GET THE ATRA ADVANTAGE

Atra® has an advantage over twin-blade razors that don't pivot. They can't give the same great shave as Atra. When they reach the curves and corners, they lose their grip.

But Atra's pivoting head is proven to stay on track—it keeps both blades on your beard longer. So you end up with the winning shave.

ON THE COVER . . .

The Patriots' logo, created and designed by former Boston Globe sports cartoonist, Phil Bissell, is shown on helmet. The design was drawn on February 20, 1960, the day the franchise adopted the name Patriots. The design was selected as the team's official logo on April 19, 1960. Bissell is now a free lance artist living in Rockport, MA.

PRESIDENT

WILLIAM H. SULLIVAN, JR.

William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr.'s life has been filled with many pleasant memories, but one of his most cherished occurred on June 29, 1983. For it was on that day that Schaefer Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, was dedicated as Sullivan Stadium in tribute to Mr. Sullivan and his family.

Billy Sullivan and his family have spent many tireless hours over the past twenty-five years to build a pro football team that New England would be proud to call its own. It was only fitting that the stadium be renamed in honor of the man who made great sacrifices for the Patriots to prosper in New England.

Until 1959, New England had been a graveyard for more than a half dozen professional football teams, but Billy changed that. Through his untiring efforts and perseverance, Billy not only fielded a team in the newly formed American Football League, he has guided the development of the franchise into becoming one of the most popular and competitive clubs in the NFL.

On November 18, 1959, Billy was awarded the eighth franchise in the fledgling American Football League. He has made an impact on the nation's No. 1 sport since that great day. He did get a team on the field. From 1961 to 1964 he was President of the AFL and served on the television committee that authored a $36 million contract with NBC to guarantee survival of the young league. He was a key member of the AFL's team that hammered out the merger format with the NFL, and he has served as a director of both NFL Properties and Films.

He has been Chairman of the board of NFL Properties for nine years.

Since starting his love affair with pro football, Billy has traveled through many valleys and over many peaks. By undaunted determination and a boundless capacity for hard work, he kept the Patriots alive until locating the team in its present 61,000-seat Sullivan Stadium home, and assumed full control of the franchise by purchasing 88 percent of the voting stock on Nov. 17, 1975 and all of the non-voting stock on Dec. 8, 1976.

Billy graduated from Boston College in 1937 and served as Publicity Director at his alma mater from 1938-1940. In 1941 he went to Notre Dame as special assistant to the Director of Athletics. After a hitch on the staff of the U.S. Naval Academy, he joined the Boston Braves baseball team as Director of Public Relations in 1946. During his six-year tenure with the Braves he conceived the "Jimmy Fund" that has since grown to be an internationally known cancer research program studying leukemia in children.

In 1955 he joined Metropolitan Petroleum Co. and became President of the firm three years later. He continued his rise in the corporate world 20 years later when he was named executive vice president of the parent Pittston Corporation, a position he held until his retirement from the national energy giant in the Spring of 1981. In addition to serving as a director for numerous organizations, Billy was reelected on April 8, 1981 to serve a second term as Chairman of the Board of NFL Properties, Inc.

Billy and his wife, the former Mary Malone, are the parents of three sons, Charles (Chuck), William H. III and Patrick as well as three daughters, Kathleen Sullivan Alioto, Jeanne Sullivan McKeigue and Nancy Chamberlain.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

CHARLES W. "CHUCK" SULLIVAN

Since the Patriots first fielded a team in 1960, Chuck has served the franchise in a variety of capacities and has been the club's Executive Vice President since July, 1979. In addition, he is also Chairman of Stadium Management Corporation, owner and operator of the Patriots' Sullivan Stadium home and of Commonwealth Sports Properties, Inc., operator of Foxboro Raceway.

A graduate of Boston College, he also received a law degree from BC's Law School and a Masters degree in Law from Harvard.

Following graduation, Chuck spent two years on active duty in the U.S. Army, rising to the rank of Captain while serving one year in Thailand. After his tour in the Army, Chuck then attended Harvard and soon after began his career in law and football.

Chuck is a partner in the law firm of O'Melveny & Myers and is based in that firm's New York office. During his law career, he has represented the Patriots in the successful defense of anti-trust litigation brought by former Patriots' QB Joe Kapp and has assisted several NFL teams with corporate reorganizations, acquisition financings and training facility financings.

In the Spring of 1984, Chuck took on one of his greatest challenges by negotiating for and acquiring the rights to be the financier and co-promoter of the Michael Jackson national tour. No stranger to planning such events, Chuck helped promote and host three concerts — David Bowie, The Police and Simon and Garfunkel at Sullivan Stadium in 1983.

Chuck has also been active in legal matters relating to real estate development. He represented the Jordan Marsh Company in connection with the development of Lafayette Place, a 75-million dollar project in downtown Boston which includes a new Jordan Marsh store, a new retail shopping mall and a 400-room hotel.

In the Fall of 1981, Chuck formed Stadium Management Corporation (SMC) for the purpose of purchasing the then-named Schaefer Stadium and its related assets from Stadium Realty Trust. With the sale completed on November 6, 1981, Chuck then spearheaded an 11-million dollar improvement project at the newly named Sullivan Stadium. The project included the construction of a new media facility and luxury suites, new washroom and concession areas, the installation of a new Diamond Vision full color instant replay scoreboard and a new meeting and training facility for the football operation.

Also, he has made a long-range commitment to improving not only the Sullivan Stadium complex itself but the adjacent Foxboro Raceway. In April, 1984, he assumed operation of the raceway through a newly formed company, Commonwealth Sports Properties (CSP). Under the lease arrangement, CSP operates the raceway facility with the goal of returning the raceway to the prominent position it once enjoyed.

On June 6, 1977, Chuck was elected by NFL owners to serve as Chairman of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee (NFLMC) and was reelected to serve a second term on March 30, 1981. During his second term of service with the NFLMC, the Executive Committee coordinated the negotiation of the 1982 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Chuck is also Vice President and General Counsel of Wells National Services Corporation, a company affiliated with Kidde, Inc. that operates a hospital-patient television network in 350 hospitals throughout the nation. Also, he is Chairman of the Board of Graphco American Charts, Inc., an affiliate of General Signal Corp., which produces and markets chart paper for industrial and medical applications.

VICE PRESIDENT

BUCKO KILROY

Francis J. "Bucko" Kilroy has been employed in almost every conceivable capacity in the NFL as he enters his 43rd year with the league. After serving four years as General Manager, he was promoted to the position of Vice President on February 16, 1983 and concentrates his efforts in player personnel and development. In that capacity, he continues to stress his highly regarded scouting philosophy to "leave no stone unturned" in searching for talent.

Born in Philadelphia, he established himself as one of the city's premier schoolboy athletes before departing for South Bend and the University of Notre Dame. His stay there was short as he returned to his hometown to attend Temple University where he went on to become one of the greatest linemen in the school's history. For his efforts on the collegiate gridiron, Bucko was inducted into the Temple Hall of Fame in 1976.

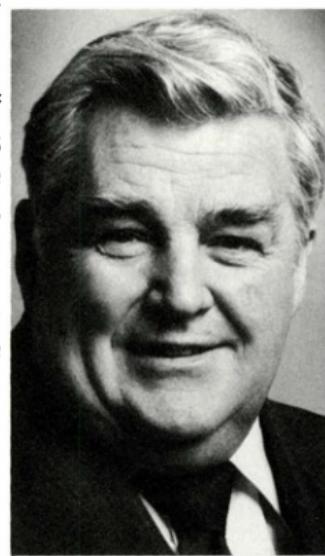

Bucko began his NFL career with his hometown Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 and played there 13 straight seasons. During that time, he once played in 146 consecutive games and was selected as an all-pro at both offensive guard (1947-49) and middle guard (1952-54). He gained additional honors for his pro grid exploits as he was elected to the NFL's all-decade team for the 1940's and inducted into the Helms Hall of Fame.

He made a gradual entry into the coaching ranks by serving the Eagles for three seasons as a player/coach before assuming the full-time role of line coach for six more NFL campaigns. In addition to coaching, he also served as the club's player personnel director, making him one of the five original talent scouts in the league.

In 1962, Bucko was named Director of Player Personnel of the Washington Redskins and then moved to the Dallas Cowboys in 1965 to become a "super scout" with that organization. During Bucko's five year tenure with the Cowboys, the team won five straight divisional championships, an indication of his impact on the team's scouting success.

Having developed a reputation as one of football's finest scouts, Bucko was named Player Personnel Director of the Patriots in 1971. He faced a monumental challenge of revamping and revitalizing a scouting operation that had shown little success in prior years. Under his direction, the Patriots' scouting department became one of the finest in the NFL and played an integral part in the Patriots' upsurge that brought them playoff appearances in 1976 and 1978.

A natural choice for the position, Bucko was appointed General Manager on April 6, 1979. In that capacity, he directed the Patriots' day-to-day business operation, was responsible for all contract negotiations and guided the implementation of a state-of-the-art computer system for the Patriots' operation. He also played an instrumental role in planning the building of a grass practice facility and an in-house film lab.

GENERAL MANAGER

PATRICK SULLIVAN

Ever since his father, William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr., was awarded the newly-founded AFL's eighth and final franchise in November of 1959, Patrick Sullivan has been an active and important member of the Patriots' organization. Since his appointment as General Manager on February 16, 1983, Patrick has been responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operation of the club.

The youngest of Billy and Mary Sullivan's six children, Patrick began his Patriots' career as an eight-year-old ballboy and then spent time assisting the training staff and ticket office staff while attending Wellesley (MA) Public Schools.

Patrick graduated from the Browne and Nichols Prep School (Cambridge, MA), where he played football as a 5-10, 170 lbs. defensive lineman in 1971 and then enrolled at his father's alma mater, Boston College. While at BC, Patrick worked in the Promotions Department at Boston's WSBK-TV (Channel 38).

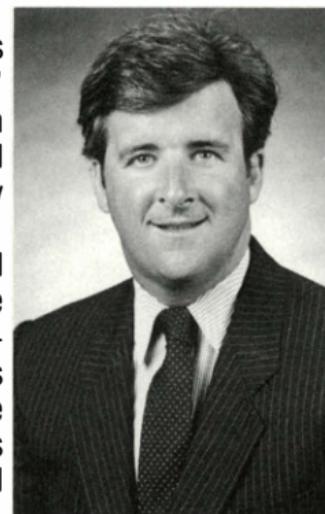

In 1976, he graduated with a B.S. in English and then joined the Patriots on a full-time basis.

His first full-time role with the Patriots was on the Stadium Operations staff. He literally swept floors, cleaned waste-baskets and plowed snow on that job. Less than a year later, in February of 1977, he traded in his work clothes for a jacket and tie and was named Publicity Assistant. Three months later, he returned to the Stadium Operations Department, but this time as Stadium Manager. At the age of 24, Patrick earned the responsibility for the day-to-day operation of Sullivan Stadium and the Patriots' office facility.

In April, 1979, when Bucko Kilroy was appointed General Manager to replace the departed Chuck Fairbanks, he chose Patrick to be Assistant General Manager, a position he assumed on May 18, 1979. For the next four years, Patrick assisted Kilroy in a variety of duties, including the development of a state-of-the-art computer system for the entire Patriots' operation, the installation of an in-house film lab, the construction of a grass practice facility and overseeing a multi-million dollar improvement program at Sullivan Stadium. Patrick also negotiated player contracts for veterans, rookie and free agents, alike.

As General Manager, Patrick has been responsible for handling and overseeing all player contract negotiations and coordinating the day-to-day operations of the club. He also plays an active role in dealing with the public and media. In a short period of time, Patrick has gained the respect of players, fellow league executives and fans, alike.

Born on November 23, 1952, Patrick is married to the former Lynne Massari of Hamden, CT and they are the parents of a three-year-old son, Garrett Patrick.

HEAD COACH

RAYMOND BERRY

One of the NFL's greatest all-time receivers, Raymond Berry resumed his 24-year NFL playing and coaching career by being appointed the ninth head coach of the New England Patriots on October 25, 1984. He replaced Ron Meyer at that time, and in his first game as the Patriots' head coach, his team beat the visiting New York Jets, 30-20 on Oct. 28th after being behind 20-3 in the first half. Berry finished the season with a 4-4 record, and the Patriots finished at 9-7-0.

As the Patriots head coach, Berry has brought an all-for-one attitude to the team and he has brought discipline while at the same time allowing the players to enter in the decision-making process from time to time. He has introduced such items as the practicing fumble recoveries and the strengthening of fingers through the squeezing of Silly Putty while in their leisure time and in their team meetings (he did both drills when he was a player).

The 1985 team mini-camp, the players agree, was as organized and thorough—both on and off the field—as many have seen in their years with the organization.

The 52-year-old Berry was born Feb. 27, 1933 in Corpus Christi, Texas.

PRO PLAYING CAREER: A tireless worker and great technician, Raymond became popular as the favorite target of passing great Johnny Unitas during his 13-year career with the Baltimore Colts. When he retired in 1967, he was the NFL's leading pass receiver with 631 receptions for 9,278 yards and 68 career TDs. He played in five Pro Bowl games and was named all-pro three times. It should be pointed out that Berry gained his incredible yardage, despite being a medium-range receiver.

Five years after his retirement, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (July 28, 1973).

Raymond was not known for his blinding speed. He wasn't physically over-powering (187 pounds), and he didn't stand several inches taller (6-2 in height) than the defenders trying to stop him. He also had less than perfect vision; he had to wear glasses when he played because he was nearsighted and he had a cranky back that sometimes left his legs an uneven length.

Berry, taken in the 20th round by the Colts in the 1954 draft, used three things to become the outstanding receiver he was—unusual jumping ability, a pair of fantastic hands and a dogged sense of purpose that would allow him to become nothing less than the very best.

There have been—and there are today—many receivers who are naturally more talented than Berry. Yet few ever approached the standards of proficiency that became habit for Raymond. Berry, and Berry alone, made himself into the superstar he was.

He combined his dogged determination to success with a keen mind that perfected a scientific approach to the art of pass receiving that was far ahead of his time. Many of his techniques are now more or less common-place in pro football. But when Berry first started to employ his methods of preparedness, he was truly a pioneer in perfecting a specialized pro football skill.

His brightest day as a pro is also reflected in the record book. When the Colts defeated the New York Giants in the famous overtime championship game in 1958, Raymond caught a startling number of passes, 12 passes for 178 yards. Both records still hold as firm as the Rock of Gibraltar for a championship game. In that game, Berry caught a 15-yard TD pass to put the Colts ahead, 14-3, early in the game. The Giants forged ahead, 17-14, in the fourth period and there were only two minutes left when the Colts started one last desperation drive on their own 20.

Three times in the heart-stopping march, Johnny Unitas chose Berry as his prime target. Three times Berry outsmarted double coverage to make the critical catch. The final grab at the New York 7 set up a Steve Myhra field goal to tie the game as time ran out.

In overtime—in what many consider the finest pro game ever played—Unitas again got the Colts going and again Berry provided the big catches, two of them for 33 yards as Baltimore drove to the historic winning TD (23-17 score on 12-8-58 before 64,185 onlookers). Those championship years—1959 as well as 1958—the biggest in the Baltimore team's history, were also Berry's finest years. The Colts beat the Giants, 31-16, on 12-27-59 in Baltimore for the World Championship (crowd of 57,545). In 1964, the Colts lost in the championship game, 27-0 vs. the Browns in Cleveland (12-27-64, before 79,544).

He led the NFL in receiving in both 1958 (56 for 794 yards) and 1959 (66 for 959 yards), and also in 1960 (74 for 1,298 yards). All three years, he was an all-NFL choice and a Pro Bowl selection. In that three-year stretch, Raymond caught an amazing 196 passes for 3,051 yards and 33 TDs. Although Berry didn't lead the league in 1961, he did catch a personal single-season high of 75 passes (for 873 yards).

Later on in the 1960s, an assortment of injuries reduced his playing time and his overall effectiveness and he never quite equaled those zenith years again. He passed Bill Howton's total of 503 career catches late in the 1964 campaign and continued to add to his personal record for three more seasons. But particularly in his final 1967 campaign, injuries reduced Berry's performances to the mediocre and prompted his retirement at age 34.

Naturally, because Raymond was just a 20th round draft choice by the Colts in 1954, he wasn't given much of a chance to stick, let alone make it big, when he reported for the 1955 training camp. But the Colts didn't have many good offensive ends, and Raymond caught the coaches' eyes by hustling at all times.

Raymond caught 13 passes as a rookie, but in reality he was a bench warmer most of the time. He wasn't given much of a chance to make it in Year No. 2 either. But his dedication was beginning to become more and more evident and he stuck for the 1956 season. That was the year that Unitas also made it as a Colt, and for the next dozen years, he and Berry would team as the most prolific pass-catch combination in pro football annals. Almost 600 of Berry's catches came with Unitas throwing the ball.

By actual count, Berry had 88 maneuvers for getting around defenders and to the ball. It was his personal dictum that each week in practice he must practice all 88 moves. Teammates, including Unitas, stayed overtime to help Raymond go down the list. When the Colts gave out, Raymond enlisted the aid of coaches, groundskeepers, writers, schoolboys and even his wife, Sally.

Berry retired with 10 Baltimore records, including TDs in a game (3, done twice), TDs in a season (14), TDs in a career (68), most receiving yardage in a game (224 vs. Washington on 11-10-57), most receiving yardage in a season (1,298 in 1960) and most receiving yardage in a career (9,275).

Berry, who had six 100-plus games in 1960 for a Baltimore record (he had 23 in his career for another team record), is second in Colt history for most consecutive games catching at least one pass (38 from 12-28-58 to 10-1-61; Lenny Moore is tops with 43).

After the 1984 NFL season, Raymond's career receptions ranked fourth best in the league while his passing yardage is fifth best ever and his career TDs 14th.

In his 13 years as a pro, Berry played for two head coaches—Weeb Ewbank from 1955-1962 and Don Shula from 1963-67.

For the record, Raymond's last TD catch came against the Dallas Cowboys on 12-3-67 in a 23-17 Colts win in a game played in Baltimore. The Colts went 11-1-2 that season. The Colts only had below-.500 records in two of Raymond's 13 campaigns—in his first two years, 1955 (5-6-1) and 1956 (5-7). The Colts had a .635 winning percentage in Berry's years (106-60-4).

The Colts won the Western Conference championship in 1958, 1959, 1964, and tied for the title in 1965. In 1967, the team won the Coastal Division of the Western Conference in the first year of the set-up.

Berry, it should be pointed out, had only one fumble in his pro career. He felt he cost his SMU team a berth in the Cotton Bowl his senior year because he fumbled inside the opponents' 30 yard line. He then promised himself that he would never do it again. He argues whether that one fumble he had as a pro is accurate. He says he never had possession of the pass and the play should have simply gone as an incompletely passed ball.

Beside kneading Silly Putty to strength his fingers, and practicing falling on fumbles, other things that made Berry a unique player were: laundering his own uniform pants in order to insure an exact fit, he had three different color contact lenses for various game conditions and he devised a net for off-target passing drills. He also kept complete notes on each and every Colts offensive play, and on the defenders he would face.

Berry had had trouble with the sun in West Coast games, so he devised sun goggles, and would clean them with anti-fog liquid. Raymond would spend a 10-hour day on football in-season and an extra two or three hours that night watching game film and making notes on what he saw in those films.

HIGH SCHOOL/ COLLEGE YEARS: It is important to understand the beginning of the Raymond Berry story. His father, Raymond, Sr., was a very successful high school football coach in Paris, Texas for more than 30 years ("He's the finest coach I ever played for," says young Raymond). Young Raymond didn't even play as a high school regular until his senior year (caught 12 passes that year).

Raymond weighed only 153 pounds when he enrolled for a year of junior college ball at Schreiner Institute in Kerrville, Texas. There he caught 32 passes for eight TDs and earned a scholarship shot at SMU. Ironically, Berry was a better defensive player than offensive when he enrolled at SMU. He caught only five passes in a non-lettering sophomore year and then followed up with 16 catches as a junior and 12 as a senior (33 catches in his collegiate career). He scored only one TD in high school and only one in three years at SMU.

COACHING YEARS: Upon leaving the playing field, Raymond joined the Dallas Cowboys coaching staff for the 1968 and 1969 seasons. He then left the NFL ranks to coach collegiately at the University of Arkansas from 1970-72. Over his three seasons at Arkansas, the Frank Broyles-coached team went 9-2-0 in 1970, 8-3-1 in 1971 and 6-5-0 in 1972. Arkansas went to the Liberty Bowl in 1971, losing to Tennessee, 14-13. Former Buffalo Bills quarterback Joe Ferguson, now with the Detroit Lions, was the Arkansas quarterback.

After three years with the Razorbacks (23-10-1 team record while Berry there), he returned to the NFL by serving as an assistant coach on the staffs at Detroit (1973-75) and Cleveland (1976-77) before joining Chuck Fairbanks staff with the Patriots in 1978. When Fairbanks left the Patriots, Raymond stayed as the receivers coach on Ron Erhardt's staff until 1981.

During his four-year stint as Patriots' receivers coach, Raymond tutored the newly-emerging receiver threat, Stanley Morgan, who had been drafted in 1977, a year before Berry's arrival in New England. Since then, Morgan has become the Patriots' all-time leading receiver in terms of receptions and yardage. He is tied with Gino Cappelletti for career touchdowns.

Raymond also coached Harold Jackson who became the NFL's third-ranked all-time reception yardage leader, and the seventh top receiver in NFL history. In 1979, both Morgan (1,002) and Jackson (1,013) became the first Patriots ever to surpass the 1,000 yard receiving mark in a season. Jackson is now the Patriots' assistant receivers coach.

In 11 years as an assistant NFL coach, teams Berry was associated with finished with a 90-70-2 record and went to the playoffs three times.

After leaving the Patriots and the NFL after the 1981 season, Raymond worked for Bald Eagle Association of Wellesley, MA, a real estate company responsible for the operation of a year-round resort in the Sugarbush area of Vermont. Upon sale of the resort a year later, Raymond became national sales manager of premium accounts for Freedom Industries, a manufacturer of such soft good items as caps and hats.

PERSONAL: Berry is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes organization. In his years out of pro ball—1982, 1983 and part of 1984—he would often times give Sunday Chapel Service to NFL teams that were visiting to play the Patriots.

As a player, he used to answer youngsters' requests for advice on pass receiving by sending them a free copy of a 12-page, single-spaced treatise he had written on the subject. In this monograph, he told the kids: "if you have any questions on anything, just let me know." Berry put together an instructional film on pass receiving that many consider a classic. He also wrote a book called: "Raymond Berry's Complete Guide to Coaching Pass Receivers" that was published in 1982 (Parker Publishing Co., Inc., Nyack, NY; written with C. H. "Butch" Gilbert, Jr.).

Raymond and his wife, Sally, have lived in Medfield, MA, since 1978 and are the parents of a son, Mark (19) and two daughters, Suzanne (21) and Ashley (16). Mark is a sophomore wide receiver at Vanderbilt University and graduated from Medfield High School. Suzanne is a junior at Boston College. Ashley is a junior at Medfield High School.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DEAN BRITTENHAM Strength and Conditioning Coach

This is Dean's first season with the Patriots, coming from the Minnesota Vikings where he was the conditioning coach in 1984. He is a pioneer in the area of "speed improvement," something he started back in 1967 when he was an assistant track coach at the University of Nebraska. His philosophy on speed improvement is that a player's length of stride is most important, and maintaining stride frequency are the keys to making a runner faster.

A native of Brady, Nebraska; he coached field events at the University of Kansas from 1962-64, then was the head track coach at Occidental College from 1964-67, before moving to the University of Nebraska where he handled the field events in track. While at Nebraska, he worked with two national championship football teams (1970 and 1971).

He then moved to the University of Colorado where he was until four years ago. Over the years, Brittenham has served as a staff member of the Olympic Training Center (in Colorado Springs, Co.) coaching at junior elite camps from 1968-71. He also helped run Learn By Doing clinics (coaches learn by competing in each track event over a five-day period) from 1968-73.

The first pro football team he worked with was the Kansas City Chiefs when then-head coach Paul Wiggin invited him to the 1975, 1976, and 1977 training camps to help his players with their flexibility as well as improving running times. He worked with the New Orleans Saints in the 1978 and 1979 training camps when the team was coached by Dick Nolan. Dean also worked with the Denver Broncos in the 1982 and 1983 off-seasons.

A 1957 graduate of Nebraska (he attended on a basketball scholarship), Dean played two years of basketball and took part on four years of track (javelin, high jump, and hurdles).

The 54-year-old Brittenham (born June 25, 1931 in Brady, Nebraska) has handball, racquetball, mountain climbing and collecting antiques as his hobbies. He bought an antique store in Lyons, Colorado six years ago. Dean and his wife, Beverly, have been married for 32 years. They have two sons—Steve (age 30) and Greg (25). Steve is an assistant track coach at the Univ. of Colorado where he was an outstanding long jumper and triple jumper (Class of '77). Steve was also a stellar decathlon performer. Greg is a senior geography and physical education major at Kearney (Neb.) State College. He is a fine high jumper, having jumped 6-8. He is also a standout decathlon athlete.

JIM CARR Defensive Backfield Coach

Prior to joining the Patriots last January, Jim was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Denver Gold of the USFL in 1984 and 1983. You have to look long and hard for a person with more on-the-field experience than Jim Carr. He has spent 25 years in the NFL, with nine coming as a player and the other 16 as an assistant coach.

His NFL coaching career started in 1966 with the Minnesota Vikings (1966-68, handling the defensive backs). He then went with the Chicago Bears in 1969 (was the defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach). From 1970-72, he was the defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, handling those same duties with the Chicago Bears in 1973 and 1974 and the Detroit Lions in 1975 and 1976.

Jim was named the Buffalo Bills' linebackers coach in 1977, before going with the San Francisco 49'ers in 1978 as the team's defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach. Carr returned to the Vikings, serving as the defensive backfield coach from 1979-81.

A native of Kayford, West Virginia, Jim attended Morris Harvey College (located in Charleston, W.V.; College now known as the University of Charleston). A physical education major, he played the running back, defensive back and linebacker positions at times through his college days. Morris Harvey took part in three bowls in his four years. They beat Lebanon Valley in the Burly Bowl in Jim's freshman year, beat East Carolina in the Elks Bowl his junior year and lost to the University of Tampa in the Cigar Bowl his senior year of 1954. Jim also played three years of baseball and two years of basketball in college.

Carr began his pro playing career with the then-Chicago Cardinals as a running back in 1955. After serving a hitch in the U.S. Army, Carr returned to the Cardinals for the 1957 season. He played one year of Canadian football (Montreal in 1958) and then returned to the NFL as a defensive back with the Philadelphia Eagles, playing from 1959-63.

In 1960, Jim helped the Eagles win the World Championship (10-2 record, beating Green Bay by a 17-13 score). He had another thrill that season when he broke a 10-10 tie vs. the NY Giants at Yankee Stadium by returning a fumble 38 yards for a fourth quarter touchdown. The Eagles won the mid-season game, 17-10.

Jim completed his playing days with the Washington Redskins in 1964 and 1965, playing the linebacker position his final two seasons. The 52-year-old Carr (born March 25, 1933) and his wife, Lila Lee, have been married 26 years. They have two children, Ken (age 25) and Gwen (20). Ken graduated from Wheaton College in 1983, playing golf there. He now attends Trinity Theology School (Deerfield, IL.). Gwen is a junior at the University of Missouri, majoring in broadcast journalism.

BOBBY GRIER Offensive Backfield Coach

This is the second time that Grier has been an assistant coach with the Patriots. He was the team's offensive backfield coach under Ron Erhardt in 1981 (named March of 1981). Bobby was named a college scout with the Patriots seven months later (July of 1982), and was in that capacity with the organization until Raymond Berry summoned him to the sidelines. Grier and Berry were assistant coaches on the Erhardt staff in 1981.

A native of Detroit, he began coaching at the college level in 1974 when he joined George Mans' staff at Eastern Michigan as the offensive backfield coach. He was with Mans for two years at Eastern Michigan, and with Ed Chlebek at EMU for two years. When Chlebek was named head coach at Boston College in January of 1978, Grier became the BC offensive backfield coach. He coordinated the team's offensive game plan there. He helped turn around a BC program that was 0-11 his first season, moving to 7-4 his final year. At BC, one of his recruits was standout receiver Brian Brennan, now with the Cleveland Browns.

Grier was the offensive coordinator at Northwestern University under coach Dennis Green for several months in 1982, before leaving to rejoin the Patriots.

He was an outstanding running back at the University of Iowa, graduating in 1964. A three-year starter in college, he was named honorable mention All-Big Ten as a junior and senior. He led the team in rushing as a senior with 406 yards in 98 carries (4.1 average).

Upon graduating from college, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Kettering (Michigan) High School. Following four years at Kettering, he was head coach at the Martin Luther King High School for the 1970-73 seasons. His 1973 team won the Detroit City title with a 9-1 record.

Considered a fine teacher, the 42-year-old Grier (born November 10, 1942 in Detroit) and his wife, Wendy, will have been married 20 years come September. They have two sons, Chris (14) and Michael (10).

ROD HUMENUIK Assistant Head Coach-Offense Offensive Line Coach

In naming Rod Humenuik to his staff, Raymond Berry not only got a man with 12 years of pro coaching background, but he also got a man who has gained a reputation for drastically cutting a team's sacks-allowed statistic. He comes to the Patriots from the Kansas City Chiefs, where he cut the team's sacks allowed figure from 40 in nine games in 1982 to 46 in 16 games in 1983, although the team had replaced just one lineman since the 1982 season. In 1984, the Chiefs allowed just 33 sacks in 593 passes thrown for a one in every 18.0 passes thrown ratio (The Patriots gave up 67 sacks in 500 passes thrown in 1984, a 7.4 sacks-per-pass ratio). There were four games in which the pass-minded Chiefs did not allow a sack, including the last two games (vs. Seattle and San Diego).

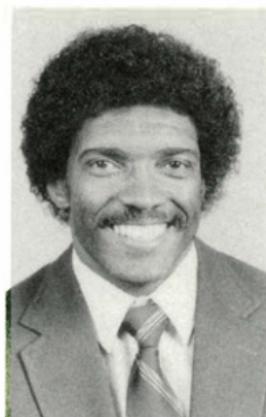

In addition to being in charge of the Kansas City offensive line, Humenuik was the boss of the team's running game.

Rod, the Patriots' number one offensive assistant coach to Raymond Berry, has had his offensive lines have the reputation of being both mentally and physically tough. He was an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns from 1975-82, where the Browns had one of the finest offensive lines in the NFL, with such Pro Bowlers as Tom DeLeone, Doug Dieken and Joe DeLamielleure. In his eight years with the Browns, Cleveland had six 1,000 yard rushers (Patriots have had four in their 25-year history).

Rod, the only Browns' assistant coach to be held over when Sam Rutigliano became that team's head coach in 1973, had his line severely tested in 1981 when he had three starters suffer significant injury problems, yet the Browns still finished fourth in the NFL in total yards.

Before joining the Browns, he was the offensive line coach of the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL in 1973 and 1974. Prior to that, he was the head coach at California State-Northridge in 1971 and 1972. He spent the previous five seasons as an assistant coach at USC under John McKay (1966-70), with the Trojans appearing in four Rose Bowls over those years.

He began his coaching career in 1964 as an assistant coach at Fuller (CA) Junior College. As an athlete, Rod was a standout guard at USC, graduating in 1958. He earned a Master's Degree in education from USC and then played three seasons for Bud Grant with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL from 1960-62. The 47-year-old Humenuik (born June 17, 1938 in Detroit) and his wife, Susie, have four children—daughters Kim (24), Kerry (22), Kelly (19) and son, Mike (16).

HAROLD JACKSON Assistant Receivers Coach

After an outstanding 17 years as a NFL wide receiver, Harold Jackson now turns his attention to trying to be the equal as a coach. Harold, who played four seasons with the Patriots (1979-81), assists Les Steckel with the Patriots' wide receivers. Raymond Berry feels Jackson brings a vast amount of professional playing experience to his staff along with youthful ideas. Harold played with the Los Angeles Rams in 1968 and 1973-77, with the Philadelphia Eagles 1969-72, with the Patriots from 1978-81 and with the Seattle Seahawks in 1983.

In his long and impressive pro career, Jackson caught 579 passes for 10,372 yards (17.9 average), with 76 touchdowns. His number of catches ranks seventh best in the league's history, he is third best in terms of career yardage via the pass and he is tied at ninth with Fred Biletnikoff for career touchdowns. Jackson, who took part in five Pro Bowls (in 1969, 1972, 1973, 1975, and 1977), had 28 100-plus yard receiving games in his career, the fourth best mark in NFL history.

A 12th round draft choice by the Rams in 1968 out of Jackson State University, Harold had his finest pro season in terms of passes caught in 1969 with the Eagles when he had 65 catches for 1,116 yards (17.2 average) with nine touchdowns. That was his second year—his first full, after having played just two games in 1968—in the NFL. He also led the league in that department in 1972 when he caught 62 passes for 1,048 yards (16.9 average) with 13 touchdowns for the Eagles; he also led the league in yards via the catch that season. He returned to the Rams (as part of the deal for QB Roman Gabriel) the following year, 1973, and led the league in average per catch with a 21.9 norm (874 yards in 40 catches) and in touchdowns with 13.

As a Patriot, Jackson was coached by Berry for four seasons (Berry liked the way Jackson approached the game, as well as the fine example he showed the younger players). Over that time, he caught 156 passes for 3,162 yards (20.3 average) with 18 touchdowns. He is the 10th top receiver in Patriot history in passes caught and is fourth in yards via the pass. One of the most popular Patriots ever, he had his best season with New England in 1979 with 45 catches for 1,013 yards (22.5 average) with seven touchdowns. That 1,000-plus season is just one of three in the team's history. Jackson had three 1,000-yard seasons in his career (1969, 1972 and 1979).

Jackson had eight 100-plus games as a Patriot, with his most successful outing coming against the Vikings in 1979 when he caught five passes for 147 yards. He had a seven-catch (for 124 yards) performance against the Redskins in 1978. Harold had a three TD day against the Jets (9-9-79) in a 56-3 Patriot win. The touchdowns were from 49, 44, and 28 yards. There was a point in which Harold had started 167 consecutive games, but that streak ended when the Patriots entered their game at Houston on 11-10-80 with a double TE formation; that was the only offensive play he did not take part in the rest of that game.

He had a nine-catch outing in playing for the Eagles, for 161 yards against Dallas on September 17, 1972. His best day as a Ram came vs. New Orleans in 1977 when he caught eight passes for 127 yards and 2 TDs. In 1973 (10-14), he had his finest day in terms of yards caught, with 238 yards (in seven receptions) against Dallas in playing for the Rams; he had four TD catches that game. Harold had his longest catch come against the Giants, a 79-yarder on 10-11-70.

The 39-year-old Jackson (born January 6, 1946 in Hattiesburg, MS) sat out the 1982 and 1984 seasons. He played with Seattle in 1983. Jackson has a son, Terry (20) and twin daughters, Yolando and Rolando (8).

EDDIE KHAYAT Defensive Line Coach

There is plenty of NFL in Khayat, having coached in the league for 18 years. He came to the Patriots from the Detroit Lions where he coached from 1982-84. He was with the Baltimore Colts for five years prior to that, serving as defensive line coach there as well. Ed became a coach in 1967 with the New Orleans Saints through the 1970 season. He then moved to the Philadelphia Eagles in 1971, and became the team's head coach three games into that season and was the head mentor throughout the 1972 campaign.

He was an assistant coach under coach Don McCaffrey with the Detroit Lions in the 1973 and 1974 seasons (was with Raymond Berry as an assistant coach there), with the Atlanta Falcons in 1975 and 1976 under Marion Campbell, and with the Baltimore Colts from 1977-81, under coach Ted Marchibroda. Khayat was on the staff of the Colts team that won the AFC East title in 1977 with a 10-4 record. In 1982 and 1983, his Lions teams went to the playoffs, winning the NFC Central championship with a 9-7 record.

Over his years, he has coached such players as Hall of Famer Doug Atkins (Saints), Claude Humphrey (Falcons), Dave Rowe (Saints), Mike Barnes and John Dutton (Colts) and Doug English and Bill Gay (Lions). All were selected to the Pro Bowl. In 1977, one of his players, Mike Barnes, was selected winner of the Mac Truck Award, the best defensive lineman in the league as selected by the players.

Ed is known for his abilities as both a teacher and motivator. Khayat came into the pro game as a free agent defensive end and defensive tackle for the Washington Redskins in 1957, then moved to the Philadelphia Eagles 1958-61 (with Patriot defensive backfield coach Jim Carr was a member of the World Champion 1960 Eagles team), and was back with the Redskins for the 1962 and 1963 seasons. He played defensive tackle for that championship Eagles team.

It's no wonder Khayat became the kind of coach he is. He was coached by such fine mentors as Mike Holovak (Patriots), Nick Skorich and Buck Shaw (Eagles), Joe Kuharich Redskins and Eagles) and Bill McPeak (Redskins).

He made a return to the Eagles for the 1964 and 1965 seasons, and ended his playing days with the Boston Patriots in the AFL in 1966.

A 1957 graduate of Tulane University, Ed was an offensive and defensive end at Millsaps College in 1953, at Perkinston Junior College in 1954 and at Tulane from 1955-56.

Eddie's younger brother, Bob, was a placekicker for the Redskins in 1960, '62 and '63. He was selected to the Pro Bowl his rookie season. Bob is now the Vice Chancelor of the University of Mississippi.

The 49-year-old Khayat (born September 14, 1935 in Moss Point, Mississippi) and his wife, Deborah have been married 19 years. They are the parents of two boys, Ed, Jr. (16) and Bill (12).

JOHN POLONCHEK Special Assistant To The Head Coach

John, who came to the Patriots from the Los Angeles Raiders where he was a scout during the 1984 season, has the outstanding ability to spot team's strengths and weaknesses. It is for that reason that Raymond Berry named John to his staff. In his position as special assistant to Berry, Polonchek is in charge of working with the computer department in scouting the opponents as well as looking for tendencies in the Patriots' game.

This is his second time with the Patriots, having served as the team's quarterbacks coach from 1975 to 1980 under Chuck Fairbanks and Ron Erhardt. John then became the quarterbacks coach for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL under Fairbanks in 1983 and Walt Michaels in 1984.

Polonchek, who has coached such people as George Blanda, Brian Sipe, Darryl Lamonica, Kenny Stabler and John Hadl in his years with the pros, had his coaching start in 1950 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Michigan State University, under then-head coach Biggie Munn. He was in the Air Force from 1952-55, where he played with and coached a former Heisman winner in Notre Dame running back Johnny Lattner. John left the Air Force with rank of Lieutenant. He then went back to MSU as an assistant coach under then-head coach Duffy Daugherty, coaching the freshmen and coaching the varsity running backs from 1956-58.

He then went to the University of Colorado where he coached the offensive and defensive backs from 1959-61. John then went into business in Denver while working as a part-time scout for the Raiders and the Jets of the AFL. He joined the Jets on a full-time basis in 1966.

Polonchek coached the Oakland Raiders running backs from 1967-71 under John Rauch and John Madden, with team making the playoffs all but one of those six years (lost to Green Bay in Super Bowl his first season). He was with the Packers as receivers coach from 1972-74, before going to the Patriots in 1975.

Polonchek (born in Granastov, Czechoslovakia on January 1, 1928, leaving that country at age six), grew up in East Chicago, Ind. He and his wife, Joan, have been married for 29 years. They have three children—John, Jennifer and Jeanna. Jeanna was on the track and basketball teams at the University of Indiana.

ROD RUST Defensive Coordinator

Now in his third year as the Patriots' defensive coordinator, Rod has gained the respect of his players for his highly-sophisticated tactics and the low key approach he has in coaching that style.

In his two years with the Patriots, the team has gained a solid reputation. In 1984, the Patriots finished ninth in the league in total defense (fifth in AFC) while placing 12th in the league in rushing defense and 12th in pass defense. In 1983, the Patriots placed third in the NFL and second in the AFC in scoring defense, allowing just 289 points. The team had five goal-line stands. All this despite the fact the starting lineup included four rookies and four second-year players.

He has helped develop such standouts as outside linebackers Andre Tippett (Pro Bowler in 1984) and Don Blackmon. Also veteran cornerback Ray Clayborn made the Pro Bowl in Rust's first season of 1983.

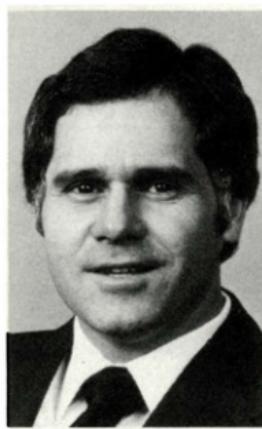

He spent four years (1979-81) as the defensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs, switching the team from a 4-3 to a 3-4 defense his first year. In 1981, the Chiefs were the AFC's top defense against the rush. In his years with the Chiefs he aided in the development of three Pro Bowlers—DE Art Still, CB Gary Green and FS Gary Barbaro.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rod is the son of famed Iowa high school coach, Orville. He played center and linebacker at Iowa State (1947-49). He then spent two years with the U.S. Army in the Far East. Following military duty, he began his coaching, serving seven years as a head coach at the high school level in Iowa.

He made his first collegiate coaching stop at the University of New Mexico as an assistant from 1960-62. He then went to Stanford University, where he served as defensive coordinator under John Ralston through the 1966 season. In 1967, Rod was appointed head coach at North Texas State. During his six years there, he coached first round selections Joe Greene (1969 by Steelers) and Cedric Hartman 1970 by the 49'ers), Leonard Dunlap 1971 by Colts). North Texas State had 23 players sign in pro ball over a three-year span. He also served as the school's athletic director for several years.

Following his work at North Texas State, he joined long-time acquaintance Marv Levy, then the head coach of the Montreal Alouettes. He spent three seasons (1973-75) as the Montreal defensive coordinator, with the team making the playoffs each season (winning one Grey Cup title and losing in another). He then joined the NFL coaching ranks as linebacker coach of the Philadelphia Eagles for the 1976-77 seasons under Dick Vermeil. When Levy became head coach of the Chiefs in 1978, his first staff appointment was Rod.

The 56-year-old Rust (born August 2, 1928 in Webster City, Iowa), has two sons, Jeff (32) and Greg (30), and has two step-daughters, Kris (18) and Amy (12). He and his wife, Jean, reside in Foxboro with Kris and Amy.

DANTE SCARNECCIA
(Pronounced Scar neck ya)
Special Teams Coach
Tight Ends Coach

Along with defensive coordinator Rod Rust, Dante was retained from the Ron Meyer coaching staff by Raymond Berry. He was one of five coaches to come with Meyer from Southern Methodist University in 1982, where he was the offensive line coach under Meyer for two seasons.

Scarneccchia has done an outstanding job in coaching the Patriots' special teams and tight ends. The Patriots have one of the finest punters in the NFL in Rich Camarillo (Pro Bowler in 1983). When the Patriots lost Camarillo for the first nine games of the 1984 season, Scarneccchia got the most out of replacement Luke Prestridge, who had punts of 89 and 82 yards, the first time that had been done in the NFL.

He also assisted placekicker Tony Franklin to his finest season as a pro as Franklin went 22 of 28 in field goals and 42 of 42 in PAT kicks for a career high 108 points. In 1983, the Patriots had had the worst placekicking game in the NFL.

The tight ends have also performed well under Scarneccchia. Derrick Ramsey had a team record 66 catches (for 792 yards) in 1984, and Lin Dawson had 39 catches (for 427 yards), more than he had had in his previous three seasons combined.

A standout guard at California Western University where he graduated in 1970, Dante was named all-conference as well as all-NAIA District III as a senior. He majored in history and physical education in college (got his Master's Degree from U.S. International University in 1973 in physical education). He spent three seasons (1970-72) as offensive line coach at his alma mater. In 1973, he started a two-year stint on the Iowa State staff before going to SMU in 1975. When Meyer was named the head coach at SMU in 1976, Dante remained for one year before leaving to become the offensive line coach as well as recruiting coordinator at the University of Pacific (1977 and 1978). After holding down the same position at Northern Arizona in 1979, he returned to SMU in 1980 as offensive line coach under Meyer. The 37-year-old Scarneccchia (born February 15, 1948) and his wife, Susan, have a son, Steve (7) and daughter, Lisa (4).

DON SHINNICK
Linebackers Coach

Raymond Berry added his former Baltimore Colts roommate as linebackers coach in early January, bringing the former linebacker from Columbia, Missouri where Don was an insurance man since leaving coaching in 1981. He was the head coach at Central Methodist College (Fayette, Missouri) for three seasons, and was a coaching consultant for that school in 1982.

His pro coaching started in 1970 with the Chicago Bears as a defensive backfield coach. He came to the Bears under coach Jim Dooley to put in a true zone defense for the Bears (the team had never used a true zone defense before he came there). After two years with the Bears, he moved to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972, where he was the team's linebackers coach.

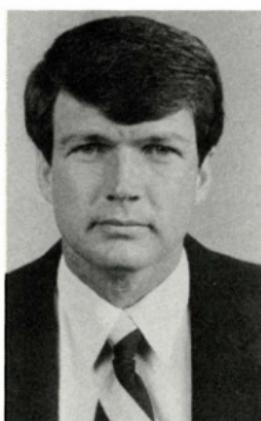

In 1973, he joined the Oakland Raiders where he coached the linebackers through the 1977 season. The Raiders didn't have a defensive coordinator in his years on the John Madden-coached team, but Shinnick played a key role in drawing up the team's defensive plans. Over his five years with the Raiders the team reached the playoffs each season, including winning the Super Bowl in 1976 with a 32-14 win over the Vikings.

Shinnick, known for his ability to instruct, has coached such people as Dick Butkus and Ted Hendricks in his years with the pros.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri; Shinnick played at San Pedro (CA) High School before starring at UCLA. He played a different position each season in college (offensive guard, defensive back, running back and linebacker, in that order). he was honorable mention All-America as a senior.

He played 13 years—all as a starter—for the Baltimore Colts as the team's number two draft choice. Over his years in the NFL, he intercepted 37 passes, a league record for linebackers. In 1959, Don tied for the Colts team lead in interceptions with seven (for 70 yards). He played on four championship teams from 1957 to 1969. He was coached by such standout mentors as Don Shula, Chuck Noll and Weeb Ewanks over his NFL career. The 50-year-old Shinnick (born May 15, 1935 in Kansas City, Missouri) and his wife, Marsha have been married 27 years. They have five boys—Joel (24), Josh (22), Peter (19), Adam (15) and Christopher (8). Josh is a junior at UCLA, where he plays football as a defensive back. Peter is a sophomore offensive lineman at the University of Colorado.

LES STECKEL Quarterbacks and Receivers Coach

Considered one of the brightest young minds in the NFL today, Les is known for his outstanding enthusiasm and positive personality. This is why at age 38, he was the youngest head coach in the NFL in coaching the Vikings in 1984. He was only the third head coach in Vikings' history.

He had his coaching career start in 1972 as a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado. The following year he was named a full-time staffer under coach Eddie Crowder, handling the team's receivers. He then worked with the offensive line at the Naval Academy in 1977, under coach George Welsh. He then moved to the pro level, joining the San Francisco 49'ers in 1978. Les moved to the Minnesota Vikings in 1979, where he coached the club's quarterbacks, wide receivers, tight ends and special teams over his five years as an assistant with the team. The Vikings made the playoffs two of those seasons—in 1980 when the team finished with a 9-7-0 record to finish as the NFC Central champions and in 1982 when the team placed second in the NFC Central with a 5-4 record (lost to Redskins in second round of Super Bowl Tournament).

Steckel graduated from Whitehall (PA) High School and enrolled at the University of Kansas, going there as a walk-on running back in 1964. In addition to playing four years of football, he boxed for one year and won a regional Golden Gloves title as a light heavyweight when he was 19 years old. In 1968, he graduated with a degree featuring three majors—social work, human relations and political science.

Upon graduation, he worked as a volunteer on Senator Robert Kennedy's Presidential campaign. Following that, he enlisted in the Marine Corp, and after 10 weeks of Officer's Candidate School and 26 week of infantry training in Quantico, Virginia. He headed to Vietnam with the rank of Lieutenant. Les spent one year there in combat, returning as a decorated officer.

The 39-year-old Les (born July 1, 1946 in Northampton, PA) and his wife, Chris, have three children—son, Christian (7), daughter, Lesley (4) and son, Luke, born in April.

STAFF PERSONNEL

DICK STEINBERG Director of Player Development

Regarded as one of the NFL's top talent hunters, Dick rejoined the Patriots' organization when he was named Director of Player Development on February 9, 1981. In his capacity, he is responsible for the overall scouting of players, as well as the team's trade negotiations. He also assists in the signing of players.

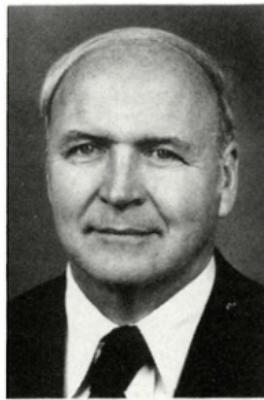

Steinberg rejoined the Patriots after departing his position as a scout to become Director of College Scouting for the Los Angeles Rams in June, 1976. He remained in that post until being promoted to the position of Director of Player Personnel, a post he held until June, 1980.

After his four year stay with the Rams, Steinberg joined then General Manager Steve Rosenbloom as Vice President of Player Personnel with the New Orleans Saints. Steinberg later resigned that post on January 20, 1981 before rejoining the Patriots.

A native of Philadelphia, Steinberg played football and majored in Physical Education and Health at Temple University. In addition to serving a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in France, Steinberg served as a high school coach at Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High (1960-61) and at Staunton (VA) Military Academy (1961-64). He then entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Vanderbilt (1964-1967) and Kansas State (1967-69).

Following a brief stint as a scout with the Dallas Cowboys in 1969, Steinberg spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (1970-72) before joining the Patriots as a personnel scout under then Director of Player Personnel Bucko Kilroy. Steinberg served with the Patriots from 1972 to 1976 before departing for the Rams.

BILL MCPeAK Director of Pro Scouting

Keeping track of pro football talent for the Patriots' organization is one of the NFL's most knowledgeable football men, Bill McPeak.

A star at the University of Pittsburgh, McPeak played for the Pittsburgh Steelers as a defensive end from 1949-57. During that span, McPeak played in the 1953, 1954 and 1957 Pro Bowls. To date, McPeak still shares the NFL record for career safeties with three.

During the final two years of his tenure at Pittsburgh, McPeak began his 16-year NFL coaching career. In 1959, he joined the Washington Redskins, staying with the 'Skins until 1965. Of his seven seasons with that club, the final five were as head coach. Included on his staff at Washington was player personnel director Bucko Kilroy, now the Patriots' Vice President.

McPeak joined the Detroit Lions in 1967 as offensive coordinator, a post he held until he went to the Miami Dolphins in 1973.

While with the Dolphins as an offensive coach, the Dolphins won Super Bowl VIII, their second consecutive Super Bowl win and third straight Super Bowl appearance.

After suffering a serious illness during the 1974 off-season, McPeak remained out of the NFL on a full-time basis until being named to his present position on July 23, 1979.

When first named as general manager on April 6, 1979, Bucko Kilroy stated that one of his top priorities was to hire a pro scout, and he was elated to have the qualified McPeak join the Patriots' organization. Since that time, McPeak has been responsible for scouting present and prospective professional football talent both on film and in game situations.

JULIUS ADAMS 85

DE 6-3 270

TEXAS SOUTHERN 15th year

DOB: 4-26-48 at Macon, GA

HOW ACQUIRED: D-2, 1971 (27th)

PRO BOWL: 1981

PRO: The oldest active defensive lineman in the NFL at 37 years-of-age, Julius announced after the final game of the '84 season that this would be his final season ("number 85 will play in '85", he said)...he had his streak of 57 consecutive starts end with '84 season opener at Buffalo (dated back to '80 opener)...he started one game in '84, that final game vs. Indianapolis (12-16-84) and in that game, came up with a blocked field goal on a 42-yarder with five minutes left in a game the Patriots led at the time, 13-10 (went on to win, 16-10). He was given a game ball for his effort...Julius has played in more games than any other Patriot (180), setting the club record for most games played by appearing in his 160th game at Cleveland in 1983 (11-20-83); he has played more seasons than any other Patriot (this his 15th)...Julius had 20 tackles in '84, six solos, 14 assists, had four sacks (38 yards), seven QB pressures and one pass deflection in playing 454 plays ...had sacks vs. Jets (10-28), Buffalo (11-11), Indy (11-18) and Philly (12-9) in '83...he was used at tackle in some pass rush situations last year (four man fronts)...Julius blocked extra-point kick late in first half vs. Miami on 10-21...he is one of the team leaders, as many of the younger players look to him for advice...Julius has 7½ career sacks to his credit...Julius was the top tackler among Patriots' defensive linemen in 1983 with a total of 83 tackles...he also finished second on the team in QB sacks with eight and third with seven QB pressures...in 1982, he finished second among Patriots' defensive linemen on the tackle chart with 45...he also made one of the biggest plays of his career that season when he blocked a Ewe von Schamann FG attempt in the Patriots 3-0 win over Miami (12-12-82)...in '81, he was eighth on the team in tackles with 54 stops and 30 assists...his outstanding play and leadership has enabled him to win the Jim Lee Hunt Memorial Award, given to the outstanding Patriot lineman, in both 1980 and 1982...in 1980, he made his first and only Pro Bowl appearance...he earned that honor with 52 tackles and seven assists (eighth on the team)...led the team on the sack chart with nine for 65 yds...finished second on the team in 1980 with 13 QB pressures...after missing all but the season opener of the '78 season with a shoulder injury, he returned in '79 to play all 16 games, his six QB sacks played a vital part in the Patriots' NFL leading total of 57 QB sacks... "The Jewel" also accounted for 49 tackles, 13 QB pressures and a fumble recovery in '79 while making seven starts...while starting all 14 games in '77, Julius had 9½ sacks, including 4½ against the Falcons (12-4-77) in front of his hometown fans...he also had 43 tackles on the year while leading the defensive line in total plays (841)...Julius was the top tackler (47½) among the defensive linemen in '76 and also had six sacks and 12 QB pressures...during his Patriots career, he has played three positions—DE, DT and LB for the club...was Patriots' leading sacker (7½) in '74 and was named as one of the NFL's top defensive linemen by Pro QB Magazine...missed five games the following year (1975) with a foot injury, but returned to spearhead the defense in '76...chosen to the UPI all-rookie team in 1971.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Texas Southern where he was twice tabbed all conference.

PERSONAL: Married (Pat)...father of three sons, Julius III (14), Chris (10), and Keith (6), as well as a daughter Simone (7)...likes to hunt...operates a farm in his hometown Macon, GA area.

PETE BROCK 58

OC 6-5 275

COLORADO 10th year

DOB: 7-14-54 at Portland, OR

HOW ACQUIRED: D-lb, 1976 (12th)

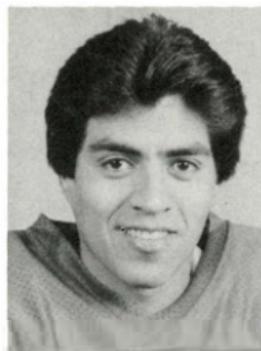

PRO: Considered one of the top centers in the NFL, Pete was having another outstanding season last year until he came up against a short week in the schedule that had the Patriots play on a Sunday, and then a Thursday game (Thanksgiving, at Dallas, 11-22)...he tested his left knee prior to the game, but it did not respond; he was not able to play the rest of the schedule... had arthroscope on his right knee upon the close of '84 season... because of the instability of his knees, he took early training camp lightly in '84, sitting out first two preseason games... he was selected as 2nd alternate for the Pro Bowl game.. says Raymond Berry of Brock: "He's as good as you'll find at the center position. He can stand up to any nose guard around because of his fine size and strength. He has great natural athletic ability and real fine quickness."...the 1983 recipient of the Jim Lee Hunt Memorial Award, presented to the team's outstanding lineman, Pete started in 13 games last season...in the 11th game of the season, a 17-6 win over Miami (11-13-83), Pete suffered a left knee injury on the first play of the game...despite the fact that he had to undergo an arthroscopy after the game, Pete played the balance of the game and led the Patriots to a 224-yard rushing day against the Dolphins...he then missed just two games before returning to start and play a full game in a 7-0 win over his brother Stan and the New Orleans Saints (12-4)...after missing the next game against the Rams, Pete started the final game of the 1983 season at Seattle...a great tribute to Pete's effectiveness on the forward wall was that the Patriots averaged 174.2 yards a game rushing in his 13 starts and only 113.3 in each of the three games that he missed that season..prior to injuring his knee in '83, Pete had started 36 consecutive games since assuming the starting center role at 1981...he is only the third regular starting Patriots' center since 1964, having succeeded Bill Lenkaitis (1975-80) and Jon Morris (1964-74)...over the past two seasons, the Patriots have rushed for more yards (3,952) than any other NFL team...in his first year as a starter, the Patriots' team rushing average jumped from 3.8 yards a carry in 1980 to 4.1 yards per rush in 1981...one of the Patriots' most versatile players, Pete played all 16 games of 1980 at center...worked as apex in the line behind Bill Lenkaitis, playing the second and fourth quarters while Lenkaitis played the first and third stanzas...primary backup at center and guard through first ten games of 1979, he started last six games at LT in place of the injured Dwight Wheeler...started at RG in 27-7 win over Chicago (10-7-79) and played three other positions (LT, WB and snapper) in same series of plays...his versatility in filling all positions and shoring up the Patriots' offensive line that was riddled with injuries earned Pete the 1776 Fan Club's Unsung Hero Award for 1979...not only does he snap for FG, PAT and punts, Pete also has played as wingback or third TE in three TE offense...started at LG in place of absent John Hannah for first three games of '77...as a rookie, Pete caught TD pass vs. NY Jets and was dubbed "Deep Threat" by teammates...one of three first round picks by Patriots in 1976 draft...he and Tim Fox were chosen with first round picks acquired from San Francisco in Jim Plunkett trade...second offensive lineman, 12th player selected in 1976 draft.

COLLEGE: Consensus All-America and co-captain at Colorado his senior year...teammate of Patriot TE Don Hasselbeck while playing for Buffs.

PERSONAL: Married (Karen)...father of two daughters, Stephanie (9) and Shannon (5), as well as two sons John (7) and Joshua (4)...began career in research and development with Nike Shoes, now in promotions with same company...brother Will played with Detroit and Kansas City...younger brother Stan was All-America lineman at Colorado and drafted in first round of '80 NFL draft by New Orleans...likes to fly-fish.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1976-14/0, 1977-14/4, 1978-15/0, 1979-16/7, 1980-16/0, 1981-16/16, 1982-9/9, 1983-13/13, 1984-12/12, Total: 125/61.

TONY COLLINS 33

RB 5-11 212

EAST CAROLINA 5th year

DOB: 5-27-59 at Sanford, FL

HOW ACQUIRED: D-2, 1981 (47th)

PRO BOWL: 1984

PRO: Tony was the team's third top rusher in '84 with 550 yards in 138 carries (4.0 avg.), with team co-leading in rushing TDs with 5...he had TDs come at Buffalo (4 yarder, 9-2), vs. Jets (4 yarder, 10-28), at Cleveland (two yarder, 10-7) and two one-yarders vs. Buffalo (11-11) ... says Raymond Berry of Collins: "Tony is an outstanding blocker, is extremely durable and has outstanding speed." ... Collins had 107-yard game vs. Seattle (20 carries on 9-16) for a 5.4 avg...after 2 games in '84, Tony led AFC in rushing with 170 yards in 41 carries, and had 277 yards in 61 carries after 3 games and was the fifth-rated rusher in the AFC after five games...he is the 4th top career rusher in Patriot history with 3,104 yards, having passed Larry Garron (2,981) in the Jets game of 9-30...Tony needs 288 to pass the third-rated Patriot rusher (Don Calhoun, who has 3,391 compared)...Tony is the top career rusher in terms of average in the team's history with a 4.28 norm (3,104 yards in 725 carries)...he was the team's starter the first five games of '84 before Tatupu took over at Cleveland (10-7); Collins thus had 30 game starting streak end...his role was one of short yardage RB after that...he is fine receiver, having caught 88 passes for 776 yards over four years...when Tony scored on a two-yarder early in the 4th quarter at Cleveland (10-7), it was the first rushing TD vs. Browns in season; his TD proved to be winning points...he became the team's kickoff return man at Denver (11-4), and had team's season-best of 35 in his first return...he also had a 46 yard return (team's best for season) in that game to help set up FG; had 34.7 average in that game, with 104 yards in 3 returns...Tony finished season with 20.9 average in 26 returns and 544 yards...He is a very strong person; he can squat 600 pounds, nearly three times his weight...when he was drafted in the 2nd round of '81, people claimed they had never heard of him—they know him now! He was a Pro Bowler in '83, having led the team in rushing his first three seasons...he spent most of the 1983 season as one of the top five rushers in the AFC and finished the season in the sixth spot with 1,049 yards on 219 carries for a 4.8-yard average while scoring ten TDs...his 1,049 yards were the third most in a season by a Patriots' back and marked only the fourth time (Sam Cunningham in 1977 and Jim Nance in 1966 and 1967) in club history that a back rushed for more than 1,000 yards in a season...in the third week of the '83 season, he also broke the club mark for yards rushing in a game by tearing up the Jets (9-18-83) for 212 yards on 23 carries in a 23-13 win...that effort was the best rushing day in the AFC in '83 and second in the league to only James Wilder's 219 yards vs. Minnesota (11-16)...he also tied a club record for rushing TDs in a game with three scores...the previous club yardage mark of 208 yards was set by Jim Nance in 1966...Tony also ran for 147 yards and one TD on 23 carries in the Patriots' 31-0 win at Buffalo on 10-23-83...as evidence of his effectiveness as a receiver coming out of the backfield, he was the Patriots' second leading receiver with 27 receptions for 257 yards...as a rookie in '81, he set the club's rookie rushing record with 873 yards on 204 carries and led the club in 1982 with 632 yards on 164 yards...during the 1982 season Tony spent most of the season near the top of the NFL rushing ladder, finally finishing the year fifth in the AFC and seventh in the league, only one yard behind Joe Cribbs of Buffalo...he recorded three one-hundred yard outings in '82 including a 161-yard performance on 32 carries (sixth best single game mark in club history) in a 29-21 victory over Houston (11-28)...he also spirited a 24-13 win at Baltimore (9-12) on opening day in '82, when he rushed for 137 yards on 21 carries while breaking loose for a long gain of 54 yards...while he was the Patriots' most productive rusher, he also finished as the team's second leading receiver in '82, grabbing 19 passes for 187 yards and two TDs...as a rookie, he started 11 of the first 12 games...Tony had the top team rushing effort of 1981 and his only 100-yard game when he ran for 103 yards on 22 carries at Washington (10-25)...Tony's combined yardage total (rushing-receiving-returns) of 1,893 yards was bettered in the AFC by only James Brooks of San Diego who had a 2,093 combined total yardage output...in his first pro game, he rushed 15 times for 81 yards, caught three passes for another 48 yards and added 65 more yards on three kickoff returns against Baltimore (9-6)...Tony was the 11th RB and 47th player taken in the 1981 draft.

COLLEGE: A super productive three-year starter for the Pirates, he gained an average of 9.3 yards every time he touched the ball...as a junior he averaged 154.1 all purpose yards per game while leading ECU with 1,130 yards on 154 carries (7.34 avg.)...running from wishbone attack as a junior, he ran for 14 TDs and over 100 yards in five games...an excellent kickoff returner, Tony holds his school's season records for most KORs (37), total KOR yards (990) and longest KO return — 100 yards for a TD vs. both Florida State and N.C. State.

PERSONAL: Married (Samera) he and his wife had a baby girl, Colette in late May...is an active member of the Patriots' Celebrity Bureau and participant in many Massachusetts and Rhode Island Special Olympic programs...enjoys working out and also playing basketball...is the second youngest in a family of 16 children that includes nine boys and seven girls...worked for father's construction business while growing up in his hometown of Penn Yan in Central New York State.

SMILEY CRESWELL 92

DE 6-4 260

MICHIGAN STATE 1st year

DOB: 12-11-59 at Everett, WA

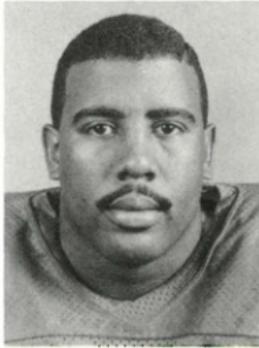

HOW ACQUIRED: D-5a, 1983 (118th)

PRO: The coaches were pleased with the way Smiley was looking in the early going of last year's training camp, but then he suffered torn medial collateral ligaments in the left knee on 7-17, was operated on and then put on IR 7-25...Smiley enjoyed a successful rookie training camp in 1983 before a left thumb injury sustained in the Patriots third preseason game sidelined him for the season...he saw action in the first three preseason games recording two tackles before being placed on injured reserve on 8-23-83 for the remainder of the season...the first of two Patriots' fifth round draft choices in 1983, Creswell was selected with a fifth round pick acquired in the trade of LB Rod Shoate to Chicago in 1982.

COLLEGE: Strong, fast, big play artist who made a successful transition from DE to DT as a senior in Spartans' new 5-2 alignment...solid pass rusher and intense competitor who was the third leading tackler on the club as a senior with 57 total tackles...recorded 149 total tackles, 21 tackles for 98 yards in losses, recovered seven fumbles and deflected one pass while a three year starter at MSU...played TE for one season at Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, WA prior to joining the Spartans...that team had No. 1 Juco ranking in country.

PERSONAL: Single...plans to complete degree in Forestry during pro offseasons...would like to follow in lumberjack footsteps of father following completion of football career...enjoys fishing, hunting and all outdoor activities...was an All-Star player at Monroe (WA) High...given name is Smiley Creswell III.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1983 — On injured reserve for entire season. 1984 — On injured reserve for entire season.

GEORGE CRUMP 91

DE 6-4 260

EAST CAROLINA 3rd year

DOB: 7-22-59 at Portsmouth, VA

HOW ACQUIRED: D-4a, 1982 (85th)

PRO: George has spent the last couple of seasons doing rehabilitation work from arthroscopic surgery he had on 9-12-83 to his left knee...last year he missed the entire season, spending it on the Physically Unable to Perform list (PUP), going on that list 8-14-84...the Patriots' coaching staff knows that George has outstanding potential and thus the coaches are eagerly looking for George to bounce back from his knee injury and rejoin the team on the field...only action of 1983 was a preseason game at San Francisco (8-14)...George was active for, but did not play in the Patriots' first two regular season games in '83...George made some big plays during his rookie campaign, as he played in a substitution role at DE and on special teams...he was in on 13 tackles and recorded two QB pressures in '82...also recorded one QB sack for 20 yards and a safety in Patriots' 29-21 victory vs. Houston (11-28-82)...saw plenty of action at Pittsburgh (12-26-82) and in Patriots' playoff game at Miami (1-8-83), as he replaced starter Ken Sims who came out of both games with injuries...recorded three tackles and five assists in Patriots' 28-13 playoff loss at Miami...was the third of three defensive linemen taken by the Patriots in the 1982 draft.

COLLEGE: George and Patriots' RB Tony Collins were teammates for three seasons while at East Carolina...he recorded 119 career tackles and eight sacks, including six as a sophomore...played both DE and DT for the Pirates, starting at right DT as a junior and senior.

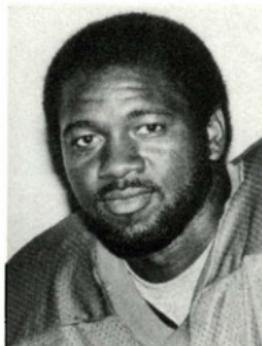

PERSONAL: Married (Jacqueline)...went to drafting school in offseason...spent past offseason in New England area rehabilitating his knee and participating in the Patriots' Celebrity Bureau...lists fishing, boating and basketball among his favorite pastimes...played basketball, track and football at Indian River High School in Chesapeake.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1982-9/0, 1983-0/0 (On injured reserve 9-14 through remainder of season), 1984-On injured reserve for entire season.

LIN DAWSON 87

TE 6-3 240

N. CAROLINA STATE 5th year

DOB: 6-24-59 at Norfolk, VA

HOW ACQUIRED: D-8b, 1981 (212th)

PRO: The 1984 season was Lin's finest, as he caught 39 passes for 427 yards (10.9 avg.) and four TDs...his 39 passes were more than his three previous seasons and, as were his passing yardage...had best day come at Jets (9-30) with 6 catches for 84 yards with five of his catches coming the first half...he had his longest catch of the season come in that game, a 27-yarder; he won a game ball for his play—he also assisted in keeping Gastineau from getting any sacks that game...Lin had a two-yard TD at Jets game; his other TDs were a nine-yarder at Miami (9-9), an 11-yarder vs. St. Louis (12-2) and a three-yarder vs. Indianapolis (12-16)...had 5-catch, 56-yard game vs. Jets (10-28) and 5 catches for 53 yards at Indy (11-18)...caught a pass in all but two games (Bengals on 10-14 and at Eagles on 12-9)...suffered right knee sprain in 2nd quarter vs. Bengals on 10-14, and did not return to action; missed his only start of season next game vs. Miami (10-21)...one of the reasons Patriots went to one-back offense in '84 was to allow tight ends Derrick Ramsey and Lin on field at same time...he always had the reputation as mainly being a blocking TE before '84 season...Lin was voted 2nd alternate for the Pro Bowl...says Raymond Berry: "Lin's an outstanding success story, having been selected in the 8th round of the 1981 draft. He continues to advance, getting a little bigger and stronger with each season."...Lin won the starting tight end spot early in the '83 season, but missed three games due to a left knee injury sustained mid-way through the season...he underwent arthroscopic surgery on 10-10-83 and returned to action two weeks later to complete the season...in starting ten games, he had nine receptions for 84 yards and one TD...his only TD reception of the year was a spectacular left-handed grab in the endzone at Miami (9-11-83)...one of the best blocking tight ends in the league, Lin enhanced the Patriots' ground attack which paved the way for Tony Collins' career high 1,049 yards rushing in '83...he alternated at the tight end spot in '82, starting in four of eight games played...played an important role in Patriots' double TE formation that same year...with 13 receptions for 160 yards, Lin was the Patriots' fourth leading receiver in '82...as a rookie, he led the Patriots in receiving during the preseason with nine catches for 107 yards and two TDs...missing only one game with a sore heel, he started three times as a rookie, including each of the last two games after regular starter Don Hasselbeck succumbed to knee surgery...was a regular on special teams in his first campaign and recorded eight tackles.

COLLEGE: Played in all 44 games while with Wolfpack, finishing college career as the school's ninth all-time leading receiver...although NC State was not a pass-oriented team, Lin caught 11 passes for 116 yds. and one TD...was a key member of Wolfpack offense in '79 finishing second on reception list with 15 catches for 201 yds. and one TD, the year NC State won the ACC championship.

PERSONAL: Married in late Feb. (wife, Margo)...is presently enrolled in the Gordon-Conwell Seminary...Lin is the Director of his own Youth Crusade (Lin Dawson, Inc.)...he also conducts the Lin Dawson Sports Camp, Inc. in his hometown of Kinston (NC)...has spent the past offseas travelling along the East Coast speaking to various civic and religious organizations and also speaking for Sports World Ministry...is an Associate Minister at Mt. Sinai Holy Temple in Columbus, OH where his brother, Rev. Harry Bellinger is the Pastor...Lin is also involved in the Big Brother and Sister's program as well as the SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) Program in Kinston...he also serves as the team Chapel Leader...Lin is the youngest in a family of three boys.

HOW ACQUIRED: T-Philadelphia, 2-21-84
Right, bare-footed soccer style kicker

PRO: Tony had his finest pro season in his sixth season in the NFL, and his first season as a Patriot when he scored a career high one-season mark of 108 points in going 22 of 28 in field goals and a perfect 42 of 42 in PAT kicks...the Patriots had had trouble at the position in 1983 in going nine for 22 and 31 of 35 in PAT kicks without Franklin...his 78.6 field goal percentage was better than his first season of 74.2 in 1979 (23 of 31) and much better than his career percentage of 62.5...set a new club record by making nine consecutive FGs from 10-7-84 to 11-4-84, breaking the old mark of 7 by John Smith and Gino Cappelletti (Tony also went 15 of 16 at one point of season)...honors: Pro Football Weekly AFC Specialist of Week (for Cincinnati outing of 10-14) and Pro Magazine All-AFC East...he had four field goals at Denver (11-4), with two 30-yarders, a 47 and a 19-yarder to tie John Smith for 2nd best in team's history (Cappelletti had six in one game)...he ended the season by kicking at least one FG in 11 consecutive games, tying Gino Cappelletti for the team record (10-7-84 to 12-16-84)...started off his Patriot career slowly, not getting a FG attempt in his first two games and missing on three of his first five FG attempts before settling into a groove...Tony had his 100th career FG come vs. Indy on 12-16 (out of 155 he has attempted in his career), making him just the 16th NFL player ever to do so and the 11th active player...with his 78.6 percentage, he was 2nd best in the AFC (to Norm Johnson of Seattle, who went 20 of 24 for .83.3 percentage)...Tony was the third top scorer in the AFC and the 8th top in the NFL...he had a long FG of 48 yards vs. Miami on 10-21 (into 15 MPH wind); had 6 of his FGs come from 40 or more yards, including having a 47-yarder vs. Jets on 10-28 and 47-yarder at Denver on 11-4...attempted a long of 56 yards at Dallas on 11-22 on final play of the first half that was short and to the eight...Tony had left knee surgery upon close of season (tendonitis in non-kicking leg) that will now allow him to put pressure on his plant leg on kickoffs (had trouble with kickoff distance in '84)...says Raymond Berry: 'Tony is as good as any player I've been around for the mental attitude he has concerning his position. I don't worry about Tony. He works at his game. He has a great attitude'...Tony was acquired from the Philadelphia Eagles on 2-21-84 for an undisclosed, conditional 1985 draft choice...Tony left Philadelphia as the Eagles' fourth all-time career scorer with 412 points...finished as the Eagles' second leading scorer in 1982 (41 points) and in 1983 (69 points)...made good on 15 of 26 field goal attempts and 24 of 27 extra point conversions in 1983...kicked field goals of 32, 30 and 47 yards in Eagles' opening day win at San Francisco (9-3-83)...converted two field goals at Denver (9-18), including a 47-yard game winner in the final minute of play...over his five-year career with the Eagles, Franklin hit on 80 of 128 field goal attempts for a 62.5% success rate and converted on 172 of 182 extra point conversions...originally the Eagles' third round draft choice in 1979, he enjoyed his best NFL season with Eagles in 1979 when he scored 105 points while converting on 23 of 31 FG attempts and in 1981 when he totaled 101 points while hitting on 20 of 31 FG attempts...is credited with the second longest field goal in NFL history, a 59-yarder at Dallas during his rookie campaign...booted two 44-yarders in season opener vs. Washington in 1982...increased his club record for field goals of 50 yards or longer to six with a 52-yarder at Washington (11-27-83).

COLLEGE: Finished collegiate career with 18 NCAA records, including most career field goals (56); career kick scoring (291 points); most field goals, 50 yards or longer in a career (16); most field goals made in a three-year career (45); and longest average for field goals made in a career (39.5 yards)...became only player in history to kick two field goals of 60 yards or longer in the same game when he booted 64 and 65-yarders against Baylor in 1976...had a career accuracy percentage of 55.4 while converting 56 of 101 FGs...first team All-America selection by Football Writers Association and second team All-America by UPI...was first kicker in school history to receive full scholarship.

PERSONAL: Married (Sally)...is the father of one son, Sean (3)...Brother, Eric, is a barefoot kicker at Texas A&M...played high school football, first as a halfback and then as a barefoot kicker, at Arlington High in Fort Worth, Texas.

Over these 10 years, the Patriots have a 63-42 record on artificial turf (46-27 at home for a 63.0 percentage and 17-15 away for a 53.1 percentage) and a 14-28 record on natural grass (33.3 percentage).

IRVING FRYAR 80

WR 6-0 200

NEBRASKA 2nd year

DOB: 9-28-62 at Mount Holly, NJ

HOW ACQUIRED: D-1, 1984 (1st)

PRO: Was the 4th top punt returner in the AFC in '84 and 6th top in the NFL with a 9.6 average with 347 yards in 36 carries...suffered rib injury in third preseason game (at Washington) in catching pass; he was expected to miss about three or four weeks due to the injury, but didn't miss any regular season games due to the injury, although it did hamper his play...had a long punt return of 55 yards vs. Seattle (9-16), as was stopped on shoe-string tackle ...after that Seattle game, he was the 2nd top punt returner in AFC with a 15.2 average...used sparingly at wide receiver spot because of not only his rib injury, but because of a dislocated shoulder he suffered 10-21 vs. Miami (in 2nd quarter)...returned to handle punts vs. Buffalo (11-11), and had four for 66 yards, a fine 16.5 avg...had 11 catches for the season for 164 yards, a 14.9 average with one TD (15-yarder vs. Seattle on 9-16), and long catch of 26 yards...set up FG at Cleveland (10-7) with 10-yard catch in critical 3rd and six situation ...had shoulder operation upon the close of the season...had a 43-yard punt return vs. St. Louis on 12-2...had five kickoff returns over the season for 95 yards, a 19.0 norm (long of 22)...tied Patriot team record with seven punt returns at Dallas (11-22, fourth time that done in team history)...says Raymond Berry: "Irving has fine size, is an 190 pounder with outstanding speed, and has explosive running ability and great hands."

COLLEGE: Was the first player selected in the 1984 NFL draft...a player with tremendous speed (runs the 40 in 4.39 sec.) as well as explosive acceleration and superb hands and concentration, Irving was on everyone's All-America team in 1983...considered the most exciting Comhusker since 1972 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rogers, he was only the second collegian since two-platoon football began in 1965 to earn consensus All-America honors as wide receiver while playing on a national rushing leader (other—Nebraska's Freeman White in 1965)...caught 40 passes last season for 780 yards (19.5 average, with eight touchdowns) adding up to a career total of 67 passes for 1,196 yards (17.9 average), with 11 touchdowns...his career receiving yardage ranks second only to Rogers' 2,479 in the Nebraska record books...a deadly open-field runner, he had 253 all-purpose yards on just eight plays in a 84-13 win over Minnesota, as he rushed three times for 92 yards (41-yard TD run), caught TD passes of 68 and 70 yards and returned three punts for 23 yards...his play vs. Minnesota won him Big Eight Offensive-Player-of-the-Year honors...was over 100-yards receiving two other times during the season: vs. UCLA when he had six passes for 100 and vs. Iowa with five catches for 114 yards...had four catches for 96 yards vs. Wyoming, including a 49-yard TD...had 42-yard run and 62-yard TD pass in 14-10 win vs. Oklahoma State...scored on 54-yard TD run and 34-yard pass vs. Colorado...played in East-West Shrine game, as well as Japan Bowl all-star game...as junior, suffered numerous injuries, but still was country's third top punt returner, and Big Eight leader with 15.4 average on 18 returns...was fifth in league in all-purpose yards with 99.3 per game...had 15 catches for 258 yards and two TDs in first three games as junior...threw 37-yard TD pass vs. Oklahoma...had 70-yard TD on punt return vs. Hawaii as well as 31-yard TD run from scrimmage...in Orange Bowl victory of 21-20 over LSU, had 84 yards on five catches, 12 yards on two carries and 56 yards on two punt returns...as sophomore, split time at wingback spot...was tops in league and fourth in nation in punt returns...had two punt returns for TDs—82-yarder vs. Florida State and 63-yarder vs. Iowa State...first collegiate catch was 49-yard TD vs. Kansas State.

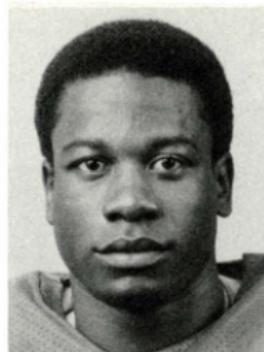

PERSONAL: Married in Jan. '85 (wife: Jacqueline)...was meteorology major, hopes to go back to school to work towards his degree...was a receiver and safety at Rancocas Valley Regional High School (same school that produced Franco, Pete and Giuseppe Harris)...can play five musical instruments...bought his father's dry cleaning business in 1984.

TIM GOLDEN 59

LB 6-1 220

FLORIDA 4th year

DOB: 11-15-59 at Pahokee, FL

HOW ACQUIRED: FA, 1982

PRO: Tim might be under-sized by NFL standard to play the LB position, but he has ignored his size and has gone on to do some fine things when used...Tim was cut by team in final cutdown on August 27th, and brought back on 9-5 when Clayton Weishuhn was put on IR... made 14 solos, 10 assists in playing 284 plays, most of them coming on special teams...won game ball for his special teams play vs. Buffalo in Foxboro on 11-11...had a big day in '83 when he recorded six tackles and 11 assists in Patriots' 28-23 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium (9-25-83)...in that game he replaced starting ILLB Steve Nelson who suffered a fractured thumb late in the first half...made the first start of his career at Buffalo (10-23-83) while subbing for the injured Steve Nelson and Johnny Rembert...recorded ten total tackles and one QB pressure...halted a potential scoring drive when he recovered a Jeff Groth (vs. New Orleans 12-4-83) fumble of a Rich Camarillo punt on the Patriots' 46 yard line in Patriots' 7-0 victory...was in on 54 total tackles in '83 while seeing spot duty at linebacker and as a regular on special teams...performed well on special teams during his first NFL campaign in 1982...Tim was originally signed as a free agent by the Patriots in 1981, but he left training camp after three days...was re-instated on 4-26-82 and earned a roster spot in the '82 training camp.

COLLEGE: Played as a DE for the Gators as a junior and a senior...was a LB his first two collegiate campaigns...a starter for three years, he led team as a junior with 100 tackles...as a senior, he had 49 tackles, 49 assists, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and caused three fumbles.

STEVE GROGAN 14

QB 6-4 210

KANSAS STATE 11th year

DOB: 7-24-53 at San Antonio, TX

HOW ACQUIRED: D-5a, 1975 (116th)

PRO: With Steve Grogan backing up Eason the Patriots have an outstanding one-two combination...started the first three games of '84, and hit on 32 of 68 passes for a 47.1 percentage, for 444 yards with three TDs, six interceptions...in regular season opener at Buffalo (9-2), he directed team to three TDs in their first four possessions and a 21-0 lead (eventually won, 21-17)...went 12 of 22 for 227 in season opener at Buffalo (9-2), and threw two TDs in that game, including a 65-yarder to Stephen Starring on 2nd play of season...he went 20 of 42 the next week at Miami (9-9) for 217 yards, and had a nine yard TD pass to Lin Dawson to knot game at 7-7 at end of first half...went zero of 4 vs. Seattle when replaced by Eason...teams have asked about Steve's availability to be traded in the off-season, confirming Patriots opinion that Steve has a lot of fine years ahead...helped coach Berry and Eason a great deal along the sidelines on the phone the second half of the season...Steve has raised club record of attempted passes in a career to 2,681 and career TD passes to 139...he is the 7th top career rusher in the team's history at 2,061 and is 22nd on list of games played with 114...Off to the best start of his career '83, Steve was the AFC's top rated passer for weeks 3-6 and rated among the top three AFC passers in ten of the first eleven weeks of the year...his great success came to a quick halt when he suffered a fractured left fibula on 11-20-83 in a loss to Cleveland...he suffered the fracture when hit by blitzing LB Tom Cousineau mid-way through the second stanza...the injury sidelined him for the final five weeks of the season...his loss was a big one for the Patriots' offense which had averaged 21.5 points per game over 11 weeks and scored just 37 points in the five games that he missed...having set four club passing marks in 1982, Steve passed Babe Parilli in two other passing categories during 1983 to capture every major club career passing record...included among the 15 TD passes were five scoring strikes of 40 yards or longer...in the season opener (9-4-83), Steve hurled TD passes of 73 yards to rookie Stephen Starring and 50 yards to Stanley Morgan...with only 3:59 to play at Pittsburgh on 9-25-83, Steve threw a 76-yard TD pass to Starring to earn a come-from-behind 28-23 win over the Steelers...that pass equaled his previous career longest completion set on a 76-yard TD pass to Stanley Morgan against Miami on 11-8-81...while he doesn't run as much as he did early in his career, Steve still gained 108 yards on 23 carries (4.7 avg.) in 1983...his valuable impact on the team in 1983 earned him the 1776 Fan Club MVP Award...after losing the starting QB duties to Matt Cavanaugh early in 1982, Steve regained the starting spot for the final six games of the year...in his first start of '82, he connected with Stanley Morgan for a 62-yard TD pass on just the third play of the game in a 29-21 win over Houston (11-28-82)...with Steve calling signals, the Patriots won four of their last six games to earn a playoff spot...he finished the year as the AFC's fourth rated passer and seventh in the whole NFL...his 5.7% TD rate was second among AFC QBs to only Terry Bradshaw and third in the league...he also had the league's fourth lowest interception percentage (3.3)...over the past two seasons, he has thrown just 16 interceptions in 425 attempts (3.7%), a drastic reduction from the first seven years of his career (144 in 2,188 tries — 6.65)...in the second game of 1981, Steve was forced out of action at Philadelphia with a neck injury that knocked him out of the starting lineup for the next four games...in the 11th game of the year, he suffered a left knee injury when tackled by Jet DE Mark Gastineau and he was lost for the rest of the 1981 campaign...he had a stellar performance in a narrow 28-24 loss to the Jets at New York on 10-11-81 with 11:29 to play in the third period, he came off the bench to replace an ineffective Matt Cavanaugh and finished the day by completing 19 of 32 passes for 330 yards and one TD...he also threw for 355 yards vs. Miami (11-8-81) and 306 yards at Washington on 10-25-81...with a league leading 8.61 yards per attempt mark in 1981, he became only the second player since the AFL-NFL merger to lead the NFL in the category for two consecutive years...Terry Bradshaw also accomplished that feat in 1977 and 1978...caught a sixteen yard pass from Andy Johnson on an option pass for a first down in the season opener vs. Baltimore (9-6-81) and hauled in another pass from Johnson for nine yards at Oakland (11-1)...leading the AFC in passing for the first seven weeks of the 1980 season, Steve was off to a fast start that was slowly and painfully halted by two knee injuries...over the first seven games, he completed 98 of 156 passes (62.8%) for 1,398 yards and 11 TDs in leading the Patriots to six wins in their first seven starts...a sprained left knee suffered in Seattle (9-21) and a sprained right knee incurred the following week vs. Denver (9-29) began to take their toll as Steve began to lose his feared mobility by the season's midway point...in the season's 12th game, he finally sat down to rest the ailing knees and in doing so, he had a five-year, 76 consecutive regular season game starting streak snapped...in that game, Matt Cavanaugh led the Patriots to a 47-21 win over Baltimore (11-23) but he too injured his left knee...the following week, Steve started once again, but threw a career high six interceptions in a 21-17 loss at San Francisco...that would mark his final action in the '80 season...Steve led the Patriots to seven wins while having the best day of his six year career at Houston on 11-10...in a last minute 38-34 loss to the Oilers, he completed 25 of 39 passes for 374 yards and 3 TDs...the Patriots third ranked rusher with 112 yards on 30 carries, he also broke QB coach Babe Parilli's club record (55.3%) for passing completion percentage in a season with a 57.2% mark...in 1979, he tied with Brian Sipe of Cleveland for NFL leadership in TD passes (28) while topping the league in TD percentage (6.6) and rushing by a QB (368 yards on 62 attempts)...his 3,286 passing yards that year was the second best seasonal performance in club history behind only Parilli's 3,465 yards in 1964...on the year, he had four games in which he passed for over 300 yards...underwent minor knee (right) surgery in April, 1980 and was working out only a few days later...had an incredible day in leading Patriots to a record setting 56-3 win over the Jets (9-9-79), completing 13 of 18 passes (72.2%) for 315 yards and 5 TDs...threw for over 200 yards on five occasions during 1978, including another stellar job against the Jets (10-29-78) that saw him hit on 15 passes for 281 yards and 4 TDs...his 539 rushing yards enabled the Patriots to become the first team ever to have four members of the same backfield break the 500-yard rushing mark in the same campaign (1978)...completed a herculean task of calling every one of the Patriots 922 offensive plays in 1977...his 13 rushing TDs in 1976, beating previous high mark for NFL QBs, established Steve as the game's most feared running QB...as a rookie, he played in 13 games, starting in seven of the last eight contests...had the second best day of his pro career that year vs. Buffalo (11-23-75), completing 25 of 46 attempts for 365 yards...was the 116th player chosen in the 1975 draft.

COLLEGE: Started for K-State as a junior and senior...during career completed 166 of 371 attempts for 2213 yards, 12 TDs and 26 interceptions...also ran for additional 585 yards and six TDs on 339 tries during that span...part-time punter as a junior and senior, hitting seven punts for 279 yards (39.9 avg.)...caught a 22-yard TD pass as a senior.

DARRYL HALEY 68

OT 6-4 265

UTAH 4th year

DOB: 2-16-61 at Gardena, CA

HOW ACQUIRED: D-2c, 1982 (55th)

PRO: Darryl became the starter at the right tackle position when the Patriots traded Bob Cryder to Seattle on July 31, 1984...coaches liked the way that Darryl was progressing, thus they felt they could trade Cryder and not lose anything...he had a fine season, and started in all 16 games...he and RG Ron Wooten combined to give the Patriots a solid combination to go along with LG Hannah and LT Holloway...came of age at Jets (9-30) when he blanketed the league's sack-leader Mark Gastineau from getting to QB Eason...has fine size, and is very eager to learn...he is a fine athlete (also played basketball in college)...Darryl recorded his first pro starts in '83 when he filled in for the injured Bob Cryder at right OT at Atlanta (10-30-83) and vs. Buffalo (11-16-83)...he played in all 16 games in '83 seeing spot duty at OT and as a regular on special teams...has outstanding physical characteristics and athletic ability...saw considerable action on the Patriots' offensive line during 1982 and played in all nine regular season games as a regular on special teams.....Darryl was the third of three Patriots' second round draft choices in 1982...he was the 55th player selected overall and was taken with one of two second round picks acquired from San Francisco in exchange for the Patriots' second round choice in '82.

COLLEGE: Darryl was the first player from the University of Utah ever drafted by the Patriots...was the third youngest player selected in the '82 draft...became a starting OG as a senior...played both football and basketball during his senior year...played in the Olympia Gold Bowl and received Honorable Mention All-Wac recognition as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...continues to work on a degree in Commercial Physical Education and minor in Marketing during pro offseasons...spends much of his offseas time visiting schools for handicapped children...resides in the Salt Lake/Holiday area (Utah)...enjoys basketball, jogging, traveling and reading.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1982-9/0, 1983-16/2, 1984-16/16, Total: 41/18.

JOHN HANNAH 73

OG 6-3 265

ALABAMA 13th year

DOB: 4-4-51 at Canton, GA

HOW ACQUIRED: D-1a, 1973 (4th)

PRO BOWL: 1977, 1979-1985

PRO: Considered one of the finest linemen ever to play football, John has been a solid part of the Patriots' offensive attack since his rookie season of 1973...John is second to Julius Adams in games played with 169 (Adams has 180)...because he is such an impressive blocker, the Patriots like to go to Hannah's side in short yardage situations...despite having nagging neck problems that kept him out of the Jets game at Foxboro on 10-28-84 and in traction for one week, John had another John Hannah-type season, and was thus selected for his 8th Pro Bowl game...he had to wear a special neck brace several games, and played with an injury that would have had a lot of other athletes not even dress for the games...has played in 169 of a possible 175 since coming to the pros...he and tackle Brian Holloway were selected to the Pro Bowl for a second consecutive season, reinforcing the coaches feeling that the Patriots have one of the best left sides on offensive in the NFL...he was voted the top offensive lineman in the NFL by the NFL Alumni, and was honored at a banquet held at the Super Bowl...other honors: Sports Illustrated All-Pro, UPI All-AFC, NEA All-Pro, Sporting News All-pro, Football Digest All-Pro, Pro Football Writers All-Pro, Seagram Sports All-Pro, College and Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro (2nd team), AP All-Pro (2nd team) and Pro Magazine All-AFC East...John worked hard during the off-season in getting ready for the '85 season...he won game ball at NY Jets (9-30) in playing outstanding game, despite severe pain in elbow (had to spend an overnight in hospital because of injury he suffered vs. Seattle on 9-16)...John started all but one game over the season, with that being the first start he has missed as a pro...selected to the Pro Bowl in 1984, but could not take part in the game because of post-season shoulder surgery...one of the greatest linemen ever to play football, John has been a mainstay in the Patriots' offensive attack since his rookie season in 1973...John has been an inspirational leader along the Patriots' forward wall that has led the way to the Patriots being the top rushing team in the NFL for the 1982 & 1983 seasons (3,952 yards)...he missed his first start in six seasons when he suffered a practice session knee injury and did not play against Houston (11-28-82)...that missed start snapped a 78 consecutive game starting streak that dated back to 1977...was the 1981 recipient of the Jim Lee Hunt Memorial Award that cites the most outstanding lineman on the Patriots...was voted the Seagram's Seven Crowns of Sports Offensive Lineman of the Year Award in both 1978 and 1980...was the winner of the NFLPA — Coca Cola Offensive Linemen of the Year Award (selected by a vote of NFL players) for four straight years (1978-81)...along with center Bill Lenkaitis, John was one of only two Patriot offensive linemen to play in all 16 games of the 1979 campaign...former Patriot Offensive Coordinator Jim Ringo, a great NFL lineman himself at Green Bay and Philadelphia, says that "John has better pulling speed than Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston, although he's twenty pounds heavier than both,"...during the 1978 season, he was a mainstay in the Patriots' offensive line that helped pave the way for the Patriots' record setting pace of 3,165 rushing yards, an NFL single season club record...during his rookie year of 1973, John stepped in to start the first 13 games, but a freak leg injury in practice forced him to miss the final game...since then he has started all but one game of his NFL career except the first three of 1977 when he was involved in a contract dispute...an exceptional run blocker, Hog also excels at pass blocking despite having played in the Wishbone offense of Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide...made his first Pro Bowl appearance following the 1976 season...as a rookie, was named to a host of all-

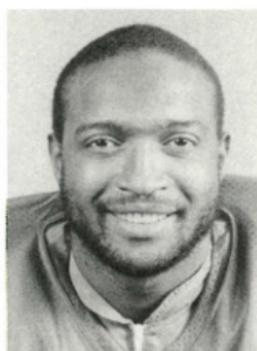

Rookie squads and was named the Cardinal Cushing Award winner as the Patriots' Offensive MVP...was the first of three Patriot first round draft choices and the fourth player selected overall in 1973.

COLLEGE: Under the tutelage of the legendary Bear Bryant, John earned eight varsity letters and was a two time consensus All-America at Alabama...played in both the Hula and Cotton Bowls...made an impressive showing vs. the Dolphins in the College All Star Game.

PERSONAL: Married (Page)...father of a son, Seth (6), and a daughter, Mary Beth (5)...having worked in his family's Alabama farm supply business and on his own farm for much of his pro career, John left farming to join the Boston office of L.F. Rothschild, an international investment firm, after the 1983 season...he commutes to Boston on a train everyday and is quickly gaining the respect of his peers in the investment world...his father, Herb, played for the NY Giants in the early 1950's while his brother, Charlie, is an offensive tackle for the LA Raiders...another brother, David, is a former Alabama gridiron.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1973-13/13, 1974-14/14, 1975-14/14, 1976-14/14, 1977-11/11, 1978-16/16, 1979-16/16, 1980-16/16, 1981-16/16, 1982-8/8, 1983-16/16, 1984-15/15, Total: 169/169.

STATS: Fumble Recoveries: 1973-1, 1974-One for two yds. (TD) at Miami 12-15, 1978-2, 1979-1, 1981-2, 1983-3. Kickoff Returns: 1973-one of zero yds. at Buffalo 12-9.

GREG HAWTHORNE 40

WR 6-2 225

BAYLOR 7th year

DOB: 9-5-56 at Fort Worth, TX

HOW ACQUIRED: TR-Pittsburgh, 1984
(1-28th)

PRO: Greg played in 14 of the 16 games in '84, and started one game (vs. Buffalo on 11-11 as H-Back)...saw action as both a wide receiver and H-Back in '84...came to the Patriots from the Steelers on 8-21 for a ninth round draft pick in '85...caught seven passes for 127 yards, an 18.1 average, with a long catch of 26 yards...had two catches vs. both Indy (11-18) and Denver (11-4), with 24 yards vs. Indy and 45 yards vs. Denver...had one catch of 25 yards vs. NY Jets (9-30), one catch of 18 yards vs. NY Jets on 10-28 and one catch for 15 yards vs. Buffalo (11-11)...caught first pass as Patriot vs. NY Jets (9-30), a 25-yarder on opening drive...coaches were impressed when vs. Cincinnati (10-14) dressed for 2nd half when several receivers suffered injuries (was hurt with quad, and did not dress the 1st half)...late in first half at NY Jets (9-30), made 18-yard catch with two defenders on him, thus setting up 27-yard FG by Franklin with two seconds left (Patriots losing 20-6 at half, and won, 30-20)...at Denver (11-4), made 19-yard catch in 4th quarter to help set up 19 yard FG by Franklin...had 18-yard catch at Indy to set up 28-yard FG by Franklin late in first half...had an injury-filled career with Pittsburgh...used as both a running back and receiver while playing five years (1979-83) with the Steelers; he had 19 catches for 300 yards (15.8 average), with long of 52 his final year with Pittsburgh...1983 was Greg's best year as a receiver at Pittsburgh; his best year as a running back in 1980 when he rushed for 226 yards in 63 carries for a 3.6 average and four TDs...started 10 games in 59 that he played in Steeler career, starting six of 15 games as a running back in 1980...he had four starts in 10 games as a WR in 1983...he led Steelers in receiving after three games in '83 with 11 catches for 143 yards (13.0 avg.), catching five passes for 49 yards in opening game at Denver (9-4-83)...after three weeks, suffered quad injury that kept him out six games and part of seventh...caught longest pass of the season with 52-yarder vs. Minnesota (11-20-83) to help spark 4th quarter rally...had starting spot in three of last four games in '83, but hamstring pull scratched him for playoffs...in last regular season game at Cleveland (12-18), caught five passes for career high 66 yards...began '83 season in best position with Lynn Swann's retirement and Jim Smith's USFL signing...in '82 switched from RB to WR for first three games and had three clutch catches in 26-20 OT win vs. Cincinnati...had crucial 22-yard third down grab in season opener Monday night won at Dallas (9-13-82)...in 1982, played in all regular season games after having his least productive and most injury-filled season in '81...in 1980, started six games as RB after strong training camp, but wrist, shoulder and rib problems set him back...as No. 1 pick in '79, suffered pulled hamstring on first day of camp running 40, missing rest of camp—scored TD in first regular season rushing attempt (9-9-79) on eight-yard run vs. Houston.

COLLEGE: In four years as a starter at Baylor, he played tight end, running back and receiver in his collegiate career...gained 1,184 yards rushing on 236 carries and caught 45 passes for 579 yards in college...scored seven career TDs, rushing for 100 yards three times and caught TD passes of 74 and 80 yards...senior year curtailed when suffered broken hip vs. Ohio State (1978) in 3rd game...majored in sociology in college.

CRAIG JAMES 32

RB 6-0 215

SMU 2nd year

DOB: 1-2-61 at Jacksonville, TX

HOW ACQUIRED: D-7, 1983 (187th)

PRO: Craig broke into the starting lineup at Denver (11-4), and started the final seven games of the season...he finished as the team's top rusher with 790 yards in 160 carries for a fine 4.91 average...Craig was hurt by knee sprain that held him back at the start of the season, injuries that carried over from the preseason games...was named 1776 QB Club's Rookie-of-the-Year, as well as UPI All-Rookie team...ran for 43-yarder on draw play late in Thanksgiving game at Dallas (11-22) that set up one-yard TD with 44 seconds left and tied the game at 20-20...the following week, he had a 73-yard run in first half of Cardinals game (12-2) that turned out to be the team's longest run from scrimmage in season and 7th longest run from scrimmage in Patriots history...he tied with Eason for longest TD run of the season with a 25-yarder vs. Jets (10-28; Eason had two 25-yard TD runs)...he had three 100-plus games—138 yards in 30 carries vs. Indy in season finale (12-16) as that was team lead in yards in a game and carries in a game in '84; also had 120 yards in 20 carries at Denver in his first start and had 112 yards in 19 carries at Dallas...he might have had 100-plus vs. Philadelphia (12-9) had it not been for the fact he suffered twisted knee...Craig caught 22 passes (tops among the team's running backs) for 159 yards, for a 7.2 average, with long of 16 yards...he came into his own when had 79 yards in 10 carries vs. Jets on 10-28, with all his yardage coming in the second half...Craig was voted third alternate for the Pro Bowl, not bad for a guy who broke into the lineup late in the season...says Raymond Berry: "Craig broke as many long runs last year as any back I've been associated with. You don't see long runs in the pros that often because of the kind of speed and pursuit there is in the NFL."...signed as a free agent from the Washington Federals of the USFL in April of '84 (selected first round — 4th player selected in USFL draft)...signed a three year contract with the Patriots...with the Federals, he suffered a back injury, missing from March 19th to April 14th last season...ran the ball 202 times for 823 yards for 4.1 average and four TDs; caught 40 passes for 342 yards, 8.6 average with two TDs...was the ninth-leading rusher in the USFL, despite missing four games...in spring of '84, with the Federals, had 16 carries for 61 yards (3.8 average) and one catch for 13 yards before suffering strained knee ligament in the second game.

COLLEGE: Was selected All-Southwest Conference three consecutive years...had 3,742 yards in his career, second on SMU's all-time list and third in conference history (behind Eric Dickerson and Earl Campbell)...caught 51 passes in his career for 650 yards...as senior, rushed for 938 yards on 197 carries; caught 11 passes for 208 yards, including a 96-yarder against North Texas State. That is the longest pass play in SWC history...alternated plays with Dickerson to form the "Pony Express" at SMU (each enjoyed three 1,000 yard seasons)...played under Patriots coach Ron Meyer his first three collegiate years...was selected to play in the 1983 Japan Bowl...ranked sixth in the nation in punting with a 44.9 average, best in the SWC...lost only 11 games throughout his high school and collegiate careers...as a junior, became the first player in 21 years to be named to two positions on the All-SWC team...was one punt shy of the minimum of 100 or he would have moved into the NCAA's career top 10...became team's punter midway through junior year...also held for kicks...his best rushing season in terms of statistics came in 1981 with 1,147 yards, second best in league behind Dickerson...in his four seasons, finished third, second, fifth and sixth among the league's top rushers...in 1981, he and Dickerson became the fifth pair of backs in NCAA history to average 100 yards a game on the same team...rushed for 896 yards in 1980...in the 1980 Holiday Bowl game, was the co-MVP with Brigham Young QB Jim McMahon (now with the Chicago Bears) as he rushed for 225 yards on 23 carries and scored three TDs.

PERSONAL: Married, he and wife, Marilyn, have a baby daughter, Jessica (21 months) and are expecting another...earned degree in history...worked in commercial real estate and as land brokerage in off-season...hobbies; hunting, golf...attended Stratford High School in Houston, TX where he was selected All-America, All-State, All-Greater Houston and All-District as team won state title...leading rusher in the history of Texas AAAA football for one season with 2,411 yards and 35 TDs...named to Texas Football Magazine as the Texas Schoolboy Player-of-the-Year...turned down professional baseball offer out of high school (from Philadelphia Phillies)...younger brother, Chris, is baseball player in Phillies system (outfield, at Portland AAA). He is on Phillies 40 man roster...full name is Jesse Craig James.

STANLEY MORGAN 86

TENNESSEE 9th year

DOB: 2-17-55 at Easley, SC

HOW ACQUIRED: D-1b, 1977 (25th)

PRO BOWL: 1980, 1981

PRO: It took him a while to get started in '84, having suffered a right hamstring pull that had Stanley miss the final two preseason games and most of the first four weeks, but he came on strong and had 38 catches for 709 yards, for an 18.7 average, with five TDs and a long catch of 76 yards...His average per catch led the team, and he was second in terms of passing yards, and fourth on the team in catches as well as TD passes...caught his first TD pass the 4th week of the season (at NY Jets on 10-28), a 43-yarder from Eason...he had four 100-plus games,—three catches for 104 yards vs. Cincinnati (10-14), three catches for 114 yards vs. Miami (10-21), eight catches for 122 yards at Denver (11-4) and five catches for 101 yards at Philadelphia (12-9)...had 26 of his 38 passes come in six games...won game ball vs. Buffalo (five catches for 68 yards, 13.6 average) on 11-11...his eight catches at Denver, tied Derrick Ramsey for the team's single-game number of catches in '84...had back-to-back 100-yard games vs. Miami in Foxboro, and vs. Bengals in Foxboro, marking the fifth time in his career that he has had back-to-back 100-plus yard games—only two other Patriots have done it...has had 23 career 100-plus games...had team season high for yards in the air with his 122 at Denver, and in making his 76-yard catch vs., Miami for a TD, that was the team's longest pass of the season, and tied for 10th longest in the club's history...he has his name all over the Patriots' record book, with career catches (312, old record by Gino Cappelletti was 292; set with 4-yard catch vs. Buffalo 11-11 on second series)...He tied Gino for TD catches in a career with 42 (caught TD pass at Philly, a 12-yarder), and that is the only receiving club record that he does not hold by himself...worked harder during this off-season than ever before; bought a Jugs Machine that allowed him to go out for passes all day long, as long as he had someone to feed the machine...his best years as a pro have come under Raymond Berry (Berry was his receivers coach for four years), and many feel that combination will work well again...is the first Patriot to ever gain more than 6,000 receiving yards in a career (6,441 yards, with next closest at 5,001—Jim Colcough) with 18-yard catch on 2nd series at Denver...is the fifth top career scorer in team history with 258 points as Stanley has 43 TDs (42 via pass, one via the run)...Stanley became the Patriots' all-time leading reception yardage leader in '83...in the process of catching a single season club record 58 passes in '83, Stanley amassed 863 receiving yards in 1983 to raise his career total to 5,732 yards...that mark bettered the previous club record of 5,001 set by Jim Colclough during his Patriots' career from 1960-68...in catching 58 passes, Stanley broke Reggie Rucker's old club record of 53 receptions set in 1973...Stanley set the yardage on a 20-yard reception at Pittsburgh (9-25-83) and caught his club record 54th pass against the Rams in Anaheim (12-11-83)...in the 1983 season opener against the Colts (9-4-83), Stanley made his first reception of the year pay off as he hauled in a Steve Grogan aerial and raced for a 50-yard TD...in the Patriots' rematch with the Colts in Baltimore on 10-9-83, Stanley caught a personal career single game high of nine receptions...with 863 yards in 1983, Stanley led the Patriots in receiving for the fourth straight year...he also holds a unique NFL mark in that he is the only player to have averaged over 20.0 yards per catch in each of the six seasons from 1977-82...over the last five weeks of the '82 season, Stanley had four games in which he had 100 or more yards receiving...in a loss to Pittsburgh (12-26), he grabbed a 75-yard TD pass from Matt Cavanaugh, the longest of the year in the AFC, and had a total of four catches on the day for 127 yards...in six games played against the Baltimore Colts from 1978-80, Stanley riddled the Colts for 21 receptions, 507 yards, a 24.1 reception average and five TDs (75, 62, 56, 27 and 25 yards)...when he missed the opening game with a knee injury in 1981, it marked the end of a 62-game consecutive starting streak that began in his rookie year (1977)...Stanley ranks second to only Mike Haynes (1,159 yards, 103 returns for 11.3 avg.) on the club's all-time career punt return chart with 960 yards and a 10.43 average on 92 returns...in the first four games of 1980, Stanley had five TD receptions, including two (68 and 40 yards) at Seattle (9-21-80) and the game winner (45 yards) the following week against Denver (9-29)...his longest reception of '80 was a 71-yarder at San Francisco (11-30) that set up a TD...although he missed a Pro Bowl berth following the past two seasons, he played in the Pro Bowl following the 1979 and 1980 seasons, scoring the AFC's lone TD in a 21-7 loss to the NFC in his most recent Pro Bowl visit...in only his third pro campaign, he joined Harold Jackson (1,013 yards) in becoming the first Patriot to cross the 1,000-yard receiving plateau in a season when he had 1,002 yards on 44 receptions in 1979...his 12 receiving TDs that year led the league as did his 22.8 reception yard average...in a 50-21 thumping of Baltimore at Foxboro (11-18-79), Stanley returned a punt 80 yards for a TD, marking only the third time in club history that a punt was returned for a TD...his total TD production (13) in 1979 tied Steve Grogan's club mark of 13 set in 1976...in his second pro season (1978), he led the team with 820 yards receiving and was the team's top punt returner with 335 yards and 10.5-yard average on 32 returns...as a rookie, he returned in a stellar performance with 21 receptions (second on the club), the club's top reception average (21.1) and top punt return performance (16 for 220 yards and a 13.8 avg.)...his 13.8-yard punt return average was second best in the AFC that year...was named to the PFW all rookie team and was tabbed as Rookie-of-the-Year by the Patriots' 1976 Fan Club...the 25th player overall and the first wide receiver taken in the 1977 NFL draft, Stanley joined CB Ray Clayborn (16th player taken) as one of two Patriot first round choices that year.

COLLEGE: Received countless awards after four year career with the Vols...played three different positions — WR, RB and WB...accounted for 4,713 yards while a collegian, averaging 9.2 yards every time he touched the ball.

PERSONAL: Married (Rholedia)...father of two daughters, Sanitra Nikole (9) and Monique (4)...received a B.S. in Education from Tennessee in 1979...spent four offseasons working for Industrial National (Fleet) Bank in Providence, RI...spent the most recent offseason in his new home in Memphis.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1977-14/14, 1978-16/16, 1979-16/16, 1980-16/16, 1981-13/13, 1982-9/9. (Started 62 consecutive games in first four years of career before missing first two games of 1981 with a left knee sprain), 1983-16/16, 1984-13/12, Total: 113/112.

DOUG ROGERS 65

DE 6-5 280

STANFORD 4th year

DOB: 6-23-60 at Chico, CA

HOW ACQUIRED: W-Atl., 1983

PRO: Doug had injuries to shoulder as well as foot areas to cut down on his playing time in 1984... he was used mainly in pass rush role in passing situations in which the Patriots went to a four-man front... when Toby Williams suffered a sprained knee vs. the NY Jets (9-30), he and Julius Adams split the playing time at DE; Doug recorded a sack in that contest... But he also hurt his foot in that Jets game and the injury seemed to get worse as season went on... he finished the season with six solos, five assists, two sacks for 16 yards, had seven QB pressures, (3 at Denver on 11-4) in playing 274 plays... he was only able to play in 12 of the 16 games due to the injury... he had foot operated on in mid-May— bone fused done on foot — and could miss several weeks of the season due to the injury... was claimed on waivers on 9-14-83 to help shore up injury-riddled defensive line... saw spot duty on defense and was a special teams contributor in 10 games played with the Patriots in '83... he had a big day in Patriots' 28-23 win over the Steelers when he assisted on a Cliff Stoudt sack on the Steelers' final drive of the game to help halt a potential game-winning drive.

COLLEGE: Started all four years at Stanford, with first two years at nose guard.. won Outstanding Freshman Trophy for his team... selected All-Pac 10 and All-West Coast 2nd team as senior... also played in Blue-Gray, Senior and East-West Shrine all-star games.

PERSONAL: Single... graduated with degree in communications, with minor in sociology... enjoys public speaking and spends much of his spare time during the season and in the offseason doing work for the Mormon Church... hobbies: skiing, racquetball, softball and training his dog, Eli... also enjoys weight-lifting; he put on 10 pounds during the off-season to bring his weight to 280 pounds... is a graduate of Highland High School in Bakersfield, CA, where he took part in four sports—basketball, baseball, track and football... he was all-city in basketball, baseball and football... he was an outstanding baseball pitcher, recording 14 wins in one season for All-City honors one season... as 240 pound junior, he high jumped 6-feet, 3-inches... spends offseason in Bakersfield, CA.

RICK SANFORD 25

FS 6-1 192

SOUTH CAROLINA 7th year

DOB: 1-9-57 at Rock Hill, SC

HOW ACQUIRED: D-1, 1979 (25th)

PRO: Started the first five games, and two of the last three at free safety position...shared the free safety position with Fred Marion the second half of '84...had 31 solos, 45 assists, two interceptions, five pass deflections in playing 698 plays...has 16 career interceptions (for 198 yards) to tie for eighth best in the franchise history...has lowest body fat on team—has a marathon runner's body—with just 7.4 per cent body fat (like a marathon runner's body)...says Raymond Berry: "Rick is probably one of the best workers we have on our team. He has the ideal size and speed for a safety."...moving from strong to free safety at the start of the 1982 season, Rick has quickly become one of the most effective players at his post in the league...he grabbed seven interceptions in 1983 to rank third in the league and raised his career total to 14, tying Roland James and Steve Nelson for the 11th spot on the Patriots' all-time interception list...in wins over Pittsburgh (9-25-83) and Buffalo (11-6-83), he recorded two interceptions in both games...Rick also had a banner day in the Patriots' 37-21 win over San Diego (10-16-83)...he intercepted one Dan Fouts' pass and recovered a James Brooks' fumble that he returned 26 yards to the Charger one yard line to set up the go-ahead Patriots' TD...not only was Rick productive in the interception department, he also finished third on the team tackle chart with 42 initial hits and 90 assists...starting at free safety for his first season in 1982, Rick turned in 51 total tackles, two interceptions, two pass deflections and one fumble recovery...at Chicago (12-5-82), he picked off a Jim McMahon pass at his own one, and raced 99 yards for a club record interception return for a TD...that effort was also the longest of the year in the NFL and the fourth longest in league history...he also added one other interception in a 16-0 win at Seattle (12-19-82)...in 1981, he had a team high three fumble recoveries and recorded 45 initial hits and 38 assists while starting in 14 games at strong safety...before Mike Haynes ended his contract holdout, Rick started the first four games of 1980 in his place at RCB...after playing the next six games as the Patriots' fifth back, he won the starting role at SS for the final six games...while shifting around the secondary, he turned in 45 initial hits and six assists...against Baltimore (11-23-80) he returned a fumbled kickoff return for 22 yards and six points...only one year earlier (11-18-79) against the same team, he became the first Patriot in ten years (Roland Moss vs. Buffalo, 11-14-71), to take a blocked punt back for a TD...he accomplished the feat by blocking Bucky Dilt's punt and rambling eight yards for the score...had a sack on a safety blitz vs. Baltimore (11-23-80)...as the 25th player taken in the '79 draft, he found himself shoring up the injured Patriots' secondary in making four starts...he started one game in place of the injured Haynes at RCB while starting three more at SS...he was the Patriots' second leading KO returner in 1979 behind fellow rookie Allan Clark, returning 10 kickoffs for 179 yards...in the Patriots' 26-6 win at Buffalo (11-4-79), Rick took a lateral from Rod Shoate after Shoate intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass and he returned it 27 yards to help set up the Patriots' go ahead FG...in the Patriots-Bills rematch (11-25-79), he recorded his first pro interception, returning the stolen aerial 12 yards...on the year, he had 28 tackles.

COLLEGE: Rick had been the highest NFL draft pick in school history since Alex Hawkins (2nd round-1959) until George Rogers was the first player taken in the 1981 NFL Draft...was the top DB taken in 1979 draft...a consensus All-America, he was a three-year starter for the Gamecocks, and turned in 112 career tackles...had nine career interceptions for 112 yards.

PERSONAL: Married (wife: Sherri)...daughter Jaclyn (1)...received a B.S. in Physical Education from So. Carolina in 1980...has also completed some degree work there for a Masters in Education...now taking courses for entrance into chiropractic school...attends Northeastern Univ. during the offseason...a versatile athlete, he enjoys racquetball, tennis, basketball and golf...one of the more active Patriots in the Special Olympics program, he served as Chairman of that charity's Deduct-A-Ski fundraising effort...was S. Carolina H.S. Athlete-of-the-Year in 1975...until he turned pro, Rick's parents never missed one of his athletic contests...they still travel from Rock Hill, SC to see three or four Patriot home games per season.

MOSI TATUPU 30

FB 6-0 227

USC 8th year

DOB: 4-26-55 at Pago Pago,
American Samoa

HOW ACQUIRED: D-8b, 1978 (215th)

PRO: Mosi is one of the Patriots' most popular and exciting players and has come of age over the last four seasons... entering his eighth season as a pro, and he has not had to miss a game while playing in all 16 games... was 2nd top rusher on team with 553 yards in 133 carries for a 4.2 average, with long jaunt of 20 yds... had 20 and one-yard TDs at Indy on 11-18... had 10-yard TD vs. Seattle on 9-16, and also had one-yarder in that game... co-captain of special teams... won game ball vs. Indy on 12-16 for special teams play (with Adams and Franklin)... was voted second alternate to the Pro Bowl team... was selected as the Patriots' Miller Lite Man-of-the-Year... has never missed a game as a pro, and kept that streak intact, despite suffering hamstring injury for Buffalo game in Foxboro on 11-11... Mosi's Mooses sold painters' hats and T-shirts at home games, and gave the American Cancer Society $5,000 check at end of season... started four games—at Cleveland (10-7, 83 yards in 20 carries), Cincinnati (10-14, 93 yards in 22 carries), Miami (10-21) and Jets (10-28)... had 93 yards in 22 carries for 4.2 average for his best outing of season, and also had 83 yards in 20 carries for a 4.2 average in game at Cleveland (10-7) and had 90 yards in 20 carries for a 4.5 average vs. Miami (10-21) in Foxboro... might very well have lost his starting RB spot because coaches felt he was too valuable to be taken off special teams... Mosi won a team leading six game balls for his outstanding offensive and special teams play in '83... the Patriots' second leading rusher with 578 yards and four TDs in '83, Mosi had the NFL's top rushing average of 5.5 yards per tote... late in the season, he led the Patriots to important back-to-back victories over New Orleans and the LA Rams... despite a snow covered field, Mosi turned in the best rushing day of his career, gaining 128 yards on 21 carries as the Patriots blanked the Saints, 7-0 (12-4-83)... a week later in Anaheim, he tied a club record by rushing for three TDs in a 21-7 win over the Rams... from 1981-83, Mosi has rushed for 947 yards on 174 carries and an incredible 5.44 rushing average... he made the second start of his career in the 1983 season finale at Seattle... when he wasn't pounding away yards on the ground, he was nailing opposing kick returners by turning in a total of 22 special teams tackles... in both 1981 and 1982, he turned in 14 special teams tackles... in 1982, he was the Patriots' third leading rusher with 168 yards on 30 carries to average 5.6 yards a carry... while everyone except he and Mark van Eeghen were slipping and sliding on a snow covered turf at Foxboro on 12-12-82, Mosi used his low center of gravity and bullish power to plow through the Dolphins for a 81 yards on 13 carries... in that 3-0 Patriot upset victory, Mosi even managed a 26-yard run despite almost impossible conditions... against Houston (10-18-81), he made his first pro start and ran six times for 64 yards, including a 43-yard jaunt in which he broke no less than seven tackles... in special teams play in '81, he registered eight tackles and four assists while he chipped in 14 solo tackles the year before... was the Patriots' fifth leading rusher in '80 with 97 yds. on 33 carries... in a 21-17 loss at San Francisco (11-30-80), he scored both of the Patriots' TDs, the first two of his pro career... also scored at New Orleans in the final minutes to seal a 38-27 Patriot win... while a FB in the famous I formation offense at USC, then Head Coach Johnny Robinson called Mosi "the best blocking back at USC since Sam Cunningham" ... had eight carries, including a 12-yarder, for 50 yards in Patriots 56-3 thrashing of the NY Jets on 9-9-79.

COLLEGE: Made four post-season bowl appearances while playing for the USC Trojans... recorded 1277 rushing yards and nine TDs on 223 career carries in addition to another 147 yards gained on 19 receptions while a collegian.

PERSONAL: Married (Linnea)... father of a daughter, Linnea Mosiula (6) and a son, Mosiula Mealoa (3)... spent offseason taking courses at Northeastern Univ. in speech... was honorary Chairman of the R.I. Special Olympics... has done a great deal of speaking with junior high and high school youngsters about the importance of getting an education and about self esteem... is presently becoming involved with Tufts University Veterinary and Wildlife clinics (he raises Pit Bull Terriers)... in spring of '85, conducted athletic/educational clinic for the Samoan Athletes in Action, aimed at the youth of America and Western Samoa (talks supported by Samoa's Dept. of Education)... owns shaved ice store called "The Snowin' Samoan's Hawaiian Style Shaved Ice Store"... Mosi contributes plenty of time to fundraising events and other activities for the Wrentham State School for the mentally handicapped...Mosi has the unusual hobby of raising Pit Bull Terriers and once helped the Rhode Island ASPCA raise $25,000 for a building campaign...the son of a former Samoan boxing champ, Mosi was raised in Hawaii and still ranks as one of the top schoolboy grididers in Hawaiian history.

ANDRE TIPPETT 56

LB 6-3 241

IOWA 4th year

DOB: 12-27-59 at Birmingham, AL

HOW ACQUIRED: D-2b, 1982 (41st)

PRO BOWL: 1985

PRO: In 1984, Andre broke team record for sacks in one season, with 18 and a half for 166.5 yards, with the old record being 13 and a half, set by DE Tony McGee in 1977 (broke that mark vs. St. Louis (12-2) which held Cards to a 2nd quarter FG)...he was named to the Pro Bowl, first time selected...he had banner year as was voted the best linebacker/defensive back in the AFC in a vote of the conference's running backs, quarterbacks and wide receivers...he was named Patriots' MVP by 1776 QB Club.. other honors: Football Digest all-star, Pro Football Weekly all-star, UPI All-AFC, NFL Films All-Pro and Pro Magazine All-AFC East...he was 2nd in NFL in quarterback sacks to Mark Gastineau of the Jets; Andre had 6 games in which he had 2 or more sacks in '84...Andre started all 16 games...had 108 tackles, 48 solos, 60 assists as was fourth on team in tackles...led team in QB pressures with 22; had two deflections and caused one fumble...in team opener at Buffalo (9-2), he made a tackle without wearing a helmet (helmet came off while he was rushing the QB) and later against the Bills (11-11), made a sack using one hand...vs. Seattle (9-16), put heavy pressure on Dave Krieg in 2nd quarter that caused QB to intentionally ground ball and thus taking his team out of FG range in 3rd and 7 situation on NE 25 yard line...at NY Jets (9-20), had two sacks for 12 yards, with sack on Jets' 2nd possession and on final possession, with latter potentially a game-tying drive...had seven tackles at Denver (11-4)...in final '84 game, vs. Colts (12-16), had sack on 2nd to last drive by Colts, and two plays later Indy missed FG attempt from 42 yards...says Raymond Berry: "Andre had one of the most outstanding years of any defensive player in the NFL last year. He makes the outstanding play each and every game. He's our main pass rusher."...in only his second season of '83, Andre earned the starting left outside linebacker spot and led the team in sacks with 8½ for -50½ yards...also played as a defensive end in four-man fronts...finished seventh on the team tackle chart with 86 total stops and second behind right outside linebacker Don Blackmon (10) with eight QB pressures...possibly the best game of '83 came in Patriots' 21-7 win over the LA Rams when he recorded six tackles, four assists, two QB sacks for -15 yards, one pass deflection, caused two fumbles and recovered one...his fumble recovery led to a Mosi Tatupu four-yard TD run...had an outstanding defensive effort in Patriots' 23-13 victory over the NY Jets (9-18-83)...on one series, he forced then Jet QB Richard Todd to throw away a pass through the endzone, then batted down a sure TD reception in the back of the endzone and on the next play sacked Todd for a 11-yard loss...that sequence occurred when the Jets had a first and goal at the Patriots' seven yardline in the fourth quarter...finished the day with seven total tackles, one sack and two QB pressures...was named NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Week by

Pro Football Weekly and ESPN for his efforts...missed New Orleans game (12-4-83) with an ankle injury, but returned the following week against the Rams...Andre played in all nine games with one start during his rookie campaign...was the first reserve OLB to come in and was a regular on special teams in '82...filled in for the injured Lary McGrew during the second half at Pittsburgh (12-26-82) and recorded eight tackles and two QB pressures...also had a stellar performance when he started for the injured McGrew in the Patriots' 30-19 victory over Buffalo (1-2-83)...in that game he was in on eight tackles and two QB pressures.

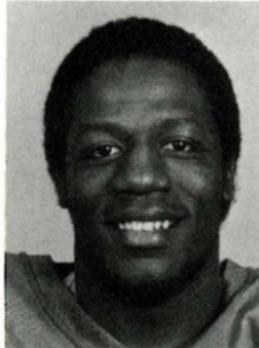

COLLEGE: Andre played as both a standup DE and OLB for the Hawkeyes, leading them to the Rose Bowl as a senior, the school's first appearance there since 1959...spent one year at Ellsworth (Iowa) J.C. before transferring to Iowa...started his junior and senior years while at Iowa...recorded 141 career tackles and 35 QB sacks with three interceptions and two fumble recoveries...his 20 tackles for 153 yards in losses as a junior was tops in the Big Ten...Coach Hayden Fry said Tippett had the best game he has ever seen by a DE when he recorded six solo tackles, three assists, two QB sacks and broke up four passes vs. Iowa St. his senior year...was an AP, UPI, NEA, Football Writers and Football News 1st Team All-America selection in '81.

PERSONAL: Married (wife: Renee)...daughter, Janea Lynn (1½)...a highly regarded athlete, Andre is a second degree black belt in karate...opened karate school in N. Attleboro, MA, in off-season...participated in numerous karate tournaments during the past off-season...is a member of the U.S.A. Karate Team...received his Brown Belt in Uechi-Ryu Karate-DO during 1984 off-season...lists target shooting, bowling and creative cooking among his favorite pastimes...was elected All-City and team captain in football, track and wrestling at Barringer High School in Newark, NJ.

RON WOOTEN 61

OG 6-4 273

NORTH CAROLINA 4th year

DOB: 6-28-59 at Bourne, MA

HOW ACQUIRED: D-6, 1981 (157th)

PRO: Ron worked well with Darryl Haley in first season of that left side combination in 1984...won award as top offensive lineman (annual Jim Lee Hunt Memorial Award) by 1776 club as selected by coaches...one of team's most unsung heroes...started in all 16 games in '84...banged up his knee vs. Cleveland (10-7), but played the entire game...he did not practice the week prior to the Cincinnati game (10-14), but started and played well that Sunday...he bruised ribs vs. Dallas (11-22), but missed only a few plays in 2nd quarter before going back into lineup...when Bob Cryder was slowed by an injury after two games in 1982, Ron moved into the starting role at right guard and has started all 23 games since then...already an effective performer, Ron uses great size and strength to improve with every game...since joining the Patriots as a sixth round pick in 1981, he has been one of the team's most active weight trainers and has added almost 20 lbs. to his playing weight...in the 1983 and 1982 seasons that Ron has started, the Patriots rushed for more yards (3,952) than any other NFL team...although he came to camp his rookie year as a sixth round pick, he quickly began to receive praise for his performance...however, a back injury forced him onto the injured reserve list on 8-31-81 where he spent the season.

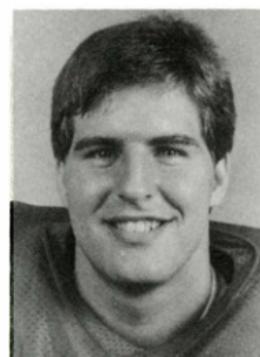

COLLEGE: Was the leading vote-getter of offensive linemen on the '80 All-ACC team...named on 114 of 122 ballots...teamed with center Rick Donnalley senior year to lead the Tar Heels awesome running attack (270 yds. per game)...was named to 1st Team All-ACC senior year.

PERSONAL: Married (wife: Ann)...daughter, Rachel Marie (1)...graduated in the Spring of 1982 from North Carolina with a degree in Chemistry...has spent the last couple of off-seasons working on an MBA at Boston University...enjoys bass fishing...his father is a former Air Force pilot and his brother Ray is an assistant football coach at Appalachian State University.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1981-On injured reserve entire season. 1982-9/7, 1983-16/16, 1984-16/16, Total: 41/39.

TREVOR MATICH 64

OC 6-4, 270

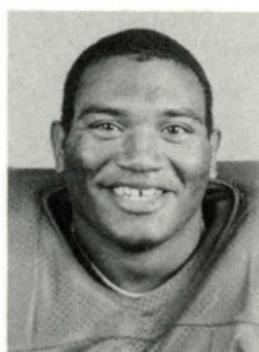

BRIGHAM YOUNG D-1 (28th)

DOB: 10-9-61 at Sacramento, CA

COLLEGE: Was 1st player taken in draft by the Patriots, was taken as the 28th player in the 1985 NFL draft... BYU went 47-3 in his four years and won the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) each year... BYU finished 13-0 his senior year, and was ranked national champions; beat Michigan, 24-17, in the Holiday Bowl... BYU went 11-1 in 1983 and beat Missouri, 21-17 in Holiday Bowl; went 12-1 in 1980 and beat SMU in Holiday Bowl, 46-45 and went 11-1 in 1979, and lost to Indiana, 38-37 in Holiday Bowl that season... BYU has played in seven consecutive Holiday Bowl games... Trevor played in Senior Bowl game... was All-WAC as a senior as well as making 3rd team AP All-America and HM All-America in Football News... was center for some outstanding QBs at BYU—Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon, Steve Young and last year, Robbie Bosco (2nd in NCAA in passing efficiency and first in total offense)... one of the best centers ever to play at BYU... a smart and mature player, he was in charge of calling the blocking assignments for the line... a fine technician and pass blocker; knows how to use his hands and arms and how to use body position... runs well, is light on his feet... gives Patriots insurance for center Pete Brock, who did not play in the final four games of the 1984 season due to knee problems... is only the second center the Patriots have used a first round draft pick to get, with Brock being the other (second Patriot taken in first round in 1976)... can play tackle, and guard as well as center... is a fine longsnapper... one always willing to do what is necessary to get the job done, he has spent time since mid-May at Sullivan Stadium working on the weights to build his strength... would get himself mentally prepared for game the night before by buying peanut M and Ms, then lining up candy in all the defensive and offensive sets he might see the next day (Sports Illustrated Magazine used a color photo of Trevor with M and Ms spread out on a green carpet)... as junior in 1983, he shared the starting center position with Robert Anae (got tryout as free agent with Patriots in summer), but gained starting spot when Anae moved to guard in 1984.. missed 1981 and 1982 college football seasons, spending 18 months in Mexico on a Mormon mission (mission for LDS church) after his sophomore year; weighed 207 after the mission, having gone weighing 240 pounds (played at 242 as junior and 262 as senior by building himself up through weight-lifting)... lettered as a freshman and sophomore... had starting spot going into his sophomore season of 1980, but twisted his knee and lost position... in 1979, was captain of the BYU JV team for two games his freshman year, but then was called up the 3rd week to the varsity (weighed 217 his frosh season).

PERSONAL: Single... will work towards degree in speech communications during the off-season... a graduate of Rio Americano HS in Sacramento, CA, where he built himself up from a 5-6, skinny youngster to 6-4, 205 pounds as a senior to draw interest from such colleges as Cal-Berkeley, Arizona and BYU... team was a running team (just opposite of BYU style)... made all-conference, all-city, all-Northern California and nominated to some All-America teams as a senior... called his HS's off. line assignments; one of finest two-way players ever at his HS, he also played defensive tackle... lettered two years of wrestling as well as two years of HS football... 11 of his HS football teammates (his junior and-or senior years) got college scholarships... his dad, Tony, played college football at the University of San Francisco with such future NFL'ers as Ollie Matson and Gino Marchetti... brother, Dever, last winter led Rio Americano (with 15 point average) to Northern California basketball title and was picked MVP of the conference as well as all-Northern Conference; 6-5er was poked in both eyes during a game and both retinas were torn, almost dying from shock. Three weeks later, he was back on the court, able to play. He now has 20/16 vision and wears goggles when plays; is now in junior college... hobbies: fishing, camping, was an accomplished singer and dancer (in HS, was member of group that toured parts of U.S., Mexico, the Caribbean and Canada; group also represented Sacramento in the Bicentinal Celebration)...enjoys speaking to youth groups.. one of four children; parents: Tony and Carol... has sister, Maran who sings for the San Diego Opera, and has sister Kresten who is on a vocal scholarship to BYU (going into her junior year). Kresten was the first runner-up at age 17 for the Miss Sacramento contest (she won the talent competition)... Mother, Carol, has a master's degree in nutrition from Oregon State... given name: Trevor Anthony Matich.

GARIN VERIS 60

DE 6-4, 255

STANFORD D-2a (48th)

DOB: 2-27-63 at Chillicothe, OH

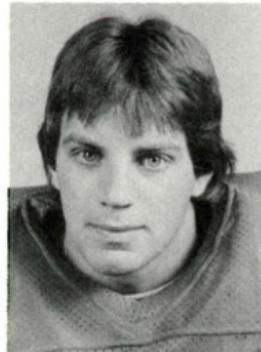

COLLEGE: Was 2nd player taken in draft by Patriots, was the 1st of three 2nd round draft picks by the Patriots; was 48th player taken in draft... began his career at TE, then moved to linebacker; worked at both DE and OLB the last three years... off field is soft-spoken , but a terror when he gets on field... has good up-field explosion, although only timed at 5.05 in 40—is much faster on game day... has been found to make tackles 25 yards downfield... improved his draft position by having outstanding Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine games; he was selected the MVP-defense in both all-star games... an active, agile player... played with both broken thumb and sprained ankle as senior... was 8th top tackler on team as senior, as teams ran away from him—led team in behind-line tackles with 11, in sacks with five... named HM AP All-America and UPI 2nd team All-America and 1st team All-Pac 10 in 1984...knows he has to work hard on weight lifting to add size, strength (feels he can add 10-15 pounds to frame)...named co-winner of annual Frank Rehm Memorial Award, presented to outstanding back and outstanding lineman in the Big Game (Stanford-Cal-Berkeley game)...was named Pac-10's top defensive lineman in preseason poll by the league coaches going into his senior year, although he had never played a down as a defensive end prior to that time... Stanford had a 15-29 record in his years there—going 5-6 in both 1984 and 1982, 1-10 in 1983 and 4-7 in 1981...was central figure in Stanford switch from 3-4 defense of 1982 to 4-3 in 1983... made 2nd team All-Pac 10 as junior, making 71 tackles (44 solos), with 12 tackles for loss (high on team) and team high of seven sacks... best games as junior: vs. Oklahoma (10 tackles, seven unassisted, two tackles for loss), vs. Oregon State (12 tackles, nine unassisted, one tackle for loss and one sack), vs. UCLA (nine tackles, four unassisted, one tackle for loss, one and a half sacks) and vs. San Jose State (nine tackles, seven unassisted, two tackles for loss , one pass breakup)... as soph., was 6th top tackler on team with 30 solos and 74 total... led team in both sacks (9) and fumble recoveries (tied at 2)... had three pass deflections... as frosh, had 36 tackles,despite getting nagging shoulder bruise mid-way through year (best game: vs. Oregon with 10 tackles, two sacks, fumble recovery)...in first college game (at Purdue), played both ways, with 16 plays on defense as backup OLB and 6-8 offensive plays (at TE) in short yardage, goal-line situations...played one game of junior year as TE vs. Oregon in secret formation, but was hurt on 2nd series in making tackle after interception.

PERSONAL: Single... will work towards degree in political science during off-season... attended Chillicothe, Ohio where named Parade, Football News and National Coaches All-America honors..., as senior, despite missing the first four games with a broken ankle, caught 16 passes for 276 yards with two TDs; made 61 tackles from DE ...named district Lineman-of-the-Year... invited to play in annual Ohio North-South all-star game... as junior and senior, was an All-America in track (shot put and discus) as well, with best of 64'-8 $\frac{3}{4}$ " in the shot and 191'-4" in the discus... in basketball, averaged 17.5 points/19 rebounds a game and selected first team all-state center... voted his area's Player-of-Year and MVP of Ohio North-South all-star game... also played baseball in HS (as pitcher-third baseman)... selected Stanford over Ohio State, although OSU only 45 min. south of hometown and a school he had grown up watching (Stanford would let him compete in track, OSU frowned on it)... hobbies: traveling, sports... given name: Garin Lee Veris... parents: Larry and Judith.

BEN THOMAS 99

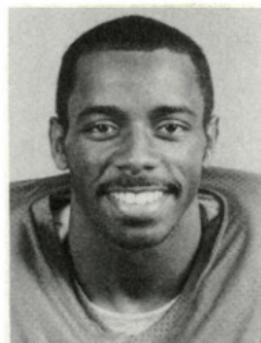

DE 6-4, 280
AUBURN D-2c (56th)
DOB: 7-2-61 at Ashburn, GA

COLLEGE: Was 4th player taken in draft by Patriots, was the Patriots' 3rd of three picks of the 2nd round, and was the 56th player taken overall... Patriots gained him through draft day trade with San Francisco 49ers for additional 2nd round pick (Patriots gave up their 1st and 3rd picks for 49ers' 1st, 2nd and 3rd picks)... played in the shadow of his more-heralded teammates Doug Smith and Donnie Humphrey in 1983, but became the top man in 1984... Auburn went 34-14 in his four years— team went 5-6-0 his frosh year of 1981, went 9-3-0 in 1982 (beat BC, 33-26 in Tangerine Bowl), went 11-1 to win SEC in 1983 (and beat Michigan, 9-7, in the Sugar Bowl) and went 9-4 his senior year (beat Arkansas in the Liberty Bowl)... led team as senior with record 141 tackles (Humphrey had previous high of 125 in 1981), and also led in tackles behind line of scrimmage with 11 and 3 QB sacks... don't let the 3 sacks fool you because team played the run on defense, not the pass... is very mobile, has fine upper-body strength that allows him to dominate line of scrimmage vs. run... considered an extremely hard worker and is very intense player... was three-year letterman in college... has fine athletic ability; is very mobile... one of strongest linemen ever at Auburn; very physical player... as senior, named AP All-Southeastern Conference (SEC)... had 66 solo tackles, 75 assists as senior... had best game vs. Alabama with 19 tackles; also had 15 tackles vs. Georgia... nicknamed "Gentle Ben" in college because he was such a nice guy off the field, and so hard-nosed on the field... can be as good as he wants to be, and he wants to be a great one... as junior, was 4th top tackler on defensive line with 55, 31 of which were solo; best game was 15 tackles vs. Georgia... had six solo and three unassisted vs. Mississippi State and Southern Mississippi... made TD-saving play vs. Florida by tackling Gator QB from behind the line on a goal-line stand... in 1982, his sophomore year, had 67 tackles (35 solo, 32 assists), as started at DT through season... as frosh, had outstanding year with 27 tackles (14 solos) in playing NG and DT; also had one QB sack and four tackles behind line... best game in '81: 5 tackles vs. Georgia and Alabama... specialized in short-yardage situations as frosh; made great plays on 4th and inches to stop Nebraska and Florida drives with latter proving the difference in 14-12 Auburn win.

PERSONAL: Single... will work towards degree in education during the off-season... was a three-year starter at DT at Turner County, HS in Ashburn, GA... selected all-state and all-region as a senior... was starter on offensive and defensive lines as junior, senior... one of four children (four boys) ...hobbies: basketball, softball and horseback riding... given name: Benjamin Thomas, Jr.... parents: Benjamin and Blanch.

PATRIOTS IN OVERTIME

Since the NFL adopted the overtime format in 1976, the Patriots have never won in seven regular season overtime appearances. Their most recent overtime loss came on opening day of 1983 when they fell to Baltimore, 29-23 at Foxboro on September 4th. In seven overtime contests, the Patriots have lost all six games, including three in a row by an identical 16-13 score. In the six overtime games played during the regular season, the Patriots have won the coin toss four times and lost it three times. In two of the three games when the Patriots have lost the coin toss, the opposition has scored the winning points without the Patriots gaining possession. In preseason play, the Patriots are 3-1 in overtime games.

REGULAR SEASON OPPONENTS

BUFFALO

SEPT. 22—AT BUFFALO

AFC EAST: 2-14-0 (5th Place)

Head Coach: Kay Stevenson (3rd year, 10-22)

PR: L. Budd Thalman (Dave Senko)

Phone: (716) 648-1800

Series Notes: PATRIOTS LEAD SERIES, 25-23-1: The Patriots scored on the 2nd play of the season as Stephen Starring pulled in a 65-yarder from Steve Grogan as the Patriots beat the host Bills on 9-2-84. The Patriots scored 3 of the first 5 times they got the ball, but had to hold off the Bills in the 2nd half as Buffalo outscored New England, 14-0 in the 2nd stanza. Grogan went 7 of 12 in the 1st half. The Patriots were able to kill the clock when Grogan found Cedric Jones on a 3rd and 3 situation, a 10-yarder with 1:49 left. In the meeting in Foxboro (11-11-84), the Patriots outscored the Bills, 28-3 in the 2nd half to win, 38-10. Tony Collins had two one-yard TD plunges and CB Ronnie Lippett had 2 interceptions, his 1st as a pro. The Bills were scoreless in their last 9 series...in 1983, the Patriots also swept, 31-0 (10-23-83) and then winning, 21-7 on 11-6-83, as the Patriots' defense held the Bills to 263 total net yards...over the years, there have been quite a few high-scoring games with an average of 41.3 points scored each game...76 points were the most scored in a game between the two original AFC franchises, with the Bills winning that, 45-31 on 11-23-75. There were 914 total yards in that one.

OCT. 13—AT FOXBORO

CHICAGO

SEPT. 15—AT CHICAGO

NFC CENTRAL: 10-6-0 (1st Place)

Head Coach: Mike Ditka (4th year, 21-20, 1-1 post-season)

PR: Ken Valdiserri (Bryan Harlan)

Phone: (312) 295-6600

Series Notes: PATRIOTS LEAD SERIES, 2-1... The last meeting between the teams came in 1982, with the Bears winning, 26-13 in Chicago (12-5-82). The Bears controlled the game and held a 23-0 lead until Steve Grogan vaulted over from the one with less than a minute left in the first half. In the 2nd half, FS Rick Sanford picked off a Jim McMahon pass and went 99 yards for a TD to close the lead to 23-13. Sanford's runback marked the longest in the club's history, bettering Bob Suci's 98 yarder in 1963. On the next series, the Patriots drove to the Bears' 17, but their comeback was stifled when Terry Schmidt intercepted a Grogan to Stanley Morgan pass attempt in the endzone. Schmidt later picked off another pass intended for Morgan ...in 1979, The Patriots won, 27-7 in Chicago, with John Smith having FGs of 21 and 29 yards and the Bears held to just five first downs (73 yards rushing). The Patriots picked off two interceptions and recovered two Chicago fumbles. The game (10-14-79) saw the Patriots hold Walter Payton to 42 yards... in the only other regular season meeting, the Patriots recorded a 13-10 win in Chicago (10-21-73).

CINCINNATI

DEC. 22—AT FOXBORO

AFC CENTRAL: 8-8-0 (2nd Place)

Head Coach: Sam Wyche (2nd year, 5-11-0)

PR: Al Heim

Phone: (513) 621-3550

Series Notes: PATRIOTS LEAD SERIES, 5-3... The Patriots beat the Bengals, 20-14 on 10-14-84 in Foxboro, with the Patriots shutting out the visitors in the 2nd half. Patriots' QB Eason ran for TDs of 13 and 25 yards in the 2nd half. The Bengals scored on their 1st and 3rd possessions, and missed FGs of 37 and 35 yards on their 2nd and 4th series... In their last visit to Riverfront Stadium on (9-16-79), the Patriots won, 20-14. The Patriots dominated the early matchups by sweeping the first two confrontations, 33-14 and 25-14 in 1968 and 1969, in that order. The Patriots have been outscored in the series, 152-112, thanks mainly to the Bengals winning the 1970 and 1972 meetings, 45-7 and 31-7, with the former coming in Cincinnati.

CLEVELAND

OCT. 6—AT CLEVELAND

AFC CENTRAL: 5-11-0 (3rd Place)

Head Coach: Marty Schootenheimer (2nd year, 4-4)

PR: Kevin Byrne (Chuck Fisher)

Phone: (216) 696-5555

Series Notes: BROWNS LEAD THE SERIES, 5-2... Veteran Ray Clayborn intercepted his 18th career opposition pass and his first in two and a half years in allowing the Patriots to down the host Browns, 17-16, on 10-7-84. The pickoff came with just seconds remaining and the Browns within FG range, but Clayborn ruined things with his 85 yard pickoff. Mosi Tatupu had 83 yards on 20 carries in only his 3rd pro start. Tony Collins had a 2-yard run in the 4th, the first TD run vs. the Browns in the season. WR Stephen Starring caught a 42 yard fancy-dan pass from Tatupu to Eason and then to Starring. PK Matt Bahr had FGs of 24, 48 and 27 yards for the Browns...on 11-20-83, the Browns picked off five Patriots passes in winning, 30-0 in Foxboro. Mike Pruitt led the way with 136 yards rushing and one TD, and Bahr had 3 FGs. In the lone previous Patriots' win over the Browns (9-7-80), Grogan tossed for 277 yards and 3 TDs and Stanley Morgan had 102 yards receiving (including a 67-yard TD) in the 34-17 verdict in Foxboro...Prior to that, the Browns had won 3 straight, including a 30-27 OT win at Cleveland on a Monday Night (9-26-77).

DETROIT

DEC. 8—AT FOXBORO

NFC CENTRAL: 4-11-1 (4th Place)

Head Coach: Darryl Rogers (1st year)

PR: George Heddleston (Bill Keenist, Tim Pendell)

Phone: (313) 335-4131

Series Notes: DETROIT LEADS THE SERIES, 2-1... The last contest between the clubs came on 10-7-79 in Foxboro. The Patriots won that game, 24-17 behind some sturdy defense. The Patriots had a TD (6 yard pass from Tom Owens to Don Calhoun) and a field goal (29 yarder by John Smith) in the last five minutes to gain the win. Calhoun had also scored on a two-yarder in the 14-point second quarter for the Patriots. The Patriots—with 93 yards on 20 carries from Sam Cunningham—had 140 yards rushing compared to just 55 for the Lions. FS Ricky Sanford set up the two-yard Calhoun TD by recovering a fumble. Smith's 29-yard field goal came with 1:13 remaining ... in 1976, (10-10-76), the Patriots lost in Pontiac Stadium, 30-10, as the Patriots were outrushed 196-96. The visitors gave up five interceptions...Detroit won the other game, 34-7 in 1971 played the first year of then-Schafer Stadium.

GREEN BAY

SEPT. 8—AT FOXBORO

NFC CENTRAL: 8-8-0 (2nd Place)

Head Coach: Forrest Gregg (2nd year, 8-8-0)

(3 years, 18-23 at Cleveland)

(4 years, 32-25, 2-2 post-season at Cincinnati)

PR: Lee Remmel (Scott Berchtold)

Phone: (414) 494-2351

Series Notes: SERIES TIED AT 1-1... The last time the Packers came to New England was on 11-18-73. The Patriots won that game, 33-24 by outscoring the Packers, 14-0 in the final quarter. WR Reggie Rucker caught a 63 yard TD pass from Jim Plunkett and later in the quarter, Plunkett went over from the one yard line. The patriots had the final four scores of the game, with a 28 yard TD pass from Plunkett to TE Bob Windsor in the 3rd quarter, followed by an 18 yard field goal by PK Jeff White, also in the 3rd... in the other meeting, the Packers won, 27-14, (10-1-79). The Patriots had their points come on a 27-yarder from Grogan to TE Russ Francis to start the scoring in the game. They also hooked up for a six yard TD, with the TDs coming in the first half.

INDIANAPOLIS

NOV. 10—AT FOXBORO

DEC. 1—AT INDIANAPOLIS

AFC EAST: 4-12-0 (4th Place)

Head Coach: Rod Dowhower (1st year)

PR: Bob Eller (Craig Kelley)

Phone: (317) 253-2658

Series Notes: COLTS LEAD SERIES, 15-14... The Patriots swept the Colts in '84, beating them 50-17 in the Patriots' first visit to Indianapolis. In that game, Eason went 29 of 42 for 291 yards, with 4 TDs and no interceptions. Eason, who had 3 TDs to H-B Derrick Ramsey (4, 25, 26, all in the 1st half), broke his previous high of 28 completions, and it was his 4th straight week of 21 or more completions... in the season finale in Foxboro, the Patriots won, 16-10, after holding a 13-0 halftime lead. Tony Franklin had FGs of 21, 34, and 36 yards, getting his 102nd career. DE Julius Adams blocked a 42-yard FG attempt with 8:45 left and the score at 13-10, before Franklin's 36 yd FG with 3:56 left gave the Patriots breathing room... The Colts swept in '83, an overtime win of 29-23 (9-4-83) in Foxboro and a 12-7 win in Baltimore (10-9-83)...in the OT loss, Patriots' RB Tony Collins fumbled after being hit by Colts' LB Johnnie Cook, and Vernon Maxwell went 52 yards for the win, just 30 seconds into OT... the next meeting had a 52-yard FG by Allegre and a Donnell Thompson sack of Patriots' QB Steve Grogan in the endzone for a safety providing the points for the Colts' win... WR Stanley Morgan had 9 catches for 136 yards in that game... the series started on 10-4-70 with the Colts winning 14-6 at Harvard Stadium.

LA RAIDERS

SEPT. 29—AT FOXBORO

AFC WEST: 11-5-0 (3rd Place)

Head Coach: Tom Flores (7th year, 58-31, 8-2 post-season)

PR: Tom Grimes (Al LoCasale)

Phone: (213) 322-3451

Series Notes: PATRIOTS LEAD THE SERIES, 11-10-1... The Raiders had their last junket to Foxboro on 11-1-81, and they came away holding a 27-14 win. The Patriots had held a 17-13 lead after Sam Cunningham scored a TD 5:39 into the 3rd quarter, but Cliff Branch caught a 14 yard TD from Marc Wilson 7:01 into the 4th, and DE Willie Jones returned a QB fumble nine yards for a TD with 1:22 left to secure the Raiders win. The Patriots were outrushed, 185-77. Derrick Ramsey had six catches for 66 yards for the Raiders... That 1981 game was Tom Flores' first regular season game against the Patriots... the first time the teams met was on 10-16-60 when the Raiders posted a 27-14 win over the then-Boston Patriots in a game played at Kezar Stadium (in San Francisco). The Patriots have won two out of the last three regular season games they have played the Raiders—a 21-14 win at Oakland on 9-24-78 and a 48-17 win here in Foxboro on 10-10-76.

MIAMI

NOV. 3—AT FOXBORO

AFC EAST: 14-2-0 (1st Place)

Head Coach: Don Shula (16th year, Miami, 156-59-2; 13-9 post-season)
(7 years, Baltimore, 71-23-4; 2-3 post-season)

PR: Chip Namias Phone: (305) 576-1000

Series Notes: DOLPHINS LEAD, 23-13... The Dolphins won both games in '84, 28-7 at the Orange Bowl on 9-9-84 (17th loss in row in Orange Bowl by Patriots) and 44-24 in Foxboro on 10-21-84. ...in the first game, the Dolphins scored the first 2 times they had the ball, and used four Patriots interceptions and a lost fumble in copping the win. The Dolphins were held to 74 yards rushing but Dan Marino hit on 16 of 27 passes for 234 yards and 2 TDs... in the 2nd meeting, played before an SRO crowd, the Dolphins had 552 total net yards and the Patriots 408. Miami made good on 10 of 13 3rd down tries as Marino went 24 of 39 passes for 316 yards. The Patriots came as close as 6 pts. (30-24 at 3:33 into the 4th Qtr.), but the Dolphins then scored on a 6-play, 66-yard drive. Stanley Morgan had a 76 yard TD catch from Eason... in 1983, the teams split with the Patriots winning, 17-16 (on 11-13), holding Miami to 81 yards rushing, 141 passing, and two Uwe Von Schamann FGs; the Patriots had 224 yards rushing as Mosi Tatupu had 95 yards on the ground, including a 55 yard jaunt to the 2-yard line in the 4th Qtr....at the Orange Bowl (9-11-83), the Dolphins won, 34-24, with the Patriots coming through with 21 points in the final quarter... The last Patriot win at the Orange Bowl was 20-14 in 1966.

NY JETS

OCT. 20—AT FOXBORO NOV. 24—AT EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.

AFC EAST: 7-9-0 (3rd Place)

Head Coach: Joe Walton (3rd year, 14-18)

PR: Frank Ramos (Ron Cohen) Phone: (212) 421-6600

Series Notes: JETS LEAD THE SERIES, 28-20-1... The Patriots swept the Jets in '84, 28-21 at the Meadowlands (9-30-84) as Eason completed 28 of 42 passes for 354 yards and 3 TDs, no interceptions. The 28 completions was a new Patriots' record (previous best was 25). Eason had gone into the game with "questionable" status with a sprained ankle. Another record was set in the game, with 10 different receivers catching passes... in celebrating their 25th anniversary and welcoming Raymond Berry as the head coach, the Patriots came from a 20-3 deficit to beat the Jets, 30-20 (10-28-84). It was the Patriots' 6th win, and their 5th come-back win of the season. Craig James had 79 yards on 10 carries, including a 25-yarder. Tony Franklin had FGs of 20, 27, and 47 yards, making him successful on his last 7 tries... in 1983, (9-18-83), Tony Collins set a club record when he ran for 212 yards and recorded three TDs... in the team's second meeting of the '83 season (11-27-83), the tables turned as the Jets walked away with a 26-3 triumph. In that one, Jets QB Richard Todd hit on 22 of 36 passes for 305 yards and had TD passes of 64 and 8 yards to Wesley Walker... when the Patriots won 56-3 (9-9-79) and 55-21 (10-29-78), they marked the most points scored in a game by a Patriot team... in the first game, Grogan fired 5 TDs and had 315 yards through the air without an interception... in the 1978 game, Grogan had 4 TD passes, once again without an interception.

SEATTLE

NOV. 17—AT SEATTLE

AFC WEST: 12-4-0 (2nd Place)

Head Coach: Chuck Knox (3rd year, 21-11, 3-2 post-season)

(5 years, Buffalo, 37-36, 1-2 post-season)

(5 years, Rams, 54-15-1, 3-5 post-season)

PR: Gary Wright (Dave Neubert) Phone: (206) 827-9777

Series Notes: PATRIOTS LEAD SERIES, 4-1... In the '84 home opener, the Patriots had their greatest comeback victory ever, beating Seattle, 38-23, after being behind 23-0 midway through the 2nd period... Tony Eason led the way, galloping for a 25 yard TD in the 2nd quarter, and then hitting on 12 of 22 passes for 126 yards, including TD passes of 2 yards (Derrick Ramsey) and 15 yards (Irving Fryar) in winning the starting job the rest of the season... in the '83 finale, the host Seahawks beat the Patriots for the first time ever, 24-6, with Seattle's Steve Largent spearheading things with 7 catches for 133 yards and a TD... In that same game, Seahawk's rookie sensation, RB Curt Warner, ran for 116 yards and DE Jacob Green sacked Patriots' rookie QB Eason three times for 29 total yards in losses... The Patriots dominated earlier meetings between the clubs... in 1980, Patriots WR Stanley Morgan grabbed 4 Steve Grogan passes for 135 yards, as the Patriots beat Seattle, 30-23, in the Kingdome... in a matchup in Foxboro (on 10-9-77), the Patriots kicked off the series by shutting out Seattle, 31-0, with the Patriots' defense giving up only 166 total yards (95 yds rushing, 5 of 23 passing for 71 yds, 4 int.)... that game was the first of two shutouts the Patriots have recorded vs. Seattle, with the other coming by a 16-0 score (on 12-19-82).

TAMPA BAY

OCT. 27—AT TAMPA BAY

NFC CENTRAL: 6-10-0 (3rd Place)

Head Coach: Leeman Bennett (1st year at Tampa Bay)

(6 years, Atlanta, 46-41; 1-3 post-season)

PR: Rick Odioso (John Gerdes) Phone: (813) 870-2700

Series Notes: PATRIOTS LEAD SERIES, 1-0... The Patriots won that only meeting, 31-14 at Tampa Bay on 12-12-76, as the Patriots ended that season with an 11-3 record. The Patriots outrushed Tampa Bay, 206-135, with Andy Johnson leading the way for the Patriots with 127 yards in 14 carries (9.1 ave.), with a long of 69. He also had a nine-yard TD. The Patriots were losing, 14-7 at the half, but outscored the opposition, 24-0 in the 2nd half (14-0 in the 4th quarter). All 12 first downs by the Patriots came via the rush (260 of the 300 total net yards the Patriots had in the game were on the ground).

1984 GAME BY GAME REVIEW

Patriots 21, Buffalo 17

Buffalo, Sept. 2, 1984 — Things went well right from the very start for the Patriots as they scored on the second play of the season—a 65 yard pass down the sideline from Steve Grogan to Stephen Starring. It came just 51 seconds into the game. The Patriots scored 3 of the first 5 times they had the ball. Grogan, who connected on 7 of 12 passes in the 1st half as the Patriots built up a 21-3 halftime lead, also had a 3-yard TD pass to H-back Derrick Ramsey in the 1st half. The Patriots' other TD came on a 4-yard run by Tony Collins in the 2nd quarter to cap a 8-play, 72-yard drive. Collins was the game's leading rusher with 83 yards in 21 carries. Mosi Tatupu was the only other running back the Patriots used in the game; he picked up 23 yards on 5 carries. The Bills scored on a 9-yard pass from Joe Ferguson to Tony Hunter at 10:56 into the final quarter to narrow the margin. But the Patriots were able to hold onto the ball the remainder of the contest, a 9-play series. The biggest play of the game-ending drive was a 10-yard pass from Grogan to Cedric Jones on a 3rd and 3 situation with 1:49 left. Standout inside linebacker Clayton Weishuhn was lost to the team for the remainder of the season with a knee injury, an injury suffered in the 3rd quarter.

Miami 28, Patriots 7

Miami, Sept. 9, 1984 — It was a nip-and-tuck kind of game the first half with the Dolphins getting on the scoreboard on a trick play, a 35-yarder from running back Jim Jensen to wide receiver Mark Duper 9:23 into the 2nd quarter. The Patriots knotted the score at 7-7 five minutes later when Steve Grogan connected with TE Lin Dawson for a 9-yard flare pass. The Dolphins, who intercepted 3 Patriots passes and recovered a fumble in the 2nd half, scored the first 2 times they had the ball after the intermission to take charge of the game. The Patriots' defense held the Dolphins to just 74 yards on the ground, but Dan Marino hit on 16 of 27 passes for 234 yards and had 2 TDs. In losing their 17th consecutive game at the Orange Bowl, the Patriots lost running back Robert Weathers with a knee injury suffered on special teams early in the 2nd quarter. He had to sit out most of the season with the injury.

Patriots 38, Seattle 23

Foxboro, Sept. 16, 1984 — In the greatest comeback in the 25-year history of the franchise, the Patriots came back from a 23-0 deficit to down the Seahawks in the season-opener for the Patriots. Second-year quarterback Tony Eason led the charge, coming in the 2nd quarter. He fired up the Patriots just before the intermission break by dashing 25 yards for a TD late in the first half. Eason, who finished the game connecting on 12 of 22 passes for 126 yards, had TD passes of 2-yards (to H-back Derrick Ramsey) and 15-yards (to top rookie Irving Fryar) in the second half. He won the starting QB spot for the rest of the season due to this contest. The Patriots had the ball 20:59 in the 2nd half compared to just 9:01 for Seattle. The Patriots scored 6 of the last 8 times they had the ball, including the last 3. Running back Tony Collins rumbled out 107 yards in 20 carries, his 8th career 100-plus game.

Washington 26, Patriots 10

Foxboro, Sept. 23, 1984 — Before a sold-out crowd of 60,956, the Redskins rushed for 235 yards while holding the Patriots to just 17 yards. In doing so, the Redskins had the ball 43:12 of the 60 minutes. John Riggins had 140 yards in 33 carries. Redskins QB Joe Theismann made good on 11 of 19 passes for 110 yards, with one TD and no interceptions. Washington was 6 for 15 in 3rd down efficiency and 2 for 2 on 4th down tries. Tony Eason was 21 of 31 for 254 yards in his 1st start of the season. The Patriots only ran the ball 11 times. The Redskins had an outstanding day as well from placekicker Mark Moseley who went 4 for 4 in field goals, hitting from 19, 42, 22 and 27 yards. The Redskins had drives that included 93 yards in 14 plays, 70 yards in 16 plays and 63 yards in 14 plays in churning out the clock.

Patriots 28, Jets 21

East Rutherford, Sept. 30, 1984 — Tony Eason had his finest day as a pro, with a record-setting performance of 28 completions (out of 42 passes for 354 yards, with 3 TDs and no interceptions). The previous club record for completions in a game was 25. Eason's 354 passing yards tied for the sixth best single-game outing, and marked the 1st 300-plus yardage game by a Patriot quarterback since November of 1981. It was the 18th time that a Patriot QB had thrown for more than 300 yards. In throwing 3 TD passes, Eason became the 1st Patriot QB in 21 regular-season games to do so. Eason had gone into the game with "questionable" status because of a sprained ankle he suffered on the final play vs. Washington. Another Patriot record was set as Eason completed passes to 10 different teammates. TE Lin Dawson and WR Stephen Starring each had 6 receptions. WR Stanley Morgan, who had to miss most of the action until this game due to a pulled hamstring that he suffered in the pre-season, caught his 1st pass of 1984, a 43-yard TD. The Jets were knocking on TD door in the final 3 minutes, but their drive was stalled (big play: a sack of 7 yards by Andre Tippett). The Patriots ran off the final 1:44; Mosi Tatupu assisted that drive on a 13-yard run on a 2nd and 3 situation.

Patriots 17, Cleveland 16

Cleveland, Oct. 7, 1984 — Veteran CB Raymond Clayborn picked off a Paul McDonald sideline pass in the closing seconds and returned it 85 yards to the 7 yard line to enable the Patriots to down the Browns. It was Clayborn's 18th career interception, tying him for the 5th spot in that item. It was also his 1st interception since the 1982 opener. The 85-yard runback was the 4th longest in team's history. The Patriot contained the Browns running backs to just 44 yards in 24 carries. In playing against one of the league's top defensive teams, the Patriots ran for 109 yards, led by Mosi Tatupu's 83 yards in 20 totes. It was only Tatupu's 3rd start in 95 professional contests. The Patriots had one TD on a flea flicker with Tatupu taking a handoff from Eason, back to Eason and to a wide open Starring for a 42 yarder. The Patriots had their other TD come on a 2-yard plunge by Tony Collins 50 seconds into the fourth quarter to end an 8-play, 52-yard drive. That TD rush by Collins was the 1st rushing TD vs. the Browns this year. PK Matt Bahr of the Browns had 3 FGs—24, 48 and 27 yards. The Browns could have won the game on a field goal in the closing seconds, but elected to try one more quick-out pass when Clayborn picked off the McDonald aerial.

Patriots 20, Cincinnati 14

Foxboro, Oct. 14, 1984 — The Patriots shutout the Bengals in the 2nd half in winning, 20-14. The Patriots had 255 total net yards in the 2nd half while the Bengals only had 92; in the first half, the Bengals had 217 total net yards and the Patriots 93. Tony Eason set a new Patriots record for passes thrown without an interception. He had 141 without a pickoff (old team record was 138), but Eason's string ended with a long-bomb pass on the final play of the 1st half. The Patriots were in arrears, 14-3, at the half, but then Eason had TD runs of 13 yards and 25 yards in the 2nd half to swing the momentum. Patriots PK Tony Franklin went 2 for 2 with field goals of 20 and 27 yards. Cincinnati had TDs on their 1st and 3rd possessions, and missed FGs on their 2nd and 4th (Jim Breech missed from 37 and 35 yards, his only attempts in the game). The Patriots lost 3rd-year nose tackle Lester Williams for the rest of the season with a forearm fracture.

Miami 44, Patriots 24

Foxboro, Oct. 21, 1984 — There was an SRO crowd — the second of the season for the Patriots — at Sullivan Stadium to watch the always-tough Miami Dolphins. And the fans got an eye-full as the Dolphins mustered 552 total net yards and the Patriots had 408. The Dolphins were successful on 10 of 13 3rd down tries. The Dolphins had 236 yards on the ground, with Joe Carter and Woody Bennett going for 92 and 80 yards, respectively, on 14 carries apiece. Dan Marino, the top-rated QB in the league, hit on 24 of 39 passes for 316 yards, with 4 TDs (19 yarder to Mark Clayton, 5 yarder to TE Dan Johnson, a 15 yarder to Clayton and a 15 yarder to Nat Moore). The Patriots were able to get as close as 6 points (30-24 at 3:33 into the 4th quarter when Tony Eason threw a 5-yard pass to H-back Derrick Ramsey), but the Dolphins went on a 6-play, 66-yard drive for a score themselves. The Patriots, who had scored the first two times the 2nd half, lost the ball on a fumble on their 3rd series at the Miami 17. Miami scored the last five times it had the ball, including all 4 times it had the ball in the 2nd half. Patriots punter Luke Prestridge set a new club record for longest punt in a game with an 89-yarder. It was the 4th longest punt in NFL history. Stanley Morgan had 114 yards on 3 catches for his 21st career 100-plus game (he had a TD catch of 76 yards).

Patriots 30, NY Jets 20

Foxboro, Oct. 28, 1984 — In Raymond Berry's first game as the head coach of the Patriots, and in a game that celebrated the team's 25th anniversary, the Patriots came back from a 20-3 deficit to beat the Jets. The Patriots have now come from behind in 5 of their 6 wins; they have now won 4 out of their last 5 games. Just like in the Seattle game, the Patriots shutout their opponent in the 2nd half, with New England coming through for interceptions the last 2 times the Jets had the ball (interceptions by LB Steve Nelson and SS Roland James). Tony Eason had another fine game, passing for 273 yards in going 23 of 35. He had completions to 9 different receivers. Rookie RB Craig James, who had seen only limited action after a fine preseason, ran for 79 yards on 10 carries. He had a 25 yard TD run to tie with Eason for the team's longest TD run of the year. All-pro OG John Hannah did not play — replaced by Guy Morris. Hannah was in the hospital with neck pains. Patriot punter Luke Prestridge had an 82-yarder, the 1st time ever in NFL history that a player has had 2 punts of 80-plus yards. Tony Franklin had field goals of 20, 27 and 47 yards, making him good on his last 7 attempts.

Denver 26, Patriots 19

Denver, Nov. 4, 1984 — Bronco strong safety Dennis Smith picked up a Mosi Tatupu fumble with 13:15 into the 4th quarter to enable the Broncos to down the Patriots, 26-19. the Patriots gained 484 total net yards (in 78 plays for a 6.2 average), with this total the 5th best one-game outing in the team's history. In making his first start as a Patriot, RB Craig James rushed for 120 yards in 20 carries. Tony Franklin had FGs of 30, 40, 47 and 19 to become the 1st Patriot since 1975 to kick 4 FGs in a game. Franklin, missed a 36 yarder in the contest to end a streak of 9 successful kicks, a new team mark. The Patriots' defense was Stellar, holding Denver to just 28 yards rushing (on 18 runs). The Broncos did not gain a 1st down via the run. Tony Eason had his 2nd 300-plus passing game of the year, having 313 yards in going 21 of 38. Denver's John Elway also threw for 300 yards (315) in a 26 for 40 game, with 3 TDs. All-pro punter Rich Camarillo made his 1st appearance of the year, having suffered a knee injury in the preseason.

Patriots 38, Buffalo 10

Foxboro, Nov. 11, 1984 — The Patriots came through with another fine 2nd half, this one vs. the winless Bills in coming away with a 38-10 verdict. The Patriots had 2 Tony Collins one-yard plunges in the 3rd quarter to grab the lead for good after the Bills had tied the game at 10-10 on a 34-yard FG by Chuck Nelson early in the 3rd. And in the 4th quarter, Eason had TD passes of 24 and 7 yards to Stanley Morgan and Cedric Jones, respectively. Morgan, who had 5 catches in the game for 68 yards, became the club's all-time leader with 297 receptions for 6,111 yards to break Gino Cappelletti's old mark. Eason was 23 for 34 for 227 yards. It marked the 3rd consecutive game that Eason had thrown for 20-plus completions (five of the eight games he has started). He has also thrown for more than 200 yards in 4 straight games and in 6 of his starts. The Patriots' secondary had an outstanding game, limiting Buffalo to 13 for 48 passing for 206 yards, with just one TD allowed and 3 interceptions. Second-year CB Ronnie Lippett had 2 interceptions, his first as a pro. The Bills, who were scoreless in their last 9 series, were sacked 8 times for 94 yards, with LB Andre Tippett and NT Luther Henson each having 2 sacks. The Patriots had the ball twice as long as the Bills in the 1st half (19:54 compared to 10:06).

Patriots 50, Indianapolis 17

Indianapolis, Nov. 18, 1984 — Tony Eason continued to look impressive, going 29 for 42 for 291 yards, with 4 TDs and no interceptions in a 50-17 decking of the Colts. With that outing, he established a new Patriots record for completions in one game, breaking his own record of 28 that he set vs. the NY Jets earlier this season. It was also the 4th straight week that he had completed 21 or more passes. Also, the 4TDs he threw were the most TD passes thrown by a Patriot QB since 1979. The Patriot passers (Eason and Mike Kerrigan) completed passes to 10 different players, tying a record set earlier in the year vs. the Jets. H-back Derrick Ramsey had 8 catches for 104 yards, his 1st 100-plus yard game as a Patriot, and his 2nd as a pro. He had 3 TD passes in the 1st half (on consecutive passes; of 4, 25 and 26 yards) to become the 1st Patriot ever to catch 3 TDs in a half. Stanley Morgan caught a 12-yard Eason aerial in the 3rd quarter, marking Morgan's 41st career TD. It is one away from the team record. PK Tony Franklin was 2 for 2 in FGs with a 28 and a 40-yarder, making him good on 14 of his last 15.

Dallas 20, Patriots 17

Dallas, Nov. 22, 1985 — Raphael Septien booted a 23-yard FG with 4 seconds remaining in regulations to give the Dallas Cowboys a 20-17 over the Patriots in a game played on national TV (on Thanksgiving). The Patriots had tied it at 17 with 1:58 remaining on a one-yard plunge by QB Tony Eason to finish off a 6-play, 65-yard drive. Craig James set up the game-tying TD with a 43 yard run on a draw play, a run that ended on the one yard line. James finished the game with 112 yards on 19 carries. The Patriots held Tony Dorsett to 49 yards (on 19 carries), and the Cowboys to 67 yards in 30 carries. The Patriots had trouble holding onto Eason's passes as numerous passes were dropped (he was 19 for 38 passes for 204 yards). The biggest problem, however, came in the area of pass protection as the Cowboys sacked Eason 11 times for 57 yards, tying a New England record. Patriots punter Rich Camarillo had to kick the ball 11 times (for a fine 43.5 average), tying a team record for times punting in a game. Veteran center Pete Brock was not able to play in the game due to a knee injury, and was replaced by Guy Morris. Brock was not able to get back into the lineup the rest of the season.

St. Louis 33, Patriots 10

Foxboro, Dec. 2, 1984 — The St. Louis Cardinals marched the opening kickoff 72-yards on 15 plays, and then several plays later, had linebacker Tom Howard pick up a fumble and bring it 29 yards for a TD to go out in front, 14-0, in beating the Patriots, 33-10. St. Louis went on to score 13 points in the 2nd quarter to grab a 27-3 halftime lead. The Patriots were held to 1 for 10 success in 3rd down situations. The Cardinals had 2 FGs from Neil O'Donoghue. The Patriots were held to 87 yards rushing, and only 2 first downs on the ground. The Cardinals ran for 220 yards and held onto the ball for 15 more minutes than the Patriots. In catching 4 passes (for 59 yards), H-back Derrick Ramsey broke Stanley Morgan's club record of 58 catches in one set in 1983. Ramsey, in his 1st full year with the Patriots, now has caught 59 passes for 693 yards. Quarterback Tony Eason set a new one-season pass completion record in going 16 for 32 for 191 yards. He has now completed 236, and the previous team record was 228. Outside linebacker Andre Tippett broke the club's one-season sack mark. He had one against the Cardinals, and now has 14 1/2, one more than the previous record. Special teams standout Paul Dombroski was lost for the remainder of the year with ligament damage.

Philadelphia 27, Patriots 17

Philadelphia, Dec. 9, 1984 — The Patriots were mathematically-eliminated from the playoffs as reserve quarterback Joe Pisarcik, starting in place of the injured Ron Jaworski, had TD runs of 1 and 3 yards. Pisarcik hit on 16 of 29 passes for 205 yards. Rookie Paul McFadden had field goals from 50 and 46 yards. The Patriots scored on a 9 yard TD pass from Tony Eason to Stanley Morgan, and a Cedric Jones fumble recovery in the endzone that brought the score to 20-17 12:04 into the 3rd quarter. The Eagles sealed the win when safety Wes Hopkins partially blocked a Rich Camarillo punt that traveled 1 yard to the Patriots 3 yard line. Three plays later, Pisarcik scored to make it the final score. In catching his TD pass, Morgan recorded his 42nd TD pass, tying him for the team's career TD reception mark.

Patriots 16, Indianapolis 10

Foxboro, Dec. 16, 1984 — The Patriots ended their year with a 16-10 verdict over the Indianapolis Colts. The Patriots jumped out to a 13-0 halftime lead, and held on for the victory. Tony Franklin had 3 field goals, from distances of 21,34 and 36 yards. Franklin tied the team record for FGs kicked in consecutive games with 11. Franklin now has 102 career FGs. Craig James was a workhorse with 30 carries for 138 yards as the Patriots had the ball almost twice as long as the Colts. Eason went to the air just 17 times, completing 11 for 123 yards. Veteran DE Julius Adams helped save the day for the Patriots by blocking a 42 yard field goal attempt with 8:45 remaining; the score was 13-10 at the time. Franklin had his 36 yard field goal with 3:56 remaining to give the Patriots more breathing room.

PATRIOTS ON MONDAY NIGHTS

Although the Patriots have been involved in many exciting games of the 12-year-old Monday Night Football Series, they have been less than successful on the nationally televised series. To date, the Patriots are 2-10 before the ABC-TV cameras. Their most recent Monday Night victory came on a 23-14 decision over the Denver Broncos at Foxboro on 9-29-80. The only other Patriot victory in the Monday Night Series was a 41-7 thrashing of the N.Y. Jets, again at Foxboro, on 10-18-76. Six of the Patriots' ten losses have been by seven points or less and three of those losses have come in overtime play. Last year, in their only Monday Night appearance, the Patriots dropped a 35-21 decision to the Dallas Cowboys at Foxboro on 9-21-81.

HOME TEAM IN CAPS

The Patriots have also lost a Thursday Night game by a 39-24 mark at Miami on 11-29-79, but won the first Sunday Night Edition of the ABC Monday Night Series, beating the Raiders at Oakland, 21-14, on 9-24-78.

In the 11 games played by the Patriots the week after a Monday Night Game, the Patriots are 6-5. Until the Patriots lost in overtime, 27-21 at Pittsburgh on 9-27-81 after losing to Dallas, 35-21 six days earlier, the Patriots had won five of their last six games played the week following a Monday night appearance.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a process by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other NFL Clubs. During this process, a club may make a claim to obtain the player or "waive" its right to do so — thus the term "waiver". Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based upon the inverse of won-lost standings. The claiming period is normally ten days during the offseason and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, a club is allowed another 24 hours to rescind its action (recall of waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as a withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed or not recalled, he becomes a free agent. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 15 any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

INJURED RESERVE: This is a reserve list category that may be used for the player by a club if the player is injured in a practice session or game of his club in any year, after having passed the club's physical examination in that year. If a player fails the club's initial physical examination, he is not available for reserve/injured; the club may instead use the procedure of Physically Unable to Perform or Non-Football Injury/Illness, whichever is applicable. If a player is physically unable to play football for a minimum of four games from the time he is placed upon reserve/injured, he may be re-activated by his club upon clearing procedural recall waivers. Also, each club is allowed five free reactivation moves each season. One of these moves may be used to reactivate a player on Reserve/Injured prior to or concurrent with the final cutdown on September 2.

RESERVE LISTS: Included among the various categories on the reserve list are retired, injured, non-football injury/illness, physically unable to perform, military and did not report.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed between clubs through the Tuesday following the sixth regular season game (October 15, 1985) and does not resume again until February 3, 1986.

ROSTER SIZES: The team owners decided in May to go back to the 45-man roster, the number the rosters were set at from 1978-81. In 1982, the limit was raised to 49. From 1975-77, each club was permitted 43 players on the active roster, while in 1974 the active roster limit was 47 players. The first roster limitation rule permitted 16 players per club in 1925.

ROSTER CUTDOWN DATES: All NFL clubs must reduce their active roster totals to 60 players on August 20, 1985, 50 players on August 27 and to the final total of 45 players on Monday, September 2nd.

Nov. 20 With 13 yards on three carries, tenth-year FB Mark van Eeghen raises his career rushing total to 6,583 yards on 1,736 rushed to pass Lawrence McCutcheon (6,578 yards) as the NFL's 13th ranked alltime rusher.

April 4 In a major trade with the Cincinnati Bengals, the Patriots acquire the number one selection in the 1984 Draft in exchange for two 1984 first round choices (16th and 28th, the latter acquired from the LA Raiders as part of the Mike Haynes trade), their own 1984 tenth round pick and their fifth round pick in 1985.

May 1 The Patriots use the first choice in the 1984 Draft to select WR Irving Fryar of Nebraska, along with eleven additional choices. Also, FB Mark van Eeghen retires tied as the NFL's 13th ranked all-time rusher after a ten-year career.

June 1 The Patriots organize a Fan Advisory Board, a group of season ticket holders who will help advise the Patriots on how to make Sullivan Stadium a more exciting and more pleasant place to bring a family to watch an NFL game.

June 5 In the first-ever NFL Supplemental Draft, the Patriots selected slotback Ricky Sanders of the Houston Gamblers, running back Eric Jordan of the Oakland Invaders and quarterback Walter Lewis of the Memphis Showboats.

Oct. 25 Hall of Fame pass receiver Raymond Berry is named the head coach of the Patriots, replacing Ron Meyer. Berry, a former Patriots assistant coach, becomes the team's ninth head coach.

Oct. 28 In celebrating the team's 25th anniversary before a sell-out crowd of 60,513, the Patriots beat AFC Eastern Conference foe New York Jets, 30-20, at Sullivan Stadium. The Patriots were in arrears, 20-3, in the second quarter in Raymond Berry's first game as the team's head coach.

Dec. 9 Stanley Morgan caught a nine yard touchdown pass from Tony Eason 14:10 into the first quarter at Philadelphia to tie Gino Cappelletti's record for career TD receptions, 42. Morgan also passes Cappelletti for career receptions upon conclusion of the season with 312. Gino had 292 in playing 1960-70.

Dec. 12 Tight end/H-back Derrick Ramsey, playing his first full season with the Patriots, breaks Stanley Morgan's single season pass-catching record of 58, set in 1983. Ramsey had four catches for 59 yards in a game against the St. Louis Cardinals in Foxboro, thus moving his one-season total to 59 catches for 693 yards. He finished the season with 66 catches for 792 yards. Also in the game, second-year QB Tony Eason established a new one-season pass completion record of 236 (old record was 228 by Babe Parilli in 1964). Eason finished the season with 259 completions.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1963 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS PATRIOTS 26, BUFFALO 8

Buffalo (War Memorial Stadium), Dec. 28 —The game was the first playoff in the still infant American Football League's history, a match for the AFL's Eastern Division title. QB Babe Parilli and Gino Cappelletti figured in all of the Patriots points as Parilli hit Larry Garron for scoring strikes of 59 and 17 yards and Cappelletti hit for four FGs (28, 12, 33 and 36) while adding two PATs. Ron Burton provided an inspirational boost for the Patriots as he heroically returned to play just a few weeks after disc surgery. Jack Rudolph led a Patriots defensive charge with 11 tackles while helping hold Buffalo's big back, Cookie Gilchrist to just 7 yards. Buffalo's only highlight of the day was a 93-yard scoring pass from Darryl Lamonica to Elbert Dubenion.

1976 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS OAKLAND 24, PATRIOTS 21

Oakland (Oakland-Alameda County Colliseum), Dec. 18 — The surprising Patriots, having finished a complete turnaround with an 11-3 record (3-11 in 1975), travelled to Oakland to meet the Raiders in their first playoff competition since 1963. The Patriots jumped in front of the Raiders 7-0 on a 1 yard run by Andy Johnson, but fell behind at the half 10-7 when Fred Biletnikoff hauled in a 31 yard scoring pass from Ken Stabler with just 39 seconds left on the clock. Steve Grogan engineered scoring drives on the Patriots first two possessions of the third quarter, running the Patriots lead to 21-10 at the end of three quarters of play. Oakland responded with a score on its first possession of the fourth period, a one yard run off left tackle by Mark van Eeghan. With the score at 21-17 in the Patriots favor, John Smith attempted a 50 yard FG with 4:12 remaining, but the kick was low and the Patriots hung on to a slim 21-17 lead. Ken Stabler rallied the Oakland squad, driving the Raiders from their own 32 after the Smith FG attempt, and hitting paydirt for the winning score with only 14 seconds to go. The drive was marred by a controversial roughing the passer call on Ray Hamilton. The Patriots had seemingly stopped the Raiders when a Stabler to Garrett pass on a 3rd and 18 from the Patriot 27 fell incomplete, but penalty flags were thrown and the Raiders had possession with a first and ten at the Patriot 13. Five plays later Stabler rolled around left end for the winning score and the Patriots dreams of a championship in their rags to riches season were over. The loss was the closest one in the playoffs for the Raiders on their way to their Super Bowl Championship. The Patriots were the only team to beat the Raiders (48-17 on 10-3-76) during the regular season as they registered at 13-1 record.

1978 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF HOUSTON 31, PATRIOTS 14

Foxboro (Schaefer Stadium), Dec. 31 — With the AFC East Division title tucked under their belts, the Patriots played host to the Houston Oilers in the first playoff game ever played at Schaefer Stadium. The Oilers earned the right to meet the Patriots after handing the Dolphins a 17-9 defeat at the Orange Bowl a week earlier. The Patriots had finished the season at 11-6, but were reeling from the controversy that started when Coach Chuck Fairbanks announced his resignation to accept the head coaching position at Colorado. The game found Fairbanks on the Patriots sidelines, however, but the last day of 1978 also proved the last day of the Patriots '78 season. Dan Pastorini completed 10 of 13 passes for 184 yards in the first half as the Oilers built a 21-0 lead at the intermission. Toni Fritsch added a 30-yard FG before the Patriots rallied with two TDs in the second half, on a 24-yard score on an option pass from RB Andy Johnson to WR Harold Jackson and the other on a 24-yard scoring strike from sub QB Tom Owen to TE Russ Francis. Owen had replaced starter Steve Grogan late in the first half. With the score Houston 24, Patriots 14, the Patriots began a late rally. Starting at their own 18, the Patriots started to move but Gregg Bingham picked off an Owen for Morgan pass and returned it to the Patriot 18, killing the drive and setting up an Earl Campbell 2-yard TD run that put the game out of reach. SS Doug Beaudoin had a big day on defense, making 8 tackles and adding 7 assists, while ILB Steve Nelson added 5 tackles and 5 assists.

1982-1983
SUPER BOWL TOURNAMENT
MIAMI 28, PATRIOTS 13

Miami (Orange Bowl), Jan. 8, 1983 — Finishing seventh in the 14-team AFC field, the Patriots were slated to meet the second-seeded Miami Dolphins in the first round of the 1982/83 Super Bowl XVII Tournament. Before a sellout crowd, the Patriots got on the scoreboard first, taking an early second period 3-0 lead on a 23-yard FG by John Smith. Behind the precision passing of David Woodley (16 of 19, 234 yards, 2 TDs), the Dolphins scored four TDs while the Patriots could only muster another Smith FG (42 yards) through the first three periods. A spectacular defensive effort by the Dolphins limited the Patriots and Steve Grogan to 189 passing yards, sacking Grogan four times and intercepting him twice. FB Andra Franklin, the AFC's second leading rusher in regular season play, carried the ball 26 times for 112 yards to enable the Dolphins to control the ball for 35 minutes and 51 seconds. Making their first playoff appearance since 1978, the Patriots 49-man roster included only 16 players from the 1978 playoff squad. Starting SS Roland James was placed on the injured reserve list two days prior to the game with a knee injury and was replaced in the starting lineup by Keith Lee. Early in the game, starting DE Ken Sims sprained his left ankle and left the game. He later returned, but re-injured the ankle and left the game for good midway through the second stanza.

PLAYOFF TIE-BREAKERS

DIVISION TIES

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied) percentage in games between the clubs.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: if two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker reverts to Step One of two-club format.)

1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied) percentage in games among the clubs.)
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

WILD CARD TIES

If necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

1. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after third or other clubs eliminated, tie-breaker reverts to Step One of applicable two-club format.)

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-Head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

1. Head-to-Head sweep (applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others.)
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

PATRIOTS' RADIO NETWORK

JOHN CARLSON

JON MORRIS

Veteran announcer John Carlson and former Patriots' center Jon Morris will begin their sixth season in 1985 as the broadcast team on the Patriots' Radio Network. Carlson, Sports Director at WEEI NEWSRADIO 590 in Boston, handles the play-by-play while Morris adds the color commentary and analysis.

For the third year in a row, WEEI's broadcasts of Patriots' games were honored by the Massachusetts Associated Press for sports play-by-play.

Carlson has been Sports Director at WEEI since 1975, having joined the station in 1974. During his broadcast career, he has handled the play-by-play assignments for a number of teams including the Boston Celtics, Boston University football and hockey and numerous other schoolboy and collegiate games.

Morris was the Patriots' fourth round draft choice in 1964 after a standout career at Holy Cross. The Patriots' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1965, he played in 131 games as a Patriot from 1964-1974 before being traded to Detroit in 1975. He was named MVP of the Lions in 1977 and played his final year in the NFL with the Chicago Bears the following year (1978). Morris began his broadcast career as color commentator on the Patriots' radio broadcasts in 1979.

The Patriots' Radio Network is headed by flagship station WEEI NEWSRADIO 590 in Boston and is comprised of 29 stations. Formed when WEEI signed a multi-year pact with the Patriots in July, 1980, the network broadcasts each Patriots' preseason and regular season game. WEEI held the original radio broadcast rights to the Patriots' games for the first six years of the club's history.

As of June 1, 1985 the network includes the following affiliates:

NOTE: The number shown in parentheses indicates the number of appearances in Pro Bowl play. From 1960-70, Patriots players played in the AFL All-Star Game prior to joining the NFL Pro Bowl competition in 1971. The year indicates the season in which the player was selected for Pro Bowl participation, but the game itself is played in the following January or February. For example players selected in the 1984 season played in the 1985 Pro Bowl.

SULLIVAN STADIUM

May 23rd, 1983 was the date that the facility that was once known as Schaefer Stadium had a change of name to Sullivan Stadium.

It was part of a long-term, multi-million dollar marketing agreement between Anheuser-Busch, Inc. and Stadium Management Corporation (SMC), that the former Schaefer Stadium took a new and well-deserved name.

At that time, Charles B. Fruit, Vice President — National Media for Anheuser-Busch said, "We have named this facility Sullivan Stadium as a tribute to the founder, owner and driving force of the Patriots, William H. Sullivan, Jr." Fruit also added that Sullivan and his family—one of the most prominent sporting families in America and New England—have made many contributions to the Greater Boston and Foxboro communities, and to the economic well-being of both.

Sullivan Stadium was originally built at the cost of $6.7 million and financed through the private sale of more than 400,000 shares of stock in Stadium Realty Trust. The official ground breaking ceremony took place on September 23, 1970 and 326 days later (August 15, 1971) the first game was played at the new Foxboro facility. In that game, the Patriots posted a 20-14 win over the NY Giants before 60,423 fans.

With space to park 16,000 automobiles surrounding the stadium, the site covers an area of 15 acres and is as long as it is wide, 700 feet. In the process of excavating the bowl shape for the stadium, 250,000 cubic yards of earth was removed from the 35-feet deep hole. The J.F. White Construction Company of Newton, MA, then used 15,000 cubic yards of concrete and 660 tons of steel to erect the stadium.

Sullivan Stadium has had three different field surfaces during its existence with the newest installation being completed in 1984. In 1977, the original Poly-Turf surfaced was removed, an entirely new drainage system installed, the field crown raised four inches and the entire field was resurfaced with a SuperTurf carpet. During the 1984 field resurfacing project, SuperTurf was again used to cover the Sullivan Stadium floor. Lighting is provided by three towers with 324 mercury lamps (1500 watts per), 200 candle power per square foot on the playing field.

On November 6, 1981, the newly formed Stadium Management Corporation (SMC) headed by Patriots' Executive Vice President Chuck Sullivan, completed the purchase of the then named Schaefer Stadium and its related assets from Stadium Realty Trust. During the ensuing off-season, SMC began a multi-million dollar renovation and improvement program. With the work being done by the stadium's original builder, J.F. White Construction Company, the stadium took on a new look. Featured in the program was the installation of a Diamond Vision full color instant replay video scoreboard, a 20,000 square foot addition to the Patriots' administrative building, a complete renovation of the stadium's restroom facilities and the addition of 42 stadium suites to the press box facility. Included in the press box renovation was the addition of two more levels to the original two (including a fully-modem media level) and the construction of two additional elevators to the existing one in service.

Prior to the major improvement work being completed, the stadium capacity was 61,297 for football. The new stadium capacity is now 61,000 and includes 6,103 endzone seats, 710 luxury seats, 5,604 sideline chairs, and 47,908 sideline seats.

To the people of New England, the name Sullivan Stadium has meaning far beyond the Patriots Football Club. Boston College, for example, has played some of their biggest games here the last several years. In 1984, for example, BC fans roared their excitement as the Doug Flutie-led team competed against North Carolina and Syracuse. The 1985 season will see the Eagles playing at the Stadium once again, playing Maryland (Sept. 14th) and Miami (Sept. 28th).

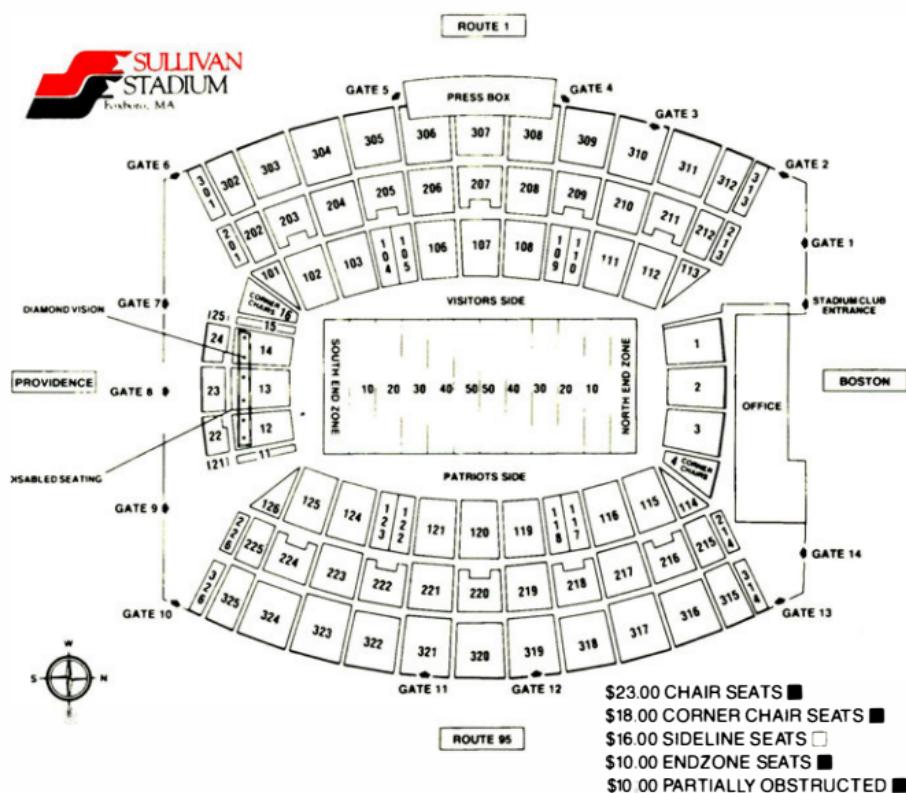

On yet another level of football, Sullivan Stadium continues to host the High School Super Bowl games. The outcome of Eastern Massachusetts' three largest divisional championships is determined on the Patriots' home ground.

Outside of football, the Stadium is proud of its record in presenting popular music and other entertainment extravaganzas on an almost weekly basis during the spring and summer months. In the past few years, such names as The Police, David Bowie, Simon and Garfunkel, Willie Nelson and Judy Collins have taken center-stage at the Stadium.

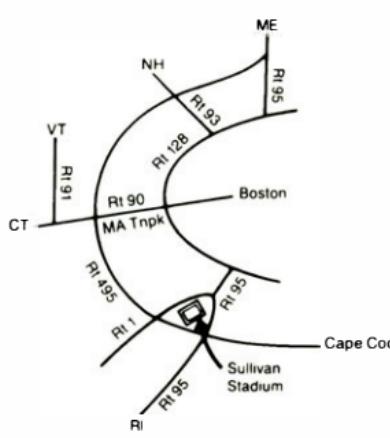

In addition, fans have echoed the roars of super-engines during our Truck/Tractor Pulls and Supercross events. Whole families have enjoyed the diverse entertainment offered at the traditional New England Fair, to be held in August once again this year. And people of all nationalities participate in the many cultural and entertainment activities presented at the Irish Festival, which was held June 29-30th this year.

Also for the first time ever, the Stadium presented a Pro-Wrestling event, with such heroes as Hulk Hogan and Rowdy Roddie Piper stepping into the squared circle on July 8th.

So as you can see, we have lots to offer here at Sullivan Stadium— football, music, family-fun, motor-spectaculars, dirt-bike racing, ethnic music and culture, traditional Fair entertainment and a good time for everyone!

THE FRITO-LAY STORY

A UNIQUE FUNDING TRIANGLE

In our quest to improve the quality of life for Boston's youth the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston depends heavily on the generosity of others. The Frito-Lay, Inc. is a prime example of an advocate of the Clubs via an imaginative funding triangle thanks to the New England Patriots.

Here's how it works. As the Patriots score points, Frito-Lay scores for the children of Boston, donating $100 to the Boys and Girls Clubs for each point! During last season the Patriots scored 462 points making Frito-Lay's 1984 total donation $46,200 and bringing the grand total to $380,000 since the program's inception in 1976. Throughout the country and, of course, in Boston, businessmen, parents, and the community at large hail this program as one of the most creative charitable donations in existence.

The funds are designated for a very special purpose...the Boys and Girls Clubs-Frito-Lay Tutorial Assistance Program (known as the Frito-Lay TAP). This education program directly serves over 1,000 children in each of three Clubhouses. Counsellors and tutors reinforce school work, stressing the importance of a well-rounded education. Like the athlete, the student is taught to work daily to improve his skills. Each youngster's individual needs determine the type of supplemental training he or she receives. Some require help in vocabulary and reading. Others lack sufficient mathematics skills. Still others reap the benefits of science instruction through practical lessons at the Museum of Science.

The TAP program provides a strong base for the educational and emotional development of our inner-city kids. Frito-Lay puts their money where it counts, where it will do something positive for our children, and thus, for our community. Since 1976, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston has annually turned to Frito-Lay for assistance in meeting our large financial challenges. Just as regularly, Frito-Lay has been there.

For nine years, Frito-Lay has also supported the Clubs Annual Awards Dinner in the Charlestown, Roxbury, and South Boston communities. These events focus on the outstanding leadership and achievements of our individual members. Recognition supported by Frito-Lay is especially important for our children.

For nine years, Frito-Lay has stood behind our Tri-Club Program, designed to encourage an atmosphere of harmony, understanding, and productive interaction between girls and boys of all races and religions.

For nine years, Frito-Lay has supported the World of Work Program, designed to help unemployed inner-city teenagers become successful members of the work force.

FOR NINE YEARS,
FRITO-LAY HAS BEEN A VERY GOOD FRIEND.

Thank you, Frito-Lay.

SINCE 1893
BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS OF BOSTON

Frito-Lay and the Patriots team up for a better Boston.

Frito-Lay, Inc., maker of LAY'S® and RUFFLES® brand potato chips, donates $100 to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston for each point scored this season.

BRYANT COLLEGE

Since 1976, the Patriots have conducted summer practice sessions at Bryant College in Smithfield, Rhode Island. Situated on a beautiful 295 acre campus located 12 miles northwest of Providence, Bryant offers undergraduate degrees in Business Administration and Criminal Justice as well as Graduate Programs in Business Administration. Bryant's enrollment includes over 6,300 students attending both day and evening programs while more than 1,700 of the students reside on campus.

Bryant has a 122 year-old tradition of excellence in business education and relocated from a Providence campus in 1971. Since that time, the campus has expanded to accommodate an ever-increasing student enrollment. The focal point of the campus is the award-winning Unistructure (pictured above) that houses faculty, administrative and student activities offices as well as all classrooms, a swimming pool, bank, U.S. Post Office, bookstore, dining facilities and the Patriots' summer offices.

In 1981, a newly-completed Multipurpose Activities Center (MAC) was opened and adjoins the original physical education building. These structures provide the Patriots expansive areas for their locker rooms, athletic training staff, equipment storage and the team's strength and conditioning center.

Ground was broken this past spring for a student union building—to be called Bryant Center—as well as a 300-capacity freshman dormitory, expected to accommodate nearly 300 students. A Chapel, deli, music practice room as well as student government offices are among the facilities to be housed in the 60,000 square foot Bryant Center. Both structures are expected to be completed in the fall of 1986.

Nicholas Colasanto, the recently-deceased actor who played the role of "Coach" on the popular NBC-TV program "Cheers", was a graduate of Bryant College (Class of '49). Roger Begin, the Rhode Island state treasurer is a 1976 Bryant College graduate.

Since moving their summer training site to Bryant, the Patriots have amassed a 74-49 regular season record (60.1%), indicative of the fine preseason training facilities offered at the Smithfield campus.
