JOHN W. MECOM, JR.

PRESIDENT OF THE NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

Seeing the Saints grow from an idea to reality, John W. Mecom, Jr., is continuing to point his franchise toward contender status.

The 34-year-old Texas native, although suffering through a disappointing season, took heart in the fact that most of the young players made progress during the 1972 season and sees the potential that he hopes will be realized in 1973.

In 1972, John rearranged the Saints' front office in an effort to promote unity of purpose and to strengthen and improve the franchise. He sincerely feels he was successful in this venture and gave head coach J.D. Roberts full authority to add to the coaching staff in another attempt to improve and strengthen the franchise in 1973. This has resulted in the addition of three new coaches, which Mecom feels should bring the desired results.

His efforts will continue until he brings a winning team to the fans of New Orleans.

Involved in the oil business in Louisiana for many years, John gives the Saints his full attention and he's become involved in a number of New Orleans projects now that he has lived in the Crescent City during six football seasons. Although connected with many endeavors, including serving on the Board of Regents of Loyola University, a variety of successful businesses and racing autos and boats, there's no doubt that his major interest is the Saints — and the eventual winning of an NFL championship.

While attending the University of Oklahoma, John, who also attended the University of Texas, met Katsy Mullendore of Pawhuska, Okla., and married her in 1962. They now have four children, John III, 9; Katsy Kathleen, 6½; Mary Elizabeth, 5½ and Kathleen, 2½. All of the Mecoms are very much a part of the Saints' scene every Sunday the club is at home in the fall.

RICHARD F. GORDON, JR., Executive Vice President

Appointed to the Executive Vice President's chair in January, 1972, Richard F. Gordon, Jr., has taken firm control of the club's management.

Coming to the Saints after 20 years of military service, the last eight of which were spent as an astronaut in the National Aeronautic Space Administration (NASA), during which he logged a total of 315 hours and 53 minutes in space — 2 hours and 44 minutes of which were spent in EVA (Extravehicular activity), Gordon stresses maximum efficiency from all Saints employees.

His first space venture was the 3-day Gemini 11 mission on Sept. 12, 1966, in which he and command pilot Charles Conrad set a new altitude record of 850 miles. It was during this flight that he performed two periods of EVA.

After serving as a backup command module pilot for Apollo IX, Gordon occupied the command module pilot seat on Apollo XII in 1969. The other crewmen on man's second lunar landing mission were Charles Conrad and Alan L. Bean. Throughout the 31-hour lunar surface stay by Conrad and Bean, Gordon remained in lunar orbit aboard the command module.

Born in Seattle, Washington, Gordon, 42, received a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry from the University of Washington in 1951 and received his wings as a naval aviator in 1953.

During his military career, Gordon earned many awards and citations for his courageous efforts, including the NASA Distinguished Service Medal, two Navy Distinguished Flying Crosses, the Navy Distinguished Service Medal and the Godfrey L. Cabot Award (1970). He achieved the rank of Captain.

Married to the former Barbara J. Field of Seattle, Wash., Gordon has six children: Carleen, 19; Richard, 17; Lawrence, 15; Thomas, 14; James, 13 and Dianne, 12.

HARRY HULMES, Vice President — Administration

Hulmes came to the Saints in 1970 as Assistant to the General Manager and Director of Public Relations and assumed his present position in January of 1972.

His current position allows him to tackle a variety of assignments, including player signings and public relations. Having joined the Baltimore Colts as business manager in 1958, he's been an active executive in the NFL longer than anyone else on the Saints' administrative staff. During his 12 years in Baltimore, Harry also served the Colts as publicity director, assistant general manager and general manager.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., he spent three years in the U.S. Navy before graduating from the University of Pennsylvania. The 46-year-old Hulmes made his pro sports debut as the assistant business manager of baseball's Baltimore Orioles in 1954, and three seasons later accepted the job as athletic publicity director at Bucknell University. Then it was on to Baltimore and the NFL.

Harry and his wife, Barbara, have three children — Linda, 18; Terry, 14 and Richie, 10 — and live in Metairie, La.

J.D. ROBERTS, The Head Coach

A rugged disciplinarian, J.D. Roberts heads into his third full season as the Saints head coach after being recruited from the Richmond Roadrunners, where he was the head coach, mid-way during the 1970 season.

The tough ex-Marine is a one-time All-American guard at Oklahoma, where he was a keen student of coaching master Bud Wilkinson. After leaving the Sooners, J.D. played a year with Hamilton in the Canadian League, then entered the Marine Corps and served as playing coach for the Quantico (Va.) team in 1955-56. The following year he made his college coaching debut at the University of Denver as line mentor.

In 1958, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant. From 1960 until 1965 he served as either a defensive or offensive assistant at the U.S. Naval Academy, Auburn and the University of Houston. In 1965, Roberts joined the New York Jets scouting staff and then joined the Saints in 1967 as a scout and linebacker coach.

In 1969, he went to Richmond as head coach of the Roadrunners and served in that position until returning to the Saints as head coach.

Roberts, 40, was born in Oklahoma City and was raised in Dallas, Tex. He and his wife, June, live in Metairie, La., with their children — Gregory David, 15; Rebecca Anne, 14; Melinda, 13; Mark Vincent, 11 and Neil Charles, 10.

A graduate of Mississippi State University, Champion began his coaching career at Greenwood, Miss., High School in 1953 where his teams compiled a 24-2-2 record in four seasons.

A former defensive tackle with the New York Yanks (1950-51) and the Dallas Texans (1952), the 46-year-old Champion served as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 1957 until 1961 before turning to professional coaching as an assistant coach with the Vancouver (B.C.) Lions of the Canadian League. Given credit for building one of the strongest defensive teams in Canadian League history, Jim was with the Lions when the team won the League's Western Conference championship in 1963-64 and the coveted Grey Cup the latter season.

A defensive line coach for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1965, Champion returned to Canada in 1967 as head coach at Vancouver, a job he held until joining the Saints in the spring of 1971.

The next season found him at Tulane for a two-year hitch on the Green Wave staff. In 1964, he returned to the Naval Academy as a varsity scout, followed in 1966 by a three-year tour of duty as an assistant at the University of Pittsburgh.

Royer joined head coach J.D. Roberts as an assistant with the Richmond ACFL team in 1969 and came to the New Orleans Saints with Roberts midway in the 1970 season.

SAINTS RETURN TO SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

The New Orleans Saints will train for the third straight year at the University of Southern Mississippi at Hattiesburg in 1973.

The Saints will be housed in Vann Hall, the athletic dormitory which consists of 81 rooms, for 162 athletes, and a cafeteria. The dorm is close to the training and dressing areas where the team will dress.

The practice area includes three practice fields on the east side of the USM Stadium and two areas on the baseball field.

For indoor work during bad weather Southern offers the Sports Arena which is located immediately behind the practice fields on the east side of the stadium.

Hattiesburg is located some 105 miles east-northeast of the New Orleans area via Interstate 59. To get to the University from I-59, take Highway 49 South and USM will appear on the right at the second traffic light.

The University of Southern Mississippi has a student body of 9,000 on-campus residents and a total enrollment of 11,000 including research center enrollment.

W. D. McCain is Southern's President and Reed Green serves as Athletic Director.

THE 1973 SAINTS VETERANS

ABRAMOWICZ, DAN, 6-1, 195, Wide Receiver, 7th Year, Xavier (Ohio). Born July 13, 1945 at Steubenville, Ohio
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 17a, 1967

PRO: A strange thing happened last December. Danny missed a football game, the finale vs. Green Bay, due to a knee injury. In six seasons he'd never before been sidelined. This fall he'll begin another string — while continuing one which has seen him catch passes in his last 77 league games . . . His seven touchdowns in 1972 matched his previous high for a campaign and his 17.6-yards-per-grab average was second only to his 17.8 mark in 1971 . . . He led the Saints' receivers in receptions for five straight years before yielding that honor last autumn . . . There was never any let-up in his blocking, which has always been first class — in fact, exceptional where wide receivers are concerned . . . He'll enter the 1973 campaign with all of the Saints' career, season and single game pass-catching records to his credit — and as much enthusiasm as ever.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Xavier . . . Career figures of 120 catches for 1685 yards and 14 touchdowns are Xavier records . . . Top season was junior year with 68 receptions for 738 yards and 10 TDs.

PERSONAL: Attended Catholic Central High in Steubenville, Ohio . . . Holds BS in physical education from Xavier where he was high B student . . . Resides in Metairie, La., operates Beef 'n Bottle shop . . . Married (Claudia); two sons (Danny Joe, 5; Andy, 2), one daughter (Stephanie, 1).

BUIE, DREW, 6-0, 185, Wide Receiver, 5th Year, Catawba
Born: July 12, 1947 at Council, North Carolina
Joined Saints: Trade with Cincinnati, 1973

PRO: After being drafted ninth by Oakland in 1969 he went on to spend three years with the Raiders before being claimed by Cincinnati last year. An ankle injury limited his service to four games with the Bengals. He was traded to New Orleans for a draft choice just before the start of the 1973 training camp . . . At Oakland he'd played in 42 straight games, excelling on special teams as well as averaging 27.8 yards on eight receptions. As a ballcarrier he also picked up 32 yards via two rushing attempts.

COLLEGE: An All-Conference selection as a receiver and specialist . . . As a trackman he set the NAIA District 26 record by streaking 100 yards in 9.6.

PERSONAL: Attended Griffith High School in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where he still resides . . . Married (Pam).

BELL, CARLOS, 6-5, 230 Tight End, 3rd Year, Houston
Born: September 21, 1947 at Clinton, Okla.
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 4A, 1971

PRO: In two NFL campaigns Carlos has managed to see action in just one game — as a rookie in 1971 when he was on the roster for three league contests. Although he's made several impressive showings in pre-season skirmishes, a couple of knee operations have severely limited his activity. He spent all of last year on the Saints' reserve-injured list . . . As a minor league running back under head coach J.D. Roberts at Richmond in the ACFL he rushed for 499 yards and caught 13 passes for 148 yards in 1970, his second and last season in the minors . . . The Saints promptly converted him into a tight end the following year . . . He's tried hard to learn the position and may lack only the experience to develop into a number one performer.

COLLEGE: Played only his sophomore season at Houston, gaining 709 yards on the ground (6.5 avg.) . . . He also lettered in basketball for the Cougars . . . And was a high school All-American in football and basketball before enrolling at South Texas J. C.

PERSONAL: A pair of brothers played basketball and football, respectively, at the University of Oklahoma . . . Attended Clinton (Okla.) High School . . . Married (Francine), one son (Anthony, 5).

BILLINGSLEY, RON, 6-8, 280, Defensive Tackle, 7th Year, Wyoming
Born: April 6, 1945 at Florence, Alabama
Joined Saints: Trade with Houston, 1973

PRO: San Diego's first round draft choice in 1967, Ron was a four-year starter for the Chargers but bothersome injuries hindered his overall progress and he was traded to Houston in 1971, along with offensive tackle Gene Ferguson, in exchange for wide receiver Jerry LeVias. He had a good first season with the Oilers, then was struck down by a knee injury that kept him idle through the tenth game in 1972. The "Beast" regained his form for the final four games of last season and is expected to take over as a starting tackle on New Orleans' revamped defensive line. To obtain Billingsley and quarterback Kent Nix the Saints sent tight end Dave Parks, quarterback Edd Hargett and linebacker Tom Stincic to the Oilers.

COLLEGE: As a senior he was an All-Western Athletic Conference selection on a Wyoming team which led the nation in defense . . . He played in the College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Attended Gadsden (Alabama) High School . . . Married (Linda), one daughter (Tiffany, infant).

BROWN, BOB, 6-3, 225, Tight End, 5th Year, Alcorn A&M
Born: January 1, 1943 at Pace, Mississippi
Joined Saints: Trade with Minnesota, 1972

PRO: During the summer of 1972 the Saints sent a pair of draft picks to the Minnesota Vikings to obtain the services of this rugged tight end and he proceeded to participate in all 14 games, two as a starter in place of Dave Parks. He also saw duty as a short yardage specialist when the team employed two tight ends. After a shaky start as a receiver Bob settled down to snare eleven passes for 175 yards (15.9 avg.) and a touchdown. He goes to training camp this summer as the man to beat for the number one tight end assignment. A strong blocker, he's also hard to bring down once he's put the ball away . . . His previous pro experience included two seasons in the Continental League (1966-68) and three with St. Louis (1967, 69-70). The Cards swapped Brown and Nate Wright to the Vikings for Dale Hackbart and Mike McGill.

COLLEGE: Earned a bachelor of science degree from Alcorn in 1966.

PERSONAL: Attended Cleveland (Miss.) East Side High School and makes his off-season home in St. Louis.

BUTLER, BILL, 6-0, 218, Running Back, 2nd Year, Kansas State
Born: August 12, 1950 at Leaksville, North Carolina
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 5, 1972

PRO: As an unheralded rookie last fall Bill made steady progress in all departments and finished up as the number one fullback, a position he'll be protecting in training camp this summer . . . A participant in each of the Saints' 14 games in 1972, he excelled on the various special teams before earning his spurs as a running back. With 233 yards on 54 carries (4.3 avg.), he was New Orleans' third best rusher last fall, displaying good power and adequate outside speed. He also caught 25 passes for 226 yards and a pair of touchdowns — demonstrating sure hands when called upon as a receiver . . . Although he was knocked groggy on several occasions last season, a change of headgear kayoed this problem.

COLLEGE: As a senior Bill set a K-State record with 204 cracks at the line for a team-leading 838 yards (4.1 avg.) and 16 touchdowns. His three-year rushing mark of 1,400 yards ranks second in the school's history. In 1971 he was team captain, MVP and most inspirational player and gained All-Big Eight honors . . . He played in the Miami North-South Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Butler was an All-Conference defensive back at Escambia High School in Pensacola, Florida . . . Married (Diane Lynn); son (Britton David, 1½).

COLMAN, WAYNE C., 6-1, 220, Linebacker, 6th Year, Temple
Born: April 13, 1946 at Ventnor, N.J.
Joined Saints: Waivers (from Philadelphia), 1969

PRO: In his sixth NFL campaign the durable and ever-hustling Colman could be shifted from his normal weakside linebacker post to the strong side. He started all 14 games on the right side last fall and turned in his usual workmanlike job, being particularly adept at jamming the enemy's sweeps to his side . . . Although there may be wide open competition for the linebacker assignments this year, don't bet against Wayne extending his streak as a starter beyond its present 33 games . . . He'd been a sub until he relieved the injured Mike Morgan in Miami in 1970 . . . Philadelphia had originally signed him as a free agent in 1968 — then the following year he was waived to the Saints, breaking his leg in game number four, but bouncing back in 1970 with no ill effects.

FELLER

COLLEGE: A defensive end at Temple where he earned All Mid-Atlantic Conference and All-Pennsylvania honors . . . Also participated in track and baseball.

PERSONAL: Attended Atlantic City, N.J., High School. Resides in Ventnor . . . Holds BS in Education degree . . . Married (Tonagee); one son (Wayne Jr., 3) . . . Hobbies include surfing, rowing and fishing. Driver education teacher during off-season.

MOOERS, DOUG, 6-6, 265, Defensive Tackle, 3rd Year, Whittier
Born: March 11, 1947 at Seattle, Washington
Joined Saints: Trade with Dallas, 1971

PRO: After spending the 1970 season on the Dallas cab squad Doug was traded to New Orleans in exchange for offensive tackle Don Talbert . . . In 1971 he served the Saints at both defensive end and tackle until sidelined after four games by a torn Achilles . . . Last fall, however, he bounced back strong from his operation to take over the number one job at right tackle on defense and play in all 14 games. This year he'll have to beat off the challenge of a new swarm of candidates . . . The Cowboys had originally signed him as a free agent.

COLLEGE: At President Nixon's alma mater he was an outstanding defensive end.

PERSONAL: Attended Western High School in Anaheim, California . . . Married (Sherry), one son (Cory, one).

DIDION, JOHN, 6-4, 250, Center, 5th Year, Oregon State
Born: October 24, 1947 at Woodland, Calif.
Joined Saints: Waivers (from Washington), 1970

PRO: Certainly no player gave more of himself to the Saints' cause last season than the doggedly determined Didion. Laboring on aching knees, he rose to his feet more slowly as the campaign progressed, but he did get up and he stuck with the action, missing no games and only a few plays . . . His work at center continued to improve, particularly his pass protection. He'll be difficult to dislodge from the position he's held for the past two years . . . When the Saints first picked him up from Washington they'd planned on using him as a linebacker. The Redskins had originally drafted him seventh in 1969 to play center.

COLLEGE: A unanimous first team All-American in 1968 . . . As a 1967 junior, he made the major 2nd team All-American selections . . . Played in 1968 East-West Game and 1969 Hula, Senior and Coaches' All-America Bowls.

PERSONAL: Earned a BS degree in Social Science . . . Married (Anne-Marie); one son (John, 2) . . . Worked with plumbing and heating company in the off-season . . . Resides in Washington, D.C.

DAVIS, BOB, 6-2, 205, Quarterback, 7th Year, Virginia
Born: September 15, 1945 at Neptune, New Jersey
Joined Saints: Trade with New York Jets, 1973

PRO: The Jets' back-up quarterback the last two years, Davis started one game, the 1972 finale vs. Cleveland, when an injury idled Joe Namath. He did, however, see action in five other games last fall and was placekicker Bobby Howfield's holder throughout the campaign . . . Davis was also the Jets' starting quarterback midway through the 1971 season when Namath was hurt and directed his team to three victories, including a 13-10 upset of Kansas City. During his stretch at the helm he threw for ten touchdowns in six games and rushed for 154 yards, the most ever by a Jets QB . . . Houston's number two draft pick in 1967, he spent three years with the Oilers as a reserve before serving training camp time with both the Giants and Bengals in 1970. The Jets signed him as a free agent that fall and he played for the minor league Jersey Jays until being called up to New York when Namath was injured in the fifth game.

COLLEGE: At Virginia he set 13 school records and eight ACC marks, while winding up with 4,023 total yards and 38 TD tosses . . . He was the ACC MVP in 1966 . . . A knee injury prevented him from playing in the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine games.

PERSONAL: Attended Neptune (N.J.) High School . . . Married (Kit), one daughter (Stefani, 5); one son (Robbie, 3) . . . Bob is vice-president of Advanced Pension Design and a vice-president of Modern Collection Systems. He also operates a summer football camp with Phil Villapiano of the Oakland Raiders.

FEDERSPIEL, JOE, 6-1, 225, Middle Linebacker, 2nd Year, Kentucky
Born: May 6, 1950 at Louisville, Kentucky
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 4a, 1972

PRO: It didn't take jarrin' Joe long to assert himself as the number one man in the middle last autumn, going full-time from the fifth game and winning a spot on the UPI All-Rookie team, despite being handicapped much of the time with a sprained ankle. Throughout his 14-game tour the rookie distinguished himself on special teams when he wasn't scattering bodies from his linebacker post . . . He reacts quickly and has excellent lateral movement . . . There are bigger middle linebackers in the NFL but very few who'll do more damage . . . Federspiel was selected on the choice Philadelphia turned over to the Saints in exchange for running back Tony Baker.

COLLEGE: An All-SEC linebacker selection, he was honored as the South's best player vs. the North in the Miami Shrine Game — and he also participated in the Tampa All-American Bowl.

PERSONAL: Attended DeSales High School in Louisville, Kentucky.

FELLER, HAPPY, 5-11, 185, Placekicker, 3rd Year, Texas
Born: June 13, 1949 at Fredericksburg, Texas
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

PRO: Philadelphia's fourth draft choice in 1971, he got into nine games and registered 28 points, including three via a 50-yard field goal. The following season he was released by the Eagles and eventually was hired by the Saints, in time to participate in the season's last six contests and account for another 28 points . . . He was still striving for the consistency with which he'd kicked in college, as far as both distance and accuracy were concerned. Included among his three-out-of-four strikes from between the 30 and 39 yard lines was a final-second 33-yard tie-breaking shot that beat Los Angeles, 19-16 . . . An off-season operation for the removal of a spur from his kicking foot could help Happy to improve his booting in 1973.

COLLEGE: A Sporting News All-American pick at Texas, he set NCAA career records by kicking 128 extra points and piling up 185 points with his foot. He also had a 55-yard field goal to his credit at Texas — where he received his degree in advertising.

PERSONAL: Attended Fredericksburg (Texas) High School . . . Married (Mignon).

FORD, JAMES, 6-0, 210, Running Back, 3rd Year, Texas Southern Born: September 11, 1949 at Jacksonville, Fla.
Joined Saints: Waivers from Dallas, 1971

PRO: In the ninth game of his rookie season, 1971, James suffered a severe knee injury which necessitated an immediate operation. At the time of his departure he was leading the team in rushing with 379 yards (4.1 avg.) . . . Follow-up surgery was needed last summer and it delayed his return to active duty until game number nine. Until the season's final contest most of his work was confined to special teams but in the wind-up with Green Bay he carried ten times for 28 yards — hardly devastating but most encouraging as far as passing the physical test was concerned . . . He's capable of running effectively both inside and outside — with good speed, and he can catch the ball. There's little doubt he'll make a serious bid for the starting halfback assignment . . . Ford had been drafted 13th by the Cowboys.

COLLEGE: Developed late as a broken field ballcarrier, gaining 295 yards as a senior.

PERSONAL: He was a four-sport standout at New Stanton High School in Jacksonville, Florida . . . During the off-season he earned additional college credits in Jacksonville . . . Married (Carlotta), one son (James, Jr., 3).

GREEN, ARTHUR, 5-11, 198, Running Back, 2nd Year, Albany State
Born: September 18, 1947 at Atlanta, Georgia
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

PRO: A serious ankle sprain sidelined Arthur for the last seven games of 1972, just as he was commencing to make some rookie progress as a halfback . . . Before being shelved the 4.5 speedster had netted 51 yards via 14 hauls (3.6 avg.), returned eight kickoffs for 187 yards (23.4 avg.) and caught seven passes for 49 yards. He can do all of those things — and block — very well, but he'd had only two years of college experience before failing to survive an Atlanta tryout camp . . . Salvaged from the Atlanta sandlots, he made the grade as a longshot backfield candidate last summer . . . Speed and solid football instincts make him a sound prospect — the ankle willing.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons at Albany (Georgia) State before deciding to get married and earn a living for himself.

PERSONAL: Attended Howard High School in Atlanta, Ga. . . . There are seven sisters and one brother in his family . . . In 1970 and 1971 he earned MVP honors in an Atlanta semi-pro league . . . Married (Annie Ruth), son (Mark, 5).

GRESHAM, BOB, 5-11, 195, Running Back, 3rd Year, West Virginia
Born: July 9, 1948 at Porter, Ala.
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 8B, 1971

PRO: This underrated and ever-hustling ballcarrier came very close to duplicating his 1971 rookie efforts last fall. He's a tough, slashing runner, who never stops churning for that extra yardage, even when in a tackler's iron grip. There were other candidates for his job in 1972 but he managed to whip all the competition and wind-up as the Saints' leading rusher with 381 yards (3.2 avg.). His three touchdowns on the ground also represented a New Orleans high last autumn and he was fourth on the pass-receiving list with 29 catches for 192 yards . . . Additionally, he's a steady and boisterous blocker — a good man to have on your football team . . . Another back or two will be battling Bob for the halfback post again this year. They'd better be prepared for a torrid scrap.

COLLEGE: After rushing for 1,500 yards in high school he proceeded to smash West Virginia's ground-gaining record with a three-year output of 2,181 yards, winding up with a 6.2 average for 140 carries as a senior.

PERSONAL: Attended Big Creek (W. Va.) High School . . . Married (Joyce), one son (Robbie, 1).

HALL, WILLIE, 6-2, 217, Outside Linebacker, 2nd Year, Southern California. Born: September 29, 1949 at Montrose, Georgia
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 2, 1972

PRO: It wasn't until last season's final game, vs. Green Bay, that swift Willie received a full-fledged opportunity to demonstrate his prowess as a weaskside linebacker — and he didn't fare badly. He showed the speed and quickness that the Saints knew he had and he was getting to the people who were carrying the ball — and thumping them. Off that performance against the Packers and the solid reputation that preceded him into the pro ranks, he'll go to training camp as a number one contender for weaskside assignment . . . Admittedly, last fall was a long one for Hall, as he spent most of training camp rehabilitating from a knee injury suffered in the College All-Stars camp, then aggravated the problem throughout the pre-season and regular season . . . He just couldn't get in the work that he required to learn his position — and he wasn't at his best on the special teams. In 1973, if he remains healthy, things should be looking up for Willie.

COLLEGE: As a senior he was voted U.S.C.'s MVP, played in the East-West Shrine Game and earned berths on the All-Pack Eight, All-West Coast and All-American teams. During the track season he threw the javelin . . . He was a transfer from Arizona Western.

PERSONAL: Attended Pulaski High School in New Britain, Connecticut, where he excelled in football, basketball and track . . . Playing chess ranks high among his hobbies.

HAYES, BILLIE, 6-1, 175, Cornerback, 2nd Year, San Diego State
Born: June 22, 1947 at Riverside, California
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

PRO: Cincinnati's fourth round draft pick in 1970, he was released before he had an opportunity to see any regular season action. The desire to become a pro player, however, still lingered and he signed with the Saints after an impressive showing at a rookie workout in April, 1972. He not only got into all 14 of the Saints' games but he was also utilized as a starter on several occasions . . . Billie should be in the thick of the struggle for a cornerback assignment this year, his confidence having been bolstered by last season's experience. He has quickness and speed and was learning fast as last season closed.

COLLEGE: A Junior College All-American at Riverside City College in 1967, Hayes switched to San Diego State and All-Conference laurels as a senior — concluding his college career in the 1969 Pasadena Bowl.

PERSONAL: Attended Rubidoux High School in Riverside, California . . . Brother Tom is a starting cornerback for Atlanta . . . Billie holds degree in Recreation Administration and is studying for a master's degree in Criminal Justice Administration with a view towards becoming active in juvenile probation.

HOLLAS

HESTER, RAY, 6-2, 215, Linebacker, 3rd Year, Tulane
Born: March 31, 1949 at New Orleans, La.
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: In the seventh game last season Ray suffered a knee injury that necessitated an operation which sidelined him for the remainder of the year. Up until that point he'd been filling in at weakside linebacker, where he'd distinguished himself as a relief man through 14 games as a freshman in 1971. In both campaigns he excelled in all phases of special teams play, being a particularly strong tackler in the open field . . . This year, with his knee fully repaired, he may also be given a shot as a middle linebacker . . . A tough, alert player, he could now become more valuable than ever to the New Orleans defense.

COLLEGE: A starter in 32 straight games at Tulane, including the Liberty Bowl conquest of Colorado in his finale as a senior — a season in which he was credited with 152 tackles.

PERSONAL: Attended Holy Cross High School in New Orleans . . . He's working as a real estate agent while continuing his studies at Tulane . . . Married (Holly), one son (Kyle, 4), one daughter (Kristen Leigh, 1).

HOBBS, BILL, 6-1, 215, Middle Linebacker, 5th Year, Texas A&M
Born: September 18, 1946 at Mt. Pleasant, Texas
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

PRO: After playing in 37 games over three years with Philadelphia, Bill was traded to New England a year ago in exchange for defensive tackle Houston Antwine. The Patriots, however, released him last fall and he was at home in Texas when the Saints summoned him to help them out of an injury-plagued linebacker situation. He got into the season's last six games, relieving at middle linebacker and performing on the special teams — a chore at which he's always been a standout . . . For a linebacker he possesses fine speed and he gained acclaim with his ability to block punts while with the Eagles — once earning the NFC's "defensive player of the week" award . . . He's once again tabbed for reserve linebacker and special teams duty.

COLLEGE: Acknowledged as "defensive player of the year in the Southwest Conference" as a junior, he won All-American accolades his last two seasons as an Aggie . . . He participated in both the Hula Bowl and Blue-Gray Games — and once returned an interception 100 yards vs. T.C.U.

PERSONAL: Attended Tas Cosa (Texas) High School . . . resides in Amarillo, Texas.

HOLLAS, HUGO, 6-1, 190, Defensive Back, 4th Year, Rice
Born: November 30, 1945 at Schulenburg, Tex.
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1970

PRO: Despite a couple of nagging injuries Hugo managed to participate in each of the Saints' 14 games last fall. While shifting between strong safety and free safety he continued to deliver consistently as a tough and unerring tackler and although he picked off only one enemy aerial he defended well against the pass — turning in a particularly outstanding effort against Detroit's brilliant tight end, Charlie Sanders . . . The say-nothing, do-plenty blond Texan is slated for strong safety duty this fall, with no assurance he won't also be seeing service on the weak side . . . He'll also continue to do his share of blitzing from his safety post, being quite adept at this job . . . Signed originally as a free agent by Dallas in 1968, he was released after being victimized by a thumb injury. In 1969 he played for coach J.D. Roberts' Richmond Roadrunners and led the ACFL in interceptions . . . Hollas is a solid team man and a quiet leader.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at Rice . . . Never out of a collegiate game due to injury . . . All-Southwest Conference selection junior and senior years . . . Selected Rice's MVP following senior season.

PERSONAL: Earned a B.S. Degree at Rice in Education with a minor in biology . . . Married (Jerlyn), two sons (Shane, 3; Judd, infant) . . . Resides in Metairie, La. and works as account manager for I-C-G Railroad.

JACKSON, ERNIE, 5-10, 173, Cornerback, 2nd Year, Duke
Born: April 11, 1950 at Hopkins, South Carolina
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 7, 1972

PRO: It wasn't until last season's fourth game that Ernie was activated from the taxi squad. Thereafter he was to fall victim to knee and shoulder injuries but he only missed one more game and distinguished himself as one of the league's better freshman cornerbacks — good enough, in fact, to earn a berth on the UPI All-Rookie team. The shoulder, incidentally, was operated on immediately after the end of the season, following which the Mighty Mite shoved off for National Guard duty . . . In his initial campaign he intercepted three passes, returning one 31 yards, and dashed 85 yards to score with a scooped-up fumble vs. Atlanta. He's been labeled a corner starter going into 1973 — and he's already acquired a reputation for being a thunderous hitter, for all his 173 pounds.

COLLEGE: The only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to be honored as both offensive and defensive player of the week in the same season — as he went both ways through the second half of the 1971 campaign, playing 75% of each game . . . As a senior Ernie intercepted four passes — returning two for touchdowns, ran back punts and kickoffs and averaged 7.6 yards for each of his 31 carries from scrimmage . . . He also specialized in blocking extra point and field goal attempts.

PERSONAL: Attended Lower Richland (South Carolina) High School . . . He received his degree from Duke in electrical engineering.

JOHNSON, CARL, 6-3, 241, Offensive Tackle - Guard, 2nd Year, Nebraska. Born: December 26, 1949 at Phoenix, Arizona
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 5a, 1972

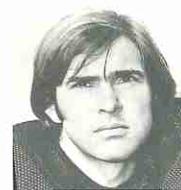

PRO: Slightly underrated when he reported to the Saints' training camp a year ago as a rookie, Carl not only participated in each of the club's 14 games but he also saw starting service at an unfamiliar guard slot due to a rash of injuries at that position. He did a pretty fair job as a pinch hitter but this season he figures to return to his normal tackle role, where he could eventually wind up with a number one assignment . . . An intelligent and willing worker, he may need just a bit more weight, plus experience, to develop into a top-notch tackle . . . His past history indicates steady improvement with each season.

COLLEGE: At Nebraska, Johnson wasn't a starter until he was a senior — and then he gained All-Big Eight and All-American distinction . . . He played in the Orange Bowl each of his last two seasons and in the 1972 All-American Bowl in Tampa.

PERSONAL: Attended South Mountain High School in Phoenix, Arizona, then Phoenix J. C. before earning his B.S. degree in business administration at Nebraska.

KELLY, MIKE, 6-3, 222, Tight End, 4th Year, Davidson
Born: January 14, 1948 at Davidson, North Carolina
Joined Saints: Trade with Cincinnati, 1973

PRO: The Saints swapped a future draft choice to Cincinnati to obtain Mike as insurance at the vital tight end position. While he was utilized as a back-up receiver by head coach Paul Brown — on a team that was deep in tight ends — he'll have an opportunity to battle incumbent Bob Brown for the starting assignment in New Orleans . . . He's described as a tough and tenacious competitor who can block and get open and catch the football. With the Bengals he also distinguished himself with his special teams work — a chore he's also likely to draw with the Saints . . . The Bengals originally signed him as a free agent in 1970 . . . For his NFL career to date he has one reception for nine yards in 1971.

COLLEGE: Mike was a three-year regular at Davidson as a receiver.

PERSONAL: Married (Sue Ann), one son (Brian, 2).

KUPP, JACOB RALPH (JAKE), 6-3, 248, Guard, 10th Year, Washington. Born: March 12, 1941 at Pasadena, Calif. Joined Saints: Returned from Atlanta, 1968

PRO: The indestructible Saints captain was found to be human last fall, being dropped by a knee injury in the season's second game. Although no operation was performed, Jake wasn't ready to return for even part-time duty until the final contest. He's worked hard, as usual, to strengthen the knee and is expected to reclaim his starting assignment at left guard, where he'll still rate as one of the league's best at age 32 — the oldest of all the Saints . . . An excellent pull-out blocker, he can also provide the ultimate in pass protection — and he's been an exceptional leader, both on and off the field and throughout the community . . . Selected ninth by Dallas as a tight end in 1964, he was switched to guard, then traded to Washington in 1966 and converted back to tight end to catch four passes for 28 yards . . . New Orleans claimed him in the 1967 expansion draft, then waived him to Atlanta for a season, after which he returned to the Saints to stay.

COLLEGE: Captain of Washington team and played linebacker and offensive end . . . Also starting pitcher for Huskies' baseball team.

PERSONAL: Football, basketball and baseball star at Sunnyside (Wash.) High . . . Has BA in education . . . Married (Carla), three sons (Randy, 8; Craig, 6; Kyle, 4) . . . Hometown is Sunnyside, Wash., but now lives in Metairie, La. . . Public Relations in Ben Weiner Furniture Rental Business.

KUZIEL, BOB, 6-4, 255, Center, 2nd Year, Pittsburgh Born: July 24, 1950 at New Haven, Connecticut Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 3, 1972

PRO: After establishing himself as a durable performer in college — where he was in every offensive play as a senior and 38 of 40 quarters as a junior — Bob had his freshman pro campaign wiped out by knee surgery after the opening game. He's spent the entire off-season rehabilitating and figures to be ready to make another bid for the first string center job this summer . . . Kuziel is extremely quick off the ball, possesses that explosive quality so vital to an offensive lineman and sustains his blocks very well. He's mobile enough to go out and get the enemy's middle linebacker.

COLLEGE: As a senior he was named to the All-East team and the All-American second team . . . He played in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl at the close of his senior season.

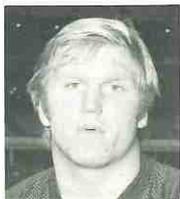

PERSONAL: An economics and history major, he earned a B.S. degree at Pitt . . . Attended Manlius (New York) High School . . . Married (Mary).

LEE, BIVIAN, 6-3, 200, Cornerback, 3rd Year, Prairie View Born: August 3, 1948 at Austin, Tex. Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 3, 1971

PRO: In his second NFL season Bivian commenced to develop into the player the Saints hoped they had drafted . . . Despite an agonizing training camp — due to illness in his family — the rangy defender stuck in there, survived a slight slump and a couple of irritating, though not disabling, injuries and eventually emerged as a number one cornerback . . . Both his coverage and his tackling improved with game action . . . Although not a full-time starter he wound up leading the Saints with four interceptions. If he can go all the way in 1973 he should improve considerably on that mark.

COLLEGE: After being converted from quarterback to defensive back he led the SWAC with six interceptions as a sophomore . . . He gained All-SWAC acclaim each of his last three seasons and was a Little All-American pick while serving as team captain each of his last two years . . . In 1969 he shattered a Cotton Bowl record by racing 105 yards with an interception vs. Bishop . . . He was named Prairie View's MVP in 1970 and concluded that campaign by playing in the North-South Shrine Game in Miami.

PERSONAL: Attended Emile High School in Bastrop, Texas and holds a college degree in physical education and biology . . . Handles off-season promotional work for Cheseborough-Pond's.

LINHART, TONI, 6-0, 170, Placekicker, 2nd Year, Austria Tech
Born: July 24, 1942 at Vienna, Austria
Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

PRO: In his initial American football game Toni booted a final-second field goal to nip Philadelphia, 13-10, in last summer's first pre-season game. The transformation, however, from European soccer standout to NFL placekicker was not an easy one to make — and the skilled athlete spent the entire season attempting to perfect his kicking style . . . He was activated for two games and clicked on five of five extra point tries and two of five field goal shots. At the conclusion of the campaign he returned to Austria, coming back to New Orleans in March to resume work on his placekicking . . . Prior to being signed in Europe by coach J.D. Roberts in 1972, he'd played soccer eleven years with the Wiener Sport Club and two years with the First Vienna Football Club.

PERSONAL: Attended Vienna (Austria) High School and Austria Technical School and studied to become an architect, which is still his ambition . . . Married (Renate).

LONG, DAVE, 6-4, 255, Defensive Tackle, 8th Year, Iowa
Born: September 6, 1944 at Jefferson, Iowa
Joined Saints: Trade with St. Louis, 1969

PRO: For the second year in a row the ever-hustling Long participated in 14 straight games after being prematurely consigned to part-time duty by some observers. Actually, he was a frequent starter in 1972 and saw plenty of action at both defensive end and tackle. He was, as always, a resistant force against the opposition's ground attack — and he wasn't easy for any pass protector to handle, either . . . Again in 1973 he'll be battling for the number one tackle job and never giving the Saints less than 100% effort . . . Dave was drafted third by St. Louis in 1966, playing tackle as a rookie, then being switched to end and traded to New Orleans in 1969 along with Richard Neal, with John Gilliam moving to the Cardinals.

COLLEGE: Played both ways at end in college and made all-Big Ten in '65 . . . Played in Blue-Gray Game.

PERSONAL: An all-state quarterback at Thomas Jefferson High in Cedar Rapids, Ia., where he also starred in basketball . . . Works in real estate in off-season . . . Makes home in New Orleans.

MANNING, ARCHIE, 6-3, 210, Quarterback, 3rd Year, Mississippi
Born: May 19, 1949 at Cleveland, Miss.
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 1, 1971

PRO: After an injury-interrupted rookie season in 1971, Archie got down to business last year, taking the snap on every one of the Saints' 785 offensive plays and throwing more passes (448) and completing more (230) than anyone in the NFL. His yardage output of 2,781 was exceeded only by Joe Namath's 2,816 and his 18 scoring aerials trailed the NFL leaders by one. Of the 23 touchdowns produced by the New Orleans offense the redoubtable redhead passed for 18 and ran for two . . . Ever dangerous on the ground, the big, swift (4.7 for 40) quarterback finished as the Saints' number two rusher with 351 yards and a team-leading 5.6-yard average. He can and will carry the ball and pitch with accuracy in full stride — and he's improving with each game as a dropback passer . . . As will all scrambling-type quarterbacks, Manning suffered a few setbacks — being dumped 43 times for an aggregate loss of 347 yards — but he kept getting up . . . He's fast becoming an authoritative leader on the field — a factor that should improve his overall performance — and the team's, too.

COLLEGE: During his three seasons as the Ole Miss signal-caller Archie connected on 412 of 761 aerials (.541) for 4,753 yards and 31 touchdowns — all school records... His three-year total offense of 5,576 yards represented a new SEC mark... An All-SEC pick in 1969-70, he was also an All-American selection in 1969, when he set an Ole Miss single game standard by accounting for 540 yards total offense — 436 via 33 pass completions — vs. Alabama... At the conclusion of his last two seasons he earned MVP recognition in the Sugar Bowl and Gator Bowl... A brilliant baseball shortstop, he was also drafted by the American League's Chicago White Sox.

PERSONAL: Attended Drew (Miss.) High School... Married (Olivia)... He toured the Far East with other NFL representatives last February.

MORRISON, DON, 6-5, 260, Offensive Tackle, 3rd Year, Texas-Arlington. Born: December 16, 1949 at Ft. Worth, Tex. Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 4D, 1971

PRO: The tough and talented Texan kept coming in 1972, extending to 28 the number of league games he's started and finished since reporting to the Saints' 1971 training camp. From the outset of his pro career he was the number one left tackle and barring a shift to another offensive line position he's likely to remain there for many years... A solid blocker on both passing and running plays, Don is stepping up his pace as he learns more about his defensive opponents... He seldom has much to say — he just plays the game as it should be played.

COLLEGE: While beefing up from 210 to 255 pounds during his college career, the UTA co-captain gained All-Southland Conference and All-Texas honors... He also excelled as a shot-putter, javelin-thrower and discus-tosser and was an honor roll engineering major.

PERSONAL: Attended Forney (Texas) High School... Married (Marsha)... Employed by Stratton-Baldwin during off-season.

NEWLAND

MYERS, TOM, 5-11, 184, Safetyman, 2nd Year, Syracuse Born: October 24, 1950 at Cohoes, New York Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 3a, 1973

PRO: A sometimes starter as a rookie last fall, Tommy the Tiger figures to claw his way to a steady first-string job at the free safety post in 1972. Living up to his college reputation, he's already proven himself to be an exceptionally hard tackler with a keen sense of anticipation as far as the football is concerned. When the ball is put into the air it's reasonable to expect that this towheaded Irishman will be in the area when it comes down... All three of his interceptions were made in the end zone last season — when he was also utilized to return punts, legging back nine of them for 43 yards. It was a task that was turned over to him because of his sure hands... What he may lack in blazing speed he makes up for in quickness.

COLLEGE: Syracuse's captain and an All-American selection in 1971, he participated in both the East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl Games... With 436 yards via punt returns in 1970 he smashed an Orange record previously held by Floyd Little... Tommy was also an outstanding lacrosse player.

PERSONAL: Attended Pulaski High School in New Britain, Connecticut, along with Saints teammate Willie Hall.

NEWLAND, BOB, 6-2, 190, Wide Receiver, 3rd Year, Oregon Born: October 27, 1948 at Medford, Ore. Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 7B, 1971

PRO: Minus the hamstring pull that delayed his progress in training camp as a rookie in 1971, Bob hit his stride early last fall, gaining a starting assignment at wide receiver and surviving the full 14-game schedule unscathed. His 47 catches for 579 yards far exceeded his freshman output and were good enough to lead the Saints . . . He's very quick, runs a sharp pass route and absorbs the hits very well, as he was pounded plenty by defenders last autumn. He has the ability to go deep in a hurry (9.9 speed) and rarely drops any pass he gets his hands on . . . Newland has also excelled when employed on special teams, being a better than average blocker for a wide receiver . . . His overall development as a pro player should be rapid. He's played in all 28 games over two years.

COLLEGE: His 125 catches — for 1,941 yards — represented an Oregon career record . . . As a senior he smashed the school's one season mark with 67 grabs for 1,123 yards — and single game standards with 11 receptions (vs. Air Force), 225 yards receiving (vs. Illinois) and a 95-yard TD caper (vs. Illinois) . . . An All-West Coast selection, he played in the 1970 East-West Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Attended North Eugene (Oregon) High School . . . He serves as a Manager for Blue Ribbon Sports, Inc., manufacturers of athletic shoes, in Beaverton, Oregon.

NEWSOME, BILLY, 6-5, 250, Defensive End, 4th Year, Grambling

Born: March 2, 1948 at Jacksonville, Texas

Joined Saints: Trade with Baltimore, 1973

PRO: The Saints yielded their first round draft choice of last January to acquire this super-charged defensive lineman from Baltimore. He's been a standout at both end and tackle and is presently tagged to man the left end slot in the Saints' front line . . . A three-year starter for the Colts, his former coach, Don McCafferty, praised him as "one of the most consistent football players on our team." . . . Even from tackle he was regarded as a premier pass-rusher . . . He possesses great quickness and speed — and weighed only 225 when he first reported to Baltimore as a number five draft pick in 1970 . . . He's played effectively carrying as much as 260 pounds . . . The Colts presented him with the game ball in his initial pro start vs. the Patriots . . . A quiet man, his actions speak volumes.

COLLEGE: Billy was a Little All-American selection at Grambling and team captain as a senior.

PERSONAL: Attended Fred Douglass High School in Jacksonville, Texas . . . Now resides in Pikesville, Maryland . . . Married (Lolita), daughter (Melanie Deprice, 1).

NIX, KENT, 6-1, 198, Quarterback, 7th Year, T.C.U.

Born: March 12, 1944 at Corpus Christi, Texas

Joined Saints: Trade with Houston, 1973

PRO: On October 10, 1971, Kent experienced one of his greatest days as a pro passer when he completed 15 of 26 throws for 242 yards and two touchdowns in Chicago's 35-14 conquest of New Orleans. It was a season during which he also hurled the Bears to comeback victories over Pittsburgh and Minnesota. The following fall found him flexing his pitching arm with Houston and he got into 12 contests. The Saints acquired him last spring along with defensive tackle Ron Billingsley in a swap that moved tight end Dave Parks, quarterback Edd Hargett and linebacker Tom Stincic to the Oilers . . . Originally signed as a free agent by Green Bay in 1966, he spent that season on the Packers' taxi squad before being traded to Pittsburgh in 1967. After three campaigns with the Steelers he was traded to Minnesota in 1970, then was signed as a free agent that same year by Chicago after being released by the Vikings.

COLLEGE: Nix quarterbacked TCU to a second-place finish in the Southwest Conference in 1965 and in three varsity seasons he completed 119 of 267 passes.

PERSONAL: Attended Ray High School in Corpus Christi, Texas, where he gained All-State honors.

OWENS, JOE, 6-3, 245, Defensive End, 4th Year, Alcorn A&M

Born: November 8, 1946 at Columbia, Miss.

Joined Saints: Waivers from San Diego, 1971

PRO: The Saints were admitting an earlier mistake when they claimed Joe just prior to the start of the 1971 season. They had drafted him ninth in 1969 and after testing him at linebacker sent him to the Richmond minor league team for that season. Before another campaign got underway he was traded to San Diego and he went on to lead the Chargers with eleven sacks from his defensive end post . . . When he became available the Saints grabbed him in a hurry and he's certainly produced up to expectations, proving to be the team's quickest and most effective pass-rusher. In two years he's played in all 28 games since returning to New Orleans — and in a few of the contests he was under par physically . . . This fall he could be shuttled in and out of the lineup depending upon the situation. You may be sure that Owens will be in there when there's a need to pressure the quarterback.

COLLEGE: Won All-Southwestern Athletic Conference honors at Alcorn A&M.

PERSONAL: Attended Jefferson High School in Columbia, Miss. . . Married (Burtaniel), one son (Joe, Jr., 4).

PALMER, DICK, 6-2, 232, Linebacker, 4th Year, Kentucky

Born: April 9, 1947 at Lexington, Kentucky

Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

PRO: The Baltimore Colts drafted Dick on the tenth round in 1970, then waived him to the Miami club before that season got underway. The Bills acquired his services via a trade with the Dolphins in training camp in 1971 — but an arm injury caused him to sit out the entire '71 campaign . . . Although highly regarded as a linebacker he's spent much of his time on special teams, as he did last year in New Orleans after being signed as a free agent and participating in the season's final six games . . . He'll get an opportunity to show what he can do as an outside linebacker in camp this summer.

COLLEGE: At Kentucky he was a three-year starter at defensive end and earned the team's MVP honors in 1968 . . . Palmer played in both the North-South Shrine Game and the Coaches All-America Game.

PERSONAL: Dick resides in Buffalo, N.Y. and is married (Debra), one daughter (Lisa).

POLLARD, BOB, 6-3, 255, Defensive Tackle, 3rd Year, Weber State

Born: December 30, 1948 at Beaumont, Tex.

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 11, 1971

PRO: The Saints' leading tackler last season, Bob has now started every game since he reported to the New Orleans training camp in 1971. His good speed and quickness enable him to penetrate effectively and to pursue ballcarriers after they've advanced beyond the line of scrimmage. He has been improving steadily with his pass-rushing techniques . . . While he's not jumbo size, he's plenty strong and seldom misses a tackle . . . An All-Rookie team selection at left tackle in 1971, he stepped up his production last fall and may only be a notch or two away from All-Conference status . . . If necessary he could be utilized at defensive end.

COLLEGE: After starting out at Texas Southern, he transferred to Weber State for his last two seasons at defensive end.

PERSONAL: Attended Hebert High School in Beaumont, Texas . . . Married (Toni), one daughter (Kim, 2).

RILEY, PRESTON, 6-0, 187, Wide Receiver, 4th Year, Memphis State
Born: October 30, 1947 at Vicksburg, Mississippi
Joined Saints: Trade with San Francisco, 1973

PRO: After catching 10 passes for 175 yards during his first two seasons in San Francisco, Preston was used more frequently as a starter at wide receiver last autumn and responded with eleven receptions for 156 yards. When he wasn't playing on the offensive unit he was using his 4.6 speed to good advantage on the special teams — particularly on kick coverage . . . There's no question that he'll make a serious bid for a first string receiving job with New Orleans . . . To obtain his services the Saints swapped an undisclosed draft choice to the 49'ers.

COLLEGE: In his sophomore season Riley served as a defensive back, then was shifted to a flanker post for his last two years . . . He was also a quarter-miler in college . . . The 49'ers picked him on the ninth round in 1970.

PERSONAL: Attended Culkin Academy in Vicksburg, Mississippi . . . Married (Jeannie), one daughter (Jennifer, 1).

regular season. He then spent that campaign with the minor league Roanoke team. To reacquire his services for 1972 the Saints had to submit him to "no recall" waivers and he was claimed by Baltimore. The Colts released him before the '72 season kicked off and he was re-signed by the Saints in time for the third game after injuries had depleted the Saints' offensive wall . . . Robbie got into eight games and showed progress as a blocker, being particularly effective on running plays. He'll be pitching for a number one or back-up tackle job this summer.

COLLEGE: In addition to being a standout blocker on a top offensive team, he also ranked high in his chemical engineering class.

PERSONAL: Attended Lanier High School in Austin, Texas . . . Married (Donna).

SCOTT, BOBBY, 6-1, 201, Quarterback, 1st Year, Tennessee
Born: April 2, 1949 at Chattanooga, Tennessee
Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 14, 1971

PRO: For the first time in his two pro seasons Bobby was on the active roster for three games last fall. Since he didn't see any game combat, however, he's still listed as a freshman — one who has labored hard for two years on the New Orleans taxi squad. His improvement in that capacity in 1972 was sufficient to permit the Saints to trade away number two quarterback Edd Hargett, thus throwing the job up for grabs between Scott and newly-acquired Kent Nix and Bob Davis . . . Bobby is gifted with a strong arm — but remains badly in need of game experience, which he'll get this summer.

COLLEGE: During his three-year stint at Tennessee he threw for 32 touchdowns and a school record 3,461 yards . . . His 385 yards passing vs. Florida in 1970 represented a Vols single game mark . . . He was named the MVP in the 1971 Sugar Bowl Game.

PERSONAL: Attended Rossville (Georgia) High School.

SMITH, ROYCE, 6-3, 250, Guard, 2nd Year, Georgia

Born: June 17, 1949 in Savannah, Georgia

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 1, 1972

PRO: The pre-season knee injury to Del Williams resulted in Royce drawing a quick starting assignment at right guard as a rookie last fall. He was making commendable progress, too, until he was felled by a damaged knee during game number ten — his tenth straight start. He made excellent progress in his off-season rehabilitation and should be at full strength in his endeavor to retain a starting guard berth . . . There's still much to learn, particularly where pass protection is concerned, but Smith's a determined and willing worker with an All-Pro glint in his eyes . . . Pro Football Weekly publication named him to its All-Rookie team . . . The Saints' fastest lineman, he wastes no time in escorting ballcarriers around the corner and he hits with tremendous force — one of the youthful keystones in the Saints' offensive line.

COLLEGE: At Georgia he was elected permanent captain of his senior team which won in the Gator Bowl. He also played under Saints head coach J.D. Roberts in the South's Senior Bowl conquest of the North . . . An All-City fullback in high school, he opened at defensive end as a college freshman . . . Not only did he receive All-SEC acclaim in 1971 but he was honored on the first team of nearly every All-American team chosen and he was awarded the Jacobs Trophy for being voted the best blocker in the SEC . . . The Atlanta Touchdown Club also named him the outstanding lineman in the South.

PERSONAL: Attended Groves High School in Savannah, Georgia.

STRONG, JIM, 6-1, 215, Running Back, 4th Year, Houston

Born: December 12, 1946 at San Antonio, Tex.

Joined Saints: Waivers from San Francisco, 1971

PRO: Last season was one that Jim would probably like to forget, as he just couldn't seem to hit his 1971 stride. In that year, his first with the Saints after being claimed from San Francisco, he led his team in rushing with 404 yards (4.3 avg.) and also proved to be adept at pass-catching and blocking . . . Big things were expected from the 49'ers former seventh round choice last autumn but it just didn't happen. Far from being discouraged, he's determined to regain his first string fullback assignment this summer . . . Although lacking in blazing speed, he's a heady, control-type runner who can make maximum use of his blockers . . . This will certainly be a critical year in Strong's pro grid career.

COLLEGE: In his senior season he paced Houston's rushing attack with 1,037 yards and 11 touchdowns . . . A second team All-American, he was also named MVP in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

PERSONAL: Attended Sam Houston High School in San Antonio, Texas . . . Married (Eileen).

WEATHERSPOON, CEPHUS, 6-1, 182, Wide Receiver, 2nd Year,

Fort Lewis (Colorado). Born: June 14, 1948 in Globe, Arizona

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 13, 1972

PRO: Cephus spent all but one game last season on the taxi squad at New Orleans, being activated for just one contest and performing on the special teams . . . With the toil of daily practice sessions the raw rookie commenced to smooth out his receiving techniques . . . He still has the 4.6 speed, the quick hands and feet and the fine attitude that made him such a solid prospect in 1972. This could be his year to jump up to the varsity on a full-time basis.

COLLEGE: A very highly regarded small college player, but he failed to gain "All-Star" recognition.

PERSONAL: Attended Globe (Arizona) High School and Mesa (Arizona) Community College.

WHITAKER

WHITAKER, CRESTON, 6-2, 187, Wide Receiver, 2nd Year, North Texas State. Born: August 12, 1947 at Jacksonville, Ill. Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1971

PRO: Originally signed by Los Angeles as a free agent in 1970, Creston spent that entire season in the armed forces. The Saints enlisted him as a free agent after the Rams released him in 1971, and he worked the final six weeks of the campaign on the New Orleans taxi squad . . . Although he played no football in college, he'd been making steady advancement as a fleet receiver with the Saints' reserve unit. He was active for only two games in 1972 — with 1973 promising to be his most productive season until a late winter basketball injury to his ankle cast a serious doubt on his ability to compete for a position this summer.

COLLEGE: Cres started in track and basketball at college.

PERSONAL: Attended Jacksonville (Illinois) High School.

WILLIAMS, DELANO R. (DEL), 6-2, 245, Guard, 7th Year, Florida State. Born: November 9, 1945 at Live Oak, Fla. Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 3b, 1967

PRO: A pre-season knee operation idled dependable Del for 49 days last year. He was not only ready to go in game number seven but he didn't miss any further action the rest of the season, playing at both guards and a few minutes at center. Actually, his regular post has been right guard — but he can handle any of the three middle slots. Each of the past two off-seasons he's undergone bone spur surgery on his ankles, but his play hasn't been affected . . . One of the few remaining original Saints from 1967, he's not among the biggest, strongest or fastest offensive linemen in the NFL but very few can match him for carrying out blocking assignments . . . Additionally, he's now serving his third year as his team's player representative.

COLLEGE: Starter in every varsity game at Florida State . . . Played tackle first two years, then moved to guard and was considered the best pass blocker among collegiate linemen in 1966 . . . Played in East-West Shrine Game . . . Second team All-America selection in 1966.

PERSONAL: Graduate of Suwannee High in Live Oak, Fla. . . Majored in criminology at Florida State . . . Resides in Tallahassee, Fla., where he operates a restaurant.

WINTHER, WIMPY, 6-4, 261, Center, 3rd Year, Mississippi Born: October 22, 1947 at Biloxi, Mississippi Joined Saints: Free Agent, 1972

PRO: The Saints' fourth draft choice in 1971, Wimpy was traded to Green Bay during pre-season of that year. He remained with the Packers as a spare center until last year when he was released. The Saints didn't permit him to remain idle for too long however, as they re-signed him as a free agent after suffering injuries in their interior line. Archie Manning's former snapper at Ole Miss got into five games for New Orleans last fall and will be bidding for regular work at the pivot in training camp this summer . . . Regardless of the chore he's performing he does it with great zeal and enthusiasm.

COLLEGE: Wimpy climaxed his college career by participating in the Senior Bowl Game after previously playing in the 1970 Sugar Bowl and the 1971 Gator Bowl.

PERSONAL: Attended Biloxi (Miss.) High School . . . Married (Katherine).

WYATT, DOUG, 6-1, 195, Safety, 4th Year, Tulsa Born: October 18, 1946 at Tyler, Tex. Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 17, 1970

PRO: In this fourth pro campaign for Doug he'll be waging a war to maintain a firm grip on the strong safety post. Appearing in all 14 games last autumn, he performed in his usual consistent manner, against both the run and the pass . . . As a rookie he'd started out as a cornerback but finished the season at safety and that's where he's remained — playing both the strong and free spots . . . In his pro debut — a pre-season encounter vs. Minnesota — he scooped up a fumble and dashed 50 yards to the winning TD . . . He snatched a Kansas City fumble in 1972 and streaked 35 yards to score in a 20-17 loss to the Chiefs . . . In 1971 he returned an interception 55 yards for six points to clinch a triumph over Green Bay. He'll be looking for similar opportunities in 1973.

COLLEGE: Earned three football letters at Tulsa as both offensive end and defensive back . . . Team captain in '69 . . . Played in Hula Bowl . . . All-Conference three years and All-Big Four (Arkansas, Oklahoma, Okla. State and Tulsa) three years.

PERSONAL: Lost 40 per cent vision in one eye when soft drink bottle exploded but has 20-20 vision with contact lens . . . Majored in marketing . . . Married (Judy), twin sons (Keith and Kevin, 2) . . . Resides in Metairie, La. and is employed by Sooner Pipeline Company.

YOUNG, ADRIAN, 6-1, 232, Linebacker, 6th Year, U.S.C.

Born: January 31, 1946 at Dublin, Ireland

Joined Saints: Trade with Detroit, 1973

PRO: In 1968 Philadelphia made Adrian its number three draft pick and he went on to become a starter at weakside linebacker — his tour of duty being interrupted by knee surgery, which caused him to miss the last 12 games in 1971. As a regular in 1970 he was credited with two interceptions — and whenever he's played he's demonstrated an ability to cover a lot of ground and a willingness to hit . . . After one game in 1972 he was claimed on waivers by Detroit and participated in ten contests for that team, with most of his duties being confined to special teams work . . . He'll get another opportunity to man an outside linebacker post in New Orleans, with the Saints having relinquished rights to a future draft choice to secure his services.

COLLEGE: He holds a B.S. degree in business management from Southern California — where he was co-captain of the 1967 national championship team . . . Adrian earned All-West Coast and All-American honors and played in the East-West Shrine Game and the College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Attended Bishop Amat High School in LaPuente, California . . . Married (Pamela), one son (Matthew).

THE SAINTS' 1973 DRAFT PICKS

No. 2 DERLAND MOORE, Defensive End, 6-4, 250, Oklahoma

A standout at both defensive end and tackle at Oklahoma, Moore could be tested at either or both positions by the Saints. He went to college on a track scholarship — and still puts the shot — but earned a job on the football team . . . Most of his football would seem to be ahead of him . . . According to the Saints' scouts: "Derland has a strong pass rush . . . slaps that blocker hard and makes good use of his hands. He'll pursue with good speed and is tough when closing to the inside or providing solid outside support. Possesses leadership ability and has played with increasing confidence each time he's taken the field." In addition to playing in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl and the last two Sugar Bowl Games, he was voted to the AP All-American and All-Big Eight teams and received the Gomer Jones Award as Oklahoma's outstanding lineman. A business education major. Married (Kris); daughter (Kimberly, 1) . . . Attended Poplar Bluff (Mo.) High School . . . Born: October 7, 1951 in Malden, Mo.

BAUMGARTNER VAN VALKENBURG

No. 2a STEVE BAUMGARTNER, Defensive End, 6-7, 248, Purdue

(Choice from New York Jets for Richard Neal) An All-Big Ten selection by both the AP and UPI last season, Steve developed quickly as a senior, being termed by the Saints' scouts, "Good against the run outside with the potential to become an excellent pass-rusher. He's just beginning to come into his own as a defensive end . . . Fine lateral movement and pursuit. He could weigh 260 pounds next fall. Greater upper body strength may be necessary before he can become a pro standout." The "Bomber" started all but one 1971 game during his junior and senior seasons at defensive end . . . logging 275 minutes and 290 minutes, respectively . . . In those two years he accounted for 140 tackles — 18 of them for losses, broke up four passes and recovered four fumbles . . . Holds degree in business . . . Attended Benet Academy in Lisle, Illinois . . . Married (Mary) . . . Born: March 26, 1951 in Chicago, Ill.

No. 3 PETE VAN VALKENBURG, Running Back, 6-2, 192, Brigham Young

(Choice from New York Jets for Delles Howell) A sturdy, slashing type ballcarrier, Pete capped his college career in 1972 by grinding out 1,386 yards on 232 carries for a six yard average and 12 touchdowns. He also demonstrated his running and catching ability in January's Senior Bowl Game. His efforts earned him a spot on the All-Rockies team for 1972. Over three seasons he rushed for 2,392 yards (5.2 avg.), caught 25 passes for 280 yards, returned 19 kickoffs for 474 yards (25.0 avg.), and 27 touchdowns . . . setting eight school records and scoring more points and touchdowns than anyone in BYU history . . . In the opinion of the Saints' scouts, "He's got 4.6 speed

O'NEAL, STEVE, 6-3, 185, Punter, 5th Year, Texas A&M

Born: February 4, 1946 at Hearne, Texas

Joined Saints: Trade with New York Jets, 1973

PRO: The Jets' 13th draft choice in 1969, he was the club's number one punter for four years, improving his average over the previous season slightly in 1972 although hampered by an ailing back through the last four games... He's had a reputation for punting well under pressure from deep in his own territory... As a rookie he boomed the longest punt in NFL history, 98 yards at Denver — averaging 57.4 yards that day on five kicks... The Saints obtained him in the trade that sent punter Julian Fagan, wide receiver Margene Adkins and an eighth round pick to New York for O'Neal, quarterback Bob Davis and a fourth round selection.

COLLEGE: Steve holds the Texas A&M record for most career punts and average and was named to the All-Southwest Conference team in 1967 and 1968... He was also elected to the Sporting News All-American team.

PERSONAL: Aiming for a career in dentistry via the University of Tennessee Dental School.

He was team captain and participated in the Blue-Gray Game . . . Attended Hillcrest High School in Midvale, Utah . . . Married (Rachel) . . . Born: May 19, 1950 in Salt Lake City.

No. 4 JIM MERLO, Outside Linebacker, 6-1, 221, Stanford

(Choice from Baltimore Colts for first round pick) Selected by both the AP and UPI on the All-West Coast team, Jim went on to gain acclaim as the most valuable defensive player in the 1973 Hula Bowl contest. It was the climax of an outstanding senior season for the Indians' left side linebacker. He'd been a junior college All-American at Fresno City College before enrolling at Stanford, where he majored in human biology . . . The Saints' scouts tabbed him, "He improved as the season progressed. Jim's a smart football player with good agility and movement. A tough, aggressive hitter, he's a fine open field tackler who always seems to know where the ball is — accounting for the interceptions he's come up with . . . He's a constant hustler and an all-out worker." Merlo was voted Stanford's MVP in 1972 and broke the Indians' all-time tackling record with 164 — while also intercepting two passes . . . He played in the 1972 Rose Bowl and the 1972 East-West Shrine Game . . . Attended Sanger (Calif.) High School . . . Born: October 3, 1951 in Sanger, Calif.

No. 6 MARTY SHUFORD, Running Back/Punter, 6-0, 216, Arizona

(Choice from New England for Jim Flanigan) A 42.5 yard punting average on 77 kicks and a five yard rushing average on 140 carries earned Marty a position in the Senior Bowl Game. He'd jumped up from a 38.2 yard punting average and a 3.8 yard ground gaining showing in 1971 . . . He transferred to Arizona after spending his freshman year at Tennessee as a tight end and won All-Conference acclaim as a senior . . . He majored in transportation . . . The Saints' scouts reported, "Marty has some moves and can find the daylight. He's a strong blocker and can catch the ball . . . always gives that second effort." . . . Married (Jackie) . . . Attended Saguaro High School in Scottsdale, Arizona . . . Born: August 29, 1949 in Lawton, Okla.

No. 7 BILL CAHILL, Safetyman, 5-11, 180, Washington

From the beginning of his freshman season, Billy was a number one free safety at Washington. He's been a second team All-West Coast choice, while performing ably on defense and leading the Pacific Eight Conference in punt returns with a 16.2 yard average in 1971. Last year he averaged 10.4 yards with 16 punt runbacks and claimed four interceptions. The Huskies rated him as possibly the best all around athlete on their team . . . In the Saints' scouts' book he, "Gives good coverage, with real fine ball reactions. He's an intelligent player who hits hard and covers a lot of ground — being particularly adept at going deep with the fast receivers . . . has agility and balance and is capable of breaking punt returns." . . . A pulled groin muscle hampered his activities considerably during the 1972 campaign . . . Washington's team captain, he was named a Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete and participated in the Hula Bowl . . . Attended Bellevue (Washington) High School . . . Born: May 2, 1951 at Seattle, Wash.

No. 8 BOB PETERSON, Guard, 6-4, 251, Utah

Although he's played both offensive tackle and guard, he's most likely to be tried at guard by the Saints. While the New Orleans scouts found him, "Quick off the line to nail the linebacker and a strong blocker on ground plays, with a good 'pop'," they also noted that his pass-blocking will require extra attention. Last season was only his second on offense and he gained All-Conference honors . . . A physical therapy major . . . Attended Highland High School in Salt Lake City, Utah . . . Born: November 14, 1950 in Murray, Utah.

No. 8a DOUG WINSLOW, Wide Receiver, 5-11, 181, Drake

(Choice from Washington in deal for Bob Grant) A good athlete who makes maximum use of his physical skills and abilities, the Saints will give Doug a shot at an outside receiver's berth. Captain of his team, he was an All-Conference selection and played in the Blue-Gray Game . . . The New Orleans scouting report said, "He runs clever, sharp pass routes and has fine receiver techniques — coming back for the ball consistently. He has the ability to run the deep patterns with 4.6 speed and is also a pretty fair punt returner — possessing good hands. A slick ballcarrier after making the catch, he can and does block and is a tough all-around competitor." . . . Winslow caught 139 passes for 2,165 yards and 15 TDs in three college seasons. He led the conference in punt returns as a junior and senior, averaging 12.9 yards on 28 hauls in '72 . . . Majored in radio and television . . . Attended S. E. Polk High School in Altoona, Iowa . . . Born: July 19, 1951 in Des Moines, Iowa.

No. 9 MIKE FINK, Cornerback, 5-11, 181, Missouri

A converted wide receiver, Mike will be checked out as a cornerback in New Orleans. He may also be utilized to return punts and kickoffs, chores that he performed in college. As far as the Saints' scouts are concerned, "Fink has quick feet, a nose for the ball, 4.6 speed, and the ability to back pedal. He has excellent reaction and body control and has shown that he can recover well on pass plays. Played mostly bump-and-run defense at Missouri." Mike played in the 1970 Orange Bowl, the 1972 Hula Bowl and 1972 Fiesta Bowl — being the MVP on defense, with a 101-yard kickoff return. He also had a second 100-yard TD and a 91-yard scoring return on kickoffs . . . and produced key interceptions in Missouri's upsets over Notre Dame and Colorado. As a junior he averaged 28.3 yards on 21 kickoff runbacks . . . Married (Candace) . . . Earned B.A. degree in Marketing-Real Estate . . . Attended Park Hill High School in Kansas City, Missouri . . . Born: December 24, 1950 in Kansas City, Mo.

No. 10 JEFF HORSLEY, Running Back, 5-11, 204, North Carolina Central

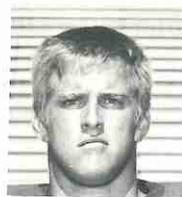

A transfer from Arizona State, Jeff was essentially a trackman — with 4.5 sprinter's speed. He was employed at offensive back, wide receiver and defensive back while playing in college . . . Banking on his quick feet and athletic ability, the Saints' scouts reported, "Horsley's a very hard worker who has a lot more work ahead of him in order to develop into a pro running back. His blocking and receiving may require special attention but there's no question about his ability to get outside." . . . Married (Herald); daughter (Alisa, 5); twins (Erica and Jeff, 2) . . . Attended East Side High School in Newark, New Jersey. He played in the Pelican Bowl . . . Born: May 9, 1949 in Newark, N.J.

No. 11 JAMES OWENS, Running Back, 6-2, 208, Auburn

Before settling down as a fullback at Auburn last season, James had seen service at cornerback, linebacker and tailback, while also returning kicks. A knee injury stalled him after six games in 1972. The Saints' scouts pegged him, "An excellent blocker with good hands and plenty of hustle. A fairly effective inside runner, he really didn't get much of an opportunity to carry the ball — spending most of his time blocking . . . A strong runner with some power." He played in the 1971-73 Gator Bowls and the 1972 Sugar Bowl . . . Attended Fairfield (Alabama) High School . . . Born: July 9, 1951 in Fairfield, Alabama.

No. 12 PAUL ORNDORFF, Tight End, 6-1, 210, Tampa

As a fullback in college, Paul carried the ball 111 times for 503 yards as a junior, then due to team injuries he was shifted to tight end last fall — a position where he's most likely to be installed by the Saints . . . He was most valuable back in 1969, 1970 and 1971 and played in the Tangerine Bowl and the All-American Bowl. According to the Saints' scouts, "As a ballcarrier he's a strong, tough inside runner who can break tackles, although not being particularly elusive. At tight end he showed good hands and the ability to catch the ball under heavy defensive pressure. He has 4.7 speed. Above all else, he's an outstanding blocker — who could develop into a fine receiver." . . . Married (Ronda); son (Paul, 4) . . . Attended Brandon (Florida) High School . . . Born: October 29, 1949 in Winchester, Va.

No. 13 RICHARD WATKINS, Defensive Tackle, 6-3, 258, Weber State

An All-State performer in high school, Richard played a year at Minnesota Junior College before transferring to Weber State and going on to All-Big Sky Conference honors, as an offensive guard. After spending most of his college career at offensive tackle and guard, he was switched to defensive tackle for the final game last season — and that's where he'll be checked out by the Saints . . . The Saints' scouts said, "He looked faster on defense in that last contest, demonstrating a strong pass rush and enough strength to split double-team blocks. He gives the all-out effort." . . . Attended Manville (New Jersey) High School . . . Born: January 17, 1950 in Coaldale, Pa.

No. 14 PAUL FERSEN, Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 257, Georgia

"A hustling, aggressive player," stated the Saints' scouts. "Paul's basic techniques are sound and he has good body control, being most effective in angle and reach blocks. Must master pass blocking, having played for a predominantly roll-out team. He seems to be tough enough and has played with pain. He's physical enough but still requires a lot of work." . . . Fersen majored in journalism en route to his AB degree . . . He played in the 1971 Gator Bowl Game . . . Attended North Fulton High School in Atlanta, Georgia . . . Born: February 16, 1950 in Columbus, Ga.

No. 15 MIKE EVENSON, Center, 6-3, 251, North Dakota State

According to the Saints' scouts, "Mike's a consistent player who sustains his blocks and gets the job done as it should be done without being spectacular. He's a pretty good snapper on punts and placekicks and he does very well at picking up the stunts – uses size and strength to advantage.” Evenson also holds his school record for both indoor and outdoor shotput. Future ambition is to coach and teach . . . and played in the 1970 Camelia Bowl . . . Attended Ryan High School in Minot, N.D. . . . Born: March 28, 1951 in Minot, N.D.

No. 16 HOWARD STEVENS, Running Back, 5-5, 165, Louisville

A transfer from Randolph-Macon after his sophomore season, Howard established a Louisville record by rushing for 1,429 yards (5.7-yard average) and 12 touchdowns as a junior. In a game vs. Southern Illinois he gained a school record 260 yards on 33 carries. His Louisville coach, Lee Corso, called him, “The greatest running back in the country, bar none.” . . . Last season he lugged the ball 259 times for 1,294 yards and 13 touchdowns; caught 29 passes for 221 yards and three scores; returned 31 punts for 378 yards and a TD; and hauled back 12 kickoffs for 240 yards . . . Including two years at Randolph-Macon he rushed for a total of 5,297 yards (an all-time college mark), tallied 69 touchdowns (another college record), snared 83 aerials for 738 yards and eight touchdowns, raced back 782 yards on 74 punts, and handled 30 kickoffs for 748 yards. His 418 points scored also represented a collegiate record. He was MVP of both his team and conference thru four straight seasons . . . and was also second team All-American in 1972 . . . Off the field he’s a B-plus student with possible ambitions for a law degree and earned his BA degree in psychology . . . Attended Harrisonburg (Virginia) High School . . . Married (Ritchie) . . . Born: February 9, 1950 in Harrisonburg, Va. . . Summary by Saints’ scouts: “Great quickness, speed, agility and balance and is strong for his size. We could use him in many ways.”

No. 17 BOBBY GARNER, Tight End, 6-5, 228, Winston-Salem

Picked on his size and potential, the Saints’ scouts commented, “He has good speed and fine hands and blocks pretty well. He needs a lot more work but he’ll be worth working with.” An outstanding basketball player, he was football team captain and MVP in 1972, as well as an All-Conference choice, catching 21 passes for 332 yards and six scores . . . Attended Bell Vocational School in Washington, D.C. . . . Born: October 20, 1950 in Halifax County, Va.

OTHER SAINTS ROOKIES FOR 1973

CIEMNY, RICHARD, Placekicker, 5-11, 220, Alabama

The Saints claimed Richard on waivers from the New York Jets last spring and he’ll be primed to compete in the club’s placekicking derby this summer . . . He spent last season coaching and teaching in New Jersey after being trimmed from the Jets’ roster. New York had signed him as a free agent after he’d done ‘Bama’s booting as a junior and senior – playing in the 1969 Liberty Bowl, the 1970 Bluebonnet Bowl, and the 1971 Senior Bowl . . . In addition to connecting on 13 of 21 field goal attempts for the Crimson Tide, he also did an excellent job of booming kickoffs into and out of the end zone . . . He owns the national junior college field goal record of 56 yards . . . Married (Diana), one son (Ricky, 6).

DORTON, WAYNE, Guard, 6-1, 248, Arkansas State

The Saints’ sixth round draft choice in 1972, Wayne elected to spend last season in the Canadian Football League. Now, having obtained his release, he’ll take a crack at earning a berth on the New Orleans offensive line . . . A four-year starter in college, he participated in three consecutive Pecan Bowl Games and finished his career with appearances in the North-South Shrine Game and in the Senior Bowl Game. As a senior he also gained All-Conference and Little All-American distinction . . . The scouts claim that he’s a tough, strong player who can move and has good balance . . . Academically, he earned a B.S. degree while majoring in journalism and general business . . . Married (Dianne), one daughter (Valeria, 3) . . . Attended Nettleton High School in Jonesboro, Arkansas . . . Born: March 17, 1949 at Jonesboro, Arkansas.

FERRUGHELLI, STEVE, Linebacker, 6-2, 224, Rutgers

The Saints claimed Steve on waivers from Washington last spring and will probably test him at both linebacker and fullback... The Redskins had signed him as a free agent last year after he'd had 1971 tryouts with Philadelphia and the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League. He spent last season playing minor league football, mostly at linebacker... A fullback at Rutgers, he rushed for 991 yards on 237 carries (4.1 avg.) and caught 35 passes for 346 yards during his three-year career... He's a pre-medical student working on his Master's Degree in Medical Research and Nutrition... Born: March 12, 1949 at Newark, N. J. and currently resides in Belleville, N. J.

HYMAN, ERIC, Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 245, North Carolina

After sitting out the 1970 season with illness, Eric came back to gain All-Atlantic Coast Conference acclaim as a senior. He played in the 1971 Gator Bowl, the 1972 Sun Bowl and the 1973 Hula Bowl... The Saints signed him as a free agent for defensive line duty... His father, General Arthur S. Hyman (ret.), was on a world record relay team at the U.S. Military Academy... Eric, who attended Mount Vernon High School in Alexandria, Virginia, eventually intends to pursue a coaching career... Married to (Pauline)... Born: October 9, 1950 at Fort Benning, Georgia.

PRICE, ELEX, Defensive Tackle, 6-3, 260, Alcorn A&M

In college Elex was regarded as one of the finest linemen ever developed at Alcorn. A foot injury hampered his activities as a junior but he bounced back to impress scouts in 1972. The Saints signed him as a free agent after he'd been overlooked in the player draft. He's likely to be a candidate for an inside slot on the defensive line... The report on him rates him high as both a pass rusher and tackler, with the ability to read the screen pass very well... He was named to the Little All-American team in both his junior and senior years... Attended N. D. Taylor High School in Yazoo City, Mississippi... Born: August 11, 1950 at Yazoo City, Mississippi.

ROSENBERG, BUZY, Safetyman, 5-9, 177, Georgia

While the Saints have defensive secondary plans for free agent Buzy, they certainly aren't going to overlook his talents as a kick return specialist. His all-around efforts at Georgia earned him both All-Southeastern Conference and All-American distinction. He played in the 1971 Gator Bowl Game and the 1972 Hula Bowl Game... As a sophomore cornerback he led his team with six interceptions and ranked second in the SEC with 305 yards on 26 punt returns (11.7 avg.)... As a safetyman in 1971 he retained his number two spot in the SEC with 34 punt runbacks netting 436 yards, including TD sprints of 79 and 66 yards vs. Oregon State... In his senior campaign he raced back 205 yards with 28 punts and intercepted a pair of enemy passes. Buzy, whose square first name is Lemon, attended Northside High School in Atlanta, Georgia... Born: December 4, 1951 at Atlanta, Georgia.

TORZALA, DAN, Placekicker, 5-10, 175, Colorado State

Checking in at the Saints' workout for rookies last February, Dan was signed to a contract after demonstrating a strong and accurate kicking foot. He'll join in what looms as a wide open competition for the club's number one kicking job... A transfer from Phoenix (Arizona) Junior College, he went on to establish a Colorado State record by booting a 57-yard field goal... Last year he was the kicking specialist for the minor league Phoenix Blazers... Attended Brophy College Prep School in Phoenix, Arizona... Married (Trudy)... Born: June 3, 1949 at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
