DEDICATION

The 2020 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of former Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula, Hall of Fame linebacker Nick Buoniconti and Hall of Fame center Jim Langer, running backs Jim Kiick and Benny Malone, player personnel members Bill Davis and Elbert Dubenion and radio broadcaster Henry Barrow, each of whom passed away during the past year.

Barrow (June 6, 1936-Feb. 26, 2020), a South Florida native who attended both Coral Gables High and the University of Miami, was a member of the Dolphins radio broadcast team for 20 seasons (1966-85), including the team's inaugural AFL season in 1966. Originally serving as a color commentator, Barrow moved from the booth to the field in 1971 becoming one of the NFL's first sideline reporters. He was a member of the broadcast team for all five of Miami's Super Bowl broadcasts including Super Bowl VII, which capped off the only Perfect Season in NFL history.

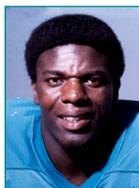

Davis (July 21, 1938 – Jan. 18, 2020) served as director of pro personnel with the Dolphins from 1979-81, where he negotiated all player contracts and evaluated NFL talent. During his first season with the club, the Dolphins won their first division title in five years with a 10-6 record. Prior to that season, Davis helped re-sign former Dolphins great Larry Csonka, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. He entered the NFL ranks with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1976 as the team's tight ends coach, which began a 14-year tenure in the league in coaching and personnel with the Eagles (1976-78 and 1986-90), Dolphins (1979-81) and Cleveland Browns (1981-86).

Dubenion (Feb. 16, 1933 – Dec. 26, 2019) served in the Dolphins scouting departing from 1979-84, first as an area scout (1979-83), before being promoted to assistant director of player personnel in 1984. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Dubenion held scouting positions with the Buffalo Bills from 1968-78. As a player, he was an original member of the Bills in 1960, staying with them until his retirement midway through the 1968 season. Dubenion retired holding Buffalo's receiving records for most receptions (296), receiving yards (5,304) and touchdown receptions (35).

Kiick (Aug. 9, 1946 - June 20, 2020) ranks in fifth in team history with 3,644 rushing yards and 15th in career receptions 221 catches. Kiick, who was a member of the Dolphins from 1968-74, was named to the team's 50th season all-time team. Selected by the Dolphins in the fifth-round (118th overall) of the 1968 draft, he led Miami in rushing in 1968 (621 yards) and 1969 (575 yards) and was selected for the AFL All-Star game both years. In all, Kiick played in three Super Bowls, scoring touchdowns in both of Miami's Super Bowl wins, and teamed with Hall of Fame fullback Larry Csonka to form a duo known as "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid." He also co-wrote a book, "Always on the Run" in 1973.

Malone (Feb. 3, 1952 – March 19, 2020) played running back with the Dolphins from 1974-77 plus the first 6 games of the 1978 season before he was traded to Washington. He originally joined the Dolphins in 1974 as the team's second-round (47th overall) draft choice. Malone currently ranks 12th in team history with 2,129 rushing yards, which he gained on 503 carries while adding 16 rushing touchdowns. The Dolphins leading rusher during the 1976 and '77 seasons, Malone is one of only three running backs in team history to record three or more streaks of consecutive 100-yard rushing games. Malone played the final two seasons of his NFL career for Washington during the 1978 and '79 seasons.

STEPHEN ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: 13TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 13TH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of international real estate firm, Related Companies, first invested in the Miami Dolphins in February 2008, and in 2009, assumed the responsibilities of managing general partner of both the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium. The role is the culmination of one of his long-held dreams -- Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. His $730 million investment in Hard Rock Stadium and its surrounding properties has transformed the iconic venue into a global entertainment destination that showcases the best Miami has to offer. From world-class fare to arts, culture and luxury hospitality, Hard Rock Stadium now delivers an elevated guest experience that is unparalleled in professional sports. As a result of the privately-funded renovation, Hard Rock Stadium attracted and secured Super Bowl LIV – which coincided with the 100th season of the NFL – the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship, major concerts, international soccer matches and a host of world-class events. On the football side, Ross has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to provide coaches, support staff and players the necessary resources to build a winning team that will compete consistently for championships. He has invested in improving the team's current practice facility and has committed significant resources in a new state-of-the-art training complex that broke ground in 2019. In 2019, Hard Rock Stadium committed to phase out 99.4% of fan facing single-use plastics in the food and beverage operation. This eliminated more than 2.8 million plastic items including cups, bottles, cutlery, stirrers and spoons and all plastic disposable packaging that accompanies these items.

Ross, as a sports entrepreneur, is known for his attention to detail and thinking outside the box. He is responsible for orchestrating El Clásico Miami – the first-ever match between archrivals FC Barcelona and Real Madrid C.F. in North America – which stands as the highest revenue grossing soccer match in U.S. history. When the Miami Open tennis tournament began to explore leaving its long-time home in Key Biscayne, Florida, Ross stepped in to propose hosting the tournament at Hard Rock Stadium, building a custom tennis complex that is now considered one of the best in professional tennis in terms of guest experience and player amenities. His appreciation of the aspirational culture of South Florida and its burgeoning arts scene led to the #ArtUnexpected partnership with Goldman Global Arts to transform the facility into a vibrant, monumental public art experience.

Ross is deeply committed to supporting and uniting the community that supports the Dolphins, offering tremendous support in the areas of education, health and youth football. Under his stewardship, the Dolphins have raised more than $32.5 million for local cancer research through the Dolphins Cancer Challenge. In addition, Ross has been a major proponent of growing the game of football through the Junior Dolphins program. In 2019 alone, the program impacted more than 40,000 South Floridians with the goal of educating coaches, parents and youth on the health and safety of football with a strong emphasis on character development. In August 2019, Ross was inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame. The prestigious award recognizes the country's most influential individuals who have ascended to the highest levels of success and exhibited the critical leadership qualities that transcend ordinary enterprises. In June 2020, Ross and the Miami Dolphins Foundation announced a year-long Food Relief Program with a $2 million investment that will raise an additional $1 million by matching all dollars raised by the South Florida community and Dolphins fans worldwide for a potential $4 million total impact. The initiative provides a minimum of 1,000 meals prepared by Centerplate, the team's food, beverage and retail partner, each weekday out of Hard Rock Stadium to families in need in Miami Gardens. On the weekends, the Dolphins work with area churches, local leadership, and community groups to purchase food from local restaurants to provide up to 1,000 meals to those dealing with food insecurity. The program generates jobs and revenue for the local restaurant industry, while employing guest services and security staff at the stadium that have been idled as a result of COVID-19-related event cancellations.

Furthermore, Ross has used his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE). The organization's efforts have been so impactful that RISE was recognized in 2017 by ESPN's Humanitarian Awards with the Stuart Scott ENSPIRE Award. The award celebrates those who have taken risk and used an innovative approach to help the disadvantaged through the power of sports. Ross' efforts through RISE were honored as they personify the ethos of fairness, ethics, respect and fellowship with others. This also connects to Ross' vision of the Dolphins' FOOTBALL UNITES™ program as a way to effectuate positive social change. Under his leadership, the Dolphins organization actively embraces the diversity and intersections that make up South Florida, uniting groups of different races, genders, sexual orientations, identities, abilities and faiths around the power of football. In February 2020, the Miami Dolphins were honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul J. Tagliabue Award for their leadership in advancing diversity.

In May 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER
COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
DOLPHINS: 21ST SEASON

Chris Grier enters his 21st season with the Miami Dolphins and fifth as the club's general manager. Grier was appointed general manager on Jan. 4, 2016 after spending the previous nine years as the team's director of college scouting. As of Dec. 31, 2018, he oversees all football operations. Prior to that, Grier oversaw the draft, both college and pro personnel departments and all scouting efforts.

Grier hired Head Coach Brian Flores in February 2019 and, along with Flores, immediately implemented new philosophies to building a championship-caliber team. Utilizing a value-based approach, the Dolphins rebuilt the roster with young players who were tough, disciplined and versatile. Grier also worked to accumulate future draft capital, which resulted in the Dolphins entering the 2020 NFL draft with 14 picks, including three in the first round and two in the second. The Dolphins also have two first-round picks and two second-round picks in 2021.

Despite all the turnover and the youngest roster in the NFL, the Dolphins steadily improved in 2019, winning five of their final nine games. First-round pick Christian Wilkins led all rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles, the fifth-most by an NFL rookie defensive lineman since 2015.

Grier and his staff also uncovered several undrafted free agents in 2019. Wide receiver Preston Williams was tied for the NFL lead among rookies with 32 receptions at the time he suffered a season-ending injury. Cornerback Nik Needham had 11 passes defended, the second-most among all rookies that season. Running Back Patrick Laird finished the season with 204 receiving yards, second among NFL rookie running backs.

The 2018 draft saw Grier and his personnel department net several key contributors. Linebacker Jerome Baker was a third-round pick and finished his rookie season tied for 11th among NFL rookies in tackles (76). Baker quickly took on a leadership role and was elected a team captain in 2019, just his second season in the league. Kicker Jason Sanders, who was drafted in the seventh round, converted 18-of-20 field goal attempts (90.0 pct.) in 2018 for the fifth-best single-season field goal percentage in team history.

In 2017, the Dolphins finished the season with 10 rookies on the active roster and four more on injured reserve or non-football illness lists. Miami was one of just three teams to play eight rookies on defense and one of just six to have at least four rookies start games on defense. Six undrafted rookie free agents contributed to the team that season. Defensive tackle Davon Godchaux finished his rookie campaign fourth among all NFL defensive linemen with 40 tackles (26 solo), despite being a fifth-round pick.

In his first draft as general manager in 2016, Grier selected cornerback Xavier Howard in the second round. Howard tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions in 2018, earning his first Pro Bowl selection and was named the Dan Marino Team MVP. Grier and his staff also selected offensive lineman Laremy Tunsil, who started 14 games as a rookie and became the first offensive lineman in franchise history to start at least one game at both guard and tackle in his rookie year.

The team also drafted running back Kenyan Drake and wide receiver Jakeem Grant in 2016, who became just the second rookie duo in team history to combine for a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in the same season. In 2018, Grant was one of just two NFL players to return two kicks (one punt and one kickoff) for touchdowns.

Grier helped turn more than half the roster over in 2016, as the team entered training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason. The results were a four-game improvement from the previous season, the fifth-best mark in the NFL. The Dolphins finished 10-6 with a playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered numerous Pro Bowl players. During that time, the Dolphins drafted seven players that combined for 14 Pro Bowl selections with the team. The list includes tackle Jake Long (2008-10), defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2011), punter Brandon Fields (2013), center Mike Pouncey (2013-15), safety Reshad Jones (2015; 2017), wide receiver Jarvis Landry (2015-17) and running back Jay Ajayi (2016).

Grier also did a good job of finding value late in drafts. Jones was a fifth-round pick in 2010 and was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a season. Ajayi was also a fifth-round pick (2015) and became the fourth player in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in three games during the same season. Ajayi's 1,272 rushing yards in 2016 were third-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the New England Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and recently retired as a senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. Chris has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Parcells, Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick, Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll and University of Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League. He is currently an assistant coach for the New Jersey Devils.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier and his wife, Paige, have two sons, Landon and Jackson.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

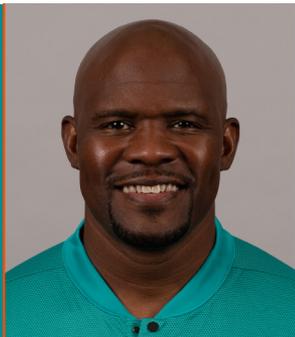

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in an October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

JOSH BOYER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
COLLEGE: MUSKINGUM COLLEGE
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Josh Boyer enters his 15th season as an NFL coach and second season with the Dolphins. He was promoted to defensive coordinator on Jan. 20, 2020 after being originally hired as defensive pass game coordinator/cornerbacks coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Boyer helped Miami's pass defense improve significantly throughout his first season in Miami. The Dolphins allowed 296.3 pass yards per game in their first four games of the season but limited that number to just 251.1 pass yards per game allowed in the final 12 games following the team's Week 5 bye. Boyer helped mentor cornerback Nik Needham, an undrafted rookie who finished the season second among all NFL rookies with 11 passes defended. Needham's 10 passes defended in the final eight games of the season were tied for the fifth-most among all NFL players in that span.

Boyer came to Miami after spending 13 years with New England as a coaching assistant (2006-08) and coaching defensive backs (2009-11) and cornerbacks (2012-18). During his tenure, the Patriots won 12 division titles, six AFC championships and three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI and LIII). The team went 162-46 (.779) in the regular season during Boyer's tenure, the best record in the NFL during that span.

In Boyer's 10 seasons (2009-18) as a position coach for the Patriots, he helped develop five different Pro Bowl selections and five different All-Pro honorees. In that span, the team had the NFL's third-best scoring defense, allowing 19.4 points per game. Opposing passers had a rating of just 84.8 during those 10 seasons, the 10th-best mark in the league.

The 2018 Patriots defense played well against the pass, limiting opposing passers to an 85.4 rating. New England was third in the league in interceptions (18) and the defense, as a whole, was seventh in the NFL in scoring, allowing just 20.3 points per game. Cornerback Stephon Gilmore earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time in his career and was selected to his second Pro Bowl. Boyer's unit helped the Patriots win Super Bowl LIII.

In 2017, the Patriots won the AFC in part due to a defense that finished fifth in the NFL, allowing 18.5 points per game. Malcolm Butler was tied for second among all NFL cornerbacks with three forced fumbles and finished sixth on the team with 60 tackles (55 solo).

Boyer helped the Patriots once again win the Super Bowl (LI) in 2016. Butler earned second-team All-Pro honors with a team-leading four interceptions. Logan Ryan led all NFL cornerbacks with 92 tackles (74 solo). New England went 14-2 in the regular season with the league's best scoring defense, surrendering just 15.6 points per game. The Patriots were eighth in the NFL in opposing passer rating (84.4).

In 2015, Boyer mentored Butler to his first career Pro Bowl appearance as he led the team with 15 passes defended. Ryan led the team with four interceptions and was second in passes defended (14) and third in tackles (74; 58 solo). Ryan's 74 tackles were tied for fourth among all NFL cornerbacks. The Patriots finished in the top 10 in both scoring defense (10th, 19.7) and total defense (9th, 339.4).

New England won Super Bowl XLIX in 2014 as Boyer once again tutored a first-team All-Pro cornerback in Darrelle Revis in Revis' only season with the Patriots. Revis led the team with 14 passes defended and was tied for the team lead with two interceptions, earning the sixth Pro Bowl selection of his career. New England had the eighth-best defense in the league, holding opponents to just 19.6 points per game. They also limited opposing passers to an 84.0 rating, which was 10th in the NFL.

In 2013, Boyer tutored Aqib Talib, who earned second-team All-Pro honors. His starting cornerbacks – Talib and Ryan – combined for nine interceptions. The Patriots were 10th in scoring defense (21.1) and were ninth in opposing passer rating (81.0).

In Boyer's first season transitioning to cornerbacks coach in 2012, the Patriots led the NFL in turnover differential (+25), were second in takeaways (41), tied for fifth in interceptions (20) and tied for ninth in scoring defense (20.7).

From 2009-11, Boyer served as New England's defensive backs coach. In 2011, the Patriots won 13 regular-season games, led the AFC in turnover differential (+17) and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI. He helped Kyle Arrington tie for the NFL lead with seven interceptions.

The Patriots won 14 games in 2010 and led the NFL in turnover differential (+28). Boyer coached two Pro Bowl players that season – cornerback Devin McCourty and safety Brandon Meriweather. McCourty also earned second-team All-Pro honors and was tied for second in the NFL with seven interceptions during his rookie campaign.

In his first season as a position coach in 2009, Boyer helped Meriweather earn his first Pro Bowl selection.

Boyer was a coaching assistant for the Patriots from 2006-08 and was part of the 2007 Patriots team that went 16-0 in the regular season and won the AFC Championship.

Prior to his time in New England, Boyer held several collegiate coaching positions. He served as defensive coordinator at South Dakota School of Mines and Technology in 2005, was defensive backs coach at Bryant in 2004 and also held graduate assistant roles at Kent State (2002-03) and Dayton (2001). He began his coaching career at King's College (Pa.) as an assistant coach in 2000.

Boyer was a four-year starter at Muskingam College (1996-99) in Ohio. He played wide receiver for three seasons before switching to defensive back as a senior and earning All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors at the position in 1999. He graduated from the school with a degree in physical education and health.

A Heath, Ohio native, Boyer and his wife, Kristi, have one daughter, Kennedy.

DANNY CROSSMAN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH

DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Danny Crossman enters his 18th season as an NFL coach and second season as special teams coordinator with the Dolphins after being named to that position on Feb. 8, 2019.

Crossman has been a special teams coach for all 27 years of his coaching career, including 17 seasons in the NFL. For the past 14 years, Crossman has been a special teams coordinator with Carolina (2005-09), Detroit (2010-12), Buffalo (2013-18) and Miami (2019-present).

Crossman's special teams units had several memorable moments in his first season with Miami in 2019. Kicker Jason Sanders earned two AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December, after he kicked 13 successful field goals in the final month of the season. It was the most field goals in one month by an NFL kicker since December 2018 (Justin Tucker). Sanders broke a Dolphins single-game record with seven field goals on Dec. 8, 2019 at the N.Y. Jets. One of Sanders' player of the week honors came after he caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from punter Matt Haack on Dec. 1, 2019 vs. Philadelphia. The fake field goal was named the NFL Bridgestone Clutch Performance Play of the Year at NFL Honors and marked the first time since 1964 a player who led his team in punts threw a touchdown to a player who led his team in field goal attempts. Wide receiver Jakeem Grant had a 101-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on Nov. 17, 2019 vs. Buffalo, making him the franchise record-holder with three career special teams return touchdowns.

Prior to Miami, Crossman spent six seasons (2013-18) as Buffalo's special teams coordinator. In 2018, his punt team forced opponents to start inside their own 20 on 31 occasions, which was ninth in the NFL, despite using three different punters. His kickoff coverage unit was 10th in the NFL, allowing just 22.2 yards allowed per kickoff return. Additionally, his special teams units did not allow any points scored against them.

The Bills special teams ranked seventh in the NFL in 2017, according to the annual rankings compiled by NFL writer Rick Gosselin. Kicker Stephen Hauschka set an NFL record with 13 consecutive made field goals from 50-plus yards.

In 2016, the Bills were second in net punting average against (36.2), fourth in gross punting average against (43.2), sixth in the NFL in punt return average (11.2) and sixth in punt return average against (6.7).

The 2015 Bills had the NFL's best kickoff coverage team, limiting opponents to 17.2 yards per kickoff return. Punter Colton Schmidt set a franchise record with a net average of 41.3 yards per punt. Kicker Dan Carpenter scored 125 points, becoming the first Buffalo player in a decade to top 100 points for three consecutive seasons (2013-15). The Bills also tied for the NFL lead with four special teams takeaways.

Crossman helped the Bills finish among the NFL's best special teams in 2014 as the team finished second in Gosselin's rankings. The team's kickoff coverage team was third in the NFL, allowing just 20.0 yards per kickoff return. Buffalo's punt return unit was fourth in the league, averaging 6.5 yards per punt return. Carpenter set a team record with 34 field goals made in a season while kickoff specialist Jordan Gay set a team record with 49 touchbacks. Schmidt's 21 punts inside the 20 were the second-most in team history. Running back Boobie Dixon blocked two punts, becoming the first Bills player since 1990 (Steve Tasker) to block multiple punts in the same season.

In Crossman's first season in Buffalo in 2013, Carpenter made 91.7 percent of his field goals, the second-best percentage in team history. Wide receiver Marcus Easley led the NFL with 23 special teams tackles (19 solo).

Prior to his tenure in Buffalo, Crossman spent three seasons (2010-12) as the special teams coordinator for Detroit. In 2012, kicker Jason Hanson set a franchise record with 134 points. His 134 points were the most in his 21-year NFL career.

Crossman began his NFL coaching career in 2003 with Carolina as a special teams assistant. He was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2005. In his seven seasons with the Panthers, the team made three playoff appearances, won the NFC South twice and won the NFC Championship in 2003.

Crossman spent 10 seasons as a collegiate coach and worked with the special teams units in all 10 seasons. He began his collegiate coaching career at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy as a special teams/defensive backs coach in 1993. From there he moved to Western Kentucky, where he was a special teams/secondary (1994-95) and special teams/outside linebackers (1996) coach. He spent the 1997-98 seasons at Central Florida, coaching special teams and defensive backs. Crossman moved to Georgia Tech in 1999 and coached special teams/defensive ends from 1999-2000 and special teams/defensive backs in 2001. In 2002, he was a special teams/linebackers coach at Michigan State.

Crossman was an All-American and All-Big East defensive back as a three-year letterman (1987-89) at Pittsburgh. He also started at fullback in the 1988 season. As a senior in 1989, Crossman was a team captain and named the team's MVP, earning second-team All-America honors after posting 62 tackles and one interception. He began his collegiate playing career at Kansas, where he was a Freshman All-American in 1985.

Crossman spent time with Washington (1990) and Detroit (1991) at training camp following his college playing career. He was a team captain and earned All-League honors with the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in 1991-92. He led the Monarchs to an inaugural World Bowl title in 1991 and was named MVP of the game after securing three interceptions.

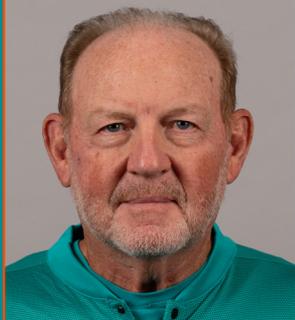

Crossman earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and communications from Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Susan, have a son, Kyle, and a daughter, Kaylie.

Gailey has a wealth of coaching experience, having been an NFL head coach on two occasions. This is his fifth job as an NFL offensive coordinator. Gailey also has led three college programs and was a head coach in the World League of American Football. In total, Gailey has 40 years of coaching experience and has been a head coach for 16 seasons, an offensive coordinator for nine years and a defensive coordinator for two seasons. Center Tim Ruddy was named to the Pro Bowl following the 2000 season.

Most recently, Gailey was the offensive coordinator for the New York Jets from 2015-16. The 2015 Jets offense set franchise records for total offense (5,925), passing offense (4,057) and completions (362). Thigpen finished tied for 13th in the league with 18 touchdown passes.

Gailey was the head coach at Georgia Tech from 2002-07. He led the Yellow Jackets to a winning record and bowl games in all six of his seasons at the helm, becoming the first head coach in school history to do that. DEFENSIVE BACKS
COLLEGE: BOISE STATE
NFL: SIXTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Gerald Alexander enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive backs coach on Feb. 20, 2020.

Alexander returns to Miami after he spent part of the 2011 season as a safety for the Dolphins, appearing in two games. He also spent the 2019 training camp with the Dolphins as part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship program. Alexander is the 11th person in franchise history to both play and coach for the Dolphins and is the first to do this since Renaldo Hill spent the 2018 season as assistant defensive backs coach after he played for Miami from 2006-08.

Prior to Miami, Alexander spent three seasons as the defensive backs coach at California, where the Bears defense was very successful during his tenure. He helped develop several players, such as safety Jaylinn Hawkins, who played three seasons for Alexander and totaled 10 interceptions, tied for eighth all-time at the school. Hawkins was a fourth-round pick by Atlanta in the 2020 NFL draft.

In 2019, Alexander mentored two All-Pac-12 defensive backs in Camryn Bynum Jr. and Ashtyn Davis. Davis began his career as a walk-on and was one of three finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy, given annually to the nation's top player who began his collegiate career as a walk-on. Davis was a third-round pick of the N.Y. Jets in the 2020 NFL draft whereas Bynum elected to return to Cal for his senior season.

Alexander's unit was one of the nation's best in 2018. The Bears led the Pac-12 and ranked ninth nationally in passing defense, allowing just 175.1 passing yards per game. The defense also made big plays in the passing game, leading the Pac-12 and ranking second nationally with 21 interceptions and tying for fourth nationally with five defensive touchdowns. Alexander's defensive backs were responsible for 17 of the 21 interceptions and three of the five defensive touchdowns. Hawkins led the Pac-12 and was third nationally with six interceptions and Davis was tied for third in the Pac-12 with four. Davis earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors from the Associated Press while Bynum earned second-team Pac-12 honors from the publication.

In Alexander's first season at California in 2017, he helped the Bears defense improve in 14 of the 15 primary team defensive statistics. Bynum was named the team's Most Valuable Freshman after leading all defensive backs on the team with 58 tackles. He was the team leader with 10 passes defended and tied for the team lead with two interceptions.

Alexander also served as the secondary coach at Montana State (2016) and Indiana State (2015), his first position coach jobs. He was a graduate assistant working with defensive backs at Washington in 2014, tutoring two future second-round NFL draft picks in Sidney Jones and Budda Baker. Alexander was a graduate assistant at Arkansas State in 2013 and got his start as a coach in 2012 at Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.) High School, where he was a volunteer assistant.

Alexander's training camp stint with the Dolphins in 2019 was his third as part of the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship program. He also spent time with Tennessee in 2015 and Tampa Bay in 2016.

Alexander played five seasons in the NFL with stops in Detroit (2007-08), Jacksonville (2009-10), Carolina (2010), Miami (2011) and the New York Jets (2011). He played in a total of 44 games with 30 starts, totaling 154 tackles (116 solo), two sacks, four interceptions, 14 passes defended, three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (61st overall) by Detroit in the 2017 NFL draft.

Alexander played collegiately at Boise State, where he helped the team win four consecutive conference titles and a 46-6 record. He was a senior on Boise State's 2006 squad that went 13-0 and won the Fiesta Bowl.

A PLAYERS COACH

Gerald Alexander was hired as defensive backs coach prior to the 2020 season and became the 11th person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. He played cornerback for the Dolphins in 2011. The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. COLLEGE: GEORGIA TECH

George Godsey enters his 10th season as an NFL coach and second with the Dolphins after being named tight ends coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Godsey has experience coaching on both sides of the football. In his nine years (2011-19) as an NFL assistant coach, Godsey has been part of seven winning seasons, five divisions titles and one AFC Championship. His teams have compiled a .583 winning percentage.

In Godsey's first season with the Dolphins in 2019, he helped develop Mike Gesicki, a second-year tight end who showed significant improvement from his rookie season. Gesicki caught five touchdowns in the final six games of the season, tied for the second-most by any NFL player in that span. Gesicki's 51 receptions and 570 receiving yards were both fifth among AFC tight ends that season. His 570 receiving yards were the most by a Dolphins tight end since 2014 and 12th-most by a tight end in team history.

Godsey spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons with the Detroit Lions. He was a defensive assistant responsible for special projects in 2017 and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2018.

As quarterbacks coach, Godsey worked with Matthew Stafford. The signal caller completed 66.1 percent of his passes (367-of-555) for 3,777 yards and 21 touchdowns despite two of his top receivers – Marvin Jones Jr. and Golden Tate – combining to play in just 16 games for the Lions.

In 2017, Godsey worked with the defensive side of the ball for the first time in his career. He helped the Lions finish third in the NFL in total takeaways (32), fourth in interceptions (19) and second in opponent fumble recoveries (13).

Godsey spent three seasons (2014-16) in Houston, serving as quarterbacks coach in 2014 before he was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2015. The Texans posted three consecutive winning seasons during his tenure there, and won the AFC South in both seasons he was offensive coordinator.

In 2016, Godsey oversaw a Houston offense that helped the Texans win the AFC South and an AFC Wild Card game against Oakland in Brock Osweiler's first full season as an NFL starting quarterback. Running back Lamar Miller rushed for 1,073 yards in his first season with the team.

In 2015, the Texans became the first NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular-season game. Quarterback Brian Hoyer started nine contests and set single-season career highs in passer rating (91.4), completion percentage (60.7) and passing touchdowns (19). Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins finished third in the NFL in receiving with 1,521 yards. His 11 receiving touchdowns were tied for seventh.

As quarterbacks coach and offensive play-caller in 2014, Godsey helped develop several passers as the Texans were hit by injuries at the position. Ryan Fitzpatrick started 12 contests and posted a 95.3 quarterback rating, the highest of his career until he surpassed that in the 2018 season. Case Keenum and Ryan Mallett also started two games each for the Texans.

Godsey's first NFL coaching position came in New England, where he served as an offensive assistant (2011) and tight ends coach (2012-13).

As tight ends coach in 2012-13, Godsey tutored Rob Gronkowski. Despite playing just seven games in 2013 due to injury, Gronkowski still caught 39 passes for 592 yards (15.2 avg.) and four touchdowns. His 15.2 yards per catch average was third among NFL tight ends that season.

In 2012, Godsey helped Gronkowski earn his second Pro Bowl berth. Gronkowski only played in 11 games as he dealt with injuries, but still totaled 55 receptions for 790 yards (14.4 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. His 14.4 yards per catch average and 11 touchdowns led all NFL tight ends.

In Godsey's first NFL season in 2011, he served as an offensive assistant for the Patriots and helped New England win the AFC and advance to Super Bowl XLVI. The Patriots went 13-3 that season, earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs. The Patriots were second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game) and passing offense (317.8 net passing yards per game), and third in scoring offense (32.1 points per game).

Godsey came to New England following seven seasons (2004-10) at Central Florida, where he held a variety of roles. Godsey began his coaching career as a graduate assistant (2004) for the Knights before he was promoted to quarterbacks coach (2005-08) and then moved to running backs coach in 2009. Central Florida played in three bowl games and won two conference titles in Godsey's tenure.

As the team's running backs coach in 2010, Godsey helped Central Florida lead Conference USA with 36 rushing touchdowns. The Knights went 11-3 and won Conference USA in his final season at the school.

Godsey was a standout quarterback at Georgia Tech from 1998-2001. He left school as the program's all-time career record holder in completion percentage (63.3) and passer rating (143.6). He went on to play one season in the Arena Football League for the Tampa Bay Storm, where they won ArenaBowl XVII.

A Tampa, Florida native, Godsey comes from a strong football family. His older brother, Greg, played at Air Force and his younger brother, Gary, played at Notre Dame.

DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Josh Grizzard enters his fourth season with the Miami Dolphins after he was named offensive quality control coach on Feb. 10, 2017. He moved to quality control coach in 2019 and was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2020.

In 2019, Grizzard worked closely with the wide receivers as DeVante Parker compiled one of the best seasons by a receiver in Dolphins history. Parker set career highs in receptions (72), receiving yards (1,202) and receiving touchdowns (9) and his 1,202 receiving yards were the most by a wide receiver in the AFC and ranked fifth among all NFL players. The total was sixth in single-season team history. Rookie Preston Williams had 32 receptions for 428 yards (13.4 avg.) and three touchdowns before suffering a season-ending injury midway through the season. His 32 receptions were tied for the most by any NFL rookie at the time of the injury.

In 2018, Grizzard helped the Dolphins offense improve from 24th to ninth in the NFL with a 4.68 yards per carry average. Running back Kenyan Drake surpassed 1,000 yards from scrimmage (1,012) for the first time in his career. Frank Gore averaged 4.63 yards per carry, the most in NFL history by a player at least 35 years old. He recorded 722 yards on the ground despite missing the final two games due to injury. The Dolphins also set an NFL record with three different wide receivers throwing a touchdown in the same season – Albert Wilson, Danny Amendola and Kenny Stills.

In his first season in Miami in 2017, Grizzard helped Drake lead the NFL with 444 rushing yards in the final five weeks of the season. Drake was tied for second in the league with three runs of 40-plus yards despite having just 152 carries on the season. In his first two games as the team's primary running back, Drake topped 100 yards for the first two times in his career.

Grizzard spent the previous four seasons (2013-16) at Duke where he was a graduate assistant/quality control working primarily with the quarterbacks. He was promoted into that role following the 2013 season, when he served as a football operations assistant. Grizzard helped the Blue Devils to their best three-year stretch (2013-15) in school history with 27 total wins, an ACC Coastal division title and three consecutive bowl appearances.

In 2016, he worked with quarterback Daniel Jones and helped the redshirt freshman rank No. 6 in the ACC and lead all conference freshmen with 276.8 yards of total offense per game.

In 2015, Grizzard helped first-year starter Thomas Sirk throw for 2,625 yards and 16 touchdowns while rushing for 803 yards and eight more scores. Sirk became one of just three quarterbacks in ACC history to throw for 2,500-plus yards and rush for 800-plus yards in a single season. His 3,428 total offensive yards were second all-time in single-season school history.

The 2014 Blue Devils featured five All-ACC selections and compiled 421 total points, the second-most in school history. Quarterback Anthony Boone, the winningest quarterback in the history of Duke football, earned All-ACC honors and the team finished in the conference's top five in six offensive statistics.

Grizzard played defensive back at Yale and graduated with a degree in political science. He earned his master's degree in Christian studies from Duke. Grizzard is a native of Zebulon, North Carolina and currently resides in Fort Lauderdale. His last name is pronounced Grizz-ARD.

Marion Hobby enters his sixth season as an NFL coach and second with the Dolphins after being named defensive line coach on Feb. 8, 2019.

Nearly all of Hobby's coaching experience comes on the defensive line, as he's been coaching the position for Power 5 and NFL teams for more than 20 years. He also has experience as a defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at the collegiate level.

In Hobby's first season with the Dolphins in 2019, he helped develop rookie defensive tackle Christian Wilkins, who led all NFL rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles (30 solo). The total was tied for the third-most by a rookie defensive lineman since 2015. Hobby also tutored defensive tackle Davon Godchaux, whose 75 stops (33 solo) led all NFL defensive tackles. Godchaux's 75 tackles were the most by a Dolphins defensive lineman since at least 2000.

Prior to Miami, Hobby spent two seasons (2017-18) with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he served as defensive line coach. In 2018, he helped the Jaguars finish tied for fourth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing just 19.8 points per game, and fifth in total defense, allowing 311.4 yards per game. The team's pass defense was second in the NFL, averaging 194.6 net passing yards allowed per game. Hobby mentored defensive end Calais Campbell, who was the oldest NFL player (32) to have double-digit sacks (10.5) in 2018 and became the first player in team history to have double-digit sacks in back-to-back seasons. He also earned a Pro Bowl selection.

In Hobby's first season with the Jaguars in 2017, he helped the team have one of the best pass-rushing units in the NFL. The team was second in the NFL with 55 sacks and had four defensive linemen total at least eight sacks – Campbell (14.5), defensive end Yannick Ngakoue (12.0), defensive tackle Malik Jackson (8.0) and defensive end Dante Fowler Jr. (8.0). The Jaguars defense finished second in scoring (16.8 points allowed per game), total defense (286.1 yards allowed per game), takeaways (33) and interceptions (21). The unit helped Jacksonville win the AFC South and advance to the AFC Championship game for the first time since 1999. Three of Hobby's defensive linemen made the Pro Bowl – Campbell, Jackson and Ngakoue. Campbell earned first-team All-Pro honors and was named PFWA Defensive Player of the Year after setting a franchise record with his 14.5 sacks.

Hobby spent six seasons (2011-16) in his second stint at Clemson, serving as co-defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach. The Tigers finished in the top 25 in all six seasons he was on staff, played in two national championship games and won the College Football Playoff National Championship following the 2016 season. He also developed several NFL players while at Clemson, including two first-round picks and two second-round selections. Vic Beasley went eighth overall to Atlanta in the 2015 NFL draft, Shaq Lawson was a first-round pick of Buffalo's (19th overall) in the 2016 NFL draft, Kevin Dodd was a second-round pick (33rd overall) by Tennessee in the 2016 NFL draft, Andre Branch was a second-round pick (38th overall) by Jacksonville in the 2012 NFL draft and Malliciah Goodman was selected in the fourth round (127th overall) by Atlanta in the 2013 NFL draft.

Hobby also coached Wilkins in college. In 2016, Wilkins earned first-team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player) as a sophomore.

DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Lemuel Jeanpierre enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant offensive line coach on Feb. 20, 2020.

Jeanpierre has nine years of NFL experience – seven as a player (2010-16) and three as a coach (2017-19). He most recently served as the assistant offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders from 2018-19.

In 2019, Jeanpierre helped the Raiders offensive line limit opponents to just 29 sacks. The team had four games where they didn't allow a sack. The 29 sacks allowed were the eighth-fewest in the NFL. The Raiders offensive line also helped Josh Jacobs rush for 1,150 yards, becoming the first rookie in team history to have a 1,000-yard rushing season. Two of Oakland's offensive linemen – Trent Brown and Rodney Hudson – earned Pro Bowl honors.

Jeanpierre's first season with Oakland was in 2018, where he helped mentor a young offensive line that featured two rookie starters – Kolton Miller and Brandon Parker. Miller became the first rookie offensive linemen to start every game for the Raiders since 2011. Parker started 12 consecutive games to end the season. The offensive line helped protect quarterback Derek Carr, who had career highs in passing yards (4,049), completion percentage (68.9), completions (381) and yards per attempt (7.3). The Raiders completed 68.7 percent of their passes, breaking the franchise record and ranking fifth in the NFL that season. Hudson and Kelechi Osemele were both selected as Pro Bowl alternates.

Jeanpierre earned his first coaching job in 2017 with the Seahawks, where he was hired as an offensive assistant. He focused primarily on the offensive line, where he helped tackle Duane Brown earn his fourth Pro Bowl honor despite not joining the team until Week 9.

Prior to his coaching career, Jeanpierre played six NFL seasons (2010-15) as a center and guard with Seattle, appearing in 63 games with 11 starts. He played in nine postseason games, including Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII victory over Denver, and helped the Seahawks win three NFC West title and two NFC Championships in addition to Super Bowl XLVIII. ROB LEONARD

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE
COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA STATE
NFL: EIGHTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Rob Leonard enters his eighth season as an NFL coach and second with the Dolphins after being named linebackers coach on Feb. 8, 2019. He moved to assistant defensive line coach in 2020.

Leonard spent the 2019 season as Miami's linebackers coach. He helped mentor second-year linebacker Jerome Baker, who led the team and was fourth in the AFC with 124 tackles (74 solo), and Vince Biegel, who led the team with 13 quarterback hits despite not joining the team until Week 1. Leonard also tutored Sam Eguavoen, who made the transition from the Canadian Football League and started six games in his first NFL season. Raekwon McMillan finished fourth on the team with 72 tackles (35 solo) despite having his season cut short due to injury.

Leonard spent the first six seasons (2013-18) of his NFL coaching career with the New York Giants. He began his tenure as a defensive assistant (2013-16) before being promoted to assistant defensive line coach (2017) and then to outside linebackers coach (2018).

In 2018, Leonard moved to outside linebackers coach and helped Olivier Vernon lead the Giants with seven sacks and 21 quarterback hits. He mentored Lorenzo Carter, who totaled four sacks in his rookie season, tied for 10th among all NFL rookies. Only four NFL rookies picked behind Carter (3rd round, 66th overall) totaled more sacks than he did.

Leonard was promoted to assistant defensive line coach in 2017. In his lone season in the role, Leonard helped defensive tackle Damon Harrison post 76 tackles (51 solo), which ranked second on the team and led all NFL defensive tackles. He also assisted defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul, who led the team with 8.5 sacks in his first 16-game season since 2014.

Leonard served as a defensive assistant for the Giants from 2013-16. In 2016, he was part of a staff that coached the NFL's most-improved defense in the NFL, which helped the team finish 11-5 and earn a playoff berth. The unit allowed 158 fewer points and 1,290 fewer yards than it did in 2015. The Giants led the NFL with just 25 offensive touchdowns allowed and held opponents under 20 points on eight occasions. The team's 17.8 points per game allowed was second in the NFL and the team's best since 2002. The Giants also tied for third in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (88.6 yards per game). Harrison totaled 86 tackles (55 solo), which was the most by an NFL defensive tackle since 1996 when Buffalo's Ted Washington had 92 stops (70 solo). Harrison earned first-team All-Pro honors.

In 2015, the Giants defense was tied for sixth in the NFL with 28 takeaways. The team's 15 interceptions were tied for 10th in the NFL while their 17 forced fumbles were tied for eighth and their 13 fumble recoveries were tied for fourth.

The 2014 Giants' defense made several big plays. They finished fourth in the NFL with 47 sacks, led by Pierre-Paul, whose 12.5 sacks were eighth in the NFL. Pierre-Paul also had 76 tackles (54 solo), which ranked third on the team. The Giants intercepted 17 passes, good for 11th in the NFL.

In Leonard's first NFL season in 2013, the Giants finished eighth in the NFL in total defense, allowing just 332.3 yards per game. The unit had the 10th-best passing defense in the NFL, allowing just 223.3 net passing yards per game, and limited opposing passers to a 78.3 rating, which ranked sixth in the league. The Giants were also stout against the run, holding opponents to just 3.84 yards per carry, the sixth-best mark in the NFL.

Leonard came to the Giants from North Carolina State, where he was a graduate assistant for three seasons (2010-12). The Wolfpack posted winning records and appeared in three consecutive bowl games while he was on staff. He began his coaching career in 2009 as a defensive assistant at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Leonard was a three-year letterman at North Carolina State (2006-08), where he walked on and earned a scholarship while redshirting following his freshman season at Washington & Jefferson College, a Division III school. He primarily played special teams in 2006 and 2007 before earning a starting linebacker role in 2008. He led the Wolfpack with 95 tackles and 801 snaps that season, and earned the team's Mike Hardy Award, given annually to the player who plays beyond his capabilities.

A native of Moon Township, Pennsylvania, Leonard earned first-team all-conference honors at Moon High School, where he played running back, defensive back, kick returner and punter. He also earned second-team all-state honors at cornerback.

Leonard and his wife, Anna, have two sons, Bo and Luke, and a daughter, Mary.

Steve Marshall enters his 11th season as an NFL coach and first with the Dolphins after being named offensive line coach on Jan. 20, 2020.

Marshall joins the Dolphins with 39 years of experience coaching the offensive line at a variety of levels, including 10 seasons in the NFL. He also spent 29 years coaching offensive linemen at the collegiate level. In his last six seasons coaching in the NFL, Marshall's units ranked in the top 10 of the league in sacks allowed on four occasions and were in the top half of the league five times.

Most recently, Marshall was the offensive line coach for the Memphis Express of the Alliance of American Football.

Prior to that, Marshall was the offensive line coach for three seasons (2015-17) with the New York Jets. In his first season with the team in 2015, Marshall's unit allowed just 22 sacks, the second-fewest in the NFL and fewest by the Jets since 2001. It was a major improvement over the 47 sacks allowed by the Jets in the previous season. His offensive line helped quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick set a franchise record with 31 passing touchdowns while his 3,905 passing yards were second-most in team history. Running back Chris Ivory rushed for 1,070 yards – the only 1,000-yard season of his career – and earned a Pro Bowl nod. Marshall also helped center Nick Mangold earn a Pro Bowl selection.

Marshall spent the 2014 season as the assistant offensive line coach for Green Bay, where he helped protect quarterback Aaron Rodgers. The Packers offensive line allowed 30 sacks, tied for ninth in the league, and guard Josh Sitton was selected to the Pro Bowl that season. Green Bay went 12-4 in the regular season before falling in overtime of the NFC Championship game to Seattle.

His previous NFL stops include Houston (2002-05) – where he served as assistant offensive line coach from 2002-03 and offensive line coach from 2004-05 – and Cleveland (2007-08), where he was the offensive line coach for two seasons.

In Cleveland, Marshall's offensive lines finished in the top 10 in fewest sacks allowed both seasons. The team surrendered 24 sacks in 2008, good for eighth in the NFL, and was tied for third with just 19 sacks allowed in 2007. The season prior to Marshall's arrival, Cleveland was 30th in the NFL with 54 sacks allowed. Marshall tutored tackle Joe Thomas during his first two seasons in the NFL, helping him to the first two of 10 consecutive Pro Bowl selections. Thomas was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2007 and was a second-team All-Pro in 2008. Behind Marshall's offensive line, quarterback Derek Anderson earned the only Pro Bowl selection of his career following the 2007 season. Running back Jamal Lewis rushed for more than 1,000 yards in both seasons Marshall coached the Browns' offensive line.

Marshall's first four NFL seasons (2002-05) were with the expansion Texans. After being promoted from assistant offensive line coach to offensive line coach in 2004, his unit helped block for an attack that featured an 1,100-yard rusher (Domanick Williams) and an 1,100-yard receiver (Andre Johnson).

Throughout Marshall's coaching career, he spent 29 seasons at the collegiate level where he helped mentor 19 future NFL players, including several notable linemen such as David Bakhtiari, Mitchell Schwartz and Andre Gurode. Those three players alone have combined for seven Pro Bowl appearances and nine All-

Pro teams.

Marshall has made stops at 12 institutions: New Mexico State (2013), Colorado (2000-01, 2011-12), California (2009-10), North Carolina (1998-99), Texas A&M (1997), UCLA (1996), Tennessee (1980-81, 1993-95), Virginia Tech (1987-92), Murray State (1985-86), Louisville (1984), Marshall (1982-83) and Plymouth State (1979).

Marshall was a two-year letterman (1977-78) at tight end and guard for Louisville. As a junior in 1977, he helped Louisville earn an Independence Bowl berth.

Marshall graduated from Louisville with degrees in history and physical education. He is married to his wife, Karin.

ERIC STUDEVILLE

RUNNING BACKS
COLLEGE: WISCONSIN-WHITEWATER
NFL: 24TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Eric Studesville enters his third season with the Miami Dolphins coaching running backs.

Studesville has 23 years of NFL coaching experience, including 19 at the running backs position. He has been on the coaching staffs of two conference championship teams (2013 and 2015) and won Super Bowl 50 with the Denver Broncos.

Studesville has helped his players earn three Pro Bowl selections – Marshawn Lynch (2008), Willis McGahee (2011) and C.J. Anderson (2014). He's also been the position coach for 10 1,000-yard rushing campaigns with McGahee (3), Tiki Barber (2), Lynch (2), Knowshon Moreno (1), Fred Jackson (1) and Anderson (1). In total, his running backs have registered 61 individual 100-yard performances – a total that includes 24 by McGahee and 12 by Barber.

Studesville mentored a young position group in 2019. He helped undrafted rookie free agent Patrick Laird become one of the top receivers out of the backfield in the 2019 rookie class. Laird began taking snaps in Miami's offense in the second half of the season and totaled 23 receptions for 204 yards (8.9 avg.) in the final eight games of the year. His 204 receiving yards were second-most by a rookie running back in the NFL that year while the mark was tied for 12th among all NFL running backs over the final eight weeks of the season.

In Studesville's first season in Miami in 2018, he drastically improved the team's running game. Studesville took the Dolphins from 24th in the NFL averaging 3.86 yards per carry in 2017 to ninth in the statistic, averaging 4.68 yards per carry in 2018. Kenyan Drake topped 1,000 scrimmage yards (1,012) for the first time in his career and tied a team record for most receiving touchdowns by a running back (5). Frank Gore led Miami with 722 rushing yards. His 4.63 yards per carry average was the highest in NFL history by a running back at least 35 years of age. Studesville also tutored Kalen Ballage, who became the first Dolphins rookie to rush for 100-plus yards in a game since 2011 when he had 12 carries for 123 yards (10.3 avg.) and one touchdown in Week 15 at Minnesota.

Prior to his time in Miami, Studesville spent eight seasons (2010-17) as Denver's running backs coach. He was promoted to assistant head coach in 2017. That season, he helped Anderson reach 1,000 rushing yards for the first time in his career. As a team, the Broncos were 12th in the NFL in rushing, averaging 115.8 yards per game. His running backs were also active in the passing game as three of the team's top six reception leaders were players he coached, including Devontae Booker (30 receptions), Anderson (28 receptions) and Jamaal Charles (23 receptions).

In 2016, Studesville's unit lost its starting running back (Anderson) and fullback (Andy Janovich) to injured reserve but helped Booker, a fourth-round pick, lead the team in rushing with 612 yards. His total was fourth among NFL rookies that season and he was second among rookie running backs with 31 receptions for 265 yards (8.5 avg.) and one touchdown.

Studesville was part of the Broncos' Super Bowl 50 victory at the end of the 2015 season. The team averaged nearly 50 rushing yards per game more during the final seven weeks of the season than the first 10, ranking seventh in the league with 135.1 rushing yards in those final seven games. Ronnie Hillman (4) and Anderson (2) combined for six 100-yard performances that season. Anderson led the NFL in rushing attempts (54) and rushing yards (234) during the postseason.

In 2014, Studesville helped Anderson earn a Pro Bowl selection despite not making his first career start until Week 11. Anderson led the NFL with 709 yards from scrimmage (472 rushing and 237 receiving) during the month of November and tied for the league lead with seven rushing touchdowns in the month of December. He became just the fifth undrafted running back in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl selection.

The 2013 Broncos were the best offense in NFL history, setting the league's scoring record with 606 points. Studesville worked under future Dolphins Head Coach Adam Gase, who was the Broncos' offensive coordinator at the time, and helped Moreno become the first player in Broncos history to post 1,000 yards rushing (1,038) and 500 yards receiving (548). Denver won the AFC Championship and participated in Super Bowl XLVIII.

In 2012, Studesville helped the Broncos finish 13-3 and win the AFC West. The team won 11 straight games to finish the regular season and earned a first-round bye in the playoffs. His running backs unit was ravaged by injuries but still helped the Broncos finish fourth in offense. McGahee rushed for 731 yards and four touchdowns despite playing just 10 games.

Studesville's group in 2011 helped the Broncos lead the NFL in rushing, setting a team record with 164.5 rushing yards per game. McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and totaled 1,199 rushing yards on the season.

The 2010 season was Studesville's first in Denver and he helped Moreno become the fifth player in team history to record 1,000 yards from scrimmage in each of his first two NFL seasons. He was named the team's interim head coach on Dec. 6, 2010 and served in that capacity for the final four games of the season, becoming the first African-American head coach in Broncos history. He earned his first win as an NFL head coach on Dec. 26, 2010 vs. Houston.

From 2004-09, Studesville was the running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. He added running game coordinator responsibilities in 2008. He coached a 1,000-yard rusher in five of his six seasons in Buffalo, including three straight years to end his tenure there.

In 2008, Studesville helped Lynch become the first Bills running back in five years to earn a Pro Bowl nomination after his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,036). Fred Jackson rushed for 500 yards and the pairing combined for 84 receptions, a mark that led the league among rushing tandems.

McGahee (2004-05) and Lynch (2007-08) rushed for 1,000 yards in each of their first two NFL seasons under Studesville. McGahee's 2,375 yards broke a team record for the most rushing yards in a player's first two years. McGahee was the fourth rookie in team history to reach 1,000 rushing yards (1,128) and tied a franchise rookie record with 13 rushing touchdowns. He began his career with at least 100 yards in his first three starts, becoming only the third NFL player to do so since 1970.

Prior to Buffalo, Studesville was the running backs coach for the New York Giants and helped Tiki Barber rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Barber was seventh in the NFL in yards per rush (3.6), ninth in rushing yards (3,468) and led all NFC running backs with 210 receptions during that three-year span. His 5,103 scrimmage yards were fifth in the NFL.

Studesville's first NFL stop was the Chicago Bears, where he was an NFL minority coaching fellowship during training camp in 1996. He spent four seasons (1997-2000) with the Bears as offensive quality control.

Prior to his NFL coaching career, Studesville was a defensive assistant in the collegiate ranks. He was a secondary coach at Kent State (1995-96) and Wingate (1994). Studesville also spent time as a video assistant at North Carolina (1992-93) and a graduate assistant at Arizona (1991).

Studesville was a defensive back at Wisconsin-Whitewater and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned his master's degree in exercise physiology at Arizona. He and his wife, Staci, have one daughter, Sydni, and a son, Eric Jr.

Mike Judge enters his fourth season as an NFL coach and second with the Dolphins after being named quality control coach on Feb. 18, 2019.

In Judge's first season in Miami, he helped the Dolphins win five of their final nine contests. Miami defeated two division champions in the final month of the season, knocking off Philadelphia of the NFC East in Week 13 and finishing the season with a road win at the AFC East champion New England Patriots.

1 T.D.

MASCOT // 7-0 // ALL MUSSELS
 ACQUIRED: FA, '97
 COLLEGE: ATLANTIS '97
 NFL: 24TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: 24TH SEASON

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals and various other functions.

A 10-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. also has performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, and has traveled overseas to meet American troops abroad on three military tours.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score T.D. at your next event, please email mascot@dolphins.com.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected throughout the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphins' positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more bright and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was a further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium is a global entertainment destination that serves as home to the Miami Dolphins, the Miami Open, University of Miami football team, Orange Bowl, 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship, major concerts, international soccer and a host of world-class events.

The multi-purpose, open-air complex completed a multi-year renovation fine-tuned to enhance the fan experience. On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward Hard Rock Stadium's modernization plan. The agreement provides bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Stephen Ross taking financial responsibility for the renovation of Hard Rock Stadium without county assistance. The modernization was privately funded by Ross at an estimated cost of more than $755 million.

Phase I of the project was completed for the 2015 season and changed every seat in the stadium, rebuilt the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels, moved seats 25 feet closer to the field on the north and south sidelines, introduced five new premium spaces and offered guests improved food, enhanced concourses and 16 new restroom facilities throughout the facility. For the 2016 season, Hard Rock Stadium installed a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 92 percent of the spectators in the shade and four high-definition video boards. Unveiled in 2017 were remodeled, modernized suites throughout the stadium offering a more intimate club space on the 200 level with improved amenities and fare.

Hard Rock Stadium hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to six Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

HISTORY

Now in its 34th year of operation, Hard Rock Stadium was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing $115 million when it was completed in 1987. The late Dolphins Chairman of the Board & Managing General Partner Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium." The stadium revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a club level, along with executive suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket members committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On Jan. 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100 percent controlling interest.

On Aug. 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. It became the first sports marketing and product company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on Aug. 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on Jan. 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls include Super Bowl XXIX (Jan. 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (Jan. 31, 1999), Super Bowl XLI (Feb. 4, 2007) and Super Bowl XLIV (Feb. 1, 2010). Hard Rock Stadium had the honor of hosting Super Bowl LIV, South Florida's record 11th Super Bowl, in 2020, the 100th anniversary of the NFL.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins earned a 6-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers. On Sept. 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at the stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game 1 on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game 7 on Oct. 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in Jan. 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by Huizenga. In April 2006, two high-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports at that time, were unveiled. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

In 2007, Hard Rock Stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new casual seating and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all new club level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities. In 2010, corporate offices were built on the east side of Hard Rock Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's undefeated season in 1972 was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the offices.

In 2008, Huizenga sold 50 percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Huizenga remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45 percent of the team and stadium to Ross in Jan. 2009. Ross became managing general partner with 95 percent stake of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retained a five percent share of both and remained a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announced Dolphin Stadium would be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS," written expressly for the team.

On Jan. 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

On Aug. 17, 2016, the Dolphins and Hard Rock International announced an 18-year agreement to name the newly renovated facility Hard Rock Stadium. As part of the agreement, the iconic lifestyle brand became the official Dolphins' hotel and resort partner, casual dining restaurant partner, hospitality partner and Native American Tribe.

LOCATION

Hard Rock Stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Miami-Dade Broward County Line. The 160-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Hard Rock Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, Hard Rock Stadium is home to the Miami Open, University of Miami football, Orange Bowl, 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship, major concerts and international soccer matches. The stadium has hosted six Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, XLI, XLIV and LIV), the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl and four BCS National Championship Games (2001, 2005, 2009 and 2013).

Hard Rock Stadium's largest football attendance came when Alabama defeated Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship game in front of a record crowd of 81,120. Hard Rock Stadium had the distinction of being the first to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the U.S. mainland in 30 years. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003. The building is recognized throughout the industry as one of the busiest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to Hard Rock Stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Hard Rock Stadium has hosted numerous world-class international soccer matches, including the International Champions Cup Finals in 2013 and 2014. The facility was the first to host El Clasico Miami, a Relevant Sports' soccer match between Real Madrid and FC Barcelona hosted for the first time in North America. The event was July 29, 2017 and was preceded by a match on July 26 between Paris Saint-Germain F.C. and Juventus F.C. at Hard Rock Stadium. The stadium has hosted the sport's most recognizable clubs including Manchester United, FC Barcelona, Chelsea FC and AC Milan. National teams' matches have included international powerhouses Brazil, Colombia, Croatia, Ecuador, England, Honduras, Peru, Spain, Venezuela and the USA. The Brazil vs. Colombia match on Sept. 5, 2014 established the attendance record (73,429) for a soccer match held in the state of Florida.

Hard Rock Stadium also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007, Monster Jam, lacrosse competitions as well as various festivals and trade shows.

Numerous concerts also have been performed at Hard Rock Stadium, featuring entertainers such as the Black Eyed Peas, Chicago, Coldplay, the Eagles with Jimmy Buffett, Elton John/Billy Joel, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, Hall & Oates, Jay Z and Beyoncé, Madonna, Metallica, New Kids on the Block, N Sync, Paul McCartney, Pink Floyd, The Police, Rod Stewart, the Rolling Stones, Taylor Swift, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2 and The Who. Hard Rock Stadium has twice broken its attendance records for entertainment events. U2's 360 Tour broke the record for highest concert attendance in the stadium's history when a crowd of 75,529 attended the show on June 29, 2011. The record was broken as Hard Rock Stadium hosted the largest ever crowd for an entertainment event when 78,363 attended WrestleMania on April 1, 2012. At the time, that figured marked record attendance for the WWE.

PLAYING SURFACE

Hard Rock Stadium is equipped with Bermuda 419 grass. All of the sod used by the Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium goes through a six-month enhancement process of being harvested and installed on plastic to thicken the sod and toughen the turf to meet the standards of the NFL. Hard Rock Stadium also has purchased 13 field grow lights to make up for the loss of direct sun light due to the shade canopy installed over the seating bowl, as well as eight large oscillating fans to keep the grass as dry as possible on the surface. The mission is to provide the best playing surface in the NFL and for all international events.

SEATING PRODUCTS

Hard Rock Stadium's modernization included doubling unique seating experiences from eight to 16. Some of the seating products include:

THE 72 CLUB

The 598 seats in the 72 Club take the premium seating experience to another level. It's the most luxurious seating experience in all of South Florida sports and entertainment. Seats are double-padded, have 11 inches more legroom and are located at midfield. At any point in-game, guests are able to enjoy sideline field views and a private drink rail, located directly on the north side of the field, before walking to their private club designed by the Rockwell Group.

LIVING ROOM BOXES

Hard Rock Stadium has created private four-person boxes known as Living Room Boxes. Located on the 35-yard line and within the Atos Club presented by DELL EMC and Ford Field Club in the end zones, Living Room Boxes are the biggest, most comfortable seats in the stadium. These boxes give guests the ability to watch replays and highlights on their own private screens.

NORTH SIDELINE CLUB

The North Sideline Club is a club located between the 30-yard lines on the north side that offers wider, padded seats for fans and an air conditioned club to enjoy pre-game and throughout the game. The club is designed by the Rockwell Group.

LIFEWTR LOUNGE

A 3,300-square-foot private club located in the east end zone, the LIFEWTR Lounge has 144 seats with an open-air, shared suite experience. It features an all-you-can-eat game day buffet, open bar (beer, wine, soda and LIFEWTR) and televisions featuring all the day's NFL action.

CORNER TERRACES

The 100 level Corner Terraces provide a unique social experience where guests can watch the game from a high-top table and comfortable swivel chairs. Corner Terraces provide guests the enjoyment of sitting with family or friends without being confined to a row of seats.

THE NINE

The NINE is the ultimate luxury hospitality experience at Hard Rock Stadium. Designed as open-air suites between the 30-yard lines that connect to a private club designed by the Rockwell Group, the NINE presents guests with complimentary black car service, a private entrance and a dedicated game day concierge for a truly unforgettable experience.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Hard Rock Stadium's 147 suites were completely renovated during the 2017 offseason. These suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. Suites vary in size from 10 seats up to 50 seats offering air conditioning, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Suite attendants provide personal service in each suite during the games. Centerplate caters the suites with a wide-variety of food and beverages.

THEATRE BOXES

Hard Rock Stadium features Theatre Boxes on the Club and Suite Level. These 4-6 person individual boxes are located in a shared suite environment with inclusive food and beverage. This seating product is a perfect option for families or small businesses who may not have a need for a full suite but want to enjoy the amenities of the suite experience.

PARTY TERRACES

Phase III of the renovation brought party terraces on the 300 level of Hard Rock Stadium. These party terraces have a bar that services guests on the concourse, as well as a double-sided bar with views of the field. Each corner includes two semi-private spaces that each can hold up to 100 people – creating a new experience for a total of 800 guests per event. The Dolphins additionally have made a commitment to donate a party terrace of 100 military tickets each game to local troops serving our country.

LIV AT HARD ROCK STADIUM

The South Beach experience made its way to the stadium and Dolphins football games in 2010. The 10,000-square-foot LIV at Hard Rock Stadium has the look and feel of the LIV nightclub. Complete with a pair of bars, private cabanas and tables and a dance floor and DJ booth, the space overlooks the west end zone and creates a nightclub experience for the fan before, during and after the game.

DINING

Hard Rock Stadium in 2013 embarked on a journey of listening to guests, asking what they prefer for their game day experience. Years later, the commitment to bring fresh, diverse flavor to fans remains strong. An emphasis is placed on innovative, local cuisine, and together with hospitality provider Centerplate, the venue curates an unparalleled food and beverage experience throughout the facility to all fans.

SKYVIEW PRESENTED BY BUD LIGHT SELTZER

Hard Rock Stadium features the Skyview presented by Bud Light Seltzer, the first pulse gondola at any stadium in North America, giving fans a bird's-eye view of the stadium and surrounding areas including the downtown Miami skyline. The attraction includes 12 cabins, holding six people each, with glass floors, sustainable wood benches, cup holders and solar powered LED lights. LIGHTS, CAMERA, HARD ROCK STADIUM

Hard Rock Stadium has not only been host to championship sporting events, the venue has also served as a backdrop to some of the most popular films of the past quarter century. Those motion pictures shot at the stadium include Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, which starred Jim Carrey and Courteney Cox and featured Dolphins great Dan Marino as himself; Marley and Me, starring Owen Wilson and Jennifer Aniston; the Oliver Stone-directed Any Given Sunday starring Al Pacino, Jamie Foxx and Dennis Quaid, and Rock of Ages, in which the scene filmed at the stadium included actors Tom Cruise, Julianne Hough, Russell Brand and Alec Baldwin.

Hard Rock Stadium served as a backdrop to an episode of the television show Seinfeld titled The Label Maker in which Jerry and Newman attend Super Bowl XXIX. Additionally, parts of the opening of the HBO television series Arli$$ were shot on the field during a Dolphins game. Hard Rock Stadium also played a role in episodes of television shows Man Caves, with former NFL defensive tackle Tony Siragusa and Designing Spaces, the Big Game Bubba Burgers edition.

BAPTIST HEALTH TRAINING FACILITY AT NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) in Miami. On Aug. 8, 2012, the Dolphins announced a comprehensive marketing and community partnership agreement with Baptist Health South Florida. The partnership includes the naming rights to the team's training facility as well as sports medicine care through Miami Orthopedics & Sports Medicine Institute. As a result of the partnership, the complex became officially known as the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University.

The $10 million state-of-the-art facility is an 11.9 acre site and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Baptist Health Training Facility not only houses the Dolphins' football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all offseason conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a full size 18-by-40 foot cold plunge pool, whirlpools, a state-of-the-art weight training room, rehab area that includes four nap pods, one float pod, two-room electric cryotherapy chamber and massage area as well as a sports science lab.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, player lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, video production studio and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields. The Dolphins also have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of Matrix® Turf with Helix Technology and organic infill, manufactured by Hellas Construction.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Hard Rock Stadium. When the Miami Gardens stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the venue were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at the Baptist Health Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University can accommodate up to 2,400 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop and restrooms. The Dolphins unveiled several exciting changes for the 2016 training camp to improve the fan experience, including a brand new canopy over the seated area, providing fans with shade and a more comfortable experience than ever before.

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

NEW BAPTIST HEALTH TRAINING COMPLEX

The Miami Dolphins announced the extension of a multi-year partnership with Baptist Health to construct a state-of-the-art training complex and sports performance clinic in Miami Gardens, Fla. The $135 million newly named Baptist Health Training Complex will open in Spring 2021.

The partnership with Baptist Health is an extension of a decades-long relationship with the Miami Dolphins, with the entity serving as the Official Sports Medicine Provider as well as the Official Wellness Provider of the Miami Dolphins. Baptist Health also is a proud partner of the Miami Dolphins Foundation working together on a series of initiatives around the health and safety of South Florida students, coaches and parents to grow youth football participation in South Florida.

The 227,200 square-foot complex (135,000 square-foot training facility and 92,200 square-foot indoor field) is more than 50,000 square feet larger than the team's current facility. The Baptist Health Training Complex will house an innovation hub for new technology, spatial computing and a walkthrough space, a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area, fuel bar, dedicated recovery area including cryotherapy and isolation tanks, an athletic training room with expansive rehabilitation space, meeting rooms with direct access to the fields, a two-story weight room with a cardio deck, locker rooms, equipment space, dining hall, auditorium, an outdoor practice area with two full natural grass fields, full indoor practice facility, a lobby with a grand staircase, office area, press area, fan amenities and a broadcast area.

DOLPHINS RAN THROUGH THE 1970s

From 1970-79, the Dolphins were the decade's most proficient rushing team. Miami totaled 23,720 rushing yards in the decade, ahead of the second place Dallas Cowboys (23,651 yards), and averaged a decade-best 4.41 yards per carry, ahead of the Buffalo Bills (4.33 avg.). Miami scored 188 touchdowns on the ground in that 10-year period, tied for second with the Cowboys, behind only the Pittsburgh Steelers (192 TDs). Additionally, the Dolphins set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards (currently No. 8 in NFL history) during the team's "perfect season" of 1972.

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami set the NFL's single-season sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

DOLPHINS BEFORE AND AFTER BYES

The Dolphins did not have a game preceding their bye in 1992 or 2017 because their season openers were rescheduled to the bye week due to hurricane threats. Since the NFL first instituted the open week in 1990, the Dolphins are 14-15 in games preceding the bye week. Miami owns a 17-14 record in games following a bye week.

ALONSO'S PICK-SIX WAS A DEFENSIVE GAME-WINNER

Linebacker Kiko Alonso made the game-winning play in Miami's Week 10 victory at San Diego in 2016, picking off Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers and returning it for a 60-yard touchdown to give the Dolphins a 31-24 lead with 1:01 to play. Alonso's touchdown was the latest a Dolphins player had returned an interception for a touchdown to give Miami the lead since at least 1991. It was the latest any NFL player had given his team a lead since Atlanta's Robert Alford had a 59-yard interception return in overtime to defeat Washington on Oct. 11, 2015.

MOUNTAINEER SHOT

Miami followed up "The Miami Miracle" in 2018 with "Mountaineer Shot" in 2019, another play that won the Bridgestone Performance NFL Play of the Year award. It marked the first time in league history the same team won consecutive Play of the Year awards.

On Dec. 1, 2019 vs. Philadelphia, the Dolphins were facing a fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line in the second quarter. The Dolphins shifted out of a field goal formation with punter Matt Haack lined up in a shotgun formation at quarterback. He took the snap from center Daniel Kilgore – whose college team's (Appalachian State) nickname was the Mountaineers, hence the name of the play – and rolled to his left, where he threw a touchdown pass to kicker Jason Sanders.

It marked the first time since 1977 (Denver's Jim Turner) an NFL kicker caught a touchdown pass and the first time since 1964 (San Diego's John Hadl and Keith Lincoln) that a player who led his team in punts threw a touchdown to a player who led his team in extra point/field goal attempts.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Three Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season. The most recent Dolphins player named Pro Bowl MVP was wide receiver Brandon Marshall, as he caught six passes for 176 yards and a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns as the AFC used a second-half surge to beat the NFC, 59-41, in the 2012 Pro Bowl.

TAYLOR HAS THREE TOURS OF DUTY WITH DOLPHINS

When future Hall of Fame defensive end/linebacker Jason Taylor played in the season opener on Sept. 12, 2011 vs. New England, he became the first player in team history to have been a member of the Dolphins' roster with three different tours of duty interrupted by stints with other teams (1997-07, 2009, 2011). Since Taylor, there have been four NFL players that have had three separate stints with the same team: wide receiver Jordan Matthews in Philadelphia (2014-16, 2018, 2019), wide receiver Deonte Thompson in Buffalo (2014, 2017, 2018), tackle Andre Smith in Cincinnati (2009-15, 2017, 2018-19) and linebacker Karlos Dansby in Arizona (2004-09, 2013, 2017).

JOE ROBBIE ALUMNI PLAZA

On Sept. 12, 2011, just hours before the season opener against the New England Patriots, Dolphins Chairman of the Board/Managing General Partner Stephen Ross was accompanied by Tim Robbie and Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson as Ross re-dedicated a statue of team founder Joe Robbie on the newly named Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza, located at Gate C of the Hard Rock Stadium.

Later during the 2011 season on Dec. 4, a little more than an hour before the Dolphins and Oakland Raiders game, the Dolphins unveiled the newly minted Walk of Fame. The Walk of Fame surrounds the statue of the late Robbie as the centerpiece of the Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza. Hall of Famers Don Shula, Marino, Griese, Nick Buoniconti, Jim Langer, Little, Larry Csonka, Stephenson and Paul Warfield joined Robbie in having their names immortalized in bronze as the inaugural inductees into the Walk. The second class of the Walk of Fame was inducted on Dec. 16, 2012 and included Tim Bowens, A.J. Duhe, Manny Fernandez, Nat Moore, Earl Morrall and Don Strock. On Dec. 29, 2013, Kim Bokamper, O.J. McDuffie, Eugene "Mercury" Morris and Keith Sims were officially inducted as the third Walk of Fame class. On Sept. 21, 2014, the Dolphins inducted the fourth class to the Walk of Fame, which included Jeff Cross, Sam Madison, Tony Nathan and Ed Newman. A fourth class was inducted on Dec. 2, 2018 and included Dick Anderson, Mark Clayton, Mark Duperré, Jon Giesler, John Offerdahl and Jason Taylor.

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only six coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curly Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams. New England's Bill Belichick has coached the Patriots since 2000.

DOLPHINS NO. 1 OVERALL DRAFT PICKS

The Dolphins have had five former No. 1 overall picks play for the team, but only one was selected by the Dolphins. Former No. 1 picks to play for the Dolphins include wide receiver Irving Fryar (1984 by New England), defensive tackles Steve Emtman (1992 by Indianapolis), Dan Wilkinson (1994 by Cincinnati), defensive end Mario Williams (2006 by Houston) and tackle Jake Long (2008 by Miami). This does not include running back Jim Grabowski (drafted in the 1966 AFL draft by Miami), but signed instead with the NFL's Green Bay Packers or quarterback Bernie Kosar, who was selected as the first overall pick in the 1985 supplemental draft by the Cleveland Browns before joining the Dolphins later in his career.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

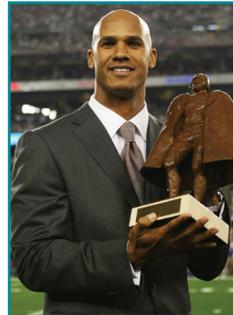

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only eight teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Kansas City and Chicago have had five players win the award, Pittsburgh and San Diego both have had four players, while Miami, Cincinnati, Dallas and Philadelphia each boast three award winners.

The Dolphins couldn't slow down South Florida native Lamar Jackson in their season opener at Hard Rock Stadium.

Jackson passed for 324 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Baltimore Ravens to a 59-10 victory.

Jackson, who was born in Pompano Beach, threw two touchdown passes to Marquise Brown and one each to Willie Snead IV, Mark Andrews and Patrick Ricard. He was 17-for-20 and had a perfect passing rating of 158.3.

Running back Mark Ingram had two rushing touchdowns while gaining 107 yards on the ground.

Rookie Preston Williams scored the Dolphins' only touchdown when he caught a 6-yard pass from Ryan Fitzpatrick late in the second quarter.

Jason Sanders had a 54-yard field goal for the Dolphins, who trailed 42-10 at halftime.

DeVante Parker was the leading receiver for the Dolphins with 75 yards on three catches.

Williams' touchdown capped an impressive 75-yard drive near the end of the first half.

Two plays after making his first NFL catch, Williams had his first career touchdown when he caught a pass in the middle of the end zone.

Fitzpatrick completed 14 of 29 passes for 185 yards with one touchdown and one interception before Josh Rosen replaced him at quarterback late in the third quarter.

That unfortunately was one of the very few highlights for the Dolphins in a forgettable first half.

The problems started early, as Ingram burned his father's old team with a 49-yard run on the first play from scrimmage after Dolphins linebacker Deon Lacey made a great tackle on the opening kickoff.

Ingram ended the scoring drive with a 1-yard touchdown run on third-and-goal.

After Earl Thomas III intercepted Fitzpatrick after he was flushed out of the pocket, the Ravens needed only one play to increase their lead.

Jackson hit Brown — a native of Hollywood, Florida — on a slant and he outran the Dolphins secondary for a 47-yard touchdown to make it 14-0.

The next time Baltimore had the ball, Brown got behind the Dolphins secondary and Jackson hit him for an 83-yard touchdown that made it 21-0.

The Dolphins just couldn't find any answers on offense.

The defense held the New England Patriots offense in check for a good part of the afternoon, but that wasn't enough to prevent a 43-0 loss at Hard Rock Stadium.

New England scored two touchdowns on pick-sixes in the fourth quarter — one of 54 yards by cornerback Stephon Gilmore and the other of 69 yards by linebacker Jamie Collins — and Tom Brady threw a TD pass to running back James White with 2:10 left in the fourth quarter.

Brady passed for two touchdowns and ran for another for New England, which won in Miami for only the second time in seven trips. Sony Michel had a rushing touchdown and Antonio Brown caught a touchdown pass in his first game with New England.

The Dolphins were shut out in Miami for the first time since 2010 when they suffered a 16-0 loss against the Chicago Bears in a Thursday night game. The Dolphins had one final chance to avoid the shutout on the final play of the game after calling a timeout with 1 second left on a first-and-goal at the 8-yard line, but Josh Rosen's pass was tipped and intercepted.

Defensive lineman John Jenkins and linebacker Vince Biegel each got their first sacks in a Dolphins uniform. The Dolphins also got their first takeaway of the season when Minkah Fitzpatrick forced and recovered a fumble, though it did come with the outcome no longer in doubt.

An indication of the Dolphins' offensive struggles is the fact they didn't drive past the New England 40-yard line until the fourth quarter — and that was followed immediately by Collins' pick-six, which came after running back Kalen Ballage bobbled Fitzpatrick's pass.

The frustration on offense continued after Rosen replaced Fitzpatrick at quarterback when Jakeem Grant dropped a perfectly thrown bomb at the New England 15-yard line and Preston Williams shortly thereafter also dropped a long pass.

The Dolphins did not take a snap inside the New England 35-yard line until 10 seconds remained in the game.

The Dolphins managed only 51 total yards and two first downs in the first half.

After giving up a touchdown on the first drive, the defense stiffened.

Jenkins had the big defensive play of the first half when he bull-rushed Patriots guard Shaq Mason back into Tom Brady, who fell and was sacked for a 7-yard loss.

The Dolphins hung tough against the Dallas Cowboys before things slipped away in the second half.

Quarterback Dak Prescott ran for a touchdown and passed for two others, both to Amari Cooper, to lead Dallas to a 31-6 victory at AT&T Stadium.

Miami actually had the chance to take a halftime lead but lost a fumble inside the Dallas 10-yard line in the final minute of the second quarter. After leading 10-6, Dallas scored touchdowns on its first two drives of the third quarter.

Kicker Jason Sanders accounted for the Dolphins scoring with field goals of 22 and 33 yards.

Quarterback Josh Rosen made his first start with the Dolphins and performed much better than his final stats — 18-for-39, 200 yards, 61.9 passer rating — would suggest, as he was hurt by some dropped passes. Rosen left the game briefly in the second quarter after being hit at the end of a quarterback scramble and returned shortly after Ryan Fitzpatrick completed a 25-yard pass to Preston Williams on the drive that ended with Sanders' second field goal.

Safety Bobby McCain recorded the Dolphins' first interception of the season and defensive end Taco Charlton had a sack against his former team just three days after being claimed off waivers.

The Dolphins had a chance to take the lead on the opening possession of the game after Rosen connected with DeVante Parker for a 40-yard pass. The drive ended with Sanders missing a 47-yard field goal.

Dallas' first offensive play was a 37-yard pass from Prescott to Amari Cooper and it set up Brett Maher's 28-yard field goal after safety Steven broke up a pass on third down from the Dolphins 10-yard line.

Dallas increased its lead to 10-0 on its next drive when Cooper capped a drive that featured a 33-yard completion to tight end Jason Witten on third-and-20.

The Dolphins got on the scoreboard on their next possession thanks to Rosen completions of 19 yards to tight end Nick O'Leary and 24 yards to Preston Williams off a flea-flicker.

Following Sanders' 20-yard field goal, the Dolphins appeared to pull off a successful onside kick when Ken Webster caught the bouncing kick past 10 yards but he was flagged for offside.

The Dolphins got the ball back anyway a short time later on McCain's interception when Prescott tried to go deep with plenty of time to throw.

The Dolphins couldn't continue their mastery against the Chargers in Miami.

Philip Rivers passed for 310 yards and two touchdowns and the Chargers ended an eight-game losing streak against the Dolphins in Miami with a 30-10 victory at Hard Rock Stadium. It was their first victory in Miami since the 1981 playoff classic at the Orange Bowl.

Running back Austin Ekeler, who again started for the Chargers with Melvin Gordon having reported to the team three days prior to the game, had two touchdowns, on an 18-yard reception and on a 1-yard run. Running back Troymaine Pope had the other touchdown and Ty Long kicked three field goals.

The Dolphins' scoring came on a 34-yard pass from Josh Rosen to DeVante Parker on the team's first drive and a 30-yard field goal by Jason Sanders.

For the second consecutive week, the Dolphins put together a solid first-half performance, but they couldn't follow through on it to get their first victory of the season.

The Dolphins trailed 17-10 at halftime despite missing two field goal attempts.

Rosen was very effective in the first half, completing 12 of 16 passes for 159 yards with the touchdown pass to Parker and a 126.8 passer rating. Additionally, two of the four incompletions were drops.

The Dolphins offense couldn't move the ball consistently in the second half, gaining only 34 yards after halftime.

The defense failed to produce many big plays, though Taco Charlton recorded his second sack in two games with the Dolphins in the third quarter.

With Jesse Davis missing the game because of an elbow injury he sustained at Dallas the previous Sunday, veteran J'Marcus Webb moved from left to right tackle and rookie sixth-round pick Isaiah Prince made his first NFL start at right tackle. In fact, it was Prince's first NFL action after he was inactive the first three games.

After the Chargers kicked a field goal on the opening possession of the game, the Dolphins earned their first lead of the season with an impressive 75-yard touchdown drive capped by Rosen's pass to Parker.

The other big play in the drive was a 25-yard completion to Preston Williams after Rosen's pass bounced off the hands of tight end Mike Gesicki.

Los Angeles answered with its own 75-yard drive, capped by Rivers' 13-yard touchdown pass to running back Troymaine Pope.

The Dolphins tied the score 10-10 with a 12-play, 67-yard drive that featured a 19-yard screen pass to Kenyan Drake, though Miami failed to reach the end zone after having a first-and-goal.

WASHINGTON 17

MIAMI 16

The Dolphins almost pulled off a remarkable comeback against Washington, but came up agonizingly close.

A failed two-point conversion attempt proved the difference in a 17-16 loss at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Dolphins went for the victory instead of kicking an extra point to potentially send the game to overtime after Ryan Fitzpatrick, who sparked the Dolphins after coming off the bench in the fourth quarter, threw a touchdown pass to DeVante Parker with 6 seconds left.

Fitzpatrick threw a quick pass to Kenyan Drake in the flat on the two-point conversion attempt and Drake dropped it, even though there were several Washington defenders in the area and he might not have been able to get into the end zone anyway.

As it was, it was a spirited comeback effort for the Dolphins, who trailed 17-3 when Fitzpatrick replaced Josh Rosen early in the fourth quarter.

Fitzpatrick, who started the first two games before Rosen replaced him as the starter, completed 12 of 18 passes for 132 yards in his one quarter of work.

The Parker touchdown capped a 75-yard drive that Fitzpatrick engineered in 1:56. On the drive, Fitzpatrick hit tight end Mike Gesicki for a 30-yard gain and had a 5-yard scramble to convert a third-and-2 situation.

Washington built its lead on two touchdown passes from Case Keenum to rookie Terry McLaurin along with a 21-yard field goal by Dustin Hopkins.

The Dolphins first cut into Washington's lead with a 1-yard run by Kalen Ballage that was their first second-half touchdown of the season.

On their next two possessions, the Dolphins got in Washington territory before the drives stalled. One of those drives began after Preston Williams, filling in for injured Jakeem Grant, had a 21-yard punt return.

Ballage's touchdown not only gave the Dolphins their first points in the second half this season, it also was their first rushing touchdown.

It capped a 55-yard drive after Dustin Hopkins was wide right on a 55-yard field goal attempt on the first play of the fourth quarter.

After Fitzpatrick took over at QB, the Dolphins showed their most consistency on offense all game. Kenyan Drake had a 9-yard run, followed by an 8-yard completion to Albert Wilson, making his return to the lineup after missing three games with a calf injury.

After a Drake run gained 5 yards, Fitzpatrick had an 18-yard completion to Mark Walton for the Dolphins' longest play of the game. Ballage scored on a second-and-1.

The Dolphins then successfully executed an onside kick, but just as was the case in the game at Dallas, it was nullified by a penalty.

The Dolphins put up a strong effort against the Buffalo Bills, but a couple of costly mistakes in the second half proved too much to overcome.

Cornerback Tre'Davious White came up with an interception near the Buffalo goal line and forced a fumble to set up a touchdown in leading the Bills to a 31-21 victory at New Era Field.

The Dolphins had their first halftime lead of the season, thanks to a 3-yard touchdown run by running back Kalen Ballage and a 12-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Fitzpatrick to wide receiver DeVante Parker.

Fitzpatrick scored on an 11-yard run with 1:45 left to give the Dolphins a chance to pull out a late victory, but Buffalo clinched the victory when Micah Hyde recovered the onside kick between players and returned the kick 45 yards for a touchdown.

Fitzpatrick, who made his first start at quarterback since Week 2 against the New England Patriots, had a 145.8 passer rating (highest possible is 158.3) in the first half to help the Dolphins take a 14-9 lead into halftime. In the second half, Fitzpatrick became the 46th player in NFL history to reach 30,000 career passing yards.

The Dolphins had a chance to extend their 14-9 lead after taking the second-half kickoff and driving to a first-and-goal from the Buffalo 2-yard line.

That's when the game turned.

On first-and-goal, former Dolphins defensive tackle Jordan Phillips ran through a hole at the line and dropped Fitzpatrick for a 10-yard loss before Fitzpatrick had a chance to make a handoff.

On second-and-goal, White stepped in front of the intended receiver to pick off Fitzpatrick near the sideline at the 2.

The second costly turnover came with the Dolphins trailing 17-14 and on a first-and-10 from their 22. Fitzpatrick hit Preston Williams with a pass in the middle of the field, but White punched the ball out and Jerry Hughes recovered the loose ball and returned it the Dolphins 16-yard line.

Three plays later, quarterback Josh Allen threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Cole Beasley to make it 24-14 after the extra point.

Allen ended the game with two touchdown passes, included a 20-yard throw to John Brown that capped a 98-yard drive that gave Buffalo the lead after White's interception. Allen ran in for the two-point conversion after that score.

-----------------	----------------------

The Dolphins got off to a tremendous start on Monday Night Football, but they couldn't close things out against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field.

Ryan Fitzpatrick threw first-quarter touchdown passes to give the Dolphins a 14-0 lead, but Pittsburgh came back to score the final 27 points to win 27-14.

Fitzpatrick's touchdown passes went to wide receivers Albert Wilson and Allen Hurns.

Quarterback Mason Rudolph threw two touchdown passes, including a game-turning 45-yard throw to Dontae Johnson late in the first half, and James Conner had a touchdown run. Kicker Chris Boswell added a pair of field goals.

Cornerback Xavier Howard returned to the lineup for the Dolphins, though he left the game in the third quarter with a knee injury. He did come up with his first interception of the season in the first quarter.

Taco Charlton and Sam Eguavoen each had a sack for the defense, which started off strongly but faded in the second half.

Thanks to Fitzpatrick's TD passes, the Dolphins moved out to their largest lead of the season at 14-0.

The strong first-half showing began with Howard's pick of Rudolph after defensive lineman John Jenkins, who was a major factor early on, pushed center Maurkice Pouncey back into his quarterback.

After a nifty 17-yard completion to Jakeem Grant, Fitzpatrick hit Wilson on a crossing pattern and Wilson raced to the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown to give the Dolphins the early lead.

The Dolphins' second score came after the defense held when Pittsburgh went for it on fourth-and-6 from the Miami 37, Rudolph's pass falling incomplete.

Fitzpatrick completed a 15-yard pass to DeVante Parker soon after to convert a third-and-14, keeping alive a drive that ended with his 12-yard touchdown pass to Allen Hurns when Hurns willed his way into the end zone.

Charlton's third-down sack ended Pittsburgh's ensuing drive.

Pittsburgh cut into the Dolphins' lead with a 42-yard field goal by Boswell that ended a drive that featured a 34-yard completion to JuJu Smith-Schuster.

After having chances to win the previous three weeks, the Dolphins made the plays down the stretch to defeat the New York Jets for their first victory of the season.

Ryan Fitzpatrick had three touchdown passes, all in the second quarter, and Jason Sanders kicked a 26-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 26-18 victory at Hard Rock Stadium.

It was the first time since 2015 that a Dolphins quarterback had three touchdown passes in the first half of a game. Ryan Tannehill did it that year against the Houston Texans. Fitzpatrick finished the game 24-of-36 for 288 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions and a passer rating of 118.8.

There were contributors everywhere for the Dolphins in this game.

Tight end Mike Gesicki had the best game of his career with six catches for 95 yards. Williams had five catches for 72 yards. The offensive line, using a sixth different starting combination of the season, did a solid job providing protection for Fitzpatrick.

The Dolphins defense came up with some big plays, particularly in the fourth quarter.

Rookie first-round pick Christian Wilkins, who earlier had his first career sack, dropped running back Le'Veon Bell for a 5-yard loss on a running play. That was followed by Nik Needham getting to quarterback Sam Darnold on a cornerback blitz for a 7-yard sack.

The Dolphins got a safety with 6:29 when an errant shotgun snap got by Darnold and into the end zone before defensive end Taco Charlton knocked it through the back of the end zone when he tried to fall on the ball.

Davon Godchaux and Charlton split a sack on the Jets' final drive.

Cornback Jamal Perry came up with a huge interception at the Dolphins 1-yard line, setting the stage for a wild finish to the first half.

The Jets opened the game with a 75-yard touchdown drive capped by Darnold's 12-yard pass to Jamison Crowder.

After Wilkins' sack on third down, Ficken missed a 49-yard field goal attempt and the Dolphins took over at their 39.

The Dolphins tied the game with a 61-yard drive that pretty much was all Williams, who caught passes of 17 and 26 yards before he scored a 12-yard touchdown.

INDIANAPOLIS 12

The Dolphins rode a tremendous defensive effort to their second consecutive victory.

The defense came up with three interceptions and then stopped Indianapolis' late comeback attempt to produce a 16-12 victory at Lucas Oil Stadium. The win followed the Dolphins' victory against the New York Jets at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Dolphins clinched the victory when they stopped Indianapolis on downs after the Colts reached the Miami 15-yard line. After three incompletions, quarterback Brian Hoyer completed a pass to tight end Eric Ebron, but was tackled at the 8-yard line, 2 yards short of the first down.

Safeties Steven Parker and Bobby McCain and cornerback Nik Needham all came up with interceptions for the Dolphins, who got an 11-yard touchdown scramble by quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick and three field goals by Jason Sanders.

The Dolphins took a 13-12 lead with 5:45 left in the fourth quarter on Sanders' 48-yard field goal. The kick capped a 12-play drive that featured a 21-yard completion from Fitzpatrick to Devante Parker.

It ended a run of 12 consecutive points for the Colts, who took the lead for the first time on the previous drive on a 1-yard touchdown pass from Hoyer to tight end Jack Doyle. Veteran kicker Adam Vinatieri missed the extra-point attempt, however, leaving Indy only up by two, 12-10.

The Dolphins increased the lead to 16-12 after their third interception of the game, the one by Needham.

It set up Sanders' second 48-yard field goal in a 3-minute span.

Along with the interceptions, linebacker Jerome Baker had a sack, and Charles Harris had an impressive tackle for loss.

The Dolphins' effort on defense began the first time that group was on the field, as Parker came up with a spectacular interception in the end zone.

On a second-and-goal from the 9, Hoyer appeared to connect with Ebron, but Parker stole the ball away from him as both players were falling to the ground.

The initial ruling was an interception and the call stood after review.

The Dolphins then drove 51 yards to take a 3-0 lead on Sanders' 47-yard field goal. The big play in the drive was a 19-yard completion from Fitzpatrick to Parker.

BUFFALO 37

MIAMI 20

Wide receiver Jakeem Grant had a memorable performance, but it wasn't enough to help the Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills.

Grant returned a kickoff return for a touchdown in his second career two-touchdown game in the 37-20 loss at Hard Rock Stadium.

Grant set a Dolphins record with his fourth career kick return for a touchdown, taking a kickoff back 101 yards in the second quarter. Grant had two kickoff and two punt returns for touchdowns in his career.

He also became the fourth player in NFL history with at least two punt returns for touchdowns of 70 or more yards and two kickoff returns of 100-plus yards in his first four seasons.

Grant's second touchdown was a 7-yard run in the fourth quarter after he took a handoff from running back Kalen Ballage, who was the quarterback in the Wildcat formation. Later in the fourth quarter, Grant had a 50-yard kickoff return.

Ballage scored his third touchdown of the season with a 3-yard run as part of a wild second quarter to complete the Dolphins scoring. Buffalo outscored the Dolphins 17-14 in that quarter to take a 23-14 lead into halftime.

Wide receiver DeVante Parker became the first Dolphins player in 2019 to reach 100 receiving yards, finishing with 135 yards on seven receptions. His game was highlighted by catches of 50 and 45 yards.

Buffalo quarterback Josh Allen threw three touchdown passes, including two to Homestead High product John Brown, and ran for another. Kicker Stephen Hauschka made three field goals.

The Dolphins fought back after falling behind 16-0, thanks to a couple of big plays.

The first was Ryan Fitzpatrick's 50-yard completion to Parker to the Buffalo 12-yard line to set up Ballage's touchdown run.

Kicker Jason Sanders then perfectly executed an outside kick to give the Dolphins the ball again, but on first-and-10 from the Miami 47, Allen Hurns mis-handled a perfectly thrown pass by Fitzpatrick and Buffalo recovered the fumble after challenging an initial ruling of incomplete pass.

Buffalo then drove 75 yards to increase its lead to 23-7 on Allen's 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Dawson Knox before Grant answered with his record-setting touchdown.

Buffalo increased its lead to 30-14 in the third quarter when Allen scored on a 7-yard scramble to the corner of the end zone.

CLEVELAND 41

The Dolphins broke through in a couple of ways against the Cleveland Browns, though it did not help produce a victory at FirstEnergy Stadium.

The Dolphins scored their first two third-quarter touchdowns of the season, including the first touchdown of tight end Mike Gesicki's NFL career, in their 41-24 loss.

It was a valiant comeback effort by the Dolphins, who trailed 28-0 until the final play of the first half.

On his 37th birthday, Ryan Fitzpatrick threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score for the Dolphins. His second touchdown, a 19-yard hook-up with Allen Hurns in the final minute, was the 200th of his career.

Jason Sanders kicked a 36-yard field goal and two extra points to account for the rest of the Dolphins' scoring.

Penalties hurt the Dolphins, particularly on defense. After being penalized six or fewer times the previous nine games, they were penalized eight times for a season-high 94 yards.

Baker Mayfield threw three touchdown passes for Cleveland, including two to former Dolphins wide receiver Jarvis Landry. The other went to Odell Beckham Jr. and Kareem Hunt and Nick Chubb had touchdown runs.

The Dolphins' first third-quarter touchdown of the season came after cornerback Ryan Lewis intercepted a Mayfield pass that was thrown behind Beckham, who tipped it up in the air.

The touchdown drive was kept alive by two third-down conversions, one on a 3-yard run by Kalen Ballage out of the Wildcat formation and the other on a 22-yard completion to DeVante Parker. It was capped by Fitzpatrick's 11-yard TD pass to Gesicki.

After a missed field goal attempt by Cleveland, the Dolphins marched 64 yards for their second touchdown, that one coming on Fitzpatrick's 8-yard scramble on third-and-goal.

Cleveland answered with two fourth-quarter field goals to make it 34-17, while the Dolphins offense couldn't produce any more points until that late TD pass to Hurns.

The Dolphins used some great individual performances and one play for the ages to come up with their third victory of the season.

The Dolphins scored 23 consecutive points in the second half to overcome a 28-14 deficit and defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 37-31 at Hard Rock Stadium.

Quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick passed for a season-high 365 yards and three touchdowns, DeVante Parker set a career high with 159 receiving yards and Mike Gesicki had another big performance in a victory highlighted by one of the greatest trick plays in Dolphins history.

Punter Matt Haack threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to kicker Jason Sanders on a fourth-and-goal after taking a snap in shotgun formation as the only player in the pocket behind center Daniel Kilgore, as four players lined up far to the right and five were lined up wide to the left.

After taking the snap, Haack started running to his left, while Sanders snuck behind Eagles defenders from left to right. With Eagles players closing in on him, Haack pitched the ball to Sanders, who caught it while kneeling and then fell over backward.

The play, one of the most creative in Dolphins history and dubbed "Mountaineer Shot," made Sanders the first NFL kicker in the NFL to catch a touchdown pass since 1977 when Jim Turner had a 25-yard reception for the Denver Broncos. After the season, it was named the NFL's Bridgestone Play of the Year.

The Dolphins took the lead for good on Patrick Laird's 4-yard run in the fourth quarter, after which he caught a two-point conversion attempt pass to make it 34-28.

Sanders' 51-yard field goal with 3:37 left gave the Dolphins a nine-point cushion that all but clinched the victory for the Dolphins.

Eagles kicker Jake Elliott made his third field goal of the game with 1:51 left in regulation, but Dolphins returner Marcus Sherels recovered the ensuing onside kick, and Chris Lammons intercepted Carson Wentz's Hail Mary in the end zone on the final play.

Two of Fitzpatrick's touchdown passes went to Parker, the first one a magnificent 43-yard play in the first quarter.

Parker's score came on a fourth-and-4 when he out-jumped Eagles cornerback Ronald Darby to come down with a high Fitzpatrick pass down the left sideline, and then managed to keep his feet in bounds for the final 20 yards to the end zone.

Jason Sanders and Ryan Fitzpatrick both set franchise records in a last-second loss against the New York Jets.

Sam Ficken kicked a 44-yard field goal on the last play of regulation to give the Jets a 22-21 victory and end the Dolphins' four-game winning streak in the series.

The kick came after Sanders gave the Dolphins a 21-19 lead with his seventh field goal, a 37-yard kick that broke the previous mark of six set in 1999 by Olindo Mare against the New England Patriots.

Sanders also made field goals of 22, 25, 28, 31, 53 and 47 yards to account for all the Dolphins scoring.

Fitzpatrick, meanwhile, set a franchise single-game rushing record for quarterbacks with 65 yards on eight rushing attempts. The previous mark was 59 yards and belonged to Chad Henne, who did it in the 2011 Monday night season opener against New England.

Ficken's winning kick capped a 49-yard drive that included a key replay overturn of an incomplete pass. After rookie linebacker Andrew Van Ginkel recorded his first career sack to put the Jets in a third-and-17 from the Miami 45, cornerback Nik Needham broke up a pass intended for Yncint Smith.

As the Jets lined up for their fourth-and-17, play was stopped for a review for possible defensive pass interference, and that was the final ruling, making it first-and-10 from the Dolphins 38.

Three plays later, Ficken gave the Jets the victory.

Perhaps the biggest factor in the loss for the Dolphins was the inability to convert in the red zone.

After coming in scoring touchdowns on 80 percent of their red-zone trips over the previous eight games, the Dolphins were 0-for-5 against the Jets.

After wide receivers DeVante Parker and Albert Wilson left the game with concussions, Isaiah Ford stepped up for the passing game. Ford came into the game with two career receptions before having six catches for 92 yards against the Jets.

The game-winning field goal represented the fifth lead change of the fourth quarter, as the teams traded five field goals.

Behind the passing of quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick and an opportunistic defense, the Dolphins put together a solid performance in the first half against the New York Giants at MetLife Stadium.

But they couldn't sustain it and the Giants roared back for a 36-20 victory.

The Dolphins were outscored 29-10 in the second half after they took a 10-7 lead into halftime.

Ryan Fitzpatrick passed for 201 yards in that first half, including a 20-yard touchdown to DeVante Parker. The Dolphins had 234 total yards in that first half, their highest total since an October 2015 game against the Houston Texans.

Parker had himself another nice game, two days after signing a four-year contract extension. Parker finished with four catches for 72 yards, adding a 29-yard contested touchdown catch at the second-half two-minute warning.

In what might have been their final time facing him, the Dolphins intercepted Eli Manning three times, including twice in that first half.

The Dolphins tied their season high with the interceptions; they had first set it in their 16-12 victory at Indianapolis.

They were the first interceptions Manning had thrown against the Dolphins in four career games.

The interceptions were recorded by linebacker Vince Biegel, cornerback Nik Needham and linebacker Jerome Baker.

Biegel's pick set up Jason Sanders' 24-yard field goal that gave the Dolphins a 10-7 lead.

Baker's pick in the third quarter stopped a Giants scoring threat as it came on a third-and-1 from the Dolphins 24-yard line.

The Giants took the lead for good on the opening drive of the second half.

Giants wide receiver Darius Slayton started the drive with a 26-yard reception and ended with a 5-yard touchdown catch from Manning on first-and-goal.

The Dolphins cut their deficit to 14-13 on a 47-yard field goal by Sanders after Patrick Laird followed Baker's interception with an 18-yard run.

It went downhill after that. The Giants made it 16-13 when safety Sam Beard tackled Laird in the end zone on a running play for a safety.

On the day they honored the 1972 Dolphins, the 2019 version of the team put together the kind of performance for which that team was known for most of the game. They then had to overcome a crazy Cincinnati Bengals comeback to pull out a dramatic 38-35 victory in overtime.

Jason Sanders kicked a 37-yard field goal on the last play of overtime to give the Dolphins their fourth victory in eight games.

The winning kick came after Ryan Fitzpatrick had a 15-yard completion to Isaiah Ford on third-and-10 and followed that with completions of 14 yards to tight end Mike Gesicki and 28 yards to Ford.

Fitzpatrick, wide receiver DeVante Parker, Gesicki and defensive tackle Christian Wilkins all set or reached the milestones in the 2019 home finale.

Fitzpatrick became the first Dolphins quarterback since 2015 to throw four touchdowns and reach 3,000 passing yards on the season, the fourth time he's done that in his NFL career. Fitzpatrick became the first Dolphins quarterback to reach 3,000 yards since Ryan Tannehill did it in 2015 and finished with a season-high 419 yards.

Gesicki was on the receiving end of two of Fitzpatrick's touchdown passes for the first two-touchdown game of his young NFL career. Gesicki scored from 31 yards out in the second quarter and 13 yards in the third quarter.

Wilkins scored his first NFL touchdown when he recovered his own fumble in the end zone after catching a short pass on a second-and-goal from the 1-yard line. He added to his memorable day with a sack in the third quarter.

Parker became the first Dolphins player to reach 1,000 receiving yards since 2014 when he caught a 51-yard pass in the first quarter. That play came shortly before Parker scored his ninth touchdown of the season. He went over 100 yards for the game in the fourth quarter, the third time in six weeks he reached that plateau.

For good measure, rookie Myles Gaskin scored his first NFL touchdown on a 2-yard run that gave the Dolphins a 35-12 lead with 11:12 remaining in the fourth quarter. Gaskin left the game late in the fourth quarter with an ankle injury, after the Dolphins also lost defensive back Jamal Perry (shoulder) and linebacker Vince Biegel (elbow) to injury.

SCORING SUMMARY
	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	3	7	7	10	27
New England	0	10	7	7	24

The Dolphins saved their best for last in the 2019 season. Quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to tight end Mike Gesicki with 24 seconds left in the fourth quarter and the Dolphins shocked the New England Patriots at Gillette Stadium in their season finale.

The victory was the Dolphins' first at Gillette Stadium since 2008 and kept New England from clinching the No. 2 seed in the AFC playoffs along with the accompanying bye.

The touchdown capped a brilliant 13-play, 75-yard drive that took 3:29. The big play on the drive was a 24-yard completion to DeVante Parker, who continued his torrid late-season play.

Going most of the day against star cornerback Stephon Gilmore, Parker had 137 receiving yards on eight catches, his fourth 100-yard game of the season. Parker, who became the first Dolphins player since 2016 with back-to-back 100-yard games, ended with the sixth-highest single-season receiving total in Dolphins history with 1,202 yards.

The 137 yards represented the most for a New England opponent this season.

Fitzpatrick had another brilliant performance, completing 28 of 41 passes for 320 yards and the one touchdown for a 99.6 passer rating — despite a handful of dropped passes by Dolphins receivers.

The victory helped the Dolphins avenge their 43-0 loss against New England in Week 2 and gave them a 5-4 record over the final nine games of the 2019 season.

The game-winning touchdown came after New England had taken a 20-17 lead on a 13-yard pass from Tom Brady to running back James White; it was the only time the Dolphins trailed in the game.

The Dolphins played inspired football from the start and pulled out several gadget plays in this one.

It started with punter Matt Haack throwing a pass out of the Wildcat formation on a fourth-and-3 from the New England 45-yard line on the first drive of the game.

While that pass fell incomplete, the Dolphins were more successful later.

Isaiah Ford gained 11 yards on a run after the Dolphins lined up in the Wildcat and Albert Wilson threw a 20-yard pass to running back Patrick Laird in the third quarter off a double pass.

Wilson had another pass attempt in the fourth quarter, but that one fell incomplete.

BROTHERLY LOVE

In 2006, Renaldo Hill and Ray Hill became the third set of brothers to play for the Dolphins. Ray played with the team from 1998-2000 while Renaldo was a member of the Dolphins from 2006-08. The first set of brothers to play for the Dolphins were the Blackwoods, which included Glenn (1979-87) and Lyle (1981-86), both of whom played safety. In 2003, fullback Obafemi Ayanbadejo and linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo, each of whom were in their first seasons with the Dolphins, became the second set of brothers to play for the team in franchise history.

The Dolphins also have had two sets of brothers serve on the team's coaching staff. THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the Orange Bowl home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on Nov. 10, 2007, when it dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on Dec. 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on Jan. 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

A PERFECT MOMENT IN TIME

On January 31, 2010, prior to kickoff of the Pro Bowl game played at the stadium, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment In Time" statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The 10-foot tall bronze sculpture of Shula riding on the shoulders of Hall-of-Fame linebacker Nick Buoniconti and reserve offensive lineman Al Jenkins after winning Super Bowl VII to complete the Perfect Season was unveiled in front of the team's corporate headquarters at Gate E at the stadium. The event marked the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years. Additionally on that day, the stadium's new address was announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.

Myles Gaskin scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns, including a 6-yard run with 1:47 left, to give the Dolphins a 34-27 victory against the Atlanta Falcons in their preseason opener at Hard Rock Stadium in Brian Flores' first game as head coach.

Gaskin broke a 27-27 tie with a 6-yard run after Atlanta decided to go for the first down on a fourth-and-9 from its own 16-yard line and defensive end Dewayne Hendrix came up with his second sack of the game.

The Dolphins clinched the victory when Jalen Davis broke up a long pass on fourth down after Atlanta had moved to the Miami 25-yard line in the final minute.

Josh Rosen did not throw a touchdown pass but guided two touchdown drives that ended with 1-yard scoring runs by Kalen Ballage in the second quarter and by Mark Walton in the third.

Walton's run gave the Dolphins a 20-19 lead before quarterback Jake Rudock had the only touchdown pass of the game for the Dolphins, a 6-yard completion to Gaskin with 8:18 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Atlanta tied the score with 4:43 left with a 15-yard touchdown run by Quadree Ollison followed by a two-point conversion.

Rookie free agent wide receiver Preston Williams, had a big performance with four catches for 97 yards.

Rosen completed 13 of 20 passes for 191 yards with one interception, and a passer rating of 75.2.

Ryan Fitzpatrick started at quarterback and played two series, both of them in the first quarter. He was 2-for-5 for 20 yards, with a 52.1 passer rating.

He guided the Dolphins to a field goal drive on the opening possession of the preseason, with Jason Sanders connecting on a 48-yard field goal. Fitzpatrick's best play came when he spun to his left to avoid a pass rusher and threw a 14-yard pass to DeVante Parker while still moving to his left.

Rosen came into the game in the second quarter, and his first series ended with Ballage's 1-yard dive one play after a defensive pass interference call in the end zone gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal.

The best play of that possession came when Rosen completed a 16-yard pass to Williams while he was being dragged down by a Falcons defender.

The Dolphins offense saved its best for last against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, but couldn't hang on in the end.

Matt Gay kicked a 48-yard field goal with six seconds left to give the Bucs a 16-14 victory at Raymond James Stadium in a game that featured little offense until a late flurry.

Tampa Bay's winning kick came after quarterback Jake Rudock threw an 8-yard touchdown pass to running back Patrick Laird with 34 seconds left and followed it with a two-point conversion pass to Trenton Irwin to give the Dolphins a 14-13 lead.

Jason Sanders kicked two field goals, including a 49-yarder late in the first half, to account for the other scoring for the Dolphins, who put themselves in position to win despite being penalized 13 times for 122 yards.

Before the teams combined for 18 points in the final four minutes, this game was dominated by defense and there were several standouts for both teams.

The guys who stood out for the Dolphins included linebackers Sam Eguavoen and Jerome Baker and defensive end Charles Harris.

Eguavoen had a team-high seven tackles, including two for loss on running plays, and forced a fumble in the first half that was recovered by cornerback Eric Rowe for the only turnover of the game.

Harris had 1.5 sacks, combining with Jerome Baker to take down Jameis Winston in the first quarter and later bringing down Blaine Gabbert in the second quarter.

Baker had three tackles in the first half and preceded his half-sack with a near-miss for another one when he got to Winston very quickly but couldn't bring him down.

There weren't a lot of offensive highlights for either team until the fourth quarter. The Dolphins' longest play of the game was a 34-yard run by Kenneth Farrow late in the third quarter and the longest pass play was a 22-yard hook-up between Josh Rosen and Durham Smythe late in the second quarter.

Rosen got the start at quarterback for the Dolphins and played the entire first half. He completed 10 of 18 passes for 102 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions. He also was sacked three times.

SCORING SUMMARY
	1	2	3	4	F
Jacksonville	7	0	0	0	7
Miami	0	6	6	10	22

The Dolphins used some strong defense and impressive touchdown drives from their top two quarterbacks to defeat the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Running backs Mark Walton and Patrick Laird scored second-half touchdowns and Jason Sanders kicked three field goals in the Dolphins' 22-7 victory at Hard Rock Stadium.

Ryan Fitzpatrick started at quarterback and played into the third quarter. After a difficult first half, Fitzpatrick guided an impressive touchdown drive early in the third quarter that covered 86 yards and ended with Walton's 8-yard touchdown.

Fitzpatrick was 7-for-7 for 93 yards on the drive, including completions of 30 and 20 yards to tight ends Nick O'Leary and Mike Gesicki.

The scoring play came on a third-and-7 when nobody covered Walton into the flat and Fitzpatrick simply floated the ball to him.

Fitzpatrick finished the game 12-for-18 for 126 yards with the one touchdown and no interceptions, good for a passer rating of 105.3.

Josh Rosen came in after Fitzpatrick's touchdown pass and started his first drive at his own 1-yard line.

But Rosen directed a 99-yard drive by scrambling twice for 25 yards and throwing a 39-yard strike to Isaiah Ford after avoiding pressure and rolling to his right.

Laird had an 11-yard run on the last play of the third quarter before scoring on a 5-yard run on the fifth play of the fourth.

Most of this night, however, belonged to the Dolphins defense and special teams.

The Dolphins failed to gain a first down on their first three possessions, but the first two ended with great special teams tackles, by Chris Lammons and Cornell Armstrong.

Lammons had another big hit on special teams, and this one led to a Dolphins touchdown — though only momentarily.

That play came after Sanders' first goal. After Jaguars returner DJ Chark lost the football and fell to one knee, Lammons drilled him to jar the ball loose and it was picked up and returned into the end zone by Dolphins running back Mark Walton.

But, as with every touchdown, the play was reviewed and the officials determined that Chark was ruled down before he fumbled.

Quarterback Jake Rudock got to play the entire game against the New Orleans Saints and he made the most of the opportunity.

Rudock's performance, with the Dolphins keeping Ryan Fitzpatrick and Josh Rosen out of the game, stood out in Miami's 16-13 victory at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Rudock completed 22 of 29 passes for 229 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, finishing with an impressive passer rating of 109.7.

The touchdown pass was a 1-yard hook-up with rookie wide receiver Reece Horn on third-and-goal in the final seconds of the first half.

The touchdown capped a 75-yard drive that featured completions of 30 and 10 yards to tight end Chris Myarick, and a 20-yard connection with wide receiver Isaiah Ford.

It was one of three long scoring drive engineered by Rudock. The Dolphins had field goal drives of 83 yards in the first half and 77 yards in the second half.

Kicker Jason Sanders continued his outstanding work in the preseason, going 3-for-3 on field goal attempts with kicks of 46, 26 and 26 yards.

Another highlight for the Dolphins was the appearance of wide receiver Albert Wilson in a game for the first time since the previous October.

Wilson, whose impressive 2018 season was cut short by a hip injury, was used often on the Dolphins' opening drive as he caught two passes for 16 yards and also ran once on a jet sweep. Wilson's first catch resulted in a 2-yard loss, but he then had an 18-yard reception to convert a third-down situation.

Running back Mark Walton had an impressive first half, rushing for 52 yards on 12 carries, including a long of 14 yards.

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London (four times) and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on Dec. 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto. On Oct. 28, 2007, The Dolphins also battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America. Miami returned to Wembley on Sept. 28, 2014, and earned 38-14 win against Oakland before a crowd of 83,436 and made its third regular season appearance in London when the team fell to the New York Jets, 27-14, at Wembley Stadium on Oct. 4, 2015. The Dolphins most recent appearance was on Oct. 1, 2017 when they fell to the New Orleans Saints, 20-0, at Wembley Stadium.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

THE 200-YARD MAN

Running back Jay Ajayi rushed for 200 yards in three contests in 2016, including back-to-back games in Week 6 and Week 7, becoming one of only four players to accomplish that feat in NFL history. Two of his 200-yard games came against the Buffalo Bills while the other was vs. the Pittsburgh Steelers. Ajayi joined O.J. Simpson (1973 and 1976), Earl Campbell (1980) and Ricky Williams (2002) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 200-plus yards in consecutive games. He became one of just four NFL players to ever rush for 200 yards at least three times in the same season. The others to do so are Campbell (1980, four times), Simpson (1973, three times) and Tiki Barber (2005, three times). Ajayi rushed for 420 yards in two games against Buffalo in 2016, the fourth-highest rushing total against one team in a single season, trailing Jamal Lewis (500 vs. Cleveland in 2003), Simpson (469 vs. New England in 1973) and LaDainian Tomlinson (430 vs. Oakland in 2003).

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard individual rushing games and the team is 4-0 in those games. The combination of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick had two dual 100-yard games, both of which were during the 1971 season. Kiick (20 carries for 108 yards) and Csonka (20-103-1) first accomplished the feat on Sept. 26 at Buffalo. Csonka (20-137-2) and Kiick (17-121) again both surpassed the 100-yard mark on Oct. 24 at the N.Y. Jets. In 1974, Benny Malone (19-104-1) and Don Nottingham (10-102-1) both rushed for 100-plus yards on Oct 27 at Baltimore. In 1975, Nottingham (21-102-3) teamed with Mercury Morris (31-125) to both gain 100-yards on Oct. 5 at Green Bay.

Miami practices in California for three days (Sept. 13-15) before making the 90-minute drive to Los Angeles ahead of the game against the Chargers at the StubHub Center on Sunday.
- Sept. 17 K Cody Parkey's 54-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in regulation in Miami's 19-17 win at the Los Angeles Chargers is the longest game-winning field goal in Dolphins history and capped a perfect 4-for-4 day for the Jupiter, Florida native.
- Oct. 1 The Dolphins make their fourth regular-season visit to London and face the New Orleans Saints. Miami is 1-3 in its games in London, defeating Oakland in 2014 and falling to the N.Y. Giants in 2007, the N.Y. Jets in 2015 and Saints in 2017.
- Oct. 11 The Dolphins announce they have named Dave DeGuglielmo as senior offensive assistant. It is the second tour of duty for DeGuglielmo as he spent the 2009-11 seasons as the team's offensive line coach.
- Oct. 15 The Dolphins come back from a 17-0 deficit to defeat the defending NFC Champion Atlanta Falcons at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. It is tied for the sixth-largest comeback victory in Dolphins history and the team's largest since a 21-point comeback vs. Buffalo on Dec. 4, 2005. Additionally, the 17-point come-from-behind victory was Miami's largest comeback on the road since an 18-point comeback at the N.Y. Jets on Nov. 27, 1994, also known as the "Fake Spike" game.
- Oct. 22 Miami overcomes a 28-14 fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the N.Y. Jets at Hard Rock Stadium by a 31-28 score. It follows a game in which the Dolphins' rallied from a 17-point halftime deficit to win the previous week at Atlanta. The last time the Dolphins won consecutive games trailing by 14-plus points in a second half was a three-game streak from Sept. 14-28, 1980. The Dolphins were down 14-0 and won 17-14 vs. Cincinnati on Sept. 14, trailed 17-3 and rallied back to a 20-17 win at Atlanta on Sept. 21 and down 16-0 vs. New Orleans and came back to a 21-16 win on Sept. 28.
- Nov. 5 LS John Denney plays in his 200th NFL game against the Oakland Raiders, having played in every game since making his NFL debut on Sept. 11, 2005. He becomes one of just three Dolphins to appear in 200 games with the team, joining QB Dan Marino (242) and DE Jason Taylor (204).
- Dec. 11 The Dolphins record a 27-20 win over the defending Super Bowl champion New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium. Miami holds the Patriots to zero third-down conversions (0-11). It's the first time in the Bill Belichick-era a New England offense was held without a third-down conversion. With the victory, the Dolphins defeat both Super Bowl participants from the previous season after Miami also defeated Atlanta in Week 6. The only other season the Dolphins have done this is 1993, when they beat the defending AFC champion Buffalo Bills on Sept. 26 and the Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25.
- Dec. 31 WR Jarvis Landry records nine receptions against Buffalo and totals 112 receptions for the 2017, which leads the NFL and breaks his own single-season franchise record of 110 that he set in 2015. He joins O.J. McDuffie (90 receptions in 1998) as the only Dolphins to lead the NFL in that category.

- Jan. 19 The Dolphins announce changes to their coaching staff. The team hires Dowell Loggains as offensive coordinator and Jeremiah Washburn as offensive line coach. Additionally, the following staff members have changed titles: Shawn Jefferson will be assistant head coach/offense, Ben Johnson will now serve as wide receivers coach and Clyde Christensen will be director of football and player development.
- Jan. 31 The Dolphins announce they have hired Eric Studesville as run game coordinator/running backs coach, Kris Kocurek as defensive line coach and Tony Oden as defensive backs coach.

- April 19 The Dolphins re-sign T Vernon Carey, WR Chris Chambers, DE Jeff Cross, LB/DE A.J. Duhe, P Brandon Fields and DT Paul Soliai. Each player signs a one-day contract and officially retire as members of the Dolphins. The players combined to play 46 seasons for the Dolphins, totaling 681 games played and five Pro Bowl selections.
- July 10 Six former players are named to the team's Walk of Fame this season: S Dick Anderson, WR Mark Clayton, WR Mark Duper, T Jon Giesler, LB John Offerdahl and DE/LB Jason Taylor. The six combined to earn 22 Pro Bowl selections, seven first-team All Pro nods, won seven AFC Championships and two Super Bowl titles. The group collectively played 61 seasons for the Dolphins, appearing in 828 games with 741 starts.
- Sept. 9 As a result of two separate delays due to lightning in the area, the Dolphins' 27-20 win against the Tennessee Titans at Hard Rock Stadium's official game time of seven hours and eight minutes marks the longest game in NFL history since the merger in 1970, per the Elias Sports Bureau. The previous longest game in league history was a 2013 Bears-Ravens matchup in Chicago that lasted five hours and 16 minutes. The first delay comes with 1:11 remaining in the second quarter and lasts one hour and 57 minutes. Following the conclusion of the half, both teams remain on the field for a halftime of three minutes and 30 seconds. The second delay occurs with 6:57 left in the third quarter and halts play for two hours and two minutes. Play resumes again at 6:55 p.m.
- Sept. 16 The Dolphins improve to 2-0 on the season with a 20-12 win against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium. In the game, RB Frank Gore records an 8-yard run in the third quarter to surpass Hall of Famer Curtis Martin for fourth place on the NFL all-time rushing leaders chart.
- Sept. 23 Miami's 28-20 win against the Oakland Raiders at Hard Rock Stadium improves the team's record to 3-0. In the contest, WR Albert Wilson finds a streaking WR Jakeem Grant Sr. on a trick play for a go-ahead 52-yard touchdown with 7:18 remaining in the game. The play marks the longest touchdown pass by a non-quarterback in Dolphins history. With a 74-yard touchdown reception later in the fourth quarter, Wilson becomes the first Dolphins player to throw and catch a touchdown pass in the same game was WR Mark Clayton against Buffalo in 1983. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Wilson becomes the fourth player in NFL history to record a passing and receiving touchdown of 50-plus yards in the same game. The three previous players to accomplish the feat are David Patten in 2001, Tom Tracy in 1960 and Jimmy Conzelman in 1923.
- Oct. 7 With his 70-yard punt return touchdown at the end of the first half of Miami's game at the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium, WR Jakeem Grant Sr. becomes the first player in Dolphins history to score a touchdown via reception, kickoff return and punt return in the same season. Grant returned a kickoff 102 yards against Tennessee in the season opener and had a pair of touchdown receptions, including one for 52 yards, against Oakland in Week 3. Grant also becomes the second player in league history (Dante Hall, 2003) with a 100+ yard kickoff-return touchdown, 70+ yard punt-return touchdown and 50+ yard touchdown catch in a single season.
- Oct. 14 Rookie K Jason Sanders hits a 47-yard field goal as overtime expires to give the Dolphins a 31-28 win against the Chicago Bears at Hard Rock Stadium. RB Frank Gore rushes for 101 yards and becomes just the fifth NFL player since the merger in 1970 to rush for 100+ yards at the age of 35 or older. Additionally, WR Albert Wilson catches six passes for 155 yards. Wilson tied the game twice in the fourth quarter with a pair of touchdowns – one for 43 yards and one for 75 yards. His 150 receiving yards in the fourth quarter are the third-most in the fourth quarter of an NFL game since 1991.
- Nov. 4 With a 7-yard run in the third quarter, RB Frank Gore surpasses Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders to move into sixth place in NFL history in career scrimmage yards during Miami's 13-6 win against the New York Jets at Hard Rock Stadium. He finishes the game with 20 rushing attempts for 53 yards and one reception for 6 yards, increasing his total career yards from scrimmage to 18,204.
- Dec. 9 On a thrilling final play, the Dolphins get the ball into the hands of RB Kenyan Drake, who weaves through New England defenders for 52 yards and scores the winning touchdown in a 34-33 victory against the New England Patriots at Hard Rock Stadium in a game known as the "Miami Miracle." Trailing 33-28 with 7 seconds remaining in regulation, the Dolphins have the ball at their own 31-yard line. QB Ryan Tannehill throws a pass over the middle that is caught by WR Kenny Stills, who laterals the ball to the right side of the field that is caught by WR DeVante Parker at midfield. Parker then tosses the ball to Drake, who runs the ball 52 yards for a touchdown to win the game. The total game-winning play encompasses 69 yards, which is the longest play to win an NFL game with no time remaining in the fourth quarter since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger. It is the first time in team history that the Dolphins win a regular season game with a walk-off game-winning touchdown. The play goes on to win the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year Award at the 8th Annual NFL Honors Award Show on Feb. 2, 2019.

He joins WR Andre Brown, who caught an 8-yard pass from QB Dan Marino on Sept. 10, 1989 vs. Buffalo.
- Oct. 20 QB Ryan Fitzpatrick becomes the 46th player in NFL history to pass for 30,000 yards in his career. He accomplishes the feat while completing 23-of-35 passes (65.7 pct.) for 282 yards and one touchdown against the Buffalo Bills at New Era Field.

The play, known as “Mountaineer Shot,” goes on to win the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year Award at the 9th Annual NFL Honors Award Show on Feb. 1, 2020.
- Dec. 8 K Jason Sanders boots seven field goals against the N.Y. Jets at MetLife Stadium, breaking the single-game franchise record of six set by Olindo Mare on Oct. 17, 1999 at New England. He becomes the eighth player in NFL history to kick at least seven field goals in a game.

May 4 Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the National Football League and the coach of the league's only perfect season, passes away. Born on Jan. 4, 1930 in Grand River, Ohio, Shula was 90. Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in the NFL. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He fashioned a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676). Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only perfect season in NFL annals. On July 26, 1997, Shula capped an illustrious career with a unanimous election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
DEC. 27, 1970

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM
OAKLAND, CALIF.

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24 (2 OTs)
DEC. 25, 1971

KANSAS CITY MUNICIPAL STADIUM
KANSAS CITY, MO.

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0
JAN. 2, 1972

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3
JAN. 16, 1972

TULANE STADIUM
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the touchdown.

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14
DEC. 24, 1972

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
DEC. 31, 1972

THREE RIVERS STADIUM
PITTSBURGH, PA.

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2 1/2 minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
JAN. 14, 1973

MEMORIAL COLISEUM
LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated Washington, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. Washington finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
DEC. 30, 1973

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7
JAN. 13, 1974

RICE STADIUM
HOUSTON, TEXAS

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26
DEC. 21, 1974

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM
OAKLAND, CALIF.

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9
DEC. 24, 1978

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. 1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT) JAN. 2, 1982

ORANGE BOWL MIAMI, FLA.

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (FIRST ROUND)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13
JAN. 8, 1983

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (SECOND ROUND)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13
JAN. 16, 1983

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0

JAN. 23, 1983

ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI, FLA.

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17
JAN. 30, 1983

ROSE BOWL
PASADENA, CALIF.

Washington, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – Washington took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20
DEC. 31, 1983

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
DEC. 29, 1984

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
JAN. 20, 1985

STANFORD STADIUM
PALO ALTO, CALIF.

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21

JAN. 4, 1986

ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI, FLA.

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
JAN. 12, 1986

ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA.

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

MIAMI 17, KANSAS CITY 16
JAN. 5, 1991

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on Dec. 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, MIAMI 34

JAN. 12, 1991

RICH STADIUM

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SAN DIEGO 0
JAN. 10, 1993

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

BUFFALO 29, MIAMI 10
JAN. 7, 1993

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 17
DEC. 31, 1994

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 22, MIAMI 21
JAN. 8, 1995

JACK MURPHY STADIUM
SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 37, MIAMI 22
DEC. 30, 1995

RICH STADIUM
ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set an NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

NEW ENGLAND 17, MIAMI 3
DEC. 28, 1997

FOXBORO STADIUM
FOXBORO, MASS.

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, BUFFALO 17
JAN. 2, 1999

PRO PLAYER STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

MIAMI 20, SEATTLE 17
JAN. 9, 2000

KINGDOME
SEATTLE, WASH.

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Atruy Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

JACKSONVILLE 62, MIAMI 7
JAN. 15, 2000

ALLTELL STADIUM
JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike

Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovan Darius recovered an Atry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

MIAMI 23, INDIANAPOLIS 17 (OT)
DEC. 30, 2000

PRO PLAYER STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the first round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2001 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BALTIMORE 20, MIAMI 3
JAN. 13, 2002

PRO PLAYER STADIUM
MIAMI, FLA.

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grbac hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

PITTSBURGH 30, MIAMI 12
JAN. 8, 2017

HEINZ FIELD
PITTSBURGH, PA.

The Dolphins' magical 2016 season came to a disappointing end. The Dolphins quickly fell behind 14-0 and could never recover in a 30-12 loss against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a first-round playoff game at Heinz Field. Antonio Brown and Le'Veon Bell each scored two touchdowns for the Steelers, who racked up 219 yards of offense in the first quarter alone. Brown ended Pittsburgh's first two possessions with touchdown catches of 50 and 69 yards. Bell set a Steelers postseason record with 169 rushing yards. Damien Williams scored the Dolphins' only touchdown on a 4-yard reception with 5:57 left in regulation. Andrew Franks kicked two first-half field goals. The Dolphins committed turnovers on three consecutive possessions, spanning the second and third quarters, the last of which led to Bell's second touchdown after cornerback Tony Lippett tried to time a jump over the center to block a field goal attempt but instead was offside to give Pittsburgh a first down. Matt Moore, making his fourth consecutive start in place of an injured Ryan Tannehill, completed 29 of 36 passes for 289 yards and one touchdown, but he lost two fumbles and threw an interception. Moore also was sacked five times after being sacked only once in his three starts in the regular season. He left the game for one play in the second quarter after taking a big hit from linebacker Bud Dupree that drew a roughing-the-passer penalty but returned to finish the game. After burning the Steelers for 204 rushing yards in the Dolphins' 30-15 victory at Hard Rock Stadium on Oct. 16, Jay Ajayi was held to only 33 yards on 16 rushing attempts Sunday before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the fourth quarter.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

INDUCTED: 1997 // BORN: 1/4/30 // DIED: 5/4/20
COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57 // ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
HEAD COACH: 1963-95 // DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DAVID AND MIKE SHULA

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on Jan. 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For 25 years, from Jan. 5, 1996 until his death in 2020, Shula served as Vice Chairman of the Miami Dolphins. In total, he spent 50 seasons with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owned a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and was the winningest coach in NFL history.

On Nov. 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula, Halas and New England's Bill Belichick are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on Sept. 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat. Belichick did it in 25 years.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He was one of only two coaches (along with Belichick) to appear in six or more Super Bowls, and was one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least 10 games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than 10 wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on Feb. 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over Washington in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span, he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day. Shula was one of three individuals (along with Al Davis and Edward DeBartolo) to present five or more inductees into the Hall.

On Nov. 20, 2019, Shula was named as a coach on the National Football League's 100th Anniversary All-Time Team.

Shula was further honored on Jan. 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year Award" – which honors high school football coaches that display the integrity, achievement and leadership that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career. The Don Shula Award winner is recognized at the Super Bowl and receives $10,000 and his high school football program is awarded $15,000.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The 10-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Hard Rock Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always gave considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula was also active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helped fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On Sept. 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personified those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP.

Shula's oldest son, David, 61, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played David Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. David currently is an assistant coach at Dartmouth. His son, Chris, is the outside linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Rams, becoming a third-generation Shula to coach in the NFL, following his father and grandfather.

Shula's other son, Mike, 55, currently is in his first season as quarterbacks coach with the Denver Broncos. He spent the previous two seasons (2018-19) as offensive coordinator for the New York Giants. Previously, he spent seven years with the Carolina Panthers as the team's offensive coordinator (2013-17) and quarterbacks coach (2011-12). He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the QB coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

His widow, Mary Anne, serves as Chairman of the Board for Shula Steak Houses, LLLP, and continues to be very active in charitable and community affairs. The couple visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on Oct. 15, 1993.

Shula passed away on May 4, 2020, at the age of 90. The Dolphins organization will honor his memory with a series of events, including a public memorial at Hard Rock Stadium, once it is deemed safe for large-scale events.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on Nov. 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On Dec. 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on Sept. 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on Dec. 27, 1992.

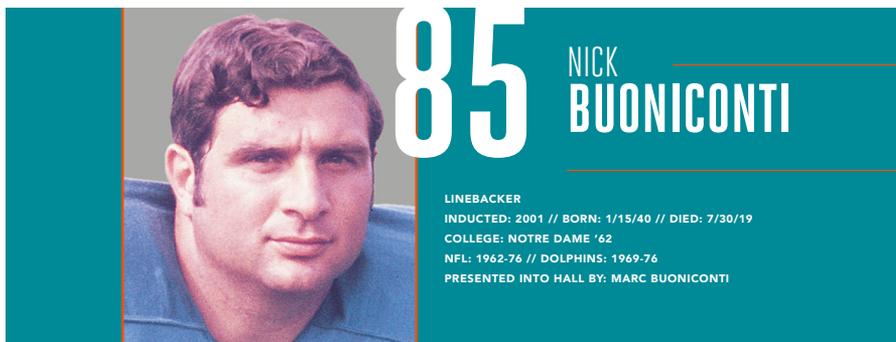

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sept. 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curly Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins, the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

Until Jason Taylor was elected in 2017, Buoniconti was the only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame. He joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first-team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

Buoniconti passed away on July 30, 2019. The Dolphins honored the memory of him and fellow Hall of Famer Jim Langer – who also passed away in 2019 – with a helmet sticker that featured their initials. It marked the first time the Dolphins honored the passing of an alumnus with a helmet sticker.

Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 avg.) and 53 touchdowns. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. He was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards (4.4 avg.) and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Csonka was the first (and currently one of three) running back to gain 100-plus rushing yards in consecutive Super Bowls and his total of 297 rushing yards is the second-most in the history of the Super Bowl, behind only Franco Harris (354 yards). Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins Coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 avg.) and 64 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, he ranked No. 5 in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on Dec. 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

BOB GRIESE

QUARTERBACK

INDUCTED: 1990 // BORN: 2/3/45 // COLLEGE: PURDUE '67

NFL: 1967-80 // DOLPHINS: 1967-80

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

He was unquestionably the “thinking man’s quarterback.” Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphins offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL’s 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team’s annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins’ Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins’ Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. On June 16, 2015, a street next to Griese’s high school stadium in Evansville, Indiana, was re-named “Bob Griese Pass” in his honor. And in 2015, he was voted as one of the Dolphins’ all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise’s 50th season celebration.

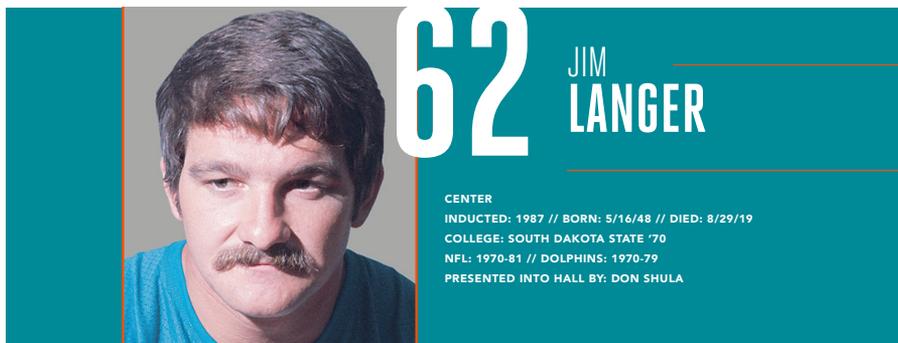

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. “Cornerstone of the franchise,” Dolphins founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team’s Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

“He’s probably the most unselfish guy I’ve ever been around,” Shula said. “He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That’s just his makeup.”

62 JIM LANGER

CENTER

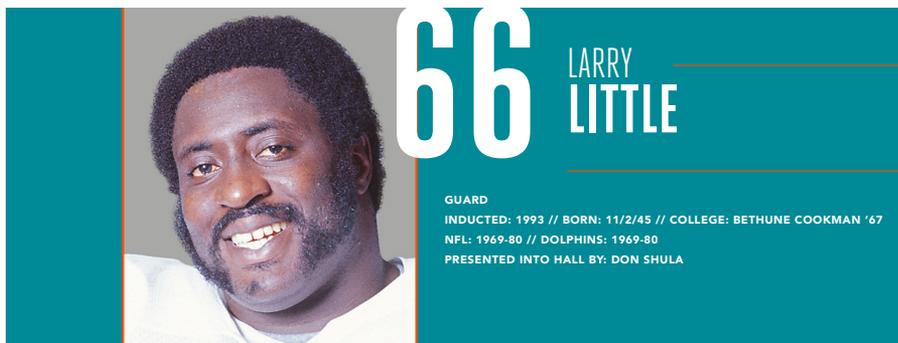

INDUCTED: 1987 // BORN: 5/16/48 // DIED: 8/29/19

COLLEGE: SOUTH DAKOTA STATE '70

NFL: 1970-81 // DOLPHINS: 1970-79

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request, Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015. Langer passed away on Aug. 29, 2019. The Dolphins honored the memory of him and fellow Hall of Famer Nick Buoniconti – who also passed away in 2019 – with a helmet sticker that featured their initials. It marked the first time the Dolphins honored the passing of an alumnus with a helmet sticker.

GUARD

INDUCTED: 1993 // BORN: 11/2/45 // COLLEGE: BETHUNE COOKMAN '67

NFL: 1969-80 // DOLPHINS: 1969-80

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

A rumbling giant in the Dolphins' trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports

Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On Dec. 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium and was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011. He was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

CENTER

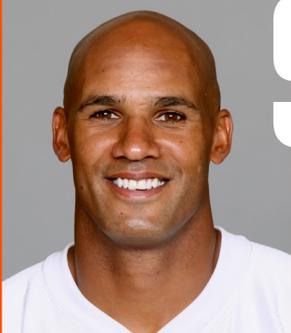

INDUCTED: 1998 // BORN: 11/20/57 // COLLEGE: ALABAMA '80

NFL: 1980-87 // DOLPHINS: 1980-87

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: DON SHULA

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral collateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on Dec. 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an assistant offensive line coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. Stephenson was selected to the NFL 100 All-Time Team and was named as the starting center on the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Dec. 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphins Honor Roll at Hard Rock Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011 and was voted as one of the Dolphins' all-time top 50 players, as part of the franchise's 50th season celebration in 2015.

DOLPHINS: 2002

A fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1987 Supplemental Draft, Cris Carter developed into one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons as a member of the Eagles (1987-1989) and then played with the Minnesota Vikings for 12 years (1990-2001), where he helped re-write the team's record book.

Carter finished his NFL career as a member of the Miami Dolphins, coming out of retirement to sign with Miami as a free agent on Oct. 21, 2002. He remained on the team's roster until the conclusion of the season, playing in five games with the Dolphins, including one start, and recorded eight catches for 66 yards (8.3 avg.) and one touchdown. He also was inactive for four games during that span due to a kidney injury.

At the time of his retirement, Carter ranked No. 2 in NFL history in receptions and receiving touchdowns (behind Jerry Rice) and was fourth in reception yardage. JIMMY JOHNSON

COACH/EXECUTIVE

NFL CAREER: 1989-93, 1996-99

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: TROY AIKMAN

YEAR INDUCTED: 2020

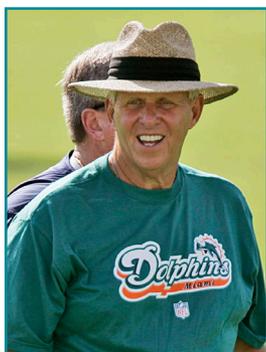

DOLPHINS: 1996-99

Jimmy Johnson's NFL coaching career included five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1989-93), with whom he won two Super Bowl titles, and four years with the Miami Dolphins (1996-99).

In those four seasons in Miami, the Dolphins went to the playoffs three times and won two postseason games, defeating the Buffalo Bills in the 1998 season and the Seattle Seahawks the following year. Johnson's record of 36-28 (.563) is third-best in terms of winning percentage among the Dolphins' 13 head coaches, behind only Shula's .659 and the .575 posted by Johnson's successor, Dave Wannstedt.

Johnson also was instrumental in putting together one of the top defenses in the NFL, with the draft selections of Zach Thomas in 1996, Sam Madison and Jason Taylor in 1997 and Patrick Surtain in 1998. Taylor was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2018 and Thomas was a finalist for the Class of 2020. With those four players leading the way, the Dolphins defenses were third and fifth in fewest yards allowed in Johnson's final two years and in the top 10 the following five seasons.

Twenty-three years after Don Shula was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Johnson joined him and made the Dolphins one of six franchises with two modern-era coaches in the Hall of Fame, along with Washington, Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts, Dallas Cowboys, Pittsburgh Steelers and the Los Angeles Rams.

BILL PARCELLS

COACH/EXECUTIVE

NFL CAREER: 1983-90, 1993-99, 2003-06, 2008-10

PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: GEORGE MARTIN

YEAR INDUCTED: 2013

DOLPHINS: 2008-10

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East title and a playoff berth. The team's 10-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

During his 20-year career, he recorded 56.5 sacks along with 18 Interceptions and was known for his leadership and his passionate style of play.

Seau was acquired by the Dolphins on April 16, 2003 from the Chargers in exchange for a 2004 fifth-round draft choice. During his tenure in Miami, Seau teamed with Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas and others to form the nucleus of one the strongest defensive units in the NFL. In 2003, his first season with the Dolphins, he started 15 games and finished second on the team with 133 tackles, the ninth time in his career he recorded 100 or more tackles in a season. He also added three sacks. He proved to be a key addition to a defense that allowed only 90.8 yards rushing per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Dolphins became the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher. In 2004 he started the first eight games of the season, recording 68 tackles and a sack before being placed on injured reserve with a torn right pectoral muscle he injured on Nov. 1 at the New York Jets. At the time of the injury he was averaging eight tackles a game and ranked second on the team in tackles. Limited by injuries in 2005, Seau only played in seven games with the Dolphins (including five starts) and had 43 tackles and one sack before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24 with an Achilles tendon injury. He was released by Miami on March 6, 2006. In two of his three years with the Dolphins (2003-04) his teammates voted him the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

During his 13 years in San Diego (1990-2002), Seau was voted to 12 consecutive Pro Bowls, becoming just the fourth player since 1970 to be selected 10 or more straight times to the Pro Bowl. He recorded 100 or more tackles in eight of his seasons in San Diego and was selected the Chargers' Most Valuable Player six times. Seau was selected to the NFL 100 All-Time Team in 2019. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by UPI and also was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1990s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 1994 he led the Chargers to a berth in Super Bowl XXIX, the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance, and in the AFC Championship Game that season against the Pittsburgh Steelers he recorded 16 tackles despite playing with a pinched nerve in his neck. That same year he was named the NFL Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts, and he was a constant and active contributor to his community throughout his career.

Following his tenure in Miami, Seau spent his final four seasons (2006-09) in the league with the New England Patriots. In 2007, he recorded 74 tackles and 3.5 while playing in all 16 games for Patriots' AFC Championship team that went undefeated in the regular season before losing to the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII. Seau retired following his final season with the Patriots in 2009, and he died on May 2, 2012 in San Diego at the age of 43. He was elected to the Hall of Fame on Jan. 31, 2015 in his first year of eligibility.

A native of San Diego, Seau played collegiately at the University of Southern California (USC).

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK
NFL CAREER: 1988-2000
PRESENTED INTO HALL BY: MARV LEVY

YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
DOLPHINS: 2000

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries (4.9 avg.) and caught 16 passes for 117 yards (7.3 avg.) and a touchdown. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on Nov. 12, 2000.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts (4.2 avg.), and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards (9.4 avg.) and 23 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, his rushing yardage total ranked ninth in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage were sixth-most and fifth among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on Feb. 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

GEORGE YOUNG

COACH/EXECUTIVE
NFL CAREER: 1968-2001

YEAR INDUCTED: 2020
DOLPHINS: 1975-78

George Young spent 30 years in the NFL as an assistant coach, director of personnel, general manager and senior vice president of football operations for the league.

Young got his start in the NFL with the Baltimore Colts in 1968, when he began scouting college prospects for then-head coach Don Shula. He eventually rose to the position of director of player personnel. Young was named the Colts' offensive line coach three games into the 1970 season; about three months later, Baltimore would top the Dallas Cowboys, 16-13, to claim Super Bowl V.

Young served as director of personnel and pro scouting for the Miami Dolphins from 1975-78. During that time, Young worked with Bobby Beathard, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame as a contributor in 2018.

In Young's four years in Miami, the Dolphins used the draft to acquire future Pro Bowl selections Bob Baumhower, A.J. Duhe, Kim Bokamper and Doug Betters, who would be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1983. The Dolphins had a 37-21 record during Young's four seasons with the team.

After his Dolphins career, Young served as general manager of the New York Giants from 1979-97 and as senior vice president of football operations with the National Football League from 1998-2001. During Young's tenure, the Giants earned eight playoff berths, highlighted by victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV, and compiled an overall record of 155-139-2. He was named NFL Executive of the Year a record five times: in 1984, 1986, 1990, 1993, and 1997. Young also served as co-chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee, along with Shula.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula had 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This total of 15 is the fourth-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who had 25 players enshrined, Vince Lombardi, who had 18 players inducted, and Paul Brown, who had 17 players enshrined. Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was head coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95). Additionally, Shula coached three quarterbacks (John Unitas, Bob Griese and Dan Marino) who would go on to the Hall of Fame, tying Halas (Paddy Driscoll, Sid Luckman and George Blanda) for the most at that position.

Hall of Famers who played under Shula in Baltimore include DE Gino Marchetti (Class of 1972), WR Raymond Berry (1973), OT Jim Parker (1973), RB Lenny Moore (1975), QB Unitas (1979), LB Ted Hendricks (1990) and TE John Mackey (1992).

The Dolphins contingent includes WR Paul Warfield (1983), FB Larry Csonka (1987), Jim Langer (1987), Griese (1990), G Larry Little (1993), C Dwight Stephenson (1998), LB Nick Buoniconti (2001) and Marino (2005).

#12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

Dan Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphins uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, Sept. 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game. He was also inducted into the Dolphins Honor Roll on that date. Marino was further honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975.

For a full bio of Marino, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

#39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears on Dec. 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

In 2016, the Miami Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM, with the station becoming the official English flagship radio partner of the franchise. In addition, all Dolphins games are simulcast on KISS 99.9 FM "South Florida's NEW Country" and feature expanded pre-, halftime and postgame shows. The games also can be heard on Dolphins.com and throughout South and Central Florida on a variety of stations that make up the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

The Dolphins previously had their games broadcast on Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM during the 1997-2004 and 2007-09 seasons.

As part of the agreement, Sportsradio 560 WQAM has the English radio broadcast rights for all preseason, regular season and playoff games. Dolphins fans who tune into Miami's Sportsradio 560 WQAM have the opportunity to listen to live broadcasts of Head Coach Brian Flores's day-after-game press conferences and "Dolphins Friday," a day of Dolphins-centric content on the station featuring interviews with players, coaches and team executives. Additionally, CBS Radio Miami promotes Miami Dolphins Foundation and community initiatives across multiple platforms.

The English radio broadcast team on Sportsradio 560 WQAM consists of former wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo handling the play-by-play duties with former tight end Joe Rose and Hall of Fame defensive end Jason Taylor providing the game analysis. Fellow alumnus Kim Bokamper will join the broadcast team giving perspective on the on-field action and Hall of Fame quarterback Bob Griese will contribute to additional Dolphins platforms, including the pregame broadcast, The Audible and The Fish Tank.

Univision Deportes Radio 1140 AM is the Dolphins official Spanish radio broadcast partner for all preseason, regular season and playoff games, with Roly Martin handling the play-by-play and Eduardo Martell providing the game analysis. WQBA 1140 AM additionally airs a pregame show and postgame show.
