Lift This.

Play Harder, Last Longer!

Have you ever felt fatigued during your workout, or maybe some days are easier than others? You probably need to drink more water.

The American College of Sports Medicine recommends drinking about a half-liter (16 ounces) of pure water two hours prior to exercise. Then, drink a glass of water every 15-20 minutes during exercise and another glass after your workout.

By making sure your body is properly hydrated, you'll feel better and perform better.

THE FLEUR DE LIS

The Fleur de Lis, the emblem that the Saints wear on their helmets, is a symbol from the Court of Louis XIV. It is a french word that stands for "flower of the lilly."

The Fleur de Lis is a symbol of New Orleans which was adopted during the French occupation of Louisiana, from 1682 through 1762.

TOM BENSON Owner

Entering his 14th season as owner of the New Orleans Saints, Tom Benson is widely recognized as one of the National Football League's most successful and influential leaders. Benson has built his NFL reputation through a record of accomplishments and service to the league and his community. Since 1985, when Benson stepped in and saved the team from leaving New Orleans, the Saints achieved their first winning season and their first NFC Western Division title. Under Benson's direction and leadership, New Orleans has hosted three of eight Super Bowls during his ownership tenure.

Benson's vision and commitment to New Orleans was evident when he guided the team into a new practice facility at the start of the 1996 season, the culmination of a program of state-funded capital improvements. These projects, tied to a new multi-year lease between the Saints and the state-owned Louisiana Superdome, include the new 18,000-seat downtown arena, the AAA base-ball stadium in Jefferson Parish, the Alario multi-purpose facility and a three-year program of improvements to the Superdome which was completed prior to Super Bowl XXXI.

Benson has played an important role within the NFL community. He is a member of the league's Finance committee, a member of the Broadcast committee, International committee and the NFL's Legislative committee.

He spearheaded the process that expanded the league to include the Charlotte and Jacksonville franchises and he negotiated the most recent contract to extend the services of Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. Benson's involvement in the NFL began innocently in 1984 when he learned that the Saints were about to be sold to out-of-town interests that would move the team from New Orleans. Benson understood the economic impact and general importance of the franchise to the city. His initial intent was to become a partner in a local group motivated to step in, purchase the team and keep it in New Orleans. Subsequently, Benson actually put the group together, purchased the team on May 31, 1985, and became sole owner in 1992.

Benson was born in New Orleans in 1927 and grew up on the edge of the city's sprawling 9th Ward. One of four children of Tom Sr. and Carmen Benson, he was educated at St. Aloysius High School (now Brother Martin) and Loyola University. As a youngster, he played football for St. Roch Park and earned spending money delivering the Times-Picayune newspaper.

After studying business and accounting at Loyola, Benson went to work as a bookkeeper for the Cathey Chevrolet Co. in New Orleans in 1948.

By 1956, at age 29, Benson was on his way to San Antonio, Texas to manage a Chevrolet dealership as a junior partner. Six years later he took full control of the company and established the Tom Benson Motor Company. That acquisition spawned what became Benson Automotive World, a multi-dealership organization with 33 franchises and outlets in New Orleans, San Antonio and Corpus Christi. In 1972, Benson entered the banking business and eventually took his banking network public as Benson Financial World.

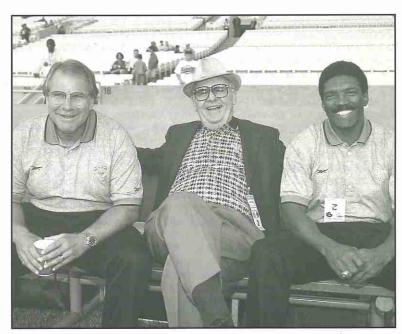

Appreciative of New Orleans' schools, business community and people, Benson and his brothers, Jerome and Larry, established the Free Enterprise Resource Center at Brother Martin High School in honor of their parents. He has endowed chairs in free enterprise at St. Mary's University and banking at Incarnate Word College. He serves on the President's Council of Loyola University, his alma mater.

Community service to at-risk youth has been a hallmark of Benson's tenure as team owner. A few examples include: Benson Hoops, the often emulated midnight basketball program in the inner city; Saints Flag Football in New Orleans middle schools; the Saints Venture Fund & Impact Grants program in conjunction with United Way and a Play Football program for underprivileged kids. He has guided the Saints' support of football at all levels in the region, from playgrounds through high school and college programs to the Sugar Bowl and Bayou Classic.

Benson has received several honors for his community involvement, a few of which are: American Tradition Award from the B'nai Brith Foundation of the U.S.; Rev. Jacques E. Yenni Award for Community Service from Loyola University; N.A.D.A. Northwood Institute for Outstanding Service to Education; Brotherhood Award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews; Order of St. Louis Medallion for dedication to church from the Archdiocese of New Orleans; 1986 Brother Martin Alumnus of the Year; Insigne Verbum Award from Incarnate Word College; Honorary Doctor of Science and Business from Cleary College; Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Loyola University; and Honorary Doctor of Laws from Northwood University.

Benson and his wife, the former Grace Trudeau of New Orleans, share a family of five children: Renee, Donn, Susan, Rick and Mimi, plus six grandchildren.

BILL KUHARICH

President/General Manager/Chief Operating Officer

Bill Kuharich enters his second year as President/General Manager/Chief Operating Officer of the New Orleans Saints.

In his role, Kuharich manages the day-to-day operation of the entire organization including football operations, marketing and administration and finance. Prior to being named President/General Manager/Chief Operating Officer in January 1997, Kuharich served as Executive Vice President/General Manager during the 1996 season.

His tenure with the Saints originally began when he was hired by the late Jim Finks as New Orleans' director of player personnel, a position he held from 1986-93. In 1994, he was promoted to Vice President of Football Operations where he remained until being promoted in 1996.

Kuharich was the driving force behind the hiring of head coach Mike Ditka, the Saints 12th head coach. "Bill spearheaded the search for a new head coach and he was solely responsible for bringing Mike Ditka to the table," said Saints owner Tom Benson. "I have the highest confidence in Bill's ability to lead this organization."

The Kuharich/Ditka combination has already proven dividends. The Saints continue to build the team through younger, faster, stronger players. "It is important that our direction continues to be unified...that decisions about the organization are done in concert with the ultimate goal of making this club a winner again," Kuharich added. In their first year together, the team improved its win-loss record and fielded the 4th rated defense in the league.

"Mike and I have the same goal and that is to get this team to the Super Bowl," said Kuharich. "The city of New Orleans and our fans deserve it."

Although Kuharich's rise in the football hierarchy has been a gradual one, he is today the NFL's youngest President/General Manager/Chief Operating Officer at age 45. Since becoming involved in professional football, Kuharich has had the fortunate opportunity to encounter virtually every aspect of the front office. All of which, he was under the direct tutelage of some of the finest football administrators in the game.

By the time he was 29, Kuharich was working as an administrative assistant to Carl Peterson, then general manager of the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. A year later, in 1984, he was elevated to assistant general manager/director of player personnel. In the club's three years of existence (1983-85), it posted a record of 48-13-1, played in all three championship games, winning each of the last two.

In addition, Kuharich was exposed to football at an early age, and he took full advantage of this invaluable opportunity. His father, the late Joe Kuharich, was a collegiate head coach at San Francisco (1948-51) and Notre Dame (1959-62), and an NFL head coach with the Chicago Cardinals (1952), Washington Redskins (1954-58) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1964-68). During his stay in Philadelphia, Joe Kuharich doubled as the club's general manager. He was also an assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1946). His 1951 University of San Francisco team went 9-0 and was made up of four future NFL Hall of Famers, including former Commissioner Pete Rozelle, Ollie Matson, Gino Marchetti and Bob St. Clair.

Kuharich football acumen was further developed as he spent a majority of his childhood around his father and the teams he coached. His summers consisted of serving as a ball boy in training camp. "I was able to absorb all of these thoughts and ideas from being around football people all my life, getting on-the-job training," Kuharich said. The Kuharich legacy in professional football is anchored in the fact that he and his father are the first father/son combination in the history of the NFL to serve as general managers.

Kuharich learned first-hand from his father that resiliency is a trait that is necessary to survive in this profession as well as in life. After a few setbacks as a first-year NFL coach, his father was hired as head coach of the Washington Redskins, and in 1955 was named NFL Coach-of-the-Year after leading the Redskins to a regular season record of 8-4. In 1970, his father was diagnosed with cancer and was given one year to live. He won the battle and survived cancer for 11 more years before passing away in 1981. "I have seen first-hand the many obstacles as well as the successes that one encounters in this profession," said Kuharich. "My father certainly left an inedible impression on me...one that I think will help serve me not only in my life but also in making this organization a winner again."

In addition to his late father, Kuharich will utilize many ideas that he acquired from his football mentors. During his professional career, he has been tutored by two of the most respected men in the football business.

With the Stars, Kuharich worked under Carl Peterson, who also served as Director of Player Personnel with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1977-82, and is now the President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer with the Kansas City Chiefs. With the Saints, Kuharich spent eight years working and learning under the late Jim Finks, a 1995 inductee into the NFL Hall of Fame who was responsible for building Super Bowl clubs in Minnesota and Chicago, and who turned around the fortunes of the Saints after just two years on the job. "Carl Peterson and the late Jim Finks are two of the most respected men in professional football. I couldn't have asked for better teachers," Kuharich said.

Kuharich attributes much of the knowledge he has gained in football to Finks. "No doubt about it, Jim was the greatest influence on me in my professional career," said Kuharich. "There won't be a day that I won't be able to draw on something that I've learned from him."

During Kuharich's tenure as director of player personnel, the Saints posted 77 regular season victories, fourth-most in the NFL over this eight-year stretch. In order to maintain this success, the Saints, during the recent offseason, have made sweeping changes under Kuharich. With the objective of building the 1998 Saints into a Mike Ditka-style team, Kuharich has guided the offseason acquisitions of Tyronne Drakeford, Kevin Mitchell, Chad Cota, Andre Royal, Lamar Smith, Sean Dawkins and Aaron Craver. In addition, Kuharich and Ditka collaborated to solidify the 1998 roster through a strong college draft; one built on size, strength, speed and a tenacity to win.

The work ethic Kuharich displays can also be traced to his family roots. "From an early age, he taught us the way to do things was not to cut corners," said Kuharich of his father, a first generation American, whose family emigrated from the former Yugoslavia. "He considered the biggest sin in life was to give up, and he instilled this belief that you don't quit, and you definitely don't take the easy way out."

A graduate of Middlebury College in Vermont with a B.A. in History, Kuharich started his football career as a graduate assistant coach at Brown University in 1976. His first full-time post came as offensive backfield coach at Hawaii in 1977.

After leaving Hawaii, Kuharich went to work for the United States Department of Defense as an administrative assistant to field operations. During that time he also served as a volunteer assistant coach at Georgetown in 1978. He resumed his coaching career in 1979 when he assumed a full-time position as an assistant at St. Lawrence, where he earned his master's degree in education. After one year, he went to Columbia University as an assistant, and spent the next two seasons there.

In addition to his duties with the Saints, Kuharich is a member of the NFL's College Relations Committee.

Although building successful franchises is a year-round effort, Kuharich has many interests away from football. He is a history buff, and enjoys reading and playing golf.

Kuharich, who was born March 25, 1953 in Skokie. Illinois, resides in Destrehan with his wife. Betsy, and daughters, Megan Ashley (5) Alexis Marie (3) and Kelli Elizabeth (1).

CHET FRANKLIN

Asst. General Manger / Vice President of Football Operations

Chet Franklin is in his second season as Senior Vice President of Football Operations, following three years as the team's Director of Pro Personnel. This is Franklin's second stint in New Orleans, having served as the Saints defensive backfield coach under Dick Nolan from 1978-79.

As in his previous assignment, from 1994-96, Franklin fills a threefold role with the club. He is responsible for evaluating current NFL players. He works closely with President/General Manager Bill Kuharich and Head Coach Mike Ditka on pro personnel matters, including readylist maintenance, waiver claims and unrestricted free agency. He also assists with contract negotiations.

Franklin served three years (1990-92) as director of player personnel for the World League of American Football (WLAF), renamed NFL Europe in 1998. During his tenure with WLAF, Franklin was responsible for stocking WLAF rosters. He identified and signed more than 1,100 players to contracts over that span. In 1992, he served as general manager of the Montreal Machine

Franklin possesses NFL experience at both the coaching and administrative levels. He served as director of player personnel for the San Diego Chargers from 1987-89, after 16 seasons as an assistant coach with San Francisco (1971-74), Kansas City (1975-77), New Orleans (1978-79) and the Oakland/Los Angles Raiders (1980-86). Franklin was the defensive backfield coach on two Raiders Super Bowl Championship teams.

Before entering the pro ranks, Franklin spent 12 years as an assistant at the collegiate level. A year (1959) as freshman line coach at Stanford was followed by a three-year stint as an assistant (1960-62) at the University of Oklahoma under Bud Wilkinson. From there he went to the University of Colorado, where he was a member of Eddie Crowder's staff from 1963-70. As offensive coordinator for the Buffaloes, Franklin served with former Saints head coach Jim Mora (1968-70).

A native of Elko, Nevada, Franklin played linebacker and guard for three seasons at the University of Utah, where he graduated in 1957 with a degree in history and physical education. After two years in the Marines, he earned his master's degree from Stanford in 1960.

Born March 19, 1935 in Ontario, Oregon, Franklin has a daughter, Shana, and resides in New Orleans.

FAMILIAR FACES

Chet Franklin's addition to the staff in 1994 was a familiar one - he also served from 1978-79 as defensive backs coach under Dick Nolan. Other familiar faces on the staff include offensive line coach Dick Stanfel, who served as an assistant coach with the Saints from 1976-80, and as head coach for the final four games of the 1980 season. By adding Jack Del Rio as an assistant strength coach in 1997, and as linebackers coach in 1998, he returns to the team that made him a thirdround draft choice in 1985, and played with the Saints from 1985-86. Offensive Coordinator Danny Abramowicz was a 17th-round draft choice of the Saints in 1967, and played in New Orleans through 1972. Special teams coach Bobby April, a Chalmette native, who played at Nicholls State in Thibodaux, La., returned to his native New Orleans in 1996, with the Saints. Linebacker Richard Harvey, a Tulane graduate, returned to the Saints in 1995, in the free agent market. Wide receivers coach Harold Jackson may also look familiar to many football fans in New Orleans - he served as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator of the Arena Football League's New Orleans Night in 1991. Saints assistant defensive coach Rickey Jackson was a six-time Pro Bowl player with the Saints from 1981-93.

GREG SUIT

Senior Vice President of Marketing and Administration

Greg Suit joined the Saints in 1977. He was promoted to his present position in February, 1997, after serving as vice president of marketing since 1994. He was named director of Marketing in 1987. Suit supervises the club's promotional activity, box suite sales and management, advertising and corporate sponsorship programs and local broadcasting partnerships. His responsibilities include overseeing ticket operations and sales, public and community relations, player programs, entertainment and travel.

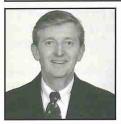

Suit has also served the team as director of publicity and director of public relations. His first assignment with the team was assistant PR director. He worked at the University of New Orleans, 1972-76, where he was sports information director and assistant athletic director.

A native of the Cincinnati, Ohio area, Suit graduated from Miami University (Oh.) and worked as a staff writer for the Middletown (Oh.) Journal. He served on the NFL staff for six Super Bowl games and the 1984 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

Greg and his wife. Karen, have two sons. Ted and Joshua. They live in Metairie.

BRUCE BROUSSARD

Treasurer

Bruce Broussard was promoted to his present position in January, 1994. He joined the Saints' staff as ticket manager in 1983, was elevated to business manager/comptroller in 1985, and became an officer in the company when he was appointed treasurer.

Broussard came to the Saints from LePavillion Hotel in New Orleans. He served eight years there, the final four as general manager.

A New Orleans native, Broussard attended Cor Jesu High School, now known as Brother Martin, and Loyola University, where he was graduated with a degree in accounting. He is a past president of the New Orleans Hospitality Accountants Association, and was on the board of directors of the New Orleans Hotel and Motel Association. Bruce and his wife, Lynn, live in New Orleans. They have two sons, Bruce, Jr. and Mark and two grandchildren, Sara (8) and Brian (4).

MIKE DITKA Head Coach

Mike Ditka was named the 12th head coach in the Saints' 32-year history on January 28, 1997. He brings to the post an overall career coaching record of 118-78, including his first season coaching the Saints, and the 11 seasons he coached the Chicago Bears. Ditka is currently the only active NFL coach in the Hall of Fame and is second in regular season winning percentage (.609), and overall winning percentage (.602) among active NFL coaches who have coached at least 100 career games.

Ditka came to the Saints after spending four years as an NFL commentator and analyst on the NFL on NBC. "I think we have the players to win our division," said Ditka. "That's our goal this year. We'll find a way to win. We'll find it." Ditka brings to this challenge a propensity to win with hopes of bringing success to an organization, which has only had five winning seasons in the history of the club.

Ditka has realized success as an All-American at the University of Pittsburgh, NFL Rookie of the Year (1961), All-Pro (1961-66), Super Bowl Champion as a player with Dallas (1972), Super Bowl champion as an assistant coach with Dallas (1977) and Super Bowl Champion as head coach of the Chicago Bears (1986).

In 1988, Ditka, who played in five Pro Bowls and two league championships (1963 and 1971), became the first tight end to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Ditka's connection to the city of New Orleans and the Super Bowl run deep. He played in Super Bowl VI when Dallas defeated Miami 24-3 at Tulane Stadium and coached as an assistant for the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XII at the Superdome. His singular most memorable moment as a player or coach was Super Bowl XX where he coached the Chicago Bears to a 46-10 victory over the New England Patriots.

Under Ditka, the Saints doubled their win total (6-10) from the previous season in 1997, while immediately stamping the New Orleans defense with his signature, finishing fourth in the entire NFL. The six win total was the second-best inaugural season victory total by a first-year head coach in team history.

During his 11 years with the Bears, Ditka's teams dominated the NFC Central with 52 regular season victories between 1985-88. This mark is the most ever by an NFL team in any four-year period. Ditka ranks second among every Bears coach in both tenure and victories. He trails only his first pro coach (1961), George Halas, the team's founder and coach for 40 seasons. Ditka coached the Bears to six NFC Central titles, three appearances in the NFC title game, and a Super Bowl victory. In 1985, Ditka's team posted an 18-1 record, After Super Bowl XX, Ditka was named Coach of the Year.

Ditka is the only Chicago Bear coach to lead his club to five straight post-season appearances. In 1988, Ditka won Coach of the Year honors during the same season in which he suffered a midseason heart attack (11/22/88), and posted a 12-4 regular season record. The Bears would lose to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFC Championship game at Soldier Field.

Ditka began his NFL career in 1961 when he was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the first round (fifth overall) from the University of Pittsburgh. Ditka's impact was immediate catching 56 passes and earning NFL Rookie of the Year honors. Ditka played six total seasons with the Bears, earning Pro Bowl honors in each of his years with the Bears, before being traded to Philadelphia in 1967. After spending two years with the Eagles he was traded to Dallas where he played four more years. He caught a touchdown pass in the Cowboys' 24-3 victory over the Dolphins in Super Bowl VI.

The final tribute to Ditka's playing career was bestowed upon him 16 years after his retirement from football when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (July 30, 1988). Ditka retired from playing football following the 1972 season, but was soon hired by Cowboys' head coach Tom Landry as an offensive assistant and special teams coach. In Ditka's nine seasons as an assistant with the Cowboys, his teams were in the playoffs eight times, won six divisional titles, three NFC Championships, and the Super Bowl following the 1977 campaign.

Born October 18, 1939, in Carnegie, Pennsylvania, Ditka was raised in nearby Aliquippa where his father, Mike Sr. worked on the railroad. He participated in three sports at Aliquippa High School. playing basketball and baseball and football. He enrolled at the University of Pittsburgh and was an All-American as a senior in 1960. Ditka played defensive end, linebacker, tight end and ranked among the nation's top punters with a 40-yard average in his final three seasons.

He is actively involved in numerous charitable endeavors including Fellowship of Christian Athletes, La. Special Olympics, Sports Teams Organized for Prevention of Drug Abuse, and the Say No to Drugs campaign. The Mike Ditka Foundation, established in 1989, raises money for Misericordia, a residential facility for developmentally disabled youth, and for the pediatric AIDS program at Children's Memorial Hospital. Ditka continues to assist his alma mater by sponsoring the Mike Ditka Endowed Scholarship Fund at the University of Pittsburgh to which he will contribute $100,000 throughout the 1990's.

Since his days with the Chicago Bears, Ditka has opened Iron Mike's Grill, located in the Tremont Hotel in Chicago. His favorite hobby remains golf to which he plays to a six handicap. He also has a collection of antique cars and a Harley Davidson. Mike is married (Diana) and they reside in New Orleans. They have four children; Mike (37), Mark (36), Megan (34), and Matthew (30).

COACHING

DANNY ABRAMOWICZ, Offensive Coordinator

Danny Abramowicz enters his second season as offensive coordinator following five years as the Chicago Bears special teams coach. In 1995, the Bears led the NFL with five blocked kicks, while also leading the league in opponents gross and net punting average.

Abramowicz was one of the most prolific receivers in NFL history. He was a 17th-round draft choice by the New Orleans Saints in 1967 and played six seasons with the Saints before concluding his career with the San Francisco 49ers (1973-74). In 1969, Abramowicz led the NFL with 73 catches and was named All-Pro and the Saints' MVP. He is second in Saints' history in catches (309), yards (4,875), and TDs (35), trailing Eric Martin, who passed him in 1990. Abramowicz completed his pro career with 371 receptions for 5,704 yards and 39 TDs.

Abramowicz graduated from Xavier University in Cincinnati in 1967 with a degree in education. He has been inducted into the Xavier and Saints' Halls of Fame, the National Polish Hall of Fame, and was named to the Saints' Silver Anniversary Team in 1991. Following his football career, Abramowicz was a salesman in the oil field industry and also spent five seasons on the Saints Radio Network as an analyst. He left private business in 1989 to become head coach at Jesuit High School in New Orleans where he compiled a 20-14 record before joining the Bears. He also founded the Catholic men's spirituality group "The Monday Night Disciples".

Born July 13, 1945, in Steubenville, Ohio, Dan and his wife, Claudia, have two sons Danny and Andrew and one daughter, Stephanie.

ABRAMOWICZ'S BACKGROUND

Player: Xavier University 1964-66, New Orleans Saints 1967-72, San Francisco 49ers 1973-74. Coach: Jesuit (La.) HS 1989-91 (head coach), Chicago Bears 1992-96, New Orleans Saints 1997.

ZAVEN YARALIAN, Defensive Coordinator

Zaven Yaralian came to the Saints after spending 1993-96 with the New York Giants as their secondary coach. Similar to his success in New York, Yaralian's troops were at or near the top of the NFL in several major defensive categories. Yaralian's defensive strategy improved a defense that ranked 13th in total defense in 1996 to 4th in 1997. In addition, the Saints defense finished sixth in the NFL in pass defense, second in yards allowed per play, and led the NFL with a club-record 59 sacks.

In his first year with the Giants, he helped direct a unit that allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205). In 1994, the Giants were the second-best defense against the pass over the final six weeks of the season. Under Yaralian, the Giants' secondary has ranked 10th in 1993, 8th in 1994, and fourth in 1995. The Giants secondary posted 21 interceptions in 1996, tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL.

Yaralian came to the Giants after spending three years with the Chicago Bears, serving in the same capacity under then-Bears Head Coach Mike Ditka. His 1990 Bears secondary led the league with 31 interceptions.

Yaralian began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, in 1975. He then coached the defensive backs at Washington State in 1976 and 1977 before moving on to the University of Missouri in the same role from 1978-82. Yaralian served as the secondary coach at the University of Florida from 1983-87 and was the Gators defensive coordinator as well from 1985-87. He coached the defensive backs at the University of Colorado from 1988-89 before joining the Bears staff prior to the 1990 season. Yaralian was a member of the coaching staff of Colorado during their national title game against Notre Dame in the 1989 Orange Bowl.

Yaralian was a two-year starter at cornerback for Nebraska before a short stint with the Green Bay Packers in 1974 and the Philadelphia Bell of the World Football League in 1975.

BOBBY APRIL, Special Teams

Continuing the pattern of success established at every stop in his career, Bobby April's special teams units continued to shine in 1997. Under April, the Saints boasted the highest punting average in the NFL, the fourth-most accurate field goal kicker in team history, and the thirdranked kick returner in the NFL. In addition, the Saints special teams tallied the second-highest punt return yardage total in team history, which was more than the previous two years combined, tied for the longest kickoff return in the NFL, and the longest in team history.

April, a native of Chalmette, La. (a New Orleans suburb), returned to his roots, February 6, 1996. After serving as the special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1994-95, April was hired to coach in the same capacity with the Saints. In 1996, the Saints' special teams ranked third in the NFL in kickoff return average and tied for seventh in field goal per-

April served as tight ends/special teams coach with the Atlanta Falcons from 1991-93. During his tenure in Atlanta, the Falcons led the NFL in blocked kicks (1991), field goal defense (1991), kickoff return average (1992) and field goal offense (1993). They were second league-wide in field goal defense (1992) and kickoff return offense (1993), and third in field goal offense (1992) and field goal defense (1993). In his first season with the Steelers, Pittsburgh finished fourth in the NFL in punt return defense and played for the AFC Championship. In 1995, Pittsburgh led the league in field goals made (34) and kickoff return defense (17.5 avg.), and represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXX.

Prior to entering the NFL, April spent 13 years as an assistant at the collegiate level. After serving as a graduate assistant at Southern Mississippi in 1978, he was awarded his first full-time post the following year at Tulane. He went to the University of Arizona in 1980, and spent the next seven seasons with the Wildcats, coaching the defensive line and secondary, in addition to his duties with the kicking game. He joined head coach Larry Smith at USC in 1987, and had a four-year stay with the Trojans, as both secondary coach and kicking game coordinator.

A four-year letterman (1972-75) as a defensive end and linebacker at Nicholls State in Thibodaux, La., April coached at Chalmette High School for two years, 1976-77, after receiving his degree in physical education from Nicholls. He earned his master's in athletic administration from Southern Mississippi in 1983.

Born April 15, 1953 in New Orleans, April and his wife, Charlene, have one son, Bobby, and four daughters, Julie, Jamie Lee, Angela and Jaclyn.

TOM CLEMENTS, Quarterbacks

Tom Clements is entering his second season with the Saints quarterbacks in 1998. It is his experience with that position which enabled him to maintain stability in an offense that saw four different starting quarterboks at the offensive helm during the 1997 season.

A three-year starter at quarterback at Notre Dame (1972-74), Tom Clements led the Fighting Irish to a 29-5 record in that time, including the 1973 national championship with an unbeaten record. He also started a record 34 consecutive games during that time. He was selected All-American two times and was fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy in 1974.

Clements spent twelve seasons in the CFL (1975-79, 1981-87), winning League MVP once and two Grev Cups, and is in the CFL Hall of Fame. Clements also spent the 1980 season with the Kansas City Chiefs.

His coaching career started in 1992 as an assistant at his alma mater, serving there until 1995 when he was assistant head coach/wide recievers coach. A lawyer, Clements worked in 1996 in the law department of Republic Industries, Inc., a company controlled by H. Wayne Huizenga, owner of the Miami Dolphins.

Born June 18, 1953 in McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania, Tom and his wife Kathe have a son, Tom and a daughter, Stephanie.

WALT COREY. Defensive Line

Walt Corey enters his second season with the Saints possessing 25 seasons of NFL experience as well as four Super Bowl appearances as defensive coordinator.

In 1997, the Saints defensive line was a major factor in the team's success as the fourth-ranked defense in the NFL. Under Corey, New Orleans' defensive line registered 37 of the Saints' season-record and NFL-leading 59 sacks.

Corey joined the Saints after spending 8 seasons (1987-94) with the Buffalo Bills where he served as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach, and led the Bills to the top-ranked defense in the AFC in 1988 after ranking 24th in the NFL just two years prior.

His first coaching assignments came as defensive coordinator at both Utah State (1967-69) and the University of Miami (1970), his alma mater. He left the collegiate ranks to coach linebackers with Kansas City (1971-74), his first of two stints with the Chiefs. He first served on the Chiefs staff handling linebackers and special teams, later (1978-86) coaching defensive line and secondary, then serving as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach. In between his time with the Chiefs, Corey coached the linebackers at Cleveland (1975-77).

Corey started his NFL career as a linebacker with the Dallas Texans/Kansas City Chiefs (1960-66) and is one of only two active NFL coaches to have played in Super Bowl I (Elijah Pitts, Buffalo Bills). Corey played four years (1956-59) at the University of Miami at defensive end, and was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in May 1994.

Born May 9, 1938 in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, Corey and his wife Jane have a daughter, Carla, and a son, Mark.

JACK DEL RIO, Linebackers

Following an 11-year NFL linebacking career that originated in New Orleans, and an assistant strength coaching position with the Saints in 1997, Jack Del Rio will take charge of the Saints' linebacking corps in 1998.

Originally a third-round draft choice of the Saints in 1985, Del Rio spent two years in New Orleans before moving to Kansas City, where he spent the next two years. With the Saints, Del Rio was voted to the PFWA all-rookie team and voted the club's Rookie of the Year. Del Rio spent the next three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, before playing his final four years for the Minnesota Vikings. Del Rio led the Vikings' defense in tackles for three straight years, 1992-94.

A four-year starter at Southern Cal, Del Rio was named consensus All-American as a senior when he was a finalist for the Lombardi Award. He led the Trojans in tackles for loss each of his final three seasons. Del Rio also played in the East-West and Japan Bowl games.

Born April 4, 1963 in Castro Valley, California, Del Rio and his wife Linda have four children, Lauren, Hope, Aubrey and Luke.

JUDD GARRETT, Offensive Assistant

Following an NFL playing career that took him from London to Dallas, Judd Garrett enters his second season on the sidelines with the Saints in 1998.

In his position, Garrett, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, is responsible for a multitude of functions dealing with the entire offense. He is involved with quality control, including, but not limited to, the breaking down of game tapes, opponent scouting, self-scouting and on-field duties.

A three-year starter at running back at Princeton University (1987-89), Garrett was named Ivy League Player of the Year and I-AA All-American in 1989. He was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 12th round of the 1990 draft. He played with the London Monarchs (WLAF) in 1991 and 1992, leading the league in receptions and was named All World League in 1991. He was also a member of the 1993 Dallas Cowboys Super Bowl Championship team. Garrett then spent the next two years in the CFL, first with the Las Vegas Posse, in 1994, and with the San Antonio Texans, in 1995.

Garrett began his coaching career at his alma mater, Princeton (1990) and University School (1996). His father, Jim, was an assistant coach with the Saints in 1976-77, and is now a scout with the Dallas Cowboys. His brother, John, is an assistant coach with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Born June 25, 1967 in Abington, Pennsylvania, Garrett and his wife Kathy have a son, Calvin, and a daughter, Frances.

LARY KUHARICH, Running Backs

Lary Kuharich, a 30-year coaching veteran, joins New Orleans in 1998 as running backs coach.

Kuharich began coaching professionally in 1976, serving as line-backer coach for the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Hamilton Tiger-Cats. Following a return to the collegiate ranks, he joined the United States Football League (USFL), serving as offensive coordinator for the San Antonio Gunslingers in 1984. The following year, he served in the same capacity for the Oakland Invaders, reaching the final championship game in USFL history.

Kuharich returned to the CFL in 1986, serving as an assistant coach with the Calgary Stampeders before assuming head coaching responsibilities from 1987-89. In 1990, he concluded his CFL career as head coach of the British Columbia Lions.

Kuharich first entered the Arena Football League (AFL) in 1991, serving as offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Storm that won the ArenaBowl Championship. The following year, Kuharich began a three-year stint as vice president/general manager/head coach of the Storm, compiling an overall mark of 35-12, including a second championship (1993), and a victory as head coach in the league's first all-star game.

After moving on to the World League of American Football (WLAF) in 1995 as head coach/director of football operations for the Scottish Claymores, Kuharich returned to the AFL as vice president of football operations/head coach for the expansion Connecticut Coyotes. Kuharich then joined the expansion New York CityHawks in 1997, serving as head coach.

Kuharich began his coaching career as a football and baseball coach at Matignon High School (Mass.). His college coaching spanned from Boston State, (head coach 1970-74), Rhode Island (1975), Temple (1977-80), Illinois State (1981), and the University of California (1982-83).

Kuharich has been responsible for coaching many professional quarterbacks, including Jay Gruden of the AFL, Doug Flutie, Gale Gilbert, Erik Kramer, and former Saints quarterback Bobby Hebert. He also coached University of Colorado head coach Rick Neuheisel in the USFL.

He is the son of the late Joe Kuharich, who was a college head coach at the University of San Francisco and Notre Dame, as well as head coach of three NFL teams - the Chicago Cardinals (1952), Washington Redskins (1954-58), and Philadelphia Eagles (1964-68). He is the older brother of Saints' President/General Manager/Chief Operating Officer Bill Kuharich.

Lary was originally a 16th-round draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1968 as a halfback/defensive back, from Boston College. In 1967, he played in the Atlantic Coast Football League (ACFL) for the Lowell (Mass.) Giants, a farm team for the Green Bay Packers, and was roommates with former Saints kicker Tom Dempsey.

Born December 20, 1945, in Middletown, New York, Kuharich and his wife, Kathy, have four children, Lara, Theresa, Katrina and Dakota.

DAN NEAL, Tight Ends/Offensive Line Asst.

Dan Neal, an 11-year veteran center with the Baltimore Colts and Chicago Bears, begins his second year coaching the Saints tight ends and assisting with the offensive line. 1998 marks his 10th year as an NFL coach.

Neal first worked with Saints head coach Mike Ditka at Chicago, where he signed as a free agent in 1975. Neal played in 115 consecutive games for the Bears, starting 81 straight, before suffering a careerending back injury in 1983. Neal was part of the offensive line that created holes for the NFL's all-time leading rusher, Walter Payton. During his time with the Bears, Neal was coached by Dick Stanfel, also on staff with the Saints. Prior to his action with the Bears, he played two seasons with the Baltimore Colts, the team that drafted him in 1973.

Neal entered the coaching ranks in 1986 as the Philadelphia Eagles special teams coach, and expanded his duties to assist with the offensive line from 1987-91. He joined the Arizona Cardinals as offensive line coach in 1994.

An 11th-round selection from Kentucky, Neal was the Wildcat's offensive captain in 1971 and '72. Born August 30, 1949, in Corbin, Kentucky, Neal and his wife Barbara have two daughters, Kelly, 16, and Tiffany, 13.

MARKUS PAUL, Assistant Strength & Conditioning

Markus Paul will embark on his second stint in the NFL, and his first as a coach, in 1998. He comes to the Saints after spending 1989-93 as a safety with the Chicago Bears and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Paul was originally a fourth-round draft choice of the Bears in 1989, and played there from 1989-93, registering seven interceptions for 100 yards, before concluding his career with Tampa Bay in 1993. Paul saw action in 71 NFL contests, starting 15 at both strong and free safety.

A four-year starter at Syracuse, Paul set a Syracuse record with 19 career interceptions, and was named to the first-team All-America squads of The Sporting News and Football News as a senior in 1988, after compiling 76 tackles, and was an AP honorable mention All-America choice as a junior after leading the team in interceptions for the third straight year. He also was a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award after his junior season.

In his new position, Paul will assist Mike Woicik in the implementation and monitoring of player workout routines throughout the season.

Born April 1, 1966, in Orlando, Florida, Markus and his wife Patricia have a son, Jarius.

DICK STANFEL, Offensive Line

1998 will mark Dick Stanfel's seventh year with the Saints, having returned to New Orleans in 1997, to serve as the offensive line coach. Stanfel first coached with the Saints as an assistant, 1976-80, and served as interim head coach for the final four games of the 1980 sea-

Serving 12 years with the Chicago Bears (1981-92) as offensive line coach, Stanfel had the best rushing offense in the NFL from 1983-86, had the second rated rushing offense from 1989-1990, and the third rated rushing offense in 1988.

Stanfel began his coaching career at Notre Dame (1959-62) and spent one season on the California staff (1963) before taking his initial professional job with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1964. After seven seasons in Philadelphia (1964-70), Stanfel joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1971 as line coach and staved there until joining the Saints in 1976.

After playing collegiately at the University of San Francisco, Stanfel enjoyed an eight-year pro career that garnered him finalist status for the Hall of Fame in 1993. A second-round draft pick by Detroit, Stanfel played five years with the Lions (1951-55) and was the team's MVP for the 1953 season. Stanfel was voted All-NFL five times and was a member of the Detroit Lions' 1952-53 NFL Championship teams, and the 1954 runner-up squad. The five-time Pro Bowl guard finished his career playing three seasons for the Washington Redskins (1956-58).

Born in San Francisco, California, Stanfel has three sons, Jon, Scott and Richard.

STANFEL'S BACKGROUND

Player: University of San Francisco 1948-50, Detroit Lions 1951-55, Washington Redskins 1956-58 Coach: Notre Dame 1959-62, California 1963, Philadelphia Eagles 1964-70, San Francisco 49ers 1971-75, New Orleans Saints 1976-80 (head coach final four games of 1980), Chicago Bears 1981-92, New Orleans Saints 1997.

RICK VENTURI, Asst. Head Coach / Secondary

Rick Venturi brings with him 16 years of experience as a position coach, coordinator, assistant head coach and head coach in the NFL, with three of the four coming at some point with the Saints.

The 1998 season will mark the third different capacity in which Venturi has served the Saints in his three years in New Orleans. He begins 1998 returning to a familiar position, serving as the secondary coach of arguably the youngest secondary in the NFL, but one poised for greatness.

Venturi joined the Saints in 1996 as linebackers coach, but was elevated to head coach after eight games into the season. Venturi was named linebackers coach and asked to serve as assistant head coach for the 1997 season.

Prior to joining the Saints, Venturi spent two years with the Cleveland Browns, as secondary coach in 1994 and defensive coordinator in 1995, when he also worked with the linebackers.

The first 12 seasons of Venturi's NFL coaching career were spent with the Colts. He joined Baltimore as an assistant in 1982 and remained there through 1993. He began the 1991 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach before taking over as head coach with 11 games to play, after succeeding Ron Meyer. He also served as defensive coordinator with the Colts in 1984 and 1992-93.

Venturi played quarterback and defensive back at Northwestern University, where he earned his degree in physical education and history, and his master's in education. His first coaching stop was at his alma mater in 1968, where he spent the following five seasons. From 1973-76 he was on the staff at Purdue before moving on to Illinois for the 1977 season. He returned to Northwestern in 1978, where he served as the Wildcats' head coach for the next three years. In 1981 he got his first job at the professional level, with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League.

An avid biker, Venturi owns three motorcycles.

Born February 23, 1946, in Taylorville, Illinois, Venturi and his wife, Cheri, have a daughter, Marin, and a son, Jason. They live in Destrehan, Louisiana.

VENTURI'S BACKGROUND

Player: Northwestern U. 1965-67.

Coach: Northwestern U. 1968-72 and 1978-80 (head coach), Purdue 1973-76, Illinois 1977, Hamilton Tiger-Cats (CFL) 1981, Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts 1982-93 (head coach final 11 games of 1991), Cleveland Browns 1994-95, New Orleans Saints 1996-97 (head coach final eight games of 1996).

MIKE WOICIK, Strength and Conditioning

Mike Woicik joined the Saints staff in 1997, and was put to the task of making the Saints stronger and faster. His job is to handle the strength and conditioning of the team.

Woicik spent the previous seven years in the same role with the Dallas Cowboys (1990-96), developing them into one of the NFL's healthiest and best conditioned teams. During his tenure, the Cowbovs had twelve playoff victories en route to winning three Super Bowl titles.

Woicik also plays a large role in the players rehabilitation programs. Working with the Saints' trainers and medical staff, Woicik implements programs for players to regain their strength during lengthy rehabilitation periods, allowing the players to return to the football field in a more timely manner.

His outstanding efforts with the Cowboys were rewarded when his peers voted Woicik the NFL's "Strength Coach of the Year" following the 1992 title season.

Woicik joined the Cowboys staff after 10 years as the strength and conditioning coach at Syracuse University, which became one of the nation's top football programs during his tenure. An outstanding discus thrower at Boston College, Woicik set a school record of 180 feet, 5 inches, earned All-East honors and qualified for the NCAA championships. He also competed in the shot put and hammer throw.

Woicik was born September 26, 1956, in Baltimore, Maryland.

WOICIK'S BACKGROUND

Coach: Springfield 1978-80, Syracuse 1980-89, Dallas Cowboys 1990-96, New Orleans Saints 1997.

RICKEY JACKSON, Asst. to the Defense

In this newly-created post, former Saints linebacker Rickey Jackson will assist the defense, primarily the linebackers and defensive ends. Jackson will also continue to serve as a consultant to the marketing and public relations departments.

Jackson was drafted in the second round in 1981 from the University of Pittsburgh, and was a six-time Pro Bowl selection with New Orleans, where he spent 1981-93

Jackson left the Saints in 1993 as the club's all-time leader in sacks, with 123 (873 yards lost). He led or tied for the team lead for five seasons. He still leads the Saints in career fumble recoveries, with 26, and led the Saints a team record seven times in that category.

He finished his Saints career with 195 games played overall, which ranks second in team history. Jackson joined the San Francisco 49ers for the 1994-95 seasons, and was a vital part of the Super Bowl championship following the 1994 season.

Jackson was a defensive end in Pittsburgh's number-one-ranked defense, leading the team in tackles his senior year.

Born March 20, 1958 in Pahokee, Florida, Jackson has a daughter, Rickeyah, and sons Rickeem and Rickeyvis.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

BRUCE LEMMERMAN, Director of College Scouting

Bruce Lemmerman is in his fifth season as the Saints' Director of College Scouting, after being named to the newly created post in May of

In his role, Lemmerman is responsible for the Saints' collegiate scouting effort. He serves over the team's area scouts in the information-gathering area, and directs the organization of that data into a usable format for the college draft and post-draft player planning.

Lemmerman came to the Saints from the Canadian Football League, where he served as Director of Operations for the Edmonton Eskimos from 1989-94.

Lemmerman started his coaching career with Edmonton as quarterback/receiver/running back coach in 1981. After two seasons with the Eskimos, he was named offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1983, and moved to the NFL the following year, where he coached the receivers, tight ends and backs for the Houston Oilers from 1984-85. After a year away from football, Lemmerman returned to the CFL in 1987 as an offensive coach with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, where he spent two years before re-joining the Eskimos in the front office. During Lemmerman's tours of duty in the CFL, teams he was associated with won seven CFL championships and were conference champions 14 times.

Lemmerman graduated from the University of California-Northridge, where he earned honors in football and baseball. He played quarterback professionally for the Atlanta Falcons (1968-70). He also played nine seasons at Edmonton (1971-79) and one season for Hamilton (1980) in the CFL.

Born October 4, 1945 in Los Angeles, Lemmerman and his wife, Brigitte, have two daughters, Lisa and Jennifer. They live in Destrehan.

HAMP COOK, Player Personnel Scout

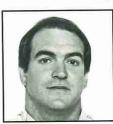

Now in his 26th season with the Saints, Hamp Cook has the longest record of service with the Saints' scouting staff. Cook, who joined the club in 1973, scouts prospects primarily in the southeastern United States. He also covers parts of the midwest.

Cook coached high school teams in Mississippi and Alabama, and was an assistant coach at the University of Southern Mississippi for eight years before joining the Saints. He graduated from Southern Mississippi with a master's degree in physical education.

Hamp and his wife, Tinkey, live in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. They have three children, Tracey, Kyle and Chuck, who is following in his father's footsteps as an NFL scout with the Kansas City Chiefs.

HOKIE GAJAN, Player Personnel Scout

Now in his 12th season as a scout, Hokie Gajan's responsibilities in the scouting department have each year been expanded. His area is among the most fertile in the country for NFL prospects.

Gajan covers the territories of Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, and New Mexico in the Saints' scouting system.

He joined the scouting department in 1987 following his retirement as a player.

Gajan was selected by the Saints in the tenth round of the 1981 draft. He played fullback in New Orleans 1982-85 before being sidelined by a knee injury. He blocked for Saints tailbacks George Rogers, Wayne Wilson and Earl Campbell. Also a productive runner, Gajan holds the Saints season record for rushing average with a six-vard per carry standard in 1984.

In his four seasons, Gajan rushed for 1,358 yards with a 5.4-yard average and 11 touchdowns. His average per carry is second-best in club history. He added 63 catches for 515 yards and two Hokie and his wife, Judy, live in Mandeville with their four daughters. Jennifer, Kristin, Megan and Alexis.

CORNELL GOWDY, Player Personnel Scout

Cornell is in his second season with the Saints as a player personnel scout.

He joined the Saints in 1997 from the National Football League Scouting Combine, where he served 1996-97 as an area scout.

Gowdy, a defensive back out of Morgan State, played with both the Dallas Cowboys (1986) and the Pittsburgh Steelers (1987-88). After leaving professional football, Gowdy was in the business sector as a computer systems developer.

Gowdy was born October 2, 1963, in Washington, D.C.

TOM MARINO, Player Personnel Scout

A veteran of three football leagues, Tom Marino joined the Saints' scouting department in 1986. He is assigned the eastern Atlantic United States in the Saints' scouting system, and also is responsible for much of the midwest.

A graduate of the University of Massachusetts (Boston), Marino worked three years as scout for the Chicago Bears while finishing his undergraduate degree. He joined the Philadelphia Bell of the World Football League in 1974 as the team's director of player personnel.

He was named to the scouting staff of the Dallas Cowbovs, and served there in 1976. He then joined the New York Giants and worked there from 1977-81 in a similar capacity.

In 1982, he went to the USFL with the Boston Breakers as assistant general manager and player personnel director. He moved to the Denver Gold staff in 1983 as director of player personnel, and joined the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars the following year as a personnel scout.

Tom and his wife, Denise, have a daughter, Melissa, and a son, Tom. They live in Raleigh. North Carolina.

FAMILY TIES

In 1998, the Saints will feature the fourth brother tandem in team history, although in a rather unique fashion. Lary Kuharich, a 30-year coaching veteran, was hired by Mike Ditka to coach the Saints running backs. He will join his younger brother Bill Kuharich, who has served in the team's player personnel department since 1986, and is entering his second year as President/General Manager/Chief Operating Officer of the New Orleans Saints.

Last season, the Saints featured another unique connection when Judd Garrett was hired as an offensive assistant. Judd's brother, Jason, was signed as an undrafted free agent in 1989, and spent the season on the team's developmental squad. Their father, Jim, was an assistant coach for the Saints, 1976-77.

The Saints have also had two brother tandems as players in their history. Quarterback John Fourcade was with the Saints from 1987-90, and his brother, Keith, was a linebacker on the 1987 replacement squad. Center/Guard Joel Hilgenberg played with New Orleans from 1984-93. His brother, Jay, was signed for 1993 following an injury to Joel.

These familial connections are not limited to the playing field. Jim E. Mora was the Saints' head coach from 1986 through the eighth game of 1996, and his son, Jim L., was the defensive backs coach from 1992 through 1996. O.A. "Bum" Phillips was head coach of the Saints from 1981-1985, while his son Wade Phillips also served with the Saints 1981-85, serving as the team's interim head coach for the final four games of 1985.

In 1995, linebacker Richard Harvey became part of the third father-son player combination in the 29-year history of the New Orleans Saints. His father, Richard Sr., was a defensive back with the Saints in 1971 after being acquired in a trade with Philadelphia. The first father-son duo in club history was Earl and Brad Leggett. Earl played defensive tackle from 1967-68, and Brad was a center from 1990-91. The late Steve Stonebreaker played linebacker with New Orleans, 1967-68, while his son, Mike, appeared in two games in 1994.

Grounds superintendent Lester Vallet Jr. joined the Saints in 1989, to assist his father, Lester Vallet Sr., who was with the Saints from 1979 until his retirement following the 1989 season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1998

*The New Orleans Saints need one sack in the opening contest of 1998 to have registered a sack in 50 consecutive contests. Right now, the Saints have a sack in 49 consecutive contests, which is the longest current streak in the NFL, and the longest active streak in this decade. With a sack in their first 12 games, the Saints would hold the second longest all-time streak with 61 (eclipsing the Redskins, who had a sack in 60 consecutive games from 9/10/84 - 12/13/87). (records were kept from 1982 to present).

*If the Saints lead the NFL in sacks in 1998, they will tie San Francisco (1967, 1972, 1976) and L.A. Rams (1968, 1970, 1988) for third place all-time in Most Seasons Leading League (1992, 1997).

*By leading the NFL in sacks in 1997, the Saints became the only team to lead the NFL in sacks twice in the 1990's.

*DT Wayne Martin has started a club-record 112 consecutive games with the Saints, dating to 1991, which is tied for the seventh-longest current streak in the NFL.

*If Martin appears in all 16 games for the eighth consecutive year, he will move into eighth place on the club's all-time list of games played with 155, surpassing G Jim Dombrowski, who has 151.

*Martin needs two sacks to move into second all-time with the Saints. He currently has 75 (499 yards lost), which is 1.5 behind Pat Swilling (1986-92), who had 76.5 (629.5 yards lost).

*K Doug Brien needs 95 points to move into second place all-time (319) on the club's scoring chart, ahead of RB Dalton Hilliard (318). Brien, who currently has 224 points scored with the Saints, needs 20 points to surpass K Charlie Durkee (243) for fourth all-time, and 65 points to surpass WR Eric Martin for third all-time.

*RB Ray Zellars needs 170 yards to move into 12th place all-time on the club's rushing chart, 195 for 11th all-time, 625 for 10th, 711 for 9th and 870 for eighth.

*WR Sean Dawkins needs 489 receiving yards for 4,000 career, and 49 receptions for 300 career.

*By seeing action in the first six games, C Jerry Fontenot will have appeared in 150 straight games (he has not missed a game as a pro), and has started 102 straight games, dating to the 10th game of the 1991 season.

*TE/LS Kendall Gammon has not missed a game as a professional, having appeared in 96 straight contests. By seeing action in the first four games, he will have appeared in 100 consecutive games.

WAYNE MARTIN

Defensive Tackle Year With Saints: 10 Year in NFL: 10 College: Arkansas Wt: 275 Born: October 26, 1965 at Forrest City, Arkansas

Joined Saints: Draft Choice No. 1, 1989

PRO: Was the 19th player taken overall, and third defensive lineman in the 1989 draft behind Burt Grossman (San Diego) and Trace Armstrong (Chicago). Excellent athlete with speed and agility. Played end in the Saints' 3-4 scheme his first six years, before being moved to the under tackle spot in the 4-3 "over-under" defense in 1995. Has evolved into one of the most consistent and well-rounded defensive lineman in the NFL. Equally effective against both the run and the pass. 75 career sacks (499 yards lost) places him in third spot on the Saints' all-time list, and first among linemen. He needs two sacks to surpass LB Pat Swilling (76.5-629.5 yds.) for second on the club's all-time list. His 34.5 sacks since 1995 ranks third in the NFL during the past three years. Has had 16 multiple-sack performances in his career. Has started a club-record 112 consecutive games for the Saints, which is tied for the sixth-longest current streak in the NFL. He has appeared in 139 career games with New Orleans, which ranks him 12th all-time. Contract runs through 2000 with no option. 1997 —

A mainstay of the Saints defense, started all 16 games at left defensive tackle, and recorded his fourth straight double-digit total in sacks, and the fifth of his career. . . sack total of 10.5 (60 HOME GROWN TALENT

In 1997, linebacker Richard Harvey, tackles William Roaf and Keno Hills, tight end Nicky Savoie, wide receiver Brett Bech and quarterback Jake Delhomme (practice squad) became the most recent players from a Louisiana college to appear with the Saints. Harvey attended Tulane, Roaf went to Louisiana Tech, Hills and Delhomme at USL and Bech and Savoie starred at LSU. That total, which now stands at 63, breaks down as follows: LSU 22, Northwestern Louisiana 8, Tulane and Grambling State 7, Southern 6, Louisiana Tech 5, Nicholls State 4, Southwestern Louisiana 2, McNeese State and Northeast Louisiana 1. Seven coaches in team history attended Louisiana colleges. They are Lynn Amadee (1973, LSU), Buck Buchanan (1976-77, Grambling St.), Ed Khayat (1967-70, Tulane), Glenn Mayeaux (1996, UNO), Lou Riecke (1980, LSU) and Alvin Roy (1976-77, LSU). Special teams coach Bobby April, who is entering his third season with the Saints, attended Nicholls State.

RAMS 38, SAINTS 24 August 31 at Trans World Dome (64,575)

The Saints opened the scoring on their first possession of the game with a 31-yard field goal by Doug Brien. Brien would add a 53yarder to put the Saints lead at 6-0.

St. Louis then scored two touchdowns, a 1-yard TD run by Lawrence Phillips and a 30-yard TD pass to WR Torrance Small. The Saints answered with a touchdown of their own just seconds later with a team-record 102-yard kickoff return by WR Eric Guliford, and a Heath Shuler to Andre Hastings two-point conversion to knot the score at 14. Doug Brien kicked his third field goal of the first half with :08 seconds left to put the Saints on top, 17-14.

The Rams then scored three consecutive touchdowns in the third quarter to go on top, 35-14, before the Saints could answer with a Danny Wuerffel to Andre Hastings 30-yard touchdown pass. Jeff Wilkins kicked a 36-yard field goal for St. Louis to provide the final

CHARGERS 20, SAINTS 6 September 7 at Superdome (65,760)

The Saints lost their home opener to the San Diego Chargers, 20-6, before a crowd of 65,760 Sunday in New Orleans.

The Saints opened the scoring on their first possession of the game, with a 37-yard Doug Brien field goal, capping a 9-play, 28-yard drive. The Chargers then scored following a Troy Davis fumble, that was recovered by Ronnie Harrison in the Saints' end zone for the 7-3

Brien then tacked on a 31-yard field goal to end a 12-play, 66-yard drive to close the lead to 7-6, but that was all the offense that the Saints could manage before the Chargers were responsible for the next three

John Carnev kicked a pair of field goals, a 37-yarder and a 34yarder, before Jim Everett found Freddie Jones on a 21-yard TD pass

GIANTS 14, SAINTS 9 September 28 at Giants Stadium (68,891)

New Orleans opened the game with three first quarter sacks, but were unable to pressure Giants' QB Dave Brown enough to prevent the Giants from scoring two first half touchdowns, which were all the points that New York needed.

DE Darren Mickell returned a Dave Brown punt to the Giants' 35-vard line with 5:44 to play, but the Saints were unable to put the ball in the end zone to pull past New York.

New York held the Saints to one-of-12 on third down conversions, and were able to convert seven-of-15 of their own. The teams were nearly even in the total vardage category, with the Saints gaining 266 yards to the Giants 264.

New Orleans held the time of possession edge in the first quarter, 10:42 to 4:18, but were able to only put three points on the board, as the Giants scored on their first play following a 44yard punt return by Amani Toomer, with just under six minutes left in the first quarter.

SAINTS 20, BEARS 17 October 5 at Soldier Field (58,865)

Chicago opened the scoring just over halfway through the first quarter, when Jeff Jaeger kicked a 23-vard field goal, following a Mario Bates fumble,

Doug Brien tied the score at three at the two minute warning. after Heath Shuler hit John Farquhar on a 42-yard pass to put the Saints at the Bears 27 on the first play of the drive.

Mario Bates scored on a 49-yard touchdown run on the Saints third play of the second half, following Heath Shuler completions of 15 yards to Bates, and 9 yards to Randal Hill.

Doug Brien kicked a field goal on the Saints next possession, this time from 48 yards out, but the Bears went back on top with a pair of one-yard TD runs, by Erik Kramer and Raymont Harris.

Following Harris' touchdown, the Saints overcame a penalty on the ensuing kickoff, when Shuler hit Hill on an 89-yard touchdown pass, the longest scoring pass in Saints history and the longest of either player's career, to provide the Saints with the winning margin.

FALCONS 23, SAINTS 17 October 12 at Superdome (65,619)

The Falcons' Morten Andersen opened the scoring by kicking one of his three field goals on the day, with a 25-yarder, followed by a Chris Chandler to Bert Emanuel 9-yard pass to put the Falcons up 10-0. Doug Brien converted a 35-yarder to cut the lead to 10, but Andersen kicked two field goals within a 2:15 span, including a 55-yarder with :01 remaining in the half, following a questionable call by game officials, to put the Falcons on top, 16-3 at the half. Atlanta enjoyed a 23-3 lead, when QB Danny Wuerffel, who was inserted into the lineup in the second half, threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to WR Andre Hastings, and then led the Saints to another touchdown less than three minutes later, capped off by a Mario Bates 1-yard TD run to get the Saints to 23-17, but the Saints couldn't manage another score to pull in front of the Falcons.

PANTHERS 13. SAINTS 0 October 19 at Superdome (50,963)

The Saints lost their second straight contest to a divisional opponent, and their 216-game scoring streak, when the Saints fell to the Carolina Panthers, 13-0 before a crowd of 50,963 at the Superdome.

Carolina scored 10 points in the first quarter and just a field goal in the second quarter, to provide the only scoring of the game. 10 of Carolina's 13 points came off of two Saints interceptions.

CB Eric Davis was responsible for the Panthers' two interceptions on the day, one thwarting what would have been a 39yard touchdown pass to WR Andre Hastings. The Saints' offense could manage only 200 net yards, with 111 net rushing and 89 net passing. OB Danny Wuerffel was sacked seven times (43 yards) in the contest, after being sacked seven times in the second half of the previous week's game against Atlanta. The Saints' furthest penetration into Panthers' territory was the Carolina 33. The Saints average drive started on their own 21-yard line, while Carolina's average drive started on their own 40.

SAINTS 13, RAIDERS 10 November 9 at Oakland Coliseum (40,091)

The Saints improved their record to 3-7 following a 13-10 victory over the Raiders at Oakland Alameda County Coliseum.

K Doug Brien kicked field goals of 48 and 44 yards, and RB Ray Zellars scored from 1-yard out to give the Saints the victory.

The Saints defense held the Raiders scoreless and to 40 net yards in the second half of the game, with 29 coming on the Raiders' final drive.

The Saints offense held the ball for 34:03, which was their second-best time of possession of the season (34:35 vs. Detroit, 9/21), including nearly 20 minutes of the second half, keeping the Raider offense off of the field, and scoring the final 10 points of the game to seal the victory.

SAINTS 20, SEAHAWKS 17 (OT) November 16 at Superdome (50,493)

In the shortest overtime period in NFL history, the Saints defeated the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, on a Doug Brien 38-yard field goal, 17 seconds into the period. Brien's kick came after Seattle won the overtime coin toss, elected to receive and downed the kick in the end zone. QB Warren Moon stepped to the line, called a time out, and on Seattle's first play, threw an interception to LB Winfred Tubbs, which was returned 15 yards to the Seahawks' 20. Brien then came on for the game-winner, his second in two weeks, and his second three-pointer of the game. His 19-yard field goal extended the Saints lead to 17-10, with 9:27 to go in the fourth quarter.

Seattle's James McKnight then tied the game at 17, on a 34yard touchdown pass from Moon, but K Todd Peterson missed a chance for the win, as a 45-yard field goal sailed wide right, his second miss of the day (33 - wide right). Seattle opened the scoring with a 36-yard field goal from Peterson.

Darryl Williams returned a Heath Shuler pass 44 yards for a 10-0 Seattle lead before Ray Zellars scored two touchdowns, on touchdown runs of 1 and 2 yards, and Doug Brien booted a 19yard field goal to provide the Saints with 17 straight points, and a 17-10 lead.

FALCONS 20, SAINTS 3 November 23 at Georgia Dome (48,620)

The Saints lost their eighth game of 1997, 20-3 to the Atlanta Falcons, Sunday at the Georgia Dome.

The Falcons' Morten Andersen opened the scoring with a 43yard field goal, following an earlier miss from 43 yards that sailed wide right. The Andersen attempts came after an interception and a fumble recovery. Andersen converted his second field goal, this one from 22-yards out, following a second interception. Saints' K Doug Brien answered with a 22-yard kick of his own to cut the Falcons' lead in half, with :08 remaining in the first half.

The Falcons recorded their third interception of the game on the Saints' first possession of the second half, after the Saints had the ball at the Falcons' 37-yard line, but were unable to capitalize until their next possession when QB Chris Chandler hit WR. Bert Emanuel for a 36-yard touchdown.

Chandler hit WR Terance Mathis on the first play of the fourth quarter for a four-yard touchdown to provide the final margin of victory. QB Billy Joe Hobert entered in relief of Nussmeier, but was intercepted after the Saints had driven to the Falcons' 31-yard line, on a tipped ball.

SAINTS 16. PANTHERS 13 November 30 at Ericsson Stadium (57,957)

The Saints won their first NFC West contest since 11/26/95, when they defeated the Carolina Panthers, 16-13, at Ericsson Stadium

The Saints scored on the fourth play of the second quarter to give them a 3-0 lead on Doug Brien's 50-yard field goal. On the Saints' next possession, following a Fred Lane fumble that was forced by LB Mark Fields and recovered by LB Winfred Tubbs, RB Ray Zellars ran for a 10-yard touchdown.

The Panthers answered with a 44-yard John Kasay field goal to cut the lead to seven points, but Brien added a 51-vard field goal on the Saints' last possession of the second quarter to give them a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Panthers again got on the board, this time with a 2-yard Fred Lane touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter, and added a Kasay 31-yard field goal following a Saints' muffed punt, to even the count at 13. On the Panthers' next possession, P Ken Walter kicked a 15-yard punt after being pressured by S Chris Hewitt, and K Doug Brien kicked his game-winning 45-yard field goal with :09 seconds left to secure the victory.

The Saints defense again had a strong performance, forcing three Panther interceptions, with S Sammy Knight adding two picks and S Anthony Newman securing the other, and on special teams, DE Darren Mickell blocked a 26-yard Kasay field goal

RAMS 34 SAINTS 27 December 7 at Superdome (54,803)

The Saints closed out their NFC West slate when they were defeated, 34-27, by the St. Louis Rams. New Orleans compiled their second-highest point total of the season in the contest, and scored their first first quarter touchdown of the season en route to a 27-13 lead shortly into the fourth quarter, but 21 straight St. Louis points, highlighted by a pair of Tony Banks to Isaac Bruce touchdown passes sealed the Rams' victory.

OB Billy Joe Hobert continued to be impressive, completing 18 of 42 for a season-high 259 yards and two touchdowns. WR Andre Hastings turned in only the second 100-yard receiving day for the Saints this season and added a receiving touchdown as did TE Irv Smith, registering his first TD reception of the season.

The Saints defense sacked Rams QB Tony Banks five times, and intercepted him once on the day, and LB Mark Fields stripped Rams RB Craig Heyward of the ball and returned it for a 21-vard TD, for the Saints' only first quarter touchdown of the season. The Saints also registered a score in every quarter for the first

SAINTS 27, CARDINALS 10 December 14 at Superdome (45,517)

The Saints closed out their home schedule with a 27-10 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in the Superdome.

QB Billy Joe Hobert continued to shine, shaking off a 2-9 first half passing mark, to go 12-15 for 243 yards and three touchdowns.

WR Randal Hill led the receiving corps, snaring five passes for a team season-high 124 yards, and one touchdown. WR Eric Guliford and TE John Farquhar each caught their first touchdown passes of the season, and their first as a Saint.

The Saints defense again played tough, recording five sacks and two interceptions on Cardinals' QB Jake Plummer. Wayne Martin extended his streak to four consecutive seasons with double-digit sacks, while S Rob Kelly, in his first NFL start, recorded eight tackles, two passes defensed, a forced fumble, and an interception, which thwarted a Cardinals' scoring threat with just over 3:00 remaining in the contest.

CHIEFS 25, SAINTS 13 December 21 at Arrowhead Stadium (66,772)

After winning nine consecutive season finales, the Saints ended their second straight season with a loss at Kansas City.

New Orleans was thwarted on their first possession of the game, after driving to the Chiefs' 24-yard line, Jerome Woods intercepted a Billy Joe Hobert pass in the end zone to end the Saints' scoring opportunity. Kansas City then scored on their first possession of the game, on a Pete Stoyanovich 30-yard field goal, 11:27 into the first quarter.

The Chiefs again scored, this time 6:33 into the second quarter, on a Stoyanovich 25-yard kick. On the ensuing drive, Kansas City forced New Orleans to punt, and the Chiefs' Tamarick Vanover returned the Royals' boot for an 82-yard score.

The Saints first score of the contest came on their second possession of the third quarter, when Billy Joe Hobert found Keith Poole on a 32-yard toss. The second-half score ended the Chiefs' then-NFL-record 10 consecutive games without allowing a second-half score.

The Chiefs then scored first in the fourth quarter on a 3-yard Marcus Allen run, followed by a Rich Gannon to Ted Popson 3vard scoring pass on their next possession.

The Saints other touchdown came on their final possession of the game, when Danny Wuerffel found Poole for his second scoring reception of the day, a 14-yard score.

The Saints defense again shined, limiting the Chiefs to 20 net passing yards. They also sacked Chiefs' quarterbacks three times to break the team's previous season-high for quarterback sacks, finishing 1997 with 59 sacks, which led the NFL.

Feb. 3 —	Rick Venturi, who served 1996 as the Saints linebackers coach before being elevated to head coach eight games into the season, and served 1997 as assistant head coach/linebackers coach, is tabbed to coach the secondary in addition to his responsibilities as asst. head coach. Venturi replaced Willie Shaw, who left the Saints to join the Oakland Raiders as defensive coordinator. Replacing Venturi was Jack Del Rio, who served as assistant strength and conditioning coach for New Orleans in 1997. Del Rio was originally a third-round selection by the Saints in the 1985 NFL Draft, and enjoyed an 11-year NFL career at linebacker. Replacing Del Rio is Markus Paul, who played safety under Ditka in Chicago. Ned James joined the Saints from Seattle, to serve as defensive assistant, replacing John Pagano, who accepted a similar position with the Indianapolis Colts. Lary Kuharich, who brings 30 years of coaching experience, and is the older brother of team President Bill Kuharich, joined the Saints as running backs coach, replacing Tom Moore, who also joined the Colts, as offensive coordinator.

SAINTS DRAFT CHOICES

The first combined AFL-NFL draft was held in 1967. A player's order of selection among the players drafted is designated by a number after his position. In 1967, the expansion New Orleans Saints received first and last choices in each round and one additional choice at the end of the second, third and fourth rounds.

On February 10, 1967, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were: each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected by the Saints. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more each.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Running back Derek Brown was the last Saint to register a touchdown in his first NFL game. On September 5, 1993 against the Houston Oilers at the Superdome, Brown scored on a two-yard run in the fourth quarter as the Saints went on for a 33-21 opening-day victory. The first Saint to accomplish this feat was wide receiver John Gilliam, a second-round draft choice in 1967. Gilliam took the opening kickoff in the club's first-ever regular season game, September 17, 1967 versus the Rams at Tulane Stadium, and raced 94 yards for a touchdown.

1967 — Gold pants with black and white striping; black jerseys with gold numerals and white trim with white and gold piping on sleeves; white jerseys with gold numerals and black trim with black and gold piping on sleeves. Gold helmet with black Fleur-de-Lis on either side, and black and white

1969 — For preseason games exclusively — Black helmets with gold Fleur-de-Lis on either side

1971 — The color of the numerals changed. Black with gold trim on white jerseys and white with

1976 — Black pants were introduced to be worn worn with white jerseys. Gold and white striping down the sides. Same white pants worn with the black jerseys. The facemask changed from grey

1983 — Numbers changed to "San Diego-style" numerals. Thin border around the number with no direct contact between the number and the border. The second change was from socks with black

1986 — Gold pants with wide solid black stripes were initiated. The state Fleur-de-Lis patch appears on either side of the pants. The jersey was redesigned with TV numbers on the shoulders, and the state Fleur-de-Lis on either sleeve. The stripes on the sleeves were eliminated. The socks

1994 — For three games (3-5), the Saints wore their 1967 style uniforms for their "throwbacks

1996 — Traditional Fleur-de-Lis replaces state logo on jerseys and pants. Player name and numbers changed from screen-on type to "tackle twill" style, made of cloth and sewed onto jersey.

Numbers changed to gold with black outline on white jerseys and gold with a white outline on black jerseys. Stockings changed from thick gold and black stripe over white to solid black over white.

The following is a catalogue of uniform changes since the Saints' inception in 1966:

and gold and white striping down the middle. Helmets have been gold ever since.

1975 — Pants were changed from gold to white with black and gold striping.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

VIKINGS 44, SAINTS 10

In the Saints' first-ever playoff game, things started quickly, as the Vikings fumbled on the second play from scrimmage. Two plays later, it was 7-0 as Bobby Hebert hit Eric Martin for a 10yard TD pass. But from there, it was all downhill as Minnesota scored 31 points in the first half, and never looked back. A crucial play in the game came on the final play of the first half, as Wade Wilson's "hail Mary" pass was caught by the Vikings' Hassan Jones in the end zone. Down 31-10, Dave Wilson relieved Bobby Hebert midway through the third quarter, but the results were similar. The Saints could not manage a first down rushing in the game, and were held to nine first downs overall. Meanwhile, the Vikings controlled the ball for over 41 minutes of the game. To make matters worse, Rueben Mayes tore knee ligaments that required surgery.

BEARS 16. SAINTS 6 January 6, 1991 at Soldier Field (60,767)

The Bears got the first break of the day when John Mangum picked off a Steve Walsh pass at the Saints' 33 on the game's first series, setting up a Kevin Butler field goal. Chicago opened a 10point lead when Mike Tomczak connected with James Thornton. The Saints took advantage of a Maury Buford 19-yard punt that landed at the Bears' 47, when Morten Andersen hit a field goal with 1:38 to play in the half. It was a costly scoring march, however, as Walsh was forced to leave the game with a separated shoulder. The Saints appeared to tie the score at 10 when Renaldo Turnbull blocked a Butler 45-yard field goal and Vince Buck scampered 61 yards for the score, but Robert Massey was flagged for lining up offsides, nullifying the apparent TD. Seven plays later, Butler converted his second field goal. Following a Butler missed field goal attempt from 36 yards out, the Saints took over at their own 20 and traveled 59 yards before Andersen hit his second 3-pointer of the game to cut the Bears' lead to seven. Chicago iced the game on Butler's third field goal of the game with 2:37 to play. Shaun Gayle intercepted a John Fourcade pass on the next offensive play, sealing the Saints' fate. Sam Mills led the Saints defense with a game-high 12 tackles, while Turnbull

FALCONS 27, SAINTS 20 December 28, 1991 of Superdome (68,794)

The Saints took the ball on their opening possession and traveled 78 yards in 8:57 towards a Bobby Hebert to Floyd Turner TD pass. The Saints looked as if they might open a 14-point lead, but Deion Sanders picked off an Hebert pass in the end zone on thirdand-goal from the 3. Rickey Jackson stripped the ball from Chris Miller at the Saints' 48 on the first play of the second quarter, setting up a Morten Andersen field goal six plays later. The Falcons answered with an 80-yard drive that ate up 9:34 of the clock and ended with a Miller to Andre Rison touchdown. A Norm Johnson field goal with 37 seconds remaining in the half tied the score, but a Fred McAfee 39-yard kickoff return and a 26-yard completion from Hebert to Dalton Hilliard set up an Andersen field goal with no time left in the half. Atlanta took their first lead of the day when Miller connected with Michael Haynes for a TD 5:01 into the third quarter. New Orleans responded with a 19-play, 80-yard drive that used 10:49 of the clock and concluded with a Dalton Hilliard scoring run 50 seconds into the final frame. Atlanta tied the game when Johnson booted his second 3-pointer of the game midway through the fourth quarter, and scored the game winning points on a Miller to Haynes TD connection with 2:41 left to play. The Saints were driving at the Falcons' 35 with 1:10 to play, but Tim McKyer intercepted Hebert's pass. DE Frank Warren led the Saints' defensive charge with two sacks.

EAGLES 36. SAINTS 20 January 3, 1993 at Superdome (34,316)

The Saints took the ball on the opening series of the game and traveled 73 yards in 5:40 towards their first score of the day. The Eagles struck back to tie the game 5:58 later, but the Saints regained the lead 6:42 into the second quarter when a Morten Andersen field goal capped a 13-play, 71-yard drive that used 6:42 of the clock. The Saints took a 10-point lead 4:04 later, three plays after Bobby Hebert opened a drive with a 20-yard completion to Quinn Early to the Eagles' 33, and two plays after Hebert connected with Vaughn Dunbar for a 24-yard strike. The Eagles got to the Saints' 25 on their first possession of the second half, but Rickey Jackson stripped the ball from Randall Cunningham and Wayne Martin recovered at the Saints' 31. On the next play, Hebert hit Dunbar for a 35-yard catch and run, leading to an Andersen field goal with 6:28 to play in the third frame. The Saints next play from scrimmage resulted in an Eric Allen interception at the Eagles' 38, leading to a Roger Ruzek field goal with 1:01 to play in the third quarter. Philadelphia took the lead with touchdowns on their first two series of the fourth quarter. The first TD drive covered 64 yards in nine plays, and the second one was set up when Seth Joyner returned an interception 14 vards to the Saints' 26. Reggie White sacked Hebert in the end zone for a safety, four plays after the Birds' second touchdown, and Eric Allen returned an interception for a TD with 2:17 to play to ice the game.

NFL PLAYOFF TIEBREAKERS

DIVISION TIEBREAKERS

Two Clubs

- 1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
- 2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
- 3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- 4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
- 5. Best net points in division games.
- 6. Best net points in all games.
- 7. Strength of schedule.
- 8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 9. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, the tiebreaker reverts back to step 1 of the two-club format)

- 1. Head-to-Head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
- 2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
- 3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- 4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
- 5. Best net points in division games.
- 6. Best net points in all games.
- 7. Strength of schedule.
- 8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 9. Coin toss.

WILD CARD TIES

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken.

- 1. If the tied clubs are from the samne division, apply the division tiebreaker.
- 2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps.

Two Clubs

- 1. Head-to-Head, if applicable.
- 2. Best won-lost-tied percentage played within the conference.
- 3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games. minimum of four
- 4. Best average net points in conference games.
- 5. Best net points in all games.
- 6. Strength of schedule
- 7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 8. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after third or other clubs are eliminated, tiebreaker reverts to step 1 of applicable two-club format.

- 1. Apply the division tiebreaker to eliminate all but the highest ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tiebreaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the three Wild Card participants.
- 2. Head-to-Head sweep (applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others).
- 3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- 4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
- 5. Best average net points in conference games.
- 6. Best net points in all games.
- 7. Strength of schedule.
- 8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 9. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card, i.e. eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step 2, and repeated a third time, if necessary, to identify the third Wild Card. In situations where three or more teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tiebreaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

SAINTS TRAIN AT WISCONSIN-LA CROSSE

For the 11th consecutive summer, the Saints will hold at their training camp at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. It marks the longest stretch the Saints have utilized a training site. They held their camp at Dodgertown in Vero Beach, Fla. for 10 seasons (1974, 76-84).

Founded in 1909 as the La Crosse Normal School with 176 students, UW-La Crosse is now one of 13 four-year campuses in the University of Wisconsin system, with an enrollment of about 8,700. The University, which is know for its strong physical education program, offers nearly 80 undergraduate curriculums in four colleges - Business Administration; Liberal Studies; Science and Health; and Health, Physical Education and Recreation. Master's degrees are offered in 18 disciplines. The 119-acre campus sits in a residential section of La Crosse, a town with a population of about 50,000, midway between towering bluffs and the Mississippi River.

Players will report to the University Thursday, July 23. They are scheduled to break camp Thursday, August 20. From July 30 - August 1, the team will practice with the Chicago Bears in La Crosse, on August 4, the Saints will practice with the Minnesota Vikings in Mankato, Minn., and on August 11, the Saints will practice with the Dallas Cowboys in Shreveport, La.

FOLLOWING THE SAINTS

The Saints have a number of team-affiliated media outlets, including radio, television, print as well as the internet. In addition to the weekly games broadcast on a regional radio network, the Saints have media partnerships that produce weekly radio programs, weekly TV programs, a weekly newspaper and a homepage on the internet.

RADIO

WWL Newsradio (870 AM) is the flagship of the Saints radio network that extends the play-byplay action of Saints football into five states on approximately 35 stations. Jim Henderson describes the play-by play and former Saints' tackle Stan Brock provides color commentary for the 16 regular season games. During preseason, veteran broadcaster Kenny Trahan handles the radio play-byplay with Ed Daniels providing color.

The Mike Ditka Show airs live on WWL Newsradio 870 every Tuesday night, 6:15-7 p.m., during the regular season and playoffs.

Team president Bill Kuharich also hosts a weekly radio show, the time for which was not determined at media guide press time.

TV

In 1998, WVUE Fox 8, airs three evenings of Saints-themed special programming featuring Mike Ditka, in addition to providing the local outlet for most of the Saints' regular season telecasts.

The WVUE special programming encompasses the following: Ditka Game Day, Sunday 10:30 am; Ditka Review, Sunday 10:30 pm; and Ditka Live, Friday 9:30 pm.

WWL-TV (CBS) provides preseason game telecasts to the New Orleans market; live coverage of all away games and sold-out home games. Home games not sold out 72 hours in advance are televised on a taped-delay basis.

Henderson and former Saints quarterback Archie Manning will handle play-by-play and color respectively for preseason contests.

PRINT

Saints Digest is the official journal of Saints football published weekly during the season and periodically during the other months of the year. Saints Digest is available by subscription or on newsstands at selected locations. It includes features, columns, photos, fan opinion and news of the team. Subscription Information: 1-800-334-4005.

INTERNET

The Saints and NFL Enterprises, through ESPN, maintain a home page at the NFL's Website: http://www.nfl.com/saints. This site is updated daily when necessary to bring news and other upto-date information to cyberfans. The Saints page includes sound bites, video and other interactive features.

NOTES

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS FACILITY

On April 15, 1996, a first in New Orleans Saints history occurred when the entire organization moved into the club's new facility, located at 5800 Airline Drive in Metairie. It's the first time ever that Saints coaches, players and staff have been housed under one roof.

The two story, 65,000 square foot facility, which is situated on a 19.2 acre tract, contains three practice fields. Two, which are laid out symmetrically, are planted with Bermuda grass and are surrounded by an asphalt, half-mile running track. The third field is made up of 70 yards of artificial turf and 50 yards of grass. Also outside is a full-length basketball court.

The first floor is approximately 43,000 square feet, and serves primarily the needs of the players. It also consists of a reception area, ticket office, media workroom and storage areas.

The lockerroom, which is completely carpeted, contains 75 lockers, each 44 inches wide. Adjacent to the lockeroom are a players lounge and shower area that includes a built-in whirlpool and cold dip pool, sauna room and steam room. The training room consists of nine treatment tables, a three-man taping station, three therapeutic whirlpools, one Hydro Track and Biodex rehabilitation equipment. The equipment room, which includes a loading dock making it accessible for 18-wheeler tractor trailers, is 3,600 square feet. The weight room, also fully carpeted, is 4,050 square feet.

A 1,700 square foot auditorium which sits on the first floor, can seat 110 players for team meetings, and can be divided into two rooms. On either side of the auditorium, are eight smaller team meeting rooms.

Located on the second story are offices for coaches, player personnel, the video department and administrative staff. It has the capacity for an additional 23,000 square feet.
