JOHN W. MECOM, JR.

Owner and President

John W. Mecom, Jr. was awarded the New Orleans Saints franchise on Dec. 15, 1966. At 27 he was the youngest club owner and president in National Football League history.

The Saints are Mecom's avid interest, but most of his time is spent managing the Mecom family business network of oil, sulphur, ranches and hotels. The elegant Warwick Hotel in Houston is a Mecom enterprise. John also owns one-half interest in the Le Pavillon Hotel in New Orleans.

Mecom has the Saints involved in many New Orleans civic projects. He was honored for his contributions to the Eye and Ear Institute of Louisiana. More than 1 million dollars has been raised for the clinic from the Saints sponsorship of an annual pre-season game to benefit the Lions Clubs of Louisiana.

A Mecom contribution resulted in the restoration of the locker rooms at Tad Gormley Stadium in New Orleans' City Park.

Mecom was born in Houston, Tex., on Oct. 11, 1939. He attended the universities of Oklahoma and Texas. He played freshman football at Oklahoma. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. At Oklahoma he met his future bride, Katsy Mullendore of Pawhuska, Okla.

John and his dad, John, Sr., had a supreme sports thrill in 1966 when the Mecom entry, driven by Graham Hill, won the Indianapolis 500 auto race classic.

John, Jr., was delighted with the progress of the Saints under Dick Nolan in 1978. The team showed its appreciation to Mecom by presenting him with the game ball after its final game victory over Tampa Bay. "He has stuck by us a long time," said Tommy Myers in tribute to Mecom.

The Mecoms reside in Houston. Their son, John III, is a high school football player, who regularly attends Saints training camps. The three Mecom daughters are Katsy, Mary Elizabeth and Kathleen.

DICK NOLAN

Head Coach

From Broadway to Bourbon Street, Dick Nolan has traveled the high road of a successful career as a player and coach in the National Football League.

Between New York and New Orleans for Nolan were Dallas and San Francisco. Wherever Dick has worked he has earned the reputation as a man with class and coach with ability. He also has the distinction of participating in eight NFL playoff games.

First there was New York, where Nolan was a standout defensive back with the great Giants teams of the 50s. He won a World Championship ring in 1956 as the Giants thrashed the Chicago Bears, 47-7. He played in the 1959 and 1961 title games.

Then came Dallas, where Nolan joined his former Giants teammate and coach Tom Landry to help build the Cowboys into champions. As defensive coordinator, Nolan introduced the flex defense and saw the Cowboys narrowly lose NFL Championship games to Green Bay in 1966 and 1967.

It was on to San Francisco as head coach for eight years. Mentor of three playoff teams, Nolan won National Conference "Coach of Year" honors in 1970.

Now there is New Orleans. Nolan joined the Saints in 1977 as line-backers coach. He was appointed head coach on Feb. 6, 1978. Under Nolan, the Saints had their most successful season with a record of 7-9.

Nolan's respect throughout the NFL became evident to John Mecom when the Saints owner and president was searching for a new coach. "The people I asked for advice told me I had the most qualified man already on the Saints staff, Dick Nolan."

Richard Charles Nolan was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., March 26, 1932. His family moved to White Plains, N.Y., when Dick was five. Dick grew up in the suburban New York City town where his father, age 81, still resides. Westchester County inducted Dick Nolan into its sports hall of fame in 1978.

A quarterback, Nolan enrolled at the University of Maryland. He was switched to offensive halfback and played offensive and defensive halfback in 1953 on the Terrapins' National Championship team of coach Jim Tatum. Other Nolan collegiate highlights included appearances in the Orange Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Senior Bowl and College All-Star games.

Nolan left Maryland with a degree in business administration, a $1,000 bonus for being a third-round draft choice of the Giants and a future bride. He married his college sweetheart, Elizabeth Ann Tullis, on April 19, 1954.

Playing in the Giants' famed Umbrella defensive backfield with Tom Landry, Emlen Tunnell and Herb Rich, Nolan intercepted six passes and returned them 48 yards during his 1954 rookie season. He was cornerback for the Giants from 1954-57. He was traded to the Chicago Cardinals in 1958, but returned to the Giants as a safety from 1959-61. He became a player-coach at Dallas in 1962.

Nolan became full-time defensive backfield coach of the Cowboys in 1963 and was named overall defensive coach in 1966. He was appointed head coach of the San Francisco 49ers in 1968. A team which never had won a title in the NFL and old All-America Conference, the 49ers captured NFC West division championships under Nolan in 1970-71-72. Ironically, it was Landry and Dallas which denied Nolan and San Francisco further NFL glory by inflicting all the playoff losses to the 49ers.

For coaching the 49ers to its first title season with a 10-3-1 record in 1970, Nolan was selected as National Conference "Coach of the Year." He coached the NFC in the 1971 and 1972 Pro Bowl games. His eight-year record (1968-75) at San Francisco was 54-53-5.

The Nolans reside in Metairie. They have six children—sons Richard Jr., Michael, Kelly and Jimmy and daughters Nancy and Lisa.
