Executive Office

Gail Miller, Owner, Chairman of the Board, Larry H. Miller Group of Companies

Gail Miller is the owner of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies and serves as chairman of the organization's advisory board. She is actively engaged in the various operations of the company and administers the Larry H. & Gail Miller Family Foundation. She is the vice chair of the board of trustees of Salt Lake Community College, serves on the National Advisory Council at the University of Utah, holds an honorary alumni award from Brigham Young University and is a member of its President's Leadership Council as well. She is also the recipient of an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from Salt Lake Community College. In 2009 she was named the Salt Lake Tribune's Most Influential Sports Figure in Utah.

Gail is a native of Salt Lake City and worked for Mountain States Phone Company until 1970, when she and Larry moved their small family to Colorado to pursue fast pitch softball and a new business career in the automotive field.

In 1979, they returned to Salt Lake City to launch their own business with the purchase of Toyota of Murray, renaming it Larry H. Miller Toyota. From its inception as a single dealership operation, Larry and Gail have grown their business over the past 32 years into one of the largest privately-owned companies in the nation.

The Larry H. Miller Group of Companies encompasses more than 75 businesses that span 14 states. These businesses fall within two primary areas: automotive and sports/entertainment.

Automotive companies include 45 dealerships in seven states; Landcar Agency, which provides vehicle service contracts to consumers; and Prestige Financial Services, Inc., which provides consumers with financing solutions. In addition, there are several other related businesses supporting the work of these companies.

Sports and entertainment businesses include the NBA's Utah Jazz; MiLB's Triple-A Salt Lake Bees; the world-renowned Miller Motorsports Park; Fanzz sports retail apparel stores; EnergySolutions Arena, which seats over 19,000; a radio and TV station; chain of movie theatres; and many other related businesses.

Gail enjoys spending time with her five children and their families, which includes 24 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. In addition to focusing on her family and the business, she finds fulfillment in promoting healthy lifestyle choices and providing civic, church, community and philanthropic service.

Executive Office

Greg Miller, Chief Executive Officer, Larry H. Miller Group of Companies

As chief executive officer of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies, Greg Miller oversees all automotive, sports and entertainment, and real estate divisions. These holdings include 45 automotive dealerships located throughout seven Western states; credit, insurance and advertising agencies; two professional sports teams (Utah Jazz and Salt Lake Bees); a motorsports park and an arena; an independent television station; a catering company; a sports apparel retail chain; movie theaters; and an office complex.

Miller assumed his current position in July 2008 but has worked in the family business since 1979, when his father, Larry H. Miller, purchased his first auto dealership – a Toyota store located in Murray, Utah. Miller, who was 13 at the time, began his career by sweeping floors and working in the parts department. Since then, the group has expanded into one of the nation's 200 largest privately-owned companies.

Miller has over 30 years experience working in a variety of positions that enabled him to learn the family business firsthand. During that time, he focused on areas ranging from finance to minor league hockey. His previous business endeavors include: starting Performance Automotive, which provides chemicals, printing and specialty products to auto dealerships; managing several large construction projects; and serving as general manager of Toyota, Honda and Ford dealerships.

Miller has served on the boards of several philanthropic organizations.

During his teens, Miller developed an interest and appreciation of cars that continues today. He still owns his first automobile, a 1965 Mustang fastback. Greg is an avid cyclist, a collector of Land Cruisers, and enjoys adventure travel.

Miller has three brothers and one sister, and is the oldest child of Larry H. and Gail Miller. He is married to Heidi Black Miller. They are the parents of six children (three sons and three daughters), and are the proud grandparents of one granddaughter and one grandson. Their family resides in Sandy, Utah.

Executive Office

Randy Rigby, President and Chief Operating Officer, Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment

Starting with the NBA franchise in 1986, Randy Rigby currently serves as president and chief operating officer of the Utah Jazz and Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment Group. In this capacity, Rigby sets the strategic goals for the organization and analyzes future growth opportunities. On a day-to-day basis, he leads the senior management team responsible for overseeing the Utah Jazz, Salt Lake Bees, EnergySolutions Arena, Miller Motorsports Park, KJZZ-TV, 1320 KFAN Radio, All-Star Catering, Fanzz retail sports apparel stores and the Megaplex Theatres. He also sits on the advisory board for the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies and is a member of the NBA Team Advisory Committee.

Rigby's vision and direction has resulted in expanding television coverage of all Utah Jazz regular season and postseason games to a six-state region, improving the quality of high definition broadcasts of all Utah Jazz games, increasing exposure for multiple Utah-based sports organizations as well as local high schools sports, instituting the first full-time sports radio station and securing the major name rights agreements for EnergySolutions Arena as well as significant improvements to the arena and Spring Mobile Ballpark. Rigby leads his team by exhibiting his philosophy of being passionate, caring and having fun.

Rigby previously served as senior vice president of sales, broadcasting and chief marketing officer for Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment, in addition to General Manager of KJZZ-TV. Rigby came to the Jazz from CFS Financial Corporation where he worked for three years as senior vice president.

Rigby is a 1979 graduate of Brigham Young University (BYU), where he earned a degree in business management with a special emphasis in finance and marketing. He serves on various boards in the Salt Lake area which include the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, Downtown Alliance, Utah Chapter of the American Lung Association, Salt Lake City Police Foundation, Junior Achievement, Rising Star Outreach and the Hale Centre Theatre's Board of Trustees.

He and his wife, Sandra, have been married 31 years. They have four daughters, one son and seven grandchildren. The couple resides in Farmington, Utah.

Jim Olson, Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing

Now in his 18th year with Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment, Jim Olson enters his fifth as senior vice president of sales and marketing after being promoted to the position on September 5, 2007. In his current capacity, Olson oversees the Salt Lake Bees and is responsible for ticket, suite and Premium sales and services, the Utah Jazz 100 Club, game operations, guest services, building security and marketing for the Utah Jazz and EnergySolutions Arena.

Olson originally joined the Jazz in 1994 as the phone center ticket manager before being promoted to director of tickets and the arena ticket manager in 1996. His duties included responsibility for the Jazz sales staff and arena box office operations and sales. In June of 2003, he was promoted to vice president of ticket sales, where his responsibilities expanded to overseeing all Jazz ticket sales, the Jazz season ticket office, the Jazz 100 Club, suite and VIP sales and services, the Jr. Jazz program, arena ticket sales, and later, responsibility for ticket and suite sales for the Salt Lake Bees after they were acquired by LHM Sports & Entertainment in 2005. Olson served in the vice president role until his promotion to his current position.

A native of Salt Lake City, Olson graduated from the University of Utah with a bachelor's degree in communications. While at the University of Utah, he worked in the athletic department spending time in both the ticket office and sports information department. Following the University of Utah, he attended Northeastern University in Boston where he received a master's degree in sports and recreation management. As part of his education, he worked in conjunction with the Boston Celtics, New England Patriots and the Boston Bruins doing research analysis for their marketing efforts. Following graduation, he returned to Utah and was hired by the Jazz.

Olson is active in the community, having served on the Board of Jr. Achievement and has been a recent chair for the Salt Lake Chamber's Business to Business Expo. He and his wife, Suzi, have four children – Madi, Jon, Abe and Lily and reside in Salt Lake City.

Executive Office

Marc Amicone, Vice President/ General Manager

Marc Amicone enters his eighth season as the vice president/general manager of the Salt Lake Bees in 2012. In his current role, Amicone is responsible for all aspects of the team's day-to-day operations.

In 2005, Amicone's first year in his current position, he was an integral part of the organization's name change from the Salt Lake Stingers to the Salt Lake Bees, which included securing naming permission from the Single-A Burlington Bees. The 2006 season saw Amicone guide the Bees to the team's most successful year under the ownership of Larry H. Miller, winning a Pacific North Division title while also seeing an increase in overall attendance and ticket sales. The Bees followed suit in 2007, claiming a second consecutive division title. Capturing a third consecutive division title in 2008, the Bees exceeded the 500,000 mark in fan attendance at Spring Mobile Ballpark, a first for the club since the 2000 season.

Prior to the 2009 season, Amicone led the franchise in securing a multi-year ballpark naming rights sponsorship with Spring Mobile Communications. Following the ballpark name change to Spring Mobile Ballpark and under Amicone's direction, the team announced midseason that the ballpark and Salt Lake City would host the 2011 Triple-A All-Star Game. Following the 2009 season, the Pacific Coast League named Amicone its Executive of the Year, an honor annually awarded by PCL owners and general managers to one League executive for distinguished performance.

The Bees once again topped the half-million mark in total fan attendance in 2010. Playing host to Triple-A baseball's midsummer classic in 2011, the Bees welcomed over 30,000 fans to Spring Mobile Ballpark for the four-day event including a concert, home run derby, Miracle League Baseball game and the 24th annual All-Star Game.

Before joining the Larry H. Miller group, Amicone served as the assistant athletics director for marketing at the University of Utah for 16 years. His duties included negotiating and maintaining the athletic department's radio and television contracts and the sales and maintenance of sponsorships. Additionally, Amicone supervised the men's and women's swimming, golf and baseball teams.

Amicone earned a bachelor's degree in commercial recreation management and a master's degree in sports management at the University of Utah. He also played baseball at the school from 1976-79. His wife, Mary Kay, is currently the head softball coach at Salt Lake Community College. The couple has two sons, Trevor and Derek, and reside in Sandy, Utah.

Bees on the Airwaves

Radio

All 144 Bees games will be broadcast live and in their entirety on KJQS 1230 AM on weekdays and on KFAN 1320 AM on weekends. All Bees games can also be heard online at slbees.com. Steve Klauke returns for his 19th season behind the microphone, providing play-by-play coverage for all home and road games.

Steve Klauke, Team Broadcaster

Klauke, the only “voice” in franchise history, is set to begin his 19th season as the team’s play-by-play broadcaster in 2012. Klauke has been at the mic for 2,625 of the club’s 2,634 regular season and postseason games dating back to Salt Lake’s first game on April 9, 1994 in Vancouver. On April 26, 2011, Klauke called his 2,500th game for the Bees, becoming just the second Utah play-by-play broadcaster to reach the mark with one team.

Klauke came to Salt Lake City from Aurora, Illinois in 1991 to be a part of the daily sports talk program on KISN 570, as well as Jazz Talk before and after every Utah Jazz basketball game. In a vote of his peers, he was named the 1995 Utah Sportscaster of the Year. He was a part of the worldwide radio broadcast for both the 1996 and 2011 Triple-A All-Star Games, both played at Spring Mobile Ballpark. In 1997, Steve was inducted into the Utah Softball Hall of Fame for his hundreds of broadcasts of men’s fastpitch softball.

Making his major league play-by-play debut in September 2004, Klauke worked with former Salt Lake Gulls broadcaster Jerry Howarth on a pair of Toronto Blue Jays games at Anaheim. He subbed for legendary Utah Jazz announcer Hot Rod Hundley on four occasions, and has also broadcast a road game in 2005 for the New Orleans Hornets radio network. Klauke filled in on KLAA AM 830, flagship station of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, for his first broadcast for the Angels on March 21, 2009. Over the last few years, he has also filled in on play-by-play of several Weber State football and basketball games as well as a number of University of Utah basketball games.

Klauke has also called over three dozen Utah Grizzlies hockey games and over 1,500 Illinois, South Carolina, Wisconsin and Utah high school, junior college and NCAA Division III football, basketball and baseball games. Since 2007-08, he has broadcast several high school football and basketball state championships on KJZZ-TV. For the team’s first two seasons, Klauke handled the play-by-play duties on the NBA Futurecasts for all Utah Flash (formerly of the NBA Development League) home games.

Steve and his wife, Sue, live in Sandy, Utah and are the parents of two children, Adam, a 2010 graduate of the University of Utah, and Lisa, who is currently a student there.

Built in record time and with features reminiscent of the classic, old-time ballparks, Spring Mobile Ballpark (Franklin Quest Field from 1994-2000, Franklin Covey Field from 2000-2008) opened in April of 1994, beginning an exciting new era of professional baseball in Utah.

Construction

The late Larry H. Miller, anxious to bring professional baseball back to Utah after a lengthy hiatus, teamed with then-owner Joe Buzas to make a new ballpark in Salt Lake City a reality. Miller would act as project manager in conjunction with construction manager Sahara Construction and numerous subcontractors and consultants to set a new standard for both speed and quality. Funding would come from a variety of sources, Salt Lake City and its Redevelopment Agency ($12 million), Salt Lake County ($2.5 million), the State of Utah ($1.8 million), the Delores Dore Eccles Foundation, Larry H. Miller and the banking community of Salt Lake. But before Spring Mobile Ballpark could be built, Derks Field, a mainstay in Utah baseball, would have to be demolished. Due to new stadium requirements imposed by the professional baseball agreement the old stadium and playing field would have to be removed. Demolition began in May of 1993 and the new stadium was dedicated on April 9, 1994. The first game played at Spring Mobile Ballpark was on April 11, 1994 against the Edmonton Trappers.

The View

Well known for its scenic view of the Wasatch Mountains, Spring Mobile Ballpark features seating that curves towards the playing field to enhance site lines for every seat. The suite level is one of the closest upper decks in the nation, offering fans the amenities of comfort without sacrificing proximity to the field of play. The outfield is asymmetrical (345' left-field foul line,

A Sense of History

Artists Paul Heath and Willy Littig created a series of glass panels, located at the top of Spring Mobile Ballpark's four exterior towers, to offer a visual narration of professional baseball in Utah. They travel from randomly scheduled games by the Red Stockings and the Deserets in the late 1800s, through the eras of Municipal Park and Derks Field, to the beginning of the Buzz.

Proposals for the stadium art project were requested from local artists by the Salt Lake Arts Council as a part of the city's "Percent for Art" policy that had been in effect since the 1970s. It assures that a portion of the money spent on capital projects is used for the inclusion of art. The two winning artists title their work "Lanterns of Salt Lake Baseball History." Heath took responsibility for most of the design after researching professional baseball history along the Wasatch Front. Together they cut the stencils and Littig took over control of turning the stencils into the finished etched glass.

Each panel represents teams, players, managers, owners, reporters and broadcasters who have played a part in Salt Lake's baseball culture. Among those found are Dick "Dr. Strangeglove" Stuart, Art Teece, Dick Hall, Enid Cosgriff, the Red Stockings, Bill Howard, John Derks, and Phil Knuckles. One memorable feat depicted is that of "Poosh'um up" Tony Lazzeri, the future Hall of Famer who hit 60 homeruns for the Bees during the 1925 season, two years before Babe Ruth hit 60 for the Yankees. Another feat that is recognized in glass is the 29-game winning streak of the 1987 Salt Lake Trappers of the Pioneer League.

Keith Johnson - Manager

Keith Johnson enters his second season as manager of the Bees and his ninth season in the Angels organization in 2012. He became the Salt Lake franchise's first former player to manage the club in 2011, having played during 2002 and 2003 in Salt Lake. In his Triple-A managing debut, Johnson posted a 62-82 record.

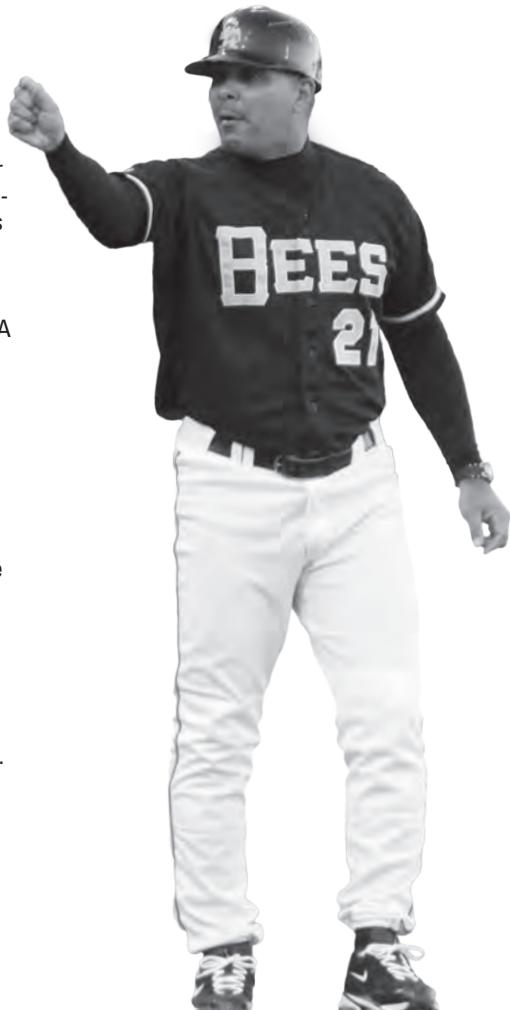

Prior to joining the Bees, Johnson served a two-year managerial stint with the Single-A Rancho Cucamonga Quakes (2009-10) and one season at the helm of the Single-A Cedar Rapids Kernels (2008). He has compiled a 273-289 (.486) record while also leading his teams into the playoffs three seasons.

Johnson has also served as hitting coach at three different levels for the Angels (Double-A Arkansas 2006-07, Short-Season Orem 2005 and Mesa of the Arizona League 2004).

The 40-year-old former infielder enjoyed a 12-year professional playing career including stints with the Los Angeles Dodgers (1992-1998, 2001), Arizona Diamondbacks (1999) and Anaheim Angels (2000, 2002-2003). In 1,265 minor league games, he hit .264 with 118 home runs and 600 RBI. He made his major league debut with the Angels on April 17, 2000 versus Toronto as a pinch-runner and defensive replacement. Johnson spent both the 2002 and 2003 seasons in Salt Lake, totaling a .283 average with 26 home runs and 120 RBI. He retired from playing following the 2003 season.

Johnson was originally drafted by the Dodgers in the fourth round of the 1992 draft out of University of Pacific (Stockton, Calif.) where he majored in sports medicine and played three seasons for the UOP baseball team. He prepped at Hanford High (Calif.) where he played baseball (infielder), basketball (guard) and football (quarterback), graduating in 1992. Johnson is a native of Hanford, Calif. and currently resides in Salt Lake City, Utah with his wife Malena and their two children.

Coaching Staff

Jim Eppard - Hitting Coach

Jim Eppard is returning for his 10th season in both the Angels organization, and with the Salt Lake Bees.

Previously, he spent eight seasons with the Colorado Rockies' minor league system, including five as a manager and three seasons as the hitting coach for the Colorado Springs Sky Sox. Under Eppard, the Sky Sox never finished lower than sixth in the PCL in batting average (sixth in 2002, second in 2001, and third in 2000).

In 2011, the Bees tied for fifth in the PCL in batting average at .289 and ranked third with 51 triples. With Eppard's direction in 2010, Mark Trumbo led all of Triple-A in home runs (36) and Peter Bourjos set PCL records for hits and runs scored. In addition, two Bees players ranked in the top five in home runs in 2009. In 2008, the Bees finished sixth in the league in batting average at .285, fifth in home runs (168), and fourth in the league in total hits (1426). Salt Lake owned a .289 batting average in 2007, finishing fourth in the PCL. In 2006, the team was second in the PCL in runs scored (798).

Eppard played professional baseball for 12 years, including four at the major league level with the California Angels and Toronto Blue Jays. He won minor league batting titles in 1982, 1985, 1987 and 1990. In 1987, while with Edmonton, Eppard led the PCL with a .341 batting average. Eppard played collegiately at the University of California and was selected in the 13th round of the 1982 draft by the Oakland Athletics.

He and his wife LouAnn, are the parents of one daughter, Hannah, and reside in Rapid City, South Dakota.

Erik Bennett - Pitching Coach

Erik Bennett, entering his 17th season with the Angels organization, begins his fifth season with the Salt Lake Bees in 2012. The former major league pitcher began his coaching career as the pitching coach for the Single-A Rancho Cucamonga Quakes in 1997. Since then, he has served as the pitching coach for the Single-A Cedar Rapids Kernels and for the Double-A Arkansas Travelers in 2007 prior to joining the Bees.

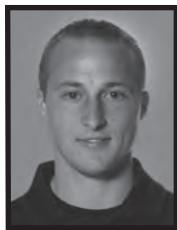

Selected by the Angels in the fourth round of the 1989 draft, Bennett played professional baseball for 10 years. He made his major league debut on May 15, 1995 on the mound with the California Angels and also spent a season with the Minnesota Twins. In 25 major league games, Bennett owns a 2-0 record.

Putting together a 49-48 minor league record with a 4.03 ERA in 226 appearances, Bennett pitched in 17 games for the Salt Lake Buzz in 1996, owning a 3-1 record and 6.38 ERA. His father Dave pitched for the 1964 Philadelphia Phillies and his uncle Dennis pitched seven seasons in the majors with the Phillies, Boston Red Sox, New York Met and California Angels.

Bennett, a Yreka, Calif. native, played collegiate baseball at California State University-Sacramento. Bennett, his wife Teresa, and daughter Teagan, call northern California home.

Coaching Staff

Brian Reinker - Trainer

Brian Reinker returns to Salt Lake in 2012 for his fifth season with the Bees and his 10th season as a trainer in the Angels organization. Previously with the Double-A Arkansas Travelers for two seasons, Reinker began working with the Angels as a trainer for the Arizona Summer League in Mesa in 2003 before moving on to Single-A Cedar Rapids in 2004 and Rancho Cucamonga in 2005 and 2006.

A native of Whitehall, Ohio, a suburb of Columbus, Reinker journeyed out west in 2003 during his final year of college to work with the football and baseball programs at Arizona State University in Tempe. A 2003 graduate of Capital University in Columbus with a degree in athletic training, Reinker resides in Tempe, Arizona. He and his wife Amber were married this past offseason.

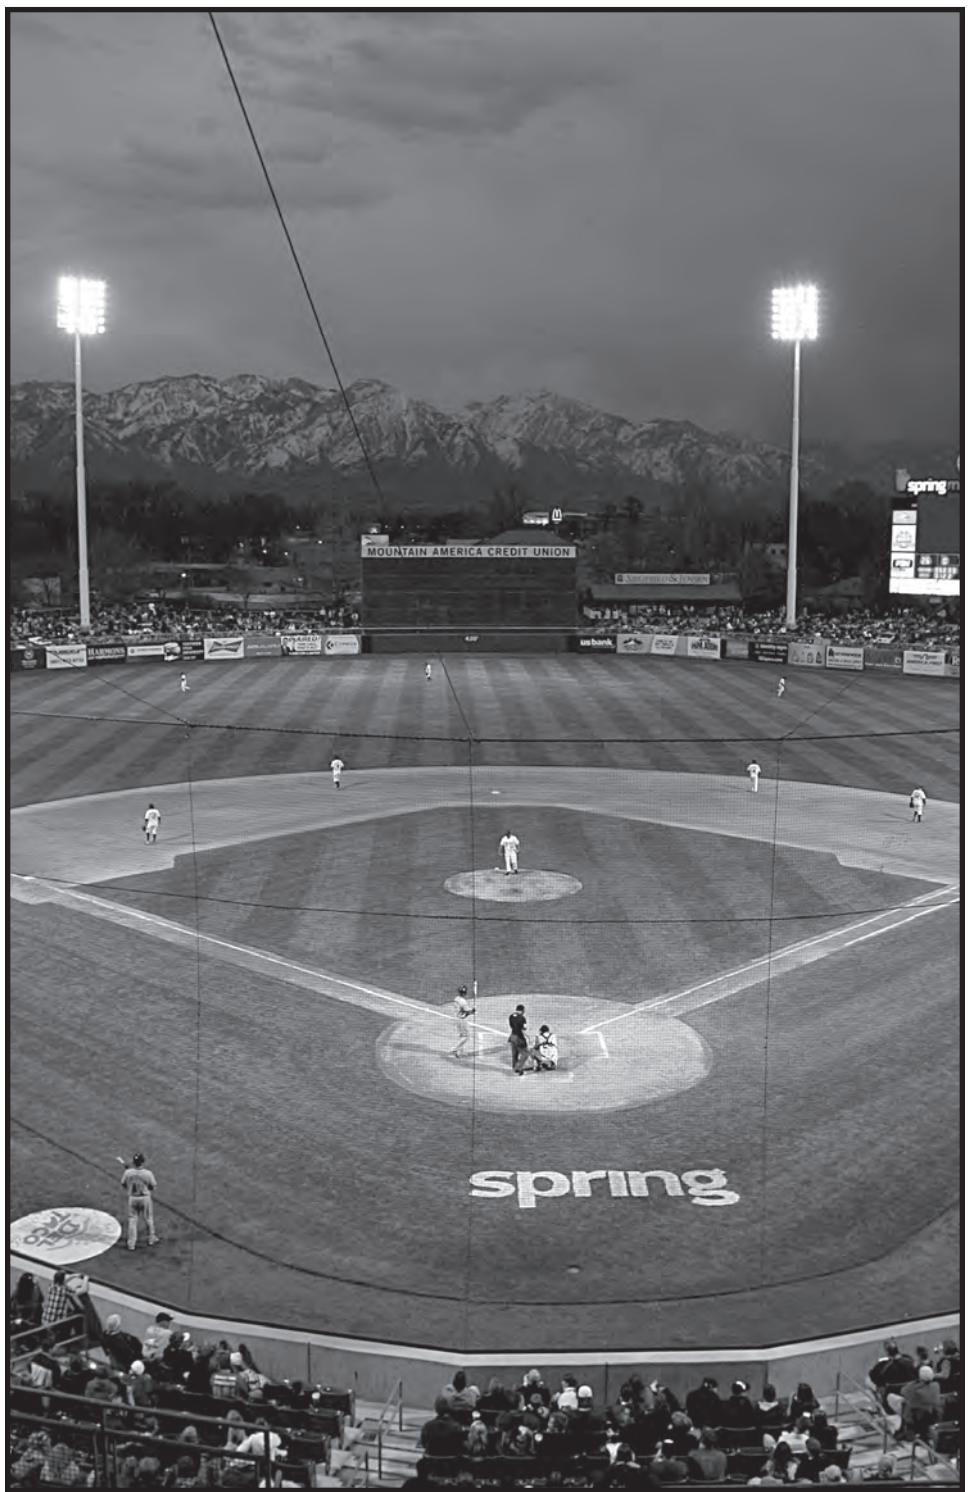

Josh Fields - Strength & Conditioning Coach

Fields begins his third season with the Salt Lake Bees after spending the 2009 season as strength and conditioning coach for the Double-A Arkansas Travelers. Prior to the Travs, he spent two seasons with the Lexington Legends, the Single-A affiliate of the Houston Astros.

Fields is a 2005 graduate of Emory and Henry College in Emory, Va., where he earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training while playing third base for the Wasps. Following his undergraduate work, the 29-year-old earned a master's in nutritional sciences with an emphasis in wellness/sports nutrition from the University of Kentucky in 2007. The Honaker, Va. native was married this past offseason to his wife Keisha.

Bees in the Community

The Salt Lake Bees have a strong tradition of community involvement ever since the franchise's return to Utah in 1994. Bees players, coaches, Bumble and front office staff make numerous appearances throughout the year while also supporting local causes through events at Spring Mobile Ballpark.

Ballpark Tours

Groups and/or organizations can get an exclusive behind the scenes tour of Spring Mobile Ballpark free of charge. Schools and summer camps often use this opportunity as a field trip location. Often times, the tour guide is the only 'voice' in franchise history, Steve Klauke.

Breast Cancer Awareness Night

The 2011 season marked the fifth consecutive year of the team trading in the traditional white home uniforms for pink jerseys in support of Breast Cancer Awareness. The club also encouraged fans attending the game to show their support for Breast Cancer Awareness by wearing pink and a silent auction for the player-worn jerseys and other team memorabilia was held during the game with proceeds benefiting the Huntsman Cancer Foundation.

Bumble

Bumble, the official mascot of the Salt Lake Bees, makes public appearances during both the Bees season and offseason. Bumble is available for corporate events, charity functions, birthdays or other private parties and can always be found at home Bees games. Requests can be submitted online at slbees.com.

Concession Fundraisers

Organizations have the opportunity to work in concessions at Spring Mobile Ballpark during Bees games to earn a portion of their sales. For more information contact Casey Patterson at (801) 325-6908.

Donation Requests

The Bees proudly support charitable organizations and fundraisers through donations of tickets or memorabilia. Requests are accepted year round.

Field of Dreams

For the ninth straight season the Bees continued the experience of a lifetime for youth baseball and softball teams in the Salt Lake Valley. During the 2011 season, local youth teams were selected to join the Bees on the field pregame for the performance of the national anthem following their own introductions, and receive a behind the scenes tour of Spring Mobile Ballpark.

Juvenile Justice Services Mentoring Program

The Bees teamed up with Utah's Juvenile Justice Services (JJS) for a mentoring program for the fourth consecutive season in 2011, including player visits to facilities as well as inviting JJS groups to the ballpark for a player-given tour and tickets to a Bees game. Once a home stand, the Bees traveled to facilities (six in the Salt Lake Valley) and/or invited groups to a game. Players speak to each group about overcoming struggles in life while also providing insight on being a professional athlete.

Knothole Club

The Knothole Club, the official kids club of the Salt Lake Bees, consisted of approximately 10,000 members during the 2011 season. The club is open to kids ages 12 and under with a range of member benefits including a free ticket voucher to a Salt Lake Bees game, a Salt Lake Bees t-shirt, a membership ID card granting access to discounted Utah Jazz and Bees tickets and a 10% discount to all Fanzz stores. Members also get the opportunity to meet Bees players and participate in baseball clinics at Spring Mobile Ballpark.

Military Appreciation Night

In honor of men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces, the Bees host Military Appreciation Night once a season. The team wears camouflage jerseys while military personnel and their families are offered a 2-for-1 ticket package for the game. The pre and postgame ceremonies include participants from various military branches singing the national anthem, presenting the colors, performing during the seventh inning stretch and conducting a postgame enlistment ceremony.

Prevention Dimensions Kids Day

The Bees, in conjunction with the Utah State Office of Education, hosted the eighth annual Prevention Dimensions Kids Day in 2011. The event, which promotes drug and alcohol prevention, brought over 12,000 students to Spring Mobile Ballpark. The fourth, fifth and sixth grade students in attendance enjoyed a pregame program featuring more than 500 Utah elementary school students. The Bees also provided lunch for the students.

Prostate Cancer Awareness Night

The American Cancer Society sponsors a prostate cancer screening night at the ballpark. The free screenings are offered prior to and during a select Bees game.

Shriners Hospital for Children – Salt Lake City/Miracle League Baseball

The Bees, in conjunction with Shriners Hospital for Children – Salt Lake City, participate with patients in a Miracle League Baseball game. Players and front office staff assist wheelchair-bound patients in batting, running the bases and playing the field during a three-inning game. Players also visit with patients at Shriners hospital throughout the season.

Speakers Bureau

The Bees are proud to provide speakers for both civic and charitable functions along the Wasatch Front. Members of the Bees management staff are available to share their experiences. Learn what goes on behind the scenes of a successful minor league organization and what it takes to work in the sports industry.

History of Professional Baseball in Salt Lake City

The year was 1915 and the Salt Lake Bees were born into the Pacific Coast League (PCL). The Sacramento Sacts were struggling at the gate in 1914 and on September 6, the team folded. The PCL took over the team and relocated them to San Francisco and renamed the club the Mission Wolves. Shortly after that lone season, the team was moved to the Beehive State and named the Salt Lake Bees.

In their first season under manager Cliff Blankenship, the Bees finished second with a 108-89 record. The team would operate through the 1925 season, a year that shortstop Tony Lazzeri hit a PCL record 60 homeruns. The 60th came on October 9, the final day of the season, and it was an inside-the-park roundtripper.

In 1926, the team moved to Los Angeles and became known as the Hollywood Stars. With the team's departure for Southern California, Salt Lake City went 23 years before the PCL returned in 1958. Larry Shepard managed the team to a 77-77 record before leading them to Salt Lake's first PCL title in 1959, as the Bees finished the season with a one and one-half game lead over Vancouver. In 1961, the Bees were led by future San Francisco Giants and Chicago Cubs manager Herman Franks and in 1962 another future big league skipper Bob Kennedy would be at the helm.

Beginning in 1963, the Bees gained the team's first full affiliation with a major league club, spending the next three years under the wings of the Chicago Cubs. The team would withdraw from the PCL after the 1965 season, but the Vancouver club would re-locate to Salt Lake City in 1970. The Bees, under an affiliation with the second-year San Diego Padres, would be led by yet another future big league manager in Don Zimmer. Despite his future success, Zimmer's club finished with a Salt Lake PCL worst record of 44-99, 52.5 games behind first place Hawaii in the Southern Division.

In 1971, the team changed its name and affiliation, becoming known as the Salt Lake Angels. In that first season with California, the Salt Lake Angels won the PCL title, the second in the city's history. Manager Del Rice led the team to the Southern Division crown and then took the title by sweeping Tacoma three games to none. The team was renamed the Gulls in 1975 and would provide more excitement by reaching the league finals in 1975 and 1976, but in each of those seasons, they would lose the title series to Hawaii. Finally, in 1979 under the tutelage of future major league manager Jimy Williams, the Gulls got by their nemesis and swept the Islanders 3-0 to win the third and last PCL championship in Salt Lake City.

In 1982, the Gulls became affiliated with the Seattle Mariners and while they won the first half Northern Division title that year and the second half crown in the division in 1984, the team struggled financially and after that season, was sold and moved to Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

History of the Current Salt Lake Bees Franchise

SALT LAKE BUZZ

SALT LAKE STINGERS

SALT LAKE BEES

Salt Lake City was without Pacific Coast League baseball until 1994, when owner Joe Buzas moved the Portland Beavers franchise to the Beehive State and named the team the Salt Lake Buzz. As the Triple-A affiliate of the Minnesota Twins, the Buzz would enjoy a winning record in each of their seven seasons with trips to the postseason in five of those years. Unfortunately, the Buzz would be heartbroken with a pair of walk-off hits that would end their trips to the PCL finals. In 1995, Salt Lake had a one-run lead with one out and nobody on base in the bottom of the ninth of the fifth and deciding game at Colorado Springs, but the team never recorded the third out, as Jim Tatum's bloop single to left off Dan Naulty gave the Sky Sox the championship.

In 2000, the Buzz were down two games to one, but rallied to tie Memphis with three runs in the top of the ninth inning. The game would, however, end in the Redbirds favor on a 13th inning solo homer by future National League Rookie of the Year, Albert Pujols.

In 2001, the team would change its name and affiliation once again. The team would be known as the Stingers and would reunite with the Angels. That led to another trip to the league finals in 2002, but they would be defeated three games to one by the Edmonton Trappers. The Stingers struggled through 2003 and 2004 and, in 2005, the late Larry H. Miller purchased the Stingers. Under first-year manager Dino Ebel, the team finished 79-65, just one game behind Tacoma in the Northern Division race. In October, the Stingers changed their name back to the original Salt Lake Bees.

Under manager Brian Harper in 2006 and 2007, the Bees enjoyed back-to-back PCL Pacific North Division titles, yet in both years the team lost in the Pacific Coast Conference Championship series.

Former World Champion Los Angeles Dodger Bobby Mitchell joined the Bees as manager in 2008. Beginning the season with a minor league best 21-1 start, Salt Lake once again captured the Pacific North Division title, but fell for the third consecutive time in the Pacific Conference Championship series. In 2009, Mitchell led the team to its fifth consecutive winning season (72-71) despite beginning the season with the devastating loss of former Bees pitcher Nick Adenhart. Mitchell finished the 2010 season with a 73-71 and a game and a half out of first place in the Pacific North Division. Keith Johnson was named manager for the 2011 season, becoming the first former Salt Lake player to manage the club, having played for the Stingers in 2002 and 2003. In his first season at the helm, the Bees finished 62-82, just the third sub .500 season in the club's 18-year history.

The franchise owns a 22-30 playoff record and a 3-9 playoff series record. Overall, Salt Lake teams have a 4047-3931 (.507) record in the Pacific Coast League.

Medical Glossary

ABSCESS- An infection that produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

ANAPHYLATIC SHOCK- Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

ANTERIOR COMPARTMENT SYNDROME- Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL)- A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY- Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTERIOGRAM- A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

ARTHROGRAM- X-Ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPE- An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

ARTHROSCOPY- A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscope procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

ASPIRATION- The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy- To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

AVASCULAR NECROSIS- Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

AVULSION- The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

BAKER'S CYST- Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

BONE SCAN- An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

BRACHIAL PLEXUS- Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

BURSA- A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

CAPSULE- An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

CAT SCAN- Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of an anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CELLULITIS- Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

CERVICAL VERTEBRAE- Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

COLLATERAL LIGAMENT- On either side of and acting as a radius of movement, a hinge joint, as of the elbow, knee and wrist.

COLLES' FRACTURE- A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

CONCUSSION- Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CORTICAL STEROIDS- Used to suppress joint inflammation.

COSTOCHONDRAL- Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

DEGENERATIVE JOINT DISEASE- Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

DELTOID LIGAMENT- Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

DELTOID MUSCLE- Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

DISC, INTERVERTEBRAL- A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

DISLOCATION- Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

DUSKY- Areas of decreased temperature may indicate arterial compromise and decrease tissue viability.

ECCYROSIS- Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a 'black and blue' effect.

EDEMA- Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

EFFUSION- Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

ELECTROMYOGRAM (EMG)- Test to determine nerve function.

EPICONDYLITIS- Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

ERYTHEMA- Inflammatory redness of the skin.

EXUDATE- Any fluid that has exuded out of a tissue or its capillaries, specifically because of injury or inflammation.

FRACTURE- Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

GADOLINIUM MRI- The chemical gadolinium is injected into the joint being studied to enhance the diagnosis image of the structures under investigation.

GRADE ONE INJURY- A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or confused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

GRADE TWO INJURY- A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which cause appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

GRADE THREE INJURY- A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual loss of function.

HEMATOMA- Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Medical Glossary

ILLIOTIBIAL BAND- A thick, wide fascial layer than runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

INFLAMMATION- The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

LABRUM- An edge, rim or lip-shaped structure found in the shoulder joint.

LIGAMENT- Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone-to-bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI)- Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

MENISCECTOMY- An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

MENISCUS- Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

METACARPALS- Five long bones of the hand running from the wrist to the fingers.

METATARSALS- Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankles to the toes.

PATELLA TENDINITIS- Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."

PATELLOFEMORAL JOINT- Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its more chronic condition, could require surgery.

PHLEBITIS- Inflammation of a vein.

PLICAS- Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

POSTERIOR CRUCiate LIGAMENT (PCL)- A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months rehabilitation.

RECONSTRUCTION- Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

REFERRED PAIN- Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

ROTATOR CUFF- Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

ROTATOR CUFF IMPINGEMENT SYNDROME- A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are 1) tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) a partial rotator cuff tear of less than one centimeter; and 4) a complete tear of one centimeter or more.

SCAPULA- Shoulder blade.

SCIATICA- Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

SCIATIC NERVE- Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

SHIN SPLINT- A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPONDYLITIS- Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

SPONDYLOLISTHESIS- Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

SPONDYLOSIS- Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

SPRAIN- Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN- Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE- A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

STRESS X-RAY- A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

SUBLAXATION- Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

TARSALS- Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

TENDINITIS- Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON- Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

THORACIC OUTLET COMPRESSION SYNDROME- A neuro-vascular disorder or the upper extremity common in throwing.

TOMOGRAPH- A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

TRANSVERSE PROCESS- Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

TRIANGULAR CARTILAGE- A connective tissue characterized by its nonvascularity and firm consistency; located on the little finger side of the wrist.

ULNA COLLATERAL LIGAMENT- A band of fibrous tissue connecting two or more bones, cartilage, or other structures, or serving as support for fasciae or muscles located on the inside of the elbow (ligament that is replaced for the "Tommy John" surgery).

ULNAR NERVE- Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated by excessive throwing.

WRIST- The junction between the forearm bones (radius and ulna) and eight wrist bones (trapezium, capitate, hamate, pisiform, trapezoid, lunate and scaphoid).

NOTE: This list is not meant to be all-inclusive nor should it be used as a substitute for physician's diagnosis and/or description of an injury or illness. For further information, please check with the team's communications staff.

Transaction Glossary

Minor league players are generally under contract to a major league club and are signed to play for a minor league club (1) that the major league club owns or (2) that has a Player Development Contract with the major league club. Major league clubs may freely assign their minor league players among their affiliated minor league clubs, subject to certain league age and service requirements. The following glossary describes some terms used in minor league transactions. References to "players" in the glossary apply only to minor league players.

ACTIVE LIST

The roster of players eligible to participate in a game:

- For Triple-A and Class AA clubs, the Active List is 24 players from opening day through the end of the championship season.
- For Class A Clubs, the Active List is 25 players from opening day through the end of the championship season.
- For short-season Class A clubs, the Active List is 30 players, only 25 of whom may be in uniform and eligible to play in a given game, from opening day through the end of the championship season.
- For rookie clubs, the Active List is 35 players, only 30 of whom may be in uniform and eligible to play in a given game, from opening day through the end of the championship season.

DESIGNATED FOR ASSIGNMENT:

When a club that has reached its 40 and/or 25-man roster limit, either reinstates a player or wishes to acquire another player, notice must be given to release or designate for assignment an equal number of players. The player(s) so notified must be released or have their contract assigned within 10 days of notification.

DISABLED LIST

An injured minor league player may be placed on this list during the championship season only. A player on the Disabled List must remain there for a minimum period of seven days before the player can be reinstated to the Active List. A player on the Disabled List does not count against a club's Active List limits, but does count against a club's Reserve List limits.

FREE AGENT

A minor league player is a free agent, able to sign with any club, when the term of the player's minor league contract has expired. If the player has not re-signed with the same Club, the player becomes a minor league free agent on October 15 at 5 p.m. (ET).

INELIGIBLE LIST

A player found to have committed misconduct may be placed on this list. There is no minimum number of days the player must remain on the Ineligible List before the player can be reinstated. A player on the Ineligible List does not count against a Club's Active List limits or its Reserve List limits.

LOAN

A minor league player's contract may be loaned from one organization to another, so long as the new club is also under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Baseball. The assignor club retains contractual rights to the player. The player must be returned to the assignor club at the end of the championship season. Loans of players are most commonly made to Mexican League clubs. A player is said to be "returned" when he is given back to his original team.

MAJOR LEAGUE REHABILITATION ASSIGNMENT

A major league player may be assigned to a minor league affiliate for the purpose of injury rehabilitation for a maximum of 20 days for non-pitchers and 30 days for pitchers. The player continues to receive his major league salary and any service with the minor league club is deemed as major league service. Rehab assignments do not count as optional assignments.

OPTIONS

To assign a player from the active 25-man roster to a minor league affiliate with right of recall. A player on the 40-man roster and in the minor leagues is on an "optional assignment". The player must serve at least 10 days on option unless they are replacing a player placed on the disabled list. Players have three option years and can be sent up and down as many times as the Major League club chooses within those seasons but will only be charged with one option per season. When a player is out of options, he will have to clear irrevocable waivers in order to be removed from the 40-man roster and sent to the minor leagues.

Transaction Glossary

OUTRIGHT ASSIGNMENT

A player who is traded from one major league organization to another is assigned outright. The assignor club transfers all contractual rights regarding the player to the assignee club.

RECALLED

A player on the 40-man roster is "recalled" to the major league club.

REHABILITATION ASSIGNMENT

A minor league player on either the Disabled List or Emergency Disabled List may be sent to a short-season Class A or rookie classification minor league club to play on a rehabilitation assignment, while the player remains on the Disabled List or Emergency Disabled List of the player's original Club. A rehabilitation assignment may not exceed 20 days for non-pitchers or 30 days for pitchers. A player on a minor league rehabilitation assignment does not count against the Active List or Reserve List limits of the club for which the player is playing on the rehabilitation assignment.

RELEASE

A player's contract is terminated and the player becomes a free agent.

RESERVE LIST

The roster of players eligible for placement on the Active List:

- For Triple-A, the Reserve List limit is 38 players.
- For Class AA, the Reserve List limit is 37 players.
- For Class A, short-season and rookie, the Reserve List limit is 35 players.

RESTRICTED LIST

A player who fails to report or fails to sign a contract with the club to which the player is reserved may be placed on the Restricted List. There is no minimum number of days the player must remain on the Restricted List before the player can be reinstated to the Active List. A player on the Restricted List does not count against a club's Active List limits or its Reserve List limits.

SELECTED/CONTRACT PURCHASED

A player that is not on the 40-man roster has his contract selected or purchased by the major league club and must be added to the 40-man roster.

SUSPENDED LIST

A player may be placed on the Suspended List for misconduct or rule or contract violations. There is no minimum amount of days the player must be on the Suspended List before the player can be reinstated to the Active List. A player on the Suspended List does not count against a club's Active List limits, but the player does count against its Reserve List limits.

TEMPORARILY INACTIVE LIST

A player with an excused absence to perform personal obligations is placed on this list. The player must be on the Temporarily Inactive List for a minimum of three days before the player can be reinstated to the Active List. A player on the Temporarily Inactive List does not count against a club's Active List limits, but does count against its Reserve List limits.

TRANSFER

Minor league player is moved from one minor league club to another within the same major league organization.

WAIVERS

A permission granted from all 30 clubs to assign a major league player's contract to another major league team or minor league affiliate. Such permission is granted only for a specific time period from 2 p.m. (ET) any business day until 1 p.m. (ET) on the second business day. The actual request is filed through the Commissioner's Office and is not disclosed to the public until the contract is rewarded. Priority for the claim is given to the club with the lowest winning percentage if there are multiple claims. If there is only one claim, then the waiver is awarded to that team. No club is permitted to exceed the 40-man roster or the 25-man roster. If a claim is made which will exceed the roster limit, then a different player must be designated for waivers.

Baseball Calculations

Assists

An assist shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects a batted or thrown ball in such a way that a putout results, or would have resulted except for a subsequent error by any fielder. Only one assist and no more shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects the ball in a rundown play which results in a putout, or would have resulted in a putout, except for a subsequent error.

Batting Average

Divide the numbers of at-bats into the number of hits.

Slugging Percentage

Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

On Base Percentage

Take the total number of hits, walks, and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total number of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches, and sacrifice flies. Times awarded first base on interference or obstruction are not figured into on base percentage.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Games Played Streak

A consecutive-game streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he complies with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Determining the Magic Number

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Earned Run Average

Multiply earned runs by 9 and then divide by innings pitched.

Fielding Percentage

Divide the total putouts and assists by total putouts, assists and errors.

Saves for Relief Pitchers

Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
- He is not the winning pitcher; he must be credited with at least 1/3 of an inning pitched and
- He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 1. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
 2. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either already on base, at bat or on deck; or
 3. He enters the game, regardless of how large the lead is, and pitches effectively as he completes the last three innings of the game.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Winning Pitcher

The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if he has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:

- When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the scorer to have been the most effective.
- Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.
- Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.
- The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game.

EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.
