KEVIN O'CONNOR SENIOR BASKETBALL ADVISER

Kevin O'Connor is entering his 16th season overall with the Jazz and is currently serving as the team's senior advisor. Previously, before the franchise hired Dennis Lindsey in the summer of 2012, he was the second-longest tenured general manager in the NBA behind only Geoff Petrie of the Sacramento Kings (18 seasons). Among some of the key moves orchestrated by O'Connor during his tenure with the Jazz are acquiring the draft picks (through trades) that led to the selections of Enes Kanter, Gordon Hayward and Deron Williams. Other notable acquisitions include trading for Derrick Favors, Al Jefferson, Marvin Williams and Mo Williams, the freeagent signings of Carlos Boozer, Matt Harpring and Mehmet Okur, and draft finds like C.J. Miles (34th overall in 2005), Paul Millsap (47th overall in 2006), Mo Williams (47th overall in 2003) and Wesley Matthews (undrafted rookie free agent in 2009).

During his time as general manager from 1999-2012, the Jazz compiled a record of 589-461 (.561), finishing with a .500-or-better record in 11 of 13 seasons and advancing to the playoffs nine times while winning three division titles. Along the way, O'Connor was able to successfully transition the team from the final years of the John Stockton/Karl Malone era into a perennial playoff team and 2007 Western Conference finalist despite having only three top-10 draft selections (Williams in 2005, Hayward in 2010, Kanter in 2011) since 1983.

Prior to joining the Jazz, O'Connor spent two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Philadelphia 76ers, charged with player evaluations and supervising the team's scouting department. He has also served as a scout for the Jazz, the New Jersey Nets, the Portland Trail Blazers and the Los Angeles Clippers.

In addition to his NBA experience, O'Connor served as an assistant coach to Larry Brown at UCLA in 1980 when the Bruins advanced to the NCAA championship game. He was also an assistant at Virginia Military Institute when it made an improbable run to the Elite Eight of the 1976 NCAA Tournament, and he helped coach Virginia Tech to a 22-5 record and the 1973 NIT Championship. His collegiate coaching career included assistant coaching jobs at Virginia Tech (1972-74), VMI (1974-76), the University of Colorado (1976-79) and UCLA (1979-85).

Born in the Bronx, O'Connor grew up in Staten Island, N.Y. He earned a degree in economics and business in 1969 from Belmont Abbey College in Belmont, N.C., where he helped lead the basketball team to a 21-5 record his senior year. He then served a two-year stint in the U.S. Army from 1969-71.

O'Connor and his wife, Linda, reside in Salt Lake City. They have three children: Katie, Adam and Lindsay. Their fourth child, Brian, is deceased.

MARK MCKOWN ASSISTANT COACH/PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mark McKown is currently in his 18th season as player development assistant coach for the Utah Jazz and has already created a legacy by helping Jazz players become some of the strongest and most fit in the NBA. McKown became the franchise's first full-time strength-and-conditioning coach on September 29, 1997, after being highly recommended for his work with the New York Knicks during their training camps. He also was president of Peak Performance Sport Health Inc.

While assistant athletic director and director of sports performance at the College of Charleston (SC) from 1992-97, McKown assisted the Knicks in their preseason preparations at the college for five seasons. McKown's other job experience includes stints as assistant basketball coach and strength trainer at Charleston, Jacksonville University, and the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg (now South Carolina Upstate).

McKown's prowess in strength training has garnered him national attention. In 2002 he published his first book, "Complete Body Development with Dumbbells," and was featured in "Fundamental Fitness for Kids," a workout video he co-wrote and produced with Greg Brittenham of the New York Knicks in November 2003.

McKown is responsible for starting a seven-plus year partnership with The Peak Performance Project and founder Marcus Elliott, M.D. Furthered by the leadership of General Manager, Dennis Lindsay, the Jazz have become one of the league's most progressive franchises in the implementation of applied sports science. Along with his assistant Isaiah Wright, McKown uses an applied approach to educating and training Jazz players. Each player's training program is individualized based on his precise needs using metrics gathered through the use of functional movement screening, force plate testing, proprioceptive evaluations and kinematics gathered via motion capture.

A native of Gaffney, S.C., McKown graduated from the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg (now South Carolina Upstate) in 1980, where he played basketball. He then earned a master's degree in sports science from the United States Sports Academy in Mobile, Ala. McKown is also a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association where he is certified as a strength-and-conditioning specialist. McKown also holds various other professional certifications.

McKown and his wife, Sonja, are the parents of two children, Zachariah, who graduated from Columbia University in 2014, and Kallie, who is a redshirt senior on the College of Charleston's volleyball squad. 2013-14 SEASON NOTABLES

TEAM ACCOLADES

- The Jazz acquired the draft rights to guard Trey Burke (selected ninth overall) from Minnesota and center Rudy Gobert (selected 27th overall) from Denver in separate deals during the 2013 NBA Draft.
- · The young Jazz featured six players on the roster age 22-or-under, the most in the NBA.
- Utah finished below .500 for the first time since 2010-11 and just the third time in the last 31 seasons, missing the playoffs for the second straight season, the first time missing out in consecutive seasons since three straight from 2003-06.
- Despite the record, the Jazz averaged 18,175 fans, ranking 12th in the NBA and trailing only the Lakers and Knicks among non-playoff teams.
- The Jazz defeated six playoff teams (four Eastern Conference, two Western Conference) including a win over twotime defending NBA Champion Miami Heat for the fifth straight season.
- · Utah captured the season series with Charlotte (2-0), Orlando (2-0) and Philadelphia (2-0).
- Utah recorded a season-high three-game win streak heading into the NBA All-Star break, picking up wins over Miami (2/8), at the L.A. Lakers (2/11) and vs. Philadelphia (2/12).
- The Jazz shattered the franchise record for three-pointers made for the second straight season, hitting 543-of-1577, topping 2012-13's previous high marks of 507-of-1385.
- The Jazz scored a season-high 136 points in their season finale double-overtime win at Minnesota (4/16).

INDIVIDUAL ACCOLADES

- The Jazz had seven games this season wherein a player scored at least 30 points. Gordon Hayward had three of them, while Trey Burke and Alec Burks had two apiece.
- Trey Burke became the ninth player in Jazz franchise history to be named to an NBA All-Rookie Team, and the sixth to be selected to the First Team.
- Trey Burke was named Western Conference Rookie of the Month (December, January, April) three times, becoming the first player in Jazz history to win multiple Rookie of the Month awards, and just the second Jazzman to win monthly rookie honors (Karl Malone, December 1985).
- Burke also teamed with Portland's Damian Lillard to win the 2014 Taco Bell Skills Challenge during NBA All-Star Weekend in New Orleans, and also participated in the 2014 NBA Rising Stars Challenge.
- Sixth-man Alec Burks finished second on the team in scoring (14.0 points) and ranked second in the NBA in points per game off the bench.
- Jeremy Evans began the season by hitting his first 12 field goal attempts, the first NBA player to accomplish the feat since Tony Massenburg hit 13 straight for Vancouver to start the 1998-99 season.
- Derrick Favors finished the season ranked in the league's top 25 in four different statistical categories: 14th in blocks (1.5), 19th in both offensive rebounds (2.7) and field goal percentage (.522), and 23rd in rebounding (8.7).
- Gordon Hayward averaged career-highs of 16.2 points, 5.1 rebounds, 5.2 assists and 1.4 steals in 36.4 minutes (10th in NBA) to become just the second player in Jazz franchise history to average at least 16/5/5 in a season (Pete Maravich in 1974-75 and 1976-77).
- Hayward was one of just five players in the NBA to average at least 15/5/5 during the 2013-14 season (LeBron James, Michael Carter-Williams, Kevin Durant and Russell Westbrook).
- Hayward scored a career-high 37 points (13-16 FG) with a team-high 11 rebounds and seven assists during Utah's 112-101 victory over Oklahoma City on Jan. 7, scoring the Jazz's final 17 points to become the first NBA player since LeBron James (vs. NJ, 4/16/12) to score his team's last 17 points in a game.
- The only Jazz player to appear in all 82 games, 33-year-old Richard Jefferson ranked 14th in the NBA in threepoint percentage (.409). Jefferson had 16 games where he connected on at least three 3-pointers.
- For the second consecutive season, Enes Kanter improved his numbers in almost every major statistical category.
 After recording just two double-doubles in 2012-13, Kanter posted a total of 24 in 2014-15, with 14 of those coming post-All-Star break.
- · Tyrone Corbin earned his 100th career win during the team's 118-103 win vs. the Denver Nuggets (1/13).
- · Following the season (April 21), the Jazz announced that Tyrone Corbin would not return as head coach.

HEAD COACH: Jerry Sloan

HONORS:

- Jerry Sloan, Coach of the Month (February) - Deron Williams. Player of the Week (3/9)

PLAYOFFS:

-Lost to L.A. Lakers (1-4) in First Round

DRAFT ADDITIONS:

• 1ST ROUND 23RD PICK Kosta Koufos (C), Ohio State

2008-09 NOTES:

- -Head coach Jerry Sloan and former Jazz great John Stockton were elected to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame on 4/6/09.
- -Sloan became the only coach in NBA history to win at least 1,000 games with one team with the Jazz's 104-97 win over Oklahoma City on 11/7.
- -Sloan, the longest tenured coach in NBA history and the longest current head coach in major professional sports, celebrated his 20th anniversary as Jazz head coach with a 99-96 win at Minnesota on 12/9.
- -Legendary Jazz broadcaster "Hot" Rod Hundley called his 3,000th Jazz game when the team, ironically enough, defeated the New Orleans Homets on 1/7.
- · Hundley, who called games for the first 35 seasons in Jazz history, dating back to the franchise's inception in New Orleans in 1974, retired following the Jazz's elimination from the 2009 playoffs.
- •The Jazz advances to the playoffs for the third straight season and the 18th time in Jerry Sloan's 21 years as Jazz head coach.
- -The Jazz finishes with a .500 or better record for the 25th time in the last 26 years and with a winning record for the 22nd time in the last 24 years.
- -Utah lost 156 man-games overall and 148 due to injury/illness, many to key players (45 games for Carlos Boocer, 15 for Andrei Kirilenko, 14 apiece for Deron Williams and Matt Harpring) that forced the Jazz to use 20 different starting lineups.
- -The Jazz did not have its projected starting lineup of Miles, Boozer, Okur, Brewer, Williams until Game 57 (2/23/09 vs. Atlanta).
- •The Jazz wins 12 games in a row from 2/11 3/10, marking the fourth-longest winning streak in franchise history.
- •The team finished the season leading the league in assists (24.7) and steals (8.77), ranking third in field goal percentage (.475) and seventh in scoring (103.6).
- Deron Williams averaged career highs of 19.4 points and 10.7 assists per game (ranking second in the NBA behind Chris Paul).
- -Williams had five games in a row with 30+ points and shooting at least 50 percent shooting (1/31-2/11), the first time the feat was reached by an NBA point guard since Pete Maravich did it with the New Orleans Jazz in 1976. The last player overall to do so was LeBron James in 2007; the last guard was Michael Jordan in 1996 and the last Jazzman to do it was Karl Malone in 1995.

2010-11 NOTES:

- Utah finished below .500 for only the second time in the last 28 years (2004-05), and the fourth time in that span the Jazz missed the playoffs.
- The Jazz missed the playoffs for the first time since 2006.
- The Jazz started the season 24-11, but finished 15-32 thereafter.
- On 2/10/11, head coach Jerry Sloan and lead assistant Phil Johnson announced their resignations and Tyrone Corbin was named the seventh head coach in Jazz history (only the fourth since the team moved to Utah in 1979).
- On 2/23/11, the Jazz traded All-Star guard Deron Williams to New Jersey in exchange for guard Devin Harris, rookie forward Derrick Favors, and two future first-round picks.
- The Jazz finished 13-3 for the month of November, the second-best November winning percentage in franchise history (11-2, .846 in 1996-97). Only twice had the Jazz ever won more than the 13 games in a month (15-2 in March 1998 and 14-1 in March 2000).
- The Jazz swept a four-game East Coast trip from 11/9-11/13/10, overcoming double-digit deficits to win each game at Miami (trailed by 22), Orlando (18), Atlanta (11) and Charlotte (/19). It marked the second straight year the Jazz swept a four-game road trip (2/16-2/21/10), which prior to last season the team hadn't done since 1998-99.
- The Jazz became the first team in the shot clock era to win three consecutive games after trailing by at least 10 points at the half (11/6-11/10/10).
- On the season, the Jazz overcame double-digit deficits to win 15 times, overcoming 15+ point deficits on seven occasions.
- Prior to being traded, Deron Williams was selected as an NBA All-Star for the second straight season, becoming the sixth player in franchise history to be chosen multiple times (Boozer, Dantley, K. Malone, Maravich, Stockton).
- Utah finished the season fifth in the league in assists (23.4) and third in blocks (5.9).

2011-12 NOTES:

- The Jazz preseason and regular season schedules are modified due to the NBA lockout, which runs from 7/1/11 until a new collective bargaining agreement is ratified on 12/8/11. As a result, teams play a revised 66-game schedule that begins Christmas Day.
- The Jazz finished the season eighth in the Western Conference and advanced to the playoffs for the fifth time in six years, and for the 25th time in 29 years.
- Utah had a .500-or-better record for the 27th time in the last 29 years, and a winning record for the 24th time in 27 years.
- The Jazz closed the season 7-2 to pass both Houston and Phoenix in the race for the final playoff spot. Utah clinched with a 100-88 win over Phoenix (4/24) in the next-to-last game of the season.
- The Jazz had three win streaks of five or more games, including a streak of six games, which was longest of the season (3/15-3/23).
- The Jazz played seven overtime games (4-3), including contests that went to double-OT (vs. TOR 1/25), triple-OT (vs. DAL 4/16) and
- quadruple-OT (at ATL 3/25), the longest game in franchise history. The Atlanta game was the first 4-OT NBA game since 11/14/97 (Phoenix-Portland).
- The Jazz ranked third in the NBA in rebounds per game (44.1) and offensive rebounds (13.1), and fourth in scoring (99.7) and blocks (5.8).
- Jeremy Evans was crowned champion of the 2012 NBA Slam Dunk Contest on 2/25 at NBA All Star Weekend in Orlando. Evans was the first Jazz player to win an NBA dunk contest.

HISTORY OF THE JAZZ NAME AND LOGO

On March 7, 1974, New Orleans became the 18th member of the NBA as a nine-man group headed by Fred Rosenfeld and Sam Battistone paid $6.15 million for the expansion franchise. Then on May 3, 1974, Pete Maravich was acquired by trade from Atlanta, becoming the first player in franchise history.

That spring, a contest was held to name the expansion team. Of the more than 6,500 names submitted, eight semi-finalists emerged: Jazz, Dukes, Crescents, Pilots, Cajuns, Blues, Deltas, and Knights.

After much deliberation, team officials announced that the new team name would be the New Orleans Jazz on June 7, 1974.

Three contestants had entered the Jazz name with the same postmark date, so team officials had Miss New Orleans 1974, Kay Johnson, choose a winner out of a hopper. That winner was Steve Brown, a 27-year old broker and transplant New Yorker.

Brown, a self-proclaimed Jazz freak who had once played in a league with Julius Irving, said, "I grew up on Knickerbocker basketball, but this is my team now." He received two Jazz season tickets and a trip to the 1975 NBA All-Star Game in Phoenix

As the undisputed "Jazz capital of the world", the city embraced the new name. And, for the second time, Jazz had been born in New Orleans. To convey a distinct Mardi Gras theme, purple, gold, and green colors were used and the logo featured the 'J' as an eighth note. The team colors were actually selected prior to the name.

"Jazz is one of those things for which New Orleans is nationally famous and locally proud," owner Fred Rosenfeld said. "It is a great art form which belongs to New Orleans and its rich history."

"As for the tradition of Mardi Gras, the three colors are emblematic of the following: purple for justice, green for faith, gold for power."

The Jazz remained in New Orleans for five years (1974-79) before ownership decided to move the team to Salt Lake City following the 1978-79 season. Despite no history of Jazz music in Utah, the name was kept.

Although many at the time had reservations about Utah's ability to successfully support an NBA team, Utah Jazz fans became some of the most loyal fans in the league. To this day, saxophones, Cajun food, and Mardi Gras beads may be hard to come by in Salt Lake City, but Jazz is definitely in the air.

QUICK JAZZ FACTS:

- The Jazz name was selected because of its definition in the dictionary: "collective improvisation."
- The source of the word "Jazz" is not clear, but the word is often regarded as being of African or Creole origin.

LARRY H. MILLER

NO. 9 BANNER RAISED AND COURT DEDICATED IN HIS HONOR ON APRIL 14, 2010

A man who truly loved Utah, Larry H. Miller was a well-known entrepreneur, community advocate and humanitarian, who owned the Utah Jazz for 24 years prior to his death in February 2009 ... Miller purchased 50-percent interest in the Jazz on April 11, 1985 from then-owner Sam Battistone, then bought the remaining half on June 16, 1986 ... Under his ownership, the franchise grew considerably and became a winner both on and off the court ... Miller's success as owner of the Jazz was just one chapter in his amazing saga of business achievement and community involvement ... His unwavering personal commitment to professional sports in Salt Lake City created the foundation for a strong franchise in one of the league's smallest markets and was rewarded with achievements such as consecutive trips to the NBA Finals in 1997 and 1998 and hosting the NBA All-Star game in 1993 ... The founding owner of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, whose primary business is a network of automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West ... His career in the automotive industry grew from roots in the parts business in both Salt Lake City and Denver before he purchased his first dealership in 1979 ... The Larry H. Miller Group of Companies began with the Larry H. Miller Toyota store in Murray, Utah on May 1, 1979 ... Through the years, Miller amassed more than 80 businesses and properties in the western United States, most notably the Jazz, EnergySolutions Arena, the Salt Lake Bees (AAA-affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), Miller Motorsports Park, Megaplex Theatres, and dozens of automobile dealerships spanning the Rocky Mountain West ... Miller also developed vast real estate holdings including commercial and agricultural properties ... In March 2003, Miller opened the Zions Bank Basketball Center, the Jazz's premier basketball training and practice facility which features two full-size NBA courts, totaling 22,200 square feet of court ... His most visible contribution to Salt Lake City was his privately owned EnergySolutions Arena, which under his supervision. was completed in 1991 in a then-record 15 months and 24 days, and has served as home for the Jazz for the past 22 seasons ... He received awards from Sports Illustrated, and the American Import Auto Dealers Association for his work in the automobile industry ... In 1992, he was

"NOBODY LAID DOWN, NOBODY QUIT, NOBODY LEFT ANYTHING IN THE LOCKER ROOM. IT WAS ALL OUT THERE ON THE FLOOR...

I'VE ALWAYS SAID TO OUR GUYS
'I'LL NEVER ASK YOU TO WIN, BUT I WILL ASK YOU TO GIVE US EVERYTHING YOU'VE GOT.' "

honored by the International Softball Congress when he was inducted into the ISC Hall of Fame as one of the top pitchers in the country ... He was also awarded honorary doctorate degrees from the University of Utah, Weber State University, Salt Lake Community College and Utah Valley State College ... He was named Utah's 1997 Master Entrepreneur of the Year and received numerous other honors from business, civic and non-profit organizations ... He coined the phrase "Go about doing good until there is too much good in the world" ... Miller and his wife Gail provide close to 300 college scholarships each year ... Larry H. Miller Charities, a foundation funded by monthly contributions from his businesses, fundraising events in the community, and personal donations from employees, has donated millions of dollars to communities in which the Larry H. Miller Group does business ... Larry and Gail also donated millions of dollars to Utah-based colleges and universities for campus improvements such as the state-of-the-art softball and baseball complexes at BYU ... The Larry H. Miller Campus of the Salt Lake Community College (SLCC), was completed in fall 2001 and includes the Larry H. Miller Entrepreneurship Training Center and The Larry and Gail Miller Public Safety Education & Training Center ... Born in Salt Lake City in 1944, Miller grew up modestly in the Capitol Hill area before becoming one of Utah's most successful entrepreneurs and business leaders ... He died from complications due to type 2 diabetes at the age of 64 on February 20, 2009 ... He left behind a profound professional and personal legacy, created a significant and lasting impact on the communities in which he did business, and the more than 7,000 individuals he employed ... Despite all of his success, Miller always maintained that his greatest accomplishment is the family that survives him: his wife, Karen Gail Saxton Miller, their four sons and one daughter, grandchildren, and great grandchildren ... On April 14, 2010, Miller was honored by the Larry H. Miller Corporation as its employees participated in a day of service, his softball No. 9 was raised to the rafters of EnergySolutions Arena, and the basketball court was dedicated as Larry H. Miller Court at EnergySolutions Arena.

ABOUT THE NBA DEVELOPMENT I FAGUE

The NBA Development League is the NBA's official minor league, preparing players, coaches, officials, trainers, and front-office staff for the NBA while acting as the league's research and development laboratory. Featuring 18 teams with affiliations with NBA franchise for the 2014-15 season, the league offers elite professional basketball at an affordable price in a fun, family-friendly atmosphere. One-third of all NBA players at the end of the 2013-14 season boasted NBA D-League experience. In fostering the league's connection to the community, its teams, players and staff promote health and wellness, support local needs and interests, and assist in educational development through NBA D-League Cares programs. Fans can watch all NBA D-League games on nbadleague.com

TEAM INFO

JAZZ IN THE COMMUNITY

The Utah Jazz has a strong tradition of giving back to local communities. Each year the team implements a variety of outreach events and programs that benefit others.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Every November a traditional Thanksgiving dinner is served at EnergySolutions Arena to homeless and low-income individuals and families. The Utah Jazz, EnergySolutions Arena, Salt Lake City Mission and Utah Food Services partner to provide this holiday meal. Last season, more than 3,600 dinners were served.

CHRISTMAS HOSPITAL VISITS

Jazz players, coaches, dancers and the Jazz Bear visit Shriners Hospital for Children - Salt Lake City and Primary Children's Medical Center each December to comfort children who are unable to be home during the holidays. A Jazz entourage moves from room to room, visiting with each child and leaving a small gift. Last season a visit was also made to the George E. Wahlen Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center. These Christmas visits have been a Jazz tradition for over 25 years.

BE A TEAM PLAYER - READ

Be a Team Player – Read is a highly successful program aimed at increasing literacy skills in children. Over a four-week period of time, local elementary schools log students' out-of-school reading time. The top 10 schools are rewarded with a Jazz player visit. Last year, more than 24,600 students read a combined total of over 18.6 million minutes.

LEAPIN' LEANERS & LOW TOPS

Leapin' Leaners & Low Tops is a fundraiser that allows fans to interact with Jazz players while raising money for charity. Proceeds benefit Larry H. Miller Charities, a nonprofit foundation that focuses on women's and children's issues in the areas of health and education. Fans are encouraged to wear formal attire and gym shoes to EnergySolutions Arena, where they have dinner, play basketball on the Jazz court, get autographs and photos with their favorite players, and participate in a silent and live auction.

BASKETBALL COURTS IN PARKS

The Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities continue to collaborate with local cities on the construction of public outdoor basketball courts in Utah. This season, the Jazz will open new courts in West Jordan and Ogden. To date, nine courts have been built along the Wasatch Front.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY SCHOLARSHIP

Each January, the Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Charities award a scholarship to an outstanding student who is recognized for his or her accomplishments. The scholarship is presented at an NAACP luncheon held in honor of Martin Luther King Jr.

HIT THE STREETS

Jazz players go into the community each preseason to "hit the streets" and interact face-to-face with fans. Activities vary every year and have included riding public transportation, attending high school football games, visiting local police and fire stations, posing for photographs, signing autographs and distributing free game tickets.

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION

The Utah Jazz collaborates with the Deseret News to produce an annual educational news section that addresses topics relevant to youth. Teachers can request copies of the supplement for use in the classroom. Last season, over 400,000 copies were distributed to teachers and newspaper subscribers.

WHEELIN' JAZZ

The Utah Jazz continues its support of the Wheelin' Jazz, a Utah-based team that belongs to the National Wheelchair Basketball Association (NWBA). The wheelchair team has participated in halftime demonstrations that highlight the sport, and team jerseys have been donated by the Utah Jazz. Jazz coaches have also conducted a basketball clinic for the Jr. Wheelin' Jazz, which is a member of the NWBA Junior Division.

TICKET DONATIONS

In recent years, several Jazz players have purchased groups of tickets and donated them back to the community. The tickets have allowed local youth, especially those from low-income families, to attend Jazz games free of charge. Since 2006, over 23,000 tickets have been contributed.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

For many years, the team has supported Boy Scouts of America by honoring scouts who generate the largest number of ticket sales to Scout O' Rama, an annual fundraising event. Top sellers from neighboring districts receive tickets to a Jazz game, where they are publicly recognized.

GOING GREEN

In collaboration with the National Basketball Association and presenting sponsor Washakie Renewable Energy, the Jazz focuses on responsible use of energy resources. Designated home games during the 2013-14 season will be devoted to educating consumers and raising environmental awareness within the community. Energy-saving measures have been implemented at Energy-Solutions Arena and "going green" continues to be a team priority. Additional sponsors include Questar Gas, Rocky Mountain Power and Orbit Irrigation. Go to jazzgreenteam.com for more information.

JAZZ IN THE COMMUNITY

BEAR HUGS FOR KIDS

Bear Hugs for Kids, an outreach effort that was initiated by the Jazz Bear, has benefited many children over the years. This program includes annual outings where volunteers take underserved youth Christmas shopping during the month of December.

JUNIOR JAZZ YOUTH BASKETBALL

Junior Jazz began in 1983 and is the longest-running youth basketball league in the NBA. Between 50,000 to 60,000 youth from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada, Arizona and Montana participate in the program annually. Junior Jazz emphasizes sportsmanship, teamwork and fundamental basketball skills. Each Jazz player participates in one to two Junior Jazz clinics per year, where they speak to youth and conduct basketball clinics.

CHARITABLE AUCTIONS

Silent auctions are held at designated home games throughout the season to generate funds for charity. Fans bid on unique autographed memorabilia, with proceeds benefiting local charitable groups via Lamy H. Miller Charities.

COACHES FOR KIDS

Jazz coaches and trainers provide hundreds of local children the opportunity to attend Jazz basketball games through the NBA Coaches for Kids program. Through the initiative, NBA coaches, assistant coaches, general managers and athletic trainers contribute to Boys & Girls Clubs of America, enabling thousands of youth across the nation to attend NBA games.

NBA CARES

Each fall, the Jazz sponsors a community service activity as part of the league's social responsibility initiative, NBA Cares. At past events, players have interacted with underserved children at educational sites, visited pediatric hospitals, participated in a food drive and helped underprivileged youth receive vision screening. This season, the team is hosting a bowling party for youth who have a parent that is currently deployed through the Utah National Guard.

JAZZ FIT

The Utah Jazz supports an exciting health initiative, Jazz Fit, which focuses on increasing fitness and wellness. Fans can access an interactive website, www.utahjazzfit.com, where Jazz coaches, trainers, players and the America First Jazz Dancers provide fitness and nutrition information. Produced in conjunction with NBA Fit, the program is sponsored by Fresh Market stores, ICON Health & Fitness, Automated Business Products, Shoe Camival and others.

COMMUNITY BASKETBALL CLINICS

Members of the Jazz coaching staff reach out to the community by offering free basketball clinics at the team's practice facility. Participants hone basketball skills, watch team film, tour the site and receive a gift from the Jazz.

DAY OF SERVICE

For the past four years, the Utah Jazz has paid tribute to its late owner, Larry H. Miller, by designating a day to honor his many contributions to the community. Jazz staff joined other Miller-company employees and participated in service projects that benefited local Boys & Girls Clubs, Neighborhood House and other community service agencies.

AT&T ASSISTING THE COMMUNITY

Through the AT&T Assisting the Community program, each time a Jazz player makes an assist during a Jazz game, AT&T donates $5 towards a community non-profit organization. Last season, TreeUtah received a $10,000 contribution courtesy of AT&T. As part of the program, complimentary tree saplings were handed out at a Jazz game and local students teamed up with AT&T and Utah Jazz employees to plant trees at the Kennecott Nature Center in Murray, Utah. AT&T is committed to supporting the Salt Lake City community through local organizations that serve the area.

CENTURYLINK ALL-STAR TEACHER AWARD

The Utah Jazz and CenturyLink will recognize K-12 educators through the CenturyLink All-Star Teacher Award. Each month during the basketball season, an outstanding educator is recognized at halftime of a Jazz game and a grand prize winner is selected from the five monthly winners. A monetary donation is made to each winning teacher's school courtesy of CenturyLink.

L' Fang H. Miller Charities

Based in 45 states, the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies encompasses more than 80 businesses and properties that primarily fall within six categories: automotive retail, automotive insurance, finance, real estate, retail and professional sports. The company has more than 10,000 full-time and part-time employees.

Larry H. Miller Charities (LHM Charities) is a nonprofit organization that functions as the charitable arm of these many companies. A board of 12 trustees regularly meets to review proposals and requests. Donations are granted to qualified 501(c)(3) nonprofit groups whose programs are based in the same communities where Miller businesses are located. Support is focused on issues that affect women and children, with emphasis placed on health and education.

Funding for LHM Charities is generated from personal donations from Larry H. Miller Group employees, matching funds contributed by the Miller family, monthly support from Miller companies, and donations from the general public. Several fundraising events are held each year, including Leapin' Leaners & Low Tops, a popular charitable gala that Utah Jazz players and coaches actively participate in and support.

Since its inception in 1995, Larry H. Miller Charities has assisted a multitude of organizations and worthy causes. This past year, donations were made to groups such as: Camp Kostopulos, South Valley Sanctuary, Wasatch Mental Health, TURN Community Services, Mountainlands Community Health CenterCenters, U.S. Dream Academy, Children's Service Society, Friends for Sight, Family Connection Center and many schools.

LHM Charities has collaborated with the Utah Jazz and NBA on numerous community projects.

UTAH JAZZ BEAR

Now in his 21st season, Bear, the loveable and playful mascot of the Utah Jazz, has entertained millions of fans at more than 800 Jazz home games since his introduction on November 4, 1994. Although he is known for his on-court antics at Jazz games like sledding down the stairs at the EnergySolutions Arena, rappelling from the arena rafters, teasing referees, high-fiving fans, shooting silly string and giving hugs to children, it's his many hours of service to the community that makes Bear the incredible mascot he is. His attitude and energy bring laughter to everyone.

In addition to Jazz games, he has enriched Utah by donating time to schools, community centers and hospitals. Each year, Bear entertains and instructs grade school students through assemblies such as "Fun to be Fit" and "Read to Achieve," which strive to teach students how to make informed and intelligent life choices. For the past 19 years, Bear has appeared at numerous events for organizations like Big Brothers Big Sisters, Special Olympics, D.A.R.E (Drug Abuse Resistance Education), Toys for Tots, Race for the Cure, Utah Food Bank and Happy Factory. Bear also hosts his annual "Bear Hugs for Kids" program each year, taking hundreds of underprivileged youth on a shopping spree to purchase Christmas presents for themselves and their families.

A member of the Mascot Hall of Fame and honored by three different Utah governors, Bear has received dozens of service awards for his charitable work and contributions. On October 10, 2013, Utah State Governor Gary Herbert declared the day as "Jazz Bear Day" in recognition of his 20th season as the Jazz mascot and his countless hours of community and public service and his standing as an important citizen of Utah. Bear received similar recognition from then-Governor Olene Walker for his 10th birthday on June 9, 2004. Bear was again honored when then-Governor Jon Huntsman Jr. declared August, 10, 2006, "Jazz Bear Day" and announced Bear's selection to the national Mascot Hall of Fame. Bear's induction into the second class of the Mascot Hall of Fame was on August 15, 2006 in Philadelphia. The highest honor bestowed upon mascots, the mission of the Hall of Fame is to recognize great mascot performers, performance and programs that have inspired tradition and positively affected communities.

Bear has also received the NBA Mascot Leadership Award on multiple occasions, and was selected by his peers as the NBA Mascot of the Year in 2006 and 2008.

The America First Jazz Dancers are the professional dance team of the Utah Jazz. The dance team has been in existence since the beginning of the 1992-93 season under the direction of Jan Whittaker. The 2014-15 team is made up of 20 dancers who rotate to provide 14 dancers at each Utah Jazz home game.

The America First Jazz Dancers add an exciting entertainment element to Utah Jazz basketball. The team performs a minimum of two times per game, and this season will debut thematic performances. Their dance style is athletic and energetic. They perform a variety of jazz, funk and character-type dance routines. Annual open auditions are conducted each summer, and the team holds four-hour practices two times per week.

"America First Credit Union is a homegrown Utah company that prides itself on member services and excellence in the community," said Utah Jazz President Randy Rigby. "Those attributes spoke volumes in establishing a sponsor affiliation with our franchise. We are proud that our professional dance troupe is known as the America First Jazz Dancers."

"We are very pleased to announce our sponsorship of the Utah Jazz dancers, and look forward to partnering with the Jazz organization on upcoming community events and charitable efforts with this talented group of women," said John B. Lund, America First president and CEO. "They represent America First's energy and enthusiasm for life."

In addition to performing at Jazz home games, the America First Jazz dancers make community and charity appearances, including school assemblies, hospital visits and fundraising events. The group has a wealth of dancing experience and a wide-variety of career goals and interests. Video introductions to the America First Jazz Dancers are available at www.utahjazz.com/dancers.

LARRY H. MILLER COURT

The Utah Jazz basketball court at EnergySolutions Arena was dedicated as Larry H. Miller Court on April 14, 2010.

NEW VIDEO DISPLAY SYSTEM

A new center court high definition video display system (seven times larger than its predecessor), including upper deck corner boards with video and statistics, audio system improvements, and other digital enhancements was installed in the arena prior to the 2013-14 season.

Utah-based Young Electric Sign Company (YESCO), manufactured and installed the custom-designed and integrated system, whose primary component weighs about 55,000 pounds. Anthony James Partners served as consultants in the design and procurement of the system.

A new rectangular-shaped, center-hung scoreboard with twin 1080p HD screens is 42-feet-long and 24-feet-high and runs along the length of the court. The 720p HD end screens facing each baseline measure 26-feet-long and 17-feet-high for 2,900 total square feet. By comparison, the previous standard-definition 10 x 10 foot boards, installed in 2001, totaled 400 square feet.

Another prominent feature of the video display system is the installation of four auxiliary video boards in the corners of the EnergySolutions Arena upper bowl, measuring 37-feet-long and 12.5-feet-high with the capability of showing video highlights and in-depth information such as basketball game statistics.

Two LED light rings – one new and another upgrading the existing electronics – now encircle the arena fascia between the upper and lower bowls. An LED space ring encircles the top of the center-hung video unit. Courtside patrons benefit from the inclusion of two screens located on the inside of the primary side screens allowing them to look up, underneath the video board, for an easy sightline to what is being displayed. Digital signage is also featured on the inside portals of the arena and on the floor behind the basket in padded, portable units. Operational elements of the system are integrated for both unique and all-in-one programming.

An upgraded audio system complements the new video system providing a range of high-quality sound for concerts and shows, improving the clarity of announcements throughout the arena, and further enhancing the patron experience for all entertainment events at EnergySolutions Arena.

Advanced-technology features and specifications of the new video display system include:

Center-hung Video Boards: Two, HD primary side screens which are larger than 1080p, 24' x 41.3', 1152 x 1984 pixel matrix; two, HD primary end screens, 16.67' x 26', 800 x 1248 pixel matrix; two, ventral screens, 9.3' x 16.67', 448 x 800 pixel matrix
