TITANS EXECUTIVES

K.S. "BUD" ADAMS, JR. Founder, Owner, Chairman of the Board, President and CEO

Entering his 52nd year as Founder, Owner, Chairman of the Board, President and CEO of the Titans/Oilers franchise, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. is an enduring figure in the NFL. As one of the original team owners in the American Football League, he has guided his franchise to new heights since relocating to Nashville in 1997, posting six playoff appearances, including an AFC Championship (1999), AFC Central title (2000), two AFC South titles (2002 & 2008), AFC Championship appearance (2002) and Wild Card teams in 2003 and 2007. He is one of only four current NFL owners to reach the 350-win plateau – Adams, Ralph Wilson (Buffalo), Dan Rooney (Pittsburgh) and Al Davis (Oakland/Los Angeles). Consistently fielding winning teams, the franchise has earned 21 playoff appearances in 51 seasons, a total that ranks sixth among NFL teams since 1960.

A native of Bartlesville, Okla., Adams' interest in sports was first displayed while at Culver Military Academy where he earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. Upon graduation from Culver in 1940, Adams attended Menlo College (California), lettering in both rugby and football. Adams then transferred to the engineering school at the University of Kansas where he also lettered in football for the Jayhawks. During his days at KU, Adams met his future wife Nancy Neville and began his loyal affiliation with Sigma Chi Fraternity.

In 1942, while still in school at KU, Adams joined the U.S. Naval Reserve. In July 1943, he was called to active duty in the Navy's V-12 college program, which allowed him to continue in school. In early 1944, he received orders to report to Midshipman Officer Specialty School at Notre Dame where he earned his Navy ensign commission in an accelerated 60-day program. He was sent overseas and was assigned to a PAC-Fleet carrier unit, where he served as an aviation engineering officer. He returned to the U.S. in December 1945. Lt. j.g. Adams served as an aide in the U.S. Navy's Congressional Liaison Office in Washington, D.C. prior to his discharge in 1946.

Adams parlayed a 1946 chance stop in Houston, resulting from fog that grounded his plane, into a highly successful and diversified business empire which ranks him among the most prominent businessmen in the country.

In 1946, Adams started ADA Oil Company, which was a forerunner of the publicly-held American Stock Exchange-listed Adams Resources & Energy, Inc. (AE), an energy company engaged in the business of marketing crude oil, natural gas and petroleum products; tank truck transportation of liquid chemicals; and oil and gas exploration and production. Adams' other business interests include extensive farming and ranching in California and Texas, cattle feeding, real estate, automobile dealerships and leasing. He has been a longtime collector of Western art and Native American artifacts.

During his early business career, Adams, a year-round sports fan, was an avid sponsor of amateur and AAU teams in basketball and softball. His ADA Oilers were a perennial power in the National Industrial Basketball League in the '50s, capturing third place in the national AAU tournament in 1956. His interest in sports was further evidenced by past ownership participation in professional baseball, basketball and boxing.

Football history was made in Adams' office in Houston on Aug. 3, 1959, where he and Lamar Hunt held a press conference to announce the formation of the new American Football League, which would begin playing in 1960. Hunt would have a team in Dallas, Adams would have a team in Houston, and other teams would be forthcoming.

In his fifth decade as founder, owner, chairman, president and CEO of the Tennessee Titans (formerly Houston Oilers and Tennessee Oilers), the hardworking and aggressive Adams has made professional football history numerous times. In 1968, Adams' Oilers became the first AFL/NFL team to play its home games indoors by moving into Houston's Astrodome. A team rich in tradition and pride, the Oilers were the dominant team in the American Football League during the 10-year era (1960-69), playing in the championship game four times (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967) - and winning twice consecutively (1960, 1961); earning four AFL Eastern Division Championships (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967); and making the playoffs five years out of 10 (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967, 1969). In 1970, the AFL merged into the expanded NFL, and Adams' teams made the playoffs 16 times (1978, 1979, 1980, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2007, 2008). In fact, the Oilers' streak of seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93) was the longest streak in the NFL during that time span. In 2008, the franchise posted the best record in the NFL (13-3), while capturing its fifth division title and second AFC South crown (2002) after winning the AFC Central division in 1991, 1993 and 2000.

The Houston Oilers played their final season in 1996 at the Houston Astrodome. In 1997, Adams led the National Football League into the Mid-South region, the last untapped area without a major professional sport. That feat allowed his team to be the first NFL franchise to call "the Volunteer State" home. During construction of the stadium in Nashville, the Tennessee Oilers played the 1997 season at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, and the 1998 season at Vanderbilt Stadium in Nashville.

On July 29, 1998, Adams announced that the Oilers' name would be changed beginning with the 1999 season. The Oilers' name was retired by the NFL – a first in league history – allowing the Tennessee franchise to retain the team's winning tradition, and launching a new era in the Mid-South.

The Tennessee Titans made their debut in 1999. In Greek mythology, Titans were men of strength and power. The Titan Prometheus brought fire to man, and the new Tennessee Titans brought fire to the football fans in the Mid-South during a very memorable inaugural season, unveiling a new name, stadium, training facility, logo, uniform and colors. Adams personally selected T-Rac as the team's new mascot.

In 12 seasons as the Titans, the franchise has won the American Football Conference Championship for the 1999 season (culminating in a trip to Super Bowl XXXIV in Atlanta, where the Titans were defeated by the Rams in one of the most exciting games in Super Bowl history), captured the AFC Central Division Championship (2000) and AFC South Division Championships (2002, 2008), built an enormous home field advantage (60-36 record at home) and the loyalty of millions of fans across the nation and throughout the world. The popularity of the Titans has translated into 124 consecutive sell-outs at LP Field (through 2010).

During Adams' illustrious career, 67 of his players have been Pro Bowl selections, including one AFL Most Valuable Player, two NFL MVP's and five offensive or defensive Rookies of the Year. Also, eight of Adams' players, including Bruce Matthews in 2007, have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. In each of the past five seasons, Adams was nominated for the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a special contributor. In recognition of the 40th season of the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans organization, Adams created an official team Hall of Fame that features players and staff from the past, while creating a special place for Titans stars of the future to be recognized.

Adams is currently a working member on several prominent NFL committees, including the NFL's Finance, Hall of Fame, Legislative and Audit Committees; and he is a Trustee for the NFL Trust. Very active in national, state and local programs, Adams is on the Board of Directors of the Cherokee Indian National Historical Society; the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio; the Board of Directors of the Boy Scouts of America - Sam Houston Area Council; and a Lifetime Director of The Hundred Club in Houston. He is a Governor Emeritus of the Sigma Chi Fraternity Foundation; an Emeritus Trustee of the Culver Educational Foundation; and a Lifetime Director of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. In Tennessee, he is on the Board of Directors of the Middle Tennessee Council of the Boy Scouts of America; a member of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, and on the Board of Trust of the 100 Club of Nashville.

Adams has received numerous awards through the years. This past Spring, Adams was honored with the Lifetime Humanitarian Award by the T.J. Martell Foundation. In February 2010, he was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 2008, he was awarded the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football by the Committee of 101. The award honors those of visionary leadership who have helped the NFL reach preeminent status and was given jointly to the "Foolish Club," the original founders of the AFL. Also in 2008, Adams and his wife, Nancy, were inducted into Baptist Hospital's Seton Society for excellence in their profession and service to the hospital. In October 2006, he was inducted into the Menlo College Athletic Hall of Fame. In February 2006, he was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, becoming the first member of the organization to enter the state hall. In June 2005, he was given the Jack Smith Leadership Award recognizing his West Point Buick dealership in Houston as Dealer of the Year. Tennessee Governor Phil Bredesen appointed him Colonel Aide de Camp for the State of Tennessee in October 2004. The Tennessee General Assembly honored him and the Titans at the State Capitol in March 2001. He was awarded the Community Spirit Award by the Nashville Sports Council at the Third Annual American General Dinner of Champions in February 2001; was honored by the Cherokee National Historical Society at a dinner at the Gilcrease Museum in Tulsa, Okla., in September 2000; was honored at Tennessee State University in August 2000; was the recipient of the Lamar Hunt Outstanding Pro Football Executive Award for the year 2000 from the All-American Football Foundation; and in March 2000, he received the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's Silver Hope Chest Award in Nashville. In 1997, he was honored by Sigma Chi Fraternity with a formal portrait and bust on permanent display in the foyer and museum of their Evanston, Ill., headquarters. He was inducted into Culver Academy's Athletic Hall of Fame in the inaugural class in 1994. In 1991, he was given the Order of Constantine from Sigma Chi, which is the highest honor that fraternity can bestow. In 1990, he was given Sigma Chi Foundation's Semi-Centennial Award.

Other noteworthy honors bestowed upon Adams in the past have included the 1988 prestigious "Golden Buckle Award" from the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau; and the 1987 Distinguished American Award, presented jointly by the Houston Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Houston Athletic Committee (Chamber of Commerce). He was named 1983 "King Capon" by Bill Williams' Annual Capon Charity Dinner, Inc.; 1981 "Man of the Year" by Culver Military Academy; 1981 "Outstanding Chief Executive Officer" by Financial World Magazine; 1980 "Distinguished Alumnus" by California Community and Junior College Association; 1969 "Westerner of the Year" by the Houston Farm and Ranch Club; 1963 "Significant Sig" by Sigma Chi Fraternity; 1961 "Mr. Sportsman" by the Interfaith Charity Group; and 1960 "Houston Salesman of the Year" by the Houston Sales Association.

Adams and his wife Nancy were married for 62 years before her passing in February of 2009. They raised two daughters, Susie Smith and Amy Strunk, and a son, Kenneth S. Adams III, who is deceased. Adams has seven grandchildren.

ADAMS IN THE COMMUNITY

Football fans in the Mid-South applauded the relocation of the Titans to Tennessee in 1997, but local charities should raise a cheer as well. Since the Titans moved to Tennessee, local charities have seen approximately $19.5 million flow into their organizations as a direct result of the Titans and the NFL. The great majority of the money and gifts have come from Mr. Adams and the Tennessee Titans Foundation.

In recognition of his many charitable endeavors, the Nashville Sports Council presented the "2000 Community Spirit Award" to Adams at their annual Dinner of Champions on Feb. 1, 2000. The award was given for Adams' "countless charitable contributions that helped so many in the Metro Nashville community during 1999."

Mr. and Mrs. Adams established the Tennessee Titans Foundation in 1999 with an initial gift of $500,000. The Foundation offers financial support and other resources to non-profit organizations. The largest fundraiser for the Titans Foundation is the annual Titans Charity Golf Classic, which has generated in excess of $1.5 million in 12 events.

The Titans license plate has been a great success as fans can show support for the team on their vehicle. In eight years, the Titans specialty plate has generated over $2.1 million dollars for Tennessee charities through the Titans Foundation. In addition to the Tennessee Arts Commission, the following 10 organizations receive equal shares from the proceeds of the plate sales:

- Baptist Hospital Maternity/Birthing Center
- Boys & Girls Clubs of Tennessee
- Boy Scouts of Tennessee
- Camp Discovery
- Fisk University Scholarship Fund
- Girl Scouts of Tennessee
- Jason Foundation
- St. Jude's Children Research Hospital
- Tenn. St. University Scholarship Fund
- Vanderbilt Children's Hospital

Adams was an early responder to the historic flooding that struck the Middle Tennessee area in May of 2010. He teamed up with the NFL and NFLPA to donate $400,000 for disaster relief that was split between the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee and the American Red Cross. In 2009, he donated $500,000 to the Baptist Hospital Foundation (Nashville) which was designated for the hospital's Obstetrics expansion project and resulted in the "Bud and Nancy Adams and Tennessee Titans Family Waiting Area," and now brings the total to $675,000 given to Baptist Hospital.

The Titans contributed more than $5 million over the last 13 years (1999-2010) to the NFL's Youth Football Fund, and over $1.6 million has been allocated within the Titans' market. The fund improves youth football programs and facilities worldwide. Locally, the fund is responsible for improving 14 area fields, including 12 Metro Nashville schools and two in Dickson County, Tenn.

Youth football is also being addressed through the Titans sponsorship of the TSSAA's Titans Mr. Football Awards, which honor the best high school players from the state each year.

Over the last 13 years (1999-2010), $6.8 million has been raised for approximately 155 charitable organizations through volunteers working in LP Field concession booths. The money volunteers would have been paid instead went to their favorite charities, all of which benefited from Titans home games being played.

Adams initiated the "Titans Join the Team Scholarship Program" that ran from 2005-07. The program rewarded high school athletes throughout the state of Tennessee with scholarships for community service. The program generated over $500,000 in scholarship money and 30,000 service hours by students in communities throughout Tennessee.

The Titans also worked with AmSouth and Channel 5 in co-sponsoring "America's Fund" which raised $664,000, including a $75,000 personal gift from Mr. and Mrs. Adams and $25,000 from the Titans organization, for victims of the Sept. 11 tragedies.

Adams' gifts have not been limited to cash donations. In January 2000, he gave the "trip of a lifetime" to Super Bowl XXXIV in Atlanta to 40 Nashville teenagers and 10 chaperones that were chosen from six local charities. "Bud's Kids" were treated to 50-yard-line seats and a three-night stay at the Titans' team hotel and a trip home on the team's 747-charter airplane.

Adams donated Super Bowl tickets to the Nashville Red Cross during a time when their available blood supply was at a critically low stage. Blood donors were eligible to win two Super Bowl tickets, and the "Super Bowl Blood Drive" resulted in 3,549 pints of blood, one of the most successful drives in the history of Nashville.

Adams donated a pair of Super Bowl tickets to be raffled off to help pay medical expenses for Kaia Jergenson, a member of the David Lipscomb University women's basketball team, who lost her legs due to bacterial meningitis.

The team's historic 1999 Super Bowl season saw Adams get heavily involved in area schools with three unique programs. He established a state-wide art contest that spotlighted the importance of art in education and also added some Tennessee artistic flair to LP Field.

The art contest was open to high school students (grades 9-12) and resulted in 150 entries that hung in the suites at the stadium. One winner from each grade won $1,000 with runners-up in each grade winning $750 each. Adams rewarded area sixth, seventh and eighth grade students for their hard work by donating 3,500 pairs of tickets to the inaugural preseason game at LP Field versus the Atlanta Falcons.

Adams and his late wife Nancy have given generously to many charitable organizations over the years. After Tropical Storm Allison devastated the Houston area in June 2001 with more than 30 inches of rain, Adams contributed $100,000 to the "Spirit of Texas Fund" established by the Red Cross to aid flood victims. Houston Texans owner Bob McNair and NFL Charities also contributed $100,000 each for a combined gift of $300,000 to the fund.

In 1998, Mr. and Mrs. Adams teamed with NFL Charities to donate $200,000 to help families in East Nashville following a devastating tornado. He purchased more than 500 copies of "Tennessee: A History" and presented them to seventh grade history classes at public schools across the state. Wilma Dykeman was the author of the book and was a member of the Titans Advisory Board of Directors that aided Adams in selecting the new name and logo for the franchise.

Adams spearheaded the drive for construction and operation of the original Ronald McDonald House in Houston. The team also hosted a bi-annual fundraising gala from 1978-94, which raised more than $3.5 million to support, operate and provide the permanent endowment of that Ronald McDonald House.

ADAMS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since the Titans moved to Tennessee, local charities have seen approximately $19.5 million dollars flow into their organizations as a direct result of the Titans and the NFL:

- More than $2.1 million to statewide charities through Titans License Plate program
- $1.6 million spent for area youth football efforts within the Titans' market, including upgrades to 14 youth football fields in both Nashville and Dickson County, Tenn.
- $760,000 in gifts to the various charities in the greater Memphis area (1997 and 1998)
- $675,000 to the Baptist Hospital Foundation

DON MACLACHLAN EVP of Administration and Facilities

Don MacLachlan is in his 21st season with the Titans and his 14th as Executive Vice President. He is responsible for all non-football operations with the organization, including marketing, corporate sales, ticketing, community relations, media relations, broadcasting, is president of Tennessee Titans Entertainment, Inc. and oversees LP Field and Baptist Sports Park.

He plays an integral role in securing team sponsorships and corporate relationships, while interfacing with the Titans' radio and broadcast partners. MacLachlan's efforts have created an excitement surrounding the team, built a fun and festive experience for fans at home games, and worked hard to link the organization with the greater Nashville community and the entire Mid-South region on a number of different levels.

MacLachlan's labors helped launch a successful campaign in 1999 that increased the team's recognition throughout the region. Under his leadership, the club has sold out a franchise-record 124 consecutive home games (through 2010). For the 12th consecutive season in 2010 the team drew over 500,000 fans, a mark that was never touched for the franchise's first 39 years. The team's radio network is comprised of over 70 stations in the Mid-South and ranks as one of the largest in the league. In addition, MacLachlan helped oversee the club's move to Nashville in 1997.

The Detroit, Mich., native started his tenure with the Houston Oilers in March 1991, as Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting. He was elevated to Senior Vice President in 1994 and was promoted to Executive Vice President of Marketing, Broadcasting and Ticketing in 1997. MacLachlan oversaw marketing, media, community relations, and the ticket office while in Houston. He also served as the liaison between both the radio and television rights-holders. MacLachlan administered off the field operations in both Memphis and Nashville during the club's first season in Tennessee in 1997.

MacLachlan began his career in 1978 in the athletic department at Northwestern University, where he worked for 13 years. He first served as both Assistant Sports Information Director and Golf Coach. In 1981, MacLachlan was named Athletic Ticket Manager, and he was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 1985. MacLachlan was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1988 and remained in that role until joining the Oilers.

MacLachlan currently serves on the board for the Nashville Sports Council, Music City Bowl and the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

A 1978 graduate of the University of Michigan, Don and his wife Kathy are parents of two daughters: Shannon and Kelly.

MIKE REINFELDT EVP and General Manager

Mike Reinfeldt enters his 31st NFL season, fifth as Titans Executive Vice President/General Manager and 13th with the Oilers/Titans franchise. Reinfeldt's first tenure with the team was from 1976-83 as an All-Pro safety. He re-joined the franchise in 2007, after spending seven years with the Seattle Seahawks.

Reinfeldt has built an impressive resume during his career in sports, gaining 25 years of experience as a front office executive and another nine as an NFL player. In his 19 years as an NFL executive split between Tennessee, Seattle and Green Bay, the teams he was associated with have won a combined seven division titles, made 12 playoff appearances, four NFC Championship game appearances, three Super Bowl appearances, captured one world title (1996), amassed 14 winning seasons and tallied 179 regular season wins.

This past offseason, Reinfeldt was heavily involved in the process to identify the Titans new head coach which resulted in the hiring of Mike Munchak.

In his first four years with the Titans he has shown the ability to build a team through the draft, free agency and young talent retention. In free agency, key players he added to the roster include defensive end Jason Babin, wide receivers Justin Gage and Nate Washington, guard Jake Scott, linebacker Will Witherspoon, tight end Alge Crumpler, cornerback Nick Harper and defensive tackle Jovan Haye.

From a draft standpoint, the team has continued to see an influx of talent arrive. Running back Chris Johnson, the 2008 first round selection, and safety Michael Griffin, the 2007 first round selection, have both been selected to multiple Pro Bowls. Returner/wide receiver Marc Mariani joined that group last year earning a selection to the Pro Bowl as a rookie. In 2009, Johnson was named AP Offensive Player of the Year and produced a 2,000-yard rushing season. 2009 first-round draft pick Kenny Britt led the Titans in receiving yards in each of his first two years in the league, while becoming the first rookie to lead the team in receiving since 1995 (Chris Sanders).

During his tenure, Gage, cornerback Cortland Finnegan, fullback Ahmad Hall, defensive tackle Tony Brown, guard Eugene Amano, offensive tackles Michael Roos and David Stewart, kicker Rob Bironas, safety Vincent Fuller, punter Brett Kern and quarterback Kerry Collins each signed long-term deals that add to the stability of the roster.

In Seattle, Reinfeldt last held the title of Vice President of Football Administration and was responsible for player contract negotiations, salary cap management, player evaluations and numerous aspects of the day-to-day football operations. In eight seasons at Green Bay, he served a number of roles, including Chief Financial Officer for three years (1991-93) and VP of Administration from 1994-98. While with the Packers and under his financial leadership, the team's cash reserves went from $4.5 million in 1991 to more than $50 million in 1998 and improved in revenues from 23rd in 1993 to ninth in 1997. Additionally, Reinfeldt was instrumental in bringing general manager Ron Wolf to the Packers in 1991. When Mike Holmgren left the Packers for Seattle, he handpicked Reinfeldt to join him with the Seahawks with the title of Senior Vice President (1999-03).

Reinfeldt was a safety for the Oilers franchise from 1976-83, earning Pro Bowl, All-Pro and AFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of 101) honors in 1979. He ranks seventh on the club's career interception list with 26 and matched the team record for interceptions in a season with 12 in 1979, which also led the NFL that season. Reinfeldt started 102 consecutive games as the franchise reached the height of the "Luv Ya Blue" era and the team advanced to two AFC Championship games (1978 and 1979). He entered the NFL in 1975, as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, originally signing with the Oakland Raiders, spending one season on injured reserve and playing in two games in 1976, before being waived and signed by the Oilers.

Before joining the Packers' front office in 1991, Reinfeldt spent three years (1988-90) at the University of Southern California as the associate athletic director and spent another three years (1985-88) with the Los Angeles Raiders as the Chief Financial Officer. He earned an MBA in management and finance at Houston Baptist University.

A native of Baraboo, Wisc., Reinfeldt was a four-year starter at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and recorded a school-record 24 interceptions, while earning a degree in marketing. He is the only player from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee program to play in the NFL, a distinction which should stand since the school dropped football as a sport in 1975. Reinfeldt and his wife, Susan, have two children – Jared and Elise.

LAKE DAWSON
Vice President/Football Operations

Lake Dawson enters his first season with the Titans as Vice President/Football Operations and his fifth overall with the team. He originally joined the Titans in 2007 as Director of Pro Scouting. He came to the Titans' organization with 12 years of NFL experience and is entering his 15th NFL season. While with the Seattle Seahawks, Dawson was an instrumental member of the personnel department, as the organization won the NFC West Divisional Championship in three consecutive seasons and a Super Bowl berth in 2005.

In his current position, he manages and oversees all day-to-day football operation duties for the pro personnel department and staff, including free agent signings, scouting and advances. Dawson works closely with General Manager Mike Reinfeldt and Head Coach Mike Munchak in evaluating personnel and managing the Titans' roster. He scouts all levels of professional football, including the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League. In addition, he assists in coordinating, evaluating and ranking the nation's top rated collegiate prospects for the annual NFL Draft.

In Seattle, Dawson last held the title of Assistant Director of Pro Personnel and he originally joined the Seahawks as a Pro Personnel Assistant in 2001. Dawson was an NFL wide receiver and a third-round selection by Kansas City in 1994. He also spent time on the Colts' roster before retiring due to injuries.

He is a graduate from the University of Notre Dame, where he played football for four years. He is working towards a graduate degree in business. Dawson and his wife, Lori, have three children: Bella, Myles and Leila

BOB HYDE Vice President of Community Relations

Bob Hyde is in his 23rd season with the Titans and 14th as Vice President/Community Relations. His tenure spans five of the team's six decades. One of the hallmarks of the Titans' success has been the team's presence in the community and a responsibility to make a positive impact in that community. Hyde has directed that effort for the franchise in a multi-faceted way.

An annual tradition, Hyde and the team's staff have partnered with Titans Radio to make the Titans Caravan the team's major fan outreach program each spring (an event that was postponed due to the labor situation this year). During the first 13 years, the Titans Caravan has made more than 600 stops, personally touching an estimated 375,000 fans in Tennessee, Alabama and Kentucky since its inception in 1998. A model program, the Caravan uses a variety of interactions to reach a wide-range of fans and affect communities in a positive way. He has successfully coordinated the club's major fundraiser in the Titans Charity Golf Classic, which has raised more than $1.5 million during the first 12 years for local charities through the Titans Foundation.

Hyde is heavily involved in the Titans specialty license plate program, which has seen Titans owner Bud Adams raise over $2.1 million dollars for statewide charities from the sale of the motor vehicle plates over the first eight years.

Hyde also serves as the club's contact for grants to improve football fields at area schools and parks. To date, more than $550,000 has been secured in recent years from a program funded by Adams, his fellow NFL owners and NFL players to improve football fields in Nashville/Davidson County and Nashville's seven contiguous counties. He also serves as the main contact for the Titans/USA Football Youth Coaches School and Youth Football Summit.

Hyde also works closely with service members from Fort Campbell Army Base, home to both the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) and the 160th Special Operations Aviation Regiment (Airborne), also known as the Night Stalkers. In 2010, Hyde was one of 30 individuals selected by the Department of Defense to participate in the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC). The JCOC program is sponsored by the Secretary of Defense for civilians interested in growing their knowledge of the military and national defense issues. JCOC is the oldest existing Pentagon outreach program having been held 79 times since 1948.

His office is responsible for the team's relationships with area non-profit organizations, player appearances, special events and memorabilia donation requests to assist local charities in their fundraising efforts.

In 1998, Hyde served as the club's liaison between Mr. Adams and the Titans Advisory Council. The information gathered by the council and from focus groups that included hundreds of fans across the state, aided Adams in giving the franchise a new name, logo and uniform.

A native of Tullahoma, Tenn., Hyde returned to the franchise in 1998 in his current position. He was a member of the team's media relations department from 1977-85, serving as the team's Media Director from 1980-85.

Hyde also spent five years with the PGA TOUR serving as a media official prior to returning to the Titans in 1998. Hyde is a member of the Board of Directors of the Middle Tennessee Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Tullahoma (Tenn.) High School, Hyde attended Middle Tennessee State University before transferring to the University of Houston. Hyde is single and has two daughters, Ashley and Hannah. He resides in Nashville, Tenn.

JENNEEN KAUFMAN Vice President/CFO

Jenneen Kaufman is in her 15th season and her third as Vice President/CFO for the Titans. Kaufman spent her first 11 seasons as the team's controller before being promoted to Vice President/Controller in 2008.

Kaufman is responsible for financial reporting, budgeting and the Collective Bargaining Agreement audit for the franchise. She also oversees the accounting of ticket and suite sales, sponsorships and broadcast revenues, player and staff payroll, while assisting with special projects. In addition, she oversees the accounting for LP Field, including concerts, TSU football games, the Music City Bowl and other events; and serves as human resources liaison for all Titans employees in Nashville.

In 2008, Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. selected Kaufman to attend the NFL's Stanford Program for Managers, which included a wide range of educational programs designed for league executives.

Before joining the Titans, Kaufman was Vice President of Finance and Human Resources for the American Cancer Society from 1995-97. She previously worked for Arthur Andersen LLP (1992-95) as an audit division senior accountant.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Kaufman graduated summa cum laude with a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Tennessee. She earned her CPA certification in 1994 and is a member of the Tennessee Society of CPA's, serving as the chair of the Sports and Entertainment Conference Committee.

For the past 10 years, Kaufman has participated in the Tennessee Society of CPA's Accounting Academy, promoting accounting to high school students throughout Tennessee. Kaufman is featured in an award-winning video produced by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The video is played for high school and college students across the country seeking to get into the accounting field.

An active member of the Nashville community, Kaufman serves as a volunteer at her church and speaks at various financial seminars in Nashville. She and her daughter, Maggie, reside in Nashville, Tenn.

VIN MARINO Vice President/Football Administration

Vincent Marino enters his first season with the Titans as the Vice President/Football Administration and his fifth season overall with the team. He originally joined the organization in 2007 as the Senior Director of Football Operations after spending 18 years in the NFL offices in New York. Marino's primary responsibilities include the management of the Titans' salary cap and player contract negotiations. He interacts closely with GM Mike Reinfeldt on numerous football related issues.

During his time with the NFL's Management Council, Marino spent eight years in the Player Personnel Department (Analyst, 1990-95; Manager/Player Personnel, 1995-98) and eight years in Labor Operations (Sr. Manager of Labor Operations, 1998-03), the last three as the Director of Labor Operations (2003-06). Marino gained expertise in various capacities and his experience includes: being a primary club contact for player contract valuations, enforcing the rules of the CBA (collective bargaining agreement), salary cap regulation and participating in a strategic group related to forming the last CBA between the league and the players.

Additionally, he has assisted the league in Super Bowl game operations and has served as a replay communicator at numerous games during his tenure. He originally joined the NFL as an assistant in the Public Relations department, where he spent two years.

Born and raised in the Bronx, N.Y., Marino graduated from Bronx High School of Science and went on to earn summa cum laude honors from Fordham University. While at Fordham, he earned a communications degree and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

An avid runner, Marino has completed six marathons, including four New York City Marathons. Marino and his wife, Nikoleta, have two children: Nikolas and Alexander. They reside in Brentwood, Tenn.

RALPH OCKENFELS Vice President of Marketing

Ralph Ockenfels is in his 14th season with the Titans, sixth as Vice President of Marketing and 21st overall in the National Football League.

Ockenfels is responsible for developing corporate sponsorship packages, retail promotions and gameday presentations and enhancements for Titans games. In 2008, he directed the Titans 10-Year Campaign by coordinating a number of elements that helped celebrate the team's 10th season as "Titans." He also was responsible for introducing the "12th Titan" campaign last year as a way to incorporate and celebrate the role of the fans in the gameday experience.

In 2006, Ockenfels was the point person for negotiating a 10-year naming rights deal with LP Building Products that resulted in the LP Field name and various marketing offshoots between the Titans and LP.

Ockenfels also helped launch the Titans' syndicated feature television show, "Titans All Access," which enters its ninth season in 2011 and brings Titans programming into eight television markets throughout the Mid-South region.

During the 2000 season, The Sporting News selected the Tennessee Titans' gameday atmosphere the best in the NFL. Ockenfels has worked with a variety of national programs and personalities to create fun and interesting elements for fans at LP Field, including Jeopardy, Family Feud, Who Wants to Be a Millionaire, Wheel of Fortune, The Rock, Frank Caliendo and Budweiser's "Real Men of Genius."

Prior to joining the Titans, Ockenfels was the Assistant Director of Marketing for the Green Bay Packers from 1992-98 after joining the team as an intern in 1991. Ockenfels served on the advance team for the Packers in Super Bowls XXXI and XXXII and Super Bowl XXXIV for the Titans.

A native of Iowa City, Iowa, Ockenfels earned his B.A. from the University of Northern Iowa and M.S. from Western Illinois University.

STUART SPEARS Vice President of Business Operations and Sales

Stuart Spears enters his 25th season with the organization and his third as Vice President of Business Operations and Sales.

Spears' primary responsibilities include the administration of the club's sales and advertising efforts and the coordination of all team travel and training camp activities.

Spears began his tenure with the Oilers in 1987 in the ticket office. He worked in the ticket department for five years, finishing as the club's Assistant Director of Ticket Administration and Services until 1992, when he assumed the duties of Marketing and Broadcasting Assistant. He was promoted to Sales and Promotions Coordinator in 1995, to Director of Sales and Operations in 1998, to Senior Director of Sales and Operations in 2006 and to Vice President of Business Operations and Sales in 2010.

Playing a role in preparing for the team's relocation to Tennessee,

Spears was actively involved in the promotion of luxury suite and personal seat license sales. He also worked on a wide range of operational and political activities. He moved to Tennessee in December of 1995 in order to prepare for the team's arrival in 1997.

A native of Wilmington, Del., Spears is a graduate of Baylor University with a B.A. degree in Journalism and Marketing. He and his wife Joyce reside in Franklin, Tenn., with their sons, Wesley and Dustin.

RUSTON WEBSTER

Vice President of Player Personnel

Ruston Webster enters his second season with the Titans as Vice President of Player Personnel after spending four years with the Seattle Seahawks. He is involved in all aspects of personnel, but focuses most of his attention on evaluation of college talent.

An experienced football man, Webster gained 22 years of personnel experience split between the Seahawks and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his four years in Seattle, Webster was the VP of Player Personnel and oversaw the day-to-day management of the pro personnel and college scouting departments. Upon the departure of Tim Ruskell in December of 2009 as the General Manager of the Seahawks, Webster was named interim General Manager until John Schneider was hired to fill that role in January 2010.

Webster spent 18 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in a variety of roles, including the Director of Player Personnel (2005), Director of College Scouting (2001-04), Director of Pro Personnel (1989-91) and regional college scout (1988, Northeast; 1992, South; 1993, Midwest; 1995-2000, Southwest). He was a part of the front office staff that helped build the Super Bowl XXX-VII Champion Buccaneers in 2002. Webster started his career as a college coach with stops as a graduate assistant at Southwestern Louisiana (1985), Alabama (1986) and Tulsa (1987).

A native of Madison, Miss., Webster earned his college degree at the University of Mississippi. He and his wife, Gayle, have a daughter Hannah and sons Jacob and Drew.

TENNESSEE TITANS

COACHING STAFF

MIKE MUNCHAK Head Coach

Mike Munchak became the 16th head coach in franchise history and the first who was a former player for the team, when he was named to the post on Feb. 7, 2011.

After a 12-year playing career as a guard for the Houston Oilers, he spent three seasons assisting the coaching staff. Munchak became the offensive line coach in 1997 and held that position for 14 years (1997-2010). Four of his players have totaled 10 Pro Bowl invitations and his offensive lines have paved the way for five different running backs to total an NFL-high 12 1,000-yard rushing seasons since 1997.

In 2001, he became the fifth franchise player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He earned nine Pro Bowl invitations during his career and was bestowed the honor of having his Oilers number 63 jersey retired in 1996.

Munchak, as a coach, is acknowledged as one of the finest teachers in the game. Only twice during his career has he had the benefit of starting the same starting five linemen from one year to the next; yet, the Titans offensive lines are perennially one of the best units in the NFL. His offensive line allowed the second fewest sacks (28.3 sacks per season) in the NFL since he assumed control of the group in 1997. Additionally, the Titans ranked seventh in the league in rushing yards (124.5 yards per game) during his tenure and totaled seven NFL top 10 finishes in rushing yards (1997, '98, 2000, '06, '07, '08, '09). The highlight for the group was a 2,000-yard rushing season in 2009 by Chris Johnson, who became just the sixth player in league history to reach that mark.

He has seen Bruce Matthews, Brad Hopkins, Michael Roos and Kevin Mawae earn Pro Bowl invitations from his group in addition to providing protection for Pro Bowlers Eddie George, Steve McNair, Vince Young, Kerry Collins and Chris Johnson. His group aided McNair to NFL co-MVP (2003) and Johnson to Offensive Player of the Year (2009) honors. In addition to working with the elite players, he has consistently taken young, mid-to-late round talent and molded them into long-time NFL starters, including David Stewart, Leroy Harris, Eugene Amano, Jacob Bell, Benji Olson, Justin Hartwig, Kevin Long and Jon Runyan. As evidence of the stellar line play, the Titans have produced five different 1,000-yard rushers (George, Brown, T. Henry, White, Johnson) over the past eight seasons. The Titans are the only team to produce 12 1,000-yard rushers since 1997.

As a player, Munchak started 156 regular season games (seventh in franchise history) and 10 playoff games for the Oilers between 1982 and 1993. Respected for his play, he was selected to the NFL's "All Decade" team for the 1980's. Chronic knee problems led him to retire while still at the top of his game. In his final year, he earned All Pro and Pro Bowl honors. A versatile player, he started his career in a run-first offense with Earl Campbell and transitioned to a pass blocker in the Run 'N Shoot offense guided by Warren Moon.

Philosophy/Background

As a coach, he is a throw-back to the coaches of the past who believe in the deep-rooted fundamentals of a quality football teams – smart, physical, consistent, committed and passionate players. Those roots come from his up-bringing in the sport. A fullback and defensive lineman at Scranton (Pa.) Central High School, he transitioned to the offensive line upon his arrival at Penn State. Spending four years under the leadership of the legendary Joe Paterno, he saw first-hand how teams were built and the fundamentals that created those championship-contending teams. Incredibly, Munchak becomes the first of Paterno's players to take the helm of an NFL team.

As a player at Penn State, Munchak lettered in 1979 and 1981, as a guard, and he red-shirted during the 1980 season with a knee injury. He entered the draft with year of eligibility remaining, but degree in-hand and became the first offensive lineman selected with the eighth pick overall in the 1982 NFL Draft by the Houston Oilers.

Munchak joined the Oilers at a time of great transition as the "Luv Ya Blue" era had reached its peak and an aging team was being rebuilt through the draft and specifically through drafting high-caliber offensive linemen. Munchak was the first of three consecutive offensive linemen drafted in the first round by the Oilers (Bruce Matthews, 1983; Dean Steinkuhler, 1984), and as Earl Campbell finished his Oilers career, a line was being built to protect a yet-to-be-determined quarterback that became Warren Moon in 1984. As the team grew together around its young offensive line and quarterback, the foundation was laid for seven consecutive playoff appearances between 1987 and 1993 and a new style of football in the Run 'N Shoot offense. During this time Munchak became a perennial Pro Bowl selection, earning nine trips to Hawaii (1984-85, '87-93) and eventually being named to the NFL's All-Decade team for the 1980's.

In 2001, he was presented to the Pro Football Hall of Fame by his great friend and former teammate Bruce Matthews, who became the first active player to present a player for induction. And when Matthews claimed his spot in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007, Munchak returned the favor and presented his long-time friend for induction. Munchak was inducted into the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame in 1999.

During his time as a player, the Oilers fielded six top 10 offenses, produced two of the franchises' four 400-point seasons, had four 1,000-yard rushers, totaled a franchise record 6,222 total yards in 1990 and Warren Moon earned NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors (1990).

Upon the completion of his career, Munchak joined the front office in 1994 and assisted the coaching staff. He officially became a coach in 1995 as a quality control coach for the offense. Jeff Fisher promoted him to offensive line coach prior to the 1997 season. He remained in that role until becoming head coach this year.

Earning a business degree at Penn State, Munchak was known to his teammates as a smart businessman. He partnered with Bruce Matthews to secure the regional distribution rights to Snapple and owned a number of Gold Gyms in Texas.

Among his many honors, Munchak has been elected to the Pennsylvania, Texas and Polish-American Sports Halls of Fame. Additionally, he was honored as one of the 38 Sports Legends of Houston prior to Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Munchak is a native of Scranton, Pa., and is married to Marci. The couple has two grown daughters – Alexandria and Julie.

Mike Munchak Coaching Ledger:

2011: Head Coach, Tennessee Titans
1997-10: Offensive Line, Tennessee Titans
1994-96: Offensive Assistant/Quality Control, Houston Oilers

CHRIS PALMER Offensive Coordinator

Chris Palmer enters his first season as the Titans offensive coordinator and his second stint with the team. He is a 39-year coaching veteran.

Palmer has 20 years of NFL experience, including two seasons as the head coach for the Cleveland Browns and seven seasons as an offensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars and Houston Texans. Last year, he was the head coach and general manager of the Hartford Colonials in the United Football League.

From 2007-09, Palmer was the quarterback coach for the New York Giants. He worked with Eli Manning during his tenure in New York and saw him post significant increases in his passer rating each year, including a career-high 93.1 rating in 2009. The 2008 edition of the Giants captured Super Bowl XLII and Manning earned MVP honors for the game. Before joining the Giants, Palmer spent one season as the quarterbacks coach with Bill Parcells at the Dallas Cowboys. In his one season there, Tony Romo led the Cowboys to the playoffs in his first season as the starter.

From 2001-05, Palmer was the first offensive coordinator in Texans history. In each of the first three seasons, David Carr improved his passer rating, including a career-high rating (83.5) in 2004, and the Texans improved their win total each season. He joined the Texans after spending two seasons as the head coach for the Browns from 1999-2000 as they re-entered the NFL as an expansion team and totaled a 5-27 record.

His first offensive coordinator job came with the Jaguars from 1997-98. During his time there, Mark Brunell posted the highest passer rating (91.2) of his career in 1997, which also led the AFC, and played in his first Pro Bowl game. In both years at Jacksonville, his offenses ranked in the top 10 in total yards and the 1998 team won the AFC Central Division crown. From 1993-96, Palmer worked with Parcells at the New England Patriots as a wide receivers coach (1993-95) and quarterbacks coach (1996). In his one season working with Drew Bledsoe, he improved his passer rating by 20 points from the previous season. His first job in the NFL was with the Houston Oilers as the wide receivers coach from 1990-92. His group of wide outs included four players – Curtis Duncan, Ernest Givens, Drew

Hill and Haywood Jeffires - who earned Pro Bowl selections under his direction in the Oilers Run 'N Shoot offense.

Palmer has worked in a total of four professional leagues (NFL, UFL, USFL, CFL) and has 15 years of experience in the college ranks. He was the head coach for Boston University (1988-89) and New Haven (1986-87). Palmer spent two years (1984-85) as an offensive coach for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL and one season (1983) with the Montreal Concordes of the Canadian Football League. He started his coaching career at Connecticut (1972-74) and continued with stops at Lehigh (1975) and Colgate (1976-82).

A native of Brewster, N.Y., Palmer played quarterback at Southern Connecticut State. He and his wife, Donna, have two children, Mark and Kristin, a granddaughter, Annette Grace, and a grandson, Casey Christopher.

JERRY GRAY Defensive Coordinator

Jerry Gray rejoined the Titans organization in 2011. Prior to his return to Tennessee, he spent one season as the secondary coach with the Seattle Seahawks. He has been a player and assistant coach for the Titans/Oilers organization and enters his first season as the team's defensive coordinator.

A 14-year veteran of NFL coaching, Gray started his NFL coaching career in 1997 as a defensive quality control coach for the Tennessee Oilers. He held that position for two seasons, before being promoted to secondary coach for the 1999 and 2000 seasons. Under his direction, Samari Rolle and Blaine Bishop earned All Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 2000; and as a group, the Titans ranked first in the NFL in fewest passing and total yards allowed.

In 2001, Titans defensive coordinator Gregg Williams was named head coach for the Buffalo Bills and Gray went with Williams to become the Bills defensive coordinator. He spent five years as defensive coordinator with the Buffalo from 2001-05. His defenses in 2003 and 2004 each ranked second in the NFL for yards allowed, and both were rated in the top 10 in points allowed. His 2004 defense led the NFL in takeaways with 39, ranked third in sacks with 45 and fifth in red zone defense. The 2004 unit saw Sam Adams and Takeo Spikes earn Pro Bowl selections.

He rejoined Williams' defensive staff at the Washington Redskins in 2006 as secondary coach and would stay for four years (2006-09). In 2008, the Redskins ranked fourth in defense and sixth in points allowed. Under his coaching, Sean Taylor blossomed into one of the NFL's best young safeties and earned Pro Bowl selections in both 2006 and 2007 before his tragic death. In his one season at Seattle last year, Earl Thomas registered a fantastic rookie campaign as he totaled five interceptions and started all 16 games.

As a player, Gray was a four-time Pro Bowler during a nine-year NFL career with the Los Angeles Rams (1985-91), Houston Oilers (1992) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993). He finished his career with 28 interceptions, was named the NFL's Defensive Back of the Year in 1989 and was a four-time Pro Bowler who earned MVP honors at the Pro Bowl in 1990. A graduate of the University of Texas, Gray was a first round pick (21st overall) by the Rams in the 1985 NFL Draft. While playing at Texas, he was a two-time consensus All-American and two-time Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year. For his career at Texas, he was honored with inclusion on the Texas All-Time Team and All-Decade Team for the 1980's.

A native of Lubbock, Texas, Gray broke into the coaching ranks with a two-year stay at Southern Methodist University as the secondary coach. He and his wife Sherry have two sons, Jeremy and Jayden.

DAVE MCGINNIS

Senior Assistant Coach

Dave McGinnis, a 38-year coaching veteran, enters his eighth season with the Titans and will take on a new role as senior assistant coach for the team. In that role, he will assist head coach Mike Munchak and the defensive staff. Additionally, he will have personnel and administrative duties.

McGinnis served as the club's linebackers coach for seven years and six as assistant head coach.

He has 25 seasons of NFL experience, including three and a half years as the head coach for the Arizona Cardinals. One of the most respected defensive minds in the game, McGinnis directed the Cardinals defense as their defensive coordinator from 1996 to 2000.

He guided three Titan linebackers to new career heights – Keith Bulluck, Stephen Tulloch and David Thornton. Each of the three reached career-high marks in almost every category under his tutelage. Last season, Tulloch totaled a personal-best and team-high 169 tackles along with one sack and one interception. In 2009, Tulloch registered a team-high 132 stops and two sacks. Bulluck logged six of his eight consecutive 100-tackle performances under McGinnis' tutelage and finished second on the franchise list for career interceptions by a linebacker (19). Thornton recorded two of his three 100-tackle seasons with the Titans and forced seven fumbles. In both 2007 and 2008, the Titans finished in the NFL's top 10 in both total defense and rushing defense.

As defensive coordinator in Arizona, he led a group that produced three Pro Bowlers in Aeneas Williams, Eric Swann and Simeon Rice. Rice also earned AP Rookie of the Year honors in 1996 and tallied 51.5 sacks in his tenure with the team, including a franchise record 16.5 sacks in 1999. McGinnis' 1998 defense helped lead Arizona to the playoffs and ranked third in the league in takeaways with 39. He totaled 16 wins (16-33) in three full seasons as the Cardinals head coach.

McGinnis built his reputation and knowledge during a 10-year stint (1986-95) with the Chicago Bears as a linebackers coach, where he worked with one of the best linebacker corps in the game: Mike Singletary, Wilber Marshall and Otis Wilson. He coached Hall of Famer Mike Singletary for seven of his 12 years in the league with each ending in a trip to the Pro Bowl. During his tenure in Chicago, the Bears advanced to the playoffs six times and the defense finished in the top six of the NFL in defense six times, including a first or second place ranking three times.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, McGinnis spent 13 years in college football with stops at his alma mater Texas Christian University (1973-74, '82), Missouri (1975-77), Indiana State (1978, '80-81) and Kansas State (1983-85).

McGinnis was a three-year starter as a defensive back at TCU, where he graduated in 1973 with a degree in business management.

Born in Independence, Kan. (8/7/51), and raised in Snyder, Texas, McGinnis resides in Nashville, Tenn., with his wife Kim.

STEVE WATTERSON

Assistant Head Coach/Strength & Conditioning

One of the top strength and rehabilitation experts in the NFL, Steve Watterson is in his 26th season as the Titans' strength and conditioning coach.

Qualities of a Titans team include strength, physicality and conditioning. Watterson has been entrusted with instilling many of these qualities.

In 2010, Watterson earned his 'Art of Strength' Kettlebell Instructor Certification during the 'A.O.S.' seminar held at Punch Gym in Franklin, Tenn. He became the first NFL Head Strength and Conditioning coach to complete the certification program and along with his assistant, Jason Novak, are the only tandem of 'A.O.S.' certified instructors in professional sports. At the request of the Army's 5th Special Forces Group, Watterson has coached many of their instructors in kettlebell training techniques and team building activities.

In 2008, he was elected to the Alliance for Natural Health's Scientific Advisory Board. The Alliance for Natural Health USA (ANH-USA), which was formed in 1992, is part of an international organization dedicated to promoting sustainable health and freedom of choice in healthcare through good science and good law.

In 2002, Watterson was awarded the President's Award from the Professional Football Strength and Coaches Society for his contributions to the field of strength and conditioning. In 1999, he was appointed to the National Research Council for Health (NRCH) scientific advisory council. NRCH was formed in 1977 to expand the scientific foundation and understanding of natural health science.

In 1992, Watterson received one of the highest honors of his career when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Watterson has been instrumental in helping to develop and implement various strength and conditioning programs with the Titans and directs the club's successful offseason conditioning program. Watterson joined the Oilers in 1986 as strength and conditioning coordinator before becoming an assistant coach in those areas prior to the 1988 season.

Before joining the Oilers, Watterson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the assistant trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles. From 1979-80, he served as the head trainer at Tucson (Ariz.) High School before accepting a similar post at Amphitheater High School in Tucson (1980-84). Watterson's other activities have included serving as a trainer at the 1982 Olympic Development Camp and at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs in 1983. Following the 1990 season, Watterson received national attention when he personally supervised the rehabilitation of auto racing superstar A.J. Foyt. Foyt credits Watterson with his ability to come back from severe leg injuries to race in the 1991 Indianapolis 500.

Watterson has advised Olympic and World-Class athletes on proper nutritional supplementation. NASCAR teams, such as Richard Petty's, have called on Watterson to advise them on proper nutrition for improved performance. He also has advised NASCAR teams on training for proper biomechanics for their pit crews.

Watterson has patents pending on shoulder and leg rehabilitation devices and on a leg measuring device through his company, Kelsea Plus Corp. He received his bachelor's degree from Rhode Island and his master's degree from Arizona.

A native of Newport, R.I. (11/27/56), Watterson has three daughters, Kelsea, Bergen and Dottie, and three sons, Brock, Cole and Caden. Steve and his wife, Heidi, live in Hendersonville, Tenn.

FRANK BUSH

Linebackers

Frank Bush rejoined the Titans/Oilers organization in 2011. He started his playing career as a member of the Houston Oilers and enters his second stint as the team's linebackers coach.

Bush joins the Titans after spending four seasons with the Houston Texans, including the last two as defensive coordinator. He has a total of 19 seasons coaching in the NFL with the majority of his experience working with linebackers.

As defensive coordinator in 2009, the Texans established new franchise lows for fewest points allowed per game (20.8) and yards allowed per game (324.9); in both 2009 and 2010, Houston yielded the two lowest rushing yardage totals in their franchise's history. Under his direction, Houston saw the emergence of Mario Williams and DeMeco Ryans into Pro Bowl players and Brian Cushing earned Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2009. His first two years with the Texans, Bush was the senior defensive assistant and worked primarily with the defensive line.

Before joining the Texans, Bush spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as the linebackers coach and was tabbed as assistant head coach for his final year. While with the Cardinals, he guided Carlos Dan-sby's development into a top-flight player. The defense as a whole made significant strides during his tenure as they improved from 26th the year before his arrival in total defense to 12th in 2004 and 8th in 2005.

Bush spent nine seasons coaching on Mike Shanahan's Denver Broncos teams from 1995-03, in a variety of capacities. In his first five years (1995-99) in Denver, he was the linebackers coach. Additionally, he spent one season as secondary coach (2000) and three seasons as the special teams coach (2001-03) with the Broncos. In his time with Denver, Bush earned two Super Bowl rings (XXXII and XXXIII) and during the 1998 Super Bowl season, his linebacker corps (John Mobley, Glenn Cadrez and Bill Romanowski) accounted for the top three tacklers on the team.

Bush started his coaching career with the Houston Oilers as the linebackers coach from 1992-94.

Bush was a three-year starter at linebacker for North Carolina State and was a fifth-round selection of the Houston Oilers in the 1985 NFL Draft. He earned all-rookie honors in his first season before an injury in his second campaign ended his career as a player. He was a teammate with head coach Mike Munchak and offensive line coach Bruce Matthews during his time with the Oilers. Bush stayed with the Oilers following his retirement as a player, joining the front office as a college scout (1987-92).

Born in Athens, Ga., Bush lives in Nashville with his wife, Stephanie.

CURTIS FULLER

Secondary Assistant

Curtis Fuller enters his first season with the Titans as the assistant secondary coach.

Fuller joins the Titans after spending two seasons with the Green Bay Packers – one year (2009) as a special teams assistant and one (2010) as the team's coaching administrator. Last year for the Super Bowl Champion Packers, Fuller assisted the coaching staff and on-field helped coaching the secondary. He spent time with the Packers at training camp in 2008, as part of the NFL's minority internship program, and was the defensive coordinator for Plano East High School (Texas) during the fall. Fuller was a special teams assistant for the Oakland Raiders for the 2007 season. Fuller's NFL career started as a scouting department assistant for the Dallas Cowboys in 2006.

Fuller played four seasons at safety in the NFL after being selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the fourth round of the 2001 NFL Draft from Texas Christian. He suited up for Seattle, Green Bay and Carolina during his time in the NFL and accumulated 42 games played, 52 tackles and one interception (with Seattle in 2002).

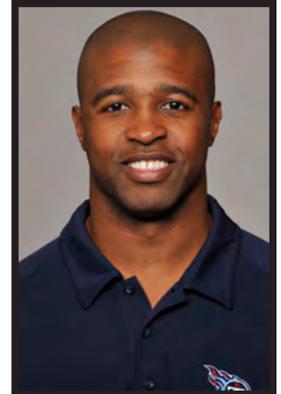

Fuller was a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference selection at TCU and played a key role for the 2000 defense that led the nation in defense and points allowed. He started his college career at Tyler Junior College, before transferring to TCU. A WAC all-academic pick, Fuller earned an undergraduate degree in psychology and a master's in liberal arts prior to being drafted in 2001.

Born in Tyler, Texas, Fuller and his wife, Rachel, have two children.

DOWELL LOGGAINS

Quarterbacks

Dowell Loggains enters his fourth season as a Titans coach and his second as quarterbacks coach. Last year, despite the uncertainty at quarterback due to injuries, Kerry Collins posted the third-best passer rating of his career (82.2) and Vince Young registered the highest passer rating of his career (98.6). For the previous two seasons, Loggains was the quality control coach for the offense. He originally joined Tennessee as a coaching administrative assistant (2006 & 2007).

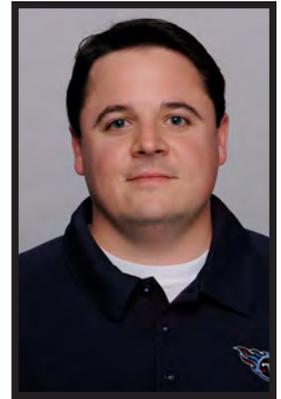

Prior to joining the Titans, Loggains spent the 2005 season as a scouting assistant with the Dallas Cowboys. His duties included assisting with opponent film breakdown, self-scouting and statistical analysis to be used in game plan preparation.

A native of Newport, Ark., Loggains (10/1/80) graduated with a Bachelor of Science and master's degree in education from the University of Arkansas. He was a four-year letterman as a quarterback and holder for the Razorbacks from 2000-04, appearing in 50 games. Loggains was a two-year starter at quarterback for Abilene Cooper (Texas) High School. He and his wife, Beth, have a daughter, Reese, and reside in Nashville.

CHARLES LONDON

Offensive Assistant/Quality Control

Charles London enters his first season with the Titans as offensive assistant/quality control coach.

London arrives in Tennessee after one season (2010) as a pro scout for the Philadelphia Eagles and three years (2007-09) as an offensive assistant with the Chicago Bears. His first year with the Bears was as a quality control coach on offense and his final two years were as offensive assistant/assistant wide receivers coach.

London also has three years (2004-06) of coaching experience at his alma mater, Duke. He spent his first two years as a graduate assistant and his final year as the running backs coach. During the summer of 1995, as part of the NFL's Minority Internship program, he did a coaching internship with the New England Patriots.

Prior to entering the coaching world, London gained experience as an Events Manager for Disney's Wide World of Sports from 1998-99, Stadium Assistant Manager for the Cleveland Browns from 1999-2001 and Director of Stadium Operations for Gillette Stadium from 2001-04.

As a player at Duke (1994-96), London saw action in 34 games at running back over three years for the Blue Devils and also lettered as a sprinter for the track team. Duke's 1994 team earned a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl. As a player, London also earned the team's Trinity Teammate Award and Carmen Falcone Award for excellence in athletics and academics in 1996 and the College Football Hall of Fame Foundation Award in 1997. Additionally, he was a member of the ACC Honor Roll in 1996-97. London earned an undergraduate degree in political science from Duke in 1997 and a graduate degree in humanities in 2006.

Born in Dunwoody, Ga., London currently lives in Nashville.

ALAN LOWRY

Special Teams

Alan Lowry is in his 16th season as an assistant coach with the Titans and 13th as special teams coach. During the last 11 seasons, the Titans have produced 15 special teams touchdowns, including 12 kick returns for touchdowns. Lowry's special teams have consistently ranked among the league leaders in both return yardage and return defense while placing a number of different players among the league leaders in return yardage, including Derrick Mason, Pacman Jones, Chris Carr and Marc Mariani.

As a rookie last year, returner Mariani earned Pro Bowl honors by leading the NFL and setting a franchise record for combined return yardage (1,859). He recorded both a kickoff return for touchdown and punt return for touchdown. As a special teams unit, the Titans finished second among all categories in Rick Gosselin's (Dallas Morning News) Special Teams Rankings. Rob Bironas scored 110 points and was nearly perfect for the season, going 24-26 on field goal tries and matching the best percentage in franchise history.

In 2009, Lowry was dealt a difficult hand when veteran punter Craig Hentrich was lost for the season in the second game. Eventually, Brett Kern was claimed off waivers from Denver and put together a sensational 10 games with the Titans – averaging 45.0 yards per punt and a net average of 41.4 yards. The net average would have been a new Titans record, but he fell three punts short of qualifying for the mark. A whopping 48 percent of Kern's punts (18 of 37) were placed inside the opponent's 20.

In 2008, the Titans finished first in the NFL in kickoff return average (25.4) and returner Chris Carr finished in the top 10 in the AFC in both kickoff return average and punt return average.

In 2007, Lowry aided in the emergence of kicker Rob Bironas into a record-setting performer and a Pro Bowl talent. Bironas earned his first Pro Bowl selection after leading the league in field goals made (35), including an NFL record eight field goals in a game at Houston.

The special teams unit had another standout season in 2006, which included the leading punt returner in the NFL (Pacman Jones, 12.9 avg.), ranking second in net punt average, third in punts inside the 20-yard line (32) and a franchise long 60-yard field goal by Bironas to defeat Indianapolis. The last time a Titans/Oilers player led the league in punt return average was 1977, when Billy "White Shoes" Johnson held the distinction. Jones also matched Johnson's 1975 franchise record of three punt returns for touchdowns in one season.

In 2005, the Titans were the only NFL team that didn't have a negative special teams play over the entire season (fumble lost, blocked kick, return allowed for touchdown).

In 2004, the Titans finished fourth in the NFL in net punt average (37.8) and in 2003, led the NFL in kickoff return average defense, allowing only 18.8 yards per return. In 2002, the Titans led the league in average starting position after kickoff. In the 2002 season finale at Houston (12/29/02), the Titans blocked a field goal and a punt for the first time in the same game since 1991.

In 2000, the Titans were one of only two NFL teams (Seattle) to rank in the top 10 in the league in punt return average, kickoff return average, punt return defense and kickoff return defense.

In the 1999 season, the Titans were propelled to the Super Bowl with a number of plays on special teams, including the "Music City Miracle" and Derrick Mason's 80-yard kick return for a touchdown in the 1999 AFC Championship Game. Lowry took over the Titans' special teams after coaching the club's wide receivers corps from 1997-98. He has 10 seasons of experience coaching special teams from his positions with Dallas (1982-85, '89), Tampa Bay (1991) and San Francisco (1992-95). Lowry joined the Oilers in 1996 as defensive assistant/quality control coach and was promoted to wide receivers coach one year later.

Lowry spent nine seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1982-90). He originally joined the Cowboys in 1982 and through the years filled many roles, including coaching special teams (1982-85, '89), receivers (1986-88) and tight ends (1990). In 1991, he served as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-95. In San Francisco, Lowry and the Niners made three NFC Championship game appearances (1992, 1993, 1994) and captured a Super Bowl Championship (XXIX).

A former quarterback and defensive back at the University of Texas, Lowry earned All-Southwest Conference honors before joining the coaching ranks. Lowry began his coaching career at Virginia Tech in 1974 before moving to the University of Wyoming in 1975. He spent 1976 with the Dallas Cowboys in their scouting department before returning to Texas from 1977-81 as defensive backs coach.

A native of Miami, Okla., Lowry resides in Franklin, Tenn., with his wife, Donna. The couple has two grown daughters, Marta and Lindsay.

BRUCE MATTHEWS
Offensive Line

A legendary figure in history of the Titans/Oilers franchise, Matthews rejoins the organization for his first season as an offensive line coach with the team. He joins the coaching staff after spending the last two seasons as an offensive assistant for the Houston Texans.

Matthews returns to the franchise where he was one of the most decorated offensive linemen to ever play in the NFL. Matthews played 19 seasons for the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans, earning 14 consecutive Pro Bowl selections, nine first-team All Pro honors while helping his teams earn nine playoff appearances. He played all five positions on the offensive line during his tenure with the team and was inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007, in his first year of eligibility. He was introduced into the Hall of Fame by his former teammate Mike Munchak, after providing the introduction for Munchak's induction in 2001. Matthews became the first current NFL player to provide an introduction for a Hall of Famer.

Matthews was a first-round pick (ninth overall) of the Houston Oilers in the 1983 NFL Draft from the University of Southern California. A starter as a rookie, Matthews would go on to start 166 games at guard, 87 at center and 39 at tackle during his time with the team. At the time of his retirement, he had played more games (296) than any non-kicker in NFL history and never missed a game due to injury. He retired following the 2001 season and was honored by the franchise in 2002 by having his number 74 jersey retired. He was selected as a guard to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1990's and was one of two players to start every game during the decade.

Following his retirement, Matthews returned to Houston with his family and served as a volunteer coach at Elkins High School and coached youth football until joining the Texans. Raised in Southern California, he and his wife, Carrie, have seven children: Steven, Kevin (who currently plays for the Titans), Marilyn, Jake, Michael, Luke and Gweneth.

CHET PARLAVECCHIO

Special Teams Assistant

Chet Parlavecchio enters his first season with the Titans as the assistant special teams coach.

Parlavecchio joins the staff after spending more than two decades as a head high school coach in New Jersey where he led Elizabeth High School to a state title in 2006. He also spent two seasons as a linebackers coach at Temple from 1992-93. In his time at Temple, he coached three players who went on to have productive NFL careers: Lance Johnstone, Tim Terry and Al Singleton.

His first high school head coaching job was at Bloomfield (New Jersey) High School from 1986-90. From there, he spent one year at Irvington High School (1991). While a coach at Irvington H.S., Raheem Morris, now head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, was one of his players. Additionally, he had stops at Passaic Valley (1994-98) and Clifton (1999-03).

He played college football for Penn State, where he was a linebacker, co-captain and a teammate with head coach Mike Munchak. He was a sixth-round selection by the Green Bay Packers in the 1982 NFL Draft. He spent his first season on injured reserve after suffering a knee injury in the final preseason game and he split the 1983 season between the Packers and St. Louis Cardinals.

Raised in Florham Park, N.J., Parlavecchio and his wife, Jane, have two children: Chet and Nichole.

DAVE RAGONE

Wide Receivers

Dave Ragone enters his first season with the Titans as the wide receivers coach.

He joins the Titans after spending one season with the United Football League's Hartford Colonials as the quarterbacks coach. At Hartford, the team's quarterback, Josh McCown, led the league in passer rating and touchdown passes. Ragone has a history with the Titans offensive coordinator Chris Palmer as he worked for him in Hartford and played for him with the Houston Texans.

Ragone spent three seasons as an NFL quarterback from 2003-05 with the Texans. In the spring of 2005, he also spent time in NFL Europe with the Berlin Thunder and earned league Offensive MVP honors for his performance. He set an NFL record by throwing 174 consecutive passes without an interception and led the league in passer rating (97.5). He was originally a third-round selection by Houston in the 2003 NFL Draft after finishing his career at Louisville, where he was a three-time Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year and led his team to three consecutive bowl games.

At the conclusion of his NFL career, Ragone hosted a morning radio show in Louisville and became Vice President of The Corporate Playbook, a company that helps athletes prepare and find jobs.

Raised in Cleveland, Ohio, Ragone was an All-State selection at St. Ignatius High School.

MARCUS ROBERTSON

Secondary

Marcus Robertson is in his 21st season in the NFL, fifth season as a coach and 19th season with the Titans organization as a player, coach and front office member. He enters his third season as secondary coach after spending two years as the assistant secondary coach.

Last season, the Titans ranked 11th in the NFL in interceptions with 17 picks and four of the team's top five tacklers were members of the secondary. Michael Griffin earned his second Pro Bowl invitation, while totaling 153 tackles and four interceptions. Alterraun Verner started 12 games as a rookie and registered three interceptions.

In 2009, the Titans ranked eighth in the NFL in interceptions (20) and second in interceptions returned for touchdown (4). Over the last four years, Tennessee ranks third in the NFL in interceptions (79) behind Green Bay and Baltimore.

In 2008, three of the four secondary players (Cortland Finnegan, Chris Hope, Griffin) were invited to the Pro Bowl for the first time in their careers. It was the first time in franchise history that three players from the secondary represented the team in the Pro Bowl. Overall, the defensive backs collected 19 interceptions, which ranked second (Green Bay) in the NFL in interceptions by a secondary. The Titans ranked ninth in pass defense and seventh in total defense.

The 2007 season was Robertson's first year assisting Chuck Cecil with the secondary, and he was responsible for breaking down and analyzing third-down and two-minute packages. He also was instrumental in helping rookie Griffin grow as a starting NFL safety and guiding the continued development of Finnegan into a top-flight cornerback. The secondary as a whole greatly improved as well, rising from 27th in passing defense in 2006 to 10th in 2007, increasing interceptions from 17 to 22 and overall yardage allowed from 32nd to fifth.

Before joining the coaching staff, Robertson spent four years (2003-06) as the Titans Director of Player Development. He assisted Titans players with career transition into and out of the NFL through continuing education, financial education and dealing with family matters through player programs. In 2006, Robertson was selected by Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. to represent the club at the NFL's Stanford Executive Training Program at the Stanford Business School where he took part in upper level executive training. Robertson, whose staff won the Winston and Shell Award in 2006 for its innovation and commitment to player development in the NFL, took over the department in August 2003.

A 12-year NFL veteran, Robertson played 10 years with the Oilers/Titans and two seasons in Seattle. Robertson, named first team All-Pro at free safety in 1993 and 1997, recorded 22 interceptions in his Titans/Oilers career and played in the post-season in five of his 10 seasons with the franchise. Over the course of his 12-year NFL career, Robertson played in 157 games (144 starts) with 851 tackles, 24 interceptions and 1.5 sacks. He was originally drafted by the Houston Oilers in the fourth round of the 1991 NFL Draft from Iowa State. In 2009, Robertson was inducted into the Iowa State Athletic Hall of Fame, where he starred as a cornerback and totaled 257 tackles, six interceptions and nine forced fumbles during his four-year career.

A native of Pasadena, Calif., Robertson (10/2/69) and his wife, Holly, reside in Franklin, Tenn., with their three children: Morgan, Milan and Marcus Andrew.

TRACY ROCKER
Defensive Line

Tracy Rocker enters his first season as the defensive line coach for the Titans and his first NFL season as an assistant.

A 17-year veteran of college coaching, Rocker spent time with five programs and helped a number of players reach All-American honors. He brings a combination of success as a player and coach to the Titans defensive staff. As a player, Rocker earned induction into the College Football Hall of Fame after a spectacular college career at Auburn.

Rocker joins the Titans after spending two seasons (2009-10) at Auburn as the defensive line coach. As a coach, he helped develop Nick Fairley into the Lombardi Award winner (given to the NCAA's best defensive lineman or linebacker) and an AP All-American as a part of last season's national title winning team. In 2009, he coached Antonio Coleman, who led the SEC in tackles for loss (16.5) and sacks (10.0) and was twice named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week.

Before his two-year stint at Auburn, Rocker spent one year at Ole Miss (2008) and mentored Greg Hardy (8.5 sacks) and Peria Jerry. The Rebels finished the 14th in the final polls and ranked 19th nationally in total defense. The defense led the SEC and finished fourth in the country with 39 sacks.

Rocker worked five seasons (2003-07) at Arkansas and saw Jamaal Anderson earn a first-round selection in the 2007 NFL Draft after a 14-sack season as a senior. The 2005 Razorback unit ranked second in the SEC in sacks with 29 and was fourth in rushing defense.

Rocker spent one season with the University of Cincinnati in 2002 and helped them capture the Conference USA title. In 1997, he took over the defensive line at Troy, where he would spend five seasons. In his time working with the Trojans, DeMarcus Ware and Osi Umenyiora were under his coaching and Al Lucas earned the 1999 Buck Buchanan Award as the top defensive player in I-AA. Rocker broke into the college coaching ranks at West Alabama from 1994-96 as the defensive line coach. He began his coaching career as the defensive coordinator at Auburn (Ala.) High School for two seasons from 1992-93.

As a player, Rocker was a two-time All American at Auburn and the 1988 Outland (best offensive or defensive lineman) and Lombardi Trophy winner. He was the first SEC player to earn both awards. He was named SEC Player of the Year during his senior season (1988) and was a two-time All-America selection. Rocker was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

He was a third-round pick by the Washington Redskins in the 1989 NFL Draft and played two seasons before suffering a knee injury. He concluded his career by playing one year for the Orlando Thunder of the World Football League. As a coach, Rocker spent two summers working with NFL teams (Indianapolis, 2001; Tampa Bay, 2006) as a part of the NFL's Minority Internship Program.

A native of Atlanta, Ga., Rocker and his wife Lalitha have a son, Kumar.

JIM SKIPPER
Running Backs

Jim Skipper enters his first season with the Titans as the running backs coach.

Skipper joins the Titans after spending nine seasons as the running backs coach for the Carolina Panthers, including the final five years with the additional title of assistant head coach. In his tenure with the Panthers, DeAngelo Williams, Jonathan Stewart and Stephen Davis each reached the 1,000-yard rushing mark; and in 2009, Williams (1,117) and Stewart (1,133) became the first running back tandem in NFL history to each rush for more than 1,100 yards in one season. In 2008, Williams set a franchise rushing mark for a season and finished third in the NFL with 1,515 rushing yards and accounted for 18 touchdowns. In that same season, Stewart set a franchise rookie rushing mark with 836 yards and 10 scores. The Panthers set franchise records for total rushing yards in back-to-back seasons in 2008 (2,437 yards) and 2009 (2,498 yards) and in each of those years finished third in the NFL in rushing.

In his time with the Panthers, Skipper used 10 different starting running backs and eight of those players produced at least one 100-yard performance. Both Williams and Davis earned Pro Bowl invitations during Skip-per's tenure.

A coaching veteran, Skipper has totaled 23 seasons in the NFL and another nine in the college ranks. Before joining the Panthers, Skipper spent four years with the New York Giants (1997-2000) – the first three as offensive coordinator/running backs and the final season as assistant head coach/running backs. He also spent one season as the head coach with the XFL San Francisco Demons (2001) and one season coaching running backs with the Arizona Cardinals (1996). He began his NFL coaching career with the New Orleans Saints and spent 10 seasons (1986-95) with the team as the running backs coach. Skipper coached two Pro Bowlers for the Saints – Rueben Mayes and Dalton Hilliard. His pro coaching career started with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1983-85.

Skipper played his college football at Whittier College, where he starred as a defensive back and returner. Following his college career, he entered the college coaching ranks as a defensive backs coach at Cal Poly-Pomona from 1974-76 and at San Jose State from 1977-78. Skipper moved to running backs coach at Pacific (1979) and then at Oregon (1980-82) before moving to the professional ranks.

Raised in Brawley, Calif., Skipper and his wife, ElMarie, have three sons – Kelly, Timmy and Courtney. His son Kelly is the running backs coach for the Oakland Raiders, Timmy is the linebackers coach for Fresno State and Courtney is an academic advisor at Arizona State.

ARTHUR SMITH Defensive Assistant/Quality Control

Arthur Smith enters his first season as defensive assistant/quality control coach for the Titans.

Smith spent two years as the defensive quality control coach for the Washington Redskins from 2007-08. During the spring of 2007, he worked as a college scouting assistant for the Redskins. In 2010, he worked for Ole Miss as an administrative assistant/defensive intern and worked primarily with the linebackers. Smith graduated from North Carolina and played offensive line before joining the coaching staff for one season (2006) as a graduate assistant, where he worked with the offensive line.

Born and raised in Memphis, Tenn., he went to high school at Georgetown Prep (North Bethesda, Md.). Smith and his wife Allison currently lives in Nashville.

ART VALERO Offensive Line Assistant

Art Valero enters his first season with the Titans as assistant offensive line coach after spending one season as the offensive line coach for the division-winning Seattle Seahawks in 2010.

Valero has a wide variety of offensive experience in his nine years as an NFL coach, having coached tight ends, running backs and offensive line. Valero spent two years (2008-09) with the St. Louis Rams. In 2008, he was the Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs and worked with Steven Jackson on Jim Haslett's staff. Despite an injury-filled season, Jackson continued his string of 1,000-yard seasons. The next season, Valero took over as Assistant Offensive Line coach for the Rams.

Valero broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he spent six years (2002-07) on Jon Gruden's staff. His first two years with Tampa Bay (2002-03) were as the tight ends coach, during which time the team earned the Super Bowl XXXVII victory. He worked with the running backs for four years and added assistant head coach to his title for the final two years (2006-07) with the Bucs. Under his direction Carnell (Cadillac) Williams earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2005 as he rushed for a team rookie record 1,178 yards. In 2007, his runners totaled the sixth-best rushing total in franchise history amassing 1,872 yards. In his six years with the Bucs, the team won the NFC South three times.

Before joining the NFL, Valero gained 21 years of college coaching experience, all as offensive line and assistant head coach. He was the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at the University of Louisville from 1998-01. While at Louisville, the Cardinals had one of the NCAA's most explosive offenses, finished first nationally in total offense in 1998 and he overlapped with current Titans wide receivers coach Dave Ragone, who was the Cardinals quarterback. He also spent time at Utah State (1995-97), Idaho (1990-94), New Mexico (1987-89), Long Beach State (1984-86), Iowa State (1983) and Boise State (1981-82). Valero graduated from Boise State and was a two-year letter-winner as an offensive lineman.

A native of La Mirada, Calif., Valero and his wife, Alicia, have five children – Kyle, Brandon, Kimberly, Alexa and Cami.

JOHN ZERNHELT

Tight Ends

John Zernhelt is in his sixth season with the Titans and seventh NFL season. A 35-year veteran of coaching, Zernhelt joined the Titans after one season as tight ends coach with the New York Jets.

Under his guidance, Bo Scaife emerged as a reliable tight end that posted 251 receptions in 90 career games, since being drafted in 2005. Scaife led the team with 58 grabs in 2008. Over the last six seasons, Scaife ranked 10th among NFL tight ends in receptions, a mark that ranked second in franchise history for career receptions by a tight end. Jared Cook also grew into his role late last season, tying for 10th among NFL tight ends with 26 catches in the final eight games.

As an extension of the offensive line, the tight ends are a key part of the Titans run-game and helped the team rank in the top 10 in rushing in four of the last five seasons and posting 2,000 team rushing yards in each of those four campaigns. In 2009, their efforts helped Chris Johnson reach the historic 2,000-yard rushing landmark, becoming just the sixth individual in NFL history to do so.

Prior to joining the NFL, Zernhelt spent 28 seasons in the college ranks, including one year as head coach at the Citadel in 2004. He served as offensive coordinator in 2003 at the Citadel, before rising to head coach.

Zernhelt spent four seasons as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach (1999-2002) at James Madison. Before joining James Madison, he made stops as an offensive line coach at South Carolina (1996-98), Duke (1994-95), Rice (1992-93), Maryland (1987-91), East Carolina (1982-86), Marshall (1981) and Ferrum College (1977-80). At both Rice and Duke, Zernhelt worked with former Titans offensive coordinator Mike Heimerdinger.

A graduate of Maryland, Zernhelt enjoyed a stellar playing career for the Terrapins as an offensive lineman, earning three ACC championships and playing in the Liberty, Gator and Cotton Bowls during his career. He was recognized for his achievements in October 2002 by his induction into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame for the Allen-Rogowicz Chapter.

A native of Newtown, Pa., Zernhelt (1/4/54) and his wife Katie have one son, John Paul.

EUGENE AMANO

CENTER/GUARD • 6'3" • 300 lbs • COLLEGE: SE MISSOURI STATE
ACQUIRED: 7TH ROUND - 2004 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 8/8
HOMETOWN: SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 108/52 (PLAYOFFS: 2/2)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 13/13

PRO: Amano is in his eighth NFL season and has been extremely durable having played in all but four games during his career. A strong player with quick feet, he has experience at guard and center at both the college and pro levels. Over the last three seasons (2008-2010), Amano has started 31 games at left guard from 2008-2009 and 13 games at center last year. In his first four seasons in the NFL, he served primarily as a reserve at both center and guard.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Amano was a part of an offensive front that allowed 27 sacks, which tied for sixth-fewest in the NFL. The unit also paved the way for Chris Johnson to finish fourth in the NFL with 1,364 rushing yards.
- In 2009, Amano was a member of an offensive line that blocked for the NFL's second-best rushing attack (162.0 yards per game) and opened holes for Chris Johnson who became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 2,000 yards. Also, part of an offensive front that allowed just 16 sacks, the second fewest in the NFL.
- As senior at SE Missouri State, Amano won 1-AA Dave Rimington Award, given annually to top center in college football at each level of competition.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Although he was born in Manila, Philippines, Amano lived in the United States from the time he was two months old. His mother, Aida, a nurse, and his father, Eugene, who served in the U.S. Navy for 25 years, were stationed in the Philippines when he was born but then moved to San Diego.
- Amano was honored with his own day by the council members of National City, Calif. June 1, 2010 was proclaimed Eugene Amano Day in his hometown.
- The recent offseasons, the Amano Family Foundation has held free football camps for the youth of National City, Calif.
- During the 2012 offseason, Amano plans to travel back to the Philippines for the first time since leaving with his family as an infant. He hopes to volunteer with a group called Gawad Kalinga, which means "to give care" and helped rebuild poverty-stricken villages in his native land.
- Amano has developed The Amano Family Foundation back in San Diego that benefits inner-city youth.
- Amano's younger brother, Fred, played defensive tackle at San Diego State. The brothers work out frequently together during the offseason. Their older sister, Allison, is an assistant buyer in San Diego.
- In May 2006, Amano received his degree in criminal justice from Southeast Missouri State. After entering the NFL 27 credit hours shy of his diploma, he completed his schooling through online courses, independent study and an internship during the 2006 offseason with the Franklin (Tenn.) Police Department in which he worked with detectives on the squad's drug task force.
- Because he had yet to receive a scholarship offer late in his senior year of high school, Amano planned to walk on to the football team at either San Diego State or the University of New Mexico. But when a coach from Southeast Missouri State called one of Amano's high school coaches inquiring about junior college players in the San Diego area, Amano's coach tried to sell him on Amano playing for the 1-AA school. When the SE Missouri State coaching staff finally saw Amano's game film, they called and offered him a scholarship without even flying him in for an official visit.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Manila, Philippines, Amano was selected by the Titans in the seventh round (239th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (13/13): Started 13 games at center and was a member of an offensive front that opened holes for Titans' ball carriers to gain 1,727 rushing yards in 2010. ## KEN AMATO

LINEBACKER/LONG SNAPPER • 6'2" • 240 lbs
COLLEGE: MONTANA STATE • ACQUIRED: FA - 2003
NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 9/9 • HOMETOWN: MIAMI, FLA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 109/0 (PLAYOFFS: 3/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/0 • 0 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR, 6 SpT

PRO: Since 2003, Ken Amato has served as a long snapper for both field goals and punts and contributed as a valued core member of special teams coverage units. His steady snaps have made an impact in Rob Bironas' emergence as a Pro Bowl kicker and have helped Brett Kern emerge as one of the NFL's top young punters. Prior to Crag Hentrich's retirement in 2010, Amato's consistency helped Hentrich ascend to the top of the team's all-time leader board in career punting. Amato also has experience in extra-linebacker defensive packages.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In his first eight NFL seasons (2003-10), he played in 109 games and totaled 46 special teams tackles, including six stops on special teams in 2010. As a situational linebacker, he has seven career tackles.
- He has served as the long snapper for a 60-yard, game-winning field goal (12/4/06 vs. Indianapolis) and an NFL-record eight field goals in a game (10/21/07 at Houston), both by Rob Bironas.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Amato played in his first NFL game nearly five years after playing his final college game. After his college eligibility expired at the end of the 1998 season, he spent the next two years finishing his degree and assisting Montana State's coaching staff with video work and a wide variety of other tasks. After graduation, with the exception of a brief stint with the Carolina Panthers in May 2002, he worked two years as a full-time juvenile service specialist in Miami until re-signing to attend his second camp with Carolina in February 2003.
- While Amato's father, Paul, is Italian-Irish, his mother, Isora Gotay, is from Puerto Rico. As a result, he speaks fluent Spanish and still communicates with his mother's side of the family in her native tongue.
- Amato learned to long snap in his last year playing Pop Warner football, but he did not do it again until college. During his time at Moorpark (Calif.) Junior College, he suffered an injury to his MCL and was unable to play linebacker for a short period. Because the team needed a long snapper, he volunteered for the duty because he wanted to stay involved while allowing his injury to heal.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Miami, Fla., native was originally signed by the Carolina Panthers as an undrafted free agent on May 28, 2002 but was waived during his first training camp.
- Served a second stint with the Panthers from Feb. 11 to June 11, 2003.
- Signed by the Titans as a free agent on Aug. 12, 2003.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/0): Served as the long snapper in all 16 games for the fifth time in his career and for the third consecutive season. He collected six special teams tackles. His snaps helped Rob Bironas tie the franchise record for single-season field goal percentage (92.3) and helped Brett Kern finish with the third-highest net punting average (39.06) in team annals.

- He notched one special teams stop in games against Pittsburgh (9/19), at N.Y. Giants (9/26), against Denver (10/3), at Jacksonville (10/18), at San Diego (10/31) and at Kansas City (12/26).
- At Indianapolis (1/2), saw action as the long snapper but left the game on the last play of the second quarter with an injury.

2009 (16/0): Played all 16 games for the fourth time in his career and for the second consecutive season. Registered five solo special teams tackles on coverage units.

- Posted one special teams tackle in games at Jacksonville (10/4), against Arizona (11/29) and against St. Louis (12/13) and additionally tied for the team lead with two special teams stops at New England (10/18).

- Against Indianapolis (10/11), gave the Titans excellent field position by pouncing on a Tim Jennings muffed punt on the Colts' 37-yard line in the first quarter.

2008 (16/0, 1/0): Served as long snapper in all 16 games and contributed to Rob Bironas' 87.9 field goal percentage (tied for 10th in NFL). Registered four special teams tackles.

- Collected a special teams tackle in games against Houston (9/21), at Baltimore (10/5), against Cleveland (12/7) and at Indianapolis (12/28).

2007 (7/0, 0/0): Played in seven games and totaled three special teams tackles before being placed on injured reserve on Oct. 31, 2007 with a knee injury.

- At Houston (10/21), served as long snapper for Rob Bironas' single-game NFL record eight field goals.
- Against Oakland (10/28), tore his right ACL and spent the remainder of season on injured reserve.

2006 (15/0): Played in 15 games and totaled five special teams tackles and three tackles at linebacker, including one tackle for loss. Helped kicker Rob Bironas go 22 of 28 on field goal attempts and 32 of 32 on PAT attempts. Snapped for three of the team's four game-winning field goals (11/26 vs. N.Y. Giants, 12/3 vs. Indianapolis and 12/24 at Buffalo). He was inactive in one game (10/15 at Washington) with a quad injury.

- Following week against Indianapolis (12/3), snapped for Bironas' game-winning 60-yard field goal, the sixth field goal in NFL history from 60 yards or longer.

2005 (7/0): Played in seven games as a long snapper until breaking his left fibula at Arizona (10/23). He was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 26.

2004 (16/0): Served as team's long snapper and contributed 10 special teams tackles. Also received occasional playing time in a four-linebacker package, where he posted four stops.

- In Monday Night Football victory at Green Bay (10/11), recorded season-high two tackles in first career action at linebacker.

2003 (16/0, 2/0): In his first season, played in every regular season game and both postseason games. Served as punting unit's long snapper and contributed nine special teams tackles during regular season.

- Against Oakland (9/7), played on special teams in professional debut.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 22 games with nine starts in two seasons at Montana State.
- In addition to action at long snapper, collected 41 tackles, three sacks and one fumble recovery at linebacker as senior in 1998.
- Contributed 48 tackles and 2.5 sacks at defensive end and linebacker as a junior (1997).
- Prior to attending Montana State, spent two seasons at Moorpark (Calif.) Junior College, earning all-state and all-conference honors as sophomore.
- Earned degree in justice studies.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Sandi (July 2004), couple resides in Brentwood, Tenn., with daughter, Jazlyn.
- Named to Dade County All-Star team at Braddock High School in Miami, Fla., where he also played volleyball and participated in the high jump in track and field.

- Returned to Braddock HS in 2006 to speak at the school's football banquet.
- Participated in youth football clinic in Puerto Rico in 2006.
- List of favorites: (movie) "The Matrix"; (TV show) "Two and a Half Men"; (actress) Reese Witherspoon; (music group) El Gran Combo; (food) Mexican; (school subject) history; and (sports hero) Dale Murphy.
- Born Kenneth Carlos Amato in Puerto Rico.

AKEEM AYERS

LINEBACKER • 6'3" • 254 lbs • COLLEGE: UCLA
ACQUIRED: D2 - 2011 • NFL EXP.: ROOKIE
HOMETOWN: LOS ANGELES, CALIF.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 12/12 • 68 tackles, 4.0 sacks, 10 TFL, 2 INT, 6 PD, 2 FF, 2 FR

PRO: The Titans used their second-round selection in 2011 on one of the most versatile linebackers in the draft, former UCLA standout Akeem Ayers. A smooth, agile defender, he lined up mostly as a strongside linebacker in college, but did see action as a rush end on passing downs. Ayers is a proven playmaker having recorded six interceptions, 14 sacks, seven forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries during his three collegiate seasons. He also possesses strong leadership qualities having served as a team captain in 2010. As a rookie, Ayers has the opportunity to make an immediate impact and compete for the starting spot at strongside linebacker.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a junior in 2010, Ayers started all 12 games and posted 68 tackles, including four sacks, 10 tackles for loss and two interceptions.
- Ayers enjoyed a breakout season as a sophomore in 2009 when he posted 75 tackles, six sacks, 14.5 tackles for loss, four interceptions and two fumble recoveries.
- Ayers has a knack for finding the end zone on defense. He scored three touchdowns during his UCLA career, including two interception returns and a fumble return for a score.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- After attending the first round of the draft in New York on Friday night, Ayers had to fly back to Los Angeles on Saturday for a previously scheduled event. He was at LAX airport when the second round started and got the call from the Titans on his car ride home with his brother and sister.
- Ayers is close friends with current Titans cornerback Alterraun Verner. The two played together at UCLA during the 2008-2009 seasons and Verner actually met with Ayers in Los Angeles this offseason to discuss what the rookie can expect in his initial NFL campaign.
- Ayers is a skilled free-hand artist. His favorite things to sketch are super heroes.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Los Angeles, Calif., native was selected by the Titans in the second round (39th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- In three seasons, Ayers played in 37 games at UCLA with 28 starts at strongside outside linebacker, recording 183 tackles with 14.0 sacks and 29.5 tackles for loss. He also caused seven fumbles, recovered four fumbles and tallied six interceptions for 100 yards with two touchdowns. Ayers earned All-America honors in his final two seasons and was one of five finalists for the 2010 Butkus Award.

AS A JUNIOR (2010), earned second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and was one of five Butkus Award finalists, finishing third in voting. Selected as a team captain and started all 12 games. Finished fourth on the team with 68 tackles, tied for first with four sacks, second with 10.0 tackles for loss and tied for second with two interceptions. Named third-team Associated Press All-American, second-team Phil Steele All-American and first-team All-Pac-10 selection. Was a Lott IMPACT Trophy quarterfinalist, Phil Steele Mid-Season All-American and was listed on the Nagurski Trophy, Bednarik Award and Rotary Lombardi Award pre-season watch lists. Named defensive co-winner of UCLA's Henry R. "Red" Sanders for Most Valuable Player.

- At Kansas State (9/4), recorded a career-high 11 tackles, including a sack in the opener. Also recovered a fumble and tipped a pass.
- Against Houston (9/18), made five tackles, including two for loss. Also intercepted a pass at the goal line and returned it 77 yards late in the first half.

- At Texas (9/25), playing both linebacker and end, was credited with six tackles, including a sack and a second stop for loss. Caused a Longhorn fumble with his sack and made his second interception of the year.
- Against Washington State (10/2), collected four tackles, including a sack, in which he forced and recovered a fumble on Cougars' final possession.
- Against Oregon State (11/6), totaled six tackles, including one sack and a second stop for loss.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2009), started all 13 games at strongside linebacker and earned honorable mention All-Pac-10. Tied a UCLA season record with two touchdowns on interceptions and scored three defensive touchdowns in all (one fumble return). Led the team with four forced fumbles and finished second on the team with six sacks and 14.5 tackles for loss. In his final four games of the season, Ayers made 30 tackles, including four sacks and 9.5 tackles for loss, three interceptions (returned one for a touchdown) and returned a fumble for a touchdown. Named co-defensive winner of UCLA's Captain Don Brown Memorial Award for Most Improved Player.

- At Kansas State (9/19), made five tackles, two sacks and a tackle for loss.
- At Stanford (10/3), totaled seven tackles and forced and recovered a fumble which led to a field goal.
- Against Oregon (10/10), made a leaping interception in the end zone for a touchdown and was credited with four tackles.
- At Washington State (11/14), made interceptions on the Cougars' first and third possessions, setting up a pair of Bruin touchdowns. Credited with two tackles for loss and made four tackles, while earning his first Pac-10 Player of the Week accolades.
- Against Arizona State (11/21), led team with eight tackles, including two sacks, and a third tackle for loss. Returned a fumble for a touchdown and forced two fumbles during the contest.
- Against Temple in the EagleBank Bowl (12/29), led the team with nine stops. Scored his third touchdown of the season when he intercepted a pass at the two-yard line and ran it in to give the Bruins the lead with 6:01 remaining in the game.

AS A FRESHMAN (2008), appeared in 12 games with three starts at strongside linebacker and was named to Rivals.com Pac-10 All-Freshman team. Posted 40 tackles, four sacks, three passes defended and a forced fumble. Started at Brigham Young, Oregon, Oregon State. Earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 from the league's coaches. Was the defensive co-winner of UCLA's John Boncheff, Jr. Memorial Award for Rookie of the Year.

- Against Fresno State (9/27), made three tackles, including an 11-yard sack.
- At Oregon (10/11), made six tackles, including a 12-yard sack.

JORDAN BABINEAUX

SAFETY • 6'0" • 210 lbs • COLLEGE: SOUTHERN ARKANSAS
ACQUIRED: UFA (SEA) - 2011 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 8/1
HOMETOWN: PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 99/29 (PLAYOFFS: 10/4)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/0 • 36 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 3 QBP, 2 INT, 8 PD, 1 FF, 0 FR, 10 SpT

PRO: Jordan Babineaux was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on Aug. 5, 2011 to compete for playing time at safety in 2011. The 6-foot, 210-pounder is a versatile player in the secondary, having started his career as a cornerback before moving to safety midway through the 2006 campaign. Babineaux has also served as both a nickel and dime back. Prior to joining the Titans, the Southern Arkansas product spent his first seven seasons as a member of the Seattle Seahawks.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2009, Babineaux started all 16 games at free safety for the first time in his career and totaled 105 tackles, 1.5 sacks, two interceptions and six passes defended.
- Babineaux began the 2006 season as the cornerback in dime packages, but supplanted Michael Boulware at strong safety midway through the year. Remained the starting strong safety until injuries at cornerback forced him to return to that position and serve as the third cornerback in the nickel package for the final two games of the season. Collected 51 tackles, an interception and four passes defended.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Babineaux earned the nickname "Big Play Babs" with several game-saving plays, including two during the Seahawks' run to Super Bowl XL. The first play came at St. Louis (10/9/05) when he forced Shaun McDonald to fumble late in the fourth quarter on a punt return that allowed Seattle to run out the clock. He saved another game when he intercepted Drew Bledsoe against Dallas (10/23/05) and returned it 25 yards to the Cowboys' 32-yard line with five seconds remaining in the game. Josh Brown then kicked the game-winning field goal as time ran out.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Port Arthur, Texas, native was originally signed by the Seattle Seahawks as an undrafted free agent on April 29, 2004.
- Released following the preseason and signed to the Seahawks' practice squad.
- Signed by the Seahawks from their practice squad to the active roster on Nov. 26, 2004.
- Released by the Seahawks on Sept. 6, 2010 and re-signed to the team a day later.
- Signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on Aug. 5, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/0, 2/0 - Seattle): Played in all 16 games and collected 36 tackles, a sack and a half, two interceptions, a forced fumble and eight passes defended. Tied for third on the team with 10 special teams tackles. Appeared in both postseason contests and posted five tackles and a pass defended. Tied for the team lead with three special teams stops in the postseason.

- Against San Francisco (9/12), recorded seven tackles and an interception he returned 20 yards.
- Against Atlanta (12/19), notched a pair of tackles and intercepted a pass that he brought back 17 yards.

2009 (16/16 - Seattle): Started all 16 games at free safety for the first time of his career. Totaled 105 tackles becoming the first Seahawks safety since Robert Blackmon in 1997 to record 100 or more in a season.

- Against Arizona (10/18), notched five tackles, including a tackle for loss and an interception he returned 18 yards.
- At St. Louis (11/29), posted a season-best 12 tackles and an interception.

2008 (14/1 - Seattle): Saw action in 14 games with one start and collected 46 tackles, an interception, a fumble recovery and three passes defended. Scored a pair of touchdowns: a 35-yard interception return and a 24-yard fumble return.

- At Miami (11/9), posted three tackles and an interception he returned 35 yards for a touchdown.
- At St. Louis (12/14), collected three tackles and scooped up a fumble and returned it 24 yards for a score.

2007 (16/0, 2/1 - Seattle): Played in all 16 games totaling 56 tackles and an interception as the team's third cornerback in nickel packages. Saw action in both postseason games with a start and had nine tackles and an interception.

- Against Washington (1/5), posted six tackles and an interception he returned 57 yards for a touchdown in an NFC Wild Card matchup.

2006 (15/8, 2/2 - Seattle): Started eight games at strong safety playing in a total of 15 contests missing the game at Chicago (10/1) with a concussion. Finished the season with 58 tackles to go along with an interception and four passes defended. Began the season at cornerback in dime packages before supplanting Michael Boulware at strong safety in the seventh game of the season. Remained the starter at strong safety until injuries forced him back to cornerback for the final two contests. Started both playoff games at cornerback and totaled nine tackles.

- Against N.Y. Giants (9/24), registered a season-high seven tackles.
- At Denver (12/3), notched an interception which led to a much needed field goal late in the fourth quarter.
- Against Dallas (1/6), started at cornerback and notched four solo tackles in the NFC Wild Card game. Stopped Tony Romo at the Seahawks' two-yard line, one yard shy of a first down, following a mishandled field goal snap which helped preserve a 21-20 lead in the final minutes.

2005 (16/4, 3/1 - Seattle): Started the final four games at cornerback and appeared in all 16 games, finishing third on the team with 17 special teams tackles. Served primarily as the team's cornerback in nickel and dime situations and posted 58 tackles and three interceptions. Saw action in all three postseason games, starting in the Divisional matchup against Washington (1/14).

- At St. Louis (10/9), forced Shaun McDonald to fumble late in the fourth quarter on a punt return that allowed Seattle to run out the clock.
- Against Dallas (10/23), intercepted a Drew Bledsoe pass and returned it 25 yards to the Cowboys' 32-yard line with five seconds remaining in the game. Josh Brown then kicked the game-winning field goal as time ran out.
- Against Indianapolis (12/24), notched a career-best 12 tackles.

2004 (6/0, 1/0 - Seattle): Saw action in the final six games after spending the first 11 weeks on the Seahawks' practice squad. Totaled three defensive tackles and five special teams tackles. Played in the playoff game against St. Louis (1/8) and notched a defensive stop and a special teams tackle.

COLLEGE:

DAVE BALL

DEFENSIVE END • 6'5" • 255 lbs • COLLEGE: UCLA
ACQUIRED: FA - 2008 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 7/4
HOMETOWN: DIXON, CALIF.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 58/15 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 11/11 • 59 tackles, 7.0 sacks, 10 QBP, 0 INT, 3 PD, 0 FF, 1 FR

PRO: Dave Ball came to Tennessee as a free agent in 2008, hungry to take advantage of the attacking scheme employed by the Titans defense that matched his talents. By 2010, he was a mainstay in the lineup, setting career highs in sacks (7.0) and tackles (59) before a concussion ended his sixth NFL season prematurely. Originally a fourth-round draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004, his arduous road to success in the NFL led him to three different teams prior to the Titans. Before signing as a free agent in 2008, Ball spent time with the Chargers (2004-05), New York Jets (2005-06) and Carolina Panthers (2007).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Ball set career highs with 11 starts, seven sacks and 59 tackles.
- On Oct. 3, 2010, Ball set a career high with 2.5 sacks against the Broncos and quarterback Kyle Orton. It was the highest single-game total by a Titans player in 2010.
- Ball's first season with the Titans was 2008, when he tallied then-career highs of 4.5 sacks, 51 tackles and one interception.
- In a Thanksgiving game at Detroit on Nov. 27, 2008, Ball recorded his first career interception, picking off a Daunte Culpepper pass and racing 15 yards for a touchdown. He celebrated as he crossed the goal line with a Turkey dance. Ball also recorded a sack and forced fumble in the game.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- His identical twin brother, Matt, also played defensive end at UCLA and currently works for a research and development group in Washington, D.C.
- With patience and determination, Ball traveled a long road to find a professional home in Tennessee. After moving from San Diego to New York Carolina, he was completely out of football awaiting a contract from September 2007 until January 2008, when the Titans signed him. An 8"x11" sheet of paper, which he affixed early in his Titans tenure, is taped in his locker that reads in blue marker "Time is running out!!"

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Fairfield, Calif., native was originally selected in the fourth round (133rd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers.
- Released by the Chargers on Nov. 5, 2005 and signed to the practice squad on Nov. 8.
- Signed by the New York Jets off the San Diego practice squad on Dec. 13, 2005 and stayed with the Jets through the 2006 campaign.
- Signed with the Carolina Panthers from March 26-Sept. 2, 2007 (out of football during 2007 season).
- Signed by the Titans as a free agent on Jan. 3, 2008.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (11/11 – Tennessee): Started 11 games at defensive end and finished second on the team with a career-high seven sacks. Collected a career-best 59 tackles, as well as 10 quarterback pressures and three passes defended. Placed on injured reserve on Dec. 17, 2010. Led or tied for the team lead in sacks five times (vs. PIT, at NYG, vs. DEN, vs. PHI, vs. WAS).

- Against Oakland (9/12), matched career high with seven tackles and added two passes defended.
- Against Pittsburgh (9/19), tied career high with seven tackles and added a sack, two quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery. Recovered a Dennis Dixon fumble that was forced by a Will Witherspoon strip-sack and returned it five yards to the Steelers' 37-yard line in the first quarter. Halted a Steelers' drive by dropping Charlie Batch for a one-yard sack on third-and-five in the fourth quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), dropped Eli Manning for a 12-yard sack late in the first quarter.

- Against Denver (10/3), tied a career high with seven tackles, posted a career-best 2.5 sacks and added two quarterback pressures. Teamed with Jason Babin to drop Kyle Orton for a five-yard sack in the first quarter. Ended a Broncos' drive by sacking Orton for a two-yard loss on third-and-five in the third quarter. Sacked Orton for a five-yard loss late in the fourth quarter.
- At Dallas (10/10), deflected a pass at the line of scrimmage that was then intercepted by Alterraun Verner deep in Cowboys' territory in the fourth quarter.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), recorded six tackles, a half sack and a quarterback pressure. Teamed with Jason Babin to sack Trent Edwards for a four-yard loss in the fourth quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), sacked Kevin Kolb for a four-yard loss in the second quarter.
- At Miami (11/14), matched a career high with seven tackles.
- Against Washington (11/21), recorded six tackles, a sack and two quarterback pressures. Dropped Donovan McNabb for a seven-yard sack in overtime.

2009 (11/1 – Tennessee): In 11 games, registered 38 tackles, five quarterback pressures, two stops for loss, a pass defended and three special teams tackles.

- Against Buffalo (11/15), notched one tackle, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended in the Titans' 41-17 win.
- Against Miami (12/20), posted six tackles, two quarterback pressures and a stop on special teams in the Titans' 27-24 overtime win.
- At Seattle (1/3), recorded only start of the season and matched season high with six tackles, including two stops for loss and a quarterback pressure in the Titans' season-ending 17-13 victory.

2008 (15/3, 0/0 – Tennessee): Made impact in first season in Tennessee with 4.5 sacks (tied for fourth on team) and one interception. Finished fifth on squad with 13 quarterback pressures and tied for team lead in quarterback pressures three times (at BLT, at KC, vs. GB). Tied for team lead in sacks three times (at CHI, at JAX, at DET).

- At Baltimore (10/5), collected career-best seven tackles and tied for the team lead with two quarterback pressures, playing both defensive end and defensive tackle for injury-depleted line.
- Against Indianapolis (10/27), left Monday Night Football game with concussion after opening kickoff.
- Against Green Bay (11/2), set career high with seven tackles and sacked Aaron Rodgers for four-yard loss.
- At Chicago (11/9), tallied six-yard sack of Rex Grossman.
- At Jacksonville (11/16), made first career start and posted five tackles, one sack and two quarterback pressures in 24-14 come-from-behind victory. Sacked David Garrard for seven-yard loss in fourth quarter.
- At Detroit (11/27), collected three tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and an interception return for a touchdown in 47-10 victory over Lions on Thanksgiving. Intercepted Daunte Culpepper pass intended for Kevin Smith and raced 15 yards for touchdown in first quarter. Forced fumble while dropping Drew Henson for sack in fourth quarter.
- Inactive in season finale (12/28 at Indianapolis) and in playoff game (1/10 against Baltimore) with back injury.

2007: Out of football during 2007 season after being released by the Carolina Panthers on Sept. 2, 2007.

2006 (10/0 – N.Y. Jets): Played in 10 games with Jets and was inactive six times during regular season and once in playoffs. Totaled one tackle and two passes defended.

HOMETOWN: LOUISVILLE, KY.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 96/0 (PLAYOFFS: 2/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/0 • 24 of 26 FGs, 38 of 38 PATs, 110 points, 17 touchbacks, 2 SpT

PRO BOWLS

PRO: A powerful right-footed kicker in his seventh NFL season, Rob Bironas has earned the right to be named among the best players at his position. Statistically one of the top 10 kickers in NFL history, he made 85.6 percent of his field goals in the first six years of his career and became one of the top two scorers in club history. Prior to winning a roster spot with the Titans in 2005, Bironas spent time in training camp with the Green Bay Packers in 2002, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2003 and the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2004. Meanwhile, he spent two seasons in the Arena Football League and one season in Af2. In 2003, he made 12 of 27 field goal attempts for the Af2's Charleston Swamp Foxes. In 2004, he played for the Carolina Cobras and converted 17 of 40 field goal attempts and 70 of 89 PATs. In the spring of 2005, he connected on seven of 16 field goal attempts and 99 of 117 extra point attempts for the AFL's New York Dragons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Bironas enters the 2011 season as the fourth-ranked kicker in NFL history in field goal accuracy, connecting on 85.6 percent of his attempts (160 of 187).
- Only Al Del Greco (1,060 points) has accounted for more points than Bironas in the history of the Titans/Oilers organization. Bironas passed George Blanda (598) for second place on the franchise's scoring list with a 55-yard field goal on Oct. 3, 2010.
- From 2005-10, Bironas made nine game-winning field goals, a total that put him second in club annals behind Al Del Greco (10). In 2006, he set a franchise record with four game-winners.
- Also from 2005-10, Bironas made 160 total field goals, the most by any NFL player during that time span.
- In 2010, Bironas appeared in all 16 games for the sixth consecutive season. Finished seventh in the AFC with 110 points and fourth in the AFC with 17 touchbacks. He made 24 of 26 attempts for a percentage of 92.3, which ranked third in the NFL.
- In 2008, Bironas was second in the AFC (seventh in the NFL) in scoring with 127 total points. He made 16 field goals of 40 or more yards to set a team record.
- The 2007 Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro selection owns club records for longest field goal (60 yards), most field goals in a game (eight, also an NFL record), most consecutive games with a field goal (20) and most consecutive field goals (20, tied Al Del Greco).
- Also one of the NFL's best kickoff specialists, Bironas converted 18.4 percent of his kickoffs (83 of 451) into touchbacks from 2005-10, ranking seventh in the league in that time span.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- The Rob Bironas Fund was created to primarily assist with music education efforts in Middle Tennessee.
- Bironas donated his cleats and the football used to make his NFL-record eighth field goal in a game at Houston (10/21/07) to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
- Bironas' father, Larry, owns Bironas, Inc., a building automation company in Louisville, Ky. While Rob was out of football from 2001-02, he worked for his father and older brother, Greg, doing sales and marketing for the business.
- During his time in Charlotte, N.C., while he was playing for the AFL's Carolina Cobras, he took a second job working in security and loss prevention at a Best Buy store.
- Also while in Charlotte, Bironas helped coach kickers at Providence High School.

- After transferring from Auburn, Bironas spent one semester at Georgia Southern before returning to complete his marketing degree at Auburn in spring 2001.
- Bironas regularly blogs on his website, www.robbironas.com.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Louisville, Ky., native originally signed in the NFL with the Packers as a free agent on April 26, 2002 and was waived by the Packers on Aug. 1, 2002.
- Signed with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from Aug. 16-24, 2003.
- Signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers from June 10-Sept. 5, 2004.
- Signed by the Titans on June 21, 2005.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (16/0): Appeared in all 16 games for the sixth consecutive season and finished seventh in the AFC with 110 points and fourth in the AFC with 17 touchbacks. Has made 174 consecutive extra point attempts. Moved past George Blanda into second place on the franchise all-time scoring list with a 55-yard field goal against Denver (10/3/10). Connected on at least one field goal in 20 consecutive games (11/1/09 - 11/21/10), setting a franchise record. Reached 100 points for the fourth consecutive season. He joins Del Greco (1995-00) as the only players in franchise history to accomplish the feat. Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles once in 2010 (at MIA).
- Against Oakland (9/12), made his only field goal attempt (43). Tied a career high with five extra points. Gave the Titans a 10-3 lead with a 43-yard field goal with 1:39 remaining in the first quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), connected on both field goals (48, 22) and all three extra point opportunities. Gave the Titans an early 3-0 lead with a 48-yard field goal with 9:29 remaining in the first quarter. Extended the Titans' lead to 22-10 with a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.
- Against Denver (10/3), made good on two of three field goals and both extra points. Moved into second place on the franchise's all-time scoring list by nailing a 55-yard field goal as time expired in the first half, evening the score at 10-10. Gave the Titans a 20-16 lead with a 46-yard field goal into a steady wind with 5:00 remaining in the third quarter. Missed a 35-yard field goal wide right in the first quarter. Collected a solo special teams tackle.
- At Dallas (10/10), connected on both field goals (52, 40) and all four extra point chances. Gave the Titans an early 10-0 lead with a 52-yard field goal with 5:22 remaining in the first quarter. Connected on a 40-yard field goal with 19 seconds left to play in the third quarter, giving the Titans a 20-17 advantage.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), nailed all three field goal tries (26, 33, 36) and all three extra points. Extended the Titans lead to 17-0 with a 26-yard field goal with 2:09 left to play in the first half. Connected on a 33-yard field goal giving the Titans a 20-0 advantage with 11:25 remaining in the third quarter. Made good on a 36-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), connected on all three field goals (41, 38, 33) and all four extra point chances. Booted five touchbacks on seven kickoffs. Cut the Eagles lead to 16-10 with a 41-yard field goal in the third quarter. Gave the Titans a 20-19 lead with a 38-yard field goal with 9:26 remaining in the fourth quarter. Sealed the game with a 33-yard field goal that gave the Titans a 30-19 lead in the final stanza.
- Against Washington (11/21), made good on at least one field goal in a franchise record 20th consecutive game. He broke his own franchise record of 19 consecutive games with a field goal, set in 2006-07. Connected on all three field goal attempts (25, 32, 40) and his lone extra point chance. Evened the score at 10-10 with a 25-yard field goal with 3:31 remaining in the second quarter. Knotted the score at 13-13 with a 32-yard field goal in the third quarter. Connected on a 40-yard field goal, giving the Titans a 16-13 lead with 8:40 remaining in the fourth quarter.

2009 (16/0): Made 27 of 32 field goal attempts and ranked sixth in the AFC (10th in the NFL) with 118 points. He also ranked seventh in the AFC (20th in the NFL) with seven touchbacks on kickoffs.

- Against Indianapolis (10/11), he made all three field goal attempts, all of which were beyond 40 yards. In the first half, he capped drives with 49, 43 and 46-yarders, marking the second time in his career he made three or more field goals of 40-plus yards (11/27/08 at Detroit). He became the second NFL kicker in 2009 to accomplish the feat.
- Against Jacksonville (11/1), he made all three field goal attempts, converting from 48, 25 and 45 yards. It was his 16th career game with three or more made field goals. On his second field goal of the game, he passed Tony Zendejas (117) for second place on the team's all-time list for most career field goals.
- At San Francisco (11/8), he made two field goals in two attempts, converting from 21 and 28 yards. With his 21-yarder, he became the fourth player in franchise history to reach 500 career points, joining Al Del Greco (1,060), George Blanda (598) and Tony Zendejas (548).
- Against Buffalo (11/15), he made two of three field goal attempts. His 51-yarder with 3:21 remaining made it a two-score contest (27-17). His 38-yard field goal in the second quarter was his 13th consecutive successful attempt, a streak that was broken when he missed from 60 yards at the end of the first half.
- At Houston (11/23), he made two of three field goal attempts in a 20-17 Monday night win. In the third quarter, he gave the Titans a 17-14 lead with a 50-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter, he booted a 53-yarder that proved to be the game-winning score, his eighth career game-winner. It was the first game in his career that he made two field goals of 50 or more yards.
- Against Arizona (11/29), he made field goals from 52 and 24 yards. His 52-yard field goal in the first quarter was his fourth field goal of 50-plus yards in three games.
- Against St. Louis (12/13), he recorded his seventh career game with four or more field goals, connecting on all four of his attempts from 27, 34, 36 and 50 yards. With his third field goal in the game, Bironas passed former Oilers kicker Tony Zendejas (548 points from 1985-90) for third place on the franchise's all-time scoring list.
- Against Miami (12/20), he made both field goal attempts from 24 and 46 yards. The latter came in overtime to give the Titans a 27-24 win. The kick was his ninth career game-winning field goal (final score of game and put Titans ahead in fourth quarter or overtime) and his second of the season.

2008 (16/0, 1/0): Ranked second in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in scoring in fourth NFL season. He made 29 out of his 33 field goal attempts and all 40 of his extra point attempts to give him 127 total points, the fourth-highest scoring total in franchise history. He made 16 field goals of 40 or more yards to set a team record. On kickoffs, Bironas tied for first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 22 touchbacks.

- Against Indianapolis (10/27), connected on three of four field goal attempts, making kicks of 34, 44 and 48 yards. The first two successful attempts gave him 20 consecutive field goals, tying Al Del Greco's franchise record (1998-99). Bironas made every regular season field goal from Dec. 16, 2007 until missing 43-yard attempt later in game against Colts.
- Against Green Bay (11/2), made four of five field goal attempts, including game-winner from 41 yards in overtime. It was the seventh game-winning field goal of his career. He also hit from 31, 25 and 22 yards and surpassed Toni Fritsch (392 points) for sixth place on team's all-time scoring list.
- Against New York Jets (11/23), made both field goal attempts (43 and 49 yards) to give him 100 career field goals.
- At Detroit (11/27), made four field goals in four attempts, all from beyond 40 yards (49, 41, 45 and 43 yards) in Thanksgiving victory. It was first time in career he made four field goals of 40 or more yards in same game. He also set career high with five extra points. He went over 100-point mark for second consecutive season.
- Against Cleveland (12/7), made four extra points to move into a tie with Earl Campbell (438 points) for fifth on team's all-time scoring list.

- At Houston (12/14), successful on all four field goal attempts, including season-long 51-yarder. It was sixth time in career he made at least four field goals in game and third time in 2008. He surpassed Earl Campbell (438 career points) on team's all-time scoring list.
- Against Pittsburgh (12/21), successful on only field goal attempt and made all four extra point attempts. With 42-yard field goal in second quarter, moved past former running back Eddie George (450 career points with Titans) for sole possession of fourth place on team's all-time scoring list.
- In Divisional Playoff against Baltimore (1/10), made 27-yard field goal and missed from 51 yards.

2007 (16/0, 1/0): Voted to his first career Pro Bowl appearance after hitting 35 of 39 field goal attempts and converting all 28 extra point attempts. He also was named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, won the PFW/PFWA Golden Toe Award and was the October AFC Special Teams Player of the Month. Bironas finished second in team annals behind Al Del Greco's 1998 effort in scoring (133 to 136), made field goals (35 to 36) and field goal accuracy (89.7 percent to 92.3 percent). His 35 made field goals led the NFL, and his 133 points ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL among kickers. He made 19 consecutive field goals from Oct. 14-Nov. 25, also ranking second in franchise history (20 by Del Greco, 1998-99).

- Throughout the season, Bironas connected on a total of 10 field goals within the final two minutes of the half (nine first half, one second half).
- On kickoffs, he was second in the AFC and third in the NFL with 16 touchbacks.
- At Houston (10/21), set new NFL record with eight field goals, making all eight field goal tries -- good from 52, 25, 21, 30, 28, 43, 29 and 29 yards. Final field goal occurred as time expired and gave Titans a 38-36 victory. It was Bironas' sixth career game-winning field goal. Previous single-game NFL record was seven field goals, which had occurred four times before. Jim Bakken (9/24/67), Rich Karlis (11/5/89), Chris Boniol (11/18/96) and Billy Cundiff (9/15/03) were only players in history to hit seven field goals in a game, and only Karlis and Boniol did so without a missed try. Bengals kicker Shayne Graham kicked seven field goals later in 2007 (11/11). Bironas kicked five field goals in first half, marking third time in NFL history that five field goals had been kicked by one player in first half. Morten Andersen (Atlanta) kicked five vs. San Francisco (9/3/00) and Boniol (Dallas) kicked five vs. Green Bay (11/18/96). Bironas' 26 points (eight FGs, two PATs) were most by kicker since NFL merger in 1970. Point total tied George Blanda (9/18/60) for second-most in franchise history by any player behind Billy Cannon (30 on 12/10/61). Bironas was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October after making 13 of 14 field goals in four games during the month.
- At Indianapolis (12/30), was three-of-three on field goals and made only extra point attempt in regular season finale and playoff-clinching victory. Connected on field goals of 40, 54 and 33 yards. His 54-yarder put Titans ahead 13-10 in the fourth quarter. His 10 points gave him 133 in regular season to finish second in team annals behind Al Del Greco (136 in 1998).
- In Wild Card Game at San Diego (1/6), made playoff debut and connected on two of three field goal attempts (good from 30 and 44 yards).

2006 (16/0): Led team in scoring for second consecutive season with 98 points. He connected on 22 of 28 field goals (78.5 percent) and was perfect on 32 of 32 extra point attempts. He also posted franchise record four game-winning field goals in a single season (previous record, three game-winning field goals by Al Del Greco in 2000 and Joe Nedney in 2001). Kicked off 70 times, placing 26 in the end zone and 10 touchbacks.

- Against Indianapolis (12/3), registered his third game-winning field goal of the season and fourth of his career on a franchise-record 60-yard field goal. His 60-yard field goal tied for fourth-longest in NFL history and he became the sixth player to kick a 60-yard field goal or longer in NFL history and the third player from that elite group to boot a game winner.
- At Buffalo (12/24), posted franchise record fourth game-winning field goal of the season and fifth of his career. He tied season-high connecting on three of three field goals (42, 20 and 30) and added three extra point attempts.

2005 (16/0): Led Titans in scoring with 99 points and was successful on 23 of 29 field goal attempts and 30 of 32 PAT's. Bironas' 11 touchbacks tied for fourth in AFC and tied for seventh in NFL. His 11 touchbacks were also the most by Titans kicker since 2001, when Joe Nedney booted 12 touchbacks.

- Against Baltimore (9/11), connected on three field goals (39, 29 and 47) and two extra point attempts, his first NFL points.

2004: Spent training camp with Pittsburgh Steelers before being released in final roster cut down. Made two of three field goal attempts and was perfect on extra points in four preseason games.

2003: Spent training camp with Tampa Bay Buccaneers before being released prior to season. Was used on kickoffs in two preseason games.

2002: Was on Green Bay Packers roster during training camp but did not see preseason action.

COLLEGE:

- Began career at Auburn (1996-99) before transferring to Georgia Southern for senior season.
- Was member of Eagles' NCAA Division I-AA National Championship team, connecting on seven of 13 field goal attempts during season and scoring 39 total points.
- At Auburn, was semi-finalist for Lou Groza Award in 1998 after making 12 of 16 field goal attempts, including two successful 49-yard tries, and making all 18 PATs for team-high 54 points.
- Received degree from Auburn in marketing.

KENNY BRITT

WIDE RECEIVER • 6'3" • 215 lbs • COLLEGE: RUTGERS
ACQUIRED: 1ST ROUND - 2009 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 3/3
HOMETOWN: BAYONNE, N.J.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 28/12 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 12/6 • 42 receptions for 775 yards, 9 TDs

PRO: Wide receiver Kenny Britt provides an explosive element to the team's passing game with his combination of size, speed and catching ability. He is considered one of the team's building blocks at the offensive "skill" positions, alongside a pair of the team's other first-round draft picks: rookie quarterback Jake Locker and fourth-year running back Chris Johnson. In Britt's first two seasons (2009–2010), he led the team with a total of 1,476 receiving yards and tied for the team lead with 12 touchdown receptions. In that period of time, he ranked sixth in the NFL with a 17.6-yard receiving average.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- With 701 receiving yards as a rookie and 775 yards in 2010, Britt became the first Titans/Oilers player since Chris Sanders (1995–1996) to lead the squad in receiving yards in each of his first two seasons.
- From Sept. 26–Oct. 24, 2010, Britt caught at least one touchdown pass in five consecutive games, tying for the second-longest streak in franchise history.
- Britt recorded one of the best receiving games in franchise annals against the Eagles on Oct. 24, 2010, when he caught seven passes for 225 yards and three touchdowns. His yardage total ranked fifth in team history.
- In 2009, his rookie receiving yardage total (701 yards) ranked fifth in franchise rookie history and was the highest by a Titans rookie receiver since Chris Sanders' 823 yards in 1995.
- Among the 2009 NFL rookie class, Britt was seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in receptions (42), and he was fifth in the NFL and second in the AFC in receiving yards (701).
- Britt provided one of the most dramatic endings to an NFL game in 2009 with a 10-yard, game-winning touchdown reception on fourth down as time expired against the Arizona Cardinals (11/29/09).
- In pre-draft workouts in 2009, Britt was timed in the 40-yard dash at 4.5 seconds and displayed a 37-inch vertical jump.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Prior to the 2009 NFL Draft, Britt spent extensive time training with former Denver Broncos wide receiver Rod Smith, who totaled more than 11,000 receiving yards during his career.
- When the Titans used the 30th overall selection in the 2009 NFL Draft on him, Britt became the first Rutgers player ever to be drafted in the first round.
- Even though he has two NFL seasons under his belt, Britt is still one of the youngest players on the team's roster. He was born on Sept. 19, 1988.
- The son of Jack Britt and Michelle Johnson, Kenny also was influenced heavily throughout his youth by his uncle, Rev. Alex C. Britt. Kenny was heavily involved in his uncle's Newark congregation, the Church of the Living Water, and even moved in with the reverend and his wife, Donalda, prior to his junior year at Rutgers.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Bayonne (bay-OWN), N.J., native was selected by the Titans in the first round (30th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (12/6): Appeared in 12 games with six starts at wide receiver. Finished second on the team with 42 receptions and led the squad with 775 receiving yards and nine receiving touchdowns. Placed seventh in the NFL with an 18.5-yard receiving average. Led or tied for the team lead in receptions four times in 2010 (vs. PIT, at DAL, vs. PHI, vs. HST). Led the team in receiving yards four times in 2010 (at DAL, vs. PHI, vs. HST, at IND). A right hamstring injury suffered at San Diego (10/31) caused him to miss four games.

- Against Pittsburgh (9/19), tied for the team lead with five receptions for 41 yards and scored a two-point conversion on a catch from Kerry Collins.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), gave the Titans a 19-10 lead with an acrobatic 13-yard touchdown catch on third-and-seven in the third quarter.
- Against Denver (10/3), evened the score at 7-7 with an eight-yard touchdown grab on third-and-one in the second quarter.
- At Dallas (10/10), started at wide receiver and snared four receptions for 86 yards and a touchdown. Drew two pass interference penalties totaling 48 yards on the Titans' opening touchdown drive. Gave the Titans a 17-3 lead with a 12-yard touchdown grab with 12:28 remaining in the second quarter. Kickstarted a Titans' scoring drive with a 52-yard diving catch in the third quarter.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), started at wide receiver and posted two catches for 33 yards, including a touchdown catch in his fourth consecutive game. Gave the Titans an early 7-0 lead with a 23-yard, catch-and-run touchdown reception in the first quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), led the team and tied a career high with seven receptions for a career-best 225 yards and three touchdowns. The 225 receiving yards were the fifth most in franchise history and the most since Drew Bennett amassed 233 yards against Kansas City (12/13/04). Gave the Titans a 7-3 lead with a leaping, 26-yard touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone on third-and-six in the second quarter. With the Titans pinned at their own one-yard line, drew a 21-yard pass interference penalty that kickstarted a scoring drive. On the next play, hauled in a 34-yard reception down the left sideline. Extended the Titans' scoring drive in the third quarter with a six-yard reception on third-and-one. Started the Titans' fourth-quarter rally by adjusting to a Kerry Collins bomb and racing 80 yards for a touchdown that cut the Eagles lead to 19-17. Snared a 42-yard reception during a Titans' scoring drive in the fourth quarter. Extended the Titans lead to 27-19 with his third touchdown catch of the afternoon, a 16-yarder with 5:03 remaining in the fourth quarter. Joined Bill Groman (eight in 1961) and Chris Sanders (five in 1995) as the only players in franchise history to record at least one touchdown reception in five consecutive contests.
- At San Diego (10/31), left the game in the first quarter with a hamstring injury.
- Against Houston (12/19), led the team with six receptions and 128 receiving yards. Kickstarted the Titans' second touchdown drive with a 59-yard reception off a deflected pass in the first quarter.
- At Kansas City (12/26), snared four receptions for 89 yards and a touchdown. Got the Titans on the scoreboard with a 53-yard touchdown reception with 4:15 remaining in the first half.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), led the team with 85 receiving yards on five receptions with a touchdown before leaving the game in the third quarter with an injury. Converted a third-and-12 and a fourth-and-one with receptions of 22 and eight yards, respectively, during the Titans' scoring drive in the second quarter. Evened the score at 13-13 in the third quarter with a 21-yard touchdown reception.

2009 (16/6): In his rookie season, led the team with 701 receiving yards and finished fourth on the squad with 42 receptions. He was one of two Titans rookies in 2009 to play in all 16 games, recording six starts. Ranked fifth in franchise rookie history in receiving yards and produced the highest receiving yardage total by a Titans rookie receiver since Chris Sanders' 823 yards in 1995. Tied for sixth in team annals in receptions by a rookie. Among the 2009 NFL rookie class, Britt was seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in receptions, and he was fifth in the NFL and second in the AFC in receiving yards. Ranked eighth in the NFL with a 16.7-yard receiving average. Posted at least one reception in 14 of 16 games in 2009, including at least one catch in the final eight games of the season. Led the team in receiving yards six times (at PIT, at NYJ, at JAX, at HST, vs. ARI, vs. STL), and led or tied for the team lead in receptions four times (at NYJ, at JAX, at HST, vs. ARI). Registered two 100-yard receiving games (at JAX, vs. ARI).

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), saw significant action as a reserve in his first NFL contest and grabbed four receptions for a team-high 85 yards. Collected his first career NFL reception with a 15-yard catch in the second quarter. Got open down the left sideline and hauled in a 57-yard reception to set up the Titans' lone touchdown of the evening late in the second quarter.

- Against Buffalo (11/15), made his first career NFL start at wide receiver and caught two passes for 55 yards in the Titans' 41-17 win. Kickstarted the Titans' second touchdown drive with a 38-yard reception down the left sideline in the first quarter.

- At Houston (11/23), started and led the team with 42 receiving yards on four receptions with a touchdown in a 20-17 Monday Night Football victory. Registered his first career NFL touchdown reception with a 13-yard catch on third-and-three with 12:50 remaining in the second quarter.

- Against Arizona (11/29), tied a career-best with seven receptions for a career-high 128 yards, including the game-winning score in the Titans' 20-17 come-from-behind victory. Converted a fourth-and-eight with a 24-yard reception in the second quarter. Hauled in a 51-yard catch in the fourth quarter. Kept the Titans' game-winning touchdown drive alive with a 10-yard catch on fourth-and-four in the final stanza. Finally, gave the Titans a 20-17 victory with a leaping, 10-yard touchdown catch in the back of the end zone on fourth-and-goal with no time remaining in the game.

- At Indianapolis (12/6), grabbed three receptions for 46 yards and a touchdown, marking his third consecutive game with a scoring catch. Hauled in a 25-yard reception along the left sideline in the second quarter and cut the Colts lead to 21-10 with a six-yard touchdown catch with 20 seconds left to play in the first half. Returned a kickoff a season-best 56 yards in the fourth quarter.

- Against St. Louis (12/13), snared two receptions for a team-high 75 yards in the Titans' commanding 47-7 victory. Hauled in a 31-yard reception on the Titans first play from scrimmage, then caught a short pass in the left flat and turned it up-field for a 44-yard gain in the third quarter.

COLLEGE:

- In a three-year career at Rutgers University (34 games, 31 starts), set a Big East Conference record with 3,043 receiving yards. ### 2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 12/4 • 29 tackles, 0.0 sacks, 0 TFL, 2 INT, 4 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Tommie Campbell is a big, athletic cornerback that displays the speed and physical attributes necessary to compete at the pro level. The 6-foot-3-inch, 205-pounder brings a physical presence to the cornerback position having played linebacker and safety earlier in his collegiate career. Campbell was a highly-recruited player coming out of high school before attending three schools over six years.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- At the Cactus Bowl All-Star Game after his senior season, Campbell was easily the fastest player in attendance posting 40 yard-dash times of 4.31 and 4.33 seconds.
- As a sophomore in 2006, Campbell played in 11 games with six starts as a linebacker at Pittsburgh and tallied a career-best 49 tackles and four tackles for losses of 27 yards.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Prior to enrolling at California (Pa.) in 2010, Campbell held a full-time job as a janitor for six months at Pittsburgh International Airport.
- Campbell comes from a storied prep football program at Aliquippa High School. Former All-Pro cornerback Ty Law and Pro Football Hall of Famer Mike Ditka both attended the school, and Campbell played alongside current N.Y. Jets Pro Bowl cornerback Darrelle Revis.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Aliquippa, Pa., native was selected by the Titans with their second pick in the seventh round (251st overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

• Campbell played 42 career collegiate games with three different schools. He spent his first two seasons at the University of Pittsburgh, playing in 22 games with six starts. After leaving the Panthers program, he transferred to Edinboro for the 2007 campaign. Campbell was out of school for two and a half years before enrolling at California (Pa.) for his final season of eligibility in 2010.

AS A SENIOR (2010), appeared in all 12 games with four starts as a cornerback at California (Pa.), posting 29 tackles and two interceptions. Selected to Eastham Energy All-Star Game and Cactus Bowl.

- At Saginaw Valley (9/4), made four stops (three solo) in season-opener.
- At C.W. Post (9/11), collected three solo tackles and a pass defended.
- At Clarion (9/25), finished with four tackles (three solo) and a pass break-up.
- At Mercyhurst (10/23), registered season-high five stops (three solo).
- Against Bloomsburg (11/20), made two tackles and two interceptions in the NCAA Playoffs.
- At the Cactus Bowl All-Star Game (1/7), posted five tackles as a starter.

AS A JUNIOR (2007), played in eight games with four starts at strong safety at Edinboro. Totaled 27 tackles (19 solo), 1.5 tackles for loss and a six-yard sack. Recorded five passes defended and two forced fumbles.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2006), made a successful transition from defensive back to WILL linebacker during the spring at Pittsburgh. Played in 11 games with six starts at linebacker and tallied 49 tackles, four tackles for losses of 27 yards, an interception that was returned 61 yards, three passes defended and a fumble recovery. Played alongside current Washington Redskins linebacker H.B. Blades and Indianapolis Colts linebacker Clint Session.

- At Cincinnati (9/8), had a career-high eight tackles and two tackles for losses of 20 yards.

- At Central Florida (10/13), collected seven tackles and halted a scoring threat by picking off a pass at the Panthers' two-yard line and returning it 61 yards.
- Against West Virginia (11/16), notched six tackles, including two tackles for losses of seven yards.

AS A FRESHMAN (2005), played in all 11 games at Pittsburgh as a reserve strong safety as a true freshman, largely in special teams capacities. Collected five tackles on the season.

- At Nebraska (9/17), posted a season-high two tackles at Nebraska.

PERSONAL:

- Single and splits time between Nashville and Aliquippa, Pa.
- A multi-faceted athlete who was named to The Associated Press Pennsylvania Class AA All-State Team (first team) in the "specialist" category. Led Aliquippa with 26 catches for 502 yards (19.3 avg.) and eight touchdowns as a senior. At safety compiled 74 tackles and four interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. Set an Aliquippa record with a 99-yard punt return for a touchdown (against Quaker Valley).
- Named Pittsburgh Post-Gazette "Fabulous 22," Pittsburgh Tribune-Review "Terrific 25," Pittsburgh Tribune-Review All-Class AA, Harrisburg Patriot-News "Platinum 33," Beaver County Times Male Athlete of the Year (2004-05), first team All-Midwestern Conference on both sides of the ball and Midwestern Conference's Co-Most Valuable Player.
- Led Aliquippa to a 26-2 record (.929) in his two years as a starter. As a senior, the Quips went 12-1, earning a berth in the WPIAL Class AA title game. His junior season Aliquippa went 14-1, winning both the Pennsylvania Class AA championship and the WPIAL Class AA title. Selected to play in the prestigious Big 33 Football Classic.
- Was a track standout who helped Aliquippa to the 2005 PIAA Class AA championship. Captured the state title in the 100 meters (10.65), becoming the first Aliquippa athlete to win a PIAA title in a running event. Also anchored Aliquippa's gold-medal winning 400-meter relay team (42.63) and was the state runner-up in the 200 meters.
- Was part of three record-breaking performances at the 2005 WPIAL Class AA track and field championships. Won the 100 (10.69) and 200 meters (22.13) in meet-record times. Anchored the 400-meter relay team that set a WPIAL Class AA championship record by finishing in 42.75.
- Also lettered in basketball and baseball.
- Born Tommie James Campbell on Sept. 19, 1987 in Aliquippa, Pa.

ZACH CLAYTON

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 6'2" • 299 lbs • COLLEGE: AUBURN
ACQUIRED: D7a - 2011 • NFL EXP.: ROOKIE
HOMETOWN: OPELIKA, ALA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 14/14 • 28 tackles, 1.0 sacks, 8 TFL, 0 INT, 1 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Zach Clayton is a physical presence in the middle of the defensive line. The 6-foot-2-inch, 299-pounder is strong at the point of attack against the run, yet possesses the agility and athleticism to provide pressure on the passer. A hard worker in the weight room and leader by example on the field, Clayton provides depth in the Titans' defensive tackle rotation.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a senior in 2010, Clayton started all 14 games and posted career-highs with 28 tackles and eight tackles for loss. In the BCS National Championship Game victory, he dropped Darron Thomas for a two-yard sack on a third-and-five play in the third quarter.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Clayton comes from an athletic family. His parents met while on the track team at the University of Illinois. His mother, Rebecca, was a three-time All-American in the long jump and his father, Jerry, threw the shot put for the school. Jerry has served as the assistant head track coach at Auburn for the last 13 years.
- Clayton threw the discus for two seasons (2007-2008) while at Auburn. During the 2008 outdoor track season, he qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships, finishing 19th. He finished second in the discus at the Mid-east Regional Championships with a personal-best throw of 58.49m (191-11), a mark that ranks fifth in school history. As a freshman, Clayton finished sixth at the SEC Outdoor Championships with a mark of 55.97m (183-7), earning him a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. He won the discus throw at the Tiger Track Classic in 2007.
- To pass the time during the draft, Clayton and his family worked on a 1,000-piece puzzle of hot air balloons, which they finished 30 minutes before the Titans selected him the seventh round.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Opelika, Ala., native was selected by the Titans with their first of two picks in the seventh round (212nd overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- During his four-year career at Auburn, appeared in 41 games with 15 starts. Tallied 65 tackles, including 17 stops for loss, 5.5 sacks and a pass defensed. Was named to the SEC Community Service team as a senior.

AS A SENIOR (2010), started all 14 games and totaled career highs with 28 tackles and eight tackles for loss. Also posted a sack and a pass defensed.

- Against Clemson (9/18), totaled four tackles which was his most since Nov. 1, 2008 against Ole Miss (five tackles). Also had 1.5 tackles for losses of seven yards and a quarterback hurry.
- Against South Carolina (9/25), recorded a tackle for loss, a quarterback hurry and two solo tackles.
- Against Ole Miss (10/30), had a tackle for loss of four yards to go with three total tackles.
- In SEC Championship Game against South Carolina (12/4), totaled a solo tackle with a pair of quarterback hurries. Was part of a Tigers' defense that held Gamecocks to 153 yards total offense in second half.
- Against Oregon in BCS National Championship Game (1/10), totaled three solo tackles with a two-yard sack. His sack was first of season and first since 2008.

AS A JUNIOR (2009), appeared in six games, totaling seven tackles with a stop for loss. Missed seven games due to injury and did not play in season opener against Louisiana Tech.

- Against Mississippi State (9/12), recorded three tackles in first game of season.
- Against Ball State (9/26), had one tackle for loss of five yards to go with two total tackles.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2008), played in 11 games with one start and totaled 22 tackles, including 16 solo stops. Finished with the fourth-most tackles for loss on team with 7.5 and the second-most tackles for loss yardage at minus 35. Also finished second on team with 4.5 sacks and the most sack yardage at minus 35.

JARED COOK

TIGHT END • 6'5" • 248 lbs • COLLEGE: SOUTH CAROLINA
ACQUIRED: 3RD ROUND - 2009 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 3/3
HOMETOWN: SUWANEE, GA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 30/1 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/1 • 29 receptions for 361 yards, 1 TDs, 7 SpT

PRO: Third-year tight end Jared Cook possesses a rare combination of speed, athleticism and pass-catching skills. After a rookie season in which he played sparingly, putting up nine receptions for 74 yards, he enjoyed a strong sophomore campaign with 29 receptions for 361 yards and a touchdown. Cook flourished in the second half of the 2010 season, tying for 10th among NFL tight ends with 26 catches in the final eight games. Widely considered one of the top playmakers at his position coming out of college, the Titans thought highly enough of him that they traded a 2010 second-round draft choice to the New England Patriots to acquire him in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Cook posted career-highs with 29 receptions and 361 receiving yards. He caught his first career touchdown on a 22-yard reception from Kerry Collins at Kansas City (12/26/10).
- In a three-year career at South Carolina, Cook, who originally entered college as a wide receiver, hauled in 73 passes for 1,107 yards (15.2 avg.) and seven touchdowns. In his final season there, the Southeastern Conference coaches recognized him with first-team All-SEC honors.
- After declaring for the draft with a year of NCAA eligibility remaining, he gained notoriety at the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, where he finished first among the tight ends in the 40-yard dash (4.49), vertical jump (41 inches) and broad jump (10 feet, 3 inches).

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Cook's 41-inch vertical leap at the 2009 NFL Scouting Combine earned 100 pairs of cleats for his former high school, North Gwinnett (Ga.). Combine sponsor Under Armour Inc. offered to buy 100 new cleats for the high school alma mater of any participant who ran the 40-yard dash in 4.35 seconds, posted a 41-inch vertical or higher or did the 20-yard shuttle drill in 3.85 seconds or faster.
- His older brother, Jason, played fullback at Ole Miss from 2005-08. Jason was signed by the Baltimore Ravens as a rookie free agent in May 2009.
- On the back of his cleats, Cook writes the initials A.C. and D.R. The letters represent Ammon Craine, one of Cooke's best friends who died tragically from drowning during high school, and Dennis Roland, his high school coach and mentor who died from thyroid cancer in January 2008.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Suwanee, Ga., native was selected by the Titans in the third round (89th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/1): Appeared in all 16 games with one start at tight end and collected 29 receptions for 361 yards with a touchdown. Over the final eight games of the season, tied for 10th among NFL tight ends with 26 receptions. Led or tied for the team lead in receptions four times in 2010 (at HST, vs. JAX, at KC, at IND). Led the team in receiving yards twice in 2010 (vs. JAX, at KC). Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles once in 2010 (at MIA). Made his first career start at tight end against Houston (12/19/10). Posted a career-best 96 receiving yards at Kansas City (12/26/10). Hauled in a career-high seven receptions in the season finale at Indianapolis (1/2/11). Caught his first career touchdown on a 22-yard reception from Kerry Collins at Kansas City (12/26/10).

- At San Diego (10/31), caught one pass for 36 yards. Registered a solo tackle on special teams coverage units. Extended a Titans' scoring drive with a career-long 36-yard reception down the right sideline on third-and-four in the first quarter.

- At Houston (11/28), tied for the team lead with four receptions for 40 yards. Drew a 20-yard pass interference penalty in the fourth quarter. Hauled in a 23-yard reception late in the fourth quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (12/5), led the team with four receptions and 47 receiving yards. Extended a Titans' scoring drive by grabbing a seven-yard reception on fourth-and-six in the fourth quarter.
- Against Houston (12/19), made his first career start at tight end and hauled in three receptions for 42 yards. Hauled in a 27-yard reception along the left sideline in the third quarter.
- At Kansas City (12/26), led the team with five receptions and 96 receiving yards with his first career touchdown. Hauled in a 28-yard pass with an over-the-shoulder grab in the second quarter. Extended the Titans' second touchdown drive with a 22-yard reception on third-and-15 in the third quarter. On the next play, scored his first career touchdown on a 22-yard grab.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), led the team with seven receptions for 58 yards. Hauled in an 18-yard reception on third-and-eight late in the second quarter.

2009 (14/0): Posted nine receptions for 74 yards in 14 games during rookie campaign.

- Against Houston (9/20), made his NFL debut as a reserve.
- At Jacksonville (10/4), grabbed two catches for 11 yards, including his first career NFL reception, a five-yard pass from Kerry Collins.
- Against Indianapolis (10/11), totaled season-high three receptions for 27 yards.
- Against Arizona (11/29), made two key receptions for 29 total yards during game-winning touchdown drive in the fourth quarter, including a 17-yard catch on third-and-five.

COLLEGE:

- As a junior (2008), earned first-team All-SEC recognition by league's coaches and second-team accolades from Associated Press and Rivals.com. Named one of eight semifinalists for Mackey Award, given to nation's top tight end. Appeared in 13 games with 11 starts. Ranked second on team with 37 receptions and 573 receiving yards while leading team with 15.5-yard reception average.
- Had team's two longest receptions of season—a 66-yard touchdown against Arkansas (11/8) and 63-yard reception at Ole Miss (10/4).
- At Vanderbilt (9/4), had career-best day, recording eight receptions for 111 yards.
- As a sophomore (2007), moved permanently to tight end and appeared in 12 games with three starts. Ranked third on squad with 30 receptions for 421 yards (second on team). His 14.0-yard receiving average was highest for any player on team with more than two receptions.
- As a redshirt freshman (2006), split season between tight end and wide receiver. Saw action in 12 games and caught six passes for 113 yards, an average of 18.8 yards per catch.
- Redshirted in 2005.
- Majored in retail.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Suwanee, Ga.
- Attended North Gwinnett (Ga.) High School, where he played receiver and free safety. As senior, caught 32 passes for 800 yards and 10 touchdowns. Named first-team All-Conference, All-State and Super 11 Team selection by The Atlanta Journal Constitution. Rated 24th-best player in Georgia and 40th-best wide receiver in country by Rivals.com.

- Also played basketball and earned All-Conference and All-State honors.
- During high school, his AAU basketball team, the Georgia Stars, won a national championship.
- List of favorites: (movie) "Antwone Fisher"; (TV show) "SportsCenter"; (actors) Derek Luke and Halle Berry; (music artist) T.I.; (school subject) science; (car) S 550 Mercedes; (video game) Call of Duty: World at War; (food) Italian food; and (sports hero) Jerry Rice.

RENNIE CURRAN

LINEBACKER • 5'11" • 230 lbs • COLLEGE: GEORGIA
ACQUIRED: D3b - 2010 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 2/2
HOMETOWN: SNELLVILLE, GA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 9/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 9/0 • 0 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR, 11 SpT

PRO: After seeing action primarily on special teams during his rookie season, linebacker Rennie Curran is poised to take the next step in his NFL career. The Titans used a third-round draft choice in 2010 on the former Georgia Bulldog, who led the Southeastern Conference in tackles before entering the NFL with a year of college eligibility remaining.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Curran made his professional debut and contributed three special teams tackles at San Diego on Oct. 31, 2010.
- Curran led the University of Georgia in tackles in both of his final two seasons, becoming the first Bulldog since 1996-97 (Greg Bright) to record at least 100 tackles in back-to-back campaigns. Despite playing only three seasons, Curran ranked 16th in school history with 298 career tackles.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Curran is proud of his rich Liberian heritage. His middle name, Flomo, means "protector" or "provider" and has been passed down for three generations in his family. His parents, Rennie and Josie, came to the United States from Liberia in the 1980s and stayed when civil war broke out in their West African homeland. His mother earned her master's degree in nursing, and his father started a shoe repair business. Together, they used half of their income to support family members in Liberia and to bring many to the United States. Rennie Jr.'s great-grandfather was a tribal chief in Liberia and had 25 children, and his grandfather, Arthur Kulah, is a nationally-recognized church bishop who played an important role in the country's peace efforts during the 14-year war. During the 2011 offseason, Rennie Jr. fulfilled his lifelong dream and, alongside many of his family members, visited Liberia for the first time.
- Since Curran was a junior in high school, former Atlanta Falcons Pro Bowl linebacker Jessie Tuggle has served as one of his mentors. Curran attended a football camp spearheaded by members of the Falcons, including Tuggle, an undersized former undrafted free agent who saw himself in Curran. The two have stayed in touch ever since then.
- Curran is a talented musician. He learned to play the drums, piano and viola in his youth, playing at his church and in his high school orchestra. He also now considers himself a budding music producer.
- He has earned a few nicknames from friends and teammates through the years, including Rock Man, Meatball and Liberian Dream.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Snellville, Ga., native was selected by the Titans with their second pick in the third round (97th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (9/0): Appeared in the final nine games and finished third on the squad with 11 special teams tackles. Led or tied for the team lead in special teams tackles five times (at SD, vs. WAS, at HST, at KC, at IND). He was inactive for the first seven games.
- At San Diego (10/31), made his NFL debut as a reserve on special teams and led the team with three tackles on coverage units.

COLLEGE:

- In three seasons, Curran played in 37 games at Georgia with 30 starts at weakside outside linebacker, including starts in his final 29 consecutive games. He left the college ranked 16th in school history with 298 career tackles, and he was the 10th player in school history to lead the team in tackles more than once in a career. With 115 tackles as a sophomore and 130 stops as a junior, he became the first Bulldog since 1996-97 (Greg Bright) to record back-to-back 100-plus tackle seasons. He added

6.5 sacks, 24 stops for losses, 34 quarterback pressures, four passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

- As a junior (2009), was a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and was named first-team All-SEC by Associated Press and the SEC coaches. Also earned team's Vince Dooley MVP Award. In 13 games (12 starts), recorded SEC-leading 130 tackles and added five tackles for loss, a half sack, 10 quarterback pressures and three pass break-ups. Led or tied for team lead in tackles 11 different times. Registered 16 tackles inside the red zone, including seven on goalline plays.
- As a sophomore (2008), was a Butkus Award finalist and was named first-team All-SEC by the league's coaches and second-team All-SEC by Associated Press. Also earned the team's Defensive MVP Award. Honored as the Collegiate Athlete of the Year by the Allied Athlete Group Foundation in Atlanta. Started all 13 games and led the team with 115 tackles, including a team-leading 10 tackles for loss and three sacks. Led the squad in tackles nine different times.
- As a freshman (2007), appeared in 11 games (five starts) and recorded 53 tackles, nine tackles for loss and three sacks. Named first-team Freshman All-American by Rivals.com, second-team Freshman All-American by Scout.com and Honorable Mention by The Sporting News.
- Majored in business management.

PERSONAL:

- Splits time between Nashville and Snellville, Ga., with a daughter, Eleana.
- At Brookwood (Snellville, Ga.) High School, was named to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super Southern 100 and Class 5A First Team, Georgia Sports Writers Association Class 5A All-State Team, SuperPrep All-American and All-Dixie Team. As a junior, was named Gwinnett County Linebacker of the Year. Played fullback in addition to linebacker.
- Also spent one season on wrestling team and two seasons on track team in high school.
- Follow Curran on Twitter at @RennieCurran53.
- List of favorites: (movie) "The Matrix"; (TV show) "Chappelle's Show"; (actor) Denzel Washington; (music artist) Pharrell Williams; (school subjects) social studies and history; (car) Dodge Challenger; (book) "The Purpose Driven Life"; (food) jollof rice; (sports hero) Michael Vick; and (sports teams as a child) Atlanta Braves and Atlanta Falcons.
- Born Rennie Flomo Curran Jr. on Nov. 10, 1988 in Atlanta, Ga.

- Re-signed by the Titans as a free agent on Jan. 4, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (1/0): Appeared in one contest as a reserve and was inactive for nine games. Released on Nov. 23, 2010 and re-signed to the team's practice squad two days later.

- At Dallas (10/10), appeared in his first career NFL contest primarily on special teams. Saw action at left guard late in the fourth quarter after Eugene Amano exited the game with an injury.

2009 (0/0): Spent the entire 2009 season on the Titans' practice squad.

COLLEGE:

- As a senior in 2008, started all 12 games at right guard and was tabbed a second-team All-Big East selection. Was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Game.
- Was instrumental in helping running back Curtis Brinkley become the eighth different player in Syracuse history to record 1,000 rushing yards in a season.
- As a junior, started 11 games at right guard and protected an offensive unit that amassed an average of 291.9 yards per game.
- As a sophomore in 2006, started all 12 games at right guard. Was one of only 13 players to start every game and was the only offensive lineman to start every game at the same position.
- As a redshirt freshman in 2005, played in seven games and made the travel squad for all 12 contests.
- As a freshman, was redshirted for the season and saw action on the scout team.

- Majored in health and exercise science at Syracuse.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Walpole, N.H.
- Attended St. Bernard's Central Catholic (Fitchburg, Mass.) High School and was a four-year football letter-winner for coach Joe Hickey. Was selected a team captain as both a junior and senior.
- Rated fifth on PrepStar's top-10 list for offensive linemen in the East and PrepStar All-East Region selection in 2003. Labeled the top offensive lineman and fifth overall prospect in New England by Rivals.com. Selected the sixth-best player in New England by SuperPrep.
- Named 2003 Worcester Telegram & Gazette First Team Defensive All-Star and Boston Globe All-Conference selection.
- Earned team MVP award as a freshman, defensive MVP as a sophomore, the Coaches Award as a junior and senior. Also received the Lineman Award as a senior.
- Lettered in track and field three seasons, specializing in the shot put and discus. Was a state semifinalist in the shot put as a senior.

CORTLAND FINNEGAN

CORNERBACK • 5'10" • 188 lbs • COLLEGE: SAMFORD
ACQUIRED: 7TH ROUND - 2006 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 6/6
HOMETOWN: MILTON, FLA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 77/63 (PLAYOFFS: 2/2)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/16 • 100 tackles, 1.0 sack, 1 QBP, 2 TFL, 2 INT, 12 PD, 1 FF, 0 FR

PRO: An elite cornerback recognized for his blazing speed and a feisty attitude, Cortland Finnegan is one of the team's defensive leaders. Despite his humble entry to the league from Samford University, the former seventh-round draft choice is frequently mentioned alongside the NFL's top players at his position. In 2008, he was named to his first career Pro Bowl and earned Associated Press All-Pro honors.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, started all 16 games for the third time in his career. He posted two interceptions and tallied 100 tackles, marking the second time he reached 100 stops in a season.
- With five interceptions in each of the 2008 and 2009 seasons, he became the first Titans player to record back-to-back five interception efforts since Daryll Lewis (1994-97).
- Was named to his first Pro Bowl in 2008 and earned first-team All-Pro honors after he led the club with 20 passes defended and finished tied for sixth in the NFL with five interceptions.
- Received a multi-year contract extension during the 2008 preseason.
- As a rookie in 2006, the former college safety played cornerback for the first time, mostly used in nickel and dime packages. He won a starting job at the beginning of 2007 and has been in the lineup ever since.
- In 2006 pre-draft workouts, impressed scouts when he was timed in the 40-yard dash at 4.33 seconds, bench pressed 225 pounds 14 times and recorded a 44-inch vertical jump.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Finnegan was raised in a single-family home by his mother, Linda Finnegan, who retired from the Army after 20 years, including three years in Korea when Cortland was a young child.
- Finnegan was the first Samford University player drafted into the NFL since 1969, when Gary Fleming was selected in the seventh round by the Baltimore Colts.
- In 2010, Finnegan developed a relationship with Kelsey Towns, a Father Ryan High School student and volleyball player who was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer after finding a lump on her leg. When Towns couldn't run in the annual Boulevard Bolt on Thanksgiving Day as she had every year since kindergarten, Finnegan pushed her in a large stroller. Now cancer free, Towns underwent seven rounds of chemo, five weeks of radiation and two surgeries to fight off a rare form of cancer known as synovial sarcoma. Towns made such an impact on the cornerback that Finnegan and his wife named their first daughter Kelsey.
- Finnegan has talked about becoming a volunteer firefighter and a football coach after his playing career ends.
- Finnegan was named the 2010 Titans Community Man of the Year. In 2009, he launched his own foundation, ARK 31. The name of the foundation came to him while watching the movie Evan Almighty, as the audience is told to change the world "one act of random kindness at a time." He added his jersey number to the name, and soon the organization was launched.
- One of ARK 31's signature events is "Karaoke for the Cure," a fundraiser in which Titans players and celebrities make their best efforts at singing in order to raise money for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS). Other ARK 31 events include a celebrity golf tournament in Lewisburg, Tenn.; a football camp in Milton, Fla.; "Kid's Carnival Day" at the Nashville Zoo; and "Cortland's Christmas Dinner" for families from LLS and Special Olympics of Middle Tennessee. More information is available at the organization's website, www.ARK31.org.
- Part of his passion for helping special needs children comes from his own family's history. His older sister, Felicia, had Down syndrome and passed away at age seven from complications with her disorder.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Milton, Fla., native was selected with the Titans' first pick of the seventh round (215th overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/16): Started all 16 games at cornerback and posted 100 tackles. Tied for third on the team with two interceptions and finished fourth on the squad with 12 passes defended. Registered a career-high four passes defended at Miami (11/14/10). Tied for the team lead in passes defended three times in 2010 (at SD, at MIA, at KC).

- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), collected six tackles, a pass defended and a quarterback pressure. Deflected a pass that was intended for Hakeem Nicks and then was intercepted by Sen'Derrick Marks in the first quarter.
- Against Denver (10/3), notched five tackles, including a tackle for loss and a sack. Halted a Broncos' drive by sacking Kyle Orton for an eight-yard loss on a third-and-15 in the first quarter. Tackled Daniel Graham for a one-yard loss on a short pass in the third quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), tallied 10 tackles and two passes defended, including an interception return for a touchdown. Concluded the scoring by intercepting a Kevin Kolb pass and weaving his way to the end zone for a 41-yard touchdown as time expired in the game, the fourth touchdown return of his career.
- At Miami (11/14), collected five tackles, an interception and a career-high four passes defended. Intercepted a deep pass intended for Brandon Marshall late in the second quarter. Knocked down a pass intended for Marshall in the end zone during the third quarter. Deflected a deep pass by Marshall intended for Patrick Cobbs late in the third quarter. Batted down a pass intended for Marshall in the final period.
- At Kansas City (12/26), recorded six tackles and two passes defended. Halted a Chiefs' drive by breaking up a third-and-six pass intended for Dwayne Bowe in the second quarter. Deflected a pass intended for Jake O'Connell on third-and-five in the third stanza.

2009 (13/13): Played and started in 13 games and led the team with five interceptions, tying for fifth in the AFC (12th in the NFL). Added 76 tackles and a team-high 13 passes defended. A hamstring injury kept him off the field for a total of three games (10/4 at Jacksonville, 10/11 vs. Indianapolis and 10/18 at New England).

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), recorded 10 tackles and one interception. On the last play of the first half, he intercepted a Ben Roethlisberger pass and returned the ball 80 yards as time expired.
- At N.Y. Jets (9/27), tallied four tackles and one pass defended before leaving the game with a hamstring injury.
- Against Jacksonville (11/1), returned from a hamstring injury to tally four tackles, one interception and two passes defended. On a pass thrown by David Garrard in the fourth quarter, he ended a Jaguars threat with an interception at the three-yard line. He returned the ball 35 yards. It was his second interception of the season and eighth of his career.
- At San Francisco (11/8), tied for the team lead and tied his career high with 11 tackles. In the fourth quarter, he delivered what proved to be the game-winning touchdown when he intercepted an Alex Smith pass and raced 39 yards for the score. It was his third career touchdown, his second on an interception. Finnegan's ninth career interception came one week after intercepting a pass against the Jaguars.
- Against Buffalo (11/15), posted eight tackles and helped limit Terrell Owens to three receptions.
- Against Arizona (11/29), he registered seven tackles and two passes defended in the Titans' 20-17 come-from-behind victory. He helped limit the Arizona passing attack to 217 net yards in the 20-17 victory.

- At Indianapolis (12/6), notched three tackles and one pass defended and helped limit Reggie Wayne to four receptions for 48 yards and no touchdowns.
- Against St. Louis (12/13), he totaled four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defended. Picked off a Keith Null pass in the final minute of the first half and then in the final seconds of the game added his second interception, which he returned 41 yards. The game marked his second career two-interception performance.

2008 (16/16, 1/1): Started every game for the second consecutive year. He was second on the team and tied for sixth in the NFL (tied for fourth in AFC) with a career-high five interceptions, including a franchise-record 99-yard touchdown return against Houston (9/21). He led the team with a career-high 20 passes defended and within individual games led or tied for the team lead in passes defended seven times (vs. JAX, at CIN, vs. MIN, vs. IND, vs. GB, at CHI, vs. NYJ). Selected to start in his first career Pro Bowl. Additionally, he earned Associated Press All-Pro honors and was named All-NFL or All-Pro by Dallas Morning News, NBCSports.com, Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writers of America, Sporting News and Sports Illustrated.

- Against Jacksonville (9/7), named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after setting career high with two interceptions. Picked off David Garrard pass to Troy Williamson at Tennessee 14-yard line in third quarter and jumped pass intended for Matt Jones in fourth quarter. His statistics also included seven tackles and three passes defended.
- At Cincinnati (9/14), tallied five tackles and one interception. Picked off Carson Palmer pass in fourth quarter to give him three interceptions in first two games of season.
- Against Houston (9/21), set franchise record with 99-yard interception return for touchdown. Picked off Matt Schaub pass at one-yard line with less than two minutes to play and raced into end zone, surpassing previous team record of 98 yards by Pete Jaquess and Darryll Lewis. It was Finnegan's third consecutive game with an interception.
- At Chicago (11/9), recorded fourth career sack, team-high three passes defended and six tackles. Dropped Rex Grossman for two-yard sack in fourth quarter. In first quarter, tipped pass into the air that was then intercepted by Chris Hope. His fourth-down pass breakup on Chicago's final drive allowed Titans to take possession and seal victory.
- Against N.Y. Jets (11/23), posted six tackles, one interception and two passes defended. Notched fifth interception of season in second quarter, picking off pass from Brett Favre intended for Laveranues Coles.
- In Divisional Playoff against Baltimore (1/10), posted two tackles and one pass defended.

2007 (16/16, 1/1): Started all 16 games in second season and led team with 16 passes defended. Tied for third on team with 109 tackles and added one interception, one sack, one tackle for loss, one quarterback pressure and one forced fumble.

- Against Indianapolis (9/16), recorded first career interception. Stepped in front of a Peyton Manning pass intended for Reggie Wayne and raced 14 yards to help set up a touchdown three plays later. Also credited with seven tackles in the game.
- In Wild Card Game at San Diego (1/6), recorded nine tackles, one interception, one sack and one forced fumble in playoff debut. In first quarter, he sacked Philip Rivers and forced fumble. In second quarter, intercepted a Rivers pass in end zone.

2006 (16/2): Played in all 16 games with two starts (nickel back 10/15 at Washington, left cornerback 11/19 at Philadelphia). Totaled 57 tackles, two sacks, three quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss, seven passes defended, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one touchdown. Also tied for fourth on the team with 15 special teams tackles and one fumble recovery.

- At Philadelphia (11/19), started at left cornerback for an injured Reynaldo Hill. Tied team-high with career-high 11 tackles and then-career-high two passes defended.
- Against Jacksonville (12/17), scored his first career touchdown when he recovered a David Garrard fumble (caused by David Thornton) and returned it 92 yards for a score. It was third-longest fumble return for a touchdown in franchise history.

COLLEGE:

- During four-year career at Samford, named first-team All-OVC three times as a safety and totaled 338 tackles, seven tackles for loss, nine interceptions, 26 passes defended, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. As return specialist, returned 70 kickoffs for 1,980 yards (28.3 avg.) with three touchdowns and returned 14 punts for 212 yards (15.1 avg.) and one touchdown. Set NCAA Division 1-AA career record with 28.3 kickoff return average and set Samford single game record with 263 kickoff return yards in 2002.

- As senior, named first-team All-American by NFL Draft Report, first-team All-American by American Football Coaches Association and first-team All-OVC for third consecutive year. Started every game at free safety and led team with 98 tackles for third consecutive season and added two tackles for loss, one interception, seven passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Ranked first in OVC conference with 15.1 punt return average, while returning 14 punts for 212 yards and one touchdown. Ranked second in OVC conference with 25.1 kickoff return average on 15 returns for 376 yards.

- Majored in education and minor in family studies.

PERSONAL:

JACOB FORD

DEFENSIVE END • 6'4" • 252 lbs • COLLEGE: CENTRAL ARKANSAS
ACQUIRED: 6TH ROUND - 2007 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 5/5
HOMETOWN: MEMPHIS, TENN.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 14/5 • 67 tackles, 3.0 sacks, 17 QBP, 3 TFL, 0 INT, 1 PD, 1 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Now in his fifth NFL season, former sixth-round draft pick Jacob Ford is one of the most established pass rushers on the squad. From 2008 through 2010, no other Titans defender had more than Ford's 15.5 total sacks. The athletically-gifted Ford was one of the fastest defensive ends available in the 2007 rookie pool, but his talents were only briefly on display for the Titans before a left Achilles' injury in his first training camp resulted in his placement on injured reserve. He returned from the injury in 2008 to post seven sacks and followed that with a team-high 5.5 sacks in 2009 and three sacks in 2010.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Ford finished second on the team and sixth among all AFC defensive ends in 2008 with a career-high seven sacks.
- Ford's unique path to the NFL included one year at the University of Memphis, two years out of college, one season at Holmes Community College in Goodman, Miss., and finally two seasons at Central Arkansas.
- At the 2007 scouting combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.68 seconds, the second-best time among defensive ends.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Jacob Ford's father, the late Fred "Sweet Daddy Goodlow" Ford, was an internationally renowned jazz musician best known for his talents on the baritone saxophone. He played and recorded music with countless stars in the music business, such as Little Richard, B.B. King, Ray Charles and Jerry Lee Lewis, among others. Perhaps Sweet Daddy Goodlow's most popular collaboration was with Big Mama Thornton on the original 1952 hit single "Hound Dog."
- His mother, Bennie Nelson West, is an accomplished ceramic artist and sits on the board of directors for the Memphis Black Arts Alliance. Ford has donated resources to the organization, which promotes and teaches music, visual arts and dance in the community.
- The Ford family was forced to endure a great tragedy during Jacob's senior season at Central Arkansas, when the youngest daughter in the family, Sarah June, passed away in December 2006 due to a pulmonary embolism.
- Ford earned his chance to play in the NFL under difficult circumstances. After being named to the All-Freshman Conference USA team in 2001, he spent the following two years out of college and out of football. He worked primarily in Memphis and Houston for FedEx and Hewlett Packard, respectively, loading trucks and sorting packages for deliveries. In 2004, he enrolled at Holmes (Goodman, Miss.) Community College and then spent his final two college seasons at Central Arkansas, the only school willing to give him a chance to continue his career.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Memphis, Tenn., native was originally selected by the Titans in the sixth round (204th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft. He became the highest draft pick in Central Arkansas history.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (14/5): Appeared in 14 games with five starts at defensive end and finished fourth on the team with a career-high 17 quarterback pressures. Collected a career-best 67 tackles and three stops for loss. Led or tied for the team lead in sacks three times (vs. OAK, at JAX, vs. WAS). Led or tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures three times (at HST, vs. IND, vs. HST). Blocked Josh Scobee's 49-yard field goal against Jacksonville (12/5/10). Was inactive for two games.

- Against Oakland (9/12), posted two tackles, a sack, a quarterback pressure and a forced fumble. Came off the edge, strip-sacked Jason Campbell and the loose ball was recovered by Michael Griffin at the Raiders' 23-yard line.

- At Jacksonville (10/18), recorded six tackles, a sack and a quarterback pressure. Sacked Trent Edwards for a 12-yard loss on a third-and-three play in the third quarter.
- Against Washington (11/21), finished second on the team with a career-high 10 tackles, including a sack. Ended a Redskins' drive by dropping Donovan McNabb for a four-yard sack on third-and-four in the final stanza.
- Against Jacksonville (12/5), blocked Josh Scobee's 49-yard field goal in the third quarter.
- Against Houston (12/19), led the team and set a career high with four quarterback pressures.

2009 (15/0): In 15 games, led the team with 5.5 sacks and finished fourth on the team with 15 quarterback pressures. Also collected 38 tackles, two tackles for loss and one forced fumble. Led or tied for the team lead in sacks four times (at NYJ, vs. JAX, vs. MIA, vs. SD) and tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures four times in 2009 (vs. IND, vs. JAX, at IND, vs. STL).

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), teamed with William Hayes to sack Ben Roethlisberger for an eight-yard loss late in the second quarter.
- At N.Y. Jets (9/27), dropped Mark Sanchez for a nine-yard sack in the third quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (10/11), forced an errant Peyton Manning pass that was intercepted by Keith Bulluck in the first quarter and stuffed Joseph Addai for a one-yard loss in the fourth quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (11/1), collected a sack and three quarterback pressures. Dropped David Garrard for a six-yard sack in the third quarter.
- At San Francisco (11/8), came off the edge and strip-sacked Alex Smith with the ball being recovered by Keith Bulluck at the 49ers' 36-yard line.
- Against Miami (12/20), ended a Dolphins' drive by sacking Chad Henne for a two-yard loss on third-and-nine in the first quarter.
- Against San Diego (12/25), sacked Philip Rivers for a five-yard loss in the second quarter.

2008 (14/3, 1/0): In his second NFL season and first on the team's 53-man roster, Ford finished second on the squad and ranked sixth among AFC defensive ends with seven sacks. Led or tied for team lead in sacks six times (vs. GB, at JAX, at DET, vs. CLV, at HST, at IND). Also tallied nine quarterback pressures and two forced fumbles. Missed two games (9/14 at Cincinnati and 9/21 vs. Houston) with chest injury.

- At Baltimore (10/5), saw most significant action to date at defensive end after Kyle Vanden Bosch left game in first half with an injury. Registered five tackles and quarterback pressure in comeback victory.
- Against Indianapolis (10/27), made first career NFL start and notched five tackles, one tackle for loss and one quarterback pressure in Monday Night Football victory.
- Against Green Bay (11/2), posted career-high two sacks and a forced fumble in overtime victory. Sacked Aaron Rodgers for 10-yard loss and forced fumble that was recovered by Stephen Tulloch and added another eight-yard sack in third stanza.
- At Jacksonville (11/16), sacked David Garrard on third down late in fourth quarter and totaled four tackles in game.
- At Detroit (11/27), collected two tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and two quarterback pressures in Thanksgiving victory. Dropped Drew Henson for sack while forcing fumble in fourth quarter.
- At Houston (12/14), posted four tackles, one quarterback pressure and six-yard sack of Matt Schaub.
- At Indianapolis (12/28): Started at defensive end and notched season-high seven tackles, one sack and one quarterback pressure. Sacked Peyton Manning for four-yard loss in first quarter.

2007 (0/0): Injured his left Achilles' tendon in practice on Aug. 13 and was placed on injured reserve on Aug. 20.

COLLEGE:

- In two seasons at Central Arkansas, totaled 102 tackles, 17 sacks and 32.5 tackles for loss.
- As a senior (2006), named first-team All-American by College Sports Report after starting all 10 games and leading the team with eight sacks and 15.5 tackles for loss. Added 48 tackles, four passes defended, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.
- As a junior (2005) at Central Arkansas, named first-team All-Gulf South Conference, first-team All-Region and second-team All-American after starting all 14 games for Bears team that made NCAA Div. II quarterfinals.
- As a sophomore (2004) at Holmes Community College (Goodman, Miss.), played nine games and earned All-State honors.
- Was not enrolled in college during 2002 and 2003 seasons.
- As a freshman (2001) at Memphis, earned Freshman All-Conference USA honors after appearing in 10 games.
- Majored in mass communications.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Doné with son, Brandon, splits time between Nashville and Memphis, Tenn.
- At Melrose (Memphis, Tenn.) High School, earned All-Shelby Metro, Prep Star All-Southeast Region and High Tech Tennessee's Top Prospect List honors as senior two-way lineman. Registered 229 tackles and 32 sacks during career and helped team win 1998 State Championship.
- Also ran track three seasons, competing in 110m and 300m hurdles.

His full-time role since the beginning of the 2007 season has been as the team's nickel defensive back, while he also maintains significant responsibilities on special teams.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In his first six seasons (2005-10), Fuller registered six interceptions, and four of those were returned for touchdowns. He scored twice on interceptions during both the 2007 and 2009 seasons. Fuller's four interception touchdowns rank fourth in team history behind Ken Houston (nine), Miller Farr (five) and Darryll Lewis (five).
- In 2009, Fuller set career highs with three interceptions and seven total passes defended.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Fuller followed in the footsteps of his cousin Damien Russell by playing for Virginia Tech and then in the NFL. Russell played safety for the Hokies (1988-91) and the San Francisco 49ers (1993).
- During his sophomore year at Virginia Tech, Fuller's cousin Jammal Smoot died in a fatal car accident. The two were very close, and Fuller has stated that not having his cousin in his life has been the most difficult experience he has been forced to overcome.
- After football, Fuller wants to further his education, even possibly attend law school. He also has an interest in coaching high school football.
- Fuller credits his experience as a quarterback at Woodlawn High School in Baltimore, Md., as one of the reasons for his aptitude in understanding offenses.
- Fuller's brother, Kyle, is a starting cornerback at Virginia Tech. Kyle was one of two true freshmen to play for the Hokies in 2010.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Baltimore, Md., native was originally selected by the Titans in the fourth round (108th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (12/3): Appeared in 12 games with three starts as the nickel back and collected 32 tackles and an interception. Collected a career-best nine tackles at N.Y. Giants (9/26/10). Was inactive for four games, including the final three contests.

- Against Oakland (9/12), saw action as a reserve at nickel back and posted five tackles, including a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure. Teamed with Dave Ball to stop Louis Murphy for a five-yard loss on a pass play in the third quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), saw action as a reserve as the nickel back and collected a career-high nine tackles.
- Against Denver (10/3), started as the nickel back and notched five tackles and a pass defended. Ended a Broncos' drive by breaking up a third-and-eight pass intended for Demaryius Thomas in the third quarter.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), played in a reserve role as the nickel back and recorded seven tackles and an interception. Ended a potential Jaguars' scoring chance by intercepting a pass intended for Tiquan Underwood in the end zone on a fourth-and-one play in the final stanza.

2009 (13/1): Tied for second on the team with three interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns. Also posted 33 tackles, a sack, seven passes defended and four special teams tackles on coverage units. Led or tied for the team lead in passes defended four times (at PIT, at SF, vs. BUF, vs. STL).

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), collected three tackles, including one for a loss, and an interception. Ended a Steelers' drive by intercepting a Ben Roethlisberger pass intended for Santonio Holmes in the first quarter and stopped Willie Parker for a three-yard loss in the third quarter.
- At N.Y. Jets (9/27), left the game late in the first quarter with an arm injury, which caused him to be inactive the next three games.
- At San Francisco (11/8), deflected a pass intended for Josh Morgan that was then intercepted by Cortland Finnegan and returned 39 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.
- Against Buffalo (11/15), recorded an interception that was returned for a touchdown in the Titans' 41-17 win. Stepped in front of Josh Reed, intercepted the Trent Edwards pass and raced 26 yards for a touchdown, giving the Titans a commanding 34-17 lead with 2:54 remaining in the fourth quarter.
- At Houston (11/23), dropped Matt Schaub for a seven-yard sack in the second quarter, his second career sack.
- At Indianapolis (12/6), matched a then career high with eight tackles.
- At St. Louis (12/13), collected a career-best four passes defended, including an interception returned for a touchdown in the Titans' commanding 47-7 victory. Intercepted a pass intended for Brandon Gibson and raced 45 yards for a touchdown with 5:44 remaining in the fourth quarter.

2008 (16/1, 1/0): Played in 16 games as team's nickel defensive back and posted career high with 43 tackles. Also contributed four passes defended, one forced fumble and six special teams tackles.

- Against Houston (9/21), registered four tackles, including teaming with Cortland Finnegan to stonewall Steve Slaton for one-yard gain on fourth-and-four in third quarter.
- Against Minnesota (9/28), tied for team lead with season-high seven tackles. Registered forced fumble on defense and added special teams stop.
- Against Indianapolis (10/27), notched three tackles and two passes defended on Monday Night Football. Halted Colts' opening drive by batting down third-down pass intended for Reggie Wayne. Made another third-down stop by deflecting Peyton Manning pass that was intercepted by Chris Hope in second quarter.
- Against Green Bay (11/2), made first career NFL start as nickel back and posted two tackles in overtime victory.
- Against Baltimore (1/10), posted one tackle in Divisional playoff.

2007 (16/0, 1/0): Played in 16 games as team's nickel defensive back and posted then-career highs in tackles (35), interceptions (two), passes defended (four), sacks (one) and quarterback pressures (three). Added five stops on special teams.

- At New Orleans (9/24), collected first career interception when he snared a Drew Brees pass intended for Lance Moore and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown with 2:39 remaining in fourth quarter.
- Against Atlanta (10/7), picked off Joey Harrington pass and returned it 76 yards for a go-ahead touchdown. Became first NFL player to record consecutive games with interception return for touchdown since Darren Sharper, who accomplished feat in final game of 2004 season (1/2/05) and first game of 2005 season (9/11/05).
- In Wild Card Game at San Diego (1/6), recorded two tackles in playoff debut.

2006 (16/0): Played in all 16 games and posted 15 tackles, two quarterback pressures, two passes defended and two forced fumbles in a reserve role on defense. Registered 10 tackles on special teams.

- At Philadelphia (11/19), played nickel back and set career high with eight tackles. Added one forced fumble and one pass defended in win.

2005 (2/0): Played in two games before suffering season-ending right fibula injury against Baltimore (9/18). Was inactive for five games (9/25 at St. Louis through 10/23 at Arizona) before being placed on injured reserve Oct. 29.

- In season opener at Pittsburgh (9/11), made NFL debut as nickel defensive back.
- Against Baltimore (9/18), injured right fibula on opening kickoff.

COLLEGE:

- During his 50-game Virginia Tech career, totaled 142 tackles, a half-sack, 19 pass deflections, eight interceptions, three fumble recoveries, and returned blocked field goal 74 yards for touchdown.
- As senior, was All-ACC honorable mention selection, starting 13 games for ACC Champions. Moved back to free safety from cornerback and recorded 51 tackles, four deflected passes, three interceptions and a forced fumble.
- As junior, played in every game with three starts at cornerback. Recorded career-high 56 tackles, seven passes defensed, an interception, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.
- In 2005 pre-draft workouts, Fuller measured a 4.43-second 40-yard dash and a 37-inch vertical jump.
- Graduated with degree in business information technology.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Baltimore, Md.
- Played quarterback, free safety and cornerback while earning All-State, All-County, All-Metro, Prep Star (All-American) and USA Today honorable mention as a senior at Woodlawn High School in Baltimore, Md. ### 2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 11/5 • 20 receptions for 266 yards, 1 TDs

PRO: A big, athletic target with the ability to stretch the field, Justin Gage is the veteran leader of the Titans' receiving corps. He enters his ninth NFL season and fifth campaign with the Titans. The Titans rely upon his athleticism and ability to line up in the slot or on the outside, making him a dangerous pass catcher. The former Chicago Bear has enjoyed the most successful seasons of his career in Tennessee, including 2008, when his 19.1-yard receiving average ranked third in the NFL. He is a natural athlete who played three years on Missouri's basketball team and switched from quarterback to wide receiver prior to his sophomore year of college.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, the 6-foot-4-inch, 212-pound receiver caught 20 passes for 266 yards and one touchdown.
- In 2008, he caught 34 passes for a team-best 651 yards and a career-high six touchdowns.
- In a win at Jacksonville on Nov. 16, 2008, he set career highs with 147 receiving yards and two touchdowns (touchdown mark matched vs. Miami on Dec. 20, 2009).
- During his first season with the Titans in 2007, he led the club with a career-high 750 receiving yards and tied for the team lead with a career-best 55 receptions.
- Gage's first four NFL seasons were spent in Chicago, where he contributed 64 receptions for 908 yards (14.2 avg.) and four touchdowns in 49 games (16 starts).

TITANS TIDBITS:

- During the 2008 offseason, Gage founded the Twelve Starz Foundation, which benefits underprivileged youth in his hometown of Jefferson City, Mo.
- Gage was still relatively new to the receiver position when he entered the NFL in 2003. He converted from quarterback prior to his sophomore year at Missouri. In high school, he played quarterback and earned all-state honors as a defensive back.
- Gage's first career touchdown pass at Missouri was a one-yard toss to former Titans tight end Dwayne Blakley against Texas A&M (11/13/99).
- The multi-talented Gage was a two-sport standout at Missouri. For his first three years of college, he played in a total of 73 games with the basketball team and averaged 2.1 points and 2.9 rebounds per game. He decided prior to his senior year to focus strictly on football.
- For five years, Gage has co-hosted an offseason youth football camp at Concordia University Chicago with former Chicago Bears guard and second cousin Revie Sorey. He held his first football camp in Jefferson City in 2009.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Jefferson City, Mo., native was originally selected by the Chicago Bears in the fifth-round (143rd overall) in the 2003 NFL Draft.
- Signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 23, 2007.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (11/5 – Tennessee): Appeared in 11 games with five starts and collected 20 receptions for 266 yards with a touchdown. Led the team in receiving yards three times in 2010 (vs. PIT, at NYG, at HST). Tied for the team lead in receptions twice in 2010 (at NYG, at HST). He was inactive for five contests.

- Against Pittsburgh (9/19), led the team with 74 receiving yards on four receptions. Got open deep and hauled in a 30-yard pass from Kerry Collins late in the fourth quarter.

- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), tied for the team lead with three receptions for a team-best 39 receiving yards.
- Against Denver (10/3), grabbed two receptions for 30 yards before leaving the game in the second quarter with a hamstring injury, which kept him out of the next four games.
- At Houston (11/28), tied for the team lead with four receptions for a team-best 50 yards.
- Against Houston (12/19), scored on a one-yard touchdown toss by Kerry Collins on fourth-and-goal during the opening stanza.

2009 (12/10 – Tennessee): Appeared in 12 games with 10 starts and caught 28 passes for 383 yards with three touchdowns. Missed four consecutive games after suffering a back injury at San Francisco (11/8/09). Tied a career-high with two touchdown receptions against Miami (12/20/09). Led or tied for the team lead in receptions three times in 2009 (at PIT, at NYJ, at SF) and led the team in receiving yards twice (vs. JAX, at SF).

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), led the team and tied a career-high with seven receptions for 78 yards and a touchdown. Tied the game at 7-7 with a 14-yard touchdown grab with 48 seconds left in the second quarter.
- At San Francisco (11/8), led the team with four receptions and 97 receiving yards in the Titans' 34-27 victory. Got behind the defense and hauled in a 49-yard reception in the first quarter. Made an acrobatic, leaping 33-yard reception over the middle helping set up the Titans' go-ahead score in the fourth quarter.
- Against Miami (12/20), saw action as a reserve at wide receiver and caught two passes for 43 yards with two touchdowns in the Titans' 27-24 overtime win. Gave the Titans a 7-3 lead with a 22-yard touchdown catch in the back of the end zone on third-and-five with 6:35 remaining in the first quarter. Got open in the corner of the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown reception, giving the Titans a 17-6 halftime lead.

2008 (12/11, 1/1 – Tennessee): Saw action in 12 games with 11 starts at wide receiver and finished with 34 receptions for a team-high 651 receiving yards and a career-best six touchdown catches. His 19.1-yard receiving average ranked third in the NFL and the 34 receptions ranked fourth on the team and were the second-highest total of his career. Set a single-game career-high with 147 receiving yards and two touchdowns at Jacksonville (11/16). Posted 10 receptions for 135 yards in the Wild Card game against Baltimore (1/10). His yardage total ranks second in team playoff history, trailing only Ernest Givins' 136-yard effort against the Pittsburgh Steelers (12/31/89). His 10 receptions tied for second place in team playoff history, matching Frank Wycheck's total against Pittsburgh (1/11/03) and trailing only Givins' 11 receptions against the Steelers (12/31/89). During the regular season led or tied for the team lead in receptions five times (at CIN, vs. MIN, at JAX, at DET, at HST) and led the team in receiving yards five times (at CIN, vs. MIN, at JAX, at HST, vs. PIT).

- At Cincinnati (9/14), led the team with five receptions, 59 receiving yards and a touchdown in the 24-7 road victory. Gave the Titans a 14-7 lead with an 11-yard touchdown grab with 38 seconds remaining in the second quarter.
- Against Minnesota (9/28), led the team with five receptions and 92 receiving yards in the Titans' 30-17 victory. Snared a 28-yard completion during the Titans' third scoring drive early in the second quarter. Two plays later, hauled in a 25-yard pass deep down the right sideline. Converted a key fourth-and-two with a two-yard grab, setting up a first-and-goal scoring opportunity in the second quarter.
- At Chicago (11/9), grabbed four receptions for 47 yards and a touchdown in the Titans' 21-14 road win. Gave the Titans a 14-7 lead with a 12-yard touchdown reception on third-and-three in the third quarter.

- At Jacksonville (11/16), snared four receptions for a career-high 147 yards and two touchdowns in the Titans' 24-14 come-from-behind victory. Got open down the left sideline and hauled in a 47-yard reception on the opening play of the game. Gave the Titans a 17-14 lead by hauling in a 56-yard touchdown toss down the left sideline in the third quarter. Sealed the victory with his second touchdown reception of the afternoon, a 38-yarder with 3:57 left to play in the fourth quarter.

- Against Pittsburgh (12/21), grabbed five receptions for a team-high 104 receiving yards with a touchdown in the Titans' 31-14 victory. Hauled in a 26-yard reception deep over the middle during the first quarter. Gave the Titans a 10-0 lead with a 34-yard touchdown reception on third-and-five in the second quarter. Extended a Titans' scoring drive in the third quarter with a 21-yard catch on third-and-eight. Kept a Titans' scoring drive alive with a 17-yard reception along the sideline on fourth-and-three late in the third quarter.

- In the Divisional playoffs against Baltimore (1/10), led the team with a game-high 10 receptions and 135 receiving yards. Set up the Titans first touchdown with a 20-yard reception down to the Ravens' eight-yard line.

2007 (16/8, 1/1 – Tennessee): Saw action in all 16 games with eight starts. Started the final seven games of the regular season and tied for the team lead with 55 receptions, while leading the team with 750 receiving yards. Of Gage's 55 receptions, 45 of them – 81.8 percent – resulted in first downs. That was the third-highest percentage in the NFL among qualifying players (min. 32 receptions), behind only Terrell Owens (85.2 percent) and Brandon Stokley (85.0). Led or tied for the team lead in receptions six times in 2007 (at JAX, vs. OAK, vs. JAX, at DEN, vs. HST, at IND). Led the team in receiving yards seven times in 2007 (at JAX, at TB, vs. OAK, vs. JAX, at DEN, at CIN, at IND). Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles once in 2007 (at NO). Set a career-high with 104 receiving yards on seven receptions against Indianapolis (12/30).

- Against Jacksonville (11/11), led the team with seven receptions and 90 receiving yards, while grabbing his first touchdown in a Titans' uniform. Made a juggling catch in the end zone for a 20-yard touchdown reception on third-and-nine in the fourth quarter.

- At Cincinnati (11/25), led the team with 98 receiving yards on four catches, including a career-best 73-yard reception.

- At Indianapolis (12/30), led the team and matched a career-best with seven receptions for a career-high 104 receiving yards in the Titans' 16-10 playoff-clinching victory.

2006 (8/0, 1/0 – Chicago): Played eight games in final season with Bears and totaled four receptions for 68 yards. Was inactive for eight contests.

- Against Miami (11/5), totaled season-high 51 yards on two receptions, including 34-yarder.

2005 (15/11, 1/1 – Chicago): Set new career high with 11 starts in 15 total games with Bears. As second receiver for most of season, registered career-best marks for receptions (31) and yards (346) while tying previous best with two touchdown receptions. Led team by recording first downs on 22-of-31 receptions (71.0%). Paced Bears in receptions in four games while leading the team in receiving yards in two contests. Inactive in one game (10/23 against Baltimore).

- Against Carolina (11/20), set new career high with seven catches for team-high 81 yards.

- In Divisional Playoff against Carolina (1/15/06), recorded three receptions for 28 yards, including 24-yard reception.

2004 (16/2 – Chicago): Appeared in 16 games with Bears and started two contests. Ranked sixth on team with 156 yards on 12 receptions, including three receptions of 20 yards or longer.

- At Tampa Bay (10/24), led Bears with four receptions for 43 yards.

2003 (10/3 – Chicago): Led Bears with 19.9-yards receiving average as rookie. Registered 17 receptions for 338 yards and two touchdowns in 10 games (three starts). Five of first six career receptions went for more than 20 yards. Inactive for season's first five games and for season finale against Kansas City (12/28) with knee injury.

- At Seattle (10/19), made NFL debut and registered two receptions for 26 yards, including 21-yard catch.

- Against Arizona (11/30), recorded season high with 100 yards on four receptions, including long of 57 yards.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 0/0 • 0 receptions for 0 yards, 0 TDs

PRO: Riar Geer is a versatile tight end that possesses the strength to be a solid blocker in the run game and the athleticism to make an impact in the aerial attack. In 2010, the 6-foot-4-inch, 250-pounder spent the first part of his rookie campaign with the Denver Broncos before joining the Titans' practice squad in mid-November.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Grand Junction, Colo., native was originally signed by the Denver Broncos as an undrafted free agent on April 26, 2010.
- Released by the Broncos on Sept. 4, 2010 and signed to the team's practice squad a day later.
- Released from the Broncos' practice squad on Nov. 9, 2010.
- Signed by the Titans to their practice squad on Nov. 16, 2010.
- Re-signed by the Titans on Jan. 4, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (0/0 – Denver, Tennessee): Spent the first nine weeks of the season on the Broncos' practice squad before being released on Nov. 9, 2010. Signed by the Titans to their practice squad on Nov. 16, 2010 and spent the remainder of the season on the team's practice squad.

COLLEGE:

- In four seasons at the University of Colorado, appeared in 47 games and recorded 87 receptions for 974 yards with 11 touchdowns.
- As a senior (2009), appeared in 12 games and collected career-highs with 36 receptions, 402 receiving yards and four touchdowns. Sat out of all contact drills during the spring while completing rehabilitation from winter shoulder surgery. One of 30 players on the official watch list for the John Mackey Award, presented to the nation's top tight end. He was selected second-team preseason All-Big 12 by Lindy's Big 12 Football and third-team by Athlon; Phil Steele's College Football tabbed him as the 31st best tight end in the nation.
- As a junior (2008), played in 10 games with eight starts and caught 13 passes for 183 yards and two touchdowns, with his biggest game in the finale at Nebraska, when he had two catches for 86 yards. Missed the first two games after undergoing August knee surgery.
- As a sophomore (2007), saw action in all 13 games including the Independence Bowl, starting eight (all in the regular season). Hauled in 14 receptions for 128 yards and two touchdowns.
- As a freshman (2006), became the first freshman, true or redshirt, to lead Colorado in receiving as he caught 24 passes for 261 yards and three touchdowns. The 24 receptions were the most by a freshman tight end in school history. Played in all 12 games, including nine starts and caught at least one pass in 10 games, with his top game coming at Georgia when he hauled in seven catches for 71 yards. Earned second-team Freshman All-America honors by The Sporting News and Rivals.com, with third-team mention from collegefootballnews.com. The Sporting News selected him as a first-team Freshman All-Big 12 team member. Earned second-team All-Colorado accolades as selected by the state's chapter of the National Football Foundation, and was the recipient of the Lee Willard Award for having the most outstanding freshman season (true or redshirt) on the team.

- As a redshirt freshman (2005), practiced the entire fall at tight end.
- Majored in History at Colorado.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Grand Junction, Colo.
- Attended Fruita Monument (Grand Junction, Colo.) and had a unique position combination, playing quarterback and defensive line his senior year, while also serving as his team's punter.
- As a senior, was first-team all-state (5A) and an All-Colorado selection a tight end by the Denver Post, although he played the position sparingly. The Rocky Mountain News also named him to its first-team all-state and All-Colorado squads as a punter. On defense, recorded 50 tackles, three quarterback sacks and one interception. On offense, was a dual threat at quarterback, passing for 453 yards and five touchdowns and running for 644 yards and 20 scores. He finished the season with a 48.1 average in his punting duties, and also had spot duty returning punts on the year.
- In his junior season, he received honorable mention all-state honors at quarterback. Passed for 1,234 yards and 13 touchdowns, while adding 789 rush yards and 10 scores; he saw limited action on defense.
- Also lettered three times in basketball (averaging 17 points per game as a senior).
- His hobbies include watching movies, fishing, hunting and hiking, the latter trio with his dog, Zeke.
- His grandfather, Al Fetter, wrestled at Wyoming, and an uncle, Kelly Fetter, ran track at Colorado Mines.
- Born Riar Geer on Dec. 19, 1986 in Newcastle, Wyo.

SUPER BOWLS

2004

PRO: Daniel Graham is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. Prior to arriving in Tennessee, the former Mackey Award recipient spent the last four seasons (2007-10) as a team captain with the Denver Broncos. Graham started his career in New England, where he helped the Patriots to victories in Super Bowl XXXVIII (2003 season) and Super Bowl XXXIX (2004 season). The 6-foot-3-inch, 257-pound tight end is a physical presence on the line of scrimmage and will be relied upon to open holes for the Titans' rushing attack.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Owns 11 games of playoff experience with six starts, including three AFC Championship Games and two Super Bowls.
- Joined Alge Crumpler, Tony Gonzalez and Todd Heap as one of four tight ends in the NFL to catch at least one touchdown pass every year from 2002-09.
- Started 61 of 63 games played as a captain for the Broncos from 2007-10, totaling 102 catches for 1,072 yards (10.5 avg.) with seven touchdowns.
- Established himself as one of the NFL's best blocking tight ends as part of a New England offense that ranked fifth in the league in rushing touchdowns (51) from 2004-06.
- Helped the Patriots capture the AFC East title for the fourth consecutive season in 2006 with 21 receptions for 235 yards (11.2 avg.) and two touchdowns as an 11-game starter.
- In 2004, set a career high with seven touchdown receptions for New England, which tied for the second most among NFL tight ends that season.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Graham's family has a history of producing stellar football players. His father, Tom, played collegiately at Oregon and professionally for the Denver Broncos (1972-74) as a linebacker. Daniel's twin brother, Josh, played football at North Carolina and his older brother, Phillip, played defensive back at Colorado State in the late 1980s.
- Graham was named to the New England Patriots' All-Decade Team for the 2000s. He was the starting tight end on two Super Bowl Championship teams in 2003 and 2004.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Torrance, Calif., native was originally selected by the New England Patriots in the first round (21st overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft.
- Signed by the Denver Broncos as an unrestricted free agent March 9, 2007.
- Signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on July 31, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/16 – Denver): Served as a team captain. Started all 16 games and amassed 18 catches for 148 yards.

- At Jacksonville (9/12), hauled in two receptions for 36 yards. Opened the game with a 28-yard reception on the game's first play from scrimmage from QB Kyle Orton.
- At Tennessee (10/3), caught three passes for five yards. Recovered Laurence Maroney's fumble late in the fourth quarter to sustain Denver's drive that ended in Matt Prater's 36-yard field goal.

2009 (16/14 – Denver): Served as a team captain. Played all 16 games for the Broncos for the second consecutive year, totaling 28 receptions for 289 yards (10.3 avg.) with one touchdown. Added one special-teams stop. Posted at least one catch in 14 games, including five contests with at least three catches.

PRO BOWLS

PRO: Safety Michael Griffin, a two-time Pro Bowl selection, displays great range and playmaking ability in the secondary. The Titans' 2007 first-round pick possesses the ball-hawking skills of a safety and the speed and agility of a cornerback. Throughout his career, he has shown an uncanny knack for always being around the football and making big plays on defense and special teams. He has also been durable, having never missed a game in his first four seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Griffin was named to his second Pro Bowl after leading the team with four interceptions and finishing second on the squad with a career-high 153 tackles.
- Griffin's streak of four consecutive games in 2010 with an interception tied for the second-longest streak in franchise history, trailing only Pete Jaquess' record of five games. The streak earned Griffin the October AFC Defensive Player of the Month Award.
- Griffin was named to his first Pro Bowl in 2008 after finishing tied for second in the NFL with a team-high seven interceptions.
- In 2007, Griffin began his rookie campaign as a cornerback before shifting back to his collegiate position of safety midway through the season. His three interceptions were the most by a Titans/Oilers rookie safety since Bubba McDowell recorded four in 1989.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Griffin grew up playing football with his fraternal twin brother, Marcus, as a teammate. Both attended the University of Texas with Marcus redshirting his first season while Michael played immediately.
- Griffin returned to the University of Texas during the 2008 offseason to pursue his college degree in youth and community studies.
- Griffin is the product of two military parents. His father, Ronald, served more than 20 years with the U.S. Air Force, while his mother, Mae, was in the U.S. Navy for more than two decades. The couple met while serving in Korea and were later married and had twin sons, Michael and Marcus.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Austin, Texas, native was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/16): Named to the Pro Bowl and selected Associated Press second team All-Pro. Started all 16 games at safety and tied for sixth in the AFC with a team-high four interceptions. Finished second on the team with 153 tackles and 14 passes defended. Led or tied for the team lead in tackles six times (vs. OAK, at NYG, at SD, at MIA, vs. WAS, vs. HST). Led or tied for the team lead in passes defended four times (vs. PIT, vs. PHI, vs. JAX, vs. HST). Named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for October after leading the AFC and ranking second in the NFL with four interceptions.

COLLEGE:

- The 19th overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft developed into one of the top safeties in college football during his four years at Texas. He started 28 times in 50 career games at Texas and totaled 364 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, four sacks, eight interceptions, 23 passes defended, nine forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries. As one of the country's top special teams players, he set a Big 12 Conference record and ranked second in NCAA Division I-A history with eight career blocked punts.

- Led Texas in special teams tackles in each of his first two seasons and led the defense in tackles in his junior (124 tackles) and senior seasons (126). He was only the eighth player in Longhorns history to lead the team in tackles more than once in his career. His 364 career tackles on defense ranked eighth on the school's all-time list.

- As a senior, started all 13 games at free safety. Named second-team All-American by Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation, first-team All-Big 12 by Associated Press and league's coaches and was semifinalist for Lott Trophy. Led team with 126 tackles and added four interceptions, 10 passes defended, one sack, four tackles for loss, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two blocked punts. Set season high with 16 tackles and added two passes defended at Texas Tech (10/28).

- As a junior, played 13 games with 12 starts at strong safety. Named second-team All-Big 12 after leading team with 124 tackles and adding three interceptions, eight passes defended, four tackles for loss, three fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and school-record four blocked punts. Matched school's highest single-game total since 1992 with career-high 23 tackles and blocked punt that was returned for touchdown at Texas A&M (11/25). Posted eight tackles and made crucial interception off Matt Leinart in Texas end zone to halt USC drive in 41-38 victory in Rose Bowl National Championship Game against USC (1/4).

- As a sophomore, played 12 games with one start and recorded 49 tackles, one sack, one interception, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two blocked punts. Also led team with 11 special teams tackles.

- As a freshman, played in 12 games with two starts and totaled 51 tackles, two sacks, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Named team's Outstanding Defensive Newcomer. Also led squad with 21 special teams tackles.

AHMARD HALL

FULLBACK • 5'11" • 241 lbs • COLLEGE: TEXAS
ACQUIRED: FA - 2006 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 6/6
HOMETOWN: ANGLETON, TEXAS

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/5 • 1 rush for 1 yard, 0 TDs • 15 receptions for 100 yards, 0 TDs, 5 SpT

PRO: Ahmard Hall's experience on and off the football field garners the respect of the locker room and has made him a valuable member of the Titans roster. On the field, the self-made pro is a thunderous blocker and is explosive as a runner and receiver. As a fullback, his production is viewed best not by his numbers but rather by the success of his teammates. He paved the way for five consecutive 1,000-yard seasons by Titans running backs to start his career – Travis Henry in 2006 (1,211 yards), LenDale White in 2007 (1,110) and Chris Johnson in 2008 (1,228), 2009 (2,006) and 2010 (1,364). During those five years, the Titans ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards per game (135.5).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2009, Hall was a major factor in one of the top individual offensive seasons in NFL history. He shared a backfield with running back Chris Johnson, who became the sixth player in NFL history to reach 2,000 rushing yards in a season (2,006).
- Against Jacksonville on Nov. 1, 2009, he helped open holes for Titans' rushers to gain 305 rushing yards, the second most yards on the ground in franchise history, including a franchise-best 228 rushing yards by Chris Johnson.
- At Kansas City on Oct. 19, 2008, he helped the Titans set a franchise record with 332 team rushing yards, including an 80-yard touchdown run by LenDale White for which Hall delivered a key lead block.
- Hall's unique path to the NFL included a four-year stint in the U.S. Marine Corps and three seasons at the University of Texas, where the former walk-on helped the school win a National Championship at the conclusion of the 2005 season.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Hall served four years in the Marines (3rd Battalion, 8th Marines out of Camp Lejeune, N.C.), including missions in Kosovo (1999) and Afghanistan (2002) before attending college on the G.I. Bill. Hall's wife, Joanna, also served four years in the Marines.
- Hall typically shies away from speaking about his service in the Marines. Nevertheless, he has been prominently recognized on a few occasions for his service. He led the Longhorns out of the tunnel carrying a U.S. flag prior to a game on the anniversary of Sept. 11 and repeated a similar scene during his rookie season with the Titans, when he carried the flag out in celebration of Veterans Day weekend. President George Bush gave him special acknowledgement when the Longhorns visited the White House after their National Championship victory.
- Hall has established an annual Veterans Day tradition of taking Titans players and cheerleaders to Nashville's V.A. hospital to offer gifts and greetings to older military veterans and injured soldiers from the Iraq and Afghanistan wars.
- Hall played high school football with future NFL peers Quentin Jammer (San Diego cornerback) and Gilbert Gardner (linebacker for Indianapolis, Tennessee, Detroit and Chicago).
- A former walk-on, Hall was the starting fullback on the 2006 National Championship Texas Longhorns with teammate Vince Young, who nicknamed Hall "The Big Marine." The nickname stuck, as did Hall's influence on the field. Initially a member of the scout team offense, by the end of his collegiate career Hall was an active contributor on one of the most potent offenses in the nation.
- Hall's first name, Ahmard, is pronounced "ah-MOD" (silent "r"). He was named Ahmard Rashad Hall after former Vikings receiver and current broadcaster, Ahmad Rashad.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- After not being selected in the 2006 supplemental draft, the Angleton, Texas, native was signed by the Titans as a 26-year-old rookie free agent on July 13, 2006.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/5): Appeared in all 16 games with five starts at fullback and tied a career-high with 15 receptions for 100 yards. Was voted a team captain for the 2010 season by his teammates. Registered five special teams tackles on coverage units. Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles once in 2010 (at HST).

- Against Oakland (9/12), helped open holes for Titans' rushers to gain 205 yards on the ground. Registered one reception for three yards.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), helped block for Titans' rushers to gain 161 yards on the ground. Collected a special teams tackle on coverage units.
- Against Indianapolis (12/9), tied a then career-high with three receptions for 26 yards. Helped open holes for Titans' ball carriers to gain 121 yards on the ground. Hauled in a 10-yard pass on third-and-two in the second quarter.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), collected a career-best four receptions for 19 yards.

2009 (16/7): Helped block for the NFL's second-best rushing attack (162.0 yards per game) and opened holes for Chris Johnson, who became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 2,000 yards (2,006). Carried the ball once for five yards and caught 12 passes for 79 yards. Also posted four special teams tackles on coverage units.

- Against Houston (9/20), helped open holes for Titans ball carriers to amass 240 yards on the ground.
- Against Jacksonville (11/1), helped open holes for Titans' rushers to gain 305 rushing yards, the second most yards on the ground in franchise history, in the Titans' 30-13 victory.
- At Seattle (1/3), posted one reception for two yards in the Titans' season-ending 17-13 victory. Helped open holes for Chris Johnson to gain 134 yards on the ground, allowing him to surpass 2,000 rushing yards for the season.

2008 (16/11, 1/0): In third NFL season, set career highs in games (16), starts (11), rushing attempts (eight), rushing yards (21 – tied), receiving yards (138 – tied) and receiving touchdowns (two). Helped pave way for NFL's seventh-ranked rushing attack and 1,228 rushing yards by rookie running back Chris Johnson.

- At Cincinnati (9/14), set career high with three rushing attempts for nine yards in road victory. Extended touchdown drive with second-effort run for two yards on third-and-one late in second quarter.
- Against Minnesota (9/28), supplied a crushing, highlight-reel block on Minnesota defender to clear way for Chris Johnson's one-yard touchdown run in first quarter.
- At Kansas City (10/19), helped open holes for ball carriers to gain franchise-record 332 rushing yards in commanding 34-10 road victory. Carried once for six yards and hauled in 15-yard reception on third-and-one. Provided lead block to spring LenDale White for 80-yard touchdown scamper.
- Against Indianapolis (10/27), tied score at 14-14 in third quarter with reception from Kerry Collins on two-point conversion.
- Against N.Y. Jets (11/23), recorded first career touchdown, a six-yard scoring pass from Kerry Collins, in fourth quarter.
- At Detroit (11/27), grabbed two receptions for career-high and team-high 54 receiving yards in Thanksgiving victory. Hauled in short pass from Vince Young and sprinted career-best 54 yards in fourth quarter.

- Against Cleveland (12/7), opened holes for Tennessee rushers to gain 235 yards and gave Titans 7-6 lead with 28-yard touchdown reception on fourth-and-one in second quarter.

2007 (11/4, 1/1): Served as first-string fullback for second consecutive season, totaling 11 games played and four starts during regular season. Totaled one rushing attempt for eight yards and nine receptions for 60 yards. Added five special teams tackles. Was lead blocker for NFL's fifth-ranked rushing offense (2,109 yards). Helped LenDale White gain 1,110 rushing yards, the second consecutive season in which Hall led way for 1,000-yard rusher. Was inactive five games with broken left forearm (10/28 vs. Oakland, 11/4 vs. Carolina, 11/11 vs. Jacksonville, 11/19 at Denver, 11/25 at Cincinnati).

- At Jacksonville (9/9), helped open holes for team's 282 rushing yards, the second-highest total in franchise history.
- In Wild Card Game at San Diego (1/6), carried the ball three times for 14 yards, picking up two first downs. Added one reception for 16 yards and first down.

2006 (14/7): Played in 14 games with seven starts at fullback during rookie season. Rushed for 21 yards on seven carries and hauled in 15 receptions for 138 yards. Helped team post franchise record average of 4.7 yards per carry and was part of rushing attack that ranked third in AFC and fifth in NFL. He was inactive two games (9/17 at San Diego and 9/24 at Miami) with an ankle injury.

- At Jacksonville (11/5), posted his first career rushing attempt in second quarter and finished game with two carries for two yards.

COLLEGE:

- Played three seasons for the Longhorns and saw action in 24 games with two starts. Recorded two carries for 11 yards and one touchdown. Also added three receptions for 42 yards and touchdown.

- As senior, played in all 13 games for the National Champions and registered one carry for 10 yards and three receptions for 42 yards.

- As junior, played in 11 games and totaled one carry for touchdown. Additionally, was second-leading tackler on special teams unit with 10 tackles.

- Majored in pre-physical therapy.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Joanna with two sons, Mason and Preston.
- At Angleton (Texas) High, lettered three times in football and was member of track and field and baseball teams. In football, served as team captain during senior season, was Brazoria County Offensive MVP and earned first-team all-district honors.

- At Texas, helped lead drive for local organization called 'Momma Bear Cares,' which sent items to Marines serving in Iraq on Veterans Day.

- Hobbies include producing music, running and assisting veterans.

- List of favorites: (movie) "Gladiator"; (TV Show) anything on the History Channel and "The Tudors"; (music artists) Al Green, Common and Nas; (actor) Denzel Washington; (vacation) the Bahamas and the Mediterranean; (sports team other than the Titans) Houston Rockets; (school subjects) social studies and chemistry; (cars) Cadillac Escalade, Mercedes CLS 500; (author) Edwing Danticat; (video game) NCAA Football; (food) Greek food/gyros.

JAMIE HARPER

RUNNING BACK • 5'11" • 235 lbs • COLLEGE: CLEMSON
ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2011 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): ROOKIE
HOMETOWN: JACKSONVILLE, FLA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 13/7 • 197 rushes for 760 yds, 7 TDs • 35 receptions for 328 yards, 3 TDs

PRO: Jamie Harper is 235-pound running back that carries the ball with power, but also possesses surprising quickness for a player his size. The 2011 fourth-round pick is an effective receiver out of the backfield that was used heavily in the screen game in his final collegiate season. Harper displays good vision and instincts to go along with extraordinary change of direction and athleticism. As a rookie, he will compete for playing time on special teams and will serve as a complementary runner to All-Pro Chris Johnson.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a junior in 2010, Harper notched a team-best 760 rushing yards on 197 carries with seven touchdowns. He also posted a career-high 50 receptions for 398 yards with three receiving scores. His 10 total touchdowns were the second-most on the team and he led the squad with 1,058 yards from scrimmage.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Harper lists his father James, who works for a towing company in Jacksonville, as one of the most inspirational people in his life. James raised Jamie and his three brothers after their mother Dietria passed away from lung cancer when Jamie was just nine years old.
- Harper has never owned a vehicle before. While in college, if he couldn't catch a ride somewhere, he'd get up and walk. He is always asked what his first car is going to be. "That's usually the first thing guys get, but I'm not in too much of a rush to get something I've never had before," said Harper.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Jacksonville, Fla., native was selected by the Titans with their second pick in the fourth round (130th overall) the 2011 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- During his three-year career at Clemson, Harper posted 1,311 rushing yards on 311 carries with 12 touchdowns and hauled in 50 catches for 398 yards and three touchdowns in 835 snaps over 39 games with 10 starts. Scored 90 points and generated 1,782 all-purpose yards on 368 chances, an average of 45.7 yards per game. Caught nine passes against Florida State in 2010, setting a school game-record for running backs. Decided to forego his senior season and enter the NFL draft in January 2011.

AS A JUNIOR (2010), collected a team-high 760 yards on 197 carries with seven touchdowns and notched a career-best 35 catches for 328 yards with three touchdowns in 518 snaps over 13 games with seven starts. Ninth in the ACC in rushing yards per game (58.5), while registering three 100-yard rushing games. Had 10 total touchdowns, second-most on the team and led the team in yards from scrimmage (1,058). Finished second on the team in receptions and had at least one catch in every game, the only Tiger to do so. Played in tandem with Andre Ellington at running back for the first eight games of the season before carrying most of the load for the last four games with Ellington's injury. In the last four games, he averaged 94.3 rushing yards per game.

- Against North Texas (9/4), tallied 101 yards on nine carries to earn team offensive player of the game honors by the coaches.
- At Auburn (9/18), notched 44 rushing yards and three catches for 48 yards and two touchdowns. Had a diving 24-yard touchdown catch that was one of the top plays in college football that weekend. Became the first Tiger running back with two touchdown receptions in a game since 2002.
- At Florida State (11/13), posted 143 rushing yards on a career-best 27 carries. Collected nine catches for 54 yards at Florida State, as the nine catches set a school record for a running back.

- At Wake Forest (11/20), notched 142 rushing yards, becoming the first Tiger to have consecutive 140-yard rushing games since 2005. Totaled 181 yards from scrimmage, including a 63-yard touchdown run.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2009), played in all 14 games, starting the Middle Tennessee and South Carolina contests. Ranked third on the squad with 80 carries for 418 yards (5.2 avg.) and four touchdowns. Made 11 catches for 49 yards (4.5 avg.) and recorded one solo tackle. Scored 24 points and had two kickoff returns for 27 yards (13.5 avg). Finished with 494 all-purpose yards, an average of 35.3 yards per game. Co-winner of the 12th Man Award on offense along with fellow running back Andre Ellington, as voted on by the Tiger coaching staff.

- Against Middle Tennessee State (9/5), carried the ball 15 times for 75 yards in the opener.
- Against Coastal Carolina (10/31), rushed the ball 13 times for 76 yards.
- At N.C. State (11/14), garnered 86 yards on just four attempts, including a 69-yard touchdown burst.
- Against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl (12/27), was the team's leading rusher with 79 yards in just eight carries in the win. Posted a 33-yard run in the game, his second-longest run of the year.

AS A FRESHMAN (2008), played in 12 games, starting against Alabama, and finished with 133 yards and a touchdown on 34 attempts (3.9 avg.), adding 21 yards on four catches (5.3 avg.).

- Against The Citadel (9/6), had six carries for a season-high 38 yards. He also had his only touchdown in that contest.
- Against Georgia Tech (10/18), played 26 snaps when C.J. Spiller had a pulled hamstring and totaled 26 yards, while adding two receptions.
- Against South Carolina (11/29), made an impact in the win when he blocked a punt that led to a field goal. It marked the first blocked punt of the year against the Gamecocks and the first punt blocked against a team coached by South Carolina's special teams coordinator in 10 years.
- Majored in communication studies at Clemson.

PERSONAL:

- Splits time between Nashville and Jacksonville, Fla.
- Attended Trinity Christian Academy (Jacksonville, Fla.) and rushed for 1,437 yards and 19 touchdowns as a senior. Was ranked #1 running back in the state by FloridaFB.com.

LEROY HARRIS

GUARD/CENTER • 6'3" • 303 lbs • COLLEGE: N.C. STATE
ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2007 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 5/5
HOMETOWN: RALEIGH, N.C.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 51/18 (PLAYOFFS: 2/1)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 15/15

PRO: After playing as a reserve for the first three seasons of his career (2007-09), guard Leroy Harris became a mainstay in the Titans lineup in 2010. The youngest of the team's starting offensive linemen, Harris is versatile player capable of starting at any one of the three interior offensive line positions. An easy-going nature off the field belies the gridiron toughness of the former fourth-round draft choice from N.C. State.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Harris was inserted into the lineup as the full-time left guard and started 15 games.
- On Nov. 8, 2009, Harris was thrust into the starting lineup at right tackle after David Stewart suffered a hamstring injury during the Thursday practice leading up to the game. Despite never playing the position in a game prior to the start, Harris helped the Titans gain 152 rushing yards in the 34-27 victory at San Francisco and gained praise from teammates and coaches for his effort.
- Harris received his first career starts at the conclusion of the 2008 season, filling in for injured center Kevin Mawae in the regular season finale and Divisional playoff game.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- In February 2010, Harris and his wife, Christina, opened Kids Night Out (www.kids-nightout.com), a drop-in day care in Nashville. On many evenings Leroy can be found at the facility helping the full-time staffers take care of the many children that use their services.
- Harris, who is married and has two sons, knows first-hand the impact a strong and committed family can have. His mother, Dorothy, passed away when he was only three years old as a result of a tragic surgical accident. She left behind Leroy; his sister, Neice; and their father, Leroy Sr. To help care for the children, Neice was sent to live with aunts in New Bern, N.C., where Leroy would visit most weekends. While Leroy Sr. worked 60-hour weeks at a soy bean plant, Leroy Jr. spent most of his time at his grandparents house in Raleigh, where another set of aunts, Carol McDougal and Margaret Harris, also lived and became mother figures in his life. They all helped care for his grandmother, who was an amputee. When Leroy Jr. was 12 years old, his father remarried to Shelvatin, whose son, Lamont, quickly formed a brotherly bond with Leroy Jr. It was then that Leroy Jr. began getting heavily involved in sports and laid the foundation for his NFL career.
- In addition to being a top recruit in football as a high school student, Harris also was among the elite wrestlers in North Carolina. He won the North Carolina 4A State Title in the 275-pound weight class as a senior. While redshirting in his first season on the football team at N.C. State, he wrestled for the Wolfpack and placed third in the ACC among heavyweights.
- To complete his degree in sports management at N.C. State, Harris interned at the Wolfpack Club, a fundraising organization for the school's athletic department. There he received training on the front lines of ticketing, parking, membership drives and other efforts of the organization. He received his degree with a minor in business in December 2006.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Raleigh, N.C., native was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (108th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (15/15): Started 15 games at left guard and was a member of an offensive front that opened holes for Titans' ball carriers to gain 1,727 rushing yards in 2010.

- Against Oakland (9/12), was a member of an offensive front that opened holes for Titans' rushers to gain 205 yards on the ground.
- At Dallas (10/10), was inactive with an ankle injury.

PRO: Matt Hasselbeck is a savvy signal caller who has led his team to the playoffs six times during his 12-year NFL career, including a trip to Super Bowl XL with the Seattle Seahawks in 2005. He provides the Titans with veteran leadership, as he will serve as a mentor to 2011 first-round pick Jake Locker. Hasselbeck has been named to three Pro Bowls during his career and has passed for more than 3,000 yards in seven NFL seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Hasselbeck is a three-time Pro Bowler, receiving the honor following the 2003, 2005 and 2007 seasons.
- Entering the 2011 season, Hasselbeck has 19 career 300-yard passing performances.
- In 2010, Hasselbeck started both postseason games to become Seahawks' all time leader in postseason games played and started. He set a franchise postseason single-game record with four touchdown passes against New Orleans (1/8) in a Wild Card victory.
- In 2009, Hasselbeck became Seahawks' all-time franchise leader in career completions surpassing Dave Krieg (2,096). He also set a single-game record completing 39 passes, including 15 consecutive, tied for second-most in club history. During the 2009 season, he also surpassed Krieg's club record for most career pass attempts. Hasselbeck also eclipsed Krieg's franchise record (26,132) for career passing yards.
- In 2007, Hasselbeck set career-highs for attempts (562), completions (352), passing yards (3,966) and touchdown passes (28).
- In 2005, Hasselbeck led the Seahawks to the Super Bowl for the first time in franchise history. He led the NFC and set a career-best with a 98.2 passer rating and was named the starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad.
- In 2003, Hasselbeck earned his first ever trip to the Pro Bowl after leading the Seahawks to their first-ever undefeated home record. He tied his own record for most 300-yard games in a season (4).
- Hasselbeck's first NFL touchdown pass came on a fake field goal attempt at Minnesota (12/20/99) with a nine-yard toss to Jeff Thomason.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- The Hasselbeck family has a rich tradition in pro football. Matt's father Don, played tight end in the NFL for nine seasons with the Patriots (1977-83), Raiders (1983), Vikings (1984), and Giants (1985). His younger brother, Tim, was a starting quarterback for Boston College and played for the Philadelphia Eagles (2002), Washington Redskins (2003-2004), N.Y. Giants (2005-2006) and Arizona Cardinals (2007). His youngest brother, Nathanael, also attended Boston College and played wide receiver.
- Hasselbeck is the brother-in-law of television personality (The View and Survivor) Elisabeth Hasselbeck, who is married to his brother Tim.
- Hasselbeck was very involved with a Pacific Northwest non-profit called Medical Teams International. The organization does humanitarian aid both domestically and globally, responding to disasters with medical personnel and supplies. Matt and his wife Sarah were the co-chairs of their annual fundraiser in Seattle the past couple years.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Westwood, Mass., native was originally selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round (187th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft.
- Released by the Packers on Sept. 3, 1998 and signed to the team's practice squad two days later.
- Re-signed by the Packers on March 16, 2000.
- Traded by the Packers to the Seattle Seahawks on March 2, 2001. The Seahawks received Hasselbeck and the Packers' 2001 first-round pick (17th overall) in exchange for Seattle's 2001 first-round pick (10th overall) and a 2001 third-round choice.

- Signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on July 29, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (14/14, 2/2 – Seattle): Started 14 games and missed two contests, against N.Y. Giants (11/7) with a concussion and against St. Louis (1/2) with a hip injury. Completed 266 of 444 passes for 3,001 yards with 12 touchdowns. Started two postseason games to become Seahawks' all-time leader in postseason games played and started. ## LAVELLE HAWKINS

WIDE RECEIVER • 5'11" • 194 lbs • COLLEGE: CALIFORNIA
ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2008 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 4/4
HOMETOWN: STOCKTON, CALIF.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 29/1 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 6/0 • 5 receptions for 61 yards, 0 TDs, 6 SpT

PRO: Wide receiver Lavelle Hawkins received valuable experience in his first three NFL seasons and is poised to make a significant jump in his fourth campaign. The shifty wideout posted 19 receptions from 2008–2010 as he grew into the Titans offense and showed signs of the reputation he earned at California as a dependable, sure-handed receiver who would make difficult catches in critical moments.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Hawkins caught five passes for 61 yards, including a career-high 56 receiving yards at San Diego on Oct. 31, 2010.
- In 2009, Hawkins caught seven passes for 110 yards and added a career-best 11 special teams tackles.
- In 2008 pre-draft workouts, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.49 seconds.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Hawkins was raised primarily by his grandmother, Janet Curley, in the Sierra Vista housing projects in Stockton due to the death of his father when he was only 18 months old and his mother “going through some things” during his childhood.
- Hawkins endured a long road to eventually find athletic and academic success at Cal. He worked tirelessly with a tutor in high school to become eligible for NCAA Division I sports and eventually enrolled at Louisiana State University in the summer of 2004. However, after LSU’s first game he decided he needed to be closer to home and transferred to City College of San Francisco for one season. He then was offered a scholarship at Cal beginning in 2005, and his dream of playing major college football was fulfilled. As a senior, he earned Cal’s Dink Artal award as the player showing academic commitment and improvement, and he is within a few credits of receiving his degree.
- Hawkins and former Titans running back Chris Henry were football and track teammates at Edison High School in Stockton, Calif.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Stockton, Calif., native was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (126th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (6/0): Appeared in six games as a reserve wide receiver and collected five receptions for 61 yards. He also contributed six special teams tackles and forced one fumble on special teams. Was inactive for 10 contests.

- Against Philadelphia (10/24), led the team with two special teams tackles and forced a Jorrick Calvin fumble on a punt return that was recovered by the Titans’ Tim Shaw at the Eagles’ 33-yard line late in the fourth quarter.
- At San Diego (10/31), tied a career high with four receptions for a career-best 56 receiving yards. Posted two special teams tackles on coverage units. Kept a Titans’ scoring drive alive with an 18-yard reception on third-and-10 in the first quarter. Extended a Titans’ touchdown drive with a 24-yard reception on third-and-11 in the second quarter. Helped set up the Titans’ second touchdown by drawing a 27-yard pass interference penalty in the second quarter. Grabbed a 10-yard reception on fourth-and-six late in the fourth quarter.

2009 (10/0): Caught seven passes for a career-best 110 yards and tied for fourth on the team with 11 special teams tackles. He was inactive for the first six games of the season.

- Against Buffalo (11/15), tied for the team lead with four special teams tackles on coverage units.
- Against Arizona (11/29), snared a career-high four receptions for a career-best 44 yards in the Titans’ 20-17 come-from-behind victory. Grabbed a 22-yard reception on a third-and-nine play in the final quarter and extended the Titans’ game-winning scoring march with a 13-yard reception on fourth-and-four.

- Against Miami (12/20), kept the Titans’ first touchdown drive alive with a career-long 32-yard catch over the middle on third-and-10.

2008 (13/1, 0/0): In rookie season, played in 13 games and totaled seven receptions for 68 yards and seven kickoff returns for 130 yards. Inactive for three regular season contests (9/7 vs. Jacksonville, 9/14 at Cincinnati and 9/28 vs. Minnesota) and one postseason game (1/10 vs. Baltimore).

- Against Houston (9/21), played on special teams in NFL debut.
- At Kansas City (10/19), recorded first career NFL reception on three-yard pass from Kerry Collins in first quarter and totaled two receptions for 11 yards in victory.
- Against Indianapolis (10/27), made first career NFL start and snared one reception for 13 yards in victory on Monday Night Football.
- At Chicago (11/9), caught two passes for season-high 26 yards, including diving 19-yard grab (season long).
- Against N.Y. Jets (11/23), returned seven kickoffs for 130 total yards.

COLLEGE:

- In 35 games (10 starts) at Cal, moved into 10th place in school history with 136 career receptions for 1,748 yards and 12 touchdowns. Additionally, he totaled 49 kickoff returns for 1,051 yards and one touchdown.
- As senior (2007), was second-team All-Pac 10 selection and earned team’s Dink Artal award as player showing special academic commitment and improvement. Played in all 13 games (two starts) and led Bears with 72 receptions (fourth in Pac 10 with 5.53/game) and 872 receiving yards (third in Pac 10 with 67.1 per game). Finished fourth in conference with 1,854 all-purpose yards, third-best season total in school history.
- As junior (2006), earned honorable mention All-Pac 10 honors after finishing second on team with 46 receptions for 705 yards (15.3 avg.) and five touchdowns.
- As sophomore (2005), played nine games with three starts in first season at California. Finished season with 18 receptions for 171 yards (9.5 avg.) and one touchdown.
- As freshman (2004), enrolled at LSU for summer camp but then transferred after one game to City College of San Francisco. Appeared in seven games at City College and caught 23 passes for 525 yards (22.8 avg) and four touchdowns.
- Majored in social welfare at Cal.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Stockton, Calif.
- Named Parade All-American and Stockton Record’s Area Player of the Year at Edison (Stockton, Calif.) High School, where he gained more than 1,000 yards receiving and 800 yards rushing as a senior. Caught 53 passes for nearly 1,000 yards and 12 touchdowns as junior, adding 75 tackles, four interceptions, three forced fumbles and two sacks at free safety.
- Hosts an annual youth football camp in Stockton.
- List of favorites: (movies) “300” and “Shooter”; (TV shows) “The Boondocks,” “Martin” and “The Jamie Foxx Show”; (actor) Denzel Washington; (music artist) Lyfe Jennings; (school subject) math; (car) a chopper; (video games) Call of Duty 4 and NCAA Football; (sports heroes) John Randle, Anquan Boldin, Steve Smith, Chad Johnson and Terrell

JOVAN HAYE

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 6'2" • 290 lbs • COLLEGE: VANDERBILT
ACQUIRED: FREE AGENT - 2010 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 7/3
HOMETOWN: FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 71/46 (PLAYOFFS: 1/1)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 14/1 • 52 tackles, 0 sacks, 4 QBP, 3 TFL, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Jovan Haye is a versatile defender that uses his quickness and burst off the ball to create inside pressure on the pocket while utilizing his strength and leverage to hold up against the run. A high-effort defensive lineman and skilled run stopper, he has appeared in 29 games at defensive tackle in his first two seasons with the Titans.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2007 with Tampa Bay, collected a career-best 97 tackles, a career-high six sacks and tied for the NFL lead with four fumble recoveries.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Haye is a native of Jamaica. He moved to the United States when he was six years old and did not start playing football until his junior year in high school.
- Haye is a huge fan of singer Celine Dion. He got front row tickets for a concert during Super Bowl week in Tampa in 2008.
- Haye suffered from dyslexia when he was younger and fought through the disorder during middle school. He overcame the condition and was on the honor roll four straight years in high school on his way to earning a scholarship to Vanderbilt. He says graduating high school was "his winning moment."

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Fort Lauderdale, Fla., native was originally selected by the Carolina Panthers in the sixth round (189th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft.
- After appearing in just two games as a rookie, was released by the Panthers in 2006 and signed with the Cleveland Browns.
- Following a short stint on the Browns' practice squad, was signed by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Oct. 25, 2006.
- Signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 2, 2009.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (14/1 – Tennessee): Appeared in 14 games with one start at defensive tackle and collected 52 tackles. Was inactive for the final two contests.

- Against Oakland (9/12), played in a reserve role at defensive tackle and posted five tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- Against Denver (10/3), saw action as a reserve at defensive tackle and notched two tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), played as a reserve at defensive tackle and recorded eight tackles.
- At San Diego (10/31), played as a reserve at defensive tackle and notched six tackles, including a stop for loss. Stuffed Ryan Mathews for a four-yard loss on a short pass in the fourth quarter.
- Against Washington (11/21), saw action in a reserve role at defensive tackle and recorded eight tackles, including two tackles for loss and a quarterback pressure. Teamed with Jacob Ford to stuff Keiland Williams for a one-yard loss on a rush off left tackle in the fourth quarter.

2009 (15/15 – Tennessee): In his first season with the Titans, started 15 games at defensive tackle and posted 55 tackles, a half sack and nine quarterback pressures. Tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures three times in 2009 (at PIT, vs. IND, vs. MIA).

- Against Houston (9/20), posted eight tackles, including a tackle for loss. Halted Steve Slaton for a two-yard loss on a rush up the middle in the third quarter.
- At San Francisco (11/8), recorded four tackles, a half sack and a quarterback pressure in the Titans' 34-27 victory. Teamed with William Hayes to drop Alex Smith for a seven-yard sack in the first quarter.

- Against Buffalo (11/15), notched four tackles and two quarterback pressures in the Titans' 41-17 win.
- Against Miami (12/20), posted two tackles and two quarterback pressures in the Titans' 27-24 overtime win.

2008 (15/14 – Tampa Bay): Saw action in 15 games with 14 starts and tallied 40 tackles, including two tackles for loss, and one pass defended.

- At Chicago (9/21), started at defensive tackle and registered five tackles.
- Against Carolina (10/12), tallied three stops and one pass defended.
- At Detroit (11/23), notched four tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- Against San Diego (12/21), returned to the starting lineup and posted five tackles, including a tackle for loss.

2007 (16/16, 1/1 – Tampa Bay): Started all 16 contests at defensive tackle and collected a career-high 97 tackles, ranking first among defensive linemen and fifth on the team. His 97 tackles were the most by a Buccaneers defensive lineman since 1984. Finished tied for second on the team with six sacks and led the squad and tied for first in the NFL with four fumble recoveries.

- At Seattle (9/9), made his first career NFL start at defensive tackle and posted three tackles.
- Against New Orleans (9/16), notched first career sack, dropping Drew Brees for a seven-yard loss. Also had five tackles and one pass defended.
- Against Tennessee (10/14), collected a career-high 12 tackles to lead the defensive linemen. Notched one sack of Kerry Collins.
- Against N.Y. Giants (1/6), had six tackles in playoff debut, including a tackle for loss, in NFC Wild Card game.

2006 (9/0 – Tampa Bay): Played as a reserve in nine games with Tampa Bay and totaled 25 tackles on the season. Released by Carolina on Sept. 2 before being signed to the Browns' active roster on Sept. 3. Was inactive for Cleveland against New Orleans (9/10) and then released by Cleveland on Sept. 12 before being signed to the Browns' practice squad on Sept. 14. Signed by Tampa Bay on Oct. 25 from Cleveland's practice squad.

- Against New Orleans (11/5), made his Buccaneers debut against the Saints.
- Against Atlanta (12/10), saw significant action on defense, setting a then career-high with six tackles.
- Against Seattle (12/31), tied his career-high with six tackles.

2005 (2/0, 0/0 – Carolina): Played in two games and inactive for 13 contests with the Panthers. Was inactive for all three playoff games.

- Against Green Bay (10/3), made NFL debut as a reserve at defensive tackle.

COLLEGE:

- Entered NFL Draft following junior season. Started 34 of 35 games at Vanderbilt and recorded 149 tackles, 10.5 sacks, 17 tackles for loss and one interception.

- As a junior, started all 11 games at defensive end in 2004 and totaled 48 tackles and one sack. Part of squad that ranked third in the SEC with a plus-four turnover margin.

- Named second-team All-SEC as a sophomore and was elected team defensive captain. Started all 12 games at defensive end and was a conference co-leader with 8.5 sacks, the most by a Vanderbilt player since 1994. Also, tied for seventh in the conference with 12.5 tackles for loss and led the defensive line with 76 tackles, three forced fumbles, 10 quarterback hurries and three passes defended.

- Recorded two or more sacks in three games in 2003 and amassed three sacks, two forced fumbles and one interception at TCU.

- Started 11 of 12 games at defensive end as a freshman in 2002 and contributed 25 tackles, one sack, three quarterback pressures and one forced fumble. Limited for much of the second half of the season with an injured foot, with the contest at Georgia representing the only missed start of his college career, but he played against the Bulldogs with an injured ankle.
- Redshirted as a true freshman in 2001.
- Majored in human and organizational development at Vanderbilt.

WILLIAM HAYES

DEFENSIVE END • 6'3" • 272 lbs • COLLEGE: WINSTON-SALEM ST.
ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2008 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 4/4
HOMETOWN: HIGH POINT, N.C.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 38/11 (PLAYOFFS: 1/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 14/0 • 49 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 18 QBP, 2 TFL, 0 INT, 0 PD, 1 FF, 0 FR

PRO: William Hayes is in his fourth season with the Titans and looks to bounce back to form after an injury-plagued 2010 campaign. The 2008 fourth-round pick features a low center of gravity, natural pass rush instincts and tremendous closing speed. He posted a strong sophomore season in 2009 that saw him collect career-highs with four sacks and 23 quarterback pressures.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2009, registered career-highs with 82 tackles, four sacks, 23 quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss and two forced fumbles.
- Collected his first career sack by dropping Ben Roethlisberger and forcing a fumble that was recovered by Tony Brown at the Pittsburgh 39-yard line in the Titans' victory over the Steelers (12/21/08).

TITANS TIDBITS:

- During the past three offseasons, Hayes returned home to High Point, N.C. and visited with the local elementary and high schools to speak with students about the importance of education and goal-setting.
- When Hayes was a senior in high school, he attended a camp that was run by former Titans defensive end Jevon Kearse. Hayes, who admired Kearse as a football player when he was growing up, got to work out with him at the camp and had the chance to learn from him again on the Titans' defensive front.
- To stay in shape during the offseason in college, Hayes worked at a Coca-Cola plant helping load the distribution trucks.
- Hayes was the first player from Winston-Salem State to be selected in the NFL Draft since 1996 when the Atlanta Falcons drafted running back Richard Huntley.
- Hayes is very thankful for his family and credits their support as one of the main reasons he was drafted in the NFL. Hayes' father, Robert, was his football coach growing up all the way until high school.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The High Point, N.C., native was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (14/0): Appeared in 14 games as a reserve defensive end and collected 49 tackles and 1.5 sacks. Tied for second on the team with 18 quarterback pressures. Tied for the team lead in sacks twice in 2010 (at HST, vs. JAX). Tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures three times in 2010 (at DAL, at HST, vs. JAX). Was inactive for the first two games of the season because of a knee injury.

- Against Philadelphia (10/24), tallied five tackles and two quarterback pressures. Applied pressure on Kevin Kolb and forced a throw that was intercepted by Michael Griffin in the second quarter.
- Against Washington (11/21), recorded five tackles, including two tackles for loss and two quarterback pressures. Dropped Keiland Williams for a three-yard loss on a rush up the middle in the third stanza.
- At Houston (11/28), posted four tackles, including a sack, two quarterback pressures and a forced fumble. Collected his first sack of the season by strip-sacking Matt Schaub for a 14-yard loss on the last play of the first half.
- Against Jacksonville (12/5), tallied eight tackles, including a half sack and two quarterback pressures. Combined with Gerald McRath to drop David Garrard for a seven-yard sack on third-and-six in the third quarter. Teamed with Jason Jones to stuff Maurice Jones-Drew for a one-yard loss on a rush off left guard in the fourth quarter. Combined with Tony Brown to halt Rashad Jennings for a one-yard loss on a rush off right end in the final stanza.

- At Kansas City (12/26), recorded a tackle and a quarterback pressure before leaving the game in the first half with an injury.

2009 (16/11): In his second season, saw action in all 16 games with 11 starts and posted 82 tackles and two forced fumbles. Tied for third on the team with four sacks and finished second on the squad with 23 quarterback pressures. Made his first career NFL start against Indianapolis (10/11/09). Led or tied for the team lead in sacks three times in 2009 and led or tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures six times.

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), posted six tackles, including a half sack and a quarterback pressure. Teamed with Jacob Ford to sack Ben Roethlisberger for an eight-yard loss late in the second quarter.

2005

PRO: A proven winner and a student of the game, Chris Hope provides leadership and big-game savvy in the Titans secondary. The 10th-year veteran earned a Super Bowl championship with the Steelers in 2005 and was selected to the Pro Bowl as a member of the Titans in 2008. A relentless worker in the weight room, Hope has been instrumental in the development of young players in the Titans' defensive backfield.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Hope started all 16 games for the third consecutive season and posted a career-best 133 tackles.
- Hope enjoyed a stellar 2008 campaign after returning to the field following a neck injury that cut short his 2007 season. He earned his first career Pro Bowl nod in 2008 while starting all 16 games and finishing third on the team with four interceptions and tied for third on the squad with 93 tackles.
- In 2006, Hope quickly showcased his ability in his first season in Tennessee by leading all NFL strong safeties with 128 tackles (career-high) and his career-high five interceptions tied for first place among players at his position.
- In 2005, Hope was a key member of the Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers teaming up with Pro Bowl safety Troy Polamalu.
- In 2004, Hope emerged as the Steelers' starting free safety, totaling 97 tackles, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one interception in 16 starts.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- For the past two offseasons, Hope has returned to his hometown and hosted the Chris Hope Celebrity Benefit Basketball Game in Rock Hill, S.C. The mission each year is to target a situation or misfortune in the community and to help or donate. This year's proceeds will go to Chelsey Mossburg, who suffered serious injuries in a car accident. Money raised from the 2010 event, nearly $20,000, went to Phyllis Paden-Adams, a popular Rock Hill elementary school teacher who was paralyzed in an automobile accident.
- In March 2008, Hope teamed with Soles4Souls, a Nashville-based global organization dedicated to providing free footwear to people in need all over the world, to provide 1,000 pairs of shoes to the Nashville Rescue Mission. He has worked with the organization the past four offseasons.
- Hope is the spokesperson for Get Fit Tennessee. He makes numerous community appearances around Middle Tennessee, with many of them focusing on health and fitness.
- Since arriving from the Steelers in 2006, Hope's leadership has had a trickle down effect on the Titans secondary. Hope has been the ring leader for the secondary workouts the last few offseasons. Hope along with Cortland Finnegan, Michael Griffin and Vincent Fuller met on a daily basis in the offseason to workout and watch film.
- Nicknamed "Hammer" by friends growing up in Rock Hill, S.C., the name has followed him to the professional ranks because of his hard-knock play between the white lines.
- Since his Seminole days, Hope makes it a ritual to wear his Jesus bracelet every game and he reads the Bible that his aunt gave him in high school before he takes the field for inspiration.
- A communications major at Florida State, Hope plans on pursuing a career as a sports commentator and he has the vision of opening his own public relations firm as well.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Rock Hill, S.C., native was originally selected by the Steelers in the third round (94th overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft.
- Signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2006.

SEASON RECAPS:

- Against Miami (12/20), posted five tackles and an interception in the Titans' 27-24 overtime win. Halted a potential Dolphins' scoring drive by intercepting a pass intended for Ricky Williams in the end zone late in the third quarter.
- At Seattle (1/3), registered five tackles, including a sack and a pass defended in the Titans' season-ending 17-13 victory. Sacked Matt Hasselbeck for a seven-yard loss and forced a fumble that was recovered by the Seahawks in the first quarter.

2008 (16/16, 1/1 – Tennessee): Named to his first career Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games and finishing third on the team with four interceptions and tied for third with 93 tackles. Led the team in tackles twice in 2008 (at CIN, vs. HST) and tied for the team lead in passes defended three times (at CIN, vs. IND, at HST). Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after notching four solo tackles and a career-high two interceptions in the Titans' 31-21 victory over the Colts on Monday Night Football (10/27/08).

- At Cincinnati (9/14), led the team with 10 tackles (8 solo) and tallied a tackle for loss and a pass defended in the 24-7 road victory. Broke up a pass intended for Chad Ocho Cinco on third-and-two in the first stanza.

- Against Houston (9/21), led the team with 10 tackles in the Titans' 31-12 victory.
- Against Indianapolis (10/27), named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after notching four solo tackles and a career-high two interceptions in the Titans' 31-21 victory over the Colts on Monday Night Football. Made a third-down stop by intercepting a Peyton Manning pass that was tipped by Vincent Fuller early in the second quarter. Collected his second interception of the game by hauling in a pass that deflected off Dallas Clark's hands in the fourth quarter.
- Against Green Bay (11/2), posted four solo tackles, a sack and an interception in the Titans' 19-16 overtime victory over the Packers. Dropped Aaron Rodgers for a sack at midfield during the first quarter. Broke up a fourth-and-one pass intended for Jermichael Finley in the first quarter. Picked off a Rodgers pass intended for Greg Jennings in the end zone in the third quarter.
- At Chicago (11/9), collected five tackles and an interception in the Titans' 21-14 road win. Intercepted a tipped ball by Cortland Finnegan and returned it 13 yards to the Chicago 25-yard line in the first quarter.
- Against Baltimore (1/10), posted seven tackles and a pass defended. Defended a deep pass intended for Derrick Mason in the fourth quarter.

2007 (11/11, 0/0 – Tennessee): Played in and started the first 11 games of the season at strong safety. Tallied 60 tackles, two interceptions, four passes defended, two quarterback pressures, a tackle for loss and a fumble recovery. Was inactive for one game (12/2 vs. Houston) before being placed on injured reserve on Dec. 7, 2007. Led or tied for the team lead in tackles twice in 2007 (at JAX, at DEN) and tied for the team lead in passes defended once (vs. JAX).

- Against Oakland (10/28), posted eight tackles and an interception in the Titans' 13-9 win. Halted a potential Raiders' scoring opportunity by intercepting a deep pass intended for Jerry Porter in the fourth quarter.
- Against Carolina (11/4), collected six tackles, an interception, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure in the Titans' 20-7 victory over the Panthers. Sealed the Titans' third consecutive victory by intercepting a Matt Moore pass intended for Drew Carter in the fourth quarter.
- At Cincinnati (11/25), started at strong safety but left the game in the first quarter with an injury (neck). Registered five tackles.

2006 (16/16 – Tennessee): Started all 16 games for third consecutive season and set new career-highs in tackles (128, second on team), interceptions (five, team-high), one touchdown and passes defended (15, team-high). Hope's 128 tackles led all NFL strong safeties and were the most by Titan safety since Bo Eason's 131 tackles in 1985. Hope's five interceptions tied for first among strong safeties in the NFL. Also contributed one fumble recovery.

- Was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team for the second consecutive season.
- At San Diego (9/17), registered career-high 12 tackles and one pass defended.
- Against Dallas (10/1), posted team-high 10 tackles, and recorded first interception as Titan. Also added two passes defended.
- Against Jacksonville (12/17), posted Titans third defensive touchdown of game when he picked off David Garrard and returned it 61 yards for touchdown. Also contributed 10 tackles and one pass defended.

2005 (16/16, 4/4 – Pittsburgh): Started all 16 games for Steelers and tied a then career-high with 97 tackles and set a then career-high with team-high three interceptions. Also added seven passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Was named to USA Today All-Joe Team.

- Against New England (9/25), tied career-high with 10 tackles and intercepted pass deep in Steelers territory.
- In AFC Championship Game at Denver (1/22), recorded three tackles.
- In Super Bowl XL victory against Seattle (2/5), registered three tackles and one pass defended.

2004 (16/16, 2/2 – Pittsburgh): Started all 16 games and posted then career-highs in tackles (97), interceptions (1) and passes defended (9). Also forced one fumble.

- In first start of his pro career against Oakland (9/12), posted six total tackles.
- Against Washington (11/28), led team with career-high 10 total tackles and three passes defended.
- Against N.Y. Jets (12/12), posted first career interception late in game and returned it 41 yards to help seal Steelers' victory. Recorded seven total tackles and registered two passes defended.

- In AFC Divisional Playoff Game against N.Y. Jets (1/15), made first career postseason start and responded with 10 tackles.
- In AFC Championship Game against New England (1/23), registered five total tackles and one pass defended.

2003 (16/0 – Pittsburgh): Developed into solid defensive back in his first significant action from scrimmage, while playing in all 16 games. Had a highlight play in the season-finale when he received a pass from punter Josh Miller on a fake punt and scored on an 81-yard touchdown — the Steelers' longest touchdown reception of the season. Finished with 11 total tackles. Also was credited with 15 special teams tackles.

- Against Cincinnati (11/30), recorded four tackles and posted one quarterback pressure.

2002 (14/0, 2/0 – Pittsburgh): Played in 14 games as rookie and finished with 11 tackles and one forced fumble. Also added 14 special teams tackles. Was inactive against Carolina (12/15) and at Tampa Bay (12/23).

- Against Cincinnati (11/24), accumulated most extensive playing time of season due to injuries and posted three tackles. Also added one tackle on special teams.

2010

PRO: Adding world-class speed and big-play ability to the rushing attack, Chris Johnson has quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top young offensive stars. The former first-round pick has the uncanny ability to score from anywhere on the field. Johnson's total of 4,598 rushing yards in his initial three seasons ranks fourth in NFL history behind only Eric Dickerson (5,147), Earl Campbell (5,081) and Jamal Lewis (4,757). He produced one of the most extraordinary seasons by a running back in league history when he amassed a franchise-best 2,006 rushing yards and an NFL-record 2,509 yards from scrimmage in 2009.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, finished fourth in the NFL and third in the AFC with 1,364 rushing yards. Rushed for 100 or more yards in an NFL-best eight contests (tied with Arian Foster).
- Reached 4,000 career rushing yards in his 40th career game, making him just the seventh player in NFL history to accomplish the feat.
- Johnson ranked 13th on the NFL Network's "Top 100 Players of 2011" as voted by current players.
- Became only the sixth player in NFL history to reach 2,000 rushing yards in 2009, joining Eric Dickerson (2,105), Jamal Lewis (2,066), Barry Sanders (2,053), Terrell Davis (2,008) and O.J. Simpson (2,003).
- In 2009, became the first player in NFL history with at least 2,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season.
- Named AP Offensive Player of the Year and was the only unanimous AP first-team All-Pro selection in 2009.
- Set a franchise record with 228 rushing yards on 24 carries with two touchdowns against Jacksonville (11/1/09).
- Amassed a career-high 284 total yards from scrimmage against Houston (9/20/09), the second-highest combined rushing and receiving total in franchise history behind Billy Cannon's 330 yards against the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961.
- Became just the second player in franchise history (Billy Cannon, 12/10/61) to post 100 receiving yards and 100 rushing yards in the same game against Buffalo (11/15/09).
- Became the first player in NFL history with six consecutive games of 125+ rushing yards and a 5.0+ yards per carry average in each of those games (Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Brown accomplished this feat in five consecutive games in 1958).
- With his three touchdown runs of 85 or more yards in 2009 (91, 89, 85), he became the only player in NFL history to register three career touchdown runs of 85 or more yards.
- With his 76-yard touchdown run against Oakland (9/12/10), Johnson's four career touchdown runs of 75 or more yards ties him for second all-time with Barry Sanders and Tony Dorsett, trailing only O.J. Simpson's five.
- In his first two seasons (2009-2010), amassed 3,997 total yards from scrimmage ranking him third (Eric Dickerson and Edgerrin James) in NFL history for scrimmage yards in a player's first two campaigns.
- As a rookie in 2008, led the Titans with 1,228 rushing yards and was named to Pro Bowl. Finished third in AFC (eighth in NFL) in rushing yards and his 4.9-yard average was first in AFC (fourth in NFL).
- Rushed for more than 100 yards in 12 consecutive games (10/18/09 - 9/12/10), which ranks second in NFL history (Barry Sanders, 14).
- At the NFL Scouting Combine in February 2008, Johnson was timed in the 40-yard dash at 4.24 seconds.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Johnson decided to attend East Carolina because the Pirates offered him the best opportunity to play running back. Other schools that recruited him wanted him to play cornerback. His versatility as an athlete came in handy as a junior at ECU when he played slot receiver to limit his cutting on a turf toe injury.

- This is not the first time Johnson has played for the Titans. He was a star running back and track athlete for the Olympia High School Titans in Orlando, Fla.
- At the NFL Scouting Combine in February 2008, Johnson was timed in the 40-yard dash at 4.24 seconds. While a few other players have been recorded at faster times at other venues using a handheld stopwatch, Johnson's time is the fastest in the combine in the last 15 years and believed by most to be the fastest ever electronically timed 40-yard dash at the combine, which began in 1982.
- Johnson, who was a star in track and field as well as football in high school, finished second in the 100-meter dash at the Florida state meet to Walter Dix, who went on to win the bronze medal at the 2008 Summer Olympics.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Orlando, Fla., native was selected by the Titans in the first round (24th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/16): Named to the Pro Bowl. Started all 16 games at running back and finished fourth in the NFL and third in the AFC with 1,364 rushing yards. Finished sixth in the AFC with 12 total touchdowns. Led the team with 44 receptions. Has rushed for 100 or more yards in 24 career games, including an NFL-tying high eight times in 2010 (vs. OAK, at NYG, at DAL, at JAX, at MIA, vs. WAS, vs. IND, vs. HST). Tallied seven plays of 30 or more yards, 22 plays of 15 or more yards and 41 plays that gained 10 or more yards in 2010. Led the team in rushing yards in 15 of 16 games (at HST) in 2010. Led or tied for the team lead in receptions four times in 2010 (vs. OAK, vs. PIT, at SD, vs. IND). Led the team in receiving yards once in 2010 (vs. IND). Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week after carrying the ball 19 times for 131 yards with two touchdowns at Dallas (10/10). With his 76-yard touchdown run against Oakland (9/12), Johnson's four career touchdown runs of 75 or more yards ties him for second all-time with Barry Sanders and Tony Dorsett, trailing only O.J. Simpson's five. Rushed for more than 100 yards in 12 consecutive games (10/18/09 - 9/12/10), which ranks second in NFL history (Barry Sanders, 14) and moved him ahead of Marcus Allen's 11-game streak from 1985-1986. Against Oakland (9/12), went over 4,000 scrimmage yards for his career, reaching the mark in 32 career games which put him in a tie with Billy Simms for the fourth quickest to do so. The only players faster to 4,000 scrimmage yards were Eric Dickerson (30), Edgerrin James (30) and Clinton Portis (31). Became the third player in franchise history with three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons (Eddie George, Earl Campbell). Became the 10th player in NFL history to reach the 1,200-yard rushing mark in his first three NFL seasons.

- Against Oakland (9/12), notched 27 carries for 142 yards and two touchdowns. Caught a team-best four passes for eight yards. Gave the Titans a commanding 24-3 lead with a 76-yard touchdown jaunt with 1:43 left to play in the first half. Extended the Titans' lead to 31-6 with a four-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), carried the ball 32 times for 125 yards and two touchdowns. Gave the Titans a 10-0 lead with a one-yard touchdown plunge with 8:43 remaining in the second quarter. Broke down the left sideline for a 42-yard run in the fourth quarter. Concluded the Titans' scoring with an eight-yard touchdown run with 4:02 left to play in the game.

Passed three players to move into fourth place on the franchise's all-time rushing list. After starting the day in seventh place, he overtook Mike Rozier (3,426) for sixth place, Steve McNair (3,439) for fifth place, and Hoyle Granger (3,514) for fourth place.

- At Dallas (10/10), named AFC Offensive Player of the Week after carrying the ball 19 times for 131 yards with two touchdowns. Set up the Titans' second touchdown drive with a 29-yard jaunt up the middle in the second quarter. Flipped field position with a 42-yard run in the fourth quarter. Gave the Titans a 27-20 lead with a one-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter. Scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard plunge with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter. With the scores—his 28th and 29th career rushing touchdowns—he moved past Mike Rozier (27 career rushing touchdowns) and tied Lorenzo White (29 career rushing touchdowns) for fourth place in team history.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), rushed for 111 yards on 26 carries with a touchdown. Sealed the victory with a 35-yard touchdown run on a fourth-and-five play with 1:40 remaining in the game. Marked the eighth consecutive road games with 100 or more rushing yards. On his touchdown run, the 30th of his career, he broke a tie with Lorenzo White for fourth place on the team's all-time rushing touchdowns list.
- At Miami (11/14), posted 117 rushing yards on 17 carries with a touchdown. Tied the score at 7-7 with a 17-yard touchdown run on third-and-two in the opening quarter. Kickstarted a Titans' touchdown drive with a 30-yard scamper up the middle in the third quarter. On a seven-yard run in the first quarter, became the fourth player in franchise history to reach 4,000 career rushing yards, joining Eddie George, Earl Campbell and Lorenzo White. Johnson became the seventh player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in his first 40 career games.
- Against Washington (11/21), notched 130 rushing yards on 21 carries. Registered consecutive runs of 20 and 29 yards late in the fourth quarter. On his first rushing attempt of the game, a 14-yard carry in the first quarter, passed Lorenzo White (4,079 yards) for third place on the team's all-time rushing list.
- Against Indianapolis (12/9), rushed for 111 yards on 22 carries. Led the team with eight receptions and 68 receiving yards. Set up the Titans' first touchdown with a 25-yard reception down the left sideline in the second quarter. Cut the Colts' lead to 21-7 with a one-yard touchdown run with 49 seconds remaining in the first half. Kickstarted the Titans' third touchdown drive with a 37-yard run off right end to the Colts' 18-yard line in the fourth quarter.
- Against Houston (12/19), eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark for the eighth time this season with 130 yards on 24 carries with a touchdown. Extended the Titans' third touchdown drive with a three-yard run on third-and-one in the opening quarter. Gave the Titans a commanding 21-0 lead with an 11-yard touchdown run off right tackle in the first quarter. Set up the Titans' final touchdown with a 42-yard jaunt off right tackle in the third quarter.

2009 (16/16): Named AP Offensive Player of the Year and was the only unanimous AP first-team All-Pro selection. Selected as a starter to his second consecutive Pro Bowl after leading the NFL with a franchise-best 2,006 rushing yards and an NFL-record 2,509 yards from scrimmage. Became only the sixth player in NFL history to reach 2,000 rushing yards in a season, joining Eric Dickerson (2,105), Jamal Lewis (2,066), Barry Sanders (2,053), Terrell Davis (2,008) and O.J. Simpson (2,003). Became the first player in NFL history with at least 2,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. Led the NFL with 97 first downs and tied for first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 16 touchdowns. Rushed for more than 100 yards in 11 consecutive games to conclude the season. Tallied 17 plays of 30 or more yards, 38 plays of 15 or more yards and 67 plays that gained 10 or more yards in 2009. Led the team with 50 receptions and finished third on the squad with 503 receiving yards. Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for November after rushing for an NFL-best 800 yards (6.6 average) on 122 attempts and tying for the league-high with seven touchdowns as he helped the Titans post a 5-0 record. His 800 rushing yards were the most by a player in a month since 1970. Posted at least 125 rushing yards in six consecutive games (10/18/09 – 11/29/09), tying the NFL record set by Pro Football Hall of Famers Earl Campbell (1980) and Eric Dickerson (1984). Became the first player in NFL history with six consecutive games of 125+ rushing yards and a 5.0+ yards per carry average in each of those games (Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Brown accomplished this feat in five consecutive games in 1958). With his three touchdown runs of 85 or more yards in 2009 (91, 89, 85), he became the only player in NFL history to register three career touchdown runs of 85 or more yards. Set a franchise record with 228 rushing yards on 24 carries with two touchdowns against Jacksonville (11/1/09). His 228 rushing yards eclipsed the former franchise record of 216 yards which was held by Billy Cannon and Eddie George and was the highest rushing total by a Titans player since Eddie George rushed for 199 yards against the Oakland Raiders on Dec. 9, 1999. Amassed a career-high 284 total yards from scrimmage against Houston (9/20/09), the second-highest combined rushing and receiving total in franchise history behind Billy Cannon's 330 yards against the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961 and the seventh-highest combined rushing and receiving total in the NFL since the start of the 2000 season. Became just the second player in franchise history (Billy Cannon, 12/10/61) to post 100 receiving yards and 100 rushing yards in the same game against Buffalo (11/15/09). Registered a career-long 91-yard touchdown run against Houston (9/20/09), tying a franchise record for the longest rush that stood alone for 45 years (Sid Blanks, vs. N.Y. Jets 12/13/64).

- Against Houston (9/20), tallied a career-best 284 yards from scrimmage, while posting a then career-best 197 rushing yards on 16 attempts with two touchdowns. Recorded then career-highs with nine receptions and 87 receiving yards with a touchdown. Gave the Titans an early 7-0 lead with a 57-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Hauled in a short pass from Kerry Collins and scampered 69 yards untouched for a touchdown in the first quarter. Gave the Titans a 31-24 lead with a career-best and franchise-tying high 91-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (11/1), named AFC Offensive Player of the Week after setting a franchise record with 228 rushing yards on 24 carries with two touchdowns in the Titans' 30-13 victory. His 228 rushing yards eclipsed the former franchise record of 216 yards which was held by Billy Cannon and Eddie George. Gave the Titans a 20-13 lead with a 52-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. On the opening play of the fourth quarter, took a handoff and scampered for an 89-yard touchdown, giving the Titans a commanding 30-13 lead.
- At San Francisco (11/8), eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark for the third straight game in the Titans' 34-27 victory. Carried the ball 25 times for 135 yards and two touchdowns. Tied the score at 17-17 with a one-yard touchdown plunge in the third quarter. Gave the Titans a 24-20 lead by taking the option pitch, making a defender miss and finding the end zone for a two-yard touchdown run on a fourth-and-inches play in the fourth quarter.
- Against Buffalo (11/15), became just the second player in franchise history (Billy Cannon, 12/10/61) to post 100 receiving yards and 100 rushing yards in the same game. Led the team with 132 rushing yards on 26 carries with two touchdowns in the Titans' 41-17 win. Led the team with nine receptions for a team-best 100 receiving yards. Tied the score at 7-7 with a 28-yard touchdown in the first quarter. Broke two tackles at the goal-line and scored a one-yard touchdown run on third-and-one, giving the Titans a 24-17 lead in the fourth quarter.
- At Houston (11/23), reached the 100-yard rushing mark for the fifth consecutive game with 29 carries for 151 yards in the Titans' 20-17 Monday Night Football victory.
- Against Arizona (11/29), carried the ball 18 times for 154 yards with a touchdown in the Titans' 20-17 come-from-behind victory. Gave the Titans a 13-3 lead with an 85-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.
- At Indianapolis (12/6), carried the ball 27 times for 113 yards, marking his seventh consecutive 100-yard rushing performance.
- Against St. Louis (12/13), amassed his eighth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance with 28 carries for 117 yards and two touchdowns in the Titans' commanding 47-7 victory. Grabbed three receptions for 69 yards with another score. Gave the Titans an early 7-0 lead with a 39-yard touchdown run off right end with 3:06 remaining in the first quarter. Hauled in a screen pass and raced 66 yards for a touchdown with six seconds remaining in the first stanza. Extended the Titans lead to 33-0 with a three-yard touchdown run on third-and-three in the third quarter.
- Against Miami (12/20), carried the ball 29 times for 104 yards in the Titans' 27-24 overtime win.
- Against San Diego (12/25), rushed 21 times for 142 yards and a score. Found a seam off right end and scampered 30 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.
- At Seattle (1/3), carried the ball a career-best 36 times for 134 yards and two touchdowns in the Titans' season-ending 17-13 victory. Gave the Titans an early 7-0 lead with a six-yard touchdown run off left end on fourth-and-one with 7:56 remaining in the first quarter. With a nine-yard catch in the second quarter, set the NFL all-time single-season scrimmage yard record previously held by Marshall Faulk (2,429 yards). With a four-yard carry in the fourth quarter became only the sixth player in NFL history to amass 2,000 rushing yards in a season. Gave the Titans a 17-13 lead with a one-yard touchdown run off left end with 4:33 remaining in the fourth quarter.

2008 (15/14, 1/1): Led the Titans with 1,228 rushing yards and was named to Pro Bowl as a rookie. Finished third in AFC (eighth in NFL) in rushing yards, and 4.9-yard average was first in AFC (fourth in NFL). With 260 receiving yards, his 1,488 scrimmage yards ranked fifth in AFC and 10th in NFL. Tied for eighth in AFC with 65 first downs. Tied for seventh in AFC with 10 total touchdowns. Registered 21 plays of 15 or more yards. Played in every game with exception of season finale at Indianapolis (12/28), when he was a healthy inactive. Named All-Rookie by Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writers of America. With LenDale White (773 yards and 15 touchdowns), duo accumulated 2,001 yards and rushed for all 24 of team's rushing touchdowns, which tied for second-highest team total in franchise history.

- Against Jacksonville (9/7), started in NFL debut and totaled 15 carries for game-high 93 yards. His 93 rushing yards were the most by a Titans rookie on opening day since Earl Campbell's 137 yards in the 1978 opener (9/3/78 at Atlanta). Scored his first NFL touchdown on seven-yard pass from Vince Young.
- At Cincinnati (9/14), recorded first career 100-yard rushing effort, totaling 109 yards on 19 carries (5.7 avg.). His 51-yard run late in second quarter led to touchdown and tied for team's third-longest run since 1999.
- Against Minnesota (9/28), recorded first and second rushing touchdowns of career, scoring on one-yard run in first quarter and six-yard run in fourth quarter.
- Named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for September 2008. In first four games of his career, totaled 402 yards from scrimmage and 337 rushing yards. Crossed goal line three times in September, including two rushing touchdowns and one receiving touchdown.
- At Kansas City (10/19), led team with 168 yards on 18 carries and scored 66-yard touchdown. Helped team set its all-time single-game rushing record with 332 total yards on ground. His 168 yards accounted for the 20th-highest total in team history and second-highest rushing total by franchise rookie, trailing only Earl Campbell's 199 yards against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978. Named Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week.
- Against Indianapolis (10/27), led team with 77 rushing yards, including 16-yard touchdown run that sealed victory.
- Against Green Bay (11/2), led team with 89 rushing yards, including three-yard touchdown run. Also led club with six receptions for 72 yards, giving him 161 yards from scrimmage. Named Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week.
- Against N.Y. Jets (11/23), became seventh player in franchise history to reach 1,000 scrimmage yards in rookie season (Earl Campbell, Bill Groman, Sid Blanks, Ernest Givins, Rodney Thomas and Eddie George) and first since 1996 (George).
- At Detroit (11/27), totaled 125 yards and two touchdowns on 16 carries. Scored on carries of six yards and 58 yards in first quarter for second career multi-touchdown game. Passed Rodney Thomas (947 rushing yards in 1995) for third place in franchise history among rookie rushers.
- Against Cleveland (12/7), recorded his fourth 100-yard game of the season (second consecutive), carrying 19 times for 136 yards and one score. With 17-yard carry in second quarter, became third franchise rookie to reach 1,000-yard mark. In addition to joining Earl Campbell and Eddie George as only rookies to accomplish the feat, became 11th different player in team history to reach 1,000. Sealed victory with 25-yard touchdown run.
- On Dec. 16, became franchise's second rookie running back selected to Pro Bowl (Earl Campbell).
- Against Pittsburgh (12/21), scored on 21-yard run on fourth-and-one in third quarter.
- In Divisional Playoff against Baltimore (1/10), contributed 100 yards of offense before leaving game with sprained ankle in second quarter. Scored on eight-yard touchdown run.

COLLEGE:

ROBERT JOHNSON

SAFETY • 6'2" • 206 lbs • COLLEGE: UTAH
ACQUIRED: 5TH ROUND - 2010 • NFL EXP.: 2/2
HOMETOWN: LOS ANGELES, CALIF.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 0/0 • 0 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR, 0 SpT

PRO: Robert Johnson enters his second NFL season in 2011. The rangy, ball-hawking safety was inactive for all 16 contests as he studied the defense as a rookie. The former Utah Ute looks to add depth and contribute on special teams in his second year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- An All-Mountain West Conference performer as a senior at Utah, Johnson spent three seasons with the Utes after transferring from L.A. Southwest College.
- Despite playing only three seasons at Utah, Johnson tied for fifth in school history with 13 career interceptions.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- When he was just six years old, Johnson and his family were forced to confront a terrible tragedy when his father, Wayne, was shot and killed in a robbery. Johnson says ultimately it made his family stronger and credits his mother, Wanda, with persevering through the loss.
- Johnson, who himself did not own a car when he was drafted by the Titans, said in the aftermath of the draft that one of his first goals as a pro would be to earn enough to get his mother a reliable car.
- Johnson, who graduated with a sociology degree in December 2009, is interested in becoming a SWAT team member or FBI agent when his playing career is finished.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Los Angeles, Calif., native was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (148th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (0/0): Was inactive for all 16 contests.

COLLEGE:

- In three seasons at Utah, Johnson played in 37 games with 31 starts at free safety, including all 13 games as a senior. He left the school ranked tied for fifth in school history with 13 career interceptions, and his 172 career interception return yards ranked ninth in team history. He added 155 tackles, five tackles for loss, 26 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.
- As a senior (2009), was a first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection who started all 13 games at free safety. Finished second in the conference and tied for 11th in the nation in interceptions per game (0.46), and his six interceptions tied for the third-most in a season by a Ute. Led Utah and tied for second in the MWC in passes defensed with 12 (six interceptions, six additional pass breakups). His 139 yards on interception returns tied for the eighth-highest total in a season by a Ute. Led the secondary and finished fourth on the team with 70 tackles.
- As a junior (2008), played in 12 games with 11 starts and totaled 41 tackles, four interceptions and three pass breakups. All four interceptions came against ranked opponents (two vs. Alabama, one vs. TCU and one vs. BYU). Contributed to Utah becoming only unbeaten FBS team and to team's No. 2 final AP ranking and No. 4 final coaches ranking.
- As a sophomore (2007), played in 12 games with seven starts at free safety, earning honorable mention All-MWC. Forced a team-high five turnovers (three interceptions and two forced fumbles) and totaled 44 tackles.
- At L.A. Southwest College (2006), earned honorable mention junior college All-American honors in addition to All-Conference, All-District and All-State awards. Totaled 96 tackles, five interceptions, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble.

- Graduated with bachelor's degree in sociology from Utah in December 2009.

- Also ran track for L.A. Southwest College, clocking 21.65 in 200m and 47.52 in 400m events and posting a 6'8" high jump.

PERSONAL:

- Splits time between Nashville and Los Angeles.
- As a senior at Fremont (Calif.) High School, was named to L.A. Times 2005 All-Region team. Named 2005 Defensive Co-Player of the Year in the Coliseum League.
- Also earned three letters in track and basketball, earning All-District honors with the high school basketball team.
- Was a member of Utah's Student-Athlete Mentors (SAMS) program.

STAFON JOHNSON

RUNNING BACK • 5'11" • 222 lbs • COLLEGE: SOUTHERN CAL
ACQUIRED: FREE AGENT - 2010 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 2/2
HOMETOWN: BELLFLOWER, CALIF.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 0/0 • 0 rushes for 0 yds, 0 TDs • 0 receptions for 0 yards, 0 TDs

PRO: Stafon Johnson is a physical runner who possesses the will and determination necessary to make it in the NFL. The 5-foot-11-inch, 222-pounder has overcome a series of difficult setbacks to pursue his goal of playing in the NFL. Johnson is a strong inside runner that displays good pass-catching skills out of the backfield.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a junior at Southern California in 2008, played in all 13 games and rushed for a team-best 705 yards on 138 carries with nine touchdowns.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Midway through his senior campaign at Southern California, Johnson suffered a serious throat injury when he crushed his larynx in a freak weightlifting accident. He underwent extensive surgery that required a tracheotomy, plus a feeding tube in his stomach, and he was hospitalized several weeks. The injury sidelined him the rest of the season, but he made a near-miraculous recovery to the point where he can speak and swallow again. He played in the 2010 Senior Bowl and was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent following the draft.
- Johnson encountered more adversity during his rookie season with the Titans. He suffered serious leg and ankle injuries in the opening preseason contest against Seattle and was placed on season-ending injured reserve. Johnson has rehabbed vigorously throughout the offseason and is targeting a return for 2011 training camp.
- In 2010, Johnson was featured in The Courage in Sports award's show on CBS. The profile piece chronicled his return to the football field following throat and leg/ankle injuries.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Bellflower, Calif., native was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on April 30, 2010.
- Waived injured on Aug. 17, 2010 and reverted to injured reserve.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (0/0): Spent the entire season on injured reserve after suffering an injury in the preseason.

COLLEGE:

- During his four-year stint at Southern California, amassed 1,552 career rushing yards, 19 career rushing touchdowns and five career 100-yard games.
- As a senior (2009), appeared in first four games with one start and rushed for 157 yards on 32 carries with five touchdowns. Prior to USC's fifth game at California, he suffered a serious throat injury when he crushed his larynx in a freak weightlifting accident and missed the rest of the season.
- As a junior (2008), played in all 13 games and rushed for a team-best 705 yards on 138 carries with nine touchdowns, while adding seven receptions for 48 yards and 33 punt returns for 305 yards.
- As a sophomore (2007), saw action as a reserve in 11 games and finished second on the team with 673 yards on 98 carries with five touchdowns.
- As a freshman (2006), appeared briefly in three games and ran for 17 yards on three carries.
- Majored in sociology at Southern California.

PERSONAL:

- Single and splits time between Nashville and Bellflower, Calif.
- At Dorsey (Los Angeles, Calif.) High School, was named a 2005 Parade All-American after posting 2,197 yards on 247 carries with 22 touchdowns.
- As a junior in 2004, rushed for 1,879 yards with 18 touchdowns and posted 25 tackles and three interceptions.
- Also ran track (with a best of 10.7 in the 100 meters) at Dorsey, where his father, Stan Johnson, was a long-time assistant track coach.
- Born Stafon Dazz Johnson on Feb. 6, 1988 in Compton, Calif.

JASON JONES

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 6'5" • 276 lbs • COLLEGE: EASTERN MICHIGAN
ACQUIRED: 2ND ROUND - 2008 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 4/4
HOMETOWN: SOUTHFIELD, MICH.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 15/15 • 61 tackles, 3.5 sacks, 26 QBP, 12 TFL, 0 INT, 4 PD, 3 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Entering his fourth NFL season, Jason Jones is one of the most promising and imposing young Titans defenders. The 6-foot-5 defensive lineman is one of the critical cogs in the team's new defensive scheme. The former second-round draft choice was a significant contributor in his rookie season, totaling five sacks in 2008, and was well on his way to furthering his progress before a shoulder injury derailed his second campaign. He came back in 2010 to produce his best season to date. In 15 starts, he led the team with 12 tackles for loss and 26 quarterback pressures and added a career-high 61 tackles.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- From the time he entered the NFL in 2008 through the 2010 campaign, Jones tied for ninth in the league among defensive tackles with 12.5 total sacks.
- In 2010, Jones produced one of the most impressive campaigns by a defensive tackle during the "Titans era" (1999-present). His 12 tackles for loss ranked second among the Titans in that period, trailing only Kevin Carter's 13 in 2001. His 26 quarterback pressures ranked seventh in the same timeframe.
- As a rookie in 2008, Jones' five sacks ranked fourth in the NFL among all defensive tackles and was the top number among rookie defensive linemen.
- In a game against Pittsburgh during his rookie season (12/21/08), Jones recorded the best single-game sack total by a Titans player since 1993. He totaled 3.5 sacks, a half-sack shy of the franchise record and the most since William Fuller's four sacks against Pittsburgh on Nov. 28, 1993. Jones also forced two fumbles against the Steelers.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- The former All-MAC performer began his collegiate career at Eastern Michigan as a tight end before shifting to defensive tackle in his sophomore season.
- Jones was raised in an athletic family. His brother, Brian, played basketball at the University of Detroit Mercy and his other brother, Michael, played football at Alabama State.
- Jones' other brother, Jamar, works at the White House as a Secret Service uniformed police officer.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Detroit, Mich., native was selected by the Titans in the second round (54th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (15/15): Started 15 games at defensive tackle and collected a career-high 61 tackles. Led the team with 26 quarterback pressures and 12 tackles for loss. Led or tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures nine times in 2010 (vs. OAK, vs. PIT, vs. DEN, at DAL, at JAX, vs. PHI, at SD, at MIA, at KC). Tied for the team lead in sacks twice in 2010 (at DAL, at KC). Led or tied for the team lead in passes defended twice in 2010 (at SD, vs. IND).

- Against Oakland (9/12), posted five tackles, a tackle for loss, two quarterback pressures and a pass defended. Batted down a pass intended for Darren McFadden on the opening play of the game. Dropped McFadden for a one-yard loss on a rush off right tackle in the first quarter.
- Against Denver (10/3), started at defensive tackle and notched six tackles, including two tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a team-best four quarterback pressures. Teamed with Will Witherspoon to stuff Laurence Maroney for a four-yard loss on a rush off right guard in the first quarter. Stuffed Maroney for a three-yard loss on a rush off right tackle in the third quarter. Caused a Laurence Maroney fumble late in the fourth quarter but the loose ball was recovered by the Broncos.

- At Dallas (10/10), posted seven tackles, two sacks and two quarterback pressures. Halted a Cowboys' drive by sacking Tony Romo for a seven-yard sack on third-and-10 in the first quarter. Dropped Romo for a nine-yard sack in the second quarter.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), recorded a team-best four quarterback pressures.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), tallied six tackles, a tackle for loss, a forced fumble, a pass defended and four quarterback pressures. Made a game-changing play by forcing a Kevin Kolb fumble that was recovered by Alterraun Verner at the Titans' three-yard line in the third quarter.
- At Houston (11/28), was inactive with a knee injury.
- Against Houston (12/19), registered three tackles, a stop for loss, a sack and a quarterback pressure. Ended a Texans' drive by sacking Matt Schaub for a nine-yard loss on third-and-three in the third quarter. Stuffed Derrick Ward for a three-yard loss on a goalline rush in the fourth quarter.
- At Kansas City (12/26), recorded three tackles, a half sack, a stop for loss, a forced fumble and two quarterback pressures. Teamed with Jason Babin to sack Matt Cassel for a six-yard sack in the third quarter. Forced a Thomas Jones fumble that was recovered by Chris Hope along the sideline in the fourth quarter.

2009 (7/0): Tied for third on the team with four sacks and added 21 tackles, seven quarterback pressures and five passes defended. Placed on injured reserve with shoulder injury on Dec. 12, 2009 after playing in seven contests. Led or tied for the team lead in sacks three times in 2009 (at PIT, at NE, vs. JAX).

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), posted four tackles, a stop for a loss, a sack and a pass defended. Teamed with Stephen Tulloch to stonewall Willie Parker for a one-yard loss in the opening stanza. Dropped Ben Roethlisberger for a 19-yard sack forcing the Steelers out of field goal range on a third-and-two play in the first quarter.
- At New England (10/18), posted four tackles, including a team-best two sacks. Halted a potential Patriots' scoring drive by sacking Tom Brady on a third-and-eight play in the first quarter and dropped Brady for another sack on third-and-six later in the opening stanza.
- Against Jacksonville (11/1), collected three tackles, a sack, a pass defended and three quarterback pressures in the Titans' 30-13 victory. Sacked Luke McCown for a four-yard loss late in the fourth quarter.

2008 (13/3, 1/0): Appeared in 13 games as rookie and finished third on team with five sacks, a total that ranked fourth in NFL among all defensive tackles and first among rookie defensive linemen. Added 49 tackles, 12 quarterback pressures and two forced fumbles. Led or tied for team lead in sacks twice (at KC, vs. PIT) and led or tied for team lead in quarterback pressures three times (at BLT, at KC, vs. PIT). Inactive for three games (11/16 at Jacksonville, 11/23 against N.Y. Jets and 11/27 at Detroit) with foot injury.

- Against Jacksonville (9/7), registered three tackles, a half sack and quarterback pressure in NFL debut. Teamed with Kevin Vickerson for first half-sack of career on seven-yard takedown of David Garrard in third quarter.
- At Baltimore (10/5), tied for team lead with two quarterback pressures in victory.
- At Kansas City (10/19), made first career NFL start at defensive tackle and registered six tackles, one sack and three quarterback pressures. Collected first career full sack by dropping Tyler Thigpen for six-yard loss in fourth quarter.
- At Chicago (11/9), collected five tackles and blocked 48-yard field goal attempt by Robbie Gould with 9:46 remaining in the fourth quarter.

- Against Pittsburgh (12/21), started and registered season-high seven tackles, 3.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and two quarterback pressures in victory. In first quarter, dropped Ben Roethlisberger for two-yard sack and then halted potential scoring drive by forcing Roethlisberger fumble that was recovered by William Hayes at Titans' one-yard line. In fourth quarter, combined with Tony Brown to sack Roethlisberger for 10-yard loss, while also forcing fumble. Forced another fumble on five-yard sack of Roethlisberger and finally dropped the quarterback for another eight-yard sack in fourth quarter, bringing total to 3.5 sacks, the most by a Titans player since 1993 (four by William Fuller against Steelers on Nov. 28, 1993) and third-highest total by any NFL player in 2008.

COLLEGE:

- In 45 games for Eastern Michigan Eagles, started 33 times on defense and three times on offense. He collected 175 tackles with 14 sacks and ranked second in school history with 50 stops for losses.
- As senior (2007), received third-team All-American and first-team All-MAC honors. Played in all 12 games with 11 starts and finished fourth on the team with 70 tackles. Tied for seventh in the NCAA with a career-high 19.5 stops for losses. Added 10 quarterback pressures, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble while breaking up three passes and blocking a kick.
- As junior (2006), turned in one of the best defensive efforts in the nation, recording 18.5 tackles for losses of 71 yards to rank fifth nationally in that category. Named EMU's Most Valuable Player and chosen second-team All-Mid-American Conference at defensive lineman. Started in all 11 games in which he played, missing only one game with leg injury. Recorded 57 tackles to rank sixth on the team and notched four sacks for losses of 31 yards and two forced fumbles.
- As sophomore (2005), started all 11 games on defensive line and responded with 47 total tackles. Finished second on the team in both tackles for loss with 12 for 56 yards and in sacks with 6.5 for 45 yards.
- As freshman (2004), one of six 2004 recruits that saw action during the season. Began season at tight end before moving to the defensive line midway through the 2004 campaign. Caught four passes for 12 yards. Played in all 11 games with three starts at tight end.

- Majored in business management.

KARL KLUG

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN • 6'3" • 275 lbs • COLLEGE: IOWA
ACQUIRED: 5TH ROUND - 2011 • NFL EXPERIENCE: ROOKIE
HOMETOWN: CALEDONIA, MINN.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 STATS

GP/GS: 13/13 • 57 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 13 TFL, 0 INT, 3 PD, 1 FF, 0 FR

PRO: The Titans continued to build depth on the defensive front when they selected Iowa's Karl Klug (pronounced KLOOG) with their fifth-round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft. He arrives with a blue-collar reputation and plays with tremendous effort and physicality. After struggling with injuries and working to add weight to his frame at the beginning of his college career, he started every game at defensive tackle in his final two seasons and became one of the Hawkeyes' leaders.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- During his four-year career at Iowa, Klug appeared in 40 games with 26 consecutive starts to end his career. Tallied 140 tackles, including 31 stops for loss, 9.5 sacks, eight quarterback pressures, eight passes defended, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Klug has an identical twin brother, Kevin, who played linebacker at Minnesota State University, Mankato. As high school teammates, Kevin played fullback, opening holes for Karl, the team's running back. They have an older sister, Kelsey.
- Klug's small hometown of Caledonia calls itself the "Wild Turkey Capital of Minnesota" and "The Heart of Quilt Country."
- Klug arrived on Iowa's campus as an undersized defender who weighed only 207 pounds at the time.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Caledonia, Minn., native was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (142nd overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- During his four-year career at Iowa, Klug appeared in 40 games with 26 consecutive starts to end his career. Tallied 140 tackles, including 31 stops for loss, 9.5 sacks, eight quarterback pressures, eight passes defended, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

AS A SENIOR (2010), started all 13 games at defensive tackle and led team with 13 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks. Posted 57 total tackles en route to earning second-team All-Big Ten honors from league coaches and media and second-team All-Big Ten by Phil Steele's College Football. Honors also included Roy J. Carver Most Valuable Player Award on defense, Iron Hawk Award and Hayden Fry "Extra Heartbeat" Award. Was named a permanent team captain on defense and was selected to participate in East-West Shrine Game. Was one of seven seniors named to 2010 Leadership Group.

- Against Iowa State (9/11), recorded four tackles, a sack and two quarterback pressures.
- At Michigan (10/16), recorded eight tackles, a tackle for loss and a half sack. Forced a fumble to stop a drive inside the Iowa 20-yard line.
- At Northwestern (11/13), tallied seven tackles and matched career high with two sacks.
- Against Missouri (12/28) in Insight Bowl win, recorded five tackles, including two tackles for loss and a sack.

AS A JUNIOR (2009), started all 13 games at defensive tackle, recording 65 tackles, 13 tackles for loss, four sacks, five passes defended and two forced fumbles. Named first team All-Big Ten by Sporting News and honorable mention All-Big Ten by league coaches. Received the Hustle Team Award for defense.

- Against Northern Iowa (9/5), recorded four tackles, a sack, a quarterback pressure and a pass break-up.
- Against Arizona (9/19), recorded five tackles, a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.
- At Penn State (9/26), recorded a half sack and recovered a fumble in fourth quarter to stop potential Nittany Lions' scoring drive with Iowa clinging to an 11-10 lead.
- Against Indiana (10/31), posted career-high 10 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss and a half sack.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2008), played in 12 games and posted 17 tackles, five tackles for loss, two sacks and a forced fumble.

- Against Florida International (9/6), recorded nine tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble on his way to garnering Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors.

AS A REDSHIRT FRESHMAN (2007), suffered foot injury during pre-season drills and appeared in just one game (vs. Minnesota) and posted one tackle.

- Redshirted in 2006.
- Graduated in December 2010 with a degree in recreational management.

PERSONAL:

- Single, resides in Iowa City.
- Named first-team All-State as a senior at Caledonia (Minn.) High School after recording 77 tackles and 20 sacks at defensive end. Also had 1,212 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns. Also named to the Minnesota Vikings All-State team, LaCrosse Tribune Player of the Year and was a two-time first-team All-Conference player, including Player of the Year as a senior.
- Notched 89 tackles and 18 sacks as a junior.
- Was a three-year wrestling and two-year letterman in track.
- List of favorites: (movie) "Dumb and Dumber"; (TV shows) "SportsCenter" and "Everybody Loves Raymond"; (actor) Will Smith; (music artist) Red Hot Chili Peppers; (school subject) math; (car) 1998 Oldsmobile Cutlass; (book) "Heaven is For Real" by Todd Burpo; (video game) Halo; (food) steak and potatoes; (childhood sports hero) John Randle; and (sports teams as a child) "all the Minnesota teams."

TROY KROPOG

TACKLE/GUARD • 6'6" • 308 lbs • COLLEGE: TULANE
ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2009 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 3/3
HOMETOWN: METAIRIE, LA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 6/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 5/0

PRO: Troy Kropog is a quick, agile offensive lineman that possesses good size and a strong work ethic. The 6-foot-6-inch, 309-pounder has the ability to play both tackle and guard in the NFL and will compete for a top reserve role on the Titans' offensive front.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Kropog is a long-time friend of current Chicago Bears safety Craig Steltz. The two of them grew up playing football together from the age of 10 until they went their separate ways to college.
- Kropog is familiar with the Nashville area having spent two months prior to the NFL Combine at D1 Sports Training in Franklin, Tenn.
- Kropog and his family used to vacation in Gatlinburg, Tenn., during his childhood. His family was introduced to the area when he 11 years old, after Kropog played in a youth all-star game during Thanksgiving weekend. The family enjoyed the area so much that they made Gatlinburg an annual destination spot for the next five to six years.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Metairie, La., Kropog was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (135th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (5/0): Appeared in the first five games of the season as a reserve on special teams. Was inactive for the final 11 contests.

2009 (1/0): Spent his entire rookie season on the 53-man roster but saw action as a reserve in just one contest. Was inactive for 13 games and did not play in two games.

- At San Francisco (11/8), made his NFL debut as a reserve on special teams in the Titans' 34-27 victory.

COLLEGE:

- A three-year starter at left tackle at Tulane, Kropog started 36 career games and his blocking consistency grade of 84.9 percent as a starter was the best of any down lineman in the Conference USA ranks during his career.
- As a senior (2008), was named second-team All-American and first-team All-Conference USA by The NFL Draft Report. Also received second-team Conference USA midseason accolades from The Sporting News. One of the team's offensive captains, he started all 12 games at left tackle and led the conference with an 87.33 percent grade for blocking consistency while also pacing the league with 14 touchdown resulting blocks.
- As a junior (2007), named an All-Conference USA second-team selection by The NFL Draft Report and earned honorable mention from the league's media and coaches. Started 10 games at left tackle and registered 89 knockdowns, producing 15 blocks down field and 18 other blocks that resulted in Green Wave touchdowns, grading 87.18 percent for blocking consistency.
- As a sophomore (2006), took over left tackle duties, starting all 12 games. Was a part of a unit that saw the offense average 338.7 yards per game. Delivered 73 individual knockdowns, including six touchdown resulting blocks and eight blocks down field.
- As a redshirt freshman (2005), appeared in the team's first eight games, playing mostly as a reserve left offensive tackle. Was pressed into starting duty on the right side against Houston and Marshall. Finished with 28 knockdowns and three touchdown-resulting blocks while participating in 304 plays. Against Houston, recorded an assisted tackle during a brief appearance on defense.

- As a freshman (2004), was redshirted for the season and saw action on the scout team. Originally joined the team as a 260-pound freshman, but added over 25 pounds to his frame in the offseason prior to the 2005 campaign.
- Majored in humanities at Tulane.

JAKE LOCKER

QUARTERBACK • 6'3" • 234 lbs • COLLEGE: WASHINGTON
ACQUIRED: 1ST ROUND - 2011 • NFL EXP.: ROOKIE
HOMETOWN: FERNDALE, WASH.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 12/12 • 184 of 332 for 2,265 yds, 17 TDs and 9 INTs • 114 rushes for 385 yards, 6 TDs

PRO: The Titans used their 2011 first round selection on Washington signal caller Jake Locker. A four-year college starter, Locker possesses the toughness, competitiveness and the pure athletic ability to succeed at the pro level. Instead of declaring for the NFL after his junior season and almost guaranteeing himself top-flight draft status, he returned to Washington for his senior campaign and accomplished his goal of leading his school back to a bowl game. A hardworking, grounded leader on and off the field, Locker has excellent arm strength and his athleticism allows him to excel outside the pocket. The Titans will rely on his leadership skills and football intangibles to solidify the future of the club's quarterback position.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a senior in 2010, completed 184 of 332 passes for 2,265 yards with 17 touchdowns. Avenged a 0-12 season in 2008, by leading the Huskies to a bowl game for the first time since 2002.
- Connected on a career-best 230 of 395 passes for 2,800 yards with 21 touchdowns as a junior in 2009. Earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention and was a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award.
- Selected All-Pac-10 honorable mention and named the league's Freshman of the Year in 2007. Totaled 3,048 yards on 500 offensive touches, as he was responsible for 27 touchdowns.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Locker was very involved with charitable endeavors while at Washington and volunteered a lot of his time at local children's hospitals. He started a foundation with teammates called "Touchdowns for Kids" that benefitted youth hospitals.
- Locker was an outstanding baseball player in high school. He was originally selected in the 40th round by the Los Angeles Angels as a senior in 2006 coming out of Ferndale High School and the organization again tabbed him in the 10th round of the 2009 draft to play centerfield in their minor league system. Locker actually returned to Washington as a walk-on for his senior campaign, as the Angels paid his scholarship costs during the 2010 semester.
- Locker played outfield for the Bellingham Bells of the West Coast Collegiate Baseball League in 2008, where he was named by Baseball America as the league's top prospect. After suffering an offseason injury, he played in just 10 games, hitting .273 with one home run before returning to Washington for 2008 football fall camp. An anonymous baseball scout quoted in Baseball America said Locker "could be a potential Hall of Famer."
- In 2010, Locker's hometown of Ferndale declared the day of its annual Old Settlers Picnic to be "Jake Locker Day."
- Of all the impressive tailgate parties that take place before and after University of Washington football games, one of the most formidable the last few years has been held by the "Ferndawgs," a passionate group of family and friends from Ferndale who have cheered at every home game Locker has played. While the Ferndawgs drape themselves in Washington purple and gold, very few of them attended the university.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Ferndale, Wash., native was selected by the Titans in the first round (eighth overall) in the 2011 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- In four seasons at Washington, Locker started 40 games, completing 619 of 1,148 passes for 7,639 yards with 53 touchdowns and 35 interceptions, holding a career passer rating of 119.1. He rushed the ball 454 times for 1,939 yards (4.3 avg.) with 29 touchdowns. Locker amassed 9,578 yards in total offense on 1,602 plays (6.0 avg.), averaging 239.45 yards per game. Ended his Huskies' career at or near the top of most of the school's passing and quarterback rushing charts, holding the school record for season (986 in 2007) and career (1,939) rushing yards by a quarterback. His 29 career rushing touchdowns ranked No. 3 all-time (all positions). Ranked No. 2 all-time in career passing yards with 7,639 yards and also ranks second in career attempts (1,148), completions (619) and touchdown passes (53). Was responsible for 496 career points (touchdowns rushed and passed for), second-most in UW history (only eight points behind Cody Pickett's record). As far as total offense goes, ranked No. 2 in career yards (9,578), attempts (1,601) and yards per game (239.5).

AS A SENIOR (2010), started 12 of 13 at quarterback, missing the Oregon game due to a broken rib, which was initially injured in the Oregon State game. Earned honorable mention All-Pac-10. Named team captain for the second straight season and won the team's Guy Flaherty Most Inspirational Award at the postseason banquet. Became just the fourth player in the 103-year history of the award to win it twice.

- Against Syracuse (9/11), connected on 22 for 33 passes for 289 yards and four scores in 41-20 win.
- At Southern Cal (10/2), rushed for 110 yards on 12 carries while amassing 310 yards and a touchdown on 24 of 40 passing in the 32-31 win. Registered his second 300/100 game of his career. Trailing 31-29, drove the Huskies 61 yards on 10 plays, converting a 4th-and-11 on the way, as Washington won on a field goal in the game's final play.
- Against Oregon State (10/16), tied Chris Rowland's 37-year old school record with five touchdown passes in the 35-34 win. Completed 21 of 35 passes for 286 yards against the Beavers.
- At Washington State (12/4), wrapped up regular season by going 14 for 22 for 226 and two touchdowns in the Apple Cup.
- Against Nebraska (12/30), rushed for 83 yards and a touchdown in a 19-7 Holiday Bowl win.

AS A JUNIOR (2009), earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention and was a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award. Member of Watch Lists for the Maxwell Award, presented annually to the most outstanding collegiate football player in America, and the Manning Award, recognizing the nation's most outstanding quarterback. Recipient of the Guy Flaherty Most Inspirational Award, Washington's oldest and most prestigious team honor. Served as a team captain, starting all 12 games, as he completed a career-best 230 of 395 passes for 2,800 yards with 21 touchdowns and 11 interceptions. Carried the ball 112 times for 388 yards (3.5 avg.) and seven scores. On 507 offensive plays, he totaled 3,188 yards and was responsible for 28 touchdowns. His pass attempts rank fourth in school history behind Cody Pickett (612 in 2002, 454 in 2003) and Cary Conklin (404, 1989).

- Against Louisiana State (9/5), his 57 total offensive attempts tied two other players as the 10th-most in school history for a single game. His 372 yards in total offense against the Tigers is the ninth-most in school history for a single game. Connected on 25 of 45 passes for 321 yards with two touchdowns. Rushed the ball 12 times for 51 yards.
- Against California (12/5), earned Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors after completing 19 of 23 passes for 248 yards with three touchdowns. Carried the ball 14 times for 77 yards with two touchdowns.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2008), named to the preseason watch lists for the Maxwell Award, presented annually to the most outstanding collegiate football player, and the Manning Award, recognizing the nation's most outstanding quarterback. Started the first four games of the season before breaking his thumb against Stanford. Completed 50 of 93 passes attempted for 512 yards and one touchdown. Carried the ball 56 times for 180 yards (3.2 avg.) and three touchdowns. Gained 692 yards in total offense on 149 plays.

- Against Brigham Young (9/6), earned the team's Offensive Player of the Week award after connecting on 17 of 32 passes for 204 yards with a touchdown. Rushed the ball 18 times for 62 yards with two touchdowns.

AS A FRESHMAN (2007), selected All-Pac-10 honorable mention and named the league's Freshman of the Year. Named first-team redshirt freshman All-American choice by collegesportsreport.com and second-team pick by Rivals.com. Received the Travis Spring Most Outstanding Freshman Award for offense at the team's postseason awards banquet. Started every game but one and gained 2,062 yards with 14 touchdowns and 15 interceptions on 155 of 328 passes. Added 986 rushing yards with 13 more scores on a career-best 172 carries (5.7 avg.). Totaled 3,048 yards on 500 offensive touches, as he was responsible for 27 touchdowns. Set a school record for passing yards by a freshman with his 2,062 yards and 155 completions. Set another Huskies record for touchdown passes by a freshman with 14 and tied for 13th among all quarterbacks on the single-season record list. Set a school record for rushing attempts by a quarterback with 172 and set Pac-10 and UW records for rushing yards by a freshman quarterback with 986. That total also set school season records for rushing yards by a freshman and rushing yards by a quarterback and ranks 14th on the single-season record list. Set a school record for longest pass play with a 98-yard touchdown to Marcel Reece against Arizona. Also threw an 83-yard touchdown to Anthony Russo against Oregon, the sixth-longest pass play in school history. Was an Academic All-Pac-10 honorable mention in 2007.

- At UCLA (9/22), completed 17 of 36 passes for 216 yards with four touchdowns. Carried the ball 15 times for 92 yards.

- Against Arizona (10/27), connected on 17 of 30 passes for 336 yards with a pair of touchdown passes. Tied school record for most rushing yards by a freshman in a single game with 157 yards. Gained 493 yards in total offense against the Wildcats, ranking second on the school's single-game record list.

AS A REDSHIRT FRESHMAN (2006), quarterbacked the Washington service team. Dressed for all 12 games but didn't see game action. Won the team's Pepsi Player of the Week Award for his work on the service team leading up to games vs. Fresno State, Arizona and Washington State.

- Was a History major at Washington.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Lauren and the couple splits time between Nashville and Ferndale, Wash.

- Attended Ferndale (Wash.) High School, playing football for head coach Vic Randall and led the Golden Eagles to a 37-4 overall record in three years as a starting quarterback. Also started at cornerback in his first prep year before moving to safety, becoming the first freshman to start in Randall's 21-year career as head coach.

- One of four Seattle Times "Blue Chip" recruits, ranking fifth nationally at quarterback and first in the West, by Prep Star. Ranked 85th in Scout.com's National "Hot 100" squad. Given a four-star rating by Rivals.com, as that recruiting service listed him as the fourth dual-threat quarterback in the nation, the 68th prospect in the country and the third-best recruit in the state of Washington. Ranked fifth nationally at quarterback and first in the West by Prep Star.

- As a senior, led his team to a 14-0 record and a state title in 2005, throwing for 1,603 yards and 25 touchdowns with only three interceptions. An excellent running quarterback, he also rushed for 1,339 yards and 24 scores during his senior year, earning first-team All-American honors from Parade and EA Sports. That year, he was also named the Class 3A state Player of the Year by the Associated Press and Seattle Times, adding first-team All-State honors from both organizations. In the 2005 Washington 3A state title game, he had four touchdowns and 272 total yards in a 47-12 win over Prosser High School. Helped Ferndale to a seventh place ranking in USA Today's final West Region rankings, and the team ranked 12th in MaxPreps.com's final national rankings.

- As a junior, passed for 1,314 yards and 16 touchdowns while rushing for 987 yards and 15 scores in 2004, leading Ferndale to a 13-2 record and a Washington 3A state runner-up finish. In the state title game, the Golden Eagles fell to nationally-ranked prep powerhouse Bellevue, 31-28. Named first-team All-State by the Associated Press that season, adding All-State accolades as a pitcher and outfielder for the school's baseball team.

- As a sophomore, he threw for 713 yards with nine touchdowns, while running for 478 yards and three scores after taking over as the starting quarterback in the Golden Eagles' "Wing-T" offense, leading the team to a 10-2 record. Also moved to safety on defense, as Locker directed Ferndale to the second round of the 3A state playoffs before the team lost to O'Dea High, 31-0.

- Was also a standout pitcher and outfielder on the baseball diamond, as he was named the 3A State Player of the Year in 2006.

- Selected in the 40th round of the 2006 Major League Baseball Draft by the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. The Angels again selected him in the 10th round of the 2009 draft as an outfielder, signing him to a six-year contract that included a $300,000 signing bonus.

- Father, Scott, and uncles, Mike, John and Patrick all played football at Western Washington University, where Patrick still holds the career total yardage record. Patrick, the Player of the Century at Western Washington after gaining 4,049 yards in his career, was introduced by Jake during his induction into the Pacific Northwest Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

- Has two sisters, Alyssa and Erika and his cousin, Casey, is currently a safety on the Washington State football team. Another cousin, Brady, was a teammate on the Bellingham Bells baseball team.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 0/0 • 0 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Kevin Malast was signed as a free agent in 2011 to compete for a spot as a special teams contributor and reserve linebacker. The former undrafted free agent from Rutgers spent two training camps with the Chicago Bears (2009 and 2010) but was released each time in the final roster cutdown. In 2009, he spent the final five weeks of the season on the Bears' practice squad.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Manchester, N.J., native was originally signed by the Chicago Bears as a rookie free agent on April 27, 2009.
- Waived by the Bears on Sept. 5, 2009.
- Signed by the Bears to the team's practice squad on Dec. 2, 2009.
- Re-signed by the Bears as a free agent on Jan. 4, 2010.
- Waived by the Bears on Sept. 4, 2010.
- Signed by the Titans on Jan. 7, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010: Was out of football after being waived by the Chicago Bears in the final roster cutdown of the preseason.

2009 (0/0 - Chicago): Spent the final five weeks of the season on the Bears' practice squad.

COLLEGE:

• Malast was a four-year letterwinner and two-year starter at Rutgers University (2005-08), where he finished his career with 207 tackles, 15.5 tackles for loss, three sacks, six passes defended, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

- As a senior, elected team captain and led the team with 101 tackles in 13 starts. Ranked fourth in the Big East in tackles per game (7.8 avg). Added 6.5 tackles for loss, a half sack, one interception and two passes defended.
- As a junior, started all 13 games and finished second on the team with 92 tackles. Ranked fourth on the team with 7.5 tackles for loss and added 2.5 sacks, four passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.
- As a sophomore, played in all 13 games, posting 10 tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss.
- As a freshman, saw action in the final six games of the season, mostly on special teams, and tallied four tackles.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Manchester (N.J.) High School, where he played both linebacker and tailback. Was a three-time first-team All-Conference selection and first-team All-County honoree. Named team MVP as a junior and senior.
- Also played baseball and wrestled at Manchester, reaching the state tournament in wrestling as a junior.
- Brothers Bill (New Hampshire) and Brian (VMI) played college football.

MARC MARIANI

WIDE RECEIVER • 6'1" • 190 lbs • COLLEGE: MONTANA
 ACQUIRED: D7a - 2010 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 2/2
 HOMETOWN: HAVRE, MONT.
 GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 16/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/0 • 60 KR for 1,530 yds (25.5 avg.) 1 TDs • 27 PR for 329 yds (12.2 avg.) 1 TDs, 5 SpT

PRO BOWLS

2010

PRO: The Titans used their first of two seventh-round selections in 2010 on Montana wide receiver Marc Mariani, a shifty route runner that excels in the slot and in the return game. The former walk-on at Montana made an immediate impact as a rookie returner, earning Pro Bowl honors after finishing second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL with a 12.2-yard punt return avg. and finishing fourth in the AFC with 25.5-yard kickoff return avg. Mariani set the franchise record for most combined return yards on punts and kickoffs and became the second Titans/Oilers player to record a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in the same regular season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a rookie in 2010, named to the Pro Bowl as a return specialist. Finished second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL with a 12.2-yard punt return avg., while finishing fourth in the AFC with 25.5-yard kickoff return avg.
- Set the franchise record for the most total return yards on punts and kickoffs in franchise history with 1,859 yards. His 2010 total exceeded Derrick Mason's previous record of 1,794 yards in 2000.
- Became the second Titans/Oilers player to record a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in the same regular season. Billy Johnson did it in both 1975 and 1977.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Mariani has overcome a great deal of adversity to make it to the NFL. He was a non-preferred walk-on at Division I-AA Montana before working his way up the Grizzlies' depth chart and finally earning a scholarship as a junior.
- Mariani thought he was the victim of a practical joke when the Titans called to inform him that he was drafted. The former Montana teammate of then Titans Coach Jeff Fisher's son, Brandon, had been on the phone back and forth with his buddy all day. Just before the Titans were scheduled to pick in the seventh round, he got another call from Brandon. He was in the draft room at Baptist Sports Park and Mariani was a Titan.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Havre, Mont., native was selected by the Titans with their first of two picks in the seventh round (222nd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/0): Named to the Pro Bowl as a return specialist. Appeared in all 16 games and finished second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL with a 12.2-yard punt return avg. Finished fourth in the AFC with 25.5-yard kickoff return avg. Set the Titans/Oilers single-season record with 1,859 total return yards and 1,530 kickoff return yards in 2010. Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles once in 2010 (vs. JAX). Collected his first career touchdown with a 98-yard kickoff return against Denver (10/3/10). Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after posting an 87-yard punt return for a touchdown against Washington (11/21/10). Became the second Titans/Oilers player to record a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in the same regular season. Billy Johnson did it in both 1975 and 1977.

- Against Denver (10/3), returned six kickoffs for 187 yards with a touchdown and one punt for nine yards. Gave the Titans a 17-13 lead with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the third quarter. He scored the team's first touchdown on a kickoff return since Derrick Mason at Cincinnati on Nov. 18, 2001.
- At Dallas (10/10), returned three kickoffs for 109 yards and fair caught one punt. Set up the Titans' winning touchdown with a 73-yard kickoff return to the Dallas 11-yard line late in the fourth quarter. Notched a special teams tackle on coverage units.

- At San Diego (10/31), returned seven kickoffs for 159 yards and one punt for 17 yards. Notched a solo tackle on special teams coverage units. Returned a punt 17 yards to the Titans' 26-yard line in the second quarter.
- Against Washington (11/21), named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning three kickoffs for 82 yards and one punt for 87 yards and a touchdown. Gave the Titans a 7-0 lead with an 87-yard punt return for a touchdown with 8:18 remaining in the first quarter. It tied for the second-longest punt return for a touchdown in franchise history, equaling Billy Johnson's 87-yarder against Cleveland on Oct. 16, 1977.
- At Kansas City (12/26), returned five kickoffs for 98 yards and three punt returns for one yard. Set the Titans' single-season record for kickoff return yards with a 14-yard return in the first quarter. Returned the opening kickoff of the second half 38 yards to the Titans' 39-yard line.

COLLEGE:

- Mariani ended his career as the most prolific receiver and all-purpose player in Montana history. He set school marks in career receiving yards (3,018), receiving touchdowns (29), and career all-purpose yards (5,441). His 164 receptions and 200 career points rank him seventh in the Grizzlies' record book. Mariani also had three of the longest scoring plays in school history in his career: a 98-yard kickoff return, a 94-yard punt return, and an 84-yard reception.
- As a senior (2009), was a unanimous All-Big Sky pick at wide receiver and a second team selection as a return specialist. Led the second-ranked and 14-1 Grizzlies in receiving with 80 catches for 1,479 yards and 13 touchdowns. His 1,479 receiving yards set a single-season record at Montana. Led the conference with seven 100-yard receiving games and in multiple touchdown games receiving (four). Was named a first team All-American by the Associated Press, Walter Camp, and the Sports Network, and he was also selected to the College Sporting News "Fab 50." Returned 32 punts for 507 yards (15.8 avg.) with a touchdown.
- As a junior (2008), started all 16 games and caught 69 receptions for 1,308 yards with a career-best 15 touchdowns. Set a school record with 2,265 all-purpose yards, which is the fifth most in Big Sky Conference history. His 1,308 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns were the second most in a season at Montana. Led the Big Sky in punt returns, averaging 16.22 an attempt, which ranked him fourth in the nation. Was a first team All-Big Sky pick at both wide receiver and as a returner. He was named second team All-American by the Sports Network and an honorable mention pick on the College Sporting News' "Fab 50."
- As a sophomore (2007), saw action in 11 games with three starts and caught 15 passes for 231 yards with one touchdown. Led the Big Sky and was 11th in the FCS in punt returns (13.32-yard avg.). Was an honorable mention All-Big Sky selection as a returner.
- As a freshman (2006), played in all 14 games, mostly on special teams, and had eight tackles in that role. He did not have a reception as a receiver.
- Majored in Business at Montana.

PERSONAL:

- Splits time between Nashville and Havre, Mont.
- Attended Havre High School (Havre, Mont.) and earned 10 letters: three each in football and basketball and four in tennis.
- As a senior, had 48 receptions for 1,237 yards and 16 touchdowns while leading his team to a 12-0 record and the state "A" championship. Was named all-state at wide receiver and at safety as a senior. Also named Great Falls Tribune's "Super State" team at wide receiver.
- As a junior, garnered all-state honors at safety while leading his team to a 10-2 mark. Was named to the Great Falls Tribune's "Super State" team at safety as a junior as well.

- Participated in Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game.

SEN'DERRICK MARKS

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 6'2" • 294 lbs • COLLEGE: AUBURN
ACQUIRED: SECOND ROUND - 2009 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 3/3
HOMETOWN: MOBILE, ALA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 21/3 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 12/3 • 50 tackles, 0 sacks, 6 QBP, 5 TFL, 1 INT, 3 PD, 1 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Sen'Derrick Marks' athletic prowess and ability to defend the run and pass made him worthy of a second-round draft choice in 2009. The 6-foot-2-inch, 294-pound defensive tackle was an important contributor in the interior defensive line rotation in his initial two seasons and figures to fill an even larger role in 2011.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Marks played in 12 games and tallied 50 tackles, six quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss, one interception, three passes defended and one forced fumble.
- In 2009, Marks appeared in nine games as a rookie and posted 23 tackles, a sack, five quarterback pressures and a pass defended.
- He collected his first career sack by dropping Matt Hasselbeck for a seven-yard loss in the 2009 regular season finale against Seattle (1/3/10).

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Marks' athleticism also translates to the hardwood. The 6-foot-2-inch, 294-pounder can dunk a basketball. Former Auburn head coach Tommy Tuberville saw him dunk in high school and offered him a football scholarship on the spot.
- Marks is the oldest of eight children, with the youngest being 12 years old. His siblings' names are Antranetta, Shamira, Ciera, DeAndre, Alexia, Kenneth Davis Jr. and Lakendra Davis. Most of his brothers and sisters have unique names which have no specific meaning to them. There is no specific meaning behind the name Sen'Derrick either and he often goes by the nickname Sen.
- Marks did a lot of community work with kids in college as a result of his rehabilitation services major. In the future, he wants to start a foundation that mentors juveniles delinquents and people with disabilities by providing them with role models and leadership activities.
- Marks has picked up the game of golf during the past three offseasons. Even though he is right-handed and still has a lot to learn about the sport, he models his game after his favorite player Phil Mickelson.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Mobile, Ala., native was selected by the Titans in the second round (62nd overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (12/3): Appeared in 12 games with three starts at defensive tackle and collected 50 tackles and six quarterback pressures. Tied a career-high with seven tackles at Kansas City (12/26). Was inactive for one game with a knee injury (10/10 at Dallas) and three contests with an ankle injury (12/5 vs. Jacksonville, 12/9 vs. Indianapolis, 12/19 vs. Houston).
- Against Pittsburgh (9/19), set then-career high with seven tackles.
  - At N.Y. Giants (9/26), collected four tackles and an interception. Hustled down field and intercepted a pass deflected by Cortland Finnegan in the first quarter.
  - Against Philadelphia (10/24), made his first career NFL start at defensive tackle and tallied a pass defended. Batted down a pass intended for Jeremy Maclin in the fourth quarter.
  - At Kansas City (12/26), tied a career high with seven tackles, including two stops for loss, and added a pass defended and a quarterback pressure.
  - At Indianapolis (1/2), started at defensive tackle and totaled six tackles, a forced fumble and a quarterback pressure. Forced a Dominic Rhodes fumble that was recovered by Michael Griffin late in the fourth quarter.

2009 (9/0): Saw action in nine games at defensive tackle as a rookie and collected 23 tackles, a sack, five quarterback pressures and a pass defended. Played in his first career NFL contest at Jacksonville (10/4/09). Collected his first career NFL sack at Seattle (1/3/10). Led or tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures twice in 2009.

- Against Buffalo (11/15), notched a career-best six tackles and a pass defended in the Titans' 41-17 win. Batted down a pass intended for Derek Fine at the line of scrimmage in the fourth quarter.
- Against St. Louis (12/13), collected four tackles, including a stop for loss and a quarterback pressure in the Titans' commanding 47-7 victory.
- At Seattle (1/3), registered three tackles, including his first career sack and two quarterback pressures in the Titans' season-ending 17-13 victory. Collected his first career sack by dropping Matt Hasselbeck for a seven-yard loss in the third quarter.

COLLEGE:

- Declared for the NFL Draft as a junior after starting 37 of 40 games during his Auburn career and recording 114 tackles with 7.5 sacks, 30 stops for losses and 10 quarterback pressures.
- In 2008, earned second-team All-SEC recognition from the league's coaches and honorable mention from the Associated Press. Started 11 games at right defensive tackle and collected 32 tackles with two sacks for minus seven yards and a pair of quarterback pressures. Ranked second on the team and 10th in the SEC with 10 stops for losses of 34 yards.
- As a sophomore, received the team's Eddie Welch Attitude and Effort Award on defense by the coaching staff. Shifted to right defensive end, starting every game, despite playing most of the schedule with a hernia that required surgery after the season. Finished with a career-high 43 tackles, adding two sacks for minus 15 yards and nine stops for losses of 35 yards. Registered seven quarterback pressures, three passes defended, including an eight-yard interception return, caused and recovered a fumble and also blocked two field goals.
- As a redshirt freshman in 2006, received Freshman All-American first-team honors from Rivals.com and third-team recognition from The Sporting News. Also was named Freshman All-Southeastern Conference by the league's coaches. Took over right defensive tackle duties, starting all 13 games and recording 38 tackles, including 3.5 sacks for minus 13 yards, one pressure and 11 stops for losses of 32 yards. Also caused one fumble, recovered three others and deflected two passes.
- As a freshman, saw action in three games and collected a tackle before he was redshirted.
- Majored in rehabilitation services.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Mobile, Ala.
- Attended Vigor (Prichard, Ala.) High School, where he was a three-year starter playing football for head coach Kerry Stevenson.
- Helped his team reach the first round of the playoffs, as he recorded 81 tackles and 17 sacks as a senior.
- Posted 87 tackles and 11 sacks as a junior, leading the squad to the Class 6A state quarterfinals.
- Also lettered three times in basketball, averaging 15 points a game and 21 rebounds a game.
- List of favorites: (movies) "The Notebook," "88 Minutes" and "Scarface"; (TV shows) "Law and Order SVU" and "Law and Order Criminal Intent"; (actors) Al Pacino and Robert De Niro; (music artists) Rick Ross, Yolanda Adams and Mississippi State choir; (school subject) medical aspects; (car)

F250 Super-duty; (video game) EA Sports 2K, Madden Football, Call of Duty and FIFA 10 for Xbox 360; and (foods) candy yams and cornbread.

• Born Sen'Derrick Dewayne Marks on Feb. 23, 1987 in Mobile, Ala.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 3/1

PRO: Kevin Matthews joined the Titans as a rookie free agent on April 30, 2010. The 6-foot-3-inch, 302-pounder spent the first 14 weeks of his rookie campaign on the team's practice squad before being signed to the team's active roster on Dec. 15, 2010. Matthews appeared in three contests with one start in 2010. He adds depth and versatility to the interior of the Titans' offensive line.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a rookie in 2010, appeared in three games and started the season finale at center. He entered camp as an undrafted free agent and spent the first 14 weeks of the season on the practice squad before being elevated to the active roster on Dec. 15, 2010.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Matthews' family has a storied history in the NFL. His father and current position coach, Bruce, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007 after an illustrious 19-year career with the Houston Oilers and Tennessee Titans. His uncle, Clay Matthews, Jr., was a four-time Pro Bowl linebacker who played 19 seasons with the Cleveland Browns and Atlanta Falcons (1978-96). His cousin, Clay Matthews III, currently plays outside linebacker for the Green Bay Packers. Another cousin, Casey Matthews, was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft.
- Matthews' brother, Jake, played in nine games with six starts at right tackle as a true freshman at Texas A&M in 2010.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Houston, Texas, Matthews was originally signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on April 30, 2010.
- Waived on Sept. 4, 2010 and signed to the Titans' practice squad on Sept. 5, 2010.
- Signed to the Titans' active roster from the team's practice squad on Dec. 15, 2010.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (3/1): Appeared in three games with one start at center. Signed to the Titans' active roster from the team's practice squad on Dec. 15, 2010. Played in his first career NFL game against Houston (12/19/10). Made his first career NFL start at center at Indianapolis (1/2/11). Spent the first 14 weeks of the season on the team's practice squad.

- Against Houston (12/19), made his NFL debut on special teams.
- At Kansas City (12/26), played primarily on special teams, but did enter the game at center in the third quarter when Fernando Velasco exited for a few plays with an injury.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), made his first career NFL start at center and was a member of an offensive front that allowed just one sack on 39 pass attempts, while Kerry Collins amassed 300 yards passing.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 34 career games with 25 starts during his four-year stay at Texas A&M. Started the final 25 games at center to end his career.
- As a senior (2009), named honorable mention All-Big 12 selection by the league's head coaches. Was part of a revamped offensive front that helped the team to an average of 184.2 rushing yards per game and a total output of 465.8 yards per contest.
- Member of the 2009 "Watch List" for the Rimington Trophy, which is given annually to the nation's top collegiate center.

- As a junior (2008), started all 12 games at center while providing valuable leadership to the young unit and helping clear holes for an offense that averaged 340.9 yards of total offense per game.
- As a sophomore (2007), served as a reliable backup at center and saw action in five games.
- As a redshirt freshman (2006), saw action in four games as backup at center after redshirting in 2005.
- Majored in university studies with a concentration in business and minors in sport management and communications at Texas A&M.

2010 STATS

GP/GS: 12/11 • 119 tackles, 1.0 sacks, 10.5 TFL, 1 INT, 1 PD, 1 FF, 1 FR

PRO: The Titans acquired former Miami Hurricanes linebacker Colin McCarthy in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft to compete for an immediate role on the defense and also provide an impact on special teams. The intelligent, tough linebacker is a sound tackler and gifted leader. He was elected a team captain as a senior.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- McCarthy played in 49 games during his career at Miami (2006-10), tied for the sixth-most in school history and only three behind Brandon Meriweather's all-time mark.
- His 35 starts and 308 career tackles were the most by a Miami linebacker since Jonathan Vilma (37, 371).
- McCarthy battled through three surgeries on his left shoulder in college, but after getting the shoulder back to full strength, he played 25 games in his final two seasons.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- McCarthy survived a frightening car accident in 2007. He was asleep as a passenger in a car driven by a teammate when the teammate fell asleep. The car flipped six times, but McCarthy left the scene without serious injury. Two teammates—the driver and another passenger—suffered injuries that ended their football seasons.
- McCarthy grew up outside of Philadelphia and then moved to Tampa prior to high school.
- McCarthy was given jersey No. 44 when he got to Miami, the same number that was worn by another Hurricanes linebacker to whom McCarthy was often compared, Dan Morgan.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Philadelphia, Pa., native was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (109th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- Started 35 total games for the Hurricanes, including 20 at strong-side linebacker, four at weak-side linebacker and 11 at middle linebacker. He was moved to middle linebacker just prior to his senior season. He played in 49 games in his career (2006-10), which tied for the sixth-most in school history and only three less than all-time leader Brandon Meriweather (2002-06). Finished his career with 308 tackles, 34 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks, three interceptions, six passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He was a two-time All-ACC honoree.

- AS A SENIOR (2010), played in 12 games with 11 starts. Led the team and ranked third in ACC with 119 tackles and also led the team with four quarterback hurries. Ranked fourth with 10.5 tackles for loss. Earned honorable mention All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association.
  - At Virginia (10/30), recorded a career-high 18 tackles and notched his third career interception with a 13-yard return.
  - At Clemson (10/2), totaled six tackles and recovered a fumble.

- AS A JUNIOR (2009), played in all 13 games with 10 starts and ranked second on UM's defense with 95 total tackles. Also ranked second among Hurricane defenders with 10.5 tackles for loss. Named second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association. Also named third-team All-ACC by Phil Steele.
  - Against Clemson (10/24), recorded 11 stops, a forced fumble and a season-high 2.5 tackles for loss.
  - At Central Florida (10/17), notched his second career interception in win.

- AS A JUNIOR (2008), started the first four games of the season before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury. Tallied 21 tackles before being awarded a medical hardship.

- AS A SOPHOMORE (2007), played in 11 games with 10 starts at strongside linebacker and ranked fifth on the team with 74 tackles. Led the team with 12 tackles for loss and added two sacks, three quarterback pressures, one interception, one fumble recovery for a touchdown, one forced fumble and five passes defended.
  - Against Marshall (9/1), made the first start of his career at strongside linebacker and posted nine tackles and a sack.
  - Against Texas A&M (9/20), returned the first interception of his career 30 yards.
  - At Florida State (10/20), recovered a fumble and scored a touchdown on a 27-yard return with 1:04 remaining to clinch a 37-29 come-from-behind victory.

- AS A FRESHMAN (2006), Played in nine games primarily on special teams and had the team's only blocked punt of the season. Served as the team's backup at strongside linebacker most of the year and saw action on defense in two games. Tied for third on the team with six tackles on special teams.
  - Against North Carolina (10/7), blocked a punt that led to a touchdown.
  - Graduated in December 2010 with a degree in business management and a minor in sports administration.

JASON MCCOURTY

CORNERBACK • 6'0" • 188 lbs • COLLEGE: RUTGERS
ACQUIRED: 6TH ROUND - 2009 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 3/3
HOMETOWN: NYACK, N.Y.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 27/9 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 12/6 • 45 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 1 TFL, 2 INT, 13 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR, 4 SpT

PRO: Jason McCourty is a fast, athletic cornerback that has enjoyed two strong seasons since the Titans used a sixth-round draft pick on him in 2009. The former Rutgers standout grabbed a starting cornerback spot out of training camp in 2010 before suffering an injury early in the season and missing four games. McCourty returned to the lineup and started three of the team's final four games and finished his second pro campaign with two interceptions and 13 passes defended.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, McCourty appeared in 12 games with six starts at cornerback and tied for third on the squad with two interceptions. He also finished third on the team with 13 passes defended.
- McCourty snared his first career NFL interception on a tipped pass from Eli Manning in the endzone at N.Y. Giants (9/26/10).
- As a rookie in 2009, McCourty was thrust into the starting lineup for three consecutive games (at Jacksonville, vs. Indianapolis, at New England) in the first half of the season after the Titans secondary suffered multiple injuries. He finished third on the team with 12 special teams tackles as a rookie.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- McCourty played his last three seasons at Rutgers with his identical twin brother, Devin. The duo held down the starting cornerback spots for Scarlet Knights together for two years. Devin, who redshirted his first season at Rutgers, was a first-round draft pick by the New England Patriots in 2010. They also have an older brother, Larry.
- McCourty entered the NFL in 2009 with a familiar face accompanying him, Titans first-round pick and former Rutgers star wide receiver Kenny Britt.
- McCourty excelled off the field at Rutgers as he was a semifinalist for the prestigious Vincent dePaul Draddy Trophy given to the college football player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance. He was also named an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first-team member.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Nyack, N.Y., native was selected by the Titans in the sixth round (203rd overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (12/6): Appeared in 12 games with six starts at cornerback and tied for third on the squad with two interceptions. Finished third on the team with 13 passes defended. Led or tied for the team lead in passes defended six times in 2010 (vs. OAK, vs. PIT, at SD, at HST, at KC, at IND). Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles once in 2010 (at KC). Collected his first career interception at N.Y. Giants (9/26/10). Was inactive for four games because of an injury.
- Against Oakland (9/12), started at cornerback and posted eight tackles and two passes defended. Knocked down a pass intended for Darrius Heyward-Bey in the third quarter.
  - At N.Y. Giants (9/26), started at cornerback before leaving the game in the second quarter with an injury. Collected four tackles and his first career interception. Thwarted a Giants' scoring chance by intercepting an Eli Manning pass in the end zone after the ball was batted up in the air at the goal line by Will Witherspoon in the first quarter.
  - At San Diego (10/31), returned to the field in the nickel package and notched two tackles and an interception. Notched a solo tackle on special teams coverage units. Intercepted a pass intended for Seyi Ajirootutu late in the second quarter. Knocked down a pass intended for Randy McMichael in the third quarter.

- At Kansas City (12/26), played in a reserve role at cornerback in nickel situations and recorded two passes defended. Broke up a deep pass intended for Chris Chambers on third-and-eight in the second quarter. Defended a short pass intended for Chambers late in the second quarter. Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles on coverage units.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), started at cornerback as the team opened the game in a nickel package and totaled five tackles and a team-best three passes defended. Broke up a third-and-seven pass intended for Pierre Garcon in the first quarter. Defended a deep pass intended for Garcon in the second stanza. Knocked down a pass intended for Garcon in the fourth quarter.

- 2009 (15/3): Ranked second among Titans rookies with 30 tackles and finished third on the team with 12 stops on special teams. Also totaled one tackle for loss and a forced fumble. Started in three contests as the Titans secondary struggled with injuries through September and October. Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles three times (at NYJ, at SF, vs. MIA).
- At N.Y. Jets (9/27), saw limited action at cornerback and collected a solo tackle. Also returned three kickoffs for 72 yards (24.0 avg.) and tied for the team lead with three special teams tackles.
  - At Jacksonville (10/4), started his first career NFL contest at cornerback and posted six tackles.
  - At Indianapolis (10/11), started at cornerback and posted season-high 11 tackles.
  - At New England (10/18), started at cornerback and posted seven tackles.
  - Against St. Louis (12/13), made key special teams play in first quarter, racing down the field to bat back Brett Kern's 35-yard punt to allow the ball to be downed at the Rams' three-yard line.
  - Against San Diego (12/25), saw significant action at cornerback in the second half after Nick Harper left the game with an injury. Notched five tackles, including a stop for loss and a forced fumble.

COLLEGE:

- In a four-year career at Rutgers, totaled 150 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, 20 passes defended, two fumble recoveries and a 25.8-yard average on 17 kickoff returns. Played in 47 games with 33 starts.
- As a senior (2008), was named a captain and started all 13 games at cornerback. Totaled 52 tackles, a team-best two interceptions, six passes defended and a fumble recovery. Also assumed kickoff return duties and was second in the Big East with a 26.2 yards per return average in conference games.
- As a junior (2007), totaled 44 tackles, including three tackles for loss and a team-best 12 passes defended in his second full year as the starter at cornerback. Tabbed a preseason second-team All-Big East selection by Lindy's and third-team pick by Athlon.
- As a sophomore (2006), earned a starting corner spot in preseason and played in 12 games. Finished eighth on the team with 45 tackles and posted four tackles for loss, two passes defended and a fumble recovery. Started seven games, including the last six of the season.
- As a true freshman (2005), played in nine games, including the Insight Bowl, and appeared primarily on special teams. Posted nine tackles, including six solo stops.
- Majored in information technology at Rutgers.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Nanuet, N.Y.
- Attended St. Joseph's (Montvale, N.J.) High School and earned All-State recognition from the Newark Star-Ledger and the Associated Press and All-League honors as a senior.

- Named an All-Parochial pick as both a junior and senior. Named to MSG High School Heisman Team. Helped New York team to victory in the 2005 Governor's Bowl.

HOMETOWN: POWDER SPRINGS, GA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 28/12 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 12/7 • 60 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 1 QBP, 3 TFL, 0 INT, 2 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR, 3 SpT

PRO: Gerald McRath is a smart, athletic linebacker that made an immediate impact in his first two seasons, appearing in 28 total games with 12 starts at outside linebacker. In his brief NFL career, he has gained a reputation as a sound tackler with great leadership qualities.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, McRath played in 12 games (seven starts) and posted totals of 60 tackles and 1.5 sacks.
- Appeared in all 16 games with five starts at outside linebacker as a rookie in 2009 and posted 38 tackles, an interception, a pass defended and nine special teams stops.
- Collected his first career NFL interception by picking off a Matt Hasselbeck pass in the regular season finale against Seattle (1/3/10).
- At the 2009 NFL Scouting Combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.49 seconds, the fastest time among all linebackers.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- McRath received the key to the city of Hattiesburg during a ceremony in July 2011. He has been a community leader and volunteer throughout the years, including his stay at Southern Miss.
- Although he attended Southern Miss for five years, McRath had one year of NCAA eligibility remaining when he declared for the NFL Draft in 2009. After redshirting as a true freshman, he suffered a season-ending injury in the second game of the 2006 season and was granted a medical redshirt. Having already received his degree in sports administration, he decided to go to the NFL after the 2008 season.
- McRath considers himself a cartoon aficionado. Among many favorites, he's particularly a fan of SpongeBob SquarePants.
- McRath is no stranger to hard work. He was a cashier at a Winn-Dixie supermarket from ninth to 11th grade, spent two summers in college unloading trucks at Lowe's and spent another summer working at a car auction in Hattiesburg.
- McRath loves spending time in the community and mentoring kids. He took part in Titans Caravan XIII and visited fans in Knoxville, LaFollette, Oakridge, Crossville, Cookeville and Mt. Juliet.

DERRICK MORGAN

DEFENSIVE END • 6'3" • 278 lbs • COLLEGE: GEORGIA TECH
 ACQUIRED: 1ST ROUND - 2010 • NFL EXP.: 2/2
 HOMETOWN: COATESVILLE, PA.
 GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 4/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 4/0 • 10 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 1 QBP, 0 INT, 1 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Derrick Morgan had just started to get into a rhythm as a rookie in 2010 when he suffered a season-ending knee injury in the team's fourth game. He tirelessly rehabbed throughout the offseason and is ready to show the promise that made him the Titans' 2010 first round draft choice. The former Georgia Tech defensive end is an explosive defender equally adept at rushing the passer and stopping the run. Morgan has a reputation as a gritty player with a non-stop motor, and he has the ability to play on either side of the defensive line.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a rookie in 2010, saw action in four games and amassed 10 tackles and 1.5 sacks before being placed on season-ending injured reserve.
- In 2009, Morgan's junior year, he won Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors after leading the ACC with 12.5 sacks and finishing second in the conference with 18.5 tackles for loss.
- Despite playing only three seasons, Morgan's 19.5 career sacks at Georgia Tech ranked seventh in school history.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Morgan credits his mother, Pamela Wooden, as his primary role model in life. He also says that she should be credited with his football success, since, even as a single parent, she managed to take him to every practice and every game during his youth.
- Even before he was drafted by the Titans, Morgan had a strong connection to former Titans defensive line coach Jim Washburn. Morgan was recruited to Georgia Tech by Joe D'Alessandris, who formed a close bond with Washburn when they coached together at Livingston University (now West Alabama) in 1979. The two friends talked extensively about Morgan prior to the draft. D'Alessandris now coaches the offensive line for the Buffalo Bills.
- Morgan experienced the 2010 NFL Draft as one of the players invited by the league to Radio City Music Hall. He was surrounded by his mother, father, grandparents and other loved ones when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced his name with the 16th overall pick.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Coatesville, Pa., native was selected by the Titans in the first round (16th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (4/0): Appeared in four games as a reserve defensive end and collected 10 tackles and 1.5 sacks. Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 5, 2010 with a knee injury. Collected his first career sack in his first career game against Oakland (9/12/10). Tied for the team lead in sacks once in 2010 (vs. OAK).

- Against Oakland (9/12), played in a reserve role at defensive end in his first NFL contest and posted a sack and a pass defended. Registered his first career sack by dropping Jason Campbell for an eight-yard loss in the first quarter. Batted down a pass intended for Darren McFadden in the fourth quarter.
- Against Pittsburgh (9/19), played in a reserve role at defensive end and collected five tackles, including a half sack. Halted a Steelers' drive by combining with Tony Brown to sack Charlie Batch for a five-yard loss on third-and-15 in the third quarter.
- Against Denver (10/3), played in a reserve role at defensive end before leaving the game in the second quarter with an injury.

COLLEGE:

- In three seasons at Georgia Tech, Morgan totaled 115 tackles, 19.5

sacks, 29.5 tackles for loss, five passes defended, six fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles in 39 games. He played in 12 games as a reserve defensive end during his freshman season and then started all 27 of the team's games during his sophomore and junior seasons at left defensive end. His 19.5 sacks ranked seventh in Georgia Tech history.

- As a junior (2009), named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year after leading the conference (eighth in nation) with 12.5 sacks, which tied for fourth on school's single-season record list. During his team's ACC Championship season, his career-best 55 tackles ranked fifth on the squad. With 18.5 tackles for losses, he ranked second in the ACC and also tied for seventh on Tech's annual record chart. He added one pass defended, two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles in 14 games. Earned first-team All-American honors from The NFL Draft Report, Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association, and added second-team honors from Walter Camp, Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News.
- As a sophomore (2008), started all 13 games and ranked second on the team (eighth in ACC) with seven sacks. Also led the team's defensive linemen with 51 tackles and added 9.5 tackles for loss, three passes defended, four fumble recoveries (tied for second in nation) and one blocked field goal.
- As a freshman (2007), saw action in 12 of 13 games as a reserve and registered nine tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and one pass defended.
- Enrolled in January 2007 and participated in spring practice.
- Majored in business management.

PERSONAL:

- Splits time between Nashville and Coatesville, Pa.
- Listed by Rivals.com and SuperPrep as the first-overall prospect in Pennsylvania when he was coming out of Coatesville (Pa.) High School. He earned first-team All-State and league Defensive Player of the Year honors after collecting seven sacks, six tackles for loss and 47 tackles as a senior defensive end. He also recorded 523 yards and eight touchdowns as a running back.
- Member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity.
- Follow Morgan on Twitter at @dmorg91.
- List of favorites: (movie) "Boyz n the Hood"; (TV show) "The Fresh Prince of Bel Air"; (actor) Will Smith; (music artist) The Notorious B.I.G.; (school subject) entrepreneurship; (video game) Call of Duty; (food) pizza; (sports hero) Jerry Rice; and (sports team as a child) San Francisco 49ers.
- Born Derrick Lee Morgan on Jan. 6, 1989 in Lancaster, Pa.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 9/0 • 3 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR, 10 SpT

PRO: Ryan Mouton is a quick cornerback that possesses excellent leaping ability and above average strength. He has the talent to challenge pass catchers on the outside, as well as the technique and speed necessary to defend receivers in the slot. Mouton provides versatility in the defensive backfield in 2011.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, saw action in nine games and ranked fourth on the team with 10 special teams stops.
- Appeared in 14 games with two starts at cornerback as a rookie and registered 17 tackles, including a tackle for loss, and nine special teams stops.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- In June 2010, Mouton teamed with 49ers center Eric Heitman to put on the first annual Katy (Texas) Athletic Booster Golf Scramble. Proceeds from the event went to support facilities and equipment for their former high school.
- Mouton got acclimated to Hawaiian island life by taking Samoan classes while in school.
- Mouton is a good friend of former Hawaii and current Miami Dolphins wide receiver Davone Bess. They were roommates during Mouton's junior season at Hawaii.
- Mouton's family has strong ties to the ministry: his grandfather, Roland, Sr., his father, Ronald, and his father's twin brother, Roland, Jr., all are local pastors. Mouton has an interest in following in their footsteps after his playing career.
- While in college, Mouton worked at Hawaii Speed and Quickness, a local strength and training outfit that works with young athletes.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Houston, Texas, native was selected by the Titans in the third round (94th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (9/0): Appeared in nine games and finished fourth on the team with 10 special teams tackles. Collected three tackles in limited defensive play. Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles three times in 2010 (vs. OAK, vs. DEN, vs. WAS). Was inactive for four games. Was placed on injured reserve with a groin injury on Dec. 17, 2010.
- Against Oakland (9/12), played in a reserve role primarily on special teams and tied for the team lead with two solo tackles. Caused a fumble by Yamon Figurs on the opening kickoff but the loose ball was recovered by the Raiders.
  - Against Denver (10/3), saw limited action on defense as the dime back and notched a tackle. Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles.
  - At Dallas (10/10), saw limited action as the dime back. Notched two special teams tackle on coverage units. Stuffed Dez Bryant for a one-yard loss on a punt return in the second quarter.
  - Against Washington (11/21), saw limited action as the dime back and recorded two solo tackles. Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles on coverage units.

2009 (14/2): In his rookie season, appeared in 14 games with two starts and registered 17 tackles, including a tackle for loss. Posted nine special teams tackles on coverage units and returned six punts for 37 yards and one kickoff for 14 yards. Started his first career game as the nickel back at Jacksonville (10/4). Tied for the team lead in special teams tackles twice in 2009 (at HST, vs. MIA). Was inactive for the regular season opener at Pittsburgh and the regular season finale at Seattle.

- Against Houston (9/20), saw action in his first NFL game and returned four punts for 25 yards.
- At Jacksonville (10/4), made his first career NFL start as the nickel back and posted six tackles, including a stop for a loss. Stuffed Mike Thomas for a three-yard loss on a rush off right end in the third quarter. Registered a special teams tackle on coverage units.
- Against New England (10/18), started at cornerback and posted eight tackles.
- At Houston (11/23), tied for the team lead with three special teams tackles in the Titans' 20-17 Monday Night Football victory.

COLLEGE:

- As a senior (2008), named to All-WAC first team as a cornerback. Started all 13 games - eight at cornerback, three at free safety and two as a wide receiver. Notched 43 tackles, including six tackles for loss, an interception and eight pass breakups. Totaled eight receptions for 71 yards as a receiver. Also excelled as a kickoff returner with 24 returns for 514 yards and a touchdown.
- As a junior (2007), appeared in 11 games as backup cornerback and first-string nickel back. Amassed 26 total tackles, including three tackles for loss, two interceptions and seven pass breakups. Also saw time at kickoff returner and averaged 29.6 yards on 14 kickoffs, which ranked fifth nationally. Returned a kickoff 90 yards for a score against Charleston Southern.
- As a sophomore (2006), attended Blinn College in Brenham, Texas and was named a first-team NJCAA All-American. Was voted team's most outstanding defensive player and helped Blinn to a perfect 12-0 record and the JC Gridwire 2006 National Championship by recording five interceptions and returning two of those for touchdowns. Also returned two kickoffs for touchdowns.
- As a freshman (2005), played in 10 games with two starts during his initial season at Blinn Junior College and registered four interceptions.
- Majored in sociology at Hawaii.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Houston, Texas.
- Attended Katy High School in Texas and led the team to the Texas 5A Division II championship. Starred on both sides of the ball as a wide receiver and cornerback in Katy's championship season and was an all-area selection, all-state selection and Texas Top 100 pick as a senior.
- Also lettered in track and field, running the 100-meter dash.

MIKE OTTO

TACKLE • 6'5" • 308 lbs • COLLEGE: PURDUE
ACQUIRED: 7TH ROUND - 2007 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 4/4
HOMETOWN: KOKOMO, IND.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 26/1 (PLAYOFFS: 1/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 11/1

PRO: Mike Otto brings depth and durability to a veteran group of offensive linemen. Labeled by Titans coaches as a versatile lineman that can play tackle or guard, the former seventh round pick will contend for the primary backup tackle position again in 2011.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Otto's decision to attend Purdue and play football was heavily supported because of his family's deep roots at the university. His father, Ken, played basketball at Purdue from 1971 to 1973, and his mother, Judy; sister, Jennifer; brother, Brian; two uncles; and three aunts also are Purdue graduates.
- Otto's most interesting job in high school was working as a groundskeeper for a cemetery. Looking for an opportunity to make money as a teenager, Otto didn't mind the strange location. His duties consisted of mowing the grass, attending to the flowers and making sure the tombstones stayed upright.
- Otto's great appreciation for blues and rock music has inspired him to one day open up a blues and rock bar where people can come and listen to live music.
- Otto enjoys traveling around the world during the offseason. In March 2010, he spent a week golfing in Ireland. In 2008, he visited Taiwan for a week with his brother-in-law to learn the culture and experience the country.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Kokomo, Ind., Otto was selected by the Titans in the seventh round (223rd overall) in the 2007 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

JAVON RINGER

RUNNING BACK • 5'9" • 207 lbs • COLLEGE: MICHIGAN STATE
ACQUIRED: 5TH ROUND - 2009 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 3/3
HOMETOWN: DAYTON, OHIO
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 22/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/0 • 51 rushes for 239 yds, 2 TDs • 7 receptions for 44 yards, 0 TDs

PRO: In Javon Ringer's third NFL season, the compact, powerful runner is again positioned to serve as the primary back-up to Pro Bowl starter Chris Johnson. Ringer joined the Titans in 2009 as a fifth-round draft choice after proving himself at the highest level of collegiate competition. At Michigan State, he spent four years solidifying his status as one of the top offensive players in Spartans history, a running back with workhorse pedigree as well as big-play capabilities.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In his first two NFL seasons (2009-10), Ringer played in 22 games and totaled 287 yards on 59 rushing attempts (4.9 avg.).
- At the 2009 NFL Scouting Combine, just five weeks after knee surgery, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.56 seconds, recorded a 34-inch vertical jump and bench pressed 225 pounds 23 times.
- Ringer is Michigan State's second all-time leading rusher (Lorenzo White) with 4,398 yards.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Ringer is the youngest of nine children in his family.
- His upbringing provided him with two great examples of faith. His father, Eugene, is a pastor at Faith Temple Pentecostal Church of God in Dayton, Ohio, and his mother, Darlene, is both a minister at the church and an accountant.
- Ringer became the second Michigan State player to lead the Spartans in rushing for four consecutive seasons. The only other player to do so was Lorenzo White, a former first-round draft choice of the Houston Oilers, who ranks third in Oilers/Titans history in rushing yards.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Dayton, Ohio, native was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (173rd overall) the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (16/0): Appeared in all 16 games as a reserve running back and carried the ball 51 times for 239 yards with two touchdowns. Led the team in rushing yards once (at HST).
- Against Oakland (9/12), carried the ball five times for 33 yards and a touchdown. Scored his first career touchdown on a 15-yard run to give the Titans a 17-3 lead in the second quarter. Sealed the game with a 12-yard run on third-and-six late in the fourth quarter.
  - At N.Y. Giants (9/26), carried the ball six times for 30 yards. Kept a Titans' scoring drive alive with a 17-yard run on third-and-seven in the fourth quarter.
  - Against Denver (10/3), carried the ball twice for 50 yards. Registered a career-best 54-yard run off left end in the second quarter.
  - At Dallas (10/10), hauled in his first career NFL reception for nine yards.
  - At Jacksonville (10/18), played in a reserve role at running back and tallied a career-high 10 carries for 42 yards.
  - At Houston (11/28), played in a reserve role at running back and led the team with 27 rushing yards on four carries. Tallied a 17-yard rush off left guard late in the fourth quarter.
  - Against Indianapolis (12/9), carried the ball twice for 10 yards and caught one pass for eight yards. Extended the Titans' third touchdown drive with a nine-yard run on a draw on third-and-four in the final stanza.
  - Against Houston (12/19), carried the ball four times for 19 yards and a touchdown. Extended the Titans lead to 31-10 with a seven-yard touchdown off left guard late in the third quarter.

2009 (6/0): In six games, carried the ball eight times for 48 yards and registered a special teams tackle on coverage units. Also returned nine kickoffs for 181 yards. Was inactive in nine games and did not play in one contest.

- At Pittsburgh (9/10), returned three kickoffs for 59 yards in season opener and professional debut. Also collected a special teams stop on coverage units.
- Against Houston (9/20), returned six kickoffs for 122 yards.
- At New England (10/18), carried the ball seven times for 47 yards, including a 32-yard scamper in fourth quarter.

COLLEGE:

- In 45 career games (26 starts) at Michigan State, he became the school's second all-time leading rusher and the Big Ten Conference's 10th all-time leading rusher with 4,398 yards, trailing only Lorenzo White (4,887) in MSU history. Reached the 100-yard rushing mark 19 times in his career, a total surpassed only by White (23) in school annals. Ringer's 843 carries also ranked second behind White (1,082), and his 34 rushing touchdowns ranked fourth in school history. With an additional 719 receiving yards and 309 kickoff return yards, he became the school's career leader with 5,426 career all-purpose yards.
- As a senior (2008), was Doak Walker Award finalist, first-team Associated Press All-American, Walter Camp All-American, second-team Sporting News All-American, consensus All-Big Ten selection and recipient of Governor's Award (team MVP). Ranked fourth in NCAA FBS with 1,637 rushing yards (125.9 per game) and led nation in scoring (10.15 points per game), rushing touchdowns (22) and rushing attempts (390). Led Big Ten and ranked 15th in country with 2,051 all-purpose yards (157.8 per game), including 28 receptions for 190 yards (6.8 avg.). Ran for over 100 yards in seven contests, including pair of 200-yard games.
- Against Eastern Michigan (9/6), scored career-high five rushing touchdowns, representing second-best single-game total in school history.
- Against Florida Atlantic (9/13), rushed for career-high 282 yards, posting fourth-highest single-game rushing total in school history. All-purpose yardage total of 309 yards was second most in school history.
- As a junior (2007), named second-team All-Big Ten Conference by league's coaches and media, adding team MVP honors. Ranked fourth among Big Ten rushers with 1,447 yards on 245 attempts (5.9 avg), including six touchdown carries. Was second on squad with 35 receptions for 295 yards (8.4 avg). Ranked fifth in league while leading Spartans with 1,742 all-purpose yards (134.0 per game). Had seven 100-yard rushing games.
- As a sophomore (2006), played eight games (five starts) and led team with 497 rushing yards on 86 carries (5.8 avg.). Totaled 678 all-purpose yards. Earned Biggie Munn Award as team's Most Inspirational Player.
- As a freshman (2005), earned Freshman All-America honorable mention from The Sporting News, adding Freshman All-Big Ten first-team honors. In 11 games (no starts), led team with 122 carries for 817 yards (6.7 avg.) and five touchdowns, second-best season total by Spartans freshman. Registered 955 all-purpose yards, including 138 receiving yards.
- Majored in sociology.

PERSONAL:

- Splits time between Nashville and Dayton, Ohio.
- At Chaminade-Julienne (Dayton, Ohio) High School, was three-time All-Ohio selection and amassed 6,184 yards and 81 touchdowns in 33 games. Was Super Prep All-American selection as senior and rated among nation's top running backs by Rivals.com (18th), Super Prep (29th) and College Football News (31st). Named to All-Midwest team by Super Prep, Prep Football Report and Prep Star.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 0/0 • 0 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Safety Myron Rolle, a 2010 sixth-round draft choice known for his aggressive play on the field and his academic achievement off the field, spent his entire rookie campaign on the Titans' practice squad. He entered the NFL after taking a year to study at Oxford as a Rhodes Scholar recipient. Rolle spent the previous three years (2006-2008) as a starting safety at Florida State.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- After sitting out the 2009 college football season to study at Oxford, Rolle produced impressive performances at the 2010 Senior Bowl and the 2010 Scouting Combine. At the latter, he ran a 4.59-second 40-yard dash and bench pressed 225 pounds 21 times.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- In July 2011, Rolle joined former President Bill Clinton on a trip to the Congo to participate in a Clinton Global Initiative Lead program to aid displaced refugees. The two men struck up a friendship when Rolle was honored as a Rhodes Scholar.
- On Nov. 22, 2008, Rolle missed his only start in his final 36 games at Florida State. While his team was preparing to kick off against the Maryland Terrapins in College Park, Md., Rolle was in Birmingham, Ala., interviewing for and ultimately earning a Rhodes Scholarship. He then flew to Maryland on a private jet in time to arrive in the second quarter of the Seminoles' eventual 37-3 victory.
- Needing only five semesters to obtain his pre-med undergraduate degree from Florida State, Rolle received his master's of science from Oxford in medical anthropology in June 2010. Rolle plans to become a neurosurgeon following a long football career.
- Rolle was inspired by another athlete to pursue a Rhodes Scholarship: his good friend and former Seminole track and field star Garrett Johnson.
- The Myron Rolle Foundation (www.myronrolle.com), which was launched in 2009, is "dedicated to the support of health, wellness, educational and other charitable initiatives throughout the world that benefit children and families in need." Currently, its three initiatives are: a camp for foster children in Florida called the Myron Rolle Wellness and Leadership Academy, a camp for foster children in Florida; the Our Way to Health Program, which provides fitness training, health education and diabetes awareness to American Indian children; and The Myron L. Rolle Medical Clinic and Sports Complex, a future facility that will provide free services to Exuma, Bahamas.
- In addition to being a football star, Rhodes Scholar, philanthropist and future neurosurgeon, Rolle also considers himself a Frank Sinatra impressionist. Rolle, who played the lead role in his high school's production of "Fiddler on the Roof," lists "Summer Wind" as his favorite Sinatra tune.
- One of Rolle's mentors is Samari Rolle, who played cornerback for the Titans from 1998-2004 and whose family likewise descends from Exuma.
- The son of Whitney and Beverly Rolle, Myron is the youngest of five sons: Marchant, Marvis, Mordecai, McKinley and Myron.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Galloway, N.J., native was selected by the Titans in the sixth round (207th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.
- Waived by the Titans on Sept. 4, 2011 and signed to the team's practice squad the following day.
- Re-signed by the Titans on Jan. 4, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (0/0): Spent the entire season on the Titans' practice squad.

COLLEGE:

- In three seasons at Florida State (2006-08), Rolle played in 38 games with 35 starts at strong safety. He was among the team's top four tacklers every season and led the secondary in tackles twice (2006 and 2008). His career totals included 206 tackles, one sack, 7.5 tackles for loss, one interception, 13 passes defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.
- As a junior (2008), started 12 of 13 games at strong safety and finished third on the team with 62 total tackles and added five passes defended. Lott Trophy finalist was named third-team All-American by Associated Press, second-team All-ACC by league coaches and second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American.
- As a freshman (2006), played in 12 of Florida State's 13 games, including starts in the final 10 contests. Finished third on the team with 77 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss. Was ACC's leading tackler among freshman with a 6.4 tackles-per-game average. Named first-team Freshman All-American by The Sporting News, American Football Coaches Association and College Football News. ## MICHAEL ROOS

TACKLE • 6'7" • 315 lbs • COLLEGE: EASTERN WASHINGTON
ACQUIRED: 2ND ROUND - 2005 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 7/7
HOMETOWN: VANCOUVER, WASH.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 96/96 (PLAYOFFS: 2/2)

2010 QUICK STATS

2008

PRO: Although he only began playing on the offensive line as a sophomore in college, Michael Roos has become one of the NFL's top tackles and one of the franchise's building blocks. Roos' size (6-7, 315 pounds), athleticism and intelligence have made him one of the premier left tackles in the league. He also has been among the most durable of all current linemen, registering starts in every game in his first six seasons—15 games at right tackle and 81 contests at left tackle.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- At the conclusion of the 2010 campaign, Roos' 96-game active starting streak ranked second in the NFL among all offensive tackles, trailing only Detroit's Jeff Backus (160).
- Roos was the only member of the 2005 NFL Draft class to start all 96 regular season games from 2005 through 2010.
- In 2009, was a member of an offensive line that blocked for the NFL's second-best rushing attack (162.0 yards per game) and opened holes for Chris Johnson who became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 2,000 yards. Also, part of an offensive front that allowed just 16 sacks, the second fewest in the NFL.
- In 2008, the Eastern Washington product was selected to his first career Pro Bowl and was named first-team Associated Press All-Pro after helping the offensive line allow an NFL-low 12 sacks.
- Roos began playing football as a high school senior and did not play on the offensive line until his sophomore year in college. He gained notoriety among NFL scouts with his impressive showing at the 2005 Senior Bowl, dominating Division I-A players at both left and right tackle spots. At the NFL Combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 5.3 seconds, bench pressed 225 pounds 19 times and displayed a 29-inch vertical leap.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- In 2010, Roos pledged $500,000 toward the Eastern Washington University's "Red Turf" project at Woodward Field in Cheney, Wash. The red artificial field was the first of its kind, not just in NCAA Division I football, but in the entire country. In the first year the turf was installed, Eastern Washington won the FCS Championship.
- In June 2010, Roos launched his annual Michael Roos Foundation Fish and Chip event at the Resort in Couer d' Alene, Idaho. The three-day event features a night cruise and live auction, bass fishing tournament and golf tournament. The event has been attended by several teammates and other notable guests, including Ahmard Hall, Mike Otto, Jake Scott, David Stewart, Vince Young and NFL legend Dick Butkus.
- Roos became just the second Eastern Washington player in school history to have his jersey number permanently retired with a ceremony on Oct. 24, 2009.
- Roos spent the first 10 years of his life in the former Soviet Republic of Estonia, where his family lived in poverty despite his mother, Mae Bates, teaching violin during the day and working nights at a hotel desk. In 1992, one year after the collapse of the Soviet Union, his mother immigrated with him, his brother and his sister to Vancouver, Wash., where they lived with an aunt. In July 2007, Roos, along with his wife, Katherine, traveled back to Estonia for the first time since leaving the country. Their trip to his native land was part of a larger vacation that took them through England, Scotland and Germany.
- During the 2009 offseason, Roos and Katherine continued to travel the world with a week-long trip to Ireland that included playing golf and a two-week European excursion that included stops in Prague, Vienna, Venice, Monaco, Paris and Munich. In 2008, the couple spent a week in Italy with stops in Milan and Venice, as well as a four-day venture to Iceland and a four-day trip to the Bahamas.

- He earned a scholarship to Eastern Washington after playing one season at tight end in high school. He redshirted as a tight end on the football team and also redshirted on the basketball team for one season before focusing exclusively on football. He spent a year playing on the defensive line before switching to offensive tackle, where he started at left tackle every game for the next three seasons, a total of 35 consecutive contests.
- His mother now teaches English as a second language at an Atlanta, Ga., elementary school.
- Roos' wife Katherine opened a coffee house, Drinkhaus, in Nashville's Germantown area in August 2008.
- Roos is believed to be the first Estonian to play in the NFL.
- One of Roos' college coaches was former Titans offensive lineman Tom Ackerman. In scouting Roos, the team – and particularly then-offensive line coach Mike Munchak – was able to speak frankly with Ackerman and gain further insight regarding the rookie's personality and abilities.
- He started the Michael Roos Foundation during his second year in the NFL. The foundation has hosted a fundraiser during the last three off-seasons, a sports auction and dinner that raised over $80,000 for children's charities in Washington.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Estonia, Roos was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 13/0 • 0 tackles, 0 sacks, 0 QBP, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 0 FR, 5 SPt

PRO: Nick Schommer, a seventh-round draft choice in 2009, was a 13-game contributor in 2010 after spending his entire rookie season on the practice squad. Entering his third season, the former North Dakota State standout has the opportunity to expand his role on special teams and in the secondary. Schommer has a reputation for being an alert, physical defensive back with good range.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Schommer is an avid golfer who is working to lower his 11 handicap.
- During the summer of 2008, Schommer interned in the information technology department at Microsoft's facility in Fargo, N.D.
- As a redshirt freshman, in addition to playing on the football team, Schommer played catcher and outfield for the baseball team.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- At San Diego on Oct. 31, 2010, Schommer blocked a Mike Scifres punt that went out of the back of the end zone for a safety.
- Schommer made his NFL debut at LP Field on Oct. 3, 2010 against the Denver Broncos.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Prescott, Wis., native was selected by the Titans in the seventh round (242nd overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (13/0): Appeared in 13 games and collected five special teams tackles. Led the team in special teams tackles once (vs. IND).

- Against Denver (10/3), made his NFL debut in a reserve role on special teams.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), collected two special teams tackles on coverage units.
- At San Diego (10/31), blocked a Mike Scifres punt that deflected out of the back of the end zone for a safety early in the first quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (12/9), led the team with two special teams tackles.
- Against Houston (12/19), had a limited role on defense as an extra defensive back.

2009 (0/0): Spent all 17 weeks of his rookie season on the Titans' practice squad.

COLLEGE:

- During a four-year career at North Dakota State, the two-time team captain tallied 186 tackles, one sack, 6.5 tackles for loss, 13 interceptions, 33 passes defended and one forced fumble in 41 games (41 starts). His interception total tied for third on the school's all-time career list.
- As a senior (2008), started 10 games and earned first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors after posting three interceptions, 54 tackles (fifth on team), 4.5 tackles for loss, 12 passes defended and one sack. Ranked fourth in league in interceptions. Added third-team Associated Press FCS All-America honors.
- As a junior (2007), started all 11 games at free safety and led team with four interceptions (second in conference). Team captain finished third on squad with career-high 64 total tackles. Named first-team All-Great West by media.
- As a sophomore (2006), started nine games and led Bison with three interceptions. Added 36 tackles, two tackles for loss and seven passes defended. Missed final two games with injury.
- As a freshman (2005), started all 11 games and recorded 32 tackles, three interceptions and six passes defended.

• Also played catcher and outfield on baseball team as redshirt freshman, hitting .250 with 15 RBI, nine runs scored, six doubles, four stolen bases, one triple and one home run in 30 starts.

- Redshirted in 2004.
- Graduated in May 2009 with degree in management information systems.

PERSONAL:

- Single, splits time between Nashville and Prescott, Wis.
- At Prescott (Wis.) High School, named first-team All-State by Milwaukee Journal Sentinel and honorable mention All-State by Associated Press and Wisconsin Football Coaches Association. Was two-time first-team All-Conference, All-Northwest Region and team MVP, performing at both running back and defensive back. Totaled 111 carries for 958 yards and 11 touchdowns on offense while recording 124 tackles, two interceptions and three forced fumbles on defense.
- Also competed in baseball, making first-team All-State at catcher.
- Lists golf, video games, hunting and fishing as his hobbies.
- List of favorites: (movie) "Blow"; (TV show) "Nip/Tuck"; (actor) Johnny Depp; (music artists) Garth Brooks, Kenny Chesney, Eminem and Nickelback; (school subjects) computer classes and bowling; (car) Cadillac CTS; (video game) Call of Duty; (magazine) Golf Magazine; (food) seafood; and (sports hero) Brett Favre.

2010 QUICK STATS

SUPER BOWLS

2006

PRO: Jake Scott is a tenacious, hard-nosed blocker that has been a durable player, starting all 16 games each of the last six seasons. The eighth-year pro has the ability to play either guard position and has even started three games at right tackle during his career. The Idaho product is a seasoned veteran of the postseason having qualified for the playoffs in five of his first six seasons in the NFL, including winning a Super Bowl with the Colts in 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Entering the 2011 season, Scott's 104 consecutive starts ranked third in the NFL among guards.
- In 2010, Scott was a part of an offensive front that allowed 27 sacks, which tied for sixth-fewest in the NFL. The unit also paved the way for Chris Johnson to finish fourth in the NFL with 1,364 rushing yards.
- In 2009, Scott was a member of an offensive line that blocked for the NFL's second-best rushing attack (162.0 yards per game) and opened holes for Chris Johnson who became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 2,000 yards. Also, part of an offensive front that allowed just 16 sacks, the second fewest in the NFL.
- In 2006, Scott started all 16 regular season games at right guard for the Super Bowl XLI champions and helped the offensive line surrender a league-low 15 sacks, the third consecutive season the team accomplished the feat.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Scott, a former walk-on at the University of Idaho, started 45 games during his four-year collegiate career. He is one of just two Vandals players since 2001 to be selected in the NFL Draft when the Colts picked him in the fifth round in 2004.
- Scott wasted no time meeting and greeting the Titans faithful as he took part in Titans Caravan 2008, visiting fans in Martin, Dyersburg and Dyer. Scott's Caravan schedule also took him to Kentucky with stops in Mayfield, Princeton and Paducah.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- A native of Lewiston, Idaho, Scott was originally drafted by the Colts in the fifth round (141st overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.
- Signed with the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2008.

RUSTY SMITH

QUARTERBACK • 6'5" • 226 lbs • COLLEGE: FLORIDA ATLANTIC
 ACQUIRED: 6TH ROUND - 2010 • NFL EXP.: 2/2
 HOMETOWN: JACKSONVILLE, FLA.
 GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 2/1 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 2/1 • 20 of 40 for 200 yds, 0 TDs and 4 INTs • 0 rushes for 0 yards, 0 TDs

PRO: The Titans used their first of two sixth-round selections in 2010 on quarterback Rusty Smith, a strong-armed signal caller with solid vision and pocket awareness. As a rookie, he appeared in two games with one start and completed 20 of 40 passes for 200 yards with four interceptions. The three-and-a-half year starter for Florida Atlantic can make all the throws and excels as a passer outside of the pocket. Smith will compete for a backup job in training camp.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Smith saw action in two games and completed 20 of 40 passes for 200 yards with four interceptions. He made his first career NFL start at Houston (11/28/10).
- As a sophomore, Smith was named 2007 Sun Belt Player of the Year and set FAU records for a season with 3,688 passing yards and 32 touchdowns. He led the Owls to their first ever Bowl appearance, a victory against Memphis in the New Orleans Bowl.
- In 2008, Smith was named the team MVP after starting all 13 games and completing 234 of 435 passes for 3,224 yards with 24 touchdowns. Led his team to the Motor City Bowl where he captured MVP honors.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- When he was in high school Smith began attending the same church in Jacksonville as Denver Broncos quarterback Tim Tebow. The two signal callers know each other and have worked out together.
- Smith's parents, Russell and Melody, own two restaurants called Russ-Doe's Sandwich Shops in Jacksonville. He grew up working in the restaurants and still helps out when he is in town. One of the most popular sandwiches is the "Russ-Doe's Special," which includes ground beef, small diced onions with the family's "special" ingredient. Only a handful of people actually know what the ingredient is.
- Smith became the first player ever drafted out of Florida Atlantic when the Titans selected him in the sixth round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Jacksonville, Fla., native was selected by the Titans with their first of two sixth-round picks (176th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (2/1): Appeared in two games with one start at quarterback and completed 20 of 40 passes for 200 yards with four interceptions. Was inactive as the third quarterback for the first nine games of the season, as well as the final five contests. Made his NFL debut against Washington (11/21/10). Made his first career start at Houston (11/28/10).
- Against Washington (11/21), entered the game late in the third quarter after Vince Young exited with an injury and completed three of nine passes for 62 yards with an interception. Connected with Nate Washington for a 52-yard pass in the fourth quarter, marking his first career NFL completion.
  - At Houston (11/28), started at quarterback and completed 17 of 31 passes for 138 yards with three interceptions. Connected with Jared Cook for a 23-yard reception late in the fourth quarter.

COLLEGE:

- Smith became the most prolific passer in Florida Atlantic football history during his four-year career with the Owls. He amassed school records with 10,112 passing yards, 768 completions and 76 touchdowns. He led the Owls to back-to-back Bowl appearances for the first time from 2007-2008.
- As a senior (2009), saw action in only seven games after suffering an injury to his non-throwing shoulder. Completed 145 of 253 passes for 1,915 yards with 14 touchdowns and five interceptions. Became one of just 50 players nationally to throw for more than 10,000 career passing yards. Also became the FAU career record holder in pass attempts (1,361), completions (768), passing yards (10,112) and touchdowns (76).

- As a junior (2008), named the team MVP after starting all 13 games and completing 234 of 435 passes for 3,224 yards with 24 touchdowns and 14 interceptions. Was a two-time Sun Belt Player of the Week recipient and also earned Palm Beach County Amateur Athlete of the Year.
- As a sophomore (2007), named 2007 Sun Belt Player of the Year after setting numerous school records including passing yards in a season (3,688) and touchdowns in a season (32). Was named Sun Belt Player of the Week four times and set a conference record with 3,688 passing yards. Received the Palm Beach County Sports Commission's Amateur Athlete of the Year award.
- As a freshman (2006), played in 12 games with four starts and accumulated 1,285 passing yards with six touchdowns. Was named the opening day starter against Clemson for playing in a backup role for the next eight games. Started the final three games leading the team to two victories.
- As a redshirt freshman (2005), had a strong first fall of practice. Traveled with the team and worked with the coaches. Split time starting under first team center in the spring of 2006.
- Majored in Information Management Systems at Florida Atlantic.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Nicole and the couple splits time between Nashville and Jacksonville, Fla.
- Attended Sandalwood High School (Jacksonville, Fla.) and lettered in football and baseball.
- As a senior, completed 105 passes in 176 attempts for 1,800 yards and 21 touchdowns, with just three interceptions. Started for the North in the Jacksonville Shrine All-Star Game.
- Was a three-year letterwinner in baseball as a pitcher.

SHAUN SMITH

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 6'2" • 325 lbs

COLLEGE: SOUTH CAROLINA • ACQUIRED: UFA - 2011 (KC)

NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 8/1 • HOMETOWN: BROOKLYN, N.Y.

GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 79/37 (PLAYOFFS: 3/1)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/10 • 34 tackles, 1.0 sack, 0 INT, 0 PD, 0 FF, 1 FR, 0 SpT

PRO: As soon as the 2011 free agency period began, the Titans wasted little time signing eight-year veteran Shaun Smith. The 6-foot-2-inch, 325-pounder provides a strong run-stopping presence in the middle of the defensive line. Although he has valuable experience playing defensive end in a 3-4 system, the South Carolina product will hold down a defensive tackle spot with the Titans. Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Smith spent time with the Kansas City Chiefs (2010), Cincinnati Bengals (2009, 2004-2006), Cleveland Browns (2007-2008) and New Orleans Saints (2004).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Smith played in all 16 games with 10 starts for the Chiefs and notched 34 tackles, a sack and a pass defended.
- In 2007 with the Browns, Smith appeared in 15 games with 10 starts and recorded career-highs with 63 tackles, two sacks, a forced fumble and two passes defended.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- In the offseason, Smith teams with Broncos running back Laurence Maroney, Ravens wide receiver T.J. Houshmandzadeh, former NFL running back Rudi Johnson and Boston Celtics guard Delonte West for the Rujohn Foundation to host football and basketball camps in Jamaica.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Brooklyn, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Dallas Cowboys as a rookie free agent on May 1, 2003.
- Released by the Cowboys on Aug. 31, 2003 and signed to the team's practice squad a day later.
- Re-signed by the Cowboys on Jan. 5, 2004.
- Released by the Cowboys on Aug. 31, 2004 and claimed off waivers by the Arizona Cardinals on Sept. 1, 2004.
- Released by the Cardinals on Sept. 5, 2004.
- Signed by the New Orleans Saints to their practice squad on Sept. 7, 2004 and was added to the Saints' active roster on Sept. 18, 2004.
- Released by the Saints on Nov. 30, 2004 and claimed off waivers by the Cincinnati Bengals on Dec. 1, 2004.
- Signed by the Cleveland Browns as a free agent on March 16, 2007.
- Released by the Browns on Aug. 8, 2009.
- Signed by the Detroit Lions as a free agent Aug. 11, 2009.
- Released by the Lions on Sept. 6, 2009.
- Signed by the Bengals as a free agent on Dec. 9, 2009 but was released three days later.
- Re-signed by the Bengals as a free agent on Dec. 16, 2009.
- Signed by the Kansas City Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2010.
- Signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on July 29, 2011.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/10, 1/1 - Kansas City): Played in 16 games on the defensive line with 10 starts at left defensive end. Posted 34 tackles, a sack, two quarterback pressures and one pass defended. Collected a one-yard touchdown run as a fullback.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 15/13 • 11 receptions for 122 yards, 2 TDs, 2 SpT

PRO: Craig Stevens enters his fourth NFL season in 2011 and continues to assert himself as one of the NFL's best young blocking tight ends. He was used as a reserve in that capacity in his first two seasons in addition to being a special teams contributor. Then, in 2010, he moved into a full-time offensive role, playing 15 games with 13 starts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Stevens notched his first career touchdown at San Diego on Oct. 31, 2010, reaching the end zone on a one-yard pass from Vince Young.
- In 2009, he finished second on the team with 15 special teams tackles.
- His first NFL reception (nine yards) came at Indianapolis on Dec. 28, 2008.
- Prior to entering the NFL, he recorded a 4.59-second 40-yard dash at the 2008 NFL Scouting Combine.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- He has a younger brother, Eric, who is entering his junior season as a fullback at Cal. He has two other brothers, Jeff and Brett, who are firefighters with the L.A. City Fire Department.
- Stevens entered the NFL with one class remaining to obtain his degree in legal studies. He hopes to one day become involved in law enforcement as a detective or FBI agent, following in the footsteps of his father, Mark, a deputy sheriff in L.A. County.
- Stevens switched his jersey number to 19 as a senior at Cal in honor of the late Mario Danelo, a close friend and kicker for the University of Southern California. Danelo, who wore No. 19 for the Trojans, died tragically in January 2007 in the friends' hometown of San Pedro, Calif.
- Stevens was already familiar with the Nashville area before getting drafted by the Titans. He prepared for the scouting combine at D1 Sports Training in Franklin, Tenn.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The San Pedro, Calif., native was selected by the Titans in the third round (85th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (15/13): Appeared in 15 games with 13 starts at tight end and collected career highs with 11 receptions, 122 receiving yards and two touchdowns. Was inactive for one contest (11/21 against Washington).

- At San Diego (10/31), tied a career high with two receptions for a career-best 29 receiving yards and his first career touchdown. Set up the Titans first touchdown with a career-long 28-yard reception in the second quarter. Two plays later, hauled in a one-yard touchdown pass in the back of the end zone with 8:08 remaining in the second quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (12/9), snared a career-high three receptions for 20 yards and a touchdown. Cut the Titans' deficit to a touchdown with a seven-yard scoring catch in the third quarter.
- Against Houston (12/19), helped clear the way for Titans' rushers to gain 147 yards on the ground.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), tracked down Antoine Bethea at the Titans' seven-yard line after a 101-yard return following Rob Bironas' missed 61-yard field goal.

2009 (12/2): In 12 games, finished second on the team with 15 special teams tackles. As a blocking tight end, contributed to Chris Johnson's 2,006-yard rushing season. He was inactive in four games and did not play in two contests.

- Against Houston (9/20), started and helped open holes for Titans' ball carriers to amass 240 yards on the ground.
- Against Buffalo (11/15), tied for the team lead with a career-high four special teams tackles.

2008 (16/2, 1/0): As team's only rookie to play every game, earned two starts as second tight end. Recorded one reception for nine yards and also tied for fifth on the team with 10 special teams tackles.

- Against Jacksonville (9/7), made NFL debut as reserve tight end in season opener.
- Against Green Bay (11/2), made first NFL start at tight end.
- At Indianapolis (12/28), started at tight end and snared first career NFL reception on nine-yard pass.

COLLEGE:

- At Cal, was mainstay on Bears offense, appearing in 50 games (33 starts) in four seasons, one game shy of school record. His superior ability as a pass protector, run blocker and receiver helped him earn honorable mention All-Pac 10 honors after his sophomore and senior seasons and second-team All-Pac 10 following his junior year. Statistical totals included 51 receptions for 669 yards and seven touchdowns.
- As senior (2007), named honorable mention All-Pac 10 and was recipient of team's Frank J. ## DAVID STEWART

TACKLE • 6'7" • 318 lbs • COLLEGE: MISSISSIPPI STATE
ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2005 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 7/7
HOMETOWN: MOULTON, ALA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 77/77 (PLAYOFFS: 2/2)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/16

PRO: David Stewart is a physical, hard-nosed tackle that excels at the point of attack. Nicknamed "Big Country," the Alabama native is an intense competitor that mauls defenders in the run game and provides solid protection in the aerial attack. His soft-spoken demeanor and country mannerisms off the field run in sharp contrast with his tough, aggressive presence on the gridiron. After signing a long-term contract extension during the 2008 offseason, he is a fixture on the Titans' offensive front for years to come.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2010, Stewart was a part of an offensive front that allowed 27 sacks, which tied for sixth-fewest in the NFL. The unit also paved the way for Chris Johnson to finish fourth in the NFL with 1,364 rushing yards.
- In 2009, was a member of an offensive line that blocked for the NFL's second-best rushing attack (162.0 yards per game) and opened holes for Chris Johnson who became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 2,000 yards. Also, part of an offensive front that allowed just 16 sacks, the second fewest in the NFL.
- In 2008, Stewart started all 16 games at right tackle for the second consecutive season and was named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. Was a part of an offensive line that allowed an NFL-low 12 sacks.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- For the past three offseasons in April, Stewart in connection with Big Buck Properties, participated in the Big Buck Outdoor Games, a charitable bass fishing tournament and turkey hunt to raise money for wounded soldiers. The fundraising effort supported "Huntin' for Heroes" and Paralyzed Veterans of America-Outdoor Recreation Heritage Fund to benefit wounded veterans across the country.
- In the 2008 offseason, Stewart and a few Titans teammates filmed several segments for an outdoors show called "Anything Wild" which aired on The Sportsman's Channel. The production crew followed Stewart while he was turkey hunting and bow fishing.
- In high school, Stewart was nicknamed "Big Country" by friends, which stuck with him through his time at Mississippi State. Many friends and teammates still refer to him by the nickname.
- Stewart was raised near Decatur, Ala., in the small town of Moulton. He was employed on his family's farm for much of his childhood, building fences and working with the cattle and chickens among a variety of daily tasks. He hopes to someday run his own chicken farm.
- Stewart experienced multiple coaching changes during his tenure at Mississippi State. He had two head coaches, three offensive coordinators and four offensive line coaches during his career there.
- His father, Benny, is a truck driver, and his mother, Kathy, is a registered nurse in Moulton.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Moulton, Ala., native was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (113th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

- 2010 (16/16): Started 16 games at right tackle and was a member of an offensive front that opened holes for Titans' ball carriers to gain 1,727 rushing yards in 2010. HOMETOWN: COUNTRY CLUB HILLS, III.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 0/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 13/13

PRO: Byron Stingily is a massive offensive tackle that displays quick feet and excellent recovery speed. The 6-foot-5-inch, 313-pounder is relatively new to playing the position having lined up at defensive end in high school. Stingily possesses raw skills and power and will compete for a backup role at the tackle spots.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- As a senior in 2010, Stingily earned second team All-Big East honors after starting all 13 games at left tackle. He helped pave the way for the Cardinals to lead the conference in rushing and teammate Bilal Powell to finish 11th in the country in rushing.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Prior to the draft, Stingily trained with former Titans' Pro Bowler Brad Hopkins three days per week at D1 in Franklin, Tenn.
- Stingily's off-the-field interests include working on cars, particularly low-riders. He started the hobby as a youngster refurbishing with his uncle.

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/12 • 103 tackles, 0 sacks, 1 QBP, 1 TFL, 3 INT, 15 PD, 1 FF, 2 FR, 9 SpT

PRO: Alterraun Verner enters his second season in the Titans secondary. The ball-hawking cornerback joined the team in 2010 as a fourth-round draft choice from UCLA. He was a quick study as a rookie, and by Week 4, he was permanently inserted into the starting lineup. Taking full advantage of the opportunity, he contributed three interceptions and led the team with 15 passes defended. He looks to solidify his role in his second season opposite Cortland Finnegan.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In Verner's rookie season, he led the team with 15 passes defended, finished second on the squad with three interceptions, and placed fourth on the club with 103 tackles. He became the 12th rookie in franchise history to notch three or more interceptions.
- He posted his first career interception at Dallas on Oct. 10, 2010, snaring a deflected Tony Romo pass and racing to the Cowboys' one-yard line.
- As a senior at UCLA, Verner was named third-team All-American after finishing fifth on the team with 65 tackles and second in the Pac-10 with five interceptions.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- During the 2011 offseason, Verner returned to UCLA to complete his degree in mathematics/applied sciences.
- As a senior at UCLA, the school asked him to be featured in a commercial highlighting the school's math program and student-athletes. He was the first current student-athlete ever to do a UCLA moment commercial. Other UCLA greats to be featured in the series include NBA Hall of Famer Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and former Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban.
- Verner did an internship with California Bank and Trust during the summer of his junior year at UCLA. He surveyed various positions and learned the inner workings of the financial institution.
- Verner served as a peer tutor to his high school football team in the subjects of math and history. He also served as a motivational speaker to city youth teams on the importance of staying in school.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Carson, Calif., native was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (104th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/12): Appeared in all 16 games as a rookie, starting 12 of the season's last 13 games at cornerback. - Against Oakland (9/12), saw action on special teams and played in dime packages on defense in his NFL debut. Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), saw significant action as a reserve cornerback after Jason McCourty left the game in the second quarter with an injury. Collected four tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass defended. Halted a potential Giants' scoring drive by recovering an Ahmad Bradshaw fumble that was forced by Michael Griffin at the Titans' five-yard line in the third stanza. Broke up a pass intended for Mario Manningham in the fourth quarter. Led the team with three special teams tackles on coverage units.
- Against Denver (10/3), made his first career start at cornerback and finished second on the team with 10 tackles. Led the team with three passes defended.
- At Dallas (10/10), posted nine tackles and his first career interception.

Made a diving interception of a Tony Romo pass that was deflected by Dave Ball and returned it to the Cowboys' one-yard line in the fourth quarter.

- At Jacksonville (10/18), recorded six tackles and a team-best three passes defended, including an interception. Knocked down a pass intended for Mike Sims-Walker in the second quarter. Stepped in front of Tiquan Underwood and intercepted a Trent Edwards pass in the third quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), tallied three tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass defended. Made a game-changing play by recovering a Kevin Kolb fumble that was forced by Jason Jones at the Titans' three-yard line in the third quarter. Broke up a third-and-five pass intended for Jeremy Maclin deep in Titans' territory in the fourth quarter.
- At Miami (11/14), collected seven tackles, two passes defended and a quarterback pressure. Raced down the field and batted a punt backwards saving it from going into the end zone and allowing Jared Cook to down it at the Dolphins' two-yard line in the second quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (12/9), led the team with a career-high 12 tackles.
- Against Houston (12/19), tied for the team lead with nine tackles and added an interception. Intercepted a pass over the middle intended for Andre Johnson in the second quarter which led to a Rob Bironas field goal on the final play of the first half.
- At Kansas City (12/26), recorded eight tackles, including a stop for loss, a forced fumble and a pass defended. Stuffed Thomas Jones for a one-yard loss and forced a fumble that was recovered by the Chiefs deep in their own territory in the second quarter.
- At Indianapolis (1/2), led the team with 11 tackles.

COLLEGE:

- In four seasons at UCLA (2006-09), Verner started 35 of 50 games and recorded 272 tackles with 11.0 stops for losses of 19 yards and three forced fumbles. He tied for seventh in school history with 13 interceptions during his career, with his five interceptions during his senior year representing the most by a Bruin in a season since 1997. He also holds the school career-record with four interception returns for touchdowns.
- As a senior (2009), started all 12 games for the second consecutive season and ranked fifth on the team with 65 tackles, including three stops for losses of four yards. The team captain finished second in the Pac-10 with five interceptions for 158 yards in returns (31.6 avg). Named third-team All-American by the AP and The NFL Draft Report and added All-Pac 10 first-team and Academic All-Pac 10 second-team honors. Was a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award, a quarterfinalist for the Lott Trophy and was a member of the Watch List for the Bednarik and Nagurski Awards.
- As a junior (2008), started all 12 games and finished second on the team with 73 tackles that included 2.5 stops for losses of eight yards and a forced fumble. Intercepted two passes and posted a league-high 18 pass deflections. Led the nation in passes defended, averaging 1.67 per game. Earned second-team All-Pac 10 honors from the league's coaches and was a first-team Academic All-Pac 10 choice.
- As a sophomore (2007), started 10 of the 13 games he appeared in and recorded 75 tackles, which ranked fourth on the team. Also posted three stops for losses of four yards and also caused a fumble. Led the Bruins with 15 passes defended and intercepted four other passes for 76 yards (19.0 avg) in returns. Returned four punts for a total of nine yards (2.2 avg). Named Academic All-District VIII and Academic All-Pac 10 Conference first-team choice and added All-Pac 10 honorable mention from the league's coaches.
- As a freshman (2006), appeared in all 13 games as the team's nickel back and top reserve at cornerback. Finished fourth on the team with 59

- Against Houston (12/19), grabbed two receptions for 20 yards and a touchdown. Gave the Titans an early 7-0 lead with three-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter.

2009 (16/15 - Tennessee): In his first season with the Titans appeared in all 16 games with 15 starts and led the team with a career-high six receiving touchdowns. Finished second on the team with a career-best 47 receptions and 569 receiving yards. Set a career-high with seven receptions at Jacksonville (10/4/09). Led or tied for the team lead in receptions three times in 2009 (at NE, vs. SD, at SEA) and led the team in receiving yards twice (vs. SD, at SEA).

- Against Houston (9/20), collected four receptions for 36 yards and a touchdown. Collected his first touchdown reception with the Titans on an eight-yard pass from Kerry Collins in the corner of the end zone, giving the Titans a 21-7 lead with 12:00 remaining in the second quarter.
- At Jacksonville (10/4), tied for the team lead with a career-high seven receptions for 66 yards and a touchdown. Hauled in a 14-yard touchdown pass with 19 seconds remaining in the third quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (11/1), snared two receptions for 22 yards with a touchdown in the Titans' 30-13 victory. Gave the Titans a 10-0 lead with a six-yard touchdown reception in the corner of the end zone with 9:19 remaining in the second quarter.
- Against Buffalo (11/15), snared two receptions for 33 yards and a touchdown in the Titans' 41-17 win. Gave the Titans a 14-7 lead with a 14-yard touchdown catch with 46 seconds remaining in the first stanza.
- At Seattle (1/3), led the team with six receptions and 83 receiving yards in the Titans' season-ending 17-13 victory. Hauled in a 29-yard reception along the right sideline down to the Seattle two-yard line in the fourth quarter.

2008 (16/1, 3/0 - Pittsburgh): Appeared in all 16 games with one start and collected career-highs with 40 receptions and 631 receiving yards, while also scoring three touchdowns. Saw action as a reserve in all three postseason contests and notched seven catches for 62 yards.

- At Philadelphia (9/21), led the team with five receptions for 51 yards (10.2 avg.).
- At Jacksonville (10/5), established a career-high with six catches for 94 yards (15.7 avg.). Scored his first touchdown of the season on a 48-yard touchdown reception from Ben Roethlisberger in the second quarter.
- At Cincinnati (10/19), caught two passes for 57 yards (28.5 avg.) with a then-career-long 50-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter.

Rushed one time for six yards, picking up a key first down on the Steelers opening scoring drive.

- Against N.Y. Giants (10/26), made his sixth career start at wide receiver and his only reception was a career-long 65-yard touchdown grab in the third quarter. Marked the third consecutive game he caught a touchdown, the longest such streak of his career.
- At Washington (11/3), caught two passes for 59 yards (29.5 avg.) with a long of 50 yards.
- Against Dallas (12/7), collected a team-high four catches for 58 yards (14.5 avg.). Caught three passes for 41 yards (13.7 avg.) on the game-tying touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

- Against Arizona (2/1), played in his seventh consecutive postseason game in the Super Bowl XLIII and caught one pass for 11 yards.

2007 (16/4, 1/0 - Pittsburgh): Played in all 16 games, starting four of them, and notched 29 receptions for 450 yards (15.5 avg.) and a career-high five touchdowns. Tied a then career-high with four receptions for 56 yards (14.0 avg.) in Week 10 against Cleveland. Set a career-high with two touchdown receptions in Week 9 win over Baltimore, then matched that in Week 16 win over St. Louis. Had one reception for eight yards in the playoff loss to Jacksonville.

- Against Baltimore (11/5), finished with three catches for 51 yards (17.0 avg.) with two touchdowns. Grabbed a 30-yard touchdown reception early in the second quarter to put Pittsburgh ahead 21-0. Caught a seven-yard touchdown late in the second quarter for his first multi-touchdown game of his career.
- At St. Louis (12/20), notched two catches for 50 yards (25.0 avg.), including a long of 33 yards. Both of his receptions went for touchdowns and it marked his second multi-touchdown game of the season and of his career.
- At Baltimore (12/30), made his sixth career start at wide receiver and led the team with five catches for 68 yards (13.6 avg.), including a 24-yard long.

2006 (16/2 - Pittsburgh): Played in all 16 games, making his first two career starts and finished with 35 catches for 624 yards (17.8 avg.) with four touchdowns. Also rushed three times for eight yards.

- Against Miami (9/7), registered his first career regular-season catch and touchdown when he pulled down a 27-yard pass from Charlie Batch to give the Steelers an early 7-0 lead. Finished the contest with two catches for 32 yards (16.0 avg.) and one rush for eight yards.
- Against Kansas City (10/15), caught three passes for 68 yards (22.7 avg.), including a 47-yard touchdown reception.
- At Atlanta (10/22), caught three passes for 76 yards and a game-high 25.3 average. Grabbed a 10-yard touchdown in the second quarter to give the Steelers a 24-21 lead. Collected a long catch of 49 yards.
- Against Tampa Bay (12/3), started his first career game in place of the injured Hines Ward and caught three passes for a then career-high 78 yards (26.0 avg.) and a game-long of 36.

2005 (1/0, 3/0 - Pittsburgh): Made the team as an undrafted free agent out of training camp. Was inactive for the season opener against Tennessee (9/11) and was then released by team on Sept. 13 and signed to Steelers' practice squad on Sept. 14. Signed to the active roster prior to the game against New England (9/25) and spent the remainder of the season on the 53-man roster. Appeared in one regular season contest against Jacksonville (10/16), was inactive for 13 games and did not play against New England (9/25). Made his first NFL catch, a 13-yard grab, for a crucial third-down conversion against Denver in the AFC Championship Game.

- Against Jacksonville (10/16), played in the first game of his career but did not catch a pass.
- At Indianapolis (1/15), played in first postseason game on special teams in the AFC Divisional playoff.
- At Denver (1/22), saw action at wide receiver and caught the first pass of his career for 13 yards and a crucial third-down conversion in the AFC Championship Game.

- Against Seattle (2/5), played on special teams and as a reserve wide receiver but did not catch a pass in Super Bowl XL.

DAMIAN WILLIAMS

WIDE RECEIVER • 6'3" • 199 lbs • COLLEGE: SOUTHERN CAL
ACQUIRED: D3a - 2010 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 2/2
HOMETOWN: SPRINGDALE, ARK.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 16/1 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/1 • 16 receptions for 219 yards, 0 TDs, 4 SpT

PRO: Entering his second NFL season, Damian Williams is primed to make a considerable impact on the Titans offense. The team used their first of two third-round selections in the 2010 NFL Draft on the versatile Southern California wide receiver and punt returner. Then, as a rookie, he gained valuable experience in 16 games and notched 16 receptions. His crisp route-running ability and soft hands make him a reliable target in the passing game. Williams declared for the NFL Draft early after spending his freshman campaign with the Arkansas Razorbacks and the next two seasons with USC.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- During his rookie season in 2010, Williams played in every game and recorded 219 yards on 16 receptions.
- At Dallas on Oct. 10, 2010, he notched his first career reception on a 23-yard pass from Vince Young.
- At USC in 2009, he recorded 70 receptions for 1,010 yards (14.4 avg.) and six touchdowns for a conference-leading average of 84.2 receiving yards per game.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Williams founded a campus Bible study group known as Generate USC along with longtime teammate Mitch Mustain at Southern Cal. The group evolved to 85 people per week and Williams then passed the leadership torch to current USC quarterback Matt Barkley.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Springdale, Ark., native was selected by the Titans with their first of two picks in the third round (77th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/1): Appeared in all 16 games with one start at wide receiver and collected 16 receptions for 219 yards. Tied for the team lead in receptions once in 2010 (at JAX).

- At Dallas (10/10), hauled in two receptions for 30 yards. Collected his first career catch with a 23-yard reception in the first quarter.
- At Jacksonville (10/18), tied for the team lead with four receptions for 48 yards. Hauled in a 20-yard pass on third-and-12 in the first quarter.
- Against Philadelphia (10/24), made his first career NFL start at wide receiver and registered three catches for 25 yards. Hauled in a 16-yard reception on third-and-three in the second quarter.
- At San Diego (10/31), collected two receptions for 43 receiving yards, including a 26-yard reception from Vince Young in the second quarter and a 17-yard reception on third-and-six late in the fourth quarter.
- Against Houston (12/19), extended the Titans' first scoring drive with a season-long 39-yard reception down the left sideline on fourth-and-eight in the first quarter.

COLLEGE:

- In three collegiate seasons, Williams started 25 of 38 games and caught 147 passes for 2,114 yards (14.4 avg.) with 17 touchdowns. He began his career at Arkansas where he was named to the Freshman All-Southeastern Conference first team. Williams then transferred to Southern Cal following his freshman campaign and appeared in 26 games with 20 starts over two seasons, amassing 128 receptions for 1,879 yards (14.7 avg.) with 15 touchdowns for the Trojans. Williams was also a prolific punt returner bringing back 25 punts for 339 yards and two touchdowns.
- As a junior (2009), selected third-team All-American as an all-purpose athlete by The NFL Draft Report, while earning All-Pac 10 Conference first team honors as a receiver and punt returner. Also was a recipient of the College Football Performance National Punt Returner of the Year Award, and was voted USC's MVP by his teammates. Williams, a team captain, enjoyed his most successful campaign as a junior, recording 70 receptions for 1,010 yards (14.4 avg.) and six touchdowns, while leading the conference with an average of 84.2 receiving yards per game. He returned 24 punts for 340 yards and two touchdowns and his punt return average of 14.2 yards led the conference and ranked third nationally.

- In 2008, as a sophomore saw action in 13 games with nine starts and led the Trojans with 58 receptions for 869 yards (15.0 avg.) and nine touchdowns. Earned College Football News Sophomore All-American honorable mention, USC's John McKay Award, as well as All-Pac 10 Conference honorable mention.
- In 2007 season, transferred to Southern California in the spring of 2007 from Arkansas, but was forced to sit out the 2007 season under NCAA transfer rules.

WILL WITHERSPOON

LINEBACKER • 6'1" • 240 lbs • COLLEGE: GEORGIA
ACQUIRED: FREE AGENT - 2010 • NFL EXP. (NFL/TITANS): 10/2
HOMETOWN: PANAMA CITY, FLA.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 143/131 (PLAYOFFS: 8/8)

2010 QUICK STATS

GP/GS: 16/16 • 99 tackles, 3.0 sacks, 0 QBP, 5 TFL, 2 INT, 10 PD, 1 FF, 0 FR

PRO: Will Witherspoon is a 10-year veteran that has played both middle and outside linebacker during his NFL career. The versatile defender is a sideline-to-sideline player who has been remarkably durable, having missed just two contests in his first nine seasons. He joined the Titans as a free agent in 2010 and immediately assumed a leadership role on the defense. Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he spent time with the Carolina Panthers (2002-05), St. Louis Rams (2006-09) and Philadelphia Eagles (2009).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In his first nine seasons, Witherspoon produced 31 double-digit tackle games, including playoffs.
- In 2010, his first season in Tennessee, his totals included 99 tackles, three sacks and two interceptions.
- Collected a career-best 16 tackles against the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXVIII.
- In 2007, was named the Rams' MVP after leading the team with 136 tackles and tallying a career-high seven sacks.

TITANS TIDBITS:

- Witherspoon is the proud owner of Shiregate Farms, a 450-acre farm located in Owensville, Mo. Originally started as a hobby farm, he and his farm manager are currently working to establish a co-operative business for grass-fed beef, and are hoping to expand into local markets.
- Witherspoon's teammates voted him the winner of the team's 2010 Ed Block Courage Award, which is given to a player on each team who demonstrates a commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Witherspoon suffered the loss of his mother, Nora Lee Cooper Witherspoon, the week of the 2010 season opener. After spending time with his family, he returned to the team in time to lead the Titans to an inspired victory over the Oakland Raiders.
- The son of a retired military officer, Witherspoon was born in San Antonio, Texas, and has lived in Germany, England, Arizona and Florida. With his father stationed abroad growing up, the family chose to live in the community instead of military bases so the children could broaden their education and experience different cultures.
- Witherspoon and former Panthers teammate, Dan Morgan, own and operate two dog day-care centers, Club K-9, in Charlotte, N.C. A true dog lover, he once had two Weimaraners, an English Mastiff, a Great Dane and a Great Swiss Mountain Dog at the same time when he lived in North Carolina. He currently has a German Shepherd back in Missouri.
- Due to the 2009 trade that took Witherspoon from St. Louis to Philadelphia and the two teams' bye weeks (each of which he missed), he became one of just five players to play 17 games in a regular season in the bye era (since 1990).

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:

- The Panama City, Fla., native was originally selected by the Carolina Panthers in the third round (73rd overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft.
- Signed as an unrestricted free agent with the St. Louis Rams on March 12, 2006.
- Traded by the Rams to the Philadelphia Eagles for wide receiver Brandon Gibson and a 2010 fifth-round pick on Oct. 20, 2009.
- Signed by the Titans as a free agent on March 10, 2010.

SEASON RECAPS:

2010 (16/16 – Tennessee): Started all 16 games at linebacker and collected 99 tackles, including five tackles for loss and 10 passes defended. Tied for third on the team with two interceptions. Tied for the team lead in sacks three times (vs. OAK, vs. PIT, at NYG). Led the team in passes defended once (at DAL).

- Against Oakland (9/12), posted six tackles and a sack. Blitzed through the middle and sacked Jason Campbell for a seven-yard loss in the first quarter.
- Against Pittsburgh (9/19), collected six tackles, a sack and a forced fumble. Came on a blitz and strip-sacked Dennis Dixon for a 16-yard loss and the loose ball was recovered by Dave Ball in the first quarter. Teamed with Jason Jones to stuff Rashad Mendenhall for a two-yard loss on a rush off right guard in the third quarter.
- At N.Y. Giants (9/26), collected four tackles, a sack and a pass defended. Thwarted a Giants' scoring chance by deflecting an Eli Manning pass up in the air at the goalline and the ball was intercepted by Jason McCourty in the end zone during the first quarter. Blitzed up the middle and dropped Eli Manning for a 10-yard sack in the second quarter. Became the first Titans linebacker since Keith Bulluck in 2004 to notch a sack in three consecutive games.
- Against Denver (10/3), tipped a Kyle Orton pass that was then intercepted by Michael Griffin in the fourth quarter.
- At Dallas (10/10), posted three tackles and a team-best three passes defended. Batted down a third-and-nine pass intended for Jason Witten late in the fourth quarter and broke up a fourth-and-nine pass intended for Witten on the following play.
- At San Diego (10/31), notched 10 tackles, including a stop for loss. Stuffed Darren Sproles for a five-yard loss on a rush up the middle in the first quarter.
- Against Washington (11/21), recorded six tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added an interception. Halted a potential Redskins' scoring drive by intercepting a pass intended for Joey Galloway in the second quarter. Combined with Jacob Ford to stonewall Darrel Young for a two-yard loss on a rush off left tackle in the fourth quarter. Teamed with William Hayes to stop Keiland Williams for a two-yard loss on a rush off right tackle in overtime.
- Against Jacksonville (12/5), matched a season high with 10 tackles.
- At Kansas City (12/26), recorded eight tackles and an interception. Intercepted a bobbled ball intended for Dwayne Bowe on the first play of the fourth quarter.

2009 (5/5 – St. Louis; 11/10, 1/1 – Philadelphia): Started the first five games of the season at weakside linebacker for the Rams before being traded to the Eagles on Oct. 20, 2009. Appeared in 11 regular season games with 10 starts for the Eagles and collected 68 tackles, a sack, an interception, a forced fumble and six passes defended. Totaled 36 tackles and a quarterback pressure in five games with St. Louis. Played in 17 regular season games in 2009, becoming one of just five players to do so in the bye era (since 1990).

- At Seattle (9/13), started at weakside linebacker, marking his 100th career start.
- At Washington (10/26), in his first game with Eagles, recorded a sack and an interception return for a touchdown. Became the second player in NFL history to do so in his first game with a new team.

2008 (16/12 – St. Louis): Played in 16 games with 12 starts and finished third on the team with 88 tackles.

- At Seattle (9/21), recorded a team-high and season-high 12 tackles and a sack.
- Against Dallas (10/19), collected five tackles and notched his first interception as a Ram and returned it two yards.

2007 (16/16 – St. Louis): Started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the team in tackles with 132 stops. Notched a career-high seven sacks, while posting at least one sack in five consecutive games between Weeks 8-13. Became the first linebacker in 15 years to lead the Rams in sacks since Kevin Greene had 10.0 in 1992. Received the team's Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award given to Rams' MVP. Named to USA Today All-Joe Team, for the second time in his career.

- At Seattle (10/21), tied a career-high with 16 tackles.
- At New Orleans (11/11), posted seven tackles leading the team for third consecutive week. Tallied his third sack of the season and forced a fumble while lining up at defensive end in pass rushing situations.
- Against Seattle (11/25), tied single-game career-high with sacks, marking his fourth consecutive contest with at least one sack.

2006 (16/16 – St. Louis): Started all 16 games in his first season with the Rams and collected a career-best 136 tackles. Posted three sacks, nine passes defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

- At San Francisco (9/17), led the team with then career-high 13 tackles.
- At Seattle (11/12), led the team with 10 tackles and recorded two sacks.

2005 (15/15, 3/3 – Carolina): Led the Panthers in tackles for second straight season with 109 stops. Added 2.5 sacks, two interceptions and 13 passes defended.

- Against N.Y. Jets (11/13), intercepted a Brooks Bollinger pass and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown.
- Against Dallas (12/24), registered a season-high 12 tackles with a sack and a pass defended.
- At N.Y. Giants (1/6), notched five tackles, a sack and a forced fumble in NFC Wild Card Game.

2004 (16/16 – Carolina): Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season. Led the team with 110 tackles and notched a career-best four interceptions. Posted three sacks, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

- Against Oakland (11/7), recorded 10 tackles, his second career interception and two passes defended.
- At San Francisco (11/14), collected a season-best 11 tackles, while adding a forced fumble, a sack and an interception.

2003 (16/16, 4/4 – Carolina): Started all 16 games and finished second on the team with 114 tackles while also posting an interception, a sack and four passes defended. Named to USA Today's All-Joe team.

- Against Dallas (1/3), registered eight tackles and a forced fumble in NFC Wild Card Game.
- At Philadelphia (1/18), posted nine tackles and a sack of Donovan McNabb in NFC Championship Game.
- In Super Bowl XXXVIII (2/1), made a career-high 16 tackles against New England.

2002 (15/8 – Carolina): As a rookie, collected 88 tackles, 1.5 sacks, five passes defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Made his first career NFL start at Atlanta (10/20) and notched nine tackles. Moved from weakside to middle linebacker for final eight games of season after injury to Dan Morgan, producing five straight games with double-digit tackles.

- At Cleveland (12/1), tied for team-lead with 11 tackles, adding first career half sack of Tim Couch.
- Against Cincinnati (12/8), tied for team-lead with a then career-best 12 tackles, including his first career forced fumble and his first career full sack of Jon Kitna.

COLLEGE:

- Witherspoon was a three-year starter at Georgia and finished his Bulldogs career with 211 tackles, one fumble recovery, one forced fumble, 3.5 sacks, seven passes defended, and 15 quarterback pressures.
- Showed versatility throughout his collegiate career, starting at middle linebacker as a sophomore, strongside linebacker as a junior, and weakside linebacker as a senior.
- As a senior, started nine games and posted 43 tackles, a sack, one forced fumble, one pass defended, and six quarterback pressures.
- Started 10 games at strongside linebacker as a junior in 2000, finishing third on the team with career-high 85 tackles while adding two sacks, one fumble recovery, four passes defended, three quarterback pressures, and a team-high 10 special teams stops.
- Saw action in eight games, starting five at middle linebacker as a sophomore.
- Played in all 11 games as a true freshman, finishing with 50 tackles.
- Majored in agricultural engineering at Georgia.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Rebecca with three daughters: Layne, Maya and Shaye. Splits time between Nashville and Wildwood, Mo.
- Moved from defensive end to linebacker prior to the senior year at Rutherford High in Panama City, Fla., and earned USA Today Player of the Year for Florida after leading team to 13-1 record and second-place finish in state playoffs.
- Also lettered in track, competing in 100- and 200-meters as well as the long jump. Became the state long-jump champion as a senior with jump of 26 feet, 10.5 inches.
- A son of a retired military officer, Witherspoon has lived in Germany, England, and Arizona. With his father stationed abroad, his family lived in the community instead of military bases so the children could broaden their education and better experience that country's culture.
- Enjoys speaking at schools and visiting children's hospitals.
- Born William Cordell Witherspoon on Aug. 19, 1980 in San Antonio, Texas.

2010 TITANS GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – Titans 38, Raiders 13 Sunday, Sept. 12, 2010 • 12:00 CT • LP Field

After losing their first six games in 2009, the Titans came out determined not to put themselves in the same position in 2010. Despite an early turnover that led to the Raiders' Sebastian Janikowski connecting on a 34-yard field goal to get on the board first, the Titans controlled most of the game. The Raiders made it apparent early that Chris Johnson was the focus of their defensive game plan, and the Titans took advantage when Vince Young carried out a fake to Johnson and hit Nate Washington in stride for a 56-yard touchdown strike for the first points of the season. Rob Bironas made his only field goal attempt of the day when he connected from 43 yards later in the first quarter. The Titans pulled away in the second quarter when they had Javon Ringer (15 yards) and Chris Johnson (76 yards) score touchdowns on back-to-back carries. Johnson scored again in the third quarter and finished with 142 rushing yards. He played the role of decoy on a goal-line play that led to an easy 1-yard touchdown pass from Young to Bo Scaife that put the score at 38-6 five seconds into the fourth quarter. Darren McFadden caught a Jason Campbell pass for a 7-yard touchdown later in the fourth to reach the eventual final score of 38-13 and gave the Titans a 1-0 start while the Raiders started the season with a loss for the eighth straight season.

GAME 2 – Titans 11, Steelers 19 Sunday, Sept. 19, 2010 • 12:00 CT • LP Field

After a strong performance in week one, the Titans came out and played a mistake-filled game in which the Steelers returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown to set the tone early. Despite the early deficit, the Titans had a chance to tie the game four minutes later, but failed to score a touchdown and had to settle for a 21-yard field goal. Tennessee remained stuck on three points until late in the fourth quarter, after having an 85-yard touchdown run by Chris Johnson called back on a holding penalty. Their inability to score was due in no small part to their seven turnovers, 11 penalties and four sacks allowed. Pittsburgh took full advantage of Tennessee's mistakes as they scored the next 12 points, on four Jeff Reed field goals, off of Titans turnovers. The Titans defense continued their strong play, as they managed to continually make Pittsburgh settle for field goals despite having good field position. The Titans held the Steelers to 127 yards on 54 plays, which helped keep the team in the game. The Titans made a valiant attempt at coming back late in the game after benching Vince Young in an attempt to find a spark with Kerry Collins. The Titans scored with 58 seconds left to play when Collins found Nate Washington for a touchdown and cut the lead to one possession when Kenny Britt hauled in the two point conversion. The Titans managed to recover the onside kick before their comeback attempt ran out of time.

GAME 3 – Titans 29, Giants 10
Sunday, Sept. 26, 2010 • 1:00 ET • New Meadowlands Stadium

In their first road game of the season, the Titans traveled to New York to take on the Giants. Tennessee was able to bounce back from a Week 2 loss, as they didn't commit a single turnover in the game and forced the Giants into turning the ball over three times. The Titans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead behind a 48-yard Rob Bironas field goal and a one-yard touchdown run by Chris Johnson. The Giants fought back and knotted the game at 10 going into halftime after Ahmad Bradshaw ran for a touchdown with 36 seconds remaining in the half. One of the biggest plays in the game came on a third down early in the second half. The Giants were pinned on their own one-yard line and Eli Manning found Mario Manningham down the sideline for a 43-yard completion; however, the play was negated when Bradshaw was called for a chop block on Tony Brown in the end zone, resulting in a safety. The Titans proceeded to score a touchdown on the ensuing possession when Vince Young found Kenny Britt for a 13-yard score. The Titans shut out the Giants in the second half and added 10 points in the fourth quarter, on 22-yard Bironas field goal and another touchdown run by Johnson, to put the game away and head home with a 29-10 victory.

GAME 4 – Titans 20, Broncos 26
Sunday, Oct. 3, 2010 • 12:00 CT • LP Field

The Broncos got on the board first when Kyle Orton found Eddie Royal for a two-yard touchdown strike, but the Titans answered quickly as Kenny Britt hauled in a Vince Young pass for an eight-yard touchdown just over two minutes later. The two teams went into halftime tied at 10 after the Titans needed only 23 seconds to respond to a late Broncos field goal, as Rob Bironas connected on a 55-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The Broncos opened the scoring in the second half when Matt Prater connected on his second 36-yard field goal, but the Titans again answered quickly as rookie Marc Mariani took the ensuing kickoff 98 yards for the score. The two teams again traded field goals and the Titans went into the fourth quarter with a 20-16 lead. After the Titans stopped the Broncos on a fourth-and-goal late in the game, they were unable to put together a drive to run out the clock and had to punt the ball back to the Broncos. After a 49-yard defensive pass interference penalty, the Broncos took the lead when Orton found Correll Buckhalter for a six-yard score. After the Titans muffed the ensuing kickoff, which led to another Prater field goal, the Titans were unable to score and fell to 2-2 on the season.

GAME 5 – Titans 34, Cowboys 27
Sunday, Oct. 10, 2010 • 3:15 CT • Cowboys Stadium

The Titans came out fast and took the opening possession 80 yards to get on the board first when Vince Young found Nate Washington for a 24-yard score. Rob Bironas connected on a 52-yard field goal, before Dallas responded with a 51-yard field goal of their own. Young found Kenny Britt in the end zone for the third-straight week, extending the Titans lead to 17-3. The Cowboys answered, as they scored on their next two possessions, when Tony Romo found Roy Williams and then Miles Austin for six and 69-yard scoring tosses, respectively, to tie the game at 17. After the teams traded field goals to keep the game tied at 20, Titans rookie cornerback Alterraun Verner jumped a Romo pass and returned it to the one-yard line, where Chris Johnson would run it in for the score on the next play. Romo again drove Dallas and found Jason Witten for an 18-yard scoring strike with less than five minutes remaining in the game. After an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty forced Dallas to kick from their own 15, Titans rookie Marc Mariani returned the kickoff to the Dallas 11 where he was brought down by his facemask. Three plays later, Johnson found the end zone for the second time, capping off a 131-yard rushing performance and giving the Titans a 34-27 win in Dallas.

GAME 6 – Titans 30, Jaguars 3
Monday, Oct. 18, 2010 • 8:30 ET • EverBank Field

The Titans set the tone of the game with an efficient 79-yard scoring drive that ended when Vince Young found Kenny Britt for a 23-yard touchdown with 12:34 remaining in the first quarter. The defense then forced the first of three Jacksonville punts. On the ensuing drive, the Titans got a scare when Young fumbled the snap and injured his left knee during the recovery. Young did not return to the game as Kerry Collins took over. The score remained 7-0 until midway through the second quarter, when Collins found Bo Scaife for a two-yard score on third-and-goal. The Jaguars had to turn to their backup quarterback as well, when newly acquired Trent Edwards relieved David Garrard after Garrard suffered a concussion. After a pair of Rob Bironas field goals, the Jaguars ended the Titans shutout bid when Josh Scobee connected on a 33-yard field goal making the score 20-3 with just over seven minutes to play in the third. That would be as close as the Jaguars would get, as the Titans would add on 10 more points in the fourth on a third Bironas field goal and a 35-yard Chris Johnson touchdown run that put him over 100 yards rushing for the eighth consecutive road game, the second longest streak in NFL history. The Titans won the turn-over battle 4-0, behind interceptions by Vincent Fuller, Michael Griffin and Alterraun Verner and a fumble recovery by Stephen Tulloch, and the game by a final of 30-3.

GAME 7 – Titans 37, Eagles 19
Sunday, Oct. 24, 2010 • 12:00 CT • LP Field

The Titans got off to a slow start against the Eagles and fell behind 3-0 after David Akers connected on a 25-yard field goal early in the second quarter. The Titans responded when Kerry Collins found Kenny Britt for a 26-yard touchdown. The Eagles scored a touchdown pass of their own, as Kevin Kolb found Riley Cooper for a five-yard touchdown before ending the half with a 46-yard Akers field goal. The Eagles went up 16-7 early in the third, but Jason Jones forced a fumble at the three-yard line late in the third quarter as the Eagles appeared on the verge of extending their lead. The Titans offense found life as that turnover jumpstarted a nine-play, 74-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard Rob Bironas field goal. Akers connected on his fourth field goal of the game to extend the Eagles lead to 19-10 early in the fourth. On the next play, Collins found Britt again, this time for an 80-yard bomb to cut the deficit to 19-17. Bironas would give the Titans the lead, 20-19, on a 38-yard field goal, before Collins and Britt would hook up for their third score of the game. Britt finished the game with seven receptions for 225 yards and three touchdowns, good for the fifth-most receiving yards in franchise history. After a late Bironas field goal, Cortland Finnegan ended the game with a 41-yard interception return for a touchdown as time expired, giving the Titans the 37-19 win.

GAME 8 – Titans 25, Chargers 33
Sunday, Oct. 31, 2010 • 1:05 PT • Qualcomm Stadium

The Titans traveled to the west coast to face the Chargers in their eighth and final game before their bye week. The Titans defense got off to a strong start, forcing a three-and-out before Nick Schommer blocked the ensuing punt out of the end zone for a safety. The Chargers answered later in the first quarter when Mike Tolbert found the end zone from a yard out. The Titans capped the first quarter scoring with a 21-yard Rob Bironas field goal. The Titans jumped out to a 19-7 second quarter lead following a one-yard touchdown pass from Vince Young to Craig Stevens and then a 29-yard change-of-direction touchdown run by Chris Johnson. The Chargers would respond by scoring the next 20 points, as Ryan Mathews scored on a seven-yard run just before halftime. After two field goals by Chargers kicker Kris Brown and a 48-yard touchdown pass from Philip Rivers to Antonio Gates, the score was 27-19. The Titans connected on a 71-yard bomb from Young to Nate Washington on the next play, but the two point conversion failed, leaving the score 27-25. After a 13-yard Darren Sproles touchdown catch, the Chargers botched the extra point attempt. The Titans drove down the field but were unable to score at the end of the game, as their drive stalled in the red zone, to give the Chargers a 33-25 victory.

GAME 9 – Titans 17, Dolphins 29
Sunday, Nov. 14, 2010 • 1:00 ET • Sun Life Stadium

The Titans came into Miami fresh off their bye week, but the Dolphins capitalized early on a Bo Scaife fumble on the opening drive to take a 7-0 lead when Ronnie Brown ran it in from two yards out. The Titans battled back as Chris Johnson scored on a 17-yard scamper and Rob Bironas gave the Titans a 10-7 lead with his 40-yard field goal. Dan Carpenter connected on a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10 at halftime. Both teams had to turn to backup quarterbacks in the game, as the Dolphins lost Chad Pennington (shoulder) and Chad Henne (knee) for the game. The Titans had to turn to injured-starter Vince Young (ankle) after his replacement Kerry Collins (calf) went down in the first half. The Dolphins extended their lead to 20-10 in the third quarter after Patrick Cobbs caught a 13-yard touchdown pass. The Titans responded as Young found Nate Washington for a 14-yard touchdown late in the third quarter, but 20-17 was as close as the Titans would get. Carpenter connected on his third field goal early in the fourth quarter and Anthony Fasano hauled in a nine-yard pass from Tyler Thigpen to finish the scoring and give the Dolphins a 29-17 win.

GAME 10 – Redskins 19, Titans 16
Sunday, Nov. 21, 2010 • 12:00 CT • LP Field

The Titans returned to LP Field for the first time in nearly a month to take on the Redskins. Marc Mariani got the scoring started when he returned a Redskins' punt 87 yards for a touchdown. Washington responded when Donovan McNabb found Santana Moss for a five-yard score. When Vince Young suffered a thumb injury in the third quarter, rookie Rusty Smith was forced into his first NFL action. Titans kicker Rob Bironas connected on all three of his field goal attempts in the game (25, 32 and 40) Redskins kicker Graham Gano would connect on three of his five attempts in regulation, but missed a 47-yarder as time expired that would have given the Redskins a win and prevented overtime. Tied at 16, the Titans received the ball first in overtime. The drive started out fast as the Titans moved to midfield before their drive stalled. After two Titans' personal foul penalties helped the Redskins extend their drive, Gano connected on his fourth field goal of the game, a 48-yarder, that gave the Redskins a 19-16 overtime win.

GAME 11 – Titans 0, Texans 20
Sunday, Nov. 28, 2010 • 12:00 CT • Reliant Stadium

The Titans traveled to Houston to play their first of four consecutive divisional games. The Titans offense never got in rhythm under the direction of rookie quarterback Rusty Smith, who was making his first career start because of injuries to Vince Young and Kerry Collins. The Texans got on the board early in the second quarter with a one-yard touchdown pass from Matt Schaub to Joel Dreessen to cap a drive that started on the Titans 25-yard line after the first of Glover Quin's three interceptions on the day. Schaub connected with Andre Johnson for a two-yard touchdown pass later in the second quarter to make the score 14-0 at the half. Johnson and Titans cornerback Cortland Finnegan were both ejected with just over eight minutes remaining in the game, after both were flagged for unnecessary roughness and a fight ensued. Neil Rackers connected on both of his field goal attempts in the game. The first from 35 yards in the third quarter, and the second a 33-yarder that capped a 14-play, 80-yard drive that lasted 8:27 in the fourth quarter and put the game away. The Texans preserved their shutout when Quin intercepted a Smith pass at the goal line with just over a minute remaining in the game giving the Texans the 20-0 win.

GAME 12 – Jaguars 17, Titans 6
Sunday, Dec. 5, 2010 • 12:00 CT • LP Field

The Titans returned home for an important divisional matchup against the Jaguars. On Jacksonville's opening drive, they chose to forego a field goal attempt and went for it on fourth-and-one from the 11-yard line. The decision paid off as Rashad Jennings broke a tackle and ran in for the touchdown. In the second quarter, the Jaguars would take advantage of a Kerry Collins interception, as David Garrard would score on a four-yard touchdown run. After a failed fourth down attempt by the Titans, the Jaguars finished out the first half with a 26-yard Josh Scobee field goal as time expired. Despite a 17-0 deficit, the Titans came out in the second half and shut out the Jaguars. Rob Bironas connected on a pair of 37 and 30-yard field goals to cut the score to 17-6 early in the fourth quarter. However, the Jaguars would use a heavy dose of Maurice Jones-Drew to have time consuming drives that kept the Titans offense off the field. Jones-Drew finished the game with 31 carries for a career-high 186 yards to help the Jaguars preserve a 17-6 victory.

GAME 13 – Colts 30, Titans 28
Thursday, Dec. 9, 2010 • 7:20 CT • LP Field

The Titans played host to the divisional rival Colts on Thursday night, as both teams had to prepare for the AFC South matchup on a short week. The Colts got off to a hot start and jumped out to a 7-0 lead following a one-yard Javaris James touchdown run late in the first quarter. After a pair of Peyton Manning-to-Pierre Garcon touchdown passes, the second of which was set up after a bad snap on a punt attempt gave the Colts a short field, the Colts were up 21-0. The Titans fought back, and after Chris Johnson scored on a one-yard touchdown run, the halftime score was 21-7. The Titans scored on the opening drive of the second half, as Kerry Collins found Craig Stevens for a seven-yard score. After a pair of Adam Vinatieri field goals, Collins found Bo Scaife for a four-yard score and the game was 27-21 midway through the fourth quarter. Vinatieri would connect on his third field goal from 47 yards to make it a two-score game. The Titans would get on the scoreboard one more time, as Collins and Scaife would connect for their second score as time expired in a 30-28 Colts victory.

GAME 14 – Texans 17, Titans 31
Sunday, Dec. 19, 2010 • 12:00 CT • LP Field

Going into their home finale, the Titans were looking to end their six-game losing streak and avoid a season sweep by the Texans. The Titans got off to a fast start as they scored touchdowns on their first three possessions of the game, as Kerry Collins found Nate Washington and Justin Gage for three-yard and one-yard touchdown passes, respectively. Chris Johnson capped the Titans 21-0 first quarter with an 11-yard run to the end zone. Johnson would go on to gain 130 yards on 24 carries. The Texans managed to get on the board before halftime, as Neil Rackers connected on a 37-yard field goal in the second quarter, but the Titans responded late in the second quarter after an Alterraun Verner interception. Rob Bironas hit a 30-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to make it 24-3 at the break. Matt Schaub would do his best to lead a comeback as he threw for 325 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown to Andre Johnson in the third quarter, but Javon Ringer scored on a seven-yard run late in the quarter, making the score 31-10. Kevin Walter concluded the scoring with a four-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, but that wouldn't be enough as the Titans were victorious, 31-17.

GAME 15 – Titans 14, Chiefs 34
Sunday, Dec. 26, 2010 • 12:00 CT • Arrowhead Stadium

The Titans traveled to Arrowhead Stadium to take on the Chiefs, needing a win to keep their playoff hopes alive. The Chiefs got off to a fast start as they took the opening drive of the game down the field and capped it with a 14-yard touchdown reception by Jamaal Charles. Later in the first quarter, Matt Cassel found Charles again, this time for a five-yard touchdown pass. Chiefs kicker Ryan Succop connected on his first field goal of the game before Cassel found Dwayne Bowe for a 75-yard touchdown pass, putting the Chiefs out in front 24-0. The Titans would get on the board when Kerry Collins found Kenny Britt for a 53-yard touchdown strike. As the Titans tried to put more points on the board late in the first half, Eric Berry intercepted a Collins throw and returned it 54 yards for a touchdown making the score 31-7 at halftime. After another Succop field goal, this time from 42 yards, the Chiefs were up 34-7. The Titans would score again, as Collins found Jared Cook for a 22-yard touchdown, helping Cook finish the game with a team-best five receptions for 96 yards. That would prove to be the end of the scoring for the day, as the Chiefs clinched the AFC West Division with a 34-14 victory over the Titans.

GAME 16 – Titans 20, Colts 23
Sunday, Jan. 2, 2011 • 4:15 ET • Lucas Oil Stadium

Having already been eliminated from playoff contention, the Titans traveled to Indianapolis to play the division rival Colts in their season finale. Indianapolis got on the scoreboard first when Adam Vinatieri connected on a 48-yard field goal. The Titans quickly responded, as Rob Bironas connected on a 26-yard field goal. After the two teams traded field goals in the second quarter, the Colts brought an end to the first-half scoring when Peyton Manning found Reggie Wayne for a seven-yard touchdown to give the Colts a 13-6 halftime lead. The Titans got the second-half scoring started when Kerry Collins found Kenny Britt for a 21-yard touchdown. Pierre Garcon scored on a 30-yard touchdown pass from Manning later in the third quarter. The Titans again fought back to tie the game, this time at 20, when Collins found Chris Johnson for a 15-yard touchdown pass. With 1:46 to go in the game, the Titans forced the first turnover of the game as Sen'Derrick Marks stripped Dominic Rhodes and Michael Griffin recovered the loose ball and returned it to the Colts 37. As the Titans looked to be on the verge of attempting a game-winning field goal, Collins fumbled the second down snap and Robert Mathis recovered the ball for the Colts. Manning would engineer a late drive to set up Vinatieri's 43-yard field goal as time expired to give the Colts the 23-20 victory.

 HOMETOWN: YOUNGWOOD, PA. • BORN: SEPT. 27, 1927
 GAMES PLAYED: 340 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 1981

George Blanda, who came out of retirement with the emergence of the American Football League in 1960, was the offensive catalyst for the explosive Oiler squads of the early 1960s. He played quarterback and handled the placekicking chores in Columbia blue for seven of his NFL-record 26 seasons in the league. Blanda was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of those seven seasons and still owns franchise records for most extra points (299), most touchdown passes in a season (36) and most touchdown passes in a game (7). He is also third in points scored with 596. The 36 scoring tosses stood as an NFL record for an astounding 23 years. Blanda's NFL career records included most games (340), most points (2,002) and most extra points (943). He also passed for 236 touchdowns. Blanda captained the Oilers to two consecutive AFL titles in 1960 and 1961, earning AFL Player of the Year honors in 1961. Blanda's career was divided into three distinct parts, 10 years with the Chicago Bears, seven seasons with the Houston Oilers and nine years with the Oakland Raiders. In 1970, he became the oldest quarterback to play in a title game. He was just a month shy of his 49th birthday when he retired before the 1976 season. Blanda passed away at age 83 on Sept. 27, 2010.

Considered one of the best safeties in football history, Ken Houston picked off 49 passes (898 yards), recovered 21 fumbles and scored 12 touchdowns over his 14-season NFL career, earning Pro Bowl honors 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL). Houston returned an NFL-record nine interceptions for a touchdown in his six seasons as an Oiler. Four of those scores came in 1971, tying an NFL record. He returned two in one game against San Diego in the 1971 season finale, which also ties an NFL mark. His other three touchdowns came on a punt return, a fumble return and a blocked field goal return. Houston also holds the Oilers record for most career interception return yards with 650. With a long, fluid stride, Houston had excellent speed and quickness. His 6-3, 197-pound frame made him an ideal pass defender. Yet his lean, muscular body helped him to become a punishing tackler. Originally a ninth-round draft choice out of Prairie View A&M, Houston earned a starter's role by the third game of his rookie season. Two weeks later in a game against the New York Jets, he scored two touchdowns, one on a 71-yard blocked field goal attempt, and the other on a 43-yard interception return. After excelling for six years with the Oilers, Ken was traded to the Redskins for five veteran players in 1973. The Redskins once referred to Houston as "pro football's most underrated superstar," but his capabilities were widely recognized. He won all-league acclaim with the Oilers in 1969 and 1971, and then was either All-Pro or All-NFC with the Redskins every year from 1973 to 1979. He was selected for either the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl 12 straight seasons from 1968 through 1979. He played in 183 consecutive games before suffering a broken arm against the New York Giants Nov. 25, 1979.

Earl Campbell, a 5-11, 232-pound ball-carrying dynamo from the University of Texas, joined the Houston Oilers as the first player taken in the 1978 National Football League Draft. The first player to earn All-Southwest Conference honors four years, Campbell was a consensus All-America and the Heisman Trophy winner in 1977. Campbell took the NFL by storm from the outset. In 1978, he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player, All-Pro, and Rookie of the Year. He won the league rushing championship with a club-record 1,450 yards and was named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. It was more of the same the next two years with NFL rushing titles, MVP honors, and consensus All-Pro acclaim each season. He followed his rookie campaign with 1,697 yards in 1979, but his finest year came in 1980 when he rushed for 1,934 yards, which at the time was second only to O. J. Simpson's 2,003 yards gained in 1973. That year, Campbell gained over 200 yards in four games. In 1981, he won his fourth straight AFC rushing title with 1,376 yards. A sensational runner, Campbell was picked for the Pro Bowl five of his first six NFL seasons (1978-81, 1983). In his eight-year career, which finished in New Orleans, Campbell rushed 2,187 times for 9,407 yards, and 74 touchdowns, retiring as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher. He also gained 806 yards on 121 receptions to bring his career combined net yards total to 10,213. He set Oilers records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5). His most famous performance came in a Monday night game against Miami in his rookie season. That night, he rushed for 199 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Oilers to a spectacular 35-30 victory. In spite of the constant pounding he took from opposing defenders, Earl missed only six games out of 115 because of injuries. Midway into his seventh season, he was traded by the Oilers to the New Orleans Saints for a first-round draft pick. He played a season and a half with the Saints before retiring after the 1985 campaign. Campbell is one of just four people officially designated a Texas Legend by the Texas State Legislature. The others are Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin. Campbell was the only designee of the 20th century.

Charlie Joiner played 18 seasons in the NFL, including his first four with the Houston Oilers. One of the league's most prolific receivers, he amassed 750 career receptions for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns, ranking as the league's leading receiver of all-time when he retired at the age of 39 in 1986. His 18 seasons played were longer than any other wide receiver in history at the time of his retirement. The Oilers originally targeted Joiner for the defensive backfield when they picked the 5-11, 180-pounder from Grambling in the fourth round of the 1969 AFL-NFL Draft. Joiner played briefly on defense and the kickoff return team but soon became established as a premier pass catcher. Joiner caught 82 of his 750 career passes as an Oiler, totaling 1,480 yards and 12 touchdowns. He paced the squad with 681 yards and seven touchdown grabs in 1971. In his fourth season in 1972, Houston sent him to the Cincinnati Bengals in a four-player swap. Four years later in 1976, he was traded to San Diego. With the Chargers, Joiner blossomed into super-stardom. He and quarterback Dan Fouts formed a lethal pass-catch team that accounted for the preponderance of his 586 receptions as a Charger. During his 11 years in San Diego, Joiner caught 50 or more passes seven times and had 70 or more receptions three seasons. Injuries cut into his playing time at the beginning, but in a 193-game span over his final 13 seasons, Joiner missed only one game. He was an All-NFL pick in 1980 and a Pro Bowl choice three times. In the 1980 AFC title game, he led the Chargers with six receptions for 130 yards and two touchdowns. Blessed with excellent speed and tantalizing moves, Joiner averaged 16.2 yards per catch and accounted for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns. When he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996, Joiner ranked fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yardage on the NFL's all-time list. Joiner was once described by San Francisco 49ers coaching great Bill Walsh as "the most intelligent, the smartest, the most calculating receiver the game has ever known."

Mike Munchak was the eighth player overall and the first offensive lineman chosen in the 1982 National Football League draft. Selected by the Oilers, the former Penn State standout was an immediate success with the Houston club, earning the starting left guard spot in his first training camp. The 6-3, 281-pound lineman wasted little time establishing himself as one of the premier guards in the NFL. In 1984, in just his third year in the league, he was named to the first of seven All-AFC teams. That same year he received the first of nine Pro Bowl invitations. Not coincidentally, the Oilers' on-the-field successes increased as Munchak's development and experience increased. From their dismal 1-8 record in the strike-shortened 1982 season, the Oilers improved nearly every year that Munchak played. Along the way, the team advanced to the playoffs seven consecutive years (1987-1993) and captured the 1991 and 1993 AFC Central Divisional crowns. Munchak was a devastating blocker and considered the key to an offensive line that kept the Oilers at or near the top of the NFL's offensive statistical categories. In 1988 he led the Oilers' offensive line that gave up just 24 quarterback sacks which was third in the NFL. It was also the fewest sacks allowed by the team in 10 seasons. The following season the offensive line held opponents to no sacks in six games. In 1991, the Oilers offensive line finished second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in the fewest quarterback sacks allowed. Behind the Munchak-led line, Houston led the NFL in total offense in 1990 and passing offense in 1990 and 1991. The Oilers finished second in points scored in 1990 and second in total offense in 1991. Equally effective as a run blocker, Munchak led the Oilers offensive charge in 1993 as the team finished fourth in the NFL in both average gain per rushing play (4.4) and average gain per offensive play (5.3). Although he suffered from chronic knee problems, Munchak played in 159 regular season games. His 12 seasons with the Oilers tied him for second longest in the franchise's history at the time of his retirement. He became the first player inducted into the Hall of Fame who played his entire career with the Oilers. Long-time teammate Bruce Matthews presented Munchak for induction.

Defensive end Elvin Bethea, an eight-time Pro Bowl selection during his outstanding career with the Houston Oilers, was named to the five-man class of the 2003 Pro Football Hall of Fame that included running back Marcus Allen, guard Joe DeLamielleure, wide receiver James Lofton, and coach Hank Stram. A third-round draft pick in 1968 (77th player overall) Bethea played in 210 games over 16 seasons, never missing a game until breaking his arm on Nov. 13, 1977. He was considered a "steal" in a draft class that produced three future Hall of Fame players in Larry Csonka, Art Shell, and Ron Yary. When he retired, he held three team records relating to career service: most seasons (16), most career regular season games played (210), and most consecutive regular season games played (135). Having led the team in sacks in six seasons, Bethea's unofficial 105-career sack total still ranks first in franchise history, including his team-best 17 sacks in 1973. He recorded four sacks and a fumble recovery in his best single game performance against San Diego in 1976. He played in eight playoff games and posted 691 career tackles. Bethea also played in eight

Pro Bowls (1970, 1972-1976, 1979, 1980) and earned All-Pro second-team honors in 1973, 1975, 1978, and 1979. More than just a pass rusher, Bethea was also effective against the run. Even though 1974 was the first year such statistics were compiled by the Oilers, his 691 career tackles, are still among the best in franchise history, even excluding the first six years of his career. "When people ask me who the best guy I ever played against was I always tell them Elvin Bethea and Lyle Alzado because both of them were complete ballplayers," said Art Shell, Hall of Fame member of the Oakland Raiders. "Elvin was one of the quickest guys I've ever been around. We always had to double-team him. There were times when I was supposed to block him when he would get by me so quick. And then Gene Upshaw was supposed to pick him up and he also got by him so quick that we would get back to the huddle and Upshaw would say, 'Did you see that?' and I'd say, 'Yeah, I saw that. He just beat the heck out of me too!' Elvin was just a great player."

Warren Moon, the fourth leading passer in NFL history, was inducted into the 2006 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Moon played 10 years (1984-93) with the Oilers/Titans organization and holds the franchise records for passing yards (33,685) and touchdowns (196), while leading the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93. During a 17-year NFL career, Moon played for the Houston Oilers, Minnesota Vikings, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs and amassed 49,325 passing yards, 291 touchdowns and 102 wins. He earned nine Pro Bowl invitations (tied for the most by a quarterback with John Elway and Dan Marino), posted nine 3,000 yard seasons, 49 300-yard games and led his team to nine playoff appearances. His eight consecutive playoff berths matched a feat accomplished by Terry Bradshaw and Joe Montana. At the time of his retirement, he held the single-season passing yardage record for three different franchises: Oilers (4,367 in 1991), Vikings (4,364 in 1994) and Seahawks (3,678 in 1997). Moon tallied many accomplishments during his Oiler career. His finest season came in 1990, throwing for 4,689 yards (363 for 584) and 33 touchdowns in only 15 games. He earned AP

NFL Offensive Player of the Year for his efforts and his third of nine Pro Bowl invitations. Against Kansas City in 1990, Moon threw for 527 yards, which ranks as the second highest single-game total in NFL history (Norm Van Brocklin, 554 yards in 1951). In 1991, he surpassed the previous season's yardage total with 4,690 yards and became just the third player (Marino, Fouts) in NFL history to produce consecutive 4,000 yard passing seasons. Moon joined the Oilers and the NFL in 1984, after six seasons in the Canadian Football League, where he led his team to five Grey Cups (League Champions). In the CFL, Moon threw for 21,228 yards and 144 touchdowns. Moon was driven to play in the CFL after drawing little interest from the NFL as a starting quarterback following his senior season at the University of Washington. Moon became the first African-American quarterback to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and his legacy as a minority quarterback cannot be underestimated. At the time of his arrival in the NFL only two black quarterbacks had been significant starters for their NFL teams (Shack Harris, Rams; Doug Williams, Tampa Bay).

 NFL SEASONS: 19 • YEARS WITH OILERS: 19 (1983-2001)
 HOMETOWN: ARCADIA, CALIF. • BORN: AUGUST 8, 1961
 GAMES PLAYED: 296 • HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 2007

Arguably one of the best offensive linemen to ever play the game, Bruce Matthews became the first Tennessee Titan to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. At the time of his retirement, Matthews played in more NFL games (296) than any non-kicker in the league's history. Longevity and durability were his hallmarks, but that coupled with his unparalleled play, earning a league record 14 consecutive Pro Bowl (9 at guard and 6 at center) selections (tied with Merlin Olsen) and seven times named AP All-Pro, made him one of the all-time greats. He rose to the challenges presented to him in starting at every position on the offensive line during his NFL career (87 C, 99 LG, 67 RG, 22 RT, 17 LT). He becomes the first Hall of Fame offensive lineman to play significant time at all five offensive line positions. A constant for the Oilers/Titans franchise, Matthews started in a team record 229 consecutive games (streak started at Indianapolis, Nov. 29, 1987) and never missed a game because of injury. His 19 seasons also are a team record and he ranks second in NFL history for years with one team behind Jackie Slater, who spent 20 seasons with the Rams. Matthews and G Randall McDaniel (Vikings) were the only two NFL players to play in every game during the decade of the 90's. Matthews was a part of nearly one-half of the franchise's first 42-years of history and helped the team win 146 games, make the playoffs nine times, earn the only three AFC Central titles in team history, earn an AFC Championship and the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance. He blocked for 15 quarterbacks and 27 running backs, including five different 1,000-yard rushers (Earl Campbell, Mike Rozier, Lorenzo White, Gary Brown and Eddie George). During his career, he played in offenses that produced nine 1,000-yard rushing seasons and eight 3,000-yard passers. Additionally, he played in 42 different stadiums during his NFL career. During his career, Matthews blocked on a line that helped produce 65 100-yard rushing performances and 48 300-yard passing performances. Originally drafted by the Houston Oilers in the first round (ninth overall) of the 1983 NFL Draft, Matthews earned All-America honors at the University of Southern California. Matthews and his brother, Clay, each played 19 NFL seasons and the duo set an NFL record for games played by a pair of brothers with 574 games. Clay Matthews played in 278 games during his NFL career. Matthews had his number 74 jersey retired by the team and was inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame during a December, 2002 ceremony. Matthews joined a 2007 Hall of Fame class that included Dallas Cowboys WR Michael Irvin, Buffalo Bills RB Thurman Thomas, Detroit Lions TE Charlie Sanders, Cleveland Browns G Gene Hickerson, and St. Louis CB Roger Wehrli.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

In the history of the Oilers/Titans franchise, only six players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired — Jim Norton (No. 43), Elvin Bethea (No. 65), Earl Campbell (No. 34), Mike Munchak (No. 63), Bruce Matthews (No. 74), and Warren Moon (No. 1).

Jim Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the club record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton was tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

Elvin Bethea joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the 1968 season opener and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played stands third in team history. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea ranks second for most seasons played (16, 1968-83), while his 210 games played (1968-83) also stands second behind Bruce Matthews. Bethea led the team in sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 17 in 1973. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on Aug. 4, 1983. He became the sixth player in franchise history to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 3, 2003.

Earl Campbell, the franchise's second leading rusher and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was honored by having his number retired at ceremonies on Aug. 13, 1987. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He ranks second in franchise history in career rushing yards (8,574) and attempts (1,979), first in touchdown runs (73) and first in most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5).

Mike Munchak joined the Oilers as a first-round draft pick in 1982 out of Penn State. He was the first offensive lineman selected in the draft and the eighth overall selection. Munchak won the starting left guard position as a rookie and went on to play in 12 campaigns (1982-93) and 159 games (156 starts) for the Oilers. He is tied for third on the team's all-time list for seasons played and ranks fifth in games played. Munchak became a fixture on an offensive line that helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93). One of the premier guards in the National Football League, Munchak was selected to NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1980s and was chosen in 1989 to Oilers' 30th Anniversary "Dream Team." He ranks second in club annals with nine Pro Bowl selections, seven as a starter. Munchak announced his retirement on July 21, 1994, and on the same day, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announced that jersey No. 63 would be retired on "Mike Munchak Appreciation Day" on Nov. 6, 1994.

Bruce Matthews played in more games (296) than any non-kicker in NFL history. Longevity and durability were his hallmark. And that, coupled with his unparalleled play, in which he tied a league record with 14 Pro Bowl selections (tied with Merlin Olsen) and earned All-Pro honors six times, made him one of the all-time greats. He rose to the challenges presented to him in playing every position on the offensive line during his NFL career (87 at center, 99 at left guard, 67 at right guard, 22 at right tackle,

Warren Moon, the fourth leading passer in NFL history, played 10 years (1984-93) with the organization and holds the franchise records for passing yards (33,685) and touchdowns (196), while leading the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93. Moon's finest season came in 1990, throwing for 4,689 yards (363-for-584) and 33 touchdowns in only 15 games and becoming the third player in NFL history to produce consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons. He earned AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year for his efforts and his third Pro Bowl berth. His jersey was retired in a halftime ceremony in Nashville on Oct. 1, 2006.

TITANS/OILERS HALL OF FAME

In recognition of the 40th season of the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans organization, team owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. created an official team Hall of Fame, featuring players and staff from the past, while creating a special place for Titans stars of the future to be recognized. To date, nine individuals have been named to the franchise's Hall of Fame:

OILERS LOGO HISTORY

The original Oilers helmet, circa 1960, was blue with a white stripe down the middle. The oil derrick logo was also white. Although the derrick itself remained, many subtle changes were made to the helmets over the years. In 1964, two red stripes were added to the white striping on top of the helmet. Two years later, the helmet color was changed to silver with red and blue striping. The derrick, meanwhile, was changed to blue with a red outline and white background. In 1972, the helmet color was switched back to blue with red and white striping, while the derrick was changed to white with a red outline. Three years later, the helmet color was changed to its familiar white with red and blue striping. The derrick was then switched to blue with a red outline. The helmets boasted a gray facemask. In 1981, the facemask was switched to red. In 1997, the Oilers added the Tennessee logo to the back of their helmet upon their relocation to Nashville. In 1999, the franchise unveiled a new logo as the team was renamed the Tennessee Titans.

The original Houston Oilers helmet from 1960-65 was blue with a white stripe down the middle.

First Game . . . . . 9/12/99 — Tennessee 36, Cincinnati 35 (65,272)
Highlights: At LP Field, the Tennessee Titans have recorded a 62-38 home record, including an undefeated 9-0 home mark in 1999. Adelphia Coliseum, as the stadium was first named, opened its doors in the national spotlight with a pre-season victory over the Atlanta Falcons on Aug. 27, 1999, in which country music star Faith Hill sang the National Anthem. Tennessee opened the regular season with a come-from-behind 36-35 victory over Cincinnati. But the most memorable victory of the season came in a 22-16 Wild Card victory over Buffalo on Jan. 8, 2000. In that game, Kevin Dyson fielded a lateral pass from Frank Wycheck with 16 seconds left and raced 75 yards down the sideline for the winning score. That play, which propelled Tennessee into an AFC Divisional showdown at Indianapolis the following week, was immediately dubbed "The Music City Miracle" and will go down as one of the most memorable moments in NFL history. The Titans won 12 consecutive games to open their new stadium, breaking the NFL record. The Coliseum changed its name to LP Field on June 6, 2006, when the Titans reached a 10-year stadium naming rights agreement with Louisiana-Pacific Corporation.

1995

January 5 – Oilers announce that Jeff Fisher will remain as head coach, officially becoming the 15th head coach in franchise history.

January 17 – As his first hire, Fisher brings in Jerry Rhome under the title of Offensive Coordinator.

March 3 – The Oilers jump into the free-agent pool and sign the NFL's all-time leading kickoff returner, Mel Gray. Gray joins the Oilers after successful stints with the Detroit Lions and New Orleans Saints.

March 7 – The team announces five-year contract with KHTV/Channel 39 to broadcast Oilers' preseason games. The pact reunites the team and KHTV, which carried Oilers preseason action in '89.

March 23 – Houston lures in one of the most coveted unrestricted free agents by signing C Mark Stepnoski from the Dallas Cowboys.

March 28 – The Oilers sign veteran QB Chris Chandler from the Rams.

April 22 – With the third overall choice in the draft, Houston selects Alcorn State QB Steve McNair.

July 25 – QB Steve McNair signs contract at press conference held at Oilers' training camp.

August 11 – Tennessee newspaper reports that Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen is meeting with Oiler officials. Nashville is willing to build new stadium if it will attract a professional team. K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Bredesen execute an agreement that gives the City of Nashville a 70-day exclusive negotiating period with the Houston Oilers to build a stadium and relocate the team.

August 19 – Oilers-Chargers preseason game is canceled by NFL after field is deemed unplayable for safety reasons.

September 3 – The Oilers travel to Jacksonville and defeat the Jaguars 10-3 in the expansion team's inaugural game.

September 24 – QB Chris Chandler connects on 23 of 26 passes for 352 yards and four touchdowns, leading Oilers to a 38-28 win over the Bengals at Riverfront Stadium. Chandler's 88.46 completion percentage misses the NFL record by one completion. Chandler, who hooked up with rookie WR Chris Sanders on touchdown passes of 58 and 46 yards, is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week.

November 2 – Oilers' long-time equipment assistant Bill "Mojo" Lackey passes away after a massive stroke.

November 5 – Oilers win 37-10 over Browns and dedicate game to "Mojo" and his family. The win marks the Oilers' largest margin of victory at Cleveland since a 40-10 decision on Oct. 12, 1975.

November 12 – K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and the Oilers announce the establishment of the Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award, which would be given to the player, coach or front office staff member that best exemplifies the qualities of the former equipment assistant. A $10,000 check is given to the winner to be awarded to charity in his or her name.

November 16 – K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen sign a relocation agreement to move the Oilers the Tennessee.

December 14 – G Bruce Matthews, S Blaine Bishop, CB Darryll Lewis and C Mark Stepnoski are selected to the Pro Bowl. Matthews sets the Oiler mark for consecutive selections with his eighth consecutive Pro Bowl honor.

December 17 – Paul "Hoss" Noska, equipment assistant, is honored with the first Bill "Mojo" Lackey Memorial Award.

1996

March 26 – Oilers sign veteran WR Willie Davis from the Kansas City Chiefs.

April 20 – After trading down in the first round (from 9th to 17th) to acquire extra picks from Oakland, General Manager Floyd Reese and Head Coach Jeff Fisher execute a trade with the Seattle Seahawks to move back up to the 14th spot in the 1996 draft to select Heisman Trophy winner

Eddie George from Ohio State. Sent to the Seahawks in the trade was DT Glenn Montgomery.

April 30 – The National Football League approves the team's relocation to Nashville in a special owner's meeting held in Atlanta, Ga.

May 3 – Adding more weapons to the offense, the Oilers agree to terms with RB Ronnie Harmon from the San Diego Chargers.

May 7 – Voters of Davidson County in Nashville, Tenn., overwhelmingly approve a referendum held to decide on the use of public funding for a new downtown stadium.

October 20 – With a 22-yard field goal, K Al Del Greco sets the club record for most career field goals, surpassing K Tony Zendejas (117).

October 27 – Del Greco kicks the longest field goal in team history with a 56-yarder at the end of the first half versus the 49ers.

November 17 – In a clash with the Miami Dolphins, G Bruce Matthews becomes the Oilers' all-time leader in games played with his 211th contests, breaking Elvin Bethea's mark of 210. Matthews would go on to also set the team marks for most consecutive games played and started.

December 12 – G Bruce Matthews, S Blaine Bishop, C Mark Stepnoski and ST player John Henry Mills are selected to the Pro Bowl. Matthews extends the Oiler mark for consecutive selections (9) and ties G Mike Munchak for most overall selections (9).

December 15 – Oilers play their final game in Houston with a 21-13 loss to the Cincinnati Bengals in the Astrodome.

December 22 – RB Eddie George finishes the 1996 season with 1,368 yards rushing en route to Rookie of the Year accolades. In addition, George's ground totals were only 82 yards shy of RB Earl Campbell's rookie record of 1,450. On this day, George would also help the Oilers to a 24-21 win over the Baltimore Ravens for a franchise-best 6-2 road record.

1997

January 1 – The team promotes linebackers coach Gregg Williams to defensive coordinator.

January 3 – After relieving Jerry Rhome of his duties, the Oilers make wide receivers coach Les Steckel the team's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach.

McNAIR AND GEORGE

First round draft picks in consecutive years, QB Steve McNair (drafted in 1995) and RB Eddie George (drafted in 1996) became the centerpieces of a team that advanced to the playoffs in four of five years (1999, 2000, 2002, 2003). From 1997, McNair's first season as a starter, until Eddie George's final season as a Titan in 2003, the two combined to pull the franchise to new heights, including the team's first Super Bowl appearance (XXXIV). The duo started in the same backfield 107 times during their seven seasons together and posted a 67-40 record (.626 winning percentage) in those games, and 5-4 in postseason. The 2003 season would be memorable for both as McNair was named Co-MVP of the NFL, becoming only the franchise's second player to garner the honor (Campbell in 1979) and George became the franchise's all-time leading rusher, passing Earl Campbell and becoming only the 17th running back to reach 10,000 career rushing yards. Each player personified toughness with legendary stories told of McNair returning from injuries to lead his team to victory and George never missing a start in his eight year franchise career - 128 games - which represented the most consecutive starts in NFL history for a running back to start a career.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

February 24 – Oilers trade QB Chris Chandler to the Atlanta Falcons for two 1997 draft choices (4th and 6th).

May 3 – City of Nashville holds ground-breaking ceremonies for the team's downtown stadium.

May 8 – After formulating an agreement earlier with Harris County (Houston), K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Astrodome USA owner Drayton McLane, Jr. reach a settlement for the final year of Oilers' lease at the Astrodome. Under appointed mediator Alice Oliver Parrott, the two sides clear the biggest step in the team's ability to play games in Tennessee for the 1997 season.

June 5 – Oilers reach agreement with Memphis Sports Authority, clearing the way for the team to play its games in the Liberty Bowl.

June 12 – Oilers hold press conference in Nashville to formally announce the club's intention to play the 1997 season in Tennessee, and introduce an inaugural patch and logo which merges the Oilers traditional "Oil derrick" with the Tennessee state flag.

July 18 – Oilers players report to Tennessee State University for their first training camp in the state of Tennessee. Also, Oilers sign DE Kenny Holmes, 1997 first-round selection, to a four-year contract.

July 19 – Oilers sign GM Floyd Reese to a four-year extension running through 2001 season.

August 2 – Oilers play first preseason game of 1997 season at Liberty Bowl in Memphis, falling to the New Orleans Saints 21-12.

August 9 – Oilers play their first ever game at Vanderbilt Stadium, an 18-12 preseason loss to the Washington Redskins.

August 15 – Oilers move into their temporary training facility in Bellevue.

August 23 – Oilers promote Don MacLachlan to Executive Vice President of Marketing, Broadcasting, and Ticketing.

August 27 – Oilers sign free agent SS Blaine Bishop.

August 31 – Oilers open their inaugural season in the state of Tennessee with a 24-21 overtime win over the Oakland Raiders at Liberty Bowl. RB Eddie George ties Billy Cannon's franchise record for rushing yards in a game with 216 yards on 35 carries. With the game-winning field goal in overtime, K Al Del Greco becomes the Oilers all-time points leader, surpassing George Blanda's total of 596 points.

George posts a record game against Oakland in the 1997 regular season opener

October 27 – In their first-ever trip to Arizona, the Oilers defeat the Cardinals 41-14.

November 27 – Oilers defeat Dallas 27-14 on Thanksgiving Day in front of a national-television audience. It marked the first regular season game in Texas for the Oilers since their move to Tennessee.

December 11 – G Bruce Matthews, RB Eddie George, and SS Blaine Bishop are selected to the Pro Bowl. Matthews extends the mark for consecutive selections (10) and surpasses G Mike Munchak for most overall selections (9).

December 14 – Oilers fall to the Baltimore Ravens 21-19 in the final game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. It marked the second time the Oilers closed the stadium, because on Dec. 18, 1983, the Oilers played at the Baltimore Colts in what would be their final game in Baltimore.

December 21 – Oilers close their inaugural season in Tennessee with an 8-8 record after a 16-6 win over Pittsburgh in Memphis.

HOUSTON OILERS TO TENNESSEE TITANS

After trying unsuccessfully for many years to construct a deal with the city of Houston for a new football or multi-use stadium, Oilers owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. decided that moving his franchise to another city might be the only solution left to keep the team financially competitive. In the spring of 1995, research was completed and several cities were identified as desirable for relocation and at the top of the list was Nashville, Tenn. In the summer of 1995, Adams contacted Nashville's mayor, Phil Bredesen, to see if the city would be interested in having the team relocate to the region. A 70-day exclusive negotiating period was agreed to and in November the two had signed a relocation agreement that would bring the Oilers to Nashville. In April of 1996, the NFL approved the team's relocation and on May 7th, the voters of Davidson County approved a referendum on using public funding for the new downtown stadium. Dec. 15, 1996 would mark the Oilers final home game at the Astrodome in Houston – a 21-13 loss to Cincinnati in front of 15,131 fans. In May of 1997, the team reached a settlement with the Astrodome that let them escape the final year of the contract and allowing the team to play the 1997 season in Tennessee. With the new stadium in Nashville still two years from completion, the team decided to play at Memphis' Liberty Bowl until the stadium was complete. The Tennessee Oilers opened their inaugural season in the state of Tennessee with a 24-21 overtime win over the Oakland Raiders at the Liberty Bowl in front only 30,000 fans. The Oilers struggled with low attendance throughout the 1997 season and by March of 1998, the Oilers reached an agreement to play the 1998 season at Vanderbilt Stadium in Nashville. Crowds at Vanderbilt Stadium were an improvement from the previous year, but the team could only muster a 3-5 home mark. During the 1998 season, Adams announced the Oilers name would be retired and the team would be renamed the Titans as they entered their new stadium for the 1999 season. In April of 1999, the team unveiled their new Titans uniforms and in August the team played its first game at the new Adelphia Coliseum (in 2002 Adelphia's name is removed and in 2006 it is named LP Field). The 1999 season ends with the franchise's first Super Bowl berth in the team's 40-year history. A total of 20 players endured the entire odyssey of playing in Houston in 1996, Memphis in 1997, Vanderbilt in 1998 and LP Field in 1999.

HOME SWEET HOME

The newly-named Tennessee Titans opened their new stadium, Adelphia Coliseum (later to be named LP Field) with the regular season opener on Sept. 12, 1999 against the Cincinnati Bengals. The back and forth game would end with the Titans hanging on for a 36-35 win. The win would start a historic streak of 12 consecutive wins to open the new stadium. The 12 consecutive wins were the most in the modern era for a new stadium (Texas Stadium, 9 wins in 1971) and one short of the all-time record by the Buffalo Americans in 1920. The Titans first loss in their new home would come against the Baltimore Ravens on Nov. 12, 2000. The winning streak actually began in the spring of 1998, when a devastating tornado ripped through Nashville, but only gave a glancing blow to the under construction stadium and sparing it from destruction.

September 7 – On the same day Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. is added to the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame, he unveils a Titans/Oilers Ring of Honor at LP Field during the season opener against Jacksonville. The initial members of the Ring of Honor include Adams, Elvin Bethea, George Blanda, Earl Campbell, Mike Holovak, Ken Houston, Mike Munchak, Jim Norton, Warren Moon and Bruce Matthews.

September 21 – Cornerback Cortland Finnegan sets a club record with a 99-yard INT return for a TD in a win against the Houston Texans.

September 28 – A 30-17 victory over the Minnesota Vikings at LP Field gives the Titans four consecutive wins to open the season for the first time in franchise history.

October 19 – In a 34-10 victory at Kansas City, the Titans set a franchise rushing record with 332 rushing yards, including 168 yards by Chris Johnson and 149 yards by LenDale White.

October 27 – At halftime of a Monday night game against the Colts at LP Field, the Titans induct Steve McNair, Eddie George and Frank Wycheck to the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame and the Ring of Honor.

November 2 – On a day in which the Titans win in overtime against the Green Bay Packers, the club celebrates its 100th consecutive sellout at LP Field, including every preseason, regular season and playoff game from the time the stadium opened in 1999.

November 16 – With a 24-14 win at Jacksonville, the Titans win their 10th consecutive game to open the 2008 season and their 13th consecutive regular season game dating back to the last three regular season games of 2007.

November 27 – At Detroit on Thanksgiving, the Titans defeat the Lions 47-10, the team's seventh-highest margin of victory of all-time and Detroit's highest margin of defeat on Thanksgiving.

December 7 – The Titans clinch the AFC South title with a 28-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns at LP Field. It is the ninth division crown in club history.

December 16 – Six Titans are selected to the Pro Bowl – center Kevin Mawae, left tackle Michael Roos, running back Chris Johnson, defensive tackle Albert Haynesworth, safety Chris Hope and cornerback Cortland Finnegan. Additionally, quarterback Kerry Collins and safety Michael Griffin are named to the roster at a later date as alternates.

December 31 – The Titans defeat the Pittsburgh Steelers 31-14 to secure home-field advantage throughout the AFC Playoffs and tie the franchise record for most regular season wins (13).

2009

February 1 – Nancy Adams, co-owner, vice chairman of the board and wife of K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., passes away in Houston at the age of 84.

OVERTIME CAPSULES

*December 23, 1962 - Dallas 20, at Houston 17: Texans win the toss but elect to kick. Each team gets three cracks at winning the game in the first overtime before K Tommy Brooker's championship-winning 25-yard field goal at 12:06 of the second OT.

October 30, 1977 - at Cincinnati 13, Houston 10: Bengals win the toss. QB Ken Anderson's 17-yard completion to WR Billy Brooks is the long play prior to K Chris Bahr's winning 22-yard field goal at 5:51 of OT.

September 23, 1979 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Oilers win the toss. On opening series, Bengals force Cliff Parsley punt. Cincinnati drives to Oilers' 14-yard line, but K Chris Bahr misses a 32-yard field goal attempt. Houston again has to punt on its ensuing series. The Oiler defense then forces a punt by the Bengals' Pat McInally. Houston takes over on the Cincinnati 42. RB Earl Campbell's 15-yard run is the long play prior to K Toni Fritsch's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:28 of OT.

October 28, 1979 - at Houston 27, N.Y. Jets 24: Oilers win the toss. QB Dan Pastorini's 22-yard completion to FB Rob Carpenter is the long play as Oilers drive 58 yards. K Toni Fritsch kicks the winning 35-yard field goal at 5:10 of OT.

November 23, 1980 - at N.Y. Jets 31, Houston 28: Jets win the toss. A personal foul on Houston's Guido Merkens on the kickoff gives New York possession at the Jets' 40-yard line. QB Richard Todd's 17-yard screen pass to RB Bobby Harper is the long play prior to K Pat Leahy's winning 38-yard field goal at 3:58 of OT.

September 4, 1983 - Green Bay 41, at Houston 38: Packers win the toss. RB Eddie Lee Ivery's 12-yard run is the long play as Packers drive 59 yards. K Jan Stenerud kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 5:55 of OT.

October 23, 1983 - Kansas City 13, at Houston 10: Chiefs win the toss. QB Bill Kenney's 20-yard completion to WR Stephone Paige is the long play as Chiefs drive 60 yards. K Nick Lowery kicks the winning 41-yard field goal at 7:41 of OT.

October 30, 1983 - at Cleveland 25, Houston 19: Oilers win the toss. Browns' defense forces a John James punt. Houston defense does the same to Cleveland as Jeff Gossett punts on ensuing series. Oiler QB Gifford Nielsen's pass is intercepted by Cleveland S Mike Whitwell and returned 15 yards to the Houston 20-yard line. On the next play, RB Boyce Green scores a touchdown on a 20-yard run at 6:34 of OT.

December 2, 1984 - at Houston 23, Pittsburgh 20: Oilers win the toss. QB Warren Moon's 19-yard completion to WR Steve Bryant is the long play as Oilers drive 63 yards. K Joe Cooper kicks the winning 30-yard field goal at 5:53 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - Pittsburgh 22, at Houston 16: Oilers win the toss. Steelers' defense forces a Lee Johnson punt that is returned 41 yards to the Oilers' 15-yard line by Pittsburgh's Rick Woods. Two plays later, RB Walter Abercrombie runs three yards for winning touchdown at 2:35 of OT.

November 30, 1986 - at Cleveland 13, Houston 10: Oilers win the toss but elect to kickoff (18-25 MPH winds). Oilers' defense forces a Jeff Gossett punt. QB Oliver Luck, replacing an injured Warren Moon, leads the Oilers to the Cleveland 31-yard line, but then is intercepted by CB Frank Minnifield at the Browns' 21. Again Houston's defense puts the Browns in a punting situation. Once again, Minnifield picks off a Luck pass, returning it to the Oilers' 37. FB Kevin Mack's seven-yard run and QB Bernie Kosar's seven-yard pass to WR Brian Brennan are the long plays prior to K Mark Moseley's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:44 of OT.

**January 3, 1988 - at Houston 23, Seattle 20: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Ruben Rodriguez punt. QB Warren Moon's 15-yard pass to WR Drew Hill is the long play as the Oilers drive 61 yards. K Tony Zendejas kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 8:05 of OT.

September 4, 1988 - Houston 17, at Indianapolis 14: Colts win the toss. On the opening series, QB Gary Hogeboom completes a screen pass to RB Eric Dickerson, but Oiler LB John Grimsley forces a fumble which is recovered by LB Robert Lyles on the Colts' 42-yard line. QB Cody Carlson, subbing for injured Warren Moon, completes a 21-yard pass to WR Ernest Givins for the long play prior to K Tony Zendejas' 35-yard field goal at 3:51 of OT.

September 24, 1989 - Buffalo 47, at Houston 41: Oilers win the toss. Houston takes over on its own 19-yard line and advances to the Buffalo 20 thanks to QB Warren Moon's 32-yard completion to FB Alonzo Highsmith, plus a 17-yard run by Moon and an 11-yarder by Highsmith. K Tony Zendejas attempts a 37-yard field goal, but it is wide left. The Bills assume possession on their own 20 and move 80 yards in seven plays. A 21-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-TE Pete Metzelaars pass precedes the game-winning 28-yard TD catch by WR Andre Reed at 8:42 of OT.

**December 31, 1989 - Pittsburgh 26, at Houston 23: Steelers win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Harry Newsome punt as Houston takes over on its own 45-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White fumbles on the first play as CB Rod Woodson recovers for the Steelers on the Houston 46. RB Merrill Hoge's 11-yard run helps Pittsburgh advance to the Oiler 33 before Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal (his 4th of the game) to win the game at 3:26 of OT.

December 2, 1990 - at Seattle 13, Houston 10: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Rick Donnelly punt as Houston takes over on its own 23-yard line. Oiler WR Bernard Ford fumbles on the first play as LB David Wyman recovers for the Seahawks on the Houston 27. Seattle FB John L. Williams rushes twice for a total of three yards before Norm Johnson kicks a 42-yard field goal to win the game at 4:25 of OT.

November 3, 1991 - at Washington 16, Houston 13: Redskins win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Kelly Goodburn punt as Houston takes over on its own 31-yard line. Oiler QB Warren Moon is intercepted on the second play by CB Darrell Green with Washington taking over on Houston's 33. RB Earnest Byner carries three times for a total of nine yards before Chip Lohmiller kicks a 41-yard field goal to win the game at 4:01 of OT.

November 10, 1991 - at Houston 26, Dallas 23: Oilers win the toss. Cowboys' defense forces a Greg Montgomery punt as Dallas takes over on its own 24-yard line. The Cowboys move to the Oiler 24-yard line where they have a first down following a Houston holding penalty. Dallas RB Emmitt Smith gains seven yards but fumbles after a hit by LB Lamar Lathon, with Oiler S Bo Orlando recovering at the Houston 15. The Oilers then embark on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in which QB Warren Moon completes all seven of his passes for 70 yards. On second down, K Al Del Greco kicks a 23-yard field goal at 14:31 of OT.

September 20, 1992 - at Houston 23, Kansas City 20: Chiefs win the toss. On the third play of OT, Kansas City WR J.J. Birden fumbles after a hit by Houston CB Cris Dishman with DT Doug Smith recovering the ball at the Chief's 23-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White runs once for two yards before K Al Del Greco boots the game-winning 39-yard field goal at 1:55 of OT.

**January 3, 1993 - at Buffalo 41, Houston 38: Oilers win the toss. On third-and-three from Houston's 27-yard line, QB Warren Moon is intercepted by Buffalo CB Nate Odomes, who returns the ball to the Oiler 35. On the return, Houston WR Haywood Jeffires is penalized for a face mask infraction, which moves the ball to the Oilers' 20. After a pair of Kenneth Davis runs net six yards, K Steve Christie kicks a 32-yard field goal to win the game at 3:06 of OT.

November 6, 1994 - Pittsburgh 12, at Houston 9: Steelers win the toss. Both teams exchange five punts before the Oilers gain possession on their 12-yard line with 4:30 left in the extra period. On the first play from scrimmage, RB Gary Brown scoots up the middle for 8 yards before being hit by CB Rod Woodson. He fumbles and the Steelers take over at the Oilers 22-yard line. Two plays later, K Gary Anderson hits from 40 yards out for the winning score at 3:36 of OT.

October 8, 1995 - at Minnesota 23, Houston 17: Vikings win the toss. The Vikings move the ball to their 38-yard line but are forced to punt. Minnesota P Mike Saxon then pins the Oilers in at their 8-yard line with a 54-yard boot. On his third carry of overtime, RB Rodney Thomas scampers 27 yards to give the Oilers a first down at their 35. QB Will Furrer, who replaced Chris Chandler after he injured his shoulder while being sacked on the Oilers' last offensive series in the fourth quarter, is intercepted on his second pass attempt by CB Dewayne Washington (25-yard return). RB Robert Smith takes his third consecutive carry of OT 20 yards for the winning score with 7:10 gone in the extra stanza.

October 6, 1996 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Bengals win the toss. The Bengals go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Oilers the ball inside their own 20-yard line. On second down at the Oilers' 16-yard line, QB Chris Chandler connects with WR Willie Davis on a 37-yard pass to move into Cincinnati territory. Six plays later, K Al Del Greco hits from 49 yards out for the winning score at 4:22 of OT.

August 31, 1997 - at Tennessee 24, Oakland 21: Oilers win the toss. Oilers go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Raiders the ball at their own 33-yard line. The Raiders also go three-and-out and punt the ball to the Oilers. Tennessee takes over the ball at its own 35-yard line. On second-and-eight, QB Steve McNair connects with Frank Wycheck for 21 yards to the Raiders 42-yard line. Again on second down, McNair finds Wycheck, this time for 10 yards to the Raiders 32-yard line. On the next play, McNair scrambles for an 11-yard gain. RB Eddie George gains six yards before Al Del Greco hits the game-winner from 33 yards away with 8:03 left on the clock in overtime. The win is the Oilers first since relocating to Tennessee from Houston.

September 7, 1997 - at Miami 16, Tennessee 13: Dolphins win the toss. The Oilers kick to Dolphin return man Irving Spikes, who returns the kickoff 48 yards to the Oilers 45-yard line. On second down, Dan Marino hits RB Bernie Parmalee for a 16-yard gain. Again on second down, Marino connects with Fred Barnett for a 9-yard gain. On the play, Oiler DB Tomur Barnes was flagged for an unnecessary roughness penalty which moved the ball to the Oilers 11-yard line. On the next play, Olindo Mare knocks home a 29-yard field goal with 12:45 remaining in overtime.

September 10, 2000 - at Tennessee 17, Kansas City 14: Titans win the toss. The Chiefs kick to Derrick Mason, who returns the kick 28 yards to the Tennessee 29-yard line. A face mask penalty moves the ball to the 34-yard line. On third-and-eight, QB Neil O'Donnell passes to Kevin Dyson for 27 yards. A 26-yard pass to Frank Wycheck on the next play is negated by a holding penalty. Eddie George then rushes 29 yards to the Kansas City 18-yard line. On the next play, Al Del Greco kicks a 36-yard field goal with 12:02 remaining in overtime.

October 14, 2001 - at Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 28: Buccaneers win the toss. Tennessee's defense forces a punt. Tampa Bay kicks to Joe Walker, who returns the kick eight yards to Tampa Bay's 46. Steve McNair passes to Drew Bennett for 14 yards. Eddie George rushes for one yard. McNair pass is incomplete to Kevin Dyson. George rushes up middle for minus one yard. Joe Nedney kicks a 49-yard field goal with 13:08 remaining in overtime.

September 22, 2002 - Cleveland 31, at Tennessee 28: Browns win the toss. Joe Nedney kicks ball into end zone for touchback. Jamel White rushes for six yards to Cleveland 26. Tim Couch passes to Jamel White for -1 yard to Cleveland 25. Couch passes for 10 yards to Quincy Morgan to Cleveland 35. White rushes off-tackle for 12 yards to Cleveland 47.

Couch passes to Andre Davis for 31 yards to Tennessee 22. White rushes off tackle for five yards, then off left guard for two yards to Tennessee 15. Phil Dawson kicks a 33-yard field goal with 10:51 remaining in overtime.

December 1, 2002 - Tennessee 32, at N.Y. Giants 29: Giants win toss. Joe Nedney kicks off to Delvin Joyce, who returns the kickoff 38 yards to the New York 40. Kerry Collins passes to Ron Dixon for 14 yards to Tennessee 46. Tiki Barber rushes around the left side for two yards to Tennessee 44. Collins passes for 12 yards to Tennessee 32, but offensive pass interference is called on Amani Toomer, placing ball at New York 46. Collins passes incomplete to Barber. Collins sacked by Carlos Hall at New York 46. Matt Allen punts 34 yards to Tennessee 20. Steve McNair passes for 12 yards to Drew Bennett to Tennessee 32. McNair passes incomplete to Derrick Mason. McNair passes 23 yards to John Simon to New York 45. McNair passes 12 yards to Mason to New York 33. Robert Holcombe runs off right guard for 14 yards to New York 19. Holcombe rushes off left guard for minus 1 yard. Joe Nedney kicks 38-yard field goal with 10:00 remaining in overtime.

***January 11, 2003 - at Tennessee 34, Pittsburgh 31: Titans win the toss. Jeff Reed kicks off to John Simon, who returns kickoff 21 yards to Tennessee 31. Steve McNair passes incomplete to Robert Holcombe. McNair passes for 31 yards to Justin McCareins to Pittsburgh 38. McNair passes for 22 yards to Justin McCareins to Pittsburgh 16. Holcombe rushes up the middle for three yards to Pittsburgh 13. Joe Nedney connects on 31-yard field goal, but Pittsburgh calls timeout just before ball is snapped, so play does not count. Nedney then misses 31-yard field goal wide-right, but Dewayne Washington is flagged for roughing the kicker. Nedney makes good on 26-yard field goal with 12:49 remaining in overtime.

November 14, 2004 - Chicago 19, at Tennessee 17: Bears win the toss and control the ball at their own 26-yard line. They advance to the Chicago 48 before punting to the Tennessee 9. Billy Volek, who started at quarterback for an injured Steve McNair (sternum), throws an incomplete pass and then is sacked for a four-yard loss. On third down, Volek is sacked in the end zone by Adewale Ogunleye and fumbles. The ball is recovered in the end zone by Titans right tackle Fred Miller, who is tackled in the end zone for a safety. It is the first overtime game to end in a safety since Nov. 5, 1989, when Minnesota beat the L.A. Rams, 23-21.

December 10, 2006 - Tennessee 26, at Houston 20: Titans win the toss. Kris Brown kicks off to Pacman Jones, who returns it 36 yards to Tennessee's 43. Travis Henry rushes for one yard to Tennessee 44. Vince Young passes incomplete to Drew Bennett, but Houston is penalized for defensive holding, giving Titans a first down at the Tennessee 49. Chris Brown rushes up the middle for 16 yards to Houston's 35-yard line. Chris Brown is stopped for no gain, but Tennessee is penalized for offensive holding, moving ball to Houston's 45. Chris Brown rushes for five yards to Houston's 40. Vince Young passes to Ahmard Hall for one yard to Houston's 39. On 3rd-and-14, Vince Young drops back, then scrambles up the middle 39 yards for the game-winning touchdown with 11:24 remaining in overtime.

December 9, 2007 - San Diego 23, at Tennessee 17: Chargers win the toss. Rob Bironas kicks off into end zone for touchback. Chargers drive to their own 47-yard line. M. Scifres punts 51 yards to Tennessee 2. LenDale White carries for 3 and 5 yards, but an incompleteness on third down forces a punt. Craig Hentrich punts 57 yards to San Diego 38. After consecutive Tomlinson carries, Rivers passes for 11 yards to Antonio Gates to Tennessee 31. Tomlinson runs three yards to Tennessee 28. Rivers passes for 12 yards to Vincent Jackson to Tennessee 16. Tomlinson runs for game-winning 16-yard touchdown with 7:35 remaining in overtime.

November 2, 2008 - at Tennessee 19, Green Bay 16: Tennessee wins the toss. Mason Crosby kicks off to Chris Carr, who returns the kickoff 23 yards to the Tennessee 22. On third-and-six from the Tennessee 26, Kerry Collins passes to Chris Johnson for 16 yards. Johnson then gains 14 yards on a carry. September 9, 2009 - at Pittsburgh 13, Tennessee 10: Pittsburgh wins the toss. Rob Bironas kicks off to Stefan Logan, who returns the kick to the 24-yard line. The Steelers pick up first downs on an 11-yard reception by Hines Ward and a two-yard run by Mewelde Moore. On third-and-one at the Tennessee 48-yard line, quarterback Ben Roethlisberger completes an 11-yard pass to Santonio Holmes. From the Tennessee 37, Roethlisberger finds Mike Wallace for a 22-yard reception. Jeff Reed makes a 33-yard field goal to win the game with 10:28 on the clock.

OVERTIME HISTORY

December 20, 2009 – at Tennessee 27, Miami 24: Miami wins the toss. After a 23-yard kickoff return by Ted Ginn, quarterback Chad Henne finds fullback Lousaka Polite for a four-yard completion. A pass attempt on second down falls incomplete. On third-and-six from the Miami 27, Henne's pass intended for Davone Bess is intercepted by Titans safety Michael Griffin at the Miami 45. A three-yard return is followed by a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on Miami receiver Greg Camarillo. After three running plays by the Titans netting minus-one yard, Rob Bironas kicks a 46-yard field goal to win the game.

November 21, 2010 – Washington 19, at Tennessee 16: Titans win the toss. Graham Gano kicks off to Marc Mariani, who returns the ball 30 yards to the 33-yard line. After a 15-yard run by Chris Johnson, Johnson is stopped for no gain, and Rusty Smith throws two incomplete passes. Brett Kern punts to Brandon Banks, who calls for fair catch at the 13-yard line. Donovan McNabb completes a 26-yard pass to Chris Cooley. On second-and-22 from the 27, McNabb is intercepted by Alterraun Verner. However, the pass is ruled incomplete after a replay review, and an unnecessary roughness penalty on Tennessee's Jason Babin is enforced, providing a first down at the 42. A roughing the passer penalty is called on Will Witherspoon. McNabb completes a 10-yard pass to Santana Moss. On second-and-nine from the Tennessee 30, Verner is called for illegal contact. Four plays later, Gano wins the game on a 43-yard field goal with 8:17 remaining in overtime.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 1960 Houston 24, Los Angeles Chargers 16 January 1, 1961 • Jeppesen Stadium

One sensational play by rookie halfback Billy Cannon, the previous season's Heisman Trophy winner, was the difference, as the Houston Oilers defeated the Los Angeles Chargers 24-16 in the first AFL Championship game. The Chargers took the early lead on two field goals by Ben Agajanian, but QB George Blanda brought the Oilers back, throwing a 17-yard touchdown pass to Dave Smith and kicking an 18-yard field goal, which put Houston ahead 10-9 at halftime. The teams exchanged touchdowns in the third quarter, with Blanda throwing a seven-yard scoring pass to Bill Groman and Chargers halfback Paul Lowe pounding over from the 2. Protecting a one-point lead in the fourth quarter and facing a third-and-nine at the Houston 12, Blanda threw a short pass to Cannon, who broke a tackle and outran the Chargers' secondary to complete an 88-yard scoring play. In the final minute of the game, the Chargers drove down the field, reaching the Houston 22. However, the Oilers held on fourth down for the title.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 1961 Houston 10, San Diego Chargers 3 Dec. 24, 1961 • Balboa Stadium

The Houston Oilers defeated the San Diego Chargers 10-3 to win their second consecutive AFL title. In a game marked by turnovers, Houston had seven and San Diego six. The only score of the first half came on a 46-yard field goal by George Blanda, which followed a nine-yard San Diego punt. In the third quarter, the Oilers put together the only sustained drive of the game, moving 80 yards. With a third-and-five at the San Diego 35, Blanda rolled to his right and found Billy Cannon open at the 17. Cannon jumped to make the catch, shrugged off a would-be tackler, and motored into the end zone for a touchdown that put Houston up 10-0. The Chargers scored early in the fourth quarter on a 12-yard field goal by George Blair, but they could not get on the scoreboard again.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 1962
Dallas 20, Houston 17 (2 OT)
Dec. 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium

In what was at the time the longest game in the history of professional football, the Dallas Texans dethroned the two-time defending AFL champion Houston Oilers when Tommy Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal after 2:54 of the sixth quarter, or 17:54 of sudden-death overtime. The Texans led 17-0 after two quarters, but the Oilers, tied it up with 17 second-half points. The overtime started with a potentially damaging gaffe by Dallas captain Abner Haynes, who had already scored twice, but who won the toss and then elected to 'kick to the clock'. What Haynes wanted was the strong wind behind his team, but, by saying kick first, it gave the Oilers the chance to decide which end to take, and they, needless to say, chose to have the wind behind them. As it turned out, it didn't matter. After an interception near the end of the first overtime period, the Texans took over. Two big plays by fullback Jack Spikes put the ball at the Houston 19, and, on fourth-and-nine, Brooker ended the contest.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 1967
Oakland 40, Houston 7
Dec. 31, 1967 • Alameda County Coliseum

Big plays before and after halftime broke open a tight game, as the Raiders won their first AFL title with a 40-7 victory against Houston. The Raiders led 10-0 in the final minutes of the half, the big play a 69-yard touchdown run by Hewritt Dixon. The Raiders lined up for a field goal attempt from the Houston 17, but instead quarterback Daryle Lamonica took the snap and threw to a wide open Dave Kocourek for a touchdown with 18 seconds remaining to build the lead to 17-0. The Oilers hoped for a big play to open the second half, and they got it, but it was in favor of the Raiders. Zeke Moore fumbled the kickoff and Oakland recovered deep in Houston territory, leading to Lamonica's one-yard quarterback sneak. In the next two quarters, George Blanda kicked three field goals, to give him 16 points for the day, and Lamonica threw a touchdown pass to Bill Miller.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFL PLAYOFF GAME – 1969
Oakland 56, Houston 7
Dec. 21, 1969 • Alameda County Coliseum

Oakland scored four touchdowns in 4:22 of the first quarter, as the Raiders jumped to a quick 28-0 lead on the way to a 56-7 victory over the Oilers. The key figure was quarterback Daryle Lamonica, who threw six touchdown passes. On their second possession, the Raiders moved 50 yards in five plays, with Lamonica throwing a 13-yard scoring pass to Fred Biletnikoff. On the first play after the kickoff, George Atkinson intercepted Pete Beathard's pass and returned it 57 yards for a score. The Oilers again lost the ball the first play after the kickoff, as Hoyle Granger fumbled and Carleton Oats recovered at the Houston 24. On first down, Lamonica hit Rod Sherman for a touchdown. Following the next kickoff, Houston again fumbled - this time by Beathard on the fourth play - and Tom Keating recovered. Again it took the Raiders one play to score, Lamonica finding Biletnikoff for the touchdown.

AFC WILD CARD GAME – 1978
Dec. 24, 1978 • Orange Bowl

The Oilers, making their first postseason appearance since 1969, advanced to the divisional playoffs on a brilliant passing performance by Dan Pastorini, who completed 20 of 29 passes for 306 yards and one touchdown. The two AFC wild card teams were locked in a 7-7 tie until midway through the fourth quarter. But Pastorini then completed all four of his passes in a 53-yard drive that set up Toni Fritsch's 35-yard field goal for a 10-7 lead with 7:25 left. One play after the ensuing kickoff, Gregg Bingham intercepted a Bob Griese pass and the Oilers drove 50 yards in 10 plays (9 on the ground) for Earl Campbell's clinching touchdown from the one-yard line. Griese completed 11 of 28 passes. Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher during regular season with 1,450 yards, gained 84 yards on 26 carries.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 1978 Houston 31, New England 14 December 31, 1978 • Schaefer Stadium

Houston captured its second straight postseason road victory and advanced into its first AFC championship game with an impressive win over New England, the AFC East champion. Houston quarterback Dan Pastorini completed 10 of 13 passes for 184 yards and three touchdowns as the Oilers jumped to a 21-0 halftime lead. After a scoreless first period, Pastorini hit wide receiver Ken Burrough on a 71-yard touchdown pass and connected with tight end Mike Barber on 19- and 13-yard touchdown strikes. New England narrowed the gap to 24-14 early in the final quarter on two scoring passes- a 24-yard option toss from running back Andy Johnson to wide receiver Harold Jackson and another 24-yard pass from backup quarterback Tom Owen to tight end Russ Francis. Linebacker Gregg Bingham's 19-yard interception return to New England's 18-yard line with 5:07 remaining stopped the Patriots' rally and set up running back Earl Campbell's two-yard touchdown run three plays later.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 1978 Pittsburgh 34, Houston 5 January 7, 1979 • Three Rivers Stadium

Playing in their first championship game since 1962, the Oilers were unable to unseat a strong Pittsburgh team, dropping a 34-5 contest at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers, striking through cold, steady rain for 31 first half points, won their third AFC championship in five years behind their usual solid defense and spectacular performances by Terry Bradshaw and Lynn Swann. Seventeen of the points, came during a 48-second span in the last minute of the half as Pittsburgh capitalized on two fumbles by Ronnie Coleman and one by Johnnie Dirden. Despite the playing conditions that contributed to a postseason record 12 fumbles, Bradshaw completed 11 of 19 passes for 200 yards and touchdowns to John Stallworth and Swann, who caught four passes for 98 yards. Both touchdown passes and one of Roy Gerela's two field goals made up the 17-point burst between 14:08 and 14:56 of the second quarter after Pittsburgh had built a 14-3 lead on scoring runs by Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1979 Houston 13, Denver 7 December 23, 1979 • Astrodome

The Oilers, playing a postseason game at home for the first time in 17 years, advanced to the divisional playoffs by shutting out the Broncos over the last three quarters of play. Denver marched 80 yards for a touchdown and a 7-3 lead on its first possession, but Earl Campbell's three-yard scoring run gave Houston a 10-7 halftime margin. Campbell and Oilers quarterback Dan Pastorini both missed second half action with groin injuries but Rob Carpenter and second year quarterback Gifford Nielsen played well in relief during their initial NFL playoff competition. Linebacker Gregg Bingham's 15-yard interception return set up Toni Fritsch's second field goal- a 20-yarder with 4:18 remaining to give Houston a 13-7 edge. The Oilers' defense, which recorded six sacks overall, held the Broncos on the final two series with Curley Culp's third-down sack and Vernon Perry's fourth-down pass deflection the key plays.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 1979 Houston 17, San Diego 14 December 29, 1979 • San Diego Stadium

The Oilers advanced into their second consecutive AFC Championship Game on the strength of an opportunistic defense and a near-flawless performance by the offensive unit. First-year strong safety Vernon Perry set up 10 of the Oilers' 17 points with a postseason game record of four interceptions in addition to a 57-yard blocked field goal return. Second-year quarterback Gifford Nielsen and third-year running back Rob Carpenter started for regulars Dan Pastorini and Earl Campbell, who were sidelined with groin injuries. The Oilers intercepted AFC passing leader Dan Fouts five times. Nielsen, making his first NFL postseason start, completed a 47-yard scoring pass to Mike Renfro with 12:55 elapsed in the third period to provide the winning margin.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 1979
Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13
January 6, 1980 • Three Rivers Stadium

The Steelers held the Oilers to only 24 rushing yards but were also aided by a controversial non-touchdown call to come away with a 27-13 win. Houston jumped to a 7-0 lead just 2:30 into the game when Vernon Perry returned an interception 75 yards for a touchdown. Then after both teams exchanged field goals, Terry Bradshaw completed two touchdown passes, a 16-yarder to tight end Billy Cunningham and a 20-yard score to wide receiver John Stallworth. With the Steelers leading 17-10, the controversial play occurred during the last seconds of the third quarter. Quarterback Dan Pastorini threw a pass to Mike Renfro at the back of the end zone, and Renfro appeared to have caught it for a touchdown with both feet in bounds before he fell out of the end zone. However, the officials ruled the pass incomplete. Although the Oilers protested, and replays would later show that it was inconclusive, they had to settle for a 23-yard field goal. The Steelers would then score 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to clinch the victory.

AFC WILD CARD GAME – 1980
December 28, 1980 • Alameda County Coliseum

The Raiders advanced to the divisional playoffs by shutting out the Oilers over the final three quarters. Oakland converted Earl Campbell's fumble on the first play of the game into Chris Bahr's 47-yard field goal, but Campbell came back to score on a one-yard plunge to give Houston a 7-3 lead. Jim Plunkett's one-yard touchdown pass to Todd Christensen early in the second quarter put the Raiders ahead to stay 10-7. Plunkett added another touchdown on a 44-yard pass to Arthur Whittington on the first play of the final period. Kenny King's 31-yard run set up Bahr's 37-yard field goal that gave Oakland a 20-7 edge. Lester Hayes added two interceptions to his NFL-leading 13 during the regular season. He picked off Ken Stabler's pass in the end zone to end a Houston scoring threat in the third period. In the fourth quarter Hayes' 20-yard interception return capped the Raiders' scoring.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1987 Houston 23, Seattle 20 (OT) January 3, 1988 • Astrodome

Oilers kicker Tony Zendejas atoned for a fourth-quarter 29-yard field goal miss by converting a 42-yarder 8:05 into overtime to help Houston advance to the divisional playoffs for the first time since 1980. Quarterback Warren Moon completed 21 of 32 passes for 273 yards and one touchdown in his initial NFL playoff game. Drew Hill and Ernest Givins combined for 13 catches for 173 yards, including six for 71 on third downs. Wide receiver Willie Drewrey's first NFL touchdown catch, a 29-yarder, gave the Oilers a 20-13 lead in the third quarter. However, Seattle quarterback Dave Krieg hit wide receiver Steve Largent on a 12-yard scoring pass in the final 1:47 to tie the score and send the game into overtime. Houston held a 47:44 to 20:21 time-of-possession advantage over Seattle and outgained the Seahawks 437 yards to 250.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 1987 Denver 34, Houston 10 January 10, 1988 • Mile High Stadium

John Elway passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third as the Broncos defeated the Oilers 34-10 to become the first AFC West team since the San Diego Chargers of 1980 and 1981 to play in consecutive AFC Championship Games. Denver capitalized on two Houston turnovers to take a 14-0 first quarter lead. Safety Steve Wilson recovered Warren Moon's lateral to Mike Rozier at the Oilers' 1-yard line to set up Gene Lang's one-yard run. Karl Mecklenburg's interception on Houston's next possession led to Elway's first touchdown pass, a 27-yarder to Clarence Kay. Kay also caught a one-yarder in the second quarter for the first two-touchdown game of his four-year career. Elway, who completed 14 of 25 passes for 259 yards, scored on a three-yard run with 4:23 remaining to seal the win.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1988 Houston 24, Cleveland 23 December 24, 1988 • Cleveland Stadium

The Oilers advanced to the AFC divisional round of the playoffs for the second straight year with a 24-23 win over the Browns. Allen Pinkett scored two touchdowns within a 15-second span of the second quarter, and Warren Moon rallied Houston with 10 fourth-quarter points for the win. Moon's 14-yard scoring pass to Pinkett seven seconds into the second quarter capped a 17-play, 91-yard drive and gave Houston a 7-3 lead. Nose tackle Richard Byrd recovered Don Strock's fumble on the Browns' next play from scrimmage, and Pinkett scored one play later on a 16-yard run for a 14-9 halftime lead. Mike Pagel replaced the injured Strock and completed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Webster Slaughter late in the third quarter for Cleveland's last lead of the day 16-14. Moon directed a 76-yard drive capped by Lorenzo White's one-yard run as Houston regained the lead 21-16. Richard Johnson's interception on the Browns' next possession led to Tony Zendejas's game-winning 49-yard field goal with 1:54 to play.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 1988 Buffalo 17, Houston 10 January 1, 1989 • Rich Stadium

Buffalo's special teams blocked a punt and a field goal, and the defense registered an interception and a fumble recovery in the fourth quarter, as the Bills advanced to their first-ever AFC Championship Game. Quarterback Jim Kelley completed a team-playoff record 19 of 33 passes for 244 yards with one interception. Rookie running back Thurman Thomas led all rushers with 75 yards on seven carries, including an 11-yard touchdown run that gave Buffalo a 14-3 lead in the third quarter. Robb Riddick's one-yard scoring run followed a blocked punt by safety Leonard Smith. Safety Mark Kelso intercepted a Warren Moon pass on the Oilers' second play of the fourth quarter. Derrick Burroughs's fumble recovery on Houston's next possession helped Buffalo preserve the win in their first-ever playoff game at Rich Stadium.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1989 Pittsburgh 26, Houston 23 (OT) December 31, 1989 • Astrodome

Gary Anderson kicked a 50-yard field goal 3:26 into overtime to cap Pittsburgh's 26-23 comeback win over the Oilers and earn its first playoff victory since 1984. The Steelers, despite being outgained by Houston 380 to 289 total yards, led the game for more than three quarters. Rookie running back Tim Worley converted a fourth-and-one play into a nine-yard touchdown run and Anderson kicked field goals of 25, 30, and 48 yards for a 16-9 fourth-quarter lead. Warren Moon tied the score with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Ernest Givins and gave the Oilers their only lead, 23-16, when he found Givins on a nine-yard scoring pass with six minutes to play. Pittsburgh's Buddy Brister countered with an 82-yard, 11-play drive capped by Merrill Hoge's one-yard touchdown plunge with 46 seconds remaining. Anderson's extra point tied the score and sent the game into overtime. Rod Woodson recovered Lorenzo White's fumble on the Oilers' first play in overtime to set up Anderson's decisive field goal.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1990 Cincinnati 41, Houston 14 January 6, 1991 • Riverfront Stadium

Boomer Esiason completed two touchdown passes and ran for a third in the Bengals' victory over the Oilers. Cincinnati built a 20-0 halftime lead as Ickey Woods ran one yard for a touchdown. Esiason flipped a two-yard scoring pass to Harold Green, and Jim Breech kicked two field goals (27 and 30 yards) in the first half. Cincinnati increased its lead to 34-0 in the third quarter when Eric Ball ran three yards for a touchdown and Esiason scored on a 10-yard keeper following James Francis's fumble recovery at Houston's 10-yard line. The Oilers scored on two touchdown passes from Cody Carlson to Ernest Givins (16 and 5 yards). Cincinnati held a 39:45 to 20:15 time-of-possession advantage.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1991 Houston 17, N.Y. Jets 10 December 29, 1991 • Astrodome

Warren Moon threw a pair of touchdown passes to Ernest Givins and the Oilers' defense stopped the Jets inside Houston's 5-yard line twice in the second half to preserve the victory. The Oilers led 14-10 entering the third quarter, when the Jets took the second-half kickoff and consumed more than eight minutes while driving to the Houston 8-yard line. On third down, Ken O'Brien's pass was intercepted by safety Bubba McDowell at the 2. After Al Del Greco's 53-yard field goal put the Oilers ahead 17-10 early in the fourth quarter, New York drove to the Houston 3. But on third down, Al Smith stopped Brad Baxter for no gain. The Jets had one more chance after recovering Moon's fumble at the Oilers' 26 with 4:59 left in the game, but New York could not convert a first down. For Houston, Moon completed 28 of 40 passes for 271 yards, and Drew Hill had nine catches for 77 yards.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 1991 Denver 26, Houston 24 January 4, 1992 • Mile High Stadium

David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds remaining capped a dramatic 87-yard drive in the closing moments to lift the Broncos over the Oilers. Treadwell's winning kick came shortly after John Elway's 44-yard completion to Vance Johnson on fourth-and-10 from the Denver 35-yard line. Earlier on the drive, Elway scrambled seven yards for a first down on fourth-and-6 from the 28. And it was Elway's 22-yard completion to Michael Young that got the Broncos out of a hole at their own 2-yard line. Denver started the winning drive there with no time outs left after Houston's Greg Montgomery dropped his punt out of bounds with 2:07 left in the game. Warren Moon passed for three touchdowns as Houston built first half leads of 14-0 and 21-6. But the Broncos defense stiffened, allowing only a field goal in the second half.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1992
Buffalo 41, Houston 38 (OT)
 January 3, 1993 • Rich Stadium

Warren Moon threw for 220 yards and four touchdowns in the first half as Houston jumped out to a 28-3 lead. Early in the third quarter, Oilers defensive back Bubba McDowell intercepted Frank Reich's first pass of the second half and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown as the Oilers took a commanding 32-point lead, 35-3. Then, Buffalo started the comeback, advancing 50 yards to score on Davis' 1-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 35-10. After a recovered onside kick by the Bills which led to a touchdown, and a 26-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Andre Reed, the lead was trimmed to 35-24. On the Oilers' ensuing possession, Bills safety Henry Jones intercepted a pass from Moon which led to another touchdown pass from Reich to Reed. Kicker Al Del Greco attempted a field goal to increase the Oilers' lead, but the snap was fumbled. The Bills then scored on a 17-yard touchdown pass, taking the lead 38-35 with three minutes remaining in the game. A last minute drive ending in a 26-yard field goal from Del Greco would send the game into overtime. Early in overtime, Bills defensive back Nate Odomes intercepted a pass from Moon, setting up Steve Christie's 32-yard game-winning field goal.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 1993
Kansas City 28, Houston 20
 January 16, 1994 • Astrodome

Joe Montana threw three second-half touchdown passes, including two just 54 seconds apart in the fourth quarter, to rally the Chiefs past the Oilers. Houston, which entered the game with an 11-game winning streak, jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the opening quarter and still led 13-7 after Al Del Greco's 43-yard field goal with 9:37 remaining in the fourth quarter. But Kansas City marched 71 yards in only 59 seconds, the key play a 38-yard pass interference penalty against Oilers cornerback Cris Dishman, to take the lead for the first time on Montana's 11-yard touchdown pass to J.J. Birden. On the next play from scrimmage, Chiefs linebacker Derrick Thomas sacked Warren Moon, forcing a fumble that defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua recovered at the Oilers' 12-yard line. On third down, Montana's 18-yard touchdown pass to Willie Davis put Kansas City ahead 21-13 with 7:44 left. Houston drove 80 yards to a touchdown to pull within one point with 3:45 to go, but Marcus Allen's 21-yard touchdown run at the 1:55 mark sealed the Oilers' fate.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 1999 Tennessee 22, Buffalo 16 January 8, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum

One of the most memorable finishes in NFL playoff history gave the Titans the franchise's first playoff win since 1991, a 22-16 stunner over the visiting Buffalo Bills. After Steve Christie kicked a 41-yard field goal to give Buffalo a 16-15 lead with 16 seconds remaining, Kevin Dyson returned a Frank Wycheck lateral on the ensuing kickoff 75 yards for a touchdown with three seconds left in the game. The play, quickly dubbed as the "Music City Miracle," gave Tennessee a 22-16 lead that turned into a victory after Buffalo's last-ditch hopes for a matching return touchdown were thwarted. Eddie George paced Tennessee's offense with a 29-carry, 106-yard performance. The victory, in front of a franchise-record crowd at Adelphia Coliseum, allowed the franchise to advance to the AFC Divisional Playoffs for the first time since 1993. The Titans took a 12-0 lead into intermission, but the Bills stormed back behind two touchdowns from Antowain Smith that gave Buffalo a 13-12 lead with 11:08 remaining. Al Del Greco's 36-yard field goal gave the Titans a 15-13 lead with 1:48 remaining, setting up the game's final dramatic moments.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 1999 Tennessee 19, Indianapolis 16 January 16, 2000 • RCA Dome

Eddie George ran for a franchise playoff-record 162 yards and a touchdown as the Tennessee Titans advanced to their first AFC Championship Game since 1979 with a 19-16 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. George's 68-yard touchdown run on the first drive of the third quarter gave the Titans the lead for good, and Tennessee's defense held rookie standout Edgerrin James to only 56 yards rushing on 20 carries. Al Del Greco set franchise post-season records for field goals in a game and a career, kicking two of his four field goals in each half to give him 11 for his career. Indiana native Blaine Bishop led the inspired Tennessee defense with 11 tackles and two passes defensed, and the defensive unit as a whole held Peyton Manning in check, with the second-year signal caller completing only 19 of 43 passes for 227 yards in the loss. The Colts pulled within three points with 1:51 remaining on Manning's 15-yard TD run, but Yancey Thigpen sealed Tennessee's victory by recovering Danny Knight's ensuing onside kick.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 1999
Tennessee 33, Jacksonville 14
January 23, 2000 • Alltel Stadium

The Titans advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in franchise history by defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars for the third time in the same season, 33-14, at Alltel Stadium. Steve McNair ran for 91 yards and two second-half touchdowns, combining with Eddie George for 177 yards rushing on the afternoon. The Titans' defense turned in a dominant performance, forcing six Jacksonville turnovers, including two fumbles and two interceptions from Mark Brunell. Jacksonville led 14-7 on a 33-yard TD run by James Stewart. But the Titans then scored 26 unanswered points, including an Al Del Greco 34-yard field goal that cut the Jaguar lead to 14-10 at halftime. McNair scored on a 1-yard run with 9:24 remaining in the third quarter, and after Mark Brunell was dropped for a safety, Derrick Mason ran the ensuing free kick 80 yards for a touchdown. McNair scored his second touchdown of the game with seven minutes remaining, sealing the 33-14 outcome. The win gave the Titans their first AFC Championship since the AFL-NFL merger, and advanced them to Super Bowl XXXIV against St. Louis.

SUPER BOWL XXXIV – 1999
St. Louis 23, Tennessee 16
January 30, 2000 • Georgia Dome

The Titans' magical season ended at the Georgia Dome, as receiver Kevin Dyson was stopped just short of the goal line on the game's last play by Rams linebacker Mike Jones in a 23-16 St. Louis victory. The play ended an inspired two-minute drive led by Steve McNair, who broke Super Bowl records for rushing yards by a quarterback in both one game and one play for the Titans. The Rams held a 9-0 lead at halftime, extending their lead to 16-0 on a nine yard TD reception by Torry Holt with 7:20 left in the third quarter. The Titans charged back on two touchdown runs by Eddie George, and tied the score at 16 on a 43-yard Al Del Greco field goal with 2:12 remaining. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Isaac Bruce broke free and scored on a 73-yard touchdown pass from Kurt Warner, giving the Rams a seven-point advantage. McNair then led a 12-play, 87-yard drive that culminated in the completion to Dyson. McNair's prolific day included 64 yards rushing. George, meanwhile, rushed for 95 yards to become the Titans' career playoff rushing leader.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 2000 Baltimore 24, Tennessee 10 January 7, 2001 • Adelphia Coliseum

The Baltimore Ravens used big plays on defense and special teams to advance to the AFC Championship Game with a 24-10 victory over the Tennessee Titans at Adelphia Coliseum. Anthony Mitchell returned a blocked Al Del Greco field goal attempt 90 yards for a touchdown to break a 10-10 tie, and NFL Defensive Player of the Year Ray Lewis returned an interception 50 yards for a touchdown to seal Baltimore's win with 6:41 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Titans took control of the game early, as Eddie George capped off an opening drive that spanned 11 plays and 58 yards with a two-yard touchdown run. Regardless of the final score, it was a dominant performance by the Tennessee defense, as they held the Ravens to six first downs, 134 total yards, and only five completions by Baltimore quarterback Trent Dilfer. Offensively, the Titans dominated Baltimore in first downs (23 to 6), rushing yards (126 to 49) and passing yards (191 to 85), but Baltimore's big plays were ultimately too much to overcome. The loss ended the Titans' reign as AFC Champions and their season at 13-4.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 2002 Tennessee 34, Pittsburgh 31 (OT) January 11, 2003 • Adelphia Coliseum

Joe Nedney got a chance for redemption and made a 26-yard field goal 2:15 into overtime that gave the Titans a bruising 34-31 playoff victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers. The kick was the result of a penalty on the previous play by cornerback Dewayne Washington. He drew a 5-yard flag for running into Nedney, giving the kicker another chance after he hooked a 31-yard attempt wide right. Titans quarterback Steve McNair passed for 338 yards and two touchdowns in the game, while tight end Frank Wycheck set a career high with 123 yards on 10 receptions. The Titans scored the game's first 14 points on McNair and Eddie George runs before the Steelers responded with 20 unanswered points. Wycheck and Erron Kinney each caught touchdown passes in the second half. Nedney's game-winner gave the Titans their first victory in four playoff games against Pittsburgh and propelled them into the AFC Championship Game at Oakland.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – 2002
Oakland 41, Tennessee 24
 January 19, 2003 • Network Associates Stadium

The Raiders scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, closing out the Titans 41-24 to advance to Super Bowl XXXVII against Tampa Bay. Steve McNair's second rushing touchdown of the game pulled Tennessee within 27-24 at the end of the third quarter, but Rich Gannon scored on a 2-yard run and Zack Crockett added a 7-yard scoring run, ending a drive that consumed 6:29 on the clock late in the contest. The game's momentum changed before halftime when Oakland turned back-to-back fumbles by Tennessee into 10 points to close out the first half, taking a 24-17 lead at intermission. The Titans had scored 10 unanswered points to take their first lead of the game, 17-14, on McNair's 9-yard rushing touchdown. But a fumble by Robert Holcombe turned into a 1-yard touchdown pass from Gannon to Doug Jolley two plays later. Then John Simon fumbled the ensuing kickoff which Sebastian Janikowski turned into a 43-yard field goal as time expired at intermission.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME – 2003
Tennessee 20, Baltimore 17
 January 3, 2004 – M&T Bank Stadium

NFL career scoring leader Gary Anderson kicked a 46-yard field goal with 29 seconds left after a courageous effort by a limping Steve McNair, giving the Titans a 20-17 victory in the first-round AFC Wild Card playoff game. McNair, named the league's co-MVP just 24 hours before kickoff, engineered an eight-play, 35-yard drive to set up the winning kick, and Eddie George finished with 88 yards on 25 carries, despite playing with a dislocated shoulder in the second half. In the process, Tennessee snapped a five-game losing streak against the Ravens. The Titans held 2003 NFL rushing champion Jamal Lewis to a season-low 35 yards. The Titans got the better of Ravens linebacker Ray Lewis, the AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year. George ran repeatedly at him all game, dispelling any myth that Lewis owned the 1-on-1 battle. The Titans took a 14-10 lead in the third quarter when McNair threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to Justin McCareins. Tennessee took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on Chris Brown's first career touchdown from six yards out. The Titans held Lewis to 12 yards rushing on seven carries in the first half and outgained Baltimore 108-15 in the first quarter.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME – 2003 New England 17, Tennessee 14 January 10, 2004 – Gillette Stadium

NFL co-MVP Steve McNair almost single-handedly took Tennessee downfield in the final minutes. But the man playing with a cracked bone spur in his left ankle saw his final pass fall in and out of the hands of Drew Bennett with 1:45 remaining in a 17-14 playoff loss to the eventual Super Bowl champion New England Patriots. The Titans (13-5) were trying to return to the AFC Championship for the third time in five seasons, and McNair nearly got them there. He tied the game with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Derrick Mason in the third quarter on a drive in which he was a perfect five of five for 59 yards. But the Titans came up just short on the final drive that included a pair of controversial calls against Tennessee. The game-time temperature at kickoff was four degrees with a wind-chill of minus 10. Winds were blowing at 10 mph. It marked the coldest game in both Patriots and Titans history. Rookie running back Chris Brown scored his second career touchdown – and second of the post-season – when he crossed the end zone from five yards out to tie the game at 7 in the first quarter.

AFC WILD CARD – 2007 Chargers 17, Titans 6 January 6, 2008 – Qualcomm Stadium

A pair of Rob Bironas field goals and a defense that held San Diego to 94 first-half yards enabled the Titans to take a 6-0 halftime lead in their first playoff game in four years. But San Diego scored 17 unanswered points in the second half, exploding for 256 yards, in a 17-6 victory at Qualcomm Stadium. Running back LaDainian Tomlinson was held to 42 yards, but got to celebrate the first playoff victory in three tries in his brilliant career. The Titans bottled up Tomlinson, the two-time NFL rushing champion, and dared quarterback Philip Rivers to beat them. The second-year starter did just that, throwing a 25-yard touchdown pass to Vincent Jackson late in the third quarter that gave San Diego its first lead at 10-6. Tomlinson finally found the end zone midway through the fourth quarter on a fourth-down leap over the pile from inside the 1-yard line that survived a video replay. Tennessee's defense dominated in the first half, holding San Diego to just 10 total yards and without a first down in the first quarter.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

AFC DIVISIONAL GAME - 2008 Titans 10, Ravens 13 Saturday, Jan. 10, 2009 • LP Field

Matt Stover connected on a 43-yard field goal with under a minute to play that proved to be the difference as the Ravens defeated the Titans 13-10 in a Divisional Round playoff game at LP Field. Despite being outgained 391-211 in total yards and gaining nine first downs to Tennessee's 21, Baltimore forced three turnovers, all as the Titans were driving inside the Ravens' 30-yard line. Receiver Justin Gage caught a career-high 10 balls for 135 yards, second in his career only to his 147-yard effort in Jacksonville earlier in the season. The Titans were held without a sack for the first time since Week 8. It marked only the third time all season that the Titans did not force a turnover. Defensively, Tennessee held a Baltimore rushing attack averaging four yards-per-carry to 50 yards on 30 carries. Chris Johnson rushed for 72 yards in the first quarter before leaving the game with an injured ankle.
