DEDICATIONS

The Miami Dolphins 2007 Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of three long-time members of the Dolphins family.

Former Pro Bowl fullback Andra Franklin died December 8, 2006 of natural causes at the age of 47 in his Lincoln, Neb., home. He was drafted in the second round by the Dolphins in 1981 and played for four years, starting in Super Bowl XVII against Washington. He is ninth on the team's all-time rushing list with 2,232 yards and 22 touchdowns from 1981-84. A knee injury forced him out of the league by the time he turned 26.

A member of the Dolphins from 1971-74, running back/kick returner Charlie Leigh died of lung cancer at age 60 on October 26, 2006 in Albany, N.Y. Leigh, who didn't play in college, was a member of the NFL's only perfect season in 1972. He won a second Super Bowl with Miami in 1973.

Dennis Sym, more commonly known to Dolphins fans as "Dolfan Denny," died on March 16, 2007 at the age of 72. Sym led Miami crowds in cheers and chants in his glittering orange and aqua hat from the Dolphins' first game in 1966, starting in the stands. In 1976, then team owner Joe Robbie asked Denny to move down to the field as the team's official motivator. Sym retired in 2000.

H. WAYNE HUIZENGA

OWNER/CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: 18th Season

H. Wayne Huizenga began his active involvement in South Florida sports on March 7, 1990, when he purchased 15 percent of the Miami Dolphins and a 50 percent interest in Joe Robbie Stadium, now called Dolphin Stadium. That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85 percent of the Dolphins and the additional 50 percent of the stadium, leaving him with 100 percent ownership of both entities.

Mr. Huizenga has had an unprecedented business career as an entrepreneur. He is the only person in America to be responsible for six companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange and to have three make the Fortune 500 list. He co-founded Waste Management, Inc., the global leader in the waste industry, as well as the third-largest U.S. waste disposal company, Republic Services. Additionally, he was the CEO of Blockbuster Entertainment, the global leader in video entertainment, and founder of AutoNation, Inc., the country's first and world's largest public automotive dealership. He was also founder of Boca Resorts, Inc., an owner and operator of luxury resorts in South Florida, and co-founder of Extended Stay America, which operated in the lodging industry in many areas around the United States.

He is chairman of Huizenga Holdings, Inc., and is the sole or majority owner of several businesses. He has numerous real estate interests throughout Florida that include office buildings, warehouses, shopping centers, marinas and underdeveloped real estate acreage.

Mr. Huizenga was responsible for bringing Major League Baseball to South Florida in 1993, serving as chairman of the Florida Marlins through 1998, and under his direction the Marlins won the World Series in 1997. He also brought the National Hockey League to South Florida, serving as Owner, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Florida Panthers for the first eight years (1993-2001) of that team's existence, including the 1995-96 season when they reached the Stanley Cup Finals.

Mr. Huizenga's numerous entrepreneurial achievements were recognized by the Horatio Alger Association, which presented him with its top honor, along with Henry Kissinger and Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas, in 1992. Business and academic groups have honored Mr. Huizenga seven times as "Entrepreneur of the Year." In 2004 he was awarded the Ernst & Young United States Entrepreneur of the Year Award, and followed that by being named the 2005 Ernst & Young World Entrepreneur of the Year from a group of candidates covering 36 different countries. He is a five-time recipient of Financial World magazine's "CEO of the Year" and was named "Business Leader of the Year" by Georgetown University's Business School.

Among Mr. Huizenga's other awards are the Yale University's Gordon Grand Fellow Award, the highest non-academic award bestowed by the school, and the University of Missouri-Kansas City's International Entrepreneur of the Year. He is a member of Nova Southeastern University's Board of Trustees and recently provided the resources to establish the Huizenga School of Business and Entrepreneurship at the University.

Mr. Huizenga has been inducted into a number of business and sports halls of fame during his career. Most recently, in 2006 he was voted into the Automotive Hall of Fame for his role in transforming AutoNation, which he founded in 1996, into the world's largest automotive retailer a decade later. Earlier in 2006 he was named to the Junior Achievement U.S. Business Hall of Fame. He also has been elected to the Waste Industries Hall of Fame in 2003, the Nova Southeastern University Entrepreneur Hall of Fame in 2002, and the Video Hall of Fame in 1991.

On the sports front, he has been named to the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions and the Broward County Hall of Fame.

Mr. Huizenga's community involvement has included membership in many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Florida Council on Economic Education, the Salvation Army of Broward County and the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County.

The Huizenga family also is involved in many charitable organizations, including the American Heart Association, the Humane Society, the American Cancer Society, the Performing Arts Center Authority, and the Make-A-Wish Foundation. They are especially active in children's causes, such as Jack & Jill Nursery, Take Stock in Children, the Child Services Council and Kids in Distress, and have awarded scholarships to children in the community through the Horatio Alger Association.

Mr. Huizenga and wife, Marti, live in Fort Lauderdale. They have four children: Wayne, Jr., Ray, Scott, and Pam, and eight grandchildren.

JOE BAILEY

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
DOLPHINS ENTERPRISES

NFL: 27th Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Joseph (Joe) A. Bailey III was named Chief Executive Officer of Dolphins Enterprises, the holding company of the Miami Dolphins and Dolphin Stadium, on January 13, 2005. Bailey joined the Dolphins from Russell Reynolds Associates, the global executive search and assessment firm. He is a former Dallas Cowboys and NFL executive with an extensive sports and business background.

Bailey is spearheading the major initiatives and innovations occurring at Dolphin Stadium. He has paved the way for the re-branding of the stadium as the foremost sports and entertainment showplace in the Americas and is currently implementing the stadium's mission of offering visitors an unparalleled live experience combining state-of-the-art technology and amenities with the gold standard in guest services.

With the team, Bailey's focus is on maintaining and expanding upon the Dolphins' position as a premier sports institution in the United States. With a respect for history and an eye toward the future, Bailey is determined that the Dolphins remain the most dynamic professional sports franchise in South Florida, while also growing its fan base worldwide and continuing the organization's aspiration of perfection on and off the field.

Bailey believes the foundation of the future of Dolphins Enterprises is based on the principle that people are the only form of a sustainable, competitive advantage. An initiative-based culture stimulates the innovative thinking required for long-term success.

While at Russell Reynolds Associates, Bailey served as the partner in charge of the firm's flagship New York office and led the company's Entertainment, Media & Sports and Corporate Communication practices. His clients included many of the world's leading sports and entertainment organizations, as well as Fortune 500 companies. In 2004, The Sporting News called Bailey the most influential executive recruiter in sports and included him on its list of "The 100 Most Powerful People in Sports."

Bailey has extensive experience in professional football. He spent nearly two decades with the Dallas Cowboys at the side of NFL Hall of Fame executive Tex Schramm. During Bailey's tenure, the Cowboys won 13 divisional titles, five NFC titles, and two Super Bowl championships.

Following his tenure in Dallas, Bailey served as Senior Vice President and COO at the World League/NFL for five years. His experience in that international venture included the introduction of a professional ten-team football league in Europe, Canada and the United States. He was responsible for all the diverse elements the startup of such a league entailed, culminating with the inaugural World Bowl in London's Wembley Stadium in 1991.

Bailey's management experience extends to other areas as well. In the mid-'90s he was Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of The National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA). He served as President of The InterCompete Group, a New York-based marketing and strategic management consulting firm, and was Co-Founder and Investment Partner in Personalities International.

Bailey has an A.B. degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and attended the Advanced Management Program at the Harvard University School of Business. Bailey resides in Fort Lauderdale with his wife, Charlotte, and has three grown children.

BRYAN J. WIEDMEIER

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

NFL: 27th Season
Dolphins: 27th Season

Entering his 27th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team on January 10, 2006. In that role he is responsible for directing the franchise on a day-to-day basis. He serves as the team's primary representative in National Football League affairs and is a visible representative of the club in the South Florida community. He works closely with Cam Cameron, Randy Mueller and Matt Thomas to coordinate the team's football operations. He reports to Dolphins Enterprises Chief Executive Officer Joe Bailey in collaboration with their strategic initiatives involving both the team and Dolphin Stadium's business affairs.

With more than a quarter century of service to the Dolphins, Wiedmeier is uniquely qualified to provide leadership in both team and league affairs. He served as the team's Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer from 2002-05, where he was responsible for the day-to-day management of the business operations, football administration and all labor areas. In addition, his contributions to the NFL reflect his stature in the league. He currently serves on a number of NFL committees, is an original member of the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee and is a Trustee of the NFL Player Insurance Trust.

Wiedmeier's professional career with the Dolphins began in 1981 and he has served in a variety of front office roles of increasing importance with both the team and the stadium since then. He was named Assistant General Manager in 1990, and was promoted several times to reflect his expanded responsibilities with the club, first to Vice President – Administration from 1995-1999, to Senior Vice President – Business Operations through 2001 and finally to Executive Vice President – Chief Operating Officer before assuming the team's presidency. He earned his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law and later was admitted to the Florida Bar. He received his B.A. from Carroll College, which he attended on a football scholarship and served as a team captain in his senior year. He was inducted into Carroll's Hall of Fame as a member of the school's 1978 undefeated team.

He is married to Mary K. They have five children, Lauren, Victoria, John, Danielle, and Matthew, ranging in age from 14 to 20. He and his family reside in Miramar, Fla.

BILL GALANTE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT-OPERATIONS

NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: 14th Season

Bill Galante is beginning his 14th season with the Dolphins and Dolphin Stadium. As Senior Vice President - Operations, Galante is responsible for the supervision of the ticket office for the Dolphins, while overseeing several business aspects, including special events, facility operations, game operations and team travel, with a special emphasis this year handling all the logistics involved in hosting the NFL's first-ever regular season game overseas in London.

Galante spent his first six years in Miami overseeing Dolphin Stadium ticket sales, including the last three seasons as Vice President - Ticket Sales and Operations. During that time, he also oversaw the ticket operations of the Florida Marlins, including their inaugural season in 1993 and their World Championship season in 1997. He began his career with the Chicago Cubs in 1983.

Bill and his wife, Barbara, are members of the ALS Association, which works toward finding a cure for Lou Gehrig's Disease. They live in Plantation with their son, Christian.

HARVEY GREENE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT-MEDIA RELATIONS

NFL: 19th Season
Dolphins: 19th Season

Harvey Greene is in his 19th season with the Miami Dolphins, having been named as Senior Vice President - Media Relations in January of 2002. He and his staff are responsible for implementing the team's media policy on both a local and a national level.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Greene and his staff twice were recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award (1993, 1999), an annual honor awarded by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL's best public relations department, and were finalists again in 2003. In addition, Greene also has worked on the NFL PR staff at 17 of the past 18 Super Bowls and at the 1992 Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Greene spent almost four seasons as the Director of Media Relations for the New York Yankees (1986-89), and three years as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Cleveland Cavaliers (1983-86), where he twice won the McHugh/Splaver Award (1984, 1985) as the outstanding PR Director in the NBA. He also served as an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the men's and women's basketball competition at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and for the 1994 Soccer World Cup, supervised media center operations for figure skating and short-track speed skating at the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, and was a press operations manager for the World Baseball Classic in 2006.

Greene also served on the Board of Directors for the Max Kase B'nai B'rith Sports Lodge and was a press officer at the 2004 Democratic Convention in Boston. He received his B.A. with honors from the University of Pennsylvania and resides in Parkland with his wife, Cathy.

JILL R. STRAFACI

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT-FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

NFL: 19th Season
Dolphins: 19th Season

Beginning her 19th season with the Dolphins, Jill Strafaci assumed her current role as Senior Vice President - Finance and Administration in March of 2000 after serving as Vice President - Finance (1995-99) and Treasurer (1990-94). She originally joined the Dolphins as Assistant Chief Financial Officer in October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club. Her duties include all financial operations of the team, including budgeting, cash management, insurance, human resources and administration of the club's employee benefit plans, while also assisting with special projects. In addition, she oversees the Miami Dolphins Foundation, which she helped implement in 1995.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafaci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafaci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Davie with her husband, Frank, and their sons, Trent and Tyler.

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

CAM CAMERON

HEAD COACH

College: Indiana
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: First Season

Cam Cameron signed a four-year contract on January 19, 2007 to become the Miami Dolphins seventh head coach. He joins the Dolphins with an outstanding pedigree, having played or coached under some of sports' greatest winners, including Bob Knight, Bo Schembechler, and Marty Schottenheimer.

He also is universally respected as one of the top quarterback tutors in the game. As an indication of his prowess in developing quarterbacks, four of Cameron's last five starting QBs went on to earn Pro Bowl or collegiate All-American selection – Philip Rivers, Drew Brees, Antwaan Randle El, and Gus Frerotte.

Cameron joined the Dolphins from the San Diego Chargers, where he spent the last five seasons (2002-06) orchestrating the Bolts' potent offense. With Cameron as offensive coordinator, San Diego led the National Football League in scoring in 2006 and finished third and fifth in that category in 2004 and 2005, respectively. Over those three seasons (2004-2006), the Chargers amassed 1,356 points, a figure surpassed only by the Indianapolis Colts (1,388 points), a difference of only 32 points over 48 games. In addition, he was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl performers Brees, Rivers, LaDainian Tomlinson, and Antonio Gates.

In 2006, the Chargers led the NFL in scoring with a team-record 492 points. It was the third season in a row the team scored more than 400 points, the first time the Chargers accomplished that feat in consecutive seasons since 1980-81. That also was the tenth-highest scoring total in NFL history since the league went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. They were the only team in the league to rush for 2,500 yards and pass for 3,400 yards, and led the NFL in red zone touchdowns with 42 TDs in 62 trips (67.7%). The Chargers also set a team record by rushing for more than 100 yards in 14 of the 16 games last year, and scored 20 or more points in all but one of those contests.

Under Cameron's direction, quarterback Philip Rivers posted a 14-2 record in his first season as a starter, which is tied for the second-best record by a QB in his first 16 starts. Cameron's play-calling helped San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson become the Associated Press Most Valuable Player in 2006, when he led the league in rushing with a team record 1,815 yards and set single season NFL records for most total touchdowns (31) and most rushing touchdowns (28). In all, six members of Cameron's offensive squad were named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2005, Cameron oversaw an offense that produced a 3,500-yard passer (Brees), a 1,000-yard rusher (Tomlinson), and a 1,000-yard receiver (Gates). It was the second time in team history that it happened and the first time since 1981. The Chargers were one of only six NFL teams to feature such a threesome.

Also in 2005, the trio of Brees, Tomlinson and Gates was one of only four in the league to combine for 20 touchdown passes, 10 rushing touchdowns and 10 touchdown catches. It marked the second consecutive year that the trio achieved that feat and the fifth time in team history.

With the Chargers scoring 446 points in 2004 (the third highest total in the NFL behind Indianapolis and Kansas City), all three players were selected to the Pro Bowl after the season. But that wasn't the only honor Cameron and the offense received that season; in recognition of his accomplishments molding that group into one of the most potent units in the league, Cameron was named NFL Offensive Assistant Coach of the Year by SportsIllustrated.com. In addition, Brees finished with 27 touchdown passes and 3,159 passing yards. His 104.8 passer rating ranked third in the NFL. In addition to his Pro Bowl selection, Brees' awards that season included Comeback Player of the Year and Most Improved Player of the Year honors.

In 2003, with Cameron heading the offense, Tomlinson became the first player in league history to rush for more than 1,000 yards and catch 100 passes in the same season. Tomlinson racked up 2,370 yards from scrimmage, second-most in NFL history, and rushed for 1,645 yards, third-most in team history.

In 2002, Cameron's first season as offensive coordinator, Tomlinson rushed for a then-team record 1,683 yards. In addition, Brees made his first career start and finished the season with 3,284 passing yards and 17 touchdowns.

Cameron joined the Chargers after five seasons (1997-2001) as the head coach at Indiana University. During his tenure in Bloomington, Cameron was responsible for the creative utilization of Antwaan Randle El, one of the most versatile athletes in college football history. Randle El finished his career as the NCAA Division I-A rushing leader among quarterbacks and was the only player in major college football history to both rush for 40 touchdowns and pass for 40 touchdowns in a career. He finished his career ranked fifth on the NCAA Division I-A total yardage list with 11,366 yards, one spot ahead of Doug Flutie, and had four of the top five seasons in offensive production in Indiana history.

In 2001, his Hoosier team was ranked third in the Big Ten and 19th nationally in total offense (435.3 yards per game) and was fourth in the country in rushing offense (269 yards per game). Their Big Ten victories included wins over Wisconsin in Madison (63-32), at Michigan State (37-28), Northwestern (56-21) and Purdue (13-7). Randle El finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy race, earned first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association, and was named as the Big Ten MVP. In addition, running back Levron Williams led the country in all-purpose yardage with more than 200 yards per game, and all five of the team's offensive linemen garnered All-Big Ten accolades, with four of them earning NFL contracts.

In 2000, Cameron's Indiana team was 13th nationally in total offense. In particular, the Hoosiers averaged 266.4 rushing yards per game, which led the Big Ten and was seventh in the nation. The team's average of 5.8 yards per carry ranked second nationally behind Nebraska. They scored more than 30 points on seven different occasions, including 45 points vs. Iowa and 51 against 23rd ranked Minnesota. A year earlier, in 1999, Indiana was 34th in total offense nationally and 19th in rushing offense.

In addition to developing his student-athletes on the field, Cameron worked hard to ensure their success in the classroom as well. During his tenure at Indiana, the school was one of only 13 universities in the country that was recognized by the AFCA for graduation rates of 70 percent or better for three consecutive years (1999-01).

Cameron's first NFL coaching stop came as the Washington Redskins' quarterbacks coach from 1994-96. While serving on Norv Turner's staff, Cameron oversaw the development of 1994 seventh-round pick Gus Frerotte, who became a Pro Bowler in 1996, and Trent Green, who served as the team's third quarterback in 1995 and 1996 before eventually becoming a two-time Pro Bowl quarterback for Kansas City.

Before moving to the NFL, Cameron was an assistant at the University of Michigan from 1984-93, serving the first six of those years under the late Bo Schembechler. Cameron started as a graduate assistant (1984-85) before working as the wide receivers coach from 1986-89. In addition to the wide receivers, he coached the quarterbacks from 1990-93, including 1991 when Wolverines wide receiver Desmond Howard won the Heisman Trophy. During his 10 seasons as an assistant at Michigan, the program won six Big Ten titles and played in 10 bowl games. In addition to Howard, Cameron was the position coach for such future NFL players as quarterbacks Elvis Grbac and Todd Collins as well as wide receivers Derrick Alexander and Amani Toomer, among others.

Grbac ended his Michigan career under Cameron as one of the most prolific passers in school history. He finished in 1992 as the school record-holder in eight different career passing categories, including completion percentage (62.5), completions (522), yards passing (6,460), touchdowns (71) and passing efficiency (148.14). He was the NCAA leader in passing efficiency in both 1991 (169.0) and 1992 (150.18) and was a finalist for the 1992 Johnny Unitas and Davey O'Brien Awards.

In 1991 Grbac's 25 touchdown passes set a school record. That same year, along with Heisman Trophy winner Howard, the duo set the NCAA record for most touchdowns by the same quarterback/receiver tandem in a career (31), and tied the NCAA single-season record for touchdown by the same passer and receiver (19).

That same season Howard caught 61 passes for 950 yards with those 19 touchdowns as a senior. He set an NCAA record at the time with at least one touchdown catch in ten consecutive games.

For Cameron, the move into coaching was a natural fit. His stepfather, Tom Harp, was a head coach at Cornell (1961-65), Duke (1966-70), and Indiana State (1973-77). Cameron and Harp each have a unique distinction of coaching a Heisman Trophy winner. Cameron coached Howard at Michigan, while Harp was an assistant coach at Army when Pete Dawkins won that trophy in 1958.

Before embarking on his coaching career, as a collegian Cameron played varsity football and basketball at Indiana. He earned two letters as a quarterback for Lee Corso (1982) and Sam Wyche (1983) and two (1981-82, 1982-83) playing basketball for Bob Knight before a football knee injury in his senior year ended his playing career. He graduated from Indiana in 1983 with a degree in business.

Cameron was a two-sport prep standout for South Vigo High School in Terre Haute, Ind., where he lived while his stepfather coached at Indiana State. In football he was an All-America selection at quarterback as a senior and earned all-state honors twice and all-county honors three times. He was named Vigo County's Athlete of the Year in 1978 and 1979. Cameron also led his team to three consecutive state basketball finals, and in 1979 he was named the winner of the state's prestigious Trester Award for mental attitude. Also in 1979, he was named national Athlete of the Year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Cameron was born on February 6, 1961 in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. He and his wife, Missy, have four children, sons Tommy, Danny, and Christopher, and daughter Elizabeth.

KEITH ARMSTRONG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

College: Temple
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season

Keith Armstrong is entering his seventh season guiding the Dolphins' special teams units.

In Armstrong's six previous seasons with the team, the Dolphins have finished in the top eight in the NFL in punt return defense all but one season. Dolphins' opponents have averaged only 6.1 yards per punt return during this time, including a 4.5-yard mark in 2001 when they led the league in this category, and a 4.9-yard average in 2005, which ranked third in the league. In addition, the Dolphins have allowed just one punt or kickoff return for a touchdown over the last six years, tied with Dallas for the fewest in the NFL over this stretch. The Dolphins also have been in the top eight in the NFL in opponents' average drive start after kickoffs all six seasons, including a No. 1 ranking in 2003 with a 25.0 mark and a No. 2 finish last year, with a 24.9 figure.

In 2005, the Dolphins' special teams unit achieved a No. 4 ranking in a rating system compiled by the Dallas Morning News, which consists of numerous special teams categories. The year before, they finished third.

Armstrong came to the Dolphins after serving the previous four seasons (1997-00) in the same role with the Chicago Bears. In 2000, Chicago's special teams blocked a pair of opponent field goal attempts while also ranking fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0-yards per return. In 1998 and 1999, the Bears' special teams unit ranked fourth overall in the NFL based on a formula consisting of numerous categories. In 1999, Armstrong's group recovered six fumbles and blocked an NFL-high four field goals. In Armstrong's four seasons, the Bears ranked in the top ten in the NFL in punt return average, punt coverage and kickoff coverage twice each. In 1999, they led the league in kickoff coverage, having allowed an average of just 16.6 yards per return.

Armstrong first started in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons in 1994, where he coached the safeties for two years before being promoted to secondary coach in 1996. Prior to his full-time positions in the NFL, Armstrong was part of the league's Minority Coaching Fellowship program during training camps with the Jets (1991), Dallas (1992) and Chicago (1993).

Armstrong was a four-year letterman (1983-86) as a running back and defensive back at Temple University, where he earned his undergraduate degree in health education. He started his coaching tenure as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1987. He went to the University of Miami (Fla.) in 1988 where he worked with the defensive backs and special teams. Armstrong spent one year with the Hurricanes before joining the Akron staff as receivers coach in 1989. A one-year tenure there preceded his move to Oklahoma State, where he served three years (1990-92) as secondary coach. His final collegiate post came as linebackers and special teams coach at Notre Dame in 1993.

Armstrong, who grew up in Levittown, Pa., attended Bishop Egan High School in Philadelphia. He and his wife, Kathleen, have two daughters, Kaitlin and Kristen.

DOM CAPERS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College: Mount Union
NFL: 22nd Season
Dolphins: Second Season

Dom Capers, one of the most respected defensive coaches in the NFL is entering his second season with the Miami Dolphins in 2007. Of Capers' 21 seasons in the NFL, nine have been spent as a head coach, including four with the Carolina Panthers (1995-98) and five with the Houston Texans (2001-05).

In Capers' initial season heading up the Dolphins' defense in 2006, the unit allowed an average of 289.1 yards per contest, as they ranked No. 4 in overall defense in the NFL, a 14-spot improvement from the previous season. They also ranked fifth in points allowed (283) and third in total sacks (47). Defensive end Jason Taylor and linebacker Zach Thomas both were voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, while Taylor was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year, the second player to earn this accolade under Capers' tutelage, as Pittsburgh cornerback Rod Woodson came away with the honor in 1993 while Capers was the Steelers' defensive coordinator.

Capers was hired by the expansion Texans on January 21, 2001, more than a year before the franchise played its first game. After finishing 4-12 in the club's inaugural season, the team improved its record from the previous year in both 2003 (5-11) and 2004 (7-9) before falling to 2-14 in 2005.

Taking over an expansion team was nothing new for Capers, who also was the head coach with the Carolina Panthers from 1995-98. He guided that team to a 7-9 record in its first season, as they set an NFL record for most wins by an expansion club. That year, he was the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA Coach of the Year. The following year, the Panthers posted a record of 12-4, captured the NFC West title, and played in the NFC Championship game where they fell to the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers. For his team's performance, Capers was a consensus choice as NFL Coach of the Year. Carolina's four-year record under Capers was 30-34.

Capers got his start in the pro coaching ranks as defensive backs coach with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1984-85, as the team claimed the league title both years. He followed Jim Mora to the NFL in 1986 and served as the Saints' defensive backs coach from 1986-91, during which time the team qualified for the playoffs three times – the first three postseason appearances in that franchise's history. In his final year in New Orleans, the Saints finished second in the NFL in pass defense. Capers was named defensive coordinator with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992. The Steelers won a pair of AFC Central Division crowns during Capers' three years with the team (1992-94), made the playoffs all three years and played in the AFC Championship game in 1994. Linebacker Greg Lloyd and cornerback Rod Woodson each were selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad all three seasons. In Capers' last season in Pittsburgh, the Steelers led the NFL in rush defense as he was named the Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. Following his first stop as a head coach, Capers was named defensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1999, and manned that spot for the next two years. Under Capers, the Jaguars ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense in his first season there, a 21-spot improvement from the previous year. Jacksonville also led the NFL in scoring defense that year (13.6 ppg), set club records for sacks (57) and interceptions (19), and equaled the team mark for takeaways (30). Following the season, Capers was named Assistant Coach of the Year by several media outlets.

Prior to embarking on his professional coaching career, Capers made stops as a collegiate assistant at Kent State (graduate assistant, 1972-74), Hawaii (1975-76), San Jose State (1977), California (1978-79), Tennessee (1980-81) and Ohio State (1982-83).

Capers graduated with a degree in physical education and a minor in psychology from Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, where he played safety and linebacker. He went on to earn his master's degree in administration from Kent State.

Capers grew up in Buffalo, Ohio, where he was a star athlete at Meadowbrook High School.

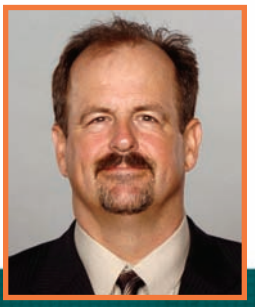
TIM DAVIS



ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

College: Utah
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Tim Davis enters his third season as an NFL assistant, as he works alongside Hudson Houck in tutoring the Dolphins' offensive line. Davis joined the Dolphins with more than 15 years of experience at the collegiate level, including the previous three with the 2004 national champion USC Trojans.

In his first season with the Dolphins in 2005, Davis helped Houck transform an offensive line that allowed only 26 sacks, the fourth-lowest figure in the NFL that year. Led by the offensive line, the Dolphins' running game averaged 4.3 yards per rush attempt in 2005 and 4.2 last year, representing the first time the Dolphins have averaged better than a 4.0 yards per carry in consecutive seasons since 1986-87.

In Davis' three years at USC, the team won a major bowl game each season and claimed at least a share of the national championship the final two years. He was in charge of the Trojans' guards and centers in his first year at the school before handling the entire line from 2003-04. In Davis' two years in this capacity, USC yielded a total of only 40 sacks, an average of 1.5 per game. In 2003, tackle Jacob Rogers was a consensus All-America selection and went on to become a second-round draft choice of Dallas in 2004. In addition, the line blocked for a pair of Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks in Carson Palmer (2002) and Matt Leinart (2004).

Davis first went to USC in 2002 following a five-year stint (1997-2001) as tight ends/offensive tackles coach at the University of Wisconsin. The Badgers played in a bowl game in four of those five seasons and in 1999, Davis helped coach an offensive line that led the way for Heisman Trophy winning running back Ron Dayne. Davis got his start in the coaching profession at the Madison, Wis. school as a volunteer assistant in 1983 and 1986, and a graduate assistant from 1984-85. After one more year as a graduate assistant, at the University of Arizona in 1987, Davis landed his first full-time coaching position the following year, as offensive coordinator at Walla Walla (Wash.) Community College. He moved on to Idaho State as offensive line coach in 1989 before being named to the same post at Utah in 1990, a spot which he manned for the next seven seasons. During that seven-year stint at Utah, the Utes made four bowl appearances after not having been to a postseason game since 1964.

After beginning his collegiate career at Chabot Junior College in Hayward, Calif., Davis went on to become a three-year letterman as an offensive tackle at Utah, from 1978-80. He earned his degree in physical education from the Salt Lake City school in 1982, and his master's degree in higher education from Wisconsin in 1986. Following his collegiate playing career, he had brief stints with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian League (1981) and the Los Angeles Express of the USFL (1983).

A native of Castro Valley, Calif., Davis and his wife, Janice, have a son, Nick, and a daughter, Mary Rose.

DOLPHINS BEFORE AND AFTER BYES

Since the NFL first instituted the open week in 1990, the Dolphins are 9-8 in games preceding the bye week, including a 34-24 loss to Green Bay on October 22 of last year at Dolphin Stadium.

Miami owns an 11-7 record in games following a bye week, including a 31-13 win over Chicago on November 5 of last year at Soldier Field. The Dolphins recorded victories in each of their first seven games following the bye and eight of their first nine.

MICHAEL DUMAS

DEFENSIVE SECONDARY COACHES ASSISTANT

College: Indiana
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Michael Dumas, a veteran of nine seasons as a player in the NFL, is entering his third season as a member of the Dolphins' staff and the first in his current role. For the past two years, he has assisted with player development and special teams.

Dumas was originally selected by the Houston Oilers in the second round of the 1991 draft, and played with Houston (1991-93), Buffalo (1994), Jacksonville (1995) and San Diego (1997-2000) during his NFL tenure. He appeared in 102 regular season games, over that time, including 53 starts. He recorded 363 tackles, seven interceptions and five sacks. He also posted 50 special teams tackles.

Dumas was a four-year letterman at Indiana University (1987-90), where he earned his degree in arts & sciences. He was a first-team All-Big Ten selection as a senior when he was a semi-finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the nation's top defensive back. Prior to that, he attended Lowell High School in his hometown of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

In addition to his work with the Dolphins, Dumas also owns a mortgage company in Plantation, Fla. He and his wife, Clemencia, have a son, Michael, Jr., and two daughters, Meela and Gabriela. He also has two stepsons, Gregory and Daniel.

DOLPHINS POST 28 ALL-TIME SHUTOUTS

The Miami Dolphins have held an opponent scoreless 28 times (25 times in the regular season and three in the playoffs) in the history of the franchise, including a high of seven shutouts of the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts. Miami has recorded 19 shutouts at home and nine on the road. Their most recent shutout occurred in a 21-0 decision over New England on December 10 of last year at Dolphin Stadium. The Dolphins have been held scoreless a total of 17 times (16 regular season, 1 playoff), including three times by the New England Patriots and Buffalo Bills and twice each by the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts, Cleveland Browns and Kansas City Chiefs. Miami has been shut out four times at home and 13 times on the road, having most recently been blanked by the Buffalo Bills, 21-0, on December 17, 2006 at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

GEORGE EDWARDS

LINEBACKERS

College: Duke
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: Third Season

George Edwards is entering his third season as the Dolphins' linebackers coach in 2007. He possesses nine seasons as an NFL assistant coach on his résumé, including one as a coordinator.

In Edwards' first year with the Dolphins, Zach Thomas was selected to the Pro Bowl for the sixth time, as he recorded 166 tackles despite only playing in 14 games. Rookie Channing Crowder, a third-round draft choice, made a tremendous impact on the success of the defense as he started 13 games and registered 90 tackles, the highest total by a Dolphins rookie since 1996 (Thomas, 180). Last year, Thomas was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad once again, and Crowder recorded 104 tackles, the second consecutive season in which the pair finished 1-2 on the team's tackle chart, respectively.

Before joining the Dolphins, Edwards was the linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2004. That followed a two-year stint with the Washington Redskins, including 2003 as the team's defensive coordinator. Following the '03 season, linebacker LaVar Arrington and cornerback Champ Bailey were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad. In 2002, Edwards served as the Redskins' assistant defensive coordinator/linebackers coach, as Arrington accounted for the most productive season of his NFL career with 107 tackles and 11 sacks in earning his second straight Pro Bowl berth. In addition, that year each of the team's starting linebackers, which also included Jesse Armstead and Jeremiah Trotter, surpassed the 100-tackle plateau.

Edwards began his NFL coaching career with a four-season stint with the Dallas Cowboys (1998-2001), where he tutored the team's linebackers. Under Edwards' guidance, Dexter Coakley, a third-round draft choice in 1997, was selected to the Pro Bowl twice over this four-year span (1999, 2001), as he was Dallas' second-leading tackler all four years.

GEORGE EDWARDS' COACHING CAREER

STEVE HOFFMAN

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

College: Dickinson College
NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: First Season

Steve Hoffman was added to the Dolphins' coaching staff on February 12, 2007. He brings with him a bevy of NFL coaching experience, having served 17 years in the league, most recently as assistant special teams coach with the Atlanta Falcons in 2006.

From 1989-2004, Hoffman worked with the Dallas Cowboys' kickers and punters, and under his guidance, kickers established 15 separate club records, including every single-season standard in team history. Punters who tutored under Hoffman, own a combined seven club marks. Following his first season with Dallas, Hoffman also held the role of quality control coach on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball.

During his tenure in Dallas, Hoffman gained the reputation for developing young kickers and punters. This included kickers such as Chris Boniol and Richie Cunningham, as well as punters such as John Jett and Toby Gowin. In fact, Hoffman brought in five rookie or first-year free agent kickers to Dallas in his 16 years with the team, and all five accounted for a minimum of 18 field goals in their first year with the club.

Cowboys' kickers and punters were instrumental in helping the team to three Super Bowl titles during Hoffman's tenure. Combined in those three seasons (1992, 1993, 1995), kickers converted 82.3 percent of their field goals (79 of 96), while punters averaged 41.6 with 60 kicks inside the 20 and just 18 touchbacks.

Prior to embarking on his NFL coaching career, Hoffman tutored the kickers and punters at the University of Miami from 1985-87, where one of his pupils was punter Jeff Feagles, who has spent the last 19 years (1988-2006) in the NFL. In his senior season of 1987, Feagles put together a career-high 40.8-yard average as he helped the Hurricanes to the national championship. In addition, Hoffman spent two springs in the Italian League, as offensive coordinator with the Bellusco Seahawks (1987) and Rho Blacknights (1988). He was a coach at Sunset High School in Miami in the fall of 1988.

While out of the NFL in 2005, Hoffman did consulting work for various NFL teams while also continuing to spend time with his own kicking and punting tutorial business. He also has been an instructor at the nationally renowned Ray Pelfrey's kicking camps.

A native of Camden, N.J., Hoffman grew up in York, Pa. He was a member of the Dickinson (Pa.) College football squad, where he played quarterback, running back and wide receiver, while also handling the kicking and punting chores. He went on to punt one year (1983) with the Washington Federals of the USFL, while also attending NFL training camps with Washington (1981, 1983), Seattle (1984) and New Orleans (1985). Hoffman holds a bachelor of arts degree in economics from Dickinson and a master's of science degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami. He is married to Aline, and has a daughter, Micaela, and a son, Luca.

HUDSON HOUCK

OFFENSIVE LINE

College: USC
NFL: 25th Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Hudson Houck, one of the most respected offensive line coaches in the NFL, is entering his third season as a member of the Dolphins' staff. A veteran of 24 years as an NFL assistant, Houck came to the Dolphins after spending the previous three years in the same capacity with San Diego.

In 2005, Houck transformed an offensive line that ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks allowed with 26, the lowest total by the Dolphins over the last three years, and half the total that they permitted in 2004. Houck's unit also played an integral role in the success of the Dolphins' running game, which averaged 4.3-yards per rush attempt. Last season, the running game averaged 4.2 yards per attempt, the first time a Dolphins team averaged 4.0 or better in consecutive seasons since the 1986-87 campaigns. Second-year running back Ronnie Brown put together his first 1,000-yard rushing season as a pro with 1,008 yards.

With the Chargers in 2004, Houck helped to revitalize an offensive line which featured five new starters from the previous year. The Chargers ranked tenth in the NFL in total offense, including a No. 6 finish on the ground, as they averaged 136.6 yards rushing per contest. LaDainian Tomlinson ran for more than 1,300 yards in each of Houck's three years there, including more than 1,600 in his first two. The Chargers' line permitted just 21 sacks in 2004, the fourth-lowest total in the NFL and the eighth-fewest in that franchise's 45-year history. Overall in Houck's three seasons with the Chargers, the offensive line allowed an average of only 24.6 sacks per season. Their total of 74 sacks over this three-year period was the fourth-lowest in the NFL over this stretch.

Houck joined the Chargers following a nine-year stint as offensive line coach with the Dallas Cowboys (1993-2001). This included four years (1994-97) when he also held the title of assistant head coach. Over this nine-year period, the Cowboys permitted a total of only 203 sacks, the lowest figure in the NFL. They yielded less than 20 sacks three times and less than 30 on six occasions. During Houck's tenure in Dallas, six different offensive linemen made a total of 22 trips to the Pro Bowl. This group included Larry Allen (7), Nate Newton (5), Erik Williams (4), Ray Donaldson (2), Mark Stepnoski (2) and Mark Tuinei (2). The unit helped Emmitt Smith to a pair of NFL rushing titles over this nine-year stretch as he ran for more than 1,000 yards each time.

Prior to his stint with the Cowboys, Houck spent one year (1992) tutoring the offensive line with the Seattle Seahawks, when Chris Warren rushed for 1,017 yards, the first time in his career that he reached the 1,000-yard mark. This came on the heels of another successful nine-year run, with the Los Angeles Rams from 1983-91. Over his nine-year stint with the Rams, there were seven different individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons and four individual league rushing titles, including an NFL-record 2,105 yards by Eric Dickerson in 1984. Over this stretch, five different Rams offensive linemen were voted to a combined 21 Pro Bowls, including Jackie Slater (7), Doug Smith (6), Kent Hill (3), Dennis Harrah (3) and Tom Newberry (2). In the final three years of Houck's tenure with the Rams, quarterback Jim Everett passed for more yards than any other signal caller over this span and he also did not miss a start from 1988-91.

Overall in his 24 years as an NFL assistant, Houck's lines have paved the way for twenty individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The running backs who benefitted from the blocking, which have compiled six NFL rushing titles, consist of Emmitt Smith (Dallas, 9), Eric Dickerson (Rams, 4), LaDainian Tomlinson (San Diego, 3), Greg Bell (Rams, 2), Ronnie Brown (Miami, 1), Chris Warren (Seattle, 1) and Charles White (Rams, 1).

Before embarking on his NFL coaching career, Houck tutored the offensive line at his alma mater, USC, from 1976-82. During this time, he helped send numerous Trojans to the NFL including Marvin Powell, Pat Howell, Brad Budde, Anthony Muñoz, Keith Van Horne, Chris Foote, Roy Foster, Bruce Matthews, Don Mosebar and Tony Slaton, among others. This group helped lead the way for Heisman Trophy-winning running backs Charles White and Marcus Allen, in addition to another USC great Ricky Bell, an NFL first-round draft choice in 1977.

Houck was a center at USC from 1962-64 and was part of the Trojans' 1962 national championship squad. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Crescenta Valley (Calif.) High School in 1966. After serving two years in the United States Army, Houck returned for one season at Crescenta. He then moved on to coach the freshmen team at USC from 1970-71 before becoming Stanford's offensive line coach in 1972, a position he held for four seasons. In his first year with the Cardinal, he also was the Freshman Coach.

During his tenure with the Cowboys, Houck was a supporter of The Rise School of Dallas, a nonprofit organization which provides educational services to children with Down's Syndrome. He and his offensive linemen, in conjunction with The Rise School, participated in the First Down for Down Syndrome fund-raising program.

A Los Angeles native, Houck attended that city's Eagle Rock High School. He has a son, Troy. His wife Elsie, has two children, Scott and Holly.

BOBBY JACKSON

RUNNING BACKS

College: Samford
NFL: 21st Season
Dolphins: First Season

Bobby Jackson was named the Dolphins' running backs coach on April 24, 2007. He joins the team with 20 seasons of experience as an NFL assistant, including three as an offensive coordinator.

In his NFL tenure, Jackson has coached five Pro Bowl running backs, including at least one in three of his four stops where he has tutored the running backs. The list consists of Marshall Faulk (St. Louis, 2000-02), Stephen Davis (Washington, 1999), Terry Allen (Washington, 1996), Brian Mitchell (Washington, 1995) and Marion Butts (San Diego, 1990-91).

Most recently, Jackson was the associate head coach/offensive coordinator/running backs with the Rams from 2000-02, and in his three years in St. Louis, the Rams led the NFL in total offense in 2000 and 2001 as they averaged 442.2 and 418.1 yards per game, respectively, in those two years. In addition, Marshall Faulk surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark twice during that time, finishing second in the NFC in rushing in 2000 (1,359 yards) and third in 2001 (1,382 yards). He also led all NFC running backs in receptions all three years, as he averaged more than 81 catches a season over that stretch. The Rams' running game averaged more than 4.0 yards per attempt all three seasons.

Jackson served as running backs coach with the Redskins from 1994-99 and in his six years in Washington, the team produced a 1,000-yard running back three times, including Terry Allen (1995-96) and Stephen Davis (1999). Allen finished third in the NFC in rushing both times he reached the plateau while Davis led the conference in that category in 1999. As a unit, the Redskins topped the 4.0-yard average per carry mark on four occasions.

Jackson was the running backs coach with the Phoenix Cardinals from 1992-93, and in his final year with the team, Ronald Moore amassed 1,018 yards rushing, the first Cardinals running back to break the 1,000-yard barrier since 1985. Also in '93, Larry Centers led the team with 60 receptions, a figure which ranked second among NFC running backs that year.

During Jackson's five-year tenure as running backs coach in San Diego (1987-91), the Chargers surpassed the 4.0-yard per carry mark in each of his final four seasons. In fact, over that four-year stretch (1988-91), the Chargers averaged 4.6 yards per rush attempt, and led the league in this department in 1991 (4.8), while finishing second in 1988 (4.7) and third in 1990 (4.7). Gary Anderson (1,119 yards in 1988) and Marion Butts (1,225 yards in 1990) each went over 1,000 yards rushing during that time.

Jackson's initial stop in the NFL was with the Atlanta Falcons where he served as linebackers coach from 1983-85 and tight ends coach in 1986.

Prior to his NFL stint, Jackson held collegiate assistant posts at Tennessee (1977-82), Louisville (1975-76), Kansas State (1970-74) and Florida State (1965-69). For seven of his 18 seasons at the collegiate level he served as defensive coordinator, including his stops at Kansas State (1973-74), Louisville and Tennessee (1980-82).

A native of Forsyth, Ga., Jackson attended Samford University where he was a two-time Little All-America running back for Head Coach Bobby Bowden. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from the Birmingham, Ala. school, and went on to earn his master's in physical education from George Peabody College, now a part of Vanderbilt University.

Before joining the Dolphins this offseason, Jackson had spent the previous four seasons on his farm in Central Alabama, along with his wife, Nancy.

Jackson and his wife have two sons, Jeff and Ken.

STOFA TRADED TWICE BY DOLPHINS

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on December 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first- and second-round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on November 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

TRAVIS JONES

DEFENSIVE LINE (ENDS)

College: Georgia
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Now in his third season as an NFL assistant, Travis Jones was named to the Dolphins' coaching staff on January 19, 2005.

In his first year with the Dolphins in 2005, Jones assisted with a defensive line that was responsible for 35 of the team's 49 sacks and the unit helped to hold opponents to a 3.7-yard average per rush attempt, the fourth-best figure in the AFC.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Jones spent the previous two seasons (2003-04) at LSU where he was the Tigers' defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator both years. In Jones' first season in Baton Rouge, the Tigers' defensive front recorded 31 of the team's school-record 44 sacks, while also limiting opponents to 67 yards rushing per game, a figure that ranked first in the SEC and third nationally. Defensive tackle Chad Lavalais was a consensus All-American and a finalist for the Nagurski and Lombardi Awards. Lavalais was named National Defensive Player of the Year by the Sporting News and SEC Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches. Following the 2003 season, Lavalais and defensive end Marquise Hill were both selected in the NFL Draft. Defensive end Marcus Spears was named First-Team All-SEC in 2003 by the Associated Press and was a consensus All-America pick in 2004 as he registered nine sacks that year, tied for the fourth-highest single-season total in school history and the most since 1995. Spears was a first-round draft choice of Dallas in 2005.

Prior to his stint at LSU, Jones served as a member of the Kansas coaching staff for two years (2001-02), where he worked with the Jayhawks' defensive linemen. While there, he tutored defensive tackle Nate Dwyer, a first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2001, who also was a fourth-round draft choice of Arizona in 2002. That was preceded by a three-year stint as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Appalachian State (1998-2000). Jones began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Georgia, as a graduate assistant in 1997 where he worked with the defensive line, which included a pair of freshmen in Richard Seymour and Marcus Stroud. Jones was a four-year letterwinner (1990-92, 94) as a defensive lineman for the Bulldogs and served as a defensive captain in his final year before graduating in 1995. He also earned a master's degree from the school in 1998.

Jones played one season with the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League in 1995 and then joined the Florida Bobcats of the Arena League in 1996.

A native of Irwinton, Ga., Jones and his wife, Melody, have two daughters, Kennedi and Avery.

MARVIN MARSHALL

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

College: South Carolina State
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: First Season

Marvin Marshall enters his first season with the Dolphins after spending the 2006 season as an offensive assistant with the San Diego Chargers. Prior to that, he was an assistant to the wide receivers coach with the New Orleans Saints in 2005 after serving as an offensive assistant with the Hamburg Sea Devils of NFL Europa that spring. Marshall also was the offensive coordinator with the Augusta (Ga.) Spartans of the World Indoor Football League in the spring of 2006.

Marshall was a four-year starter at quarterback at South Carolina State, from 1991-94. He was the MEAC Offensive Player of the Year as a senior when he led the team to a 10-2 record and became the first player in conference history to throw and run for 1,000 yards in the same season. He earned his degree in business management in the spring of 1995. Marshall went to camp with Indianapolis as an undrafted college free agent in 1995, where he was converted to wide receiver and return specialist. After being released in camp by the Colts, he spent time with Tampa Bay from 1995-98, in addition to the Barcelona Dragons of the NFL Europe League in 1996 and the Carolina Cobras of the Arena League in 2000.

His first stop as a coach came at Hephzibah (Ga.) High School in 2001. He also was the offensive coordinator at Josey High School in Augusta, Ga., from 2002-04.

Marshall, who attended Butler High School in Augusta, is the younger brother of former Denver Broncos and New York Giants wide receiver Arthur Marshall. Marvin and his wife, Lascotia, have two sons, Marvin, Jr. and Matlin.

MARVIN MARSHALL'S COACHING CAREER

2005	New Orleans Saints - Assistant to the Wide Receivers Coach
2006	San Diego Chargers – Offensive Assistant
2007-	Miami Dolphins – Offensive Quality Control

TWO DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Two Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season.

BRETT MAXIE

SECONDARY (SAFETIES)

College: Texas Southern
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: First Season

Brett Maxie, a veteran of 13 seasons as a player in the NFL and nine years as a coach, enters his first season as a member of the Dolphins' staff. He comes to the team following a three-year stint tutoring the defensive backs with the Atlanta Falcons.

During Maxie's three years in Atlanta, he oversaw the development of cornerback DeAngelo Hall, a first-round draft choice in 2004 who has totaled 10 interceptions over the last two years (2005-06) and has been selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad both times. In Maxie's first year with the Falcons, the defense recorded a club-record five defensive touchdowns, four of which came via interceptions. Prior to his tenure in Atlanta, Maxie spent five seasons with San Francisco, including 1999-2001 as the team's assistant secondary coach and 2002-03 as secondary coach. In those final two years, safety Tony Parrish collected 16 interceptions, the highest total in the NFL over this stretch. This included nine in 2003, tied for the highest figure in the NFL. Maxie got his start as an NFL assistant 1998 when he served as defensive backs/defensive quality control coach with the Carolina Panthers, where he worked under Dolphins' defensive coordinator Dom Capers, then the head coach with Carolina.

Maxie's coaching tenure followed a 13-year playing career which started as an undrafted college free agent with New Orleans in 1985. In his career, he played with the Saints (1985-93), Atlanta (1994), Carolina (1995-96) and San Francisco (1997). He appeared in 153 regular season games, including 104 starts, and recorded 23 career interceptions, three of which he returned for touchdowns. With the Saints from 1986-91, Capers was Maxie's secondary coach. Maxie also played for the Panthers while Capers was the head coach.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Maxie played collegiately at Texas Southern, where he earned his degree in biology. He and his wife, Angela, have two sons, Brett and Adam, and two daughters, Maya and Olivia.

BRETT MAXIE'S COACHING CAREER

1998	Carolina Panthers – Defensive Backs/Quality Control Coach
1999-2003	San Francisco 49ers – Assistant Secondary Coach (1999-2001) Secondary Coach (2002-03)

DOLPHINS AT HOME AGAINST DOMED TEAMS

In 2006, Miami was 1-0 at home in games against teams which play their home games in an indoor venue. Overall, the Dolphins own a 34-13 (.723) record at home in regular season games against teams which play their home games indoors.

MIKE MULARKEY

TIGHT ENDS

College: Florida
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Second Season

Mike Mularkey begins his second season as a member of the Dolphins coaching staff in 2007. He owns and impressive NFL résumé, and is one of several members of the offensive staff with experience as a coordinator or head coach in the NFL. Before joining the Dolphins in 2006, Mularkey had spent the previous two seasons (2004-05) as head coach with the Buffalo Bills.

In Mularkey's two years in Buffalo, the team posted a composite record of 14-18, including a 9-7 mark in his first season there as the Bills reeled off wins in nine of their final 12 games.

Prior to taking over the helm with the Bills, Mularkey spent the previous eight seasons (1996-2003) on the staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers, including the final three as offensive coordinator. Under Mularkey's guidance, Pittsburgh finished third and fifth, respectively, in the NFL in total offense in his first two years in the post, and led the league in rushing offense (173.4 ypg) in 2001. Also that year, quarterback Kordell Stewart threw for 3,109 yards and was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. The Steelers went 13-3 in 2001, captured the AFC Central Division title and played in the AFC Championship game. In 2002, Mularkey oversaw the resurgence of quarterback Tommy Maddox, who, after having not played in the NFL from 1996-2000, completed 234 of 377 passes for 2,836 yards with 20 touchdowns and 16 interceptions and was named NFL Comeback Player of the Year. Maddox's 62.1 percent completion mark that year was a franchise single-season record at the time.

Prior to being elevated to offensive coordinator, Mularkey spent his first five years in Pittsburgh as the team's tight ends coach. During that time, he oversaw the development of Mark Bruener, who was regarded as one of the premier run-blocking tight ends over this stretch. In Mularkey's five years as the Steelers' tight ends coach, Jerome Bettis shattered the 1,000-yard rushing plateau each time and the Steelers as a team placed in the top ten in the NFL in rushing offense every year, including a No. 2 finish in 1996 and a No. 1 ranking in 1997.

Mularkey got his start in the NFL coaching ranks as a quality control coach with Tampa Bay in 1994. He was promoted to tight ends coach with the Bucs the following year, and in his lone season in that post, tight end Jackie Harris caught a team-high 62 passes for 751 yards, one of only three tight ends in that teams' history to top the club's receiving chart.

Mularkey was a ninth-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 1983. He was picked up off waivers by Minnesota in training camp that year and went on to play the next six seasons with the Vikings. He joined Pittsburgh as a Plan B free agent in 1989 and played three years with the Steelers. His career totals consist of 114 games played, during which time he tallied 102 receptions for 1,222 yards and nine touchdowns. He had his most productive season in 1990 when he caught 32 passes for 365 yards and three touchdowns. Following his playing career, he served as offensive line coach at Concordia College in 1993.

A Florida native, Mularkey lettered three years at the University of Florida (1980-82). Prior to that, he attended Northeast High School in Ft. Lauderdale, where he played quarterback. He and his wife, Betsy, have two sons, Patrick and Shane.

MEL PHILLIPS

SECONDARY (CORNERBACKS)

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 27th Season
Dolphins: 23rd Season

Mel Phillips enters his 23rd season as a coach for the Dolphins. During his first 11 years with the club, Phillips served as defensive backs coach. His 22 straight seasons with the same team is tied for the second-longest current streak among NFL position coaches, trailing only Cincinnati running backs coach Jim Anderson (1984), and tied with Detroit defensive assistant Don Clemons.

Phillips has helped the Dolphins finish in the top eight in the NFL in pass defense seven of the last nine seasons, including a No. 1 finish in 2001 (176.8 ypg) and a No. 2 finish in 2004 (162.0 ypg). In 2006, they allowed 187.9 yards per game through the air, the fifth-lowest figure in the NFL. They accomplished this feat although the unit consisted of four new starters from 2005, including strong safety Yeremiah Bell, who was in his first season as an NFL starter.

In 2005, Phillips presided over a unit that consisted of three new starters from the previous season, including one rookie. They yielded an average of only 6.71 yards per pass play, the third-lowest figure in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. Travis Daniels, a fourth-round draft choice, started 14 games, tied for the most by a rookie cornerback in team history, along with Curtis Johnson (1970).

Under Phillips, Dolphins defensive backs have had a knack for coming up with the big play, having returned 16 interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns over the last 12 years. In Phillips' 22 previous seasons, the team's defensive backs have brought back a total of 27 interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns.

Since 2000, three different Dolphins defensive backs have been selected for the Pro Bowl a total of ten times, including three-fourths of the backfield in 2002 when cornerbacks Sam Madison and Patrick Surtain, as well as free safety Brock Marion were chosen. In fact, Madison and Surtain are the only cornerbacks in Dolphins history to earn Pro Bowl honors.

In 1998, Miami registered an NFL-high 29 interceptions, the second-most in team history, trailing only the 32 from 1978. In 2000, Phillips' unit again led the league in interceptions, snaring 28 enemy passes, including an AFC-high seven by strong safety Brian Walker. Madison and Marion were voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first time since 1974 that two Dolphins defensive backs were chosen for the Pro Bowl in the same season. All four starters in Miami's secondary tallied at least five interceptions in 2000, as the Dolphins became the first NFL team since the 1981 Tampa Bay Buccaneers to have at least four players record five or more interceptions in the same season. In 2001, for just the third time in club history, the Dolphins led the NFL in pass defense as they allowed an average of only 176.8 yards per contest. In 2004, the Dolphins permitted just 2,592 net passing yards, the best performance by the Dolphins in a 16-game season.

Before coming to Miami in 1985, Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84).

A native of Shelby, N.C., Phillips played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include 10 interceptions for 106 return yards (including a 35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, he rushed for 648 yards and 11 touchdowns on 100 carries, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette and Yvette and live in Miami Lakes.

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Glenn Pires is entering his fifth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff and the first in his current role.

Pires joined the Dolphins after spending each of the previous two years (2001-02) as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions. He got his start in the NFL coaching ranks tutoring the linebackers with the Arizona Cardinals in 1996, and spent the next five years in that post.

Pires was a four-year letterman (1976-79) as an offensive lineman at Springfield (Mass.) College. After earning his bachelor's degree in education from the school in 1980, he embarked on his coaching career as an assistant at Melrose (Mass.) High School. In 1983, he went to Syracuse as a graduate assistant and served the next two years with the Orange. After earning his master's degree in education from Syracuse, Pires got his first full-time position in the collegiate ranks, tutoring the linebackers and defensive line at Dartmouth College in 1985. After four years at the Ivy League school, he returned to Syracuse in 1989 where he served as both defensive line coach (1989-90) and outside linebackers coach (1991-94). He then had a one-year stint (1995) as outside linebackers coach/recruiting coordinator at Michigan State University.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, have a daughter, Jackie, and a son, Michael.

DIRON REYNOLDS

DEFENSIVE LINE (TACKLES)

College: Wake Forest
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: First Season

Diron Reynolds was named to the Dolphins' coaching staff on February 8, 2007 following a five-year stint as the defensive quality control coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2002-06).

Prior to his tenure with the Colts, Reynolds spent one year (2001) tutoring the defensive tackles at Indiana University, where he worked under Dolphins Head Coach Cam Cameron, the head coach for the Hoosiers at the time.

Reynolds played linebacker at Wake Forest from 1990-93, and earned his degree in communications. He was a member of the team that claimed the 1992 Independence Bowl. Upon graduation, he spent two years coaching football, basketball and track at Brooklyn-Cayce High School in Columbia, S.C. Following that, he served as a graduate assistant at Wake Forest from 1997-98, where he earned his master's degree in liberal arts. He was promoted to outside linebackers coach for the Demon Deacons in 1999, and held that post for two years.

Reynolds is the older brother of former Florida State defensive end Jamal Reynolds, a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 2001. Another brother, Rashad, played linebacker at Rice, while his father, William, was a defensive end at South Carolina State. Diron and his family reside in Fort Lauderdale.

TERRY ROBISKIE

WIDE RECEIVERS

College: Louisiana State
NFL: 26th Season
Dolphins: First Season

Terry Robiskie, who has spent the last 25 years as an NFL assistant, was named the Dolphins' wide receivers coach on January 24, 2007. He comes to the team following a six-year stint with the Cleveland Browns, during which time he served as head coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Robiskie got his start as an NFL assistant with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1982, and spent the next 12 years with the Silver and Black. During that time he served in a variety of roles including assistant special teams coach (1982-84), assistant running backs coach (1985-87), tight ends coach (1988) and offensive coordinator (1989-93). In his 12 years with the Raiders, the team made seven playoff appearances, won four division titles and defeated Washington in Super Bowl XVIII. Following his stay with the Raiders, Robiskie moved on to the Washington Redskins where he spent the next seven seasons (1994-2000). He was the team's wide receivers coach from 1994-98 and the passing game coordinator his final two seasons. In addition, he spent the final three games of 2000 as interim head coach, in which Washington went 1-2. The team's win occurred in a 20-3 outcome in the finale, on December 24 against Arizona. In his first three years in Washington, Robiskie served on a staff that also included Dolphins' Head Coach Cam Cameron, who was quarterbacks coach. In Robiskie's seven years with the team, there were five different individual 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including one each by Michael Westbrook (1,191) and Albert Connell (1,132) in 1999. With Robiskie as passing game coordinator in 1999, Brad Johnson was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl squad as he threw for 4,005 yards, the second-highest total in franchise history. He went to the Browns in 2001 as wide receivers coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator for the 2004 season. He was the team's interim head coach for the final five games of 2004, during which time the Browns went 1-4. His win came in a 22-14 decision in the finale, on January 2, 2005 at Houston. He spent the last two years in Cleveland tutoring the wide receivers. Under Robiskie's guidance, Kevin Johnson totaled 1,097 receiving yards and nine TDs on 84 catches in 2001, and Antonio Bryant tallied 1,009 yards and four scores on 69 receptions in 2005, the most productive seasons in their respective careers. In 2006, second-year wide receiver Braylon Edwards nearly doubled his receiving totals from his rookie season as he caught 61 passes for 884 yards last year, while his six touchdowns doubled his total of three from 2005.

Robiskie is a New Orleans native who went on to letter four years as a running back at LSU. As a senior in 1976, he was named the Southeastern Conference MVP. The Raiders made him an eighth-round draft choice in 1977, and he went on to play the next three seasons with the team (1977-79). He joined the Dolphins in 1980, where he spent the next two years. His career totals consist of 553 rushing yards and five touchdowns on 159 attempts, and 23 receptions for 147 yards. Robiskie will become the seventh person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins, joining Jeff Dellenbach, Bob Matheson, Tony Nathan, Bernie Parmalee, Larry Seiple and Dwight Stephenson.

Robiskie and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons, Brian, Andrew and Kyle. Brian is entering his junior season as a wide receiver on the Ohio State football team. Andrew is in his freshman season as an offensive lineman on the University of Hawaii football team, while Kyle will be moving to Fort Lauderdale with his family to start his junior year of high school.

TERRY SHEA

QUARTERBACKS

College: Oregon
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: First Season

Terry Shea was named the Dolphins' quarterbacks coach on February 19, 2007, bringing with him six years of experience in the NFL, including one as a coordinator. He also has been a head coach at the major college level for seven years.

Most recently, Shea was the quarterbacks coach with the Kansas City Chiefs the last two years, his second stint with the club. Under Shea's tutelage, quarterback Trent Green earned the second Pro Bowl berth of his career in 2005 as he threw for more than 4,000 yards and compiled a passer rating of over 90.0. In 2006, Damon Huard, who played in 10 games, starting eight of them in place of the injured Green, amassed a career-best 98.0 passer rating, the second-best mark in the NFL last year. Prior to joining the Chiefs, Shea was the offensive coordinator with the Chicago Bears in 2004. Shea's first three seasons as Kansas City's quarterbacks coach (2001-03) coincided with the three most productive seasons of Green's career to that point. He started all 16 games each of those three seasons, and in 2003, tossed for more than 4,000 yards for the first time in his career and was selected to his initial Pro Bowl berth.

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Shea was the head coach at Rutgers University from 1996-2000, and during that span was instrumental in the development of quarterback Mike McMahon, currently with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts. In 1998, Shea was named Big East Coach of the Year as the Scarlet Knights posted a record of 5-6.

Shea got his start in the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at the University of Oregon, his alma mater, from 1968-69. Following a six-year stint as an assistant coach at Mt. Hood Community College (1970-75), he latched on to his first full-time position at the Division I-A level when he was named defensive backs/special teams coach at Utah State in 1976. After two years in that spot, he switched sides of the ball, tutoring the quarterbacks and wide receivers from 1978-80 before being elevated to offensive coordinator in 1981, a position he held for the next three years. Two of his quarterbacks at Utah State – Eric Hipple and Bob Gagliano – went on to NFL careers. That preceded stops as offensive coordinator at both San Jose State (1984-86) and California (1987-89). In 1990, he returned to San Jose State as head coach, guiding the Spartans program for two years. In those two seasons, he led the school to a composite 15-6-2 record as they captured the Big West title both years. In 1990, he led the program to a mark of 9-2-1 and was named National Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly. In his two years, he helped develop future NFL Pro Bowl quarterback Jeff Garcia, who played at San Jose State in both of Shea's years at the school. After two years at San Jose State, Shea moved on to Stanford where he was the associate head coach/offensive coordinator under Bill Walsh from 1992-94. Shea spent one year (1995) coaching the quarterbacks and running backs with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian League prior to his appointment at Rutgers.

A native of San Mateo, California, Shea played quarterback at Oregon from 1964-67. He and his wife, Susan Town, have a daughter, Jennifer, and two sons, Garrett and Daniel Patrick.

College: Linfield
NFL: 22nd Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Randy Mueller, now entering his third season as the Dolphins' General Manager, was named to the post on June 6, 2005, bringing with him 19 years of experience in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Mueller's most recent NFL stint was when he spent two seasons (2000-01) as General Manager of Football Operations with the New Orleans Saints. In Mueller's two years overseeing the football operations of that club, the Saints posted a composite regular season record of 17-15, and in his first year there, captured the NFC West title with a record of 10-6 and claimed the franchise's first playoff win. For that performance, he was named the Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year in 2000. He left the club following the 2002 NFL Draft.

Before joining the Saints, Mueller spent the previous 17 years with the Seattle Seahawks. He first went to Seattle in 1983 as an assistant in pro personnel and was elevated to Pro Personnel Director in 1990. In 1995, he was named Vice President/Football Operations and held that post until joining the Saints. In 1999, Mueller's final year in Seattle, the Seahawks captured the AFC West crown. From 2002 until being hired by Miami, Mueller served as an NFL analyst for ESPN.

A native of St. Maries, Idaho, Mueller played quarterback at Linfield College in McMinnville, Oregon. As a senior in 1982, he led the school to the NAIA Division II national championship and was named Most Valuable Player of the title game. His brother, Rick, is the Vice President of Player Personnel with the Saints. Randy and his wife, Lori, have a daughter, Riley.

DOLPHINS DRAFT FROM FLORIDA COLLEGES

The Dolphins have selected a player from a Florida university in 22 of the team's 42 college drafts. Overall, the Dolphins have drafted 40 players from a Florida school, most recently Florida State running back Lorenzo Booker in the third round of the 2007 draft. The University of Miami leads the way with 15 Dolphin draftees, followed by ten from the University of Florida, eight from Florida State University, four from the University of Tampa, two from Bethune-Cookman and one from Florida A&M. When the Dolphins drafted Miami's Vernon Carey in the first round in 2004, it was the first time since 1997 and the fifth time overall that the Dolphins had selected a player from a Florida school in the first round.

MIKE BAUGH

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

College: Central Washington
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Mike Baugh enters his third season with the Dolphins following a five-year stint (2000-04) as a pro scout with the New Orleans Saints.

Overall, Baugh has 13 years of NFL experience, having started with the Seattle Seahawks as an intern in the team's public relations department in 1992 and the personnel department in 1993. He then served as an administrative assistant to head coaches Tom Flores and Dennis Erickson from 1994-96, before moving over to the Seahawks' personnel department in 1997, where he was a scouting assistant that year. In 1998, he was named manager of football administration, and in his final year with Seattle (1999) served as assistant director of pro scouting.

Baugh graduated from Central Washington University with a degree in business administration. He and his wife, Christine, have a daughter, Hannah, and a son, Brett.

CHRIS GRIER

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

College: Massachusetts

Adam Engroff is entering his ninth season with the team and his sixth as a college scout after spending 2001 as the club's college scouting coordinator. In his current role, Engroff covers the western portion of the country in the team's scouting system.

Engroff first joined the Dolphins in 1999 in the team's college scouting department. During that time, he performed a myriad of functions, including college scouting and draft preparation. Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Engroff worked in football operations for the Orange Bowl Committee from 1998-99. He also worked for the Prep Recruiting Network from 1997-98, where he scouted high school football players.

A native of Topeka, Kansas, Engroff received his undergraduate degree from Kansas State in 1997. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration from Lynn University in Boca Raton, Fla., in 2000.

Engroff and his wife, Beth, reside in Boise, Idaho.

JACK GLOWIK

COLLEGE SCOUT

College: Miami (Ohio)
NFL: Third Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Jack Glowik enters his third season in the NFL in 2007 after spending 25 years as an assistant coach in the collegiate ranks, including the final six at Northwestern, where he tutored both the defensive line (1999-2001) and tight ends/H-backs (2002-04). Glowik covers the Mid-Central states in the Dolphins' scouting system.

Glowik began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio), from 1978-79. He earned a full-time position at the school in 1980 and remained there for the next three years before moving on to North Carolina State, where he coached the defensive line for the Wolfpack from 1983-84. A year at Youngstown (1987) and two seasons at Ohio (1988-89) preceded a return to Miami (Ohio), where he was defensive line coach for the next nine years (1990-98) before joining the Northwestern staff.

Glowik was a four-year letterman as a defensive lineman at Miami (Ohio), from 1974-77, where he earned his bachelor's degree in education in 1978. He also was part of three Mid-American Conference championship clubs, and in 1998 was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame. Glowik and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Kelsey and Haley, and reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy Barber (1968) and fullback Kantroy Barber (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, there have been two father-son coaching tandems in franchise history, as both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don.

ANTHONY HUNT

COLLEGE SCOUT

College: St. Thomas
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: 14th Season

Anthony Hunt begins his 14th season with the Dolphins and his eighth as a college scout. Hunt is responsible for the Southeast in the Dolphins' scouting system after covering the Northeast and parts of the Midwest in previous years. He also was the team's BLESTO representative, working in the Southwestern states his first few seasons as a scout.

Hunt joined the Dolphins in 1994 following his graduation from St. Thomas University in Miami. In his first six years with the club, Hunt worked in both the pro personnel and college scouting departments.

A Miami native, Hunt attended Archbishop Curley-Notre Dame High School. Hunt and his wife, Suzy, reside in Flemington, N.J., with their two sons, Keaton and Marshall.

ROGER POLLARD

COLLEGE SCOUT

College: Hofstra
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season

Roger Pollard is entering his fourth season as an NFL scout after spending most of the previous 14 years coaching in the collegiate ranks, including the 2000-02 seasons as the wide receivers coach at Columbia University. In the spring of 2003, he also interned in the NFL Europe League's New York office. Pollard serves as the Dolphins' BLESTO scout, while also scouting parts of the Northeast.

Pollard's initial coaching position came in 1989 when he was named assistant secondary coach and head Junior Varsity coach at his alma mater, Hofstra University. After two years in that post, he moved on to Brown University, where he served the next three years (1991-93) as the Bruins' linebackers coach and the Junior Varsity's defensive coordinator. Pollard's first head coaching position came in 1996, when he took over the reigns at Dean Junior College in Franklin, Mass. Following two seasons there, he spent one year (1998) as an assistant coach at Ridgeview High School in Orange Park, Fla., and one season (1999) as the wide receivers coach at Jacksonville (Fla.) University.

Pollard grew up in Long Island, New York, where he prepped at Maria Regina High School. He went on to letter one year as a defensive back at Rutgers University (1984) before transferring to Hofstra, where he also played one season (1988), and earned his degree in physical education. Pollard and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Reed, and a daughter, Emmaleigh. The family resides in Clarence Center, N.Y.

ELLIS RAINSBERGER

COLLEGE SCOUT

College: Kansas State
NFL: 15th Season
Dolphins: Third Season

Ellis Rainsberger joined the Dolphins in 2005 with 12 years of experience as a scout in the NFL, including the previous five (2000-04) with the Tennessee Titans.

While with the Titans, Rainsberger scouted the Southeastern portion of the United States in his first year with the team, and parts of the Midwest and the East over his final four seasons. Prior to joining Tennessee, he spent seven seasons with the Cleveland Browns/Baltimore Ravens organization (1992-98). During that time, he filled several roles, including college scout, pro personnel/advance scout and assistant defensive line coach.

Before embarking on his NFL career, Rainsberger was an assistant coach at Toledo from 1989-91. Prior to that, Rainsberger worked at the professional level in both the Canadian Football League and the United States Football League. He served as offensive coordinator for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1978-83) and Toronto Argonauts (1986-88) of the CFL, while holding a position on the staffs with the Denver Gold (1983) and Pittsburgh Maulers (1984) of the USFL, having served as the Maulers' head coach for the second half of the 1984 season. He also was a member of the CFL scouting combine from 1985-86.

Rainsberger was a three-year letterman at Kansas State (1955-57), where he was an All-Big Eight selection twice (1956 and 1957) and an Academic All-America choice once (1957). He served as a team captain his final two years. He also lettered twice in wrestling for the Wildcats, with one Missouri Valley Conference title to his credit. He went on to serve as an assistant coach at Drake from 1959-61, before being appointed head coach at Washburn, from 1962-64. He moved on to an assistant post at Kansas in 1965 before taking a one-year stint as head coach at Southern Illinois in 1966. Stops as an assistant at Illinois (1967-72) and Wisconsin (1973-74) preceded his next head coaching position, at Kansas State from 1975-77.

Rainsberger and his wife, Shirley, have six grown children, Becky, Bud, Cathy, Sandy, Chris and Mike.

DOLPHINS RECORD IN PLAYOFF GAMES

In their 41-year history, the Dolphins are 20-19 in the playoffs. They own a record of 6-5 in First-Round/Wild Card Playoffs, 7-9 in Divisional Playoffs, 5-2 in AFC Championships and 2-3 in Super Bowls. In addition, Miami is 15-6 at home, 3-10 on the road and 2-3 on neutral sites. Of the 39 playoff games in the history of the Dolphins, Miami has led at the half on 15 occasions and in those 15 games, the Dolphins are 11-4.

DWAYNE JOSEPH

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

College: Syracuse
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season

Dwayne Joseph is entering his fourth season with the Dolphins and the first in his current role after spending his first three seasons with the club as a pro scout. Before joining the Dolphins, he spent the previous six years (1998-2003) with the Chicago Bears, including the final three as Director of Player Development.

Joseph began his career with the Bears as a cornerback after signing with the club as an undrafted college free agent in 1994. After spending a majority of his rookie season on the team's practice squad, Joseph played in all 16 games, including one start, in 1995. He recorded 42 tackles, two interceptions, four passes defensed and a forced fumble that year. He spent the '96 season on injured reserve before being released in training camp the following year. After concluding his playing career, Joseph was hired by the Bears in 1998 as Coordinator of Player Programs before being promoted in 2001.

In 2005, Joseph was the Dolphins' representative at the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers. This past offseason, he was chosen to participate in the NFL Football Operations Personnel Symposium in Dallas.

Joseph was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at Syracuse where he served as team captain his senior season. He earned his undergraduate degree in human development and went on for a master's in education leadership from DePaul University. A native of Miami, Joseph attended Carol City High School. He is married with two sons.

JENSEN NAMED "UNSUNG HERO" FOR 2006

Jim Jensen, one of the most versatile players in Dolphins history, was the winner of the third annual Miami Dolphins Alumni Association "Unsung Hero" Award, presented in 2006.

The other finalists for the award included wide receiver Oronde Gadsden (1998-2003), wide receiver O.J. McDuffie (1993-2001), safety Louis Oliver (1989-93 and 1995-96) and running back Bernie Parmalee (1992-98).

Originally drafted by the Dolphins in the 11th round as a quarterback out of Boston University, Jensen received notoriety by playing every skill position on offense and was also a valuable contributor on special teams. He served as a back-up at wide receiver, quarterback, running back, fullback, tight end, holder and punt center. During his tenure with the Dolphins, Jensen played in 164 games (tied for the fifth-most in team history). He caught 229 passes for 2,171 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 229 receptions rank among the top ten in team history. Until 2005, Jensen held the team record for most catches in a game, when he snared 12 passes on November 6, 1988, at the New England Patriots.

From 1984 to 1991, he turned 229 receptions into 132 first downs and from 1984 to 1988, he recorded a reception in 55 of 63 games. In 1989, he played in all 16 games and caught Dan Marino's 200th career touchdown pass. Jensen was also the winner of the 1988 Dolphins Outstanding Special Teams Player Award.

The goal of the Unsung Hero Award is to honor Dolphins unsung heroes who have sacrificed for the franchise both on and off the playing field. The finalists were chosen based on their leadership qualities, the impact that they made to their team and teammates during their careers and their ability to inspire their teammates.

Dol-Fans had the opportunity to select the finalists through an interactive poll on the team's official web site, MiamiDolphins.com.

Quarterback Earl Morrall was selected as the winner of the inaugural "Unsung Hero" Award in 2004, while running back Tony Nathan earned the honor in 2005.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the Foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation contributes, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Foundation. Resources for contributions are procured through various fundraising events throughout the year, such as the Miami Dolphins Fishing Tournament, the Miami Dolphins Golf Tournament, Dolphins Auctions, the Scoreboard Celebration Club, game day raffles and training camp raffles.

Organizations and programs the Miami Dolphins Foundation supports include the sponsorship of Broward and Miami-Dade Public Libraries Summer Reading Programs, Children's Book Week, Teen Read Week, the Books and Bears program, Miami Dolphins Outdoor Learning Center at Island Dolphin Care, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Junior Achievement, Boys and Girls Club, Jewish National Fund, University of Miami Sylvester Cancer Center, Coastal Conservation Association, Broward Partnership for the Homeless and the United Way.

FOUNDATION EVENTS

Miami Dolphins Fishing Tournament Presented by Stiles Corporation – Current and former players and coaches join avid fishermen for a full day of fun and deep sea fishing. The event includes a Captain's Party and an Awards Dinner featuring live and silent auctions. The 11th annual event held this past June raised more than $275,000 for the Miami Dolphins Foundation. The Junior Anglers Clinic Presented by Publix is held prior to the event with kids from the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County. The children are given fishing tips by Miami Dolphins players.

Miami Dolphins Charity Golf Tournament Presented by VeriChip Corp. – The Miami Dolphins Charity Golf Tournament is held annually to benefit the Miami Dolphins Foundation. One of the recipients of the funds raised since the tournament's inception in 1998 is former Dolphins All-Pro defensive end Doug Betters, who suffered a spinal cord injury as the result of a skiing accident in his native Montana. Each year, current and former players and coaches participate in the tournament, which has raised more than $1,200,000.

DOLPHINS AUCTIONS

Dolphins players lend more than 400 signatures on items that are currently being auctioned off on the team's official web site to raise money for the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

In addition to the autographed memorabilia, Dol-Fans have the opportunity to bid on Dolphins game-used items and unique gameday experiences. Gameday experiences include the opportunity to go on the field to collect the opening kickoff tee, travel on the team charter to an away game, or be an honorary field photographer for a home game, among other unique experiences.

MIAMI DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins take great pride in playing an active role in the South Florida community. By lending support to both civic and community based charitable causes, the Dolphins are able to make an impact in the lives of those who need it the most. The assistance that the Dolphins are able to provide comes from the teamwork of alumni, coaches, players, cheerleaders, T.D. (the Dolphins' mascot) and front office personnel working together toward the common goals of helping those in need, and supporting the community that has always been there to support the Miami Dolphins.

During the past year, members of the Dolphins organization, including coaches, players and alumni, made more than 400 community appearances which totaled 1,200 hours. The team has also donated 3,200 items to 3,000 different charities, helping them raise more than $200,000 through the donated items.

EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

The Miami Dolphins understand that the education of the youth of South Florida is of utmost importance. For this reason, the Dolphins have partnered with both Broward and Miami-Dade County Public Schools on several extensive programs. In 2007, the Miami Dolphins were recognized by Broward County Public Schools with the Partnership of the Year Award for its districtwide partnership. Also, they were recognized by Miami-Dade County Public Schools with the Dade Partner Exemplary Award as the top business partner.

Student of the Week Program – Working in conjunction with Dolphin Stadium, the Miami Dolphins honor a selected student from each of the partner schools at all of the team's regular season home games. The students are selected by their principals and teachers for their citizenship and classroom achievements. In recognition of their accomplishments, they are presented with a plaque by Marti Huizenga, wife of Dolphins owner Wayne Huizenga, during an on-field presentation. Publix also donates a $25 gift certificate to each Student of the Week.

Teacher of the Year Awards – One teacher from each partner school is selected as a Teacher of the Year and is recognized for their accomplishments during a pre-game, on-field presentation.

Miami Dolphins/Dolphin Stadium Scholarship – A $2,000 scholarship is awarded annually to both a Miami Carol City High School and Miramar High School senior who demonstrates strong community service along with a solid academic performance. A $1,000 honorable mention scholarship is also awarded.

Summer Reading Program at the Libraries – Dolphins players make appearances at local libraries in both Broward and Miami-Dade Counties in conjunction with their summer reading programs. In addition, the Dolphins offer prizes to the kids including tickets and a VIP experience for the top winners to attend training camp practice as a VIP for the day. The Miami Dolphins Foundation sponsors the programs.

Most Valuable Reader – The Miami Dolphins have joined forces with local libraries and schools in encouraging South Florida's youth to read by developing the Most Valuable Reader Program. This year-round initiative provides incentives for children to read. Kids have the chance to read books in exchange for the opportunity to attend a Dolphins home game. Other events at the libraries include Teen Read Week, Children's Book Week and the Books & Bears program.

Do The Right Thing – Wide receivers Marty Booker and Chris Chambers have teamed up with the Miami Police Department for the "Do the Right Thing Program," rewarding Miami-Dade youth for their positive behavior, accomplishments and good deeds. The program includes public service announcements with players, as well as the distribution of posters and shirts with the players' numbers.

Empty Bowls for Souper Bowl of Caring - The Miami Dolphins work with Broward County Public Schools on the Empty Bowls Program, which gives students an opportunity to fight hunger and poverty. Dolphins players make visits to schools to make bowls with the children. In its first year 82 schools signed up for the program, helping raise more than $32,000 for a variety of charities including the Cooperative Feeding Program and Broward Partnership for the Homeless.

FEEDING THE NEEDY

The Miami Dolphins have an ongoing relationship with the Daily Bread Food Bank, an organization that provides food to the needy throughout South Florida. The Miami Dolphins team up with the Daily Bread Food Bank on the following projects:

Canned Food Drive – Each year the Fins and Fans Tackle Hunger canned food drive is held at a Dolphins home game prior to Thanksgiving. This year's canned food drive will take place prior to the game against the Buffalo Bills on Sunday, November 11. Fans are encouraged to deposit canned goods and other non-perishable food items in collection containers located at each entrance to the stadium.

Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway – The Miami Dolphins organization, along with the coaches, players and staff, contribute monetary donations to purchase more than 1,370 Thanksgiving meals to feed more than 14,000 underprivileged people in South Florida. Dolphins players join volunteers from the Daily Bread Food Bank to distribute turkeys to various agencies affiliated with the Daily Bread Food Bank. Publix Supermarkets contributes an accompanying item or side dish for each turkey.

Souper Bowl of Caring – Souper Bowl of Caring is a youth-focused, national effort working to see Super Bowl weekend become the largest weekend of giving and serving in the life of our country. Participation includes youth representing a variety of faith groups, schools, civic organizations and businesses in all 50 states and several other countries. All of the funds raised are directly donated to the charity of each participating group's choice. Members of the Miami Dolphins organization have filmed public service announcements for this program, including Wayne Huizenga, Jr., Chris Chambers, Jason Taylor and Zach Thomas. The Miami Dolphins are also partnering with local schools to increase awareness and join in community service projects through the Empty Bowls Program in conjunction with Broward County Public Schools.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Holiday Hospital Visits – Each year during the holiday season, Dolphins players, cheerleaders and mascot, T.D., visit area hospitals to brighten the holidays of sick children and military veterans who are not able to go home for the holidays. While at the hospitals, the players, cheerleaders and mascot visit with the children and veterans, take pictures with them, sign autographs and give out Dolphins souvenirs.

"Toys For Tots" – Each year, at a Miami Dolphins home game in December, the team sponsors an annual toy drive for Defensive tackle Keith Traylor, linebacker Donnie Spragan, Publix Supermarket executive Bill Fauerbach and safety Renaldo Hill distribute food at Dolphin Stadium.

Safety Yeremiah Bell hands out Thanksgiving meals to needy South Florida families.

Tackle Vernon Carey, center/guard Rex Hadnot and a Dolphins Cheerleader help brighten the holidays at Miami Childrens Hospital.

THEY SAID IT...

"I want to express our gratitude to the Miami Dolphins Foundation for your generous donation, which helped our local efforts to engage and mobilize the community to help the hungry and hurting. In just over one year, participation in South Florida has increased from 50 groups to more than 1,100 groups. It is our hope that South Florida can truly serve as a model of caring and compassion for all 32 NFL communities. We thank you for your commitment to this effort."

underprivileged children in the South Florida community. This season's "Toys For Tots" drive will take place when the Dolphins play host to the Baltimore Ravens on Sunday, December 16. Dol-Fans are encouraged to drop off new, unwrapped toys at entry gates on their way into the stadium. The toys are then distributed through the United States Marine Corps to the less fortunate families in the local area.

Holiday Toy Celebration – Dolphins players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff make toy donations during the holidays to various organizations in the community that are in need. Kids from Frederick Douglass Elementary, Broward Estates Elementary, the Family Resource Center, Hurwit Crisis Center and the Belafonte Tacolcy Center were invited to a holiday celebration at the Miami Dolphins Training Facility.

NFL Student All-Star Program – The NFL Student All-Star Program is an NFL initiative that awards small level grants to help finance student-initiated proposals on how to better the community. The goal of the program is to promote community investment and volunteerism in children. Each winning organization receives a grant of $300 to help fund their service projects.

NFL Junior Community Quarterback – The NFL Junior Community Quarterback Award recognizes student-initiated projects focusing on community betterment. The program awards $7,000 in grants. Grants range from $2,000 - $5,000. Students partner with a 501C3 organization for their project.

Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) Program – Dolphins' coaches and players recognize the importance of educating the youth in our local communities about the dangers associated with alcohol, drug, tobacco and domestic abuse. In an effort to offer alternatives to these vices, the Miami Dolphins work closely with area police departments by providing players and coaches to speak at graduation ceremonies for students who successfully complete the D.A.R.E. program offered at their school.

Breast Cancer Awareness – As part of Breast Cancer Awareness month, the wives and girlfriends of Dolphins players, coaches and staff pass out pink ribbons to fans. This year's game will be on October 21 against the New England Patriots.

United Way – Along with the NFL, the Miami Dolphins actively support the United Way through monetary contributions made by the coaches, players and staff. In addition, the Dolphins also work closely with the United Way of Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties on several projects throughout the year, including filming a Public Service Announcement featuring a prominent Dolphins player as a spokesman. Dolphins players also participate in the NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle Day, a national day of community service.

Make-A-Wish Foundation – The Make-A-Wish Found-ation and the Miami Dolphins have developed a close relationship over the years in granting wishes of terminally ill children. Make-A-Wish children are given the opportunity to attend a home game and meet with coaches and players during a post-game visit.

Broward County Court Program – Dolphins players make routine visits to kids at the Broward County Courthouse in Fort Lauderdale. During their visit, the players speak with at-risk kids in the courtroom of Broward County Circuit Court Judge Howard Zeidwig. Approximately 100 kids take part in each Safety Renaldo Hill and cornerback Travis Daniels hand out toys to kids as part of the Dolphins Holiday Celebration.

Dolphins President Bryan Wiedmeier presents a check to Centro Mater for United Way Hometown Huddle Day.

MIAMI DOLPHINS CHEERLEADERS

The 2007 Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders consists of 50 women from six countries and 12 states. The Cheerleaders bring spirit and excitement to the sidelines of every Dolphins home game. Come game time, the squad forms four groups that perform high energy dance routines for the fans on all four corners of the field. Each group is led by a captain who is responsible to call the right "plays" for each performance. Off the field these ladies are business owners, optometrists, graphic designers, students studying a variety of subjects from nursing to finance, broadcasters, campaign managers, reporters, accountants and mothers.

MASCOT

Acquired: FA, 1997
NFL: 11th Season
Dolphins: 11th Season

The Miami Dolphins' 1997 addition might have been their biggest – literally. The club unveiled "T.D.," its new mascot, on Friday, April 18, 1997, the first "official" mascot in the history of the franchise. The 7-foot tall mascot made its public debut at the team's Draft Day Party at Pro Player Stadium on April 19, 1997. In addition, the mascot performs at every Dolphins home game.

When the mascot was first unveiled, it was without a name. The club held a "Name the Mascot" contest that drew more than 13,000 entries covering all 50 states and 22 countries, with 529 different names suggested. The name "T.D." was first submitted by Sara Fernandez of Miami, and when that name was selected by the Dolphins organization, she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII for her winning entry, which was announced at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

The club had a live dolphin, "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl during the team's early years, and "Dolfan Denny," who prowled the sidelines for many seasons. However, T.D.'s unveiling marked the first time the club actually had an official mascot, one who participates in many of the team's programs in addition to his gameday activities.

"T.D." is available for appearances. For more information, call the Dolphins mascot hotline at (954) 577-8990.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years there, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHIN STADIUM

Dolphin Stadium, South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins and Florida Marlins, is in its 21st season as the premier sports and entertainment facility in the country. This state-of-the-art open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987, its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993 and stages world-class events throughout the calendar year. Dolphin Stadium is one of only three facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue (McAfee Coliseum in Oakland, Metrodome in Minneapolis).

HISTORY

Now in its 21st year of operation, the 75,000 seat, state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, more than 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten-year absence. A second Super Bowl was hosted when Super Bowl XXIX was played in the facility on January 29, 1995, and the Super Bowl returned to Dolphins Stadium on January 31, 1999, when the facility hosted Super Bowl XXXIII.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Dolphins Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

In 1997, Dolphins Stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on October 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, Dolphins Stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of a hydraulic disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Dolphin Stadium.

On the field, Dolphin Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm, dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rainfall.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in January 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by owner Wayne Huizenga. In April 2006, Dolphins Enterprises CEO Joe Bailey announced and unveiled a the new stadium logo and modified name. The stadium was named Dolphin Stadium and a new modern looking dolphin in orange, teal, blue and platinum colors with the words Dolphin Stadium was unveiled as the new stadium logo. Also unveiled were the two hi-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

Today, Dolphin Stadium is undergoing a historic transformation unlike any stadium has experienced in the United States. Working with HOK, Rockwell and Stiles Construction, all renowned in their respective fields, Dolphin Stadium is being expanded by more than 300,000 square feet, renovated and programmed with innovations that will result in this state-of-the-art facility offering the most-inspired and unmatched stadium experience in the world.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160 acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Dolphin Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football and Florida Marlins baseball, college football takes the field with the FedEx Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game following the 1997, 2000 and 2004 seasons). Super Bowl XLI was held at Dolphin Stadium on February 4, 2007, and is slated to host Super Bowl XLIV in 2010. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at Dolphin Stadium in 1997 and 2003.

Dolphin Stadium also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

Dolphin Stadium has also played host to numerous concerts, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2, 'N Sync and The Police.

Other events held in the past at Dolphin Stadium include international soccer games featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, Monster Truck and numerous trade shows.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Dolphin Stadium's 240 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The 10, 12, 16, 20, 24 and 32-seat suites offer air conditioning and DirecTV access with NFL Sunday Ticket, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Uniformed Suite Captains provide personal service in each suite during the games. Boston Culinary Group caters the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 Club Level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars and concession areas. The protective overhang, along with wait-staff service, also are unique elements of the club level.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Dolphin Stadium was proud to introduce the new Hall of Champions during the 1997 Miami Dolphins season. Located in the east end zone area of the Club Level, the Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 150 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or Florida Marlins baseball game in style. In addition to club level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers interior and exterior seating, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities, managed by Boston Culinary Group, are available on all levels and include Pizza Hut and Edy's Ice Cream. The stadium has been recognized by Sports Illustrated for the high quality of its food and beverage service.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Dolphin Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience by its commitment to capital improvements. These continuing upgrades and renovations will heighten the guest experience by providing increased comfort, new amenities and better service.

DOLPHINS TRAINING FACILITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University in Miami.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 93,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, a dance studio for the team's cheerleaders, and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Dolphin Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

The Dolphins also now have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Dolphin Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,500 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2007

CB WILL ALLEN. . .
– Enters 2007 needing to play in 13 games to reach 100 for his career during the regular season and 14 starts for 100 in that category as well.

WR MARTY BOOKER. . .
– Needs to start in four more games to reach 100 regular season starts for his career.
– Enters 2007 with 459 career receptions. With 41 more he would reach the 500-catch plateau.

RB RONNIE BROWN. . .
– With a 1,000-yard rushing season, would become just the third Dolphin to account to multiple 1,000-yard seasons, joining Larry Csonka (1971-73) and Ricky Williams (2002-03).

WR CHRIS CHAMBERS. . .
– Enters 2007 having played in 94 regular season games and started in 85. If he appears in six and starts in 15, he would reach the 100 plateau in both categories.
– Enters 2007 with 374 career receptions, sixth on the team's all-time list. With 10 more he would surpass Tony Nathan (383) for fifth, and with 42 more, he would move past O.J. McDuffie (415) for fourth.
– Goes into 2007 with 43 career touchdown receptions, and needing seven more to attain 50 for his career.
– With a 1,000-yard season, would become just the fourth Dolphin to post multiple 1,000-yard receiving seasons, joining Mark Clayton (5), Mark Duper (4) and Irving Fryar (4).

K JAY FEELY. . .
– Enters 2007 having appeared in 96 regular season games. If he plays in four contests, he would reach 100 for his career.
– Enters 2007 having made his last 138 PATs. The last time he missed one was when he had one blocked on November 9, 2003 against the New York Giants as a member of the Falcons.

QB TRENT GREEN. . .
– Enters 2007 with 26,963 career yards passing. With 3,037 more he would reach the 30,000-yard plateau in his career and become the 29th player in NFL history to attain this mark.
– Enters 2007 with 2,143 career completions. With 357 more he would become the 27th player in NFL history to amass 2,500 career completions.
– Can eclipse the 60.0 percent completion mark for the sixth year in a row.

WR AZ-ZAHIR HAKIM. . .
– Enters 2007 with 4,191 career receiving yards. Needs 809 to reach the 5,000-yard plateau.

BROTHERLY LOVE

In 2006, Renaldo Hill and Ray Hill became the third set of brothers to play for the Dolphins. Ray played with the team from 1998-2000 while Renaldo was acquired as an unrestricted free agent from Oakland last offseason. The first set of brothers to play for the Dolphins were the Blackwoods, which included Glenn (1979-87) and Lyle (1981-86), both of whom played safety. In 2003, fullback Obafemi Ayanbadejo and linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo, each of whom were in their first seasons with the Dolphins, became the second set of brothers to play for the team in franchise history. The Dolphins also have had two sets of brothers serve on the team's coaching staff. The first set of brothers to have coached with the Dolphins was the Shulas, which included David (1982-88) and his younger brother, Mike (1991-92, 2000-02). In addition, Judd Garrett was an offensive quality control coach with the club from 2000-05, while his brother, Jason, was the team's quarterbacks coach from 2005-06.

FINS FACT

Having three kids of his own, Will enjoys spending his time away from the field working with children. He hopes to make a difference by being directly involved in his philanthropic endeavors. While with the Giants, he spoke at various schools, Pop Warner banquets and youth football camps, while also working with the Ronald McDonald House and at-risk teen boys. He continued that support with the Dolphins. In his first season with the team, he was part of the "All-Community Team," in which he donated 20 tickets for every home game to the Parent Academy at the Miami-Dade County Public Schools. "There are a lot of kids out there that think their lives just are not going the way they want them to go," Will says. "Sometimes they just need that extra push, as far as somebody bringing a smile to their face or letting them see you were actually in the same situation they are in and it doesn't have to turn out bad."

FUMBLE RECOVERIES: Allen accounted for three opponents' fumble recoveries in 2006, matching his total from his first five NFL seasons combined . . . In addition, his total last year tied for the second-highest figure in both the AFC and in the NFL, trailing only Kansas City DE Jared Allen . . . His total also tied with Pittsburgh S Ryan Clark for the most among defensive backs:

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Was the third of three sixth-round draft choices by the Dolphins in 2003, with a compensatory pick from the NFL as a result of net free agent losses from 2002.

2006 – Played in all 16 games, including 11 starts . . . The first two starts came as part of a five- or six-DB alignment while the final nine were at strong safety . . . Finished fifth on the team and second among defensive backs with 65 tackles . . . Added two sacks, a team-high 12 passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and a pair of forced fumbles . . . Also contributed five tackles and a forced fumble on special teams . . . Registered a sack vs. Buffalo (9/17) . . . Forced a fumble on punt coverage at New England (10/8) . . . Initial start of NFL career came at N.Y. Jets (10/15) as the Dolphins opened with six DBs . . . Two games later, opened at strong safety in the Dolphins' 31-13 win at Chicago (11/5) . . . In that game, recorded five tackles, two passes defensed and a forced fumble . . . On the first series of the second half, stripped the ball from Justin Gage following a 17-yard reception, with the loose ball being recovered by André Goodman, who returned it 33 yards to the Bears' 12, setting up a 6-yard TD pass from Joey Harrington to Wes Welker three plays later . . . Posted nine stops and a season-best three passes defensed the week afterwards in a 13-10 win over Kansas City (11/12), as the Dolphins held the Chiefs to 185 net passing yards . . . Recorded a career-high 12 tackles the following week in 24-20 win over Minnesota (11/19) . . . Also knocked down a pass and recovered a fumble in the contest . . . Fumble recovery occurred when he pounced on a Chester Taylor fumble at the Dolphins' 30 in the fourth quarter . . . In a 21-0 win over New England (12/10), posted a team-high nine tackles, including a sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery, all on the same play . . . It occurred in the fourth quarter, and he recovered the fumble at the Dolphins' 39, leading to a 3-yard TD run by Sammy Morris eight plays later in the Dolphins' 21-0 win . . .

SACK TOTAL AMONG DOLPHINS DEFENSIVE BACKS: Bell recorded two sacks in 2006, a figure which is tied for the fourth-highest single-season total by a Dolphins defensive back . . . In his career, Bell has accounted for five sacks, the third-highest figure by a Dolphins

After graduating from high school, Yeremiah went to work at a Kentucky steel mill, where he earned $8 an hour bending liner pieces that are put in tunnels. "I actually liked it," Bell said. "The hardest thing was stacking them. The heaviest pieces were like 75 pounds." At age 20, after two years working in the mill, Bell decided to walk-on at Eastern Kentucky, where he eventually earned a full scholarship.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO

The most recent modification to the Dolphins' logo was made prior to the 1997 season. This marked just the third logo change in franchise history, and the first since 1972.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1972, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

PRO CAREER

CAREER PRO BOWLS: 1 (2002)

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Was acquired by the Dolphins from Chicago on August 23, 2004 along with a 2005 third-round draft choice in exchange for DE Adewale Ogunleye . . . Originally was a third-round draft choice (78th overall) of the Bears in 1999.

2006 – Started 13 of the 14 games in which he appeared . . . Was inactive for a pair of contests . . . Totaled 55 receptions for 747 yards and a team-high six touchdowns . . . Reception total ranked fourth on the team while yardage figure led the club . . . Also put together a 13.6-yard average per catch and three 100-yard receiving games, both team-bests . . . Reception and yardage totals both ranked as the third-highest of his NFL career and his best since 2002 (97-1,189) . . . Six receiving scores tied for the second-best mark of his career . . . In addition, rushed for 19 yards on three attempts . . . In opener at Pittsburgh (9/7), which was the 100th regular season game of his NFL career, caught three passes for 64 yards including a long of 52 from Daunte Culpepper, the longest pass play by the Dolphins in 2006 . . . Had a career-long 18-yard run vs. Tennessee (9/24), which came on a fourth-quarter drive, leading to Olindo Mare's 39-yard game-winning field goal with 3:39 to play in a 13-10 decision . . . Was inactive at N.Y. Jets (10/15) with a shoulder injury sustained the previous week at New England (10/8) . . . Returned for game vs. Green Bay (10/22) and responded with seven receptions for 110 yards, including an 8-yard TD catch from Joey Harrington . . . It marked the 11th 100-yard receiving game of his career and his fourth as a Dolphin . . . Following a Derek Hagan touchdown catch in the fourth quarter, hauled in a pass for a 2-point conversion, the first of his NFL career . . . The following week at Chicago (11/5), had a 5-yard scoring catch from Harrington to give the Dolphins a 14-0 lead as they went on for a 31-13 victory . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/23), tallied seven catches for 115 yards and two touchdowns, the third multiple-TD game of his career and his first since he accounted for a career-best three on November 18, 2001 at Tampa Bay . . . Scoring catches in the Lions game came on an 8-yard pass in the first quarter and a 19-yard pass in the third quarter, both from Harrington . . . It marked the first in a stretch of three straight games in which he had a scoring reception . . . Had a 17-yard scoring catch the week afterwards vs. Jacksonville (12/3) and a 32-yard TD reception in a 21-0 win over New England (12/10) . . . It tied for the longest scoring streak of his career, as he also had a touchdown in three consecutive contests in 2002 as a member of the Bears (games 5-7) . . . Finished the

FINS FACT

An outstanding high school quarterback, Marty first started his collegiate career as that position before switching to wide receiver. His old position is one that he feels is constantly under too much scrutiny. "Once I got to college, I played a couple of years there as a quarterback and got to see all the stress and the pressure and the blame the quarterback takes. I didn't know if I can handle that pressure and everything that the quarterback faces, so I decided to move on." He still enjoys throwing the ball from time to time, though, and has completed three passes in his NFL career, two of which have gone for touchdowns.

Patriots game with eight catches for 103 yards, and coupled with Sammy Morris' 123 yards rushing, it marked the first time the Dolphins had a 100-yard receiver and rusher in the same game since December 15, 2002 against Oakland when Ricky Williams rushed for 101 yards and Chris Chambers totaled 138 receiving yards . . . Also caught a pass from Harrington for a 2-point conversion in the fourth quarter of the Patriots contest . . . Was inactive for game vs. N.Y. Jets (12/25) with an ankle injury sustained the previous week at Buffalo (12/17) . . .

TWO-POINT CONVERSIONS: Booker accounted for the first two 2-point conversions of his career in 2006, as he hauled in passes in games vs. Green Bay (10/22) and vs. New England (12/10) . . . He became just the second Dolphin to tally a pair of 2-point conversions in both a season and a career, as Irving Fryar also achieved the feat in 1994 . . .

50+ RECEPTIONS: Booker registered 55 receptions in 2006, and along with Wes Welker's 67 catches and Chris Chambers' 59, it represented the first time in franchise history that three wide receivers have had 50 or more receptions in the same season . . . The Dolphins were the only NFL team in 2006 to have three wide receivers with 50 or more catches, and they were the first to do it since the Indianapolis Colts in 2004 (Marvin Harrison, Reggie Wayne, Brandon Stokley) . . . With TE Randy McMichael tallying 62 catches, it marked just the third time in franchise history that four Dolphins amassed 50 or more receptions in the same season, and the first in more than a decade . . . The Dolphins also were the only team in the NFL to have four players with 50 or more receptions in 2006 . . .

2005 – Started 12 of the 15 games in which he played, was inactive for one contest . . . The three games he did not start occurred when Dolphins opened with two tight ends . . . Caught 39 passes for 686 yards and three touchdowns . . . Reception total ranked third on the team while yardage figure was second . . . Average per catch of 17.6 was the best on the team among players with more than five receptions and also marked a personal best . . . It also was the best figure by a Dolphin since 2002 when James McKnight put together an 18.2 mark (29-528) . . . Accounted for a pair of 100-yard receiving games on the year, including opener vs. Denver (9/11) when he hauled in five passes for 104 yards . . . Included in that total was a 60-yard TD reception from Gus Frerotte, the second-longest pass play by the Dolphins in '05, his fourth career catch of 60 yards or longer and his longest since he had a 61-yard TD catch on December 7, 2003 at Green Bay as a member of the Chicago Bears . . . Had five catches for 102 yards vs. New England (11/13), marking the first time since 2002 that he had two or more 100-yard receiving games in the same season . . . Was held without a catch at Cleveland (11/20), snapping his streak of 82 straight games with a reception . . . Prior to that, the last time he did not have a catch was on September 10, 2000 at Tampa Bay as a member of the Chicago Bears . . . Was inactive two weeks later vs. Buffalo (12/4) with a calf injury . . . Returned to action the following week at San Diego (12/11) and responded with three receptions for 78 yards . . . Included in that total was a key 56-yard catch on third-and-9 in the fourth quarter which put the Dolphins at the Chargers' 9 . . . Had two receptions for 56 yards the following week vs. N.Y. Jets (12/18) when he grabbed a 50-yard TD catch from Sage Rosenfels 4:05 into the fourth quarter, which broke a 17-17 tie as the Dolphins held on for a 24-20 victory . . . Concluded the season at New England (1/1/06) by catching a season and team-high seven passes, totaling 86 yards . . . Hauled in a 15-yard TD pass from Frerotte in fourth quarter, giving the Dolphins a 25-13 lead in their 28-26 victory . . .

50-YARD RECEPTIONS: Booker tallied four receptions for 50 yards or longer in 2005 . . . This total tied for the most in Dolphins history and was the fourth-highest figure in the NFL on the year:

2004 – Started all 15 games in which he appeared in his first season with the Dolphins after being acquired in a trade from Chicago following the second preseason game . . . Finished third on the team with 50 receptions for 638 yards and a touchdown . . . Also completed his only pass attempt, which went for 48 yards . . . Had a reception in every game that he played for the fourth year in a row . . . Turned in his most productive receiving day of the season at New England (10/10) when he hauled in seven passes for 123 yards . . . His entire receiving total came in the second half as he became the first Dolphin to account for 100 yards receiving in a half since December 15, 2002 when Chris Chambers had 117 yards in the first half against Oakland . . . Tossed a 48-yard completion to Chambers vs. St. Louis (10/24) for the third completion of his career and his longest . . . That led to a Sammy Morris 8-yard TD run on the next play from scrimmage for the Dolphins' first score of a game they went on to win, 31-14, as they earned their initial victory of the season . . . Was inactive for finale at Baltimore (1/2/05) with an ankle injury.

2003 – Started all 13 games in which he played and was the Bears' leading receiver for the third straight year as he caught 52 passes for 715 yards and four touchdowns . . . Was inactive for games at Seattle (10/19), vs. Detroit (10/26) and vs. San Diego (11/2) with an ankle injury . . . Compiled the seventh 100-yard receiving game of his career as he totaled 115 yards on five receptions, including a 61-yard TD catch, at Green Bay (12/7), when he tied Neal Anderson for fifth on Chicago's all-time receiving list with 302 . . . Caught six passes for 92 yards in finale at Kansas City (12/28) as he set a Bears record for consecutive games with a reception (58) . . .

AMONG CHICAGO'S ALL-TIME LEADING RECEIVERS: Booker concluded his Chicago career with 315 receptions for 3,684 yards and 23 touchdowns . . . He ranks fifth on the team's all-time chart for receptions and sixth for receiving yards . . . His reception total was the most by any Bear in his first five years with the club while his yardage figure was third during this same time span.

2002 – Earned the first Pro Bowl berth of his career as he accumulated 97 receptions for 1,189 yards and six touchdowns . . . Became the first Bears wide receiver to earn Pro Bowl status since Dick Gordon in 1972 . . . Reception total was second in team history, trailing only his 100 catches from 2001, while his yardage total was the fourth-best single-season figure . . . Reception total also was third in the NFC and tied for sixth in the NFL in '02 while yardage figure was seventh in the NFC and ninth in the NFL . . . Became just the second Bear to account for multiple 1,000-yard receiving seasons in a career, joining Harlon Hill (1954, 1956) . . . Tied for fourth in the NFL with 20 receptions of 20 yards or longer, while placing seventh in the NFC with 54 first-down catches and sixth in the conference with 24 third-down receptions . . . Amassed a career-high three 100-yard receiving games on the season, including the opener against Minnesota (9/8) when he produced 198 yards (8 catches, 1 TD), tied for the third highest single-game total in Bears history . . . PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: First-round draft choice (2nd overall, 1st running back) of the Dolphins in 2005.

2006 – Started 12 of the 13 games in which he played . . . Was inactive for three games . . . Led the team in rushing with 1,008 yards and five touchdowns on 241 attempts . . . It was the tenth 1,000-yard rushing season in Dolphins history and he became the seventh different player to accomplish the feat . . . Rushing figure ranked tenth in the AFC . . . Also caught 33 passes for 276 yards, as reception total placed fifth on the team . . . Recorded four 100-yard rushing games on the year, tied for the fourth-highest single-season total in Dolphins history . . . Was 13th in the AFC with 1,284 total yards from scrimmage . . . Averaged 4.2 yards per carry, the second straight season in which he surpassed the 4.0 mark as he garnered a 4.4 figure in his rookie season of 2005 . . . In fact, became the first Dolphin to post consecutive campaigns with a 4.0-yard average per attempt or better (min. 100 carries) since Tony Nathan did it three straight years, from 1983-85 . . . Brown underwent surgery on November 24 to stabilize a second metacarpal fracture of his left hand, an injury which he sustained in Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/23) . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. John McAuliffe and Dolphins Chief Team Physician Dr. George Caldwell at Broward General Medical Center in Ft. Lauderdale . . . Was inactive for the next three games . . .

RUSHING YARDAGE: In 2006, Brown became the seventh different Dolphin to record a 1,000-yard rushing season, the tenth time that it has been done and the first since Ricky Williams in 2003 . . . Brown finished with the eighth-highest rushing total in franchise history:

FINS FACT

When he went to Auburn, Ronnie wanted to wear uniform No. 20, after his favorite athlete, Barry Sanders. However, that number was being worn by Tigers punter Damon Duval, who did not want to give up the number. He then chose the next closest number, 23, also because it was worn by another professional athlete he admired – Michael Jordan.

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: In 2006, Ronnie Brown amassed four 100-yard rushing games, a figure which is tied for the fourth-highest single-season total in club history and was the most since Ricky Williams turned in seven such performances in 2003 . . . In each of his 100-yard rushing games in 2006, Brown compiled an average per attempt of more than 5.0 yards . . . This included a 5.8 mark at N.Y. Jets, 10/15 (22-127), a 5.4 figure at Chicago, 11/5 (29-157), a 6.1 figure vs. N.Y. Jets, 12/25 (18-110) and a 5.5 average at Indianapolis, 12/31 (21-115) . . . In fact, Brown has surpassed the 5.0-yard mark in five of his six career 100-yard rushing games . . . Coupled with his two 100-yard games from his rookie season of 2005, Brown's total of six ties him with Karim Abdul-Jabbar for the most 100-yard rushing games by a Dolphin in his first two pro seasons:

2006 GAME HIGHLIGHTS: In opener at Pittsburgh (9/7), scored on runs of two and five yards, representing the first multiple-touchdown game of his career . . . It also marked the first time a Dolphin had two rushing TDs in the same game since Sammy Morris on December 20, 2004 against New England . . . Tied a career high with six receptions (52 yards) the following week vs. Buffalo (9/17) . . . Along with his 70 yards rushing (15 atts.), his 122 total yards from scrimmage ranked as the second-highest total of his career to that point . . . Eclipsed his career-high for both receptions and receiving yards with eight for 62 yards at Houston (10/1) . . . Accounted for his first 100-yard game of the season with 127 yards and one TD on 22 carries at N.Y. Jets (10/15) . . . At the time, it was the second-highest rushing total of his career . . . His 5.8-yard average in the game marked the first of four times in 2006 he posted an average per carry of more than 5.0 yards . . . Had best game of career in 31-13 victory over Chicago (11/5), when he rushed for a career-high 157 yards on a career-high 29 carries, a 5.4-yard average per attempt . . . It is the 11th best rushing performance in Dolphins history and the 10th in the regular season . . . Along with his 33 yards receiving on two receptions, his 190 total yards from scrimmage in the game is a career best . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/23), rushed for 68 yards on 15 attempts before sustaining a broken bone in his left hand on the first series of the third quarter . . . Was inactive for the next three games . . . Returned to action in a reserve role in Monday night game vs. N.Y. Jets (12/25) . . . Responded with 110 yards rushing on just 18 carries for a career-best 6.1-yard average per attempt . . . Became the first Dolphin to compile 100 yards rushing against the same opponent twice in a season since Ricky Williams did it against Buffalo in 2003 . . . Was the first to do it against the Jets twice in the same season since Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1996 . . . When he ran for 115 yards on 21 carries (5.5) in finale at Indianapolis (12/31), he became just the ninth player in club history to post consecutive 100-yard rushing games and the first since Williams did it in the final two games of 2005 . . . Included in his total in the Colts contest was a season-long 47-yard run, the third-longest run of his career.

2005 – Started 14 of the 15 games in which he appeared . . . Led team with 907 yards rushing on 206 attempts, including four touchdowns . . . Was fourth on the club with 32 receptions, totaling 232 yards and one touchdown . . . Rushing total ranked 12th in the AFC and second among NFL rookies, trailing only Tampa Bay's Cadillac Williams (290-1,178). . . Led the Dolphins in rushing eight times and in receptions once on the year . . . His average per carry of 4.4 tied for fourth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL among players with 100 or more attempts . . . Compiled 815 yards and four touchdowns on 173 carries (4.7 avg.) over his final 13 games of the year, during which time he also caught 30 passes for 223 yards and a TD . . . Along with LB Channing Crowder and CB Travis Daniels, it marked the first time since 1996 that at least three Dolphins rookies started ten or more games . . . Dolphins also were the only NFL team in 2005 to have three rookies start 12 or more games . . .

AMONG DOLPHINS ROOKIE RUSHERS: Brown became the sixth rookie in team history to lead the Dolphins in rushing, joining J.J. Johnson (1999), Karim Abdul-Jabbar (1996), Sammie Smith (1989), Troy Stradford (1987), and Jim Kiick (1968) . . . His total rushing total ranked second all-time among Dolphins rookie rushers, trailing only Abdul-Jabbar (1,116 in 1996) while his 207 attempts, also were the second-highest figure, trailing only Abdul-Jabbar's total of 307 from 1996:

4.	Sammie Smith	1989	659	200	3.3
5.	Jim Kiick	1968	621	165	3.8

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Brown reached the 100-yard rushing mark twice during the course of the season . . . In the process, he became just the sixth rookie in Dolphins history to post two or more 100-yard rushing games, and the first since Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1996 (4) . . . The others who have done it are Jim Kiick (2 in 1968), Benny Malone (3 in 1974), Leroy Harris (2 in 1977) and Troy Stradford (3 in 1987) . . .

SINGLE-GAME RUSHING TOTALS BY A DOLPHINS ROOKIE: Brown's first career 100-yard rushing game came in week three, a 27-24 victory over Carolina at Dolphins Stadium . . . In the game, rushed for 132 yards on 23 carries, including a one-yard TD run for his first pro score . . . His rushing total that day is the fourth-highest by a Dolphins rookie and was the most since the 1996 season finale when Karim Abdul-Jabbar had 152 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries at the New York Jets (12/22/96) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Made NFL debut, in a starting role, in opener vs. Denver (9/11) . . . Became the first Dolphins rookie running back to start on opening day since Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1996 . . . Responded with 57 yards rushing on 22 attempts and one catch for four yards . . . First career 100-yard rushing game occurred two weeks later when he rushed for 132 yards and a touchdown on 23 attempts vs. Carolina (9/25) . . . Added three catches for 15 yards . . . It marked the first time a Dolphin rookie running back rushed for 100 or more yards since November 21, 1999 when J.J. Johnson ran for 106 yards vs. New England . . . His 132 yards rushing at the time also was the fourth-highest single-game rushing figure by a rookie in team history . . . Of Brown's total on the day, 103 came in the second half . . . Had a 58-yard run, the second-longest run from scrimmage by a Dolphins rookie at the time and now third . . . First career touchdown came on a one-yard run 4:51 into the contest to give the Dolphins a 7-0 lead . . . The following game at Buffalo (10/9), rushed for 97 yards on 17 carries, and turned in a 5.7-yard average per rush attempt for the second game in a row . . . It gave him 229 yards rushing over that two-game span, the most-ever for a Dolphins rookie . . . Put together a season-high 11.9-yard average per attempt vs. Kansas City (10/21) when he rushed for 95 yards on eight carries . . . This total included a 65-yard TD run, the second-longest ever by a Dolphins rookie and tied for ninth overall in Dolphins history . . . Compiled second 100-yard rushing game of the year the following week against the Saints in Baton Rouge (10/30), as he rushed for 106 yards on 23 carries, including a long run of 35 . . . With Ricky Williams gaining 82 yards in the Saints game, it marked the first time that two Dolphins rushed for 80 yards or more in the same game since October 8, 1979 when Delvin Williams had 86 yards and Larry Csonka had 83 yards at Oakland . . . In four games during the month of October, Brown totaled 320 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 57 carries, a 5.6-yard average per attempt . . . Also caught 12 passes for 90 yards, including a season-high six receptions (19 yards) at Buffalo . . . First career touchdown reception came on a 23-yard catch from Sage Rosenfels vs. Buffalo (12/4) . . . The score occurred on third-and-13 with 7:35 to play in the game and closed the Dolphins' deficit to 23-17 as they went on for a 24-23 victory.

COLLEGE

Played in 47 games, including 21 starts, over a five-year span (2000-04) . . . Appeared in the first two games as a true freshman in 2000 before redshirting . . . Concluded his career with 2,707 yards and 28 touchdowns on 513 attempts, and caught 58 passes for 668 yards and a pair of scores . . . DOLPHINS ON THE INTERNET

All the information you need to read and hear about the Miami Dolphins in 2007 can be obtained on the Dolphins web site, located at http://www.miamidolphins.com.

Miami's official home page contains useful information that is updated on a daily basis throughout the year. Releases, rosters, statistics, depth charts and updated biographies are just a few of the things that are featured. In addition, the site is updated daily with video and sound bites from Head Coach Cam Cameron and Dolphin players. The quality of sound will enable not only fans to hear what the Dolphins are saying, but also can be used by the media. Pre-game and post-game analysis begins in preseason, and on gamedays, the site contains an analysis of the action on the field as it is happening, as well as photos throughout the course of the contest. Fans can submit questions and comments about the team daily. In addition, Q&A sessions with Dolphins players, coaches and front office staff are regularly conducted on the site.

Other information on the Dolphins, in addition to the latest on the National Football League and the other 31 teams, can be accessed through the NFL's home page on http://www.nfl.com.

2005 – Started all 16 games in which he played . . . Led team with 82 receptions for 1,118 yards and 11 touchdowns . . . Reception total tied for sixth in the AFC and 13th in the NFL while his yardage figure was third in the conference 12th in the league . . . Eleven touchdown catches tied for the second-highest figure in the AFC and third in the NFL, trailing only Indianapolis' Marvin Harrison (12) and Carolina's Steve Smith (12) . . . Chambers set career highs for both receptions and receiving yards, while his touchdown total equaled his career best that he first achieved in 2003 . . . Over the final six games of the season, recorded 43 catches for 620 yards and six touchdowns . . . With 82 catches on the year, Chambers became the first NFL wide receiver to increase his receiving totals in each of his first five NFL seasons since Muhsin Muhammad did it from 1996-2000 with Carolina . . . In addition, he became just the second Dolphins wide receiver to do it, joining O.J. McDuffie (1993-97) . . . He became the first Dolphin to record 1,000 or more receiving yards since Tony Martin had 1,037 receiving yards in 1999 . . . Overall, it marked the 14th time a Dolphin had a 1,000 receiving yard season, and he is the sixth different Dolphin player to reach that plateau, joining Mark Clayton (five times), Mark Duper (four), Irving Fryar (two), O.J. McDuffie (one) and Martin (one) . . . Also rushed for 92 yards on 12 attempts during the course of the season, as he was third on the team in rushing . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: For his performance in a 24-23 comeback win over Buffalo on December 4 in which he caught 15 passes for 238 yards and a touchdown, Chambers was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the games of December 11-12 . . . It was Chambers' first AFC Offensive Player of the Week award in his five-year career . . . He won NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month honors in November of 2001 . . . He became the first Dolphin to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week accolades since quarterback Jay Fiedler in week 13 of 2003, in a 40-21 win at Dallas on November 27 . . . He was the first Dolphins wide receiver to win the award since Mark Ingram in week 13 of 1994, in a 28-24 victory over the New York Jets at the Meadowlands . . . Overall, since the award was first instituted in 1984, Chambers was just the fourth Dolphins wide receiver to be bestowed with this honor, joining Ingram, Mark Clayton (Week 16 of 1984, at Dallas) and Mark Duper (Week 15 of 1987, vs. Washington) . . .

PRO BOWL: Chambers was named to the 2006 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . It was his first Pro Bowl selection . . . He was the first Dolphins wide receiver to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Irving Fryar following the 1994 season. . . Overall, he is the sixth Dolphin wide receiver to be chosen to the Pro Bowl, joining Paul Warfield (five selections), Nat Moore (one selection), Mark Duper (three selections), Mark Clayton (five selections) and Fryar (two selections) . . . In the game, he caught two passes for 34 yards, including a 16-yard TD catch from Peyton Manning . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. DENVER (SEPT. 11): Had five catches for 40 yards and led the Dolphins in rushing with one carry for 61 yards on a reverse . . . It was the longest run of his career and was the longest run from scrimmage since wide receiver James McKnight had a 68-yard touchdown run on October 5, 2003 at the New York Giants . . . Chambers' run was the second-longest ever by a Dolphins wide receiver, trailing only McKnight's run . .

VS. CAROLINA (SEPT. 25): Led the Dolphins in receptions and receiving yards with six catches for 93 yards and one touchdown . . . His touchdown reception came on an acrobatic 42-yard catch from Gus Frerotte in the second quarter which gave the Dolphins a 21-10 lead as they went on for a 27-24 victory. . . In the game, surpassed Tony Nathan for sixth on the Dolphins all-time list for receiving yards . . .

VS. KANSAS CITY (OCT. 21): Led the Dolphins in receiving yards with 88 on two catches, one of which came on a 77-yard scoring reception from Sage Rosenfels . . . The scoring catch tied for the 11th longest pass play in Dolphins history and was the longest since James McKnight hauled in an 80-yard scoring pass from Brian Griese on November 23, 2003 against Washington . . . It also was the longest reception of Chambers' career, surpassing his previous long of a 76-yard touchdown catch from Rosenfels on January 2, 2005 at Baltimore . . . The two receptions also gave him 256 for his career, tying him with Bruce Hardy for seventh on the team's all-time list . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 13): Hauled in six passes for 69 yards and two touchdowns, coming on 3-yard and 15-yard scoring passes from Gus Frerotte . . . It was his first game of the season with two or more touchdown catches and the sixth such game of his career . . . It was the first time he had two touchdown receptions in a game since he had three TD receptions at Dallas on November 27, 2003 . . . The two scoring receptions gave him 33 for his career, tying him with Paul Warfield for fourth on the Dolphins' all-time chart . . . His final reception in that game gave him 269 in his career, tying him with Duriel Harris for sixth on the team's all-time list . . .

AT OAKLAND (NOV. 27): Topped the Dolphins in receptions and receiving yards with six catches for 101 yards . . . Also added one rush for five yards . . . It was his first 100-yard receiving game of the season and the 12th 100-yard game of his career, tying him with Nat Moore for the fourth-most 100-yard receiving games in Dolphin history . . .

VS. BUFFALO (DEC. 4): In 24-23 comeback win over the Bills, turned in the most prolific receiving performance of any Dolphin in the franchise's 40-year history when he caught 15 passes for 238 yards, including a touchdown . . . That touchdown came on a four-yard pass from Sage Rosenfels with six seconds remaining to lift Miami to the second-largest comeback victory in franchise history . . . Not only were his 15 receptions a team single-game best, but they were the most in the NFL in 2005 and the most since New England's Troy Brown had 16 catches on September 22, 2002 against Kansas City . . . His 238 receiving yards also were the most in the league in 2005 and the most since Pittsburgh's Plaxico Burress produced 253

In the second half, caught five passes for 97 yards and two touchdowns . . . In fact, his entire receiving total in the second half occurred within the first 11:34 of the third quarter, and was capped by a 35-yard TD reception to give the Dolphins a 20-7 lead . . . Earlier in the quarter, his eight-yard TD reception gave the Dolphins their first lead of the afternoon at 13-7, 4:25 into the third quarter . . . It was the third straight game he surpassed the 100-yard receiving mark, tied for the second-longest such streak in Dolphins history, and just the fourth time (4th different player) in team annals that a streak of at least this length was put together . . . It was his second game on the year with two touchdown catches, and it was the seventh multiple touchdown reception game of his career . . . The 300th reception of his career came on a 15-yard catch from Frerotte in the third quarter . . .

VS. TENNESSEE (DEC. 24): Led the Dolphins with five receptions for 51 yards and two touchdowns . . . His touchdowns came on receptions of 11 and seven yards, both from Gus Frerotte . . . Also added three rushes for five yards . . . Went over the 1,000-yard mark in reception yardage for the season in that contest for the first time in his career . . . It was also the fourth straight game he recorded a touchdown catch, the first time in his career he achieved this feat . . . It also was his third multiple-touchdown game of the season and the eighth of his career . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (JAN. 1): Tallied five catches for 75 yards and in the process moved past Duriel Harris into fifth on the Dolphins' all-time list of receiving yardage leaders.

2004 – Started all 15 games in which he played . . . Led team in both receiving yards and touchdowns with 898 yards and seven scores . . . Recorded 69 receptions, second on the team only to Randy McMichael's 73 . . . It marked the fourth straight year in which he led the team in receiving yardage, just the third Dolphin ever to achieve this feat, joining Paul Warfield (1970-73) and Nat Moore (1974-77) . . . Had six receptions of 25 yards or longer, the most on the team . . . Also rushed for 76 yards on nine attempts during the course of the season, including a season-long 24-yard run vs. Arizona (11/7) . . . Led team in receptions seven times and in receiving yards on five occasions during the course of the season . . . Reception total was 15th in the AFC while yardage figure ranked 18th . . . Accounted for four 100-yard receiving games on the year, tied for the sixth-highest single-season figure in club history and the most by a Dolphin since Tony Martin had five in 1999 . . . Was inactive vs. N.Y. Jets (10/3) with a knee injury . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. ST. LOUIS (OCT. 24): Posted his first 100-yard receiving game of the season with three catches for 128 yards and a touchdown . . . The score came on a 71-yard grab from Jay Fiedler as the Dolphins earned their first victory of the season . . . That catch marked the second-longest of his career at the time . . . Average per reception of 42.7 is the highest of his career in a game where he had three or more catches . . .

AT SEATTLE (NOV. 21): Matched a personal single-game high to that point with nine receptions, totaling 103 yards and a touchdown, marking the first of three straight games in which he would account for a score . . . Along with his seven-catch, 104-yard performance in the Dolphins' previous game (vs. Arizona, 11/7), Chambers became the first Dolphin to register back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since Tony Martin did it in games 4-5 of 1999 with 166 yards on 10 receptions on October 10 at Indianapolis and 119 yards on seven catches the following week at New England, on October 17 . . .

VS. BUFFALO (DEC. 5): Had five catches for 49 yards, including a two-yard TD reception from A.J. Feeley . . . It was the third game in a row in which he had a scoring catch, the third time in Chambers' career that he has had streaks of three straight games with a TD catch, having also achieved the feat in 2001 (games 10-12) and 2003 (games 6-8) . . . Also accounted for the first two-point conversion of his career when he took in a pass from A.J. Feeley . . .

AT BALTIMORE (JAN. 2): Concluded the season with four receptions for 146 yards and a touchdown . . . Yardage figure in the game was the second-highest total of his career at the time . . . Average per catch of 36.5 is the third-highest of his career in games where he had three or more receptions . . . His 76-yard TD catch from Sage Rosenfels on the game's first play from scrimmage was the longest reception of his career to that point, and now second.

2003 – Started all 16 games in which he played, becoming the first Dolphins wide receiver to do this since Oronde Gadsden in 2000 . . . Finished the season with 64 catches for 963 yards and 11 touchdowns . . . Led the team in all three categories . . . Reception total tied for 14th in the AFC while his yardage figure ranked seventh . . . Tied for fifth in the conference in overall touchdowns and was first in the AFC and third in the NFL in receiving scores . . . Accounted for the most catches by a Dolphin since 1999 when Tony Martin had 67 receptions . . . His yardage total was the most by a Dolphin since Martin had 1,037 yards in '99, and his 11 touchdowns were the most since Mark Clayton hauled in 12 receiving scores in 1991 . . . Of his 64 receptions, eight went for 25 yards or longer, the most on the team . . . Over the course of the season, led the team in receptions nine times and in receiving yards on nine occasions . . . His average per reception of 15.0 tied for the ninth-highest figure among the top 50 receiving yardage leaders in the AFC . . . Also rushed for 30 yards on four attempts on the year . . .

RECEIVING TOUCHDOWNS: Of Chambers' 64 receptions on the year, 11 went for touchdowns . . . This total led the AFC and was third in the NFL, trailing only Minnesota's

Randy Moss (17) and St. Louis' Torry Holt (12) . . . That total marked the most by a Dolphin since Mark Clayton hauled in 12 receiving scores in 1991 and it was the fifth-highest single-season total in franchise history . . . In addition, Chambers' one touchdown catch for every 5.8 receptions was the highest of the top 50 receivers in the AFC and second among the top 50 receivers in both conferences:

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. HOUSTON (SEPT. 7): Led the Dolphins in receptions and receiving yards with seven catches for 118 yards and two touchdowns . . . Also had one rush for 12 yards . . . His touchdowns came on receptions of 57 and 21 yards, both from Jay Fiedler . . .

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 21): Led the team in receptions with five catches for 51 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 12-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler . . . It was his third touchdown catch of the season, which equaled his total for all of 2002 . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 19): Had three catches for 30 yards and one touchdown, which came on a six-yard pass from Jay Fiedler, marking his first of three straight games with a touchdown reception . . .

AT SAN DIEGO (OCT. 27): In Monday night game against the Chargers in Tempe, Ariz., led the Dolphins in reception yardage with 79 yards on four catches, including one touchdown, which came on a five-yard pass from Brian Griese, marking Griese's first ever pass attempt as a Dolphin . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 2): Registered three catches for 56 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 28-yard TD pass from Brian Griese . . . It was the third straight game in which he had a touchdown reception, tied for the longest such streak of his career at the time . . . He also had a TD reception in games 10-12 of 2001, during which time he totaled five scoring catches . . .

AT DALLAS (NOV. 27): In Thanksgiving Day game against Cowboys, led the Dolphins in both receptions and receiving yardage with five catches for 96 yards and three touchdowns . . . His three TD receptions came on scoring passes of 39, 6 and 35 yards, all from Jay Fiedler . . . It was his second game of the season with two or more touchdown catches and the fifth of his career with multiple touchdown catches . . . His three touchdown catches represented a personal single-game career high . . . It also is tied for the third-highest single-game touchdown reception total in Dolphin history, and was the most since Lamar Thomas had three scores on December 21, 1998 against Denver . . . For his performance in the game, Chambers, along with QB Jay Fiedler, shared the Phil Simms Ironman of the Game Award . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 28): In season finale, led the Dolphins in receptions and receiving yardage with season-high figures of nine catches for 153 yards and one touchdown, which occurred on a 20-yard scoring pass from Jay Fiedler . . . His nine catches surpassed his former career high of seven, which he had accomplished three times previously . . . His 153 yards in receptions surpassed his previous career-best in that category of 138 yards, which he achieved on December 15, 2002 vs. Oakland . . . His yardage total was the most by a Dolphin since October 10, 1999 when Tony Martin had 166 yards at Indianapolis.

2002 – Started all 15 games in which he played . . . Was inactive for one game . . . Led team with 52 receptions for 734 yards . . . Also scored three touchdowns . . . Totaled 78 rushing yards on six carries, including a long run of 45 yards . . . Had seven catches of 25 yards or longer, second-most on the team, trailing only James McKnight (9) . . . Led team in receptions five times and in receiving yards on five occasions as well . . . Was inactive for game vs. Buffalo (10/20) while recovering from a concussion sustained the previous week at Denver (10/13) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – AT KANSAS CITY (SEPT. 29): Hauled in six passes for 102 yards, the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career . . . Had a long catch of 38 yards, his third-longest reception of the season . . . Six catches marked the second-most receptions of his career at the time . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 6): Had six receptions for 62 yards, including a seven-yard scoring catch from Jay Fiedler which gave the Dolphins a 14-0 lead in their 26-13 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Patriots . . .

VS. OAKLAND (DEC. 15): Turned in his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and the fifth of his career with seven catches for 138 yards, including a long catch of 40 yards, his second-longest reception of the season . . . Reception total tied a career-high at the time that he first set on December 22, 2001 at New England, while his yardage total represented a career-best at the time, surpassing his previous high of 124 yards achieved in that same Patriots game from 2001 . . . Of his yardage total on the day, 117 came in the first half as he became the first Dolphin to have 100 yards receiving in a half since he had 108 yards in the second half at New England on December 22, 2001 . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 29): Did not catch a pass, but rushed three times for 59 yards, including a long run of 45 yards . . . His 59 yards rushing tied for the highest single-game rushing total by a wide receiver in team history at the time (now 2nd), along with the 59 yards (1 att.) by Freddie Solomon on December 5, 1976 against Buffalo . . . Chambers' 45-yard run was the third-longest ever by a Dolphins wide receiver at the time (now 5th), and the longest since Solomon's 59-yard run in that Bills game.

2001 – Turned in one of the most productive seasons of any rookie wide receiver in club history . . . Started seven of the 16 games in which he played . . . Finished with 48 receptions for 883 yards and seven touchdowns . . . Yardage and touchdown totals both led the team, as did his 18.4-yard average per reception . . . Reception figure ranked third . . . Was 18th in the AFC in receiving yards, while his average per catch was first among the top 20 receivers in both the AFC and NFC . . . Led the team in receptions once and in receiving yardage on three occasions . . . Topped the 100-yard receiving mark three times . . . Also returned 36 kickoffs for a 22.5-yard average with a long of 47 . . . Was inactive for First Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) with a sprained right ankle sustained in finale vs. Buffalo (1/6/02) . . .

AMONG ROOKIE RECEIVERS: In 2001, Chambers established the Dolphins' rookie single-season record for most receiving yards, snapping the previous mark of 874 set by RB Terry Kirby in 1993 . . . He also established the rookie mark for receiving touchdowns, as he broke the record first set by Andre Brown, who had five scores in 1989 . . . His reception total tied for the third-most ever by a Dolphins rookie in a season, and was second among wide receivers . . . On the season, Chambers topped all NFL rookies in both receiving yardage and touchdowns, and was second in receptions, trailing only San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson, who had 59 . . .

until the second round, the 52nd pick overall . . . The following is a look at the rookie seasons of the top ten wide receivers taken in the 2001 draft:

LONG RECEPTIONS: Chambers had 14 receptions of 25 yards or longer in 2001, tied for the fourth-highest total in the NFL . . . His 74-yard touchdown catch from Jay Fiedler on November 11 at Indianapolis is tied for the second-longest ever by a Dolphins rookie and is the longest by a rookie wide receiver:

AVERAGE PER RECEPTION: Chambers' average per reception in 2001 of 18.4 was first among the top 20 receivers in both the AFC and NFC . . . In addition, it was the highest by a Dolphin (minimum of 24 receptions) since Mark Duper put together a 19.6-yard norm (67-1,313) in 1986 and Mark Clayton accounted for a 19.2-yard average that same year (60-1,150 . . . Chambers' average per catch of 18.4 also marked a new Dolphins rookie record, surpassing the previous mark of 17.4, first set by TE Ferrell Edmunds in 1988 . . . Chambers also owns two of the three highest single-game average per reception figures by a Dolphins rookie (minimum 3 receptions) . . . He put together a rookie-record 37.7-yard average (3-113) on November 11 at Indianapolis, breaking the old mark of 30.3, first set by Mel Baker (4-121) on December 15, 1974 against New England . . . His 25.3-yard average (3-76) on October 28 at Seattle is the third-highest figure . . .

100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES: Chambers had three 100-yard receiving games on the year, tied with Jack Clancy (1967) for the most ever by a Dolphins rookie . . . His first came on November 11 at Indianapolis when he had three catches for 113 yards and two touchdowns, representing the first 100-yard receiving game by a Dolphins rookie since December 19, 1993, when running back Terry Kirby had nine catches for 148 yards and a TD against Buffalo . . . It was the first by a rookie wide receiver since Andre Brown amassed 106 yards and a TD on five receptions on October 29, 1989 at Buffalo . . . He also had five catches for 101 yards and two touchdowns on November 25 at Buffalo, and seven catches for 124 yards on December 22 at New England . . .

ROOKIE OF THE MONTH: Chambers was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for November . . . In four games that month, caught 14 passes for 293 yards and four touchdowns . . . Amassed more than 100 yards receiving in two of those four games . . . Became the third Dolphins rookie to win such an honor, joining LB Zach Thomas (October, 1996) and T Todd Wade (October, 2000) . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Was a consensus all-rookie selection . . . Was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by both Football News and Football Digest . . . In a vote of South Florida media and fans, was named the Dolphins Newcomer of the Year for 2001, the first rookie to earn this honor since Jason Taylor in 1997 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – AT TENNESSEE (SEPT. 9): Made NFL debut in a starting role as the Dolphins opened with three wide receivers . . . Caught two passes for 52 yards . . . First NFL reception was a 36-yard grab from Jay Fiedler in the first quarter . . . He became just the fourth rookie wide receiver to start on opening day, joining John Roderick (1966), Karl Noonan (1966) and Otto Stowe (1971) . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 11): Had three receptions for 113 yards and two touchdowns, marking the first 100-yard receiving game of his career . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball . . . It was the eighth-highest single-game yardage total by a Dolphins rookie . . . 37.7-yard average per reception in that game is the highest ever by a Dolphins rookie in a game (min. 3 receptions) and the second-best figure of his career (minimum of 3 receptions) . . . It was the first 100-yard receiving game by a Dolphins rookie since RB Terry Kirby had nine catches for 148 yards and a TD on December 19, 1993 against Buffalo . . . It was the first by a Dolphins rookie wide receiver since October 29, 1989 when Andre Brown had five catches for 106 yards and a TD at Buffalo . . . Had scoring catches of 74 and 29 yards . . . 74-yarder occurred with 3:04 to play in the first half and it marked the longest by a Dolphins rookie since FB Stanley

Pritchett hauled in a 74-yard scoring catch from Dan Marino on September 15, 1996 against the N.Y. Jets . . . The 74-yard TD catches are the second-longest receptions by a Dolphins rookie, trailing only the 80-yarder by TE Ferrell Edmunds from Marino on November 27, 1988 at the N.Y. Jets, while Chambers' is the longest by a rookie wide receiver . . . His 29-yarder came with 7:44 to play in the contest and provided the winning points in Miami's 27-24 victory . . . He became just the second Dolphins rookie ever to have two TD catches in a game, joining Mel Baker, who had scoring catches of 37 and 46 yards from Earl Morrall on December 15, 1974 against New England . . . Along with Travis Minor's 56-yard TD run, it marked the first time that a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown had been scored by Dolphins rookies in the same game since September 13, 1999 at Denver, when J.J. Johnson had a one-yard TD run and Rob Konrad had a 12-yard TD reception from Dan Marino . . . It was the first time that a rookie running back and wide receiver had touchdowns in the same game since October 24, 1993 against Indianapolis, when WR O.J. McDuffie had a 71-yard punt return for a TD and RB Terry Kirby had a 44-yard scoring reception from Scott Mitchell and a 14-yard TD run . . . It was the first time that a rookie wide receiver had a TD reception and a rookie running back had a TD run in the same game since November 19, 1989 at Dallas, when RB Sammie Smith had a one-yard scoring run and WR Andre Brown had a 48-yard TD catch from Marino . . .

AT BUFFALO (NOV. 25): Had five catches for 101 yards, and spearheaded a fourth-quarter comeback in which the Dolphins responded from an 11-point deficit with a pair of touchdown catches in the final period . . . First scoring catch was from 22 yards out and came with 4:07 to play in the game and closed the Bills' lead to three points at 27-24 . . . Hauled in a 32-yard scoring strike with 48 seconds remaining, lifting the Dolphins to the 34-27 victory . . . It represented his second 100-yard receiving game of the year and was the second time that he accounted for a pair of touchdowns . . . Along with Oronde Gadsden's 116 receiving yards, it was the first time that two Dolphins had 100 yards receiving in the same game since December 5, 1999 against Indianapolis when Gadsden (103 yards) and Tony Martin (109 yards) accomplished the feat . . . It was only the third time that a Dolphins rookie was involved in a dual 100-yard receiving game, as he joined TE Ferrell Edmunds (117 yards along with 116 by Mark Clayton on 11/27/88 at N.Y. Jets) and WR Andre Brown (105 yards along with 122 by Clayton on 10/29/89 at Buffalo) . . .

VS. DENVER (DEC. 2): Caught three passes for 35 yards, including an 11-yard TD catch from Jay Fiedler, his fifth TD reception of the year, tying him with Andre Brown (1989) for the Dolphins rookie record for most touchdown catches . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (DEC. 10): In Monday night game, hauled in three passes for 36 yards, two of which went for touchdowns, marking his third multiple-touchdown game of the year . . . First TD catch was a two-yarder, 4:19 into the second quarter as he established the club's single-season record for touchdown catches by a rookie . . . Also caught a 32-yard scoring pass in the fourth quarter . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 22): Led the Dolphins with seven receptions for 124 yards, his third 100-yard receiving game of the year . . . Seven catches are tied for the seventh-highest single-game total by a Dolphins rookie, while his yardage figure is the third-highest total.

Four-year letterman (1997-00) for the Badgers . . . Played in 43 games in his career, starting each of the final 33 . . . Finished with 127 receptions for 2,004 yards and 16 touchdowns . . . Also rushed for 17 yards on two carries, returned one kickoff for 15 yards and fielded five punts for two yards . . . Currently ranks third on the school's all-time list for receptions and yardage . . . Part of Badger teams that won the Rose Bowl following the 1998 and 1999 seasons . . . Despite playing in only nine games as a senior because of a stress fracture in his right foot, put together the most productive season of his career with 52 receptions for 813 yards and five touchdowns . . . Was a second-team All-Big 10 Conference choice . . . Had the best game of his career when he hauled in 11 passes for 191 yards against Iowa . . . That came one week after he had 11 receptions for 173 yards and a touchdown against Purdue . . . Missed two games as a junior with a broken finger, but still led the team in receiving with 41 catches for

578 yards and four scores, and was an honorable mention All-Big 10 pick . . . Also topped the team in receiving his sophomore season when he totaled 28 catches for 563 yards and seven touchdowns, including an 80-yard grab against Michigan . . . Was a backup guard on the Badger basketball team during his freshman year of 1997-98 . . . Majored in sociology and law. Married (Christina) with a son, Chaz . . . Earned All-America accolades and was a two-time all-state performer at Bedford (Ohio) High School, the same school that produced fellow Wisconsin wide receiver Lee Evans, now with the Buffalo Bills . . . Totaled 75 receptions and 24 touchdowns in his prep career . . . Also lettered in basketball and track . . . As a senior, was a third-team all-state selection in basketball . . . In track, was the state champion in the 400-meters as a senior with a time of 47.1 . . . Has assisted in building houses for Habitat for Humanity . . . Has taken part in the team's annual turkey giveaway drive, in addition to having participated in the club's fishing and golf tournaments, both of which benefit the Miami Dolphins Foundation . . . Recently started his own foundation which helps kids both athletically and from an education standpoint . . . It is called "CATCH-84" (Children Achieving Through Community Help) . . . The Foundation's web site is located at www.catch84.com . . . The Foundation held its first fundraising event during the 2006 offseason, raising more than $25,000, with part of the proceeds benefiting the Health Project at Scott Lakes Elementary School in Miami . . . Also recently launched his own web site, located at www.chrischambers84.com . . . Eash of the last two seasons, has been part of the Dolphins' "All-Community Team" in which he donated 20 tickets for every home game to local youth

DOLPHINS POST THREE PLAYOFF SHUTOUTS

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the seven AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the New York Jets (41-0 over the Indianapolis Colts on January 4, 2003), Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Miami Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

FINS FACT

Patrick enjoys working with troubled kids. In fact, his mother is a child therapist. During college, Patrick worked part-time in the Nelson Center, a juvenile facility in Denton, Texas, where he counseled kids ages 6-15. His work at the center was something from which he got a lot of self-gratification. "The kids really look forward to you coming in to see them," Patrick says. "A lot of them need a father-figure in life and somebody that they can look up to in a positive manner."

Converted both field goal attempts and all seven PATs in two playoff games following the season . . . Had a 38-yarder in Divisional win over St. Louis (1/15/05).

2003 – Was 19-27 on field goals and 32-33 on PATs for 89 total points . . . Had a 60-yard field goal attempt blocked at St. Louis (10/13) . . . Hit on all three field goal attempts, including a season-long 46-yarder, vs. Philadelphia (11/2) . . . Had a PAT blocked the following week at N.Y. Giants (11/9), the last time he missed a PAT . . . Was short on a 54-yard field goal in overtime at New Orleans (11/16), a game the Falcons would go on to lose, 23-20 . . . Was good on all three of his field goal attempts at Tampa Bay (12/20) – from 26, 38 and 37 yards away – as the Falcons recorded a 30-28 upset victory over the Bucs.

2002 – Converted 32 of 40 field goals, as 80.0 percent accuracy rate ranked a career best to that point . . . Also hit on 42 of 43 PATs for 138 points, the second-highest total of his career . . . The 32 field goals, 40 attempts and 138 points all represent Falcons single-season standards . . . In addition, the 32 field goals tied him with Tampa Bay's Martin Gramatica for the most in the NFL, while the 40 attempts led the NFL and the 138 points were second-best in the league and the most by a kicker (Kansas City running back Priest Holmes had 144 points) . . . Along with his 115 points from 2001, became the first Falcons kicker with consecutive 100-point seasons since Morten Andersen had 104 and 120 points, respectively, from 1997-98. . . In season-opening 37-34 overtime loss at Green Bay (9/8), connected on both field goals, including a season-long 52-yarder, which came with five seconds to play in regulation to send the game into overtime . . . In addition, of his eight kickoffs on the day, four went for touchbacks, a career high . . . Had a successful onside kick vs. Tampa Bay (10/6) . . . Earned NFL Special Teams Player of the Week accolades in 30-0 win over Carolina (10/20) when he connected on all three of his field goal attempts – from 41,45 and 49 yards away . . . It marked the first time that a Falcon had three 40+-yard field goals in the same game since Morten Andersen on 12/10/95 vs. New Orleans . . . Also hit on three attempts at New Orleans (10/27) – from 31, 32 and 47 yards . . . Final field goal occurred as time expired in regulation, lifting the Falcons to a 37-35 victory . . . His 32-yarder, 25 seconds into the final period gave Atlanta a 27-25 lead . . . The kick capped an October in which he connected on 9 of 10 field goals and all nine PATs and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month . . . The following week vs. Baltimore (11/3), accounted for the game's final points on a 40-yarder with 2:02 to play in the third quarter, giving the Falcons a 20-17 victory . . . Had a 56-yard field goal attempt with one second to play in overtime blocked at Pittsburgh (11/10), as the game finished in a 34-34 tie . . . It also snapped his string of 13 straight successful field goals . . . Lone field goal at Minnesota (12/1) was good from 44 yards out with 3:33 to play, giving the Falcons a 24-21 lead in a game they would go on to win in overtime, 30-24 . . . In 36-15 victory over Detroit (12/22), hit all five field goal attempts – from 23,23,36, 20 and 39 yards out – as he set a career best . . . Also converted all three PATs for 18 points, which also established a career high . . . Five field goals and 18 points are tied for the second-highest single-game totals in Falcons history, trailing only the 20 points and six field goals accounted for by Norm Johnson on 11/13/94 at New Orleans . . . In addition, the 18 points gave him 128 on the year, as he broke the club single-season record of 122, set by Morten Andersen in 1995 . . . In season finale at Cleveland (12/29) hit on three of four field goals, including a pair from 40+ yards (42,49) . . . In the process set club single-season records for field goals with 32 (31 by Morten Andersen in 1995) and attempts with 40 (38 by Nick Mike-Mayer in 1973) . . . In two playoff games, was a combined 4-7 on field goals and 3-3 on PATs . . . Included in his total was a 52-yarder in Divisional contest at Philadelphia (1/11/03), the longest field goal in Falcons postseason history, surpassing the previous long of 45 yards by Norm Johnson on 12/28/91 at New Orleans.

2001 – As a rookie, converted 29 of 37 field goals (78.4%) and 28-28 PATs for 115 total points . . . Field goal total currently is the third-highest in Falcons history while his point total is fourth . . . Included in his total was a 14-15 mark away from the Georgia Dome . . . The 29 field goals were first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL . . . His 115 points tied Pro Bowler David Akers of the Eagles for second in the NFC, trailing only St. Louis' Jeff Wilkins (127) . . . Had successful onside kicks in games vs. Dallas (11/11) and vs. St. Louis (12/2) . . . Hit on a career-long 55-yard field goal in the Falcons' 34-14 victory at Arizona (9/30) . . . It is tied for the third-longest field goal in club history and the longest outdoors . . . First reception of NFL career came at New Orleans (10/21) when he hauled in a pass from holder Chris Mohr on a fake field goal attempt, which went for minus-2 yards . . . Connected on all three field goal attempts – from 26,39 and 32 yards out – in a 23-20 win at Green Bay (11/18) . . . First-quarter 39-yard field goal at Carolina (11/25) turned out to difference maker in a 10-7 win . . . Converted all four of his field goal attempts vs. Buffalo (12/23), including a 52-yarder as time expired to give the Falcons a 33-30 victory . . . Had a 44-yard field goal attempt blocked by Kenny Mixon at Miami

André was a big basketball fan growing up in Greenville, South Carolina, and for most of his childhood, aspired to play in the NBA one day. His favorite player was Michael Jordan. André's basketball career had to be put off, however, when he didn't grow past 5-10. At that time, he opted to play football, a decision which didn't come until his junior year of high school.

In 31-13 victory at Chicago (11/5), recovered a Justin Gage fumble and returned it 33 yards to the Bears' 12, setting up a Dolphins touchdown three plays later . . . Had a season-high two passes defensed the following week in a 13-10 victory over Kansas City (11/12) as the Dolphins held the Chiefs to 185 net passing yards . . . Established a season high with five tackles the week afterwards in 24-20 win vs. Minnesota (11/19) . . . Matched that total vs. Jacksonville (12/3) when he also forced a fumble . . . Sustained a shoulder injury vs. N.Y. Jets (12/25) and was placed on injured reserve the following day . . . On January 18, 2007, had an arthroscopic debridement and stabilization of his left shoulder . . . Dr. James Andrews performed the surgery at St. Vincent's Medical Center in Birmingham, Ala . . . Underwent surgery on his left shoulder on May 11, 2007 for an injury sustained in a minicamp practice on May 4 . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. Russell Warren at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City.

2005 – Played in 15 games, including eight starts . . . Posted 47 tackles and a career-high three interceptions, a figure which ranked second on the club . . . Also came up with a fumble recovery, 12 passes defensed and a five stops on special teams . . . Posted a season-high six tackles on four occasions; vs. Green Bay (9/11), at Tampa Bay (10/2), vs. Baltimore (10/9) and vs. Chicago (10/30) . . . First interception of the year came at Cleveland (10/23) when he picked off a Trent Dilfer pass in the fourth quarter to help preserve the Lions' 13-10 lead in a game they would win by that same score . . . Intercepted a Carson Palmer pass vs. Cincinnati (12/18) and returned it a career-long 21 yards . . . Also collected a season-high two special teams tackles in the Bengals game . . . Picked off a Ben Roethlisberger pass in finale at Pittsburgh (1/1/06) . . . Batted down five passes and had two interceptions over the final three weeks of the season.

2004 – Started four of the 11 games in which he appeared . . . Tallied 23 tackles, an interception, three passes defensed and a forced fumble . . . Added four stops on special teams . . . Posted a season-high six tackles, including his lone interception of the season in opener at Chicago (9/12) . . . Sustained a thigh injury in the game and was inactive for the next four weeks, dressed but did not play for a fifth . . . Opened the final four games of the year at left cornerback, filling in for an injured Fernando Bryant . . . Notched five tackles and a forced fumble vs. Chicago (12/26).

2003 – Started all three games in which he played . . . Recorded 13 tackles and four passes defensed . . . Sustained a dislocated shoulder vs. Minnesota (9/21) and was placed on injured reserve on September 25.

2002 – Played in 14 games, including six starts, during his rookie season . . . Collected 48 tackles, an interception, 12 passes defensed, a fumble recovery and six special teams tackles . . . Missed the first two games with an ankle injury . . . Made NFL debut, in a reserve role, vs. Green Bay (9/22) . . . Responded with four tackles against the Packers . . . Posted a career-high three special teams tackles at Minnesota (10/13) . . . Recorded seven tackles and two passes defensed vs. Tampa Bay (12/15) . . . Tallied four tackles, batted down two passes and recovered a Bob Christian fumble, which he returned 20 yards, at Atlanta (12/22) . . . The fumble recovery, which was the first of his NFL career, set up a 15-yard TD pass from Mike McMahon to Aveion Cason two plays afterward . . . First career interception came the following week, in finale vs. Minnesota (12/29), as he snared a Daunte Culpepper pass deep in Lions territory and returned it two yards.

The following week at Tampa Bay (11/7), accounted for 369 yards passing, as his 758 yards combined represent the highest two-game total of his career . . . Tossed for 381 yards vs. New England (11/22), the fourth straight game in which he collected 300 or more passing yards, tying Bill Kenney's club record . . . Completed a two-point conversion to Eddie Kennison vs. San Diego (11/28) . . . Led the Chiefs to a record of 4-1 in the months of December/January, with three of the wins occurring after Kansas City trailed in the fourth quarter . . . In game at Oakland (12/5), the Chiefs were behind 27-24 before Green engineered a pair of scoring drives that resulted in 10 points . . . The game-winning score occurred on a 70-yard pass to Kennison with 2:04 to play in the contest . . . Combined on the two scoring drives, Green completed all but one of his eight attempts, totaling 122 yards . . . The following week, in Monday night game at Tennessee (12/13), the Chiefs got the ball back at their own 36 with 1:39 to play in the game after the Titans had taken a 38-35 lead . . . Green went on to complete four of seven passes, totaling 45 yards, including a 9-yard scoring strike to Kennison for the game-winner as the Chiefs eventually earned a 49-35 victory . . . Completed 9 of 14 passes (1 spike), totaling 103 yards in fourth quarter vs. Oakland (12/25), as he led scoring drives that resulted in a touchdown and a field goal to give Kansas City a 31-30 victory after they trailed 24-21 entering the final period . . . When he opened finale at San Diego (1/2/05), he became the first quarterback in Chiefs history to start every game for four straight years.

2003 – Started all 16 games for the third straight year as he led the Chiefs to a regular season record of 13-3, the team's best mark since 1997 when they also went 13-3 and tied for the most wins in Chiefs history (13 in 1995) . . . Completed 330 of 523 passes for 4,039 yards with 24 touchdowns, 12 interceptions and a passer rating of 92.6 . . . Also rushed for 83 yards and a TD on 26 carries . . . Was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, just the second Chiefs QB to receive that accolade since 1996 (Elvis Grbac in 2000) . . . Also was chosen as the winner of the team's Derrick Thomas MVP Award, the first quarterback to earn that honor since Steve DeBerg in 1990 . . . Ranked third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in passer rating . . . Was second in the AFC and in the NFL in passing yards, trailing only Peyton Manning's total of 4,267 . . . In the fourth quarter and overtime of the game, Green completed 9 of 17 passes for 143 yards and a TD . . . For his performance, was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week . . . Had a two-yard TD run in 17-10 Monday night victory at Oakland (10/20) . . . Was 20 of 35 for 273 yards with two TDs, no INTs and a rating of 101.2 in 38-5 win vs. Buffalo (10/26), the first of four games in a row in which he compiled passer rating figures of 100.0 or better . . . Over this four-game span, in which the Chiefs went 3-1, threw eight TDs and no INTs . . . In the final game of that stretch, vs. Oakland (11/23), led Kansas City to a 27-24 victory . . . With the score tied at 24, the Chiefs got the ball at their own 45 with 2:18 to play before Green completed five of his next six passes, totaling 43 yards, setting up Morten Andersen's 35-yard game-winning field goal with four seconds remaining . . . On the play prior to the field goal, hit Marc Boerigter for a 16-yard completion on fourth-and-14 . . . Overall on the day, threw for 244 yards as he eclipsed the 10,000-yard passing plateau for his career . . . Seven-yard TD pass to Tony Gonzalez the week afterwards in 28-24 win at San Diego was the 100th touchdown pass of his career . . . Amassed a career-high 34 completions (47 atts.) at Denver (12/7), tied for the third-highest single-game figure in franchise history . . . In 45-17 win over Detroit (12/14), put together a career-best and perfect 158.3 passer rating as he connected on 20 of 25 (80.0%) for 341 yards with three TDs and no INTs.

2002 – Started all 16 games for the second year in a row . . . Connected on 287 of 470 passes for 3,690 yards with 26 touchdowns and 13 interceptions . . . With a completion mark of 61.1 percent, it marked the first of five straight years in which he hit on better than 60.0 percent of his passes . . . Touchdown figure represented a career-best to that point and now ranks as the second-highest total . . . Also rushed for a career-high 225 yards and a touchdown on 31 attempts . . . Rushing total ranked third among AFC QBs . . . Led the NFL with a 5.5 TD percentage and a 7.85 yards-per-attempt average . . . Posted four 300-yard passing games in addition to surpassing the 100.0 passer rating mark in six contests . . . Led all AFC quarterbacks and ranked second in the NFL with a fourth-quarter passer rating of 103.4 on 82 of 139 for 1,060 yards with 11 TDs and two TDs in the final period . . . Was third in the AFC with 46 completions of 20 yards or longer . . . In 48-30 win over Miami (9/29), threw for a career-high five TD passes on 24 of 34 passing for 328 yards, equating to a season-best passer rating of 140.7 . . . Also rushed for 48 yards on three attempts, including a career-long 24-yard run . . . For his performance, was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career . . . Three of his scoring passes that day went to Tony Gonzalez, as Green's total that day tied for the second-highest figure in Chiefs history, and he joined Len Dawson (3 times) and Elvis Grbac as the only quarterbacks in Kansas City history to throw five or more TD passes in a game . . . The following week, in 29-25 win at N.Y. Jets (10/6), led the Chiefs to 14-fourth quarter points as they rallied from a 22-15 deficit . . . In the final period, threw touchdown passes of 60 yards to Dante Hall and 19 yards to Priest Holmes . . . The toss to Holmes occurred with 27 seconds remaining in the contest and provided Kansas City with the margin of victory . . . Signed Through: 2007

NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Sixth-round draft choice (174th overall) of the Dolphins in 2004 with a pick obtained from Atlanta in a draft trade-up.

2006 – Started all 16 games at center, the second straight year in which he has opened all 16 contests . . . Enters 2007 having started 39 straight games, including the last 19 at center . . . Missed just 17 offensive snaps over the course of the season, 14 of which occurred vs. Green Bay (10/22) when he sustained a neck stinger . . . Along with RT Vernon Carey, was one of only two Dolphins offensive linemen to start every game at the same position in 2006 . . . Key part of a line that led the way for a running game which averaged 4.2 yards per carry . . . Along with the Dolphins' 4.3-yard per attempt in Hadnot's first season as a full-time starter in 2005, it marks the first time the Dolphins have averaged better than a 4.0-yard average per carry in consecutive campaigns since 1986-87.

2005 – Started all 16 games in which he played . . . Opened the first 13 contests at right guard and the final three at center in place of the injured Seth McKinney (lower leg) . . . Part of a line that yielded just 26 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the NFL, and led a running game that averaged 118.6 yards an outing and 4.3 yards per rush attempt, which ranked seventh and fourth in the AFC, respectively . . . Took part in every offensive snap in 14 of 16 contests over the course of the year.

2004 – Played in 15 games, starting seven . . . Dressed but did not play in one other . . . Made first start of NFL career, at left guard in place of the injured Jeno James (knee) at Seattle (11/21) . . . Also opened at that spot the following week at San Francisco (11/28) . . . With James' return, Rex then started the final five games of the year at right guard.

FINS FACT

If Rex wasn't playing football he knows exactly what he would doing. "I would be big-man modeling," he says. "I'm extremely handsome and that is what I am looking forward to doing. I've done a little modeling. I like to take photographs. I pride myself in being the most handsome and best-dressed big man in the NFL."

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only five coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

FINS FACT

Off the field, Renaldo enjoys working with kids ages 11-17 who are orphans. Not only does Renaldo think that this is a transitional age period, but he also feels blessed that he was fortunate enough to grow up having both parents. "Growing up, I was lucky enough to have both parents at home," Renaldo says. "There were a lot of kids in my neighborhood who didn't and wish they did, and fell into a trap. If I can lend a hand or give a kind word to someone without parents, that might just be the turning point that they need."

2004 – Played in 13 games with ten starts at cornerback, was inactive for three contests with the Cardinals . . . Collected 46 tackles, an interception, nine passes defensed, a sack and a forced fumble . . . TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club has had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games.

The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site since 1990:

Original Date, Venue	Opponent	New Date, Venue	Reason	Result
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stad.	New England	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17

FINS FACT

Following a 2004 senior season at Missouri in which he recorded a team-high four interceptions, Shirdonya was one of the top-rated cornerbacks in the country. At his pro day workout in Columbia, Missouri, he ran a 4.34 in the 40-yard dash and benched 225 pounds 17 times. Moments later, however, he sustained two torn ligaments doing a cone drill, and didn't play another regular season game until the 2006 finale with the Dolphins. "It's unfortunate it happened like that, but everything happens for a reason," Shirdonya says. "I'll try to be here as long as I can. I've been through so much, nothing can bring me down."

2005 – Spent his entire rookie season on the Dolphins Reserve/NFI list after he sustained a severe knee injury during a pro day workout prior to the 2005 draft.

IN A ZONE

When the Dolphins registered wins at Oakland (33-21 on November 27) and at San Diego (23-21 on December 11) in 2005, it marked the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins had won two regular season games in Pacific time zone in the same season, as they now have won each of their last three such contests, dating back to 2004. In 1999, they won a regular season contest in Oakland and a playoff matchup in Seattle. Overall in their 41-year history, the Dolphins have compiled a regular season record of 18-19 in games played in Pacific time zone (1-0 at Arizona, 3-0 at L.A. Rams, 5-8 at Oakland/L.A. Raiders, 4-7 at San Diego, 3-2 at San Francisco and 2-2 at Seattle). They are 1-5 in the playoffs in Pacific time zone, a record which includes a loss to San Francisco in Super Bowl XIX in Palo Alto, Calif. Their lone playoff win in six tries occurred in a 1999 First-Round contest, a 20-17 decision over Seattle on January 9, 2000 in the last game played at the Kingdome.

2005 – Started all 16 contests . . . Compiled 61 tackles, 10.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, a fumble recovery two interceptions and six passes defensed . . . Was voted to the third Pro Bowl

FINS FACT

Having always played offense through his first two years in college, Joey was a fan of the Chicago Bears growing up, especially Walter Payton. Having been raised in California, he also was a fan of linebacker Junior Seau. That is why he picked No. 55 in his rookie season with the Steelers, after initially starting out at No. 95. As a former offensive player he still knows what to do with the ball, having scored three touchdowns in his career, two on fumble returns and one off an interception. During his tenure in Pittsburgh he even hoped to see some action on the other side of the ball. "I thought I could help in goal-line situations," Joey says. "I petitioned Coach (Bill Cowher), but he didn't see it that of his career . . . Sack total and five forced fumbles both led the team . . . Sack total also tied for eighth in the AFC, 11th in the NFL and led all NFL linebackers . . . Registered sacks in four of the first five games of the year . . . Game at Green Bay (11/6) marked his 100th during the regular season . . . The following week, in 34-21 win over Cleveland (11/13), recorded both a sack and interception of a Trent Dilfer pass . . . Reached the 50-sack mark of his career at Minnesota (12/18) when he teamed with Kimo von Oelhoffen for a four-yard sack of Brad Johnson . . . Brought home the fourth AFC Defensive Player of the Week Award in his career in a 41-0 win at Cleveland (12/24), when he posted five tackles, three sacks and a pair of forced fumbles . . . Started all four playoff games as he totaled 12 tackles, three sacks and a forced fumble in the Steelers' run to the Super Bowl title . . . Turned in a 1.5-sack effort in Divisional win at Indianapolis (1/15/05) . . . Posted a sack of Jake Plummer in AFC Championship Game at Denver (1/22/06) in which he forced the ball loose and Casey Hampton recovered, leading to a Steelers touchdown five plays later . . . Following the season, was a second team All-Pro by the Associated Press as well as an All-AFC selection by Pro Football Weekly.

2004 – Started all 15 games in which he played . . . Totaled 63 tackles, seven sacks, three forced fumbles, an interception and seven passes defensed . . . TAKE IT AWAY

For the Dolphins, the takeaway/giveaway ratio is the statistical category that has had the biggest correlation between wins and losses. Over the last 11 years (1996-2006), the Dolphins are 68-16 (.810) in games where they have claimed the turnover battle, including a 4-2 mark in 2006. They are 10-57 (.149) over this same stretch in games where their opponent has held the advantage in that department, including an 1-6 register a year ago. In Miami's 96 regular season victories over the last 11 years, the Dolphins are a combined plus-131 in the takeaway/giveaway ratio. In their 80 losses, they are a composite minus-117 in that category.

LEAST WORN UNIFORM NUMBERS

Uniform No. 8 was the last number never to have been worn by a Dolphin in a regular season game. Punter Klaus Wilmsmeyer earned that distinction in 1998. Nos. 12 and 39 are the only two jersey numbers donned by only one player in the 41-year history of the franchise. Quarterback Bob Griese (1967-80) was the only Dolphins player ever to wear No. 12, which was retired on May 6, 1982. Originally a first-round draft choice (21st overall) of Arizona in 1999 . . . Was released by the Cardinals on May 18, 2005 and then signed with Cleveland on June 4, 2005.

2006 – Started all 16 games in his first season with the Dolphins . . . It marked the second straight year and fourth time in his career that he opened all 16 contests . . . Started the first five games of the year at left tackle before being moved to right guard for game vs. Green Bay (10/22) . . . Started the final nine games of the year at that spot . . . Participated in every offensive snap over the course of the season, the only Dolphins offensive lineman to do that in 2006 . . . Key part of a line that averaged 4.2 yards per carry and helped Ronnie Brown to rush for 1,008

FINS FACT

L.J. was around professional athletics long before he was a first-round draft choice of Arizona in 1999. His father, Lonnie, was a forward in the NBA for 10 years, from 1976-86, including stints with New York, Seattle and Cleveland. In fact, his most prized possession is his father's NBA Championship ring from the 1978-79 Seattle Supersonics. "It means a lot to him because it just symbolizes all the work they went through to win the championship," L.J. says. "Now that I'm playing professional sports, I can appreciate it a lot more, too. It is very hard to achieve. He played 10 years and only got one shot at it, but he was able to win it. The fact that it means so much to him and he gave it to me makes it yards . . . Played in the 100th regular season games of his NFL career in week two vs. Buffalo (9/17) . . . The 100th start of his career came vs. Green Bay (10/22).

2005 – Started all 16 games at left tackle for the Browns . . . Part of a line that led the way for RB Reuben Droughns, who amassed 1,232 yards rushing as he became Cleveland's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1985.

2004 – Played in 12 games, starting nine of them at right tackle with Arizona . . . Was inactive for opener at St. Louis (9/12) . . . Was placed on injured reserve with a knee injury on December 14 and spent the last three games there.

2003 – Started the first 15 games of the season at left tackle for Arizona and took part in all 921 offensive snaps over that time . . . Sustained a sprained ankle at Seattle (12/21) and was inactive for finale vs. Minnesota (12/29).

2002 – Started all 16 games at left tackle, the second consecutive season in which he opened every contest and the only Arizona offensive lineman to achieve that feat in '02 . . . Took part in all but nine offensive snaps over the course of the year . . . Part of a line that helped the Cardinals average 113.9 yards rushing per game and a 4.4-yard average per attempt.

2001 – Opened all 16 contests at left tackle, the first time in his career that he started every game . . . Participated in all 955 offensive snaps on the season . . . A member of the Cardinals line that yielded just 29 sacks, the second-fewest by a Cardinals team in a 16-game season.

2000 – Started all 14 games in which he played at left tackle for the Cardinals, including each of the final 13 . . . Sustained a sprained right knee in opener at N.Y. Giants (9/3) and was inactive the next two games (vs. Dallas, 9/10; vs. Green Bay, 9/24) . . . Part of a line that allowed just 35 sacks, the lowest total by a Cardinals team since 1994.

1999 – Missed all of training camp during his rookie season while unsigned . . . Signed his rookie contract on September 25, two games into the regular season . . . Received a roster exemption for two more games . . . Went on to play in nine games, including seven starts . . . Made his NFL debut, in a reserve role, vs. N.Y. Giants (10/10) . . . First start of NFL career came vs. New England (10/31), as he opened seven games in a row . . . Sustained a sprained ankle in second half at Washington (12/12) and did not see action the rest of the year.

GALLERY OF LEGENDS

On Wednesday, November 2, 2005, the "Gallery of Legends" made its public debut at Dolphin Stadium. Located at Gate D on the Club Level of the stadium, the Gallery is a tribute to the history of Miami Dolphins football.

Special exhibits were created to track the team's history, from its inception in 1966 to the present. Features include Dolphins memorabilia and photographs, as well as elements of life in South Florida and a Dan Marino timeline through those years. It also consists of such artifacts as the chairs the players used for meetings at St. Thomas University, in addition to the office desk utilized by Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula.

Jason has participated in numerous off-field events and charities throughout his NFL career. But the one that undoubtedly touched him the most was in May of 2003 when he and Zach Thomas visited various military bases throughout Germany, as part of a USO/NFL Tour. "It was one of the most unbelievable things I've done in my life," Taylor said. "It was a very emotional trip, really touching, sometimes tearjerking." After witnessing some of the things that he did, Taylor found a new perspective on the game that he plays for a living. "Football is like chess, not war," Taylor said. "What we do is a game. My job is important to a point. If I make a mistake or don't do my job, it's a touchdown for the other team. If they don't do their jobs, somebody gets killed. What these young men and women do is life and death. Nobody's dead if I make a mistake."

Grossman pass and went 20 yards for a touchdown, putting the Dolphins ahead 14-3 as they went on for a 31-13 victory over the previously unbeaten Bears . . . It was the sixth touchdown of Taylor's career and his first via an interception return . . . For his performance that day, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the sixth time in his career . . . In 13-10 win over Kansas City the following week (11/12), blocked a Lawrence Tynes 48-yard field goal attempt in the second quarter, the first block of his career, snapping a string of 73 straight games in which the Dolphins had gone without blocking a field goal, PAT or punt . . . Had a sack, an interception, two forced fumbles and two passes defensed in 24-20 win over Minnesota (11/19) . . . With the Dolphins holding a 17-13 lead, picked off a Brad Johnson pass and returned it 51 yards for a TD with 3:25 to play in the game . . . It was the sixth interception of his career, tying him with Kim Bokamper for the most-ever by a Dolphins lineman in a career . . . For his effort that day was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week . . . Overall in four games in November, tallied nine tackles, two sacks, two interceptions (both for TDs) and three forced fumbles, earning him AFC Defensive Player of the Month accolades . . . Recorded 1.5 sacks and a pair of passes defensed vs. Jacksonville (12/3) . . . Posted five tackles, a sack, two forced fumbles and a pass defensed at Buffalo (12/17) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad following the 2006 season, the fifth such honor of his career . . . Was voted as a starter, also the fifth occasion he has earned that honor . . . He was also picked as an AFC All-Star following the 2000, 2002, 2004 and 2005 seasons . . . Taylor's five selections are tied with three others for the most among Dolphin defenders all-time:

POSTSEASON HONORS: Was a consensus All-Pro pick following the season . . . Was the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, the third Dolphin to earn that accolade, joining S Dick Anderson (1973) and DE Doug Betters (1983) . . . Also was the NFL Alumni Association's Defensive Lineman of the Year as well as the AFC Defensive Player of the Year by the 101 Awards of Kansas City . . . In a vote of South Florida media and fans, was the winner of the "Dan Marino MVP Award" for the fourth time in his career . . . Was selected by his teammates as the winner of the "Don Shula Leadership Award" for the second time in his career . . . Named as an ESPY Award nominee for Best NFL Player of 2006 . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH: Taylor was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week twice in 2006; in victories over Chicago (31-13) on November 5 and Minnesota (24-20) on November 19 . . . He returned interceptions for touchdowns in both games . . . It gave him seven such honors in his career . . . He also was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November, the third such honor of his career . . . In fact, since the Player of the Week Award was first instituted by the NFL in 1984, Taylor is the first player to win Defensive Player of the Week accolades in five straight seasons . . . In addition, his seven weekly awards are tied for the fifth-most by a defensive player over this span:

SERVICE: Taylor has played 10 seasons with the Dolphins, one of 33 players in club history to have attained that plateau . . . He has appeared in 156 regular season games, tied with Tim Ruddy for 13th on the Dolphins' all-time list and fourth among defensive players . . . Taylor's 153 starts is sixth-most in franchise annals and third among defensive players . . .

CONSECUTIVE GAMES PLAYED: Taylor enters the 2007 season having played and started in 114 straight games, a streak which dates back to 1999 . . . His streak of 114 starts in a row currently is the second-longest in club history, trailing only T Richmond Webb (118 from 1991-98). . . The 114 consecutive games played is fifth-longest streak in club history entering 2007, trailing only Jim Langer (128 from 1970-79), Garo Yepremian (127 from 1970-78), Bob Baumhower (125 from 1977-84) and Webb (118 from 1991-98) . . . The last time Taylor missed a regular season game was on December 19, 1999 when he was inactive for a contest against San Diego with a sprained ankle . . . In fact, Taylor has played in 134 of the last 135 league games . . . He has missed a total of only four regular season games in his career, with three of those coming in his rookie season of 1997 . . .

SACKS OVER THE LAST SEVEN YEARS: Since 2000, Taylor has amassed 89.5 sacks, including double-digit totals on five occasions . . . His sack total over this seven-year span is the most in the NFL:

His first came on October 27, 2003 against the Chargers in Tempe, Ariz., when he tackled Damion McIntosh in the end zone following a Drew Brees fumble . . . He is the only player in Dolphins history to post more than one safety in a career.

2005 – Started all 16 games at right defensive end, one of three linemen to start every contest for the Dolphins in '05 . . . Recorded 77 total tackles, a figure which ranked third on the squad and first among linemen . . . Led the team and tied for third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with 12 sacks, as the Dolphins tied a team single-season record with 49 sacks . . . It marked the fourth time in his nine NFL seasons that he topped the Dolphins' sack chart . . . Tied for the team lead with four forced fumbles while also recovering a pair . . . Batted down 11 passes on the year, the third-highest total on the team . . . In season-opening 34-10 victory over Denver (9/11), posted seven tackles, including his first sack of the season . . . That came on the game's final play when he stripped the ball from Jake Plummer, Taylor recovered and returned it 85 yards for a touchdown, the fifth fumble return for a touchdown of his career, tying the NFL record also held by Jessie Tuggle . . . It also was the longest fumble return in Dolphins history, surpassing the 68-yard return by A.J. Duhe on October 15, 1978 at San Diego . . . Recorded a season-high nine tackles the following week at N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . After being held to one sack over the first three games of the year, broke through with two sacks at Buffalo (10/9), the 15th time in his career that he tallied two or more sacks in a game . . . Tied a career-high with three sacks at Oakland (11/27), which were among a season-high seven by the Dolphins that day . . . Also forced a fumble, recovered one and knocked down a pass . . . Came up with two key plays in the second half of the 33-21 win . . . With the Dolphins holding a 13-7 lead in the third quarter, sacked Kerry Collins in the end zone for the second safety of his career . . . With just less than three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter and the Dolphins leading 30-21, recovered a Collins fumble, leading to a an Olindo Mare field goal four plays later . . . For his efforts in the Raiders game, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week, the fifth such honor of his career and the fourth straight year in which he came away with the award at least once . . . Matched his career-high sack total once again in a 24-20 win over N.Y. Jets (12/18) when he tackled Brooks Bollinger three times as the Dolphins collected six sacks as a team that day . . . Registered a sack, a forced fumble and a pass defensed the week afterwards vs. Tennessee (12/24) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the fourth such honor of his career . . . Was named as a starter for the fourth time as well . . . Was not able to play in the game because of an injury.

2004 – Started all 16 games at right end, one of only four Dolphins defenders to open every contest in '04, along with LB Morlon Greenwood, CB Sam Madison and SS Sammy Knight . . . Recorded a career-high 90 tackles, a figure which ranked fifth on the squad . . . Also registered 9.5 sacks, 42 QB hurries, three fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and nine passes defensed . . . Was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . Sack total led the team and tied for seventh in the AFC . . . Had at least one sack in seven games on the year . . . Had a season-high 10 tackles on two occasions; at Cincinnati (9/19) and at Denver (12/12) . . . Also came up with a sack and an interception of a Carson Palmer pass in the Bengals game . . . Had four tackles, a half-sack and a fumble recovery at Seattle (11/21) . . . Fumble recovery came in the first quarter when he recovered a Mack Strong fumble, which led to an A.J. Feeley seven-yard TD run six plays later . . . It also was the 17th fumble recovery of his career, as he tied Dick Anderson and Bob Baumhower for the Dolphins' all-time lead in that category . . . Registered a season-high three sacks at San Francisco (11/28), a figure that tied a single-game career-high achieved on three previous occasions, most recently on December 21, 2003 at Buffalo . . . Also defensed two passes, recovered a fumble and forced a fumble in the Dolphins' 24-17 win over the 49ers . . . Forced fumble occurred when he stripped the ball from QB Tim Rattay in the fourth quarter, and Derrick Pope recovered, taking it in one yard for a touchdown . . . Earlier in the final quarter, recovered a Rattay fumble, leading to an Olindo Mare field goal . . . That was the 18th fumble recovery of his career, as he moved past Anderson and Baumhower as the Dolphins' all-time leader in that category . . . For his performance, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week, the fourth such honor of his NFL career . . . In a vote of media and fans, was named the winner of the team's Dan Marino MVP Award for 2004.

2003 – Started all 16 games at right defensive end, marking the fourth straight year in which he opened all 16 games . . . Recorded 71 tackles (50 solo), 13 sacks for 70 yards in losses, six additional tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, five passes defensed and 36 quarterback hurries . . . Also recorded a safety on the season, the first of his career . . . Sack total was second on the club, second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Registered 10.5 sacks over the final nine games of the season . . . Was credited with eight tackles and two forced fumbles at Jacksonville (10/12) . . . Registered three tackles, including a sack and a forced fumble, vs. New England (10/19), giving him 60.5 career sacks and moving him past Jeff Cross into sole spot of fourth on the Dolphins' all-time list . . . The following week, in Monday night game against San Diego (10/27) in Tempe, Ariz., posted a season-high nine tackles as the Dolphins held the Chargers to just 250 yards of total offense in a 26-10 win . . . Also registered the first safety of his career, as he tackled Chargers tackle Damion McIntosh in the end zone for a safety after McIntosh recovered a Drew Brees fumble resulting from a Rob Burnett sack . . . It was the first safety registered by the Dolphins since October 8, 2000 vs. Buffalo . . . Game vs. Indianapolis (11/2) marked the 100th of his career during the regular season . . . Tied a season-high with nine tackles in 24-23 Sunday night victory over Washington (11/23) . . . Included in his total were two sacks, his first multiple-sack game of the season and the 15th of his career . . . It also began a string of six straight games in which he would record a sack . . . Both sacks in the Redskins game came on third-down plays, with the second occurring in the fourth quarter, and which was followed by the Dolphins' game-winning touchdown drive . . . For his performance in the Redskins contest, he was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the week of November 23-24 . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/27), had two tackles, including one sack, as he tackled Cowboys quarterback Quincy Carter for an eight-yard loss . . . Also had a fumble return for a touchdown, when he recovered a Carter fumble forced by an Adewale Ogunleye sack and brought it back 34 yards for a touchdown . . . Taylor's sack of Carter gave him 64.5 for his career, moving him ahead of Vern Den Herder into sole possession of third place among the Dolphins' all-time sack leaders . . . His fumble return for a touchdown was the fourth TD he scored on a fumble recovery in his career, moving him into a tie for second place in NFL history (along with Bill Thompson and Derrick Thomas) for most touchdowns scored on fumble recoveries, trailing only Jessie Tuggle . . . Produced five tackles, including three sacks at Buffalo (12/21) . . . Sack total tied a career high that he had achieved twice previously, most recently on December 15, 2002 against Oakland . . . All three sacks, which totaled 20 yards in losses, came against Drew Bledsoe . . . When he sacked Bledsoe for a four-yard loss in the second quarter, it gave Taylor 68 career sacks, breaking Bill Stanfill's former team record of 67.5 career sacks . . . Finished the season by recording four tackles and a sack vs. N.Y. Jets (12/28), the sixth game in a row in which he tallied a sack, tying for the second-longest sack streak in Dolphins history . . .

2003 SACK TOTAL: Taylor tallied 13 sacks in 2003, one year after he led the team and the NFL with 18.5 sacks . . . He became the first Dolphin to record double-digit sack totals in consecutive seasons since Jeff Cross had 10 in 1989 and 10.5 in 1990 . . .

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A SACK: Taylor finished the 2003 season by recording a sack in each of the last six games . . . During this span, he accounted for 9.5 sacks . . . This streak is tied for the second-longest in Dolphins history, and Taylor now owns three of the four-longest such streaks in team history . . . He established the longest sack streak in team history with a sack in eight consecutive contests in 2002 . . .

SACK TANDEMS: Along with DE Adewale Ogunleye's 15 sacks, Taylor was part of the top sack tandem in the NFL in 2003, 4.5 ahead of their nearest competitors (Giants' Michael Strahan and Kenny Holmes, 23.5) . . It was the second straight year that this tandem achieved this total and that they led the NFL . . . In addition, Ogunleye led the AFC in sacks while Taylor finished second, marking just the third time since sacks became official in 1982 that teammates have finished 1-2 in a conference in sacks . . . They joined Carolina's Kevin Greene (14.5) and Lamar Lathon (13.5) in 1996, and the Dolphins' Trace Armstrong (16.5) and Taylor (14.5) in 2000 . . . With 28 sacks combined, Taylor and Ogunleye tied their own figure from 2002 as the third-highest total ever among Dolphins sack tandems . . . In addition, it is just the second time in Dolphins history that two players have accounted for double-digit sack totals . . . In 2000, DE Trace Armstrong tallied 16.5 sacks while Taylor notched 14.5 . . . Taylor now has been a part of three of the five highest single-season sack tandems in club history.

2002 – Started all 16 games at right defensive end . . . Along with CB Sam Madison and LB Zach Thomas served as a tri-captain on defense . . . Had 76 tackles, a team-high 18.5 sacks for 162.5 yards in losses, eight passes defensed, seven forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries . . . Added one stop on special teams . . . Tackle total was good for fifth on the team and first among defensive linemen . . . Ranked first in the AFC and in the NFL in sacks, becoming the first Dolphin in club history to lead the NFL in sacks . . . Had six tackles, including two sacks, vs. New England (10/6) in a 26-13 Miami win . . . It was his first multiple-sack game of the season and the eighth of his career . . . Also forced Tom Brady to fumble on one of those sacks, which was recovered by Adewale Ogunleye and led to a Dolphins touchdown . . . In 24-22 victory at Denver (10/13), posted six tackles, including two sacks, as he tackled Broncos quarterback Brian Griese twice for a total of 30 yards in losses . . . It was his second multiple sack game of the season and the ninth of his career . . . Also added two passes defensed and one forced fumble, when he stripped the ball from Mike Anderson on the Dolphins' one-yard line, which was recovered by Larry Chester . . . As a result of his play in that contest, he was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week . . . It was the first such honor of Taylor's career . . . He also was the first Dolphins defensive lineman to earn Defensive Player of the Week accolades during the regular season since the award was instituted in 1984 (Trace Armstrong did win the honor following a 1999 First-Round Playoff game at Seattle) . . . Began a streak of eight straight games with a sack at Green Bay (11/4) . . . Had three tackles, including two sacks, tackling Chargers quarterback Drew Brees twice for a total of 16 yards in losses in a 30-13 win over San Diego (11/24) . . . His second sack of Brees in that contest gave him 50.5 sacks in his career, becoming the sixth Dolphin to record 50 career sacks . . . Had two tackles including one sack, as he dropped Bears quarterback Jim Miller for a seven-yard loss in a 27-9 win over Chicago (12/9) on a Monday night . . . It marked his sixth consecutive contest with at least one sack, tying the club record held by both Doug Betters (1983) and Taylor (2000) . . . Tied a season high with eight tackles in 23-17 victory over Oakland (12/15) . . . Included in that total were three sacks for a total of 25 yards in losses and two forced fumbles . . . All three sacks came against Raiders quarterback Rich Gannon, causing Gannon to fumble twice . . . Taylor's three sacks tied his single-game career high, which he first set on December 3, 2000 at Buffalo . . . It also was the seventh straight game in which he recorded at least one sack, breaking the former club record of six straight games . . . For his performance, was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week . . . Notched seven tackles, 1.5 sacks for a total of seven yards in losses, one forced fumble, and one fumble recovery at Minnesota (12/21) . . . It represented his eighth game in a row with at least one sack . . . Sacked Vikings quarterback Daunte Culpepper for a four-yard loss, causing Culpepper to fumble . . . That sack of Culpepper gave Taylor 57.5 in his career and moved him past Trace Armstrong into fifth place among the Dolphins' all-time sack leaders . . . His shared sack of Culpepper gave him 18.5 sacks for the season, tying him for the Dolphins' all-time single season sack record along with Bill Stanfill, who had 18.5 sacks in 1973 . . .

SACKS: With 18.5 sacks in 2002, Taylor became the first Dolphin ever to lead the NFL in this category . . . He tallied at least a half-sack in 12 of 16 contests, while accounting for 1.5 or more on seven occasions, including a season-high three vs. Oakland (12/15) . . . With 18.5 sacks in 2002, Taylor tied for the highest single-season sack total in Dolphin history, along with Bill Stanfill, who also had 18.5 sacks in 1973 . . . Taylor tied Stanfill's club record when he five contests in which he had more than one sack . . .

Taylor's streak of at least one sack in eight consecutive games is tied for the fourth-longest such streak in the NFL since the statistic became official in 1982:

SACK TANDEMS: Along with DE Adewale Ogunleye's 9.5 sacks, Taylor was part of the top sack tandem in the NFL in 2002, five ahead of their nearest competitors (Tampa Bay's Simeon Rice and Warren Sapp, 23.0) . . . Their figure tied for the third-highest by a tandem in Dolphins history . . .

PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH: Taylor was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week on two occasions in 2002 . . . He was cited for his performances in wins at Denver (10/13) and vs. Oakland (12/15) . . . They marked the first two Player of the Week awards in his career . . . He also became the first Dolphins defensive lineman to earn Defensive Player of the Week accolades during the regular season since the award was instituted in 1984 (Trace Armstrong did win the honor following a 1999 First-Round Playoff game at Seattle) . . . Taylor also was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for both October and November . . . In three games in October, he had 15 tackles, four sacks for 52 yards in losses, two forced fumbles and a pass defensed . . . It was Taylor's first Defensive Player of the Month Award of his career . . . Overall since the NFL first instituted the award in 1984, Taylor became the seventh Dolphin to be named AFC Defensive Player of the Month and the second lineman (defensive lineman Jeff Cross shared that award with linebacker John Offerdahl in October, 1990) . . . Followed that by being named as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for November . . . In four games in November, Taylor posted 15 tackles, 5.5 sacks for 33 yards in losses, two passes defensed, and a forced fumble . . . It marked the first time ever that a player earned AFC or NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors in back-to-back months . . . It also is the first time that a Dolphin earned an NFL monthly award twice in the same season . . . In fact, only one other Dolphin, quarterback Dan Marino (November, 1986; October, 1988), has won a monthly honor twice in a career . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, as he was joined on the team by six other Dolphins, the most in the AFC . . . It was his second time being named to the Pro Bowl team, along with his selection in 2000 . . . Along with Tim Bowens, who also was named to his second Pro Bowl team, Taylor and Bowens became the third and fourth Dolphin defensive linemen in club history to record multiple Pro Bowl appearances, joining Bob Baumhower (5 – 1979, 1981-84) and Bill Stanfill (4 – 1971-74) . . . The seven Pro Bowl selections by the Dolphins tied for the second-most in team history (2000), trailing only the eight that went following the 1984 season . . . Six of the seven selections were defensive players, the most in team history, surpassing the previous high of five from 2000 . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Earned numerous honors following the season . . . Was a first-team All-Pro selection by Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, The Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Also was named the Defensive Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Kansas City 101, and the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) . . . Was chosen as the Pass Rusher of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association . . . Along with Ricky Williams, was named as the team's co-MVP in a vote of South Florida media and fans . . . Was the winner of the team's Leadership Award, as voted on by his teammates.

2001 – Started all 16 regular season games at right defensive end . . . Was fourth on the club with 86 tackles (60 total), a career high to that point, which ranked first among the team's linemen and surpassed his previous career high of 68 set in 2000 . . . Led team in sacks with 8.5 for 44.5 yards in losses and collected a team-best 25 quarterback hurries . . . Also produced an interception, four fumble recoveries including one for a touchdown, four forced fumbles and seven passes defensed, which led Dolphins' linemen . . . Was named a second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press . . . Recorded four tackles, a sack and two fumble recoveries vs. New England (10/7), when he picked up a loose ball at the Patriots' 1 and scored the third touchdown via a fumble return in his career . . . Posted a season-high nine tackles at N.Y. Jets (10/14) . . . Notched four tackles, a sack, a pass defensed and a forced fumble vs. Carolina (11/4) . . . The sack in the Panthers contest was the 35th of his career, tying him with Manny Fernandez for ninth on the Dolphins' all-time chart . . . The following week at Indianapolis (11/11), tallied five tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery . . . In the Colts game, recovered a Dominic Rhodes fumble at the Dolphins' 41 with 10:50 to play and Miami trailing 24-20 . . . The Dolphins then embarked on a seven-play drive which ended with a 29-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler to Chris Chambers for the winning score in a 27-24 victory . . . Posted four tackles, a season-high 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble at Buffalo (11/25) . . . Recorded four tackles, a sack and an interception in Monday night win over Indianapolis (12/10), as he picked off a Peyton Manning pass . . . Had a half-sack in season finale vs. Buffalo (1/6/02), giving him 39.5 in his career and tying him with Kim Bokamper and Bob Baumhower for the sixth-highest total in Dolphins history . . . Started First-Round Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/13/02) . . . Recorded 10 tackles (six solo) . . .

FUMBLE RECOVERIES: In 2001, Taylor recovered four opponents' fumbles, tied for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history . . . It marked the second year in a row that he recovered that many fumbles.

2000 – Started all 16 games at right defensive end . . . Registered 68 total tackles (46 solo), including 14.5 sacks for 92 yards lost . . . Also had an interception, four fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and five passes defensed . . . Tackle total ranked sixth on the team and first among linemen . . . Sack total was second on the squad, trailing only DE Trace Armstrong, who tallied 16.5 . . . It also was the second-highest figure in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in 2000 . . . Against Baltimore (9/17), tallied six tackles, including 2.5 sacks, the second-highest single-game total of his NFL career to that point and his fourth career game with two or more sacks . . . Part of a defensive effort that held the Ravens to six points and 262 total net yards in Miami's 19-6 victory . . . Had six tackles, a sack, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble, and was awarded a defensive game ball at Cincinnati (10/1) . . . That game began a streak of six consecutive contests in which he had at least one sack . . . The sack, fumble recovery and forced fumble all came on the same play as he stripped the ball from Bengals QB Akili Smith, picked it up at the Bengals' 29 and raced into the end zone as time expired in the first half . . . The touchdown brought the Dolphins to within three points of the lead at 13-10 . . . The play was voted as the best defensive play of the year in the NFL in a vote of fans on NFL.com . . . It was the second touchdown of Taylor's career, with the first being a four-yard fumble return for a score on September 13, 1999 at Denver after picking up a Brian Griese fumble . . . Notched five tackles, including a pair of sacks for the fifth multiple sack game of his career, at Detroit (11/5) . . . Had four tackles, a sack and a pass defensed at San Diego (11/12) . . . It marked the sixth straight game in which he had a sack, tying Doug Betters' club record for most consecutive contests with a sack (now second) . . . At Buffalo (12/3), posted six tackles, including a career-high three sacks, surpassing his previous best of 2.5, which he accounted for in week three of the '00 season, against Baltimore . . . Part of a defense that held Buffalo to just 196 yards of total offense . . . In season-ending win at New England (12/24), posted his first interception of the season and the second of his career, as he picked off a Drew Bledsoe pass in the second quarter and returned it two yards to the Patriots' 12, setting up an Olindo Mare field goal . . . Tallied three passes defensed on the day . . . Started both playoff games following the 2000 season at right end . . . Collected nine tackles . . .

SACKS: Recorded a sack in 11 of Miami's 16 games in 2000, including three contests with two or more . . . Sack total of 14.5 established a new career high to that point, surpassing his previous best of nine, which he first set in 1998 . . . Taylor's sack total was the fourth-highest single-season figure in club history at that time, and now sixth . . .

SACK STREAK: Taylor recorded a sack in six straight games in 2000 (5-10), tying the Dolphins team record for most consecutive games with a sack to that point, and now tied for the second-longest such streak . . . The record of six was first set by Doug Betters, who accomplished the feat in 1983 (games 7-12) . . .

SACK TANDEM: In 2000, Trace Armstrong (16.5) and Taylor (14.5) totaled 31 sacks, the highest sack total by a duo in Dolphins history . . . Armstrong and Taylor ranked first and second, respectively, in the AFC in sacks in 2000, marking only the second time since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that teammates finished 1-2 in a conference in sacks . . . In 1996, Carolina's Kevin Greene finished first in the NFC with 14.5 sacks while Lamar Lathon tied for second with 13.5 sacks:

PRO BOWL: In 2006, Thomas was chosen to the seventh Pro Bowl of his career and his second in a row. . . He also had been picked five straight times, from 1999-2003 . . . Those five consecutive selections are tied for third-most ever by a Dolphin and are tied for the most by a Dolphins defender . . . The seven overall selections are tied for second-most in Dolphins history and represent the most of any defensive player in Dolphins history:

FINS FACT

Zach's work both on and off the field has made his 10-year tenure in Miami an extremely successful one. He has participated in numerous worthwhile endeavors that have touched many lives. None touched him, though, quite as much as the one he was involved with in May of 2003, when he and teammate and brother-in-law Jason Taylor visited various military bases and hospitals throughout Germany. There was one Marine in a hospital that made Thomas evaluate what's really important in life. "He felt like he was letting his guys down," Thomas said. "He wanted to go back out. They put their lives on the line every day. That's a true hero. We need to think about them. They are the true heroes. If they mess up, somebody is dead. This is no game. I was so proud to be an American, watching how they stick together."

CAREER INTERCEPTIONS: Over the course of his 11-year career, Thomas has intercepted 17 passes, first all-time among Dolphin linebackers, three ahead of Earnie Rhone (14 from 1975-84) . . . That figure is 14th overall in franchise history . . . Of Thomas' 17 career interceptions, four have been returned for touchdowns: a 34-yard TD return of a Neil O'Donnell pass on September 9, 2001 at Tennessee; a one-yard return of a Donald Hollas attempt on December 6, 1998 at Oakland; a 17-yard return of a Kordell Stewart pass on September 20, 1998 vs. Pittsburgh; and a 26-yard return of a Chris Chandler pass on November 17, 1996 at Houston . . . Thomas has four of the seven interception returns for touchdowns by a linebacker in club history, the other three being by Tom Erlandson (26 yards at Denver on December 4, 1966), A.J. Duhe (35 yards in the AFC Championship game against the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983) and Robert Jones (14 yards at Oakland on December 6, 1998). . . Thomas' four interception returns for scores is a Dolphins record, one ahead of Dick Anderson and Terrell Buckley, both of whom accounted for three . . . Thomas is the only linebacker and, along with DE Bill Stanfill (2) and DE Jason Taylor (2), one of only two non-defensive backs in team history to return two or more interceptions for touchdowns . . .

2005 – Played in all 16 games, including 10 starts, in his first year with the Dolphins . . . Registered 54 tackles, three interceptions and five passes defensed . . . Added five tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams . . . Three interceptions marked the second-highest figure on the team, trailing only the four amassed by Lance Schulters, and were two more than he had totaled in his previous four NFL campaigns . . . Began the season as a reserve . . . Moved into starting lineup at strong safety for game at New Orleans (10/30) following season-ending pectoral injury to Tebucky Jones . . . In 27-24 win over Carolina (9/25), recovered a Steve Smith fumbled punt at the Panthers' 16, leading to an 18-yard TD pass from Gus Frerotte to Randy McMichael two plays later . . . Tied a career high with nine tackles vs. Atlanta (11/6) . . . All three of his interceptions on the year came in consecutive weeks; vs. New England (11/13), at Cleveland (11/20) and at Oakland (11/27) . . . First interception as a Dolphin occurred when he picked off a Tom Brady pass in the Patriots game and returned it a career-long 22 yards . . . In addition to his interception of a Charlie Frye pass in the Browns game, matched his career-high figure of nine tackles, which also was a team high that day . . . That three-game interception streak is tied with many others for the third-longest in franchise history and was the longest since Patrick Surtain had one in games 2-4 of 2003

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 2000, Travares found himself out of football just two years later. "I did a lot of soul-searching," he says about that 2002 season. "It makes you think about when this thing is done, what are your going to do? You've got to have a gameplan." Travares majored in management at Georgia Tech and had his own sports marketing company for several years. He has learned one lesson since coming into the NFL. "When I came into the league I was thinking it would be all fun, but it's a business, too."

. . .Underwent surgery on June 14, 2005 to debride a medial meniscal tear and articular cartilage damage . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. George Caldwell at Broward General Medical Center in Ft. Lauderdale . . .

FINS FACT

After playing inside linebacker throughout his collegiate career and his first three years in the NFL, when he played at 260 pounds, Keith was moved to the defensive line during training camp with Kansas City in 1994. Despite being released by the Chiefs prior to the '94 regular season, Keith was persistent, and after playing with Barcelona of the NFL Europe League in the spring of 1995, he earned a spot on Kansas City's roster later that year. Since that time, he has gone on to start 139 of the 177 regular season games in which he has played, and has been a part of three Super Bowl championship clubs.

2006 – Started all 14 games in which he played . . . Was inactive for one game and spent the final game of the season on injured reserve with a knee injury . . . Posted 36 tackles and a career-high four sacks, surpassing his previous high of two which he had attained on four occasions (1997, 1998, 2001, 2005) . . . Also knocked down two passes and forced a fumble . . . Part of a line that allowed an average of only 3.5 yards per rush attempt, the fifth-best figure in the NFL in '06 . . . Registered a season-high five tackles on two occasions; vs. Buffalo (9/17) and the following week vs. Tennessee (9/24) . . . Included in his total in the Titans game – a 13-10 Dolphins win – was a career-best two sacks . . . In fact, totaled 14 tackles over the first three games of the year . . . Forced a fumble at Houston (10/1) . . . Was inactive for game vs. Minnesota (11/19) with a knee injury . . .Was placed on injured reserve on December 30 . . . Underwent an arthroscopic debridement of loose bodies in his left ankle on April 18, 2007 . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. Robert Anderson at Mercy Hospital in Charlotte, N.C . . .

GAMES PLAYED: Traylor has played in 214 regular season games in his career, a figure which is ninth-most among players who were active in the NFL in 2006 . . . It is a total which also is second-most among defensive linemen, trailing only Ted Washington, who has appeared in 231 contests:

FINS FACT

Cameron did not begin playing organized football until his junior year of high school. Up to that point, he only played basketball and baseball, and the only reason he took up football was because his baseball coach moved over to coach the football team. "Football was just an afterthought," Cameron said. "But he suckered me into it." The two made a deal that if Cameron ran a 4.7 or better in the 40-yard dash, he would have to play football. The coach told him he ran a 4.67. It wasn't until after that junior year of football - when he played running back and safety - that the coach told him actually ran a 4.9.

HAWAII FIVE-0

When the Dolphins selected C/G Samson Satele in the second round and FB Reagan Mauia in the sixth round of this year's draft, it doubled the number of players the Dolphins have drafted from the University of Hawaii to four. It was the first time the Dolphins have drafted a player from the college since 1984 when they tabbed G/T Bernard Carvalho in the seventh round. In addition, since the NFL reduced the draft from 12 rounds in 1993, it represented just the fourth time that the Dolphins have picked two players from the same school in the same draft, and the first since 2001 when they took Wisconsin's Jamar Fletcher and Chris Chambers.

DEFENSIVE SCORES = WINS

In 2006, the Dolphins had two games in which they scored a defensive touchdown. Jason Taylor had a 20-yard interception return in the Dolphins' 34-13 victory at Chicago on November 5. In Miami's 24-20 win over Minnesota on November 19, Taylor had a 51-yard interception return and Renaldo Hill had a 48-yard fumble return for a score, marking just the second time in franchise history the Dolphins have recorded two defensive touchdowns in the same game. Since 2000, the Dolphins' defense has accounted for 17 touchdowns, and the Dolphins have put together a perfect 16-0 mark in those contests.

DOLPHINS TWICE OPEN WITH 10-0 RECORD

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while six other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season-opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins), Washington (11 games) in 1991 and Denver (13 games) in 1998.

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In the 41-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard rushing games. Two of these were accounted for by the tandem of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick (both in 1971). The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two runners surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on October 5, 1975 at Green Bay when Mercury Morris rushed for 125 yards on 31 attempts, while Don Nottingham ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

GAME 1

September 7, 2006 Pittsburgh, PA

The Dolphins and defending Super Bowl champion Steelers commenced the 2006 NFL regular season schedule on a Thursday night. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Steelers took a 7-0 lead 46 seconds into the second quarter on a 27-yard TD pass from Charlie Batch to Nate Washington on third-and-2. The score capped a 12-play, 75-yard drive that used 7:21 of the clock and saw Pittsburgh convert a fourth-and-1 from the Dolphins' 39. Including the touchdown, Batch completed all three of his pass attempts on the drive, totaling 45 yards. The Dolphins tied the game with 5:14 remaining in the first half on a 2-yard run by Ronnie Brown, two plays after Wes Welker returned a punt 47 yards to the Steelers' 15. Pittsburgh re-gained the lead with 1:49 left in the opening half on a 7-yard TD pass from Batch to Hines Ward, capping a seven-play, 77-yard drive. The key plays were a 32-yard run by Willie Parker to the Dolphins' 33, and a 23-yard pass interference penalty to the Dolphins' 7, two plays prior to the score. The Dolphins answered by marching 62 yards in eight plays, ending with an Olindo Mare 26-yard field goal. Welker hauled in two passes for 51 yards en route to the score, including receptions of 31 and 20 yards. The Dolphins took their first lead of the night on a 5-yard run by Brown on third-and-2. The run culminated an 8-play, 80-yard drive in which the key play was a 52-yard completion from Daunte Culpepper to Marty Booker on third-and-7, putting the Dolphins at the Steelers' 25. The Steelers had a first-and-goal from the one-yard line three minutes into the fourth quarter before Will Allen recovered a Batch fumble at the five. Pittsburgh took the lead once again with 6:11 to play in the game on an 87-yard TD pass from Batch to Heath Miller. The Steelers had an opportunity to go up by seven points with just more than three minutes to play, but Jeff Reed's 44-yard field goal attempt went wide left, snapping a string of 27 straight successful field goals by Dolphins' opponents. On the next play from scrimmage, however, Joey Porter snared a Culpepper pass intended for Welker and raced 42 yards for a touchdown.

September 17, 2006 Miami Gardens, FL

The Bills took a 3-0 lead with 2:36 remaining in the first quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Rian Lindell, which capped a 10-play, 49-yard drive that consumed 5:46 of the clock. All of the 49 yards on the drive came on the ground, including 45 by Willis McGahee. Miami had its first scoring opportunity less than three minutes into the second quarter, but Olindo Mare's 55-yard field goal attempt missed wide right. The Dolphins were inside the Bills' 20 with a minute remaining in the first half before Angelo Crowell intercepted a Daunte Culpepper pass at the Bills' 7 to end the threat. The Bills took the ball on the opening series of the second half and moved 72 yards in eight plays, ending with a 4-yard TD pass from JP Losman to Josh Reed, one play after a 50-yard pass interference penalty on the Dolphins. Buffalo scored for the second time in as many second half possessions when Lindell connected on a 45-yard field goal, culminating an 8-play, 29-yard drive. Lindell tacked on a 43-yard field goal with 48 seconds left in the third quarter, four plays after Coy Wire blocked a Donnie Jones punt and André Davis recovered at the Dolphins' 17. Miami's lone score of the day came on a 23-yard TD pass from Culpepper to Chris Chambers with 1:54 to play in the game, capping an 11-play, 93-yard drive. The pass for the two-point try was off the mark.

September 24, 2006 Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first win of 2006 by posting ten second-half points. Miami struck first with 5:56 remaining in the first quarter on an Olindo Mare 40-yard field goal, six plays after Zach Thomas intercepted a Kerry Collins pass. The Titans took their first lead of the game 1:18 into the second quarter on a 27-yard TD pass over the middle from Collins to Bo Scaife, capping a four-play, 54-yard drive. The Dolphins had an opportunity to close their deficit to one point with less than two minutes left in the first half, but Mare's 30-yard field goal attempt missed wide right. The attempt came 10 plays after André Goodman scooped up a Scaife fumble at the Dolphins' 3 following a 22-yard reception, and returned it 31 yards. Following the miss, Tennessee moved 47 yards in eight plays, before Rob Bironas missed wide right on a 51-yard field goal attempt with one second left in the half. The Dolphins took the ball on the opening series of the second half and moved 80 yards in 11 plays, ending with a 5-yard TD run by Daunte Culpepper. The key play was a 39-yard run by Chris Chambers on a reverse, putting the Dolphins at the Titans' 26, while Miami also converted a pair of third downs on the march. The Titans knotted the game with 4:42 remaining in the third quarter on a 22-yard field goal by Bironas, four plays after Cortland Finnegan recovered a Wes Welker fumbled punt at the Dolphins' 13. The score remained that way for more than 16 minutes before Mare came on to connect on a 39-yard field goal with 3:39 remaining in the contest, culminating a 7-play, 50-yard drive that consumed 4:26 of the clock. The key play came on the second play of the drive when Ronnie Brown busted loose up the middle for a 27-yard run to the Titans' 41. Tennessee then proceeded to pick up 37 yards over its next three plays from scrimmage, putting them at the Dolphins' 43 with less than two minutes to play, before Travis Daniels picked off a Collins pass that went off the hands of Drew Bennett. The Dolphins sealed the outcome when Culpepper connected with Wes Welker for a 19-yard completion on third-and-8 from their own 33.

October 1, 2006 Houston, TX

Miami dropped its second straight game to open the all-time series with Houston. The Dolphins opened the scoring on a 52-yard field goal by Olindo Mare, 3:02 into the second quarter, six plays after Will Allen intercepted a David Carr pass when he wrestled the ball away from Andre Johnson. For Mare, it was his 14th career field goal of 50 yards or longer during the regular season, tying Pete Stoyanovich's club record. The Texans tied the contest with 5:10 to play in the first half on a 32-yard field goal by Kris Brown, capping a 13-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:48 of the clock. Carr completed five of six passes, totaling 51 yards, en route to the score while also scrambling for a 2-yard gain on third-and-1 from the Dolphins' 42. The Dolphins regained the lead 7:05 into the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Mare, six plays after Jason Taylor stripped the ball from Carr, recovered and returned it 19 yards to the Texans' 31. Houston took its first lead of the afternoon with the game's first touchdown, on a 1-yard run by Carr on third down, five seconds into the fourth quarter. The score culminated a 10-play, 70-yard drive that used 5:01 of the clock. The key play on the drive was a 28-yard completion from Carr to Eric Moulds on third-and-8 from the Houston 32. After pinning the Dolphins deep in their own territory on the following series, which was highlighted by a pair of sacks, the Texans got the ball back and moved 41 yards in six plays, ending with a 3-yard TD pass from Carr to Andre Johnson, 5:11 into the final frame. Three plays prior to the score, Carr connected with Johnson for a 30-yard completion on third-and-6, putting the Texans at the Dolphins' 7. The Dolphins answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 22 yards away. Daunte Culpepper completed six of his eight pass attempts, totaling 59 yards, on the scoring march. The Dolphins then got the ball back at their own 20 with 3:40 to play in the game, and proceeded to move the length of the field in nine plays, the final one being a 16-yard TD pass from Culpepper to Chris Chambers on third-and-9, with 1:39 remaining in the contest. The key play was a 29-yard completion to Wes Welker on fourth-and-3 from the Dolphins' 27. A 22-yard completion to Randy McMichael two plays afterward put the Dolphins at the Texans' 17. The pass attempt by Ronnie Brown for the 2-point conversion following the touchdown was tipped away by Mario Williams. The ensuing onside kick attempt went out of bounds after last being touched by a Texans player, securing Houston's first win of the season.

PATRIOTS 20, DOLPHINS 10 Gillette Stadium
October 8, 2006 Foxborough, MA

The Patriots won for the fifth time in the last six meetings with the Dolphins in Foxborough. Tedy Bruschi recovered a Ronnie Brown fumble on the game's third play from scrimmage, putting the Patriots at the Dolphins' 37. That led to a 7-play, 20-yard drive ending in a 35-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski. The Dolphins had a chance to tie the game with 3:25 remaining in the first quarter, but Mike Wright blocked Olindo Mare's 40-yard field goal attempt. From there, the Patriots moved 56 yards in 15 plays, consuming 8:12 of the clock and ending with a 31-yard field goal by Gostkowski. Three plays following the score, Asante Samuel intercepted a Joey Harrington pass and raced 26 yards to the Dolphins' 10, leading to a Tom Brady to Troy

Brown 10-yard TD strike two plays later. The Dolphins answered with an 8-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 2-yard run by Ronnie Brown. Harrington completed five of six passes, totaling 86 yards en route to the score, including a 25-yard completion to Wes Welker on the play prior to the touchdown. The Dolphins got to within three points of the lead with 24 seconds remaining in the first half on a 40-yard field goal by Mare culminating an 8-play, 40-yard drive in which Harrington completed each of his first five attempts, accounting for all 40 yards. New England went up by 10 points 5:13 into the fourth quarter when Brady hit Heath Evans for a 1-yard TD pass, three plays after Samuel's second interception of the game put the Patriots at the Dolphins' 24, and one play after a pass interference penalty on the Dolphins. Miami then proceeded to march 44 yards in nine plays before Mare missed wide right on a 50-yard field goal attempt. New England took over and was able to run out the final 5:59. The key play was a 15-yard completion from Brady to Benjamin Watson on fourth-and-3 from the Dolphins' 35 with just under four minutes remaining.

October 15, 2006 East Rutherford, NJ

The Jets scored on their initial series of the game when Mike Nugent capped a 9-play, 36-yard drive with a 33-yard field goal. The key play was a 16-yard completion from Chad Pennington to Chris Baker on third-and-5, putting the Jets at the Dolphins' 30. The Dolphins threatened midway through the second quarter but were stopped on fourth-and-inches from the Jets' 29. New York took the ball on the opening series of the second half and marched 65 yards in 12 plays, ending with a 33-yard field goal by Nugent. Leon Washington rushed for 42 yards on six carries on the drive, which consumed nearly six minutes of the clock. The Dolphins cut the lead in half on an Olindo Mare 21-yard field goal with 4:24 remaining in the third quarter. Ronnie Brown broke loose for a 26-yard run to the Jets' 12 four plays prior to the score. The Jets increased their lead two plays following the field goal on a 58-yard TD pass from Pennington to Laveranues Coles. Pennington and Coles combined for a 22-yard touchdown five minutes later, six plays after Victor Hobson recovered a Sammy Morris fumble at the Dolphins' 43. The Dolphins accounted for their first touchdown of the game with 8:49 left in the contest on a 2-yard TD pass from Joey Harrington to Chris Chambers, culminating a 12-play, 81-yard drive in which Harrington completed 7 of 11 passes, totaling 74 yards. The Dolphins scored their second touchdown in as many possessions when Ronnie Brown punched it in from 1-yard out, capping an 11-play, 74-yard drive in which Harrington connected on 7 of 10 passes, totaling 73 yards. After forcing the Jets into a three-and-out, Miami got the ball back at their own 11 and proceeded to move 57 yards in seven plays, before Mare's 51-yard field goal attempt with 28 seconds left in the contest fell short of the crossbar.

PACKERS 34, DOLPHINS 24 Dolphin Stadium
October 22, 2006 Miami Gardens, FL

The Packers won for the first time ever in South Florida in five tries. The Dolphins scored their initial first-quarter touchdown of the season 7:09 into the contest when Joey Harrington hit Marty Booker from eight yards out, one play after Jason Taylor stripped the ball from Brett Favre and David Bowens recovered, returning it four yards. The Packers posted their first points of the game 2:52 into the second quarter on a Dave Rayner 42-yard field goal, nine plays after Brady Poppinga picked off a Harrington pass and returned it 21 yards to the Packers' 46. On the Dolphins' next offensive series, Nick Barnett came up with an interception of his own, leading to a 34-yard field goal by Rayner, six plays afterward. The Dolphins regained a four-point advantage with 1:03 remaining in the first half on a 32-yard field goal by Olindo Mare, capping a 10-play, 70-yard drive. The key play was a 40-yard completion from Harrington to Booker on third-and-9, putting the Dolphins at the Packers' 28. Green Bay took its first lead of the game on the second play of the second half when Charles Woodson picked off a Harrington pass and raced 23 yards untouched into the end zone. The Packers took a 10-point lead less than six minutes later when Brett Favre connected with Donald Driver for a 34-yard touchdown that was first ruled as an incompletion, but overturned by replay. The score capped a 6-play, 64-yard drive which included a 15-yard taunting penalty on the Dolphins. Miami responded with a 7-play, 39-yard drive that ended with a 40-yard field goal by Mare, closing their deficit to seven points. The Dolphins got to within four points of the lead 1:32 into the fourth quarter on Mare's third field goal of the afternoon, from 45 yards out, culminating a 9-play, 41-yard drive. On the next play from scrimmage, Ahman Green raced 70 yards down the left sideline for a touchdown to put the Packers up by 11 points. The Dolphins then proceeded on a 5-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 13-yard TD pass from Harrington to Derek Hagan 3:04 into the final period, marking Hagan's first NFL touchdown catch. Harrington hit Booker in the back of the end zone for the 2-point conversion. The score occurred one play after Sammy Morris took in a pass from Harrington and went 44 yards. The Packers put the game out of reach on the ensuing series when an 11-play, 80-yard drive resulted in a 13-yard TD pass from Brett Favre to David Martin. The key play was a 6-yard run by Driver on fourth-and-1 from the Dolphins' 40. The outcome for the Packers was secured when Mare's 52-yard field goal attempt with 2:06 to play hit the left upright.

DOLPHINS 31, BEARS 13 Soldier Field
November 5, 2006 Chicago, IL

The Dolphins won for the second straight time in this series and in Chicago as they handed the Bears their first defeat in eight outings in 2006. The Bears took a 3-0 lead on a Robbie Gould 38-yard field goal with four seconds remaining in the first quarter. The score capped a 14-play, 68-yard drive in which the Bears converted each of their first three third down attempts. The Dolphins got the game's first break when Eddie Jackson recovered a Devin Hester fumbled punt at the Bears' 6, leading to a 5-yard TD pass from Joey Harrington to Marty Booker three plays later, 4:13 into the second quarter. The Dolphins took an 11-point lead two plays later when Jason Taylor picked off a Rex Grossman pass and went 20 yards for the sixth touchdown of his career and his first via an interception. The Dolphins threatened again later in the period, but on third-and-goal from the five, Alex Brown intercepted a Harrington pass and returned it to the Bears' 14-yard line. From there, the Bears moved 86 yards in six plays, ending with a 30-yard TD pass from Grossman to Muhsin Muhammad, with 1:57 to play in the opening half. The key play took place two snaps prior to the score when Grossman and Justin Gage combined for a 34-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33. The Dolphins had another opportunity to extend their lead on the final play of the first half, but Israel Idonije blocked an Olindo Mare 37-yard field goal attempt. On the first play of the second half, Yeremiah Bell stripped the ball from Gage following a reception, and André Goodman picked up the loose ball, returning it 33 yards to the Bears' 12. Three plays later, Harrington connected with Wes Welker for a 6-yard TD pass, giving the Dolphins an 11-point advantage once again. The Bears closed the gap on a 38-yard field goal by Gould with 1:02 remaining in the third quarter, four plays after Nathan Vasher intercepted a Harrington pass and returned it to the Dolphins' 23. The Dolphins gained a commanding 15-point lead with 10:00 to play in the game when Harrington hit Chris Chambers for a 24-yard TD pass, one play after Renaldo Hill picked off a Grossman pass, returning it 12 yards. Mare capped the scoring with 1:09 to play in the contest with a 20-yard field goal, culminating a 10-play, 56-yard drive.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 13, CHIEFS 10 Dolphin Stadium
November 12, 2006 Miami Gardens, FL

Miami snapped Kansas City's 2-game winning streak in this series and accounted for its second consecutive victory. The Dolphins got on the board first on their initial possession of the game when an Olindo Mare 40-yard field goal capped a 13-play, 58-yard drive. Thirty yards of the drive came on a completion from Joey Harrington to Wes Welker on third-and-7, putting the Dolphins at the Chiefs' 36. Mare accounted for his second field goal of the game, from 22 yards out, 3:43 into the second quarter, putting him over the 1,000-point plateau for his career. Miami mustered the game's first touchdown 6:51 into the second quarter on a 1-yard run by Ronnie Brown, one play after Harrington connected with Chris Chambers for a 46-yard completion. The Chiefs had an opportunity for their first points of the game with 1:09 to play in the opening half, but a Lawrence Tynes 48-yard field goal attempt missed wide left after it was blocked by Jason Taylor. Kansas City came up with its first points 4:00 into the final period when Tynes converted a 27-yard field goal, capping a 15-play, 85-yard drive that consumed 6:06 of the clock. The Chiefs began the scoring drive at their own 7, with the key play being a 25-yard completion from Damon Huard to Eddie Kennison, putting the Chiefs at the Dolphins' 28. The Chiefs got to within three points of the lead with 7:14 to play in the game on Larry Johnson's 2-yard scoring run, four plays after Jared Allen recovered a Ronnie Brown fumble, returning it 20 yards to the Dolphins' 20. The Chiefs had one final opportunity when they got the ball back at their own 14 with 3:10 remaining in the contest. Vonnie Holliday sacked Huard on the drive's first play, but Huard responded two plays afterward by hitting Kennison for a 31-yard completion on third-and-17 to the Chiefs' 38. A Zach Thomas sack and incompletions on two of the final three offensive plays ended any Kansas City comeback hopes.

GAME 10

November 19, 2006 Miami Gardens, FL

Miami scored two defensive touchdowns in the same game for the seventh time in franchise history and the first since 1998 as they snapped Minnesota's three-game winning streak in the series. The Dolphins marched 69 yards to the Vikings' 1 on the opening series of the game before Dwight Smith recovered a Ronnie Brown fumble at the Vikings' 4. On the drive, Joey Harrington completed seven of eight passes, totaling 59 yards. Following the recovery, the Vikings moved 96 yards in 12 plays, ending with a 1-yard TD plunge by Chester Taylor, who rushed for 34 yards on six carries en route to the score. Brad Johnson also connected on five of six passes, totaling 47 yards. The Dolphins posted their first points of the afternoon 51 seconds into the second quarter on an Olindo Mare 44-yard field goal. The Dolphins had taken possession at the Vikings' 44 after pinning Minnesota at its own 3-yard line on the previous series. The Dolphins took their first lead of the game with 5:34 remaining in the second quarter on an 11-yard TD pass from Harrington to Justin Peelle, capping a 9-play, 78-yard drive in which Harrington completed five of seven passes, totaling 82 yards, including a 36-yard strike to Wes Welker on third-and-4, putting the Dolphins at the Vikings' 36. The Vikings knotted the score with 6:09 to play in the third quarter on a 35-yard field goal by Ryan Longwell. The 9-play, 26-yard scoring drive started at the Dolphins' 43 following a 28-yard punt return by Mewelde Moore. The Dolphins had a chance to regain their lead at the 3:21 mark of the third quarter, but Mare's 44-yard field goal attempt missed wide left. The Vikings took their first lead since the second quarter on a 19-yard field goal by Longwell, four plays after Antoine Winfeld intercepted a Harrington pass and returned it 26 yards to the Dolphins' 3. Miami went back on top 5:33 into the final period when Renaldo Hill scooped up a Chester Taylor fumble and went 48 yards untouched into the end zone. Down by four points, Minnesota was at the Dolphins' 47 when Jason Taylor picked off a Johnson pass and raced 51 yards for his second touchdown in three weeks, with 3:25 left in the contest. Chester Taylor scored his second touchdown of the game, from 1-yard out, on the final play of the game, culminating a 15-play, 76-yard drive.

GAME 11

November 23, 2006 Detroit, MI

The Dolphins won for the fifth time in six tries on Thanksgiving Day. The Lions scored on the opening series of the game when Jon Kitna connected with Dan Campbell for a 2-yard TD pass on third-and-goal. The 7-play, 58-yard drive began following a 40-yard kickoff return by Aveion Cason. Five plays prior to the score, Kitna hit Roy Williams for a 41-yard completion to the Dolphins' 17. The Lions scored for the second time in as many possessions when Jason Hanson connected on a 52-yard field goal, capping a 6-play, 39-yard drive in which Williams hauled in two passes, totaling 36 yards. Miami clawed its way back into the game on the ensuing series when Joey Harrington hit Marty Booker for an 8-yard TD strike on third-and-goal, capping a 7-play, 76-yard drive in which Harrington and Booker combined for a 48-yard completion to the Lions' 10 three plays prior to the score. The Dolphins took their first lead of the afternoon with 1:55 to play in the first half on a 5-yard TD pass from Harrington to Randy McMichael on third-and-goal, three plays after Renaldo Hill intercepted a Kitna pass, returning it 21 yards to the Lions' 9. The Dolphins threatened once again late in the first half when they were at the Detroit 17 with less than 20 seconds remaining, but Terrence Holt intercepted a Harrington pass at the Lions' 2-yard line to end the drive. The Dolphins opened the second half with an Olindo Mare 42-yard field goal, which was set up by Wes Welker's 45-yard kickoff return to the Lions' 48. The Dolphins took a 14-point lead with 4:17 left in the third quarter on a 19-yard TD pass from Harrington to Booker on third-and-4, culminating a 9-play, 60-yard drive. Mare added his second field goal of the game, from 28 yards out, 3:16 into the fourth quarter, six plays after Sammy Morris, subbing for an injured Ronnie Brown, busted loose for a 55-yard run to the Lions' 20.

GAME 12

JAGUARS 24, DOLPHINS 10 — Dolphin Stadium
December 3, 2006 — Miami Gardens, FL

The Jaguars snapped the Dolphins' four-game winning streak in their first-ever regular season visit to South Florida. The Dolphins took the ball on the opening series of the game and moved 80 yards in 14 plays, ending with a 17-yard TD pass from Joey Harrington to Marty Booker. Harrington completed 7 of 8 passes, totaling 62 yards, en route to the score. The Dolphins also converted three third-down attempts on the drive. Jacksonville responded with a 12-play, 47-yard drive that was capped by a Josh Scobee 48-yard field goal on the final play of the opening period. David Garrard completed all four of his pass attempts, totaling 47 yards, on the march. The Dolphins got to the Jaguars' 5 midway through the second quarter, but the threat was thwarted when Gerald Sensabaugh picked off a Harrington pass in the end zone and returned it eight yards to the 5-yard line. From there, Jacksonville moved the length of the field in 11 plays, ending with a 15-yard TD pass from Garrard to Matt Jones on third-and-8, with 1:50 to play in the first half. Garrard was 5 of 5 on the drive, totaling 77 yards. Jacksonville took a 10-point lead with just 14 seconds to play in the first half when Garrard connected with George Wrighster for a 16-yard TD, two plays after Rashean Mathis intercepted a Harrington pass and returned it seven yards to the Dolphins' 33. A 12-play, 49-yard drive by the Dolphins in the third quarter went by the wayside when Olindo Mare's 42-yard field goal attempt with 2:43 to play in the quarter went wide left. Jacksonville put the game out of reach on their first series of the final quarter when Maurice Jones-Drew busted up the middle for a 32-yard TD run, culminating a 9-play, 91-yard drive in which the Jaguars rushed for 57 yards. The Dolphins came back for a 42-yard field goal by Mare, followed by a successful onside kick. After the recovery, the Dolphins moved 50 yards to the Jaguars' 5 before Harrington's pass attempt on fourth down with 1:41 to play was off the mark.

DOLPHINS 21, PATRIOTS 0
December 10, 2006

Dolphin Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

Miami recorded its first shutout since the 2000 season opener. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead with 28 seconds remaining in the first quarter on an Olindo Mare 35-yard field goal. The score occurred five plays after Channing Crowder forced a Daniel Graham fumble and Will Allen recovered at the Patriots' 39. The Dolphins added to their lead on the final play of the first half when Mare connected on his second field goal of the game, from 33 yards out, capping a 9-play, 62-yard drive, in which the key play was a 15-yard roughing the passer penalty on the Patriots, putting the Dolphins at the New England 23. The game's first touchdown was scored with 2:51 remaining in the third quarter when Joey Harrington connected with Marty Booker for a 32-yard TD, culminating a 5-play, 43-yard drive. The touchdown came one play after a 2-yard run by Sammy Morris to convert a fourth-and-1. The Dolphins opened a 21-point advantage with 4:56 to play in the game on a 3-yard run by Morris, capping an 8-play, 61-yard drive that started when Yeremiah Bell stripped the ball from Tom Brady on a sack and also recovered it. The key play was a 26-yard completion from Harrington to Booker three plays prior to the score, putting the Dolphins at the Patriots' 11. The shutout was preserved with just more than three minutes to play when, after the Patriots were at the Dolphins' 39, Jason Taylor stripped the ball from QB Matt Cassel, and Jeff Zgonina recovered.

GAME 14

BILLS 21, DOLPHINS 0 Ralph Wilson Stadium
December 17, 2006 Orchard Park, NY

The Dolphins suffered their first shutout loss in this series since 1987. Going into an 18 mph wind on the opening series of the game, the Dolphins got to the Bills' 29 on the strength of 49 yards rushing before being stopped on fourth-and-4. The Dolphins made it to the Buffalo 24 on their next possession following a Donnie Spragan fumble recovery at the Bills' 43, but once again were denied on downs, this time on fourth-and-1. The Bills broke through first with 4:40 remaining in the first half when JP Losman hit a wide open Robert Royal for a 33-yard touchdown, capping a 4-play, 67-yard drive. The score came two plays after Losman hit Lee Evans for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' 27. Buffalo opened a 14-point advantage 6:54 into the third quarter on Losman's second touchdown pass of the day, a 27-yarder to Josh Reed, capping a 7-play, 55-yard drive that started after Nate Clements intercepted a Joey Harrington pass and returned it 22 yards. The Bills put the game out of reach with 10:21 to play on a 21-yard TD pass from Losman to Lee Evans, seven plays after Keith Ellison intercepted a Harrington pass and returned it seven yards to the Bills' 47. The Dolphins had a first-and-goal from the 2 with 33 second remaining, but could not punch it in to avoid the shutout.

GAME 15

December 25, 2006 Miami Gardens, FL

In a game that was played through a steady rain – at times a downpour – the Jets recorded their sixth season sweep over the Dolphins since 1998. The Jets had a chance to put the first points on the board with less than a minute to play in the first quarter, but the snap on a 34-yard field goal attempt was mishandled. New York got the initial score of the game with 2:25 remaining in the third quarter on a 22-yard field goal by Mike Nugent, capping a 7-play, 56-yard drive. Four plays prior to the score, the Dolphins were flagged for a 28-yard pass interference penalty, putting the Jets at the Dolphins' 11. Miami answered with a 7-play, 73-yard drive that ended with a 7-yard TD pass from Cleo Lemon to Randy McMichael. Lemon, who entered the game at the start of the second half, completed all five of his passes, totaling 56 yards on the drive, including the touchdown, the first of his NFL career. McMichael had four of Lemon's five completions on the scoring march. The Jets responded with an 11-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard scoring pass from Chad Pennington to Jerricho Cotchery, with 8:04 to play in the contest. The Jets converted three third downs on the drive, including a third-and-7 on the touchdown pass. The Dolphins caught the first break of the game on the ensuing series when they recovered a punt at the Jets' 42 that first hit a Jets receiver. From there, they moved 35 yards in eight plays, ending with an Olindo Mare 25-yard field goal that tied the game at 10 apiece with 2:09 remaining in the contest. On the next play from scrimmage, though, Pennington hit Leon Washington for a short pass, and Washington broke loose for a 64-yard gain to the Dolphins' 16. That led to Nugent's 30-yard field goal four plays later, with ten seconds left.

GAME 16

COLTS 27, DOLPHINS 22 RCA Dome
December 31, 2006 Indianapolis, IN

Cleo Lemon became the third different starting quarterback for the Dolphins, the second time in the last three years the Dolphins had three different starters at quarterback in the same season. After forcing the Colts into a three-and-out on the opening series of the game, the Dolphins took the ball and moved 53 yards in 13 plays, ending with a 28-yard field goal by Olindo Mare. Indianapolis responded with an 18-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 10:09 of the clock and culminated with a 2-yard TD pass from Peyton Manning to Dan Klecko, 2:20 into the second quarter. On the drive, Manning completed eight of ten passes, totaling 59 yards. Miami got to within one point of the lead with 1:31 remaining in the first half on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, capping an 11-play, 69-yard drive that used 5:45 of the clock. The Dolphins rushed for 52 yards on the march, but the key play was a 17-yard completion from Lemon to Randy McMichael on third-and-5, putting the Dolphins at the Colts' 26. The Colts came right back and moved 80 yards in seven plays, ending with an 11-yard TD run by Manning, who on the play prior to the score, connected with Aaron Moorehead for a 36-yard completion. On the play following the touchdown, Cato June intercepted a Lemon pass and returned it eight yards to the Dolphins' 37, setting up a 46-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri two plays later, on the final play of the first half. Mare accounted for his third field goal of the day, 1:43 into the second half, when he connected from 42 yards away. The score came four plays after Ronnie Brown broke loose for a 47-yard run to the Colts' 28. Indianapolis answered once again with a 13-play, 64-yard drive that ended with a 34-yard field goal by Vinatieri. Mare added his fourth field goal, from 27 yards out, with 2:11 left in the third quarter, four plays after Lemon hit Justin Peelle for a 25-yard completion to the Colts' 17. Mare's fifth field goal of the afternoon occurred 2:22 into the final frame when he converted a 34-yarder, capping a 9-play, 28-yard drive. The Colts responded with a 27-yard TD pass from Manning to Marvin Harrison 2:31 later, two plays after Manning hit Dallas Clark over the middle for a 30-yard completion to the Dolphins' 38. The Dolphins closed the gap to five points with 3:11 remaining in the contest when Lemon hit McMichael in the end zone for a 6-yard TD. The score came two plays after Lemon connected with Chris Chambers for an 18-yard completion to the Colts' 12. The touchdown was actually set up four plays earlier when Jason Taylor recovered a Joseph Addai fumble and returned it 14 yards to the Colts' 39. After stopping the Colts, the Dolphins got the ball back one final time, at their own 20 with 1:03 to play and no timeouts. They made it to the Colts' 43 before Lemon's final pass attempt of the afternoon went out of the end zone.

MONDAY NIGHT MADNESS IN MIAMI

In their history, the Dolphins have appeared on Monday Night Football a total of 72 times, the most of any NFL team, and four games ahead of the Dallas Cowboys, whose 68 games are second-most in the 37-year history of MNF. In those 72 contests, the Dolphins have compiled a record of 39-33, including a home record of 32-18 (14-14 at Dolphin Stadium) and a road register of 7-15. Their 39 victories are tied with Dallas for the most in Monday Night Football history. Since MNF's inception in 1970, the only two years in which the Dolphins did not make an appearance was 1989 and 2005.

PHILLIPS AMONG NFL'S LONGEST TENURED COACHES

Dolphins secondary (cornerbacks) coach Mel Phillips embarks on his 28th season as an NFL assistant coach in 2007, with each of the last 22 having been with the Dolphins after he joined the team in 1985 following a five-year stint with Detroit (1980-84). This streak ties Phillips for second among NFL position coaches for the longest current streak of having been with the same team. He trails only Cincinnati running backs coach Jim Anderson (1984). He is tied with Detroit defensive assistant Don Clemons.

PRESEASON GAME 1

JAGUARS 31, DOLPHINS 26
August 12, 2006

Dolphin Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins went up 3-0 on their first series of the game on an Olindo Mare 52-yard field goal, capping a 7-play, 17-yard drive, 12 of which were accounted for on three Ronnie Brown rush attempts. The Dolphins scored for the second time in as many series when Joey Harrington connected with Randy McMichael for an 18-yard TD pass, two plays after Eddie Jackson intercepted a Byron Leftwich pass. The Jaguars closed the deficit to three points on a 50-yard pass from Leftwich to Matt Jones with 6:48 remaining in the first half. Jacksonville tied the game 4:02 before the half on a Seth Marler 21-yard field goal, six plays after Tony Williams recovered a Harrington fumble. The Dolphins re-gained their advantage 6:58 into the third quarter when Ola Kimrin converted a 20-yard field goal, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive with the key play being a 2-yard run by Cleo Lemon on fourth-and-1 from the from the Jaguars' 42. Jacksonville took command six plays later when David Garrard hit Chad Owens for a 62-yard scoring strike, the first of three Jaguars scoring passes of longer than 50 yards in the second half. The second occurred 5:35 into the final period when Garrard connected with Maurice Jones-Drew for a 55-yard scoring pass, culminating a 10-play, 98-yard drive. The Dolphins answered with a 5-play, 58-yard scoring march that ended with a 21-yard TD pass from Lemon to Jason Willis. Jacksonville struck back for a 51-yard TD pass from Quinn Gray to George Wrighster five plays afterward, before the Dolphins capped off the scoring with a 5-yard TD pass from Brock Berlin to Fred Gibson.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 13, BUCCANEERS 10
August 19, 2006

Raymond James Stadium
Tampa, FL

Tampa Bay accounted for the first points of the game on its initial offensive series when a Matt Bryant 33-yard field goal midway through the opening quarter capped an 11-play, 45-yard drive. The Dolphins took their first lead of the night with 5:18 remaining in the first half on a 1-yard TD plunge by Sammy Morris, culminating a 14-play, 70-yard drive that used 9:33 of the clock. Daunte Culpepper completed all four of his pass attempts, totaling 53 yards, en route to the score, including two completions on third down. The Dolphins extended their lead to seven points as time expired in the first half on Olindo Mare's 41-yard field goal, capping a 10-play, 58-yard drive in which Joey Harrington connected on five of his seven pass attempts, totaling 50 yards, including two for 33 yards to Fred Gibson. The Dolphins forced the first of their three second-half turnovers on the first series when Deke Cooper intercepted a Tim Rattay pass after the Bucs got to their own 45. The Bucs were at the Dolphins' 19 on their ensuing possession when Derrick Pope forced the ball loose from Carey Davis and Kevin Vickerson recovered. The Dolphins then embarked on a 7-play, 49-yard drive that ended with a 52-yard field goal by Mare. The key plays were an 18-yard pass from Joey Harrington to Jason Rader followed by a 16-yard pass interference penalty on the Bucs. Tampa Bay tallied its first touchdown of the night with 6:57 to play on a 48-yard pass from Bruce Gradkowski to Edell Shepherd. The Bucs threatened once again on their next series when they were at the Dolphins' 32, but Jack Hunt's interception of a Gradkowski pass with 1:45 remaining ended the drive and sealed the outcome.

PRESEASON GAME 3

PANTHERS 19, DOLPHINS 10

Bank of America Stadium
Charlotte, NC

Carolina captured the first-ever preseason contest between these teams. The Panthers got the first break of the game when Brad Hoover recovered a fumbled punt at the Dolphins' 37 less than a minute into the contest. That led to a John Kasay 45-yard field goal four plays later. The Dolphins put together a 12-play, 50-yard drive that started in the first quarter, extending into the second period and consuming 5:38 of the clock. It ended, however, when Ronnie Brown was stopped short of the goal line on fourth-and-inches. After pinning the Panthers deep in their own territory, the Dolphins got the ball back at the Carolina 48 following a 13–yard punt return by Wes Welker. From there, Miami moved 42 yards in eight plays, ending with an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal. On the scoring drive, Daunte Culpepper completed all four of his pass attempts, totaling 28 yards, while also scrambling for eight yards on one attempt. The tie didn't last long as the Panthers' DeAngelo Williams took the ensuing kickoff and raced 98 yards down the right sideline for a touchdown. Carolina extended its lead to 10 points 45 seconds prior to the half on a 43-yard field goal by Kasay, capping a 10-play, 47-yard drive in which the key play was a 32-yard completion from Jake Delhomme to Drew Carter, putting the Panthers at the Dolphins' 40. The Dolphins scored their first touchdown of the night on the opening series of the second half when they traveled 76 yards in 11 plays, culminating with a 6-yard TD pass from Joey Harrington to Chris Chambers. Including the touchdown, Chambers caught three passes for 40 yards on the scoring march, including two for 18 from Harrington and one for 22 yards from Ronnie Brown on a halfback option. The Panthers answered with a 7-play, 33-yard drive that ended with a 53-yard field goal by Kasay. Carolina put the game out of reach with 1:56 remaining in the contest on Kasay's fourth field goal of the night, from 26 yards away, capping a 7-play, 20-yard drive. The score was set up by a 44-yard punt return by Efrem Hill to the Dolphins' 28.

PRESEASON GAME 4

August 31, 2006 — Miami Gardens, FL

The Rams made it as far as the Dolphins' 42 on the opening series of the game, but were denied a scoring opportunity after a 10-yard sack. Four plays later, however, Jamal Brooks recovered a Derek Hagan fumble at the Dolphins' 20, leading to a Jeff Wilkins 31-yard field goal four plays afterward. Wilkins hit from 49 yards out with 2:19 remaining in the first quarter, capping an 11-play, 42-yard drive that used 5:12 of the clock. The Dolphins cut the lead in half on an Olindo Mare 27-yard field goal 2:05 into the second quarter, culminating a 9-play, 67-yard drive that included a 25–yard pass interference penalty on the Rams, putting the Dolphins at the St. Louis 11. The Dolphins tied the score when Mare converted a 23-yard field goal on Miami's ensuing possession, four plays after Cleo Lemon connected with Derek Hagan for a 37-yard completion to the Rams' 9. Mare hit his third field goal of the quarter, from 35 yards away, with 51 seconds to play in the opening half. It ended a 9-play, 63-yard drive in which Lemon completed five of seven passes, totaling 54 yards. The first touchdown of the night was notched with 5:33 to play in the third quarter when Lemon hit Marcus Vick for a 5-yard TD to open the second half, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive that used 9:27 of the clock. The Dolphins converted three third downs en route to the score, including the touchdown pass. The Rams cut their deficit to seven points with 1:35 left in the third quarter on a 43-yard field goal by Wilkins, six plays after Mike Goolsby recovered a Gerald Riggs fumble at the Dolphins' 45. Mare's fourth field goal of the night, from 25 yards out, occurred 7:37 into the fourth quarter, capping a 10-play, 44-yard drive. The Dolphins put the game out of reach on the next play from scrimmage when Deke Cooper picked off a Dave Ragone pass and raced 30 yards into the end zone. Mare added a 32-yard field goal with 4:11 remaining in the contest, four plays after Jack Hunt stripped Ragone of the ball and Sedrick Hodge recovered at the Rams' 15.

T AND T

Linebacker Zach Thomas joined the Dolphins as a fifth-round draft choice in 1996. Defensive end Jason Taylor came to the team a year later as a third-round selection. In the ten years that they have been members of the same defense, the Dolphins have perennially fielded one of the staunchest defensive units in the NFL. In fact, only one other tandem has played on the same Dolphins defensive unit for ten seasons. Defensive end Vern Den Herder and cornerback Tim Foley both were members of the same defense together from 1971-80.

SACK HAPPY

In their 27-10 Thanksgiving Day win at Detroit on November 23 of last year the Dolphins collected a season-high eight sacks. That figure tied for the second-highest single-game total in franchise history and was the sixth time that the Dolphins have produced eight or more sacks in a game. Miami has now won each of those six contests.

DOLPHINS SEND 155 PLAYERS TO PRO BOWL

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a Dolphin has been selected to play in the Pro Bowl a total of 155 times, including two following the 2006 season and 18 over the last five years. Over the course of those 37 seasons, 90 offensive players, 59 defensive players and six special teams players have been chosen. The position that has been represented the most is guard, which has occurred on 19 occasions. The only seasons since 1970 that the Dolphins did not have a player selected to the Pro Bowl were 1980 and 1997.

DUAL 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

In the 41-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 18 dual 100-yard receiving games, 20 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers attain the 100-yard mark occurred on November 25, 2001 when Oronde Gadsden accumulated 118 yards on eight receptions and Chris Chambers totaled 101 yards and two scores on five catches against the Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. It marked the third time that Gadsden had been a part of a dual 100-yard receiving game, with the first two occasions coming in 1999.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has had 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The most recent inductee was Dan Marino, who played quarterback under Shula with the Dolphins from 1983-95, and entered the Hall in 2005. Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was Head Coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95). This total of 15 is the second-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who had 25 players enshrined.

DOLPHINS IN SEASON OPENERS

In regular season openers, Miami is 24-16-1. The Dolphins are 14-11-1 in season-openers on the road and 9-6 in season openers which have been at home, including a 7-3 mark at Dolphin Stadium. The Dolphins have won 12 of their last 15 league openers, a record which includes a streak 11 in a row, from 1992-2002. That streak is the second-longest in NFL history, trailing only the 17-game winning streak that the Dallas Cowboys compiled from 1965-81.

Dec. 12 – In one of the most bizarre incidents in Miami Dolphin history, a work release parolee (Mark Henderson) cleared a space on the snow-frozen turf at New England's Sullivan Stadium that enabled the Patriots to kick a late fourth-quarter field goal and win the game 3-0 before 25,716 fans.

Dec. 27 – The incredible record of not having won in 16 years in the Orange Bowl continues as the Dolphins score 20 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Buffalo Bills 27-10.

Jan. 8 – For the first time in nine years, the Dolphins win a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13 before 68,842 fans at the Orange Bowl.

Jan. 16 – The Dolphins choke off the San Diego Chargers famed offense and defeat them 34-13 before 71,383 fans. The Chargers were held to only 247 yards in total offense, 203 yards below their league-leading average. The win enabled the Dolphins to reach their fourth conference title game in team history and the first since the 1973 season.

Jan. 23 – A.J. Duhe sets an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one for a 35-yard touchdown romp, as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets for the third time in one season to win the AFC crown, 14-0.

Jan. 30 – In Pasadena, California, the Dolphins appear in their fourth Super Bowl, and in spite of leading with only 10 minutes to play, they lose 27-17 to Washington before a sell out crowd of 103,667 at the Rose Bowl and a TV audience estimated at 115 million. Fulton Walker sets a Super Bowl record with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown as he returns four kickoffs for a total of 190 yards.

June 25 – Starting linebacker Larry Gordon dies of a rare heart disease while jogging in Arizona at the age of 28. Gordon had been the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1976 out of Arizona State.

Oct. 9 – Quarterback Dan Marino and wide receiver Mark Duper make their first-ever starts for the Miami Dolphins, with Marino passing for 322 yards and Duper netting seven catches for 202 yards. The offensive explosion produces 971 total yards between the Dolphins and Bills, with Buffalo winning the Orange Bowl encounter, 38-35 in overtime.

June 24 – Running back David Overstreet is killed in an automobile accident in Winona, Texas.

Oct. 7 – The Dolphins beat Pittsburgh 31-7 to move Head Coach Don Shula into third place on the NFL's list for all-time winningest coaches.

Oct. 21 – Wide receiver Nat Moore catches a 19-yard TD pass from QB Dan Marino for the 58th touchdown of his Dolphin career, surpassing Larry Csonka's all-time club record of 57.

Nov. 11 – The Dolphins remain the NFL's only unbeaten team as they improve their record to 11-0 (16 straight regular-season wins) with a 24-23 victory over Philadelphia. DE Doug Betters' block of an Eagle PAT with 1:52 remaining in the game seals the win.

Dec. 2 – The Dolphins lose a 45-34 decision to the Raiders, but QB Dan Marino breaks the all-time NFL record for TD passes in a season with his 37th. His record-breaking touchdown pass, which came on a four-yard toss to Jimmy Cefalo in the first quarter, was the first of four on the day for Marino as he reached the 40-touchdown plateau. He also shatters Dolphin single-game records for most yards passing (470), most completions (35) and most attempts (57).

Dec. 17 – Miami ends the regular season with the best record in the AFC (14-2) following a 28-21 victory over Dallas. WR Mark Clayton catches three touchdown passes to give him 18 for the season as he eclipses the all-time NFL mark in that category. Dan Marino becomes the first-ever NFL quarterback to pass for over 5,000 yards in a season as he ends up with 5,084. The most prolific passing season in NFL history also consists of 48 touchdown passes, 564 attempts, 362 completions and only 17 interceptions for a franchise record passer rating of 108.9. Both Clayton (73-1,389) and WR Mark Duper (71-1,306) surpass prior Dolphin records for receptions and reception yardage in one season.

Dec. 20 – QB Dan Marino is named as the NFL's Most Valuable Player by the Associated Press.

Feb. 19 – Miami appoints Receivers and Quarterbacks Coach David Shula to the position of Assistant Head Coach. In addition, the club names Mike Westhoff as the Special Teams/Tight Ends Coach.

June 3 – Owner Joseph Robbie plants a ceremonial 30-foot Royal Palm tree to begin a million dollar beautification project near Dolphin Stadium.

Sept. 6 – Dan Marino signs a multi-year contract to remain as QB of the Dolphins. Two days before, Marino's wife, Claire, had given birth to the couple's first child – Daniel Charles.

Sept. 21 – Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game. Standout LB Hugh Green suffers a knee injury which sidelines him for the season.

Oct. 12 – In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.

Nov. 24 – The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.

Nov. 25 – Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.

Dec. 14 – Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl – a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

Jan. 10 – John Offerdahl is named Old Spice NFL Rookie of the Year

Jan. 20 – Tom Olivadotti, an assistant for the Cleveland Browns, is named Defensive Coach for Miami. He is put in charge of the overall defense with the prime responsibility of pass defense. Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.

Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin greats Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.

Sept. 22 – NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is canceled because of strike.

Oct. 4 – The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.

Oct. 11 – Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular-season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defensed) is named AFC defensive player of the week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y Jets at the Meadowlands.

Oct. 25 – After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses 34-31 in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team.

Nov. 1 – Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 29 – The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 – the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.

Dec. 20 – Miami picks up its final win of 1987 with a 23-21 victory over Washington at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins lose the following week (December 28) in the '87 finale to New England, 24-10, at home. The Redskins, meanwhile, go on to win Super Bowl XXII, 42-10 over Denver.

Dec. 30 – RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

Feb. 29 – Former Dolphin Larry Seiple is named receivers coach. Seiple, who had been out of pro coaching for a year, had been receivers coach at Detroit (1980-84) and Tampa Bay (1985-86).

July 11 – Training camp opens for the Dolphins at St. Thomas University as Head Coach Don Shula welcomes 109 players – the largest group of players in Shula's tenure as Dolphin head coach.

July 31 – The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the pre-season.

Sept. 18 – Miami registers its first win of the season in a 24-17 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. It marks Miami's 18th win in 23 home openers, including 13 straight years, and a 17-2 record under Don Shula. Dan Marino goes over the 20,000-yard mark in career passing yardage and becomes only the 45th quarterback in NFL history to do so.

Oct. 9 – The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.

Oct. 16 – Miami wins its third consecutive game of the season as the Dolphins defeat the San Diego Chargers, 31-28. Quarterback Dan Marino throws for 329 yards and moves into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing games list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51).

Oct. 23 – Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Oct. 30 – Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

Jan. 22 – Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21,1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.

Jan. 23 – Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.

Jan. 25 – Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.

June 12 – Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.

Sept. 10 – Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home opener winning streak.

Sept. 17 – In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Oct. 8 – In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.

Nov. 5 – Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.

Nov. 12 – Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.

Nov. 19 – Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.

Dec. 3 – Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40-degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

Jan. 7 – Joseph Robbie, founder and owner of the Dolphins and the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium, dies of respiratory failure at age 73.

Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.

Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.

Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino sets an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil. The Dolphins join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in each of the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin).

Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson.

Oct. 4 – The Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East for the first time in 34 weeks with a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles in right foot) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 21 – Steve DeBerg becomes the third player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins in 1993 as he throws for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead Miami to a 17-13 win over New England. DeBerg, the NFL's oldest player, had joined the team just 11 days prior to the Pats game and was forced into his first start in place of the injured Scott Mitchell.

Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

May 6 – Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970, announces his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner.

June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 – After missing the final 11 games of the 1993 season with a torn right Achilles' tendon, Dan Marino returns to action as he throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player as the Dolphins earn a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino makes history once again with his famous "Clock Play". With the Dolphins trailing the Jets by 18 points in the second half at the Meadowlands, Marino orchestrates a 28-point second-half outburst, including 22 straight to close the contest, as Miami claims a 28-24 victory. All four scores in the second half occur on Marino to Mark Ingram touchdown passes. The game winning points come on first-and-goal with just 22 seconds to play, when Marino approaches the line of scrimmage, appearing poised to clock the ball. However, he takes everyone in the stadium by surprise as he receives the snap, drops back and tosses an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ingram, who ties the Paul Warfield's single-game record of four touchdowns and 24 points, which Warfield achieved against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27 – Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31 – Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9 – Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18 – Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6 – Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9 – Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19 – The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

Sept. 3 – The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.

Oct. 1 – The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.

Oct. 8 – Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Marino suffers knee and hip injuries which force him to miss the next two games (at New Orleans and at the N.Y. Jets).

Nov. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 26 – Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.

Dec. 11 – Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter. In addition, the game is a sellout and marks the second consecutive season and fourth time overall (also 1972-73) that every home game has been sold out and it is just the second time in team history (also 1973) that every game has been sold out before the television blackout deadline.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The team clinches a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration. Miami's win marks the 347th and final victory in the illustrious head coaching career of Don Shula.

Dec. 30 – Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards. The game marks the final contest in Head Coach Don Shula's career.

Jan. 5 – Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.

Jan. 11 – Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (Univ. of Miami, 1987).

Jan. 16 – Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

Jan. 17 – The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.

Jan. 19 – Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).

Jan. 24 – Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).

Feb. 16 – The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).

March 1 – The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

April 23 – Dan Marino, who broke every significant passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

April 26 – The Jimmy Johnson era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in mini-camp under the new Dolphins head coach.

Aug. 26 – Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a ten-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.

Sept. 1 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24-10 at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.

Sept. 10 – Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 15 – On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history. The win marks the third straight year and fourth time in the last five campaigns that Miami has opened the regular season with three consecutive victories.

Oct. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.

Oct. 29 – WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM beginning in the 1997 season and through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.

Oct. 31 – At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 10 – A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 25 – At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. In that game, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 57 yards on 16 attempts, breaking the club's rookie rushing record of 711 formerly held by Andra Franklin (1981).

Dec. 16 – On Monday Night Football, the Dolphins record a 16-14 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium, marking the first time since 1986 that Miami has swept the season series from the Bills. It's also the first time since December 22, 1985, that the Dolphins have defeated Buffalo in the month of December or January, snapping a seven-game losing streak against Buffalo in such games.

Dec. 22 – In a season-ending 31-28 win at the New York Jets, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 152 yards and a TD on 30 carries. His performance is the fifth-highest single-game total in franchise history, and the second-most by a rookie. It is his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year, establishing a new club rookie standard, also tying for the second-best mark in team annals. In the process, he also surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season, the sixth Dolphins player to achieve that feat and the first since Delvin Williams in 1978. Abdul-Jabbar's 1,116 rushing yards is the third-best single-season total in team history. He scores on a 17-yard run in the third quarter, his 11th rushing touchdown of the year, tying Ron Davenport's club rookie record, first achieved in 1985.

Jan. 14 – Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

Jan. 25 – Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

March 11 – At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.

March 21 – Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.

April 17 – Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.

April 18 – The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.

June 3 – Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.

June 4 – "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.

June 13 – Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.

July 26 – Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.

Aug. 4 – The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

Aug. 31 – The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in the month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.

Oct. 5 – The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.

Oct. 27 – After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears storm back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.

Nov. 17 – At halftime of a 30-13 win over the the Buffalo Bills on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins honor the 25th anniversary of the 1972 Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII.

Nov. 23 – RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar scores three rushing touchdowns in a 27-24 loss to the Patriots in Foxboro. His third touchdown of the game comes on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter. It is his 13th rushing TD of the year, a new Dolphins record. His 12 rushing scores had been tied with Mercury Morris, Don Nottingham and Larry Csonka.

Nov. 30 – The Dolphins record a 33-15 victory over the Raiders at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. It's the first-ever win by Miami against the Raiders in Oakland after Miami had dropped each of their previous eight meetings there.

Dec. 14 – The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.

Dec. 22 – In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer. The Patriots win the game, 14-12, giving New England the AFC East title. A win by the Dolphins would have made them AFC East champions, but instead they enter the playoffs as a Wild Card team where they must go on the road to face the Patriots the following week.

Dec. 28 – The Dolphins drop a 17-3 decision to the New England Patriots in Foxboro in an AFC First-Round Playoff game, Miami's first postseason appearance under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 24 – Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Feb. 11 – Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces the following changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.

March 23 – Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.

Aug. 1 – Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Munoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.

Sept. 6 – The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 24-15, at the RCA Dome, marking Miami's seventh straight opening day victory.

Sep. 20 – The Dolphins shut out the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-0, at Pro Player Stadium. It marks Miami's first shutout under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and their first since November 8, 1992, when they defeated the Colts, 28-0, at the RCA Dome.

Nov. 29 – In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first quarterback in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.

Dec. 21 – The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpass Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 27 – In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first-ever playoff win under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, and their first since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.

Jan. 14 – Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.

Jan. 21 – Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach.

March 2 – Eddie Jones signs a three-contract to remain as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer.

June 15 – Dan Marino signs a two-year contract extension through 2001.

Sept. 13 – The Dolphins defeat the two-time defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos, 38-21, in a season-opening Monday night game at Mile High Stadium. The win was the 300th during the regular season in Dolphins history.

Oct. 10 – The Dolphins set a franchise record by posting 25 fourth-quarter points, and in the process erase a pair of nine-point deficits to earn a 34-31 triumph over the Colts at the RCA Dome. Quarterback Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdowns in the final period, including a two-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden with 27 seconds to play, lifting Miami to victory. It marks the 35th time in Marino's career that he has led the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit for a win.

Oct. 17 – Dan Marino completes an eight-yard pass to Tony Martin in the first quarter against the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. The completion, the first and only one of the game for Marino, puts him over the 60,000-yard passing plateau for his career, the only quarterback in NFL history to attain that mark. Marino leaves the game following the next series with a shoulder injury, forcing him to miss the next five contests. Damon Huard relieves Marino with the Dolphins trailing 7-0. After his first attempt in picked off and returned for a touchdown by Ty Law, Huard goes on to complete 24 of 42 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to a 31-30 victory. The game-winning points occur on a five-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett with 23 seconds remaining in the game. The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win back-to-back road games when trailing by seven or more points after the third quarter.

Oct. 24 – Against Philadelphia on October 24 at Pro Player Stadium, Dan Marino sits out the first of five straight games with a shoulder injury. The Eagles games snaps a string of 46 straight games in which Marino had started, the third-longest current streak among NFL signal callers at the time. Prior to this game, the last time Marino missed a game was on October 20, 1996, also against the Eagles, at Veterans Stadium.

Dec. 5 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore becomes the 12th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Kicker Olindo Mare accounts for two field goals against the Jets at Giants Stadium. His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season records of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991.

Dec. 21 – Cornerback Sam Madison, kicker Olindo Mare and linebacker Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first selection for all three. Madison becomes the first cornerback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl squad.

Dec. 27 – Kicker Olindo Mare boots a 37-yard field goal against the Jets in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium. The field goal was his 38th of the season, as he became the NFL's single-season field goal leader, surpassing John Kasay, who had amassed 37 field goals with Carolina in 1996.

Jan. 2 – In a 21-10 loss to the Washington Redskins at FedEx Field, Olindo Mare kicks a 39-yard field goal, his 39th and final of the 1999 season, extending his NFL record of most field goal made in a single season.

Jan. 9 – The Dolphins defeat the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at the Kingdome, the final football game at the stadium. The win is Miami's first road playoff victory since they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1972 AFC Championship Game at Three Rivers Stadium. Quarterback Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the victory, in which he guides a late drive that leads to the game-winning touchdown with 4:48 remaining.

Jan. 15 – The Dolphins drop a 62-7 decision to the Jacksonville Jaguars in an AFC Divisional Playoff game at ALLTEL Stadium. The contest is the final one in the playing career of quarterback Dan Marino and coaching career of Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 16 – Jimmy Johnson, the Dolphins' General Manager/Head Coach since 1996, retires. Dave Wannstedt, the team's Assistant Head Coach in 1999, is named Head Coach.

Jan. 24 – Jim Bates is named defensive coordinator, replacing George Hill. Clarence Brooks is named defensive line coach, replacing Cary Godette.

Feb. 1 – Chan Gailey, the Head Coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kippy Brown. Randy Shannon, a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1998-99, is promoted to linebackers coach.

Feb. 7 – Mike Shula, the offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99, re-joins the Dolphins as quarterbacks coach, replacing Larry Seiple. Shula previously had served as an assistant on Miami's coaching staff from 1991-92. Judd Garrett is named as an offensive assistant, and Robert Nunn is named as a defensive assistant.

Feb. 10 – Quarterback Dan Marino, the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1983 and the NFL's all-time leading passer, voids the final two years of his contract, thus becoming a free agent.

Mar. 13 – Dan Marino announces his retirement from professional football.

Apr. 14 – The Dolphins unveil Dan Marino's permanent encased locker at the team's Nova Southeastern University training facility, the first of its kind in club history.

Apr. 28 – The Dave Wannstedt era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in minicamp under the new Dolphins head coach.

May 3 – The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as Vice President-Player Personnel. Spielman had served as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears since 1997.

June 12 – Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announces that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.

Aug. 21 – The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard". The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.

Aug. 23 – More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a gala fireworks display.

Sept. 3 – Jay Fiedler opens at quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.

Sept. 17 – The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Oct. 8 – For the first time since September 21, 1997 at Tampa Bay, the Dolphins wear their white jerseys with white pants in a 22-13 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium.

Oct. 23 – On a Monday night at the Meadowlands, the Dolphins hold a commanding 30-7 fourth-quarter lead over the New York Jets. The Jets, however, post 30 of the 37 points scored in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime, where John Hall ends the four hour, ten minute epic with a 40-yard field goal, 6:47 into the extra period. It is the largest comeback win ever against the Dolphins, while it also marks the longest game in the 31-year history of ABC Monday Night Football.

Dec. 10 – In a 16-13 loss to Tampa Bay at Pro Player Stadium, running back Lamar Smith rushes for 79 yards and surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season. Smith becomes the first Dolphin to accomplish the feat since Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1996 and the fifth player overall to do it.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 16th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams are summoned back onto the field after it is determined that three seconds still remain with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game falls incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.

Dec. 30 – The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marks the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points are scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It caps a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason) at the time.

Jan. 6 – The Raiders defeat the Dolphins, 27-0, in a Divisional Playoff game in Oakland. It is the first time that Miami has been shutout in 38 postseason contests.

Jan. 15 – Keith Armstrong is named special teams coach and Tony Wise is hired as offensive line coach.

Jan. 27 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti, who anchored Miami's "No-Name" defense, leading the Dolphins to two straight Super Bowl victories, becomes the eighth former Dolphin to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the first defensive player.

Feb. 2 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season.

Mar. 1 – Bob Sanders is named linebackers coach, replacing Randy Shannon, who became the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami.

May 9 – Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season. In addition, Ron Labadie is promoted to Director of College Scouting, after serving as the Dolphins' midwest scout since 1990. Tom Braatz, the team's Director of College Scouting since 1992, is named as a scout, and John Crea is named as the Dolphins' midwest area scout.

June 4 – George Paton is named Director of Pro Personnel, replacing Tom Heckert, Jr., who was named Director of Player Personnel with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Aug. 4 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the eighth Dolphin and first defensive player to earn that honor.

Sept. 9 – The Dolphins record their tenth consecutive opening day victory with a 31-23 decision over the Tennessee Titans in Miami's first-ever visit to Nashville's Adelphia Coliseum. Among the Dolphins' four touchdowns on the night is a Zach Thomas 34-yard interception return for a touchdown, the fourth of his career, setting a new club all-time record.

Sept. 13 – In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, the NFL announces that it will cancel games for the weekend of September 16-17. The Dolphins game against the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium is re-scheduled for Sunday, January 6.

Dec. 10 – The Dolphins earn a resounding 41-6 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium, the last game that these two teams will play as AFC East opponents, prior to realignment in 2002. For the Dolphins, it is their 36th victory on Monday Night Football, as they surpass San Francisco as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 16 – The Dolphins are handed a 21-0 shutout by the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park.

Coupled with their 24-0 loss to the Jets at Pro Player Stadium on November 18, it marks just the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins suffer two shutout losses in the same season.

Dec. 22 – Playing their third game in 13 days, the Dolphins drop a 20-13 decision to the New England Patriots, in the last regular season game ever played at Foxboro Stadium.

Dec. 30 – With a 21-14 win over Atlanta at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins clinch their fifth playoff appearance in a row, as they become the only NFL team to reach the postseason in each of the last five years, a span ranging from 1997-01.

Jan. 6 – In a game that was originally scheduled to be played on September 16, but cancelled because of terrorist attacks, the Dolphins clinch a home First-Round Playoff game with a 34-7 season ending win over Buffalo, just the fourth time in team history that the Dolphins have played a regular season game in the month of January. On the game's final play, Brock Marion picks off a Travis Brown pass and races 100 yards for a touchdown, as the Dolphins establish a club single-season record for interception returns for touchdowns (five) and defensive touchdowns (six).

Jan. 28 – Bryan Wiedmeier is promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Rick Spielman is promoted to Senior Vice President – Football Operations/Player Personnel.

Feb. 5 – The Dolphins name Norv Turner as their Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator, taking over from Chan Gailey, who had been named Head Coach at Georgia Tech. In addition to serving as Head Coach with the Washington Redskins from 1994-00, Turner also was the offensive coordinator with both Dallas (1991-93) and San Diego (2001).

Feb. 13 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2004 season.

March 14 – The Dolphins and WQAM Radio sign a new two-year contract for the station to continue to serve as the team's flagship through 2003.

June 5 – At the team's annual Kickoff Banquet, President Eddie Jones announces that former running back Larry Csonka will have his uniform jersey No. 39 retired during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' December 9 game against Chicago at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka will become the third player to receive this honor, joining QB Bob Griese (No. 12 on May 6, 1982) and QB Dan Marino (No. 13 on September 17, 2000).

Sept. 8 – The Dolphins record their 11th consecutive opening day victory with a 49-21 decision over the Detroit Lions at Pro Player Stadium. Making his Dolphins debut, RB Ricky Williams rushes for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, the fifth-highest rushing total by a player in his initial appearance as a Dolphin.

Sept. 22 – The Dolphins snap an eight-game losing streak to the Jets with a convincing 30-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. The victory also marks the Dolphins' 17th straight at home during the regular season in the months of August/September. Ricky Williams rushes for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, becoming the first player in team history to amass three straight 100-yard rushing games. Coupled with his 132-yard effort the previous week at Indianapolis, his two-game rushing total of 283 yards sets a new Dolphins record, surpassing the old mark of 273, which had been held by Bernie Parmalee since 1994. Williams will go on to break this two-game record three subsequent times during the course of the season.

Oct. 13 – In their first of four prime-time appearances of the year, the Dolphins register a 24-22 win over the Denver Broncos in their first-ever visit to INVESCO Field at Mile High. Jason Elam's 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play gives Denver a 22-21 lead. Olindo Mare counters with a 53-yarder with six seconds remaining to lift the Dolphins to the victory. It marks the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game.

Nov. 24 – Ricky Williams establishes a new club single-season standard with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season with a 143-yard, two-touchdown effort in a 30-3 victory over San Diego at Pro Player Stadium. He breaks the old mark of five, which was first set by Delvin Williams in 1978.

Dec. 1 – In a 38-21 loss to the Bills in Buffalo, Ricky Williams further etches his name into the Dolphins' record book when he rushes for 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries. This single-game total surpasses the previous record of 209 yards, set by Lamar Smith in a 2000 First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis. In the process, Williams also surpasses Delvin Williams' club single-season record of 1,258 yards, achieved in 1978. In addition, with Williams overtaking the 1,200-yard rushing mark, the conditional third-round draft choice in 2003 that the Dolphins sent to the Saints in the trade for Williams on March 8, now becomes a second-round pick.

Dec. 9 – In a 27-9 victory over the Chicago Bears in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium, Ricky Williams becomes just the third player (fourth time) in NFL history to amass back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, as he runs for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries. He joins Hall of Famers O.J. Simpson (1973, 1976) and Earl Campbell (1980) as the only players to achieve this feat. His two-game rushing total of 444 yards is the fourth-most in NFL annals, while his 587 yards over the three-game span is third-most in league history. In the process, he breaks his own club record with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. It also represents his fourth straight game with a pair of rushing scores. His total for the game gives him 1,500 yards for the season, as the second-round draft choice that the Saints get from the Dolphins as part of the trade now becomes a first-rounder in '03. At halftime of the game, former FB Larry Csonka has his jersey No. 39 retired, just the third Dolphin ever to receive that honor, joining quarterbacks Bob Griese (No. 12) and Dan Marino (No. 13). The rest of the 1972 "Perfect Team" is honored during the halftime festivities as well, as part of the 30th anniversary celebration of the 17-0 club that captured the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Dec. 15 – The Dolphins defeat the eventual AFC champion Oakland Raiders, 23-17, at Pro Player Stadium, as Ricky Williams extends his club-record streak of consecutive 100-yard rushing games to five with 101 yards on 27 attempts. Defensive end Jason Taylor leads the defensive charge with three sacks as he sets a Dolphins record with a sack in seven straight games.

Dec. 21 – The Dolphins fall to the Vikings, 20-17, at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome on a Saturday afternoon. A win would have secured the AFC East title for the Dolphins over the weekend as New England is defeated by the Jets on Sunday. Jason Taylor is credited with 1.5 sacks as he ties Bill Stanfill's club single-season record for sacks with 18.5. He also extends his streak of consecutive games with a sack to eight. That streak will come to an end in the season finale the following week as he is shut out by the Patriots. Taylor's sack total leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to achieve that feat.

Dec. 29 – The Dolphins drop a 27-24 overtime decision to the Patriots in their first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium. The Patriots produce 11 points over the final 2:46 to send the game into overtime, where Adam Vinatieri's 35-yard field 2:03 into the extra period gives New England the victory. A win by the Dolphins would have given them the AFC East title. A win by the Jets over the Green Bay Packers later in the day makes the Jets the 2002 AFC East champions, thus eliminating the Dolphins from the playoffs for the first time since 1996. Ricky Williams rushes for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts. His second score of the game occurs on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his 16th rushing touchdown of the season as he establishes a new Dolphins single-season record for rushing touchdowns, surpassing the previous mark of 15 by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997. Williams also finishes the year as the team's single-season leader for rushing yards (1,853), attempts (383), 100-yard rushing games (10) and total yards from scrimmage (2,216). His rushing total also leads the NFL, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to earn that distinction.

Feb. 2 – Ricky Williams rushes for 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 attempts, catches three passes for 18 yards while also forcing a fumble on special teams in the AFC's 45-20 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. For his efforts, Williams is named the game's MVP, just the second Dolphin ever to win that honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian who came away with the award in the 1974 game.

Feb. 13 – The Dolphins name Glenn Pires as assistant defensive line coach, replacing Robert Nunn, who left to become defensive line coach with the Washington Redskins. Pires had spent the previous two seasons as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions.

May 2 – Tom Braatz, a veteran of 38 seasons as an NFL front office executive, announces his retirement. Braatz had joined the Dolphins in 1992 as Director of College Scouting and spent his final two years with the club as a college scout. Chris Grier, the team's southeast college scout the past three years, is promoted to national scout.

May 4 – Former Dolphin David Woodley (1980-83), an eighth-round draft choice in 1980 who started at quarterback for the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII against Washington, passes away in his hometown of Shreveport, La.

May 9 – Quarterbacks Coach Mike Shula, who played quarterback at the University of Alabama from 1983-86, is introduced as the school's head coach.

June 28 – At a press conference, it is announced that former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton, popularly known as the "Marks Brothers", will be inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll at halftime of a December 15 game against the Philadelphia Eagles at Pro Player Stadium.

Oct. 27 – The Dolphins record a 26-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers in a Monday night game at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The game originally was scheduled to be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, but is moved because of wildfires that devastate Southern California. After arriving in San Diego Sunday evening, the Dolphins board a flight to Phoenix the morning of the game, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (PT).

Nov. 23 – In a Sunday night game against Washington at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins don orange jerseys in a 24-23 win over the Redskins. It is the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.

Nov. 27 – The Dolphins improve their Thanksgiving Day record to 4-1 with a 40-21 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The Dolphins wear their "throwback" jerseys, commemorating the 30th anniversary of the 1973 team that captured the club's second straight Super Bowl title.

Dec. 15 – At halftime of a 34-27 loss to Philadelphia at Pro Player Stadium, former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton become the 14th and 15th members of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 21 – In a 20-3 win over the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium, DE Jason Taylor registers three sacks, and in the process becomes the Dolphins' all-time sack leader, surpassing Bill Stanfill, whose mark of 67.5 had stood since 1976.

Dec. 29 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that the Dolphins will restructure their football operations for the 2004 season, including the search for a General Manager who will be responsible for all personnel matters on both the professional and college levels, as well as the makeup of the Dolphins roster. Head Coach Dave Wannstedt is given a two-year contract extension through the 2006 season.

Jan. 12 – Rick Spielman is promoted to General Manager and Dan Marino is named Senior Vice President/Football Operations.

Jan. 26 – Joel Collier is promoted to offensive coordinator from running backs coach. He takes over the spot which became vacant when Norv Turner was named Head Coach with the Oakland Raiders. Marc Trestman, who had been with the Raiders each of the previous three seasons, including the last two as offensive coordinator, is named assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Miami native Jerry Sullivan is appointed wide receivers coach after spending each of the previous three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, including 2003 as the team's offensive coordinator.

Feb. 2 – Bernie Parmalee is promoted to running backs coach from assistant special teams/offensive assistant, while Chris Foerster is named tight ends coach after handling that same position with the Indianapolis Colts each of the previous two seasons.

Feb. 3 – Dan Marino resigns as Senior Vice President/Football Operations, saying, "I knew it would involve a significant lifestyle change but after further reflection, it became clear that those adjustments were ones that my family and I are not prepared to make at this time. As a result, I have decided that it would not be in the best interests of either my family or the Miami Dolphins to assume the role as the team's Senior Vice President of Football Operations."

May 10 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt announces several adjustments to the coaching staff for the 2004 season. Chris Foerster, who was hired earlier in the offseason to coach the team's tight ends, was named offensive coordinator. Joel Collier will return to coaching the running backs, a position that he had held since 1998. Bernie Parmalee, who had been named running backs coach in the offseason following two years as an offensive assistant, will tutor the Dolphins' tight ends. These changes were necessitated because of health-related reasons on the part of Collier.

July 25 – Running back Ricky Williams informs the Miami Herald of his intention of retiring from professional football.

July 30 – On the day the Dolphins report for the 39th training camp in franchise history, the club places Ricky Williams on its Reserve/Did Not Report list.

Sept. 9 – Because of the threat of Hurricane Ivan, the Dolphins regular season opener against Tennessee is moved up one day, from September 12 to September 11, at Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 26 – Kickoff for the Dolphins-Steelers game at Pro Player Stadium is moved from 1:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., one day after South Florida feels the effects of Hurricane Jeanne.

Oct. 10 – Kicker Olindo Mare aggravates a calf injury during pre-game warm-ups prior to a game against New England at Gillette Stadium. It thrusts return man Wes Welker into kicking duties. Not only did Welker perform his usual punt and kickoff return chores, but he also converted both a 29-yard field goal attempt and a PAT, and kicked off as well, becoming the first player in NFL history to do all five in the same game. Although the Dolphins lost, 24-10, Welker was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

Nov. 9 – Dave Wannstedt steps aside as head coach. Defensive coordinator Jim Bates takes over on an interim basis.

Nov. 21 – In Jim Bates' first game as head coach, the Dolphins suffer a 24-17 loss at Seattle, dropping their record to 1-9, clinching the franchise's first losing season since 1988.

Nov. 28 – After spending the entire week in San Francisco preparing for their game against the 49ers, the Dolphins give Jim Bates his first win as an NFL head coach by virtue of their 24-17 victory at Monster Park.

Dec. 25 – In Orlando, Fla., LSU Head Coach Nick Saban announces that he will accept an offer to become the sixth head coach in Dolphins history.

Dec. 27 – Nick Saban signs a five-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins.

Jan. 10 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces major organizational and stadium changes through the creation of an innovative sports and entertainment company, Dolphins Enterprises, LLC. This company now will serve as an umbrella for all of the Huizenga sports and entertainment entities. In addition, Pro Player Stadium is re-named Dolphins Stadium. Improvements to the stadium include a remodeled club level and luxury suites, improved traffic flow, additional parking and state-of-art scoreboards.

Jan. 10 – Derek Dooley, Will Muschamp and Bobby Williams, all of whom were on Nick Saban's staff at LSU in 2004, are named as assistants on the Dolphins' staff. Scott O'Brien, the special teams coach with Carolina the past six seasons, is named Coordinator of Football Operations. Jim Bates informs Nick Saban that he will not be returning to the Dolphins' coaching staff in 2005.

Jan. 13 – Former Dallas Cowboys and NFL executive Joe Bailey is named Chief Executive Officer of Dolphins Enterprises, LLC.

Jan. 19 – Former Minnesota Vikings offensive coordinator Scott Linehan is named to the same post with the Dolphins. George Edwards, Travis Jones and Dan Quinn all are named assistants on the defensive side of the ball.

Jan. 25 – Charlie Baggett is named wide receivers coach and Hudson Houck is named offensive line coach. Baggett had held the same position with the Minnesota Vikings for the previous five seasons, while Houck had tutored the offensive line of the San Diego Chargers since 2002.

Feb. 2 – Jason Garrett, who concluded his 12-year career as a player by spending the final six games of 2004 with the Dolphins, is named the team's quarterbacks coach.

Feb. 5 – In his first year of eligibility, former quarterback Dan Marino is one of four elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, becoming the ninth former Dolphin to earn this honor.

Feb. 14 – Tim Davis is named assistant offensive line coach and Bert Hill is named associate strength coach.

March 1 – Richard Smith is named defensive coordinator. Smith had been the assistant head coach/linebackers with the Detroit Lions for the past two seasons. In addition, Dolphins Head Coach Nick Saban announces the assignments of several coaches who had previously been hired to the staff; Derek Dooley-tight ends, George Edwards-linebackers, Travis Jones-assistant defensive line, Will Muschamp-assistant head coach/defense, Dan Quinn-defensive line, Bobby Williams-running backs. Among his responsibilities, Muschamp will work with the team's safeties and the nickel package.

March 15 – The Dolphins enter into a multi-year partnership with 790 The Ticket, in which the station will serve as the team's flagship through at least the 2006 season.

June 3 – General Manager Rick Spielman announces that he is leaving the organization.

June 6 – The Dolphins announce the hiring of Randy Mueller as general manager.

June 8 – The Dolphins waive/fail physical DT Tim Bowens, the team's first-round draft choice in 1994, paving the way for him to retire as a Dolphin. Bowens had been the last tie to the Don Shula-era. At the team's annual Awards Banquet, it is announced that the Leadership Award is renamed the "Don Shula Leadership Award." In addition, former team President Eddie Jones is named the first winner of the new "Winning Edge Award."

June 9 – Former tackle Richmond Webb signs a one-day contract with the team, allowing him to retire as a Dolphin.

July 14 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore is added to the Dolphins radio broadcast team on 790 The Ticket as the sideline reporter. He joins fellow former Dolphins Jimmy Cefalo (play-by-play) and Joe Rose (analyst), as the Dolphins become the only NFL team to have three alumni on their game broadcasts.

July 25 – The team conducts its initial training camp practice under first-year Head Coach Nick Saban. Among the 90 players in attendance is running back Ricky Williams, who returns to the team following a one-year retirement.

Aug. 7 – QB Dan Marino becomes the ninth former Dolphin and eighth player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Game in Canton. More than 20,000 – most of whom were Marino fans – pack Fawcett Stadium. Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga flies team employees and their families to Canton for the ceremonies.

Sept. 11 – The Dolphins defeat the Denver Broncos, 34-10, at Dolphins Stadium as Nick Saban records his first win as an NFL Head Coach.

Oct. 6 – Dolphins Stadium is awarded Super Bowl XLIV following the 2009 season, the second time in a matter of four years and the 10th time overall that the Super Bowl will have been staged in South Florida.

Oct. 7 – The Dolphins announce that the busts of their nine Hall of Famers will be on display at Dolphins Stadium from October 22-29 as part of the newly created "Gallery of Legends."

Oct. 20 – The impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma forces the Dolphins to move their Sunday, October 23 home against the Kansas City Chiefs up two days to Friday, October 21 at 7:00 p.m. It is the third time in two years that the Dolphins have had either the date or time of a home game altered because of a hurricane. The opening of the "Gallery of Legends," slated for October 22, also is postponed.

Nov. 2 – The "Gallery of Legends" makes its public debut at Dolphins Stadium.

Nov. 6 – At halftime of the Dolphins' game against the Atlanta Falcons at Dolphins Stadium, Dan Marino is presented with his Hall of Fame ring, an event that originally was scheduled to take place at the October 23 game against Kansas City, but postponed because of Hurricane Wilma.

Dec. 4 – Trailing the Buffalo Bills 21-0 in the second quarter, the Dolphins go on to score 24 of the game's next 26 points, including 21 in the fourth quarter, as they register the second-largest comeback win in team history, 24-23. Chris Chambers highlights the victory as he sets Dolphins single-game records for both receptions (15) and receiving yards (238).

Dec. 11 – The Dolphins earn a 23-21 victory over the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium. It marks Miami's second win on the West Coast in a matter of three weeks, as they recorded a 33-21 victory over the Raiders in Oakland on November 27. It is the first time in team history that they have won two road games in the Pacific Time Zone in the same season.

Dec. 21 – WR Chris Chambers, DE Jason Taylor and LB Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. For Thomas, it is the sixth selection of his career, the most of any defender in Dolphins history.

Jan. 10 – Bryan Wiedmeier is elevated to President/COO of the Miami Dolphins. Wiedmeier had served the club since 1981, including the last four years as Executive Vice President/COO.

Jan. 22 – Former Buffalo Bills Head Coach Mike Mularkey is named offensive coordinator, taking over for Scott Linehan, who after just one year in his post with the Dolphins, was named head coach with the St. Louis Rams.

Jan. 24 – Former Carolina Panthers and Houston Texans Head Coach Dom Capers joins the Dolphins staff as a special assistant to Head Coach Nick Saban.

Apr. 8 – In conjunction with Season Ticket Holder Appreciation Day, Dolphins Enterprises CEO Joe Bailey announces a major repositioning of Dolphins Stadium. Anchored by the unveiling of a new stadium logo and the world's largest hi-definition video boards, the announcement included renamaing the stadium "Dolphin Stadium" and a marketing strategy that will position the stadium to be one of the world's leading sports and entertainment facilities.

Apr. 25 – The NFL announces that running back Ricky Williams will be suspended for at least one year for violating the league's substance abuse policy.

Nov. 5 – In a 31-13 win over the previously unbeaten Chicago Bears (7-0) at Soldier Field, Jason Taylor records a sack of Bears QB Rex Grossman, giving him 100.5 for his career, as he becomes the 23rd NFL player to register 100 sacks since the statistic became official in 1982.

Nov. 12 – In a 13-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Dolphin Stadium, kicker Olindo Mare boots a 22-yard field goal, making him the first player in team history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

Nov. 19 – Jason Taylor scores on a 51-yard interception return to lead the Dolphins to a 24-20 win over the Minnesota Vikings at Dolphin Stadium. Taylor's touchdown in the seventh of his career, which ties George Martin's NFL record for most career touchdowns by a defensive lineman. Taylor's interception return for a score, coupled with safety Renaldo Hill's 48-yard fumble return for a touchdown, marks just the second time in franchise history that the Dolphins have had a fumble return for a touchdown and an interception return for a touchdown in the same game.

Dec. 3 – At halftime ceremonies of a 24-10 loss to Jacksonville at Dolphin Stadium, former safety Dick Anderson becomes the 16th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 10 – Miami's 21-0 win over the Patriots is the 25th shutout in Dolphins history and the first since the 2000 opener, on September 3, when they recorded a 23-0 win over Seattle. It also represents the second shutout by the Dolphins over the Patriots. On November 12, 1972, they registered a 52-0 win at the Orange Bowl. It marks the Dolphins' second win over a team who would go on to play in a conference championship game following the 2006 season, as New England was defeated by Indianapolis, and Chicago earned a win over New Orleans.

Dec. 19 – Linebacker Zach Thomas and defensive end Jason Taylor are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. For Thomas, it is the seventh such honor of his career, tying him with Richmond Webb for the second-most selections in franchise history. It is the fifth time that Taylor has been chosen, tying him for the second-most selections for a Dolphins defender.

Dec. 25 – At halftime ceremonies of a 13-10 loss to the Jets at Dolphin Stadium, former tackle Richmond Webb becomes the 17th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Jan. 3 – Head Coach Nick Saban resigns his post with the Dolphins after accepting the same position at University of Alabama.

Jan. 5 – Defensive end Jason Taylor is named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the third Dolphin to earn that honor, joining safety Dick Anderson (1973) and defensive end Doug Betters (1983).

Jan. 19 – Cam Cameron, the offensive coordinator with the San Diego Chargers since 2002, is named the seventh head coach in Dolphins history.

Jan. 24 – Dom Capers signs a contract extension with the team and is named defensive coordinator. Keith Armstrong, special teams coach since 2001, signs a contract extension and is named special teams coordinator. Terry Robiskie is named wide receivers coach and Brett Maxie is named safeties coach.

Feb. 2 – At an international press conference at the Miami Beach Convention Center, it is announced that the Dolphins will take part in the first-ever NFL regular season game to be staged outside of North America, as they will face the New York Giants on October 28, 2007 at London's Wembley Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Diron Reynolds is named defensive line coach, his first appointment as a position coach in the NFL after serving as a defensive quality control coach with Indianapolis since 2002. Matt Schiotz is named strength and conditioning coach after spending the previous five years as assistant strength and conditioning coach with San Diego.

Feb. 19 – Terry Shea, a former head coach at both San Jose State and Rutgers, who has been the quarterbacks coach with Kansas City Chiefs four of the previous five seasons, is hired to tutor the Dolphins quarterbacks.

Mar. 16 – Dennis Sym, more commonly known to Dolphins Fans as "Dolfan Denny' dies at the age of 72. Sym led Miami crowds in cheers and chants in his glittering orange and aqua hat from the Dolphins' first game in 1966, starting in the stands. In 1976, then team owner Joe Robbie asked Denny to move down to the field as the team's official motivator. Sym retired in 2000.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs) — Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 — Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFLs scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0 Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972 Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. “My eyes were popping as I ran,” Anderson said. “I’ve never seen so many people land on their heads.” Before Anderson’s convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin nine in the second quarter. Jim O’Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

January 16, 1972 — New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972 — Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972 — Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

January 14, 1973 Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16 Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973 Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10 Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973 Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7 Rice Stadium
January 13, 1974 Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

December 21, 1974 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

December 24, 1978 — Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

STEELERS 34, DOLPHINS 14 Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT) Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

January 8, 1983 Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

January 16, 1983 Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

January 23, 1983 Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

January 30, 1983 — Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20 Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami s Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10 Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 45, STEELERS 28 Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16 Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985 Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21 — Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986 — Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14 — Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986 — Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 5, 1991 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34 Rich Stadium
January 12, 1991 Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an

AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 10, 1993 Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 17, 1993 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

December 31, 1994 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21 Jack Murphy Stadium
January 8, 1995 San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22 Rich Stadium
December 30, 1995 Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead enroute to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with current teammate Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a short three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins than attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3 Foxboro Stadium
December 28, 1997 Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. Marino's 13 straight playoff games with a touchdown is an NFL record. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Corey Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Chris Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions - getting as far as the 45 and 43 - but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17 Pro Player Stadium
January 2, 1999 Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1998 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BRONCOS 38, DOLPHINS 3 Mile High Stadium
January 9, 1999 Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17 Kingdome
January 9, 2000 Seattle, WA

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Overall on the day, the Dolphins outgained Seattle by a 299-171 margin. They rushed for 108 yards while limiting the Seahawks to just 41 yards. The Dolphins held the ball for 34:48. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong. Johnson finished the game with 86 yards rushing and a touchdown on 27 attempts. McDuffie and Martin each caught five passes.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7 ALLTEL Stadium
January 15, 2000 Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins allowed the most point in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami has ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT) Pro Player Stadium
December 30, 2000 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' four. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2000 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 27, DOLPHINS 0 Network Associates Coliseum
January 6, 2001 Oakland, CA

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The score occurred after the Dolphins were at the Raiders' 16. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The 12-play, 78-yard drive was highlighted by a 32-yard catch-and-run by Terry Kirby to midfield. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. Of the 43 yards on the march, Gannon scrambled for 19 yards. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Gannon threw for 32 yards on the march, including a 12-yard completion to Tim Brown on third-and-seven, one play prior to the touchdown.

2001 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3 Pro Player Stadium
January 13, 2002 Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grabc hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

1984 DOLPHINS OFFENSE IS BEST IN NFL

In the 1984 season, the Dolphins established a number of NFL season records, including most yards gained (6,936), most yards gained by passing (5,018), most first downs (387), most touchdowns (70), most passing touchdowns (49) and most PATs (66). Four of the six marks still stand as NFL records. The only exceptions are yards gained passing, which was eclipsed by the 2000 St. Louis Rams (5,232), and passing touchdowns, which was surpassed by the 2004 Indianapolis Colts (51).

DOLPHINS PRO BOWL TOUCHDOWNS

In the 2006 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Chris Chambers scored on a 16-yard reception from Peyton Manning in the first quarter to open the game's scoring. In the process, Chambers became the fifth Dolphin to account for a touchdown in the NFL's annual All-Star contest. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphin to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was running back Ricky Williams, who scored on a pair of one-yard runs as he was named the MVP in the AFC's 45-20 route of the NFC in the 2003 game. The others who have achieved this feat are wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game. tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a five-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

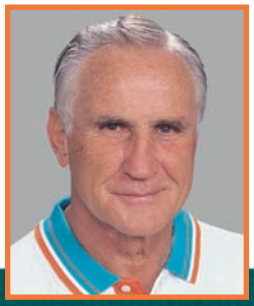
CHIPS OFF THE OLD BLOCK

The Dolphins' 2007 training camp roster consists of no less than five players whose fathers played professional sports. T L.J. Shelton's father, Lonnie, played ten seasons in the NBA (1976-86). LB Channing Crowder is the son of Randy Crowder, who played defensive tackle with the Dolphins and Buccaneers from 1975-80. S David Lofton is the son of Hall of Fame wide receiver James Lofton, who had a 16-year NFL career (1978-93) with Green Bay, the Raiders, Buffalo, Philadelphia and the Rams. WR Michael Malone is the son of Moses Malone, who had a 21-year career in professional basketball as a center in the ABA (1974-76) and the NBA (1976-95), and was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 2001. G Dan Stevenson's father, Mark, was an offensive lineman with the Detroit Lions in 1985.

DON SHULA



HEAD COACH/VICE CHAIRMAN

Born: 1/4/30
College: John Carroll '51
Player: 1951-57
Assistant Coach: 1960-62
Head Coach: 1963-95
Dolphins Head Coach: 1970-95
Year Inducted: 1997

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

Starting with the 1996 season, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 38th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium on November 25, 1996.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995 he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (1976, 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He was the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was further honored by being selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little, and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way, and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami, and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful enterprises, Don Shula's Hotel and Golf Club along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's oldest son Dave, 48, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher, and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 42, currently serves as the quarterbacks coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent the previous four seasons as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke Dorothy and Ryan Lucy.

Mike and Dave Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon resides in New York, while youngest daughter Annie lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on October 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children and 16 grandchildren.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

NICK BUONICONTI 85

LINEBACKER

Born: 1/15/40
College: Notre Dame '62
NFL: 1962-76
Dolphins: 1969-76
Year Inducted: 2001

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The first member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was named the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973) and was named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

Year Inducted: 1987

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which placed him sixth on the league's all-time rushing list when he retired, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on December 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired.

BOB GRIESE 12

QUARTERBACK

Born: 2/3/45
College: Purdue '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1967-80
Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team's annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium.

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER 62

CENTER

Born: 5/16/48
College: South Dakota State '70
NFL: 1970-81
Dolphins: 1970-79
Year Inducted: 1987

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts (a record since broken by Richmond Webb in 1997). Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium.

LARRY LITTLE 66

GUARD

Born: 11/2/45
College: Bethune-Cookman '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1969-80
Year Inducted: 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium.

ALTERNATIVE JERSEY

In a 24-23 win over Washington on November 23, 2003 at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins donned orange jerseys for the first time in franchise history. In fact, it marked the first occasion that they have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua. In 2004, they boosted their record in orange jerseys to 2-0 when they defeated the New England Patriots, 29-28, on December 20 at Pro Player Stadium, in a Monday night game.

DAN MARINO 13

QUARTERBACK

Born: 9/15/61
College: Pittsburgh '83
NFL: 1983-99
Dolphins: 1983-99
Year Inducted: 2005

Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 5, 2005 and enshrined on August 7, 2005 . . . Others included in the Class of 2005 were Steve Young, Benny Friedman and Fritz Pollard . . . Marino became the ninth member of the Miami Dolphins to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame, joining Don Shula (1997), Nick Buoniconti (2001), Larry Csonka (1987), Bob Griese (1990), Jim Langer (1987), Larry Little (1993), Dwight Stephenson (1998), and Paul Warfield (1983) . . . Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphin uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Dolphin Stadium . . . He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date . . . The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975 . . . He announced his retirement on March 13, 2000 . . . Marino ranks among the NFL's all-time top ranked passers . . . In his 17-year career, Marino played in 242 games (240 starts) and he was 4967-8358 (59.4%) for 61,361 yards, 420 touchdowns, and 252 interceptions for an 86.4 passing efficiency rating, which ranked fourth among the all-time passing leaders when he retired . . . Marino holds 38 Dolphins regular season team records (50 overall, including playoffs) and is tied for four others (six, including playoffs) . . . He holds 16 NFL regular season records and is tied for four others . . . .

AMONG NFL LEADERS: With a career passing efficiency of 86.4, Marino currently ranks tied for 11th on the all-time list of passers:

In his career, with 8,358 attempts, Marino ranks first in NFL history in pass attempts, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 6,467 attempts on December 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City . . . With 4,967 pass completions, Marino ranks second in NFL history in completions, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 3,686 completions on October 8, 1995 vs. Indianapolis, before Favre broke that mark in 2006 . . . With 61,361 yards passing, Marino ranks first in NFL history in total yards passing, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 47,003 passing yards on November 12, 1995 vs. New England on a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter . . . With 420 touchdown passes, Marino ranks first in NFL history in touchdown passes, breaking Tarkenton's NFL record of 342 TD passes with a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars in the second quarter on November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis . . .

YARDAGE: Marino's 61,361 yards passing rank first on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list . . . On October 17, 1999 at New England, Marino's eight yard pass to Tony Martin (his only completion of the game) made him the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for 60,000 career yards . . . On November 12, 1995 vs. New England, with a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter, Marino passed Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards), breaking Tarkenton's NFL record for most career passing yards and moving into first place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list:

Marino reached the 50,000, 40,000 and 30,000 yards passing plateaus faster than any quarterback in NFL history . . . In 1984, Marino set an NFL record for most yards passing in a single season with 5,084 yards . . . He broke the former record of 4,802 yards passing, which was set by Dan Fouts of the San Diego Chargers in 1981 . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to throw for 5,000 or more yards (once) . . . Marino (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) and Peyton Manning (1999-2004, 2006) are the only quarterbacks in NFL history to have six or more 4,000-yard seasons . . . Manning broke Marino's record of six 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2006 . . . Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95), Brett Favre (four, 1995, 1998-99, 2004), Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81), Drew Bledsoe (three, 1994, 1996, 2002), Trent Green (three, 2003-05), Steve Young (two, 1993, 1998) and Kurt Warner (two, 1999, 2001) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts, Green and Manning, Marino is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three or more straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino passed for 3,000 or more yards 13 times (1984-92, 1994-95, 1997-98) in his 17 seasons in the NFL and is second behind Brett Favre (1992-2006) for the most 3,000-yard seasons in NFL history . . . Favre broke Marino's record in 2005 . . . When he went over the 3,000-yard passing mark on December 21, 1998 vs. Denver, it marked the 13th time Marino passed for 3,000 or more yards, breaking his tie with John Elway and re-setting the NFL record for most

3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino originally set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards before Elway tied that record in 1996 . . . Before setting that NFL record, Marino had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino extended that mark to 11 seasons before being tied by Elway in 1996, and Marino held the NFL record alone by extending that mark to 13 seasons until Favre broke it in 2005 . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five times during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino had 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins were 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) . . . Marino had 63 career regular season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 63 career 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games . . . He broke Dan Fouts' former NFL record of 51 career 300-yard games on December 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta when Marino had 343 yards passing, the 52nd regular season game of 300 or more yards passing in his career . . . Marino tied Fouts' record of 51 regular season career 300-yard games when he had 333 yards passing on November 12, 1995 vs. New England . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 41 of the top 50 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 67 of the 85 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record vs. San Francisco on November 20, 1995, with a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter . . . On November 29, 1998 vs. New Orleans, Marino's seven-yard touchdown pass to O.J. McDuffie was the 400th TD pass of his career, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 400 touchdown passes . . . Marino recorded 420 touchdown passes in his career:

Overall in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in 62 games (67, including playoffs), and he was 41-21 in those contests (44-23 including post-season games) . . . Marino threw for 20 or more TD passes in 13 of his 17 years in the NFL . . . The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1999, 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons . . . In 1991, Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first ten NFL seasons and is one of two players (along with Brett Favre) to throw 20 or more TD passes in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino threw for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is second to Brett Favre (eight, 1994-98, 2001, 2003-04) for the NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more touchdowns in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . . In 1984, Marino threw for 48 touchdown passes, breaking the former NFL record of 36 TD passes that was set by George Blanda of the Houston Oilers in 1961 and tied by Y.A. Tittle of the New York Giants in 1963 . . . Marino's record was broken by Peyton Manning of the Indianapolis Colts, who threw for 49 touchdown in 2004 . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds 16 NFL regular season records and is tied for four others . . . In addition to the above records for attempts and yardage, Marino holds NFL single-season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, 1992, and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (five) . . . He had previously been tied with three other quarterbacks (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who led the NFL in that category four times each . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988, 1992 and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (six) . . . He had previously been tied with Sammy Baugh, who led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . .

COMEBACKS: Over the course of Marino's 17-year career with the Dolphins, he brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 37 times, with 21 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 16 on the road . . . Included in that total were three playoff games in which Marino led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . Marino's total of 37 fourth-quarter comeback wins does NOT include 13 additional games, (12 in the regular season and one in the playoffs), that Marino won when the Dolphins were tied (but never did trail) in the fourth quarter, ten at home (one playoff contest and nine regular season games) and three on the road; If those 13 fourth-quarter tied situations are included, then Marino led the Dolphins on a total of 50 game-winning drives (31 at home and 19 on the road) . . . With 37 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second in that category: Denver's John Elway has 43 final period come-from behind wins . . . In Marino's 37 career fourth quarter comebacks, he completed 280 of 441 passes (63.5%) for 3,710 yards with 29 touchdowns and eight INTs in the final stanza for a rating of 104.4 . . .

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD: On January 28, 1999, Marino was named as the 1998 Sprint/NFL Man of the Year . . . It is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes player community service as well as excellence on the field . . . Off the field, Marino established the Dan Marino Foundation, which was created to benefit children's charities in South Florida . . . He hosted events throughout the year to raise money for the foundation . . . One major project was the Miami Children's Hospital/Dan Marino Center in Weston, Florida that opened in 1998 and offers comprehensive health care to children with chronic medical needs . . . Marino also spearheaded the Dolphins' annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway each year in conjunction with the Daily Bread Food Bank . . . Marino was the Dolphins' United Way representative from 1994-96 and has been a strong supporter of their programs . . . In 1998, Marino was chosen as one of three national spokesmen for the NFL's 25-year anniversary with United Way . . .

Marino became the second Dolphin player to win the NFL Man of the Year Award; Dwight Stephenson won that honor in 1985 . . .

PRO BOWL: Marino was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), including seven as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he was able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections set a Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts set a Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . . Marino was first selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad following his rookie season of 1983 . . . He did not play in the game, however, because of injury . . . On the date the 1984 game was played (January 29), he would have been the youngest quarterback ever to partake in the contest:

DWIGHT STEPHENSON 57

CENTER

Born: 11/20/57
College: Alabama '80
NFL: 1980-87
Year Inducted: 1998

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium.

PAUL WARFIELD 42

WIDE RECEIVER

Born: 11/28/42
College: Ohio State '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
Year Inducted: 1983

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him 18th on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. His 85 touchdown catches at the time of his retirement were tied for the third-highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Dolphin Stadium.

OTHER DOLPHINS HALL OF FAMERS

Thurman Thomas

Running Back Year Inducted: 2007
NFL Career: 1988-2000 Dolphins: 2000

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries and caught 16 passes for 117 yards and a TD. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on November 12.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts, and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards and 23 touchdowns. His rushing total ranks ninth in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage are eighth-most and seventh among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on February 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Texas, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

DOLPHINS RETIRED JERSEYS

Bob Griese #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

Dan Marino #13

Dan Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphin uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Dolphin Stadium. He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date. Marino was furthered honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975.

For a full bio of Marino, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

Larry Csonka #39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears at Dolphin Stadium on December 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

ALL-COMMUNITY TEAM

For the second straight season in 2006, many Miami Dolphins players and coaches made the dreams of underprivileged children come true through team's "All-Community Team" (A.C.T.) Program.

The Dolphins "All-Community Team" program allowed players and coaches to purchase a block of tickets to all Miami Dolphins regular season home games and donate them to a charitable organization of their choice. Their chosen charities then distribute the tickets to youth groups or others associated with the organization so the recipients have the chance to experience a Dolphins game at Dolphin Stadium.

After scoring a touchdown against the Broncos on September 11, 2005, Marty Booker celebrates in front of his "Booker's Bunch" sign.

For every home game, the players and coaches treated each of the 360 guests of the "All-Community Team" with a game-day ticket, a t-shirt with the name of their player group, an in-game public address announcement and scoreboard mention in addition to a voucher good for popcorn and a soft drink, courtesy of Boston Culinary Group.

The following are the Dolphins players and coaches who participated in the "All-Community Team" in 2006, and the organizations that they benefited.

DOLPHINS IN LONDON

On February 2, 2007, National Football League Commissioner Roger Goodell announced that the Miami Dolphins would face the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium in the first NFL regular-season game to be played outside of North America. The game will be played on Sunday, October 28 – in Week 8 of the 2007 season – and will kick off at 1:00 p.m. (ET) in Miami (5:00 p.m. in London). The Giants-Dolphins game will be shown live in the United States on FOX-TV. Both teams will have a bye scheduled for the following week.

Wembley Stadium re-opened in 2007, resuming its position as the home of English soccer, as well as the site of other major sporting events and music concerts. The old Wembley, closed in 2000, hosted its first NFL preseason game in 1983 and eight NFL American Bowl games from 1986-93.

"The international popularity of the NFL grows every year," said Goodell in announcing the teams and stadium for the game. "That interest can be seen as the far corners of the world watch the Super Bowl. That is a fascination we will build upon. London and its international stature adds to the impact of the game."

"The Dolphins are proud to be a part of such a historic occasion," said Miami owner H. Wayne Huizenga. "We were one of the first NFL teams to play in the United Kingdom with our American Bowl appearance in London in 1988. Dolphins games always have been among the most popular NFL telecasts in England. We have a great following there, including fan clubs throughout the country. We look forward to playing in front of our overseas fans, as well as our U.S. supporters who will make the trip overseas."

Wembley Stadium

In their history, the Dolphins have played four games outside the U.S. – all in preseason – and have emerged victorious in all four. These consist of games in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997).

NO OVERTIME

Entering 2007, the Dolphins have not played an overtime contest in three straight seasons and 54 games in a row overall, dating back to 2003. The last time the Dolphins were involved in a game that went into overtime was on November 16, 2003 when they came away with a 9-6 victory over the Baltimore Ravens in Miami. This streak is the longest the Dolphins have gone without playing an overtime contest since the NFL instituted them in the regular season in 1974, breaking the old mark of 49 games between 1976-79. In fact, since 1974, there has been only one other time that the Dolphins have gone two or more straight seasons without playing an overtime game, with that occurring

THOUGH SHALT NOT RUN

Over the last two seasons – led by the likes of Jason Taylor, Vonnie Holliday and Keith Traylor – the Dolphins have boasted one of the stingiest run defenses in the NFL. Over this time, the Dolphins have permitted an average of only 105.9 yards rushing per game while they have allowed just four individual 100-yard rushing performances in these 32 contests. Over this span, opponents have put together an average per carry of 3.6, the fourth-best defensive effort in the NFL over the past two years, trailing only Pittsburgh (3.4), Minnesota (3.5) and Baltimore (3.5). In addition, it represents the best two-year mark in the Dolphins' 41-year history.

• The Dolphins own a 4-2 series advantage over Baltimore, including a 4-1 mark in the regular season.

• Baltimore won the most recent meeting in the series, 30-23, on January 2, 2005 to close out the 2004 season. It marked the Ravens' first regular-season victory over the Dolphins, and second overall, including a 20-3 Wild Card Playoff win at Miami, on January 13, 2002.

• The Dolphins' last win in the series came on November 16, 2003, in the last game between the teams played at Dolphin Stadium. In that contest, Olindo Mare's 43-yard field goal with 8:48 remaining in overtime, his third of the game, broke a 6-6 tie. The winning score was set up when Zach Thomas recovered a Jamal Lewis fumble at the Ravens' 33 yard line. The Dolphins have not played an overtime game since.

• The Bills swept the season series in 2006 with a 16-6 win at Miami on September 17 and a 21-0 victory at Buffalo on December 17. It was the seventh time in eight years that a team swept the season series with Bills having done it four times and the Dolphins three.

• In the game at Buffalo, Bills quarterback JP Losman completed 13 of 19 passes for 200 yards and three touchdowns, while the Dolphins were held scoreless in a game for the first time since November 20, 2005 at Cleveland.

• Miami leads the all-time regular season series by a 49-32-1 margin. The Dolphins own a 22-20 advantage at Ralph Wilson Stadium and 28-13-1 mark at home. Miami has lost both postseason contests at Buffalo, while the teams have split two at Miami.

• The Bills have won the five of the last six meetings overall and the last three at Buffalo.

• In their 41-year history playing each other, the Dolphins have swept the regular season series on 19 occasions, while the Bills have done so 10 times.

• Miami set the NFL record for consecutive wins over one team with 20 against Buffalo from 1970-79.

• This will be the first meeting between these teams since a Sunday night contest on September 19, 2004, when the Bengals prevailed, 16-13, at Paul Brown Stadium. Shayne Graham's 39-yard field goal with two seconds remaining gave Cincinnati its lone victory over the Dolphins in the last 10 meetings.

• Overall, Miami owns a 13-4 advantage over Cincinnati, including a 1-0 record in the postseason.

• The Bengals have not visited Miami since losing, 37-13, on December 9, 1991. Their lone road win in this series came on November 17, 1968 at the Orange Bowl, by a 38-21 count.

• Miami owns a 7-4 advantage in this series, including a 7-3 mark in the regular season. Dallas captured the first meeting between the teams in Super Bowl VI, by a 24-3 margin.

• The Cowboys have not visited South Florida since October 26, 1996, when they prevailed, 29-10. In fact, that contest was the only one between the two teams to take place at Dolphin Stadium. Prior to that meeting, the last time the Dolphins hosted the Cowboys was on December 17, 1984, when Miami prevailed, 28-21.

• The Dolphins won the last meeting between the two teams, 40-21, in a Thanksgiving Day game at Dallas in 2003. On the afternoon, Dolphins quarterback Jay Fiedler was 16-20 for 239 yards and three touchdowns in a performance that earned him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Chris Chambers was on the receiving end on all three touchdowns and finished with 96 receiving yards.

• This will be the third meeting between these two franchises as Houston remains the only NFL team the Dolphins have never defeated (0-2). In a contest last year, the first ever regular season meeting between these clubs at Houston, the Texans won 13-10.

• The teams played the inaugural game at Reliant Stadium, a preseason contest on August 24, 2002 when the Dolphins prevailed, 24-3.

• The Texans won the first regular season meeting between these franchises, on September 7, 2003. In that season-opener, Houston left Miami with a 21-20 victory, the first opener the Dolphins had lost in 12 years.

• The last time the Dolphins won a regular season game in the city of Houston was on November 17, 1996 when they defeated the Houston Oilers (now Tennessee Titans), 23-20 at the Astrodome. Then-rookie linebacker Zach Thomas scored his first NFL touchdown when he intercepted a Chris Chandler pass and returned it 26 yards to the end zone. Miami was 6-5 at the Houston Oilers before the franchise relocated.

• The Dolphins began playing the Patriots twice a year during the regular season in 1967 and have swept the regular season series 13 times, while New England has owned the series on five occasions, all coming since 1986. Miami and New England have split the season series 21 times, including the last three seasons. In 1966 and 1982, the teams faced off only once during the regular season, with the Patriots emerging victorious on both occasions. The Dolphins lead the regular season series 47-33, while the Patriots hold a 2-1 advantage in postseason contests.

• Overall, the Dolphins are 32-9 against the Patriots in games decided in Miami, including a 31-8 mark in the regular season. Their record versus New England at Dolphin Stadium is 14-6. The Dolphins are 16-24 against the Patriots in New England during the regular season, including a 1-4 register at Gillette Stadium.

• The Dolphins are the only team to have beaten the Patriots each of the last three seasons, due in large part to limiting New England quarterback Tom Brady. In the last six meetings with the Dolphins, Brady has completed 77 of 146 passes (52.7%) for 777 yards, with 10 touchdowns and eight interceptions, for a 68.2 rating. The Dolphins have also sacked the Patriots' signal caller 10 times in that span. In comparison, overall in the last three regular seasons, Brady averages completing 61.9 percent of his passes for 236 yards a game and a passer rating of 90.9.

• Miami leads the all-time series by a 7-4 margin, despite losing the last meeting on December 15, 2003 at Dolphin Stadium. In that Monday night contest, the Eagles triumphed, 34-27, led by Brian Westbrook's 104 yards from scrimmage and two scores on only 11 touches. One of those was a 25-yard touchdown reception from wide receiver Freddie Mitchell that put the Eagles ahead for good.

• This contest will mark the Dolphins' first trip to Lincoln Financial Field. The Eagles hold a 3-2 advantage in games played in Philadelphia, all at Veteran Stadium.

• The teams have not met in Philadelphia since October 20, 1996, when the Eagles were victorious, 35-28.

• In the meeting prior to that, on November 14, 1996, the Dolphins won, 19-14, at Philadelphia, giving Don Shula his 325th career victory, the most-ever for an NFL head coach.

• Each of the last five meetings between these teams, and eight of the 11 games overall, have been decided by seven points or less.

• These two teams opened up the 2006 NFL regular season with a nationally-televised contest on September 7. The Steelers overcame a 17-14 deficit with 14 fourth-quarter points to prevail, 28-17.

• This will be the third straight year the teams have met after going five seasons without playing.

• The game will match two of the league' most storied franchises and its two winningest in the regular season since the 1970 merger. The Dolphins (353-213-2, .623) rank No. 1, followed by Pittsburgh (341-225-2, .605).

• The regular season series is tied at nine wins apiece. Miami holds a 2-1 postseason advantage over Pittsburgh. Their two playoff victories over the Steelers came in AFC Championship games, propelling them to Super Bowls following the 1972 and 1984 seasons.

• The Dolphins' last win at Pittsburgh came on September 30, 1990 when the defense held the Steelers to 160 yards in a 28-6 win. Tim McKyer had two interceptions and Jeff Cross had three sacks to lead the effort.

• The Dolphins lead the all-time preseason series with the Bucs, 14-7. The 14 wins are the most Miami has recorded over any opponent in the preseason.

• This will mark the eighth straight year, the 15th time in the last 17 years and the 22nd occasion overall that these teams have met in the preseason, which makes Tampa Bay the Dolphins' most common preseason opponent.

• Miami won last year's game, 13-10, at Raymond James Stadium, their second straight victory in the preseason series.

• The Buccaneers last prevailed in the preseason series, 17-10, on August 28, 2004 at Raymond James Stadium.

• The teams have split eight regular season matchups. Tampa Bay has won the last three meetings, including a 27-13 win on October 16, 2005 at Raymond James Stadium. The Dolphins' last win came on December 1, 1991 when running back Mark Higgs recorded 131 rushing yards, wide receiver Tony Martin caught five passes for 106 yards and Dan Marino threw for 307 yards. Miami's last regular season victory at Tampa was on October 30, 1988, when the Dolphins won, 17-14. The Buccaneers own a 2-1 advantage at home against Miami in the regular season.

• The Dolphins lead the all-time series, 7-4, and won the most recent meeting, 24-23, in a Sunday night contest on October 23, 2003. That game was the first for the Dolphins wearing their alternate orange jerseys. Jay Fiedler came off the bench in the second half to spark a 14-point fourth quarter comeback in which Ricky Williams ran for a pair of touchdowns. Williams finished with 107 yards on 23 carries, while Jason Taylor registered two sacks.

• The Redskins won last meeting at FedEx Field, 21-10, on January 2, 2000.

• Miami and Washington have squared off in two Super Bowls. The Dolphins won Super Bowl VII on January 14, 1973, by a 14-7 score to preserve the NFL's only perfect season. The teams battled again for the NFL crown in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, with Washington winning the contest by a 27-17 score.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WQAM (560 AM)

The 2007 Miami Dolphins season marks the return of WQAM (560 AM) as the team's flagship station for the Dolphins Radio Network. WQAM and the team announced a multi-year partnership on April 23, 2007 that allows the station exclusive broadcasting rights of Dolphin games through at least the 2009 season. Previously, WQAM had served as the team's flagship station for eight years, from 1997 through 2004.

Handling the play-by-play and serving as the "Voice of the Dolphins" on WQAM's broadcasts will be ex-Dolphins wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo. He will be joined by another Dolphin alumnus, tight end Jim Mandich, who is returning to his former role as the broadcast's color analyst, making that duo one of only three NFL broadcast teams (along with the Denver Broncos and Seattle Seahawks) to feature former players in both broadcast roles.

While Cefalo begins his third season as the team's play-by-play announcer, he certainly is well-known as both a broadcaster and a former Dolphins player. For many years he served as the sports anchor for WPLG-TV (Channel 10), first joining that station in October of 1992 as the host of Sports Monday. Since then he became the sports anchor for Local 10 News Monday through Friday and anchored the station's popular "Sports Jam Live," which aired on Sunday nights. He also co-hosts a daily Dolphins show on WQAM.

Before joining WPLG, Cefalo assembled a long list of impressive broadcast credentials. He is best known for his work as a color analyst on NBC's network telecasts of the NFL and also served as a correspondent for NBC News on the "Today Show," sports anchor for "NBC News at Sunrise" and co-host of NBC's broadcast of the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul. Cefalo also co-hosted "PM Magazine" and "AM South Florida" on WTVJ-TV and hosted the "Trump Card" game show nationally distributed by Warner Brothers Television.

In 1988, Cefalo snared an Emmy for his writing on NBC's Olympic telecasts. In addition, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association named him Florida Sportscaster of the Year six times (1998, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005).

Prior to his broadcasting career, Cefalo played seven seasons with the Dolphins (1978-84) as a wide receiver, and finished with 93 catches for 1,739 yards and 13 touchdowns. His best season came in 1981, when he caught 29 passes for 631 yards (an average of 21.8 yards per catch) and three touchdowns. He also was a member of two Dolphins Super Bowl teams, and in Super Bowl XVII against the Washington Redskins he caught a 76-yard touchdown pass from David Woodley, which at the time was the second-longest reception in Super Bowl history. Cefalo originally joined the Dolphins as a third-round draft choice in 1978 following a stellar collegiate career at Penn State.

Similarly, Mandich followed the same path from the field to the broadcast booth. While this is his first season teaming with Cefalo on Dolphin broadcasts, it is his 14th year as the team's color analyst, having served in that role from 1992 through 2004. He was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that is the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphins tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns. He ranks 27th in Dolphins team history in receiving and is tied for 22nd in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

In addition to his game broadcasts, Mandich hosts a daily talk show from 2:00-4:00 p.m. and co-hosts the "Power Hour" with Hank Goldberg from 4:00-5:00 p.m. during the week on WQAM. In the past, he also served as a sports reporter for WPLG-TV and was a regular contributor to the station's popular "Sports Jam Live" show that aired during the football season.

"Dolphins Sunday on QAM" will feature Countdown to Kickoff, a four hour pre-game show, followed by all the play-by-play action and "Fins Final", a three-hour post game show featuring locker room interviews and analysis. WQAM will also carry "The Cam Cameron Show" in-season and other special Dolphins programming year-round, highlighted by "Miami Dolphins All-Access," weekdays from 7:00-9:00 p.m. "Miami Dolphins All-Access" gives fans news, information and talk about the Dolphins and Dolphin Stadium. It will contain player interviews, NFL news and notes, the CEO Show, national guests, and high school football updates. The co-hosts will be Cefalo and Barry Buetel, the team's Director of Integrated Media.

Buetel began covering the Dolphins back in 1987 when he served as the team's sideline analyst for WIOD radio. He went on to cover the Buffalo Bills during their four straight AFC Championships in the early 1990s. He also has hosted the Arizona Cardinals radio pregame show, and has served as host of the Jacksonville Jaguars TV pregame show and co-host of the Jack Del Rio Show.

WQAM is known for its outstanding sports programming and is one of the leading sports and entertainment radio stations in the country, featuring Mandich, Goldberg, former Dolphins Pro Bowler Kim Bokamper, Orlando Alzugaray, Joe Zagacki and Neil Rogers mid-days from 10:00 a.m.- 2:00 p.m.

WQAM is also the radio home for the University of Miami football, basketball and baseball and has been so since 1999.

WQAM also will build an extensive statewide radio network, allowing Dolphin fans throughout Florida to follow the team on radio. In addition, the station will bring the strength of the Beasley Broadcast Group to the partnership by carrying special Dolphins programming and promotions on sister stations Power96 and Kiss Country 99.9 FM.

WSUA (1260 AM)

In 2007, Dolphins games, both home and away, will be broadcast in Spanish on WSUA (Radio Caracol, 1260 AM). This marks the 26th consecutive season that Dolphins games will be broadcast in Spanish.

Roly Martin, who has been part of the Spanish broadcasts of Dolphin games since 1984, is in his second season handling the play-by-play after serving as the color analyst for 21 years. Working with him will be analyst Raul Striker Jr., who joined the Dolphins' radio team last year. In addition to their broadcasts of Dolphin games on WSUA, both Martin and Striker are well-known for their extensive sports reporting on Spanish radio and television outlets in South Florida.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Three of the Dolphins' four preseason games in 2007 will be telecast on both WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami - Ft. Lauderdale and WTVX-TV (Channel 34) in West Palm Beach, while the other preseason game will be televised nationally on ESPN.

For the second consecutive year, the Dolphins open their 2007 preseason schedule by hosting the Jacksonville Jaguars at Dolphin Stadium. The game, which takes place on Saturday, August 11, at 7:30 p.m. Eastern time, will be televised live on WFOR and WTVX if it is sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis.

Five days later, on Thursday, August 16, Miami will play at Arrowhead Stadium for the first time since 2002, and the first time in the preseason since 1982, when they face the Kansas City Chiefs. Kickoff is set for 8:00 p.m. (ET) and will be televised nationally by ESPN and carried locally by WSFL-TV (Channel 39).

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers will head to Miami to face the Dolphins on Saturday, August 25 at 7:30 p.m. It will mark the eighth consecutive season and the 15th time in the last 17 years that Tampa Bay and Miami have played in the preseason. The game will be telecast live on WFOR and WTVX if sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be broadcast on a delayed basis.

The final preseason game will see the Dolphins travel to New Orleans to face the Saints on Thursday, August 30 at 8:00 p.m. (ET). That contest will be televised live on WFOR and WTVX.

For the seventh straight season, Craig Bolerjack will handle the play-by-play for the games on WFOR. He is a member of CBS Sports' NFL broadcast team and also has handled college football and basketball for that network as well as for ESPN. Joining Bolerjack as a color analyst will be former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC's lead broadcast team for college football. In addition, Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary for the three preseason games on WFOR. Kim Bokamper, a member of the WFOR Sports staff and a former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker, will continue in his role on WFOR's broadcast team as a sideline reporter.

MIAMI DOLPHINS ALL-ACCESS

Miami Dolphins All-Access is a unique partnership between the Miami Dolphins and NBC-6. The show gives Dolphins fans an exclusive look at the team both on and off the field. Miami Dolphins All-Access offers the most comprehensive coverage of the organization, taking viewers from the team's locker room to the players' living rooms. Besides just X's & O's, the show also allows fans to see the Dolphins in a non-football atmosphere, as Miami Dolphins All-Access tours players' homes and follows them as they enjoy life away from the gridiron, ranging from bowling at a local lane to their many charitable and civic activities.

Miami Dolphins All-Access, the "official" show of the Miami Dolphins, airs every Saturday

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four year stretch from 1971-74, they compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of '71, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98, before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least one week in advance to: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Dolphin Stadium, on the day of the game. ALL members of the media picking up credentials at the will call window must present a valid photo identification. In addition, all media members must show a valid photo identification upon entering the stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area. ALL photographers are required to wear a vest that must be obtained prior to the game in the Gate G lobby.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: Still photography of any kind is NOT permitted at any time in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week.

VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHY: Video photography is limited to just interviews in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week. B-roll footage is NOT permitted at any time.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Dolphin Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the elevator to the third floor. Exit elevator and the broadcast booths are to the right. For the print section, make a left and exit the broadcast booth box into the club lounge area. Go 50 yards to the staircase and go to the lower level of the club lounge. The entrance to the print press box is just beyond the bottom of the stairs. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins will be honored for admittance to Dolphin Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with a number "3" will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on the ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the print press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator, bear right and go through the double doors to the corridor. Go straight to the main corridor and turn left. The Dolphins' locker room will be on your left, and the interview room will be about 20 yards further, also on the left. Continue straight past the Gate A tunnel, and the visitor's interview room, as well as the visitor's locker room, will be on the left.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Head Coach Cam Cameron will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium.

PARKING: Press parking at Dolphin Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Joe Curbelo of the Miami Dolphins Information Technology department, (954/452-7135). Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

WIRELESS ACCESS: Dolphin Stadium offers wireless internet access in all areas of the press boxes. The access is free of charge and works with all wi-fi enabled computer equipment. For those computers that do not have wi-fi capabilities, every seat is equipped with a "Cat 5" network jack to which members of the media can connect using a Cat 5 patch cable.

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphins home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 22 Keswick B, Deerfield Beach, FL, 33442 (954/428-9751; CELL: 954/548-9033 or e-mail: timlippman@yahoo.com).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper, network TV photographers, club/stadium officials and a limited number of local TV photographers are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by the Miami Dolphins.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations; Neal Gulkis, Director of Media Relations; Michael Pehanich, Media Relations Assistant and Gayle Baden, Executive Assistant. Office phone number is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova Southeastern University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

- 2007 -

August 8 – Deadline for players under contract to report to earn a season of free-agency credit.

August 10 – If a Drafted Rookie has not signed with his club by this date, he may not be traded to any other club in 2007.

August 11-15 – Deadline for club to provide written notice to certain unsigned players and the NFLPA of its intent to place them on the Exempt List if they fail to report no later than one day prior to the club's second preseason game. Any player who fails to report prior to the deadline is will be ineligible to play or receive compensation for at least three games (preseason or regular season) from the time that he reports.

August 28 – Roster cutdown to 75 players by 4:00 p.m. (ET).

August 28 – NFL Europe League exemptions expire.

September 1 – Roster cutdown to 53 players by 4:00 p.m. (ET).

September 1 – Simultaneously with the cutdown to 53, clubs that have players in the categories of Active/Physically Unable to Perform or Active/Non-Football Injury or Illness must take one of the following options: place player on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform or Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness, whichever is applicable; ask waivers; terminate; trade; or continue to count him on Active List.

September 2 – After 12:00 noon (ET), teams may begin to establish Practice Squads of up to eight players by signing free agents who do not have an accrued season of free agency credit or who were on the 45-player Active List for less than nine regular season games during each of any Accrued Season(s).

September 9 – Dolphins Regular Season Opener – vs. Washington Redskins, FedEx Field, 1:00 p.m. (ET)

September 25 – Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based in the current season's standings.

October 16 – Beginning the day after the conclusion of the sixth regular-season weekend and continuing through the day after the conclusion of the ninth regular-season weekend, clubs are permitted to begin practicing players on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform and Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness for a period not to exceed 21 days. Players may be activated during the 21-day practice period or until 4:00 p.m. (ET) on the day after the conclusion of the 21-day period.

October 16 – All trading ends at 4:00 p.m. (ET).
October 17 – Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.
October 22-24 – NFL Fall Meetings – Dallas, Texas
November 13 – Deadline for clubs to sign by 4:00 p.m. (ET) their unsigned Franchise and Transition Players. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in the NFL in 2007.
November 13 – Deadline for clubs to sign by 4:00 p.m. (ET) their Unrestricted and Restricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in the NFL in 2007.
November 13 – Deadline for clubs to sign by 4:00 p.m. Drafted Players. If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in the NFL in 2007.
November 30 – Deadline for reinstatement of players in Reserve List categories of Retired, Did Not Report, and Exclusive Rights, and of players who were placed on Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season.
December 31 – Clubs may begin signing free agent players for the 2008 season.

- 2008 -

January 5-6 – Wild Card Playoff Games
January 12-13 – Divisional Playoff Games
January 20 – AFC and NFC Championship Games
February 3 – Super Bowl XLII, University of Phoenix Stadium – Glendale, Arizona.
February 10 – AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, Honolulu, Hawaii.
February 20-26 – National Scouting Combine – Indianapolis.
March 30-April 3 – NFL Annual Meeting – Palm Beach, Florida
April 26-27 – NFL Draft.
May 19-21 – NFL Spring Meeting – Buckhead, Ga.

MEDIA WEB SITE

To further assist the media, the Dolphins have created a Media-Specific Web Site, located at www.media.miamidolphins.com. Through this site, accredited media ONLY will be able to download feature news-clip files of current and former Dolphin player and coaches, gamebooks from past Dolphin games, transcripts from press conferences and much more. In addition, hundreds of photographs are available on the site for publication purposes. This site can be used 24 hours a day via your home, office or lap top computer. For more information on how to access this web site, contact the Dolphins at media@miamidolphins.com.

NFL TIEBREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules.

Note: Tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs.

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs.)
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games
12. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, tiebreaker reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format.)

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs.)
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD-CARD TEAM

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

A. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in the games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Strength of victory.
5. Strength of schedule.
6. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
7. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best net points in conference games.
9. Best net points in all games.
10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
11. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

1. Apply division tie-breaker to eliminate all but highest ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tie-breaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others).
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in conference games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2.) In situations where three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tie-breaker if the topranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tie-breakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tiebreaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division-titlists, apply Wild Card tie-breakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tie-breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tiebreakers (if teams are from different divisions).

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR SELECTION MEETING

If two or more clubs are tied in the selection order, the strength-of-schedule tie-breaker is applied, subject to the following exceptions for playoff clubs:

1. The Super Bowl winner is last and the Super Bowl loser next-to-last.
2. Any non-Super Bowl playoff club involved in a tie shall be assigned priority within its segment below that of non-playoff clubs and in the order that the playoff club exited from the playoffs. Thus, within a tied segment a playoff club that loses in the Wild Card game will have priority over a playoff club that loses in the Divisional playoff game, which in turn will have priority over a club that loses in the Conference Championship game. If two tied clubs exited the playoffs in the same round, the tie is broken by strength of schedule. If any ties cannot be broken by strength of schedule, the divisional or conference tiebreakers, whichever are applicable, are applied. Any ties that still exist are broken by a coin flip.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

Mrs. Robert Swanson (left), with Dolphins owner Joe Robbie.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.
Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.
Achilles' Tendon – The tendon at the back of the heel.
Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.
Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).
Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.
Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.
Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
Anteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Articular Cartilage – Cartilage lining the opposing surfaces of bones.
Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.
Burner – Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.
Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.
Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.
Chondral Fracture – Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.
Chondromalacia – A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavical – The collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.
Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.
Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.
Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.
Cortisone – An anti- inflammatory medication.
Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.
Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.
Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.
Debridement – The removal of foreign material and dead or damaged tissue.
Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.
Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.
Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.
Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.
Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.
Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.
Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.
Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.
Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.
Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.
Fascia – A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.
Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.
Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.
Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.
Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.
Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.
Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.
Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacar-pophalangeal joint of the thumb.
Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.
Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.
Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.
Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.
Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.
Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.
Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.
Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.
Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.
Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.
Illiotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.
Impingment Syndrome – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue inthe shoulder, which is common in throwing.
Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.
Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) – Ligamament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.
Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.
Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.
Malleolus – Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle and to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.
Medial Retinaculum – The band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and patellar tendon.
Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.
Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.
Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Myosistis – Inflammation of a muscle.
Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.
Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.
Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.
Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."
Patellar Femoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.
Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.
Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.
Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.
Plantar – Pertaining to the sole of the foot.
Plantar Fascia – The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
Pneumothorax – A collection of air or gas that enters the cavity surrounding the lungs as a result of a perforation through the chest wall or the cavity wall.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.
Radiography – Taking of X-rays.
Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.
Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.
Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.
Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.
Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.
Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum - Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.
Scapula – Shoulder blade.
Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.
Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.
Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.
Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylitis– Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.
Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
Sternum – The breast bone.
Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.
Stinger – Common term for plexus trauma in the neck.
Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.
Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.
Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.
Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.
Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.
Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.
Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.
Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.
Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.
Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.
Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.
Trachea – The windpipe.
Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.
Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.
Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.
Turf Toe – Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.
Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.
Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.
Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.
Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.
Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.
Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.
Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.
"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.
Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).
Zygoma – The cheekbone.
