THE DeVOS FAMILY

The DeVos family purchased the Orlando Magic in September of 1991. At that time, family head Rich DeVos stated that the DeVos family is simply the team's current caretaker, making it clear that the real owners of the NBA franchise would continue to be the Central Florida community and the loyal Magic fans. Since purchasing the team, the franchise has won five division championships (Atlantic Division: 1994-95, 1995-96; Southeast Division: 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10), two Eastern Conference titles (1994-95, 2008-09) and had seven 50-win seasons, including a franchise-record 60 victories in 1995-96. The Magic have advanced to the playoffs 14 times overall, while finishing with a .500 record or better in 16 of the last 21 seasons.

The acquisition and operation of the Magic is a family affair involving Rich, his wife, Helen, and their four children and spouses: Dick and Betsy DeVos, Dan and Pamella DeVos, Cheri DeVos VanderWeide, and Doug and Maria DeVos.

Although the senior DeVoses have an established residence in southern Florida, the family was introduced to the Central Florida community during Orlando's drive to bring major league baseball to "The City Beautiful." An ensuing relationship was formed between the DeVos family and the city of Orlando.

The baseball venture left them with a heightened interest in professional sports ownership. The 86-year-old co-founder of Amway – today a global leader in direct selling – envisioned incorporating the philosophies that made him a successful businessman with that of a solid, young NBA franchise. He understands the impact professional sports can have on the upcoming generation, and he is committed to ensuring the team provides a positive, encouraging example.

The DeVos family played a key role in helping to secure the state-of-the-art Amway Center in Orlando. The Amway Center is part of a public community venues program that also includes a new Performing Arts Center and a renovation of the Citrus Bowl Stadium. The Amway Center opened in October 2010. In addition, the Magic also contributed $12.5 million toward construction of five community recreation centers throughout Orange County, Florida, as part of its commitment to build the Amway Center.

From 1995-2001, RDV Sports owned and operated the Orlando Solar Bears of the International Hockey League. During their six seasons of existence, the Solar Bears captured one division title (Central Division, 1995-96), three Eastern Conference crowns (1996, 1999, 2001) and the IHL's Turner Cup championship in 2000-01. Orlando compiled an all-time regular season record of 286-162-44 (.626), the best in the league over that time frame.

From 1998-2002, the Orlando Miracle of the WNBA was part of the RDV Sports portfolio. The Miracle played in their inaugural season during the summer of 1999 and made the playoffs in 2000.

RDV Sports, named for Rich DeVos and the general partner of the Magic, has been and continues to be an active partner in the Central Florida community. In February of 1998, RDV Sports, in partnership with Florida Hospital, opened the $50 million, 365,000-square-foot RDV Sportsplex. The RDV Sportsplex is a state-of-the-art health and wellness facility, which includes a world-class health club, medical offices, restaurant, retail shops, and front office facilities for the Magic.

The DeVos family remains involved in numerous charities and community-enhancement endeavors, both in the Central Florida area and their hometown region of Grand Rapids, Mich. The Orlando Magic Youth Fund has positively impacted more than one million children. Through private donations, fund-raising events and contributions, more than $18 million has been raised and distributed to non-profit organizations that support the OMYF mission statement.

RICH DeVOS – Senior Chairman

Rich DeVos completed his 22nd season as senior chairman of the ownership group of the Orlando Magic. The 87-year-old DeVos is co-founder of Amway Corp., today a global leader in direct selling and a member of the Alticor Inc. family of companies.

Born March 4, 1926, in Grand Rapids, Mich., he is a true American success story. DeVos and former high school classmate, Jay Van Andel, embarked on a partnership that resulted in several business endeavors between 1945 and 1958. In 1959, they founded Amway.

Amway (amway.com) is one of the world's largest direct selling businesses. It offers consumer products and business opportunities through a network of more than 3 million distributors in more than 80 countries and territories worldwide. The top-selling brands for Amway are NUTRILITE™ vitamin, mineral and dietary supplements, ARTISTRY™ skincare and colour cosmetics, and eSpring™ water treatment systems. The company provides product development, manufacturing and logistics services through its Access Business Group and Alticor Corporate Enterprises divisions. Alticor Inc., parent company of Amway, reported global sales of $10.9 billion in 2011.

DeVos has been the recipient of numerous achievement awards, as well as 13 honorary doctorate degrees. He has written four books: BELIEVE!, Compassionate Capitalism, Hope From My Heart: Ten Lessons for Life, and Ten Powerful Phrases for Positive People.

Because of their dedication to supporting those organizations in which they believe, DeVos and his wife, Helen, created the Richard and Helen DeVos Foundation. The DeVoses are dedicated to the entrepreneurial spirit and helping people live better lives.

Rich and Helen reside in southern Florida. The acquisition and operation of the Magic is a family affair involving them and their four children and spouses: Dick and his wife, Betsy; Dan and his wife, Pamella; Cheri DeVos VanderWeide; and Doug and his wife, Maria. Rich and Helen have 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

DeVos is a member of the AHL's executive committee.

A member of the board of directors of Alticor Inc., the parent company of Amway Corporation, DeVos also serves as president/CEO of Powell Pointe Resort, the developer of Cape Eleuthera, and of Cape Eleuthera Properties, the manager of the Princess Cays facility, on the island of Eleuthera, The Bahamas. In honor of the impact that he, his brothers and their father, Rich, have made on the sports landscape both locally and nationally, the DeVos family was inducted into the Grand Rapids Sports Hall of Fame in the team category in 2011.

The transformation process received the recognition of the Sports Business Journal which named the Magic as a finalist for Professional Sports Team of the Year, the only NBA team to be named a finalist.

Included in this success has been the largest season ticket base in franchise history in 2010-11 (14,200) and the most successful corporate sales effort in franchise history. Amongst these record efforts are the largest increase in attendance in the NBA over the last five years, the most new sales and season tickets sold in the league in two of the last five years, and the largest group ticket sales effort in team history.

Martins was instrumental in helping to secure the new state-of-the-art Amway Center in Orlando. The Amway Center is part of a public community venues program that also includes a new Performing Arts Center and a renovation of the Citrus Bowl Stadium. The new Amway Center opened in October 2010. The facility was named a finalist for the Sports Business Awards Sports Facility of the Year Award for two consecutive years, and captured the award in 2012. Additionally, the Magic also contributed $20 million toward and constructed five community recreation centers throughout Orange County, Florida, as part of its commitment to build the new Amway Center.

Over the last six years at the Annual NBA Sales and Marketing Meetings, the Magic organization was awarded the "New Full Season Ticket Award" twice for being No. 1 in the NBA in new full season tickets sold, a "90 Percent Renewal Award" for being just one of five teams to achieve a 90 percent or higher season ticket renewal rate in 2007, a "Sponsorship Account Performance Award" for the extraordinary number of accounts secured by the Corporate Partnerships Department and the "Retailer of the Year Award" for the team's retail sales performance. Martins has recently been named to the NBA Team Presidents Advisory Council.

Additionally, Martins served on the developmental board of the DeVos Sport Business Management Program at the University of Central Florida. The program has been funded through a $9 million endowment by Rich and Helen DeVos and awards dual Masters degrees in Sport Management and Business Administration.

Martins has also served as the senior vice president of marketing and branding for the NBA's New Orleans Hornets, vice president of communications and public affairs with the NFL's Cleveland Browns and vice president of sports ventures with the Tavistock Group. The Orlando Magic served as the developer of the Amway Center, which hosts major national events, concerts and family shows. Opened in the fall of 2010, the facility is owned and operated by the City of Orlando on behalf of the Central Florida community.

The Amway Center, named SportsBusiness Journal's 2012 Sports Facility of the Year, was designed to reflect the character of the community, meet the goals of the users and build on the legacy of sports and entertainment in Orlando. The building's exterior features a modern blend of glass and metal materials, along with ever-changing graphics via a monumental wall along one facade. A 180-foot tall tower serves as a beacon amid the downtown skyline. At 875,000 square feet, the new arena is almost triple the size of the old Amway Arena (367,000 square feet). The Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold certified building features a sustainable, environmentally-friendly design and unmatched technology, including 1,100 digital monitors, the tallest high-definition video board in an NBA venue and multiple premium amenities available to all patrons in the building.

2012-13 ORLANDO MAGIC GAME RECAPS

Nov. 2 vs. Denver – Magic 102, Nuggets 89: Glen Davis tallied game-highs of 29 points and 10 rebounds, as Orlando defeated Denver, 102-89, in the season opener for the Magic at a sold-out Amway Center. J.J. Redick poured in 21 points for the Magic, while E'Twaun Moore added 13 points. Danilo Gallinari recorded 23 points and eight rebounds for the Nuggets. The Magic shot 48.8 percent from the floor, while holding Denver to 38.1 percent. Orlando jumped out of the gates quickly, leading 29-18 after the first quarter. They led by as many as 23 points during the second half. Denver trimmed the deficit to 76-68 late in the third quarter, but it would be as close as they would get.

Nov. 4 vs. Phoenix – Magic 115, Suns 94: J.J. Redick led five Magic players in double figures with 24 points, as Orlando overcame a 14-point deficit and routed Phoenix, 115-94, at Amway Center. In the NBA Finals, the team having the higher winning percentage at the close of the regular season shall have the home court advantage. In the event that the two conference champions finished the regular season with identical records, the team having the higher winning percentage against the other team at the close of the regular season shall have the home court advantage. In the event of a tie, the home court advantage shall be awarded to the team with the higher winning percentage against teams in the opposite conference. If application of the foregoing criteria are not sufficient to break the tie, home court advantage shall be determined by a random drawing.
