LAKERS 2014-15 MEDIA GUIDE

Bill Sharman

The Lakers family lost a true legend this year when Bill Sharman passed away in October. Selected as one of the 50 Greatest Players in NBA History, Sharman was set to begin his 24th year as a Special Consultant with the Lakers at the time of his passing. He began his basketball career in 1950 and was an integral member of 17 different championship teams as either a player, coach, or executive. His 17 titles, including 15 in the NBA, were captured with four different teams, in three respective leagues and in four different capacities.

He earned All-NBA honors on seven occasions in his 10-year playing career with the Boston Celtics and participated in eight NBA All-Star Games, earning the Most Valuable Player award in the 1955 contest. Arguably the greatest shooter of his era and one of the most deadly free throw shooters in the history of the game, Sharman was the first NBA guard to post a field goal percentage above .400 for a season (.436, 1952-53) while his career free throw percentage (.883) still ranks 11th among the NBA's all-time leaders (minimum 1200 FT made). He led the NBA in free throw percentage seven times, including a league-record five consecutive seasons from 1952-53 through 1956-57. In 711 career games, Sharman averaged 17.8 points and 3.0 assists.

As a coach, Sharman is the only person in professional basketball history to win championships in three professional leagues (ABL, ABA and NBA). In the 1971-72 season, his first with the Lakers, Sharman led the club to their first NBA championship in Los Angeles, a then-NBA record and current franchise record 69 wins, and compiled the longest winning streak in the history of professional sports (33 consecutive victories). It was during this legendary campaign that Sharman introduced the morning shootaround to the NBA, now routine for NBA teams on the day of games. Originally inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1976 as a player, in April 2004 Sharman became just the third individual (John Wooden, Lenny Wilkens) to be named to the Hall of Fame as both a player and coach. Among the other innovations he's credited with bringing to the game are the use of assistant coaches and pregame scouting reports.

REMEMBERING A LEGEND

In August of 2002, the Los Angeles Lakers lost a cherished family member with the passing of Chick Hearn. More than an announcer, Chick embodied the spirit and determination that have made the Los Angeles Lakers champions 16 times over. The Lakers lone play-by-play voice since the team moved to Los Angeles prior to the 1960-61 season, Chick was the Lakers for the better part of four decades. With his words-eye-view of the game and colorful chickisms making his broadcasts truly one of a kind, it is a streak of unmatched proportions that will perhaps be Chick's lasting legacy. Beginning in Los Angeles on November 21, 1965 against the Philadelphia 76ers, Chick went on to broadcast 3,338 consecutive regular and postseason games, with the streak culminating in a 101-85 victory over the same Warriors on December 16, 2001. Two days later Chick underwent surgery to replace the aortic valve in his heart. The surgery was a success and Chick was expected to make a full recovery.

Anticipating a return to the broadcast booth on March 1, Chick was again befallen by bad luck as he suffered a hip fracture in a fall on February 17. This additional setback would force Chick to undergo a second surgery and more rehabilitation. Again, however, he persevered and on April 9th, returned to the booth to broadcast the Lakers 112-82 victory over the Utah Jazz. Shortly into the broadcast of a game that began with the sellout crowd of 18,997 giving Chick an extended standing ovation, the legendary announcer gratefully exclaimed, "This is the happiest I've been since I married Marge!"

Chick, along with his announcing partner of 15 years, Stu Lantz, broadcast the Lakers final five regular season games and each of the Lakers 19 playoff games. With Chick returning to his familiar position behind the mic, the Lakers season culminated on June 12 in New Jersey with their third consecutive NBA championship.

The refrigerator door might have closed for the final time on that June evening as the Lakers defeated the New Jersey Nets, but Chick will forever be remembered for the fervor and passion that he brought to each and every Lakers broadcast.

A TRIBUTE FROM T.J. SIMERS

As a tradition set forth in the 2004-05 edition of the Lakers media guide, the Los Angeles Lakers organization will select a prominent Southern California media member each year to pen a tribute to Chick and carry on his legacy with a favorite story or anecdote about the man who came to be known as the "Voice of the Lakers."

This year, the Los Angeles Lakers are pleased to have T.J. Simers share some of his stories about the broadcasting icon. Simers retired after 41 years in the newspaper business, far too long scribbling as those who read him would tell you. He worked in Idaho, Illinois, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Colorado, Tennessee and California; obviously he couldn't keep a job. He won some awards, but doesn't wish to say who gave them to him to save them the indignity of having to explain themselves. Simers was considered a better motivator than writer, once telling Kobe Bryant he was a horrible three-point shooter. A few hours later Kobe set the NBA record for most three-pointers in a game. Simers spent 13 years writing a Page 2 motivational column for the Los Angeles Times, and while apparently not good enough to make it to Page 1, he counts time spent with Chick Hearn before games moaning and groaning about wanting to be alone while Simers insisted on joining him some of his best L.A. memories. "No one groaned better than Chick," said Simers. "I looked forward to it before every game."

 ${f A}$ s we know so well, "Marge could have made that shot."

But I wondered years later after we had lost the greatness that was Chick Hearn, what was his favorite Chickism?

"His favorite saying was whenever he could say something hasn't happened 'since Hector was a pup,' " says Marge. "I have no idea who Hector was, and he probably didn't either."

But we all knew what Chickie Baby was saying, and we couldn't wait for him to say it again.

It's been a dozen years since we lost Chick Hearn and his rapid fire entertainment, leaving us eight days before a 64th wedding anniversary to Marge and far too soon for those who grew up watching the Lakers through his eyes.

His final broadcast was a NBA Finals three-peat clinching victory over New Jersey, the championship ring dedicated in his honor at the suggestion of Phil Jackson and featuring a microphone on it and the words, "slam dunk."

It was his ninth ring, Chick telling people he didn't deserve any of them because he wasn't out there playing, but with a characteristic twinkle adding, "if they give me another one, I won't give it back."

He treasured one ring above all the others, the one he would not wear.

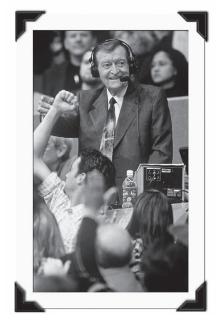

"I couldn't wear it," he once explained while talking about his son, Gary, who died at age 29. "He wore it."

Yes, as icons go, Chickie Baby was as human as they go, more interested in meeting you than your excitement in meeting him. Maybe he understood that those who might never afford a Lakers' ticket would forever remain Lakers fans because they felt such a kinship to his voice. Maybe he just understood he was family as he relayed stories to everyone about "Cap," "The Magic Man," "Big Game James," "Zeke from Cabin Creek," and "Nick the Quick."

As Miguel Ruezga, a former Staples Center usher who used to hang with Chick before games, put it, "He hated going down to the court because of his knees, but they wanted him to meet Ray Charles. He gets down there and he goes forehead to forehead with Ray who tells Chick, 'I don't need eyes, you're my eyes.' I looked at Chick and I could see tears in his eyes."

Fran, as Marge called him, was on a first-name basis with everyone he met: "Hey, Kid." As cantankerous as he would like to think he could be, he could not help himself: he was born to charm.

It makes the empty seat that now sits beside the likeness of Chick in front of Staples Center irresistible to those who remember him with such fondness. His mouth open, and he wouldn't want it any other way, you just know he's getting ready to talk about someone doing the bunny hop in the pea patch.

He meant so much to so many and in so many different ways. Forced to take time off for medical reasons, when he returned to work he met with reporters in the Chick Hearn Press Room in Staples Center. Then he took a stroll to the Lakers locker room, two giants sharing a laugh and warm moment when Shaquille O'Neal came from behind and placed two hands over Chick's eves.

When he was gone, leaving folks to struggle to say their goodbyes, how appropriate to have Vin Scully maybe say it best.

"Though we have lost a dear friend and a true broadcasting legend, I would like to offer a prayer of thanksgiving for having been able to enjoy his work for all these years."

PRESIDENT / GOVERNOR

JEANIE BUSS

Entering her second season as President after 14 seasons as Executive Vice President of Business Operations, Jeanie Buss is responsible for running all aspects of the Los Angeles Lakers organization. Buss continues to lead all Lakers business operations, which include managing team marketing and sponsorships as well as relationships with broadcast partners, and also oversees the team's basketball operations, working closely with Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations Jim Buss and General Manager Mitch Kupchak.

In addition to her role as team President, Buss also serves as the Lakers' Governor, representing the team on the NBA's Board of Governors. She is currently a member of the NBA Advisory and Finance Committee and has served on the NBA Labor Committee during collective bargaining with the NBA Players Association.

Buss, who spent four years serving as President of the Great Western Forum before joining the Lakers, began her career at the age of 19 as general manager of World Team Tennis' Los Angeles Strings. While guiding the team to two league titles, she also created the Forum

Tennis Challenge Series which became a regular part of the Great Western Forum calendar for years. Buss was responsible for bringing in players such as John McEnroe, Pete Sampras, Andre Agassi, Jimmy Connors, Steffi Graff, Chris Evert, Martina Navratilova and many other top professionals.

In 1993, Buss brought professional roller hockey to Los Angeles as the owner of the Los Angeles Blades. Her outstanding leadership and dedication earned her Executive of the Year honors by Roller Hockey International. Buss is also using her considerable experience to lead a revival of WOW - Women of Wrestling, featuring female superheroes in the ring.

Named by the Sports Business Journal in October of 2011 as one of the Game Changers: Women in Sports Business, Buss serves as a board member on the Southern California Committee for the Olympic Games working to bring the Olympics back to Los Angeles. She also is a co-host of Lakers All-Access, a yearly event presented by the LA Sports and Entertainment Commission, a nonprofit organization which draws events and attractions to Los Angeles.

Actively involved in the community, Buss lists Canine Companions for Independence, The Amanda Foundation and the Best Buddies organization among her many charitable endeavors while also working internally with the Lakers Youth Foundation to raise money for Southern California Youth charities.

Buss graduated from the University of Southern California with a degree in business. She currently resides in Manhattan Beach and is engaged to Hall-of-Fame coach and current President of the New York Knicks, Phil Jackson.

JIM BUSS

Jim Buss begins his 17th season in the Lakers front office and the 10th in his current capacity. An Assistant General Manager for his first seven seasons, Buss has continued to work alongside General Manager Mitch Kupchak over the years in handling basketball-related decisions that range from the scouting of players and the NBA Draft to trades and the signing of free agents.

In addition to his role in Basketball Operations, Buss also serves as the Lakers' Alternate Governor.

Since moving from Assistant General Manager to his current role, the Lakers have won two NBA Championships, made three NBA Finals appearances and claimed five Pacific Division titles while completing transactions that include the drating of Andrew Bynum and Julius Randle, the signing of Metta World Peace, and the acquisitions of Pau Gasol from Memphis and Dwight Howard from Orlando, among others.

Buss, who studied mathematics at the University of Southern California, worked in several management positions at the Great Western Forum before serving as the President and General Manager of the Los Angeles Lazers of the Major Indoor Soccer League from 1985 to 1989. In that capacity, Buss evaluated talent, had a direct hand in player personnel decisions and was responsible for all day-to-day operations of the team.

Before joining the Lakers front office, Buss spent the previous nine years pursuing one of his life's passions, training thoroughbred racehorses.

Born November 9th, 1959, Buss is the second of his late Hall-of-Fame father Dr. Jerry Buss' six children.

GENERAL MANAGER

MITCH KUPCHAK

After capturing two championships as a player and now seven as a front office executive, Mitch Kupchak's name has become synonymous with winning.

Entering his 28th season as a club executive and the 15th in his current capacity (the second-longest tenure as lead basketball executive with one team in the NBA), Kupchak has picked up right where close friend and mentor Jerry West left off. Since taking the reins prior to the Lakers first title defense in 2000-2001, Mitch's teams have compiled a 690-442 (.609) record, captured six Western Conference Championships, and four NBA Titles while winning 63 percent of their postseason contests (111-66). Along the way, he has made moves such as trading for Pau Gasol and Dwight Howard, bringing back Derek Fisher, drafting Andrew Bynum and Julius Randle, signing Metta World Peace and free-agent future Hall-of-Famers Karl Malone, Gary Payton and Steve Nash, and acquiring role players the likes of Trevor Ariza, Shannon Brown and Horace Grant (a trade involving four teams and 12 players that was, at the time, the largest such transaction in league history) to help keep Los Angeles competitive within the confines of the salary cap.

Kupchak's duties include a variety of responsibilities which keep him thoroughly active 12 months a year. Number one on the list is the dayto-day management of the tearn. Included in his management duties are personnel decisions, contract negotiations, salary cap concerns and strategy, overseeing the Lakers' entry in the annual Summer Pro League and the scouting of collegiate and international players. In addition to those tasks, he also deals with various marketing, public relations and other management functions.

Kupchak, who joined the Lakers front office in 1986 following a 10-year NBA career, has played prominent roles in the past success of the Lakers as well as in the club's return to the upper echelon of the NBA.

Originally a first round draft choice of the Washington Bullets in 1976 (13th overall), Mitch spent the first five years of his career with the Bullets, earning NBA All-Rookie Team honors following the 1976-77 campaign. He posted a career-best field goal percentage during his rookie season (.572), a figure which at the time represented the 10th highest in league history. During the 1977-78 campaign, Mitch played an important role in Washington's drive to the NBA championship, averaging a career-high 15.9 points on 51.2% shooting in to go along with 6.9 rebounds per game. The following season, Kupchak ranked second among all NBA reserves with a scoring average of 14.6 points per game while posting a career-high-tying 32 points against the Lakers on November 24, 1978.

The opening chapter to Kupchak's Los Angeles career was written August 5, 1981 when the Lakers acquired him from Washington in exchange for Jim Chones, Brad Holland and a pair of draft choices. A reserve during his five-year tenure with the Bullets, Mitch was quickly inserted into the Lakers starting lineup. During the first 26 games of the 1981-82 campaign, Kupchak averaged 14.3 points and 8.1 rebounds per contest. Unfortunately, Mitch suffered multiple injuries to his left knee during a game at the San Diego Sports Arena on December 19, 1981, an injury which required two major operations. It was feared - even expected - that he would never play again. After missing the entire 1982-83 campaign, Kupchak proved doctors wrong by rejoining his teammates on the floor during the early portion of the 1983-84 season after undergoing intensive daily therapy for 16 months.

His persistence paid big dividends the following year as the reserve forward/center played a vital role in the Lakers march to the 1985 NBA Championship. With the victory, Kupchak joined a select group of players to win an NBA championship with two different clubs. Additionally, he remains one of only five players in club history to convert at least 10 field goals in a game without a miss (11-11 vs. San Antonio 11/20/81, joining Wilt Chamberlain, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Byron Scott and Pau Gasol).

Prior to the start of the 1986-87 campaign and after yet another lengthy rehabilitation following an additional knee injury, Kupchak retired as a player and joined the front office. He concluded his NBA career averaging 10.2 points and 5.4 rebounds in 510 regular season games. His career field goal percentage of .523 still ranks 46th among the all-time NBA leaders (minimum 2,000 field goals made).

Due to his unfortunate injury and aware that his playing career would end prematurely, Kupchak studied for an MBA degree at UCLA during his spare time and rehabilitation stints, earning a degree in February of 1987. This foresight helped prepare Mitch for his present job as a professional sports executive.

A long-time Yankees fan who admired Mickey Mantle as a child, Mitch was born in Hicksville, New York on May 24, 1954 and starred at Brentwood High School on Long Island. An All-American standout at the University of North Carolina, Kupchak became the first freshman to play at the university after the freshman eligibility rules changed prior to the 1972-73 season. He averaged a career-high 18.5 points per game during his junior campaign and ranked eighth overall in the NCAA in field goal percentage that season (.602). As a senior, Mitch was named ACC Player of the Year and is one of 49 UNC standouts to have his jersey (#21) honored and raised to the rafters of the Dean Smith Center in Chapel Hill (November of 1994).

Prior to his initial NBA campaign, Mitch was the starting center on the gold-medal winning United States team in the 1976 Olympic Games.

An avid golfer, Mitch and his wife Claire live in Brentwood with their son Maxwell (17) and daughter Alina (15).

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

GLENN CARRARO

A club executive with the Lakers since 2000, Glenn Carraro enters his third season as the team's Assistant General Manager. Responsible for assisting General Manager Mitch Kupchak in all basketball operations, Carraro also serves a dual role as Vice President of Basketball Operations for the NBA Development League's Los Angeles D-Fenders.

Elevated to the VP position with the D-Fenders prior to the 2013-14 campaign after two highly successful seasons as the team's General Manager (2011-13), Carraro now serves in an advisory role on personnel decisions, contract negotiations, salary cap concerns, and scouting. During his time as GM, the team finished with the best regular season record in NBA D-League history (38-12) in 2011-12, had a total of 11 GATORADE Call-Ups to the NBA and received the 2011-12 NBA D-League Development Champion Award.

Bringing 19 years of professional basketball experience to the Assistant GM position, during his time in the Lakers front office alone, Carraro has been part of five NBA Championship teams and seven NBA Finals appearances. Originally serving as Assistant to the General Manager/ Director of Camps for his first six years with the team, in 2006, Carraro was named Director of Basketball Administration for the Lakers as well as Assistant General Manager for the newly formed D-Fenders.

Prior to joining the Lakers, Carraro served in various positions with the New York Knicks from 1995-99, starting off as a Sports Management Trainee, then Player Personnel Coordinator/Manager of Knicks Camps and eventually as Manager of Basketball Operations. With primary responsibilities including the creation and management of player personnel databases as well as separate salary cap reports, in his time with New York's front office, the Knicks posted a 174-122 (.588) record and made at least the Eastern Conference Semifinals in all four seasons while appearing in the 1999 NBA Finals.

A graduate of SUNY-Stony Brook after transferring from NYU-Polytechnic following two seasons on the men's basketball team, Carraro completed his graduate coursework in Athletic Administration at St. John's University (1991-94), while also serving as the USBL's Director of Sales and Marketing/Operations from 1992-95. Having also worked in the CBA for the Hartford Hellcats and Connecticut Pride, Carraro, in all, is a veteran of four professional basketball leagues.

A diehard Yankees and Steelers fan dating back to his childhood, Carraro currently resides in Highland Park.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM / BASKETBALL CONSULTANT

BILL BERTKA

Bill Bertka returns for his 34th consecutive season with the Lakers and 12th in his current capacity, having been with the organization through 10 NBA Championships and 20 NBA Finals appearances. Serving as an assistant coach under seven Lakers head coaches dating back to 1981, Bertka brings a wealth of experience to the position, including coaching Laker big men Wilt Chamberlain, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Vlade Divac, Shaquille O'Neal and Andrew Bynum. His talent as a scout and experience in player personnel matters make him an excellent resource for Mitch Kupchak, Jim Buss and the rest of the team's basketball operations staff.

First employed by the Lakers in 1968, Bertka served as a scout, assistant coach and director of player personnel up until 1974 when he left the club to become general manager of the NBA expansion New Orleans Jazz. Bertka also had an initial ownership stake in the franchise through his company. Invest West Sports.

HEAD COACH

Byron Scott

Byron Scott was named the 25th head coach in Lakers franchise history and the 21st in the Los Angeles era on July 28, 2014, joining Kurt Rambis, Magic Johnson, Pat Riley, Jerry West, Jim Pollard and George Mikan as the seventh individual to both play and coach for the organization.

The Inglewood, CA native brings 29 years of NBA experience to the job, including 14 seasons as a player, 13 as a head coach, and two as an assistant coach. In his 13 previous seasons at the helm of the New Jersey Nets (2000-2004), New Orleans/Oklahoma City Hornets (2004-2009) and Cleveland Cavaliers (2010-2013), Scott has amassed 416 wins after beginning his coaching career as an assistant with the Sacramento Kings (1998-2000). The 2007-08 NBA Coach of the Year has led his teams to the postseason four times, including back-to-back NBA Finals appearances with New Jersey in 2002 and 2003. Scott has also served as an NBA All-Star Game head coach on two occasions: 2002 (Eastern Conference) and 2008 (Western Conference), one of only seven coaches to earn the honor in each conference, five of whom have been elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in a coaching capacity.

Scott also became just the eighth coach in NBA history to win Coach of the Month honors in both conferences when he garnered the honors for the Western Conference in January 2008.

In his most recent head coaching role with the Cavaliers, Scott developed a number of young Cavaliers players, including Kyrie Irving and Dion Waiters, and topped his previous win total each successive season in his three years with the rebuilding Cavs.

Among his other coaching achievements, Scott was at the helm for the best season in franchise history of two teams: the 2007-08 Hornets who went 56-26 (.683) and the 2001-02 Eastern Conference Champion Nets who went 52-30 (.634). The '07-'08 campaign was a 17-win improvement from the previous season in New Orleans, and resulted in an appearance in the Western Conference Semifinals. Scott also saw marked success in his second season with the Hornets during the 2005-06 season, leading the team to a 20-win improvement (the NBA's best that year) from his first season, despite Hurricane Katrina displacing the team from New Orleans and playing in four different home arenas throughout the season. Scott had a similar impact in his first head coaching stop, improving the Nets by 26 wins between his first and second seasons, marking the sixth-largest improvement in NBA history.

Prior to his successful coaching career, the 53-year-old Scott enjoyed an outstanding NBA playing career, spending 11 of his 14 seasons (1983-93 and the 1996-97 season) with the Lakers and helping the purple-and-gold to three NBA Championships (1985, 1987 and 1988) and six NBA Finals appearances as an integral starter during the 'Showtime' era. Originally selected in the first round of the 1983 NBA Draft (4th overall) by the San Diego Clippers, Scott became a Laker on October 16, 1983 when the Clippers traded him, along with Swen Nater, to L.A. in exchange for Eddie Jordan, Norm Nixon and a second round pick.

One of the marquee shooting guards of his time, Scott concluded his 1,073-game NBA career (717 starts) with averages of 14.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 2.5 assists on 48.2% shooting in 28.1 minutes per contest. The 6-4 guard had his best single season in 1987-88, where he achieved career-high per game averages of 21.7 points, 4.1 rebounds and 4.1 assists while starting 81 games and ranking 8th in the NBA in minutes played (3,048) and 9th in three-pointers made (62). Scott finished in the top-10 in three-point field goal percentage four times in his career: 1984-85 (.433, 1st), 1986-87 (.436, 4th), 1988-89 (.399, 10th) and 1989-90 (.423, 5th).

A consummate winner, Scott reached the postseason in 13 of his 14 years in uniform, tallying 183 postseason games (122 starts), posting career playoff averages of 13.4 points on 48.2% shooting, 2.9 rebounds and 2.1 assists in 29.3 minutes per game. His 183 career playoff appearances rank 11th all-time in NBA history.

The 1983-84 NBA All-Rookie First Team selection saw his NBA playing career come full-circle after signing with the Lakers as a free agent prior to the 1996-97 season following stints with Indiana (1993-95) and Vancouver (1995-96), when the 35-year-old shooting guard mentored 18-year-old rookie Kobe Bryant. After retiring from the NBA following that year, Scott played the 1997-98 season overseas, winning a championship for Pananthinaikos in Greece before moving into coaching.

Most recently, the Arizona State University Hall-of-Famer was an on-air talent for a variety of Time Warner Cable SportsNet's studio programming last season, his only full season away from the professional game as a coach or player since he entered the NBA in 1983.

His broadcasting experience began during the 2003-04 season when he served as a studio analyst for ABC's NBA telecasts and continued during the 2009-10 season when he was an analyst for ESPN's coverage of the NBA.

Off the court, the Morningside High School alumnus dedicates time to his non-profit organization, The Byron Scott Children's Fund, with proceeds going to various children's charities. He is the proud father of three children: Thomas (a player development coach with the Lakers), LonDen and DaRon, and has two grandchildren, Kyla and Laila.

ATHLETIC TRAINER

GARY VITTI

While the Lakers entered the 21st century with new uniforms, a new arena, new practice facilities, a new coaching staff and a host of new players, one constant has remained. Entering his 31st season as the team's athletic trainer, Gary Vitti is widely recognized as one of the best practitioners of his respective field.

Vitti, who monitors the health of the club throughout the season using state-of-the-art methods in conditioning, dieting, stretching and testing, is the longest tenured athletic trainer in Lakers history with 30 years of service.

The 60-year-old native of Stamford, Connecticut is responsible for the care, prevention and treatment of injuries to Lakers players, assuring the coaching staff that each athlete is in the best possible condition from October through April, May, or, in the event of a championship run, June. Yet just because the season ends doesn't mean Vitti is off the clock. His job typically continues throughout the months of July, August and September as he spends a portion of his summer working with players during the off-season.

Vitti earned his B.S. degree from Southern Connecticut State University in 1976 and his M.S. degree in sports medicine from the University of Utah in 1982. In addition to studying at the University of Utah, he spent two years as a trainer and teacher at the university while working as an assistant trainer with the NBA's Utah Jazz (1981-82). Following his stint with the Jazz, Vitti served as head athletic trainer and an adjunct assistant professor at the University of Portland for two years before joining the Lakers prior to the 1984-85 campaign. Since his arrival in Los Angeles, the Lakers have won eight NBA championships (1985, 1987, 1988, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2009 and 2010), thanks in no small part to the health of such players as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Magic Johnson, Shaquille O'Neal, Kobe Bryant, Pau Gasol and numerous others. In a much-deserved honor, Vitti was named the National Basketball Association's Trainer of the Year in 1991 by the NBA's Trainers Association, partially due to his philanthropic work. Additional honors over the years have included Southern Connecticut State University's 2001 Citation award as a distinguished alumniand most recently, the 2011 "Local Hero Award" presented by the Team HEAL Foundation, whose mission is to bring comprehensive injury prevention, medical care, athletic training, healthcare awareness, mentoring and academic support to high school athletes in underserved communities.

Having long been considered one of the top athletic trainers in the country, Vitti's services are well in demand. Complementing his NBA duties, he has also served as lead trainer for numerous other sporting events since 1984, including Los Angeles Strings tennis, the Summer Pro League and several summer basketball camps throughout the country. Additionally, he is a frequent visitor on the lecture tour, sharing his wisdom at a number of athletic seminars and workshops each year such as the time he traveled to the Philippines to speak at a Coaches/ Sports Medicine Clinic. The seminar was by invitation only and included some of the top coaches, trainers, doctors and physical therapists in the world. He has also spent a portion of recent summers working abroad, participating in clinics throughout Italy.

Vitti has also supervised physiological profile studies published in English and Japanese and has written a monthly column for "Sports Medicine Digest." He has also written a monthly sports medicine column for the Los Angeles Times syndicate, produced a conditioning video in 1992 called "Training for Excellence," and created the NBATA Foundation, the NATA Annual Blood Drive and served on the NATA Public Relations Committee.

On weekends Vitti enjoys riding his Harley Davidson through the canyons of the Santa Monica Mountains. Each summer he spends time in his 400-plus year old house in Settefratti, Italy, a remote village situated in the mountains 60 miles southeast of Rome.

Vitti, who has two daughters, Rachel, 27 and Emilia, 23, resides in Manhattan Beach with his wife, Martha.

2013-14 Los Angeles Lakers Key Dates

10/29/13 vs. LAC The Laker bench (composed of Jordan Farmar, Xavier Henry, Jordan Hill, Wesley Johnson, Chris Kaman and Jodie Meeks) scores 76 points in the opening night win (including all 41 of the team's points in the fourth quarter), the most fourth quarter points scored by the Lakers since 1/12/11 (46).

11/3/13 vs. ATL Eight different Lakers hit three-pointers, a feat achieved for the second time this season and just third time in franchise history. 11/22/13 vs. GSW Donating $1,000 for each point he scores to aid relief efforts for Philippine typhoon victims, Pau Gasol scores a team-high 24 points.

Kobe Bryant returns from Achilles surgery, marking his 18th season in the NBA (all with the Lakers), tied for the secondkobe Bryant returns from Achilles surgery, marking his 18th season in the NBA (all with the Lakers), tied for the seconding his Lakers record for most seasons played with the franchise. 12/8/13 vs. TOR longest stint with one team in NBA history and extending his Lakers record for most seasons played with the franchise

The Lakers are outscored 28 to 23 in each of the final three quarters, marking the fourth time in the shot-clock era of NBA history 12/13/13 at OKC that three consecutive periods were decided by an identical score. 12/14/13 at CHA Kobe Bryant has his best performance of the season with 21 points, seven rebounds and eight assists.

1/20/14 at CHI The Lakers play their only overtime game of the season, the lowest total in the NBA in 2013-14.

2/5/14 at CLE The Lakers run out of healthy players late in the fourth quarter, forcing a rarely-used NBA rule to come into effect. After Chris Kaman fouled out, it left the Lakers with just five available players, and when Robert Sacre drew his sixth foul with 3:32 left in the game, the officials huddled with Mike D'Antoni, who chose to accept a technical foul and let Sacre stay in the game (each of his future fouls would then result in a technical as well). Through it all, Steve Blake records his second career triple-double with 15 assists, 11 points and 10 rebounds, making him just the third Laker (Kobe Bryant and Magic Johnson) to have a 15+ assist triple-double in the last quarter century, and the Lakers come out victorious 2/7/14 at PHI

On his 40th birthday, Steve Nash scores game-high 19 points to go with five assists and four rebounds. 2/21/14 vs. BOS Los Angeles snaps their franchise-long eight-game home losing streak against rival Boston is resounding fashion, outscoring the Celtics by 20 points in the fourth quarter. 2/28/14 vs. SAC The Lakers make a franchise regulation record 19 three-pointers. For the first time since 1998, four Lakers players score 20-plus points in the same game, led by Jordan Farmar's career-high 30 points (8-10 3FG, also a career mark for makes).

3/6/14 vs. LAC

points in the salite gainle, lea by solidar Patrials a career-night to points (6-10 3-Q, also a career mark to makes).

The Clippers hand the Lakers their biggest loss in franchise history (48 points), surpassing the 46-point loss at Portland on 1/9/95.

The previous mark for largest margin of defeat at home was 39 points against the Celtics on 2/9/60.

Jodie Meeks scores a career-high 42 points, becoming the first Laker since Kobe Bryant (4/10/13 at POR) to score 40-plus points.

The Lakers score 51 points in the third quarter, the most in any quarter in franchise history (surpassing the old mark of 49 done 3/9/14 vs. OKC

3/25/14 vs. NYK in 3/19/72 vs. GSW and 11/23/66 vs. CHI) in front of newly-appointed Knicks President and ex-Laker coach Phil Jackson who was hired to his new position the week prior. The 51 points also stand as the most the Knicks have given up in a period in their history. The 31-point victory is the largest of the season for L.A.

4/8/14 vs. HOU Steve Nash moves into sole position for third place on the NBA's all-time assist list with his fifth assist of the game and 10,335th of his career at the 2:13 mark in the second quarter, passing Mark Jackson. The game is also the highest scoring game of the NBA season (275 combined points, the most in a regulation game since PHX and GSW combined for 284 points on 3/15/09). Los Angeles wins for the first time in April and avoids having the worst record in the Western Conference led by a season-high 41

4/14/14 at UTA points from Nick Young (the highest single-game bench scoring effort in the NBA in 2013-14).

LAKERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation Our Mission

The Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation supports local non-profit and youth organizations that are dedicated to improving the quality of life in our community. We are committed to utilizing our resources to provide educational, athletic and recreational opportunities to Los Angeles youth.

BUSS FAMILY & THE LAKERS

During his lifetime, as a result of his considerable charitable efforts, Dr. Jerry Buss was honored by a wide range of organizations that included City of Hope, NAACP, the B'Nai B'rith, United Negro College Fund, United Indian Development Association, National Organization of Women, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, Muscular Dystrophy Association, the Los Angeles Human Relations Commission, Heart of Los Angeles Youth and Special Olympics of Southern California. Following in their father's footsteps, the Buss family's philanthropic and community support is as diverse as the community in which they live and work.

The Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation annually donate thousands of dollars, tickets, merchandise, and autographed items to support countless neighborhood schools, libraries, and churches as well as non-profit organizations which attend to the needs of communities in Southern California.

LAKERS "READ TO ACHIEVE"

The Los Angeles Lakers READ TO ACHIEVE campaign enjoys continued success as the organization and its players focus their efforts on literacy and instilling the joy of reading in Los Angeles youth. The main components of the program are the annual reading challenge, book drive and the development of Lakers Reading and Learning Centers throughout L.A. and Hawaii.

Currently its 14th year, the Lakers Read to Achieve Reading Challenge is open to local elementary schools and has encouraged nearly 300,000 students to read for Lakers prizes and tickets. Students who complete the challenge receive a Lakers prize, a certificate of completion, and are entered into a drawing to win Lakers tickets. Classrooms with a 100% completion rate are eligible to win Grand Prizes.

Chick Hearn Night has been celebrated at the Lakers home game closest to Chick's birthday every season since his passing in 2002. The book drive is a perfect way to celebrate Chick's passion for reading and education, and the Lakers dedication to literacy. All of the books collected benefit Lakers Reading and Learning Centers that have been created throughout the Los Angeles area. Over the past seven seasons, Lakers fans have generously donated over 9.000 books to support literacy.

Since 2002, the Lakers have created fifteen Lakers Reading Rooms or Lakers Reading and Learning Centers throughout Los Angeles and Hawaii. Each site was remodeled with new carpet, paint, bookshelves, tables, chairs, sofas, children's books, and framed Lakers photos, offering children a safe and fun learning environment dedicated to literacy.

LAKERS IN THE COMMUNITY

LAKERS YOUTH BASKETBALL CLINICS

The Lakers youth basketball program is dedicated to promoting the sport of basketball and developing the skills of young players. With our talents and resources, the Lakers support existing youth basketball leagues, renovate basketball courts throughout the city of Los Angeles, conduct clinics for players and coaches, and host our annual summer camp, Camp Lakers.

Camp Lakers, a summer youth basketball camp for kids ages 9-18, focuses on providing young players with a program that improves their overall basketball skills in a fun and challenging environment. Camp Lakers 2014 was held at the Next Level Sports Complex in Garden Grove. Since 2000, Camp Lakers has featured personal instruction and appearances by players such as Kobe Bryant, Xavier Henry, and Julius Randle, as well as insight from Lakers Legend Michael Cooper and General Manager Mitch Kupchak. Proceeds from the camp benefit the Lakers Youth Foundation.

LAKERS "TEAM UP"

Lakers Team Up is the organization's service initiative, designed to allow the Lakers staff to give back to our community. Last season we donated our time to many local and national nonprofit organizations, including: Heal the Bay, US Vets, LA Works, Operation Gratitude, Los Angeles Regional Food Bank, The Midnight Mission and Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles.

IN-ARENA AUCTION

At each Lakers home game, fans have the opportunity to bid on autographed memorabilia from the Lakers and other sports teams, with all proceeds benefiting the Lakers Youth Foundation. The auction excitement can be found next to Guest Services and across from Aisle 12 inside STAPLES Center. The auction begins ninety minutes before tip-off and concludes ten minutes before the end of halftime. Over the past 16 seasons, the in-arena auction has raised over $2 million to support youth education, and basketball programs.

LAKERS CELEBRITY GOLF INVITATIONAL

Each season, the Lakers organization and some of their biggest fans gather to raise money for the Lakers Youth Foundation at the Lakers Celebrity Golf Invitational. Last season's 24th annual tournament was held at the Riviera Country Club, where golfers had the opportunity to play alongside Lakers Legends and sports and entertainment celebrities on the famed course. After the golfing, guests had the opportunity to meet the entire Lakers team and coaching staff at a charity auction and gala dinner. The money raised at the Lakers Celebrity Golf Invitational benefits the Lakers Youth Foundation, and enables the foundation to provide educational, athletic and recreational opportunities to Los Angeles youth.

GAME NIGHT PROGRAMS FOR KIDS

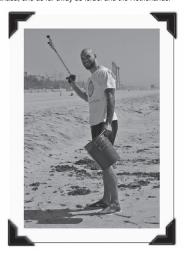

At each Lakers home game, ten High-Five Kids have the opportunity to line up at courtside and "high five" the Lakers team as they run out onto the court for their warm-up practice. The youth are invited to participate in these programs either as special guests of the Lakers organization, or through random selection from the stands on game night.

COMPLIMENTARY GROUP TICKETS

Each year, the Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation donate several thousand tickets to Southern California non-profit organizations so that their members may enjoy a game together. Often, the complimentary group ticket is the non-profit member's first opportunity to see a Lakers game. In addition, the Lakers' It's Time For Kids program provides tickets specifically for foster children, group homes, and underprivileged children.

SPECIAL WISHES

In collaboration with wish granting organizations, the Los Angeles Lakers regularly provide game tickets and arrange player meetings for children and adults facing life-threatening medical conditions. Over the past 13 years, the Lakers have granted over 360 special wishes for children and adults from all over the United States, Canada, and as far away as Israel and the Netherlands.

LAKERS IN THE COMMUNITY

STUDENTS & EDUCATORS OF THE MONTH PROGRAM

Once a month during the NBA regular season, the Los Angeles Lakers and STAPLES honor three local students, two local teachers and one local principal for their outstanding academic and extracurricular achievements. All educator nominations are submitted to the Lakers office by local school personnel and all student nominations are submitted by teachers. Each honoree receives four tickets to attend a Lakers game and at halftime, is presented with a plaque and a $50 gift certificate to STAPLES, proud sponsor of the program.

A SEASON OF GIVING

The Lakers "A Season of Giving" campaign, presented by East West Bank, is an opportunity for the Lakers to share in the joy of the holiday season with the people of Los Angeles. The 2013-2014 "A Season of Giving" kicked off last November at Lucille's Smokehouse Bar-B-Que where kids from the YMCA of the San Gabriel Valley were treated to a delicious Thanksgiving meal. The Laker Girls, Pau Gasol, and Nick Young spent the evening serving a traditional Thanksgiving meal to 100 kids and chaparones, all while stopping to pose for photos and sign autographs. To continue the Thanksgiving festivities, Jordan Hill, Mark Madsen, and the Laker Girls distributed over 300 Thanksgiving turkeys and pies to residents of the Hawthorne community prior to Thanksgiving day.

In December, the Lakers and East West Bank hosted a holiday party for children from local youth organizations at Toyota Sports Center. Kids from various Boys & Girls Clubs around Los Angeles were treated to a day of holiday fun, starting with ice skating with the Laker Girls. From the rink the kids headed in to the party area where they feasted on a holiday lunch, decorated gingerbread cookies, and played games with their favorite Lakers players. Each child also posed for an individual photo with Pau Gasol on a big Lakers Santa chair, and received presents and toys from the Lakers.

In addition to spreading holiday cheer to the youth of Los Angeles, the Lakers and East West Bank participated in an Adopt-A-Family program with LAUSD's Homeless Education Program. LAUSD identified families that would benefit from receiving some holiday cheer and the Lakers along with East West Bank customers purchased gifts for eight families in the Los Angeles area. Along with receiving gifts the families were then treated to meeting some of their favorite players: Nick Young, Jodie Meeks, and Robert Sacre.

"A Season of Giving" culminated at the Lakers' Christmas Day game at STAPLES Center, where the Lakers continued their tradition of hosting boys from a local group home and inviting children from Hope Street Family Center to participate in an on-court gift exchange with Lakers players and the visiting team.

"Freedom Through My Eyes" Art & Essay Contest

The Lakers Youth Foundation's "Freedom Through My Eyes" art and essay contest is open to Los Angeles middle school students and encourages them to explore the meaning of liberty and our nation's symbols of freedom. Students enter by submitting an essay and artwork expressing what freedom means to them. Five lucky winners are then invited on an exciting 5 day/4 night trip to Washington, DC.

The winners of last year's 8th Annual "Freedom Through My Eyes" contest had a memorable trip to Washington D.C. During the days, the winners toured the White House, U.S. Capitol, Arlington National Cemetery, the Newseum and the International Spy Museum. During the evenings, the winners also took in the sights on a guided twilight bus tour of the city. The bus tour included stops at tamous national landmarks such as the Lincoln Memorial, Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Iwo Jima Memorial, Jefferson Memorial and FDR Memorial. Upon returning to Los Angeles, the winners were invited to a Lakers home game, where they were recognized at halftime and their essays and artwork were prominently displayed on the main concourse during the game.

HEALTH AND FITNESS INITIATIVES

The Lakers are dedicated to helping their fans live a healthy lifestyle. To emphasize the importance of health and fitness, the Lakers sponsor programs that reward local students for being active about their health.

Fit For Life with the Los Angeles Lakers aims to educate the community about the importance of physical fitness and nutrition in an effort to help fight childhood obesity and encourage all fans to be fit for life. During the 2013-2014 season students and teachers could enter the Fit For Life Contest with a chance to win an invitation to the Lakers Health Fair. A total of 250 students from elementary schools and middle schools throughout Los Angeles

GREES

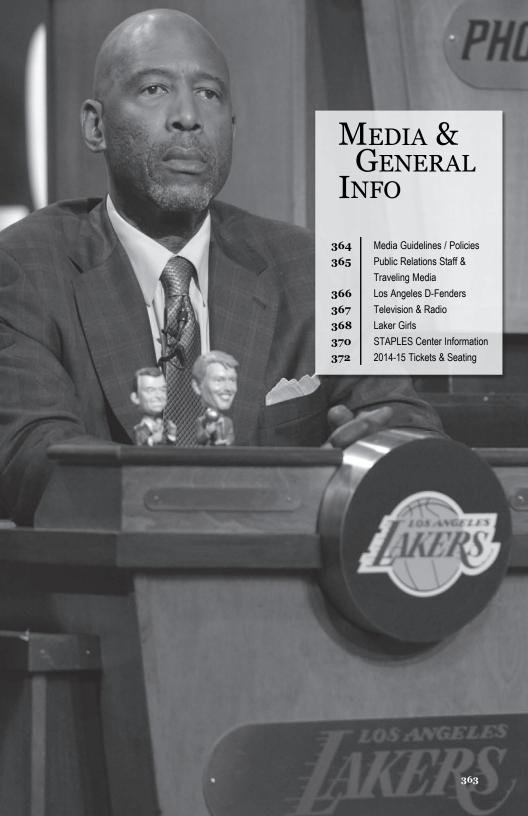

County came out to the 5th Annual Lakers Fit For Life Health Fair, for an afternoon of nutrition lessons and fun exercise with the Laker Girls and Laker players.

ACTIVE ALLIANCE

As a member of the Active Alliance, a partnership with HealthCorps and The California Endowment, the Lakers Youth Foundation is committed to improving health in children through exercise, nutrition and education. The foundation will create safe environments for children to play and be active as well as provide children with access to quality nutrition and fitness programs. Among these projects will be Highway to Health community health fairs, basketball court and playground renovations, Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service community projects, cooking workshops, and basketball, fitness and dance clinics with current players, Lakers alumni and the Laker Girls.

Los Angeles D-Fenders

Now entering its 14th season, the NBA Development League - the NBA's minor league established to develop talent across all disciplines for the NBA - is designed to help grow the sport of basketball both domestically and internationally by offering NBA-quality basketball and fun, family entertainment at affordable prices.

In July 2006, the Los Angeles Lakers became the first NBA franchise to own its own NBA Development League team. Starting in the 2006-07 season, the Los Angeles D-Fenders franchise began playing its home games either prior to or following Lakers home games at STAPLES Center. Beginning in 2011-12, however, the D-Fenders started to play all their home games exclusively at the Toyota Sports Center, the Lakers practice facility in El Segundo, CA.

On three separate occasions during the D-Fenders inaugural season, the Lakers utilized their minor league affiliate by assigning rookie guard Jordan Farmar to the team and recalling him following each game. Furthermore, the Lakers made history on April 1, 2007 when Farmar became the first player in league history to play in an NBA and NBA D-League game in the same day. Joining Farmar, Coby Karl became the 2nd player in league history to accomplish the feat in 2007-708. In 2008-09, rookie guard Sun Yue became the third Lakers player to play for the D-Fenders on assignment. With no D-League assignments in 2009-10 and a one year hiatus from the D-League in 2010-11, the D-Fenders returned to competition in 2011-12, posting the best regular season record in league history (38-12) and receiving the first ever NBA Development League Champion Award (an annual award given to the team that best embodies the D-League's goals of developing NBA talent via call-ups & assignments). Beginning in 2011-12, the Lakers have utilized their D-League team extensively, assigning 10 different Lakers players to the D-Fenders over the past three seasons (Darius Morris, Devin Ebanks, Derrick Caracter, Andrew Goudelock, Malcolm Thomas, Robert Sacre, Darius Johnson-Odom, Elias Harris, Ryan Kelly and Xavier Henry). Additionally, the 2013-14 season saw the D-Fenders capture their second Western Division title while making history by developing the first ever players to be called-up from the D-Fenders to the Lakers (Manny Harris and Shawne Williams). Since the 2006-07 season, the D-Fenders have developed 15 Lakers assignees, 18 NBA call-ups and five NBA coaching call-ups. Included in the list of coaching call-ups are current Lakers Assistant Coach Mark Madsen, Assistant Coach/Head Advance NBA Scout Clay Moser, and Player Development Coaches Larry Lewis and Thomas Scott.

Of the 18 NBA D-League teams playing during the 2014-15 season, seven are fully owned and operated by their NBA affiliates: the D-Fenders (Lakers), Austin Toros (San Antonio), Canton Charge (Cleveland), Delaware 87ers (Philadelphia), Santa Cruz Warriors (Golden State), Tulsa 66ers (Oklahoma City) and Westchester Knicks (New York). The Bakersfield Jam (Phoenix), Erie BayHawks (Orlando), Grand Rapids Drive (Detroit), Idaho Stampede (Utah), Iowa Energy (Memphis), Maine Red Claws (Boston), Reno Biohorns (Sacramento), Rio Grande Valley Vipers

SECONDARY LOGO

(Houston) and Sioux Falls Skyforce (Miami) are the nine NBA D-League teams with 'hybrid' single-affiliation partnerships, where NBA teams control the NBA D-League affiliates' basketball operations. The Dallas Mavericks remain solely affiliated with the Texas Legends.

TIME WARNER CABLE

Time Warner Cable SportsNet and Time Warner Cable Deportes are two Southern California regional sports networks that launched on October 1, 2012 and that are entering their third season as the local TV homes of the Los Angeles Lakers. Through their exclusive partnerships with the Lakers, LA Galaxy, Los Angeles Sparks and the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF), the award-winning 24/7, high-definition networks each deliver more than 180 live events per year, extensive team coverage, and behind-the-scenes access unlike anything fans have seen before.

Lakers programming on Time Warmer Cable SportsNet includes "Access SportsNet: Lakers," the network's signature studio show that encompasses pre- and post-game shows, and "#LakeShow," a live social media show driven by of-the-moment conversations about the team. "Backstage: Lakers" is a weekly documentary series that gives fans unprecedented access to team and chronicles the Lakers season from start to finish, taking viewers into the locker room, executive offices and other normally off-limits areas, providing a behind-the-scenes look at the season while it unfolds. The "Laker Girls" miniseries takes fans inside the making of the dance squad, going behind-the-scenes as dancers audition, make the team and then perform on Opening Night at STAPLES Center. Other Lakers programming on Time Warmer Cable SportsNet includes the "Lakers Top 10" series, "Planet Lakers" fan profiles and the "Connected With..." in-depth interview series. All Lakers games on Time Warmer Cable SportsNet are called by veteran Lakers broadcasters Stu Lantz and Bill Macdonald, with Mike Trudell as the sideline reporter, and studio commentary is led by James Worthy, Robert Horry, Chris McGee, Jaime Maggio, Dave Miller and Kelli Tennant.

Time Warner Cable Deportes is the nation's first-ever Spanish-language regional sports network offering content, commentary and original programming developed especially for the Hispanic sports fan and local community. Lakers programming on Time Warner Cable Deportes includes "Lakers Confidencial," the Spanish-language equivalent of "Backstage: Lakers" that is produced specifically for a Spanish-speaking audience, the "Lakers En Vivo" pre-game show, the "Somos Lakers" post-game show, "Lakers Top 10" and "Momentos Lakers," which recaps the best Lakers moments of the month. Lakers games are called live on Time Warmer Cable Deportes by play-by-play announcer Adrián García Márquez and analyst Francisco Pinto and the network's studio team is led by Ricardo Celis, Pepe San

2014-15 LAKER GIRLS

Entering their 36th season and long considered the premier dance squad of the NBA, the Los Angeles Laker Girls have undoubtedly earned a place in team history right alongside the greats who have worn a Lakers uniform.

Impressed with the collegiate look and spirit that existed at USC and UCLA in the late 1970s and seeking to bring that same atmosphere to Lakers home games, then-new owner Dr. Jerry Buss brought together former songleaders from both universities to form the original Laker Girls in 1979.

After becoming known almost immediately for their unique and innovative dance routines, routines which actually helped spawn trends in music videos, it wasn't long before the Laker Girls were the glamour dance group of the NBA and a household name nationwide. What had first begun as an experiment ultimately resulted in a trend-setting tradition.

Over the years, the Laker Girls have evolved into an even more professional dance squad while maintaining that same collegiate spirit that brought about their positive reputation.

The 2014-15 squad consists of 22 talented, intelligent and energetic young ladies chosen from over 350 candidates. With each position considered a part-time job, each member of the Laker Girls is also involved in academic pursuits, theatrical/dance careers or non-entertainment careers.

Beyond dancing at Lakers home games, the Laker Girls have become ambassadors for the organization and NBA worldwide. While active in the local community with various personal appearances throughout the season at many non-profit and charitable functions, Laker Girls have also been chosen to represent the NBA globally on the continents of Asia, Europe and Australia. In addition, Laker Girls have also been afforded the opportunity to support and visit our military troops in places abroad such as Italy, Bosnia, Korea, Japan, Israel and Sarajevo.

Whether it is a community appearance, a clinic on foreign soil, a television show cameo or a game-night dance routine, the Laker Girls' positive image is an integral part of the Los Angeles Lakers. While other NBA teams have followed suit and created dance or performance squads of their own, the Laker Girls still remain the standard by which all other teams are measured.

WE ASKED PEOPLE HOW MUCH MONEY THEY WOULD NEED TO RETIRE.

THEN SHOWED HOW LONG IT MIGHT LAST.

Recently we conducted an intriguing experiment. We asked 200 people to think about how much money they'll need in retirement, then had them stretch out a length of ribbon representing that amount to see how long it might last. What we learned is that most of us significantly underestimate how much we'll need. The fact is, with people living longer, retirement could last up to 30 years or more. How can you make sure the money is there for you, year after year? Talk to your financial professional about our guaranteed retirement income solutions that can help provide annual income for each year of retirement from Day One.
