DEDICATION
The 1997 Dolphins media guide is dedicated to Scott Chait, who passed away from Cystic Fibrosis prior to the start of the 1997 season. Chait was a member of the Dolphins' Community Relations Department, and he touched all who were fortunate to know him. His enthusiasm, his smile, and his excitement were all constants, uplifting everyone around him. He was a friend to so many people, and he will be sorely missed.

H. WAYNE HUIZENGA

Owner/Chairman of the Board

NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: December 29, 1937

H. Wayne Huizenga began his active involvement in South Florida sports on March 7, 1990, when he purchased 15% of the Miami Dolphins and a 50% interest in Joe Robbie Stadium, now called Pro Player Stadium. That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85% of the Dolphins and the additional 50% of the stadium, leaving him with 100% ownership of both the team and the stadium.

Mr. Huizenga is Chairman and Co-C.E.O. of Republic Industries, Inc., a diversified service company. He is also Chairman of Extended Stay America and Florida Panthers Holdings, Inc., which owns the National Hockey League's Florida Panthers, the Hyatt Regency Pier 66 Resort and Marina, the Radisson Bahia Mar Resort and Marina and the Boca Raton Resort & Club.

He is also Chairman of Huizenga Holdings, Inc., and is the sole or majority owner of several service businesses. He has numerous real estate interests throughout Florida that include office buildings, warehouses, shopping centers and underdeveloped properties as well as the Marriott's Harbor Beach Resort Hotel. His personal investments also include ownership of Major League Baseball's Florida Marlins.

Previously, Mr. Huizenga was Vice Chairman of the Board of Viacom, Inc. and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation.

In January, 1971, Mr. Huizenga co-founded Waste Management, Inc. (now WMX Technologies, Inc.) which today is the world's largest waste collection and disposal company. He served as President, Chief Operating Officer, Vice Chairman, and Director. Mr. Huizenga resigned from the company in May, 1984 to pursue other business interests.

Mr. Huizenga directed his second company, Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation, into a position of world leadership in its industry. As of January 1, 1997, the Blockbuster system numbered over 5,300 stores. The company serves communities in all 50 states and 26 countries. In 1994, Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation was sold to Viacom for $8.5 billion.

Business and academic groups have honored Mr. Huizenga seven times as "Entrepreneur of the Year," including the 1995 award given by Success Magazine. He is a five-time recipient of Financial World Magazine's "CEO of the Year" and was named the 1993 "Business Leader of the Year" by Georgetown University's Business School.

Among his other awards are the Horatio Alger Award in 1992, and the Gordon Grand Fellow Award, the highest non-academic award that Yale University bestows. Mr. Huizenga also received the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel's 1989 Excalibur Award for Business leadership.

He was inducted into the Video Hall of Fame in 1991 and named Time-Billboard Magazine's "Man of the Year" in 1990 for his contributions to the growth and development of the video retail industry. He was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame and the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions.

Mr. Huizenga's community involvement honors include the 1994 "Humanitarian of the Year" by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. In addition, he and his wife, Marti, were recognized as "Outstanding Philanthropists of the Year" by the Greater Broward/Fort Lauderdale chapter of the National Society of Fund Raising Executives. He was also honored by the Fort Lauderdale NAACP for his contributions to its programs.

Mr. Huizenga sits as a board member of many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Broward Economic Development Board, the Salvation Army of Broward County, the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County, and is the immediate past Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

Mr. Huizenga, 59, and wife Marti live in Fort Lauderdale. They have four children: Wayne, Jr., Ray, Scott, and Pam, and three grandchildren, Savannah, Wayne III, and Shelby.

JIMMY JOHNSON

General Manager/Head Coach

College: Arkansas
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: July 16, 1943

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95).

In 1996, Johnson's first year as Head Coach of the Dolphins, it did not take him long to make an impact. He took over a team that was one of the oldest in the league, and with an infusion of rookies laid the foundation for success in the future.

The average age of Johnson's 22 starters in his first season with the Dolphins was 25.7 years old, making the Dolphins the youngest team in the NFL. Johnson chanelled the youthfulness into aggression on both sides of the football, as the Dolphins recorded their first positive turnover ratio (+12) since 1984. He established a commitment to run the ball, and that determination produced the Dolphins' first 1,000-yard rusher (Karim Abdul-Jabbar) since 1978. In addition, en route to an 8-8 season, the Dolphins finished strongly by winning their last two games and proved more than competitive in the AFC East, going 6-2 in the division with sweeps of the Buffalo Bills (for the first time since 1986) and the New York Jets.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Johnson spent the 1995 and 1994 seasons as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports and for HBO Sports. Before that, he built one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels. He is one of only two active coaches who have led a team to two Super Bowl titles (the other is the Jets' Bill Parcells, who won a pair of championships with the Giants). Even more impressive, Johnson became the first, and one of only two head coaches ever in football history, to win both a Super Bowl title and a national collegiate championship. He has developed and maintained winning programs everywhere he has been as a head coach.

Johnson served as Head Coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 1989 through 1993, and during that time, he became only the fourth man in NFL history to coach consecutive Super Bowl winners, winning Super Bowl XXVII in 1992, and following that with a victory in Super Bowl XXVIII in 1993. His 1992 Super Bowl win made Johnson the first coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title and a major college football championship (University of Miami - 1987).

In his five years in Dallas, Johnson led the Cowboys to two NFL championships, with their first title in 1992 coming just three years after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989. In all four years that followed Johnson's initial season with the Cowboys, he was named the NFL Coach of the Year by at least one national news media outlet. In addition, Johnson's post-season winning percentage of .875 (7-1 record) is the second best in NFL history, behind only Vince Lombardi's mark of .900 (9-1).

Since the start of the 1990 season, Johnson's clubs in Dallas and Miami have compiled an overall record of 58-30 (.659), going 51-29 (.638) in the regular season as well as 7-1 in the playoffs. Johnson's regular season winning percentage of .638 over that period is tied for the fifth best percentage in the NFL during the 1990s among coaches with 50 or more games coached. Even more impressive, starting on November 24, 1991, the Cowboys won 37 of their last 45 games overall (.822) under Johnson before he left the team on March 29, 1994. In addition, during those years Johnson's teams played their best football at the end of the season when championships are decided, as the Cowboys posted a record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January from 1990-93, the best mark in the NFL for those two months in that time span. Overall in Dallas and Miami since 1989, Johnson has a mark of 22-10 (.688) in December and January. Johnson also has claimed at least one victory over 13 of the 14 NFC teams he has faced since 1990, and additionally he is 18-8 in his last 26 games against AFC opponents, including 11-3 in his last 14 contests versus the AFC while coaching the Cowboys.

In 1992, Johnson's first NFL championship team set a Cowboy club record for most regular season victories with 13 (13-3), while also establishing a new team standard for most overall wins (16). He did that with the NFL's youngest team that season, utilizing a roster that averaged 25.6 years of age per man. The Dallas defense was ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while the offense exploded for an average of 37 points per games in its last five contests.

In 1993, en route to a second straight Super Bowl win, Johnson's Cowboys were the only team in the league to be ranked in the top 11 in all six of the NFL's major statistical offensive and defensive categories, and established a new club record by surrendering an NFL-low six interceptions, while again fielding one of the youngest teams in the league.

During Johnson's tenure in Dallas, in addition to his coaching success, his ability to evaluate talent played a key role in his personnel decisions that rebuilt the Cowboys from the worst team in the league into Super Bowl champions. His five drafts produced 17 players who would eventually become starters in one or more of the three Cowboys' Super Bowl championship teams of the 1990s, and nine of those picks would go on to make the Pro Bowl (Troy Aikman, Daryl Johnston, Mark Stepnoski, Emmitt Smith, Russell Maryland, Erik Williams, Leon Lett, Darren Woodson, and Tony Tolbert). In addition to his draft success, Johnson engineered 55 trades of players and/or draft picks during that time and those trades, coupled with free agent signings, added seven other eventual Super Bowl starters, including three more Pro Bowl performers (Jay Novacek, Thomas Everett, and Charles Haley), to the Cowboy roster. In all, during his tenure in Dallas, Johnson brought in 24 players who started in either Super Bowl XXVII, Super Bowl XXVIII, or Super Bowl XXX, and 12 Pro Bowl performers to the Cowboy team he inherited in 1989.

Johnson continued that same draft-day success with the Dolphins last year. Eight players that Johnson drafted in 1996 started at least one game for the Dolphins last season, with six of them earning full-time starting positions by the end of the year (Abdul-Jabbar and Stanley Pritchett on offense and Shane Burton, Daryl Gardener, Zach Thomas, and Shawn Wooden on defense). Five other starters (Fred Barnett, James Brown, Troy Drayton, Daniel Stubbs, and Anthony Harris) were acquired by Johnson either by trades or as free agents. Johnson followed that same formula for success this off-season, using the draft to add quality players to the team. He started draft-day in 1997 with ten selections, but by the time the draft was concluded he added a total of 14 draft picks to the roster through two trades. Overall in his two seasons with Miami, Johnson has parlayed 18 original draft choices into a total of 26 picks through a series of five draft-day trades. In addition, this off-season Johnson added quality free agents such as Corey Harris, George Teague, Clayton Holmes, Lawrence Dawsey and Walter Reeves to the team. Since joining the Dolphins, Johnson has revamped the Dolphins to such an extent that only 18 players remain on the roster he inherited in 1996.

Before moving to the NFL, Johnson achieved similar success in the college ranks. At the University of Miami (1984-88) Johnson led the Hurricanes to a 52-9 record, including a 44-4 mark over the final four seasons. His Hurricane teams also captured two Orange Bowl titles, a national championship in 1987 and two No. 2 finishes (1986, 1988). Only a combined five-point difference in two losses separated Miami from three straight 12-0 seasons from 1986-88.

During Johnson's reign, the Hurricanes were 21-9 against teams that were ranked in the Top 20, and 5-0 against preseason No. 1 clubs. They avoided upsets, putting together an unblemished 31-0 mark versus unranked teams. They won 36 straight regular season games from 1985-88, the fifth longest streak in NCAA history, and they won 20 consecutive road games from 1984-88.

Johnson had 14 of his Hurricane players go on to become first-round NFL draft choices, while also coaching Heisman Trophy winner Vinny Testaverde (1986) as well as eight players who would become Pro Bowl performers in the NFL (Eddie Brown, Jerome Brown, Brian Blades, Michael Irvin, Bennie Blades, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Leon Searcy, Testaverde).

In recognition of his accomplishments with the Hurricanes, Johnson was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame on March 30, 1996.

In his first head coaching job, Johnson took over a losing program at Oklahoma State in 1979 and brought it to national prominence, compiling a 29-24-2 record in five seasons, including two bowl appearances. Johnson was named Big Eight Coach of the Year following his first season.

Before becoming a head coach, Johnson spent 14 years as an assistant coach in the collegiate ranks. He began his coaching career on the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 1965. When an assistant's job fell through at Florida State in 1966, Johnson spent the year as an assistant coach at Picayune High School in Mississippi.

He resumed his college coaching career one year later in 1967 as Wichita State's defensive line coach. In 1968 he became a 25-year old defensive coordinator when Johnny Majors, an Arkansas assistant when Johnson played there, brought him to Iowa State.

After two years at Iowa State, Johnson moved to Chuck Fairbanks' Oklahoma staff (1970-72) as defensive line coach. He returned to Arkansas in 1973 for a four-year tenure as his alma mater's defensive coordinator under his college coach, Frank Broyles.

In 1977, Johnson went to Pittsburgh as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, directing one of college football's all-time great defenses for two years. Johnson's 14-year career as an assistant came to an end in 1979 when he took over the rebuilding mission at Oklahoma State.

Johnson also proved to be as successful in his two years in the broadcast booth as he was on the football field. While an analyst for FOX, Johnson was named as one of five finalists for the 1995 Sports Emmy Award for outstanding analysis, covering broadcasters from every sport who served as game color commentators or studio analysts.

A native Texan, James William Johnson was born on July 16, 1943 in Port Arthur, on Texas' Gulf Coast, where he earned all-state football honors at Jefferson High School as a two-way lineman.

Despite his relatively small size, Johnson became an All-Southwest Conference defensive lineman at Arkansas and helped lead the Razorbacks to the 1964 national championship. A three-year letterman, Johnson was named to Arkansas' All-Decade Team of the 1960s. He graduated from Arkansas with a degree in psychology.

Johnson and his girlfriend Rhonda Rookmaaker reside in Miami, Florida. He has two sons, Brent, an attorney, and Chad, an account executive for Paine Webber.

JOHNSON'S NFL MILESTONES

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson built one of the most successful coaching records in football during his tenure with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-93. In that time span, he guided the team to a pair of Super Bowl titles (SBs XXVII and XXVIII), with his first title coming just three seasons after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989.

JOHNSON IN THE 1990s

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson has been one of the NFL's most successful head coaches during the 1990s. Thus far in the decade, Johnson is the only coach to win a pair of Super Bowls (XXVII and XXVIII with Dallas) and his regular season winning percentage of .638 is tied for the fifth best in the league during the 1990s (minimum 50 games coached).

In addition, during his tenure with the Cowboys, Johnson posted an overall record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January in the 1990s, which was the best winning percentage of any coach in those two months in the 1990s. Overall with the Cowboys and the Dolphins, Johnson has a mark of 22-6 (.786) in December and January this decade.

DOLPHIN FACT

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, and became the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Excluding the NFL's two newest expansion teams, the Dolphins and Dallas Cowboys (Tom Landry (1960-88), Johnson (1989-93) and Barry Switzer (1994-current)) have both had an NFL-low total of three head coaches in the history of their clubs.

EDDIE J. JONES

President/Chief Operating Officer

College: Louisiana State
NFL: 30th Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: June 18, 1938

Eddie J. Jones, in his 30th season in the NFL, was named as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Dolphins on January 16, 1996, after previously serving as the team's Executive Vice President and General Manager (1990-95) and as Vice President of Administration and Finance (1988-89). In his current capacity, Jones directs the business operation of the Dolphins and acts as the team's representative at all National Football League meetings.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. He currently serves on the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and is a Trustee of the Bert Bell player pension plan.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff.

BRYAN J. WIEDMEIER

Vice President - Administration

College: Carroll
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: 17th Season
Born: October 19, 1959

Now in his 17th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named as the club's Vice President - Administration in March of 1995, after serving as Assistant General Manager (1990-94) and holding a variety of other positions with the team since 1981.

Wiedmeier works closely with Eddie Jones in managing the club's business affairs. Wiedmeier's duties include salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. Wiedmeier served as project coordinator for the design and construction of the club's new training facility at Nova University.

Wiedmeier earned his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1989 and is a member of the Florida Bar. He received his BA degree in business from Carroll College in Montana where he was a captain and three year starter at center for the football team.

A resident of Miramar, he and his wife Mary K. have five children, Lauren, Victoria, John, Danielle, and Matthew.

JILL R. STRAFACI

Vice President - Finance

College: Florida
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: September 4, 1957

Beginning her ninth season with the Dolphins, Jill Strafaci assumed her current role as Vice President - Finance in 1995 after serving as Treasurer since 1990. She originally joined the Dolphins as Assistant Chief Financial Officer in October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club, working closely with Eddie Jones. Her duties include all financial operations of the team, human resources and administration of the club's employee benefit plans. Strafaci also was involved in the implementation of the Miami Dolphins Foundation, established in 1995.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafaci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafaci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Miami Beach with her husband, Frank, and their son, Trent.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation contributes, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Foundation. Resources for contributions are procured through various fundraising events throughout the year.

Further information on the Miami Dolphins Foundation is available through the Miami Dolphins Community Relations Department or by calling (954) 452-7121.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LARRY BEIGHTOL

Assistant Head Coach/ Offensive Line

College: Catawba
NFL: 13th Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: November 21, 1942

Larry Beightol, beginning his second season with Miami, was named assistant head coach/offensive line by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson on February 16, 1996. Beightol joined the Dolphins after 11 NFL seasons including stints with five teams -- Houston Oilers, New York Jets, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, San Diego Chargers and the Atlanta Falcons.

Under Beightol's guidance, the Dolphins offensive line helped produce the Dolphins' first 1,000-yard rusher since 1978 and tackle Richmond Webb again represented the team in the Pro Bowl.

Beightol joined the Dolphins after one season as the offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers. Prior to joining the Oilers, Beightol spent five seasons in the same role with the New York Jets (1990-94) and inherited an offensive line that gave up 62 sacks in 1989 and improved that number to 21 in 1993 -- an NFL best that season. In 1993, New York's offensive line set a club record by not allowing a sack in eight of the club's 16 games.

He spent the 1989 season as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under Dan Henning at San Diego. From 1987-88, Beightol served as offensive line coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before moving to San Diego in 1989. Beightol's first NFL job was as offensive line coach with the Atlanta Falcons (1985-86) and during his stay in Atlanta, Gerald Riggs led the NFC in rushing yards in 1985 and the team finished third in the NFL in rushing yards in 1986.

Before joining the pro ranks, Beightol coached 17 years at the collegiate level with stops at William & Mary (1968-71), North Carolina State (1972-75), Auburn (1976), Arkansas (1977-78, 80-82), head coach at Louisiana Tech (1979), and Missouri (1983-84).

Beightol played guard and linebacker at Catawba College (1961-63) and earned a B.S. in physical education from the school before getting a master's degree from William & Mary. He attended and played football at West Branch High School in Morrisdale, Pa. and is a member of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Division). In addition, Beightol has been inducted into the Catawba Sports Hall of Fame for his prowess at the school.

Beightol and his wife, Marian, have one daughter, Kristin, and live in Plantation. He was born on November 21, 1942, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

DOUG BLEVINS

Kicking

College: East Tennessee St.
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: August 3, 1963

Doug Blevins enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named kicking coach by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson on June 3, 1997. In his role, Blevins will work with the Dolphins' placekickers.

Since 1995, Blevins has served as kicking coordinator for the World League, a position in which he will remain while working with the Dolphins. Blevins also held the post of kicking consultant with the New York Jets in 1994. In his lone season in New York, kicker Nick Lowery, the third all-time leading scoring in NFL history, connected on 87% of his field goals (20-23), the fourth-best mark of his career. Blevins also did consulting work with the New England Patriots in 1996.

A 1988 graduate of East Tennessee State University, Blevins started his coaching career as a student assistant in 1982 while at the University of Tennessee. He worked with the kickers for the Volunteers for two seasons before being named kicking coach at Emory & Henry College in Emory, Virginia, in 1984. He joined the staff at East Tennessee State in 1986, and served as a consultant with the kickers there through 1987, while also continuing his undergraduate work. From 1988-92, Blevins coached high school football in Virginia before starting his own kicking consulting company in 1993. He still owns the Vero Beach, Fla., based company.

A native of Abingdon, Virginia, Blevins has a wife, Nenita. He was born August 3, 1963, in Abingdon, Va.

KIPPY BROWN

Running Backs

College: Memphis State
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: March 6, 1955

Kippy Brown enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named running backs coach by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson on January 19, 1996. He has 18 years of coaching experience, including five in the NFL, and came to Miami after one season in the same role with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his first year in Miami, Brown was instrumental in the development of the Dolphins' three outstanding rookie running backs, Karim Abdul-Jabbar, Stanley Pritchett, and Jerris McPhail. Abdul-Jabbar's 1,116 yards rushing not only was the third-highest single-season rushing total in Dolphins history and a club rookie record, but it also marked the first time since 1978 that the Dolphins produced a 1,000-yard runner.

He joined the Bucs after two seasons as assistant head coach/wide receivers at the University of Tennessee, his second stint at the school. Prior to rejoining the Volunteers, Brown coached the running backs for the New York Jets from 1990-92. In 1991, the Jets ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing and Brad Baxter led all AFC runners in touchdowns.

From 1983-89, Brown was receivers coach at Tennessee under head coach Johnny Majors after spending the 1982 season as receivers coach at the University of Louisville, where he coached future Dolphins wide receiver Mark Clayton. While at Tennessee, Brown tutored future NFL receivers Anthony Miller, Tim McGee and Alvin Harper. He began his coaching career at Memphis State University as running backs coach in 1978, before handling the wide receivers in 1979 and 1980.

Brown played collegiately at Memphis State, where he quarterbacked the Tigers from 1975-77 and was known for his strong arm and scrambling ability. His top collegiate moment came in 1975 when he led Memphis State to a 31-20 upset victory over sixth-ranked Auburn.

Brown and his wife, Deon, have two children, Jerome (1/8/75) and Jennifer (7/28/80), and live in Plantation. He was born on March 6, 1955, in Sweetwater, Tenn.

JOEL COLLIER

Defensive Staff Assistant

College: Northern Colorado
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: December 25, 1963

Joel Collier enters his fourth season with the Dolphins as a defensive staff assistant, having been named to the position on February 8, 1994. In his role, he assists defensive coordinator George Hill in coaching the linebackers and is active in the overall football operation.

Collier joined the Dolphins after having worked three seasons (1991-93) in various capacities with the New England Patriots. He served in the pro scouting department in 1993 and worked as assistant running backs and wide receivers coach from 1991-92.

Collier joined the Patriots after serving as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during 1990. Prior to his experience with the Bucs, Collier worked two years with the quarterbacks and running backs as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker at Northern Colorado, Collier was a three-time academic All-North Central Conference performer. He received his bachelor's degree in social science education.

Collier, the son of former Bills head coach and longtime Broncos defensive coordinator Joe Collier, is married to Shirley Ann. The couple has one son, Jeremy Grayson (4/16/96) and they live in Plantation. He was born on December 25, 1963, in Buffalo, N.Y.

JOHN GAMBLE

Strength and Conditioning

College: Hampton Institute
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: June 26, 1957

John Gamble enters his fourth season with Dolphins as strength and conditioning coach, having been named to the position on March 16, 1994. Gamble has the primary responsibility in the area of strength and conditioning for the club.

In his position, Gamble is responsible for the organization and implementation of the programs for the team's overall development. Brad Roll, the club's assistant strength coach, assists Gamble with the implementation of the programs and his interaction with the Dolphins' training and medical staffs.

Gamble joined the Dolphins after having served ten years (1984-93) as the head strength coach at the University of Virginia. He also served two seasons as assistant strength coach (1982-83) and one year on a part-time basis (1981) at Virginia. He was named 1985 Strength Coach of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Gamble served an eight-year stint as state director for the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was named Outstanding State Director for Region II in 1984.

A world renowned powerlifter, Gamble was the number-one ranked powerlifter in the world in the 275-pound class from 1981 to 1983. His personal records for total pounds in three lifts while competing in the United States Powerlifting Federation was 2,270 pounds, and has personal bests of full squat, 892 lbs.; bench press, 573 lbs., and dead lift, 826.5 lbs. in those three elements.

Gamble played linebacker at Hampton Institute and was selected first-team Black College All-America. He also earned All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association honors in football and in track and field.

Married to Sharon, the couple has three sons, John Nathan, III (12/16/87), Austin Craig (9/27/90) and Tucker Scott (9/19/95) and they live in Ft. Lauderdale. He was born on June 26, 1957, in Richmond, Va.

CARY GODETTE

Defensive Line

College: East Carolina
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: March 20, 1954

Cary Godette is in his second season with the Dolphins, being named defensive line coach on January 17, 1996, by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Godette joined the club following one season in the same position with the expansion Carolina Panthers.

In his first season with the Dolphins, Godette helped develop Tim Bowens and Daryl Gardener into an outstanding pair of interior linemen, and under his guidance, defensive ends Trace Armstrong and Daniel Stubbs combined for 21 sacks, the fifth-best sack combination in club history.

Before joining the Panthers, Godette coached the outside linebackers at North Carolina State in 1994 after two seasons as defensive line coach at Georgia Tech, where he helped defensive standout Coleman Rudolph earn first-team All-America honors.

His coaching career began at East Carolina in 1977, where he spent three seasons as defensive line coach. After his stint at East Carolina, Godette coached the linebackers at Wyoming (1980-82) before moving on to the University of Cincinnati for the 1983 season. He spent six seasons in Cincinnati and coached the linebackers, tight ends and defensive line for the Bearcats before returning to East Carolina for the 1990 and '91 campaigns.

Godette took part in the NFL's minority coaching program for the Dallas Cowboys while Johnson was head coach of the club.

He had a distinguished playing career as a defensive end at East Carolina from 1972-76, as his Pirate teams compiled a 32-12 record and won three Southern Conference championships. Godette earned third-team All-America honors as a senior during the 1976 season.

Godette and his wife, Ruby, reside in Plantation. He was born on March 20, 1954, in New Bern, N.C.

GEORGE HILL

Defensive Coordinator/
Linebackers

College: Denison
NFL: 19th Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill is entering his ninth season with the Dolphins and his second as defensive coordinator after being named to the post by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Hill spent his first seven years with the Dolphins as linebackers coach and retains those duties along with his defensive coordinator title.

Under Hill's tutelage last season, Zach Thomas developed into one of the best young linebackers in the league, and Hill's defense had 36 takeaways (including four defensive touchdowns, matching the club record), a key factor in the club's +12 takeaway/giveaway ratio, the Dolphins first positive number since 1983.

Before originally coming to the Dolphins on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts. While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987, the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Prior to his stint with the Colts, Hill spent six seasons (1979-84) as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time, the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as Defensive Coordinator at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findlay (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, Hill was a four-year letterman at Denison (1951-57).

Hill was born on April 28, 1933 in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64) and Tammy (2/26/69).

PAT JONES

Tight Ends

College: Arkansas
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: November 4, 1947

Pat Jones begins his second season as the Dolphins' tight ends coach after being named to the position by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson on January 17, 1996. It is Jones' third year in the NFL after spending 1995 with the Chicago Bears as a special assistant with the offensive line. Prior to joining the Bears, he spent 11 seasons as head coach at Oklahoma State University (1984-94) and has spent 22 years at the collegiate level and 29 years overall in coaching.

Jones led Oklahoma State to a 62-60-3 record during his tenure in Stillwater and was at the helm during the school's only 10-win seasons (1984, 1987 and 1988) in its football history. He led the Cowboys to four bowl games (1984 and 1985 Gator Bowl, 1987 Sun Bowl and 1988 Holiday Bowl) with three victories during his 11 seasons. Jones finished as the school's all-time winningest coach and 11th-most successful coach all-time in Big Eight history. He was twice named Big Eight Coach of the Year (1984 and 1992) and was National Coach of the Year by Football Yearbook in 1984.

Jones coached nine All-Americans at OSU, including Thurman Thomas, Hart Lee Dykes, Leslie O'Neal, and Barry Sanders. Dykes ended his career as the all-time leading receiver in Big Eight history, O'Neal was a Lombardi Award finalist in 1985, and Sanders won the Heisman Trophy in 1988.

in 1984 and he was promoted from assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. Jones' inaugural season at OSU saw the Cowboys achieve its highest national ranking (second in the UPI poll and third in the AP ratings) prior to a regular-season final against Oklahoma for the Big Eight title. The Cowboys finished the season with ten wins and a final ranking of fifth in UPI and sixth in AP. Jones' ten wins was just the third time in conference history that a rookie head coach had achieved that milestone, joining Oklahoma's Barry Switzer and Colorado's Chuck Fairbanks. In addition, his Cowboys teams finished three other seasons ranked in the Top 20 with finishes of 17th in 1985, 11th in 1987 and 11th in 1988. During his tenure at OSU, Jones also coached in the 1986 Japan Bowl, the 1988 Hula Bowl, and the 1992 Blue-Gray Game.

Jones began his coaching career in the Little Rock (Ark.) public schools in 1969 before moving on to the collegiate level as assistant defensive line coach at Arkansas under then-defensive coordinator Johnson (1974-75). He also made stops as defensive ends coach at Southern Methodist (1976-77), defensive ends coach at Pittsburgh with Johnson in 1978, and defensive end coach/defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State (1979-83), before taking the head coach position at OSU in 1984.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Jones played collegiately at Arkansas Tech in 1965 before transferring to Arkansas for 1966-67 as a walk-on linebacker and nose guard.

Jones lives in Ft. Lauderdale and was born on November 4, 1947, in Memphis, Tenn.

LES KOENNING

Offensive Staff Assistant

College: Texas
NFL: First Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: February 10, 1959

Les Koenning begins his first season with the Dolphins as offensive staff assistant, having been named to that position by head coach Jimmy Johnson on April 17, 1997.

In his role, he will be responsible for quality control on the offensive side of the ball, including the breaking down of game tapes and on-field duties.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Koenning spent 16 seasons as an assistant coach at the collegiate level. Most recently, he served as wide receivers coach at Texas A&M University the previous three seasons (1994-96). Before that, he coached the wide receivers at Rice for four years (1990-93), the running backs and receivers at Mississippi State from 1986-89, and, in his first full-time position, coached wide receivers at the University of Southwestern Louisiana in 1985.

A three-year letterman as a wide receiver at the University of Texas from 1978-80, Koenning was voted team captain his senior year, and was named the University of Texas Sportsman Award winner. Following his playing career, he spent three years as a graduate assistant for the Longhorns, during which time he worked with the secondary, and also spent the 1984 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Alabama working with the quarterbacks and receivers.

A native of Houston, Texas, Koenning earned his undergraduate degree in physical education and his graduate degree in sports management, both from the University of Texas. Born on February 10, 1959, in San Antonio, Texas, Koenning and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Les (2/10/84) and a daughter, Lana (6/16/89) and they reside in Ft. Lauderdale.

BILL LEWIS

Defensive Nickel Package

College: East Stroudsburg St.
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: August 5, 1941

Bill Lewis is in his second season with the Dolphins after being named defense nickel package coach on January 17, 1996, by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Lewis joined the NFL coaching ranks after 32 years (1963-94) of coaching at the collegiate level. He teams with Mel Phillips in tutoring the Dolphins' defensive backs.

He spent 1995 as athletic director at The Marist School in Atlanta after three seasons as head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94. Prior to his stint at Georgia Tech, Lewis served as head coach at East Carolina for three seasons (1989-91), during which time he led the Pirates to an 11-1 record and a victory in the Peach Bowl over North Carolina State following the 1991 season. At the conclusion of the '91 campaign, Lewis received National Coach of the Year honors from A.F.C.A., UPI and Scripps-Howard.

Lewis began his coaching career at East Stroudsburg State (Pa.) in 1963 and made stops as defensive backs coach at Pittsburgh (1966-68), Wake Forest (1969-70), Georgia Tech (1971-72) and Arkansas (1973-76). He became head coach at Wyoming in 1977 and spent three years at the helm for the Cowboys. He began a nine-year stint at the University of Georgia in 1980 as defensive backs coach before occupying the job of defensive coordinator in his last eight seasons with the Bulldogs.

While in Athens, the Bulldogs won the 1980 National Championship and during his nine years at the school, Georgia appeared in nine straight bowl games and won three Southeastern Conference titles. He coached 23 All-SEC honorees and seven All-Americas.

Lewis was a four-year letterman at quarterback at East Stroudsburg State (Pa.) from 1959-62 and earned Little All-America honors during his playing days. In addition, Lewis spent two years in the Detroit Tigers' minor league system as a pitcher.

He and his wife, Sandy, reside in Ft. Lauderdale, and have three sons, Mark (7/17/67), Gregg (3/3/70) and Geoff (2/17/72). Lewis was born on August 5, 1941, in Bristol, Pa.

RICH McGEORGE

Assistant Offensive Line

College: Elon
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: September 14, 1948

Rich McGeorge enters his fifth season with the Dolphins after being named to the position of assistant offensive line coach by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. McGeorge originally came to the Dolphins on June 1, 1993, as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach. In his current role, McGeorge assists Larry Beightol in coaching the club's offensive linemen.

McGeorge joined the Dolphins following three seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Florida. During his tenure with the Gators, his offensive lines produced a total of four selections to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference team. In 1991, McGeorge's offensive line permitted just 16 quarterback sacks despite attempting a conference-high 390 passes.

He joined the Gators in January, 1990, following three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach at Duke University. McGeorge began his coaching career at Duke from 1981-82 as tight ends coach. Following stints as tight ends/wide receivers coach with the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League from 1983-

84 and offensive line coach of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits in 1985, McGeorge returned to Duke as offensive line coach.

A member of the NAIA Hall of Fame, McGeorge played tight end at Elon College (1966-69) and was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1970. A member of the Packers from 1970-78, McGeorge caught 175 career passes during his nine pro seasons and was the club's Offensive Player of the Year in 1973.

Married to Bonnie, the couple has two sons, Randy (25) and Jason (23), and they live in Plantation. McGeorge was born September 14, 1948, in Roanoke, Va.

MEL PHILLIPS

Secondary

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: 13th Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips enters his 13th season as a coach for the Dolphins, teaming with Bill Lewis in coaching the secondary for the second consecutive year. During his first 11 years with the club, Phillips was defensive backs coach.

Before coming to Miami, the 55-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips was on a staff that also included current Dolphins wide receivers coach Larry Seiple.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include ten interceptions for 106 return yards (including a 35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, he rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73) and live in Miami Lakes. He was born on January 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

BRAD ROLL

Assistant Strength and Conditioning

College: Stephen F. Austin
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: July 4, 1958

Brad Roll is in his second season with the Dolphins after being named assistant strength and conditioning coach on March 1, 1996, by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Roll joined the club after three seasons in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Roll joined the Bucs as strength and conditioning coach in 1993 and was instrumental in helping to develop and implement the club's offseason conditioning program. He went to Tampa after spending the 1989-92 seasons in a similar capacity at the University of Miami. While at UM, the team won the national championship in 1989 and 1991, and Roll worked with players such as Horace Copeland, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland and Warren Sapp.

Prior to his arrival at Miami, Roll was strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas from 1987-88, and while at the school, he worked closely with KU's 1987 national championship basketball team. From 1981-86, Roll served as the first full-time strength and conditioning coach at Southwestern Louisiana and he was a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin, his alma mater, in 1980.

Roll played collegiately at Blinn (Tex.) Junior College and Stephen F. Austin, where he was a center. He holds a bachelor's and a master's degree in education. He also studied at the Moscow (U.S.S.R.) Sports Institute during the summers of 1985 and 1986, as well as with the German Olympic weightlifting coaching and training staff in Leipzeg in 1987.

He lives in Ft. Lauderdale and was born on July 4, 1958, in Houston, Tex.

LARRY SEIPLE

Wide Receivers

College: Kentucky
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: February 14, 1945

Larry Seiple begins his tenth season on the Dolphins coaching staff as wide receivers coach. He spent 12 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach.

The Allentown, Pa., native brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84) and then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff the also included current Miami secondary coach Mel Phillips.

Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphins assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular season games for Miami (ninth-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five touchdowns. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins' record for most career punts (633) and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is third-best in team history. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy, have three children, Keri Lyn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71) and they live in Pembroke Pines. They have one grandson, Austyn (11/1/93). Seiple was born on February 14, 1945, in Allentown, Pa.

GARY STEVENS

Offensive Coordinator

College: John Carroll
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: March 19, 1943

Gary Stevens begins his ninth season as an assistant coach with the Dolphins. In Stevens' eight years as the club's offensive coordinator, the Dolphins' offense was ranked eighth or better in the NFL six times, including a number one ranking in 1994. Last year, the Dolphins offense produced their first 1,000-yard rusher (Karim Abdul-Jabbar) since 1978 and committed only 24 turnovers, helping generate a +12 takeaway/giveaway ratio, the club's first positive ratio since 1983.

Before joining the Dolphins, Stevens spent the previous nine years (1980-88) as an assistant coach at the University of Miami, the final five seasons under Johnson. As offensive coordinator for the club in his last six seasons, Stevens was the architect of the Hurricanes' explosive offense that was centered around the passing game. During his tenure at UM, the Hurricanes won two national championships and he helped guide the careers of quarterbacks Jim Kelly, former Dolphins quarterback Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde and Steve Walsh. In his six seasons as offensive coordinator, Miami averaged over 30 points a game and over 400 yards per game in total offense.

The Hurricanes' receivers coach from 1980-83, Stevens switched to coaching the quarterbacks in 1984, while also adding the duties of assistant head coach during that same year. Prior to his arrival at UM, Stevens held assistant coaching positions at West Virginia (1976-79), Kent State (1975) and Louisville (1971-74). He began his coaching career in the high school ranks in the late 1960's at Benedictine High School and Chanel High School in Ohio.

A three-year letterman at running back for John Carroll University, he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1965. Stevens and his wife, Rosemarie, have five children -- Cindy, Maria, Cheryl, Kelly Ann and Gary Ben.

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams

College: Wichita State
NFL: 15th Season
Dolphins: 12th Season
Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his 15th NFL season and 12th as Dolphins special teams coach. Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year as offensive line coach of the Arizona Outlaws of the United States Football League in 1985 and three seasons with the Indianapolis/Baltimore Colts serving as offensive line, tight ends and special teams coach from 1982-84.

Westhoff's 1996 special teams units are coming off another successful season in which they ranked fifth in the NFL based on the average of 19 special teams statistics. Punter John Kidd led the NFL with a 46.3-yard gross punting average (the best average in Dolphins history), and a 38.8-yard net average, third best in the league. Kicker Joe Nedney tied for the NFL lead with 20 touchbacks and the best opponent starting position in the AFC, while Irving Spikes was the eighth leading kickoff returner in the NFL with a 24.3 average. Larry Izzo emerged as one of the NFL's top special teams players and was voted as Football Digest's first-team All-Pro special teams player. Also in 1996, the Dolphins led the NFL with five blocked or tipped punts.

During his coaching career, Westhoff has been associated with some of the NFL's premier kickers and punters. Rohn Stark (Colts, 1982-84), Reggie Roby (Miami, 1986-92), Raul Allegre (Colts, 1983-84), Dean Biasucci (Colts, 1984), Fuad Reveiz (Miami, 1986-88), Pete Stoyanovich (Miami, 1989-95) and John Kidd (Miami, 1994-current). The 1996 season marked the third time Westhoff's special teams units accomplished the rare feat of going through an entire season without a turnover or blocked kick. In 1989, his Dolphins' units led the NFL in special teams scoring and they are consistently among the league leaders in blocked kicks and punts.

Westhoff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in 1975 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Following that, he coached the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. His final two stops at the collegiate level were as offensive line coach at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981).

Westhoff began his collegiate playing days at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He was voted the team's Most Valuable Player as a junior and served as team captain as a senior. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history.

In 1989, the Dolphins players honored Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him special recognition with the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins and for his courage and determination, the players saluted him with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Westhoff and his wife, Marilyn, have one son, John Thomas

(4/27/81) and live in Plantation. Westhoff was born on January 10, 1948, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

FOOTBALL STAFF

BOB ACKLES

Director of Football Operations

NFL: 12th Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: September 16, 1938

On January 24, 1996, the Miami Dolphins named Bob Ackles, 58, as Director of Football Operations. Ackles rejoined Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, having worked with Johnson previously in Dallas where he helped lay the foundation that would result in back-to-back Super Bowl wins by the Cowboys. In his current capacity with the Dolphins, Ackles is involved in all aspects of the team's football administration, including contract negotiations and player personnel and scouting operations on both the professional and collegiate levels.

Ackles, one of the most widely respected executives in the National Football League, joined the Dolphins from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as Director of Football Administration in 1995. He spent the three previous seasons in the Arizona Cardinals' front office, first as that club's Director of College Scouting from 1992-93 and then as Assistant General Manager in 1994.

Ackles first joined the NFL ranks in 1986 when he was named as the Cowboys' first-ever Vice President of Pro Personnel. Three years later, with the arrival of Johnson as Head Coach in Dallas, Ackles was promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel and helped begin the Cowboys' dramatic resurgence as an NFL power. His efforts to acquire talent through several trades, waiver acquisitions, and Plan B free agency provided an infusion of top draft picks and players. Those efforts were rewarded in 1991 when, following an 11-5 regular season, Dallas earned a berth in the playoffs, setting the stage for the first of their consecutive Super Bowl wins the following season.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ackles spent 11 years as General Manager of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions.

Under his leadership, the Lions became one of the winningest teams in the CFL, moved into a new stadium, and built a training facility. In his last season with B.C., the Lions won the Grey Cup, the CFL's equivalent of the Super Bowl.

Ackles first joined B.C. as a water boy at the age of 15 and over the next 34 years, performed virtually every administrative duty in the organization from equipment manager to general manager. He was recognized for his outstanding contributions to the CFL in 1986 when he was presented with the Schenley Award, becoming the first non-player in league history to receive that award, which symbolizes excellence in football in Canada.

A native Canadian, Ackles was born in Sarnia, Ontario, near the United States border. Raised in Toronto, and Vancouver, British Columbia, he played organized football and hockey (goalie), and later coached two years of high school football in Vancouver.

Bob and his wife, Kay, reside in Ft. Lauderdale. They have two married sons, Steve (35), and Scott (32), and three grandchildren.

TOM HECKERT

Director of Pro Personnel

College: Youngstown State
NFL: 16th Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: September 18, 1938

Beginning his ninth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert was named as the club's Director of Pro Personnel prior to the start of the 1996 season. He originally joined the Dolphins in 1989 as Director of College Scouting. In his current capacity, Heckert's main responsibility is in the evaluation of talent on the professional level in addition to other overlapping duties.

During Heckert's three years as Director of College Scouting, the Dolphins used the draft to add such players as Richmond Webb, Keith Sims, Bryan Cox, Troy Vincent, Marco Coleman, and Dwight Hollier to their roster. In fact, those three drafts produced seven starters, three Pro Bowl selections (Cox, Sims, and Webb) and two Rookie of the Year selections (Coleman and Webb). In Heckert's four seasons in pro personnel, the Dolphins added such players as Keith Jackson, Irving Fryar, Mark Ingram, Ron Heller, Keith Byars, Bernie Kosar, Trace Armstrong and Terrell Buckley.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 59, joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns and was part of the turnaround in Cleveland that saw the Browns go from a 5-11 team in 1984 to a playoff participant in his final two seasons there.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/29/62), have two children, Kim (33) and Tom, Jr. (30), and three grandchildren. Tom, Jr. is a scout for the Dolphins.

TOM BRAATZ

Director of College Scouting

College: Marquette
NFL: 33rd Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: May 12, 1933

Tom Braatz was named as the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on June 12, 1992. He is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft, and in that role, he works closely with Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, and the rest of the team's football staff. In the past four years, he played a key role in the selection of a number of players who made an immediate impact as rookies, including the 1994 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, defensive lineman Tim Bowens, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie and, last season, linebacker Zach Thomas, running backs Karim Abdul-Jabbar, Stanley Pritchett and Jerris McPhail, and defensive lineman Daryl Gardener.

Braatz joined the Dolphins with a wealth of NFL experience and is regarded as one of the leading personnel experts in professional football. He is a veteran of 33 years in the NFL as a front office executive, personnel director, and talent scout with the Atlanta Falcons, the Green Bay Packers, and the Dolphins.

From 1987 through 1991, Braatz served as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Packers, where his duties included the hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft, handling trades and waivers, and conducting contract negotiations with players.

Before joining the Packers on January 31, 1987, Braatz was a member of the Atlanta Falcons front office since the club's inception in 1965. He joined the team as an area scout, and went on to hold a number of positions with the Falcons, including Director of Player Personnel, Director of Scouting, and General Manager. While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, where he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons including William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic, and Steve Bartkowski. He also handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure with the Falcons.

Before beginning his executive career in the NFL, Braatz played with the Washington Redskins as a linebacker and closed out his pro career under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season. He played collegiately at Marquette University, where he captained the school's football team as a senior.

Braatz, 64, and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 34, and Jon, 30.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

College: Wyoming
NFL: 19th Season
Dolphins: 15th Season
Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of Mike Cartwright. In his 15th Dolphins season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and .athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyo., for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

TOM HECKERT, JR.

College Scout

College: Hillsdale
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: July 17, 1967

Beginning his seventh season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert, Jr. will be responsible for scouting college players in the southeast. In his first four seasons in Miami his primary involvement was in pro personnel.

Heckert, 30, joined the Dolphins after serving two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. Heckert was a defensive back for Hillsdale College and was a member of their National Championship team in 1985.

Heckert, his wife Kathy and son, Griffin (two), reside in Weston.

RON LABADIE

College Scout

College: Adrian
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his eighth year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the midwestern states.

Labadie, 48, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (22), Brad (19) and Ben (15).

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 126 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (19 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only ten occasions (Richmond Webb, seven times; Norm Evans, twice and Wayne Moore, once).

36

JEFF SMITH

College Scout

College: Washington State
NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: May 20, 1947

Beginning his second season with the Dolphins, Jeff Smith is responsible for scouting the central states for the team.

Smith joined the Dolphins on May 21, 1996, from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent the 1995 season working with current Dolphins Director of Football Operations Bob Ackles as a national scout, responsible for evaluating draft-eligible players throughout the country.

Smith spent the previous two seasons (1993-94) with Denver as the Broncos' Director of College Scouting. In that role, he coordinated all phases of the Broncos' college scouting operation. Before that, he was a member of the Cowboys' scouting department from 1984-92, working with Ackles and current Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

Smith first entered the NFL ranks in 1980 when he became a full-time scout with the Seattle Seahawks after spending the previous four seasons grading film on a part-time basis for Seattle while coaching full-time at Mercer Island (Wash.) High School. He began his coaching career at South Mercer (Wash.) Junior High School in 1970.

After two years as an offensive tackle at Washington State, Smith transferred to the University of Hawaii. He later returned to WSU, where he earned his degree in science education and mathematics.

Smith was born in Williamsport, Pa., and grew up in Clarkston, Wash., where he attended Clarkston High School. He and his wife, Ann Bixby, reside in Dallas.

JERE STRIPLING
College Scout

College: Murray State
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his tenth season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his eighth season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include serving as the club's BLESTO scout as well as scouting the south central states.

Stripling, 62, joined the Dolphins after serving the previous two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain, was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (37) and Susan (35).

KEVIN O'NEILL

Head Athletic Trainer

College: Pittsburgh
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: August 2, 1954

Kevin O'Neill joined the Dolphins on March 1, 1996, as Head Athletic Trainer after serving seven seasons in a similar capacity with the Dallas Cowboys. Along with Ryan Vermillion and Troy Maurer, O'Neill is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins players in coordination with the club's medical staff. He also has other specific administrative duties as assigned by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson.

O'Neill rejoined Johnson with the Dolphins last year, having worked with him previously in Dallas and at the University of Miami. During his tenure in Dallas (1989-95), O'Neill was part of three Cowboys Super Bowl wins. He also was a member of Johnson's University of Miami National Championship club during his four years (1985-88) as Head Athletic Trainer at the school.

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, O'Neill earned his master's degree in physical education from the University of Arizona while serving as athletic trainer for Catalina High School in Tucson, Ariz. O'Neill spent three years as the head athletic trainer at Oregon State, and one year at the University of Central Florida before joining the University of Miami.

He serves as chairman of the public relations committee for the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Pittsburgh, O'Neill and his wife Anne have two children, McKenzie and Kaitlyn, and live in Fort Lauderdale.

RYAN VERMILLION

Director of Rehabilitation/ Associate Athletic Trainer

College: Miami
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: May 24, 1963

Ryan Vermillion, who joined the Dolphins' training staff on April 10, 1992, serves as the club's Director of Rehabilitation and Associate Athletic Trainer. He is responsible for the day-to-day rehabilitative needs of the team as well as many of the overall programs designed to maintain the team's health and welfare.

Vermillion served as the club's Physical Therapist in 1991, where he helped supervise the rehabilitation program for many of the team's injured players along with the Dolphins' medical staff. Vermillion also spent six seasons (1986-91) as the Physical Therapist for the University of Miami and was based at Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables. Before that, he spent three seasons as a volunteer trainer for the Hurricanes.

Vermillion, 33, received his degree in Physical Therapy from Miami in 1987 and has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Margaret (7/27/91) live in Coral Springs with their children – Erin, Riley, and Ryan, Jr.

TONY EGUES

Equipment Manager

College: St. Thomas
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: December 22, 1969

Tony Egues begins his third year as Dolphin equipment manager after serving in a number of positions in his three previous seasons with the club. Egues is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team. In addition, Egues, along with assistants Charlie Thiele and Joe Cimino, coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site.

The 27-year old Egues began his career with the Dolphins on a part-time basis as an equipment assistant, then joined the club full-time in 1992 as an administrative assistant to the coaching staff. He was named as assistant equipment manager in 1994 and then was promoted to his current position prior to the start of the 1995 season.

Egues is single and resides in Pembroke Pines.

DAVID HACK

Video Director

College: Miami (Fla.)
NFL: 24th Season
Dolphins: 24th Season
Born: July 16, 1952

David Hack begins his 13th season with the Dolphins as the club's video director after having served 11 seasons as an assistant in the department. Hack and his assistant, Robert Hack, have the responsibility for providing the coaching and player personnel staffs with their audio/visual needs. They videotape all practices and games and maintain an extensive tape and film library.

During his 23 years with the Dolphins, Hack has shot two Super Bowls and also coordinated the team's video operations on international trips to London, Berlin and Tokyo. He and Robert have also been selected by the NFL to shoot numerous college bowl and all star games, including the Orange Bowl, CarQuest Bowl and Senior Bowl All-Star games. In addition, the Hacks serve as technical advisors to the NFL Video Director's digital committee.

Hack and his wife of 22 years, Connie, reside in Pembroke Pines and have two children, Heather (18) and Brett (15).

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

7-0   All Mussel
Mascot   #1
Born: 4/18/97
College: Atlantis '97
Acquired: FA, 1997
NFL: First Season
Dolphins: First Season

The Miami Dolphins' newest addition for 1997 might just be their biggest – literally. The club unveiled "T.D.", its new mascot, on Friday, April 18, 1997, the first "official" mascot in the 32-year history of the franchise. The 7-foot tall mascot made its public debut at the team's Draft Day Party at Pro Player Stadium on April 19, 1997. In addition, the mascot performs at every Dolphins home game.

When the mascot was first unveiled, it was without a name. The club held a "Name the Mascot" contest that drew over 13,000 entries covering all 50 states and 22 countries, with 529 different names suggested. The name "T.D." was first submitted by Sara Fernandez of Miami, and when that name was selected by the Dolphin organization, she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII for her winning entry, which was announced at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

The club had a live dolphin, "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl during the team's early years, and "Dolfan Denny," who has prowled the sidelines for many seasons, including 1997. However, this marks the first time the club actually has an official mascot, one who will participate in many of the team's programs in addition to his gameday activities.

"T.D." is available for appearances. For more information, call the Dolphins mascot hotline at (954) 452-7002.

PRO PLAYER STADIUM

Pro Player Stadium, South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins and Florida Marlins, is in its 11th season as the premier sports and entertainment facility in the country. This state-of-the-art open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987, its first regular season Major League baseball game in April 1993 and stages world class events throughout the calendar year. Pro Player Stadium is one of only nine facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue.

HISTORY

Now in its 11th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, 115 million dollar, state-of-the-art, open-air facility, originally called Dolphin Stadium, was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened in 1987. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to JRS. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership of JRS. Since 1991, several million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. This industry leader, which specializes in licensed sports apparel, became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. JRS hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. The stadium hosted its second NFL Championship game, when Super Bowl XXIX came to JRS on January 29, 1995. The Super Bowl will return to Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, when the facility will play host to Super Bowl XXXIII

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Pro Player Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, Pro Player Stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the south west corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of an electric disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Pro Player Stadium.

On the field, Pro Player Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rain fall.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 2269 N.W. 199th St. in Miami, only one-mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160 acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD CLASS EVENTS

Pro Player Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football and Florida Marlins baseball, college football takes the field with the FedEx Orange Bowl (which will play host to the national championship game in 1998) and the CarQuest (formerly Blockbuster) Bowl. Super Bowl XXXIII will be held at Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, and Major League Baseball's premier event, the All-Star Game, will take place at the stadium in 2000.

44

Pro Player Stadium has also played host to numerous concerts, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block and the Three Tenors World Tour. U2 will play at the stadium on November 14, 1997.

Other events held in the past at Pro Player Stadium include international soccer games, featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, and numerous trade shows.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Pro Player Stadium's 205 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The ten, twelve, sixteen and twenty four seat suites have been completely renovated and offer DirecTV access, multi-dimensional sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Uniformed Suite Captains provide personal service in each suite during the events. The Levy Restaurants of Chicago cater the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose. During Dolphins season, a unique feature which is broadcast on one of the stadium's closed circuit channels is the "Coach's Cam." A field camera dedicated to Coach Jimmy Johnson gives suite holders a bird's-eye view of the coach as he calls the plays.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 club level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars and concession areas. The protective overhang and ventilation system, along with wait-staff service also are unique elements of the club level.

DINING

Full service concession facilities are available on the 100 and 400 levels. Theme areas include Port-O-Call, Bru's Wings, The Latin-American Cafe, The Hot Dog Factory, Sara's Kosher Kitchen, Domino's Pizza, Carvel Ice Cream and Carvel Yogurt. The stadium was recently recognized by Sports Illustrated for the high quality of its food and beverage service.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Pro Player Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience by its commitment to capital improvements. These new renovations will heighten the guest experience by providing increased comfort and new amenities.

DOLPHINS TRAINING CENTER

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 68,226 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other recently constructed NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, and a dance studio for the team's cheerleaders.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Pro Player Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Pro Player Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of fixed concrete seating areas from the stadium had to be removed. Those sections have now been relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex, including many of the chair back seats that formerly were at the stadium. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including many in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and special events. In addition, the structure also includes additional permanent amenities for fans such as concession areas, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1997

MIAMI DOLPHINS...
- need three more victories to reach the 300-win plateau in team history. Including postseason, the Dolphins have put together a record of 297-194-4.

KARIM ABDUL-JABBAR...
- if he rushes for 1,000 yards, he would become just the second Dolphins player to accumulate 1,000 rushing yards on more than one occasion (Larry Csonka, 1971-73). He would be the first to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons.
- to move as high as seventh on Miami's all-time career rushing yardage list, passing Ron Davenport (1,127 yards), Troy Stradford (1,332), Gary Davis (1,389), Norm Bulaich (1,498), Don Nottingham (1,524), Woody Bennett (1,761), Sammie Smith (1,787), Bernie Parmalee (1,880), Lorenzo Hampton (1,949), Bennie Malone (2,129) and Andra Franklin (2,232). He ranks 18th with 1,116 rushing yards.

TRACE ARMSTRONG...
- needs four starts for 100 regular season starts in his career. He has started 96 games.

FRED BARNETT...
- needs to play in 10 games to reach 100-games played. He has appeared in 90 contests.
- needs 56 receptions to reach 400 career receptions. He has 344 catches.
- needs 804 receiving yards to reach 6,000 career receiving yards. He has 5,196 yards.

TERRELL BUCKLEY...
- needs three more interceptions to reach 20 career interceptions. He has picked off 17 passes in his career.

CRAIG ERICKSON...
- needs 2,540 passing yards to reach 10,000 career yards. He has 7,460 yards.
- needs 22 pass completions to reach 600 completions in his career. He has 578 completions.

JOHN KIDD...
- needs to play in eight games to reach 200 career regular season games played. He has appeared in 192.

DAN MARINO...
- needs to play in one game to reach 200 career regular season games played and become the first player in club history to reach the 200-games played plateau. He has appeared in 199.
- needs to start three games to reach 200 career regular season starts. He has opened 197 contests in his career.
- needs to appear in one game in 1997 to achieve his 15th season of service with the Dolphins, tying him with Bob Kuechenberg (1970-84) for first on the club's all-time list in that category. He is currently tied with Bob Griese (1967-80) and Don Strock (1974-87) for second.
- needs 31 touchdown passes to become the first player in NFL history to throw 400 career TD passes. He has accumulated 369.
- should he lead the league in attempts, he would accomplish the feat for the fifth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that department. He led the league in 1984, 1986, 1988 and 1992. He is now tied with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1947-48), John Unitas (1957, 1959-61) and George Blanda (1953, 1963-65).
- should he lead the league in completions, he would accomplish that feat for the sixth time in his career and establish an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992. He is tied with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1945, 1947-48).

- should he lead the league in passing yards, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set an NFL standard for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992. He is tied with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969).
- should he lead the league in touchdown passes, he would join John Unitas (1957-60) and Len Dawson (1962-63, 1965-66) as the only players to lead the league in this category four times. Marino has done it three times, in 1984-86.
- should he throw for 3,000 yards this year, he would establish an NFL record for most seasons with 3,000 passing yards at 12. His 11 seasons with 3,000 yards are tied with Denver's John Elway for first on the league's all-time list. Marino has accomplished the feat in 1984-92 and 1994-95.

O.J. McDUFFIE...
- needs to return a punt for a touchdown to set the team record for most career punt returns for touchdowns. He has brought back two punts for scores in his four seasons, and is tied with Freddie Solomon and Tom Vigorito.
- needs to lead the team in receptions to become the first Dolphin to top the club in that category in consecutive seasons since Mark Clayton (1990-91). He caught a team-high 74 passes last year.
- needs eight receptions for 200 in his NFL career. He has caught 192 passes. His 200th catch would move him past Irving Fryar (199) into 10th on the Dolphins' all-time list. With 78 more receptions, he would surpass Duriel Harris (269) and claim fifth spot on the Dolphins' all-time chart.
- needs 578 receiving yards for 3,000 in his NFL career. He has totaled 2,422 receiving yards.
- needs one touchdown reception for 20 in his career. He has scored 19 touchdowns.

BERNIE PARMALEE...
- needs 120 rushing yards for 2,000 in his NFL career. He has totaled 1,880 rushing yards.
- needs 769 rushing yards to move ahead of Mark Higgs (2,648 from 1990-94) into fifth among the Dolphins' all-time leading rushers.
- needs three touchdowns to reach 20 in his NFL career, and five rushing touchdowns for 20. He has scored 17 touchdowns in his career, 15 of them on the ground.

RICHMOND WEBB...
- with 94 consecutive games played, is currently sixth on the Dolphins' all-time list. In 1997, he can move as high as fourth, surpassing Jeff Cross (104) and Dwight Stephenson (107).
- with 94 straight games started, is currently third all-time in Miami annals. In 1997, he can take over first spot, moving past Dan Marino (95) and Jim Langer (110).
- should he be selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, it would mark the eighth straight year he has been chosen, covering each of his first eight seasons in the league. With eight Pro Bowls played, he would join a group of 15 players who are tied for 12th most in league history. If he appears in the Pro Bowl, he would equal Randall McDaniel (8), Derrick Thomas (8) and Mike Webster (8) for fourth in league history for most consecutive Pro Bowls played. They would trail only Lawrence Taylor (10), Mike Singletary (10) and Jack Lambert (9) for most consecutive games played in a Pro Bowl in NFL history. In addition, he would join Thomas as the only two NFL players to have played in the Pro Bowl in each of their first eight seasons in the league.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are the winningest team in professional football. The Dolphins, who own a regular season record of 265-141-2 (.652) and an overall mark of 282-155-2 (.645), have the best regular-season and overall winning percentage of any NFL team during that span.

1997 DOLPHINS

KARIM ABDUL-JABBAR
5-10   200
Running Back   #33
Born: 6/28/74
College: UCLA '97
Acquired: D3b, 1996
Signed Through: 1998
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season

PRO: Played in all 16 games with 14 starts as rookie . . . Finished as team's leading rusher with 307 carries for 1,116 yards (3.6 per carry) with 11 touchdowns and a long of 29 yards and added 23 catches for 139 yards (6.0 per catch) with a long of 23 yards . . . Finished sixth in AFC and 11th in NFL in rushing yards, tied for sixth in AFC and ninth in NFL with 11 touchdowns and seventh in AFC and 16th in NFL with 1,255 total yards from scrimmage . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing 14 times . . .
   AMONG DOLPHINS RUNNERS: Abdul-Jabbar's rushing output made him the first rookie and just the fourth player (sixth time overall) in Dolphins history to gain 1,000 or more yards, joining Larry Csonka (1971-73), Mercury Morris (1972) and Delvin Williams (1978) . . . Overall, his 307 carries was the highest single-season total in team history, while his 1,116 rushing yards ranked third and 11 rushing touchdowns ranked tied for fourth:

DOLPHINS ALL-TIME SINGLE-SEASON RUSHING LEADERS

PLAYER, YEAR	RUSH YDS.	PLAYER, YEAR	RUSH ATTs.	PLAYER, YEAR	RUSH TDs
Delvin Williams, 1978	1258	K. ABDUL-JABBAR, 1996	307	Mercury Morris, 1972	12
Larry Csonka, 1972	1117	Delvin Williams, 1978	272	Don Nottingham, 1975	12

Larry Csonka, 1973	1003	Mark Higgs, 1991	231	K. ABDUL-JABBAR, 1996	11

In addition, Abdul-Jabbar set Dolphins rookie rushing records for yards and attempts and tied the team rookie record for rushing touchdowns . . . Abdul-Jabbar broke Andra Franklin's club rookie rushing records of 201 carries and 711 yards, which Franklin set in his initial season in the league in 1981, and tied Ron Davenport's rookie record of 11 rushing touchdowns:

DOLPHINS ALL-TIME ROOKIE RUSHING LEADERS

Troy Stradford, 1987	619	Troy Stradford, 1987	145	Troy Stradford, 1987	6
				Sammie Smith, 1989	6

Abdul-Jabbar's 30 carries at N.Y. Jets (12/22) tied for the third-highest single-game rushing attempt total in team history . . . It also tied the club's rookie rushing attempt record with Troy Stradford's 30 carries against N.Y. Jets on December 7, 1987 . . . In addition, Abdul-Jabbar's 29 carries at New England (11/3/96) and 27 attempts against Buffalo (12/16) ranked as the third- and fourth-highest single-game rushing attempts by a Dolphins rookie . . .

100-YARD GAMES: Abdul-Jabbar had four 100-yard rushing games on the season (115 yards against New England (9/1), 124 yards against N.Y. Jets (9/15), 104 yards at New England (11/3), 152 yards against N.Y. Jets (12/22)) with Miami posting a 3-1 mark in those games . . . His four 100-yard rushing games tied for the second-most (with Larry Csonka in 1972) in a season in team history, behind five 100-yard games by Delvin Williams in 1978 . . . In addition, he posted the most 100-yard rushing games in a season by a Dolphins rookie in team history, surpassing the previous record of three 100-yard rushing games by a rookie held by Bennie Malone (1974) and Troy Stradford (1987) . . . His 152 yards rushing in season finale at N.Y. Jets (12/22) was the fifth highest single game rushing total in Dolphins history and was the second highest single game rushing total in club history by a Dolphins rookie, surpassed only by Troy Stradford's 169 yards at Dallas (11/22/87) . . . In addition, Abdul-Jabbar's 124 yards rushing against N.Y. Jets (9/15) was the fourth highest single game rookie rushing total in club history, surpassed only by the above two games and Leroy Harris' 140 yards rushing on December 5, 1977, against Baltimore . . .
   AMONG NFL ROOKIE RUNNERS: Abdul-Jabbar had one of the most proficient seasons of any rookie running back in NFL history . . . In 1996, he led all NFL rookies in rushing touchdowns and finished second (behind Houston's Eddie George's 1,368 yards) in rushing yards and attempts:

1996 NFL ROOKIE RUSHING LEADERS

PLAYER, TEAM	RUSH YDS.	PLAYER, TEAM	RUSH ATTs.	PLAYER, TEAM	RUSH TDs

HONORS: One of the most honored rookie runners in the NFL in 1996 . . . Voted to all-rookie teams of The Football News, Pro Football Writers of America and College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for performance in season opener against New England (9/1) with 26 carries for 115 yards and a touchdown . . . Became first Dolphins running back to capture honor since Bernie Parmalee in 1994 and only the fifth Dolphins rookie to win an AFC weekly honor (second on offense), joining linebacker John Offerdahl (week eight in 1986), running back Troy Stradford (week 11 in 1987), safety Louis Oliver (week 5 in 1989), and cornerback Troy Vincent (AFC Divisional Playoff Game in 1992) . . .
   GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for debut game against New England (9/1) by rushing for 115 yards on 26 carries and a touchdown, while adding two catches for 23 yards . . . It marked the first 100-yard rushing game by a Dolphins rookie since Sammie Smith ran for 123 yards on November 7, 1989, against Indianapolis and made Abdul-Jabbar the first Dolphins player ever to rush for over 100 yards in his NFL debut . . . Gained 41 yards on 16 carries and scored two rushing touchdowns at Arizona (9/8) . . . Rushed for 124 yards on 23 carries (including a career-long 29 yard run) and two touchdowns against N.Y. Jets (9/15) . . . Caught three passes for 30 yards and led team with 37 rushing yards on 25 carries and scored a touchdown at Buffalo (10/13) . . . Recorded 22 carries for 80 yards at Philadelphia (10/20) . . . Gained 104 rushing yards on 29 carries and scored two touchdowns and added three catches for 16 yards at New England (11/3) . . . Had 70 rushing yards on 18 carries and scored a pair of touchdowns against Indianapolis (11/10) . . . Rushed for 59 yards on 18 carries at Houston (11/17) . . . Gained 57 yards on 16 carries against Pittsburgh (11/25) . . . Rushed 17 times for 96 yards and added two catches for 14 yards against N.Y. Giants (12/8) . . . Posted 76 yards on 27 carries and added four catches for 23 yards against Buffalo (12/16) . . . Closed season at N.Y. Jets (12/22) with career-high 152 yards on 30 carries and one touchdown . . . Rushing total against Jets was the fifth highest single game rushing total in Dolphins history and the second highest single game rushing total in club history by a Dolphins rookie, surpassed only by the team single game rookie rushing record of 169 yards set by Troy Stradford on November 22, 1987, at Dallas . . . Third round draft pick (80th overall) by Miami in 1996.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman and two-year starter at UCLA . . . Despite leaving school with one season of eligibility remaining, ranks third on all-time rushing list with 3,030 yards on 582 carries (5.2 avg.) with 16 touchdowns . . . TRACE ARMSTRONG

Defensive End   #93
Born: 10/5/65
College: Florida '89
Acquired: T (Chi.), 1995
Signed Through: 2000
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Third Season

PRO: 1996 – Played in all 16 games with nine starts . . . Finished with 37 tackles (28 solo), two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, one pass defensed and team-high 12 sacks . . . Posted two tackles, including 1.5 sacks at Indianapolis (9/23) . . . Had outstanding game at Buffalo (10/13) with five tackles, 2.5 sacks and a fumble recovery . . . His 2.5 sacks matched his single game career high, which he first established on November 21, 1993, at Kansas City with the Chicago Bears, and was his first multiple-sack contest since he had two sacks on September 4, 1994, against Tampa Bay with the Bears . . . In that Bills game, he recorded his 50th career sack, and became the 62nd player to reach the 50-sack milestone since the statistic became official in 1982 . . . Recorded three tackles and a sack against Dallas (10/27) . . . Posted three tackles and a half sack (shared with Steve Emtman) at Houston (11/17) . . . Registered two tackles and added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery on the same play when he tackled Jerome Bettis, forced Bettis to fumble, and then recovered that fumble against Pittsburgh (11/25) . . . Closed season strong with 6.5 sacks in final three games of season . . . Made seven tackles with 2.5 sacks (including a shared sack with Calvin Jackson) and also added a forced fumble against N.Y. Giants (12/8) . . . Had four tackles, two sacks and also added one forced fumble against Buffalo (12/16) . . . Closed regular season with fourth multiple-sack game of season with two tackles and a pair of sacks at N.Y. Jets (12/22) . . .

AMONG SACK LEADERS: Led Dolphins with career-high 12 sacks . . . Ranked seventh in AFC and tied for 12th in NFL in sacks . . . His 12 sacks marked the highest single season total of his career, surpassing his previous single season high of 11.5 sacks in 1993 with the Bears . . . Sack total was fifth-highest single-season total in team history and most since Bryan Cox had 14 sacks in 1992:

DOLPHINS SINGLE-SEASON SACK LEADERS

PLAYER	SACKS	YEAR	PLAYER	SACKS	YEAR
1. Bill Stanfill	18.5	1973	6. Jeff Cross	11.5	1990
2. Doug Betters	16.0	1983	7. Mel Branch	11.0	1968
3. Doug Betters	14.0	1984	Vern Den Herder	11.0	1975
Bryan Cox	14.0	1992	9. Vern Den Herder	10.5	1972
5. TRACE ARMSTRONG	12.0	1996	Jeff Cross	10.5	1993

Had four multiple sack games during the season, including multi-sack games in three straight contests (each of the three last games of the year), when he totaled 6.5 sacks in those three games . . . In addition, his 12 sacks, combined with Daniel Stubbs' nine sacks, is the fifth highest single season sack total by a pair of Dolphins in club history:

DOLPHINS SINGLE-SEASON SACK COMBINATIONS

YEAR	PLAYER	SACKS	PLAYER	SACKS	TOTAL
1973	Vern Den Herder	10.0	Bill Stanfill	18.5	28.5
1983	Doug Betters	16.0	Bob Baumhower	8.0	24.0
1984	Doug Betters	14.0	Charles Bowser	9.0	23.0
1983	Doug Betters	16.0	Charles Bowser	6.5	22.5
1996	TRACE ARMSTRONG	12.0	DANIEL STUBBS	9.0	21.0

In addition, Armstrong and Stubbs combined to rank tied for fifth in the NFL and second in the AFC in combined sacks from a tandem:

NFL'S LEADING SACK COMBINATIONS IN 1996

TEAM	PLAYER	SACKS	PLAYER	SACKS	TOTAL
Carolina	Kevin Greene	14.5	Lamar Lathon	13.5	28.0
Seattle	Michael Sinclair	13.0	Michael McCreary	12.5	25.5
S.F.	Roy Barker	12.5	Bryant Young	11.5	24.0
Buffalo	Bruce Smith	13.5	Phil Hansen	8.0	21.5
MIAMI	TRACE ARMSTRONG	12.0	DANIEL STUBBS	9.0	21.0
Phil.	William Fuller	13.0	Mike Mamula	8.0	21.0
Minn.	John Randle	11.5	Fernando Smith	9.5	21.0

The chart is limited to one tandem per team and as a result does not include multiple sack tandems from the same team, involving San Francisco's Barker, Young and Doleman (11 sacks) and Seattle's Sinclair, McCreary and Cortez Kennedy (eight sacks).

1995 – Played in 15 regular season games and one playoff contest for Dolphins . . . Acquired by Miami in trade with Chicago Bears on April 4, 1995, in exchange for second and third round draft choices in 1995 . . . Finished with 25 tackles (17 solo), one fumble recovery, two forced fumbles and ranked fourth on team with 4.5 sacks . . . Had a half-sack (along with linebacker Bryan Cox) and forced a fumble (recovered by teammate Jeff Cross) to set up touchdown drive against Pittsburgh (9/18) . . . Registered three tackles and a sack at Cincinnati (10/1) . . . Recorded sack against Indianapolis (10/8) . . . Forced and recovered a fumble on same play to set up touchdown drive at New Orleans (10/15) . . . Did not play at N.Y. Jets (10/22) due to knee injury . . . Had two tackles and a sack against San Francisco (12/20) . . . Registered two tackles and a sack in season-finale at St. Louis (12/24) . . . Came off bench in First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo (12/30) and had one tackle.

1994 – Started 15 regular season and both playoff contests for Bears . . . Finished with 60 tackles (34 solo), one forced fumble, one blocked field goal, one pass defensed and team-high 7.5 sacks . . . Posted two sacks in season opener against Tampa Bay (9/4) . . . Deflected a field goal attempt against New Orleans (10/9) . . . Had a forced fumble at Tampa Bay (11/6) . . . Suffered hyperextended left elbow in practice (11/10) and was inactive for contest at Miami (11/13) . . . Registered eight tackles at Minnesota (12/1) . . . Recorded seven tackles and a sack at Green Bay (12/11) . . . Closed regular season with eight tackles against New England (12/24) . . . Started both playoff games . . . Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week in First-Round Playoff contest at Minnesota (1/1/95) with five tackles and a pair of sacks.

1993 – Started all 16 games . . . Finished with 58 tackles (34 solo), three forced fumbles, three fumbles recovered, two passes defensed and 11.5 sacks, a career high at the time . . . Had six tackles and a pair of sacks at Philadelphia (10/10) . . . Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week with three tackles, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two sacks on Thanksgiving Day win over Detroit (11/25) . . . DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while four other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins) and Washington (11 games) in 1991.

Born: 9/15/61
College: Pittsburgh '83
Acquired: D1, 1983
Signed Through: 1999
NFL: 15th Season
Dolphins: 15th Season

PRO: 1996 – Entering his 15th season, Marino ranks among the NFL's all-time top ranked passers . . . Signed a one-year contract extension (through 1999) on June 13, 1997 . . . Was signed to a three-year contract through the 1998 season on April 23, 1996 . . . Started 13 of 16 games in 1996 and finished 221-373 for 2,795 yards, 17 touchdowns, nine interceptions, and 18 sacks for a rating of 87.8 . . . Finished ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in quarterback ratings . . . Suffered fractured right ankle in first series of game on Sept. 23, 1996, at Indianapolis . . . On September 24, 1996, Marino underwent an arthroscopic debridement (cleaning) as well as an internal fixation (screw insertion) of his right ankle fracture . . . The surgery was performed at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables by Dolphins team physicians Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell . . . Missed next three games (Oct. 6th vs. Seattle, Oct. 13th at Buffalo, and Oct. 20th at Philadelphia) while recovering from that surgery . . . Started all four preseason games and in those contests Marino was 28-50 (56.0%) for 348 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating of 89.4 . . . In his 14-year career, Marino has played in 199 games (197 starts) and he is 4,134-6,904 (59.9%) for 51,636 yards, 369 touchdowns, and 209 interceptions for an 88.3 passing efficiency rating, which ranks fourth among the all-time passing leaders . . . He reached the NFL minimum (1,500 career attempts) to qualify for the ratings during the 1986 campaign . . . Marino holds 34 Dolphins regular season team records and is tied for three others, and he holds 23 NFL records and is tied for nine others . . . Did not undergo any surgical procedures following the 1996 season . . . It marked only the eighth time in his career that his off-season was surgery-free . . .

In his career, with 6,904 attempts, Marino ranks first in NFL history in pass attempts, breaking Tarkenton's NFL record of 6,467 attempts on Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a two yard completion to Eric Green in the fourth quarter of that game and broke the record with an incomplete pass intended for Randal Hill later in that quarter . . . With 4,134 pass completions, Marino ranks first in NFL history in completions, breaking Tarkenton's NFL record of 3,686 completions on Oct. 8, 1995 vs.

Indianapolis . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a five-yard touchdown pass to Irving Spikes in the first quarter of that game and broke the record with a six-yard completion to Keith Byars in the second quarter . . . With 51,636 yards passing, Marino ranks first in NFL history in total yards passing, breaking Tarkenton's NFL record of 47,003 passing yards on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England on a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter . . . With 369 touchdown passes, Marino ranks first in NFL history in touchdown passes, breaking Tarkenton's NFL record of 342 TD passes with a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars in the second quarter on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a four-yard touchdown pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter on Nov. 20th vs. San Francisco . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: On Sept. 23, 1996, at Indianapolis, Marino completed only five passes in eight attempts before leaving the game permanently midway in the first quarter with a sprained right ankle . . . His pass attempts and completions in that contest both represent his single game career lows, breaking his former single game lows of eight completions and 16 attempts, both set on November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh . . . On Nov. 25, 1996, vs. Pittsburgh he completed his first seven passes at the start of the game before throwing an incompletion, and coupled with the seven straight completions he had to finish his previous contest, at Houston on Nov. 17, 1996, his 14 consecutive completions over those two games is the second highest figure in club history, surpassed only by his team record of 15 consecutive completions, which he set over the course of two games, on Nov. 8, 1992 at Indianapolis and on Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo . . . In addition, on Nov. 10, 1996, vs. Indianapolis, Marino completed 13 consecutive passes, tying him with Earl Morrall (Dec. 1, 1975 at New England) for third place on the Dolphins' all-time list for most consecutive completions . . . Marino has suffered just 22 sub-50 percent completion percentage games in his 199 regular season games (197 starts), including twice in 1996 (on Dec. 22nd at N.Y. Jets and on Oct. 27th vs. Dallas) and the Dolphins are 8-14 in those 22 games (including 1-1 in 1996) . . . Including playoffs, Marino has completed less than half his passes 25 times in 212 games (210 starts), and the Dolphins are 8-17 in those games . . . Marino has led the NFL in pass attempts four times during a season (1984, 1986, 1988, 1992) . . . He tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (four) with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1947-48), Johnny Unitas (1957, 1959-61), and George Blanda (1953, 1963-65) . . . Marino has led the NFL in pass completions five times in his career (1984-86, 1988, 1992) . . . He tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (five) with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1945, 1947-48) . . . On Dec. 18, 1994, at Indianapolis Marino attempted the 6,000th pass of his career, joining Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to record 6,000 pass attempts . . . On Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City, Marino attempted the 6,468th pass of his career (an incomplete pass intended for Randal Hill) to break Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for most career pass attempts . . . On Oct. 8th, 1995 vs. Indianapolis, Marino completed the 3,687th pass of his career (a six-yard completion to Keith Byars in the second quarter) to break Tarkenton's NFL record for most career completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Fouts (3,297) and Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . .

YARDAGE: Marino's 51,636 yards passing ranks first on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list . . . On Nov. 10, 1996 vs. Indianapolis, when Marino completed a 36-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter, he went over 50,000 career yards passing, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for 50,000 yards . . . Marino reached that milestone in the 193rd game of his career . . . On Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, with a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter, Marino passed Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards), breaking Tarkenton's NFL record for most career passing yards and moving into first place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list:

In 1996, Marino threw for 2,795 yards, the second lowest single season yardage total of his career (not including the 1993 season when he played only five games), behind only his rookie year of 1983 when he threw for 2,210 yards . . . In his career, Marino has thrown for 4,000 yards in six seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994), becoming the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons . . . Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95), Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81), and Drew Bledsoe (two, 1994, 1996) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts, Marino is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino has passed for 3,000 or more yards 11 times (1984-92, 1994-95) in his 14 seasons in the NFL . . . When he passed for 3,668 yards in 1995, it was his 11th season of passing for 3,000 or more yards in his career, extending his own NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, a record that was subsequently tied by John Elway in 1996 . . . Marino originally set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards . . . Before setting that NFL record, Marino had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino extended that mark to 11 seasons before being tied by Elway in 1996:

In addition, Marino's nine consecutive 3,000-yard seasons (1984-92) is the NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five times during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino did not have a game passing for 400 or 300 yards in 1996 . . . It marked the first time in Marino's career (except the 1993 season when he played only five games) when he did not have a 300-yard passing game in a season . . . In his career, Marino has 13 regular season 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins are 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) . . . Marino has 52 career regular season 300-yard games (56, including playoffs) . . . The Dolphins are 32-20 in those 52 300-yard games (33-23 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 343 yards passing on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta was the 52nd regular season game of 300 or more passing yards in Marino's career, breaking Dan Fouts' former NFL record of 51 career 300-yard games . . . Marino tied Fouts' record of 51 regular season career 300-yard games when he had 333 yards passing on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 33 of the top 40 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 56 of the 68 300-yard passing games in club history . . . On Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis, Marino had only 67 yards passing before being forced from the game permanently midway through the first quarter with a fractured right ankle . . . His 67 yards passing in that contest is his new career single game low in passing yardage, fewer than his previous single game low of 90 yards passing at the L.A. Raiders on Sept. 19, 1983 . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record vs. San Francisco on November 20, 1995, with a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter . . . Marino now has 369 career touchdown passes:

Of all the quarterbacks in the Top Ten, Marino has played the second fewest years (along with John Elway) . . . Through his first 14 seasons, Marino has averaged 23.1 touchdown passes per season and 1.85 TD passes per game he has played . . . At his current per-game pace, Marino would pass for his 400th touchdown pass in the first game of the 1998 season . . . Marino and the "Marks Brothers", Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, combined for the first and sixth (tied) most prolific quarterback to wide receiver scoring combinations in NFL history: Marino and Clayton combined for 79 touchdown passes, the highest scoring duo in league history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), and San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), while the Marino-to-Duper combination, with 55 touchdowns, ranks tied for sixth:

NOTE: Dan Marino has thrown at least one regular season touchdown pass in every current NFL stadium which he has visited . . . Marino has not played a regular season game at the Georgia Dome (or Fulton County Stadium), Ericsson Stadium or ALLTEL Stadium . . . In addition, in post-season play, he has 12 TD passes in the Orange Bowl, eight at Pro Player Stadium, five at Rich Stadium, three at Qualcomm Stadium, and one TD pass at Stanford Stadium.

Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in ten of his 13 regular season games in 1996 and now has thrown at least one TD in 173 of his 199 regular-season games (186 of 212 overall) as well as in each of his 13 playoff games:

Overall in Marino's career the Dolphins are 9-17 (including 1-2 in 1996) in the 26 regular season games in which Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass, with one victory coming in 1996 (Sept. 1st vs. New England), one win in 1995 (Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo), one win in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit), two in 1992 (Dec. 27th at New England and Oct. 11th vs. Atlanta), one in 1991 (September 22nd vs. Green Bay), one in 1990 (Oct. 18th vs. Patriots), and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December 10th vs. Patriots) . . . Marino has six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins are 4-2 in those contests . . . Marino has 20 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he is 15-5 in those 20 contests . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . In his career Marino has thrown three or more touchdowns in 58 games (63, including playoffs), including three times in 1996, on Dec. 22nd at N.Y. Jets, on Nov. 10th vs. Indianapolis and on Sept. 15th vs. N.Y. Jets, and he is 39-19 in those contests (42-21 including post-season games), including 3-0 in 1996 . . . Marino has thrown for 20 or more TD passes in 12 of his 14 years in the NFL . . . In addition to 1996, the only other season when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1993, when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1995, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 12 seasons . . . In 1991 Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL:

NFL LEADERS, MOST SEASONS OF 20 OR MORE TOUCHDOWN PASSES

NAME	YEARS WITH 20-PLUS TDs	SEASONS WITH 20-PLUS TDs	NFL SEASONS	CAREER TOUCHDOWNS
DAN MARINO	12	1983-92, 94-95	14	369
John Unitas	8	1957, 59-60, 62-63, 65-67	18	290
John Hadl	7	1965-68, 70-71, 74	16	244
Fran Tarkenton	7	1962, 64, 67-69, 75, 78	18	342
Sonny Jurgensen	7	1961-62, 64, 66-67, 69-70	17	255
Jim Kelly	7	1986, 89-92, 94-95	11	237

Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first ten NFL seasons and in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . He also is tied for the NFL record with three consecutive seasons (1984-86) of throwing for 30 or more touchdown passes along with Brett Favre, who also threw for 30 or more TD passes three straight seasons (1994-96) . . . In addition to Marino and Favre, only six other quarterbacks have thrown 30 or more TD passes twice (Sonny Jurgensen, 1961, 1967; Y.A. Tittle, 1962, 1963; Daryle Lamonica, 1967, 1969; Dan Fouts, 1980, 1981; Steve Bartkowski, 1980, 1981; and Warren Moon, 1990, 1995) . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: In his career, Marino has not thrown an interception in 70 games (74, including playoffs), including seven times in 1996, on Dec. 22nd at N.Y. Jets, on Dec. 16th vs. Buffalo, on Nov. 25th vs. Pittsburgh, on Nov. 17th at Houston, on Nov. 10th vs. Indianapolis, on Sept. 23rd at Indianapolis and on Sept. 8th at Arizona . . . The Dolphins are 50-20 in those 70 games in which he was not intercepted (53-21, including playoffs), including 5-2 in 1996 . . . On Sept. 15, 1996 vs. N.Y. Jets, Marino had an interception by the Jets' Aaron Glenn returned 100 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the second longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history, surpassed only by a 102-yard return by the L.A. Raiders' Eddie Anderson of a Marino pass at Miami on Dec. 14, 1992 . . . It also was the first time an opponent has returned a Marino interception for a touchdown since Ray Buchanan of the Indianapolis Colts returned a Marino INT 28 yards for a TD on November 6, 1994 . . . On Dec. 1, 1996 at Oakland, Marino's first interception in that contest, by the Raiders' Terry McDaniel in the second quarter, ended a streak of 110 consecutive passes Marino threw without an interception, dating back to the third quarter on Nov. 3, 1996 at New England and covering the remainder of that game, the next three complete games, and Marino's first 11 passes against the Raiders . . . He finished 12 passes shy of tying Bob Griese's club record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception, which Griese set in the tenth through 14th games in 1967 . . . In addition, the interception by McDaniel broke a streak of three consecutive games when Marino did not throw an interception (Nov. 10th vs. Indianapolis, Nov. 17th at Houston, and Nov. 25th vs. Pittsburgh), leaving him one game short of tying the Dolphins record of four straight games without an INT, which was set by Griese in the fifth through eighth games in 1971 . . .

SACKS: Marino's 18 sacks in 1996 is tied for the fourth highest single season sack total of his career . . . Marino was not sacked three times in 1996, on Oct. 27th vs. Dallas, on Sept. 23rd at Indianapolis, and on Sept. 1st vs. New England, and the Dolphins went 1-2 in those three contests . . . For nine consecutive seasons (1982-90), the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . .

RUSHING AND RECEIVING: Marino has rushed for a touchdown eight times in the regular season (nine, including playoffs): Dec. 12, 1994 vs. Kansas City, four yards; Sept. 26, 1993 at Buffalo, four yards; Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego, 10 yards; Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England, one yard; Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati, one yard; Dec. 7, 1987 vs. N.Y. Jets, five yards; Nov. 20, 1983 vs. Baltimore, one yard; and Oct. 30, 1983 vs. L.A. Rams, two yards (and one playoff contest – Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo in AFC Division Playoff contest, two yards) . . . The Dolphins are 7-1 in those regular season contests (7-2 including playoff games) when Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . Marino has caught one pass in his career, on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, when he caught his own deflected pass for a six-yard loss . . .

DURABILITY: On Oct. 27, 1996 vs. Dallas, Marino played in his 191st career regular season game, breaking Bob Kuechenberg's former team record (190) for most regular season games played . . . Marino now has played in 199 regular season games with Miami, including 197 starts, and has started all 13 playoff games the Dolphins have played in since he joined the team . . . Beginning with his first career start, on Oct. 9, 1983, Marino has started 197 of the Dolphins' last 215 regular season games (and 210 of 228 games overall including playoffs), not counting the three replacement games in 1987 . . . The Dolphins are 8-10 in the 18 games that Marino has missed during his career because of injury . . . Before their win on Oct. 13, 1996 at Buffalo, Miami had lost the last eight previous games Marino missed (the final five contests in 1993, two games in 1995, and one contest in 1996) . . . On Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis, Marino was forced from the contest permanently midway through the first quarter with a fractured right ankle, suffered without being hit on a 34-yard pass completion to O.J. McDuffie . . . It was the first time he was forced from a game permanently due to injury since Sept. 18, 1995 vs. Pittsburgh, when he was forced from that contest late in the third quarter due to a contusion of the sternum following a tackle by the Steelers' Greg Lloyd . . . While recovering from surgery to repair the fractured right ankle injured against the Colts, Marino missed the next three games, on Oct. 20th at Philadelphia, Oct. 13th at Buffalo and on Oct. 6th vs. Seattle, the only games Marino did not start in 1996, and the Dolphins went 1-2 in those three contests . . . Of the 18 games Marino has missed due to injury, three came in 1996, two games in 1995 (Oct. 22nd at N.Y. Jets and Oct. 15 at New Orleans) while recovering from a bruised left hip and arthroscopic surgery on his right knee, the final 11 games of the 1993 season after being placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 13th as a result of a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg, and the final two games of the 1983 season due to a left knee sprain . . . The first game he missed as a result of his Achilles' injury, on October 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his streak of playing 145 straight regular season games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season (155 straight games if playoff games are counted) . . . Before that injury, Marino was the only NFL quarterback to have started every game since the replacement games in 1987 . . . Marino is one of only five NFL quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight regular season games since the 1970 merger (also: Ron Jaworski, Phila., 116 games [1977-84], Brian Sipe, Cleve., 109 games [1975-83], Joe Ferguson, Buff., 107 games [1977-84], and Steve Bartkowski, Atl., 100 games [1977-84]) . . .

OPERATIONS: Did not undergo any surgical procedures following the 1996 season . . . It marked the eighth time in his career that his off-season was surgery-free (after the 1996, 1995, 1994 1992, 1990, 1989, 1988, and 1986 seasons) . . . On September 24, 1996, Marino underwent an arthroscopic debridement (cleaning) as well as an internal fixation (screw insertion) of his right ankle fracture . . . The surgery was performed at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables by Dolphins team physicians Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell . . . His previous surgery was on Oct. 9, 1995, when Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Holy Cross Medical Center repaired cartilage damage to his right knee that was injured on Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery on March 31, 1994 to remove bone spurs from his right ankle . . . Was operated on to repair torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg on October 11, 1993 by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center and he missed the final 11 games of the 1993 season . . . In addition, Marino also has undergone surgery on his left knee five times since joining the Dolphins, most recently arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . The other operations to that knee took place on March 8, 1988, February 7, 1986, April 3, 1985, and on Jan. 6, 1984 . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall Marino holds 23 NFL records and is tied for nine others . . . In addition to the above records for attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, and 1992, Marino joined only three other quarterbacks (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who have led the NFL in that category four times . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sammy Baugh as the only players to have led the NFL in that category five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Having led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, if he does so again in 1997, he would join only two others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHINS RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds 31 Dolphins team records and is tied for four others . . . Marino broke all of Bob Griese's team records in passing yardage, attempts, completions, and TD passes:

MARINO'S MIAMI DOLPHINS CAREER RECORDS

TD PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS
369 Marino	51,636 Marino	6,904 Marino	4,134 Marino	209 Marino
192 Griese	25,092 Griese	3,429 Griese	1,926 Griese	172 Griese

Both Griese (1967-80) and Marino (1983-96) played 14 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino also holds team career records for highest passer rating, highest completion percentage, and most 300-yard and 400-yard games . . .

COMEBACKS: In 1996, Marino led the Dolphins back once from a fourth quarter deficit to a victory, on Nov. 17, 1996 at Houston . . . In that contest, the Dolphins trailed 17-13 in the fourth quarter, but Marino went 6-6 for 113 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions in the fourth quarter to help Miami to their 23-20 victory when Joe Nedney kicked a 29-yard field goal on the game's final play . . . Over the course of Marino's 14-year career with the Dolphins, he has brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 32 times, with 18 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 14 on the road . . . Included in that total are two playoff games in which Marino has led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . It does not include ten additional games, all in the regular season, that Marino won when the Dolphins were tied (but never did trail) in the fourth quarter, seven at home and three on the road . . . If those ten fourth-quarter tied situations are included, then Marino has led the Dolphins on a total of 42 game-winning drives (25 at home and 17 on the road) . . . With 32 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second among active quarterbacks in that category; Denver's John Elway has 41 final period come-from behind wins . . . In Marino's 32 career fourth quarter comebacks, he has completed 239 of 370 passes (64.6%) for 3,164 yards with 26 touchdowns and eight INTs for a rating of 106.0:

HONORS: Marino has won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor 15 times in the regular season (and 17 times overall, including playoffs), as well as two AFC Player of the Month Awards in his 14-year NFL career . . . It is the most times any player has won AFC Player of the Week honors since the award was instituted in 1984 . . . John Elway is second with 13 awards, Boomer Esiason is third with nine awards (he also has a Player of the Month Award), Jim Kelly is fourth with eight AFC awards (along with two AFC Player of the Month Awards), while Warren Moon has six AFC awards (as well as one monthly honor) . . . In balloting of South Florida media for the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award, Marino has won that award twelve times (1983-92, 1994-95) . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977) . . . Marino won the MVP award each of his first ten years in the league (1983-92), and no other Dolphin has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . In addition, in 1995 Marino was named the winner of the Miami Dolphins' Leadership Award for the first time, an award presented annually to the Miami player chosen by Dolphins management and coaches for leadership on and off the playing field . . . Won Dolphins Community Service Award for the 1996 season . . . Marino has won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award ten times (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - VS. NEW ENGLAND (SEPT. 1): On September 1st vs. New England Marino was 16-22 for 176 yards, no touchdowns and one interception . . . It was Marino's 13th consecutive opening game start, the second-longest streak among active quarterbacks, trailing only Denver's John Elway who has started 14 straight season openers . . . In that Patriots game, Marino did not throw a touchdown pass in only his 24th career game, and it was only the ninth time in those 24 games (9-15) that the Dolphins won the contest . . .

AT ARIZONA (SEPT. 8): On Sept. 8th at Arizona, Marino was 14-23 for 178 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and two sacks . . . It was the 64th regular season game of Marino's career (68th, including playoffs) when he has not thrown an interception . . . It was his first-ever career game in Sun Devil Stadium, and with his two TD passes there, it leaves only the Georgia Dome as the only current NFL stadium he has never visited or thrown a touchdown pass in (excluding the two expansion sites and the Liberty Bowl) . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 15): On Sept. 15th (his 35th birthday) vs. N.Y. Jets, Marino was 13-23 for 257 yards, three touchdowns, one interception, and one sack . . . It was the 56th game of his career (61, including playoffs) when he has thrown for three or more touchdown passes . . . One of those touchdown passes was a 74-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett, Marino's longest completion since an 80-yard touchdown completion to Tony Martin on October 4, 1993, and the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history . . . His one interception was by the Jets' Aaron Glenn, who returned it 100 yards for a touchdown, the second longest INT return by an opponent in Dolphins history . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 23): Suffered right ankle fracture on a 34-yard pass completion to O.J. McDuffie in first series on Sept. 23rd at Indianapolis . . . Stayed in game two more plays before leaving contest permanently with that injury . . . It was the first time he was forced from a game permanently due to injury since Sept. 18, 1995 vs. Pittsburgh, when he was forced from that contest late in the third quarter due to a contusion of the sternum following a tackle by the Steelers Greg Lloyd . . . In the contest vs. the Colts, Marino was 5-8 for 67 yards, no touchdowns, interceptions, or sacks . . . His five completions, eight attempts, and 67 yards passing all represent single game lows in Marino's career, breaking his previous lows of eight completions and 16 attempts vs. Pittsburgh on November 26, 1989 and his 90 yards passing at the L.A. Raiders on Sept. 19, 1983 . . . It was his 25th career game (all in the regular season) without throwing a touchdown pass . . . It was the 65th regular season game of Marino's career (69th, including playoffs) when he has not thrown an interception . . .

VS. DALLAS (OCT. 27): Returned to action on Oct. 27th vs. Dallas after missing three previous games due to fractured right ankle and was 12-27 for 173 yards, one touchdown and one interception . . . His touchdown came on a 16-yard pass to Stanley Pritchett . . . It was Marino's 21st career sub-50 percent completion game (24 overall, including playoffs) . . . In that Cowboys contest Marino played in his 191st regular season game, breaking Bob Kuechenberg's team record (190) for most career regular season games played . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 3): On Nov. 3rd at New England, Marino was 17-34 for 225 yards, no touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . It was his 26th career game (all in the regular season) without throwing a touchdown pass (and third in 1996), and the Dolphins are 9-17 in those 26 games (and 1-2 in 1996) . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 10): On Nov. 10th vs. Indianapolis was 17-23 for 204 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions . . . His touchdowns came on a 12-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie, and 15-yard and 12-yard passes to Fred Barnett . . . Marino's 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter gave him over 50,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for 50,000 yards . . . Marino's eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter was Marino's 4,000th career completion, becoming the first QB in NFL history to complete 4,000 passes . . . At one point in that Colts contest, Marino completed 13 consecutive passes, tying him with Earl Morrall (Dec. 1, 1975 at New England) for third place on the Dolphins' all-time list, only behind Marino's club record of 15 consecutive completions, which he set over the course of two games in 1992, at Indianapolis on November 8, 1992 and vs. Buffalo on November 16, 1992, and his 14 consecutive completions, which he accomplished over the course of two games in 1996 on Nov. 17, 1996 at Houston and Nov. 25, 1996 vs. Pittsburgh . . . His three touchdown passes in the Colts contest marked the 57th game of his career (62, including playoffs) when he has thrown for three or more touchdown passes . . . Marino did not throw an interception against the Colts, marking the 66th time he has not thrown an interception (70, including playoffs) in his career . . .

AT HOUSTON (NOV. 17): On Nov. 17th at Houston was 21-28 for 237 yards, one touchdown, no interceptions, and three sacks . . . His touchdown pass came on a ten-yard pass to Irving Spikes . . . It was the 67th time in Marino's career that he has not thrown an interception (71, including playoffs) . . . With the Dolphins trailing 17-13 in the fourth quarter, Marino led Miami to a comeback 23-20 win . . . It marked the only time in 1996 and the 32nd time in Marino's career (including two playoff games) that he has led Miami from a fourth quarter deficit to victory, with 18 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 14 on the road . . . In that Oilers game the Dolphins trailed 17-13 in the fourth quarter, but Marino went 6-6 for 113 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions in the fourth quarter to help Miami to their 23-20 victory when Joe Nedney kicked a 29-yard field goal on the game's final play . . .

VS. PITTSBURGH (NOV. 25): On Nov. 25th vs. Pittsburgh was 22-37 for 254 yards, one touchdown, no interceptions and one sack . . . His touchdown pass came on a two-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie . . . Marino completed his first seven passes at the start of the game before throwing an incompletion, and coupled with the seven straight completions he had to finish his previous contest, at Houston on Nov. 17th, his 14 consecutive completions over those two games is the second highest figure in club history, surpassed only by his team record of 15 consecutive completions, which he set over the course of two games, on Nov. 8, 1992 at Indianapolis through Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo . . . The Steeler game also was the fifth time in 1996 that Marino did not throw an interception . . . It also was the 68th time in Marino's career that he has not thrown an interception (72, including playoffs) . . . It also marked the third straight game in which Marino did not throw an interception, leaving him one game short of tying the Dolphins record of four straight games without an INT, which was set by Bob Griese in the fifth through eighth games in 1971 . . .

AT OAKLAND (DEC. 1): On Dec. 1st at Oakland, Marino was 22-39 for 290 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions . . . His touchdown came on a four-yard pass to Randal Hill . . . His first interception in that contest, by the Raiders' Terry McDaniel in the second quarter, ended a streak of 110 consecutive passes Marino threw without an interception, dating back to the third quarter on Nov. 3rd at New England and covering the remainder of that game, the next three complete games, and Marino's first 11 passes against the Raiders . . . He finished 12 passes shy of tying Bob Griese's club record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception, which Griese set in the tenth through 14th games in 1967 . . . In addition, the interception by McDaniel broke a streak of three consecutive games when Marino did not throw an interception (Nov. 10th vs. Indianapolis, Nov. 17th at Houston, and Nov. 25th vs. Pittsburgh), leaving him one game short of tying the Dolphin record of four straight games without an interception, which was set by Bob Griese in the fifth through eighth games in 1971 . . .

VS. N.Y. GIANTS (DEC. 8): On Dec. 8th vs. N.Y. Giants Marino was 16-30 for 209 yards, one touchdown (coming on a three-yard pass to Robert Wilson), two interceptions, and three sacks . . .

VS. BUFFALO (DEC. 16): On Dec. 16th vs. Buffalo was 26-37 for 263 yards, one touchdown and-no interceptions . . . His touchdown came on a five-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie . . . It was the sixth time in 1996 that Marino did not throw an interception, and the 69th time in Marino's career that he has not thrown an interception (73, including playoffs) . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (DEC. 22): On Dec. 22nd at N.Y. Jets, Marino was 20-42 for 262 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions . . . His three touchdowns came on scoring passes of one yard to O.J. McDuffie, 33 yards to Fred Barnett, and 50 yards to Randal Hill . . . It was just the 22nd sub-50 percent completion percentage game in his regular season career (25, including playoffs), and only the eighth time the Dolphins won a game with Marino completing less than half of his passes, as the Dolphins are 8-14 in those 22 games (8-17 overall) . . . His three touchdown passes in the Jets contest marked the 58th game of his career (63, including playoffs) when he has thrown for three or more touchdown passes, and he is 39-19 in those contests (42-21 including post-season games) . . . It was the seventh time in 1996 that Marino did not throw an interception, and the Dolphins were 5-2 in those seven contests . . . It also was the 70th time in Marino's career that he has not thrown an interception (74, including playoffs), and the Dolphins are 50-20 in those 70 games (53-21, including playoffs) . . .

1995 – Started 14 of 16 games in 1995 and finished 309-482 (64.1%) for 3,668 yards, 24 touchdowns and 15 interceptions for a 90.8 rating . . . Marino ranked second in the AFC (behind Jim Harbaugh) and eighth in the NFL in passing, was third in the AFC (John Elway and Jeff Blake) and ninth in the NFL in passing yards, and was third in the AFC (behind Blake and Elway) and tied for eighth in the NFL in touchdown passes . . . Marino's completion percentage of 64.1% is the second highest completion percentage of his career, surpassed only by his team record of 64.2% in 1984 and is the second highest single season completion percentage in Dolphins history . . . Missed games on Oct. 22nd at N.Y. Jets and Oct. 15th at New Orleans because of his knee and hip injuries . . . In contest vs. Indianapolis on Oct. 8th, Marino suffered a contusion of his left hip and cartilage damage in his right knee . . . He underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee on October 9th at Holy Cross Medical Center by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato to remove loose cartilage in that knee . . . Started all four preseason games and in those contests was 23-54 (42.6%) for 341 yards, two touchdowns, three interceptions and three sacks for 12 yards in losses, a rating of 53.1 . . . In preseason game on August 11th at Atlanta was 0-7 for no yards, marking the first time in either a preseason or regular season game since he began his Dolphin career in 1983 that Marino failed to complete at least one pass . . . In 1995, along with Dan McGwire and Bernie Kosar, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team has three quarterbacks on the regular season roster at the same time who were all first round draft picks . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: On Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City, Marino attempted the 6,468th pass of his career (an incomplete pass intended for Randal Hill in the fourth quarter) to break Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for most career pass attempts . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a two-yard completion to Eric Green earlier in the fourth quarter . . . On Oct. 8, 1995 vs. Indianapolis, Marino completed the 3,687th pass of his career (a six-yard completion to Keith Byars in the second quarter) to break Tarkenton's NFL record for most career completions . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a five-yard touchdown pass to Irving Spikes in the first quarter of that game . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, with a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter, Marino passed Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards), breaking Tarkenton's NFL record for most career passing yards and moving into first place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list . . . On Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, the 11th time (1984-92, 1994-95) he has passed for 3,000 or more yards . . . His 11 seasons of passing for 3,000 or more yards extended his own NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons (a record that was tied by John Elway in 1996) . . . Marino had two 400-yard passing games in 1995, in the AFC First Round playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo when he threw for 422 yards (the most by any Dolphins player in playoff history), and on Oct. 1, 1995 at Cincinnati, when he threw for 450 yards, the fourth highest single-game total of his career and the fourth highest single-game total in club history:

MIAMI DOLPHIN SINGLE GAME PASSING YARDAGE TOTALS

	PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	ATT.	COMP.	YARDS	TD	INT.	LG.
1.	Dan Marino	10/23/88	N.Y. JETS	60	35	521	3	5	56

5.	Dan Marino	9/21/86	at N.Y. Jets	50	30	448	6	2	46t

Marino had four 300-yard games in 1995, in AFC Wildcard playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo, when he threw for 422 yards, on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta, when he threw for 343 yards, on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, when he threw for 333 yards, and on Oct. 1, 1995 at Cincinnati, when he threw for 450 yards . . . Marino's 343 yards passing on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta was the 52nd regular season game of 300 or more passing yards in Marino's career, breaking Dan Fouts' former NFL record of 51 career regular season 300-yard games . . . Marino tied Fouts' record of 51 regular season career 300-yard games when he had 333 yards passing on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record vs. San Francisco on November 20, 1995, with a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 14 regular season games in 1995 as well as in his one playoff contest . . . On Nov. 26th vs. Indianapolis Marino threw four touchdown passes, the last time he has thrown for four or more TDs . . . On Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta, his second touchdown pass of the game, a 24-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, was Marino's 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 12 seasons . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: When Marino was intercepted by Junior Seau in the second quarter on Nov. 5, 1995 at San Diego, it ended a streak of 114 straight passes Marino threw without an interception, dating back to the first quarter at Cincinnati on October 1st when Andre Collins intercepted a Marino pass, covering the remainder of that game, the next two games Marino played (Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis and Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo) and the Charger game until Seau's INT . . . It left Marino eight attempts short of Bob Griese's team record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception . . . In addition, when Marino was intercepted by Wilbur Marshall in the first quarter in 1995 season opener vs. N.Y. Jets on Sept. 3rd, it ended a streak of 105 straight passes Marino threw without an interception, including his final 102 passes in 1994 (covering all three final regular season games) and the first three passes he threw in the Jets contest in 1995 . . . On Dec. 24, 1995 at St. Louis, Marino was intercepted by Toby Wright, Marino's 200th interception of his career . . .

SACKS: Marino's 22 sacks in 1995 marked the third time in his career he has been sacked 20 or more times in a season, along with 1992 (28 sacks) and 1991 (27 sacks) . . . On Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times, the second straight game he was sacked four times . . . He also had been sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1995 vs. San Francisco, including three sacks in the Dolphins' first three offensive plays from scrimmage . . . The four sacks in those two games are both tied for the second highest single game total of Marino's career, surpassed only by his five sacks at New Orleans on November 29, 1992 . . . -

UNDER DON SHULA: Marino is one of ten quarterbacks to have started games when Don Shula coached the Dolphins from 1970 through 1995, and his 184 regular season starts under Shula is the most by any Dolphins quarterback during that time:

DOLPHIN STARTING QUARTERBACKS UNDER DON SHULA

QUARTERBACK	YEARS	STARTS
Bob Griese	1970-80	119
George Mira	1971	1
Earl Morrall	1972-76	12
Don Strock	1974-87	20

Kyle Mackey (Replacement games)	1987	3
Scott Mitchell	1990-93	7
Steve DeBerg	1993	4
Bernie Kosar	1995	2

In addition, in Shula's coaching career (including his tenure as head coach of the Colts from 1963-69), Marino has accounted for more wins during that span than any other quarterback:

Marino's 116 wins under Shula are the most victories by a head coach-quarterback combination in NFL history, surpassing the previous high of 107 wins recorded by Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll and Terry Bradshaw . . . In addition, the Marino-Shula duo was together for 13 seasons, which is tied for the second longest quarterback-head coach combination in NFL history:

LONGEST RUNNING QUARTERBACK-COACH COMBINATIONS IN NFL HISTORY

QUARTERBACK	COACH	TEAM	YEARS TOGETHER
1. Terry Bradshaw	Chuck Noll	Pittsburgh	1970-1983 (14)
2. DAN MARINO	DON SHULA	MIAMI	1983-1995 (13)

4. Len Dawson	Hank Stram	Kansas City	1963-1974 (12)
5. Bob Griese	Don Shula	Miami	1970-1980 (11)
Roger Staubach	Tom Landry	Dallas	1969-1979 (11)

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1995 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his right knee . . . He joined three other Dolphins, tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox, to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's ninth career Pro Bowl selection (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), and his seventh selection as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he has been able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections extended his Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts extended his own Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . . When Marino was selected to the Pro Bowl following his rookie season in 1983, he became the youngest quarterback ever selected to the Pro Bowl:

YOUNGEST PRO BOWL QUARTERBACKS (1970-96)

QUARTERBACK	TEAM	YEAR	AGE
DAN MARINO*	MIAMI	1983	22 YEARS, 4 MONTHS, 14 DAYS
Drew Bledsoe	New England	1994	22 years, 11 months, 22 days
Brett Favre	Green Bay	1992	23 years, 3 months, 28 days
DAN MARINO	MIAMI	1984	23 YEARS, 4 MONTHS, 12 DAYS
Kerry Collins	Carolina	1996	24 years, 1 month, 4 days

* Did not play due to injury
+ Named to squad by AFC coaching staff as a "need" player

HONORS: Marino was named AFC Player of the Week once in 1995, for the week of December 2-3 following his performance on December 3rd against Atlanta when he went 35-50 for 343 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks . . . His second touchdown pass, a 21-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, came with 11 seconds left in the game, accounting for the final points in the game to bring the Dolphins back from a 20-15 deficit to a 21-20 comeback win . . . His touchdown pass to Fryar also was Marino's 20th TD pass of the season, marking the 12th time in his 13 years in the NFL he has thrown for 20 or more touchdown passes, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 20 or more touchdowns . . . Marino's 343 yards passing versus the Falcons was his third 300-yard passing game of the season and his 52nd career 300-yard passing game in the regular season, breaking Dan Fouts' former NFL record of most career games passing for 300 or more yards (51) . . . In addition, Marino's 35 completions against the Falcons is tied for the second highest completions in a game in Marino's career (accomplished twice previously) and in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his 39 completions at Buffalo on November 16, 1986 . . . It was the 15th time that Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his one playoff game in 1995, an AFC First Round playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo, Marino was 33-64 (51.6%) for 422 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions for a 63.4 rating . . . His 64 attempts is Marino's single game career high (playoffs or regular season), it is the most by any Dolphins player in a postseason or regular season game, breaking Marino's club playoff record of 50 attempts in Super Bowl XIX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985 and it surpassed the overall Dolphins team record of 60 attempts by Marino on October 23, 1988 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . In addition, his 64 attempts ties the second highest single game total in NFL postseason history, matching the record of 64 attempts by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987, surpassed only by the NFL postseason record of 65 pass attempts by San Francisco's Steve Young vs. Green Bay on January 6, 1996 . . . Marino's 33 completions is his single game playoff high and it is the most by any Dolphins player in the postseason, breaking the Dolphins single game playoff record of 29 completions, which was set by Don Strock on January 2, 1982 vs. San Diego and later tied by Marino in Super Bowl XIX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985 . . . It also is tied for the second highest single game total in NFL playoff history, along with the 33 completions by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 and matched by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987, surpassed only by the NFL postseason record of 36 completions by Houston's Warren Moon at Buffalo on January 3, 1993 . . . Marino's 422 yards passing vs. the Bills was the most yards passing by any Dolphins player in the postseason, breaking the Dolphins single game playoff record of 421 yards passing by Marino in the AFC Championship game vs. Pittsburgh on January 6, 1985 . . . It also was the third highest single game total in NFL playoff history, surpassed only by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987 and the 433 yards passing by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 . . . Marino's 422 yards passing was his second 400-yard passing game in 1995 and it also was his 15th career 400-yard passing game (including two playoff games) . . . It also was Marino's 56th career 300-yard passing game (including four playoff games) . . . In that Bills contest, Marino extended his Dolphins career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, playing in 13 playoff games, while Bob Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests:

With his 422 yards passing in 1995 AFC First Round game at Buffalo, Marino has four postseason games of 300 or more passing yards, which ties him with Warren Moon and Troy Aikman for the third highest total in postseason history, surpassed only by the five 300-yard passing games by Dan Fouts and the six 300-yard passing games by Joe Montana . . . Marino's two touchdown passes in that AFC First Round game at Buffalo came on a five-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie and a 45-yard TD pass to Randal Hill . . . Marino has thrown at least one touchdown pass in each of his 13 playoff contests . . . His 13-game postseason streak with at least one touchdown pass established the NFL record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown pass, and he broke that record on December 31, 1984, vs. Kansas City when he threw a touchdown pass for the 11th consecutive game before extending the mark to 13 straight games following his two touchdowns at Buffalo in an AFC First Round playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995:

1994 – Started all 16 games (and both playoff contests) in 1994 and finished the season going 385 for 615 (62.6%) for 4,453 yards, 30 touchdowns, 17 interceptions and 17 sacks for an 89.2 rating . . . In the preseason played in four games and was 22-43 (51.1%) for 314 yards, three touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks for a rating of 79.0 . . . Marino ranked first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Steve Young and Brett Favre) in passing efficiency, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Drew Bledsoe) in attempts, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in completions, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in yards passing, and first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Young and Favre) in touchdown passes . . . It marked the first time that Marino led the AFC in passing efficiency since 1986 . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: With 615 pass attempts in 1994, Marino had the second highest number of attempts in Dolphins history, surpassed only by the team record he set in 1986 with 623 attempts . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis Marino attempted the 6,000th pass of his career, joining Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to record 6,000 pass attempts . . . On Oct. 2, 1994 at Cincinnati, Marino attempted his 5,605th pass of his career and moved past Dan Fouts into second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . With 385 completions in 1994, Marino set a new Dolphins record for most completions in a season, breaking the former team record for most completions in a season, which he set in 1986 with 378 completions . . . On Sept. 25, 1994 at Minnesota, Marino completed the 3,298th pass of his career to move past Fouts into sole possession of second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . Marino's completion percentage in 1994 of 62.6% was the third highest completion percentage of his career and is the fourth highest single season completion percentage in Dolphins history . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 6, 1994 vs. Indianapolis, Marino passed Dan Fouts (43,040 career passing yards) and moved into second place on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list . . . Marino's 4,453 yards passing in 1994 is the third highest single season total in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his NFL record of 5,084 yards passing in 1984 and 4,746 yards passing in 1986 . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis, Marino went over 4,000 yards passing for the season, marking the sixth time in his career he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards in a season, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) . . . Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95) and Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino's six 4,000-yard seasons account for five of the top 22 and six of the 24 leading single season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

On Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, his tenth 3,000-yard season . . . Marino had two 400-yard passing games in 1994, on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when he threw for 473 yards, and on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards . . . Those two figures represent the second highest and sixth highest single game passing yardage totals in Dolphins history . . . Marino had five 300-yard passing games in 1994, on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, when Marino threw for 473 yards, on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards, on Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, when Marino threw for 312 yards, on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets, when Marino threw for 359 yards, and on Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo, when he threw for 311 yards . . . Marino's three consecutive games of 300 or more passing yards (Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, and Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo) tied his own team record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games . . . He previously had three consecutive 300-yard passing games in the 14th through 16th games in 1984 and then tied that record in the 13th through 15th games in 1988 . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: On September 4, 1994 vs. New England, Marino threw for five touchdown passes . . . His second touchdown pass in that contest, a 26-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson, was the 300th touchdown pass of Marino's career . . . He joined Fran Tarkenton (342 career TD passes) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to reach that milestone . . . Marino, who took 157 career games to throw for 300 TD passes, reached that plateau faster than Tarkenton (217 games):

In addition to that game, Marino had one other contest in 1994 when he threw for four or more touchdown passes, throwing four TD passes on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets . . . All four of his TD passes in that Jets contest were caught by Mark Ingram, who tied the Dolphins single game team records for most points, touchdowns, and touchdown receptions, all of which originally were set by Paul Warfield when he had four TD receptions on Dec. 15, 1973 vs. Detroit . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4th vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . On Nov. 13th vs. Chicago, Marino's 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Jackson was his 20th TD pass of the season, his 11th season throwing 20 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino finished the 1994 season with 30 touchdown passes, which is tied for the third highest single season total of his career, surpassed only by his NFL record of 48 touchdown passes in 1984 and his 44 TD passes in 1986 (he also had 30 touchdown passes in 1985) . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Irving Fryar, which was Marino's 30th touchdown pass of the season . . . It marked the fourth time in his career (1984-86, 94) he has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . .

INTERCEPTIONS, SACKS AND RUSHING: Marino did not throw an interception in five games in 1994 (seven, including playoffs), and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those five games (4-3, including playoffs) . . . Overall including the post-season, Marino went the final five games of the 1994 season without throwing an interception (the last three regular season contests and the playoff games on December 31st vs. Kansas City and January 8th at San Diego), covering his last 169 pass attempts . . . On Nov. 6th at Indianapolis, Marino threw an interception to the Colts' Ray Buchanan, who returned it 28 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time Marino had an interception returned for a TD since Bobby Houston of the New York Jets returned a Marino interception for a touchdown on December 20, 1992 in Miami . . . Marino was not sacked in seven games in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit, Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, Oct. 30th at New England, Oct. 9th at Buffalo, Oct. 2nd at Cincinnati and Sept. 18th vs. N.Y. Jets), and the Dolphins went 6-1 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, the most he has been sacked in a game in 1994 and it was tied for the second-highest single game sack total of his career . . . In his first game of the 1994 season, on September 4th vs. New England, Marino finished second on the Dolphins in rushing with eight yards on two carries, including a ten-yard run . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino rushed for a four-yard touchdown, his only rushing touchdown of the 1994 season . . .

COMEBACKS: In 1994, Marino led the Dolphins to four fourth-quarter comebacks: On Nov. 27th in New York, when Marino was 15-18 for 164 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 24-14 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 28-24 win (In addition, Marino brought the Dolphins back from an 18-point deficit in the third quarter (24-6), which tied for the second-best comeback in team history, along with an 18-point rebound on January 4, 1986 in an AFC Playoff contest against the Cleveland Browns in which the Dolphins came back from a 21-3 deficit to post a 24-21 win; the Dolphins had a club-record 24-point comeback on December 15, 1974 vs. New England, rebounding from a 24-0 deficit to a 34-27 victory); On Nov. 6th vs. Indianapolis, when Marino went 13-16 for 123 yards, one touchdown, and one interception in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins back from a 14-6 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 22-21 win; On Oct. 16th vs. the L.A. Raiders, when Marino went 4-9 for 55 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions in the fourth quarter and overtime to lead the Dolphins back from a 17-10 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 20-17 win in overtime; And on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when Marino went 8-13 for 179 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 35-32 deficit in the fourth quarter to a 39-35 victory . . . His 179 yards passing in the fourth quarter of that game are the most yards passing for Marino in the fourth quarter in any of his fourth-quarter comeback wins . . .

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1994 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his Achilles' . . . He joined four other Dolphins, tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, wide receiver Irving Fryar, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox, to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's eighth career Pro Bowl selection and his sixth selection as a starter . . .

HONORS: For the 1994 season, Marino was named as second-team all-NFL by the Associated Press, first team all-AFC by United Press International and Football News, the AFC Most Valuable Player by the National Football League Players Association, and AFC Comeback Player of the Year by the NFLPA . . . Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week Award twice overall in 1994, once in the regular season and once in the playoffs . . . His regular season honor was for the week of Sept. 4-5, when he was selected as AFC Offensive Player of the Week as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . In that game Marino was 23-42 for 473 yards, five touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . His honor in the post-season came when he was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 following his performance in the AFC Wild Card Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31st . . . In that contest, he went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino had thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1994 in balloting of South Florida media for the 11th year . . . Marino also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the tenth time he won that award (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his two games in the 1994 playoffs, Marino was 46-67 (68.7%) for 519 yards, five touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 116.4 . . . In AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 8, 1995 at San Diego, Marino was 24-38 for 262 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions . . . His three touchdown passes was tied for the third highest single game total in Dolphins playoff history . . . In AFC First Round Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31, 1994, went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . His touchdown passes came on a one-yard pass to Ronnie Williams and a seven-yard pass to Irving Fryar . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino has thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino had been tied with ten consecutive post-season games with a TD pass along with Joe Montana (1988-93) and Ken Stabler (1973-77) . . . For his efforts in that Chiefs game, Marino was named as the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 . . . It was the second time Marino won AFC or NFL Offensive Player of the Week honors in 1994, having also won the award for the week of September 4-5 as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . It also was the second time Marino won a post-season award, as he was named as NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the NFL First Round Playoff Games (January 5-6, 1990) following his performance on January 5, 1990 vs. Kansas City . . .

1993 – Played only five games and finished 91-150 (60.7%) for 1,218 yards, eight touchdowns, three interceptions, and seven sacks for a rating of 95.9 . . . Suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10th . . . Was operated on to repair that tendon on October 11, 1993 by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on October 13, 1993 and missed the remainder of the season . . . The first game he missed because of his injury, on Oct. 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his string of playing 145 straight games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season . . . The last games he missed due to injury before that Colts contest were the final two games of the 1983 campaign . . . Started all four preseason games and was 38-71 (53.5%) for 542 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating of 86.7 . . . In 1993 for the first time in his career, Marino did not finish among the conference and league leaders due to his Achilles' injury that ended his season after five games . . . However, at the time of his injury (following the weekend of Oct. 10th), Marino ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in passer ratings, fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in pass attempts, third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in completions, third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in passing yards, and tied for second in the AFC and in the NFL in touchdown passes . . . With his 11-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the fourth quarter on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, Marino went over the 40,000-yard passing mark for his career . . . He became only the fourth quarterback to pass for 40,000 yards and reached that milestone in 153 games, faster than any quarterback in NFL history:

Limited to only five games in 1993, Marino threw for 1,218 yards, the lowest single season figure of his career . . . Marino did not have a 400-yard or 300-yard passing game in 1993 . . . Marino's first touchdown pass at Indianapolis on September 5, 1993, a 40-yard toss to Keith Jackson, gave him 291 touchdown passes for his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas and moving him into sole possession of second place on the NFL's all-time TD list . . . On October 4, 1993 vs. Washington, Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Tony Martin . . . It was tied for the third longest pass play in Marino's career and it was tied for the fourth longest play in Dolphins history . . . It also was the longest play by the Dolphins since Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds on November 27, 1988 at the N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in all five of his regular season games in 1993 . . . Marino did not throw an interception in two of his five games in 1993, and the Dolphins went 1-1 in those two contests . . . Marino was sacked seven times in his five games in 1993 . . . Marino was sacked four times on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, the most he was sacked in a game in 1993 . . . It was the ninth time in his career he was sacked four or more times and was one sack shy of his single game career high of five sacks . . . On September 26, 1993 at Buffalo, Marino scored on a four-yard touchdown run . . . It was the seventh time in the regular season (and eighth overall) that Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . In 1993, Marino led the Dolphins to one fourth quarter comeback, on Sept. 5th at Indianapolis, from a 20-17 deficit to a 24-20 victory . . . Marino won the AFC Player of the Week Award once in 1993, for the week of September 26, 1993, when he was 20-32 for 282 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and one rushing touchdown in the Dolphins' 22-13 win at Buffalo over the Bills . . .

1992 – In 1992 he started all 16 games and was 330-554 (59.6%) for 4,116 yards, 24 touchdowns, 16 interceptions, and 28 sacks for a rating of 85.1 . . . Marino finished second in the AFC (behind Warren Moon's rating of 89.3) and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.1 . . . He was first in the AFC and the NFL in pass attempts (554), first in the AFC and the NFL in completions (330), first in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards (4,116), and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL in touchdown passes (24) . . . Marino's league-leading 554 pass attempts marked the fourth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass attempts during a season . . . Marino's league-leading 330 pass completions marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Dan Fouts (3,297) and Fran Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino opened the game by completing his first 11 pass attempts, and coupled with his four consecutive completions at the end of his previous contest, on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, his 15 straight completions set a new personal high as well as a new Dolphins team record for most consecutive completions . . . The previous Dolphins record was 13 straight completions, set by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 against New England:

MIAMI DOLPHINS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS HIGHS

Marino threw for 4,116 yards in 1992, the fifth season he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . In addition, in the Houston contest on Nov. 22, 1992, Marino also extended his own NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons to nine seasons (1984-92) . . . Marino's league-leading 4,116 passing yards marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season . . . Marino had three 300-yard games in 1992, on November 16th vs. Buffalo (321 yards), October 25th vs. Indianapolis (355 yards) and on September 14th at Cleveland (322 yards) and the Dolphins were 1-2 in those contests . . . Marino's two touchdown passes on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets gave him 290 touchdown passes for his career, tying him with Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time TD list . . . He passed for four touchdowns on October 18th against New England, tying him with Johnny Unitas' NFL record of 17 career four-touchdown passing games . . . It was his first four-TD game since he threw four touchdown passes on December 12, 1988 against the Cleveland Browns . . . In addition to his four TD passes against the Patriots, Marino threw for three touchdown passes one other time in 1992, on October 4th at Buffalo . . . On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his NFL record of most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to ten seasons (1983-92) . . . Had five games in 1992 (six, including post-season play) without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those contests (4-2 including playoffs) . . . He threw three interceptions in 1992 that were returned for touchdowns: Bobby Houston of the N.Y. Jets on Dec. 20th, Eddie Anderson of the L.A. Raiders on Dec. 14th, and Vince Buck of the Saints on Nov. 29th . . . Anderson returned his Marino interception 102 yards for a touchdown, accounting for the Raiders' only score of the game . . . His 102-yard return was tied for the third longest interception return in NFL history and was the longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history . . . Marino was sacked 28 times in 1992, the highest single season sack total of his career, surpassing his 27 sacks in 1991 . . . Marino had two games in the regular season (Oct. 4th at Buffalo and Sept. 20th vs. L.A. Rams) and one in the playoffs (Jan. 10th vs. San Diego) in 1992 in which he was not sacked . . . On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, Marino was sacked five times, the most he has been sacked in a single game in his career (his previous high had been four sacks six different games, including the previous two contests) . . . It was the third straight game (including Nov. 22nd vs. Houston and Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo) that Marino was sacked four or more times, and he was sacked a total of 13 times in those three games . . . One of Marino's five sacks on Nov. 29th at New Orleans resulted in a defensive touchdown when he fumbled after being sacked by Pat Swilling and the fumble was returned 28 yards for a touchdown by Robert Goff . . . It was the first time that Marino lost a fumble after a sack that was returned for a touchdown since Nov. 18, 1991 vs. Buffalo when Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and returned his fumble six yards for a touchdown . . . When he was sacked in the end zone by Marvin Washington for a safety on Nov. 1st at the N.Y. Jets, it marked the first time in Marino's career he was sacked for a safety . . . Marino finished third on the Dolphins in rushing in 1992 with 66 yards on 20 carries, an average of 3.3 yards per rush . . . His 66 yards rushing was greater than his career rushing total (43 yards) that he accumulated heading into the 1992 season, and also had his single season career rushing best, surpassing his previous single season rushing high, which he set in his rookie year of 1983 when he ran for 45 yards on 28 carries . . . Marino had to leave a game twice in 1992 due to injuries . . . He missed one snap on Dec. 27th at New England due to a twisted knee . . . Marino suffered a mild concussion late in the fourth quarter on September 27th at Seattle, forcing him to miss one snap in Miami's game-winning drive (Scott Mitchell completed a key 18-yard pass on third down in his place) before returning to throw the winning 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks on his third play back, and then also missed the next series when Mitchell ran out the clock to preserve the victory . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to miss a snap due to an injury since November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in his shoulder), forcing him to leave that game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . . In 1992, Marino led the Dolphins to six fourth quarter comebacks, Dec. 27th at New England (from 6-13 to 16-13), on Dec. 20th vs. N.Y. Jets (from 16-17 to 19-17), Nov. 22nd vs. Houston (from 13-16 to 19-16), October 11th vs. Atlanta (from 14-17 to 21-17), on September 27th at Seattle (from 12-17 to 19-17), and on September 14th at Cleveland (from 20-23 to 27-23) . . . In his two games in the 1992 playoffs Marino was 39-74 (52.7%) for 435 yards, four touchdowns, two interceptions, and four sacks for a 77.3 rating . . . In AFC title game vs. Buffalo on January 17th, Marino was 22-45 for 268 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and four sacks . . . In first playoff game in 1992, on January 10th vs. San Diego, Marino was 17-29 for 167 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks . . . His three touchdown passes is tied for the third best single game mark in Dolphins playoff history . . . Marino was named as the starting quarterback on the 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . He joined three other Dolphins who were named as starters on the AFC Pro Bowl squad: offensive lineman Richmond Webb, outside linebacker Bryan Cox, and tight end Keith Jackson (who missed the game due to injury) . . . It was Marino's seventh career Pro Bowl selection and his fifth selection as a starter . . . League-wide in 1992, Marino was named to the All-AFC first team by Football News and United Press International and was named second-team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Newspaper Enterprise Association . . .

Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1992 in balloting of South Florida media for the tenth straight year . . . He also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the ninth time he won that award.

1991 – In 1991 he started all 16 games and was 318-549 (57.9%) for 3,970 yards, 25 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a rating of 85.8 . . . In his first eight games of the year, Marino was 142-260 (54.6%) with 1,811 yards (an average of 226 yards per game), eight touchdowns and six interceptions, with the Dolphins going 3-5 . . . In his last eight games, Marino was 176-289 (60.1%) for 2,159 yards (an average of 270 yards per game), 17 touchdowns and seven interceptions, and the Dolphins were 5-3 in those contests . . . He threw 16 touchdown passes in his last seven games . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Dan Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . Marino finished third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.8 . . . Was second in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards with 3,970 yards, was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in touchdown passes with 25, was second in the AFC and the NFL in completions with 318, and was second in the AFC and the NFL in attempts with 549 . . . With 3,970 yards passing in 1991, Marino missed by 30 yards passing to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark . . . On Dec. 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, and he became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight seasons (1984-91) . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1991 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards three times in 1991: on Oct. 6th at New England (321 yards), on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo (326 yards), and on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay (307 yards) . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1991 . . . The three games in 1991 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 42-7 loss at Kansas City on Oct. 13th, a 16-13 win vs. Green Bay on September 22nd and in a 17-14 loss at Detroit on September 15th . . . The games against Green Bay and Detroit were only the second time in his career he failed to throw a touchdown pass in back-to-back games, with the other time coming on December 10, 1989 vs. New England and December 17, 1989 at Indianapolis . . . Those back-to-back touchdown-less games against the Packers and Lions comprised the bulk of a streak of nine consecutive quarters that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass, the longest such stretch of his career . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third, before ending when Marino threw a TD pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter on Sept 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw for three touchdown passes in four games in 1991: On Sept. 1st at Buffalo, Nov. 10th vs. New England, Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, and Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . On Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, marking the ninth time in his nine-year career he has thrown for 20 or more touchdowns passes in a season . . . He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino threw 13 interceptions in 1991, tied for the fourth lowest total of his career (in a full season) . . . His three interceptions Oct. 20th at Houston was his 1991 single game high, and it was the first time he threw three or more interceptions since he had three INTs on September 9, 1990 at New England . . . Had seven games in 1991 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 4-3 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked 27 times for 182 yards in losses in 1991, the second highest total of his career, surpassed only by his

28 sacks in 1992 . . . Overall in 1991, Marino and Scott Secules (one sack), were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest quarterback sacks allowed . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego he was sacked by the Chargers' Leslie O'Neal in the fourth quarter, forcing Marino to fumble and the Chargers recovered on the Dolphins' 13-yard line . . . San Diego went in to score a touchdown to give them a 24-23 lead that they did not relinquish . . . On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he was sacked for a nine-yard loss by Cornelius Bennett, forcing Marino to fumble . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown . . . Had one touchdown rushing in 1991, coming on a 10-yard scramble on Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . It was the longest touchdown run of his career . . . Was named as a reserve quarterback on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his sixth career Pro Bowl selection but he was unable to play in the game due to his recovery from arthroscopic knee surgery . . . His selection broke a three-year streak (1988-90) in which he did not make the Pro Bowl . . . Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for December 1-2 after going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in Dolphins' 33-14 victory over Tampa Bay . . . In that game, Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 in balloting of South Florida media for the ninth straight year.

1990 – Was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3,563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes was the third fewest of his career in a full season (behind only his 20 TD passes as a rookie in 1983 and his 17 touchdown passes in 1996), but his 11 interceptions also was the third fewest of his career in a full season (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983 and his nine interceptions in 1996) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain was the second lowest among the top twenty quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2,334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . Marino finished fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in passing with a rating of 82.6 . . . His 531 attempts were second in the AFC and third in the NFL, his 306 completions were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 3,563 passing yards were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 21 touchdown passes were fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL, and his 2.1 interception percentage was second lowest in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990 at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts . . . Marino joined San Francisco's Joe Montana as the only active quarterbacks with 30,000-plus passing yards, while Steve DeBerg joined that group in 1991, Warren Moon, Phil Simms, and John Elway joined that group in 1992, Dave Krieg joined in 1993, Boomer Esiason joined in 1994, and Jim Everett and Jim Kelly joined in 1995:

Did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1990, but did have two 300-yard efforts, on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 91 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 191 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses . . . Overall, Dolphins quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league (a streak that ended in 1991), including each of Marino's first eight years with the club . . . Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 19, 1990 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12th . . . In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-38) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs in AFC First Round Playoff Game on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in next game, in AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incompletion . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the fourth-longest streak in team history and the longest in Dolphins postseason history . . . Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the first round playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year.

1989 – In 1989 was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets on Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Rypien for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England was the 200th career TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . He reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in but his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When Bills NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one each by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphins team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts both are the lowest single game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 – Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions (23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the high yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphins single game record, but it also is the fourth highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
Boomer Esiason, Arizona	59-35	522	3 TDs	Won vs. Wash.	11/10/96
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. N.Y. Jets	10/23/88
Phil Simms, Giants	62-40	513	1 TD	Lost vs. Cin.	10/13/85

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphins team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried ball 20 times for minus-17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time . . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphins history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had then-career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 – Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passing rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 – Led AFC in passing (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . Set an NFL record of three consecutive seasons throwing for 30 or more touchdown passes (a record Brett Favre tied in 1996) . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's Player of the Month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta (11/30).

1985 – Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 – Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . His completions record was later broken by Warren Moon in 1991 . . . Marino's 48 touchdowns are more than 22 of Miami's 23 other quarterbacks have thrown in their Dolphin careers . . . Only Bob Griese (192) threw for more touchdowns in his career than Marino recorded in 1984 . . . In addition, Marino's 5,084 yards in 1984 are more than 21 of those quarterbacks threw in their Dolphin careers, surpassed only by Griese (25,092 yards) and David Woodley (5,928) . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship Game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 – Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Mark Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first NFL drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Graduated as school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett (Dallas) . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Tampa Bay/Miami) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton) . . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5) for 2,876 yards, 37 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was MVP at Sugar Bowl that year for second-ranked Panthers, completing 26 passes for 261 yards and three TDs in 24-20 edging of Georgia . . . Led Pitt to Gator Bowl in 1980, completing 116 of 224 throws (51.8) for 1,609 yards, 15 TDs and 14 interceptions . . . Became starter midway through freshman season of '79, hitting on 130 of 222 passes (58.6) for 1,680 yards, 10 scores and nine pick-offs . . . Suffered knee injury versus West Virginia that season, missing three games and later requiring off-season surgery . . . Has B.A. in communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Claire (1/30/85), Marino and his wife have four children, Daniel Charles (9/4/86), Michael Joseph (5/18/88), Joseph Donald (7/26/89) and Alexandra Claire (5/13/92) and reside in Fort Lauderdale . . . An outstanding golfer . . . Teamed with golf pro Dan Pohl to win the championship at the AT&T Pebble Beach National ProAm in February, 1988, at Pebble Beach, Calif . . . Wide Receiver   #81
Born: 12/2/69
College: Penn State '93
Acquired: D1, 1993
Signed Through: 2000
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season

PRO: 1996 – Underwent surgery to repair bi-lateral inguinal hernias (double hernia) by Dr. Joseph Diaco at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tampa, Fla. on May 6, 1997 . . . Started all 16 games . . . Finished as club's leading receiver with 74 catches for 918 yards and eight touchdowns in 1996 . . . His 74 catches and his 918 yards in receptions both represent his single season career highs . . . In addition, his 74 catches is the third highest single season total in Dolphins history, surpassed only by Terry Kirby's 75 catches in 1993 and Mark Clayton's team record of 86 receptions in 1988:

SINGLE-SEASON DOLPHINS RECEPTION LEADERS

PLAYER	YEAR	RECEPTIONS
1. Mark Clayton	1988	86
2. Terry Kirby	1993	75
3. O.J. McDUFFIE	1996	74
4. Mark Clayton	1984	73
5. Irving Fryar	1994	73

McDuffie finished ranked tenth in AFC and 19th in NFL in receiving and was 13th in AFC in reception yardage . . . Also finished seventh in the AFC with a punt return average of 9.6 yards per return, with 212 yards on 22 returns with a long of 19 . . . Led the Dolphins in receptions ten times and in receiving yardage six times . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Tied for team-lead with three catches for 30 yards and scored first TD reception of season on a five-yard grab at Arizona (9/8) . . . Led team with seven catches for 86 yards against N.Y. Jets (9/15), tying for third-highest reception total of his career . . . Tied for team-lead with four catches and topped club with 62 receiving yards at Indianapolis (9/23), when he hauled in a 34-yard pass, tied for his third-longest reception of the season and the fifth of his career . . . Led Dolphins in receiving and reception yardage at Philadelphia (10/20) with seven catches for 121 yards and two touchdowns . . . His seven catches tied for third highest regular season single game total, and 121 yards in receptions is his regular season single game career high, surpassed only by his 154 reception yards in an AFC Wild Card Game at Buffalo on Dec. 30, 1995 . . . His two touchdown catches against the Eagles came on 24-yard pass from Craig Erickson and 17-yard pass from Bernie Kosar . . . It was second time in his career he had two touchdown receptions in a single game (having also caught two TD passes on November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis) . . . Also caught a 36-yard pass in the Eagles contest, tied for his longest catch of the year and the second longest of his career . . . Led Miami in both receptions and yardage with five for 84 yards, including a 29-yard TD reception, at New England (11/3) . . . Led Miami in both receiving and in reception yardage at Indianapolis (11/10) with six catches for 106 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 12-yard pass from Dan Marino . . . His 106 yards in receptions is the third highest regular season single game total of his career (and fourth overall, including playoffs) . . . It also was his third regular season game (and fourth game overall) of 100 or more yards in receptions . . . His season-long 36-yard reception from Dan Marino in the second quarter was tied for McDuffie's second longest reception of his career, and also put Marino over 50,000 yards passing for his career . . . Established a personal single game high in regular season games with eight receptions, at Houston (11/17) . . . His eight catches, along with his 86 yards, both led the Dolphins that day . . . Closed out the year by catching a TD pass in each of Miami's final two games (vs. Buffalo 12/16 and at N.Y. Jets 12/22) . . .

FIRST DOWNS: Over the course of his four-year NFL career, McDuffie has touched the ball 203 times (192 catches and 11 rushes) on offense and converted those into 150 first downs (145 by passing and five rushing) . . . On third down in his career, McDuffie has touched the ball 78 times (77 catches and one rush) and has picked up a first down 70 times (69 by passing and one by rushing), while on fourth down, McDuffie has touched the ball twice (both receptions) and has picked up a first down both times:

Had three receptions for 46 yards with a touchdown and added one rush for 11 yards, his first rushing attempt of season, against New England (11/12) . . . Notched six catches for 66 yards against San Francisco (11/20) with one touchdown, quarterback Dan Marino's 342nd TD pass of career, tying him with Fran Tarkenton for first place on NFL's all-time list . . . His touchdown against 49ers was fourth of season, a new career-high . . . Led club with six catches for 76 yards and two touchdowns at Indianapolis (11/26), first game of career with two or more touchdown receptions . . . Had regular-season-high 96 receiving yards on six catches vs. Atlanta (12/3) . . . Scored a touchdown to go along with four catches for 34 yards against Kansas City (12/11) . . . Tied for team-lead with four receptions and led club with 79 receiving yards at Buffalo (12/17) and added one rush for no yards . . . Concluded regular season at St. Louis (12/24) with three catches for 61 yards and one touchdown, including career-long 48-yard reception . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo (12/30) . . . Established team playoff record with 11 receptions for 154 yards . . . His 11 receptions broke old playoff mark of ten established twice by running back Tony Nathan, who caught ten passes in Super Bowl XIX versus San Francisco (1/20/85) and in AFC Divisional Playoff game against Cleveland (1/4/86) . . . His 154 receiving yards broke old playoff mark of 148 yards, set by wide receiver Mark Duper in divisional playoff versus Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . His 280 combined yards (154 receiving, nine rushing, 12 punt returns and 105 kickoff returns) set an all-time Dolphins postseason mark and is second all-time in club history, behind Mercury Morris' 302 total yards (89 rushing, 68 receiving, 142 kick/punt returns) at Baltimore on Nov. 1, 1970 . . . After a fourth quarter touchdown by running back Terry Kirby, caught first two-point conversion in team playoff history.

1994 – Played in 15 games with three starts in the regular season and started both playoff contests . . . Finished with 37 catches for 488 yards and three touchdowns . . . Added five rushes for 32 yards . . . Ranked fifth on team in receptions and fourth in reception yards . . . BERNIE PARMALEE
5-11   210
Running Back   #30
Born: 9/16/67
College: Ball State '92
Acquired: FA, 1992
Signed Through: 1997
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season

PRO: 1996 – Played in all 16 games . . . Finished third on team in rushing with 25 carries for 80 yards and added 21 catches for 189 yards . . . Contributed with eight tackles on special teams . . . Rushed for season-high 32 yards on eight carries, including a season-long run of 17 yards, against New England (9/1) . . . Had season-high four catches for 48 yards at New England (11/3) . . . Tied season-best with four receptions to go along with season-high 50 receiving yards, at Oakland (12/1) . . . His 50 yards in receptions is the second highest single-game total of his career, surpassed only by his 91 yards in receptions on November 12, 1995, against New England . . .
100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Parmalee has six 100-yard rushing games in his career, three in 1995 and three in 1994: 102 yards on Nov. 26, 1995, at Indianapolis; 103 yards on Nov. 5, 1995 at San Diego; 120 yards on Oct. 22, 1995, at N.Y. Jets; 127 yards on Dec. 12, 1994, vs. Kansas City; 123 yards at New England on October 30, 1994; and 150 yards vs. L.A. Raiders on Oct. 16, 1994 . . . His three 100-yard games in 1995 was the second time he gained 100 or more yards three times in a single season (he also had three 100-yard games in 1994), and it ties him for fourth place on Dolphins all-time list of most 100-yard games in a single season . . . His six career 100-yard games ties him with Delvin Williams for fifth place on the Dolphin all-time list of most career 100-yard rushing games:

MOST 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES IN DOLPHINS HISTORY

PLAYER	100-YARD RUSHING GAMES	SEASONS
Larry Csonka	15	1968-74, 1979
Mercury Morris	10	1969-75

Mark Higgs	7	1990-94
BERNIE PARMALEE	6	1992-95
Delvin Williams	6	1978-80
Jim Kiick	5	1968-74

1995 – Had most productive season of NFL career . . . Played in all 16 regular season games with 12 starts and started playoff contest . . . Finished with 236 carries for 878 yards (3.7 avg.) with a long of 40 yards and nine touchdowns . . . Added 39 receptions for 345 yards with a long of 35 yards and one score . . . Set career-highs in rushing yards, receptions, receiving yards, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns . . . His rushing yards led the team (tenth-highest season rushing total in club history) and finished eighth in AFC . . . Became just fourth back in club history to rush for 800 or more yards in two or more seasons (he had 868 in 1994), joining Larry Csonka (1970-73, 1979), Mercury Morris (1972-73), and Mark Higgs (1991-92) . . . Also led club and ranked 12th in AFC in total yards from scrimmage with 1,223 yards (878 yards rushing and 345 yards receiving) . . . Ranked second on team with 60 points (nine touchdowns rushing and one touchdown receiving) . . . Led Dolphins in rushing on ten occasions, in receptions once and in receiving yards once . . . Started season-opener against N.Y. Jets (9/3) and led club with 52 yards rushing on 16 carries and scored two touchdowns, his second multiple touchdown game of career . . . Gained 72 yards on 15 carries and added three receptions for 22 yards at New England (9/10) . . . Came off bench against Pittsburgh (9/18) and scored a touchdown to go along with 13 yards on eight carries . . . Caught three passes for 41 yards, including a career-best 35-yarder, against Indianapolis (10/8) . . . Started at N.Y. Jets and led club in rushing with 120 yards on 24 carries and added six receptions for 12 yards against Jets . . . Led club against Buffalo (10/29) with 83 yards on 20 carries and a touchdown and added career-high 48 receiving yards on three receptions . . . Had team-high 103 rushing yards on 19 carries (including a 40-yarder) at San Diego (11/5) . . . Notched career-high 91 receiving yards on six receptions against New England (11/12) . . . Scored a touchdown and ran for 34 yards on nine carries against San Francisco (11/20) . . . Had third 100-yard game of season (tying single-season career-high achieved in 1994) by rushing for 102 yards on 20 carries at Indianapolis (11/26) . . . Ran for 70 yards on 19 carries and a touchdown and added four catches for 19 yards at Atlanta (12/3) . . . Tallied 83 yards on 24 carries and added two receptions for nine yards vs. Kansas City (12/11) . . . Started AFC First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo (12/30) and ran five times for 13 yards and caught four passes for 51 yards . . . Underwent surgery on right knee to repair torn Anterior Cruciate ligament by Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell at Doctors Hospital in Coral Gables on January 19, 1996 . . .

1994 – Played in 15 games with ten starts in regular season and started both playoff contests . . . Finished with 216 carries for 868 yards (4.0 yards per rush) with six touchdowns . . . Added 34 receptions for 249 yards and one touchdown . . . Ranked eighth in AFC and 16th in NFL in rushing, 14th in AFC in total yards, and tied for 11th in AFC and tied for 25th in NFL in touchdowns . . . Led team in rushing 11 times during season . . . Gained 736 yards on 182 carries (4.0 yards per carry) in his ten starts for an average of 73.6 yards per game . . . If those ten games were projected over a 16-game schedule, he would have totaled 1,178 rushing yards . . .
BIGGEST RUSHING IMPROVEMENT: Parmalee was the NFL's most improved running back in 1994 . . . After gaining only 14 rushing yards in 1993, his increase to 868 yards in 1994 was an improvement of 854 yards . . . That total was the largest single season rushing improvement in Dolphins history and also was the largest improvement by any NFL running back in 1994 from his 1993 total (not counting rookie running back totals, and Minnesota's Terry Allen, who missed the entire 1993 season on Injured Reserve):

5. Leroy Hoard	Cleveland	227	890	+ 663

BACK-TO-BACK RUSHING YARDAGE: Parmalee posted the most productive two-game streak of any running back in team history . . . Had combined total of 273 rushing yards in consecutive games (150 yards on 30 carries on October 16 against the L.A. Raiders and 123 yards on 25 carries on October 30 at New England) to set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, breaking the former team record of 258 yards rushing in back-to-back games that was set by Mercury Morris in 1973:

MOST RUSHING YARDS IN BACK-TO-BACK GAMES

PLAYER	COMBINED RUSHING YARDS	BACK-TO-BACK GAMES
BERNIE PARMALEE	273	30 carries for 150 yards vs. L.A. Raiders, 10/16/94 25 carries for 123 yards at New England, 10/30/94
Mercury Morris	258	15 carries for 197 yards vs. New England, 9/30/73 18 carries for 61 yards at N.Y. Jets, 10/7/73
Mark Higgs	257	30 carries for 146 yards at Buffalo, 9/1/91 27 carries for 111 yards vs. Indianapolis, 9/8/91

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Rushed for 37 yards on ten carries and first career touchdown, against N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . Saw extensive action at Minnesota (9/25) in place of injured Terry Kirby and led team in rushing with 22 yards on six carries and a score and added one catch for nine yards . . . Came off bench to lead team with 73 yards on 18 carries and added three catches for minus-two yards at Cincinnati (10/2) . . . Made first NFL start, at Buffalo (10/9), and had team-high 91 rushing yards on 15 carries with long of 27 yards . . . Earned game balls for both offense and special teams against L.A. Raiders (10/16) with 150 rushing yards on 30 carries, while also recovering a fumble off a Tim Brown punt return that eventually led to a Miami touchdown . . . Rushing total was most by a Dolphins player since Sammie Smith gained 159 yards at New England on September 9, 1990 . . . Parmalee's 30 rushing attempts was the third highest single-game total in Dolphins history (behind 31 carries by Mercury Morris at Green Bay on October 5, 1975, and 33 carries by Larry Csonka against Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII on January 13, 1974) . . . Had second consecutive 100-yard game, at New England (10/30), with 123 yards on 25 carries and added four receptions for 21 yards . . . Marked ninth time in team history a runner had consecutive 100 rushing yard games, tying the club record (the last was Mark Higgs in 1991) and his total of 273 yards rushing in those two contests set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous two-game best of 258 rushing yards by Mercury Morris in successive games in 1973 . . . Had team-high 81 yards on 22 carries and added two catches for 11 yards against Indianapolis (11/6) before being forced from game permanently in second half with right knee and shoulder injuries . . . Missed contest against Chicago (11/13) due to knee injury . . . Returned to starting role at Pittsburgh (11/20) and gained 29 yards on 16 carries . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week with 19 carries for 127 yards and one touchdown and adding two catches for 32 yards and a touchdown against Kansas City (12/12) . . . It was his first time winning that honor, and was just the second time a Dolphins running back had captured that award (Troy Stradford was named as the Offensive Player of the Week following the 11th weekend of the 1987 season) . . . Had 33 rushing yards on 16 carries and tied for team lead with five catches for 44 yards at Indianapolis (12/18) . . . Closed regular season against Detroit (12/25) with 18 carries for 39 yards and three touchdowns and added five catches for 47 yards . . . Tied a team record for most rushing touchdowns in a game, which was accomplished 12 previous times, most recently by Sammie Smith against New England on December 10, 1989 . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games . . . Led team in rushing with 73 yards on 25 carries and one touchdown and added four catches for 42 yards . . . Rushed for 57 yards on 18 carries and scored one touchdown and added two catches for 34 yards in First-Round Playoff game against Kansas City (12/31) . . . Recorded 16 yards on seven carries in Divisional Playoff Game at San Diego (1/8/95).

1993 – Played in all 16 games . . . Finished with four carries for 16 yards and one reception for one yard . . . Ranked tied for second on team with ten special teams tackles . . . Recorded only carries of the season, at San Diego (12/27), by gaining 16 yards on four carries, including a long run of 12 yards . . . Also recorded first career NFL reception with one catch for a one-yard gain against Chargers.

1992 – Played in ten regular season games and one playoff contest as rookie in 1992 . . . Saw action as reserve running back and kickoff returner . . . Signed by Miami as undrafted free agent on May 1, 1992 . . . Rushed six times for 38 yards with a long of 20 yards . . . Added seven special teams tackles and 14 kickoff returns for 289 yards for a 20.6 average and a long of 32 yards . . . Waived on final roster cut on August 31 . . . Signed for team's practice squad on September 1 . . . Activated by team on October 21 after running back Aaron Craver was placed on Injured Reserve . . . Saw first NFL action, vs. Houston (10/22) . . . Had only rushing attempts of regular season, at Indianapolis (11/8), with six carries for 38 yards . . . Saw action in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) and rushed five times for 18 yards with a long of six yards . . . Was de-activated on January 16, 1993, and missed AFC Championship game.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Ball State . . . Graduated as school's all-time leading rusher with 805 carries for 3,483 yards and 26 touchdowns . . . Added 96 catches for 812 yards and three scores . . . Had 16 career games of over 100 yards . . . Named second-team All-Mid American Conference as senior . . . STANLEY PRITCHETT
6-1   245
Fullback   #36
Born: 12/22/73
College: South Carolina '96
Acquired: D4b, 1996
Signed Through: 1998
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season

PRO: Started all 16 games at fullback as rookie . . . Finished with 27 yards rushing on seven carries and was third on team in receptions and fourth in reception yardage with 33 catches for 354 yards and two touchdowns . . . Led the Dolphins in receiving twice and in reception yardage once . . . Caught four passes in a game on three occasions . . . Along with Karim Abdul-Jabbar, it marked the first time in Dolphins history that two rookies started in the backfield on opening day (against New England, 9/1) . . . Along with Daryl Gardener and Zach Thomas, it was the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins started four rookies in the season-opener . . . Proved to be an integral blocker for Abdul-Jabbar, who rushed for 1,116 yards, the second-highest total among NFL rookies in 1996 and the third-best performance ever by Dolphins player . . . Led team in both receptions and receiving yardage with six catches for 77 yards in season-opener against New England (9/1) . . . Had 52-yard catch in that contest, marking the longest reception by a Miami running back since Sammie Smith had a 53-yard catch against Indianapolis on December 30, 1990 . . . Hauled in 74-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino against N.Y. Jets (9/15), marking the longest reception by a Dolphins running back in club history, and the second-longest reception by a Dolphins rookie in club history, surpassed only by tight end Ferrell Edmunds' 80-yard touchdown reception as rookie on November 27, 1988 . . . Season-high rushing total of 16 yards occurred at Buffalo (10/13), when he carried the ball just once . . . Had 16-yard scoring reception against Dallas (10/27) . . . Fourth-round draft choice (118th overall) of Miami in 1996

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and two-year starter at South Carolina . . . Posted career stats of 252 rushes for 1,096 yards with 16 touchdowns and 111 receptions for 1,041 yards and six scores . . . Ranked fourth on school's all-time career record list . . . Played in 11 games with ten starts as senior . . . Named second-team All-Southeastern Conference . . . Finished with 86 rushes for 333 yards (3.9 avg.) and eight touchdowns and added 62 receptions for 664 yards (10.7 avg.) with four scores . . . Started first three games at tailback before moving to fullback . . . Snared nine passes for 131 yards, including a 92-yard touchdown, and scored on a one-yard rushing touchdown in first game at fullback, against Kentucky . . . Named SEC Player of the Week by scoring on runs of eight, one and six yards while adding 12 catches for 113 yards with a touchdown against Mississippi State . . . Played in 11 games with ten starts as junior . . . Finished with 130 rushes for 601 yards (4.6 avg.) with eight

Born: 1/3/65
College: Miami, Fla. '88
Acquired: UFA (Phi.), 1996
Signed Through: 1999
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Second Season

PRO: 1996 – Played in 16 games with 15 starts . . . Has played in 128 games in his career, and never missed a game due to injury . . . Signed with Dolphins as unrestricted free agent from Philadelphia on April 4, 1996 . . . Opened 14 contests at right defensive end and one on left side . . . Finished with 47 tackles (36 solo), two forced fumbles, one pass defensed and was second on team with nine sacks . . . Ranked ninth in AFC and 20th in NFL in sacks . . . His nine sacks matches the highest single season total of his career, along with his nine sacks in 1992 as a member of the Cincinnati Bengals . . . Recorded a sack in each of first four games, six of first seven and seven of first nine . . . Saw only reserve role of the year, at Buffalo (10/13), and registered career-high eight tackles and a sack . . . Made only start at left end, at Philadelphia (10/20), and posted four tackles including one sack . . . Produced four tackles against Dallas (10/27) . . . Recorded four tackles, a sack and a forced fumble at New England (11/3) . . . Caused safety against Indianapolis (11/10) when he pressured Colts QB Jim Harbaugh into intentional grounding penalty in own end zone . . . It was first safety by Dolphins since December 30, 1990, when Colts QB Jeff George was called for intentional grounding in end zone . . . Had five tackles against N.Y. Giants (12/8) . . . Registered three tackles, including one sack and one forced fumble, both coming on the final play of the game when he tackled Bills quarterback Jim Kelly for a three-yard loss, forcing him to fumble the ball over to Norman Hand, preserving the Dolphins' victory against Buffalo (12/16) . . .

AMONG SACK LEADERS: Ranked ninth in AFC and 20th in NFL in sacks . . . His nine sacks, combined with Trace Armstrong's 12 sacks, is the fifth highest single season sack total by a pair of Dolphins in club history:

DOLPHINS SINGLE-SEASON SACK COMBINATIONS

YEAR	PLAYER	SACKS	PLAYER	SACKS	TOTAL
1973	Vern Den Herder	10.0	Bill Stanfill	18.5	28.5
1983	Doug Betters	16.0	Bob Baumhower	8.0	24.0
1984	Doug Betters	14.0	Charles Bowser	9.0	23.0
1983	Doug Betters	16.0	Charles Bowser	6.5	22.5
1996	TRACE ARMSTRONG	12.0	DANIEL STUBBS	9.0	21.0

In addition, Armstrong and Stubbs combined to rank tied for fifth in the NFL and third in the AFC in combined sacks from a tandem:

NFL'S LEADING SACK COMBINATIONS IN 1996

TEAM	PLAYER	SACKS	PLAYER	SACKS	TOTAL
Carolina	Kevin Greene	14.5	Lamar Lathan	13.5	28.0
Seattle	Michael Sinclair	13.0	Michael McCreary	12.5	25.5
S.F.	Roy Barker	12.5	Bryant Young	11.5	24.0
Buffalo	Bruce Smith	13.5	Phil Hansen	8.0	21.5
MIAMI	TRACE ARMSTRONG	12.0	DANIEL STUBBS	9.0	21.0
Phil.	William Fuller	13.0	Mike Mamula	8.0	21.0
Minn.	John Randle	11.5	Fernando Smith	9.5	21.0

The chart is limited to one tandem per team and as a result does not include multiple sack tandems from the same team, involving San Francisco's Barker, Young and Doleman (11 sacks) and Seattle's Sinclair, McCreary and Cortez Kennedy (eight sacks).

ZACH THOMAS

5-11   235
Linebacker   #54
Born: 9/1/73
College: Texas Tech '96
Acquired: D5c, 1996
Signed Through: 1998
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season

PRO: Started all 16 games at middle linebacker as a rookie . . . Finished as team's leading tackler with 180 tackles (131 solo), and added two sacks, three interceptions, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and five passes defensed . . . Also recorded two special teams tackles and one kickoff return for 17 yards . . . His three interceptions tied with eight others for second-most by a Dolphins linebacker in club history, surpassed only by John Bramlett, who had four interceptions in 1967 . . . It is the most interceptions by a Dolphins linebacker since Earnie Rhone had three in 1981, and also is the most ever by a Dolphins rookie linebacker . . . Made NFL debut in start at middle linebacker against New England (9/1) and led the team with 13 tackles, including one sack . . . Along with Karim Abdul-Jabbar, Daryl Gardener, and Stanley Pritchett, it was only the third time in club history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins started four rookies in the season opener . . . Led the Dolphins with 15 tackles at Arizona (9/8) and also forced fumble and recovered it on same play to set up Dolphins touchdown . . . Had 15 stops against N.Y. Jets (9/15) . . . Posted season-high 16 tackles against Seattle (10/6), when he also defensed a pass, forced a fumble and recovered one . . . Topped team with 12 tackles at Buffalo (10/13), while adding a sack and first career interception . . . Matched season-high with 16 tackles at Philadelphia (10/20) . . . Amassed team-high eight stops at New England (11/3) . . . Tied for team lead with nine tackles against Indianapolis (11/10) . . . Led team with ten tackles at Houston (11/17) and came up with an interception, picking off a Chris Chandler pass with 10:42 left in the game and returning it 26 yards for first career NFL touchdown, giving the Dolphins their first lead of the contest at 20-17 en route to their eventual 23-20 victory . . . It was the third interception return for a touchdown by a linebacker in team history (and second ever in the regular season), the other two being by Tom Erlandson, a 26-yard TD return at Denver on December 4, 1966, and by A.J. Duhe, a 35-yard TD return in the AFC Championship game against the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983 . . . Tallied team-best 12 tackles against Pittsburgh (11/25) . . . Tied for club-high with 14 stops against N.Y. Giants (12/8) . . . Came up with an interception and 27-yard return against Buffalo (12/16) . . . Ended season with team-best ten tackles at N.Y.

Jets (12/22) . . . Fifth-round draft choice (154th overall) of Miami in 1996 . . .

AMONG TACKLE LEADERS: Thomas led the Dolphins in tackles 12 times in 1996 and finished second twice . . . He recorded double-digit figures in tackles in 11 of his 16 games . . . Became only third Dolphins rookie in club history to record 100 or more tackles (LB Steve Towle had 164 tackles in 1975 and LB John Offerdahl had 135 tackles in 1986) . . . He also is only the third rookie in franchise history to lead the team in tackles, joining Towle in 1975 and Offerdahl in 1986 . . . Thomas' 180 tackles is the highest single season total by a Dolphins rookie, surpassing Towle's former club rookie record of 164 tackles which he set in 1975, and he also has the second highest single season tackle total overall in club history:

PRO: 1996 – Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Participated in all but two offensive snaps over course of year . . . Voted to seventh consecutive AFC-NFC Pro Bowl . . . Has started each of Miami's last 94 regular season games overall (including all 16 games in 1992-96), dating back to September 15, 1991, at Detroit, the longest current streak on the team . . . The last game Webb did not play was the previous contest, on September 8, 1991, against Indianapolis . . . His 94 straight starts places him in third place for most consecutive regular season starts in club history . . . Needs one more start to move into tie for second place with Dan Marino (95) for most consecutive starts . . . If he starts all 16 contests in 1996, he would eclipse club record of 109 consecutive starts now held by Jim Langer . . . Including playoffs Webb has started the last 99 Dolphin games:

PRO BOWL: Named as reserve offensive tackle for AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Coupled with Pro Bowl selections from 1990-95, Webb is only player in team history to be selected to Pro Bowl team each of first seven seasons in league, two better than quarterback Dan Marino (1983-87) and linebacker John Offerdahl (1986-90), who were Pro Bowl performers in each of their first five seasons . . . Webb's seven Pro Bowl selections is the most by an offensive tackle in team history, ahead of the two selections of Norm Evans (1972 and 1974) . . . Has played in all seven Pro Bowls, tied with a group of 19 other players for ninth in league history for consecutive Pro Bowls played . . . His streak is tied with Arizona's Lomas Brown for third-longest current streak in the NFL behind only Minnesota's Randall McDaniel (eight) and Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (eight) . . . In fact, Webb, Thomas and former New York Giant Lawrence Taylor are the only NFL players to have appeared in the Pro Bowl in each of their first seven seasons in the league . . .

1995 – Started all 16 regular season games and one playoff contest . . . Selected as starter for AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for sixth time in career and fourth time as starter . . . Named second-team All-NFL by Associated Press and first-team All-AFC by United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for sixth straight season (1990-95) and joined Hall of Famer Jim Langer (1973-77) and Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award four or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted as starting offensive tackle for Pro Bowl team, which marked his sixth straight trip to Pro Bowl . . . Became only player in team history to be selected to the Pro Bowl team each of his first six seasons in the league, passing quarterback Dan Marino (1983-87) and linebacker John Offerdahl (1986-90), who were Pro Bowl performers each of their first five NFL season . . . With four Pro Bowl starts, Webb joins Marino (seven), center Jim Langer (five), center Dwight Stephenson (four), and linebacker John Offerdahl (four) as the only Dolphins to start four or more Pro Bowls.

1994 – Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Selected as starter for AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for fifth time in career and third time as starter . . . Named first-team All-NFL by Associated Press, Sporting News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, USA Today, Pro Football Weekly and Pro Football Writers of America, and second-team All-Pro by Football Digest . . . Selected first-team All-AFC by Football News and United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for fifth straight season (1990-94) and joined Hall of Famer Jim Langer (1973-77) and Dwight

Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award four or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted as starting offensive tackle for Pro Bowl team . . . Selected to start contest along with fellow offensive lineman Keith Sims in Pro Bowl for the first time that the Dolphins had two offensive linemen start in the Pro Bowl since 1984 when center Stephenson and guard Ed Newman were named as starters . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Went up against San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (12.5 sacks) in the playoffs and held the AFC's second-leading sacker to two tackles and no sacks . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (11 sacks) on two occasions and held him to seven tackles and a sack . . . Battled Buffalo's Bruce Smith (ten sacks) on two occasions in '94 and limited him to nine tackles and one sack . . . Also faced Pittsburgh's Greg Lloyd (ten sacks) and held him without a sack.

1993 – Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Selected as starter for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for fourth time in career and second time as starter . . . Was named second-team All-Pro by Associated Press and first-team All-AFC by The Football News and United Press International . . . Selected by the NFL Players Association as AFC Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year . . . Became first Dolphin offensive lineman to win the honor since Dwight Stephenson in 1987 . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for fourth straight season (1990-93) and joined Hall of Famer Jim Langer (1973-77) as well as Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award four or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked second consecutive Pro Bowl start . . . Webb became the only tackle in Dolphins history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter . . . Joined teammate guard Keith Sims on the Pro Bowl squad as they became the first pair of Dolphins offensive linemen to be selected to the Pro Bowl in the same year since 1985 when center Dwight Stephenson and guard Roy Foster were selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

1992 – Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at left tackle . . . Was selected as starter for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for third time in career and first time as starter . . . Named first-team All-NFL by the Associated Press and The Sporting News, and second-team All-NFL by College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Honored with first-team All-AFC honors by The Football News and United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for third straight season (1990-92) and joined Hall of Famers Larry Little (1970-72) and Jim Langer (1973-77), as well as Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award three or more consecutive seasons . . . Was hampered by ankle injury vs. Houston (11/22) . . . Started at left tackle in both playoff games . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked first career Pro Bowl start . . . Webb became the first tackle in Dolphins history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter.

1991 – Started each of the last 14 games at left tackle in 1991 . . . Was selected for the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991 for second consecutive season . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman . . . Was inactive for first two games of season while recovering from preseason knee injury . . . Had suffered ligament damage to left knee vs. L.A. Raiders in Tokyo (8/4), however no surgery was necessary . . . Missed the final three preseason games and first two regular season contests as a result of knee injury . . . Was one of two inactive players in season-opener at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Dressed but did not play vs. Indianapolis (9/8) . . . Saw first action of season as starting left tackle at Detroit (9/15) . . . Held Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (13.5 sacks in '91) to just three tackles and no sacks at Kansas City (10/13) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected as reserve tackle for 1991 Pro Bowl squad . . . Webb's two Pro Bowl selections tied him with Norm Evans for the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in team history, a club mark he broke with his third Pro Bowl selection in 1992.

1990 – Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests at left tackle . . . Actually played in all 1,028 offensive downs for Miami in regular season and playoffs . . . In fact, only missed one offensive series (seven plays) in preseason . . . Selected as reserve to 1990 AFC Pro Bowl squad, but started game due to injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz . . . Named NFL Rookie of the Year by United Press International, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly (see complete list of honors below) . . . Key member of the Dolphins' front line that allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks . . . Was accountable for only two sacks . . . Amazingly, Webb was called for only one holding infraction in '90 . . . Made first NFL start in season opener at New England (9/9) . . . Anchored offensive line which allowed Miami to rush for 177 yards which was team's highest single-game rushing output in a non-replacement contest since 178-yard effort on December 5, 1982 against Minnesota . . . Started in opener alongside rookie left guard Keith Sims (second round pick) and became the first Dolphin rookie draft choices ever to start in the season opener on the offensive line . . . They also became just the third and fourth rookie draft choices to start on opening day on offense in the history of the Dolphins; the only other rookie draft choices to start for Miami on offense on opening day at that point were WR Otto Stowe (1971) and FB Larry Csonka (1968) . . . In addition, rookie NT Alfred Oglesby (third round pick) also started in season opener at New England which marked the first time in Dolphins history that each of the team's top three draft choices all started on opening day . . . First-round draft choice (ninth overall) of Miami in 1990 . . .

HONORS: Many post-season honors in 1990 included: UPI AFC Rookie of the Year, Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year, The Sporting News Rookie of the Year, Pro Football Weekly Rookie of the Year . . . Earned second team All-Pro from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second team All-AFC by UPI . . . Named to All-Rookie teams of UPI, Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Football News and the Pro Football Writers . . . Named as Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Lineman and Rookie of the Year in 1990 by South Florida media . . . Also won Tommy Fitzgerald Award as outstanding rookie in training camp . . .

PRO BOWL: Voted by NFL peers as backup offensive tackle for the 1990 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Started in contest due to shoulder injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz . . . Webb became the first rookie offensive tackle and just the second rookie offensive lineman to be selected to the Pro Bowl (other was Colts guard Chris Hinton in 1983) . . . His rookie selection to the Pro Bowl places him ahead of All-Pro tackles such as Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz, who was a first-round pick in 1980 and was first selected to the Pro Bowl following the '81 season; St. Louis' Dan Dierdorf, who was a second-round pick in 1971 and was first selected following the '74 season; Washington's Joe Jacoby, who joined the NFL as a free agent in 1981 and was first selected following the 1983 season; and Chicago's Jim Covert, who was a first-round pick in 1983 and was first selected following the 1985 season . . . Became the first Dolphins rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since John Offerdahl in 1986 . . . One of only three Miami rookies ever selected to the Pro Bowl with the others being Offerdahl and QB Dan Marino (1983) . . . Also is the first Dolphins offensive lineman selected to the Pro Bowl since center Dwight Stephenson, who earned the recognition in 1987 . . . Joined Norm Evans (1972 and '74) and Wayne Moore (1973) as the only Dolphin tackles ever selected to the Pro Bowl . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Miami allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in '90 and Webb was accountable for only two of them . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (20 sacks) in playoffs and held him to three tackles and no sacks . . . Battled Buffalo's Bruce Smith (19 sacks) on three occasions in '90 (twice in regular season and once in playoffs) and held him to a combined total of no sacks and seven tackles . . . Also faced Giants' Lawrence Taylor (10.5 sacks) and held him to three tackles and a half-sack.

DOLPHIN FACT

Miami owns a 7-1 record in games following a bye week. In 1990, Miami followed a bye with a 17-10 win over New England. In 1991, the Dolphins returned to action with a 10-6 win at Indianapolis. In 1992, Miami opened the season with a bye (due to Hurricane Andrew) and came back with a 27-23 win at Cleveland. In 1993, the Dolphins had two bye weekends and rebounded with a 22-13 win over Buffalo and a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. In 1994, the Dolphins came back from a bye weekend and won by a 23-3 score at New England. In 1995, the Dolphins returned to action with a 26-23 win at Cincinnati. Miami lost for the first time after a bye when they dropped a 22-15 decision to Seattle in 1996. They are 4-3 in games preceding the bye week.

1996 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

DOLPHINS 24, NEW ENGLAND 10
September 1, 1996

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins forced four New England turnovers and rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 115 yards as Miami defeated the Patriots, 24-10, in front of a Dolphins opening-day record stadium crowd of 71,542 at Pro Player Stadium, surpassing the previous record of 71,319 set against the New York Jets on September 3, 1995. The game was played in 93-degree heat, marking the second-warmest home game in club history, behind only the 94-degree game against the N.Y. Jets on Sept. 3, 1995. Miami improved to 23-4 in home openers since 1970, the best record in the NFL during that time. Abdul-Jabbar's 115 yards rushing was the fifth-best performance in team history by a rookie and the first 100-yard rushing game by a rookie since Sammie Smith posted 123 yards on November 7, 1989, against Indianapolis. On the opening kickoff, Patriots kick returner David Meggett returned the ball 41 yards to the Patriots' 48-yard line. After one first down, New England quarterback Drew Bledsoe was intercepted by Miami safety Louis Oliver at the Dolphins' 30-yard line and he returned the ball to the Patriots' ten-yard line where Meggett tackled him and forced a fumble that was recovered by Miami safety Sean Hill, who picked it up and ran the final ten yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. It was Hill's first career touchdown and marked the first Dolphins fumble recovery for a touchdown since December 24, 1995, when safety Pat Johnson ran 34 yards for a score. Following a New England punt, Miami drove 54 yards on eight plays and increased its lead to 10-0 when kicker Joe Nedney booted a 34-yard field goal with 5:57 left in the first quarter. On its next possession, the Patriots closed the gap to 10-3 when kicker Adam Vinatieri kicked a 25-yard field goal. After a Miami punt, Patriots wide receiver Shawn Jefferson was stripped of the ball by Dolphins cornerback J.B. Brown after a completion and the ball was recovered by Oliver at the New England 25-yard line. Two plays later, Marino was intercepted by Patriots safety Terry Ray, who returned it 43 yards to the Miami 47-yard line. On the very next play, Jefferson again fumbled after a reception (forced by defensive tackle Steve Emtman) and the ball was recovered by Dolphins defensive tackle Tim Bowens at the Miami 39-yard line. The Dolphins capitalized as they drove 61 yards on ten plays and took a 17-3 lead when Abdul-Jabbar ran three yards for his first NFL touchdown. On the opening drive of the second half, Miami drove 96 yards on eight plays and scored a touchdown to take a 24-3 lead when wide receiver Scott Miller recovered a fumble by fullback Stanley Pritchett who had run 15 yards off of a reception to the goalline. The drive was highlighted by a 52-yard reception by Pritchett, the longest reception by a Dolphins running back since Sammie Smith had a 53-yarder against Indianapolis on December 30, 1990. On the ensuing kickoff, Meggett returned it 54 yards to the Dolphins' 38-yard line. New England then drove 38 yards on four plays and cut the Miami lead to 24-10 with a 29-yard touchdown from Bledsoe to tight end Ben Coates. The touchdown by Coates ended the game's scoring, although the Patriots did threaten on a couple of occasions but the Dolphins defense kept New England off the scoreboard to notch the victory.

DOLPHINS 38, ARIZONA 10
September 8, 1996

Sun Devil Stadium
Tempe, AZ

Dolphins rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar scored two touchdowns and Irving Spikes rushed for a career-high 79 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 38-10, in front of 55,444 fans at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The win improved Miami's record to 2-0, marking the 12th time in club history the team has opened the season with two consecutive wins. Miami's defense allowed just 27 yards rushing – the fourth-fewest allowed by the club in team history, behind 16 yards against Oakland on September 2, 1966, 18 against New England on October 18, 1992, and 26 at Washington on October 13, 1974. The Dolphins were forced to punt on their first possession to the Cardinals, who took over on their own ten-yard line. Arizona stalled and lined up to kick the ball back to the Dolphins but a high snap allowed Miami linebacker Larry Izzo to block Arizona punter Jeff Feagles' attempt and Spikes recovered on the Cardinals' 24-yard line. It was the first blocked punt by the Dolphins since January 2, 1994, at New England when Darrell Malone achieved the feat. Miami took a 7-0 lead when Abdul-Jabbar ran three yards for the touchdown. After Arizona went three plays and out in their next offensive series and was forced to punt to Miami, the Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 early as Abdul-Jabbar ran for his second three-yard touchdown. On their next possession, the Cardinals again went three plays and out and were forced to punt. Feagles had his punt attempt go off the side of his foot and travel just 11 yards, giving the Dolphins great field possession at the Arizona 27-yard line. It took Miami just two plays and 50 seconds to travel the 27 yards and take a 21-0 lead as Marino connected with wide receiver Lamar Thomas on a 20-yard touchdown pass. Arizona followed the third Dolphins score with their best drive of the first half as they moved into Miami territory but the drive ended as Cardinals quarterback Boomer Esiason threw deep into the end zone but had it intercepted by cornerback Terrell Buckley who returned the ball out to the Dolphins' 30-yard line. After the two teams exchanged punts, Miami took over with just 26 seconds left in the half and saw Marino connect with wide receiver Charles Jordan on a 43-yard completion that gave the Dolphins the ball at the Arizona 18-yard line. After one incompletion in the end zone, kicker Joe Nedney booted a 36-yard field goal with five seconds left in the first half to give Miami a 24-0 lead at halftime. Arizona showed signs of life at the beginning of the second half as Kent Graham replaced Esiason at quarterback and cut the Dolphins' lead to 24-7 as he connected with fullback Cedric Smith on a one-yard touchdown pass. On the Dolphins' first play from scrimmage, Abdul-Jabbar fumbled the ball and Arizona cornerback Brent Alexander recovered at the Miami 28-yard line. The Cardinals capitalized on the turnover by cutting the lead to 24-10 as kicker Greg Davis booted a 26-yard field goal at the midway point of the third quarter. Miami answered on their next possession as they drove 78 yards on eight plays and increased the lead to 31-10 as Spikes dove one-yard for a touchdown. Arizona recorded a couple of first downs on its next series before the drive ended as linebacker Zach Thomas forced and recovered a fumble by Cardinals running back LeShon Johnson at the Arizona 47-yard line. Miami increased the lead to 38-10 eight plays later as Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass with 12:52 remaining in the game. The touchdown ended the game's scoring although the Dolphins did have two field goal attempts by Nedney go wide right later in the fourth quarter.

GAME 3

DOLPHINS 36, N.Y. JETS 27
September 15, 1996

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins fell behind 14-0, scored the next 33 points and then had to fight off a furious New York Jets comeback to preserve a 36-27 victory before 68,137 fans at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins rushed for 195 yards and were led by rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar, who totaled 124 yards on 23 attempts and two touchdowns. Miami's 195 rushing yards were the most by the club since they had 212 yards at Indianapolis on November 8, 1992 and Abdul-Jabbar's 124 yards rushing marked the third-highest single-game total by a Dolphins rookie. Following a scoreless first quarter, Dolphins cornerback Terrell Buckley intercepted a Neil O'Donnell pass, giving the Dolphins the ball at the Jets' 45-yard line. Miami drove to the New York one-yard line, but on fourth-down and goal from the two, Marino was intercepted by Jets cornerback Aaron Glenn, who returned the ball 100 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 New York lead. Glenn's 100-yard return was the second-longest against the Dolphins in team history, surpassed by a 102-yard return by L.A. Raiders' Eddie Anderson on December 14, 1992. It marked the first interception returned for a touchdown by an opponent since Indianapolis' Ray Buchanan ran 28 yards for a score on November 6, 1992. Following a Miami punt, the Jets took a 14-0 lead when wide receiver Webster Slaughter caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from O'Donnell. On their next offensive play, Marino connected with rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett on a 74-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 14-7. The 74-yard touchdown marked the longest in team history by a Dolphins running back and was the second-longest reception ever by a Miami rookie, surpassed only by an 80-yard reception by tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the N.Y. Jets on November 27, 1988. Following a Jets punt, the Dolphins tied the game at 14-14 when Abdul-Jabbar ran four yards for a touchdown with 1:47 left in the first half. The third quarter opened with the Dolphins taking a 20-14 lead when tight end Frank Wainright caught a two-yard touchdown pass from Marino and Joe Nedney missed the extra point. Nedney's missed extra point broke a string of 120 successful Dolphins extra points, with the last unsuccessful one being by Pete Stoyanovich on December 20, 1992 against the N.Y. Jets. It was Wainright's first career NFL score. On the Jets' next possession Dolphins safety Louis Oliver intercepted an O'Donnell pass and returned the ball 45 yards to the New York 15-yard line. Three plays later, Marino connected with tight end Brett Carolan for a 12-yard touchdown and, after a failed two-point conversion, the Dolphins led 26-14. The touchdown marked Carolan's first career NFL score. Miami made the score 33-14 early in the fourth quarter when Abdul-Jabbar scored from seven yards out. Just three plays later, the Jets cut the lead to 33-20 (after a failed two-point conversion) when O'Donnell hit wide receiver Jeff Graham on a 78-yard touchdown strike. Irving Spikes fumbled just two plays into the Dolphins' next offensive possession and New York capitalized when rookie wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson caught a "Hail Mary" pass on fourth-down from the Miami 29-yard line, making the score 33-27 with 4:52 remaining in the game. Miami responded with a game-clinching drive that encompassed 63 yards (all on the ground) on eight plays and saw the Dolphins increase the lead to 36-27 when Nedney booted a 29-yard field goal with 1:45 left in the game. New York's last attempt of the game saw O'Donnell intercepted by Dolphins safety Sean Hill in the end zone as time ran out.

September 23, 1996   Indianapolis, IN

   The Indianapolis Colts used two long scoring drives, a stifling defensive effort and a sold-out home crowd to defeat the Miami Dolphins by a 10-6 count. The game, played in front of an Indianapolis Colts record crowd of 60,891 at the RCA Dome and a national television audience, marked the fourth consecutive victory for the Colts in the series against the Dolphins. The game also marked the end of Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson's consecutive coaching victory mark at 11 games – the final eight games of the 1993 season (five regular season and three playoff) with Dallas and the first three games of the 1996 season. The last previous loss for a Johnson-coached team before the game against the Colts occurred on November 25, 1993, (Thanksgiving Day) in Dallas against the Dolphins. The Colts defense recorded five sacks and held Miami's rushing offense to 28 yards on 15 attempts, the lowest rushing output for Miami since they rushed for 28 yards (on 18 attempts) on October 15, 1995, at New Orleans. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead as kicker Joe Nedney booted a 24-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead midway through the first quarter. The drive was highlighted by a 34-yard reception by wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a pass from quarterback Dan Marino. However, Marino fractured his right ankle on the pass to McDuffie and, although he finished the series, he did not return for the remainder of the game. Following a John Kidd punt which gave the Colts the ball on their own three-yard line, Indianapolis drove the 97 yards on 16 plays and took a 7-3 lead when quarterback Jim Harbaugh hit tight end Ken Dilger on a one-yard touchdown pass with 8:51 left in the second quarter. The Dolphins, with Bernie Kosar under center at quarterback, responded and cut the Colts' lead to 7-6 as Nedney booted a 29-yard field goal with 1:37 left in the half. On the Dolphins' first offensive possession of the second half, the club drove to Indianapolis' 31-yard line and on third-and-one, ran for the first down only to have it nullified by a holding penalty on tackle Richmond Webb. As a result, the club was forced to attempt a 53-yard field goal by Nedney that went wide left. The Colts increased their lead to 10-6 when kicker Cary Blanchard kicked an 18-yard field goal, capping a 14-play, 89-yard drive that culminated at the Dolphins' one-yard line and consumed 7:31 off of the clock. The score remained 10-6 through the final quarter as Miami was unable to get any closer and the Colts rushed for 58 yards in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

GAME 5

SEATTLE 22, DOLPHINS 15   Pro Player Stadium
October 6, 1996   Miami, FL

   Seattle Seahawks quarterback John Friesz, making his first start of the season, threw for 299 yards and three touchdowns of over 50 yards, including an 80-yarder to wide receiver Brian Blades that gave the Seahawks the lead, en route to a 22-15 victory over the Dolphins in front of 59,539 rain-soaked fans at Pro Player Stadium. The game, played in a steady rain that was torrential at times, saw the Dolphins set a team record with seven fumbles (two lost), breaking the old record of six set against Pittsburgh on November 26, 1989. In addition, Craig Erickson, making his first start at quarterback for the Dolphins, set a team record with four fumbles, breaking the old mark of three set five times previously, the last time being Scott Schwedes on December 13, 1987, at Philadelphia. The loss also snapped Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson's string of 32 straight wins in the state of Florida – his wins included 28 victories in Miami, two in Tallahassee, one in Gainesville and one in Tampa. On the opening kickoff, Dolphins returner Irving Spikes took the ball 59 yards to the Seattle 40-yard line. Miami capitalized as kicker Joe Nedney booted a 20-yard field goal for a 3-0 Dolphins lead. After the two teams exchanged punts, Seattle took a 7-3 lead on the final play of the first quarter as Friesz hit wide receiver Joey Galloway on a 65-yard touchdown pass. On Miami's first offensive play after the Seahawks' score, Erickson fumbled the snap from center and the ball was recovered by Seattle linebacker Michael Barber on the Miami eight-yard line. Seattle was unable to capitalize as on their first play, Dolphins linebacker Zach Thomas forced a fumble by Seattle running back Chris Warren and safety Louis Oliver recovered at the Miami seven-yard line. Following a Miami punt, Seattle increased their lead to 14-3 as Friesz again connected with Galloway on a touchdown pass, this time from 51 yards out. Late in the second quarter, Miami forced Seattle to punt (deflected by Miami linebacker Larry Izzo) and the Dolphins took over at the Seahawks' 49-yard line with 1:29 left in the half. The Dolphins closed to within 14-9 when Erickson connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 33-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the second quarter. The extra point was no good as holder John Kidd fumbled the snap. The Dolphins took a 15-14 lead when Spikes ran two yards for a touchdown with less than a minute remaining in the third quarter. The Dolphins' two-point conversion was no good as Spikes was stopped short on a rushing attempt. The teams exchanged punts in the fourth quarter until Seattle drove to the Dolphins' 45-yard line with 4:15 left in the game and were stopped on a fourth-down-and-three attempt when Miami linebacker Dwight Hollier intercepted Friesz and returned the ball to the Seahawks' 42-yard line. After a Dolphins punt gave Seattle the ball at their own 20-yard line with 2:28 left in the game, Friesz hit Blades with the 80-yard touchdown pass. Seattle running back Lamar Smith scored on a two-point conversion run and the Seahawks led 22-15 with 2:03 remaining in regulation. Miami drove to the Seattle 44-yard line but were then unsuccessful on four consecutive pass attempts and the Seahawks held on for the victory.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 21, BUFFALO 7	Rich Stadium
October 13, 1996	Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins sacked Buffalo quarterback Jim Kelly seven times and cornerback Terrell Buckley returned an interception for a 91-yard touchdown in the final minute as the Dolphins defeated the Bills, 21-7, in front of 79,642 fans at Rich Stadium. The seven sacks for the Dolphins' defense marked a tie for the third-most in team history, a feat accomplished four times before, the last being September 17, 1989, at New England. The win also broke a string of eight consecutive losses without starting quarterback Dan Marino, out against the Bills with an ankle injury. Miami won the coin toss and after two first downs, were forced to punt to the Bills. On Buffalo's first play, Kelly's pass was intercepted by Dolphins linebacker Zach Thomas who returned it 11 yards to Buffalo's 15-yard line. The Dolphins were unable to capitalize on the turnover as kicker Joe Nedney missed a 33-yard field goal wide right. Miami again had an opportunity in the first quarter to take advantage of a Buffalo turnover after Dolphins defensive tackle Tim Bowens sacked Kelly and forced him to fumble, recovered by defensive end Trace Armstrong at the Bills' 44-yard line. This time the drive ended as holder John Kidd attempted a fake field goal rushing attempt, but it came up three yards short of the first down. After a Buffalo punt on their next possession, Miami finally got on the board as they took a 7-0 lead on a three-yard run by Karim Abdul-Jabbar with 10:00 left in the first half. Buffalo drove to the Dolphins' 30-yard line on the following possession, but the Miami defense stiffened and the Bills were unable to score and were forced to punt. Following two Bills punts and one Dolphins punt in the third quarter, Miami increased its lead to 14-0 as running back Irving Spikes dove one-yard for a touchdown. The Dolphins' scoring drive was highlighted by a career-long 61-yard reception by wide receiver Randal Hill on a pass thrown by quarterback Craig Erickson. Buffalo responded quickly with a 19-yard rushing touchdown by Thurman Thomas to cut the Miami lead to 14-7 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Thomas' touchdown run snapped a streak of 28 consecutive regular season quarters that the Dolphins had not allowed a rushing touchdown. The streak of 28 quarters was the second-longest in Dolphins history behind a 30 quarter streak and it was Thomas who also had the last regular season rushing touchdown against Miami on December 17, 1995. The teams exchanged punts until the final three minutes of the game when the Bills took over on their own 48-yard line with 2:17 remaining in the game. On the third play of their possession, Kelly hit wide receiver Andre Reed on a 49-yard reception that gave the Bills the ball on the Miami two-yard line at the two-minute warning. After a Buffalo penalty and two more plays, the Bills faced a fourth-down-and-goal at the ten-yard line but Buckley preserved the Miami win as he intercepted Kelly and returned it 91 yards for a touchdown and a 21-7 lead. The 91-yard interception marked the third-longest in Dolphins history, behind a 103-yarder by safety Louis Oliver at Buffalo on October 4, 1992, and a 96-yarder by safety Dick Anderson at Boston on November 24, 1968.

GAME 7

PHILADELPHIA 35, DOLPHINS 28	Veterans Stadium
October 20, 1996	Philadelphia, PA

Eagles wide receiver Irving Fryar, who was with the Dolphins from 1993-95, caught four touchdown passes from quarterback Ty Detmer and running back Ricky Watters gained 173 rushing yards as Philadelphia defeated the Dolphins, 35-28, in front of 66,240 fans at Veterans Stadium. Fryar's four touchdowns marked the third time that an opposing receiver has caught four TD passes in a game against the Dolphins, with the others being tight end Jimmie Giles of Tampa Bay on October 20, 1985, and wide receiver Wesley Walker at the New York Jets on September 21, 1986. The Eagles took a 7-0 lead just 1:49 seconds into the game as Detmer hit Fryar on a 38-yard touchdown pass. Following a Dolphins punt, Philadelphia took a 14-0 lead when Detmer hit Fryar on a one-yard touchdown pass midway in the first quarter. Miami cut the lead to 14-3 on their next offensive possession when kicker Joe Nedney booted a 37-yard field goal in the final minute of the first quarter. Miami closed the gap to 14-11 as Erickson hit wide receiver Randal Hill on a six-yard touchdown pass with 1:55 left in the half. A two-point conversion was successful for Miami as Erickson threw a pass to tight end Troy Drayton. The Eagles were able to take a 21-11 halftime lead on Fryar's third touchdown pass of the game, this time an 11-yarder with five seconds remaining in the half. Fryar again victimized the Dolphins as he caught a 36-yarder for his fourth touchdown pass of the game that gave Philadelphia an 28-11 advantage. Miami cut the Eagles' lead to 28-18 early in the fourth quarter as wide receiver O.J. McDuffie caught a 24-yard touchdown pass from Erickson. Following a punt on Philadelphia's next offensive possession, Miami closed to within 28-21 when Nedney kicked a 39-yard field goal with 6:56 left in regulation. The Dolphins defense forced the Eagles to punt, but Miami was unable to move the ball after taking over on their own eight-yard line. After a Miami punt that gave Philadelphia the ball on the Dolphins' 49-yard line, Watters took the handoff on the first play and ran the distance for a 35-21 lead with just 2:28 left in the game. On Miami's next possession, with Bernie Kosar at quarterback, the Dolphins drove 42 yards on six plays and cut the lead to 35-28 when Kosar connected with McDuffie on a 17-yard touchdown with 1:04 remaining. Miami's attempt at an onside kick was unsuccessful and the Eagles were able to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

GAME 8

DALLAS 29, DOLPHINS 10   Pro Player Stadium
October 27, 1996   Miami, FL

The Dallas Cowboys came from behind to defeat the Dolphins by a 29-10 count at Pro Player Stadium. Dallas dominated the second half of a game that saw Miami hold a 10-9 lead at the halftime break. Dallas' offense ran 78 plays to the Dolphins' 40 and controlled the ball 41:58 minutes in comparison to Miami's 18:02. In addition, the Cowboys had 482 offensive yards to Miami's 221. The actual attendance of 75,283 was the highest in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous record crowd for a Dolphins game at the stadium was 73,080 against San Francisco on November 20, 1995. The previous stadium record crowd for any event was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII on January 22, 1989, for the game between San Francisco and Cincinnati. Statistically, Cowboys wide receiver Michael Irvin had 186 receiving yards on 12 receptions. His 186 receiving yards are the fourth-most ever against the Dolphins in a game and his 12 receptions ties for fourth-most in a single game by a Dolphins opponent. In addition, Cowboys quarterback Troy Aikman completed 33 of 41 passes against the Dolphins for a completion percentage of 80.5-percent tying for third-highest by a Dolphins opponent. Dallas opened the scoring on a 33-yard field goal by kicker Chris Boniol midway through the first quarter. Dallas increased their lead to 6-0 on the first play of the second quarter as Boniol hit a 29-yard field goal. The Cowboys had the ball for 12:00 in the first quarter and outgained Miami by a 123 to 20 margin, running 21 offensive plays to the Dolphins' seven plays. Miami came back on its next possession and took a 7-6 lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino to fullback Stanley Pritchett. Marino completed all four of his pass attempts on the drive for 66 yards, including a 36-yarder to wide receiver Charles Jordan. After a Dallas punt, the Dolphins increased their lead to 10-6 as kicker Joe Nedney booted a 26-yard field goal with 1:49 left in the first half. Dallas closed the gap to 10-9 on Boniol's third field goal of the game, this time from 24 yards out, as time ran out in the first half. Dallas took a 16-10 lead as Aikman threw a four-yard touchdown pass to tight end Eric Bjornson in the third quarter. Dallas increased the lead to 22-10 on a two-yard touchdown pass from Aikman to Irvin with 4:40 left in the third quarter. Boniol missed the extra point after a pass interference penalty on Irvin on a two-point attempt. On Miami's next possession, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee fumbled that was forced and recovered by Cowboys cornerback Deion Sanders at the Dallas 38-yard line. On the Dolphins next possession, Miami gave the ball back to the Cowboys as Marino was intercepted by Dallas cornerback Kevin Smith at the Dolphins' 31-yard line. Dallas closed the scoring and increased their lead to 29-10 as Aikman connected with running back Emmitt Smith on a ten-yard touchdown pass.

GAME 9

NEW ENGLAND 42, DOLPHINS 23
November 3, 1996

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots scored 28 consecutive points, including 21 in the fourth quarter, en route to a 42-23 victory at Foxboro Stadium. Patriots quarterback Drew Bledsoe completed 30 of 41 passes for 419 yards and three touchdowns, marking the first opposing quarterback to throw for 400 or more yards against the Dolphins since Bledsoe tallied 421 passing yards on September 4, 1994, at Miami. Dolphins rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar had 29 carries for 104 yards, tying him with Benny Malone (1974) and Troy Stradford (1987) for first place on the club's all-time list with three 100-yard games as a rookie. The Patriots took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard touchdown run by running back Curtis Martin midway through the first quarter. Miami tied the game at 7-7 when Abdul-Jabbar ran four yards for a score. The Dolphins took a 14-7 lead as Abdul-Jabbar scored his second touchdown of the game, this time from three yards out. Miami got the ball back as cornerback Terrell Buckley intercepted Bledsoe on the Miami 26-yard line, but the Dolphins were unable to capitalize. The Dolphins got the ball back on New England's next series when tight end Ben Coates fumbled and the ball was recovered by safety Louis Oliver at Miami's 33-yard line, but Miami was again unable to capitalize on the turnover as kicker Joe Nedney missed a 46-yard field goal with just 1:03 remaining in the first half. After the Nedney miss, the Patriots tied the game at 14-14 with four seconds left in the half as Martin ran one-yard for his second touchdown of the game. In the third quarter, the Patriots once again lost the ball when Bledsoe fumbled after a sack by Dolphins defensive end Daniel Stubbs and the ball was recovered by defensive tackle Daryl Gardener at the Patriots' 46-yard line. Miami was finally able to convert on the New England turnover as Nedney booted a 39-yard field goal for a 17-14 lead. The Patriots again gave the Dolphins the ball as safety Shawn Wooden intercepted Bledsoe and returned it to the Patriots' 37-yard line. On the very next play after the interceptions, Abdul-Jabbar fumbled and New England linebacker Ted Johnson recovered at the 28-yard line. The Patriots then took a 21-17 lead as Bledsoe connected with Coates on a 23-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter, Miami pinned the Patriots on their own two-yard line after John Kidd's punt. However, New England went 98 yards on three plays, capped by an 84-yard touchdown pass from Bledsoe to Coates for a 28-17 Patriots lead. The Patriots increased their lead to 35-17 when Bledsoe hit fullback Sam Gash on a five-yard touchdown. New England made the score 42-17 when Martin ran two yards for his third touchdown of the game. Miami closed the score 42-23 as quarterback Craig Erickson drove the team 76 yards on five plays and hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie with a 29-yard scoring strike.

GAME 10

DOLPHINS 37, INDIANAPOLIS 13
November 10, 1996

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, behind three touchdown passes by quarterback Dan Marino, defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 37-13, in front of 66,623 fans at Pro Player Stadium. Marino became the first player in NFL history to throw for 50,000 yards in a career when he completed a 36-yard pass to wide receiver O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter. Marino also became the first player in NFL history to record 4,000 completions in a career with a completion to wide receiver Fred Barnett. At one point in the game, Marino completed 13 consecutive passes, tying him with Earl Morrall (December 1, 1975, at New England) for second place on the club's all-time list and behind only Marino's own record of 15 consecutive completions during two games – at Indianapolis on November 8, 1992 and against Buffalo on November 16, 1992. The Colts opened the scoring as kicker Cary Blanchard booted a 48-yard field goal midway through the first quarter. Miami took a 7-3 lead on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Marino to McDuffie with 36 seconds left in the first quarter. The Dolphins' field position to start the drive was helped when Miami linebacker Larry Izzo tipped a punt by Indianapolis punter Chris Gardocki. Miami increased their lead to 14-3 as running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar ran one-yard for a score. The Dolphins scored again on their next possession to go ahead 21-3 when Marino connected with wide receiver Fred Barnett. Indianapolis responded to close the score to 21-6 when Blanchard booted a 22-yard field goal with 27 seconds left in the first half. Miami went ahead 23-6 on Indianapolis' first possession of the second half when Colts quarterback Jim Harbaugh was called for intentional grounding in the endzone as he was being pressured by Miami defensive end Daniel Stubbs. On the ensuing free kick, Dolphins cornerback Terrell Buckley returned the ball 48 yards to the Colts' 42-yard line. Miami drove the distance in eight plays and took a 30-6 lead when Marino hit Barnett on a 12-yard touchdown pass midway through the third quarter. On the Colts' next series, Harbaugh was intercepted by Dolphins cornerback J.B. Brown who returned it 29 yards to the Indianapolis 16-yard line. Six plays later, Miami increased their lead to 37-6 when Abdul-Jabbar ran three yards for a touchdown. Harbaugh was then intercepted again when Dolphins cornerback Calvin Jackson nabbed his pass attempt. Miami did not capitalize on the turnover as kicker Joe Nedney missed a 45-yard field goal attempt early in the fourth quarter. On its next possession, with quarterback Paul Justin at the helm, Indianapolis drove to the Miami one-yard line but was unable to score as the Dolphins defense stiffened and the ball went back to Miami on downs. Following a Miami punt in the fourth quarter, Indianapolis closed out the game's scoring when they drove 43 yards on five plays, capped by a 16-yard touchdown pass from Justin to wide receiver Sean Dawkins to make the final score 37-13.

GAME 11

November 17, 1996   Houston, TX

    The Miami Dolphins defeated the Houston Oilers, 23-20, as kicker Joe Nedney booted a game-winning 29-yard field goal as the clock expired in front of 47,358 fans at the Astrodome. Miami quarterback Dan Marino engineered the 32nd fourth-quarter comeback of his career as the Dolphins trailed 17-13 entering the final quarter of regulation. Houston won the coin toss and took a 7-0 lead when quarterback Chris Chandler capped the drive with an 18-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Derek Russell. Miami was forced to punt after three plays and the Oilers increased their lead to 14-0 when Chandler connected with tight end Frank Wycheck on a 15-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins were unable to capitalize on their next possession as Nedney missed wide left on a 39-yard field goal attempt on the final play of the first quarter. Houston dominated the opening period by outgaining Miami 121 yards to 21 yards and tallying nine first downs to the Dolphins' two. Midway through the second quarter, Dolphins wide receiver Kirby Dar Dar blocked a punt attempt by Houston punter Reggie Roby. Five plays later, the Dolphins cut the lead to 14-7 as Marino hit Spikes on a ten-yard touchdown pass with 5:29 remaining in the half. After a Houston punt, the Dolphins made the score 14-10 as Nedney kicked a 34-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. In the third period, Miami cut the Houston lead to 14-13 with a career-long 44-yard field goal by Nedney. The Oilers responded with a 30-yard field goal by kicker Al Del Greco to take a 17-13 lead in the final minute of the third quarter. Miami was forced into a punting situation on their next possession, but Dolphins linebacker Larry Izzo ran 26 yards for a first down on a fake punt on the first play of the fourth quarter. The Dolphins then drove inside the Oilers ten-yard line, but running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar fumbled and the ball was recovered by cornerback Cris Dishman in the endzone. On Houston's first offensive play after the fumble, Miami linebacker Zach Thomas intercepted Chandler and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown and a 20-17 Dolphins lead with 10:42 remaining in the game. On Miami's next possession, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie fumbled the ball at the Oilers' 45-yard line. Following the turnover, the Oilers tied the game at 20-20 with 3:20 left in regulation when Del Greco booted a 33-yard field goal. On its next possession, the Dolphins drove down inside the Oilers' ten-yard line and capped the drive with Nedney's game-winning field goal as time expired. The game-winning drive was highlighted by a 51-yard reception by Miami tight end Troy Drayton that gave the club the ball at the Houston five-yard line in the final minute and set up the game-winning kick.

GAME 12

PITTSBURGH 24, DOLPHINS 17   Pro Player Stadium
November 25, 1996   Miami, FL

    The Pittsburgh Steelers took a 24-17 lead with 2:10 left in the game when quarterback Mike Tomczak hit wide receiver Ernie Mills on a 20-yard touchdown pass and held on to win as they stopped the Dolphins on fourth down from the seven-yard line with 25 seconds left in regulation in front of 73,489 fans at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins won the toss and drove 76 yards on 15 plays, taking 9:45 off of the clock, and took a 7-0 lead when quarterback Dan Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a two-yard touchdown for a 7-0 lead. Pittsburgh responded on their first possession and cut the lead to 7-3 late in the first quarter as kicker Norm Johnson hit on a 47-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter, Tomczak was intercepted by Miami cornerback Calvin Jackson, who returned the ball 61 yards for a touchdown and a 14-3 Dolphins lead. Following the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh cut the Miami lead to 14-10 when fullback Tim Lester ran five yards for a touchdown with 3:30 left before halftime. Miami kicker Joe Nedney missed a 56-yard field goal while Johnson missed a 47-yarder for the Steelers as the half ended. On the Steelers' first possession of the second half, they took a 17-14 lead as wide receiver/quarterback Kordell Stewart plunged one-yard for a touchdown. Miami tied the game at 17-17 when Nedney booted a 41-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter, the Steelers got the ball at Miami's 45-yard line and went the distance to take a 24-17 lead on the Tomczak to Mills touchdown pass. Miami then took over at their own 23-yard line with 2:00 left in the game and drove to the Steelers' seven-yard line, helped by a 45-yard completion from Marino to wide receiver Randal Hill. The Dolphins were unable to score however, as a fourth-down pass attempt from Marino to wide receiver Scott Miller fell incomplete in the endzone with 25 seconds left in the game.

GAME 13

December 1, 1996   Oakland, CA

Oakland took advantage of four Dolphins turnovers as they defeated Miami by a score of 17-7 in front of 60,591 fans at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. The Dolphins fell to 6-17-1 all-time against the Raiders, including 0-9 in games played in Oakland. After a scoreless first quarter that saw each team punt three times, Oakland took a 7-0 lead midway through the second period as running back Derrick Fenner ran six yards for a score. Later in the second quarter, the Dolphins drove into Oakland territory but the drive ended when Raiders cornerback Terry McDaniel intercepted Miami quarterback Dan Marino with 1:34 left in the first half. The play broke a string of 110 consecutive passes without an interception for Marino, just 12 shy of Bob Griese's club-record of 122 set in 1967. The Raiders then went ahead 14-0, as they drove 58 yards on six plays and capped it with a 22-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jeff Hostetler to wide receiver Tim Brown with 42 seconds left in the second quarter. Miami responded by driving to the Oakland 20-yard line with one second remaining in the half. Dolphins kicker Joe Nedney booted a 37-yard field goal, only to have it nullified by an illegal procedure penalty. Nedney then missed a 42-yard attempt wide right and Miami went scoreless in the first half for the first time since November 27, 1994, at the New York Jets, a span of 32 regular season games. On Miami's first possession of the second half, Marino was picked off by Oakland linebacker Mike Morton, who returned it to the Dolphins' 37-yard line. Oakland was unable to capitalize on the turnover as kicker Cole Ford missed short on a 48-yard field goal attempt with 9:22 left in the third quarter. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Dolphins cornerback Terrell Buckley tackled Oakland tight end Andrew Glover and forced him to fumble and the ball was recovered at the Miami 43-yard line. However, on the very next play, Marino was intercepted for the third time in the game, this time by cornerback Albert Lewis at the Raiders' 24-yard line. After an Oakland punt, Miami drove to the Raiders' 26-yard line, but Marino fumbled the snap from center and it was recovered by Raiders linebacker Greg Biekert with 10:59 remaining in the game. Oakland capitalized on the turnover by increasing its lead to 17-0 on a 38-yard field goal by Ford with 4:50 left in the game. Miami avoided the shutout on its next possession on a four-yard touchdown pass from Marino to wide receiver Randal Hill with just 2:34 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins attempted an onside kick but were unsuccessful and Miami did not get any closer as the Raiders were able to hold on for the victory.

GAME 14

December 8, 1996   Miami, FL

The New York Giants used an opportunistic defense and a ball-control offense to stifle the Miami Dolphins by a score of 17-7 in front of a crowd of 63,889 fans at Pro Player Stadium. The Giants forced two Miami turnovers and had the ball for 36:28 compared to 23:32 for the Dolphins, including 73 offensive plays to 53. Miami wide receiver Fred Barnett caught four passes for 139 yards for his first 100-yard game with the Dolphins and his 15th overall in his career, including playoffs. New York won the toss and on their first possession, the Giants took a 7-0 lead by driving 80 yards on 13 plays, capped by a four-yard touchdown run by running back Rodney Hampton. After a punt by each team, Miami tied the game at 7-7 in the final minute of the first quarter on a three-yard touchdown reception by fullback Robert Wilson from quarterback Dan Marino. The key play of the 80-yard drive was a 66-yard pass play from Marino to Barnett. The Giants re-gained the lead at 14-7 as quarterback Dave Brown hit tight end Howard Cross on a one-yard touchdown pass with just 1:15 left in the half. New York ended the first half with a 20:30 to 9:30 time of possession advantage. After the teams exchanged punts to begin the second half, Marino was intercepted by New York cornerback Conrad Hamilton, who returned the ball 29 yards to the Dolphins' 33-yard line with 4:27 left in the third quarter. The Giants increased their lead to 17-7 as kicker Brad Daluiso booted a 37-yard field goal with 1:38 left in the third quarter. After a Dolphins punt from deep in their own territory that gave the Giants the ball on the Miami 24-yard line, New York drove to the Dolphins' two-yard line but Brown fumbled the ball as he was sacked by defensive end Trace Armstrong and the ball was recovered by Miami linebacker Anthony Harris at the ten-yard line. Following the takeaway, Miami drove to the Giants' 21-yard line, aided by a 40-yard pass from Marino to Barnett, but had the drive stopped when Marino had a pass intercepted by New York linebacker Corey Widmer at the Giants' 13-yard line. Miami was then unable to get any closer and the Giants held on for the win.

GAME 15

DOLPHINS 16, BUFFALO 14		Pro Player Stadium
December 16, 1996		Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins dominated the time of possession by a margin of 41:55 to 18:05 and held on to defeat the Buffalo Bills, 16-14, in front of 67,016 fans at Pro Player Stadium and a national television audience on Monday Night Football. The win improved Miami's record to 32-22 on MNF, including 1-2 in 1996. With the win, the Dolphins swept the season series against the Bills for the first time since the 1986 season and in addition, Miami beat Buffalo in the month of December or January for the first time since a 28-0 victory on December 22, 1985 at the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins jumped out to a 3-0 lead as kicker Joe Nedney booted a 29-yard field goal in the final minute of the first quarter. In the first frame, Miami ran 21 offensive plays to Buffalo's eight, keeping the ball for 12:27 to 2:33. The score remained 3-0 until midway in the second quarter when Dolphins linebacker Zach Thomas intercepted Buffalo quarterback Jim Kelly as the Bills were at the Miami 36-yard line and returned the ball 27 yards to the Bills' 42-yard line. Following the takeaway, Miami increased its lead to 6-0 as Nedney kicked a 41-yard field goal with 2:05 left in the first half. On Buffalo's first play from scrimmage after the field goal, Kelly hit wide receiver Andre Reed with a 67-yard touchdown pass for a 7-6 Bills lead with 1:43 left in the half. After a Buffalo punt to start the second half, Miami took a 9-7 lead with Nedney's third field goal of the game, this time from 18 yards out. On Buffalo's next possession, the Bills drove to the Dolphins two-yard line, helped by a 42-yard pass interference penalty against Miami cornerback Calvin Jackson, but were unable to score on three straight attempts and were forced to try a field goal; however, Bills kicker Steve Christie's 20-yard field goal attempt was no good as the ball bounced off the right goalpost. The Dolphins increased their lead to 16-7 on a five-yard touchdown pass from Miami quarterback Dan Marino to wide receiver O.J. McDuffie. The drive was spearheaded by a 39-yard run by running back Irving Spikes. After the next Miami drive was stopped on fourth down at the Buffalo 39-yard line, the Bills moved to within 16-14 as Kelly hit wide receiver Eric Moulds on a 16-yard touchdown pass with 4:09 left in the game. Miami then drove to the Buffalo 31-yard line, before the drive stalled on fourth down with 26 seconds left in the game. The game ended with Kelly being sacked by defensive end Trace Armstrong on the first down and defensive end Daniel Stubbs on the second to preserve the Miami victory.

GAME 16

DOLPHINS 31, N.Y. JETS 28		Giants Stadium
December 22, 1996		East Rutherford, N.J.

The Dolphins, led by running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar's 152 yards on 30 carries, fought back from a 14-0 first quarter deficit to defeat the New York Jets, 31-28, in front of 47,271 fans at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Abdul-Jabbar finished the season with 1,116 rushing yards to become the first Dolphins runner since Delvin Williams in 1978 to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season. After the Dolphins were forced to punt on their first possession, Jets punt returner Wayne Chrebet fumbled on the return (forced by Tim Jacobs) and the ball was recovered by Miami safety Louis Oliver at the New York 23-yard line. However, two plays later, Dolphins fullback Stanley Pritchett fumbled on a carry (forced by Matt Brock) and defensive end Hugh Douglas returned the ball 62 yards for a Jets touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Following another Miami punt, New York increased their lead to 14-0 on a one-yard touchdown run by running back Adrian Murrell with 4:12 left in the first quarter. The score remained the same until late in the second quarter when Miami cut the lead to 14-7 with just six seconds left in the first half on a one-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Dan Marino to wide receiver O.J. McDuffie. The Dolphins' scoring drive was aided by two fourth down penalties on the Jets that kept the drive alive, the last one being in the end zone with nine seconds remaining in the half. Early in the third period, Marino hit wide receiver Fred Barnett on a 33-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 14-14 just two minutes into the second half. After a kickoff return by Alex Van Dyke that gave New York the ball on their own 44-yard line, the Jets regained the lead at 21-14 on an 11-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Glenn Foley to tight end Kyle Brady. Miami answered on their next possession and tied the score at 21-21 on a 17-yard touchdown run by Abdul-Jabbar (the longest touchdown run by the Dolphins in 1996) with 5:15 remaining in the third quarter. After a Jets punt on their next possession gave Miami the ball at the New York 42-yard line, Miami took a 24-21 lead as kicker Joe Nedney booted a 37-yard field goal with 2:14 left in the third quarter. After a Jets punt, the Dolphins increased their lead to 31-21 as Marino hit wide receiver Randal Hill on a 50-yard touchdown pass with 11:17 remaining in the game. New York closed the gap to 31-28 later in the fourth quarter as quarterback Frank Reich, replacing Foley, threw a nine-yard touchdown pass to Chrebet with 4:45 left in the game. The Dolphins, however, held on for the win as a fumble by Chrebet, recovered by cornerback Terrell Buckley, sealed the game for Miami with 3:33 remaining as the team was then able to run out the clock.

DOLPHINS 15-0 VS. 2 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 15-0 regular-season record against two clubs in the National Football League through the 1996 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami are Green Bay (0-8), and Arizona (0-7). The Dolphins play the Packers during the 1997 season.

Three NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-6), St. Louis Rams (1-6) and Tampa Bay (1-4). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Buccaneers in 1997.

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979.

DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into 1997, Miami has not been shut out at home in regular season or playoff action since October 25, 1970, against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. Denver has never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

PRESEASON GAME 1

DOLPHINS 13, TAMPA BAY 10   Pro Player Stadium
August 3, 1996   Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins made Jimmy Johnson's debut as Head Coach a successful one as the club defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 13-10, on a 39-yard field goal by kicker Joe Nedney with 4:18 remaining in the game in front of 51,141 fans at Pro Player Stadium. On Miami's opening drive, the club took a 3-0 lead when Nedney booted a 44-yard field goal. Following an exchange of punts, Tampa Bay took a 7-3 lead when quarterback Trent Dilfer connected with wide receiver Alvin Harper on a six-yard touchdown pass. After another Dolphins' punt, the Buccaneers increased their lead to 10-3 as they drove 71 yards on 12 plays, capped by a 39-yard field goal by kicker Michael Husted. Miami was able to tie the score at 10-10 when running back Bernie Parmalee plunged one yard on fourth-and-goal on the first play of the fourth quarter, capping a 15-play, 67-yard drive that took 9:32 off the clock. Following a Tampa Bay punt, the Dolphins again embarked on a time consuming drive, this time taking 15 plays to cover 54 yards and 7:38 of clock time and took a 13-10 lead on Nedney's 39-yard field goal. Nedney was originally good on a 29-yard attempt, but a holding penalty moved the ball back ten yards and Nedney again booted the ball through the uprights. Tampa Bay had a chance to tie the game as Husted attempted (and missed) a 39-yard field goal attempt, the Buccaneers were called for delay of game, forcing another attempt, this time from 44 yards out. Husted came up short on his second attempt and the Dolphins ran out the clock to preserve the three point victory.

PRESEASON GAME 2

CHICAGO 24, DOLPHINS 21   Soldier Field
August 11, 1996   Chicago, IL

The Chicago Bears defeated the Miami Dolphins, 24-21, as kicker Kevin Butler booted a 22-yard field goal as time ran out in regulation to give the Bears the win in front of 50,761 fans at Soldier Field. Butler's field goal spoiled a Dolphins comeback as they fought back from a 19-0 deficit early in the second quarter to take a 21-19 lead early in the fourth quarter before succumbing to the Bears. The Bears opened the scoring as Butler booted a 36-yard field goal. Chicago drove to the Dolphins' 16-yard line but the Miami defense again stiffened and the Bears were forced to attempt a 33-yard field goal by kicker Carlos Huerta that gave Chicago a 6-0 lead with three seconds to go in the first frame. Following another Miami punt, the Bears scored again when quarterback Erik Kramer connected with wide receiver Curtis Conway on an 83-yard touchdown pass and, after a missed two-point conversion, Chicago led 12-0. The Bears took a 19-0 advantage when Kramer hit tight end Keith Jennings on a four-yard touchdown pass with 6:43 remaining in the half. Miami's offense finally showed signs of life on its next possession as they drove to cut the gap to 19-7 when quarterback Dan Marino threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Randal Hill. Chicago was unable to increase their lead as Huerta missed on a 46-yard field goal attempt with 1:00 left in the first half. Miami then drove 63 yards on seven plays in just 50 seconds and cut the Bears' lead to 19-14 as Marino connected with wide receiver Lamar Thomas on a five-yard touchdown pass. Following a scoreless third quarter, Dolphins cornerback Terrell Buckley picked off Bears quarterback Steve Stenstrom for his second interception of the game and returned it to Chicago's 33-yard line and after a 15-yard late hit penalty against the Bears, Miami took over on the 18-yard line. Two plays later, Dolphins quarterback Bernie Kosar connected with fullback Robert Wilson for an 18-yard touchdown pass and a 21-19 lead with 13:56 remaining in the game. Following a Chicago punt, Miami drove to the Bears' 24-yard line but quarterback Mike Buck was intercepted by Chicago cornerback James Burton in the end zone to end the threat. Chicago's next offensive drive stalled and the Bears were forced to punt and after a 47-yard punt by the Bears' Kent Sullivan, Miami began possession at their own three-yard line. On Miami's first play, Chicago linebacker Greg Briggs tackled Dolphins running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar in the end zone for a safety to tie the score at 21-21 with 5:10 left in regulation. Miami's offense never got the ball back again as Chicago, after the ensuing free kick, drove 66 yards on 12 plays and took the remaining time off the clock before Butler's game-winning field goal.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 24, MINNESOTA 17   Pro Player Stadium
August 19, 1996   Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins improved to 2-1 in the preseason as they defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 24-17, in front of 55,598 rain-soaked fans at Pro Player Stadium. The game, played in thunderstorms that made the field wet and muddy, was marked by nine total turnovers, five of them by the Vikings that Miami converted into 14 points. Minnesota won the toss and on its opening possession, Vikings quarterback Warren Moon fumbled a snap and Dolphins defensive end Daniel Stubbs recovered at the Minnesota 22-yard line. After Miami's drive stalled, holder John Kidd attempted a fake field goal and the pass was intercepted in the endzone by Vikings safety Orlando Thomas, ending the threat. The Vikings took a 3-0 lead as kicker Scott Sisson booted a 35-yard field goal with just 48 seconds left in the first quarter. The Dolphins had their first sustained drive as they drove to the Minnesota 24-yard line on 12 plays, but were unable to score as a 41-yard field goal attempt by kicker Pete Stoyanovich hit the upright. Three plays later, the ball slipped out of the hands of Moon on a pass attempt at the Minnesota 21-yard line and Miami defensive end Trace Armstrong picked up the rolling ball at the six-yard line and thundered into the endzone for a touchdown and a 7-3 Dolphins lead. Minnesota drove 73 yards on 13 plays but were unable to score as kicker Lin Elliott missed on a field goal attempt on the final play of the half. The Dolphins drove 28 yards on seven plays in the third quarter and increased their lead to 10-3 as kicker Joe Nedney kicked a 48-yard field goal with 8:00 left in the quarter. On its next drive, Minnesota drove into Dolphins territory but Miami defensive end Aaron Jones forced running back Moe Williams to fumble on the 34-yard line and cornerback Terrell Buckley recovered and returned it 51 yards to the Vikings' 16-yard line. Following a holding penalty on the first play, Marino connected with wide receiver Charles Jordan on a slant pass that Jordan ran 26 yards for a touchdown and a 17-3 Dolphins lead. Vikings quarterback Brad Johnson connected with wide receiver Qadry Ismail on a 32-yard touchdown to cut the Dolphins' lead to 17-10 in the fourth period. Miami struck back quickly when quarterback Bernie Kosar hit wide receiver Lamar Thomas on a 71-yard touchdown and a 24-10 lead on its first play from scrimmage following the Vikings' score. Johnson threw a 28-yard touchdown to wide receiver Chris Walsh to make the score 24-17 with 1:35 left in the game. The Dolphins held on to the win as Minnesota was unable to convert on an onside kick attempt.

PRESEASON GAME 4

DOLPHINS 19, BUCCANEERS 7   Houlihan's Stadium
August 23, 1996   Tampa, FL

The Miami Dolphins concluded the 1996 preseason on a winning note as kicker Joe Nedney booted four field goals and the defense held the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to 134 total yards en route to a 19-7 victory in front of 40,137 fans at Houlihan's Stadium in Tampa. The Dolphins won the coin toss and took a 3-0 lead when Nedney capped an 11-play, 64-yard drive with a 26-yard field goal. Following a Buccaneers punt, Miami, with quarterback Bernie Kosar at the helm, increased their lead to 6-0 when Nedney booted a 23-yard field goal. The Dolphins dominated the play in the first quarter, running 29 offensive plays to six for Tampa Bay and notching 11 first downs to zero for the Buccaneers. In addition, Miami had a 181-8 advantage in total yards in the first frame, including a 92-3 edge in rushing. The Bucs got on the board as punt returner Nilo Silvan broke five Dolphins tackles and scampered 91 yards for a touchdown and a 7-6 Tampa Bay lead with 6:44 remaining in the first half. Miami responded, with quarterback Mike Buck under center, and re-gained the lead at 9-7 with less than two minutes remaining in the second quarter, as Nedney kicked his third field goal of the half and his second 23-yarder. On Tampa Bay's first offensive series of the second half, Dolphins cornerback Robert Bailey recovered a fumble and returned it to the Bucs' seven-yard line. Miami increased their lead to 12-7 as Nedney kicked a 22-yard field goal. Buccaneers punt returner Marvin Marshall fumbled a John Kidd punt and Miami linebacker Zach Thomas recovered at Tampa Bay's 19-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, but the Dolphins could not capitalize as Nedney missed a 32-yard field goal. After a Buccaneers punt, Miami running back Jerris McPhail fumbled on a rushing attempt and Buccaneers safety Tony Bouie recovered and returned it 63 yards to the Miami seven-yard line. Tampa Bay was unable to capitalize on the turnover as on their third play from scrimmage, Dolphins cornerback Calvin Jackson sacked Bucs quarterback Scott Milanovich and forced a fumble that was recovered by Miami safety Sean Hill at the 27-yard line. After another fumble by McPhail, the Buccaneers had one last chance, but the Dolphins clinched the game as Jackson intercepted a Milanovich pass and returned it 38 yards for a touchdown.

DOLPHIN FACT

In regular season action, the Dolphins were 5-6 in 1996 on natural grass (4-4 at home and 1-2 on the road) and 3-2 on artificial turf (all on the road). Since 1980 (regular season games only), the Dolphins are 116-56-1 (.673) on grass — 90-40-1 (.690) at home and 26-16 (.619) on the road. On turf over the same period of time, the Dolphins are 45-46 (.495).

Thirteen of Miami's 16 games in 1997 will be played on natural grass. The Dolphins' only games on artificial turf are on October 12 at the N.Y. Jets, November 2 at Buffalo and December 14 at Indianapolis. Miami's 13 games on natural grass are tied with San Diego for the second-most on that surface, behind only Kansas City which plays 14 games on grass in 1997.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the five AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over Kansas City on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970.

The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 — Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 8 – The Dolphins record a 28-0 win at the Indianapolis Colts. Miami's shutout is the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it is the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.

Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Miami reverses history by earning a 20-7 win over the Los Angles Raiders on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. The contest marks the Dolphins' first win over the Raiders in a game played in Miami since a 23-6 triumph on December 10, 1978, in the Orange Bowl.

Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer. Voted to join Marino in Honolulu are linebacker Bryan Cox, tight end Keith Jackson and tackle Richmond Webb (all as starters).

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marks the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The previous high was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff game.

Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu,

Hawaii.

Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight end coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles in right foot) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The games marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 21 – Steve DeBerg becomes the third player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins in 1993 as he throws for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead Miami to a 17-13 win over New England. DeBerg, the NFL's oldest player, had joined the team just 11 days prior to the Pats game and was forced into his first start in place of the injured Scott Mitchell.

Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich-converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 5 – Miami drops a 19-14 decision to the New York Giants at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins fall to 12-1 at home against teams in the NFC East since the NFL merger in 1970 and 11-1 at home against opponents from the NFC since the team moved to Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. The last team to defeat the Dolphins in an inter-conference game played in Miami was the Atlanta Falcons who earned a 20-14 win on November 30, 1986, in the Orange Bowl.

Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 8 – The Dolphins and WIOD Radio (610 AM) announce the hiring of Bill Zimpfer as the team's play-by-play announcer and "Voice of the Dolphins." Zimpfer replaces Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970 and announced his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner on May 6, 1993. Zimpfer joins former Dolphin tight end and color analyst Jim Mandich in the broadcast booth.

July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 – Dan Marino throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Oct. 16 – Bernie Parmalee receives two game balls – one for offense and one for special teams – for his performance in Miami's 20-17 overtime win against the Los Angeles Raiders. Parmalee rushes for 150 yards on 30 carries and adds a pair of tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. In addition, the Dolphins reverse history in the all-time series against the Raiders as Miami records wins in consecutive games against the Raiders for the first time in the history of the series. Miami earned a 20-7 win over the Raiders on December 14, 1992, in the last meeting between the two teams.

Oct. 30 – The Dolphins earn a 23-3 win at the New England Patriots to sweep the season series over the Patriots for the fifth time in the last six years and win for the 11th time in the last 12 games played between the two teams. The win improves Miami to 6-0 in games following a bye weekend. In addition, Bernie Parmalee gains 123 rushing yards and ties the all-time team record for consecutive 100-yard performances. His 273 rushing yards in consecutive games surpasses the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris who accomplished the feat with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 – Mark Ingram catches four touchdown passes, including the game winner with just 22 seconds left in regulation, to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 28-24 win over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins trail by an 18-point margin midway through the third period (24-6) before rebounding to outscore the Jets by a 22-0 edge to win the game. Ingram's four touchdowns and 24 points in the game tie the team's single-game records with Paul Warfield's four touchdowns (all receiving) and 24 points against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27   –   Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31   –   Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9   –   Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18   –   Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6   –   Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9   –   Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19   –   The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

Sept. 3   –   The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.

Oct. 1   –   The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.

Oct. 8   –   Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Marino suffers knee and hip injuries which force him to miss the next two games (at New Orleans and at the N.Y. Jets).

Oct. 30   –   The Dolphins earn their first home win over the Buffalo Bills since the 1990 season with a 23-6 triumph at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's last home win against Buffalo was a 30-7 victory on September 10, 1990. The game marks the first time that the Dolphins have held the Bills without a touchdown since Miami dropped a 9-6 decision at Rich Stadium on September 11, 1988.

Nov. 12   –   Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 26   –   Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.

Dec. 11   –   Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter. In addition, the game is a sellout and marks the second consecutive season and fourth time overall (also 1972-73) that every home game has been sold out and it is just the second time in team history (also 1973) that every game has been sold out before the television blackout deadline.

Dec. 24   –   The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record and clinch a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration.

Dec. 30   –   Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards.

Jan. 5   –   Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.

Jan. 11   –   Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (Univ. of Miami, 1987).

Jan. 16   –   Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

Jan. 17   –   The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.

Jan. 19   –   Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).

Jan. 24 — Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).

Feb. 16 — The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).

March 1 — The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

April 23 — Dan Marino, who broke every significant passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

April 26 — The Jimmy Johnson era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in mini-camp under the new Dolphins head coach.

Aug. 26 — Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a ten-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.

Sept. 1 — The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24–10 at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.

Sept. 10 — Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 15 — On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history. The win marks the third straight year and fourth time in the last five campaigns that Miami has opened the regular season with three consecutive victories.

Oct. 27 — Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.

Oct. 29 — WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.

Oct. 31 — At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 10 — A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 17 — The Dolphins defeat the Houston Oilers, 23-20 at the Astrodome, the 50th career regular season victory for head coach Jimmy Johnson.

Nov. 25 — At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. In that game, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 57 yards on 16 attempts, breaking the club's rookie rushing record of 711 formerly held by Andra Franklin (1981).

Dec. 16 — On Monday Night Football, the Dolphins record a 16-14 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium, marking the first time since 1986 that Miami has swept the season series from the Bills. It's also the first time since December 22, 1985, that the Dolphins have defeated Buffalo in the month of December or January, snapping a seven–game losing streak against Buffalo in such games.

Dec. 22 — In a season-ending 31-28 win at the New York Jets, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 152 yards and a TD on 30 carries. His performance is the fifth-highest single-game total in franchise history, and the second-most by a rookie. It is his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year, establishing a new club rookie standard, also tying for the second-best mark in team annals. In the process, he also surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season, the sixth Dolphins player to achieve that feat and the first since Delvin Williams in 1978. Abdul-Jabbar's 1,116 rushing yards is the third-best single-season total in team history. He scores on a 17-yard run in the third quarter, his 11th rushing touchdown of the year, tying Ron Davenport's club rookie record, first achieved in 1985.

Jan. 14 — Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

Jan. 25 — Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

March 11 — At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.

March 21 — Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.

April 17 — Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.

April 18 — The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.

June 3 — Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.

June 4 — "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.

June 13 — Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.

July 26 — Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

December 27, 1970 Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24 (2 OTs) Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFLs scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0 Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972 Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3   Tulane Stadium
January 16, 1972   New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14   Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972   Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17   Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972   Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7	Memorial Coliseum
January 14, 1973	Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16	Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973	Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10	Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973	Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth

448

TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14 Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT) Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13 Orange Bowl
January 8, 1983 Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

January 16, 1983   Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0   Orange Bowl
January 23, 1983   Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17 Rose Bowl
January 30, 1983 Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20 Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10 Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28 Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16 Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985 Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21   Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986   Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14   Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986   Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

January 5, 1991   Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-

3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34   Rich Stadium
January 12, 1991   Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half.

The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO 0   Joe Robbie Stadium
January 10, 1993   Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BUFFALO 29, DOLPHINS 10 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 17, 1993 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

December 31, 1994 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin

Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 22, DOLPHINS 21　　　　　　　Jack Murphy Stadium
January 9, 1995　　　　　　　　　　　　　San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

December 30, 1995　　　　　　　　　　　Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead enroute to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with current teammate Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a short three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins than attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

DOLPHIN FACT

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only four coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed his 26th season with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

DON SHULA

Head Coach (1970-95)
Vice Chairman (1996-97)

Born: 1/4/30
College: John Carroll '51
Player: 1951-57
Ass't Coach: 1960-62
Head Coach: 1963-95
Year Inducted: 1997

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

Starting with the 1996 season, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 28th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named Head Coach of the club in 1970.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995 he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only four coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (1976, 1988) in that span. He averaged almost ten wins per season in his career (328 regular season wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games each.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns. He was the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

In addition to his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way, and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On May 17, 1994, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its athletic complex the Don Shula Sports Center.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including, most recently, the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success.

Shula's oldest son David, 38, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher, and Matthew. David served as the Head Coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 in Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium (in a game Miami won 23-7), it marked the first time ever in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches.

Shula's other son Mike, 32, was named as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1996 after spending the three previous seasons as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Mike and Dave Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has three children, Alex, Lindsey, and Tyler, and is married to Steve Cohen. Another daughter, Sharon, currently serves as the Director of Development of the Don Shula Foundation. Youngest daughter Annie lives in the Miami Area.

Shula and his wife Mary Anne reside in Miami and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on Oct. 16, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children and eight grandchildren.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

LARRY CSONKA

Fullback #39

Born: 12/25/46
College: Syracuse '68
NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79
Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979
Year Inducted: 1987

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 19th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

BOB GRIESE

Quarterback #12

Born: 2/3/45
College: Purdue '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1967-80
Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER

Center #62

Born: 5/16/48
College: South Dakota St. '70
NFL: 1970-81
Dolphins: 1970-79
Year Inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

LARRY LITTLE

Guard #66

Born: 11/2/45
College: Bethune-Cookman '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1969-80
Year Inducted: 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions.

PAUL WARFIELD

Wide Receiver #42

Born: 11/28/42
College: Ohio State '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
Dolphins: 1970-74
Year Inducted: 1983

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him 14th on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs, and his 85 touchdown catches is tied for the fifth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEY #12
Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1997 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 — 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

- The Dolphins lead the all-time regular season series 40-21-1, including wins in two straight and three of the last four matchups. Buffalo has captured all three playoff games in which these teams have met.
- Miami holds a 19-12 lead in regular season games decided in Buffalo, although the Bills have emerged victorious in both playoff contests. The Dolphins have posted a regular season mark of 15-9 at Rich Stadium.
- The Dolphins are 21-9-1 against the Bills in Miami during the regular season, including a 3-7 mark at Pro Player Stadium. Buffalo is 1-0 against the Dolphins in Miami in playoff competition.
- Miami swept the season series in 1996, the first time they had accomplished the feat since 1986. Prior to the sweep in 1996, Miami had dropped 17 of the previous 21 decisions against the Bills, including playoff games. Overall, the Dolphins have taken both regular season games from the Bills on 16 occasions. The Bills have swept the season series from the Dolphins six times, with five of them coming since 1987.
- Miami set an NFL record for consecutive wins over one team with 20 against Buffalo, from 1970-79.

- This is the second straight year and the 11th time overall that the Dolphins and Bears have battled in preseason with Chicago holding a 7-2-1 advantage. In the last preseason meeting between the two teams, Chicago came away with a 24-21 victory at Soldier Field on August 11, 1996 on Kevin Butler's 22-yard field goal as time expired. The last time they squared off at Pro Player Stadium in preseason was in 1991 when the Bears emerged with a 6-0 win. The last Miami win in preseason against the Bears occurred in a 21-10 decision on September 6, 1975 at the Orange Bowl.
- The Dolphins lead the all-time regular season series between the clubs by a 5-2 count, including a record of 3-1 in games played in Miami and an 0-1 mark at Pro Player Stadium. Chicago came away with a 17-14 victory on November 13, 1994, at Pro Player Stadium in the last matchup. The last Dolphins win in the series was a 16-13 overtime win, November 24, 1991, at Soldier Field. The last Dolphins win over the Bears in Miami was recorded on December 2, 1985, 38-24. It was the Bears' only loss on their way to a 15-1 regular season and the Super Bowl XX Championship.
- Dating back to 1977, the Dolphins have won 11 of their last 12 home games against NFC Central teams.

- The Dolphins lead the all-time regular season series 32-29-1. The Dolphins are 1-0 versus the Jets in postseason. The Jets captured each of the first eight contests in this series, but Miami has gone 32-21-1 since. Miami has won two straight and five of the last six meetings with the Jets. The Jets hold a 17-14 advantage in games played in New York, including an 8-5 mark at the Meadowlands. The Dolphins are 18-12-1 in regular season play, and 1-0 in postseason against the Jets in Miami. They are 6-4 versus the Jets at Pro Player Stadium with wins in three straight matchups and four of the last five.
- In regular season action, quarterback Dan Marino has thrown for more touchdown passes (64) and yards (7,141) against the Jets than against any other NFL team. In his last four game against New York, Marino has thrown 13 touchdowns and just five interceptions. Over his last nine outings against the Jets, Marino has had 23 TD passes and eight interceptions, and has thrown at least two touchdown strikes each time. In addition, his career single-game highs for pass attempts (60 on 10/23/88), yards passing (521 on 10/23/88), touchdown passes (six on 9/21/86) and interceptions (five on 10/23/88) all came against the Jets. In his career, Marino has posted a record of 15-9 as a starter against New York. He has completed 520 of 878 (59.2%) for 7,141 yards with 64 touchdowns and 28 interceptions.

- Marino has more career fourth quarter comebacks against the Jets (five) than against any other NFL team during his 14-year NFL career.

- Oakland leads the all-time regular season series, 15-5-1, while also holding a 2-1 edge in playoff competition. The Raiders recorded a 17-7 victory on December 1, 1996, at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, marking their first win over the Dolphins since 1990, snapping Miami's two-game winning streak over the Raiders. The Raiders are 8-0 against the Dolphins in Oakland – a record which includes two playoff games. The teams also split two games decided in Los Angeles.
- The Raiders own the best all-time series record of any NFL team against the Dolphins, with a 17-6-1 mark. The Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum and Minnesota's Metrodome are the only current NFL stadiums that the Dolphins have visited on one or more occasions in which the team has never won a regular season game.
- Quarterback Dan Marino's first NFL regular season action came against the Raiders, on September 19, 1983, at the L.A. Coliseum, when he completed 11 of 17 for 90 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions in a reserve role in Miami's 27-14 loss. In eight career games against the Raiders, seven as a starter, Marino has completed 155 of 280 for 1,945 yards with 15 touchdowns and 10 interceptions.

- This will mark the fourth straight year, sixth time in the last seven years and the 13th occasion overall that these teams have met in the preseason. Miami defeated Tampa Bay twice in preseason last year. Overall, the Dolphins have recorded nine preseason victories over the Buccaneers, more than against any other opponent in the preseason.
- The regular season matchup will mark the first time that the clubs have squared off since December 1, 1991 when the Dolphins came away with a 33-14 win. It will be the first meeting at Houlihan's Stadium during the regular season since October 30, 1988 when Miami emerged victorious, 17-14.
- Tampa Bay's lone win over the Dolphins in five regular season meetings occurred November 29, 1982, at Tampa Stadium by a 23-17 count. Overall, the Dolphins are 2-1 against the Bucs in Tampa.

- This game will be the 25th meeting overall and the 24th during the regular season. The all-time series is tied at 12 wins apiece, while Miami holds a 12-11 edge in regular season contests. The teams have split the 12 games decided in Miami, while each club has garnered one win each at Pro Player Stadium. The last time the teams squared off at Pro Player Stadium was November 22, 1992 when the Dolphins emerged with a 19-16 victory. Miami has captured each of the last two games in this series.
- Each of the past three games in this series have been decided by four points or less, including last year's matchup, a 23-20 Miami win on November 17 at the Astrodome.
- Quarterback Dan Marino is 5-3 as a starter in his career against the Oilers. He has completed 137 of 248 passes (55.2%) for 1,701 yards with 11 touchdowns and 11 interceptions. He threw the longest pass completion of his career with an 85-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper against the Oilers on November 2, 1986 at the Orange Bowl. He also tossed an 85-yard strike to Duper versus the Colts on November 11, 1983.
- As a member of the Philadelphia Eagles, wide receiver Fred Barnett amassed 187 receiving yards on five receptions on October 24, 1994 against the Oilers at Veterans Stadium. His yardage figure in that game represents the second-highest single game total of his NFL career.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WQAM

In 1997, the Miami Dolphins' radio network, with over 18 stations covering more than 70 markets in Florida, will have WQAM (560 AM) serving as the club's flagship station. This marks the first season that WQAM will broadcast Dolphins games. The station signed a five-year contract to carry Dolphin contests, starting with the 1997 season, on October 29, 1996.

WQAM is known for its outstanding sports programming, and is one of the leading all-sports radio stations in the country. In addition to the Dolphins games, WQAM also broadcasts the games of the Florida Marlins and the Florida Panthers, and also is home to the popular "First Team" of Jeff DeForrest, ex-Dolphin Joe Rose, and Steve Goldstein in the morning, Hank Goldberg in the afternoon, and a talk show hosted by another former Dolphin, Kim Bokamper. WQAM also serves as the weekly home of the popular "Jimmy Johnson Show." In addition to their scheduled broadcasts, WQAM also carries extensive Dolphin programming on the club's game-days, beginning with a five-hour pre-game show and culminating with a two-hour post-game wrapup. WQAM also broadcasts live from the team's training camp and carries comprehensive Dolphin updates during the season.

Handling the play-by-play and entering his fourth season as "The Voice of the Dolphins" is Bill Zimpfer. Zimpfer, 41, joined the Dolphin broadcasts in 1994, after six years (1988-93) as play-by-play announcer for the Penn State football network. During the football off-season, Zimpfer also serves as morning sports anchor for WOGL-FM in Philadelphia. He resides with his wife and family in East Greenville, Pa.

Joining Zimpfer in the booth will be analyst and ex-Dolphin favorite Jim Mandich. Mandich, in his sixth year as the color commentator on Dolphin game broadcasts, was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphin tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns and ranks 20th in Dolphin team history in receiving and tied for 16th in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

WQBA

For the 14th time in the last 16 years, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team home and away on WQBA (1140 AM). The 1997 season marks a return of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast to WQBA following a two-year absence. The Dolphins and WQBA signed a three-year agreement to broadcast the team's games beginning with this season.

Rene Giraldo, who has been part of the Spanish broadcasts of Dolphins games for all 16 years, will handle the play-by-play for his 13th straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. WQBA's Dolphins game-day broadcasts will begin with a 30-minute pre-game show and will conclude with a post-game show featuring interviews from the team's locker room.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Three of the five Dolphins preseason games in 1997 will be telecast on a national basis by ABC-TV, TNT, and ESPN, while the other two games will be broadcast in Miami on WFOR-TV (Channel 4). In addition, the preseason games that are broadcast on WFOR also will also be telecast by WPBF-TV in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins' first preseason game, on Saturday, July 26th against the NFL Champion Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in Green Bay, will be telecast live at 6:30 p.m. by WFOR. WFOR also will televise live the Dolphins' preseason game on Saturday, August 16th against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Houlihan's Stadium at 7:30 p.m.

The Dolphins will make their first national television appearance of the season on Monday night, August 4th, when their American Bowl Game against the Denver Broncos at Guillermo Canedo Stadium in Mexico City, Mexico, will be televised live by ABC-TV beginning at 8:00 p.m. They will make their second preseason appearance on national TV when they play host to the Chicago Bears on Sunday, August 10th at Pro Player Stadium at 8:00 p.m. in a game that will be televised by TNT. Their preseason finale, on Thursday, August 21st against the Washington Redskins at Pro Player Stadium at 8:00 p.m., also will be shown nationally, on ESPN. The latter two games, against the Bears and the Redskins in Miami, will be televised locally if they are sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise they will be blacked out.

ESPN Sports broadcaster Brad Nessler will handle the play-by-play for the WFOR telecasts for the sixth straight year. He has broadcast a variety of events in his career that has included two years at CBS Sports before joining ESPN in September, 1992. Former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC-TV's broadcast team for college football, will be the color analyst for WFOR's telecast of the Tampa Bay game, while long-time sports personality and football analyst Irv Cross will handle the color commentary for WFOR's broadcast of the Packer contest. In addition, WFOR-TV sports director Jim Berry and sports anchor Joe Zagacki will host the pregame, postgame, and halftime shows during those telecasts. Mac McDonald returns as executive producer and Mike Horvath as producer for WFOR-TV.

SPORTSCHANNEL

SportsChannel's 1997 fall line-up kicks off with three Miami Dolphins related programs. Included in this year's schedule will be "Miami Dolphins Magazine," "The Jimmy Johnson Show," and "Sunday Morning nFL."

Fans can start their football Sundays by tuning into "Miami Dolphins Magazine" which will be broadcast on SportsChannel on Sunday mornings from 9:00 a.m.-9:30 a.m. This show will offer a detailed look at the Dolphins as well as their opponent that day. In addition to a look at the stats, injuries and analysis of the Dolphins' upcoming game, "Miami Dolphins Magazine" visits with current and former players of Florida's oldest professional sports franchise and offers other in-depth features as well.

Coach Jimmy Johnson talks to fans, players and coaches alike every Sunday morning from 9:30 a.m.-10:00 a.m. on "The Jimmy Johnson Show." Coach Johnson previews the day's big contest, giving his candid and unique perspective to SportsChannel viewers. "The Jimmy Johnson Show" repeats at 11:30 a.m. on WTVJ, NBC-6.

In addition to the Dolphins game, fans can preview other NFL matchups on "Sunday Morning nFL," live from 10:00 a.m.-11:30 a.m. every Sunday morning. SportsChannel reporters look ahead to upcoming contests of the Dolphins, Buccaneers and Jaguars, getting the inside story from players and coaches. SportsChannel's staff tackles the issues at the forefront of Florida's three professional football teams in a fast paced 90 minutes originating from Pro Player Stadium.

SportsChannel Florida is managed by, and is a service of, Front Row Communications, Inc., of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Dean J. Jordan was named as President of Front Row Communications on February 22, 1996. Jordan serves as Vice President of Business Operations for the Florida Panthers and as the point person for the sports broadcasting interests of the Dolphins, Marlins and Panthers. Front Row was created to manage and market those broadcast interests as well as to create and seek other strategic growth opportunities by relying on its resources of marketing and programming capabilities.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Senior Director of Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Pro Player Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Pro Player Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator to the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Pro Player Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Johnson will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Pro Player Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Senior Director of Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, BellSouth Special Accounts at (954) 958-4154. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 16541 Blatt Blvd., Apt. 203, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33326 (954/384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Friday and Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media (and, except for the final 15 minutes, all local media) unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Senior Director of Media Relations; Neal Gulkis, Media Relations Coordinator; Seth Levit, Media Relations Assistant; and Gayle Baden, Administrative Assistant. Office phone is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

All the information you need to read and hear about the Miami Dolphins in 1997 can be obtained on the Dolphins web site, located at http://www.dolphinsendzone.com. Miami's official home page contains useful information that is updated on a daily basis beginning in training camp. Releases, rosters, statistics, depth charts and updated biographies are just a few of the things that are featured. In addition, the site is updated daily with sound bites from Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and Dolphin players. The quality of sound will enable not only fans to hear what the Dolphins are saying, but also can be used by the media. Pre-game and post-game analysis begins in preseason, and on gamedays, the site contains an analysis of the action on the field as it is happening, as well as photos throughout the course of the contest. Fans can submit questions and comments about the team daily. Live chats with Dolphin players, coaches and front office staff will be conducted twice a month. Other information on the Dolphins, in addition to the latest on the National Football League and the other 29 teams, can be accessed through the NFL's home page on http://www.nfl.com.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.
Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.
Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.
Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).
Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.
Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.
Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
Anteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.
Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.
Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.
Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myosistis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.: and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum - Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylosis – Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma – The cheekbone.
