Saints in the Community

The New Orleans Saints Community Affairs Department is committed to supporting the charitable efforts of our club's ownership, players, coaches and staff throughout the Gulf South region. This dedication to charitable causes and individuals in need has been a defining trait of Tom Benson's 32-year tenure as Owner of the franchise. As a philanthropic force in the community, the club is committed to exercising its core beliefs and basic expectations of every member of the New Orleans Saints organization, defined by its participation in initiatives that will have a positive and lasting impact on the people in our community.

RESPONDING TO THE COMMUNITY IN TIMES OF CRISES

The relationship between the Saints and its fans is unique in the world of sports. The team has been the recipient of unqualified support from the community since its inception and welcomes the opportunity to give back - particularly in times of crisis. Following the devastation of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, the Saints raised over $1 million dollars through the Saints Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund. Following the 2010 Gulf Coast Oil Spill, the team raffled a Super Bowl XLIV ring, raising over $1.5 million to aid charities and organizations assisting victims of the spill. Most recently, the club sprung to action with donations, fundraising and volunteer work to benefit those impacted by widespread flooding in the state of Louisiana in 2016. Money raised and donated has been distributed to organizations making the greatest impact including the Audubon Institute, Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans & Acadiana, United Way, Catholic Charities, Teach for America, and the Greater New Orleans Foundation.

The Saints will continue their commitment to prioritize efforts that build awareness and support for issues challenging the Gulf South by working with America's Wetland Foundation and similar organizations to safeguard and promote our wetlands and energy production as they are critical to our nation's future economic vitality.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The Saints organization believes in the future of New Orleans and the Gulf South, and understands that our community's children are our greatest resource and hope for a stronger region. Our Community Affairs and Youth Programs Departments conduct and assist over 350 events and initiatives every year, focusing on the development and education of our children. Throughout the year, current Saints players, alumni and staff visit schools and various community centers to stress the importance of education, physical fitness, nutrition, leadership development, character building and time management. The club partners with a variety of organizations including Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, LHSAA Game of the Week, Boy and Girl Scouts, United Way, Playworks Louisiana, Make-A-Wish, Posse New Orleans, NFL YET Center, Up 2 Us, EverFi and Youth Empowerment Project.

SUPPORT AND IMPACT FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is the club's primary focus, significant resources are also dedicated to enrich the lives of individuals in other areas of need. In its inaugural year, the 2016 Saints 50/50 Charity Raffle's season total jackpot amounted to $600,000, allowing the organization to provide assistance to thousands of people across the Gulf South region through works of the benefitting charities. Additionally, local and national non-profit organizations have received proceeds garnered via the club's annual Draft Super Boil to serve members of our community through several charities as well as the Saints 5K Kickoff Run (now the largest 5K in the state) which has raised more than $250,000. Saints ownership, executives and staff serve on numerous community organization boards and partner with those entities to assist or co-develop appropriate programs including CADA of Greater New Orleans, American Heart Association, Make-A-Wish, Second Harvest Food Bank, City Park of New Orleans, Saintsgiving at Dryades YMCA, Toys for Tots, Young Leadership Council, Rebuilding Together New Orleans, American Red Cross, Volunteers of America and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are given back to the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services, media and sponsorship.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending a helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there to reciprocate the support the club has received from the community for more than 50 years.

Saints Youth Programs

The New Orleans Saints Youth Programs Department maintains an active presence in the community throughout the year, bringing NFL excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints football game in person.

The Saints reach thousands of children through programs such as the Gatorade Junior Training Camp program, the Saints Experience, and the United Way Community Patrol camp. The club is also highly involved with the NFL's Player Development programs and supports all of the league's youth initiatives such as PLAY 60, NFL FLAG, Punt, Pass and Kick and USA Football's Coaching Certifications and Heads Up Football initiatives including player information sessions and Moms Safety clinics.

The club is the sponsor of the LHSAA Game of the Week on FOX Sports New Orleans to highlight high school football in the state of Louisiana. The Saints also honor area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program which provides $1,000 to each of the coaches' respective football programs. The team has also spearheaded efforts to build community football fields across the city including at Harrell Stadium, Green Charter School and two fields at City Park of New Orleans.

In addition to honoring high school coaches and constructing community fields, the Saints partner with the National Guard to conduct life skills presentations to high schools throughout the city where topics such as education, work ethic, leadership, values as well as the opportunities that are available after graduation are discussed.

The Saints Youth Task Force meets annually and addresses issues facing today's youth football programs. These efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

The Youth Programs Department is also influential in helping to raise thousands of dollars through the NFL Player Matching Grant Program. In conjunction with the NFL Foundation, monies are contributed to youth football organizations throughout the region.

OWNERSHIP

TOM & GAYLE BENSON

Tom and Gayle Benson give the New Orleans Saints their unwavering commitment to operating a model franchise with championship aspirations on the field, while being a community leader in the Gulf South off the field, through extensive investment and involvement. The 2017 season will mark Tom Benson's 33rd year of ownership of the franchise, while Gayle Benson serves as the club's Executive Officer.

Under the supervision and guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the Saints have reached new heights since 2006. This period, featuring the Super Bowl XLIV title, two NFC Championship appearances, three division championships and five playoff berths, combined with a commitment to rebuild and enhance the Gulf South, has embodied the testament and realization of the principles that Mr. Benson first instilled in the Saints organization when he purchased the franchise in 1985.

When Mr. Benson, who owned numerous automotive and banking interests in both the New Orleans area and South Texas, initially became interested in purchasing the club in 1985, he was motivated by the threat of out-of-town investors planning to move the club from New Orleans. He was certainly a fan of the game and the Saints, but the sport had yet to become one of his passions. As one of the area's top businessmen, Mr. Benson recognized the importance of the team to the region and immediately spearheaded the effort to keep the Saints. But unlike others at the time, it wasn't just an emotional plea. He pooled all of his resources, purchased the club in 1985 and preserved the Saints for the team's legion of fans across the area. The once-rampant speculation that the club was moving immediately ceased.

Not surprisingly, success soon followed as the Saints entered the most compelling and memorable period in franchise history under Mr. Benson's leadership after having previously not enjoyed a winning record or a playoff berth. In 1986, in one of his first personnel moves as Owner, he hired Jim Finks as president/general manager and Jim Mora as head coach. In 1987, the Saints broke through with a 12-3 record and hosted their first playoff contest. In its first 17 seasons of existence, the Saints won a total of 73 games. Under Benson's guidance, the franchise exceeded that win total in only eight years by 1992. The Saints reached even greater heights in 2006, when ownership entrusted Executive Vice-President/General Manager Mickey Loomis to hire Sean Payton as head coach and sign free agent quarterback Drew Brees. Since those moves, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 107-79 overall record over the last 11 years, capped by the Super Bowl XLIV Championship.

The Bensons' commitment to winning and serving the community is an opportunity to reward the team's fans, whose support has reached new heights with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome being sold-out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 people. By the end of the 2016 season, the consecutive sellout streak had extended to 111 games.

In addition to the on-field success and the commitment to the community by the Saints, the efforts of ownership have also paid great economic dividends for the city of New Orleans and the surrounding areas. Since Mr. Benson first purchased the team in 1985, the city has hosted five Super Bowls, including Super Bowl XLVII. Mr. Benson has been the driving force behind each campaign to secure the contest, including the most recent successful campaign at the annual league meetings in May, 2009. Each Super Bowl has been an economic windfall, the 2013 game in New Orleans totaling $480 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions the NFL makes during Super Bowl week that extends for generations. The Bensons are committed to continuing to bring future Super Bowls to New Orleans.

Highly regarded throughout the NFL, Super Bowl bids are only one of many ways which Mr. and Mrs. Benson influence the sport and the League. Mr. Benson has played a key role among NFL owners in many capacities, including serving three stints as Chairman of the Finance Committee, one of the League's most difficult, time-consuming and influential positions, with his most recent term ending in 2013. The assignment is evidence of the respect and esteem in which successive NFL commissioners and his fellow owners hold him.

Possessing the desire to give back to the great game of football, in 2014 Mr. and Mrs. Benson pledged two significant gifts totaling $11 million to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. $10 million has been earmarked for the immediate renovation of the Hall's onsite stadium, which hosts the annual enshrinement Ceremony, the NFL Hall of Fame Game, two high school football teams and two college football teams in Canton, Ohio. In his honor, the facility has been renamed "Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium." The additional one million dollars is the first donation towards the establishment of the Hall of Fame's Legends Landing program, a mixed-use residence that will include room for Hall of Famers and former NFL Players.

Dedication to the Gulf South are among Mr. and Mrs. Benson's most rewarding endeavors. Since 2005, the Saints have positioned themselves as a leader in the recovery of the region in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. Immediately after the storm, they established the Saints Hurricane Katrina Fund, which raised over one million dollars to benefit worthy causes that helped in the region's recovery. The club was among the first major businesses to return to New Orleans, and in 2006 had a thrilling season where they reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time, becoming an inspiration for a region on the mend. In 2010, the club established the Saints Gulf Coast Renewal Fund, which raised over $1.5 million through the raffle of a Super Bowl ring and the 2012 raffle of Saints and Pelicans game day experiences. Over one million dollars has been distributed to charities, such as the local chapters of the Second Harvest Food Bank and Catholic Charities to help provide support of those affected by subsequent natural and man-made disasters, including the 2010 Gulf of Mexico oil spill, Hurricane Isaac and flooding throughout the State in 2016. The efforts of the organization have continued to lift the community, with the team serving as an economic engine and a pacesetter in philanthropic contributions. In 2008, Mr. Benson was selected by the Volunteers of America as the winner of its annual Good Samaritan Award in Philanthropy in recognition of his work in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. In 2015, he was honored by New Orleans CityBusiness as one of the region's 35 "Driving Forces" for his contributions to the community since Hurricane Katrina.

Under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the Saints are a focal point for healing and restoration—annually putting millions in charitable contributions, goods and services back into the entire Gulf South. Their commitment to the region is firm and lasting, with the focus on building a stronger and more unified city. It's a direction that continues to evolve and expand.

The Bensons have helped stimulate the development of the city's Central Business District, directly adjoining the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, starting with the 2009 purchase of the formerly vacant and blighted Dominion Tower and the unoccupied New Orleans Centre. The two important commercial spaces, which were vacant since Katrina struck the Gulf Coast in 2005, have returned that region of the CBD into a more vibrant and viable sector of New Orleans and revitalized an area that was largely ignored for four years following Hurricane Katrina. The newly renovated Benson Tower has served as a boon to this important business corridor, while "Champions Square", which made its debut in 2010 adjacent to the former mall, is continually being developed and enhanced with the ultimate objective of producing a world-class sports and entertainment destination. This economic investment plan, which included 2009 agreements on both a private and public level, has revitalized the Mercedes-Benz Superdome area, and the agreement with the state included a dramatic modernization of the stadium which was completed in 2011. Following the debut of the renovations, the Saints, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Benson and Mercedes-Benz USA reached a ten-year agreement to rename the facility the "Mercedes-Benz Superdome." The stadium upgrades and rebranding include a legion of new enhancements that have significantly improved the fan experience for all events at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and kept the building competitive with new facilities across the country, allowing it to continue to host elite events including Super Bowl XLVII, the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship and the upcoming 2022 Final Four and the College Football Playoff semifinals and championship game. Recognizing the need for the stadium to be consistently upgraded, Mr. and Mrs. Benson have most recently collaborated on a multi-million dollar enhancement project for which they contributed $25 million, resulting in significant technology-related enhancements to improve the fan experience, headlined by the addition of two state-of-the-art LED video boards that debuted in 2016.

Originally constructed in 1996, Mr. and Mrs. Benson are committed to keeping the club's world-class practice facility among the NFL's elite. In 2003, an indoor practice facility and cafeteria were constructed, along with significant upgrades to the team's locker room, training room and weight room. A significant expansion in 2012 and the construction of a fully remodeled locker room in 2017 assure that the facility remains at the top level of the league.

OWNERSHIP

Away from the playing field, Mr. and Mrs. Benson continue to work tirelessly to ensure that the Saints' value reaches the entire Gulf South, whether it's through economic investments that enrich the charitable contributions or groundbreaking community efforts. In addition to reaching out by supporting charities, they also recognize that the future of the area's economy depends on keeping major businesses and employers in the Gulf South locally-owned. Several large investments in the city's future by the Bensons have encouraged a number of other businesses to follow their example and continue to build the local economy.

In 2012 Mr. Benson purchased the NBA Hornets franchise, which was successfully rebranded as the Pelicans. The objectives in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the basketball team are the same as their stewardship of the Saints: to produce a team on-the-court that will compete for championships every year, while making a significant positive impact off-the-court in the community. Upon the ownership transfer, state-of-the-art basketball practice facilities were constructed adjacent to the Saints practice fields. In addition through expansion of the administrative facilities for both teams, the entire Pelicans organization was housed together for the first time in the franchise's history. Through agreements with the state of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone nearly a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase. In addition with the April agreement with the state to enhance both the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and the Smoothie King Center, the Pelicans' home debuted a new center-hung HD video scoreboard in 2015, highlighting several fan upgrades.

In 2014, Mrs. Benson established GMB Racing Stables in 2014 with an initial purchase of seven colts and hiring three veteran trainers, all with Louisiana ties. In 2016, two of the thoroughbreds, Mo Tom and Tom's Ready participated in the Kentucky Derby.

This past April, Mr. Benson, a longtime veteran in the automotive dealership industry, purchased Cadillac of New Orleans to add to his roster of local dealerships, which also include Best Chevrolet and Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans.

In 2008 when Mr. Benson purchased WVUE FOX 8, the station became the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that wholly locally owned. Following an agreement to sell a majority interest of the station to Raycom in 2017, Mr. Benson leaves the station in much better shape than when he assumed ownership. Since his purchase of the station, which was followed by significant investment in facilities and on-air talent, FOX 8 has received numerous honors for their programming and investigative reporting, including a George Foster Peabody Award, two Dupont Awards and eight national Edward R. Murrow Awards. 2016 and 2017 have marked new highs for FOX 8, with the station capturing the late night news (9 p.m. and 10 p.m.) Nielsen ratings during the crucial May, 2016 and 2017 sweeps periods. In February, 2017, WVUE's morning show captured more viewers than any other newscast in New Orleans. The station was honored with 11 Regional Murrow Awards, including the prestigious Overall Excellence Award, qualifying them to compete national Murrow Awards in the 11 categories.

Since purchasing the Saints, Mr. Benson's significant contributions in the sports, business and charitable arenas have been recognized by several honors. His accomplishments have been recognized through his induction into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame (2014), the Junior Achievement Business Hall of Fame (New Orleans Chapter-2013), the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame (2012), the San Antonio Business Hall of Fame (2011), the Texas Business Hall of Fame (2007) and in 2017 receiving the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Louisiana chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth.

Community involvement and giving back are hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Saints. The couple has made a positive impact in the community both personally and through both professional sports teams in the areas of the arts, education, faith-based causes, healthcare and military, as well as other deserving causes. Most recently in 2014, Mr. and Mrs. Benson were recognized for their philanthropy by the Anti-Defamation League with the A.I. Botnick Torch of Liberty Award. Mrs. Benson was also recognized by the Girl Scouts of Louisiana East as a Woman of Distinction for her leadership and service to others.

An accomplished business professional who enjoyed a successful 30-year career in the design industry and real estate development, Mrs. Benson has utilized her passion for design to support the arts in New Orleans. Raised in Old Algiers, she directed numerous major design efforts with her clients, including the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, several of the city's most prestigious hotels and local supermarket chains and automobile dealerships. Mrs. Benson was involved in the NOMA (New Orleans Museum of Art) project "Art for Art's Sake" and is a member of the museum's advisory board. Most recently, she served as one of the chairs for NOMA's Odyssey Ball in 2014, which raised over $700,000—the most in the gala's history. The funds help ensure the museum's ability to present world-class exhibitions, public programs and educational initiatives.

Both products of local schools, Mr. and Mrs. Benson are committed to supporting the area's educational institutions. In recognition of their longstanding support of Catholic education, the couple received the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award from the National Catholic Educational Association in 2010. In 2012, they established the Brother Nicholas, S.C. Building Endowment to support Brother Martin High School (formerly St. Aloysius, from where he graduated). In 1986, his alma mater honored Mr. Benson as their Alumnus of the Year. With Mr. Benson having been educated at Loyola University New Orleans, he and his wife made a pledge for the construction of a new Jesuit Center in 2010, contributed to the creation of the Jesuit Social Research Institute in 2008 and he helped fund the first phase of construction of a chemistry wing in 1999. In 2010, Mr. Benson was honored by Loyola University with the school's Integritas Vitae Award, the New Orleans school's highest honor. The award is annually presented to an individual who exemplifies the qualities Loyola seeks to instill in its students. The Bensons have also supported numerous local schools with gifts, including St. Mary's Dominican High School, Jesuit High School and Tulane University. In supporting Tulane's construction of an on-campus stadium, the Green Wave started playing on "Benson Field" in 2014. The Bensons are members of the Paul Tulane Society, recognizing their significant generosity to the school. Mrs. Benson serves on the Board of Directors for Tulane, the University of Incarnate Word and Archbishop Hannan and Dominican High Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson have also made several significant gifts to higher education in San Antonio, Texas. They funded the building of a football stadium located on the University of Incarnate Word Campus, known as Gayle and Tom Benson Field and Benson Fieldhouse, which also services the school's teams. The football squad took to the field for the first time in 2009 and continues to grow and build their foundation with the Bensons' unwavering support. Mr. Benson was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2013. In addition, Mr. and Mrs. Benson also established an endowment fund at Central Catholic High School in San Antonio that is dedicated to the memory of the late Robert Carter Benson, who graduated from the school in 1962, and donated the school's "Benson Memorial Library."

Longtime advocates of faith-based causes and spirituality, Mr. and Mrs. Benson have been longtime trusted and valued members of the local Catholic community. Mrs. Benson has served on Archbishop's Community Appeal campaigns for four different Archbishops over the course of the past 20 years and has also worked tirelessly with the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic Charities organization and its umbrella agencies. Mrs. Benson has worked closely with Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults programs at both St. Louis Cathedral and Holy Name of Jesus Parish. Mrs. Benson is currently an active member of the "I Will Give You Shepherds" campaign, which plans to renovate the second floor of the historic Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans.

The support of the Catholic Church by the Bensons has been recognized on numerous occasions. For his humanitarian and philanthropic endeavors that have positively affected the lives of so many individuals and groups, Mr. Benson was honored in 2012 by the Catholic Church with an Oblate Doctor of Humane Letters (to a person who has achieved the human purpose for which Divine Providence Placed Him on Earth) certificate that honors his “realities of the most noble of human endeavors, weighted by criteria arising from the deepest human values.” The certificate also honors “excellence in the area of life where excellence makes the most difference,” and further cites his “attributes and accomplishments that come closest to what God would be interested in honoring.” In 2012, Mr. and Mrs. Benson received from Pope Benedict XVI the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice award—for outstanding service to the Church and the Pontiff, the highest Papal award granted to a lay person. Mrs. Benson has received the Medal of the Order of St. Louis Award for her dedication to the Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson have also shown their commitment to the health and wellness of the local community with the Gayle and Tom Benson Cancer Center on the main campus of Ochsner Medical Center. The center was built and has since been upgraded following multiple gifts to the area’s leading health service network of hospitals and clinics. In addition to serving on the Ochsner board, Mrs. Benson has led 100-plus volunteer committee members in hosting the Moonlight and Miracles event four consecutive times—the organization’s annual gala to benefit the Ochsner Cancer Institute. The event has raised over one million dollars annually to benefit cancer patients in the region.

Supporting the efforts of former Saints safety Steve Gleason and his Team Gleason organization which helps provide people with ALS and other debilitating conditions and environment where they can live vital and productive lives with meaningful freedom and independence, Mr. and Mrs. Benson donated five million dollars in 2014 to the Team Gleason House for Innovative Living at the New Orleans St. Margaret’s facility.

In 1945, Mr. Benson served in the Navy aboard the U.S.S. South Dakota and has remained particularly close to this branch of the armed forces. He is the only enlisted man to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Pensacola Naval Museum and has been honored with an award from the crew of the submarine U.S.S. Louisiana. In 2007, Mr. Benson was honored by the U.S. Navy Memorial with the Lone Sailor Award, presented to those who exemplify the core values of honor, courage and commitment. A leading advocate for the National World War II Memorial in Washington D.C., Mr. Benson was also a major contributor and past director of The National WWII Museum in New Orleans, with his pledges helping fund the Pacific Exhibit Grand Opening and the Midway Theater. In 2011, he was among five NFL owners honored with an American Spirit Award by the museum for service in the war.

TOM & GAYLE BENSON COMMUNITY SERVICE

Since Tom Benson's purchase of the New Orleans Saints in 1985 and the New Orleans Pelicans in 2012, the clubs' greatest impact has been in the Gulf South community. The charitable involvement of the clubs rank as he and his wife Gayle's largest priority personally. It is Mr. and Mrs. Benson's vision that the Saints and the Pelicans are much more than professional sports teams and, through their leadership, they are committed to giving back and serving a region that has shown incredible support. The Bensons and the clubs' players, coaches and staff are leaders when it comes to volunteerism, involvement, donations and charitable outreach.

As dedicated corporate citizens, the Saints and the Pelicans annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and the donations of goods and services-not to mention the club's critical role in economic development and impact.

The Bensons have been honored repeatedly for the support and care of charitable and civic causes, including the Volunteers of America selecting Mr. Benson as the winner of the annual Good Samaritan Award in Philanthropy in 2008. In 2010, he was awarded Loyola University of New Orleans' highest honor as the recipient of the Integritas Vitae Award, given to an individual who exemplifies a commitment to community service. In 2014, Mrs. Benson was recognized by the Girl Scouts of Louisiana East as a Woman of Distinction for her leadership and service to others. In 2010, both Mr. and Mrs. Benson received the Elizabeth Seton Award, which is dedicated to those who have served the National Catholic Education Association through personal or professional philanthropy that has positively impacted Catholic education in the nation. In 2012, they received from Pope Benedict XVI the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Award for outstanding service to the Catholic Church and the Pontiff, the highest Papal award granted to a lay person.

Through the leadership of the Bensons, the Saints and now the Pelicans have raised over $3 million for community causes to support natural disasters including hurricanes, the Gulf Coast oil spill and most recently flooding throughout the State of Louisiana in 2016. Annually, both clubs have also partnered with local youth-oriented charities such as the Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girls Scouts of America and the United Way to reach as many children as possible. Both teams encourage the health and wellness of children in the Gulf South through Junior Training

In addition to consistently supporting local charities, the Bensons have also been a leading advocate for New Orleans and the Gulf South by lending their support in attracting new events to the city, and the clubs have worked in conjunction with the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation and other local entities to bid and receive events such as the 2012 and 2022 NCAA Men's Final Four Basketball Championship, the 2013 and 2020 Women's Final Four and the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. New Orleans' leading advocate of the successful bid to host Super Bowl XLVII, the Bensons remain committed to work on behalf of the city to land future Super Bowls, because of the financial impact and positive global exposure they are able to shed on the city and the state.

He has also served as president of the New Orleans Pelicans since 2012. He is a representative for both clubs at NFL and NBA Owner's Meetings.

With his 2012 promotion with both clubs capping a steady rise through the executive ranks of the Saints, Lauscha first joined the club as treasurer in 1998 and later earned the additional titles of vice president, senior vice president and executive vice president. In addition to his duties with the Saints and Pelicans, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within other holdings of Tom and Gayle Benson, maintaining a role in the management of their automotive dealership holdings, Zelia, LLC and GMB Racing.

The deal included Mr. Benson purchasing and redeveloping the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, with the stadium itself undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities. Following successful negotiations, the Pelicans are committed to the state through 2024 and the Smoothie King Center has undergone over $50 million in renovations and improvements.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both clubs. The Mercedes-Benz Superdome debuted new state-of-the-art video boards in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center for the 2015-16 Pelicans season. In 2008, Lauscha was also a primary member of the negotiating team during the purchase of WVUE FOX 8 and its subsequent relationship with Raycom Media. Prior to an agreement by the to sell a majority interest to Raycom in 2017, Lauscha helped steward the station's growth in the New Orleans market. Since the purchase of the station, which was followed by significant investment in facilities and on-air talent, FOX 8 has received numerous honors for their programming and investigative reporting, including a George Foster Peabody Award, two Dupont Awards and eight national Edward R. Murrow Awards. 2016 and 2017 have marked new highs for FOX 8, with the station capturing the late night news (9 p.m. and 10 p.m.) Nielsen ratings during the crucial May, 2016 and 2017 sweeps periods. In February, 2017, WVUE's morning show captured more viewers than any other newscast in New Orleans. The station was honored with 11 Regional Murrow Awards, including the prestigious Overall Excellence Award, qualifying them to compete national Murrow Awards in the 11 categories.

FOOTBALL

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operations, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his 16th season in his current position and 18th with the Saints. He is a veteran of 33 years in the NFL and during his time in New Orleans has been honored with the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive. Yet the most satisfying achievement of Loomis' career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last 11 seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to general manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of executive vice president later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel and scouting, salary cap management, contract negotiations, athletic training, equipment, video and communications. Loomis also oversees the basketball operations of the New Orleans Pelicans.

In 2006—after being the key figure in the hiring of Sean Payton, the signing of Drew Brees and essentially rebuilding a team that would advance to the NFC Championship—Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by the Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by five postseason appearances, three division titles and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past 11 years, he has brought aboard a collection of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 107-79 overall record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing several significant contributors to long-term contracts.

While his responsibilities have grown during his tenure with the Saints, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as director of football administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for an NFL team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

Since 2003, Loomis has overseen two extensive renovations of Saints headquarters that have added an indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria and completely renovated coaches and player personnel offices, meeting rooms and locker rooms, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October, 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to Executive Vice President in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Wichita State University.

SEAN PAYTON

HEAD COACH

Since he was hired as head coach of the New Orleans Saints in 2006, Sean Payton has established himself as one of the most successful coaches in the NFL. Since coming to New Orleans, Payton has led the Saints to five playoff berths, three NFC South division titles and the franchise's first World Championship with a 31-17 win over the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV.

Payton has a 100-70 overall record (.588), including a 6-4 postseason mark (.600) after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival. Throughout his tenure, Payton holds the franchise's top win total and winning percentage for a head coach.

As Payton enters the 2017 campaign he continues to represent the Saints as the model of stability not only within the NFC South, as he is longest tenured head coach within the division, but also within the NFL as only New England's Bill Belichick (2000), Cincinnati's Marvin Lewis (2003) and Green Bay's Mike McCarthy (hired one week prior to Payton in 2006) have been with their teams longer. Payton is also one of just six active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Seattle's Pete Carroll, Baltimore's John Harbaugh, McCarthy and Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin.

Payton's presided over the NFL's most prolific offense since his arrival, leading the league in net yards per game in 2006, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2014 and 2016, and finishing first in scoring in 2008 and 2009. These are the only five times the Saints have led the NFL in offense. Ranking in the top ten offensively every season since Payton arrived, the Saints have the third-longest streak (11 seasons) in the NFL since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. In team history, the Saints have scored at least 45 points on 19 separate occasions with 15 of these outputs occurring under Payton's watch, including two in 2016. Defensively, New Orleans has finished in the top five twice (2010 and 2013). He has also sent a total of 37 selections to the Pro Bowl and earned the honor of coaching the NFC squad following the 2006 season.

In 2016, Payton had the Saints in playoff contention right until Week 16 despite season-ending injuries to four Week One starters. Rebounding from a 0-3 start, the Saints won four of their next five contests to get right back in the middle of the postseason picture.

Payton accomplished the balancing act of adding youth to his squad while keeping the Saints in the thick of the playoff hunt. He nurtured the on-field growth of rookie and second-year players, including S Vonn Bell, DT Tyeler Davison, K Wil Lutz, DT David Onyemata, T/G Andrus Peat, DT Sheldon Rankins and WRs Willie Snead IV and Michael Thomas, each of who played significant roles for an emerging team. He also fostered impressive production from veteran players such as

COACHING STAFF

QB Drew Brees, DT Nick Fairley, RB Mark Ingram, DE Cameron Jordan, LB Craig Robertson, T Zach Strief, C Max Unger and S Kenny Vaccaro.

The offense finished first in the NFL for the sixth time under Payton's direction (426.0 ypg.), also leading the league in passing (317.1 ypg.), third down conversion rate (48.6), first downs (395) and yards after the catch (2,439). The offense was led by Brees, who completed 471-of-673 passes (70.0%) for 5,208 yards with 37 touchdowns and a 101.7 passer rating, leading the NFL in passing yardage for the seventh time and surpassing 5,000 yards for the fifth time. Ingram became the first Saint with 1,000 yards rushing (1,043) since 2006, Thomas, who set club rookie receiving records with a team-high 92 grabs for 1,137 yards with nine touchdowns, combined with fellow wideout Brandin Cooks (1,173 yards) to give New Orleans only the second offense in NFL history that featured a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers. The line, surrendered only 27 sacks, the NFL's sixth-lowest total.

Defensively, a young unit moved in the right direction, surrendering only 90.6 rushing yards per game, and ranking sixth in the NFL over the final 13 weeks of the season, allowing under 100 yards rushing in eight games, the fewest in a single season since 2013 (seven). Fairley and Jordan both started every game up front for the Saints and combined for 14 sacks. Robertson, signed in the offseason, opened all 15 games he appeared in and posted a career-high and team-high 131 tackles. After missing the first seven games with a leg injury, Rankins posted four sacks in the last nine contests. Bell and Vaccaro combined for 178 stops and four takeaways on the back end.

After a slow start to the 2015 campaign, a team that featured 17 players who had not appeared in a regular season contest prior to the season opener won three of their last four games and finished 7-9, making strides in all phases. A high powered, quick-striking offense held its place among the elite in the NFL as the Saints finished second in the NFL in total net yards per game (403.8) and first in net passing yards per game (310.6), third down conversion rate (47.7%) and first downs (381). While maintaining their explosive profile, the offense reduced their turnovers from 30 in 2014 to only 19 in 2015. Brees completed 428-of-627 passes (68.3%) for an NFL-best 4,870 yards, 32 touchdowns and a 101.0 passer rating. Cooks enjoyed a breakout campaign, leading the team with 84 receptions for 1,138 yards with nine touchdowns.

Defensively, the Saints had six players with no prior NFL experience start games for the club in 2015 and the development showed towards the end of the season when they surrendered under 20 points in two of their final four contests. Of the club's 21 defensive takeaways, nine were by players in their first year. Jordan reached double digit sacks for the second time in his career and represented the Saints at the Pro Bowl.

An opportunistic special teams unit scored two touchdowns, their highest total since 2008 and tied for the group's most since Payton took over in 2006. They also scored the first defensive two-point conversion since the NFL rules change was instituted in 2015, blocked three kicks and booted two game-winning field goals.

The 2014 Saints finished 7-9, but rebounded from a 2-4 start to win three games against playoff teams down the stretch and captured their last four contests away from home to finish at least .500 on the road for the first time since 2011, ending the campaign half a game out of first place in the NFC South. New Orleans finished first in the NFL in net yards per game (411.4), third down efficiency (48.3%), first downs (395) and opponent punt return average (4.1). Four Saints (Brees, G Jahri Evans, TE Jimmy Graham and Ingram) were selected to the Pro Bowl. Brees tied for first in the NFL in passing yardage (4,952).

In 2013, Payton guided the Saints back to the postseason with an 11-5 mark, finishing 8-0 in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome for the second time in three seasons. Ranking fourth in the NFL both on offense (399.4 ypg.) and defense (305.7 ypg.), New Orleans was one of the league's most balanced clubs as they were the only team to rank in the top five in both categories. The defensive improvement of 134.4 net yards per game from 2012 was the biggest by a club since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. In opponent points per game, after surrendering 28.4 in 2012, the Saints gave up only 19.0 in 2013 as they improved in the league rankings from 31st to fourth. After reaching the playoffs for the fourth time in five seasons, Payton led New Orleans to the franchise's first road postseason victory with a 26-24 win at Philadelphia in the Wild Card round. Five players (Brees, Evans, Graham, G Ben Grubbs and Jordan) were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2011, the Saints went to the playoffs for the third consecutive season and captured their third NFC South title with a 13-3 record, tying a club record for regular season victories first set in 2009. It was the first time that the club has had at least 11 wins in three straight campaigns. Taking advantage of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome's environment, the Saints posted an undefeated 8-0 record at their home stadium for the first time. With five road victories, the Saints also enjoyed another first in posting winning records at visiting stadiums in three consecutive seasons. In fact, three of the top six road campaigns in team history (7-1 in 2009, 6-2 in both 2006 and 2010) have come under Payton. His regular season road winning percentage (.538) is tops in club history.

Payton oversaw a record-setting year on offense for the Saints in 2011, as New Orleans set an NFL single-season mark with 7,474 net yards, while also posting a team-record 547 points, then the fourth-highest total all-time. Brees set NFL single-season records for completions (468) and completion percentage (71.2%) and what was then a mark for yardage (5,476). The team set NFL records for total net yards (7,474), completions (472), completion percentage (71.3%), third down conversion rate (56.7%) and fewest fumbles (6), while also setting what were then league marks for net passing yards (5,347) and first downs (416). A reconfigured offensive line with three new starters surrendered only 24 sacks, tied for the second-lowest total in the league. Five players represented the team at the Pro Bowl.

In 2010, Payton led the Saints to their second straight postseason appearance with an 11-5 record. New Orleans converted an NFL-best 48.8% of their third down attempts and ranked sixth in the NFL in total yards (372.5 ypg.). In addition, the team finished third in passing (277.6 ypg.). The Saints finished fifth in the NFL with 351 first downs, the third-highest total in club history. New Orleans' offensive line gave up only 26 sacks, which was the NFL's fifth-lowest total. Five Saints were Pro Bowl selections.

Defensively, the team took a big step forward, making the jump from the 25th ranked total defense in 2009 to fourth overall (306.3 ypg.) in 2010. It marked the first time since 1997 that they ranked among the league's top five. Most significant was a jump in pass defense, moving from 26th (235.6 ypg.) in 2009 to fourth (193.9 ypg.) in 2010. The club moved up from 20th to seventh (19.2 ppg) in opponent points per game. The defense also significantly improved their opponent third down conversion ranking from 14th (38.0%) to fifth (34.5%).

In 2009, en route to the Super Bowl XLIV title, Payton guided the Saints to the team's second NFC South title in four seasons with a 13-3 record. Along the way the Saints set a franchise-record for most regular season wins in a season (13). Their 16 overall victories were the most in the club's history. The Saints also posted the franchise's longest winning streak and best start when they won their first 13 contests. Payton once again was named as the top head coach in the NFL by numerous media outlets and recognized football chapters.

The Saints finished as the NFL's top-ranked offense (sixth in rushing and fourth in passing) for the second straight year. An opportunistic defense recorded 26 interceptions with an NFL-leading five returned for touchdowns. New Orleans also ranked second in the league in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (39.3%). The Saints set what were then team records in scoring (510) and touchdowns (64) and battled through the postseason with victories over Arizona (NFC Divisional Playoff) and Minnesota (NFC Championship) en route to Super Bowl XLIV. A club-record seven players were named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2008, the Saints ranked first overall in the NFL in offense and set what were then team records for total yards (6,571), net passing yards (4,977) and first downs (354), also tying what was then a team record for single-game scoring in a 51-29 win over Green Bay.

In 2007, the Saints endured injuries and a slow start, but put together a four-game winning streak to get back into playoff contention. New Orleans finished fourth in the NFL in total offense while also holding nine opponents to 17 points or less.

Payton scrapped the traditional timetable for rebuilding an NFL club in 2006. In his opening season as a head coach, the Saints jumped out to a 3-0 record - a first

PLAY IT FORWARD

Head Coach Sean Payton launched the Play It Forward Foundation in 2008 to raise funds and awareness to help families in need in the areas of health, education and social welfare. Since then, it has also served as a catalyst for various nonprofit organizations to improve the quality of life for local families in need, as well as support disadvantaged and disabled individuals through educational-based initiatives, increased and improved health care support systems and social welfare through research, education and professional services.

The foundation has held four Black & Gold Gala fundraisers at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Legendary figures such as John Besh, Jimmy Buffett, Sammy Ker-shaw, Darius Rucker and Irma Thomas have lent their support, serving as hon-orary chairs. Benefactors of these events have included Brad Pitts' Make it Right NOLA, Blaine Kern's First Responder's Fund, the Dr. Phil Foundation, Feed the Chil-dren and Baskets of Hope. The multiple approach has advanced the mission of en-riching lives and strengthening the New Orleans community and Gulf South.

In 2011, the foundation hosted a fundraiser in Lafayette, partnering with Feed the Children and Protect Our Coastline. Overall more than two million dollars have been raised through these events to deserving local causes. In 2009, the founda-tion hosted a golf tournament, the Celebrity Kid's Classic, which raised thousands of dollars to benefit children's charities throughout Greater New Orleans.

in team history, equaling the team's win total from the previous year - and clinched the NFC South title before the regular season finale. New Orleans led the NFL in total offense, went to the postseason for the first time since 2000 and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time. When the 2006 season came to a close, Payton was voted the Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Maxwell Club. He and his staff coached the NFC squad in the Pro Bowl.

Payton was hired as the 14th head coach in Saints history on Jan. 18, 2006 after serving as a member of the Dallas Cowboys coaching staff from 2003-05 under 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Bill Parcells. Prior to his final season with the Cowboys, Payton was promoted to assistant head coach/passing game coordinator and was responsible for the team's play-calling after serving as assistant head coach/quarterbacks from 2003-04. In 2005, the Cowboys tied for second in the NFC with 318 first downs. When he arrived, Dallas had ranked 31st in passing the previous year but immediately improved to 17th.

Payton went to Dallas following four years with the New York Giants (1999-2002), the last three as offensive coordinator after spending his first season as quarterbacks coach. He solidified his reputation as one of the game's brightest offensive minds in his first season as offensive coordinator, when the Giants captured the NFC title and went to Super Bowl XXXV. New York scored 328 points - the club's highest total since 1990 - and finished 13th in the NFL in total offense.

Payton was first assigned play-calling duties prior to a game against the New York Jets on Dec. 5, 1999. The Giants responded with 41 points and 490 yards - both season highs - and he retained that assignment over the final five games. Appointed the offensive coordinator the following season, over the next three years the Giants passing attack continually improved, ranking 13th in the NFL in 2000, tied for eighth in 2001 and sixth in 2002.

In 2002 the Giants also finished sixth overall in total offense, the team's highest ranking since 1985. In the previous decade, New York hadn't ranked above 20th. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent 1997 and 1998 as Philadelphia's quarterbacks coach. In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing and third in total offense in the NFC.

During his career, Payton has had particular success tutoring quarterbacks. Brees has thrived since arriving in New Orleans, as he holds or has tied a total of 26 club career, single-season and single-game records, nine of them NFL marks. Since signing with the Saints, Brees has completed 4,711 of 6,949 attempts (67.8%) for 53,763 yards with 385 touchdowns and a 99.3 passer rating. He has led the NFL in passing yardage an NFL-record seven times and has been selected to nine Pro Bowls in a Saints uniform.

Since his first year as a play-caller in 2000, every passer under Payton's guidance has thrown for over 3,000 yards. In addition to Brees since 2006, the three starting quarterbacks he worked with in Dallas - Drew Bledsoe in 2005, Vinny Testaverde in 2004 and Quincy Carter in 2003 - all surpassed the milestone. While in New York, Giants QB Kerry Collins had 4,073 yards in 2002.

Payton wrapped two coaching stints at San Diego State University (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). During his second stretch with the Aztecs, Payton was running backs coach, working with Heisman Trophy runner-up Marshall Faulk before becoming quarterbacks coach.

Following the 1993 season, Payton moved to Miami (Ohio) (1994-95) where he was quarterbacks coach. He spent 1996 as quarterbacks coach at Illinois before entering the NFL with Philadelphia.

Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. The three-time AP All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000 and had his jersey retired in a ceremony in September of 2010. He received an honorary doctorate from his alma mater in 2013.

Payton was born Dec. 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton has a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

DENNIS ALLEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Now in his second stint in New Orleans, Dennis Allen enters his second full season as the team's defensive coordinator in his eighth campaign with the club. Allen's resume includes 21 years of coaching experience, including the last 15 in the NFL.

In 2016, a young New Orleans Saints defensive unit took several strides in the right direction, surrendering only 90.6 rushing yards per game, and ranking sixth in the NFL over the final 13 weeks of the season. In fact, New Orleans allowed under 100 yards rushing in eight games on the season, the fewest in a single season since they gave up seven in 2013.

Under the tutelage of Allen, several players enjoyed productive seasons. DE Cameron Jordan led the team with 7.5 sacks. DT Nick Fairley turned in his best season as a pro, finishing with a career-high 6.5 sacks. LB Craig Robertson started all 15 games he appeared in and filled up the stat sheet with a team-high and career-best 131 tackles, one sack, one interception, five passes defended and two fumble recoveries, staying on the field for nearly every defensive snap. Missing the first seven games of his rookie season due to a leg injury, 2016 first-round draft pick DT Sheldon Rankins posted 26 tackles (17 solo), four sacks and one forced fumble over nine contests played. In the secondary, the safety trio of Vonn Bell, Jairus Byrd and Kenny Vaccaro combined for 274 tackles, two sacks, four interceptions, 13 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

After starting the 2015 season as the club's senior defensive assistant, Allen assumed coordinator duties in Week 11. As New Orleans rallied to win three of their final four contests, Allen's unit contributed to finishing strong as the defense surrendered 34.3 total net yards per game below the overall season average, including 24.3 fewer yards per game in stopping the run. New Orleans also held opponents to a season-low 17 points in two of the final four contests. Working primarily with the secondary prior to being elevated to coordinator, two of Allen's pupils enjoyed impressive campaigns. CB Delvin Breaux developed throughout the season in his first NFL campaign, leading the team with three interceptions and 23 passes defended, while often covering the opponent's top wideout. Vaccaro set career-highs with 136 tackles and three sacks.

Allen served as the head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In his second season, he guided a team that made significant improvement in several areas. Offensively, the Raiders ranked 12th in the NFL in rushing, moving up 16 spots in league rankings from 2012 and ranked sixth in yards per rush (4.6), improving 21 places in league rankings despite starting an NFL-high eight different offensive line combinations due to injury. The defense replaced nine starters, yet still improved in several categories. The defense recorded 38 sacks, 13 more than 2012, and tied for second in the NFL with 15 different players getting to the quarterback. The rush defense improved five spots from 18th in the NFL in 2012 to 13th in 2013, as they limited opposing offenses to just five runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest in the league, and kept opponents to less than two yards per carry three times. On special teams, the Raiders moved from the NFL's bottom-third to first overall in opponent gross punting (41.7), ranked third in opponent net punting (37.0) and fourth in opponent kickoff returns (20.4).

Allen coached the first four games of the 2014 regular season for the Raiders, during which he helped usher in a pair of rookies that went on to enjoy impressive campaigns in QB Derek Carr and LB Khalil Mack. The club's pass defense ranked fourth in the NFL in the games he coached.

In 2011, Allen served as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos. He led a defense that helped the Broncos win the AFC West division crown and advance to the AFC Divisional round with an AFC Wild Card game victory. The Broncos improved 12 spots over the previous year in overall defensive ranking and bettered their points allowed eight spots. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie LB Von Miller joined CB Champ Bailey, S Brian Dawkins and DE Elvis Dumervil on the AFC squad. Miller tied the team's rookie record with 11.5 sacks en route to NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and Dumervil also thrived under Allen, rebounding from injury to register 9.5 takedowns. The Broncos' 41 sacks as a team marked the unit's most since 2000.

During Allen's previous five-year tenure in New Orleans, he first served as assistant defensive line coach (2006-07) before being promoted to secondary coach (2008-10).

He was a part of a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement from 2009-10 when the club went 24-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints secondary allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, while New Orleans ranked fourth in both opponent net yards per game (306.3) and pass defense (193.9 ypg.). They also registered top five rankings in opponent third down efficiency (34.5%) and opponent passer rating (75.3). S Roman Harper was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl, posting 100 tackles and three sacks, and CB Jabari Greer recorded two interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown.

In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to the club's first Super Bowl victory. A revamped unit accounted for an NFL-high six interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 22 picks on the season with two of the four starters being selected to the Pro Bowl. Greer returned one pick for a touchdown. Harper led the unit with a career-high 127 tackles and added 1.5 sacks and two forced fumbles while being selected to his first Pro Bowl. CB Tracy Porter picked off Brett Favre and Peyton Manning in the fourth quarter in consecutive contests in the postseason, with his famous Super Bowl XLIV interception being brought back for a touchdown.

While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the strengths of the Saints' defense. During that stretch, the defensive front combined for 48.5 sacks, 10 forced fumbles and 10 fumble recoveries and DE Will Smith was voted to the 2006 Pro Bowl.

Allen joined the Saints after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Falcons, where he spent his final two years as defensive assistant/quality control with an emphasis on working with the defensive line. Over the previous two seasons, he was in charge of defensive quality control while helping tutor the secondary.

Over his last two years in Atlanta, the Falcons' defense was paced by the play of the front four. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks and the unit sent DE Patrick Kerney to the Pro Bowl. In 2005 DT Rod Coleman represented the club in the Pro Bowl and the Falcons notched 37 sacks.

In 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield. Atlanta improved to 16th against the pass after ranking 30th the year before, and tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions.

Allen worked as the secondary coach for the University of Tulsa (2000-01) before heading to the NFL. Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Allen was on the coaching staff for four years (1996-99) at his alma mater, Texas A&M, as a graduate assistant working primarily with the school's secondary.

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen earned four letters for Texas A&M as a safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. A highlight was his fourth-quarter interception that clinched an 18-9 victory over Texas in 1993, sending the Aggies to their third-straight Cotton Bowl. He collected Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after intercepting two passes in a 36-14 win over Oklahoma in 1994.

Allen was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills and competed in their training camp in 1996. Allen's father, Grady, played at Texas A&M and was a linebacker for the Falcons from 1968-72.

BRADFORD BANTA

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Bradford Banta joins the New Orleans Saints in 2017 as the club's special teams coordinator. He is in his 10th year as an NFL assistant after an 11-year career in the league as a tight end/long snapper.

Banta enters his first season in charge of the Saints' special teams after serving as an assistant special teams coach with the Washington Redskins from 2014-06 and as an assistant in several capacities with the Detroit Lions from 2008-11.

During his stint in Washington, Banta contributed to the Redskins' success as an assistant in the kicking game the past two seasons, where they totaled four special teams touchdowns (two kickoff returns, one punt return and a blocked punt recovery). In 2016, the Redskins ranked fourth in the NFL in punt return average (12.7) and K Dustin Hopkins ranked third in the league in scoring among kickers with 138 points. In 2015, despite the unit having to use 60 different players (tied for seventh-most in the NFL), Washington's special teams ranked fourth in the league in kickoff coverage (20.5 avg.) and also contributed three touchdowns, two on kickoff returns for a return unit that ranked ninth (25.0 avg.).

Prior to joining the Redskins, Banta spent six seasons with the Lions in various coaching capacities, including serving as assistant special teams coach in his first four seasons with the club and as assistant linebackers coach from 2012-13. Under his guidance in 2012, the Lions linebacker corps of Stephen Tulloch, Justin Durant and DeAndre Levy led the Lions in total tackles, finishing with 112, 103 and 81, respectively. In 2013, he contributed to a breakout season for Levy, who led all NFL linebackers with six interceptions.

In assisting with the Lions special teams for his first four seasons, Banta helped S John Wendling tie for first in the NFL in special teams tackles (51) across the 2010-12 campaigns. In 2011, K Jason Hanson finished with 126 points, the fourth-best single-season total in Lions history, and his five 50-yard field goals made him the first player in NFL history to kick 50 50-yard field goals in his career. In 2010, the Lions' kick return unit was the third-most improved unit in the NFL in kickoff return average with 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009. Detroit also had the NFL's tenth-most significant improvement in punt return average in 2010 (8.8 avg.

in 2009, 12.1 avg. in 2010). Detroit had the fourth-most improved kickoff coverage unit, allowing an average of 2.7 less yards per each kick return in 2010. Before joining the Lions as a coach in 2008, Banta spent the 2007 season as a tight ends coach for Tennessee-Chattanooga.

After being drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the league's best long snappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 campaign, before playing three seasons with the Lions from 2001-03. He finished his 11-year playing career with Buffalo in 2004.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letter winner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993. A Baton Rouge native, Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker.

DAN CAMPBELL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS

Dan Campbell enters his second season as the New Orleans Saints' assistant head coach/tight ends, bringing 18 years of NFL experience, 11 as a player with four teams and seven as a coach. He joined the Saints in 2016 after spending six seasons on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, including serving as the club's interim head coach for the final 12 contests in 2015.

In 2016, Campbell juggled several injuries at the position with Michael Hoomanawanui sidelined the entire season and Josh Hill missing seven contests.

COACHING STAFF

Despite the setbacks, the New Orleans tight ends group still played a key role in an offense that ranked first in the NFL with 426.0 total net yards per game and second in scoring with 29.3 points per game. Coby Fleener, in his first season with New Orleans, appeared in 16 games with eight starts, catching 50 passes for 631 yards (12.6 avg.) with three touchdowns, while adding one rush for two yards and one TD.

In 2015, Campbell took over a 1-3 Dolphins club that had lost three consecutive contests and immediately helped the team win their first two games under his supervision and finished 5-7, including a 20-10 win over the New England Patriots in the season finale. After Campbell took the head coaching reigns, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL rushing yards per game rankings with RB Lamar Miller gaining 741 of his 872 yards on the ground and all eight rushing touchdowns, finishing the season with 1,269 total yards from scrimmage and 10 touchdowns. Five Dolphins were selected to the Pro Bowl. QB Ryan Tannehill became the first Dolphins signal-caller to pass for at least 4,000 yards in consecutive seasons since Dan Marino (1984-86).

Prior to taking over Miami's interim head coach duties, Campbell had tutored the Dolphins tight ends since 2011, initially joining the team in 2010 as a coaching intern following the conclusion of his 11-year NFL playing career. In 2014, Campbell's tight end unit was led by Charles Clay who posted 58 receptions for 605 yards and three touchdowns, while blocking for Miller's first 1,000 yard season, as he and Tannehill combined to become the first duo in franchise history to produce a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season. Fellow tight end Dion Sims recorded career highs in receptions (24), receiving yards (284) and touchdowns (two). In 2013, under Campbell's watch, Clay finished with 69 receptions for 759 yards with six touchdowns. In 2012, Campbell's unit was paced by Anthony Fasano, who posted a team-leading five touchdown receptions.

Campbell joined the Dolphins after 11 years of playing experience with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and Saints (2009). A third round selection of the Giants in the 1999 NFL draft, the former tight end appeared in a total of 114 games with 75 starts and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns.

PETE CARMICHAEL

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Pete Carmichael is in his ninth season as the Saints' offensive coordinator after tutoring the club's quarterbacks his first three years with the club. Throughout this time, he has been a key figure in the planning and preparations of an offensive attack that has been ranked first in the NFL in yardage in six of the last 11 seasons and in the top six each campaign. During this period of Carmichael's tenure on the New Orleans coaching staff, the club's 11-year streak of finishing in the top 10 in offense is the third-longest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

In 2016, the Saints offense ranked first in the NFL (426.0 ypg.), with the club also finishing first in passing offense (317.1 ypg.), third down efficiency (48.6), first downs (395) and yards after catch (2,439). The club posted the third-highest scoring season in club history, ranking second in the NFL (29.3 ppg.). The team's 6,816 total yards gained on the season was the seventh-highest total in league history. With wide receivers Michael Thomas and Brandin Cooks each recording 1,000-yard receiving seasons, running back Mark Ingram posting a 1,000-yard rushing season and quarterback Drew Brees reaching 5,000-yards passing, the New Orleans offense became the second one in NFL history that featured a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers, joining the 2013 Denver Broncos. Brees reached 5,000 passing yards for an NFL-record fifth time while his passing yardage total (5,208) was the second-highest in his career and the fourth-highest of all-time, leading the league for an NFL-record seventh time. He also set an NFL single-season record for completions (471), as he was named to the Pro Bowl for a club-record ninth time. Ingram ran for 1,043 yards, becoming the first 1,000 yard rusher in club history since 2006 (Deuce McAllister). Cooks (1,173) and Thomas (1,137) each eclipsed 1,100 yards receiving with Thomas setting the team single-season rookie record for receptions, receiving yardage and receiving touchdowns. Thomas finished the season leading all NFL rookies in all three categories with the receptions total second all-time for a rookie behind Anquan Boldin's 101 in 2003.

In 2015, Carmichael coordinated an offense that finished second in the NFL (403.8 ypg.), with the club finishing first in net passing yards per game (310.6), third down efficiency (47.7%) and first downs (381). Brees threw for an NFL-high 4,870 yards and 32 touchdowns with a 101.0 rating despite missing one game with a shoulder injury. Despite missing the last four games, Ingram led the team with 1,074 total yards from scrimmage. Among wideouts, both Cooks and Willie Snead IV enjoyed breakout seasons. Cooks led the team in all three major receiving categories with 84 grabs for 1,138 yards and nine touchdowns. Snead secured a roster spot and made 69 catches for 984 yards and three touchdowns.

COACHING STAFF

Tight end Benjamin Watson set career-highs with 74 grabs for 825 yards, while tying a career-best with six touchdown receptions.

In 2014, Carmichael led an offense that finished first in the NFL in net yards per game (411.4), third down efficiency (48.3%) and first downs (395). Brees was invited to his club-record eighth Pro Bowl as a Saint as he finished tied for the NFL lead in passing yardage (4,952). He also finished first in the NFL in completions (456) and second in completion percentage (69.2%) and tied for fifth in touchdown passes (33). Tight end Jimmy Graham led the team in both receiving and touchdowns with 85 catches for 889 yards and 10 touchdowns and Ingram led the team in rushing yards (964), total yards from scrimmage (1,109) and rushing touchdowns (nine), which was tied for third in the NFL. New Orleans saw four offensive players make the Pro Bowl in 2014: Brees, guard Jahri Evans, Graham and Ingram.

In 2013, the offense finished fourth in net yards per game (399.4) and finished second in passing offense (307.4 ypg.), third in third down conversion percentage (43.9%), fourth in first downs (359) and second in yards after the catch (2,576). Four players on offense (Brees, Evans, Graham and guard Ben Grubbs) were selected to the Pro Bowl. Brees finished near the top of the NFL in virtually every passing category, completing 446-of-650 (68.6%) passes for 5,162 yards with 39 touchdowns and a 104.5 rating. Graham enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons for a tight end in NFL history, recording 86 receptions for 1,215 yards with a franchise-record 16 touchdowns. The 2013 Saints were also only the fifth NFL team to have four players with 65 or more catches (Graham-86, running back Pierre Thomas-77, wide receiver Marques Colston-75 and running back Darren Sproles-71), as New Orleans did so for the second consecutive season.

In 2012, Carmichael called plays for an offense that finished first in the NFC and second in the NFL (410.9 ypg.) and ranked second in the conference and third in the league in scoring (28.8 ppg.). The Saints also compiled top-five NFL rankings in red zone touchdown percentage (68.4%), third down efficiency (44.0%) and first downs (352), supported by an offensive line with two Pro Bowl selections (tackle Jermon Bushrod and Evans) that surrendered only 26 sacks, tied for the league's third-lowest total. Brees threw for 5,177 yards and 43 touchdowns, both league bests. The wideout duo of Colston and Lance Moore each reached 1,000 yards.

In 2011, the Saints produced some of the best offensive numbers in league history as the team shattered several National Football League and team records. After Head Coach Sean Payton suffered a leg injury in Week Six, Carmichael took over play-calling duties. New Orleans set NFL records in net passing yardage (5,347) and first downs (416) that have since been broken, while the marks for net yardage (7,474), completion percentage (71.3%), third down conversion rate (56.7%) and fewest fumbles (6) still stand. They also set a team mark and led the league in third down conversions (118). New Orleans finished with a club-record 547 points, the fourth-highest total in NFL history, and scored at least 45 points in four regular season games and one postseason contest, including three straight outputs of at least 45. Brees enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by an NFL signal-caller as he completed 468-of-657 passes (71.2%) for 5,476 yards, 46 touchdowns and a 110.6 rating, breaking NFL records for yardage (since broken), completions, 300-yard passing games (13) and completion percentage (since broken). As the passing attack reached new heights, Graham had a club-record 99 receptions for 1,310 yards with 11 touchdowns. A running game that was ranked sixth in the NFL flourished behind an offensive line that featured three Pro Bowl selections (Bushrod, Evans and guard Carl Nicks), in addition to Brees and Graham.

In 2010, the Saints finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL after averaging 372.5 yards of total offense, finishing third in the league in passing. The unit converted 48.8% of their third down conversions and ranked fifth in the NFL with 351 first downs.

In 2009, his first season as offensive coordinator, the Saints continued to compile impressive numbers on offense. The Saints finished in the top five in seven offensive categories, while also racking up an NFL-best 510 points. At least 45 points were scored four times, a fifth time in the postseason, with four straight outputs of at least 30 points. The Saints ranked first in the league with 6,461 net yards, then the third-best total in club history. The Saints' 348 first downs was the second-best total in 2009 league rankings. The Saints also finished ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing with 131.6 yards per game on 4.5 yards per carry. The offense continued to flourish in the postseason, averaging 35.6 points per game and scoring eight-of-nine times inside the red zone. Brees keyed the run, completing 70.6 percent of his passes and throwing eight touchdowns with a 117.0 rating. He was selected the Super Bowl XLIV MVP, as he led the Saints back from a ten-point deficit, completing 18 of his last 19 passes and engineering the fourth quarter game-winning drive.

In 2008, Carmichael's title was quarterbacks/passing game - with duties that included assisting in the pass routes, protection schemes and quarterback responsibilities. He tutored the signal callers his first three seasons with the club. In 2008, the offense went on to rank No. 1 in the NFL in passing, and Brees threw for 5,069 yards.

Carmichael has worked closely with Brees since both arrived in New Orleans in 2006, while virtually all of the franchise's career, single-game and single-season passing records have fallen. Brees has led the NFL or tied for the lead in passing yardage an NFL-record seven times, reached 5,000 yards, and NFL record, five times, set the league record for completion percentage twice and has thrown for a club-record 385 touchdowns over the last ten seasons.

Carmichael brings the perspective of having a wide range of coaching experiences, including working with nearly every position group on offense during his career. With the Chargers, he assisted wide receivers coach James Lofton for an offense that ranked tenth in the NFL in 2004 and 2005. Carmichael joined the Chargers in 2002 and served as offensive assistant/quality control coach until being promoted.

In 2001, Carmichael was quality control coach for the Washington Redskins, and in 2000, he was the tight ends coach and offensive assistant for the Cleveland

Browns. From 1995-99, Carmichael was the quarterbacks coach at Louisiana Tech, and during his tenure the Bulldogs' signal-callers broke almost every school passing record. He began his coaching career as the assistant offensive line coach at the University of New Hampshire in 1994, with the Wildcats winning the Yankee Conference championship.

Born Oct. 6, 1971 in Framingham, Mass., Carmichael attended Medway (Mass.) High School where he played football and baseball. He went on to a collegiate playing career in baseball and was a four-year letterman at Boston College. As a senior, Carmichael was a team captain and Most Valuable Player. He graduated with a degree in mathematics in 1994.

COACHING CAREER: New Hampshire, 1994; Louisiana Tech, 1995-99; Cleveland Browns, 2000; Washington Redskins, 2001; San Diego Chargers, 2002-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

RONALD CURRY

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

Ronald Curry enters his second season with the New Orleans Saints and first in his current position where he will work with Curtis Johnson in tutoring the club's wideouts. Entering his 12th season in the NFL overall as both a player and a coach, Curry spent 2013-15 as a member of the San Francisco 49ers coaching staff and also enjoyed a seven-year NFL career as a wideout for the Oakland Raiders.

In his three years with the 49ers, Curry served as wide receivers coach in 2015 and as an offensive assistant working with the wideouts from 2013-14. In 2015, Anquan Boldin recorded at least 65 receptions for the fourth consecutive season and Torrey Smith led the National Football League in yards per catch (20.1). From 2013-14, Boldin became the first player in 49ers history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two seasons with the team and the first 49ers receiver to eclipse the mark in back-to-back seasons since Terrell Owens from 2002-03.

Prior to joining the 49ers staff, Curry spent three years at Mooresville Christian Academy in Mooresville, N.C., as the athletic director and head football coach.

Curry, a veteran of a seven-year NFL playing career, was originally selected in the seventh round (235th overall) by the Oakland Raiders in the 2002 NFL Draft. He played in 76 career games with 32 starts and registered 193 receptions for 2,347 yards and 13 touchdowns.

COACHING STAFF

While with Oakland, Curry learned the intricacies of the wide receiver position from a pair of Pro Football Hall of Famers in Fred Biletnikoff (2003-06) and James Lofton (2008).

A four-year starter at the University of North Carolina (1998-2001), where he played quarterback, Curry left Chapel Hill with school records of 4,987 passing yards and 6,236 yards of total offense in his career. In the 2001 Peach Bowl against Auburn, Curry earned offensive Most Valuable Player honors. The year prior, Curry was voted Tar Heels Offensive MVP as a junior, where he registered 2,325 passing yards and 11 passing touchdowns. Curry was a two-sport athlete at UNC, as he was also the starting point guard on the school's 1998-99 and 2000-01 basketball teams. He played with Carolina Panthers DE Julius Peppers on both the football and basketball teams.

A native of Hampton, Va., Curry was an All-American in football and basketball in high school.

PLAYING CAREER: North Carolina, 1998-2001; Oakland Raiders, 2002-08.

COACHING CAREER: Mooresville Christian Academy (Head Coach), 2010-12; San Francisco 49ers, 2013-15; New Orleans Saints, 2016.

DAN DALRYMPLE

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

By designing extensive and innovative workout programs—crafted to the needs of every player as well as the demands of each position group—Strength & Conditioning Coach Dan Dalrymple has been a key member of the Saints organization since arriving in 2006. His responsibilities and influence both in the weight room and on the field remain constant throughout the entire year.

The efforts of Dalrymple and his staff have played a key role in the club's success over the past 11 seasons. His routines, focused on building and maintaining strength and stamina while minimizing injuries, have paid dividends for the Saints. Since 2006, New Orleans has put together 12 winning streaks of three games or more, including a franchise-record 13-game win streak in 2009. 17 players have been selected to the Pro Bowl during his tenure, 12 for the first time in their careers.

Throughout his tenure, Dalrymple's teams have traditionally finished strong. In 2009's Super Bowl XLIV Championship season, evidence of the conditioning of the club was their stamina throughout games, as they outscored opponents 139-48 in the fourth quarter, finishing first in the NFL in both points scored and allowed in the final period. He was named as the recipient of the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society and the Samson Strength and Conditioning NFL Coach of the Year award from American Football Monthly.

Prior to joining the Saints, Dalrymple spent the previous 17 seasons in a similar capacity at Miami University (Ohio), including the last 16 as director of athletic conditioning, a program he built from its foundation. While the football team was a focus of his efforts, Dalrymple and his staff created workout regimens for every athletic program. He was promoted with the additional title of assistant athletic director in 2003. At Miami, he was a coaching colleague of Saints Head Coach Sean Payton from 1994-95.

Dalrymple has been certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1991 and has been honored as a finalist for the organization's coach of the year in 1995, 1997, 1999, 2003 and 2006. He's one of only three NFL coaches in his field to be certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach.

Dalrymple has earned two certifications for USA Weightlifting that designate him as qualified to work with athletes in Olympic weightlifting and as a sports performance specialist.

After taking over the supervision of Miami's strength and conditioning program in 1989, the football program posted a 116-72-9 record, had a streak of 12-straight winning seasons and went to bowl games in 2003 and 2004.

For the Saints, Dalrymple couples his intense work ethic and a constant evolution of his approach with a lengthy background in football.

A 1988 graduate of Miami, Dalrymple was a four-year starter (1983-86) as an offensive lineman and was a first-team All-MAC selection his final two seasons, also earning honorable mention All-America accolades. He was one of three captains of the 1986 conference champion team. Dalrymple was later honored as one of five linemen on the Cincinnati Enquirer's All-20th Century Miami football team and was elected to the school's Hall of Fame in 2002.

After his college career and attending training camp with the Seattle Seahawks, Dalrymple returned to his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1987. He served as a graduate assistant the following year before being promoted to offensive line and strength coach in 1989. He was named strength & conditioning coordinator in December of that year.

In 2011, Dalrymple co-authored his first book, "The Athletic Body Puzzle-The Guide For Parents And Coaches."

PETER GIUNTA

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) enters his second season as a Saints senior defensive assistant in 2017. He's a 38-year coaching veteran, including 26 years of experience in the NFL with three Super Bowl Championships.

In his first season in New Orleans, he collaborated with secondary coach Aaron Glenn to tutor the club's defensive backs. Giunta worked to further develop a young secondary, building a solid foundation for the back end of the defense. Due to injuries to initial starting CBs Delvin Breaux and P.J. Williams, newcomers Sterling Moore and B.W. Webb, who were signed just before the start of the season and in Week Two respectively, enjoyed the most productive seasons of their career, with Moore posting 55 tackles (47 solo), two interceptions, a team-leading 14 passes defended and one forced fumble and Webb tallying 30 tackles (25 solo), one interception, 13 passes defended and one special teams stop. He also brought along a trio of rookie defensive backs in S Vonn Bell and CBs Ken Crawley and DeVante Harris. Bell led the New Orleans secondary with 98 tackles. At S, Jairus Byrd's 96 tackles were his highest total since 2011 and Kenny Vaccaro filled up the stat sheet with 80 stops, one sack, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Giunta served as the secondary/cornerbacks coach of the New York Giants from 2006-14, a period when New York captured two Super Bowl titles. With the Giants, he was at the forefront in the development of several young cornerbacks, while also experiencing success with veterans.

During his tenure in New York, the Salem, Mass. native was pivotal in the development of cornerbacks who contributed to the Giants winning two Super Bowls. Former LSU standout Corey Webster developed into an eight-year starter under Giunta's watch in New York and recorded 22 interceptions and four fumble recoveries in the regular season and postseason, including recording three takeaways in the 2007 playoffs all the way to a Super Bowl title. Webster's pick of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. In 2011, Webster opened all 20 regular season and postseason contests. CB Aaron Ross, the club's first round draft pick in 2007, was inserted into the starting lineup midway through his rookie campaign and he delivered with three interceptions including one brought back for a score. Ross returned to the starting lineup in 2011 and finished tied for second on the team to Webster (six) with a career-high four picks. Most recently, Giunta was instrumental in the development of CB Prince Amukamara, the team's first round draft pick in 2011, who despite missing the last eight games with a biceps injury in 2014, had set a career-high with three interceptions through the first eight contests. In 2009, CB Terrell Thomas led the team with five interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, as New York ranked ninth in opponent net passing yards per game. Thomas was selected to the USA Today All-Joe Team.

COACHING STAFF

Prior to joining the Giants, Giunta was Kansas City's defensive backs coach from 2001-05. In 2003, S Jerome Woods earned his first career Pro Bowl berth under his guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the 2002 campaign with a broken leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as S Greg Wesley and CB Dexter McLeon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with the St. Louis Rams, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99, after originally joining the staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 ppg.) and sixth in total defense (293.6 ypg.).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the conference and was second in the league with 29 interceptions. CB Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the league lead with six picks, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interceptions and two fumbles) for touchdowns in 1999. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied for the league lead. The sack brigade was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 takedowns.

Giunta's long had a reputation for getting the most out of his defensive backs. In 2000, McLeon intercepted eight passes, a total which was surpassed only by one player. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by CB Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as defensive backs coach for the New York Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in pass defense (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was instrumental in the development of Glenn, who would go on to be a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach in Philadelphia from 1991-94. In 1991, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the college ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). He was a defensive assistant his first year before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure.

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). He then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts, where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

AARON GLENN

SECONDARY

Aaron Glenn brings 20 years of playing, front office and coaching experience to the Saints staff in his second season as an assistant in New Orleans.

In 2016, Glenn tutored a defensive backfield that featured ten different players who started a game and 11 different starting lineup combinations. Due to injuries to initial starting CBs Delvin Breaux and P.J. Williams, newcomers Sterling Moore and B.W. Webb, who were signed just before the start of the season and in Week Two respectively, enjoyed the most productive seasons of their career, with Moore posting 55 tackles (47 solo), two interceptions, a team-leading 14 passes defended and one forced fumble and Webb tallying 30 tackles (25 solo), one interception, 13 passes defended and one special teams stop. He also brought along a trio of rookie defensive backs in S Vonn Bell, who led the secondary and finished second on the team with 98 tackles and CBs Ken Crawley and De'Vante Harris.

From 2014-15, Glenn served as the assistant secondary coach with the Cleveland Browns. In a 2015 campaign where Pro Bowl CB Joe Haden played in only five games due to injuries, Cleveland's secondary was led by veterans in S Donte Whitner and CB Tramon Williams, who led the defensive backfield with 81 and 69 tackles respectively. In 2014, Glenn worked with a group that garnered Pro Bowl honors from S Tashaun Gipson, Haden and Whitner, marking the first time in team history that three defensive backs were selected. The Browns led the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1), completion percentage (57.1) and passes defended (99).

COACHING STAFF

Cleveland finished second in the league with 21 interceptions, the team's highest total since 2008. They also finished ranked fifth in the league in yards per pass attempt (6.44), fifth in red zone defense (46.3) and ninth in points per game (21.1). Cleveland was also the only team to have two players with at least 18 passes defensed, as Haden led the team and finished second in the league with 20, while CB Buster Skrine tied for fourth with 18. Despite missing the final five games, Gipson finished second in the NFL with six interceptions, the most by a Brown since 2010.

Before joining the Browns, Glenn spent two seasons (2012-13) in the New York Jets front office. He served as a college area scout in 2013 after a season as a pro personnel scout.

A first-round pick (12th overall) by the Jets in 1994 out of Texas A&M, Glenn started 176 of his 205 career games during his tenure with New York (1994-2001), Houston (2002-04), Dallas (2005-06), Jacksonville (2007) and New Orleans (2008). A three-time Pro Bowler (1997-98, 2002), he recorded 661 career tackles, 41 interceptions and 167 passes defensed. Glenn scored eight career touchdowns, including six interception returns, a 96-yard kickoff return and a 104-yard return on a missed field goal.

Glenn earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Texas A&M, where he was a two-time All-American, departing as the school's all-time leader in passes defensed in a season (20), season punt-return average (19.9) and punt return yards in a game (131). In 2003, he established the Aaron Glenn Foundation, which supports education and health initiatives for families and children.

CURTIS JOHNSON

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/WIDE RECEIVERS

Curtis Johnson returns to tutor the Saints wide receiving corps in 2017 after having spent the 2016 season as wide receivers coach of the Chicago Bears. This will mark Johnson's second stint on the New Orleans coaching staff, as he mentored Saints wideouts from 2006-11.

Johnson brings with him 33 years coaching experience, including four as head coach at Tulane and 29 seasons in all as a wide receivers coach in the NFL, college and high school.

In 2016, Johnson instructed a Bears wide receiving corps that was hampered by injuries for much of the season, with fifth-year wideout Alshon Jeffery still accumulating 821 receiving yards on 52 receptions (15.8 avg.) despite playing in just 12 games. Cameron Meredith became the first undrafted player to lead the Bears in receiving since 1993, finishing with 66 catches for a club-best 888 yards and four touchdowns.

During Johnson's first six-year stint with the Saints he helped the wide receivers become part of a Saints passing offense that led the NFL in gross passing yards (28,749), completion percentage (67.6) and passing touchdowns (202). The Saints had 42 100-yard receiving performances by wide receivers during those six seasons. The Saints made four playoff appearances, won three division titles and won Super Bowl XLIV following the 2009 campaign while Johnson was with the team. During those six seasons, Johnson oversaw the development of the quartet of Marques Colston, Devery Henderson, Robert Meachem and Lance Moore.

A seventh round selection (252nd overall) of the Saints in the 2006 NFL Draft, Colston made an immediate impact as a rookie by recording 70 receptions for 1,038 yards (14.8 avg.) with eight touchdowns, leading the club in the yardage and scoring grabs. During Johnson's first Saints tenure from 2006-11, Colston ranked eighth in the NFL in receiving yards (6,240), ninth in receptions (449) and seventh in receiving touchdowns (48), while compiling five of his six career 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Colston's 98 receptions in 2007 established a new franchise mark (now second) and his 11 touchdowns that season tied a team record (now tied for second). In 2009, when New Orleans captured Super Bowl XLIV, Colston led the team with 70 grabs for 1,074 yards and tied for the team lead with nine touchdowns. After recording only three grabs in his first two seasons from 2004-05, Henderson caught 201 passes for 3,718 yards with 16 touchdowns in his next six campaigns under Johnson's tutelage, with his 18.5 yards per catch average ranked second in the NFL over that period. A first round pick of the club in 2007, Meachem evolved into another deep threat during Johnson's tenure, recording 141 receptions for 2,269 yards (16.1 avg.) with 23 touchdowns from 2008-11. Originally signed by New Orleans in 2005 after coming into the league earlier that season as an undrafted free agent, Moore finally cracked the Saints active roster and wide receiver rotation for good in 2007 and for the next five seasons made 243 grabs for 1,173 yards with 30 touchdowns.

Entering his eighth season tutoring wideouts in the NFL, few coaches at any level can match the wide receivers that Johnson has helped develop. The group of standouts under his direction while at the University of Miami (Fla.) and a prior college stop at San Diego State includes some of the top wide receivers over the last decade, including NFL first-round picks Andre Johnson, Santana Moss, Reggie Wayne and Yatil Green.

At Miami, Johnson was part of a staff that went to nine bowl games and won the 2001 National Championship. He polished the skills of at least one All-Big East performer each season from 1996-2005, including Johnson - the third overall pick by Houston in 2003 - and Moss, who became the Hurricanes' all-time leader in receiving yardage before making the Pro Bowl for Washington. Wayne departed ranked first in school history in catches and was selected to six Pro Bowls over his 14-year NFL career with Indianapolis.

In his five-year stint at San Diego State (1989-93), Johnson landed some of the school's biggest recruits, including 2000 NFL MVP, Pro Football Hall of Fame member and fellow New Orleans native Marshall Faulk as well as WR Darnay Scott, who completed his eight-year NFL career with 408 grabs and 37 TDs. Each year Johnson was with the Aztecs, the school had an all-conference performer at wide receiver.

Johnson began his coaching career as wide receivers coach for at Lewiston (Idaho) High School from 1984-87 before holding a similar position at the University of Idaho. He spent 1987 and 1988 at the school before becoming receivers coach at San Diego State. His next stop was at Southern Methodist in 1994 before spending 1995 at the University of California.

Johnson attended Idaho and graduated with a degree in Physical Education in 1985. He was born in New Orleans and is a graduate of St. Charles High School.

PLAYING CAREER: Idaho, 1980-83.

COACHING CAREER: Lewiston (Idaho) High School, 1984-86; Idaho, 1987-88; San Diego State, 1989-93; SMU, 1994; California, 1995; Miami (Fla.), 1996-2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-11; Tulane (Head Coach), 2012-15; Chicago Bears, 2016; New Orleans Saints, 2017-.

JOE LOMBARDI

QUARTERBACKS

Joe Lombardi enters his ninth season as a member of the Saints coaching staff 2017 in his second stint in New Orleans. Lombardi, who spent 2014-15 as the offensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, returned to New Orleans after serving on the club's coaching staff from 2007-13. This is his seventh campaign tutoring the quarterbacks.

Under Lombardi's supervision in 2016, Drew Brees enjoyed one of his most productive seasons under center for the Black and Gold, with the Saints signal caller reaching 5,000 passing yards for an NFL-record fifth time while his total (5,208) was the second-highest in his career and the fourth-highest of all-time. Brees also set an NFL single-season record for completions (471) and led or tied for the league lead in passing yardage for an NFL-record seventh time, earning a Pro Bowl berth. In addition to the league-leading completions and yardage totals, he ranked second in completion percentage (70.0%), third in touchdown passes (37) and fifth in passer rating (101.7) and third-down passer rating (107.9).

Brees has thrived under Lombardi's presence during his seven seasons as quarterbacks coach, completing 2,618-of-3,822 passes (68.5%) for 30,031 yards with 230 touchdowns and only 93 interceptions. He has been named to the Pro Bowl in six of the seven seasons. During Lombardi's tenure as his position coach, Brees also carried an NFL-record 54 game streak with at least one touchdown pass from 2009-12. Brees enjoyed his most prolific season in 2011 under Lombardi's supervision, when he completed 468-of-657 passes for what was then an NFL record 5,476 yards with 46 touchdowns and a 110.6 passer rating. As an offensive assistant from 2007-08, he was heavily involved in the preparation of the quarterbacks and passing attack as well, having worked closely with offensive coordinator Pete Carmichael. Lombardi also stepped in for a brief stint as the running backs coach near the end of 2008.

In serving as coordinator of the Lions in 2014, the Detroit offense gained 5,452 total net yards, which was then the eighth-highest total in franchise history. WRs Calvin Johnson (1,077) and Golden Tate (1,331) became only the sixth Lions receiving duo to reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions to five victories when trialing or tied in the fourth quarter or overtime as Detroit finished 11-5 and qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 2011.

Lombardi first arrived in New Orleans in 2007 with extensive coaching experience on both sides of the ball, most recently serving as defensive assistant for the Atlanta Falcons in 2006. While in that role, Lombardi worked with a defensive line that combined for 25.5 sacks.

COACHING STAFF

Bringing game-planning and play-calling experience to his position, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 at Mercyhurst College, while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

In 2001, Lombardi coached tight ends and running backs for the XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen. In 2000, he tutored the defensive line and served as strength & conditioning coordinator at Bucknell University.

He coached both the tight ends and tackles at the Virginia Military Institute in 1999 after opening his coaching career at the University of Dayton, where he was responsible for the defensive line from 1996-98. The Flyers won 20-straight games during his tenure.

Lombardi - the grandson of legendary coach Vince Lombardi - is a 1994 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, where he earned three letters as a tight end and one in lacrosse.

MIKE NOLAN

LINEBACKERS

Mike Nolan enters his first season with the Saints as linebackers coach. A 35-year coaching veteran, Nolan will be entering his 30th year coaching in the NFL, including four seasons as a head coach (San Francisco, 2005-08) and 17 campaigns as a defensive coordinator.

The son of 11-year NFL head coaching veteran Dick Nolan who guided the Saints from 1978-80, Mike Nolan served as linebackers coach of the San Diego Charge-ers in 2015 and garnered impressive performances from a trio of young players at his position group. 2013 Second-round draft pick Manti Te'o led the team with 107 tackles, while rookie Denzel Perryman ranked second on the club with 95 stops, despite starting only nine contests. On the outside, Melvin Ingram led the team and tied for 12th in the NFL with 10.5 sacks.

Nolan has served as coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2012-14), Miami Dolphins (2010-11), Denver Broncos (2009), Baltimore Ravens (2002-04), New York Jets (2000), Washington Redskins (1997-99) and New York Giants (1993-96). In those 17 seasons, the defenses that Nolan's tutored have finished in the Top 10 in opponent points per game eight times. In 2012, the Falcons finished fifth in the NFL in scoring defense (18.7 ppg.), opponent red zone scoring percentage (45.2 pct.), total takeaways (31) and interceptions (20), as they earned the NFC's number one seed in the playoffs and advanced to the NFC Championship. During his two-season stint in Miami, the Dolphins ranked sixth in total defense, seventh in run defense and eighth in pass defense in 2010 and finished third against the run, sixth in scoring and opponent red zone touchdown percentage, seventh in third-down defense and tenth in sacks in 2011. In 2009 in Denver, the Broncos improved in opponent net yards per game to seventh overall, including third in pass defense, after ranking 29th in total defense in 2008.

From 2005-08, Nolan served as head coach in San Francisco, following in the footsteps of his father who coached the 49ers for eight seasons (1968-75) prior to his four-year Saints tenure as an assistant (1977) and head coach (1978-80). The 49ers were one of the NFL's most consistent teams in stopping the run during Nolan's tenure, ranking fourth in the league in opponent yards per carry (3.9) during that period. In 2007, the 49ers selected LB Patrick Willis with the 11th pick in the draft, who would be selected as the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year and as an AP first-team All-Pro, the squad's only rookie. Willis became the first defensive rookie from the 49ers to make the Pro Bowl since Ronnie Lott (1981), finishing with 226 tackles (143 solo), four sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Nolan earned the 49ers head coaching job after a successful stint with the Ravens, which included three seasons (2002-04) as their coordinator. In 2002, he coached one of the league's youngest defenses, yet the Ravens recorded a team-record and AFC-leading 25 interceptions. Over the course of his three seasons as coordinator, the Ravens tied for the league lead in takeaways (106), while ranking fifth in points per game allowed (18.8). Five Baltimore defenders earned a total of nine trips to the Pro Bowl and Nolan instructed back-to-back Associated Press NFL Defensive Players of the Year in LB Ray Lewis (2003) and S Ed Reed (2004). Nolan became a defensive coordinator for the first time in his career in 1993 with the New York Giants after serving as both the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator with the Broncos from 1987-92, a time during which Denver participated in two Super Bowls (XXII and XXIV). The Giants defense allowed a league-low 12.8 points per game in his first season.

Nolan was a three-year starter at safety at the University of Oregon, after initially enrolling and joining the team as a walk-on. After beginning his coaching career at his alma mater in 1981, he then tutored linebackers and defensive backs at Stanford (1982-83) and Rice (1984-85), before coaching linebackers at LSU in 1986 prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks with Denver.

KEVIN O'DEA

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Kevin O'Dea returns for his second year and first full season assisting the Saints special teams units, after serving on the New Orleans coaching staff for the final six weeks of the 2016 campaign, his 31st year coaching and 23rd in the NFL.

From 2014-2015, he was the special teams coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and in 2015, he tutored a unit that ranked fourth across the NFL in punt coverage, limiting opposing teams to 5.2 yards per punt return. Additionally, the Buccaneers averaged 9.9 yards per punt return, the ninth-best mark in the NFL, while returner Bobby Rainey owned the league's seventh-best mark. In 2014, O'Dea oversaw a group that was one of the best in punt coverage in the league, allowing only 5.8 yards per punt return, the second-lowest mark in the NFL, while forcing 26 fair catches, the fifth-most in the league. The Bucs also posted the top field goal block unit in the NFL, holding opponents to a 74% conversion rate (29-of-39), while blocking one field goal.

With Kansas City in 2013, O'Dea helped guide one of the top special teams units in the NFL, recording a league-leading four return touchdowns (two punt, two kick), including Dexter McCluster's two punt return touchdowns, the most in the NFL. O'Dea also helped punter Dustin Colquitt tie for the league lead in punts inside the 20-yard line, while allowing the fourth-lowest punt return average in the NFL.

During O'Dea's stints in Chicago, the Bears had one of the top special teams units in the NFL, including the 2007 team that recorded six return touchdowns (four punt, two kick), the most in a single season in NFL history. O'Dea also helped Devin Hester become one of the top returners in the NFL, earning Pro Bowl and All-Pro berths in 2006-07, when he recorded 12 return touchdowns (seven punt, four kick, one missed field goal), the most ever in consecutive seasons.

In addition to working with Hester, O'Dea has assisted in coaching several other special teams players to Pro Bowls: kick returner Dexter McCluster (Kansas City, 2013); special teamer Corey Graham (Chicago, 2011); kick returner Leon Washington (N.Y. Prior to joining the NFL, O'Dea spent eight years as a collegiate coach. DAN ROUSHAR

OFFENSIVE LINE

A 32-year coaching veteran, including several stints as an offensive coordinator in college, Dan Roushar enters his second season as offensive line coach in his fifth season with the Saints after tutoring running backs and tight ends from 2013-15.

In 2016 under Roushar, the line helped the offense finish first in the NFL in net yards per game (426.0) and second in points per game (29.3). The O-line finished tied for sixth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (27), even though they had to open with six different starting combinations, including three left tackles and three left guards. Behind the blocking, QB Drew Brees set an NFL single-season record in completions (471) and led the NFL in passing yardage (5,208), earning a Pro Bowl selection. The offensive line also paved the way for RB Mark Ingram to surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his career with 1,043 yards and six touchdowns. The offense also produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers.

After tutoring running backs from 2013-14, Roushar became the team's tight ends coach in 2015 and his position group played an integral role in the NFL's second-ranked offense. As a unit, they combined for 101 receptions for 1,021 yards with 11 touchdowns. In his third season in New Orleans and first as the club's featured tight end, Benjamin Watson set career-highs in receptions and receiving yardage and tied a career-best in scoring grabs, when he made 74 grabs for 825 yards (11.1 avg.) and six touchdowns. Josh Hill and Michael Hoomanawanui, acquired early in the season in a trade with New England, combined for an additional five touchdowns.

In 2014, Roushar helped guide a running attack that gained 1,818 yards and improved in league rankings from 25th to 13th. Under Roushar's tutelage, Ingram enjoyed a breakout season as he was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his four-year career, leading New Orleans with 964 rushing yards and nine touchdowns. Roushar also continued to lead Khiry Robinson in his development as he carried 76 times for 362 yards (4.8 avg.) and three touchdowns.

Under Roushar's guidance in 2013, the Saints running backs helped the team finish ranked fourth in the NFL in offense. Pierre Thomas (77) and Darren Sproles (71) became the first running back duo in franchise history to each record at least 70 receptions, as Thomas led the league among running backs and Sproles ranked fourth. Thomas led the team in rushing with 549 yards and finished with 1,062 total yards from scrimmage. Roushar also helped foster impressive development and late season production out of Ingram and Robinson, who were the club's leading rushers in the postseason.

Roushar came to New Orleans following a six-year stint at Michigan State, the final two as offensive coordinator/tight ends coach. In 2012, the Spartans enjoyed a productive campaign running the ball as running back Le'Veon Bell won the Big Ten rushing title with 1,793 yards, the second-highest single-season total in MSU history, as he was selected first-team All-Big Ten and a first-team All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com. The passing offense ranked fourth in the conference. In Roushar's first season as coordinator in 2011, the Spartans averaged 31.0 points per game, ranked third in the conference, setting school records for most points (434) and passing yards (3,535), while finishing second in net yardage (5,466). Prior to his promotion, Roushar served four seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach.

In four seasons coaching the offensive front, Roushar's linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition on eight occasions. In 2010, the Spartans established their running identity early, rushing for more than 200 yards in five of the first six games. In 2009, his unit surrendered only 14 sacks, the fewest amount of any team in the conference. The previous year, the offensive line blocked for the nation's fourth-leading rusher in running back Javon Ringer, while allowing only 24 takedowns. Upon his arrival in East Lansing in 2007, Roushar had to juggle the starting lineup with eight different offensive line combinations, but he led his unit to be one of the most productive in the Big Ten as the Spartans ranked fourth in the conference and 25th in the NCAA in rushing with 198.2 yards per game.

Prior to arriving in East Lansing, Roushar served two seasons as offensive line coach at Cincinnati from 2005-06. A two-year letterman as a quarterback at Northern Illinois, he began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater in 1984 and also spent time as an assistant at Butler (offensive coordinator-1986-92), Rhode Island (1993), Ball State (offensive coordinator-1994) and Illinois (1995-96). Roushar then spent six years as offensive line coach/offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois before returning to Champaign for a two-year stint in 2003, serving as coordinator in his final season with the Illini.

JOEL THOMAS

RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas enters his third season as the Saints running backs coach after 15 years of coaching in the college ranks.

Under Thomas' tutelage in 2016, Mark Ingram enjoyed the best season of his six-year Saints career with the tailback becoming the first Saint to record 1,000 yards rushing in a single season since Deuce McAllister in 2006. Ingram appeared in all 16 games (14 starts) for the second time in his career and accumulated 1,043 yards on 205 attempts (5.1 avg.) with six touchdowns and 319 yards on 46 receptions with four touchdowns. Additionally, Ingram's 1,362 total yards from scrimmage in 2016 was a career-high while his 10 total touchdowns also marked a career-best. His 5.1 yards per carry for the season ranked third in the NFL in yards per carry among rushers with at least 200 carries. Tim Hightower also enjoyed a productive season under Thomas, with his 548 rushing yards marking his most since 2010 and his 200 yards receiving his most since 2009.

In 2015, Thomas tutored Ingram who had a team-best 1,074 total yards from scrimmage, despite missing the last four games with a season-ending shoulder injury. Overall, he carried 166 times for a team-best 769 yards (4.6 avg.) with six touchdowns and set a receiving career-high with 50 receptions for 405 yards. After Ingram was sidelined, Thomas prepared Hightower, who had missed the previous three seasons, into duty and he gained 454 total yards from scrimmage and four touchdowns in the final four contests.

Thomas came to New Orleans following a two-year stint in the same position at the University of Arkansas from 2013-14. In two seasons under his tutelage, Razorbacks running backs Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins both blossomed. In 2014, they were the only pair of FBS teammates to rush for 1,000-plus yards. The duo became just the second pair of Razorbacks to accomplish the feat. Collins became just the second player in school history to surpass 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons and was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2013.

Thomas spent the four previous seasons (2009-12) as running backs coach at Washington, coaching a 1,000 yard rusher in each, and added the title of associate head coach for offense prior to the 2012 campaign. In his last season in Seattle, Thomas tutored All-Pac-12 running back Bishop Sankey, a second round draft pick of the Tennessee Titans in 2014, who ranked third in the Pac-12 and tied for 13th in the NCAA with 16 rushing touchdowns, the second-highest single-season total in school history. Sankey rushed for 1,439 yards, the third-highest single-season total in school history.

Thomas also has experience as running backs coach at Purdue (2006-08), Idaho (2004-05) and Louisville (2002-03).

In 2007, the Boilermakers led the Big Ten in total offense and scoring offense. In 2008, they set a school record for fewest fumbles in a season with 12 and running back Kory Sheets rushed for 1,131 yards to become Purdue's first 1,000 yard rusher in six seasons while posting the fourth-highest single-season rushing total in school history, ending his career second on the school's career rushing list with 3,341 yards. Sheets tied the school's single-season rushing touchdowns record with 16 in 2008 and broke the career record with 48. He was also at Purdue in 2000 and 2001, working as an offensive graduate assistant. In 2000, Saints quarterback Drew Brees led the NCAA in total offense and won the Maxwell Award as the Boilermakers won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

In between stays at Purdue, Thomas served as co-offensive coordinator at Idaho in 2004-05 and as running backs coach at Louisville in 2002-03. In 2003, Louisville averaged 228.2 rushing yards per game to rank 10th in the NCAA with a school-record 5.7 yards per carry average. The 2004 Idaho squad set a school record for completion percentage, and the 2005 team ranked 28th in the country in passing yards per game.

Thomas also gained NFL experience from two training camp internships, serving one with the Saints in 2012 and the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2008.

Thomas lettered at running back at Idaho from 1993-98, was a two-time, first-team All-Big West selection and conference Player of the Year as a senior and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards, 51 rushing touchdowns and 765 rush attempts. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008 and earned his bachelor's degree in public communications in 1998.

NFL CAREER - Few players in the era of NFL free agency can rival the impact that Drew Brees has made on the Saints since arriving in 2006 from the San Diego Chargers - leading the team to victory in Super Bowl XLIV and being named the contest's MVP, earning league Offensive Player of the Year honors after three seasons, Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year and AP Male Athlete of the Year in 2010, being named to the Pro Bowl nine times and shattering league and team passing records. He ranks among the league's elite quarterbacks, becoming the first player in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards in 11-straight campaigns - including an NFL-record five 5,000-yard passing seasons. Brees has also set single-season NFL records since joining the Saints in 300-yard passing games (13, 2011) and completions (471, 2016). His streak of 54 consecutive games with a touchdown pass from 2009-12 shattered a mark that had stood since 1960. He set an NFL single-season record for completions, surpassing his previous record of 468 set in 2011. He now owns the three-highest completion totals in league history and six of the top 10. Led or tied for the league lead in passing yardage for an NFL-record seventh time, while he ranked first in the NFL in completions, passing yardage and attempts, second in completion percentage, third in touchdown passes and fifth in passer rating and third-down passer rating (107.9). 2016 became his ninth-consecutive season with at least 30 touchdowns, extending his NFL record. Brees' record as a starter for the Saints is 101-73 (.580) in the regular season and 6-4 (.600) in the postseason, easily making him the winningest signal-caller in all-time franchise annals. Brees also has thrown for over 300 yards in a league-record 106 games, including 15 contests with over 400, also a league-best. Overall in his 16-year NFL career, he's completed 5,836-of-8,758 passes (66.6%) for 66,111 yards, 465 touchdowns and a 96.3 rating. RAIDERS: 35 SAINTS: 34
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 9/11/16
ATTENDANCE: 73,028 TIME: 4:23

GAME NOTES

In his Saints debut which he started, LB Craig Robertson had a team-high 14 tackles (12 solo) to tie a career-high.

New Orleans outgained Oakland 507-486, but lost the time of possession battle as the Raiders held the ball for 30:25, outrushing New Orleans 167-88.

The 98-yard TD that QB Drew Brees and WR Brandin Cooks connected on was the longest play from scrimmage in franchise history.

In the opener, Oakland scored a TD with 47 seconds left, when a defensive pass interference penalty kept the Raiders on the field. Then QB Derek Carr connected with WR Michael Crabtree on a successful two-point conversion for the 35-34 lead. The Raiders held on when a 61-yard FG attempt by rookie K Wil Lutz went slightly wide left as time expired.

Oakland jumped out to a 10-3 first quarter lead on a FG and a six-yard TD run by RB Latavius Murray. In the second quarter QB Drew Brees responded with a pair of touchdown drives that ended with scoring throws to WRs Willie Snead IV and Brandin Cooks.

Lightning struck again for Brees, Cooks and the Saints in a third quarter drive following a stop by the defense, when starting at the two-yard line, the duo connected on a 98-yard TD, the longest play from scrimmage in franchise history.

After New Orleans extended the lead to 14 again, a 50-yard field goal attempt by Lutz that was wide left instead gave Oakland the ball at their 40 and 43-and 25-yard completions by Carr set up a two-yard TD run by FB Jamize Olawle followed by a failed two-point conversion attempt. The Saints would then garner a field goal to extend the lead back to 27-19.

Raiders rookie RB Jalen Richard then exploded for a 75-yard TD run followed by a successful two-point conversion to tie the score. Saints RB Travaris Cadet took a two-yard pass from Brees into the end zone for a 34-27 lead with 6:07 remaining in the contest, before Carr mounted Oakland's final come-from-behind charge.

GAME NOTES

DE Cameron Jordan and LB Michael Mauti each recorded one sack apiece of Giants QB Eli Manning, with Mauti adding one forced fumble.

WR Willie Snead IV had five receptions for 54 yards, including a fourth quarter, 17-yard touchdown grab to tie the score.

A stout New Orleans defense did not surrender an offensive touchdown in a contest for the first time since a 20-9 win vs. Minnesota on Sept. 21, 2014.

CB DeVante Harris, DE Paul Kruger and LB James Laurinaitis each recorded a fumble recovery.

In New Orleans' visit to MetLife Stadium, the Saints overcame a blocked field goal returned for a touchdown, as the defense forced three turnovers, didn't allow the Giants offense in the end zone and fought to tie the score with under three minutes left. However a spectacular reception by Giants WR Victor Cruz at the New Orleans two-yard line past the two-minute warning, set up the game-winning 23-yard field goal and sent the Saints home at 0-2.

The contest marked the first time New Orleans kept an opposing offense out of the end zone since Week Three of the 2014 season. However, the blocked kick returned for a touchdown by Giants CB Janoris Jenkins and Cruz's catch as well as a defensive pass interference penalty on the final drive were too much to overcome.

The host Giants took the game's first points, when DT Johnathan Hankins blocked a 38-yard FG attempt by K Wil Lutz that was scooped up and returned to the end zone. But Lutz then rebounded and booted a 39-yard kick with 11 seconds left in the half to move within four.

With the Giants getting the ball back to start the second half, the Saints caught a break when a 53-yard attempt by K Josh Brown went wide left. On New York's next drive though at the end of the third quarter, Brown drilled a 39-yard field goal to give the Giants a 10-3 lead. On New Orleans' subsequent possession that carried into the start of the fourth quarter, a 17-yard TD catch by WR Willie Snead IV from QB Drew Brees tied the score.

New Orleans held New York to a 19-yard field goal on the ensuing drive. While the Giants advanced to the one, helped by a 32-yard completion from QB Eli Manning to rookie WR Sterling Shepard, a stingy run defense didn't allow them to punch it in on three straight plays. New Orleans tied the score late in the fourth quarter on the 45-yard kick from Lutz, but New York took advantage of all 2:54 left.

GAME 3 VS. ATLANTA

FALCONS: 45 SAINTS: 32
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 9/26/16
ATTENDANCE: 73,003 TIME: 3:02

GAME NOTES

Rookie WR Michael Thomas scored his first career TD reception on a three-yard grab, the first of a club-rookie record nine on the season.

Drew Brees completed 36-of-54 passes for 376 yards with three TDs.

DT Nick Fairley recorded 1.5 sacks, his first quarterback takedowns of a season where he recorded a career-high 6.5. 2.5 of the 6.5 sacks came on Falcons QB Matt Ryan.

Despite the Monday night contest coming nearly 10 years to the day of the team's triumphant return to the Superdome in 2006 and a 23-3 win over Atlanta, this home kickoff did not go according to plan for the Saints in a 45-32 loss that would drop their record to 0-3.

While New Orleans struck first with a touchdown, the Falcons would tie the score when they took advantage of a fumble on a punt return play that grazed CB De'Vante Harris at the Saints 11-yard line and three plays later RB Tevin Coleman rushed for his first of three touchdowns.

New Orleans tied the score for the last time on the evening on a three-yard touchdown connection between QB Drew Brees and WR Michael Thomas, as Atlanta then scored two straight touchdowns before the bleeding was stopped by a 57-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz as time expired at the half.

Following a six-yard rushing touchdown by Coleman coming out of the half to extend Atlanta's lead to 35-17, Brees led New Orleans on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a three-yard touchdown by FB John Kuhn and was followed with a successful two-point conversion run by RB Mark Ingram.

The New Orleans defense then forced a field goal and would get the ball back with 2:58 remaining in the third quarter, but a 90-yard interception return for a touchdown by rookie LB Deion Jones put Atlanta up 45-25. Brees and Ingram then connected on a five-yard TD, but when New Orleans could not score on their next possession, any hopes of a potential comeback ended.

QUALCOMM STADIUM
SAN DIEGO, CA - 10/2/15
ATTENDANCE: 60,641 TIME: 3:22

GAME NOTES

The victory gave New Orleans an all-time 5-7 record against the Chargers franchise with their third straight win in the series.

QB Drew Brees returned to play at San Diego for the first time since he was a member of the Chargers and completed 23-of-36 passes for 207 yards, engineering his 38th career fourth quarter/overtime comeback.

Rookie S Vonn Bell started and made nine tackles and forced a fourth quarter fumble.

FB John Kuhn scored with a one-yard touchdown run in dramatic fashion with 1:57 left and CB B.W. Webb recorded an interception with 1:18 remaining to seal the win. After the Saints started with a 14-7 lead, the Chargers rallied to take a 34-21 lead in the fourth quarter, before an impressive comeback and late heroics both on offense and defense.

After New Orleans jumped out to the 14-7 lead early with a pair of touchdown passes by QB Drew Brees, San Diego responded with 17 consecutive points, capped by a one-yard touchdown run by RB Melvin Gordon with 13 seconds left in the first half to give the Chargers a 24-14 halftime lead.

New Orleans got on the scoreboard first in the second half when Kuhn scored on a one-yard run as New Orleans entered the fourth quarter trailing 24-21.

However, San Diego extended their lead back to 34-21 in the fourth quarter on another one-yard touchdown run by Gordon and a 47-yard field goal by K Josh Lambo.

New Orleans then had an unsuccessful offensive drive, but on San Diego's first play from scrimmage following a Saints punt, S Vonn Bell, forced Gordon to fumble and it was recovered by DE Darryl Tapp at the San Diego 13-yard line. Following three straight run plays, Brees completed a five-yard touchdown to WR Michael Thomas in the end zone to move New Orleans to within six. Once again, on San Diego's next play from scrimmage, WR Travis Benjamin fumbled a ball that was picked up by LB Nate Stupar at the Chargers 31. Brees then engineered the seven-play, 31-yard drive that set up Kuhn's game-winning run.

GAME NOTES

LB Craig Robertson led the defense with 10 tackles, a pass defensed and a fumble recovery.

QB Drew Brees completed passes to 10 different players in the contest. He also completed 11 of his final 12 passes in the contest. His 465 passing yards rank third in his career and third in franchise history.

The victory was the Saints' first home win over the Panthers since a 31-13 victory on Dec. 8, 2013.

QB Drew Brees led the Saints on an 11-play, 41-yard drive that ate up 2:47 of the clock to set up K Wil Lutz's 52-yard game-winning field goal as time expired.

On the game-winning drive, Brees completed eight-of-nine passes and finished 34-of-49 for a season-high 465 yards and four touchdown passes for a rating of 118.4 in the contest.

Following a nine-yard touchdown pass to rookie WR Michael Thomas, the Saints took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter. The Panthers responded with a 42-yard field goal by K Graham Gano and a 17-yard touchdown pass from QB Cam Newton to WR Devin Funchess. A 33-yard field goal with 10 seconds left in the half by Lutz gave New Orleans a 24-10 lead at intermission. Brees had already passed for 258 yards and two touchdowns.

The Panthers struck midway through the third quarter with Newton completing a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Ed Dickson, but the Saints answered with a 50-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE Coby Fleener.

Carolina scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter, but failed in their chance to tie the score when a Gano extra point attempt went wide right to help the Saints retain a 31-30 lead. Brees responded again on an eight-yard touchdown to TE Josh Hill.

On the following drive, Newton crossed the plane of the end zone for a two-yard touchdown, followed by a successful pass to Funchess for the two-point conversion to tie the score. When New Orleans got the ball back, Brees' efficiency set up Lutz's game-winning field goal.

GAME 6 AT KANSAS CITY

CHIEFS: 27 SAINTS: 21
ARROWHEAD STADIUM
KANSAS CITY, MO. - 10/23/16
ATTENDANCE: 76,282 TIME: 3:05

GAME NOTES

Rookie WR Michael Thomas reached the century mark in receiving yardage for the first time in his career with a career-high 10 receptions for 130 yards.

P Thomas Morstead drilled four punts for 193 yards (48.3 gross and net avg.) with all four pinned inside the Chiefs 20-yard line.

LB Nate Stupar started on the outside for the third consecutive week and led New Orleans with a career-high 11 tackles (seven solo) and one pass defended.

Kansas City took advantage of an unnecessary roughness penalty assessed to DT Nick Fairley from the Saints 49-yard line that put the Chiefs in field goal range and K Cairo Santos drilled a 41-yard field goal with 28 seconds left to hold off a New Orleans rally and beat the Saints 27-21 in a sold-out Arrowhead Stadium.

On New Orleans' first drive after the defense forced a three-and-out, QB Drew Brees hit WR Brandin Cooks for a nine-yard TD with 6:07 left in the first quarter. However, the Chiefs would quickly match it when QB Alex Smith connected with RB Spencer Ware on a 46-yard TD. On New Orleans' next drive, Brees was intercepted by Chiefs S Daniel Sorensen who returned it 48 yards for a TD to give Kansas City a 14-7 lead.

When Kansas City got the ball back again in the second quarter, Smith connected with rookie WR Tyreek Hill on a 38-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 21-7 edge at the intermission.

New Orleans got the ball to start the third quarter and moved back within seven points on the first drive of the second half when Brees found RB Mark Ingram for a three-yard TD. However, Kansas City took advantage of a short kickoff, returning it 19 yards to the Kansas City 37 to start and Santos eventually drilled a 39-yard FG to put the Chiefs up 24-14.

Early in the fourth quarter, New Orleans had advanced to the Kansas City 13-yard line, but on the next play, Ingram fumbled at the seven and the ball was recovered by Chiefs S Marcus Peters to take away a potential score.

New Orleans forced the Chiefs to punt and Brees engineered a 10-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Coleman to reduce the deficit to 24-21 with 2:30 left. But after a failed onside kick attempt, Fairley's costly penalty would cost New Orleans time and yardage and set up a field goal.

GAME NOTES

LB Dannell Ellerbe made his 2016 season debut after missing the first six games with a quad injury and made seven tackles.

The win snapped a three-game losing streak vs. Seattle including two playoff contests.

RB Tim Hightower carried 26 times for 102 yards and WR Brandin Cooks had four catches for 44 yards, including a fourth quarter two-yard touchdown grab that put New Orleans ahead for good.

Behind a standout performance by RB Tim Hightower, the Saints improved to 3-4 in coming back from a 14-3 second quarter deficit. Hightower rushed for 102 yards, pacing New Orleans to win the time of possession battle 36:12-23:48.

It was also an impressive day for the defense and special teams, holding Seattle to 74 rushing yards and recording an interception, while K Wil Lutz drilled four field goals and would capture NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

RB Mark Ingram fumbled midway through the first quarter and the ball was recovered by S Earl Thomas who returned it 34 yards for a TD. The clubs then traded three-and-outs, but New Orleans got on the scoreboard early in the second quarter on a 22-yard Lutz FG. On Seattle's next drive, RB Christine Michael scored on a two-yard TD. However, Lutz then drilled a 53-yard FG to reduce New Orleans' deficit to 14-6.

On the next play from scrimmage after Lutz's second FG, LB Nate Stupar intercepted Seahawks QB Russell Wilson, setting up a drive where QB Drew Brees scored New Orleans' first TD on a one-yard QB sneak and the Saints only trailed by one at halftime.

When Seattle got the ball at the start of the third quarter, they padded their lead to 17-13 with a 44-yard Steven Hauschka FG with Lutz then matching him on a 21-yard kick.

Early in the fourth quarter, Brees tossed a two-yard TD to WR Brandin Cooks to give New Orleans a 22-17 lead. On the next possession, the Saints defense bent, but didn't break, forcing a Hauschka 21-yard FG, that was matched by a 41-yard Lutz kick. The contest ended at 25-20 as the defense successfully kept the Seahawks out of the end zone for their final chance as time expired.

The Saints defense had a season-high four takeaways, an interception and three fumble recoveries.

QB Drew Brees completed 28-of-39 passes for 323 yards with three TDs and a 122.1 rating.

WR Michael Thomas led the team in receiving with five receptions for 73 yards with two TDs.

RB Mark Ingram had 15 carries for 158 yards with a career-long 75-yard TD.

New Orleans rolled up 571 yards, including 248 rushing and the defense came up with a season-high four takeaways to improve to 4-4 at the season's midpoint.

QB Drew Brees completed 28-of-39 passes for 323 yards with five TDs. RB Mark Ingram carried 15 times for 158 yards with a career-long 75-yard touchdown and also added two receptions for 13 yards with one scoring grab for 171 total yards from scrimmage.

After San Francisco got out to a 3-0 lead, the Saints got the ball back and Brees led them down the field on a 10-play, 83-yard drive that ended with a four-yard scoring run by RB Tim Hightower to give the Black and Gold the lead for good.

Four plays later, LB Craig Robertson made his first interception as a Saint and returned it 29 yards to the 49ers 12-yard line. Brees tossed a one-yard scoring pass to WR Michael Thomas at the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter, Brees struck gold with Ingram on a five-yard TD and the runner also had his career-long TD run as the Saints took a 31-20 half-time lead.

On San Francisco's first possession of the third quarter, LB Nate Stupar stopped a potential scoring drive when he dropped 49ers RB Mike Davis and recovered his fumble. On a possession that carried over into the start of the fourth quarter, Thomas made a startling grab in the back of the end zone for New Orleans' final touchdown of the explosive day.

It was a landmark offensive performance for New Orleans, as their 248 yards rushing was the 10th highest total in franchise history and the most by the Saints since 1990.

NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 11/13/16
ATTENDANCE: 73,138 TIME: 3:05

GAME NOTES

The game marked the first time since the NFL rules change in 2015 that an opponent scored a defensive two-point conversion on New Orleans.

QB Drew Brees completed 21-of-29 passes for 303 yards and three touchdowns.

S Kenny Vaccaro had nine tackles, a sack and an interception.

WR Brandin Cooks had three receptions for 98 yards with a 32-yard touchdown.

Denver S Justin Simmons' blocked PAT returned by CB Will Parks for a defensive two point conversion after a 32-yard touchdown connection from QB Drew Brees to WR Brandin Cooks to tie the score with 1:22 left dropped New Orleans to 4-5.

The blocked PAT ruined what would have been a dramatic fourth quarter comeback. After WR Michael Thomas lost two fumbles in the final period that Denver converted into a field goal and touchdown and a 23-17 lead, Brees got the ball back with 2:50 left and engineered a six-play, 75-yard drive culminating with the throw to Cooks in the end zone.

The Saints trailed 10-0 at the end of the second half, but K Wil Lutz booted a 30-yard field goal prior to halftime and at the start of the third quarter, Brees took the ball at the New Orleans 10-yard line and led the Saints 90 yards, ending with a three-yard TD pass to WR Willie Snead IV to tie the score.

On Denver's ensuing possession, S Kenny Vaccaro picked off Denver QB Trevor Siemian at the New Orleans 32-yard line and returned it 30 yards to the Denver 38. Four plays later, Brees and Snead connected on a five-yard touchdown to give the Saints the 17-10 lead.

On Denver's next possession, LB Craig Robertson and rookie DT Sheldon Rankins dropped Siemian and K Brandon McManus' 42-yard field goal attempt went wide left. But on New Orleans' next possession, Denver CB Bradley Roby stripped the ball from Thomas at the Broncos 45, which led to a game-tying touchdown. The two turnovers and blocked PAT returned for a defensive two-point conversion was too much for New Orleans to overcome despite a stingy defensive effort that saw them surrender only 337 total net yards.

GAME 10 AT CAROLINA

PANTHERS: 23 SAINTS: 20
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM
CHARLOTTE, N.C. - 11/17/16
ATTENDANCE: 73,288 TIME: 3:14

GAME NOTES

With RB Mark Ingram sidelined by a concussion, Tim Hightower carried 12 times for 69 yards and caught eight passes for 57 yards to lead the Saints in both rushing and receiving

During the fourth quarter comeback attempt, QB Drew Brees completed 13-of-16 passes for 114 yards with two touchdown passes.

LBs Dannell Ellerbe and Nate Stupar recorded one quarterback takedown apiece.

A 17-point, fourth-quarter rally wasn't enough to bring the Saints back at Bank of America Stadium after falling way behind early to the Panthers, resulting in a series split between the NFC South rivals.

The two clubs traded field goals in the first quarter, with Carolina's set up by a fumble by QB Drew Brees. On New Orleans' second possession of the second quarter Brees was intercepted by Panthers S Kurt Coleman at the New Orleans 46-yard line and he returned it to the 34. The Panthers converted the turnover into points eight plays later when RB Jonathan Stewart scored on a one-yard dive.

Following a second Panthers field goal, New Orleans K Wil Lutz had a 38-yard field goal attempt blocked by DT Vernon Butler and scooped up and returned by LB Luke Kuechly. With the Panthers taking possession at the New Orleans 40, QB Cam Newton drilled a 40-yard pass to WR Ted Ginn Jr. in the end zone to give the Panthers a 20-3 halftime lead.

The Panthers got the ball first in the second half and Newton engineered a 14-play, 51-yard drive that ended with a 42-yard field goal by K Graham Gano. In a quarter that only featured two possessions, New Orleans faced further adversity when RB Mark Ingram had to depart due to a concussion, however, the Saints kept their composure and got a 30-yard Lutz field goal out of the possession.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Saints finally got on track with Brees throwing a nine-yard TD to WR Brandon Coleman. On the Saints' next-to-last possession of the contest, Brees completed seven-of-eight passes with TE Coby Fleener capping the march with an eight-yard TD. On the next drive, Newton completed a third down 18-yard completion to WR Kelvin Benjamin to force the Saints to use up their timeouts.

GAME NOTES

When WR Willie Snead IV tossed a 50-yard touchdown pass to RB Tim Hightower, it marked the first time any player other than QB Drew Brees had a scoring throw since Jamie Martin in the 2006 regular season finale vs. Carolina.

RB Mark Ingram earned the first NFC Offensive Player of the Week honor of his six-year career, carrying 14 times for 146 yards (10.4 avg.) with one touchdown and also adding a 21-yard TD reception.

Returning to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome after a 10-day break between games, a rested and refreshed Saints squad exploded in dominant fashion on both offense and defense in a 49-21 win, climbing close to .500 again and back into the NFC playoff race.

Los Angeles jumped out to an early 14-7 lead that would be short-lived following a 10-yard rushing touchdown by RB Mark Ingram to tie the score. On the next play from scrimmage, rookie DT Sheldon Rankins sacked Rams QB Jared Goff and the ball was recovered by DE Paul Kruger at the Los Angeles 10-yard line.

Midway through the second quarter after the turnover, QB Drew Brees gave the Saints the lead with a one-yard quarterback sneak. Late in the first half, Brees connected with WR Michael Thomas on a six-yard touchdown. Goff then connected with Rams WR Lance Kendricks on a 15-yard TD and Los Angeles went into halftime facing a deficit that was pared to 28-21.

The Saints took command upon getting the ball first in the second half, when they struck in only 2:02 and four plays, ending on a 21-yard touchdown from Brees to Ingram. Once the Rams got the ball, S Kenny Vaccaro picked off Goff and later in the quarter, Brees and Thomas connected on a 21-yard touchdown.

The New Orleans defense continued their dominance in the fourth quarter, as they would stop the Rams on downs and force a three and out on their only other possession, pitching a second half shutout. A player besides Brees also tossed a touchdown for the first time since 2006, when WR Willie Snead IV completed a 50-yard scoring throw to RB Tim Hightower on a flea-flicker play.

GAME NOTES

With QB Drew Brees failing to throw a touchdown, it broke an NFL-record 60-game streak of throwing at least one score in a home contest.

LB Dannel Ellerbe became the first Saint with at least one sack in four-consecutive contests since DE Will Smith did so in five straight games in 2009.

FB John Kuhn had a one-yard rushing TD in the fourth quarter, his fourth of the season, matching a career-high.

With the game much closer than the final score appeared, the Saints battled the Lions for the entire three hour and 10 minute contest, but it came down to the team making fewer mistakes in the Lions that came out on top, as the Saints were unable to overcome three interceptions by QB Drew Brees in a loss that damaged postseason hopes.

Detroit held a 13-3 lead with 56 seconds to go in the first half, but New Orleans got to within seven points right as time expired in the second quarter on a 32-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz.

A pair of field goals in the third quarter pushed the Lions ahead by 13, but a seven-play, 75-yard drive that started with a 31-yard conversion by Brees to TE Coby Fleener and ended with a one-yard touchdown run by FB John Kuhn cut the deficit to 19-13 with 13:32 left to play in the contest.

The ball wouldn't bounce the way of the Saints for long though, as Lions QB Matthew Stafford connected with WR Golden Tate for a 66-yard TD in a play where the wideout eluded several New Orleans defenders, reminiscent of another back-breaking fourth quarter touchdown grab he made in a matchup at Detroit in a meeting on Oct. 19, 2014. Following a failed two-point conversion attempt, Detroit led 25-13 with 11:38 remaining in the contest.

New Orleans was forced to punt on their next possession and following a 19-yard punt that gave the Lions possession at their 46, they would jump ahead 28-13 on a field goal. Brees quickly got the ball back and advanced New Orleans into Detroit territory, but he was picked off by Lions S Tavon Wilson at the 26-yard line, who ran it back to the 44 to put a comeback out of reach for the Black and Gold.

GAME NOTES

The Saints held Tampa Bay to 166 net yards passing, limiting QB Jameis Winston to 16 completions, 184 yards with a long gain of 18 and sacking him twice.

LB Stephone Anthony started in place of an injured Craig Robertson and was an impact defender with 17 tackles (12 solo), a 2016 season-high for the Saints defenders in stops.

WR Willie Snead IV had six-receptions for 85 yards, game-highs in both catches and yardage.

The Saints and Buccaneers fought through a fierce defensive battle for the three hour contest and for the second consecutive week, three interceptions by QB Drew Brees were the nail in the coffin for the Black and Gold who actually outgained the Pewter and Red in the physical NFC South Clash.

Tampa Bay gained a 13-0 lead midway through the second quarter with a pair of field goals by rookie K Roberto Aguayo sandwiching a one-yard touchdown run by RB Doug Martin. The Saints then went on a seven-play, 52-yard drive that was aided by a facemask penalty and hindered by a holding infraction that ended with a 42-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. The Buccaneers then were hurt by a crucial special teams mistake when WR Josh Huff fielded the ensuing kickoff, muffed it and it went out of bounds at the Buccaneers one-yard line. On the next play, DE Paul Kruger stuffed Martin in the end zone for a safety. Lutz then drilled a 34-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to cut New Orleans' deficit to 13-8.

A 22-yard field goal by Lutz with 3:35 remaining in the third quarter cut the deficit to 13-11, however the Buccaneers would match that when they got the ball back on a 26-yard field goal by Aguayo to push the lead back to 16-11.

The ball would then stop bouncing new Orleans' way for the remainder of the contest. When the Saints got the ball back they advanced past midfield, but on a third-and-one play CB Brent Grimes picked off Brees.

The Saints quickly forced a punt, aided by a sack split by S Vonn Bell and DE Cameron Jordan. However Tampa's defense forced the Saints into a three and out. New Orleans would force another Buccaneers punt, getting the ball back at the Saints three at the two-minute warning. However, on fourth and one from the Saints 45, Buccaneers S Keith Tandy ended the Saints hopes with a pick.

GAME 14 AT ARIZONA

SAINTS: 48 CARDINALS: 41
UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM
GLENDALE, AZ. - 12/18/16
ATTENDANCE: 65,072 TIME: 3:21

GAME NOTES

QB Drew Brees completed 37-of-48 passes for 389 yards with four touchdown passes, zero interceptions and a 127.9 passer rating.

Rookie S Vonn Bell led the team with 10 tackles to tie a career-high and also forced a fourth quarter fumble that would help set up New Orleans' game-clinching touchdown.

It was New Orleans' first win at University of Phoenix Stadium.

The Saints recovered from a two-week offensive slump and put together an explosive and balanced performance, as they kept answering the Cardinals in a 48-41 win.

The Cardinals took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when RB Kerwynn Williams took a direct snap out of shotgun for a 49-yard touchdown. New Orleans responded with a 14-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 37-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. New Orleans then took advantage of a fumble by WR Larry Fitzgerald and QB Drew Brees connected with RB Travaris Cadet on a 10-yard touchdown.

A pair of scoring connections for 65 and 45 yards between Brees and WR Brandin Cooks sandwiched by Arizona touchdowns would have the Saints leading 24-20 at the intermission.

After a 39-yard field goal by Lutz, a two-yard touchdown run by Cardinals RB David Johnson tied the game at 27 apiece.

At the start of the fourth quarter, RB Tim Hightower scored the first of his two rushing touchdowns, which came in the final period to put New Orleans back on top. When Arizona got the ball back, Johnson tied the score with a seven-yard run. New Orleans almost immediately answered on a four-yard scoring connection from Brees to WR Michael Thomas.

On Arizona's next possession, New Orleans got the ball back when S Vonn Bell forced Cardinals TE Brittan Golden to fumble and it was recovered by CB Ken Crawley to lead to Hightower's second rushing touchdown to put New Orleans up by 14 points with 3:27 left in the contest.

GAME NOTES

S Jarius Byrd became the first Saint to have two interceptions in a game since 2014.

Head Coach Sean Payton won his 100th career game (regular season and post-season) with the victory.

Brees' third quarter TD pass gave him 35 in 2016, the first time he reached 35 since 2013.

RB Mark Ingram scored two TDs to reach 34 for his career, 10th place on the club's all-time list.

Powered by a powerful running game and a consistent passing attack, the Saints outgained the Buccaneers 417-349 and severely damaged their playoff hopes with a dominant 31-24 win on Christmas Eve.

New Orleans hit the ground running in the first quarter, getting on the scoreboard first on a six-yard TD run by RB Mark Ingram. Tampa Bay would answer in the second quarter on QB Jameis Winston's 12-yard touchdown pass to TE Cameron Brate. New Orleans would get the lead back on a 42-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz. Following a 34-yard kick by Lutz at the end of the second quarter, the Saints went into halftime with a 13-7 lead.

The Buccaneers, who got the ball coming out of halftime, immediately found themselves in bad field position when WR Josh Huff misjudged the kickoff at the four-yard line. Two plays later, S Jarius Byrd intercepted Winston and returned the ball to the Tampa 14. Ingram immediately marched into the end zone. Tampa Bay got within six points on a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive that ended with a three-yard rush by RB Jacquizz Rodgers, but on New Orleans' next drive, Brees connected with RB Travaris Cadet on an 11-yard completion and Ingram ran in the subsequent two-point conversion attempt to extend the lead to 28-14. Late in the quarter, Winston connected with WR Mike Evans on a 34-yard TD to move to within seven.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Lutz would counter with a 21-yard FG. Byrd would contribute to sealing the New Orleans victory with his second pick of the afternoon. Tampa Bay would later move to within seven points on a 35-yard field goal, but Ingram converted a first down on third-and-one on New Orleans' final possession to clinch the win.

JEFF IRELAND

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/
COLLEGE SCOUTING DIRECTOR

Jeff Ireland is in his third season working in the Saints personnel department as the club's assistant general manager/college scouting director.

Hired in January, 2015, Ireland leads a college scouting department that has added a group of young, talented players to the roster. All five selections from the Saints' 2016 draft made contributions as rookies. Defensive tackle Sheldon Rankins, the club's first round draft pick, returned at midseason from a leg injury and posted four sacks in nine contests. New Orleans' two second round selections in 2016 both came from Ohio State and showed impressive immediate production and great promise for the future. Wide receiver Michael Thomas shattered club rookie receiving records, recording 92 catches for 1,137 yards with nine touchdowns. Safety Vonn Bell appeared in all 16 games with 14 starts and posted 98 tackles to lead the secondary and added two forced fumbles. Defensive tackle David Onyemata, selected in the fourth round, in only his fifth year of organized football appeared in all 16 games and contributed as a part of the defensive line rotation with 32 tackles, while running back Daniel Lasco, the team's sixth round selection helped on special teams with seven stops.

With the 13th pick in the 2015 NFL Draft, New Orleans selected Stanford offensive lineman Andrus Peat, possessing the ability to play both guard and tackle. In 2016, he opened eight contests at left guard and seven at left tackle for the NFL's top-ranked offense. Four other picks from the 2015 draft, linebackers Stephone Anthony and Hau'oli Kikaha, defensive tackle Tyeler Davison and cornerbacks Damian Swann and P.J. Williams have all made contributions to their respective position groups.

Prior to joining the Saints, Ireland served as general manager of the Miami Dolphins for six seasons. Inheriting a 1-15 team upon his arrival in 2008, Ireland's first season in Miami, he worked with the club's personnel staff to overhaul the team's roster, efforts that resulted in an 11-5 mark, the AFC East title and a playoff berth, a turnaround unprecedented in NFL annals.

Ireland replaced almost half the roster in 2008, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. One of those newcomers, quarterback Chad Pennington, went on to win the NFL Comeback Player of the Year award and finished tied for second in voting for the league's Most Valuable Player award. Among the new faces Ireland brought on board in 2008 were 11 rookies who made the team, including eight draft choices, three of whom were in the opening day starting lineup. Tackle Jake Long, the team's first pick of the draft went on to earn Pro Bowl honors at the conclusion of the season. Rookie free agent kicker Dan Carpenter led the Dolphins in scoring.

During Ireland's tenure, eight players (Long, Carpenter, defensive lineman Randy Starks, defensive end Cameron Wake, wide receiver Brandon Marshall, guard Richie Incognito, cornerback Brent Grimes and center Mike Pouncey) he acquired through the draft, free agency and trades accounted for a total of 14 Pro Bowl selections, with both Long and Wake earning Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors.

Ireland joined Miami after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, including his last three seasons there as the team's vice president of college and pro scouting. He was originally hired by the Cowboys as the team's national scout. In 2007, Ireland's last season in Dallas, the Cowboys went 13-3 and won the NFC East title. Of the 53 players on the active roster, 38 had been acquired over the three years (2005-07) Ireland served as the team's vice president of scouting. Seven of those players made the Pro Bowl during that time, including outside linebacker DeMarcus Ware (Ireland's first pick as the team's lead scout), 2005 fourth round selections defensive end Chris Canty and running back Marion Barber, 2007 draft choice kicker Nick Folk and two free agent acquisitions that season, guard Leonard Davis and safety Ken Hamlin. 2005 seventh round selection defensive tackle Jay Ratliff would go on to be selected to four Pro Bowls from 2008-11.

Ireland began his tenure with the Cowboys as the team's national scout in 2001, evaluating all of the top collegiate prospects in the country. In his four years in that role, his skill as a talent evaluator helped lead to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers, safety Roy Williams (who was selected five straight years), cornerback Terence Newman, center Andre Gurode and tight end Jason Witten.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ireland spent four years in Kansas City as an area scout. He started his NFL career evaluating talent as an area scout for the National Football Scouting Combine from 1994-1996.

Before becoming a full-time talent evaluator, Ireland helped coach special teams at the University of North Texas from 1992-1993. He graduated from Baylor University, where he handled placekicking duties from 1988-1991, finishing his collegiate career third on the school's all-time scoring list with 213 points. His 45 career field goals, which included a 58-yard effort against Rice in 1991, established a school record for field goals made. Following his senior season, he was selected as the South team's kicker in the 1992 Senior Bowl.

Ireland, an Abilene, Texas native, is the stepson of Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame linebacker/center E.J. Holub and the grandson of former Philadelphia Eagles player and longtime Chicago Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer.

The transition to the front office has been smooth for McAfee, who was known as a positive influence in the locker room during his time in the league. He played in 194 games in his career, including 122 contests in two stints with New Orleans. Picked by the Saints in the sixth round of the 1991 NFL Draft out of Mississippi College, he played for three of the club's five division champion teams and has been affiliated with the team for all five, including the 2009 Super Bowl XLIV Championship campaign.

McAfee first played for the Saints from 1991-1993, leading New Orleans in rushing as a rookie with a career-high 494 yards. That season the Saints won their first NFC West title. Following a seven-game stint with the Arizona Cardinals in 1994, he was signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers later that season. He stayed with the Steelers until 1998, and served as their special teams captain for two years.

McAfee rejoined the Saints in 2000 following a brief stint in Tampa Bay and was voted to the Pro Bowl in 2002 for his stellar special teams play. His final game in New Orleans was the 2006 regular season finale vs. the Carolina Panthers, and one of the final carries of McAfee's career was a six-yard burst for a touchdown in the third quarter.

McAfee played at Mississippi College from 1987-90 and is the school's all-time leader in rushing (4,416), rushing touchdowns (38) and all-purpose yards (6,230). He graduated with a bachelor's degree in mass communications and was inducted into the Division II College Football Hall of Fame in 2011. In 2007, he completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business. He has also completed his Athlete Development Professional Certification at the Wharton School of Business.

VICKY NEUMEYER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL COUNSEL

Vicky Neumeyer was named Senior Vice President/General Counsel of the New Orleans Pelicans, in addition to serving in the same position for the New Orleans Saints, in June, 2012, overseeing all legal aspects of both franchises.

Providing comprehensive legal consultation and services to the clubs' executive staff and assuring compliance in all of the organizations' business endeavors, Neumeyer has been a key member of the Saints' front office since joining the club in 2000 and was promoted to vice president/general counsel in 2006.

ship agreements and broadcast contracts - identifying and analyzing legal issues and presenting comprehensive recommendations.

Previously she served as a judicial clerk for the Supreme Court of Louisiana and was in private practice as a consultant to major corporate clients and law firms. Neumeyer possesses extensive experience in Sports Law, including antitrust, labor and organizational matters. MICHAEL STANFIELD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

Michael Stanfield was named Senior Vice President of Sales for the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans in June, 2012. He oversees all consumer and corporate sales efforts for both clubs.

Entering his 18th season with the Saints and sixth with the Pelicans, Stanfield is responsible for all of the club's sales efforts - directing the sale of season and group tickets and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives to the next level in their field, supervising the lease of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and Smoothie King Center luxury suites, managing food and beverage for both facilities, overseeing the sale of all team merchandise as well as maintaining the clubs' high standards of customer service and retention.

Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket sales and merchandise sales that were the second-biggest growth in the NBA in 2013, followed by additional significant increases.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006 – a feat that has reached 11-straight seasons. In addition the club has leased every Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 campaign. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into one of the NFL's top sellers. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones, and those efforts built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history. In 2014, the team established a single-season regular season attendance record for games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with 584,900 fans attending Saints games.

Stanfield has also helped oversee the institution of a direct mail and email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns by using the club's ever-expanding social and new media platforms. The Saints have also been recognized as one of the top organizations in professional sports for their customer service initiatives and outreach programs, including being named the top professional sports organization by ESPN The Magazine in June, 2010.

In 2007, Stanfield completed the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

In prior work experience, Stanfield was served as director of ticket sales for the Detroit Tigers in 1998 where the Major League Baseball club achieved a then-club record for ticket revenue over a two-year span. He previously served as the director of ticket sales for the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers in 1997. He was a member of the ticket sales staff for the Florida Marlins expansion franchise in 1993.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Chamber, and served a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and the Executive Host Committee for the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. He is currently serving as a participant in the Jefferson Leadership Class of Eight, whose mission is to develop a diverse network of dedicated business and community leaders with the capacity to improve the quality of life for all citizens in Jefferson Parish and the Greater New Orleans region. Stanfield is a graduate of St. Leo University (Fla.). A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups throughout the Gulf South.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game in the Superdome. New Orleans struck first when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a 10-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 102 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Dec. 30, 2000) - Louisiana Superdome (64,900)

The Saints earned the first playoff win in franchise history by jumping ahead to a commanding lead early by scoring 31 unanswered points and weathering a late St. Louis rally at the Superdome. After a St. Louis TD in the first quarter, the Saints scored on five of their next nine possessions. QB Aaron Brooks found WR Robert Wilson for a 12-yard TD pass and K Doug Brien hit a 33-yard FG for a 10-7 lead. Brooks then connected with WR Willie Jackson on TD passes of 10, 49 and 16 yards for a 31-7 lead with 11:57 left. The Rams mounted a comeback as QB Kurt Warner threw two TD passes and ran for another TD to pull St. Louis within three points. The Saints were forced to punt with 1:51 remaining, but the return was muffed by WR Az-Zahir Hakim. FB Brian Milne recovered the loose ball to seal the win. Jackson tied an NFL Playoff record with three TD catches as part of a six-catch, 142-yard day.

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards in leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard TD reception. Philadelphia would add a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS • 39 SAINTS • 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for an TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

Late in the fourth quarter, a missed field goal attempt by New Orleans gave Seattle favorable field position and Lynch ran in a 31-yard TD. QB Drew Brees connected on a nine-yard TD with WR Marques Colston with 26 seconds left, but time ran out on the rally after the Saints recovered the onside kick.

JIM FINKS

PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

BORN: 8/31/27

COLLEGE: TULSA '49

PLAYER: 1949-55

GENERAL MANAGER: 1964-93

SAINTS PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER: 1986-93

YEAR INDUCTED: 1995

On July 29, 1995, an illustrious career as a football administrator was capped when Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Finks' posthumous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of significant accomplishments.

Finks was named president/general manager of the Saints on January 14, 1986 by Owner Tom Benson. As Benson's first major hire since purchasing the team in 1985, Finks brought with him a portfolio of success as a player, coach, scout and administrator that had spanned 37 years in sports.

Much like his prior stints as general manager with the Minnesota Vikings and Chicago Bears, Finks' final stop would also be a success. Hiring head coach Jim Mora and picking impact players in guard/tackle Jim Dombrowski, running backs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and linebacker Pat Swilling in his first draft, a franchise that had not achieved a winning season in 20 years would log a 12-3 mark in 1987, second-best in the NFL and go on to their first-ever playoff game. Finks' presence was apparent and recognized as he was named The Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year.

Under Finks' leadership, the Saints would continue to have success, winning their first division title in 1991 as the NFC West championship flag flew in New Orleans for the first time. However, shortly after his final draft in 1993, where he mined a future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection in tackle William Roaf, Finks would be forced to resign due to a valiant fight with lung cancer that would claim his life on May 8, 1994. Overall from 1986-92, the Saints would win 60 percent of their regular season games and enjoy a streak of six consecutive non-losing years. Over that period, only two other NFL teams had the same accomplishment.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Finks served as general manager of the Chicago Bears from 1974-83, where he set about construction of one of the NFL's most dominating teams. Before his departure, Finks would acquire 19 of the 22 starters for a Bears team that compiled a 15-1 record in 1985 and crushed New England in Super Bowl XX. During his 10-year tenure in Minnesota, Finks hired then-unknown Bud Grant as head coach and the Vikings followed with a string of five NFC Central crowns and two Super Bowl appearances.

The Salem, Ill. native played quarterback at Tulsa University and was a 12th round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1949. Finks played defensive back until 1952, when he became the Steelers' starting quarterback and went to the Pro Bowl. After retiring as an NFL player following the 1955 season, he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before beginning his career as an administrator as the general manager of Calgary of the Canadian Football League in 1958.

One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. He became the first Saint to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Pahokee, Fla. native had an outstanding college career at Pittsburgh and was picked in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft. Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225 during 15 NFL seasons, 13 of which were spent with the Saints. With 115 as a Saint, he is the club's all-time leader. Jackson led the club in takedowns six times. He missed only two games out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

Jackson finished his career with 128 sacks, (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the third-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning campaign in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson would close out his NFL career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996 and his number 57 jersey was raised to the rafters of the Superdome. He was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1997 and to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

One of the most accomplished tackles in National Football League history, William Roaf was the anchor of the Saints offensive line for nine seasons. Coming out of Louisiana Tech in 1993, Roaf was picked by the Saints with the eighth overall choice in the 1993 NFL Draft.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native immediately was inserted by head coach Jim Mora into the starting lineup at right tackle, where he would start every contest and was selected to several All-Rookie teams. The 6-5, 312-pounder moved to the left side in his second season where he was named a Pro Bowl starter and Associated Press first-team All-Pro, which would begin a 12-year stretch as one of the most dominant left tackles in NFL history.

During his nine seasons with the Saints, Roaf was named to the Pro Bowl seven consecutive times (1994-2000), the second-most appearances ever by a Saint. Following a trade to the Kansas City Chiefs in 2002, he would be selected four more times, totaling 11 total selections, tied for the most nominations by a tackle in league history with Anthony Munoz and Jonathan Ogden. He also was an eight-time AP All-Pro selection, with four selections from each club. Overall, Roaf started all 189 regular season games and three postseason contests he appeared in for the Saints and Chiefs.

Roaf received one of football's highest honors as he was named to the NFL's All-Decade teams of the 1990's and 2000's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. He was a first-team selection for the 1990's squad and a second-team choice on the 2000's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All-Decade rosters. Additionally, Roaf was named to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2008 and is a member of the Louisiana and Arkansas Sports Hall of Fames. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor. In 2014 he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

MORTEN ANDERSON

One of the most decorated kickers in NFL history, Andersen became only the second exclusive placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The NFL's all-time scoring leader played in an NFL record 382 games during his 25-year career with five teams.

The Copenhagen, Denmark native was the Saints scoring weapon for 13 seasons after being selected by New Orleans in the 1982 NFL Draft in the fourth round (86th overall) out of Michigan State. During his Saints career, Andersen was named to the Pro Bowl four consecutive times and six-times overall (1985-88, 1990, 1992) and was named a first team AP All-Pro selection five times (1985-88, 1992). He finished his Saints career as the club's all-time leader in scoring with 1,318 points, in games played with 196 appearances, in seasons played with 13, field goals made 302 and 25 consecutive field goals made. Andersen went on to play eight seasons for the Falcons (1995-2000, 2006-07) becoming Atlanta's all-time scoring leader, earning Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro selections in 1995. In the 1999 NFC Championship game, he made a game-winning kick in overtime to beat Minnesota 30-27. Andersen spent the 2001 season with the Giants, the 2002-03 campaigns with the Chiefs and the 2004 season with the Vikings.

Andersen's illustrious career would break almost every NFL kicking and scoring record. In his 25 seasons, he became the NFL's all-time leader in scoring with 2,544 points, in games played with 382 appearances, in field goals made with 565, achieved NFL records with 22 seasons with 90+ points, scored in an NFL record 360 straight games. The seven-time Pro Bowler and six-time All-Pro hit 22 game winning kicks in the final two-minutes or less, with seven of them taking place in overtime.

Andersen received one of the greatest honors in football as he was named to the NFL's All Decade teams of the 1980's and 1990's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. The "Great Dane" was named a first-team selection for both the 1980's team and 1990's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All Decade teams. Andersen is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame (2009), the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame (2011), the Saints Ring of Honor (2015) and the club's All-50th team (2016).

NFL DRAFT HISTORY

1967 Expansion Draft

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.

Mercedes-Benz Superdome

The Mercedes-Benz Superdome, home of the Saints, is one of the nation's premier sports and entertainment venues. Originally constructed in 1975, the 42-year old building has continued to serve as one of the nation's top facilities since a $336 million renovation of the building that was completed in 2011, most recently hosting Super Bowl XLVII, the 2012 NCAA Men's Final Four and the 2012 BCS College Football National Championship Game.

Since the Mercedes-Benz Superdome opened in 1975 (originally the Louisiana Superdome until 2011), it's served as the home of the Saints, sold out on a season ticket basis since the club returned to the facility in 2006 following a one-year hiatus due to Hurricane Katrina. The stadium's also the site of two college bowl games and also hosts world class concerts and other events that keep it busy year round.

To cap off the stadium's rebirth, the facility was renamed the "Mercedes-Benz Superdome" in 2011 after reaching a 10-year comprehensive naming rights and sponsorship agreement with Mercedes-Benz USA.

Since the start of the facility's renovation in 2006, counting preseason and playoff games, the Saints have played to 111 consecutive sellouts. They set a team record for attendance inside the stadium in 2014 with 584,900 fans during the regular season, an average of 73,112 per game. The Saints' largest crowd in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome occurred on November 24, 2014, when 73,373 fans packed the stadium for a Monday Night Football matchup against the Baltimore Ravens.

In addition to the Saints, Super Bowls and other championship sporting events have been a prominent part of the history of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. No other facility can match the seven Super Bowls played inside the stadium following Super Bowl XLVII, played on February 3, 2013. The stadium has also played host to five NCAA men's basketball Final Fours and three BCS College Football Championship games hosted by the Sugar Bowl and the 2014 NCAA College Football Playoff semifinal.

Ground was broken on the Superdome on August 11, 1971. The facilities opened its doors on August 3, 1975 and the first football game was played on August 9 when the Saints hosted the Houston Oilers in a preseason contest. After being inoperative for a year due to damage sustained during Hurricane Katrina, the stadium reopened to a nationally televised audience on September 25, 2006 when the Saints defeated the Atlanta Falcons 23-3.

Almost immediately after the Saints defeated the Minnesota Vikings 31-28 in overtime in the NFC Championship on January 24, 2010 to advance to the Super Bowl for the first time, the stadium underwent its most comprehensive enhancement and renovations over an 18-month period. Among the upgrades were the addition of 15 luxury suites to increase the building's number to 152, widened concourses and a revamped plaza level moving patrons closer to the action, adding 3,400 lower bowl seats, renovation of four club lounges and the construction of two field level bunker club lounges, Wi-Fi throughout the stadium's campus and a brand-new team store. Outside of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, a new exterior skin with bronze panels was created, flanked by the addition of "Mercedes-Benz Superdome" signage on the roof. A new exterior lighting system has the ability of utilizing every color of the rainbow to showcase various designs and messages in the evening, which can be seen from miles away. In 2016, the facility debuted two new state-of-the-art LED video boards.

As part of a long-term lease agreement between the Saints and the State of Louisiana through 2025 which resulted in these stadium upgrades, Saints Owner Tom Benson and the State of Louisiana have also co-developed a state-of-the-art 121,000 square foot entertainment zone called Champions Square presented by Verizon, which first opened in 2010. The fan entertainment area operates before and after Saints games and features a large music stage, a 32 x 18 foot LED video board, a state-of-the-art sound system, special lighting and multiple food vendors to create a tailgate environment for fans. It can accommodate more than 9,000 people. In addition to the food available from a group of restaurants that celebrate New Orleans' rich culinary heritage, there is also an ultra-modern lounge, club XLIV, which provides a luxurious experience for fans and is available year round for private rental.
