Gillette STADIUM

www.GilletteStadium.com  @GilletteStadium

Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, is the region's premier sports and entertainment venue. Since opening in 2002, every Patriots home game has sold out and fans have enjoyed more regular season and postseason victories than any other team in the NFL.

In 17 seasons, the venue has hosted more than 10.5 million football fans attending Patriots games and has been the site of seven AFC Championship games – six of them being Patriots victories. During that span, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home with an overall record of 134-24, including a 19-3 playoff record in Foxborough.

The Kraft family continually invests in Gillette Stadium with improvements designed to keep the venue on the cutting edge and enhance the fan experience. To that end, the stadium will be spending the next several years renovating and refreshing the main concourse with new concession concepts, including beer halls and grab-and-go food and beverage options and more communal gathering areas. Notable infrastructure updates for the 2019 season include installing the Super Bowl LIII championship banner; expanding and redesigning the UBid Gate; redesigning the Patriots four merchandise stands on the main concourse; refreshing the aesthetic of the concession stands in the upper concourse and expanding the Patriots Player Dining Room.

NOTABLE GILLETTE STADIUM IMPROVEMENTS

2010: Installed two Daktronics high-definition LED video scoreboards.

2011: Remodeled the Putnam Club to offer 120,000 square feet of comfort.

2012: Became one of the largest NFL venues to offer free WiFi with enough bandwidth to accommodate every fan.

2013: Installed more than 14,000 square feet of LED ribbon boards and four digital panels above the main concourse; Launched Patriots Gameday Live App to offer fans exclusive in-game content.

2014: Installed LED signage throughout the stadium; Upgraded the field surface; Expanded football operations facility by 30,000 square feet.

2015: Reconfigured Super Bowl Championship banner display; Opened the Optum Field Lounge, Cross Insurance Pavilion & Business Center, DraftKings Fantasy Sports Zone and two super suites; Expanded the CarMax pedestrian bridge in the north end of the stadium; Installed additional LED ribbon boards.

2016: Remodeled suites; Expanded administrative offices; Upgraded the venue's WiFi; Introduced new concessions featuring locally sourced ingredients from New England-based farms.

2017: Reconfigured Super Bowl Championship banner display; Opened Union Point and the JetBlue Landings on the upper concourse; Installed a stainless steel food and drink rail encircling the entire 300-level.

2018: Renovated the Patriots Locker Room; Redesigned and expanded the Bank of America Gate; Converted stadium field lights to LED; Renovated the Putnam Clubs; Installed stainless steel food and drink rails in the north and south ends of the main concourse; Constructed more enclosed gathering spaces throughout the upper concourse; Added more TVs throughout the upper concourse.

Gillette Stadium is also the home of Major League Soccer's New England Revolution and annually hosts an array of sports and entertainment events like international soccer matches, NCAA athletics, Feld motor sports and high school football state championships. In 2016, the stadium hosted the NHL Winter Classic. Gillette Stadium is also one of the world's top grossing concert venues, according to Billboard, and has hosted many of the biggest acts in music, including Taylor Swift, Kenny Chesney, the Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel and Elton John, One Direction and Beyoncé, just to name a few.

The stadium's design celebrates New England's heritage with a stylized lighthouse and bridge that greets fans entering from Patriot Place Plaza and creates the stadium's signature view.

GILLETTE STADIUM FUN FACTS

The Height of Design

The stadium's signature lighthouse in the north end zone rises 10 stories above the playing field, but is dwarfed by the height of the stadium itself, which is 16 stories tall.

Worth the Weight

Approximately 6,300 pieces of blue steel form the structure of Gillette Stadium, weighing in at 16,000 tons.

Lap of Luxury

The Putnam Clubs on each side of Gillette Stadium are larger than a football field, with cathedral ceilings four stories high and a floor-to-ceiling glass wall providing an end zone to end zone view of the field.

The Suite Life

The stadium's 88 luxury suites each have granite-topped wet bars, marbled bathrooms and personal attendants.

Making Room

The construction of Gillette Stadium required the removal of 90,000 cubic yards of blasted bedrock, 310,000 cubic yards of total excavated material and the demolition of the old Foxboro Stadium and race-track. All materials were repurposed into the construction of Gillette Stadium.

Concrete Example

The foundation of Gillette Stadium consists of 17,500 cubic yards of concrete, enough to build a sidewalk from here to Boston, on both sides of the street.

A Light Snack

On a typical game day, Patriots fans eat more than one ton of Italian sausage and warm up with 186 gallons of clam chowder.

Teamwork

Up to 5,000 staff are necessary to operate Gillette Stadium for a Patriots game, at a ratio of one worker for every 13.7 fans.

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. Its incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last five years and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those championships. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to The Hall of Fame. The journey continues through 20,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall of Fame's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' six Lombardi trophies.

The Hall of Fame features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction from Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from former NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Additionally, fans can make Malcolm Butler's famous championship-clinching interception in The Hall of Fame's incredible Super Bowl Experience exhibit.

The Hall of Fame's 25 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Exclusive video content is also displayed on 34 high-definition TV monitors, 11 projection screens and the 45-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Theater, where a 17-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each Patriots Hall of Fame is immortalized on 30-foot high, five-foot wide video pylons utilizing high-resolution LED displays. Fans can choose which Hall of Famer to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

"One of the greatest things about sports is the bond players and fans share. You feel like you've lived through the same experiences and share the same memories. That was one of our motivations in building The Hall. We wanted to create a place where our fans and alumni could visit and relive those moments together. We wanted to preserve the legacy of this franchise and give our greatest players the most prominent display of any hall of fame in the world."

experience the "In the Numbers" exhibit, presented by Raytheon, which uses football to teach math and science in a fun and interactive way.

In 2015, Yankee magazine named The Patriots Hall of Fame "Best Sports Museum". In 2009, The Hall of Fame received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall of Fame was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. Robert Kraft is the founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, based in Foxborough, Mass. The Kraft Group is the holding company of the Kraft family's many businesses, including the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, Boston Uprising, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 private equity investments.

A lifelong football fan and 23-year New England Patriots season ticket holder before buying the team, Kraft became the chairman and CEO of the Patriots when he took ownership on Jan. 21, 1994, and pledged, "My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England." That seemed to be a tall order considering the team's prior success rate. In the five years prior to Kraft's ownership, the team had won just 19 of 80 games (a .238 winning percentage) with no playoff appearances. In fact, in the 34-year history of the franchise (1960-93) the Patriots had won just 229 games (including playoffs), averaging 6.6 wins per season.

The year Kraft bought the team (1994), the Patriots qualified for the playoffs for the first time in eight seasons. They also clinched a playoff berth four times in his first five seasons as owner. In the past 25 seasons (1994-2018), the Patriots won 312 games (including playoffs) for an average of 12.5 wins per season. The Patriots completed 2019 with 141 combined regular-season and playoff victories in this decade, the most in a decade in NFL history with one season to play. Additionally, after New England earned three regular-season victories in 2019, the franchise surpassed the Indianapolis Colts record of 115 regular-season wins in a decade (2000-09).

Playoff games offer another stark contrast. Prior to 1994, Patriots fans had only been treated to one home playoff game, which the Patriots lost to the Houston Oilers in 1978. Since 1994, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 21 times — 19 as division champions — and hosted 27 home playoff games, in which they have gone 23-4 (.852).

The worst-to-first ascent of the New England Patriots since Kraft purchased the team may be the greatest in sports history. Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have incurred the fewest losing seasons (2) in the NFL since 1994, recorded at least nine wins in 23 of 26 seasons and won more division titles (19) and conference crowns (10) than any other NFL team. In 2018, the Patriots claimed their sixth Super Bowl championship during Kraft's tenure. No other NFL team has more.

INSTALLING HIS VISION

It didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had never been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. That achievement ensured that local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history. Since then, every game has been sold out. Through 2019 season, the Patriots have sold out 283 consecutive home games, including all preseason and playoff games, dating back to the first regular-season home game in 1994.

Kraft and the Patriots organization have built a winning team in the community. Established in 1994, the New England Patriots Foundation was created to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

ASCENSION

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest franchise revivals in sports history. After winning back-to-back Super Bowls and three titles in four years, Forbes magazine named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports" in 2005.

In 2007, the New England Patriots won a then franchise-record fifth consecutive division title. They also became the first NFL team to win 16 games during the regular season and the only team to ever win 18 consecutive games in one season. The undefeated regular season boosted the team's regular season record from 2003 to 2007 to 66-14 for a remarkable .825 winning percentage. The 66 regular-season wins in that span are the most by any team over any five-year stretch in NFL history. Additionally, from Oct. 5, 2003, to Nov. 8, 2008, the Patriots won 81 games with only 19 losses, matching the most successful 100-game stretch since the league was founded in 1920.

The Kraft-era Patriots also set three significant NFL records for consecutive wins. From 2003-04, the Patriots won 21 consecutive games, including playoffs. From 2006-08, the Patriots won 21 consecutive regular-season games. Additionally, the Patriots established an NFL record by winning 10 consecutive playoff games (2001-05). During that time, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history.

The success the Patriots sustained during the first decade of the new millennium is unrivaled. The Patriots 126 total victories (including playoffs) were the most by any team in one decade in the history of the NFL. The decade of dominance featured more Super Bowl titles (3), conference titles (4), division titles (7), playoff wins (14), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team. In addition, no other NFL team hosted more playoff games (9) or played in more playoff games (18) than the New England Patriots. The sustained success earned the franchise "Team of the Decade" acclaim from many publications. New England finished the 2019 season with 125 regular-season wins and 16 postseason wins in the decade (2010-2019) for 141 total wins, the most ever in a single decade.

BEST IN SPORTS

After claiming their third Super Bowl in four years, Forbes selected the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

A WINNING TRADITION

Robert Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.698) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason). He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

Owner	Team	Years	Winning Pct.
Robert Kraft	Patriots	1994-present	.698
Eddie DeBartalo, Jr.	49ers	1977-99	.636
Clint Murchison, Jr.	Cowboys	1960-83	.634
Joe Robbie	Dolphins	1966-89	.609
Pat Bowlen	Broncos	1984-present	.596

THE KRAFT ERA

Prior to 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs just six times during their first 34 seasons (1960-93). In the 25 seasons since Robert Kraft has taken ownership, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 20 times, 18 times as division champions, and have won 10 conference titles and six Super Bowl championships.

	Pre-Kraft 1960-93	1989-93	Kraft Era 1994-2019
Overall Record	225-276-9	19-61	324-140

Playoff Record	4-6	0-0	33-15

Home Playoff Record	0-1	0-0	23-4

300 WINS

Robert Kraft reached 300 career wins overall on Sept 30, 2018, in the Patriots 38-7 win vs. Miami. He reached 300 career wins in 432 career games, the fastest an owner has reached the milestone. Kraft enters the 2019 season with 312 wins as an owner (including playoffs).

Owner	Team	Games to 300 Wins
Robert Kraft	Patriots	432 (25 seasons)
Al Davis	Raiders	495 (31 seasons)
Pat Bowlen	Broncos	501 (30 seasons)

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994, the Patriots have become the most successful franchise in the NFL. For the past 26 seasons (1994-2019), the Patriots have won more Super Bowl Championships (6), more conference championships (10) and more division titles (19) than any other NFL team. In addition to championships, the Patriots have also won more, and more often, than any other NFL team, claiming 324 total victories and a .698 winning percentage, including 33 wins in the postseason.

GETTING HIS START

Kraft began his business career with the Rand-Whitney Group, Inc., of Worcester, Mass., a company that converts paper into packaging for various industries. He later acquired the company. In 1972, he founded International Forest Products, a trader of paper commodities that now does business annually in more than 100 countries. Together, Rand-Whitney and International Forest Products (IFP) comprise one of the largest privately-owned and fully integrated paper and packaging companies in the United States. In 2018, IFP was the top U.S. containerized exporter in New England and ranked fifth in North America.

Kraft founded the Kraft Group to serve as the holding company for the Kraft family's diverse business interests comprised of companies in sports and entertainment, the paper and packaging industry, real estate and private equity investing.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium in Foxborough, Mass. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward buying the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. With a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in Kraft's quest toward owning the team.

When the Patriots moved to then Schaefer Stadium in 1971, Kraft invested in season tickets for his family. He credits the memories and experiences shared with his family and other Patriots fans during those years for his passionate pursuit of ownership of the franchise. When his opportunity came to buy the team in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buyout offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter Nor'easter, 5,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus on another long-term project with great financial risk: the private-financing and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In his first year of ownership, the Patriots won their final seven regular-season games to qualify for the postseason, ending an eight-year playoff drought. By his fifth anniversary as owner, under the direction of two different head coaches, the Patriots had already established themselves as perennial playoff contenders, qualifying for the postseason four times, twice as division champions. In 1996, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years. After defeating Pittsburgh in the playoffs that year, the Patriots hosted their first conference championship game in franchise history and defeated Jacksonville, 20-6, to advance to Super Bowl XXXI.

BUILDING GILLETTE

From 2000 to 2002, the Kraft Group's construction and real estate development team oversaw the on-time and on-budget construction of Gillette Stadium, a privately-financed facility and the only one of its kind to be financed without the burden of personal seat license fees charged to season ticket members. The financial commitment from Kraft provided a solid foundation on which to build for the first time in the franchise's nomadic history. Moving from Foxboro Stadium into the majestic Gillette Stadium marked another worst-to-first transformation for the Krafts, who now operate New England's premier entertainment venue. After opening Gillette Stadium, Kraft was recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year by one national publication and he and Jonathan Kraft were named Sports Industrialists of the Year by another.

The construction of Gillette Stadium was the first project of the Kraft Group's development team. In 2007, the Kraft Group expanded the development of the site with the construction of Patriot Place, a mixed-use lifestyle center and entertainment destination.

LOVE OF SPORTS

Kraft is widely recognized as one of the most successful owners in professional sports. His long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to his efforts in the early 1990s to secure Foxborough as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup and become one of three founders of Major League Soccer when he founded the New England Revolution in 1995. In 2017, Kraft was named Honorary Chairman of the Board of the United Bid Committee of Canada, Mexico and the United States and helped secure the 2026 FIFA World Cup for North America.

As Chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots, Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution and owner of Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place, Kraft has turned the underdeveloped parcel of land he purchased in 1985 in Fox-

The National Football League is back in action. And Patriots owner Robert Kraft is getting much of the credit.

Not only did Kraft help owners and players end a 135-day lockout and agree on a 10-year deal, but he did so while tending to his wife, Myra, who died Wednesday of cancer.

The role Kraft played in the negotiations was not widely known at yesterday's press conference at the Super Bowl site, but he was the son-in-law of the late wife.

"I special thank to Myra Kraft, who even in her weakest moments allowed Mr. Kraft to come and fight this out and without her, this deal does not get done," said Jeff Saturday, a representative of the NFL Players Association and a center for one of the Patriots Super Bowl, the Indianapolis Colts.

He added that Kraft is "a man who helped us save football and we're grateful for that, we're grateful for his family and for the opportunity he presented to get this deal done. So thank you very much — we really appreciate it."

Saturday and Kraft then embraced, which will be the recurring image of this often contentious deal.

Kraft was at the press conference at the invitation of NFL commissioner Roger Goodell and Players Association executive director DeMaurice Smith.

In 2017, The Kraft Group unveiled its newest sports property, the Boston Uprising, an esports team that competes in Blizzard Entertainment's global professional esports ecosystem known as the Overwatch League.

Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots and the Revolution have delivered six league championships and 14 conference titles, as well as a U.S. Open Cup and a SuperLiga title, while his private-financing of Gillette Stadium has given fans a world-class facility in which to enjoy New England's championship tradition.

PERSONAL

A native of Brookline, Mass., Kraft attended local public schools before entering Columbia University on an academic scholarship. Upon graduation, he received a fellowship to attend Harvard Business School, where he earned a master's degree in business administration.

Kraft's love for football and the Patriots began decades ago. A Patriots fan since their AFL days in the 1960s, Kraft attended games at each of the team's Boston venues: Boston University Field, Fenway Park, Boston College Alumni Stadium and Harvard Stadium.

In addition to serving on several NFL owner committees, Kraft also serves on the board of directors for Apollo Global Management and the Apollo Theater as well as the board of trustees for Carnegie Hall. He is a distinguished trustee for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Kraft Family Blood Donor Center. He is a member of the executive committee of the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership. Kraft is a trustee emeritus at Columbia, a trustee of Boston College and has received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities. He was awarded the NCAA's highest honor when he received the Theodore Roosevelt Award, "presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishments." In 2011, Kraft received the Harvard Business School Alumni Achievement Award as well as the prestigious honor of being inducted into the 231st class of American Academy of Arts and Sciences, one of the nation's oldest and most learned societies. In 2012, he became the first NFL owner in the then 44-year history of the George Halas Award to ever receive the honor, which is presented annually to the NFL player, coach or staff member who overcomes the most adversity

DYNASTY VS. DYNASTY

Of all of the great teams throughout the Super Bowl era, the New England Patriots and the San Francisco 49ers have set a standard of extended excellence above all of the others. The 49ers run of success spanned two decades, while New England's streak is still in progress.

Over the past five decades, Robert Kraft has been one of New England's most philanthropic individuals, donating hundreds of millions of dollars in support of local charities, civic affairs and health care. In 2019, he received the Genesis Prize, which Time magazine once referred to as the Jewish Nobel. He recently announced a $20 million and has raised over $30 million to establish a foundation to combat antisemitism. In 2019, Kraft joined fellow sports and entertainment figures, including Jay-Z, Meek Mill and Michael Rubin, among others, to create a criminal justice reform organization called REFORM Alliance. Kraft donated $25 million to Partners HealthCare and its affiliate, Massachusetts General Hospital, to establish the Kraft Center for Community Health, an initiative designed to develop solutions for the most difficult health problems. The Kraft Center services include a mobile health program with a CareZone mobile van, which offers opioid addiction treatments and other health care services in underserved communities throughout Boston. The Kraft family also committed $20 million to Harvard Business School to establish the Kraft Precision Medicine Accelerator, an initiative to pursue programs to realize the potential of precision medicine in care of cancer and other serious diseases. In 2015, Kraft and the Patriots launched a high school anti-violence education initiative. To date, the Game Change program has provided training in violence prevention for more than 1,700 students, faculty and coaches in over 120 high and middle schools statewide.

Jonathan Kraft is the president of the Kraft Group, the holding company of the Kraft family's varied business interests. He is also the president of the six-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots. As president of the Patriots, Kraft oversees the management and strategic planning of each department within the organization. He also works closely with his father to represent the Patriots in all league matters and serves on multiple NFL owner committees.

Kraft's NFL obligations are only a small part of his day-to-day responsibilities, which are as diversified as the many different companies he oversees. The Kraft Group has a variety of interests concentrated in six specific areas: the distribution of forest products, paper and packaging manufacturing, sports and entertainment, real estate development as well as private equity and venture investing. As president, Kraft is responsible for overseeing the operations of each division.

Since his family purchased the team in 1994, Kraft has been the day-to-day driving force behind the rebuilding and rebranding of the franchise, bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization.

Once tenants in the league's poorest venue, the Patriots now play in one of the NFL's premier stadiums.

In the first 26 years of the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots have won more games and more often than any other NFL team, and Kraft has successfully implemented many initiatives that have accelerated the franchise's many worst-to-first transitions.

From 2000-09, the Patriots set multiple NFL records and earned "Team of the Decade" acclaim from numerous publications. During the first decade of the new millennium, the Patriots established three NFL consecutive win streak records: a 10-game win streak in the postseason, a 21-game overall win streak (including playoff games) and a 21-game regular-season win streak. The Patriots won 126 regular-season games, the most by an NFL team in one decade in the history of the league. The Patriots also became just the second team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four years. New England had 125 regular-season wins and 16 postseason wins in the 2010's decade (2010-2019) for 141 total wins, the most ever in a single decade.

In the past 26 seasons (1994-2019), the Patriots won 324 games (including playoffs) for an average of 12.5 wins per season and captured more Super Bowl titles (6), conference titles (10), division titles (19), playoff wins (33), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team.

Of all the team's recent achievements, arguably the most significant contribution to the organization's future success was securing financial approval for the construction of a new world-class stadium, the first of its kind in the franchise's history. Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy for the $325 million construction of Gillette Stadium. Many financial experts dismissed the viability of his plan, which relied on year-round club memberships for new clientele rather than the more conventional sale of private seat licenses to existing season ticket holders. Kraft's unprecedented plan was considered a financial risk, but proved to be universally successful.

Throughout the stadium initiative, no one was more involved in each phase of the project, including the planning, construction, opening and ongoing operation and development of Gillette Stadium. Kraft worked closely with stadium designers to create a world-class sports and entertainment facility that would highlight features indigenous to New England. His team not only delivered on the promise of a fan-friendly facility, but did so on time and under budget. Kraft feels strongly that Gillette Stadium needs to be continually evolving to meet the changing needs of fans. To that end, he was the creative force behind recent stadium enhancements including the Optum Field Lounge, the DraftKings Fantasy Sports Zone and the Cross Insurance Pavilion & Business Center.

Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices. In June of 2001, the Environmental Business Council presented the Kraft Group with the Environmental Award for Corporate Leadership. In May of 2002, the Kraft Group received New England's Environmental Merit Award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for the development and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In 2002, Jonathan and Robert Kraft received the Sports Industrialists of the Year award, presented annually by Sports Business Daily. That year, the Krafts celebrated New England's first Super Bowl championship. Just a few months later, they christened their new stadium, earning various awards and acclaim for the project. They negotiated a new naming rights partnership with Gillette and celebrated a spectacular grand opening by hosting the 2002 season premiere of Monday Night Football as Super Bowl champions, presenting both the stadium and their 2001 Super Bowl banner to the fans of New England. One month later, the Krafts' Major League Soccer franchise, the New England Revolution, won the Eastern Conference to qualify for the MLS Cup, which drew over 61,000 fans to Gillette Stadium, the largest crowd in MLS history at that time.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots fan base was limited in range and scope. As a lifelong Patriots fan, Kraft was committed to expanding the Patriots fan base through innovative multimedia outreach. Under his directive, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch an official web site in March of 1995. Just two years later, the team debuted the first use of streaming video, offering a nightly video update. The Patriots other Internet initiatives include a highly successful e-commerce division, providing Patriots fans around the world easy access to Patriots merchandise and apparel. In 2004, the team showed their commitment to globalizing the Patriots brand when they launched the NFL's first Chinese-language version of their website. Entering the 2019 season, the Patriots have 262 registered fan clubs in 42 countries. The Patriots are also among the top teams in the NFL in terms of social media presence, reaching more than 15 million followers across various platforms, with over seven million Facebook fans, four-plus million Twitter followers and nearly four million followers on Instagram. As chair of the league's digital committee, Kraft continues to seek innovative ways to enhance the day of game experience for all Patriots fans. Gillette Stadium features one of the league's only ubiquitous WiFi solutions, allowing fans to stay connected throughout the game on their mobile devices. The Patriots mobile app, which gives fans in-stadium access to live streaming of NFL RedZone, among other content, is one of the most advanced in the league.

Following the Super Bowl XXXVI championship, Kraft commissioned the production of a DVD entitled "3 Games to Glory," providing fans an opportunity to re-live three of the most memorable games in franchise history. Since then, he has overseen the production of five sequels, each featuring over five hours of behind-the-scenes content on a multi-disc DVD set. The Patriots are the only NFL team to produce and sell such extensive commemorative DVDs.

A graduate of Williams College (1986), Kraft is a Trustee Emeritus and former chair of the school's investments committee. He received his MBA from Harvard Business School (1990), where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft serves as chairman of the board at Massachusetts General Hospital and is on the board of trustees for the Belmont Hill School and Dexter Southfield. Additionally, Kraft is a member of the MIT School of Engineering Dean's Advisory Council, board member for Partners HealthCare and sits on the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Leadership Initiative.

Kraft is active in youth athletics and has coached Pop Warner Football, youth soccer and Little League baseball in the greater Boston area. He is also a member of the national Board of Directors for Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc.

Jonathan and his wife, Patti, have three children.

A DECADE OF DOMINANCE (2000-09)

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 18 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. The tallies listed below represent totals during the 2000-09 seasons.

A DECADE OF DOMINANCE (2010-19)

The New England Patriots have earned more wins (141) in the past decade (2010-2019) than any other team in the NFL has over any 10-year span with 115 regular-season victories and 16 playoffs wins. They also own the highest winning percentage (.698) of any team in professional sports since 1994. The Patriots also won a league-leading three Super Bowls in the 2010s, increasing their total to six and tying them with the Pittsburgh Steelers for most all-time. The Patriots won more conference championships (5), appeared in more conference championship games (8) and won more division titles (9) than any other NFL team. This landmark decade comes on the heels of another dominant decade, as the Patriots also led the NFL in Super Bowl victories, conference championships, conference championship game appearances and division titles in the 2000s.

Bill Belichick completed his 45th season as an NFL coach in 2019 and is in his 20th season as head coach of the New England Patriots. Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win six Super Bowl titles. In 2018, Belichick won his sixth Super Bowl, joining George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only NFL coaches with six championships. In the process he also won a ninth conference championship, captured the AFC East crown for the 10th consecutive season and won at least 11 regular-season games for the 16th time in his head coaching career, extending his NFL record in all categories.

Through 2019, Belichick owns the most wins among all active coaches and is currently third all-time with 304 total victories as a head coach. Belichick's winning percentage of .686 ranks first in NFL history among coaches with 150 or more wins. He has led the Patriots to a winning record for 19 consecutive seasons (2001-19), trailing only Dallas' Tom Landry, who recorded 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966-85. Belichick has also notched 31 postseason wins in his career, most by a head coach in NFL history. He completed his 45th consecutive year as an NFL coach, matching the NFL mark for most consecutive seasons as a NFL coach. Belichick shares the mark with Pro Football Hall of Famer Dick LeBeau. The only other NFL coach with at least 40 consecutive NFL coaching seasons is Tom Moore with 41.

Belichick, who was hired by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000, completed his 20th season with the Patriots in 2019. In 20 seasons, Belichick has so far delivered six Super Bowl championships, nine conference titles, 17 division crowns and 30 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 267-93. In 2019, the Patriots won their 11th consecutive division championship, extending their NFL record previously held by the L.A. Rams (1973-79). Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003), XXXIX (2004), XLIX (2014), LI (2016) and LIII (2018), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. From 2003 to 2004, Belichick directed the Patriots to a winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason. In 2018, Belichick joined Marv Levy (4) and Don Shula (3) as the only NFL head coaches to lead their team to three consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

Despite an NFL system designed to ensure parity, Belichick's program has produced a remarkable run of sustained on-field success. From 2000-18, the Patriots won 74 percent of their regular-season games (237-83), among the highest winning percentages of any major American professional sports team over that span. Over a 100-game stretch from 2003-09, Belichick directed the team to 81 wins, the most in NFL history by a head coach. Additionally, the Patriots finished 2019 with 141 wins (regular and postseason) in this decade surpassing their previous NFL record for wins in a decade with 126 victories from 2000-09. Belichick has led the Patriots to a winning record in each of the last 20 seasons. From 2011-19, Belichick's teams won the AFC East title and advanced in the playoffs, with the Patriots eight straight years of playoff advancement extending their NFL record previously held by Dallas with six (1991-96). Additionally, New England is the only franchise in the NFL to qualify for the playoffs in each of the last 11 seasons (2009-19).

Belichick's 31 career playoff wins are the most all-time among head coaches, while New England's 16 playoff victories from 2010-19 are the most in any decade in NFL history. He has compiled a career playoff record of 31-12, with his .721 playoff winning percentage placing him second in NFL history.

Belichick's Patriots have rarely been rattled, able to consistently maintain leads and bounce back following losses. Since the beginning of the 2003 season, New England is 50-9 (.848) in regular-season games following a loss, dropping back-to-back regular-season contests just nine times over that span.

“Let me tell you about someone I do admire. [Bill Belichick] of the New England Patriots has been in the prisons with me. He’s met gang members in my home; he’s met gang members in Cleveland. He’s put up money. He’s opened up areas of education for us very quietly and very strongly.”

— JIM BROWN, HALL OF FAME RUNNING BACK

In addition, the Patriots have consistently maintained their focus throughout the year and have played their best football late in the season. Since 2001, the Patriots lead the league with a 114-35 (.765) overall record in games played on Thanksgiving or later in the NFL season, including playoffs. As the season wears on, the Patriots have only gotten better, posting an NFL-best 45-17 (.726) mark since 2001 in games played on Christmas or later in the NFL season and have gone an NFL-best 67-16 (.807) in the month of December.

MOVING ON UP

Belichick’s 304 career wins as a head coach rank third all-time in NFL history.

Since becoming Patriots head coach in 2000, Belichick is 69-18 (.793) in December, the second-best record in December among head coaches with one team in NFL history (min. 25 games), behind George Seifert (27-6, .818). Additionally, Belichick is the first head coach in NFL history to lead a team to three straight 500-point seasons (2010-12) and the Patriots are the first franchise in NFL history to score 500 or more points in four seasons (2007-589, 2010-518, 2011-513 and 2012-557).

2018 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Belichick guided New England to a 13-3 win against the Los Angeles Rams in Super Bowl LIII, his sixth Super Bowl win as a head coach, extending his NFL record for Super Bowl victories by a head coach. Belichick, who led New England to its eighth straight conference championship game, devised a game plan kept the high-flying Rams offense, who averaged 30 points per game, to just a field goal, tying the fewest points ever allowed in a Super Bowl.

Belichick coached the Patriots to an 11-5 regular-season record, earning his 18th straight winning season, which is now second-most behind Tom Landry’s 20 with Dallas (1966-85). He also extended his NFL record by capturing his 16th division title. It was also the club’s 10th straight, which is also an NFL record.

Belichick entered the 2018 season tied with Tom Landry for third all-time in NFL history with 250 career regular-season wins behind Don Shula (328) and George Halas (318). The 27-20 opening-day win over Houston pushed him past Landry into sole possession of third place.

Belichick’s recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in an NFL coaching career that began in 1975, during which he has helped produce eight Super Bowl titles, 12 conference championships and 23 division titles. Now in his 45th season in the NFL, he has more years of NFL experience than any of the other 31 active head coaches. He won his first two Super Bowls as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and again in 1990 before claiming six Super Bowl championships with the Patriots.

THE PATRIOT YEARS

Once he became Patriots head coach, Belichick needed just one season to successfully implement his plan for success. In 2001, his second season in charge, the Patriots rebounded from a 5-11 record in 2000 to improve to 11-5, tying what was then the franchise record for regular-season wins. With a 20-17 victory over the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, the Patriots tied the franchise’s then-record of 14 overall wins. In 2003 and 2004, the Patriots eclipsed those marks in each season, posting identical 14-2 records in the regular season and notching 17 total wins and a Super Bowl title in each year.

From 2003-04, Belichick directed the Patriots through the most prosperous two-year period for any team in NFL history, netting back-to-back Super Bowl victories and consecutive 17-2 campaigns. The team's 34 victories from 2003-04 mark the highest two-year win total in the NFL's 99-year history. An overall winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason – also unprecedented in NFL annals – spanned the two seasons. New England was undefeated at home in both 2003 and 2004, and set a franchise record by winning 21 straight home games from 2002-05.

During the 2004 season, the Patriots tied the regular-season record by a defending Super Bowl champion (14-2). New England capped the year with another memorable playoff run, culminating in a 24-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In 2005, New England won 11 games despite being forced to use 45 different starters, an NFL record for a division champion. After starting the season 4-4 and facing a rash of injuries, the Patriots won six of their next seven games to claim their third straight division title.

In 2006, Belichick directed the Patriots to a berth in the AFC Championship Game for the third time in four years and for the fourth time in six seasons. New England won the AFC East division for the fourth consecutive season and set a franchise record by allowing just 14.8 points per game. The Patriots 14 total victories tied what was then the second highest total in franchise history.

In 2007, Coach Belichick earned Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors as the Patriots became the fourth team in the league's history to complete an undefeated regular season and the first to achieve the feat since the NFL increased the number of regular-season games from 14 to 16 in 1978. Belichick joined Pro Football Hall of Famers George Halas and Don Shula as the only head coaches to complete *"Bill is a great friend and has done a tremendous job for a long time. undefeated regular seasons. New England’s 18 overall victories in 2007 tied the 1985 Chicago Bears and the 1984 San Francisco 49ers for the most in league history. New England became the first team in NFL history and the first major American pro sports team since 1884 to open a season with 18 straight wins. The Patriots set the then-NFL records for points (589) and touchdowns (75), while their +315 point differential still stands as the best in NFL history.

In 2008, Belichick led the Patriots to an 11-5 record. Despite losing QB Tom Brady to a season-ending injury in Week 1, New England ranked among the NFL’s top 10 teams in terms of yards gained (5th), points scored (8th), fewest yards allowed (10th) and fewest points allowed (8th), marking the fourth time the club finished in the top 10 in all of those categories since joining the NFL in 1970. The Patriots also finished in the top 10 in all those categories in 2015 and 2016. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Patriots were among the league’s hottest teams, winning five of their last six games and going undefeated in December (4-0).

In 2009, the Patriots finished the season with a 10-6 record and claimed another AFC East title. They became the first team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since free agency began in 1993.

In 2010, Belichick led a very young squad to an NFL-best 14-2 record, a division title and its eighth playoff appearance in his 11 seasons as New England’s head coach, receiving several major awards in the process. Belichick was named Associated Press Coach of the Year for the third time, joining Don Shula (four-time winner) and Chuck Knox as the only three-time winners. In addition, Belichick earned Peter King’s SI.com and Pro Football Weekly Coach of the Year.

Coach Belichick guided the Patriots to a league-best 518 points scored in 2010, third-most in franchise history behind the team’s 589 points in 2007 and 557 in 2012. The club record +28 turnover differential was a contributing factor to New England eclipsing 500 points for just the second time in team history. Belichick’s constant emphasis on protecting the football paid off with two NFL records. The Patriots went an NFL-record seven consecutive games without committing a turnover. No other NFL team had gone longer than four

HALL OF FAMERS

From 1981-88, Coach Belichick tutored the linebackers for the New York Giants. His unit featured Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson, both of whom are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

THE BELICHICK LIBRARY

Coach Belichick is an avid collector of football-related books, and along with his late father, Steve, amassed a library of more than 800 volumes. The library is believed to be one of the largest collection of football books in the world, behind the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Library of Congress. In 2006, Coach Belichick moved his entire library to the Naval Academy, where his father coached for 33 years. The books are housed in a display at Ricketts Hall in Annapolis for future generations of football players, coaches and fans to enjoy.

SUPER COMEBACK

Bill Belichick coached the Patriots back from a 25-point deficit to win Super Bowl LI. A comeback of that magnitude is extremely rare. There had been 2,656 games where a team led by 25 points or more in NFL history, including the postseason. Those teams were 2,689-7-2, a winning percentage of .997.

finished the 2011 season with 6,848 total net yards, setting a new franchise record for most total net yards in a season. That total is fifth all-time in NFL history.

In 2012, Belichick became the eighth head coach in NFL history to record 200 overall victories and in the process, guaranteed a .500 or better record for the Patriots for the 12th straight season with a 12-4 record. Additionally, the Patriots made their second consecutive AFC Championship Game appearance.

From 2003-12, Belichick won more regular-season games (126) and more games overall (140) over a 10-year stretch than any other head coach in NFL history. He repeated the same feat by winning 126 games from 2007-16.

In 2013, Belichick guided New England to a 12-4 record, a fifth consecutive AFC East crown and third straight appearance in the AFC Championship Game. With his fifth victory of the season in 2013, Belichick passed Chuck Noll for fifth place on the NFL wins list with his 210th win as a head coach.

In 2014, Belichick led the Patriots to a win in Super Bowl XLIX, his fourth Super Bowl win as a head coach, matching Noll for the most Super Bowl victories. In the process, he won three postseason games to set an NFL record for career playoff victories by a head coach.

Belichick earned his 21st career postseason victory in the Belichick earned his 200th regular-season victory as a head coach after the Patriots 30-7 win at Minnesota on Sept. 14, 2014. "I get a big kick out of the perception publicly — all the media, and mostly the fans, because they don't see [and] he doesn't give you much. He's not there to draw attention to himself. But if you get in a social situation around Bill, he's got so much personality. He's interesting. He's funny. He's a great friend. I can't respect our relationship more than I do. He's about as good a friend as you can expect to have. If you go to dinner, you're going to talk about a lot of subjects. It's real apparent that Bill has no ego. He's not there to impress you about his championships. He's just sharing and asking. He shares with guys he knows are interested. It's like going to graduate school times 100."

A COACHING JOURNEY

Belichick began his coaching career after graduating from Wesleyan University and accepting a staff assistant position with the Baltimore Colts in 1975. At the age of 23, he was named special assistant to Head Coach Ted Marchibroda. In 1976, Belichick joined Rick Forzano's staff with the Detroit Lions as an assistant special teams coach. The following year, he was given his first positional coaching assignment as the Lions tight ends and receivers coach. In 1978, Denver Broncos Head Coach Red Miller hired Belichick as the assistant special teams coach and assistant to defensive coordinator Joe Collier.

Belichick then spent 12 seasons with the New York Giants (1979-90) before becoming head coach of the Cleveland Browns (1991-95). He later joined Bill Parcells for several seasons as assistant head coach/secondary with New England (1996) and assistant head coach/secondary with the N.Y. Jets (1997-99) before returning to Foxborough.

Belichick returned to the Patriots as head coach after three seasons with the New York Jets as the team's assistant head coach/secondary coach, holding the responsibility of calling the team's defensive plays. In 1998, the Jets surrendered just 266 points, propelling the team to its first division title. After finishing the regular season with a franchise-best 12-4 overall record, the Jets advanced to the AFC Championship Game. In his first season with the Jets in 1997, Belichick's defense surrendered just 287 points, an average of 17.9 points per game, marking a significant 10.5-point per-game improvement from 1996.

NEW YORK GIANTS (1979-90)

In 1979, Belichick joined Ray Perkins' staff with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, launching a 12-year tenure with the Giants. After the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. In 1983, he began coordinating the defense on Bill Parcells' staff and continued coaching the linebackers, a unit that would become known as one of the most dominant groups of all-time, featuring Pro Football

"When I first got the job [in Denver], Bill left Cleveland and people asked me how I would rank the head coaches. I had Bill number one and Joe Collier and Jeff Fisher as two and three. They kind of laughed at me at that time and they said, 'What do you mean? Why would you rank him there? He didn't have a lot of success in Cleveland.' I said, 'You just wait and see.'"

— MIKE SHANAHAN, TWO-TIME SUPER BOWL CHAMPION HEAD COACH

12-WIN SEASONS

Bill Belichick owns the NFL record among head coaches with 13 seasons of 12 or more wins.

Most 12-Win Seasons Among NFL Head Coaches

Hall of Famers Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson. He was officially appointed defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. During his time as the Giants' defensive signal caller, his units were never ranked lower than 11th in the NFL and finished as high as second in the league three times, including the Super Bowl seasons of 1986 and 1990. Belichick's contributions with the Giants throughout the 1980s brought him national recognition as one of the best young assistant coaches in the NFL.

CLEVELAND BROWNS (1991-95)

Prior to joining the Patriots as an assistant, Belichick spent five seasons (1991-95) rebuilding the Cleveland Browns, whose 3-13 finish the year prior to his arrival was, up until that point, the worst in the history of the franchise. By 1994, the Browns were one of NFL's best teams, boasting the second-best record in the AFC.

Belichick's first head coaching opportunity came following the 1990 season, when his defensive efforts with the New York Giants helped claim a second Super Bowl title in five years. At the age of 38, he became the NFL's youngest head coach. In his first season, Belichick began the rebuilding process by restoring the foundation of the aging squad he inherited. In 1991, the Browns improved to 6-10 and played in 11 games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

Following back-to-back 7-9 campaigns in 1992 and 1993, the Browns improved to 11-5 in 1994, a mark that is still tied for the second-highest victory total in the history of the Browns franchise. The 1994 squad was defined by its defense, which allowed a league-low 204 points. In their return to the playoffs, the Browns defeated the Patriots, 20-13, in a first-round Wild Card game on New Year's Day 1995.

The 1995 season was disrupted by the mid-season announcement that the Cleveland Browns franchise would be moved to Baltimore at the conclusion of the campaign. The announcement caused an undeniable mid-season distraction contributing to a 5-11 finish. Belichick did not accompany the franchise's move to Baltimore after the 1995 season.

AN ASSISTANT WITH THE PATRIOTS

Patriots fans witnessed Belichick's impact on a team firsthand in 1996 when he joined the Patriots after five seasons as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns. That year, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years with an 11-5 record and won their first two playoff games at Foxboro

In 2013, he launched the Bill Belichick Foundation, a nonprofit organization created to provide coaching, mentorship and financial assistance to individuals, communities and organizations with a focus on the sports of football and lacrosse. The foundation has seen results of its work all over the globe. The program “Fields of Growth” was awarded a grant in 2014 via the foundation to build a lacrosse field in Uganda, and the group decided to name it in honor of the coach. Belichick has also supported and participated in events to aid Wesleyan University, his alma mater, which established a full, four-year scholarship for incoming students named the Belichick Scholarship. The star-studded affair raised over $500,000 to aid children and families in need. He was honored by Roxbury Comprehensive Community Center (RoxComp) and presented with the “Healthy Living Award.” He is also a supporter of Hall of Famer Jim Brown’s Amer-I-Can Foundation and has made speeches and appearances for Brown’s foundation. He also aids Hannah and Friends, a foundation founded by long-time colleague Charlie Weis to benefit individuals with special needs.

COACHING

Ivan Fears, a 43-year coaching veteran, is in his 29th season in the NFL and his 23rd with the New England Patriots in 2019. He returned to New England in 1999 after beginning his NFL coaching career with the Patriots in 1991. Since returning, he has enjoyed 16 division championships, nine conference titles and six Super Bowl championships. He is in his 18th season as running backs coach, after having coached New England's wide receivers from 1999-2001 and previously from 1991-92.

Under Fears' guidance since 2002, the Patriots running backs have helped the team finish in the top 10 in offense 13 times in the last 17 seasons: 2018 (5), 2017 (1), 2016 (4), 2015 (6), 2013 (7), 2012 (1), 2011 (2), 2010 (8), 2009 (3), 2008 (5), 2007 (1), 2005 (7) and 2004 (7). Fears has also coached four different 1,000-yard rushers from his current post: Corey Dillon (franchise record of 1,625) in 2004, BenJarvus Green-Ellis (1,008) in 2010, Stevan Ridley (1,263) in 2012 and LeGarrette Blount (1,161) in 2016.

In 2018, Sony Michel set the NFL postseason record for most rushing touchdowns by a rookie in a single postseason with six. That mark tied for second-most rushing touchdowns in a single postseason run overall behind Terrell Davis' eight rushing scores during the 1997 playoffs.

Fears' other notable accomplishments with Patriots running backs include LeGarrette Blount setting a new franchise record with 18 rushing touchdowns in 2016 and Danny Woodhead setting a franchise mark with 5.6 yards per carry (minimum 90 attempts) in 2010, topping Don Calhoun's previous team mark of 5.59 set in 1976.

In 2008, the Patriots had their best rushing season in more than 20 years, averaging 4.4 yards per carry and totaling 2,278 yards and 21 rushing touchdowns. Fears' running backs also helped to consistently sustain drives, as the Patriots led the league in rushing first downs (145) and in drives of 10 plays or longer (38).

In 2004, the Patriots averaged 4.07 yards per carry, the most since 1985 (4.13-yard avg.). Dillon set the team's single-season rushing record with 1,635 yards and led the NFL with an average of 109.0 yards per game in which he appeared.

Fears took on running backs duties in 2002, and in his first season the position produced 1,508 yards rushing — the second highest total by the Patriots since 1996.

As receivers coach in 2001, Fears helped both Troy Brown and David Patten produce career years. Brown established a franchise record with 101 receptions for a career-high 1,199 yards and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. It was Brown's first 1,000-yard season. Patten, who entered the season with just 71 career receptions in four seasons, claimed the starting role opposite Brown and was credited with 51 receptions for 749 yards and four touchdowns.

Fears originally joined the professional coaching ranks as the receivers coach on Dick MacPherson's staff with the Patriots in 1991. After two seasons in New England, he accepted a position with the Chicago Bears, where he coached the receivers for six seasons (1993-98) before returning to New England in 1999.

In 1991, his receiving corps featured Irving Fryar, Greg McMurtry and Michael Timpson. That year, Fryar turned in the first 1,000-yard season of his career, finishing with 1,014 yards on 68 receptions (14.9 avg.).

In 1993, Fears joined the Chicago Bears and inherited the team's first-round selection, Curtis Conway. In 1994, the Bears added Jeff Graham, a reserve receiver from the Steelers, and Fears helped develop the two into one of the premier receiving tandems in the league over a two-year span. In his first year with the Bears, Graham started 15 games and led the team with 68 receptions for 944 yards. In 1995, Conway and Graham became the first receiving tandem in franchise history to each record over 1,000 yards receiving in a single season. In 1996, Conway produced a career-high 81 receptions for 1,049 yards and became the first player in Bears history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.

Fears began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at William & Mary in 1976. In 1977, he drew his first positional responsibilities coaching receivers. His next two seasons (1978-79), he coached quarterbacks before accepting the role as receivers coach at Syracuse in 1980, a position he held for the next 10 seasons.

PLAYING

A three-year letterman as a running back at William & Mary (1973-75), his playing career was cut short after undergoing three knee operations during his collegiate career.

PERSONAL

Fears was born Nov. 15, 1954 in Portsmouth, Va. He grew up in Suffolk, Va., where he starred at John Yates High and was twice named the school's Outstanding Player of the Year. He also earned all-state honors as a senior. Fears and his wife, Beverly, have three children, Joshua, Aaron and Kimberly.

 SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/

15TH COACHING SEASON
8TH NFL SEASON
8TH PATRIOTS SEASON

SUPER BOWLS: 14, 16, 18

COACHING

Joe Judge enters his eighth season with the New England Patriots in 2019 and first as special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach. Judge originally joined the organization as assistant special teams coach in 2012 and was promoted to special teams coach following Scott O'Brien's retirement in 2015.

Patriots special teams units have enjoyed successful seasons in Judge's first seven years with New England. Under Judge's guidance in 2018, Patriots special teams played a key role as part of the Super Bowl LIII Champion squad. In particular, the punt coverage team repeatedly pinned the L.A. Rams offense deep in their own territory throughout the game, forcing the Rams to start three of their drives inside their own 10-yard line. Special teams were also critical in a Week 7 win at Chicago, scoring touchdowns on a kickoff return and a blocked punt en route to a 38-31 victory.

In 2017, the kickoff and kickoff receiving teams each finished third in the NFL in average drive start position. Additionally, RB Dion Lewis led the AFC and finished fourth in the NFL with a 24.8 yards-per return average and earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after returning a kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown in a Week 10 game at Denver. P Ryan Allen also enjoyed a successful season under Judge, limiting opponents to just 23 punt returns for a 4.6 yard average, the lowest in team history. Special teamer Matthew Slater was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl, matching Steve Tasker for most special teams Pro Bowl honors in NFL history.

In 2016, Judge's kickoff team led the AFC in kickoff drive start position and finished third in the NFL, while finishing second in the league in drive start position in 2015. Additionally, the kickoff return team finished seventh in the NFL in kickoff return drive start and fourth in the AFC in 2016. Judge's punt teams have enjoyed similar success, finishing second in the NFL in punt coverage and second in opponents return average. As a punt returner, WR Danny Amendola led the entire NFL in punt return average in 2015 while averaging 12 yards-per-return. Having worked with Judge since 2012, WR Julian Edelman has become one of the most efficient punt returners in the NFL. In 2012, Edelman averaged 15.5 yards-per-return while being limited by injury to only 17 punt returns that season. Edelman has become second all-time in Patriots history with a career punt return average of 11.7 yards, which also tied him for eighth all-time in the NFL for punt return average. Likewise, Judge has overseen some standout kickoff return performances. In 2016, RB Dion Lewis scored on the longest kickoff return touchdown in team postseason history with a 98-yard return for a touchdown vs. Houston in the AFC Divisional Playoff. In 2015, WR Keshawn Martin had the longest kickoff return in the AFC with his 75-yard return vs. Tennessee. In the 2016 postseason, DB Jonathan Jones finished tied for first in the NFL in postseason special teams tackles.

In addition to K Stephen Gostkowski leading the NFL in scoring for four of the past seven seasons under Judge's tutelage, Gostkowski was also elected to the Pro Bowl in 2013, 2014 and 2015. With 156 points in 2017, Gostkowski became the first player in NFL history with five 150-point seasons. He is one of three players to lead the league in scoring for at least five seasons. Under Judge's guidance, Gostkowski has been named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week five times and AFC Special Teams Player of the Month three times, while Allen has earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice while working with Judge. Additionally, under Judge's tutelage Allen has become the Patriots all-time leader in punt average with a 45.0 career average. As a rookie in 2013, Allen set a Patriots rookie record with his 39.9 net average on punts and in 2016, finished second in the AFC in net punt average. Additionally, Matthew Slater has been selected to seven straight Pro Bowls as a special teamer and earned Associated Press First Team: All-Pro honors for the first time in his career in 2016, while Nate Ebner tied for the NFL lead in special teams tackles. Slater and Ebner were also the only two special teams players in the entire NFL to be selected to the All-Pro team.

In Judge's first season in 2012, New England led the NFL in extra points and finished second in punt return yards and fewest punt return yards allowed. In 2013, the Patriots finished tied for most field goals made and field goal percentage. In 2016, the field goal unit led the league in percent made and was second in field goal percentage. In his first five years in New England, Judge's field goal blocking unit has the second-most blocked field goals across the entire NFL with seven blocked field goals.

Judge came to the Patriots after a three-year stint at the University of Alabama as a football analyst under coach Nick Saban. Prior to going to Alabama, Judge spent one season at Birmingham-Southern where he served as special teams/linebackers coach in 2008. He began his coaching career at Mississippi State as a graduate assistant under Sylvester Croom from 2005-07. While at Mississippi State, Judge tu-

COACHING

Josh McDaniels was named New England Patriots offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the 2012 season after he re-joined the Patriots coaching staff in January 2012 as an offensive assistant. The 2019 season will be McDaniels' 16th season with the Patriots overall and his 11th as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 10 seasons as offensive coordinator, McDaniels has guided the offense to eight top-10 rankings, including the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense in 2007, 2012 and 2017. Additionally, Tom Brady has been elected to the Pro Bowl eight times and eclipsed 4,000 yards passing for the 10th time in 2018 en route to the team's sixth Super Bowl Championship.

In 2016 under McDaniels' guidance, Patriots quarterbacks set NFL records by starting the season with 258 pass attempts without an interception. They threw just two interceptions overall and notched the best touchdown to interception ratio (16.00) in a single season. McDaniels also earned his fifth Super Bowl ring as a coach in 2016, his second as the Patriots offensive coordinator.

McDaniels left the Patriots to become the head coach of Denver in 2009 and in 2011, McDaniels moved on to St. Louis to become the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. Under McDaniels' guidance that season, Rams RB Steven Jackson eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the seventh consecutive season despite running behind an offensive line that started eight different combinations over the course of the season.

McDaniels spent the 2009-10 seasons as the head coach of the Denver Broncos after serving as an assistant with the Patriots from 2001-08. In his first stint with New England, McDaniels played a key role on a staff that won three Super Bowl titles and four AFC championships.

He first joined the Patriots organization as a personnel assistant on the 2001 team that defeated the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, served as a defensive assistant on the 2003 club that won Super Bowl XXXVIII and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2004, a season that culminated with a victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In addition to his role with Patriots quarterbacks, McDaniels added the title of offensive coordinator in 2006. In his second season as New England's offensive play caller in 2007, McDaniels oversaw a unit that broke several NFL records, including points scored, touchdowns scored and most players scoring a touchdown.

Under McDaniels' tutelage, 2007 NFL MVP Tom Brady broke the NFL record for touchdown passes in a season (50) and led the league in both passing yards (4,806) and passer rating (117.2). Brady also set franchise marks in nearly every major passing category, while WR Wes Welker set the franchise record for receptions in a season (112) and WR Randy Moss broke the NFL record for touchdown receptions with 23. The Patriots offense also posted the franchise's highest average yards per rush in 22 seasons with 4.1 yards per carry, and the team's 17 rushing touchdowns were the second highest in the previous 20 years.

During McDaniels' first season in Denver, QB Kyle Orton set career-highs for pass attempts, completions, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while tying his career low for interceptions. Orton's 3,802 yards were the sixth-highest for a season in Broncos history. In 2010, the Broncos ranked seventh in the NFL in passing yards per game and finished 13th in total yards per game. WR Brandon Lloyd led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,448 and finished second in the AFC with 11 touchdown catches en route to his first Pro Bowl invitation.

Entering 2019, Brady has been elected to 10 Pro Bowls during his 11 seasons with McDaniels serving as his position coach. After Brady suffered a season-ending knee injury in the 2008 regular-season opener, another McDaniels protégé, Matt Cassel, led the club to a 10-5 record as a starter. In his first season as an NFL starter, Cassel posted the fourth-best completion percentage in Patriots history (63.4) while passing for 3,693 yards with 21 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

Prior to joining Bill Belichick's staff, McDaniels spent one season as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban at Michigan State.

PLAYING

McDaniels attended John Carroll University, where he played quarterback and wide receiver for the Blue Streaks from 1995-98. McDaniels was a college teammate of former NFL linebacker London Fletcher, Patriots director of player personnel Nick Caserio, former assistant quarterbacks coach Jerry Schuplinski and director of pro personnel Dave Ziegler.

PERSONAL

A native of Canton, Ohio, McDaniels is the son of one of the most well-respected high school coaches in the country. Thom McDaniels was a finalist for the NFL High School Coach of the Year award in 2012, and Josh benefited from growing up in a football family.

Josh and his wife, Laura, have four children.

COACHING

Dante Scarnecchia returned to coaching the New England Patriots offensive line in 2016 and is now in his 48th coaching season. He re-joined the coaching staff in 2016 after a two-year retirement. Scarnecchia is a 47-year coaching veteran who is enjoying his 36th season as an NFL assistant. He owns the longest coaching tenure in Patriots history, now entering his 34th season on the Patriots sidelines and is the longest current tenured NFL coach. The last NFL coach to garner at least 30 seasons with one team was Dick Hoak, who spent an NFL-record 35 seasons as an assistant with Pittsburgh. Since joining the NFL in 1982, he has spent all but two of his coaching seasons (1989-90) with the Patriots. He has enjoyed 17 division championships, nine conference titles and five Super Bowl championships.

Scarnecchia has been on the Patriots coaching staff during 21 of the franchise's 26 playoff seasons and has coached in 48 of the 57 playoff games in team history.

In 2018, Scarnecchia coached an offensive line that finished fifth in the NFL in overall offense and fourth in scoring. For the 19th season in 2019, Scarnecchia's primary responsibility will be the offensive line, a position he has coached for 32 of his 48 seasons in the profession. Bill Belichick named Scarnecchia the Patriots assistant head coach/offensive line coach on Feb. 1, 2000, a position he would hold until his retirement after the 2013 season.

Throughout Scarnecchia's tenure as offensive line coach, the offense has flourished, finishing near the top of the major statistical categories nearly every season.

One of Scarnecchia's major coaching accomplishments came in 2009, when the Patriots offensive line allowed just 18 sacks, the fewest in New England history since the NFL moved to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2007, Scarnecchia was named SI.com's NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. Anchored by an offensive line that sent three players to the Pro Bowl (C Dan Koppen, T Matt Light and G Logan Mankins), the Patriots offense broke several NFL records, including total points and touchdowns. The offensive line powered a Patriots rushing attack that posted the franchise's highest average yards per rush in 22 years (4.10). Protected by the line, NFL MVP Tom Brady broke the NFL record for touchdown passes in a season (50) and led the league in both passing yards (4,806) and passer rating (117.2, also a franchise record).

New England's protection up front has been a significant contributor to the team's Super Bowl winning seasons. In 2016, Scarnecchia's offensive line paved the way for RB LeGarrette Blount to score a franchise record 18 rushing touchdowns. In 2004, the line opened holes for running back Corey Dillon to set a single-season franchise record with 1,635 rushing yards and led the NFL with 109.0 yards per game played. In 2003, the offensive line did not allow a sack in any of the team's three postseason games despite 126 pass attempts. In 2001, Scarnecchia worked with a unit that featured three new starters, but still produced a powerful rushing attack and a balanced passing attack on the way to the franchise's first Super Bowl victory.

Prior to becoming offensive line coach, Scarnecchia coached the Patriots special teams units for two seasons (1997-98).

Scarnecchia originally joined the Patriots and made his NFL coaching debut in 1982 as a member of Ron Meyer's staff. He coached the tight ends and special teams for the Patriots for seven seasons (1982-88) before moving on to Indianapolis with Meyer in 1989. He rejoined the Patriots in 1991 after spending two seasons (1989-90) as the Colts offensive line coach. From 1991 to 1992, he coached the tight ends and special teams on Dick MacPherson's staff. On Nov. 4, 1992, MacPherson fell ill and appointed Scarnecchia to serve as the team's spokesman in his absence. Scarnecchia fulfilled the obligation for seven of the Patriots final eight games and held the responsibilities of the head coach for both of the Patriots victories that season.

In 1993, Scarnecchia was the only Patriots assistant retained from the previous staff. He was appointed special assistant from 1993-94, which was re-defined as defensive assistant from 1995-96. During that time, he assisted defensive coordinator Al Groh with the development of the team's linebacking corps.

Scarnecchia's coaching career began in 1970 as the offensive line coach at California Western University. He moved to Iowa State in 1973, where he served as the assistant offensive line and assistant defensive backfield coach. He spent the 1975 and 1976 campaigns at Southern Methodist University, before becoming the University of Pacific's offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1977 through 1978. In 1979, Scarnecchia coached at Northern Arizona and then accepted an opportunity to return to Meyer's staff at SMU as the offensive line coach in 1980 and 1981. In 1982, Meyer was hired as the head coach of the New England Patriots and Scarnecchia was among a number of the SMU assistants who joined Meyer's staff in New England.

PLAYING

Scarnecchia played offensive guard and center at California Western University from 1968-70. He began his collegiate career at Taft Junior College in 1966 before transferring to California Western.

PERSONAL

Dante Scarnecchia was born Feb. 15, 1948, in Los Angeles, Calif. He holds a master's degree in physical education from U.S. International. Scarnecchia and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Lisa, and a son, Steve. They also have two grandchildren, Brayden and Cameron Simmer.

Caserio is also credited as one of the architects of the Super Bowl XLIX, Super Bowl LI and Super Bowl LIII Champion New England Patriots.

In Caserio's 18 seasons with the club, the Patriots have qualified for the Super Bowl nine times with six wins, captured 16 AFC East crowns and made the playoffs every year except 2002 and 2008. Caserio has been instrumental in drafting, signing and developing players who have become cornerstones of one of the most successful NFL franchises of all time. In addition to his time in the player personnel department, Caserio returned to the field in 2007 to coach the wide receivers, a season in which the offense broke many NFL records en route to an undefeated regular season.

In addition to his duties in the personnel department, Caserio continues to handle coaching booth responsibilities for the coaching staff on game days.

Caserio entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Saginaw Valley State University in 1999 and spent two seasons with the program. Following a brief time with Central Michigan as a graduate assistant in the spring of 2001, he joined the Patriots scouting department.

Caserio was a standout player at John Carroll University, starting at quarterback in each of his four seasons, as the team compiled a 33-7-2 record. He was a two-time captain and three-time All-Conference performer. In 1997, he helped lead the Blue Streaks to a 10-2 record and the school's second appearance in the NCAA Division III Tournament, where it advanced to the national quarterfinals. He was college teammates at John Carroll with former NFL linebacker London Fletcher, Patriots offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Josh McDaniels, director of pro personnel Dave Ziegler and former Patriots assistant quarterbacks coach Jerry Schuplinski.

Caserio is a native of Lyndhurst, Ohio. He earned his degree in finance from John Carroll and later earned his master's of business administration from Saginaw Valley State. ## EXTRA POINTS

- As a junior at the University of Nebraska, Rex formed a close bond with a 5-year old fan of his, Jack Hoffman, who had been diagnosed with brain cancer. During that 2011 season, Rex wore a wristband with the phrase "Team Jack," which helped bring pediatric brain cancer into the national spotlight. Burkhead hosted Hoffman for a lunch, provided a personal tour of Memorial Stadium and has since joined the board of directors of the "Team Jack Foundation," which has raised more than $4 million dollars to fight pediatric brain cancer since 2013. Rex recently hosted a fund raiser this past offseason at his high school alma mater that raised roughly $45,000. In 2013, Jack Hoffman's touchdown run during Nebraska's spring football scrimmage went viral and earned him an ESPY award.
- Burkhead is named after 1980s University of Kentucky basketball star Rex Chapman. Rex was born in Kentucky and his father had played in high school against Chapman, who went on to a 13-year career in the NBA.

EXTRA POINTS

- Adam Butler arrived at Vanderbilt as an accomplished high school offensive lineman and spent his freshman season redshirting as a backup at center and guard. During his first offseason, Butler entered a rib eating contest, which judges ruled his team had lost. Butler disagreed and began arguing with the judges.

Then Commodore defensive coordinator Bob Shoop was in attendance and witnessed Butler's demeanor and was impressed with his competitive attitude. Shoop convinced then-head coach James Franklin to ask Butler to transition to defense.

"Coach Franklin brought me into his office and he asked me what I wanted, and I wanted whatever was best for the team," said Butler. "Because we were so short on defensive linemen at that time, that's how it happened."

- Contributed on defense with one tackle and made a key sack of QB Sam Darnold for a 5-yard loss, while also forcing a fumble on the play that was picked up by LB Kyle Van Noy and returned 46 yards for a New England touchdown in the win vs. the New York Jets (12/30).

- Made two tackles with a half-sack in the win vs. Buffalo (12/21).

Collins' resiliency in dealing with adversity has made a lasting impact on fellow Mississippi native and former Patriots teammate Stevan Ridley, who grew up 30 miles west of Meadville in Natchez, Miss., and got to know Collins through a family friend.

"What I've known about him, he really has been a strong person," Ridley told the Herald. "Anybody that's gone through the things that he's gone through and still finds a way to be successful on the football field, you have to be mentally tough. That's what he's kind of done as a teammate here. He's come in here and accepted his role and done a pretty good job as a rookie."

STANDOUT COLLEGE QB TO NFL WR

Edelman began his college football career with a year at the College of San Mateo (Calif.) before transferring to Kent State where, as a senior, he completed 56 percent of his passes (153 of 275 passes for 1,820 yards) with 13 touchdowns. He was also the leading rusher, gaining 1,551 yards on 215 attempts (an average of 7.5 yards per carry) and scoring 13 touchdowns. His offensive numbers broke Kent State's single-season record for total offense set by Joshua Cribbs in 2003.

Said head coach Bill Belichick on the versatility of Edelman: "He played the quarterback position in college at Kent State and all the positions really that he's played in the NFL – covering kicks, returning kicks, slot receiver, outside receiver, slot defender – he didn't do any of those things in college. I think that really speaks to his versatility and how much he's grown as a player and how many things he's learned how to do that he really didn't have much experience with in college. I'd say that's pretty unusual, especially to be as competent in them as he is."

Bernard lost his mother at a young age, and his father lost his business and eventually the family home when he was in high school. Their only option for shelter was a car. That's when White's parents intervened and the two running backs lived together for their senior year of high school.

"I consider [White] my brother. There was never a time that I didn't consider him that," Bernard told the Providence Journal. "His family did so much for me."

The Whites had a spare bedroom because their eldest son, Tyrone Jr., was away at college.

"He was pretty much like my brother. We treated him like family and still do," White said.

THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY RAYTHEON

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. It's incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last three years and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those titles. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

HISTORY OF THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

The Patriots Hall of Fame was established in 1991 as a way to honor the greatest players in franchise history. A selection committee of media and staff was formed to select players for induction and appropriately, John Hannah was the first player enshrined. Eight additional players were inducted from 1992-95. Andre Tippett (1999) and Bruce Armstrong (2001) rounded out the Patriots Hall of Fame's first 11 members. In 2007, the Patriots introduced a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the opening of The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans voting for the final choice through Patriots.com each spring.

SENIOR SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Patriots formed a senior selection committee to ensure that early era players are not overlooked in the voting process. The committee consists of veteran media and staff members who gather to discuss candidates who have been retired for at least 25 years to identify the player most deserving of Patriots Hall of Fame recognition.

His only 2004 interception that did not come inside the 20-yard line was a fourth-quarter interception in Super Bowl XXXIX that ended Philadelphia's last drive to clinch the championship ... In his first two seasons in New England, Harrison was not only the Patriots leading tackler each year, but he also led all NFL defensive backs in tackles both seasons ... He set a career-high with 140 tackles in 2003, followed by a 138-tackle performance in 2004 ... Additionally, he was the leading tackler in the 2003 and 2004 postseasons, while also recording two sacks, six interceptions, seven passes defended and two forced fumbles in the six games leading to New England's back-to-back Super Bowl championships ... He is the all-time leader in sacks by a defensive back with 30½, including nine during his time with the Patriots ... He is the only defensive back in NFL history with 30 sacks and 30 interceptions, with eight of those picks coming during his Patriots career ... ## 98.5 THE SPORTS HUB PATRIOTS RADIO NETWORK

BOSTON'S HOME FOR SPORTS

Scott Zolak

Six seasons, three Super Bowl championships: it's been a great ride for Bob Socci as the radio voice of the Patriots.

Socci returns for his seventh season in the booth as play-by-play broadcaster on 98.5 The Sports Hub and its 40-station network. He's won rave reviews for his enthusiasm and accuracy since taking the helm for the 2013 campaign. Before joining the Patriots, Bob served as the voice of the Naval Academy Midshipmen for 16 seasons, and called Triple A baseball, most recently for the Pawtucket Red Sox, for a decade.

Socci is joined in the booth by former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, who's entering his eighth season as action analyst. Prior to moving upstairs he spent a season with the legendary broadcast team of Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti as a sideline reporter. Prior to that, he served six seasons as a co-host of "Patriots Preview" and "Patriots Postgame" on the Radio Network. He's currently heard daily as co-host of the "Zolak and Bertrand" Show on the Sports Hub, where his experience as a pro athlete and his boundless energy keep Boston listeners engaged and entertained all year long.

The gameday experience on the Network starts three hours before kickoff with "Patriots Preview," with hosts Marc Bertrand and Christopher Gasper. The co-host of the Sports Hub's midday show, Bertrand is entering his fifth season as quarterback of the Network's pre and postgame programming. He previously helmed the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for two seasons. A UMass grad, he won Associated Press awards for both his play-by-play and talk shows covering the Minutemen. Marc is also a frequent contributor to NBC Sports Boston. Gasper is back for his 12th season on "Patriots Preview," his fourth as a full-fledged co-host. The Lynn Mass., native is a Boston Globe columnist, and he also co-hosts the Saturday morning "Gasper & Murray" show on the Sports Hub.

Joining Bertrand on "Patriots Postgame" is Jim Murray of the Sports Hub's "Felger & Massarotti" show. Jim also hosted the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for two seasons. He and Bertrand will take over right after the final whistle, breaking down the game, airing postgame press conferences and giving the fans a chance to react.

The football season never ends on the Patriots flagship station, 98.5 The Sports Hub. The New England Patriots Cheerleaders and Pat Patriot Mascot look forward to another banner year in 2019. The Patriots Cheerleaders have been featured in Muscle and Fitness Hers and Sports Illustrated. The team has consistently been praised for its ability to harness and develop relationships with fans and aspiring cheerleaders through their interactive website and very popular social media platforms. Supporting the efforts of charitable organizations throughout New England, the cheerleaders are able to use their celebrity status to make a difference in the community. In addition to their philanthropic efforts, the squad makes about 1,000 individual public appearances annually for businesses and corporations, spreading cheer to fans at a variety of events throughout New England and across the country. Those bookings include trade shows, grand openings, parades, autograph sessions and Monday Night Football promotions, to name a few.

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders proudly maintain a well-established Junior Cheer-7-17 attend a clinic with the squad, perform on the Gillette Stadium field, and make community appearances with the Patriots Cheerleaders throughout the season in conjunction with the squad's community relations efforts. While the Patriots Cheerleaders have become accustomed to entertaining thousands of Patriots fans from the sidelines, members of the squad have traveled overseas on goodwill missions to entertain thousands of patriots on the front lines. The Patriots Cheerleaders have performed in over two dozen combat areas and have visited more than 25 countries. ## THE PATRIOTS AND THE COMMUNITY

A WINNING TEAM

Twenty-five years ago, when the Kraft family purchased the New England Patriots, one of their first orders of business was to establish the New England Patriots Foundation and to give back to the communities they call home. Since its inception, the Patriots Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit entity, has supported thousands of charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

The foundation's primary goal is to support programs that aid the youth and families of New England while underscoring the Kraft family's deep commitment to philanthropic activities in the community. The foundation has assisted programs that foster cultural diversity, education, family and health. The foundation has also taken a special interest in youth programs that encourage education, creativity and development of character.

New England Patriots Foundation Children's Holiday Party

The annual Children's Holiday Party is one of the Kraft family's and the foundation's long-standing charitable traditions. Each year, more than 250 children in need from the Salvation Army and community centers throughout the region enjoy a night of food, fun and holiday memories at Gillette Stadium. Patriots players, cheerleaders and Pat Patriot join the children to play holiday-themed games, sign autographs and provide the children with holiday gifts. The annual highlight of the event is a game called "Build-A-Tree," a game in which the children, working in teams, race to decorate Patriots players in bows, ornaments, tinsel and more. Since this event was established, more than 5,000 children have enjoyed this holiday celebration.

Thanksgiving-in-a-Basket

More than 25 years ago, one of the first community events hosted by the New England Patriots Foundation was their Thanksgiving basket giveaway. Each year, on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, the Kraft family is joined by current and former Patriots players at Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries in Boston to ensure that families enjoy a complete Thanksgiving meal. All of the recipients are families who participate in Goodwill's job training programs and are overcoming barriers to self-sufficiency. Over the past 25 years, the Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation have presented more than 5,000 complete Thanksgiving meals to families in need.

Patriots players, cheerleaders and Pat Patriot participate in a variety of holiday-themed games during the annual Children's Holiday Party.

Current and former Patriots players have also hosted football clinics at military bases, visited veterans hospitals, taken part in deployment ceremonies, helped build homes for wounded veterans and much more.

Youth Football

The Kraft family and the New England Patriots Foundation are committed to providing opportunities for youth to play the game of football. Each year, the foundation teams with the New England Patriots Alumni Club to host more than 25 Football for YOU clinics all across New England. These free, one-day clinics

The foundation has also donated millions of dollars to help local youth programs purchase equipment and renovate their fields. The Patriots celebrate youth football during the preseason, honor outstanding coaches with their High School Coach of the Week program and Gillette Stadium hosts the Massachusetts high school football state championships. The foundation is also actively involved in flag football leagues across the region and plays host to the Special Olympics Flag Football and Cheerleading Championships at Gillette Stadium. Through these programs, the Kraft family and the Patriots Foundation continue to advocate for the health and safety of the game while also providing opportunities for youth to participate.

Each week throughout the season, the Kraft family and New England Patriots Foundation recognize an individual that has gone above and beyond to give back to their community with the Patriots Difference Maker of the Week award.
