OWNERSHIP

Tom BENSON OWNER/CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Tom Benson's pronouncement upon taking on ownership of the New Orleans Saints that he would one day bring a championship to his hometown came to fruition on February 7, 2010 when his Saints defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV.

The Saints' successful march to the National Football League's Championship level has been the crown jewel of many highlights that the franchise has experienced both on and off the field since 2006. This period, featuring the Super Bowl title, two NFC Championship appearances, three division championships and four playoff berths, combined with a commitment to rebuild and enhance the Gulf South region, has embodied the testament and realization of the principles that Mr. Benson has instilled in the Saints' organization throughout his 27 years of team ownership.

The essential qualities and directives of Mr. Benson's tenure as owner of the Saints have been unadorned – direct all of his efforts and resources towards bringing the fans what have been consistently new levels of success on the football field, all the while supporting his hometown and the entire region by investing in the community. Mr. Benson has understood since purchasing the club in 1985 that the Saints are part of the fabric of the Gulf South: a cornerstone of the region economically and he has made them a leader in charitable causes.

Mr. Benson's tenure of ownership has been a period defined by historic advancements in successes, whether it be measured by victories, playoff appearances, Mercedes-Benz Superdome attendance figures, national television coverage, positive economic impacts both locally and regionally, as well as serving as one of the most philanthropic and charitable citizens in the city's rich and colorful history.

During his ownership and leadership of the Saints, Mr. Benson has helped drive the evolution of the team's legion of fans support that reached new heights with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome being sold-out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 people. By the end of the 2012 season, the consecutive sellout streak will extend to 71 games. These supporters turned out in record numbers to welcome the Saints home from their Super Bowl victory for a downtown New Orleans parade that exceeded 800,000 spectators.

While his work within the organization and the Saints' turnaround is well documented, his efforts have also paid dividends for the city and the surrounding area. During his ownership tenure, the city has already hosted four Super Bowls, and was awarded Super Bowl XLVII, to be played on February 3, 2013, following a vote by NFL owners after Mr. Benson directed a successful campaign during the annual league meetings in May, 2009. He's been the driving force behind each campaign to secure the contest, and made this latest accomplishment his top priority in an effort to present the recovery of New Orleans on an international level. Each Super Bowl has been an economic windfall that totals over $400 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions the NFL makes during Super Bowl week.

Mr. Benson has made the objectives of success, support and investment in the region not only his personal direction daily, but the core values of the entire organization. Not surprisingly, success has followed, both on the field and off. When he purchased the team, the Saints entered the most compelling and memorable period in franchise history. Prior to his arrival, the club's fans had never enjoyed a winning record, celebrated a division title or experienced the thrill of playoff victories.

But Mr. Benson's impact was immediate. Two years after assuming the reins of the organization, the Saints hosted their first playoff contest. After multiple winning seasons, playoff berths and division titles since, the franchise has reached new heights, topped by the Super Bowl title.

His dedication to New Orleans has been among Mr. Benson's most rewarding endeavors. Since 2005, he's positioned the Saints as a leader in the recovery of the region in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, the worst natural disaster in our nation's history. The club was among the first major businesses to return to New Orleans, and in 2006 had a thrilling season that became an inspiration for a region on the mend. In 2010, through his leadership, the club established the Saints Gulf Coast Renewal Fund, which raised over $1.5 million through the raffle of a Super Bowl XLIV championship ring to help benefit the response to the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. The efforts of the organization have continued to lift the community, with the team serving as an economic engine and a pacesetter in philanthropic contributions.

Under Mr. Benson's guidance, the Saints have been a focal point for healing and restoration—annually putting $15 million in charitable contributions, goods and services back into the Gulf South and Greater New Orleans. He pledged the club's commitment to the region was firm and lasting, with his focus on building a stronger and more unified city. It's a direction that continues to evolve and expand.

Some of Mr. Benson's most ambitious projects to date have occurred in New Orleans' Central Business District, directly adjoining the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, starting with his 2009 purchase of the formerly vacant and blighted Dominion Tower. As part of the agreement, Benson and his family also purchased the unoccupied New Orleans Centre. The two important commercial spaces, which were vacant since Katrina struck the Gulf Coast in 2005, have returned the CBD into a more vibrant and viable sector of New Orleans and revitalized an area that was largely ignored for four years. The newly renovated Benson Tower has served as a boon to this important business corridor, while "Champions Square," which made its debut in 2010 adjacent to the former mall, is continually being developed and enhanced with the ultimate objective of producing a world-class sports and entertainment destination.

Mr. Benson's economic investment plan, which included 2009 agreements on both a private and public level, has revitalized the Mercedes-Benz Superdome area, and the agreement with the state included a dramatic modernization of the stadium, which was completed in 2011. Following the debut of the renovations, the Saints, under Mr. Benson's leadership, and Mercedes-Benz USA reached a ten-year agreement to rename the facility the "Mercedes-Benz Superdome." The stadium upgrades and rebranding with his help include a legion of new enhancements that have significantly improved the fan experience for all events at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and kept the building competitive with new stadiums across the country.

Since its opening in 1996, Mr. Benson has strived to keep the club's practice facility in Metairie among the NFL's elite. In 2003, an indoor practice facility and cafeteria was constructed, along with significant upgrades to the team's locker room, training room and weight room. This offseason, an extensive remodeling and expansion plan of the team's headquarters has been implemented, assuring that the facilities would remain at the top level of professional sports teams.

Mr. Benson's vision of what an NFL club should be off the field—proactive, with a positive impact on the prosperity of the community and the charities that support the less fortunate—has been the determining factor of the Saints' approach.

The Saints' owner has not only reached out by supporting charities, but also by recognizing that the future of the area's economy depends on keeping major businesses and employers in the Gulf South locally owned. His philosophy is to rebuild the economy by developing the infrastructure of the region from the inside, and Mr. Benson has made two other large investments in the city's future, encouraging a number of other businesses to follow his example.

In 2008, he purchased WVUE, making FOX-8 the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that is wholly locally owned. After researching the trends of the media industry, Mr. Benson discovered television stations have increasingly become parts of national media conglomerates, and his focus remains on keeping Louisiana businesses owned by those with ties to the state.

In June, 2012, Mr. Benson continued his commitment to the Gulf South by purchasing the National Basketball Association's New Orleans Hornets. His objectives in ownership of the basketball team will be the same as his stewardship of the Saints: to produce a team on-the-court that will compete for championships every year, while making a significant positive impact off-the-court in the community.

Since 2006—when New Orleans captured the nation's imagination by winning the NFC South and advancing further into the postseason than ever before—the Saints have been symbolic of the region's resolve and grit, though Benson, as usual, chooses to work quietly in the background.

BENSON COMMUNITY SERVICE

Tom Benson's greatest impact over the last 27 years has been in the community, and the club's charitable involvement has been among his most rewarding endeavors personally since 1985. He realized immediately that the Saints could be more than just a football team to the region, and that the club's players, coaches and staff were pacesetters when it came to volunteerism, involvement, donations and charitable outreach. As a corporate citizen, the Saints annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and the donation of goods and services—not to mention the club's critical role in economic impact and development.

Benson and the Saints have been honored repeatedly during his years as owner for the support and care of charitable and civic causes, including the Volunteers of America selecting him as the winner of the annual Good Samaritan Award in Philanthropy in 2008. In 2010, Benson was awarded Loyola University of New Orleans' highest honor as the recipient of the Integritas Vitae Award, given to an individual who exemplifies a commitment to community service.

Mr. Benson and his family have helped raise over $2.5 million for community causes through the Saints Hurricane Katrina and Gulf Coast Renewal funds. Annually, the club has also partnered with local youth-oriented charities such as the Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts of America and the United Way to reach as many children as possible. And over 45 foundations and agencies receive monetary donations from the Saints each year—organizations as diverse as Make-A-Wish Foundation, the American Heart Association, the United Negro College Fund, Habitat For Humanity, the New Orleans Police and Justice Foundation, the National Council of Jewish Women and the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra.

In addition to consistently supporting charities, Mr. Benson has also been a leading advocate for New Orleans and the Gulf South. He lends his support in attracting new events to the city, and the club has worked in conjunction with the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation and other local entities to bid and receive the 2012 NCAA Men's Final Four Basketball Championships and the upcoming 2013 Women's Final Four. Upon the announcement of his purchase of the New Orleans Hornets in the spring of 2012, the city was awarded the 2014 NBA All-Star Game.

New Orleans' leading advocate of the successful bid to host the upcoming Super Bowl XLVII, Benson remains committed to work on behalf of the city to land future Super Bowls because of the financial impact and positive global exposure they are able to shed on the city and the state.

OWNERSHIP

His tenure as owner has been defined by honesty, dedication, loyalty and commitment to the city, region, Saints and the NFL. When Mr. Benson initially became interested in purchasing the club in 1985, he was motivated by the threat of out-of-town investors planning to move the club from New Orleans. He was certainly a fan of the game and the Saints, but the sport had yet to become one of his passions.

As one of the area's top businessmen, Mr. Benson recognized the importance of the team to the region and immediately spearheaded the effort to keep the Saints. But unlike others at the time, it wasn't just an emotional plea. He pooled all of his resources, purchased the club in 1985 and preserved the Saints for the team's legion of fans across the area. And the once-rampant speculation that the club was moving immediately ceased.

While Mr. Benson's initial motivation for purchasing the team was to ensure it did not leave New Orleans, all of the Saints' best seasons have come since his arrival, and his goal remains for the club to rank among the most admired franchises in all of sports, a feat that took a monumental step forward with the Saints' first-ever NFC and NFL championships in 2009 and their continued success. Following the 2009 season, ESPN The Magazine ranked the Saints first among professional sports organizations, based on several criteria. In the fall of 2012, recognizing his significant contribution to the organization, Mr. Benson will be inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame.

So perhaps the Saints' successes in the years since were to be expected. Football was a new business for Mr. Benson when he arrived on the scene, but he was a quick learner and followed his lifelong professional philosophy of finding the right people and giving them the freedom to handle their responsibilities.

Mr. Benson also immediately emerged as one of the most trusted and valued figures in the league. He has played a key role in many capacities, including three stints as Chairman of the Finance Committee, one of the league's most difficult, time-consuming and influential positions. The assignment is evidence of the respect and esteem in which successive NFL commissioners and his fellow NFL owners hold him. He is also a member of the league's Audit Committee.

Community involvement has been the hallmark of the Benson era since he became the owner of the team, and because of those efforts the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame has twice recognized the club as one of the five most charitable professional organizations. Benson was selected by the Volunteers of America as the winner of its annual Good Samaritan Award in Philanthropy in recognition of his work in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. In 2010, he was honored by Loyola University with the school's Integritas Vitae Award, the New Orleans school's highest honor. The award is annually presented to an individual who exemplifies the qualities Loyola seeks to instill in its students. The recipient is chosen for displaying high moral character and selfless service, without expectation of material reward or public recognition, and adhering to the principles of honesty, integrity, justice and the preservation of human dignity. In addition, Mr. Benson was honored by the New Orleans chapter of CRIMESTOPPERS with the James J. Coleman Corporate Partner Award for his continued support of the national non-profit organization that works with law enforcement agencies in their work to identify and apprehend criminals.

For his humanitarian and philanthropic endeavors that have positively affected the lives of so many individuals and groups, Mr. Benson was recently honored by the Roman Catholic Church with an Oblate Doctor of Human Letters (to a person who has achieved the human purpose for which Divine Providence Placed Him on Earth) certificate that honors his “realities of the most noble of human endeavors, weighted by criteria arising from the deepest human values.” The certificate also honors “excellence in the area of life where excellence makes the most difference,” and further cites his “attributes and accomplishments that come closest to what God would be interested in honoring.” In 2012, Mr. Benson and his wife, the former Gayle Marie LaJaunie, a fellow native of New Orleans, received from Pope Benedict XVI the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice award—for outstanding service to the Church and the Pontiff, the highest Papal award granted to a lay person.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson are also personally involved in several charitable endeavors, including supporting local and regional causes. Mr. and Mrs. Benson have also funded the building of a football stadium located on the University of Incarnate Word campus, known as Gayle and Tom Benson Field. The school’s team took to the field for the first time in 2009 and will continue to grow and build their foundation with Benson’s unwavering support. In addition, the Benson family also established an endowment fund at Central Catholic High School in San Antonio that is dedicated to the memory of the late Robert Carter Benson, who graduated from the school in 1962. Tom Benson also donated the Benson Memorial Library at Central Catholic. In 2010, Mr. and Mrs. Benson received the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award from the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA), honoring his support of Catholic Education. In March, 2012, they were inducted by Tulane University into the Paul Tulane Society, recognizing their significant generosity to the school.

A cancer survivor, Mr. Benson has also worked closely with the Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans with the establishment of the Tom and Gayle Benson Cancer Center, a $20-million treatment complex.

In 1945, Mr. Benson served in the Navy aboard the U.S.S. South Dakota and has remained particularly close to this branch of the armed forces. He is the only enlisted man to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Pensacola Naval Museum and has been honored with an award from the crew of the submarine U.S.S. Louisiana. In 2007, Mr. Benson was honored by the U.S. Navy Memorial with the Lone Sailor Award, presented to those who exemplify the core values of honor, courage and commitment. In 2009, Benson was presented with U.S. Army’s Army Strong Award in recognition for his position in the community while demonstrating leadership and Army Values on a daily basis.

A leading advocate for the National World War II Memorial in Washington, D.C., Mr. Benson was also a major contributor and past director of The National D-Day Museum in New Orleans, with his pledges helping fund the Pacific Exhibit Grand Opening and the Midway Theater. In 2011, he was among five NFL owners honored with an American Spirit Award by the museum for service in the war.

OWNERSHIP

BENSON MILESTONES

1985 Ownership of club officially transferred to Tom Benson on May 31 and he becomes Managing General Partner of the Saints.

1986 The Benson influence begins as the Owner puts his management team in charge of the franchise, hiring Jim Finks as president/general manager and Jim Mora as head coach.

1987 The Saints post a franchise-best 12-3 record—including victories in the final nine contests—and make the playoffs for the first time.

1988 The Saints finish 10-6, posting a double-digit victory total again and achieving consecutive winning seasons for the first time.

1989 Mr. Benson appointed Chairman of the league's most influential group, the NFL Finance Committee, a position he kept before stepping down in the mid-1990s.

1990 After winning six of their last nine games, the Saints earn their second playoff appearance by finishing second in the NFC West.

1991 New Orleans clinched its first division championship with an 11-5 record and capture the NFC West.

1992 The Saints post a 12-4 record and host a playoff game for the second-straight year. Mr. Benson assumes sole ownership of the club.

1993 The Saints finish second in the NFC West, with the club recording its seventh-straight non-losing season.

1996 Marking a first for the organization, the coaches, players and staff are housed under one roof with the opening of the team's state-of-the-art facility in Metairie.

2000 New Orleans wins the NFC West with a 10-6 record. The Saints win their first playoff game, a 31-28 thriller over St. Louis in the Superdome.

2002 The city hosts its fourth Super Bowl during Mr. Benson's tenure as Owner.

2003 Mr. Benson again appointed Chairman of the Finance Committee; Construction of new indoor practice facility and other improvements are finished before training camp.

2005 After Hurricane Katrina ravaged the Gulf South on the verge of the NFL's opening weekend, Benson was forced to move the club's entire operation. Under his leadership, the Saints were able to continue the season, including holding four games in Baton Rouge. The club established the Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, raising over $1 million.

BENSON MILESTONES

2006 The team returns to Louisiana, with Mr. Benson positioning the club as an emblem of the state's resolve and determination in rebuilding. The Saints—selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time—win the NFC South title under the guidance of new coach Sean Payton at 10-6. The victory total included a memorable, 23-3 win over Atlanta in the reopening of the Superdome. The team advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time in franchise history.

2008 Mr. Benson purchases WVUE, making FOX-8 the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that is wholly locally-owned.

2009 In what Mr. Benson considers part of his legacy in Louisiana, the New Orleans native reaches an agreement with the state through 2025 that will create a new Sports Development District downtown. The Benson family purchased and redeveloped two properties—each adjacent to the Superdome—an economic windfall for the region without any new taxes.

New Orleans is selected by the NFL to host Super Bowl XLVII, to be played on February 3, 2013, with Mr. Benson serving as the city's leading advocate in the campaign. It is the fifth time New Orleans will host the Super Bowl since he's owned the club.

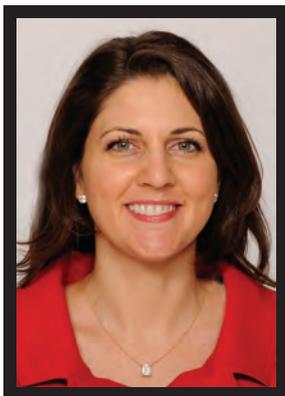

On the field, the Saints enjoy their most successful season in franchise history. New Orleans sets a club record for victories with a 13-3 regular season, capturing the NFC South title. The Saints then hosted the NFC Championship game for the first time and advance to their first Super Bowl with a 31-28 overtime victory over the Minnesota Vikings on January 24, 2010. New Orleans then defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, on February 7, 2010, in Super Bowl XLIV at Sun Life Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla. to give the Saints their first-ever NFL title.

2010 Sparked by a six game winning streak, the Saints finish 11-5 and qualify for the playoffs, making back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 1992.

2011 The club's completely renovated stadium makes its debut as the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, following a ten-year naming rights and sponsorship agreement with the automaker. The Saints enjoy an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season and finish 13-3, capturing their second NFC South title in three seasons. The team sets the NFL single-season record for total net yardage, while QB Drew Brees and RB Darren Sproles set the NFL's single-season passing yardage and all-purpose yardage records.

2012 Continuing his longstanding commitment to the Gulf South region and the City of New Orleans, Mr. Benson purchases the National Basketball Association's New Orleans Hornets. The Saints practice facility undergoes a multimillion dollar renovation and expansion set for completion before the 2012 season.

OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Having made a significant impact on the New Orleans Saints since being named Owner/Executive Vice President in 2005, Rita Benson LeBlanc will assume the new post of Owner/Vice Chairman of the Board in 2012.

After being responsible for overseeing the club's sales and marketing efforts, community affairs and youth programs initiatives, game day entertainment and stadium operations for seven years, LeBlanc's duties have expanded to include enhanced management responsibilities within Zelia LLC, which includes properties such as Benson Tower, Champions Square as well as various interests in the family's automotive, real estate and banking sectors and multi-media platforms, including FOX 8 (WVUE). LeBlanc works closely with her grandfather, Owner and Chairman of the Board Tom Benson and has represented the Saints at NFL Ownership meetings since 1997, where she serves on multiple owner committees. LeBlanc's concentration is now focused on the overall brand, financial and civic impact of the Saints in New Orleans, regionally and on an international level. Her vision and acumen are evident in the team's visual game presentation and extend to all elements of the team's interactions with fan connectivity and the expansion of the team's brand, as well as insuring the financial management of the Saints.

In 2009, the Benson family displayed their unwavering commitment to the future success of the franchise and region through a partnership with the State of Louisiana that continued the club's commitment to the state through 2025. The agreement called for the club to make a long-term investment that has dramatically revitalized the neighborhood around the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with the addition of Benson Tower and Champions Square. As a result of the agreement, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome underwent extensive renovations and upgrades to make it a world-class facility for Saints fans and visitors. Following the debut of the renovations in 2011, the club reached a ten-year agreement with Mercedes-Benz USA to rename the facility the "Mercedes-Benz" Superdome. The team's renovated stadium, combined with its recently renovated and expanded team headquarters in Metairie, are both among the finest facilities in professional sports.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Saints, LeBlanc also plays a key role with several investments made by her family and Zelia LLC that have spurred the economic development of New Orleans. In 2009, Zelia LLC purchased two properties in the city's Central Business District (CBD) that were dormant since Hurricane Katrina. LeBlanc has overseen the effort to redevelop Benson Tower, a 26-story building with over 480,000 square feet of office space, into one of the CBD's premier office and commercial buildings. Further leading the rejuvenation of the city's Poydras Corridor and CBD is the redevelopment of a former mall into Champions Square, a unique sports and entertainment complex adjacent to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Champions Square, a partnership between the State of Louisiana and Zelia LLC, has been instrumental in helping secure premier sporting events for New Orleans since its debut. LeBlanc also serves on the Board of Directors for the Louisiana Media Company, which includes WVUE FOX-8, the only locally-owned television station in New Orleans. In addition, she was recently appointed to serve on the board of directors for the Louisiana Film and Entertainment Association, an organization that was created to promote and protect the entertainment industry in the State of Louisiana.

LeBlanc has been a driving force behind the club's successes, both on and off the field. In 2006, the team achieved its first full season ticket sellout prior to the start of the season. Since then, all 61 games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome have been filled on a season ticket basis. This success, fueled by innovative restructuring of ticket prices and categories, has resulted in a season ticket waiting list of over 73,000 fans. In addition, every luxury suite has been leased since 2008 while Saints merchandise has consistently been one of the top selling lines in the NFL. On the field, the Saints have compiled a 67-37 overall record since 2006, appeared in the playoffs four times and won Super Bowl XLIV.

Her leadership role with the franchise and in the local community has been evident, as she's played a critical role in helping build the Saints into a Championship franchise and one that was voted by ESPN The Magazine in 2010 as "the best organization in professional sports."

Fostering the rejuvenated spirit of the city of New Orleans and the Gulf Coast region, LeBlanc uses creative connecting not only on the Saints' behalf but also on a multitude of civic, cultural and philanthropic levels through her passion for the city she calls home. This community commitment extends beyond economic development with a focus on improving the quality of life of citizens in need and Gulf Coast environmental protection. She was a key figure behind an initiative in 2010, in which the club raffled off a Super Bowl XLIV ring to raise over $1.5 million, which was distributed to those most affected by the Gulf of Mexico oil spill. The commitment to the betterment of the environment is an important pillar of LeBlanc's core beliefs, as she and the Saints have joined in partnership with several coastal preservation groups, including America's Wetlands and Women of the Storm, to raise awareness and funding for this vital national resource.

LeBlanc oversees more than $7 million in annual charitable contributions, goods and services donated by the Saints to serve New Orleans and the entire region.

OWNERSHIP

Serving the needs of a community devastated by Hurricane Katrina has been a priority. In the immediate days following the storm, LeBlanc helped establish the Saints Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, which raised over $1 million to assist the citizens of the Gulf South. Over 5,000 charities, schools, churches, foundations and festivals receive in-kind donations from the club annually.

Another longstanding part of the club's community initiatives has been with one of the NFL's most comprehensive commitments to youth football. LeBlanc's close working relationship with the league office has proved to be beneficial in securing league grants and programs that benefit Gulf South youth and charitable initiatives. Since 2006, the Saints have distributed over $2 million dollars to high school and youth football organizations. Under LeBlanc's direction, the Saints maintain an active presence throughout the Gulf South by developing and implementing programs that not only allow children to experience the excitement of Saints football but also teach important life skills. Over 50,000 young people are reached yearly through the club's youth programs department, more than 500 instructors, coaches and athletic directors receive valuable training and over 100 schools and playgrounds in the region are visited. In recognition of her commitment to the growth of the game and development of youth, LeBlanc was honored by Pop Warner with the 2008 Female Achievement Award, the first female NFL executive to be recognized by the organization. Her dedication and efforts in youth football development was also recognized by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as the recipient of the 2008 "Star Performance Award."

LeBlanc has also been recognized for her standing in the sports industry by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40" three times (2007, 2008 and 2011), honoring the 40 most influential sports executives under the age of 40, recently being named to the "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame. In 2008, she was honored for her leadership of the Saints during and after Katrina and the organization's rise to national and international prominence as one of three selected by vote for W.I.S.E's (Women in Sports and Events) "Women of the Year." LeBlanc's sound management skills and commitment to the enhancement of the community were noticed locally when she was honored as New Orleans CityBusiness' 2010 Woman of the Year and also was named to the 2011 class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. In 2010, she participated in the Fortune/Time/CNN Global Forum in South Africa, which gathered leaders in the fields of government, science and technology, business, sports, media and entertainment to focus on substantive issues and opportunities in addressing pressing world issues. LeBlanc's influence also extends to her role on the Governing Body of the of the Global Sports Summit, an organization that addresses modern opportunities and challenges faced by leading sports ownership peers for the collective betterment of the futures of leading professional sports organizations. LeBlanc was also a featured keynote speaker at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Sports Analytics Conference in March of 2012, a conference focused on the ever-changing dynamics and evolutions in sports management. In addition, LeBlanc is a board member of the YPO, (Young Presidents' Organization), a not-for-profit, global network of young chief executives connected around the shared mission of becoming better leaders through education and idea exchanges. LeBlanc also is an active member and speaker for the Beyond Sports World Summit, an organization dedicated to the development of ideas and initiatives on a global level through the goodwill of sports and competition.

In addition to her efforts with the Saints, LeBlanc has also taken an active leadership role in promoting the economic growth and development of New Orleans and the Gulf South, while working to recruit new businesses as well by serving on the boards of the Business Council of New Orleans and the River Region, Greater New Orleans Inc. and the New Orleans Business Alliance. She previously served on New Orleans Mayor Mitch Landrieu's Economic Development Task Force. As an active member of New Orleans' rich cultural landscape, LeBlanc devotes her time and passion to the Ogden Museum, which highlights southern artistic expressions through exhibits at the University of New Orleans.

LeBlanc played an integral role at both the local and league level in planning and lobbying and the securing of Super Bowl XLVII, which will be played in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on February 3, 2013, prior to and during the 2009 NFL meetings. She serves on the Executive Board of the New Orleans Super Bowl Host Committee. A key part of the bidding process for the 2012 Men's NCAA Basketball Final Four and the upcoming 2013 women's championship, LeBlanc and her family are committed to bringing future Super Bowls and some of the nation's other prominent sporting events to New Orleans, as evidenced by her role on the New Orleans Super Bowl Host Committee. LeBlanc is also a member of the NBA All-Star Game Committee, a game which will be held in New Orleans in 2014.

LeBlanc's sports industry career has encompassed work in various areas within the Saints organization, serving in virtually every department within the club and working in concert to insure the club's fiscal initiatives, business development, stadium viability and enhancement projects. Her past sports experience includes roles with the National Football League office in New York, as well as their NFL Properties Publishing Group and NFL Films divisions.

A graduate of Texas A&M University with a B.S. in Agribusiness, LeBlanc also received a certificate in International Business from the Lowry Mays School of Business. She attended Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business in 2004 as part of the NFL's Managers Program.

In her spare time, LeBlanc has displayed her adventurous spirit by recently rappelling down the 26-story Benson Tower for the Special Olympics to experiencing an AMA two-up.

Dennis LAUSCHA PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha, who was named team President on May 20, 2012, oversees the club's financial operations and government affairs as well as its marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, information technology and facilities departments. He's also one of the club's representatives at NFL Owner's meetings.

Entering his 15th season with the Saints, Lauscha has held several positions and responsibilities with the team, most recently as Executive Vice President/Chief Financial Officer. In addition to his duties with the Saints, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within other holdings of Owner/Chairman of the Board Tom Benson, maintaining a role in the management of New Orleans FOX affiliate WVUE-TV, and Zelia, LLC. Most recently he was the lead negotiator for Mr. Benson's purchase of the National Basketball Association's New Orleans Hornets and will also serve as the club President for the franchise.

Lauscha was promoted to Executive Vice President in May, 2009, after serving as Senior Vice President from 2006-09, and first being named a Vice President after joining the Saints as Chief Financial Officer in 1998. He's a key member of the team that actively pursues future Super Bowls for the City of New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII, to be played on February 3, 2013 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Lauscha was part of the Saints' contingent that negotiated the agreement with Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal on a partnership that continues the club's commitment to the state through 2025. The deal included the Benson family purchasing and redeveloping the New Orleans Centre and Benson Tower, properties adjacent to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. As a result of the agreement, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome underwent extensive renovations and improvements. The innovative agreement has dramatically modernized the team's playing facility, revitalized the area around the stadium and has generated revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens. In 2011, Lauscha also played a key role in finalizing a ground-breaking ten-year stadium naming rights and sponsorship agreement with Mercedes-Benz.

In 2008, he was also a primary member of the negotiating team during the purchase of WVUE, and has since helped steward the station's growth in the New Orleans market.

OWNERSHIP

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the team's training facility and this offseason, he has overseen an extensive renovation and expansion of the club's main facility and administrative offices.

Lauscha has been involved with numerous league-wide initiatives, including an NFL working committee for league financial reporting and a working committee for disaster preparedness. He has also completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Lauscha has completed terms as board president of the Preservation Resource Center, president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of America and as a member of New Orleans Mayor Mitch Landrieu's Blight Transition New Orleans Task Force. He currently serves as Chairman of the Visiting Committee of the Loyola University School of Business and on the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee.

His dealings with the Saints, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness when Lauscha was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola University of New Orleans' College of Business and also was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council, recognizing his commitment and contributions to the enhancement of the community.

After graduating from Jesuit High School, Lauscha graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in business. He has also received a master's of business administration from Loyola University in New Orleans and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant. Prior to joining the Saints, Lauscha worked as the club's auditor for four years while working for a national accounting firm.

Lauscha and his wife Jennifer, have a son, Dennis Patrick Jr., and a daughter, Evelyn Anne.

FOOTBALL

GENERAL MANAGER

Mickey LOOMIS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/
GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operations, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his 11th season in his current position and 13th with the Saints. He is a veteran of over 25 years in the NFL and during his time in New Orleans has been honored with the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive. Yet the most satisfying achievement of Loomis' career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last six seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to General Manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of Executive Vice President later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel and scouting, salary cap management, contract negotiations, athletic training, equipment, video and communications. Loomis also will oversee the basketball operations of the New Orleans Hornets.

In 2006—after being the key figure in the hiring of Sean Payton, the signing of Drew Brees and essentially rebuilding a team that would advance to the NFC Championship—Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by the Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by four postseason appearances, three division titles and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past six years, he has brought aboard a collection of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 67-37 overall record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing several significant contributors to long-term contracts.

While his responsibilities have grown during his tenure with the Saints, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as Director of Football Administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for an NFL team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

In 2003, Loomis oversaw the renovation of Saints headquarters that added an indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as Executive Vice President from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October, 1983, was promoted to Vice President/Finance in 1990 and to Executive Vice President in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the University of Oregon and a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Wichita State University. Married to Melanie, Loomis has four children: Alex, Katherine, Sam and Lucy.

HEADCOACH

Sean
PAYTON
HEAD COACH

In just six seasons as Head Coach of the New Orleans Saints, Sean Payton has established himself as one of the most successful coaches in the National Football League during this span. Since coming to New Orleans, Payton has led the Saints to their first Super Bowl title in franchise history and three division titles. During his tenure, he has compiled a 67-37 record and his teams have reached the postseason four times. Payton was hired as the 14th head coach in Saints history on Jan. 18, 2006 after being a member of the Dallas Cowboys staff since 2003.

Through this six-year span, Payton holds the franchise's top winning percentage (.644) for a Saints head coach. Only four NFL clubs have more than the Saints' 67 victories during this period, with just one NFC team securing more wins. The win total is the most during any six-year span in Saints history and the third-most by an NFL coach during this period. Over the past three seasons, the Saints have posted a 37-11 regular season mark, tied for best in the NFL. Payton's posted a 5-3 (.625) mark in the postseason after the team had won only one playoff game in franchise history prior to his arrival.

Payton's presided over the most prolific offense in the NFL, leading the league in yards per game four-of-his six seasons at the helm and finishing first in scoring in 2008, 2009 and 2011. These are the only four times the Saints have led the NFL in total offense. In franchise history, the Saints have scored at least 45 points on 15 separate occasions with 11 of these outputs occurring under Payton's watch.

In 2011, the Saints went to the playoffs for the third consecutive season for only the second time, as they captured the NFC South with a 13-3 record, tying a club record for regular season victories previously set in 2009. It was the first time in franchise history that the club has had at least 11 wins in three consecutive seasons. Taking advantage of the environment of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the Saints posted an undefeated 8-0 record at their home stadium for the first time. With five road victories, the Saints also enjoyed a first in posting winning records at visiting stadiums in three consecutive seasons for the first time. In fact, three of the top six road campaigns in team history (7-1 in 2009, 6-2 in both 2006 and 2010) have come under Payton in the last six years. His regular season road winning percentage (30-18, .625) is tops in club history and the NFL's third-best over the six-season period.

Payton oversaw a record-setting year on offense for the Saints in 2011, as New Orleans set an NFL single-season record with 7,474 net yards, while also leading the league in scoring with a club-record 547 points, the fourth-highest total all-time. QB Drew Brees set NFL single-season records for passing yardage (5,476), completions (468) and completion percentage (71.2%). In addition to the yardage record, the team set NFL records for net passing yardage (5,347), completions (472), completion percentage (71.3%), first downs (416), third down conversion rate (56.7%) and fewest fumbles (6). A reconfigured offensive line with three new starters surrendered only 24 sacks, tied for the second-lowest total in the league. Five players (Brees, T Jermon Bushrod, G Jahri Evans, TE Jimmy Graham and G Carl Nicks) represented the team at the Pro Bowl.

HEADCOACH

PLAY IT FORWARD

Head Coach Sean Payton launched the Play It Forward Foundation in 2008 to raise funds and awareness to help families in need in the areas of health, education and social welfare.

Since then, it has also served as a catalyst for various nonprofit organizations to improve the quality of life for local families in need, as well as support disadvantaged and disabled individuals through educational-based initiatives, increased and improved health-care support systems, and social welfare through research, education and professional services.

In 2008 and 2010, the foundation held Black & Gold Gala fundraisers at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Legendary entertainers such as Irma Thomas, Jimmy Buffett and Sammy Kershaw have lent their support, serving as honorary chairs. Benefactors of these events have included Brad Pitt's Make It Right NOLA, Blaine Kern's First Responder's Fund, the Dr. Phil Foundation and Feed the Children. The multiple approach has advanced the mission of enriching lives and strengthening the New Orleans community and Gulf South. In 2011, the foundation hosted a fundraiser in Lafayette, partnering with Feed the Children and Protect Our Coastline and raised $75,000 for these causes.

In May, 2009, the foundation hosted its inaugural golf tournament—the Celebrity Kid's Classic—which raised thousands of dollars to benefit children's charities throughout Greater New Orleans.

In 2010, Payton led the Saints to their second consecutive postseason appearance and third in five seasons with an 11-5 record. New Orleans converted an NFL-best 48.8% of their third down attempts and ranked sixth in the NFL in total yards (372.5 ypg). In addition, the team finished third in passing (277.6 ypg). New Orleans finished fifth in the NFL with 351 first downs, then the second-highest total in franchise history. New Orleans' offensive line gave up only 26 sacks, which was the NFL's fifth-lowest total. Five players (Brees, Evans, S Roman Harper, Nicks and LB Jonathan Vilma) were Pro Bowl selections.

Defensively, the team took a big step forward, making the jump from the 25th ranked total defense in 2009 to fourth overall (306.3 ypg) in 2010. It marked the first time since 1997 that they ranked among the league's top five. Most significant was a jump in pass defense, moving from 26th (235.6 ypg) in 2009 to fourth (193.9 ypg) in 2010. The club moved up from 20th to seventh (19.2 ppg) in opponent points per game. The defense also significantly improved their opponent third down conversion ranking from 14th (38.0%) to fifth (34.5%).

In 2009, en route to the Super Bowl XLIV title, Payton guided the Saints to the team's second NFC South title in four seasons with a 13-3 record. Along the way the Saints set a franchise-record for most regular season wins in a season (13). Their 16 overall victories were the most in the history of the franchise. The Saints also posted the longest winning streak in team history when they won their first 13 contests. Payton once again was named as the top head coach in the NFL by numerous media outlets and recognized football chapters.

The Saints finished as the NFL's number one ranked offense (sixth in rushing and fourth in passing) for the second consecutive year. On the other side of the ball, an opportunistic defense recorded 26 interceptions with an NFL-leading five returned for touchdowns. New Orleans also ranked second in the league in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (39.3%). The Saints set team records in scoring (510) and touchdowns (64) under Payton's watch and battled through the postseason with victories over Arizona (divisional round) and Minnesota (NFC Championship game) en route to Super Bowl XLIV. A club-record seven players were named to the Pro Bowl—Brees, Evans, C Jonathan Goodwin, Harper, S Darren Sharper, T Jon Stinchcomb and Vilma.

In 2008, the Saints ranked first overall in the NFL in offense and set what were then team records for total yards (6,571), net passing yards (4,977) and first downs (354), also tying what was then a team record for single-game scoring in a 51-29 win over Green Bay.

In 2007, the Saints endured injuries and a slow start, but put together a four-game winning streak to get back into playoff contention. New Orleans finished fourth in the NFL in total offense while also holding nine opponents to 17 points or less.

Payton scrapped the traditional timetable for rebuilding an NFL club in 2006. In his opening season as a head coach, the Saints jumped out to a 3-0 record—a first in team history and equaled the team's win total from the previous year—and clinched the NFC South title before the regular season finale. New Orleans led the NFL in total offense, went to the postseason for the first time since 2000 and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time. When 2006 came to a close, Payton was voted the Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Maxwell Club. He and his staff also coached the NFC squad in the Pro Bowl.

Prior to his final season with the Cowboys, Payton was promoted to assistant head coach/passing game coordinator and was responsible for the team's play-calling. For the previous two years, he had been assistant head coach/quarterbacks. In 2005, the Cowboys tied for second in the NFC with 318 first downs. When Payton arrived, Dallas had ranked 31st in passing the previous year but immediately improved to 17th.

Payton went to Dallas after four years with the New York Giants (1999-2002), the last three as offensive coordinator after spending his first season as quarterbacks coach. Payton solidified his reputation as one of the game's brightest offensive minds in 2000. In his first season as coordinator, the Giants captured the NFC title and went to Super Bowl XXXV. New York scored 328 points—the club's highest total since 1990—and finished 13th in the NFL in total offense.

PAYTON'S PLACE AMONG SAINTS HEAD COACHES

Payton has the highest winning percentage among the 14 head coaches in Saints history. After six seasons with the Saints, he's ranked second in club history in career wins:

Coach	Years	Reg. Season	Playoffs	Overall	Pct.
Sean Payton	2006-	62-34	5-3	67-37	.644
Jim Mora	1987-96	93-74	0-4	93-78	.544

PAYTON AMONG NFL'S WINNINGEST ACTIVE COACHES

Sean Payton's been among the league's elite in victories since becoming an NFL head coach in 2006. His 67 regular season and postseason wins since then is ranked third among NFL head coaches. Payton owns a 67-37 record (.644) over that span.

Most Wins Since 2006

Head Coach	Team	Wins
Bill Belichick	New England	80
Mike McCarthy	Green Bay	68
Sean Payton	New Orleans	67
Tom Coughlin	N.Y. Giants	65
Mike Tomlin	Pittsburgh	60

Payton was first assigned play-calling duties prior to a game against the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999. The Giants responded with 41 points and 490 yards—both season highs—and he retained that assignment over the final five games. Appointed the offensive coordinator the following season, over the next three years the Giants passing attack continually improved, ranking 13th in the NFL in 2000, tied for eighth in 2001 and sixth in 2002.

In 2002, the Giants also finished sixth overall in total offense, the team's highest ranking since 1985. In the previous decade, New York hadn't ranked above 20th. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent 1997 and 1998 as Philadelphia's quarterbacks coach. In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing and third in total offense in the NFC.

During his career, Payton has had particular success tutoring quarterbacks. Brees has thrived since arriving in New Orleans, as he holds or has tied a total of 24 club career, single-season and single-game records, seven of them NFL marks. In 2011, he enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons in NFL history by a signal-caller as he completed 468-of-657 passes (71.2%) for 5,476 yards with 46 touchdowns and a 110.6 passer rating, as he was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl in six seasons in New Orleans. Brees helped engineer the club's Super Bowl XLIV Championship campaign with his outstanding play, when he finished first in the league with a then-NFL record 70.6 % completion percentage and also led the league with a then-career-high 109.6 passer rating and 34 touchdown passes. In the postseason, the Super Bowl Most Valuable Player threw for eight scores, with no interceptions, playing mistake-free football on the way to the World Championship.

ROAD WARRIORS

Since Payton became head coach in 2006, the Saints have the third-best record in the NFL at visiting stadiums with a 30-18 mark. With a 5-3 road mark in 2011, the Saints have posted winning records at visiting stadiums in three consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history. Including the final road game of 2008, New Orleans' eight game win streak away from home was the second-longest in club record books to a ten-game win streak from Oct. 18, 1987-Oct. 6, 1988. Since 2009, with an 18-6 regular season road record, Payton has the best winning percentage (.750) among current NFL coaches.

Since 2000, every passer under Payton's guidance has thrown for over 3,000 yards. In addition to Brees since 2006, the three starting quarterbacks he worked with in Dallas - Drew Bledsoe in 2005, Vinny Testaverde in 2004 and Quincy Carter in 2003 - all surpassed the milestone. While in New York, Giants QB Kerry Collins had 4,073 yards in 2002.

Payton wrapped two coaching stints at San Diego State University (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). During his second stretch with the Aztecs, Payton was running backs coach, working with Heisman Trophy runner-up Marshall Faulk before becoming quarterbacks coach.

Following the 1993 season, Payton moved to Miami (Ohio), where from 1994-95

he was quarterbacks coach prior to being promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He spent 1996 as quarterbacks coach at Illinois before entering the NFL with Philadelphia.

Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. The three-time AP All-American selection had professional stints with the Chicago Bruisers of the Arena Football League, the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000 and had his jersey retired in a ceremony in September of 2010.

Born Dec. 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton has a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

Joe
VITT

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/LINEBACKERS

Tutoring a unit that since 2006 has annually ranked among the Saints' most productive position groups, Assistant Head Coach/Linebackers Joe Vitt enters his seventh season in New Orleans.

Vitt has obtained solid results from veterans, while also helping develop younger players. Under his supervision, Jonathan Vilma has led the Saints in tackles three of the last four seasons and been selected to the Pro Bowl twice. With 646 tackles since joining the club in 2006, Scott Shanle has more stops than any other Saints defender during this period. Vitt helped Jo-Lonn Dunbar enjoy a breakout campaign in his fourth season in 2011, as he started 14 games at both middle and outside linebacker positions and finished third on the team with 90 tackles, while filling up the stat sheet with one sack, seven pass defenses and two forced fumbles.

Vitt came to the Saints after serving as interim head coach for the final 11 games in St. Louis in 2005. He held the Rams together during a difficult period after previously holding the title of assistant head coach/linebackers. It was part of a two-year stint with the Rams where he also turned a handful of young defenders into a unit that paced the team in tackles each season.

He joined St. Louis after working as linebackers coach in Kansas City from 2000-03. It was with the Chiefs where he first worked with former Saint Scott Fujita, a fifth-round pick who developed into one of Kansas City's top defenders and led them in tackles twice. Under Vitt's tutelage in New Orleans, Fujita enjoyed three consecutive seasons with over 100 stops.

Vitt took over the linebacker corps in Kansas City after tutoring the Green Bay defensive backs in 1999, molding a legion of rookies and young players into a formidable unit that doubled the Packers' previous-year total by picking off 26 passes. One of his understudies was safety Darren Sharper, who led the Packers with 113 tackles.

From 1995-98, Vitt was linebackers coach for Philadelphia, where he first worked with Payton. In 1998, his group helped the Eagles lead the NFL in pass defense, allowing 170 yards per game. Vitt was assistant head coach and defensive backs coach with the Rams under Chuck Knox from 1992-94 for the franchise's final three seasons in Los Angeles.

Vitt spent 10 seasons with the Seattle Seahawks (1982-91), holding several titles during that stretch. In 1982, he was defensive quality control coach/assistant strength & conditioning coach. From 1983-87, Vitt was quality control/assistant linebackers coach, and from 1988-91, he tutored the safeties.

Born in Syracuse, N.Y., Vitt grew up in Blackwood, N.J., and played four years at linebacker for Towson State, where he was part of a squad that went undefeated in 1974. He and his teammates on the 1976 squad that were the NCAA Division III runner-ups in only the program's eighth season of existence were honored as a Team of Distinction by the school's Hall of Fame in 2009. He entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Baltimore Colts as strength/quality control coach from 1979-81.

Vitt and his wife Linda have one son, Joe Jr., one daughter, Jennifer and granddaughter, McKenzie.

PLAYING CAREER: Towson State, 1974-77.

COACHING CAREER: Baltimore Colts, 1979-81; Seattle Seahawks, 1982-91; Los Angeles Rams, 1992-94; Philadelphia Eagles, 1995-98; Green Bay Packers, 1999; Kansas City Chiefs, 2000-03; St. Louis Rams (head coach, final 11 games of 2005), 2004-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Pete CARMICHAEL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Pete Carmichael is in his fourth season as the Saints' offensive coordinator after tutoring the club's quarterbacks the previous three years. Throughout this time he has been a key figure in the planning and preparations of an offensive attack that has been ranked first in the NFL in yardage in four of the last six seasons, while leading the league in scoring in 2008 and 2009.

In 2011, the Saints put together some of the best offensive numbers in league history as the team shattered several NFL and franchise single-season records. After Head Coach Sean Payton suffered a leg injury in week six, Carmichael took over play-calling duties for the remainder of the season. The Saints set NFL records in net yardage (7,474), passing yardage (5,347), completion percentage (71.3%), first downs (416), third down conversion rate (56.7%) and fewest fumbles (6), while setting a team mark and leading the league in third down conversions (118). New Orleans finished with 547 points, the fourth-highest total in NFL history, and scored at least 45 points in four regular season games and one post-season contest, including three straight outputs of at least 45.

Individually, QB Drew Brees enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by an NFL signal-caller as he completed 468-of-657 passes (71.2%) for 5,476 yards, 46 touchdown passes and a 110.6 passer rating, breaking NFL records for passing yardage, completions, 300-yard passing games (13) and completion percentage. As the passing attack reached new heights, Jimmy Graham had one of the most prolific seasons for an NFL tight end with a club-record 99 receptions for 1,310 yards with 11 touchdowns and WR Marques Colston had his fifth 1,000 yard season in six campaigns. A running game that was ranked sixth in the NFL flourished behind an offensive line that featured three Pro Bowl selections (T Jermon Bushrod, G Jahri Evans and G Carl Nicks), in addition to Brees and Graham.

In 2010, the Saints finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL after averaging 372.5 yards of total offense, finishing third in the league in passing. The unit converted 48.8% of their third down conversions and ranked fifth in the NFL with 351 first downs.

In 2009, his first season with his new title, the Saints continued to compile impressive numbers on offense. The Saints finished in the top five in seven offensive categories. They scored an NFL-best 510 points. At least 45 points were scored four times, a fifth time in the postseason, with four straight outputs of at least 30. They ranked first in the league with 6,461 net yards, then the third-best total in club history. The Saints' 348 first downs was the second-best total in 2009 league rankings. The Saints also finished ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing yardage with 131.6 yards per game on 4.5 yards per carry.

The offense continued to flourish in the postseason, averaging 35.6 points per game and scoring eight-of-nine times inside the red zone. Brees keyed the run, completing 70.6 percent of his passes and throwing eight touchdowns and a 117.0 passer rating. He was selected the Super Bowl XLIV Most Valuable Player, as he led the Saints back from a ten point deficit, completing 18 of his last 19 passes and engineering the fourth quarter game-winning drive, culminating in the go-ahead touchdown pass with under five minutes left.

In 2008, Carmichael's title was quarterbacks/passing game – with duties that included assisting in the pass routes, protection schemes and quarterback responsibilities. He tutored the signal callers his first three seasons with the club. In 2008, the offense went on to rank No. 1 in the NFL in passing, and Brees threw for 5,069 yards.

Carmichael has worked closely with Brees since both arrived in New Orleans in 2006, and since then the majority of the franchise's career, single-game and single-season passing records have fallen. Brees has led the NFL in passing yardage three times, set the NFL record for completion percentage twice and has thrown for a club record 201 touchdowns over the last six seasons.

Carmichael brings the perspective of having a wide range of coaching experiences, including working with nearly every position group on offense during his career. With the Chargers, he assisted wide receivers coach James Lofton for an offense that ranked 10th in the NFL in 2004 and 2005. Carmichael joined the Chargers in 2002 and served as offensive assistant/quality control coach until being promoted.

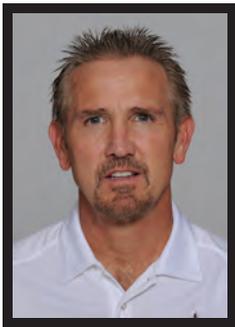

In 2001, Carmichael was quality control coach for the Washington Redskins, and in 2000, he was the tight ends and offensive assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns. From 1995-99, Carmichael was the quarterbacks coach at Louisiana Tech, and during his tenure the Bulldogs' QBs broke almost every passing record at the school. He began his coaching career as the assistant offensive line coach at the University of New Hampshire in 1994, with the Wildcats winning the Yankee Conference championship.

Born Oct. 6, 1971 in Framingham, Mass., Carmichael attended Medway (Mass.) High School where he played football and baseball. He went on to a collegiate playing career in baseball and was a four-year letterman at Boston College. As a senior, Carmichael was a team captain and Most Valuable Player. He graduated with a degree in mathematics in 1994.

Carmichael and his wife, Tina, have two sons, Peter and John, and a daughter, Allison.

COACHING CAREER: New Hampshire, 1994; Louisiana Tech, 1995-99; Cleveland Browns, 2000; Washington Redskins, 2001; San Diego Chargers, 2002-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

COACHINGSTAFF

Steve SPAGNUOLO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Steve Spagnuolo was named defensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints on February 7, 2012. He's a veteran of 13 years in the NFL coaching ranks, three as a head coach, as well as 16 years on the collegiate level and two years in NFL Europe.

When Head Coach Sean Payton began a search for a defensive coordinator following the 2011 season, he immediately focused on Spagnuolo, one of the NFL's most respected defensive minds, who has a well-earned reputation for being an outstanding teacher who's fostered fundamentally sound, aggressive and opportunistic units throughout his coaching career.

Spagnuolo spent the last three seasons (2009-2011) as the head coach of the St. Louis Rams after serving as the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants from 2007-2008. Prior to joining the Giants, where he was the defensive architect of the Super Bowl XLII Champions and an NFC East Division winner the following season, he served on the Philadelphia Eagles' coaching staff from 1999-2006, first a defensive assistant working with the safeties, then later tutoring the secondary from 2001-2003 and coaching the linebacker corps his final three seasons.

During his tenure in St. Louis, Spagnuolo's team made a significant six-game improvement in his second season at the helm, as the Rams finished in second place in the NFC West, remaining in contention for the division championship until the finale of regular season play. His team's six-game swing marked the second-best turnaround in the NFL from 2009 to 2010, sparked by considerable improvement in all three phases. Defensively, the Rams jumped ten spots in total defense, ranking second in the NFL in third down defense, third in negative play yardage (sacks and tackles for loss), and seventh in sacks. The Rams defense also held opposing quarterbacks to an 80.4 passer rating, which represented the ninth-lowest in the NFL and a dramatic improvement from 31st in the league in 2009 when the team allowed a cumulative 96.9 passer rating.

In 2011, the Rams ranked seventh in the league against the pass, while a pair of promising young defenders continued to progress under Spagnuolo's watch. A second-round draft pick in 2009, MLB James Laurinaitis led the Rams in tackles each of the past three seasons, including posting 142 stops, three sacks and two interceptions in 2011. DE Chris Long also continued his marked improvement into one of the NFL's top pass rushers. He increased his sack total each of the past three seasons, culminating with a total of 13 quarterback takedowns in 2011, ranked seventh in the NFL and the highest total by a St. Louis defender since 2006.

Spagnuolo arrived in St. Louis following a two-year tenure as defensive coordinator for the New York Giants, where in 37 regular season and postseason games, the Giants defense allowed opponents 17 points or fewer in 19 total contests. The Giants were 19-0 in those games and 17-2 in contests where opposing quarterbacks had passer ratings lower than 75.0.

In 2007, Spagnuolo's first season with the Giants, the New York defense rose from 25th in 2006 to seventh in the NFL in yards allowed, an improvement of 37 yards per game. The Giants were in the NFL's top 10 in eight statistical categories and led the league for the first time in 10 seasons with 53 quarterback sacks. DE Osi Umenyiora led the Giants with 13 sacks en route to a Pro Bowl selection.

However, it was in the postseason where the New York Giants truly hit their stride, as they held the league's top three offensive teams—Green Bay (2nd), Dallas (3rd) and New England (1st)—to a total of 51 points, ending with a defensive performance that shut down the high-octane Patriots offense in the Giants' stunning 17-14 win in Super Bowl XLII.

The Super Bowl win came against a team that had set a league record with 589 points in the regular season. The Giants defense hit New England QB Tom Brady a dozen times and sacked him five times in a stellar defensive effort, which held the most explosive team in NFL history to 137.3 yards less than its season average. The Patriots rushed for only 45 yards and did not have a single gain over 19 yards. New England, which had averaged almost 37 points per game during the season, was limited to 14 points on the evening.

Spagnuolo's defense followed-up the strong 2007 performance, despite the losses of Pro Bowl defensive ends Michael Strahan to retirement and Umenyiora to a knee injury in the 2008 preseason, by improving from seventh in yards allowed to fifth in 2008 as New York won the NFC East with a 12-4 record. The Giants allowed only 95.8 rushing yards per game, ninth in the NFL, and 196.2 passing yards per game, eighth in the league. New York allowed 18.4 points per game, fifth in the NFL and the team's 42 sacks ranked sixth in the league. DE Justin Tuck paced the defense with 12 sacks, earning the first Pro Bowl berth of his career.

During his tenure with the Eagles, where he worked under the late defensive coordinator Jim Johnson, Spagnuolo coached several players, including Brian Dawkins, Bobby Taylor, Troy Vincent, Lito Sheppard, Michael Lewis and Jeremiah Trotter, to Pro Bowl berths in six of his eight seasons. From 1999-2005 the Eagles ranked first in the NFL in third-down defense (33%), second in points allowed (17.0 per game), second in quarterback sacks (265), and third in red zone defense (43%).

From 1999-2005, the Eagles played in four NFC Championship games and one Super Bowl. In 2001, the Philadelphia defense did not allow more than 21 points in 16 regular-season games, only the fourth time in NFL history that the feat has been accomplished.

COACHING STAFF

Spagnuolo was the Male Scholar Athlete of the Year at Springfield (Mass.) College in 1982, and then took a graduate assistant's position at the University of Massachusetts. In 1983, his first pro football experience came as a pro personnel intern with the Washington Redskins. The Redskins won a berth in Super Bowl XVIII.

Spagnuolo returned to the collegiate level as defensive line and special teams coach at Lafayette (Pa.) from 1984-1986. He was at the University of Connecticut as defensive backs coach from 1987-89 before adding defensive coordinator duties from 1990-91.

In 1992, Spagnuolo made a second foray into professional football, coaching the defensive line and special teams for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League of American Football. After the spring in Europe, he briefly served as a scout for the San Diego Chargers in 1993 before moving to the University of Maine, serving first as defensive backs coach in 1993 before becoming the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach in 1994. He then continued his career advancement by serving as the defensive backs coach at Rutgers (1994-1995) and at Bowling Green (1996-1997).

In 1998, Spagnuolo coached another season of pro football with the Frankfurt Galaxy of the renamed NFL Europe League. Spagnuolo served as the Galaxy's defensive coordinator/linebackers coach. Under his tutelage, four of the Galaxy's six linebackers and nine of the 11 defensive starters went on to play in the NFL. The Galaxy defense ranked second in the league in total defense, helping the team to an 8-2 record and a World Bowl appearance.

A native of Whitinsville, Mass., Spagnuolo is a member of the Grafton (Mass.) High School Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield College and a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts.

Steve and his wife, Maria, became positive impactful members in the St. Louis community through their work with The Spagnuolo Foundation and look forward to doing the same in New Orleans. The foundation, whose mission is centered on the biblical verse Hebrews 11:1, ("Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.") is designed to give hope to youth who otherwise may not have the opportunity to pursue and achieve their dreams.

PLAYING CAREER: Springfield, 1978-81.

COACHING CAREER: University of Massachusetts, 1982-83; Washington Redskins (player personnel intern), 1983; Lafayette, 1984-86; University of Connecticut, 1987-91; Barcelona Dragons (WLAF), 1992; San Diego Chargers (scout), 1993; University of Maine, 1993-94; Rutgers, 1994-95; Bowling Green, 1996-97; Frankfurt Galaxy (NFL Europe), 1998; Philadelphia Eagles, 1999-2006; New York Giants, 2007-08; St. Louis Rams (head coach), 2009-11; New Orleans Saints, 2012-.

Greg McMAHON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Greg McMahon enters his seventh season working with the special teams and fifth as coordinator. His tenure with the club has been defined by solid performances by the kicking game, the coverage units and the kickoff and punt returners.

With McMahon stressing opportunistic play over the last six seasons, the Saints have recovered 13 fumbles on special teams, scored nine touchdowns—including six on punt returns—and blocked a punt, three field goals and two extra points. Since 2008, New Orleans has been ranked in the top ten in kickoff return average three of the past four seasons.

In 2011, McMahon guided the special teams units to one of their best seasons since taking over as coordinator, as the club finished eighth in the Dallas Morning News special teams rankings. P Thomas Morstead finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with a 48.3 gross punting average and second in the league with a 43.1 net average. Morstead also ranked first in the league with 68 touchbacks. K John Kasay, a 21-year NFL veteran who replaced Garrett Hartley following a hip injury that sidelined him, ranked second in the NFL in scoring among kickers and set a franchise record with 147 points. Darren Sproles made an immediate impact on the return units, handling both punt and kickoff return duties as part of a season when he set an NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards. He averaged 10.2 yards on punt returns with one touchdown and ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the league on kickoff returns. McMahon's coverage units ranked fifth in the NFL in opponent punt return average, allowing only 6.2 yards per return.

McMahon continued to foster improvement out of Hartley and Morstead in 2010. In his first full NFL season, Hartley made his final ten field goal attempts and 15-of-his last 16. Morstead enjoyed a solid sophomore campaign, finishing sixth in the NFL with a 45.9 gross average. The Saints were only one of four NFL teams to not allow a blocked kick or give up an opponent special teams score.

The kicking game played a crucial role in the 2009 championship campaign. The unit finished fourth in the league in kickoff return average (24.4) as Courtney Roby had the first touchdown return by a Saint since 2004. In the postseason, RB Reggie Bush had an 83-yard punt return for a touchdown to break open the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Arizona.

While the coverage units recovered three fumbles, the most improved group were the specialists. Hartley, who made the first 16 field goal attempts of his career, setting an NFL record for most consecutive tries to start, came through clutch twice in the postseason. His 40-yard field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship sent the Saints to the Super Bowl. Hartley then became the first kicker in Super Bowl history to boot three kicks of 40-or-more yards. Morstead, the club's fifth round draft choice, was the first Saints punter to capture NFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice in the same season. In Super Bowl XLIV, he successfully executed an onside kick at the start of the second half that brought possession back to New Orleans.

In McMahon's first season as coordinator in 2008, New Orleans finished as one of only four teams to rank in the top 10 in both punt return average (fourth) and kickoff return average (eighth). Bush scored on two punt returns vs. Minnesota to tie an NFL record. Hartley, an undrafted rookie at the time, started his field goal streak by making all 13 attempts.

McMahon served as assistant special teams coach for his first two years in New Orleans, following a one-year stint as tight ends/special teams coach at East Carolina.

In 2005, the Pirates finished in the top 20 in the nation in field goal accuracy and had a pair of solid return men. As tight ends coach, McMahon was part of a staff that directed East Carolina to the fourth-highest passing total in school history.

He spent 13 years at the University of Illinois (1992-2004), working primarily with the special teams, tight ends and wide receivers. In 1997, McMahon took on the additional responsibility of overseeing the special teams. His efforts were integral in Illinois making four bowl appearances and twice appearing in the final national rankings, and in 2001 the school finished 10-2 and captured the Big Ten title.

Based on the records his units established, the play of the special teams during McMahon's years at Illinois are unmatched in school history. Illinois blocked 16 kicks from 2001-04 and accounted for nine touchdowns. K Neil Rackers, currently with the Washington Redskins, and punt return yardage leader Eugene Wilson, each benefited from McMahon's guidance. Players under his direction included the school leaders in career punting average, single-season scoring and all-time punt return yardage.

McMahon, 52, came to Illinois in 1992 from Nevada-Las Vegas, where he spent two years as special teams coordinator as well as coaching offensive tackles and tight ends. He has also had stints with Valdosta (Ga.) State, Southern Illinois, North Alabama and Minnesota.

As a defensive back at Eastern Illinois, he was a member of two teams that played for the NCAA Division II National Championship. The Panthers won the title in 1978 and again went to the championship game two years later. McMahon earned a degree in psychology from EIU in 1982.

McMahon and wife, Linda, have three children: sons Drew and Sam and daughter Lisa.

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

After serving as an assistant his first two seasons, Charles Byrd was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2010. His responsibilities consist of assisting head strength and conditioning coach Dan Dalrymple in implementing the team's year-round program.

Byrd is in his seventh season as a coach after stints on the offseason and training camp rosters of the Cleveland Browns, Green Bay Packers, Washington Redskins and New York Giants from 2005-06 as a defensive back, also playing for Las Vegas of the Arena Football League in 2006. He started as a strength and conditioning intern at Miami (Ohio) in 2006, becoming a graduate assistant in his final year with the Redhawks before coming to New Orleans.

Byrd graduated from Morehead State University with a bachelor's degree in university studies, where he played in the secondary and as a kickoff returner from 2001-04. The Oxford, Ohio native earned Division I-AA Mid-Major All-America honors for two straight seasons. A team captain and three-year starter, he helped the Eagles to three consecutive Pioneer Football League Southern Division championships.

PLAYING CAREER: Morehead State, 2001-04; Las Vegas Gladiators (AFL), 2006.

COACHING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 2006-07; New Orleans Saints, 2008-.

Andre CURTIS

ASSISTANT SECONDARY

Andre Curtis enters his seventh season in the NFL and first as assistant secondary coach for the Saints. Curtis comes to New Orleans after serving as the St. Louis Rams' defensive backs/safeties coach from 2009-11.

Curtis helped oversee a secondary that progressively improved during his three seasons. In 2011, the Rams finished ranked seventh in the NFL in pass defense (206.7 ypg.), while starting safeties Quintin Mikell (100 tackles) and Darian Stewart (92 tackles) finished as the team's second and third leading tacklers respectively. In 2010, the Rams finished seventh in the NFL in opponent completion percentage (57.5) and ninth in opponent passer rating (80.4). Curtis came to St. Louis after three seasons with the New York Giants as defensive quality control coach. The Giants' defense ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense in 2007 and was fifth in total defense in 2008.

Curtis was defensive ends coach at Georgia Southern University from 2004-05. Curtis coached at his alma mater, Virginia Military Institute, from 2000-03. He coached outside linebackers from 2000-01 and linebackers from 2002-03. While on the VMI staff, Curtis worked in the New York Jets' training camp in 2002 and in 2003 was with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a part of the NFL's minority internship program.

Curtis was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at VMI from 1996-99. He started 31 consecutive games and finished his career with 354 tackles. Curtis earned second-team All-Southern Conference honors in 1998.

Curtis is a native of Beaverdam, Va. He has a bachelor's degree in economics and business from VMI and is married to Erica with two sons, Andre Jr. and Andrew.

PLAYING CAREER: VMI, 1996-99.

COACHING CAREER: VMI, 2000-03; Georgia Southern, 2004-05; New York Giants, 2006-08; St. Louis Rams, 2009-11; New Orleans Saints, 2012-.

Dan DALRYMPLE

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

By designing extensive workout programs—crafted to the needs of every player as well as the demands of each position group—strength & conditioning coach Dan Dalrymple has been a key member of the Saints organization since arriving in 2006. His responsibilities and influence both in the weight room and on the field remain constant throughout the entire year.

The efforts of Dalrymple and his staff have played a key role in the club's success over the past six seasons. His routines, focused on building and maintaining strength and stamina, while minimizing injuries have paid dividends for the Saints. Since 2006, New Orleans has put together eight winning streaks of three games or more, including a franchise-record 13-game win streak in 2009 and four- and eight-game runs in 2011. 12 players have been selected to the Pro Bowl during his tenure, nine for the first time in their careers.

Throughout his tenure, Dalrymple's teams have traditionally finished strong. In 2011, New Orleans outscored their opponents 279-156 in the second half of contests, as they finished the regular season with eight consecutive victories on their way to their second NFC South title in three seasons. In 2009's Super Bowl XLIV Championship season, evidence of the conditioning of the club was their stamina throughout games, as they outscored opponents 139-48 in the fourth quarter, finishing first in the NFL in both points scored and allowed in the final period. He was named as the recipient of the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society and the Samson Strength and Conditioning NFL Coach of the Year award from American Football Monthly.

Prior to joining the Saints, Dalrymple spent the previous 17 seasons in a similar capacity at Miami (Ohio), including the last 16 as director of athletic conditioning, a program he built from its foundation. While the football team was a focus of his efforts, Dalrymple and his staff created workout regimens for every athletic program. He was promoted with the additional title of assistant athletic director in 2003.

Dalrymple has been certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1991 and has been honored as a finalist for the organization's coach of the year in 1995, 1997, 1999, 2003 and 2006. He's one of only two NFL coaches in his field to be certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach.

Dalrymple has earned two certifications for USAWeightlifting that designate him as qualified to work with athletes in Olympic weightlifting and as a sports performance specialist.

After taking over the supervision of Miami's strength and conditioning program in 1989, the football program posted a 116-72-9 record, had a streak of 12-straight winning seasons and went to bowl games in 2003 and 2004.

For the Saints, Dalrymple couples his intense work ethic and a constant evolution of his approach with a lengthy background in football.

A 1988 graduate of Miami, Dalrymple was a four-year starter (1983-86) as an offensive lineman and was a first-team All-MAC selection his final two seasons, also earning honorable mention All-America accolades. He was one of three captains of the 1986 conference champion team. Dalrymple was later honored as one of five linemen on the Cincinnati Enquirer's All-20th Century Miami football team and was elected to the school's Hall of Fame in 2002.

After his college career and attending training camp with the Seattle Seahawks, Dalrymple returned to his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1987. He served as a graduate assistant the following year before being promoted to offensive line and strength coach in 1989. He was named strength & conditioning coordinator in December of that year.

Dalrymple recently co-authored his first book, "The Athletic Body Puzzle—The Guide For Parents And Coaches."

Dalrymple and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Kylelyn and a son, Daniel.

PLAYING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1983-86.

COACHING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1987-2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Henry
ELLARD
WIDE RECEIVERS

A veteran of a prolific 16-year NFL playing career along with 12 seasons in the coaching ranks, Henry Ellard joins the Saints in 2012 for his first season with the team as wide receivers coach.

Ellard, a three-time Pro Bowl selection as a player (1984, 1988 and 1989), also was a first-team All-Pro selection in both 1984 and 1988 as a member of the Los Angeles Rams. Over the course of his illustrious playing career, Ellard recorded 814 receptions for 13,777 yards and 65 touchdowns after he was a second round selection of the Rams in the 1983 NFL Draft (32nd player selected overall) out of Fresno State. At the time of his retirement from the NFL in 1998, Ellard held the Rams' team records for career receptions (593), receiving yards (9,761), 100-yard games (26), punt return average (11.3) and total offense (11,663). In 1988, he enjoyed his finest season as he led the NFC in receptions (86) and led the NFL in receiving yards (1,414). Also a standout in the return game, he led the NFC in punt return average in 1984 (13.4, 2 TDs) and 1985 (13.5).

After leaving the Rams in 1993, Ellard joined the Washington Redskins in 1994, where he would post 1,397 yards receiving, the first of three consecutive 1,000 yard seasons. He concluded his career with the New England Patriots and Washington in 1998.

Ellard also owns the distinction of excelling at track and field, qualifying for the Olympic trials in 1992 with a 54'3-1/2 foot triple jump.

After his retirement, Ellard immediately stepped into the coaching ranks as an assistant at Southern California Christian High School. He then joined his alma mater, Fresno State, as a graduate assistant in 2000 and started his NFL coaching career in 2001 when he rejoined the Rams in St. Louis as an offensive assistant who worked with the team's wideouts. Ellard served as wide receivers coach in St. Louis from 2003-08.

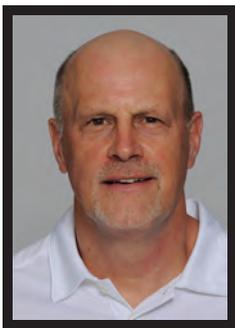

Under Ellard's tutelage with the Rams, Torry Holt posted seven-consecutive 1,000 yards seasons and reached 11,000 yards in 131 games, fastest in NFL history. He also coached Issac Bruce to five seasons with 60-or-more catches and four 1,000-or-more yard seasons. Bruce and Holt combined for seven Pro Bowl berths during this period as they surpassed Ellard on the Rams' all-time receiving list.

Ellard spent the past three seasons as the wide receivers coach of the New York Jets, part of a staff that went to the AFC Championship game twice.

Ellard played for the Bulldogs from 1979-82. He set a then-NCAA record with 1,510 receiving yards (62 receptions, 24.4 avg., 15 TDs) in 1982 and finished his college career with 138 receptions for 2,947 yards and 25 touchdowns. A Fresno native and a graduate of Hoover (Calif.) High School, where he competed in both football and track, Ellard is married (Lillian) and has five children: Whitney, Christina, Alexandria, Adriana and Henry Austin Jr.

PLAYING CAREER: Fresno State, 1979-82; Los Angeles Rams, 1983-93; Washington Redskins, 1994-97, 1998; New England Patriots, 1998.

COACHING CAREER: Southern California Christian High School, 1999; Fresno State, 2000; St. Louis Rams, 2001-08; New York Jets, 2009-11; New Orleans Saints, 2012-.

Ken FLAJOLE SECONDARY

Ken Flajole joins the Saints as secondary coach in 2012. He is a 35-year coaching veteran and has spent the last 14 years in the NFL, the past three as defensive coordinator of the St. Louis Rams.

The Rams defense made tremendous strides under Flajole's guidance. In 2011, they finished seventh in the league against the pass. DE Chris Long ranked seventh in the NFL with a career-high 13 sacks, the highest total by a St. Louis defender since 2006, and LB James Laurinaitis led the team with 142 tackles, adding three sacks and two interceptions.

In 2010, St. Louis jumped ten spots in opponent yardage rankings and 19 in opponent points per game. The Rams ranked second in the NFL in third down defense, third in negative play yardage (sacks and tackles for a loss), seventh in sacks and ninth in opponent quarterback rating.

Laurinaitis' and Long's development under Flajole's tutelage was a significant factor. A second-round draft pick in 2009, Laurinaitis has led the Rams in tackles in each of his three seasons. Long increased his sack total each season from 2008-11.

Flajole spent six seasons as the Carolina Panthers' linebackers coach (2003-08), a position group where several players flourished under his direction. He assisted in the development of Jon Beason, who was runner-up in voting for NFC Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2007 and was selected to his first career Pro Bowl in 2008 after leading the team in tackles for the second consecutive season with 159 stops. In 2006, when the linebackers featured Thomas Davis in his first season as a starter and lost middle linebacker Dan Morgan in the regular season opener, the Panthers continued to perform at a high level, finishing seventh in the NFL in yards allowed. Morgan and Mark Fields were named to the Pro Bowl in 2004. In 2003 Carolina advanced to the Super Bowl, where Morgan set a team record with 25 tackles against the New England Patriots.

Flajole coached four seasons (1999-2002) with the Seattle Seahawks, leading the defensive backs in 1999 and 2001-02 and linebackers in 2000. In 1999, the Seattle secondary led the NFL with 30 interceptions, two returned for touchdowns. Flajole made his NFL debut in 1998 as a defensive assistant for the Green Bay Packers after spending the previous 21 years coaching in the college ranks.

Flajole's coaching debut was at his alma mater, Pacific Lutheran in 1977. He then moved to Washington (1979), Montana (1980-85), Texas-El Paso (1986-88), Missouri (1989-93), Richmond (1994) and Hawaii (1995). He served as defensive coordinator at Montana and Richmond and was Nevada's co-defensive coordinator/secondary coach from 1996-97. The 1997 Wolf Pack defense finished first in the Big West Conference in total defense, scoring defense and passing defense.

An All-Conference linebacker at Wenatchee Valley Community College in central Washington and at Pacific Lutheran, Flajole earned a bachelor's degree in education from Pacific Lutheran in 1976. A Seattle native, Flajole (pronounced FLAY-juhl) and his wife Teri, have two daughters, Kelly and Kori.

PLAYING CAREER: Wenatchee Valley Community College, 1972-73; Pacific Lutheran, 1974-75.

COACHING CAREER: Pacific Lutheran, 1977-78; Washington, 1979; Montana, 1980-85; Texas-El Paso, 1986-88; Missouri, 1989-93; Richmond, 1994; Hawaii, 1995; Nevada, 1996-97; Green Bay Packers, 1998; Seattle Seahawks, 1999-2002; Carolina Panthers, 2003-08; St. Louis Rams, 2009-11; New Orleans Saints, 2012-.

Bret INGALLS

RUNNING BACKS

A coaching veteran of 30 years, including four stints as a coordinator, Bret Ingalls enters his fourth season in charge of the New Orleans running backs.

In 2011, the Saints running game finished with the NFL's sixth-best rushing yardage total (132.9 ypg.) and fourth-best rushing average (4.9). Ingalls tutored a quartet of tailbacks in Mark Ingram, Chris Ivory, Darren Sproles and Pierre Thomas, whose combination of power, speed and versatility both running and receiving contributed to the Saints setting the NFL single-season record for net yardage. Sproles finished with the highest single-season all-purpose yardage total in NFL history with 2,696 yards, as he led all NFL running backs with 86 catches for 710 yards in addition to his 87 carries for a team-high 603 yards (6.9 avg.) with a total of ten touchdowns. Thomas carried 110 times for 562 yards (5.1 avg.) with five touchdowns, while setting a career-high in receiving with 50 grabs for 425 yards with one touchdown. Ingram and Ivory combined for an additional 848 yards on the ground and six touchdowns. Ingalls also integrated the talents of FB Jed Collins in his first full NFL season as the team's lead blocker, scoring four times on 15 offensive touches.

Despite starting six different players at the position in 2010, the Saints running game averaged 4.0 yards per carry for an offense that was ranked in the NFL's top ten in both yards per game and points per game. Ingalls helped prepare Ivory, an undrafted rookie who led the club in all rushing categories with 137 carries for 716 yards (5.2 avg.) with five touchdowns, as he was named to several All-Rookie teams.

Ingalls' extensive experience with the run game immediately made an impact in 2009 as the Saints improved in the NFL rushing rankings from 28th to sixth as they churned out 131.6 yards per game and set a club record averaging 4.5 yards per carry. His group combined for 1,837 yards rushing. Thomas enjoyed a breakout season, leading the club in rushing with 147 carries for 793 yards (5.4 avg.) and six TDs, ranking fourth in the NFL in yards per carry. Grabbing 39 receptions for 302 yards, he finished with a team-best 1,095 total yards from scrimmage, adding 254 more and three TDs in the postseason.

Ingalls served on the staff at Northwestern from 2006-08, where he was running game coordinator/offensive line coach his final season. He molded a line without extensive starting experience into the cornerstone of an offense that led the Wildcats to a nine-win season. Northwestern rushed for over 1,800 yards and ranked second in the Big Ten for fewest sacks allowed. In 2007, the offensive line blocked for the Big Ten's top-ranked passing attack, and in 2006 led the way for 1,705 yards rushing.

Ingalls spent 2005 at Miami (Ohio), working with the tight ends and tackles, and spent the previous season with Indiana State. From 2000-03, he was the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, the University of Idaho, where he also tutored the quarterbacks and running backs for two seasons each.

From 1997-99, Ingalls served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Northern Iowa and he held a similar position at Louisville from 1995-96. In 1994, he coached the offensive line at Eastern Michigan.

Ingalls held several positions on the offensive side of the ball at San Diego State from 1989-93. Over those years, he had stints as offensive coordinator (1992-93), offensive line coach (1990-92) and running backs coach (1989, 1993). While running backs coach, he tutored future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection Marshall Faulk, who twice led the nation in rushing.

Ingalls' coaching career began at Idaho, where he graduated in 1984. After serving as a student defensive backs coach, he was assistant offensive line coach from 1984-85 and running backs coach from 1986-88. Idaho won four Big Sky Conference championships during his tenure.

A native of Snohomish, Wash., Ingalls was a starting running back at Wichita State (1979-81). He graduated from Idaho in 1984 with a business degree.

Ingalls and his wife, Diana, have two sons—Samuel and Jack—and a daughter, Breana.

PLAYING CAREER: Wichita State, 1979-81.

COACHING CAREER: Idaho, 1982-88; San Diego State, 1989-93; Eastern Michigan, 1994; Louisville, 1995-96; Northern Iowa, 1997-99; Idaho, 2000-03; Indiana State, 2004; Miami (Ohio), 2005; Northwestern, 2006-08; New Orleans Saints, 2009- .

Bill JOHNSON

DEFENSIVE LINE

Entering his fourth year on the Saints coaching staff, Bill Johnson possesses a long history of developing the skills of top-notch defensive linemen throughout his coaching career. Entering his 32nd year in the profession and 12th NFL season, the Louisiana native came to New Orleans after a two-year stint in Denver.

In 2011, the defensive front played a key role in the Saints improving from 16th to 12th in NFL run defense. DE Will Smith continued to lead the line with 6.5 sacks (second on the team) and two forced fumbles. Johnson also aided in the development of DE Junior Galette, who collected 4.5 takedowns to rank third on the club in his sophomore NFL season.

In 2010, the front four played an important role in a defense that improved from 25th in the NFL to fourth in yardage and from 20th to seventh in scoring defense. DT Sedrick Ellis enjoyed a breakout campaign, leading the club with a career-high six sacks, tied for third in the NFL among tackles. Smith had 70 tackles and finished second on the team with 5.5 sacks.

The line thrived under Johnson's approach in 2009. DL Anthony Hargrove recorded five sacks and three fumble recoveries to tie for the third-highest total in the NFL. The front four was the first line of defense in a unit that finished second in the NFL in red zone touchdown percentage (39.3).

Johnson tutored the defensive line of the Denver Broncos from 2007-08. He coached a unit that in 2007 tied for second in the NFL with nine takeaways, combining for seven fumble recoveries and two interceptions. DE Elvis Dumervil tied for sixth in the league with 12.5 sacks.

During his tenure as defensive line coach with Atlanta from 2001-06, Johnson oversaw a unit that helped the club post 242 sacks during his six years with the club. Over that span, Atlanta twice ranked in the top 10 in fewest yards allowed and fewest yards per carry (2004, 2006). The Falcons also had a pair of Pro

Bowlers up front under Johnson's direction, including DE Patrick Kerney and DT Rod Coleman.

Coleman was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2005, and his 28 sacks from 2004-06 were the most by a defensive tackle in the NFL over that span. Kerney was voted to the Pro Bowl in 2004, and the defensive end had 53 sacks under Johnson's tutelage from 2001-06, notching at least 10 sacks in three seasons.

Atlanta reached the NFC Championship Game in 2004, with Johnson's line leading the NFL in sacks (48) for the first time in franchise history. The Falcons also ranked eighth in the NFL in run defense, Kerney had a career-high 13 sacks and Coleman led all defensive tackles with 11.5.

Johnson joined the Falcons in 2001 after a one-year stint at Arkansas working with the line, his second time coaching at the school. That season closed a 21-season stretch as a college assistant.

The longest coaching tenure of his career was at Texas A&M, where Johnson served as defensive line coach for eight seasons (1992-99) under Coach R.C. Slocum. The Aggies earned three conference championships during those years, went to six bowl games and finished in the top 10 three times. Nine defensive linemen under his instruction were selected in the NFL Draft, including Sam Adams, a consensus All-American in 1993 and the eighth overall pick by the Seattle Seahawks in 1994.

Johnson came to Texas A&M after coaching the defensive lines at Arkansas (1990-91) and Louisiana Tech (1988-89). In 1987, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami under Coach Jimmy Johnson, working primarily with the linebackers on a team that went 12-0 and was voted National Champions. Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Johnson spent two years as an assistant at McNeese State University coaching the school's outside linebackers in 1986 and its defensive line the year before.

He entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northwestern State University, in 1980 and served in that capacity for two seasons before coaching defensive ends/linebackers at the school from 1982-84.

Johnson was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at Northwestern State after a standout prep career at Neville High School in Monroe, La.

Born June 23, 1955, he and his wife, Dawn, have two children: Billy, 21, and Abby, 20.

PLAYING CAREER: Northwestern (La.) State, 1976-79.
COACHING CAREER: Northwestern (La.) State, 1980-84;
 McNeese State, 1985-86; Miami (Fla.), 1987; Louisiana Tech, 1988-89;

Travis JONES

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

Entering his eighth year in the NFL, Travis Jones works with defensive line coach Bill Johnson in developing a talented defensive front that possesses a mixture of youth and experience. Known for his dedication to the fundamentals and his teaching skills, Jones begins his fifth season in New Orleans.

Jones has been part of significant improvement in the Saints run defense over the past three seasons, where their NFL ranking against the run has improved from 21st in 2009 to 12th in 2011.

In 2010, Jones helped tutor a line that contributed to the defense finishing in the top ten in the NFL in yards per game (fourth) and points per game (seventh). Defensive tackle Sedrick Ellis broke out with career-highs in tackles (78) and sacks (6). His takedown total led the team and tied for third among NFL defensive tackles.

In 2009, defensive end Will Smith enjoyed his finest season as he ranked fifth in the NFL with 13 sacks, while the trio of Ellis, Anthony Hargrove and Remi Ayodele provided a solid pass rush on the interior of a line that played an important role on the Super Bowl XLIV champions.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Jones spent three seasons with the Miami Dolphins, his first year as assistant defensive line coach and his final two seasons tutoring the outside linebackers and defensive ends.

During his Dolphins tenure, the line recorded 92 sacks. Defensive end Jason Taylor was selected to the Pro Bowl each year and was named the 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. The Dolphins ranked second in the league in sacks in 2005 and third in 2006.

Before arriving in Miami, Jones spent 2003-04 at LSU, where he was the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator. In his first season, the Tigers' defensive front recorded 31 of the team's school-record 44 sacks, while also limiting opponents to 67 yards rushing per game—ranking third in the nation and first in the SEC.

At LSU, Jones coached a defensive front that featured defensive tackle Chad Lavalais, a consensus All-American, finalist for the Nagurski and Lombardi Awards and the SEC Defensive Player of the Year. Following the 2003 BCS National Championship season, Lavalais and teammate defensive end Marquise Hill were both selected in the NFL Draft. Defensive End Marcus Spears was also named All-SEC in 2003, a consensus All-American in 2004 and a first round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2005.

Prior to his stint at LSU, Jones served as defensive line coach at the University of Kansas from 2001-02. There he developed the skills of Nate Dwyer, an All-Big 12 selection in 2001 and a fourth-round choice by Arizona in 2002. From 1998-2000, Jones was linebackers coach/recruiting coordinator at Appalachian State.

In 1997, Jones opened his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Georgia, where he worked with the defensive line, including a pair of freshmen in Richard Seymour and Marcus Stroud. Jones brings the added perspective of having played on the defensive front. He was a four-year letterwinner (1990-92, 94) as a defensive lineman for the Bulldogs and served as a defensive captain as a senior. He graduated in 1995 and earned a master's degree from the school in 1998.

After finishing his college playing career at Georgia, Jones played one season with the Baltimore Stallions of the Canadian Football League in 1995 and joined the Florida Bobcats of the Arena Football League in 1996.

A native of Irwinton, Ga., for the last seven years Jones has held a football camp for youngsters in central Georgia that teaches the fundamentals of football, sportsmanship and the importance of goal-setting to serve them on and off the field. The past two summers, Jones has provided a similar one-day camp for youth in the New Orleans area.

Jones and his wife, Melody, have two daughters, Kennedi and Averi, and a son, Mason.

PLAYING CAREER: Georgia, 1990-94; Baltimore Stallions (CFL), 1995; Florida Bobcats (AFL), 1996.

COACHING CAREER: Georgia, 1997-98; Appalachian State, 1998-2000; Kansas, 2001-02; Louisiana State, 2003-04; Miami Dolphins, 2005-07; New Orleans Saints, 2008-.

Aaron KROMER

OFFENSIVE LINE/RUNNING GAME

Entering his fifth season with the Saints, Aaron Kromer brings 22 years of coaching experience to the coaching staff, the majority of it developing and tutoring offensive linemen. He's also responsible for the design and blocking schemes of the rushing attack.

After initially tutoring the Saints running backs in 2008, Kromer has tutored the Saints offensive line the past three seasons. The former college offensive lineman has developed the skills of seven Pro Bowl blockers during his time in the NFL, including three in 2011. Known for his teaching skills and attention to detail, five Saints blockers have been selected to the Pro Bowl under Kromer's tutelage. The line has allowed just 70 sacks over the past three seasons, the third-lowest total in the NFL. In both 2009 and 2011, the New Orleans offensive line has been honored with the Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award, awarded annually to the best offensive line in the NFL.

After tutoring an offensive line in which all five players had started 22 consecutive regular season games, Kromer played a vital role in the development of two first-time starters in T Zach Strief and C Brian de la Puente in 2011. The line allowed just 24 sacks, tied for the second-fewest in the NFL, and played an instrumental role in blocking for an offense that set the league's single-season yardage record as well as several other NFL marks. A resurgent run game ranked sixth in the league in the club's most productive season since 1987, grinding out 132.9 yards per game. The guard tandem of Jahri Evans and Carl Nicks were selected as Pro Bowl starters and voted Associated Press All-Pro, while T Jermon Bushrod was selected to his first Pro Bowl. It marked the second time in three years that three of Kromer's linemen were selected to the NFL's All-Star Game.

The offensive line allowed only 26 sacks in 2010, the fifth-lowest total in the NFL. Evans and Nicks were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking Nicks' first appearance.

In his first season in his new position in 2009, a trio of Kromer's linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl, each for the first time: Evans, C Jonathan Goodwin and T Jon Stinchcomb. Thanks in part to the line's strong performance, New Orleans was ranked first in the NFL both in total yards per game (403.8) and points scored (510). Churning out 131.6 yards per game on the ground, the New Orleans running game was ranked sixth in the league. The offensive line surrendered only 20 sacks, the NFL's fourth-lowest total.

Kromer's achievements in leading the running backs in 2008 were many. RB

COACHINGSTAFF

Pierre Thomas emerged as a top threat over the last half of the season, rushing for 625 yards, hauling in 31 passes and scoring 12 touchdowns. As a unit, the running back corps combined for 2,472 yards from scrimmage and 28 TDs.

Kromer came to New Orleans after a three-year stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including the final two as senior assistant/offensive line coach. In two of Kromer's three seasons at Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers captured the NFC South division title. In 2007, he worked with an offensive line that cleared the way for the Buccaneers to rush for 1,872 yards and average nearly 327 yards of offense per game, as G Arron Sears earned All-Rookie honors. In 2006, despite the unit losing a total of 23 starts from injuries, Kromer contributed to the preparation of a pair of rookie starters weekly and Tampa Bay cracked the 1,500-yard rushing milestone.

He was a senior assistant for the Buccaneers in 2005, working primarily with the offensive line. Tampa Bay surpassed the 100-yard rushing plateau in 10 contests, and Kromer helped polish the skills of All-Rookie selection G Dan Buenning. Following the season, he was selected by former Bucs coach Jon Gruden to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium.

Kromer arrived in Tampa Bay after spending four seasons with Oakland as offensive line coach from 2002-04 and assistant offensive line coach in 2001, where he was a part of two AFC West Champion squads. The Raiders' offensive front was the foundation of a unit that led the NFL in total offense in 2002 – the same season the club advanced to Super Bowl XXXVII.

While in Oakland, Kromer tutored Pro Bowl selections T Lincoln Kennedy (2001-02) and C Barrett Robbins (2002) and also coached 2004 All-Rookie selection T Robert Gallery. Prior to joining the Raiders – his first NFL assignment—he served as offensive line coach at Northwestern from 1999-2000, with the Wildcats leading the Big Ten in total offense his final season.

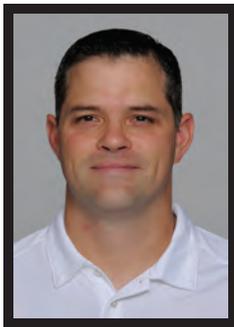

He had previously spent nine seasons (1990-98) at Miami (Ohio), his alma mater, where Kromer gained a wealth of experience and perspective while holding several assignments. He coached the offensive line in 1998, after previously working with the tight ends/H-Backs, defensive line and special teams. Kromer was a graduate assistant at the school from 1990-91.

Kromer lettered at Miami at offensive tackle from 1987-89 and served as a captain his last two seasons – one of only four players in the history of the program to serve as a two-time captain. He was a recipient of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award and graduated with a bachelor's degree in education. Kromer earned his master's degree in education administration in 1991.

Kromer and his wife, Dawn, have a son, Zachary, and a daughter, Brooke.

PLAYING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1986-89.

COACHING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1990-98; Northwestern, 1999-2000; Oakland Raiders, 2001-04; Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 2005-07; New Orleans Saints, 2008-.

Joe LOMBARDI

QUARTERBACKS

Joe Lombardi enters his sixth season with the Saints and fourth as quarterbacks coach after serving as an offensive assistant the first two years.

QB Drew Brees has thrived under Lombardi's tutelage the last three seasons, completing 1,279-of-1,829 passes (69.9%) for 14,484 with 113 touchdown passes and a 103.2 passer rating. The signal-caller has led the league in completions, yardage and scoring throws over this period.

Under Lombardi's guidance in 2011, Brees enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by a quarterback in NFL record books, as he completed 468-of-657 passes (71.2%) for 5,476 yards with 46 touchdowns and a 110.6 passer rating. Brees broke the NFL's single-season passing yardage record that stood for 27 years, making him the only quarterback in NFL history to throw for 5,000 or more yards in two seasons. He also set the NFL mark for completions, 300-yard passing games (13) and exceeded the record for completion percentage that he originally set in 2009, as he was selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, sixth overall.

In his previous position, he was heavily involved in the preparation of the quarterbacks and passing attack as well, having worked closely with offensive coordinator Pete Carmichael Jr. Lombardi also stepped in for a brief stint as the running backs coach near the end of 2008.

He arrived in New Orleans with extensive coaching experience on both sides of the ball, most recently serving as defensive assistant for the Atlanta Falcons in 2006. While in that role, Lombardi worked with a defensive line that combined for 25.5 sacks.

Bringing game-planning and play-calling experience to his position, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 at Mercyhurst College, also serving as recruiting coordinator.

In 2001, Lombardi coached tight ends and running backs for the New York/New Jersey Hitmen of the XFL. In 2000, he tutored the defensive line and served as strength & conditioning coordinator at Bucknell University.

He coached both the tight ends and tackles at the Virginia Military Institute in 1999 after opening his coaching career at the University of Dayton, where he was responsible for the defensive line from 1996-98. The Flyers won 20-straight games during his tenure.

Lombardi—the grandson of legendary coach Vince Lombardi—is a 1994 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, where he earned three letters as a tight end and one in lacrosse. Lombardi and his wife, Molly, have six children: sons Joseph, Thomas and Dominic and daughters Maria, Bernadette and Clare.

PLAYING CAREER: Air Force, 1991-93.

COACHING CAREER: Dayton, 1996-98; Virginia Military Institute, 1999; Bucknell University, 2000; New York/New Jersey Hitmen (XFL), 2001; Mercyhurst College, 2002-05; Atlanta Falcons, 2006; New Orleans Saints, 2007-.

Mike MALLORY

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

An experienced coach who has built a reputation for attention to detail, intensity and preparation throughout his career, Mike Mallory will return to working with coordinator Greg McMahon in assisting in all aspects of the Saints special teams units in 2012. He brings 26 years of coaching experience to his post, including 22 years at the college level prior to joining the Saints in 2008.

Serving as assistant secondary coach in 2011, Mallory helped tutor a unit where safeties Roman Harper (116) and Malcolm Jenkins (97) had the top two tackling totals on the team, while Harper's 7.5 sacks led the team and was the second-highest total by an NFL defensive back since sacks were recognized as an official statistic in 1982. Among the cornerbacks that Mallory tutored, Jabari Greer had a career-high 83 tackles and 23 pass defenses, while Patrick Robinson led the Saints with four interceptions in his second season.

From 2008-10, Mallory assisted McMahon in the tutoring of the Saints special teams units. He assisted in the development of K Garrett Hartley and P Thomas Morstead. Hartley has made 85.7% of his field goal attempts since joining the club in 2008. Morstead, a 2009 fifth round draft choice, improved both his gross (45.9) and net (38.4) punting averages in 2010 to finish among league leaders.

Mallory spent 2007 at the University of Louisville, where he served as secondary coach. He spent the previous season at Kansas coaching the linebackers, and the five years before (2001-05) as an assistant at Illinois, including his final two as defensive coordinator/linebackers.

Mallory coached the Illinois linebackers in 2003 after spending his previous two years working with the safeties. For four seasons, Mallory and McMahon were on the same staff at Illinois, and Mallory, as now, assisted McMahon with preparing the special teams units.

During his career, Mallory also coached the inside linebackers at Maryland (2000) and was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Northern Illinois (1996-99) and the University of Rhode Island (1993-95).

Mallory had a standout career as a linebacker at the University of Michigan. He was a two-time All-Big 10 selection and two-year captain. He was a finalist for the 1985 Butkus Award – given to the nation’s premier linebacker – and voted his team’s MVP in 1984. Mallory played in four bowl games and graduated with a degree in sports administration.

Mallory is from a distinguished football family. He is the son of Bill Mallory, who has served as a head coach at Indiana, Colorado, Northern Illinois and Miami (Ohio). Mike’s youngest brother, Curt, is currently the secondary coach at the University of Michigan, and brother, Doug, is the defensive coordinator/assistant head coach at Indiana University.

Mallory and his wife, Kim, have a daughter, Kathryn, and a son, William.

PLAYING CAREER: Michigan, 1982-85.

COACHING CAREER: Indiana, 1986-87; Kent State, 1988-90; Eastern Illinois, 1991-92; Rhode Island, 1993-95; Northern Illinois, 1996-99; Maryland, 2000; Illinois, 2001-05; Kansas, 2006; Louisville, 2007; New Orleans Saints, 2008-.

Terry
MALONE TIGHT ENDS

The leader of a position group that has been a productive component of an offense that has ranked among the NFL’s top units since 2006, tight ends coach Terry Malone enters his seventh season in New Orleans. He brings nearly three decades of coaching experience to his post, including two stints as an offensive coordinator.

COACHINGSTAFF

The club's platoon of tight ends has been solid and consistent as both receivers and blockers under Malone's tutelage. In 2011, Malone continued to develop Jimmy Graham into one of the NFL's elite tight ends. Graham responded with a franchise-record 99 receptions for 1,310 yards and tied a team mark with 11 touchdown grabs, with 74 of his catches moving the chains to lead the club in first downs. Among NFL tight ends all-time, his yardage total ranked second, receptions tied for third and scoring grabs tied for eighth.

In 2010, the Saints were the only team in the NFL with three tight ends with at least 30 receptions. Malone played a pivotal role in Graham's development as a rookie. Despite playing only one season of college football, Graham finished with 31 receptions for 356 yards and five touchdown grabs.

In 2009, Malone integrated David Thomas into the offense quickly following a week one trade. He responded with 35 grabs for 356 yards with one TD to team with Jeremy Shockey, who had 48 receptions for 569 yards with three TDs, scoring two more times in the playoffs, including the go-ahead touchdown grab in Super Bowl XLIV. Both tight ends played a key role in the blocking scheme for the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense.

Malone's work with tight ends has a long history. He worked at the University of Michigan from 1997-2005, including his final four seasons as the Wolverines' offensive coordinator/tight ends. During Malone's nine seasons, Michigan won five Big 10 championships and appeared in eight New Year's Day bowl games.

In his tenure as coordinator the school had 14 All-Big Ten selections and four All-Americans. The Wolverines had back-to-back conference Player of the Year winners on offense (running back Chris Perry, 2003 and WR Braylon Edwards, 2004). In 2004, the offense ranked second in the Big Ten and 24th in the nation in scoring by averaging over 30 points per contest. The Wolverines were led by Rimington Trophy co-recipient David Baas and Edwards, who won the Biletnikoff Award as the country's top receiver. QB Chad Henne became the first true freshman in Big Ten history to lead his squad to a conference title and was the first to start a Rose Bowl.

In 2003, Malone was named a finalist for the Broyles award, recognizing the top college assistant. It was a fitting honor, as the Wolverines tied for 12th nationally in scoring (35.4 avg.) and 15th in total offense (446.7 avg.) while setting school records in every passing category. Michigan led the Big Ten in passing (270.8 avg.) for the first time since 1948 and set school marks for total yards (5,807) en route to the conference title.

Malone began his years at Michigan as offensive line coach, with the Wolverines winning the 1997 national title in his first season. His offensive line allowed a conference-low 18 sacks. He remained in that position until being promoted to offensive coordinator after the 2001 season.

Michigan's front line had three NFL draft picks in 2001, including No. 1 picks

Steve Hutchinson and Jeff Backus and second-rounder Maurice Williams. The line paved the way for RB Anthony Thomas to break all of the Wolverines' rushing yardage and touchdowns records.

Two Malone-coached players were recognized as the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year: Jon Jansen (1997) and Hutchinson (2000). Hutchinson became just the fourth player in conference history to earn All-Big Ten first team honors after all four years.

Malone arrived at Ann Arbor after spending 1996 as offensive line coach at Boston College on the staff of Coach Dan Henning. Prior to that season, Malone served as offensive line coach, tight ends coach, and offensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 1986-95, where he was a part of two squads to win MAC Conference championships and subsequent bowl games.

Before returning to his alma mater, Holy Cross, in 1985 to tutor the tight ends, Malone opened his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Arizona, under the late coach Larry Smith.

A native of Redford, Mich., Malone attended The College of The Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass., and played four seasons at tight end. Malone was the Crusaders' captain as a senior. He earned a degree in history from Holy Cross (1983). Malone and his wife, Ann, have four children, Kara, Patrick, Ryan and Natalie. The Malone family lives on the northshore. They volunteer at the Covington Food Bank and are active parishioners at the Most Holy Trinity Church in Covington.

PLAYING CAREER: Holy Cross, 1979-82.

COACHING CAREER: Arizona, 1983-84; Holy Cross, 1985; Bowling Green, 1986-95; Boston College, 1996; Michigan, 1997-2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Drew Brees

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 209
 COLLEGE: PURDUE
 JOINED SAINTS: UFA-06 (SD)
 NFL EXPERIENCE: 11
 BORN: 1/15/79

NFL CAREER – Few players in the era of NFL free agency can rival the impact that Drew Brees has made on the Saints since arriving in 2006 – leading the team to victory in Super Bowl XLIV and being named the contest’s MVP, earning Offensive Player of the Year honors in 2008 and 2009, Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year and Associated Press Male Athlete of the Year in 2010, being voted to the Pro Bowl five times and shattering league and team passing records. He ranks among the league’s elite quarterbacks, becoming only the second player in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards in six-straight campaigns – including 5,476 in 2011, the highest single-season total in league annals. Brees has also set three other single-season league records since joining the Saints: 300-yard passing games (13 in 2011), completion percentage (71.2 in 2011) and completions (468, 2011). Last season, he led the Saints to their third straight playoff appearance as he completed 468-of-657 passes (71.2%) for 5,476 yards with 46 touchdown passes and a 110.6 passer rating as he was voted the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year. In addition to his NFL records in completions, completion percentage and passing yardage, he also ranked first in the league in attempts, third down passer rating (127.4) and second in touchdown passes and passer rating. Brees has also received numerous accolades and awards for taking a leadership role off the field in the New Orleans community. Originally drafted by San Diego in 2001, Brees signed with the Saints in March of 2006 as an unrestricted free agent after ranking as one of the NFL's top quarterbacks over the previous two seasons, departing as the Chargers' all-time leader for career completion percentage. Since 2006, he leads the NFL with 28,394 passing yards to become the club's all-time leader, 3,670 attempts, 2,488 completions and 201 TD passes. Brees' record as a starter for the Saints is 62-33 (.653) in the regular season and 5-3 (.625) in the postseason. The 62 victories are ranked first in franchise history. Brees also has thrown for over 300 yards in 50 games with the Saints, including seven contests with over 400 to tie for third in NFL record books. He will bring into 2012 a streak of 43 consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass, second in NFL records behind Johnny Unitas (47). Overall in his 11-year NFL career, he's completed 3,613-of-5,479 passes (65.9%) for 40,742 yards, 281 touchdown throws and a 94.0 passer rating. He's the league's second-most accurate passer of all-time, owns the eighth-best passer rating, ranks ninth in completions and touchdown passes and 12th in passing yardage.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Designated Exclusive Rights Franchise Player, 3/3/12; Signed to six-year contract with Saints (UFA-SD), 3/16/06; Re-signed by San Diego Chargers to one-year contract as Franchise Player, 3/4/05; Designated Franchise Player by San Diego, 2/22/05; Signed by San Diego to a four-year contract, 8/7/01; Selected by San Diego in the second round (32nd overall) of 2001 NFL Draft.

After getting the ball back in overtime at the Falcons 29-yard line, Brees moved the team to set up K John Kasay's 26-yard game-winning field goal...Completed 24-of-38 passes for 363 yards, four TDs, an eight-yard TD run and a 129.6 passer rating vs. N.Y. Giants, Nov. 28, as he became the first Saint with four passing TDs and one rushing TD in a game and the first QB in Monday Night Football history with 350 passing yards, four passing TDs and a rushing TD. Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week...Completed 26-of-36 passes for 342 yards, three touchdown passes and a passer rating of 129.6 vs. Detroit, Dec. 4. Became the first quarterback in NFL history to top the 4,000-yard mark in his team's first 12 games of a season...Completed 36-of-47 passes for 337 yards, two touchdowns and a 110.0 passer rating at Tennessee, Dec. 11. Threw both touchdowns in the fourth quarter, rallying New Orleans from a 10-9 deficit entering the contest's final period. On the game-winning drive, he completed five-of-five passes for 69 yards, including the 35-yard touchdown to Colston and also gained two yards on a quarterback sneak on a third-and-one situation to convert...Completed 32-of-40 passes for 412 yards, five TDs and a season-high 149.6 passer rating at Minnesota, Dec. 18. It was his seventh career 400-yard passing performance, all as a Saint, tied with Joe Montana and Warren Moon for third in NFL records. Yardage total was eighth-highest single-game total in team records. It also was Brees' seventh game of at least 350-yards passing in 2011, eclipsing the previous NFL record (Tom Brady - 2007)...Completed 23-of-39 passes for 307 yards and four touchdown passes, upping his season touchdown pass total to a career-high 41, vs. Atlanta, Dec. 26 as the Saints clinched the NFC South. More significantly, his fourth quarter nine-yard TD to RB Darren Sproles, his last throw of the contest, put him at 5,087 passing yards for the season, giving him the new NFL single-season record. Captured NFC Offensive Player of the Week for the third time of the season...Completed 28-of-35 passes for 389 yards, five touchdowns and one interception with a 140.7 passer rating in regular season finale vs. Carolina, 1/1/12. Extended his NFL single-season record passing yardage total to 5,476 and upped his completion total to 468 to set another NFL single-season record, while surpassing his prior NFL mark with a 71.2% completion percentage. With the 13th 300-yard passing performance of 2011, he extended his NFL single-season record. Ended regular season by throwing a touchdown pass for the 43rd consecutive game, the second-longest streak in NFL history behind Unitas' 47. Also extended his own NFL-record streak of games with 20 or more completions to 35...Completed 33-of-43 passes for 466 yards and three touchdown passes in NFC Wild Card Playoff vs. Detroit, 1/7/12. The passing yardage total is a postseason career high for Brees, a New Orleans playoff record and the second-most in NFL postseason history. Only Cleveland's Bernie Kosar, who passed for 489 yards against the New York Jets in the 1986 AFC Divisional Playoff, has thrown for more yards in the postseason...Completed 40-of-63 passes for 462 yards, four touchdowns and two interceptions in NFC Divisional Playoff at San Francisco, 1/14/12. His first quarter interception was his first in his last 217 attempts in the postseason, ending an NFL-record streak of consecutive postseason passes without an interception. It was the third consecutive 400-yard effort, making him the only QB to do so, as he surpassed Marino (two) and Peyton Manning (two) for the most 400-yard passing games in NFL postseason history. 2010 – Selected by teammates as one of five season-long captains...Started all 16 regular season

 COLLEGE: TOWSON
 JOINED SAINTS: D4B-07
 NFL EXPERIENCE: 6
 BORN: 8/19/84

NFL CAREER – Bushrod has turned potential into production and become an anchor on the left side of the offensive front. After an understudy role his first two seasons, he’s distinguished himself as a starter since 2009 at the line’s most difficult position. His progression culminated with a season in 2011, where he blocked for Drew Brees’ blindside as part of a unit that amassed an NFL-record 7,474 total net yards and allowed only 24 sacks, tied for the second-fewest in the NFL, as he was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his NFL career. A fourth-round pick in 2007, he’s the only player the club has ever drafted out of Towson.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Agreed to terms, 7/29/11; Re-signed to a one-year contract (RFA), 4/13/10; Signed to a three-year contract, 7/20/07; Drafted by the Saints in the fourth round (125th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2011: Madden Most Valuable Protectors of the Year (Offensive Line Award); Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week Nine, Offensive Line); 2010: Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week Six, Offensive Line); 2009: Madden Most Valuable Protectors of the Year (Offensive Line Award).

2011 – Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at LT as he was honored with the first Pro Bowl selection of his NFL career...Allowed only three sacks and was penalized only six times...Part of a line that relinquished only 24 sacks in 2011, tied for second fewest in the NFL, giving up only five in the last eight games...Blocked for an offense that finished 2011 ranked first in the NFL in offense as they set an NFL single-season record with 7,474 yards, winning the 2011 Madden Protectors Award for the second time in three years, in recognition of the line’s performance...Entire offensive line did not allow a sack, while blocking for a run game that produced 195 yards vs. Tampa Bay, Nov. 6, as they earned week nine Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award. 2010 – Started all 16 regular season games and one playoff contest at LT for an offense that ranked sixth in the NFL...Allowed only six sacks and was penalized only six times. 2009 – Played in 15 games, making 14 starts at LT, inactive vs. N.Y. Jets, Oct. 4 with knee and ankle injuries...Part of an offensive line that won the 2009 Madden Protectors Award, in recognition of their performance...Surrendered only 7.5 sacks and was penalized only four times...Sept. 13 vs. Detroit, opened first NFL game and didn’t allow a sack...Suffered ankle injury at Buffalo, Sept. 27...Did not start at Tampa Bay, Nov. 22, playing in a rotation with Zach Strief...Started all three playoff games for an offensive line that surrendered only two takedowns.

2008 – Inactive for 12 games, dressed but did not play in two and appeared in two on special teams, blocking on kick return units. 2007 – Inactive for 14 games, played in one, and dressed but did not see action in another...Made NFL debut at Houston, Nov. 18, serving as a blocker on kickoff return unit.

COLLEGE – Four-year starter at Towson...All-Atlantic 10 selection at LT in 2006...Finished career with a streak of 38 consecutive starts...Earned third-team all-league honors as a junior and recorded nine TD-resulting blocks...Posted 72 knockdown blocks and was third-team All-Atlantic 10 as a sophomore, his first full season as a starter...Started five games in 2003 after redshirting in 2002.

PERSONAL – Sports management major...Attended King George (Va.) HS, where he was a standout in football, basketball and baseball...Honorable mention all-state selection at T...Bushrod and his offensive line teammates sponsored a holiday bike drive for underprivileged youth in 2009 and 2010...Has scheduled an annual golf tournament to raise book scholarships for student athletes from his hometown of King George, Va...Has worked as a substitute teacher and done community service work at various NAACP events.

WR

Marques COLSTON

HEIGHT: 6-4 WEIGHT: 225
COLLEGE: HOFSTRA
JOINED SAINTS: D7B-06
NFL EXPERIENCE: 7
BORN: 6/5/83

NFL CAREER – Through his first six seasons, Colston's established himself as one of the NFL's most difficult-to-defend targets. He's dependable – moving the chains for 316 first downs, already ranking third in club history in receptions with 449 and hauling in eight or more grabs in 19 contests. He's also ranked third in club record books with 6,240 receiving yards and tied for second with 48 touchdown grabs. Colston's explosive, notching four games with 150 yards or more and 20 with over 100. He's the only player in club record books to have a pair of back-to-back 1,000 yard receiving seasons and joins Joe Horn as only the second to reach 1,000 yards in three consecutive campaigns. He's gone about it while keeping a low profile, emerging as an impact player soon after being drafted 252nd overall in 2006. Since his arrival, Colston's led the Saints in receiving three times and holds the franchise record with five 1,000-yard seasons. He's just one of seven NFL players to reach 1,000 receiving yards in five of his first six seasons. In 2006, he had 869 receiving yards after his first nine games – the quickest start of any player in league history. In 2011, he ranked second on the team with 1,143 receiving yards and third with 80 receptions.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Agreed to terms on a five-year contract, 3/13/12; Signed a three-year contract extension, 7/23/08; Signed to a three-year contract, 7/18/06; Selected by New Orleans in the seventh round (252nd overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

WORTHNOTING

Colston is ranked third in team record books in receptions (449) and receiving yardage (6,240), and is tied for second in receiving touchdowns (48). His receiving TD total is the sixth-highest figure in the NFL since entering the league in 2006 during this time.

With 1,143 yards receiving in 2011, Colston now stands alone with the most 1,000 yard seasons in franchise history with five. Colston is the only Saint to have back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons on two occasions (2006-07, 2009-10).

Colston's four 10-plus reception games puts him just behind Joe Horn (5, 2000-06) for second on the club's all-time list.

COLSTON BY THE NUMBERS

449 Career receptions, the third-highest total in club history and tied for ninth-highest total in the NFL since 2006.

6,240 Career receiving yardage, eighth-highest in the NFL since 2006 and third-highest in club history.

48 Career receiving touchdowns, tied for second-most in team history and the sixth-highest figure in the NFL since 2006.

20 Colston has over 100 yards receiving on 20 occasions - including four games with over 150 yards. Only one other player (Joe Horn-27) has reached the milestone as often as Colston.

19 The number of contests over the last five seasons when Colston has recorded eight or more receptions.

285 Receptions in his first four seasons, the highest total by a Saints' draft pick over his opening four years. Only 11 other players in NFL history have more grabs in their first four seasons.

316 Career receptions that have moved the chains for a first down - 70.4 percent of his catches.

53 Catches of 25 yards or more during his career, including touchdowns of 86 and 70 yards. He has 87 catches of 20 yards or more.

455 Receiving yardage in a three-game stretch in 2006 (10/29-11/12), the most yardage over such a span in club record books. He had over 100 yards in all three contests, a streak that he equaled again in 2007.

9 While Colston ranks second in club history with 20 games with over 100 yards receiving, he has had over 90 yards in nine other contests.

11 The number of multiple-touchdown games in Colston's career.

5 Consecutive games with a touchdown reception that Colston posted from December 11, 2008 through the 2009 contest at Philadelphia, September 27. Colston shares the record with Moore who first extended the mark in 2008.

WORTHNOTING

While Colston is extremely adept at moving the chains—316 of his 449 career catches have gone for a first down—he has also been a big-play threat who can stretch the field. He has 12 receptions of over 40 yards in his career, including touchdown grabs of 86 and 70 yards. In 86 career games, Colston has 87 catches of 20 yards or more.

Colston (2009-11) and Joe Horn (2000-02) are the only two Saints to have 1,000 yards receiving in three consecutive seasons.

No player in league history caught more passes in their first two seasons than the 168 that Colston hauled in from 2006-07.

In 2007, Colston tied the club record with 11 receiving TDs

Colston has posted 20 games with over 100 receiving yards. Only one Saint has reached the century mark more than him.

with ankle injury sustained vs. Cincinnati, Nov. 19...Led NFL rookies with a team-high 1,038 receiving yards, a club record for rookies...Eight receiving TDs tied club rookie record (WR Donté Stallworth, 2002)...Started both postseason contests and had 10 catches for 118 yards, including five for 63 yards and a 13-yard TD in NFC Championship at Chicago...Had 15 catches of 20 or more yards, including four of plus-40...Opened career with four catches for 49 yards and 12-yard scoring grab at Cleveland, Sept. 10...At Green Bay, Sept. 17, notched four grabs for 58 yards with 35-yard TD in fourth quarter that would give the Saints the lead after once trailing 13-0...Didn't start but had seven receptions for 97 yards vs. Atlanta, Sept. 25...Started at Carolina, Oct. 1, and had five catches for 132 yards and an 86-yard TD in fourth quarter - the longest in club history for a rookie. The last players in NFL record books to have a receiving touchdown of 86 yards or more within their first four NFL games were QB Mark Malone of Pittsburgh, who in his third contest had a 90-yard scoring grab in 1981, and Detroit RB Billy Sims, who had an 87-yard TD catch in his second game...Posted six receptions for 163 yards and two TDs vs. Baltimore, Oct. 29. Scoring grabs were of 25 and 47 yards in the fourth quarter, and also had a 53-yard grab. Combined with WR Joe Horn (126) to give the Saints two 100-yard receivers for sixth time in club history. Yardage total was highest in club history for a rookie at that point... Named NFC Rookie of the Month for October, a span where Colston had 373 yards and four TDs...At Tampa Bay, Nov. 5, recorded career-best 11 grabs for 123 yards and a TD. Set a club rookie record with third 100-yard day. Combined with Devery Henderson (111) for seventh time the Saints have had two 100-yard receivers in same game. It was the first time the club had a duo achieve the feat in back-to-back games...Notched 10 catches for 169 yards at Pittsburgh, Nov. 12, breaking his two-week-old club record for most receiving yards in a game by a rookie. Over the previous three-game stretch, he recorded 27 catches for 455 yards and three TDs, the best three-game totals in club history...Suffered a sprained ankle in early moments vs. Cincinnati, Nov. 19, and forced to miss the next two games...Had five catches for 78 yards vs. Washington, Dec. 17 and went over 1,000 yards on season, becoming first rookie in team history to reach the milestone.

COLLEGE – Four-year standout at Hofstra, appearing in 40 career games with 37 starts and posting 182 catches for 2,834 yards with 22 touchdowns...All-Atlantic 10 as a redshirt senior after hauling in a career-high 70 receptions for 975 yards (13.9 avg.) and nine TDs... Jimmy GRAHAM

 COLLEGE: MIAMI (FLA.)
 JOINED SAINTS: 03-10
 NFL EXPERIENCE: 3
 BORN: 11/24/86

NFL CAREER – New Orleans’ third round draft choice in 2010 after playing only one season of college football, Graham is a rising star who enjoyed a breakout sophomore campaign, that was one of the most prolific seasons by a tight end in NFL history. Graham became a favorite target of Drew Brees, as the big-play flashes from the end of his rookie season carried over into his second year. He finished the season ranked first on the Saints in catches, receiving yardage and touchdown grabs with a franchise-record 99 receptions for 1,310 yards (13.2 avg.) and 11 touchdowns as the only tight end in franchise history to record 1,000 yards receiving and only the second in NFL record books to surpass 1,300, as he was selected a Pro Bowl starter. Graham's yardage total was fourth in club record books and his receiving touchdown total was tied for first. Graham, who played four years of basketball at the University of Miami (Fla.), finished the regular season ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL in receptions and fifth in the conference and seventh in the league in yardage. He also enjoyed an outstanding post-season as he finished with 12 receptions for 158 yards (13.2 avg.) with a team best three touchdown grabs. Consistency was a hallmark of Graham's performance as he had at least seven receptions in seven regular season contests and at least six in ten games, while surpassing 50 yards receiving in all but two contests. His playoff performances were the most prolific in all categories for a Saints tight end in post-season record books. In two seasons, Graham has recorded 130 receptions for 1,666 yards (12.8 avg.) with 16 touchdowns. He possesses explosive capabilities with 15 career catches of 25-plus yards with 13 occurring in 2011. In addition, his 66-yard touchdown reception in the NFC Divisional Playoff was the longest by a Saints tight end in the postseason since 1987.

HONORS – 2011: Pro Bowl (starter); Second-team Associated Press All-Pro; Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-NFC; Ed Block Courage Award (Saints recipient).

WORTHNOTING

In just his second season, Graham enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by a tight end in NFL history with a club-record 99 receptions for 1,310 yards (13.2 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. Ranked third in the NFL in catches, Graham's receiving yardage total was the second-highest all-time for a tight end in NFL record books.

During a torrid pace from September 25-October 16, when he had 29 receptions for 485 yards with two touchdowns, Graham became the first Saint to every have four consecutive games of 100-yards receiving and joined Tony Gonzalez (4 games, Oct. 15-Nov. 5, 2000) as only the second tight end since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to do so.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Agreed to terms on a four-year contract, 7/28/10; Selected in the third round (95th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

HEIGHT: 5-8 WEIGHT: 195
 COLLEGE: OKLAHOMA
 JOINED SAINTS: FA-08
 NFL EXPERIENCE: 5
 BORN: 5/16/86

NFL CAREER – Signed in a shrewd 2008 midseason acquisition following a tryout, the strong-legged Hartley has already made some of the most significant kicks in club history. He made his first 16 field goal attempts, setting an NFL record for consecutive field goals to start a career. Hartley has been perfect in five postseason contests, drilling eight-of-eight field goals and 15-of-15 PATs, coming through in the clutch on repeated occasions, as well as making him the club's all-time leading scorer in the postseason with 39 points. Overall in his three-year NFL career, the University of Oklahoma product has drilled over 85 percent of his field goal attempts. Hartley missed the entire 2011 season with a hip injury suffered in the preseason and is expected to return to action in 2012.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Placed on Injured Reserve, 9/28/11; Agreed to terms on a five-year contract, 3/3/11; Signed by Saints, 10/29/08; Waived by Denver Broncos, 7/21/08; Signed by Denver as an undrafted free agent, 4/28/08.

HONORS – 2010: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 2).

2011 – After being inactive for the first three regular season games with a hip injury suffered in the preseason, placed on injured reserve, Sept. 28. 2010 – Played in 14 games and split the uprights on 20-of-25 FG attempts, adding 40 PATs for a total of 100 points, the first time he reached the century mark...Inactive for weeks three and four...On Monday night at San Francisco, Sept. 20, was a perfect three-of-three on FG attempts, including booting the game-winning 37-yarder as time expired, for 11 points, earning NFC Special Teams Player of the Week...Logged eight points vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 31, booting two-of-two FG attempts and two PATs...Converted two-of-two FG attempts and four PATs at Carolina, Nov. 7...In his first trip to his hometown as a professional, made all three FG attempts, including a 50-yarder, along with three PATs for a season-high 12 points at Dallas, Nov. 25, starting a stretch where he made his final ten FG attempts of regular season...Hit from 48 and 24 yards and on all four PAT attempts at Cincinnati, Dec. 5...Made a 40-yard FG attempt and four PAT tries vs. St. Louis, Dec. 12...Kicked three PATs and a 47-yard FG attempt at Baltimore, Dec. 19...Set career-long with a 52-yard FG and added two PATs on Monday night at Atlanta, Dec. 27...Converted 45 and 38-yard FG attempts and was good on only PAT attempt vs. Tampa Bay, 1/2/11...In NFC Wild Card Playoff at Seattle, kicked three FGs (26, 22 and 21 yards) and all three PAT attempts for a postseason career-best 12 points. 2009 – Took over kicking duties for last five regular season games, going 9-of-11 on FGs and making 10-of-11 PATs for 37 points...In postseason, made five-of-five FG attempts and 12-of-12 PATs...Making 2009 debut at Washington, Dec. 6, kicked career-best four FGs-including the 18-yard game-winner in overtime-in five attempts, his only miss coming on a 58-yard attempt at the end of regulation that fell just short. Carrying over from his rookie campaign, made his first 16 field goals, breaking the NFL record for consecutive field goals to start a career, previously held by Kris Brown (13 consecutive FG-1999)...Fourth quarter 38-yard FG, in addition to an earlier 33-yarder, gave the Saints a 26-23 lead they would keep at Atlanta, Dec. 13...In NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Arizona, converted all six PATs and successful on his lone FG try, a 43-yarder...After converting four PATs in regulation, made the biggest kick of his career in overtime when he split the uprights on a 40-yard FG to provide the winning margin in a 31-28 win to send Saints to Super Bowl in NFC Championship vs. Minnesota...In Super Bowl XLIV, became first player in Super Bowl history to kick three field goals of 40-or-more yards, when he connected from 46, 44 and 47 yards, in addition to two PATs. 2008 – Signed by Saints, Oct. 29 and proceeded to have the finest season for field goal percentage by a rookie kicker in club history...Made all 13 FG attempts and was 28-for-28 on PATs...FG total and 67 points are the second-highest total for a Saints rookie kicker, both records held by Charlie Durkee in 1967 with 14 and 69 points... In NFL debut at Atlanta, Nov. 9, converted both PAT attempts and 24 and 44-yard FGs...Connected on all six PAT attempts and converted a 30-yard FG attempt vs. Green Bay, Nov. 24...Kicking in adverse weather conditions at Tampa Bay, Nov. 30, drilled two 40-plus yard FGs, including career-long 47-yarder.

COLLEGE – Played 43 games (2004-07) at Oklahoma, and was a second-team All-Big 12 selection during each of his final two years...Closed career third in OU history in field goals made (47) and sixth in points scored...Finished college career with a .866 FG percentage (47-of-58), including converting 13-of-15 as a senior...Made a career-best 53-yarder vs. Utah State as senior...Named a finalist for the Lou Groza Award as junior, setting a school-record with a .950 FG percentage (19-of-20), to pick up second-team All-Big 12 honors...Had 33 touchbacks as a sophomore...Majored in communications.

PERSONAL – Born May 16, 1986 in Keller, Texas...Prepped at Southlake Carroll (Southlake, Texas) HS where he was a teammate of Saints QB Chase Daniel and LS Justin Drescher...Made 17-of-20 FG attempts as a senior, earning All-State honors from the Dallas Morning News.

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 222
 COLLEGE: TIFFIN
 JOINED SAINTS: FA-10
 NFL EXPERIENCE: 3
 BORN: 3/22/88

NFL CAREER – A rugged, between-the-tackles runner, this undrafted free agent from Tiffin (Ohio) earned a roster spot and enjoyed a productive season as New Orleans’ lead back 2010. He came back strong midway through the 2011 campaign after spending the first six games on the Physically Unable to Perform list following a foot injury suffered in the 2010 regular season finale that required surgery and extensive rehabilitation. Ivory appeared in six games with two starts, carrying 79 times for 374 yards (4.7 avg.) with one touchdown. His progression in the Saints running game is expected to continue in 2012, as he can take advantage of his first full offseason in the NFL.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Activated from Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform, 10/29/11; Placed on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform, 9/3/11; Placed on Injured Reserve, 1/4/11; Signed by Saints as a rookie free agent, 5/3/10.

HONORS – 2010: The Sporting News All-Rookie, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie; Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week (Week 6); FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 6).

2011 – After spending the first seven weeks of the season on the Physically Unable to Perform list recovering from foot surgery and sports hernia surgery, Ivory appeared in six games, carrying 79 times for 374 yards (4.7 avg.) with one touchdown...Played in both postseason games and carried 22 times for 70 yards...At Minnesota, Dec. 18, carried 18 times for 74 yards (4.1 avg.)...Had the team’s first 100-yard individual game of the season when he carried 19 times for 127 yards with a 35-yard touchdown vs. Carolina, 1/1/12. 2010 – Appeared in 12 games with four starts and led team in rushing, carrying 137 times for 716 yards (5.2 avg.) with five touchdowns and a 17-yard reception...Ranked fourth in the NFL in yards per carry and second among rookies in rushing yardage. Rushing yardage total was the fourth-highest all-time by a Saints rookie...In his first NFL start vs. Carolina, Oct. 3, led Saints in rushing with 12 carries for 67 yards... Enjoyed breakout performance at Tampa Bay, Oct. 17, carrying 15 times for 158 yards (10.5 avg.), the 25th most rushing yards by an undrafted player in NFL history and the second-most yards per carry in a single game by a Saint, the first to gain 150 yards and average ten yards per carry. Ivory's yards per carry was the fourth-best in a single game in NFL history by an undrafted player with at least ten rushes...Narrowly missed the century mark vs. Seattle, Nov. 21, when he carried 23 times for 99 yards and scored his first NFL TD on a one-yard dive...A pair of first quarter TD runs gave New Orleans a 17-0 lead at Dallas, Nov. 25...Became the first Saint to have two 100-yard rushing games in a season since Deuce McAllister in 2006, when he carried 15 times for 117 yards (7.8 avg.) with two TDs, including a career-long 55-yard scoring rush at Cincinnati, Dec. 5...Ran seven times for 47 yards in one quarter vs. St. Louis, Dec. 12, before suffering a hamstring injury...After missing two games, returned to action in regular season finale vs. Tampa Bay, 1/2/11 and carried seven times for 33 yards before suffering a season-ending foot injury which would require surgery.

COLLEGE – In senior year at Tiffin, carried 39 times for 223 yards in five games before suffering season-ending knee injury after transferring from Washington State...Appeared in 22 games over three seasons with the Cougars, rushing for 534 yards on 91 attempts (5.9 avg.) with four TDs, along with a 22.8-yard average on kickoff returns.

PERSONAL – A three-year letterman and all-district selection at Longview (Texas) HS, where he also ran track...Christopher Lee Ivory was born March 22, 1988 in Longview, Texas.

Scott SHANLE

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 245
 COLLEGE: NEBRASKA
 JOINED SAINTS: TR-06 (DAL)
 NFL EXPERIENCE: 10
 BORN: 11/23/79

NFL CAREER – Since arriving in New Orleans in 2006 Shanle has been one of the Saints’ top defenders. He turned in another solid season in 2011 as he appeared in all 16 games with 14 starts from both the strongside and weakside positions and opened both postseason contests, posting 84 tackles, one sack, one interception, five pass defenses, one forced fumble and three special teams stops. Equally adept at blitzing, dropping into coverage and plugging against the run, Shanle has been an important addition since being acquired in a trade from Dallas during 2006 training camp. In 90 games since, he’s had 646 tackles, seven sacks, three interceptions, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries while rarely leaving the field. Initially a seventh-round pick out of Nebraska in 2003 by St. Louis, Shanle spent most of his rookie year with the Rams, playing in six games before being claimed off waivers by Dallas late in the season. With the Cowboys, he was a special teams standout in 2004 before starting eight games in 2005. Though he has also started at strongside linebacker and in the middle, he has found a home on the weakside. In his eight-year career, Shanle’s posted 725 tackles and 8.5 sacks.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Agreed to terms, 7/29/11; Signed to a four-year contract, 2/9/07; Acquired by New Orleans from Dallas Cowboys for an undisclosed draft pick, 8/23/06; Claimed off waivers by Dallas, 12/13/03; Waived by St. Louis Rams, 12/12/03; Reinstated by NFL Commissioner, 10/29/03; Suspended by NFL Commissioner, 9/26/03; Signed by St. Louis to a three-year contract, 7/22/03; Chosen by St. Louis in seventh round (251st overall) of 2003 NFL Draft.

Will SMITH

HEIGHT: 6-3 WEIGHT: 282
COLLEGE: OHIO STATE
JOINED SAINTS: 01-04
NFL EXPERIENCE: 9
BORN: 7/4/81

NFL CAREER – A true impact player on the Saints’ defense, Smith has been one of the club’s top performers since being drafted 18th overall in the 2004 NFL Draft and has evolved into one of the top defensive linemen in franchise history. Since he joined the team, no Saint has had more than his 61½ sacks, which ranks fourth in club record books (since 1982, when sacks were first recognized). He’s led the Saints in quarterback takedowns in four seasons, as the first Saint to top the team in sacks three years in a row (2005-07) since La’Roï Glover from 1998-2000. Also a disruptive force against the run, the 2006 Pro Bowl selection has appeared in 123 games with 104 starts and has recorded 541 tackles, caused 19 fumbles and recovered six. Smith has been a defensive captain in each of the last five years, and sets the tone for the entire unit with his rugged play and intensity. Though often double-teamed, he notched 52 stops (28 solo) last season, posting 6½ sacks, one pass defense and two forced fumbles.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed to a six-year contract extension, 6/12/08; Agreed to terms on a six-year contract extension, 6/11/08; Signed to a six-year contract, 7/31/04; Selected in the first-round (18th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2006: Pro Bowl; 2004: Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie.

2011 – Selected by teammates as one of two season-long defensive team captains...Started all 14 games he played in and recorded 52 tackles (28 solo), ranked second on team with 6½ sacks and added one pass defense and two forced fumbles...Also started both postseason games and finished with six tackles (one solo)...Led the defensive line with five tackles and two sacks at St. Louis, Oct. 30...Along with DT Shaun Rogers, was credited for sealing up a fourth-and-one run play by Atlanta RB Michael Turner in overtime at their 29-yard line, allowing S Malcolm Jenkins to make the stop for no gain to give the Saints the ball back at the Falcons, Nov. 13...With a third quarter sack of QB Eli Manning vs. N.Y. Giants, Nov. 28, became the fourth player in franchise history to record 60 takedowns...With his third quarter sack of QB Jake Locker at Tennessee, Dec. 11, the Titans would be put in a third-and-19 situation at the 11 that would eventually force a punt that gave the Saints possession at midfield. 2010 – Selected by teammates as one of the team’s five season-long captains...Started all 15 games he played in and finished with 70 tackles (31 solo), 5½ sacks, one interception, five pass defenses and one forced fumble...Posted five or more tackles in 11 contests...Inactive with groin injury at Arizona, Oct. 10, missing his first game since 2006...Recorded his first takedown of 2010, when he dropped Falcons QB Matt

Ryan to put a halt to the first drive of overtime vs. Atlanta, Sept. 26, moving him into the top five all-time among Saints players in sacks. Also added five tackles (four solo)...Led New Orleans pass rush vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 31, recording five tackles (one solo), making a season-high and game-high 1½ sacks and deflecting a pass near the line of scrimmage, moving him into fifth place on the club's all-time list for takedowns...Powered an aggressive Saints defense at Dallas, Nov. 25, where in addition to six tackles (two solo), he picked off a first quarter pass that set up a field goal, added a fourth quarter sack that moved him to fourth on the club's all-time list and forced a fumble...Third quarter sack of Ryan created a third and long situation that led to a punt at Atlanta, Dec. 27. Also added five

SMITH BY THE NUMBERS

- 3 Consecutive seasons Smith led the Saints in sacks from 2005-07, the first Saint to top the team three seasons in a row since La'Roi Glover (1998-2000) and only the fifth in franchise history.
- 19 Career forced fumbles, including a club record five-game stretch in 2004-05 with one in each game.
- 13 Career-high sack total in 2009, the highest by a Saint since 2001. Smith's takedown total was ranked second in the NFC and fifth in the NFL.
- 61.5 With 61.5 sacks since being drafted, Smith has the fourth-highest total in team record books, second among Black and Gold defensive linemen.
- 85 Tackles in 2005, a career-high despite starting just nine games.
- 7.5 The NFL-leading number of sacks by Smith in the month of November, 2009.
- 18 Smith was selected out of Ohio State 18th overall in 2004, the highest the Saints have drafted a defensive end since selecting Joe Johnson 13th overall in 1994.

tackles (three solo)...Sacked Buccaneers QB Josh Freeman for a nine-yard loss to go with six tackles (one solo) in finale vs. Tampa Bay, 1/2/11...Started NFC Wild Card Playoff at Seattle, 1/8/11, and finished with four solo tackles. 2009 – Started all 16 games at RDE and posted career-high 13 sacks to rank second in the NFC, adding 77 tackles (42 solo) with his first career interception, four pass defenses and three forced fumbles...Notched 10 tackles, a forced fumble and another interception in three postseason starts as well...Led dominating defensive performance at Buffalo, Sept. 27, as he sacked QB Trent Edwards among his six tackles and also notched his first career interception as he grabbed a tipped pass in the 27-7 victory...Had a second consecutive dominant game the next week vs. N.Y. Jets, notching 1½ sacks of QB Mark Sanchez, stripping the ball, leading to Remi Ayodele recovering the fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. Talled six tackles on the day...Made five tackles from his starting spot vs. N.Y. Giants, Oct. 18, and drew a holding penalty that nullified a Giants TD pass and forced a field goal...Vs. Atlanta, Nov. 2, matched a career-high with two sacks of QB Matt Ryan as he posted his seventh career multi-sack performance, recording four tackles with an additional pass defense on another near-sack...Recorded his second straight multi-sack game vs. Carolina, Nov. 8, dropping QB Jake Delhomme twice and stripped the ball on one of the sacks along with making a total of five

NFL CAREER — Thomas has been an exceptional find for the Saints — initially signed as an undrafted free agent in 2007, he earned a roster spot as a rookie as a special teams ace. He's evolved into one of the most productive running backs in franchise history as an equally versatile threat in the backfield as a runner, receiver and blocker. In 63 games with 22 starts, Thomas has carried 521 times for 2,501 yards (4.8 avg.) with 23 touchdown runs and added 166 receptions for 1,363 yards (8.2 avg.) with seven scoring grabs. He's ranked third in club history in yards per carry, tied for fifth in rushing touchdowns, ranked tenth in rushing yardage and tied for tenth in total touchdowns (31). In 2011, Thomas rebounded from a 2010 campaign marred by an ankle injury and carried 110 times for 562 yards (5.1 avg.) with five touchdowns, also catching a career-high 50 passes for 425 yards (8.2 avg.) with one touchdown for 987 total yards from scrimmage.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Agreed to terms on a four-year contract, 3/2/11; Placed on Injured Reserve, 1/5/11; Re-signed to a one-year contract (RFA), 6/15/10; Signed by the Saints to a three-year contract 4/30/07 as an undrafted free agent.

HONORS – 2008: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 14).

2011 – Appeared in all 16 games with seven starts and carried 110 times for 562 yards (5.1 avg.) with five touchdowns, also catching a career-high 50 passes for 425 yards (8.2 avg.) with one touchdown for 987 total yards from scrimmage...Appeared in both postseason games, starting one and was club's leading rusher in playoffs with nine carries for 72 yards (8.0 avg.) with one TD, while also recording seven receptions for 60 yards...Oct. 9, vs. Carolina, Thomas' six-yard touchdown grab with 50 seconds remaining in the contest helped bring the Saints back in the 30-27 win. A reception earlier in the drive where he rambled for an 18-yard gain also proved to be important...Thomas had 10 carries for 57 yards and five receptions for 68 yards in the 62-7 win, including a career-long 57-yard first quarter grab that helped set up New Orleans' second touchdown...Vs. Tampa Bay, Nov. 6, Thomas had 91 total yards from scrimmage, as he finished with eight carries for 66 yards with a third quarter, nine-yard TD and four receptions for 25 yards. Thomas' second quarter 33-yard run was his longest of the season...Vs. N.Y. Giants, Nov. 28, Thomas led the team with 110 total yards from scrimmage in the Saints' third consecutive win to cap an undefeated month of November as he carried eight times for 63 yards (7.9 avg.) with a fourth quarter 12-yard touchdown run and also recorded three receptions for 47 yards...At Minnesota, Dec. 18, Thomas carried eight times for 44 yards with a one-yard TD, added two receptions for 41 yards and also returned one kickoff for 15 yards...Vs. Atlanta, Dec. 26, Thomas carried nine times for 53 yards. His first quarter four-yard touchdown put the Saints in the lead for the first time. It was also the 23rd rushing touchdown of his career, putting him in a tie for fifth place on the club's all-time list with Reuben Mayes (1986-90) and George Rogers (1981-84)...In NFC Wild Card Playoff vs. Detroit, 1/7/12, Thomas led the Saints with 66 yards (8.3 avg.) rushing on eight carries, including a postseason career-long 31-yard run in the first quarter as he set a new postseason high for rushing yardage and became the club's all-time rushing playoff leader. Prior to Saturday night, Thomas' career-long run in the playoffs was 12 yards. Thomas also finished the night with six receptions for 55 yards (9.2 avg.) as his 121 total yards from scrimmage led New Orleans...In NFC Divisional Playoff at San Francisco, 1/14/12, Thomas suffered a concussion in the first quarter and was sidelined for the remainder of the contest, finishing his day with one carry for six yards and a five-yard reception. 2010 – Despite appearing in only six games with three starts due to an ankle injury, Thomas gained 269 yards on 83 carries with two touchdowns to finish as the club's second-leading rusher...Also had 29 receptions for 201 yards and returned seven kickoffs for 154 yards (22.0 avg.) following a December season-ending concussion by Courtney Roby...Led team's rushing attack in opener vs. Minnesota, Sept. 9, gaining

71 yards on 19 carries with a TD and three receptions for 15 yards.  BIRTHDATE: 4/16/82

NFL CAREER – A leader on the field and in the locker room, tireless in preparation and fierce while patrolling the middle, Vilma has proven to be everything the Saints had hoped for since acquiring him in 2008. No Saint has had as many tackles as Vilma’s 479 over the past four seasons, earning a reputation as one of the NFL’s top linebackers. Vilma has been voted by his teammates as a defensive team captain for the past three seasons and by opposing players, coaches and fans as a Pro Bowl selection in 2009 and 2010. Despite a nagging knee injury that forced him to miss five games in 2011, the former University of Miami (Fla.) standout once again was one of the leaders on the Saints defense as he led the club with three fumble recoveries, one for a touchdown, while adding 67 tackles (38 solo), one forced fumble and four pass defenses. Vilma arrived in New Orleans after a four-year stint with the New York Jets, where after being selected 12th overall in 2004, he earned NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Through eight seasons, Vilma has enjoyed impressive results, recording 939 tackles (621 solo), 11 interceptions, 11 forced fumbles, ten recoveries and 9.5 sacks, starting 111 of 113 career games.

Marcel JONES

HEIGHT: 6-7

WEIGHT: 320

COLLEGE: NEBRASKA

DRAFTED: 7TH ROUND (234TH OVERALL)

BORN: 9/4/88

COLLEGE CAREER – Jones spent two seasons as Nebraska’s starting right tackle and will compete for a spot in New Orleans’ offensive line rotation. Finally healthy after fighting injuries in 2010 and the start of the 2011 campaign, he anchored the right side of Nebraska’s offensive line at right tackle and provided important leadership up front, as he was an Honorable-Mention All-Big-Ten selection. Jones’ impressive stature and athletic ability make him a natural fit at the tackle position. He finished his career playing in 40 total games and making 21 starts.

2011 – Served as Nebraska’s starting right tackle and received All-Big Ten Honorable Mention recognition, blocking for a running game that ranked third in the conference and 15th nationally...Played in 12 games, including starts in all eight Big Ten contests and the Capital One Bowl. 2010 – Jones did not play in the season’s first ten games, but saw action in each of the final four games at right tackle. 2009 – Jones started the first 11 games at right tackle, but suffered an ankle injury against Kansas State. The injury forced Jones to miss the Colorado, Texas and Arizona contests to end the season. Jones’ play helped I-back Roy Helu Jr. post four 100-yard rushing days and put together a 1,000-yard rushing season. Jones also helped protect Nebraska quarterbacks, as the Huskers ranked among the top 40 nationally in sacks allowed. 2008 – Jones emerged during spring practice and went on to play in all 13 games in 2008, including a start against Western Michigan. He helped Nebraska rank in the top 20 nationally in total and scoring offense, also serving on PAT and field goal units. 2007 – Redshirted.

PERSONAL – Graduated with a bachelor’s degree in construction management, as he captured conference All-Academic honors three times...Had an outstanding senior year on the offensive line at Trevor Browne (Phoenix, Arz.) AT GREEN BAY

PACKERS: 42 SAINTS: 34
 LAMBEAU FIELD
 GREEN BAY, WI - 9/8/11
 ATTENDANCE: 70,555 TIME: 3:09

The Saints dropped the NFL kickoff contest at Lambeau Field, 42-34, despite a valiant comeback that fell just short as time expired. Trailing by 15 points with 5:35 remaining, the Saints put together a 76-yard touchdown drive ending with QB Drew Brees hitting TE Jimmy Graham for a five-yard score. The defense forced a quick punt, giving the offense a chance to drive down the field from their own 20 with 1:08 left. After Brees led the offense downfield to the Green Bay nine, a defensive pass interference penalty was called in the end zone with no time left that gave the Saints one more chance. However, the Packers stood strong and stuffed RB Mark Ingram's rush to end the game.

Green Bay jumped ahead to an early 14-0 lead following TD passes from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Greg Jennings and WR Jordy Nelson. Brees responded with a six-play, 80-yard drive in just under three minutes, ending with a TD pass to WR Robert Meachem. Rodgers led the Packers back down the field for his third TD pass in the quarter, this time hitting WR Randall Cobb for a 32-yard score. After K John Kasay kicked a field goal to cut the deficit to 21-10, the special teams unit got into the

GAMENOTES

New Orleans outgained Green Bay 477-399, but lost the time of possession battle as the Packers held the ball for 32:54.

S Roman Harper led the Saints with ten tackles and split a sack with DE Junior Galette.

RB Darren Sproles led the Saints in receiving with seven catches for 75 yards in his Saints debut, in addition to a 72-yard punt return for a TD and a 57-yard kickoff return.

scoring act as RB Darren Sproles returned his first punt in Black and Gold for a dramatic 72-yard score following a stop by the defense. However, the Packers answered with a 14-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard run by RB James Starks. Following another Kasay field goal, Cobb returned the ensuing kickoff 108 yards for a TD to up the lead to 35-20. Sproles responded with a 57-yard kickoff return and the offense capitalized with a three-play, 46-yard drive as Brees found WR Devery Henderson on a 29-yard TD.

On Green Bay's next possession, FB John Kuhn capped a 12-play, 93-yard drive with a one-yard TD run that was the deciding score.

GAME 2

SAINTS: 30 BEARS: 13
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 9/18/11
ATTENDANCE: 73,019 TIME: 3:12

The Saints picked up their first win of the 2011 season with an impressive 30-13 victory over the Chicago Bears to improve their record to 1-1.

After trailing 7-0 in the first quarter following Chicago QB Jay Cutler's 8-yard touchdown pass to WR Dane Sanzenbacher, the Saints scored 16 unanswered points in the first half and widened their six-point halftime lead (16-10) to a 17-point edge as the New Orleans defense allowed only three points in the second half. The defense, led by DE Junior Galette and S Roman Harper with two sacks apiece, surrendered only 246 yards of total offense and took down Cutler six times while stopping the Bears on all but two of their third down attempts (2-12).

K John Kasay was a perfect three-for-three in the first half, booting kicks from 31, 29, and 53 yards out. The only Saints touchdown in the first half came on a 79-yard scoring pass from QB Drew Brees to WR Devery Henderson on a go-route as the speedy wideout caught the signal caller's throw in stride and outran his defenders on the way to the end zone.

The Bears offense cut the Saints lead to 16-13 after they opened the second half with a six-play, 46-yard drive that ended with K Robbie Gould's 38-yard field goal. Chicago's offense struggled the remainder of the contest as the Saints defense was aided by a sack and a forced fumble by DE Turk McBride that was recovered by LB

GAMENOTES

WR Devery Henderson recorded his second consecutive 100-plus yard performance with three grabs for a team-high 103 yards.

QB Drew Brees completed 26-of-37 passes for 270 yards with three touchdown passes and a 118.1 passer rating.

DE Turk McBride recorded his first sack as a Saint and forced a fumble that would be recovered by LB Jonathan Vilma

K John Kasay's three field goals gave him 438 for his career, moving him into sixth place in NFL history. He also moved into second place all-time with his 41st field goal of 50 or more yards.

Jonathan Vilma in the third quarter. Five plays later, Brees found WR Robert Meachem for a four-yard touchdown pass. The Saints final score resulted in a 12-yard touchdown pass from Brees to RB Darren Sproles following a 14-play, 87-yard drive the lasted 8:01 to give New Orleans a commanding 30-13 lead.

GAME 3

SAINTS: 40 TEXANS: 33
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA - 9/25/11
ATTENDANCE: 73,002 TIME: 3:15

The Saints improved to 2-1 with a 40-33 win over Houston. New Orleans gained 454 yards and the defense held the Texans to field goals on three of four red zone possessions along with a fourth quarter interception. Leading the offense on a late fourth quarter eight-play, 93-yard game-winning drive, QB Drew Brees completed 31-of-44 passes for 370 yards and three touchdown passes.

Texans QB Matt Schaub led the offense on an opening nine-play, 87-yard drive capped by a 14-yard touchdown strike to TE Owen Daniels. After a 22-yard field goal by Texans K Neil Rackers for a 10-0 lead, the Saints got on the scoreboard with an eight-play, 86-yard drive, ending with RB Darren Sproles' 30-yard touchdown run.

The Saints forced Houston to kick field goals on two second quarter red zone possessions and K John Kasay cut the halftime deficit to 16-10 with a 35-yard field goal.

Trailing 26-17 with 14:54 left in the fourth quarter, Brees tossed a 27-yard touchdown to TE Jimmy Graham.

Needing a big play defensively, CB Jabari Greer's interception on third-and-ten swung the momentum in the Saints' favor giving them the ball at Houston's 47.

Brees hit WR Lance Moore on a 16-yard back-shoulder grab for a touchdown and a 32-26 advantage.

GAMENOTES

The Saints scored 30 points in their first three contests for the first time in franchise history.

Starting at MLB in place of an injured Jonathan Vilma, Jo-Lonn Dunbar led the defense with 12 tackles (nine solo).

CB Jabari Greer had three solo tackles and two passes defensed in addition to his fourth-quarter interception.

Schaub tossed a 20-yard touchdown pass to WR Kevin Walter to give Houston a 33-32 lead with 4:13 left. Brees' 28-yard strike to Graham and a penalty brought the Saints to the 13. RB Mark Ingram scored the first touchdown of his NFL career on a 13-yard run for the game-winner.

JACKSONVILLE

GAME 4

SAINTS: 23 JAGUARS: 10
 EVERBANK FIELD
 JACKSONVILLE, FLA. - 10/2/11
 ATTENDANCE: 62,471 TIME: 3:08

The Saints earned an impressive 23-10 road win against the Jacksonville Jaguars behind powerful running, efficient passing and relentless pass defense.

After the Saints forced a three-and-out on the opening drive, New Orleans scored on its opening possession for the first time in 2011 as FB Jed Collins had a one-yard touchdown run. New Orleans' defense continued to cause problems for Jaguars QB Blaine Gabbert as he was unable to put together a drive for the second consecutive series.

QB Drew Brees engineered a 12-play, 96-yard drive and completed passes to four different receivers ending with a one-yard touchdown throw to TE Jimmy Graham on the ensuing possession. Trailing 14-0, Gabbert drove the Jaguars on a 12-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with a 14-yard touchdown pass to TE Zach Miller to cut the Saints lead to 14-7. Following an interception by Jacksonville LB Daryl Smith at the New Orleans 38-yard line, the Jaguars entered the half trailing by four points after K Josh

Scobee drilled a 31-yard field goal.

New Orleans opened the third quarter with a nine-play, 60-yard drive featuring six running plays for 50 yards that ended with K John Kasay nailing a 38-yard field goal to extend the Saints lead to 17-10. CB Patrick Robinson picked off a third down pass by Gabbert to set up Kasay's second field goal of the game, a 39-yard kick to give the Saints a 20-10 advantage.

GAMENOTES

DE Will Smith led the pass rush with two sacks and S Roman Harper added a sack in addition to a team-high eight tackles (five solo).

QB Drew Brees finished with 31 completions on 43 attempts for 351 yards and one touchdown.

The running backs trio of Mark Ingram, Darren Sproles and Pierre Thomas combined for 166 yards on the ground.

Following a Jaguars three-and-out, the Saints offense took advantage of good field position and drove 60 yards on 11 plays to set up Kasay's third field goal of the day.

GAME 5

SAINTS: 30 PANTHERS: 27
 BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM
 CHARLOTTE, NC - 10/9/11
 ATTENDANCE: 72,679 TIME: 3:12

After the Panthers rallied for a 27-23 advantage, QB Drew Brees threw a six-yard touchdown pass to RB Pierre Thomas with 50 seconds remaining for the Saints to improve to 4-1.

New Orleans got off to a fast start as CB Patrick Robinson intercepted Carolina QB Cam Newton on the first play and returned it 25 yards to the Carolina six, where three plays later Brees found FB Jed Collins wide open for a one-yard score. Following a Carolina punt, the Saints would take a 10-0 lead on K John Kasay's 23-yard field goal.

The Panthers responded with a six-play, 80-yard drive highlighted by a 54-yard touchdown pass from Newton to WR Steve Smith.

RB Mark Ingram got into the act as he scored a one-yard touchdown after a lengthy 14-play, 86-yard drive that chewed up 8:05 and upped the New Orleans lead to 17-6. However, Carolina quickly answered with another big offensive play when RB DeAngelo Williams took a hand-off 69 yards to the end zone and brought Carolina to within three. A 46-yard field goal by Kasay as time expired gave the Saints a 20-13 advantage.

Following a 37-yard Kasay field goal to open the second half, Newton's one-yard touchdown run cut the lead to six. After Brees was intercepted by S Sherrod

GAMENOTES

The win at the Panthers was the second road win of the season in three tries.

TE Jimmy Graham reached the 100-plus yard receiving mark for the third consecutive game with his 129-yard performance, the first time a Saints tight end had accomplished such.

The Saints converted 71% (12-17) of their third down attempts and won the time of possession battle against the Panthers 34:40-25:20.

Martin, the Panthers took their first lead on Newton's five-yard touchdown pass to TE Greg Olsen with 12:32 left.

Following an exchange of punts from both sides, Brees facilitated a game-winning drive in which he completed eight-of-nine passes to four different receivers for a total of 80 yards ending with a six-yard touchdown pass to Thomas.

GAME 6

BUCCANEERS: 26 SAINTS: 20
 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM
 TAMPA, FLA. - 10/16/11
 ATTENDANCE: 56,590 TIME: 3:16

The Buccaneers beat New Orleans at Raymond James Stadium for the first time since 2008. Head Coach Sean Payton, who suffered a leg injury in the opening quarter when he was rolled up on by TE Jimmy Graham as he was tackled, handed the play-calling duties over to offensive coordinator Pete Carmichael as the team responded with a valiant comeback effort from a 20-7 deficit that fell just short.

RB Pierre Thomas fumbled on New Orleans' first series, setting up a 48-yard field goal by Buccaneers K Connor Barth. The Saints took their only lead on a deep 38-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to WR Marques Colston following a six-play, 79-yard drive.

Tampa Bay regained a 10-7 edge on a 65-yard touchdown pass from QB Josh Freeman to WR Arrelious Benn and extended the lead to six points following Barth's 42-yard field goal. Brees then threw his first interception as S Tanard

Jackson returned it to the New Orleans 19-yard line. Three plays later, Freeman found WR Preston Parker across the middle of the field for a 19-yard score to give

GAME NOTES

S Malcolm Jenkins had 13 tackles.

The Saints defense allowed the Buccaneers to convert only 4-of-14 third down attempts (29%).

TE Jimmy Graham had seven catches for 124 yards, becoming the first Saints player to have 100-yards receiving in four consecutive games and joined Tony Gonzalez as the only other NFL tight end to do so since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

the Buccaneers a 20-7 advantage.

The Saints got to within three in the fourth quarter, but Barth would hit a 38-yard field goal, followed by a fourth and goal Brees interception from the Tampa Bay four and a drive where the Buccaneers were able to successfully run out the clock.

GAME 7

SAINTS: 62 COLTS: 7
 MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
 NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 10/23/11
 ATTENDANCE: 73,012 TIME: 2:48

The Saints dominated the Indianapolis Colts 62-7 on Sunday Night Football as they set a single-game franchise record for points, while improving to 5-2 and moving into sole possession of first place in the NFC South.

New Orleans would jump out to a first quarter 21-0 lead, opening with a pair of touchdown connections between QB Drew Brees and WR Marques Colston, capped by a six-yard scoring pass to RB Darren Sproles.

New Orleans would open up their lead to 31-0 in the second quarter when FB Jed Collins scored on a one-yard run and K John Kasay nailed 23-yard field goal.

Indianapolis' first and only score of the game came in the second quarter when RB Delone Carter capped a seven-play, 80-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run. The Saints offense added three more points

GAME NOTES

QB Drew Brees completed 31-of-35 passes for 325 yards with five touchdowns.

The point total set a club record and was tied for the highest total since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

The Saints defense had a season-high three takeaways with two fumble recoveries and an interception.

when Kasay nailed a 47-yard field goal as time expired on the half.

The Saints opened the second half with Brees and TE Jimmy Graham connecting on a pair of third quarter touchdown passes. In the fourth quarter, the Saints defense set the franchise's single-game scoring mark when CB Leigh Torrence intercepted Colts QB Curtis Painter for a 42-yard return for the final score of the night.

GAME 8

RAMS: 31 SAINTS: 21
EDWARD JONES DOME
ST. LOUIS, MO. - 10/30/11
ATTENDANCE: 57,179 TIME: 3:15

New Orleans was unable to overcome a 17-0 halftime deficit and fell to St. Louis 31-21 to drop their record to 5-3.

Following a scoreless first quarter and after punting on their first three possessions, the Rams scored first when K Josh Brown nailed a 38-yard field goal.

The Rams took advantage of a key special teams play when DE Robert Quinn blocked a punt with less than two minutes left in the half. Two plays later, RB Steven Jackson ran for a three-yard score. On the Saints' next offensive play, QB Drew Brees was intercepted by CB Josh Gordy at the New Orleans 38. The Rams capitalized when QB A.J. Feeley threw an eight-yard touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd with 20 seconds left in the half to extend the lead to 17-0.

St. Louis built on their lead in the third quarter following an 11-play, 73-yard drive ending with Jackson's second touchdown run. New Orleans finally scored their first points with 1:21 left in the quarter when S Malcolm Jenkins sacked Feeley and forced a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by LB Jonathan Vilma.

GAME NOTES

The Rams outgained the Saints 323-283 in total net yards and won the game's turnover battle 2-1.

WR Lance Moore led all receivers with seven receptions for 74 yards (10.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

DE Will Smith had five solo tackles and two sacks.

New Orleans built up some momentum when RB Pierre Thomas rushed for a three-yard score to cut the lead to 24-14. The Rams were able to seal the game with three minutes left in the fourth quarter when S Darian Stewart picked off Brees' pass and returned it 27 yards for the score.

MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME

NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 11/6/11

ATTENDANCE: 73,043 TIME: 3:12

New Orleans earned an impressive 27-16 win over Tampa Bay to improve their record to 6-3 as they split the season series with their NFC South foe.

After both teams failed to score on their opening drives, New Orleans picked up a big defensive play when S Roman Harper stripped RB LeGarrette Blount on fourth-and-one and forced the Bucs to turn the ball over on downs. QB Drew Brees responded by leading the offense on a five-play, 66-yard drive culminating with a three-yard touchdown strike to WR Lance Moore.

New Orleans extended the lead to 14 points when Brees found RB Darren Sproles on a short pass he took 21 yards for a touchdown. Tampa Bay got on the board when K Connor Barth nailed a 40-yard field goal to make it 14-3. K John Kasay redeemed an earlier miss with a 21-yard to bring the lead back to 14 at the end of the half.

The Buccaneers gained momentum coming out of the half when CB Ronde Barber picked off a pass at the New Orleans 33. However, Tampa Bay had to settle for a 48-yard field goal by Barth.

Brees answered the turnover with a 12-play, 76-yard drive that ended with RB Pierre Thomas' nine-yard run off right guard to give the Saints a 24-6 advantage. On Tampa Bay's next possession, QB Josh Freeman led the offense to the 7 but had to

GAMENOTES

The Saints defense allowed Tampa Bay to convert only two third downs on 12 chances (16.7%).

S Roman Harper and LB Jonathan Casillas tied for the team-lead in tackles with ten each, while Harper added a sack and a forced fumble.

WR Marques Colston became the third Saints player to pass the 400-catch mark with his five-grab, 52-yard performance.

settle for Barth's third field goal of the day.

After a punt, the Buccaneers climbed back in the game when Freeman found TE Kellen Winslow for a five-yard score following an eight-play, 77-yard drive to cut the lead to 24-16. The Saints answered with Kasay's second field goal of the day to put the game out of reach.

GAME 10

SAINTS: 26 FALCONS: 23
 GEORGIA DOME
 ATLANTA, GA. - 11/13/11
 ATTENDANCE: 70,359 TIME: 3:27

QB Drew Brees tossed two touchdown passes and two big plays from the defense in overtime set up K John Kasay's game-winning field goal and helped lead the Saints to a 26-23 win over Atlanta. With the win, the 7-3 Saints entered their week 11 bye with a one-and-half game NFC South lead over their rivals.

The defense allowed Atlanta to convert only five-of-16 third down (31%) attempts and forced them to kick field goals on all three of their trips inside the 20.

Brees completed 30-of-43 passes for 322 yards, two touchdowns and a 106.9 passer rating. WR Marques Colston had eight receptions for 113 yards, all which went for first downs, three which occurred on third down. TE Jimmy Graham had seven receptions for 82 yards and shook off a couple early drops with a second quarter 21-yard touchdown grab. WR Robert Meachem had 36- and 33-yard catches with his second going for a third quarter touchdown.

LB Scott Shanle picked off Atlanta QB Matt Ryan for a 12-yard interception return on the fourth quarter's first play to stop a potential scoring drive. On Atlanta's last overtime possession on a fourth-and-inches

GAMENOTES !

- WR Marques Colston caught eight passes for 113 yards, with all of his receptions going for first downs.
- QB Drew Brees threw a touchdown pass for the 37th consecutive game, passing up Brett Favre for sole possession of second place all-time.
- S Roman Harper finished with a career-high 16 tackles and added one sack on his way to being named NFC Defensive Player of the Week.

play from their 29, S Malcolm Jenkins, DT Shaun Rogers and DE Will Smith snuffed out a run by Falcons RB Michael Turner to give the Saints the ball back and set up the game-winning field goal.

New Orleans ran their winning streak to three games with an impressive effort on offense and defense in a primetime showdown with New York. The Saints averaged an explosive 8.4 yards per offensive play in a performance highlighted by big plays by QB Drew Brees and his perimeter players, while a ferocious pass rush and outstanding effort by the defensive backfield contributed to harassing Giants QB Eli Manning as the Saints beat the eventual Super Bowl XLVI Champions in convincing fashion.

LB Will Herring, in his most significant action to date, recorded a first quarter interception in the end zone that turned into a scoring drive that resulted in the first points of the evening in a four-yard touchdown pass from QB Brees to WR Lance Moore.

After Giants K Lawrence Tynes booted a 42-yard field goal, the Saints scored two consecutive second quarter touchdowns on scoring throws from Brees to

GAMENOTES

With the win, the Saints capped off an undefeated month of November with a 3-0 record.

An explosive Saints offense averaged 8.4 yards per play with ten plays of 20 yards or more.

QB Drew Brees completed 24-of-38 passes for 363 yards with four touchdowns and a passer rating of 129.6, as he became the first quarterback in Saints history with four passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown in a game and the first in Monday Night Football records with 350 or more yards, four scoring throws and a rushing touchdown in a game.

TE Jimmy Graham and WR Lance Moore to extend their lead to 21-3 and carried a 21-10 edge into halftime against the NFC East co-leaders and the eventual Super Bowl XLVI champions. Brees threw four touchdown passes, ran for another and had a passer rating of 129.3 to stake the Saints to a commanding lead they would not surrender.

GAME 12

SAINTS: 31 LIONS: 17
 MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
 NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 12/4/11
 ATTENDANCE: 73,042 TIME: 3:06

The Saints improved their record to 9-3 following a 31-17 win over the Detroit Lions in a primetime Sunday Night Football showdown in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

New Orleans scored the first points of the contest on their second offensive drive when K John Kasay booted a 39-yard field goal through the uprights. The Saints offense followed up with a touchdown on their next possession with a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Mark Ingram and then on a 67-yard deep ball from QB Drew Brees to WR Robert Meachem that extended the lead to 17-0.

After being forced to punt by the defense on their first three possessions, the Lions capped off a ten-play, 80-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run by RB Kevin Smith to cut the lead to 17-7. On the ensuing drive, Brees led the Saints down the field with four completions to RB Darren Sproles and finished with a 20-yard touchdown strike to WR Lance Moore with 22 seconds remaining in the first half of the contest.

The Lions opened the scoring in the second half with a 67-yard drive on ten plays ending with a 31-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson.

Following a New Orleans punt, Detroit continued to build momentum with a heavy passing game as QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions offense on a nine-play, 88-yard drive and trimmed his team's deficit to seven points on a nine-yard touchdown pass to RB Maurice Morris.

After the teams exchanged punts, Brees threw a six-yard touchdown pass to

GAME NOTES

The win guaranteed the Saints their third consecutive winning season for just the second time in franchise history.

TE Jimmy Graham led the Saints in receiving with eight catches for 89 yards as he became the first tight end in franchise history to eclipse the 1,000 yard mark.

QB Drew Brees completed 26-of-37 passes for 342 yards with three touchdowns for a 129.6 passer rating, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for over 4,000 yards in the first 12 games of a season and only the second to throw 30 touchdown passes in four consecutive seasons.

Sproles to increase the Saints lead to 31-17 with 9:44 left. The New Orleans defense held the Lions offense scoreless the remainder of the game, forcing a punt and an interception by CB Tracy Porter to seal the win.

LB Jo-Lonn Dunbar sacked Titans QB Jake Locker at the Saints eight-yard line on the final play to clinch the game and New Orleans' third straight play-off berth with a 22-17 win.

The Saints used a mix of run and pass plays on their opening drive on the way to K John Kasay booting a 25-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead.

With 6:37 left in the second quarter, the Titans tied the score on K Rob Bironas' 43-yard field goal. New Orleans took a 6-3 halftime lead after Kasay's second field goal.

QB Drew Brees engineered a 15-play, 86-yard drive when the Saints first got the ball in the second half that ended with Kasay's third field goal. The Titans gained their first lead with 2:19 left in the third quarter on a six-yard scoring run by Locker.

The Saints responded when Brees tossed a 35-yard touchdown to WR Marques Colston. The signal-caller later found the wideout for a 28-yard touchdown

GAMENOTES

QB Drew Brees completed 36-of-47 passes for 337 yards with two touchdowns to WR Marques Colston and hit nine different receivers in the contest. Colston finished with seven catches for 105 yards.

The Saints were effective in third down situations on both sides of the ball, converting 11-of-19 attempts (58%) on offense and allowing Tennessee to convert only one-of-ten opportunities (10%).

TE Jimmy Graham overcame pre-game back spasms to catch five passes for 55 yards, including a 33-yard grab that helped set up a field goal to give New Orleans a 6-3 halftime lead.

to extend the lead to 22-10 with 7:01 left.

Tennessee trimmed the lead to five points after Locker hooked up with WR Nate Washington on a 40-yard pass play for touchdown that took 1:03 off the clock. The Titans regained possession at their own 20 with 1:34 left, but Dunbar would stop the drive and end the game.

AT MINNESOTA GAME 14

SAINTS: 42 VIKINGS: 20
 MALL OF AMERICA FIELD
 MINNEAPOLIS, MN. - 12/18/11
 ATTENDANCE: 62,623 TIME: 3:05

The Saints improved to 11-3 with a win at Minnesota behind 412 yards passing and five Drew Brees touchdown passes.

New Orleans got off to a sloppy start on the opening possession when TE Jimmy Graham fumbled and lost an 18-yard reception. The Saints defense forced a 44-yard field goal by K Ryan Longwell.

The Saints got on the board on their third possession when Brees found WR Lance Moore for a five-yard touchdown. Minnesota generated another big defensive play when DE Everson Griffen scooped up a Brees fumble and returned it to New Orleans' 21. However, New Orleans' defense forced the Vikings to settle for another field goal.

Brees answered with a five-play, 80-yard drive that featured a 39-yard gain by RB Darren Sproles and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass to Graham. Minnesota followed when QB Christian Ponder found RB Toby Gerhart for a ten-yard score. Brees engineered a 76-yard drive in 13 plays capped off by a 13-yard touchdown to Sproles with just over a minute left in the half.

After the Vikings weren't able to generate anything on their first possession of the second half, the Saints continued to explode with a two-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE John Gilmore. The Saints scored a touchdown on their fourth straight possession when Brees found Moore open for a 47-yard touchdown.

GAME NOTES

QB Drew Brees ended the day with a career-high 37 touchdown passes on the season. It also marked the 11th game he recorded 300-plus passing yards, setting a new NFL single-season record.

CB Patrick Robinson recorded his career-high and team-leading third interception of the season.

S Roman Harper's sack gave him 7.5 for the season, the second-highest total in NFL record books for a defensive back.

The Saints played relentless defense as they forced a three-and-out on four consecutive possessions until the Vikings offense finally showed signs of life when Ponder hit Gerhart on a 16-yard touchdown pass to close the day's scoring in the fourth quarter.

 MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
 NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 12/26/11
 ATTENDANCE: 73,084 TIME: 3:08

The Saints clinched the NFC South title with a 45-16 win over Atlanta on Monday Night Football as QB Drew Brees broke the NFL's single-season record for most passing yards in a season with 5,087 yards, surpassing a record held for 27 years by Dan Marino (1984-5,084).

Atlanta jumped ahead on the opening drive when QB Matt Ryan completed five-of-six passes to set up K Matt Bryant's 34-yard field goal. The Saints quickly responded as Brees engineered an eight-play, 84-yard drive ending with a four-yard touchdown run by RB Pierre Thomas.

The Falcons regained the lead on their next possession on Ryan's 21-yard touchdown pass to WR Julio Jones, but New Orleans regained it with an eight-yard touchdown grab by WR Marques Colston with 12:32 remaining in the second quarter.

The next score came with 24 seconds left in the first half on a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Jimmy Graham following a ten-play, 80-yard drive to give the Saints a 21-10 halftime edge.

New Orleans extended the lead to 28-10 in the third quarter on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Brees to WR Robert Meachem. The Falcons responded with a Bryant 51-yard field goal to cut the lead to 28-13, but Saints K John Kasay hit a 29-yarder on the ensuing possession.

GAME NOTES

The victory marked New Orleans' seventh consecutive win on Monday Night Football.

QB Drew Brees on his record-setting night completed 23-of-39 passes for 307 yards with four touchdowns passes, as he was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week.

S Malcolm Jenkins' 30-yard return for a touchdown was the second defensive score of his career.

Bryant's third field goal trimmed the Saints' lead to 31-16. The Falcons looked to swing the momentum in their favor after the defense forced a three-and-out, but LB Scott Shanle forced Jones to fumble on the first play of the ensuing drive and S Malcolm Jenkins returned it for a 30-yard touchdown to put the game out of reach.

With 2:17 remaining in the game, Brees broke Marino's record on a nine-yard touchdown pass to RB Darren Sproles to cap a 307-yard passing performance.

 MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
 NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 1/1/12
 ATTENDANCE: 73,065 TIME: 2:50

The Saints tied a team record with their 13th regular season win after defeating the Carolina Panthers 45-17 in their regular season finale.

New Orleans got on the board early when RB Chris Ivory scored on a 35-yard run for his first touchdown of the season. Carolina answered with an impressive 11-play, 80-yard drive that chewed up 6:39 and ended with rookie QB Cam Newton hitting WR Steve Smith for a 12-yard touchdown to tie the game.

The Saints quickly regained the lead after QB Drew Brees led the offense on an 83-yard drive in nine plays finishing with a 15-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Colston. CB Patrick Robinson ended Carolina's touchdown threat on the ensuing drive when he picked off Newton in the end zone for his fourth interception of the season. However, the Panthers returned the favor as CB R.J. Stanford intercepted Brees and brought it back 53 yards to the New Orleans 36-yard line.

Following the turnover, Carolina was forced to settle for a 41-yard field goal on the foot of K Olindo Mare to cut the lead to four. On the Saints next possession, K John Kasay extended the lead back to seven after his 43-yard kick sailed through the uprights. The Panthers continued to

New Orleans ran up a franchise-record 617 total net yards against the Panthers to run their season total to 7,474, breaking the NFL single-season mark of 7,075 previously held by the 2000 St. Louis Rams.

The Saints recorded their third consecutive 40-plus point performance after putting up 45 points in the season finale.

A record 584,336 fans attended Saints regular season home games at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the most in the 37-year history of the stadium.

fight and tied the game on a 29-yard touchdown run by RB Jonathan Stewart.

With 1:18 remaining in the half, Brees quickly engineered an 81-yard drive in six plays and found Colston open in the corner of the end zone for a 42-yard touchdown with only seven seconds remaining in the half to give the Saints a 24-17 advantage.

Following a punt on the Panthers' opening possession of the second half, Brees extended the lead to 31-17 following a 19-yard touchdown pass to TE Jimmy Graham. The Saints defense dominated the final two quarters by not allowing any points on the board, and the Saints picked up scoring grabs from FB Jed Collins and RB Darren Sproles to seal the victory.

NFC WILDCARD PLAYOFF

VS DETROIT

SAINTS: 45 LIONS: 28
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 1/7/12
ATTENDANCE: 73,038 TIME: 3:08

The Saints rebounded from a 14-10 halftime deficit to defeat the Detroit Lions 45-28 in the NFC Wild Card matchup at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Detroit opened the game with an impressive eight-play, 80-yard drive in just over four minutes on the accurate passing of QB Matthew Stafford as he completed five-of-six passes for 70 yards, capping off the drive with a ten-yard touchdown pass to TE Will Heller. New Orleans was unable to respond on their first possession as it resulted in a fumble by WR Marques Colston recovered by Detroit LB Justin Durant deep in the Lions' territory.

After the Lions failed to capitalize on the turnover, QB Drew Brees led the Saints offense on an extensive 11-play, 89-yard drive ending with a two-yard touchdown run by RB Darren Sproles. Detroit answered with an explosive passing attack on their next possession as Stafford found WR Calvin Johnson for a 13-yard touchdown to reclaim a 14-7 lead. The Saints finished the half down by four points following a 24-yard field goal by K John Kasay as time expired in the half.

New Orleans wasted little time before scoring to open the second half, driving 78 yards on four plays in 1:51 ending with a 41-yard touchdown from Brees to WR Devery Henderson to claim their first lead of the game. After the defense forced a Lions punt, the Saints extended their lead to ten points on Brees' three-yard scoring strike to TE Jimmy Graham.

Stafford answered with a one-yard touchdown run as he dove into the end zone following an eight-play, 80-yard drive to crawl within three. However, the Saints continued their offensive rhythm and drove 80 yards in 14 plays ending with Sproles' second touchdown run of the day.

On the next play from scrimmage, CB Jabari Greer picked off a Stafford pass deep down the field to give the ball back to the Saints. Brees capitalized on the turnover and found WR Robert Meachem for a 56-yard touchdown as he cleared the secondary for a 38-21 edge.

Detroit didn't show signs of giving up as they marched 79 yards on the ensuing drive and trimmed the lead to ten on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Johnson for his second scoring grab of the night. However, the Saints offense proved to be too powerful as Brees hit Meachem again on a long 41-yard passing play and scored two plays later when RB Pierre Thomas rushed for a one-yard touchdown. Greer intercepted Stafford for the second time in the fourth quarter to seal the game on the Lions' last possession, advancing the Saints to the divisional round.

GAMENOTES

The Saints offense set an NFL postseason single-game record with 626 total net yards.

CB Jabari Greer's two interceptions tied a Saints postseason record and was a career-high for both the regular season and postseason.

WRs Marques Colston (120) and Robert Meachem (111) each had at least 100 yards receiving, as New Orleans featured dual 100-yard receivers for just the second time in the Saints' post-season history.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

AT SAN FRANCISCO

49ERS: 36 SAINTS: 32
CANDLESTICK PARK
SAN FRANCISCO, CA. - 1/14/12
ATTENDANCE: 69,732 TIME: 3:42

After trailing by as many as 17 points, New Orleans rebounded to take a 32-29 fourth quarter lead with just 1:37 left, but a 14-yard touchdown pass from QB Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with nine seconds remaining ended the Saints season 36-32 at the hands of San Francisco.

The Saints took the opening drive 73 yards down the field, but a fumble by RB Pierre Thomas recovered by LB Patrick Willis ended the threat. After both teams exchanged punts, San Francisco got on the scoreboard first when Smith hit Davis in stride for a 49-yard touchdown.

QB Drew Brees was intercepted by S Dashon Goldson on their next drive, returning it 41 yards to New Orleans' four. Three plays later, Smith threw a four-yard strike to WR Michael Crabtree for a touchdown to extend the lead to 14-0.

WR Courtney Roby muffed the ensuing kickoff and LB Blake Costanzo fell on the loose ball for the 49ers. However, the Saints held San Francisco to a 25-yard field goal by K David Akers. The Saints gained momentum on their next drive as Brees engineered a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive capped off by a 14-yard scoring grab by TE Jimmy Graham.

After the Saints forced a three-and-out, Brees helped cut the lead to three following a 25-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Colston, as the 49ers took only a 17-14 advantage into the locker room.

The Saints forced a punt on San Francisco's opening drive of the second half, but RB Darren Sproles fumbled on the return and Costanzo recovered his second special teams fumble. The 49ers converted the turnover into three as Akers drilled a 41-yard field goal for a 20-14 lead with 10:36 left in the third quarter.

The next score came when K John Kasay trimmed the lead to 20-17 following his 48-yard field goal with 13:08 left in the game. After the teams exchanged punts, a 42-yard run by RB Frank Gore set up Akers' third field goal as he hit a 37-yard kick to give the 49ers a 23-17 edge.

New Orleans responded with a nine-play, 79-yard drive ending when Brees found Sproles over the middle and the speedy runner eluded the defense for a 44-yard score to give the Saints their first lead of the game with 4:02 left.

The 49ers answered with a six-play 80-yard scoring drive ending with Smith running a boot leg around the left end for a 28-yard touchdown to lead 29-24 with only 2:18 left. Brees hurried the troops and engineered a four-play, 88-yard drive that featured an exciting 66-yard touchdown pass to Graham to give the Saints the lead.

With just 1:37 left, Smith led the 49ers on an exhilarating seven-play, 85-yard game-winning drive highlighted by a 47-yard pass to Davis and capped it off with a 14-yard bullet to him in the end zone.

GAMENOTES

QB Drew Brees' first quarter interception was his first in his last 226 passing attempts in the postseason dating back to the NFC Championship Game at Chicago on January 21, 2007. Brees completed 40-of-63 passes for 462 yards with four TD passes, the third-highest yardage total in NFL postseason history, giving Brees both the second and third-highest totals.

RB Darren Sproles set a postseason single-game NFL receiving record with 118 receptions for 118 yards with a 44-yard touchdown.

WR Marques Colston (136), TE Jimmy Graham (103), and Sproles (118) each had at least 100 yards receiving, marking only the third time in NFL postseason history that a team had three players with at least 100 yards receiving.

Ryan
PACE
DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Entering his 11th year in the Saints player personnel department, Director of Pro Scouting Ryan Pace is responsible for managing the entire pro personnel department on a daily basis.

In addition to overseeing the club's staff of pro scouts, Pace's legion of responsibilities include recommending player acquisitions by scouting current and future NFL free agents, monitoring the waiver wire and evaluating players from other professional leagues. Another ongoing effort is researching possible trade opportunities.

A key responsibility for Pace is supervising the advance scouting of upcoming opponents – including their personnel, tendencies and schemes. The pro personnel department also constantly evaluates current Saints players.

Pace took on his increased duties after being promoted to his current position in 2007. He served as one of the club's pro scouts from 2004-06, with his efforts including evaluating veteran free agents, scouting upcoming opponents and evaluating college players in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Pace had served as a scouting assistant for two years starting in 2002. His well-rounded experiences included evaluating players from around the league as well as prospects from NFL Europe, the Arena Football League and the CFL. Pace also tracked player movement, scouted college players and assisted in the preparation of the draft room.

In 2008, he was selected by the club to attend the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known across the league as an important training ground for promising executives.

Pace joined the Saints in 2001, assisting in the coordination of all operations on game days, training camp and with the Superdome. Pace was a four-year letterman at defensive end at Eastern Illinois (1995-99) – serving as team captain as a senior – and graduated with a degree in marketing. He and his wife Stephanie have a daughter, Cardyn.

Rick REIPRISH DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

A key member of the Saints' player personnel department since 2004, Rick Reiprish has been an integral part of the club's scouting efforts since arriving in New Orleans. He brings over three decades of experience to his position.

As the club's director of college scouting, his responsibilities include coordinating the efforts of the team's area scouts, working to build a consensus entering the draft and grading and scouting college players throughout the year. Reiprish's insight has been essential to the Saints' success during the NFL Draft since his arrival.

New Orleans has picked up a steady stream of top contributors since 2004, including Pro Bowlers DE Will Smith, T Jammal Brown, S Roman Harper, G Jahri Evans, G Carl Nicks. T Jermon Bushrod and TE Jimmy Graham, as well as CB Malcolm Jenkins, DT Sedrick Ellis and DE Cameron Jordan. The draft has also brought mid- and late-round finds such as Bushrod, Evans, Nicks, WR Marques Colston, T Zach Strief and P Thomas Morstead, and the scouts have made savvy discoveries in undrafted free agents, most notably RB Pierre Thomas.

Reiprish joined the Saints following an eight-year stint (1994-2002) with Jacksonville as director of player personnel, where he was an architect of the Jaguars' rapid ascension to the top of the AFC. He was responsible for each of the club's drafts since its inaugural effort in 1995, selecting such stalwarts as T Tony Boselli, DE Tony Brackens, RB Fred Taylor, S Donovan Darius and CB Fernando Bryant. Of the team's seven first-round picks from 1995 to 1999, each became a starter, more than any other NFL team in that span.

Originally hired as the Jaguars' Director of College Scouting in 1994, Reiprish was promoted to director of player personnel in 1998. He was responsible for the pro and college scouting departments, including directing the scouting of college players and the draft as well as the evaluation of veteran free agents.

Reiprish joined the Jaguars after working for the Seattle Seahawks for 10 years (1984-94), first as an area scout before being promoted to Eastern Scout Supervisor in 1989. He began his NFL career as a southeast scout with BLESTO from 1979-82. For the previous three years, he was a personnel scout for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Reiprish coached wide receivers and running backs at Austin Peay State University (1973-76) before going to East Tennessee State in 1977, where he coached quarterbacks and running backs. In 1978, he was offensive line coach at North Alabama. A native of Shamokin, Pa., Reiprish graduated from Villanova in 1972, where he played wide receiver and tight end in his career after being recruited to play quarterback for the Wildcats. He earned a master's degree in education-administration and supervision from Austin Peay in 1974. Reiprish is married to Julie and has a son, Andrew and a daughter, Ashleigh Norris.

Khai HARLEY DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Entering his fifth season with the Saints and 12th in the NFL, Director of Football Administration Khai Harley's primary focus is salary cap management. He works in conjunction with the player personnel department, making the club's player acquisitions fit within the structure of the cap. His duties also include contract negotiations, coordinating different areas of football operations and being involved in the administrative functions of running the club.

Harley has a deep background in NFL salary cap administration, Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) regulations, and the research of player contracts. He arrived in New Orleans in 2008 after serving for five years as the Manager of Labor Operations with the NFL Management Council. He was responsible for ensuring personnel transactions and player contracts submitted by each team complied with the CBA and the NFL's Constitution & Bylaws while also providing advice to club officials during contract negotiations.

On a daily basis, Harley researches contracts and cap statistics from not only the club but from around the league. It is similar to the daily and yearly reconciliation he did for all 32 clubs in his former position, where he calculated cap figures for each team, made adjustments for the following year and analyzed statistical trends related to player signings.

Harley has also been a member of the NFL's Diversity Council since 2005, which is designed to promote diversity throughout the NFL's administrative offices, recommend diversity initiatives and implement/oversee approved programs. He started in the League Office in 2002 as a Player Personnel Analyst, working to ensure each team's compliance with the salary cap, analyzing player contracts and researching the eligibility of college players.

Harley served as an administrative intern with the Philadelphia Eagles from 2001-02—gathering data used to determine whether players earned performance-based incentives while also handling other administrative duties—and earlier in 2001 served as football operations intern for the Indianapolis Colts.

Prior to entering the NFL, Harley was a financial analyst with Bloomberg, L.P. from 1995-2000, analyzing domestic and international bond markets, studying trends in European markets for clients, training employees and international staff and ensuring debt issuance within Emerging, Latin American, and U.S. Private Placement Markets were in compliance with corporate and SEC guidelines.

Harley graduated with a degree in accounting from Rutgers University in 1998, twice receiving the National Association of Black Accountants Scholarship Award. He earned a master's degree in sports management from Springfield College in 2001.

Harley and his wife, Vicky—who both grew up in Somerville, N.J.—have three daughters, Na'imah, Samiyah and Asiah.

James NAGAOKA
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Entering his 13th season with the Saints and 35th overall in the NFL, Director of Operations James Nagaoka oversees all aspects of the logistics and day-to-day needs of the football team. He was promoted to his current position in 2003.

Nagaoka arrived in New Orleans in 2000 and served as director of team logistics/box office manager for three seasons. Included in his many responsibilities is managing the Saints' training camp operations, and in 2002 Nagaoka coordinated the construction of the indoor practice field, locker room, weight room and cafeteria at the Saints facility.

He joined the Saints after working for the Seattle Seahawks for 22 years, holding a wide spectrum of responsibilities during his tenure. His duties included entertainment, travel coordination, special projects and ticket sales. As ticket director, Nagaoka managed both sales and operations for 15-consecutive sold-out seasons.

A graduate of the University of Washington, Nagaoka has degrees in communications and Japanese literature.

Brian ADAMS

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE
SCOUTING

Brian Adams enters his fifth season as the club's assistant director of college scouting and 26th in the NFL.

Adams evaluates college prospects across the nation throughout the year, and his responsibilities peak annually with a key role in the Saints' preparations for the NFL Draft.

Adams arrived in New Orleans after spending eight seasons with the Carolina Panthers as an area scout. He joined the Panthers in 2001 after serving as one of only three scouts for the XFL in 2000. His football career began with an internship with the Cleveland Browns in 1982 while Adams was a student at Bowling Green University.

Adams became a full-time employee of the Browns in 1984 with a position in coaching administration. In 1989, he moved from coaching to scouting, and remained with Cleveland until the team's move to Baltimore in 1995.

A native of Berea, Ohio, Adams graduated from Cleveland State University after transferring from Bowling Green. Adams and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Larissa, and a son, Nicholas.

Terry FONTENOT

PRO SCOUT

Terry Fontenot enters his ninth season in the club's player personnel department and seventh as a pro scout. His responsibilities include evaluating and rating current professional players and preparing the club for acquisitions through free agency or the waiver wire.

Fontenot also assists in the team's yearly draft preparations and the detailed weekly advance scouting of upcoming opponents.

Promoted to his current position in 2006, Fontenot has held multiple positions in the scouting department, including as a pro scouting assistant—where he helped evaluate free agents, track player movement, studied film and aided in the planning for the NFL Draft—and as an assistant in player personnel.

FOOTBALLOPERATIONS

Fontenot joined the Saints in 2003, working in community relations and marketing. A native of Lake Charles, La., he had a standout prep career and was an all-state defensive back at Lagrange High School.

A four-year letterman at safety for Tulane from 1999-2002, Fontenot served as a captain of the Green Wave in 2001 and was a member of the 2002 Hawaii Bowl Champion team. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business and organization information technology.

In 2012, he was selected by the club to attend the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known across the league as an important training ground for promising executives.

Fontenot and his wife, Tanya have one daughter, Londyn and one son Kaiden, and reside in St. Rose, La.

PRO SCOUT

Entering his sixth season as a pro scout and eighth with the Saints, Ryan Powell has a wealth of responsibilities that include evaluating free agents from the NFL and other professional leagues, monitoring the waiver wire and advance scouting of opponents.

Powell, who also assists in the club's yearly draft preparations, spent his first two years in New Orleans as the team's combine scout. In that position, Powell evaluated college players for both the Saints as well as contributing reports to the National Football Scouting Combine.

Previously, Powell served as a Saints training camp intern in 2004. He also worked on the coaching staff at Linfield College, as an assistant on the team that won the 2004 NCAA Division III National Championship. Powell also worked for the Seattle Seahawks for three summers (1998-2000) as a training camp assistant.

A native of Bend, Ore., Powell graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science and history from Linfield in 2002. He had a standout prep career at Mountain View High School, where he earned all-state honors before playing linebacker at Linfield.

Powell and his wife, Miranda, have one daughter, Nahia and two sons, Jacob and Bruin.

Mike
BAUGH
AREA SCOUT

Mike Baugh – an experienced member of the player personnel department who is entering his 20th season in the NFL – is responsible for evaluating the college prospects located in the central region of the country. Baugh is in his second stint with the Saints, rejoining the club in 2008 after serving as a pro scout with the club from 2000-04.

From 2005-07, Baugh served as the assistant director of player personnel for the Miami Dolphins. Prior to arriving in Miami, his responsibilities with New Orleans included evaluating free agent prospects, advance scouting of opponents and assisting in yearly draft preparations.

Baugh opened his NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks, spending eight years in various capacities. He started as a public relations intern in 1992, served as an administrative assistant to head coaches Tom Flores and Dennis Erickson from 1993-96 and moved to the personnel department in 1997, where he was a scouting assistant. In 1998, Baugh was named manager of football administration for Seattle, and in 1999, his final year with the club, was promoted to assistant director of pro scouting.

Baugh graduated from Central Washington University with a degree in business administration. He and his wife, Christine, have a daughter, Hannah, and a son, Brett.

Ryan
HOLLERN

Ryan Hollern enters his fifth year with the Saints and first as an area scout, after serving for four years as the club's combine scout.

Hollern joined the Saints in 2008 after serving as coordinator of recruiting operations at Mississippi State from 2006-07. In that position, he worked in the daily operation of the recruiting office, and his responsibilities included coordinating travel, scholarships, admissions, overseeing the video library and working as a liaison with pro scouts. Hollern was promoted after working as an offensive assistant while completing his graduate studies at MSU. In 2004, he was an administrative assistant in the football office during his initial year as a graduate student.

FOOTBALLOPERATIONS

A 2001 graduate of Gannon University, Hollern played quarterback for two years for the Golden Knights. He coached quarterbacks at Harding University High School in Charlotte, North Carolina for one season prior to arriving at Mississippi State.

Hollern, a native of Indiana, Pa., and his wife Keely have a son, Porter and a daughter, Bennett.

Dwaune
JONES
AREA SCOUT

With a background that includes stints as a professional player, coach and scout, Dwaune Jones enters his eighth season with the Saints as an area scout. His responsibilities are evaluating players from colleges located throughout the Midwest region of the United States.

A former wide receiver in the NFL and NFL Europe, his prior experience also includes coaching wide receivers for the NFL Europe Cologne Centurions from 2004-05 and serving as a training camp scouting intern for the Seattle Seahawks in 2004.

Jones was allocated to NFL Europe by Seattle in 2001 and caught 33 passes for 577 yards and five touchdowns for Berlin. In their World Bowl IX victory over Barcelona, Jones caught six passes for 161 yards and two TDs, including a game-winning 53-yard strike from with 4:08 left.

Jones also has NFL playing experience with the Cleveland Browns and Houston Texans and served as a training camp intern coach in NFL Europe in 2003. During his college career at Richmond University, Jones was a three-year starter who hauled in 146 receptions for 1,994 yards and departed ranked sixth in school history with 15 TDs. Jones was also a sprinter on the track team.

Josh
LUCAS
AREA SCOUT

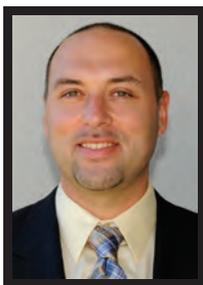

Entering his sixth season as an area scout and eighth as a member of the Saints' player personnel department, Josh Lucas is responsible for evaluating players from the schools located in the southwest region of the United States.

Prior to being promoted to area scout in 2007, Lucas had spent two seasons as a scouting assistant, where he evaluated free agents, tracked player movement and assisted in the preparations for the NFL Draft.

Lucas joined the Saints after working for the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2002-04. In his final two years with the club, he was a marketing analyst working on the “Jacksonville 39” project, a marketing initiative that raised funds to finance capital improvements to ALLTEL Stadium. Those renovations were completed prior to the city hosting Super Bowl XXXIX.

In 2002, he was an intern for Jacksonville in football operations, and worked in the player personnel department during the club’s 2004 training camp.

Lucas graduated Cum Laude from Harvard University, where he played safety from 1997-98 before a series of shoulder injuries ended his career. A native of North Canton, Ohio, Lucas is married (Caryn).

Jim MONOS
AREA SCOUT

Responsible for evaluating players from colleges located throughout the southeast region of the country, Jim Monos enters his eighth season with the Saints as an area scout.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans in 2005, Monos worked for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2001-04 as an area scout, covering the northeast area of the country. In 2000, he was an intern for Philadelphia, serving a dual role in player personnel and media relations.

The Palmyra, Pa. native was the starting quarterback for Lebanon Valley College in 1995 before transferring to Bloomsburg University, where he graduated with a degree in journalism.

His father, Jim Monos Sr., has been the head coach at Lebanon Valley College since 2005. Previously, Monos, Sr. was the offensive coordinator at Bloomsburg, where he tutored G Jahri Evans, a fourth-round draft pick of the Saints in 2006 (108th overall), a cornerstone of the club’s offensive line, who has started 96 consecutive games and been selected to the last three Pro Bowls.

Monos is single and resides in Charleston, S.C.

Terry
WOODEN
AREA SCOUT

Bringing the perspective of a ten-year NFL veteran and the last nine years as a scout, Terry Wooden enters his sixth year with the Saints as an area scout. His responsibilities include evaluating the prospects from the colleges located in the western region of the country.

Wooden joined the Saints in 2007 after serving as a college scout for the Buffalo Bills from 2003-2006.

Wooden was selected in the second round (29th overall) by Seattle in the 1990 NFL Draft and played for the Seahawks through 1996. After departing Seattle, he had stints with the Kansas City Chiefs (1997) and the Oakland Raiders (1998). While with the Seahawks he was voted the 1992 Ed Block Courage Award winner, presented to the player who best exemplifies the principles of courage and sportsmanship.

During his college career at Syracuse, Wooden was a four-year starter and selected the All-East Coast Athletic Conference first-team three times. He graduated in 1990 with a degree in sociology. Following his career, Wooden was voted to the Syracuse All-Century Team.

He and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Tea and Maya, and a son, Brock. Terry's brother, JoJo Wooden, is the assistant director of player personnel for the New York Jets.

Joey
VITT
COMBINE SCOUT

Joey Vitt enters his first season as the club's combine scout, and in his position works for the Saints and the National Scouting Combine. The club is part of the scouting service, and Vitt's reports on college prospects are shared with other teams that are members.

Prior to being promoted to combine scout in 2012, Vitt had served as a scouting assistant with the Saints for four seasons. In his role, Vitt assisted the team's player personnel department in various areas, including evaluating both college and professional players, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, in-season tryouts and attending college pro days.

Vitt was born March 3, 1980 in Towson, Md. and majored in sports management at Towson. He is the son of Saints assistant head coach/linebackers Joe Vitt.

Jason MITCHELL

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Entering his sixth year in New Orleans as college scouting coordinator, Jason Mitchell is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day operations of the college scouting department regarding scouts' scheduling, processing and organizing the information gathered on draft-eligible players, and maintain a computer database of scouting reports.

Mitchell came to New Orleans after serving as the Director of External Operations at Rutgers University from 2005-07, after serving as an undergraduate recruiting assistant for the Scarlet Knights from 2001 until his graduation. He graduated from Rutgers University with a B.S. in sports management in 2005. The Cresskill, N.J. native is married (Lindsey).

Joseph LAINE

SALARY CAP ANALYST/PLAYER PERSONNEL

Entering his eighth season with the Saints, Joseph Laine has a wide-range of responsibilities in the player personnel department. Laine serves as Salary Cap Analyst/Player Personnel, where he assists with the daily management of the salary cap and also researches player contracts from around the NFL. Laine's duties also include evaluating current players on the Saints' roster, monitoring daily league transactions and assisting in coordinating the logistics for both free agency and the NFL Draft. Laine had previously served as a player personnel assistant since 2006 after joining the Saints as an intern in 2005.

Laine is a graduate of the University of New Orleans with a bachelor's degree in business administration, while currently pursuing an MBA from Tulane University.

Fred McAfee
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

With a wide-range of responsibilities centered around helping players and their families improve their quality of life as well as invest in their futures, Fred McAfee enters his sixth season as Director of Player Development. He also organizes continuing college education opportunities, internships, life skills training seminars, financial education classes and family assistance.

In addition, McAfee serves as a conduit between players and their dealings with coaches and management. He also helps rookies adjust to the NFL and assists former players in making the transition into life following their careers. He was a longtime standout as a Saints' player, and retired following the 2006 season after a 15-year career.

The transition to the front office has been smooth for McAfee, who was known as a positive influence in the locker room during his time in the league. He played in 194 games in his career, including 122 contests in two stints with New Orleans. Drafted by the Saints in the sixth round of the 1991 NFL Draft, he is the only player in team history to have been on the roster for three of the club's five division championships (1991, 2000, 2006) and has been affiliated with the team for all five, including the Super Bowl XLIV Championship campaign.

McAfee first played for the Saints from 1991-1993, leading New Orleans in rushing as a rookie with a career-high 494 yards. That season the Saints won their first NFC West title. After a seven-game stint with the Arizona Cardinals in 1994, he was signed by Pittsburgh later that season. He stayed with the Steelers until 1997, and served as their special teams captain for two years.

McAfee rejoined the Saints in 2000 and was voted to the Pro Bowl in 2002 for his stellar special teams play. His final game in New Orleans was the 2006 finale vs. Carolina, and one of the final carries of McAfee's career was a six-yard burst for a touchdown in the third quarter.

He attended Mississippi College, where McAfee graduated with a degree in mass communications and was inducted into the Division II College Football Hall of Fame in 2011. In 2007, he completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business. McAfee recently completed studies for his Athlete Development Professional Certification at the Wharton School of Business.

Greg BENSEL
OF COMMUNICATIONS

With responsibilities that include serving as the team's official spokesman, overseeing all internal and external communications and being the primary liaison between the club and national and local media, Vice President of Communications Greg Bensele enters his 16th season with the Saints.

Bensele was promoted to his current position after serving for nine seasons as director of media & public relations. In addition to managing his staff, his duties include working with the NFL's network media partners, media operations for home and away games and planning the long-range public relations initiatives for the club.

Bensele has also worked on the NFL public relations staffs for Super Bowl XXXII, XXXIII and XXXVI.

Prior to joining the Saints, Bensele was director of media relations for the Super Bowl XXXI Host Committee and the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation. He has also served on the media committee for the NCAA Men's Final Four, the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and the Sugar Bowl.

A New Orleans native who graduated from Jesuit High School and Tulane, Bensele started his professional career as a media relations administrator for the Professional Golfers Association in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. He served on the public relations staff for the 1991 PGA Championship, the 1991 Senior PGA Championship and the 1991 Ryder Cup.

Bensele and his wife, Jane, reside in New Orleans and have a daughter, Kate, and a son, Nelson.

DESPOSITO
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Dave Desposito, who oversees the filming of all games and practices and edits the video on a daily basis for the coaches, scouts and front office personnel, enters his 11th season with the Saints as video director.

Desposito's responsibilities include breaking down the opponent's weekly game video and keeping a detailed archive for the coaching staff. Under his supervision, the Saints have also installed a state-of-the-art, digital editing system networked throughout the building via computer, accessible by the coaching and player personnel staff.

It's time-consuming work that involves late nights and tight deadlines, and the game film that Desposito and his staff generates – as well as that of every NFL team – is also shipped to future opponents.

Desposito came to New Orleans after serving as assistant video director from 1998-2001 for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He worked from 1993-97 for the New York Giants as an intern, coach's show assistant and video assistant.

A native of Little Ferry, New Jersey, Desposito graduated from William Paterson University with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Christine, have a daughter, Abigail, and a son, Tyler.

Scottie B. PATTON HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scottie Patton, a 21-year veteran of the NFL and entering his 13th season with the Saints, coordinates all medical care and injury rehabilitation as the club's head athletic trainer. He has supervised the team's athletic training staff and set all policies since arriving in New Orleans in 2000.

The Saints' athletic training department has earned a number of awards under Patton's direction. He and his staff were honored as the 2007 Athletic Training Staff of the Year by the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association. In 2006, they were honored as the Athletic Training Staff of the Year by both the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society and the National Football League Physician's Society.

Only the third head athletic trainer in club history, Patton served as an assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-99 and as an assistant athletic trainer for San Francisco for the previous five years. With the 49ers, Patton was on the staff of the Super Bowl XXIX Champions. He has also served three times as an athletic trainer for the NFC squad at the Pro Bowl, including in 2007 with the Saints. With the club's Super Bowl XLIV triumph, Patton has been a member of two World Championship athletic training staffs.

Patton earned a bachelor's degree in sports medicine/exercise science from Appalachian State University in 1990. After enrolling in graduate school at the University of South Carolina, Patton completed his master's in sports medicine at San Jose State in 1996. A certified athletic trainer, he is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Patton began his career as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at South Carolina (1990-91), as a student athletic trainer at Appalachian State (1986-90) and a summer training camp and assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers from 1988-89. During his final two years with the Eagles, Patton created the Patton Football/Athletic Training Clinic, a non-profit venture in the offseason that provided instruction in athletic training and football skills in his hometown of Gastonia, N.C.

Patton and his wife, Yvette, have three children: Cameron, Alexis and a son, Roman Scott.

Duane BROOKS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Duane Brooks, who brings over two decades of experience in his field, enters his 11th season with the Saints. Responsible for treating and rehabilitating players throughout the year and the maintenance of the team's medical records, Brooks also maintains two tracking systems that monitor a player's progress from injuries for both the club and the NFL.

Brooks joined the Saints in 2002 after spending six seasons with Florida State in a similar capacity. His contributions since have helped the athletic training staff earn several awards, including the 2007 Southeastern Athletic Trainers' Association (SEATA) Professional Athletic Trainers Award and both the Professional Football Athletic Training Society Staff of the Year and Fain Cain Memorial Award in 2006.

While at Florida State, Brooks was the assistant football athletic trainer and head athletic trainer for the baseball team. He traveled to the College World Series three times and was a member of a staff that participated in four national championship football games. Brooks completed summer internships with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1992, 1993 and 1996.

A member of both the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association, Brooks has an undergraduate degree from Florida A&M and earned his graduate degree in athletic administration at Florida State.

Kevin MANGUM

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Among the club's longest-tenured employees, assistant athletic trainer Kevin Mangum works in conjunction with the other members of the training staff to maintain the overall health and welfare of the team while also treating and rehabilitating injured players.

A native of Tylertown, Miss., Mangum has collected a lengthy list of honors as he enters his 32nd season with the Saints, including being inducted into the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame in 2008.

His contributions have helped the athletic training staff earn several awards, including the 2007 Southeastern Athletic Trainers' Association (SEATA) Professional Athletic Trainers Award, the Fain Cain Memorial Award in 2006 and the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 1986 and 2006. Mangum received the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association's 1991 Backbone Award, which recognizes the region's outstanding assistant athletic trainer.

Mangum was a student athletic trainer for two years at Southwest Mississippi Junior College and two more at the University of Southern Mississippi before joining the Saints in 1981. He received a bachelor's degree in athletic administration with a specialization in athletic training from USM in 1981, and an advanced degree in physical education from the University of New Orleans in 1988. Mangum is a member of both the Southwest Mississippi Junior College and University of Southern Mississippi Sports Hall of Fames.

He and his wife, Susie, have five children—Katie, Megan, Scott, Kevin Paul and Mark. Katie is married, a physical therapist and has four children (Emma, Jude, Camille and Luke). Megan, married, is a rehabilitation counselor. Scott is a medical sales associate.

Beau LOWERY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER/
PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Beau Lowery, who brings 14 years of experience in his field, enters his first season with the Saints. He is responsible for treating and rehabilitating players throughout the year as a physical therapist and assistant athletic trainer.

Lowery comes to the Saints after spending the past two years as a physical therapist/athletic trainer at the Baton Rouge Orthopaedic Clinic. From 2005-10, he served as an associate athletic trainer/physical therapist at Louisiana State University. His primary responsibilities were serving as the physical therapist and athletic trainer for the baseball program during a period when they won one SEC regular season title, three conference tournament championships and one College World Series. Lowery also oversaw men's golf and cheerleading. While serving as a graduate assistant from 2004-05, he worked with the women's soccer and gymnastics programs. Lowery also served as an adjunct professor at LSU for six years.

Lowery graduated from the University of Mississippi Medical Center in 1998 with a bachelor's in physical therapy. Following graduation from physical therapy school, he worked as a physical therapist at South Central Regional Medical Center in Laurel, Miss. While working in Laurel, Lowery finished his athletic training internship at Jones County Junior College and Jones County High School in June 2000. Lowery then became the outpatient physical therapy coordinator of South Central Regional Medical Center and the athletic trainer for Laurel High School.

Prior to his work at LSU, Lowery worked with the Pittsburgh Steelers for three summers. While a graduate assistant at LSU he earned his master's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in motor behavior and is currently in a transitional Doctorate of Physical Therapy program through the University of Mississippi Medical Center. Lowery is also certified in Sports Physical Therapy through the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists and is a member of the American Society of Shoulder and Elbow Therapists.

As the head equipment manager, Dan Simmons is responsible for the endless list of details that goes into filling the team's needs, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms for the players and coaches, the transportation of that equipment for road trips and the daily practice field arrangement.

Simmons is also the club's longest-tenured employee and now in his fourth decade with the Saints. Known to all at the team's training facility as "Chief," he enters his 40th season with the club in 2012, the only employee to reach the milestone since the team's founding in 1967. He was hired for his current position April 1, 1973.

Following the 2005 season, Simmons and his staff were selected in a vote by their peers for the Whitey Zimmerman Memorial Award, annually given to the NFL equipment staff that exceeds the usual demands of the position. Simmons and his staff was also the first recipient of the award in 1994. In 2010, he was elected into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

In 2005, the equipment staff overcame extraordinary challenges in the forced evacuation from New Orleans because of Hurricane Katrina. After departing New Orleans, the club's base of operation moved three times, including a last stop at a high school baseball stadium. The equipment staff made those moves nearly seamless for the team, and with four home games in Baton Rouge, nearly every contest demanded the packing and preparation of a road game.

Dedication to an NFL team runs in his blood. His father, Bill, held a similar post with the St. Louis Cardinals for 22 years. Dan joined the Saints after working with his father and is a graduate of Meramec College in St. Louis. A Vietnam veteran, Simmons served four years in the Navy. He and his wife, Elaine, have three children – Tracy, Tony and Amy – and four grandchildren.

Ben HALES

VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

With a wide-range of responsibilities that includes overseeing the majority of the club's marketing initiatives, Ben Hales enters his 13th season with the Saints and seventh since being promoted to Vice President of Marketing and Business Development.

On a daily basis, Hales directs the Saints' marketing, sponsorship efforts and sales staff. He's also intricately involved in the club's critical planning of short-term and long-range marketing efforts. Hales' duties also entail stadium operations at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, corporate and broadcasting partnerships, promotions, advertising, special events and youth programs.

In 2011, Hales finalized a ground-breaking ten-year naming rights deal for the stadium with Mercedes-Benz. Throughout his tenure, he has helped create and implement a variety of innovative opportunities for local and national partners to build relationships with the club, including the development of Patron Saints Partners, a premium sponsorship program. Under his direction the club has added a sponsorship and fulfillment department to ensure corporate partners receive the highest level of service.

The Saints have continued to increase the number and variety of television and radio programs after Hales assumed the role of the club's primary programming negotiator. In addition to three weekly in-season television programs, the Saints now produce numerous specials that have aired on three different local television stations throughout each season.

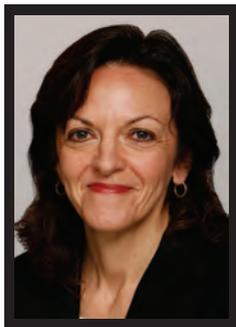

In 2006, the Saints achieved the first season ticket sellout in team history, a feat the team has equaled each season since then. The club was named the 2006 Marketer of the Year by the American Marketing Association's New Orleans regional chapter and also received the 2007 MAX Award for its 2006 "Winning Is An Attitude" advertising campaign.

Hales joined the Saints in 2000 as a corporate sales account executive. In 2001, he was promoted to corporate sales and broadcasting manager before becoming a director the following year and assuming the responsibilities of business and marketing operations.

Prior to joining the Saints, Hales worked in television advertising in the New Orleans market. In addition to his community efforts on behalf of the team, Hales is a member of the New Orleans City Park Board of Commissioners, the People's Health Champions Selection Committee and the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee Executive Committee.

A native of New Orleans and a longtime Saints terrace and plaza level season ticket holder before joining the club, Hales earned a degree in English from the University of Mississippi in 1996. Hales, his wife, Kendall, and daughters Madison and Caroline live in New Orleans.

Vicky NEUMEYER

VICE PRESIDENT/
GENERAL COUNSEL

Providing comprehensive legal consultation and services to the club's executive staff and assuring compliance in all of the organization's business endeavors, Vicky Neumeyer has been a key member of the club's front office since joining the Saints in 2000 and was promoted to vice president/general counsel in 2006.

Her myriad of responsibilities include drafting key documents—including leases, sponsorship agreements and broadcast contracts—identifying and analyzing legal issues and presenting comprehensive recommendations.

A member of the Louisiana and federal bar associations, prior to joining the Saints, Neumeyer spent over five years as an in-house corporate litigation attorney for Exxon. Previously, she served as a judicial clerk for the Supreme Court of Louisiana and was in private practice as a consultant to major corporate clients and law firms.

Neumeyer possesses extensive experience in sports law, including antitrust, labor and organizational matters. She also has a comprehensive background in CAD engineering, software development firm drafting, negotiating contracts worldwide, copyrighting and in handling legal business issues.

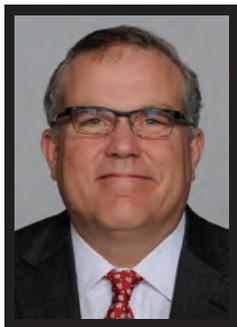

In 2004, Neumeyer was selected by the Saints to attend the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives. She has also been invited to speak at several venues, including Harvard Law School, The Sports Lawyer's Association annual conferences, American Bar Association programs, Tulane Law School, and Loyola Law School. She sits on the boards of the Make-A-Wish Foundation (Texas Gulf Coast and Louisiana) as well as the Sports Lawyers' Association.

After completing her undergraduate work, graduating Summa Cum Laude, at the

ADMINISTRATION

University of Wisconsin, Neumeier earned a Master of Science Degree in audiology at the school. She graduated with honors from Loyola Law School in 1989 and attained a Master of Law with Distinction with a dual emphasis in intellectual property law and sports law in 1998.

Neumeier and her husband, Jeff, have two daughters: Mary Rose and Jill Marie.

Michael STANFIELD

TICKET AND SUITE SALES

Entering his 13th season with the club, Michael Stanfield is responsible for all of the Saints' consumer marketing efforts—directing the sale of season and group tickets, supervising the lease of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome's luxury suites, overseeing the sale of all team merchandise as well as maintaining the club's high standards of customer service and retention.

Under his direction, the team has surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006—a feat that has reached seven-straight seasons. In addition, the club has leased every Mercedes-Benz Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 season. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into one of the NFL's top sellers, and Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans of all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts, while cultivating new ones, and those efforts have built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history. In 2011, the team established a single-season regular season attendance record for games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with 584,336 fans attending Saints games.

Stanfield has also helped oversee the institution of a direct mail and email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns by using the club's ever-expanding social and new media platforms. The Saints have also been recognized as one of the top organizations in professional sports for their customer service initiatives and outreach programs, including being named the top professional sports organization by ESPN The Magazine in June, 2010.

ADMINISTRATION

Stanfield has spearheaded another innovative program unique to the sports industry in launching and supervising an advertising sales staff for WVUE-TV, which was purchased by Saints Owner Tom Benson in 2008.

A veteran of 25 years in the sports industry, Stanfield was promoted to Vice President after serving as director of ticket sales and operation services for the Saints from 2000-05. The accomplishments of the Ticket & Suite Sales Department were numerous under Stanfield's direction in his initial six years with the Saints, as the club posted a 36-straight game sellout streak and reached the former club-record of 53,000 season-ticket holders in 2003.

In 2007, Stanfield completed the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Saints Hall of Fame, and a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Executive Committee and National Sports Forum Steering Committee. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. In 2011, Stanfield was named MVP of the Steering Committee of the National Sports Forum.

In prior work experience, he was Director of Ticket Sales for the Detroit Tigers from 1998-99, with the Major League Baseball club achieving a then-club record for ticket revenue over a two-year span.

Stanfield previously served as the Director of Ticket Sales for the Detroit Vipers in 1997, supervising sales and marketing for the International Hockey League club. That season, the Vipers led the IHL in attendance, averaging over 18,000 per game.

His stint with the Tigers was Stanfield's second in Major League Baseball, as he was a member of the ticket sales staff for the Florida Marlins in 1993, the club's inaugural season.

A graduate of St. Leo University (Fla.), Stanfield and his wife, Stacey, have a daughter, Olivia Grace. Stanfield currently serves on the Board of Directors for the St. Leo's Alumni Association, and is an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups throughout the Gulf South.

Jean-Paul DARDENNE

CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Jean-Paul Dardenne is entering his seventh season with the Saints and his 18th year in the sports marketing/sponsorship field, having been promoted to his new position in June. He is responsible for the packaging and sales of corporate partnerships for the Saints.

Dardenne joined the Saints in 2006 as the club's director of corporate partnerships prior to being promoted to senior director of corporate partnerships in 2011. He played a pivotal role in helping forge a ground-breaking ten-year naming rights deal with Mercedes-Benz for the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Throughout his tenure, he's helped identify and recruit numerous local and national sponsors for the club, while also supervising the sponsorship and fulfillment department, to ensure the team's corporate partners receive the highest level of service.

Prior to joining the Saints, Dardenne served as the director of sponsor and market development for Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. from 2004-06 and also has worked with Bruno Event Team and Executive Sports International in various leadership positions in sponsorship and marketing.

A native of South Hadley, Mass., Dardenne earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Springfield College and received his master's degree in sports management from Barry University. Dardenne and his wife, Lauren, have two children, Jack and Mia.

SAINTS IN THE community

The New Orleans Saints Community Affairs Department is committed to supporting the charitable efforts of our club's ownership, players, coaches and staff throughout the Gulf South region. This dedication to charitable causes and those in need has been a defining trait of Tom Benson's 28-year tenure as Owner of the franchise. Community service and participation in making positive, lasting impacts on the community are core beliefs and a basic expectation of every member of the New Orleans Saints organization.

RESPONDING TO THE COMMUNITY IN TIMES OF CRISIS

The relationship between the New Orleans Saints and its fans is unique in the world of sports. The team has been the recipient of fervent support from the community since its inception and welcomes the opportunity to give back—particularly in times of crisis. Following the devastation of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, the Saints raised over $1 million dollars through the Saints Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund. In addition, following the Gulf Coast Oil Spill, the team raffled a 2010 Super Bowl ring, raising over $1.5 million to aid charities and organizations assisting victims of the spill. The money raised was distributed to organizations making the greatest impact including the Audubon Institute, Second Harvest Food Bank, United Way, Catholic Charities, Teach for America, and the Greater New Orleans Foundation.

The New Orleans Saints will continue to prioritize efforts to build awareness and support for issues challenging the Gulf South by working with organizations including America's Wetlands, Women of the Storm and Louisiana Seafood. The team is committed to working with these and other organizations to safeguard and promote the critical role our wetlands, energy production and seafood industry play in our nation's future economic vitality.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The Saints organization believes in the future of New Orleans and the Gulf South and understands that our community's children are our greatest resource and hope for a stronger region.

Our Community Affairs and Youth Programs Departments conduct and assist in over 350 events and initiatives every year focusing on the development and education of our children. During the season, Saints players and staff visit schools to stress the importance of education to students as part of the Club Rotolo's Pizza Literacy Program and Chevron Energy Efficiency Program. The club's ownership, executives and staff serve on numerous community organization boards and partner with programs including Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts, the United Way, Early Childhood and Family Learning Foundation, Wetland Watchers, Children's Pressline, LHSAA Game of the Week, NFL YET Center and Make-A-Wish.

SUPPORT AND IMPACT FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is the club's primary focus in the community, the Saints also dedicate significant resources to other areas of need. The club partners with a variety of organizations throughout the Gulf South including CADA of Greater New Orleans, the American Red Cross, American Heart Association, Komen Foundation, Second Harvest Food Bank, City Park of New Orleans, Saintsgiving at Dryades YMCA, Toys for Tots, YLC, Rebuilding Together, and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are given back to the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services, media and sponsorship.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending a helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there to return the support that the club has received from the community for over 45 years.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

youth programs

The New Orleans Saints Youth Programs Department maintains an active presence the community throughout the year, bringing NFL excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints' football game in person.

The Saints reach thousands of children through programs such as the Gatorade Junior Training Camp, the Saints Experience, the United Way Community Patrol and the High School 7-on-7 Tournament. The club is also highly involved with the NFL's High School Player Development Program and supports all of the league's youth initiatives such as NFL FLAG, Punt, Pass and Kick and USA Football's Coaching School and State Forum.

The club also honors area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program, which provides $1,000 to each of the coach's respective football programs. In addition to honoring high school coaches, the Saints partner with the National Guard and Marines to conduct life skills presentations to high schools throughout the city. Topics such as education, work ethic, leadership and values, as well as the opportunities that are available after graduation are discussed.

The Saints Youth Task Force meets annually and addresses issues facing today's youth football programs. These efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

The Youth Programs Department is also influential in helping to raise thousands of dollars through the NFL Player Matching Grant program. In conjunction with the NFL Youth Football Fund, monies are contributed to youth football organizations throughout the region.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS 44, SAINTS 10

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game in the Superdome. New Orleans struck first when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a 10-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 16, SAINTS 6

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 6, 1991) - Soldier Field (60,767)

In a clash between two of the NFL's top defenses, the Bears jumped ahead 10-0 and held off the Saints in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Soldier Field. The Bears went up 3-0 on a K Kevin Butler 33-yard FG after an interception. Chicago surged ahead by 10 points when QB Mike Tomczak connected with TE James Thornton on an 18-yard scoring pass. K Morten Andersen got the Saints on the scoreboard with a 47-yard FG with 1:38 remaining in the half. An offside call on New Orleans nullified a 61-yard return of a blocked Bears FG attempt in the third quarter. Chicago took advantage on the reprieve, driving to set up a 22-yard field goal to give the Bears a 13-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 102 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

ATLANTA FALCONS 27, SAINTS 20

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Dec. 28, 1991) - Louisiana Superdome (68,794)

Atlanta posted 10 points in the final quarter – including a 61-yard TD grab by WR Michael Haynes – to defeat the Saints, 27-20, in a Wild Card clash between division rivals. A TD pass from QB Bobby Hebert to WR Floyd Turner gave New Orleans a 7-0 advantage and K Morten Andersen increased the lead with a 45-yard FG. The Falcons got on the board when QB Chris Miller found WR Andre Rison for a 24-yard TD pass in the second quarter. K Norm Johnson's 44-yard FG with 0:37 left in the first half tied the score, but the Saints responded with a 35-yard FG by Andersen for a 13-10 advantage at halftime. Atlanta surged ahead with a TD early in the third quarter, but the Saints came back with RB Dalton Hilliard's one-yard TD plunge. A 36-yard FG by Johnson tied it up, and Haynes' long TD with 2:41 left provided the winning margin. Hebert was intercepted with 1:10 left at the Atlanta 35.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 36, SAINTS 20

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1993) - Louisiana Superdome (68,893)

The Philadelphia Eagles rallied from a 20-7 deficit to defeat the Saints, 36-20, in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game at the Superdome. The Saints took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Craig Heyward scored on a one-yard run. The Eagles tied the game on a 57-yard TD pass but the Saints got a 17-7 halftime lead on a Bobby Hebert scoring pass and a 35-yard FG by Morten Andersen. Andersen drilled another FG in the third quarter, but Philadelphia pulled to 20-10 on a Roger Ruzek 40-yard FG. The Eagles grabbed a 24-20 lead with TDs on their first two possessions of the fourth quarter and Hebert was sacked for a safety by DE Reggie White. Ruzek booted a 39-yard FG and CB Eric Allen returned a INT for another score in the final minutes.

SAINTS 31, ST. LOUIS RAMS 28

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Dec. 30, 2000) - Louisiana Superdome (64,900)

The Saints earned the first playoff win in franchise history by jumping ahead to a commanding lead early by scoring 31 unanswered points and weathering a late St. Louis rally at the Superdome. After a St. Louis TD in the first quarter, the Saints scored on five of their next nine possessions. QB Aaron Brooks found WR Robert Wilson for a 12-yard TD pass and K Doug Brien hit a 33-yard FG for a 10-7 lead. Brooks then connected with WR Willie Jackson on TD passes of 10, 49 and 16 yards for a 31-7 lead with 11:57 left. The Rams mounted a comeback as QB Kurt Warner threw two TD passes and ran for another TD to pull St. Louis within three points. The Saints were forced to punt with 1:51 remaining, but the return was muffed by WR Az-Zahir Hakim. FB Brian Milne recovered the loose ball to seal the win. Jackson tied an NFL Playoff record with three TD catches as part of a six-catch, 142-yard day.

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 6, 2001) - Metrodome (63,881)

The Vikings raced out to a 21-point lead on the way to a 34-16 victory in the NFC Divisional Playoff game at the Metrodome. Minnesota QB Daunte Culpepper found WR Randy Moss for a 53-yard TD pass on the Vikings' opening series. The Saints pulled to 7-3, but Vikings K Gary Anderson hit a 24-yard FG and Culpepper connected with WR Cris Carter for a 17-yard TD to give Minnesota a 17-3 lead at halftime. The Vikings opened the second half with a 68-yard TD pass from Culpepper to Moss. The Saints added a TD pass from QB Aaron Brooks to TE Dave Stachelski to pull to 24-10, but the Vikings' Anderson hit a 44-yard FG and RB Robert Smith scored on a two-yard run for a 34-10 margin. New Orleans scored the game's final points as Brooks found WR Willie Jackson for a 48-yard TD pass with 2:19 left. Saints RB Chad Morton caught a NFL postseason record-tying 13 passes for 106 yards and Jackson added nine grabs for 125 yards.

SAINTS 27, PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 24

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards in leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard TD reception. Philadelphia would add a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 39, SAINTS 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

SAINTS 45, ARIZONA CARDINALS 14

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 16, 2010) - Louisiana Superdome (70,149)

The Saints punched a ticket to their second NFC Championship appearance in four years by throttling the Cardinals. New Orleans survived a 70-yard rushing score by Arizona on the first play of the game to score three straight first quarter touchdowns, including runs by RBs Lynell Hamilton and Reggie Bush and a 17-yard TD pass from QB Drew Brees to TE Jeremy Shockey. After Arizona RB Beanie Wells closed the score to 21-14 with a second quarter four-yard TD run, the Saints ran up 24 more unanswered points, punctuated by an 83-yard punt return for a score by Bush. After giving up the initial touchdown run, the Saints defense would only allow 31 more yards on the ground and forced two turnovers. The Saints controlled the ball for over 36 minutes and rolled up 27 first downs and 418 yards in the win.

SAINTS 31, MINNESOTA VIKINGS 28 (OT)

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 24, 2010) - Louisiana Superdome (71,276)

K Garrett Hartley hit a 40-yard field goal straight through the uprights in overtime to give the Saints a 31-28 victory and the club's first trip to the Super Bowl. The Vikings took an early 7-0 lead on a 19-yard touchdown run by RB Adrian Peterson. The Saints tied the score when QB Drew Brees threw a screen to RB Pierre Thomas, which he rambled 38 yards for a TD. The Vikings took the league back at the end of the first quarter on a five-yard scoring pass from QB Brett Favre to WR Sidney Rice. New Orleans took their first lead in the third quarter following a nine-yard TD pass from Brees to WR Devery Henderson and a nine-yard scoring run by Thomas. Peterson would run for two more TDs and CB Tracy Porter picked off Favre at the end of the fourth quarter to force overtime. The Saints opened up overtime with possession and scored on the drive.

SAINTS31, INDIANAPOLISCOLTS17

Super Bowl XLIV (Feb. 7, 2010) - Sun Life Stadium (74,059)

Leading 24-17 and trying to stop the Colts offense, CB Tracy Porter intercepted a Peyton Manning pass and raced 74 yards for a touchdown that gave the Saints their first Super Bowl title. The Saints staved off two consecutive Colts drives that gave them an early 10-0 lead and responded with two long field goals by K Garrett Hartley. The Saints started the second half with a surprise inside kick, which was recovered by S Chris Reis and would lead to a 16-yard pass play on a screen from QB Drew Brees to RB Pierre Thomas. The Colts took the lead back midway through the third quarter on a four-yard run by RB Joseph Addai. New Orleans struck back with their first 18 unanswered points when Hartley kicked his third field goal, a 47-yarder to put the Saints within one point near the end of the third quarter. The Saints would then take the lead for good late in the fourth quarter when Brees found TE Jeremy Shockey for a two-yard TD, followed by a two-point conversion on a pass play to WR Lance Moore.

SEATTLESEAHAWKS41, SAINTS36

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 8, 2011) - Qwest Field (66,336)

Seattle rebounded from 10-0 and 17-7 first half deficits to eventually stake out a 24-20 halftime lead and defeat the Saints 41-36 to end their season. The Saints got off to a quick 10-0 start on a 26-yard field goal by K Garrett Hartley and a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Brees to FB Heath Evans. The Seahawks would outscore the Saints 24-10 in the rest of the first half, powered by three touchdown passes by QB Matt Hasselbeck. The Saints got within four with 9:13 left on a 21-yard field goal by Hartley, but a 67-yard touchdown run by RB Marshawn Lynch gave Seattle an 11-point lead with 3:22 left.

Jim FINKS

PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

BORN: 8/31/27

COLLEGE: TULSA '49

PLAYER: 1949-55

GENERAL MANAGER: 1964-93

SAINTS PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER: 1986-93

YEAR INDUCTED: 1995

On July 29, 1995, an illustrious career as a football administrator was capped when Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Finks' posthumous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of significant accomplishments.

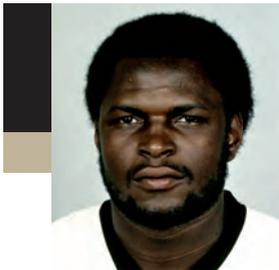

Finks was named president/general manager of the Saints on January 14, 1986 by Owner Tom Benson. As Benson's first major hire since purchasing the team in 1985, Finks brought with him a portfolio of success as a player, coach, scout and administrator that had spanned 37 years in sports.

Much like his prior stints as general manager with the Minnesota Vikings and Chicago Bears, Finks' final stop would also be a success. Hiring head coach Jim Mora and picking impact players in OL Jim Dombrowski, RBs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and LB Pat Swilling in his first draft, a franchise that had not achieved a winning season in 19 years would log a 12-3 mark in 1987, second-best in the NFL and go on to their first-ever playoff game. Finks' presence was apparent and recognized as he was named the Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year.

Under Finks' leadership, the Saints would continue to have success, winning their first division title in 1991 as the NFC West championship flag flew in New Orleans for the first time. However, shortly after his final draft in 1993, where he mined a future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection in T William Roaf, Finks would be forced to resign due to a valiant fight with lung cancer that would claim his life on May 8, 1994. Overall from 1986-92, the Saints would win 60 percent of their regular season games and enjoy a streak of six consecutive non-losing years. Over that period, only two other NFL teams had the same accomplishment

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Finks served as general manager of the Chicago Bears from 1974-83, where he set about construction of one of the NFL's most dominating teams. Before his departure, Finks would acquire 19 of the 22 starters for a Bears team that compiled a 15-1 record in 1985 and crushed New England in Super Bowl XX. During his ten-year tenure in Minnesota, Finks hired then-unknown Bud Grant as head coach and the Vikings followed with a string of five NFC Central crowns and two Super Bowl appearances.

The Salem, Illinois native played quarterback at Tulsa University and was a 12th round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1949. Finks played defensive back until 1952, when he became the Steelers' starting quarterback and went to the Pro Bowl. After retiring as an NFL player following the 1955 season, he served as an assistant coach for two seasons, before beginning his career as an administrator as the general manager of Calgary of the Canadian Football League in 1958.

Rickey JACKSON 57

LINEBACKER

BORN: 3/20/58
COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
NFL: 1981-95
SAINTS: 1981-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 2010

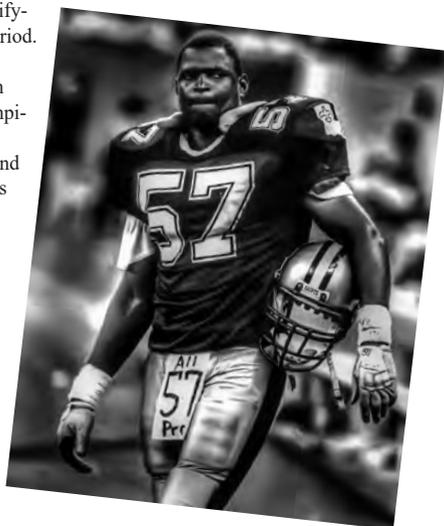

One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. He became the first Saint to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Pahokee, Fla. native had an outstanding college career at Pittsburgh and was picked in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft. Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225 during 15 NFL seasons, 13 of which were spent with the Saints. With 115 as a Saint, he is the club's all-time leader. Jackson led the club in takedowns six times. He missed only two games, out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

Jackson finished his career with 128 sacks, (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. With 115 as a Saints, he is the club's all-time leader and he led the club in takedowns six times. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the second-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning campaign in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson would close out his NFL career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996 and his number 57 jersey was raised to the rafters of the Superdome. He was inducted into the Saints Hall of Fame in 1997 and to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

William
ROAF

77

TACKLE

BORN: 4/18/70

COLLEGE: LOUISIANA TECH

NFL: 1993–2005

SAINTS: 1993–2001

YEAR INDUCTED: 2012

One of the most accomplished tackles in National Football League history, William Roaf was the anchor of the Saints offensive line for nine seasons. Coming out of Louisiana Tech in 1993, Roaf was picked by the Saints with the eighth overall choice in the 1993 NFL Draft.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native immediately was inserted by head coach Jim Mora into the starting lineup at right tackle, where he would start every contest and was selected to several All-Rookie teams. The 6-5, 312-pounder moved to the left side in his second season where he was named a Pro Bowl starter and Associated Press first-team All-Pro, which would begin a 12-year stretch as one of the most dominant left tackles in NFL history.

During his nine seasons with the Saints, Roaf was named to the Pro Bowl seven consecutive times (1994-2000), the most appearances ever by a Saint. Following a trade to the Kansas City Chiefs in 2002, he would be selected four more times, totaling 11 total selections, tied for the most nominations by a tackle in league history with Anthony Munoz and Jonathan Ogden. He also was an eight-time AP All-Pro selection, with four selections from each club. Overall, Roaf started all 189 regular season games and three postseason contests he appeared in for the Saints and Chiefs.

Roaf received one of football's highest honors as he was named to the NFL's All-Decade teams of the 1990's and 2000's. He was a first-team selection for the 1990's squad and a second-team choice on the 2000's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All-Decade rosters. Additionally, Roaf was named to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2008 and is a member of both the Louisiana and Arkansas Sports Hall of Fames.

NFL DRAFT HISTORY

1967 Expansion Draft

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first NFL team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected by New Orleans. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.

Are we there yet?

The question of every road trip. And the one we continually ask.

Are we at the technological cutting edge? The pinnacle of design?

Are we at the place which separates a Mercedes-Benz from everything else on the road?

Introducing the all-new GL. The question has been answered.
