MEDIA GUIDE

DEDICATION

The 2016 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of former Dolphins Antonio Armstrong, Clarence Brooks, Earl Faison, Neville C. Hall, Lawrence Phillips, Bryan Robinson, Jamie Valderrama, Frank Wainright and Bryan Wiedmeier, each of whom passed away within the past year.

Armstrong (Oct. 15, 1973 – July 29, 2016) played linebacker with the Dolphins during the 1995 season, appearing in four games and recording four solo tackles. He was originally drafted in the sixth round of the 1995 NFL draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Brooks (May 20, 1951 – Sept. 17, 2016) served as the defensive line coach with the Dolphins from 2000-04. Miami finished in the Top 5 in run defense two seasons (2002-03) during his tenure. He also coached defensive lines in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1993-98), Cleveland Browns (1999) and Baltimore Ravens (2005-16).

Faison (Jan. 31, 1939 – June 12, 2016) played defensive end during the Dolphins' inaugural 1966 season. Faison also saw action with the San Diego Chargers (1961-1966), where he was named to the All-AFL team each of his first five seasons.

Hall (April 8, 1936 – March 27, 2016) worked 12 seasons (2004-15) at the training facility's team dining room, serving the players and staff while working with Food Group Management.

Phillips (May 12, 1975 – Jan. 13, 2016) played running back with the Dolphins during the 1997 season. He posted 18 carries for 44 yards (2.4 avg.) and one reception for 6 yards with Miami. He also saw NFL action with the St. Louis Rams (1996-97) and the San Francisco 49ers (1999).

Robinson (June 22, 1974 – June 11, 2016) played defensive tackle with the Dolphins in 2004. He also played in the NFL with the St. Louis Rams (1997), Chicago Bears (1998-2003), Cincinnati Bengals (2005-07) and the Arizona Cardinals (2008-10).

Valderrama (March 24, 1973 – March 17, 2016) worked five seasons (2011-15) with the Dolphins' information technology department as a network support and services administrator.

Wainright (Oct. 10, 1967 – April 5, 2016) played four seasons with the Dolphins from 1995-98. He is one of only three players in franchise history whose only reception was for a touchdown. Wainright also saw action in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints (1990-93), Philadelphia Eagles (1994-95) and Baltimore Ravens (1999-2000).

Wiedmeier (Oct. 19, 1959 – June 7, 2016) was one of franchise's longest-tenured employees, serving 29 seasons (1981-2009) with the Dolphins in a number of key roles with responsibilities, including business operations and football administration. Wiedmeier served as team president and chief operating officer of the team from 2006-08. He also spent six seasons (2010-15) with the Cleveland Browns as executive vice president - business operations.

STEPHEN M. ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD/
MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN // NFL: NINTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: NINTH SEASON

The landscape of South Florida was forever changed when Stephen Ross purchased the Miami Dolphins eight years ago. He began his ownership interest in the Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50 percent partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, the stadium and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95 percent ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium. His investment continues to make an imprint on the region through a rich legacy in sport, community and culture.

Ross' connection to the area didn't start nearly a decade ago, but rather a half century ago when his family moved to Miami Beach in his childhood. The purchase was a culmination of a long-held dream; the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Today, that reality flourishes in several aspects of his influence – reverberating from his investment in resources for the organization, his altruism in the community and his willingness to gift South Florida a state-of-the-art facility.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. Under Ross' vision, a holistic approach has been adopted for the athletes – presenting an environment for them to flourish with cutting-edge sports performance programs, multi-million-dollar renovated training facilities and a fully engaged player development program to cater to the players.

"My role as an owner is really to put the team in a position to win and do everything we possibly can," Ross said. "In every single area, we've made changes. We've thought outside the box. We're looking to be the best in class. You can see the players that we've attracted, what they expect and you put it all together, that's what makes winning teams. We're all looking to win."

Ross is committed to supporting the community that supports the Dolphins. He has strengthened the reach of the Miami Dolphins Foundation, offering tremendous support in the areas of education, health, volunteerism and youth programs. In May of 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally. As an NFL owner, he is using his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit organization Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE).

"Sports brings together athletes, coaches and fans of all races, uniting us with shared experiences and common goals that transcend our differences," Ross said. "The sports community is uniquely positioned and empowered to help drive national discussion and action to unite our country, promote understanding, respect and equality, and advance race relations now and for the next generation. While it would be unrealistic to say that RISE alone will end racism, we have the opportunity to harness the unifying power of sport and create a new paradigm."

Ross' largest contribution to the South Florida area is shaping the culture of the region. After making his name in development, Ross brought his expertise to completely modernize a 28-year-old facility, Hard Rock Stadium, into a truly global entertainment destination. His private investment of more than $500 million is a game-changer in redefining the fan experience. The first phase of the project involved changing every seat in the stadium, rebuilding the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, and improving the food choices throughout the entire facility. The second phase of renovations involved the installation of a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and protected from the rain, depending on the time of the day and the month. Additionally, four 1,472-inch high-definition video boards, the largest total square footage in the AFC East, adorn each corner of the stadium. The multi-year project will be completed for the 2017 season with upgrades to the private suites on the 200 level, raising the caliber on premium spaces within a sports venue.

"I think the big winner, as I look at, it is really Miami," Ross said. "We're really trying to create one of the great sports entertainment facilities in the United States today."

Ross has built architectural cathedrals throughout the globe, and his gift to South Florida ushers in a new era of world-class events, including Super Bowls, World Cups, college football championships, and international soccer and concerts.

"What I learned is Steve is a very rare combination of tenacity and heart, and he has tremendous integrity. That's inspiring for anybody to go work for somebody like Steve," Miami Dolphins President & CEO Tom Garfinkel said. "He also cares tremendously about people. He cares about this organization, and he cares about winning. It's not rhetoric. This is someone who had both the capacity and the willingness to invest in big ideas to create a best-in-class organization."

TOM GARFINKEL

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: COLORADO // NFL: FOURTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

With a professional background that includes corporate sales, marketing and branding, as well as executive leadership roles at the team level in professional auto racing, Major League Baseball, and now the National Football League, Tom Garfinkel has led a unique and diverse career across business and sports.

Garfinkel has employed a philosophy of being a continuous learner as a cornerstone of his life, his career and the organizations he has led. Ask the people who have worked with Garfinkel along the way about his leadership style and certain themes emerge. Words like creative, strategic, results-driven, team-first, continuous improvement and values-based leadership are consistently used to describe Garfinkel's approach to building successful organizations.

"I've been very fortunate throughout my career to have great people to learn from including CEOs of big companies, successful entrepreneurs, Hall of Fame players and coaches and military and civic leaders. I've always asked a lot of questions and tried to take something away that can provide perspective or context and further inform my own thinking," Garfinkel shared.

Garfinkel began his career working for Miller Brewing Company in regional sales and marketing in the southeast. "I was very lucky to be part of a team that was the number one market area in sales growth and profitability at the time. We had great leadership who took an interest in me and I was able to learn a lot from them in a short amount of time."

Garfinkel's career then took him to New York City when an opportunity presented itself to work for Texaco in corporate branding and sponsorships. "I wanted to get out of my comfort zone a bit, and going from the beer industry to the energy industry was certainly a big change. I had the opportunity to spend a lot of time with executive leadership at Texaco and be a part of some big negotiations and branding initiatives, and that was incredible experience for me to get at a young age."

After spending two years earning his MBA at the University of Michigan, Garfinkel took a job with Chip Ganassi Racing Teams in 2001, running business operations and revenue generation. During his tenure, the Championship organization grew to have more than 450 employees and multiple teams in Indycar, NASCAR and the Grand Am sports car series. "It was an incredible experience, especially working so closely with the leadership team at Target, our largest sponsor. Collaborating with them was like getting a doctorate in business leadership and executive management."

Garfinkel then made a switch to baseball in 2006 to the Arizona Diamondbacks as Chief Operating Officer. Nearly three years later, he was named president of the San Diego Padres at the age of 39. "One consistent piece of advice I learned from every great leader I've been around is that you succeed with great people. We built a great team of people in San Diego. If you look up the leadership team in baseball and business there in 2011 and look at what they are all doing now, it's an incredibly impressive group." During Garfinkel's tenure in San Diego as president and CEO, the organization was recognized by the SportsBusiness Journal for having the number one ticket sales and service team in MLB two years in a row, and also was recognized by ESPN in 2012 for having the number one farm system in baseball. Garfinkel also conceived and implemented the first little league youth jersey program of its kind in baseball, outfitting more than 25,000 kids with authentic Padres jerseys and hats from every era. Additionally, Garfinkel was directly involved with negotiating a new landmark television contract valued at more than $1.25 billion.

After serving under three different ownership groups in nearly five years in San Diego, Garfinkel accepted the role of president and CEO of the Miami Dolphins in 2013. Upon his arrival, he laid out an aspirational vision for what the Dolphins could become.

"I believe great sports organizations have a clear identity and vision and are disciplined to it. They innovate and challenge conventional wisdom. They respect the sport and their place in it. Great sports organizations have loyal and supportive fans. They have dedicated individuals who put the team ahead of their personal goals, and they have committed ownership. Most importantly, great organizations build a culture of winning and don't accept mediocrity."

In the three years under Garfinkel's leadership, the organization has made positive strides forward including:

- The largest ticket sales growth of any team in the NFL from 2013-2016, and selling out all regular season home games in 2015
- The charitable giving of more than $16.5 million to Sylvester Cancer Center at the University of Miami, the largest donation of its kind from any NFL franchise
- The pledge of $1 million to City Year Miami for youth mentoring programs
- Packing more than three million meals for those less fortunate in South Florida through a flourishing five-year partnership with AARP Foundation
- The execution of a new 12-year agreement with the Orange Bowl Committee
- The awarding of the 2020 Super Bowl, the NFL's 100th season celebration, to South Florida, a record breaking 11th time as host
- The conception of a business plan that resulted in a new naming rights partner and a three-year overhaul of "Hard Rock Stadium," creating a world-class, global entertainment destination for decades to come for South Florida

Garfinkel grew up in Walnut Creek, California. He was originally a fine arts major and his first job out of college was as a disc jockey and bartender in Chicago while he was trying to get a job in sports and sleeping on a friend's couch. He has two college teams he claims allegiance to, having received his Bachelors of Arts from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and MBA from the University of Michigan. Tom, his wife Allison, and their three sons live in Coral Gables.

MIKE TANNENBAUM

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS // NFL: 20TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Growing up in the Boston suburb of Needham, Mass., heavily entrenched with a love affair of all things Boston Celtics during their dominant era under the leadership of Red Auerbach, Mike Tannenbaum saw the impact a sports dynasty could make. At an early age, he marveled as Auerbach became a pioneer of modern basketball, emphasizing team play rather than individual performance. In college at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, Tannenbaum again delved deep into the blueprint Bill Walsh had constructed as the San Francisco 49ers dominated the NFL during the 1980s. It was during his time at Tulane University Law School Tannenbaum solidified his drive to build one organization, a goal that drives him on a daily basis in his role as Miami Dolphins Executive Vice President, Football Operations.

"I want to build an organization with people who are selfless, who are willing to sacrifice part of what is in their own best interest for the greater good of the organization. There is nothing like winning," Tannenbaum said.

Tannenbaum began his career in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints in 1994 before accepting the position of player personnel assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 1995. He returned to the Saints for the 1996 season as a player personnel assistant prior to joining the New York Jets in 1997. Tannenbaum spent 16 seasons (1997-2012) in various roles for the Jets, including his final seven years (2006-12) as the team's executive vice president and general manager. During his time as general manager, the Jets advanced to the playoffs three times, won four playoff games and made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Tannenbaum then went back to his roots as a sports lawyer, serving in 2013-14 as Priority Sports & Entertainment principal. There he honed relationships in the sports industry, setting a new caliber and showcasing his acumen for scouting talent in appointments of key clients David Blatt and Steve Kerr as Cleveland Cavaliers and Golden State Warriors head coaches ahead of the 2014-15 season.

It was in New York that his path crossed with Miami Dolphins owner Stephen Ross, where he was tapped to consult for the team in August 2014, followed by his appointment as executive vice president, football operations on Jan. 6, 2015.

In his role, Tannenbaum oversees and coordinates the effort of football operations and administration. He is most proud of his work and collaboration with General Manager Chris Grier and Head Coach Adam Gase, as well as other senior executives in implementing the philosophy of a championship caliber football team.

Tannenbaum has overhauled the Dolphins football operations. During the 2016 offseason, he helped orchestrate a trade of Miami's first-round draft pick (eighth overall) to Philadelphia, where the Dolphins moved back five selections and acquired linebacker Kiko Alonso and cornerback Byron Maxwell. The Dolphins used their first-round choice (13th overall) acquired in the trade to draft guard/tackle Laremy Tunsil. He also helped ink defensive end Cameron Wake to a contract extension. In his first full offseason with the Dolphins in 2015, Tannenbaum helped land one of the top unrestricted free agents in four-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, while also signing another player with a Pro Bowl on his resume in tight end Jordan Cameron, to go along with trading for wide receiver Kenny Stills. He also was instrumental in signing Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey and quarterback Ryan Tannehill to contract extensions.

True to his mentors, Tannenbaum has instituted revolutionary landmarks in line with Ross' drive for innovative, first-class business practices. These include the creation and implementation of a sport performance department, a roster overhaul for sustainability and proactive player wellness programs.

"I'm really proud of the fact that Stephen Ross gives us incredible resources. I think our player wellness and player care is second to none in the league in terms of our players feel like the environment here – from the food they eat to the practice fields – is best in class. And they're given every opportunity to prove and maximize their talents."

Outside of work, Mike and his wife, Michelle, remain true to their core values that education and knowledge will always pave a successful path. In keeping with these beliefs, they have instituted scholarship programs with his alma mater UMass and a New Jersey YMCA to afford young professionals the opportunity to pursue their passion without the burden of living expenses.

He uses his role with the Dolphins to guide future leaders, participating in numerous speeches within the industry. He is well vested at UMass, on hand several times throughout his evolving career to give advice and lend support to aspiring young professionals. Additionally, he sits on an advisory council at Tulane, tasked with creating opportunities for students in an evolving landscape, including virtual internships to enhance students' experience while embracing globalization.

Mike Tannenbaum brings his expertise, drive, vision and leadership to the Miami Dolphins with one goal: to create a winning organization that consistently competes for championships.

"There's nothing like football; I think it's a microcosm of life. People have such disparate backgrounds yet we're all here because the one commonality we all have in this organization is we're intoxicated by winning."

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four-year stretch from 1971-74, the team compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998. The Denver Broncos won 24 straight home games from 1996-98.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS // NFL: 22ND SEASON // DOLPHINS: 17TH SEASON

Chris Grier is entering his 17th season with the Miami Dolphins and first as the club's general manager. He spent the previous nine years as the team's director of college scouting. Grier was appointed general manager on Jan. 4, 2016. He works together with Executive Vice President of Football Operations Mike Tannenbaum and Head Coach Adam Gase to help build a championship caliber football team. In his role, Grier oversees the draft, both college and pro personnel departments and all scouting efforts.

During the 2016 offseason, Grier worked with his staff to bring linebacker Kiko Alonso and cornerback Byron Maxwell to Miami in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles. He utilized the team's first-round draft pick (13th overall), also acquired in the Eagles trade, to select guard/tackle Laremy Tunsil. The Dolphins will enter the 2016 training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered some of the best collegiate players the Dolphins have ever drafted, including wide receiver Jarvis Landry. A second-round selection in 2014, Landry finished his first two NFL seasons with 194 receptions, more than any player has ever recorded in his first two years in the league.

Grier and the Dolphins also identified and drafted running back Lamar Miller and defensive end Olivier Vernon. Miller ranks No. 4 among all NFL running backs in rushing yards (1,971) and yards per carry (4.81) over the past two seasons and was a fourth-round pick in 2012. Vernon finished the 2015 campaign with 36 quarterback hits, the third-most in the NFL, and tied for fourth among all players with 18 tackles for loss. Vernon was a third-round pick in 2012.

In 2011, the Dolphins drafted center Mike Pouncey in the first round. Pouncey has developed into one of the league's best interior linemen and was selected to the Pro Bowl for the third time in his career in 2015.

During Grier's tenure with the club, the Dolphins have found several diamonds in the rough. Safety Reshad Jones was a fifth-round pick in 2010 and was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a single season.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and recently retired as a senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. Chris has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Parcells, Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick, Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll and University of Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League. He is currently a scout for the Chicago Blackhawks.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier resides in Weston, Fla. with his wife, Paige, and their two sons, Landon and Jackson.

At the time, that figured marked record attendance for the WWE. Boyan also was instrumental in Hard Rock Stadium hosting the largest attendance in the stadium's history where Alabama defeated Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship game in front of a record crowd of 81,120.

Nick Forro is entering his fourth season with the Miami Dolphins as vice president of ticket sales and service. In his role, he is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Dolphins membership sales and service.

Under Senior Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer Jeremy Walls' and Forro's leadership, the Miami Dolphins have grown ticket sales revenue by 47 percent in three seasons, which led to selling out every Dolphins regular season home game in 2015. In 2014, the Dolphins had the highest season ticket member renewal percentage in five years and set an all-time NFL record in group sales. As a result, the Miami Dolphins had the largest percent increase in the NFL in home attendance.

Forro joined the Dolphins from MLB's New York Yankees, where he previously served as ticket sales and service director. In his time with the team, he directed a $42 million new business campaign that resulted in a 19 percent increase over the 2012 season. Forro also helped strategize and execute the build out of the company's first dedicated group sales and retention departments.

Prior to the Yankees, Forro got his start with the NBA's Phoenix Suns serving as director of ticket sales. In that capacity, he was responsible for all new sales strategy, tracking and projecting for the Suns and WNBA Phoenix Mercury ticket plan campaigns. Forro started his sports career with the Suns, working his way up from an inside sales consultant, to an account executive in season ticket sales to new business development manager.

Forro attained a Bachelor of Science in business administration from Youngstown State University in Ohio, where he lettered in football. He resides in Pembroke Pines, Fla. with his wife, Erin, and their three children – Carter, Nicholas and Paige.

COACHING STAFF

ADAM

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN STATE // NFL: 14TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Adam Gase was named the 12th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Jan. 9, 2016.

Gase joined Miami with three years of experience as an NFL offensive coordinator, directing some of the most prolific offenses in league history.

In 2015, Gase was the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears. Under Gase, the Bears implemented a balanced offensive attack that improved the team's rushing totals from No. 27 in the season before Gase arrived in Chicago to No. 11 in 2015, as the unit averaged 25.6 more rushing yards per game. Bears quarterback Jay Cutler finished the 2015 season with the highest passer rating (92.3) of his career. Cutler also threw seven fewer interceptions than the previous season and his interception rate of 2.3 percent was the best showing of his career for a season where he played at least 12 games. In addition, Cutler's yards per attempt increased by 0.8, the second-largest one-year increase in his career. Additionally, running back Jeremy Langford had an impressive rookie season, rushing for 537 yards and six touchdowns. His 537 rushing yards ranked No. 7 among all NFL rookies and his six touchdowns were tied for fourth amongst rookie rushers.

Prior to joining the Bears, Gase spent six seasons (2009-14) with the Denver Broncos, during which time the team compiled a 58-38 (.604) regular-season record, won four AFC West titles, three playoff games and an AFC Championship, including a trip to Super Bowl XLVIII.

While Gase was the Denver Broncos' offensive coordinator in 2013 and 2014, the Broncos led the NFL in scoring offense (34.0 points per game), total offense (430.1 yards per game) and passing offense (315.8 yards per game) during that time period. During his two seasons as coordinator, seven players from the Broncos offense were named to the Pro Bowl: running back C.J. Anderson (2014), tackle Ryan Clady (2014), quarterback Peyton Manning (2013-14), wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders (2014), wide receiver Demaryius Thomas (2013-14), tight end Julius Thomas (2013-14) and guard Louis Vasquez (2013).

In 2014, the Broncos finished 12-4, winning the AFC West and earned a bye in the first round of the playoffs. Gase helped Denver finish second in scoring, averaging 30.1 points per contest. Manning continued his excellence, completing 66.2 percent of his passes and passing for 4,727 yards and 39 touchdowns. He set the NFL's career passing touchdown record on Oct. 19, 2014 against San Francisco. Demaryius Thomas broke the franchise's single-season receiving record with 1,619 receiving yards. He finished the year with 111 receptions, second in the league and a career high. Wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders also set career highs in both receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,404), ranking No. 5 in the NFL in both categories. Running back C.J. Anderson, who entered the 2014 season with just seven career carries, was instrumental in helping Denver finish the season strong. In the final seven games of the regular season, Anderson carried the ball 140 times for 648 yards (4.6 avg.) and eight touchdowns as the Broncos won five of their last seven contests. He became the first Denver running back since 2004 to rush for 150-plus yards in consecutive games.

In 2013, Gase's first as offensive coordinator, the Broncos set NFL records in both points (606) and touchdowns (76) and Denver's scoring output increased by 7.8 points per game. The Broncos totaled 59.4 yards per game more than they did in 2012 and led the NFL with 5,444 passing yards and 55 passing touchdowns. The explosive offense helped Denver finish the regular season 13-3, winning the AFC West and earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs, where the Broncos won the conference title and played in Super Bowl XLVIII.

In addition to setting NFL team records, Gase also helped Manning have the most prolific season of any quarterback in NFL history. Manning's 5,477 passing yards and 55 passing touchdowns were both NFL records that still stand today. Manning earned his fifth NFL MVP award and also was honored as the Maxwell Club Player of the Year and AP Offensive Player of the Year.

In total, the Broncos set or tied 14 NFL offense and scoring records in the 2013 season with Gase as offensive coordinator: points (606), touchdowns (76), players with 10 or more touchdowns (5), passing first downs (293), games with 50-plus points (3), points in the second half (318), individual passing yards (Manning, 5,477), individual passing touchdowns (Manning, 55), longest field goal (Matt Prater, 64 yards), most extra points (Matt Prater, 75), most four-touchdown passing games (Manning, 9), most two-touchdown passing games (Manning, 15), most 400-yard passing games (Peyton Manning, 4) and most 90-plus passer rating games (Manning, 15).

The 2013 Broncos were one of just four teams in the past five seasons (2011-15) to have two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. Wide receiver Demaryius Thomas was fourth in the NFL with 1,430 receiving yards, while fellow receiver Eric Decker ranked No. 9 with 1,288. Running back Knowshon Moreno rushed for 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns. Denver became the only team in NFL history to have four players catch 10 or more touchdown passes in the same season. Demaryius Thomas led the way with 14 touchdown grabs, tight end Julius Thomas was second with 12, Decker finished with 11 and wide receiver Wes Welker totaled 10 touchdown receptions.

Gase served as Denver's quarterbacks coach from 2011-12. Manning joined the team in 2012 following 14 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, including a 2011 campaign that he missed due to injury. With Gase as his position coach in 2012, Manning was wildly successful, finishing second in the league in passer rating (105.8), third in passing touchdowns (37) and sixth in passing yards (4,659). He earned the AP NFL Comeback Player of the Year award and was runner-up for NFL MVP. The Broncos won the AFC West with a 13-3 mark and finished the season on an 11-game winning streak. Denver earned the No. 1 seed in the AFC and home-field advantage throughout the playoffs. The team's passing offense was fifth in the NFL (283.4 yards per game) and the club finished second in scoring (30.1 points per game) and fourth in total offense (397.9 yards per game).

In 2011, Gase worked with quarterbacks Kyle Orton and Tim Tebow, helping lead the Broncos to the AFC West crown and a Wild Card Playoff victory. Tebow rushed for 660 yards, the most by a quarterback in franchise history and 12th most by an NFL quarterback ever. He also rushed for six touchdowns.

Gase joined the Broncos in 2009 as the wide receivers coach, a position he held for two seasons.

In 2010, he helped wide receiver Brandon Lloyd earn a Pro Bowl invitation after he led the league in receiving with 1,448 yards and 11 touchdowns. It was the first time a Broncos player had ever led the league in receiving yards. The 1,448 yards were 482 more than Lloyd recorded in any other season throughout his 11-year NFL career.

Gase coached another Pro Bowl wide receiver in 2009 when Brandon Marshall caught 101 passes for 1,120 yards (11.1 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. The 101 receptions was the fourth-highest mark in the league and the Pro Bowl selection was Marshall's second of his young career. Marshall set a single-game NFL record with 21 receptions against Indianapolis on Dec. 13, 2009.

Gase spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant for the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to San Francisco, Gase held several roles for five seasons (2003-07) with the Detroit Lions. He coached the Lions' quarterbacks in 2007, working with quarterback Jon Kitna in one of the finest seasons of his career. Kitna passed for 4,068 yards, the second-most in his 14-year NFL career, and 18 touchdowns. His 4,068 passing yards ranked No. 6 in the NFL and he finished fifth with 355 completions.

Gase was an offensive quality control coach for the Lions in 2006 and an offensive assistant in 2005. He began his NFL career as a scouting assistant for the Lions, a role he held in 2003 and 2004.

Gase began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at LSU in 2000. He spent the following two seasons on the recruiting staff for Head Coach Nick Saban, winning a Southeastern Conference championship in 2001 and helping recruit a group of players that won the BCS National Championship in 2003.

He and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter, McKenzie, and two sons, A.J. and Wyatt.

LOU ANARUMO

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: WAGNER // NFL: FIFTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Lou Anarumo enters his fifth season with the Dolphins after being named defensive backs coach on Feb. 4, 2012.

Anarumo entered the 2015 season coaching defensive backs and was named defensive coordinator on Oct. 8. Under Anarumo's direction, cornerback Brent Grimes and safety Reshad Jones were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking the first time since the 2003 season that Miami had two members of their secondary participate in the Pro Bowl in the same season.

In 2014, Anarumo led a secondary that allowed only 222.3 passing yards per game, good for sixth-best in the NFL and the third-straight season of improvement in this category. His group scored three defensive touchdowns (cornerback Cortland Finnegan on a fumble return at Oakland and safety Louis Delmas and Grimes on interception returns at Jacksonville), marking the first season since 2003 when the Dolphins had three different players score defensive touchdowns. Grimes recorded a team-leading five interceptions en route to his second Pro Bowl in as many years since joining the team. Jones was one of three players in the NFL in 2014 to record 70 or more tackles, one sack and three interceptions.

In 2013, Anarumo guided a secondary that saw marked improvement in his second season at the helm, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the 2012-13 seasons were the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of Grimes, who earned a Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defended.

In Anarumo's first season with the Dolphins in 2012, he coached a secondary which started five different players at cornerback during the season (Nolan Carroll, Richard Marshall, Dimitri Patterson, Sean Smith and Jimmy Wilson). In addition, safeties Chris Clemons and Jones both had the best seasons of their NFL career to date. Starting all 16 games, Clemons set a career high with 96 tackles (69 solo), while Jones recorded 95 tackles (74 solo), one sack, two forced fumbles and four interceptions.

Anarumo joined the Dolphins after spending eight seasons (2004-11) as defensive backs coach at Purdue University. With four new starters in 2010, the Boilermakers' secondary featured true freshman cornerback Ricardo Allen, who finished with three interceptions, returning two of them for touchdowns and led the Big Ten in interception return yardage en route to earning freshman All-America honors. Cornerbacks Brandon King and David Pender were named second team All-Big Ten in 2009, while safety Torri Williams was an honorable mention selection. Pender finished his career ranked tied for second in school history with 33 pass breakups. From 2005 to 2006, the Boilermakers rebuilt their secondary and improved from 287.3 passing yards allowed per game to 241.2 yards. In 2008, they ranked No. 3 overall in the Big Ten, surrendering just 183.2 yards per game. That figure dropped to 152.5 yards in conference games and was tops in the Big Ten. Safety Bernard Pollard was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall pick) of the 2006 NFL draft, becoming the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland (47th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in 1988.

Anarumo came to the Boilermakers from Marshall, where he coached the defensive backs from 2001-03. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. The Thundering Herd ranked No. 10 in the nation in passing defense in 2003, allowing 177.4 yards per game. They were sixth in 2002 at 161.5 yards after ranking No. 37 in 2001 at 198.7 yards. Marshall compiled a 30-8 record over the three seasons and won the GMAC Bowl in 2001 and 2002. Strong safety Chris Crocker was a third-round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 2003 draft.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard from 1995-2000, working with the defensive backs and coordinating the special teams. During his tenure, he helped build a pass defense regarded among the finest in the Ivy League. The Crimson led the league in pass efficiency defense in 1999 and ranked No. 2 in interceptions in 2000.

From 1992-94, Anarumo was defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, New York. He also served as the admissions liaison to the athletics department.

Anarumo was a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse during the 1990-91 seasons. He was assistant defensive backs coach under Phil Elmassian – whom Anarumo replaced on the Boilermaker staff – and was responsible for film breakdown and organization of the scout teams.

From January to June 1990, Anarumo was a part-time running backs coach at Wagner College. He filled that same role at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from September 1989 to January 1990.

A native of Staten Island, N.Y., Anarumo earned his B.S. degree in special education from Wagner in 1990. While in college, he served as head junior varsity coach at Susan Wagner High School in Staten Island, N.Y.

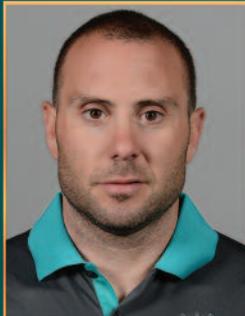

Anarumo and his wife, Fran, have three children: Madison, Louis and Christopher. His last name is pronounced aahn-UH-room-oh.

From 2011-14, Barrett was the running backs coach at UCF and helped the Knights reach unforeseen heights. In 2014, Barrett coached William Stanback, a first-team All-American Athletic Conference selection, and helped UCF win the AAC for the second-consecutive season. Johnson rushed for 1,139 yards with 14 touchdowns and became just the eighth player in school history to top 1,000 rushing yards. Johnson was picked in the seventh round (222nd overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2014 NFL draft. The 2013 Knights won a school-record 12 games and went a perfect 8-0 in AAC play, winning the Fiesta Bowl for the first BCS bowl victory in program history. Barrett's star pupil in 2012 was Latavius Murray, who earned All-Conference USA first-team honors with 1,106 rushing yards. Murray was drafted by the Oakland Raiders in the sixth round (181st overall) of the 2013 NFL draft and earned Pro Football Writers Association All-AFC honors in 2015 after he rushed for 1,066 yards. ## DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard individual rushing games and the team is 4-0 in those games. The combination of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick had two dual 100-yard games, both of which were during the 1971 season. Kiick (20 carries for 108 yards) and Csonka (20-103-1) first accomplished the feat on Sept. 26 at Buffalo. Csonka (20-137-2) and Kiick (17-121) again both surpassed the 100-yard mark on Oct. 24 at the N.Y. Jets. In 1974, Benny Malone (19-104-1) and Don Nottingham (10-102-1) both rushed for 100-plus yards on Oct 27 at Baltimore. In 1975, Nottingham (21-102-3) teamed with Mercury Morris (31-125) to both gain 100-yards on Oct. 5 at Green Bay.

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: IOWA // NFL: FIFTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Charlie Bullen enters his fifth season with the Dolphins and first as the team's assistant linebackers coach, having been named to the position on Jan. 25, 2016. Bullen originally joined the organization as the team's defensive assistant on Feb. 10, 2012. He also served three seasons as the team's assistant defensive line coach (2013-15).

As a defensive line assistant the past three seasons (2013-15), Bullen helped defensive ends Cameron Wake (27.0) and Olivier Vernon (25.5) both rank among the NFL's top 20 players in total sacks. Miami is the only NFL team to have two players among the top 20 in sacks in the past three seasons. As a team, the Dolphins have ranked in the top half of the NFL with 154 sacks in the four seasons that Bullen worked with the defensive line.

In 2015, Bullen helped Wake join Julius Peppers as the only two players in the NFL to total seven-plus sacks in each of the past six seasons. Wake accomplished the feat despite playing in just seven games due to injury. Wake also totaled four sacks in the win at Tennessee (Oct. 18), tying for the fifth-most sacks in a single game in team history. Miami joined Chicago, New England and Philadelphia as one of just four teams in the NFL to have three players record at least six sacks in the 2015 campaign (Vernon, 7.5, Wake, 7.0; Ndamukong Suh, 6.0;).

Bullen assisted with a defensive line that accounted for 30.5 of the team's 39 sacks in 2014. Leading the pass rush was defensive end Cameron Wake, who finished the season with 11.5 sacks and earned his fourth trip to the Pro Bowl. Along with Wake, fellow defensive end Olivier Vernon added 6.5 sacks, bringing his career total to 21.5 sacks, tied for the second-most sacks by a player in their first three NFL seasons with the Dolphins.

In 2013, Bullen helped guide a unit that contributed 34 of the defense's 42 sacks which was the third-consecutive season that the defense had recorded 40-plus sacks and marked the first time in team history the team had accomplished this feat in three-straight seasons. Additionally, the Dolphins were one of only four NFL teams to record 40 or more sacks in each of the 2011-13 seasons. Wake earned his third Pro Bowl nod in 2013 with 8.5 sacks and Vernon notched a team-high 11.5 sacks.

Bullen assisted a defense that finished seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8) in 2012. The defense's 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL. Bullen spent a lot of time helping the defensive line, which featured two players who were selected to the Pro Bowl, Wake and Randy Starks. Wake ranked No. 3 in the AFC and No. 4 in the NFL with 15 sacks and that total also tied for the sixth-highest single-season sack total in Dolphins history.

Prior to Miami, Bullen spent the 2009-11 seasons as a graduate assistant coach working with the defense at the University of Iowa. Bullen also served as a student assistant for two seasons (2007-08), working with then offensive coordinator and current Dolphins senior football research analyst Ken O'Keefe and the Hawkeye quarterbacks while completing work towards his bachelor's degree.

Bullen served as a volunteer assistant coach at Iowa City High School in 2006, working with the quarterbacks.

Prior to attending Iowa, Bullen played quarterback at Harper College in Palatine, Illinois. Bullen earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2008 and a master's degree in sports management from the University of Iowa in 2011.

Bullen, along with the team's defensive linemen, participated in the Miami Dolphins "All-Community Team" program under the group name "First Line of Defense." As part of the program, Bullen and the defensive line purchased tickets, food vouchers, T-shirts and parking to each of the team's regular season home games and donated them to a charitable organization.

A member of the American Football Coaches Association, Bullen is a native of Palatine, Illinois. He and his wife, Megan, have a daughter, Elle, and reside in Fort Lauderdale.

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: DARTMOUTH // NFL: 13TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Matt Burke enters his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named linebackers coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

Burke spent the past seven years as an NFL linebackers coach, working with the position group in Cincinnati (2014-15) and Detroit (2009-13). He also spent five years with the Tennessee Titans, where he served as an administrative assistant (2004-05) and defensive assistant/quality control coach (2006-08).

In 2015, the Bengals had the second-best scoring defense (17.4 points per game) in the NFL. The defense forced 28 turnovers, tied for sixth in the league.

Linebacker Vincent Rey posted the two-most productive seasons of his career under Burke. In 2015, Rey made 95 stops (62 solo), one sack, one interception and five passes defensed. Thrust into a starting role due to injuries in 2014, Rey totaled a team-high 121 tackles (61 solo) and five passes defensed that season.

The Bengals missed middle linebacker Rey Maualuga during the first half of the 2014 season, but once he returned during the final seven games of the season, Cincinnati surrendered just 82.0 rushing yards per contest, the second-best mark in the NFL.

Burke came to Cincinnati from the Lions, where he spent five seasons as the linebackers coach. In 2013, he helped lead a Lions defense that ranked No. 6 in the NFL against the run. Linebacker DeAndre Levy was tied for second in the NFL in interceptions (6), becoming only the third linebacker in Lions history with six-plus interceptions and the first since 1958. The Lions held opponents to 30.3 percent on third downs, the lowest conversion rate in the league, and were second in red-zone touchdown percentage (38.1) in 2013. The defense went 37-straight quarters without allowing a rushing touchdown, breaking a club record from 1934. The Lions became the first NFL team since 1933 to allow 62 or fewer rushing yards in six-consecutive games without allowing a rushing touchdown. In 2011, Detroit won 10 games and earned a playoff berth for the first time since 1999.

Burke spent five years with the Tennessee Titans as an administrative assistant and defensive assistant. He worked primarily with linebackers in 2008 when the Titans posted a 13-3 mark, the best record in the NFL and tied for the winningest season in franchise history.

Burke also spent time coaching at Harvard (2003), Boston College (2002-03) and Bridgton Academy (1998-99) in Maine.

A native of Hudson, Massachusetts, Burke played safety at Dartmouth. He was part of an undefeated Ivy League championship team in 1996.

CLYDE CHRISTENSEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA // NFL: 21ST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Clyde Christensen is in his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named offensive coordinator on Jan. 20, 2016.

Christensen has been an offensive coach for more than 35 years, including 20 in the NFL, and brings three seasons of experience as an NFL offensive coordinator to the Dolphins. He spent the past 14 seasons (2002-15) with the Indianapolis Colts, where he was the offensive coordinator for two years (2010-11) and, most recently, the quarterbacks coach (2012-15). During his tenure, the Colts set a league record with seven-consecutive seasons of 12-plus wins.

In Indianapolis, Christensen worked closely with quarterbacks Peyton Manning and Andrew Luck. In his four seasons as quarterbacks coach, the Colts went 41-23 (.641), advanced to the playoffs three times and won the AFC South twice. From 2012-14, Luck recorded the most passing yards (12,957), the second-most passing touchdowns (86) and tied for the second-most regular season victories (33) by any NFL quarterback in his first three seasons.

In 2014, Luck set a single-season franchise record for passing yards (4,761) and led the NFL with 40 touchdown passes, earning his third-straight Pro Bowl selection and helping the Colts reach the AFC Championship game.

The Colts won the AFC South with an 11-5 mark in 2013. In the AFC Wild Card game against Kansas City, Luck totaled the second-most passing yards (443) in a single game in franchise postseason history. He earned his second-straight Pro Bowl nod.

Luck was drafted in 2012 and Christensen helped him achieve one of the most successful rookie seasons in NFL history. Luck passed for 4,374 yards on 627 attempts and posted six 300-yard passing games, all NFL rookie records. He was second among all-time league rookies in completions (339) and third in touchdown passes (23). He also broke the league's single-game rookie record for passing yards (433) in Week 9 against Miami and earned Pro Bowl honors.

As offensive coordinator for the Colts (2010-11), Christensen helped Manning set an NFL record with 450 completions in 2010. Manning posted his 13th-consecutive 25-plus touchdown season and 11th 4,000-plus yards passing season in 2010 and set then-career highs for completions (450), attempts (679) and yards (4,700). Those numbers were also single-season franchise records.

Christensen worked with the Colts' wide receivers from 2002-09 and added assistant head coach responsibilities in 2008. The Colts had at least one wide out selected to the Pro Bowl in all eight seasons he worked with the unit. Wide receivers Marvin Harrison and Reggie Wayne played the majority of their NFL careers with Christensen as their position coach and currently rank No. 1 and No. 2 in team history in nearly every career receiving category, including receptions, receiving yards, touchdowns and 100-yard receiving games. Christensen also helped Indianapolis win Super Bowl XLI on Feb. 4, 2007.

Prior to Indianapolis, Christensen spent six seasons (1996-2001) on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff (1996-2001). He served as tight ends coach (1996-98), quarterbacks coach (1999-2000) and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2001, where he helped the Buccaneers reach the NFC playoffs after a 9-7 regular-season finish. Under Christensen in 2001, wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson set the franchise record with 106 receptions and quarterback Brad Johnson set the club's then single-season mark with 340 completions.

Christensen entered the NFL following 17 years of coaching at the collegiate level. He made stops at Clemson (1994-95), Maryland (1992-93), South Carolina (1991), Holy Cross (1989-90), East Carolina (1986-88), Temple (1983-85), East Tennessee State (1980-82) and Mississippi (1979). He was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Clemson and helped the Maryland offense rank in the top five nationally during his two seasons as the school's quarterbacks coach.

Christensen was an All-America quarterback at Fresno City Junior College in 1975 and finished his playing career at the University of North Carolina (1977-78). There, he helped the Tar Heels earn Peach and Liberty Bowl bids during his career.

A Covina, California native, Christensen earned his bachelor's degree in industrial relations from North Carolina. He and his wife, Debbie, have three daughters, Rachel, Rebecca and Ruth.

COLLEGE: KANSAS STATE // NFL: EIGHTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Shane Day is in his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named tight ends coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

Day arrives in Miami after two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach (2014-15) with the Washington Redskins, where he worked with Dolphins offensive line coach Chris Foerster in 2014.

The Redskins ranked No. 10 in the NFL with 24.3 points per game and No. 6 with 7.0 yards per pass attempt in 2015. Day helped the offensive line allow just 27 sacks, the fifth-best mark in the league. Washington won the NFC East for the second time since 1999 with a nine-win campaign. Tackle Trent Williams earned his fourth-consecutive Pro Bowl selection and was named to the Associated Press All-Pro second team for the first time in his career. In 2014, running back Alfred Morris rushed for 1,074 yards, his third-consecutive 1,000-yard season. The passing attack gained 6.7 yards per attempt, the eighth-best mark in the NFL. Williams earned another Pro Bowl selection, the third of his career.

Prior to Washington, Day was the quarterbacks coach at Connecticut for two seasons (2012-13). In 2013, he took over play-calling duties after an 0-9 start and helped the Huskies close the season on a three-game winning streak as the team passed for seven touchdowns and only one interception.

Day coached quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears from 2010-11. In his first season, Day helped quarterback Jay Cutler post the second-highest passer rating (86.3) at that point of his career as an NFL starter. The Bears went 11-5 and won the NFC North, advancing to the NFC Championship game that season.

Day also spent three seasons on the offensive staff with the San Francisco 49ers (2007-09) as an offensive quality control coach. He worked with the team's quarterbacks in 2007, running backs in 2008 and offensive line in 2009. During Day's stint in San Francisco, running back Frank Gore gained 3,258 rushing yards, the fifth-most in the NFL in that three-year span.

From 2005-06, Day served as an offensive quality control coach at Michigan, where he evaluated quarterback recruits and developed quarterbacks currently in the program. The Wolverines earned a berth to the 2007 Rose Bowl following the 2006 season.

Day began coaching at Auburn Riverside High School in Auburn, Wash., where he spent one season coaching the wide receivers (2001) and three years coaching the quarterbacks (2002-04). He also served as offensive coordinator for two seasons (2003-04).

A wide receiver at Rhode College in Memphis, Tennessee., Day was a two-sport athlete, also playing baseball. He graduated from Kansas State in 1999 with a degree in English. He and his wife, Christie, have a daughter, Vivienne.

CHRIS FOERSTER

OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: COLORADO STATE // NFL: 24TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Chris Foerster is in his first season of his second stint with the Miami Dolphins after he was named offensive line coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

Foerster (pronounced FURR-stir) brings 23 years of NFL experience to Miami, including 20 years as an NFL offensive line coach. He spent one season as the Dolphins' offensive coordinator in 2004 and returns to Miami from San Francisco, where he was the 49ers' offensive line coach in 2015.

Throughout his lengthy coaching career, Foerster has mentored six players that were selected to 15 Pro Bowls – center Jeff Christy (2000), center Tony Mayberry (1996-99), guard

Randall McDaniel (1993, 1995, 2000), tackle Jonathan Ogden (2005-07), tackle Joe Staley (2015) and tackle Trent Williams (2012-14).

In his lone season in San Francisco, Foerster helped an offensive line battle through adversity and pave the way for the 18th-ranked rushing attack in the NFL. The 49ers had lost the franchise's all-time leading rusher, Frank Gore in the offseason and had so many injuries at the running back position that no tailback played more than eight games the entire season.

Foerster came to San Francisco after spending five seasons (2010-14) as the offensive line coach for the Washington Redskins. There, his unit helped running back Alfred Morris top 1,000 yards in each of his first three NFL seasons. Throughout his five-year tenure in Washington, the Redskins ranked No. 4 in the NFL in yards per carry (4.54).

During the 2012-13 seasons, Foerster's offensive line helped the Redskins rush for a league-leading 4,873 yards during that span. They were one of just two teams to average at least 5 yards per carry (5.01) over the two years.

The 2013 season saw Washington rank No. 5 in the league in rushing yards (2,164). It was the first time the Redskins had rushed for more than 2,000 yards in consecutive seasons since 2005-06.

In 2012, Washington rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards and led the NFL in rushing for the first time since 1933. Morris set the franchise's new single-season record with 1,613 rushing yards, despite being a rookie. The offensive line also protected rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III, who earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors as he helped lead the Redskins to their first NFC East title since 1999.

Under Foerster, tackle Trent Williams earned three-straight Pro Bowl selections (2012-14), the first three of his career.

Prior to Washington, Foerster worked for the 49ers (2008-09) and the Baltimore Ravens (2005-07), where he oversaw the offensive line for each team. In Baltimore, he also held assistant head coach responsibilities. In 2006, the Ravens set team records for fewest sacks allowed (17) and wins (13), as they won the AFC North and earned a bye in the playoffs.

Foerster was the Dolphins' offensive coordinator in 2004. He also held coaching positions with the Indianapolis Colts (2002-03), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2001), Minnesota Vikings (1993-95), University of Minnesota (1992), Stanford (1988-91) and his alma mater, Colorado State (1982-87).

Foerster played center at Colorado State, beginning his career as a walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore. His last name is pronounced FURR-stir.

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami set the NFL's single-season sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

BO HARDEGREE

QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: TENNESSEE // NFL: THIRD SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Bo Hardegree is in his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named quarterbacks coach on Jan. 20, 2016.

Hardegree brings eight years of coaching experience to Miami and spent the 2015 season as an offensive assistant with the Chicago Bears, where he worked under current Dolphins Head Coach Adam Gase, who was then the Bears' offensive coordinator. In Hardegree's lone season in Chicago, he helped the Bears' rushing attack improve from 27th to 11th in the NFL as the unit averaged 25.6 more rushing yards per game. Bears quarterback Jay Cutler finished the 2015 season with the highest passer rating (92.3) of his career and threw seven fewer interceptions than the prior year. He also posted the best interception rate (2.3) of his career in a season where he played at least 12 games. Running back Jeremy Langford rushed for 537 yards and six touchdowns as a rookie. His 537 rushing yards ranked No. 7 among NFL rookies and his six touchdowns were tied for fourth amongst rookie rushers.

In 2014, Hardegree was an offensive quality control coach for the Denver Broncos, also working with Gase. Hardegree helped the Broncos finish 12-4, earn an AFC West title and first-round bye in the playoffs. Denver ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring, averaging 30.1 points per contest. Quarterback Peyton Manning completed 66.2 percent of his passes for 4,727 yards and 39 touchdowns and set the NFL's career-passing touchdown record on Oct. 19, 2014 against San Francisco. Wide receiver Demaryius Thomas recorded 1,619 receiving yards, breaking the team record for most receiving yards in a season. Thomas' 111 receptions were a career high and ranked No. 2 in the NFL. Wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders also set career highs in both receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,404) and ranked No. 5 in the NFL in both categories. Running back C.J. Anderson, who entered the 2014 season with just seven career carries, rushed for 648 yards on 140 carries (4.6 avg.) and eight touchdowns over the final seven games of the regular season, helping the Broncos win five of the seven contests. Anderson was the first Denver running back since 2004 to rush for 150 yards in back-to-back games.

Prior to Denver, Hardegree spent three years (2011-13) as an intern at Louisiana State, working with the offense in 2012-13 and the defense in 2011. During his three seasons, LSU went 33-7 overall, winning the SEC in 2011 and advancing to the 2012 BCS National Championship game. In 2013, LSU ranked No. 23 out of 124 FBS teams in scoring, averaging 35.8 points per game. Current Miami Dolphins wide receiver Jarvis Landry was the team's leading receiver, hauling in 77 receptions for 1,193 yards and 10 touchdowns. At LSU, Hardegree also coached N.Y. Giants wide out Odell Beckham, a two-time Pro Bowl selection and the 2014 Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, and Cincinnati Bengals running back Jeremy Hill, who rushed for 1,124 yards as a rookie in 2014.

Hardegree began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Duke (2008-10), where he earned his master's degree. He worked primarily with the offense under head coach David Cutcliffe, who coached both Peyton and Eli Manning at Tennessee and Ole Miss, respectively.

Hardegree played quarterback at Tennessee, where he was also a tennis student-athlete. He earned All-SEC Academic team honors from 2004-07 and graduated in 2007 with a degree in exercise science. A native of Jackson, Tennessee, he is married to his wife, Lauren.

SHAWN JEFFERSON

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: CENTRAL FLORIDA // NFL: 25TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Shawn Jefferson is in his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named wide receivers coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

Jefferson played wide receiver for 13 seasons in the NFL and spent the past nine years coaching the position for the Tennessee Titans (2013-15) and Detroit Lions (2005-12).

As the wide receivers coach for the Titans the past three seasons, Jefferson mentored Kendall Wright, who ranked No. 12 among AFC wide receivers in receptions (187) and receiving yards (2,202) from 2013-15, despite missing several games of the 2015 season due to injury.

An immediate impact was made on Wright and the Titans' receivers when Jefferson joined the staff in 2013. In just his second year in the NFL, Wright totaled 94 receptions in 1,079 yards (11.5 avg.), the fifth-most receptions by a Titans player in team history. His receiving total was the fourth-best among second-year players. Wright became the first receiver in franchise history to lead the team in receptions in each of his first two years. In 2011, Wright and wide receiver Nate Washington combined to catch 152 passes for 1,998 yards (13.1 avg.).

Prior to Tennessee, Jefferson spent eight seasons on the Lions' coaching staff. As wide receiver Calvin Johnson's position coach, Jefferson helped the standout break the NFL record for receiving yards in a season (1,964) in 2012. Jefferson worked with Johnson in 2011 and 2012 where he led the NFL in receiving both seasons. Johnson set numerous NFL records, including most receiving yards in a single season (1,964), first player to have consecutive seasons with 1,600 receiving yards (2011, 2012), first player with consecutive games of at least 100-receiving yards (8), first player with consecutive games of at least 10 receptions (4) and most receptions in a four-quarter game (329). During the five years that Jefferson worked with him, Johnson led the NFL in receiving yards (7,080), receiving touchdowns (50) and receptions of 25 yards or more (70). Johnson earned three Pro Bowl invitations (2010-12) and twice was named to the Associated Press All-Pro team in 2011 and 2012.

In 2011, Detroit's vaunted passing attack earned the Lions a 10-win season and their first playoff berth since 1999. The Lions offense set team records for completions (423) and passing yards (5,071) as Johnson caught 16 touchdowns, the most by an NFL player since 2007. Jefferson also helped develop wide receiver Nate Burleson, who posted a career high with 73 receptions, and rookie wide receiver Titus Young who totaled 48 grabs.

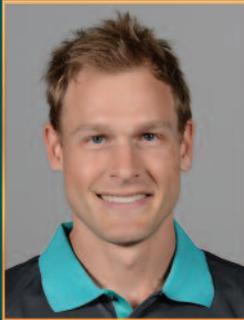

He joined the Lions in 2005 as a coaching assistant and was promoted to offensive assistant in 2006 and assistant wide receivers coach in 2007. After his playing career was over, Jefferson began coaching in 2004 as a volunteer assistant coach at his former high school, Williams Raines in Jacksonville, Fla.

Jefferson played wide receiver for four NFL teams over 13 seasons - the San Diego Chargers (1991-95), New England Patriots (1996-99), Atlanta Falcons (2000-02) and Detroit Lions (2003). He totaled 195 games played, 470 receptions, 7,023 receiving yards and 29 touchdowns. Jefferson was a ninth-round selection (240th overall) of the Houston Oilers in 1991.

A Jacksonville, Florida native, Jefferson played at Central Florida from 1988-90. He and his wife, Marla, have two daughters, Paige and Faith, and a son, Van.

BEN JOHNSON

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA // NFL: FIFTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Ben Johnson enters his fifth season with the Dolphins and his first as the team's assistant wide receivers coach, having been named to the position on Jan. 25, 2016. Johnson originally joined the organization as the team's offensive assistant on Feb. 10, 2012 and spent three seasons as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach (2013-15). He was also the team's tight ends coach for the final 12 games of the 2015 season.

As the tight ends coach, Johnson helped Jordan Cameron catch at least one pass in every game of the 2015 season. All three of Cameron's touchdown receptions came after Johnson began to oversee the position group. Dion Sims caught 18 passes for 127 yards and one touchdown, all in the final 12 games of the year.

Johnson spent the offseason and the first four games of the 2015 season assisting with the quarterback position and the development of Ryan Tannehill. Tannehill passed for 4,208 passing yards and has steadily improved his passing yardage in all four of his NFL seasons with Johnson on staff. Tannehill's 15,460 passing yards in his first four seasons are the third-most by any quarterback in NFL history over the course of their first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill has thrown for more than 3,000 yards in each of his four seasons, becoming the first to do so in his first four seasons with the team.

In 2014, Johnson helped Tannehill finish with 4,045 passing yards and he joined Marino as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season. His 27 touchdowns in 2014 were also the sixth-most in Dolphins history, and the most since Marino threw 30 in 1994. Tannehill also had a completion percentage of 66.4 and a passer rating of 92.8. Additionally, Tannehill set a franchise record with his 392 completions, surpassing Marino's 385 in 1994.

Johnson helped guide quarterback Tannehill to throw for 3,912 passing yards in 2013. His 7,207 passing yards through his first two seasons were the fifth-most by any quarterback over the course of their first two seasons in NFL history.

In 2012, Johnson assisted with an offensive unit which finished fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15) and tied for third in the NFL in fewest offensive penalties (39). In addition, Tannehill set franchise rookie records in several offensive categories and became the first quarterback in Dolphins history to start in all of the team's games in his first year in the league.

Johnson joined the Dolphins after spending three years (2009-11) at Boston College. He spent his final season as tight ends coach after spending his first two seasons as a graduate assistant.

Johnson played four seasons as a quarterback for North Carolina after walking on to the team in 2004. He graduated from North Carolina in 2008 with a B.S. in mathematics and a B.S. in computer science. Johnson is married to his wife, Jessica, and the couple resides in Hollywood, Florida.

1972 DOLPHINS LEAD NFL IN POINTS SCORED AND ALLOWED

En route to their perfect 17-0 season, the 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL that year in both points scored and points allowed. During the regular season, they averaged 27.5 points per contest while yielding an average of only 12.2. They are one of only 12 teams in NFL history to achieve this feat, and of the other 11, only the 1996 Green Bay Packers went on to win the Super Bowl.

VANCE JOSEPH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: COLORADO // NFL: 14TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Vance Joseph begins his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named defensive coordinator on Jan. 12, 2016.

A former NFL cornerback, Joseph brings 11 years of experience coaching defensive backs in the league. He spent the past two seasons (2014-15) as the defensive backs coach for the Cincinnati Bengals, where he helped the team lead the NFL with 41 interceptions and limit opposing passers to the lowest passer rating (77.4) in the NFL during those two seasons.

During Joseph's tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals were the only team to have more interceptions (41) than passing touchdowns allowed (36). Cincinnati also led the league in interception percentage (3.3 percent) and touchdown percentage (2.9) and ranked No. 5 in fewest yards allowed per attempt (6.60) during that span.

In 2015, Joseph's opportunistic secondary helped the Bengals win 12 games for the first time since 1988. Cincinnati won the AFC North and advanced to the playoffs for the fifth-consecutive season. The Bengals ranked No. 2 in the league in fewest points allowed, surrendering just 17.4 points per contest. The defense intercepted 21 passes, the third-best mark in the league. The 17 interceptions recorded by Cincinnati defensive backs were third-most of any secondary in the NFL. The Bengals joined the Carolina Panthers as the only two NFL teams to intercept more passes (21) than passing touchdowns allowed (18) in 2015. Eight of those interceptions came from safety Reggie Nelson, who tied for the NFL lead in the statistic. The eight interceptions were the most Nelson recorded in his nine-year NFL career and earned him a spot on the Associated Press All-Pro second team and a Pro Bowl invitation.

The 2014 Bengals ranked tied for third in the league in interceptions (20). The defensive backfield recorded 15 of those interceptions and it was the first time since 2005 the Bengals had four defensive backs with three-plus interceptions. Cincinnati and the Buffalo Bills were the only two teams in the league with more interceptions (20) than passing touchdowns allowed (18) and the Bengals held opposing passers to the third-lowest rating (75.8) in the NFL.

As the defensive backs coach for the Houston Texans from 2011-13, Joseph helped the club win two AFC South titles and two playoff games. Cornerback Johnathan Joseph earned Pro Bowl selections in 2011 and 2012, the first two nods of his career.

Over the course of Joseph's three seasons in Houston, the Texans led the league in opponent completion percentage (54.5) and ranked No. 3 in the league in passing yards allowed (203.5 yards per game) and No. 5 in yards allowed per attempt (6.56).

In 2012, Houston set a franchise record with three interception returns for touchdowns, all by defensive backs. For the second-consecutive season, Houston led the NFL in opponent completion percentage (53.0).

Joseph made a major improvement to Houston's secondary when he arrived in 2011. He inherited the NFL's worst pass defense (267.5 yards allowed per game) and, in one season, improved the unit to third (189.7 yards allowed per game) in the NFL. The Texans led the league in opponent completion percentage (51.9) by nearly two points and were second in opponent passer rating (69.0).

Prior to Houston, Joseph spent six seasons (2005-10) on the San Francisco 49ers coaching staff, including five years as the team's defensive backs coach. He also coached defensive backs at Wyoming, Colorado and Bowling Green. He was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Colorado, from 1999-2001.

Joseph signed with the N.Y. Jets as an undrafted free agent (1995) and played defensive back for two years in the NFL with the Jets (1995) and Indianapolis Colts (2006), playing in 17 games (six starts) and recording two interceptions.

A native of Marrero, Louisiana, Joseph was a three-year letterman at Colorado where he played quarterback and running back for the Buffaloes. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Colorado in 1994. He and his wife, Holly, have a daughter, Nataly, and a son, Stone.

MARWAN MAALOUF

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: BALDWIN-WALLACE // NFL: 12TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Marwan Maalouf enters his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named assistant special teams coach on Jan. 30, 2013.

Working with Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator Darren Rizzi, Maalouf has helped the Dolphins rank in the top half of Rick Gosselin's annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings each season he has been in Miami.

In 2015, Maalouf helped the Dolphins rank No. 15 despite having a rookie punter and kicker. Wide receiver and punt returner Jarvis Landry opened the season with a 69-yard punt return for a touchdown in the Week 1 win at Washington, earning himself AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Rookie punter Matt Darr averaged 47.6 yards per punt, the fourth-best single-season mark in team history and finished third in the NFL in the statistic. Rookie kicker Andrew Franks successfully converted 13 of his 16 field goal attempts and the field goal block unit ranked No. 1 in the NFL in field goal percentage against.

Maalouf assisted with a unit that set a franchise record with three blocked punts in a season in 2014. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the year, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays weren't limited to the block units as rookie Jarvis Landry won AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and was the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, Maalouf assisted with a unit that was rated among the top eight in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. The 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked No. 2 in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), No. 2 in net average (42.4, which is the eighth best in NFL history), tied for No. 3 with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

Maalouf joined the Dolphins after spending the 2012 season as special teams coordinator with the Indianapolis Colts. Under his direction, the Colts special teams significantly improved in 2012, aided in part by returning a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season for the just the sixth time in franchise history and first since 2001. The kick return unit recorded its first touchdown since 2009. The Colts also posted an 11.1-yard average per punt return which ranked as the fourth-highest punt return average in franchise history. Individually, the Colts special teams saw returner Deji Karim return a kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown in the final week of the regular season against the Houston Texans. Karim's return was the longest return in franchise history in 39 years. In 2012, Pat McAfee was among the elite kickoff specialists and punters in the NFL, finishing third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in punting average with a 47.9 per punt average. McAfee, who also handled the kickoff duties for Indianapolis, finished fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL with 43 touchback kicks. McAfee made his mark in the Colts history books as his 2012 season set franchise single-season records for kickoff touchbacks (43), punting average (47.9), net punting average (40.3), 50.0-yard average games (five) and tied the franchise record for punts inside the 20 (26). Rounding out Maalouf's unit in 2012 was kicker Adam Vinatieri. His 53-yard game-winning field goal against the Minnesota Vikings was the longest game-winning field goal Vinatieri has made in his career in the last minute of the fourth quarter or in overtime. Also in 2012, Vinatieri surpassed 100 points scored for the season for the 15th time in his career.

Prior to joining the Colts, Maalouf spent four seasons (2008-11) as the assistant special teams coach for the Baltimore Ravens. In 2010, Maalouf helped rookie kickoff returner David Reed lead the NFL in kickoff return average (29.2) and coached a unit which finished third in the league in opponent average starting position (27.2-yard line). Kicker Billy Cundiff earned his first Pro Bowl invitation after tying an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line).

In 2009, Baltimore ranked No. 2 in the NFL in both kickoff return average (26.3) and opponents' average starting field position (26.9). Maalouf joined the Ravens in 2008 and that season coached punter Sam Koch, who had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second in the league with 34 kicks inside the 20-yard line. Maalouf also helped guide special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo to his third Pro Bowl selection.

Prior to coming to Baltimore, Maalouf spent the 2007 season working for Scouts Inc., writing weekly scouting reports and game reviews for ESPN.com and worked as a volunteer coach for Baldwin-Wallace.

From 2004-06, Maalouf was the special teams quality control coach for the Cleveland Browns. During his final season, he coached Josh Cribbs, who ranked No. 3 in the NFL with 1,545 total return yards. The Browns' punt return average of 10.3 yards also ranked No. 7 in the NFL.

Maalouf spent two seasons (2002-03) as an assistant offensive line coach/graduate assistant at Rutgers following a brief stint at Eastern Michigan as a graduate assistant. He also held positions as an assistant offensive line coach for Fordham (2001) and Baldwin-Wallace College (2000).

Collegiately, Maalouf earned three letters while playing guard for Baldwin-Wallace (1997-1999) and was a two-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference selection. He was Baldwin-Wallace's Outstanding Offensive Lineman and was elected as a team captain his senior season.

Maalouf is a graduate of Strongsville (Ohio) High School, where he lettered in football and track and field. He and his wife, Dana, have a son, Mason. His last name is pronounced mah-LOOF.

DARREN RIZZI

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: RHODE ISLAND // NFL: EIGHTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: EIGHTH SEASON

Darren Rizzi enters his eighth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff. The 2016 season will mark his sixth as special teams coordinator and second as assistant head coach after he added those responsibilities on Oct. 12, 2015. He joined the Dolphins as assistant special teams coach in 2009.

In his tenure at Miami, three members of the special teams (long snapper John Denney [two times], punter Brandon Fields and kicker Dan Carpenter) have been named to the Pro Bowl. Rizzi has coached four players to the NFL All-Rookie team in just the past three years. Punter Matt Darr earned All-Rookie honors in 2015, kick returner Jarvis Landry in 2014 and kicker Caleb Sturgis and special-teamer Don Jones in 2013.

Rizzi's units have ranked in the top half of Rick Gosselin's annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings in all five years that Rizzi has served as the Dolphins' special teams coordinator, including a No. 15 ranking in 2015 despite having a rookie punter and kicker. Landry earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his Week 1 performance at Washington where he returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown in the win. Landry was fourth in the league with 356 punt return yards. Darr posted the fourth-best single-season punting average (47.6) in team history and earned NFL All-Rookie team honors as his average ranked third in the league. Rookie kicker Andrew Franks was 13-for-16 in field goal attempts. The Dolphins ranked in the top 10 in five special teams categories.

In 2014, Rizzi guided a special teams unit that set the franchise record with three blocked punts in a season. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the year, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays weren't limited to the block units as Jarvis Landry won AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and was the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, for the third-consecutive season, the Dolphins' special teams under the direction of Rizzi were rated among the top eight units in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. Miami was one of three teams to remain in the top 10 (along with Baltimore and Seattle) in both the 2013 and 2012 rankings. Additionally, from 2011-13, only Miami and Seattle were ranked by the Dallas Morning News in the top 10.

Rizzi's 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), second in net average (42.4, which is the eight best in NFL history), tied for third with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

The 2012 campaign built off a strong 2011 season for Rizzi and the Dolphins special teams. Gosselin ranked Miami as one of the top five special teams units in the NFL for the second consecutive year, making the Dolphins the only team in the NFL to rank in the top five during both the 2012 and 2011 seasons, following a second place finish in '11.

In 2012, Fields continued to establish himself as one of the most productive punters in NFL history, leading the NFL with a 50.2 average, while moving into first place in team history for highest-career punting average (46.4), highest-career net punting average (38.7) and second place in NFL history for highest-career punting average (46.4). Newcomer Marcus Thigpen became the first player in team history to return a kickoff (96 yards at Buffalo on November 5, 2012) and a punt (72 yards at Houston on September 9, 2012) for touchdowns in the same season. Thigpen also stood alone as the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in kickoff return average (27.4) and punt return average (12.2) in 2012. Additionally, Miami became the first NFL team in the last 20 years to block a field goal, block a punt and recover their own onside kick in the same game when the unit accomplished that feat at the New York Jets on October 28, 2012.

Rizzi led an impressive 2011 season by the Dolphins special teams. The units showed the biggest improvement of any NFL special teams unit in the NFL from 2010 to 2011 according to the annual special teams report compiled by Gosselin. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from their 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011. The 22-place advancement was aided by Carpenter's 13 of 16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards, finishing just behind the special teams units of the San Francisco 49ers.

After Rizzi took over the special teams in Week 5, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punt average, punt and kick return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punt average.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a collegiate head coach, including the 2008 season at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams unit. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years there and the linebackers for his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at Rutgers, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his stint at Rutgers, Rizzi was the head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. Rizzi was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. He coached at New Haven from 1994-97, where he was UNH's defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All-American in 1992. Following his time at Rhode Island, Rizzi was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career.

A native of Hillsdale, New Jersey and a graduate of Bergen (N.J.) Catholic High School in New Jersey, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992. During the spring of 2013, Rizzi was inducted into the Bergen Catholic High School Hall of Fame. A two-sport high school star, he concluded his prep football career with 69 receptions, a school record which stood for 22 years, while also excelling as an All-League outfielder for the baseball team.

He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Alexandra, and three sons, Christian, Casey and Cameron.

TERRELL WILLIAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: EAST CAROLINA // NFL: FIFTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Terrell Williams enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named defensive line coach on Feb. 6, 2015.

In his first season with Miami, Williams helped the defensive line become one of just four NFL teams to have three players with six-plus sacks in 2015 (defensive end Cameron Wake, 7.0; defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, 6.0; defensive end Olivier Vernon, 7.5). Wake posted four sacks in the win at Tennessee (Oct. 18), tied for the fifth-most sacks in a single game in club history. He also helped Wake rank tied for second in the NFL with four forced fumbles in 2015 despite only playing in seven games due to injury. The defensive end totaled seven sacks for the sixth consecutive season and joined Julius Peppers as the only two NFL players to total at least seven sacks in each of the past six seasons.

Williams was also influential in the play of Vernon and Suh. Vernon finished the 2015 campaign with 36 quarterback hits, the third-most in the NFL, and tied for fourth among all players with 18 tackles for loss. Among all defensive tackles, Suh was second with 11.5 tackles for loss. He also was tied for fourth among players at his position with 20 quarterback hits.

Williams joined the Dolphins from the University of Florida, having been named the school's defensive line coach on Jan. 3, 2015. Prior to Florida, Williams spent three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders (2012-14). In 2014, Williams' unit helped the defense rank eighth in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per play (3.97) and finished second in the NFL in stuffs (tackles recorded at or behind the line of scrimmage) with 54. In 2013, the Raiders ranked 13th in the NFL and sixth in the AFC in rushing yards allowed per game (107.9), while limiting three opponents to less than 40 yards on the ground. Additionally that season, the Raiders held opponents to only five rushes of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest allowed in the league.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Williams spent two seasons (2010-11) as defensive line coach at Texas A&M. During his tenure, the Aggies advanced to a pair of bowl games, including a win over Northwestern in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2011. The Aggies led the nation with 51 sacks in 2011 and finished third nationally with an average of eight tackles for loss per game. In 2010, Williams helped lead the Aggies to a share of the program's first Big 12 South crown in more than a decade and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. Texas A&M allowed just 101.9 rushing yards per game, ranking 12th in the nation. In his first season, A&M improved from 90th to 30th nationally in rushing defense, allowing 130.2 yards per contest.

Williams came to A&M after four years (2006-09) as the defensive line coach at Purdue. During his time with the Boilermakers, Williams coached the entire line each year with the exception of 2008, when he focused solely on the defensive end position. During his time at Purdue, Williams tutored future NFL lineman Anthony Spencer, who led the NCAA in tackles for loss and was a first-team All-American before becoming a first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys. He also coached future NFL players Cliff Avril, Alex McGee, Mike Neal, Ryan Kerrigan and Kawann Short.

Prior to his tenure at Purdue, Williams coached the defensive line at Akron from 2004-05. During his time at Akron, the Zips won the Mid-American Conference championship game (2005) and played in the Motor City Bowl, both marking firsts in program history. Williams spent two years (2002-03) as the defensive line coach at Youngstown State and served on the coaching staff at North Carolina A&T from 1999-2001. He helped North Carolina A&T rank third in total defense among NCAA Division I-AA schools in 1999, allowing 259.4 yards per game, and fifth in 2000 with 261.2 yards per game. Williams got his start in coaching working with the defensive line at Fort Scott Community College during the 1998 season.

In 2007, Williams served an internship with the Seattle Seahawks, assisting the defensive line during training camp. During the summer of 1999, Williams interned with the Jacksonville Jaguars, assisting with the defensive line, and with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

A native of Los Angeles, Williams played nose guard at East Carolina and helped the Pirates to a Liberty Bowl victory over Stanford in 1995. He transferred to East Carolina from West Los Angeles College and earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in history. # 1 // MASCOT

T.D.

HT: 7-0 // WT: ALL MUSSELS // COLLEGE: ATLANTIS '97
ACQUIRED: FA, 1997 // NFL: 20TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: 20TH SEASON

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor, and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals and various other functions.

A nine-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. has also performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, and he was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a "T.D." at your next event, please email CBonk@dolphins.com.

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

– VOLUNTEERISM –

The Miami Dolphins and AARP Foundation have a multi-year partnership to pack one million meals delivered by U.S. Hunger to Feeding South Florida's network of individuals 50+ in Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties. At the Million Meal Pack event, more than 5,000 energetic volunteers work an assembly line, combining ingredients and vitamins, to collectively make one million nutritious meals of rice and beans. The volunteers donate their time to help those less fortunate and revel in music, football activities and chances to win prizes. The event includes a Community Festival that inspires participants to look for opportunities to continue to serve their senior neighbors. In addition, the Dolphins and AARP Foundation announced the extension of their community program partnership, including making AARP Foundation the presenting sponsor of the Dolphins Special Teams volunteer network. Miami Dolphins Special Teams powered by AARP Foundation is a year-long community volunteer program offering opportunities to volunteers of all ages to engage in community service. To volunteer, please visit Dolphins.com/VolunteerNow.

- COMMUNITY SERVICE ACADEMY: The Miami Dolphins Community Service Academy (CSA) powered by AARP Foundation is a week-long "camp" like volunteer experience for high school students. The CSA is specifically for high school students to gain community service hours for graduation or for any potential scholarships. At the end of each week, students will have completed 40 hours of community service.

- 9/11 - NATIONAL DAY OF SERVICE AND REMEMBRANCE: In 2009, Congress designated September 11th as a National Day of Service and Remembrance under bipartisan federal law, and charged the Corporation for National and Community Service with helping to support this effort across the country. On the anniversary of the September 11th attacks, Americans unite in service in the same remarkable way that so many came together following that day. Each year, the Miami Dolphins choose a project to engage our Special Teams powered by AARP Foundation volunteers and to provide a lasting benefit to the South Florida community.

- JANUARY - MLK DAY (ON MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY): Every year, Miami Dolphins Special Teams powered by AARP Foundation engage in a service project on MLK Day encouraging the community to volunteer. Past service projects included painting schools, beautifying neighborhoods and parks, serving in soup kitchens, supporting senior citizens and running education activities for children.

– YOUTH PROGRAMS –

The Miami Dolphins Youth message is DOL-FIT. DOL-FIT has three parts: education, physical fitness and positive choices. The principles are taught through Dolphins Academy, Gatorade Junior Training Camp, Girls' Flag Football Jamboree, High School Player Development 7on7 programs, Dolphins Academy Summer Camps and various other Dolphins Academy programs.

The Miami Dolphins Youth Programs' mission is to emphasize the importance of education, physical fitness and positive choices for kids in a safe and fun environment. The Miami Dolphins Youth Programs' vision is to prepare the next generation of leaders in staying physically active through our Gatorade Junior Training Camps (JTC), Youth Football Clinics and Youth Football Camps.

• GATORADE JUNIOR TRAINING CAMPS: The Gatorade Junior Training Camps are a free service to the South Florida community. Started in 1997, the Gatorade Junior Training Camp travels to elementary schools in South Florida bringing a fun, fitness-oriented clinic teaching children the benefits of hydration, staying physically active while teaching the game of football. An average of 500 kids are impacted at each school.

• MIAMI DOLPHINS/RISE TEAM YOUTH AWARDS: The Miami Dolphins and the Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE) are teaming up during the 2016 season to recognize youth football players, coaches and parents who have demonstrated their commitment to being leaders on and off the field. Each week, the Dolphins youth programs team will select a High School Coach of the Week, High School Player of the Week, Youth Player of the Week, Student of the Week and Team Mom of the Week.

Each award recipient will be presented with a plaque on the field during a game, and receive acknowledgement of their accomplishment in the game program and through the Dolphins' and RISE's social media platforms. They also will receive a pair of tickets to a Miami Dolphins home game and a Dolphins/RISE T-shirt.

As a newly added component of the program and part of the Dolphins/RISE partnership, winners will be empowered to make a difference by participating in a RISE training program where they will learn how to use the unifying power of sport to promote the importance and benefits of unity, equality and inclusiveness as well as address racial tensions their teams, schools and communities might experience.

Awardees also will be encouraged to take a pledge, committing to stand up to racial inequality and share how they plan to affect change by creating a "How I RISE" video message, which will be posted on RISEtoWIN.org.

• DOLPHINS ACADEMY: Dolphins Academy trains athletes year round in football technique, running and core strength. What makes this different from every other training program is that only NFL alumni do the coaching. Twice a week kids ages five to 18 get the best instruction by NFL alumni.

• DOLPHINS ACADEMY 7ON7 TOURNAMENT: Miami Dolphins Youth Programs host more than 1,300 student-athletes as part of the annual Dolphins Academy Youth and High School 7on7 Tournament. The event begins with a symposium focusing on character development, practical life

In addition, the symposium features guest speakers and special breakout sessions led by the Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE), a nonprofit organization dedicated to harnessing the unifying power of sport to advance race relations and drive social progress (www.RISEtoWIN.org).

- GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL FLAG SKILLS CLINIC AND JAMBOREE: Girls High School Flag Skills Clinic is a two-day program available to young women in South Florida and teaches them the basic fundamentals of football. The camp is broken into offense and defense. At each station, the coaches demonstrate the proper stances and mechanics for that position or drill. More than 450 ladies from South Florida attend the clinic and more than 1,000 female student-athletes representing over 25 high schools play in a flag football tournament on the second day.

- DOLPHINS CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES: The Dolphins Championship Series is the championship of all championships. The seven major youth football leagues in South Florida, as well as teams from as far as Orlando, compete to see which teams are the best in the state of Florida.

- FINS FRENZY: Fins Frenzy is a fun, upbeat program that emphasizes education, physical fitness and positive choices. The assembly is performed by a Miami Dolphins alumnus who is accompanied by none other than T.D., the Dolphins mascot. The Dolphins alumnus highlights the importance of education, physical fitness and positive choices (DOL-FIT), while T.D. entertains the kids with his unique mannerisms and fun personality. In an effort to reach as many children as possible, the Fins Frenzy is intended for elementary-aged students. An average of 1,000 kids are reached each session.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only seven teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. ### HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium is South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins, University of Miami Hurricanes, Orange Bowl international soccer, concerts and other world-class events.

A true global entertainment destination, this multi-purpose, open-air complex is in the midst of a multi-year, $500 million renovation fine-tuned to enhance the fan experience. On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved by a 7-4 vote a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward Hard Rock Stadium's modernization plan. The agreement gives bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins Owner Stephen Ross being financially responsible for the renovation of Hard Rock Stadium without county assistance. The modernization is being privately funded by Ross at an estimated cost of $500 million.

Phase I of the project, that was completed for the 2015 season, changed every seat in the stadium, rebuilt the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, moved seats 25 feet closer to the field on the north and south sidelines, introduced five new premium spaces and allowed fans to enjoy improved food, enhanced concourses and 16 new restroom facilities throughout the facility. For the 2016 season, Hard Rock Stadium will have installed a state-of-the-art canopy that will keep as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and protected from the rain and four giant high-definition video boards. Coming in 2017 are remodeled, modernized suites through the stadium offering a more intimate club space on the 200 level with improved amenities and food. Upon completion, Hard Rock Stadium will be a global entertainment destination, capable of attracting world-class events, including Super Bowls, college football championship games and international soccer to South Florida.

In 2007, Hard Rock Stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, and other general enhancements. In 2010, corporate offices were built on the east side of Hard Rock Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972 was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the offices.

Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

HISTORY

Now in its 29th year of operation, Hard Rock Stadium was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing $115 million when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a club level, along with executive suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility, which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On Jan. 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100 percent ownership.

On Aug. 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on Aug. 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on Jan. 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls include Super Bowl XXIX (Jan. 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXXIII (Jan. 31, 1999), Super Bowl XLI (Feb. 4, 2007) and Super Bowl XLIV (Feb. 1, 2010). Hard Rock Stadium has the honor of hosting South Florida's record 11th Super Bowl in 2020.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers. On September 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at the stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on Oct. 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Hard Rock Stadium is equipped with Platinum TE Paspalum, which was installed prior to the 2016 season. Platinum TE Paspalum is a scientifically engineered grass that has a higher tolerance for shade than most grasses. Platinum TE Paspalum spreads quickly and forms a dense turf. All of the sod used by the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium goes through a six-month enhancement process of being harvest and installed on plastic to thicken the sod and toughen the turf to meet the standards of the NFL. Hard Rock Stadium also has purchased 13 field grow lights to make up for the loss of direct sun light due to the shade canopy installed over the seating bowl as well as six very large oscillating fans to keep the grass as dry as possible on the surface. The mission is to provide the best playing surface in the NFL and for all international events.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in Jan. 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by Huizenga. In April 2006, two high-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports, were unveiled. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

In 2007, working with HOK Sport and Stiles Construction, both renowned in their respective fields of venue design and construction, the stadium completed a $250 million improvements and innovations project that included the addition of 360,000 square feet of enclosed space, new casual sitting and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new club level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities.

In 2008, Huizenga sold 50 percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Huizenga remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45 percent of the team and stadium to Ross in Jan. 2009. Ross became managing general partner with 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retained a five percent share of both and remained a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May, 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announced that Dolphin Stadium would be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS," written expressly for the team.

On Jan. 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

On Aug. 17, 2016, the Dolphins and Hard Rock International announced an 18-year agreement to name the newly renovated facility Hard Rock Stadium. As part of the agreement, the iconic lifestyle brand became the official Dolphins hotel and resort, casual restaurant partner and hospitality sponsor.

LOCATION

Hard Rock Stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Miami-Dade Broward County Line. The 160-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Hard Rock Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, Hard Rock Stadium is home to University of Miami college football and the Orange Bowl game. The stadium has hosted five Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, XLI and XLIV), the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl and four BCS National Championship Games (2001, 2005, 2009, 2013). The facility will host its sixth Super Bowl, when Super Bowl LIV is played at Hard Rock Stadium on Feb. 2, 2020. Hard Rock Stadium's largest attendance came when Alabama defeated Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship game in front of a record crowd of 81,120. Hard Rock Stadium had the distinction of being the first to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the U.S. mainland in 30 years. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003. The building is recognized throughout the industry as one of the busiest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to Hard Rock Stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Hard Rock Stadium has hosted numerous world class international soccer matches, including the Guinness International Champions Cup Finals in 2013 and 2014. The stadium has hosted the sport's most recognizable clubs including Manchester United, FC Barcelona, Chelsea FC and AC Milan. National teams matches have included international powerhouses Brazil, Spain, Colombia, England, USA and Honduras. The Brazil vs. Colombia match on Sept. 5, 2014 established the attendance record (73,429) for a soccer match held in the state of Florida.

Hard Rock Stadium also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007, Monster Jam, lacrosse competitions as well as various festivals and trade shows.

Numerous concerts also have been performed at Hard Rock Stadium, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2, 'N Sync, The Police, the Black Eyed Peas, Madonna and Jay Z and Beyonce. Hard Rock Stadium has twice broken its attendance records for entertainment events. U2's 360 Tour broke the record for highest concert attendance in the stadium's history when a crowd of 75,529 attended the rocking show on June 29, 2011. The record was broken as Hard Rock Stadium hosted the largest ever crowd for an entertainment event when 78,363 attended WrestleMania on April 1, 2012. At the time, that figured marked record attendance for the WWE.

NEW SEATING PRODUCTS

Hard Rock Stadium's modernization included doubling unique seating experiences from 8 to 16. Some of the newest seating products include:

THE 72 CLUB

The 598 seats in the 72 Club take the premium seating experience to another level. It's the most luxurious seating experience in all of South Florida sports and entertainment. Seats are double-padded, have 11 inches more legroom and are located at midfield. At any point in-game, guests are able to walk on the field on their way to a private club designed by the Rockwell Group.

LIVING ROOM BOXES

Hard Rock Stadium has created private four-person boxes known as Living Room Boxes. Located on the 35-yard line and within the Atos Club presented by EMC and Ford Field Clubs in the end zones, Living Room Boxes are the biggest, most comfortable seats in the stadium. These boxes give guests the ability to watch replays and highlights on their own private screens.

HYUNDAI CLUB

The Hyundai Club is a club located between the 30-yard lines on the north side that offers wider, padded seats. The club is designed by the Rockwell Group.

CORNER TERRACES

THE NINE

The NINE are open-air suites between the 30s that connect to a private club designed by the Rockwell Group. The NINE offer the best view of the field with the convenience of a private club.

The 10,000-square-foot LIV At Hard Rock Stadium has the look and feel of the LIV nightclub at the Fontainebleau Miami Beach hotel. Complete with a pair of bars, private cabanas and tables, dance floor and DJ booth, the space overlooks the west end zone and created a nightclub experience for the fan before, during and after the game.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the OB home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on November 10, 2007, when they dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on December 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on January 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

BAPTIST HEALTH TRAINING FACILITY AT NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University in Miami. On August 8, 2012, the Dolphins announced a comprehensive marketing and community partnership agreement with Baptist Health South Florida. The partnership includes the naming rights to the team's training facility as well as sports medicine care through Miami Orthopedics & Sports Medicine Institute. As a result of the partnership, the complex became officially known as the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University.

The 10 million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 98,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a full size 18-by-40 foot cold plunge pool, whirlpools, a state-of-the-art weight training room and a sports science lab.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, player lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields. The Dolphins also have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of the stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop and restrooms.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected throughout the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphins' positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more bright and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was a further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games. The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

Original Date, Venue	Opp.	New Date, Venue	Reason	Result
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	N.E.	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17
10/26/97, Pro Player Stadium	Chi.	10/27/97, PPS	World Series	Bears, 36-33, OT

JOE ROBBIE ALUMNI PLAZA

On Sept. 12, 2011, just hours before the season opener against the New England Patriots, Dolphins Chairman of the Board/Managing General Partner Stephen Ross was accompanied by Tim Robbie and Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson as Ross re-dedicated a statue of team founder Joe Robbie on the newly named Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza, located at Gate C of the Hard Rock Stadium.

Later during the 2011 season on Dec. 4, a little more than an hour before the Dolphins and Oakland Raiders game, the Dolphins unveiled the newly minted Walk of Fame. The Walk of Fame surrounds the statue of the late Robbie as the centerpiece of the Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza. Hall of Famers Don Shula, Marino, Griese, Nick Buoniconti, Jim Langer, Little, Larry Csonka, Stephenson and Paul Warfield joined Robbie in having their names immortalized in bronze as the inaugural inductees into the Walk. The second class of the Walk of Fame was inducted on Dec. 16, 2012 and included Tim Bowers, A.J. Duhe, Manny Fernandez, Nat Moore, Earl Morrall and Don Strock. On Dec. 29, 2013, Kim Bokamper, O.J. McDuffie, Eugene "Mercury" Morris and Keith Sims were officially inducted as the third Walk of Fame class. On Sept. 21, 2014, the Dolphins inducted the fourth class to the Walk of Fame, which included Jeff Cross, Sam Madison, Tony Nathan and Ed Newman.

2015 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1

DOLPHINS 17, REDSKINS 10
September 13, 2015

FedEx Field
Landover, Md.

On a day when Jarvis Landry did a little bit of everything for the Dolphins, it was an electric punt return that proved the difference in the season opener at Washington. Landry returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown to break a 10-10 tie and give Miami a 17-10 victory at FedEx Field. He also tied a career high with eight catches and had a nifty 14-yard run on an inside handoff from the shotgun formation. It was the third-consecutive season-opening victory for the Dolphins, who beat the Cleveland Browns in 2013 and beat the New England Patriots last season. Rishard Matthews had the other touchdown for the Dolphins, who overcame a 10-0 first-half deficit. Matthews scored on a 3-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill. After a difficult start, particularly against the run, the Dolphins defense came up with some big plays and cornerbacks Brent Grimes and Brice McCain both had interceptions. The Dolphins secured the victory when they stopped Washington on downs after a final drive that reached the Miami 20-yard line. The defense forced an incompleton on fourth down with a blitz that hurried quarterback Kirk Cousins' pass attempt. The offense was able to kill the clock thanks to a 22-yard reception by Lamar Miller and then a determined run to convert a third-and-8. Landry, who joined Marcus Thigpen (2012) and Tommy Vigorito (1982) as the only players in Dolphins history to score on a punt return in a season opener, scored halfway through the fourth quarter after taking a Tress Way punt. He ran through a gaping hole in the middle of the field before beating Way with a quick outside-inside move. Landry's touchdown came after the Dolphins had tied the score with a field goal by rookie Andrew Franks. That drive had featured Landry's 14-yard run and had the Dolphins with a first-and-goal from the 3-yard line. The Dolphins trailed 10-7 heading into the second half. After Matthews dropped a pass on second down, Washington got to Tannehill on third down and knocked the ball loose while in the process of tackling him. Offensive linemen Branden Albert and Ja'Wuan James both attempted to fall on the loose ball, but not only did they fail to secure it, they moved it closer to the Dolphins end zone. In the end, it was Washington rookie Preston Smith, who had punched the ball away to begin the madness, who recovered it at the Dolphins 42-yard line. There was no damage done because the Dolphins defense forced Washington into a three-and-out. Later in the third quarter, Washington saw a third-and-4 from the Dolphins 22-yard line turn into a third-and-29 after three consecutive penalties. In what mostly was a forgettable first half, the Dolphins got a much-needed score right before halftime. After Jordan Reed's 4-yard touchdown catch gave Washington a 10-0 lead with 1:49 left in the half, the Dolphins marched 80 yards in just 1:02 on a drive capped by Matthews' touchdown. The key player on the drive was tight end Jordan Cameron, who started things off with a 27-yard reception and later had a 13-yard catch that gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 3-yard line. Another big play came when Tannehill connected with Greg Jennings for an 11-yard gain and a roughing-the-passer penalty was tacked on. Things didn't get off to a very good start for the Dolphins, who allowed back-to-back drives of 11 and 10 plays sandwiched around a three-and-out by their offense. The Dolphins only trailed 3-0, however, after a missed field goal. The Dolphins' best scoring chance before the two-minute warning came after Grimes intercepted Cousins at the Washington 21-yard line. But Damien Williams was stopped for no gain on fourth-and-1 from the Washington 12.

GAME 2

JAGUARS 23, DOLPHINS 20
September 20, 2015

EverBank Field
Jacksonville, Fla.

The Dolphins rallied from a first-half deficit for a second-consecutive week, but they came up on the short end this time. Jason Myers hit a 28-yard field goal with 40 seconds left to break a 20-20 tie and hand the Dolphins their first loss of the season, 23-20 at EverBank Field in Jacksonville. The Dolphins had one last chance after taking over at their 20, but they didn't have a timeout and failed to get a first down. The loss spoiled a strong performance by quarterback Ryan Tannehill, who completed 30 of 44 passes for 359 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. His favorite receivers were Jarvis Landry and Rishard Matthews, who both went over 100 yards. Tannehill's touchdown passes went to running back Damien Williams in the first half and to tight end Jake Stoneburner in the third quarter. Stoneburner's touchdown came on his first NFL reception. Stoneburner, who was promoted off the practice squad Monday, was playing in his 10th NFL game. The star on offense for Jacksonville was second-year wide receiver Allen Robinson, who had five catches for 145 yards and two touchdowns in the first half alone. After tying the game 20-20 early in the third quarter, the Dolphins offense stalled by finishing with five punts before the final drive. The Dolphins were hurt throughout the game by penalties, none costlier than a personal foul call on defensive end Olivier Vernon that put Jacksonville at the Miami 19-yard line on the game-winning drive. Miami ended up being penalized 13 times for 112 yards. The game looked like it was going to be a shootout before it turned into a defensive battle in the second half, with some help from some untimely penalties by the Dolphins and dropped passes by the Jaguars. The Dolphins also got little production from their running game. They averaged only 2.6 yards on their 16 rushing attempts and Tannehill was the team's rushing leader with 17 yards. The Dolphins got only 5 rushing yards on their opening drive of the second half, but that didn't stop them from marching 80 yards and tying the game at 20-20 on Stoneburner's touchdown. Landry was the key player on the drive with a 36-yard catch to the Jaguars 32-yard line and a 13-yard reception to give the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 6-yard line. The Dolphins went into the locker room at halftime trailing 20-13 after Myers — who this season joined Miami defensive end

Terrence Fede as the only NFL players from Marist College — hit a 58-yard field goal on the last play of the first half. Jacksonville scored after Dolphins kicker Andrew Franks missed a 42-yard field goal attempt — his first NFL miss after three successful efforts. For the second time in two games, the Dolphins defense allowed a score on the first drive of the game, but this time it was a touchdown, a 3-yard reception by Robinson. After falling behind 10-0 at Washington in the opener last Sunday, the Dolphins found themselves down 17-6 in the first half against Jacksonville. Tannehill connected with Matthews for a 48-yard pass on the Dolphins' first play from scrimmage, leading to a 48-yard field goal that made it a 7-3 game. After Jacksonville responded with a field goal to restore its seven-point lead, Franks made a 41-yard field goal early in the second quarter to make it 10-6. Robinson's 46-yard touchdown made it 17-6, but the Dolphins answered immediately with an impressive 83-yard drive. The key player on the drive was tight end Jordan Cameron, who started things off with a 20-yard reception and later had a 26-yard catch that was accompanied by a roughing penalty on Jacksonville. On third-and-5 from the 10, Tannehill moved to his left after being unable to find an open receiver and hit Williams on the move around the 3-yard line. Williams did the rest, getting into the corner of the end zone just before falling out of bounds. At that point, the Dolphins appeared on their way to another comeback victory, but instead they saw their record fall to 1-1 heading into the home opener next Sunday against the Buffalo Bills.

GAME 3

BILLS 41, DOLPHINS 14
September 27, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

Behind three touchdown passes by quarterback Tyrod Taylor and three interceptions by their defense, the Bills handed the Dolphins a 41-14 loss at Sun Life Stadium for their home opener. It was the worst home-opening loss in Dolphins history, topping a 17-point defeat against the Dallas Cowboys in 2007. Linebacker Preston Brown had two of the Buffalo interceptions, including one he returned 43 yards for a touchdown late in the second quarter. Former Dolphins tight end Charles Clay, running back LeSean McCoy and wide receiver Chris Hogan caught touchdown passes for the Bills, and rookie Karlos Williams scored a rushing touchdown midway through the fourth quarter. Dan Carpenter also kicked two field goals. Rishard Matthews scored both touchdowns for the Dolphins, who dropped to 1-2 on the season with the game against the New York Jets in London next on the schedule. Matthews also passed the 100-yard receiving mark for the second consecutive game, becoming the first Dolphins player to accomplish that feat since Brandon Marshall in Weeks 15-16 of the 2010 season. The outcome pretty much was decided during a frustrating first half when the Dolphins saw Buffalo build a 27-0 lead. Ryan Tannehill threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Matthews on the Dolphins' first possession of the second half, and that was followed by a two-point conversion pass to Jarvis Landry to make it a 27-8 score. But Buffalo responded with an 80-yard drive that ended with a 39-yard touchdown pass from Taylor to Hogan. That drive was kept alive by Dolphins penalties twice, first when Walt Aikens was flagged for running into the kicker when Buffalo punted on fourth-and-2, and later when an illegal hands to the face penalty on Derrick Shelby gave Buffalo a first down after a third-and-3 pass fell incomplete. Matthews added a 46-yard touchdown with 7:56 left in the fourth quarter on a fourth-and-8 play where Tannehill threw on the run while trying to avoid the Buffalo pass rush. Andrew Franks missed the extra-point conversion. Buffalo recovered the ensuing onside kick and Williams then scored on a 41-yard run. Tannehill broke Dan Marino's franchise record of 156 consecutive passes without being intercepted and made it to 160 before he threw his first picks since the Minnesota game last Dec. 20. The Dolphins won the coin toss for the third time in three games, but elected to receive for the first time. The new strategy didn't help the Dolphins because they went three-and-out on offense and then saw Buffalo march 77 yards in a quick drive that took only five plays and 2:17. Clay did most of the damage on the drive, starting it with 9- and 24-yard catches and capping it with a 25-yard touchdown where he eluded three tackle attempts. Buffalo made it 14-0 on its next possession with an 81-yard drive that was highlighted by a 39-yard completion to Sammy Watkins and ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass to McCoy. The Dolphins had a chance to cut into the 14-point deficit after Landry's nifty 19-yard punt return, accompanied by a holding penalty on Buffalo, gave them a first down at the Bills 38-yard line. But on the very next play Landry bobbled a pass thrown slightly behind him and Brown picked off the carom to end Tannehill's interception-less streak. The Bills turned the takeaway into a field goal to go up 17-0 and went up 24-0 on Brown's interception return for a touchdown with 1:44 left in the first half. The Dolphins quickly got back into Buffalo territory, but Ronald Darby intercepted Tannehill on fourth-and-5 and that led to Carpenter's 51-yard field goal in the final seconds of the first half.

GAME 4

JETS 27, DOLPHINS 14
October 4, 2015

Wembley Stadium
London, England

The Dolphins followed the same preparation plans as last year for their return trip to England, but they certainly didn't get the same results. A year after routing the Oakland Raiders 38-14 at Wembley Stadium, the Dolphins found themselves on the wrong end of a 27-14 decision. The loss, the Dolphins' third consecutive setback following the season-opening victory at Washington, left Miami with a 1-3 record heading into their bye. Tight end Jake Stoneburner and wide receiver Kenny Stills caught touchdown passes for the Dolphins from Ryan Tannehill. The Dolphins trailed 27-7 early in the second half, but fought to the end and had a chance to make it a 27-21 game with five minutes left after getting a first-and-goal from the Jets 4-yard line. But Miami couldn't get the touchdown even after getting a new set of downs when defensive back Marcus Gilchrist was called for defensive holding on a failed fourth-down pass attempt. The Dolphins appeared to score on the next play, but rookie wide receiver DeVante Parker was called for offensive pass interference to make it first-and-goal from the 12. On fourth down from the 9, Darrelle Revis intercepted Tannehill in the end zone after Jarvis Landry fell when his feet tangled with those of Revis. Chris Ivory rushed for a career-high 166 yards and a touchdown for the Jets and Eric Decker caught a touchdown pass. The Dolphins finished the game 0-for-12 in third-down conversions. Tannehill was under pressure most of the afternoon with the Jets blitzing relentlessly and was held to 84 passing yards through the first three quarters. The Dolphins lost despite the Jets setting an opponent record for most penalty yards in a game. The standout for the Dolphins was Landry, who had 29 rushing yards on two jet sweeps and also had three punt returns of at least 20 yards. Landry's 28-yard punt return set up Stills' touchdown in the fourth quarter. Unfortunately for the Dolphins, they trailed 27-7 at that point. The Dolphins' first touchdown drive covered 88 yards and was greatly helped by two pass-interference penalties on the Jets — one on Revis for 36 yards while covering Landry and the other on Gilchrist for 22 yards while covering tight end Jordan Cameron. The Dolphins once again started slowly and didn't reach 100 total yards on offense until the fourth quarter. Things weren't much better on defense, with the Dolphins allowing 282 yards in the first half. Making matters worse, the Dolphins lost Pro Bowl cornerback Brent Grimes to a knee injury in the first half. On New York's first offensive snap, Ryan Fitzpatrick went deep to former Dolphins wide receiver Brandon Marshall for a 58-yard completion and two plays later Ivory scored on a 3-yard run. The Jets added a pair of Nick Folk field goals before the Dolphins cut their deficit to 13-7. New York put together a 75-yard drive near the end of the first half to increase the lead to 20-7, with Fitzpatrick hitting Decker with an 11-yard touchdown pass. The Jets then made it 27-7 on the opening possession of the second half by driving 78 yards on nine plays, including a 24-yard run by Ivory. The scoring play was a 2-yard run by Zac Stacy.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 38, TITANS 10
October 18, 2015

Nissan Stadium
Nashville, Tenn.

The Dolphins got back in the win column in convincing fashion in Dan Campbell's debut as interim head coach. Cameron Wake had four sacks in the first half, Lamar Miller rushed for 100 yards for the first time this season and Reshad Jones returned an interception for a touchdown as the Dolphins snapped a three-game losing streak with a 38-10 victory against the Tennessee Titans at Nissan Stadium. Ryan Tannehill threw two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter, connecting with tight ends Dion Sims and Jordan Cameron. Campbell was successful in his first replay challenge, and the result was a Tennessee incomplete pass becoming a sack and fumble recovery for Miami. In short, it was a memorable afternoon for Campbell and the Dolphins. It all began with the kind of quick start the Dolphins had been looking for and it continued with the Dolphins being in control throughout the game. Tennessee mounted a comeback attempt in the second half, but Brent Grimes stopped the Titans' momentum with a diving interception near the Miami goal line and the Dolphins leading 24-10. The Dolphins then closed the door with a 97-yard drive that was capped by Tannehill's 3-yard touchdown pass to Sims, back in the lineup after missing three games because of a concussion. The 12-yard TD pass to Cameron came on the first play after the two-minute warning. Grimes' interception was one of four takeaways for the Dolphins defense. In addition to the picks by Jones and Grimes, there were two fumble recoveries after Wake knocked the ball away from Tennessee quarterback Marcus Mariota on sacks. When they took a 17-3 lead in the second quarter on Miller's 7-yard touchdown, it gave the Dolphins their biggest lead since their 37-0 victory against the San Diego Chargers last Nov. 2. It was the second rushing touchdown of the game for the Dolphins following Jarvis Landry's 22-yard score on a Statue of Liberty play in the first quarter. Landry's touchdown was the first on the ground this season for the Dolphins, and it also marked the first time in 2015 that Miami scored any touchdown in the first quarter. Landry's touchdown capped a tremendous opening drive for the Dolphins that covered 80 yards in seven plays. The drive featured a key third-down completion to Rishard Matthews, followed by a 21-yard hook-up between Tannehill and Matthews again. It was the first time the Dolphins had scored a touchdown on their opening drive since Nov. 24, 2014 at Denver and it gave them their first lead in any game since their 17-10 victory against the Washington Redskins in the season opener. After the teams traded field goals, the Dolphins got their second touchdown after Jamar Taylor returned a fumble 42 yards to the Tennessee 34-yard line. The Dolphins stopped a Tennessee scoring threat late in the first half when Olivier Vernon sacked Mariota on third down to push the Titans out of field goal range. The last play of what was a memorable first half for the Dolphins was a sack by Wake, whose four first-half sacks tied for most by any player in the NFL since 1991. The game ended with a Jordan Kovacs sack against Titans backup quarterback Zach Mettenberger. The Dolphins (2-3) will play their next game next Sunday at Sun Life Stadium against the Houston Texans.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 44, TEXANS 26
October 25, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

The Dolphins finally returned to Sun Life Stadium and they put on quite a show for the home fans. Playing at home for the first time since Sept. 27, the Dolphins put together perhaps the most dominating first half in franchise history on their way to a 44-26 victory against the Houston Texans. The game wasn't nearly as close as the final score would indicate because the Dolphins led 41-0 at the half, breaking the franchise record of 35 first-half points set all the way back in 1967. The victory evened the Dolphins' record at 3-3 heading into their Thursday night game at New England. Among the many numbers that spoke of the Dolphins' domination was their advantage in total yardage in the first two quarters: 392-65. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill was a perfect 12-for-12 for 231 yards and four touchdowns in that first half, good for a perfect passer rating of 158.3. His three touchdown passes in the first quarter were the most by a Dolphins quarterback since 2004 when A.J. Feeley accomplished the feat in a December game against the Buffalo Bills. During that first half, Tannehill set a franchise record with his 18th consecutive completion dating back to the Tennessee game in Week 5. In the second half, Tannehill broke the NFL record with his 25th consecutive completion — the previous mark was 24 by Philadelphia's Donovan McNabb in 2004. The streak ended with an incompleteness in the fourth quarter. Three of Tannehill's touchdown passes covered 50 yards or more — 53 yards to Rishard Matthews, 50 yards to Jarvis Landry and 54 yards to Lamar Miller. Miller added a second long touchdown in the first half, breaking loose for an 85-yard run with 2:47 left in the half. It was the second-longest run in Dolphins history behind only Miller's 97-yard run against the New York Jets in the 2014 season finale. Miller had 175 rushing yards at halftime, and that would end up being his final tally, because he didn't have a rushing attempt in the second half. Landry had a second touchdown catch in the first half, that one good for 10 yards to make it 21-0 with 3:03 left in the first quarter. The defense also had fun in the first half, the highlight coming when Reshad Jones returned an interception for a touchdown for the second consecutive week — a first in franchise history. This touchdown was practically gift-wrapped for Jones, as tight end C.J. Fiedorowicz popped the ball up in the air as he was falling down. And, he had promised during the week, Jones again punctuated his touchdown with a twisting dive into the end zone. The Dolphins didn't give up a first down until midway through the second quarter, forcing Houston into three-and-outs on its first seven offensive possessions. The defense then came up with a fourth-down stop from the Miami 9-yard line when rookie Bobby McCain broke up a pass from quarterback Brian Hoyer. On the Texans' final possession of the first half, Ndamukong Suh recorded his first two sacks in a Dolphins uniform on back-to-back plays and Cameron Wake followed that with his second sack and second forced fumble of the half. Houston rookie Keith Mumphery returned the opening kickoff 41 yards. But after forcing a three-and-out, the Dolphins marched 88 yards on only six plays to start a run of three touchdowns on four possessions. All the long touchdown passes came after short passes and some spectacular after-the-catch work, none better than that of Landry on his 50-yard score. Landry caught a first-down pass near the Houston sideline, avoided a tackler and raced all the way across the field before cutting back at around the Houston 5-yard line. Houston scored on four consecutive possessions in the second half to make the score more respectable while the Dolphins got only a 53-yard field goal from rookie Andrew Franks. It didn't matter, though, because this game was decided in an unforgettable first half for the Dolphins.

GAME 7

PATRIOTS 36, DOLPHINS 7
October 29, 2015

Gillette Stadium
Foxborough, Mass.

After consecutive dominating performances, the Dolphins endured a tough night at Gillette Stadium. The Dolphins gave up four touchdown passes to Tom Brady and were shut out in the first half as their two-game winning streak came to an end with a 36-7 loss against the New England Patriots. The Dolphins also saw two starters carted off to the locker room, with Ja'Wuan James leaving with a toe injury in the first half and defensive end Cameron Wake leaving with an Achilles injury in the second half. Before leaving the game, Wake recorded his seventh sack of the season, all of them coming in the last three games. That was one of the highlights for the Dolphins on a night when there weren't anywhere near enough of them. One big play for the Dolphins was a 50-yard kickoff return by Jarvis Landry in the fourth quarter, but that was followed by a pair of New England sacks on a Miami drive that went three-and-out. After building a 41-0 halftime lead in their 44-26 victory against Houston on Sunday, the Dolphins found themselves with a 19-0 deficit against a New England team that came in with a 71-0 record at Gillette Stadium when leading at the half. The Dolphins quickly cut into the deficit with an 80-yard touchdown drive to start the second half but could get no closer after that. The Miami touchdown came on a 1-yard run by Lamar Miller, one play after Ryan Tannehill hit tight end Jordan Cameron with a 29-yard completion while moving to his left. But it overall was a tough night for the Dolphins offense, which managed only 76 yards and five first downs in the first half and never took a snap in New England territory in the first two quarters. One day after being named AFC Offensive Player of the Week, Tannehill was intercepted twice, once in each half, and sacked five times. Tannehill also was charged with a fumble on a play that epitomized the kind of night it was for the Dolphins. With the Dolphins trailing 7-0 early in the second quarter, Tannehill never moved when center Mike Pouncey did a shotgun snap and the rest of the offensive line started pass-protecting on third-and-10 from the Miami 9-yard line. The ball flew by Tannehill and into the end zone, where Tannehill fell on it for a New England safety. The game began with the Dolphins on defense and they had a chance to make a quick stop when New England faced a third-and-16 from its 26-yard line. But the Patriots converted with a 17-yard completion from Brady to running back Dion Lewis on a screen and three plays later Brady hit tight end Rob Gronkowski for a 47-yard touchdown. New England built its 19-point halftime cushion with a 52-yard Stephen Gostkowski field goal and a 16-yard touchdown reception by Lewis on its final two drives of the first half. The closest the Dolphins came to scoring in the first half was on the last play when rookie Andrew Franks had a 63-yard field goal attempt, which missed wide left. Yet the outcome was still in doubt early in the fourth quarter before defensive back Duron Harmon intercepted Tannehill and returned the pick to the Dolphins 15-yard line to set up the first of two fourth-quarter Brady touchdown passes to Julian Edelman. The Dolphins (3-4) return to action Nov. 8 when they face the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

GAME 8

BILLS 33, DOLPHINS 17
November 8, 2015

Ralph Wilson Stadium
Orchard Park, N.Y.

Big plays were the difference at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The Buffalo Bills scored touchdowns of 48, 44 and 38 yards and got another score after a 63-yard completion, and that propelled them to a 33-17 victory over the Dolphins. The loss left the Dolphins with a 3-5 record at the halfway mark of the 2015 season, with the next game scheduled for next Sunday against the Philadelphia Eagles at Lincoln Financial Field. Running back Lamar Miller scored both touchdowns for the Dolphins and also had three receptions of 20 yards or more. Andrew Franks kicked a 48-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins played from behind the whole way after a safety off an errant shotgun snap gave Buffalo a 2-0 lead in the first quarter. It marked the second consecutive game the Dolphins gave up a safety. The key sequence in the game came in the third quarter when the Dolphins trailed 19-14 and drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line. Facing a third-and-12 from the Bills 42, Ryan Tannehill fumbled when he was sacked by Jerry Hughes and Hughes grabbed the loose ball after a bounce and moved it to the Miami 40. On a subsequent third-and-4 from the Miami 34-yard line, Ndamukong Suh had a hold of quarterback Tyrod Taylor after he scrambled out of the pocket, which normally would result in the referee blowing the whistle for the quarterback being in the grasp. That would have pushed the Bills out of field goal range and forced a punt. But the play was allowed to continue until Taylor flung the ball out of bounds for an incompleteness. Buffalo was flagged for offensive holding on the play, and the Dolphins accepted the penalty instead of allowing the Bills to attempt a 52-yard field goal. On the ensuing third-and-14 from the 44, Taylor hit Sammy Watkins for a long touchdown. The touchdown was part of a huge day for Watkins, who caught eight passes for 168 yards. His 63-yard reception in the second quarter set up the first of two touchdowns runs by rookie Karlos Williams, this one from 11 yards. Williams scored on a 38-yard run midway through the fourth quarter to increase the Buffalo lead to 33-14. The other long Buffalo touchdown was a 48-yard run by LeSean McCoy that came on the series that followed the safety and made the score 9-0. The Dolphins made it 9-7 when Miller capped an impressive 85-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run. The big play on the drive was a 26-yard completion from Tannehill to Miller on a screen pass. Buffalo increased its lead with a 43-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter and Williams' first touchdown before the Dolphins mounted a drive late in the first half that ended in bitter disappointment. The Dolphins moved from their own 13 to a first-and-goal at the Buffalo 1-yard line, but by that time only two seconds remained on the clock, forcing Interim Head Coach Dan Campbell to choose between a chip-shot field goal attempt or going for the touchdown. Campbell chose the aggressive approach, but Bills cornerback Stephon Gilmore made a nice play to break up a pass attempt to tight end Dion Sims. The Dolphins bounced back from the setback by driving 80 yards for a touchdown to start the second half, with Miller scoring on another 1-yard run. With Tannehill passing for more than 300 yards and Jarvis Landry setting a career high with 11 catches, the Dolphins didn't have many problems moving the ball. But they just couldn't overcome all the big plays.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 20, EAGLES 19
November 15, 2015

Lincoln Financial Field
Philadelphia, Penn.

The Dolphins fought back from an early deficit to pull out an impressive victory. Safety Reshad Jones intercepted backup quarterback Mark Sanchez in the end zone with 4:26 left and the defense made another final stand to secure a 20-19 victory at Lincoln Financial Field. The victory snapped a two-game losing streak and put the Dolphins at 4-5 on the season, with the Dallas Cowboys coming to Sun Life Stadium next Sunday. The Dolphins clinched the victory when they stopped Philadelphia on downs in the final minutes, with Jones and linebacker Kelvin Sheppard teaming to stop Jordan Matthews well short of the first down after a fourth-down completion. Jarvis Landry scored the game-winning touchdown early in the fourth quarter when he caught a 4-yard pass that bounced off Eagles defensive end Connor Barwin and went high into the air. Landry later had a huge 20-yard reception on third-and-7 just before the two-minute warning. Ryan Tannehill had two touchdown passes on the day, the other going to running back Lamar Miller in the second quarter. Rookie Andrew Franks kicked two field goals to complete the Dolphins scoring. Landry's game-winning touchdown was set up by a 43-yard pass play from Tannehill to Rishard Matthews on the final play of the third quarter. Rookies wound up playing a big role for the Dolphins, in part because of injuries that sidelined linebacker Jelani Jenkins and cornerback Brice McCain. Linebacker Mike Hull made his NFL debut, one day after being signed off the practice squad; linebacker Neville Hewitt and cornerback Tony Lippett both saw their first action of the season on defense. The Dolphins defense, led by Ndamukong Suh, turned in a solid performance after a shaky first quarter and knocked Sam Bradford out of the game with a shoulder injury in the third quarter when Chris McCain hit him for a sack. McCain produced one of three forced fumbles for the Dolphins defense, although they weren't able to recover any of them. Another forced fumble came on a sack by Derrick Shelby and the third came on a bad snap. The Dolphins trailed 16-3 early in the second quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points. The comeback began with a 22-yard field goal by Franks after the Dolphins squandered a first-and-goal opportunity for the Philadelphia 5-yard line. Rookie Zach Vigil came up with perhaps the biggest play of the game when he broke through the line to block a punt and give Miami the ball at the Eagles 12-yard line. After an incomplection, Tannehill hit Miller in the flat and he took advantage of a great block by Matthews to scoot into the end zone to make it 16-13. Even though they scored on the opening possession of the game, it was a painful first quarter for the Dolphins. A 35-yard completion from Tannehill to Miller got the Dolphins in Eagles territory and led to Franks' 42-yard field goal that provided a 3-0 lead. But Philadelphia answered with a 60-yard completion from Bradford to tight end Brent Celek on its first offensive snap and three plays later Bradford threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Josh Huff. A miscue on the ensuing kickoff, when Damien Williams ran out of the end zone after dropping the ball and was tackled at the 1-yard line, led to the Dolphins giving up a safety for a third consecutive game. This one came when Tannehill was sacked in the end zone and the ball flew out of the end zone on the play. The Eagles increased their lead to 16-3 after receiving the free kick that followed the safety, as they marched 58 yards and got a 1-yard touchdown run from Ryan Mathews. The Eagles appeared ready to increase their lead again early in the second quarter after driving to a first-and-10 at the Dolphins 12-yard line. A sack by Suh on first down stopped the drive and forced the Eagles to go for a 32-yard field goal attempt, which was missed wide right by former Dolphins kicker Caleb Sturgis. The momentum turned at that point and the Dolphins started their comeback.

GAME 10

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 14
November 22, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

The Dolphins had to play catch-up again, but they ended up falling short against the Dallas Cowboys in their first game at Sun Life Stadium in four Sundays. Dez Bryant broke a 14-14 tie with a 16-yard touchdown reception on the first play of the fourth quarter and the Cowboys pulled out a 24-14 victory in quarterback Tony Romo's return to action after he was sidelined seven weeks because of a broken collarbone. Ryan Tannehill threw two touchdown passes for the Dolphins, whose record dropped to 4-6. The Dolphins' next game is Sunday against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium. Tight end Jordan Cameron and wide receiver Kenny Stills had the Dolphins touchdowns. Cornerback Brent Grimes and rookie linebacker Neville Hewitt, who made his first-career start, had interceptions for the Dolphins defense. Hewitt started in place of injured Jelani Jenkins. Starting linebacker Koa Misi was active despite nursing an abdomen injury, but he did not play and rookie Zach Vigil started in his place. The game was played in heavy rains in the first quarter before the sun eventually came out late in the second quarter. The Dolphins, who beat Philadelphia last Sunday after rallying from a 16-3 deficit, trailed 14-0 in the first half before tying the score 14-14 late in the third quarter. Miami got on the scoreboard on its final drive of the first half after Dallas took a 14-0 lead on Romo's 31-yard touchdown pass to Terrance Williams. After the Cowboys decided to squib kick with 1:08 left in the second quarter, the Dolphins took over at their own 46 and needed only three plays to get into their end zone. After a 47-yard completion from Tannehill to Jarvis Landry put the ball at the Dallas 12, the Dolphins quarterback found Cameron in the back of the end zone after being forced to scramble out of the pocket. The Dolphins tied the game 14-14 in the third quarter when Tannehill hit Stills in the right side of the end zone for a 29-yard touchdown to cap a 58-yard drive that featured a 20-yard completion to rookie running back Jay Ajayi. But Dallas answered with an eight-play, 80-yard touchdown drive highlighted by Darren McFadden's 35-yard run to the Dolphins 9-yard line. Bryant scored on a second-and-goal from the 16 when he found a gap between Dolphins defenders. The Dolphins had to begin their next drive at their own 4-yard line after Bailey's kickoff bounced in and then out of the zone, where Landry had to fall on it because it was a live ball. Tannehill appeared to run for a first down on third-and-4 from the 10, but tackle Jason Fox was called for holding. After the Dolphins failed to convert the third down, a good return by Lucky Whitehead and a personal foul penalty on punter Matt Darr put Dallas in field goal range, and Bailey converted a 30-yard attempt to make it 24-14. The Dolphins stopped the first scoring threat of the game when Grimes intercepted Romo near the goal line on a third-and-6 from the Miami 12-yard line after pressure forced a hurried throw. But three plays later, Dallas linebacker Rolando McClain intercepted a Tannehill pass and returned the pick 12 yards for a touchdown to open the scoring.

GAME 11

JETS 38, DOLPHINS 20
November 29, 2015

MetLife Stadium
East Rutherford, N.J.

It was a painful afternoon in more ways than one for the Miami Dolphins when they faced the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium. On a day when three Dolphins players were knocked out of the game with injuries in the first half, Jets quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick threw four touchdown passes and New York completed the sweep of the season series with a 38-20 victory. Two of Fitzpatrick's touchdown passes went to former Dolphins wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who finished with nine catches for a season-high 131 yards. The others went to Eric Decker and rookie Devin Smith. Running back Chris Ivory scored the last Jets touchdown on a spectacular 31-yard run in the fourth quarter when he broke four tackles at the line of scrimmage before breaking loose. The Dolphins' touchdowns came on touchdown passes from Ryan Tannehill to Jarvis Landry, Greg Jennings and DeVante Parker. The Dolphins fought to the end, with Landry recovering an onside kick after Jennings' touchdown with 4:51 left and Parker scoring on a 33-yard play with 5 seconds remaining. Landry was able to play despite not practicing Wednesday and Friday because of a knee injury and again was one of the Dolphins' most productive players. He led the Dolphins with 13 catches for a career-high 165 yards and also set a franchise record for wide receivers with his 15th rushing attempt of the season. Landry's receiving total was the highest for a Dolphins player since Sept. 30, 2012 when Brian Hartline had 253 yards on 12 receptions against the Arizona Cardinals. The Dolphins' injury problems began on their third offensive play when starting wide receiver Richard Matthews took a big hit from safety Calvin Pryor on a third-down incompletion and left the game with a rib/chest injury. Matthews would be joined by starting center Mike Pouncey (ankle) and backup defensive tackle C.J. Mosley (calf) in getting knocked out of the game in the first half. Rookie fourth-round pick Jamil Douglas replaced Pouncey at center. To lessen Landry's workload, the Dolphins at times used cornerback Brent Grimes as a punt returner — the first time he's done that in his NFL career. The Dolphins, who went 0-for-12 in third-down conversions when they faced the Jets in London in Week 4, missed on their first eight third-down situations before Tannehill connected with rookie first-round pick DeVante Parker for a 14-yard gain on third-and-10 late in the third quarter. The game began promisingly for the Dolphins when they stuffed Ivory for a loss when the Jets decided to go for the first down on fourth-and-1 from their 45-yard line. But they couldn't capitalize on that opportunity as they went three-and-out and saw Matthews get injured. After their defense then forced a three-and-out, the Dolphins took over at midfield for their second possession and marched to a first-and-10 at the Jets 21-yard line, but the scoring threat ended when cornerback Marcus Williams intercepted Tannehill on a third-and-8 from the Jets 19-yard line. The Dolphins wouldn't reach the Jets 40-yard line again until late the third quarter. A 40-yard hook-up between Tannehill and Landry gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 5-yard line and Landry scored two plays later. The Jets, however, quickly answered with a 79-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 47-yard pass to Marshall and capped by a 3-yard pass to Marshall again. New York's first touchdown of the second half, and third of the game, was set up by a 58-yard punt return by Jeremy Kerley — the longest against the Dolphins this season.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 15, RAVENS 13
December 6, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

Two quick touchdowns late in the first half and big plays by the defense were enough for the Dolphins to take care of the Baltimore Ravens at Sun Life Stadium. Rookie DeVante Parker and Derrick Shelby scored 20 seconds apart in the second quarter to help the Dolphins beat the Ravens, 15-13, snapping a five-game losing streak in the series. The victory improved the Dolphins' record to 5-7. Baltimore had a chance to take the lead with under 3 minutes left in the fourth quarter, but Justin Tucker was wide right on a 55-yard field goal attempt. Defensive highlights for the Dolphins included an interception by safety Reshad Jones, a goal-line stand in the second quarter and a 2.5-sack performance by defensive end Olivier Vernon. The Dolphins offense didn't produce much beyond Parker's touchdown, but it did come up with a clutch 14-yard pass play from Ryan Tannehill to Parker with just over 2 minutes left to all but clinch the victory. The Dolphins also lived up to their vow of running the ball. They had more rushing attempts in the first quarter than they did the entire game against the New York Jets last Sunday. Lamar Miller finished with 113 rushing yards, more than twice as many as the highest total in any of the previous five games. He did, however, fumble on the run that put him over the 100-yard mark, setting up Tucker's missed field goal attempt. Another big difference in the game was the Dolphins holding Baltimore to only two field goals on three red-zone trips. The Dolphins led 15-0 after their two quick touchdowns as the result of two interceptions. One play after Jones came up with his fourth pick of the season, Tannehill and Parker connected on the first-round pick's second touchdown in two games. Parker went up high to beat cornerback Lardarius Webb on a deep post for a 38-yard score. Four plays later, Shelby batted Matt Schaub's pass at the line of scrimmage into the air, caught the ball and rumbled 22 yards for a touchdown. Two offside penalties on the extra-point attempt negated a miss by Andrew Franks and a block returned for two points, and moved the ball to the 2-yard line. The Dolphins then decided to go for the two-point conversion and Jay Ajayi easily converted with a run to the left side. The Ravens had the first scoring opportunity after they marched to a first-and-10 at the Dolphins 11-yard line, but Miami stopped rookie Javorius Allen for no gain on third-and-1 and then stuffed Schaub on a fourth-down quarterback sneak. Baltimore had an apparent 52-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter nullified by an offensive pass interference on wide receiver Daniel Brown after cornerback Bobby McCain fell while covering him. Baltimore got a 38-yard field goal from Tucker in the final seconds of the first half before cutting the lead to 15-10 on a 41-yard touchdown pass from Schaub to Allen in the third quarter. A 31-yard Tucker field goal made it 15-13 early in the fourth quarter, but the Dolphins were able to hold on from there to beat Baltimore for the first time since 2007.

GAME 13

GIANTS 31, DOLPHINS 24
December 14, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

In the first Monday night game at Sun Life Stadium in more than four years, a night when the Dolphins honored the best players in their history, close friends Jarvis Landry and Odell Beckham Jr. helped deliver an entertaining contest. In the end, it was Beckham and the Giants who had the last word as they pulled out a 31-24 victory. Beckham played a key role in the victory with seven catches for 166 yards and two touchdowns, including a game-winning 84-yarder midway through the fourth quarter. He also scooped up a low pass for a game-clinching first down on the first play after the two-minute warning. Landry had a big performance as well, catching 11 passes to move to within one of the Dolphins single-season record of 90 set by O.J. McDuffie in 1998. Landry also had a 36-yard kickoff return and a 20-yard punt return. The loss dropped the Dolphins to 5-8 on the season with their next game at San Diego on Sunday. Lamar Miller had two rushing touchdowns for the Dolphins, including a spectacular 38-yarder in the second quarter. Kenny Stills caught a 47-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to give the Dolphins a 24-17 lead in the third quarter. Eli Manning passed for 337 yards and four touchdowns for the Giants. Besides Beckham, he threw TD passes to tight end Will Tye and Rueben Randle. The game was preceded by a laser tribute to the 50 years of Dolphins football, with play-by-play calls of famous moments. At halftime, members of the 50th anniversary all-time were introduced at midfield. The score was 17-17 at that time after an entertaining first half that featured three lead changes. The Dolphins took a 24-17 lead on their first possession of the third quarter on a 47-yard pass from Tannehill to Stills, who became the fourth different Miami player with a touchdown catch of at least 40 yards this season. The Giants tied it on Beckham's 6-yard touchdown, which came after New York challenged the ruling of an incomplete pass. The replay showed Beckham was able to keep both feet just in before falling out of bounds while catching Manning's pass. The Dolphins offense got the ball twice after Beckham's game-winning touchdown but both drives stalled after reaching Giants territory. The Giants opened the scoring in the first quarter after Jason Pierre-Paul recovered a Dion Sims fumble, setting up Josh Brown's 35-yard field goal. The Dolphins responded with an 11-play, 74-yard drive that ended with Miller's first touchdown. The key play in the drive was a 2-yard run by Miller on fourth-and-1 from the Giants 28-yard line. The Giants regained the lead after a 20-yard punt return by Dwayne Harris set them up at their 30. Randle's touchdown capped a 70-yard drive that featured a 21-yard run by Rashad Jennings and a 22-yard completion to Randle on consecutive plays. The Dolphins again answered New York's score with a touchdown drive, this one covering 67 yards. Two plays after a 17-yard completion to Landry, Miller scored on a spectacular run where he cut to the right, cut back to the left and headed upfield before outracing the Giants defense to the end zone. A fumble recovery by Reshad Jones set up Andrew Franks' first field goal in four games, giving the Dolphins a 17-10 lead before the Giants scored right before halftime. The Giants drove 80 yards on just four plays, thanks mostly to a 45-yard completion from Manning to Beckham with a dubious roughing-the-passer penalty on Olivier Vernon tacked on for good measure. There were more big plays after the halftime show, and the Giants were able to come up with more of them.

GAME 14

CHARGERS 30, DOLPHINS 14
December 20, 2015

Qualcomm Stadium
San Diego, Calif.

Jarvis Landry set a new Dolphins record and rookie Jay Ajayi scored his first NFL touchdown, but it overall was a disappointing 2015 road finale for the Dolphins. The Dolphins dropped a 30-14 decision at Qualcomm Stadium in a game where their two Pro Bowl offensive linemen, Branden Albert and Mike Pouncey, were lost to injuries. Landry caught eight passes to break O.J. McDuffie's franchise single-season record of 90. Landry has 97 receptions on the season. Landry broke the franchise record with a 3-yard reception on the Dolphins' third possession of the game. Ajayi, meanwhile, scored his first NFL touchdown on an impressive 12-yard run in the third quarter, but the Dolphins trailed 23-0 by that time. The other Dolphins touchdown was scored with 1:35 left in the fourth quarter by Ryan Tannehill on a quarterback keeper. Safety Reshad Jones and cornerback Brent Grimes each came up with an interception, although Jones fumbled at the end of his long return and the Chargers recovered, giving them a first down. Running back Danny Woodhead scored all four San Diego touchdowns, three of them in the first half. He tied the record for most touchdowns in a game by a Dolphins opponent shared by running back Earl Campbell in 1978, tight end Jimmie Giles in 1985 and wide receiver Irving Fryar in 1996. Woodhead caught three touchdown passes from quarterback Philip Rivers and had a 2-yard run, San Diego's first rushing touchdown since the season opener. San Diego also got a 28-yard field goal by rookie Josh Lambo that made the score 9-0 after he had missed the extra-point attempt following Woodhead's first touchdown. In falling behind 23-0 at the half, the Dolphins accomplished little offensively. They managed only two first downs on their first five possessions before completions of 23 yards to Kenny Stills and 15 yards to Ajayi moved them into San Diego territory for the first time. But Tannehill was sacked on the next play, leaving time only for a Hail Mary attempt. The Dolphins got their only touchdown after Lambo was wide right on a 48-yard field goal attempt. On third-and-8 following the miss, Tannehill hooked up with rookie first-round pick DeVante Parker for a 35-yard completion to give Miami a first down at the Chargers 20. Three plays later, Ajayi broke a couple of tackle attempts on a run up the middle for his first-career score. Parker later came up with a nice leaping fourth-down catch, managing to hold on to the ball while absorbing a hit. The Dolphins converted two other fourth-down situations on that drive that ended with Tannehill's touchdown, with Landry and Parker on the receiving end of Tannehill passes. Unfortunately, there weren't enough of those kind of plays for the Dolphins on this day.

GAME 15

COLTS 18, DOLPHINS 12
December 27, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

Missed opportunities and a stellar homecoming for former University of Miami star Frank Gore proved the difference at Sun Life Stadium. Gore scored two rushing touchdowns to help the Indianapolis Colts record an 18-12 victory against the Dolphins. The Dolphins had a chance to pull out a late victory after driving to a first-and-goal at the 5-yard line, but the threat ended with three consecutive incompletions and a bizarre fourth-quarter sack. Center Jamil Douglas, starting in place of injured Pro Bowl selection Mike Pouncey, snapped to Ryan Tannehill in the shotgun, but no other offensive lineman dropped back into pass coverage and Colts defensive end Robert Mathis quickly got to Tannehill before bringing him down. The Dolphins' touchdown came on a 1-yard run by Lamar Miller in the second quarter. Andrew Franks added a pair of field goals. But this was about Dolphins' squandering three first-and-goal opportunities. Before the last drive, the Dolphins also saw first-and-goal opportunities end with an interception and later with a field goal. Jarvis Landry caught seven passes for 111 yards to reach the 1,000-yard mark on the season. He also extended his franchise record for catches in a season and stands at 104 heading into the regular season finale against the New England Patriots at Sun Life Stadium next Sunday. Rookie first-round pick DeVante Parker had the most productive game of the season, catching four passes for 93 yards, although he did have a couple of drops. The Dolphins (5-10) knocked out Colts quarterback Matt Hasselbeck in the second quarter. Hasselbeck, who was starting in place of Andrew Luck, left with a shoulder injury. Pouncey was one of four starters who missed the game because of injuries, and linebacker Jelani Jenkins left in the first half because of an ankle injury. Indianapolis got on the scoreboard first when Tannehill was sacked in the end zone by defensive tackle T.Y. McGill. The sack came on a third-and-6 from the Dolphins 8-yard line. After receiving the free kick, the Colts marched 75 yards in six plays to increase their lead on Gore's 37-yard touchdown run. The score stayed at 8-0 after Vinatieri missed the extra-point attempt. Cornerback Brent Grimes intercepted Hasselbeck on the first play of the drive, but Grimes was flagged for defensive holding. The Dolphins had a great chance to cut into Indy's lead late in the first quarter when they drove from their 20 to a first-and-goal at the 3-yard line. But after Miller was dropped for a 3-yard loss and Tannehill threw an incomplete, his third-down pass was intercepted in the end zone by cornerback Vontae Davis. Replays showed linebacker D'Qwell Jackson hitting Tannehill's arm before he was able to complete his follow-through. The Dolphins did score a touchdown on their next drive, marching 69 yards on 11 plays. The big play on the drive was a 23-yard completion to running back Damien Williams on third-and-9 from the Miami 48. Indianapolis answered to make it 15-6 on Gore's second touchdown. The big play on the 80-yard drive was a 28-yard completion to former Florida International University star T.Y. Hilton. The Colts and Dolphins then traded three field goals to make it 18-12 and set the stage for the final drive.

GAME 16

DOLPHINS 20, PATRIOTS 10
January 3, 2016

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

The Dolphins ended a disappointing season in an impressive fashion when they beat the AFC East champion New England Patriots at Sun Life Stadium. The 20-10 victory, which ended a three-game losing streak in season finales, gave the Dolphins a 6-10 record on the season. The Dolphins beat New England at home for the third consecutive year, following a 24-20 victory in December 2013 and a 33-20 decision in the 2014 season opener. The Dolphins' last victory in a season finale had come in 2011 against the New York Jets, 19-17 at Sun Life Stadium. Tight end Jordan Cameron scored the game-winning touchdown midway through the fourth quarter on a 2-yard pass from quarterback Ryan Tannehill. The touchdown was set up by a spectacular 46-yard reception by rookie first-round pick DeVante Parker to the Patriots 4-yard line. Parker outjumped cornerback Logan Ryan at the 11 to come down with the pass, and then ran 5 more yards to the 6. After the defense sacked Tom Brady twice on the next possession, the offense clinched the victory with a 19-yard field goal by Andrew Franks on the first play after the two-minute warning after a 19-yard scramble by Tannehill on third-and-11 from the Patriots 46-yard line and a 22-yard completion from Tannehill to tight end Dion Sims. After the Dolphins' final score, backup Jimmy Garoppolo ended the game at quarterback for New England. Parker, who became the first Dolphins rookie with 100 receiving yards in a game since 2001, had the other Dolphins touchdown, that one coming on a 15-yard pass from Tannehill in the final minute of the first half. Tannehill had his sixth 300-yard passing game of the season and he joined Dan Marino as the only quarterbacks in team history with consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons. The Miami defense held New England to 82 yards in the first half, including only 20 passing yards by Tom Brady. New England came out looking to run the ball, as Brady attempted only five passes in the first half. After the defense forced a three-and-out the first time New England had the ball, the Dolphins marched 54 yards on 11 plays to take the lead on a 38-yard field goal by Andrew Franks. The big play in the drive was the very first, a 29-yard run by Lamar Miller to the New England 45-yard line. It was Miller's third-longest run of the season. After Franks was wide right on a 46-yard field goal attempt on the third play of the second quarter, New England drove 48 yards for a field goal that tied the game at 3-3. New England missed a chance to take the lead late in the second quarter when Stephen Gostkowski was wide right on a field goal attempt from 46 yards out, and the Dolphins answered with a 64-yard drive that ended in the Parker touchdown. The big play in the drive was a 31-yard hook-up between Tannehill and veteran wide receiver Greg Jennings on third-and-8 from the New England 46-yard line. Two plays later, Parker scored the third touchdown of his rookie season. New England tied the score 10-10 on the opening drive of the second half on a 2-yard run by Steven Jackson, which came one play after running back James White took a short Brady pass and turned it into a 68-yard gain. The Dolphins played the game without four starters on the active roster: center Mike Pouncey, tackle Ja'Wuan James, defensive tackle Earl Mitchell and linebacker Jelani Jenkins.

2015 PRESEASON GAME SUMMARIES

PRESEASON GAME 1

BEARS 27, DOLPHINS 10
August 13, 2015

Soldier Field
Chicago, Ill.

The Dolphins offense opened the preseason in style for a second-consecutive year, but this time the starting defense followed suit. Just as he did in 2014 against the Atlanta Falcons, Ryan Tannehill directed the Dolphins offense to a touchdown drive against the Chicago Bears to kick off the 2015 preseason. But whereas the Dolphins defense watched Atlanta respond with a touchdown drive last year, this time it was a three-and-out for the Bears on their opening offensive possession. The strong start clearly was the highlight in a game the Dolphins ended up losing 27-10 after being outscored 24-0 in the second half. Tannehill completed 6 of 7 passes against Chicago, capping the opening drive with a 2-yard touchdown pass to Jarvis Landry on fourth-and-goal. The only other points scored by the Dolphins came courtesy of a 31-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis late in the first half a few plays after McLeod Bethel-Thompson connected with LaRon Byrd on a 31-yard completion. Bethel-Thompson, however, threw two interceptions in the second half as part of an offensive run that saw three turnovers in a four-drive stretch — the other turnover was a Mike Gillislee fumble after he was stripped at the end of a 25-yard run. The first Chicago interception, by linebacker John Timu, set up the Bears' first touchdown, a 1-yard run by Ka'Deem Carey on fourth-and-goal that gave them their first lead of the game. A two-point conversion made it 17-10. Chicago closed out the scoring with a 54-yard run by Senorise Perry with 3:57 left in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins struggled with penalties throughout the game, and that included two holding calls on that impressive opening drive. But the Dolphins were able to overcome those two setbacks thanks to some big plays, most notably a 19-yard pass from Tannehill to veteran newcomer Greg Jennings that was followed immediately by a 27-yard run by Lamar Miller. The Dolphins got a first-and-goal after an 8-yard completion from Tannehill to tight end Dion Sims, and the touchdown came on a quick out to Landry in the corner of the end zone. The defense forced the Bears into a three-and-out on their opening drive after Ndamukong Suh enticed a false start on Chicago's first snap from scrimmage. Safety Reshad Jones also was instrumental on that first drive as he tackled Jacquizz Rodgers after a 1-yard gain on a run and later broke up the third-down pass. When the Dolphins returned on offense, Matt Moore took over at quarterback and center Mike Pouncey, tackle Ja'Wuan James and Miller accompanied Tannehill on the sideline. All four quarterbacks on the roster saw action against the Bears, with Josh Freeman replacing Bethel-Thompson in the fourth quarter. Freeman led a drive that reached the Bears 8-yard line after completions of 15 and 19 yards to Cobi Hamilton and another of 21 yards to Kevin Cone, but the scoring threat ended with four consecutive incompletions.

PRESEASON GAME 2

PANTHERS 31, DOLPHINS 30
August 22, 2015

Bank of America Stadium
Charlotte, N.C.

A late collapse cost the Dolphins the preseason game against the Carolina Panthers, but it was another strong showing for the Dolphins' first-team offense and defense. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill guided the offense to two touchdowns, both by running back Damien Williams, in his three series of action. The defense, meanwhile, forced Carolina into three-and-outs on the Panthers' first two possessions, came up with an interception, and then put together an impressive goal-line stand. Those were the highlights in the Dolphins' wild 31-30 loss at Bank of America Field, which dropped their 2015 preseason record to 0-2. The Dolphins had leads of 21-9 and 24-16, but Carolina scored 15 unanswered points, the last coming after defensive tackle Terry Redden intercepted Josh Freeman on a dump-off near the line of scrimmage to set up Brandon Wegher's second touchdown run of the game. Freeman bounced back by throwing a 56-yard touchdown pass to tight end Gerell Robinson with 2:26 left in regulation, but a two-point conversion attempt failed. Williams scored touchdowns on a 1-yard run and an 11-yard reception, as he became the first Dolphins player since Bernie Parmalee in 1995 to score rushing and receiving touchdowns in the same preseason game. Williams came close to a third touchdown on a play in the second quarter after Jamar Taylor's interception and 27-yard return gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal from the 3-yard line. Taking a handoff from new quarterback Matt Moore, Williams avoided a tackler in the backfield, bounced outside and tried to put the ball on the pylon as he was diving out of bounds. The Dolphins challenged the initial ruling that Williams had gone out of bounds at the 1-yard line, but the replay decision was that Williams had lost control of the ball before it hit the pylon, making it a touchback and giving Carolina possession of the ball. Tannehill completed 12 of 15 passes for 102 yards and one touchdown for a passer rating of 117.2. That followed Tannehill's strong showing in the preseason opener against the Chicago Bears when he posted a 139.6 rating and led the Dolphins to a touchdown on their opening drive. Matt Moore also had a touchdown pass for the Dolphins, hitting Matt Hazel for a 4-yard score in the third quarter to give the Dolphins a 21-9 lead. The Dolphins' first touchdown drive was highlighted by a tremendous open-field move by running back Lamar Miller after he had caught a short pass from Tannehill to convert a third-down situation. After juking cornerback Josh Norman, Miller ended up with a 36-yard gain to the Panthers 5-yard line. As they did against Chicago, the Dolphins went for the touchdown on fourth-and-goal and got an automatic first down when veteran safety Roman Harper was called for defensive holding. Williams scored on the very next play. The biggest plays on the second touchdown drive were an 11-yard run by Tannehill on a quarterback keeper and a 16-yard completion to Rishard Matthews on third-and-7 on the last play of the first quarter that immediately preceded Williams' second touchdown. Hazel had three catches on the drive that ended with his touchdown, including a 23-yard gain on third-and-7 from the Carolina 41-yard line. Besides the Taylor interception, the highlight on defense clearly was the goal-line stand. Carolina had a first-and-goal at the 1-yard line before the Dolphins stuffed two runs by Mike Tolbert and another by rookie Cameron Artis-Payne. On fourth-and-goal, Cam Newton dropped back to pass, but was flashed out of the pocket by Ndamukong Suh. Newton ran to the left and dove for the end zone but was marked down at the 1-yard line. Defensive tackle A.J. Francis had a strong showing in the second half, coming up with a sack and a tackle for loss on a running play. Three players left the game because of injuries: Taylor (quad) and tackle Jason Fox (concussion protocol) in the first half, and rookie cornerback Bobby McCain in the second half.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 13, FALCONS 9
August 29, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

As the Dolphins unveiled the new-look Sun Life Stadium, quarterback Ryan Tannehill and the first-team defense continued the impressive work they did in the first two preseason games on the road. The defense was borderline brilliant against the Atlanta Falcons in the Dolphins' 13-9 victory, holding Matt Ryan and his troops to 80 total yards in the first half and dropping him for four sacks. The two field goals allowed by the Dolphins in the first half came after drives of only 17 and 15 yards following Miami miscues. The defense set the tone from the start with Earl Mitchell dropping running back Tevin Coleman for a 2-yard loss on first down, Mitchell sacking Ryan on second down and Ndamukong Suh hurrying Ryan into an incompletion on third down. Cameron Wake and Jelani Jenkins also got sacks, while Terrence Fede and Chris McCain shared a sack in the second quarter. Tannehill, meanwhile, completed 15 of 19 passes for 145 yards and a touchdown, a 2-yarder to Rishard Matthews early in the second quarter. The touchdown capped a 79-yard drive that was highlighted by a 46-yard completion from Tannehill to Landry down the middle. Tannehill now has completed 33 of his 41 attempts in the preseason for a remarkable 80.5 percentage. The Dolphins overcame a 9-7 deficit in the fourth quarter with two field goals by rookie Andrew Franks, from 32 and 51 yards. The first kick gave the Dolphins the lead midway through the fourth quarter and capped an 11-play, 69-yard drive led by Josh Freeman. The big play in the drive was a 17-yard completion to wide receiver LaRon Byrd with an unnecessary roughness penalty on Atlanta tacked on. The second field goal came after defensive tackle Deandre Coleman recovered a fumble by Atlanta quarterback T.J. Yates at the Falcons 41-yard line. The Dolphins clinched the victory when safety Phillip Thomas recovered an Atlanta fumble at the Miami 18-yard line with 1:17 left. Atlanta's points came courtesy of three field goals by Matt Bryant, who kicked for the Dolphins during the 2007 season. Atlanta scored the first points of the game on a 43-yard field goal after an errant snap by John Denney on a Miami punt. Rookie Matt Darr was able to field the one-hopper but was tackled for a 16-yard loss, giving the Falcons the ball at the Dolphins 42-yard line. The Falcons had a first down at the Dolphins 18-yard line, but were forced to settle for a field goal after Olivier Vernon tackled Terron Ward for a 7-yard loss on a running play. Bryant added a 50-yard field goal on the last play of the first half to cut the Dolphins' lead to 7-6. It came after Matt Moore was sacked and fumbled, with Atlanta recovering at the Miami 47. Linebacker Joplo Bartu set up Atlanta's third field goal, that one from 40 yards, when he picked off Moore and returned the interception 41 yards. Moore's arm was hit as he attempted a long throw and Bartu was able to easily grab the floater. The interception came a few plays after Moore connected with Matt Hazel for a 27-yard pass play. The defensive highlight for the Dolphins defense in the second half was a goal-line stand led by rookie linebacker Mike Hull. After a 9-yard completion gave Atlanta a third-and-goal from the 1, Hull tackled Ward for no gain before sacking Yates for an 11-yard loss on fourth down when the Atlanta quarterback couldn't find an open receiver. Defensive tackle Anthony Johnson also had a sack in the second half.

PRESEASON GAME 4

BUCCANEERS 22, DOLPHINS 17
September 3, 2015

Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

Cornerback Will Davis and running backs Jay Ajayi and Mike Gillislee stood out for the Dolphins in the preseason finale against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, but key mistakes ultimately proved too much to overcome. Tampa Bay scored 19 points as a result of Dolphins miscues and came up with two late interceptions to leave Sun Life Stadium with a 22-17 victory. The Dolphins ended the preseason with a 1-3 record. As is often the case in preseason finales, the Dolphins rested most of their starters Thursday night. Gillislee, the third-year back from the University of Florida, scored both Dolphins touchdowns on runs of 3 and 5 yards. Davis got the start at cornerback and made the most of it, intercepting Buccaneers quarterback Mike Glennon twice in the first half. The first pick came on a deep throw down the left sideline in the first quarter. Davis then picked off Glennon at the Dolphins 3-yard line and returned the pick 37 yards. That play set up the Gillislee's first touchdown. The key player on the drive, though, was Ajayi, the rookie fifth-round pick from Boise State. Ajayi, who made his preseason debut Saturday night against Atlanta, reeled off runs of 6, 13, 22 and 12 yards before Gillislee finished off the drive. For good measure, Ajayi had receptions of 11 and 26 yards in the third quarter. He left the game in the second half because of a chest injury. Two days after winning the Dolphins' punting job, rookie Matt Darr put on a kicking exhibition with three punts downed at the Tampa Bay 4- or 5-yard line. Darr, however, had a 13-yard punt in the fourth quarter after he had to jump to field a snap and he then took a couple of steps to his right after securing the ball. Wide receiver Matt Hazel also had a nice performance, with a team-high seven catches for 96 yards. James Davidson blocked a 50-yard field goal attempt in the fourth quarter. Andrew Franks accounted for the other Dolphins points with an extra point and a 30-yard field. The Dolphins miscues included two interceptions thrown by quarterback McLeod Bethel-Thompson, who started and played into the third quarter, a muffed punt by LaMike James and a shotgun snap that Bethel-Thompson couldn't handle. Tampa Bay took a 7-0 lead two plays after James' muff gave the Bucs a first-and-goal at the 9-yard line. The touchdown came on a 4-yard pass from Glennon to Adam Humphries. After Franks' field goal on the ensuing drive, the Bucs added to their lead with a 57-yard field goal by rookie Kyle Brindza that followed an interception by safety Major Wright. Christian Jones returned the ensuing kickoff 108 yards for a touchdown, but the play was nullified by a holding penalty that forced the Dolphins to start at their own 5-yard line. On second down, the snap got by Bethel-Thompson and when Ajayi was touched after falling on the loose ball in the end zone, it gave Tampa Bay a safety and a 12-3 lead. After Gillislee's touchdown and a 55-yard field goal by Brindza made it 15-10 at halftime, the Dolphins appeared poised to take the lead late in the third quarter before Greene made the biggest play of the game. Bethel-Thompson attempted to hit Ajayi in the flat on second-and-goal from the 2-yard line, but Greene made a diving interception in front of the running back. He then got up and raced down the left sideline for the long touchdown. Gillislee's second touchdown with 5:52 left in the fourth quarter came after Davidson's field goal block. The Dolphins drove to the Tampa Bay 18-yard line at the two-minute warning, but Josh Freeman was intercepted in the end zone by Keith Tandy, who earlier had recovered James' muffed punt. The Dolphins had one last chance and marched to the Bucs 24-yard line, but Tandy once again intercepted Freeman.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium has not only been host to championship sporting events, the venue has also served as a backdrop to some of the most popular films of the past quarter century. Those motion pictures shot at the stadium include Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, which starred Jim Carrey and Courteney Cox and featured Dolphins great Dan Marino as himself; Marley and Me, starring Owen Wilson and Jennifer Aniston; the Oliver Stone-directed Any Given Sunday starring Al Pacino, Jamie Foxx and Dennis Quaid, and Rock of Ages, in which the scene filmed at the stadium included actors Tom Cruise, Julianna Hough, Russell Brand and Alec Baldwin.

Hard Rock Stadium served as a backdrop to an episode of the television show Seinfeld titled The Label Maker in which Jerry and Newman attend Super Bowl XXIX. Additionally, parts of the opening of the HBO television series Ari$ were shot on the field during a Dolphins game. Hard Rock Stadium also played a role in episodes of television shows Man Caves, with former NFL defensive tackle Tony Siragusa and Designing Spaces, the Big Game Bubba Burgers edition.

Commercials for products such as Pepsi, Bud Light, Omega Watches, Just for Men, Margaritaville products, Gatorade, Papa Johns and Equinox, were also filmed at Hard Rock Stadium.

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs)
December 25, 1971

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
Kansas City, Mo.

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, La.

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the touchdown.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese

10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

DOLPHINS 14, REDSKINS 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, Calif.

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16
December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, Texas

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 28, DOLPHINS 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

OILERS 17, DOLPHINS 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter.

An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Durief Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT) January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl Miami, Fla.

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

DOLPHINS 28, PATRIOTS 13

January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

DOLPHINS 34, CHARGERS 13
January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 14, JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

REDSKINS 27, DOLPHINS 17
January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, Calif.

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10

Orange Bowl

December 29, 1984

Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, Calif.

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino’s 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson’s two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana’s six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins’ deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching’s 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig’s 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21 January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami’s first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14

January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16
 January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34

January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, N.Y.

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0
January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21
January 8, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, Calif.

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, N.Y.

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3
December 28, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, Mass.

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17

January 2, 1999

Pro Player Stadium

Miami, Fla.

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

Mile High Stadium
Denver, Colo.

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. ## 1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17
January 9, 2000

Kingdome
Seattle, Wash.

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7
January 15, 2000

ALLTEL Stadium
Jacksonville, Fla.

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovan Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT)
December 30, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

January 6, 2001

Network Associates Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The 12-play, 78-yard drive was highlighted by a 32-yard catch-and-run by Terry Kirby to midfield. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. Of the 43 yards on the march, Gannon scrambled for 19 yards. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Gannon threw for 32 yards on the march, including a 12-yard completion to Tim Brown on third-and-seven, one play prior to the touchdown.

2001 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3
January 13, 2002

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, Fla.

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grbac hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

HEAD COACH

INDUCTED: 1997 // BORN: 1/4/30 // COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57 // ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62 //
HEAD COACH: 1963-95 // DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on Jan. 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 21 years, Shula has served as Vice Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on Jan. 5, 1996. This year marks his 47th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On Nov. 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He is one of only two coaches (along with New England's Bill Belichick) to appear in six Super Bowls, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least 10 games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than 10 wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on Feb. 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day.

Shula was further honored on Jan. 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year Award" – which honors high school football coaches that display the integrity, achievement and leadership that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career. The Don Shula Award winner is recognized at the Super Bowl and receives $10,000 and his high school football program is awarded $15,000.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The ten-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Hard Rock Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP. At age 82, Shula started a hamburger chain, "Shula Burger," and has opened 10 stores in the past four years under that umbrella with five more planned in Miami.

Shula's oldest son, David, 57, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played David Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. David currently is the National Brand Ambassador for Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc. His son, Chris, is a defensive quality control coach for the San Diego Chargers, becoming a third-generation Shula to coach in the NFL, following his father and grandfather. Another son, Matt, is a video assistant in football operations for the Dolphins.

Shula's other son, Mike, 51, currently is in his fourth season as offensive coordinator for the defending NFC Champion Carolina Panthers after serving the previous two years as the team's quarterbacks coach. He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the QB coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, who is president and CEO of Shula Steak Houses, LLLP, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. Most recently they visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on Oct. 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on Nov. 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On Dec. 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on Dec. 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sept. 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

85 // LB NICK BUONICONTI

INDUCTED: 2001 // BORN: 1/15/40 // COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME '62
NFL: 1962-76 // DOLPHINS: 1969-76

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins, the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Three Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season. The most recent Dolphins player named Pro Bowl MVP was wide receiver Brandon Marshall, as he caught six passes for 176 yards and a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns as the AFC used a second-half surge to beat the NFC, 59-41, in the 2012 Pro Bowl.

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 avg.) and 53 touchdowns. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards (4.4 avg.) and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 avg.) and 64 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, he ranked fifth in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on Dec. 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

BOB GRIESE

INDUCTED: 1990 // BORN: 2/3/45 // COLLEGE: PURDUE '67
NFL: 1967-80 // DOLPHINS: 1967-80

He was unquestionably the “thinking man’s quarterback.” Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphins offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL’s exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team’s annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins’ Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins’ Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. On June 16, 2015, a street next to Griese’s high school stadium in Evansville, Indiana, was re-named “Bob Griese Pass” in his honor. And in 2015, he was voted as one of the Dolphins’ all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise’s 50th season celebration in 2015.

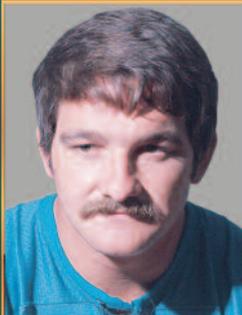

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. “Cornerstone of the franchise,” Dolphins founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team’s Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

“He’s probably the most unselfish guy I’ve ever been around,” Shula said. “He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That’s just his makeup.”

LANGER

INDUCTED: 1987 // BORN: 5/16/48 // COLLEGE: SOUTH DAKOTA STATE '70
NFL: 1970-81 // DOLPHINS: 1970-79

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request, Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

LITTLE

INDUCTED: 1993 // BORN: 11/2/45 // COLLEGE: BETHUNE COOKMAN '67
NFL: 1969-80 // DOLPHINS: 1969-80

A rumbling giant in the Dolphins' trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On Dec. 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium and was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. He was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

57 // C
DWIGHT
STEPHENSON

INDUCTED: 1998 // BORN: 11/20/57 // COLLEGE: ALABAMA '80
NFL: 1980-87 // DOLPHINS: 1980-87

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the “best at his position ever” in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on Dec. 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson’s greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an assistant offensive line coach on Don Shula’s Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called “the greatest center I have ever coached” by the late Paul “Bear” Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins’ Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Dec. 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins’ Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins’ all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise’s 50th season celebration in 2015.

PAUL

INDUCTED: 1983 // BORN: 11/28/42 // COLLEGE: OHIO STATE '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77 // DOLPHINS: 1970-74

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns (1964-69 and 1976-77) around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns, Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 avg.) and 33 touchdowns. When he left Miami following the 1974 season, Warfield ranked first on the team’s career receiving yards and receiving touchdowns lists, while he was third on the Dolphins all-time record list for receptions. His 21.5 average per reception is still the highest in Miami history. His career receiving totals in the NFL are 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 avg.) and 85 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 1977 season, Warfield’s career catches were tied for the 17th most in NFL history, his career receiving yards were the sixth-most and his 85 touchdown catches were tied for the third-highest total in the league's history. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

CRIS CARTER

WIDE RECEIVER
NFL CAREER: 1987-2002

YEAR INDUCTED: 2013
DOLPHINS: 2002

A fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1987 Supplemental Draft, Cris Carter developed into one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons as a member of the Eagles (1987-1989) and then played with the Minnesota Vikings for 12 years (1990-2001), where he helped rewrite the team's record book.

Carter finished his NFL career as a member of the Miami Dolphins, coming out of retirement to sign with Miami as a free agent on Oct. 21, 2002. He remained on the team's roster until the conclusion of the season, playing in five games with the Dolphins, including one start, and recorded eight catches for 66 yards (8.3 avg.) and one touchdown. He also was inactive for four games during that span due to a kidney injury.

Carter's career regular season totals include 1,101 receptions for 13,899 yards (12.6 avg.) and 130 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, Carter ranked second in NFL history in receptions and receiving touchdowns (behind Jerry Rice) and was fourth in reception yardage. During his tenure in Minnesota, he led the Vikings in receptions for 10 straight years, recorded eight straight 1,000-yard seasons and also earned eight consecutive Pro Bowl berths. In 1994, Carter set a then-NFL record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 122 passes for 1,256 yards (10.3 avg.) and scored seven touchdowns. A year later in 1995 he registered his second straight 122-catch season and amassed a career-high 1,371 yards (11.2 avg.) and 17 touchdowns. His two-year total of 244 catches was the most in NFL history. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

An Ohio native, he played collegiately at Ohio State.

BILL PARCELLS

COACH/EXECUTIVE

YEAR INDUCTED: 2013

NFL CAREER: 1983-90, 1993-99, 2003-06, 2008-10 DOLPHINS: 2008-10

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East title and a playoff berth. The team's 10-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

JUNIOR SEAU

LINEBACKER

YEAR INDUCTED: 2015

NFL CAREER: 1990-2009

DOLPHINS: 2003-05

Junior Seau played three years (2003-05) as a linebacker for the Dolphins, but is best known as a perennial Pro Bowl performer for 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers and also spent his last four years in the NFL as a member of the New England Patriots. During his 20-year career, he recorded 56.5 sacks along with 18 interceptions and was known for his leadership and his passionate style of play.

Seau was acquired by the Dolphins on April 16, 2003 from the Chargers in exchange for a 2004 fifth-round draft choice. During his tenure in Miami, Seau teamed with Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas and others to form the nucleus of one the strongest defensive units in the NFL. In 2003, his first season with the Dolphins, he started 15 games and finished second on the team with 133 tackles, the ninth time in his career he recorded 100 or more tackles in a season. He also added three sacks. He proved to be a key addition to a defense that allowed only 90.8 yards rushing per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Dolphins became the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher. In 2004 he started the first eight games of the season, recording 68 tackles and a sack before being placed on injured reserve with a torn right pectoral muscle he injured on Nov. 1 at the New York Jets. At the time of the injury he was averaging eight tackles a game and ranked second on the team in tackles. Limited by injuries in 2005, Seau only played in seven games with the Dolphins (including five starts) and had 43 tackles and one sack before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24 with an Achilles tendon injury. He was released by Miami on March 6, 2006. In two of his three years with the Dolphins (2003-04) his teammates voted him the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

During his 13 years in San Diego (1990-2002), Seau was voted to 12-consecutive Pro Bowls, becoming just the fourth player since 1970 to be selected 10 or more straight times to the Pro Bowl. He recorded 100 or more tackles in eight of his seasons in San Diego and was selected the Chargers' Most Valuable Player six times. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by UPI and also was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1990s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 1994 he led the Chargers to a berth in Super Bowl XXIX, the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance, and in the AFC Championship Game that season against the Pittsburgh Steelers he recorded 16 tackles despite playing with a pinched nerve in his neck. That same year he was named the NFL Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts, and he was a constant and active contributor to his community throughout his career.

Following his tenure in Miami, Seau spent his final four seasons (2006-09) in the league with the New England Patriots. In 2007, he recorded 74 tackles and 3.5 while playing in all 16 games for Patriots' AFC Championship team that went undefeated in the regular season before losing to the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII. Seau retired following his final season with the Patriots in 2009, and he died on May 2, 2012 in San Diego at the age of 43. He was elected to the Hall of Fame on Jan. 31, 2015 in his first year of eligibility.

A native of San Diego, Seau played collegiately at the University of Southern California (USC).

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

DOLPHINS RADIO NETWORK

On May 19, 2016, the Miami Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM, with the station becoming the official flagship radio partner of the franchise. In addition, all Dolphins games will be simulcast on KISS 99.9 FM "South Florida's NEW Country" and feature expanded pre-, halftime and postgame shows. The games also can be heard on Dolphins.com and throughout South and Central Florida on a variety of stations that make up the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

Bob Griese, Joe Rose and Jimmy Cefalo

The Dolphins previously had their games broadcast on Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM during the 1997-2004 and 2007-09 seasons.

As part of the agreement, Sportsradio 560 WQAM will have the radio broadcast rights for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Dolphins fans who tune into Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM will have the opportunity to listen to live broadcasts of Head Coach Adam Gase's day-after game press conferences and "Dolphins Friday," a day of Dolphins centric-content on the station featuring interviews with players, coaches and team executives. Additionally, CBS Radio Miami will promote Dolphins community and Foundation initiatives across multiple platforms.

The preseason English radio broadcast team on Sportsradio 560 WQAM consists of three Dolphins alumni in the booth. Former wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo handles the play-by-play duties with former tight end Joe Rose and former Pro Bowl defensive end Jason Taylor providing the game analysis. During the regular season, Cefalo and Rose are joined by former Hall of Fame quarterback Bob Griese serving as an analyst with former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker/defensive end Kim Bokamper reporting from the sidelines.

In addition to the game broadcasts, the station will feature an expanded pregame show with Curtis Stevenson and former Dolphins linebacker Channing Crowder serving as hosts, a halftime show hosted by Kevin Rogers and a postgame show hosted by Orlando Alzugaray and former Dolphins running back Troy Stradford with live updates from Rogers.

1210 ESPN Deportes returns as the Dolphins official Spanish radio broadcast partner for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Raul Striker Jr. will handle play-by-play duties with Eduardo Martell as a color analyst. 1210 ESPN Deportes additionally airs a 60-minute pregame show called "El Pre-Game de Los Miami Dolphins" and a 30-minute postgame show "El Post-Game De Los Miami Dolphins."

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Three of the four Miami Dolphins preseason games will be broadcast on WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami. It marks the 21st-consecutive season WFOR has served as the preseason home of the Dolphins. The three games on WFOR also will be carried on WBBH/NBC Ch. 2 in Naples/Ft. Myers, WTVX-CW Ch. 34 and WWHB Ch. 48 (Spanish) in West Palm Beach/ Treasure Coast and WRDQ Ch. 27 in Orlando.

The Dolphins open the 2016 NFL preseason schedule on the road on Friday, Aug. 12 as Miami travels to MetLife Stadium to face off with the New York Giants. The Dolphins have not faced the Giants in the preseason since 1994, but are a perfect 6-0 against the organization. The game will be played at 7 p.m. and televised live on WFOR, WBBH, WTVX and WRDQ.

Miami continues on the road the following week battling the Dallas Cowboys on Friday, Aug. 19 at 7 p.m. ET. It will be the 10th all-time preseason meeting between the two teams with the Cowboys holding a 6-3 edge. The Dolphins won the last preseason meeting, defeating Dallas 25-20 on Aug. 23, 2014.

The Dolphins will take on the Atlanta Falcons on Thursday, Aug. 25, in a nationally-televised game on NBC. The contest will kick off at 8 p.m. ET at Camping World Stadium in Orlando, Fla. Miami is 6-8 all-time in preseason games against Atlanta and defeated the Falcons in last year's preseason, posting a 13-9 victory on Aug. 29, 2015. Overall, this will mark the third time the Dolphins will play a preseason contest in Orlando. Miami is 1-1 in its previous two preseason games in Orlando, having earned a 22-21 win over Washington on Aug. 1, 1992 and dropping a 24-17 decision to Tampa Bay on Aug. 25, 1995.

The preseason concludes as Miami hosts the Tennessee Titans on Thursday, Sept. 1, at 7 p.m. ET. The Dolphins and Titans have not met in the preseason since 1989 when the two franchises met for a game in Jacksonville, Florida.

Dick Stockton handles the play-by-play for the games on WFOR. Stockton has a long history of covering almost every major sports event on a national level. Currently, he is a member of FOX's NFL broadcast team and also handles national telecasts of Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association on both FOX and Turner Sports.

Joining Stockton as a color analyst will be former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese. In addition, Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary. Kim Bokamper, a former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker, will continue in his role on WFOR's broadcast team as a sideline reporter.

NFL SCHEDULING FORMULA

The schedule format takes each team through a cycle of games – home and away – against every other team in the league. From 2002-2009, every team played every other team at least twice – once home and once away. After the 2008 season, a decision was made to continue with the same rotation in 2010 and beyond.

In determining how to begin the divisional rotation in 2002, the displacement of teams from their old divisions in the new alignment was taken into account. Preference was given to scheduling games with former division rivals and other regional opponents for clubs realigned from otherwise intact divisions.
