all-time preseason series between Miami and Washington is tied 4-4.
- The Dolphins' contest against Washington in Orlando's Citrus Bowl marks the first time Miami has played a preseason contest in that Florida city. Besides contests in Miami and in Tampa Bay against the Buccaneers, the Dolphins have also played in-state neutral preseason games in Jacksonville (1966, 1968, 1970 and 1989) and Tampa Bay (1970, before the expansion Buccaneers were founded in 1976).
- Miami and Washington have battled in two Super Bowls. The Dolphins won Super Bowl VII on January 14, 1973, by a 14-7 score to preserve the NFL's only perfect season. The teams battled again for the NFL crown in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, with Washington winning the contest by a 27-17 score.

DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into 1992, Miami has not been shut out at home in regular season or playoff action since October 25, 1970, against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. Denver has never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WIOD

In 1992, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of over 35 radio stations (over 80 markets) with Miami's WIOD (AM-610) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception. Known throughout South Florida for its outstanding sports programming, WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL.

WIOD begins its coverage as soon as training camp opens with daily camp reports, followed during the season with daily Dolphin updates, the weekly "Don Shula Show," and "Sportstalk 610: Dolphin Edition." Seven hours of gameday coverage, "Dolphin Sunday," begins three hours before each kickoff, featuring Joe Zagacki, Jeff DeForrest, and ex-Dolphin Jim Mandich. The program includes player interviews, a preview of that game's opponent, and information from around the NFL.

Following the game, "The Locker Room Show" includes interviews from both the Dolphin and opposing locker rooms with key players from that day's game. That is followed by "Sportstalk - NFL Edition," featuring updated scores of other games around the league as well as listeners' calls about the day's Dolphin game.

Handling the play-by-play will be "The Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver, who enters his 22nd season with the Dolphins and his 29th year of calling NFL action. Weaver, who is famous for starting the "white handkerchief" in 1971, previously broadcast games for Dallas, Chicago and San Francisco. Weaver is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Weaver was selected as an honorary member of the Miami Dolphin fans' 25th anniversary team as the team's broadcaster. A native of Toledo, Ohio, the Ohio State graduate resides in Okolona, MS.

Joining Rick in the booth will be analyst Hank Goldberg. Goldberg, a Duke University graduate, is one of South Florida's most colorful and popular sports figures. In addition to his WIOD duties, where he also hosts a nightly talk show, "Goldberg At Night," Hank works for an advertising agency and WTVJ-TV (Channel 4) in Miami.

For the 11th straight year, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team home and away on WQBA (1140 AM). The 1992 season marks the eighth year of the shift over to WQBA's AM outlet.

Rene Giraldo, who has been a part of WQBA's broadcasts for all 11 seasons, will handle the play-by-play for his seventh straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will again be joined in the booth by veteran analyst Eduardo Lujan, who has served as the producer and color commentator on the Dolphins' Spanish broadcasts since their inception, and by Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the broadcast team.

SUNSHINE NETWORK

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine", the live weekly magazine program of the Miami Dolphins that is produced and distributed in association with Sunshine Network, enters its third season in 1992.

The one-hour show is broadcast live in prime time at 7:00 PM every Monday night during the football season to Sunshine Network's statewide television audience of three million cable homes. When it premiered two years ago, it was Florida's first regularly scheduled and locally originated statewide live television sports talk show.

"Miami Dolphins Monday Night Magazine" features current Dolphin players, coaches, and executives as well as prominent print and broadcast personalities and former Dolphin greats in a lively discussion. The program also includes game highlights, behind the scenes team features, a viewer call-in segment, fan features, and a preview of the Dolphins' upcoming game. Popular sportscaster Paul Kennedy returns as the show's host.

Sunshine Network is Florida's largest regional cable network (and the third largest in the nation), providing high-quality sports and public affairs programming to three million homes across the state, including over one million in the greater Miami area.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Two of the Dolphins' five preseason games in 1992 will be telecast on a national basis on NBC-TV and ESPN, while the other three games will be broadcast in Miami on WCIX-TV (Channel 6). In addition, as part of the three-year agreement between WCIX-TV and the Dolphins, those three contests also will be telecast by WPEC-TV (Channel 12) in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins will make their first national television appearance of the season on Saturday, August 15th, when their American Bowl game in Berlin, Germany against the Denver Broncos will be telecast live on NBC-TV at 1:00 PM. The Dolphins will make their second preseason appearance on national TV when they travel to Baltimore to play the New Orleans Saints in Memorial Stadium on Thursday, August 27th in a game that will be cablecast on ESPN beginning at 8:00 PM.

The Dolphins' first road preseason game, on Saturday, August 1st against the Washington Redskins in Orlando, will be telecast live from the Citrus Bowl by WCIX and WPEC at 8:00 PM. In addition, the Dolphins' two home preseason games, on Friday, August 7th versus the Dallas Cowboys and Saturday, August 22nd against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, will be telecast by WCIX and WPEC. Those two games will be shown live at 8:00 PM if they are sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise they will be broadcast on a delayed basis.

This year marks the second season of a three-year co-venture between the Dolphins and WCIX-TV, whereby that station will produce all the game action coverage and jointly broadcast the games with WPEC-TV. It also is the tenth consecutive season that WCIX has telecast Dolphin preseason games. CBS-TV Sports broadcaster Brad Nessler will handle the play-by-play for the first two WCIX telecasts, while Jay Randolph, following his return from coverage of the 1992 Summer Olympic Games, will call the action for WCIX's final broadcast. Former Dolphin great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese returns as the color analyst for the WCIX telecasts. In addition, WCIX-TV sports anchors Khambrel Marshall and Steve Shapiro will host the pregame, postgame, and halftime shows during those telecasts. Mac McDonald returns as the producer for WCIX.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, Joe Robbie Stadium, 2269 N.W. 199th St., Miami, FL 33056 (305-623-6262). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Joe Robbie Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Joe Robbie Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator to the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Joe Robbie Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Shula will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Joe Robbie Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, (305-623-6262).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, Southern Bell Special Services (lines) at (305) 780-2830. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (305-623-6262).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 16541 Blatt Blvd., Apt. 203, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33326 (305-384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game. At that point all non-photographers are required to remain behind the endzone and only (no sideline access) outside the yellow restraining boundary line.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 4:00 p.m. Mondays, 2:00 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Scott Stone, Assistant Director; and Gayle Baden, secretary. Office phone is (305) 623-6262, night numbers are (305) 623-6271/623-6132 and training camp PR numbers are (305) 625-7888 and (305) 625-6491-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in North Miami at 16400-D N.W. 32nd Ave.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to 826 West. Follow 826 West to N.W. 27th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through the first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow to N.W. 37th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn right (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to 826 West. Follow 826 West to N.W. 27th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through the first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Take Turnpike South nine miles to Exit 2 (N.W. 199th Street/Honey Hill Road). Proceed off exit to 199th Street and make right. Enter parking Gate 4.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street) and stadium is on right.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other NFL clubs. During the procedure, the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so — thus the term "waiver". Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of the won-lost standings. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the off-season and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, a club is allowed another 24 hours to rescind its action (recall of waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (withdrawal of claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year on the day after the Pro Bowl through the trading deadline (October 13, 1992), any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for pre-season, regular-season and post-season games.

In 1992, clubs are allowed to open training camp with no more than 80 players under contract and thereafter must meet the mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener.

Teams will be permitted an Active List of 45 players and an Inactive List of two players for each regular season and post-season game during the 1992 season. Provided that a club has only two quarterbacks on its 45-player Active List, a third quarterback from its Inactive List is permitted to dress for a game, but if he participates in the game, the other two quarterbacks are thereafter prohibited from playing.

ROSTER CUTDOWN DATES: All clubs must reduce their active roster to 60 players on Aug. 25, 1992, and to the final total of 47 players (listing two as inactive) on Aug. 31, 1992.

ROSTER SIZES: During the 1985-91 seasons, roster size was set at 45 players, the same number it stood at from 1978-81. Between 1982 and 1984, the roster limit was at 49. From 1975-77, each club was allowed to have 43 players on the active roster. The first roster limitation rule went into effect in 1925 (16 players) and rose gradually until it reached 47 in 1974.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active List until four regular-season games have been played.

Each club will have five free activations for players on Reserve/Injured after the final cutdown. Players also can be returned to the club's Active List if they clear Procedural Recall waivers. Any player placed on Reserve/Injured prior to or concurrent with the final cutdown on August 31, may not return to the club nor practice with the team that year. Clubs participating in postseason competition will be granted an additional activation for each post-season game, provided they have exhausted all previous activations.

Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report, or Reserve/Veteran Free Agent Asked to Re-sign, may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the post-season.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed between clubs through the Tuesday following the sixth regular-season game (October 13, 1992) and does not resume again until February 1, 1993.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint — Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct — Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion — Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess — An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct — Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion — Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic — Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids — Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic — Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock — Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome — Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) — A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament — A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory — Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anteriogram — A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram — X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope — An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy — A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration — The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy — To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis — Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion — The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst — Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan — An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus — Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise — A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa — A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule — An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage — Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan — Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis — Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae — Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse — A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia – Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."

Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for evert the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Started 11 games in 1991 for New England . . . Finished season with 55 tackles (41 solo), four forced fumbles, six passes defended and two interceptions . . . Had seven tackles and a pass defended against Houston (9/22) . . . Forced a fumble and led all defensive backs with seven tackles against Miami (10/6) . . . Started 100th straight game and helped hold John Elway to 141 passing yards during 9-6 loss to Broncos (10/27) . . . Missed first career NFL contest at Miami (11/10) while on inactive list which broke string of 101 consecutive starts . . . Returned to action and started in 16-13 win over Buffalo (11/24) and moved into fourth place on Patriots' all-time interception list by picking off a Jim Kelly pass . . . Returned to inactive list for final three games of season.

1990 – Started all 16 games at free safety . . . Led team in tackles with 119 (84 solo) for third time in past four seasons . . . Tied for team lead with four interceptions . . . Had five tackles and an interception at Indianapolis (9/16) . . . Led team with 13 tackles and an interception vs. Seattle (10/8) . . . Named Miller Lite Player of the Game at Miami (10/18) by recording seven tackles, intercepting a pass and recovering two fumbles, one of which he forced.

1989 – Started all 16 games . . . Finished second on team in total tackles with 123 and led Patriots with 94 solo hits . . . Added a fumble recovery and seven passes defended . . . Had 13 tackles (11 solo), intercepted a pass and knocked down two passes vs. L.A. Rams (12/24).

1988 – Started all 16 games . . . Led team in tackles for third straight season with 138 (94 solo) and added two fumble recoveries, 15 passes defended and four interceptions . . . Had 15 tackles in contests at Houston (9/25), against Tampa Bay (12/11) and at Denver (12/17).

✓ Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) – Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) – The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma – The cheekbone.

1987 - Started all 16 games . . . Had 103 tackles (70 solo) and led team with four interceptions and tied for team lead with eight passes defended.

1986 - Started all 16 games . . . Had 122 tackles (95 solo), nine passes defended and two interceptions . . . Had 37-yard interception return for touchdown at Pittsburgh (10/19).

1985 - Started all 16 games and four playoff contests as Patriots advanced to Super Bowl XX . . . Was named to Pro Bowl team by Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula (who was coaching the AFC squad) a week prior to game . . . Selected as All-NFL (honorable mention) by AP and All-AFC (second team) by UPI . . . Had 129 tackles (98 solo) and tied for second in the AFC with seven interceptions . . . Named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November, 1985 . . . Had two interceptions, returning one 83 yards to set-up winning score with less than three minutes left in contest, at Seattle (11/17) . . . Led Patriots with three interceptions in playoffs.

1984 - Played in 16 games with ten starts in 1984 . . . Led all defensive backs with 84 tackles . . . Shared starting free safety spot . . . Recorded ten tackles, a sack and an interception on New England's two-yard line to stop scoring drive at N.Y. Jets (9/30) . . . Had 11 tackles vs. Cincinnati (10/14).

1983 - Played in all 16 games . . . Saw action as nickel back and on special teams . . . Had 27 tackles, one pass deflection and two interceptions . . . Recorded first career NFL interception against Buffalo (11/6).

1982 - Played in all nine games as rookie in 1982 . . . Had 11 tackles (four solo), two passes defended and a fumble recovery . . . Fifth-round draft choice (112th overall) of New England in 1982.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and three-year starter at Miami . . . Played at U.M. under current Dolphins' Defense coach Tom Olivadotti, who was then the Hurricanes' defensive coordinator . . . Finished career as school's all-time leader with 18 career interceptions . . . Recorded 237 career tackles and returned 62 punts for 392 yards . . . Led Hurricanes in interceptions during both 1980 and '81 seasons . . . Intercepted two passes in '82 Hula Bowl and one in Senior Bowl . . . Holds B.A. in business management.

PERSONAL: Married to Anne, couple resides in St. Cloud, Fla., with daughters Monica Nicole, Natasha Monique and Alycia Dinita and son Fred Donald . . . President and part-owner of Damon's Restaurant in Orlando, Fla . . . Older brother, Frank, played linebacker with N.Y. Giants (1977-83) . . . Played both defensive back and linebacker at Bucholz High School in Gainesville, Fla . . . Had high school football jersey (number 88) retired in 1989 . . . Full name is Fred Donald Marion, born January 2, 1959, in Gainesville, Fla.
