ENERGY SOLUTIONS ARENA

EnergySolutions Arena is located just two blocks west of the heart of downtown Salt Lake City. The main entrance is located on the corner of 300 West and South Temple. Coming from Salt Lake International Airport (approximately 10 minutes away), take North Temple to either 400 West or 300 West, turn right and proceed one block. The mailing address for EnergySolutions Arena is 301 West South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah 84101.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Two credentials are honored for admission to EnergySolutions Arena: Jazz season media passes and Jazz single-game media passes (good for date specified). Media members may apply for credentials by emailing credentials@utahjazz.com. All credentials are issued on a priority basis to major local, national and international media. Requests for single-game credentials must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Media with Jazz season passes or NBA passes are asked to contact the Jazz to ensure appropriate accommodations. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers must be in writing on company letterhead and must include copies of the publications (if applicable). Freelance reporters and photographers applying for credentials must provide the Jazz with story-assignment information from their editor prior to receiving credentials. International requests must be approved by the NBA International Public Relations staff in New York. Credentials are non-transferrable and do not guarantee a seat. When in EnergySolutions

Arena, credentials must be worn and visible to security staff at all times. Autographs are not allowed during media access times. The Jazz reserve the right to revoke credentials at any time for any reason.

PRESS ENTRANCE

The EnergySolutions Arena press will-call and arena entrance is located off of South Temple and 300 West in the ticket lobby on the second level. No access will be allowed through public doors. Media should use stairwell #3 to access the press room.

PRESS PARKING

The Utah Jazz does not provide parking for the media. It is recommended that you walk to the arena, take TRAX or park in a pay-lot near the arena.

HOT ROD HUNDLEY MEDIA CENTER

The Hot Rod Hundley Media Center is in room 149 on Level One, centrally located between the Jazz and visiting team locker rooms, near both stairwell #4 and elevator #4. Only members of the working media with credentials for the game are admitted to the press room. The press room serves as both a dining and working area during the regular season. The press room is equipped with telephones, wireless internet, electrical outlets and televisions for media use only. The Jazz rely on media members to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the press room at all times. Children and non-working press are not allowed in the press room.

PRESS SEATING

There are five different locations for media seating within EnergySolutions Arena. Please refer to the posted seating maps in the press room for seating assignments. Press seating is located in section 7 (radio/stats), courtside and row 27; section 4, platform; section 10, platform; section 9, rows 26-29. Media should use elevator #4 or stairwell #4 when accessing the concourse level from floor level. Wireless internet access is located throughout the arena.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Game notes and other pertinent statistical information will be in the press room 90 minutes before tipoff. Play-by-play, quarter, halftime and final boxscore sheets will be distributed in all press areas. Out of town scores will be delivered to broadcast crews on press row and will be displayed on scoreboards within the arena. Quote sheets will be available in the press room as soon as possible following the game.

ONLINE PRESS ROOM

The Utah Jazz have a Web site dedicated solely for the media's use. The site (<http://pressroom.utahjazz.com>) features easy access to the most current Jazz game day information, audio files from Jazz practices and games, game notes, press releases, league public relations contacts and daily media availability times. The site is updated daily in an effort to provide the latest information on the team. The online press room is password protected and restricted to media who cover the Jazz and the NBA. To obtain access, please contact Derek Garduño in the Jazz communications department at (801) 325-2316 or dgarduno@utahjazz.com.

TELEPHONE LINES

Courtesy telephone lines are provided for media in the press room and at press seating locations. Media members wishing their own phone lines should contact the Utah Jazz IT department at (801) 325-2120.

LIVE SHOTS

Television stations producing live shots from EnergySolutions Arena must inform Jonathan Rinehart in the Jazz communications department. Live shots must be concluded no later than 30 minutes prior to game time.

on the floor and may not kneel when shooting from the baselines. Freelance photographers will not be granted credentials unless they are on specific assignment from a magazine or newspaper and there is space available. Limited space is available on each baseline for still and television photographers. There are no photo positions along the sidelines. Flash photography is strictly prohibited. Rubber lens shades are required for all photographers and video and film crews who are authorized to shoot NBA game action. The Jazz ask that photographers please be considerate of season ticket holders behind them. Still photographers are not permitted in the locker rooms.

For example, the locker rooms will be open from 5:30 to 6:15 p.m. for a 7 p.m. game. Both locker rooms may be opened 10 minutes, or earlier, but no later than 15 minutes after the conclusion of the game. The visiting team's head coach will generally conduct postgame interviews outside the visitor's locker room. The Jazz head coach will be available at the podium outside the Jazz locker room after the locker room has been opened to the media. Still photographers are not permitted in the locker rooms. Cell phone use by the media is prohibited inside team locker rooms. The Jazz will rely on the media to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the locker room at all times. NO AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED DURING INTERVIEW PERIODS. Failure to comply with these rules may result in the forfeiture of your credential.

Unless otherwise announced, the Jazz home practice time for both shootarounds and on non-game days is 10 a.m. MT. All practices are open to the media for the first 15 minutes with players and coaches available for interviews prior to practice. GAIL MILLER OWNER, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Gail Miller owns the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies and also administers the Larry H. &

Gail Miller Family Foundation.

She and her late husband Larry grew their businesses into one of the largest privately-owned automotive companies in the nation. Beginning with the purchase of Toyota of Murray in 1979, The Larry H. Miller Group is now comprised of more than 80 businesses and properties operating in 47 states. The businesses primarily fall within six areas: Miller Automotive Operations, Total Care Auto, Prestige Financial Services, Miller Family Real Estate, Miller Sports Properties and Miller Retail Properties. She and Larry purchased the Utah Jazz in 1985.

Gail Miller's commitment to the success of the Utah Jazz is apparent through her ongoing support. During both the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, the team carried salaries beyond the luxury tax threshold for the first time in franchise history. She was instrumental in the appointment of Tyrone Corbin as head coach and the hiring of Jazz general manager Dennis Lindsey, while encouraging general manager Kevin O'Connor to continue with the franchise in a basketball executive position.

She actively participated in the design of recent facilities renovations, representing total investments in excess of $20 million, including fan experience improvements with installation of new state-of-the-art video boards and sound system as well as large-scale suite, club and concourse upgrades at EnergySolutions Arena, and a major remodeling of the Jazz's practice facility, Zions Bank Basketball Center, in the summer of 2013.

She is the chair of the board of trustees of Salt Lake Community College, serves on the National Advisory Council at the University of Utah, and sits on the board of trustees for Intermountain Healthcare. She holds an honorary alumna award from Brigham Young University and is a member of its President's Leadership Council. Miller is the recipient of two honorary degrees - a Doctor of Humanities from Weber State University and a Doctor of Humane Letters from Salt Lake Community College. In 2012, the Salt Lake Chamber bestowed the Athena Award in recognition of her lifetime achievements in both business and the community. In 2009 she was named the Salt Lake Tribune's Most Influential Sports Figure in Utah.

In addition to overseeing the family businesses, Miller also finds fulfillment in providing civic, church, community and philanthropic service.

GREG MILLER CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, LARRY H. MILLER GROUP OF COMPANIES

Greg Miller is chief executive officer of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies (LHM Group).

Miller is responsible for the overall vision, corporate strategy and success of the LHM Group.

The LHM Group operates more than 80 businesses and properties in 47 U.S. states and employs more than 10,000 full and part-time employees. Most notable properties include the Utah Jazz, EnergySolutions Arena, Salt Lake Bees, Miller Performance, Megaplex Theatres, and 55 automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West.

Miller's commitment to the success of the Utah Jazz is apparent through his leadership and financial support. During both the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, the team carried salaries beyond the luxury tax threshold for the first time in franchise history. Among the other changes made during his tenure, the size of both the basketball operations and player development staffs have increased significantly, in addition to major enhancements made to player performance tracking and analytics systems.

Miller has appointed Tyrone Corbin as head coach and approved the hiring of Jazz General Manager Dennis Lindsey and Assistant GM Justin Zanik, while also retaining previous General Manager Kevin O'Connor as executive vice president of basketball operations.

Recent facilities renovations, representing total investments in excess of $20 million, include fan experience improvements with installation of new state-of-the-art video boards and sound system as well as large-scale suite, club and concourse upgrades at EnergySolutions Arena, and a major remodeling of the Jazz's practice facility, Zions Bank Basketball Center, in the summer of 2013.

Miller has also embraced the franchise's history and championed efforts for greater inclusion of Jazz alumni. Among those moves, he facilitated the returns of Hall of Famers Jerry Sloan and Karl Malone to special roles within the basketball operations department, increased John Stockton's involvement with the organization, and added Matt Harpring and Phil Johnson as analysts on the team's broadcasts.

Under Miller's watch, the team has made bold moves including a February 2011 trade with New Jersey in which the Jazz acquired Derrick Favors and assets that led to the additions of Enes Kanter, Trey Burke and Marvin Williams in exchange for Deron Williams. He has also authorized cash contributions that allowed the team to obtain Trey Burke and Rudy Gobert in draft-night trades this past off-season.

Prior to assuming his role as chief executive officer, Miller assumed increasing levels of responsibility and filled a series of leadership positions during his 34 years of employment within the LHM Group. Roles included managing several multi-million dollar construction projects, serving as general manager of some of the company's most successful auto dealerships, and overseeing the operation of the $100 million Miller Motorsports Park, the premier race track in North America.

STEVE MILLER

PRESIDENT, MILLER SPORTS PROPERTIES

Steve Miller is the President of Miller Sports Properties which includes the NBA's Utah Jazz; MiLB's Triple-A Salt Lake

Bees; the world-renowned Miller Motorsports Park; EnergySolutions Arena, which seats nearly 20,000 fans; the Tour of Utah professional cycling race; independent television station KJZZ-TV; the sports radio stations comprising The Zone Sports Network; and All-Star Catering.

Miller has been working for the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies for 22 years in various positions. From 2009-11, Miller held dual titles of President for the Tour of Utah as well as Director of New and Used Car Operations for the automotive division of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, the title sponsor of the Tour of Utah. In this role, Miller oversaw new and used vehicle operations for 41 LHM dealerships located throughout Utah, Idaho, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Oregon and Washington. Miller managed all vehicle inventories and was heavily involved in dealership operations including the company's corporate training division. Miller Automotive Operations is the 10th largest privately-owned automotive group in the country.

In 2012, Miller focused solely on the Tour of Utah before assuming his current position as president of Miller Sports Properties in January 2013. While leading the Tour of Utah, the race advanced from a USA Cycling-sanctioned national event to a Union Cycliste International (UCI) 2.1 stage race, one of only three in the United States. Race spectators increased from 25,000 to 260,000; earned media jumped to $14.7 million; international television coverage garnered more than 13 million viewers in 50 countries; and the race was viewed live on the Tour of Utah website in more 146 countries.

His contributions to the success of the Utah Jazz include playing an integral role in recent facilities renovations, representing total investments in excess of $20 million. Improvements include the installation of new, state-of-the-art video boards and sound system as well as large-scale suite, club and concourse upgrades at EnergySolutions Arena, and a major remodel of the Jazz's practice facility, Zions Bank Basketball Center, in the summer of 2013.

In the most recent NBA Draft, Miller worked closely with his brother Greg to authorize cash contributions that allowed the team to obtain Trey Burke and Rudy Gobert in draft-night trades.

Miller is an active member of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies governing board and also sits on the board of the Utah Sports Commission and Utah High School Cycling League.

JIM OLSON

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER, MILLER SPORTS PROPERTIES

Entering his 20th season with the Utah Jazz, Jim Olson has been named Chief Operating Officer for Miller Sports Properties. In his current capacity, Olson is responsible for the business operations of the eight business entities that make up Miller Sports Properties - the NBA's Utah Jazz; MiLB's Triple-A Salt Lake Bees; the world-renowned Miller Motorsports Park; EnergySolutions Arena, which seats nearly 20,000 fans; the Tour of Utah professional cycling race; independent television station KJZZ-TV; the sports radio stations comprising The Zone Sports Network; and All-Star Catering.

Olson originally joined the Jazz in 1994 as the phone center ticket manager before being promoted to director of tickets and the arena ticket manager in 1996. His duties included responsibility for the Jazz sales staff and arena box office operations and sales. In June of 2003, he was promoted to vice president of ticket sales, where his responsibilities expanded to overseeing all Jazz ticket sales, the Jazz season ticket office, the Jazz 100 Club, suite and VIP sales and services, the Jr. Jazz program, arena ticket sales, and later, responsibility for ticket and suite sales for the Salt Lake Bees after they were acquired by LHM Sports and Entertainment Group of Companies in 2005. Olson served in the vice president role until his promotion to senior vice president of sales and marketing. For the past six years, his responsibilities included ticket, suite and premium sales and services, the Jazz 100 Club, food services, game operations, guest services, building operations and security and marketing for the Jazz and EnergySolutions Arena. In addition, he also oversaw the Salt Lake Bees Triple-A baseball team.

A native of Salt Lake City, Olson graduated from the University of Utah with a bachelor's degree in communications. While at the University of Utah, he worked in the athletic department spending time in both the ticket office and sports information department. Following the University of Utah, he attended Northeastern University in Boston where he received a master's degree in sports and recreation management. As part of his education, he worked in conjunction with the Boston Celtics, New England Patriots and the Boston Bruins doing research analysis for their marketing efforts. Following graduation, he returned to Utah and was hired by the Jazz.

Olson is active in the community, as he currently serves on the Board of Jr. Achievement, the Downtown Alliance, Visit Salt Lake and the Salt Lake Chamber Board of Governors, and has been a chair for the Salt Lake Chamber's Business to Business Expo. He and his wife, Suzi, have four children - Madi, Jon, Abe and Lily and reside in Salt Lake City.

The 2013-14 season will mark Kevin O'Connor's 15th overseeing all aspects of the Jazz's basketball operations.

Previously, before the franchise hired Dennis Lindsey in the summer of 2012, he was the second-longest tenured general manager in the NBA behind only Geoff Petrie of the Sacramento Kings (18 seasons). Among some of the key moves orchestrated by O'Connor during his tenure with the Jazz are acquiring the draft picks (through trades) that led to the selections of Enes Kanter, Gordon Hayward and Deron Williams. Other notable acquisitions include trading for Derrick Favors, Al Jefferson, Marvin Williams and Mo Williams, the free-agent signings of Carlos Boozer, Matt Harpring and Mehmet Okur, and draft finds like C.J. Miles (34th overall in 2005), Paul Millsap (47th overall in 2006), Mo Williams (47th overall in 2003) and Wesley Matthews (undrafted rookie free agent in 2009).

During his time as general manager from 1999-2012, the Jazz compiled a record of 589-461 (.561), finishing with a .500-or-better record in 11 of 13 seasons and advancing to the playoffs nine times while winning three division titles. Along the way, O'Connor was able to successfully transition the team from the final years of the John Stockton/Karl Malone era into a perennial playoff team and 2007 Western Conference finalist despite having only three top-10 draft selections (Williams in 2005, Hayward in 2010, Kanter in 2011) since 1983.

Prior to joining the Jazz, O'Connor spent two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Philadelphia 76ers, charged with player evaluations and supervising the team's scouting department. He has also served as a scout for the Jazz, the New Jersey Nets, the Portland Trail Blazers and the Los Angeles Clippers.

In addition to his NBA experience, O'Connor served as an assistant coach to Larry Brown at UCLA in 1980 when the Bruins advanced to the NCAA championship game. He was also an assistant at Virginia Military Institute when it made an improbable run to the Elite Eight of the 1976 NCAA Tournament, and he helped coach Virginia Tech to a 22-5 record and the 1973 NIT Championship. His collegiate coaching career included assistant coaching jobs at Virginia Tech (1972-74), VMI (1974-76), the University of Colorado (1976-79) and UCLA (1979-85).

Born in the Bronx, O'Connor grew up in Staten Island, N.Y. He earned a degree in economics and business in 1969 from Belmont Abbey College in Belmont, N.C., where he helped lead the basketball team to a 21-5 record his senior year. He then served a two-year stint in the U.S. Army from 1969-71.

DENNIS LINDSEY GENERAL MANAGER

The 2013-14 season marks Dennis Lindsey's second as general manager of the Utah Jazz. Lindsey came to Salt Lake City after spending five seasons with San Antonio as the Spurs' vice president and assistant general manager. Over the past year, together with executive vice president Kevin O'Connor, Lindsey has added support staff to the team's basketball operations department, implemented enhanced performance and analytics tracking systems, overseen a remodel of Zions Bank Basketball Center (practice facility) and led his first draft as the primary day-to-day contact for Jazz basketball operations.

During Lindsey's tenure with San Antonio he was responsible for directing all of the team's player personnel matters, leading all draft-related efforts, managing the Spurs' professional, college and international scouting aspects and overseeing the team's analytical department, as well as handling the day-to-day management of basketball operations including salary cap management and interfacing with the NBA, coaches and player agents. Over his five seasons with San Antonio, the Spurs compiled a 271-123 (.688) regular season record, third-best in the NBA during that span. The Spurs won 50-plus games and advanced to the NBA Playoffs all five seasons, winning three Southwest Division titles, twice finishing with the best record in the Western Conference, and reaching two Western Conference Finals (2008, 2012).

Prior to joining the Spurs, Lindsey spent 11 seasons with the Houston Rockets, serving as the team's vice president of basketball operations and player personnel from 2002-2007. Lindsey originally joined the Rockets as video coordinator/scout in 1996, later serving as director of basketball development and then director of player personnel. Before joining the Rockets, Lindsey worked as an assistant coach at Fort Worth Southwest High School and Pensacola (FL) Junior College.

A native of Freeport, Texas, Lindsey earned his bachelor's degree from Baylor University in 1992 and a graduate degree in sports management from the U.S. Sports Academy in 1994. Lindsey played guard on the Baylor basketball team for four seasons (1988-92), teaming with future NBA players David Wesley and Michael Williams to lead the Bears to the 1988 NCAA Tournament.

He and his wife, Becky, have four children, Jacob, Matthew, Meredith and Jessica Claire. Lindsey's father-in-law is long-time football coach F.A. Dry who served as the head coach at both Tulsa and Texas Christian.

TYRONE CORBIN, HEAD COACH

Tyrone Corbin was named head coach of the Utah Jazz on February 10, 2011, after having served as an assistant with the team since the 2004-05 season. Corbin is the seventh head coach in Jazz history and just the fourth head coach since the franchise's relocation to Utah in 1979. Prior to the 2010-11 season, Corbin ranked second in voting for the NBA's top assistant coach as selected by league general managers (behind only former Jazz assistant Phil Johnson).

With a basketball career spanning 30 years, Corbin has both played and coached under some of basketball's best. In addition to seven seasons working as an assistant under Jerry Sloan and another three seasons playing for him, Corbin also played for Rick Adelman, Cotton Fitzsimmons, Pat Riley and Lenny Wilkens over 16 seasons as a player. In fact, Corbin is tied for the second-most NBA playing experience among all current NBA head coaches, trailing only Golden State's Mark Jackson (17 seasons) by one season.

Corbin came to the Jazz after spending the 2003-04 campaign as the manager of player development for the New York Knicks. Prior to his stint with the Knicks, he spent two seasons as a player mentor for the North Charleston Lowgators of the NBA Development League.

A versatile small forward, Corbin played for nine teams during his NBA career (1985-01), including the Jazz. The Jazz acquired Corbin from Minnesota on December 16, 1991 in exchange for Thurl Bailey and a 1992 second-round pick. During his three seasons with the Jazz from 1991-94, he averaged 9.6 points and 6.2 rebounds in 233 games. Corbin appeared in a total of 1,050 games over the course of his career that included stints with San Antonio, Cleveland, Phoenix, Minnesota, Utah, Atlanta, Sacramento, Miami and Toronto.

Originally drafted by San Antonio in the second round (35th pick overall) of the 1985 NBA Draft, Corbin averaged 9.3 points and 4.8 rebounds while connecting on .457 percent of his shots in 26.2 minutes per game for his career. He also appeared in 82 playoff games, including 37 with the Jazz, averaging 8.4 points and 5.0 rebounds. He scored 11.3 points in 16 games with Utah in 1991-92 and 11.8 points in five games with the Jazz in 1992-93.

Corbin averaged 11.5 points in four years at DePaul University, including 15.8 points in his senior season. He played in 120 games for the Blue Demons, increasing his scoring average and field goal and free throw percentage in each of his four seasons. He finished seventh on DePaul's career scoring list and was a two-time honorable mention AP All-American selection, as well as an All-NIT choice in 1983, and was invited to the 1984 Olympic Trials. He also holds the distinction of being team captain for legendary coach Ray Meyer's final team at DePaul in 1984-85.

In the summer of 2013, Corbin participated in the Basketball without Borders (BWB) camp in South Africa which featured NBA players and coaches training top youth players and leading daily seminars on values such as leadership, character development, and living a healthy lifestyle.

TYRONE CORBIN, HEAD COACH

A native of Columbia, S.C., Corbin was presented with the key to the city of his hometown on July 19, 2011 during a presentation at city hall. Corbin and his wife, Dante, have two children, TyJha and Tyrell. TyJha, a Clemson graduate, is currently in the health sciences graduate program at Westminster College in Salt Lake City. Tyrell, named Utah's 2010 "Mr. Basketball" by Deseret News, led Salt Lake's West High School to a state title and is currently a member of CSU Bakersfield's basketball team.

Corbin graduated from DePaul University with a degree in computer science and served an internship at Merrill Lynch as a financial planner during the summer of 1997. He played alongside former NBA player Xavier Daniel at A.C. Flora High School in Columbia, and was also a former teammate of Terry Cummings at DePaul.

CRAIG BOLERJACK

TELEVISION BROADCASTER/PLAY-BY-PLAY

Now entering his ninth season, Craig Bolerjack became only the second announcer the Jazz has ever had when he signed on with the team in June 2005. Besides his booming voice, he brings a national and diverse pedigree to Jazz broadcasts. Following a 13-year career as a lead play-by-play announcer for CBS Sports, Bolerjack joined FOX Sports in the fall of 2011 to become one of the new lead play-by-play announcers covering the Big-12, Pac-12 and select NFL games. In 2009, he was part of the Jazz broadcast team that was awarded an Emmy for the coverage of late Jazz owner Larry H. Bolerjack joined CBS in 1998 as a college football and NFL play-by-play announcer and has also provided play-by-play for CBS's coverage of the Sun Bowl and Gator Bowl. Bolerjack diversified into college hoops, broadcasting the NCAA Tournament and the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship, as well as women's gymnastics, freestyle skiing and has hosted the CBS Sportsdesk from the network's New York studios. Besides his CBS duties, Bolerjack co-hosted "The Big Show," a popular sports talk show on local station 1280 AM (KZNS), from 2001 to 2005 and is now a "Jazz Insider" on 1280, joining various shows throughout the week for Jazz updates. Continuing its second season in 2011-12, Bolerjack will also host the Jazz magazine show "The Fan" which airs on KJZZ-TV.

Before CBS, Bolerjack was at ESPN, where he was a college basketball and football play-by-play commentator. Keeping with his diverse range, Bolerjack also called the NIT, NCAA Women's Basketball Championship, Arena Football League, and Liberty and Independence Bowl games at ESPN.

From 1985 through 1998, he served as a sports anchor for Salt Lake City's NBC affiliate, KSL, winning SportsCaster of the Year honors in 1994. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly black or very dark gray, with a fine, woven-like pattern. It is framed by several geometric shapes in shades of gray and white. These shapes are angular and appear to be layered or overlapping, creating a sense of depth and modern design. The word "HISTORY" is centered in the middle of the image.

HONORS:

- Andrei Kirilenko, All-Defensive Second Team
- Andrei Kirilenko, NBA All-Star
- Andrei Kirilenko, Player of the Week (11/9, 2/29)

- 2ND ROUND 47TH PICK
Mo Williams (G), Alabama

2003-04 NOTES:

- For the first time in 18 years, the Jazz begins the season without Karl Malone and John Stockton.
- 31 games in, leading scorer Matt Harpring is forced to undergo right knee surgery and misses the remainder of the season.
- On 2/19/04, the Jazz trades DeShawn Stevenson to Orlando for Gordan Giricek, and also send Keon Clark and Ben Handlogten to Phoenix for Tom Gugliotta.
- Utah finishes with its 19th straight winning season and 21st straight at .500 or better.
- However, for the first time since the 1983-84 season, the team fails to make the playoffs, snapping a 20-year run (third best in NBA history).
- Thus, the Jazz enters the NBA Lottery for the first time in team history.
- Andrei Kirilenko finishes the season as the team's leader in scoring, rebounding, blocks, steals and minutes played - he finishes third in the league in blocks (2.77) and fourth in steals (1.94).
- Jerry Sloan wins his 900th career game on 2/7/04, and finishes second to Hubie Brown (Memphis) for NBA Coach of the Year.

2010-11 NOTES:

- Utah finished below .500 for only the second time in the last 28 years (2004-05), and the fourth time in that span the Jazz missed the playoffs.
- The Jazz missed the playoffs for the first time since 2006.
- The Jazz started the season 24-11, but finished 15-32 thereafter.
- On 2/10/11, head coach Jerry Sloan and lead assistant Phil Johnson announced their resignations and Tyrone Corbin was named the seventh head coach in Jazz history (only the fourth since the team moved to Utah in 1979).
- On 2/23/11, the Jazz traded All-Star guard Deron Williams to New Jersey in exchange for guard Devin Harris, rookie forward Derrick Favors, and two future first-round picks.
- The Jazz finished 13-3 for the month of November, the second-best November winning percentage in franchise history (11-2, .846 in 1996-97). Only twice had the Jazz ever won more than the 13 games in a month (15-2 in March 1998 and 14-1 in March 2000).
- The Jazz swept a four-game East Coast trip from 11/9-11/13/10, overcoming double-digit deficits to win each game - at Miami (trailing by 22), Orlando (18), Atlanta (11) and Charlotte (/19). It marked the second straight year the Jazz swept a four-game road trip (2/16-2/21/10), which prior to last season the team hadn't done since 1998-99.
- The Jazz became the first team in the shot clock era to win three consecutive games after trailing by at least 10 points at the half (11/6-11/10/10).
- On the season, the Jazz overcame double-digit deficits to win 15 times, overcoming 15+ point deficits on seven occasions.
- Prior to being traded, Deron Williams was selected as an NBA All-Star for the second straight season, becoming the sixth player in franchise history to be chosen multiple times (Boozer, Dantley, K. Malone, Maravich, Stockton).
- Utah finished the season fifth in the league in assists (23.4) and third in blocks (5.9).
- Al Jefferson ranked eighth in NBA in rebounding (9.7) and ninth in blocks (1.87), and Paul Millsap ranked 10th in field goal percentage (.531).
- Jefferson was the only Jazzman to appear in all 82 games (all starts) and led the Jazz's season-ending roster in scoring (18.6), rebounding (9.7), blocked shots (1.87) and double-doubles (37).

2011-12 NOTES:

- The Jazz preseason and regular season schedules are modified due to the NBA lockout, which runs from 7/1/11 until a new collective bargaining agreement is ratified on 12/8/11. As a result, teams play a revised 66-game schedule that begins Christmas Day.
- The Jazz finished the season eighth in the Western Conference and advanced to the playoffs for the fifth time in six years, and for the 25th time in 29 years.
- Utah had a .500-or-better record for the 27th time in the last 29 years, and a winning record for the 24th time in 27 years.
- The Jazz closed the season 7-2 to pass both Houston and Phoenix in the race for the final playoff spot. Utah clinched with a 100-88 win over Phoenix (4/24) in the next-to-last game of the season.
- The Jazz had three win streaks of five or more games, including a streak of six games, which was longest of the season (3/15-3/23).
- The Jazz played seven overtime games (4-3), including contests that went to double-OT (vs. TOR 1/25), triple-OT (vs. DAL 4/16) and quadruple-OT (at ATL 3/25), the longest game in franchise history. The Atlanta game was the first 4-OT NBA game since 11/14/97 (Phoenix-Portland).
- The Jazz ranked third in the NBA in rebounds per game (44.1) and offensive rebounds (13.1), and fourth in scoring (99.7) and blocks (5.8).
- Jeremy Evans was crowned champion of the 2012 NBA Slam Dunk Contest on 2/25 at NBA All Star Weekend in Orlando. Evans was the first Jazz player to win an NBA dunk contest.
- Second-year players Gordon Hayward and Derrick Favors were selected to participate in the 2012 Rising Stars Challenge during All-Star Weekend (2/24), where they scored 14 points apiece.
- Paul Millsap ranked fourth in the NBA in steals per game, with an average of 1.84.
- Al Jefferson led the Jazz in points (19.2), rebounds (9.6) and blocks (1.7) while registering a team-high 31 double-doubles.
- Jefferson was named the Western Conference Player of the Week for games played from April 16 to April 23. During that stretch he led the Jazz to a 3-0 record and averaged 20.0 points, a league-high 15.3 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 2.0 blocks.

HISTORY OF THE JAZZ NAME AND LOGO

On March 7, 1974, New Orleans became the 18th member of the NBA as a nine-man group headed by Fred Rosenfeld and Sam Battistone paid $6.15 million for the expansion franchise. Then on May 3, 1974, Pete Maravich was acquired by trade from Atlanta, becoming the first player in franchise history.

That spring, a contest was held to name the expansion team. Of the more than 6,500 names submitted, eight semi-finalists emerged: Jazz, Dukes, Crescents, Pilots, Cajuns, Blues, Deltas, and Knights.

After much deliberation, team officials announced that the new team name would be the New Orleans Jazz on June 7, 1974.

Three contestants had entered the Jazz name with the same postmark date, so team officials had Miss New Orleans 1974, Kay Johnson, choose a winner out of a hopper. That winner was Steve Brown, a 27-year old broker and transplant New Yorker.

Brown, a self-proclaimed Jazz freak who had once played in a league with Julius Irving, said, "I grew up on Knickerbocker basketball, but this is my team now." He received two Jazz season tickets and a trip to the 1975 NBA All-Star Game in Phoenix.

As the undisputed "Jazz capital of the world", the city embraced the new name. And, for the second time, Jazz had been born in New Orleans. To convey a distinct Mardi Gras theme, purple, gold, and green colors were used and the logo featured the 'J' as an eighth note. The team colors were actually selected prior to the name.

"Jazz is one of those things for which New Orleans is nationally famous and locally proud," owner Fred Rosenfeld said. "It is a great art form which belongs to New Orleans and its rich history."

"As for the tradition of Mardi Gras, the three colors are emblematic of the following: purple for justice, green for faith, gold for power."

The Jazz remained in New Orleans for five years (1974-79) before ownership decided to move the team to Salt Lake City following the 1978-79 season. Despite no history of Jazz music in Utah, the name was kept.

Although many at the time had reservations about Utah's ability to successfully support an NBA team, Utah Jazz fans became some of the most loyal fans in the league. To this day, saxophones, Cajun food, and Mardi Gras beads may be hard to come by in Salt Lake City, but Jazz is definitely in the air.

QUICK JAZZ FACTS:

- The Jazz name was selected because of its definition in the dictionary: "collective improvisation."
- The source of the word "Jazz" is not clear, but the word is often regarded as being of African or Creole origin.

Through the years, Miller amassed more than 80 businesses and properties in the western United States, most notably the Jazz, EnergySolutions Arena, the Salt Lake Bees (AAA-affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), Miller Motorsports Park, Megaplex Theatres, and dozens of automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West ... Miller also developed vast real estate holdings including commercial and agricultural properties ... In March 2003, Miller opened the Zions Bank Basketball Center, the Jazz's premier basketball training and practice facility which features two full-size NBA courts, totaling 22,200 square feet of court ... His most visible contribution to Salt Lake City was his privately owned EnergySolutions Arena, which under his supervision, was completed in 1991 in a then-record 15 months and 24 days, and has served as home for the Jazz for the past 22 seasons ... He received awards from Sports Illustrated, and the American Import Auto Dealers Association for his work in the automobile industry ... In 1992, he was

“NOBODY LAID DOWN, NOBODY QUIT, NOBODY LEFT ANYTHING IN THE LOCKER ROOM. IT WAS ALL OUT THERE ON THE FLOOR...”

I'VE ALWAYS SAID TO OUR GUYS 'I'LL NEVER ASK YOU TO WIN, BUT I WILL ASK YOU TO GIVE US EVERYTHING YOU'VE GOT.' ”

honored by the International Softball Congress when he was inducted into the ISC Hall of Fame as one of the top pitchers in the country ... He was also awarded honorary doctorate degrees from the University of Utah, Weber State University, Salt Lake Community College and Utah Valley State College ... He was named Utah's 1997 Master Entrepreneur of the Year and received numerous other honors from business, civic and non-profit organizations ... He coined the phrase “Go about doing good until there is too much good in the world” ... Miller and his wife Gail provide close to 300 college scholarships each year ... Larry H. Miller Charities, a foundation funded by monthly contributions from his businesses, fundraising events in the community, and personal donations from employees, has donated millions of dollars to communities in which the Larry H. Miller Group does business ... Larry and Gail also donated millions of dollars to Utah-based colleges and universities for campus improvements such as the state-of-the-art softball and baseball complexes at BYU ... The Larry H. Miller Campus of the Salt Lake Community College (SLCC), was completed in fall 2001 and includes the Larry H. Miller Entrepreneurship Training Center and The Larry and Gail Miller Public Safety Education & Training Center ... Born in Salt Lake City in 1944, Miller grew up modestly in the Capitol Hill area before becoming one of Utah's most successful entrepreneurs and business leaders ... He died from complications due to type 2 diabetes at the age of 64 on February 20, 2009 ... He left behind a profound professional and personal legacy, created a significant and lasting impact on the communities in which he did business, and the more than 7,000 individuals he employed ... Despite all of his success, Miller always maintained that his greatest accomplishment is the family that survives him: his wife, Karen Gail Saxton Miller, their four sons and one daughter, grandchildren, and great grandchildren ... On April 14, 2010, Miller was honored by the Larry H. Miller Corporation as its employees participated in a day of service, his softball No. 9 was raised to the rafters of EnergySolutions Arena, and the basketball court was dedicated as Larry H. Miller Court at EnergySolutions Arena.

The Bakersfield Jam are the official NBA D-League affiliate of the Utah Jazz. Founded in 2006 and based in Bakersfield, Calif., the team is owned by Bakersfield Professional Sports, LLC, a local ownership group led by Stan Ellis and David Higdon. The Jam are members of the West Division and play home games at the Dignity Health Event Center, which was formerly known as the Jam Events Center. Their team colors are red and blue. In addition to the Jazz, the Jam are also affiliated with the Atlanta Hawks, Los Angeles Clippers, Phoenix Suns and Toronto Raptors.

Bakersfield returns to the hardwood following a historic 2012-13 season, in which they earned the West Division title for the first time in franchise history, secured the overall top seed in the league and established a new best home record in league history (22-3).

NIGHT WEDNESDAYS & NIGHT

TEAM INFO

JAZZ IN THE COMMUNITY

The Utah Jazz has a strong tradition of giving back to local communities. Each year the team implements a variety of outreach events and programs that benefit others.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Every November a traditional Thanksgiving dinner is served at EnergySolutions Arena to homeless and low-income individuals and families. The Utah Jazz, EnergySolutions Arena, Salt Lake City Mission and Utah Food Services partner to provide this holiday meal. Last season, more than 3,600 dinners were served.

CHRISTMAS HOSPITAL VISITS

Jazz players, coaches, dancers and the Jazz Bear visit Shriners Hospital for Children - Salt Lake City and Primary Children's Medical Center each December to comfort children who are unable to be home during the holidays. A Jazz entourage moves from room to room, visiting with each child and leaving a small gift. Last season a visit was also made to the George E. Wahlen Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center. These Christmas visits have been a Jazz tradition for over 25 years.

BE A TEAM PLAYER - READ

Be a Team Player - Read is a highly successful program aimed at increasing literacy skills in children. Over a four-week period of time, local elementary schools log students' out-of-school reading time. The top 10 schools are rewarded with a Jazz player visit. Last year, more than 24,600 students read a combined total of over 18.6 million minutes.

LEAPIN' LEANERS & LOW TOPS

Leapin' Leanners & Low Tops is a fundraiser that allows fans to interact with Jazz players while raising money for charity. Proceeds benefit Larry H. Miller Charities, a nonprofit foundation that focuses on women's and children's issues in the areas of health and education. Fans are encouraged to wear formal attire and gym shoes to EnergySolutions Arena, where they have dinner, play basketball on the Jazz court, get autographs and photos with their favorite players, and participate in a silent and live auction.

BASKETBALL COURTS IN PARKS

The Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities continue to collaborate with local cities on the construction of public outdoor basketball courts in Utah. This season, the Jazz will open new courts in West Jordan and Ogden. To date, nine courts have been built along the Wasatch Front.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY SCHOLARSHIP

Each January, the Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities award a scholarship to an outstanding student who is recognized for his or her accomplishments. The scholarship is presented at an NAACP luncheon held in honor of Martin Luther King Jr.

HIT THE STREETS

Jazz players go into the community each preseason to "hit the streets" and interact face-to-face with fans. Activities vary every year and have included riding public transportation, attending high school football games, visiting local police and fire stations, posing for photographs, signing autographs and distributing free game tickets.

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION

The Utah Jazz collaborates with the Deseret News to produce an annual educational news section that addresses topics relevant to youth. Teachers can request copies of the supplement for use in the classroom. Last season, over 400,000 copies were distributed to teachers and newspaper subscribers.

WHEELIN' JAZZ

The Utah Jazz continues its support of the Wheelin' Jazz, a Utah-based team that belongs to the National Wheelchair Basketball Association (NWBA). The wheelchair team has participated in halftime demonstrations that highlight the sport, and team jerseys have been donated by the Utah Jazz. Jazz coaches have also conducted a basketball clinic for the Jr. Wheelin' Jazz, which is a member of the NWBA Junior Division.

TICKET DONATIONS

In recent years, several Jazz players have purchased groups of tickets and donated them back to the community. The tickets have allowed local youth, especially those from low-income families, to attend Jazz games free of charge. Since 2006, over 23,000 tickets have been contributed.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

For many years, the team has supported Boy Scouts of America by honoring scouts who generate the largest number of ticket sales to Scout O' Rama, an annual fundraising event. Top sellers from neighboring districts receive tickets to a Jazz game, where they are publicly recognized.

GOING GREEN

In collaboration with the National Basketball Association and presenting sponsor Washakie Renewable Energy, the Jazz focuses on responsible use of energy resources. Designated home games during the 2013-14 season will be devoted to educating consumers and raising environmental awareness within the community. Energy-saving measures have been implemented at EnergySolutions Arena and "going green" continues to be a team priority. Additional sponsors include Questar Gas, Rocky Mountain Power and Orbit Irrigation. Go to jazzgreenteam.com for more information.

BEAR HUGS FOR KIDS

Bear Hugs for Kids, an outreach effort that was initiated by the Jazz Bear, has benefited many children over the years. This program includes annual outings where volunteers take underserved youth Christmas shopping during the month of December.

JUNIOR JAZZ YOUTH BASKETBALL

Junior Jazz began in 1983 and is the longest-running youth basketball league in the NBA. Between 50,000 to 60,000 youth from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada, Arizona and Montana participate in the program annually. Junior Jazz emphasizes sportsmanship, teamwork and fundamental basketball skills. Each Jazz player participates in one to two Junior Jazz clinics per year, where they speak to youth and conduct basketball clinics.

CHARITABLE AUCTIONS

Silent auctions are held at designated home games throughout the season to generate funds for charity. Fans bid on unique autographed memorabilia, with proceeds benefiting local charitable groups via Larry H. Miller Charities.

COACHES FOR KIDS

Jazz coaches and trainers provide hundreds of local children the opportunity to attend Jazz basketball games through the NBA Coaches for Kids program. Through the initiative, NBA coaches, assistant coaches, general managers and athletic trainers contribute to Boys & Girls Clubs of America, enabling thousands of youth across the nation to attend NBA games.

NBA CARES

Each fall, the Jazz sponsors a community service activity as part of the league's social responsibility initiative, NBA Cares. At past events, players have interacted with underserved children at educational sites, visited pediatric hospitals, participated in a food drive and helped underprivileged youth receive vision screening. This season, the team is hosting a bowling party for youth who have a parent that is currently deployed through the Utah National Guard.

JAZZ FIT

The Utah Jazz supports an exciting health initiative, Jazz Fit, which focuses on increasing fitness and wellness. Fans can access an interactive website, www.utahjazzfit.com, where Jazz coaches, trainers, players and the America First Jazz Dancers provide fitness and nutrition information. Produced in conjunction with NBA Fit, the program is sponsored by Fresh Market stores, ICON Health & Fitness, Automated Business Products, Shoe Carnival and others.

COMMUNITY BASKETBALL CLINICS

DAY OF SERVICE

For the past four years, the Utah Jazz has paid tribute to its late owner, Larry H. Miller, by designating a day to honor his many contributions to the community. Jazz staff joined other Miller-company employees and participated in service projects that benefited local Boys & Girls Clubs, Neighborhood House and other community service agencies.

AT&T ASSISTING THE COMMUNITY

Through the AT&T Assisting the Community program, each time a Jazz player makes an assist during a Jazz game, AT&T donates $5 towards a community non-profit organization. Last season, TreeUtah received a $10,000 contribution courtesy of AT&T. As part of the program, complimentary tree saplings were handed out at a Jazz game and local students teamed up with AT&T and Utah Jazz employees to plant trees at the Kennecott Nature Center in Murray, Utah. AT&T is committed to supporting the Salt Lake City community through local organizations that serve the area.

CENTURYLINK ALL-STAR TEACHER AWARD

The Utah Jazz and CenturyLink will recognize K-12 educators through the CenturyLink All-Star Teacher Award. Each month during the basketball season, an outstanding educator is recognized at halftime of a Jazz game and a grand prize winner is selected from the five monthly winners. A monetary donation is made to each winning teacher's school courtesy of CenturyLink.

LARRY H. MILLER CHARITIES

Based in 45 states, the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies encompasses more than 80 businesses and properties that primarily fall within six categories: automotive retail, automotive insurance, finance, real estate, retail and professional sports. The company has more than 10,000 full-time and part-time employees.

Larry H. Miller Charities (LHM Charities) is a nonprofit organization that functions as the charitable arm of these many companies. A board of 12 trustees regularly meets to review proposals and requests. Donations are granted to qualified 501(c)(3) nonprofit groups whose programs are based in the same communities where Miller businesses are located. Support is focused on issues that affect women and children, with emphasis placed on health and education.

Funding for LHM Charities is generated from personal donations from Larry H. Miller Group employees, matching funds contributed by the Miller family, monthly support from Miller companies, and donations from the general public. Several fundraising events are held each year, including Leapin' Leanners & Low Tops, a popular charitable gala that Utah Jazz players and coaches actively participate in and support.

Since its inception in 1995, Larry H. Miller Charities has assisted a multitude of organizations and worthy causes. This past year, donations were made to groups such as: Camp Kostopolos, South Valley Sanctuary, Wasatch Mental Health, TURN Community Services, Mountainlands Community Health CenterCenters, U.S. Dream Academy, Children's Service Society, Friends for Sight, Family Connection Center and many schools.

LHM Charities has collaborated with the Utah Jazz and NBA on numerous community projects.

UTAH JAZZ BEAR

Now in his 20th season, Bear, the loveable and playful mascot of the Utah Jazz, has entertained millions of fans at more than 800 Jazz home games since his introduction on November 4, 1994. Although he is known for his on-court antics at Jazz games like sledding down the stairs at the EnergySolutions Arena, rappelling from the arena rafters, teasing referees, high-fiving fans, shooting silly string and giving hugs to children, it's his many hours of service to the community that makes Bear the incredible mascot he is. His attitude and energy bring laughter to everyone.

In addition to Jazz games, he has enriched Utah by donating time to schools, community centers and hospitals. Each year, Bear entertains and instructs grade school students through assemblies such as "Fun to be Fit" and "Read to Achieve," which strive to teach students how to make informed and intelligent life choices. For the past 19 years, Bear has appeared at numerous events for organizations like Big Brothers Big Sisters, Special Olympics, D.A.R.E (Drug Abuse Resistance Education), Toys for Tots, Race for the Cure, Utah Food Bank and Happy Factory. Bear also hosts his annual "Bear Hugs for Kids" program each year, taking hundreds of underprivileged youth on a shopping spree to purchase Christmas presents for themselves and their families.

A member of the Mascot Hall of Fame and honored by three different Utah governors, Bear has received dozens of service awards for his charitable work and contributions.

On October 10, 2013, Utah State Governor Gary Herbert declared the day as "Jazz Bear Day" in recognition of his 20th season as the Jazz mascot and his countless hours of community and public service and his standing as an important citizen of Utah. Bear received similar recognition from then-Governor Olene Walker for his 10th birthday on June 9, 2004. Bear was again honored when then-Governor Jon Huntsman Jr. declared August, 10, 2006, "Jazz Bear Day" and announced Bear's selection to the national Mascot Hall of Fame. Bear's induction into the second class of the Mascot Hall of Fame was on August 15, 2006 in Philadelphia. The highest honor bestowed upon mascots, the mission of the Hall of Fame is to recognize great mascot performers, performance and programs that have inspired tradition and positively affected communities.

Bear has also received the NBA Mascot Leadership Award on multiple occasions, and was selected by his peers as the NBA Mascot of the Year in 2006 and 2008.

The 2013-14 team is made up of 20 dancers who rotate to provide 14 dancers at each Utah Jazz home game.

The America First Jazz Dancers add an exciting entertainment element to Utah Jazz basketball. The team performs a minimum of two times per game, and this season will debut thematic performances. Their dance style is athletic and energetic. They perform a variety of jazz, funk and character-type dance routines. Annual open auditions are conducted each summer, and the team holds four-hour practices two times per week.

"America First Credit Union is a homegrown Utah company that prides itself on member services and excellence in the community," said Utah Jazz President Randy Rigby. "Those attributes spoke volumes in establishing a sponsor affiliation with our franchise. We are proud that our professional dance troupe is known as the America First Jazz Dancers."

"We are very pleased to announce our sponsorship of the Utah Jazz dancers, and look forward to partnering with the Jazz organization on upcoming community events and charitable efforts with this talented group of women," said John B. LARRY H. MILLER COURT

The Utah Jazz basketball court at EnergySolutions Arena was dedicated as Larry H. Miller Court on April 14, 2010.

NEW VIDEO DISPLAY SYSTEM

A new center court high definition video display system (seven times larger than its predecessor), including upper deck corner boards with video and statistics, audio system improvements, and other digital enhancements was installed in the arena prior to the 2013-14 season.

Utah-based Young Electric Sign Company (YESCO), manufactured and installed the custom-designed and integrated system, whose primary component weighs about 55,000 pounds. Anthony James Partners served as consultants in the design and procurement of the system.

A new rectangular-shaped, center-hung scoreboard with twin 1080p HD screens is 42-foot-long and 24-foot-high and runs along the length of the court. The 720p HD end screens facing each baseline measure 26-foot-long and 17-foot-high for 2,900 total square feet. By comparison, the previous standard-definition 10 x 10 foot boards, installed in 2001, totaled 400 square feet.

Another prominent feature of the video display system is the installation of four auxiliary video boards in the corners of the EnergySolutions Arena upper bowl, measuring 37-foot-long and 12.5-foot-high with the capability of showing video highlights and in-depth information such as basketball game statistics.

Two LED light rings - one new and another upgrading the existing electronics - now encircle the arena fascia between the upper and lower bowls. An LED space ring encircles the top of the center-hung video unit. Courtside patrons benefit from the inclusion of two screens located on the inside of the primary side screens allowing them to look up, underneath the video board, for an easy sightline to what is being displayed. Digital signage is also featured on the inside portals of the arena and on the floor behind the basket in padded, portable units. Operational elements of the system are integrated for both unique and all-in-one programming.

An upgraded audio system complements the new video system providing a range of high-quality sound for concerts and shows, improving the clarity of announcements throughout the arena, and further enhancing the patron experience for all entertainment events at EnergySolutions Arena.

Advanced-technology features and specifications of the new video display system include:

Center-hung Video Boards: Two, HD primary side screens which are larger than 1080p, 24' x 41.3', 1152 x 1984 pixel matrix; two, HD primary end screens, 16.67' x 26', 800 x 1248 pixel matrix; two, ventral screens, 9.3' x 16.67', 448 x 800 pixel matrix

Space Ring: 10mm, LED one-sided ring above scoreboard, 5' x 327.17', 144 x 9664 pixel matrix

Upper Bowl Auxiliary Boards: Four, 10mm LED corner boards, 12.46' x 36.83', 368 x 1088 pixel matrix

Light Ring: Two, 20mm LED fascia displays, 2.7' x 830', 40 x 11,952 pixel matrix (1), 40 x 12,256 pixel matrix (1)

Vomitory Sign System: Twenty, 10mm LED displays, 1.63' x 10.83', 48 x 320 pixel matrix

Court-level Kickplate LED: Four, 10mm LED displays in padded portable unit on baseline, 1.0' x 22.75', 32 x 672 pixel matrix
