JOHN W. MECOM, JR.

Owner

Entering his 17th season as an owner in the National Football League, John W. Mecom, Jr., 43, brings maturity and vitality to the task of building a winner in New Orleans.

Enthusiasm best characterizes his approach to duties as chief executive of the Saints.

Mecom was awarded the Saints franchise on December 15, 1966 and became, at age 27, the youngest owner in NFL history. His youthful entry into the NFL was surpassed by an early involvement in the Mecom family business. At an early age, he began on-the-job training at the hand of his father, the late John Mecom, Sr., learning the daily workings of the Mecom enterprises from the ground up.

He now sits at the head of the Mecom family business network that includes wide-ranging interests in oil, sulphur, ranches and hotels, including the exclusive Warwick and Towers in Houston, Texas.

In addition to his efforts to bring a winning tradition to the Saints, Mecom's philanthropic efforts in New Orleans have benefitted several civic concerns. For example, nearly $2 million has been raised for the Saints-Lions Eye and Ear Clinic through the Saints' sponsorship of an annual preseason game to benefit the Louisiana Lions Club. A Mecom contribution resulted in the restoration of the locker rooms at Tad Gormley Stadium, a football facility in New Orleans' City Park used by many of the area high schools.

Mecom has also positioned the Saints to assist with funding for a Ronald McDonald House, a support facility for the city's medical community. He has made substantial contributions toward the construction of a playground for handicapped children (Independence Isle), and his generosity made possible the recent implementation of a human performance center at Southern Baptist Hospital.

Mecom was born in Houston, Texas, Oct. 11, 1939. He attended the universities of Oklahoma and Texas and played freshman football at Oklahoma. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

At Oklahoma he met Katsy Mullendore of Pawhuska, Oklahoma. They were married in 1962.

His avid interest in sports includes auto racing. In 1966, John and John Sr. sponsored the winning entry (driven by Graham Hill) in the Indianapolis 500.

John and Katsy reside in Houston, but also maintain a residence in New Orleans. They have four children: John III, Katsy, Mary Elizabeth and Kathleen.

EDDIE JONES

President

Eddie Jones is in his second season as president of the franchise.

Jones returned to the Saints as president in February, 1982, after serving two years as vice-president of the John Mecom Co. in Houston, Texas where his duties included daily operations of the wide-ranging business interests of John Mecom, Jr., of which the Saints are a vital part.

The team's chief executive officer first joined the Saints staff in 1968 as business manager and served in that capacity until 1973 when he was appointed treasurer.

In 1977, Jones was appointed vice-president. He was named executive vice-president prior to the 1978 season and guided franchise operations until joining the Mecom Co. fulltime following the 1979 campaign.

During Jones' tenure as executive vice-president, the Saints enjoyed the two best seasons in franchise history to date, gaining a 7-9 record in 1978 and 8-8 in 1979.

Following his first season as club president, Jones was appointed by the National Football League to the executive committee of National Football League Properties, Inc.

Born in Houston, Texas, Jones grew up in Denham Springs, La. and was an all-state basketball player at Denham Springs High School. He graduated from Louisiana State University with a degree in accounting. He worked for Arthur Andersen & co. as a certified public accountant before joining the Saints.

An Air Force veteran, Jones and his wife Marilyn have three children: Wendy, Todd and Jeffrey. They reside in Mandeville.

FRED WILLIAMS

Vice-President Administration

Fred Williams was named vice-president of administration in 1982 after directing front office operations as assistant to the president during the 1981 season.

He prepared to direct the club's administration by serving as assistant to owner John Mecom, Jr. beginning in 1971. In that position he gained firsthand experience in every aspect of franchise operations.

His association with the Saints began in 1968 when he joined the Mecom family as a security consultant.

Williams is the first native New Orleanian to head Saints administrative operations. He attended Fortier High School and Tulane University.

Prior to joining the Saints, Williams pursued a law enforcement career in New Orleans and served four years as head of the district attorney's Rackets Bureau. Upon graduation from the police academy he received the PMBA Award presented in recognition of the highest overall score in academics, Judo, firearms and first aid.

A Marine Corps veteran, Williams and his wife Jessie live in Slidell. They have five children: Lynn, Jeff, Kevin, Amy and Christopher.

O.A. (BUM) PHILLIPS

HEAD COACH/GENERAL MANAGER

For the past two seasons, O.A. (Bum) Phillips has been busy building a football team in New Orleans, never wavering from a proven formula for success.

Upon his arrival prior to the 1981 season and through that first year, Phillips spoke often about "building a foundation" from which the Saints could rise to contention. In his second season, 1982, Phillips continued to add new talent to that foundation and began to build depth into a young, talented roster.

In just two years, Phillips completed a new look for the Saints. Using the draft, an occasional trade and judicious free agent signings and waiver claims, the coach revamped the roster dramatically. Phillips' first two drafts produced 27 selections, and 21 of those players were with the team at the end of the 1982 campaign. Of those 21 draft choices, ten were starters at the end of last year. In total, Phillips' 1982 Saints ended the season with 33 players on the roster that post-dated the coach's arrival, including 16 starters.

Pleased with the way his plan for building the Saints is working, Phillips is proud of the coaching staff that he has assembled to implement his plan for the Saints.

"We have a group of coaches that I have worked with or been around for a long time. Some of them I've raised," Phillips smiled. "I've never seen a group of assistants so effective right from the beginning. They deserve credit for whatever we've been able to accomplish.

"I'd bet my life on them. I've already bet my job on them."

With the foundation of talent and staff firmly in place, the job has changed as Phillips guides the Saints into 1983, his third season at the helm. The coach puts it this way:

"There are two ways to build a team. You either get better players or get the players you got better. The players we have now are good enough to win with. Now we've got to work on getting better."

Phillips was appointed Saints head coach Jan. 22, 1981. He assumed the additional title of general manager on Feb. 17, 1982.

He came to the Saints from the Houston Oilers where in six seasons, 1975-80, as head coach he raised that franchise to a perennial playoff contender. Prior to his arrival in Houston, the Oilers had turned in back-to-back seasons in which they won only a single game.

After serving as a defensive assistant on the San Diego Chargers staff, 1967-71, he joined the Houston Oilers as defensive coordinator in 1974. The Oilers went 7-7, a vast improvement over successive 1-13 seasons the two previous years.

In 1975 Bum took over as head coach and general manager and guided Houston to a 10-4 record, defeated every team on the schedule except Pittsburgh and Cincinnati and narrowly missed the AFC playoffs.

Following seasons of 5-9 in 1976 and 8-6 in 1977, Bum directed the Oilers into the playoffs, 1978-79-80. Houston appeared in the conference championship games of 1978 (10-6) and 1979 (11-5), but lost to eventual Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh both times. The Oilers again made the playoffs in 1980 (11-5) and were stopped by Oakland, also the eventual Super Bowl champion.

During those three successive years of playoff appearances, Bum's team won four of its seven post-season games.

Born in Orange, Texas Sept. 29, 1923, Phillips' coaching career has included 13 years at the high school level, six at the college level and six years as a pro assistant.

His eight-year record as an NFL head coach is 63-50, plus four post-season victories.

His college coaching background includes service as an assistant at Texas A&M, 1957; Houston, 1963-66; Southern Methodist, 1971-72; and Oklahoma State, 1973.

A Marine Corps veteran, Phillips played guard at Lamar Junior College, 1941 and 1946-47, and at Stephen F. Austin, 1948-49.

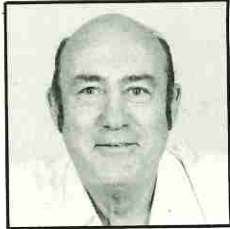

Warmth, consideration and cooperativeness are among the personal qualities that earned him the 1979 Jack Horrigan "Good Guy" Award presented annually by the Professional Football Writers of America.

Bum has given his personal efforts to several charitable projects, including fund raising for the Hughen School/Bob Hope High School in Port Arthur, Texas. The Bum Phillips Celebrity Golf Tournament in Port Arthur has raised well over $1 million for the educational facility for the severely handicapped. In 1982, Bum initiated a celebrity tournament in New Orleans to benefit local charities.

Bum and his wife Helen head a family of six children and three grandchildren. Son Wade is the Saints' defensive coordinator. The five Phillips daughters are: Susan (Reeh), Cicely (Devore), Dee Jean (Hurta), Andrea and Kim Ann.

PAT PEPLER

Director of Football Operations

In his third season with the Saints, Pat Pepler was elevated to Director of Football Operations in 1983.

Pepler served the Saints 1981-82 as Director of Player Negotiations. He joined the Saints from the Houston Oilers, where he was assistant general manager 1977-80.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Pepler played football, baseball and basketball. After a brief stint in pro baseball, he coached in Michigan high schools, and spent eight years as an assistant football coach at North Carolina State.

One season on Wake Forest coaching staff followed before Pepler joined the Green Bay Packers as director of player personnel under Vince Lombardi.

Also serving the Packers as assistant general manager, Pepler was a vital part of the Green Bay organization that won the NFL title in 1965 and successive Super Bowls in 1967 and 1968.

Pepler moved to the Miami Dolphins as director of pro scouting in 1971 and again played a part in successive Super Bowl victories, 1973 and 1974.

He joined the Atlanta Falcons in 1975 as general manager and served as interim head coach for nine games in 1976.

A Baltimore native, Pepler has six children: Pamela (Nickoli), Susan (Hamachek), Walter, Terry, John and Jim. He also has four grandchildren. Pepler lives in Destrehan.

SAINTS RETIRED NUMBERS

The only numbers in the 15-year history of the Saints to be retired are 81 and 31. Defensive end Doug Atkins wore 81. He played from 1967-69. The former University of Tennessee all-American ended his 17-year playing career in the Saints' third year of existence. Jimmy Taylor, the all-pro running back who rose to fame with the Green Bay Packers, wore 31.

JACK CHERRY

Administrative Assistant

Jack Cherry joined the Saints in 1981 from private business.

Cherry began his sports career as a writer for the Columbus (Ohio) Evening Dispatch. After serving at the Lancaster Evening Gazette, he was named Sports Information Director at his alma mater, Xavier (Ohio), and worked there 1958-71. He was appointed assistant SID at Louisiana State University in 1972. He served as SID at Kansas in 1973, and moved to the Houston Texans of the WFL in 1974. In 1975, he joined the Houston Oilers as director of media services, and was named director of public relations in 1976.

Cherry was head of his own television production company, 1978-80.

Jack and his wife, Barbara, have four children: Jack, Lisa Anne, Patrick, and Tom. They live in Destrehan.

THE BUM PHILLIPS SHOW

"The Bum Phillips Show" airs in New Orleans on WWL-TV (4) beginning Saturday, Sept. 3. Time for the show is 5 p.m. When WWL-TV carries a Saturday afternoon NCAA football game, the show will be shown preceding that game. WWL-TV sports director Jim Henderson will host the half-hour show, which will feature an inside look at the Saints, highlights from previous games, and a preview of upcoming opponents. Saints head coach and general manager O.A. (Bum) Phillips will speak on many football-related topics. The show can also be seen on WAFB-TV in Baton Rouge and KATC-TV in Lafayette at times to be announced.

Coaching Staff

KING HILL, Offensive Coordinator

1983 will be King Hill's 26th season in the NFL as a player, scout and coach. He joined the Saints in 1981.

Hill graduated from Rice University after leading the Owls to the Southwest Conference championship in 1957 as an all-America quarterback. He was chosen by the Chicago Bears in the 1958 NFL draft, the first player selected that year. He quarterbacked the 1958 College All-Stars to a rare victory over the pros.

Hill played 12 seasons in the NFL with the Bears (1958-60), Philadelphia (1961-67), Minnesota (1968) and St. Louis (1969). He still holds the Eagles' record for longest touchdown pass (92 yards).

In 1970, Hill joined the Houston Oilers as scout, and became quarterbacks coach in 1971. From 1978-80, Hill's offense led the team to three consecutive playoff appearances.

A member of the Rice University Hall of Fame, Hill was born in Freeport, Texas, November 8, 1936. He and his wife, Sharon, reside in Destrehan with their son, Cody.

WADE PHILLIPS, Defensive Coordinator

Wade Phillips joined the Saints in 1981 from the Houston Oilers, where he was defensive line coach for five seasons (1976-80).

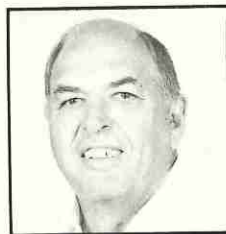

Phillips graduated from Port Neches-Groves High School lettering in football, basketball, and baseball. He attended the University of Houston, and started three years at linebacker for the Cougars.

Phillips started his coaching career under Bill Yeoman at Houston in 1969. He later coached at Oklahoma State (1973-74), Kansas (1975), and Orange High School (1970-72).

As Oilers' defensive line coach, Phillips had at least one all-pro lineman each season.

Wade was born June 21, 1947 in Orange, Texas. He and his wife, Laurie, live in Destrehan with their children, Tracy and Wesley.

ANDY EVEREST, Tight Ends

Andy Everest enters his third season with the Saints, his second as tight ends coach.

Everest joined the Saints in 1981 as a member of the scouting department. He worked with the tight ends throughout the 1981 season, and was named tight ends coach on a fulltime basis in the 1982 offseason. He joined the staff from North Texas State where he served as assistant head coach (1973-78) and athletic director (1978-81).

In addition to his tenure at North Texas State, Everest has served at Utah (1953-57), Stanford (1958-62), Foothill College (1963-64), California-Santa Barbara (1965-71), and Southern Methodist (1972). He has coached football 29 years, 24 at the college level.

Everest was born October 27, 1924 at Wichita Falls, Texas. Parents of four children, Tom, Alan, Andy and Kathy, Everest and his wife, Bonnie, live in Destrehan.

JOHN LEVRA, Offensive Backfield

In his first NFL season, John Levra coached the NFL's leading rusher in 1981 and the most prolific rookie runner in NFL history.

Levra came to the Saints in 1981 from the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

John played linebacker at Pittsburg (Kan.) State. After seven years coaching in Kansas high schools (1959-65), he started coaching in the collegiate ranks as assistant at New Mexico Highlands in 1966, and was head coach 1967-70. His four-year record was 35-4-1. He moved to Stephen F. Austin State as head coach and athletic director (1971-74) where his football teams were 18-5 in his final two years and made the only bowl appearance in school history. He moved to Kansas State as offensive coordinator (1975-78), and assumed the same position at North Texas State (1979).

John was born at Arma, Kansas, October 2, 1937. He and his wife, Rosie, have two children, Craig and Gina. They live in Destrehan.

CARL MAUCK, Offensive Line

Carl Mauck enters his second season with the Saints after an NFL playing career that spanned 13 seasons.

Mauck was selected out of Southern Illinois University by the Baltimore Colts in the 13th round of the 1969 draft. He played with the Colts, Miami Dolphins, and San Diego Chargers before going to the Houston Oilers in a 1975 trade. He was coached for six seasons at Houston by O.A. (Bum) Phillips. During his playing career, he played in 156 consecutive games, and started 155 consecutively.

He retired from the Oilers following the 1981 season and was scheduled to begin a radio show in the Houston area before joining the Saints staff.

Mauck is a native of McLeansboro, Illinois, where he was born July 7, 1947. He and his wife, Vicki, have four children; Timothy, Chrissy, Teresa, and Cathy. They live in Destrehan.

LAMAR McHAN, Wide Receivers

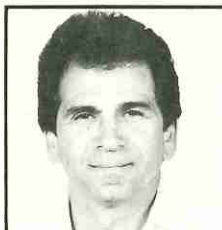

Lamar McHan is in his eighth season as a Saints coach.

McHan joined the Saints as quarterbacks coach under John North (1974-75). He returned in 1978 as quarterbacks and receivers coach under Dick Nolan, and developed the Saints passing attack into one of the most respected in the NFL.

An all-America quarterback at the University of Arkansas and number one draft choice of the Chicago Cardinals, McHan played with the Cardinals (1954-58), Green Bay Packers (1959-60), Baltimore Colts (1961-62), and San Francisco 49ers (1963). He coached at Northern Arizona (1969-70) and Texas-Arlington (1971-73).

McHan is a native of Lake Village, Arkansas, where he was born December 16, 1932. He and his wife, Barbara, have three children, Lance, Lisa, and Megan. They reside in Metairie.

RUSSELL PATERNOSTRO, Strength

Russell Paternostro is in his third season with the Saints after success at training both individuals and teams at every level of competition.

A New Orleans native, Paternostro graduated from West Jefferson High School, and attended San Diego State University. He played football in high school and also at Camp Pendleton, California, during his Navy tour of duty.

Paternostro returned to New Orleans in 1962, and was involved with health clubs in the New Orleans area.

Paternostro was born July 21, 1940 in New Orleans. He and his wife, Mercy, have two daughters, Angela and Robyn. They reside in New Orleans.

HAROLD RICHARDSON, Special Teams

In his third season with the Saints, Harold Richardson started his pro coaching career in 1981 after ten years coaching at the collegiate level.

A tight end at Southern Methodist University, Richardson played on one of only three Mustang teams to win the Southwest Conference championship in 34 years. He also was an all-conference selection in baseball, and lettered two years for the Mustangs.

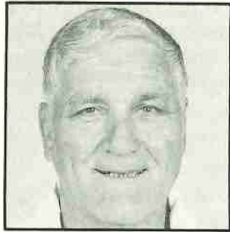

Richardson coached at SMU after graduating (1971-72), and moved to Oklahoma State (1973-76). He was on the staff at Texas Christian (1977-78) before becoming defensive coordinator at North Texas State (1978-80).

A native Texan, Richardson was born September 27, 1944 in Houston. He and his wife, Ramona, live in Destrehan.

JOE SPENCER, Quality Control

Joe Spencer was named quality control coach in 1983 after serving the Saints as offensive line coach for two years (1981-82).

Spencer played offensive tackle at Oklahoma State. He played professionally with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1948), Cleveland Browns (1949-50), and Green Bay Packers (1951-52).

His first coaching job was at Austin (Texas) College, 1952-60 as head coach. He then coached the newly-organized AFL's Houston Oilers, and the Oilers won the first AFL championship in 1960. After leaving the Oilers in 1965, he coached with the CFL Edmonton Eskimos (1966-67), and returned to the AFL with the New York Jets (1968-70). With the Jets, he coached the line that protected Joe Namath in their Super Bowl III upset of the Baltimore Colts.

After a year at St. Louis (1971), Spencer coached at the University of Kansas (1972-73), and the WFL Chicago Fire (1974) before joining the Kansas City Chiefs (1975-80).

Parents of two children, Jeff and Sara, Spencer and his wife, Betty, live in Destrehan.

LANCE VAN ZANDT, Defensive Backs

In his third year with the Saints, Lance Van Zandt joined the pro coaching ranks in 1981 from one of the most successful college programs in the nation.

Van Zandt spent four years (1977-80) as defensive coordinator at the University of Nebraska. During that time, the Cornhuskers went to bowl games each year. A graduate of Lamar University, Van Zandt began his coaching career at New Mexico Highlands (1966-67), working with Saints offensive backfield coach John Levra. He then coached at West Texas State (1968-69), and Texas A&M (1970-71). After a year at Rice (1972), Van Zandt moved to Oklahoma State (1973-74). He became assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Kansas (1975-76).

Van Zandt was born January 19, 1939 at Amarillo, Texas. He and his wife, Jeanette, have two sons, Jared and Matthew. They live in Destrehan.

JOHN PAUL YOUNG, Linebackers

John Paul Young joined the Saints staff in 1981 from the Houston Oilers.

Young played college football at Texas-El Paso. He was a four-year starter at linebacker, and captained the Miners his senior season. He was named all-conference three years and was on the second team all-America squad as a senior.

Young's coaching career began under O.A. (Bum) Phillips at Texas-El Paso (1962-64). After three years at Jacksonville (Texas) High School (1964-66), he coached at SMU (1966-68), and Oklahoma State (1969). He then spent nine years at Texas A&M (1970-1978). The Aggies led the Southwest Conference four consecutive years in total defense during Young's tenure.

Young held the post of linebackers and special teams coach with the Houston Oilers 1978-80. The Oilers made the playoffs all three years.

Young was born December 31, 1939 at Dallas, Texas. He and his wife, Dolores, have two sons, John Paul, Jr. and Jason Phillips. They reside in Destrehan.

WILLIE ZAPALAC, Defensive Line

Under Willie Zapalac's direction, the Saints defensive line helped set a team record of over three sacks per game in 1982.

Zapalac joined the Saints in 1981 from Buffalo, where he coached 1978-80. The Bills won the AFC Eastern Conference crown in 1980.

“Our team is very health conscious. We have to be. That’s why we drink Kentwood Spring Water.”

—O.A. “Bum” Phillips

Part of winning is paying attention to details. Kentwood 100% Natural Spring Water is the only water I want my players drinking out on the field and in the locker room. It’s one more healthful advantage for our side. So naturally my team drinks Kentwood.

My family drinks it at home, too. It’s a natural.

Cardinals 21, Saints 7
Sept. 12 at Superdome (58,763)

Saints 10, Bears 0
Sept. 19 at Soldier Field (56,600)

"It was definitely not a happy occasion," said O.A. "Bum" Phillips after the Saints provided the Cardinals opportunities to cash in on mistakes for two short touchdown drives. An interception thrown by Archie Manning started a 13-yard drive for a TD, and a Wayne Wilson fumble started a 42-yard Cardinals march in the fourth quarter. New Orleans' only score came with less than two minutes to play on a Stabler to Kenny Duckett 23-yard pass. "Our defense played extremely well, but we were our own worst enemy," said Phillips. St. Louis could manage only 150 total yards, 54 in the air, as the Saints defense tallied six sacks against Neil Lomax. RB George Rogers ran for 65 yards in 11 carries, but sat out the entire second half with a pulled hamstring. WR Lindsay Scott, the Saints' first-round draft choice in 1982, caught six passes for 103 yards. Rookie kicker Morten Andersen suffered a sprained ankle on the game's first play.

Wayne Wilson made the best of an opportunity to shine by rushing for 138 yards in a team record 33 carries as the Saints played near-perfect ball control offense. Wilson lined up in the single-back offense because of the unavailability of George Rogers, who was nursing a pulled hamstring. Ken Stabler, complementing the running game, hit on 11 of 17 passes for 147 yards, and led the team downfield for a TD in the Saints' first possession. That drive was culminated by a 10-yard Stabler scoring toss to tight end Larry Hardy. Kicker Toni Fritsch, acquired to replace injured Morten Andersen, kicked a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter to complete the scoring. Defense had another spectacular day, as the Bears could manage only one first down in the first half, and had 183 total yards on the day. Bears' superback Walter Payton was held to 20 yards in eight carries. Chicago quarterbacks were victims of five sacks and three interceptions as the Saints registered their first shutout of an opponent since October 10, 1976, and their first road shutout ever. Viewing the game and the possible upcoming strike, Phillips said, "I was real pleased with the character this football team showed with all the talk about the strike. They didn't worry about tomorrow. They played today."

Saints 27, Chiefs 17

Nov. 21 at Superdome (39,341)

Defense set the tempo of the game with two QB sacks in the first three plays of the game, and offense and special teams kept the pace lively. Ken Stabler handed to George Rogers eight times in an 11-play drive that ended with a Toni Fritsch field goal. After a Bill Hurley interception, special teams went to the scoreboard again on a 15-yard pass from Guido Merkens to Wayne Wilson on a fake field goal. With the score 10-7, Stabler opened the second half with another long drive, 88 yards, culminated with a one-yard Rogers TD plunge. After a Kansas City tally made the score 17-14, Wayne Wilson gathered in the following kickoff and returned it 75 yards to the Chiefs 18-yard line. Stabler hit Jeff Groth with a scoring pass four plays later. When the Chiefs cut the deficit to 24-17, Stabler handed off to Rogers nine times on a time-consuming, 12-play drive that ended with a Fritsch field goal with 19 seconds left in the game. Rogers finished the day with 123 yards on 33 carries. Stabler completed 13 of 18 passes for 129 yards, and was not sacked all day. "We really played well when we had to," said Phillips. "That last drive was spectacular. We looked like we played week-to-week right through the strike."

Saints 23, 49ers 20

Nov. 28 at Candlestick Park (51,611)

Ken Stabler led the Saints on a 99-yard drive in the first quarter to gain a lead they never relinquished. Stabler's pass to Wayne Wilson from 10 yards out capped the 14-play drive that consumed 7:46 of the game clock. The league-leading Saints defense swarmed the 49ers' potent offense, leaving them without a touchdown until the final two minutes of the game. Linebacker Rickey Jackson intercepted a Montana pass and returned it 32 yards to set up a Jimmy Rogers touchdown run. George Rogers ran for 97 yards, and missed most of the second half with a bruised shoulder. But the key was Stabler, who completed 11 of 20 passes for 154 yards in a driving rain and was not sacked for the second consecutive week. "Stabler is the guy giving us leadership," said Wayne Wilson. "He keeps our defense fresh and rested with long drives," said nose tackle Derland Moore. Phillips concurred, "We kept the ball away from them, and when they got it, our defense did a good job. Stabler was magnificent."

Buccaneers 13, Saints 10

Dec. 5 at Superdome (61,709)

With top rushers George Rogers and Wayne Wilson nursing injuries, Ken Stabler went to the air effectively against the NFL's stingiest defense. Stabler used nine different receivers as he completed 29 of 43 passes for 333 yards. Jeff Groth caught nine passes for 95 yards. Despite the potent offensive output, New Orleans turned the ball over three times deep in Tampa Bay territory to thwart scoring opportunities. Wilson was unable to play, and Rogers appeared only briefly in the game. The Saints led in almost every offensive category, including total yardage 380-271, and time of possession, 33 minutes to 27. In the final minute of play, tight end Larry Hardy was flagged on a questionable pass interference call on the Tampa Bay 10-yard line. Stabler was sacked two plays later, and Morten Andersen's 60-yard field goal attempt to tie the game was long enough, but a foot to the right of the goalposts. "We had very few mistakes in the first four games, but a couple of fumbles put us in a hole," said Phillips. "I thought it was going to be a 15-rounder and it was, right down to the bell."

Falcons 35, Saints 0

Dec. 12 at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (39,535)

A tight Saints team, a cold day and the hot Falcons combined to make December 12 the low point of New Orleans' 1982 season. The Saints could not get anything going offensively throughout the day. Stabler hit on only eight 19 passes for 56 yards before leaving the game at the end of the third quarter with bruised ribs. He suffered five sacks, three interceptions, and fumbled twice. George Rogers rushed for 52 yards in 15 carries as the Saints ground game was held to 70 yards, and yielded only 91 total yards to Atlanta's 329. The Falcons rushed for 189 yards, the most yards given up on the ground by a Saints defensive unit since 1980. "We did not play the type of game we're capable of playing," said Phillips afterward. "We looked tight. The only bright spot was when the clock ran out. But I've never seen a season where a team didn't have one game like this. We've got to put it behind us."

Cowboys 21, Saints 7

Dec. 19 at Texas Stadium (64,506)

New Orleans moved the ball well from the start, gaining 111 yards to 36 for Dallas in the first period, but two missed Saints field goals kept the game scoreless. Russell Gary opened the second period with an interception, but Jeff Groth couldn't hold on to a pass from halfback Jack Holmes for a score on the second play of the following series. Dallas then moved to score all their points in the second quarter. Two touchdowns were a direct result of Saints turnovers, both interceptions. In the third quarter, Ken Stabler was knocked out of the game with a severely bruised arm. Guido Merkens replaced him and led the Saints on an 84-yard, 12-play drive to their only score. Dallas turned the ball over on the ensuing kickoff, but Merkens was intercepted two plays later when hit as he released the ball. George Rogers ran for a team-record 166 yards against the vaunted Dallas flex defense. The Cowboys' Tony Dorsett ran for 105 yards, the first back to run for 100 yards since Phillips' arrival as head coach (23 games). "We can't make mistakes like we made today," Phillips said. "Not against America's Team. Not against Anybody's Team."

Redskins 27, Saints 10

Dec. 26 at Superdome (48,667)

George Rogers was unavailable for the game with a hamstring injury. Ken Stabler was sidelined with a bruise deep in his throwing arm. The Saints needed a win to remain in contention for a playoff spot. The Redskins had the best record in the NFC. With Guido Merkens at the controls, the Saints controlled the ball for 18 minutes of the first half, but the ball for 17-7 at intermission. One Washington touchdown came on a controversial play that was ruled a 58-yard pass completion for a score. The Saints' Johnnie Poe was flagged for interference on the play, but the receiver stepped out of bounds after he touched the ball. In the third quarter the New Orleans defense held the potent Washington offense to one first down, but the Redskins scored ten points in the final period. "I'm pleased with the effort, but not pleased with the result," said Phillips. Our people never gave up. Washington is a good football team and they deserve to be where they are." The Redskins went on to win the Super Bowl, and for the fifth consecutive year, the last team to defeat a Bum Phillips-coached team went all the way.

Saints 35, Falcons 6

Jan. 2 at Superdome (47,336)

With the sour memory of an earlier meeting in mind, the Saints played inspired football and turned the tables on the Falcons for the most lopsided Saints victory since 1979. Ken Stabler, back from an injury in his throwing arm, moved the ball at will on Atlanta's experienced defense. Stabler led his offense to a team-record 32 first downs in the game. Wayne Wilson, subbing for injured George Rogers, scored three touchdowns as he ran for 83 yards and caught a career-high 11 passes for 89 more. Russell Erxleben broke the game open as he hit Bill Hurley with a pass from punt formation early in the fourth quarter to give the Saints a 21-6 lead. New Orleans did not punt in the game, a team record. The Saints gained 462 total yards to Atlanta's 248. Stabler was not sacked. "The offensive line made up their mind that they were going to protect a quarterback with a sore elbow, and they did just that," Phillips said. The defense played as well as any defense I've seen, and the staff did an excellent job of preparing for this game. It was truly a team win."

SAINTS-LIONS CHARITY GAME

For the 15th successive season, the Saints will play a preseason contest for the benefit of three Lions Club charities. Dubbed the Louisiana Lions Clubs Benefit Game, the Saints have raised over $1.5 million since inception of the game in 1969. Benefactors are the Louisiana Lions' Camp for Handicapped Children in Leesville; the Lions' Mobile Glaucoma screening Unit in New Orleans; and the Lions/Saints Ear and Eye Clinic in New Orleans. The New York Jets face the Saints in the 1983 game in the Superdome.

RULE CHANGES, 1983

These are the rule changes approved by NFL owners for the 1983 season. They are:

1. Changed the rule on timeouts. In the past, a designated captain had to call timeouts. Now, any player on the field may call timeout for his team.
2. Designated that equipment that is worn by players on the playing field during a game must be designed and made by a professional manufacturer and may not be altered except by direction of a team physician.
3. Revised the pass interference rule. If a player significantly hinders the efforts of his opponent to catch a legal forward pass, pass interference will be called. If there is incidental contact in the act of moving to the ball that does not materially affect the route of an eligible player, there is no interference. Where there is contact, however severe, which may occur when two or more eligible players make a simultaneous and bona fide attempt to catch or bat the ball, there is no interference. If there is any question whether the incidental contact materially affects the route or if contact is simultaneous, the ruling shall be no interference.
4. Made the penalty for use of helmet as a weapon to strike, swing at or throw at an opponent loss of 15 yards and automatic disqualification of the player.
5. Changed the rule under punt returns to prohibit the receiver signaling a fair catch to deliberately block an opponent instead of trying to field the punt. Penalty will be 15 yards under unsportsmanlike conduct rules.
6. Changed the rule during the last two minutes of a half that in the last 30 seconds of the half, with the defensive team behind and no timeouts remaining, a defensive team cannot prevent the termination of a half except for the normal options available to the offensive team.
7. Did away with the rule that a kicker on the kickoff team could use soil to make a natural tee. The kicker must use an artificial tee of 1, 2, or 3 inches and approved by the league.
