Media members wishing to cover a single game must contact the Philadelphia 76ers Public Relations staff by noon the day before the intended game. Passes are issued on a space-available basis for all single-game requests. Credentials will be left at the Press Entrance (located on the North side of the Main Concourse Level) and can be picked up two hours prior to tip-off on game nights.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Delaware 87ers

On April 27, 2013, the NBA Development League announced that the Philadelphia 76ers purchased the rights to own and operate the former Utah Flash, which were on hiatus since the end of the 2010-11 NBA D-League season. The team was renamed the Delaware 87ers and became the single-affiliate for the 76ers. The 87ers play their home games at the Bob Carpenter Center on the campus of the University of Delaware.

The team name, 87ers, was selected in recognition of Delaware's place in United States history, as it was the first state to ratify the U.S. Constitution on December 7, 1787. The 87ers are nicknamed the "Sevens" as a nod to the way the parent club is often referred to as the Sixers.

Head Coach

From the start, Brown placed emphasis on player development and a commitment to an elite level of conditioning as the pillars of his program in Philadelphia. Both focal points helped Brown's Sixers demonstrate tremendous improvement on the defensive end during his first three seasons.

The Sixers allowed nearly nine fewer points per game in 2014-15 than they did during Brown's first season (2013-14), which was the second-largest decrease from one season to the next in franchise history. Brown's Sixers ranked tied for first in the league in steals and second in turnovers forced in 2014-15 after ranking first in both categories in 2013-14.

The Sixers fielded the youngest team in the league in each of Brown's first two seasons as head coach. In 2014-15, the Sixers had 14 undrafted players on their roster at some point, smashing the previous league single season record of 10. A total of 24 players saw action in at least one game for the Sixers in 2014-15, up from 23 during Brown's first season in 2013-14.

Brown originally joined the Spurs as a member of their basketball operations department in 1998-99 but left after the season to become the head coach of the Sydney Kings of the Australian National Basketball League (NBL). He re-joined the Spurs in July of 2002 as the team's assistant coach/director of player development and was moved to the bench as an assistant coach prior to the 2006-07 season.

A native of Maine, Brown played at South Portland High School for his father Bob Brown, who is a New England Basketball Hall of Famer. The younger Brown went on to attend Boston University where he played under Rick Pitino. Brown was named team MVP his sophomore year and served as team captain his final two seasons, helping the Terriers reach the NCAA Tournament as a senior in 1983. For his career, Brown posted an assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.19 and left ranked fourth in school history in assists (404). In 2013, Brown joined his father as an inductee into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame.

In addition to his time with the Spurs, Brown has a wealth of coaching experience in Australia, where he met and married his wife, Anna. He started as an assistant coach with the Melbourne Tigers under Lindsay Gaze, a member of both the Australian and FIBA Hall of Fame. Brown was named head coach of the North Melbourne Giants in 1993 and earned NBL Coach of the Year honors in 1994 after leading the Giants to the National Championship. Including his return to the NBL for three seasons with the Sydney Kings in 1999, Brown amassed 149 career coaching victories, sixth-most in league history. In March of 2009, Brown was named head coach of the Australian National Team. He had previously served as an assistant for eight years, including both the 1996 and 2000 Olympic Games as well as the 1998 World Championships. Brown led Australia to the FIBA Oceania Championship over rival New Zealand in 2011 to secure a bid to the 2012 Olympics. At the London games in 2012, Brown guided Australia to what many consider one of its best Olympic runs, culminating with a win over eventual bronze medalist Russia before being eliminated by Team USA in the quarterfinals. Overall, Australia compiled a 3-3 mark without the services of injured star Andrew Bogut.

Brown and his wife Anna have been married for over 20 years and have two daughters, Julia and Laura, and a son, Sam.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Community Engagement Programing

The Sixers believe that by fostering a bold and gutsy positive attitude, and nurturing devotion and commitment to a productive goal, young people can achieve their own personal greatness. Whatever endeavor they choose to pursue can be honed, crafted and developed. We are committed to fostering positive change in the lives of young people living in Philadelphia and Camden both in the classroom and on the court.

The motto we encourage for all those involved in our programs is: “I won’t let others predict my future — I will invent my future, I will create my success.”

Our Vision

We envision communities where all children have the opportunity to create, pursue and realize their dreams.

We are committed to reaching out into the lives of young people in our communities through in-depth engagements and community-based clinics to help them develop physical and emotional strength, a sense of personal well-being and an attitude of teamwork and service to others.

Utilizing the transformative power of basketball, we provide promising futures to our youth communities through education and mentorship. We can create the next generation of leaders and entrepreneurs that will ensure a bright future for our communities and all who live there.

Our Mission

In crafting our mission, we focus on what we can do that will have the greatest impact in achieving our vision. The result is both an action statement and a promise:

Through the transformative power of basketball and mentor-coaching, our young people can develop into the next generation of innovators and leaders.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Our Programs and Activities

Sixers Youth Foundation

The Sixers Youth Foundation is devoted to bringing positive change to the lives of young people in Philadelphia and Camden. The Foundation has developed and is investing in four signature programs in the coming years for middle school-aged youth: S.C.O.R.E., Sixers Youth H.O.O.P.S., Sixers Math Hoops and Court Renovations.

Through these programs, the Sixers Youth Foundation is helping young people who live in challenged communities and in vulnerable families develop healthy physical, social, emotional and academic skills. We are collaborating with educators and local schools to implement in-depth engagements with students in an effort to transform their lives and their futures in the classroom and on the court. We are helping young people develop in all facets of their character while fostering a life-long love of the game of basketball.

Community Relations

We connect to our fans and our communities in a multitude of ways, including hosting community activities, conferring in-arena recognitions and awards as well as donating memorabilia packages and tickets to qualifying non-profit organizations. In delivering our programs to the community, we involve Sixers' employees from across the organization, asking each to commit at least 76 hours of volunteer service throughout the year. A number of these volunteers participate in a rigorous coach-training program so that they can effectively engage and mentor young people who participate in our programs.

Our signature community activity is a 90-minute clinic that combines the power of basketball with individualized coaching and mentoring to help middle school-aged young people cultivate positive values and develop life-skills. The interactive clinic uses skill-building activities to inspire and engage students. In addition to the clinics, which are held throughout the year, the Sixers also partner with the NBA to conduct a series of outreach and in-arena events that supplement our outreach activities and sustain a sense of momentum.

Community Activities 2016-17

November, 2016

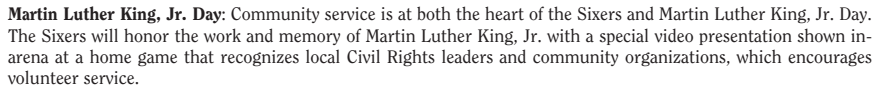

Stars and Stripes, presented by Toyota: In conjunction with the NBA Cares' Hoops for Troops initiative, we show our ongoing commitment to our military and their families by a series of recognition events throughout the basketball season. Highlights include a home game dedicated to our active and retired service men and women and a "Commitment to Service" community event featuring Sixers players working side-by-side with members of the military and recognition of a local military hero at select home games.

December, 2016

Season of Giving: Beginning with Thanksgiving, the NBA Family hosts hundreds of events to celebrate the holiday season. At the Sixers, we proudly support these efforts with a signature series of volunteer service events designed to spread cheer and create long-lasting memories for youth and families who live in our area's most underserved communities.

January, 2017

My Brother's Keeper – MENTOR Program: The NBA, the National Basketball Players Association, and the National Basketball Retired Players Association continue to help boys and young men of color discover a pathway to success through the My Brother's Keeper initiative – a multi-sector effort launched by President Obama and the White House. As part of our commitment to this initiative and in recognition of National Mentoring Month, we will host a convening for middle-school age youth and the most celebrated coaches and mentors from our area, for a powerful and inspiring program.

The Sixers recognize an individual or organization that has used the power of coaching and mentoring to develop the potential of young people living in communities where our fans live, work and play at select home games.

Ticket donations are intended to provide organizations that serve youth and families with the opportunity to enjoy an NBA game experience with the Sixers, while in-kind memorabilia donations are designed to provide non-profit organizations with an exciting package of Sixers memorabilia and VIP experiences that may be to aid their fundraising efforts.

HISTORY OF 76ERS GENERAL MANAGERS

The 76ers didn't have a general manager after the team debuted in Philadelphia in May 1963. Attorney Ike Richman performed some of the duties of the job between 1963 and 1966, but it wasn't until Jack Ramsay was named to the position in 1966-67 that the team had a GM.

CLUB NICKNAME

The late Walter Stahlberg, of West Collingswood, N.J., won a contest to name the club in 1963. The choice of the club's nickname was announced on Aug. 6, 1963. There were almost 500 different suggestions among the entries and Stahlberg was one of several who picked the 76ers. However his accompanying 25-word explanation was deemed the best by the judges, and he and his wife received an all-expense trip to the West Coast to see the 76ers play San Francisco.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Please note the following:

* Denotes that a player played for more than one team during that particular season and the team-by-team breakdown was not available. Each respective stat line is reflective of the entire season's statistics, which also affects the player's total stat lines.

(n) Denotes years played in the NBL with Syracuse, before the Nationals joined the NBA in 1949-50. NBL statistics are factored in to individual NBA totals, but do not affect team statistics/records.
