MEET THE OWNERS

Dream Too LLC, the Atlanta Dream ownership group, is the only all-female ownership group in Atlanta professional sports. Kathy Betty serves as the managing partner and is joined by fellow owners Mary Brock and Kelly Loeffler.

KATHY BETTY Owner/CEO

Atlanta Dream Owner Kathy Betty recorded one of the most successful seasons for a rookie owner in professional sports history in 2010 as the Dream won the Eastern Conference title and advanced to the WNBA Finals. Since acquiring the team in October 2009, Betty has re-energized the fan base and community in support of the team. In 2011, she announced the additions of Mary Brock and Kelly Loeffler to the team's ownership group, forming the first all-female ownership group in Atlanta pro sports. Betty remains as managing partner.

A prominent Atlanta businesswoman and sports advocate, Betty is committed to putting a winning product on the court and making a positive impact off the court. During Betty's first year of ownership, the Dream secured major sponsorships including Coca-Cola, Aaron's, KIA MOTORS and Grady Memorial Hospital, and announced a broadcast partnership with FOX Sports South and SportSouth to televise all Atlanta Dream home games.

Betty has more than 25 years of business management and consultancy experience. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and Computer Sciences from the University of Alabama and Belmont College, and went on to work for Hayes Microsystems, was one of the first female partners with Ernst & Young, and later served as Executive Vice President and Partner with ScottMadden. In 1996, she formed her own successful incubator The Tradewind Group.

Betty serves in a leadership capacity for a number of non-profit organizations, serving on the boards of Alexander-Tharpe Fund, Georgia Institute of Technology, Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Foundation, Carter Center Board of Councilors, YMCA Metropolitan Atlanta, Central Atlanta Progress (CAP), Atlanta Tipoff Club, and Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau (ACVB).

MARY BROCK

A noted philanthropist and sports advocate, Mary Brock joined the Atlanta Dream's ownership group in January 2011. A noted philanthropist and sports advocate, Mary Brock joined the Atlanta Dream's ownership group in January 2011. The Dream is the only Atlanta professional sports franchise with an all-female ownership group. Brock serves on multiple boards, including the Board of Directors for Horizons National, a program for at-risk youth based in Norwalk, CT with 18 affiliates across the country. Locally, Brock serves on the Board of Advisors for the Winship Cancer Institute and the Board of Visitors for Emory University. She has a particular interest in cancer research and along with her husband John, has funded chairs in biomedical engineering at Emory University and Georgia Tech University. Brock and her husband have been active supporters of the Athletic Director's Fund and the Alexander-Tharpe Fund for Georgia Tech athletics. Most recently, they funded a significant leadership gift for Georgia Tech's new football practice facility. Prior to moving to Atlanta four years ago, Brock lived in Connecticut and also spent 10 years in Europe in Belgium and London. A native of Moss Point, Mississippi, she earned her Bachelor of Science in Science and Math Education and her Masters of Science Education in Curriculum Development from Miami University of Ohio.

KELLY LOEFFLER

A successful Atlanta businesswoman, Kelly Loeffler joined the Atlanta Dream's ownership group in January 2011. Kelly Loeffler joined the Atlanta Dream's ownership group in January 2011. The Dream is the only Atlanta professional sports franchise with an all-female ownership group. Loeffler is Vice President of Investor Relations and Corporate Communications at IntercontinentalExchange (NYSE: ICE). In this role, she is responsible for all aspects of ICE's investor relations, public relations, corporate communications, marketing and brand strategy. Prior to joining ICE in 2002, Loeffler worked in private equity at Crossroads Group, and in equity research at William Blair & Company and at Citi Global Asset Management. She began her career in the automotive industry, holding various marketing and operations roles at Toyota Motor Sales, USA and at Lexus, USA. A native of central Illinois, Loeffler earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and completed a Master of Business Administration at the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business at DePaul University in Chicago. A Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), Loeffler also serves on the Board of Directors of the American Red Cross- Metro Atlanta Chapter and on the Advisory Board for the Gene Siskel Film Center in Chicago.

TOBY WYMAN

MARYNELL MEADORS

General Manager/Head Coach

Marynell Meadors enters her fourth season as General Manager and Head Coach of the Atlanta Dream. In three seasons with the Dream, Meadors has led the Dream to two playoff appearances, including a trip to the 2010 WNBA Finals.

The Dream earned the Eastern Conference Championship in 2010 under Meadors, who guided the team to a franchise-best 19-15 record in the regular season. The Dream swept the first two rounds of the playoffs before falling to the Seattle Storm in the WNBA Finals in three games. Meadors also currently serves as an assistant coach for USA Basketball, helping the team to a gold medal at the 2010 FIBA World Championship.

Meadors was awarded the WNBA Coach of the Year in 2009 after leading the Dream to the second greatest single season turnaround in WNBA history. The Dream earned the franchise's first playoff berth, finishing second in the Eastern Conference with an 18-16 record after finishing 4-30 as an expansion team in 2008.

As General Manager, Meadors has been responsible for some notable acquisitions in her tenure with the Dream, including drafting 2009 Rookie of the Year Angel McCoughtry with the first overall pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, bringing six-time WNBA All-Star Chamique Holdsclaw out of retirement, and signing former University of Georgia standouts Coco and Kelly Miller.

Prior to joining the Dream, Meadors spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics. There she helped head coaches Richie Adubato and Tree Rollins to an aggregate record of 50-52, including a playoff appearance in 2006. Meadors also served as the first General Manager and Head Coach of the now-defunct Charlotte Sting where she led the franchise to the playoffs in each of its first two seasons. Following her tenure with the Sting, Meadors moved south where she was hired as the Director of Scouting for the Miami Sol.

Meadors has an extensive background in the women's college game, serving as the head coach at Florida State University and Tennessee Tech University for a combined 30 years. For two seasons prior to joining the Mystics, she served as an assistant coach for the University of Pittsburgh recruiting and scouting.

At Florida State, Meadors quickly turned the program around from three straight losing seasons prior to her arrival. The apex of her tenure came in 1991 when the Seminoles won the Metro Conference Championship and advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Before heading to Florida State, Meadors earned her stripes at Tennessee Tech where she won more than 300 games as head coach. She was the first head coach of the women's basketball program and in her 20 years at the helm, she posted a school-record .723 winning percentage. During her coaching tenure, she received numerous accolades, including Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year (1984) and she two-time Metro Conference Coach of the Year award winner (1990, 1991). In her time at Tennessee Tech, she steered the Golden Eagles to four OVC championships and two Metro Conference titles and became the first major women's college coach to win 350 games at one institution.

Meadors earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees from Middle Tennessee State University.

CAROL ROSS

Assistant Coach

Carol Ross enters her third season as an Assistant Coach with the Dream, adding over 20 years of recruiting and collegiate coaching experience, most recently as the head coach of her alma mater, the University of Mississippi. In Ross, the Dream acquires a coach with a history of turning programs around. Ross spent her first 12 seasons as head coach at the University of Florida, where she turned the Gators program into a powerhouse in the Southeastern Conference. The winningest coach in University of Florida history (247-121), Ross earned the 1994 SEC Coach of the Year award and was a finalist for the 2001 and 2002 Naismith National Coach of the Year award. After revitalizing the Florida program, Ross returned to Ole Miss where she led the Rebels to postseason play in each of her four seasons at the helm. Her 2006-07 squad finished with its first 20 win season in over a decade en route to an appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. Ross was a four-year starter at Ole Miss (1978-81) under Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001. In sixteen seasons as a head coach, Ross has coached in 12 NCAA Tournaments and two WNIT's. She has posted 20+ win seasons eight times and earned numerous accolades. Ross has also developed some of the WNBA's best talent, including 2007 Rookie of the Year Armintie Price and Olympian DeLisha Milton-Jones. Other notables she has coached include Merlakia Jones, Muriel Page and Sophia Witherspoon.

FRED WILLIAMS

Assistant Coach/Executive Director of Player Development

Fred Williams enters his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Dream, bringing more than 20 years of coaching and scouting experience. Prior to joining the Dream staff, Williams served as the head coach of the San Diego Siege, a National Women's Basketball League (NWBL) team. In 2006, he was named NWBL Coach of the Year and led the Siege to a 15-5 record and a championship appearance. Williams was also the head coach of the Utah Starzz (now the San Antonio Silver Stars). He led the Starzz from a 13-15 season in 1999 to playoff appearances in 2000 and 2001 with 18-14 and 19-13 seasons, respectively. He was also an assistant coach with the Charlotte Sting from 2003 until 2004. In addition to his WNBA experience, Williams spent 10 years coaching at the University of Southern California (USC) as an assistant coach under Cheryl Miller (1983-1990) and as head coach (1995-1997). During the 1983-84 season, he helped guide USC to a national championship and in 1996-97, he led USC to a 20-9 record and a trip to the NCAA tournament. At USC, Williams worked with past and future WNBA players Cynthia Cooper, Lisa Leslie, Tina Thompson, and Adrian Williams. In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Williams is a skilled recruiter who has brought in such players as Margo Dydek, career block leader; Jennifer Azzi, a former Olympian; and three-time WNBA All-Star Marie Ferdinand-Harris into his programs. He has also served as an advance scout for the NBA's Sacramento Kings and the Utah Jazz. Williams is a graduate of Boise State University.

SUE PANEK

Director of Basketball Operations

Sue Panek enters her fourth season on the Dream staff, where she serves as the Director of Basketball Operations. Prior to joining the Dream, Panek spent the previous seven years as head coach of the girls' basketball team at Olympic High School in Charlotte, North Carolina. She also has experience in the WNBA as an assistant coach with the Charlotte Sting (1997-2001) and as an advanced scout with the Washington Mystics (2005-2006). Panek began her coaching career at Florida State University, where she was an assistant coach from 1993-1996. She then spent a year as an assistant at her alma mater, the University of Maryland, before accepting an assistant coaching position with the WNBA's

Charlotte Sting (the team folded in 2007). As an assistant on the Sting staff for five seasons, Panek's responsibilities included: college scouting, player development, scouting of opponents, coordinating team travel, equipment management, and clinician with the Junior Hornets/Sting Youth Basketball Program. A member of the Maryland basketball team from 1988-1992, Panek helped the Terrapins to four straight NCAA tournament appearances, including a Final Four berth in 1989 and a trip to the Elite 8 in 1992. During her senior season, the Terrapins held the number one national ranking for four weeks. Panek graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Kinesiology from the University of Maryland. A native of Lilly, Pennsylvania, she currently resides in Atlanta.

KIM MOSELEY

Head Athletic Trainer

Kim begins her third season with the Dream as Head Athletic Trainer. She received her BS and Master's Degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1980 and 1981 respectively. Kim has been an Athletic Trainer for 30 years and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and is licensed in the State of Georgia and Tennessee. This is Kim's second stop in the WNBA. She served as the Athletic Trainer for the WNBA Charlotte Sting in 1998 and 1999. In her career she has been a Head Women's Athletic Trainer at Florida State, Head Athletic Trainer at Trevecca Nazarene University and an Assistant Trainer at Southwest Texas State University, Tulane University and Rice University. A native of Biloxi, MS, Kim presently resides in Franklin, Tennessee with her husband Don, who is an Athletic Trainer for the Tennessee Titans, and her two children, Matthew (18) and Katherine (16).

History: On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June 1997.

Since that day in 1996, there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman -- the first president of the WNBA
Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA
Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player
Houston Comets -- the first WNBA Champions
Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)
Lauren Jackson -- the first international player to win MVP (2007)
Candace Parker -- the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)
Sylvia Fowles -- the first goaltending call (6/3/2008 vs. LA)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A Growing Game: The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 14 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and the league reflects this trend, featuring 20 international players from 13 countries and territories at the end of the 2010 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277 percent since 1991 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 17 percent since 1991 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1991 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

All-Star Game: The San Antonio Silver Stars and the AT&T Center will host the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game in San Antonio on Saturday, July 23, 2011.

In place of the All-Star Game last season, the league hosted a special event, “WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun” at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville Conn. on July 10, 2010. The event showcased the world’s best female basketball players under one roof and helped the USA Basketball Women’s National Team prepare for the upcoming FIBA World Championship that fall. The USAB squad, featuring 10 WNBA players and one collegian, defeated a team of WNBA stars 99-72. Sylvia Fowles of the Chicago Sky and playing for USAB, earned game MVP honors. University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma coached the U.S. squad while Seattle Storm Head Coach Brian Agler led the WNBA team.

The first WNBA All-Star Game was held in New York at Madison Square Garden in 1999. The Garden also hosted the event in 2003 and in 2006. Washington's Verizon Center (2002, 2007) is the other venue to host the game multiple times. Other All-Star Games were played in Phoenix (2000), Orlando (2001) and at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. (2009). Due to the Olympics, no All-Star Game was held in 2004 and 2008, although Radio City Music Hall in New York City was the site of an exhibition game on August 5, 2004, as the U.S. National Team, comprised mainly of WNBA greats, faced a squad of WNBA All-Stars in "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Game at Radio City"

Inspiring Coach: The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to recognize coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma earned the honor in 2010 for his profound impact on female athletes and his demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Pat Summit, Kay Yow, and Jody Conradt.

Inspiring Women: The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice (2010), Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts (2009), Good Morning America's Robin Roberts (2008), Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (2007), and the WNBA All-Decade Team (2006).

Dawn Staley Award: The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Winners include Chamique Holdsclaw (2009), Tamika Raymond (2008), and Tamika Catchings (2007). A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

Marketing: The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing and Promotional Partners:

adidas, American Express, Bacardi, BBVA, CieAura, Coca-Cola, EA, Gatorade, General Mills/Wheaties, Hayworth, HP, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG)

Hotels, Jamba Juice, NewTek, Nike, Panasonic, Pepperidge Farm, Russell Athletic, Sanofi Aventis, Sanofi Pasteur, Spalding, T-Mobile

Media Partners: USA Today, Parenting Group, Essence, Heart & Soul

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fanbase of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

The WNBA has an extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas. The sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 and again in 2011 – but also served as the presenter of the WNBA Draft since 2007. In 2008 adidas became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

Five WNBA teams have entered the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, the Los Angeles Sparks with Farmers Insurance Group, the Seattle Storm with Microsoft search engine Bing, the New York Liberty with Foxwoods Resort Casino, and the Washington Mystics with Inova Health System.

Attendance /
TV Ratings:

The WNBA concluded the 2010 regular season with its fourth consecutive year of increased attendance. Postseason attendance increased for the third consecutive year, finishing up 36 percent over 2009.

For Games 2 and 3 of the 2010 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 15 percent from 2009 and 79 percent from 2008.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 318,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2010 included more than 30 live national telecasts of regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 40-plus games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2011 will include 70 high-definition regular-season, playoff, and Finals games on ESPN2, ABC and NBA TV. In addition, all WNBA games are available online via WNBA LiveAccess unless: (a) They are televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com, or (b) They are televised at the same time a game is televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tipped off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

Global Reach:

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2010, for the fourth straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. In addition, for the fifth consecutive year, fans around the globe are able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on NBA.com/china.

At the conclusion of the 2010 regular season, WNBA rosters featured 20 international players from 13 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent were the league's MVP, Seattle Storm forward/center Lauren Jackson (Australia), the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and the Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal). They will be joined in 2011 by Tulsa's Elizabeth Cambage (Australia), whom the Shock selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2011 Draft.

WNBA Draft:

The 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place on April 11 at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. It marked the first professional sports league draft held on the ESPN campus. The Minnesota Lynx selected University of Connecticut's Maya Moore as the top overall pick. The Tulsa Shock selected Elizabeth Cambage second, the Chicago Sky tabbed Courtney Vandersloot third, the Lynx chose Amber Harris fourth, and the Los Angeles Sparks took Jantel Lavender fifth to round out the first five selections.

Ownership:

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Tulsa Shock.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. began play in 2010. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel, and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Entering the 2011 season, 10 women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty, Mary Brock, and Kelly Loeffler (Atlanta); and Dawn Trudeau, Ginny Gilder, and Lisa Brummel (Seattle Storm). A 10th, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Dr. Sheila Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin.

Key Highlights:

In 2010, Tina Thompson of the Los Angeles Sparks became the all-time scoring leader with 6,413 points, surpassing her former teammate, Lisa Leslie (6,263) who retired following the 2009 season.

Tina Charles won the 2010 WNBA Rookie of the Year award after averaging 15.5 ppg, 11.7 rpg, and 1.7 bpg, while also setting league records for most total rebounds (398) and doubles-doubles (22) in a single season.

Lauren Jackson won the 2010 WNBA MVP presented by Kia Motors award and also took home 2010 WNBA Finals MVP honors. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first – and only – WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star, and Finals MVP awards during the same season (2001).

Jackson also became the third player to earn WNBA MVP honors three times (2003, 2007, 2010), joining the Sparks' Lisa Leslie (2001, 2004, 2006) and the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes (2000, 2002, 2005). Houston's Cynthia Cooper earned the award twice (1997, 1998). The others to capture MVP honors are the Sacramento Monarchs' Yolanda Griffith (1999), the Sparks' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award), and the Phoenix Mercury's Diana Taurasi (2009).

Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the same season (2008). The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game.

Lauren Jackson became the WNBA's youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. Diana Taurasi subsequently surpassed Jackson as the fastest to 4,000 points in terms of fewest games played when she reached the milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

Lisa Leslie became the first player to dunk in a WNBA game when she did so on July 30, 2002 vs. the Miami Sol. Candace Parker, also of the Sparks, was the second, throwing down a dunk vs. the Indiana Fever on June 22, 2008.

WNBA Cares:

Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week, Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, and Read to Achieve.

- November 5, 2009 The Minnesota Lynx win the ninth annual WNBA Draft Lottery and earned the top pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft. Minnesota had 428 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection by virtue of owning New York's combinations (261) in addition to its own (167).

- November 20, 2009 The Maloof Family announces that they will no longer operate the Sacramento Monarchs.
- December 4, 2009 The WNBA Competition Committee and Board of Governors approves the expanded use of instant replay by game officials in the following situations: 1.) To determine at any point during the game whether a 24-second shot clock violation occurred prior to the release of a successful field goal attempt or prior to a foul being committed and 2.) To determine during the last minute of regulation play and the last minute of any overtime period which player last touched the ball prior to it going out-of-bounds or whether the ball was last touched simultaneously by two opponents.
- December 14, 2009 The WNBA holds a Dispersal Draft of the Sacramento Monarchs players. The New York Liberty selected Nicole Powell with the first pick while the Minnesota Lynx chose Rebekkah Brunson second and the Connecticut Sun took DeMya Walker with the third selection. The Chicago Sky selected Courtney Paris and the San Antonio Silver Stars took Laura Harper to round out the top five picks. Teams drafted in inverse order of their regular-season finish in 2009.
- January 23, 2010 The Tulsa franchise, with new ownership that brought the team from its former home in Detroit, announces it will keep the name "Shock," and unveils a new logo and color scheme featuring black, red and gold.
- April 8, 2010 The 2010 WNBA Draft presented by adidas takes place at the NBA Entertainment studios in Secaucus, NJ. Tina Charles, Monica Wright, Kelsey Griffin, Epiphanny Prince and Jayne Appel, respectively, were the top five selections.

- August 8, 2010 Tina Thompson surpasses Lisa Leslie's WNBA career scoring mark of 6,263, making her the highest scoring player in league history.
- August 13, 2010 Phoenix's Tangelia Smith plays in her 411th career game, breaking Vickie Johnson's previous record for most career games played.
- August 15, 2010 In a game against Indiana, rookie Tina Charles of the Connecticut Sun sets WNBA single-season records for most double-doubles and total rebounds in a single season.
- September 7, 2010 Atlanta's Angel McCoughtry scores a WNBA Playoffs record 42 points in Game Two of the Eastern Conference Finals, a 105-93 victory over the New York Liberty. In that same game, New York's Cappie Pondexter tallies 36 points. Their combined total of 78 points set a WNBA record for most total points by two players in the same post-season game.
- September 16, 2010 The Seattle Storm won the 2010 WNBA championship by defeating the Atlanta Dream 87-84 in Game 3 of the WNBA Finals in Atlanta's Philips Arena. The Storm swept the Dream 3-0 in the best-of-five series and Seattle center Lauren Jackson, the league's regular season MVP, was named MVP of The Finals. It is the Storm's second championship and first since 2004.

- December 3, 2010 Donna Orender steps down as WNBA President to launch her own marketing, media and strategy company.
- February 28, 2011 As part of WNBA Live - Manchester 2011 – a new, multiyear partnership between the Manchester (Eng.) City Council and the NBA, WNBA and USA Basketball – it is announced that the Atlanta Dream will participate in the first WNBA game to be played in Europe. The game is set for May 29, 2011 vs. Standard Life Team GB (Great Britain's national team) at Manchester Evening News Arena. The partnership will promote women in sport and encourage participation in team sports.
- March 3, 2011 At a press conference at the AT&T Center in San Antonio, the WNBA announces that the Silver Stars will host the 2011 All-Star Game for the first time in franchise history. The contest, set for Saturday, July 23, is to be the second WNBA All-Star Game played in a Western Conference venue and the first since the 2000 game was held in Phoenix.
- March 8, 2011 In honor of Women's History Month and International Women's Day, the WNBA officially announced plans to celebrate its 15th season. Among those would be the selection of the Top 15 Players and the Top 15 Moments in league history. Key among other planned celebrations would be a nationally televised game (ESPN2) in which the New York Liberty would visit the Los Angeles Sparks on June 21, fifteen years to the date of the league's inaugural game in 1997 featuring those same two teams.
- March 28, 2011 Sheryl Swoopes, 40, returns to the WNBA, signing to play with the Tulsa Shock after a two-year hiatus. An inaugural member of the WNBA and a member of the league's All-Decade Team selected in 2006, Swoopes resume includes four WNBA championships as a member of the Houston Comets (1997-2000), three league MVP awards (2000, 2002, 2005) and three Defensive Player of the Year honors (2000, 2002, 2003).
- April 7, 2011 The Washington Mystics sign a marquee partnership with Inova Health System, becoming the fifth WNBA team to have such a partnership. Players will wear Inova Hospital System's name and logo on the front of their home and away jerseys during the 2011 WNBA season.
- April 7, 2011 The WNBA and partner adidas unveiled new uniforms for all 12 teams featuring Revolution 30 technology and women's basketball specific TECHFIT base layers.
- April 11, 2011 The WNBA becomes the first professional sports league to conduct its annual Draft at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. The Minnesota Lynx made Maya Moore the top overall selection of the 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas. Australian native Elizabeth Cambage, selected second by the Tulsa Shock, and Courtney Vandersloot, tapped third by the Chicago Sky, rounded out the top three picks.
- April 21, 2011 Laurel J. Richie, a veteran of more than three decades in consumer marketing, corporate branding, public relations and corporate management, is appointed President of the WNBA, NBA Commissioner David Stern announced. Laurel leaves her post as Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for Girl Scouts of the USA to join the WNBA.

PHILIPS ARENA

1 Philips Dr.
Atlanta, GA 30303

Widely considered one of the top venues in the world, Philips Arena serves as the home to more than 200 sports and entertainment events annually. The Atlanta Hawks of the NBA and the Atlanta Thrashers of the NHL play their home games at Philips Arena. The arena is owned and operated by Atlanta Spirit, LLC. and is sponsored by Philips Electronics, for which it was named. Located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, Philips

Arena adjoins the CNN Center and is easily accessible via MARTA public transportation. On the exterior, angled steel columns in the grand entrance spell out "ATLANTA" in 65-foot high illuminated letters. Since its completion in 1999, Philips Arena has earned numerous accolades in the entertainment industry. The venue was named the No. 3 concert and events venue in the United States and No. 8 worldwide by Pollstar magazine, based on attendance figures. Recent sporting events held at Philips Arena include the 2008 NHL All-Star Game, the 2004 U.S. Figure Skating Championships and the 2003 NBA All-Star Game.
