

Minnesota Vikings 2009 TEAM GUIDE

MINNESOTA VIKINGS
2009

GREAT TASTE FOR GREAT FANS.

THE OFFICIAL BEER SPONSOR OF THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS.

VIKINGS STEP UP COMMITMENT TO ENVIRONMENT

In conjunction with the NFL's Green Team, the Vikings will be unveiling an organization-wide initiative this fall dedicated to helping sustain our environment and using renewable energy resources.

The Minnesota Vikings are committed to developing sustainable business practices, utilizing renewable energy sources and implementing environmentally-conscious programs in an effort to lessen our tax on the environment and improve the quality of life in Vikings Country. It is our corporate responsibility as a global citizen to:

- Accept our responsibility to help preserve and replenish our environment
- Educate ourselves and others on the environmental issues we are facing
- Evaluate our consumption of natural resources and energy expenditures
- Develop reasonable alternatives and solutions to bring about a positive change to our impact on the environment

Renewable/Sustainable Stadium Proposal

One goal behind the Vikings new stadium proposal is to create an environmentally-responsible venue by leveraging existing infrastructure and land, implementing green initiatives and becoming the first LEED-certified NFL stadium. By selecting the current Metrodome site, existing materials can be reused, as can current transportation systems and utility infrastructure. Two opportunities for the new stadium include:

- Re-using the crushed concrete from the Metrodome alone would save nearly 10,000 truckloads of new concrete.
- The unique angle of the proposed retractable roof will be designed to accommodate future Photovoltaic technology (solar panels).

Modular Green Roof at Winter Park

Plastic trays with plants have been placed in front of the air conditioning intake on top of the Winter Park practice facility as an energy-saving measure. The plants create a cooler environment on the roof so that the air conditioning intake temperature in the summer months is around 80 degrees instead of the normal 120 degrees it is without the plants. The result is less energy used during the months when the facility needs to be cooled, which in turn decreases costs and protects the environment.

2009 Media Guide Page Reduction

The 2009 Minnesota Vikings Media Guide is 52 less pages than last year's guide and the Vikings printed 3,000 fewer media guides this year. The net result is 156,000 fewer pages and 78,000 fewer sheets of paper used.

Zero-Waste Playground Build

The Vikings helped take some "green" ideas off site with the 4th Annual Minnesota Vikings Playground Build in June, 2009. With the help of Toro Company and KaBOOM!, the Vikings participated in a zero-waste playground build at Crestview Elementary School in Brooklyn Park. All materials from the old playground were reused or recycled and all unused material during the build was also recycled.

Waste-Reduction Recycling Program

A recycling program has been instituted at Winter Park that has reduced waste output by 67 percent.

New Lighting System

T5 fluorescent lights have replaced the metal-halide lights used at the facility since 1991, resulting in a 30 percent decrease in energy costs. The new lights also have increased brightness and longevity.

Use of Sustainable Earth Cleaning Products

Corporate Express, the Vikings cleaning products provider, offers friendly commercial cleaning products that provide superior performance. Many of the products are certified by the EPA and Green Seal.

Sustainable Construction Projects and Reduced-Flow Plumbing Fixtures at Winter Park

There is a focus on using recycled materials for new construction projects, reduced-flow plumbing fixtures and energy-efficient lighting. The players' clubhouse area and athletic training area were renovated with reduced-flow plumbing fixtures in 2008.

Look for an announcement during 2009 about the Vikings organization-wide green initiative. In addition to instituting many environmentally-sensitive programs internally, the Vikings plan to dedicate a week during the football season to publicly highlight the importance of protecting the environment and ensuring Minnesota's outstanding quality of life.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS

KICKOFF

VIKINGS STADIUM VISION

ELEMENTS OF THE PROPOSED NEW STADIUM INCLUDE:

- 65,000 seats, expandable to 72,000 for Super Bowl and other events
- Up to 7,500 club seats and up to 150 private box suites
- 20,000 parking spaces within one-quarter mile of the new stadium
- Vikings Game Day Plaza comprising approximately 144,000 square feet of land area
- Vikings Hall of Fame and Vikings Team Store

STADIUM CONSTRUCTION BENEFITS ECONOMY DURING TOUGH ECONOMIC TIMES

Presented to the House Local Government Committee on 2/23/09

In February 2009, the MSFC released the findings of a jobs and economic impact analysis by Conventions, Sports & Leisure, International (CSL), which showed the construction and operation of a new stadium and the Minnesota Vikings franchise provides significant economic benefits to the State of Minnesota.

Key findings of the CSL report included:

- The construction of a new stadium will support approximately 13,400 jobs, including 8,000 construction and trades workers that would be utilized during the building process.
- Upon completion of the stadium, 3,400 full and part-time jobs will be supported by the economic activity generated by a new stadium and the Vikings.
- The economic activity from a new stadium will generate over $32 million per year in tax revenue, which includes the $18 million annually generated by the Vikings. In 2008, the Vikings paid more than $18 million in taxes in Minnesota, through property, income and sales taxes.

VIKINGS STADIUM VISION

As committed as the Vikings are to bringing a Super Bowl championship to the fans and to the State, the franchise is equally devoted to securing a long-term home for the team in Minnesota. The Vikings are one of the few remaining NFL franchises without a stadium solution, but the team is collaborating with the State Legislature, the Governor and local leaders to resolve this issue. With just 20 games remaining in the Metrodome after the 2009 season and a lease set to expire following the 2011 season, the Vikings have stepped up their dialogue with State leaders. While current economic conditions present a challenge, those conversations are set to continue this fall in order to find a solution during the 2010 Legislative Session.

Working with the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission (MSFC), the Vikings are moving forward on a public-private partnership that will open a new, multi-purpose stadium on the current Metrodome site. The ultimate goal is to build the "best stadium at the lowest cost," and in so doing, take advantage of the existing infrastructure at the site and utilize green initiatives to deliver a facility that performs with renewable and sustainable energy.

"The Metrodome site makes great sense for a new stadium because the necessary infrastructure is already in place," Vikings Owner/Chairman Zygi Wilf said. "However, while Minneapolis is the proposed location for this stadium, the facility will be a statewide asset used for events that student-athletes and fans from across Minnesota will attend and benefit from."

Vikings ownership has also pledged to invest hundreds of millions in private dollars for a new facility and to rebuild the area around the current Metrodome with residences, office buildings, shops and restaurants. By leveraging this private investment, the state will experience a significant economic stimulus.

Building a new home for Vikings football will dramatically improve the fan experience at games, help the franchise meet basic NFL program requirements, and generate revenue to keep the team competitive over the long term. Addressing the issue now will also give the State its only major multi-use facility to be used year-round, keep the Vikings in Minnesota for the next generation and provide much-needed employment and economic activity.

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

Much work remains between now and the 2010 Legislative Session, and the Vikings need your help. You can help by:

- Joining Minnesota Momentum, the grassroots coalition of stadium supporters (www.minnesotamomentum.com).
- Contacting your elected officials and encouraging them to support a stadium solution in 2010.

VIKINGS CHILDREN'S FUND

There have been many changes on and off the field for the Minnesota Vikings since the team's inception, but the organization's steadfast commitment to children has always remained the same.

In light of the organization's commitment to community, the Vikings Children's Fund (VCF) was established in 1978 and has since raised nearly $8 million to give back to those in need. The VCF is a means for Vikings players, coaches, cheerleaders, staff and their families to focus their community support to help children. The VCF distributes grants to health, education and family services organizations benefiting children.

In 2008 the VCF provided more than 120 grants to nonprofit organizations, including $160,000 to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. In total, the VCF has donated more than $4.5 million to support the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics, which boasts highly-skilled pediatricians and excels in break-through research.

To learn more about the VCF - or to make a donation - please call Patrick Leopold at (952) 828-6500. If your charitable organization is interested in applying for a VCF grant, log on to Vikings.com to download a grant application form. Grant applications need to be mailed by the end of March each year for fall awards.

VIKING CHILDREN'S FUND FACTS AND FIGURES

- The University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics has been awarded over $4.5 million to support research fighting childhood diseases.
- The Vikings Children's Fund supported over 50 organizations in 2008.
- The Vikings Children's Fund has supported over 300 child-related organizations across Vikings country since beginning in 1978.

The Vikings have a long-standing tradition of cooperation and progress in the areas of child and family health with the University of Minnesota. The Vikings donation to the Department of Pediatrics in 2008 was a signature moment for the Vikings Children's Fund and the University.

VIKINGS YOUTH FOOTBALL

MINNESOTA VIKINGS YOUTH ADVISORY BOARD:

Rufus Bess- Head Coach Park Center High and Vikings alumni;
 Pete Globa- USA Football; Mike Grant- Head Coach Eden Prairie High;
 E.J. Henderson- Vikings LB; Mimi Kalb- Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board;

 Dave Nelson- Head Coach Minnetonka High; Jeff Robinson- Vikings Pro Scout;
 Bob Smith- St. Paul Municipal Athletics; Ron Stolski- Head Coach Brainerd High;
 Ray Tri- Head Coach Eden Valley-Watkins.

The Vikings Youth Football mission statement is to grow, support and promote youth football through fair play, health/wellness and academics and we did just that in 2008. Through several innovative programs, the Vikings reached youngsters competing in our great game and encouraged them to be their best on and off the field. Vikings Youth Football connects the community through the High School Player Development 7-on-7 Tournament, Youth Football Camps, USA Football Coaching School, equipment and field grants, the Vikings All-State Football Team and Minnesota Mr. Football, the High School Coach of the Week Program and the High School Coach of the Year.

CLOCKWISE: The Vikings recognized some of the top prep players in the state during the Mr. Minnesota Football awards ceremony... The Vikings of Tomorrow program gives youth football teams from across the region the chance to play on the same field as the Vikings...Lakeville South High School's squad won the 2009 Vikings 7-on-7 Tournament and competed in the 16-team National 7-on-7 Tournament hosted by the Vikings in July.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS "ON THE FIELD AND IN THE COMMUNITY – YOUR SPECIAL TEAM"

The Minnesota Vikings are more than a football team. The coaches, players and staff are your neighbors. Their wives or husbands may be your co-workers. Their children attend school with your children. The Vikings are a part of our community. Many schools, hospital charities and civic groups have been impacted by player involvement, staff participation and family volunteerism.

The Vikings organization is your neighbor too, as a corporate citizen actively involved in policy and service to Minnesota. The Vikings community relations department and Vikings Children's Fund handle a broad range of requests including player appearances, in-kind donations, partnering with non-profit groups on fundraisers, the production of public service announcements and team philanthropy. Since its inception in 1978, the VCF has donated more than $4.5 million to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. The VCF has maintained a commitment to youth and families by distributing funds toward youth development, family services and education support—a total of over $8 million given back to our community.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: Ben and Abby Leber led the Vikings Victory Visits to the University of Minnesota Children's Hospital, Fairview for the 2nd straight year in 2008, joining Qwest Pioneers volunteers bringing smiles and presents to patients...Adrian Peterson hosted the Special Olympics Minnesota Punt, Pass and Kick competition at Winter Park again in May 2009, joining teammates in teaching the game and encouraging participants...Kenechi Udeze's inspirational story as he battled Leukemia and went through a bone marrow transplant during 2008 and 2009 raised awareness of the disease and helped fundraising for research. Udeze recognized local elementary school students who rallied their support through the Pennies for Patients program with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Chaska Middle School West led the state and ranked 3rd nationally with over $30,000 raised and Udeze hosted an ice cream party at Oak Point School in Eden Prairie to thank them for their work with the program.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: The Vikings You Made the Team community tour stopped in Duluth, MN to help with the dedication of a new turf field at the Duluth Heritage Sports Center with a Vikings/NFL $200,000 grassroots grant through LISC (Local Initiatives Support Corporation). The funding helped with the installation of the new field that will benefit the Boys and Girls Clubs of Duluth. The Vikings tour has reached out to fans across the state and connected with fans who normally don't see the team up close in their home towns...Vikings All-Pro Steve Hutchinson and wife, Landyn, hosted early Thanksgiving and Holiday meals and provided gifts for patients and their families at University of Minnesota Children's Hospital, Fairview. The Hutchinsons have hosted events for the past 3 holiday seasons at the hospital and hosted a fundraising golf tournament in June 2009...A contingent of Vikings, including Chris Kluwe, Garrett Mills, Charles Gordon, John Sullivan and Albert Young held an American Heart Association "What Moves U" fitness and life camp at Catholic Charities' St. Joseph's Home for Children in 2008.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: Ryan Longwell and Chris Kluge teamed up with the Radio City Rockettes and Vikings cheerleaders to host an exercise-themed assembly at Hilltop Primary School through the NFL Play 60 initiative. Play 60 is the NFL movement aimed at getting children to be active for at least 60 minutes a day... Husain Abdullah and Chad Greenway, along with their families, took part in the 2009 Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure as part of the Team Vikings contingent in the annual event at the Mall of America in Bloomington... Jim and Christa Kleinsasser co-chaired the 2009 Make-A-Wish "Wish Ball", a cause that has been special to the couple for Kleinsasser's entire Vikings career. Kleinsasser was joined by teammates and Vikings alumni, including John Randle and Chris Liwienski for the fundraiser... Sidney Rice was joined by teammates Benny Sapp, John Sullivan, Kenny Onatolu, Roderick Rogers and Fred Evans for an offseason visit to Gillette Children's Specialty Healthcare through the Children's Miracle Network.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: All-Pro Jared Allen joined fellow NFL players on a USO Tour to visit troops in Iraq and Kuwait during the 2009 offseason, a cause that hits close to home as his younger brother is a recent United State Marine Corps recruit. Allen described the event as eye-opening and life-changing...Anthony Herrera served as the Vikings spokesman in the 2008 "Tackle Influenza" initiative, a partnership the Vikings entered into in 2007 with the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. Herrera and teammates visited the Midtown YWCA as part of a trio of free flu clinics held throughout the Twin Cities metro designed to protect children and families against the illness...Several Vikings players and cheerleaders helped pack Easter baskets for families impacted by the spring flooding along the Red River in North Dakota. The Vikings teamed with The Salvation Army to deliver cheer on the holiday...The Vikings undertook their biggest Playground Build yet in 2009, constructing a new facility at Crestview Elementary School in Brooklyn Park. The team has undertaken a Playground Build each spring since 2006.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS

EXECUTIVES

OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Zygi Wilf and his partners have relied on consistency and investment in building a winner in every aspect of their 5-year ownership of the Minnesota Vikings. The Wilf family and the ownership group has worked diligently at making the Vikings an important part of the fabric of the Upper Midwest.

The Vikings are fresh off a 2008 season that saw the opening stages of the model for success that the organization has undertaken since Wilf's ownership began. The club won the NFC North Division and hosted a playoff game for the 1st time since the 2000 season. The team featured 6 players that earned Pro Bowl berths and returns each of the honorees for the 2009 season.

As the franchise enters the 2009 season, a strong foundation has been established for success on the field and with civic and corporate leadership in the community. Over the last four years, the team has enhanced its already strong reputation as an NFL leader in community relations activities and has raised its level of involvement in the region. Under the stewardship of the Wilfs, the franchise has taken strides forward on the initiative for a state-of-the-art, multi-use stadium as the centerpiece of a downtown Minneapolis redevelopment. The Vikings ownership is committed to investing in the state's economy and are dedicated to a world-class showcase for Minnesota's sporting future.

Wilf leads an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development. Joining Wilf in the Vikings venture are his brother, Mark, cousin, Leonard, and nephew, Jeffrey, along with several associates from outside the family.

The journey for Wilf from avid New York Giants fan sitting in the bleachers of Yankee Stadium in the 1960's to taking over the leadership of one of the NFL's proudest franchises has been marked by bold and well-founded business decisions, commitment to family and employees, and dedication to community.

Throughout the Wilf family's rise to prominence in real estate development, the consistent focus on philanthropy and never losing touch with family roots has been a foundation and philosophy.

Building a championship team with character has been at the foundation of the Wilf ownership group's growth as NFL owners. The Wilf family has stayed close to their roots, donating generously to heart-felt causes at home and throughout the world.

Wilf, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wilf, emigrated with his parents from Europe to the United States in the early 1950s and settled in New Jersey. Zygi attended nearby Fairleigh Dickinson University, earning a bachelor's degree in economics and later graduated from New York Law School in Manhattan. Wilf, 59, and wife, Audrey, have four children.

Vikings owner Zygi Wilf presented 2008 Vikings Ring of Honor inductee John Randle during his halftime ceremony at the Metrodome. The Wilf family has connected with Vikings fans and the history of the team as they enter their 5th season of stewardship for the historic franchise.

MARK WILF

OWNER/PRESIDENT

As the Vikings approach the 2009 season, team President Mark Wilf has played a key role in the development of the business aspects of the club and organizing the leadership of the franchise to mirror the proven family model that the Wilf family has implemented in other successful ventures.

The Vikings will play their 49th season on the field in the fall of 2009 and the Wilf family ownership group enters its 5th in supervision of the franchise. Following a 2008 season that was a success on and off the field, the building process continues as the team moves forward. Highlighted by winning the 2008 NFC North title and hosting an NFC Wild Card game for the 1st time since 2000, the Vikings prepare to build on the winning formula in 2009. The connection between the fans and the team continues to deepen as the You Made the Team Community Tour grows more popular and purposeful.

Along with dramatic facility upgrades at Winter Park since taking over the team, the ownership group has prided itself on improving the identity and atmosphere associated with the franchise. The Vikings have been a valuable part of the fabric of life in the region since beginning play in 1961. The Wilf family takes pride in building on the strong tradition of community involvement the franchise has been known for.

The Wilfs lead an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development.

An NFL franchise is a valuable commodity to a community and the Wilf ownership group recognizes and embraces the role as a civic leader. Under Wilf's direction, the Vikings have taken a more prominent role as a business and community leader and embraced their fans and partners locally and worldwide.

Another lifelong fan of the NFL, Mark brings the same passion and desire to succeed in professional football as his elder sibling, Zygi. Throughout their professional lives, the brothers have worked tirelessly to involve everyone associated in their businesses as members of the family. The Minnesota Vikings are the latest extension of the family model and one that is especially close to the family's heart with the opportunity to be actively engaged in the game they grew up passionately following. Wilf has been actively involved with the Wilf family's Garden Homes Development enterprises and has served as a principal in the family business.

A long-time fan of college and professional football, Wilf is no stranger to the game or the thrill of competition. During his collegiate years, Mark served as the radio voice of Princeton Tigers football and basketball. Wilf earned his bachelor's degree from Princeton University and later graduated from the New York University School of Law. The Wilf family tradition of generous philanthropy and advancing causes with special meaning has been passed through the generations.

Wilf, 47, and wife, Jane, have four children. The couple is actively involved in several causes close to the heart of the Wilf family.

The Wilf family and their ownership group has been aggressive in community outreach during their stewardship of the Vikings franchise. The entire organization takes part in the annual Playground Build, a project that earned Crestview Elementary in Brooklyn Park a new playground in June 2009.

LEONARD WILF OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN

Leonard Wilf joins cousins Zygi and Mark Wilf with the Vikings ownership group as Vice Chairman of the team for the fifth season in 2009. Away from the Vikings, Wilf also serves as President of family-owned Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development based in New Jersey.

Wilf earned his bachelor's degree, Cum Laude, from Boston University. Following his undergraduate work, Wilf graduated with a law degree from Georgetown University. During his tenure at Georgetown, Wilf was editor of the Georgetown Law Review. Wilf went on to receive a Master of Law in Taxation from New York University.

Active with several professional and civic groups, Wilf is Vice Chairman on the Board of Trustees of NYU and the NYU

Law School. He is a member of the New Jersey, New York and American Bar Associations. Wilf serves as Chairman of the American Society of Yad Vashem, a Board Member of New York Presbyterian Hospital and Allen-Stevenson School. He is an involved member of the International Council of Shopping Centers, New York Athletic Club and Friars Club.

Wilf and his wife, Beth, have four children and are active members of the community through the Central Park Conservancy and Metropolitan Opera. Wilf was appointed by President Clinton to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council in January 1997 and spearheaded the construction of the Metrowest Campus of UJA-Federation in East Hanover, NJ. He and his family reside in New York City.

JEFFREY WILF OWNER/OWNERSHIP PARTNER

Jeffrey Wilf, nephew of Zygi and Mark Wilf, continues the family involvement with all aspects of the Wilf businesses. He is involved with the Wilfs' Garden Homes operations and with the Minnesota Vikings.

Wilf graduated from Harvard University with a bachelor of arts in government.

The Wilf family and their ownership group helped build a team that won the 2008 NFC North Division title with a dramatic win over the NY Giants, the team the Wilfs grew up rooting for. The title was the 1st for the Vikings since 2000 and the 17th in club history.

LESTER BAGLEY

VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS/ STADIUM DEVELOPMENT

Lester Bagley brings more than two decades of experience in the public affairs arena and serves the Vikings as Vice President of Public Affairs and Stadium Development, his 5th year in that role. Bagley oversees public relations, public affairs, community relations and charitable giving for the Vikings.

Bagley has been instrumental in the Wilf ownership group's efforts to enhance the Vikings' presence in the community and throughout the state. Bagley helped develop and oversees the Vikings Board of Advisors, a club initiative aimed at increasing the organization's interaction with CEO-level civic and business leaders in Minnesota. Bagley also leads the Vikings "You Made The Team" community tour, which connects the team with Vikings fans and charitable causes throughout Greater Minnesota. This ownership initiative has taken Vikings players and personnel into ten different communities across the state over the past two years.

Along with a prominent role in external relations, Bagley oversees internal communications for the team and has led the efforts to restructure the Vikings Children's Fund and enhance the team's youth football programs.

Bagley continues to lead the team's quest to finance and build a new home for Vikings football, which has become a priority for the National Football League. The Vikings have focused their stadium efforts on constructing a new facility in Minneapolis as part of a broader revitalization and economic development proposal for the area surrounding the Metrodome. Bagley oversees the public affairs and stadium development team that is working diligently to bring a world-class multi-event venue to downtown Minneapolis.

Before joining the Vikings, Bagley operated Bagley Public Affairs from 1999-2005. The Minneapolis firm specialized in issues management, public relations and public affairs. From 1993-99, Bagley served as associate director and helped lead the Minnesota Business Partnership, the public policy organization comprised of the chief executive officers of 100 of Minnesota's largest companies. He also spent five years working in public affairs and public relations in Washington, D.C.

A native of Barron, WI, Bagley began college at the University of Minnesota before graduating from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) with a bachelor's degree in political science. He served as a White House intern and studied at Oxford University during his undergraduate days. Bagley serves on the boards of the Public Affairs Council, Athletes Committed to Educating Students (ACES), the Minneapolis Regional Chamber of Commerce, Meet Minneapolis and the Vikings Children's Fund.

Bagley's wife, Wendy, who has a bachelor's degree from the College of St. Catherine, has served on the staffs of three successive Minnesota governors. The couple resides in Minneapolis with their sons, Michael and Charles.

ROB BRZEZINSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

As Rob Brzezinski enters his 17th season in the NFL and 11th with the Minnesota Vikings in 2009, the team is positioned for long-term success with a favorable salary cap situation and several core players recently signed to long-term contracts. Brzezinski joined the Vikings in 1999 as Director of Football Administration and was promoted to Vice President of Football Administration in 2001. He was elevated to his current position as Vice President of Football Operations in 2002.

In 2008, the Vikings capitalized on the strategic salary cap management from the past several years. Armed with the highest net salary cap in the NFL, and core potential free agents already re-signed, the team filled key needs by trading for 2007 NFL sack leader DE Jared Allen and signed proven unrestricted free agent playmakers WR Bernard Berrian and S Madiou Williams.

The Vikings have had success in recent free agency, adding future Pro Bowlers in consecutive offseasons with CB Antoine Winfield (2004), DT Pat Williams (2005), G Steve Hutchinson (2006) and Allen in 2008. The Vikings also acquired key players on the 2008 NFC North title team through free agency with LB Ben Leber, RB Chester Taylor and K Ryan Longwell all joining Hutchinson in the 2006 free agent class and TE Visanthe Shiancoe joined the club in 2007.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Brzezinski spent the previous six seasons (1993-98) with the Miami Dolphins where he advanced to the position of Staff Counsel/Salary Cap. Brzezinski has been involved with teams that have finished .500 or better in 13 of his 16 seasons in the NFL, have made the playoffs 8 times and have won a Division title 3 times. During the salary cap era of the NFL (1994-present), both the Dolphins and Vikings are among the NFL's best in winning percentage and playoff appearances.

In his current role, Brzezinski works closely with Head Coach Brad Childress and Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman on football-related strategic planning and roster decisions. Brzezinski is also responsible for management and strategic planning of the salary cap, negotiation of player contracts, football operations and administration, team operations, medical and training staff, equipment, video, and player development. He has also represented the Vikings at the League meetings.

Brzezinski has NFL management experience in nearly every area critical to operating a successful NFL franchise. He has worked as the top football executive responsible for all roster decisions in conjunction with the head coach, has experience running a player personnel department, and has researched, developed and implemented processes and technology for the efficient management of pro and college scouting, including the college draft. Brzezinski also has experience in managing the business operations of an NFL franchise and, while in Minnesota, has transformed a substantial salary cap deficit into a long-term competitive advantage. In 2006, Brzezinski played a significant role in the head coaching search and interview process that resulted in the hiring of Brad Childress, the first of 10 head coach hirings in the NFL that season. Brzezinski is a member of the NFL Management Council's Club Services Committee, which has developed new technology and systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management and information management. In 2004 Brzezinski was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford

Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

In Miami, Brzezinski assisted in managing business affairs, which included salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. In his tenure, the Dolphins compiled a 55-41 (.573) regular-season record and made the playoffs four times.

Brzezinski earned degrees from Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, a Juris Doctorate in 1995 and a Bachelor of Science in education in 1992. In addition, Brzezinski is a member of the Florida Bar. Brzezinski and his wife, Leah, who has earned a doctoral degree in education, have 4 children: Ki, Jae, Grace and Anna. The Brzezinski family resides in Edina is very active in the community raising money and awareness for adoption-related causes.

STEVE LACROIX

VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND MARKETING/ CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Steve LaCroix enters his 9th season with the Vikings in 2009 as the team's Vice President of Sales and Marketing/Chief Marketing Officer. LaCroix oversees all aspects of Vikings generated revenues, including corporate sales, sponsorships, media sales, ticket sales, suite sales and hospitality. LaCroix also leads the team's marketing, radio and television programming, websites, new media initiatives, merchandise and e-commerce operations, community and special events, marketing partnerships, advertising, branding, promotions and game day activities.

The 2008 Vikings used a 6-2 record at home to help claim the NFC North title and host a playoff game for the first time since 2000. LaCroix has led the team to record setting sales revenues in his tenure with the Vikings and cultivated new partnerships with the business community throughout Minnesota and the Upper Midwest. In 2008, the Vikings continued to build upon the "You Made the Team" branding campaign to reach a sellout streak of 115 straight home games.

In 2006, LaCroix and his staff undertook the successful introduction of a new, more modern design of the Vikings traditional uniforms and then added a throwback uniform starting in 2007. In addition, LaCroix's tenure has resulted in several new sales and marketing initiatives, including bringing radio and television broadcast rights in-house, the creation of weekly television programming, opening "Vikings Locker Room" official retail stores, full redesigns of vikings.com and the construction of two Terrace Suites that created the first premium seat offering in the Metrodome.

LaCroix serves on the NFL Club Business Working Group comprised of eight club executives to help shape strategies for implementing league and club initiatives. In addition, LaCroix serves on the Steering Committee of the National Sports Forum, the sports industry's leading annual conference. In 2005, LaCroix was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

LaCroix's charitable involvement includes serving as Treasurer of the Viking Children's Fund, which has raised over $8 million since 1978 benefiting children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest, including the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. LaCroix also serves on the Board of Directors and Executive Committees of Hunger Related Events and Summit Academy. Hunger Related Events has raised several million dollars for hunger related organizations through the creation of Taste of the NFL as an annual event at the Super Bowl and in many NFL cities. Summit Academy is a non-profit vocational training and educational center that empowers residents in the most economically depressed neighborhoods in the Twin Cities to become educated, employed and self-supporting members of our communities.

Prior to joining the Vikings, LaCroix worked as the Director of Sponsorship Sales for Pacers Sports and Entertainment in Indianapolis, IN from 1999-00. His main responsibilities included overseeing the corporate sales efforts for the National Basketball Association's Indiana Pacers, the WNBA's Indiana Fever and other sports and entertainment events held at Conseco Fieldhouse, for which he negotiated the naming rights deal.

During LaCroix's tenure with Pacers Sports and Entertainment, which began in 1991 as a sales representative, the organization saw dramatic increases in sponsorship, ticket sales and other major corporate partnerships.

LaCroix earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Iowa and his master's at Western Illinois University. Steve and wife Sue, who holds her bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Iowa, have two children, Katie and Alex. The LaCroix family resides in Minnetonka.

STEVE POPPEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE/ CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Steve Poppen begins his 11th season with the Vikings in 2009, currently serving as Vice President of Finance/Chief Financial Officer. Poppen joined the Vikings in 1999 and is responsible for all financial aspects of the team including business planning, budgeting, day-to-day financial and administrative operations, human resources, information technology, facilities, new stadium project financing and is the team liaison with the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission.

A native of Watertown, SD, Poppen spent eight years before joining the Vikings as a Certified Public Accountant in the business assurance group of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in Kansas City. In 2006 Poppen participated in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote growth of leaders within the League. Poppen helped engineer the dramatic renovations to Winter Park during the 2006 off-season that featured a total remake of the locker room and equipment facilities and upgrade of the athletic training areas. In 2009, he joined the NFL's Green Committee to enhance environmental awareness among clubs.

Poppen received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Evangel University in Springfield, MO in 1991. An active member of his community, Poppen serves on the board of Minnesota Teen Challenge, a faith-based drug and alcohol rehabilitation program for Minnesota adults and teens. Poppen serves on the board of the Minneapolis Downtown Council, an organization promoting business development in downtown Minneapolis, and holds a position with the Minnesota State Fair Foundation board of directors and serves on both the Audit Committee and Governance Committee. The State Fair Foundation was created to preserve and improve the historic Minnesota State Fair buildings and grounds and support State Fair educational, scientific and agricultural programs.

Poppen and his wife Christy, who holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Evangel, have four children, Natalie, Andrew, Nathan and Avery. The Poppen family resides in Chanhassen.

RICK SPIELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Entering his 4th season with the Vikings in 2009, Rick Spielman has put his stamp on the franchise with one of the most aggressive offseasons in team history and the most active in the NFL entering 2008. The 2008 Vikings added All-Pro DE Jared Allen via trade with Kansas City days before the 2008 Draft and saw immediate impact by the pass rushing phenom. The addition of Allen put an exclamation point on an offseason free agency period highlighted by the addition of dynamic WR Bernard Berrian and starting S Madiou Williams. The 2008 Vikings won the NFC North and hosted an NFC Wild Card Playoff game for the 1st time since the 2000 season. The Vikings sent 6 players to the Pro Bowl- DE Jared Allen, DT Pat Williams, DT Kevin Williams, CB Antoine Winfield, RB Adrian Peterson and G Steve Hutchinson- all of which return to the Vikings in 2009.

Spielman begins his 19th season as an NFL executive with his fourth franchise in 2009. Spielman assumed the Vikings' Vice President of Player Personnel role on May 30, 2006 and will be responsible for overseeing the Vikings' pro and college scouting departments. The 2008 Vikings featured standout performances by players signed as free agents, acquired by trade and drafted during Spielman's tenure with the team. Peterson built on his breakout 2007 rookie season by setting the Vikings single-season rushing record with 1,760 yards and became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing in team history. Allen's impact on the defense was immediate as he led the team with 14.5 sacks to tie for 5th in the NFL. Allen's pressure on QBs along with the Williams DT duo imposing presence against the run allowed the team to rank #1 in the NFL in rushing defense for the 3rd straight season- the 1st team to accomplish the feat since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The defensive line's dominance also allowed Winfield to build on his play-making ability and earn All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors for the 1st time in his 10-year career.

Spielman has climbed the ranks of NFL personnel departments with Detroit, Chicago and Miami, ascending to General Manager of the Dolphins for the 2004 season. Spielman's tenure with all 3 franchises has been highlighted by drafting impact players throughout the seven rounds and making key trades and free agency acquisitions. Spielman's teams have won 4 divisional titles and advanced to the playoffs 7 times.

He began his NFL career as a scout with Detroit in 1990 and worked with the club in college scouting for 5 seasons before adding pro scouting duties in 1995 and '96. He moved to Director of Pro Personnel for the Bears from 1997-99 before joining the Dolphins in 2000 as Vice President of Player Personnel. He was promoted in 2002 to Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel and eventually General Manager in 2004. Spielman left the Dolphins during the 2005 off-season and worked with ESPN as an NFL analyst before joining the Vikings. While with Miami for 5 seasons, the team had a winning record 4 times, won the AFC East in 2000 and went to the playoffs in 2000 and 2001 but missed the playoffs in 2002 and 2003 despite 9-7 and 10-6 records respectively. The team drafted its top WR,

Chris Chambers, in 2001 and traded for RB Ricky Williams in 2002. Williams posted the top two single-season rushing marks in Miami history with 1,853 yards in 2002 and 1,372 in 2003. The Dolphins' 2005 draft class included 1st-round RB Ronnie Brown, who led the team in rushing with 907 yards and ranked 2nd among all NFL rookies. Joining the impressive rookie group was LB Channing Crowder (3rd round) and CB Travis Daniels (4th round), who both went on to start 14 games in 2005 and finished the season ranked 2nd and 5th on the team in tackles respectively. During his 3 seasons with Chicago the team amassed some of the talent that has propelled the team to the top of the NFC North and found gems late in the draft. The 2000 draft class featured the core of the Bears defense in future years with 6-time Pro Bowler and NFL Defensive Player of the Year LB Brian Urlacher selected in the 1st round and Pro Bowl S Mike Brown, the Bears all-time leader in defensive TDs, drafted in the 2nd round. The team selected perennial Pro Bowl C Olin Kreutz in the 3rd round of the 1998 draft and followed with a 3rd-round find in 1999 by taking WR Marty Booker. The team uncovered 4th-rounders LB Roosevelt Colvin (1999) and LB Warrick Holdman (1999) along with CB Jerry Azumah in the 5th round (1999). The team traded a 7th-round pick in 1999 to arch-rival Green Bay for KR Glyn Milburn, who went on to the Pro Bowl that season. Spielman got his first taste of NFL personnel analysis as a college scout with Detroit from 1990-94 and added pro scouting responsibilities for his final 2 seasons (1995-96) in the Motor City. The Lions enjoyed one of the finest stretches in franchise history in the early 1990s, winning a pair of NFC Central titles in 1991 and 1993 and the team advanced to the playoffs in 1991, '93, '94 and '95. The trio of consecutive post-season berths was a first for the team. The 1991 team set a franchise record with a 12-4 regular season mark, hosted and won a playoff game for the first time since 1957 and advanced to the NFC Championship Game against Washington, losing out on the chance to play in Super Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome. The Lions drafted well during Spielman's tenure, selecting the core talent for the team and several players who earned regular Pro Bowl accolades. The club drafted WR Herman Moore in the 1st round of the 1991 draft and he went on to four Pro Bowl berths while defensive linemen Robert Porcher and Luther Elliss were 1st-round picks in 1992 and 1995 respectively and each earned multiple trips to Hawaii. The 1995 draft class was especially deep, featuring Elliss, TE David Sloan (2nd round), LB Stephen Boyd (3rd round) and FB Cory Schlesinger (6th round). Elliss, Sloan and Boyd have been Pro Bowlers while Schlesinger was a 3-time Pro Bowl alternate. The team drafted Lions career scoring leader K Jason Hanson in 1992 (2nd round), who has earned a reputation as one of the top kickers of his era.

Following Spielman's playing career at Southern Illinois from 1983-86 he was invited to training camp with the San Diego Chargers (1987) and Lions (1988). As a collegiate player, Spielman was a 1st-Team All-Gateway Conference honoree as a junior and part of the 1983 NCAA Division I-AA national championship team as a redshirt freshman. His younger brother, Chris, was a Pro Bowl LB and a 2nd-round pick of the Lions in 1988. He played 11 NFL seasons with Detroit (1988-95) and Buffalo (1996-98).

Spielman has a bachelor's degree from Southern Illinois and a master's from Ohio State. He and his wife, Michele, have been active with children's charities. The couple has adopted six children, Juan, Luis, Ronnie, J.D., Omie and Whitney.

KEVIN WARREN

VICE PRESIDENT OF LEGAL AFFAIRS/
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Kevin Warren's extensive background in athletics and unique perspective in both law and business have been instrumental to the Wilf family ownership group for the entire 5 seasons of their stewardship of the Minnesota Vikings.

Warren enters his 11th season in the NFL and his 5th with the Vikings in 2009. Warren is the Vikings' Vice President of Legal Affairs & Chief Administrative Officer with responsibility for various day-to-day business operational and administrative issues, special projects, legal affairs and strategic planning, while also serving as the Vikings' primary liaison with the NFL.

Prior to joining the Vikings, during 2003-05, Warren worked with the international law firm of Greenberg Traurig, including working with the Wilf ownership group during their acquisition of the Vikings. Warren spent 2001-03 with the Detroit Lions as Senior Vice President of Business Operations & General Counsel. While working with the Lions, he was recognized by Crain's Detroit Business on their "40 Under 40" list, recognizing the top 40 Detroit business leaders under the age of 40. Prior to joining the Vikings' NFC North rivals in Detroit, Warren worked from 1997-2001 with the St. Louis Rams, including the Rams' Super Bowl XXXIV championship over the Tennessee Titans. During his tenure with St. Louis, Warren served as Vice President of Football Administration in 2001 after working as Vice President of Player Programs & Football Legal Counsel from 1997-2000.

Following his graduation from law school, Warren's first exposure to sports law came when he worked with an Overland Park, KS law firm that specialized in representing universities charged with NCAA violations. Warren also worked as a sports and entertainment attorney/agent, representing various professional athletes and entertainers.

Warren's involvement in athletics helped pave the way for his future career. As a freshman on the University of Pennsylvania basketball team, Warren was a member of the Quakers' Ivy League championship team in 1982. A native of Tempe, AZ, Warren enrolled at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix to complete his undergraduate degree. While at Grand Canyon, he excelled both in the classroom and on the basketball court. Warren scored over 1,100 points during his 2 seasons at Grand Canyon and earned GTE/CoSida Academic All-America as a senior along with NAIA Academic All-America honors as both a junior and senior.

Warren earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986, his master's degree in business administration from Arizona State University in 1988, and his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Notre Dame School of Law in 1990. Warren is a member of the Kansas and Michigan Bar Associations.

Several members of Warren's family have helped fuel his lifelong passion for sports, including his father, the late Dr. Morrison Warren, Sr., who played professional football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948 during the era of the All-American Football Conference, before the league was merged with the NFL. The senior Warren would go on to be the first African-American President of a major college bowl game when he was named President of the 1982 Fiesta Bowl. Warren's oldest brother, Morrison, Jr., was one of the first African-American scholarship athletes at Stanford, playing football for the Cardinal in the early 1960s, before a severe knee injury cut short his promising athletic career.

An active member of the Twin Cities community, Warren was named to the United Way Board of Directors in 2007, named to the Page Education Foundation Board of Directors in 2006, has taken an active role in Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity and was recognized by Twin Cities Business Journal in 2006 as a Minority Business Leader. Warren has also been a member of the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors since 2004. Warren and his wife, Greta, who holds a bachelor's degree from Kansas State University, have a daughter, Peri, and a son, Powers. The Warren family resides in Chanhassen, MN.

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 32ND SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 12TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

The Vikings steady progress over the past 3 seasons manifested itself with the 2008 NFC North title and a 10-win season, laying the foundation for the 2009 season. The NFC North championship was the 1st division title for the club since 2000, also the last time the squad hosted a playoff game. The Vikings return a core of talented veterans that features 6 Pro Bowl players and several current team-record holders. Since coming to the Vikings in 2006, Childress has had 9 players earn Pro Bowl honors a combined 17 times.

Childress enters the 2009 season, his 32nd in coaching and 12th on an NFL sideline, with a team poised to build on the progress made in his opening 3 seasons with the Vikings. The NFC North title was Childress' 5th division crown in the past 8 seasons dating back to 2001 with Philadelphia and the 6th playoff appearance in his past 9 seasons. In his past NFL 9 seasons between Minnesota and Philadelphia, Childress has been part of teams that have only suffered 2 losing seasons.

The Vikings continued to build on their identity as a physical team that dominates the lines of scrimmage in 2008. The defense established an NFL standard by ranking #1 against the run for the 3rd straight season- the only team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to accomplish the feat. Offensively, the team featured the 1st NFL rushing title holder in franchise history when Adrian Peterson ran for a team-record 1,760 yards. Peterson was recognized with the prestigious Bert Bell Award as the Pro Football Player of the Year by the Maxwell Club, tied for runner-up in the Associated Press' Offensive Player of the Year balloting and tied for 4th in the Associated Press' Most Valuable Player voting. Six Vikings were recognized with Pro Bowl berths, led by Peterson, G Steve Hutchinson, DT Kevin Williams, DT Pat Williams, DE Jared Allen and CB Antoine Winfield.

The 2008 Vikings were able to capitalize on the acquisition of key elements through free agency, trades and the draft. Allen's impact on the defense was immediate, helping the unit rank #6 in the NFL after finishing #20 in 2007. His 14.5 sacks were the most by a Viking in over a decade and his competitive nature was a natural fit with the team. Allen joined with the proven Williams DT duo to anchor the defense and make the trio the 1st threesome of Vikings defensive linemen to be honored with Pro Bowl berths since 1969 and the days of the Purple People Eaters. Winfield was recognized as a Pro Bowler for the 1st time in his 10th NFL season and was a force against the run and pass.

Another free agent find, WR Bernard Berrian, was 2nd in the NFL with an impressive 20.1 yards-per-catch average. His big-play ability was showcased when he scored on an NFL-record tying 99-yard TD pass against his old Chicago teammates and followed that up 2 weeks later with an 82-yard punt return TD. Berrian tied with TE Visanthe Shiancoe for the team lead with 7 TD catches. Berrian set a new Vikings record by scoring 3 TDs of 80+ yards in a season.

ADDING TALENT AND KEEPING CHEMISTRY

During Childress' 3 seasons leading the Vikings the team has had 8 players earn 11 NFC Player of the Week honors, including 5 in 2008- 2 on offense, 2 on defense and 1 on special teams. Of those 8 players, 7 joined the Vikings via free agency or the draft since Childress came to the team.

The Vikings ability to add key elements through free agency, trades and the draft while keeping solid team chemistry has been a fundamental principle under Childress' leadership. Finding players whose talents fit the team-first philosophy and whose work ethic matches that of their teammates has helped build a roster that is single-minded and accountable to one another.

STAYING THE COURSE THROUGH ADVERSITY

Since taking over the Vikings in 2006, Childress' teams have one of the most productive rushing attacks in the NFL. The Vikings have the 3rd-best rushing yards per game average in the NFL since 2006 at 141.2 and are tied for 6th in the NFL with 49 TDs on the ground.

The Vikings have been able to overcome adversity and play their best football in the critical times of the season. The Vikings are 13-5 in the months of November and December during the 2007 and 2008 seasons combined. The 2008 squad bounced back from a 1-3 start to go 10-6, the only team in the playoff field that started the season 1-3. The 2008 squad also had to overcome the loss of 2 of the 3 team-voted MVPs from the previous season to injury early in the season. Emerging NFL star LB E.J. Henderson went on injured reserve with a season-ending injury in the 4th game of the year after being named 2007 Vikings Defensive MVP by his teammates and selected as the 2008 defensive captain. Fellow LB Heath Farwell was lost for the year in the preseason opener to a knee injury after being tabbed as the Vikings Special Teams MVP in 2006 and 2007. The Vikings coaching staff was able to move on by developing depth behind

GETTING DEFENSIVE

The Vikings have established a strong reputation as an opportunistic defense that is able to translate turnovers into points and has elevated rushing defense to previously unmatched levels. The Vikings ranked #1 in NFL rushing defense in 2006, 2007 and 2008, the 1st time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger a team has accomplished the feat 3 straight years.

each player and adjusting to the enormous loss of both players.

PROVEN SUCCESS WITH PHILADELPHIA

Childress joined the Vikings following a 7-year stint with the Philadelphia Eagles, including the final 4 seasons as offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Philadelphia, the Eagles represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX, amassed a 70-42 (.625) record in the regular season, won 4 straight NFC East titles from 2001-04 and advanced to the playoffs from 2000-04. During Childress' time as offensive coordinator (2002-05), the Eagles were 43-21 in the regular season, the most wins in the NFC over that span. Since joining the Eagles in 1999, Childress' teams had a 13-1 mark against NFC North teams including playoff wins over Chicago, Green Bay and Minnesota.

The Eagles offense under Childress was able to excel while adjusting to personnel transition and injuries. The team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total offense twice in those 4 seasons and assembled numerous individual achievements. In the 4 seasons Childress guided the offense, the team amassed 5,000+ yards each season, averaging 333.8 yards per game in that span. The Eagles offense from 2000-05 featured 7 players who earned 14 berths in the Pro Bowl, highlighted by signal caller Donovan McNabb. Joining McNabb in Hawaii over the span were TE Chad Lewis (3 times), T Tra Thomas (2), G Jermaine Mayberry (1), T Jon Runyan (1), WR Terrell Owens (1) and RB Brian Westbrook (1).

The Eagles improvement during Childress' tenure was remarkable as the team went 5-11 in Andy Reid's staff's first season in 1999. A year later the 2000 Eagles won the 1st playoff game in 8 seasons for the franchise. The 2001 team that won the NFC East was the 1st division title for the Eagles since 1988 and the 2004 team that won 13 regular season games en route to the NFC title set the franchise record for wins.

COLLEGIATE PROGRAM BUILDING

Before joining Reid's staff with the Eagles, Childress spent 8 seasons, 1991-98, on the University of Wisconsin campus coaching quarterbacks, running backs and ascending to offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Madison the Badgers played in 5 bowl games, highlighted by Rose Bowl victories to cap the 1993 and 1998 seasons. The Badgers climbed out of the cellar of the Big Ten under the staff led by Barry Alvarez. The coaches inherited a team that was 1-10 in 1990, but turned the program around quickly by finishing as Big Ten co-champions in 1993 and topped UCLA in the Rose Bowl. The Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth were the 1st for UW since 1963 and the team featured Vikings offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell at QB. The Badgers repeated the accomplishment during the 1998 season, sharing the conference title and beating UCLA in the Rose Bowl in Childress' last season at the school.

His coaching career began at Illinois from 1978-84 where he began as a graduate assistant before coaching the Illini RBs and WRs. Childress' first taste of NFL coaching came as quarterbacks/quality control coach of the 1985 Indianapolis Colts. He went on to coaching stops at Northern Arizona from 1986-89 and Utah in 1990. It was at NAU where he first met Reid and worked on Lumberjack staffs that featured future NFL head coaches Marty Mornhinweg, Bill Callahan and Reid.

Childress and wife, Dru-Ann, have 4 children- Cara, Kyle, Andrew and Christopher. Born and raised in Aurora, IL, Childress attended Marmion Academy. Childress briefly played QB and WR at Illinois before graduating from Eastern Illinois with a bachelor's degree in psychology. In 2008 Childress was recognized by his alma mater with the Marmion Centurion Award, the highest honor bestowed on Marmion alumni for exceptional achievement in their chosen field.

Childress has expanded the Vikings community outreach efforts by players, welcoming special guests to watch normally closed Saturday practices during the regular season and taking the entire squad on an annual playground build to a local school. In 2008, every Vikings player participated in a community relations event.

RUSHING IDENTITY

In the past 3 seasons the Vikings commitment to a top-notch running attack has been highlighted by record-setting individual performances, team records and the ability to have different RBs showcase their skills behind a strong offensive line. The team was led on the ground in 2008 by Adrian Peterson, who became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing.

Head Coach Brad Childress takes the Vikings role in the community to heart, starting new initiatives since moving to Minnesota including a program to invite special guests to the Saturday practice at Winter Park. The Vikings started an organization-wide Playground Build in 2006 and have donated a day to building new equipment for a local school each year.

CLIMBING THE COACHING LADDER

1999-2005
Philadelphia Eagles

Reuniting with Reid in Philly, Childress is instrumental in developing 1st-round QB Donovan McNabb. The Eagles become the dominant team in the NFC, making the playoffs 5 times from 2000-05, winning 4 straight NFC East titles from 2001-04 and representing the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX. McNabb is selected to 5 Pro Bowls with Childress and the team averages over 333 yards per game in his 4 years as Offensive Coordinator. From 2002-05 no NFC team wins more games than Philadelphia's 43.

1990
University of Utah

Joining Ron McBride's staff at Utah, Childress coaches the Utes' WRs where he works with Bryan Rowley, who leaves as the all-time leading WR in school history.

1986-89
Northern Arizona University

Returning to the collegiate ranks, Childress serves as offensive coordinator for the 1st time in his career and the results are immediate for NAU. The Lumberjacks finish #4 in the country in 1986 and TE Shawn Collins becomes the first 1st-round draft pick in school history. The NAU coaching staff includes future NFL head coaches Andy Reid, Bill Callahan and Marty Mornhinweg during the span.

2006-
Minnesota Vikings

Brad Childress is named the 7th Head Coach in Vikings history on January 6, 2006. Childress guides the team to the 2008 NFC North title and the playoffs, the 1st Division crown since 2000 for the Vikings. In his opening 3 seasons, the Vikings have 9 players earn 17 Pro Bowl honors.

1991-1998
University of Wisconsin

Back in the Big Ten after a 6-year absence, Childress coaches RBs and QBs before taking over offensive coordinator duties for Barry Alvarez. The team climbs to the top of the conference in a short time, plays in 5 bowl games in his final 6 seasons, including Rose Bowl wins after the '93 and '98 seasons. The '93 team is led by QB Darrell Bevell and the '98 team by future Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne.

1985
Indianapolis Colts

In his NFL debut, Childress works on the offensive staff under another disciple of the West Coast offense- Colts head coach Rod Dowhower. The Colts' offensive output jumps by 11 TDs over the previous season, interceptions decline and penalties and turnovers both drop.

1978-84
University of Illinois

Childress gets his start in coaching at the University of Illinois working as a graduate assistant in 1978 and working his way up to a full-time job coaching RBs and WRs. The Illini improve from 1 win in 1978 to the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl berth in 1983. Childress works under Mike White and helps re-write the UI record book with a dominating passing attack. Childress is part of history, coaching against Bear Bryant in his final game in the 1982 Liberty Bowl in Memphis when the Illini face Alabama.

DARRELL BEVELL

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 14TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 10TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

Darrell Bevell enters his 4th season as Offensive Coordinator of the Vikings in 2009, leading a unit that ranks among the NFL's best at running the ball and took dramatic steps forward in the passing game during the 2008 season.

The Vikings offense performed consistently despite making changes at the starting QB position twice during the season and being forced to make adjustments along the offensive line. The 2008 Vikings bounced back from a 1-3 start to finish 10-6 and win the NFC North title, the 1st division crown for the Vikings since 2000 and made the 1st playoff appearance since 2004. The Vikings' 2008 NFC North title marked Bevell's 4th in the past 7 seasons, having won in 2002, '03 and '04 with Green Bay.

The emergence of RB Adrian Peterson as one of the top players in the NFL in only 2 seasons has helped the Vikings establish a ground game that has re-written the Vikings record book. Peterson became the 1st RB in Vikings history to lead the NFL in rushing in 2008, broke the Vikings single-season rushing mark with 1,760 yards and set a new team record with 10 games over the 100-yard mark. Peterson became only the 3rd player in team history to win the Bert Bell Award from the Maxwell Club as the Pro Football Player of the Year. Peterson earned his 2nd Pro Bowl berth and was a 1st-Team All-Pro choice by the Associated Press.

The 2008 Vikings took strides forward in offensive balance by throwing 10 more TD passes than in 2007. Free agent addition WR Bernard Berrian led the team with 964 yards through the air and tied for the team lead with 7 TDs. Berrian's big-play ability helped him post a 20.1-yard receiving average and scored 5 receiving TDs over 40 yards. Berrian tied an NFL record with a 99-yard receiving TD from Gus Feroette vs. Chicago- only the 11th NFL TD pass play of 99 yards and setting a new Vikings record. The Vikings passing game benefited in 2008 from the emergence of TE Visanthe Shiancoe as a scoring threat, matching Berrian for the team-high with 7 TD catches, 1 shy of the Vikings record for TD catches by a TE.

The 2007 Vikings featured a dynamic backfield that set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards and set a team record with a 5.33 yard-per-carry average. The Vikings scored 22 rushing TDs, an improvement of 10 over the 2006 club.

A rookie sensation in 2007, Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor to give the Vikings an unrivaled 1-2 punch in the backfield as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. Peterson burst onto the NFL scene in 2007 and left his name etched throughout the NFL's and the Vikings' record books. Peterson ran away with the 2007 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year and becoming only the 4th Vikings player and 2nd Vikings RB to win the award. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history.

Peterson was the only offensive rookie in 2007 to earn Pro Bowl honors and was joined on the NFC squad by FB Tony Richardson, C Matt Birk and G Steve Hutchinson, who both repeated their trips from 2006.

The Vikings development of QB Tarvaris Jackson continued in 2007 as the 2nd-year pro went 8-4 in his 12 starts, guiding the Vikings to all 8 of their wins on the season. As a team the Vikings reduced turnovers dramatically, throwing only 14 interceptions, tied for the 2nd-fewest in a 16-game season in Vikings history. Jackson battled injuries early in the season but started all 5 games of the club's 5-game win streak in November and December.

The 2006 Vikings were led on the ground by free agent acquisition RB Taylor, who set a franchise record with 303 rush-

BIG PLAY CAPABILITY

The Vikings passing game evolved in 2008 and allowed the team to achieve more balance as an offense. The emergence of recent free agent pickups TE Visanthe Shiancoe and WR Bernard Berrian made defenses respect the Vikings air game and allowed RB Adrian Peterson to set the Vikings single-season rushing record and become the 1st RB in team history to lead the NFL in rushing.

ing attempts and the 4th-highest total in team history with 1,216 rushing yards. The offense went through transitions during the season with 4 different starting groups in the offensive line and only 3 players starting all 16 games across the front. Of the 3 players who did start every game, 2 of them earned Pro Bowl berths- Birk and Hutchinson.

The Vikings produced a 100-yard rusher in 5 games during the 2006 season with Taylor notching 4 and Artose Pinner breaking the century mark once. The 5 games breaking the 100-yard plateau in 2006 was equal to the amount of 100-yard rushing performances in the previous 2 seasons combined for the Vikings. Minnesota was 5-0 in games with a 100-yard rusher.

When Brad Childress began building his Minnesota Vikings coaching staff he had certain qualities in mind for the men who would lead the team into the future. Childress wanted coaches who were good teachers, hard workers and dedicated to the task. Childress had seen all of those qualities years earlier in a gritty QB who led his 1993 Wisconsin Badger squad to the school's 1st Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth in 31 years. Over a decade later, the coach and QB were reunited with the Vikings.

Bevell spent 6 seasons working with NFC North rivals Green Bay, spending the last 3 seasons as the Packers' QBs coach. During his tenure with Green Bay the team went 57-39 in regular-season play and won 3 straight North titles from 2002-04, the first 3 titles in the newly-realigned division. The Packers advanced to the playoffs 4 straight seasons from 2001-04. From 2003-05 Green Bay legend Brett Favre led the NFL with 1,026 completions, ranked 2nd with 82 TD passes and ranked 4th in the NFL over that span with 11,330 yards. From 2002-04 the Packers had a 41-game streak with at least 1 TD pass, all thrown by Favre, the 2nd-longest such streak in NFL history trailing 49 games held by Johnny Unitas' Colts from 1956-60.

In 2005, Green Bay led the NFL in completions (383) and attempts (626) and set a new team record in both categories. Favre extended his NFL record for QBs by starting his 221st consecutive game in the 2005 finale. Despite the Packers offense being decimated by injury, Favre still completed 61.3% of his passes on the season, his 5th straight season over 60%.

The 2004 Packers set a team record with 4,449 net passing

BY LAND AND AIR

The Vikings balance between the running game and passing game emerged in 2008 and was helped by the addition of deep threat WR Bernard Berrian. With Berrian's ability to stretch defenses, Adrian Peterson was able to lead the NFL in rushing—the 1st Vikings RB to accomplish the feat. The tandem each posted 100-yard days in 3 games during the season—all wins vs. Detroit, vs. Houston and vs. Chicago at the Metrodome.

yards, breaking an 11-year old franchise record en route to ranking 3rd in the NFL in total offense. After setting a team record for rushing yards the season before, the Packers became the 1st NFL team since the 1988-89 San Francisco 49ers to set team marks in rushing and passing in back-to-back seasons. The Packers offense also set a new team record by allowing only 14 sacks on the season with Favre being caught a mere 12 times. The Packers signal-caller threw for 4,088 yards, his 4th career 4,000-yard season and 1st since 1999. His 61.4% completion rate was tied for the 2nd-best in his career.

Bevell stepped into the Packers' QB coaching role in 2003 with solid results. Favre set a career-high with a 65.4% completion rate, led the NFL with 32 TD passes and earned his 8th career berth in the Pro Bowl. The Packers offense was balanced as the team also set a new franchise record with 2,558 net yards rushing. Bevell's debut in the NFL came in 2000 as an offensive assistant with the team. Along with Favre, Bevell worked with future NFC Champion QB Matt Hasselbeck before his trade from Green Bay to Seattle.

Bevell got his 1st taste of coaching at Westmar University in Lemars, IA in 1996 where he worked as passing game coordinator and QBs coach. He moved on to Iowa State in 1997 as a graduate assistant and then the University of Connecticut for 2 seasons in 1998 and '99 as WRs coach. The '98 UConn Huskies posted a 10-3 record, a school-record 461 points, won the Atlantic-10 Conference North Division title and advanced to the Division I-AA playoff quarterfinals.

As a collegiate player Bevell studied under Childress as the duo helped turn the dormant University of Wisconsin program into a national power. A 4-year starter for the Badgers, Bevell helped guide the team to a 10-1-1 mark as a sophomore in 1993. The squad claimed a share of the Big Ten championship for the 1st time since 1962 and won the Rose Bowl over UCLA. Between his sophomore and junior seasons, Bevell helped UW go 18-4-2. He left Madison as the school's all-time leading passer with 19 team records and a pair of Big Ten marks. His 67.8% completion mark set in 1993 still stands as the conference record while he was a 61.4% passer for his career.

A native of Yuma, AZ, Bevell was a standout at Chaparral High in Scottsdale where he played under his father, James. After redshirting in 1989 as a freshman at Northern Arizona, where Childress was on the coaching staff, Bevell went on a 2-year Mormon mission in Cleveland in 1990-91.

Bevell and his wife, Tammy, have 3 daughters- Kylie, Morgan and Hailey.

LESLIE FRAZIER

ASST. HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 22ND SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 17TH SEASON (11 COACHING/6 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

In his 3rd season with the Vikings in 2009, Leslie Frazier helped guide the 2008 Vikings to the 1st division title since 2000 and 1st playoff berth since 2004 with a 10-6 regular season and the NFC North crown. The 2008 campaign marked Frazier's 2nd with the Vikings and his 1st as Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator, which expanded his role to include additional administrative tasks along with leading the Vikings defense. The Vikings rebounded from a 1-3 start to go 9-3 in the final 12 games in 2008, the only team in the NFL in 2008 to make the playoffs after a 1-3 start.

Combining a proven track record of winning as a player and a coach, Frazier joined the Vikings in 2007, mere days after winning Super Bowl XLI with the Indianapolis Colts. The Super Bowl title was the 2nd for Frazier, his 1st coming as a starting CB with the 1985 Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. Frazier marked his 10th season as an NFL coach in 2008 and has another 11 years of collegiate coaching experience. In his 10 seasons as an NFL coach, Frazier has suffered a losing season only once- his 1st season with Philadelphia in 1999. He has coached on 6 playoff teams in his 10 seasons and been a part of 5 division championships.

Frazier's 2008 defensive unit ranked #6 overall in the NFL and #1 in the league against the run, making the Vikings the 1st squad since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to lead the league in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. The Vikings #6 rank in total defense is the highest since the 1994 season. Of the teams ranked in the top 6 in the NFL, the other 5 had ranked in the NFL's top 10 in 2007 while the Vikings were #20 in 2007, making a 14-position improvement in 2008. The 2008 Vikings defense featured 4 players earning Pro Bowl berths, including 3 defensive linemen with DE Jared Allen and DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams and rounded out with 10th-year CB Antoine Winfield earning his 1st Pro Bowl honors. The Vikings dominant line showed prowess as pass rushers as well as against the run. Allen tied for 5th in the NFL with 14.5 sacks and the team total of 45 ranked 4th in the NFL. The Vikings ranked 3rd in the NFL in 2008 by allowing only a 33.5% conversion rate on 3rd down and were 5th in the NFL by allowing 15.8 offensive points per game.

The 2008 Vikings had to overcome the season-ending injury to emerging star E.J. Henderson at MLB in the 4th game and did not have the services of priority free agent signing Madiue

DEFENSIVE REBOUND

Williams at FS until the 9th game of the year as he recovered from preseason injury. The club lost its top nickel back, Charles Gordon, for the 2nd half of the season and 3-time Pro Bowl DT anchor Pat Williams was sidelined the final 2 regular season games and Wild Card playoffs with a shoulder injury. The depth of the roster and the preparation of the coaching staff kept the team on track despite those setbacks.

In his debut season with the Vikings in 2007 the team maintained its dominance against the run, posting the #1 rush defense in the NFL and allowed a mere 3.1 yards per carry. The anchors of the Vikings defense- DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams were joined by S Darren Sharper as Pro Bowl honorees, the most defensive Vikings to earn trips to Hawaii since 1992.

Frazier's defense was opportunistic, scoring on 6 interception returns to tie a Vikings record and added a pair of TDs on fumble recoveries. The Vikings' 6 scores by interception return ranks tied for 5th-most in a season in NFL history. The team scored on 3 interceptions in a key road game against the NY Giants to set a team record against the eventual Super Bowl XLII champions. The Vikings tied for 3rd in the NFL in 2007 by allowing only 7 rushing TDs and were 5th in the NFC in total offensive points allowed, an average of 17.8 points per game.

The Vikings defense responded to new faces and new positions with impressive performances in 2007. The team was led in tackles by MLB E.J. Henderson's career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. Henderson added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-best 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors and garnering All-Pro votes. The Vikings LBs entered 2007 with only SLB Ben Leber playing his same position from the previous year. One of the most impressive individual performances came from 2nd-year WLB Chad Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury but came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2007 Vikings rush defense was the envy of the NFL, allowing 74.1 yards per game on the ground and allowed only 1 opponent RB to break the 100-yard mark.

Frazier came to Minnesota after coaching DBs with Indianapolis and serving as Special Assistant to Head Coach Tony Dungy for 2 seasons. The 2006 Colts defense clamped down on opponents throughout the playoff run that brought the franchise its 1st Super Bowl title since 1970. The team notched 7 interceptions, 8 sacks and took away 6 fumbles. The Indy defense allowed only 2 second-half TDs in the 4 post-season games and held the Bears out of the end zone for the final 3 quarters of Super Bowl XLI en route to the win.

In his 1st season with Indianapolis in 2005, Frazier helped S Bob Sanders earn a berth in the Pro Bowl in his 1st season as a full-time starter and became the 1st Colts DB to play in the game since 1971. The Colts ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense for the season after ranking 29th overall in 2004 and improved in yards allowed per game from 370.6 per game to 307.1.

Prior to his tenure with Indianapolis, Frazier served as defensive coordinator with Cincinnati in 2003 and '04 where he helped the Bengals go .500 in consecutive seasons for the 1st time in 12 seasons. Frazier's NFL coaching debut came from 1999-2002 with Philadelphia where he worked with the Eagles DBs while Vikings' Head Coach Brad Childress worked on the offensive side of the ball. While with the Eagles, Frazier helped CB Troy Vincent earn 4 Pro Bowl berths, S Brian Dawkins went to the game 3 times and Bobby Taylor appear in the all-star game once. The trio all earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2002. Frazier was part of an impressive program-building project in Philadelphia that saw the team improve from a 5-11 record in 1999 to 11-5 in 2000, 11-5 in 2001 and 12-4 in 2002. The team advanced to the playoffs in each of the final 3 seasons Frazier was with the Eagles, including winning the NFC East in 2001 and '02 and advancing to the NFC Championship game in both seasons.

Frazier had spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level before returning to the NFL. In 1997 and '98 he worked with the DBs on Ron Turner's staff, who Frazier would face 10 seasons later in the Super Bowl. The staff was part of an impressive rebuilding project with the Illini, going 0-11 in 1997 before winning a bowl game in 1999.

Building programs was not unusual for Frazier before going to Illinois and the Eagles. He started the Trinity College football program from the ground up as the school started a football team with Frazier as head coach in 1988. Frazier turned the team into a winner, claiming Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles twice. The school, now known as Trinity International University, named the football field in Frazier's honor in 1997 in tribute to his impact on the campus.

As a player, Frazier was part of the legendary Chicago Bears defense that keyed the Super Bowl XX win over New England. He was a starter at CB on the 1985 Super Bowl team and played for the Bears from 1981-86. He led Chicago in interceptions in 1983, '84 and '85 but his career was cut short by a severe knee injury suffered in the Super Bowl. During his career he had 20 interceptions in 65 games and returned a pair for TDs. Frazier was an All-America DB and standout baseball player at Alcorn State University. In 2007, Frazier was inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame.

Frazier (4/3/59) was born in Columbus, MS and attended Columbus High School. He and wife Gale have 3 children- Kieron, Chantel and Corey. He holds a degree in business administration and was active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout his playing career. Currently, Frazier works closely with All-Pro Dad, an organization that stresses the importance of fathers taking an active role in the lives of their children and putting family first.

BRIAN MURPHY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 18TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

Brian Murphy takes over the duties as Special Teams Coordinator for the Vikings in 2009 after spending the past 3 seasons on the Vikings staff as Special Teams Assistant. Murphy brings experience with special teams units and specialists he has gained in various roles during his career. Murphy coordinated the University of Wisconsin special teams from 2002-05 before joining the Vikings.

Murphy will continue developing special teams units that set individual career-highs in 2008 and re-wrote the team record books along the way.

The 2008 special teams was highlighted by veteran K Ryan Longwell booting a career-best, and Vikings-record, 6 FGs of 50+ yards along with hitting 3 game-winning kicks, also a career-high and a team record. Longwell hit a pair of 54-yard FGs on the season, tied for the 3rd-longest FGs in Vikings history and tied for the 2nd-longest of his career. Longwell has now connected on 3 of the 6 longest FGs in team history despite only playing with the Vikings for 3 seasons. Fellow specialist P Chris Kluwe set a new team record with a 47.6-yard gross punting average, breaking a team mark that had stood since 1964. Kluwe's booming punts also set a new team record for 50-yard punts in a season with 35, breaking his own mark of 29 set in 2007. His marks for gross average ranked 4th in the NFL in 2008 and his 50-yards ranked 3rd. Kluwe has also held on all of Longwell's record-setting kicks.

The 2008 Vikings special teams units found leadership from some new faces after 2-time defending Special Teams MVP Heath Farwell was lost to a preseason knee injury. Rookie free agent DB Husain Abdullah led the team in special teams tackles with 24 as he and fellow reserve DB Eric Frampton helped make up for Farwell's absence. The return game benefited from WR Bernard Berrian's ability to give the units a spark. Berrian returned a punt for an 82-yard TD at eventual NFC champions Arizona, the 3rd-longest punt return TD in team history and the 3rd kickoff or punt return TD in the past 3 seasons for the Vikings. The Vikings also tied for the NFL lead by forcing opponents to 10 missed FGs and notched a Vikings first when Antoine Winfield scored a TD on a 59-yard return of a blocked FG at New Orleans.

In 2007, the Vikings ranked near the top in several NFL categories, including kickoff return average, kickoff coverage, and punts inside the 20. The team finished 4th in the league with an average of 24.8 yards per kickoff return as they returned 59 kicks for 1,461 yards. KR Audrae Allison led the NFC and finished 3rd in the NFL in kickoff return average, returning 20 kickoffs for 574 yards (28.7 avg.), including a team record 104-yard return for a TD against Detroit that ranks as not only the longest kickoff return but also as the longest play in team history. Allison became the only player in team history to have 3 kickoff returns of 60+ yards in the same season.

The 2007 squad allowed opponents an average starting field position just beyond the 26-yard line (26.2), which ranked 6th in the league. LB Heath Farwell led the team with 32 special teams tackles and was named the special teams MVP for a 2nd straight season. He also recovered 2 onside kicks in '07, setting a team record for the most onside recoveries in a single season and tying a team record for the most in a career. Farwell has found his niche as a special teams standout since he came into the league as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2005, collecting 70 stops in only 39 games played.

Vikings P Chris Kluwe left opponents inside their own 20-yard line 34 times in 2007, which ranked 3rd in the NFL and set a Vikings' single-season record. In the season opener against Atlanta, Kluwe tied a team record as he pinned the Falcons inside the 20-yard line on each of his 5 punts. He also broke a single game team record at Detroit when he punted 4 times for 230 yards, a gross average of 57.5 yards per punt, and broke his previous single-season shared record with Mitch Berger of punts over 50 yards (22) as he finished the year with 29 kicks of 50+ yards.

In Murphy's NFL debut season, the 2006 Vikings special teams generated 4 takeaways, saw PR Mewelde Moore tie a franchise record with his 2nd career punt return TD and had newly acquired Longwell make all 21 of his field goal attempts under 46 yards. The Vikings successfully executed a fake FG for a TD when Longwell hit TE Richard Owens with a 16-yard pass, becoming the 1st Vikings kicker to throw a TD pass in team history. Vikings 2nd-year P Chris Kluwe matched a team record by landing 28 punts inside the 20 for the season. Moore moved into the top spot in Vikings history for career punt return average at 10.5 yards and ranked 4th in the NFC for the 2006 season with a 10.1 average. Moore returned a punt for a TD for the 2nd time in his career with a 71-yarder vs. New England (10/30/06) on Monday Night Football.

Murphy jumped to the NFL after serving as the special teams coordinator/outside linebackers coach for the University of Wisconsin from 2002-05. During the 2005 season, Murphy helped Wisconsin rank at or near the top of the Big Ten in several special teams categories, including punting and kicking. Sophomore P Kenneth DeBauche finished 1st in the Big Ten and 7th among Division I-A players with a 44.8 yards-per-punt average, which stands as a University of Wisconsin single-season record. DeBauche's performance earned him a spot on the 2005 1st-team All-Big Ten roster, the 2005 Sports Illustrated All-American 2nd team and the 2005 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American 2nd team. With DeBauche's leg and the punting unit's outstanding coverage, the Badgers ranked 1st in the conference and 12th in the nation with a 39.3 net punting average. The team also averaged 41.5 yards per kickoff, which was good enough for 4th place in the Big Ten, and current Vikings K Taylor Mehlhauff finished 2nd in scoring among conference kickers, tallying 98 points on the season.

While his kicking and punting crews put up impressive statistics, Murphy's return units also led the Big Ten in punt and kickoff return categories, averaging 14.7 yards and 20.0 yards respectively during their 10-3 season in 2005. Returner Brandon Williams, who tied a Badgers' record with 2 punt returns for TDs, finished 2nd in the conference with a 14.6 yards-per-punt return average and ranked 2nd in kickoff returns, averaging 28.0 yards per attempt. As a result of his standout season, Williams was named to the 2005 Associated Press All-America 2nd team as an all-purpose player and the 2005 Rivals.com All-America 2nd team as a punt returner. He also earned Honorable Mention honors on the 2005 Sports Illustrated All-America team and the 2005 CollegeFootballNews.com All-America team. Williams currently ranks 2nd in school history for career kickoff return yards (2,349) and holds the University of Wisconsin team records for career punt return average and kickoff return average.

Murphy, now in his 18th year on the sideline, stepped into the coaching role for the first time in 1992 when he coached the defensive line at Benedictine University (IL). He then became an assistant recruiting coordinator and academic liaison for Wisconsin from 1993-94. As a graduate assistant, Murphy helped the Badgers' offensive and defensive lines from 1994-96 and the defensive backs at Baylor University in 1997. The following year he acted as the defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator for the University of San Diego. After a season at USD he returned to his alma mater, Lehigh University to coach the defensive line and serve as the strength and conditioning coordinator, and before his final position with Wisconsin, Murphy was an administrative assistant for UW from 2000-02.

Throughout his college coaching career, Murphy helped lead his squads to 8 bowl games ('94 Rose Bowl, '95 Hall of Fame Bowl, '96 Copper Bowl, '00 Sun Bowl, '02 Alamo Bowl, '03 Music City Bowl, '05 Outback Bowl, '06 Capital One Bowl), 6 of which his teams won. He coached 6 Big Ten Players of the Week and was a part of 2 Pontiac Game-Changing Plays of the Week and one Master Coaches Survey-Special Teams Play of the Year. Prior to DeBauche and Williams, Murphy coached special teams stars Jim Leonhard, who holds the Big Ten career record for punt return yardage with 1,347 yards and NFL long snapper Matt Katula.

Murphy graduated with a bachelor of arts in international relations in 1992 from Lehigh, where he also was a four-year letter-winner as a defensive lineman. He went on to earn his master's in education administration from the University of Wisconsin in 1997. Murphy and his wife, Maggie, have a son, Eamon, and a daughter, Flynn.

ERIC BIENIEMY

RUNNING BACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 9TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON (4 COACHING/9 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

In 3 seasons coaching the Vikings RBs, Eric Bieniemy has helped the unit perform at a record-setting pace that has improved in each campaign. With the unique perspective of a 9-year NFL vet himself, Bieniemy has guided his players to career-high totals.

Bieniemy landed his 1st NFL coaching position with the Vikings in 2006 and has responded by guiding a 1,000-yard rusher in all 3 seasons with Minnesota and helping Vikings RBs break the 100-yard mark 23 times in 48 regular season games.

In 2008 the Vikings ground game was the foundation for the NFC North champions winning 10 games. Highlighted by All-Pro RB Adrian Peterson setting Vikings records for rushing yards in a season with 1,760 and 100-yard games in a season with 10, the Vikings averaged over 146 yards per game rushing. Peterson became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing and was honored with Pro Bowl and Associated Press 1st-Team All-Pro recognition. Peterson was honored by the Maxwell Club with the Bert Bell Award as the Pro Football Player of the Year and was tied for runner-up in the AP's Offensive Player of the Year voting.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 team rushing yards. Minnesota also set a team record with a 5.33 yard per carry average and scored 22 rushing TDs. The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the league in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

In 2007, Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. Peterson made an immediate impact and set numerous NFL and team records in his 1st season in the league. He became only the 4th Vikings player and the 2nd Vikings RB to win the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year, earned a starting nod in the Pro Bowl and was named MVP of the game. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race despite missing 2 games. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history. Tony Richardson helped pave the way for Peterson and Taylor's record-setting season on his way to being the 1st Vikings FB to earn Pro Bowl honors since Bill Brown in 1968.

In 2006, Bieniemy helped guide free agent pickup Taylor to 1,216 yards and recorded the longest rushing play from scrimmage in team history with a 95-yard TD gallop at Seattle. The Vikings RBs posted 5 games over the century mark on the season with Taylor accounting for 4 and Pinner adding another. Taylor became a full-time starter for the 1st time in his career with the Vikings and responded to the workload with a battering style. Bieniemy prepared Artose Pinner for his lone start of the season in place of Taylor and he responded against his old Lions teammates with a career-high 125 yards and tied a Vikings record with 3 rushing TDs in the game. Bieniemy honed Jeff Dugan to step into the starting job at FB after veteran Tony Richardson was sidelined by injury. Dugan had not started a game at FB in his career before being called upon for the final 7 games of 2006.

Bieniemy spent the prior 3 seasons (2003-05) as RBs coach at UCLA and was also the Bruins' recruiting coordinator in 2005. In 2005, the Bruins finished with a 10-2 record, a #16 ranking in The Associated Press poll, and also earned a 50-38 Sun Bowl victory over Northwestern. Bieniemy tutored RB Maurice Jones-Drew for 3 seasons, who was drafted in the 2nd round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. In 2005, Drew rushed for 914 yards and 13 TDs and was selected to virtually every All-America 1st-Team as an all-purpose player/kick returner. In 2004, Drew became just the 10th Bruin to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,007) and set a single-game school record with 322 yards and 5 TDs at Washington. As a freshman in 2003, Drew earned 3rd-team Freshman All-America honors as a KR/RB after rushing for almost 600 yards and returning 2 kickoffs for TDs. Bieniemy also coached Chris Markey to 561 yards rushing in 2005, and in 2004, Manuel White had his most productive season as a Bruin, rushing for over 750 yards and catching 20 passes.

Prior to joining the UCLA staff, Bieniemy began his collegiate coaching career by working 2 seasons (2001-02) at his alma mater, Colorado, as RBs coach. In 2002, the Buffaloes ranked 9th in team rushing in the NCAA with 232.8 yards per game on the ground. Chris Brown ranked 3rd in the nation with a 153.4 yards per game average, and the Colorado TBs and FBs combined for over 3,000 yards rushing to lead the nation. Bieniemy made an immediate impact at Colorado in his 1st season in 2001 as the Buffs ranked 8th in the nation in rushing, averaging 228.5 yards per game. The TBs and FBs combined for 2,620 yards, the most yards out of all the RB positions in college football in 2001. Bieniemy had returned to Colorado in order to complete his degree in sociology. He also served as an assistant at Thomas Jefferson High in Denver in the fall of 2000 before his return to Colorado.

Bieniemy played 9 seasons in the NFL (1991-99) and was a 2nd-round pick of the San Diego Chargers in the 1991 NFL Draft. He played 4 seasons in San Diego (1991-94) and was a member of the Chargers' 1994 AFC Championship team that played San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIX. Bieniemy went on to play 4 seasons with Cincinnati (1995-98) and one season with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1999. Vikings' head coach Brad Childress was in his first season with the Eagles as QB coach in '99.

Bieniemy's name continues to be prominent throughout

Colorado's record books as he remains the school's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,940), all-purpose yards (4,351), touchdowns (42), and scoring (254 points). He was the nation's 2nd-leading rusher in 1990 with 1,628 yards, along with 17 TDs, and he finished 3rd that year in the Heisman Trophy balloting behind BYU's Ty Detmer (the winner) and Notre Dame's Raghib Ismail. Bieniemy earned unanimous All-America honors in 1990 and was a 2-time All-Big Eight selection in 1988 and 1990, earning the conference's Offensive Player of the Year award in '90. He was part of Colorado's national championship team in 1991 that defeated Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl. As a junior, he was named to CU's prestigious 25-member "All-Century Football Team," the only active member selected to the team honoring the first 100 years of Buffalo football.

Bieniemy was born in New Orleans, LA (8/15/69) and earned 2nd-team All-America honors from USA Today at Bishop Amat High School in LaPuente, CA as a senior when he rushed for 2,002 yards and 30 TDs.

Bieniemy and wife, Mia, have sons, Eric III and Elijah.

RUSH TO EXCEL

In the past 3 seasons the Vikings have had a 1,000-yard rusher each year and in 2008 Adrian Peterson became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing. Peterson and Chester Taylor give the Vikings a great 1-2 punch and make defending the Vikings a tough task. In 3 seasons coaching the Vikings RBs, former NFL back Eric Bieniemy has coached Peterson and FB Tony Richardson each to Pro Bowl honors and helped Taylor and Peterson etch their names throughout the Vikings record books.

KARL DUNBAR

DEFENSIVE LINE

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 14TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 10TH SEASON (5 COACHING/5 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

In the past 3 seasons under Karl Dunbar the Vikings defensive line has become a benchmark for consistency and performance, establishing an NFL mark for rushing defense along the way.

Dunbar enters his 12th season on a collegiate or professional sideline in 2009 and his 5 seasons coaching in the NFL match his 5 as an NFL player. His current stint in the NFL is his 2nd after he worked as a defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears in 2004. An 8th-round draft choice by the Pittsburgh Steelers and legendary head coach Chuck Noll in 1990, Dunbar went on to play with New Orleans (1992-93) and Arizona (1994-95). He also spent a season each with Orlando and Rhein in the World League.

The 2008 Vikings became the 1st NFL club since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to rank #1 in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. By acquiring DE Jared Allen via trade, the standout DT tandem of Kevin Williams and Pat Williams were even more effective. The trio all earned Pro Bowl honors in 2008, the 1st trio of Vikings defensive linemen to be recognized since 1969 and the days of the Purple People Eaters.

The Vikings pass rush in 2008 was keyed by Allen's 14.5 sacks, the most by a Viking since 1997. Kevin Williams tied for the sack lead among NFL DTs with 8.5, his best total since 2004. The benefit was seen in the Vikings total defense ranking #6 in the NFL, the highest mark for the club since the 1994 season.

In 2007, the Vikings held opponents to 1,185 yards on the ground, or an average of 74.1 yards per game. The Vikings' tough interior was anchored by DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams, who both earned Pro Bowl honors for the 2nd consecutive season. Kevin Williams notched his 4th career interception, setting a team record for the most career INTs by a defensive lineman.

The outstanding 2007 performance came on the heels of a record-setting 2006 season when the Vikings defense allowed just 985 rushing yards, or 61.6 yards per game. That total set a team record and ranked 2nd in the NFL since the 1970 merger behind only the Baltimore Ravens' 970 yards allowed in 2000.

As the assistant head coach/defensive line coach in 2005 for his alma mater, LSU, Dunbar was reunited with head coach Les Miles, whom he worked under at Oklahoma State in 2002-03. The Tigers won the SEC West in 2005 and upset Miami in the Peach Bowl to end the season.

The 2005 season was Dunbar's 2nd tour of duty at LSU, as he had previously worked with the Tigers' strength and conditioning program in 2000-01. He returned to the Tigers in 2000 under head coach Nick Saban and helped kick-start the team to an 8-4 finish and a win in the Peach Bowl. The following season the squad went 10-3, won the SEC title for the 1st time since 1986, when Dunbar was a freshman defensive lineman, and won the Sugar Bowl. In 7 seasons as a player and coach with LSU, Dunbar helped amass a 60-24-1 record, win a pair of SEC titles and play in 6 bowl games.

During Dunbar's 1st stint in the NFL with the Bears in 2004, he helped tutor a young and talented line that included rookie 1st-round pick Tommie Harris and 2nd-rounder Tank Johnson. Harris opened all 16 games, the first Bears DT to accomplish the feat since 1975. The Bears' attack ranked #2 in the NFL in total defense in 2005 and saw Harris earn a Pro Bowl berth.

Dunbar tutored Vikings' All-Pro DT Kevin Williams at Oklahoma State during his senior season and helped him become the 1st OSU defensive lineman to be a 1st-round draft pick (9th in 2003) since Leslie O'Neal (8th in 1986).

A standout player at LSU, Dunbar was a starter for his final 3 seasons and earned 2nd-Team All-SEC acclaim as a senior in 1989. Dunbar was part of Tiger teams that won or shared a pair of SEC titles in 1986 and 1988, posted a 31-15-1 record and played in the Sugar, Gator and Hall of Fame bowls. As a senior in 1989, Dunbar was LSU's co-captain with QB Tommy Hodson. He was also a linemate at LSU with former Vikings Pro Bowler Henry Thomas.

Dunbar (5/18/67) graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He and wife, Pamela, have 3 children – Karmichael MacKenzie II, Mickel Angelle and Nickolette Alyse.

THREE'S COMPANY

The Vikings sent 3 defensive linemen to the Pro Bowl in 2008 and landed DT Kevin Williams and DE Jared Allen on the Associated Press' 1st-Team All-Pro squad. Kevin Williams and Pat Williams became the 1st Vikings DT duo to earn Pro Bowl honors 3 times.

SPECIAL TEAMS ASST./PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COORD.

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 7TH SEASON (1 COACHING/6 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

Jason Glenn makes his coaching debut with the Vikings in 2009, pursuing a career in the NFL combining areas where he excelled during his own 6-year NFL playing career. Glenn will assist in dual areas with the Vikings- helping coach the special teams units and working with the Vikings Player Development programs.

Glenn's experience as a special teams standout and as a player who took advantage of opportunities at the club and NFL level through Player Development will allow him to relate closely with current players. Having players embrace roles on special teams and taking pride in performing in that phase of the game will enhance the units. At the same time, having players embrace continuing educational opportunities, internships and career development off the field will help those players successfully transition to post-football life.

Glenn worked diligently during his NFL career to finish his bachelor's degree at Texas A&M and pursue a master's degree. An active participant in Player Development projects during his career and a regular supporter of community outreach efforts, Glenn was able to give back to his community throughout his career.

Originally a 6th round (#173 overall) draft pick by Detroit in 2001, Glenn played for the NY Jets from 2001-04 before going to Miami in 2005 and joining the Vikings in 2006. A standout special teams player throughout his career, Glenn made 1 start on defense, opening a game at MLB for the Jets in 2003.

During his Jets career, Glenn had the chance to play with his older brother, Aaron, a former 1st-round draft choice at CB by the Jets.

Glenn joined the Vikings in 2009 from the Houston, TX public school system where he worked as an assistant athletics director. A product of the Houston area, Glenn was named the Houston Touchdown Club's Defensive Player of the Year and a Texas 5A all-state honoree as a senior at Nimitz High. Glenn moved on to Texas A&M where he was an All-Big 12 choice as a senior.

Glenn and wife, Terrika, have a daughter, Kaidance and a son, Jason II. The family resides in suburban Minneapolis.

JIM HUEBER

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 36TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

Jim Hueber has a proven track record as a collegiate and professional offensive line coach with 35 seasons of experience under his belt. Hueber's linemen have paved the way for some of the most impressive and record-setting rushing performances by running backs in the NFL and college football.

The 2008 Vikings rode the powerful offensive line to a 10-6 record and helped Adrian Peterson become the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing in the 48-season history of the franchise. Peterson set a new Vikings single-season rushing record with 1,760 yards and established a new team record with 10 games of 100+ rushing yards. He earned his 2nd straight Pro Bowl berth and became only the 5th player in NFL history to run for 3,000+ yards in his opening 2 seasons in the League. Steve Hutchinson represented the Vikings line at the Pro Bowl for the 3rd straight season with the club and for the 6th time in his career. The Vikings won the NFC North with a 10-6 record, the 1st Division title for the club since 2000.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards as a team. Minnesota also set a team record with a 5.33 yard per carry average, scored 22 rushing TDs, and had 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance. The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the NFL in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

Up front, C Matt Birk and G Steve Hutchinson earned Pro Bowl honors for their performances in 2007 for the 2nd consecutive year, which was the 1st time since 1999-2000 that the Vikings had 2 offensive linemen earn the honor in back-to-back seasons. Rookie Adrian Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history.

Hueber made his NFL debut in 2006 after 33 seasons in the collegiate game. His proven talent for improving the running game showed as Taylor took advantage of his 1st full-time starting role in the NFL to run for 1,216 yards, the 6th-highest single-season total in Vikings history. The 2006 Vikings posted 5 games with a 100-yard rusher, which matched the total of the 2004 and 2005 Vikings teams combined.

Hueber is familiar with the Twin Cities after spending 1984-91 on the Golden Gophers' coaching staff. In his current role he is reunited with Head Coach Brad Childress, whom he coached with at Wisconsin. Hueber works closely with a former pupil in Vikings Offensive Coordinator Darrell Bevell, who as a Badger QB, helped Wisconsin rise to national power.

Hueber spent the 1995-2005 seasons coaching the Wisconsin linemen after beginning his tenure in Madison, working with the RBs from 1992-94. Hueber moved to tutoring the linemen in 1995 and his group paved the way for 1999 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne to leave with the all-time college football rushing title with 6,397 yards.

Hueber played a major part in rebuilding the Badger program. Wisconsin played in 11 bowl games in his 14 seasons in Madison. The 1993 Badgers went 10-1-1 to claim a share of the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl for the 1st time since 1962. The 1993 win over UCLA was the 1st Rose Bowl title for the Badgers in school history and started a remarkable streak of success as the Badgers won or tied for the Big Ten crown 3 times from 1993-99. During Hueber's tenure, UW posted a 112-57-4 record, including an 8-3 bowl mark.

Prior to moving across the border to Wisconsin, Hueber guided the Golden Gophers offensive line for 8 seasons from 1984-91. Starting at Minnesota on the staff of legendary head coach Lou Holtz. During his tenure with the Gophers, Hueber's linemen paved the way for all-time leading rusher and 1st-round draft pick Darrell Thompson to run for 4,654 yards.

Hueber and his wife, Nancy, are parents to Jeffrey, Jonathan, Joseph and Kristine. In the spring of 2009, Hueber was inducted into the Alumni Hall of Fame for his alma mater, Northeast Catholic High School in Philadelphia.

JIMMIE JOHNSON

TIGHT ENDS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 9TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 14TH SEASON (4 COACHING/10 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

Entering his 4th season with the Vikings' coaching staff in 2009, Jimmie Johnson brings a blend of NFL expertise as both a player and as a coach which has proved to be a valuable asset during his 3 years with the team. During his decade in the NFL as a player, Johnson was committed to the art of blocking, helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in 8 of his 10 seasons. Now as a coach, he continues to stress the importance of the skill to his current TEs unit, which in 2009 will again include 11-year veteran Jim Kleinsasser and emerging pass catcher Visanthe Shiancoe, a 3rd-year Viking.

Last season Johnson saw the emergence of Shiancoe as a top-tier NFL TE. Shiancoe led the NFC and tied for 3rd among TEs in the NFL with 7 TD receptions. The 7 scores came up just 1 shy of the Vikings single-season record for TEs held by Joe Senser (8 in 1981). Shiancoe set new career highs in all major statistical categories with 42 receptions for 596 yards to go along with his 7 TDs. He also had a day for the records books, when he tied the Vikings single-game scoring mark for a TE with 2 TDs and matched the 2nd best effort by a Vikings TE with 136 yards vs. Atlanta (12/21/08). While Shiancoe racked up the accolades through the air, Kleinsasser continued to show his value in the running game as he helped pave the way for Adrian Peterson to finish the year as the NFL's rushing king and earn in his 2nd Pro Bowl berth in as many seasons. Peterson set records for single-season rushing yards (1,760) and games of 100+ yards (10) en route to becoming the 1st Viking to lead the NFL in rushing.

In 2007, Kleinsasser and Shiancoe assisted the Vikings record-setting rushing attack and contributed in the passing game. In Shiancoe's 1st season with the Vikings, he finished with career highs in every category as he hauled in 27 receptions for 323 yards and 1 TD. He caught the longest pass by a Vikings' TE in team history, a 79-yarder on a reverse by WR Sidney Rice. Kleinsasser, who was recognized for his unselfish blocking with a spot on the USA Today's All-Joe Team, added 4 catches for 43 yards and a TD.

In 2006, Johnson's TE corps helped newly-acquired Taylor run for 1,214 yards in his 1st season as a full-time starter. Taylor's total ranked as the 4th-highest single-season mark in Vikings' history. Jermaine Wiggins tied for 2nd on the team with 46 receptions.

During his 10 NFL seasons as a tight end, Johnson spent time with Washington, Detroit, Kansas City and Philadelphia. Originally selected in the 12th round of the 1989 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, he was a long-shot rookie who not only made the final squad, but also went on to play in all 16 games that year. While with the Redskins, Johnson played under the legendary Joe Gibbs and was part of teams that went 34-14 in regular season action and

TIGHT END TWO STEP

Vikings TEs Visanthe Shiancoe and Jim Kleinsasser have elevated their games since playing together and offer a perfect complement to each others strengths. Shiancoe had a career year in 2008, highlighted by 7 TD catches to tie for the Vikings lead. Kleinsasser, a rugged blocker who re-signed with the team as a free agent in 2009, has been key to the Vikings dominant rushing attack.

4-1 in the playoffs. He was a member of the 1991 Redskins team that reached the pinnacle of the NFL, winning Super Bowl XXVI over Buffalo in the stadium he now calls home – the Metrodome. His best season statistically was 1990, when he caught 15 passes for 218 yards and a pair of TDs. That year he averaged 14.5 yards per catch, which trailed only Gary Clark’s team-leading 14.8 average, and caught his 1st NFL TD on a 4-yard pass from Stan Humphries in a 41-38 overtime win at Detroit (11/4/90). In 1991, Johnson caught 3 passes in the opening 6 games, including 2 for TDs from Mark Rypien in the 1st and 2nd games of the year vs. Detroit (9/1/91) and at Dallas (10/6/91) on Monday Night Football. A neck injury suffered at Chicago (10/6/91), however, placed Johnson on injured reserve for the rest of the Redskins championship season.

Following his 3 seasons with Washington, Johnson joined the Lions in 1992 as a Plan B free agent and went on to start 10 of the 22 games he played from 1992-93 under head coach Wayne Fontes. After his release by Detroit in November 1993, Johnson joined Kansas City and head coach Marty Schottenheimer for the 1994 season. That year the Chiefs played against the Vikings in the preseason game held in Tokyo and went on to ride Hall of Famers Joe Montana and Marcus Allen to a 9-7 record and a berth in the playoffs. Johnson played in 7 games and started 1 that season.

In 1995, Johnson moved on to Philadelphia where he enjoyed his most productive seasons as part of the 2-TE power running game employed by the Eagles. Johnson blocked for Ricky Watters as he earned Pro Bowl berths in 1995 and '96 while breaking the 1,000-yard mark each season from 1995-97. In 1996, Watters set the Eagles team record for attempts with 353, the 2nd-most yards in team history with 1,411, and the 2nd-most rushing TDs with 13. The Eagles took NFC east runner-up honors in 1995 and '96 while advancing to the playoffs both seasons under Ray Rhodes. During that time, Johnson started 18 of the 51 games he played and had a career best 18.1-yard receiving average in 1996, when he caught 7 passes for 127 yards. His final NFL TD came from QB Bobby Hoying vs. Cincinnati (11/30/97).

As a player, Johnson was durable, seeing action in all 16 games in 6 of his 10 seasons. He finished his career with 61 catches for 723 yards and 5 TDs while playing in 5 postseason games. He also blocked for 1,000 yards rushers in 8 of his 10 NFL seasons, helping Earnest Byner break the 1,000-yard mark and earn Pro Bowl honors in 1990 and 1991. Barry Sanders repeated the feats in Detroit in 1992 and '93, and in Philadelphia, Johnson helped Watters get over the 1,000-yard plateau in 1995, '96 and '97. Johnson finished his career clearing the way for Deuce Staley in 1998, who gained 1,000+ yards in only his 2nd NFL season.

After his playing days were over, Johnson entered coaching, beginning his career as the running backs coach at South Carolina

State in 2001, where he helped the Bulldogs finish 6-5. He then held the offensive coordinator position at Shaw University in 2002 before becoming offensive coordinator/QBs coach at Texas Southern in 2004 and 2005. Johnson had an immediate impact in both positions. In 2005 at TSU, Johnson helped develop sophomore RB Brent Wilson into a 1st-Team All-SWAC performer with 1,032 rushing yards, 10 rushing TDs and 1 receiving TD. Wilson became the 1st TSU player to break the 1,000-yard mark since 1998 and was the lone sophomore on offense to earn 1st-Team honors after making a dramatic improvement over his freshman season when he finished with 16 rushing yards. At Shaw, Johnson helped resurrect the Bears football program that had been discontinued since 1978. The team went 7-3 in both 2002 and 2003 and rejoined the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in '03.

Johnson attended Howard University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in consumer studies. As a senior he was an All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference choice after hauling in 31 receptions for 546 yards and 9 TDs. For his college career, Johnson finished with 16 TDs and 1,229 receiving yards on 73 catches.

A native of Augusta, GA, Johnson attended T.W. Josey High School. He and his family reside in Shakopee.

DEREK MASON

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 16TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

Following a 2008 season that saw the Vikings defense rank #6 overall and featured CB Antoine Winfield earn his 1st Pro Bowl in his 10th NFL season, Derek Mason returns to his role as Assistant Defensive Backs coach for his 3rd year with the Vikings.

Mason brings 15 seasons of coaching experience on both sides of the ball and was exposed to the NFL through the Minority Coaching Fellowship program in 1996 with the St. Louis Rams, 2000 with the NY Giants and 2006 with the Oakland Raiders. He joined the Vikings staff in 2007, working with Defensive Backs coach Joe Woods.

The 2008 Vikings DBs were solid in pass defense and run support during the year. All 5 Vikings DBs who started, Antoine Winfield, Darren Sharper, Cedric Griffin, Madiou Williams, Tyrell Johnson, and nickel backs Charles Gordon and Benny Sapp, posted INTs during the season. The ability to play the run by the DBs was a major factor in the Vikings leading the NFL in rushing defense for the 3rd straight year. Overall, the Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL, the highest ranking since 1994 by the Vikings.

Mason and DBs coach Joe Woods were forced to prepare several players to assume starting or key roles due to injury during the season. The team started 2008 2nd-round draft pick Johnson for the opening 7 games as safety opposite Sharper as Williams recovered from a preseason injury. The team had to deal with a season-ending injury to nickel back Gordon and elevate 2008 Vikings newcomer Sapp to take over the role. Against the run, Griffin ranked 2nd on the team with a career-best 100 tackles while Winfield was tied for 2nd on the team with 9 tackles for loss.

In 2007, Mason helped coach a defensive backfield that included Sharper, who went to the Pro Bowl and finished the season tied for the team lead with 4 INTs and scored on 1 in an upset win at Giants Stadium. Against the NY Giants, the Vikings set a team record as they returned 3 INTs for TDs, including a 93-yard return by Dwight Smith that ranks as the 4th-longest INT return in Vikings' history and a 20-yarder by Sharper.

Despite currently coaching on the defensive side of the ball, Mason has spent much of his career working with WRs and special teams. He helped elevate numerous college players to new heights and improve throughout their careers. In his most recent position before joining Minnesota, Mason tutored the Ohio University WRs under head coach Frank Solich and helped the Bobcats improve from a 4-7 season in 2005 to a 9-5 mark in 2006, ending their season in the GMAC Bowl against Southern Mississippi. The Bobcats won 7 consecutive games in the middle of the 2006 season, highlighted by a 20-17 win at Big Ten opponent Illinois. The team advanced to the Mid-America Conference title game against Central Michigan and the Bobcats berth in the GMAC Bowl marked the 3rd bowl appearance in school history and the first since the 1968 Tangerine Bowl.

Prior to joining the staff at Ohio, Mason spent 2004 coaching WRs at New Mexico State and helped the Aggies lead the conference in passing. In 2003, he was co-defensive coordinator/assistant head coach at Division I-AA St. Mary's College in California, where he helped DB Wes Boba earn All-America honors in the final season the Gaels fielded a football team. During the 2002 season, Mason mentored the receivers and assisted with special teams at Utah. The 2002 Utes finished with 2 of the top 10 WRs in the Mountain West Conference and led the league in kickoff returns. During Mason's season in Utah, the team also featured future #1 overall NFL Draft pick QB Alex Smith and WR draftee Paris Warren.

Mason made his 1st appearance on the defensive side of the ball in 2001 at Bucknell. Mason spent his early coaching years in the West, coaching running backs at Idaho State from 1997-98 after coaching wide receivers from 1995-96 at Weber State. His coaching career began at Mesa CC in 1994.

As a player, Mason was a 2-year starter and 4-year letterman at Northern Arizona, where he was teammates for a season with Vikings offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell and played under Larry Kentera and Steve Axman. During Mason's playing days at NAU, the Lumberjacks' staff included future NFL head coaches Brad Childress, Marty Mornhinweg and Bill Callahan.

A native of Phoenix, Mason attended Camelback High School. He and his wife, Leighanne, have two daughters – Makenzie and Sydney.

PAT MORRIS

OFFENSIVE LINE

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 34TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

In the past 3 seasons with the Vikings, the offensive lines under Pat Morris' instruction have built a running game that has earned a place in the team and NFL record books. Morris will be entering his 13th season coaching in the NFL in 2009 and has 21 seasons of experience at the collegiate level.

In the past 12 seasons (1997-2008), Morris has coached lines that have cleared the way for the NFL's #1 rushing attack 3 times (1998, '99, '07) and ranked in the NFL's top 10 on 8 occasions.

The Vikings powerful 2008 rushing attack was key to the club winning the NFC North title with a 10-6 mark, the 1st Division championship for the Vikings since 2000. In his 2nd NFL season, RB Adrian Peterson became the 1st Viking to lead the league in rushing and broke team records with 1,760 yards rushing and 10 games over the 100-yard mark. Standout G Steve Hutchinson was named 1st-Team All-Pro and went to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl in his 3 seasons with Minnesota.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards. The team set a franchise record with a 5.33 yard per carry average, scored 22 rushing TDs, and had 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance. The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the NFL in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

Two of Morris' players, C Matt Birk and Hutchinson, earned Pro Bowl honors for their performances in 2007 for the 2nd consecutive season, which was the 1st time since 1999-2000 that the Vikings had 2 offensive linemen earn the honor in back-to-back years. Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined to rush for a team-record 2,185 yards. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards on the ground at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 rushing on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history.

In 2006 Taylor took advantage of his 1st full-time starting role in the NFL to run for 1,216 yards, the 4th-highest single-season total in team history. The Vikings posted 5 games with a 100-yard rusher on the season, which matched the 2004 and 2005 Vikings teams combined.

Morris spent 2004 and 2005 in the NFC North as the offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions on Steve Mariucci's staff.

Before joining the Lions, Morris spent 7 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, 2 as TE's/assistant offensive line coach (1997-98) and 5 as OL coach (1999-2003), and 6 of those seasons (1997-02) were under Mariucci. During the 6 seasons under Mariucci, the 49ers made the playoffs 4 times with a pair of NFC West titles. During his time with the 49ers, the team totaled the 2nd-highest rushing total in the NFL, averaging 135.5 yards per game over the 7-year span. San Francisco's offensive line cleared the way for 5 2,000-yard rushing seasons, with 2,544 in 1998 (franchise record), 2,095 in 1999, 2,244 in 2000, 2,244 in 2002, and 2,279 in 2003. Four offensive linemen played in the Pro Bowl during Morris' time working with the line, including G Kevin Gogan (1998), G Ray Brown (2002), C Jeremy Newberry (2002-03), and G Ron Stone (2003). The 49ers had 1,000-yard rushers in 6 of Morris' 7 seasons with the team, including Garrison Hearst's franchise-record 1,570 yards in 1998.

Morris also has familiarity with the state of Minnesota from his 4 seasons at the University of Minnesota (1979-82) as offensive line coach under Joe Salem. He spent a season at Northern Arizona (1978) before joining the Gophers' staff. Morris began his coaching career at Southern California as a graduate assistant from 1976-77. He graduated from USC following his playing days in 1976.

During his college playing and coaching career, Morris was associated with 5 Rose Bowl teams and 2 national championships. Morris was born in Cleveland, OH, and is married to wife, Kathy.

RUSH TO JUDGEMENT

During Pat Morris' 12 seasons coaching offensive line in the NFL his units have paved the way for some impressive rushing performances, including paving the way for 3 teams to lead the NFL in rushing in 1998, 1999 and 2007.

FRED PAGAC

LINEBACKERS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 32ND SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 11TH SEASON (9 COACHING/2 PLAYING)
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

The most experienced member of the Vikings defensive staff, Fred Pagac enters his 4th season with the team and his 32nd season of coaching in 2009. In his 3 Vikings seasons, Pagac's LBs have been key to the team ranking in the top 10 of NFL total defense twice- #6 in 2008 and #8 in 2006.

The 2008 Vikings LBs overcame adversity to solidify a defensive unit that finished the season ranked #6 in the NFL in total defense and #1 in rushing defense for the 3rd straight season, becoming the 1st team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to lead the League in rush defense 3 straight seasons. The unit had to overcome the loss of emerging star and defensive captain MLB E.J. Henderson to a season-ending injury in the 4th game. Veteran SLB Ben Leber took over defensive playcalling and the team didn't miss a beat. Leber tied for the NFL lead with 4 fumble recoveries while WLB Chad Greenway led the team in tackles with 150 and emerged as a blitz threat, notching 5.5 sacks, the 4th-most by a Vikings LB in team history.

When Henderson was lost for the season Pagac had to prepare undrafted 2nd-year man David Herron to step into the void as the team searched for a replacement, which was former Vikings starter Napoleon Harris. When Harris picked up a fumble and went 27 yards for a TD it marked the 4th score a Vikings LB has produced in the 3 seasons Pagac has coached the position.

In 2007 Henderson led the team with a career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. He added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-high 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors. The LB corps entered 2007 with only Leber playing his same position from the previous year. Leber tied for the team lead with 5.0 sacks, matching his career-best mark set as a rookie with San Diego in 2002, and posted a career-high 88 tackles. Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury, came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2006 Vikings finished #8 in NFL total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defense became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game. The Vikings LBs played a key role in the defensive dynamic by accounting for 9.5 sacks, 6 INTs and 2 TDs. Henderson led the team in tackles with 142 and posted with 3.0 sacks and 2 INTs under Pagac's watch, including a 45-yard TD on his 1st career INT. Leber made his impact on the team felt in his 1st season with the team with 3.0 sacks, an INT and scored a TD on a fumble recovery.

Pagac coached LBs for the Kansas City Chiefs for 2 seasons (2004-05) and with the Oakland Raiders for 3 seasons (2001-03) before coming to the Vikings. Prior to entering the professional ranks, Pagac spent 23 years on the coaching staff at Ohio State, where he aided in the development of several top players.

Under Pagac's direction in 2005, Chiefs 3rd-year LB Kawika Mitchell led the team with a career-high 135 tackles and 14 passes defended as he started all 16 games at MLB for the 1st time in his career. Pagac also tutored rookie LB Derrick Johnson, who finished 3rd on the team with 110 tackles and added 2.0 sacks and 9 passes defended on his way to being named the club's Mack Lee Hill Award winner, which is given to KC's top rookie. Johnson became the 1st rookie LB in Chiefs history to start all 16 games since LB Dino Hackett accomplished the feat in 1986. The Chiefs defense finished 7th in the NFL against the run in '05, and 6th in the NFL with 31 takeaways.

In 2004, 3rd-year LB Scott Fujita led the Chiefs for the 2nd consecutive season in tackles with 112. Kawika Mitchell bounced back from an early-season ankle injury to start 12 games and finished 2nd on the team with 85 tackles. The Chiefs defense finished 12th in the NFL against the run.

In 2002, Pagac helped the Raiders defense to a #11 overall NFL ranking and a #3 ranking against the run as Oakland won the AFC and faced Tampa Bay in Super Bowl XXXVII. Pagac tutored Napoleon Harris as he was named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie team and finished 3rd on the team in tackles. In 2001, MLB and former Viking Greg Biekert led the Raiders with 108 tackles and tied a career high with 3.0 sacks.

From 1978-2000, Pagac coached at his alma mater, Ohio State, and worked with 10 Buckeyes defensive performers who earned All-America honors, including Vikings CB Antoine Winfield. Winfield was a 2-time All-America pick and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back in 1998. Pagac also tutored future Pro Bowl LBs Chris Spielman, Pepper Johnson and Mike Vrabel, as well as CB Shawn Springs, LB Na'ill Diggs, S Mike Doss, and CB Nate Clements. Andy Katzenmoyer won All-America accolades in 1997 and won the Butkus Award as the nation's top LB. During Pagac's 23 years on the Ohio State coaching staff, the Buckeyes played in 20 bowl games. As a player and coach, Pagac was part of 6 Rose Bowls with the Buckeyes.

Pagac was assistant head coach to John Cooper in 2000 in his final season at OSU. From 1996-99, Pagac served as defensive coordinator. In 1998, the Buckeyes led the nation in rushing defense, ranked 2nd in pass defense, and were 4th overall. Pagac was among 5 finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the NCAA's top assistant in '98.

In '97, Ohio State allowed 170 points to rank 2nd in the nation in scoring defense. That season the Buckeyes also ranked 2nd in the nation in pass defense. In 1996, Ohio State was 1st in the country in pass defense and ranked 2nd in scoring defense, allowing just 131 points, which was the fewest surrendered by Ohio State since 1979.

Prior to being named defensive coordinator in 1996, Pagac tutored Ohio State's LBs for 14 seasons (1982-95). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1978 before joining the staff on a full-time basis under Earle Bruce in 1982. Pagac coached on the Buckeyes staff with Vikings QB coach Kevin Rogers from 1977-78.

Pagac entered the NFL as a TE with Chicago in 1974 as a rookie free agent, where he was honored with the club's prestigious Brian Piccolo Award. Pagac also played 13 games for Tampa Bay in their 1976 inaugural season.

Pagac was a 3-year starter at TE for Ohio State from 1971-

LBs SCORING TDs

The Vikings have scored 15 defensive TDs in the past 3 seasons (2006-08), tied for the NFL lead over that span. The Vikings LBs have contributed 4 of those TDs, all by different players- 2 by fumble recovery and 2 by interception return.

Pagac (4/26/52) was born in Richeyville, PA. He and his wife, Bernie, have a daughter, Jennifer, and a son, Fred, Jr., who played LB at Ohio State, with the Frankfurt Galaxy and currently works as a graduate assistant at Ohio State.

KEVIN ROGERS

QUARTERBACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 35TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

Kevin Rogers returns for his 4th season with the Vikings in 2009 and will work with a pair of seasoned signal callers in Tarvaris Jackson and Sage Rosenfels along with developing 2nd-year pro John David Booty.

The 2008 Vikings had Jackson and veteran Gus Frerotte both under center as the team went 10-6 and won the NFC North-1st Division title for the Vikings since 2000. When Jackson took over for an injured Frerotte in the 13th game of the season at Detroit (12/7/08) he led the team on a 4th-quarter comeback win and posted wins in 2 of the final 3 wins of the regular season. In Jackson's 1st start after an 11-game layoff when Frerotte took over the reins, he earned his 1st career NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after a career-best 4 TD day at Arizona (12/14/08) in an upset win over the eventual NFC Champions. In the final 4 regular season games, Jackson had an 8 TD to 1 INT ratio and a passer rating of 115.4.

The 2008 Vikings passing game made big plays down the field, connecting on 2 of the 3 longest passing plays in team history during the season. Bernard Berrian was on the receiving end of an NFL-record tying 99-yard TD vs. Chicago (11/30) and an 86-yard score vs. Detroit (10/12).

In 2007, Rogers watched Jackson, the former 2006 2nd-round draft choice, finish the season with an 8-4 mark as a starter, including 7-3 in his final 10 starts with wins over the 2006 NFC Champion Chicago Bears (twice) as well as the Super Bowl XLII champion NY Giants and 2007 playoff-bound San Diego Chargers.

Rogers prepared Jackson in 2006 as the rookie took over the starting duties for the final 2 games of the season. Jackson's athleticism produced a 5.1 yards-per-carry average and a rushing TD along with 3 passes of 30+ yards in his 47 completions, including a 50-yarder.

For Rogers, the 2009 season will mark his 35th year in the coaching profession, 28 of which have been at the collegiate level. He has coached an impressive list of players such as Donovan McNabb, Marvin Harrison and Napoleon McCallum, and has been fortunate to coach alongside some of the legends of the game, sharing the sideline with the likes of Woody Hayes, Paul Pasqualoni and Frank Beamer.

Before joining Minnesota, Rogers spent the 2002-05 seasons at Virginia Tech, where he guided back-to-back Hokies QBs to impressive performances. Rogers helped QB Bryan Randall etch his name throughout the school record book as he became the all-time leader in passing yards, touchdowns and total offense. Randall ended his career in 2004 with Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year honors. In 2005, Rogers guided QB Marcus Vick in his debut as a starter on to 1st-Team All-ACC honors. Vick led the ACC in pass efficiency, while the Hokies led the conference in scoring offense at 33.8 points per game, including a league-high 51 TDs. During Rogers' tenure, the Hokies amassed a 39-14 record, won the ACC title in 2004 and played in the 1st ACC Championship Game in 2005 after winning the ACC Coastal Division. The team also advanced to bowl games in each of his 4 seasons.

Prior to his successful stint at Virginia Tech, Rogers spent the 1999-2001 seasons at Notre Dame as the offensive coordinator/QBs coach on Bob Davie's staff. He played a part in the 2000 Irish squad that finished 9-3 and was invited to the Fiesta Bowl in the school's debut in a Bowl Championship Series game. Rogers worked with QB Jarious Jackson in his final season and helped the senior signal-caller leave with the single-season passing yardage record in 1999 and set school marks for attempts and completions. Jackson ended his career as the 4th-ranked quarterback in school history and was selected in the 7th round of the 2000 NFL Draft, the first Irish QB drafted since Rick Mirer in 1993.

Rogers' longest tenure came with Syracuse University, where he coached from 1991-1998 and helped the Orange to a combined 68-26-1 record and 6 bowl appearances. He joined the team as quarterbacks coach on Pasqualoni's staff, was named assistant head coach in 1995, serving as the recruiting coordinator from 1995-97 before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1997. During Rogers' time with Syracuse, the team tied for the 1996 Big East title and won the crown outright in 1997 and '98, becoming the 1st team in conference history to win 3 straight championships. It was also during that time that Rogers became acquainted with Vikings' Head Coach Brad Childress, as the Philadelphia Eagles began evaluating Rogers' star pupil, Donovan McNabb, before the 1999 NFL Draft. McNabb excelled under Rogers' tutelage, leaving Syracuse with the majority of the school's passing records and earning 3 straight Big East Offensive Player of the Year awards from 1996-98 before being drafted #2 overall by the Eagles. Individually, McNabb was one of the most decorated players in team history, but other Orange players benefited from Rogers' teaching as well. From 1992-98, Syracuse QBs were prominent in league play as McNabb was a 1st-Team All-Big East choice in each of his 4 seasons (1995-98), Kevin Mason earned 1st-Team acclaim in 1994 and Marvin Graves was a 2nd-Team choice in 1992 when he ranked 2nd in the nation in passing. Graves held the school records that McNabb would soon break as both still stand among the top QBs in school history. Rogers also helped groom future NFL stars Marvin Harrison, Qadry Ismail and Rob Konrad.

Rogers' spent 1983-90 on the staff at Navy, where he spent 7 seasons working with the offense and future NFL standout Napoleon McCallum. From 1980-82, he coached RBs at his alma mater, William & Mary. Rogers got his start in coaching at Virginia Beach's Bayside High (1974-76) before serving as a graduate assistant at Ohio State under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1977-78, where he also coached with Vikings LB coach Fred Pagac.

A 1974 graduate from the College of William & Mary, where he also played LB, Rogers went on to receive his master's degree from Ohio State in 1978. Rogers and his wife, Betty, have 3 children - Kevin, Megan and Ryan. Kevin is a former Villanova QB and works as a pro scout for the Super Bowl XLI Champion Indianapolis Colts. Ryan earned his degree from Notre Dame and is in grad school at Syracuse's Newhouse School of Communications. Megan is the Manager of Football Administration for the Cleveland Browns.

GEORGE STEWART

WIDE RECEIVERS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 27TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 22ND SEASON (21 COACHING/1 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

Vikings WRs coach George Stewart enters his 3rd season on the Vikings staff and his 21st year on an NFL sideline. Having previously coached in Pittsburgh, Tampa Bay, San Francisco and Atlanta, Stewart has a proven track record of getting players to perform at the top of their games.

Over the years, Stewart has been a part of several successful programs, highlighted by 7 playoff appearances in the past 13 seasons and a pair of NFC Championship games with San Francisco in 1997 and Atlanta in 2004. Recently, Stewart helped win 3 NFC Division titles in the past 7 seasons – 2002 with San Francisco, 2004 with Atlanta and 2008 with the Vikings.

In 2008, the Vikings WRs contributed to much of the success of an improved passing attack. Led by priority free agent signing Bernard Berrian, the Vikings led the NFL with 13 TDs through the air of 20+ yards. Berrian had a career year, setting highs in yards with 964 and TDs with 7. Berrian's 20.1 yards per catch ranked #1 in the NFL among players with 35+ catches, while on the receiving end of 2 of the 3 longest receptions in Vikings' history with an 86-yard TD reception vs. Detroit (10/12/08) and a 99-yard TD catch vs. Chicago (11/30/08). The 99-yard strike tied an NFL mark for the longest reception in history and set a Vikings record as the longest play from scrimmage. For the 2nd straight year, Bobby Wade hauled in a team-high 53 passes and caught the longest TD of his career, snaring a 59-yarder at Arizona (12/14/08).

In his 2007 Vikings debut, Stewart had the challenge of coaching a unit that included rookie Sidney Rice and Wade, a free agent pickup. Nonetheless, each of the new players found success under Stewart's tutelage. Wade set career-highs with 54 receptions and 647 receiving yards and Rice led the team with 4 receiving TDs. Rice, who ranked 3rd on the team with 31 catches for 396 yards, was 2nd among NFL rookies with 4 TDs.

Throughout Stewart's coaching career, he has been fortunate to learn from some of the game's all-time greats, beginning both his playing and early coaching careers under college legend Lou Holtz. Stewart went on to work in the NFL side-by-side with Chuck Noll, Sam Wyche, George Seifert and Dan Reeves, all men who led teams to the NFL pinnacle and a berth in the Super Bowl.

During Stewart's tenure in Atlanta, the team won the NFC South title in 2004 and advanced to the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia. Stewart's WRs with the Falcons included Jenkins, Ashley Lelie and Roddy White.

Prior to joining Atlanta, Stewart was an integral part of the San Francisco 49ers' success from 1996-2002, as the team advanced to the playoffs 5 times in those 7 seasons. In 1997, the 49ers won the NFC West with a 13-3 mark and eventually lost to Green Bay in the NFC Championship game. During that time, Stewart tutored the 49ers wide receiving corps and helped elevate each of Terrell Owens, J.J. Stokes and Tai Streets performances, with Owens making Pro Bowl appearances in 3 straight seasons from 2000-02 as well as earning consensus All-Pro honors in each of those years. In the 3 seasons Stewart worked with Owens, the WR had 17 games over the 100-yard receiving mark and 5 games with 150+ yards. Before working with Stewart, Owens' career-highs for season receptions was 67, a mark he shattered with 97, 93 and 100 respectively in 2000, '01 and '02. Owens set his career-high in receiving yards with 1,451 in 2000 and TDs with 16 in 2001. He broke a 50-year-old NFL record when he caught 20 passes for 283 yards against the Bears in 2000 en route to his career-best day. The 49ers wide receivers also helped the development of QB Jeff Garcia during that time span as well, as he also earned 3 Pro Bowl berths.

Stewart's 1st taste of NFL coaching came with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91, as he served as the special teams coach on Chuck Noll's staff. In his debut season in 1989, Stewart helped Rod Woodson earn a Pro Bowl berth as a kickoff return man. Following his 3 seasons with Pittsburgh, Stewart went on to spend 4 years working with the special teams unit in Tampa Bay, where he helped K Mike Husted earn All-Rookie honors in 1993.

Before making the move to the NFL, Stewart spent several years in the college ranks, making his final stop as the Notre Dame LBs coach from 1986-88. Under Holtz's tutelage, the Irish steadily improved from the coach's opening season in '86 to become national champions in 1988, a year in which the team finished 12-0 and defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. The stingy

BERRIAN ESSENTIALS

The Vikings passing game got a boost in 2008 when Bernard Berrian left NFC North rival Chicago to join the Vikings as a free agent. Berrian posted the NFL's 2nd-best receiving average and tied for the team lead with 7 TDs in his debut with the team.

Irish defense allowed opponents to score over 20 points only twice during the season. Stewart's unit, which included Arnold Ale and Andre Jones highlighted by consensus All-America choice Frank Stams played a prominent role in the defensive success.

Stewart and Holtz began working together in 1983, when Stewart got his start in coaching as an Arkansas graduate assistant, working with the Razorbacks' TEs. When Holtz moved from Arkansas to Minnesota as the Golden Gophers head coach in 1984, Stewart accompanied him as the offensive line coach, his 1st exposure to the state where he would return in 2007. In 2 short seasons, Holtz and his staff quickly turned the Gophers program around, finishing 7-5 in 1985 and winning the Independence Bowl over Clemson, the 1st bowl victory for the Gophers since the 1962 Rose Bowl.

Stewart was a standout player as an offensive guard for the Razorbacks from 1977-80 and helped the squad share the 1979 Southwest Conference title. The team played in four straight bowl games during Stewart's playing tenure as Arkansas returned to national prominence under Holtz. Stewart was an All-SWC honoree as a junior in 1979, served as a team captain in 1980 and earned a spot on the Arkansas Team of the Decade for the 1970s. He signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1981 but spent the season on injured reserve.

Stewart has a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas and is a native of Little Rock, AR, where he graduated from Parkview High School in 1977.

CHRIS WHITE
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 20TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON

Chris White enters his 1st season with the Vikings and 1st on an NFL sideline in 2009 after a 9-year stint at Syracuse University where, at different times throughout his tenure, he coached WRs, TEs, was the special teams coordinator and a recruiting coordinator. White brings with him a proven track record as a special teams coach and will draw on his 19 years of coaching experience in the high school and collegiate ranks as he assists special teams coordinator Brian Murphy.

White's 9 seasons at Syracuse were highlighted by a 2001 Insight Bowl victory, a share of the Big East championship in 2004, and a combined 7 units that ranked in the nation's top 20 while working as the school's special teams coordinator from 2000-2003.

White most recently served as the Orange's WRs coach as well as their recruiting coordinator, a post he moved to prior to the 2005 season. White worked to bring in young talent and rebuild Syracuse's program. His efforts showed as 5 different underclassmen WRs caught TD passes for the Orange in 2008, with sophomore wideout Donte Davis leading the team in catches, yards, and tied for the lead in TD receptions. White also mentored WR Mike Williams, who in 2007 had the nation's longest streak for games with a TD catch with 9, and finished 5th in school history with at least 1 catch in 20 consecutive games, as well as current Indianapolis Colts WR, Taj Smith, whose season included 4 games of 100+ yards. His tutelage also contributed to kick returner Max Suter's success in 2007, as The Sporting News Freshman All-American set an NCAA, Big East, and school record for kick return yards.

Prior to moving on to the WRs coach/recruiting coordinator position, White spent the 2004 season coaching the team's TEs to go along with his duties as recruiting coordinator. While he guided former New York Jets TE Joe Kowalewski, the 2004 Orange went on to capture a share of the Big East crown and a victory in Champs Sports Bowl.

White spent his opening 3 years at Syracuse working with the TEs and as the special teams coordinator. From the start of the 2000 season until he left his post as special teams coordinator in 2003, Only 7 teams in the country blocked more kicks than the Orange (22), 5 coming from current NY Giants WR David Tyree. Syracuse also scored 8 TDs on special teams during the same time frame. In 2000 the team ranked 13th and 14th in kickoff return yardage and kickoff return yardage allowed respectively. The following season the Orange had their best overall finish since 1992, complete with a victory in the Insight Bowl, aided by the 18th ranked punt return unit in the nation. In 2002 White led the nation's top punt coverage unit, while his punter ranked 7th in yardage and his punt returners ranked 20th in return yards. The 2003 campaign ended with both his kicker and punter being named to the All-Big East 2nd team.

In 1999 White served a dual-role as Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo's defensive and special teams coordinators, where he helped a number of his players into the school's record books. DB Vaughn Jarrett, a freshman at the time, went on to record the 5th most INTs in Mustang history, while DE Steve Prejean, then a junior, finished the season ranked 12th all time in school annals with 8.0 sacks that season and LB Brett Baker posted the 11th best single-season mark with 98 tackles. White's kicker that season, Sal Rivas, finished the season with the school's 2nd-best field goal percentage.

White spent the 3 season prior to his arrival with the Mustangs with UNLV as the LB coach and special teams coordinator. Under his tutelage, P Joe Kristosik and KR Duane James tallied the 3rd best punting average and kick return yardage marks in school history in 1998. On the defensive side of the ball, LB Scott Patton recorded the most single-season tackles in UNLV history in 1998, while James Sunia sent the same mark for a freshman the season prior.

The lone head coaching job of White's career came as a 3-year stint with Bishop Manogue High School from 1994-1996, where he was named the Northern Nevada Coach of the Year in 1996.

White's 1st full-time role in coaching came as the assistant QBs coach for the College of the Holy Cross (Mass.) from 1993-1994. In his 2 years at that post both of the Crusaders starters ended their respective seasons with QB efficiency ratings over 100.0, and in 1993 Dave Harrington wrote himself into the school's record book with the 10th best single-season completion percentage.

White paid his dues in the coaching world working for 5 seasons as a graduate assistant, for 3 years at Syracuse (1990-92) and then with Arkansas State (1992-1993). In his 2 season with Arkansas State, he saw former Vikings punter, Kyle Richardson, secure 2nd place in school history with 3,285 punting yards in the 1993 season. In the same season the Red Wolves also had the 4th best mark in school history with 14 FGs made.

In his 1st stint at Syracuse, White worked with current Vikings QB coach, Kevin Rogers, and under current Miami Dolphins defensive coordinator, Paul Pasqualoni. The team posted a 27-8 record in the three years and won the 1990 Aloha Bowl and 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl.

As a collegian, White was a 4-year starter at QB for Colby College and was named a captain his senior year. The Mules won consecutive CBB championships in his final 3 seasons.

White grew up in Haverhill, MA and graduated from Philips Exeter Academy in 1986. He majored in government while at Colby College. His brother, Brian, is TE's coach for the University of Florida. He and his wife, Angel, reside in the Minneapolis area with their daughters, Payton and Riley.

JOE WOODS
DEFENSIVE BACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 18TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 6TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

In 3 seasons working with the Vikings DBs, a pair of Joe Woods' players have been recognized with Pro Bowl berths and the backfield has played a key part in the Vikings being tied for the most defensive TDs in the NFL from 2006-08.

The veteran leader of the Vikings DBs, Antoine Winfield, was honored in 2008 with a Pro Bowl berth in his 10th season, joining Darren Sharper in the back end as recent Vikings to be named to the NFC all-star team. Winfield's career year in 2008 highlighted a group that produced INTs by 7 different players and were tough in run support for the NFC North Division champions.

The 2008 DBs had to battle injuries and overcome adversity in helping the Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense, the highest finish since 1994. Free agent pickup Madiou Williams missed the opening 9 games of the season with a preseason injury and was replaced by rookie 2nd-round pick Tyrell Johnson. Nickel back Charles Gordon missed the 2nd half of the season and had to be replaced by 1st-year Viking Benny Sapp. Despite the personnel moves, the Vikings DBs helped the overall defensive ranking jump from #20 in 2007 to #6 in 2008. Each of the 6 top Vikings

DBs intercepted passes in 2008 and showed their value in run support. Winfield tied for 2nd on the team with 9 tackles for loss and CB Cedric Griffin ranked 2nd on the team with a career-best 100 tackles.

In 2007, all 4 regular starters in the Vikings secondary scored TDs, 3 by INT return and 1 on a fumble recovery. Woods led a defensive backfield that featured Sharper earning his 4th career Pro Bowl trip. The Vikings adjusted due to injury and pressed rookie Marcus McCauley into duty as a nickel back and 9-game starter. The rock of the unit, Winfield, built on his reputation as the best tackling CB in the NFL and scored on an INT-return in the season opener vs. Atlanta. Against the NY Giants, the Vikings set a team record as they returned 3 INTs for TDs, including a 93-yard return by Dwight Smith that ranks as the 4th-longest INT return in Vikings' history. The Vikings defense finished the year with 15 INTs and now has 36 picks since the 2006 season opener, a total that ranks tied for 6th in the NFL during that span.

The Vikings ended the 2006 season ranked #8 in the NFL in total defense and finished #1 against the run for the 3rd time in team history. The Vikings DBs had 3 players tie for the team lead with 4 interceptions each- Dwight Smith, Sharper and Winfield. The trio also ranked 2nd, 4th and 5th on the team in tackles respectively.

The 2006 Vikings DBs scored on a pair of interception returns and didn't skip a beat when roster moves shuffled the lineup. Woods helped develop a trio of rookies- CB Cedric Griffin, S Greg Blue and Gordon- who started a combined 10 games. Griffin earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Detroit (12/10/06), becoming the 5th Vikings CB to earn the award and only the 2nd since 1992.

In Tampa, Woods coached with 2006 Vikings defensive coordinator and current Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin, fielding top 5 defenses in each of Woods' 2 seasons.

In 2005, Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense, allowing 277.8 yards per game while CB Ronde Barber and LB Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl berths for the 2nd consecutive season. Barber set a Tampa Bay single-season record for most tackles by a CB with 120 and he led the team with 7 interceptions, which was tied for 7th in the NFC.

In 2004, Woods was part of a defensive staff that helped the Buccaneers finish 5th in the NFL in total defense (284.5 ypg) and 1st in pass defense (123.3 ypg). Barber and Brooks each earned Pro Bowl berths.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Woods was the defensive backs coach at Western Michigan for 3 seasons (2001-03). Before coaching at Western Michigan, Woods spent 3 seasons on the staff at Hofstra University. During his time with the Pride, the team made a pair of trips to the NCAA Division 1-AA playoffs and advanced to the quarterfinals in consecutive seasons (1999-2000).

Woods spent a season at Kent State University (1997) as defensive backs coach prior to joining the staff at Hofstra. He also coached the secondary at Grand Valley State (1994-97), ILBs at Northwestern State University in the spring of 1994, and was a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan (1993-94). Woods entered coaching in 1992 as the secondary coach at Muskingum College.

Woods was a 4-year letterman at safety and a captain during his senior year at Illinois State University. He earned 1st-team All-Gateway Conference honors in 1991. Woods earned a degree in criminal justice from ISU in 1992.

Woods (6/25/70) was born in North Vandergrift, PA. He and his wife, Ellen, have daughters, Brianna and Danari and son, Geno.

DIRON REYNOLDS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 7TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON

Diron Reynolds enters his 1st season with the Minnesota Vikings and his 7th year on an NFL sideline in 2009. Reynolds will be responsible for assisting defensive line coach Karl Dunbar working with Pro Bowlers Pat Williams, Kevin Williams, Jared Allen and a talented group of young players.

In his most recent role Reynolds was the defensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins during the 2007 season. While with Miami, Reynolds' line created a pass rush that helped the Dolphins rank 4th in the league in passing yards allowed. Dolphin's DE Jason Taylor recorded his 6th double-digit sack season (11.0) and 6th trip to the Pro Bowl. Reynolds took part in the 1st regular season NFL game played away from North America when the Dolphins took on the Giants in London on 10/28/07.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Reynolds spent 5 seasons (2002-2006) working as a defensive quality control coach for the Indianapolis Colts under current Vikings defensive coordinator, Leslie Frazier (2005-2006) and former Vikings assistant Tony Dungy. During his time in Indy the team compiled a 60-20 record (.750), posting double-digit wins in every season, captured the AFC South crown 4 out of his 5 seasons, and tallied the most wins in franchise history with 14 in 2005. The Colts also went 7-4 in the post-season during that span, capturing the Lombardi Trophy by defeating the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI for the team's 1st title since 1970. The Colts defense twice ranked 2nd in the NFL in passing yards allowed (2002 and 2006) and recorded the 4th best sack total in the NFL in 2004.

Before moving to the NFL, Reynolds spent 5 seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He spent the 2001 season tutoring DTs for the Indiana University Hoosiers, following a 4-year stint with his alma mater Wake Forest (1997-2000).

In 2001 the Hoosiers saw significant improvement on the defensive side of the ball. The 2001 team improved by 2 wins and cut the number of games allowing 30+ points by more than half, from 9 in 2000 to just 4 in 2001.

Reynolds got his 1st taste of coaching on a major stage when he joined his alma mater as a graduate assistant for the 1997 and 1998 seasons. In 1997 the Demon Deacons set a school record for rushing yards allowed per game with just 96.1 while also held opponents to only 23.0 point per game. After being hired on full-time as the OLB coach for the Deacons in 1999, Reynolds helped Wake Forest produce one of the top defenses in the nation and best in school history since the 1976 season. The Deacons defense finished the year ranked in the top 35 nationally in every statistical category and earned their 1st bowl berth since 1992 where they defeated Arizona State in the Aloha Bowl.

Before returning to Wake Forest, Reynolds spent 2 years coaching football, basketball, and track at Brooklyn-Cayce High School in South Carolina.

As a collegian, Reynolds played LB and was a key contributor on special teams for Wake Forest from 1990-1993. Reynolds was a member of the Deacons' 1992 campaign as they advanced, and won, their 1st bowl game (Independence Bowl) since the 1979 season and finished the season ranked in both the AP and Coaches Top 25 polls for the 1st time since 1979.

Reynolds, (2/23/71), grew up in Aiken, SC and earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Wake Forest along with a Master's in liberal studies. His brother Jamal played DE for the Green Bay Packers, where he was a 1st-round draft pick, and brother Rashad played LB at Rice University. His father, William, was a DE at the South Carolina State. He resides with his family in Eden Prairie.

JEFF IMAMURA

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/LBs

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 11TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

Jeff Imamura returns to the Vikings in 2009 for his 4th season on the coaching staff. His primary duties include working directly with Defensive Coordinator Leslie Frazier on day-to-day defensive operations and activities, assisting Fred Pagac in coaching the LBs and generating comprehensive scouting reports on opponents.

The 2008 Vikings made dramatic strides from 2007 despite having to overcome the loss of key starters to injury and challenging the coaching staff to prepare backups to take on bigger roles. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL for total defense, the highest finish since 1994 for the team and a 14-position jump from the previous year.

A key part of the 2008 Vikings defense taking a step forward was the emergence of Chad Greenway as a total defender. In his 2nd year as a starter, Greenway led the team with 150 tackles and notched 5.5 sacks. E.J. Henderson had a promising season cut short in the 4th game of the season by injury but the team still managed to rank #1 in the NFL against the run for the 3rd straight season.

The 2007 Vikings LBs thrived in the NFL's #1 rushing defense as Henderson led the team with 155 total tackles and 4.5 sacks, while Greenway and Ben Leber finished directly behind Henderson in total tackles with 130 and 88, respectively. Overall, the Vikings linebackers finished with 373 tackles, 9.5 sacks, 3 INTs, 6 FFs and 7 FRs.

In the previous season, the 2006 Vikings finished #8 in total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defenders became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game. The Vikings linebackers played a key role in the defensive dynamic by accounting for 9.5 sacks and 6 INTs. E.J. Henderson led the team in tackles for the second time in 3 years and posted career-highs with 3.0 sacks and 2 INTs, including a 45-yard TD on his 1st career INT. Free agent Ben Leber made his impact felt in his 1st season with the team as he notched

3.0 sacks, an INT and scored on a fumble recovery.

Before joining the Vikings, Imamura coached OLBs at Saginaw Valley (MI) State University in 2003. He helped build the Cardinals' defense into a national leader as the unit ranked 7th in the country in scoring, 12th in turnover margin and 22nd in the country in passing. The Cardinals' OLBs accounted for over 60 percent of the team's sacks on the season. SVSU won the Great Lakes Conference regular season title with an 11-0 record, finished the regular season ranked #1 in the nation and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals for only the 2nd time in the school's history.

Imamura spent the previous 3 seasons (2000-02) at Northern Arizona University as the defensive line coach. In 2002, the Lumberjacks ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense and 2nd in the conference with 39.0 sacks. NAU advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 for only the 2nd time in school history.

A 1997 graduate of Texas Christian University, Imamura got his start in the coaching profession at TCU as a defensive assistant from 1997-99, where he assisted the Horned Frogs' DBs coach and defensive coordinator. TCU beat USC in the 1998 Sun Bowl to earn the school's 1st bowl victory since the 1957 Cotton Bowl, and in 1999 earned a share of the WAC title and another bowl bid.

Imamura earned his degree in finance at TCU. He is single and resides in Eden Prairie.

PART OF THE FABRIC OF MINNESOTA SINCE 1961

The following excerpt explains the early stages of the Vikings franchise as chronicled in the Minnesota Vikings 1961 Press, Radio, TV Guide.

Club History

Twin Cities football enthusiasts began their quest for professional football some 12 years ago, and it was on January 28, 1960, that their efforts were culminated with the announcement - from Miami, Florida, where the National Football League owners were in session - that Minnesota was being granted a franchise for 1961.

At the same meeting, Dallas was accepted to start play in 1960.

The franchise was granted just ten days after E. William Boyer, president of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, had made an official presentation to the league on behalf of statewide Minnesota interests.

Besides Boyer in the founding group were: Max Winter, promoter and restaurateur, H.P. Skoglund, president of North American Life and Casualty Company; Ole Haugsrud, Duluth businessman, and the Northwest Publications, Inc., publishers of the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press, through its president, Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

They decided to start with an original outlay of one million dollars, of which the Minneapolis sources would put up $600,000; St. Paul $300,000 and Duluth, representing the rest of the state, $100,000.

Upon acquiring a franchise, the group hired Joe Thomas, former scout with the Los Angeles Rams, to scout the country in preparation for the 1961 draft meeting, and went on a nationwide search to find a general manager. This ended with the selection of Bert E. Rose, who was at the time the public relations director for the Rams.

RYAN FICKEN

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/WRS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 6TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

Ryan Ficken returns to the Vikings in 2009 assisting the offensive staff and working closely with George Stewart and the Vikings WRs. Ficken spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons assisting with the Vikings RBs.

In the past 2 seasons, the Vikings group of RBs was able to showcase their skills and combine the talents of Adrian Peterson and Chester Taylor. Both were utilized for their strengths in 2008 as Peterson led the NFL with 1,760 yards rushing and Taylor led all NFL RBs with 25 catches on 3rd down. Peterson became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing and set the team rushing mark along with a team-record 10 games over the 100-yard mark. Taylor's 45 catches for the season were a career high.

The 2007 Vikings offense ranked #1 in the NFL in rushing offense. Peterson had a legendary rookie year, including breaking the NFL's single game rushing record after going for 296 yards against San Diego on 11/4/07. Peterson finished with 1341 yards rushing and 12 TDs and was named to the Pro Bowl, where he received MVP honors after rushing for 129 yards and 2 TDs.

Ficken served as an offensive graduate assistant with UCLA in 2006. He worked extensively with Jim Collette and the offensive line, developing an NFL mentality for the running game and line play. Ficken broke down opponents' game film, gave weekly opponent reports to the offensive staff and served as the defensive scout team coach.

Prior to his work with the offense, Ficken was a graduate assistant in the football operations department where he acted as the NFL scout liaison and tracked opponents' personnel during games. He was as an assistant to the recruiting coordinator, playing a big part in the 2006 recruiting class that ranked in the top 10 nationally. From 2004-2005, Ficken was a volunteer coach at UCLA, focusing primarily on the defense and the secondary.

Ficken earned his bachelor's in business administration from ASU. He was a member of the Sun Devils football team for 2 seasons and received the Scholar-Athlete Award and was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken is currently finishing graduate school to obtain a masters in comparative education at UCLA. Ficken and wife, Andrea, reside in Eden Prairie.

KEVIN STEFANSKI

QUALITY CONTROL-OFFENSE/QBs

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 5TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

The 2009 season marks Kevin Stefanski's 4th with the Vikings and his 1st working in the role of Quality Control-Offense, assisting the coaching staff in daily preparation on offense and learning under QBs coach Kevin Rogers. His new responsibilities will allow Stefanski to pursue his passion for coaching and work with one of the most experienced coaches on the Vikings staff.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski became acquainted with Childress during Philadelphia Eagles training camp in 2005 while working with the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, as Assistant Director of Football Operations. He coordinated all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations of the football team.

Before stepping off the field and into the administration of the team, Stefanski was a standout defensive back at Penn. A team captain as a senior in 2004, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won Ivy League titles in 2000, 2002 and 2003 and the squad went undefeated in league play during 2002 and 2003.

Twice honored as an Honorable Mention All-Ivy choice in 2002 and 2004, Stefanski ranked 3rd on the team in tackles as a senior. He was named Penn's Defensive Rookie of the Year as a freshman in 2000 when he had a career-high 4 interceptions. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy play. As a senior, the team went 10-0 to become the 1st undefeated Penn team in a decade.

Stefanski (5/8/82) holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia. The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a standout in basketball at Penn and is the General Manager of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, reside in Minneapolis.

RYAN SILVERFIELD

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/DL

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 11TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

Ryan Silverfield returns to the Vikings in 2009 for his 2nd season with the coaching staff, working closely with the Vikings defensive line and position coach Karl Dunbar.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Silverfield spent 2 seasons at the University of Central Florida where he worked under former Vikings defensive coordinator George O'Leary. In Silverfield's 2nd season at UCF in 2007, the Knights closed the regular season with a 7-game winning streak en route to winning the Conference USA crown, the 1st conference championship in school history. The year prior Silverfield worked with the Knights offense.

In 2005, Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. Before working on the Dolphins staff and at the age of 23, he was the head coach at Memorial Day High School in Savannah, GA. That opportunity followed his 4 seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater - Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia - where he began as an offensive assistant in 2000. At the age of 20, he became the defensive line coach, making him one of the younger position coaches in all of college football. He held that position for 2 seasons before moving to TEs and H-backs in 2003, a season in which the Tigers went 9-1 and had the #1-ranked scoring offense in the country, averaging over 47.0 points per game.

Silverfield's coaching career began as an assistant at The Bolles School in Jacksonville in 1999, following a four-year playing career with the Bulldogs. During his playing days, Silverfield helped Bolles win 2 state championships and earn the title of the #1-ranked high school team in the country by USA Today. As a senior, Silverfield was a 1st-Team All-First Coast selection after leading his team to the Florida Class 3A state title.

Silverfield graduated Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in economics from Hampden-Sydney.

DENNIS POLIAN

ASSISTANT TO HEAD COACH

COACHING/ADMINISTRATION EXPERIENCE: 10TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON

Dennis Polian brings a wealth of experience and a strong football background to the Vikings in his 1st season with the club in 2009. His duties with the Vikings will be daily support of the coaching staff and Brad Childress along with working on special projects and research for the staff.

Polian's background includes working in professional and collegiate football in a variety of roles. Most recently, Polian was with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League, advancing from Quality Control and coaching the RBs to the role of Assistant General Manager and Coordinator of Player Personnel.

Prior to his position in the CFL, Polian worked in collegiate athletics at Tulane, Columbia and Boston College, gaining experience in football operations and event management. From 2005-07, Polian worked as Director of Football Operations and was promoted to Assistant Director of Athletics at Tulane. During his tenure with the Green Wave he worked with recovery efforts from Hurricane Katrina and the devastation it wreaked on the area.

In 2 different stints, Polian worked on the business end of sports with the Arena Football League, initially as a Sales and Client Services Manager and from 2007-08 as Director of Team Services for the AFL. In February 2007 Polian used his expertise in management as the Super Bowl XLI Team Coordinator for the Colts, handling logistics for the club as they traveled to South Florida for the 1st Super Bowl for the franchise since the 1970 season.

Polian hails from an accomplished football family. His father, Bill, is President and General Manager of the Indianapolis Colts and brother, Chris, is the Colts' Vice President of Player Personnel. Another brother, Brian, is on the coaching staff at Notre Dame.

Polian holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Villanova in 1999 and earned his master's in administrative studies in 2001 from Boston College.

TOM KANAVY

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 17TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 15TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

With a decade and a half of NFL experience, Vikings Strength and Conditioning Coach Tom Kanavy enters his 4th season with the Vikings in 2009. His track record of success in the NFL is proven with 5 Division titles since 2000 between the Vikings and Eagles and 6 playoff appearances from 2000-08.

Among Brad Childress' first priorities as Head Coach was to allow Kanavy to transform the Vikings strength and conditioning facilities. The willingness of ownership to provide the tools to succeed allowed for the addition of the best in strength and conditioning equipment and a staff with valuable NFL experience.

The off-season strength and conditioning program was once again well-attended by players as they embraced a program that utilizes a combination of free weights and machines, and emphasizes speed, agility, flexibility and thorough overall physical conditioning.

Kanavy oversees the planning and implementation of all aspects of the Vikings' program, which is tailored to each player. He has also enlisted the services of Carrie Peterson, a registered dietician on the University of Minnesota faculty, in order to optimize team nutrition.

Kanavy came to Minnesota from the Philadelphia Eagles where he helped in the dramatic turnaround of the franchise and performance on the field. Kanavy served as assistant strength and conditioning coach in Philadelphia where he worked under Mike Wolf, who had served as an assistant with the Vikings from 1992-94.

Kanavy received a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from Penn State University in 1993 and earned his master's in sport management from Temple University in 1996.

Kanavy began his professional career working as a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Miami with the football program. He returned to his alma mater, Penn State, from 1993-

95 working as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Nittany Lions football program. In 1994, in only their 2nd season as members of the Big Ten Conference, the squad notched a 12-0 season to win the Big Ten title and brought a Rose Bowl championship to Happy Valley after a 38-20 win over Oregon.

From Penn State, Kanavy was tabbed by Wolf to assist him with the Eagles in head coach Ray Rhodes' debut in 1995. The new staff notched a 10-6 regular season, qualified for the playoffs in the first season and went 1-1 in post-season play. In 1999 the Eagles hired Andy Reid as head coach and the fortunes of the team improved quickly. From 2000-05 the team won 4 NFC East titles, qualified for the playoffs in 5 of 6 seasons and represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX. Kanavy worked with Childress in Philadelphia from 1999-2005.

A native of Archibald, PA, Kanavy and wife, Kim, reside in suburban Minneapolis with their daughters, Caroline and Kristen.

ASST. STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 9TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 6TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

Juney Barnett enters his 4th season with the Vikings in 2009 and assists Tom Kanavy with the implementation of the Vikings strength and conditioning program.

Barnett joined the Vikings in 2006 after spending the 2005 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army. In the spring of '05, he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, a position he held for two seasons (2004-05).

Prior to his stint in NFL Europe, Barnett worked for the Baltimore Ravens from 2003-05 as a part-time assistant. Barnett got his first taste of coaching at his alma mater, Bloomsburg University (PA), as a volunteer DBs coach in 2001. The Huskies went 6-0 in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference on their way to a league title.

As a collegiate athlete, Barnett played 4 years as a DB at Bloomsburg (1997-00) and was part of a PSAC Championship team and Division II national runner-up in 2000. He graduated from Bloomsburg with a degree in exercise science and went on to receive his master's in exercise physiology from the university.

Barnett, who was born in Philadelphia, PA, attended Balboa High School in Panama. His father is a senior master sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

MARTIN STREIGHT

ASST. STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 16TH SEASON
NFL EXPERIENCE: 12TH SEASON
VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 4TH SEASON

The 2009 season marks Martin Streight's 4th with the Vikings and 12th in the NFL as he continues to assist in the development of the Vikings strength and conditioning program. Streight joined Vikings strength and conditioning coach Tom Kanavy in 2006 when the new staff revamped the Vikings facilities and program.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Streight was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Berlin Thunder in NFL Europe from 2004-05. During that time, the Thunder accumulated a 16-4 combined regular season record and made consecutive World Bowl appearances. In 2005, Berlin posted a 7-3 record and played in World Bowl XIII. The previous year, the Thunder finished 9-1 and were World Bowl XII champions. In 2003, Streight held the same position with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

From 1997-2002, Streight served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Arizona Cardinals. The 1998 season saw the Cardinals make their 1st postseason appearance since the strike-shortened season in 1982, playing at the Metrodome against the Vikings in an NFC Divisional Playoff game.

Streight's NFL coaching career began in 1995-96, when he was a part-time strength and conditioning coach with Kanavy and the Philadelphia Eagles. During that time, Streight was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach and health fitness instructor at Princeton University.

Streight and Kanavy first worked together at Penn State in 1994, when Streight served as a strength and conditioning intern for the Nittany Lions. That year, Penn State finished as Big Ten champions in only the team's 2nd year of league play and became the 1st team in Big Ten history to post a 12-0 record.

As an undergrad, Streight attended Indiana University (PA), earning his bachelor's degree in physical education and sport science. He also competed in track and field at Indiana, throwing the discus and shot put.

Streight was born in Trenton, NJ and attended McCorristin Catholic High School in Trenton.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide-

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "suns" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.

ERIC SUGARMAN

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Eric Sugarman enters his 13th NFL season in 2009 and his 4th with the Vikings. In 2008, Sugarman was part of his 5th Division championship team since 2000 and 6th playoff-bound team. The Vikings' NFC North title was the 1st for the club since 2000.

With the Vikings, Sugarman supervises the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained. He and his staff implement and maintain proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs.

The Vikings' athletic training staff, including assistants Tom Hunkele and Rob Roche, have broad-based experience in athletic training and have trained under some of the most respected professionals in their field. The staff prides themselves on being proactive while using the most current concepts, modalities and principles. The entire athletic training staff are Performance Enhancement Specialists through the National Academy of Sports Medicine. Sugarman has worked closely the past several years with the Nike SST (Sensory Sport Training) team and has brought many of their vision concepts into the Vikings' athletic training room.

Sugarman enters his 13th full-time season in the NFL in 2009 after spending the 1997-99 seasons with the Chicago Bears and the 2000-05 campaigns with Philadelphia. Sugarman got his first taste of the NFL as a summer intern for the Bears' athletic training staff from 1993-95.

Sugarman earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from West Chester University and went on to earn his master's degree in sports management at the University of Richmond. During his tenure at Richmond, Sugarman served as the graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Spiders football team and head athletic trainer for the Spiders' baseball squad. In 1994-95 Sugarman served as assistant athletic trainer at West Chester and worked as an instructor at the school. During the summers of 1993-95 he worked as a training camp athletic training intern for the Chicago Bears. In 1996 Sugarman served as an athletic trainer in the Chicago Cubs organization focusing on the rehabilitation of minor league and major league players.

Sugarman joined the Bears as an assistant trainer from 1997-99 before moving to the Eagles in a similar role in 2000 where he worked on Rick Burkholder's staff. The Eagles were noted for progressive rehab programs. That athletic training staff played an integral part in helping Terrell Owens' return from ankle surgery during the regular season in time for Super Bowl XXXIX.

An active member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society, Sugarman is also an American Heart Association Basic Life Support, AED and First Aid certified instructor. In 2003 he received the PFATS' "Big Heart" award for saving the life of a fellow Eagles employee by performing CPR.

Sugarman and wife, Heather, reside in Victoria, MN, with their sons Jacob and Benjamin.

TOM HUNKELE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tom Hunkele enters his 4th season as an assistant on the Vikings' athletic training staff in 2009. Hunkele and Vikings Head Athletic Trainer Eric Sugarman previously worked together for 6 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. Hunkele assists in the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained and help implement proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs for the athletes.

During Hunkele's tenure with the Eagles from 2000-05 he worked with NovaCare Rehabilitation as a Staff Physical Therapist during the off-season and as an assistant with the team starting in the pre-season through the remainder of the schedule. While working with the Eagles, Hunkele was part of Rick Burkholder's highly-regarded staff and was exposed to some of the most progressive rehab programs and techniques at work in the NFL today.

Hunkele started in the athletic training field as a student at Duquesne where he assisted with the athletic training staff for football during his undergraduate days. During the 1997 season he was exposed to the NFL for the first time when he served as a season-long intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers as the team advanced to the AFC Championship to face eventual Super Bowl champs Denver.

Following his graduation in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Duquesne, Hunkele remained at the school to earn his master's in physical therapy. During graduate school he served as a graduate assistant from 1998-2000 where he worked as head trainer for the men's soccer, ice hockey and men's and women's tennis teams along, with supervising student assistants. Hunkele is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Hunkele, a native of Reading, PA, and graduate of Holy Name High School, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association along with being a licensed physical therapist in Minnesota. Hunkele is married to Rachel and the couple resides in Plymouth, MN.

ROB ROCHE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Rob Roche brings a diverse athletic training background in pro football and college athletics to the Vikings as an assistant on Eric Sugarman's staff.

Roche enters his 4th season with the Vikings in 2009 and assists with the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained and helps implement proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs for the athletes. Roche was a season-long intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2000 and during 2003-05 training camps where he worked with Sugarman and Vikings assistant Tom Hunkele.

Before joining the Vikings, Roche spent 2001-06 working as an assistant athletic trainer at Swarthmore College where he provided medical coverage for the NCAA Division III program. Along with athletic training responsibilities, Roche was an Approved Clinical Instructor for athletic training students.

Roche earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from West Chester University in 1998. During his undergraduate tenure he served an internship in athletic training at the school working with the football team. Following his graduation, Roche moved to the University of Illinois to earn his master's degree in kinesiology where he served as a teaching assistant in the kinesiology department and was a graduate assistant in UI's Rehabilitation Education Services. He earned his MS degree in 2000.

During Roche's stint at Illinois he was first exposed to the NFL when he was a training camp intern for the Chicago Bears in 1998 and 1999. His experience in pro football continued in 2000 when he was an assistant with the Frankfurt Galaxy in NFL Europe and in 2001 with the World Bowl IX champion Berlin Thunder. Continuing his education through experience, Roche volunteered for two weeks in summer 2003 with the U.S. Olympic Committee in Chula Vista, CA.

Roche is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and the USOC Sports Medicine Society, has served on the Executive Board of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Society and is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Roche, a native of Tamaqua, PA and graduate of Marian Catholic High, is married to Melissa. The couple resides in Chaska, MN with their son, Patrick.

JOEL BOYD, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Joel Boyd's experience in athletics and medicine have helped take him around the world. In 2009, he returns for a 3rd full season with the Vikings.

Boyd serves as a Physician at TRIA Orthopedic Center in Bloomington and joined the Vikings for the 2007 season along with working in a similar role with the NHL's Minnesota Wild.

His experience with the United State Olympic Team took Boyd to the Nagano Games in 1998 while working with the men's and women's hockey teams. In past seasons Boyd has worked as a National Team Physician with USA Hockey in world championships in Switzerland, Sweden and Germany.

Boyd holds an undergraduate degree from Bucknell and graduated from Temple University Medical School. He completed his orthopedic training at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and fellowship training at the University of Western Ontario, Canada.

Dr. Boyd and his wife, Cheryl, have 3 children, Kendall, Kyle and Kasey, and reside in Eden Prairie.

SHELDON BURNS, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Sheldon Burns returns in 2009 for his 25th season as a Vikings Team Physician. A doctor at Edina Family Physicians, Burns is a Board Certified Specialist in Family Practice, Emergency and Sports Medicine.

Burns is also the Medical Director for the Minnesota Timberwolves of the National Basketball Association, Medical Director for the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA and the Minnesota Wild of the National Hockey League. He has served as team physician for seven United States Olympic or World Championship teams, most recently for USA Basketball's gold medal winning entry at the Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia, in September 2001. Burns also worked as a USA Olympics team physician in the Athens games and served as tournament physician for the Minnesota State High School League.

Burns is a Clinical Professor at the University of Minnesota

Medical School and is active in teaching sports medicine at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center and The Orthopedic Center. He was a deputy medical commissioner of the International Olympic Committee and has worked in six Olympic Games.

A native of Grand Meadow, MN, and raised in Nisswa, MN, Burns received his undergraduate degree from Hamline University in St. Paul and earned his medical degree in 1974 from the University of Minnesota Medical School. Burns and his wife, Linda, who reside in Minneapolis, have two children, Alicen and Evan.

CHRIS LARSON, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Board-certified orthopaedic surgeon Christopher Larson earned his medical degree from the University of Minnesota Medical School. He completed his orthopaedic residency at the University of North Carolina and a sports medicine orthopaedic fellowship at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center in Minneapolis. In those capacities, he provided medical coverage for the University of North Carolina Tarheels football and soccer programs and the Minnesota Vikings and Minnesota Timberwolves, respectively. He was the orthopaedist for the National U.S. 17 Soccer Team in Blaine, MN in 2003, 2004 and 2005.

Dr. Larson sees patients at Orthopaedic Consultants in Minneapolis and at Minnesota Sports Medicine in Eden Prairie. He is co-chief of Orthopedic Clinic Services at Fairview-University Medical Center and serves as Director of Education for the Minnesota Sports Medicine and the Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Fellowship program.

DAVID OLSON, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

David Olson is in his 7th season as a Vikings Team Physician in 2009. A doctor at Broadway Family Physicians in Minneapolis, Olson is a Board Certified Specialist in Family Medicine and Sports Medicine.

Olson also works as a Team Physician with the University of Minnesota athletics where he works primarily with the men's basketball program. He volunteers his time covering Minneapolis Community and Technical College basketball, Roseville and Patrick Henry High Schools and Minnesota State High School League events.

Olson is an Assistant Professor at the University of Minnesota's Family Medicine and Community Health Department where he is active teaching medical students, Residents and Sports Medicine Fellows. A native of Sioux Falls, SD and raised in North St. Paul, Olson received his undergrad degree from Gustavus Adolphus College and medical degree at Minnesota. Olson and wife Renee reside in Roseville with children, Tyler, Autumn and Kobe.

DENNIS RYAN

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

One of the veteran equipment managers in the NFL, Dennis Ryan enters his 34th season of service with the Vikings. A lifetime resident of St. Paul, Ryan joined the Vikings in 1976 as an assistant to Jim "Stubby" Eason, who spent 20 years as the Vikings Equipment Manager. Ryan was elevated to equipment manager in June 1981. At 21-years-old, Ryan became the youngest equipment manager in the NFL. He is only the second person in Vikings history to hold the title of equipment manager.

In 1984 Ryan designed the first eye shield to be worn by a player in an NFL game, creating a shield to protect DT Mark Mullaney, who had suffered an eye injury in a previous game. In March 1995 Ryan received the Whitey Zimmerman Award, recognizing the NFL's Equipment Manager of the Year.

Ryan attended the University of Minnesota (1978-79) and University of St. Thomas (1980-81). He and wife Laura, have three children, Ben, Maureen and Annie, and reside in St. Paul.

AARON NEUMANN

EQUIPMENT ASSISTANT

Aaron Neumann has been around Vikings football since 1989 when he began with the club as a ball boy during training camp.

Neumann has worked with 34-year Vikings Equipment Manager Dennis Ryan since 1998 and was hired as the Vikings Assistant Equipment Manager in 2000.

The Vikings' equipment staff has the difficult and often overlooked job of outfitting and maintaining all the equipment, uniforms and apparel for the Vikings players and football staff on a daily basis.

The Neumann name is familiar in Vikings circles as Aaron's uncle, Larry Neumann, was an athletic trainer for the team in the 1980s and 1990s before he passed away.

A native of Winsted, MN, Neumann attended Mankato State University before transferring to Concordia University-St. Paul, where he was a 3-year football letterwinner.

Neumann is a graduate of Winsted Holy Trinity High School and is married to Tammy. The couple resides in Shakopee with their son, Frank.

BOB MARCUS

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO

In his 9th season with the Vikings in 2009, Bob Marcus is in his 8th as Director of Video after serving as Director of Digital Video in 2001.

Marcus is responsible for overseeing all aspects of videotaping Vikings practices and games as well as distributing video to coaches and players.

The Vikings utilize an XOS Technologies digital video network that features viewing stations in each meeting room and coach's office. Every NFL game and all practice footage is put online to be instantly accessed by players, coaches and scouts.

Prior to joining the Vikings in 2001, Marcus worked with the University of Minnesota Golden Gopher football program as video coordinator for 17 years. A native of Minneapolis, he attended Edison High School. Marcus is a 1982 graduate of the University of Minnesota with a degree in photojournalism.

As an undergraduate, Marcus was a student assistant for the Gophers and got his start filming practices and games for the football team. Marcus was hired by the University full-time in 1984. During his tenure with Minnesota, he worked with Gophers head coaches Joe Salem, Lou Holtz, John Gutekunst, Jim Wacker and Glen Mason. The 1985 Gophers won the Independence Bowl, the '86 team played in the Liberty Bowl, the '99 team was in the Sun Bowl and the 2000 Gophers played in the Micron PC Bowl.

Marcus and wife, Tami, have two children, Rob and Amy, and reside in Champlin.

STEVE HICKS

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

Steven Hicks enters his 8th season with the Vikings in the video department in 2009 and has a solid background in the field.

Hicks joined the Vikings in 2002 on Bob Marcus' staff and helped implement several technology upgrades that have made the Vikings' video services more efficient and effective.

Prior to his tenure with the Vikings, Hicks spent eight years at Ohio State University working with the video operations for the Buckeye football program. He started in 1994 as an intern and by 1998 had climbed the ranks to Director of Football Video, a position he held until moving to the Vikings.

Hicks majored in psychology at Ohio State and is a native of Marion, OH. He and his wife, Kathy, have a daughter Abigail Elizabeth and are avid participants in outdoor activities. Hicks competes as a pro on the FLW Walleye Tour. The family resides in Eden Prairie.

GEORGE PATON DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

With over a decade of NFL experience under his belt, George Paton enters his 3rd season with the Vikings as Director of Player Personnel in 2009.

The Vikings have used free agency and trades in recent years to add key pieces to the framework of the team that have factored heavily in the club winning the 2008 NFC North title and hosting an NFC Wild Card playoff game, both feats the team had not accomplished since 2000.

The 2008 Vikings added DE Jared Allen via trade with Kansas City and watched as he posted a team-high 14.5 sacks en route to 1st-Team Associated Press All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl berth. Priority free agent signee WR Bernard Berrian showcased his big-play ability by setting a team record with 3 TDs of 80+ yards on the season, including tying an NFL mark with a 99-yard TD catch against his old Bears teammates.

Paton's primary focus is coordinate scouting and personnel functions within the Vikings Pro Scouting Department and lend his expertise to the College Scouting Department as they prepare for the annual NFL Draft. Paton will work closely with his former Miami and Chicago protege, Vikings Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman.

Paton spent 6 seasons (2001-06) with the Miami Dolphins as Director of Pro Personnel. Paton began his NFL career in the college and pro scouting departments of the Chicago Bears, rising to the position of Assistant Director of Pro Personnel in 2000.

A 4-year letter winner as a DB at UCLA from 1988-91, Paton was a part of a pair of Bruin bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in history and went on to play in professional football leagues in Italy and Austria.

Paton (pronounced Payton) and wife, Barbara, have a daughter, Bella and son, Beau.

SCOTT STUDWELL

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

A key part of the Vikings for 33 seasons in different capacities, Scott Studwell enters the 2009 season as Director of College Scouting for the 8th season. Studwell is in his 4th decade with the team and is one of the most enduring figures in Vikings history.

Studwell enters his 18th year in the team's Player Personnel department. He retired from his 14-year playing career after the 1990 season (1977-1990) and spent a year as the Vikings Assistant to the President/Player Relations in 1991 before being named the Player Personnel Coordinator from 1992-2001. Studwell was named to his current post as Director of College Scouting in April 2002. His responsibilities include overseeing all college scouting efforts and preparation for the annual NFL Draft.

Studwell has been a part of successful drafts that have included Pro Bowlers or Pro Bowl alternates Robert Smith (1st round, '93), Todd Steussie (1st, '94), Randy Moss (1st, '98), Matt Birk (6th, '98), Daunte Culpepper (1st, '99), Michael Bennett (1st, '01), Bryant McKinnie (1st, '02), Kevin Williams (1st, '03) and Adrian Peterson (1st, '07). The Vikings 2007 draft class was highlighted by RB Adrian Peterson, the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year along with a starters spot in the Pro Bowl and MVP honors in the game.

A member of the Vikings' 25th and 40th Anniversary All-Time Teams, Studwell holds team records for tackles in a career (1,981), season (230 in '81) and game (24 vs. Detroit in '85), as well as solo tackles in a career (1,308). No other player in Vikings history has over 1,500 career tackles. According to team media guides Studwell has more tackles with one organization than any other player in NFL history. In addition, Studwell is one of only five Minnesota players to participate in over 200 games during his career. He also played in 12 playoffs contests, including NFC Championship Games following the '77 and '87 seasons. In '87 and '88 Studwell was voted to the Pro Bowl. In '89 he was named 2nd-team All-NFC by United Press International. He also was Minnesota's recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award in '87. After earning the starting MLB job in '80, Studwell led the Vikings in tackles the next 6 seasons. He also was the team's leading tackler in '88 and '89. Studwell, who tied for the team lead in fumbles recovered three times ('82, '86, '88), finished his NFL career with 15 FRs and 11 INTs.

Drafted by Minnesota in the 9th round from Illinois in '77, Studwell finished his collegiate career as the school's second all-time tackler (342) behind Dick Butkus (374). In '76 Studwell recorded 177 tackles to surpass Illinois' season record, formerly held by Butkus. As a senior Studwell recorded 23 tackles against Purdue to tie the school's single-game record.

In '90 Studwell was named to Illinois' All-Century Team, joining Butkus and Ray Nitschke as the linebackers on that squad. Studwell earned 2nd-team All-America and 1st-team All-Big Ten honors in '76, and 2nd-team All-Conference mention in '75. Studwell also was the team's co-captain and co-MVP in '76, when he played in the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Japan Bowl.

A native of Evansville, IN (8/27/54), John Scott Studwell starred at Evansville High School. In 2001 Studwell was elected into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame. He majored in commerce at Illinois. During his playing career, he sat on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Minneapolis. Scott and wife Jenny have two daughters, Jessie and Samantha, and a son Jack.

COMPANY MAN

Since joining the Vikings as a 9th-round draft choice out of Illinois, Scott Studwell has called the franchise home. Following his record-setting 14-year playing career with the team he moved to a management role in 1991 and into scouting in 1992. A member of the Vikings 40th Anniversary All-Time Team, Studwell was one of the most popular and productive players in team history.

FRANK ACEVEDO

AREA SCOUT

A veteran evaluator with a track record of success, Frank Acevedo enters his 8th season with the Vikings in 2009 and his 15th season in the NFL. Acevedo joined the Vikings after seven seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs' personnel department and serves the Vikings as an Area Scout with coverage of the Midwest and East.

Acevedo spent five seasons as Kansas City's area scout covering the Big 12 region. Prior to being an area scout with the Chiefs he was an assistant in the club's personnel department.

Before joining the Chiefs personnel department, Acevedo was RBs coach at Missouri Western in 1994 and '95. Acevedo was an assistant coach at San Francisco State, from 1985-89.

Acevedo played DB for two seasons at San Francisco State after transferring from Palomar Junior College. He was a team captain at SFSU as a senior and also earned All-Northern California Athletic Conference honors.

Born in Escondido, CA (3/5/64), Acevedo attended San Pasqual High School and went on to earn his bachelor's degree in physical education from SFSU. He and his wife, Phoebe, have a daughter Estella and a son, Antonio.

CONRAD CARDANO

REGIONAL SCOUT

Conrad Cardano is in his 2nd decade with the Vikings college scouting department in 2008, joining the team in 1987 after a successful stint in collegiate coaching and working in scouting for Blesto. Cardano is a Regional Scout for the Vikings evaluating prospects on Eastern seaboard and the Southeast.

Since joining the Vikings, Cardano has helped build a team that has made the playoffs 13 times, including NFC Central/North titles in '89, '92, '94, '98, '00 and '08. The team has played in 3 NFC Championship Games during his tenure.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Cardano worked for 3 years (1984-86) for the Blesto Scouting Combine. From 1981-83 he coached at Eastern Kentucky, which won the Ohio Valley Conference title each of his 3 seasons. The Colonels captured the NCAA Division I-AA championship in '82, when they went 13-0.

Cardano joined Eastern Kentucky after 2 seasons (1979-80) overseeing WRs at Marshall. His first collegiate coaching job came as offensive coordinator at Catholic University from 1975-78. Cardano coached 2 years at Tuscola High in Waynesville, NC and Dover-Sherborn High in Dover, MA.

Cardano played quarterback for the Hagarstown Bears of the Seaboard Pro League from 1972-73. Cardano played QB at Western Carolina from 1967-70.

Born in Washington, DC, Cardano attended Bladensburg (MD) High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Western Carolina. In 1982 Cardano received his master's in education administration and supervision from Bowie State College in Maryland. His wife's name is Gloria. Cardano has two sons — Christopher and Anthony.

CURTIS CROSSLEY

BLESTO SCOUT

Curtis Crossley enters his 2nd season with the Vikings in 2009, serving the team as its Blesto Scout and scouting college players in the central region of the country.

Crossley began with the Vikings in summer 2007 as an intern in the scouting department and was hired by the club in 2008.

Crossley came to the Vikings after coaching for a season at St. Joseph's (IN) College where he tutored the Division II Puma's defensive linemen. The squad posted an 8-3 mark and won the Great Lakes Football Conference title while a pair of Crossley's linemen earned All-Conference honors.

Crossley left the coaching ranks in 2007 for an opportunity in scouting for the Vikings. As a collegiate player at Northern Illinois, Crossley was a DE on the Huskies squad from 2000-04 that tied for Mid-America Conference West Division titles in 2001, '02 and '04. The 2003 Huskies went 10-2 and the squad was 9-2 during Crossley's senior year, facing Troy in the Silicon Valley Classic Bowl.

A native of Kankakee, IL, Crossley was a standout in football at Bishop McNamara High, helping the team Class 5A state title game as a senior and to the Class 4A state semis as a junior.

Crossley earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Northern Illinois in 2004. He is single and resides in Eden Prairie.

TERRANCE GRAY

AREA SCOUT

Terrance Gray returns to the Vikings in 2009 for his 4th season as a Regional Scout for the team. In his role Gray will scout the central region of the country for the Vikings.

Gray comes to the Vikings from the Kansas City Chiefs where he served as the club's area scout of National Football Scouting (NFS) during the 2005 season and in preparation for the 2006 Draft. Prior to moving into scouting, Gray was the Chiefs Player Development Coordinator and worked in personnel from June 2003 to June 2005. As a scout with Kansas City, Gray covered the Southwest.

Gray got his start in the NFL as an intern in 2002-03 in the League office working with Player and Employee Development and focused on the NFL's Continuing Education Program. Before his opportunity with the NFL, Gray worked as a student assistant in the Oregon State University's athletic department in academic affairs as he finished his bachelor's degree in 2002.

Gray was a CB at Oregon State in 1999 and 2000 after transferring from Palomar (CA) Junior College where he was an All-America honoree and team captain. At Oregon State Gray was part of one of the Beavers' best seasons in school history as a senior, going 11-1 and ending the season ranked #4 in the nation after a 41-9 win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. Gray played under former NFL head coach Dennis Erickson while at OSU.

A standout QB at Bayside High in Queens, NY, was the team MVP and a 1st-Team All-Queens choice by the New York Daily News. Gray and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Kansas City.

KEVIN McCABE

AREA SCOUT

Kevin McCabe enters his 8th season in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings as an Area Scout, working in the Western region of the country.

McCabe came to the Vikings after working with the St. Louis Rams as an area scout for 7 years (1995-2001) and volunteering with the Rams personnel department in 1994. During his tenure with the Rams, the team became known as one of the most potent offensive attacks in the NFL. In 1999 the Rams went 13-3 in the regular season and won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee following a 4-12 campaign in 1998. In 2001, St. Louis posted a 14-2 regular season mark and lost Super Bowl XXXVI to New England in one of the most exciting Super Bowls in League history. In his final three seasons with St. Louis, the Rams amassed a 37-11 regular-season record, won the NFC West title twice (1999, 2001) and finished as the Division runner-up in 2000.

McCabe began his career in 1985 as an assistant coach at his alma mater, John Muir High School in Pasadena, CA. McCabe coached on the prep level in the Los Angeles area until becoming strength and conditioning coordinator and assistant football coach at Pomona-Pitzer College in Claremont, CA. He stayed at the school from 1991-94. In 1993 McCabe coached overseas for the East City Giants in Helsinki, Finland.

McCabe (3/23/63) is a native of Pasadena and earned a bachelor's degree in political science in 1985 from Princeton University, where he was a three-year letterman for the Tiger football team. Kevin and his wife, Anne, have sons, Torin and Keenan, and a daughter, Katherine. The family resides in Woodland, CA.

PAUL ROELL REGIONAL SCOUT

A veteran scout with 18 years under his belt in the NFL, Paul Roell enters his 4th season with the Vikings in 2009 and serves as a Regional Scout. He joined the team in June 2006 and scouts the Western region for the Vikings. Part of successful programs recently, Roell has won Division titles in 4 of the past 6 seasons- NFC North in 2008 and AFC South in 2003, 2004 and 2005.

Roell spent the previous 15 seasons as a member of the Indianapolis Colts staff as an area scout. He got his first taste of scouting from 1987-89 when he scouted high school football in western Pennsylvania for Metro Index Scouting. In 1989 and '90 Roell worked as an intern for Pittsburgh Total Scouting, a division of the Pittsburgh Steelers headed by Art Rooney, Jr. He moved into the pro scouting division of BLESTO in 1990 before joining the Indianapolis Colts in 1991.

Roell gets his first experience scouting for an NFC team after spending his entire NFL career in the AFC prior to joining the Vikings this season. During his career with Indianapolis, Roell helped build a team that has become one of the NFL's elite. The team went 1-15 in Roell's first season with the club in 1991. The Colts went on to advance to the playoffs under three head coaches- Ted Marchibroda, Jim Mora and Tony Dungy. Recently, under Mora and Dungy, the Colts have advanced to the playoffs in six of the past seven seasons. From 2002-05 the team has amassed a 48-16 mark in regular season play and won the AFC South title from 2003-05.

As a collegian, attended Ohio State University for three years before transferring to Ohio Northern and later to Robert Morris where he earned a bachelor's degree in sport management at Robert Morris in 1990.

Roell, 44, is married to Stacey and the couple has daughters Victoria and Katelin. The Roell family resides in Kansas City.

MIKE SHOLITON AREA SCOUT

Mike Sholiton returns for his 6th season with the Vikings in 2009. He comes to the team with a wealth of football experience and is no stranger to the NFL. Sholiton will serve as a Vikings Area Scout in the southern states to find college talent for the team.

Sholiton is in his second stint in the NFL after working as an intern with the scouting, video and community relations departments of the St. Louis Rams from 1997-2000. He was a member of the 1999 Rams staff when the team won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee. While working with the Rams scouting department, Sholiton maintained draft boards and collected scouting reports while evaluating and profiling draft eligible seniors for the 1999 Draft. While in St. Louis, Sholiton was on the same Rams staff as Vikings Vice President of Operations and Legal Counsel Kevin Warren and current Area Scout Kevin McCabe.

Sholiton comes to the Vikings after four seasons with Fresno State where he served as Football Operations Coordinator for the Bulldogs. During his tenure with Fresno State the team climbed the national charts and posted one of the most successful stints in school history. The Bulldogs went 36-18 in his four seasons with the program and played in four straight bowl games, including wins over Georgia Tech and UCLA in the 2002 and 2003

Silicon Valley Football Classics respectively. While at Fresno State, Sholiton worked with current Vikings Bernard Berrian and Marcus McCauley.

A native of Cleveland, Sholiton was a four-year letterwinner as a receiver and punt returner at Washington University in St. Louis. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing in 2000 and went on to earn a master's in kinesiology from Fresno State in 2001. Sholiton and wife, Ashley, reside in Phoenix.

JAMAAL STEPHENSON

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Jamaal Stephenson enters his 8th season with the Vikings in and was promoted during the 2009 offseason to Assistant Director of College Scouting for the team. He takes on additional administrative duties in his new role along with his responsibility for scouting the East Coast of the United States.

Stephenson joined the Vikings in 2002 after spending two years in the Houston Texans' scouting department. In May of 2000, he was hired as College Administrator for the Texans. During his time in Houston, he was in charge of scouting areas of Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, compiling statistics and biographical data on college players and maintaining several scouting databases for the team.

Prior to joining the Texans, Stephenson spent one year as a scouting assistant for the Washington Redskins. His duties included making recommendations on college prospects for the NFL Draft, compiling information for weekly opponent scouting reports and helping to maintain contractual and other miscellaneous information on NFL players. In the spring of 1998, Stephenson coached defensive backs as a graduate assistant at UMass.

Jamaal Akim Stephenson (1/29/76) is a native of Goldsboro, NC. He was a four-year letterwinner at DB for Brown. Twice he earned All-Ivy League honors, and was also awarded the team's "Unsung Hero" Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational behavior management from Brown in 1997, and his master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1999. In 2003, Stephenson was selected to Brown's All-Decade Football Team for the 1990's. He was honored as part the 125-year anniversary celebration of football at Brown University.

Stephenson and his wife, Emily, have a son, Noah, and a daughter, Gabrielle.

FIRST-ROUND FOCUS

The Vikings have selected the most 1st-round draft picks in team history from the University of Southern California- starting with the #1 overall pick in the 1968 Draft by taking OT Ron Yary. His selection made his the 1st offensive lineman taken with the top pick in the Draft in NFL history. The USC pipeline continued in 1974 when OT Steve Riley was taken #25 overall, 1983 with S Joey Browner at #19 overall and DE Kenechi Udeze with the #20 overall pick in 2005.

In 2009 the Vikings selected Florida WR Percy Harvin with the #22 pick in the Draft, the 1st time in franchise history that the Vikings have taken a Gator in the 1st round. Harvin will try to repeat the success of recent 1st-round Vikings draft picks that include Adrian Peterson (2007), Chad Greenway (2006) and Kevin Williams (2003).

SCOTT KUHN

PRO SCOUT

Scott Kuhn returns for his 3rd season with the Vikings in 2009 as a Pro Scout after spending 7 seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins. Kuhn will assist the Vikings with NFL-wide scouting of players, advance scouting of opponents, database operations, reports and evaluations for free agency.

Kuhn has a strong background in technology as it relates to scouting and worked with Miami as College Scouting Coordinator for his final 5 seasons. He joined the Dolphins in 2000 as a Player Personnel intern and rose within the organization during his tenure. While in Miami, Kuhn worked closely with Vikings

Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman and Director of Player Personnel George Paton.

A 1997 graduate of Kansas State University, Kuhn holds a degree in anthropology. He is a native of Topeka, KS and attended Hayden High. Kuhn is married to Heidi with daughters Kyliya and Jamie. The family resides in Eden Prairie.

RYAN MONNENS

PRO SCOUT

Ryan Monnens begins his 8th season in the Vikings scouting department in 2009. He is responsible for scouting players in the NFL, advance scouting of Vikings opponents, assisting with the pro scouting database and scouting players in other professional leagues.

Monnens is in his 5th season as a pro scout after spending 3 seasons as a pro personnel assistant. He joined the Vikings as an intern in 1998, spending 3 seasons in public relations before joining the scouting department in 2002.

Monnens played WR at St. John's University in Collegeville, MN (1995-97) under legendary coach John Gagliardi, the all-time winningest coach in college football history. During his tenure at St. John's, the Johnnies won the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title in '95 and '96, advanced to the NCAA playoffs, and posted a (25-6-1) record.

A Minnesota native, Monnens (12/4/75) grew up in Richmond and attended Rocori High School. Monnens earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from St. John's in 1998. He and his wife, Krissy, reside in Excelsior.

JEFF ROBINSON

PRO SCOUT

In 2009, Jeff Robinson enters his 20th season with the Minnesota Vikings and serves as a Pro Scout. Robinson assists the personnel department with league-wide player evaluation and preparing scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

After joining the Vikings as a public relations intern in 1990, Robinson worked two seasons (1991-92) as a public relations assistant and three years (1993-95) as operations assistant. He moved into the scouting department in June 1996.

In 1989-90 Robinson was an assistant coach at North High School in Minneapolis.

A three-year starter at cornerback at Northwestern, Robinson served as a team captain and was selected honorable-mention All-Big Ten as a senior in 1988. In the Wildcats' 28-10 win over Illinois (11/21) in '87, he returned an interception 73 yards for a touchdown, which at the time was the 7th longest interception return in school history and the longest interception return by a Northwestern player since '63. As a starter in all 11 games at right cornerback as a sophomore, Robinson helped the Wildcats post their best record (4-7) since 1973. Northwestern also tied a school record for takeaways with 31 in '86. He was recruited by and played as a freshman for former Vikings Head Coach Dennis Green.

A native of Minneapolis, Robinson (4/16/67) was an honorable-mention All-America and a two-time All-Minneapolis Conference selection at North High School. He also was a 2-time All-State pick in track and an All-City choice in basketball. A member of the National Honor Society in high school, Robinson was recognized by the Minneapolis Public School Athletic Department in '88.

Named one of the Outstanding College Students of America, Robinson earned a degree in organizational studies/business management at Northwestern. Since '91 he has served on the board of directors of the North Community YMCA. In 1995 and 1996 he hosted a college prep basketball camp for the top 30 varsity players in the Twin Cities. For the last seven years Robinson has hosted the "Jeff Robinson Football Camp". He and his wife Cassandra have two daughters, Jassandra, Jaila and a son, Jeffrey II "Deuce" and live in Shakopee.

PAUL WIGGIN

PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

In almost five decades as a player, coach and administrator in the National Football League, Paul Wiggin has been closely linked with the success of several teams.

In his role as a Vikings Personnel Consultant, Wiggin works with the department that is responsible for the evaluation all NFL players and advance scouting of the Vikings' upcoming opponents.

Wiggin first joined the Vikings in 1985 as defensive line coach in Bud Grant's final season as head coach. Wiggin oversaw a line that featured DE Chris Doleman and DT Keith Millard, who posted 21.0 and 18.0 sacks respectively in 1989, earning Millard NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Wiggin's career included head coaching jobs at his alma mater, Stanford, from 1980-83 on a team that included John Elway and Darrin Nelson. From 1975-77 Wiggin was head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. His coaching career started in 1968 with the San Francisco 49ers defensive line.

As a standout DE for the Cleveland Browns from 1957-67, Wiggin never missed a game, playing in 146 straight. He earned Pro Bowl starts in 1965 and '67 and was named to the Browns all-time team. In 2008 he was inducted as a Cleveland Browns Legend, honoring the top players in franchise history. A 2-time All-America at Stanford, Wiggin was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005. He has bachelor's and master's degrees from Stanford.

A native of Modesto (CA), Wiggin attended Manteca Union High. He and his wife, Carolyn, have three children and eight grandchildren.

JERRY REICHOW

PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

Jerry Reichow has been closely affiliated with the Vikings in different roles since the beginning of the storied franchise in the early 1960s.

A standout player on the debut Vikings team in 1961, Reichow has worked over four decades with the team in a variety of personnel roles.

Reichow's eye for talent has played a key role in the success of the franchise and he has worked with all seven head coaches in Vikings history.

Reichow began in the Vikings front office in 1966 as Director of Player Personnel. He moved on to be Director of Football Operations in 1975 and Assistant General Manager, National Scouting in 1992. Reichow was a key contributor to the Vikings draft process throughout his career and the team developed a reputation for finding talent hidden in late rounds of the draft.

Originally joining the team in 1961 in a trade from Washington, Reichow played 1961-64 for the Vikings. He led the team in receiving in 1961 and '62, joined Hugh McElhenny in '61 as the first 2 Pro Bowlers in team history and his 11 TD catches '61 stood as the team record until Cris Carter broke it in 1995.

Reichow entered the NFL as a 4th-round pick in 1956 by Detroit, helping the Lions to the 1957 NFL title. Reichow was the 1955 Iowa Hawkeyes MVP. He left school as the school record holder in total offense and played in the Shrine Bowl and Senior Bowl as a senior. On the hardwood, Reichow helped the team to the Final Four in 1955.

A native of Decorah, IA, Reichow and his wife, Carolyn, have three children.

BUD GRANT CONSULTANT

Bud Grant holds a notable place in the history of the Vikings franchise but also in the state of Minnesota. An icon of the sport and the team, Grant and the Vikings were synonymous for his 18 seasons as head coach of the club.

Grant retired as the winningest head coach in team history following the 1985 season, capping a career that would be honored with induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame less than a decade later. Grant's place among the giants of the game is marked by a career regular season record of 158-96-5, winning 11 division titles in his 18 seasons and leading the Vikings to the Super Bowl 4 times.

Grant's coaching career began in the Canadian Football League in 1957 with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Grant moved to the sideline for 10 seasons (1957-66) immediately after retiring as a player for the Blue Bombers from 1953-56 where he played both ways as a WR/DB and was a Western Conference All-Star 3 times. During a playoff game against Saskatchewan, Grant snared 5 INTs to set a pro football record for a game. He entered pro football as a player with the Philadelphia Eagles for 2 seasons in 1951-52, ranking 2nd in the NFL in receiving in 1952. Grant had a 203-yard receiving day against the Dallas Texans in 1952 that still ranks as the 4th-best day in Eagles history.

As a coach in Canada, Grant led Winnipeg to the Grey Cup 6 times, winning the title 4 times- 1958, '59, '61, '62. Grant is the 1st person to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Canadian Football Hall of Fame.

Despite his many connections to Minnesota, Grant is a native of Superior, WI and graduate of Superior High. Upon graduation in 1945 he enlisted in the Navy and spent his basic training at Great Lakes Naval Station in Chicago where he played on a base football team coached by fellow Hall of Famer Paul Brown. Grant enrolled at the University of Minnesota where he would be a 3-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball. He twice earned All Big Ten honors in football. He was sought after as a pro athlete, being drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles and the NBA's Minneapolis Lakers. He won a pair of NBA titles with the Lakers in 1950 and '51 before turning to football where he played in 1951 and '52 for the Eagles. He was the 2nd-leading receiver in the NFL in 1952 before a contract dispute led him to Winnipeg to finish his playing career.

The Grant family is prominent in Minnesota in many areas. The patriarch of the Grant family, Bud's wife of 59 years, Pat, passed in the spring of 2009. Grant has 6 children, 19 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

FRED ZAMBERLETTI CONSULTANT-TEAM HISTORIAN

Fred Zamberletti enters 2009 with a long and storied history with the franchise and a remarkable streak intact—Zamberletti has not missed a game in the 49-year history of the Vikings, working 989 consecutive contests. The streak includes all preseason, regular season and postseason games in club history.

Zamberletti has earned the respect and trust of countless players and staff during his tenure with the Vikings. In his time with the team Zamberletti has been a friend, brother, father figure and mentor to countless players, coaches and co-workers. When the team held Fred Zamberletti Day on December 20, 1998 before kickoff of the Vikings-Jacksonville Jaguars game, over 100 Vikings alumni turned out to celebrate with him. To the media he's known as "Trainer for Life." Former head coach Bud Grant acknowledged him as the "Cornerstone of the Vikings" and former General Manager Mike Lynn referred to Fred as "Mr. Viking." The players with respect and admiration refer to him as "The Man." To his friends and compatriots he is known as "The Voice of Reason." Zamberletti was the Head Trainer from 1961-98, Coordinator of Medical Services from 1999-2001 and currently Senior Consultant.

A successful entrepreneur and a man of deep religious beliefs, the 77-year-old Zamberletti was a 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Infantry. Following his graduation from the University of Iowa he served as chief physical therapist at Hibbing General Hospital in 1959 and head athletic trainer at the University of Toledo in 1960 before joining the Vikings at the team's inception in 1961.

Zamberletti is a native of Melcher, IA, and in addition to numerous professional awards he was inducted into the Minnesota Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame and was chosen Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year in 1986 by the Drackett Company of Cincinnati. He and the Vikings staff earned the 1996 NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year. In 1999 he earned the Cain Fain Award at the NFL Physicians Sports Sciences Symposium and is an Honorary Fellow of the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center.

Recognized by the governor as an Honorary Ambassador of the State of Minnesota, Zamberletti has also received Minneapolis' Honorary Citizen Award.

KIMBERLY FIELDS

DIRECTOR OF CIVIC AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS

Kimberly Fields' strong background from the NFL's headquarters has helped her develop new ties as the Vikings as Director of Civic and Business Affairs. Fields works on civic, business and ownership initiatives for all departments within the Vikings' organization and heads up several special projects throughout the year that enhance the Vikings standing and vision within local business and community circles.

Fields came to Minnesota in 2007 after spending six years at the NFL, most recently as the Manager of Events Business Development. Fields was responsible for enhancing opportunities for local women and minority-owned businesses to participate in the production of Super Bowl and Pro Bowl. Fields oversaw the sanctioned event process and assisted with the management of the Super Bowl bid process and the special events' strategic plan. Prior to working in the Events department, Fields was the Manager of Career Transition Programs within the Player and Employee Development Department. In that role, she was responsible for providing assistance to NFL players in all aspects of continuing education, degree completion, graduate school preparation, life skills program and personal development through career counseling. Prior to joining the NFL offices, Fields served as Community Relations/Fan Development Coordinator for the WNBA. Her first exposure to the sports field came as an intern at the Women's Sports Foundation in Long Island, NY and followed that with an internship with the NFL Player and Employee Development Department. Fields earned bachelor's and master's degrees in systems engineering at the University of Virginia where she competed in track and field for the Cavaliers. Fields began her professional career as a technical marketing representative at IBM before returning to UVA to earn her graduate degree and gained exposure to academic counseling as an intern with the Department of Athletics and the Dean of Students office.

BOB HAGAN

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Entering his 19th season in 2009 with the Vikings and his 12th as Director of Public Relations, Bob Hagan is responsible for coordinating print and electronic media coverage of the Vikings as well as overseeing the publication of the official team guide, yearbook and game programs and publicity of the team.

Hagan began with the Vikings as an intern in public relations for the 1991 season and was named Director of Public Relations in 1998. A 1990 graduate of Iowa State University with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, Hagan was an intern in 1989-90 for KARE-TV in the Twin Cities.

In 1991 Hagan served as an intern in the Vikings public relations office under Director Merrill Swanson. In 1992 he was hired full time and served as an assistant under Swanson and then Dave Pelletier until his promotion to Director of Public Relations prior to the 1998 season. Following the 1998 and 2000 seasons, Hagan accompanied the Vikings staff and helped the NFL with PR efforts at the Pro Bowl. Recently, Hagan has worked with the NFL public relations staff at the past 7 Super Bowls.

A native of the Twin Cities, Hagan is a 1986 graduate of Wayzata High School. Hagan and wife Val reside in Plymouth, with children Matt, Carley and Brad.

LUTHER HIPPE

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS-TEAM TRAVEL

Luther Hippe returns as Director of Operations-Team Travel in 2009, his 4th season in that role and his 16th overall season with the Vikings. Hippe is responsible for all aspects of team travel and transportation while serving as the point person for offseason travel including bringing in players during the free agency visit process.

Hippe is one of the Vikings' longest-tenured employees and got his first exposure to the team as a training camp intern in 1993. He returned to the team as a season-long intern in 1994 and was hired to the staff in the spring of 1995 as an assistant in the team operations and personnel departments. After a season in a shared capacity, Hippe turned his focus to operations. Hippe spend his graduate school days at Mankato State University working as a grad assistant for the Mavericks basketball team and as a grad assistant in the athletic department before earning his master's in sports management in 1994. While on the MSU campus Hippe developed a working relationship with the Vikings that evolved into a career.

During his undergraduate school at Sioux Falls College in his hometown of Sioux Falls, SD, Hippe was a four-year letterwinner in basketball. He earned his bachelor's in mass communications from the school in 1987. Hippe is a graduate of Sioux Falls Washington High.

Hippe has been active with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program in the Twin Cities and other charitable endeavors in his hometown. Hippe and wife, Emily, reside in Chanhassen.

PHIL HUEBNER

DIRECTOR OF TICKETING AND HOSPITALITY

Phil Huebner enters his 12th season with the Vikings as the Director of Ticketing and Hospitality in 2009.

Since October 1998, Huebner has overseen and revamped the successful Vikings Ticket Sales and Operations Departments, which are responsible for customer service and the sale of season, group and individual tickets along with hospitality packages. In 1999 season ticket sales were capped at 60,000, an increase of 17,000 from the 1998 season. Entering the 2009 season the Minnesota Vikings have sold out 115 consecutive pre-season, regular season and playoff games. The three largest home crowds in team history have been during Huebner's tenure, including the team-record 64,482 fans who watched the Vikings battle Green Bay on 11/2/03. The Vikings have topped the 500,000 mark for home attendance in each of the past 11 seasons, setting the franchise record at 513,437 in 2003.

Huebner joined the Vikings after 12 years with the Minnesota Twins where he was in various sales positions and spent the final two years as the Director of Sales.

A 1986 graduate of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, he has a bachelor's in political science. Huebner and wife, Debbie, have two children, Rebecca and Bret, and reside in Andover.

DANNON HULSKOTTER

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

The 2009 season will be Dannon Hulskotter's 9th with the Vikings. Hulskotter and the Marketing Department are responsible for managing the team's branding, marketing, promotions, game entertainment/production, internet initiatives along with corporate hospitality and all partner and fan special event.

Hulskotter acts as the main liaison with the team's flagship radio station, network radio affiliates, and local ancillary

TV and pre-season TV partner programming. Prior to joining the Minnesota Vikings, he worked with Pacers Sports & Entertainment in Indianapolis from 1999-2001 and CAVS/Gund Arena Company in Cleveland from 1994-99.

A graduate of the University of Iowa with a degree in sports management, Hulskotter and wife, Amy, have two sons, Jack and Alex, and reside in Prior Lake.

KIM KLAWITER

DIRECTOR OF SECURITY

Entering his 4th season as the Vikings' Director of Security in 2009, Kim Klawiter has worked with the team in game day and special events security since 2001.

Klawiter has a broad background in law enforcement and in the military, experience that benefits the organization as he has responsibility for the security of the Vikings owners, players and staff and the team headquarters at Winter Park. Klawiter coordinates with the Minneapolis Police Department for security at the Metrodome during Vikings home games.

A 24-year veteran of the Minnesota State Patrol, Klawiter retired as a lieutenant. He spent 15 years coordinating VIP visits to the state and was responsible for the State Patrol's highly-trained Special Response Team. Klawiter escorted Mikhail Gorbachev on his visit to the state and has provided security to the past three U.S. Presidents and other prominent public figures.

Klawiter was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1968 and served as a platoon sergeant in Vietnam where he earned the Bronze Star for heroism among other honors. He spent 14 total years in the military between active duty, National Guard and Army Reserve. After his tour of duty, Klawiter returned to school at the University of Minnesota, majoring in sociology.

Klawiter serves on the board and is a past President of the Law Enforcement Memorial Association, an organization that supports the families of officers who have died in the line of duty.

Klawiter resides in Arden Hills with wife, Kathy. The couple has two children, Kelly and Kyle, and three grandchildren, Hunter, Tanner and Alyssa Marie.

CHAD LUNDEEN

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS-STADIUM AND TEAM LOGISTICS

The 2009 season will mark Chad Lundeen's 4th in his current role as Director of Operations-Stadium and Team Logistics. Lundeen will serve as the Vikings' point person for training camp, home games at the Metrodome and for the logistics of off-season mini-camps.

Lundeen has been associated with the team since 1998 when he did an internship with the club and was hired full time in 2000 with duties in Operations and Community Relations. In recent years Lundeen has handled the Vikings' training camp efforts at Minnesota State University, Mankato.

Already familiar with the Mankato scene, Lundeen was a natural fit. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from MSU and exemplified the model of the student-athlete. A four-year competitor on the Maverick hockey team, Lundeen was a summa cum laude graduate and a recipient of MSU's prestigious Preska Scholarship, presented annually to a top student who is involved actively in campus life. Lundeen earned the Team Leadership Award for his efforts in hockey as a junior. Lundeen continued his education at MSU as a graduate assistant in the athletics department and earned his master's degree in sports management.

A 1993 graduate of Little Falls (MN) High, Lundeen and wife, Lindsay, reside in Chaska with their daughter, Evelyn.

BRAD MADSON

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS/YOUTH FOOTBALL

Brad Madson first joined the Vikings staff in 1992 and enters his 14th season in 2009 heading up team community relations and expanding the club's youth football initiatives.

In his tenure, Madson has developed the Vikings community relations into one of the NFL's strongest. In 1999, Cris Carter became the first player in Vikings history to win the prestigious Walter Payton Award as the NFL's Man of the Year. In 2008, Matt Birk was named one of three finalists for the award. The Vikings have implemented Community Tuesday as a concept that has been adopted League-wide. Community Tuesdays have Vikings players active in community events at local schools, hospitals, recreation centers and other nonprofit organizations on their only day off of the week during the season. Locally, Madson supports United Way and the Page Education Foundation. Madson serves on the Board of Directors for Minnesota DARE, African American Adoption Agency, Kids Voting Minnesota, and V3 Youth Triathlon Team. Madson also serves on the University of Minnesota School of Journalism Alumni Board, Minneapolis Park Board Youth Sports Work Team, and Salvation Army Harbor Light Center Advisory Council. Through NFL Charities and LISC (Local Initiatives Support Corporation), Madson has helped lead the $850,000 refurbishing of North Commons Park, Parade Stadium and Les Barnard Field in Minneapolis, Griffin Stadium and Jimmy Lee Center in St. Paul and Heritage Sports Center in Duluth. In 2009, Madson received the "Distinguished Service Award" from the Minnesota Football Coaches Association.

Madson worked with the Vikings suite and ticket sales efforts from 1992-96 before moving into community relations. A graduate of the University of Minnesota in journalism, Madson worked in television sports as an anchor and reporter prior to joining the Vikings. Madson was a member of the Golden Gophers' Big 10 champion tennis team during his college career. Madson is single and resides in Minneapolis.

J.P. PAUL

DIRECTOR OF PRIVATE SUITE SALES AND SERVICE

The 2009 season will be J.P. Paul's 7th season with the Vikings organization and his 4th season as the team's Director of Private Suites Sales and Service.

As part of his responsibilities, Paul oversees all sales and operational aspects of the Metrodome's Private Suites not only for Vikings games, but for Minnesota Twins games as well. Paul also acts as the Vikings Suite liaison with Aramark and Main Gate, which provide catering services and merchandise fulfillment, respectively, for the Private Suites. Under Paul's leadership, the Vikings also introduced the Samsung Legends Club and TicketExchange Touchdown Club. These exclusive Premium Seating areas were the first of their kind in the Metrodome's history.

Along with his day-to-day responsibilities with the Vikings, Paul also serves as a Board Member for Junior Achievement's Project Lead! which focuses on teaching financial literacy to young people across the Upper Midwest. A member of the Association of Luxury Suite Directors, he also served as the NFL's 2007 Premium Seating Committee Chairman and is a member of the Downtown Minneapolis Rotary. A lifelong sports fan and participant, he played Division I collegiate baseball at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

J.P. and his wife, Megan, reside in Chaska with their three sons, Ryan, Matthew and Nicholas.

LES PICO

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/LEGAL

Entering his 5th season with the Vikings and his 12th associated with the National Football League, Les Pico serves the Vikings as Executive Director of Player Development/Legal.

Pico is responsible for heading the Vikings efforts in continuing education, family assistance and career internships. Pico joins players at the annual Rookie Symposium, serving as a team liaison between the NCAA and the team and legal issues that arise concerning players, coaches and staff. Pico helped implement a Vikings "mini-symposium" to assist rookies in their transition to life in the NFL and he lends his expertise to the team during the NFL Combine and during the free agency period. In 2008, the Vikings were honored by the NFL with the Player Development Continuing Education Award when an NFL-high 9 players were enrolled in school.

Pico joined the Vikings after 4 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs where he worked as Player Development Coordinator/Legal. Pico worked with NFL Security from 1998-2000 and with the NCAA from 1991-98 as an enforcement representative.

A native of Mesa, AZ, he attended Scottsdale Community College where he was a decorated QB and team MVP. After SCC, Pico went on a 2-year LDS mission was involved in private business. He returned to Arizona State to complete his bachelor's where he was a Cum Laude graduate in criminal justice in 1987 and went on to law school at Washburn (KS) University, earning his Juris Doctorate in 1991.

Pico and his wife, Rita, have four children.

MIKE SLATES

DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE SALES

Mike Slates begins his 10th season with the Vikings in 2009 as Director of Corporate Sales. Slates is responsible for overseeing all aspects of corporate sponsorship revenue, including media, signage, print, internet, promotional and special event sales. Under his leadership and with the addition of radio and television broadcast rights, the group has totaled record-setting revenues each year. Slates also directs the Partnerships group, which is responsible for providing an elite level of service to the team's corporate partners via corporate travel/hospitality, in- and out-of-stadium promotions and special events as well as other corporate partnership elements.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Slates was a Corporate Sales Consultant for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. From 1998-2000, he was Director of Corporate Sales for the Columbus Crew of Major League Soccer. During that time the Crew opened the nation's first professional soccer-specific stadium.

Slates, who earned his bachelor's degree in sports management at Bowling Green State University, has a daughter, Rachel, and a son, Noah. Slates resides in Prior Lake.

NICK TIGUE

FACILITIES DIRECTOR

Nick Tigue has overseen the facilities at the Vikings' Winter Park headquarters since 2007 and is responsible for the maintenance and supervision of the physical plant and overall upkeep and enhancement of the facilities. Tigue is active in the NFL's and Vikings green initiatives to enhance recycling and energy conservation.

Tigue came to the Vikings after working for Pipestone County, MN as Buildings and Grounds Supervisor. He has a degree in supervisory management from Anoka Technical College and a bachelor's from Concordia-St. Paul.

A native of St. Michael, MN, Tigue and his wife, Kristy, have daughters Annabell and Olivia.

To book an appearance by the Minnesota Vikings Cheerleaders or to get information on their many programs, including the Junior Cheerleaders and Senior Cheerleaders, visit vikings.com or contact the Cheer Coordinator at 952-828-6530. The ladies make appearances at corporate, charity, community and sponsor events throughout the year and travel in support of our troops serving overseas. Cheerleader merchandise can be found online at vikings.com and at local stores.

VIKINGS MEDIA POLICY

INTERVIEW REQUESTS: All interview requests for Minnesota Vikings players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department. Phone interviews must be arranged at least two days in advance and will be subject to availability. Head Coach Brad Childress will hold a press conference the day following games and Wednesday of a regular game week at Winter Park and will make a weekly conference call to speak with the opposing team's assembled media.

OPEN LOCKER ROOM PERIOD: The Vikings' locker room is open to accredited media during the week at scheduled times. Head Coach Brad Childress will address assembled media on Wednesday of a regular game week at Winter Park during this period. Television standups and live shots are prohibited during press conferences. Vikings players will also be available to the media with the assistance of Public Relations staffers of the Vikings. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays, the day before a game or on game day until after the game.

PRACTICE REGULATIONS: The Vikings practices at Winter Park on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are open through individual drills to accredited media. Practices are open for filming through individual drills.

GAME CREDENTIALS: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignments and must be made through the Vikings' Public Relations Department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a free-lance basis unless the request is made by a recognized publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in July; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. Game day credentials may be picked up at Media Will Call at Gate D at the Metrodome starting three hours before kickoff. All credential requests must be submitted via email to Evan Koch (koche@vikings.nfl.net) or by fax, (952) 828-6540.

PRESS RELEASES: The Vikings' weekly press release may be obtained from the team or on the Internet at www.vikings.com and nflmedia.com. The team's weekly injury report, which is first released on Wednesday, can also be acquired the same way.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: Still photography is not allowed in the locker room at Winter Park or Metrodome at any time.

MEDIA CONTACTS: Media requests can be submitted to the Vikings Public Relations staff: Bob Hagan, Director of Public Relations (haganb@vikings.nfl.net); Tom West, Assistant Director of Public Relations (westt@vikings.nfl.net); Jeff Anderson, Assistant Director of Public Affairs (andersonj@vikings.nfl.net) or Evan Koch, Public Relations Assistant (koche@vikings.nfl.net). SUNDAY AND MONDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

The Vikings are slated to play 3 prime time games in 2009, a pair of Monday Night affairs- vs. Green Bay (10/5) and at Chicago (12/28) and travel to Carolina for a Sunday Night game (12/20) the week before the trip to Chicago. The matchup with Green Bay will mark the 50th all-time Monday Night Football game for the Vikings and will be the 7th meeting between the Packers and Vikings on Monday Night with the teams splitting 3-3 in the previous games. The last Vikings-Packers game on Monday Night at the Metrodome was on 12/20/99, a 24-20 Vikings win. The Vikings enter 2009 with a 25-24 all-time record on Monday Night Football and have had several notable games on the prime time showcase. The Vikings will face Chicago for the 11th time on Monday Night and hold a 6-4 series advantage. The 10 Monday Night meetings between the clubs is the most in Vikings team history. Minnesota and Chicago will play a prime-time game for the 3rd straight season, meeting on Monday Night Football on 12/17/07 and playing on Sunday Night on 11/30/08, both Vikings wins at the Metrodome. The game at Carolina will be the 1st prime-time meeting between the teams and the 28th all-time Sunday Night game for the Vikings.

THE SYMBOL OF THE EVOLVING NFL

The NFL shield, one of the most recognizable symbols in the sports world, underwent a stylistic upgrade during the 2008 offseason. The new font and design changes pay homage to the history of the League and the logo while turning an eye forward on the future. As the NFL enters its 89th season in 2008 the new shield symbolizes the progress of the league over those decades and the excellence that has laid the foundation for the modern NFL.

Adjustments to the logo include 8 stars representing the 8 Divisions in the NFL and the design of the football reflects the design of the football atop the Vince Lombardi Trophy. The blue color is darker and bolder than past shields and the shape has been refined over past versions.

BIG TEN BROTHERS

Vikings LB David Herron has progressed each season since joining the club as a rookie free agent in 2007. He moved from the practice squad to the active roster and earned 3 starts at MLB in 2008. While proud of his own accomplishments on the gridiron, David is more proud of his younger brother, Dan, and his budding football career. The younger Herron is making a name for himself at Ohio State where he enters 2009 slated to help the Buckeyes carry the load in the backfield. The brothers have a friendly Big Ten rivalry between David's. "I'm a Boom Herron fan," David said. "Nobody's a bigger fan of his than me, even if they're playing Michigan State. I haven't been to one of his games since he was in 8th grade, but we're as close as any brothers can be. We're able to talk a lot of football and help each other out during our seasons and in the offseason."

BROTHERS IN ARMS

A number of Vikings players and coaches have brothers who also have been involved, or are currently involved in football at a high level. Some of the most notable are:

The Abdullahs

Vikings S Husain Abdullah's older brother Hamza is currently a DB with the Cleveland Browns. Hamza joined the Browns after 4 seasons as a teammate of Vikings CB Karl Paymah in Denver.

The Bootys

2nd-year QB John David Booty has a pair of older brothers that earned success on the gridiron. Josh, also a QB, was drafted by the Seattle Seahawks in 2001 and then spent time with the Browns and Oakland Raiders. A second Booty brother, Abram, played WR receiver at LSU and Valdosta State as a collegian.

The Brinkleys

The Hendersons

LBs E.J. and Erin Henderson are the Vikings most obvious set of brothers. The Hendersons were actually never teammates before the 2008 season, as E.J. is 6-years Erin's senior. Erin however followed in E.J.'s footsteps by attending the University of Maryland.

The Herrons

Vikings LB David Herron, also has a younger playing top-level ball. Daniel Herron is entering his junior season and is projected to be the starting RB at Ohio State, after serving as the backup to All-American Chris Wells.

The Moores

Vikings WR Nick Moore followed his big brother Lance to Toledo University. Lance, 3-years Nick's senior, plays for the New Orleans Saints since 2005 and had a breakout season in 2008 with 5 TDs.

The Onatolus

2009 free agent acquisition Kenny Onatolu played LB alongside his twin brother Taiwo at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Kenny spent 2007 and 2008 in the CFL with Edmonton is battling for a spot on the Vikings roster. Taiwo is coaching with his alma mater.

HELLO CLEVELAND

The Vikings visit Cleveland for the 1st regular season game on the shores of Lake Erie in the new Browns stadium and since the franchise returned to one of the founding cities of the League in 1999. The Vikings hold the distinction of playing the 1st game in the newly-minted Browns stadium in the 1999 preseason, facing off on 8/21/99. That game in 1999 featured only 1 current Viking-rookie TE Jim Kleinsasser, who had joined the Vikings as a 2nd-round draft pick out of the University of North Dakota.

The Vikings will make their first regular season visit to Cleveland Brown Stadium to open the 2009 season. However, the Vikings and Browns played the inaugural game inside the new stadium when they met in Week 3 of the 1999 preseason (8/21/99).

The Vikings have played 5 all-time regular-season games in Cleveland, going 3-2 in those matchups. The Vikings won the 1st-ever meeting in Cleveland, a 27-17 victory in 1965. The last visit to Cleveland was in 1989, an OT loss by the Vikings in the final road game of the season.

The Vikings made an impression on the NFL scene in 1969, winning the NFL title over the Browns with a 27-7 victory in the NFL Championship game and advancing to Super Bowl IV. The game was the last NFL title tilt as the AFL-NFL merger occurred in 1970. Earlier in the 1969 season the Vikings took a 51-3 victory over the Browns, a mark that still stands as the largest margin of victory in Vikings history.

The 2009 season opener at Cleveland will be the 49th opener in Vikings history and only the 2nd time opening at Cleveland in team history. The 1983 Vikings won 27-21 on 9/4/83 to open the season. The teams have long-standing connections dating back to the start of the franchise. Vikings Personnel Consultant and former assistant coach Paul Wiggin was a star DE for the Browns from 1957-67, twice earning Pro Bowl honors and was inducted as a Cleveland Browns Legend in 2008. Vikings legend Jim Marshall began his NFL career in 1960 with the Browns, starting his infamous career-long 282-game streak, including 270 straight with the Vikings.

SOUND THE GJALLARHORN!

According to Norse mythology, the Gjallarhorn was the musical instrument that would announce the arrival of the Gods. Heimdall, the watchman of the Gods, was responsible for sounding the horn when the Gods and Viking warriors would go to battle. Down from the halls of mythical Asgard, the deities would come to wage war against their enemies. When the horn sounded for the final time, it would mark an event called Ragnarok, which was Norse mythology's version of Armageddon. The reverberating note from the horn would summon Gods and warriors from all across the heavens and earth to take part in one final, epic battle.

In 2007, the Gjallarhorn found a new home at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Now, when the horn is sounded, it marks a battle of a different kind. It signals the arrival of the Minnesota Vikings and the start of a struggle against their opponents. Instead of clashing on some ancient, mythical plain, our Vikings grind it out on the Metrodome's turf.

OH CANADA

Vikings LB Kenny Onatolu took a different route to competing for a roster spot with the Vikings in 2009, spending the past 2 seasons with Edmonton of the Canadian Football League. His experience north of the border continues a connection the Vikings have had to the CFL dating to the start of the franchise in 1961. Most notably, legendary Head Coach Bud Grant came to the Vikings in 1967 after establishing himself as a top-notch coach with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers for a decade (1957-66). Grant won 4 Grey Cup titles as coach of the team he played with from 1953-56, setting a record with 5 INTs in a 1953 game against Saskatchewan. During Grant's days with Winnipeg he coached future Vikings WR Leo Lewis' father, Leo, a star RB who earned a spot in the CFL Hall of Fame. Before the younger Lewis found a home with the Vikings, he also played in the CFL. During Grant's playing days with Winnipeg, the head coach of the club was Allie Sherman, who went on to be head coach of the NY Giants.

The Vikings passing game got a boost during the 1994-96 seasons from a former CFL star when QB Warren Moon came to the team in a trade with the Houston Oilers. Moon went to the Pro Bowl in 1994 and '95. Vikings ironman Jim Marshall began his pro career in the CFL in 1959. The Vikings went to Super Bowl IV behind the gritty leadership of QB Joe Kapp, a former British Columbia Lions QB that would go down in football history as the only QB to lead his teams to a Super Bowl, Grey Cup and Rose Bowl. Moon and Grant have earned induction into both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Canadian Football Hall of Fame. Currently, Marc Trestman, an assistant on Grant's Vikings staff, is the head coach for Montreal in the CFL. Vikings assistant Dennis Polian came to the squad in 2009 after coaching with the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 2008.

Vikings legend Bud Grant coached CFL Hall of Famer Leo Lewis, Sr. (pictured right) in Winnipeg and his son, Leo, with the Vikings. Vikings LB Kenny Onatolu is the latest Vikings connection to the CFL, having played in Edmonton in 2007 and 2008.

Had impressive outing vs.

Tennessee (10/21) when he replaced Schaub in the 2nd quarter and went on to throw for 290 yards and 4 TDs, with 249 of the yards and all 4 TDs coming in the 4th quarter, as he rallied the team from a 32-7 deficit in the 4th quarter to take a 36-35 lead before a late Titans FG gave them the win... Had a pair of season-long 53-yard passes - a TD to WR Andre Davis vs. Tennessee (10/21) and a 53-yard gain to RB Ahman Green at Oakland (11/4)... Had a TD pass in each of the 9 games he played in during the season and multiple-TD days in 3 of the games.

2006 Saw action in 4 games... Threw all 3 TDs on the season at Tennessee (10/29) when he entered the game in the 2nd half, notching his 1st career passer rating of 100+ points, finishing with a 116.0 mark... Connected with Andre Johnson for a 10-yard pass, his 1st as a Texan, and added a pair of 4th-quarter scores to TE Owen Daniels.

2005 Played in 4 games and started 1... Threw TDs in 3 of his 4 appearances... Sparked the biggest comeback win in Dolphins history vs. Buffalo (12/4) when he rallied the team from a 23-3 4th-quarter deficit to take a 24-23 win, throwing for 272 yards and a pair of TDs, hitting RB Ronnie Brown on a 23-yard score with 7:35 remaining to cut the Bills lead and throwing the 4-yard game-winner to WR Chris Chambers with :06 remaining in the game... Entered game vs. NY Jets (12/18) in the 2nd half and engineered another 4th-quarter comeback win, trailing 10-17 entering the final quarter and guiding the Dolphins to 2 TDs, including a 50-yard TD pass to WR Marty Booker... Made his 1 pass attempt in 4th-quarter duty vs. Kansas City (10/21) memorable with a career-long 77-yard TD to Chambers.

2004 Played in 3 games and started 1st career contest in season finale at Baltimore (1/2/05)... Got off to a fast start vs. Ravens by throwing a 76-yard TD to Chambers on the 1st play from scrimmage and ended day with 264 yards... Only other action of the season came in games vs. Cleveland (12/26) and at San Francisco (11/28) when he didn't attempt a pass.

2003 Saw time in 2 games...Threw 1st career TD in 1st action of the season, hitting Donald Lee for a 21-yard score at Tennessee (11/9) with :20 left in the game...Connected on 1st career NFL pass with a 5-yard completion to RB Travis Minor in Tennessee game, ending day going 4-of-6 for 50 yards.

TAKING CENTER SAGE

In his past 10 NFL starts, all with Houston, Sage Rosenfels has gone 6-4 and has efficiently run the Texans offense. The team averaged 337.4 yards per game of offense and 23.2 offensive points per game. In 2008 his highest passer-rating game of the season came against the Vikings when he replaced an injured Matt Schaub under center for the Texans. Rosenfels posted a passer rating of 103.2 and led Houston to a pair of 2nd-half TDs in the game, moving the ball well against the Vikings #6-ranked defense and the tough Metrodome crowd. In his 5 starts in 2008, Rosenfels led the Texans to an average of 362.2 yards per game of offense.

In his past 10 NFL starts, Rosenfels has completed 64.7% of his passes and has a career completion rate of 62.5%. During his NFL career, Rosenfels has been able to avoid sacks, allowing only 19 sacks in 562 career attempts- 1 sack in every 29.5 passing attempt. In 14 of his past 15 appearances, Rosenfels has thrown a TD pass.

ROSENFELS RISES

Sage Rosenfels was the 6th QB drafted in 2001, part of a draft class that included the older brother of Vikings QB John David Booty. Rosenfels was selected 3 choices after St. Paul native and Heisman Trophy winner Chris Weinke.

VIKINGS OF TOMORROW PLAY ON THE BIG STAGE

Not only does football offer youngsters skills to play the game - but more importantly, football provides them with skills and opportunities to succeed in life. The entire Minnesota Vikings organization supports youth of all ages participating in the game we all love, both on and off the field. We recognize that these youngsters are the future of the NFL, making youth football a top priority of the organization.

The mission of the Vikings of Tomorrow youth football program is to give back to the community by introducing amateur leagues to the fundamentals of football at the professional level. By working hand-in-hand with various youth football programs and partners throughout the region, the Vikings of Tomorrow program is designed to support, promote and expand the sport of amateur football and the broad appreciation of the game.

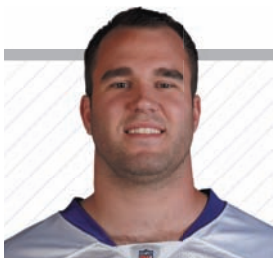

Since its inception in 2007, the Vikings of Tomorrow youth football program has provided thousands of amateur football players (ages 8-14) with the unforgettable opportunity to play on the Vikings turf in either pregame, halftime or postgame scrimmages, including the annual Vikings of Tomorrow vs. Mascot Challenge. Aside from showcasing their talent on the field, the youth players also had the chance to cheer on the Purple from the stands, appear on the video board and received a commemorative photograph to capture the lasting memories of their experience.

PRESENTED BY Case Club & LIFETIME FITNESS

The Vikings of Tomorrow program allows youth to play on the same field the Vikings do on Sunday mornings.

VIKINGS ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD HONOREES

Since 1984 the Ed Block Courage Awards annually honors one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Recipients are selected by a vote of their teammates to recognize both on and off the field extra efforts and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional. The Ed Block Courage Award is named in honor of Ed Block, the longtime head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts who was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian. The Ed Block Courage Award has become one of the most prestigious awards a player can receive because no other national football award is chosen solely by a vote of his peers. Winners travel to Baltimore every March to receive their trophy at a gala in their honor, but the experience does not end there. During their stay, the recipients spend time at the local Courage House at St. Vincent's Center, a facility specializing in working with abused children. This visit, and the time spent with the children, allows each recipient to fully comprehend the true meaning of the award.

THROWBACK UNIFORMS HONOR CLASSICS

The Vikings introduced new uniforms for the 2006 season that featured an updated look for the traditional Vikings uniform and added subtle stylistic enhancements to the helmet logo and color. In 2007 and 2008 the Vikings wore throwback uniforms that paid homage to the uniforms of the 1970s era Vikings. The team has worn the throwback uniforms against traditional NFC North rivals- Green Bay and Chicago.

TAKEAWAY 'TOINE

Antoine Winfield's nose for the ball and instinctive play has quickly moved him into elite company in Vikings history. Few Vikings CBs have had as much success making big plays and taking the ball away. For a player entering his 6th Vikings season, Winfield is poised to climb higher in the team record book and continue turning the tide for the Vikings defense

Keith Millard (left) and Chris Doleman (right) formed the greatest single-season sack duo in Vikings history in 1989. Millard set a Vikings record with 21.0 sacks, while Doleman posted the second-most sacks ever in a season by a Viking with 18.0. The duo's 39.0 combined sacks accounted for more than half of the franchise-record 72.0 sacks in the 1989 season.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS

HISTORY

VIKINGS LORE

FRANCHISE FOUNDED — Minnesota was granted an NFL franchise at the league owners' meetings in Miami on Jan. 28, 1960. The team began play in 1961. The founding group consisted of Max Winter, E. William Boyer, H.P. Skoglund, Ole Haugrud and Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

ROSE NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — In late summer, 1960, former Los Angeles Rams Public Relations Director Bert Rose was named the team's first General Manager.

TEAM NICKNAMED — In one of his first moves with the team, Bert Rose recommended the nickname "Vikings" to the Board of Directors. The name was selected because it represented both an aggressive person with the will to win and the Nordic tradition in the northern Midwest.

Norm Van Brocklin (center) was named the Vikings' first head coach prior to the 1961 inaugural season.

FIRST HEAD COACH — Norm Van Brocklin was selected as the first head coach in franchise history. He retired as a player in 1960 after 12 seasons in the NFL as a Hall of Fame QB.

FIRST COLLEGE DRAFT — On Dec. 27, 1960, RB Tommy Mason of Tulane was taken with the 1st overall choice and the first-ever draft pick utilized by the Vikings. Also selected that year were QB Fran Tarkenton (3rd round) and DB Ed Sharockman (5th round).

EXPANSION DRAFT — Following the 1960 season, the Vikings were allowed to select 3 players from the roster of each team after each team was allowed to protect 30 of their 38 players. Dallas was exempt from this process. Among the players selected were OL Grady Alderman (Detroit) and RB Hugh McElhenry (San Francisco).

ASSIGNED CONFERENCE — On April 12, 1961, the NFL assigned the Vikings to the Western Conference. Minnesota joined Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco in the conference.

FIRST GAME — In the first game in franchise history, the Vikings played the Dallas Cowboys in a preseason game in Sioux Falls, SD, on Aug. 5, 1961. The Cowboys defeated the Vikings, 38-13.

FIRST HOME GAME — The Minnesota Vikings played the Los Angeles Rams in a preseason action at Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, MN, on Sept. 10, 1961, the team's first game in the Twin Cities. The Rams defeated the Vikings, 21-17.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME — In a stunning upset, the Vikings defeated the Chicago Bears, 37-13, at Metropolitan Stadium in the Vikings' first NFL regular-season game on Sept. 17, 1961. Kicker Mike Mercer scored the first points in team history with a 12-yard field goal. Bob Schnelker scored the team's first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton. In his NFL debut Tarkenton came off the bench to complete 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards and 4 touchdowns.

FIRST PRO BOWLERS — On Jan. 14, 1962, RB Hugh McElhenry and WR Jerry Reichow became the first Vikings to compete in the Pro Bowl. They were part of the Western Conference All-Stars who beat the Eastern Conference squad, 31-30, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

FIRST ALL-PRO — In 1963 RB Tommy Mason, who was the team's first ever draft choice, was the first Vikings player to earn All-Pro recognition. He was a consensus pick after rushing for 763 yards and 7 touchdowns on 166 carries (4.6 avg.).

FINKS HIRED — In September, 1964, Jim Finks was named the team's second general manager, succeeding Bert Rose, who resigned in June, 1964. Finks previously had served as general manager for Calgary of the Canadian Football League for 7 years.

FIRST WINNING SEASON — Minnesota won its final 3 regular-season games in 1964 to achieve the first winning season in team history with an 8-5-1 record. The Vikings tied for 2nd in the NFL Western Conference behind Baltimore.

MET EXPANDED — A new grandstand was constructed on the east side of Metropolitan Stadium that increased capacity from 41,200 to 47,200. The new seats were formally dedicated on Aug. 20, 1965, when Minnesota played Philadelphia in a preseason game.

NFL RE-ALIGNED — On Dec. 2, 1966, Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit and Green Bay were chosen to make up the newly-formed Central Division of the Western Conference of the NFL.

VAN BROCKLIN RESIGNS — After compiling a 29-51-4 record while leading the Vikings in their first six years of existence, Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin resigned in February, 1967. His best season was 1964, when he led the team to a tie for 2nd place in the NFL Western Conference with an 8-5-1 record.

TARKENTON TRADED — On March 7, 1967, QB Fran Tarkenton is traded to the NY Giants for a 1st and 2nd-round choice in 1967, a 1st-round choice in '68 and a 2nd-round choice in '69. With the picks Minnesota selected Clinton Jones and Bob Grim in '67, Ron Yary in '68 and Ed White in '69.

GRANT NAMED HEAD COACH — Bud Grant was named the second head coach in Vikings history on March 10, 1967. He came to Minnesota after leading the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to 4 Grey Cup Championships in 10 years as head coach.

FIRST DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 15, 1968 the Vikings defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-17, at Franklin Field then retired to the dressing room to listen to the Chicago-Green Bay game on the radio. Minnesota needed the Bears to lose to clinch the Vikings' 1st Division title. Chicago tried to rally from a 28-10 4th quarter deficit but eventually fell 28-17.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME — On Dec. 22, 1968, in the first playoff game in franchise history, the Colts defeated the Vikings, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Minnesota trailed 21-0 in the 4th quarter but a late rally fell short.

SECOND DIVISION TITLE — On Nov. 27, 1969, the Vikings shut out Detroit, 27-0, at Tiger Stadium to clinch the franchise's 2nd division title. The victory over the Lions was the 10th of a 12-game win streak, the longest in the NFL in 35 years. Minnesota finished the season with the NFL's best record (12-2) of '69.

FIRST PLAYOFF WIN — On Dec. 27, 1969, in the first NFL playoff game in Minnesota, the Vikings came from behind to defeat the LA Rams, 23-20, in the Western Conference Championship Game. Minnesota overcame deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 20-14 in the 4th quarter for the franchise's 1st postseason win.

FIRST NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings clinched the franchise's 2nd division title. Minnesota became the 1st modern NFL expansion team to win an NFL Championship Game. The Vikings dominated the game, leading 27-0 at one point.

FIRST SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 11, 1970, the Vikings lost to Kansas City, 23-7, in Super Bowl IV at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans. Not only was the game the 1st Super Bowl in franchise history, but it was the 1st Super Bowl played by a modern expansion team.

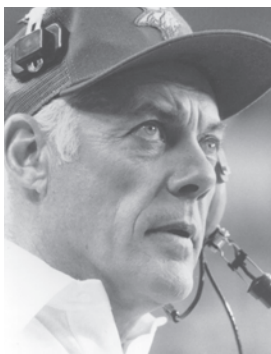

THIRD DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 5, 1970, the Vikings defeated the Bears, 16-13, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their 3rd straight division title. Minnesota hosted San Francisco in a divisional playoff game but lost, 17-14. For the 2nd consecutive season, the Vikings had the league's best record with a 12-2 mark.

FOURTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 11, 1971, the Vikings defeated the Lions, 29-10, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their 4th straight division title. Minnesota finished the year with an 11-3 mark, which tied Dallas for the league's best record in '71. The Vikings lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 20-12, in a divisional playoff game at Metropolitan Stadium.

PAGE NAMED NFL'S MVP — In 1971 Alan Page became the first defensive player to be named the Most Valuable Player of the National Football League by the Associated Press. Page headed a Vikings defense that held opponents to fewer than 10 points a game to lead the league in scoring defense for the 3rd consecutive year.

VIKINGS RE-ACQUIRE TARKENTON — In 1972 the Vikings traded Norm Snead, Bob Grim, Vince Clements and a 1st-round choice in '72 and '73 to the NY Giants for Fran Tarkenton.

BOYER DIES — In 1972 E. William Boyer passed away. He was one of the prime forces in the drive to bring an NFL franchise to Minnesota. Boyer was president of the Vikings from 1960-64 and sat on the Board of Directors for the first 12 years of the team's existence. He was replaced on the team's Board of Directors by his son-in-law Jack Steele.

FIFTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings began the '73 season with 9 straight victories and clinched the NFC Central championship before they even lost a game. Minnesota clinched the division crown by defeating Detroit, 28-7, at Metropolitan Stadium on Nov. 11, 1973. The Vikings finished with a 12-2 mark, which tied for the best record in the league that year.

SECOND SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 13, 1974, the Vikings played in the 2nd Super Bowl in franchise history against the Miami Dolphins at Rice Stadium in Houston, TX. The Dolphins prevailed, 24-7. Minnesota earned the trip to Super Bowl VIII by defeating Dallas, 27-10, in the NFC Championship game.

FINKS RESIGNS — After the 1973 season, Executive Vice President and General Manager Jim Finks resigned. Under Finks, who was hired in 1964, the Vikings won 5 division titles and appeared in 2 Super Bowls. He also hired Bud Grant as head coach in '67.

SIXTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 1, 1974, the Vikings clinched the NFC Central crown by defeating the Saints, 29-9, at Metropolitan Stadium, while the Packers lost, 36-14, in Philadelphia. Minnesota tied for the best record in the NFC with a 10-4 mark.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 27 seasons (1982-2008) at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 49-year history. Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, Minnesota, and the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minnesota. On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over 21 seasons the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. December 20, 1981, marked the last game ever played at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year.

The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 64,121. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens, 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings. In 27 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have a 143-79 record, which includes a 6-5 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2009 season marks the Vikings' 28th campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, 7 seasons longer than the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1992 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000, 2003, and 2005 and the 2001 NCAA Men's Final Four.

EXTRA POINTS

2009 VERIZON WIRELESS VIKINGS TRAINING CAMP

In 2009, the Minnesota Vikings will call Mankato their summer home for the Verizon Wireless Vikings Training Camp for the 44th-straight season. More than 50,000 fans attended the 2008 Verizon Wireless Vikings Training Camp to observe daily practices and take part in all the fun and fanfare in the Vikings Village.

Players report for camp in late July on the campus of Minnesota State University, Mankato.

The team typically practices twice daily and the Northland Ford Autograph Zone will return in 2009 where fans can get their favorite players' autographs following selected practices. On the afternoon of opening day, July 31, the Vikings will hold a team introduction in Blakeslee Stadium. Verizon Wireless Vikings Training Camp will conclude on Wednesday, August 12 with Fan Appreciation Day including a full-team autograph session following the morning practice.

For a full schedule of practice dates and times, event listings and more information, visit www.vikings.com.

Training Camp Facts

Location: Mankato is located 90 miles south of the Twin Cities off of Highway 169.

VIKINGS TV PROGRAMMING KEEPS FANS IN THE GAME

Vikings Weekly is a 52 week feature oriented show that takes you inside the lives of your favorite Vikings players. Emmy Award winning host Ann Carroll gives you exclusive access to the Purple all year long. Vikings Weekly initially airs in-season on KMSP Fox 9 and during the off-season on FS North. All re-airs are on FS North.

Vikings GamePlan is an in-season football X's and O's show hosted by the radio play-by-play voice of the Vikings - Paul Allen. PA takes you thru the upcoming matchup with exclusive film sessions with head coach Brad Childress, player interviews and much more. Vikings GamePlan initially airs in-season on KMSP Fox 9 with re-airs on FS North.

2009 VIKINGS PRESEASON TELEVISION

Ari Wolfe

Mike Mayock

The 2009 Vikings Preseason TV broadcasts return veteran voices Ari Wolfe and Mike Mayock to the booth for the 3rd season. The crew will bring Vikings fans 3 games in the preseason- August 14 at Indianapolis, August 21 vs. Kansas City and September 4 vs. Dallas. The excitement and competition of preseason football will come to life as players fight for a roster spot with the Vikings and chase their dreams of playing in the NFL.

Wolfe joined the Vikings in 2007 after establishing himself as a fast-rising and versatile broadcasting voice in professional and college sports. Wolfe works as the football and basketball voice of the University of Louisville Cardinals and handles the coaches shows. In 2005 Wolfe's work was recognized with an Emmy Award for Outstanding Achievement in Play-by-Play for his work with Louisville.

Wolfe has more than a decade of experience in pro sports as a play-by-play man in the Arena Football League and is the voice of the Philadelphia Soul. He has been a sideline reporter for the AFL championship game, the ArenaBowl. Wolfe has served as a sideline reporter for NFL football, called NFL Europa games on Fox and NFL Network and in 2005 handled preseason TV for the Philadelphia Eagles. Wolfe is a native of Madison, WI and earned his bachelor's degree at Emory University. He went on to finish a master's degree at Southern California where he handled play-by-play and color for USC football, basketball and baseball as a student at KSCR radio in Los Angeles.

Mayock brings the unique perspective of a former NFL player and seasoned broadcaster to the Vikings booth again in 2009. Mayock is a fixture on NFL Network and has established himself as an expert voice on the NFL Draft. Mayock has climbed the ranks in the broadcasting business starting in the early 1990s at ESPN covering college and Canadian Football League action. He moved to CBS to work on college football and basketball coverage for the network from 1996-99. Mayock called college football games on Fox Sports Net in 2000 and moved to ABC Sports as a college football analyst in 2001.

Mayock brings the knowledge of the game and perspective from the field he gained as an NFL DB with the NY Giants from 1982-83 and a standout at Boston College where he was inducted to the Eagles Hall of Fame. As a Giant, Mayock played under the legendary Bill Parcells in his 1st season with the club in '83. Mayock entered the NFL as a 10th-round draft pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers and head coach Chuck Noll in 1981. Mayock's father, Mike, was a 1955 draft pick of the Steelers as an end out of Villanova.

VIKINGS

MINNESOTA VIKINGS RADIO NETWORK

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his 8th season in 2009 as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN-AM radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen as the color commentator is former Vikings LB and coach Pete Bercich.

Allen served as the Vikings Internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

Bercich returns for his 3rd season with the broadcasts in 2009 and brings a decade of NFL experience from the field and sideline. A 7th-round draft pick by the Vikings in 1994, Bercich overcame the odds and played for the team from 1995-2000. A standout special teamer, Bercich parlayed his knowledge of the game into a job coaching with the team from 2002-05.

Joining Allen and Bercich from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391), punts inside the 20 (154) and ranks 4th in career average (40.8 yards per punt).

Pete Bercich, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-AM (1130) and KTLK (100.3 FM) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.
