Gillette STADIUM

www.GilletteStadium.com @GilletteStadium

Gillette Stadium, home of the New England Patriots, is the region's premier sports and entertainment venue. Since opening in 2002, every Patriots home game has sold out and fans have enjoyed more regular season and postseason victories than any other team in the NFL.

In 18 seasons, the venue has hosted more than 11 million football fans attending Patriots games and has been the site of seven AFC Championship games – six of them being Patriots victories. During that span, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home with an overall record of 139-27, including a 19-4 playoff record in Foxborough.

The Kraft family continually invests in Gillette Stadium with improvements designed to keep the venue on the cutting edge and enhance the fan experience. To that end, the stadium will be spending the next several years renovating and refreshing the main concourse with new concession concepts, including beer halls and grab-and-go food and beverage options and more communal gathering areas. Notable infrastructure updates for the 2019 season included installing the Super Bowl LIII championship banner; expanding and redesigning the uBid Gate; redesigning the Patriots four merchandise stands on the main concourse; refreshing the aesthetic of the concession stands in the upper concourse and expanding the Patriots Player Dining Room.

NOTABLE GILLETTE STADIUM IMPROVEMENTS

2010: Installed two Daktronics high-definition LED video scoreboards.

2011: Remodeled the Putnam Club to offer 120,000 square feet of comfort.

2012: Became one of the largest NFL venues to offer free WiFi with enough bandwidth to accommodate every fan.

2013: Installed more than 14,000 square feet of LED ribbon boards and four digital panels above the main concourse; Launched Patriots Gameday Live App to offer fans exclusive in-game content.

2014: Installed LED signage throughout the stadium; Upgraded the field surface; Expanded football operations facility by 30,000 square feet.

2015: Reconfigured Super Bowl Championship banner display; Opened the Optum Field Lounge, Cross Insurance Pavilion & Business Center, DraftKings Fantasy Sports Zone and two super suites; Expanded the CarMax pedestrian bridge in the north end of the stadium; Installed additional LED ribbon boards.

2016: Remodeled suites; Expanded administrative offices; Upgraded the venue's WiFi; Introduced new concessions featuring locally sourced ingredients from New England-based farms.

2017: Reconfigured Super Bowl Championship banner display; Opened Union Point and the JetBlue Landings on the upper concourse; Installed a stainless steel food and drink rail encircling the entire 300-level.

2018: Renovated the Patriots Locker Room; Redesignated and expanded the Bank of America Gate; Converted stadium field lights to LED; Renovated the Putnam Clubs; Installed stainless steel food and drink rails in the north and south ends of the main concourse; Constructed more enclosed gathering spaces throughout the upper concourse; Added more TVs throughout the upper concourse.

Gillette Stadium is also the home of Major League Soccer's New England Revolution and annually hosts an array of sports and entertainment events like international soccer matches, NCAA athletics, Feld Motor Sports and high school football state championships. In 2016, the stadium hosted the NHL Winter Classic. Gillette Stadium is also one of the world's top grossing concert venues, according to Billboard, and has hosted many of the biggest acts in music, including Taylor Swift, Kenny Chesney, the Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel and Elton John, Coldplay and Beyoncé, just to name a few.

The stadium's design celebrates New England's heritage with a stylized lighthouse and bridge that greets fans entering from Patriot Place Plaza and creates the stadium's signature view.

GILLETTE STADIUM FUN FACTS

The Height of Design

The stadium's signature lighthouse in the north end zone rises 10 stories above the playing field, but is dwarfed by the height of the stadium itself, which is 16 stories tall.

Worth the Weight

Approximately 6,300 pieces of blue steel form the structure of Gillette Stadium, weighing in at 16,000 tons.

Lap of Luxury

The Putnam Clubs on each side of Gillette Stadium are larger than a football field, with cathedral ceilings four stories high and a floor-to-ceiling glass wall providing an end zone to end zone view of the field.

The Suite Life

The stadium's 88 luxury suites each have granite-topped wet bars, marbled bathrooms and personal attendants.

Making Room

The construction of Gillette Stadium required the removal of 90,000 cubic yards of blasted bedrock, 310,000 cubic yards of total excavated material and the demolition of the old Foxboro Stadium and race-track. All materials were repurposed into the construction of Gillette Stadium.

Concrete Example

The foundation of Gillette Stadium consists of 17,500 cubic yards of concrete, enough to build a sidewalk from here to Boston, on both sides of the street.

A Light Snack

On a typical game day, Patriots fans eat more than one ton of Italian sausage and warm up with 186 gallons of clam chowder.

Teamwork

Up to 5,000 staff are necessary to operate Gillette Stadium for a Patriots game, at a ratio of one worker for every 13.7 fans.

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon Technologies offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. Its incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last five years and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those championships. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to The Hall of Fame. The journey continues through 20,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall of Fame's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' six Lombardi trophies.

The Hall of Fame features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction from Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from former NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Additionally, fans can make Malcolm Butler's famous championship-clinching interception in The Hall of Fame's incredible Super Bowl Experience exhibit.

The Hall of Fame's 25 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Exclusive video content is also displayed on 34 high-definition TV monitors, 11 projection screens and the 45-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Theater, where a 17-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each Patriots Hall of Fame is immortalized on 30-foot high, five-foot wide video pylons utilizing high-resolution LED displays. Fans can choose which Hall of Fame to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

the Numbers" exhibit, presented by Raytheon Technologies, which uses football to teach math and science in a fun and interactive way.

In 2015, Yankee magazine named The Patriots Hall of Fame "Best Sports Museum". In 2009, The Hall of Fame received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall of Fame was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.patriotshalloffame.com.

"One of the greatest things about sports is the bond players and fans share. You feel like you've lived through the same experiences and share the same memories. That was one of our motivations in building The Hall. We wanted to create a place where our fans and alumni could visit and relive those moments together. We wanted to preserve the legacy of this franchise and give our greatest players the most prominent display of any hall of fame in the world."

THE POWER TO share success

How does a military officer succeed in a civilian career? Brian Jones was determined to find out. After 8 years serving our country, he returned home and found his footing with help from other veterans at Bank of America. His mentor taught him how to apply his military thinking to his new job. Now Brian himself mentors new veterans, and passes down what he learned from transforming that new civilian job into a fulfilling career.

Bank of America values the strong sense of teamwork and leadership that veterans can bring to a business. To learn more about Brian's story and Bank of America's commitment to hiring and mentoring veterans, visit bankofamerica.com/militarysupport.

Robert Kraft, founder, chairman and CEO of the Kraft Group, is an American entrepreneur, investor and philanthropist whose portfolio of businesses and brands range across many verticals, including paper and packaging, sports and entertainment, real estate and venture investing. His holdings include the New England Patriots, New England Revolution, Boston Uprising, Gillette Stadium, International Forest Products, Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard and a portfolio of more than 100 venture and private equity investments.

A lifelong football fan and 23-year New England Patriots season-ticket holder before buying the team, Kraft became the chairman and CEO of the Patriots when he took ownership on Jan. 21, 1994. That day he pledged, "My objective in buying the Patriots is to help bring a championship to New England." That seemed to be a tall order considering the team's prior success rate. Now, 26 years later, the Patriots boast six Lombardi Trophies and the highest winning percentage in all of professional sports.

In the five years prior to Kraft's ownership, the team had only won 19 of 80 games (.238 winning percentage) with no playoff appearances. In fact, in the 34-year history of the franchise (1960-93), the Patriots had won just 229 games (including playoffs), averaging just 6.6 wins per season, and had qualified for the playoffs a mere six times.

The year Kraft bought the team (1994), the Patriots advanced to the playoffs for the first time in eight seasons. In his first five years of ownership, the Patriots won 49 games and qualified for the playoffs four times, even advancing to the Super Bowl in just his third season at the helm (1996). Over Kraft's 26 seasons (1994-2019), the Patriots won an unprecedented 324 games (including playoffs) for an average of 12.5 wins per season. NFL history.

Playoff games offer another stark contrast. Prior to 1994, Patriots fans had only been treated to one home playoff game, which the Patriots lost to the Houston Oilers in 1978. Since 1994, the Patriots have qualified for the playoffs 21 times — 19 as division champions — and hosted 27 home playoff games, in which they have gone 23-4 (.852).

The worst-to-first ascent of the New England Patriots since Kraft purchased the team may be the greatest in sports history. Under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have incurred the fewest losing seasons (2) in the NFL since 1994, recorded at least nine wins in 23 of 26 seasons and won more division titles (19) and conference crowns (10) than any other NFL team. In 2018, the Patriots claimed their sixth Super Bowl championship during Kraft's tenure. No other team has more in NFL history.

INSTALLING HIS VISION

It didn't take long for Kraft's vision to come into focus. His personal investment in the team restored the faith of Patriots fans and rejuvenated interest throughout New England. The year he bought the team, season ticket sales soared to new heights, eclipsing 40,000 for the first time in franchise history. By the start of his first season, every game was sold out, a feat that had never been accomplished in the franchise's previous 34 seasons. That achievement ensured that local broadcast blackouts would be lifted and every Patriots game, home and away, would be televised throughout New England for the first time in team history. Since then, every game has been sold out. Entering the 2020 season, the Patriots have sold out 285 consecutive home games, including all preseason and playoff games, dating back to the first regular-season home game in 1994.

Kraft and the Patriots organization have built a winning team in the community. Established in 1994, the New England Patriots Foundation was created to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England.

"MY OBJECTIVE IN BUYING THE PATRIOTS IS TO HELP BRING A CHAMPIONSHIP TO NEW ENGLAND."

— ROBERT KRAFT, JAN. 21, 1994

ASCENSION

The transformation of the Patriots under Kraft's leadership constitutes one of the greatest franchise revivals in sports history. After winning back-to-back Super Bowls and three titles in four years, Forbes magazine named the Patriots "The Best Team in Sports" in 2005.

In 2007, the New England Patriots won a then franchise-record fifth consecutive division title. They also became the first NFL team to win 16 games during the regular season and the only team to ever win 18 consecutive games in one season. The undefeated regular season boosted the team's regular-season record from 2003 to 2007 to 66-14 for a remarkable .825 winning percentage. The 66 regular-season wins in that span are the most by any team over any five-year stretch in NFL history. Additionally, from Oct. 5, 2003, to Nov. 8, 2008, the Patriots won 81 games and lost only 19, matching the most successful 100-game stretch since the league was founded in 1920.

The Kraft-era Patriots also set three significant NFL records for consecutive wins. From 2003-04, the Patriots won 21 consecutive games, including playoffs. From 2006-08, the Patriots won 21 consecutive regular-season games. Additionally, the Patriots established an NFL record by winning 10 consecutive playoff games (2001-05). During that time, the Patriots also won 21 consecutive games at Gillette Stadium, the longest home win streak in franchise history. The Patriots tied that home win streak after winning their 21st consecutive home game on Nov. 24, 2019.

The success the Patriots sustained during the first two decades of the new millennium is unrivaled. The Patriots 126 total victories (including playoffs) from 2000-09 were at the time, the most by any team in one decade in the history of the NFL. The decade of dominance featured more Super Bowl titles (3), conference titles (4), division titles (7), playoff wins (14), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team. In addition, no other NFL team hosted more playoff games (9) or played in more playoff games (18) than the New England Patriots. The sustained success earned the franchise "Team of the Decade" acclaim from many publications. The ensuing decade was even more productive with 141 total victories, 10 division titles, five conference crowns, 23 playoff games and three Super Bowl wins.

GETTING HIS START

Kraft launched his career in the paper and packaging industry with Rand-Whitney Group, Inc., of Worcester, Massachusetts, a company he later acquired. Under his leadership, the Kraft Group's paper and packaging division has grown into one the largest privately-owned and fully-integrated paper and packaging companies in America consisting of corrugated packaging facilities, paper mills, global paper distribution and waste paper processing. International Forest Products, a global distributor and marketer found by Kraft in 1972, is the seventh-largest exporter in North America and has consistently been ranked among the top 10 in the annual rankings published by The Journal of Commerce. Within his companies, Kraft also built the first paper mill that produces product from 100 percent post-consumer fiber and waste water in the country. In doing so, he set a new industry standard for environmental responsibility which he has modeled across his other businesses.

After claiming their third Super Bowl in four years, Forbes selected the New England Patriots as the best team in sports. The accompanying article recognized how Robert Kraft built the Patriots organization into a winner on and off the field.

A WINNING TRADITION

Robert Kraft's winning percentage with the Patriots (.698) since taking over the team in 1994 is the highest among all owners/ownership groups with at least 200 wins (regular and postseason). He is one of just four owners with at least 200 wins and a winning percentage over .600.

Throughout Kraft's professional career, many of his biggest risks have yielded the greatest rewards. That was true throughout his pursuit of Patriots ownership, beginning in 1985 when he first purchased an option on the land surrounding the old stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts. It was a large investment for an underdeveloped parcel of land, but proved to be an important first step in a long process toward buying the Patriots. In 1988, he took another step by purchasing the stadium out of bankruptcy court. With a binding lease through 2001, the acquisition of the old stadium proved to be an invaluable asset in Kraft's quest toward owning the team.

When his opportunity came to buy the team in January of 1994, Kraft faced a difficult business dilemma. He had to decide between committing over $172 million of family resources to purchase the Patriots or accept a lucrative $75 million buy-out offer to void the final years of the team's stadium lease and allow the team to move out of New England. On Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft passed on the buyout offer, choosing instead to make an 11th-hour bid to buy the team. On Feb. 26, 1994, a day after Kraft earned league approval, season tickets for the 1994 season went on sale and Patriots fans showed their support for Kraft's decision in record numbers. By the end of the first business day, amidst a winter Nor'easter, 9,958 season ticket orders were processed, shattering the previous single-day sales record of 979. The show of support validated Kraft's decision to buy the team and gave him the confidence to focus the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership. Kraft is a trustee emeritus at Columbia, a trustee of Boston College and has received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities. He was awarded the NCAA's highest honor when he received the Theodore Roosevelt Award, "presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishments." He has also received the Harvard Business School Alumni Achievement Award as well as the prestigious honor of being inducted into the 231st class of American Academy of Arts and Sciences, one of the nation's oldest and most learned societies. In 2012, he became the first NFL owner to receive the Pro Football Writers Association's George Halas Award. That year, he was also inducted into the Columbia Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2013, he received the Carnegie Hall Medal of Excellence. In 2016, Kraft was inducted into the Broadcasting & Cable Hall of Fame.

Robert Kraft and his family have consistently donated time, resources, relationships and expertise to a wide range of charities, nonprofits and causes, resulting in lifetime giving in excess of $500 million. While his philanthropic efforts have been a pillar of his life for more than 50 years, his contributions across a range of causes, particularly focused on social justice and healthcare, have received well-deserved recognition in recent years.

For the past six years, Kraft has made surprise catalyst gifts on a monthly basis to New England-based nonprofits with the purpose of creating equity for our most vulnerable populations. These gifts have exceeded $10 million through the Kraft Family Foundation, as it seeks to support initiatives that provide equal access and opportunities, facilitate social and economic mobility and create social safety nets where they do not currently exist. In 2019, Kraft became a founding partner in creating the REFORM Alliance, a foundation focused on American criminal justice reform through changing laws, policies, hearts and minds to reduce the number of long-term incarcerations resulting from minor probation and parole violations. Kraft was also awarded the 2019 Genesis Prize, referred to as the "Jewish Nobel" by Time magazine. As the Genesis Prize Laureate, Kraft announced a $20 million commitment to establish a foundation to combat antisemitism.

The Kraft family believes that equity of access to quality education and healthcare are the cornerstones to a vibrant and successful community and have established more than three dozen permanent endowments at educational, healthcare and social service organizations. In addition, Kraft donated $25 million to Mass General Brigham to establish the Kraft Center for Community Health, an initiative designed to develop solutions for the most difficult health problems. The Kraft Center services include a mobile health program with a CareZone mo-

Of all of the great teams throughout the Super Bowl era, the New England Patriots and the San Francisco 49ers have set a standard of extended excellence above all of the others. The 49ers run of success spanned two decades, while New England's streak is still in progress.

The Kraft family also committed $20 million to Harvard Business School to establish the Kraft Precision Medicine Accelerator, an initiative to pursue programs to realize the potential of precision medicine in care of cancer and other serious diseases.

Kraft has supported many initiatives and donated millions of dollars to help those in need during the COVID-19 crisis. As local hospitals were experiencing shortages in personal protective equipment, Kraft teamed up with Massachusetts Governor Charlie Baker to secure more than 1.8 million respirator masks for frontline workers in Massachusetts, New York and Rhode Island. He also partnered with Massachusetts Military Support Foundation's Food4Vets program to provide more than 3 million meals to military, veterans and their families. In addition to creating a distribution center at Gillette Stadium, he used the Patriots truck to deliver thousands of additional meals to veterans throughout New England as well as to some of the communities most impacted by the coronavirus. Kraft provided Gillette Stadium as a host site for 17 weeks of blood drives and facilitated drive-thru testing for thousands of public safety officials and supply chain workers. When schools closed in Boston, Kraft purchased Chromebooks for Boston Public Schools to allow students without computers the opportunity to attend their classes virtually.

Jonathan Kraft is the president of the Kraft Group, the holding company of the Kraft family's varied business interests. He is also the president of the six-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots. As president of the Patriots, Kraft oversees the management and strategic planning of each department within the organization. He also works closely with his father to represent the Patriots in all league matters and serves on multiple NFL owner committees.

Kraft's NFL obligations are only a small part of his day-to-day responsibilities, which are as diversified as the many different companies he oversees. The Kraft Group has a variety of interests concentrated in six specific areas: the distribution of forest products, paper and packaging manufacturing, sports and entertainment, real estate development, as well as private equity and venture investing. As president, Kraft is responsible for overseeing the operations of each division.

Since his family purchased the team in 1994, Kraft has been the day-to-day driving force behind the rebuilding and re-branding of the franchise, bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization.

Once tenants in the league's poorest venue, the Patriots now play in one of the NFL's premier stadiums.

In the first 26 years of the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots have won more games and more often than any other NFL team, and Kraft has successfully implemented many initiatives that have accelerated the franchise's many worst-to-first transitions.

From 2000-09, the Patriots set multiple NFL records and earned "Team of the Decade" acclaim from numerous publications. During the first decade of the new millennium, the Patriots established three NFL consecutive win streak records: a 10-game win streak in the postseason, a 21-game overall win streak (including playoff games) and a 21-game regular-season win streak. The Patriots won 126 regular-season games, the most by an NFL team in one decade in the history of the league. The Patriots also became just the second team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four years. The Patriots continued their winning ways in the following decade and finished with the most regular-season wins (125) and overall wins (141), the most ever in a single decade.

In the past 26 seasons (1994-2019), the Patriots won 324 games (including playoffs) for an average of 12.5 wins per season and captured more Super Bowl titles (6), conference titles (10), division titles (19), playoff wins (33), victories in a single season (18) and victories in a regular season (16) than any other team.

Of all the team's recent achievements, arguably the most significant contribution to the organization's future success was securing financial approval for the construction of a new world-class stadium, the first of its kind in the franchise's history. Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy for the $325 million construction of Gillette Stadium. Many financial experts dismissed the viability of his plan, which relied on year-round club memberships for new clientele rather than the more conventional sale of private seat licenses to existing season ticket holders. Kraft's unprecedented plan was considered a financial risk, but proved to be universally successful.

Throughout the stadium initiative, no one was more involved in each phase of the project, including the planning, construction, opening and ongoing operation and development of Gillette Stadium. Kraft worked closely with stadium designers to create a world-class sports and entertainment facility that would highlight features indigenous to New England. His team not only delivered on the promise of a fan-friendly facility, but did so on time and under budget. Kraft feels strongly that Gillette Stadium needs to be continually evolving to meet the changing needs of fans. To that end, he was the creative force behind recent stadium enhancements including the Optum Field Lounge, the DraftKings Fantasy Sports Zone and the Cross Insurance Pavilion & Business Center.

Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices. In June of 2001, the Environmental Business Council presented the Kraft Group with the Environmental Award for Corporate Leadership. In May of 2002, the Kraft Group received New England's Environmental Merit Award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for the development and construction of Gillette Stadium.

In 2002, Jonathan and Robert Kraft received the Sports Industrialists of the Year award, presented annually by Sports Business Daily. That year, the Krafts celebrated New England's first Super Bowl championship. Just a few months later, they christened their new stadium, earning various awards and acclaim for the project. They negotiated a new naming rights partnership with Gillette and celebrated a spectacular grand opening by hosting the 2002 season premiere of Monday Night Football as Super Bowl champions, presenting both the stadium and their 2001 Super Bowl banner to the fans of New England. One month later, the Krafts' Major League Soccer franchise, the New England Revolution, won the Eastern Conference to qualify for the MLS Cup, which drew over 61,000 fans to Gillette Stadium, the largest crowd in MLS history at that time.

Prior to the Kraft family's ownership, the Patriots fan base was limited in range and scope. As a lifelong Patriots fan, Kraft was committed to expanding the Patriots fan base through innovative multimedia outreach. Under his directive, the Patriots became the first professional sports team to launch an official web site in March of 1995. Just two years later, the team debuted the first use of streaming video, offering a nightly video update. The Patriots other Internet initiatives include a highly successful e-commerce division, providing Patriots fans around the world easy access to Patriots merchandise and apparel. In 2004, the team showed their commitment to globalizing the Patriots brand when they launched the NFL's first Chinese-language version of their website. Entering the 2020 season, the Patriots have 276 registered fan clubs in 42 countries. The Patriots are also among the top teams in the NFL in terms of social media presence, reaching more than 15 million followers across various platforms, with over seven million Facebook fans, 4.6-plus million Twitter followers and four million followers on Instagram. The Patriots have social media accounts serving multiple countries, including Brazil, Germany, China as well as a Spanish language account. As chair of the league's digital committee, Kraft continues to seek innovative ways to enhance the day of game experience for all Patriots fans. Gillette Stadium features one of the league's only ubiquitous WiFi solutions, allowing fans to stay connected throughout the game on their mobile devices. The Patriots mobile app, which gives fans in-stadium access to live streaming of NFL RedZone, among other content, is one of the most advanced in the league.

Following the Super Bowl XXXVI championship, Kraft commissioned the production of a DVD entitled "3 Games to Glory," providing fans an opportunity to re-live three of the most memorable games in franchise history. Since then, he has overseen the production of five sequels, each featuring over five hours of behind-the-scenes content on a multi-disc DVD set. The Patriots are the only NFL team to produce and sell such extensive commemorative DVDs.

A graduate of Williams College (1986), Kraft is a Trustee Emeritus and former chair of the school's investments committee. He received his MBA from Harvard Business School (1990), where he currently serves on the Dean's Board of Advisors. Kraft serves as chair of the Massachusetts General Hospital board of trustees. He is also on the board of trustees for the Belmont Hill School and Dexter Southfield. Additionally, Kraft is a member of the MIT School of Engineering Dean's Advisory Council, board member for Partners HealthCare and sits on the advisory board for the Billie Jean King Leadership Initiative.

Kraft is active in youth athletics and has coached Pop Warner Football, youth soccer and Little League baseball in the greater Boston area. He is also a member of the national Board of Directors for Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc.

Jonathan and his wife, Patti, have three children.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2010-19)

The New England Patriots have earned more wins (141) in the past decade (2010-19) than any other team in the NFL has over any 10-year span, with 115 regular-season victories and 16 playoffs wins. They also own the highest winning percentage (.698) of any team in professional sports since 1994. The Patriots also won a league-high three Super Bowls in the 2010s, increasing their total to six and tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for most all-time. The Patriots won more conference championships (5), appeared in more conference championship games (8) and won more division titles (10) than any other NFL team. This landmark decade comes on the heels of another dominant decade, as the Patriots also led the NFL in Super Bowl victories, conference championships, conference championship game appearances and division titles in the 2000s.

DECADES OF DOMINANCE (2000-09)

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 18 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. The tallies listed below represent totals during the 2000-09 seasons.

Bill Belichick completed his 45th season as an NFL coach in 2019 and is in his 21st season as head coach of the New England Patriots. Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win six Super Bowl titles. In 2018, Belichick won his sixth Super Bowl, joining George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only NFL coaches with six championships. He enters his 46th consecutive year as an NFL coach in 2020, passing Pro Football Hall of Famer Dick LeBeau (45) for most consecutive seasons as an NFL coach. The only other NFL coach with at least 40 consecutive NFL coaching seasons is Tom Moore with 41.

Through 2019, Belichick owns the most wins among all active coaches and ranks third all-time with 304 total victories as a head coach. Belichick's winning percentage of .686 ranks first in NFL history among coaches with 150 or more wins. He has led the Patriots to a winning record for 19 consecutive seasons (2001-19), trailing only Dallas' Tom Landry, who recorded 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966-85. Belichick has also notched 31 postseason wins in his career, most by a head coach in NFL history. Belichick, who was hired by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000, completed his 20th season with the Patriots in 2019. In 20 seasons, Belichick has delivered six Super Bowl championships, nine conference titles, 17 division crowns (with 2002 and 2008 lost on tiebreakers) and 30 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 267-94. In 2019, the Patriots won their 11th consecutive division championship, extending their NFL record previously held by the L.A. Rams (1973-79). Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003), XXXIX (2004), XLIX (2014), LI (2016) and LIII (2018), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. From 2003 to 2004, Belichick directed the Patriots to a winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason. In 2018, Belichick joined Marv Levy (4) and Don Shula (3) as the only NFL head coaches to lead their team to three consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

Despite an NFL system designed to ensure parity, Belichick's program has produced a remarkable run of sustained on-field success. From 2000-19, the Patriots won 74 percent of their regular-season games (237-83), the highest winning percentage of any major American professional sports team over that span. Over a 100-game stretch from 2003-09, Belichick directed the team to 81 wins, the most in NFL history by a head coach. Additionally, the Patriots finished 2019 with 141 wins (regular and postseason) in this decade surpassing their previous NFL record for wins in a decade with 126 victories from 2000-09. From 2011-18, Belichick's teams won the AFC East title and advanced in the playoffs, with the Patriots eight straight years of playoff advancement extending their NFL record previously held by Dallas with six (1991-96). Additionally, New England is the only franchise in the NFL to qualify for the playoffs in each of the last 11 seasons (2009-19), besting Dallas and Indianapolis, who qualified for the postseason for nine consecutive years.

NOTE: Winning percentages are calculated using official NFL rules. Ties are not included in winning percentage prior to 1972. Since 1972, a tie counts as a half-win, half-loss.

Belichick's 31 career playoff wins are the most all-time among head coaches, while New England's 16 playoff victories from 2010-19 are the most in any decade in NFL history. He has compiled a career playoff record of 31-12, with his .721 playoff winning percentage placing him third in NFL history.

Belichick's Patriots have rarely been rattled, able to consistently maintain leads and bounce back following losses. Since the beginning of the 2003 season, New England is 46-9 (.836) in regular-season games following a loss, dropping back-to-back regular-season contests just nine times over that span.

In addition, the Patriots have consistently maintained their focus throughout the year and have played their best football late in the season. Since 2001, the Patriots lead the league with a 114-35 (.765) overall record in games played on Thanksgiving or later in the NFL season, including playoffs. The club has also posted NFL-best 45-17 (.726) mark since 2001 in games played on Christmas or later in the NFL season and have gone an NFL-best 67-16 (.807) in the month of December.

Since becoming Patriots head coach in 2000, Belichick is 69-18 (.793) in December, the second-best record in December among head coaches with one team in NFL history (min. 25 games), behind George Seifert (27-6, .818). Additionally, Bel-

2019 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Belichick led New England to a 12-4 regular-season in 2019, extending his NFL record with a 13th career 12-win season. In the process, Belichick also won a 17th division crown, 11th consecutive title and 11th straight season with a playoff berth, all NFL records. His 18th postseason berth as a head coach is tied with Tom Landry for second all-time, behind the 19 by Don Shula.

In the victory over the Cleveland Browns at home on Oct. 27, Belichick became the third head coach in NFL history to win 300 games, doing so in his 434th NFL game, faster than Don Shula (445 games) and George Halas (455 games).

Under Belichick's guidance, the Patriots defense finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game). The previous best was 2007, when Belichick's defense finished fourth in the NFL.

Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in an NFL coaching career that began in 1975, during which he has helped produce eight Super Bowl titles, 12 conference championships and 24 division titles. Now in his 46th season in the NFL, he has more years of NFL experience than any of the other 31 active head coaches. He won his first two Super Bowls as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and again in 1990 before claiming six Super Bowl championships with the Patriots.

THE PATRIOT YEARS

Once he became Patriots head coach, Belichick needed just one season to successfully implement his plan for success. In 2001, his second season in charge, the Patriots rebounded from a 5-11 record in 2000 to improve to 11-5, tying what was then the franchise record for regular-season wins.

Bill Belichick won his sixth Super Bowl in 2018 to give him the most Super Bowl wins by any head coach in NFL history.

From 2003-04, Belichick directed the Patriots through the most prosperous two-year period for any team in NFL history, netting back-to-back Super Bowl victories and consecutive 17-2 campaigns. In 2007, Coach Belichick earned Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors as the Patriots became the fourth team in the league's history to complete an undefeated regular season and the first to achieve the feat since the NFL increased the number of regular-season games from 14 to 16 in 1978. Belichick joined Pro Football Hall of Famers George Halas and Don Shula as the only head coaches to complete undefeated regular seasons. New England's 18 overall victories in 2007 tied the 1985 Chicago Bears and the 1984 San Francisco 49ers for the most in league history. New England became the first team in NFL history and the first major American pro sports team since 1884 to open a season with 18 straight wins. The Patriots set the then-NFL records for points (589) and touchdowns (75), while their +315 point differential still stands as the best in NFL history.

In 2008, Belichick led the Patriots to an 11-5 record. Despite losing QB Tom Brady to a season-ending injury in Week 1, New England ranked among the NFL's top 10 teams in terms of yards gained (5th), points scored (8th), fewest yards allowed (10th) and fewest points allowed (8th), marking the fourth time the club finished in the top 10 in all of those categories since joining the NFL in 1970. The Patriots also finished in the top 10 in all those categories in 2015 and 2016. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Patriots were among the league's hottest teams, winning five of their last six games and going undefeated in December (4-0).

In 2009, the Patriots finished the season with a 10-6 record and claimed another AFC East title. They became the first team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since free agency began in 1993.

In 2010, Belichick led a very young squad to an NFL-best 14-2 record, a division title and its eighth playoff appearance in his 11 seasons as New England's head coach, receiving several major awards in the process. Belichick was named Associated Press Coach of the Year for the third time, joining Don Shula (four-time winner) and Chuck Knox as the only three-time winners. In addition, Belichick earned Peter King's SI.com and Pro Football Weekly Coach of the Year.

Coach Belichick guided the Patriots to a league-best 518 points scored in 2010, third-most in franchise history behind the team's 589 points in 2007 and 557 in 2012. The club record +28 turnover differential was a contributing factor to New England eclipsing 500 points for just the second time in team history. Belichick's constant emphasis on protecting the football paid off with two NFL records. The Patriots went an NFL-record seven consecutive games without committing a turnover. No other NFL team had gone longer than six straight games without turning the ball over. The Patriots had just 10 turnovers in 2010 (five interceptions and five fumbles), which tied a then-NFL record for fewest turnovers in a season. The New Orleans Saints committed eight turnovers in 2019.

In 2011, Belichick guided the Patriots to a 13-3 record, his fifth AFC Conference Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLVI. Under Belichick's guidance, the Patriots finished the 2011 season with 6,848 total net yards, setting a new franchise record for most total net yards in a season. That total is fifth all-time in NFL history.

In 2012, Belichick became the eighth head coach in NFL history to record 200 overall victories and in the process, guaranteed a .500 or better record for the Patriots for the 12th straight season with a 12-4 record. Additionally, the Patriots made their second consecutive AFC Championship Game appearance.

"What he does, what [Bill] Belichick does with the team concept, it makes our jobs easier as other managers and coaches."

"I get a big kick out of the perception publicly — all the media, and mostly the fans, because they don't see [and] he doesn't give you much. He's not there to draw attention to himself. But if you get in a social situation around Bill, he's got so much personality. He's interesting. He's funny. He's a great friend. I can't respect our relationship more than I do. He's about as good a friend as you can expect to have. If you go to dinner, you're going to talk about a lot of subjects. It's real apparent that Bill has no ego. He's not there to impress you about his championships. He's just sharing and asking. He shares with guys he knows are interested. It's like going to graduate school times 100."

New England to its eighth straight conference championship game, devised a game plan that kept the high-flying Rams offense, who averaged 30 points per game, to just a field goal, tying the fewest points ever allowed in a Super Bowl.

Belichick coached the Patriots to an 11-5 regular-season record and extended his NFL record by capturing his 16th division title. It was also the club's 10th straight, which is also an NFL record.

Belichick entered the 2018 season tied with Tom Landry for third all-time in NFL history with 250 career regular-season wins behind Don Shula (328) and George Halas (318). The 27-20 opening-day win over Houston pushed him past Landry into sole possession of first place.

A COACHING JOURNEY

Belichick began his coaching career after graduating from Wesleyan University and accepting a staff assistant position with the Baltimore Colts in 1975. At the age of 23, he was named special assistant to Head Coach Ted Marchbroda. In 1976, Belichick joined Rick Forzano's staff with the Detroit Lions as an assistant special teams coach. The following year, he was given his first positional coaching assignment as the Lions tight ends and receivers coach. In 1978, Denver Broncos Head Coach Red Miller hired Belichick as the assistant special teams coach and assistant to defensive coordinator Joe Collier.

Belichick then spent 12 seasons with the New York Giants (1979-90) before becoming head coach of the Cleveland Browns (1991-95). He later joined Bill Parcells for several seasons as assistant head coach/secondary with New England (1996) and assistant head coach/secondary with the N.Y. Jets (1997-99) before returning to Foxborough.

Belichick returned to the Patriots as head coach after three seasons with the New York Jets as the team's assistant head coach/secondary coach, holding the responsibility of calling the team's defensive plays. In 1998, the Jets surrendered just 266 points, propelling the team to its first division title. After finishing the regular season with a franchise-best 12-4 overall record, the Jets advanced to the AFC Belichick was a member of two blue-ribbon panels that selected the NFL 100 All-Time Team and the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Centennial class.

Bill Belichick has led the Patriots to 19 straight winning seasons (2001-19), second all-time, behind 20 by Tom Landry.

NEW YORK GIANTS (1979-90)

In 1979, Belichick joined Ray Perkins' staff with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, launching a 12-year tenure with the Giants. After the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. In 1983, he began coordinating the defense on Bill Parcells' staff and continued coaching the linebackers, a unit that would become known as one of the most dominant groups of all-time, featuring Pro Football Hall of Famers Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson. He was officially appointed defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. During his time as the Giants' defensive signal caller, his units were never ranked lower than 11th in the NFL and finished as high as second in the league three times, including the Super Bowl seasons of 1986 and 1990. Belichick's contributions with the Giants throughout the 1980s brought him national recognition as one of the best young assistant coaches in the NFL.

CLEVELAND BROWNS (1991-95)

Prior to joining the Patriots as an assistant, Belichick spent five seasons (1991-95) rebuilding the Cleveland Browns, whose 3-13 finish the year prior to his arrival was, up until that point, the worst in the history of the franchise. By 1994, the Browns were one of the NFL's best teams, boasting the second-best record in the AFC.

Belichick's first head coaching opportunity came following the 1990 season, when his defensive efforts with the New York Giants helped claim a second Super Bowl title in five years. At the age of 38, he became the NFL's youngest head coach. In his first season, Belichick began the rebuilding process by restoring the foundation of the aging squad he

"When I first got the job [in Denver], Bill left Cleveland and people asked me how I would rank the head coaches. I had Bill number one and Joe Collier and Jeff Fisher as two and three. They kind of laughed at me at that time and they said, 'What do you mean? Why would you rank him there? He didn't have a lot of success in Cleveland.' I said, 'You just wait and see!'" inherited. In 1991, the Browns improved to 6-10 and played in 11 games that were decided by a touchdown or less.

Following back-to-back 7-9 campaigns in 1992 and 1993, the Browns improved to 11-5 in 1994, a mark that is still tied for the second-highest victory total in the history of the Browns franchise. The 1994 squad was defined by its defense, which allowed a league-low 204 points. In their return to the playoffs, the Browns defeated the Patriots, 20-13, in a first-round Wild Card game on New Year's Day 1995.

The 1995 season was disrupted by the mid-season announcement that the Cleveland Browns franchise would be moved to Baltimore at the conclusion of the campaign. The announcement caused an undeniable mid-season distraction contributing to a 5-11 finish. Belichick did not accompany the franchise's move to Baltimore after the 1995 season.

AN ASSISTANT WITH THE PATRIOTS

Patriots fans witnessed Belichick's impact on a team firsthand in 1996 when he joined the Patriots after five seasons as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns. That year, the Patriots claimed their first division title in 10 years with an 11-5 record and won their first two playoff games at Foxboro Stadium to advance to Super Bowl XXXI. The 1996 Patriots defense allowed just 19.6 points per game and forced 34 turnovers, second in the AFC. In two playoff games, the defense allowed just nine points combined, propelling the Patriots to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI against Green Bay.

COACHING

Steve Belichick enters his first season with the New England Patriots as outside linebackers coach following four seasons coaching in the secondary and four years as a coaching assistant.

In 2019, Belichick led a secondary as part of a defense that finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense (275.9 yards per game) and scoring (14.1 points allowed per game). Additionally, CB Stephon Gilmore turned in a career season, becoming the first Patriot to win Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after finishing with a career-high six interceptions and his second straight year with 20 passes defended, joining Ty Law (1998 & 2003) as the only Patriots with two seasons of 20-plus passes defended. Gilmore also earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month for October and safety Devin McCourty was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September after he intercepted a pass in each of the first four games of the season.

Under his guidance in 2018, the Patriots safeties were part of a defense that held the L.A. Rams to a Super Bowl record-tying low three points en route to a victory in Super Bowl LIII. Duron Harmon also duplicated his performance from the previous season by leading the team and tying a career-high with four interceptions. In 2017, the Patriots safeties played a critical role within a unit that finished fifth in the NFL by allowing 18.5 points per game. Devin McCourty was also selected to his fourth career Pro Bowl under Belichick's instruction.

After playing four years of lacrosse at Rutgers, Belichick walked on to the football team as a long snapper to help in preparations for a career in coaching. He was a three-year starter at linebacker, tight end and fullback as well as a long snapper at The Rivers School in Weston, Massachusetts, before heading to Rutgers.

COACHING

Ivan Fears, a 44-year coaching veteran, is in his 30th season in the NFL and his 24th with the New England Patriots in 2020. He returned to New England in 1999 after beginning his NFL coaching career with the Patriots in 1991. Since returning, he has enjoyed 17 division championships, nine conference titles and six Super Bowl championships. He is in his 19th season as running backs coach, after having coached New England's wide receivers from 1999-2001 and previously from 1991-92.

Under Fears' guidance since 2002, the Patriots running backs have helped the team finish in the top 10 in offense 13 times in the last 18 seasons: 2018 (5), 2017 (1), 2016 (4), 2015 (6), 2013 (7), 2012 (1), 2011 (2), 2010 (8), 2009 (3), 2008 (5), 2007 (1), 2005 (7) and 2004 (7). Fears has also coached four different 1,000-yard rushers from his current post: Corey Dillon (franchise record of 1,625) in 2004, BenJarvus Green-Ellis (1,008) in 2010, Stevan Ridley (1,263) in 2012 and LeGarrette Blount (1,161) in 2016.

In 2018, Sony Michel set the NFL postseason record for most rushing touchdowns by a rookie in a single postseason with six. That mark tied for second-most rushing touchdowns in a single postseason run overall behind Terrell Davis' eight rushing scores during the 1997 playoffs.

Fears' other notable accomplishments with Patriots running backs include LeGarrette Blount setting a new franchise record with 18 rushing touchdowns in 2016 and Danny Woodhead setting a franchise mark with 5.6 yards per carry (minimum 90 attempts) in 2010, topping Don Calhoun's previous team mark of 5.59 set in 1976.

In 2008, the Patriots had their best rushing season in more than 20 years, averaging 4.4 yards per carry and totaling 2,278 yards and 21 rushing touchdowns. Fears' running backs also helped to consistently sustain drives, as the Patriots led the league in rushing first downs (145) and in drives of 10 plays or longer (38).

In 2004, the Patriots averaged 4.07 yards per carry, the most since 1985 (4.13-yard avg.). Dillon set the team's single-season rushing record with 1,635 yards and led the NFL with an average of 109.0 yards per game in which he appeared.

Fears took on running backs duties in 2002, and in his first season the position produced 1,508 yards rushing – the second highest total by the Patriots since 1996.

As receivers coach in 2001, Fears helped both Troy Brown and David Patten produce career years. Brown established a franchise record with 101 receptions for a career-high 1,199 yards and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. It was Brown's first 1,000-yard season. Patten, who entered the season with just 71 career receptions in four seasons, claimed the starting role opposite Brown and was credited with 51 receptions for 749 yards and four touchdowns.

Fears originally joined the professional coaching ranks as the receivers coach on Dick MacPherson's staff with the Patriots in 1991. After two seasons in New England, he accepted a position with the Chicago Bears, where he coached the receivers for six seasons (1993-98) before returning to New England in 1999.

In 1991, his receiving corps featured Irving Fryar, Greg McMurtry and Michael Timpson. That year, Fryar turned in the first 1,000-yard season of his career, finishing with 1,014 yards on 68 receptions (14.9 avg.).

In 1993, Fears joined the Chicago Bears and inherited the team's first-round selection, Curtis Conway. In 1994, the Bears added Jeff Graham, a reserve receiver from the Steelers, and Fears helped develop the two into one of the premier receiving tandems in the league over a two-year span. In his first year with the Bears, Graham started 15 games and led the team with 68 receptions for 944 yards. In 1995, Conway and Graham became the first receiving tandem in franchise history to each record over 1,000 yards receiving in a single season. In 1996, Conway produced a career-high 81 receptions for 1,049 yards and became the first player in Bears history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.

Fears began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at William & Mary in 1976. In 1977, he drew his first positional responsibilities coaching receivers. His next two seasons (1978-79), he coached quarterbacks before accepting the role as receivers coach at Syracuse in 1980, a position he held for the next 10 seasons.

PLAYING

A three-year letterman as a running back at William & Mary (1973-75), his playing career was cut short after undergoing three knee operations during his collegiate career.

PERSONAL

Fears was born Nov. 15, 1954 in Portsmouth, Virginia. He grew up in Suffolk, Virginia, where he starred at John Yates High and was twice named the school's Outstanding Player of the Year. He also earned all-state honors as a senior. Fears and his wife, Beverly, have three children, Joshua, Aaron and Kimberly.

Josh McDaniels was named New England Patriots offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the 2012 season after he re-joined the Patriots coaching staff in January 2012 as an offensive assistant. The 2020 season will be McDaniels' 17th season with the Patriots overall and his 12th as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 11 seasons as offensive coordinator, McDaniels has guided the offense to eight top-10 rankings, including the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense in 2007, 2012 and 2017. Additionally, Tom Brady was elected to the Pro Bowl eight times and eclipsed 4,000 yards passing eight times. Overall, McDaniels has been part of six Super Bowl championships with New England, three as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 2016 under McDaniels' guidance, Patriots quarterbacks set NFL records by starting the season with 258 pass attempts without an interception. They threw just two interceptions overall and notched the best touchdown to interception ratio (16.00) in a single season. McDaniels left the Patriots to become the head coach of Denver in 2009 and in 2011, McDaniels moved on to St. Louis to become the offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. Under McDaniels' guidance that season, Rams RB Steven Jackson eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the seventh consecutive season despite running behind an offensive line that started eight different combinations over the course of the season.

McDaniels spent the 2009-10 seasons as the head coach of the Denver Broncos after serving as an assistant with the Patriots from 2001-08. In his first stint with New England, McDaniels played a key role on a staff that won three Super Bowl titles and four AFC championships.

He first joined the Patriots organization as a personnel assistant on the 2001 team that defeated the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, served as a defensive assistant on the 2003 club that won Super Bowl XXXVIII and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2004, a season that culminated with a victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In addition to his role with Patriots quarterbacks, McDaniels added the title of offensive coordinator in 2006. In his second season as New England's offensive play caller in 2007, McDaniels oversaw a unit that broke several NFL records, including points scored, touchdowns scored and most players scoring a touchdown.

Under McDaniels' tutelage, 2007 NFL MVP Tom Brady broke the NFL record for touchdown passes in a season (50) and led the league in both passing yards (4,806) and passer rating (117.2). Brady also set franchise marks in nearly every major passing category, while WR Wes Welker set the franchise record for receptions in a season (112) and WR Randy Moss broke the NFL record for touchdown receptions with 23. The Patriots offense also posted the franchise's highest average yards per rush in 22 seasons with 4.1 yards per carry, and the team's 17 rushing touchdowns were the second highest total in the previous 20 years.

During McDaniels' first season in Denver, QB Kyle Orton set career-highs for pass attempts, completions, passing yards, touchdown passes and passer rating while tying his career low for interceptions. Orton's 3,802 yards were the sixth-highest for a season in Broncos history. In 2010, the Broncos ranked seventh in the NFL in passing yards per game and finished 13th in total yards per game. WR Brandon Lloyd led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,448 and finished second in the AFC with 11 touchdown catches en route to his first Pro Bowl invitation.

Brady was elected to 10 Pro Bowls during his 11 seasons with McDaniels serving as his position coach. After Brady suffered a season-ending knee injury in the 2008 regular-season opener, another McDaniels protégé, Matt Cassel, led the club to a 10-5 record as a starter. In his first season as an NFL starter, Cassel posted the fourth-best completion percentage in Patriots history (63.4) while passing for 3,693 yards with 21 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

Prior to joining Bill Belichick's staff, McDaniels spent one season as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban at Michigan State.

PLAYING

McDaniels attended John Carroll University, where he played quarterback and wide receiver for the Blue Streaks from 1995-98. McDaniels was a college teammate of former NFL linebacker London Fletcher, Patriots director of player personnel Nick Caserio, former assistant quarterbacks coach Jerry Schuplinski and director of pro personnel Dave Ziegler.

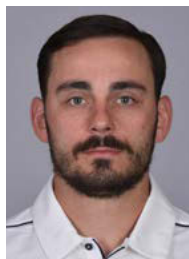

PERSONAL

A native of Canton, Ohio, McDaniels is the son of one of the most well-respected high school coaches in the country. Thom McDaniels was a finalist for the NFL High School Coach of the Year award in 2012, and Josh benefited from growing up in a football family.

NICK CASERIO

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

SUPER BOWLS: 01, 03, 04, 14, 16, 18

Nick Caserio was named director of player personnel on Feb. 21, 2008, after serving in a number of roles for the Patriots personnel department and coaching staff. He enters his 20th season with the Patriots in 2020 and his 18th season in player personnel. In 2007, Caserio served as the Patriots wide receivers coach following a three-year stint as the team's director of pro personnel (2004-06). Caserio is also credited as one of the architects of the Super Bowl XLIX, Super Bowl LI and Super Bowl LIII Champion New England Patriots.

In Caserio's 19 seasons with the club, the Patriots have qualified for the Super Bowl nine times with six wins, captured 17 AFC East crowns and made the playoffs every year except 2002 and 2008. Caserio has been instrumental in drafting, signing and developing players who have become cornerstones of one of the most successful NFL franchises of all time. In addition to his time in the player personnel department, Caserio returned to the field in 2007 to coach the wide receivers, a season in which the offense broke many NFL records en route to an undefeated regular season.

Caserio joined the Patriots in June 2001 as a personnel assistant and celebrated the Patriots first Super Bowl title that season. During that year, his role was expanded to include film breakdown and scouting report preparation for the offensive staff. EXTRA POINTS

- Bolden's grandfather, Frank Pitts, played 10 seasons in the NFL as a receiver for the Chiefs, Browns and Raiders. He was with Kansas City for two Super Bowls, losing Super Bowl I and winning Super Bowl IV. Bolden, quite proudly, has become familiar with these two games by watching with his grandfather.

"I remember being six years old, him popping in a highlight film of Super Bowl I and IV. I've seen that tape at least 500 times," Bolden said. "He's great, been pretty much my role model since forever. He'll call me at the end of the game and tell me everything I did wrong. He's my toughest critic, and I think that rubbed off on me."

EXTRA POINTS

- Adam Butler arrived at Vanderbilt as an accomplished high school offensive lineman and spent his freshman season redshirting as a backup at center and guard. During his first offseason, Butler entered a rib eating contest, which judges ruled his team had lost. Butler disagreed and began arguing with the judges.

Then Commodore defensive coordinator Bob Shoop was in attendance and witnessed Butler's demeanor and was impressed with his competitive attitude. Shoop convinced then-head coach James Franklin to ask Butler to transition to defense.

"Coach Franklin brought me into his office and he asked me what I wanted, and I wanted whatever was best for the team," said Butler. "Because we were so short on defensive linemen at that time, that's how it happened."

- Started on the defensive line and made two total tackles in a Week 16 loss vs Buffalo (12/28).
- Posted four total tackles in a Week 17 win vs the Jets (1/3), including a 10-yard sack of Jets quarterback Sam Darnold in the third quarter. Three plays later, New York punted and the Patriots time the game 14-14 on the ensuing drive.

STANDOUT COLLEGE QB TO NFL WR

Edelman began his college football career with a year at the College of San Mateo (California) before transferring to Kent State where, as a senior, he completed 56 percent of his passes (153 of 275 passes for 1,820 yards) with 13 touchdowns. He was also the leading rusher, gaining 1,551 yards on 215 attempts (an average of 7.5 yards per carry) and scoring 13 touchdowns. His offensive numbers broke Kent State's single-season record for total offense set by Joshua Cribbs in 2003.

Said head coach Bill Belichick on the versatility of Edelman: "He played the quarterback position in college at Kent State and all the positions really that he's played in the NFL – covering kicks, returning kicks, slot receiver, outside receiver, slot defender – he didn't do any of those things in college. I think that really speaks to his versatility and how much he's grown as a player and how many things he's learned how to do that he really didn't have much experience with in college. I'd say that's pretty unusual, especially to be as competent in them as he is."

It is the eighth time a Patriots player has had a pick in at least three straight games and the first time since Devin McCourty had a pick in four straight games in 2019. The Patriots record for most consecutive games with an interception is four by McCourty (2019) and Mike Haynes (1976). Now has four interceptions in five games against Buffalo, including four interceptions off Josh Allen. Also added five total tackles.
- Made a critical interception on Jets QB Joe Flacco late in the fourth quarter of a Week 9 win in New York (11/9). The Patriots took over at their own 28 and went 72-yards on 11 plays to tie the game 27-27. Jackson now has picks in four straight games, tying the team record with Devin McCourty and Mike Haynes, both of whom had four consecutive games with interceptions. In the process, he became the first Patriot (fifth overall) since Asante Samuel (2006-07) to net at least five interceptions in consecutive seasons. Jackson totaled five interceptions last year and now has five in 2020. He now has the most interceptions among all NFL players since entering the NFL in 2018.

- Started at corner in a Week 10 win over Baltimore (11/15). Set a team record with an interception in his fifth consecutive game when he picked off Raven's QB Lamar Jackson in the second quarter. Jackson leads all NFL players with 14 interceptions since 2018 and currently leads the NFL in 2020 with six interceptions. Xavier Howard from Miami is second in 2020 with five interceptions.
- Started and played the majority of snaps at corner in a Week 11 loss at Houston (11/22). Made one unassisted tackle.

- Started at corner and made three tackles in a Week 13 win at the Chargers (12/6). Picked off LA QB Justin Herbert in the third quarter. He now has recorded seven interceptions and recovered two fumbles for a total of nine takeaways in 2020. CB Asante Samuel (10 interceptions) has the team mark for most takeaways in a single season under head coach Bill Belichick. The all-time Patriots record is held by DB Ron Hall, who recorded 13 takeaways (11 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries) in a single season in 1964.
- Started at corner and made two tackles in a Week 14 loss at the Rams (12/10).
- Picked off Miami QB Tua Tagovailoa in the first quarter inside the end zone in a Week 15 loss at the Dolphins (12/20). It was his eighth interception and 10th takeaway for Jackson on the season, tied for the second-most takeaways in a single season by a Patriots player. It also pushed him past Steve Grogan (539 yards rushing in 1978) for the most rushing yards in a season by a Patriots quarterback, finishing with 592 yards rushing in 2020. In addition, Newton hauled in a 19-yard pass from Jakobi Meyers in the third quarter that tied the game 14-14. It was the first time in Patriots history a quarterback caught a touchdown pass. SEASONAL REVIEWS

- Placed on injured reserve prior to the start of the regular season.
- Was activated off IR prior to Week 4 at Kansas City (10/5), caught one pass after it caromed off Julian Edelman's hands and into his arms, picked up 11 yards and a first down on the play. Handled punt return duties, returning one for 12 yards and fair caught another.
- Played as a return man on both kickoffs and punts vs Denver (10/18). Returned three kickoffs for 77 yards including one 33 yarder in the first quarter. Fair caught one punt.
- Appeared as a reserve wide receiver in a Week 7 loss vs San Francisco (10/25). Handled kickoff return duty, compiling 155 yards on six returns and fumbled once, but recovered. Also fair caught one punt in the fourth quarter.
- Made his first NFL start at wide receiver in a Week 8 loss at Buffalo (11/1). Had his first NFL rushing attempt in the second quarter for a 6-yard gain on a jet sweep. Returned a punt 15 yards to the Buffalo 37 yard line in the third quarter that helped set up a Damien Harris touchdown that tied the game 14-14 after a successful 2-pt conversion. PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY RAYTHEON

The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon Technologies offers a cutting-edge, highly-interactive museum experience. It showcases New England Patriots history while providing a permanent home to the team's hall of fame. The facility features 20,000 square feet of exhibit space and utilizes the latest in design concepts and multimedia technology to bring the Patriots story to life. It's incredible Super Bowl Experience gallery has undergone renovations over the last three years and houses all six Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Championship Trophies as well as the stories and highlights behind those titles. The Hall of Fame's integrated STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) program touches more than 20,000 school field trip visitors annually while also honoring a Massachusetts STEM Teacher of the Year. The Hall of Fame opened in 2008 and is a unique sports hall of fame and interactive experience as well as a must-visit attraction for Patriots and football fans alike.

HISTORY OF THE PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME

The Patriots Hall of Fame was established in 1991 as a way to honor the greatest players in franchise history. A selection committee of media and staff was formed to select players for induction and appropriately, John Hannah was the first player enshrined. Eight additional players were inducted from 1992-95. Andre Tippett (1999) and Bruce Armstrong (2001) rounded out the Patriots Hall of Fame's first 11 members. In 2007, the Patriots introduced a new method of selecting players for the team's hall of fame in advance of the opening of The Patriots Hall of Fame presented by Raytheon. Moving forward, one player will be enshrined in the Patriots Hall of Fame each year, with a nomination committee determining three finalists each spring and fans voting for the final choice through Patriots.com each spring.

SENIOR SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Patriots formed a senior selection committee to ensure that early era players are not overlooked in the voting process. The committee consists of veteran media and staff members who gather to discuss candidates who have been retired for at least 25 years to identify the player most deserving of Patriots Hall of Fame recognition.

Not to be outdone, Tom Brady then led New England 51 yards down the field into Denver territory, completing three of his four passes, before Stephen Gostkowski connected on a game-tying 47-yard field goal as time expired. The Patriots won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive but were stopped on three straight plays. On Denver's second play from scrimmage, RB C.J. Anderson scampered 48 yards to the end zone giving Denver a dramatic victory in the snowy conditions at Mile High.

12/27/15 N.Y. Jets 26, Patriots 20 L

Tom Brady rallied the Patriots from a 17-3 deficit to tie the game at 20 with under two minutes to play in regulation on a 9-yard touchdown pass to RB James White. The 11-play, 66 yard drive was highlighted by two critical fourth-down conversions to TE Rob Gronkowski, the second being a 26-yard completion on fourth-and-9 that put New England at the Jets 9-yard line. Brady hit White for the game-tying score on the very next play. After winning the coin toss the Patriots elected to kick, which resulted in a 5-play, 80 yard drive capped off by a 6-yard touchdown reception from WR Eric Decker that gave New York the victory.

PATRIOTS OVERTIME GAMES

POSTSEASON (3-0)

01/19/02 at Patriots 16, Oakland 13* W
Adam Vinatieri boomed a 45-yard field goal with 27 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game up at 13 and send it into overtime. The game time temperature dipped to 25 degrees and the field was covered by five inches of snow that didn't let up until the game was over. In overtime, the Patriots drove 61 yards on 15 plays and Vinatieri nailed a 23-yard field goal for the 16-13 victory. The Patriots became just the second team in postseason overtime history (16 games) to win the contest on the opening drive of the extra stanza.

-AFC Divisional Playoff Game

02/05/17 Patriots 34, Atlanta 28* W
James White's 2-yard touchdown run in overtime sealed a victory and capped off the greatest comeback in Super Bowl history as the Patriots erased a 25-point third quarter deficit. Down 21-3 the Patriots didn't do much to help their cause early in the second half as Atlanta added to their lead on a 6-yard touchdown reception from Matt Ryan to Tevin Coleman to make the score 28-3. From there it was all Patriots, with the key turning point in the game being a fourth quarter strip sack by Dont'a Hightower that gave the Patriots possession deep in Atlanta territory down 28-12 with under nine minutes left to play. A 6-yard Danny Amendola touchdown reception along with a James White 2-point conversion made the score 28-20. After Atlanta's ensuing drive stalled deep in New England territory, Tom Brady led a 10-play, 91-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard James White touchdown run and a second successful 2-point conversion to tie the score at 28-28. After winning the overtime coin toss, Tom Brady orchestrated an 8-play, 75-yard drive that ended in James White's winning 2-yard touchdown run that captured the Patriots fifth Super Bowl title.

-Super Bowl LI

01/20/19 Patriots 37, at Kansas City 31* W
Rex Burkhead's 2-yard touchdown run in overtime sent the Patriots to their third straight Super Bowl and clinched a 37-31 AFC Championship victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on a frigid night at Arrowhead Stadium. The Patriots opened up a 14-0 halftime lead in which they dominated the time of possession and held a high-powered Chiefs offense to just 32 total yards of offense. Both teams would trade scores throughout the second half with Kansas City roaring back to take two fourth-quarter leads, the last coming on a 2-yard touchdown run by Damien Williams with 2:03 left to play that put Kansas City ahead, 28-24. Tom Brady then led a 6-play, 65-yard drive capped off by a 4-yard touchdown run by Rex Burkhead to retake the lead briefly before Chiefs kicker Harrison Butker tied the game at 31 at the end of regulation. After winning the overtime coin toss, Brady led a methodical 13-play, 75-yard drive, highlighted by three third-down conversions that culminated in Burkhead's 2-yard game-winning score to send New England on to Super Bowl LIII.

THE POWER TO

share success

How does a military officer succeed in a civilian career? Brian Jones was determined to find out. After 8 years serving our country, he returned home and found his footing with help from other veterans at Bank of America. His mentor taught him how to apply his military thinking to his new job. Now Brian himself mentors new veterans, and passes down what he learned from transforming that new civilian job into a fulfilling career.

Bank of America values the strong sense of teamwork and leadership that veterans can bring to a business. To learn more about Brian's story and Bank of America's commitment to hiring and mentoring veterans, visit bankofamerica.com/militarysupport.

Bob Socci

BOSTON'S HOME FOR SPORTS

Scott Zolak

Seven seasons, three Super Bowl championships: it's been a great ride for Bob Socci as the radio voice of the Patriots.

Socci returns for his eighth season in the booth as play-by-play broadcaster on 98.5 The Sports Hub and its 37-station network. He has won rave reviews for his enthusiasm and accuracy since taking the helm for the 2013 campaign. Before joining the Patriots, Bob served as the voice of the Naval Academy Midshipmen for 16 seasons, and called Triple A baseball, most recently for the Pawtucket Red Sox, for a decade.

Socci is joined in the booth by former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, who is entering his ninth season as action analyst. Prior to moving upstairs he spent a season with the legendary broadcast team of Gil Santos and Gino Cappelletti as a sideline reporter. Prior to that, he served six seasons as a co-host of "Patriots Preview" and "Patriots Postgame" on the Radio Network. He's currently heard daily as co-host of the "Zolak and Bertrand" Show on the Sports Hub, where his experience as a pro athlete and his boundless energy keep Boston listeners engaged and entertained all year long.

The gameday experience on the Network starts three hours before kickoff with "Patriots Preview," with hosts Marc Bertrand and Christopher Gasper. The co-host of the Sports Hub's midday show, Bertrand is entering his sixth season as quarterback of the Network's pregame show. He previously helmed the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for two seasons. A UMass grad, he won Associated Press awards for both his play-by-play and talk shows covering the Minutemen. Marc is also a frequent contributor to NBC Sports Boston. Gasper is back for his 13th season on "Patriots Preview," his fifth as a full-fledged co-host. The Lynn, Massachusetts, native is a sports reporter and columnist for WCVB-TV Channel 5 and WCVB.com. He also co-hosts the Saturday morning "Gasper & Murray" show on the Sports Hub.

Taking the reins on "Patriots Postgame" is Jim Murray of the Sports Hub's "Felger & Massarotti" show. Jim also hosted the "Patriots Pregame Social" on Patriots.com for two seasons. The 20-year broadcast professional is a native of Melrose, Massachusetts, and he'll take over right after the final whistle, breaking down the game, airing postgame press conferences and giving the fans a chance to react.

The football season never ends on the Patriots flagship station, 98.5 The Sports Hub. From morning-after breakdowns with "Toucher and Rich," X's and O's with "Zolak and Bertrand," no-holds-barred opinions from "Felger and Massarotti," to the voice of the fans at night on the "Adam Jones Show," the Patriots are always front and center. One of the first sports franchises to broadcast their games on FM, the Patriots begin their 26th season of airing every block, tackle and kick in crystal-clear stereo. The Patriots are entering their 12th season on The Sports Hub, where you'll also find the broadcasts of the New England Revolution, Boston Bruins and Boston Celtics.

2020 PATRIOTS CHEERLEADERS

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders and Pat Patriot Mascot look forward to another successful year in 2020, developing relationships with fans and aspiring young cheerleaders throughout New England. While the Patriots Cheerleaders have become accustomed to entertaining thousands of Patriots fans from the sidelines, the squad also works closely with the Patriots Foundation, supporting the efforts of charitable organizations throughout New England, using their celebrity status to make a difference in the community. The Special Olympics, T.A.P.S., Cradles for Crayons and Read Between the Lines are a few of the Patriots Cheerleaders' favorite organizations to partner with. In addition to their philanthropic efforts, the squad also makes public appearances for local businesses and corporations, spreading cheer to fans at a variety of events throughout New England and across the country. Those events include parades, trade shows and grand openings to name a few.

The New England Patriots Cheerleaders proudly maintain a well-established Junior Cheerleader program, where youth ages 7-17 attend a clinic with the squad, perform on the Gillette Stadium field and make community appearances with the Patriots Cheerleaders throughout the season in connection with the squad's community relations efforts. The Patriots Cheerleaders also partner with Dana Farber annually, hosting the Cheer for Dana Farber program, where local cheerleading squads raise funds for cancer research in exchange for the opportunity to win a clinic experience hosted by the Patriots Cheerleaders.

A winter audition drew nearly 300 applicants to compete for the opportunity to join the 2020 co-ed cheerleading team. The squad is populated with a range of students and professionals, including a market analyst, school teacher, musician and a dental hygienist. This year's squad will continue to serve as Patriots ambassadors throughout New England. PATRIOTS FOUNDATION

CELEBRATE VOLUNTEERISM

The New England Patriots Foundation is the nonprofit organization established by Robert Kraft in 1994 to support charitable and philanthropic agencies throughout New England. Understanding the positive impact and value of volunteering, the Kraft family built the foundation around the spirit of volunteerism and giving sweat equity to those in need.

The foundation supports charitable causes aiding individuals and families that are often marginalized in today's society – those who are asking for a hand up instead of a hand out. The foundation believes in a society where all individuals have equal access to opportunities for success, personal growth and well-being. By addressing societal issues that are impacting under-resourced communities, the foundation is helping to strengthen the New England region through philanthropic investments.

In March 2020, as the world faced new challenges due to the coronavirus pandemic, the Patriots Foundation, in partnership with the Kraft Sports + Entertainment family of businesses, sought new opportunities to support those most in need throughout New England. During a time unlike any our country or world had seen, the Kraft Sports + Entertainment entities were united in their pursuit to remain connected – to each other, to their fans and to the community.

While the focus of Kraft Sports + Entertainment has always been to bring people together and provide great entertainment, the focus shifted to being “TOGETHER while APART.” This unique initiative provided essential resources to New England families and outlined a variety of ways that New Englanders could join the organization in giving back. In doing so, the Patriots Foundation shifted its overarching vision into immediate action and support, meeting urgent community needs, especially for those most marginalized, in a time of crisis.

With the support of current and former Patriots players, alumni, coaches and fans, the foundation remains committed to building stronger communities. Winning off the field is equally as important as winning on the field, and the foundation is dedicated to building brighter futures for children and families in New England.
