BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Sam Presti enters his eighth season with the Oklahoma City Thunder after being named the 11th General Manager in club history on June 7, 2007. A year into his tenure with the Thunder, Presti was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton Bennett.

During his seven-plus seasons with the Thunder, Presti has worked diligently to assemble the building blocks for long term success both on and off the court. This past season, Presti and his staff oversaw a fourth straight Northwest Division Championship as the Thunder finished the year with the second best record in the NBA. The Thunder's four straight division titles are tied for the longest such current streak in the NBA and over the last 25 seasons only two teams have ever gone onto capture more than four consecutive division titles.

After finishing the 2013-14 regular season with a record of 59-23, the Thunder became one of just two teams (San Antonio) to register a winning percentage of .610 (equivalent to 50 wins) in each of the last five seasons.

Presti's consistent focus has been to utilize the NBA Draft to establish the foundation for sustained success on the floor and in the community. Commencing with the 2007 draft, Presti selected Kevin Durant, the University of Texas standout with the team's No. 2 overall pick. This past season, Durant was named the NBA's Most Valuable Player after leading the NBA in scoring for a fourth time in the past five seasons.

Other significant draft selections for Presti include taking Russell Westbrook and Serge Ibaka with the 4th and 24th selections, respectively in the 2008 draft. Westbrook has since become a three-time AII-Star, and Serge Ibaka became just the second player in NBA history to lead the NBA in blocks for four consecutive seasons (2010-2014). Most recently, Steven Adams was named to the AII-Rookie Second Team after being selected by the Thunder with the 12th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft.

After moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made nearly 1,500 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti has also made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City Memorial and Museum soon after joining the organization.

Under Presti[®]s guidance, the Thunder has advanced to postseason play in each of the last five seasons. At the end of the 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-1960) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons (while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons). Dating back to the 2011-12 season, the Thunder became Western Conference Champions on the heels of the 2010-11 season in which the Thunder became the youngest team in the prior quarter century to reach the NBA's Western Conference Finals.

During the 2009-10 season, Presti's third year at the helm, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

Presti has been on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee since 2009 and has served on the league's Competition Committee dating back to the 2011-12 season.

Prior to joining the Thunder, the 37-year-old Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks in San Antonio before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law and a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team. He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision making this past offseason.

Presti currently resides on the board of the Oklahoma City National Memorial and with the support of the Thunder has established the Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program within the Oklahoma City public schools. Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

Additionally, Presti is actively involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. He also serves on the Board of Directors of Shooting Touch, an organization that grants graduating college seniors the opportunity to travel the world and use the platform of basketball to help foster education and influence positive social change in third world global communities.

An accomplished drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston. Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle, to assist students with their college tuition.

Presti's wife, Shannon, serves as the Director of Teen Leadership Initiatives for the YMCA of Greater Oklahoma City.

SCOTT BROOKS HEAD COACH

Scott Brooks enters his seventh season as head coach of the Thunder a year after leading Oklahoma City to a fourth consecutive Northwest Division title and a spot in the Western Conference Finals for the third time in the past four seasons.

During the 2013-14 season, the Thunder finished with the second best record in the NBA and Oklahoma City is currently one of just two teams (San Antonio) to record a .610 or better winning percentage (equivalent to 50 wins) in each of the last five seasons.

Dating back to the start of the 2009-10 season, Brooks is the third-most winningest active coach in the NBA, as the Thunder has claimed 271 victories during this span. After defeating the Atlanta Hawks this past season on December 10, Brooks claimed his 250th career head coaching victory.

After posting the top record in the Western Conference through the first half of last season, Brooks represented the Thunder by coaching the 2014 Western Conference All-Stars in New Orleans. The All-Star coaching honor marked the second of Brooks' career (Brooks and his staff also coached the 2012 All-Star Game in Orlando).

Brooks was named interim head coach of the Thunder 13 games into the 2008-09 season and was later named head coach on April 15, 2009 prior to the team's final game of the season. A day after being awarded his first NBA head coaching position, Brooks led the Thunder to their most lopsided victory of the year in the team's season finale, a 126-85 win versus the Los Angeles Clippers at STAPLES Center.

he Oklahoma City Thunder's NBA D-League affiliate, the Oklahoma City Blue, will begin its first season in the state's capital. Originally purchased in 2008 by the Professional Basketball Club, LLC, the Thunder's D-League affiliate has played the last six seasons as the Tulsa 66ers before being relocated to Oklahoma City in 2014.

The Thunder has displayed a strong history of utilizing its D-League affiliate and developing both players and staff. Since Oklahoma City entered a single-affiliate relationship before the 2008-09 season, the Thunder has assigned a player to its affiliate 63 times - the most assignments by an NBA team during that span. Fourteen different Thunder players have been assigned in the past six seasons.

Oklahoma City has been active in "calling up" players from its D-League affiliate. The Thunder has called up a player from its affiliate on 10 occasions since 2008 - the most call-ups between affiliated teams in that stretch.

The Thunder has also utilized its D-League team to develop NBA coaches and other staff members. The past three coaches of the Thunder's D-League affiliate have received "call-ups" to the NBA coaching ranks. Darko Rajakovic (2012-14) is an assistant coach with Oklahoma City and Dale Osbourne (2011-12) and Nate Tibbets (2009-11) are both assistants with Portland.

Last season, Thunder guard Andre Roberson was assigned to the Tulsa 66ers eight times, averaging 15.9 points, 9.6 rebounds, 1.6 assists, 2.5 steals and 1.3 blocks in 31.6 minutes in 17 games (all starts). The Thunder also worked in developing non-Thunder-roster players through its affiliate, with Mustafa Shakur and Reggie Williams each receiving 10-day contracts with OKC and Grant Jerrett signing with the Thunder following the 2013-14 D-League season.

The Blue will play its inaugural season in Oklahoma City at the Cox Convention Center.

MARK DAIGNEAULT HEAD COACH

Mark Daigneault (DAYG-nalt) is in his first season as head coach of the Oklahoma City Blue. Daigneault comes to Oklahoma City after spending the past four years working under Billy Donovan at the University of Florida, where he most recently held the position of assistant to the head coach.

Throughout his tenure at Florida, the Gators compiled a record of 120-30 (.800), won three SEC titles and advanced to the Elite Eight each year. In his final season with UF (2013-14), the Gators became the first SEC team to go 18-0 in conference play and went on to win the SEC Championship and advance to the Final Four. Prior to his time at Florida, Daigneault spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross.

During Daigneault's tenure, the Crusaders went 21-21 (.500) in conference play and finished as runnerup of the Patriot League Championship in 2008-09.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Daigneault served as a student manager with the Huskies under Jim Calhoun from 2003-07. While at UCONN, the Huskies won the 2004 NCAA Championship and claimed three Big East titles, posting a combined record of 103-32 (.763).

A native of Leominster, Mass., Daigneault holds a master's degree in sports management from the University of Florida.

BRANDON BARNETT

DIRECTOR OF MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS/PRO SCOUT

Brandon Barnett begins his seventh season with the Thunder organization. Barnett oversees the D-League operations for the Blue, including scouting talent, player contracts and working to execute the Thunder system at the D-League level. In 2012, Barnett was also named a pro scout by Oklahoma City, scouting NBA games for the Thunder basketball operations staff in addition to his duties with the Blue.

Barnett joined the organization after working for the NBA League office in New York City for the previous five years. While with the league office, Barnett served most recently as Senior Coordinator of Basketball Operations for the NBA Development League. He joined the D-League during the 2004-05 season as an intern and quickly solidified his value to the Basketball Operations department. Barnett's role in the D-League, among other things, involved evaluating, recruiting and signing players for the league.

A native of Shaker Heights, Ohio, Barnett graduated cum laude from Emerson College in Boston, Mass., in 2003, with a Bachelor's degree in Broadcast Journalism.

For Rumble appearances, please call 405.208.4800 or go to RumbleTheBison.com. RUMBLE'S STORY:

For hundreds of years the tale has been told around Native American campfires. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm – the kind only Oklahoma can produce.

Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains.

One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine. Once all of his friends were safe he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders.

Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning.

The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility – he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast.

But because he was no longer just a bison – and yet not a man – he was alone.

With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone.

Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court.

So he joined their team. And the new legend of Rumble was born.

NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

2015 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE

Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their regular-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season won-lost record gets the home-court advantage.

All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-1-1 format.

INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center

The Oklahoma City Thunder began calling the INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center home just prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. The 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art practice facility features two full-sized basketball courts, a 27-seat team classroom and a hydrotherapy area which was designed to benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

Funding for the construction of the practice facility and renovations to the team's Chesapeake Energy Arena comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and ran through March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in August of 2009, Oklahoma City Mayor

Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League

City initiative to renovate the city's downtown arena and build an NBAleading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day."

INTEGRIS is the official health care provider of the Oklahoma City Thunder.
