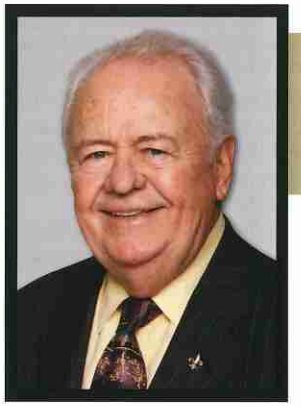
OWNERSHIP



Tom BENSON
OWNER/PRESIDENT

Through ownership of the Saints, it has been Tom Benson's unwavering goal to place the city of New Orleans, the State of Louisiana and the Gulf Coast region at the forefront of professional sports while having the team support the community through economic, civic and charitable endeavors. It's a mission that has been consistently met – on and off the field – since Benson purchased the club in 1985.

Never has his resolve and devotion to his hometown been more evident than since 2005, as Benson has positioned the Saints as a leader in the recovery of a region that was ravaged by Hurricane Katrina, the worst natural disaster in our nation's history. His efforts have helped lift the community, with the team serving as an economic engine, a pacesetter in philanthropic contributions and as a rallying point.

With the area's resources still on the mend a year ago, the population scattered and scars fresh, Benson immediately stepped forward. He recognized the Saints were a fixture of the community, a source of pride and a difference-maker when it came to supporting everything from charities to the local economy. Benson pledged that his club's commitment was firm and lasting, and that it would be on the leading edge of the recovery. Then he rolled up his sleeves and went to work, and his focus in building a stronger, better and unified region continues to evolve and expand.

Under Benson's direction, the Saints became a focal point for healing and restoration even before the 2006 season. Beyond the team's annual charitable impact, the club raised well over a $1 million in its Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund and donated $100,000 to renovate the city's NFL YET Center. His vision of what an NFL club should be – proactive, with a positive impact on the prosperity of the community and the charities that support the less fortunate – has been the determining factor of the Saints' approach.

Then Benson and the Saints ignited the passions of the fan base by hiring coach Sean Payton – who was voted the NFL Coach of the Year – signing one of the most sought-after free agents in Drew Brees and drafting Heisman Trophy-winner Reggie Bush, college football's most exciting player. They were the most notable of several additions as the club prepared for the most memorable year in franchise history.

Once the 2006 season kicked off, the team captured attention worldwide with three-straight victories, including its nationally-televised homecoming over Atlanta at the Superdome. By season's end, the Saints became symbolic of the region's resolve and grit, winning the NFC South title and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the first time in club history. While the team thrived, Benson as usual chose to work quietly in the background and let others take the credit.

His tenure as owner has been defined by dedication, loyalty and commitment to the city, region, Saints and the NFL. When Benson initially became interested in purchasing the club, he was motivated by reports that out-of-town investors were planning to move the club from New Orleans. He was certainly a fan of the game and the Saints, but the sport had yet to become one of Benson's passions.

As one of the area's top businessmen, Benson recognized the importance of the team to the region, and he immediately spearheaded the effort to keep the Saints. But unlike others at the time, it wasn't just an emotional plea. He pooled all of his resources, purchased the club and preserved the Saints for the team's legion of fans across the area. And the once-rampant speculation that the club was moving immediately ceased.

While Benson's initial motivation for purchasing the team was to ensure it did not leave New Orleans, all of the Saints' best seasons have come since his arrival, and Benson's goal remains for the club to rank among the most-admired franchises in all of sports. He has worked tirelessly toward that mission since becoming owner in 1985.

So perhaps the Saints' fortunes in 2006 were to be expected. Since Benson became owner, it's no coincidence the period ranks as the most successful and dynamic in franchise history. Prior to his arrival, Saints fans had never enjoyed a winning record, celebrated a division title or experienced the thrill of a playoff victory. Football was a new business for Benson when he arrived on the scene, but he was a quick learner and followed his lifelong professional philosophy of finding the right people and giving them the freedom to handle their responsibilities.

A year after he was able to put his management group in place, New Orleans stormed to a 12-3 record in 1987 and the city hosted its first playoff contest. In 1990, the Saints captured a playoff berth, and the following year the club earned its first division title. In 1992, New Orleans would go 12-4 and marched into the postseason again. And in 2000, the Saints won the NFC West and the club's first playoff contest.

Benson also emerged as one of the most trusted and valued figures in the league. He has played a key role in many capacities, including three stints as Chairman of the Finance Committee, one of the league's most difficult, time-consuming and influential positions. The assignment is evidence of the respect and esteem in which he is held by fellow owners.

While his work within the organization and the Saints' turnaround is well documented, his efforts have also paid dividends for the city and the surrounding area. During his tenure as owner, the city has hosted four Super Bowls. Each time New Orleans has been chosen to host the NFL's biggest game, Benson has been the driving force in the campaign to secure the contest. And each Super Bowl has been an economic windfall that totals over $300 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions that the league makes during Super Bowl week.

Community involvement has been the hallmark of the Benson era since he became the owner of the team, and because of those efforts the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame has twice recognized the club as one of the five most charitable professional organizations. Annually the Saints put more than $5 million back into Greater New Orleans and the Gulf South in cash, goods and services. Recently, Mr. and Mrs. Benson unveiled plans to fund the building of a football stadium that will be located on the University of Incarnate Word Campus, which will be known as the Gayle and Tom Benson Field. Mrs. Benson is also involved in several charitable endeavors, including supporting local and regional Catholic causes.

In 1945, Mr. Benson served in the Navy aboard the U.S.S. South Dakota and has remained particularly close to this branch of the armed forces. He is the only enlisted man to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Pensacola Naval Museum and has been honored with an award from the crew of the submarine U.S.S. Louisiana.

A leading advocate for the National World War II Memorial in Washington D.C., Benson was also a major contributor to The National D-Day Museum in New Orleans, with his pledges helping fund the Pacific Exhibit Grand Opening and the Midway Theater.

Benson is married to the former Gayle Marie LaJaunie, a native of New Orleans. The couple were introduced in April 2004 and married in October of that year. Because of Benson's personal and business relationships, over 2,000 guests attended a three-day celebration, with a party at the New Orleans Museum of Art followed by a Catholic Mass at the Immaculate Conception Memorial Chapel.

MILESTONES

1985 Ownership of club officially transferred to Tom Benson on May 31 and he becomes managing general partner of the Saints. With training camp almost a month away, Benson maintained the team management group that he inherited.

1986 The Benson influence really begins, as the Owner puts his management team in charge of the franchise. His first hire: Jim Finks as president/general manager on Jan. 14. Jim Mora is named the club's 10th head coach two weeks later.

1987 The Saints post a franchise-best 12-3 record – including victories in the final nine contests – and make the playoffs for the first time.

1988 The Saints finish 10-6, posting consecutive winning seasons for the first time.

1989 Benson appointed Chairman of the league's most influential group, the NFL Finance Committee, a position he kept before stepping down in the mid-1990s.

1991 New Orleans clinched its first-ever division championship at 11-5 as the Superdome hosts its first playoff game.

1992 Saints post a 12-4 record and host a playoff game for the second-straight year. Benson assumes sole ownership of the club.

1996 Marking a first for the organization, the coaches, players and staff are housed under one roof with the opening of the team's state-of-the-art facility.

1999 Benson promises the club's fans he will "take whatever steps necessary at the end of the season to make the New Orleans Saints a winning franchise."

2000 New Orleans wins the NFC West with a 10-6 record. The Saints win their first playoff game, a 31-28 thriller over St. Louis in the Superdome.

2001 New Orleans hosts fourth Super Bowl during Benson's tenure as Owner.

2003 Benson again appointed Chairman of the Finance Committee; Construction of new indoor practice facility and other improvements are finished before camp.

2004 The Saints notched the 150th win since Benson assumed ownership with a 28-25 overtime victory at St. Louis.

2005 After Hurricane Katrina ravaged the Gulf South on the verge of the NFL's opening weekend, Benson was forced to move the club's entire operation. Under his leadership, the Saints were able to continue the season, including holding four games in Baton Rouge.

2006 The team returns to Louisiana, with Benson positioning the club as an emblem of the state's resolve and determination in rebuilding. The Saints win the NFC South title at 10-6 and the club advances to the NFC Championship for the first time in franchise history.

Rita Benson LeBlanc
OWNER/EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Owner/Executive Vice President Rita Benson LeBlanc oversees the business and administrative operations of the New Orleans Saints, including sales, marketing, community and youth programs, game entertainment, and stadium operations. LeBlanc was formally named to her position with the club in 2006, after having assumed many of the same responsibilities during the 2005 season in which the team was forced to evacuate to San Antonio in the wake of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. During that period LeBlanc, under the leadership of Saints owner Tom Benson, played a critical role in securing the return of the Saints to New Orleans. Since the team's return, LeBlanc has focused her efforts on fulfilling Tom Benson's pledge to Saints fans throughout the Gulf South "to build a winning team, on and off the field, and be leaders in the rebuilding of the Gulf South."

In addition to a successful year on the field for the Saints in 2006, LeBlanc led a record setting sales and marketing effort off the field. Before the team took the field to reopen the Superdome on ESPN's Monday Night Football September 25, 2006 the club achieved a season ticket sellout for the first time in its forty year history. In addition, the team was named 2006 Marketer of the Year by the American Marketing Association's New Orleans region chapter and also received the 2007 MAX Award for its 2006 "Winning is An Attitude" advertising campaign. These successes were followed by another season ticket sellout for the 2007 season as well as a sellout of all Superdome Luxury Suites.

In her role as Owner/Executive Vice President, LeBlanc represents the club at NFL Ownership Meetings, chairing the NFL Employee Benefits Committee and serving on the newly formed NFL International Committee. Her close working relationship with the League office has proved to be beneficial in securing League grants and programs that benefit Gulf South youth and charitable initiatives.

LeBlanc, along with Saints owner Tom Benson, has made the team's role in the rebuilding and growth of New Orleans and the Gulf South a priority. In addition to taking an active role in the team's expansive community, youth and charitable efforts, LeBlanc serves on the United Way Board of Trustees, the New Orleans Business Council, the Board of Trustees of Loyola University, the Shirley Landry Benson PACE Center at St. Cecilia, and the Oblate Missionary Partnership. She is also involved with significant efforts to support coastal preservation and flood protection, working with Women of the Storm and The Coast Guardians to raise public awareness of these critical issues. These efforts have included lobbying members of Congress in Washington, DC, creating public service announcements and recruiting players and their families to lend their support to the mission.

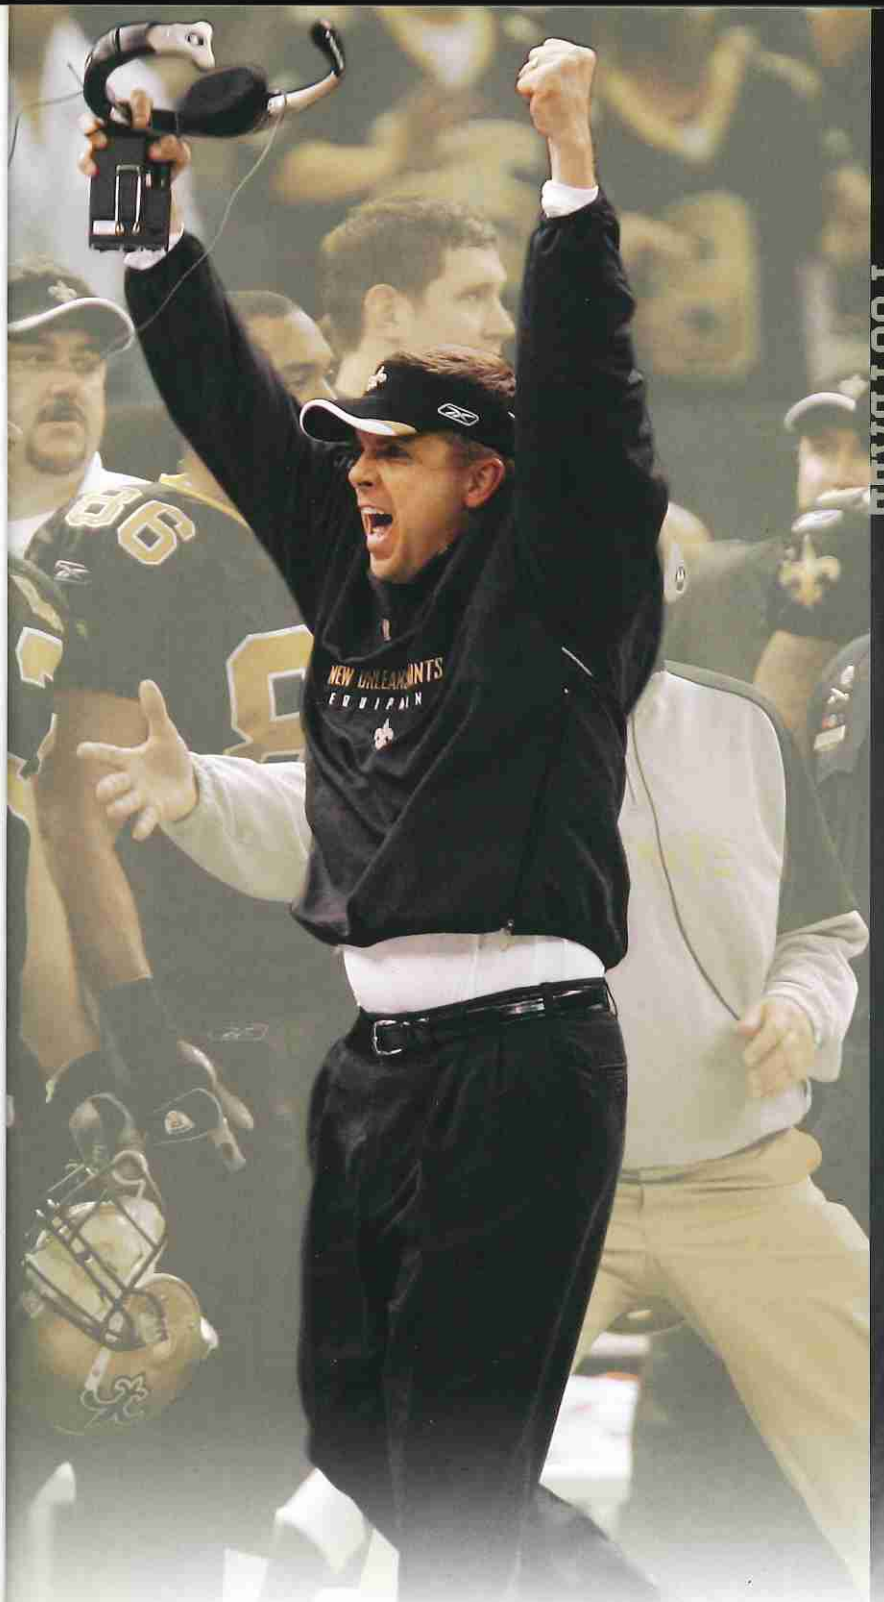
LeBlanc was recognized for her work on behalf of the team and community in 2007 by being named one of the forty most influential sports executives under the age of forty by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal. She also was awarded the inaugural "Changing Louisiana Award" by Louisiana Lt. Governor Mitch Landrieu for her volunteerism and social entrepreneurship on behalf of the state.

In addition to her position with the Saints, LeBlanc serves as Owner/Executive Vice President of the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League and has played a key role in the development of the team since the franchise was awarded in 2002. In 2004, LeBlanc was named AFL Executive of the Year and she currently serves on the Executive Committee and is Vice-Chair of the Properties Committee. Under her leadership, the VooDoo set a league record for season ticket sales in 2007 and led the AFL in attendance. With AFL board support, she and Tom Benson helped to secure ArenaBowl XXI for New Orleans, the first professional sports league championship game held in the city since Hurricane Katrina.

LeBlanc is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a B.S. in Agribusiness, and a certificate in International Business from the Mays School of Business. She was a member of the inaugural class of the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business. Her previous sports experience includes roles with the NFL in New York, the NFL Properties Publishing Group in Los Angeles and NFL Films in Mount Laurel, N.J.



Mickey LOOMIS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ GENERAL MANAGER

Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis is responsible for the club's entire football operations. The departments that fall under Loomis' direction include coaching, player personnel, salary cap management and contract negotiations, as well as athletic training, communications, equipment, and video.

Loomis was promoted to General Manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of Executive Vice President later that year. His title and authority have evolved but he has been a part of the club's highest management team since arriving in 2000. In his former post as Director of Football Administration, Loomis handled contract negotiations and managed the salary cap.

In 2006, Loomis was a key figure in hiring coach Sean Payton, signing QB Drew Brees and in the Saints having one of the most productive drafts in club history. After rebuilding the roster, the club finished 10-6, defeated Philadelphia in the playoffs and advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the first time.

Following the season, Loomis was selected as the 2006 NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America and was also honored as the George Young NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, voted on annually by league front-office executives and owners. Since February, the team has re-signed several key veterans – including DE Charles Grant, LB Scott Shanle and DT Hollis Thomas – added a handful of productive free agents and had another solid effort in the draft.

In 2005, Loomis helped lead the club through unprecedented challenges for an NFL team. His influence guided the players and staff through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans and several moves of the team's base of operations.

Loomis – also the General Manager of the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League – was a guiding force in the 2003 construction at the Saints' headquarters, a renovation that has given the club one of the NFL's top facilities.

Prior to joining the Saints, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to executive vice president in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has an undergraduate degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University. Loomis has two children: A son, Alex, and a daughter, Katherine.

Sean PAYTON
HEAD COACH

After leading the club through the most successful and memorable year in franchise history, Sean Payton enters his second season as head coach of the New Orleans Saints. In 2006, Payton directed the Saints to a division title, the NFC Championship Game and was the unanimous choice for NFL Coach of the Year.

The Saints went 10-6 last season and advanced further into the postseason than ever before with an overhauled roster that included 11 new starters. Payton scrapped the NFL's traditional timetable for rebuilding and changed the culture within the team by stressing responsibility, character and unity. New Orleans stormed to a 3-0 start for the first time under a new coach, featured the league's top-ranked offense – another first in team history – and clinched the NFC South title before the season finale.

When the season came to a close, Payton was voted the Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Maxwell Club. Now Payton has put the accomplishments of 2006 in the history books, and set the club's focus on the future.

Payton was hired as the 14th head coach in Saints history on Jan. 18, 2006 after being a member of the Dallas Cowboys staff since 2003. In 2007 he enters his 11th season in the NFL and 20th as a coach. Prior to his final season with the Cowboys, Payton was promoted to assistant head coach/passing game coordinator and was responsible for the team's play-calling.

For the previous two years with Dallas, he had been assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Prior to joining the Cowboys in 2003, he was with the New York Giants (1999-2002) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1997-98).

Payton has had particular success tutoring quarterbacks since arriving in the NFL. Last season, QB Drew Brees had perhaps the finest season for a quarterback in club history, setting team records with a league-high 4,418 yards, 356 completions and a 96.2 passer rating.

With Payton handling the play-calling, the Saints' offense ranked No. 1 in the NFL (averaging 391.5 yards per contest), set club records with 330 first downs and 6,264 net yards and tied a team mark by scoring 49 touchdowns. New Orleans rushed for 1,761 yards and 19 TDs and was the only team in the league with four players with over 650 receiving yards.

Since 2000, every passer under Payton's guidance has thrown for over 3,000 yards. The three starting quarterbacks he worked with in Dallas – Drew Bledsoe in 2005, Vinny Testaverde in 2004 and Quincy Carter in 2003 – all surpassed the milestone. Bledsoe threw for 3,639 yards – third in club history – and posted an 83.7 passer rating, among the highest of his career.

In 2005, the Cowboys had the NFL's 13th-ranked offense and finished tied for second in the NFC with 318 first downs. When Payton arrived the Cowboys had ranked 31st in passing the previous year but immediately improved to 17th, as Carter became the first Dallas quarterback to throw for over 3,000 yards since 1997. In 2004 and 2005, the team ranked 15th in the league in passing.

Payton came to Dallas after four years with the New York Giants, the last three as offensive coordinator. The Giants had one of the NFL's most productive offenses and QB Kerry Collins posted franchise-record passing numbers. Behind his club-record 4,073 passing yards, the Giants finished 2002 as the NFL's sixth-ranked offense, the team's highest ranking since 1985.

Payton solidified his reputation as one of the game's top offensive minds in 2000. In his first season as coordinator, the Giants captured the NFC title and went to Super Bowl XXXV. New York scored 328 points – the club's highest total since 1990 – finished 13th in the NFL in offense and jumped from 24th to 11th in rushing.

Payton was first assigned play-calling duties prior to a game against the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999. The Giants responded by scoring 41 points and gaining 490 yards – both season-high totals – and he retained that assignment over the final five games. Appointed the offensive coordinator the following season, over the next three years the Giants passing attack continually improved, ranking 13th in the NFL in 2000, tied for eighth in 2001 and sixth in 2002. In the decade prior to Payton's arrival, the Giants hadn't ranked above 20th.

The Giants players under his guidance during those years flourished. WR Amani Toomer became the first player in club history to catch at least 70 passes in four seasons (1999-2002), and the first with four-consecutive 1,000-yard seasons. RB Tiki Barber set a franchise record for total yards in 2000 with 2,085 and in 2002 finished second in the NFC in rushing.

Payton joined the Giants as quarterbacks coach on Feb. 3, 1999. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent 1997 and 1998 as Philadelphia's quarterbacks coach.

Payton wrapped two coaching stints at San Diego State University (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). During his second stretch

SEPT. 10 AT CLEVELAND BROWNS

In Payton's head coaching debut, the Saints never trailed in a 19-14 win. He joined Dick Nolan (1978) as the only head coaches to open their careers in New Orleans with a win.

SEPT. 17 AT GREEN BAY PACKERS

A trio of Saints turnovers pushed the Packers ahead 13-0, forcing Payton's play-calling to shift primarily to the passing game. QB Drew Brees threw for 353 yards as the Saints responded with 20 unanswered points and prevailed for a 34-27 win. Payton became the first coach in club history to lead the Saints to back-to-back road victories to open a season.

SEPT. 25 VS. ATLANTA FALCONS

In a dramatic return to the Louisiana Superdome, the Saints topped their division rivals, 23-3. Payton gave the game ball to the city of New Orleans, presented to Dallas Mavericks head coach and New Orleans native Avery Johnson, who spoke to the team before the contest.

OCT. 15 VS. PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

In a game where both teams entered at 4-1, the Saints earned a 27-24 victory. A 72-yard, 16-play drive that chewed up the final 8:26 led to a game-winning field goal. The Saints headed into their bye week at 5-1, the best record for a new coach after six games in club history.

NOV. 26 AT ATLANTA FALCONS

After going 1-3 in their previous four games, the Saints improved to 7-4 and 4-1 in the NFC South with a sweep of the Falcons. New Orleans held Atlanta to 52 yards passing, and Brees set a club record with his fifth-straight game with over 300 yards.

DEC. 3 VS. SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS

After trailing early the Saints responded with a flurry of points in a 34-10 victory. Payton also showed his willingness to forgo a punt. He called for a Deuce McAllister run on 4th-and-1 at the San Francisco 48 late in the second quarter, with the two-yard pickup leading to a TD by Reggie Bush a few minutes later.

DEC. 10 AT DALLAS COWBOYS

At 8-4 the Saints had played their way onto national television, appearing on NBC's Sunday Night Football at Payton's former home. The Saints had a sparkling performance in a 42-17 win against the NFC East-leading Cowboys. New Orleans converted a 4th-and-1 on their first scoring march.

DEC. 24 AT NEW YORK GIANTS

In another trip to a former team where Payton coached, the Saints clinched the NFC South title with a 30-7 victory. Bush and McAllister combined to give the Saints a pair of 100-yard rushers, and the Saints broke a club record for total offense in a season. Payton remained aggressive in his play-calling, converting four of six on 4th down, including a touchdown.

JAN. 13, 2007 VS. PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

The Saints trailed 21-13 in the third quarter, but stormed back behind a pair of TDs by McAllister. A late stand by the defense helped preserve the 27-24 victory, and the Saints were able to run out the final 1:48 as Payton leads New Orleans to the second postseason win in club history.

JAN. 21, 2007 AT CHICAGO BEARS

New Orleans trailed by four early in the fourth quarter in the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship, but four turnovers proved to be too much to overcome. Said Payton: "I was proud of the effort. It's tough to finish like this, but to have had the opportunity was a good foundation to build on."

with the Aztecs, Payton was running backs coach, working with Heisman Trophy runner-up Marshall Faulk before becoming quarterbacks coach.

Following the 1993 season, Payton moved to Miami of Ohio (1994-95) where he was quarterbacks coach prior to being promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He spent 1996 as quarterbacks coach at Illinois prior to entering the NFL with Philadelphia.

Payton earned a degree in communication at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. The three-time AP All-American selection followed his college career with professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000.

Gary GIBBS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

When Sean Payton was hired, the first coach he pursued for his staff was defensive coordinator Gary Gibbs, and the addition of the experienced coach immediately paid dividends as Gibbs melded a unit with five new starters into one of the NFL's most improved defenses. New Orleans ranked 11th in the league in defense in 2006, including third vs. the pass by allowing just 178.4 yards per contest.

With the disciplined, aggressive approach that Gibbs instilled, the Saints surrendered 17 points or less in eight games and gave up 76 points fewer than it had the year before. New Orleans posted 38 sacks and had 10 players record over 50 tackles. The Saints finished second in the NFC in the fewest first downs allowed (262), led the conference in pass defense and ranked sixth in the league in third-down efficiency allowed (34.7).

Gibbs came to New Orleans after spending the previous four years as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys, where he served on the same staff as Payton from 2003-05. It was Gibbs' first NFL assignment after accumulating 22 years of college coaching experience, including six as head coach at the University of Oklahoma.

During Gibbs' tenure in Dallas, the linebackers were one of the club's most productive position groups and led an aggressive, opportunistic defense. Each year under his direction, linebackers finished at the top of the club's tackle charts and posted some of the best totals in franchise history. It was also with Dallas where Gibbs first worked with current Saints' standouts Scott Fujita (2005) and Scott Shanle (2003-05).

In 2005, Gibbs played a key role in the Cowboys' transition to a 3-4 defensive alignment. With young players and first-year starters filling key positions, the linebackers were the defense's top playmakers. In his first year in Dallas after being acquired in a trade on the eve of the regular-season opener, Fujita had 58 tackles, a pair of sacks and two forced fumbles while starting the last eight games.

The Cowboys' three starting linebackers finished 2004 ranked in the top six on the team in tackles. Dat Nguyen was the club leader with 135 stops and added a career-high three interceptions. In 2003, the linebacker corps led the Cowboys defensive charge with the top two tacklers on the squad. In Gibbs' first season in Dallas, LB Dexter Coakley led the club with 173 stops, the second-highest total in club history.

Gibbs joined the Cowboys following consecutive one-year stints as the defensive coordinator at LSU (2001) and the University of Georgia (2000). During his lone season in Baton Rouge, the Tigers compiled a 10-3 record, took the SEC title and won the Nokia Sugar Bowl. LSU ranked 21st nationally against the run and led the SEC with 18 interceptions. In his year at Georgia, the Bulldogs ranked 19th in the nation in total defense and 12th in scoring defense by allowing just 18 points per game.

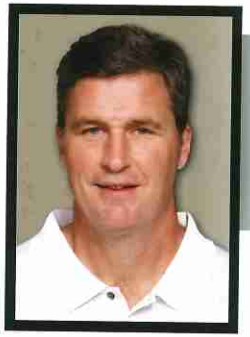
Gibbs spent 23 years at the University of Oklahoma as a player, assistant and head coach. During that time, the Sooners played in 16 bowl games and won three national titles. In his six seasons as the head coach (1989-94), Gibbs guided the Sooners to three bowl games and an overall record of 44-23-2. After taking over the program, he continued the school's tradition of success, improving Oklahoma's record each of his first three seasons and won bowl games in 1991 and 1993.

Gibbs began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma in 1975 and was promoted to linebackers coach three years later. In 1981, he was named defensive coordinator and Gibbs held that post until taking over as head coach in 1989. During his stretch as defensive coordinator, the Sooners captured the 1985 national title, and the defense led the nation three straight years (1985-87).

Gibbs was a linebacker at Oklahoma from 1972 to 1974, a span that saw the Sooners post a 32-1-1 overall mark and finish No. 1 in the nation in 1974 – with Gibbs recording 114 tackles as a starter. The Sooners ranked second in the nation in 1972 and finished third the following year. Before joining the coaching staff at Oklahoma, Gibbs went to training camp with the New England Patriots as a free agent in 1975.

He earned his undergraduate degree in marketing from Oklahoma in 1974 and his master's degree in business from his alma mater in 1976. A native of Beaumont, Texas, Gibbs lettered in both football (linebacker) and baseball (shortstop) at Spring Branch (Texas) HS. He and his wife Jeanne, have two daughters, Whitley and Jordan.

PLAYING CAREER: Oklahoma, 1972-74.
COACHING CAREER: Oklahoma 1975-94 (head coach 1989-94); Georgia, 2000; Louisiana State, 2001; Dallas Cowboys, 2002-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.



Doug MARRONE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR /OFFENSIVE LINE

Following the most prolific offensive season in franchise history, Doug Marrone enters his second year in New Orleans as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach. Marrone will continue to supervise the offense as well as tutor the linemen.

Under Marrone's guidance in 2006, the Saints featured the NFL's top-ranked offense for the first time. The team averaged 391.5 yards per game and set club records with 6,264 net yards, 330 first downs, an average of 5.8 yards per play and 4,503 passing yards. Drew Brees became the first passer in team history to throw for over 4,000 yards with a league-high 4,418, Reggie Bush set an NFL record for a rookie running back with 88 catches and the Saints were the only team with four players with over 650 receiving yards.

The front line was a key part of that success. Marrone took a unit that had a different starter at every spot from the season before and made it into one of the strengths of the team. In his first season at left tackle, Jammal Brown was voted All-Pro and to the Pro Bowl, and Jahri Evans was a unanimous All-Rookie selection. The Saints allowed just 23 sacks despite 580 passing attempts, and the club rushed for 1,761 yards and 19 touchdowns.

Marrone was hired by New Orleans Jan. 27, 2006 after serving as the offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2002-05. Over that span Marrone molded a unit of both veterans and young players into one of the club's most consistent position groups. During Marrone's four-year stretch with New York, the Jets played in four playoff games (two in 2002 and a pair in 2004).

In 2004, the offensive line paved the way for the Jets to finish third in the NFL in rushing yards (2,388) and second in rushing first downs (135) as the offense posted one of the highest rushing averages (4.5) in club history. RB Curtis Martin led the league with 1,697 yards and posted nine 100-yard games.

In 2003, the offensive line helped the offense average 5.3 yards per play and 4.0 per rushing attempt. In Marrone's first season with the Jets, despite having two new starters the line led the way for the offense to rush for 1,618 yards.

Marrone arrived in New York after spending 2001 at the University of Tennessee as tight ends and tackles coach. Marrone spent a season at the University of Georgia (2000) after serving from 1995-99 at Georgia Tech.

During his stint with the Yellow Jackets, Marrone was the director of football operations (1995), tight ends coach (1996) and the offensive line coach (1997-99). In 1999, the Yellow Jackets finished first nationally in total offense, averaging 509.4 yards and 40.7 points per game. Georgia Tech participated in a bowl game each season from 1997-99.

He began his coaching career in 1992 at Cortland (N.Y.) State as a tight ends coach before stints as offensive line coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy (1993) and Northeastern University (1994).

Selected in the sixth round in 1986, Marrone was drafted by the Los Angeles Raiders and played in two seasons in the NFL; first with the Miami Dolphins in 1987 and with the Saints in 1989. Marrone also had stints with Pittsburgh, Dallas and Minnesota before closing his career with the NFLE London Monarchs (1991-92).

A three-year letterman at Syracuse (1983-85), Marrone returned to the school and graduated in 1991. He and his wife, Helen, have two daughters, Madeline and Anne, and a son, Mack.

Joe VITT

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ LINEBACKERS

Entering his 29th NFL season, assistant head coach/linebackers Joe Vitt is coming off another impressive coaching achievement in a career that has been defined by creating solid, rugged linebacker units that yearly rank among their defense's top performers. Despite the Saints having three new starters in 2006, under Vitt's guidance the linebacker corps emerged as one of the club's strengths last season.

That scenario has been a constant during his time in the NFL, as Vitt has annually developed players by relying on his skills as a communicator and teacher. In 2006, Scott Fujita, Mark Simoneau and Scott Shanle were new additions with the Saints, with Simoneau and Shanle arriving in New Orleans a few weeks into training camp. Despite their late arrival, a new system and little time for Vitt to get them acclimated, Fujita and Shanle were the team's top two tacklers, and Simoneau ranked fourth. The threesome combined for 309 tackles, 8.5 sacks, three interceptions, 11 pass defenses and three forced fumbles.

Vitt came to the Saints after proving his mettle yet again in 2005 when he was thrust into the role as interim head coach for the final 11 games in St. Louis. He held the Rams together during a difficult period after previously holding the title of assistant head coach/linebackers. It was part of a two-year stint with the Rams where he also turned a handful of young defenders into a unit that paced the team in tackles each season.

He joined St. Louis after working as linebackers coach in Kansas City from 2000-03. It was with the Chiefs where he first worked with Fujita, a fifth-round pick who developed into one of Kansas City's top defenders and led the club in tackles for two seasons.

Vitt took over the linebacker corps in Kansas City after tutoring the defensive backs for Green Bay in 1999, molding a legion of rookies and young players into a formidable unit that doubled the Packers' previous-year total by picking off 26 passes. One of the players he developed was CB Mike McKenzie, who was selected to several all-rookie teams that year and is now with the Saints.

From 1995-98, Vitt was linebackers coach for Philadelphia. In 1998, his group helped the Eagles lead the NFL in pass defense, allowing 170 yards per game. Vitt was assistant head coach and defensive backs coach with the Rams under Chuck Knox from 1992-94 for the franchise's final three seasons in Los Angeles.

Vitt spent 10 seasons with the Seattle Seahawks (1982-91), holding several titles during that stretch. In 1982 he was defensive quality control coach/assistant strength & conditioning coach. From 1983-87 Vitt was quality control/assistant linebackers coach, and from 1988-91 he tutored the safeties.

Vitt, who was born in Syracuse, N.Y. and grew up in Blackwood, N.J., played four years at linebacker for Towson State and was part of a squad that went undefeated in 1974. He was later inducted into the Towson State Hall of Fame. Vitt entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Baltimore Colts as assistant strength/quality control coach from 1979-81.

Vitt is married to Linda, with two children: Joe, Jr. and daughter, Jennifer.

PLAYING CAREER: Towson State, 1974-77.
COACHING CAREER: Baltimore Colts, 1979-81; Seattle Seahawks, 1982-91; Los Angeles Rams, 1992-94; Philadelphia Eagles, 1995-98; Green Bay Packers, 1999; Kansas City Chiefs, 2000-03; St. Louis Rams (head coach, final 11 games of 2005), 2004-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

John BONAMEGO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

An early addition to Sean Payton's coaching staff when the head coach arrived in 2006, John Bonamengo only solidified his reputation as one of the NFL's most accomplished special teams coaches in his first season in New Orleans. Behind Bonamego's detail-intensive approach, his units came up with a handful of game-changing plays and were consistently productive in all facets of special teams play.

Against Atlanta in the Superdome, S Steve Gleason blocked a punt that was recovered for a first-quarter touchdown that permanently shifted the momentum in the contest. Later in the game the Saints also blocked a field goal, leading to a quick scoring drive for New Orleans. In Week Five vs. Tampa Bay, a series of key blocks helped spring RB Reggie Bush for a 65-yard, game-winning punt return for a touchdown to lift the Saints to victory. For his efforts, Bush was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

On Dec. 10 vs. Dallas, the Saints recovered an onside kick, leading to a 42-yard touchdown pass four plays later in the 42-17 victory. New Orleans finished the year tied for 10th in the NFL in the annual special teams rankings formulated by The Dallas Morning News, the fourth time in the last five years Bonamego's units have placed in the publication's top 10.

The Saints ranked sixth in the NFL in opponent punt return average (7.0) and fourth in the NFC in kickoff return average (23.0). New Orleans did not allow a kickoff return of more than 40 yards and the longest punt return the special teams surrendered last season was 31 yards.

Bonamego is entering is 20th year as a coach and ninth in the NFL. He was hired by the Saints after coaching the special teams in Green Bay from 2003-05. In his final season with the Packers, the team had the league's longest punt return for a touchdown (85 yards vs. Chicago), didn't allow a return touchdown, blocked a pair of PATs and a field goal attempt and ranked fifth in the NFC in punt return average.

Green Bay was one of only four teams in the NFL to not surrender a return touchdown or have a kick blocked in 2004 and the Packers placed in the top 10 in The Dallas Morning News rankings for a second-straight year. The Packers allowed only 20.2 yards on kickoffs and ranked sixth in field goal percentage (85.7). That season the club had four game-winning field goals – the most since the NFC/AFC merger.

COACHINGSTAFF

In 2003 – Bonamego's first season in Green Bay – The Dallas Morning News put the Packers eighth in the NFL in special teams. The Packers finished fourth in the league in field goal percentage, fifth in kick return average (26.7) and did not allow a blocked punt or field goal. Green Bay blocked a field goal and a punt in the same season for the first time since 1997 and won the NFC North title.

Bonamego came to the Packers after spending four years (1999-2002) at Jacksonville, including his final season as special teams coordinator. In 2002, Bonamego's units placed third in the rankings by The Dallas Morning News. The special teams blocked four kicks (two field goals and a pair of punts) and led the AFC in kick coverage (19.5). That year the Jaguars also led the AFC in gross and net punting average and were one of only two NFL teams to not allow a return touchdown or a blocked kick.

Bonamego (pronounced bohn-ah-MAY-go) joined the Jaguars in 1999, with Jacksonville posting an NFL-best 14-2 record that season. He worked for three years as assistant special teams coach under Larry Pasquale (1999) and Frank Gansz (2000-01) – considered two of the league's best special teams strategists. Bonamego was promoted in 2002 following the retirement of Gansz.

He arrived in Jacksonville after six seasons at Army, where Bonamego first assisted in coaching the outside linebackers (1993) before leading the special teams and recruiting efforts from 1994-98. He broke into college coaching at Maine, where he spent four years, two as a graduate assistant (1988-89) and two as wide receivers/special teams coach (1990-91). Bonamego worked at Lehigh in 1992, coaching running backs and assisting with special teams, which recorded three special teams TDs that season.

Born Aug. 14, 1963 in Waynesboro, Pa., Bonamego earlier spent a season coaching at Mt. Pleasant (Mich.) HS and a year as a player-coach in Europe with the Verona (Italy) Redskins. A former wide receiver and quarterback at Central Michigan, he earned a degree in health fitness from in 1987, then received his master's degree in physical education from Maine in 1992.

Bonamego and his wife, Paulette, have three children: Javier, Giovanni, and Bellina.

PLAYING CAREER: Central Michigan, 1983-86; Verona (Italy) Redskins, 1987.

George HENSHAW

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/RUNNING BACKS

George Henshaw, who during his career in the NFL has served as an assistant head coach, an offensive coordinator and tutored nearly every position group, put his vast experience to use in 2006 in building one of the league's most productive and dynamic backfields as the Saints' senior offensive assistant/running backs.

Last year, the Saints running back corps featured Deuce McAllister, Reggie Bush and fullback Mike Karney, and all three produced standout seasons under Henshaw's guidance. McAllister led the club with 1,057 yards and scored 11 touchdowns, while Bush set a league record for rookie running backs with 88 receptions and accounted for 1,307 yards of offense and eight TDs. Karney scored a career-high three touchdowns and was named second-team All-Pro.

As a unit in 2006, the running backs combined for 1,707 yards rushing with 18 touchdowns and a Saints' record of 158 receptions for 1,250 yards and five TDs. The 158 catches ranked first in the NFL by a backfield last season and was the third-highest total by a group of running backs in the league since 1983.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Henshaw spent nine seasons (1997-2005) with the Tennessee Titans, the last six as assistant head coach/offense. In 2000, the Titans represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXIV. In his position, Henshaw assisted in game-planning the offensive attack as well as coached the tight ends.

In the years Henshaw was with the Titans, the tight ends were an integral part in Tennessee's offense, with the group accounting for 149 receptions in 2005 – the second-highest single-season combined total for the tight ends in NFL history.

The Titans' tight ends caught 845 passes over Henshaw's nine seasons, the most in the NFL during that span. In eight of those nine seasons, the group recorded at least 70 receptions. During his time in Tennessee, Henshaw also groomed TE Frank Wycheck, who led the team in receptions five times and was voted to three Pro Bowls. In his final season, Wycheck became the fourth tight end in NFL history to record 500 career receptions.

Henshaw served as the offensive coordinator of the New York Giants from 1993-96. During that stretch, the Giants had one of the NFL's most productive running games, including a league-high average of 138.1 yards per game in 1993. Before joining the Giants, Henshaw spent five years (1988-92) with Denver, including as offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach in his final season. Prior to that,

Henshaw coached wide receivers in 1991, and the offensive line from 1988-90. In those years the Broncos won two AFC West titles and appeared in Super Bowl XXIV.

Henshaw was the head coach at the University of Tulsa in 1987 before arriving in Denver. He began his coaching career at his alma mater of West Virginia from 1970-75 before moving on to Florida State. He spent three years (1976-78) as defensive line coach and four years (1979-82) as offensive line coach.

From 1979-82 Henshaw also served as offensive coordinator, and in his first two years at that position FSU had a record of 21-1, and he helped head coach Bobby Bowden implement one of the best offensive systems in the country.

From 1983-86, Henshaw served as offensive coordinator for the University of Alabama. During that span, the Crimson Tide had one of the SEC's most productive offenses, and in his first season at the school Henshaw's unit led the SEC in scoring and total offense by averaging 424.4 yards per contest.

Born Jan. 22, 1948 and a native of Midlothian, Va., Henshaw is a 1970 graduate of West Virginia. He and his wife, Kathleen, have three children: Michael, Matthew and Kerry. Michael was a four-year football letterman at safety at West Virginia University and completed his master's degree in 2006. Matthew was a four-year letterman at tight end at Florida State and graduated in 2006. Kerry is a senior at the University of Alabama, majoring in textile and fashion design.

Dennis ALLEN

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

Dennis Allen enters his second season with New Orleans as assistant defensive line coach. The work of Allen and defensive line coach Marion Hobby with the unit in 2006 was instrumental in the Saints' front four emerging as a strength of the defense in 2006, with the line combining for over 290 tackles, 28.5 sacks, six forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries.

Last season, the defensive line sent Will Smith to the Pro Bowl, and he and Charles Grant combined to give New Orleans one of the league's best combinations at defensive end. Brian Young and Hollis Thomas gave the unit a solid duo inside, and young players such as Antwan Lake, Rodney Leisle and Josh Cooper developed into key contributors.

Allen joined the Saints after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Falcons, where he spent his final two years as defensive assistant/quality control, with an emphasis on working with the defensive line. Over the previous two seasons, he was in charge of defensive quality control while helping tutor the secondary.

Over his last two years in Atlanta, the Falcons' defense was paced by the play of the front four. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks and the unit sent DE Patrick Kerney to the Pro Bowl. In 2005 DT Rod Coleman represented the club in the postseason all-star game and the Falcons notched 37 sacks.

In 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, when he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield, the club tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions and improved from 30th vs. the pass in 2001 to 16th the following year.

Allen worked as the secondary coach for the University of Tulsa (2000-01) before heading to the NFL. Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Allen was on the coaching staff for four years (1996-99) at Texas A&M as a graduate assistant, working primarily with the school's secondary.

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen earned four letters for Texas A&M as a safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. A highlight was his fourth-quarter interception that clinched an 18-9 victory over Texas in 1993, sending the Aggies to their third-straight Cotton Bowl. He collected Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after intercepting two passes in a 36-14 win over Oklahoma in 1994.

Allen was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills and competed in their training camp in 1996. Allen's father, Grady, was a linebacker for the Falcons from 1969-72. He and his wife, Alisson, have a son, Garrison and a daughter, Layla.

Pete CARMICHAEL, JR.

QUARTERBACKS/PASSING GAME

After working daily with Drew Brees in 2006 during the top season for a passer in franchise history as the club's quarterbacks coach, Pete Carmichael, Jr. enters his second year on the New Orleans coaching staff.

Last season, Brees shattered most of the Saints' single-season passing records, including yardage (a league-leading 4,418), completions (356), rating (96.2) and completion percentage (64.3). The Saints led the NFL in total offense and featured the league's top-ranked passing attack. Brees and Carmichael had spent the previous four seasons in game-planning sessions when both were with the San Diego Chargers, with Carmichael serving as assistant wide receivers coach/quality control.

While tutoring quarterbacks, Carmichael brings the added perspective of having a wide range of coaching experiences, including working with nearly every position group on offense during his career. With the Chargers, he assisted wide receivers coach James Lofton for an offense that ranked 10th in the NFL in 2004 and 2005. Carmichael joined the Chargers in 2002 and served as offensive assistant/quality control until being promoted.

In 2001, Carmichael was quality control coach for the Washington Redskins, and in 2000, he was the tight ends and offensive assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns. From 1995-99, Carmichael was the quarterbacks coach at Louisiana Tech, and during his tenure the Bulldogs' QBs broke almost every passing record at the school. He began his coaching career as the assistant offensive line coach at the University of New Hampshire in 1994, with the Wildcats winning the Yankee Conference championship.

Born Oct. 6, 1971 in Framingham, Mass., Carmichael attended Medway (Mass.) HS where he played football and baseball. He went on to a collegiate playing career in baseball and was a four-year letterman at Boston College. As a senior, he was a team captain and Most Valuable Player. Carmichael graduated with a degree in mathematics in 1994.

Carmichael and his wife, Tina, have sons, Peter (8) and John (2), and daughter Allison (6).

Dan DALRYMPLE

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Dan Dalrymple enters his second season as head strength & conditioning coach, and the foundation for the Saints' success on the field is built during the long hours he spends planning and tailoring the workout regimens to the individual needs of each position and player.

In his comprehensive program, Dalrymple and his staff devise the workout and conditioning plan for every player and closely evaluates their development and progress. Those efforts begin in the offseason conditioning program and continue throughout the regular season.

Prior to 2006, Dalrymple had spent the previous 17 seasons in a similar capacity at Miami University (Ohio), including the last 16 as director of athletic conditioning, a program he built from the ground up. While the football team was a primary focus, Dalrymple and his staff organized and devised workout programs for all of the school's athletic programs. He was promoted with the additional title of assistant athletic director in 2003.

Dalrymple has been certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1991 and has been honored as a finalist for the organization's coach of the year in 1995, 1997, 1999, 2003 and 2006. He is one of only two NFL coaches in his field to be certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach.

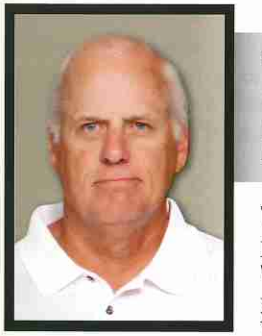
He has earned a pair of certifications for USA Weightlifting that designate Dalrymple as qualified to work with athletes in Olympic weightlifting and as a sports performance specialist.

After taking over the supervision of Miami's strength and conditioning program in 1989, the football program posted a 116-72-9 record, had a streak of 12-straight winning seasons and went to bowl games in 2003 and 2004. Coupled with an intense work ethic and a constant evolution in his approach, Dalrymple's success is also built on his lengthy background in football.

A 1988 graduate of Miami, Dalrymple was a four-year starter (1983-86) as an offensive lineman and was a first-team All-MAC selection his final two seasons, also earning honorable mention All-America accolades. He was one of three captains of the 1986 conference champion team. Dalrymple was later honored as one of five linemen on The Cincinnati Enquirer's All-20th Century Miami football team and was elected to the school's Hall of Fame in 2002.

After his college career and attending training camp with the Seattle Seahawks, Dalrymple returned to his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1987. He served as a graduate assistant the following year on the coaching staff before being promoted to offensive line and strength coach in 1989. He was named strength & conditioning coordinator in December of that year. Dalrymple is married (Susan).

PLAYING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1983-86.
COACHING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1987-2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.



Tom HAYES
DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Saints were well-served by the teaching skills, perspective and experience of defensive backs coach Tom Hayes in 2006, as the coach molded a group of young players and veterans into key contributors in New Orleans being ranked as the NFC's top-ranked pass defense.

New Orleans surrendered a scant 178.4 passing yards per game last season, leading the conference and ranking third in the NFL. The Saints held opponents to under 160 yards passing eight times last season – including two foes to less than 100 yards. In two games (at Atlanta and at the New York Giants), New Orleans held opponents to just nine completions.

Hayes is among the handful of assistants that Sean Payton included in his coaching staff that bring the additional experience and expertise of having been coordinators in the past to their respective position groups. Hayes has over 30 years of coaching experience in the NFL and college, and was the defensive coordinator at Stanford in 2005 before coming to New Orleans.

During his career, he has also been the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Oklahoma and Kansas and coached the defensive backs of the Washington Redskins for five years.

Hayes has tutored the defenses that have been a key component of teams that compiled a 10-3 record in bowl games, including three Rose Bowl victories. He has developed the skills of numerous all-conference and All-Americans and coached 26 defensive backs who moved on to NFL rosters – including five first-round draft picks.

A list of the NFL standouts Hayes has worked with includes CBs Darrell Green, Cris Dishman and Champ Bailey while with the Redskins. At UCLA Hayes was a key part of establishing the school's history of top-notch – and NFL-bound – safeties by tutoring Kenny Easley, James Washington, Eric Turner and Carnell Lake. In his stint at Texas A&M, Hayes coached CB Kevin Smith.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Hayes spent the 2001 season at Kansas. He was the Jayhawks' defensive coordinator and secondary coach and for the final three games of the season he was interim head coach.

From 1995-99, Hayes served as the secondary coach of the Washington Redskins, working with a pair of Pro Bowl picks in Green and Dishman. He tutored Bailey in 1999 and the rookie was a Pro Bowl alternate.

Before joining the Redskins, Hayes spent four years (1991-94) as the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma, coaching under current Saints defensive coordinator Gary Gibbs. Before joining the Sooners staff, Hayes was assistant head coach at Texas A&M (1989-90). His previous experiences included nine seasons at UCLA (1980-88) – the last seven as defensive coordinator – a stretch where the Bruins won four Pac-10 titles.

Hayes served as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Cal State-Fullerton in 1979 and was the secondary coach at his alma mater, Iowa, from 1977-78. He coached for five years on the high school level and a year at Coe (Iowa) College before starting at Iowa in 1977.

Hayes was a three-year letter-winner as a defensive back for the Hawkeyes from 1967-71. He earned a degree in Finance/Insurance in 1971. Born March 26, 1949 in Keokuk, Iowa, he and his wife Cindy have three children: Andy, 30, Lindsay, 26, and Sarah, 21.

Marion HOBBY
DEFENSIVE LINE

After his first season in New Orleans and first NFL coaching assignment, Marion Hobby is established as an invaluable part of the Saints' coaching staff. He created an aggressive, consistent front line in 2006 that formed the backbone of the club's efforts on defense, and the improvement of the unit helped fuel the team's success last season.

The Saints defensive line was represented in the Pro Bowl by end Will Smith, who thrived under Hobby's tutelage with a career-high 10.5 sacks. Smith was the first defensive end from New Orleans to be voted to the postseason all-star game since 2000. End Charles Grant also had a banner season with six sacks, three forced fumbles and a pair of fumble recoveries, and tackles Brian Young and Hollis Thomas were stout in the middle while combining for 106 stops, nine sacks and two fumble recoveries.

With the front four forming the first line of defense, the Saints finished second in the NFC in the fewest first downs allowed (262) and sixth in the league in third-down efficiency allowed (34.7).

Hobby has 12 years of coaching experience and the perspective of playing in the NFL. Last season was his first pro coaching assignment after serving in the same capacity at Clemson in 2005. It was the latest position in a college coaching career where Hobby has established himself as a top-notch teacher and motivator. In 2005 Clemson ranked 11th in the nation in points allowed and posted a bowl victory.

He joined the Tigers after a six-year stint at Mississippi (1999-2004) where he served as defensive line coach and was part of the rapid improvement in the Rebels' fortunes on the field, as they compiled a 44-29 record during his tenure and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense in 1999.

Hobby entered coaching in 1995, working with the defensive tackles at Tennessee-Martin. A year later he went to Southwest Louisiana for two seasons (1996-97), tutoring defensive tackles in 1997 and serving as head strength & conditioning coach his first season at the school.

In 1998 he returned to his alma mater, Tennessee, to serve as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. The Volunteers won the national championship that year.

Hobby had an outstanding playing career at Tennessee from 1985-89. He started at defensive end for his final three seasons, was a four year letterman and served as the team captain as a senior. That year the Volunteers finished 11-1 including a victory over Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. It was the best record for the Volunteers in 20 years.

Hobby was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection as a senior (1989) and was later named to Tennessee's 100-year Anniversary team. He would be selected in third round (74th overall) by the Minnesota Vikings in 1990, and played three seasons with the New England Patriots (1990-92). During his NFL career, he appeared in 42 games and had five sacks.

Hobby earned his Bachelor of Science degree from Tennessee in 1995. He and his wife, Constance, have three children, Maria, Mariah and Camille.

COACHING CAREER: Tennessee-Martin, 1995; Southwest Louisiana, 1996-97; Tennessee, 1998; Mississippi, 1999-2004; Clemson, 2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Curtis JOHNSON
WIDE RECEIVERS

On every level of the game, few can match the stable of wide receivers Curtis Johnson has helped produce over the last decade. He kept that tradition going in his first season with the Saints in 2006 – and first NFL coaching assignment. Under Johnson's guidance, both young and veteran wide receivers thrived and the Saints featured the league's top-ranked passing attack.

Johnson, born and raised in New Orleans, is a hands-on, high-energy coach who brings constant energy to the practice field. Marques Colston, the fourth-to-last player selected in the 2006 NFL Draft, blossomed under Johnson's demanding standards, leading all rookies in receiving yardage (1,038) and touchdowns (eight). Those totals led the Saints last season and set club records for a rookie.

The career of Devery Henderson also took flight under Johnson's tutelage, as Henderson led the NFL by averaging 23.3 yards per catch and set career highs with 32 receptions for 745 yards and five touchdowns. His five TDs averaged 48.2 yards, and 12 of his grabs were completions of 25 yards or more. Terrance Copper also became a key contributor in the second half of the season and notched 23 catches for 385 yards and three touchdowns.

Johnson arrived in New Orleans after serving as the wide receivers coach at the University of Miami from 1996-2005. The group of standouts under his direction while at Miami and his prior stop at San Diego State includes some of the top wide receivers over the last decade. Among those he has tutored are NFL first-round picks Andre Johnson, Santana Moss, Reggie Wayne, Yatil Green and Darnay Scott. Miami WR Sinorice Moss was selected in the second round by the New York Giants in 2006.

At Miami, Johnson was part of a staff that went to nine bowl games and won the 2001 National Championship. He polished the skills of at least one All-Big East performer each season from 1996-2005, including Johnson – the third overall pick by Houston in 2003 – and Santana Moss, who became the Hurricanes' all-time leader in receiving yardage before making the Pro Bowl for Washington. Wayne departed ranked first in school history in catches is a Pro Bowl performer for Indianapolis.

In his five-year stint at San Diego State (1989-93) Johnson landed some of the school's biggest recruits, including 2000 NFL MVP and fellow New Orleans native Marshall Faulk as well as Scott, who completed his eight-year NFL career with 408 grabs and 37 TDs. Each year Johnson was with the Aztecs the school had an all-conference performer at wide receiver.

Johnson began his coaching career as a receivers coach at Lewiston (Idaho) High School in 1984, serving for three seasons before holding a similar position at the University of Idaho. He spent 1987 and 1988 at the school before becoming receivers coach at San Diego State. His next stop was at Southern Methodist in 1994 before becoming wide receivers coach at the University of California, where he spent 1995 before arriving in Miami.

Johnson attended the University of Idaho and graduated in Physical Education in 1985. Born in New Orleans and a graduate of St. Charles High School, Johnson has four children, Janene (25), Kiejon (22), Curtis III (16) and Aaron (14).

Joe LOMBARDI
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Joe Lombardi enters his first season on the Saints' coaching staff as offensive assistant. He arrived in New Orleans with extensive experience on both sides of the ball, and most recently served as defensive assistant for the Atlanta Falcons in 2006. Last season he worked with a Falcons defensive line that combined for 25.5 sacks.

Similar to several members of the staff that head coach Sean Payton put together prior to last season, Lombardi has experience as a coordinator and brings the energy and perspective of a former college coach with pro experience. Lombardi joined the Falcons after a stint at Mercyhurst College (Erie, Pa.), where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05. He also served as recruiting coordinator at the school.

Prior to his years at Mercyhurst, Lombardi coached tight ends and running backs for the New York/New Jersey Hitmen of the XFL. In 2000, he tutored the defensive line and served as the strength & conditioning coordinator at Bucknell University.

He coached both the tight ends and tackles at the Virginia Military Institute in 1999, and Lombardi opened his coaching career at the University of Dayton, where he was responsible for the defensive line from 1996-98. The Flyers won 20-straight games during his tenure.

Lombardi – the grandson of legendary coach Vince Lombardi – is a 1994 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, where he earned three letters as a tight end. Lombardi and his wife, Molly, have four children: sons Joseph and Thomas and daughters Maria and Bernadette.

Terry MALONE

TIGHT ENDS

Tight ends coach Terry Malone enters his second season in New Orleans, and is another experienced member of the Saints' coaching staff who brings the added expertise of having been a former coordinator.

In 2006, Malone's tight ends corps were a key part of the Saints' success on offense with their blocking in the running game and timely, drive-sustaining receptions in the passing attack. The tight ends combined for 45 catches for 411 yards during the regular season. Mark Campbell, Billy Miller and John Owens also had strong performances in the postseason, with Miller notching eight grabs for 95 yards and Campbell posting three catches for 29 in the two playoff games and Owens hauling in a 21-yard catch vs. Philadelphia.

Malone worked at Michigan from 1997-2005, including his last final four seasons as the Wolverines' offensive coordinator/tight ends. During his tenure as coordinator the school had 14 All-Big Ten selections and four All-Americans. The Wolverines had back-to-back conference Player of the Year winners (Chris Perry, 2003 and Braylon Edwards, 2004). During Malone's nine seasons at the school, Michigan won five Big 10 championships and appeared in eight New Year's Day bowl games.

In 2004, the offense ranked second in the Big Ten and 24th in the nation in scoring by averaging over 30 points per contest. The Wolverines were led by Rimington Trophy co-recipient David Baas and Edwards, who won the Biletnikoff Award as the country's top receiver. QB Chad Henne became the first true freshman in Big Ten history to lead his squad to a conference title and was the first to start a Rose Bowl.

In 2003, Malone was named a finalist for the Broyles award, recognizing the top college assistant. It was a fitting honor, as the Wolverines tied for 12th nationally in scoring (35.4 avg.) and 15th in total offense (446.7 avg.) while setting school records in every passing category. Michigan led the Big Ten in passing (270.8 avg.) for the first time since 1948 and set school marks for total yards (5,807) en route to the Big Ten title.

Malone began his years at Michigan as offensive line coach, with the Wolverines winning the 1997 national title in his first season. His offensive line allowed a conference-low 18 sacks. He would remain in that position until being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2001.

Michigan had three NFL draft picks in 2001, including No. 1 picks Steve Hutchinson and Jeff Backus and second-rounder Maurice Williams. The line paved the way for RB Anthony Thomas to break all of the Wolverines' rushing yardage and touchdowns records.

Two Malone-coached players have been recognized as the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year: Jon Jansen (1997) and Hutchinson (2000). Hutchinson became just the fourth player in conference history to earn All-Big Ten first team honors after all four years.

Malone arrived at Ann Arbor after spending 1996 as offensive line coach at Boston College on the staff of Head Coach Dan Henning. Prior to that season, Malone served as offensive line coach, tight ends coach, and offensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 1986-95. Before returning to his alma mater, Holy Cross, in 1985 to tutor the tight ends, Malone opened his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arizona.

A native of Redford, Mich., Malone went to Holy Cross and started four seasons at tight end. Malone was the Crusaders' captain as a senior. He earned a degree in history from Holy Cross (1983). Malone and his wife, Ann, have four children, Kara, Patrick, Ryan and Natalie.

Greg McMAHON
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Greg McMahon, entering his second season with the Saints, played an important role in the club's strides on special teams in 2006, working with John Bonamego to give New Orleans one of the NFL's most improved and opportunistic special teams units.

Last season was a banner year for the special teams under the tutelage of Bonamego and McMahon. By stressing consistency, the coverage units didn't allow a kickoff return of over 40 yards and the longest opponent punt return was 31 yards. The Saints also blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown, blocked a field goal, recovered a key onside kick and in Week Five vs. Tampa Bay, RB Reggie Bush returned a punt 65 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

McMahon joined the Saints after a one-year stint as tight ends/special teams coach at East Carolina. In 2005, the Pirates finished in the top 20 in the nation in field goal accuracy and had a pair of solid return men. As tight ends coach, McMahon was part of an offensive staff that directed East Carolina to the fourth-highest passing total in school history (2,816 yards) and averaged over 393 total yards per contest.

Prior to 2005, McMahon spent 13 years at the University of Illinois (1992-2004), working primarily with the special teams, tight ends and wide receivers. In 1997, he took on the additional responsibility of overseeing the special teams. His efforts were integral in Illinois making four bowl appearances and twice appearing in the final national rankings, and in 2001 the school finished 10-2 and captured the Big Ten title.

Based on the records his units established, the play of the special teams during McMahon's years at Illinois are unmatched in school history. Illinois blocked 16 kicks from 2001-04 and accounted for nine touchdowns. K Neil Rackers, now with the Arizona Cardinals, and punt return yardage leader Eugene Wilson (New England Patriots) both benefited from McMahon's guidance. Players under his direction included the school leaders in career punting average, single-season scoring and all-time punt return yardage.

McMahon, 47, came to Illinois in 1992 from Nevada-Las Vegas, where he spent two years as special teams coordinator as well as coaching offensive tackles and tight ends. He has also had stints with Valdosta (Ga.) State, Southern Illinois, North Alabama and Minnesota.

As a defensive back at Eastern Illinois, he was a member of two teams that played for the NCAA Division II National Championship. The Panthers won the title in 1978 and went to the championship game again two years later. McMahon earned a degree in psychology from EIU in 1983.

McMahon and wife, Linda, are the parents of sons Drew and Sam and daughter Lisa. Drew is currently a member of the Illinois football program.

Tony ODEN
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT /DEFENSIVE BACKS

Tony Oden enters his second season with the Saints as defensive assistant/defensive backs, and will again assist secondary coach Tom Hayes tutor the secondary as well as work with the defensive staff in all facets of game preparation.

While assisting Hayes with the defensive backs, the secondary played a key role in the Saints ranking third in the NFL against the pass, allowing just 178.4 yards per contest. New Orleans also ranked sixth in the league in third-down efficiency allowed (34.7).

Oden arrived in New Orleans in 2006 after spending the past two seasons with the Houston Texans in a similar capacity. In 2005, the Texans' secondary allowed the second-fewest passing yards (3,521) in team history. In 2004, Oden's efforts were rewarded when Houston's secondary intercepted 18 passes, with CB Dunta Robinson leading all NFL rookies with six.

Oden tutored the defensive backs in 2003 at Eastern Michigan. He worked at East Carolina prior to his two seasons at EMU, serving as outside linebackers coach in 2000, secondary coach in 2001 and safeties coach in 2002. Each year he also was an assistant with the special teams.

Before to his stint with Eastern Michigan, Oden spent two seasons at West Point as Army's assistant secondary coach. He also led the junior varsity program in 1999 after serving as its defensive coordinator in 1998. In 1997, Oden coached NFL CAREER – In 2006 the lanky target went from the fourth-to-last player selected in the NFL Draft to a record-setter who was included on every media outlet's all-rookie squad. Colston, chosen 252nd overall with a compensatory pick, proved to be the steal of the year's draft class and emerged as the most productive rookie wide receiver in club history. Despite missing two games with an ankle sprain and all but a few plays of another contest, he hauled in 70 catches for a team-high 1,038 yards and eight touchdowns. Like teammate Reggie Bush, Colston earned nationwide attention for Rookie of the Year honors. He is the only rookie in club history to go over 1,000 yards receiving – an NFL-best for first-year players last season – and his 70 grabs ranked second in club history behind the 88 posted by Bush in 2006. Inserted as a starter in the opener, his impact was immediate with touchdown catches in each of his first two NFL games. Colston was named NFL Rookie of the Month for October, a four-game stretch where he had 18 catches for 373 yards and four touchdowns, including a pair of 100-yard performances. Following the Nov. 12 contest at Pittsburgh, he had already posted 869 receiving yards, the highest total in league history for a rookie after nine games. On the season, 51 of his grabs went for a first down, and his 28 third-down catches ranked fifth in the NFL. The 86-yard catch-and-run he recorded in the fourth quarter at Carolina, Oct. 1, is the longest by a rookie in team record books, and the fourth-longest overall in club history.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed to a three-year contract, 7/18/06; Selected in the seventh-round (252nd overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2006: Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie; Dallas Morning News All-Rookie; NFL Rookie of the Month (October).

Injury against Bengals suffered early in the first quarter…Turned in a banner season where he was considered nationally one of the NFL's unexpected standouts…Led all NFL rookies with a team-high 1,038 receiving yards…Yardage total set a club record for rookies…Ranked fifth in the NFL with 28 catches on third down, and his 439 yards on those receptions ranked second in the league…Ranked second on team with 51 first downs… Eight receiving TDs tied a club record for a rookie (WR Donte' Stallworth, 2002)…Started both postseason contests and had 10 catches for 118 yards, including five for 63 yards and a 13-yard TD in NFC Championship at Chicago …Had 15 catches of 20 or more yards, including four of plus-40… Opened NFL career with four catches for 49 yards and 12-yard scoring grab at Cleveland, Sept. 10…At Green Bay, Sept. 17, notched four grabs for 58 yards with 35-yard TD catch in the fourth quarter that would give the Saints the lead after once trailing 13-0…Didn't start but gave indication of big days to come with seven receptions for 97 yards vs. Atlanta, Sept. 25….Returned to starting lineup at Carolina, Oct. 1, and had five catches for 132 yards and an 86-yard TD in the fourth quarter – the longest in club history for a rookie. The last players in NFL record books to have a receiving touchdown of 86 yards or more within the first four games of their NFL careers were QB Mark Malone of Pittsburgh, who in his third contest had a 90-yard scoring grab in 1981, and Detroit RB Billy Simms, who had an 87-yard TD catch in his second game…Had three catches for 38

BORN: 4/28/79

NFL CAREER – The first defensive free agent the Saints signed in 2006 when the new coaching staff was in place was Fujita, and the club immediately found the versatile, consistent performer it sought to lead the unit. His arrival also provided the playmaker the unit needed to build around. Fujita immediately gave the linebacker corps a defender who could range from sideline to sideline, with the size to fill holes against the run and the speed to cover running backs and tight ends in the passing game. He responded with a banner first season in New Orleans, rarely leaving the field and pacing the club with 119 tackles. But it was his all-around contributions during the season that stood out by the end of the year: 3.5 sacks for 16 yards in losses, two interceptions, eight passes knocked down and a pair of forced fumbles. Fujita started all 16 games in 2006 – pushing his NFL career totals to 80 games played with 65 starts. He also opened both postseason contests. The former fifth-round pick by Kansas City was with the Chiefs from 2002-04 before being traded to Dallas just days before the kickoff of the 2005 regular season and starting the Cowboys' last eight games.

! WORTHNOTING

First free agent signed by the Saints in 2006 proved to be an impact player and instantly became the leader of the defense.

Strongside linebacker was a vital cog in every defensive scheme, leading the unit with 119 tackles and adding 3.5 sacks, a pair of interceptions, two forced fumbles and eight pass deflections.

Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week after posting eight stops, a sack and forced fumble vs. Atlanta at the Superdome.

Including the postseason, the hardnosed defender recorded seven or more stops in 13 games in 2006, and had double-digit tackle totals in five contests.

After being acquired by Dallas from Kansas City prior to the start of the 2005 season, appeared in all 16 games, started eight and posted 58 tackles, two sacks and a pair of forced fumbles.

A fifth round draft pick of the Kansas City in 2002, Fujita became a starter as a rookie and led the Chiefs in tackles in 2003 and 2004.

His adopted father, Rod is of Japanese-American descent and was born in a World War II interment camp, while his paternal grandfather, Nagao, was enlisted in the U.S. Army and fighting in Italy.

RB

NFL CAREER – Long the Saints' workhorse on offense, McAllister once again assumed the role as the leading man in the club's rushing attack after missing the final 11 games of 2005 with a serious knee injury. The standout bounced back with a banner season, becoming the first running back in club record books to record a fourth 1,000-yard season, rushing for 1,057 yards on 244 carries (4.3-yd. avg.). McAllister scored 11 touchdowns, rushing for 10 and scooping up a fumble and rumbling into the end zone for another. Including the 16 he had in 2002, he became only the second player to post two seasons with double-digit TD totals with the Saints, joining WR Joe Horn (10 in 2003, 11 in 2004). McAllister added 30 receptions for 198 yards in 2006 while appearing in 15 games. He was inactive for the final contest with the Saints having clinched a playoff berth. McAllister had four 100-yard rushing performances in the 2006 regular season, increasing his team-record for reaching the milestone to 27. He also had one of the finest days of his career vs. Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoff, rushing for 143 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries and hauling in four passes for 20 yards and another TD. Both of his scores came in the third quarter when the Saints took the lead for good. The seventh-year veteran has been one of the NFL's most productive running backs when healthy since 2002. His stretch of three-straight 1,000-yard seasons from 2002-04 was a first in club history. He ranks first in team record books in every major rushing category with 5,586 yards, 1,298 carries and 44 touchdowns. McAllister has added 212 receptions – ranking eighth in club history – for 1,577 yards and four touchdowns in his career. With 294 points, he ranks fifth in team record books in scoring. In 2003, he finished second in the NFC in rushing and fourth in the league with a career-high 1,641 yards on 351 carries, a single-season yardage total that ranks second in club history (RB George Rogers, 1,674 yards, 1981). Including 516 yards on a career-high 69 receptions, McAllister posted 2,157 yards from scrimmage that season to set a club record and rank second in the NFC. All of these accomplishments were a stunning encore to 2002, when in his first year as a starter he led the conference with 1,388 rushing yards, scored 16 touchdowns and was voted to his first Pro Bowl. McAllister is the lone Saints' running back to be voted to the postseason all-star game in consecutive seasons. The Mississippi native is also a leader in the community and one of the club's most active players in charitable endeavors.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Placed on Injured Reserve, 10/12/05; Re-signed to a seven-year contract extension, 7/28/05; Signed to a six-year contract, 8/4/01; Selected in first round (23rd overall) of 2001 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2006: Ed Block Courage Award (Saints); 2004: NFL.com FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 17); 2003: Pro Bowl, Pro Football Weekly All-NFC, NFL.com FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 10), NFL.com FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 11), NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 13); 2002: NFC Pro Bowl (Starter), NFC Offensive Player of the Month (October), Pro Football Weekly All-NFC.

NFL CAREER – The 300-pound defensive tackle opened a new chapter of his career in New Orleans in 2006 and responded with one of his best seasons, immediately emerging as a key piece of the Saints' resurgent defense. While he fortified the middle against the run and had 49 tackles, Thomas' contributions aren't always best measured by statistics. His strength and ability to occupy at least two opposing blockers helped the other defensive linemen combine for 25 sacks. And while stuffing the run is his where he has built his reputation around the NFL, Thomas also helps crush the pocket on passing downs. He had 3.5 sacks last season, the most since he had 4.0 with Philadelphia in 2000 and his first sacks since that season. Thomas has started 107 of 138 games in his career and has notched 600 stops (364 solo), along with 17 sacks, nine forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries. He also has a wealth of postseason experience, including appearing in Super Bowl XXXIX.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed to four-year contract by Saints, 2/27/07; Acquired in a trade with Philadelphia Eagles, with the Saints trading their fourth-round pick (99th overall) for Thomas and the Eagles' fourth-round pick (108th), 4/30/06; Placed on Injured Reserve by Philadelphia, 10/28/03; Placed on Injured Reserve by Philadelphia, 7/27/02; Placed on Injured Reserve by Philadelphia, 12/31/01; Re-signed by Philadelphia to five-year contract, 9/19/00; Placed on Injured Reserve by Philadelphia, 12/2/98; Signed by Philadelphia as undrafted free agent, 8/26/96.

SAINTS: 19 BROWNS: 14
CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM
CLEVELAND, OHIO – 9/10/06
ATTENDANCE: 72,915 TIME: 3:03

Marking only the second time in club history that a new head coach – Sean Payton – opened his career in New Orleans with a win, the Saints never trailed in their initial visit to Cleveland Browns Stadium.

After the Saints notched a pair of sacks on Cleveland's opening drive to push the Browns back to their own seven, New Orleans took over at the 48. After 10 plays, K John Carney drilled a 43-yard field goal to give the Saints a 3-0 lead.

The Saints began a lengthy drive at the end of the first quarter, marching 73 yards on 12 plays to set up another field goal by Carney. QB Drew Brees completed three passes for 37 yards, which stalled at the Cleveland 7.

New Orleans would add another field goal on its following possession, a 21-yarder by Carney with 8:29 left in the second quarter. The kick was set up by an interception by LB Scott Fujita, who had an interception at the Saints' 48 with a 19-yard return.

Cleveland drove to the New Orleans 21 before halftime, but DT Brian Young recovered a fumble on a mishandled snap to end the drive.

The Browns got on the scoreboard in the third quarter on an 18-yard TD catch by TE Kellen Winslow.

The Saints took a 16-7 lead on a 12-yard TD pass from Brees to WR Marques Colston, and Carney added a third field goal in the final quarter.

Young had 2.5 sacks in the contest, part of a five-sack day for the Saints. New Orleans only allowed Cleveland 186 net yards and 15 first downs.

AT GREEN BAY — GAME 2

GIANTS: 34 PACKERS: 27
LAMBEAU FIELD
GREEN BAY, WS - 9/17/06
ATTENDANCE: 70,602 TIME: 3:27

The Saints opened the season for the first time in club history with two wins on the road after roaring back from a 13-0 road deficit in the first quarter with 20 unanswered points.

QB Drew Brees led the comeback after a rocky start, completing 26 of 41 for 353 yards and a pair of TDs for a rating of 96.9.

The Saints' opening possession ended on its third play when Brees was sacked and fumbled at the New Orleans 38. Five plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to put the Packers ahead, 7-0.

It was the same scenario on the next possession, as Brees was sacked with a lost fumble on third down, this time at the New Orleans 15. But the defense held the Packers to a field goal.

A promising drive ended for the Saints a few minutes later when Brees was intercepted at the Green Bay 8. The Packers would convert the turnover into a field goal to push ahead 13-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Saints would get on the scoreboard with 7:44 left in the first half when RB Deuce McAllister scored on a three-yard burst. New Orleans would take the lead heading into halftime when Brees found WR Devery Henderson for a 26-yard scoring strike.

New Orleans added two field goals in the third quarter. With 8:26 remaining in the fourth quarter, Brees found WR Marques Colston for a 35-yard TD, and Green Bay fumbled on the first play of its next possession, setting up a 23-yard TD by McAllister.

! GAMENOTES

The Saints opened with three running backs in the lineup: Deuce McAllister, Reggie Bush and Aaron Stecker. Bush lined up in the slot, and Stecker had a 12-yard catch on the play.

Including a 23-yarder, McAllister ran for a pair of TDs, giving him 40 for his career.

Marques Colston had a 35-yard TD, opening his career with back-to-back games with a scoring catch.

SAINTS: 23 FALCONS: 3
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA – 9/25/06
ATTENDANCE: 70,003 TIME: 3:09

In the first contest at the stadium since it was used as a shelter of last resort during Hurricane Katrina, the Saints christened a refurbished Louisiana Superdome with an emotional victory on Monday Night Football in front of a sold-out crowd.

The Saints jumped ahead on the fourth play, when S Steve Gleason blocked a punt that led to a recovery for a TD by CB Curtis Deloatch.

The Falcons would answer on their second possession with a nine-play, 65-yard drive for a field goal. But later in the first quarter the Saints marched 80 yards on eight plays. The drive was capped by a 11-yard TD run by WR Devery Henderson, who went around the left end after taking a handoff from RB Reggie Bush to give New Orleans a 14-3 advantage.

The Saints would add to their lead in the second quarter when K John Carney drilled a 37-yard field goal following a 10-play, 66-yard march that ate up 5:05 of the clock. Carney would boot his second field goal in the first half's final moments, a season-long 51-yarder as time expired.

! GAMENOTES

The contest marked the first regular-season game at the Superdome since the Saints and Atlanta played Dec. 26, 2004.

The defense posted five sacks, allowed 10 first downs and only 112 passing yards. Atlanta converted three of 16 third down attempts, an efficiency percentage of 19.

LB Scott Fujita was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week after notching eight tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

RBs Deuce McAllister and Reggie Bush combined for 134 rushing yards.

The Saints opened the third quarter with a 12-play, 73-yard drive, capped by Carney's third-straight field goal. QB Drew Brees had three completions for 54 yards on the march, and New Orleans controlled the clock for 10:59 of the third quarter.

GAME 4

PANTHERS: 21 SAINTS: 18
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM
CHARLOTTE, NC - 10/1/06
ATTENDANCE: 73,392 TIME: 3:04

Despite a 15-point burst in the fourth quarter to pull within a field goal late in the game, New Orleans suffered its first loss of the season at Carolina. The Saints had led, 10-7, until early in the final quarter.

The game was a defensive standoff for much of the first 45 minutes. The Panthers struck first when WR Steve Smith capped an eight-play, 72-yard drive with a nine-yard TD reception.

Neither team ventured out of its own territory until the Saints put together an 11-play, 68-yard march in the second quarter. New Orleans drove to the Carolina 7, but DE Julius Peppers forced a fumble on a sack. The loose ball was recovered by T Jon Stinchcomb, but the Saints had to settle for a 31-yard field goal.

The Saints would put together a lengthy drive before halftime, but a 43-yard field goal attempt by K John Carney sailed wide right.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but the Saints started a drive that would end with a three-yard TD burst by RB Deuce McAllister early in the final quarter. QB Drew Brees completed six passes on the possession.

Carolina answered by marching 91 yards on 12 plays, with Delhomme finding WR Drew Carter for a four-yard touchdown pass. Carolina would score again on its following possession when RB DeShaun Foster scored on a 43-yard touchdown run.

Three plays later, Brees found WR Marques Colston for an 86-yard touchdown pass. The Saints converted a two-point conversion on a pass to WR Joe Horn, but the onside kick attempt failed with 1:15 remaining.

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA – 10/29/06
ATTENDANCE: 69,159 TIME: 3:09

Following the bye week, the Saints fell to 5-2 after being unable to overcome a 21-point deficit in the first half – a Baltimore lead created by a trio of New Orleans turnovers in the first two quarters.

The teams traded fumbles on their opening drives. On its second possession, Baltimore marched 43 yards on eight plays, with QB Steve McNair scoring on a five-yard run up the middle.

The Saints would drive to the Baltimore 18 on their following possession, but RB Reggie Bush was intercepted in the end zone on a halfback pass. The turnover set up a lengthy drive for the Ravens, capped by a touchdown pass by McNair to give Baltimore a 10-0 lead.

Midway through the second quarter, QB Drew Brees was intercepted by CB Ronnie Prude at the New Orleans 12. The result was a touchdown and a 21-0 advantage for the Ravens.

The Saints would get on the board four plays later when Brees found WR Joe Horn on a 32-yard scoring strike, but Baltimore responded with a 10-play, 71-yard march. The drive was capped by a six-yard TD grab by TE Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a 28-7 lead at halftime.

A second Brees pass was intercepted and returned for a touchdown in the third quarter, though the quarterback connected with WR Marques Colston on touchdown passes of 47 and 25 yards in the final quarter.

Colston finished with 163 yards on six receptions. Horn had five grabs for 126 yards, marking the sixth time in club history the Saints had a pair of players with 100 receiving yards. Horn's TD grab was his 49th with New Orleans.

The Saints went ahead by two touchdowns in the first quarter when Brees found WR Marques Colston for a 15-yard TD pass and connected with Henderson on a 52-yard scoring pass.

After a 46-yard field goal by K John Carney, Tampa Bay struck for a pair of touchdowns, both TD grabs by WR Joey Galloway in the second quarter to cut the Saints' lead to 17-14.

But the third quarter belonged to New Orleans. On the club's second possession, the Saints drove 52 yards on six plays, with RB Deuce McAllister capping the march with a three-yard scoring plunge.

The Saints scored again in the third quarter on their following drive, with Brees connecting with Henderson as he streaked down the sideline for a 45-yard touchdown.

STEELERS: 38 SAINTS: 31
HEINZ FIELD
PITTSBURGH, PA - 11/12/06
ATTENDANCE: 61,911 TIME: 3:14

The Saints battled back from an early, two-touchdown deficit to take a seven-point lead at halftime, but a pair of fumbles in the second half proved to be too much to overcome.

Pittsburgh scored the game's first two touchdowns, both on first-quarter scoring passes by QB Ben Roethlisberger. He connected with WR Hines Ward on a 37-yard TD to cap the Steelers' first drive, and completed the second with a two-yard flip to TE Heath Miller.

After a 43-yard kickoff return by WR Michael Lewis, the Saints put together a 12-play, 52-yard march, with QB Drew Brees finding WR Terrance Copper for a three-yard touchdown pass. In the second quarter, K John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 14-10.

RB Reggie Bush scored his first touchdown from scrimmage later in the second quarter on a 15-yard rush off a double-reverse, taking a pitch from Colston and leaping over a defender into the end zone.

Pittsburgh would respond with a field goal, and the Saints would answer with a quick drive with a TD run by RB Deuce McAllister.

In the second half, Roethlisberger threw his third TD to tie the score at 24, and consecutive touchdown runs by RB Willie Parker pushed the Steelers ahead by 14.

With 8:05 remaining, McAllister alertly picked up a fumble and bolted four yards into the end zone to make it 38-31. The Saints were driving late in the game, but a fumble at the Pittsburgh 25 with 49 seconds left ended the club's comeback chances.

! GAMENOTES

The Saints had 517 yards of offense in the contest. Combined with the Steelers, the two clubs fell 16 short of 1,000 total yards of offense in the game.

WR Marques Colston hauled in 10 passes for 169 yards, marking his second-straight game with a double-digit reception total and his third-consecutive contest with over 100 yards receiving.

BENGALS: 31 SAINTS: 16
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA – 11/19/06
ATTENDANCE: 68,001 TIME: 3:04

The Saints fell to 6-4, undermining their chance at victory with three interceptions and a fumble in Cincinnati territory. QB Drew Brees set a club record with 510 passing yards, the sixth-highest total in NFL history, and five New Orleans players had over 50 yards receiving.

The Bengals took the lead when WR Chad Johnson caught a 41-yard touchdown on the game's fourth play. The Saints' responded on their second drive, when WR Joe Horn hauled in a 72-yard TD, with Brees finding Horn after a lateral from RB Deuce McAllister.

The Bengals broke the tie with a field goal in the second quarter, a lead they would take into halftime. Brees was intercepted twice in the second quarter in the end zone, including with 17 seconds remaining in the first half.

The Bengals threatened in the third quarter, but LB Mark Simoneau intercepted QB Carson Palmer in the end zone to end the Bengals' scoring chances. Following the turnover, the Saints marched 74 yards on 11 plays to set up a 24-yard field goal.

Palmer and Johnson combined twice more for touchdowns in the fourth quarter, once from 60 yards and on the next march from four yards.

On the Saints' next drive, a Brees interception was returned for a touchdown, giving the Bengals a 31-9 advantage.

The Saints would add a late touchdown when WR Terrance Copper hauled in a 27-yard scoring pass. Brees would throw for 261 yards over the final two quarters, and 249 yards in the first half.

GAMENOTES

The Saints had a team-record 595 yards of total offense, breaking the former mark of 557, set at Atlanta on Sept. 12, 1993.

WR Devery Henderson had a career-high nine catches for 169 yards, becoming a focal point of the passing attack after WR Marques Colston suffered an ankle injury on the first possession.

WR Terrance Copper added six catches for 87 yards, one of five New Orleans targets with over 50 receiving yards in the game.

GAME 11

SAINTS: 31 FALCONS: 13
GEORGIA DOME
ATLANTA, GA – 11/26/06
ATTENDANCE: 70,933 TIME: 3:07

The Saints improved to 7-4 overall and 4-1 in the NFC South by completing a sweep of their division rivals. It was another banner performance for the offense, and the defense held the Falcons to a scant 52 yards passing. Atlanta never recovered from falling behind by two touchdowns in the first quarter.

The Saints' defense played best with their backs closest to the goal line. Atlanta drove to the New Orleans 25 or closer four times, with those marches resulting in a missed field goal, a touchdown and a pair of field goals.

WR Devery Henderson, starting in place of Marques Colston (ankle), opened the scoring with a 76-yard touchdown on the third play from scrimmage. Henderson would finish with four receptions for 158 yards.

RB Deuce McAllister would put the Saints ahead, 14-0, on a one-yard plunge with 4:44 remaining in the opening quarter, capping a seven-play, 67-yard drive. Atlanta would respond on its next possession with a field goal.

After another Falcons' field goal late in the second quarter, QB Drew Brees found WR Terrance Copper on a 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass at the end of the half amid a crowd of Atlanta defenders.

The Falcons would add a touchdown in the third quarter, but in the final quarter New Orleans responded with a 25-yard field goal and a touchdown run by McAllister, his second of the contest. His nine-yard scoring burst with 2:23 remaining left the outcome no longer in doubt.

! GAMENOTES

QB Drew Brees notched his fifth-straight game with over 300 yards passing, completing 21 of 30 for 349 yards with a pair of touchdowns and a 131.1 passer rating. It was the seventh time in 11 games he reached the 300-yard milestone. Brees was 9 of 12 in the first half for 201 yards.

DE Will Smith tied his career-high with two sacks (20 yards in losses). He also notched five solo stops, knocked down a pass and forced a fumble – the 10th of his career.

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA – 12/03/06
ATTENDANCE: 68,241 TIME: 3:22

After initially falling behind by a field goal, the Saints responded with a flurry of points – including four touchdowns by rookie RB Reggie Bush – to improve to 8-4.

New Orleans featured a balanced offensive attack, rushing for 190 yards and passing for 186 while controlling the clock for 37:19. The offense wasn't alone in producing a solid performance in the victory, as the defense surrendered just 202 net yards, recorded four sacks, and allowed only three of 11 third-down conversions.

Bush had the biggest day of his brief NFL career to date. He tied a team record with four TDs – three rushing and one receiving. Bush had nine catches for a 131 yards and added 37 rushing yards on 10 carries. He had a 74-yard burst through a handful of San Francisco defenders off a short screen pass and accounted for six first downs.

New Orleans took the lead early in the second quarter on a one-yard reception for a touchdown, a drive set up by a 47-yard kickoff return by WR Michael Lewis.

The Saints would score again before halftime, when Bush capped a 12-play, 57-yard march with an eight-yard touchdown burst.

After the 49ers cut the lead to 14-10 on a long TD pass, an interception by CB Mike McKenzie with a 54-yard return set up a 19-yard field goal.

Bush scored his third TD late in the third quarter on a five-yard run, then added his fourth in the final quarter on a 10-yard burst. That TD was set up by his 74-yard catch-and-run.

McKenzie's second interception with 1:23 left ended the Niners' comeback aspirations and set up a field goal.

RB Deuce McAllister had a season-high 136 yards on 26 carries, averaging 5.2 yards per attempt. It was his finest rushing day since posting 140 in the 2004 finale vs. Carolina.

CB Mike McKenzie tied his career-high with two interceptions, returning the first 54 yards to set up a field goal.

RB Reggie Bush's 131 receiving yards were the most by a running back in club history.

IRVING, TX – 12/10/06
ATTENDANCE: 63,722 TIME: 3:11

On a national stage on Sunday Night Football, the Saints improved to 9-4 with a convincing victory over Dallas in a clash between clubs who entered the contest leading their respective divisions.

The Cowboys took a 7-0 lead on the second play from scrimmage on a 77-yard touchdown run. But fueled by the hot hand of QB Drew Brees, the Saints would respond with a 21-point burst before halftime and three more TDs in the third quarter.

New Orleans would control the clock for 37:11 in the game. The defense also came up strong over the final three quarters, holding the Cowboys to 39 yards rushing other than the long TD run and allowing 231 net yards passing. The unit had a pair of sacks, notched a pair of interceptions and allowed Dallas to convert just one of eight on third down (13 percent).

The Saints took a 21-7 lead after a pair of TD catches by FB Mike Karney and a scoring grab by WR Jamal Jones in the second quarter.

After halftime, Brees threw three more touchdowns in the third quarter, finding RB Reggie Bush for a weaving, 61-yard TD, connecting with Karney on a six-yard flip and WR Devery Henderson for a 42-yard scoring strike.

RB Deuce McAllister wore down the Cowboys with 60 yards on eight carries in the fourth quarter.

REDSKINS 16 SAINTS 10
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA - 12/17/06
ATTENDANCE: 69,052 TIME: 2:56

The Saints fell to 9-5 but still ended up clinching the NFC South title after losses by Atlanta and Carolina. New Orleans was in the hunt for a victory by driving to the Washington 16 on its final possession, but stalled on 4th-and-7 with 53 seconds remaining in the contest. An incompletion in the end zone ended the Saints' comeback chances.

The defense had a solid performance, holding the Redskins to only a field goal in the second half. Washington converted only five of 13 (38 percent) on third down.

The Redskins took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a field goal and a deep TD grab by WR Santana Moss.

The Saints got on the board early in the second quarter, with RB Deuce McAllister capping a 13-play, 80-yard march with a one-yard plunge for a touchdown. The Redskins answered with another field goal and took the 13-7 lead into halftime, as neither team ventured into the other team's territory for the rest of the quarter.

The two clubs traded punts again for most of the third quarter in what turned into a defensive stalemate. Near the end of the quarter, the Saints finally began to put together a march, with QB Drew Brees completing six passes for 50 yards to set up a 41-yard field goal by K John Carney.

But Brees was intercepted on the Saints' following possession, setting up a Redskins' field goal to complete the game's scoring with 4:15 remaining in the contest.

The Saints would march 46 yards on their final drive to the Washington 16, but could not convert on fourth down after a pair of short passes and an incompletion.

GAMENOTES

WR Marques Colston became the first rookie in franchise history to record over 1,000 yards in a season. He hauled in seven catches for 84 yards in the contest, giving him 1,001 yards up to that point.

RB Reggie Bush broke an NFL record for catches by a rookie running back. He had five catches for 19 yards vs. the Redskins, giving him 84 grabs up to that point in 2006. The previous record was 83, set by San Francisco's Earl Cooper in 1983.

RB Deuce McAllister scored his 10th TD of 2006, and the 48th of his career.

GIANTS STADIUM
EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ - 12/24/06
ATTENDANCE: 78,539 TIME: 3:17

The Saints fell behind by a touchdown early, then roared back with 30 unanswered points on a cold and windy afternoon on the strength of rugged performances of the defense and running backs Deuce McAllister and Reggie Bush.

New Orleans controlled the clock for 40:34 while notching its 10th win, giving the club a double-digit victory total for the sixth time in team history.

While the Giants took a quick lead with a 55-yard touchdown pass, on their final 13 possessions New York managed just 75 yards. The Giants were held to six first downs – two in the second half – and didn't convert on 10 third-down opportunities. The Saints' defense also forced a pair of fumbles and CB Fred Thomas had an interception with a nine-yard return.

Bush posted the first 100-yard rushing day of his career with 126 on 20 carries, including a one-yard TD plunge in the third quarter.

McAllister pounded out 108 yards on 27 attempts. The duo combined for the club's first pair of 100-yard rushers in a game since 1990.

They took turns carrying the load, as Bush had 80 yards in the second quarter as the Saints scored 10 points to take the lead for good.

McAllister took over in the second half with 92 yards, including 41 in the fourth quarter to milk the clock.

The performance gave McAllister 1,057 yards on the season, the fourth time in his career he crossed the 1,000-yard milestone. He is the only player in team history to achieve the feat. McAllister's nine-yard TD was his 11th of 2006.

! GAMENOTES

The Saints had 236 yards rushing on 53 carries, the team's highest rushing total since posting 249 vs. the Cincinnati Bengals on Nov. 4, 1990.

The Saints converted four of six on fourth down (67 percent), including a touchdown catch by WR Marques Colston on 4th-and-2 with 1:56 remaining in the first half.

With 359 yards in the contest, New Orleans improved to 5,967 for the year, setting a club record for total yards. The former record was 5,627, set in 1979.

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
ATTENDANCE: 69,569 TIME: 2:47

With the majority of the Saints' starters watching from the sidelines for most of the contest because the club had already clinched the NFC South title and a first-round bye in the playoffs, New Orleans was defeated in the 2006 finale.

QB Drew Brees only appeared in the first nine plays of the game, eight of which came on the opening drive. Brees completed four-of-five on the march, with the lone incompletion being a drop in the end zone. RB Reggie Bush capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run to give New Orleans a 7-0 lead.

Bush, who had three rushes for 20 yards, also left the game before the second quarter. RB Deuce McAllister – along with starters CB Fred Thomas, TE Mark Campbell, DE Will Smith and WR Terrance Copper – were declared inactive.

After Bush's touchdown, Carolina would respond with a nine-play, 73-yard drive, with WR Steve Smith scoring on a 22-yard TD catch.

Early in the second quarter, QB Jamie Martin – who entered the game in relief of Brees in the first quarter – found WR Devery Henderson for a 65-yard completion. On the next play, Martin completed a seven-yard pass to RB Jamaal Branch to give the Saints a 14-7 lead.

! GAMENOTES

WR Devery Henderson hauled in a 65-yard pass in the second quarter, his team-leading eighth catch of 2006 that traveled 40 yards or longer.

In his only extended action of the season, QB Jamie Martin completed 16 of 24 for 208 yards and a touchdown for a passer rating of 90.3.

WR Michael Lewis averaged 30.3 yards on five kickoff returns (153 yards), including a 51-yard burst in the first quarter.

The Panthers would score a late TD in the second quarter, and in the third quarter return an interception for a touchdown. Carolina increased its lead on another scoring grab by Smith with 4:52 left in the third quarter.

The Saints would pull within seven on a six-yard TD run by RB Fred McAfee – one of the last carries of his long career with the Saints – but Carolina added a fourth-quarter field goal to complete the scoring.

RB Deuce McAllister turned in the finest postseason rushing performance in franchise history, running for 143 yards on 21 carries and a touchdown and hauling in four passes for 20 yards and another TD in the club's second-ever playoff victory.

The Saints took an early lead on a pair of field goals by K John Carney, a 33-yard kick with 9:24 remaining in the first quarter and a 23-yarder early in the second when the Eagles held the Saints at the Philadelphia 5.

The responded early in the second quarter when QB Jeff Garcia found WR Donte' Stallworth – a Saints' No. 1 pick in 2002 before being traded on the eve of the 2006 regular season – on a touchdown pass.

On the following drive, the Saints marched 78 yards on 14 plays. QB Drew Brees was sharp, completing four passes for 52 yards, including three strikes to WR Marques Colston for 38 yards. The drive was capped by a four-yard scoring burst by RB Reggie Bush to give New Orleans a 13-7 lead.

NFL PLAYOFFS

The Eagles closed the scoring of the first half with an 11-play, 80-yard drive, including Garcia completions of 32 and 25 yards. RB Brian Westbrook ended the march with a one-yard plunge to give Philadelphia a 14-10 advantage at intermission.

The Eagles increased their lead on their first possession of the third quarter, striking quickly on a 62-yard touchdown run by Westbrook.

After WR Michael Lewis returned the ensuing kickoff 37 yards, the Saints responded with a 63-yard drive. McAllister had three carries 24 yards on the possession, and the other key plays were a pair of Brees completions to TE Billy Miller, a 15-yard strike and a 29-yard grab. The latter set up a five-yard touchdown run by McAllister, with the running back bulling into the end zone over the last few yards without his helmet.

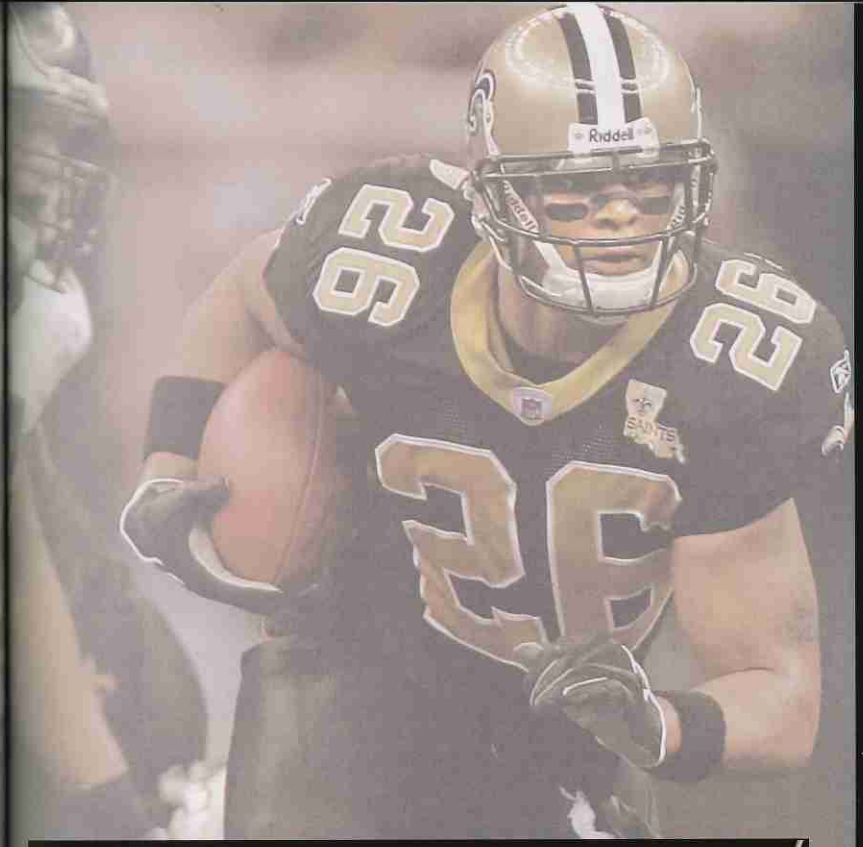
McAllister struck again on the Saints' next possession. On a nine-play, 84-yard drive, McAllister closed it with a 23-yard burst, followed by an 11-yard screen pass from Brees for a TD. The running back caught the ball in the flat and steamed past a pair of defenders to give the Saints a 27-21 lead with 1:05 left in the third quarter.

After the kickoff, the Eagles continued a lengthy drive into the fourth quarter, marching methodically to the New Orleans 4. But the Saints defense came up big on successive plays. On 2nd-and-1, Westbrook was stuffed for no gain by DE Will Smith. And on 3rd-and-1 at the New Orleans 4, LB Scott Fujita's tackle behind the line on a screen pass forced a 24-yard field goal by K David Akers, cutting the Saints' lead to 27-24.

While 11:08 remained when the Saints took over at their own 35 following the kickoff, neither team would score again.

Later in the quarter the Saints drove to the Philadelphia 32 before a fumble on a botched pitch, quieting the Superdome.

But New Orleans survived the turnover when the defense forced a punt after the Eagles went three-and-out. The Saints were able to run out the rest of the clock after Philadelphia used up its last two timeouts during the drive. Three-straight carries by McAllister for 14 yards and a first down was the key.



! GAMENOTES

In his first NFL playoff appearance, RB Deuce McAllister set club postseason records for rushing yards (143), attempts (21), longest non-scoring rush (a 28-yard burst), and longest touchdown run (five yards). Both of his TDs came in the third quarter, when the Saints took a lead they would not relinquish.

With the Saints clinging to a three-point lead with the ball on the New Orleans 22 and 1:48 remaining, McAllister had three-straight carries for 14 yards. The resulting first down – with the Eagles left without a timeout – ended the game.

QB Drew Brees completed 20 of 32 for 243 yards, with a 96.2 rating. He completed passes to eight players and seven had 20 receiving yards or more. WR Marques Colston led the Saints with five catches for 55 yards, and WR Devery Henderson had a 35-yard grab in the opening quarter to set up a field goal.

As a team, the Saints rushed for 208 yards, including 52 on 12 attempts by RB Reggie Bush. The rookie scored New Orleans' first touchdown on a four-yard burst in the second quarter to give the Saints a 13-7 lead. Bush also had three catches for 22 yards and returned a trio of punts for 21 yards.

The club's unheralded tight end trio came up with a big performance vs. the Eagles. Billy Miller had four catches for a team-high 64 yards. Of Miller's yards, all but seven came in the second half. Miller, Mark Campbell and John Owens combined for six catches for 108 yards. Campbell had a 23-yard grab and Owens a 21-yard catch.

WR Michael Lewis had five kickoff returns for 137 yards – including a 36-yard burst – for an average of 27.4 per return. His yardage total was just two off the club's playoff record.

The Saints held a 35:24-24:36 advantage in time of possession, and finished with 435 net yards (208 rushing, 227 passing). New Orleans forced the Eagles to punt six times.

Late in the game, the Saints appeared to be in control in Eagles' territory until a fumbled pitch from Brees to Bush was recovered by DE Darren Howard at the Philadelphia 32 with 3:24 left. But the New Orleans defense came up with a huge stand, with two Eagles completions netting no gain, an incompletion and a false start forcing a punt.

SOLDIER FIELD
CHICAGO, IL – 1/21/07
ATTENDANCE: 61,817 TIME: 3:10

While the Saints cut the Bears' lead to 16-14 in the second half and trailed by only four early in the final quarter, four turnovers and a handful of miscues proved to be too much to overcome in the first appearance in the NFC Championship Game in the franchise's 39-year history.

The Saints started quickly, with QB Drew Brees finding WR Marques Colston for an eight-yard completion followed by a 40-yard strike to WR Devery Henderson. But the Bears' defense stiffened at their own 30, holding New Orleans to a punt following a sack.

Later in the first quarter, a Saints' fumble at midfield that was returned to the New Orleans 36, setting up Chicago's first scoring drive. The Bears marched to the edge of the end zone, running six plays inside the New Orleans 10 before settling for a field goal and a 3-0 lead.

WR Michael Lewis fumbled the ensuing kickoff at the New Orleans 30, putting Chicago in prime scoring position again. The Saints' defense limited the Bears to three-and-out, setting up K Robbie Gould's second field goal.

Gould would add his third on the Bears' next possession, capping an eight-play, 43-yard march with a 24-yard kick to give Chicago a 9-0 lead.

The Bears would rely exclusively on RB Thomas Jones on their next possession, as the veteran carried the ball eight-straight plays for 69 yards, ending with a two-yard burst into the end zone to put Chicago ahead, 16-0.

The Saints got on the scoreboard on their next possession, with Brees connecting with Colston on a 13-yard scoring strike with 51 seconds remaining in the second quarter to cut the Chicago lead to 16-7 at halftime.

New Orleans responded quickly in the third quarter, when RB Reggie Bush took a pass in the left flat 88 yards down the sideline for a touchdown, flipping into the end zone.

The Saints had a chance to take the lead later in the third quarter after driving to the Chicago 29. But K Billy Cundiff was short on a 47-yard attempt, and while the Bears were held to three-and-out, P Brad Maynard's 51-yard punt was downed at the New Orleans 5.

Two plays later, Brees was flagged in the end zone for intentional grounding, with the safety putting Chicago ahead, 18-14, with 5:32 left in the third quarter.

The Bears capped a lengthy march that began in the third quarter with a 33-yard scoring reception by WR Bernard Berrian, putting Chicago ahead, 25-14, with 14:23 remaining in the contest..

Two plays into the next drive, Brees was sacked and fumbled, setting Chicago up at the New Orleans 26. Four plays later, RB Cedric Benson scored on a 12-yard burst. The Bears now were ahead, 32-14, with 11:37 left in the game.

A Brees interception ended the Saints' following drive, though the Bears were forced to punt, and Maynard dropped it at the New Orleans 8. The Saints were held on fourth down after advancing to the 30, setting up Chicago's final TD, which left the outcome no longer in doubt.

While the Saints trailed, 16-0, in the first half, the defense had turned in a solid performance. An early fumble put Chicago at the New Orleans 36, but that drive resulted in a field goal after six plays inside the 10. A fumble moments later put the Bears at the Saints' 30, but after three downs they settled for a second field goal. The Bears took over on the New Orleans 49 on their next march and drove to the Saints 8, but came away with three points. Chicago didn't score a TD until 1:56 remained in the first half.

QB Drew Brees completed 27 of 49 for 354 yards and a pair of touchdowns, with an 83.2 passer rating. His yardage, attempts and 88-yard TD to RB Reggie Bush were all Saints' postseason records. Brees was 13 of 22 in the first half, for 166 yards.

LB Scott Fujita led New Orleans with 10 tackles, including nine solo stops. S Jay Bellamy had nine tackles.

Rookie WR Marques Colston capped his record-breaking rookie season with five catches for 69 yards, including a 29-yard grab and a 13-yard touchdown reception at the end of the first half.

Chicago led New Orleans in time of possession, 35:15-24:45 and the Bears were only penalized once for five yards.

The Saints limited NFC kickoff return leader Devin Hester to a 13.0-yard avg. (three returns for 39 yards.)

Russ BALL

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

A highly-respected executive and key component in all major decisions involving the team, Vice President of Football Administration Russ Ball enters his sixth season with the club and 19th in the NFL. He has a myriad of responsibilities within the club's football operations, but Ball's primary daily focus is the salary cap, and the club has maintained one of the league's healthiest cap positions in recent years.

With talent evaluation and salary cap management forming the foundation of every NFL team's yearly formula for success, Ball's work in making the contracts of players fit within the confines of the cap has been invaluable. A contributing factor in that success has been Ball's research of contracts and cap statistics from not only the Saints but from around the league.

His responsibilities include monitoring the salary cap, contract negotiations and roster management – including confirming the team is in compliance with NFL and Management Council regulations. Ball also coordinates different areas of the football operations and is involved in administrative functions of running the club.

He arrived in New Orleans after spending 2001 as director of football administration for the Washington Redskins. In that position, Ball assisted then-head coach Marty Schottenheimer in handling the football responsibilities of a franchise. His duties included managing the salary cap as well as team operations, including overseeing the video, athletic training, equipment, strength & conditioning and player development departments, as well as their respective budgets.

From 1999-2000, Ball served in a similar capacity for the Minnesota Vikings, where he was responsible for assisting with player contracts and salary cap management as senior football administrator. Before arriving in Minneapolis, he spent 10 seasons in Kansas City. Ball started his career with the Chiefs as assistant strength & conditioning coach, a position he held for eight years. In his final two seasons with the Chiefs, he worked under Schottenheimer in football operations.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Ball served as head strength & conditioning coach at the University of Missouri from 1982-89. He was a four-year letterman as a center at Central Missouri State University.

Ball was selected by the Saints in 2005 to attend the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business. He earned a Master's Degree in human performance from the University of Missouri in 1990, after receiving an undergraduate degree from Central Missouri State in 1981. He and his wife, Diana, have two children, Joe and Andrea.

Rick MUELLER

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Mueller leads the Saints continual efforts to build a talented, productive roster of players. Those responsibilities range from evaluating current and future NFL free agents to scouting and studying college prospects nationwide. Mueller supervises and coordinates the organization's college and pro scouts, and his duties peak each year when running the Saints' draft room.

Entering his eighth season in New Orleans, Mueller has helped shape the Saints' last seven drafts and free agent classes, the players who now form the foundation of the team. With a rebuilt roster in 2006, the Saints went 10-6, captured the NFC South title and went to the NFC Championship for the first time in club history. At the end of the season, only one player remained on the roster from prior to Mueller's arrival, and 27 new players were on team from the year before.

While the Saints drafted RB Reggie Bush in the first round in 2006, Mueller and the Saints also uncovered small-school players who became all-rookie performers such as G Jahri Evans (fourth round) and WR Marques Colston (seventh round).

Among veterans, the signing of QB Drew Brees made headlines, but players such as TE Mark Campbell, C Jeff Faine, LB Scott Shanle, DT Hollis Thomas – acquired in trades and free agency – proved to be important additions.

Mueller came to the team following a six-year stint with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he was instrumental in their rapid rise from expansion franchise in 1995 to AFC powerhouse. From 1996-99, Jacksonville captured two AFC Central Division titles and played in a pair of conference championships.

Mueller served as the Jaguars' Director of College Scouting in 1998-99 and was in charge of his initial college draft in 1999. Prior to being promoted, Mueller was Jacksonville's college scout for the Western United States.

In 1993, he served as Director of Player Personnel and wide receivers coach for the CFL Sacramento Gold Miners. In the spring and summer of 1992, Mueller worked as a defensive assistant and special teams coach for the World League's Sacramento Surge, who went 8-2 and captured the World Bowl Championship.

Following that season, Mueller was one of five pro scouts for the World League. Working for the Surge was Mueller's first pro assignment after serving as a graduate assistant at Washington State University from 1990-92 where he was quarterbacks coach, junior varsity coach and recruiting coordinator. Mueller began his career as a training camp assistant with the Seattle Seahawks from 1985-90.

A graduate of the University of Puget Sound (Wash.), Mueller was a three-year starter at quarterback. He received a bachelor's degree in communications in 1990 and also attended graduate school, studying communications while coaching at Washington State from 1990-92.

Mueller and his wife, Andrea, have twin sons, Chase and Rhett, and a daughter, Emry.

James NAGAOKA
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Director of Operations James Nagaoka enters his eighth season with the Saints, and he oversees all aspects of the day-to-day demands and logistics of the football team. He brings over 29 years of NFL experience to his post.

In addition, he manages the Saints Training Camp operations at Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss. Nagaoka was promoted to his current position in 2003 after serving as director of team logistics/box office manager after arriving in New Orleans in 2000.

In 2002, he served as the primary liaison during the construction of the indoor practice facility, locker room, weight room and cafeteria at the Saints' headquarters.

In 22 years with the Seattle Seahawks, Nagaoka had a wide spectrum of responsibilities, including special projects, entertainment, travel coordination and as ticket director. As the Seahawks ticket director, he managed both sales and operations for 15-straight sold-out seasons. He is a graduate of the University of Washington, with degrees in communications and Japanese literature.

Rick REIPRISH
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Rick Reiprish, an important addition to the Saints' personnel department in 2004, brings 28 years of NFL experience to his post as college scouting director. His responsibilities include coordinating the efforts of the scouting staff and evaluating college prospects, and his insight has been a key part of the team's success in the draft since his arrival.

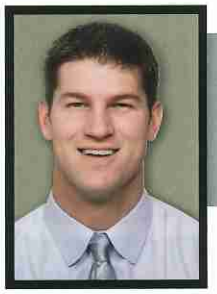
Reiprish joined the Saints following an eight-year stint (1994-2002) with Jacksonville as director of player personnel, where he was an architect of the Jaguars' rapid ascension to the top of the AFC. He was responsible for each of the club's drafts since its inaugural effort in 1995, selecting such stalwarts as T Tony Boselli, DE Tony Brackens, RB Fred Taylor, S Donovin Darius and CB Fernando Bryant. Of the team's seven first-round picks from 1995 to 1999, each became a starter, more than any other NFL team in that span.

Originally hired as the Jaguars' Director of College Scouting in 1994, Reiprish was promoted to director of player personnel in 1998. He was responsible for the pro and college scouting departments, including directing the scouting of college players and the draft as well as the evaluation of veteran free agents.

Reiprish joined the Jaguars after working for the Seattle Seahawks for 10 years (1984-94), first as an area scout before being promoted to Eastern Scout Supervisor in 1989. He began his NFL career as a southeast scout with BLESTO from 1979-82. For the previous three years, he was a personnel scout for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Reiprish coached wide receivers and running backs at Austin Peay State University (1973-76) before going to East Tennessee State in 1977, where he coached quarterbacks and running backs. In 1978, he was offensive line coach at North Alabama.

Born Sept. 14, 1950 in Shamokin, Pa., Reiprish graduated from Villanova in 1972 and earned a master's degree in education-administration and supervision from Austin Peay in 1974. He and his wife, Janet, have a son, Andrew.



Ryan PACE

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Recently promoted to Director of Pro Scouting, Ryan Pace enters his seventh season with the Saints and sixth in the club's player personnel department. He served as a pro scout from 2004-06 and in his expanded duties will manage the entire pro personnel department on a daily basis.

His responsibilities will include evaluating all free agents and recommending player acquisitions to the general manager and head coach by monitoring and scouting prospects in the NFL and other professional football leagues. Pace will also oversee the advance scouting of all upcoming opponents relative to their personnel, tendencies and schemes. The pro personnel department also evaluates current Saints players on a daily basis through studying film and daily practices.

In his previous three seasons as a pro scout, Pace's responsibilities included evaluating free agent prospects, advance scouting of future opponents and assisting in the evaluation of college players in preparation for the NFL Draft. Prior to the club's march to the NFC Championship in 2006, the Saints personnel department made several key veteran acquisitions, including the additions of QB Drew Brees, LB Scott Fujita, C Jeff Faine and DT Hollis Thomas.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

Game day at the Louisiana Superdome comes on Sundays, when the Saints take the field in front of 68,000 screaming fans. But every morning kicks off another game day in the club's community relations efforts, and the Saints and their players put in the same tireless work to make a positive impact on the people of New Orleans and the Gulf South region as they do preparing for each contest.

This ongoing dedication to the less fortunate and charitable causes has been a hallmark of the Saints during Tom Benson's tenure as Owner. From top management and moving through the team's coaches, players and staff, the organization makes a concerted effort to be a visible and accessible to members of the community, with a hands-on approach to charitable approach toward charitable outreach. But these efforts are sparked by more than the desire to be seen – the Saints are firmly focused on making a positive, lasting impact.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS HURRICANE KATRINA RELIEF FUND

Victims of Hurricane Katrina are working to recover from this massive natural disaster. Thousands of lives, homes and countless personal items have been lost in the devastation. As the proud people of Louisiana and the Gulf South Region move to get back on their feet, the New Orleans Saints organization feels an obligation to help. Saints Owner Tom Benson and his family started the New Orleans Saints Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund to aid those in need days after this horrific storm. Bank of America assisted in the establishment of the fund with a generous contribution. The monies collected have been used to provide aid and assistance to the people of New Orleans, Louisiana and the Gulf Coast region affected by Hurricane Katrina.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The Saints organization understands that our children represent the community's hope for the future, and thus the Community Affairs Department has targeted youth programs and education as primary impact areas in giving back to New Orleans and the Gulf South region. Saints players visit New Orleans area schools each week during the regular season to stress the importance of education to students as part of the club's Domino's Pizza Literacy Program. The club also partners with youth-oriented charities such as the New Orleans Recreation Department, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Boys & Girls Clubs, the New Orleans Police Department's "COPS for Kids" program, the Kenner Police Department, the Fellowship Foundation, the United Way and the NFL YET Center.

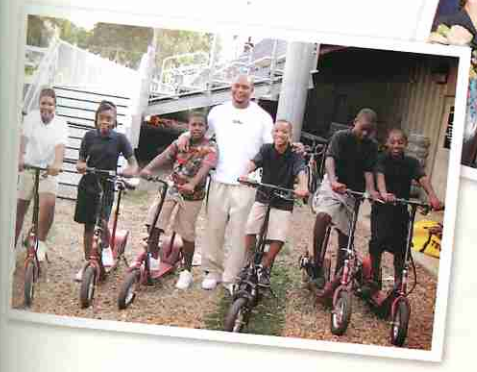
The Saints reach out to thousands of youngsters each year through programs like the Gatorade Junior Training Camp, Saints Experience and the Tackle Football Program. The club is highly involved with the NFL's Junior Player Development Program in New Orleans Public Schools, and supports all of the league's youth initiatives. Over the summer in 2006, the Saints teamed up with the United Way for Greater New Orleans to provide 15 youth football and life skills clinics, free of charge.

CARE & COMPASSION FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is the club's chief focus in the community, the Saints haven't limited their resources. The club also works closely with the Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse for Greater New Orleans, the American Red Cross in Southeast Louisiana, the Fore!Kids Foundation, and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are placed back into the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services.

Encouraged by the Community Affairs Department, Saints players also provide hundreds of less fortunate families a holiday dinner with all the trimmings as part of the team's annual Thanksgiving benefit at Dryades YMCA. In addition, several Saints players take underprivileged children on holiday shopping sprees at theirown expense.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending an oversized helping hand, the New Orleans Saints and its Community Affairs Department are there for the Greater New Orleans and Gulf South community, where every day is game day.



YOUTHPROGRAMS

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS YOUTH PROGRAMS

The New Orleans Saints Youth Programs Dept. maintains an active presence the community throughout the year, bringing NFL excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience Saints' football in person.

The Saints reach thousands of children through programs such as the Gatorade Junior Training Camp, the Saints Experience, the United Way Community Patrol and the High School 7 on 7 Tournament. The club is also highly involved with the NFL's Junior Player Development Program and supports all of the league's youth initiatives such as NFL Flag, High School Player Development, NFL Street, and NFL Coaching Clinics.

As part of the Youth Football Foundation's "Play it Smart" program, the Saints also place an "academic coach" in high schools to help football teams excel in academics and on the field.

The Youth Task Force meets monthly and addresses issues facing today's youth football programs. These efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

The Youth Programs Department is also influential in the recovery process, helping raise over $60,000 through the NFL Player Matching Grant program. In conjunction with the NFL Youth Football Fund, the monies were contributed to youth football organizations throughout the region.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

MINNESOTA VIKINGS 44, SAINTS 10

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game in the Superdome. New Orleans opened the scoring when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a 10-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

SAINTS 27, PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 24

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards in leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard TD reception. Philadelphia would add a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 39, SAINTS 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

NFL DRAFT HISTORY

1967 Expansion Draft

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first NFL team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected by New Orleans. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.

NFL SCHEDULE ROTATION

The NFL regular season scheduling rotation under the realignment plan that went into effect in 2002:

The interconference and intraconference divisional matchups – 14 of each season's 16 games – were determined following extensive analysis and discussion with NFL clubs. A key factor in deciding the initial schedules was the displacement of certain teams from their traditional divisions in the new alignment.

The Saints, who teamed with Atlanta, Carolina and Tampa Bay to create the newly-formed NFC South in 2002, play home-and-home with each of their divisional rivals (six games), the four teams from another NFC division on a rotating three-year cycle (four games), the four teams from an AFC division on a rotating four-year cycle (four contests) and two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (two games against teams in the two NFC divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The division champions of each division will play against each other, and the second-, third- and fourth-place teams in a each conference are matched the same way).

The format adopted by the NFL in 2002 has several advantages:

• There is an increased common-opponent emphasis with every team in a division playing against 14 common opponents.

• All teams play each other on a regular basis, home and away, for a more consistent presentation of attractive games, eliminating the many schedule aberrations of the past.

• Teams are guaranteed to play all non-division opponents in their conference at least once every three years and at home at least once every six years.

• Every NFC team plays every AFC team once every four years and at home once every eight years.

• A team's record from the previous year has less of a bearing on its schedule, with only two opponents based on the previous year's standings, rather than the four of the previous system. Thus, the so-called "easy" fifth-place schedules have been eliminated.

• The division that a team is in will be less of a factor in a team's won-loss record with 10-of-16 games each season coming against non-division teams.

SUPERDOMEINFORMATION

Last season, the Louisiana Superdome reopened after suffering tremendous damage during Hurricane Katrina, when it served as a shelter of last resort of New Orleans residents. The target date for making the stadium "football ready" was Aug. 25 for the Saints' home opener on Monday Night Football, a triumphant night for the city and region that was capped by the club's 23-3 victory in front of more than 70,000 fans.

The logistics and time spent for repairs also afforded an opportunity to incorporate significant improvements to the stadium, enhancing the experience for fans. And those efforts have been a work in progress, continuing in-between home games last year and throughout the offseason.

The upgrades have included larger video boards in the two end zones, replacing the four scoreboards on the façade of the Terrace Level, and a new LED "ribbon" board on front of the East and West Club Level sidelines. Other changes included fully remodeled concession stands on all levels, an epoxy flooring system in the concourses and walk ramps and leatherette seats for Club Level members.

Before the 2007 NFL season kicks off, it is expected that the improvements will include refurbishing the 137 box suites on both suite levels with new cabinets, countertops and furnishings, and dramatic changes to the four large ballrooms, which serve as Club Rooms for the Saints' games.

The Saints' preseason game with the Baltimore Ravens on Aug. 26, 2005 was the last event hosted by the Superdome prior to the storm. With New Orleans under a mandatory evacuation two days later, the stadium served as a "refuge of last resort" to residents who were unable to leave the city.

Most estimates are that nearly 30,000 took refuge in the building, but when the city's power grid was knocked out the stadium was plunged into semi-darkness, with no air conditioning, ventilation or functioning plumbing.

A team of experts soon began a thorough inspection of the damage not long after the evacuation. The building was found to be structurally sound, and repairs were estimated at $139 million. Nearly 4,000 tons of trash and debris were removed, the roof was given a temporary seal and the remediation process began.

The study suggested that upgrades would be more cost-effective if undertaken while the building was under repair. Incorporating them into the construction schedule would also mean less down time or potential interruption of the future events. The report suggested that sufficient work could be accomplished to reopen the Superdome Nov. 1, 2006.

As the project advanced into the architectural stage, Dome managers SMG and Louisiana Stadium & Exposition District officials held numerous meetings and discussions with NFL and Saints representatives. On Feb. 5, 2006 (Super Bowl Sunday), the league announced the Saints would play the full 2006 regular-season schedule in the Superdome, with the date moved up to Sept. 25, 2006.
