Eight teams in each conference qualify for NBA Playoffs 2014 which begin on Saturday, April 19. The first four seeds in each conference will continue to be given to the three division winners and the team with the next best regular season record, but these four teams will now be seeded in order of their regular season records. The remaining four teams are ranked Nos. 5-8 according to their won-lost records. The team with the better regular season won-lost record has homecourt advantage in each round of the playoffs.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

Welcome

The Memphis Grizzlies would like to welcome you to the 2014 NBA Playoffs, where the team will make its franchise-record fourth consecutive postseason appearance (and seventh in franchise history) following its third 50-win regular season campaign and its first-ever trip to the Western Conference Finals last season. The Grizzlies communications department would like to thank the media for its continued coverage and, in an effort to provide the utmost service and professional atmosphere, has compiled the following list of guidelines to assist in your coverage throughout the playoffs.

Credentials

Individual single-game credentials can be secured by contacting a member of the Grizzlies communications staff (Ross Wooden at rwooden@grizzlies.com OR Jason Wallace at jwallace@grizzlies.com). Valid credentials will allow access to FedExForum, press row, auxiliary media seating, the Don Poier Media Suite and both locker rooms. Credentials are issued to working press only and at the full discretion of the communications director and the NBA league office. To reserve seating, media members must notify the Grizzlies communications department at least 48 hours in advance. Single-game credentials may be picked up at the FedExForum media entrance on the Southeast corner of Fourth Street and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue beginning three hours prior to tip-off. Season and single-game credentials must be visibly worn at all times and, in all cases, are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from FedExForum and forfeiture of the credential, including but not limited to obtaining autographs.

Credentials for working media are issued based on the following criteria: 1) Local newspapers, newspapers from the opponent's area and national publications; 2) Local radio and television sports department personnel considered reporting; 3) Other daily newspapers, radio and television sports department personnel which are deemed to regularly cover the Memphis Grizzlies; 4) Other weekly and monthly publications that regularly cover the Memphis Grizzlies; 5) Web site reporters and bloggers that are previously approved by the NBA communications department; and 6) Professional scouts.

Photography requests must be submitted by the photo editor. Freelance writers and photographers will only be credentialed if the publication hiring them submits the credential request. Hard copies of the publication may be requested for verification.

Photographers/Camera Operators

Baseline photographer positions are assigned by the Grizzlies communications department for photographers and videographers. Per NBA policy, remote cameras, tripods and hard-back chairs are not permitted. Per NBA policy, all cameras must have a rubber shade lens cover. All television stations have access to the direct in-house feed by contacting the Grizzlies communications department.

Parking

Media parking is available by contacting the Grizzlies communications department 48 hours prior to the game requested. Media parking will be available in the FedExForum surface lot located on Dr. MLK Jr. Avenue between Third and Fourth Streets (across from the Toyota Parking Garage) on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Media Work Room

The media workroom is open three hours prior to each game and is located in the Don Poier Media Suite on the Southeast side of FedExForum. Admittance/space is limited to working media members with credentials only. Television monitors, telephones, workspace and complimentary photocopy and fax services are provided. Game notes, news releases and a limited number of media guide and game programs will also be available in the media work room during the course of the game. The media work room will also be available for use during all practices at FedExForum. Family members and guests of media members will not be permitted (no exceptions).

Locker Rooms

In accordance with NBA policy, both locker rooms will be open 90 minutes prior to tip-off for a 45-minute period and will reopen after the game following a 10-minute cooling-off period. Only those individuals with prominently-displayed, valid credentials will gain admittance. Personal cameras and camera phones are not permitted in the locker rooms, as still photography is not allowed. Seeking autographs or souvenir items from players or coaches is strictly prohibited and subject to forfeiture of credential.

Services

Game notes and statistics will be available in the media work room three hours prior to tip-off. Quarterly, halftime and final box scores, play-by-play sheets and postgame quotes and notes will be delivered to all working media as quickly as possible.

Media members requiring long-distance telephone service, high-speed internet access and/or wireless internet access are advised to contact the Grizzlies communications department in advance. Visiting media will have telephone access along press row and in the media work room, but must also contact the Grizzlies communications department to arrange high-speed, analog and/or wireless internet access both courtside and in the media work room.

Food services are available for $5 for all working media beginning approximately three hours prior to game time. The dining area is located in the Media Dining Room in the Don Poier Media Suite on the Southeast side of FedExForum. Refreshments and snacks will be made available in the media dining room at halftime and postgame.

International Media Policy

International media interested in covering NBA regular-season games must submit a written request to the NBA league office via the NBA international communications. All credential requests must be received at least three business days prior to the first game requested. Photo identification will be required when picking up confirmed credentials at the media entrance.

Practices/Shootarounds

Grizzlies practices and shootarounds are held at either the Coventry Healthcare Practice Facility or the main court at FedExForum. Practices are closed, with the first 30 minutes open to the media. All shootarounds are closed to the media; media availability is provided afterward. Please contact the Grizzlies communications department (Ross Wooden at 901.205.1607 OR Jason Wallace at 901.205.1409) to confirm practice and shootaround times, sites and player/staff availability.

Robert J. Pera

Memphis Grizzlies Chairman and Controlling Owner

On Oct. 31, 2012, the Memphis Grizzlies announced that the sale of the team to a group led by Robert J. Pera had been formally completed. Pera, founder and CEO of Ubiquiti Networks, a publicly-traded next-generation communications technology company, officially assumed control as Chairman and Controlling Owner of the Grizzlies and leads a group of well-respected investors.

"The Grizzlies are here to stay in Memphis," Pera said following the purchase. "We are thrilled to assume ownership of the Grizzlies. We see enormous potential and understand the role the Grizzlies play in bringing Memphians together. We are committed to building a winning team with a best-in-class organizational culture, finding new and creative ways to engage with our fans, and making a positive and meaningful difference in the community."

Since assuming control of the team, Pera has continued to transform the Memphis Grizzlies' identity into a world-class organization. In Pera's first season as chairman and controlling owner, the Grizzlies experienced unprecedented success on and off the court, winning a franchise-record 56 games and advancing to the 2013 Western Conference Finals, the club's first-ever trip to the conference finals. Following their playoff run, the Grizzlies were named the best overall professional sports franchise in North America in ESPN The Magazine's 2013 Ultimate Standings.

Pera is the Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Ubiquiti Networks, Inc., a global communications technology company based in Silicon Valley. Ubiquiti designs and develops wired and wireless Internet protocol systems and services for businesses, carriers, and educational markets. Pera launched Ubiquiti in 2005 with the initial goal of providing long-range wireless connectivity to bring Internet to underserved communities. Today Ubiquiti's communication systems have connected millions of people to the Internet and have powered profitable operator businesses around the globe in creating a multi-billion dollar industry that has successfully bridged the digital divide on a global scale.

In March 2005, Pera started Ubiquiti in a 650 square foot office and just $30,000 of savings —without investors, advisors, lawyers or board members. He saw an opportunity to enhance existing 802.11 WiFi technology to solve the last-mile problem which often leaves underserved and rural areas of the world without Internet access. Since its beginning, the company has been profitable, with growth funded entirely organically by its own earnings.

Ubiquiti went public on the NASDAQ Exchange in October 2011 and has been one of the fastest growing companies in Silicon Valley. In its last fiscal year, the company had earnings of $102.59mm on $353.52mm of sales resulting in industry-leading operating margins of better than 35 percent while employing upwards of only 100 people, mostly engineers.

Pera has developed a unique business model which embraces the openness of the Internet and connects customers to each other and to Ubiquiti's engineers. Combined with the company's disruptive price/performance technology platforms, the model creates a highly loyal and enthusiastic community of operators who have seen their businesses flourish under this partnership. Ubiquiti's official community forum (<http://forum.ubnt.com/>), a web-based platform with more than 135,000 registered users, is one of many online sites that link Ubiquiti operators and engineers together. Thousands of members use the forum daily to ask questions and share innovations.

With more than 70 percent of Ubiquiti's sales coming from emerging countries, Ubiquiti's community of grass roots operators has connected millions of people to the Internet in some of the most remote regions in the world. Ubiquiti aggressively protects its intellectual property, including its patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secrets, and the encryption of its products, to establish and safeguard its valuable intellectual property and worldwide brand recognition.

Pera has received numerous accolades and widespread media recognition including 2012, top 10 "Young and Powerful CEOs under 40" and top 10 "Youngest Billionaires in the World." Pera, who takes a salary of $1 a year and no equity compensation, works to keep Ubiquiti closely connected to its customer base. His personal blog (<http://www.rjpblog.com>) offers insights to customers and fellow entrepreneurs.

Pera grew up in San Carlos, California, near Silicon Valley, where his enthusiasm for computers and entrepreneurship was evident early in life. His mother gave him his first computer at age seven, and by age 16 he was operating his own computer services company.

Pera earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Japanese Language, a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering and a Master of Science degree in Electrical Engineering, all from the University of California, San Diego. Upon graduating, he accepted a position as a hardware engineer at Apple where he worked until leaving to launch Ubiquiti in 2005.

Pera has been a basketball enthusiast from a young age and is known for his ability to quote obscure basketball statistics off the cuff. He plays up to three times a week.

Jason Levien

Chief Executive Officer

Jason Levien leads Memphis Basketball, LLC, which operates the Memphis Grizzlies and FedExForum, and he serves as an Alternate NBA Governor. Since his appointment as CEO in 2012 by Robert Pera, Levien has been focused on establishing the organization's culture with a focus on professionalism, creativity, unselfishness, community investment and the implementation of best practices. This focus has led to changes that have helped to shape the Grizzlies into a world-class organization both on and off the court.

Entering Levien's second year, ESPN The Magazine ranked the Grizzlies as the No. 1 professional sports franchise in all of North America (out of 122 eligible sports teams). The publication's annual survey measures the team's management, leadership and community communication and engagement, fan experience and regard for the organization, and the team's on-court trajectory and championship track.

In Levien's first season, the Grizzlies won 56 regular season games and advanced to the 2013 Western Conference Finals. It was both the franchise's best regular season record and the longest playoff run in its history.

Levien and the basketball operations team he assembled then built upon the team's success heading into their second year by bolstering the team's roster with the re-signing of Tony Allen, trading for center Kosta Koufos and guard Courtney Lee, and recruiting two-time NBA champion Mike Miller. They also traded for the rights to guard Nick Calathes and bought him out from his contract with a Russian team and signed forward James Johnson from the D-League, which turned into one of the league's most impactful D-League signings of the season.

Levien also has been focused on improving the overall fan experience at FedExForum and the positive impact the Grizzlies have in both the Memphis community and the Mid-South region. The Grizzlies bolstered their regional reach into the Nashville, St. Louis, Little Rock, Jackson, Miss. and Jackson, Tenn. markets, and the team secured broader television distribution in St. Louis, Little Rock and western Arkansas.

Levien is the founder of a firm specializing in investments in sports and media properties and is co-owner of the Major League Soccer (MLS) team DC United, where he serves on the MLS Board of Governors.

Levien is a former co-owner of the Philadelphia 76ers. Previously, Levien founded a sports agency which represented professional athletes, coaches, teams, leagues, and sports and media executives. His tenure representing NBA players spanned more than a decade, during which time he represented multiple first round draft selections as well as high-profile free agents. Levien also served as an executive with the NBA's Sacramento Kings.

Levien is a graduate of Pomona College, where he was a member of the basketball team. Levien served as an editor of the Michigan Law Review while earning his law degree and master's in public policy from the University of Michigan. He later was awarded a fellowship at Harvard Law School.

As an attorney, Levien worked at law firms Williams & Connolly and Greenberg Traurig LP. He served as a law clerk on the United States Court of Appeals for the 4th Circuit and taught at the University of California Berkeley Law School and at the University of Michigan.

COACHES

Dave Joerger

Head Coach

One of the most successful minor league head coaches of all-time, Dave Joerger was named the 12th head coach in Memphis Grizzlies history on June 27, 2013.

Backed by five championships in seven years as a head coach on the minor league level and six years as an assistant coach on the Grizzlies’ sidelines, Joerger has helped orchestrate the Grizzlies’ greatest successes in both the regular season and the postseason. Memphis set franchise records for regular season winning percentage and recorded second-place finishes in the Southwest Division, club bests, in each of the past two seasons, both of which Joerger served as the lead assistant. The Grizzlies made three consecutive playoff appearances from 2011-13, upsetting the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs in the opening round of the 2011 Playoffs, the team’s first playoff series victory, and advancing to the 2013 Western Conference Finals two years later.

The success continued with Joerger at the helm as he guided Memphis to a 50-32 record, the third 50-win campaign in club history, and a franchise-record fourth consecutive playoff appearance. Joerger posted the best record among the NBA’s 10 first-year head coaches while tying Hubie Brown (2003-04) for the most wins in Grizzlies franchise history by a head coach in his first full season.

Since his initial hire prior to the 2007-08 season, Joerger has shaped the Grizzlies’ identity into an NBA-best defensive unit that led the league in points allowed (89.3) during the 2012-13 campaign. Memphis paced the Western Conference in points allowed per game (94.6) for the third consecutive season in Joerger’s first season as head coach.

Joerger earned Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for January as the Grizzlies went a league-best 12-3 during the month while leading the league in fewest points allowed (91.3). Memphis again won 12 games in March, marking the first time in franchise history that the team had two 12-win calendar months during the same season. Joerger was again named Western Conference Coach of the Month in April after Memphis went 6-2 during the month and finished the season on a five-game winning streak.

Before earning his first NBA assistant coaching job with the Grizzlies, Joerger gained fame as head coach of the 2007 NBA Development League Champion Dakota Wizards. Dakota’s 2007 championship marked Joerger’s fifth as a head coach after winning one International Basketball Association (IBA) title and three more in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA). Joerger owns two CBA Coach of the Year Awards (2002, 2004) and a head coaching record of 232-117 (.665) in the minor leagues.

After finishing his playing career at Moorhead State, Joerger got his start as Dakota’s general manager when the franchise was a member of the IBA. He received his first opportunity on the sidelines as an assistant coach during the 1997-98 season. After three years as an assistant, Joerger succeeded Duane Ticknor (now a Grizzlies assistant) as head coach and led the Wizards to the 2001 IBA Championship. The Wizards moved to the CBA the following season, where Joerger led them to CBA titles in 2002 and 2004.

During the summer of 2004, Joerger became head coach of the Sioux Falls Skyforce and proceeded to win the 2005 CBA Championship, his fourth title in five years, giving him more minor league championships than other notable minor-league-turned-NBA head coaches Phil Jackson, George Karl, Flip Saunders and Eric Musselman combined. Joerger returned to Dakota, now in the D-League, in 2006 and guided the Wizards to a league-best 33-17 record (.660) before winning his second championship with the organization.

An excellent teacher of the game, Joerger had 18 of his players called up to the NBA from 2003-07.

Joerger and his wife, Kara, are the parents of two daughters, Alli and Kiana. Very active in the Memphis community, Joerger participates in Grizzlies team events supporting St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital and sits on the board for National Junior Tennis and Learning (NJTL). His family is a member of First United Methodist Church.

Elston Turner

Elston Turner ends his first season as an assistant coach with the Memphis Grizzlies, his 17th season on the NBA sidelines after serving as an assistant for the Phoenix Suns (2011-13), Houston Rockets (2007-11), Sacramento Kings (2000-06) and Portland Trail Blazers (1996-00).

Similar to his role during his playing career, Turner often has been tabbed to preach defense on potent offensive ball clubs as a coach, notably spending 14 years under offensively-minded head coach Rick Adelman in Houston, Sacramento and Portland. Working under Adelman, Turner was part of two Western Conference All-Star coaching staffs (2001, 2003).

Turner's career coaching responsibilities have included handling the team's game plan, individual skill work with players and advance scouting. He served as head coach of the Rockets' summer league team and spent his final two seasons in Sacramento as the lead assistant. Turner's coaching career began in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA) as an assistant coach for the Quad City Thunder and as a player/coach for the Chicago Rockers in 1994-95.

Drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round (43rd overall) of the 1981 NBA Draft, Turner developed a reputation as a tenacious defender, averaging 4.7 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.8 assists in 505 games (97 starts) over eight seasons with the Dallas Mavericks (1981-84), Denver Nuggets (1984-86, 1988-89) and Chicago Bulls (1986-88). Following his NBA career, he played parts of five seasons in the CBA and three years in Europe in Spain, Italy and Greece.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Turner played four seasons at Ole Miss, where as a senior he teamed with current Grizzlies TV analyst Sean Tuohy to lead the Rebels to the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1981. The university honored Turner's collegiate achievements by inducting him into the Ole Miss-M Club Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

Turner and his wife, Louise, have one son, Elston Jr., and one daughter, Taylor. Elston, Jr. garnered First Team All-SEC honors last season as a senior guard for Texas A&M and led the Aggies with 17.5 points per game.

Duane Ticknor

Assistant Coach

A veteran of the minor league coaching circuit, Duane Ticknor finishes his first season as an assistant coach with the Memphis Grizzlies. Ticknor rejoins head coach Dave Joerger, this time on the Grizzlies sidelines, after Joerger served as an assistant under Ticknor for one season (1999-00) with the International Basketball Association's (IBA) Dakota Wizards.

Ticknor spent last season as head coach of the NBA Development League's Fort Wayne Mad Ants, guiding the club to a 27-23 record (.540) and an appearance in the 2013 D-League Playoffs. Before his stint in Fort Wayne, Ticknor worked two seasons as an assistant coach for the D-League's Sioux Falls Skyforce (2009-11), two seasons as head coach of the Dakota Wizards (2007-09) and one season in South Korea (2011-12).

He also spent time in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA) as head coach of the Gary Steelheads (2002-05) and as an assistant for the Rapid City Thrillers (1989-92) and in the IBA as head coach of the Black Hills Posse (1995-99), Dakota Wizards (1999-00) and the Siouxland Bombers (2000-01).

A four-time IBA Coach of the Year (1996-98, 2000), Ticknor led his teams to the IBA Finals three times and won the 1997 IBA Championship with Black Hills.

Ticknor and his wife, Mary, have one son, David. The Vermillion, S.D. native graduated from the University of South Dakota.

Bob Thornton

Assistant Coach

Bob Thornton completes his third season as an assistant coach, bringing nearly 30 years of basketball experience as a player, scout and coach to the Grizzlies bench. Thornton previously served four seasons (2007-11) as an advance scout for the Oklahoma City Thunder.

Thornton has served as an assistant coach for the Chicago Bulls (2002-04) and Minnesota Timberwolves (2005-07) and has head coaching experience with the NBA Development League's Huntsville Flight (2001-02) and the Continental Basketball Association's (CBA) Quad City Thunder (2000-01).

Drafted by the New York Knicks in the fourth round (87th overall) of the 1984 NBA Draft, Thornton played 11 professional seasons, including eight in the NBA (1985-92, 1995-96) for the New York Knicks, Philadelphia 76ers, Minnesota Timberwolves, Utah Jazz and Washington Bullets.

The Los Angeles native attended the University of California-Irvine, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1984.

Shawn Respert

Assistant Coach

Shawn Respert concludes his first season as an assistant coach for the Memphis Grizzlies. Respert joins the Grizzlies after serving the previous two seasons as an assistant coach with the Minnesota Timberwolves (2011-13) and three seasons as director of player development for the Houston Rockets (2008-11).

Respert also has worked two years as director of player development in the D-League offices in New York (2007-08) and two-and-a-half years as director of basketball operations at Rice University (2005-07).

Drafted by the Portland Trail Blazers in the first round (eighth overall) of the 1995 NBA Draft, Respert played a total of four seasons in the NBA (1995-99) for the Milwaukee Bucks, Toronto Raptors, Dallas Mavericks and Phoenix Suns before finishing his professional career playing in Italy, Greece and Poland.

Respert played collegiately at Michigan State University, where he led the Spartans in scoring in four consecutive seasons and guided the school to the NCAA Tournament three times. As a senior, he was named the 1995 NCAA Player of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and won the 1995 Sporting News Player of the Year Award after averaging 25.6 points per game.

The Detroit native was inducted into the Michigan State University Athletics Hall of Fame on Sept. 20, 2012.

Drew Graham

Drew Graham finishes his 14th NBA season and his eighth as the head athletic trainer for the Memphis Grizzlies. Graham oversees the prevention and rehabilitation of all athletic injuries and works closely with the team’s doctors.

Graham joined the Grizzlies in 2006 after serving the previous six seasons as an assistant athletic trainer/strength and conditioning coach with the New Jersey Nets (2000-06). General Manager

One of the most respected executives in the league, Wallace completes his seventh season as general manager of the Memphis Grizzlies. During his tenure, Wallace has helped assemble one of the NBA's most tenacious on-court units, and the Grizzlies have experienced unprecedented postseason success, beginning with a first-round series victory over the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs and a seven-game conference semifinal series with the Oklahoma City Thunder during the 2011 Playoffs.

Well-traveled and well-connected, Wallace has served seven NBA franchises since 1986 and has worked with five former NBA Executive of the Year winners, including Red Auerbach, Danny Ainge, Bucky Buckwalter, Geoff Petrie and Jerry West. In addition, he has worked alongside Basketball Hall of Fame members Billy Cunningham and Pat Riley. Before coming to Memphis, he spent the previous 10 seasons as the general manager of the Boston Celtics. In his role with the Celtics, Wallace had a hand in all basketball-related decisions, including free agent signings, trades and draft preparations.

Prior to becoming the Celtics' general manager, Wallace was director of player personnel for the Miami Heat. John Hollinger

Vice President of Basketball Operations

John Hollinger concludes his second season with the Memphis Grizzlies as vice president of basketball operations. Best known for his work at the forefront of basketball's analytics movement, Hollinger is the inventor of advanced stats such as Player Efficiency Rating (PER), Offensive Efficiency, Defensive Efficiency and Pace Factor, as well as several other tools that analyze and forecast team and player performance.

With the Grizzlies, Hollinger's analytics background is vital in analyzing personnel decisions such as trades, draft, free agency and salary cap management. He's also spearheading the development of the Grizzlies' analytics infrastructure, while maintaining a hand in more traditional basketball functions such as scouting and player development.

Before coming to the Grizzlies, Hollinger was an NBA columnist for ESPN.com for eight years. His daily "PER Diem" column was a mainstay of their coverage, while analytic tools he developed such as Power Rankings, Playoff Odds and Draft Rater became key elements of the site. Hollinger also covered major events such as the Finals, All-Star Game and playoffs, and created annual scouting reports for every player and team in the league, developed a Twitter following of over 125,000 fans at @johnhollinger, and contributed chats, video and radio while at ESPN. He also appeared periodically on TV programs such as "Numbers Never Lie."

From 2002-05, Hollinger authored four annual edition of the Pro Basketball Forecast – first known as the Pro Basketball Prospectus – a book with stats and reports on every player and team in the league. Those reports were later folded into his scouting reports for ESPN.com.

Hollinger's books were the first to introduce his PER formula to a national audience. PER is a rating of a player's per-minute statistical performance that Hollinger developed to make player comparisons easier, and has become a widely used standard over the past decade. His also developed several other statistics that are now in wide use today, including Rebound Rate, Usage Rate, Pure Point Rating, Game Score, and Estimated Wins, and used similarity scores and regression analysis to forecast player performance and analyze draft prospects.

While writing his books, Hollinger covered the NBA as an editor and writer for SI.com from 2002-05. He also authored a column for the New York Sun newspaper three days a week. Prior to joining SI.com, he was the sports editor for Oregonlive.com.

Hollinger first gained notoriety as the creator of Alleyoop.com, a Web site devoted to basketball analytics that he created in 1996. At Alleyoop.com, Hollinger first developed several of his statistical formulas, as well as publishing articles on the league and his advanced stats, and his work gained nationwide recognition.

Thanks to the health of Marc Gasol and the play of some key acquisitions, Memphis has been playing some of the best basketball in the NBA since the start of winter... Since the first day of winter (Dec. 21), Memphis recorded the third-best record in the NBA (40-17) and is among the league's best in other key categories.

GRIZZLIES TAKE ONE FREE THROW ATTEMPT – AND WIN!

From the Elias Sports Bureau: Can an NBA team win a game in which its opponent takes 15 times as many free-throw attempts as it does? The Grizzlies proved it's possible on Saturday night, when they downed the Hawks, 79-76, in a game in which Atlanta took 15 free-throw attempts and Memphis took... one! The Grizzlies' lone free-throw attempt came in the third quarter, the result of a technical foul being called on the Hawks' Gustavo Ayon for a defensive three-seconds violation. Courtney Lee sank the shot. It's the fewest free-throw attempts that any team has ever taken in an NBA game, regular season or playoffs, shot-clock era or no.

GRIZZLIES NAMED BEST OVERALL PRO SPORTS FRANCHISE IN ESPN THE MAGAZINE'S 2013 ULTIMATE STANDINGS

The Memphis Grizzlies were named the best overall professional sports franchise among 122 teams in the four major North American professional sports leagues (MLB, NBA, NFL, NHL) in ESPN The Magazine's 2013 Ultimate Standings... Released this past September, the rankings measure how much the organization gives back to fans for the time, money and emotion invested in its product... The Grizzlies are one of only four NBA franchises (San Antonio in 2004 and 2006, Detroit in 2005, Oklahoma City in 2012) to be ranked the top overall sports team since ESPN unveiled its annual survey in 2003. Teams such as the Green Bay Packers, New Orleans Saints, Indianapolis Colts and Los Angeles Angels also have been past winners.

The San Antonio Spurs, Indiana Pacers, Oklahoma City Thunder and Green Bay Packers rounded out the 2013 top 5.

For comparison's sake, Steve Nash has done it seven times; Elton Brand six seasons; Carlos Boozer, David Lee and Emeka Okafor five; Al Jefferson and Shawn Marion four; and Pau Gasol three.

2013-14 SEASON RECAP

The top seed in the Western Conference, the San Antonio Spurs cruised through the regular season, winning at least 50 games for the 15th consecutive season while also becoming just the 13th team in NBA history to win at least 30 road games in a season. Led by its veteran core of All-Star Tony Parker, Tim Duncan and Manu Ginobili, San Antonio got a boost from the offseason acquisition of Marco Belinelli, who finished among the league leaders in three-point shooting as well from the continued improvement of third-year forward Kawhi Leonard, who posted career highs in every major category. The Spurs' season was highlighted by a 19-game winning streak, the fifth-longest regular season winning streak in NBA history, and capped off with a fourth-straight Southwest Division title.

OKLAHOMA CITY THUNDER

#2 Seed

59-23, .720

1st, Northwest Division

2013-14 SEASON RECAP

Oklahoma City finished at 59-23, the second-best record in Thunder franchise history. Thanks to an MVP-caliber season from Kevin Durant, who set a modern-day NBA record with 41 consecutive games with at least 25 points, the Thunder locked up their fourth consecutive Northwest Division title as well as their fourth consecutive playoff berth. In addition to Durant, forward Serge Ibaka took a step forward with career-highs in points and rebounds along with a career-high 28 double-doubles. Guard Russell Westbrook returned in February after a two-month absence due to a knee injury to become one of two players (LeBron James) to average at least 21 points, six assists and five rebounds this season in at least 40 games played.

2013-14 SEASON RECAP

Former Celtics coach Doc Rivers left Boston for Los Angeles prior to this season and promptly led the Clippers to their best regular season in team history. Los Angeles finished with a franchise-record 57 wins on the year, including a franchise-best 34 wins at home en route to a second consecutive Pacific division title. The addition of Rivers brought out the best in All-Star guard Chris Paul, who averaged a double-double for the first time since the 2009-10 season, and All-Star forward Blake Griffin, who posted a career-high scoring average. Jamal Crawford remained a Sixth Man of the Year candidate while center DeAndre Jordan led the league in field goal percentage and finished second in total blocks. The Clippers posted the second-best record in the NBA since Jan. 1 at 36-13, one game behind the San Antonio Spurs.

2nd, Southwest Division

2013-14 SEASON RECAP

Houston finished with 54 wins, the fourth-most in franchise history, as the team clinched its second-straight playoff berth and earned its highest finish in the Southwest division (2nd) since finishing second in the 2008-09 season. The offseason addition of center Dwight Howard, who finished with 47 double-doubles on the year, gave the Rockets a strong post presence to pair with All-Star guard James Harden. Harden averaged over 25 points for the second straight season while posting a career high in assists per game. The season was highlighted by an 11-game home winning streak that was just the ninth double-digit home winning streak in team history.

2013-14 SEASON RECAP

Golden State is making back-to-back playoff appearances for the first time since the 1991 and 1992 seasons, and had its first 50-win season since 1993-94. Thanks to All-Star starter Stephen Curry, who led the NBA in three-pointers made, and Klay Thompson, who finished second in the NBA in three-pointers made, the Warriors set a franchise record with 774 made threes on the season. Curry joined Tim Hardaway as the only Warriors player in history to ever average at least 23 points and eight assists in a single season, while Thompson became the first player in NBA history to make at least 500 combined three-pointers in his first three seasons. Golden State tied its franchise record with 24 road wins.

2013-14 SEASON RECAP

After a one-year absence from the playoffs, Dallas is back in the postseason and making its 13th playoff appearance in the past 14 seasons. The Mavericks posted their highest number of road wins since the 2010-11 season with 23 and also had a six-game road winning streak, their longest since the 2010-11 season as well. Dirk Nowitzki made his franchise record 12th All-Star appearance this season and passed Oscar Robertson to move into 10th place on the NBA's all-time scoring list. Nowitzki and the Mavericks got a boost from the addition of guard Monta Ellis, who finished second on the team in scoring and first in assists, steals and minutes played per game. Head coach Rick Carlisle is one of only 11 people to win an NBA championship as both a player and head coach.
