SANTA CRUZ WARRIORS HISTORY

On December 23, 2012, the Warriors tipped off the first professional basketball game in Santa Cruz history with a 93-88 victory against the Bakersfield Jam in front of a sellout crowd at Kaiser Permanente Arena. The game was a culmination of months of hard work and collaboration with the City of Santa Cruz, a partnership that began with the team's move from Bismarck, North Dakota at the end of the 2011-12 season. With one NBA G League Championship in 2014-15, three Finals appearances and the most passionate fans in the league, the Warriors enter their sixth season proud to represent the Santa Cruz community on and off the court.

On June 27, 2011, new Golden State Warriors owners Joe Lacob and Peter Guber acquired the Dakota Wizards, with the intention of moving the team from Bismarck to Santa Cruz, California. Re-branding to the Santa Cruz Warriors, the purpose of the acquisition was to turn the team into a full-service minor league system for the franchise, a move that Lacob described as, "a critical step and another plus for our organization." Operating only 80 miles south of the Golden State headquarters, the Santa Cruz Warriors provide its parent club with opportunities to develop on- and off-court talent while also celebrating its own unique identity and supporting the local community.

A vibrant and diverse community with a passionate basketball culture, the Warriors are fortunate to call Santa Cruz their home. Through the team's community outreach initiatives, the Warriors are able to partner with local schools and nonprofits, connecting with the community and creating fans for life. The team's 2,500 seat Kaiser Permanente Arena in downtown Santa Cruz is the arena the team calls home.

KAISER PERMANENTE ARENA

The Santa Cruz Warriors play their home games at Kaiser Permanente Arena, located at 140 Front Street in Downtown Santa Cruz. It is the largest Green Certified venue in the Monterey Bay area, boasting a comprehensive recycling program, environmentally friendly cleaning practices and efficient water textures. The Green Business program calculates that Kaiser Permanente Arena saves more than 15,000 pounds of carbon dioxide and more than 82,000 gallons of water per year.

Kaiser Permanente Arena, which measures 29,928 square feet plus modular buildings housing locker rooms and public restrooms, is the largest indoor sports venue in the City of Santa Cruz. In addition to serving as the home of the Santa Cruz Warriors, Kaiser Permanente Arena hosted more than 80 outside events during the 2016-17 season, including the University of California Santa Cruz men's and women's basketball, United Way's Stuff The Bus, author events with Carli Lloyd, Ayesha Curry and Dav Pilkey, and Santa Cruz High School's graduation. Entering its sixth year in the City of Santa Cruz, it is the Warriors' hope that Kaiser Permanente Arena becomes a positive force in the community and serves as the top youth sports center in the region.

JOE LACOB

Co-Executive Chairman & CEO,
Golden State Warriors

In his role as co-executive chairman & CEO, Joe Lacob is the managing member of the Golden State Warriors' ownership group. Currently in his tenth year in this capacity, he serves on the NBA Board of Governors and is a member of the league's Planning Committee and Labor Committee.

Under Lacob's guidance, the Warriors became only the second team in NBA history (joining the Boston Celtics of the 1960's) to appear in five consecutive NBA Finals. Additionally, the Warriors matched the Celtics for the best-ever record over a six-season span in league history (373-119, .758) and with three championships in four seasons prior to last year (2015, 2017, 2018) the Warriors joined the Celtics, Chicago Bulls and Los Angeles Lakers as the only NBA franchises to ever accomplish this feat.

The franchise's success in recent years has also extended to the business side. In 2014 and again in 2016, the Warriors were named "Sports Team of the Year" by the Sports Business Journal, in recognition of the organization's innovative and successful business practices. Additionally, under Lacob's leadership, the Warriors were named the 2016 winner of the Entrepreneurial Company of the Year (ENCORE) Award by the Stanford University Graduate School of Business in recognition of the organization's entrepreneurial spirit in redefining sports management, pioneering the use of sports analytics in the NBA, and adopting new technologies that have transformed the fan experience. The Warriors are the first sports organization to win the ENCORE Award, which has been presented annually since 1982 to recognize best in class entrepreneurial companies from around the world and has included such recent winners as Google (2004), Apple (2005), and Amazon (2010).

In addition to the Warriors' organization-wide honors, Lacob was named the 2016 recipient of the Sports Executive of the Year award by the Sports Business Journal. He was also named one of the Bay Area's Most Admired CEO's by the San Francisco Business Times in November of 2015.

Since making a then-record-setting $450 million bid to purchase his hometown NBA Club on November 12, 2010, Lacob's revamped Warriors Community Foundation has delivered over $12 million in economic impact to local school districts and non-profits serving at-risk and underserved Bay Area youth.

PETER GUBER

Co-Executive Chairman,
Golden State Warriors

Peter Guber, a prominent figure in the entertainment industry for more than 35 years, is currently in his tenth season as co-executive chairman of the Golden State Warriors.

Dedicated to the enhancement of the fan experience, from entrance to exit, Guber's wealth of experience and location-based entertainment has been on display at Chase Center, the organization's 100% privately-financed, state-of-the-art sports and entertainment complex in San Francisco's Mission Bay. Unveiled on September 9, 2019, Chase Center was immediately acclaimed and became the first-ever arena in the City of San Francisco.

One of the most successful executives and entrepreneurs in the entertainment and communications industries, Guber's impressive resume includes serving as the Chairman & CEO of Sony Entertainment, President of Columbia Pictures, Chairman and CEO of Polygram Entertainment and Co-Owner and Co-Chairman of Casablanca Record & Filmworks. Among the films he personally produced or executive produced are Rain Man (Academy Award - Best Picture), Batman, The Color Purple, Midnight Express, Gorillas in the Mist, The Witches of Eastwick, Missing and Flashdance. Guber's personal movies have earned more than $3 billion worldwide, while also garnering more than 50 Academy Award nominations.

Guber is the Founder and CEO of Mandalay Entertainment, a visionary multimedia venture spanning movies, TV, sports and digital media. Guber expanded Mandalay into a national entertainment sports provider and is currently the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Managing Director of Mandalay Baseball LLC, a joint venture with the Los Angeles Dodgers that acquired the Minor League Baseball franchise in Oklahoma City that became the Dodgers Triple-A affiliate.

RICK WELTS

President & Chief Operating Officer, Golden State Warriors

One of the most respected business executives in the NBA and a member of the Basketball Hall of Fame's Class of 2018, Rick Welts owns 45 years of experience in the league and has spent the last eight seasons as president and chief operating officer of the Golden State Warriors. In this role, reporting to Co-Executive Chairmen Joe Lacob and Owner Peter Guber, Welts oversees all business-related operations.

Welts, 66, owns the rare distinction of being part of championship teams in the NBA (4), WNBA (2) and NBA G League (1). Prior to joining the Warriors in October 2011, he spent nine years as president of the Phoenix Suns. Welts' responsibilities in Phoenix included the supervision of all business operations, while also overseeing the team's interest in the management of US Airways Center and the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury.

A native of Seattle, Washington, Welts began his NBA career in 1969, at the age of 16, as a ball boy with the Seattle Super Sonics. He spent 10 years with his hometown team serving a number of roles, including as the team's director of public relations during back-to-back appearances in the NBA Finals (1978 and 1979) and the Super Sonics' lone NBA Championship in 1979. In 2006, he was the recipient of the annual Splaver/McHugh "Tribute to Excellence Award," which is given annually by the NBA Public Relations Directors' Association to a current or former member of the NBA PR family who has demonstrated an outstanding level of performance and service during their NBA career.

In May of 2011, in a front page story in the New York Times, Welts became the highest ranking executive in men's professional team sports to publicly acknowledge he is gay. He was presented with a United States Tennis Association 2011 ICON Award at the US Open in New York City, an award that recognizes and celebrates those who have had a positive impact on diversity and inclusion in the sports industry and society.

CHRIS MURPHY

President, Santa Cruz Warriors

Chris Murphy enters his fifth season as president of the Santa Cruz Warriors, the NBA G League affiliate of the Golden State Warriors. The 2017 NBA G League Team Executive of the Year, Murphy oversees all day-to-day aspects of the franchise's business operations.

Murphy led the front office efforts to win the 2017-18 NBA G League Franchise of the Year award, which honors the organization that best exemplifies the league's core pillars: Compete with Intensity, Lead With Integrity and Inspire Play. The Santa Cruz Warriors enter the 2019-20 season with a home sellout streak of 77 games at Kaiser Permanente Arena and have participated in over 240 community events in the last 12 months.

Murphy began his career in the Golden State Warriors organization in June 2005 as a group sales account executive. Throughout 10 seasons with Golden State he progressed and served in multiple capacities within the ticket sales management group, last serving as senior director of group ticket sales before transitioning to Santa Cruz.

Outside of his responsibilities with the Sea Dubs, Murphy serves on the NBA G League's Sponsorship Committee, and Merchandise Committee. Murphy also serves as a Board Member for the Santa Cruz Chamber of Commerce and the Santa Cruz Museum of Art and History. He is also a member of the Rotary Club of Santa Cruz.

A graduate of Le Moyne College in Syracuse, New York, Murphy currently resides in Santa Cruz with his wife KJ, five-year-old son Connor, three-year-old daughter Taylor, and six-year-old terrier mix Boots. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with family and friends, golfing and being outdoors.

RYAN ATKINSON

General Manager

Ryan Atkinson is entering his first season as general manager, spending the past three seasons as assistant general manager and director of team player development.

Atkinson was formally responsible for player education and programming throughout the season. Atkinson served as the team's director of basketball operations for three seasons (2013-16) before becoming assistant general manager.

Atkinson owns eight years of NBA G League experience, including two seasons as the director of basketball operations with the 2013 NBA G League Champion Rio Grande Valley Vipers and one season with the Reno Bighorns as the team's assistant video coordinator/basketball operations.

Originally from Atlanta, Georgia, Atkinson received a master's degree in sports management from the University of San Francisco and a bachelor's degree in sports management from Missouri Western State University. Atkinson began his career with the Golden State Warriors, Oakland Athletics, and Prestige Sports International sports agency. Atkinson and his wife, Lakisha, welcomed their first child, a daughter named Ryla, in the summer of 2019.

KRIS WEEMS

Head Coach

Kris Weems is entering his third season with the Santa Cruz Warriors, and first as the team's head coach. He is continuing his second stint in the Warriors organization, previously serving as player development coach and scout for the Golden State Warriors for three seasons (2011-14), two of which were postseason appearances (2013 and 2014).

Before joining the Santa Cruz Warriors, Weems spent three years as director of athletics for the Menlo School in Atherton, California from 2014-17. Prior to joining Golden State in 2011, Weems spent seven seasons as the head coach at Menlo (2004-11), leading his teams to seven Central Coast Section postseason appearances, five league championships and three appearances in the Northern California bracket of the CIF State Championships.

Before his coaching career, Weems attended the University of Stanford, where he led the Cardinals to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and a trip to the 1998 Final Four. After earning his degree in sociology, Weems played one season professionally with Hapoel-Tel Aviv in Israel before returning to the Bay Area to work for Stanford's athletic department for six years.

Weems also served as a college basketball analyst with Comcast SportsNet Bay Area (now NBC Sports Bay Area) for two seasons, providing color commentary for Pac-10 and West Coast Conference telecasts.

A Kansas City, Kansas native, Weems and his wife Neda have two daughters, Aaliyah (5) and Kiyana (2).

MICHAEL LEE

Assistant Coach

Michael Lee is in his third season as an assistant coach with the Santa Cruz Warriors after spending two seasons as the varsity boys basketball coach at Roosevelt High School in Portland, Oregon.

Prior to joining the organization, Lee served as an assistant men's basketball coach at the University of San Francisco from 2010-13 after an assistant coaching stint at Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, North Carolina. Lee began his coaching career at the University of Kansas, serving as a graduate student manager and director of player development for his alma mater's 2008 NCAA Tournament Championship season.

High school teammates with former Santa Cruz Warriors Head Coach Aaron Miles at Jefferson High School in Northeast Portland, Lee was part of one of the best high school teams in Oregon history, leading the Democrats to an undefeated record (28-0) and the state championship in his junior season. The pair of Oregon natives went on to play for the Kansas Jayhawks from 2001-05, appearing in back-to-back NCAA Tournament Final Fours in 2002 and 2003.

Before launching his career in coaching and youth leadership, he spent one year with the Harlem Globetrotters as an entertainer/ambassador, instructing the organization's CHEER for Character program in more than 200 U.S. cities.

ANTHONY VEREEN

Assistant Coach

Anthony Vereen enters his third season on the Santa Cruz Warriors coaching staff, most recently serving as player development coach for the Sea Dubs for the 2018-19 season. A three-year NBA G League veteran, Vereen joined Santa Cruz Warriors staff as a coaching coordinator for the 2017-18 season.

Originally from Hammond, Louisiana, Vereen attended the University of Texas at Arlington where he played basketball for four years leaving as the school's 2nd all-time scorer (1,447 points). In his 2007-08 junior season, Vereen led UT-Arlington to the school's first Southland conference championship with a 21-12 record and the first trip to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament in school history.

Vereen, 33, enjoyed a seven-year playing career overseas, spending time in Spain, Finland and China, as well as one season with the 2011-12 Texas Legends. Vereen played 74 games for the Santa Cruz Warriors from 2014-16, capturing his first league title as a member of the 2014-15 Santa Cruz Warriors championship team.

JAMES ANDRISEVIC

Assistant Coach

James Andrisevic is making his second stint with the Santa Cruz Warriors organization after most recently spending the 2018-19 NBA G League season as an assistant coach with the Northern Arizona Suns.

During the 2017-18 season, Andrisevic served as head coach of the Hiroshima Dragonflies in Japan, one of the nation's premier teams of the former National Basketball League and the current B. League. During his time coaching the 33-27 Dragonflies in the B2 division, he coached former Santa Cruz Warriors forward Terrence Drisdorn.

Andrisevic, 37, rejoins the Santa Cruz Warriors after spending three seasons as an associate head coach (2015-16) and assistant coach (2013-15) for current Los Angeles Clippers assistant coach Casey Hill. During his inaugural 2013-14 season in Surf City, Andrisevic helped lead the team to the 2014 NBA G League Finals and assisted three Sea Dubs to a league-high eight GATORADE Call-Ups to the NBA. During the 2014-15 NBA G League season, Andrisevic helped Santa Cruz to the 2015 NBA G League Championship, a franchise-record 35 wins and six GATORADE Call-Ups to the NBA.

A Kansas City, Missouri native, Andrisevic originally joined Santa Cruz after serving as head coach of BC Prievidza in Slovakia. Previously, he was the head coach of Asker BC in Norway's top basketball league during the 2011-12 season, leading the youngest team in the history of the league to a championship berth with a 15-6 record.

While studying to complete his M.B.A. at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, Andrisevic worked as the men's basketball team coordinator from 2009-11. He played professionally in Germany, Denmark and England after a three-year collegiate career at Arizona State University, where he was teammates with former Golden State Warriors forward Ike Diogu.

ADAM HELMER

Basketball Operations Manager

Adam Helmer is in his second season with the Warriors organization, arriving to Santa Cruz in 2018 after serving as graduate assistant for the San Diego State University men's basketball program. Helmer was responsible for opponent scouting, basketball analytics, video production, and on court player development for SDSU. While working with the Aztecs, Helmer earned his Masters of Business Administration.

Prior to his time with the Aztecs, Helmer gained professional sports experience as a communications intern for the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks. Helmer, 28, is a San Jose native and earned his high school diploma from Archbishop Mitty.

LONG LAM

Head Athletic Trainer

Long Lam is entering his fourth season as Head Athletic Trainer for the Santa Cruz Warriors, where he is responsible for day-to-day player treatments and rehabilitation. Lam has athletic training experience across all areas of sports-professional, collegiate and high school. Prior to joining the Warriors staff, Lam worked with the Rio Grande Valley Vipers 2013-16. He also worked as the head athletic trainer for the Rio Grande Valley FC Toros, a professional soccer team in the USL.

Before entering the work field, Lam completed an Athletic Training Internship with the Houston Rockets, where he provided treatment and inventory management for the team's training staff. Lam served as an Athletic Training Graduate Assistant at the University of Houston for two seasons. In Houston, he also worked the 2011 NCAA Slam Dunk and 3-Point Contests, and the 2011 Senior Olympics for Memorial Hermann. During his undergraduate years at the University of Texas-Arlington (2005-10), Lam served as a student trainer for the school's men's basketball, baseball and women's softball teams. Lam also earned his Master's of Education in Sport and Fitness Administration from the University of Houston in 2011.

ISAIAH COVINGTON

Head Performance Coach

Isaiah Covington is in his second season as Head Performance Coach for the Santa Cruz Warriors. In this position, he is responsible for the strength & training regimen, nutrition and recovery facets for the 2019-20 team roster. Covington joined the Warriors after spending the 2017-18 NBA season with the Indiana Pacers, helping Coach Nate McMillan's training staff on strength training and sport science for the 2017-18 playoff team that took the Conference Champion Cleveland Cavaliers to seven games.

Covington, 25, also has experience as a graduate assistant/sports performance coach at Long Island University-Brooklyn, focusing primarily on the school's men's lacrosse and women's field hockey teams while contributing to the men's basketball team's training efforts. A Philadelphia native, Covington received his bachelor's degree in movement science with a minor in coaching management at Delaware State University, as well as a graduate degree at LIU-Brooklyn in exercise science with a concentration in strength & conditioning and nutrition.

MIKE NEWTON

Basketball Operations Associate & Player Development

Mike Newton is entering his first season in Santa Cruz, coming to the Warriors after gaining NBA G League experience as a basketball operations intern with the Wisconsin Herd during the 2017-18 and 2018-19 seasons. Newton most recently served as a basketball operations associate for the 2018 and 2019 NBA Summer League, where he day to day operations.

Newton, 26, attended Urbana University in Urbana, Ohio graduating with a degree in business management and a minor in marketing while playing for the men's basketball team starting in 66 out of his 74 games and was a three-year captain. During the 2019-20 season, Newton will assist Manager of Basketball Operations Adam Helmer's day-to-day operations and off-court player development.

MAC OSBORNE

Basketball Operations Associate

Mac Osborne is entering his first season in Santa Cruz after spending time as the Junior Varsity Head Coach and Varsity Assistant Coach at Menlo School in Atherton. Osborne coached the AAU boys' basketball teams Peninsula Magic and Crush during the 2015-18 seasons. During the 2019-20 season, Osborne will be assisting Manager of Basketball Operations Adam Helmer day to day operations.

Osborne, 26, attended Southern Methodist University from 2011-15, where he played on the men's basketball practice squad and earned a Bachelor of Science in Applied Physiology and Sport Management. Osborne is from Woodside, California and attended Menlo School where he was coached by Santa Cruz Warriors Head Coach Kris Weems.

MICHAEL SALAME

Basketball Operations Associate

Michael Salame is entering his first season in Santa Cruz, most recently spending time assisting with the execution of youth basketball clinics with Jr. NBA China and India during the 2018-19 season. Before joining the NBA, Salame worked as a basketball analytics data journalist for Sport Radar, with his main role of scouting NCAA talent through data analytics.

During the 2019-20 season, Salame will support Manager of Basketball Operations Adam Helmer day to day operations and basketball analytics. Salame, 25, earned the First Generation Scholarship at the University of Colorado Boulder, where he graduated with a bachelor of business administration, operations and information management with a minor in leadership. Salame was the men's basketball video intern during the 2016-17 season for University Colorado Boulder.

NICKOLAS COYLE

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Nickolas Coyle is entering his first season in Santa Cruz, having spent the 2018-19 NCAA season as the assistant athletic trainer at Tusculum University in Greeneville, Tennessee. Coyle's focus was day to day support and gameday support with the football and women's lacrosse team, as well as provided training needs for cheer-leading teams. During the 2019-20 season, Coyle will support Santa Cruz Warriors Head Athletic Trainer Long Lam in providing the players with care including injury prevention, treatment and rehab of sports injuries.

Coyle, 25, has previous experience with NFL's Atlanta Falcons training staff as a seasonal athletic trainer in 2017, as well as a student internship in athletic training with the Iowa Wolves (then the Iowa Energy) during the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons. Coyle completed his Bachelor of Arts degree in athletic training at Graceland University in Lamoni, Iowa in 2016, and a Master of Science in physical education with emphasis in exercise science at the University of North Georgia in 2018.
