DEDICATION

The 2017 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of former Dolphins players Quentin Moses, Bill Stanfill and Fulton Walker as well as Tom Heckert, Sr., Marti Huizenga and Edwin Pope, each of whom passed away within the past year.

Heckert, Sr. (Sept. 18, 1938 - Sept. 20, 2016) spent 19 seasons with the Dolphins (1989-2007) and was one of the key individuals who helped the team reach the playoffs nine times in that span. Heckert joined the club in 1989 as director of college scouting and spent three years in that position. He was named director of player personnel in 1992 and was promoted to vice president – player personnel in 1995. Heckert spent the 1996-99 seasons as the club's director of pro personnel and 2000-03 as assistant director of pro personnel. Following that season, he served as a pro scout for the Dolphins until his retirement in 2007.

Huizenga (Nov. 26, 1942 - Jan. 3, 2017) was a community leader and the wife of former Dolphins Owner H. Wayne Huizenga. Along with her husband, she was very involved with the team, especially its charitable and community outreach programs. In addition, she served on boards of many organizations, including the Boys and Girls Clubs of Broward County and the Humane Society of Broward County and received the American Heart Association Golden Heart Award, the Silver Boys and Girls Club of America Medallion Award, the Habitat for Humanity of Broward Spirit of Humanity Award, the Sun-Sentinel Publisher's Community Service Award, and the Child Care Connection Child Advocate of the Year award.

Moses (Nov. 18, 1983 - Feb. 12, 2017) played defensive end with the Dolphins during the 2007-10 seasons, appearing in 44 games with two starts and recording 31 tackles, 3.5 sacks and one fumble recovery. He was originally drafted in the third round of the 2007 draft by the Oakland Raiders.

Pope (April 11, 1928 - Jan. 19, 2017) was the longtime sports editor and columnist with the Miami Herald, where his work appeared from 1956 until his death in 2017. It was Pope who suggested Don Shula, who was coaching the Baltimore Colts, to Dolphins founder Joe Robbie when asked who should be hired to replace George Wilson as the team's coach in 1970. The Dolphins officially renamed the team's press box at Hard Rock Stadium in Pope's honor on Nov. 14, 2010. Pope was inducted into the writer's wing of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002 and was one of only four writers to cover the first 47 Super Bowls.

Stanfill (Jan. 13, 1947 - Nov. 10, 2016) played defensive end with the Dolphins during the 1969-76 seasons. A four-time Pro Bowl selection (1971-74) and two-time All-NFL selection (1972-73), Stanfill finished with team records of 67.5 career sacks (currently third), 18.5 single-season sacks in 1973 (currently tied for first) and 8.0 sacks as a rookie in 1969 (now tied for first). He is the only player in team history to record two games with five sacks. Additionally, he recorded two career interceptions and returned both for touchdowns. Stanfill is a member of the Dolphins Honor Roll and 50th Season All-Time Team. He was drafted in the first round of the 1969 draft by the Dolphins.

Walker (April 30, 1958 - Oct. 12, 2016) played cornerback and kick returner with the Dolphins during the 1981-85 seasons, appearing in 68 games and recording five interceptions and five fumble recoveries. He also recorded 123 kickoff returns for 2,944 yards (23.9 avg.) in the regular season. In Super Bowl XVII, Walker recorded four kickoff returns for 190 yards and a touchdown, setting Super Bowl records for most kick return yards and highest single-game yards per return average (47.5). This included a record 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the second quarter, the first kickoff ever to be returned for a touchdown in Super Bowl history. Walker was drafted in the sixth round of the 1981 draft by the Dolphins.

STEPHEN M. ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD/
MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN // NFL: TENTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: TENTH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of Related Companies – an international real estate firm – began his ownership interest in the Miami Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50 percent partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, Hard Rock Stadium and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95 percent ownership of the team and the stadium on Jan. 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of managing general partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium, which culminated one of his long-held dreams; Mr. Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Under Mr. Ross' leadership, the Dolphins have become one of the most fan-friendly teams in the National Football League. They have significantly expanded the Miami Dolphins Foundation's presence in the South Florida community with a host of new civic and charitable initiatives. Additionally, Mr. Ross reached a unique agreement with Miami-Dade County in June 2014 to modernize the home stadium of the Miami Dolphins. Phase I of the project was completed in time for the 2015 season and changed every seat in the stadium, rebuilt the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, moved seats 25-feet closer to the field on the north and south sidelines, introduced five new premium spaces and allowed fans to enjoy improved food, enhanced concourses and 16 new restroom facilities throughout the stadium. For the 2016 season, Hard Rock Stadium installed a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and protected from the rain and four giant high-definition video boards. Unveiled in 2017 are remodeled, modernized suites throughout the stadium offering a more intimate club space on the 200 level with improved amenities and food. Also, Mr. Ross has lived up to his pledge to provide the coaches, support staff and players all of the necessary resources to build a winning team, including a $10 million renovation to make the club's training facility a state-of-the-art venue that incorporates the latest technology and advances.

Mr. Ross is committed to supporting the community that supports the Dolphins. He has strengthened the reach of the Miami Dolphins Foundation, offering tremendous support in the areas of education, health, volunteerism and youth programs. In May 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally. As an NFL owner, he is using his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit organization Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE). The nonprofit's efforts have been so impactful, RISE was recognized in 2017 by ESPN's Humanitarian Awards for the Stuart Scott Inspire Award. The award celebrates people who have taken risk and used an innovative approach to helping the disadvantaged through the power of sports. Ross' efforts through RISE were honored as they personify the ethos of fairness, ethics, respect and fellowship with others.

Mr. Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

TOM GARFINKEL

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: COLORADO // NFL: FIFTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Tom Garfinkel was hired as president and chief executive officer of the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium in September 2013.

His operating experience includes serving as president and chief executive officer of the San Diego Padres, chief operating officer of the Arizona Diamondbacks and executive vice president of Chip Ganassi Racing's NASCAR, IndyCar, and Grand-Am racing teams. Prior to working in sports, Garfinkel held different leadership roles in sales, marketing and branding with Miller Brewing Company and Texaco, Inc.

Garfinkel serves on the board of the Dolphins Cancer Challenge, the Gulliver School's Board of Trustees and the Sports Management Advisory Board and Ross School of Business Advisory Board at the University of Michigan.

Garfinkel graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and earned his MBA at the University of Michigan.

Garfinkel and his wife, Allison, live in Coral Gables with their three sons.

MIKE TANNENBAUM

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT,
FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS // NFL: 21ST SEASON // DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Mike Tannenbaum enters his third season as the team's executive vice president of football operations after he was named to the role on Jan. 6, 2015. He originally joined the organization as a consultant in August 2014 and has 20 years of NFL experience at various levels of NFL personnel departments and front offices.

In his role, Tannenbaum oversees and coordinates the effort of football operations and administration. He works together with General Manager Chris Grier and Head Coach Adam Gase, and other senior executives in implementing the philosophy of building a championship caliber football team.

In Tannenbaum's first two seasons he has overseen a successful transition to a new head coach and general manager, and helped the Dolphins earn their first playoff berth in eight years with a 10-6 record in 2016.

One of the team's strategies to building a competitive roster is retaining its own core players. Since Tannenbaum's arrival in 2015, the Dolphins have re-signed or agreed to contract extensions with several key players including center Mike Pouncey (2015), quarterback Ryan Tannehill (2017), defensive end Cameron Wake (2016 and 2017), safety Reshad Jones (2017), wide receiver Kenny Stills (2017), linebacker Kiko Alonso (2017) and defensive end Andre Branch (2017). That group has combined for nine Pro Bowl selections in their careers.

Tannenbaum has made several significant trades during his Dolphins tenure. He acquired Stills in 2015 from the New Orleans Saints. Stills led the Dolphins with nine touchdowns and finished third in the NFL with a 17.3 yards per reception average in 2016. Prior to the 2016 NFL draft, Tannenbaum swapped first-round picks with Philadelphia, moving down five spots and adding Alonso and cornerback Byron Maxwell. The team used the acquired first-round pick (No. 13 overall) on offensive lineman Laremy Tunsil, successfully adding three starters in exchange for one selection. In 2016, Alonso led the team with 115 tackles (69 solo), Maxwell had more passes defended (15) than any Dolphins player since 2008 and Tunsil became the first Dolphin to ever start games at both guard and tackle as a rookie. In 2017, Tannenbaum traded a seventh-round pick to Jacksonville in exchange for two-time Pro Bowl tight end Julius Thomas, a player who previously thrived in Denver under Gase, who was his offensive coordinator there.

In his first full offseason with the Dolphins in 2015, Tannenbaum helped land one of the top unrestricted free agents in four-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh. In 2016, Suh was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl after he recorded a career-high 72 tackles (41 solo).

Prior to the Dolphins, Tannenbaum spent two years (2013-14) as an agent and principal at Priority Sports and Entertainment. He spent the previous 16 seasons (1997-2012) in various roles for the New York Jets, including his final seven years (2006-12) as the team's executive vice president and general manager. During his time as general manager, the Jets went to the playoffs three times, won four playoff games and made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Tannenbaum began his tenure in New York as director of player contracts in 1997 and was promoted to assistant general manager and director of pro personnel in 2001. In 2004, he was elevated to the role of assistant general manager and senior vice president of football operations before taking on the role of general manager prior to the 2006 season. Tannenbaum's first draft at the helm as general manager began with the selection of two offensive linemen, making the Jets the first team since the 1975 L.A. Rams to select two offensive linemen in the first round. Both left tackle D'Brickashaw Ferguson, chosen fourth overall, and center Nick Mangold, selected 29th overall, were named to various NFL All-Rookie teams and have since been named to multiple Pro Bowls. That draft class started 47 games in 2006 and helped the Jets advance to the first round of the NFL playoffs with a record of 10-6, a six-win improvement from the 2005 campaign.

In Tannenbaum's second draft as GM, the Jets selected two invaluable additions to their defense. Using the trade route, they moved up in rounds one and two to select cornerback Darrelle Revis and linebacker David Harris, respectively. Both emerged as starters as rookies. Revis quickly blossomed into a perennial All-Pro and Harris emerged as one of the game's most consistent linebackers. The 2011 draft generated an immediate impact when Tannenbaum selected first-rounder Muhammed Wilkerson, who started all 16 games on the defensive line during his rookie season.

Tannenbaum began his career in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints in 1994 before accepting the position of player personnel assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 1995. He returned to the Saints for the 1996 season as a player personnel assistant prior to joining the Jets in 1997.

A native of Needham, Massachusetts, Tannenbaum earned an accounting degree from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst and graduated cum laude from Tulane University Law School. He also was selected to the NFL General Managers Advisory Committee in 2008 and appointed to the Board of Directors of the Sports Lawyers Association, while serving as a member of the American Bar Association in the Sports and Entertainment division.

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four-year stretch from 1971-74, the team compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998. The Denver Broncos won 24 straight home games from 1996-98.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS // NFL: 23RD SEASON // DOLPHINS: 18TH SEASON

Chris Grier is entering his 18th season with the Miami Dolphins and second as the club's general manager. Grier was appointed general manager on Jan. 4, 2016 after spending the previous nine years as the team's director of college scouting. He works together with Executive Vice President of Football Operations Mike Tannenbaum and Head Coach Adam Gase to help build a championship-caliber football team. In his role, Grier oversees the draft, both college and pro personnel departments and all scouting efforts.

In his first draft as general manager in 2016, Grier worked with his staff to bring linebacker Kiko Alonso and cornerback Byron Maxwell to Miami in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles. The deal net the team the 13th pick of the draft, which Grier used to select guard/tackle Laremy Tunsil, who started 14 games as a rookie and became the first offensive lineman in franchise history to start at least one game at guard and tackle in his rookie year. Alonso went on to start 15 games and lead the team with 115 total tackles (69 solo), ranking No. 9 in the AFC in 2016, while Maxwell started 13 games and had 15 passes defended, the most by a Dolphins player since 2008.

The team also drafted running back Kenyan Drake and wide receiver Jakeem Grant in 2016, who became just the second rookie duo in team history to combine for a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in the same season.

Grier helped turn more than half the roster over in 2016, as the team entered training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason. The results were a four-game improvement from the previous season, the fifth-best mark in the NFL. The Dolphins finished 10-6 with a playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered some of the best collegiate players the Dolphins have ever drafted, including wide receiver Jarvis Landry and running back Jay Ajayi.

A second-round selection in 2014, Landry finished his first three NFL seasons with 288 receptions, tied for the most any NFL player has ever recorded in his first three years in the league. A fifth-round pick in 2015, Ajayi became just the fourth player in NFL history to post three 200-yard rushing games in the same season in 2016. His 1,272 rushing yards were third all-time in team history and he holds three of the team's six best single-game rushing performances. Both Landry and Ajayi were Pro Bowl selections following the 2016 season.

In 2011, the Dolphins drafted center Mike Pouncey in the first round. Pouncey has developed into one of the league's best interior linemen and was selected to the Pro Bowl for the third time in his career in 2015.

Ajayi wasn't the only diamond in the rough found by the team during Grier's tenure as director of college scouting. Safety Reshad Jones was a fifth-round pick in 2010 and was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a single season.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and recently retired as a senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. Chris has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Parcells, Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick, Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll and University of Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League. He is currently a scout for the Chicago Blackhawks.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier resides in Weston with his wife, Paige, and their two sons, Landon and Jackson.

COACHING STAFF

ADAM GASE

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN STATE // NFL: 15TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Adam Gase was named the 12th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on Jan. 9, 2016. In just his first season as an NFL head coach, Gase directed the Dolphins to a 10-6 record and playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

Miami turned its season around with a six-game winning streak following a 1-4 start. The streak was the team's longest since 2005 and marked just the second time a coach other than Don Shula led the team to six straight regular season wins. From Week 6 through the end of the season, the team was third in the NFL in rushing offense (132.9 yards per game), tied for third in sacks allowed (13), tied for fourth in takeaways (21) and 11th in scoring offense (25.0 points per game).

Halftime adjustments were also key to the team's improvement. The Dolphins finished the 2016 season with a +46 point differential after halftime, which ranked No. 8 in the NFL. The team outscored its opponents by a total of 221-175 after the break, including two overtime wins vs. Cleveland (9/25) and at Buffalo (12/24).

With Gase directing the offense, quarterback Ryan Tannehill posted the most efficient season of his five-year NFL career, despite being lost to a season-ending injury in Week 14. Tannehill completed 261-of-389 passes (67.1 pct.) for 2,995 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 93.5 quarterback rating, 7.7 yards per attempt and 67.1 completion percentage were all career highs. Tannehill completed a 50-plus-yard pass in seven of his 13 games, which tied for the NFL lead. Both Tannehill and quarterback Matt Moore finished first and second in the NFL in highest red zone passer rating (min. six attempts), with Tannehill posting a 119.7 mark and Moore finishing second at 118.8.

Miami found a renewed rushing attack in Gase's first season, led by running back Jay Ajayi. Despite not starting until Week 5, Ajayi totaled 261 carries for 1,272 yards (4.9 avg.) and eight touchdowns. His 1,272 rushing yards were third-best in Dolphins history and he rushed for more than 200 yards in three different games. In just the 2016 season alone, Ajayi now holds three of the team's top six single-game rushing performances and became one of just four players in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in three-or-more games in the same season. Ajayi's 1,085-yard improvement from the 2015 season was the largest of any NFL player in 2016 and he led the NFL with 1,155 rushing yards from Week 6 through the end of the season.

Wide receiver Jarvis Landry also had a great first year under Gase. Landry caught 94 passes for 1,136 yards (12.1 avg.). He and Ajayi marked the second time a Dolphins team had produced a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season.

In 2015, Gase was the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears. Under Gase, the Bears implemented a balanced offensive attack that improved the team's rushing totals from No. 27 in the season before Gase arrived in Chicago to No. 11 in 2015, as the unit averaged 25.6 more rushing yards per game. Bears quarterback Jay Cutler finished the 2015 season with the highest passer rating (92.3) of his career. Cutler also threw seven fewer interceptions than the previous season and his interception rate of 2.3 percent was the best showing of his career for a season where he played at least 12 games. In addition, Cutler's yards per attempt increased by 0.8, the second-largest one-year increase in his career.

Prior to joining the Bears, Gase spent six seasons (2009-14) with the Denver Broncos, during which the team compiled a 58-38 (.604) regular-season record, won four AFC West titles, three playoff games and an AFC Championship, including a trip to Super Bowl XLVIII.

While Gase was the Denver Broncos' offensive coordinator in 2013 and 2014, the Broncos led the NFL in scoring offense (34.0 points per game), total offense (430.1 yards per game) and passing offense (315.8 yards per game). During his two seasons as coordinator, seven players from the Broncos offense were named to the Pro Bowl: running back C.J. Anderson (2014), tackle Ryan Clady (2014), quarterback Peyton Manning (2013-14), wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders (2014), wide receiver Demaryius Thomas (2013-14), tight end Julius Thomas (2013-14) and guard Louis Vasquez (2013).

In 2014, the Broncos finished 12-4, winning the AFC West and earning a bye in the first round of the playoffs. Gase helped Denver finish second in scoring, averaging 30.1 points per contest. Manning continued his excellence, completing 66.2 percent of his passes and passing for 4,727 yards and 39 touchdowns. He set the NFL's career passing touchdown record on Oct. 19, 2014 against San Francisco. Demaryius Thomas broke the franchise's single-season receiving record with 1,619 receiving yards. He finished the year with 111 receptions, second in the league and a career high. Wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders also set career highs in both receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,404), ranking No. 5 in the NFL in both categories. Running back C.J. Anderson, who entered the 2014 season with just seven career carries, was instrumental in helping Denver finish the season strong. In the final seven games of the regular season, Anderson carried the ball 140 times for 648 yards (4.6 avg.) and eight touchdowns as the Broncos won five of their last seven contests. He became the first Denver running back since 2004 to rush for 150-plus yards in consecutive games.

In 2013, Gase's first as offensive coordinator, the Broncos set NFL records in both points (606) and touchdowns (76) and Denver's scoring output increased by 7.8 points per game. The Broncos totaled 59.4 yards per game more than they did in 2012 and led the NFL with 5,444 passing yards and 55 passing touchdowns. The explosive offense helped Denver finish the regular season 13-3, winning the AFC West and earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs, where the Broncos won the conference title and played in Super Bowl XLVIII.

In addition to setting NFL team records, Gase also helped Manning have the most prolific season of any quarterback in NFL history. Manning's 5,477 passing yards and 55 passing touchdowns were both NFL records that still stand today. Manning earned his fifth NFL MVP award and also was honored as the Maxwell Club Player of the Year and AP Offensive Player of the Year.

In total, the Broncos set or tied 12 NFL offense and scoring records in the 2013 season with Gase as offensive coordinator: points (606), touchdowns (76), players with 10 or more touchdowns (5), passing first downs (293), games with 50-plus points (3), points in the second half (318), individual passing yards (Manning, 5,477), individual passing touchdowns (Manning, 55), most four-touchdown passing games (Manning, 9), most two-touchdown passing games (Manning, 15), most 400-yard passing games (Peyton Manning, 4) and most 90-plus passer rating games (Manning, 15).

The 2013 Broncos were one of just four teams in the past five seasons (2011-15) to have two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. Wide receiver Demaryius Thomas was fourth in the NFL with 1,430 receiving yards, while fellow receiver Eric Decker ranked No. 9 with 1,288. Running back Knowshon Moreno rushed for 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns. Denver became the only team in NFL history to have four players catch 10 or more touchdown passes in the same season. Demaryius Thomas led the way with 14 touchdown grabs, tight end Julius Thomas was second with 12, Decker finished with 11 and wide receiver Wes Welker totaled 10 touchdown receptions.

Gase served as Denver's quarterbacks coach from 2011-12. Manning joined the team in 2012 following 14 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, including a 2011 campaign that he missed due to injury. With Gase as his position coach in 2012, Manning was wildly successful, finishing second in the league in passer rating (105.8), third in passing touchdowns (37) and sixth in passing yards (4,659). He earned the AP NFL Comeback Player of the Year award and was runner-up for NFL MVP. The Broncos won the AFC West with a 13-3 mark and finished the season on an 11-game winning streak. The team's passing offense was fifth in the NFL (283.4 yards per game) and the club finished second in scoring (30.1 points per game) and fourth in total offense (397.9 yards per game).

In 2011, Gase worked with quarterbacks Kyle Orton and Tim Tebow, helping lead the Broncos to the AFC West crown and a Wild Card playoff victory. Tebow rushed for 660 yards, the most by a quarterback in franchise history and 12th-most by an NFL quarterback ever. He also rushed for six touchdowns.

Gase joined the Broncos in 2009 as the wide receivers coach, a position he held for two seasons.

In 2010, he helped wide receiver Brandon Lloyd earn a Pro Bowl invitation after he led the league in receiving with 1,448 yards and 11 touchdowns. It was the first time a Broncos player had ever led the league in receiving yards. The 1,448 yards were 482 more than Lloyd recorded in any other season throughout his 11-year NFL career. He joined Brett Perriman (Detroit, 1995) as the only two players in NFL history to record their first 1,400-yard campaign in their eighth season or later.

Gase coached another Pro Bowl wide receiver in 2009 when Brandon Marshall caught 101 passes for 1,120 yards (11.1 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. The 101 receptions were the fourth-highest mark in the league and the Pro Bowl selection was Marshall's second of his young career. Marshall set a single-game NFL record with 21 receptions against Indianapolis on Dec. 13, 2009.

Gase spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant for the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to San Francisco, Gase held several roles for five seasons (2003-07) with the Detroit Lions. He coached the Lions' quarterbacks in 2007, working with quarterback Jon Kitna in one of the finest seasons of his career. Kitna passed for 4,068 yards, the second-most in his 14-year NFL career, and 18 touchdowns. His 4,068 passing yards ranked No. 6 in the NFL and he finished fifth with 355 completions.

Gase was an offensive quality control coach for the Lions in 2006. He began his NFL career as a scouting/coaching assistant for the Lions, a role he held from 2003 to 2005.

Gase began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at LSU in 2000. He spent the following two seasons on the recruiting staff for Head Coach Nick Saban, winning a Southeastern Conference championship in 2001 and helping recruit a group of players that won the BCS National Championship in 2003.

He and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter, McKenzie, and two sons, A.J. and Wyatt.

LOU ANARUMO

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: WAGNER // NFL: SIXTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Lou Anarumo enters his sixth season with the Dolphins after being named defensive backs coach on Feb. 4, 2012.

In 2016, Anarumo helped the Dolphins have their best season since 2008, winning 10 games and reaching the playoffs for the first time in eight years. He helped the Dolphins string together seven straight games with a takeaway from Week 9 to Week 15, totaling 19 turnovers, the most in a seven-game span since 2004. Miami won nine of its final 11 games and during that span, Anarumo helped the passing defense rank No. 15 in the NFL (238.5 passing yards allowed per game) and force 21 turnovers, which tied for fourth in the league. Cornerback Tony Lippett led the team and tied for 11th in the NFL with four interceptions in just his second NFL season despite playing wide receiver in college.

Anarumo entered the 2015 season coaching defensive backs and was named defensive coordinator on Oct. 8. Under Anarumo's direction, cornerback Brent Grimes and safety Reshad Jones were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking the first time since the 2003 season that Miami had two members of their secondary participate in the Pro Bowl in the same season.

In 2014, Anarumo led a secondary that allowed only 222.3 passing yards per game, good for sixth-best in the NFL and the third-straight season of improvement in this category. His group scored three defensive touchdowns (cornerback Cortland Finnegan on a fumble return at Oakland and safety Louis Delmas and Grimes on interception returns at Jacksonville), marking the first season since 2003 when the Dolphins had three different players score defensive touchdowns. Grimes recorded a team-leading five interceptions en route to his second Pro Bowl in as many years since joining the team. Jones was one of three players in the NFL in 2014 to record 70 or more tackles, one sack and three interceptions.

In 2013, Anarumo guided a secondary that saw marked improvement in his second season at the helm, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the 2012-13 seasons were the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of Grimes, who earned a Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defensed.

In Anarumo's first season with the Dolphins in 2012, he coached a secondary which started five different players at cornerback during the season (Nolan Carroll, Richard Marshall, Dimitri Patterson, Sean Smith and Jimmy Wilson). In addition, safeties Chris Clemons and Jones both had the best seasons of their NFL career to date. Starting all 16 games, Clemons set a career high with 96 tackles (69 solo), while Jones recorded 95 tackles (74 solo), one sack, two forced fumbles and four interceptions.

Anarumo joined the Dolphins after spending eight seasons (2004-11) as defensive backs coach at Purdue University. With four new starters in 2010, the Boilermakers' secondary featured true freshman cornerback Ricardo Allen, who finished with three interceptions, returning two of them for touchdowns and led the Big Ten in interception return yardage en route to earning freshman All-America honors. Cornerbacks Brandon King and David Pender were named second team All-Big Ten in 2009, while safety Torri Williams was an honorable mention selection. Pender finished his career ranked tied for second in school history with 33 pass breakups. From 2005 to 2006, the Boilermakers rebuilt their secondary and improved from 287.3 passing yards allowed per game to 241.2 yards. In 2008, they ranked No. 3 overall in the Big Ten, surrendering just 183.2 yards per game. That figure dropped to 152.5 yards in conference games and was tops in the Big Ten. Safety Bernard Pollard was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall pick) of the 2006 NFL draft, becoming the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland (47th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in 1988.

Anarumo came to the Boilermakers from Marshall, where he coached the defensive backs from 2001-03. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. The Thundering Herd ranked No. 10 in the nation in passing defense in 2003, allowing 177.4 yards per game. They were sixth in 2002 at 161.5 yards after ranking No. 37 in 2001 at 198.7 yards. Marshall compiled a 30-8 record over the three seasons and won the GMAC Bowl in 2001 and 2002. Strong safety Chris Crocker was a third-round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 2003 draft.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard from 1995-2000, working with the defensive backs and coordinating the special teams. During his tenure, he helped build a pass defense regarded among the finest in the Ivy League. The Crimson led the league in pass efficiency defense in 1999 and ranked No. 2 in interceptions in 2000.

From 1992-94, Anarumo was defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, New York. He also served as the admissions liaison to the athletics department.

Anarumo was a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse during the 1990-91 seasons. He was assistant defensive backs coach under Phil Elmassian – whom Anarumo replaced on the Boilermaker staff – and was responsible for film breakdown and organization of the scout teams.

From January to June 1990, Anarumo was a part-time running backs coach at Wagner College. He filled that same role at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from September 1989 to January 1990.

A native of Staten Island, N.Y., Anarumo earned his B.S. degree in special education from Wagner in 1990. While in college, he served as head junior varsity coach at Susan Wagner High School in Staten Island, N.Y.

Anarumo and his wife, Fran, have three children: Madison, Louis and Christopher. His last name is pronounced aahn-UH-room-oh.

Danny Barrett enters his second season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named running backs coach on Jan. 25, 2016.

In his first season with the team, Barrett helped running back Jay Ajayi produce the biggest turnaround by any NFL running back from the 2015 season. Ajayi rushed for 1,272 yards in 2016, the third-most in a single season in Dolphins history, and 1,085 more than his 2015 total, which was the biggest improvement by any NFL running back. Ajayi became one of just four NFL players to ever post three 200-yard games in the same season and now holds three of the team's top six all-time single game rushing marks. Ajayi also became just the fourth NFL player to rush for 200 yards in back-to-back games after he ran did so in Week 6 vs. Pittsburgh and Week 7 vs. Buffalo. During Miami's 9-2 finish to the season, Ajayi rushed for 1,155 yards, leading the NFL during that span. Ajayi was also named to his first Pro Bowl.

In 2014, Barrett coached William Stanback, a first-team All-American Athletic Conference selection, and helped UCF win the AAC for the second-consecutive season. Barrett mentored two All-AAC backs in 2013 as Storm Johnson was named to the league's first team and Stanback earned second-team honors. Johnson rushed for 1,139 yards with 14 touchdowns and became just the eighth player in school history to top 1,000 rushing yards. Johnson was picked in the seventh round (222nd overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2014 NFL draft. The 2013 Knights won a school-record 12 games and went a perfect 8-0 in AAC play, winning the Fiesta Bowl for the first BCS bowl victory in program history. CHARLIE BULLEN

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: IOWA // NFL: SIXTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Charlie Bullen enters his sixth season with the Dolphins and second as the team's assistant linebackers coach, having been named to the position on Jan. 25, 2016. Bullen originally joined the organization as the team's defensive assistant on Feb. 10, 2012. He also served three seasons as the team's assistant defensive line coach (2013-15).

In his first season as assistant linebackers coach, Bullen helped linebacker Kiko Alonso become on the AFC's leading tacklers. Alonso's 115 total stops (69 solo) were ninth in the conference and led the team. Alonso also had a game-winning interception return for a touchdown in Week 10 at San Diego to give the Dolphins a 31-24 lead with 1:01 to play, the latest interception return for a touchdown to win a game for the Dolphins since at least 1991. Alonso also became the first Dolphins linebacker since at least 1993 to intercept a pass and recover a fumble in the same game in Week 12 vs. San Francisco.

Bullen was part of a defensive staff that helped the Dolphins finish fourth in the NFL in third-down conversion percentage (36.2 pct.) in 2016. Miami won nine of its final 11 games, posting 11 takeaways which tied for fourth in the NFL during that span. The timely stops and takeaways helped the Dolphins finish 10-6 and earn a playoff berth for the first time since 2008.

As a defensive line assistant from 2013-15, Bullen helped defensive ends Cameron Wake (27.0) and Olivier Vernon (25.5) both rank among the NFL's top 20 players in total sacks during that period. Miami was the only NFL team to have two players among the top 20 in sacks in those three seasons. As a team, the Dolphins ranked in the top half of the NFL with 154 sacks in the four seasons that Bullen worked with the defensive line.

In 2015, Bullen helped Wake join Julius Peppers as the only two players in the NFL to total seven-plus sacks in each of the past six seasons. Wake accomplished the feat despite playing in just seven games due to injury. Wake also totaled four sacks in the win at Tennessee (10/18), tying for the fifth-most sacks in a single game in team history. Miami joined Chicago, New England and Philadelphia as one of just four teams in the NFL to have three players record at least six sacks in the 2015 campaign (Vernon, 7.5; Wake, 7.0; Ndamukong Suh, 6.0).

Bullen assisted with a defensive line that accounted for 30.5 of the team's 39 sacks in 2014. Leading the pass rush was defensive end Cameron Wake, who finished the season with 11.5 sacks and earned his fourth trip to the Pro Bowl. Along with Wake, fellow defensive end Olivier Vernon added 6.5 sacks, bringing his career total to 21.5 sacks, tied for the second-most sacks by a player in their first three NFL seasons with the Dolphins.

In 2013, Bullen helped guide a unit that contributed 34 of the defense's 42 sacks which was the third-consecutive season that the defense had recorded 40-plus sacks and marked the first time in team history the team had accomplished this feat in three straight seasons. Additionally, the Dolphins were one of only four NFL teams to record 40 or more sacks in each of the 2011-13 seasons. Wake earned his third Pro Bowl nod in 2013 with 8.5 sacks and Vernon notched a team-high 11.5 sacks.

Bullen assisted a defense that finished seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8) in 2012. The defense's 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL. Bullen spent a lot of time helping the defensive line, which featured two players who were selected to the Pro Bowl, Wake and Randy Starks. Wake ranked No. 3 in the AFC and No. 4 in the NFL with 15 sacks and that total also tied for the sixth-highest single-season sack total in Dolphins history.

Prior to Miami, Bullen spent the 2009-11 seasons as a graduate assistant coach working with the defense at the University of Iowa. Bullen also served as a student assistant for two seasons (2007-08), working with the Hawkeye quarterbacks while completing work towards his bachelor's degree.

Bullen served as a volunteer assistant coach at Iowa City High School in 2006, working with the quarterbacks.

Prior to attending Iowa, Bullen played quarterback at Harper College in Palatine, Illinois. Bullen earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2008 and a master's degree in sports management from the University of Iowa in 2011.

Bullen, along with the Dolphins' defensive linemen, participated in the "All-Community Team" program under the group name "First Line of Defense." As part of the program, Bullen and the defensive line purchased tickets, food vouchers, T-shirts and parking to each of the team's regular season home games and donated them to a charitable organization.

A member of the American Football Coaches Association, Bullen is a native of Palatine, Illinois. He and his wife, Megan, have a daughter, Elle, and reside in Davie.

MATT BURKE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: DARTMOUTH // NFL: 14TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Matt Burke enters his second season with the Miami Dolphins and first as defensive coordinator after he was promoted on Jan. 12, 2017. Burke originally joined the staff as linebackers coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

In Burke's first season with Miami, he helped the Dolphins to their most successful season since 2008, posting 10 wins and earning a playoff berth. He helped linebacker Kiko Alonso lead the team and finish ninth in the AFC with 115 tackles (69 solo). Alonso made several critical plays, including a game-winning 60-yard interception return at San Diego with 1:01 remaining. It was the latest game-winning interception return by the Dolphins since at least 1991. Alonso also became the first Dolphins linebacker since at least 1993 to intercept a pass and recover a fumble in the same game in Week 12 vs. San Francisco.

With Burke overseeing the linebackers, the Dolphins won six consecutive games to bounce back after a 1-4 start. The six-game winning streak was the team's longest since 2005. In Miami's final 11 games, the team went 9-2 and a big part of its success was an opportunistic defense. Burke helped the team generate 21 turnovers during those 11 games, tied for fourth in the NFL during that span.

Prior to Miami, Burke spent the previous seven years as an NFL linebackers coach, working with the position group in Cincinnati (2014-15) and Detroit (2009-13). He also spent five years with the Tennessee Titans, where he served as an administrative assistant (2004-05) and defensive assistant/quality control coach (2006-08).

In 2015, the Bengals had the second-best scoring defense (17.4 points per game) in the NFL. The defense forced 28 turnovers, tied for sixth in the league.

Linebacker Vincent Rey posted the two most productive seasons of his career under Burke. In 2015, Rey made 95 stops (62 solo), one sack, one interception and five passes defended. Thrust into a starting role due to injuries in 2014, Rey totaled a team-high 121 tackles (61 solo) and five passes defended that season.

The Bengals missed middle linebacker Rey Maualuga during the first half of the 2014 season, but once he returned during the final seven games of the season, Cincinnati surrendered just 82.0 rushing yards per contest, the second-best mark in the NFL.

Burke came to Cincinnati from the Lions, where he spent five seasons as the linebackers coach. In 2013, he helped lead a Lions defense that ranked No. 6 in the NFL against the run. Linebacker DeAndre Levy was tied for second in the NFL in interceptions (6), becoming only the third linebacker in Lions history with six-plus interceptions and the first since 1958. The Lions held opponents to 30.3 percent on third downs, the lowest conversion rate in the league, and were second in red-zone touchdown percentage (38.1) in 2013. The defense went 37 straight quarters without allowing a rushing touchdown, breaking a club record from 1934. The Lions became the first NFL team since 1933 to allow 62 or fewer rushing yards in six consecutive games without allowing a rushing touchdown. In 2011, Detroit won 10 games and earned a playoff berth for the first time since 1999.

Burke spent five years with the Tennessee Titans as an administrative assistant and defensive assistant. He worked primarily with linebackers in 2008 when the Titans posted a 13-3 mark, the best record in the NFL and tied for the winningest season in franchise history. Burke also spent time coaching at Harvard (2003), Boston College (2002-03) and Bridgton Academy (1998-99) in Maine.

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA ST. // NFL: 34TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Frank Bush is in his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named assistant head coach/linebackers on Jan. 19, 2017.

Bush has 33 total years of NFL experience including 26 years as a coach, five years as a scout and two years as a player. During that time, he spent two years as a defensive coordinator (Houston; 2009-10) and one season as an assistant head coach (Arizona; 2006) while he has primarily focused on the linebacker unit, the same position he played in college and the NFL.

Bush spent the past four years (2013-16) as the linebackers coach for the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams. He helped groom the team's leading tackler in three of his four seasons with the Rams. In 2013, Bush guided a unit that had three of its six players in their first NFL season. Rookie Alec Ogletree led the team with 119 tackles (95 solo). His six forced fumbles was tied for third in the NFL.

In 2011-12, Bush coached the linebackers for Tennessee. Prior to that, he spent four seasons (2007-10) with the Houston Texans, including two (2009-10) as defensive coordinator.

As defensive coordinator, Bush helped the Texans establish new franchise lows for fewest points allowed per game (20.8) and yards allowed per game (324.9). In both 2009 and 2010, Houston allowed the two lowest rushing yardage totals up in their franchise's history. Additionally, linebacker Brian Cushing earned Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2009.

Bush was the linebackers coach (2004-05) and assistant head coach/linebackers (2006) in Arizona and helped the team make a significant defensive turnaround. In 2003, the year before his arrival, the Cardinals ranked No. 26 in defense but improved to No. 12 in his first season (2004) and No. 8 in his second (2005).

Prior to Arizona, Bush spent nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Denver Broncos in a variety of coaching roles and earned two Super Bowl Rings (XXXII and XXXIII). On the 1998 championship team, the top three leading tacklers (John Mabley, Glenn Cadrez and Bill Romanowski) were all linebackers – the position he coached.

Bush's first coaching job came with the Houston Oilers from 1992-94 where he coached linebackers.

Prior to his coaching career, Bush served five seasons (1987-91) as a college scout for the Oilers. He was a fifth-round pick (133rd overall) by Houston in the 1985 NFL draft and played two seasons (1985-86) at linebacker before his career was cut short due to injury. He earned all-rookie honors in 1985.

A native of Athens, Georgia, Bush was a three-year starter at North Carolina State. He and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Fort Lauderdale.

CLYDE CHRISTENSEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA // NFL: 22ND SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Clyde Christensen is in his second season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named offensive coordinator on Jan. 20, 2016.

In Christensen's first season with the Dolphins, he helped the team to its most successful season since 2008, winning 10 games and earning a playoff berth. The team saw the emergence of running back Jay Ajayi, continued success by wide receiver Jarvis Landry and a career year for quarterback Ryan Tannehill. The Dolphins won nine of their final 11 games. During that span, Miami was third in the NFL in rushing (132.9 yards per game) and allowed just 13 sacks, tied for third-best in the league.

Ajayi took the league by storm, totaling 261 carries for 1,272 yards (4.9 avg.), the third-highest single-season rushing total in Dolphins history. Despite not starting until Week 5, Ajayi posted a 1,085-yard improvement from 2015, the largest year-to-year gain by an NFL player in 2016. Ajayi became the fourth player in NFL history to have at least three 200-yard rushing performances in the same season and two of them came in back-to-back games. In just the 2016 season alone, Ajayi posted three of the team's top six single-game rushing efforts. He was also named to his first Pro Bowl.

Landry continued to have success in Miami's new offense, catching 94 passes for 1,136 yards. His 94 receptions were fourth in single-season team history and his 1,136 receiving yards were eighth. He joined Ajayi as just the second tandem in Dolphins history to post a 1,000-yard rushing and 1,000-yard receiving season in the same year. Landry was also named to his second Pro Bowl.

Tannehill had the most efficient season in his five-year NFL career, completing 67.1 percent of his passes for 2,995 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 93.5 quarterback rating, 7.7 yards per attempt and 67.1 completion percentage were all career highs. Tannehill also was a threat down the field, completing at least one 50-yard pass in seven of the 13 games that he played, which tied for the NFL lead. Tannehill and quarterback Matt Moore led the NFL in highest red zone passer rating (min. six attempts), with Tannehill posting a 119.7 rating, while Moore was second at 118.8.

Prior to Miami, Christensen spent the previous 14 seasons (2002-15) with the Indianapolis Colts, where he was most recently the offensive coordinator (2010-11) and the quarterbacks coach (2012-15). During his tenure, the Colts set a league record with seven consecutive seasons of 12-plus wins.

In Indianapolis, Christensen worked closely with quarterbacks Peyton Manning and Andrew Luck. In his four seasons as quarterbacks coach, the Colts went 41-23 (.641), advanced to the playoffs three times and won the AFC South twice. From 2012-14, Luck recorded the most passing yards (12,957), the second-most passing touchdowns (86) and tied for the second-most regular season victories (33) by any NFL quarterback in his first three seasons.

In 2014, Luck set a single-season franchise record for passing yards (4,761) and led the NFL with 40 touchdown passes, earning his third-straight Pro Bowl selection and helping the Colts reach the AFC Championship game.

The Colts won the AFC South with an 11-5 mark in 2013. In the AFC Wild Card game against Kansas City, Luck totaled the second-most passing yards (443) in a single game in franchise postseason history. He earned his second-straight Pro Bowl nod.

Luck was drafted in 2012 and Christensen helped him achieve one of the most successful rookie seasons in NFL history. Luck passed for 4,374 yards on 627 attempts and posted six 300-yard passing games, all NFL rookie records. He was second among all-time league rookies in completions (339) and third in touchdown passes (23). He also broke the league's single-game rookie record for passing yards (433) in Week 9 against Miami and earned Pro Bowl honors.

As offensive coordinator for the Colts (2010-11), Christensen helped Manning set an NFL record with 450 completions in 2010. Manning posted his 13th consecutive 25-plus touchdown season and 11th 4,000-plus yards passing season in 2010 and set then-career highs for completions (450), attempts (679) and yards (4,700). Those numbers were also single-season franchise records.

Christensen worked with the Colts' wide receivers from 2002-09 and added assistant head coach responsibilities in 2008. The Colts had at least one wide out selected to the Pro Bowl in all eight seasons he worked with the unit. Wide receivers Marvin Harrison and Reggie Wayne played the majority of their NFL careers with Christensen as their position coach and currently rank No. 1 and No. 2 in team history in nearly every career receiving category, including receptions, receiving yards, touchdowns and 100-yard receiving games. Christensen also helped Indianapolis win Super Bowl XLI on Feb. 4, 2007.

Prior to Indianapolis, Christensen spent six seasons (1996-2001) on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff. He served as tight ends coach (1996-98), quarterbacks coach (1999-2000) and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2001, where he helped the Buccaneers reach the NFC playoffs after a 9-7 regular-season finish. Under Christensen in 2001, wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson set the franchise record with 106 receptions and quarterback Brad Johnson set the club's then single-season mark with 340 completions.

Christensen entered the NFL following 17 years of coaching at the collegiate level. He made stops at Clemson (1994-95), Maryland (1992-93), South Carolina (1991), Holy Cross (1989-90), East Carolina (1986-88), Temple (1983-85), East Tennessee State (1980-82) and Mississippi (1979). He was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Clemson and helped the Maryland offense rank in the top five nationally during his two seasons as the school's quarterbacks coach.

Christensen was an All-America quarterback at Fresno City Junior College in 1975 and finished his playing career at the University of North Carolina (1977-78). There, he helped the Tar Heels earn Peach and Liberty Bowl bids during his career.

A Covina, California native, Christensen earned his bachelor's degree in industrial relations from North Carolina. He and his wife, Debbie, have three daughters, Rachel, Rebecca and Ruth.

SHANE

TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: KANSAS STATE // NFL: NINTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Shane Day is in his second season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named tight ends coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

In Day's first season with the team, the Dolphins had their most successful season since 2008, winning 10 games and earning a playoff berth. The team won nine of its final 11 contests. During that span, the team was third in the NFL in rushing (132.9 yards per game) and tied for third with 13 sacks allowed.

Despite losing starter Jordan Cameron to injury in Week 3, Day prepared Dion Sims to have one of the best seasons of his career. Sims set career highs with 11 starts, 26 receptions and four receiving touchdowns. Sims set a single-game career high with five receptions in the AFC Wild Card game at Pittsburgh (1/8/17). Tight end MarQueis Gray also had the best season of his four-year NFL career, setting career highs with seven starts, 14 receptions and 174 receiving yards.

Day came to Miami after two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach (2014-15) with the Washington Redskins, where he worked with Dolphins run game coordinator/offensive line coach Chris Foerster in 2014.

The Redskins ranked No. 10 in the NFL with 24.3 points per game and No. 6 with 7.0 yards per pass attempt in 2015. Day helped the offensive line allow just 27 sacks, the fifth-best mark in the league. Washington won the NFC East for the second time since 1999 with a nine-win campaign. Tackle Trent Williams earned his fourth-consecutive Pro Bowl selection and was named to the Associated Press All-Pro second team for the first time in his career. In 2014, running back Alfred Morris rushed for 1,074 yards, his third-consecutive 1,000-yard season. The passing attack gained 6.7 yards per attempt, the eighth-best mark in the NFL. Williams earned another Pro Bowl selection, the third of his career.

Prior to Washington, Day was the quarterbacks coach at Connecticut for two seasons (2012-13). In 2013, he took over play-calling duties after an 0-9 start and helped the Huskies close the season on a three-game winning streak as the team passed for seven touchdowns and only one interception.

Day coached quarterbacks for the Chicago Bears from 2010-11. In his first season, Day helped quarterback Jay Cutler post the second-highest passer rating (86.3) at that point of his career as an NFL starter. The Bears went 11-5 and won the NFC North, advancing to the NFC Championship game that season.

Day also spent three seasons on the offensive staff with the San Francisco 49ers (2007-09) as an offensive quality control coach. He worked with the team's quarterbacks in 2007, running backs in 2008 and offensive line in 2009. During Day's stint in San Francisco, running back Frank Gore gained 3,258 rushing yards, the fifth-most in the NFL in that three-year span.

From 2005-06, Day served as an offensive quality control coach at Michigan, where he worked with the quarterbacks. The Wolverines earned a berth to the 2007 Rose Bowl following the 2006 season.

Day began coaching at Auburn Riverside High School in Auburn, Wash., where he spent one season coaching the wide receivers (2001) and three years coaching the quarterbacks (2002-04). He also served as offensive coordinator for two seasons (2003-04).

A wide receiver at Rhode College in Memphis, Tennessee, Day was a two-sport athlete, also playing baseball. He graduated from Kansas State in 1999 with a degree in English. He and his wife, Christie, have a daughter, Vivienne.

CHRIS FOERSTER

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

COLLEGE: COLORADO STATE // NFL: 25TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Chris Foerster is in his second season of his second stint with the Miami Dolphins. He was promoted to run game coordinator/offensive line coach on Feb. 10, 2017 after he was originally named offensive line coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

Foerster's offensive line was critical to Miami's four-win turnaround from 2015 to 2016. After starting the season 1-4, the Dolphins won nine of their final 11 games to earn a playoff berth and their first winning season since 2008. During those 11 games, the team's offensive line was outstanding, helping the Dolphins rank No. 3 in the NFL with 132.9 rushing yards per game and tied for third with just 13 sacks allowed.

Miami's offensive line accomplished this despite several injuries to some of their best players. Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey and Pro Bowl left tackle Branden Albert combined to play just 17 games, while first-round pick Laremy Tunsil missed two contests. Tunsil became the first Dolphins lineman in team history to start at least one game at guard and tackle in his rookie season.

The unit helped pave the way for running back Jay Ajayi to have one of the best seasons in Dolphins history. Ajayi totaled 1,272 rushing yards, third-best in team history, and rushed for 200-plus-yards in three different games, becoming just the fourth NFL player to do so in a single season. Ajayi rushed for 1,085 yards more than he did in 2015, the largest year-to-year improvement in the NFL in 2016.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill also benefitted from Foerster's offensive line. Tannehill set career highs in quarterback rating (93.5), yards per attempt (7.7) and completion percentage (67.1). The protection also held up for longer developing plays, as Tannehill tied for the NFL lead by posting seven different games with a completion of at least 50 yards.

Throughout his lengthy coaching career, Foerster has mentored six players that were selected to 15 Pro Bowls – center Jeff Christy (2000), center Tony Mayberry (1996-99), guard Randall McDaniel (1993, 1995, 2000), tackle Jonathan Ogden (2005-07), tackle Joe Staley (2015) and tackle Trent Williams (2012-14).

In his lone season in San Francisco (2015), Foerster helped an offensive line battle through adversity and pave the way for the 18th-ranked rushing attack in the NFL. The 49ers had lost the franchise's all-time leading rusher, Frank Gore in the offseason and had so many injuries at the running back position that no tailback played more than eight games the entire season.

Foerster came to San Francisco after spending five seasons (2010-14) as the offensive line coach for the Washington Redskins. There, his unit helped running back Alfred Morris top 1,000 yards in each of his first three NFL seasons. Throughout his five-year tenure in Washington, the Redskins ranked No. 4 in the NFL in yards per carry (4.54).

During the 2012-13 seasons, Foerster's offensive line helped the Redskins rush for a league-leading 4,873 yards during that span. They were one of just two teams to average at least five yards per carry (5.01) over the two years.

The 2013 season saw Washington rank No. 5 in the league in rushing yards (2,164). It was the first time the Redskins had rushed for more than 2,000 yards in consecutive seasons since 2005-06.

In 2012, Washington rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards and led the NFL in rushing for the first time since 1933. Morris set the franchise's new single-season record with 1,613 rushing yards, despite being a rookie. The offensive line also protected rookie quarterback Robert Griffin III, who earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors as he helped lead the Redskins to their first NFC East title since 1999.

Under Foerster, tackle Trent Williams earned three straight Pro Bowl selections (2012-14), the first three of his career.

Prior to Washington, Foerster worked for the 49ers (2008-09) and the Baltimore Ravens (2005-07), where he oversaw the offensive line for each team. In Baltimore, he also held assistant head coach responsibilities. In 2006, the Ravens set team records for fewest sacks allowed (17) and wins (13), as they won the AFC North and earned a bye in the playoffs.

Foerster was the Dolphins' offensive coordinator in 2004. He also held coaching positions with the Indianapolis Colts (2002-03), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2001), Minnesota Vikings (1993-95), University of Minnesota (1992), Stanford (1988-91) and his alma mater, Colorado State (1982-87).

Foerster played center at Colorado State, beginning his career as a walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore. His last name is pronounced FURR-stir.

JOSH GRIZZARD

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

COLLEGE: YALE // NFL: FIRST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Josh Grizzard is in his first season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named offensive quality control on Feb. 10, 2017.

Grizzard spent the past four seasons at Duke where he was a graduate assistant/quality control working primarily with the quarterbacks. He was promoted into that role following the 2013 season, when he served as a football operations assistant.

At Duke, Grizzard helped the Blue Devils to their best three-year stretch (2013-15) in school history with 27 total wins, an ACC Coastal division title and three consecutive bowl appearances. In 2016, he worked with quarterback Daniel Jones and helped the redshirt freshman rank No. 6 in the ACC and lead all conference freshmen with 276.8 yards of total offense per game.

In 2015, Grizzard helped first-year starter Thomas Sirk throw for 2,625 yards and 16 touchdowns while rushing for 803 yards and eight more scores. Sirk became one of just three quarterbacks in ACC history to throw for 2,500-plus yards and rush for 800-plus yards in a single season. His 3,428 total offensive yards were second all-time in single-season school history.

The 2014 Blue Devils featured five All-ACC selections and compiled 421 total points, the second-most in school history. Quarterback Anthony Boone, the winningest quarterback in the history of Duke football, earned All-ACC honors and the team finished in the conference's top five in six offensive statistics.

Grizzard played defensive back at Yale and graduated with a degree in political science. He earned his master's degree in Christian studies from Duke. Grizzard is a native of Zebulon, North Carolina and currently resides in Fort Lauderdale. His last name is pronounced Grizz-ARD.

A PLAYERS COACH

When Bryan Cox was named the team's pass rush coach in 2011, he became the ninth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Cox was chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1991 draft and played the first five years of his career with the Dolphins at linebacker (1991-95). The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Cox are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007) and James Saxon (RB, 1992-94; Coach, 2008-10). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's 3rd quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

BO HARDEGREE

QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: TENNESSEE // NFL: FOURTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Bo Hardegree is in his second season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named quarterbacks coach on Jan. 20, 2016.

In his first season with the team, Hardegree helped quarterback Ryan Tannehill have the most efficient season of his five-year NFL career. Despite getting injured in Week 14 and missing the rest of the season, Tannehill still set career highs with a 93.5 quarterback rating, 7.7 yards per attempt and a 67.1 completion percentage. He tied for the NFL lead with seven games where he completed at least one 50-yard pass.

Both Tannehill and quarterback Matt Moore led the NFL in red zone passer rating (min. six attempts). Tannehill posted a 119.7 mark to lead the league, while Moore finished second at 118.8. After Tannehill's injury, Hardegree groomed Moore to win two of his three starts, propelling the Dolphins into the playoffs for the first time since 2008.

Prior to Miami, Hardegree spent one season in Chicago as an offensive assistant. He helped the Bears' rushing attack improve from 27th to 11th in the NFL as the unit averaged 25.6 more rushing yards per game. Bears quarterback Jay Cutler finished the 2015 season with the highest passer rating (92.3) of his career and threw seven fewer interceptions than the prior year. He also posted the best interception rate (2.3) of his career in a season where he played at least 12 games. Running back Jeremy Langford rushed for 537 yards and six touchdowns as a rookie. His 537 rushing yards ranked No. 7 among NFL rookies and his six touchdowns were tied for fourth amongst rookie rushers.

In 2014, Hardegree was an offensive quality control coach for the Denver Broncos, also working with Head Coach Adam Gase. Hardegree helped the Broncos finish 12-4, earn an AFC West title and first-round bye in the playoffs. Denver ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring, averaging 30.1 points per contest. Quarterback Peyton Manning completed 66.2 percent of his passes for 4,727 yards and 39 touchdowns and set the NFL's career-passing touchdown record on Oct. 19, 2014 against San Francisco. Wide receiver Demaryius Thomas recorded 1,619 receiving yards, breaking the team record for most receiving yards in a season. Thomas' 111 receptions were a career high and ranked No. 2 in the NFL. Wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders also set career highs in both receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,404) and ranked No. 5 in the NFL in both categories. Running back C.J. Anderson, who entered the 2014 season with just seven career carries, rushed for 648 yards on 140 carries (4.6 avg.) and eight touchdowns over the final seven games of the regular season, helping the Broncos win five of the seven contests. Anderson was the first Denver running back since 2004 to rush for 150 yards in back-to-back games.

Prior to Denver, Hardegree spent three years (2011-13) as an intern at Louisiana State, working with the offense in 2012-13 and the defense in 2011. During his three seasons, LSU went 33-7 overall, winning the SEC in 2011 and advancing to the 2012 BCS National Championship game. In 2013, LSU ranked No. 23 out of 124 FBS teams in scoring, averaging 35.8 points per game. Current Miami Dolphins wide receiver Jarvis Landry was the team's leading receiver, hauling in 77 receptions for 1,193 yards (15.5 avg.) and 10 touchdowns. At LSU, Hardegree also coached N.Y. Giants wide out Odell Beckham, a two-time Pro Bowl selection and the 2014 Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, and Cincinnati Bengals running back Jeremy Hill, who rushed for 1,124 yards as a rookie in 2014.

Hardegree began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Duke (2008-10), where he earned his master's degree. He worked primarily with the offense under head coach David Cutcliffe, who coached both Peyton and Eli Manning at Tennessee and Ole Miss, respectively.

Hardegree played quarterback at Tennessee, where he was also a tennis student-athlete. He earned All-SEC Academic team honors from 2004-07 and graduated in 2007 with a degree in exercise science. A native of Jackson, Tennessee, he is married to his wife, Lauren.

SHAWN JEFFERSON

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: CENTRAL FLORIDA // NFL: 26TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Shawn Jefferson is in his second season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named wide receivers coach on Jan. 12, 2016.

In Jefferson's first season with the team, he helped wide receiver Jarvis Landry earn a Pro Bowl selection for the second straight year. Landry caught 94 passes for 1,136 yards (12.1 avg.) and four touchdowns. His 94 receptions were tied for seventh in the NFL and his 1,136 receiving yards were 10th in the league. The 94 receptions were also the fourth-most in single-season team history while the 1,136 receiving yards were eighth-best in Dolphins annals. Landry finished the season tied for seventh in the NFL with 26 third-down receptions and ninth with 335 receiving yards on third down. He became the first Dolphins wide receiver to top 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons since 2012-13 (Brian Hartline) and is tied for the NFL record for most receptions (288) in the first three seasons of a career. Landry also tied the team's postseason single-game record with 11 receptions in the AFC Wild Card game at Pittsburgh (1/8/17).

Jefferson also helped wide receiver Kenny Stills have one of the finest seasons of his career in 2016. Stills caught 42 passes for 726 yards (17.3 avg.) and a team-leading nine touchdowns. His 17.3 yards per reception was third in the NFL and his nine touchdown receptions tied for sixth in the league. Stills became the first Dolphins player to have three touchdown catches of at least 50 yards in the same season since Mark Duper did in 1986.

A former wide receiver himself, Jefferson played for 13 seasons in the NFL and spent nine years coaching the position for the Tennessee Titans (2013-15) and Detroit Lions (2005-12), prior to joining the Dolphins in 2016.

As the wide receivers coach for the Titans (2013-15), Jefferson mentored Kendall Wright, who ranked No. 12 among AFC wide receivers in receptions (187) and receiving yards (2,202) from 2013-15, despite missing several games of the 2015 season due to injury.

An immediate impact was made on Wright and the Titans' receivers when Jefferson joined the staff in 2013. In just his second year in the NFL, Wright totaled 94 receptions in 1,079 yards (11.5 avg.), the fifth-most receptions by a Titans player in team history. His receiving total was the fourth-best among second-year players. Wright became the first receiver in franchise history to lead the team in receptions in each of his first two years. In 2011, Wright and wide receiver Nate Washington combined to catch 152 passes for 1,998 yards (13.1 avg.).

Prior to Tennessee, Jefferson spent eight seasons on the Lions' coaching staff. As wide receiver Calvin Johnson's position coach, Jefferson helped the standout break the NFL record for receiving yards in a season (1,964) in 2012. Jefferson worked with Johnson in 2011 and 2012 where he led the NFL in receiving both seasons. Johnson set numerous NFL records, including most receiving yards in a single season (1,964), first player to have consecutive seasons with 1,600 receiving yards (2011, 2012), first player with consecutive games of at least 100-receiving yards (8), first player with consecutive games of at least 10 receptions (4) and most receptions in a four-quarter game (329). During the five years that Jefferson worked with him, Johnson led the NFL in receiving yards (7,080), receiving touchdowns (50) and receptions of 25 yards or more (70). Johnson earned three Pro Bowl invitations (2010-12) and twice was named to the Associated Press All-Pro team in 2011 and 2012.

In 2011, Detroit's vaunted passing attack earned the Lions a 10-win season and their first playoff berth since 1999. The Lions offense set team records for completions (423) and passing yards (5,071) as Johnson caught 16 touchdowns, the most by an NFL player since 2007. Jefferson also helped develop wide receiver Nate Burleson, who posted a career high with 73 receptions, and rookie wide receiver Titus Young, who totaled 48 grabs.

He joined the Lions in 2005 as a coaching assistant and was promoted to offensive assistant in 2006 and assistant wide receivers coach in 2007. After his playing career was over, Jefferson began coaching in 2004 as a volunteer assistant coach at his former high school, William Raines in Jacksonville, Florida.

Jefferson played wide receiver for four NFL teams over 13 seasons - the San Diego Chargers (1991-95), New England Patriots (1996-99), Atlanta Falcons (2000-02) and Detroit Lions (2003). He totaled 195 games played, 470 receptions, 7,023 receiving yards and 29 touchdowns. Jefferson was a ninth-round selection (240th overall) of the Houston Oilers in 1991.

A Jacksonville, Florida native, Jefferson played at Central Florida from 1988-90. He and his wife, Marla, have two daughters, Paige and Faith, and a son, Van.

COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA // NFL: SIXTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Ben Johnson enters his sixth season with the Dolphins and his second as the team's assistant wide receivers coach, having been named to the position on Jan. 25, 2016. Johnson originally joined the organization as the team's offensive assistant on Feb. 10, 2012 and spent three seasons as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach (2013-15). He was also the team's tight ends coach for the final 12 games of the 2015 season.

In 2016, Johnson's first as assistant wide receivers coach, he helped the Dolphins win 10 games and earn their first playoff berth since 2008. Wide receiver Jarvis Landry caught 94 passes for 1,136 yards (12.1 avg.) and four touchdowns, earning his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Landry's 94 receptions were fourth in single-season team history and his 1,136 receiving yards were eighth. It was Landry's second straight 1,000-yard season. He also tied for seventh in the NFL with 26 third-down receptions and had 335 receiving yards on third downs, the ninth-best mark in the league.

Wide receiver Kenny Stills also had a remarkable season. He caught 42 passes for 726 yards (17.3 avg.) and nine touchdowns. His 17.3 yards per catch average was third in the NFL and his nine touchdowns led the team and tied for sixth in the league. Stills became the first Dolphins player since Mark Duper in 1986 to have three touchdown receptions of at least 50 yards in the same season.

As the tight ends coach in 2015, Johnson helped Jordan Cameron catch at least one pass in every game. All three of Cameron's touchdown receptions came after Johnson began to oversee the position group in Week 5. Dion Sims caught 18 passes for 127 yards (7.1 avg.) and one touchdown, all in the final 12 games of the year.

Johnson spent the offseason and the first four games of the 2015 season assisting with the quarterback position and the development of Ryan Tannehill. Tannehill passed for 4,208 passing yards and steadily improved his passing yardage in all four of his NFL seasons with Johnson coaching his position. Tannehill's 15,460 passing yards in his first four seasons were the third-most by any quarterback in NFL history over the course of their first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill threw for more than 3,000 yards in each of his four seasons, becoming the first to do so in his first four seasons with the team.

In 2014, Johnson helped Tannehill finish with 4,045 passing yards and he joined Marino as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season. His 27 touchdowns in 2014 were the sixth-most in Dolphins history, and the most since Marino threw 30 in 1994. Tannehill also had a completion percentage of 66.4 and a passer rating of 92.8. Additionally, Tannehill set a franchise record with his 392 completions, surpassing Marino's 385 in 1994.

Johnson helped guide quarterback Tannehill to throw for 3,912 passing yards in 2013. His 7,207 passing yards through his first two seasons were the fifth-most by any quarterback over the course of their first two seasons in NFL history.

In 2012, Johnson assisted with an offensive unit which finished fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15) and tied for third in the NFL in fewest offensive penalties (39). In addition, Tannehill set franchise rookie records in several offensive categories and became the first quarterback in Dolphins history to start in all of the team's games in his first year in the league.

Johnson joined the Dolphins after spending three years (2009-11) at Boston College. He spent his final season as tight ends coach after spending his first two seasons as a graduate assistant.

Johnson played four seasons as a quarterback for North Carolina after walking on to the team in 2004. He graduated from North Carolina in 2008 with a B.S. in mathematics and a B.S. in computer science. Johnson resides in Hollywood with his wife, Jessica, and daughter, Emory.

MARWAN MAALOUF

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: BALDWIN-WALLACE // NFL: 13TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Marwan Maalouf enters his fifth season with the Dolphins after being named assistant special teams coach on Jan. 30, 2013.

Working with Associate Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator Darren Rizzi, Maalouf has helped the Dolphins rank in the top half of Rick Gosselin's annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings each season he has been in Miami.

Gosselin ranked the Dolphins special teams unit No. 7 in the NFL in 2016. The high ranking was due in part because Miami led the league in opponent gross punting as opposing punters tried to keep it away from Jakeem Grant. Grant and Kenyan Drake became the first Dolphins rookie tandem to return a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season since 1981. It's just the fourth time in the NFL since the merger in 1970 that different rookies on the same team took back a punt and a kickoff for touchdowns in the same year. Miami also ranked in the top 10 in opponents' starting field position after a kickoff (10th/24.4 yard line), own starting field position after a kickoff (8th/25.3 yard line), and opponents' net punting average (3rd/37.4 net yards per punt). The Dolphins also tied for the NFL lead with four blocked kicks. Three of those were credited to the field goal block unit, which ranked No. 5 in the NFL in field goal percentage against. Kicker Andrew Franks made the first two game-winning kicks of his NFL career and drilled an even more impressive kick, booting a 55-yard field goal at Buffalo (12/24) to send the game into overtime as the field goal unit rushed onto the field with time running out.

In 2015, Maalouf helped the Dolphins rank No. 15 despite having a rookie punter and kicker. Wide receiver and punt returner Jarvis Landry opened the season with a 69-yard punt return for a touchdown in the Week 1 win at Washington, earning himself AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Rookie punter Matt Darr averaged 47.6 yards per punt, the fourth-best single-season mark in team history and finished third in the NFL in the statistic. Rookie kicker Andrew Franks successfully converted 13 of his 16 field goal attempts and the field goal block unit ranked No. 1 in the NFL in field goal percentage against.

Maalouf assisted with a unit that set a franchise record with three blocked punts in a season in 2014. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the year, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays weren't limited to the block units as rookie Jarvis Landry won AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and was the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, Maalouf assisted with a unit that was rated among the top eight in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. The 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of Brandon Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked No. 2 in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), No. 2 in net average (42.4, which is the eight best in NFL history), tied for No. 3 with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

Maalouf joined the Dolphins after spending the 2012 season as special teams coordinator with the Indianapolis Colts. Under his direction, the Colts special teams significantly improved in 2012, aided in part by returning a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season for the just the sixth time in franchise history and first since 2001. The kick return unit recorded its first touchdown since 2009. The Colts also posted an 11.1-yard average per punt return which ranked as the fourth-highest punt return average in franchise history. Individually, the Colts special teams saw returner Deji Karim return a kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown in the final week of the regular season against the Houston Texans. Karim's return was the longest return in franchise history in 39 years. In 2012, Pat McAfee was among the elite kickoff specialists and punters in the NFL, finishing third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in punting average with a 47.9 per punt average. McAfee, who also handled the kickoff duties for Indianapolis, finished fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL with 43 touchback kicks. McAfee made his mark in the Colts history books as his 2012 season set franchise single-season records for kickoff touchbacks (43), punting average (47.9), net punting average (40.3), 50.0-yard average games (five) and tied the franchise record for punts inside the 20 (26). Rounding out Maalouf's unit in 2012 was kicker Adam Vinatieri. His 53-yard game-winning field goal against the Minnesota Vikings was the longest game-winning field goal Vinatieri has made in his career in the last minute of the fourth quarter or in overtime. Also in 2012, Vinatieri surpassed 100 points scored for the season for the 15th time in his career.

Prior to joining the Colts, Maalouf spent four seasons (2008-11) as the assistant special teams coach for the Baltimore Ravens. In 2010, Maalouf helped rookie kickoff returner David Reed lead the NFL in kickoff return average (29.2) and coached a unit which finished third in the league in opponent average starting position (27.2-yard line). Kicker Billy Cundiff earned his first Pro Bowl invitation after tying an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line).

In 2009, Baltimore ranked No. 2 in the NFL in both kickoff return average (26.3) and opponents' average starting field position (26.9). Maalouf joined the Ravens in 2008 and that season coached punter Sam Koch, who had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second in the league with 34 kicks inside the 20-yard line. Maalouf also helped guide special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo to his third Pro Bowl selection.

Prior to coming to Baltimore, Maalouf spent the 2007 season working for Scouts Inc., writing weekly scouting reports and game reviews for ESPN.com and worked as a volunteer coach for Baldwin-Wallace.

From 2004-06, Maalouf was the special teams quality control coach for the Cleveland Browns. During his final season, he coached Josh Cribbs, who ranked No. 3 in the NFL with 1,545 total return yards. The Browns' punt return average of 10.3 yards also ranked No. 7 in the NFL.

Maalouf spent two seasons (2002-03) as an assistant offensive line coach/graduate assistant at Rutgers following a brief stint at Eastern Michigan as a graduate assistant. He also held positions as an assistant offensive line coach for Fordham (2001) and Baldwin-Wallace College (2000).

Collegiately, Maalouf earned three letters while playing guard for Baldwin-Wallace (1997-1999) and was a two-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference selection. He was Baldwin-Wallace's Outstanding Offensive Lineman and was elected as a team captain his senior season.

Maalouf is a graduate of Strongsville (Ohio) High School, where he lettered in football and track and field. He and his wife, Dana, have a son, Mason. His last name is pronounced mah-LOOF.

DARREN RIZZI

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/ SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: RHODE ISLAND // NFL: NINTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: NINTH SEASON

Darren Rizzi enters his ninth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff. The 2016 season will mark his seventh as special teams coordinator and first as associate head coach after he added those responsibilities on Jan. 19, 2017. He joined the Dolphins as assistant special teams coach in 2009.

In his tenure in Miami, three members of the special teams (long snapper John Denney [two times], punter Brandon Fields and kicker Dan Carpenter) have been named to the Pro Bowl. Rizzi has coached four players to the NFL All-Rookie team in just the past four years. Punter Matt Darr earned All-Rookie honors in 2015, kick returner Jarvis Landry in 2014 and kicker Caleb Sturgis and special-teamer Don Jones in 2013.

Rizzi's units have ranked in the top half of Rick Gosselin's annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings in all six years that Rizzi has served as the Dolphins' special teams coordinator, including a No. 7 ranking in 2016.

Miami led the NFL in opponent gross punting average (41.8 yards per punt) and tied for league lead with four blocked kicks in 2016. Kicker Andrew Franks made the first two game-winning kicks of his career and drilled an important 55-yard field goal at Buffalo (12/24) as the field goal unit was rushing onto the field to tie the game and send it to overtime. The eventual Dolphins win went on to solidify the team's first playoff berth since 2008. Rookie punt returner Jakeem Grant and kickoff returner Kenyan Drake each had touchdown returns, becoming the second Dolphins rookie tandem and fourth NFL rookie duo to return a punt and kickoff for a touchdown in the same season. Michael Thomas tied for the NFL lead in special teams tackles (19) and Mike Hull was third (18). Walt Aikens scored the first 2-point defensive conversion in team history after he returned a blocked PAT for two points vs. Arizona (12/11). The team finished in the top 10 in several additional special teams units including opponents starting field position following a kickoff (10th/24.4 yard line), own starting field position following a kickoff (8th/25.3 yard line) and opponent net punting average (3rd/37.4 yards per punt).

The Dolphins were No. 15 in Gosselin's rankings in 2015. Landry earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his Week 1 performance at Washington where he returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown in the win. Landry was fourth in the league with 356 punt return yards. Darr posted the fourth-best single-season punting average (47.6) in team history and earned NFL All-Rookie team honors as his average ranked third in the league. Franks was 13-for-16 in field goal attempts as a rookie. The Dolphins ranked in the top 10 in five special teams categories.

In 2014, Rizzi guided a special teams unit that set the franchise record with three blocked punts in a season. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the year, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays weren't limited to the block units as Jarvis Landry won AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and was the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, for the third-consecutive season, the Dolphins' special teams under the direction of Rizzi were rated among the top eight units in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. Miami was one of three teams to remain in the top 10 (along with Baltimore and Seattle) in both the 2013 and 2012 rankings. Additionally, from 2011-13, only Miami and Seattle were ranked by the Dallas Morning News in the top 10.

Rizzi's 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), second in net average (42.4, which was eighth-best in NFL history at the time), tied for third with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

The 2012 campaign built off a strong 2011 season for Rizzi and the Dolphins special teams. Gosselin ranked Miami as one of the top five special teams units in the NFL for the second consecutive year, making the Dolphins the only team in the NFL to rank in the top five during both the 2012 and 2011 seasons, following a second place finish in '11.

In 2012, Fields continued to establish himself as one of the most productive punters in NFL history, leading the NFL with a 50.2 average, while moving into first place in team history for highest-career punting average (46.4), highest-career net punting average (38.7) and second place in NFL history for highest-career punting average (46.4). Newcomer Marcus Thigpen became the first player in team history to return a kickoff (96 yards at Buffalo on November 5, 2012) and a punt (72 yards at Houston on September 9, 2012) for touchdowns in the same season. Thigpen also stood alone as the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in kickoff return average (27.4) and punt return average (12.2) in 2012. Additionally, Miami became the first NFL team in the last 20 years to block a field goal, block a punt and recover their own onside kick in the same game when the unit accomplished that feat at the New York Jets on October 28, 2012.

Rizzi led an impressive 2011 season by the Dolphins special teams. The units showed the biggest improvement of any NFL special teams unit in the NFL from 2010 to 2011 according to the annual special teams report compiled by Gosselin. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from their 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011. The 22-place advancement was aided by Carpenter's 13 of 16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards, finishing just behind the special teams units of the San Francisco 49ers.

After Rizzi took over the special teams in Week 5, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punt average, punt and kick return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punt average.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a collegiate head coach, including the 2008 season at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams unit. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years there and the linebackers for his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at Rutgers, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his stint at Rutgers, Rizzi was the head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. Rizzi was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. He coached at New Haven from 1994-97, where he was UNH's defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards (15.2 avg.) and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All-American in 1992. Following his time at Rhode Island, Rizzi was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career.

A native of Hillsdale, New Jersey and a graduate of Bergen (N.J.) Catholic High School in New Jersey, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992. During the spring of 2013, Rizzi was inducted into the Bergen Catholic High School Hall of Fame. A two-sport high school star, he concluded his prep football career with 69 receptions, a school record which stood for 22 years, while also excelling as an All-League outfielder for the baseball team.

He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Alexandra, and three sons, Christian, Casey and Cameron.

TERRELL WILLIAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: EAST CAROLINA // NFL: SIXTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Terrell Williams enters his third season with the Dolphins after being named defensive line coach on Feb. 6, 2015.

In 2016, Williams helped the Dolphins to their most successful season in eight years, winning 10 games and earning their first playoff berth since 2008. Defensive end Cameron Wake returned from an Achilles injury at 34 years old and had one of the most dominant seasons of his eight-year NFL career. Wake finished third in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 11.5 sacks. Miami won nine of its final 11 games and in those 11 contests, Wake was second in the NFL with 10.5 sacks. Since Williams joined the coaching staff in 2015, Wake has forced nine fumbles, the most in the NFL during that span, despite playing just seven games in 2015. Defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh once again ranked in the NFL's top 10 in sacks by a defensive tackle with five and his 72 total tackles (41 solo) were a career high and third among all interior defensive linemen in the league. Both Suh and Wake earned Pro Bowl selections.

In his first season with Miami, Williams helped the defensive line become one of just four NFL teams to have three players with six-plus sacks in 2015 (defensive end Cameron Wake, 7.0; defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, 6.0; defensive end Olivier Vernon, 7.5). Wake posted four sacks in the win at Tennessee (10/18), tied for the fifth-most sacks in a single game in club history. He also helped Wake rank tied for second in the NFL with four forced fumbles in 2015 despite only playing in seven games due to injury. The defensive end totaled seven sacks for the sixth consecutive season and joined Julius Peppers as the only two NFL players to total at least seven sacks in each of the past six seasons.

Williams was also influential in the play of Vernon and Suh. Vernon finished the 2015 campaign with 36 quarterback hits, the third-most in the NFL, and tied for fourth among all players with 18 tackles for loss. Among all defensive tackles, Suh was second with 11.5 tackles for loss. He also was tied for fourth among players at his position with 20 quarterback hits.

Williams joined the Dolphins from the University of Florida, having been named the school's defensive line coach on Jan. 3, 2015. Prior to Florida, Williams spent three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders (2012-14). In 2014, Williams' unit helped the defense rank eighth in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per play (3.97) and finished second in the NFL in stuffs (tackles recorded at or behind the line of scrimmage) with 54. In 2013, the Raiders ranked 13th in the NFL and sixth in the AFC in rushing yards allowed per game (107.9), while limiting three opponents to less than 40 yards on the ground. Additionally that season, the Raiders held opponents to only five rushes of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest allowed in the league.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Williams spent two seasons (2010-11) as defensive line coach at Texas A&M. During his tenure, the Aggies advanced to a pair of bowl games, including a win over Northwestern in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2011. The Aggies led the nation with 51 sacks in 2011 and finished third nationally with an average of eight tackles for loss per game. In 2010, Williams helped lead the Aggies to a share of the program's first Big 12 South crown in more than a decade and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. Texas A&M allowed just 101.9 rushing yards per game, ranking 12th in the nation. In his first season, A&M improved from 90th to 30th nationally in rushing defense, allowing 130.2 yards per contest.

Williams came to A&M after four years (2006-09) as the defensive line coach at Purdue. During his time with the Boilermakers, Williams coached the entire line each year with the exception of 2008, when he focused solely on the defensive end position. During his time at Purdue, Williams tutored future NFL lineman Anthony Spencer, who led the NCAA in tackles for loss and was a first-team All-American before becoming a first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys. He also coached future NFL players Cliff Avril, Alex McGee, Mike Neal, Ryan Kerrigan and Kawann Short.

Prior to his tenure at Purdue, Williams coached the defensive line at Akron from 2004-05. During his time at Akron, the Zips won the Mid-American Conference championship game (2005) and played in the Motor City Bowl, both marking firsts in program history. Williams spent two years (2002-03) as the defensive line coach at Youngstown State and served on the coaching staff at North Carolina A&T from 1999-2001. He helped North Carolina A&T rank third in total defense among NCAA Division I-AA schools in 1999, allowing 259.4 yards per game, and fifth in 2000 with 261.2 yards per game. Williams got his start in coaching working with the defensive line at Fort Scott Community College during the 1998 season.

In 2007, Williams served an internship with the Seattle Seahawks, assisting the defensive line during training camp. During the summer of 1999, Williams interned with the Jacksonville Jaguars, assisting with the defensive line, and with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

A native of Los Angeles, Williams played nose guard at East Carolina and helped the Pirates to a Liberty Bowl victory over Stanford in 1995. He transferred to East Carolina from West Los Angeles College and earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in history. He and his wife, Tifini, have two sons, Tahj and Tyson, who passed away in 2012.

The most recent Dolphins player named Pro Bowl MVP was wide receiver Brandon Marshall, as he caught six passes for 176 yards and a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns as the AFC used a second-half surge to beat the NFC, 59-41, in the 2012 Pro Bowl.

T.D.

HT: 7-0 // WT: ALL MUSSELS // COLLEGE: ATLANTIS '97
ACQUIRED: FA, 1997 // NFL: 21ST SEASON // DOLPHINS: 21ST SEASON

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals and various other functions.

A nine-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. also has performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, traveled overseas to meet American troops abroad and was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a T.D. at your next event, please email CBonk@dolphins.com.

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins take great pride in playing an active role in the South Florida community. By lending support to both civic- and community-based charitable causes, the Dolphins are able to make an impact in the lives of those who need it most. The assistance the Dolphins provide comes from the teamwork of coaches, players, alumni, cheerleaders, T.D. (the Dolphins' mascot) and staff as well as stakeholders working together toward the common goals of helping those in need and supporting the community. Established in 1996 as the fundraising arm of the football franchise, the Miami Dolphins Foundation is committed to making a year-round difference in the South Florida community.

The Dolphins Cancer Challenge is the NFL's single largest fundraiser. The annual event is critical in raising funds for cancer research that stays in South Florida through Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.

Dolphins President & CEO Tom Garfinkel fishing as part of Fins Weekend. The event also includes golf and parties that raise money for education through City Year Miami.

The Dolphins boast the NFL's largest active alumni base that is directly involved in community efforts such as Alumni Weekend, complete with a gala, golf tournament and game halftime honor.

AARP Foundation and the Dolphins have partnered for four years, bringing in more than 4,000 volunteers to pack one million meals each year for those less fortunate.

The Dolphins and the Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE) team with local law enforcement to recognize youth football players, coaches and parents who have demonstrated their commitment to being leaders on and off the field.

Miami Dolphins Youth Programs host nearly 250 girls and a dozen teams for the Girls Flag Football Jamboree. The jamboree features high school girls flag football teams from the South Florida area.

Dolphins players distribute backpacks to 150 students from Title I schools in Broward and Miami-Dade County schools. The students enjoy dinner, receive a Dolphins T-shirt and have a chance to play games alongside Dolphins players.

Dolphins players, alumni, cheerleaders, mascot TD and Miami Dolphins Women's Organization members pair up with Publix to host students to shop for Thanksgiving meals.

The Dolphins have a long tradition of assisting those in need with funds for Thanksgiving meals throughout South Florida. In all, more than 10,000 people benefit from each year's Thanksgiving meals distribution.

The Dolphins host high school and youth football teams during their Organized Team Activities (OTAs) and minicamp practices as part of the team's youth football platform of character building and reinforcing safety standards.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only seven teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Kansas City has had five players win the award, Chicago, Pittsburgh and San Diego have each had four players recognized as the NFL Man of the Year, while Miami, Dallas and Cincinnati both each boast three award winners.

HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium is a global entertainment destination that serves as home to the Miami Dolphins, University of Miami football team, Orange Bowl, Super Bowl LIV and the 100th anniversary of the NFL, College Football Playoff Semifinals, major concerts, international soccer and a host of world-class events.

The multi-purpose, open-air complex is in the midst of a multi-year renovation fine-tuned to enhance the fan experience. On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved by a 7-4 vote a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward Hard Rock Stadium's modernization plan. The agreement gives bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins Owner Stephen Ross being financially responsible for the renovation of Hard Rock Stadium without county assistance. The modernization is being privately funded by Ross at an estimated cost of more than $500 million.

Phase I of the project was completed for the 2015 season and changed every seat in the stadium, rebuilt the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, moved seats 25 feet closer to the field on the north and south sidelines, introduced five new premium spaces and allowed fans to enjoy improved food, enhanced concourses and 16 new restroom facilities throughout the facility. For the 2016 season, Hard Rock Stadium installed a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and protected from the rain and four giant high-definition video boards. Unveiled in 2017 are remodeled, modernized suites throughout the stadium offering a more intimate club space on the 200 level with improved amenities and food.

Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

HISTORY

Now in its 30th year of operation, Hard Rock Stadium was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing $115 million when it was completed in 1987. The late Dolphins owner Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium." The stadium revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a club level, along with executive suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility, which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On Jan. 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100 percent ownership.

On Aug. 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. It became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on Aug. 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on Jan. 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls include Super Bowl XXIX (Jan. 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXXIII (Jan. 31, 1999), Super Bowl XLI (Feb. 4, 2007) and Super Bowl XLIV (Feb. 1, 2010). Hard Rock Stadium has the honor of hosting South Florida's record 11th Super Bowl in 2020, the 100th anniversary of the NFL.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins earned a 6-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers. On Sept. 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at the stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game 1 on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game 7 on Oct. 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in Jan. 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by Huiזengא. In April 2006, two high-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports at that time, were unveiled. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

In 2007, Hard Rock Stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new casual seating and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new club level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities. In 2010, corporate offices were built on the east side of Hard Rock Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's undefeated season in 1972 was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the offices.

In 2008, Huiזengא sold 50 percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Huiזengא remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45 percent of the team and stadium to Ross in Jan. 2009. Ross became managing general partner with 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huiזengא retained a five percent share of both and remained a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announced Dolphin Stadium would be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS," written expressly for the team.

On Jan. 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

On Aug. 17, 2016, the Dolphins and Hard Rock International announced an 18-year agreement to name the newly renovated facility Hard Rock Stadium. As part of the agreement, the iconic lifestyle brand became the official Dolphins' hotel and resort partner, casual dining restaurant partner, hospitality partner and Native American Tribe.

LOCATION

Hard Rock Stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Miami-Dade Broward County Line. The 160-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Hard Rock Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, Hard Rock Stadium is home to University of Miami college football and the Capital One Orange Bowl game. The stadium has hosted five Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, XLI and XLIV), the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl and four BCS National Championship Games (2001, 2005, 2009 and 2013). The facility will host its sixth Super Bowl, when Super Bowl LIV is played at Hard Rock Stadium on Feb. 2, 2020. Hard Rock Stadium's largest attendance came when Alabama defeated Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship game in front of a record crowd of 81,120. Hard Rock Stadium had the distinction of being the first to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the U.S. mainland in 30 years. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003. The building is recognized throughout the industry as one of the busiest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to Hard Rock Stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Hard Rock Stadium has hosted numerous world class international soccer matches, including the International Champions Cup Finals in 2013 and 2014. The facility is the first to host El Clasico Miami, a Relevant Sports' soccer match between Real Madrid and FC Barcelona hosted for the first time in North America. PLAYING SURFACE

Hard Rock Stadium is equipped with Platinum TE Paspalum, which was installed prior to the 2016 season. Platinum TE Paspalum is a scientifically engineered grass that has a higher tolerance for shade than most grasses. Platinum TE Paspalum spreads quickly and forms a dense turf. All of the sod used by the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium goes through a six-month enhancement process of being harvested and installed on plastic to thicken the sod and toughen the turf to meet the standards of the NFL. Hard Rock Stadium also has purchased 13 field grow lights to make up for the loss of direct sun light due to the shade canopy installed over the seating bowl, as well as six large oscillating fans to keep the grass as dry as possible on the surface. The mission is to provide the best playing surface in the NFL and for all international events.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the Orange Bowl home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on Nov. 10, 2007, when it dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on Dec. 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on Jan. 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

BAPTIST HEALTH TRAINING FACILITY AT NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) in Miami. On Aug. 8, 2012, the Dolphins announced a comprehensive marketing and community partnership agreement with Baptist Health South Florida. The partnership includes the naming rights to the team's training facility as well as sports medicine care through Miami Orthopedics & Sports Medicine Institute. As a result of the partnership, the complex became officially known as the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University.

The $10 million state-of-the-art facility covers 393,784.4 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all offseason conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a full size 18-by-40 foot cold plunge pool, whirlpools, a state-of-the-art weight training room and a sports science lab.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, player lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields. The Dolphins also have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of the stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University can accommodate 2,400 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop and restrooms. The Dolphins unveiled several exciting changes for the 2016 training camp to improve the fan experience, including a brand new canopy over the seated area, providing fans with shade and a more comfortable experience than ever before.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected throughout the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphins' positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more bright and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was a further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami set the NFL's single-season sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games. The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

Original Date, Venue	Opp.	New Date, Venue	Reason	Result
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	N.E.	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17

TALOR HAS THREE TOURS OF DUTY WITH DOLPHINS

When future Hall of Fame defensive end Jason Taylor played in the season opener on Sept. 12, 2011 vs. New England, he became the first player in team history to have been a member of the Dolphins' roster three different tours of duty interrupted by stints with other teams (1997-07, 2009, 2011). The last NFL player to appear in a game in three different stints with one franchise was linebacker Jeremiah Trotter, who played for the Philadelphia Eagles for a third time in 2009 after having previously played for them from 1998-2001 and 2004-06.

ALONSO'S PICK-SIX WAS A LATE PICK ME UP

Linebacker Kiko Alonso made the game-winning play in Miami's Week 10 victory at San Diego, picking off Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers and returning it for a 60-yard touchdown to give the Dolphins a 31-24 lead with 1:01 to play. Alonso's touchdown was the latest a Dolphins player had returned an interception for a touchdown to give Miami the lead since at least 1991. It was the latest any NFL player had given his team a lead since Atlanta's Robert Alford had a 59-yard interception return in overtime to defeat Washington on Oct. 11, 2015.

The Dolphins selected two players in the 2017 NFL draft who won national championships – LB Raekwon McMillan won the title as a true freshman at Ohio State in 2014 and CB Cordrea Tankersley won a national championship as a senior at Clemson in 2016.

McMillan and Tankersley joined RB Kenyan Drake, C/G Anthony Steen, C Mike Pouncey and undrafted college free agent S Maurice Smith as players on the Dolphins roster who have won national championships. Smith was also a member of Alabama's 2015 national title team.

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London (three times) and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City. Miami is scheduled to play its fourth regular season game in London on Oct. 1, 2017 vs. the New Orleans Saints.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on Dec. 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto. On Oct. 28, 2007. The Dolphins also battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America. Miami returned to Wembley on Sept. 28, 2014, and earned 38-14 win against Oakland before a crowd of 83,436 and made its third regular season appearance in London when the team fell to the New York Jets, 27-14, at Wembley Stadium on Oct. 4, 2015.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

GAME 1

SEATTLE 12, MIAMI 10
SEPT. 11, 2016

CENTURYLINK FIELD
SEATTLE, WASH.

The Dolphins put up a tremendous effort at what is considered the toughest venue in the NFL, but ultimately left Seattle with a disappointing loss. Seattle converted a make-or-break fourth-down situation and later scored the game-winning touchdown with 31 seconds left to hand the Dolphins a 12-10 loss at CenturyLink Field in Adam Gase's head-coaching debut. Ryan Tannehill scored on a 2-yard quarterback draw with 4:08 left in the fourth quarter to give the Dolphins a 10-6 lead and Miami then had a chance to all but wrap up the victory when Seattle faced a fourth-and-4 from its 47-yard line. The Seahawks converted on a 22-yard completion from Russell Wilson to Doug Baldwin, and those two combined again on the game-winning touchdown, a 2-yard pass on second-and-goal. Earlier in the drive, Seattle converted a fourth-and-1 with a 7-yard run by Christine Michael. Under new Defensive Coordinator Vance Joseph, the Dolphins kept Wilson and the Seattle offense in check most of the game, allowing only a pair of Steven Hauschka field goals before the last-minute touchdown. The Dolphins defense came up with two takeaways — an interception by new safety Isa Abdul-Quddus and a fumble recovery by new linebacker Kiko Alonso. The Dolphins also stopped Seattle on fourth down when Abdul-Quddus broke up a pass in the flat intended for Baldwin. Ultimately, it was missed opportunities that ended up costing the Dolphins. After Arian Foster was stopped for no gain on fourth-and-1 from the Seattle 17 in the first quarter, Tannehill threw a perfect deep pass to Kenny Stills on the Dolphins' next possession after Stills got way behind the Seattle secondary. But Stills dropped the pass, turning an easy touchdown into an incompleteness. Trailing 6-3 in the fourth quarter, the Dolphins had a first-and-goal from the Seattle 5-yard line six plays after Alonso's fumble recovery, but couldn't get into the end zone and Andrew Franks then had his 27-yard attempt blocked. Tannehill's touchdown capped a seven-play, 86-yard drive that featured completions of 16 yards to Stills, 28 yards to Jarvis Landry and 29 yards to Damien Williams.

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 24
SEPT. 18, 2016

GILLETTE STADIUM
FOXBOROUGH, MASS.

The Dolphins almost pulled off a remarkable comeback, but came up short at Gillette Stadium. The New England Patriots scored touchdowns on their first three possessions before quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo left the game with an injury, building a 24-0 lead and held on for a 31-24 victory. Tannehill threw two touchdown passes, to wide receiver Kenny Stills and tight end Jordan Cameron, and rookie Kenyan Drake scored his first NFL touchdown on a 7-yard run as the Dolphins outscored New England 21-7 in the second half. The Dolphins also got a 27-yard field goal from Andrew Franks on the last play of the first half. New England almost put the game away by getting four first downs and setting up for a 39-yard field goal attempt, but Stephen Gostkowski was wide right. The Dolphins had one final chance after getting the ball at their own 29-yard line with 1:04 left but no timeouts. The Dolphins got the ball to the New England 29 thanks to a 20-yard completion from Tannehill to DeVante Parker and a 17-yard scramble by Tannehill, but the comeback attempt ended when Duron Harmon recorded an interception in the end zone on fourth-and-5 on a pass intended for Parker. Before leaving the game with a shoulder injury in the second quarter, Garoppolo threw three touchdown passes, two to wide receiver Danny Amendola and one to tight end Martellus Bennett. The Dolphins committed two turnovers in the first half — one interception and a fumble by wide receiver Jarvis Landry — and also had a drive end when center Anthony Steen snapped the ball before Tannehill was ready on a third-and-6. Running back Jay Ajayi, back in the lineup after being inactive in the opener, lost a fumble on the Dolphins' first drive of the second half and New England followed with a 68-yard touchdown drive to make it 31-3. But the Dolphins began their comeback attempt after that, scoring their touchdowns on drives of 75, 88 and 75 yards.

GAME 3

MIAMI 30, CLEVELAND 24 (OT)
SEPT. 25, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

In a game that featured more than its share of swings and ups and downs, the Dolphins found a way to beat the Cleveland Browns in their home opener. Jay Ajayi scored on an 11-yard touchdown run with 8:26 left in overtime to give the Dolphins a 30-24 victory in the first regular season game at the newly named Hard Rock Stadium. Ajayi's touchdown came right after Ryan Tannehill hit Jarvis Landry with a 32-yard pass down the left sideline. The Browns won the overtime coin toss and made the unusual decision to kick off, giving the Dolphins the chance to win with a touchdown. Instead, the Dolphins went three-and-out. But after a sack by Ndamukong Suh and an offensive holding penalty, Cleveland had to punt the ball back after getting one first down and Landry's 13-yard punt return set up the Dolphins to start their game-winning drive at the Cleveland 44. Cleveland had a chance to win the game on the final play of the game, but Cody Parkey was wide left on a 46-yard attempt — his third miss of the game. That opportunity was set up by a fumble recovery by Browns linebacker Corey Lemonier, who also sacked Tannehill and forced a fumble on that play. It was a fourth consecutive unsuccessful drive for the offense, which looked to have found its groove in the second half when Tannehill threw touchdown passes to Jarvis Landry and Damien Williams on back-to-back possessions to turn a 13-10 deficit into a 24-13 lead. But Cleveland answered with a touchdown run by Terrelle Pryor, a two-point conversion pass from Cody Kessler to Gary Barnidge and a field goal. Tannehill ended with three touchdown passes; he connected with DeVante Parker in the first half.

CINCINNATI 22, MIAMI 7
SEPT. 29, 2016

PAUL BROWN STADIUM
CINCINNATI, OHIO

The Dolphins faced a tough challenge having to travel to Cincinnati on a short week, and it was made tougher by a rash of injuries that hit the team. A big play gave the Dolphins a lead in the first quarter, but the Bengals took control from there and went on to a 22-7 victory at Paul Brown Stadium. The Dolphins faced the Bengals without starters Arian Foster, Branden Albert and Anthony Steen on offense and Jelani Jenkins and Koa Misi on defense. Cornerback Byron Maxwell, who started the first three games, was active but didn't play. After giving up a field goal on the opening drive, the Dolphins took a 7-3 lead on their second offensive snap when Ryan Tannehill connected with Kenny Stills for a 74-yard touchdown, the team's longest pass play since 2012. But the rest of the game was a struggle for the offense. The Dolphins finished with 222 total yards and were only 2-of-11 in third-down conversions. One positive on offense was the running game, with the Dolphins averaging 4.8 yards on 13 rushing attempts. The defense couldn't contain wide receiver A.J. Green, whose 123 receiving yards in the first half were the most for any NFL player so far this season. Green finished with 10 catches for 173 yards and a 7-yard touchdown that gave Cincinnati a 10-7 lead, a lead the Bengals would never relinquish. One highlight on defense was the ability to stop the run. The Dolphins held Cincinnati to 77 yards on 37 attempts, a meager 2.1 average. Even taking away Andy Dalton's four kneel-downs, Cincinnati still averaged only 2.5 yards per rushing attempt. The rest of the scoring came from Bengals kicker Mike Nugent, who kicked five field goals, including a 43-yard kick late in the second quarter that gave the Bengals a 16-7 lead going into halftime. Cornerback Bobby McCain recorded the only sack of the game for the Dolphins when he came in free on a blitz and dropped Dalton for an 11-yard loss.

GAME 5

TENNESSEE 30, MIAMI 17
OCT. 9, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

The Dolphins got a couple of electrifying plays in their return to Hard Rock Stadium, but it wasn't enough to produce a victory against the Tennessee Titans. Marcus Mariota threw three touchdown passes and ran for another score as the Titans beat the Dolphins 30-17. Mariota's touchdown passes went to former University of Miami star Andre Johnson, tight end Delanie Walker and former Dolphins wide receiver Rishard Matthews. Mariota was sacked four times and knocked out of the game last year when the Dolphins beat the Titans 38-10 in Nashville, but he had the upper hand in this one. The Dolphins got touchdowns on a 74-yard punt return by rookie Jakeem Grant and a 4-yard run by Jay Ajayi. The touchdown was the first of Grant's career and the fourth punt return for a touchdown by a rookie in franchise history. Grant, the sixth-round pick from Texas Tech, used his speed to run around two Tennessee players, then avoided two tacklers down the right sideline before racing into the end zone. The other big play for the Dolphins was a 58-yard reception by running back Damien Williams that set up Ajayi's touchdown. Williams made two defenders miss after catching a swing pass to the left, then sprinted down the left sideline for the longest reception by a Dolphins running back since 2009 when Ricky Williams had a 59-yard gain against the New York Jets. Tannehill was sacked six times and intercepted twice. The Dolphins were 4-for-11 in third-down conversions, and had the ball on offense for only 23:16. While Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey made his 2016 debut against the Titans, the Dolphins still had to play without their projected starting offensive line. Billy Turner became the third different starting left tackle for the Dolphins this season, as Branden Albert and Laremy Tunsil both were inactive. Turner started at left guard in the previous game against Cincinnati after Tunsil moved over from left guard to replace Albert. The Dolphins also were without starting linebackers Jelani Jenkins and Koa Misi for a second consecutive week, as well as tight end Jordan Cameron, running back Arian Foster and cornerback Xavien Howard.

GAME 6

MIAMI 30, PITTSBURGH 15
OCT. 16, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

Jay Ajayi put together one of the greatest rushing performances in Dolphins history, and the result was an impressive victory against one of the best teams in the AFC. Ajayi rushed for a career-high 204 yards and two touchdowns, including a game-clinching 62-yard run with 50 seconds left, to lead the Dolphins to a 30-15 victory against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Hard Rock Stadium in the second of four consecutive home games. It was the first 200-yard rushing performance by a Dolphins running back since December 2011 when Reggie Bush did it against the Buffalo Bills. Ryan Tannehill didn't throw a touchdown pass, but had completions of 53 yards to tight end MarQueis Gray and 39 yards to Jarvis Landry. Tannehill also wasn't sacked and played mistake-free football. The defense did its part in the victory, holding quarterback Ben Roethlisberger and wide receiver Antonio Brown in check. Roethlisberger came in having thrown three touchdown passes in each of the previous two weeks, but he was held without one until only 1:02 remained in the fourth quarter. Landry recovered the onside kick after the Steelers cut the Dolphins lead to 23-15 and Ajayi sealed the victory on the next play. Ajayi joined Ricky Williams, Lamar Smith and Bush as Dolphins players with 200-yard rushing performances. The Dolphins intercepted Roethlisberger twice, once by Reshad Jones and the other by fellow safety Isa Abdul-Quddus. The Dolphins opened with its projected starting offensive line — Branden Albert, Laremy Tunsil, Mike Pouncey, Jermon Bushrod and Ja'Wuan James — for the first time all season and it clearly made a difference. The Dolphins controlled every aspect of the game and the only reason the score wasn't more lopsided — besides the late Pittsburgh touchdown — was the inability to produce in the red zone as they had to settle for three short field goals by Andrew Franks, who also had a short attempt blocked. The Dolphins also had a touchdown pass from Tannehill to Dominique Jones nullified by an illegal formation penalty.

GAME 7

MIAMI 28, BUFFALO 25
OCT. 23, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

Jay Ajayi and the Dolphins did it again. Ajayi had a second consecutive tremendous rushing performance and the Dolphins beat the Buffalo Bills 28-25 at Hard Rock Stadium. A week after rushing for 204 yards against Pittsburgh, Ajayi finished with 214 yards as he joined O.J. Simpson, Earl Campbell and former Dolphins running back Ricky Williams as the only players in NFL history with back-to-back 200-yard games. Ajayi reached the 200-yard mark on a 14-yard run in the fourth quarter that came three plays before Damien Williams scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 12-yard run. Williams scored after breaking two tackles at the 4-yard line, getting some help from two offensive linemen who pushed the pile toward the end zone. The Dolphins added to their lead with 2:24 left when Ryan Tannehill connected with Kenny Stills for a 66-yard touchdown pass on a huge third-and-6 play. Buffalo made the score closer with a touchdown and a two-point conversion with 14 seconds left. Ajayi's effort against Buffalo included a 4-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that cut the Dolphins' deficit to 17-14 after a successful two-point conversion on a pass from Tannehill to Jarvis Landry. The Dolphins handled the league's top-ranked rushing offense, holding Buffalo to 67 yards on 22 carries. LeSean McCoy, who started despite being questionable with a hamstring injury, was held to 11 yards on eight attempts before leaving the game. Tyrod Taylor ran for a touchdown and passed for another for Buffalo, which came in riding a four-game winning streak, the team's longest since the 2008 season.

MIAMI 27, N.Y. JETS 23
NOV. 6, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

Kenyan Drake's holding penalty nullified a touchdown in the second quarter, but he more than made up for it later. The rookie third-round pick returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown with 5:15 left in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins to a 27-23 victory against the New York Jets in a thriller at Hard Rock Stadium. The victory gave the Dolphins a 4-4 record as they reached the halfway mark of the season on a three-game winning streak. Drake's touchdown came after the Jets took a 23-20 lead on a touchdown pass from Ryan Fitzpatrick to Jalin Marshall two plays after punter Matt Darr dropped a perfect snap on fourth down. The winning touchdown came on a re-kick after the Jets were penalized for being offside on their original kickoff. After taking the ball at the 4-yard line, Drake found a hole up the middle before shifting to the right and outracing kicker Nick Folk to the end zone. Ndamukong Suh's sack on third down ended the Jets' offensive possession following Drake's touchdown, and the Dolphins were able to kill off the rest of the clock thanks in part to a pass interference penalty on third down and four runs by Jay Ajayi that gained 44 yards. Drake's penalty for an illegal block in the back in the first half nullified a punt return for a touchdown by fellow rookie Jakeem Grant. After back-to-back 200-yard rushing performances against Pittsburgh and Buffalo, Ajayi didn't have nearly as much open field against the No. 1-ranked rushing defense in the NFL. But Ajayi still managed to rush for 111 yards and had a rushing touchdown for a fourth consecutive game. Tight end Dominique Jones scored his first career touchdown in the second quarter on a 1-yard reception to give the Dolphins a lead that lasted until the Jalen Marshall touchdown.

GAME 9

MIAMI 31, SAN DIEGO 24
NOV. 13, 2016

QUALCOMM STADIUM
SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

Linebacker Kiko Alonso came up with the biggest of a series of big defensive plays in the fourth quarter to keep the Dolphins rolling. Alonso returned an interception 60 yards for a touchdown with 1:01 left to give the Dolphins a 31-24 victory at Qualcomm Stadium. The interception came after the Chargers drove to the Miami 42-yard line and appeared in position to set themselves up for a potential game-winning field goal. The touchdown came shortly after Dolphins kicker Andrew Franks made a 27-yard field goal to tie the game at 24. Tony Lippett also had two interceptions in the fourth quarter and Byron Maxwell added another one. Lippett's first pick came in the back of the end zone on a second-and-goal from the Miami 2-yard line. Damien Williams and Kenny Stills, who both are from the San Diego area, combined for the other three Dolphins touchdowns as Miami extended its winning streak to four games. Williams scored on a 2-yard run and an 18-yard reception, and Stills was on the receiving end of a 39-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill as the Dolphins rallied from a 10-0 deficit in a game that featured five lead changes in the second half. The Dolphins fell behind 24-21 after a Philip Rivers touchdown pass to Tyrell Williams for 56 yards, but they answered with a 75-yard drive that featured a 56-yard completion from Tannehill to DeVante Parker. Cameron Wake had another two sacks, giving him six in the past four games. Jay Ajayi came up short in his quest for a fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance but did have some success in the second half. He was held to 16 yards on 11 attempts in the first half before busting loose for runs of 40 and 21 yards in the third quarter.

GAME 10

MIAMI 14, LOS ANGELES 10
NOV. 20, 2016

LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM
LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

On a rainy and overcast day at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Dolphins overcame adversity and pulled off a remarkable late comeback to extend their winning streak to five games. DeVante Parker scored the game-winning touchdown on a 9-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill with 36 seconds left in regulation as the Dolphins beat the Los Angeles Rams 14-10 to move their record to 6-4 on the season. The Dolphins trailed 10-0 with 4:02 left in the fourth quarter before Tannehill threw a 10-yard pass to Jarvis Landry. Landry was met by a couple of Rams defenders at the 3-yard line, but tackle Ja'Wuan James led a group of Dolphins players who pushed the pile into the end zone. The Miami defense then forced a three-and-out and got the ball back at its 25-yard line with 2:11 left with a chance to tie or win the game. The Dolphins got 30 yards on the very first play when Tannehill connected with Kenny Stills for a 15-yard pass and a roughing-the-passer penalty was tacked on to move the ball to the Rams 45. A completion to DeVante Parker moved the ball to the 35-yard line. The next three plays gained 9, 9 and 8 yards before Tannehill threw a strike to Parker in the corner of the end zone to complete the seven-play, 75-yard game-winning drive. The game ended with the Dolphins batting away a Rams Hail Mary from the Dolphins 47-yard line on the last play. Todd Gurley scored the only touchdown for the Rams. The Dolphins started the game without three-time Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey and two-time Pro Bowl left tackle Branden Albert, which put new starters at three different spots along the offensive line. First-year player Anthony Steen made his fourth start of the season at center, veteran Kraig Urbik started at left guard and rookie first-round pick Laremy Tunsil started the game at left tackle in place of Albert. But Tunsil left in the second quarter because of a shoulder injury and did not return. Tannehill came in with a chance to tie his own franchise record with five consecutive games without getting intercepted, but his streak ended in the third quarter when Rams cornerback Maurice Alexander picked him off in the end zone. The interception came on the very next play after Dolphins linebacker Kiko Alonso forced a fumble by tight end Lance Kendricks and recovered the loose ball at the Rams 37-yard line.

GAME 11

MIAMI 31, SAN FRANCISCO 24
NOV. 27, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

The Dolphins weren't able to run over the 32nd-ranked rushing defense in the NFL, but it still didn't stop them from extending their winning streak. Ryan Tannehill threw three touchdown passes, including the first touchdown of rookie Leonte Carroo's career, and the Dolphins defeated the San Francisco 49ers 31-24 at Hard Rock Stadium. Tight end Dion Sims and wide receiver Kenny Stills also had touchdown catches for the Dolphins, and Jay Ajayi scored on a 2-yard run. It was the 10th career game with at least three touchdown passes for Tannehill, who also added 32 rushing yards. Colin Kaepernick threw three touchdown passes for San Francisco, hitting running back Carlos Hyde, tight end Garrett Celek and wide receiver Torrey Smith. The 49ers, who haven't won since beating the Los Angeles Rams 28-0 on opening weekend, kept fighting even after the Dolphins seemingly had pulled away with the touchdown passes to Stills and Carroo that made the score 31-14. San Francisco had a touchdown and a field goal on its next two drives, and the Dolphins didn't clinch the victory until Kaepernick was tackled at the Dolphins 2-yard line on a scramble from the 6-yard line on the final play, after he threw incomplete in the end zone on the previous play. Linebacker Kiko Alonso was the defensive star for the Dolphins with a fumble recovery and an interception. His fumble recovery in the second quarter was among the biggest plays of the game as it stopped a 49ers scoring threat when the game was tied at 7. Cornerback Byron Maxwell forced the fumble by tight end Garrett Celek and Alonso recovered at the Dolphins 16-yard line. It was Alonso's fourth fumble recovery of the season, making him the NFL leader in that category. It also was his third consecutive game with a takeaway, after an interception at San Diego and a fumble recovery at Los Angeles.

GAME 12

BALTIMORE 38, MIAMI 6
DEC. 4, 2016

M&T BANK STADIUM
BALTIMORE, MD.

The Dolphins winning streak ended on a disappointing afternoon in Baltimore. Quarterback Joe Flacco threw four touchdown passes, including three in the first half, and the Ravens handed the Dolphins a 38-6 loss at M&T Bank Stadium, Miami's first loss since Oct. 9. The Dolphins' six-game winning streak was their longest since the 2005 season. DeVante Parker, who didn't practice all week because of a back injury, scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on an 8-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill on the third play of the fourth quarter. The Dolphins unfortunately trailed 24-0 at that time and the score remained 24-6 after Jarvis Landry was tackled short of the goal line after catching Tannehill's pass on the two-point conversion attempt. Five plays later, Flacco threw a 53-yard touchdown pass to Breshad Perriman to make it 31-6. Running back Terrence West, who caught one of Flacco's touchdown passes, scored on a 15-yard run with 5:55 left in the fourth quarter. Tight end Dennis Pitta caught two of Flacco's touchdown passes in the first half, his first two touchdown receptions since late in the 2013 season. The highlights on a rough day for the defense were two turnovers, and cornerback Byron Maxwell was involved in both. He picked off Flacco in the second quarter and forced a Pitta fumble that was recovered by safety Michael Thomas. Thomas returned the fumble to the Baltimore 8-yard line, and Tannehill connected with Parker for the touchdown on first-and-goal on the next play. Along with Parker, offensive linemen Branden Albert and Laremy Tunsil both returned after being sidelined by injuries. The Ravens had 303 yards of offense in the first half, converted 4 of 6 third downs and were 2-for-2 on fourth down. Flacco was 27-for-34 for 258 yards and three touchdowns in the first half.

GAME 13

MIAMI 26, ARIZONA 23
DEC. 11, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

The Dolphins bounced back against the Arizona Cardinals in a game that featured a lot of rain, a lot of turnovers, an injury to starting quarterback Ryan Tannehill and a crazy finish. Andrew Franks kicked a 21-yard field goal on the last play of regulation to give the Dolphins a 26-23 victory at Hard Rock Stadium. The Dolphins improved to 8-5 with their seventh victory in eight games. Tannehill threw three touchdown passes — of 28 yards to wide receiver Kenny Stills, 7 yards to tight end Dion Sims and 3 yards to running back Damien Williams — before leaving the game late in the third quarter. The Dolphins led 21-9 when Tannehill was injured, but Arizona came back with two touchdown passes from Carson Palmer and a two-point conversion, mixed in with a Dolphins return for two points on a blocked extra point return. The Dolphins drove 44 yards to set up Franks' game-winning kick after Jarvis Landry had a 20-yard punt return. The big play in the drive, which began at the Arizona 47-yard line, was a 29-yard completion from Matt Moore to Kenny Stills to the 1. The Dolphins tied a franchise record with three takeaways in the first quarter, which came on interceptions by linebacker Mike Hull and safety Bacarri Rambo and a fumble recovery by linebacker Spencer Paysinger. Defensive end Terrence Fede added a fumble recovery in the second quarter. The Dolphins also got their first points off a conversion attempt when Walt Aikens returned a blocked PAT after Jordan Phillips blocked the kick. Cameron Wake, who had 4.5 sacks the last time the Dolphins faced Arizona, had a sack and a forced fumble in the first half. Hull, making his first NFL start in place of the injured Kiko Alonso, ended Arizona's first drive when Carson Palmer's pass went off the hands of wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald and Hull secured the interception.

GAME 14

MIAMI 34, N.Y. JETS 13
DEC. 17, 2016

METLIFE STADIUM
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.

Quarterback Matt Moore's first start in almost five years was one to remember. Moore, starting for the first time since the 2011 season finale because of Ryan Tannehill's knee injury, threw a career-high four touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 34-13 victory against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium. The victory, the Dolphins' eighth in their past nine games, moved their record to 9-5 and in temporary possession of the second wild-card position for the AFC playoffs. The victory clinched the Dolphins' first winning record since 2008 when they won the AFC East title with an 11-5 record. The Dolphins led 13-10 at halftime, thanks to Moore's first two touchdown passes, before they put the game away with three touchdowns in a span of 4:04 on the third quarter. The first touchdown came when Walt Aikens blocked a Jets punt and returned the loose ball 11 yards. It was the second consecutive week reaching the end zone for Aikens, who returned a blocked PAT for two points against the Arizona Cardinals. Dion Sims caught two 1-yard TD passes from Moore, becoming the first Dolphins tight end with two touchdown receptions in a game since 2013. The other TD passes went to Kenny Stills for 52 yards in the second quarter and to Jarvis Landry for 66 yards in the third quarter. Moore became the fifth quarterback in Dolphins history to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game, as he joined John Stofa, Bob Griese, Dan Marino and Tannehill. The running game didn't produce big numbers, but Jay Ajayi went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season by rushing for 51 yards on 19 carries. Landry went over the 1,000-yard receiving mark in the game, giving the Dolphins a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for the second time in franchise history (it also happened in 2011 with Reggie Bush and Brandon Marshall). The defense contributed to the victory with four takeaways, including the first career interception by defensive end Cameron Wake. Wake also forced a fumble with a sack and the loose ball was recovered by defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh. Cornerback Tony Lippett had two interceptions in the second half, including one on the final play of the game.

GAME 15

MIAMI 34, BUFFALO 31 (OT)
DEC. 24, 2016

NEW ERA FIELD
ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

In a game that featured big play after big play, the Dolphins outlasted the Buffalo Bills to continue their playoff push. Andrew Franks kicked a 27-yard field goal in the final minute of overtime and the Dolphins defeated the Bills 34-31 at New Era Field. The victory improved the Dolphins record to 10-5 and they clinched a playoff berth with a Kansas City victory over Denver the following day. The game-winning kick was set up by a 57-yard run by Jay Ajayi on the fourth possession of overtime. Ajayi ended up with 206 rushing yards, his second 200-yard game against Buffalo during the season. Buffalo had the ball first in overtime and drove to the Dolphins 17-yard line, but two runs lost 10 yards and former Dolphins kicker Dan Carpenter missed a 45-yard field goal attempt. The teams then traded punts before the Dolphins won it. The Dolphins forced overtime when Franks made a 55-yard field goal with 6 seconds left. The kick completed a drive that began with a 39-yard kickoff return by Kenyan Drake and featured a 17-yard completion from Matt Moore to Kenny Stills. Buffalo took a 31-28 lead with 1:20 left in regulation when quarterback Tyrod Taylor threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to former Dolphins tight end Charles Clay. This was a game of big plays by both teams, who combined for 1,083 total yards — the highest total in the NFL in 2016. Moore threw two touchdown passes, including a 56-yard connection with DeVante Parker, and rookie Kenyan Drake had a 45-yard touchdown run. Jay Ajayi (2-yard run) and Kenny Stills (6-yard reception) had the other touchdowns for the Dolphins. Stills' touchdown was set up by a 44-yard catch-and-run by running back Damien Williams.

GAME 16

NEW ENGLAND 35, MIAMI 14
JAN. 1, 2017

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

The Dolphins ended the regular season with a 35-14 loss against the New England Patriots, clinching a date with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Wild Card round the next weekend. The loss gave the Dolphins a final 10-6 record for the regular season and ensured they would have the No. 6 seed in the AFC playoffs. Pittsburgh came into the day already assured of having the No. 3 seed. Matt Moore, making his third start at quarterback in place of injured starter Ryan Tannehill, threw touchdown passes to Jarvis Landry and Kenny Stills to account for the Dolphins scoring. Tom Brady threw three touchdown passes for New England, including a 77-yard hook-up with Julian Edelman in the third quarter after the Dolphins had cut a 20-0 deficit to 20-14. The other touchdown passes went to tight end Martellus Bennett and wide receiver Michael Floyd. LeGarrette Blount scored on a 1-yard run with 5:33 left in regulation. The Dolphins had a chance to cut into the Patriots' 27-14 lead midway through the fourth quarter after getting a first-and-goal at the 6-yard line, but Damien Williams fumbled after making a short reception on second down and linebacker Shea McClellin returned the fumble 69 yards. Blount scored three plays later. The Dolphins fell behind 20-0 but built some momentum late in the first half when Landry scored his fourth touchdown of the season. The score capped a 10-play, 75-yard drive during which Moore was 7-for-7, including an 11-yard completion to Williams on a third-and-4 from the New England 41-yard line. Landry scored with a great second effort after taking a big hit at the 1-yard line. After his momentum was pushed back a couple of yards, Landry fought his way into the end zone. New England had a chance to add to its lead on the final play of the first half, but Stephen Gostkowski was wide right on a 52-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins scored again on the first drive of the second half when they marched 75 yards on 12 plays, the last being Moore's 25-yard touchdown pass to Stills down the middle.

RECORD ROOKIE RETURNERS

During the 2016 season, rookie running back Kenyan Drake scored on a 96-yard kickoff return against the N.Y. Jets and rookie wide receiver Jakeem Grant scored on a 74-yard punt return against the Tennessee Titans. It was the fifth time in Dolphins history that the team had returned a kickoff and punt return for a touchdown in the same season (2012, 1989, 1981 and 1970). It also marked just the second time in Dolphins history and fourth in NFL history (since the merger in 1970) that a team had returned a kickoff and punt for a touchdown in the same season by two different rookies. Tommy Vigorito (punt return) and Fulton Walker (kickoff return) accomplished the feat for the Dolphins in 1981. The others were Philadelphia in 2008 (DeSean Jackson and Quintin Demps) and Buffalo in 1973 (Bill Cahill and Wallace Francis).

2016 PRESEASON GAME SUMMARIES

PRESEASON GAME 1

MIAMI 27, N.Y. GIANTS 10
AUG. 12, 2016

METLIFE STADIUM
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.

The Dolphins scored 17 points in the second quarter off three takeaways and went on to defeat the Giants 27-10 for their first victory in a preseason opener since 2011. Defensive backs Bobby McCain and A.J. Hendy had interceptions, and linebacker Spencer Paysinger recovered a fumble after safety Walt Aikens knocked the ball loose from quarterback Ryan Nassib. After the Dolphins turned McCain's interception into a 49-yard field goal by Andrew Franks, Damien Williams scored on a 5-yard run and Matt Moore hit Matt Hazel with a 51-yard touchdown pass to turn a 10-0 deficit into a 17-10 halftime lead. Rookie kicker Marshall Koehn added a 28-yard field goal in the third quarter before Zac Dysert threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to tight end Thomas Duarte on fourth-and-1 after defensive tackle Deandre Coleman recovered a Giants fumble. The Dolphins offense struggled at the outset as it failed to register a first down in the first five possessions, but things turned around after McCain's interception. The star on offense might well have been rookie wide receiver Jakeem Grant, who had four catches for 68 yards. Grant, who also had a 27-yard punt return, had 56 receiving yards on the Dolphins' field goal drive in the third quarter. The Dolphins had success with their running game in the second half, as Isaiah Pead gained 50 yards on 10 carries and Daniel Thomas had 40 yards, also on 10 rushing attempts. Tannehill and most of the offensive starters played two series. Tannehill completed 2-of-4 passes for 8 yards. One offensive player who got a lot of playing time was first-round pick Laremy Tunsil. He entered the game at left guard in the first quarter and played into the fourth quarter. The Dolphins got the benefit of some good fortune on the go-ahead touchdown, which came on a second-and-23 late in the second quarter. Moore's pass near the right sideline went off the hands of A.J. Cruz, who appeared to be the intended receiver. The ball went right to Hazel, who was running alone behind the Giants secondary after he had gone out of bounds but re-established himself in bounds and he made the catch and waltzed into the end zone. The 17-point second quarter was the highest-scoring quarter for the Dolphins in a preseason game since Aug. 4, 2013 when they scored 17 points in the fourth quarter against the Dallas Cowboys. Hendy's interception also came off a tipped ball, as rookie cornerback Lafayette Pitts got his hands on a deep ball thrown by Nassib. Other highlights on defense included two sacks by Julius Warmlesley, a sack by Chris McCain, a tackle for a loss by Terrence Fede, and good penetration on a couple of plays by defensive tackle Jordan Phillips.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DALLAS 41, MIAMI 14
AUG. 19, 2016

AT&T STADIUM
ARLINGTON, TEXAS

The Dolphins' first-team offense got extended action against the Dallas Cowboys and showed positive signs in the second preseason game of the 2016 season. Ryan Tannehill and Kenny Stills connected on two touchdown passes in the second quarter, providing the Miami highlights in a 41-14 loss at AT&T Stadium. After failing to gain a first down in two drives in the preseason opener against the New York Giants, the first-team offense went three-and-out on its first possession before Tannehill hit Stills with a 55-yard pass on the first play of the next series. That drive ended with the Dolphins stopped on fourth down after they had a first-and-goal from the 4-yard line, but Tannehill got the offense going after that. The Dolphins first had a 75-yard drive that featured a key third-down completion to DeVante Parker, a couple of roughing the passer penalties against the Cowboys and a 13-yard touchdown from Stills. The Dolphins had another 75-yard drive the next time they had the ball and the drive culminated in a 4-yard pass to Stills on third-and-goal, three plays after Tannehill threw a 22-yard pass to running back Isaiah Pead. That last drive came after the offensive starters asked Head Coach Adam Gase to leave them in the game. Tannehill finished the game 12-for-20 for 162 yards and the two touchdowns, and he also gained 16 yards on two rushing attempts. The two runs came on consecutive plays and both were called. Along with Parker, running back Arian Foster made his preseason debut after being kept out of the game against the Giants. Rookie first-round pick Laremy Tunsil and veteran Jermon Bushrod started at guard against the Cowboys after Dallas Thomas and Billy Turner got the call against the Giants. The defense also had a lot of new faces against Dallas, as Ndamukong Suh, Mario Williams, Reshad Jones, Jason Jones and Byron Maxwell all played after sitting out the preseason opener.

PRESEASON GAME 3

MIAMI 17, ATLANTA 6
AUG. 25, 2016

CAMPING WORLD STADIUM
ORLANDO, FLA.

Defensive end Cameron Wake wasted little time making his presence felt Thursday in his first game action since his Achilles injury of last October. Running back Arian Foster, also coming back from an Achilles injury, also made a big impact when the Dolphins beat the Atlanta Falcons at Camping World Stadium. The Dolphins' 17-6 victory gave them a 2-1 record heading into the preseason finale against the Tennessee Titans on Sept. 1 at Hard Rock Stadium. Wake played mostly in pass-rushing situations in his limited action against Atlanta, first entering the game on a third-and-7 on Atlanta's first drive of the game. Wake got pressure on quarterback Matt Ryan to force an incomplection. Foster had five rushing attempts for 10 yards and two receptions for 20 yards, and was the major player in the Dolphins' only touchdown drive of the first half. Foster turned a short reception into a 16-yard gain after he stiff-armed Falcons first-round pick Keanu Neal, a safety, in the open field. Foster later converted a fourth-and-3 from the Atlanta 5-yard line with a 4-yard reception before scoring on a 2-yard run thanks to some nice blocking from left tackle Branden Albert and rookie first-round pick Laremy Tunsil, who made his second consecutive start at left guard. Ryan Tannehill and the first-team offense played the entire first half. Tannehill completed 22-of-29 passes for 155 yards with no touchdowns and one interception, which came off a deflection at the line of scrimmage. The Dolphins ended the first half with 199 total yards. Damien Williams scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, six plays after safety Michael Thomas forced and recovered an Atlanta fumble. Marshall Koehn kicked a 45-yard field goal after a touchdown pass from Zac Dysert to tight end Dominique Jones was nullified by an offensive pass interference penalty. Kenny Stills and Jarvis Landry each had four receptions in the first half. Reshad Jones and Michael Thomas both came up with turnovers, while defensive tackle Julius Warmesley recorded his third sack of the preseason. Defensive end Cedric Reed had a sack late in the fourth quarter. The defense held Atlanta to a meager 116 total yards in the first half and only 1 of 6 on third-down conversions. It was a major improvement from six days earlier when the Dolphins gave up 300 total yards in the first half of the 41-14 loss at Dallas.

PRESEASON GAME 4

TENNESSEE 21, MIAMI 10
SEPT. 1, 2016

HARD ROCK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

The Dolphins unveiled their renovated stadium, but the preseason finale against the Tennessee Titans wasn't one to remember. The Dolphins fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter and went on to lose 21-10 in the first game at the newly named Hard Rock Stadium. The Dolphins closed out the preseason with a 2-2 record. The Dolphins kept out all but five of the players listed on the first team on their depth chart, as well as rookie first-round pick Laremy Tunsil. The five first-team players who saw action against Tennessee were guards Billy Turner and Dallas Thomas, running back Jay Ajayi, cornerback Tony Lippett and safety Isa Abdul-Quddus. Rookie draft picks Kenyan Drake and Xavien Howard both made their preseason debut, with Drake returning the opening kickoff 22 yards. Drake had a 33-yard reception out of the backfield in the third quarter that set up a 39-yard field goal by Andrew Franks. Howard started at left cornerback for the Dolphins and was credited with three tackles. All of them came on consecutive plays in the second quarter. The Dolphins' only touchdown came on a 1-yard run by Daniel Thomas, who also forced a fumble with a big hit on special teams. Zac Dysert and rookie seventh-round pick Brandon Doughty split the quarterback duties, with Dysert playing in the first half and Doughty in the second. Dysert completed 10-of-16 passes for 85 yards with one interception. Doughty was 8-of-12 for 98 yards. Doughty made some nice throws, but regretted taking an 11-yard sack on a third-and-11 from the Tennessee 33-yard line early in the fourth quarter. Cornerbacks Tony Lippett and Bobby McCain each recorded an interception, giving the Dolphins a total of five in the preseason. McCain's interception was followed by a 22-yard completion from Dysert to tight end MarQueis Gray and Thomas' touchdown. It was McCain's second interception of the preseason. Defensive end Cleyon Laing had a sack and a tackle for loss on a running play.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium has not only been host to championship sporting events, the venue has also served as a backdrop to some of the most popular films of the past 30 years. Those motion pictures shot at the stadium include Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, which starred Jim Carrey and Courteney Cox and featured Dolphins great Dan Marino as himself; Marley and Me, starring Owen Wilson and Jennifer Aniston; the Oliver Stone-directed Any Given Sunday starring Al Pacino, Jamie Foxx and Dennis Quaid, and Rock of Ages, in which the scene filmed at the stadium included actors Tom Cruise, Julianna Hough, Russell Brand and Alec Baldwin.

Hard Rock Stadium served as a backdrop to an episode of the television show Seinfeld titled The Label Maker in which Jerry and Newman attend Super Bowl XXIX. Additionally, parts of the opening of the HBO television series Arliss were shot on the field during a Dolphins game. Hard Rock Stadium also played a role in episodes of television shows Man Caves, with former NFL defensive tackle Tony Siragusa and Designing Spaces, the Big Game Bubba Burgers edition.

Commercials for products such as Pepsi, Bud Light, Omega Watches, Just for Men, Margaritaville products, Gatorade, Papa Johns and Equinox, were also filmed at the stadium.

DOLPHINS FATHER-SON COMBINATIONS

There have been three father-son coaching tandems in Dolphins history. Most recently, Jeremiah Washburn coached with his father, Jim Washburn, on the 2016 staff. Earlier, both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don.

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-10) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantroy (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs)
December 25, 1971

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
Kansas City, Mo.

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, La.

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the touchdown.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

DOLPHINS 14, REDSKINS 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, Calif.

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16
December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, Texas

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 28, DOLPHINS 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

OILERS 17, DOLPHINS 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT)
January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

DOLPHINS 28, PATRIOTS 13
January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

DOLPHINS 34, CHARGERS 13
January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average – while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 14, JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

REDSKINS 27, DOLPHINS 17
January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, Calif.

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 45, STEELERS 28

January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl

Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, Calif.

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11.

Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino’s 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson’s two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana’s six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins’ deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching’s 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig’s 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21
January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14
January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla.

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16
January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on Dec. 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphins 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34
January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, N.Y.

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0
January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

Miami comeback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Fla.

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21
January 8, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, Calif.

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the game as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, N.Y.

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set an NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3
December 28, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, Mass.

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their

17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17
January 2, 1999

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, Fla.

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

BRONCOS 38, DOLPHINS 3
January 9, 1999

Mile High Stadium
Denver, Colo.

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17
January 9, 2000

Kingdome
Seattle, Wash.

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde

Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7
January 15, 2000

ALLTEL Stadium
Jacksonville, Fla.

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovan Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT)
December 30, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, Fla.

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the first round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2001 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3
January 13, 2002

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, Fla.

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grbac hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

2016 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

STEELERS 30, DOLPHINS 12
January 8, 2017

Heinz Field
Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Dolphins' magical 2016 season came to a disappointing end. The Dolphins quickly fell behind 14-0 and could never recover in a 30-12 loss against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a first-round playoff game at Heinz Field. Antonio Brown and Le'Veon Bell each scored two touchdowns for the Steelers, who racked up 219 yards of offense in the first quarter alone. Brown ended Pittsburgh's first two possessions with touchdown catches of 50 and 69 yards. Bell set a Steelers postseason record with 169 rushing yards. Damien Williams scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on a 4-yard reception with 5:57 left in regulation. Andrew Franks kicked two first-half field goals. The Dolphins committed turnovers on three consecutive possessions, spanning the second and third quarters, the last of which led to Bell's second touchdown after cornerback Tony Lippett tried to time a jump over the center to block a field goal attempt but instead was offside to give Pittsburgh a first down. Matt Moore, making his fourth consecutive start in place of an injured Ryan Tannehill, completed 29 of 36 passes for 289 yards and one touchdown, but he lost two fumbles and threw an interception. Moore also was sacked five times after being sacked only once in his three starts in the regular season. He left the game for one play in the second quarter after taking a big hit from linebacker Bud Dupree that drew a roughing-the-passer penalty but returned to finish the game. After burning the Steelers for 204 rushing yards in the Dolphins' 30-15 victory at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 16, Jay Ajayi was held to only 33 yards on 16 rushing attempts Sunday before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the fourth quarter.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

HEAD COACH

INDUCTED: 1997 // BORN: 1/4/30 // COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57 // ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
HEAD COACH: 1963-95 // DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DAVID AND MIKE SHULA

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on Jan. 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 22 years, Shula has served as Vice Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on Jan. 5, 1996. This year marks his 48th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On Nov. 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He is one of only two coaches (along with New England's Bill Belichick) to appear in six or more Super Bowls, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least 10 games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than 10 wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on Feb. 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day. Shula is one of three individuals (along with Al Davis and Edward DeBartolo) to present five or more inductees into the Hall.

Shula was further honored on Jan. 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year Award" – which honors high school football coaches that display the integrity, achievement and leadership that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career. The Don Shula Award winner is recognized at the Super Bowl and receives $10,000 and his high school football program is awarded $15,000.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The 10-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Hard Rock Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP. At age 82, Shula started a hamburger chain, "Shula Burger," and has opened 10 stores in the past four years under that umbrella with five more planned in Miami.

Shula's oldest son, David, 58, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played David Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. David currently is the National Brand Ambassador for Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc. His son, Chris, is an assistant linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Rams, becoming a third-generation Shula to coach in the NFL, following his father and grandfather.

Shula's other son, Mike, 52, currently is in his fifth season as offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers after serving the previous two years as the team's quarterbacks coach. He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the QB coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, who is president and CEO of Shula Steak Houses, LLLP, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on Oct. 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on Nov. 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On Dec. 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on Dec. 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sept. 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curly Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

85 // LB NICK BUONICONTI

INDUCTED: 2001 // BORN: 1/15/40 // COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME '62
NFL: 1962-76 // DOLPHINS: 1969-76
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: MARC BUONICONTI

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins, the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

Until Jason Taylor was elected in 2017, Buoniconti was the only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame. He joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79 // DOLPHINS: 1968-74, 1979
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 avg.) and 53 touchdowns. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards (4.4 avg.) and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 avg.) and 64 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, he ranked No. 5 in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on Dec. 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

BOB

INDUCTED: 1990 // BORN: 2/3/45 // COLLEGE: PURDUE '67
NFL: 1967-80 // DOLPHINS: 1967-80
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

He was unquestionably the “thinking man’s quarterback.” Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphins offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL’s exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team’s annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins’ Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins’ Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. On June 16, 2015, a street next to Griese’s high school stadium in Evansville, Indiana, was re-named “Bob Griese Pass” in his honor. And in 2015, he was voted as one of the Dolphins’ all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise’s 50th season celebration.

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. “Cornerstone of the franchise,” Dolphins founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team’s Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

“He’s probably the most unselfish guy I’ve ever been around,” Shula said. “He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That’s just his makeup.”

INDUCTED: 1987 // BORN: 5/16/48 // COLLEGE: SOUTH DAKOTA STATE '70
NFL: 1970-81 // DOLPHINS: 1970-79
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request, Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

INDUCTED: 1993 // BORN: 11/2/45 // COLLEGE: BETHUNE COOKMAN '67
NFL: 1969-80 // DOLPHINS: 1969-80
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

A rumbling giant in the Dolphins' trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On Dec. 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium and was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. He was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

DWIGHT
STEPHENSON

INDUCTED: 1998 // BORN: 11/20/57 // COLLEGE: ALABAMA '80
NFL: 1980-87 // DOLPHINS: 1980-87
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the “best at his position ever” in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on Dec. 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson’s greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an assistant offensive line coach on Don Shula’s Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called “the greatest center I have ever coached” by the late Paul “Bear” Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Dec. 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

 PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: GENE SLAUGHTER

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns (1964-69 and 1976-77) around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns, Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 avg.) and 33 touchdowns. When he left Miami following the 1974 season, Warfield ranked first on the team's career receiving yards and receiving touchdowns lists, while he was third on the Dolphins all-time record list for receptions. His 21.5 average per reception is still the highest in Miami history. His career receiving totals in the NFL are 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 avg.) and 85 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 1977 season, Warfield's career catches were tied for the 17th most in NFL history, his career receiving yards were the sixth-most and his 85 touchdown catches were tied for the third-highest total in the league's history. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

NFL CAREER: 1987-2002

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DURON CARTER

YEAR INDUCTED: 2013

DOLPHINS: 2002

A fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1987 Supplemental Draft, Cris Carter developed into one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons as a member of the Eagles (1987-1989) and then played with the Minnesota Vikings for 12 years (1990-2001), where he helped rewrite the team's record book.

Carter finished his NFL career as a member of the Miami Dolphins, coming out of retirement to sign with Miami as a free agent on Oct. 21, 2002. He remained on the team's roster until the conclusion of the season, playing in five games with the Dolphins, including one start, and recorded eight catches for 66 yards (8.3 avg.) and one touchdown. He also was inactive for four games during that span due to a kidney injury.

Carter's career regular season totals include 1,101 receptions for 13,899 yards (12.6 avg.) and 130 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, Carter ranked No. 2 in NFL history in receptions and receiving touchdowns (behind Jerry Rice) and was fourth in reception yardage. During his tenure in Minnesota, he led the Vikings in receptions for 10 straight years, recorded eight straight 1,000-yard seasons and also earned eight consecutive Pro Bowl berths. In 1994, Carter set a then-NFL record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 122 passes for 1,256 yards (10.3 avg.) and scored seven touchdowns. A year later in 1995 he registered his second straight 122-catch season and amassed a career-high 1,371 yards (11.2 avg.) and 17 touchdowns. His two-year total of 244 catches was the most in NFL history. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

An Ohio native, he played collegiately at Ohio State.

BILL PARCELLS

COACH/EXECUTIVE

NFL CAREER: 1983-90, 1993-99, 2003-06, 2008-10

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: GEORGE MARTIN

YEAR INDUCTED: 2013

DOLPHINS: 2008-10

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East title and a playoff berth. The team's 10-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

JUNIOR SEAU

LINEBACKER

NFL CAREER: 1990-2009

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: SYDNEY SEAU

YEAR INDUCTED: 2015

DOLPHINS: 2003-05

Junior Seau played three years (2003-05) as a linebacker for the Dolphins, but is best known as a perennial Pro Bowl performer for 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers and also spent his last four years in the NFL as a member of the New England Patriots. During his 20-year career, he recorded 56.5 sacks along with 18 interceptions and was known for his leadership and his passionate style of play.

Seau was acquired by the Dolphins on April 16, 2003 from the Chargers in exchange for a 2004 fifth-round draft choice. During his tenure in Miami, Seau teamed with Jason Taylor,

Zach Thomas and others to form the nucleus of one of the strongest defensive units in the NFL. In 2003, his first season with the Dolphins, he started 15 games and finished second on the team with 133 tackles, the ninth time in his career he recorded 100 or more tackles in a season. He also added three sacks. He proved to be a key addition to a defense that allowed only 90.8 yards rushing per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Dolphins became the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher. In 2004 he started the first eight games of the season, recording 68 tackles and a sack before being placed on injured reserve with a torn right pectoral muscle he injured on Nov. 1 at the New York Jets. At the time of the injury he was averaging eight tackles a game and ranked second on the team in tackles. Limited by injuries in 2005, Seau only played in seven games with the Dolphins (including five starts) and had 43 tackles and one sack before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24 with an Achilles tendon injury. He was released by Miami on March 6, 2006. In two of his three years with the Dolphins (2003-04) his teammates voted him the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

During his 13 years in San Diego (1990-2002), Seau was voted to 12 consecutive Pro Bowls, becoming just the fourth player since 1970 to be selected 10 or more straight times to the Pro Bowl. He recorded 100 or more tackles in eight of his seasons in San Diego and was selected the Chargers' Most Valuable Player six times. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by UPI and also was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1990s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 1994 he led the Chargers to a berth in Super Bowl XXIX, the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance, and in the AFC Championship Game that season against the Pittsburgh Steelers he recorded 16 tackles despite playing with a pinched nerve in his neck. That same year he was named the NFL Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts, and he was a constant and active contributor to his community throughout his career.

Following his tenure in Miami, Seau spent his final four seasons (2006-09) in the league with the New England Patriots. In 2007, he recorded 74 tackles and 3.5 while playing in all 16 games for Patriots' AFC Championship team that went undefeated in the regular season before losing to the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII. Seau retired following his final season with the Patriots in 2009, and he died on May 2, 2012 in San Diego at the age of 43. He was elected to the Hall of Fame on Jan. 31, 2015 in his first year of eligibility.

A native of San Diego, Seau played collegiately at the University of Southern California (USC).

MIAMI DOLPHINS CONTENT

In April 2016, the Miami Dolphins launched a new content strategy, shifting to a social-first approach that delivers engaging content to fans on Dolphins.com, the Dolphins mobile app, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Snapchat and YouTube. Ten platforms were curated entirely in house through the Dolphins' creative agency that originates and produces all original content. These platforms feature behind-the-scenes stories, rich video content, weekly chats, podcasts and film breakdowns through the team's extensive video library. The approach continues the organization's strategy to deliver compelling content to fans in ways in which they like to consume it as well as giving the fans a voice through interactive access.

Fans across the globe are able to consume Dolphins information through a wide variety of programming including:

- “Dolphins Daily” is a one-of-a-kind daily video series highlighting the top Dolphins news and events of the day. It’s posted year-round Monday through Friday and distributed cross-platform on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Dolphins.com and the Dolphins mobile app.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

DOLPHINS RADIO NETWORK

On May 19, 2016, the Miami Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM, with the station becoming the official English flagship radio partner of the franchise. In addition, all Dolphins games are simulcast on KISS 99.9 FM "South Florida's NEW Country" and feature expanded pre-, halftime and postgame shows. The games also can be heard on Dolphins.com and throughout South and Central Florida on a variety of stations that make up the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

The Dolphins previously had their games broadcast on Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM during the 1997-2004 and 2007-09 seasons.

Bob Griese, Joe Rose and Jimmy Cefalo

As part of the agreement, Sportsradio 560 WQAM has the English radio broadcast rights for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Dolphins fans who tune into Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM have the opportunity to listen to live broadcasts of Head Coach Adam Gase's day-after-game press conferences and "Dolphins Friday," a day of Dolphins-centric content on the station featuring interviews with players, coaches and team executives. Additionally, CBS Radio Miami promotes Miami Dolphins Foundation and community initiatives across multiple platforms.

The preseason English radio broadcast team on Sportsradio 560 WQAM consists of three Dolphins alumni in the booth. Former wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo handles the play-by-play duties with former tight end Joe Rose and former Pro Bowl defensive end Jason Taylor providing the game analysis. During the regular season, Cefalo and Rose are joined by former Hall of Fame quarterback Bob Griese serving as an analyst with former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker/defensive end Kim Bokamper reporting from the sidelines.

Eduardo Martell and Raul Striker Jr.

Univision Deportes Radio 1140 AM is the Dolphins official Spanish radio broadcast partner for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Raul Striker Jr. handles play-by-play duties with Eduardo Martell as a color analyst. WQBA 1140 AM additionally airs a pregame show and postgame show.
