CREDENTIALS MUST BE VISIBLE AT ALL TIMES.

All media with access to restricted areas will be required to produce a photo ID, and all bags and equipment will be subject to inspection.

CREDENTIALS

Seating at Conseco Fieldhouse's press tables is restricted to accredited working media representatives. Non-working media will be seated in reserved seat areas when seats are available.

Single-game credentials must be requested no later than noon the day before the game (Friday noon for Sunday games).

You may request credentials by faxing, on your company's letterhead, to the Fever's Media Relations Department at (317) 917-2799, or by writing, on your company's letterhead, to the Fever's Media Relations Department, 125 S. Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204.

Credentials are good for admittance to Conseco Fieldhouse, the Bill York Media Room and home and visiting locker rooms.

Pre-arranged credentials may be picked up before the game at the media entrance.

MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING FEVER SEASON CREDENTIALS MUST NOTIFY THE FEVER'S MEDIA RELATIONS DEPARTMENT IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING.

AUTOGRAPHS

SEEKING AUTOGRAPHS OR SOUVENIR ITEMS FROM PLAYERS OR COACHES IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED AND SUBJECT TO FORFEITURE OF CREDENTIAL.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media entrance is located at the southeast corner of Conseco Fieldhouse, off of Delaware Street. Only media members who hold Indiana Fever or WNBA media credentials will be admitted through this entrance.

BILL YORK MEDIA ROOM

Located on the Event Level of Conseco Fieldhouse in the southeast corner. It is accessible by elevator or stairs near the Media Entrance.

The Fever must limit media room usage to members of the media only when valid Fever or WNBA media credentials are presented. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, guests or others.

The professional intent of the room is to provide a meeting and working place for the media and game personnel. Any abuse of the media room and/or media privileges will cause forfeiture of your credential.

SERVICES

Complete statistics, along with pregame notes, lineups, information regarding injuries and other pertinent facts will be furnished by the Fever's Media Relations Department.

Play-by-play and halftime boxscores will be delivered directly to the press table. Complete final boxscores, play-by-plays and postgame quotes and notes will be available following the game in the media room.

FAX - The Indiana Fever will provide one fax machine for use in the media room.

Wireless Internet access is available in the media room and the seating bowl. Please contact a member of the Fever media staff for password access.

PRESS ROW

Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere at press row. Smoking is prohibited in Conseco Fieldhouse.

LOCKER ROOMS

Both the Fever and visitors' locker rooms will be open to the media for 30 minutes, beginning 90 minutes before tipoff. For example, the locker rooms will be open from 5:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. for a 7:00 p.m. tip.

Both locker rooms will be open for 30 minutes following the game. Players will remain in uniform for the media availability period.

Cell phone use by media is prohibited inside team dressing rooms.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times.

Space permitting, other photographers will be allowed on the floor.

Credentials are good for admittance to Conseco Fieldhouse, Bill York Media Room and the designated photographer areas on The Fieldhouse floor. Only television photographers doing postgame interviews will have access to locker room areas.

Photographers are allowed only within the designated photographers' area at each end of the court. As necessary, spaces will be assigned by the Fever's Media Relations Department.

All photographers and camera operators must stay at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. In the event it is not physically possible to achieve this in certain arenas, an appropriate standard will be determined by the Fever's Media Relations Department and the WNBA.

Photographers must remain stationary and seated at all times, except during quarter breaks and halftime.

Photographers are not permitted on the court at any time during the game.

No food or drink is allowed on the playing floor.

Photographers cannot photograph from public walkways or vomitories.

If space is available, photographers may request to photograph from the media seating in the stands.

When placing tape on the playing floor, authorization must be received by a member of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment Media Relations Department or Facilities Division.

PHOTOGRAPHER'S EQUIPMENT

Photographers located on the baseline or sideline will be permitted only one standard size "Domke" bag, which must be placed behind the photographer during the game. Equipment not needed during the game must be stored off the court. One additional camera can be stored either beside or directly behind the photographer.

Each photographer will be permitted one monopod - NO TRIPODS - at courtside. No stand-alone remotes or seats other than "lawn-type" photographer seats will be permitted.

All film should be unpacked before the game and all trash should be properly disposed of by the photographer.

RUBBER LENS SHADES

In order to reduce the risk of injury to players, rubber lens shades are required for all still photographers, broadcasters, news and entertainment video and film crews who are authorized to shoot WNBA game action.

Any additional light sources or sun guns must either be removed or covered with bubble wrap.

Rubber lens covers are available by contacting:

Robert's Distributors, Inc.
255 S. Meridian Street
Indianapolis, IN 46225
(317) 636-5524 / (800) 726-5544
FAX: (317) 636-5793

The only exception to this policy will be for those photographers utilizing telephoto lenses (i.e. 300 and 400 mm lenses) when such lenses are used to shoot game action at the opposite end of the court. These lenses must be stored behind the photographer when the action is in the near side of the court.

PHOTOGRAPHY IN LOCKER ROOMS

No still photography is permitted in either teams' locker room.

CLOTHING

All photographers must leave any outerwear (i.e. coats, hats, etc.) in the Bill York Media Room during game action.

TV NEWS CREWS

Credential requests must be received by noon the day of the game.

News crews are restricted to crowd interviews in the Indiana University Health Entry Pavilion, Balcony and Main Concourse. Interviews are not allowed in the vomitories on any level of Conseco Fieldhouse. News crews are not allowed on the FedEx Level or Krieg DeVault Club Level, unless accompanied by a member of the Fever's Media Relations Department. In order to enter a Suite, each news crew must have permission from the individual Suite Holder to enter their respective Suite. Once permission is granted, the news crew must inform a member of the Fever's Media Relations Department, and then will be accompanied into the suite by a member of the Fever's Media Relations Department.

During game action, news crews must shoot crowd reaction from designated areas. Check with the Fever's Media Relations Department for locations. No interviews will be allowed within the seating bowl once game action begins.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA

All international media (affiliations distributed outside of the U.S.) requests are handled by the NBA International PR Department. Any international media member interested in covering an Indiana Fever regular season game must first submit a request in writing to the WNBA/NBA. Please do not contact the Fever individually.

All credential requests must be received at least three business days prior to the first games requested.

Photo identification will be required when picking up confirmed credentials at the Media Entrance.

Requests may be FAXED to the attention of:

NBA International
FAX: (212) 407-8044

Additional information on international media policies may be obtained by contacting the NBA International PR Department at (212) 407-8000.

2011 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE

CONSECO FIELDHOUSE

With 750,000 square feet and 18,165 seats, this is a fairly new house that is, remarkably, in just its 11th year, an old home.

Conseco Fieldhouse, opened Nov. 6, 1999, when the Indiana Pacers hosted the Boston Celtics, is a step into the future while taking a walk back into history. It's big, yet comfortable. It has all the modern appliances, yet there's that favorite old picture on the wall. It is a building that is unique in today's sports society because the extra effort was made to make it that way. In other words, if you have a religion, you must build the appropriate cathedral.

In Indiana, basketball is religion. Conseco Fieldhouse is a cathedral. That's why the home of the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever is unique.

"We wanted this building to have a kind of special feeling to it, that when people came into it they felt part of the tradition that the building is for," said former Pacers Sports & Entertainment CEO & President Donnie Walsh, who was instrumental in the Fieldhouse becoming a reality. "I think this is a pure basketball arena that reflects the game itself and the roots of the game."

Ground was broken on July 22, 1997 on the $183 million multi-purpose facility and while there were blueprints, a scale model and dreams, it was hard for anyone at the time to fathom what would evolve. But what has risen 14 stories into the Indianapolis skyline is a fit perfect for the city, the state, the game of basketball at any level and the various events a facility of this type would host.

"There are so many features that make it one-of-a-kind," said Tom Proebstle, Project Designer for Ellerbe Beckett, the Fieldhouse design firm. "The most obvious feature is the two huge glass curtain walls facing east and west that mark the beginning of an incredible architectural promenade as you are approaching downtown on the highway and see the lit-up glass set against the Indianapolis skyline. No other arena in the world can claim this. I'm sure it will be copied many times over."

That's the view from the outside. Inside, the unique look and feel of Conseco Fieldhouse takes over. The Clarian Health Entry Pavilion is a vast gathering place that funnels fans to the Grand Staircase. As patrons make their way up the staircase, their view takes them to their first look at the seating bowl (another unique feature) or to large memorabilia cases on each side of the entrance to the Fieldhouse seating bowl.

From there, no matter which direction one takes, it's a nostalgic look. From the signage, to the concession stands, to the sponsor pavilions, to the bathrooms, to the one-of-a-kind Practice Court, to the light fixtures, to the scoreboard, Conseco Fieldhouse is unique, distinct and, as Pacers' great Reggie Miller described, "Unbelievable. Absolutely unbelievable. Far beyond my expectations."

Conseco Fieldhouse has suites (69), club seats (2,400) and state-of-the-art amenities. But it has a look and feel unlike any other indoor facility.

This unique feel has brought many comparisons and compliments to Conseco Fieldhouse. The USA Today calls the Fieldhouse "A Cathedral to Basketball" and Amusement Business Magazine refers to Conseco Fieldhouse as "The Camden Yards of Basketball." NBC's Bob Costas said Conseco Fieldhouse "is winning raves all around the league, many think it's the best building in the NBA."

A 2006 survey by the Sports Business Journal ranked Conseco Fieldhouse as the No. 1 venue in the NBA. An informal ranking in the Orange County Register, in 2008, echoed the same rating.

In addition to hosting major boxing events (Vernon Forrest vs. Sugar Shane Mosley, 7/21/02; Roy Jones Jr. vs. Richard Hall, 5/13/00) and the Indiana Pacers and Fever, the Fieldhouse has hosted visits from Pavarotti, Bill Cosby, Bruce Springsteen, Elton John and Billy Joel, Bob Seger, George Strait & Reba McEntire, The Boston Pops, John Mellencamp, Paul McCartney, Tim McGraw & Faith Hill, The Dixie Chicks, NSync, AC/DC, Britney Spears, Carrie Underwood, Crosby Stills, Nash & Young, Kid Rock, U2, Hannah Montana, Disney On Ice and Dancing With The Stars. It has also played host to the 2002 FIBA World Basketball Championships, the 2004 FINA World Short Course Swimming Championships and the United States Gymnastics Championships. In April 2011, it played host to the NCAA Women's Final Four. Through 2012, it is the annual host of the Big Ten Conference men's and women's basketball tournaments, and a gathering point for the National FFA Convention – the nation's largest annual youth gathering.

Additionally, Conseco Fieldhouse has been cited for its compliance and exceeding of ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) requirements.

Conseco Fieldhouse was the host site of the 2011 NCAA Women's Final Four, welcoming Connecticut, Stanford, Notre Dame and Texas A&M to Indianapolis. Texas A&M defeated Notre Dame to earn its first national championship.

A basketball and entertainment showplace, Conseco Fieldhouse has regularly been rated as the top arena in the NBA.

CONSECO FIELDHOUSE

QUICK FACTS

- Ground breaking was on July 22, 1997.
- Approximately 300,000 cubic yards of dirt were removed from the construction site.
- The world's largest crane was brought in to install tresses on top of building. The crane was so large it was disassembled before being brought into the structure and reassembled on the ground level once inside the structure.
- Was the first retro-styled facility in the NBA.
- Main Concourse width ranges from 24 to 60 feet.
- 69 luxury suites available for sale and two hospitality suites available for rent.
- FedEx Level Suites are 16 rows from courtside seating.
- Approximately five trips around the Main Concourse equal a mile.
- Four main stairwells with approximately 1,014 steps.
- Assisted listening devices available for events as well as sign language interpreters
- Concierge on staff at all events to assist with guest needs
- Heating ducts under plazas melt ice during cold weather
- The ice that is used for hockey takes approximately eight hours to make. (Pipes under the floor are filled with a substance that freezes the floor to approximately 12-15 degrees.)

WELCOME TO INDIANAPOLIS

What's to love about Indianapolis?
Plenty.

There are big-time professional and college sports, led by the NBA Indiana Pacers, the WNBA Indiana Fever and past NFL Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts.

There is the world-famous Indianapolis Motor Speedway, home to the world's two largest single-day sporting events (the Indianapolis 500 and the Allstate 400 at the Brickyard) as well as Indianapolis Red Bull Moto GP motorcycle race. The Speedway's Hall of Fame Museum is a year-round attraction.

There is the city's renowned reputation as an amateur sports capital, serving as home to the National Collegiate Athletic Association, four national sports governing bodies, NCAA

Men's and Women's Final Fours, the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments and numerous regional, national and international championships.

It boasts three of the finest sports venues in the world: Consecro Fieldhouse (home to the Pacers and Fever), Lucas Oil Stadium (home to the Colts) and Victory Field (home to the Triple-A Indianapolis Indians), not to mention historic Hinkle Fieldhouse on the campus of Butler University. Just a short walk from the NCAA offices and NCAA Hall of Champions are another pair of world-class venues downtown, on the campus of Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). The IUPUI Natatorium has been a frequent host to U.S. Olympic Trials, and the Michael Carroll Track & Field Stadium is a frequent host of Olympic Trials events and the USA Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

Indy is home to six unique "cultural districts," each bustling with its own distinct flavor, flair and mix of pubs, restaurants, shops, arts and attractions.

Then there is a world-class urban park, White River State Park, with five major attractions within steps of each other. Stroll from the Indianapolis Zoo to the Indiana State Museum to the NCAA Hall of Champions to the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art to the Medal of Honor Winners Memorial. In the summertime, you can also catch a concert performed by renowned recording artists at The Lawn or a baseball game at Victory Field.

White River State Park also serves as the portal to the enchanting Central Canal, an ideal place to walk, jog or ride its one-and-a-half-mile length on a pedal boat or gondola.

The park is just one of 50 major attractions located within Indy's deliberately designed downtown that places dozens of hotels, more than 200 restaurants, shopping (including the 100 stores and shops of Circle Centre mall), cultural attractions and sports venues such as Consecro Fieldhouse and Lucas Oil Stadium within a few blocks. Even better, most are connected by city's system of enclosed skywalks.

Just a short distance from downtown, the Children's Museum of Indianapolis, the world's largest, beckons to the young and young of heart. Nearby is the Indianapolis Museum of Art, which houses one of the largest general collections in the United States.

Other major attractions ring the city, including the delightful Conner Prairie, a living history museum that instantly transports visitors to 19th century Indiana; Traders Point Creamery, an organic farm featuring award-winning dairy products, or the enchanting village of Zionsville.

But as much as there is to love about Indiana's capital city, it's only getting better.

The 63,000-seat Lucas Oil Stadium opened in August 2008. Featuring a retractable roof, this multi-function stadium is not just home to the Colts, but the 2010 NCAA Men's Final Four, the 2011 Big Ten Football Championship Game, the 2012 Super Bowl, music competitions, conventions, trade shows and concerts.

The new $1 billion Weir Cook Terminal also has opened at Indianapolis International Airport. It is the first terminal to be constructed post-9/11 and features state-of-the-art security and convenience.

Recently completed is a complex of four hotel properties known as Marriott Place. The complex, adjacent to White River State Park and the Indiana Convention Center, includes 1,600 rooms and brings to 4,700 rooms (most in the country) connected to a convention center complex.

Also under construction and scheduled to be completed in 2011 is Indy's "Cultural Trail." The landscaped trail will link the city's six cultural districts with biking and pedestrian pathways that will feature public art.

Whatever your pleasure – nightlife, museums, sports, music, arts, dining, shopping – it can be found in Indianapolis, all contained in a remarkable package of ease and convenience.

Go to www.visitindy.com for information, events, contests, hotel deals and podcasts.

OWNERSHIP

HERBERT SIMON
OWNER/CHAIRMAN & CEO

Herbert Simon is Chairman Emeritus of Simon Property Group, Inc., which owns or has an interest in more than 385 retail properties worldwide. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., along with brothers Melvin and Fred, and raised in the Bronx, Mr. Simon earned his bachelor's degree at City College of New York.

Mr. Simon, who with his late brother Melvin, purchased the Pacers in 1983, to ensure the team would stay in Indianapolis, also serves as Co-Chairman of Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc. which, prior to the formation of Simon Property Group, was the largest shopping center developer and manager in the nation and is still a privately owned company.

Mr. Simon, together with Melvin, has led the company to a leadership position within the industry since 1960 that it continues to maintain today. Some of the "breakthrough" retail projects that have drawn worldwide industry and media attention under Simon leadership include The Forum Shops at Caesars in Las Vegas, Nev., The Fashion Centre at Pentagon in the Washington, D.C. metro area and Circle Centre in Indianapolis, Ind., one of the key components in the revitalization of the city's downtown. Another key component for downtown is Conseco Fieldhouse, the Pacers' home which Mr. Simon helped lead the effort to build and is widely regarded as one of the best, if not the best, indoor arenas in the world.

A firm supporter of professional, environmental and community groups, Mr. Simon has served on the Boards of numerous organizations and served a term as Chairman of the NBA Board of Governors.

Mr. Simon is married and has seven children.

PACERS SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

KELLY KRAUSKOPF
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER AND GENERAL MANAGER

Kelly Krauskopf is in her 12th season as the Indiana Fever's Chief Operating Officer and her eighth as the team's General Manager. The highest-ranking female sports administrator in Indianapolis, she has been the Fever's chief executive since the franchise was founded in 1999.

Since the team was established, Krauskopf has been the guiding force of the Fever from building the team roster to building a fan base for Indiana's WNBA franchise. In her role with the Fever, Krauskopf oversees all aspects of the team's operation.

Since moving to Indianapolis and beginning the task of building a WNBA franchise, Krauskopf has engineered numerous player moves enabling the Fever to improve the team and complete its finest season in 2009. The Fever carried the best record in the WNBA throughout the regular season en route to the club's first regular season conference title and its fifth consecutive playoff appearance. The 2009 campaign eclipsed the Fever's previous best seasons with identical 21-13 records in 2005, 2006 and 2007. Krauskopf guided the franchise to six playoff berths in its first 10 seasons. A seventh playoff berth, and a sixth consecutive, was added in 2010.

The Krauskopf-built Fever is the most stable the franchise has ever been, led by a solid core of returning starters that include All-Stars Tamika Catchings, Katie Douglas and Tammy Sutton-Brown.

Annually one of the league's most active GMs, Krauskopf's key trades and free agent acquisitions have re-tooled the Fever roster.

Besides a February 2008 deal to land hometown star Douglas, other moves in recent years resulted in the signing of current veterans Tangela Smith and Erin Phillips. Past moves included veteran centers Natalie Williams and Yolanda Griffith, and former point guard Kelly Miller. A midseason move during the 2002 campaign brought veteran guard Coquese Washington to the Fever to ignite a late run to the franchise's first appearance in the WNBA Playoffs.

The cornerstone of the franchise was solidified by the draft selection of Catchings in the 2001 WNBA Draft. The third overall selection in the 2001 Draft and a 2004 and 2008 U.S. Olympian, Catchings was named Rookie of the Year in 2002 and Defensive Player of the Year in 2005, 2006, 2009 and 2010. She is a six-time WNBA All-Star and an eight-time All-WNBA selection who has finished in the top five in MVP balloting eight times.

Krauskopf also serves on USA Basketball's Women's Senior National Team Committee, helping to select from WNBA players to develop U.S. National Team rosters. Krauskopf has been a committee member since 2000, helping select the gold-medal winning roster for the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens, and again for Beijing in 2008.

Krauskopf has been in the forefront of the development of the WNBA. In September 1996, she was named the WNBA's first Director of Basketball Operations. In that role, she was involved in all phases of the league's start-up operation and initiatives. She also developed the league's first set of playing rules, officiating policies, scheduling and other league standards, while working daily with WNBA team general managers and operations personnel.

Before joining the WNBA, Krauskopf was the Managing Director of League Development for Media Sports Partnership, Limited in Dallas, Tex. From 1990 to 1994, she was Assistant Commissioner for the Southwest Conference. In addition to overseeing league marketing, she was the chief administrator for all eight women's sports programs in the conference. She served from 1986 to 1990 as Texas A&M's Assistant Athletic Director for Women's Sports/Marketing.

Krauskopf has served on committees for the Women's Sports Foundation, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, Citizenship for Sports Alliance, and Texas A&M's Lettermen's Association Board of Directors. She currently serves on the Indiana Sports Corporation Presidents Council.

Recently, she was part of the Local Organizing Committee that hosted the 2011 NCAA Women's Final Four at Consecro Fieldhouse where she proudly watched her alma mater win its first national championship in women's basketball.

A 1983 graduate of Texas A&M University with a bachelor of arts degree in journalism, she was a three-year letterwinner in basketball for the Lady Aggies after transferring from Stephen F. Austin University where she played her freshman year under legendary coach Sue Gunter.

PACERS SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT EXECUTIVE STAFF

JIM MORRIS
PRESIDENT

Jim Morris is in his fourth year with Pacers Sports & Entertainment, his third as the franchise's president.

Morris joined PS&E in 2007 as a Special Advisor to then CEO/President Donnie Walsh and was named President, April 16, 2008. Prior to joining the Pacers, Morris has had a career that has been successful, both professionally and philanthropically. A graduate of Indiana University with a master's degree from Butler University, Morris has spent much of his life in Indianapolis in a variety of key positions. He started with American Fletcher National Bank in 1965 after graduating from IU and from 1967-73 served under former Mayor Richard G. Lugar as chief of staff. He then went to the Lilly Endowment, serving as its president from 1984-88 and from 1989-2002, he was the chairman and chief executive officer for IWC Resources Corporation and Indianapolis Water Company.

Before joining PS&E, Morris was the executive director for five years for the United Nations World Food Programme (WFP) where he oversaw the world's largest humanitarian agency. That rewarding position took him to many oppressed parts of the world as he worked on behalf of the hungry poor, particularly children.

Morris has received many honors, including 16 honorary degrees, throughout his life in recognition for service, particularly in the city of Indianapolis. He has also served on numerous boards and committees – including the chairman of the Indiana University Board of Trustees, treasurer of the United States Olympic Committee and a member of the Board of Governors of the American Red Cross – devoting countless hours to various causes. His interests reflect this: community development, core city revitalization; enhancing opportunities for young people, especially those at-risk; developing world issues; building a sense of community; fund-raising; philanthropy; and the independent sector.

Morris is married to Jackie and they have three children and seven grandchildren.

LARRY BIRD
PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

As a player, Larry Bird was driven to win. As a coach, he was driven to win. Now in his role as the Indiana Pacers' President of Basketball Operations, Bird's steering wheel remains firmly in place.

When Bird took the helm full time in the spring of 2008 after Donnie Walsh left for the New York Knicks, change was in the air. It started with the June, 2008, NBA draft when Bird orchestrated two trades that brought in seven new players and has continued through the draft, free agency and trades, including the summer of 2010 trade that brought point guard Darren Collison from New Orleans to the Pacers. The Pacers have missed the playoffs four straight years – after a run of nine straight and 16 of 17 years in the postseason – and the highly competitive Bird wanted a return . . . and more. In 2011, the Pacers did return to the playoffs, an important first step.

"The first goal is to get back in the playoffs and you do that by getting a core of players to build around," said Bird. "We've got good, young players and an All-Star in Danny Granger who should all get better. It will take time, I know it's going to be tough. I think I know how to do most of it. Hopefully, we can get back to the NBA Finals again. That's our goal. Right now, it's not to win a championship, but to get to the Finals and give ourselves an opportunity to win."

Bird certainly knows how to win with a resume to back it up. The Hoosier basketball legend (he was born in West Baden, Ind., 12/7/1956) was an Indiana All-Star after playing at Springs Valley High School. He played collegiately at Indiana State and in his senior year, led the Sycamores to an undefeated season and the NCAA championship game before losing to Magic Johnson and Michigan State. That season, Bird was the College Player of the Year. His storied success led to him being named one of Indiana's 50 Greatest Basketball Players in 1999.

Then, in 13 seasons as a professional with Boston, he was named the NBA's 1980 Rookie of the Year; was a 12-time NBA All-Star; three-time NBA MVP; helped lead the Celtics to three world championships, winning two NBA Finals MVP awards; won an Olympic gold medal in 1992 as part of the United States' "Dream Team"; was named one of the NBA's 50 Greatest Players in 1996; and was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1998. This summer, Bird entered the Hall of Fame again as the 1992 "Dream Team" was inducted.

After his playing career, Bird's next challenge was coaching and he succeeded at that as well. In three seasons with the Pacers, he led them to a 147-67 record, winning Coach of the Year honors in 1998 and leading the team to its first-ever NBA Finals appearance in 2000. The Pacers reached the Conference Finals in all three of his seasons, winning two Central Division championships and in 1998, Bird earned Eastern Conference All-Star coaching honors. He returned to the franchise July 11, 2003, in his current role, driven to win again. "I'm in this to win championships and that's the bottom line."

In his role with the Pacers, Bird oversees the basketball operations of the franchise, from the coaches to budgeting to player personnel to scouting to contract negotiations to the training staff.

Walsh, the former Pacers CEO/President said, "I think this is going to be the beginning of a new era in Pacers basketball. I think he is the perfect person to be here in Indiana, to take this team forward for the long haul. It has always been my dream, that when I gave up my job, that there's a guy in place who can take this franchise and keep it at a very high level. And I think Larry can do that."

Added Bird, "This is my home state, this is the place I wanted to do it. I just want to win basketball games. I want to help the Pacers get to the places they've never been before."

From the day he stepped into the front office, Bird seemed to have an impact. Together with Walsh, they decided in the summer of 2003 to not have Coach Isiah Thomas return for the final year of his contract. They tapped Rick Carlisle to replace Thomas. Carlisle, a former assistant with Bird when he was coach of the Pacers, had led Detroit to two 50-win seasons, two Central Division championships and earned a Coach of the Year honor in 2002 before being fired by the Pistons. He was Bird's obvious, and first, choice to step in. It was his first major move.

The result was a milestone season for the Pacers in 2003-04. They set franchise records for victories (61), winning percentage (.744), road victories in their NBA history (27) and won the Central Division Championship. They also reached the Eastern Conference Finals before bowing to eventual World Champion Detroit, four games to two. In 2004-05, the Pacers returned to the playoffs and reached the Eastern Conference Semifinals. They had a 44-38 record despite a season where they lost players for 309 games due to injury or illness and another 126 due to suspension.

Then in 2005-06, the Pacers finished with a 41-41 record, despite having 236 games lost due to injury. Still, they made the playoffs again.

Despite setbacks since then, the Pacers didn't step back, they have looked ahead. That's Bird's way.

Stepping into a situation and making the most of it isn't new to Bird. In his first year as coach, he took over a veteran team that had missed the playoffs the previous season. For the third time in the previous five seasons, the Pacers reached Game 7 of the Eastern Conference Finals, this time extending the World Champion Chicago Bulls. Coming into the playoffs, the Pacers not only made the NBA pay attention, they made franchise history at the time. They had 58 victories, the most since joining the NBA in 1976; their .707 winning percentage was the best in the Pacers' history, including their storied ABA days; they were 26-15 on the road, a franchise NBA best, and had the best road record of any Eastern Conference team. The Pacers amazingly didn't lose two straight games in the regular season after December 10, and through the All-Star break, the Pacers had the best record in the East, thus earning Bird All-Star coaching honors.

The next season, the Pacers won the Central Division and reached the Eastern Conference Finals. In 2000, there was another Central Division championship and the trip to the NBA Finals.

Bird then, as he promised at the beginning, stepped away from coaching after three seasons. Three years later, Walsh called again and Bird came back home again to Indiana.

Bird is married to Dinah. He has three children, Corrie, Connor and Mariah. He is an avid golfer and outdoorsman, while enjoying country music and auto racing.

RICK FUSON
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Since joining the Pacers' organization in 1984, Rick Fuson has been influential in shaping events within Market Square Arena, Conesco Fieldhouse and many other events elsewhere in Indianapolis.

A graduate of Indiana University and a life-long resident of Indianapolis, he joined the staff of Market Square Arena in 1984 as director of special events and was promoted the following year to vice president. Fuson helped oversee the Pacers' move to Conesco Fieldhouse in September 2000. He was promoted to Executive Senior Vice President of Pacers Sports & Entertainment in November 2001. Rick was named Chief Operating Officer in April 2008. In his current role, Fuson is responsible for operation of all aspects of the business and facilities elements of Pacers Sports & Entertainment.

Through the years, Fuson has been active in pursuing major events for Conesco Fieldhouse and the City of Indianapolis. In the past, he was a member of the Executive Committee for the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships and served as chairman for the opening ceremonies. He was co-chairman of special events for the 1991, 1997 and 2000 NCAA Final Four, served on the Local Organizing Committee for the 2006 and 2010 NCAA Final Fours as well as the 2011 NCAA Women's Final Four, hosted at Conesco Fieldhouse. He produced the opening ceremonies of the 2001 World Police & Fire Games and the closing ceremonies of the Pan American Games in 1987. Fuson also served on the Local Organizing Committee for the 2002, 2004, 2006, 2008-2011 Big Ten Basketball Championships, 2002 FIBA World Basketball Championships, and 2004 FINA World Swimming Championship. He is currently serving on the 2012 Super Bowl Committee.

Throughout his career, he has received such honors as Recipient of the Indianapolis Ambassadors 1988 Community Service Award, Indianapolis Business Journal's "Who's Who in Hospitality", "Who's Who in Sports" and "Forty Under Forty." He has also been active with the Indianapolis Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the 1985 NBA All-Star weekend, the grand opening of the Indianapolis Zoo in 1988, the White River Park State Games and Indianapolis Downtown Space 2010.

Fuson is a professional member of the International Association of Assembly Managers. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for Indianapolis Downtown, Inc. and Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce. He also is a member of the executive committee of the Indiana Sports Corporation and Pacers Foundation.

Rick has three children and one grandchild: Amy, Emily, Matthew & Jackson.

DAVID MORWAY
GENERAL MANAGER

David Morway just completed his 12th season with the Pacers and his third as the team's General Manager.

Morway joined the franchise in February, 1999. He previously was the Senior Vice President of Basketball Operations and was responsible for the day-to-day operation and administration of the Basketball Division. As General Manager, he retains those duties and will also oversee salary cap issues and assist Basketball President Larry Bird in personnel decisions.

"I'm very happy to have David by my side," said Bird. "This newly-expanded role maximizes David's skills and experience and I'm confident we have the knowledge and resources to get the Pacers to the level we expect, our owners expect and our fans expect."

Morway has a vast sports background. He served as Assistant to the President for the San Diego Padres from 1985-88, where he was involved in contract analysis and negotiation. He also designed and implemented programs in player relations, team employee assistance and customer relations.

From 1988-95, Morway started and was President of Professional Excellence Sports, Inc. (Pro Ex), a sports management firm. Morway represented more than 75 clients, including David Benoit, Ed Gray, former Pacers' player Micheal Williams, as well as Junior Seau, Darren Woodson, Chris Naeole and Tony Clark.

Pro Ex was incorporated into DSM International in 1995 and Morway remained with the company until 1998. A 1982 graduate of the University of Arizona, Morway also has a law degree from the University of San Diego. He is married to Karen and they have two sons, Robbie and Michael.

PACERS SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT EXECUTIVE STAFF

KEVIN BOWER SR. VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Kevin Bower is in his ninth year with Pacers Sports & Entertainment as the organization's Senior Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer.

Bower came to PS&E in January 2002 from Jarden Corporation, a publicly traded manufacturer and distributor of other materials based products including injection molded and thermoformed plastic parts, zinc strip and fabricated parts including coin blanks. He spent nine years at Jarden and most recently served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Bower started his career in 1980 with Schneider & Shuster, a locally-based public accounting firm in Denver, Colo. After five years in Denver he returned to Indiana where he continued his career in public accounting with Price Waterhouse.

Bower, 52, was born in Fort Wayne, Ind., and grew up in South Bend, Ind. He attended Bentley University in Waltham, Mass., on a basketball scholarship and graduated with a BS in accounting. He is married to Maureen and they have three children, Erin, Megan and Kevin.

Bower is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Indiana CPA Society. He is on the Boards of Pacers Foundation, the St.Vincent Foundation and the Rotary Club of Indianapolis. In his spare time, he enjoys reading, golf and traveling.

Rick Fuson (since 1984) has served longer on the PS&E staff than any other senior executive.

JULIE GRAUE
 VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Beginning her 10th season with the Indiana Fever, Julie Graue has managed business operations for the franchise since 2005. She was promoted to Vice President for Business Operations following the 2006 season. Graue manages the day-to-day management of all Fever business matters including ticket sales, sponsorship sales, promotions and community relations.

She also provides oversight on Fever marketing efforts.

In 2001, she joined the Fever organization as a sales manager. She managed sales accounts, ticket pricing and the development of ticket packages for all individual and corporate accounts. She oversaw all Fever sales campaigns and ticket-related events, and was named director of Fever ticket sales in October 2004.

She came to the organization after a 12-year stint with Ambassador Travel Club. She served in a variety of roles including her capacity as advertising sales manager for the airline's in-flight magazine, Journey Magazine, before she joined the Fever. During her tenure with Ambassador, she also managed tour operations and helped in the development of new tours and products.

Graue is a 1989 graduate of Ball State University where she completed her undergraduate degree in public relations. Born and raised in Greensburg, Ind., she has been an active participant in sports all of her life – taking part in basketball, volleyball, softball, track and tennis.

Graue married her husband Geoff in November 2003, and the couple has a daughter, Sierra (5). A resident of Noblesville, Ind., she is an active member of Woman's Life Chapter 611 and serves on the committee for the Women Like Us tea and speaker series. She also is a volunteer mentor for the Common Goal Task Force, an initiative of the Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce to help raise high school graduation rates in Marion County.

KEVIN MESSENGER
 MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Kevin Messenger is in his ninth year as the Fever's director of media relations, responsible for all duties related to the team's publicity, media operations and public information. He also serves as a PR contact for Conseco Fieldhouse events including concerts, ice shows, circus and rodeo events, and high school and college sports events.

A native of Denver, Colo., he attended the University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif., before embarking on a career which included collegiate stints at UNLV, Indiana State, Pacific and Maryland. Most recently, he worked with the Maryland football and women's basketball teams in 1999 and 2000 before directing media efforts for three seasons with the Terrapins' nationally prominent men's basketball program.

While at Maryland, he worked in a media market comprising the Baltimore and Washington, D.C. metro areas - the largest media concentration of its kind among U.S. colleges. He twice attended the Final Four with the Terrapins' basketball team while working daily with local, regional and national media outlets.

A college sports information director dating to his college years in California, Messenger has worked with baseball, basketball, football, golf, soccer, water polo and volleyball teams during his career. He boasts distinction as having been a part of three NCAA championship teams - 1985 and 1986 Pacific women's volleyball, and 2002 Maryland men's basketball.

This is his second career stop in Indianapolis, having spent three years in Indy from 1995 to 1998, working with U.S. Water Polo and a professional indoor soccer franchise before making a return to college athletics.

Messenger received a bachelor's degree in communications from UOP in 1987. His professional career began as an assistant sports information director at UNLV in summer of 1987. He was hired as the SID at Indiana State University in 1989, and made a return to his alma mater for a four-year stint as SID from 1991-95.

ROBERTA COURTRIGHT
COMMUNITY RELATIONS & SPECIAL PROJECTS MANAGER

Entering her fifth season with the Fever, Roberta Courtright handles all day-to-day community efforts as the team's manager of community relations and special projects.

Courtright joined the Indiana franchise after two years with the Detroit Pistons and Detroit Shock, where she served a community relations internship in 2005 before acting as the Pistons' community relations auction manager during most of the 2006-07

NBA season.

A graduate of Aquinas College in her hometown of Grand Rapids, Mich., she was a member of the Aquinas softball team in 2001-02, and traveled with the U.S. Coast-to-Coast Softball Team, representing the United States in an international softball tournament in the Netherlands and Belgium. She graduated from Aquinas while majoring in business administration/sports management, and receiving a minor in coaching.

She also coached the Grand Rapids Christian High School softball team for four years, the same school from which she graduated and played softball. She served as a basketball statistician and volunteered with a variety of community programs when she was a student, and participated in an exchange student program by spending two weeks in Japan during 2000.

Courtright has been an active participant in the Big Brothers Big Sisters program since 2002.

FREDDY FEVER

The friendliest Fever fan of them all!

During Fever games, it's easy to pick out Fever fans of all shapes and sizes, but no one has the shape and size of the Fever's team mascot, Freddy Fever.

One of the top mascots in the WNBA, Freddy can be seen throughout Conseco Fieldhouse before, during and after Fever games. The lovable and huggable character is a fan favorite among children and adults. Freddy does it all – from dancing, riding goofy scooters, aggravating officials, performing hysterical skits and much more. He keeps fans laughing from tipoff to the final buzzer.

Freddy certainly has the ability to tickle anyone's funny bone, but there's also a softer and lovable side to him. Freddy loves the Fever's fans and enjoys interacting with fans on a one-on-one basis and in groups. Freddy is often involved in numerous charitable efforts throughout the Indianapolis community. His schedule is hectic year round, but he wouldn't have it any other way.

In addition to being at every Fever game, Freddy is also available for birthday parties, corporate events and other similar-type events. For more information about Freddy, or to book the biggest Fever fan for your next event, call (317) 917-2500.

INFERNO DANCE TEAM

Since the Indiana Fever hit the hardwood in the summer of 2000, the Fever Inferno has been right by the team's side. This exciting, energetic and enthusiastic group of young males and females has evolved into one of the WNBA's best hip-hop dance squads!

Coordinated and choreographed by former Pacemate Michelle Duggan, the Inferno is made up of a diverse group of young dancers that provide energetic entertainment during timeouts of Fever home games. Explosive tumbling and high-energy hip-hop dance routines are performed during every Fever home game. These youngsters are definitely fan favorites. Watch them once and you're hooked on their energy.

Along with performing at Fever home games, the Inferno makes appearances throughout the spring and summer months. The dance team joins the Fever players, coaches and front office staff on various community events.

For more information on the Inferno, or to schedule an appearance at your next event, call (317) 917-2500.

A former member of the Pacemates, Michelle Duggan is in her fourth year as director and choreographer for the Inferno.

FEVER BROADCASTERS

CHRIS DENARI
RADIO AND TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

Chris Denari enters his 12th season as the Fever's radio and television play-by-play announcer after being named the Voice of the Fever on April 28, 2000. He has called the action in virtually every game in Fever history.

Involved in broadcasting sports in Indianapolis for 27 years, Denari was named the Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association 2004

Broadcaster of the Year.

Denari also serves as the television play-by-play announcer for the NBA's Indiana Pacers, which he has done for the past five seasons. He most recently was the Sports Director at WXIN-TV Fox 59 in Indianapolis. With his move to Pacers' TV, he ended his 17-year association as the radio play-by-play voice of Butler University basketball. He called five of Butler's recent NCAA Tournament appearances, including the Bulldogs' first trip to the Sweet Sixteen in 2003.

He is a member of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Radio Network and has also been a member of the Indianapolis Colts Radio Network. He also previously worked for Pacers' TV as a locker room reporter and was the television play-by-play voice for the Indiana High School Athletic Association's state championship events.

A 1979 graduate of Westfield (Ind.) High School, he played basketball for his father, Bob. He graduated from Wabash College in 1983, and was a member of the Little Giants' 1982 NCAA Division III National Championship basketball team.

Denari also serves on the board of directors for Special Olympics Indiana and as a spokesman for the Hamilton County Humane Society. He was recently named to the inaugural class of the Westfield High School Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame.

Denari and his wife, Terry, live in Carmel, Ind., with their sons Evan, Wilson and Max.

DEBBIE ANTONELLI
TELEVISION ANALYST

Debbie Antonelli is in her 10th season with the Fever broadcast team after spending four seasons as a Charlotte Sting broadcaster. She joins play-by-play announcer Chris Denari as the color analyst for each of the team's local television broadcasts.

Antonelli worked as an NBA analyst for select Charlotte Bobcats games last season, and she formerly covered WNBA games for three seasons on the Oxygen Network.

Antonelli's television resume includes: lead television analyst for the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big XII Conference, Southeastern Conference and CBS College Sports' coverage of women's basketball. Beginning in 2007-08, she teamed with the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and broadcast partner Beth Mowins to produce a 30-minute weekly podcast called "Shootaround with Beth and Debbie," dedicated to women's college basketball.

Antonelli has worked NCAA tournament games for ESPN and has worked as the radio analyst for the national syndication of the CBS/NCAA Radio Network for the past 15 NCAA Women's Final Fours. She worked as a sideline reporter for CBS Sports during the 2000 Men's NCAA Tournament, and for the past 10 years, she has been a part of CBS Sports' women's basketball tripleheader coverage each January.

Before joining the broadcast team in Charlotte, Antonelli served as a FOX Sports Net national television analyst during the American Basketball League's first three seasons and was the analyst for the ABL's Columbus Quest regional television package.

Prior to her broadcasting career, Antonelli spent four years as the Director of Marketing for the University of Kentucky, and four more in a similar capacity at Ohio State University. She spent five years as the television analyst for the Ohio State women's basketball team and prior to that, she spent three years as the TV analyst for the Dayton Flyers men's basketball team.

Antonelli was a three-year starter at guard for North Carolina State where she helped guide the Wolfpack to four NCAA tournament appearances and two Sweet 16 appearances. The Cary, N.C., native graduated with a double major in business management and economics. She went on to earn her master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, where she also served as the graduate assistant women's basketball coach.

Antonelli, her husband, Frank and their three sons, Joey, Frankie and Patrick reside in Mt. Pleasant, S.C.

KEVIN LEE
RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Kevin Lee is in his 12th season covering the Fever and his 16th season as the host of the Pacers radio network where he handles pregame, halftime and postgame shows.

In addition to handling radio play-by-play duties during all Fever TV games, he is the sideline reporter for the Indianapolis Colts radio network, and a pit reporter for the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Radio Network and Versus, covering the IndyCar Series and Indy Lights. Lee also hosts a weekly racing show on 1070 The Fan.

Lee has called play-by-play for the Indiana High School Athletic Association Radio Network and has served as a television and radio announcer for Ball State University sports.

Lee, a graduate of Indianapolis' Ben Davis High School and Ball State University, lives with his wife Stacey, and their children Jackson and Savannah, in Avon.

2011 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
FEVER IN THE COMMUNITY

CORE PURPOSE

At Pacers Sports & Entertainment, our Core Purpose is Winning Championships & Serving Community.

MISSION

Our mission is to promote the development and well being of youth and families within our community through Fever Cares, with a particular focus on Education, Service & Health. We support this mission by providing the practical tools necessary to enrich the lives of our community and develop and implement resourceful and valuable programs that contribute directly to our Core Purpose.

VALUES

We will support our Core Purpose and Mission by focusing on four core values: Teamwork, Commitment, Pride and Respect.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

To support our Core Purpose and Mission, Pacers Sports & Entertainment's goals and objectives include:

1. Stimulate love of learning and reading in young people by providing them with access to books & technology.
2. Engage in community partnerships to continue to bring public awareness to the value of education & literacy.
3. Support the efforts of those in our community who serve the needs of others and increase youth participation in community service activities.
4. Increase ways to recognize those involved in community service activities and develop a community where the passion for serving is turned into action.
5. Promote wellness & fitness as a way of life.
6. Target and address issues facing today's youth.

Questions on how to become involved with your favorite Fever activity may be directed to Roberta Courtright, Fever Community Relations & Special Projects Manager, at rcourtright@feverbasketball.com, or by calling (317) 917-2500.

EDUCATION

READ TO ACHIEVE

Read to Achieve serves as the NBA/WNBA's and its teams' primary community activity and harnesses all of professional basketball's best assets to impact one of the most pressing issues our society faces. The program promotes the value of reading and online literacy while encouraging families and adults to read regularly with young children.

The goals of this initiative are to build a lifelong love of reading in young people by providing greater access to books and technology; encourage and engage members of the NBA/WNBA family including current & former players, league and team personnel, coaches and parents to participate in the program as a Volunteer Reading Coach and to use all of the NBA/WNBA assets to create ongoing public awareness of this initiative through courtside signage, PSA's, NBA.com and WNBA.com TV presence and events around the league.

At the local level, the Indiana Fever Read to Achieve Program is composed of Monthly Reading Time-Outs during the WNBA season and a Read to Achieve Tip Off.

Reading Time-Outs

As a component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Fever presents reading timeouts throughout the WNBA season. (May – August). Special guest readers include members of the Indiana Fever, Freddy Fever and the Fever Inferno. Guest readers read students selected children's stories from large oversized books. Students participating in the Fever reading timeouts have the opportunity to win Fever prizes including books, autographed items and game tickets! Each visit is approximately one hour in length.

Read To Achieve Tipoff

A component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever host a Read to Achieve Tip-off prior to the each team's season.

The Fever tip-off the season with a large Read to Achieve Tip-off event, events such as Reading Pep-Rallies at a local school and events held at The Children's Museum of Indianapolis.

Each child in attendance receives a book, Fever items, a ticket to the Fever home opener and the opportunity to win Fever autographed memorabilia.

Bounce Back To School

A component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Fever Bounce Back to School Attendance Program was created to both recognize and maintain good attendance practices in our young fans throughout the state of Indiana.

Simply by attending classes on the first day of the school's 2011-12 academic year, students qualify to participate in the program and will receive (1) a complimentary ticket to an upcoming Fever game at Conseco Fieldhouse, (2) special in-game recognition of schools with participating students and (3) additional lower level tickets at a discounted rate for parents, friends and family.

Indiana Fever Choices for Champions: Put Up Your Defense Against Bullying event will take place August 25 at 9:30 a.m.

FEVER IN THE COMMUNITY

PROLIANCE ENERGY BACKPACK ATTACK

A component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Fever & Proliance Energy helps support the Backpack Attack. Since 1999, Backpack Attack has collected more than 2.1 million school supplies for children in the Indianapolis Public Schools (IPS) as well as other schools in Marion, Boone, Hancock and Hendricks counties.

The Indiana Fever and Proliance Energy teams up to host this event at the Fever game before school begins. Fans donate school supply items, and in return receive a FREE Pepsi product. In addition, employees of each organization host internal collections to help support the effort.

FEVER READING AND LEARNING CENTER

As part of the Indiana Fever Education Initiative, the Fever, WNBA and Toyota sponsored a Fever Reading and Learning Center renovation for the 2009 WNBA Finals as part of the Toyota Project Rebound Program.

The Fever Reading and Learning Center provides books and technological resources to kids at the Boys and Girls Club of Indianapolis Lilly Unit to implement the WNBA's national reading initiative, Read to Achieve, at the local level. This center also provides a fun place to learn and do homework.

Toyota Project Rebound

Now in its third season, Toyota Project Rebound is a community initiative established by the NBA and Toyota. To date the program has created over 50 hands-on community service projects all hosted by NBA, WNBA and D-League teams, which include court refurbishments, the creation of Learn & Play Centers, and other Legacy Projects providing youth safe places to live, learn or play. The Toyota Project Rebound contest (formerly Court of Dreams) will be the 7th season for this ticket-based incentive program for local community groups.

IPS VALUES FOR LIFE CELEBRATION

In partnership with Indianapolis Public Schools, the Pacers and Fever host the IPS Values for Life Celebration at Consecro Fieldhouse.

The purpose of this celebration is to recognize & encourage the over 8,000 students who demonstrate Indianapolis Public Schools Four Core Values of Excellence, Scholarship, Respect and Courage.

The 2011 celebration included appearances from Dr. Eugene White, Superintendent of Public Schools, Pacers COO Rick Fuson, Indianapolis Mayor Greg Ballard, Pacers players Dahntay Jones, A.J. Price, Lance Stephenson and Fever player Shyra Ely. Students were welcomed to Consecro Fieldhouse by 100 Best Buy volunteers cheering their success and music from the Northwest vs. Arlington High School drumlines. In addition, students were treated to a variety of entertainment from Boomer's Dunk Show, Radio Disney and the Chicago Boyz! All students in attendance received an IPS Values for Life T-shirt and tickets to an Indiana Fever game.

SERVICEWELL DUNN AWARD

As part of Pacers Sports & Entertainment's Citizenship Initiative the Indiana Fever and head coach Lin Dunn recognize Indiana citizens who have done well in the community at five of the Fever home games through the Well Dunn Award presented by Harrison College. Everyday Indiana citizens make an overwhelming impact on the lives of others and make lasting contributions to our community and our state.

Each award recipient receives four tickets to a Fever home game, where they are recognized during a special on-court presentation. In addition, each recipient also receives a special memento and commemorative photo.

KROGER BALL EXCHANGE

As part of the Kroger Ball Exchange, each Fever home game the Indiana Fever and Kroger allow 11 children to receive an autographed basketball from an Indiana Fever player during the player introductions. In addition, each child receives a Kroger Ball Exchange t-shirt.

FEVER FRIENDS

In partnership with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Indiana, the Fever match young boys and girls with an adult mentor to attend Fever games throughout the season. Through this program, Fever players interact with kids and serve as role models. Fever Friends, which started during the inaugural Fever season, partnered exclusively with Big Sisters of Indiana prior to 2003. Since the Big Brothers and Big Sisters programs merged, the Fever began hosting boys and girls.

GO GREEN

As part of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment Citizenship Initiative and WNBA Go Green Initiative, the Fever hold a Go Green Night to raise awareness and educate fans about making greener decisions. Consecro Fieldhouse, Indiana Pacers, Indiana Fever and the Pacers Foundation are leading by examples being committed to making greener decisions.

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment.

The 2011 WNBA Go Green game will be held on Saturday, June 25 against Connecticut at 7:00 p.m.

2011 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
FEVER IN THE COMMUNITY

SEASON OF GIVING

As part of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment's Citizenship Initiative, the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever celebrate a "Season of Giving" during the year with a variety of community outreach efforts throughout the month to give back to the community that has given so much to us.

The 2010-11 Season of Giving included events such as the "Come to Our House" Thanksgiving Dinner, Children's Hospital Visits, Catch the Holiday Fever and Shop with a Pacer.

CATCH THE HOLIDAY FEVER CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Catch the Holiday Fever Christmas Program, presented by Pacers Sports & Entertainment and Tamika Catchings' Catch The Stars Foundation culminates in a special Christmas party prior to a Pacers game in December. Approximately 100 children from families selected by the United Christmas Services of United Way of Central Indiana are sponsored by PS&E and Catch the Stars Foundation. At the Christmas Party the children open their gifts, receive goodie bags and special visits from Indiana Fever star Tamika Catchings and, of course, Santa Claus! Each family is a guest of the Pacers home game.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL VISITS

As part of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment Community Spirit Initiative, members of the Indiana Pacers team, Indian Fever and coaching staff, including mascots Boomer and Bowser, along with members of the Indiana Pacemates, visit area children's hospitals to help lift the spirits of those children and their families.

Hospital visits include the Peyton Manning Children's Hospital at St. Vincent, Riley Children's Hospital, Community Hospital North and Methodist Children's Hospital.

In 2009 the Indiana Pacers once again teamed up with Cheryl & Co. for the hospital visits, where each patient received a Boomer or Bowser plush doll, as well as a Pacers t-shirt and the opportunity to take a photo or get an autograph from their favorite player or Pacemate. In addition, Cheryl & Co. provided a special batch of cookies to the children at each hospital.

PLAYERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The WNBA connects with fans of all ages through extensive community outreach. As the league marks the 15th season of the WNBA, the players continue to be recognized for their commitment and dedication to fans in cities across America. The WNBA has three primary community initiatives: WNBA Fit, Read to Achieve and Breast Health Awareness. In addition to these initiatives, the WNBA honors players who are active in their communities with the WNBA Community Assist Award presented four times a year.

COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARDS

Indiana is fortunate to have had a number of outstanding female role models on the Fever roster that make unbelievable efforts to give back to the fans and the community.

The Fever has consistently had players win the Community Assist Awards. Tamika Catchings has been an off-season recipient as well as a five-time winner of in-season awards. Other past winners include Katie Douglas, Niele Ivey, Nikki McCray, Kelly Schumacher and Natalie Williams. In all, Fever players have garnered WNBA Community Assist Awards on 12 occasions.

Catchings won the inaugural Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award in 2007 for her work around Indiana and with her own Catch the Stars Foundation. The award signifies a WNBA player who is an excellent personal role model to younger children.

PS&E COMMUNITY SERVICE DAYS

This program is meant to emphasize one of the Core Purposes of PS&E – Serving Community by organizing four days per year when we "Outreach Together" as a company.

This program builds upon the work of the Community Relations Department and the Pacers Foundation. It allows employees to contribute in a real and consistent way to our community and brings the company together in a positive way to help others within our community.

Since its inception in 2008, the staff of PS&E has contributed to organizations that include Creston Middle School, Danville Middle School, IPS #27, Triton Central Elementary & Middle School, Gleaners Food Bank, Second Helpings, Wheeler Mission, the Julian Center, Fay Biccard Glick Neighborhood Center and the Catch the Stars Foundation.

DONATIONS

As part of Pacers Sports & Entertainment's Citizenship initiative, the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever provide donations to events & fundraisers for non-profit organizations. Donation requests for an Indiana Fever item can be made at www.fevermvp.com/donate.

COMMUNITY TICKET BLOCKS

Kids love going to a professional sports event. For many of our kids, at risk or not, they might never get a chance to see the Pacers or Fever in action. A night out with a chaperone and a group of friends lets them see on-court athletic achievement. And it might just turn out to be instructive about the benefits of determination and perseverance.

All we know is that the kids have fun and laugh and let us into their lives for a night. And for us, that's a good start.

Our Community Ticket Block Program is open to all non-profit organizations. To request complimentary tickets through this program, you must provide your Tax ID #. Each season you must resubmit an online application form. Ticket donation requests can be made at www.fevermvp.com/tickets.

Tamika Catchings was the first winner of the Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award.

HEALTH

GET FEVER FIT

As part of PS&E's Health Initiative and WNBA Fit program the Get Fever Fit program presented by Kroger holds monthly Get Fever Fit clinics throughout the WNBA season. In these clinics, Fever coaches, players and/or Fever staff teach proper exercise techniques, show how being active can be fun with basketball drills and teach about healthy living styles including eating and exercise habits. These clinics are normally about one hour in length and vary in amount of children depending on gym size.

WNBA Fit

The WNBA will embrace its responsibility as the preeminent women's professional sports league with powerful role models to continue to deliver important messages and program related to the areas of health, fitness, nutrition and self esteem. WNBA Fit encourages teens and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

As part of PS&E's Health Initiative and WNBA Breast Health Awareness Initiative, the Indiana Fever hosts a special Breast Health Awareness Night presented by Community Health Network at a select Fever game.

During this special game, the Fever concentrates on bringing awareness to breast cancer. In conjunction with this promotion, the Fever conducts a health fair in Conseco Fieldhouse where several organizations distribute educational materials about breast cancer. Pink ribbons and other giveaways are distributed, and breast cancer survivors are recognized during the pregame ball exchange.

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. More than $2 million was raised by the WNBA, its players and teams to help fight breast cancer through Breast Health Awareness programs.

The 2011 Fever Breast Health Awareness Game presented by Community Health Network will be held on Saturday, August 13 vs. New York at 7:00 p.m. Pink jerseys will be worn by the Fever players and auctioned off after the game in a live auction to raise money for the Community Breast Health Fund.

HEART HEALTHY NIGHT

As part of PS&E's Health Initiative, the Indiana Fever hosts Heart Healthy Night presented by Community Health Network at a select Fever game.

Heart Healthy Night encourages women to learn more about heart health, and raises awareness of the risks of heart disease in women.

A cardiologist from The Indiana Heart Hospital conducts a pregame seminar about heart health, and a Heart Health Fair is offered on the Main Concourse where fans can have their blood pressure tested among other screenings and public information opportunities.

The 2010 Heart Healthy Night Game presented by Community Health Network will be held on Friday, June 10 vs. New York at 7:00 p.m.

CHOICES FOR CHAMPIONS

The Indiana Fever Choices for Champions program returns for a third season. On August 25, the Fever will welcome local celebrities and community programs, along with Fever players, to talk about making healthy choices in life. Main topics will include bullying, building healthy relationships, "it's ok to be different," and Internet safety.

Those interested in the program may contact a Fever representative at (317) 917-2528.

FEVER FOR RESPECT

The Indiana Fever and Choose Respect have joined forces to implement Fever for Respect within middle school curriculums. Choose Respect is an initiative that encourages young men and women to make every effort in forming healthy and respectful relationships with one another. It is founded on the research maintained by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). These relationships are especially important as young people get older and begin dating. Since 2007, the CDC has worked with the WNBA to promote this initiative to young fans. The Fever also works locally with INCASA to bring the "choose respect" message to Indiana youth.

PACERS YOUTH BASKETBALL

The Pacers Youth Basketball program is a community-wide initiative of the Indiana Pacers, the Indiana Fever and Pacers Sports & Entertainment which solidifies PS&E as a leader in supporting youth basketball in Indiana. With a vision toward the future, it is geared primarily toward youth ages 4 to 18. The program provides a long-term commitment to help provide structure, organization and teamwork to youth programs by offering a direct association with the local pro basketball team; lending playing and coaching expertise with 1-on-1 interaction; and providing an easier and enhanced opportunity to participate in Pacers and Fever events.

2011 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
PACERS FOUNDATION, INC.

Behind every statistic is a story about a kid, at-risk of going under, who needs help. From abuse to obesity to drugs, Indiana's kids face tremendous obstacles. That is why the Pacers Foundation gets involved early and often. We fund programs that teach kids how to make winning life choices.

Pacers Foundation has contributed millions of dollars in contributions, community partnerships, scholarships and tickets to Pacers and Fever games.

But there is still a lot of work to be done. We need your help to assist our neediest communities and give Indiana's at-risk kids a winning shot in life.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

We give communities the power to change by partnering with community-based organizations and corporations. These partnerships enable us to leverage your donations for greater impact.

Pacers Foundation partnered with the Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce to support Common Goal, a program designed to raise the Marion County high school graduation rate to 80 percent by 2012. The Pacers Foundation contributed $500,000 toward this effort. When achieved, Marion County public schools will be among the top-performing urban schools in the nation.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships help our communities. By focusing on kids who show promise in community service and academics, we are able to turn kids into future leaders. Their positive decisions have brought them this far. But they still need encouragement. And we provide that with two exceptional scholarships.

Be Outstanding: Team Up Scholarship presented by Veolia Water

In conjunction with corporate sponsorship, we recognize Indiana high school seniors for their outstanding service to the community.

Be an Achiever: Linda Craig Memorial Scholarship presented by St. Vincent Sports Medicine

Awarded to deserving undergraduate students enrolled in an Indiana college or university. We target students majoring in medicine or a related discipline who have completed at least four semesters.

BE A PART OF THE SOLUTION

We are not a traditional corporate foundation, supported solely by our corporate parent. We strongly believe that helping Indiana's youth make winning life choices requires all of us in the community to do our part. Therefore, we invite you to join us in this effort by making a financial contribution to Pacers Foundation and/or volunteering your time to help the non-profits we fund. In our view, the community's greatest challenges necessitate the community's best solutions. Join us and be part of the solution.

INDIANA FEVER BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Members of the Fever team and coaching staff serve up strikes at an annual bowling tournament which benefits the Be YOUUnique Fund. Fever sponsors, season ticket holders and fans are treated to a night of bowling fun, pizza a silent auction and autographs from the Fever team and other celebrities.

The 2010 tournament raised nearly $13,000 for the Be YOUUnique Fund of the Pacers Foundation.

The 2011 event will be conducted August 3 at 6:30 p.m. at Pinheads in Fishers.

The Fever's annual bowling tournament has become a centerpiece among the franchise's many community events.

WNBA IN THE COMMUNITY

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

NBA/WNBA FIT

The NBA/WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families through grassroots programs and events, and products related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. In cooperation with well-established health and wellness organizations, NBA/WNBA FIT informs, educates and engages children and families in healthy living practices.

DRIBBLE TO STOP DIABETES

Launched in January 2011, the 'Dribble to Stop Diabetes' campaign raises awareness of the American Diabetes Association's "Stop Diabetes" movement and addresses an important piece of diabetes care and prevention – physical fitness. The program will be aimed at using the simple and fun activity of dribbling a basketball as a way to promote healthy, active lifestyles and diabetes awareness, prevention and management during in-arena team nights.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

Launched in February 2009, Vaccines for Teens is a national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against meningitis, flu and pertussis. Press events are hosted by WNBA teams and joined by the Society of Adolescent Health and Medicine, sanofi pasteur and the NBA league office (including NBA Legend Bob Lanier). WNBA Legend Lisa Leslie is a campaign spokesperson.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

JAMBA JUICE

In partnership with Jamba Juice, WNBA FIT will highlight both companies' commitment to promoting fitness/healthy nutrition through joint promotional activities with WNBA teams.

WNBA READ TO ACHIEVE

The Read to Achieve campaign is a program that values reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations.

COKE LIVE POSITIVELY CLINICS

In partnership with Coke, WNBA Cares will host five WNBA FIT Live Positively Clinics in priority markets. These fitness clinics will be led by Players or Legends, for more than 75 youth.

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness initiative is celebrated each year by the Fever with a game to raise funds for cancer research.

HEAD COACH LIN DUNN

The fourth head coach in Indiana Fever history, Lin Dunn is regarded as one of the most successful women's basketball coaches in history. Well-chronicled as one of the nation's foremost pioneers of women's basketball and one of its most prominent coaches and leaders, she has been a proven winner at both the college and pro levels, evidenced by three hall of fame inductions in 2010.

Dunn's coaching career preceded the passing of Title IX legislation in the 1970s. Her storied career includes trips to the NCAA Final Four and the WNBA Finals. A native of Dresden, Tenn., she was named to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame on Feb. 19, 2010. She was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame on April 24, 2010. She was inducted into her alma mater's athletics hall of fame at UT-Martin on Oct. 16, 2010.

A longtime college coach and former general manager and head coach of the Seattle Storm, Dunn returned to her position as head coach when she was named to guide the Fever on Dec. 12, 2007. Then the owner of 525 wins as a college and professional coach, Dunn shed the assistant title she had worn the previous four seasons in Indiana in order to return to the head coaching ranks.

After three seasons as head coach of the Fever, she now boasts 585 college and pro wins and back-to-back visits to the WNBA Playoffs. She entered the 2009 playoffs as coach of the East's top seeded team, eventually guiding the Fever to her first-ever appearance in a WNBA Finals championship series.

She was the runner-up in balloting for the WNBA's 2009 coach of the year award. After a summer with the WNBA's best record from June through August, and a franchise-record 22 regular season wins, Dunn brought Indiana within minutes of the championship that has eluded her through nine WNBA seasons since 2000.

Dunn built what became a championship team in Seattle and appeared in three WNBA Playoffs as a Fever assistant. The 2008 WNBA Playoffs, however, were her first as a WNBA head coach. Her second WNBA playoff stint culminated in one of the league's most watched and most dramatic Finals series as Dunn's Fever fell to the Phoenix Mercury in a decisive fifth game.

Dunn's coaching resume includes four decades of coaching at the highest levels – the past 10 years in the professional ranks, between stints in Portland, Seattle and Indiana. Prior to her four seasons as a Fever assistant, Dunn served as head coach and general manager of the Seattle Storm, operating the city's expansion franchise from 1999 to 2002.

Dunn served in a scouting capacity for the Fever and former coach Nell Fortner during the 2003 season, and was added to the Fever staff in 2004 – allowing her to remain close to her Tennessee roots. She completed four seasons as an assistant coach with the Fever, the final three which saw Indiana match its franchise record with identical 21-13 records.

Before joining the Fever, Dunn built the Storm by drafting eventual league MVP Lauren Jackson and 2002 NCAA Player of the Year Sue Bird. In her final year with the Storm, 2002, she guided Seattle to a 17-15 record and the club's first appearance in the WNBA Playoffs. Dunn was runner-up as the WNBA's Coach of the Year.

It was with the Storm, at Consecro Fieldhouse coincidentally, that she recorded her 500th coaching victory, when Seattle defeated the Fever, 74-71 in overtime, on June 4, 2001.

Dunn's first assignment in professional basketball came with a midseason phone call to take over the coaching reigns of the American Basketball League's Portland Power during its inaugural campaign in 1996-97. She won her first game on the same night she was introduced as the head coach. A year later, Dunn led the Power on a worst-to-first run that culminated with a 27-17 record and a Western Conference championship. The remarkable turnaround earned Dunn the ABL Coach of the Year honor while guiding such stars as DeLisha Milton-Jones, Sonja Henning, Elaine Powell and former Fever center and two-time ABL MVP Natalie Williams. Portland was in first place at 9-4 when the ABL ceased operations two days before Christmas in 1998.

Her tenure in Portland not only continued the coaching success she has achieved at every level of her career, but also enhanced her profile off the court. In the fledgling league that preceded the WNBA, Dunn's charisma helped the Power to achieve the largest marketing revenue in the ABL and its second-highest attendance.

She is perhaps best known as the architect of the Purdue University women's basketball program, guiding the Boilermakers for nine seasons (1988-96) and collecting three Big Ten conference titles. She led the Old Gold-and-Black to seven NCAA Tournaments, four Sweet Sixteen appearances and a trip to the Final Four in 1994. In nine years at Purdue, she earned a 206-68 (.752) record and catapulted the school among the elite women's basketball programs in the country. She still is the program's winningest coach.

Dunn coached and recruited three Kodak All-Americans, three Big Ten Players of the Year and two Big Ten Athletes of the Year. Future WNBA stars that emerged from her tenure at Purdue were Summer Erb, Ukari Figgs, Stacey Lovelace, Michelle VanGorp and former Fever star Stephanie White.

Since her collegiate coaching career began at Austin Peay in 1970, she put together a remarkable 25-year record that includes a .635 career winning percentage at four schools (447-257). She left three of those schools – Purdue, Miami and Austin Peay – as the winningest coach in program history.

On the national level, she served on USA Basketball staffs for the 1992 Olympics and 1990 gold medal-winning World Championship and Goodwill Games teams. She was head coach of the 1995 bronze medal-winning USA Jones Cup team, and also served for eight years on the USA Basketball Team selection committee.

Prior to arriving in West Lafayette, she coached at Miami, Fla., from 1979-87. She posted a 149-119 (.556) record through eight seasons and was the first coach to award a scholarship to a women's basketball player. One of the last players she recruited, Frances Savage, was a Kodak All-American in 1992. She was named the Florida Coach of the Year in 1980-81.

After building a program at Austin Peay for five years, Dunn spent one season at Mississippi before taking the Miami job. She led the Rebels to a 25-15 record and a 12th-place finish at the AIAW National Tournament. Her club ended three-time national champion Delta State's 56-game winning streak and was named the Mississippi Coach of the Year.

Dunn also has earned induction into the athletic halls of fame at both Miami and Austin Peay. She served as chair of the Kodak All-America Selection Committee from 1982-88 and was president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in 1984-85.

Dunn earned a B.S. degree in health, physical education and English from Tennessee-Martin. A year later, she received an M.S. degree in physical education from Tennessee-Knoxville.

How about this for a little-known fact? Lin Dunn and Pat Summitt were sorority sisters during their undergraduate days at UT-Martin.

FEVER COACHING STAFF

GARY KLOPPENBURG
ASSISTANT COACH

Gary Kloppenburg enters his fourth season as a Fever assistant coach. He was re-united with Lin Dunn, with whom he served for three seasons on the staff of the Seattle Storm from 2000-02, when he joined the Fever staff in 2008. Since his arrival, he has helped Indiana to three straight playoff appearances while remaining one of the WNBA's top defensive units.

Regarded for his expertise on the defensive end of the floor, Kloppenburg was previously on the staff of the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats where he served with Bernie Bickerstaff for three seasons. He was hired by Bickerstaff when the Bobcats were founded in 2004 – continuing a family bond established when Bickerstaff was in college, and strengthened when Gary's father Bob coached in the NBA with Bickerstaff in Seattle and Denver.

Kloppenburg has coached at virtually every level of college and professional basketball, ranging from his beginnings at a California community college and intertwined with jobs in the NBA, WNBA, Continental Basketball Association and internationally.

STEPHANIE WHITE
ASSISTANT COACH

Stephanie White is in her first season as an assistant coach for the Indiana Fever. White, one of the original Fever players in 2000 and a member of the Fever's All-Decade Team announced in 2009, has coached in the college and pro ranks since 2003. She retired from the WNBA following the 2004 season.

White's hiring marks the first time the Fever has hired an assistant coach with pro playing experience. White is re-united with Fever Head Coach Lin Dunn, the former Purdue coach who recruited White to the West Lafayette campus. White shares assistant coaching duties with Gary Kloppenburg who is in his fourth year with the Fever.

Most recently, White spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Chicago Sky after previous stints as a college assistant at Ball State, Kansas State and Toledo. White also has parlayed her playing and coaching into a broadcasting career with the Big Ten Network and ESPN. She appears regularly on BTN's women's basketball studio show and provides game analysis for both networks.

"I am very pleased to have Stephanie back with our franchise," said Chief Operating Officer and General Manager Kelly Krauskopf, who executed a 1999 trade for White prior to the team's inaugural season. "I think she is one of the brightest young coaches in women's basketball. I knew that her high basketball IQ would transfer into coaching from her playing career. She will be a terrific addition to our staff."

"Stephanie is someone who is more than just a coach," said Dunn. "What makes her so very valuable is that she's not only had college and pro coaching experience, but she's a former player. She has been a winner all her life and she will make a very

Prior to joining the Bobcats' staff as an assistant coach and advance scout, he was an assistant with the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury for one season after three years with Dunn in Seattle. He worked for the NBA's Toronto Raptors from 1997-99 after two seasons as an assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel in the CBA – first with the Rockford Lightning and then for the Quad City Thunder. Kloppenburg was the interim head coach for four games in 1999-00 with Rockford where he coached former NBA star Earl Boykins.

In the summer of 1999, he was head coach for Panteras de Miranda of the Venezuelan Professional League, and he has conducted basketball clinics in Greece, Belgium, Iceland and Japan.

After graduating from UC San Diego in 1981, his coaching career began at Lassen Community College (Calif.) where he had successful stints as head coach with both the men's and women's teams. He guided the women's team for five seasons before taking over the men's program for six.

Also fluent in Spanish, Kloppenburg was born Jan. 6, 1953, and has three children – Sonja, Ian and Carlotta.

immediate and positive impact on our franchise. I am sure our Fever fans will be excited to welcome her back into the Fever family!"

After leading Purdue to a national championship in 1999 and being drafted by the Charlotte Sting, White was eventually acquired by the Fever in a draft-day trade in December 1999 to lead her hometown team into its first season of existence. A former Indiana Miss Basketball and a Purdue All-American, White played four pro seasons with the Fever where she was a teammate of current Fever star Tamika Catchings.

She played five pro seasons between 1999-04, capping her career with the Fever for whom she was annually one of the club's top playmakers, 3-point artists and free throw shooters. She still ranks prominently among franchise leaders in games played, minutes, 3-pointers, assists, steals, 3-point percentage and free throw percentage. Her 93 percent free throw shooting in 2003 remains a Fever record.

White's legacy as a prep and college star made her one of the state's most popular figures even before she donned a Fever uniform. Beginning with a prep career at nearby Seeger Memorial High School, White set early standards for basketball excellence while becoming an Indiana icon. She averaged 36.9 points and 13.1 rebounds per game while being named the 1995 national high school player of the year. She led Seeger to a 92-7 record over four seasons and finished her prep career with an Indiana record 2,869 points.

She took her game to Purdue and averaged double-figure scoring for the Boilermakers in four straight seasons. As a senior she averaged 20.2 points and 4.5 assists per game while earning the 1999 Wade Trophy as the national college player of the year. She led Purdue to its first NCAA title and finished second in school history in points and assists. She has since been inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame.

CRAIG STULL
ATHLETIC TRAINER

In his fourth year with the Fever franchise, Craig Stull is in his third season as the team's head athletic trainer.

An athletic trainer with St.Vincent Sports Performance, Stull was the Fever's assistant trainer in 2008 and has assisted with Indiana Pacers training duties during the winter. He served as an intern with the Indiana Pacers for two seasons from 2003-05, and again during the 2008-09 NBA season.

A 2005 graduate of the University of Indianapolis where he received a dual degree in athletic training and exercise science, he has his master's degree in rehabilitation science from the California University of Pennsylvania, which he completed in 2009. He received the Pursuit of Excellence Scholarship from the National Academy of Sports Medicine to pursue the degree.

The 28-year-old Stull is an avid fan of the Chicago Cubs. He resides in Brownsburg with his wife Trina and 9-month old son Owen.

EMILY NOVITSKY
STRENGTH COACH & PERFORMANCE SPECIALIST

Beginning her first season with the Indiana Fever is strength coach Emily Novitsky.

A performance specialist contracted with St.Vincent Sports Performance, Novitsky is responsible for the Fever players' overall strength, conditioning, flexibility and nutrition. She also represents St.Vincent while working with the USA Diving National Team and the Indiana Ice (USHL) who are both based in Indianapolis.

She has served a variety of youth and professional teams, including the Robert Morris University men's hockey team with whom she worked in 2009-10 prior to arriving in Indianapolis.

Novitsky hails from Pittsburgh, Pa., and played softball at Slippery Rock University. She earned a bachelor's degree from Slippery Rock in 2009 and received a master's degree in human performance from the California University of Pennsylvania, in 2010.

Novitsky is a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the National Academy of Sports Medicine and the American Red Cross.

2009: In training camp with the L.A. Sparks, she made one preseason appearance before being waived. She had four assists, two steals, two rebounds and six points in a preseason game against San Antonio, 5/8.

2009: She played in all but one game, starting three of the 33 and averaging 2.2 points, 1.4 assists and 10.7 minutes per game. She scored in double figures once with 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting with a pair of 3-pointers in 17 minutes against the Washington Mystics, 7/11. The game with Washington was one of two in which she made a season-best two 3-pt FG. She was also 2-3 from beyond the arc on her way to eight points against Seattle, 6/26.

2008: As a rookie she played in 26 games for the L.A. Sparks, including 17 as a starter. She averaged better than four points a game (4.1 ppg) and led the team with 3.5 assists per game which ranked 16th best in the WNBA.

PLAYOFFS

2009: She made appearances in three of the Sparks' six postseason games, totaling nine scoreless (0-4 FG) minutes with one rebound.

2008: A starter in all six of Los Angeles's playoff games, she averaged 4.5 points and 3.0 assists in 21.2 minutes per game.

PRO – OVERSEAS

2010-11: Beginning the season with Raanana Hertzilyya in Israel, she averaged 14.4 points, 5.2 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 2.8 steals in five games. She scored 10+ points in four of those games, including a high of 22, 11/1. She moved onto play 14 games for Elitzur Maclaren Holon, averaging 16.9 points, 3.9 rebounds, 1.3 steals and 4.9 assists, which ranked third in the league. She scored 20+ points in each of her first three games for Elitzur Holon, averaging 23.7 points in those three contests. She contributed a season-high 26 points in a loss to Ramat Hen, 12/13.

2009-10: She began the season with Maccabi Ramat Hen, where in 11 games she averaged 11.8 points, 3.2 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.4 steals. Released in December, she signed with CCC Polkowice in Poland's PLKK. In the Polish League, she averaged 10.5 points, 3.6 assists, 1.3 steals and 2.3 rebounds in 12 games.

2008-09: Playing overseas for the first time as a pro, she averaged 13.2 points, 6.1 assists and 1.85 steals in 20 games for Botasspor in Adana, Turkey.

COLLEGE

After two seasons at Trinity Valley Community College, Bobbitt transferred to the University of Tennessee where she helped the Vols to back-to-back national championships.

2007-08: As a senior, she was second on the team in both scoring (9.9 ppg) and assists (3.3 apg). She scored 20+ points three times as a senior, including a career-best 27 points vs. Oklahoma, 11/15. She led the Lady Vols with her 20 points at South Carolina, 1/13, and then tallied 22 points vs. Florida. Her 78 3-pt field goals not only topped the Lady Vols for the season, but were the third most in a single season by a Tennessee player. She dealt 10+ assists once, handing out a career-best 13 vs. Gonzaga, 12/16. She averaged 1.66 steals per game and had at least one theft 20 times in 38 games.

2006-07: She was named to the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament team after averaging 9.5 points and 3.5 steals in the final two games of the season. She was also named to the Dayton Regional All-Tournament team after pouring in 14 points on perfect shooting from beyond the arc (3-3) against Ole Miss and scoring in double figures (11) for the third straight game against Marist in the Sweet 16. She drilled six 3-pt FG at Alabama to tie for the second most in a game in program history.

JUNIOR COLLEGE

In 2006 as a freshman, she led the Trinity Valley Cardinals to the NJCAA National Tournament and the 2006 Region XIV Championship with a 30-2 record overall and 18-0 mark in conference play. For her efforts, she was named the 2006 Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Junior/Community College Player of the Year, and she also earned Kodak All-America honors. During her sophomore season, she handed out 211 assists to rank third in the nation (7.53 apg) and broke the 22-year old school record at Trinity Valley for her career in that category. While averaging 16.4 ppg, she ranked 27th in the nation in free throw percentage, knocking down 82.5 percent of her attempts (85-103). She ranked 28th in the nation with 91 steals (3.25).

PERSONAL

A native of Manhattan, she attended Murry Bergtraum High School in New York, where she helped to lead her team to two straight PSAL and State Federation titles. She averaged 13 points and eight assists per game as a prepster. She also starred at St. Raymond's before transferring to MBHS. As a sophomore at St. Raymond's, she was ranked as the second best player in the city behind former Tennessee teammate Nicky Anosike, who attended Bobbitt teamed with Candace Parker in winning two NCAA titles at Tennessee, then played with her again in Los Angeles.

St. Peter's. As a junior, she was a member of the Murry Bergtraum Lady Blazer squad that finished 30-0 and lay claim as the national high school champions. During her senior season, MBHS was 29-1 and finished third in the nation. She was named second-team all-state as a junior and first-team all-state as a senior. She was named to the NIKE Top 100 list, an adidas All-American and a finalist for the 2004 McDonald's All-America team. Shannon received her associate degree and graduated from Trinity Valley in June 2006, and majored in psychology at Tennessee. She has aspirations of some day becoming a nurse. While at Tennessee, her long range basketball goal was to become the Most Valuable Player in the WNBA. She has never patterned her game after any one player, but takes bits and pieces from a number of players to form her own style. She lives by the motto, "play as if God is my only audience." She enjoys shopping and she lists hearing the crowd cheer "when I do a dribble move and score" as her biggest thrill in sports. Her seven siblings include: Anthony Jr., Tyrone, Stevie, Eugene, Shareese, Christopher and the late Jennifer. Her full name is Shannon Denise Bobbitt.

(Duncanville, Texas)

College: Tennessee '01

Drafted: By Indiana, first round,
2001 WNBA Draft (3rd overall)

Indiana's "do-everything" forward returns for her 11th season in the WNBA after registering perhaps her finest year as a pro and earning an unprecedented fourth WNBA Defensive Player of the Year Award in 2010...Catchings led the Fever in points per game, rebounds, assists and steals in each of her first six active pro seasons and again in 2010 – no other WNBA player has led her team in as many categories in even one of those seasons...named the WNBA's Defensive Player of the Year in 2005, 2006, 2009 and 2010 ...second in WNBA MVP balloting the past two seasons, she has finished among the top three in balloting for the WNBA MVP Award in five of her nine active pro seasons...she has finished among the top five in MVP balloting in 8 of 9 active seasons, asserting herself as one of the world's premier players...she has scored in 279 of 280 games played in her pro career...she is a six-time WNBA All-Star and eight-time All-WNBA recipient...she has earned WNBA Player of the Week honors 14 times, third in WNBA history.

She has averaged 16.7 points, 7.6 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 2.5 steals per game during her career...she is the only player in WNBA history to rank among Top 25 all-time leaders in points (4,665, 8th), rebounds (2,134, 8th), assists (1,032, 10th), steals (708, 2nd) and blocks (248, 14th)...she also ranks among WNBA career leaders in free throws made (1,290, 4th) and 3-point field goals made (421, 9th)...she averages more steals per game (2.53) than any player in WNBA history with more than two seasons...among all-time steals leaders, she trails just Ticha Penicheiro (728) to begin the 2011 season...Catchings owns four of the top five single-season steals figures in league history and in 2009 finished just one shy of Teresa Weatherspoon's league record of 100 in a season (94 in 2006; 94 in 2002; 90 in 2005; 99 in 2009)...a member of the WNBA's 10th Anniversary All-Decade Team, awarded in 2006, she is the only player in WNBA history to ever rank in the league's top 10 in scoring, rebounding, assists, steals and blocked shots in the same season...Catchings, though, has done it twice – in 2002 and 2006...she has posted double-doubles in nearly one-fourth of her professional games (68-of-280).

Catchings is a two-time Olympic gold medalist for the United States, medaling at the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece, and again in 2008 in Beijing, China...she also helped the United States to a gold medal in the 2010 World Championships in Czech Republic...off the court, Catchings is one of the country's most highly-regarded citizen-athletes...within the past year, she was voted a Top 5 Finalist for the United Nations NGO Positive Peace Award and one of ten "Dream Team for Public Service" finalists for the Jefferson Award for outstanding service by an athlete...she was invited to President George W. Bush's State of the Union Address in 2004 and was named a finalist for the 2006 Wooden Citizenship Cup, presented annually to the nation's top professional athlete who exhibits outstanding community service...she was the 2008 female recipient of the Rotary Club of Tulsa Henry P. Iba Citizen-Athlete Award...she was the first recipient of the WNBA's Dawn Staley Leadership Award, presented in 2008 to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game...Catchings is the current president of the WNBA Players Association.

2011 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
#50 JESSICA DAVENPORT

Position: Center

WNBA Years: 4

Height: 6-5

Weight: 215

Born: June 24, 1985 in Columbus, Ohio

High School: Independence (Columbus, Ohio)

College: Ohio State '07

Drafted: By San Antonio, first round, 2007 WNBA Draft (2nd overall)

Acquired: Signed as a free agent, 6/17/09

Beginning her third Fever season and fifth WNBA season, Davenport has established herself as a fixture in the Indiana frontcourt...the No. 2 pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft, Davenport was signed by the Fever as a free agent four games into the 2009 regular season after being waived by the New York Liberty...the first Ohio State player ever to don a Fever uniform, she joins Katie Douglas as former players of the year in the Big Ten Conference...after seeing limited minutes during the 2009 regular season, she sparked Indiana in the WNBA Finals by scoring in double figures twice, including a career-high 18 points in the deciding Game 5.

PRO - WNBA

2010: Typically the Fever's first post player off the bench, Davenport saw action in 33 of 34 games, averaging 7.4 points in 14.2 minutes of action...she posted a franchise-record 57.1 percent shooting clip (96-of-168) and 0.82 blocks per game...she set another franchise record on 8-of-8 shooting while scoring a career-high 18 points at Connecticut, 6/11...she set a new career high with 12 rebounds at Atlanta, 8/1.

2009: Davenport, who was signed after a season-ending injury to Yolanda Griffith, played in 26 games...she averaged 2.8 points, 1.5 rebounds and 0.54 blocks...Davenport posted the team's highest field goal percentage while shooting 52.7 percent from the field...she ranked third in the WNBA in blocks per 40 minutes with 3.09...she was second on the team in blocks per game...had season-high 13 points twice, at San Antonio, 7/23, and at Connecticut, 9/13.

2008: After missing the first 19 games due to a tibial stress fracture she suffered while playing in France, Davenport saw action in 14 of the Liberty's final 15 games...she scored 10+ points in three straight starts from 9/9 to 9/12, the first such streak in her career...she tied a career-high with 15 points vs. San Antonio, 9/9...in that game against the Silver Stars, she added nine rebounds and two assists...she led the Liberty with 12 points and six rebounds in a 74-59 loss to the Fever, 9/11...her six rebounds against the Fever included a career-high four offensive rebounds...she led the Liberty to its final win of 2008 with the first double-double of her brief career, scoring 10 points and grabbing a career-best 10 rebounds in a 69-62 win over Chicago, 9/12.

2007: The second overall pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft by San Antonio, her rights were acquired on the night of the draft, along with the Silver Stars' 2008 first round draft pick, by New York in exchange for Becky Hammon and the Liberty's 2007 second round draft pick...as a rookie, she played in 33 of 34 games and started 13...she averaged 5.3 points and 2.7 rebounds per game...she shot 81.8 percent from the foul line (54-of-66), ranking second on the team...she was third among all WNBA rookies that had at least 40 attempts from the foul line...having shot 61-of-137 from the floor (.445), she led all rookies in blocked shots with 29 and ranked 16th in the WNBA with an average of 0.88 bpg...in just the third game of her career, she rejected a career-high four shots at Minnesota, 6/1, which tied the most blocks by any New York player during the season...she scored a career-high 15 points vs. Phoenix, 6/3, and scored 10+ points a total of five times.

PLAYOFFS

2010: Davenport averaged 7.0 points and 5.3 rebounds in the Eastern Conference Semifinals against New York...she was second on the team with 16 rebounds in three games, including a team-high eight boards in Game 1.

2009: Davenport played in nine games for the Fever, averaging 4.1 points, 1.2 rebounds and 0.89 blocks per game...she led the team with 56 percent shooting from the floor...Davenport was third on the team in blocks...in Game 5 of the WNBA Finals at Phoenix, 10/9, she had a playoff career-high 18 points on 8-for-11 shooting, along with two blocks...in Game 2 of the WNBA Finals at Phoenix on 10/1, she had 10 points and a playoff career-best three blocks.

2008: She played in four of the Liberty's six postseason games, scoring 10 points with five rebounds, a steal and a blocked shot in 25 minutes...in New York's two-point loss in Game 3 of the Eastern Conference Finals, 9/28, she scored a postseason career-high five points.

2007: She played in two games of a three-game series with Detroit, scoring three points and adding three boards...all three of her rebounds came in the opening game of the series, 8/24.

Davenport was the Big Ten Conference's first three-time conference player of the year.

#23 KATIE DOUGLAS

Position: Guard/Forward
WNBA Years: 10
Height: 6-0
Weight: 165
Born: May 7, 1979 in Indianapolis, Indiana
High School: Perry Meridian (Indianapolis, Indiana)

College: Purdue '01
Drafted: By Orlando, first round, 2001 WNBA Draft (10th overall) Acquired: From Connecticut, 2/19/08, in exchange for Tamika Whitmore, Indiana's 2008 first-round draft pick and rights to Jessica Foley.

A three-time WNBA All-Star, four-time All-WNBA selection and a four-time member of the WNBA's All-Defensive Team, Katie Douglas begins her fourth summer in her hometown of Indianapolis...in just her first three seasons with the Fever, she has become one of seven 1,000-point scorers in franchise history...she already is the second-leading scorer in Fever history and ranks second to Tamika Catchings in most shooting categories...Douglas is a well-rounded guard who can pass, shoot, defend and handle the ball...she is capable of playing both guard spots...her lanky build makes her a tough matchup for opposing guards...she is adept at stepping into passing lanes for steals...one of the league's premier defenders and eighth in WNBA history with 497 steals, she joins Fever teammates Tamika Catchings (2nd) and Tangelia Smith (14th) among the WNBA's career steals leaders...she ranks fifth in WNBA history with 510 career 3-point field goals...she ranks 15th in WNBA history with 4,108 points...she still holds the Connecticut single-season franchise record for made 3-pointers (73).

PRO - WNBA

2010: A 34-game starter, Douglas joined Tamika Catchings as the only Fever players with over 1,000 minutes (1,014)...she was second on the club with 13.7 points, 3.3 assists and 1.35 steals per game while leading Indiana with 68 3-pointers...Douglas earned All-WNBA second-team recognition in addition to making the WNBA All-Defensive squad...while representing the Fever in the USA vs. WNBA: Stars at the Sun midseason classic, Douglas became the first Indiana player to win an All-Star skills competition by winning the 3-point shooting contest...she posted a season-high 29 points in a road loss at Seattle, 6/25...she became the first player in league history with 500 steals and 500 3-point field goals when she hit her 500th 3-pointer against Atlanta, 8/6.

#1 SHAVONTE ZELLOUS

Position: GuardWNBA Years: 2Height: 5-10Weight: 155Born: August 28, 1986 in Orlando, Fla.High School: Jones (Orlando, Fla.)College: Pittsburgh '09Drafted: By Detroit, first round, 2009 WNBA Draft (11th overall)Acquired: From Tulsa, 5/27/10, in exchange for a 2011 second-round draft pick

Beginning her second year in Indiana, Zellous was acquired in a May 27, 2010 trade with the Tulsa Shock...she is an athletic shooting guard with an uncanny ability to get to the free throw line...in her rookie season with Detroit in 2009, Zellous made 155 free throws, second in the WNBA to the Fever's Tamika Catchings (158).

PRO – WNBA

2010: Zellous played four games with the Tulsa Shock before being traded to Indiana...with the Fever, she appeared in 27 games without a start...she logged 15.5 minutes per game with the Fever, averaging 5.9 points and 2.1 rebounds...her first game with the Fever came against the Shock, ironically, in Tulsa just one day after the trade occurred...in her next three games with the Fever, she netted 10, 23 and 10 points...her season scoring high was 23 against New York, 6/5, in a game that included 10 free throws out of 12 attempts...she scored 16 points against Tulsa, 7/8...she posted season highs of six rebounds and six assists at Connecticut, 8/15.

2009: A member of the WNBA's All-Rookie First Team, she averaged 11.9 ppg for the Detroit Shock and was second in the league with 155 free throws made, behind Tamika Catchings...she started the season's first four games, averaging 7.5 ppg...she then scored in double figures in 23 of the last 30 games and averaged 12.5 ppg in those outings, all off the bench...she scored a season-high 25 points vs. Atlanta, 6/26, and in that game set a franchise record with 17 free throws made...her 19 free throw attempts against the Dream tied for second most in a single game in Shock history...she scored 10+ points in 13 straight games from August 9 to September 9...she scored 20+ points four times, including 20 points in the season finale at Chicago, 9/12...she made at least 10 free throws four times...in her first game off the bench, she scored 13 points against the Fever, 6/21, including a pair of 3-pointers...she averaged 2.0 apg for the season, but handed out nearly three-and-a-half assists a game over the season's final 10 games...she averaged 3.4 apg in that span with at least four assists on five occasions...she had a season-best five assists three times, all of which came in the season's last 10 contests...she was fifth on the team with 27 steals, which was tops among Shock reserves and third-best among all WNBA rookies behind Angel McCoughtry and Briann January.

PLAYOFFS

2010: Zellous averaged 4.0 points per game during a three-game conference semifinal series against the New York Liberty.

2009: Zellous helped spark Detroit to the Eastern Conference Finals with a playoff average of 15.6 points per game...her playoff high of 23 points came in Game 1 of the East Finals in Detroit where she hit 10-of-11 free throws.

PRO – OVERSEAS

2010-11: Zellous began the winter playing with TTT-Riga in Latvia, but after 10 games and elimination from EuroLeague competition, she signed with Electra Ramat in Israel...she averaged 15.3 points, 5.8 rebounds and 3.0 assists with TTT-Riga; and 12.3 points, 7.8 rebounds and 4.7 assists with Eletra Ramat.

2009-10: Playing for Besiktas in Istanbul, Turkey, she averaged 15.3 points, 6.0 rebounds, 3.6 assists and 1.2 steals per game in 21 Turkish League games...she tallied 20 or more points four times with a season-best 26 points against Mersin, 4/22...she recorded two double-doubles, including 19 points and a season-high 11 rebounds vs. Ceyhan Bid, 12/13...she notched 21 points and 10 rebounds vs. TED Kayseri, 1/31...she played in six EuroCup games for Besiktas, averaging 17.0 points, 5.0 points and 4.2 assists per game...she scored 20+ points twice, including 22 points vs. Chevakarta, 12/3, and 21 points in the team's EuroCup opener vs. Chevakarta, 11/12.

COLLEGE

An All-Big East First Team honoree in each of her last three seasons at Pittsburgh, she was named the Big East's Most Improved Player in 2007...she was selected to the NCAA Spokane Region All-Tournament Team in 2008...she averaged 22.6 points, 5.7 rebounds, 2.9 assists and 1.1 steals per game as a senior in 2008-09, ranking first on the team and sixth in the nation in scoring...she scored her 2,000th career point against Notre Dame, 2/3/09, becoming just the third player in Pitt women's history and just the fifth Pitt player ever to reach that milestone...she was also just the 13th player in Big East history to have scored 2,000 points.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Tangela Allen, she has one younger brother...she graduated prior to her senior season at Pittsburgh with a bachelor of science degree in administration of justice and pursued a second degree while completing her eligibility.

FRANCHISE HISTORY

Fantastic!

GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

JUNE 7, 1999

Indianapolis, Miami, Portland and Seattle awarded WNBA expansion franchises to begin play in 2000.

JUNE 25, 1999

Sold 1,000th season ticket to Dorothy Mengering, the mother of late-night talk show host David Letterman.

JULY 22, 1999

Hired Kelly Krauskopf as the team's first Chief Operating Officer. Krauskopf becomes the highest-ranking female front office executive at any of the city's professional sports franchises.

JULY 30, 1999

Sold 2,000th season ticket to Indianapolis 500 veteran racecar driver Lyn St. James. "When the WNBA was initially launched in 1997, I was actually surprised that Indianapolis, with its tremendous basketball tradition and the support that surrounds basketball here, was not one of the cities on the list," St. James said. "I am certainly pleased to see that Indianapolis has now been awarded a franchise, and I am confident that the team will be embraced by the loyal basketball fans in Indiana."

AUGUST 13, 1999

Sold 3,000th season ticket to San Diego Padres' All-Star outfielder Tony Gwynn, just days after he became the 22nd player in Major League Baseball history to reach the 3,000-hit plateau. "I was glad to hear that Indiana was awarded a franchise," Gwynn said, who has a home in Indianapolis. "I have seen first hand how kids look up to professional athletes. My wife and I are looking forward to the opportunity for our kids to watch these WNBA players, who are not only great athletes, but great role models."

AUGUST 17, 1999

Named Nell Fortner as the team's first head coach and general manager. Already committed to the U.S. women's national team through the 2000 Olympic Games, Fortner is scheduled to join the team in 2001, following her Olympic commitment.

AUGUST 27, 1999

Sold 4,500th season ticket to Grammy Award-winning recording artist and Anderson, Ind., native Sandi Patty. "I have come to love and respect women's sports, and I think this is a wonderful opportunity for Indianapolis and the state of Indiana," Patty said. The team also announces its 2000 individual game ticket prices at a press conference at Market Square Arena. The average ticket price to attend a WNBA game at Consecro Fieldhouse will be $13, with prices ranging from $5 to $85.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1999

Sold 5,000th season ticket to Indiana Pacers Head Coach Larry Bird. "I think Indiana's WNBA franchise will be a huge success, and I'm happy to be a part of helping to ensure that success," Bird said. "Indiana fans love their basketball and I think they will embrace the WNBA team and the high quality of play it will bring to Indiana," Bird said.

OCTOBER 1, 1999

Sold 5,500th season ticket to former U.S. Senator Birch Bayh, enabling the franchise to meet the league's minimum goal two weeks ahead of schedule. Said Bayh, "I have long believed that both our daughters and our sons need to experience the benefits that come with participating in sporting activities." Bayh introduced the 1972 Title IX law, which provided equal opportunities for female participation in athletics.

OCTOBER 12, 1999

WNBA President Val Ackerman visits Indianapolis as the guest speaker at a WNBA corporate luncheon. Ackerman speaks to 220 corporate representatives at The Columbia Club on Monument Circle.

OCTOBER 20, 1999

Named Hall-of-Famer Anne Donovan as the team's head coach for the 2000 season. Donovan will coach the team in the absence of Fortner and become the team's lead assistant coach upon Fortner's return.

NOVEMBER 15, 1999

Awarded the first pick in the 2000 WNBA Expansion Draft in a random drawing at the WNBA League Meetings when the team's designated ping-pong ball was the first out of the selection receptacle.

DECEMBER 15, 1999

Selected Gordana Grubin (Los Angeles) with the first pick, Sandy Brondello (Detroit) with the eighth pick, Nyree Roberts (Washington) with the ninth pick, Kara Wolters (Houston) with the 16th pick, Rita Williams (Washington) with the 17th pick and Chantel Tremiere (Utah) with the 24th pick in the 2000 WNBA Expansion Draft. Acquired Stephanie White from Miami, in exchange for Sandy Brondello and a first-round pick in the 2000 WNBA Draft. Acquired Monica Maxwell from Washington, in exchange for selecting Nyree Roberts and a fourth-round pick in the 2000 WNBA Draft.

DECEMBER 17, 1999

Unveiled team name and logo before 300 in attendance at the Arts Garden in Circle Centre Mall. Pacers Sports & Entertainment President Donnie Walsh, Fever Chief Operating Officer Kelly Krauskopf, Head Coach Anne Donovan, Indianapolis Mayor Stephen Goldsmith and Stephanie White speak at the unveiling.

APRIL 28, 2000

Chris Denari was named the team's first radio and television play-by-play announcer.

APRIL 29, 2000

Local tryouts conducted at Butler University's Hinkle Fieldhouse, with over 200 women competing with hopes of landing a spot on the 11-player Fever roster. After two days of basketball, one player, Texlin Quinney from Buffalo, N.Y., made the final cut and found herself on the Fever's opening day roster.

MAY 1, 2000

Members of the media get their first glimpse of the new WNBA franchise as the morning begins with media day. Later that day, the team opens training camp and holds its first practice on Emmis Court in Consecro Fieldhouse. Karen Wilkins, Shantel Hardison, Monick Foote, Stacey Lovelace, Katasha Artis, Donna Harrington, Alicia Thompson and Texlin Quinney are assigned to the Fever by the WNBA.

The Fever's home opener in its 10th anniversary season (2009) was exactly 10 years to the day after the franchise was founded.

GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

MAY 10, 2000

Conducted first public practice on the main court of Conesco Fieldhouse. Following the 40-minute practice session, fans remained to watch the Indiana Pacers at Philadelphia 76ers in Game 3 of the NBA Eastern Conference Semifinals. The game was broadcast live on the Conesco Fieldhouse scoreboard.

MAY 20, 2000

First preseason game features a Purdue University reunion at Mackey Arena, as the Fever host the Orlando Miracle at West Lafayette. Orlando is coached by Carolyn Peck, who had been the head coach of the 1999 National Champion Purdue women's team that included current Fever player Stephanie White.

MAY 26, 2000

Concluded a four-game preseason schedule with a win at Orlando. Indiana finishes the preseason with a 1-3 mark after dropping its first three games - two to Sacramento and one to Orlando.

MAY 28, 2000

The Fever's inaugural season opening-day roster: Usha Gilmore, Donna Harrington, Monica Maxwell, Stephanie White, Texlin Quinney, Jurgita Streimikyte, Alicia Thompson, Chantel Tremiere, Beverly Williams, Rita Williams and Kara Wolters.

JUNE 1, 2000

First regular season game in franchise history takes place at Miami. The nationally televised game airs on Lifetime Television for Women. The Fever trailed most of the game until a Rita Williams' 3-pt FG with 2:48 remaining gives the franchise its first lead and its first victory, 57-54.

JUNE 3, 2000

GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

JULY 12, 2006

Tamika Catchings was the WNBA's leading vote-getter for the WNBA All-Star Game, but is held from participation because of injury. Teammate Tamika Whitmore attended her first All-Star Game, scoring nine points in an East victory.

JULY 29, 2006

Despite a home loss to Washington, the Fever clinched its third playoff berth, and its second in two seasons. With eight games and two weeks remaining in the regular season, it was the earliest that Indiana had ever clinched a playoff spot.

AUGUST 11, 2006

Anna DeForge scored 20 points to pace the Fever in an 87-68 win at Connecticut, matching the club record with its 21st victory of the season. At 21-12, it also marked the first time in franchise history that the club moved nine games over .500.

AUGUST 17, 2006

Tamika Catchings named WNBA Defensive Player of the Year for a second straight season. She joined Tully Bevilacqua on the WNBA All-Defense First Team.

AUGUST 19, 2006

Tamika Whitmore posted one of the most memorable games in WNBA Playoff history by scoring a record 41 points in a Game 2 loss at Detroit. Whitmore had 16 points by halftime, added 15 points in the third and 10 in the fourth quarter as the Fever fell short in a 98-83 decision to close the first round of the playoffs. With Tamika Catchings injured much of the second half, Whitmore was virtually unstoppable. She finished 15-of-25 shooting and was 10-of-10 at the foul line. She also added a team-high 10 rebounds.

JULY 15, 2007

Paced by starters Anna DeForge and Tamika Catchings and joined by Tammy Sutton-Brown, the Fever was represented by three players in the WNBA All-Star Game – the most in its history. DeForge's jumper with 39 seconds remaining iced the East's win. Catchings finished with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

JULY 18, 2007

Following a 75-74 home defeat of the Chicago Sky, the Fever moved to 16-4 overall and claimed the best 20-game record in the history of the Eastern Conference. The win capped a franchise-record six-game win streak and gave the Fever the best record in the WNBA. The Fever's afternoon crowd of 10,542 was its best daytime crowd in history.

AUGUST 23, 2007

Connecticut beat Indiana 93-88, at Connecticut, in what was the first triple overtime game in WNBA Playoffs history. Indiana was led by Anna DeForge's 31 points and Tamika Catchings' 20 rebounds. It was Catchings' first game since July 20.

AUGUST 27, 2007

In a decisive Game 3 of a first-round playoff series with Connecticut, Indiana staged the largest comeback in WNBA Playoffs history to advance to the Eastern Conference Finals. Trailing by 22 in the second quarter, the Fever rallied and sent the game into overtime. Tamika Catchings led the assault with 30 points, 13 rebounds and six assists.

AUGUST 31, 2007

The Pac-10 Player of the Year and an Associated Press First Team All-American, Jeanette Pohlen was the catalyst of a Stanford team that was ranked among the country's top teams throughout the 2010-11 college season. She guided the Cardinal to a 33-3 record as a senior, culminating in a national semifinal loss to Texas A&M in the same arena, Consecro Fieldhouse, which she will begin her pro career. The first Stanford player to be drafted by the Fever, Pohlen capped her senior season with career highs of 14.5 points and 4.8 assists per game while shooting 41.7 percent from 3-point range. She broke Stanford's single-season record for 3-pointers made with 96 and became just the fourth player in Stanford history to record 1,000 points, 500 assists and 400 rebounds in her career.

Champion, 3-point shooting competition

• The 2010 All-Star showcase was billed as "Stars at the Sun," in a USA vs. WNBA format designed to serve as a training competition for USA Basketball, prior to the 2010 World Championships. Fan balloting determined guaranteed participants in the game. Tamika Catchings represented USA Basketball. Katie Douglas played for the WNBA.

• No All-Star Game was conducted in 2008, due to a tightened schedule to accommodate the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China.

• No All-Star Game was conducted in 2004. Natalie Williams represented the WNBA as part of a WNBA Select Team vs. Team USA exhibition at Radio City Music Hall in New York (Aug. 5, 2004). Tamika Catchings played for Team USA as part of training prior to the 2004 Olympics.

Katie Douglas won the 2010 WNBA 3-point shooting competition to become the first Fever player to win a WNBA skills competition.

HONOR ROLL

In 2009, Fever coach Lin Dunn became the first Indiana coach named to lead the Eastern Conference All-Star Team. She was joined at the All-Star Game, played at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn., by assistant coaches Gary Kloppenburg (left) and Jim Lewis (right) and trainer Craig Stull (not pictured). Representing the Fever on the team were All-Star starters Tamika Catchings (24) and Katie Douglas (23). Both Fever starters were selected by fan balloting. Catchings was the league's top overall vote-getter.

Lin Dunn was the first Fever coach ever named to lead the Eastern Conference All-Star Team.

HISTORY

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996, there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

- Val Ackerman -- the first president of the WNBA
- Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA
- Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player
- Houston Comets -- the first WNBA Champions
- Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)
- Lauren Jackson -- the first international player to win MVP (2007)
- Candace Parker -- the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)
- Sylvia Fowles -- the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A GROWING GAME

The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 14 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and the league reflects this trend, featuring 20 international players from 13 countries and territories at the end of the 2010 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277 percent since 1991 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 17 percent since 1991 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1991 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

ALL-STAR GAME

The San Antonio Silver Stars and the AT&T Center will host the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game in San Antonio on Saturday, July 23, 2011.

In place of the All-Star Game last season, the league hosted a special event, "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun" at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville Conn. on July 10, 2010. The event showcased the world's best female basketball players under one roof and helped the USA Basketball Women's National Team prepare for the upcoming FIBA World Championship that fall. The USAB squad, featuring 10 WNBA players and one collegian, defeated a team of WNBA stars 99-72. Sylvia Fowles of the Chicago Sky and playing for USAB, earned game MVP honors. University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma coached the U.S. squad while Seattle Storm Head Coach Brian Agler led the WNBA.

The first WNBA All-Star Game was held in New York at Madison Square Garden in 1999. The Garden also hosted the event in 2003 and in 2006. Washington's Verizon Center (2002, 2007) is the other venue to host the game multiple times. Other All-Star Games were played in Phoenix (2000), Orlando (2001) and at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. (2009). Due to the Olympics, no All-Star Game was held in 2004 and 2008, although Radio City Music Hall in New York City was the site of an exhibition game on Aug. 5, 2004, as the U.S. National Team, comprised mainly of WNBA greats, faced a squad of WNBA All-Stars in "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Game at Radio City."

INSPIRING COACH

The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to recognize coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma earned the honor in 2010 for his profound impact on female athletes and his demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Pat Summit, Kay Yow, and Jody Conradt.

The new WNBA President in 2011, Laurel Richie follows Donna Orender and Val Ackerman as the league's top executive.

WNBA HISTORY

INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice (2010), Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts (2009), Good Morning America's Robin Roberts (2008), Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (2007) and the WNBA All-Decade Team (2006).

DAWN STALEY AWARD

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Winners include Chamique Holdscraw (2009), Tamika Raymond (2008) and Tamika Catchings (2007). A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

MARKETING

The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing and Promotional Partners: adidas, American Express, Bacardi, BBVA, CieAura, Coca-Cola, EA, Gatorade, General Mills/Wheaties, Hayworth, HP, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) Hotels, Jamba Juice, NewTek, Nike, Panasonic, Pepperidge Farm, Russell Athletic, Sanofi Aventis, Sanofi Pasteur, Spalding, T-Mobile

Media Partners: USA Today, Parenting Group, Essence, Heart & Soul

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fanbase of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

The WNBA has an extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas. The sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 and again in 2011 – but also served as the presenter of the WNBA Draft since 2007. In 2008 adidas became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

Five WNBA teams have entered the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, the Los Angeles Sparks with Farmers Insurance Group, the Seattle Storm with Microsoft search engine Bing, the New York Liberty with Foxwoods Resort Casino, and the Washington Mystics with Inova Health System.

ATTENDANCE /TV RATINGS

The WNBA concluded the 2010 regular season with its fourth consecutive year of increased attendance. Postseason attendance increased for the third consecutive year, finishing up 36 percent over 2009.

For Games 2 and 3 of the 2010 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 15 percent from 2009 and 79 percent from 2008.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 318,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2010 included more than 30 live national telecasts of regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 40-plus games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2011 will include 70 high-definition regular-season, playoff, and Finals games on ESPN2, ABC and NBA TV. In addition, all WNBA games are available online via WNBA LiveAccess unless: (a) They are televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com, or (b) They are televised at the same time a game is televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tipped off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2010, for the fourth straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. In addition, for the fifth consecutive year, fans around the globe are able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on WNBA.com.

At the conclusion of the 2010 regular season, WNBA rosters featured 20 international players from 13 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent were the league's MVP, Seattle Storm forward/center Lauren Jackson (Australia), the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and the Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal). They will be joined in 2011 by Tulsa's Elizabeth Camburg (Australia), whom the Shock selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2011 Draft.

WNBA DRAFT

The 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place on April 11 at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. It marked the first professional sports league draft held on the ESPN campus. The Minnesota Lynx selected University of Connecticut's Maya Moore as the top overall pick. The Tulsa Shock selected Elizabeth Cambage second, the Chicago Sky tabbed Courtney Vandersloot third, the Lynx chose Amber Harris fourth, and the Los Angeles Sparks took Jantel Lavender fifth to round out the first five selections.

OWNERSHIP

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Tulsa Shock.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. began play in 2010. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel, and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Entering the 2011 season, 10 women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty, Mary Brock, and Kelly Loeffler (Atlanta); and Dawn Trudeau, Ginny Gilder, and Lisa Brummel (Seattle Storm). A 10th, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Dr. Sheila Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

In 2010, Tina Thompson of the Los Angeles Sparks became the all-time scoring leader with 6,413 points, surpassing her former teammate, Lisa Leslie (6,263) who retired following the 2009 season.

Tina Charles won the 2010 WNBA Rookie of the Year award after averaging 15.5 ppg, 11.7 rpg, and 1.7 bpg, while also setting league records for most total rebounds (398) and doubles-doubles (22) in a single season.

Lauren Jackson won the 2010 WNBA MVP presented by Kia Motors award and also took home 2010 WNBA Finals MVP honors. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first – and only – WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star, and Finals MVP awards during the same season (2001).

Jackson also became the third player to earn WNBA MVP honors three times (2003, 2007, 2010), joining the Sparks' Lisa Leslie (2001, 2004, 2006) and the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes (2000, 2002, 2005). Houston's Cynthia Cooper earned the award twice (1997, 1998). The others to capture MVP honors are the Sacramento Monarchs' Yolanda Griffith (1999), the Sparks' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award), and the Phoenix Mercury's Diana Taurasi (2009).

Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the same season (2008). The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game.

Lauren Jackson became the WNBA's youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. Diana Taurasi subsequently surpassed Jackson as the fastest to 4,000 points in terms of fewest games played when she reached the milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

Lisa Leslie became the first player to dunk in a WNBA game when she did so on July 30, 2002 vs. the Miami Sol. Candace Parker, also of the Sparks, was the second, throwing down a dunk vs. the Indiana Fever on June 22, 2008.

WNBA CARES

Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week, Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit and Read to Achieve.

From statistics to awards to milestones, Fever forward Tamika Catchings is one of the WNBA's most elite veteran stars.

2011 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
WNBA PLAYOFFS FORMAT

The top four teams from each conference will qualify for the 2011 WNBA Playoffs. The first and fourth-place teams, and the second and third-place teams, will each play a best-of-three conference semifinal series. The winners of the semifinal series in each conference will then play in a best-of-three conference final.

TIEBREAKER PROCEDURE

The following tiebreak procedure shall be used to break ties for playoff eligibility, home court advantage and draft order. In determining draft order, non-playoff teams will always select before playoff teams.

TWO-WAY TIE BETWEEN TEAMS IN THE SAME CONFERENCE

1. Better record in head-to-head games
2. Better winning percentage in own conference
3. Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season
4. Better point differential in games head-to-head
5. Coin toss

TWO-WAY TIE BETWEEN TEAMS IN THE DIFFERENT CONFERENCE

In order to break a tie, the following criteria will be utilized in the order set forth:

1. Better record in head-to-head games
2. Better winning percentage against teams in the opposite conference
3. Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season
4. Better point differential in games head-to-head
5. Coin toss

MORE THAN TWO TEAMS TIED

As many teams as possible will be eliminated at each step. As soon as one or more teams are eliminated at any step, the process must begin again from step (1).

1. Better winning percentage among all head-to-head games involving tied teams
2. Better winning percentage against teams in own conference (if all teams are from the same conference) or better record against teams in the opposite conference (if one or more teams are in different conferences)
3. Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season
4. Better point differential in games involving tied teams
5. Coin toss

SCHEDULING

Conference Semifinals

The first and second place teams in each conference will have home court advantage in the Conference Semifinals and will host Game 1 and, if necessary, Game 3 of the series.

Conference Finals

The team with the better regular season record will have home court advantage in the Conference Finals and will host Game 1 and, if necessary, Game 3 of the series.

WNBA Finals

The team with the better regular season record will have home court advantage in the WNBA Finals. The championship series will be played in a 2-2-1 format with the higher seed hosting the first two games and the final game, if necessary.
